GENESIS

Chapter 1

1 In ye begynnyng God created heauen & earth:
 2 and ye earth was voyde and emptie, and darcknes was vpon the depe, & ye sprete of God moued vpo the water.
 3 And God sayde: let there be light, & there was light.
 4 And God sawe the light that it was good. Then God deuoyded ye light from the darcknes,
 5 and called the light, Daye: and the darcknes, Night Then of the euenyng and mornynge was made the first daye.
 6 And God sayde: let there be a firmament betwene the waters, and let it deuoyde ye waters a sunder.
 7 Then God made ye firmamet, and parted the waters vnder the firmamet, from the waters about the firmament: And so it came to passe.
 8 And God called ye firmament, Heauen. Then of the euenyng & mornynge was made the seconde daye.
 9 And God sayde: let the waters vnder heauen gather theselues vnto one place, yt the drye londe maye appeare. And so it came to passe.
 10 And God called ye drye londe, Earth: and the gatheringe together of waters called he, ye See. And God sawe yt it was good.
 11 And God sayde: let ye earth bringe forth grene grasse and herbe, that beareth se: & frutefull trees, that maye beare frute, euery one after his kynde, hauynge their owne se in them selues vpon the earth. And so it came to passe.
 12 And the earth brought forth grene grasse and herbe, yt beareth se euery one after his kynde, & trees bearinge frute, & hauynge their owne se in them selues, euery one after his kynde. And God sawe that it was good.
 13 Then of the euenyng & mornynge was made the thirde daye.
 14 And God sayde: let there be lightes in ye firmament of heauen, to deuoyde the daye fro the night, that they maye be vnto tokes, seasons, dayes, and yeares.
 15 And let them be lightes in ye firmament of heauen, to shyne vpon the earth: And so it came to passe.
 16 And God made two grete lightes: one greater light to rule the daye, and a lesse light to rule the night, and (he made) starres also.
 17 And God set them in the firmament of heauen, yt they might shyne vpo earth, 18 and to rule the daye and the night, and to deuoyde the light from darcknes. And God sawe that it was good.
 19 Then of the euenyng and mornynge was made the fourth daye.
 20 And God sayde: let the waters brynge forth creatures that moue and haue life, & foules for to flye about the earth vnder the firmamet of heauen.
 21 And God created grete whalles, and all maner of creatures that lyue and moue, which the waters brought forth euery one after his kynde: and all maner of fethered foules, euery one after his kynde. And God sawe that it was good, 22 and blessed them, sayenge: Growe, and multiplie, and fyll the waters of the sees, and let the foules multiplie vpon the earth.

 23 Then of the euenyng and mornynge was made the fifth daye.
 24 And God sayde: let ye earth brynge forth lyuynge soules, euery one after his kynde: catell, wormes & what as hath life vpon earth, euery one after his kynde. And so it came to passe.
 25 And God made ye bestes of the earth euery one after his kynde, and catell after their kynde, and all maner wormes of the earth after their kynde. And God sawe that it was good.
 26 And God sayde: let vs make man in or similitude after oure licknesse, that he maye haue rule ouer the fysh of the see, and ouer the foules vnder ye heauen, and ouer catell, and ouer all the earth, and ouer all wormes that crepe on ye earth.
 27 And God created man after his licknesse: after ye licknesse of God created he him, male & female created he them.
 28 And God blessed them, and sayde vnto them: Growe, and multiplie, and fyll the earth, and subdue it, & haue domynion ouer the fish of the see, and ouer the foules of the ayre, and ouer all the bestes that crepe vpo the earth.
 29 And God sayde: lo, I haue geuen you all maner herbes that beare se vpon the whole earth, and all maner frutefull trees that beare se, to be meate for you.
 30 And to all bestes of the earth, and to all foules vnder the heauen, and to euery worme that hath life (vpon earth) all maner grene herbes to eate. And so it came to passe.
 31 And God behelde all yt he had made, and lo, they were exceadinge good. Then of the euenyng and mornynge was made the sixte daye.

Chapter 2

1 Thus was heaue and earth fynished with all their hoost,
 2 and thus in the seuenth daye God ended his worke, which he had made, & rested in the seuenth daye from all his workes which he had made:
 3 And blessed the seuenth daye, & sanctified it, because yt in it he rested from all his workes, which God created and made.
 4 These are the generacions of heaue and earth whan they were created, in the tyme whan the LORDE God made heauen and earth:
 5 before there was eny twygg vpon earth, and or euer there grew eny grene herbe vpon the felde. For the LORDE God had yet sent no rayne vpon ye earth, nether was there eny man to tylle the earth.
 6 But there arose a myst from the earth,

& watered all the londe.
 7 And ye LORDE God shope man eue of the moule of the earth, & brethed in to his face ye breth of life. And so was man made a lyuynge soule.
 8 The LORDE God also planted a garde of pleasure in Eden, towarde ye east, and set man therin whom he had made.
 9 And the LORDE God caused to sprynge out of the earth all maner trees, pleasaut to loke vpo, and good to eate: and the tre of life in the myddest of the garden, and the tre of knowlege of good and euell.
 10 And out of Eden there wente a ryuer, to water the garden, and there deuoyded it selfe into foure heade waters.
 11 The first is called Phison, which renneth aboute all the londe of Heuyl.
 12 And there is founde golde, (& the golde of that countre is precious,) and there is founde Bedellion, and the precious stone Onix.
 13 The second water is called Gihon, which runneth aboute the whole londe of ye Morias.
 14 The thirde water is called Hydeckell, which runneth towarde the east syde of ye Assirias. The fourth water is Euphrates.
 15 And the LORDE God toke man, & set him in the pleasaunt garden of Eden, to dresse it & to kepe it.
 16 And the LORDE God commaunded man, sayege: Thou shalt eate of all maner trees in ye garden:
 17 But of ye tre of knowlege of good and euell, shalt thou not eate. For loke in what daye so euer thou eatest therof, thou shalt dye the death.
 18 And the LORDE God sayde: It is not good yt ma shulde be alone. I wil make him an helpe, to beare him copany.
 19 And whan God the LORDE had made of the earth all maner bestes of the felde, & all maner foules vnder the heaue, he brought them vnto man, to se what he wolde call the: For as ma called all maner of liuynge soules, so are their names.
 20 And man gaue names vnto all maner catell, & vnto the foules vnder the heaue, and vnto all maner bestes of ye felde. But vnto man there was founde no helpe, to beare him company.
 21 Then the LORDE God caused an herde slepe to fall vpon man, and he slepte. And he toke out one of his rybbes, and (in steade therof) he fylled vp ye place with flesh.
 22 And the LORDE God made a woman, of ye rybbe that he toke out of man, and brought her vnto him.
 23 Then sayde man: This is once bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. She shalbe called woman, because she was take of man.
 24 For this cause shal a man leaue father and mother, and cleue vnto his wife, & they two shalbe one flesh.
 25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

Chapter 3

1 Bvt the serpent was sotyller then all the bestes of the felde (which ye LORDE God had made) and sayde vnto the woman: Yee, hath God sayde indede: Ye shall not eate of all maner trees in the garden?
 2 Then sayde the woman vnto the serpent: We eate of the frute of the trees in the garden:
 3 But as for the frute of the tre that is in the myddes of the garden, God hath sayde: Eate not ye of it, and touch it not, lest ye dye.
 4 Then saide the serpent vnto the woman: Tush, ye shall not dye the death.
 5 For God doth knowe, that in what daye so euer ye eate of it, youre eyes shalbe opened, and ye shalbe as God, and knowe both good and euell.
 6 And the woman sawe that ye tre was good to eate of, and lustye vnto the eyes, and a pleasaunt tre to make wyse, and toke of the frute of it, and ate, and gaue vnto hir husbnde also therof, and he ate.
 7 Then were the eyes of them both opened, and they perceaued that they were naked, and sowed fygge leaues together, and made them apurns.
 8 And they herde the voyce of the LORDE God, which walked in the garden in the coole of the daye. And Adam hyd him self with his wyfe, from the presence of ye LORDE God amonge the trees of the garden.
 9 And ye LORDE God called Adam, and sayde vnto him: Where art thou?
 10 And he saide: I herde thy voyce in the garden, and was afrayed, because I am naked, and therefore I hyd my self.
 11 And he sayde: who tolde the, that thou art naked? Hast thou not eaten of the tre, wherof I commaunded the, yt thou shuldest not eate?
 12 Then sayde Adam: The woman which thou gauest me (to beare me company) gaue me of the tre, and I ate.
 13 And the LORDE God sayde vnto the woman: wherfore hast thou done this? The woman sayde: the serpent disceaued me so, that I ate.
 14 Then sayde the LORDE God vnto the serpent: Because thou hast done this, cursed be thou aboute all catell and aboute all bestes of the felde. Vpon thy bely shalt thou go, & earth shalt thou eate all the dayes of thy life.
 15 And I wyll put enemyte betwene the and the woman, and betwene yi se and hir se. The same shal treade downe thy heade, and thou shalt treade him on the hele.
 16 And vnto the woman he sayde: I will increase thy sorow, whan thou art with childe: with payne shalt thou beare thy childe, and thy lust shal pertayne vnto yi husbnde, and he shal rule the.
 17 And vnto Adam he sayde: For so moch as thou hast herkened vnto the voyce of thy wyfe, and hast eaten of the tre, wherof I commaunded the, sayenge: thou shalt not eate of it. Cursed be ye earth for thy sake. With sorowe shalt thou eate therof, all the dayes of thy life. 18 Thornes and thistles shalt it beare vnto the, and thou shalt eate the herbes of the felde.

19 In the sweate of thy face shalt thou eate thy bred, tyll thou be turned agayne vnto earth, whece thou art take: for earth thou art, and vnto earth shalt thou be turned agayne.

20 And Adam called his wyfe Heua, because she is the mother of all luyunge. 21 And the LORDE God made Adam & his wyfe garmentes of skynnes, & those he put on them.

22 And the LORDE God sayde: lo, Adam is become as it were one of vs, & knoweth good & euell. But now lest he stretch his hande, and take also of the tre of life, and eate, and lyue for euer.

23 Then the LORDE God put him out of the garden of Eden, to tyll ye earth, whece he was take.

24 And he cast Adam out. And before the garden of Eden he set Cherubes, and a naked fyrie swerde, to kepe ye waye vnto the tre of life.

Chapter 4

1 Morouer Adam laye with Heua his wyfe, which coceaued & bare Cain, and sayde, I haue opteyned ye man of the LORDE.

2 And she proceded forth, & bare his brother Abell. And Abell became a shepherde, but Cain became an husbände man.

3 And it fortunèd after certaine daies, that Cain brought of the frute of the earth, an offrynge vnto ye LORDE.

4 And Abell brought also of the firstlinges of his shepe, and of ye fat of them. And the LORDE had respecte vnto Abell and to his offerynge:

5 but vnto Cain and his offerynge he lokèd not. Then was Cain excedinge wroth, and his countenance chaunged.

6 And the LORDE sayde vnto Cain: Why art thou angrie? and why doth thy countenance chaunge? Is it not so? that yf thou do well, thou shalt receaue it:

7 but and yf thou do euell, thy synne lyeth open in the dore? Shal he then be subdued vnto the? and wilt thou rule him?

8 And Cain talked with Abell his brother. And it happened, that whan they were in the felde, Cain arose agaynst Abell his brother, and slew him.

9 Then sayde the LORDE vnto Cain: Where is Abell thy brother? He sayde: I can not tell. Am I my brothers keper?

10 And he sayde: What hast thou done? The voyce of thy brothers bloude crieth vnto me out of the earth.

11 And now shalt thou be cursed vpon the earth, which hath opened hir mouth, and receaued thy brothers bloude of thine hande.

12 Whan thou tyllest ye grounde, she shall hensforth not geue hir power vnto the. A vagabunde and a rennagate shalt thou be vpon ye earth.

13 And Cain sayde vnto ye LORDE: my synne is greater, then that it maye be forgeuen me.

14 Beholde, thou castest me out this daye from out of ye londe, and from yi sight must I hyde myself, and must be a vagabunde and a rennagate vpon ye earth. And thus shal it go with me: that who so fyndeth me, shal slaye me.

15 But the LORDE sayde thus vnto him: Who so euer slayeth Cain, it shalbe auenged seuenefolde. And the LORDE put a marck vpon Cain, that no man which founde him, shulde kyll him.

16 So Cain wente out from ye face of the LORDE, and dwelt in the lande Nod, vpon the east syde of Eden.

17 And Cain laye with his wyfe, which conceaued and bare Henoche. And he buylded a cite, and called it after the name of his sonne Henoche.

18 And Henoche begat Irad, Irad begat Mahuiael. Mahuiael begat Mathusael. Mathusael begat Lamech.

19 And Lamech toke him two wyues: ye one was called Ada, & the other Zilla.

20 And Ada bare Label, of whom came they that dwelt in tentes and had catell.

21 And his brothers name was Iuball: Of him came they that occupied harpes & pypes.

22 And Zilla she also bare Tubalcain, a worker in all connyng poyntes of metall & yron. And Tubalcains sister was called Naema.

23 And Lamech sayde vnto his wyues Ada and Zilla: Heare my voyce (ye wyues of Lamech) and herken vnto my wordes: for I haue slayne a man, and wounded my selfe: and (haue kyllèd) a yonge man, and gotte my self strypes.

24 Cain shalbe auenged seue tymes: but Lamech seuen and seuentie tymes.

25 Adam laye yet with his wyfe agayne, & she bare a sonne, and called him Seth. For God (sayde she) hath apoynted me another sede, for Abell, whom Cain slew.

26 And Seth begat a sonne also, and called him Enos. At the same tyme beganne men to call vpon the name of the LORDE.

Chapter 5

1 This is the boke of the generacion of man, in the tyme whan God created man, and made him after the symilitude of God.

2 Male and female made he them, and blessed the, & called their names Man, in the tyme whan they were created.

3 And Adam was an hundreth and thirtie yeare olde, and begat a sonne, which was like his owne ymage, and called his name Seth:

4 & lyued thereafter eight hundreth yeare, and begat sonnes and daughters.

5 And his whole age was nyne hundreth and thirtie yeares, and so he dyed.

6 Seth was an hundreth and fyue yeare olde, and begat Enos:

7 & lyued thereafter eight hundreth and seuen yeare, and begat sonnes and daughters.

8 And his whole age was nyne hundreth and twouye yeares, and so he dyed.

9 Enos was nyentie yeare olde, and begat Renan:

10 and lyued thereafter eight hundreth & fyftene yeare, and begat sonnes & daughters.

11 And his whole age was nyne hundreth and fyue yeares, and so he dyed.

12 Renan was seutie yeare olde, and begat Mahalaliel:

13 and lyued thereafter eight hundreth and fourtie yeare, and begat sonnes & daughters.

14 And his whole age was nyne hundreth and ten yeares, and so he dyed.

15 Mahalaliel was thre score yeare olde & fyue,

16 and begat Iared: and lyued thereafter eight hundreth and thirtie yeare, and begat sonnes and daughters.

17 And his whole age was eight hundreth, nyentie and fyue yeares, and so he dyed.

18 Iared was an hundreth and two & sixtie yeare olde, and begat Henoche:

19 & lyued thereafter eight hundreth yeare, and begat sonnes & daughters.

20 And his whole age was nyne hundreth and two and sixtie yeare, and so he dyed.

21 Henoche was fyue and thre score yeare olde, and begat Mathusalah:

22 and led a godly conuersacion thre hundreth yeares thereafter, and begat sonnes & daughters.

23 And his whole age was thre hundreth and fyue and thre score yeares.

24 And for so moch as he lyued a godly life, God toke him awaye, & he was nomore sene.

25 Mathusalah was an uhdreth & seue and foure score yeare olde, & begat Lamech:

26 and lyued thereafter seuen hundreth and two and foure score yeare, and begat sonnes & daughters.

27 And his whole age was nyne hundreth and nyene and trescore yeares, and so he dyed.

28 Lamech was an hundreth and two and foure score yeare olde, and begat a sonne, 29 & called him Noe, and sayde: This same shall coforte vs in oure workes, and in the sorowe of oure hondes vpon the earth, which the LORDE hath cursed.

30 After this he lyued fyue hundreth and fyue & nyentie yeare, and begat sonnes and daughters.

31 And his whole age was seuen hundreth seuen and seuentie yeares, and so he dyed.

32 Noe was fyue hundreth yeare olde, and begat Sem, Ham and Iaphet.

Chapter 6

1 So whan men beganne to multiplie vpon the earth, and had begot them daughters,

2 the children of God sawe the daughters of men, that they were fayre, and toke vnto the wyues soch as they liked.

3 Then sayde ye LORDE: My sprete shal not allwaye stryue with man, for he is but flesh also. I wil yet geue him respyte an hundreth and twety yeares.

4 There were giauntes also in the worlde at that tyme. For whan the children of God had lyeu with the daughters of men, and begotten them children, ye same (children) became mightie in the worlde, and men of renoune.

5 But whan the LORDE sawe yt the wickednes of man was increased vpon ye earth, and that all ye thought and imaginacion of their hert was but onely euell contynually,

6 it repented him, that he had made man vpon the earth, and he sorowed in his hert,

7 and sayde: I wyll destroye man kynde which I haue made, from the earth: both man, beast, worme, and foule vnder the heauen: for it repenteth me, that I haue made them.

8 Neuertheles Noe founde grace in the sight of the LORDE.

9 This is ye generacion of Noe. Noe was a righteous and perfecte ma, and led a godly life in his tyme,

10 and begat thre sonnes: Sem, Ham and Iaphet.

11 Notwithstandinge ye earth was corrupte in ye sight of God, and full of myschefe.

12 Then God lokèd vpon ye earth: and lo, it was corrupte (for all flesh had corrupte his waye vpon the earth.)

13 Then sayde God vnto Noe: The ende of all flesh is come before me, for the earth is full of myschefe before them. And lo, I wyll destroye them with the earth.

14 Make the an Arcke of Pyne tre, and make chambers in it, and pitch it within and without with pitch

15 and make it after this fashion: The length shal be thre hundreth cubites, the bredth fiftie cubites, and the heyght thirtie cubites.

16 A wyndow shalt thou make aboue of a cubyte greate: but the dore shalt thou set in the myddest in the syde of it: And the Arke shalt thou make with thre loftes one aboue another.

17 For lo, I wyll bringe a floude of water vpon the earth, to destroye all flesh (wherin the breth of life is) vnder the heaue: All that is vpon earth, shal perishe.

18 But with the wyll I make a couenaunt, and thou shalt go in to the Arcke with thy sonnes, with thy wyfe, and with thy sonnes wyues.

19 And of all creatures what so euer flesh it be, thou shalt bringe into the Arcke, euen a payre: the male and the female, that they maye lyue wt the:

20 Of foules after their kynde, of beastes after their kynde, and of all maner wormes of the earth after their kinde. Of euery one of these shal there a payre go in vnto the, that they maye lyue.

21 And thou shalt take vnto the all maner of meate that maye be eaten, and shalt laye it vp in stoare by the, that it maye be meate for the and them.

22 And Noe dyd acordinge to all that God commaunded him.

Chapter 7

1 And ye LORDE sayde vnto Noe: Go in to the Arcke thou & thy whole house: for the haue I sene righteous before me at this tyme.

2 Of all cleane bestes take vnto the seuen and seuen, the male and his female. And of vnclane bestes a payre, the male and his female.

3 Like wyse of the foules vnder the heauen, seuen and seuen, the male and his female, that there maye be sede left a lyue vpon the whole earth.

4 For yet after seuen dayes, I wil sende raine vpon the earth fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes, and wyll destroye all maner of thinges that I haue made, from of the face of the earth.

5 And Noe dyd all that the LORDE commaunded him.

6 Sixe hudreth yeare olde was he, when the water floude came vpon earth.

7 And he wente in to the Arcke, with his sonnes, his wyfe, and his sonnes wyues, for the waters of the floude.

8 Of cleane bestes and of vnclane, of all feathered foules, & of all that crepeth vpon earth, 9 wente in vnto him to the Arcke by pares, a male and a female, as ye LORDE comaunded him.

10 And whan the seuen dayes were past, the water floude came vpon the earth.

11 In the sixe hundreth yeare of Noes age, vpon the seuentene daye of the seconde moneth, that same daye were all ye fountaynes of the greate depe broken vp, and the wyndowes of heauen were opened, 12 and there came a rayne vpon ye earth fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes.

13 Vpon the selfe same daye wete Noe into the Arcke, with Sem, Ham and Iaphet his sonnes, and with his wyfe, and the thre wyues of his sonnes,

14 and all maner of bestes after their kynde, all maner of catell after their kynde, all maner of crepyng thinges (that crepe vpo the earth) after their kynde, and all maner of foules (what so euer coude flye & what so euer had fethers) after their kynde:

15 These wente all vnto Noe in to the Arcke by cooples, of all flesh in whom was the breth of life.

16 And these were the male & the female of all maner of flesh, and wente in, acordinge as God commaunded him. And the LORDE shut (the dore) vpon him.

17 Then came the water floude fourtie dayes vpon the earth, and the water increased, and bare vp the Arcke, and lift it vp ouer ye earth.

18 Thus the water preuayled, and increased sore vpon the earth, so that the Arcke wente vpon the waters.

19 Yee the waters preuayled and increased so sore vpon earth, that all the hye mountaynes vnder the whole heauen were couered.

20 Fyftene cubytes hye preuayled ye waters ouer the mountaynes, which were couered.

21 Then all flesh that crepte vpon earth, perished, both foules, catell, bestes, and all yt moued vpon earth, and all men.

22 What so euer had the breth of life vpon the drye londe, dyed.

23 Thus was destroyed all that was vpon the earth, both man and beast, both wormes and foules vnder ye heaue: all these were destroyed from the earth, Saue Noe onely remayned, and they that were with him in the Arcke.

24 And the waters preuayled vpon the earth, an hundreth and fiftie dayes.

Chapter 8

1 Then God remembred Noe and all the bestes, and all the catell that were with him in the Arcke, and caused a wynde to come vpon the earth: and ye waters ceased,

2 and the fountaynes of the depe and the wyndowes of heauen were stopte, and the rayne of heaue was forbydden,

3 and the waters ranne styll awaye from ye earth, and decreased after an hundreth and fiftie dayes.

4 Vpon the seuentene daye of the seuenth moneth rested the Arcke vpon the mountaynes of Ararat.

5 And the waters wete awaye and decreased vntyll the tenth moneth: for the first daye of the tenth moneth, the toppes of the mountaynes appeared.

6 After fourtie dayes Noe opened ye wyndow of the Arcke which he had made,

7 & sent forth a rauen, which flew out, and came agayne, vntyll the waters were dried vp vpo the earth.

8 Then sent he forth a doue from him, to wete, whether the waters were falle vpon the earth.

9 But when ye doue coude fynde no restynge place for hir fete, she came agayne vnto him in to the Arcke, for the waters were yet vpon the face of all the earth. And he put out his hande, and toke her to him in to the Arke.

10 Then he abode yet seuen dayes mo, & sent out the doue agayne out of the Arke:

11 & she returned vnto him aboute the euen tyde: and beholde, she had broken of a leaf of an olyue tre, & bare it in hir nebb. Then Noe perceaued, that the waters were abated vpon the earth.

12 Neuertheles he taried yet seuen other dayes, and sent forth the doue, which came nomore to him agayne.

13 In the sixe hundreth and one yeare of Noes age, vpon the first daye of ye first moneth, the waters were dried vp vpon the earth. Then Noe toke of the hatches of the Arcke, and sawe yt the face of the earth was drye.

14 So vpon the seuen and twentye daye of the seconde moneth the whole earth was drye.

15 Then spake God vnto Noe, and sayde:

16 Go out of the Arke, thou and thy wyfe, and thy sonnes, and thy sonnes wyues with the.

17 As for all the bestes that are with the, what so euer flesh it be (both foule & catell and all maner of wormes that crepe vpon the earth) let them go out with the, and be ye occupied vpon the earth, growe and multiplye vpon the earth.

18 So Noe wente out, with his sonnes, and with his wife, and with his sonnes wyues.

19 All the bestes also and all the wormes, and all the foules, and all that crepte vpon the earth, wente out of the Arke, euery one vnto his like.

20 And Noe buylded an altare vnto ye LORDE, and toke of all maner of cleane bestes & of all maner of cleane foules, and offred bret sacrifices vpon ye altare.

21 And ye LORDE smelled the swete sauor, & sayde in his hert: I wyl hence forth curse the earth nomore for mas sake, for the ymaginacion of mans hert is euell, euen from the very youth of him. Therefore from hece forth I wil nomore smyte all that lyueth, as I haue done.

22 Nether shall sowynge tyme and haruest, colde and heate Sommer and wynter, daye and night ceasse so longe as the earth endureth.

Chapter 9

1 And God blessed Noe and his sonnes, and sayde vnto them: increace & multiplye, and fyll the earth.

2 The feare also and drede of you be vpon all bestes of the earth, vpon all foules vnder the heauen, and vpon all that crepeth on the earth, and all fyshes of the see be geuen in to youre hades.

3 All that moueth and hath life, be youre meate. Euen as the grene herbe, so haue I geue you all.

4 Onely eate not the flesh with the bloude, wherin the soule is:

5 For the bloude of you wherin youre soule is, wyll I requyre of the hande of all bestes: and the soule of ma wyll I requyre of mans hande, yee euery mans soule of anothers hande.

6 He that sheddeth mas bloude, his bloude shal be shed by man agayne, for God made man after his owne licknesse.

7 As for you, be ye frutefull, and increace, and be occupied vpon the earth, that ye maye multiplye therin.

8 Farthermore, God sayde vnto Noe and to his sonnes wt him:

9 Beholde, I make my couenaunt with you, and with youre sede after you,

10 and with euery lyuynge creature that is with you, both foule, catell, and all bestes vpon the earth with you, of all that is gone out of the Arke, what so euer beast of the earth it be:

11 And thus I make my couenaunt with you, that hence forth all flesh shal not be destroyed with the waters of eny floude, and from hence forth there shall come no floude to destroye the earth.

12 And God sayde: This is the token of my couenaunt which I haue made betwene me and you, and all lyuynge creatures amonge you for euermore:

13 My bowe will I set in the cloudes, and it shal be the token of my couenaunt betwene me and ye earth:

14 so that wha I brynge cloudes vpon the earth, the bowe shal appeare in the cloudes.

15 And then wyll I thynke vpon my couenaunt betwixte me and you and all lyuynge creatures in all maner of flesh: so that from hence forth there shall nomore come eny floude of water to destroye all flesh.

16 Therefore shall my bowe be in the cloudes, that I maye loke vpon it, and remembre the euerlastynge couenaunt, betwixte God and all liuynge creatures in all flesh that is vpon earth.

17 God sayde also vnto Noe: This is the toke of the couenaunt, which I haue made betwene me and all flesh vpon earth.

18 The sonnes of Noe which wente out of the Arke, are these: Sem, Ham and Iaphet. As for Ham, he is the father of Canaa.

19 These are Noes thre sonnes, of whom all londes were ouerspred.

20 Noe beganne to take hede vnto ye tyllinge of the grounde, & planted a vyniarde.

21 And dranke of the wyne, and was dronken, and laye vncouered in his tente.

22 Now when Ha the father of Canaan sawe his fathers preuities, he tolde his two brethren without.

23 The toke Sem and Iaphet a mantell and put it vpo both their sholders, and wente backwarde, and couered their fathers secretes: & their faces were turned asyde, yt they shulde not se their fathers preuities.

24 So whan Noe awaked from his wyne, and perceaued what his yonger sonne had done vnto him, 25 he sayde: Cursed be Canaan, and a seruauent of seruauentes be he vnto his brethren.

26 He sayde morouer: Praysed be the LORDE God of Sem, and Canaan be his seruauent.

27 God increace Iaphet, and let him dwell in the tentes of Sem, and Canaan be his seruauent.

28 And Noe lyued after the floude thre hundreth & fiftie yeare, 29 so yt his whole age was ix. hudreth and fyftie yeare, and so he dyed.

Chapter 10

1 This is the generacion of the childre of Noe, Sem, Ham, and Iaphet, & they begat children after the floude.

2 The children of Iaphet are these: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Iauan, Tubal, Mesech and Thyras.

3 The childre of Gomer are these: Ascenas, Riphath and Togarma.

4 The children of Iauan are these: Elisa, Tharsis, Cithim and Dodanim:

5 Of these are deuded the Iles of ye

Heithen in their countrees, euery one after his speach, kynred and people.

6 The childre of Ham are these: Thus, Misraim, Phut and Canaan.

7 The children of Chus are these: Seba, Heuila Sabtha, Reyma and Sabthecha. The children of Reyma are these: Sheba and Deda.

8 Thus also begat Nemrod, which beganne to be mightie in the earth, 9 and was a mightie hunter in the sight of the LORDE. Therof commeth the prouerbe: This is a mightie hunter before the LORDE like as Nemrod.

10 And the originall of his kyngdome was Babel, Erech, Acad & Chalne in ye londe of Synear.

11 Out of that lode came Assur, and buylded Ninuie, and ye stretes of ye cite, and Calah, 12 and Ressen betwene Ninyne & Calah: This is a greate cite.

13 Mizraim begat Ludim, Enamim, Leabim, Naphtuhim,

14 Pathrusim & Casluhim, from whence came the Philistynes and Caphthorims.

15 Canaa also begat Zidon his eldest sonne, & Heth,

16 Iebusi, Emori, Girgosi,

17 Hiui, Arki, Sini,

18 Aruadi, Zemari & Hamati: fro whence ye kynreds of ye Cananites are dispersed abrode.

20 These are the children of Ham in their kynreds, tunges, londes & people.

21 And Sem which is ye father of all the children of Eber, & the elder brother of Iaphet, begat childre also.

22 And these are his children: Ela, Assur, Arphachad, Lud & Aram.

24 And Arphachsad begat Sala, and Sala begat Eber.

25 Eber begat two sonnes: the name of the one was Peleg, because that in his tyme the worlde was deuyded, and his brothers name was Iaketan,

26 And Iaketan begat Almodad, Saleph, Hazarmaphet, Iarah, 27 Hadoram, Usal, Dikela,

28 Obal, Abimael, Seba,

29 Ophir, Heuila & Iobab: All these are ye childre of Iaketan.

30 And their dwellynge was from Mesa, tyll thou come vnto Sephar a mountayne of ye east.

31 These are ye children of Sem in their generacions, tunges, londes and people.

32 This is now ye generacion of ye children of Noe in their kynredes & people. Of these were ye people vpon earth spred a brode after ye floude.

Chapter 11

1 Morouer all the worlde had one tonge & language.

2 Now as they wente towarde the East, they founde a playne in ye londe of Synear, & there they dwelt,

3 & saide one to another: Come on, let vs make bryck & burne it. And they toke bryck for stone, & slyme for mortar,

4 And sayde: Come, let vs buylde a cite & a tower, whose toppes maye reach vnto heaue, yt we maye make vs a name, afore we be scatred abrode in all londes.

5 Then came ye LORDE downe, to se ye cite & tower, yt ye childre of me had buylded.

6 And ye LORDE saide: Beholde, the people is one, & haue one maner of language amoge the all, & this haue they begonne to do, & wil not leaue of from all yt they haue purposed to do.

7 Come on, let vs go downe, & cofounde their tonge eue there, yt one vnderstonde not what another saieth.

8 Thus ye LORDE scatred the fro these in all lodes, so yt they left of to buylde the cite.

9 Therfore is it called Babell, because the LORDE cofounded there the language of all the worlde, and from thece scatred them abrode in to all londes.

10 These are ye generacions of Sem. Sem was an hundreth yeare olde, and begat Arphachsad two yeare after the floude, 11 and lyued thereafter fyue hundreth yeare, and begat sonnes and daughters.

12 Arphachsad was fiue & thirtie yeare olde, and begat Salah, 13 and lyued thereafter foure hundreth and thre yeare, and begat sonnes & daughters.

14 Salah was thirtie yeare olde, and begat Eber,

15 & lyued thereafter foure hundreth & thre yeare, & begat sonnes and daughters.

16 Eber was foure and thirtie yeare olde, & begat Peleg, 17 and lyued thereafter foure hundreth and thirtie yeare, and begat sonnes & daughters.

18 Peleg was thirtie yeare olde, and begat Regu,

19 and lyued thereafter two hundreth and nyene yeare, and begat sonnes & daughters.

20 Regu was two and thirtie yeare olde, and begat Serug, 21 and lyued thereafter two hundreth and seuen yeare, and begat sonnes and daughters.

22 Serug was thirtie yeare olde, and begat Nahor,

23 and lyued thereafter two hundreth yeare, and begat sonnes & daughters.

24 Nahor was nyene and twentye yeare olde, and begat Terah,

25 and lyued herafter an hundreth and nyentene yeare, and begat sonnes and daughters.

26 Terah was seuentie yeare olde, and begat Abram, Nahor and Haran.

27 These are the generacions of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nahor and Haran. And Haran begat Lot, 28 but Hara dyed before Terah his father in ye londe where he was borne, at Vr in Chaldea.

29 Then Abram and Nahor toke them wyues. Abrams wife was called Sarai, &

Nahors wyfe Milca the daughter of Haran, which was father of Milca and Iisca.

30 But Sarai was baren, and had no childe.

31 Then toke Terah Abra his sonne, & Lot his sonne Harans sonne, & Sarai his daughter in lawe, his sonne Abrams wife, & caried them wt him from Vr in Chaldea, to go in to the lande of Canaan.

And they came to Haran, & dwelt there.

32 And Terah was two hundreth & fyue yeare olde, and dyed in Haran.

Chapter 12

1 And ye LORDE sayde vnto Abram: Get the out of thy countree, and from thy kynred, and out of thy fathers house, in to a londe which I wil shew the.

2 And I wil make of the a mightie people, and wyll blesse the, and make the a greate name, yee thou shalt be a very blesynge.

3 I wil blesse them that blesse the, and curse them that curse the: and in the shal all the generacions of the earth be blessed.

4 Then wente Abram out, as the LORDE commaunded him, and Lot wente with him. Fyue & seuentie yeare olde was Abra, whan he wente out of Haran.

5 So Abram toke Sarai his wife, and Lot his brothers sonne, wt all their goodes which they had gotten, and soules which they begat in Hara, and departed to go in to ye londe of Canaan.

6 And whe they were come in to the same londe, he wente thorow, tyll he came vnto the place of Sichem, and vnto the Okegroue of More: for ye Cananites dwelt in ye lode at ye same time.

7 Then the LORDE appeared vnto Abra, & sayde: This londe wil I geue vnto yi sede. And there he buylded an alture vnto ye LORDE, which appeared vnto him.

8 The brake he vp fro thece, vnto a mountayne yt laye on ye east syde of the cite of Bethel, & pitched his tent: so yt he had Bethel on the west side, and Ay on ye east syde: & there buylded he an altare also vnto the LORDE, & called vpon the name of the LORDE.

9 Afterwarde departed Abram farther, & toke his iourney southwarde.

10 But there came a derth in the londe. Then wente Abram downe in to Egipte to kepe himself there as a straunger, for the derth was sore in the londe.

11 And whan he was come nye for to entre in to Egipte, he sayde vnto Sarai his wife: Beholde, I knowe yt thou art a fayre woman to loke vpon.

12 Now whan the Egipcians se the, they wil saye: She is his wife, and so shal they slaye me, and saue the alyue.

13 Therfore (I pray ye) saye thou art my sister, that I maye fare the better by reason of the, and that my soule maye lyue for thy sake.

14 Now whan he came in to Egipte, ye Egipcians sawe ye woman, yt she was very faire:

15 & Pharaos prynces sawe her also, & prayed her before him. Then was she brought in to Pharaos house, 16 and Abram was well intreated for hir sake: and he had shepe, oxe, and he Asses, seruauntes, maydes, she Asses and Camels.

17 But ye LORDE plagued Pharao & his house wt greate plages, because of Sarai Abrams wife.

18 Then Pharao called Abra vnto him, and sayde: Why hast thou dealt thus wt me? Wherefore toldest thou not me at the first, yt she was thy wife?

19 Why saydest thou then, that she was yi sister? Wherefore I toke her to my wife. And now lo, there is yi wife, take her, and go thy waye.

20 He gaue his officers also a charge ouer him, to conueye him out, and his wife, and all that he had.

Chapter 13

1 So Abra departed out of Egipte, wt his wife, & with all yt he had, & Lot wt him also, towarde ye south.

2 Abram was very rich in catell, siluer & golde.

3 And he wente on forth from the south vnto Bethel, vnto the place where his tent was at ye first, betwene Bethel and Ay:

4 euen vnto ye place where he had made the altare before, & where he called vpon the name of the LORDE

5 Lot also which wente with him, had shepe, greate catell & tentes:

6 so yt the londe was not able to receaue them, that they might dwell together: for the substaunce of their riches was so greate, that they coude not dwell together.

7 And there fell a strife betwene the hirdmen of Abrams catell, and the hirdmen of Lots catell. The Cananites also and the Pheresites dwelt at that tyme in the londe.

8 Then sayde Abram vnto Lot: O let there be no strife betwene me and the, and betwene my hyrdmen and thine, for we are brethre.

9 Is not all the whole londe open before the? Departe fro me, I praye the. Yf thou wilt go to the left hande, I wil take the right: Or yf thou wilt go to the right hande, I wil take the left.

10 Then Lot lift vp his eyes, and behelde all the countree rounde aboute Iorda, that it was a plenteous countree of water. For before the LORDE destroyed Sodoma and Gomorra, it was rounde aboute Zoar, euen as the pleasaunt garden of the LORDE, and as the londe of Egipte.

11 Then Lot chose all the coastes of Iorda, and toke his iourney towarde ye East. And so the one brother departed from the other.

12 Abram dwelt in the lande of Canaan, and Lot in the cities of the same coastes, and pitched his tent towarde Sodome.

13 But ye men of Sodome were wicked, and synned exceedingly agaynst the LORDE.

14 Now whan Lot was departed from Abram, the LORDE saide vnto Abram:

Lift vp thine eyes, and loke from the place where thou dwellest, northwarde, southwarde, eastwarde, and westwarde: 15 for all the londe that thou seist, wyll I geue vnto the and to thy sede for euer, 16 and wyll make thy sede as the dust of the earth: so that yf a man can nombre the dust of the earth, he shall nombre thy sede also.

17 Arise, and go thorow the londe, in the length and bredth, for I wyl geue it vnto the.

18 So Abram remoued his tent, and wente and dwelt in ye Okegroue of Mamre, which is in Ebron, and buylded there an altare vnto the LORDE.

Chapter 14

1 And it chaused in the tyme of Amraphel the kynge of Synear, Arioch the kynge of Ellasar, Kedorlaomer the kinge of Elam, & Thy deal the kynge of ye Heithen,

2 That they made warre wt Bera ye kynge of Sodome, and wt Birsar the kynge of Gomorra, & with Sineab the kynge of Adama, & with Semeaber the kynge of Zeboim, and with the kynge of Bela, which is called Zoar.

3 These came all together in to the brode valley, where now the salt see is:

4 for twolue yeares were they subiectes vnto kinge Kedorlaomer, & in the thirteenth yeare they fell from him.

5 Therefore in the fourteenth yeare came Kedorlaomer, and the kynges yt were with him, & smote the Giauntes in Astaroth Karnaim, & Susim at Ham, & Emim in the felde of Kiriathaim,

6 and ye Horites in their owne mount Seir vnto the playne of Pharan, which bordreth vpo the wildernes.

7 And then they turned, & came to the well of iudgment (which is Cades) & smote all the countre of the Amalechites, and also the Amorites, that dwelt in Hazezon Thamar.

8 Then wente out the kynge of Sodome, & the kynge of Gomorra, & the kynge of Adama, and the kynge of Zeboim, and the kynge of Bela (called Zoar) & prepared them selues to fight in the brode valley

9 wt Kedorlaomer the kynge of Elam, & with Thideal ye kynge of the Heithen, & with Amraphel ye kynge of Synear, & with Arioch the kynge of Ellasar: foure kynges wt fyue.

10 And yt brode valley had many slyme pyttes. But the kynge of Sodoma and Gomorra were put to flight, & fell there, & the residue fled vnto ye mountaynes.

11 Then toke they all the goodes at Sodoma and Gomorra, & all their vytales, & wente their waye.

12 They toke Lot also Abrams brothers sonne, & his good (for he dwelt at Sodome) and departed.

13 Then came one that had escaped, and tolde Abram the Aleaunt, which dwelt in the Okegroue of Mamre the Amoryte, which was the brother of Escol & Aner:

for these were confederate with Abram.

14 Now whan Abram herde yt his brother was taken, he harnessed his bonde seruantes borne in his owne house, thre hundreth & eightene, & folowed after them vntill Dan,

15 & deuyded the, & fell vpo them by night wt his seruantes, and smote the, and chased them awaye vnto Hoba, which lieth on ye left hande of the cite of Damascos,

16 and brought agayne all the goodes, and also his brother Lot, and his goodes, ye wemen also and the people.

17 And as he came agayne from the slaughter of Kedorlaomer & of the kynges that were with him, the kynge of Sodome wente to mete him in to the playne felde, which is called kynges dale.

18 But Melchisedech the kynge of Salem brought forth bred and wyne. And he beyng the prest of the most hye God, 19 blessed him and sayde: Blessed be thou Abram vnto the most hye God possessor of heauen and earth.

20 And prayded be God the Hiest, which hath delyuered thine enemies in to thy handes. And Abram gaue him tythes of all.

21 Then sayde the kynge of Sodome vnto Abram: Geue me the soules, and take ye goodes vnto thy self.

22 But Abram sayde vnto the kinge of Sodome: I lift vp my honde vnto the LORDE the most hye God, possessor of heauen and earth,

23 that I wyll not take of all that is thine, so moch as a threde or a shue lachet, lest thou shuldest saye: I haue made Abram ryche:

24 Saue onely that which the yonge men haue spent, and the men Aner Escol and Mamre, that wente with me, let them take their parte.

Chapter 15

1 It happened after these actes, yt the worde of ye LORDE came vnto Abra in a vysion, and sayde: Feare not Abram, I am thy shynde and thy exceedinge greate rewarde.

2 But Abram sayde: LORDE LORDE, what wilt thou geue me? I go childles, and the seruaut of my house (this Eleasar of Damascos) hath a sonne.

3 And Abram sayde morouer: Beholde, vnto me hast thou geuen no sede: and lo, the sonne of my housholde shal be myne heyre.

4 And beholde, the worde of the LORDE spake vnto him, and saide: He shal not be thine heyre, but one that shal come out of thine owne body, he shal be thine heyre.

5 And he bad him go forth, and sayde: Loke vp vnto heauen, and tell ye starres: Canst thou nombre them? And he sayde vnto him: Euen so shal thy sede be.

6 Abram beleued the LORDE, and yt was counted vnto him for righteousnes.

7 And he sayde vnto him: I am ye LORDE, yt brought the from Vr out of Chaldea, to geue ye this londe to possesse it.

8 But Abram sayde: LORDE LORDE, Wherby shall I knowe, that I shall possesse it?

9 And he sayde vnto him: Take a cow of thre yeare olde, and a she goate of thre yeare olde, and a ramme of thre yeare olde, and a turtyll doue, and a yonge pigeon.

10 And he toke all these, and deuyded them in the myddes, and layde the one parte ouer agaynst the other, but the foules deuyded he not.

11 And the foules fell vpo the flesh, but Abram droue them awaye.

12 Now whan the Sonne beganne to go downe, there fell an heuy slepe vpo Abram. And lo, feare and greate darcknes fell vpon him.

13 And he sayde vnto Abram: knowe this of a suertye, that thy sede shalbe a strauger, in a londe that is not theirs. And they shall make bonde men of them, and intreate them euell foure hundreth yeares.

14 But the people who they shal serue, wyl I iudge. Afterwarde shall they go forth with greate substaunce:

15 and thou shalt departe vnto thy fathers in peace, and shalt be buried in a good age.

16 And after the fourth generacion they shall come hither agayne, for the wickednes of ye Amorites is not yet full. 17 So whan the Sonne was downe, and it was waxed darcke: Beholde, there smoked a fornace, and a fyre brande wente betwene ye partes.

18 The same daye made the LORDE a couenaut with Abram, and sayde: Vnto thy sede wil I geue this lode, from the water of Egipte, vnto the greate water Euphrates:

19 the Kenytes, the Kenizites, the Kydmonites, 20 the Hethites, the Pherezites, the Giauntes, 21 the Amorites, the Cananites, the Gergesites, and the Iebusites.

Chapter 16

1 Sarai Abrams wife bare him no children: but she had an handmayde an Egipcian, whose name was Agar,

2 and sayde vnto Abram: Beholde, the LORDE hath closed me, that I can not beare. Go in (I praye the) vnto my mayde: peradventure I shalbe multiplied by her, more then by myself. And Abram herkened vnto the voyce of Sarai. Than Sarai

3 Abrams wife toke Agar hir mayde ye Egipcian (after they had dwelt ten yeare in the londe of Canaan) and gaue her vnto hir husbnde Abra, to be his wife.

4 And he wente in vnto Agar, and she conceaued. Now whan she sawe yt she had conceived, she despysed hir mastresse.

5 Then sayde Sarai vnto Abram: I must suffre wronge for thy sake. I layde my mayde by the: but now because she seyth, that she hath conceaued, I must be despysed in hir sight: the LORDE be iudge betwene me and the.

6 And Abram sayde vnto Sarai: Beholde, thy mayde is vnder thine auctorite, do with her, as it pleaseth the. Now whan Sarai dealt hardly wt her, she fled from her.

7 But the angell of the LORDE founde her besyde a well of water in the wildernes (euen by the well in the waye to Sur)

8 and sayde vnto her: Agar Sarais maide, whence comest thou? & whyther wyll thou go? She sayde: I fle fro my mastresse Sarai.

9 And the angel of the LORDE sayde vnto her: Returne to thy mastresse agayne, and submitte thyself vnder hir hande.

10 And the angel of the LORDE sayde vnto her: Beholde, I wil so encrease yi sede, that it shall not be nombred for multitude.

11 And the angel of the LORDE sayde further vnto her: Beholde, thou art with childe, & shalt bringe forth a sonne, and shalt call his name Ismael, because the LORDE hath herde yi trouble.

12 He shal be a wyld man. His hande agaynst euery man, and euery mans hande agaynst him: and he shal dwel ouer agaynst all his brethren.

13 And she called the name of the LORDE yt spake vnto her: Thou art the God that seist me. For she sayde: Of a suertye I haue sene the back partes of him that sawe me.

14 Therefore called she the well: The well of the liuinge that sawe me. Which (well) is betwene Cades and Bared.

15 And Agar bare Abram a sonne, and Abram called his sonnes name which Agar bare him, Ismael.

16 And Abram was foure score yeare olde and sixe, whan Agar bare him Ismael.

Chapter 17

1 Now whan Abram was nyentye yeare olde and nyene, the LORDE appeared vnto him, & sayde vnto him: I am the allmightie God, walke before me, & be vncorrupte.

2 And I wyll make my couenaut betwene me & the, and wyl multiplye the exceedingly.

3 Then fell Abram vpon his face. And God talked furthur, with him, and sayde: 4 Beholde, It is I, and haue my couenaut with the, and thou shalt be a father of many people.

5 Therefore shalt thou nomore be called Abram, but thy name shal be Abraham: For I haue made the a father of many nacions, 6 & I wil multiplye the exceedingly, and wil make people of ye, yee and kynges also shal come out of the.

7 Morouer I wil make my couenaut betwene me and the, and thy sede after the thorow out their posterities, that it maye be an euerlastinge couenaut, so that I wyll be the God of the, and of thy sede after the.

8 And vnto the and to thy sede after the, will I geue the lande, wherin thou art a stranger: euen all the lande of Canaan for an euerlasting possession, and will be their God.

9 And God sayde morouer vnto Abraham: Kepe my couenaut then, thou and they sede after the.

10 This is my couenaut which ye shal kepe betwene me and you, and thy sede after ye throw out their posterites. Euery manchilde that is amonge you, shalbe circumcyded:

11 and ye shall circumcyde the foreskynne of yor flesh. This same shalbe a token of the couenaut betwene me and you.

12 Euery manchilde whan it is eight dayes olde, shalbe circumcyded thorow out youre posterities: In like maner all housholde folkes borne at home, or bought, or eny other also that is a strauger and not of thy sede.

13 Thus shall my couenaut be in youre flesh for an euerlasting couenaut.

14 And yf there shalbe any manchilde vncircumcyded in the foreskinne of his flesh, his soule shalbe roted out from his people, because he hath broken my couenaut.

15 And God sayde vnto Abraham: Sarai thy wyfe shall nomore be called Sarai, but Sara shal be hir name:

16 for I wil blesse her, and geue the a sonne of her. I wil blesse her, and people shall come of her, yee and kynges of many people.

17 Then fell Abraha vpo his face, and laughed, and sayde in his hert: Shal a childe be borne vnto me that am an hundredth yere olde? And shall Sara yt is nyentie yere olde, beare?

18 And Abraha sayde vnto God: O that Israel might lyue in thy sight.

19 Then sayde God: Yee euen Sara thy wyfe shal beare the a sonne, and thou shalt call his name Isaac: for with him wil I make my euerlasting couenaut, and with his sede after him.

20 And as concernynge Ismael also, I haue herde thy request: Beholde, I haue blessed him, and will increase him, and multiplye him exceedingly. Twolue prynces shal he beget, and I wyll make a greate nacion of him.

21 But my couenaut wyll I make wt Isaac, whom Sara shal beare vnto the, eue this tyme twolue moneth.

22 And he left of talkynge with him, and God wente vp from Abraham.

23 Than toke Abraham his sonne Ismael, and all the seruantes borne in his house, and all that were bought, (as many as were men children in his house,) and circumcyded the foreskynne of their flesh, euen the same daye, as God had sayde vnto him.

24 And Abraham was nyentie yere olde and nyne, whan he cut of the foreskynne of his flesh.

25 As for Ismael, he was thirtene yere olde, whan the foreskynne of his flesh was circumcyded.

26 Euen vpon one daye were they all circumcyded: Abraham, and Ismael his sonne, 27 and all the men in his house, (whether they were borne at home, bought, or eny other straunger:) they were all circumcyded with him.

Chapter 18

1 Annd the LORDE appeared vnto him in the Okegroue of Mamre, as he sat in his tent dore in the heate of ye daie.

2 And as he lift vp his eyes, and loked, beholde, there stode thre men ouer agaynst him. And whan he sawe them, he ranne to mete them from his tent dore, and bowed him self downe vpon the grounde,

3 and sayde: LORDE, yf I haue founde fauoure in thy sight, go not by yi seruaut.

4 There shalbe brought you a litle water, & ye shall wash yor fete, & rest youre selues vnder the tre.

5 And I wyll fet you a morsell of bred, to comforte youre hertes withall, and then shall ye go youre wayes, for therfore are ye come to youre seruaut. They sayde: do euen so as thou hast spoken:

6 Abraham wente a pace in to the tent to Sara, and sayde: Make haist, & mengle thre peckes of fyne meelee, knede it, and bake cakes.

7 And he ranne to the bestes, & fet a calf that was tender and good, and gaue it vnto a yonge man, which made it ready at once.

8 And he toke butter and mylke and of the calfe that he had prepared, and set it before the, stode him self by them vnder the tre, & they ate.

9 Then saide they vnto him: where is Sara thy wyfe? He answered: within in ye tent.

10 Then sayde he: aboute this tyme twolue moneth, (yf I lyue) I will come to the agayne, and Sara thy wyfe shal haue a sonne. And Sara herde that out of the tent dore, which was behynde his backe.

11 And Abraham and Sara were both olde, & well stryken in age: so that it wente nomore with Sara after ye maner of wemen:

12 therefore laughed she within hir self, and sayde: Now that I am olde & my lorde olde also, shal I yet geue my self to lust?

13 Then sayde ye LORDE vnto Abraham: Wherfore doth Sara laugh, and saye: Is this true in dede, that I shal beare, and yet am olde?

14 Shulde eny soch thinge be to harde for the LORDE? Aboute this tyme (yf I lyue) I wil come to the agayne, & Sara shal haue a sonne.

15 Then Sara denied it, and sayde: I laughed not, for she was afrayed. But he sayde: It is not so, thou dydest laughe.

16 Then the men stode vp from thence, and turned them towarde Sodome: and Abraham wente with them, to brynge them on their waye.

17 Then sayde the LORDE: How can I hyde from Abraham, ye thinge that I wil do?

18 seyng he shal be a greate and mightie people, and all ye people vpo earth shalbe blessed in him?

19 For I knewe him that he wil comaunde his children and his housholde after him, to kepe the waye of ye LORDE, and to do after right and conscience, that the LORDE maye bringe vpo Abraham what he hath promised him.

20 And the LORDE sayde: There is a crie at Sodome and Gomorra, which is greate, & their synnes are exceadinge greuous:

21 therfore will I go downe & se, whether they haue done all together, accordinge to that crye, which is come before me, or not, that I maye knowe.

22 And the men turned their face, and wete towarde Sodome. But Abraham stode still before ye LORDE, 23 and stepte vnto him, and sayde: Wilt thou then destroye the righteous with the vngodly?

24 Peradueture there maye be fiftie righteous within ye cite: wilt thou destroye those, and not spare the place, for fiftie righteous sake that are therin?

25 That be farre fro the, yt thou shuldest do this, and to slaye the righteous with the vngodly, and that the righteous shulde be as the vngodly. That be farre from the. Shulde not the iudge of all the worlde do accordinge to right?

26 And the LORDE sayde: Yf I fynde fiftie righteous at Sodome in the cite, I wil spare all the place for their sakes.

27 Abraham answered, and sayde: O se, I haue taken vpon me to speake vnto the LORDE, howbeit I am but dust and ashes.

28 Peradueture there maye be fyue lesse then fiftie righteous therin: Wilt thou then destroye the whole cite because of those fyue? He sayde: yf I fynde fyue and fourtie therin, I will not destroye them?

29 And he proceded further to speake vnto him, and sayde: Peradueture there might be fourtie founde therin. And he sayde: I wil do nothinge vnto them for those fourtyes sake.

30 Abraham sayde: Oh let not my LORDE be angrie, that I speake yet more. Peradueture there might be thirtie founde therin. And he sayde: Yf I fynde thirtie therin, I will do nothinge vnto them.

31 And he sayde: O se, I haue taken vpon me to speake vnto my LORDE. Peradueture there might be twetie founde therin. He answered: I will not destroye them for those twetyes sake.

32 And sayde: O let not my LORDE be angrie, that I speake yet once more. Peradueture there might be ten founde therin. He saide: I wil not destroye them for those ten sake.

33 And the LORDE wente his waye, whan he had left talkynge with Abraham. And Abraham returned vnto his place.

Chapter 19

1 In the euenynge came the two angels vnto Sodome. And Lot sat vnder the gate of the cite. And whe he sawe them, he rose vp for to mete them, and bowed him self downe to the grounde vpon his face, 2 & sayde: Se lordes, turne in (I praye you) in to youre seruantes house, and tarye all night: let youre fete be wasshen, so maye ye ryse tomorow by tymes, and go youre waye. Neuertheles they sayde: Nay, but we wyll byde in the stretes all night.

3 Then compelled he them sore: and they turned in vnto him, and came in to his house. And he made them a feast, and baked swete cakes, and they ate.

4 But before they wente to rest, the men of the cite of Sodome came and compased the house rounde aboute, yonge and olde, all the people from all quarters,

5 and called Lot, and sayde vnto him: Where are the me that came vnto the to night? Bringe them out here vnto vs, that we maye knowe them.

6 And Lot wente out at the dore vnto the, and shut the dore after him,

7 and sayde: O brethren, do not so wickedly.

8 Beholde, I haue two daughters, which yet haue knowne no man: them will I brynge out vnto you, do with them as it liketh you. Onely do nothinge vnto these men of God, for therfore are they come vnder the shadowe of my rofe.

9 But they sayde: Come thou hither. Then sayde they: Camest not thou onely herin as a stranger, and wilt thou now be a iudge? Wel, we will deale worse with the the with them. And they pressed sore vpon ye man Lot. And whan they ranne to, and wolde haue broken vp the dore, 10 the men put out their hondes, and pulled Lot vnto them in to the house, and shut to the dore.

11 And the men at ye dore of the house were smytte with blyndnesse both small and greate, so that they coude not fynde the dore.

12 And ye men saide vnto Lot: Hast thou yet here eny sonne in lawe, or sonnes or daughters? Who so euer belongeth vnto the in the cite, brynge him out of this place:

13 for we must destroye this place, because the crye of them is greate before the LORDE, which hath sent vs to destroye them.

14 Then wente Lot forth, and spake to his sonnes in lawe, which shulde haue married his daughters, and sayde: O stonde vp, and get you out of this place, for the LORDE wyll destroye this cite. Neuertheles they toke it but for a sporte.

15 Now whan the mornynge arose, the angels caused Lot to spede him, and sayde: Stonde vp, take thy wife & thy two daughters which are at hande, that thou also perishe not in the synne of this cite.

16 But whyle he prolonged the tyme, the men caught him and his wife, and his two dughters by the hande (because the LORDE was mercifull vnto him,) and brought him forth, & set him without the cite.

17 And whe they had brought him out, they sayde: Saue thy soule, and loke not behynde the, nether stonde thou in all this countre: Saue thy self vpon the mountayne, that thou perish not.

18 Then sayde Lot vnto the: Oh no my LORDE,

19 beholde, in as moch as thy seruaut hath founde grace in thy sight, now make ye mercy greate, which thou hast shewed vnto me, in that thou sauest my soule alyue. I can not saue my self vpon the mountayne. There might some mysfortune fall vpon me, that I shulde dye.

20 Beholde, here is a cite by, that I maye flye vnto, and it is a litle one: let me saue myself there in. Is it not a litle one, that my soule maye lyue?

21 Then sayde he vnto him: Beholde, I haue loked vpon the in this poynte also, that I will not ouerthrowe the cite, wherof thou hast spoken.

22 Haist the, and saue thy self there: for I can do nothinge tyll thou be come thither. Therefore is the cite called Zoar.

23 And the Sonne was vp vpon the earth, whan Lot came in to Zoar.

24 Then the LORDE caused brymstone and fyre to rayne downe from the LORDE out of heauen vpon Sodoma and Gomorra, 25 and ouerthrew those cities, the whole region, and all that dwelt in the cities, and that that grew vpon the earth.

26 And his wife loked behynde her, and was turned into a pillar of salt.

27 Abraham rose vp early in the mornynge, and gat him vnto the place, where he had stonde before the LORDE, 28 and turned his face towarde Sodoma and Gomorra, and all ye londe of that countre, and loked. And beholde, there rose vp a smoke from ye countre, as it had bene ye smoke of a fornace.

29 For whan God destroyed ye cities of the region, he thought vpon Abraham, and conueyed Lot out of the cities which he ouerthrew, wherin Lot dwelt.

30 And Lot departed out of Zoar, and dwelt in the mountaynes with both his daughters (for he was afrayed to tary at Zoar) and so remayned he in a caue wt both his daughters.

31 Then sayde ye elder vnto the yonger: Oure father is olde, and there is not a man more vpon earth, that can come in vnto vs after the maner of all the worlde. 32 Come therefore, let vs geue oure father wyne to drynke, and lye with him, that we maye saue sede of oure father.

33 So they gaue their father wyne to drynke that same night. And the elder daughter wente in, and laye with hir father: and he perceaued it not, nether when she laye downe, ner when she rose vp.

34 On the morow the elder sayde vnto the yonger: Beholde, yesternight laye I with my father: let vs geue him wyne to drynke this night also: that thou mayest go in and lye with him, that we maye saue sede of oure father.

35 So they gaue their father wyne to drynke that night also: And the yonger arose like wyse, and laye with him: & he perceaued it not, nether when she laye downe, ner when she rose vp.

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with childe by their father.

37 And the elder bare a sonne, and called him Moab, of whom come ye Moabytes vnto this daye.

38 And ye yonger bare a sonne also, and called him the sonne Ammi, of whom come the children of Ammon vnto this daye.

Chapter 20

1 As for Abraham, he departed thence, into the south countre, and dwelt betwixte Cades and Sur, and was a straunger at Gerar,

2 and sayde of Sara his wife: She is my sister. Then Abimelech the kinge of Gerar sent for her, and caused her be fett awaye.

3 But God came to Abimelech by night in a dreame, & sayde vnto him: Beholde, thou art but a deed man, for the womans sake which thou hast taken, for she is a mans wife.

4 Neuertheles Abimelech had not yet touched her, and sayde: LORDE, wilt thou slea a righteous people?

5 Sayde not he vnto me: she is my sister? Yee and sayde not she her self also: he is my brother? With a pure hert & with innocent handes haue I done this.

6 And God sayde vnto him in a dreame: I knowe that thou dydest it wt a pure hert, and therefore I kepte the, that thou shuldest not synne agaynst me, nether haue I suffred the to touch her.

7 Now therefore delyuer the man his wife ageyne, for he is a prophet: and let him pray for ye, and thou shalt lyue. But and yf thou delyuer her not ageyne, be sure, that thou shalt dye the death, and all that is thine.

8 Then Abimelech rose vp by tymes in the mornynge, and called all his seruantes, and tolde all these thinges in their eares, and the men were sore afrayed, 9 and Abimelech called Abraham, and sayde vnto him: Wherfore hast thou done this vnto vs? And what haue I offended ye, that thou shuldest brynge on me and on my kyngdome so greate a synne? Thou hast not dealt with vs, as a man shulde deale.

10 And Abimelech saide morouer vnto Abraham: What sawest thou, yt thou hast done this thinge?

11 Abraham sayde: I thought: Peradventure there is no feare of God in this place, & they shall sleve me for my wifes sake,

12 And of a trueth she is my sister, for she is my fathers daughter, but not my mothers daughter, and is become my wife.

13 So whan God charged me to wadre out of my fathers house, I sayde vnto her: Shew this kyndnes vpon me, that, where so euer we come, thou saye of me, that I am thy brother.

14 Then toke Abimelech shepe and oxen, seruautes and maydens, and gaue them vnto Abraham, and delyuered him Sara his wife agayne, 15 and sayde: Beholde, my londe stondest open before the, dwell where it liketh the.

16 And vnto Sara he sayde: Beholde, I haue geuen thy brother a thousande syluer pens: lo, he shalbe vnto the a couerynge of the eyes, for all that are with the, and euery where, and a sure excuse.

17 As for Abraham, he prayed vnto God: Then God healed Abimelech, and his wyfe, and his maydens, so that they bare childre.

18 For a fore the LORDE had closed all the matrices of Abimelechs house, because of Sara Abrahams wife.

Chapter 21

1 The LORDE also vysited Sara, acordinge as he had promysed: & dealt with her, euen as he had sayde.

2 And Sara was with childe, and bare Abraham a sonne in his olde age, euen in the tyme appoynted, like as God had spoken vnto him afore.

3 And Abraham called his sonne which was borne vnto him (who Sara bare him) Isaac,

4 and circumcided him the eight daye, like as God commaunded him.

5 An hundreth yeare olde was Abraha, whan his sonne Isaac was borne vnto him.

6 And Sara sayde: God hath prepared a ioye for me, for who so euer heareth of it, wyll reioyse with me.

7 She sayde morouer: Who wolde haue saide vnto Abraham, that Sara shulde geue children sucke, and beare him a sonne in his olde age?

8 And the childe grew, and was weened. And Abraham made a greate feast, in ye daye whan Isaac was weened.

9 And Sara sawe the sonne of Agar the Egipcian (whom she had borne vnto Abraham) that he was a mocker,

10 and sayde vnto Abraham: Cast out this bonde mayden and hir sonne, for this bonde maydes sonne shall not be heyre wt my sonne Isaac.

11 This worde displeased Abraham sore, because of his sonne.

12 Neuertheles God sayde vnto him: let it not displease the because of the childe and the hand mayde: What so euer Sara hath sayde vnto the, folowe it, for in Isaac shall the sede be called vnto the.

13 As for the honde maydens sonne, I wyll make a people of him also, because he is of thy sede.

14 Then Abraham rose vp early in the mornynge, and toke bred and a botell with water, and put it vpon Agars sholders, and gaue her the childe, and sent her awaye. Then departed she, and wandred out of the waye in ye wyldernes beside Berseba.

15 Now whan the water in the botell was out, she layed the childe vnder a bush, 16 and wente, and sat hir downe ouer on ye other syde, a bowe shote of. For she sayde: I can not se the childe dye. And she sat hir downe ouer on ye other syde, and lifte vp hir voyce, and wepte.

17 Then God herde the voyce of the childe, and the angell of God called vnto Agar out of heauen, and sayde vnto her: What ayleth the, Agar? Feare not, for God hath herde ye voyce of the childe, where he lyeth.

18 Aryse and take the childe, and holde him by the hande, for I wyll make a greate people of him.

19 And God opened hir eyes, that she sawe a well of water. Then wente she and fylled ye botell with water, and gaue ye childe drynke.

20 And God was with the childe, which grew vp, and dwelt in ye wildernes, and became a connynge archer, 21 and dwelt in ye wildernes of Pharan, and his mother toke him a wyfe out of the londe of Egipte.

22 At the same tyme talked Abimelech and Phicol his chefe captayne with Abraham, and sayde: God is with the in all that thou doest.

23 Therefore swaue now vnto me by God, that thou wilt not hurt me, ner my children, ner my childers children: but that thou shalt shewe vnto me (and to the londe wherin thou art a straunger) the same kyndnesse that I haue done vnto the.

24 Then sayde Abraham: I wyll swaue.

25 And Abraham rebuked Abimelech for the well of water, which Abimelechs seruantes had taken awaye by violence.

26 Then answered Abimelech: I knewe not who dyd it, nether dydest thou tell me, and I haue not herde of it but this daye.

27 The toke Abraham shepe and oxen, and gaue them vnto Abimelech, and they both made a bonde together.

28 And Abraham set seuen lambes by them selues.

29 Then sayde Abimelech vnto Abraha: What meane those seuen lambes, which thou hast set by them selues?

30 He answered: seue lambes shalt thou take of my hande, that they maye be wytnes vnto me, that I haue dygged this well.

31 Therefore is the place called Berseba, because they swaue there both together.

32 And so they made the bonde at Berseba. Then rose Abimelech and Phicol his chefe captayne, and departed agayne in to the londe of ye Philistynes.

33 And Abraham planted trees at Berseba, and called vpon the name of the LORDE ye euerlastinge God, 34 and was a straunger in ye londe of the Philistynes a longe season.

Chapter 22

1 After these actes God tempted Abraham, and sayde vnto him: Abraham. And he answered: I am here.

2 And he sayde: Take ye sonne, this onely sonne of thine, eue Isaac whom thou louest, and go thy waye in to the londe of Moria, & offre him there for a burntofferynge, vpon a mountayne that I shal shew the.

3 Then Abraham stode vp by tymes in the mornynge, and saddled his Asse, and toke with him two yonge men, and his sonne Isaac, and cloue wodd for the brentofferynge, gat him vp, and wente on vnto the place, wherof the LORDE had sayde vnto him.

4 Vpon the thirde daye Abraham lift vp his eyes, and sawe the place a farre of, 5 and sayde vnto his yonge me: Tary ye here with the Asse: as for me and the childe, we wyl go yonder: and whan we haue worshipped, we wyll come to you againe.

6 And Abrahā toke the wodd to the brentofferynge, and layed it vpon Isaac his sonne. As for him self, he toke the fyre and a knyfe in his hande, and wente on both together.

7 Then sayde Isaac vnto his father Abraham: My father. Abraham answered: here I am, my sonne. And he sayde: lo, here is fyre and wodd, but where is the shepe for the brentofferynge?

8 Abraham answered: My sonne, God shall prouyde him a shepe for the brentofferynge. And they wente both together.

9 And whan they came to the place which God shewed him, Abraham buylded there an altare, and layed the wodd vpon it, and bande his sonne Isaac, layed him on the altare, aboue vpo the wodd,

10 and stretched out his hande, and toke the knyfe, to haue slayne his sonne.

11 Then the angell of the LORDE called from heauen vnto him, and sayde: Abraham Abraham. He answered: here am I.

12 He sayde: Laye not thy handes vpon the childe, & do nothinge vnto him: for now I knowe that thou fearest God, and hast not spared thine onely sonne for my sake.

13 Then Abraham lift vp his eyes, and sawe behynde him a ramme, holde fast by the hornes in the breres, and wente, and toke the ramme, and offred him for a brent sacrifice, in steade of his sonne.

14 And Abraham called the place. The LORDE shall prouyde. Therefore it is a comon sayenge yet this daye: Vpon the mountayne shal the LORDE prouyde.

15 And the angell of the LORDE cryed vnto Abraham from heauen the seconde tymy,

16 and sayde: I haue sworn by myne owne self (sayeth the LORDE) that for so moch as thou hast done this, and hast not spared thine onely sonne,

17 I wyll prospere and multiplye thy sede as the starres of heauen, and as the sonde vpon the see shore. And thy sede shall possesse the gates of his enemies:

18 and in thy sede shal all the nacions of the earth be blessed, because thou hast herkened vnto my voyce.

19 So Abraham turned ageyne to the yonge men, and they gat vp, and wente together vnto Berseba, and dwelt there.

20 After these actes it fortunēd, that it was tolde Abraham: Beholde, Milca hath borne children also vnto thy brother Nahor:

21 namely, Hus ye eldest, and Bus his brother, and Kennel, of whom came the Syrians:

22 and Cesed, and Haso, and Pildas, and Iedlaph and Bethuel.

23 And Bethuel begat Rebecca. These eight dyd Milca beare vnto Nahor Abrahams brother.

24 And his concubyne called Rehumā, bare also: namely, Theba, Sahan, Thahas, and Maacha.

Chapter 23

1 Sara was an hundreth and seue and twentye yeare olde: so longe lyued she, 2 and dyed in the head cite which is called Hebron, in the lande of Canaan. Then wente Abraham, to mourne and wepe for her.

3 Afterwarde he stode vp from his coarse, and talked with the Hethites, & sayde:

4 I am a strauger and an indweller amonge you, geue me a possession to bury in with you, that I maye bury my coarse by me.

5 Then the Hethites answered Abraham, and sayde vnto him:

6 O heare lorde, thou art a prynce of God amonge vs: bury thy dead in the best of oure sepulcres, there shall none of vs forbyd ye, that thou shuldest not bury thy deed in his sepulcre.

7 Then Abraham stode vp, and thanked the people of ye londe: namely the Hethites.

8 And he talked with them, and sayde: Yf it be youre wyll that I burye my coarse by me, heare me the, & speake for me to Ephron the sonne of Zoar, 9 that he maye geue me the dubble caue, which he hath in ye ende of his felde. For a reasonable money let him geue it me, for a possession to burye in amoge you.

10 For Ephron dwelt amonge the Hethites. Then answered Ephron the Hethite vnto Abraham, that the Hethites might heare, before all that wente out and in at the gates of his cite, and sayde:

11 No my lorde, but heare me: As for the felde, and the caue also that is therin, I geue it the: and in the sight of my people I geue it the, to burye thy deed in.

12 Then Abraham thanked the people of the londe,

13 and talked with Ephron, that the people of the londe might heare, and sayde: Heare me then, Receaue of me the money that I geue the for the felde, and so wyll I burye my deed there.

14 Ephron answered Abraham, and sayde vnto him:

15 Heare me my lorde: The felde is worth foure hundreth Sycles of syluer: but what is that betwixte me and the? Burye thy deed.

16 Abraham herkened vnto Ephron, and weyed him the money which he had sayde, that the Hethites might heare: namely foure hundreth syluer cycles of currant money amonge marchautes.

17 Thus Ephrons felde (where in the dubble caue is) which lyeth ouer before Mamre, euen the felde and the caue, was made sure

18 for Abrahams owne good, with all the trees of the felde also rounde aboute, in the sight of the Hethites, and of all that go out and in at the gates of his cite.

19 Then Abraham buried Sara his wife in the dubble caue of the felde, that lyeth ouer before Mamre (that is, Hebron) in the londe of Canaan.

20 So the felde and the caue therin was made sure of the Hethites vnto Abraham, for a possession to bury in.

Chapter 24

1 Abraham was olde and well stricken in age, and the LORDE had blessed him in all thinges.

2 And he sayde vnto his eldest seruaut of his house, which had the rule of all his goodes: Laye thine hade vnder my thye, that

3 I maye make the sweare by ye LORDE the God of heauen and earth, that thou take no wife vnto my sonne amonge ye daughters of ye Cananites, (amonge whom I dwell)

4 but that thou go in to my countre? and to myne owne kynred, and brynge my sonne Isaac a wife.

5 The seruaut sayde: What and the woman wyl not folowe me in to this countre? shal I then cary thy sonne agayne in to yonder londe, where thou camest out of?

6 Abraham sayde vnto him: Beware of that, that thou brynge not my sonne thither agayne.

7 The LORDE, the God of heauen, which toke me fro my fathers house and from the londe of my kynred, and that talked with me, and sware also vnto me, and sayde: Vnto yi sede wyll I geue this londe: Euen he shall sende his angell before the, that thou maiest brynge my sonne a wife from thence.

8 But yf the woman wyll not folowe the, thou art discharged of this oath: onely brynge not my sonne thither agayne.

9 Then ye seruaut layed his hade vnder his master Abrahams thye, and sware the same vnto him.

10 So the seruaut toke ten Camels of the Camels of his master and departed, and had wt him of all maner of goodes of his master, and gat him vp, and departed vnto Mesopotamia, to the cite of Nahor.

11 Then let he the Camels lye downe without before the cite besyde a well of water in the euenynge, aboute the tyme that the wemen vsed to go forth, and to drawe water.

12 And he sayde: O LORDE, thou God of my master Abraham, mete me to daye, and shew mercy vnto my master Abraham.

13 Lo, I stonde here besyde the well of water, & the mens daughters of this cite wyll come forth to drawe water:

14 Now yf there come a damsell, to whom I saye: bowe downe thy pytcher, & let me drynke, and yf she saye: drynke, and I wyll geue ye Camels drynke also: That ye same be she, whom thou hast prouyded for thy seruaut Isaac: & that I maye knowe by ye same that thou hast shewed mercy vpon my master.

15 And or euer he had left of speakynge, beholde, Rebecca the daughter of Bethuel (which was the sonne of Milca, that was the wyfe of Nahor Abrahams brother) came forth, and bare a pytcher vpon hir shulder, 16 and she was a very fayre damsell of face, and yet a virgin, and vnknowne of eny man: She wente downe to the well, and fylled hir pitcher, and came vp agayne.

17 Then ranne the seruaut to mete her, and sayde: Let me drynke a litle water out of yi pitcher.

18 And she sayde: drynke syr. And haistely let she downe the pitcher in hir hande, and gaue him drynke.

19 And whan she had geuen him drynke, she sayde: I wyll drawe for thy Camels also, tyll they haue dronke ynough.

20 And she made haist, and poured out hir pitcher in to the trough, and ranne agayne to the well to drawe, and drew for all his Camels.

21 The ma marueyled at her, and helde his tonge, tyll he knewe whether the LORDE had prospered his iourney or not.

22 Now whan the Camels had all dronke, he toke a golde earynge of half a Sycle weight, and two bracelettes for hir handes, weynge ten Sycles of golde, 23 and sayde: Daughter, whose art thou? tell me. Is there rowme for vs in thy fathers house to lodge in?

24 She sayde vnto him: I am the daughter of Bethuel, the sonne of Mylca, whom she bare vnto Nahor.

25 And sayde morouer vnto him: We haue plentye of litter and prouender, and rowme ynough to lodge in.

26 Then the man bowed himself, and thanked the LORDE,

27 and sayde: Praysed be the LORDE the God of my master Abraham, which hath not withdrawen his mercy and his trueth fro my master, for the LORDE hath brought me the waye to my masters brothers house.

28 And the damsell ranne and tolde all this in hir mothers house.

29 And Rebecca had a brother called Laban. And Laban ranne to the man without by the well syde:

30 and that came by the reason that he sawe the earynges, and the bracelettes vpon his sisters handes, and herde the wordes of Rebecca his syster, that she sayde: thus spake the man vnto me. And whan he came to the man, beholde, he stode by the Camels at the well syde.

31 And he sayde: Come in thou blessed of the LORDE, wherfore stondest thou without? I haue dressed the house, and made rowme for ye Camels.

32 So he brought the man in to ye house, and vnbridled the Camels, and gaue them litter and prouender, and water to wash his fete, and the mens that were with him, 33 and set meate before him. Neuertheles he sayde: I wil not eate, tyll I haue fyrst tolde myne earade. They answered: Tell on.

34 He sayde: I am Abrahams seruauant,

35 and the LORDE hath prospered my master richely, so yt he is become greate: and he hath geuen him shepe and oxen, syluer and golde, seruauantes and maidens, Camels and Asses:

36 yee and Sara my masters wife hath borne my master a sonne in hir olde age: vnto him hath he geuen all that he hath.

37 And my master hath taken an ooth of me and saide: Thou shalt not take a wife for my sonne amonge the daughters of the Cananites, in whose lande I dwell, 38 but go yi waye to my fathers house and to myne owne kynred, and there take a wyfe for my sonne.

39 But I sayde vnto my master: What and the woman wyl not folowe me?

40 Then sayde he vnto me: The LORDE (before whom I walke) shall sende his angell with the, and prospere thy iourney, that thou mayest take a wife for my sonne of myne owne kynred, and of my fathers house.

41 And so whan thou comest to my kynred, yf they geue her not vnto ye, thou shalt be discharged of myne oothe.

42 So I came this daye vnto the well of water, and sayde: O LORDE thou God of my master Abraham, Yf thou hast prospered my iourney that I go:

43 Beholde, I stonde here by the well of water: Now yf there come forth a virgin to draw water, and I saye vnto her: geue me a litle water to drinke out of thy pitcher, 44 and she saye vnto me: Drynke thou, and I wyl drawe water for thy Camels also: that the same be the woma, which the LORDE hath prouyded for my masters sonne.

45 Now or euer I had spoken out these wordes in my hert, beholde, Rebecca commeth forth with a pitcher vpon hir shulder, and goeth downe to the well, and draweth. Then sayde I: geue me a drynke.

46 And immediatly she toke downe the pitcher fro hir shulder, and sayde: drynke, and I wyl geue thy Camels drynke also.

47 So I dranke, and she gaue the Camels also to drynke. And I axed her, and sayde: Doughter, whose art thou? She answered: I am ye doughter of Bethuel the sonne of Nahor, whom Milca bare vnto him. Then layed I the earinge vpon hir face, and the braceletes vpon hir handes,

48 and bowed myself, and thanked the LORDE, and praysed the God of my master Abraham, which had brought me ye right waye, to take my masters brothers daughters vnto his sonne.

49 Yf ye be they then that shew mercy and faithfulness vnto my master, tell me: Yf not, yet tell me, that I maye turne me to ye right hande or to the left.

50 Then answered Laban and Bethuel, and sayde: This is come of the LORDE, therefore can we saye nothings agaynst the, nether euell ner good.

51 There is Rebecca before the, take her, and go thy waye, that she maye be thy masters sonnes wife, as the LORDE hath sayde.

52 When Abrahams seruauant herde these wordes, he bowed him self vnto the LORDE flat vpon the earth, 53 and toke forth Jewels of syluer and golde, and rayment, and gaue them vnto Rebecca. But vnto hir brethren and the mother, he gaue spyces.

54 Then he ate and dronke, and the men also that were with him, and caried there all night. But in the mornynge he arose, and sayde: Let me departe vnto my master.

55 Neuerthelesse hir brother and hir mother sayde: Let the damsell tary with vs at the leest ten dayes, and then shall she go.

56 Then sayde he vnto them: holde me not, for the LORDE hath prospered my iourney: let me go, that I maye departe vnto my master.

57 Then sayde they: let vs call the damsell, and axe her, what she sayeth therto.

58 And they called Rebecca, and sayde vnto her: Wilt thou go with this man? And she answered: Yee I wyl go with him.

59 So they let Rebecca their syster go with hir nurse and Abrahams seruauant, and his men.

60 And they blessed Rebecca, and sayde vnto her: Thou art oure syster, growe in to many thousande tymes thousandes, and thy sede possesse the gates of his enemies.

61 So Rebecca gat hir vp wt hir damsels, and satt them vpon the Camels, and wente their waye after the man. And the seruauant toke Rebecca, and departed.

62 As for Isaac, he was commynge from the well of ye luyunge & seyng, for he dwelt in the south countre, 63 and was gone forth to his meditacions in the felde aboute the euen tyde. And he lift vp his eyes, and sawe, that there were Camels commynge.

64 And Rebecca lift vp hir eyes, and sawe Isaac. Then lighted she of the Camell, 65 and sayde vnto ye seruauant: What man is this, that commeth agaynst vs in the felde? The seruauant sayde: The same is my master. Then toke she hir cloke, and put it aboute her.

66 And the seruauant tolde Isaac all the earande that he had done.

67 Then Isaac brought her in to his mother Saras tent, and toke Rebecca, and she became his wife, and he loued her. So Isaac was comforted ouer his mother.

Chapter 25

1 Abraham toke another wife called Ketura,

2 which bare him Simram & Iaksan, Medan & Midian, Iesbak and Suah.

3 Iaksan begat Seba and Dedan. The children of Dedan were Assurim, Latusim, and Leumim.

4 The children of Midian were Ephra, Ephra, Hanoch, Abida and Eldaa. All these are the children of Ketura.

5 And Abraham gaue all his goodes vnto Isaac:

6 As for the children that he had of the concubynes, he gaue them giftes, and (whyle he yet lyued) he sent the awaye from his sonne Isaac, eastwarde in to the east countre.

7 This is the age of Abraham which he lyued: euen an hundreth and fyue and seuentye yeare,

8 and fell sicke and dyed in a good age, whan he was olde, & had lyued ynough and was gathered vnto his people.

9 And his sonnes Isaac and Ismael buried him in the dubble caue in the felde of Ephron the sonne of Zoar the Hethite, which lyeth ouer before Mamre,

10 in the felde that Abraham bought of the Hethites. There was Abraham buried with Sara his wife.

11 And after the death of Abraham God blessed his sonne Isaac. And he dwelt by the well of the luyunge and seyng.

12 This is the generacion of Ismael Abrahams sonne, whom Agar Saras mayde the Egipcian bare vnto him.

13 And these are the names of Ismaels children, of whom their kynredes are named. The eldest sonne of Ismael, Nebaioth, Cedar, Abdeel, Mibsan,

14 Misma, Duma, Masa,

15 Hadar, Thema, Iethur, Naphis and Kedma.

16 These are the childe of Ismael with their names in their courtes and cities twolue londeprynces.

17 And this is the age of Ismael, euen an hundreth and seuen and thirtie yeare, and he fell sicke and dyed, and was gathered vnto his people.

18 He dwelt from Heula vnto Sur towarde Egipte, as men go to the Assirians And he dyed in the presence of all his brethren.

19 This is the generacion of Isaac the sonne of Abraha. Abraham begat Isaac.

20 Isaac was fourtye yeare olde, whan he toke to wyfe Rebecca the doughter of Bethuel ye Syrian of Mesopotamia, & Sister of Laban the Syrian.

21 Isaac besought the LORDE for his wyfe (because she was baren) and the LORDE was intreated, and Rebecca his wyfe conceaued.

22 And the children stroue totogther in her wombe. Then sayde she: Yf it shulde go so with me, why am I then wt childe?

And she wente for to axe the LORDE.

23 And the LORDE sayde vnto her: Two maner of folke are in thy wombe, and two maner of people shall be deuyded out of thy body, and the one nacion shall overcome the other, and the greater shall serue the lesse.

24 Now whan the tyme came that she shulde be deliuered, beholde, there were two twyns in hir wombe.

25 The first that came forth, was reed, all rough as an hyde, and they called him Esau.

26 Anone thereafter came his brother forth, which helde the hele of Esau with his hade, and they called him Iacob. Three score yeare olde was Isaac, whan they were borne.

27 And whan the boies were growne vp, Esau became an hunter, & an husbende man. As for Iacob, he was a symple man, and dwelt in the tentes.

28 And Isaac loued Esau, because he ate of his venison. But Rebecca loued Iacob.

29 And Iacob dight a meace of meate. The came Esau from the felde, and was weery,

30 and sayde vnto Iacob: Let me proue of yt reed meace of meate, for I am fayntie (therfore is he called Edom.)

31 But Iacob sayde: Sell me this daye thy byrthright.

32 Esau answered: Lo, I must dye neuerthelesse, what good then shall my byrthright do me?

33 Iacob sayde: Then swere vnto me euen this same daye. And he sware vnto him, and so he solde his byrthright vnto Iacob.

34 Then Iacob gaue him bred and that meace of ryse. And he ate and dronke, and stode vp, and wente his waye. And so Esau regarded not his byrthright.

Chapter 26

1 There came a derth in the londe, passynge the other that was in Abrahams tyme. And Isaac wente to Gerar, vnto Abimelech the kynge of ye Philistynes.

2 Then the LORDE appeared vnto him, and sayde: Go not downe in to Egipte, but tary in the lande that I shall saye vnto the.

3 Be thou a strauger in this lande, and I wil be with the and blesse the. For vnto the and thy sede wyl I geue all this londe, and wyl performe myne ooth that I sware to thy father Abraham.

4 And I wyl multiplie thy sede as the starres of heauen, and vnto thy sede wyl I geue all this londe, and thorow thy sede shall all nacions be blessed,

5 because Abraham was obedient vnto my voyce, and kepte myne ordinaunces, my comaundementes, my statutes, and my lawes.

6 So Isaac dwelt at Gerar.

7 And whan the men of the same place axed him of his wife, he sayde: she is my syster. For he was afrayed to saye: she is my wife, (thinkinge thus:) they might slaye me for Rebeccas sake, for she was beutifull to loke vnto.

8 Now when he had bene there a longe season, Abimelech the kyng of the Philistynes loked out at a wyndow, and sawe Isaac sportinge with Rebecca his wife.

9 Then Abimelech called Isaac, and sayde: Beholde, she is thy wyfe, why saydest thou then: She is my sister? Isaac answered him: I thought, I might peradenture haue died because of her.

10 Abimelech saide: Why hast thou then done this vnto vs? It coude lightly haue come to passe, that some of the people might haue lye with thy wyfe, and so haddest thou brought synne vpo vs.

11 The Abimelech commaunded all the people, and sayde: Who so toucheth this man or his wyfe, shal dye the death.

12 And Isaac sowed in that londe, and foude the same yeare an hundreth bussshels, for the LORDE blessed him.

13 And he became a greate man, wente forth, and grew, tyll he was exceedinge greate,

14 so that he had moch good in shepe and greate catell, and a greate housholde. Therefore had the Philistynes envye at him,

15 and stopped all the welles, that his fathers seruantes had dygged in the tyme of Abraham his father, and fylled them with earth, 16 In so moch that Abimelech also himself sayde vnto him: Departe from vs, for thou art farre mightier then we.

17 Then departed Isaac from thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

18 And when he was satled, he caused to dygge vp the welles agayne, that they had dygged vp in his father Abrahams tyme, which the Philistynes had stopte after the death of Abraham, and he called the after ye same names that his father had named them withall.

19 Isaacs seruantes also dygged in the valley, and there they founde a well of lyuinge water.

20 But the hyrdmen of Gerar stroue with Isaacs hyrdmen, and saide: The water is oures. Then called he the well Eseck, because they had done him wronge.

21 Then dygged they another well, and stroue for that also: therefore called he it Sytena.

22 So he gatt him from thence, and dygged another well, for the which they stroue not: thrfore he called it Rehoboth, and sayde: Now hath the LORDE made vs rowme, and letten vs growe in the londe.

23 Afterwarde he departed thence vnto Berseba.

24 And the LORDE appeared vnto him the same night, and sayde: I am the God of thy father Abraham, feare thou not, for I am with the, and wyll blesse the, and multiplie thy sede for my seruaut Abrahams sake.

25 Then buylded he an altare there, and called vpon the name of the LORDE, and pitched his tent there, and there his seruantes dygged a well.

26 And Abimelech wente vnto him from Gerar, and Ahusath his frende, and Phicolhis chefe captayne.

27 But Isaac sayde vnto them: Wherefore come ye to me? seyng ye hate me, and haue put me awaye from you?

28 They sayde: We se with open eyes, that the LORDE is with the, therefore we deuysed that there shulde be an ooth betwixte vs and the, and that we wolde make a bonde with the,

29 that thou do vs no harme, like as we haue not hurte the, and as we haue done nothinge vnto the, but all good, and let the departe in peace. As for the, thou art ye blessed of the LORDE.

30 Then Isaac made them a feast, and they ate and dronke.

31 And on the morow they arose, and sware one to the other. And Isaac let them go, and they departed from him in peace.

32 The same daye came Isaacs seruantes, and tolde him of the well that they had digged, and sayde vnto him: We haue founde water.

33 And he called it Saba. Therefore is ye cite called Bersaba vnto this daye.

34 Whan Esau was fourtye yeare olde, he toke wyues: Iudith the daughter of Beri the Hethite, and Basmath the daughter of Elon the Hethite:

35 both these were dishobedient vnto the sprete of Isaac and Rebecca.

Chapter 27

1 And it came to passe when Isaac was olde, his eyes waxed dymme of sight, and he called Esau his greater sonne, and sayde vnto him: My sonne. He answered him: Here am I.

2 And he sayde: Beholde, I am olde, and knowe not when I shal dye.

3 Now therefore take thy geer, thy quyuer and thy bowe, and get the forth to the felde, and take me some venyson,

4 and make me meate (soch as I loue) and brynge it me herein, that I may eate, yt my soule maye blesse the, before I dye.

5 But Rebecca herde these wordes, that Isaac sayde vnto his sonne. And Esau wente his waye in to the felde, to hunte venyson, and to brynge it home.

6 Then sayde Rebecca vnto Iacob hir sonne: beholde, I haue herde thy father talkinge with Esau thy brother, and sayenge:

7 Brynge me venyson, and make me meate, that I maye eate, and blesse the before ye LORDE, yer I dye.

8 Now therefore my sonne, heare my voyce, what I commaunde the:

9 Go thy waye to the flocke, and fetch me two good kyddes, that I maye make meate of them for thy father, soch as he loueth:

10 this shalt thou brynge in vnto thy father, that he maye eate, that he maye blesse the before his death.

11 Neuertheles Iacob sayde vnto Rebecca his mother: Beholde, my brother Esau is tough, and I am smooth:

12 then might my father peradenture fele me, and I shulde seme vnto him as though I begyled him, and so brynge a curse vpon me and not a blessinge.

13 Then sayde his mother vnto him: That curse be vpon me my sonne, folowe thou my voyce: go thy waye and fetch it me.

14 So he wente his waye, and fetched it, and brought it vnto his mother. Then his mother made meate, acordinge as his father loued, 15 and toke Esaus hir elder sonnes costly rayment (which she had with her in ye house) and put them vpon Iacob hir yonger sonne.

16 But the kyddes skynnes put she aboute his handes, and where he was smooth aboute the neck:

17 and so she put the meate with bred (as she had made it) in hir sonne Iacobs hande.

18 And he brought it in vnto his father, and sayde: My father. He answered: here am I, who art thou my sonne?

19 Iacob sayde: I am Esau thy firstborne sonne, I haue done as thou saydest vnto me: aryse, syt vp, and eate of my venyson, that thy soule maye blesse me.

20 But Isaac sayde vnto his sonne? My sonne, how hast thou founde it so soone? He answered: The LORDE yi God brought it to my hande.

21 The sayde Isaac vnto Iacob: Come neare my sonne, that I maye fele the, whether thou be my sonne Esau or not.

22 So Iacob wete vnto Isaac his father. And when he had felt him, he sayde: The voyce is Iacobs voyce, but the handes are the handes of Esau.

23 And he knew him not, for his handes were rough like as ye handes of his brother Esau. And he blessed him.

24 And he sayde vnto him: art thou my sonsonne Esau? He answered: Yee I am.

25 Then sayde he: Bringe me here then to eate of thy venyson my sonne, that my soule maye blesse the. Then he brought it him, and he ate: and he brought him wyne also, and he dranke.

26 And Isaac his father sayde vnto him: Come nye, and kysse me my sonne.

27 So he came nye, and he kyssed him. Then smelled he the sauoure of his clothes, and blessed him, and sayde: Beholde, the smell of my sonne is as ye smell of the felde, which ye LORDE hath blessed.

28 God geue the of the dew of heauen, and of the fatnesse of the earth, and plenteousnes of corne and wyne.

29 Nacions be thy seruantes, and people fall downe at yi fote. Be thou lorde ouer thy brethren, and thy mothers children fall downe at thy fote. Cursed be he, that curseth the: and blessed be he, that blesseth the.

30 Now when Isaac had made an ende of blessinge, and Iacob was scace gone out from his father Isaac, his brother Esau came from his huntinge, 31 and made meate also, and brought it vnto his father, and sayde vnto him: Aryse my father, and eate of yi sonnes venyson, that thy soule maye blesse me.

32 Then answered him Isaac his father:

Who art thou? He sayde: I am Esau thy firstborne sonne.

33 Then was Isaac exceedingly amased aboute measure, and saide: Who? Where is then the hunter that brought me, and I haue eaten of all afore thou camest, and haue blessed him? And he shall be blessed still.

34 Whan Esau herde these wordes of his father, he cried loude, and was exceedyng sory, and sayde vnto his father: O blesse me also my father.

35 But he sayde: Thy brother came with sotyltie, and hath taken thy blessinge awaye.

36 Then sayde he: He maye well be called Iacob, for he hath vndermined me now two tymes. My byrth right hath he awaye, and beholde, now taketh he awaye my blessinge also. And he sayde: Hast thou not kepte one blessinge for me?

37 Isaac answered, and sayde vnto him: I haue made him lorde ouer ye, and all his brethren haue I made his seruantes. With corne & wine haue I prouyded him. What shal I do vnto the now my sonne?

38 Esau sayde vnto his father? Hast thou not one blessinge more my father? O blesse me also my father. And he lift vp his voyce, & wepte.

39 Then Isaac his father answered and sayde vnto him: Beholde, thou shalt haue a fat dwellinge vpon earth, & of ye dew of heauen from aboue:

40 with thy swerde shalt thou get thy lyuyng, and shalt serue thy brother. And it shall come to passe, yt thou shalt put of his yock, and plucke it from thy neck.

41 And Esau bare euell wyll vnto Iacob, because of the blessinge that his father had blessed him withall, and sayde in his herte: The tyme wyll come shortly, that my father shal mourne, for I wil slaye my brother Iacob.

42 The was it tolde Rebecca of these wordes of hir elder sonne, and she sent, and bad call for Iacob hir yonger sonne, and saide vnto him: Beholde, thy brother Esau threateneth the, that he wil slaye the.

43 And now my sonne heare my voyce: Get the vp, and flye vnto my brother Laban in Haran, 44 and tary there with him a while, tyll the furiousnes of thy brother be swaged, and

45 till his wrath agaynst ye be turned from the, and he forget what thou hast done vnto him. So wyll I then sende for the, and cause the be fetched from thence. Why shulde I be robbed of you both in one daye?

46 And Rebecca sayde vnto Isaac: I am weery of my life, because of the daughters of Heth: Yf Iacob take a wife of the daughters of this londe, what shall this life then profit me?

Chapter 28

1 Then called Isaac his sonne Iacob and blessed him, and charged him, & sayde vnto him: Take not a wife of the daughters of Canaan,

2 but get the vp, and go in to Mesopotamia vnto the house of Bethuel thy mothers father, and take ye there a wife of ye daughters of Laban yi mothers brother.

3 And the Allmightie God blesse the, and make the frutefull, and multiplie the, (that thou mayest be a multitude of people)

4 and geue the the blessinge of Abraham vnto ye & thy sede with the, that thou mayest possesse the lande, wherin thou art a stranger, which God gaue vnto Abraham.

5 So Isaac let Iacob departe, that he might go in to Mesopotamia vnto Laban the sonne of Bethuel of Siria, y brother of Rebecca, his and Esaus mother.

6 Now when Esau sawe that Isaac had blessed Iacob, and let him departe in to Mesopotamia, that he might take a wife there: and yt, as he blessed him, he charged him, & sayde: Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan, 7 and that Iacob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone vnto Mesopotamia: 8 seyng also that Isaac his father loked not gladly vpon the daughters of Canaan, 9 he wente his waye vnto Ismael, and besyde the wyues that he had afore, he toke Mahaloth the daughter of Ismael (Abrahas sonne) the sister of Nebaioth, to wife.

10 As for Iacob, he departed from Bersaba, and wente vnto Haran

11 and came to a place, where he taried all night: for the Sonne was downe. And he toke a stone of ye place, & put it vnder his heade, and layed him downe in ye same place to slepe.

12 And he dreamed, and beholde, there stode vpon ye earth, a ladder, whose toppe reached vnto the heauen. And beholde, the angels of God wente vp and downe vpon it,

13 and the LORDE stode vpon it, and sayde: I am the LORDE God of thy father Abraham, and the God of Isaac: The londe yt thou lyst vpon, wyl I geue vnto the, and to thy sede:

14 and thy sede shal be as ye dust of ye earth. And thou shalt sprede forth towarde the west, east, north, and south: and thorow the and thy sede shall all the kynreds vpon earth be blessed.

15 And beholde, I am with ye, and wyl kepe the where so euer thou goest, & wyl brynge the hither agayne in to this lande: for I wil not leaue the, tyll I haue made good, all that I haue promysed the.

16 Now whan Iacob awaked from his slepe, he saide: Surely the LORDE is in this place, and I knew not.

17 And he was afraied, and sayde: How fearfull is this place? here is nothinge els but an house of God, & a gate vnto heaue.

18 And Iacob arose early in the mornynge, and toke the stone that he had layed vnder his heade, and set it vp, and poured oyle vpon it.

19 And he called the place Bethel, but afore the cite was called Lus.

20 And Iacob made a vowe, and sayde: Yf God wyll be with me, and kepe me in this iourney yt I go & geue me bred to eate, and clothinge to put on,

21 and brynge me peaceably home agayne vnto my father: The shall the LORDE be my God, 22 and this stone that I haue set vp, shalbe an house of God: and all that thou geuest me, I wyl geue the the tenth therof.

Chapter 29

1 Then Iacob gat him vp vpon his fete, and wente in to the east countre,

2 & loked aboute him, and beholde, there was a well in the felde, and ye flockes of shepe therby, for the flockes dranke of the well. And there laye a greate stone at the welles mouth,

3 and thither they vsed to brynge the flockes, and to roule the stone from ye mouth of the well, and to geue the shepe drynke, & so they put the stone agayne vpon the welles mouth in to his place.

4 And Iacob sayde vnto them: Brethren, whece be ye? They answered: we are of Haran.

5 He sayde vnto them: Knowe ye Laban the sonne of Nahor? They answered: We knowe him well.

6 He sayde: Is he in good health? They answered: he is in good health. And lo, there commeth his daughter Rachel with the shepe.

7 He sayde: It is yet hye daye, & is not yet tyme to dryue in the catell: geue the shepe to drynke, & go youre waye, & fede them.

8 They answered: We can not, tyll all the flockes be brought together, and tyll we roule the stone from the welles mouth, & so geue the shepe drynke.

9 Whye he yet talked with them, Rachel came with hir fathers shepe, for she kepte ye shepe.

10 Whan Iacob sawe Rachel ye daughter of Laban his mothers brother, and the shepe of Laban his mothers brother, he wete, & rouled the stone from the welles mouth, and gaue his mothers brother shepe to drynke,

11 and kyssed Rachel, lift vp his voyce, and wepte,

12 and tolde her, yt he was hir fathers brother, and ye sonne of Rebecca. Then ranne she, and tolde her father.

13 Wha Laban herde of Iacob his sisters sonne, he ranne to mete him, and embraced him, and kyssed him, and brought him in to his house. And so he tolde him all this matter.

14 The sayde Laban vnto him: Wel, thou art my bone and my flesh. Abyde with me a moneth longe.

15 But after that saide he vnto Iacob: Because thou art my brother, shalt thou therefore serue me for nought? Tell me, what shall thy wages be.

16 Laban had two daughters, the eldest was called Lea, & the yongest Rachel.

17 And Lea was tender eyed, but Rachel was beutyfull & well faouored of face, 18 and Iacob loued her well, and sayde: I will serue the seuen yeare, for Rachel thy yongest daughter.

19 Laban answered: It is better that I geue her the, then vnto another: tary thou with me.

20 So Iacob serued seuen yeare for Rachel, and they semed vnto him but few dayes, he loued her so well.

21 And Iacob saide vnto Laban: geue me my wyfe, for the tyme is come that I shulde lye with her.

22 The Laban bad all the people of that place, and made a mariage.

23 But at eue he toke his daughter Lea, and brought her in vnto him, and he laye wt her.

24 And Laban gaue Zilpa his mayde vnto his daughter Lea to be hir mayde.

25 But on the morow, beholde, it was Lea. And he sayde vnto Laban: Why hast thou done this vnto me? Haue not I serued ye for Rachel? Why hast thou then begyled me?

26 Laban answered: It is not the maner in oure countre, to mary the yongest before the eldest.

27 Holde out this weke, & I will geue the this also, for the seruyce yt thou shalt do me yet seuen yeares more.

28 Iacob dyd so, & helde out yt weke. Then gaue he him Rachel his daughter to wyfe.

29 And Laban gaue Bilha his mayden vnto Rachel his daughter to be hir mayden.

30 So he laye with Rachel also, & loued Rachel more the Lea, and serued him yet seuen yeares more.

31 But when the LORDE sawe, that Lea was nothinge regarded, he made her frutefull, and Rachel baren.

32 And Lea coceaued, and bare a sonne, whom she called Ruben, and sayde: The LORDE hath loked vpon my aduersite. Now wyll my husbände loue me.

33 And she coceaued agayne, and bare a sonne, and sayde: The LORDE hath herde that I am despysed, and hath geue me this also, and she called him Symeon.

34 She coceaued yet agayne, and bare a sonne, and sayde: Now wyll my husbände kepe me company agayne, for I haue borne him thre sonnes, therefore called she his name Leui.

35 She coceaued ye fourth tyme, and bare a sonne, and sayde: Now wyll I geue thanks vnto the LORDE, therefore called she him Iuda, and left bearynge.

Chapter 30

1 When Rachel sawe that she bare no children vnto Iacob, she had enuye at hir sister, & saide vnto Iacob: Geue me childre also, or els I am but deed.

2 But Iacob was very wroth at Rachel, & sayde: Am I then in Gods steade, which kepeth ye frute of yi wombe from ye?

3 Neuertheles she sayde: Beholde, there is Bilha my mayden, lye wt her, yt she maye beare vpon my lappe, & that I maye be increased by her.

4 And so she gaue him Bilha hir mayden to wyfe. And Iacob laye with her.

5 So Bilha coceaued, and bare Iacob a sonne.

6 Then sayde Rachel: God hath geuen sentence on my syde, and herde my voyce, and geue me a sonne, therefore called she him Dan.

7 Bilha Rachels mayde coceaued agayne, and bare another sonne vnto Iacob.

8 Then sayde Rachel: God hath turned it with me, and my sister, and I haue gotte the vpperhande. And she called him Nephthali.

9 Now whan Lea sawe that she had left bearynge, she toke Silpa hir mayde, and gaue her vnto Iacob to wyfe.

10 So Silpa Leas mayde bare Iacob a sonne.

11 Then saide Lea: This is good lucke, & she called him Gad.

12 After this Silpa Leas mayde bare Iacob another sonne.

13 Then sayde Lea: Well is me, for the daughters will call me blessed, and she called him Asser.

14 Ruben wente out in the tyme of ye wheate haruest, and founde Mandragoras in the felde, and brought them home vnto his mother Lea. Then sayde Rachel vnto Lea: Geue me some of yi sonnes Mandragoras.

15 She answered: Hast thou not ynough that thou hast taken awaye my husbände, but wilt take awaye my sonnes Mandragoras also? Rachel saide: Wel, let him lye with the this night for thy sonnes Mandragoras.

16 Now whan Iacob came home at euen from the felde, Lea wente forth to mete him, and sayde: Thou shalt lye wt me, for I haue bought the for my sonnes Mandragoras. And he slepte with her that night.

17 And God herde Lea, and she coceaued, and bare Iacob the fifth sonne, 18 & sayde: God hath rewarded me, because I gaue my mayden vnto my husbände, and she called him Isachar.

19 Lea coceaued yet agayne, and bare Iacob the sixte sonne,

20 and sayde: God hath endewed me with a good dowry. Now wyll my husbände dwell with me agayne, for I haue borne him sixe sonnes, & she called him Zabulon.

21 After that she bare a daughter, whom she called Dina.

22 Neuertheles God thought vpo Rachel, and herde her, and made her frutefull.

23 Then she coceaued, and bare a sonne, and sayde: God hath taken awaye my rebuke, 24 and she called him Ioseph, and sayde: God geue me yet another sonne.

25 Now whan Rachel had borne Ioseph, Iacob sayde vnto Laban: Let me go, & departe in to my place and vnto myne owne lande:

26 geue me my wyues and my children, (for the which I haue serued the) yt I maye go: for thou knowest, what seruyce I haue done the.

Chapter 31

27 Laban sayde vnto him: Can I not fynde faouere in thy sight? I perceauē, that God hath blessed me for thy sake.

28 Appoynte thou the rewarde, yt I shal geue the.

29 But he saide vnto him: Thou knowest how I haue serued the, and what maner of catell thou hast vnder me.

30 Thou haddest but litle afore I came hither, but now is it growne into a multitude, and the LORDE hath blessed ye for my sake. And now when shall I loke to myne owne house also?

31 He saide: What shal I then geue the? Iacob sayde: Thou shalt geue me nothinge at all, but yf thou wilt do this for me yt I saye, then wyll I fede and kepe thy shepe agayne.

32 I wyll go thorow all thy flockes to daye, and separate thou from amonge them all the shepe that be spotted and partye coloured, and all blacke shepe amonge the lambes. Now loke what shalbe partie coloured and spotted amoge the kyddes, the same shalbe my rewarde: 33 so shal my righteousnes testifie with me to daye or tomorow, when it cometh vnto my rewarde before the, so that, what so euer is not spotted and partye coloured amonge the kyddes, and blacke amoge the lambes, let that be theft with me.

34 Then sayde Laban: Beholde, let it be so as thou hast sayde.

35 And that same daye he sundered out the speckled and partye coloured goates, and all the spotted and partye coloured kyddes (where there was eny whyte vpon them) and all that was black amonge the lambes, and put them vnder the hande of his children,

36 and made rowme of thre dayes journey wyde betwixte him and Iacob. So Iacob kepte the residue of Labans flocke. 37 But Iacob toke stauēs of grene wyllies, hasell and of chestnottrees, and pylled whyte strekes in them, 38 and layed the stauēs that he had pylled, in the drynkinge troughes before the flocke, which came there to drynke, that they shulde conceaue, when they came to drynke.

39 So the flockes conceaued ouer ye stauēs, and brought forth speckelde, spotted and partye coloured.

40 Then Iacob parted ye lambes, and put them to the flocke vnto the spotted: and all that was blacke in Labans flocke, that put he vnto the spotted. And he made him a flocke of his owne, which he put not vnto Labans flocke.

41 Neuertheles in the first buckynge tyme of the flockes, he layed the stauēs in the drynkinge troughes before the eyes of the flockes, that they shulde conceaue ouer the stauēs.

42 But in the latter buckynge tyme he layed them not in. So the later were Labans, but the firstlings were Iacobs.

43 Thus the man became exceedinge riche, so that he had many shepe, maydens & seruantes, Camels and Asses.

1 He herde also of ye wordes of Labans children, that they sayde: Iacob hath brought all or fathers good vnto him self, & of oure fathers good hath he gotten these riches.

2 And Iacob behelde Labans countenance, & beholde, it was not towarde him as yesterdaye and yeryesterdaye.

3 And the LORDE sayde vnto him: Departe agayne to thy fatherlade, and to thy kynred, I wyll be with the.

4 Then sent Iacob and bad call Rachel and Lea in to the felde to his flockes,

5 and sayde vnto them: I se youre fathers countenance, that it is not towarde me like as yesterdaye and yeryesterdaye: but the God of my father hath bene with me.

6 And ye knowe, that I haue serued youre father with all my power.

7 And he hath disceaued me, and chaunged my wages now ten tymes. But God hath not suffred him, to do me harme.

8 Yf he sayde: The partye coloured shalbe thy rewarde, then the whole flocke bare partye coloured. Yf he sayde: The speckelde shalbe thy rewarde, the the whole flocke bare speckelde.

9 Thus hath God with drawen youre fathers goodes from him, and geuen them vnto me.

10 For when the buckynge tyme came, I lift vp myne eyes and sawe in a dreame, and beholde, the rammes leapte vpon the flocke that was speckelde, spotted, & partye coloured.

11 And the angel of God sayde vnto me in a dreame: Iacob. And I answered: here am I.

12 He sayde: lift vp thine eyes, and beholde, the rammes leape vpon the speckelde, spotted, and partie coloured flocke: for I haue sene all yt Laban doth vnto the.

13 I am ye God at Bethel, where thou dydest anoynte the stone, & maydest a vowe there vnto me. Get the vp now, & departe out of this londe, & go agayne in to the londe of thy kynred.

14 Then answered Rachel and Lea, and sayde vnto him: As for vs, we haue no porcion ner inheritaue more in oure fathers house, 15 & he hath couted vs as straungers, for he hath solde vs, & spent vp or wages.

16 Therefore hath God withdrawe or fathers riches from him vnto vs & oure children. What so euer now God hath sayde vnto the, that do.

17 So Iacob gat vp, and set his children and wyues vpon Camels,

18 and caried awaye all his catell and all his substaunce, that he had gotten at Mesopotamia, yt he might come vnto Isaac his father in the lande of Canaan.

19 Laba was gone to clyppe his flocke, and Rachel stale hir fathers ymages.

20 Thus dyd Iacob steale awaie ye hert of Laban ye Syrian, in yt he tolde him not that he fled.

21 So he fled, & all that was his, gat vp, and passed ouer the water, & wente straight towarde the mount Gilead.

22 Vpon the thirde daye it was tolde Laban, that Iacob fled.

23 And he toke his brethre vnto him, and followed after him seuen dayes iourney, and ouertoke him vpon the mount Gilead.

24 But God came vnto Laban the Syrian in a dreame by night, & sayde vnto him: Be warre, that thou speake nothinge to Iacob but good.

25 And Laba drew nye vnto Iacob. As for Iacob, he had pytched his tente vpon the mount. And Laban with his brethre pytched his tent also vpon the same mount Gilead.

26 Then sayde Laban vnto Iacob: What hast thou done, that thou hast stollen awaie my hert, and caried awaye my daughters, as though they had bene taken captiue wt ye swerde?

27 Wherefore keptest thou that secrete, that thou woldest flye, and hast stollen awaye fro me, and toldest me not, that I might haue brought the on the waye with myrth, with synginge, with tabrettes and harpes?

28 and hast not suffred me to kysse my children and daughters? Thou hast done foolishly, and so moch might I haue made, 29 that I coude haue done you euell: but youre fathers God saide yesterdaye vnto me: Bewarre, that thou speake nothinge vnto Iacob but good.

30 And for so moch then as thou woldest nedes departe, and longedest sore after yi fathers house, why hast thou stollen away my goddes?

31 Iacob answered and sayde vnto Laban: I was afrayed, that thou shuldest haue taken away thy daughters fro me:

32 but loke by whom thou fyndest thy goddes, let the same dye here before oure brethren. Seke that thine is by me, and take it awaye. (But he knew not, that Rachel had stollen them.)

33 Then wente Laban in to Iacobs tent and in to Leas tent, and in to both the maydens tetes, and founde nothinge: and out of Leas tente he wente in to Rachels tent.

34 Then toke Rachel the ymages, and layed them vnder the Camels strawe, and sat downe vpon them. But Laban searched the whole tent, and founde nothinge.

35 Then sayde she vnto hir father: Be not angrie my lorde, that I can not ryse vp vnto the: for it goeth wt me after the maner of wemen. So he sought, and founde not the ymages.

36 And Iacob was wroth, and chode with Laban, answered & sayde vnto him: What haue I trespassed or offended, yt thou art so whote vpon me?

37 Thou hast searched all my housholde stuff, & what hast thou founde of thy housholde stuff? Laye it here before my brethren & thyne, yt they maye iudge betwene vs both.

38 Twentye yeare haue I bene wt the: thy shepe & goates haue not bene vnfrutefull, the rammes of thy flocke haue I not eaten:

39 Loke what was torne of beastes, I brought it not vnto ye, I was fayne to paie it my self: thou requyrest it of my hande, whether it were stollen fro me by daye or by night.

40 On the daye tyme the heate cosumed me, and the frost on the night, and my slepe departed fro myne eyes.

41 Thus haue I serued twentye yeare in thy house, fourtene yeares for thy daughters, & sixe for thy flocke, and ten tymes hast thou chaunged my rewarde:

42 & yf the God of my father the God of Abraham, and the feare of Isaac had not bene on my syde, thou haddest latten me go awaye emptye. But God hath loked vpon myne aduersite and laboure, and rebuked the yesterdaye.

43 Laban answered and sayde: The daughters are my daughters, & the children are my childre, and the flockes are my flockes, & all that thou seist is myne. What can I do this daye vnto these my daughters, or to their children whom they haue borne?

44 Now therfore come on, let vs make a couenant (I & thou) which maye be a wytnesse betwene me and the.

45 Then toke Iacob a stone, & set it vp (for a piler or markstone)

46 and sayde vnto his brethren: Gather stones. And they toke the stones, and made an heape, & ate vpon the same heape.

47 And Laba called it Iegar Sahadutha, but Iacob called it Gilead: (either of them after the properte of his language.)

48 Then sayde Laban: This heape be wytnesse betwene me and the this daye (therfore is it called Gilead)

49 and a testimony, for he sayde: The LORDE loke betwene me and ye, when we are departed ye one from ye other:

50 yf thou vexe my daughters, or take other wyues vnto them. There is no ma with vs, but lo, God is the wytnesse betwene me and the.

51 And Laban sayde morouer vnto Iacob: Beholde, this is the heape, and this is the marckstone that I haue set vp betwixte me and the:

52 the same heape be wytnesse, and the same marckstone also be wytnesse, yf I passe ouer vnto the, or yf thou passe ouer this heape & marckstone vnto me, to do eny harme.

53 The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, and the God of their fathers, be iudge betwene vs. And Iacob sware vnto him by the feare of his father Isaac.

54 And Iacob offred an offerynge vpon the mount, and called his brethre to eate bred. And when they had eaten, they taried vpon the mount all night.

55 But vpon the morow Laban rose vp early, kysed his childre & daughters, & blessed the, & departed, and came agayne vnto his place.

Chapter 32

1 As for Iacob, he wente on his iourney, & the angels of God met him.
 2 And when he sawe them, he sayde: It is Gods hoost, & called the same place Mahanaim.
 3 Iacob sent messauagers before him to his brother Esau in to the lande of Seir, of the felde of Edom,
 4 & commaunded the, & sayde: Saye thus vnto my lorde Esau: Thy seruauant Iacob sendeth ye this worde: I haue bene out wt Laban, & haue bene hither to amonge straungers,
 5 & haue oxen & Asses, shepe, seruauantes & maydes, & haue sent forth to shewe it the my lorde, yt I might fynde faouore in thy sight.
 6 The messauagers came agayne vnto Iacob, and sayde: We came vnto thy brother Esau, & he commeth forth also agaynst the with foure hundreth men.
 7 Then was Iacob sore afrayed, and wyst not what waye to turne himself, & deuyded the people that was with him, and the shepe, and the oxen, & the Camels in to two droues,
 8 & sayde: Yf Esau come vpon the one droue, and smyte it, the other shal escape.
 9 Iacob sayde morouer: O God of my father Abraha, God of my father Isaac, LORDE thou that saydest vnto me: Departe agayne to thine owne londe and to thy kynred, and I wyl do the good:
 10 I am to litle for all the mercies and all the trueth that thou hast shewed vnto thy seruauant (for I had no more but this staff when I wente ouer this Iordan, and now am I become two droues)
 11 delyuer me from ye hande of my brother, fro the hade of Esau, for I am afrayed of him, lest he come and smyte me the mother with the children.
 12 Thou saydest: I wyl do the good, and wyl make thy sede as the sonde of ye see, which can not be nombred for multitude.
 13 And there he taried that night, and toke of soch as came to hande, a present vnto his brother Esau,
 14 two hundreth she goates, twentye he goates, two hundreth shepe, twentye rammes
 15 and thirtie mylck camels wt their foales, fourtye kyne, ten bullockes, twentye she Asses with ten foales, 16 and put them in the handes of his seruauantes, euery flock by them selues, & sayde vnto them: Go ye forth before me, & put a space betwixte one flocke after the other,
 17 and commaunded the first and sayde: When my brother Esau meteth the, and axeth the: Whose art thou? & whyther goest thou? and whose are these that thou dryuest before the?
 18 Thou shalt saye: They be thy seruauant Iacobs, which sendeth a present vnto his lorde Esau, and commeth behynde vs him self.
 19 Thus commaunded he the seconde also, and the thirde, and all them that folowed the flockes, and sayde: Like as I haue tolde you, so speake ye vnto Esau, when ye mete him, 20 and saye vnto him also: Beholde, yi seruaut Iacob is behynde vs. For he thought: I wyl reconcyle him with the present that goeth before me, after warde wyl I se him my self, peraduenture he shall receaue me to grace.

 21 So the present wente before him, but he taried in the tente the same night,
 22 and rose vp in ye night, and toke his two wyues and the two maydens and his eleuen sonnes, and wente vnto the foorde of Iacob,
 23 toke them and caried them ouer the water, so that all that he had came ouer,
 24 and taried him self alone on this syde. Then wrestled there a man with him vntyll the breake of ye daye.
 25 And when he sawe yt he might not ouercome him, he touched the senowe of his thye, and ye senowe of his thye shrancke in wrestlinge with him.
 26 And he sayde: Let me go, for ye daye breaketh on. But he answered: I will not let ye go, excepte thou blesse me.
 27 He sayde: What is thy name? He answered: Iacob.
 28 He sayde: Thou shalt nomore be called Iacob, but Israel, for thou hast stryuen with God and with men, and hast preuayled.
 29 And Iacob axed him, & sayde: Tell me, what is yi name? But he sayde: Why axest thou what my name is? And he blessed him there.
 30 And Iacob called the place Peniel, for I haue sene God face to face, & my soule is recouered.
 31 And as he came ouer fro Peniel, ye Sonne rose vpo him, & he halted vpon his thye.
 32 Therefore eate the children of Israel no vane vpon the senow of ye thye vnto this daye, because ye vane vpon the senow of Iacobs thye was touched.

Chapter 33

1 Iacob lift vp his eyes, & sawe his brother Esau comynge with foure hundreth men: and he deuyded his children vnto Lea vnto Rachel, and to both the maydes, 2 and set the maydens with their children before, and Lea with hir childre after, and Rachel with Ioseph hynder most.
 3 And he wente before them, and bowed him self to the grounde seuen tymes, tyll he came to his brother.
 4 But Esau ranne to mete him, and embraced him, and fell aboute his neck, & kyssed him, and wepte,
 5 and lift vp his eyes, and sawe the wyues with the children, and sayde: What are these with the? He answered: They are the children, which God hath geuen vnto thy seruauant.
 6 And the maydens came forth with their children, and dyd their obeysaunce vnto him.
 7 Lea came forth also with hir childre, and kneled vnto him. Afterwarde came Ioseph and Rachel forth, and kneled vnto him likewise.

 8 And he sayde: What meanest thou wt all the droue that I met? He answered: that I might fynde grace in the sight of my lorde, 9 Esau sayde: I haue ynough my brother, kepe that thou hast.
 10 Iacob answered: Oh nay, but yf I haue founde grace in yi sight, receaue my present of my hande (for I sawe thy face, as though I had sene the face of God) and be at one with me.
 11 Take this present in good worth, that I haue brought ye, for God hath geuen it me, & I haue ynough of all thinges. So he compelled him to take it.
 12 And he sayde: Let vs go on and take oure iourney, I wyl go in thy company.
 13 But he sayde vnto him: My lorde, thou knowest that I haue tender children by me, and small and greate catell also, which are yet but yonge: yf they shulde be dryue ouer in one daye, the whole flocke wolde dye.
 14 Let my lorde go on before his seruaut. I wyl dryue after fayre and softly, (there after as the catell & the children can go,) tyll I come to my lorde in Seir.
 15 Esau sayde: Yet wil I leaue some of my people with the. He answered: What nede is it? Let me but onely fynde grace in the sight of my lorde.
 16 So Esau departed agayne the same daye towarde Seir, 17 and Iacob toke his iourney towarde Sucoth, and buylded him an house, and made tetes for his catell. Therefore is the place called Sucoth.
 18 Afterwarde came Iacob peaceably vnto the cite of Sichem, which lyeth in ye lande of Canaan, after that he was come agayne out of Mesopotamia, and pitched before the cite,
 19 and bought a pece of londe of the children of Hemor ye father of Sichem for an hundreth pens. There pitched he his tent, 20 and there he set vp an altare, and called vpon the name of the mightie God of Israel.

Chapter 34

1 Dina ye daughter of Lea, which she bare vnto Iacob, wente out to beholde the daughters of the londe.
 2 When Sichem the sonne of Hemor the Heuite (which was lorde of the lode) sawe her, he toke her, and laye with her, and forced her,
 3 and his hert hanged vpon her, and he loued ye damsell, and talked louyngly with her,
 4 and spake to his father Hemor: Get me this mayden to wife.
 5 And Iacob vnderstode, that Dina his daughter was defyled, and his sonnes were with the catell in the felde, and Iacob helde his tonge tyll they came.
 6 Then Hemor the father of Sichem wente forth vnto Iacob to comen with him.

 7 In the meane season came Iacobs sonnes from ye felde. And when they herde it, it greued the men, and they were very wroth, that he had wrought foly in Israel, and lye with Iacobs daughter: for so was not the vse to do.
 8 Then comened Hemor with the, and sayde: My sonne Sichems hert longeth for youre daughter, O geue hir him to wife:
 9 make frendshipe with vs, geue vs youre daughters, and take ye oure daughters,
 10 and dwell with vs, the londe shall be open vnto you, dwell and occupie, and haue youre possessions therin.
 11 And Sichem sayde vnto hir father and brethren: Let me fynde grace with you: loke what ye appoynte me, I will geue it: 12 requyre the dowrye and gift of me hardely, I wyl geue it acordinge as ye wyl axe, onely geue me the damsell to wife.
 13 Then Iacobs sonnes answered Sichem and Hemor his father (and spake disceatfully, because their sister Dina was defyled)
 14 & sayde vnto them: That can we not do, to geue oure sister to an vncircumcided man: for that were a shame vnto vs.
 15 Neuertheles we wyl consente vnto you, yf ye wylbe like vnto vs, and be circumcided as many as are males amonge you:
 16 then will we geue you oure daughters, and take youre daughters vnto vs, and dwell with you, and be one people.
 17 But yf ye wyl not herken vnto vs, to be circumcided, then wyl we take oure daughter, and go oure waye.
 18 These wordes pleased Hemor and his sonne wel,
 19 and the yonge man deferde not to do the same, for he had lust to Iacobs daughter: and he was holden in honoure aboute all in his fathers house.
 20 Then came Hemor and Sichem his sonne vnder ye gate of cite, and comened with the citisens of the cite, and saide:
 21 These men are peaceable with vs, and will dwell in the lande and occupye: now is the londe brode of both the sydes, we wyl take their daughters vnto vs, and geue them oure daughters.
 22 But then wyl they consent vnto vs, to dwell by vs, and to be one people with vs, yf we circumcise all the men children amonge vs, like as they are circumcysed:
 23 their catell and goodes, and all that they haue, shalbe ours, yf we consent vnto them, that they maye dwel with vs.
 24 And they herkened vnto Hemor and Sichem his sonne, as many as wente out and in at ye gate of his cite, and circumcided all the males, that wente out and in at his cite.
 25 And vpon the thirde daye (when it was panefull to them) the two sonnes of Iacob Simeon and Leui Dinas brethren, toke euery man his swerde, and wente boldly in to the cite, and slew all the males, 26 and slew Hemor also and Sichem his sonne with the edge of the swerde, and toke their sister Dina out of Sichems house, and wente their waye.

27 Then came Iacobs sonnes ouer the slayne, and spoyled the cite (because they had defyled their sister)

28 and toke their shepe, oxen, Asses, and what so euer was in the cite and in the londe, 29 and all maner of goodes: All their children and wyues toke they captiue, and spoyled all yt was in the houses.

30 And Iacob sayde vnto Symeon and Leui: Ye haue brought it so to passe, yt I stynke before the inhabitants of this lande, ye Cananites and Pheresites, & I am but a small nombre: Yf they gather them selues now together against me, they shal slaye me, so shal I be destroyed with my house.

31 But they answered: Shulde they the deale with oure sister as with an whoore?

Chapter 35

1 And God sayde vnto Iacob: Get the vp, and go vnto Bethel, & dwell there, and make there an altare vnto the God, that appeared vnto the, whan thou fleddest from thy brother Esau.

2 Then sayde Iacob vnto his housholde and to all yt were with him: Put away from you ye straunge goddes, that are amonge you, and clense youre selues, and change youre clothes,

3 and let vs get vp, and go vnto Bethel, that I maye there make an altare vnto the God, which herde me in the tyme of my trouble, and hath bene with me in the waye that I haue gone.

4 Then gaue they him all the straunge goddes that were vnder their handes, and their earynges, and he buried them vnder an Oke that stode besyde Sichem, & departed. And there came a feare of God vpon the cities that laye roude aboute, so that they folowed not after ye sonnes of Iacob.

6 So came Iacob vnto Lus in ye lande of Canaan (which is called Bethel) and all the people that were with him,

7 and there he buylded an altare, and called ye place Bethel, because the LORDE appeared vnto him there, whan he fled from his brother.

8 Then dyed Debora Rebeccas norse, and was buried beneth Bethel vnder the Oke, and it was called the Oke of lamentacion.

9 And God appeared agayne vnto Iacob, after that he was come out of Mesopotamia, and blessed him, 10 & saide vnto him: Thou art called Iacob, neuertheles thou shalt nomore be called Iacob, but Israel shal be yi name. And so was he called Israel.

11 And God sayde vnto him: I am the Almightye God, be frutefull and multiplye: people and a multitude of people shal come of the, and kynges shall come out of thy loynes:

12 and the lande that I gaue vnto Abraham and Isaac, wyl I geue vnto the, & wyl geue it vnto thy sede after the.

13 So God departed from him, from ye place where he talked wt him.

14 And Iacob set vp a piler of stone, in the place where he talked with him, & poured drynkofferynges thereon, and poured oyle vpon it.

15 And Iacob called ye place where God talked with him, Bethel.

16 And he departed from Bethel: and whan he was yet a felde brode from Ephrath, Rachel traueyled, & the byrth came harde vpon hir.

17 But whan she had soch payne in traueylunge, ye mydwife sayde vnto her: feare not, for thou shalt haue this sonne also.

18 But as hir soule was departyunge, yt she must dye, she called him Ben Oni: neuertheles his father called hi Be Iamin.

19 So Rachel died, & was buried in the waye towarde Ephrath, which now is called Bethlehe.

20 And Iacob set vp a piller vpon hir graue, there is Rachels grauestone vnto this daye.

21 And Israel departed, and pitched his tent beyonde the tower of Eder.

22 And it chaused, that whan Israel dwelt in that londe, Ruben wente and laye with Bilha his fathers concubyne, and that came to Israels eares. And Iacob had twolue sonnes.

23 The sonnes of Lea were these: Ruben Iacobs first borne sonne, Simeon, Leui, Iuda, Isachar, & Zabulo.

24 The sonnes of Rachel, were Ioseph and Ben Iamin.

25 The sonnes of Bilha Raches mayde: Dan, and Nephthali.

26 The sonnes of Silpa Leas mayde: Gad and Aser. These are ye sonnes of Iacob, which were borne vnto him in Mesopotamia.

27 And he came to his father Isaac to Mamre in to the head cite which is called Hebron, where in Abraha & Isaac were straungers.

28 And Isaac was an hundreth & foure score yeare olde, 29 & fell sicke, and dyed, & was gathered vnto his people, whan he was olde, & had luyed ynough: and his sonnes Esau & Iacob buried him.

Chapter 37

1 Iacob dwelt in ye lande, wherin his father was a stranger, namely in the lade of Canaa.

2 And these are ye generacios of Iacob. Ioseph was seuetene yeare olde, wha he became a keper of the catell wt his brethren, & the lad was wt the children of Bilha & Silpa his fathers wyues, and tolde their father of ye euell reporte yt was of the.

3 Israel loued Ioseph more the all his childre because he had begotte him in his olde age, and he made him a cote of many coloures.

4 Now wha his brethre sawe, yt his father loued him more the all his brethre, they had euell wyll at him, & coude not speake a fredly worde vnto hi.

5 Ioseph also had once a dreame, and tolde his brethre therof. The hated they him ye more,

6 for he sayde: Heare I praye you what I dreamed.

7 Me thought we were byndinge sheeues vpo ye felde, & my shefe arose, and stode vp, and youre sheeues rounde aboute made obeysaunce vnto my shefe.

8 Then sayde his brethre vnto him: Shalt thou be or kinge, and haue domynio ouer vs? And they hated him yet ye more, because of his dreame, & his wordes.

9 And he had yet another dreame, which he tolde his brethre, & saide: Beholde, I had yet another dreame: Me thought ye Sonne & ye Moone & eleuen starres made obeisaunce to me.

10 And wha this was tolde his father and his brethre, his father reprovde him, & sayde vnto him: What maner of dreame is this, yt thou hast dreamed? Shall I & thy mother, & thy brethren come & fall before ye vpon the groude?

11 And his brethre had envie at him. But his father marcked this sayenge.

12 Now wha his brethren were gone forth to kepe their fathers catell in Siche, 13 Israel sayde vnto Ioseph: Do not yi brethren kepe the catell in Siche? Come, I wil sende the vnto the. He answered: Here am I.

14 And he sayde: Go thy waye, and loke whether it be well wt thy brethren and with ye catell, and brynge me worde agayne how it is. And he sent him out of the valley of Hebron, to go vnto Siche. 15 Then a certayne man founde him, wandringe out of his waye in the felde, which axed him, and sayde: Whom sekest thou?

16 He answered: I seke my brethren: tell me I pray the where they kepe.

17 The man sayde: They are gone from hence, for I herde them saye: let vs go vnto Dothan. Then folowed Ioseph after his brethren, and founde them at Dothan.

18 Now whan they sawe him a farre of, afore he came at the, they deuysed to sleie him,

19 and sayde one to another: Lo, there cometh the dreamer,

20 come on, and let vs sleie him, & cast him in a pytt, and saye: a wicked beast hath deuoured him: the shal it be sene, what his dreames are.

21 When Ruben herde that, he wolde haue deluyered him out of their handes, & sayde: O let vs not sleie a soule.

22 Ruben sayde morouer vnto him: Shed no bloude, but cast him in to this pytt yt is in the wyldernes, & laye ye no hades vpon him. (He wolde haue deluyered him out of their hades, yt he might haue brought him agayne vnto his father.)

23 Whan Ioseph now came to his brethre, they stryded him out of his cote, that partye coloured cote which he had vpon him,

24 & toke him and cast him in to a pytt. But the same pytt was emptye, and no water in it,

25 & they sat them downe to eate. In the meane season they lift vp their eyes, and sawe a copany of Ismaelites comyng from Gilead, with their camels, which bare spyces, balme, and myrre, and were goinge downe into Egipte.

26 Then saide Iuda vnto his brethre: what helpeth it vs, that we sleie oure brother, and hyde his bloude?

27 Come, let vs sell him vnto the Ismaelites, that oure handes be not defyled vpon him, for he is oure brother, oure flesh and bloude. And they herkened vnto him.

28 And as the Madianites marchaunt men wente by, they drew Ioseph out of the pytt, and solde him vnto the Ismaelites (for twetye syluer pens) which brought him in to Egipte.

29 Now whan Ruben came agayne vnto the pytt, & founde not Ioseph therein, he rent his clothes, 30 and came agayne to his brethre and sayde: The lad is not yonder, whyther shal I go?

31 Then toke they Iosephs cote & slewe a goate, and dyped the cote in ye bloude, 32 and sent awaye that partye coloured cote, and caused it be brought vnto their father and sayde: This haue we founde, loke, whether it be thy sonnes coate, or no.

33 But he knewe it, and sayde: It is my sonnes coate, a wicked beast hath deuoured him, a rauyshinge beast hath rauyshed Ioseph.

34 And Iacob rete his clothes, and put a sack cloth aboute his loynes, & mourned for his sonne a longe season.

35 And all his sonnes & daughters came vnto him to coforte him. But he wolde not be coforted, & saide: With sorowe wil I go downe in to the graue vnto my sonne. And his father wepte for him.

Chapter 38

1 It fortunated at the same time, yt Iuda wente downe fro his brethren, & gat him to a man called Hira at Odollam.

2 And there Iuda sawe a ma of Canaas daughter called Sua, and toke her. And wher he had lye with her,

3 she conceaued and bare a sonne, whom she called Er.

4 And she conceaued agayne, & bare a sonwho she called Ona.

5 She proceded yet further, & bare a sonne, who she called Sela. And wha she had borne him, she left of bearinge.

6 And Iuda gaue his first sonne Er a wife, whose name was Tamar.

7 But he was wicked before the LORDE, therefore the LORDE slew him.

8 Then sayde Iuda vnto his sonne Onan: Go lie with thy brothers wife, and marye thyself with her, that thou mayest rayse vp sede vnto thy brother.

9 But when Onan knewe that the sede shulde not be his owne, when he laye with his brothers wife, he let it fall vpon the earth and destroyed it, yt he shulde not geue sede vnto his brother.

10 This thinge that he dyd displeased the LORDE sore, and he slewe him also.

11 Then sayde Iudas vnto Tamar his sonnes wyfe. Remayne a wyddow in thy fathers house, tyll my sonne Sela be growne: for he thought: peraduenture he might dye also like as his brethren. So Tamar wente hir waye, and remained in hir fathers house.

13 Then was it tolde Tamar: beholde, thy father in lawe goeth vp vnto Thimnath, to clyppe his shepe.

14 Then put she of ye wyddowes garmentes that she had vpon her, couered and dysgyssed hir self, & sat hir downe without the porte by the waye syde towarde Thymnath. For she sawe that Sela was growne, and she was not geuen vnto him to wife.

15 Now whan Iuda sawe her, he thought it had bene an whoore, for she had couered hir face:

16 and he gat him to her in the waye, and saide: I praye the let me lye with the, for he knewe not that it was his daughter in lawe. She answered: What wilt thou geue me, that thou mayest lie with me?

17 He sayde: I wil sende the a kydd from the flocke. She answered: Geue me a pledge then, tyll thou sende it me.

18 He sayde: What pledge wilt thou that I geue the? She answered: Thy signet, and thy bracelet, and thy staff that thou hast in thy hade. Then he gaue it her, and laye with her, and she was with childe of him.

19 And she gat hir vp, and wente hir waye, and layed of hir cloke, and put on hir wyddowes garmetes agayne.

20 Iuda sent the kydd by his shepherde of Odolla, to fetch the pledge agayne from the woman, and he founde her not.

21 Then axed he the men of the same place, & sayde: Where is the whoore yt sat without in the waye? They answered: There hath no whoore bene here.

22 And he came agayne vnto Iuda, and saide: I haue not found her, morouer ye men of the same place saide: that there hath no whoore bene there.

23 Iuda sayde: Let her take it vnto her, lest we happily be shamed, for I haue sent the kydd, and thou hast not founde her.

24 After thre monethes it was tolde Iuda: Tamar thy daughter in lawe hath plaied the whoore: and beholde, by whordome is she gotten with childe. Iuda sayde: brynge her forth, that she maye be brent.

25 And whan she was brought forth, she sent vnto hir father in lawe, and sayde: By the man yt oweth these, am I wt childe. And she sayde: Knowest thou whose is this signet, this bracelet & this staff?

26 Iuda knewe the, & sayde: She is more righteous the I, for I gaue hir not my sonne Sela: But he laye nomore with her.

27 Whan the tyme came that she shulde be deluyered, there were two twyns founde in hir wombe.

28 And as she was now in trauelynge, the one put out his hande. Then the mydwife toke and boude a reed threde aboute it, and saide: This shal come out first.

29 But whan he pluckte in his hande agayne, his brother came forth. And she sayde: Wherefore is there a rent mayde for thy sake? And he was called Phares.

30 Afterwarde came his brother forth, which had ye reed threde aboute his hande, and he was called Zarah.

Chapter 39

1 Ioseph was brought downe in to Egipte, & Potiphar an Egiptia Pharaos chefe marshall bought him of ye Ismaelites, yt brought him downe.

2 And ye LORDE was wt Ioseph, in so moch yt he became a luckye ma, & was in his master ye Egiptians house.

3 And his master sawe yt the LORDE was wt him: for what so euer he dyd, the LORDE made it to prospere in his hade: 4 so yt he founde fauor in his masters sight, & was his seruauant. He made him ruler of his house, and put all that he had, vnder his hande.

5 And from the tyme forth that he had made him ruler of his house and all his goodes, ye LORDE blessed the Egiptians house for Iosephs sake: and there was nothyng but the very blessinge of the LORDE in all yt he had in ye house & in the felde,

6 therefore left he all yt he had, in Iosephs hande. And medled with nothyng himself, saue onely the bred that he ate. And Ioseph was fayre of bewtye, and well fauoured of face.

7 And it fortunated after these actes, that his masters wife cast hir eyes vpon Ioseph, and sayde: Slepe with me.

8 But he denyed, and saide vnto her: Beholde, my master knoweth not what is in ye house, and all that he hath, that hath he put vnder my hande.

9 And there is no man so greate in the house as I, and he hath kepte nothyng from me, excepte the: for thou art his wife. How shulde I then do so greate euell, and synne agaynst God?

10 But she spake soch wordes vnto Ioseph daylie. Neuertheles he herkened not vnto her, to slepe by her, or to be in her company.

11 It fortunated vpon a tyme, that Ioseph wente in to the house to do his busynesse, and there was none of ye folkes of the house thereby.

12 And she caught him by his garment, & sayde: Slepe with me. But he left the garment in hir hande, and fled, and gat him out of the house.

13 Now wha she sawe that he had left his garmet in hir hande, and fled out, 14 she called the folkes in the house, and sayde vnto the: Lo, he hath brought vs in the Hebrue, to do vs shame. He came in here vnto me, to slepe by me: but I cried with loude voyce.

15 And whan he herde that I made a noyse & cried, he left his garmet here by me, and fled, and ranne out.

16 And she layed vp his garmet by her, tyll his master came home,

17 and tolde him euen the same wordes, and sayde: The Hebrue seruauant whom thou broughtest here vnto vs, came in here to me, for to do me shame.

18 But whan I made a noyse and cried, he

 19 Whan his master herde the wordes of his wyfe which she tolde him, and sayde: Thus hath the Hebrue seruauant done vnto me, he was very wroth.
 20 Then his master toke him, and put him in the preson, wherin the kinges presoners laie. And there he laye in preson.
 21 But the LORDE was with him, and had mercy vpon him, & caused him to fynde fauor in the sight of the officer of ye preson, 22 so that he committed all the presoners of the preson vnto his hades: that what so euer were done, might be done by him.
 23 For the officer of the preson sawe, yt the LORDE was with him in all yt was vnder his handes, and that what so euer he dyd, the LORDE made it to come prosperously to passe.

Chapter 40

1 And it fortun'd after this, that ye kynge of Egiptes chefe butlar and ye chefe baker offended their lorde the kynge of Egipte.
 2 And Pharao was angrie wt them, & caused them be put in preson in ye chefe marshals house,
 3 where Ioseph laye presoner.
 4 And the chefe marshall put Ioseph vnto them, yt he might serue them. And so they were in preson for a season.
 5 And they dreamed, both the butlar & the baker in one night, euery ma his owne dreame, and euery dreame had his interpretacio.
 6 Now in the mornynge whan Ioseph came in vnto them, and sawe that they loked sadly, he axed them and sayde:
 7 Why loke ye so sadly to daye?
 8 They answered: We haue dreamed, and haue no man to declare it vnto vs. Ioseph sayde: Interpretinge belongeth vnto God, but tell it me yet.
 9 Then the chefe butlar tolde Ioseph his dreame, and saide vnto him: I dreamed that there was a vyne before me,
 10 which had thre braunches, and it budded, grewe and bare blossoms, and the grapes ther of were rype.
 11 And I had Pharaos cuppe in my hande, & toke (the grapes) and wronge the in to ye cuppe, and gaue Pharao the cuppe in his hade.
 12 Ioseph sayde: This is the interpretacio:
 13 The thre braunches are thre dayes, and ouer thre dayes shall Pharao take the, and ouer thre dayes shall Pharao take the, and putt the in thine office agayne, that thou mayest geue him the cuppe in his hande after the olde maner, wha thou wast his butlar.
 14 But whan thou art in thy prosperite, thynke vpon me, and shewe me kyndnesse, that thou mayest certifie Pharao of me, yt he maie bringe me out of this house:
 15 for I was preuely caried out of the lande of the Hebrues, and here also haue I done nothinge, that they shulde haue put me in this dongeon.

16 Whan the chefe baker sawe, that the interpretacion was good, he sayde vnto Ioseph: I dreamed, that I bare thre wyker baskettes vpon my heade, 17 and in ye vppermost basket all maner of bake meates vnto Pharao, and the foules ate out of the basket vpon my heade.
 18 Ioseph answered, and sayde: This is the interpretacion: The thre baskettes are thre dayes, 19 and after thre dayes shall Pharao take the, and hange the vpon the galowe, and the foules shal eate thy flesh from of ye.
 20 And vpon the thirde daye it came to passe, that Pharao helde his byrth daye, and made a feast vnto all his seruautes, and toke the chefe butlar and the chefe baker before all his seruautes, 21 and restored the chefe butlar to his butlar shipe agayne, so that he reached the cuppe in to Pharaos hande.
 22 As for the chefe baker, he caused him be hanged like as Ioseph had interpreted vnto him.
 23 Neuertheless the chefe butlar thought not on Ioseph, but forgat him.

Chapter 41

1 And after two yeares Pharao had a dreame, how that he stode by a water syde: and beholde, out of the water there came seuen
 2 goodly kyne, and fatfleshed, and wente fedinge in the medowe.
 3 After these he sawe other seuen kyne come out of the water, which were euell fauoured and leane fleshed, and wente by the kyne vpon ye water syde:
 4 and the euell fauoured leene kyne ate vp the seuen goodly and fatt kyne. Then Pharao awaked.
 5 And he slepte agayne, and dreamed the seconde tyme. And he sawe that seuen eares of corne grewe vpon one stalke, full and good.
 6 Afterwarde he sawe seue thynne and blasted eares come vp,
 7 and the seuen thynne eares deuoured the seuen greate and full eares. Then Pharao awaked, and sawe that it was a dreame.
 8 And whan it was daye, his sprete was troubled, and he sente out, & caused to call all the soithsayers in Egipte & all the wyse men, and tolde them his dreame. But there was none, that coude tell Pharao the interpretacion of it.
 9 Then spake the chefe butlar vnto Pharao, and saide: This daye do I remembre my fawte.
 10 Whan Pharao was angrie with his seruautes, and put me in preson with ye chefe baker in ye chefe marshals house, 11 we dreamed both in one night euery ma his dreame, hauinge his owne interpretacion.
 12 Then was there with vs a yonge man an Hebrue, the chefe marshals seruauant, vnto whom we tolde it, and he declared oure dreames vnto vs, vnto eueryma accordinge to his dreame.

13 And as he declared it vnto vs, so came it to passe. So I was restored vnto myne office, and he was hanged.
 14 Then Pharao sent and called for Ioseph and they let him out of the dongeon. And he let himself be shauen, and chaunged his clothes, and came in vnto Pharao.
 15 Then saide Pharao vnto him: I haue dreamed a dreame, and there is no man that can interprete it: but I haue herde tell of the, that wha thou hearest a dreame, thou declarest it.
 16 Ioseph answered Pharao, and sayde: God shall geue Pharao a prosperous answeere, yee well without me.
 17 Pharao sayde vnto Ioseph: I dreamed that I stode by a water syde, and beholde, out of the water there came 18 seuen kyne, fatfleshed and goodly, and wente fedinge in ye medowe.
 19 And after them I sawe other seue kyne come out, thynne, euell fauoured, and leenfleshed. So euell fauoured sawe I neuer in all the lande of Egipte.
 20 And the seuen leene and euell fauoured kyne, ate vp the seuen first fat kyne.
 21 And whan they had eate them vp, a man coude not perceaue that they had eaten them, & were as euell fauoured as they were afore. Then I awaked.
 22 And I sawe agayne in my dreame seuen eares of corne, growinge vpo one stalke, full and good.
 23 Afterwarde there spronge vp seuen wythred eares, thynne and blasted, 24 and the seuen thynne eares deuoured the seuen good eares. And I haue shewed it vnto my soithsayers, but they can tell me nothinge therof.
 25 Ioseph answered Pharao: Both Pharaos dreames are one. God sheweth Pharao what he wil do.
 26 The seuen good kyne are seuen yeares, and the seuen good eares are seuen yeares also. It is one dreame.
 27 The seuen leene and euell fauoured kyne, that came vp after them, are seuen yeares. And the seuen thynne and blasted eares, shalbe seuen yeares of deth.
 28 This is now the thinge which I tolde Pharao, that God sheweth Pharao, what he will do.
 29 Beholde, there shal come seuen yeares wt greate plenteousnes in ye whole lande of Egipte,
 30 and after the same there shall come seuen yeares of deth, so that all this plenteousnes shalbe forgotten in ye lande of Egipte: and the deth shall consume the lande,
 31 so that the plenteousnes shal not be perceaued in the lande, because of the deth that commeth thereafter, for it shall be very greate.
 32 Where as Pharao dreamed the seconde tyme, it signifieth that this thinge is surely prepared of God, and that God wil shortly brynge the same to passe.
 33 Let Pharao now prouyde for a man of vnderstandinge & wysdome, whom he maye set ouer the lande of Egipte, 34 and se that he ordene officers in the londe, and take ye fifth (parte) of the lande of Egipte in the seuen plenteous yeares, 35 and gather all ye foode yt shal come of the plenteous yeares, that they maye laye vp corne vnder Pharaos power for sustenance in the cities,

 36 and kepe it, yt there maye be foode founde prepared for the lande in the seuen deare yeares, which shall come vpon the lande of Egipte, that the lande be not destroyed of hunger.
 37 The sayenge pleased Pharao well and all his seruautes.
 38 And Pharao sayde vnto his seruautes? How might we fynde soch a man, in whom is the sprete of God?
 39 And sayde vnto Ioseph: For so moch as God hath shewed ye all this, there is none of soch vnderstandinge & wysdome as thou.
 40 Thou shalt be ouer my house, and accordinge vnto thy worde shall all my people obeye: onely in the kynges seate will I be more then thou.
 41 And he sayde: Beholde, I haue set the ouer the whole lande of Egipte.
 42 And he toke of his ringe from his hade and gaue it Ioseph in his hade, and clothed him with whyte sylke, and honge a cheyne of golge aboute his neck, 43 and made him ryde vpo the seconde charet: and caused it be proclaimed before him, that men shulde bowe their knees vnto him, as to him who Pharao had set ouer the whole lande of Egipte.
 44 And Pharao sayde vnto Ioseph: I am Pharao: without thy wyll shall no man moue his hande or his fote in all the lade Egipte.
 45 And he called him Zaphnath Paena, & gaue him a wife, euen Asnath the daughter of Potiphar the prest of On. So Ioseph wente out, for to vyset the lande of Egipte.
 46 (And he was thirtie yeare olde, whan he stode before Pharao.) And he departed from Pharao, and wente thorow all the lande of Egipte.
 47 And the londe dyd so those seuen plenteous yeares, and they gathered 48 all the foode of the seuen yeares that were in the lande of Egipte, & layed it in the cities. Loke what foode grewe in the felde rounde aboute euery cite, they put it therin.
 49 So Ioseph layed vp the corne in stoare, and that moch aboue measure, as the sonde of the see: in so moch yt he left of nombrynge of it, for it coude not be nombred.
 50 And vnto Ioseph there were borne two sonnes (before ye deth came) whom Asnath the daughter of Potiphar prest of On bare vnto him.
 51 And the first called he Manasses: for God (sayde he) hath caused me to forget all my laboure, and all my fathers house.
 52 The seconde called he Ephraim: for God (sayde he) hath caused me to growe in ye lande of my trouble.
 53 Now whan ye seuen plenteous yeares were ended in Egipte, 54 then beganne the seuen deare yeares to come, wherof Ioseph had sayde. And there was derth in all landes, but in all the lade of Egipte there was foode.

 55 Now whan the lande of Egipte beganne to suffre hunger also, the people cryed vnto Pharao for bred. But Pharao sayde vnto all ye Egipcians: Go vnto Ioseph, what he sayeth vnto you, yt doo.
 56 So whan there was derth in all ye lade, Ioseph opened all yt was by him, & solde vnto the Egipcians. Thus ye derth preuayled in the lande, 57 & all countrees came to Egipte to bye at Ioseph: for the derth was mightie in all landes.

Chapter 42

1 Whan Iacob sawe that there was moche corne in Egipte, he sayde vnto his sonnes: Why gape ye?
 2 Beholde, I heare that there is moche corne in Egipte, go downe & bye vs corne, yt we maie lye, & not dye.
 3 So Iosephs ten brethre wente downe to bye corne in Egipte.
 4 As for Ben Iamyn Iosephs brother, Iacob wolde not let him go wt his brethre, for he sayde: Some mysfortune might happen vnto him.
 5 So ye childe of Israel came to bye corne, amonge other yt came wt them: for there was derth also in ye lande of Canaan.
 6 But Ioseph was gouernoure in the lande, and solde corne vnto all the people in the lande. Now wha his brethre came to him, they fell downe to the grounde before him vpon their faces.
 7 And he sawe them, & knewe the, and helde him self straunge towarde them, and talked roughly with them, and saide vnto them: Whence come ye? They sayde: Out of the lande of Canaan to bye vytayle.
 8 Neuertheles though he knewe them, yet knewe they not him.
 9 And Ioseph thought vpon ye dreames that he had dreamed of them, and sayde vnto them: Ye are spies, and are come to se where the lande is open.
 10 They answered him: No my lorde, thy seruantes are come to bye vytayle:
 11 we are all one mans sonnes, we are vnfayned, and thy seruantes were neuer spies.
 12 He sayde vnto the: No, but ye are come to se where the lande is open.
 13 They answered him: We thy seruantes are twolue brethren, the sonnes of one man in the lade of Canaan, and the yongest is with oure father: as for one, he is awaye.
 14 Ioseph sayde vnto them: This is it that I sayde vnto you: spies are ye.
 15 Here by wyll I proue you: By the life of Pharao ye shall not get hence, excepte youre yongest brother come hither.
 16 Sende awaye one of you to fetch youre brother, but ye shalbe in preson. Thus wyll I trye out yor wordes, whether ye go aboute wt trueth or not: for els, by the life of Pharao ye are spies.

17 And he put the together in warde thre dayes longe.
 18 Vpon the thirde daye he sayde vnto the: Yf ye wil lye, the do thus, for I feare God:
 19 Yf ye be vnfayned, let one of youre brethren lye bounde in youre preson: but go ye youre waye, and cary home the necessary foode,
 20 & brynge me youre yongest brother, so wyll I beleue youre wordes, that ye shall not dye. And so they dyd.
 21 And they sayde one to another: This haue we deserued against oure brother, in that we sawe the anguysch of his soule, whan he besought vs, and we wolde not heare him: therefore cometh now this trouble vpon vs.
 22 Ruben answered them, and saide: Tolde not I you ye same, whan I sayde: O synne not agaynst ye lad, but ye wolde not heare. Now is his bloude requyred.
 23 But they knew not that Ioseph vnderstode it, for he spake vnto the by an interpreter.
 24 And he turned him from them, and wepte. Now whan he had turned him to them agayne, and talked wt them, he toke Symon from amonge them & bounde him before their eyes, 25 and commaunded to fyll their sakes wt corne, and to put euery mans money in his sack, and to geue euery one his expenses by the waye. And so was it done vnto them.
 26 And they laded their come vpon their Asses, and departed thence.
 27 ut whan one opened his sackle to geue his Asse prouender in the Inne, he spied his money in his sack mouth, 28 and sayde vnto his brethren: My money is restored me agayne: lo, it is in my sack. Then their hertes fayled them, and they were afrayed amonge them selues, and sayde: Wherefore hath God done this vnto vs?
 29 Now whan they came home to Iacob their father in the lade of Canaan, they tolde him all that had happened vnto them, & sayde:
 30 The man that is lorde of the londe, spake roughly to vs, and toke vs for spies of the countree.
 31 And whan we answered: we are vnfayned, & were neuer spies,
 32 but are twolue brethren the sonnes of oure father: one is awaye, and the yongest is yet this daye wt oure father in the lande of Canaan,
 33 He sayde: Hereby wyl I marke, that ye are vnfayned: Leaue one of youre brethren with me, & take foode necessary for youre houses, & go youre waye,
 34 and brynge youre yongest brother vnto me: so shal I knowe that ye are no spies, but vnfayned: the shal I delyuer you youre brother also, and ye maye occupie in the lande.
 35 And whan they opened their sakes, euery man founde his boundell of money in his sackle. And wha they and their father sawe, that it was the bundels of their money, they were afrayed.
 36 Then sayde Iacob their father: Ye haue robbed me of my children. Ioseph is awaye, Simeon is awaye, and ye will take Ben Iamin awaye: It goeth all ouer me.

 37 Ruben answered his father & sayde: Yf I brynge him not to the againe, then slaye my two sonnes: delyuer him but in to my hande, I wyl brynge him agayne vnto the.
 38 He sayde: my sonne shal not go downe with you: for his brother is deed, and he is left alone. Yf eny mysfortune shulde happen vnto him by the waye yt ye go, ye shulde bringe my graye hayre with sorowe downe vnto the graue.

Chapter 43

1 Bvt the derth oppressed ye lande.
 2 And whan all the vytales that they had brought out of Egipte were spent, Iacob their father sayde vnto them: Go agayne, and bye vs a litle foode.
 3 The Iuda answered him, and sayde: The man sware vnto vs, and sayde: ye shal not se my face, excepte youre brother be with you.
 4 Yf so be now that thou wilt sende oure brother with vs, we wil go downe, and bye the foode.
 5 But yf thou wilt not sende him, we wyl not go downe. For the man sayde vnto vs: Ye shal not se my face, excepte youre brother be with you.
 6 Israel sayde: Wherefore haue ye done this euell vnto me, to tell ye man, that ye had yet a brother?
 7 They answered: The man enquired so strately of vs and of oure kynrede, & sayde: Is youre father yet a lye? Haue ye yet a brother? Then tolde we him, as he axed vs. How coulde we knowe, that he wolde saye: brynge youre brother downe wt you?
 8 Then sayde Iuda vnto Israel his father: Let the lad go with me, that we maye get vs vp and take oure iourney, and lye, and not dye, both we and thou, and oure childe.
 9 I wyl be suertye for him, of my handes shalt thou requyre him. Yf I brynge him not vnto the agayne, & set him before thine eyes, I wil beare ye blame my life longe.
 10 For yf we had not made this tarienge, we had now bene come agayne twyse.
 11 Then sayde Israel their father vnto the: Yf it must nedes be so, then do this: take of the best frutes of the lande in youre sakes, and brynge the man a present: a curtesy balme, and hony, and spycs, and myrre, and dates, and almondes.
 12 Take other money with you also, and the money that was brought agayne in youre sackle mouthes, cary it agayne with you: peradventure it was an ouersight.
 13 And take youre brother, get you vp, & go agayne vnto the man.
 14 The Allmightie God geue you mercy in the sight of ye man, that he maye let you haue youre other brother, and Ben Iamin. As for me, I must be as one, that is robbed of his children.
 15 Then they toke the present, and other money with them, and Ben Iamin, gat the vp, and wente in to Egipte, and stode before Ioseph.

 16 Then Ioseph behelde them with Ben Iamin, and sayde vnto the ruler of his house: Bring these men in, and sle, & make ready, for they shal dyne with me at noone.
 17 And the man dyd as Ioseph bad him, & brought the men in to Iosephs house.
 18 Whan they were brought in to Iosephs house, they were afrayed, and sayde: We are brought hither because of the money, that came agayne in oure sakes at the first, to pyke a quarell with vs, and to laye somethinge to oure charge, and to take vs for bonde seruautes with oure Asses.
 19 Therefore came they to ye man, that was ruler of Iosephs house, and talked wt him at the doore, 20 and sayde: Syr, we came downe at the first to bye foode,
 21 and whan we came in the Inne, and opened oure sakes, beholde, euery mans money was in his sack mouth with full weight: therefore haue we brought it with vs agayne,
 22 & haue brought other money with vs also, to bye foode: but we can not tell, who put oure money in oure sakes.
 23 He sayde: Be content, feare you not, youre God euen ye God of youre fathers hath geue you yt treasure in youre sakes, I had youre money. And he brought forth Simeon vnto them, 24 and led them into Iosephs house, and gaue them water to wash their fete, & gaue their Asses prouender.
 25 And they made readye ye present, ageynst Ioseph came at noone: for they herde, yt they shulde dyne there.
 26 Now whan Ioseph wente in to the house, they brought him home ye present that they had, and fell downe to the grounde before him.
 27 But he welcomed them curteously, and sayde: Is youre father, (that olde man which ye tolde me of) in good health? Is he yet aluye?
 28 They answered: Thy seruaut oure father is in good health, and is yet aluye. And they bowed them selues, and fell downe before him.
 29 And he lift vp his eyes, and sawe his brother Ben Iamin his mothers sonne, and saide: Is this youre yongest brother, that ye tolde me of? And he sayde morouer: God be mercifull vnto the my sonne.
 30 And Ioseph made haist (for the grounde of his hert was kyndled towarde his brother) and sought how he might wepe, & wente in to his chamber, and wepte there.
 31 And whan he had washed his face, he wente out, and refrayned him self, and sayde: set bred (on the table.)
 32 And they brought vnto him by him self, and vnto them by the selues, and to the Egipcians also that ate wt them, by them selues. (For the Egipcians darre not eate bred with the Ebrues, that is an abhominacion vnto them.)
 33 And they were set ouer agaynst him, the first borne accordinge to his first byrth, and the yongest after his youth. They marueled at it amonge them selues, 34 and there were brought them sundrye meates from his table. But Ben Iamins parte was fyue tymes more then the other. And they dronke, and were mery with him.

Chapter 44

1 And Ioseph commaunded the ruler of his house, and sayde: Fyll the mens sakes with fooode, as moch as they maye carye, 2 and put euery mans money in his sacker mouth, & put my syluer cuppe in the sack mouth of the yongest with the money for ye vytayles. He dyd as Ioseph had sayde. 3 And on the morow whan it was daye, they let ye men go with their Asses. 4 But whan they were out of the cite, and not come farre, Ioseph sayde to the ruler of his house: Vp, and folowe after the me, and whan thou ouertakest them, saie vnto them: Wherefore haue ye rewarded euell for good? 5 Is not that it, that my lorde drynketh out of? and that he prophecieth withall? It is euell done of you, that ye haue done. 6 And whan he had ouertaken them, he sayde the same wordes vnto them. 7 They answered him: Wherefore saiest thou my lorde soch wordes? God forbyd, that thy seruantes shulde do eny soch thinge? 8 Beholde, the money that we foude in oure sakes mouthes, that brought we vnto the agayne, out of the lande of Canaan: how shulde we then haue stollen either syluer or golde out of thy lordes house? 9 Loke by whom it shall be founde amonge thy seruantes, let him dye: yee and we also wyll be my lordes bondmen. 10 He sayde: let it so be, as ye haue spoken. Loke by whom it shall be founde, let him be my seruauant, but ye shalbe harmlesse. 11 And they made haist, and toke downe euery man his sack to the grounde, and euery man opened his sack: 12 And he searched & beganne at the greatest vnto the yongest, and the cuppe was founde in Ben Iamins sacker. 13 Then rente they their clothes, and euery man lade the burthen vpon his Asse, & wente agayne vnto the cite. 14 And Iuda wente with his brethren vnto Iosephs house (for he was there yet) and they fell before him on the groude. 15 Ioseph sayde vnto them: What maner of dede is this, that ye haue done? Knewe ye not, that soch a man as I am, can prophesy? 16 Iuda sayde: What shall we saye vnto my lorde? or how shal we speake? and what excuse shal we make? God hath founde out ye wickednesse of thy seruantes. Beholde, we and he, by whom the cuppe is founde, are my lordes seruantes. 17 But he sayde: God forbyd that I shulde do so. The man by whom the cuppe is founde, shall by my seruauant, but go ye vp in peace vnto youre father. 18 The stepte Iuda vnto him, and sayde: My lorde, let thy seruauant speake one worde in thine eares my lorde, be not displeas at yi seruauant also, for thou art eue as Pharao. 19 My lorde axed his seruantes, and sayde: Haue ye yet a father or brother? 20 Then answered we: We haue a father, which is olde, and a yonge lad begotten in his age, and his brother is deed, & he is left alone of his mother, and his father loueth him. 21 Then saydest thou: Brynge him downe vnto me, and I wil se him. 22 But we answered my lorde: The lad can not come from his father, yf he shulde come from him, he were but a deed man. 23 Then saydest thou vnto thy seruantes: Yf youre yongest brother come not hither with you, ye shall se my face nomore. 24 Then wente we vp vnto thy seruauant my father, and tolde him my lordes wordes. 25 Then sayde oure father: Go youre waye agayne, and bye vs a litle fooode. 26 But we sayde: We can not go downe, excepte oure yongest brother be with vs, then wyll we go downe: for we darre not loke the man in the face, yf oure yongest brother be not with vs. 27 Then sayde thy seruauant my father vnto vs: Ye knowe that my wife bare me two sonnes, 28 one wente out fro me, and I sayde: he is torne in peces. 29 Yf ye take this fro me also, and eny mysfortune happe him, then shal ye brynge my gray heer with sorowe downe vnto the graue. 30 Yf I now come home vnto my father, & the lad be not with me (seynghe his soule hangeth by the soule of this) 31 then shall it come to passe, that yf he se not the lad there, he shal dye. So shal we thy seruantes brynge the gray heer of thy seruauant oure father with sorowe downe to the graue. 32 For I thy seruauant became suertye for the lad vnto my father, and sayde: yf I brynge him not agayne, I will beare the blame all my lyfe longe. 33 Therefore let thy seruauant byde here in steade of ye lad, to be my lordes bonde man, and let the lad go vp with his brethren. 34 For how can I go vp vnto my father, yf the lad be not with me? Then shulde I se the mysery that shulde happen vnto my father.

1 Then coude not Ioseph refrayne him self before all them that stode aboute him: and he comaunded euery man to go out from him, and there stode no man by him, whan Ioseph vttred him self vnto his brethren. 2 And he wepte loude, so that ye Egipcians and Pharaos housholde herde it.

3 And he sayde vnto his brethren: I am Ioseph, is my father yet alyue? And his brethren coulde not answere him, they were so abashed before his face. 4 But he sayde: Come nye vnto me. And they came nye. And he sayde: I am Ioseph youre brother. whom ye solde in to Egipte. 5 And now vexe not youre selues, & thinke not yt there is eny wrath, because ye solde me hither. For God sent me hither before you, for yor lyues sake. 6 For these are now two yeares, that ye derth hath bene in the lande, and there are yet fyue yeares behynde, wherin there shalbe no plowinge ner haruest. 7 But God sent me hither before you, yt he might let you remayne vpon earth, and to saue youre lyues by a greate delyueraunce. 8 And now, it was not ye then that sent me hither, but God which hath made me a father vnto Pharao, & lorde ouer all his house, and a prynce in the whole lande of Egipte. 9 Haist you therefore, and go vp vnto my father, and saye vnto him: Thy sonne Ioseph sendeth the this worde: God hath made me lorde in all Egipte, come downe vnto me, tarye not, 10 thou shalt dwel in the lande of Gosen, and be with me: thou and thy children, and thy childers childre, thy small and greate catell, and all that thou hast. 11 There wyll I make prouysion for the (for there are yet fyue yeares of derth) that thou perishe not wt thine house, and all that is thyne. 12 Beholde, youre eyes and the eyes of my brother Ben Iamin se, that I myne owne self speake vnto you by mouth. 13 Shewe my father all my worshipec in Egipte, and all that ye haue sene: haist you, and come downe hither with my father. 14 And he fell aboute his brother Ben Iamins neck, and wepte, and Ben Iamin wepte vpon his neck also. 15 And he kyssed all his brethren, and wepte vpon them. And afterwarde talked his brethren wt him. 16 And this tydinges came in to Pharaos house: Iosephs brethren are come, which pleased Pharao well, and all his seruantes. 17 And Pharao spake vnto Ioseph: Saye vnto thy brethren: Do thus, lade youre beastes, go youre waye, and whan ye come in to the lande of Canaan, 18 take youre father and youre housholdes, and come vnto me, I wyll geue you of the goodes in the lade of Egipte, so that ye shall eate the fatt in the lande. 19 And he commaunded them, Do thus, Take you charettes out of ye lande of Egipte for youre children and wyues, and brynge youre father, and come, 20 and regarde not youre housholde stuff: for the goodes of all the lade of Egipte shalbe yours. 21 The children of Israel dyd so, and Ioseph gaue the charettes acordyng to Pharaos commaundement, and expenses by the waye, 22 and gaue them all, vnto euery one a change of rayment: but vnto Ben Iamin he gaue thre hundreth syluer pens, and fyue change of rayment. 23 As for his father, he sent him ten Asses laden with goodes out of Egipte, and ten Asses with corne and bred, and vytayles for his father by ye waye. 24 So he sent awaye his brethren, and sayde vnto them: Stryue not by the waye. 25 Thus they departed out of Egipte, and came to the lande of Canaan vnto Iacob their father, and tolde him, and sayde: 26 Thy sonne Ioseph is yet alyue, and is a lorde in all the lande of Egipte. But his hert wauered, for he beleued them not. 27 The tolde they him all the wordes of Ioseph, which he had sayde vnto them. And whan he sawe ye charettes that Ioseph had sent to fetch him, his sprete reuyued, 28 & he sayde: I haue ynough, that my sonne Ioseph is yet a liue I wil go, and se him, before I dye.

1 Israel toke his iourney with all that he had. And whan he came to Berseba, he offred offerynges vnto ye God of his father Isaac. 2 And God spake vnto him in a vision by night: Iacob Iacob. He sayde: here am I. 3 And he saide: I am ye mightie God of thy father, be not afrayed to go into Egipte, for there wyl I make a greate people of the. 4 I wyll go downe with the, & wil brynge the vp also. And Ioseph shal laye his hande vpon thine eyes. 5 Then Iacob gat him vp from Berseba, and ye children of Israel caried Iacob their father with their children and wyues vpon the charettes that Pharao had sent to cary him. 6 And they toke their catell & substaunce which they had gotten in the lande of Canaan, and so came in to Egipte: Iacob & all his sede with him, 7 his children & his childers children with him, his daughters, and the daughters of his children, & all his sede. 8 These are ye names of the children of Israel, which came in to Egipte, Iacob & his sonnes. 26 All the soules yt came wt Iacob in to Egipte, which proceded out of his loynes (besyde the wyues of his childre) are all together sixe & sixtie soules.

27 And Iosephs childre which were borne vnto him in Egipte, were two soules: so that all the soules of the house of Iacob which came into Egipte, were seuentye.

28 And he sent Iuda before him vnto Ioseph, to shew him the waye to Gosen, & they came in to the lande of Gosen.

29 Then Ioseph bended his chareft fast, and wente vp to mete Israel his father vnto Gosen. And whan he sawe him, he fell aboute his neck, & wepte sore vpon his neck.

30 Then sayde Israel vnto Ioseph: Now am I content to dye, for so moch as I haue sene thy face, that thou art yet alyue.

31 Ioseph sayde vnto his brethren, & to his fathers house: I will go vp, & tell Pharao, & saye vnto him: My brethre and my fathers house are come vnto me out of the lande of Canaan, 32 and are keepers of catell (for they are men that deale with catell:) their small & greate catell, and all that they haue, haue they brought with them.

33 Now yf Pharao call you, and saye: what is youre occupacio?

34 then ye shal saye: Thy seruantes are men yt haue dealt wt catell from oure youth vp hytherto, both we & oure fathers, that ye maye dwell in the lande of Gosen: for the Egipcians abhorre all keepers of catell.

Chapter 47

1 Then came Ioseph, and tolde Pharao & sayde: My father and my brethren, their small & greate catell, & all yt they haue, are come out of ye lande of Canaan:

2 & beholde, they are in the lande of Gesen. And he toke fyue of his brethren, & presented them vnto Pharao.

3 Then sayde Pharao vnto his brethren: What is youre occupacion? They answered: Thy seruantes are keepers of catell, we and oure fathers also.

4 And they sayde morouer vnto Pharao: We are come to dwell with you in the lande, for yi seruantes haue no pasture for their catell, so sore doth the derth oppresse the lande of Canaan. Now therfore let yi seruantes dwell in the lande of Gosen.

5 Pharao sayde vnto Ioseph: Thy father and thy brethren are come vnto the:

6 the lande of Egipte is open before the, let them dwell in the best place of the lande, & se yt they dwell euen in the lande of Gosen. And yf thou knowest that there be men of actiuyte amoge the, make the rulers of my catell.

7 Ioseph brought in Iacob his father also, & set him before Pharao. And Iacob thanked Pharao.

8 But Pharao axed Iacob: How olde art thou?

9 Iacob sayde: The tyme of my pylgremage is an hudreth and thirtie yeares: litle and euell is the tyme of my pilgremage, and attayneth not vnto the tyme of my fathers in their pylgremages.

10 And Iacob thanked Pharao, and wete out from him.

11 So Ioseph prepared dwellinges for his father and his brethren, & gaue them a possession in the lande of Egipte, euen in the best place of the lande, namely, in the lande of Raemeses, as Pharao comaunded.

12 And he made prouysion for his father and his brethren, and all his fathers house with bred, euen as yonge children.

13 There was no bred in all the londe, for the derth was very sore: so yt the lande of Egipte & the lande of Canaan were fameshed by ye reason of the derth.

14 And Ioseph brought together all the money that was founde in Egipte and Canaan, for ye corne that they bought. And he layed vp all the money in Pharaos house.

15 Now whan money fayled in the lande of Egipte and Canaan, all the Egipcians came vnto Ioseph, & saide: Geue vs bred. Why suffrest thou vs to dye before ye, because weare without money?

16 Ioseph saide: Brynge hither youre catell, so wil I geue you for youre catell, seyng ye are without money.

17 Then brought they their catell vnto Ioseph. And he gaue the bred for their horses, shepe, oxen and Asses. So he fed them with bred yt yeare, for all their catell.

18 Whan yt yeare was ended, they came vnto him the next yeare, & sayde vnto him: We wil not hyde it from or lorde, yt not onely the money, but all the catell also is spent vnto or lorde: & there is nothinge left more for or lorde, but onely or body & oure lande.

19 Wherfore suffrest thou both vs to dye, and oure londe? Take vs and oure lade for bred, that we and oure lande maye be bonde vnto Pharao: geue vs sede, that we maye lyue and not dye, & yt the lande become not a wilderness.

20 So Ioseph toke all the lande of Egipte in for Pharao: for the Egipcians solde euery man his lande, because ye derth was so mightie vpon them: and so the lode became Pharaos,

21 with the people that wente out and in at his cities, from one syde of Egipte vnto the other,

22 excepte the prestes londe, that toke he not in: For it was ordened of Pharao for the prestes, that they shulde eate that which was appoynted them, which he gaue them, therfore they neded not to sell their londes.

23 Then sayde Ioseph vnto the people: Beholde, I haue taken possession of you and youre lande this daye for Pharao, Beholde, there haue ye sede, sowe the londe, 24 and of the corne ye shall geue the fifth parte vnto Pharao: foure partes shalbe youre, to sowe the londe for youre sustenance, and for youre houses and children.

25 They sayde: Let vs but lyue, & fynde grace before the oure lorde, we wyl gladly be Pharaos seruantes:

26 So Ioseph made the a lawe vnto this daye ouer the Egipcians londe, to geue Pharao the fifth parte, excepte the prestes londe, which was not bonde vnto Pharao.

27 So Israel dwelt in Egipte in the londe of Gosen, and had it in possession, and grew and multiplied exceedingly.

28 And Iacob lyued seuentene yeare in the lande of Egipte, so that his whole age was an hudreth and seuen and fourtye yeares.

29 Now whan the tyme came that Israel shulde dye, he called Ioseph his sonne, and sayde vnto him: Yf I haue founde grace in thy sight, then laye thine honde vnder my thye, yt thou shalt shewe mercy and faithfulness vpon me, and not burye me in Egipte, 30 but I will lye by my fathers, and thou shalt carye me out of Egipte, & burye me in their buryall. He sayde: I wil do as thou hast sayde.

31 But he sayde: Then swaere vnto me. And he swaere vnto him. The Israel bowed himself towarde the bed heade.

Chapter 48

1 After this it was tolde Ioseph: Beholde, yi father is sicke. And he toke with him his two sonnes Manasses and Ephraim.

2 Then was it tolde Iacob: beholde, yi sonne Ioseph cometh vnto ye. And Israel toke a corage vnto him, & sat vp vpo ye bed,

3 & sayde vnto Ioseph: The Almightye God appeared vnto me at Lus in ye lade of Canaan, & blessed me,

4 & saide vnto me: Beholde, I wil cause ye to growe & increase & wyll make a multitude of people of ye, & wil geue this lade vnto yi sede after ye for an euerlastinge possession.

5 Therfore shal now thy two sonnes Manasses & Ephraim (which were borne vnto the in Egipte, before I came hither vnto the) be myne, like as Ruben & Simeon.

6 As for those that thou begetttest after the, they shal be thine owne. But these shalbe named with the names of their brethren in their inheritaunce.

7 And wha I came out of Mesopotamia, Rachel dyed by me in the lande of Canaan, by the waye, whan there was yet but a felde brede vnto Eprath: and I buried her in the waye towarde Ephrath, which now is called Bethleem.

8 And Israel loked vpon Iosephs sonnes, & sayde: What are these?

9 Ioseph answered: They are my sonnes, which God hath geuen me here. He sayde: Brynge the hither to me, yt I maye blesse the.

10 (For Israels eyes were heuy for age, & he coude not well se.) And he brought the vnto him. So he kyssed them, & embraced the,

11 & saide vnto Ioseph: Beholde, I haue sene yi face, which I thought not: & lo, God hath caused me to se yi sede also.

12 And Ioseph toke them from his lappe, and they fell downe to the grounde vpon their face.

14 But Israel stretched out his right hande, & layed it vpo ye heade of Ephraim ye yogest & his left hande vpo Manasses heade, & did so wyttgly wt his handes, for Manasses was ye firstborne.

15 And he blessed Ioseph, & saide: The God before who my fathers Abraha & Isaac haue walked: ye God yt hath fed me my lyfe longe vnto this daye:

16 the angell which hath deluyered me fro all euell, blesse these laddes, yt they maye be called after my name, & after ye name of my fathers Abraha & Isaac, yt they maye growe & multiplie vpon earth.

17 But wha Ioseph sawe yt his father layed ye right hade vpo Ephraims heade, it displeased him, & he lift vp his fathers hande, to remoue it fro Ephraims heade vnto ye heade of Manasses, 18 & sayde vnto him: Not so my father, this is ye firstborne, laye yi right hade vpo his heade.

19 Neuertheles his father wolde not, & saide: I knowe it well my sonne, I knowe it well, this shall be a people also, & shalbe greate: but his yonger brother shal be greater the he, & his sede shal be full of people.

20 So he blessed them the same daye & saide: In ye shal Israel blesse, so yt it shal be sayde: God set the as Ephraim & Manasses. And so he set Ephraim aboute Manasses.

21 And Israel saide vnto Ioseph: Beholde, I dye, & God shall be wt you, & brynge you agayne in to ye lande of youre fathers.

22 I haue geuen the a pece of londe, without ye brethren, which I gat with my swerde and my bowe out of the hande of the Amorites.

Chapter 49

1 And Iacob called his sonnes, & sayde: Gather you, yt I maie tell you, what shal happen vnto you in ye last times:

2 Come together, and heare ye childre of Iacob: Herken vnto Israel youre father.

3 Rube my first sonne, thou art my power and the begynnynge of my strength, chefe in gouernaunce, & chefe in auctorite.

4 Thou passest forth swiftly as ye water. Thou shalt not be the chefest: For thou hast clymmed vp vpon thy fathers bed, euen than defyledest thou my couch with goynge vp.

5 Symeon and Leui brethren, their deedly weapens are perlous instrumentes.

6 In to their secretes come not my soule, and my worshipe be not ioyned with their congregacion: for in their wrath they slew a man, and in their selfwyll they houghed an oxe.

7 Cursed be their wrath, because it is so feare: and their indignacion, because it is so rigorous. I wil deuoyde them in Iacob, and scater them in Israel

8 Iuda, thou art he. Thy brethren shall prayse the: for thy hade shall be in thine enemies neck: thy fathers children shall stoupe vnto the.

9 Iuda is a yonge lyon, thou art come vp hye my sonne, fro the spoyle. He kneled downe and couched himself as a lyon & as a lionesse: who wil rayse him vp?

10 The cepter shal not be remoued fro Iuda, ner a master fro his fete, tyll the Worthye come, and vnto him shal the people fall.

11 He shall bynde his foale vnto the vyne, and his Asses colte to ye noble braunch. He shal wash his garment in wyne, and his mantell in the bloude of grapes.

12 His eyes are roudier then wyne, and his teth whyter then mylck.

13 Zabulon shal dwell in the hauen of the see, and in the porte of shippes, and shal border vpon Sydon.

14 Isachar shal be a stronge Asse, & laye him downe betwixte ye borders.

15 And he saw rest, that it was good, and the lande, that it was pleasaunt. And bowed downe his shulder to beare, and became a seruaut vnto trybute.

16 Dan shal be iudge in his people, as well as a trybe in Israel.

17 Dan shalbe a serpent in the waye, and an edder in the path, and byte the horse in the heles, that his ryder maye fall backwarde.

18 LORDE I loke for thy saluacion.

19 As for Gad, a wapened hoost of men shal fall violently vpon him, but he shall hurte them in the hele.

20 Of Asser cometh his fat bred, and he shal geue delicates vnto kynges.

21 Nephtali is a swift hynde, and geueth goodly wordes.

22 The fruteful sonne Ioseph, that florishinge sonne to loke vpon, the doughters go vpo the wall.

23 And though the shoters angered him, stroue with him, and hated him, 24 yet his bowe bode fast, and the armes of his hades were made stroge by the handes of ye Mightie in Iacob. Of him are come herdmen & stones in Israel.

25 Of yi fathers God art thou helped, & of the Allmightie art thou blessed, wt blessinges of heauen from aboue, with blessinges of ye depe yt lyeth vnder, with blessinges of brestes & wombes.

26 The blessinges promised vnto thy father and my fore elders go mightely, after the desyre of the hiest in the worlde: these shal light on Iosephs heade, and on the toppe of his heade, that was separate from his brethren.

27 Ben Iamin, a rauyshinge wolfe. In the mornynge shal he deuoure the praye, but in the euenynge he shal deuoyde the spoyle.

28 All these are the twolue trybes of Israel: and this is it that their father spake vnto them, whan he blessed them, euery one with a sundrye blessinge.

29 And he commaunded them, and sayde vnto them: I shal be gathered vnto my people, burye me with my fathers in ye caue which is in the felde of Ephron the Hethite, 30 in the dubble caue that lyeth ouer against Mamre in ye lande of Canaa, which Abraha bought with the felde, of Ephron the Hethite for a possession to burye in.

31 There buryed they Abraha & Sara his wife, there buried they Isaac also & Rebecca his wife: & their buried I Lea, 32 in the good of the felde & of the caue therin, which was bought of the Hethites.

33 And whan Iacob had ended this commaundement vnto his children, he pluckte his fete together vpon the bed, and died, and was gathered vnto his people.

Chapter 50

1 The fell Ioseph vpon his fathers face, and wepte, and kyssed him.

2 And Ioseph comauded his seruantes ye Phisicias, to embawme his father. And the Phisicians embawmed Israel,

3 tyll fourtye dayes were ended (for so longe endured the dayes of embawminge) & the Egipcians bewayled him seuentye dayes.

4 Now whan the mornynge dayes were ended, Ioseph spake vnto Pharaos housholde, & sayde: Yf I haue founde fauor in youre sight, the speake vnto Pharao and saie:

5 My father hath taken an ooth of me, & sayde: Beholde, I dye, burye me in myne owne graue, which I dygged for myself in the lade of Canaan. Therefore wyl I now go vp, and burye my father, and come agayne.

6 Pharao saide: Go thy waye vp, and burye thy father, acordinge as thou hast sworne vnto him.

7 So Ioseph wete vp, to burye his father. And there wete wt him all Pharaos seruantes yt were the elders of his courte, and all ye elders of the lande of Egipste, 8 & all Iosephs housholde, and his brethren, and his fathers housholde. Onely their children, shepe & oxen left they in ye lade of Gosen, 9 & toke their iourney vp with him, vpo charettes and horses, and the company was exceedinge greate.

10 Now whan these came to the playne of Atad yt lyeth beyonde Iordane, they made there a very greate and bytter lamentacion, & he mourned for his father seue dayes.

11 And wha the people in the lande (the Cananites) sawe the mornynge in the playne of Atad, they sayde: The Egipcias make there greate lametacion. Therefore is the place called: The lamentacion of the Egipcians, which lyeth beyonde Iordane.

12 And his children dyd as he had comaunded them,

13 and caried him to ye lande of Canaan, and buried him in ye dubble caue, that Abraham bought with the felde for a possession to bury in, of Ephron ye Hethite ouer ageynst Mamre.

14 So Ioseph toke his iourney agayne in to Egipste with his brethren, and with all those that wente vp with him to burye his father, whan they had buried him.

15 But Iosephs brethre were afrayed, wha their father was deed, and sayde: Ioseph might happily haue indignacion at vs, and recompense vs all the euell that we dyd vnto him,

16 therefore let they saye vnto him: Thy father commauded before his death, and sayde:

17 Thus shal ye saye vnto Ioseph: O forgeue thy brethren the offence and their synne, that they dyd so euell vnto the. O forgeue now this trespase of vs the seruantes of thy fathers God. But Ioseph wepte, whan they spake so vnto him.

18 And his brethren wente, and fell downe before him, and sayde: Beholde, here are we thy seruantes.

19 Ioseph sayde vnto the: Feare ye not, for I am vnder God.

20 Ye thought euell ouer me, but God hath turned it vnto good, to do as it is come to passe this daye, for the sauynge of moch people.

21 Therefore be not ye now afrayed, I wyl care for you and youre children. And he comforted them, and spake loungly vnto them.

22 Thus dwelt Ioseph in Egipste with his fathers house, and lyued an hudreth and ten yeare, 23 and sawe Ephrayms children, vnto ye thirde generacion: In like maner the children of Machir the sonne of Manasses, begat children also vpon Iosephs lappe.

24 And Ioseph sayde vnto his brethren: I dye, and God wyl vyset you, and brynge you out of this lande, to the lande that he sware vnto Abraham, Isaac and Iacob.

25 Therefore toke he an ooth of the childre of Israel, and sayde: Whan God shal vyset you, the cary my bones fro hence.

26 So Ioseph dyed, wha he was an hudreth and ten yeare olde, and they embawmed him, & layed him in a chest in Egipste.

EXODUS

Chapter 1

1 These are ye names of the childre of Israel, that came with Iacob into Egipste: euery one came in wt his house,

2 Ruben, Simeon, Leui, Iuda,

3 Isachar, Zabulo, Ben Iamin,

4 Dan, Nephtali, Gad and Aser.

5 And of all the soules that came out of the loynes of Iacob, there were seuentie.

As for Ioseph, he was in Egipste all ready.

6 Now wha Ioseph was deed, and all his brethren, and all they that lyued at that tyme,

7 the children of Israel grewe, and increased, and multiplied, and became exceedinge mightie, so yt the lande was full of them.

8 The came there a new kyng ouer Egipste, which knewe nothings of Ioseph, 9 and sayde vnto his people: Beholde, the people of the children of Israel are many, & mightier then we:

10 Vp, let vs deale wysely with them, yt there be not so many of them. For yf there shulde ryse vp eny warre agaynst vs, they might ioyne them selues also vnto oure enemies, and ouercome vs, & so get them out of the lande.

11 And he set worke masters ouer them, to kepe them vnder with burthens. (For they buylded the cities Phiton and Raemes, for treasuries vnto Pharao.)

12 But the more they vexed them, the more they multiplied and grew. Therefore had they indignacio at the children of Israel,

13 and the Egipcians compelled the children of Israel without mercy to do seruyce, 14 and made their lyues bytter vnto them with greuous laboure in claye and brycke, and with allmaner of bondage in ye felde, and with allmaner of labour, which they layed vpon them without mercy.

15 And the kyng of Egipste sayde vnto the mydwyues of the Hebrueswemen. (Of the which one was called Siphra, and the other Pua:)

16 Whan ye helpe the wemen of the Hebrues, and se vpon the stole, that it is a sonne, then slaye him: but yf it be a daughter, let her lyue.

17 Neuertheles the mydwyues feared God, & dyd not as the kinge of Egipste commaunded them, but let the children lyue.

18 Then the kyng of Egipste called the mydwyues, and sayde vnto them: Wherefore do ye this, that ye let the children lyue?

19 The mydwyues answered Pharao: The wemen of the Hebrues are not as the wemen of Egipte, for they are sturdy wemen: or euer the mydwyues come at them, they are delyuered.
 20 Therefore God dealt well with the mydwyues. And the people multiplied, and became excedinge mightie.
 21 And for so moch as the mydwyues feared God, he made them houses.
 22 Then Pharao commauded all his people and sayde: All the sonnes that are borne, cast in to the water, but let all the daughters lyue.

Chapter 2

1 And there wente forth a man of the house of Leui, and toke a daughter of Leui.
 2 And the wife conceaued and bare a sonne. And whan she sawe yt it was a proper childe, she hyd him thre monethes.
 3 And whan she coude hyde him no longer, she toke an Arke of redes, and dawbed it ouer with slyme and pitch, and layed the childe therin, and set it amonge the redes by the waters brynke.
 4 But his sister stode a farre of, to wete what wolde come of him.
 5 And Pharaos daughter came downe, to wash herself in the water: And hir maydens walked by the water syde: and whan she sawe the Arke amonge the redes, she sent one of hir maydens, and caused it to be fett.
 6 And whan she opened it, she sawe ye childe: and beholde the babe wepte. Then had she pytie vpon it, and sayde: It is one of the Hebrues children.
 7 Then sayde his syster vnto Pharaos daughter: Shal I go, and call the a nurse of the Hebrues wemen, to nurse ye the childe?
 8 Pharaos daughter sayde vnto her: Go thy waye. The mayde wente, and called the childes mother.
 9 Then sayde Pharaos daughter vnto her: Take this childe, and nurse it for me, I wyll geue ye thy rewarde. The woman toke the childe, and nursed it.
 10 And whan the childe was growne, she brought it vnto Pharaos daughter, and it became hir sonne, and she called him Moses. For she sayde: I toke him out of the water.
 11 Vpon a tyme whan Moses was greate, he wente forth vnto his brethren, and loked vpon their burthens, and sawe, that an Egipcian smote one of his brethren ye Hebrues.
 12 And he loked rounde aboute him: and whan he sawe that there was no man, he slew the Egipcian, and buried him in the sonde.
 13 The next daye he wente forth also, and sawe two men of the Hebrues stryuyng together, and sayde to the vngdoly: Wherefore smyttest thou thy neyghboure?
 14 But he sayde: Who made the a ruler or iudge ouer vs? Wilt thou slaye me also, as thou slewest the Egipcian? The was Moses afrayed, and sayde: How is this knowne?

 15 And Pharao herde of it, and sought for Moses, to slaye him. But Moses fled from Pharao, and kepte him in the lande of Madian, and sat him downe by a wells syde.
 16 The prest Madian had seuen daughters, which came to drawe water, and fylled the troughes, to geue their fathers shepe to drinke.
 17 Then came the shepherdes, and droue the awaye. But Moses gat him vp, and helped them, and gaue their shepe to drynke.
 18 And whan they came to Reguel their father, he saide: How came ye so soone to daie?
 19 They sayde: A man of Egipte delyuered vs from ye shepherdes, and drew vnto vs, and gaue the shepe to drynke.
 20 He sayde vnto his daughters. Where is he? Wherefore let ye the man go, that ye called him not to eate with vs?
 21 And Moses was content to dwell with the man. And he gaue Moses his daughter Zipora, 22 which bare him a sonne, and he called him Gerson, for he sayde: I am become a straunger in a straunge lande.
 23 And she bare him yet a sonne, whom he called Elieser, and sayde: The God of my father is my helper, and hath delyuered me from Pharaos hade. But after this in processe of tyme, the kynge of Egipte dyed. And the childe of Israel sighed ouer their laboure, and cried.
 24 And their crye ouer their labor, came before God. And God herde their copleynthe, & remebred his couenaunt with Abraham Isaac and Iacob.
 25 And God loked vpon the childe of Israel, and God knew it.

Chapter 3

1 Moses kepte the shepe of Iethro his father in lawe prest of Madian, & droue the shepe on the backsyde of the wyldernes, and came to the mountayne of God, Horeb.
 2 And the angell of ye LORDE appeared vnto him in a flame of fyre out of the bush. And he sawe that ye bush brent wt fyre, and yet was not consumed,
 3 and saide: I wil go hence, and se this greate sight, why ye bush is not brent.
 4 Whan the LORDE sawe, that he wente his waye to se, God called vnto him out of the bush, and sayde: Moses, Moses. He answered: Here am I.
 5 He sayde: Come not hither, put thy shues of thy fete, for the place where vpon thou stondest, is an wholly groude.
 6 And he sayde morouer: I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, ye God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob. And Moses couered his face, for he was afrayed to loke vpon God.
 7 And the LORDE sayde: I haue sene the trouble of my people in Egipte & haue herde their crye ouer those that oppresse them. I knowe their sorowe,

 8 and am come downe to delyuere them from the power of the Egipcians, and to carye them out of that lode, in to a good and wyde londe, euen in to a londe that floweth with mylke and hony: namely, vnto the place of the Cananites, Hethites, Amorites, Pheresites, Heuytes & Iebusites.
 9 For so moch now as the complaynte of the children of Israel is come before me, & I haue sene their oppression wherwith the Egipcians oppresse them:
 10 Go now yi waye therefore, I wil sende the vnto Pharao, that thou mayest brynge my people the children of Israel out of Egipte.
 11 Moses sayde vnto God: Who am I, yt I shulde go vnto Pharao, and brynge the children of Israel out of Egipte?
 12 He sayde: I wyll be with the: & this shall be the token, yt I haue sent the. Whan thou hast brought my people out of Egipte, ye shal serue God vpon this mountayne.
 13 Moses sayde vnto God: Beholde, whan I come to the childe of Israel, and saye vnto them: The God of youre fathers hath sent me vnto you, & they saye vnto me: What is his name? what shal I saye vnto them?
 14 God saide vnto Moses: I wyl be what I wyll be. And he sayde: Thus shalt thou saye vnto ye children of Israel: I wyl be hath sent me vnto you.
 15 And God sayde morouer vnto Moses: Thus shalt thou saye vnto the children of Israel: The LORDE God of youre fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, ye God of Iacob hath sent me vnto you, this is my name for euer, and my memoriall from childe to childes childe.
 16 Go thy waye therefore, and gather the elders of Israel tother, and saye vnto them: The LORDE God of youre fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Iacob hath appeared vnto me, and sayde: I haue vysited you, and sene what is done vnto you in Egipte, 17 and haue sayde: I wil brynge you out of the trouble of Egipte, in to ye lande of ye Cananites, Hethites, Amorites, Pheresites, Heuytes & Iebusites: in to a lode yt floweth with mylke and hony.
 18 And yf they heare yi voyce, then shalt thou and the elders of Israel go in to the kynge of Egipte, and saye vnto him: The LORDE God of ye Hebrues hath called vs. Let vs go now therefore thre dayes journey in the wyldernes, yt we maye do sacrifice vnto the LORDE oure God.
 19 But I knowe, that the kynge of Egipte wil not let you go, but thorow a mightie hade.
 20 For I will stretch out myne hande, & smyte Egipte wt all maner of wonders which I will do therin: after yt shal he let you go.
 21 And I wil geue this people faouore in the sight of the Egipcians: so that whan ye go forth, ye shal not go forth emptye:
 22 but euery wife shall borowe of hir neyghboursse & of her that sogeourneth in hir house, Iewels of syluer and golde and rayment: those shal ye put vpon youre sonnes and daughters, and spoyle the Egipcians.

Chapter 4

1 Moses answered, & sayde: Beholde, they shall not beleue me, ner heare my voyce, but shal saye: The LORDE hath not appeared vnto the.
 2 The LORDE sayde vnto him: What is yt, that thou hast in thine hande? He saide a staff.
 3 He sayde: Cast it from the vpon the grounde. And he cast it fro him: then was it turned to a serpent. And Moses fled fro it.
 4 But ye LORDE saide vnto him: Stretch forth thine hande, & take it by the tayle. Then stretched he forth his hande, and toke it, and it became a staff agayne in his hande.
 5 Therefore shal they beleue that ye LORDE God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac ye God of Iacob hath appeared vnto the.
 6 And the LORDE sayde furthermore vnto him: Thrust thine hade in to yi bosome. And he thrust it in to his bosome, & toke it out: beholde, the was it leper like snowe.
 7 And he saide: Put it in to yi bosome agayne. And he put it agayne in to his bosome, & toke it out: beholde, the was it turned againe as his flesh.
 8 Yf they wil not beleue the, ner heare ye voyce of the first token, yet shal they beleue the voyce of the seconde token.
 9 But yf they wil not beleue these two tokens ner heare thy voyce, then take of the water of the ryuer, and poure it vpon the drye londe: so shall the same water yt thou hast take out of ye ryuer, be turned vnto bloude vpo ye drye londe.
 10 But Moses sayde vnto the LORDE: Oh my LORDE, I am a man yt is not eloquet, from yesterdaye & yeryesterdaye, & sence the tyme yt thou hast spoken vnto thy seruauant: for I haue a slowe speach, & a slowe tunge.
 11 The LORDE sayde vnto him: Who hath made the mouth of man? Or who hath made the domme, or the deaf, or the seyng or ye blynde? Haue not I the LORDE done it?
 12 Go now thy waye therefore, I wil be wt thy mouth, & teach the what thou shalt saye.
 13 But Moses sayde: My LORDE, sende whom thou wilt sende.
 14 Then was the LORDE very angrie at Moses, and saide: Do not I knowe then, yt thy brother Aaron the Leuite is well spoken? And beholde, he shal go forth to mete ye: & whan he seyth the, he shal reioyse from his hert.
 15 Thou shalt speake vnto him, & put the wordes in his mouth: & I wil be with thy mouth & his, and teach you what ye shall doo:
 16 & he shall speake vnto the people for the. He shal be thy mouth, & thou shalt be his God.

17 And take in thine hande this staff, wherwith thou shalt do tokens.

18 Moses wete, and came agayne vnto Iethro his father in lawe, and sayde vnto him: Let me go (I praye the) that I maye turne agayne vnto my brethre, which are in Egipte, and se whether they be yet alyue. Iethro sayde vnto him: Go thy waye in peace.

19 The LORDE sayde also vnto him in Madian: Go yi waye, turne againe in to Egipte, for ye me are deed, that sought after thy life.

20 So Moses toke his wife, and his sonnes, and caried them vpon an Asse, & wente againe into the lande of Egipte, & toke the staff of God in his hande.

21 And the LORDE saide vnto Moses: When thou comest agayne in to Egipte, se yt thou do all the wonders (before Pharao) which I haue put in yi hade. But I wil harde his hert, yt he shall not let the people go.

22 And thou shalt saie vnto Pharao: Thus sayeth ye LORDE: Israel is my first borne sonne, 23 & I saye vnto the: Let my sonne go, yt he maye serue me: Yf thou wilt not let him go, then wil I slaye thy firstborne sonne.

24 And as he was by the waye in the Inne, the LORDE met him, and wolde haue slayne him.

25 Then toke Zipora a stone, and circumcyded the foreskyne of hir sonne, and touched his fete, and sayde: A bloody brydegrome art thou vnto me.

26 The let he him go. But she sayde: A bloody brydegrome, because of the circumcision.

27 And the LORDE sayde vnto Aaron: Go mete Moses in the wildernes. And he wete, & met him on the mount of God, and kyssed him.

28 And Moses tolde Aaron all the wordes of the LORDE, which had sent him: & all the tokens yt he had charged him with all.

29 And they wete, & gathered all the elders of the childre of Israel.

30 And Aaron tolde all ye wordes, yt the LORDE had spoke vnto Moses: & dyd the tokens before the people, 31 & the people beleued. And when they herde yt the LORDE vysited the children of Israel, and loked vpon their trouble, they bowed them selues, and worshipped.

Chapter 5

1 Afterwarde wente Moses & Aaron, & spake vnto Pharao: Thus sayeth the LORDE the God of Israel: let my people go, yt they maye kepe holy daye vnto me in the wildernes.

2 Pharao answered: What felowe is the LORDE, that I must heare his voyce, and let Israel go?

3 I knowe not the LORDE, nether wil I let Israel go. They sayde: The God of the Hebrues hath called vs. Let vs go now therfore thre dayes iourney in the wildernes, & do sacrifice vnto the LORDE or God, yt there happen not vnto vs pestilece or swerde.

4 The sayde ye kynge of Egipte vnto the: Why make ye ye people (thou Moses & Aaron) to leaue their worke? Get you hece to yor labour.

5 Pharao saide morouer: Beholde, ye people are to many in ye lande, and yet wil ye byd them ceasse from their labour.

6 The same daye therfore dyd Pharao comaunde the workmasters of the people, and their officers, and sayde:

7 Ye shall not gather and geue the people eny more strawe, to burne bryck, as yesterdaye and yesterdaye. Let them go, and gather them strawe them selues.

8 And the nombre of the brycke which they made yesterdaye & yesterdaye, shall ye laye vpon them neuertheles, and mynish nothinge therof: for they are ydle. Therfore crye they and saye: We wil go, and do sacrifice vnto oure God.

9 Let the men be kepte downe wt labour, yt they maye haue to do, & not to turne them selues to false wordes.

10 Then wente the workmasters of the people & their officers out, & spake vnto the people: Thus sayeth Pharao: There shall no strawe be geuen you, 11 go youre waye youre selues, and get you strawe, where ye can fynde it. But of youre labor there shall nothinge be mynished.

12 Then were the people scatred in all ye lande of Egipte, to gather stubble, that they might haue strawe.

13 And the workmasters haistied them forwarde, & sayde: Fulfill yor daye worke, like as when ye had strawe.

14 And the officers of ye children of Israel, whom Pharaos workmasters had set ouer them, were beaten, & it was saide vnto them: Wherfore haue ye not fulfilled yor appoynted daye worke to daye and yesterdaye, like as in tymes past?

15 Than wente the officers of the children of Israel, & copleyned vnto Pharao: Wherfore wilt thou deale thus wt thy seruantes?

16 Thy seruantes haue no strawe geuen the, & yet must we make the brycke that are appoynted vs. And beholde, thy seruantes are beaten, & thy people are euell intreated.

17 Pharao sayde: Ye are ydle, ydle are ye, therfore saye ye: we will go, and do sacrifice vnto the LORDE.

18 Go now yor waye therfore, & worke: there shall no strawe be geuen you, but the nombre of brycke shall ye deliyuer.

19 Then sawe the officers of the children of Israel, yt it was not amended, for it was sayde: ye shall mynish nothinge of the daye worke of the brycke.

20 And when Moses & Aaron wente from Pharao, they came forth to mete them, 21 & sayde vnto them: The LORDE loke vpon you, & iudge it, for ye haue made the sauoure of vs to stynke before Pharao and his seruantes, and haue geuen them a swerde in their handes, to slaye vs.

22 But Moses came agayne vnto the LORDE, and sayde: LORDE, wherfore dealest thou so euell wt this people? Wherfore hast thou sent me?

23 For sence the tyme that I wente in vnto Pharao, to speake vnto him in thy name, he hath dealt euell with this people, and thou hast not deliyuered yi people.

Chapter 6

1 The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Now shalt thou se, what I will do vnto Pharao, for thorow a mightie hande must he let them go, thorow a mightie hande must he dryue them from him out of his londe.

2 And God spake vnto Moses, & sayde vnto him: I am ye LORDE,

3 & I appeared vnto Abraham, Isaac & Iacob, an Allmightie God: but my name, LORDE, haue I not shewed vnto them:

4 My couenaunt also haue I made with them, that I wil geue them the londe of Canaan, the londe of their pilgremage, wherin they haue bene straungers.

5 Morouer I haue herde the complaynte of the children of Israel, whom ye Egipcians oppresse with labour, and haue remembred my couenaunt.

6 Therfore saye vnto the childre of Israel: I am the LORDE, & wil brynge you out from yor burthens in Egipte, & wil rydd you from youre labour, and wil deliyuer you thorow a stretched out arme & greate iudgmetes,

7 and will receaue you for my people, & will be yor God: so that ye shall knowe, that I the LORDE am yor God, which brynge you out from the burthen of Egipte,

8 and will brynge you into the lande, ouer the which I haue lift vp my hande, to geue it vnto Abraham, Isaac and Iacob, ye same wil I geue vnto you for a possession. I the LORDE.

9 Moses tolde this vnto the childre of Israel. But they herkened not vnto him, for very anguysh of sprete, & for sore labour.

10 The spake the LORDE vnto Moses, & sayde:

11 Go thy waye, & speake vnto Pharao the kynge of Egypte, yt he let the childre of Israel go out of his lande.

12 But Moses spake before ye LORDE, & saide: Beholde, ye childre of Israel herke not vnto me, how shulde Pharao the heare me? And I am also of vncircumcised lypes.

13 So the LORDE spake vnto Moses & Aaron, & gaue the a commaundemet vnto the childre of Israel, & vnto Pharao the kynge of Egypte, yt they shulde brynge the childre of Israel out of Egipte.

14 These are ye heades of the house of their fathers. The children of Ruben the first sonne of Israel, are these: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, Charmi: These are the generacions of Ruben.

15 The children of Simeon are these: Iemuel, Iamin, Ohad, Iachin, Zophar, and Saul the sonne of the Cananitish woman: These are the generacions of Symeon.

16 These are the names of the childre of Leui in their generacions: Gerson, Rahath and Merari: Leui was an hundreth and seuen & thirtie yeare olde.

17 The children of Gerson are these: Libni and Semei in their generacions.

18 The childre of Rahath are these: Amram, Iezear, Hebron, Usiel. Rahath was an hundreth & thre & thirtie yeare olde.

19 The children of Merari are these: Maheli and Musi. These are ye generacions of Leui in their kynreds.

20 And Amram toke his vncles daughter Iocbed to wife, which bare him Aaron & Moses. Amram was an C. & vij. & thirtie yeare olde.

21 The childre of Iezear are these: Korah, Nepheg, Sichri.

22 The children of Vsiel are these: Misael, Elzaphan, Sithri.

23 Aaron toke Elizaba ye daughter of Aminadab Nahassons sisters to wife, which bare him Nadab, Abihu, Eleasar, Ithamar.

24 The childre of Korah are these: Assir, Elkana, & Abiassaph. These are ye generacions of ye Korahites.

25 Eleasar Aarons sonne toke one of the daughters of Putiel to wife, which bare him Phineas. These are the heades amonge the fathers of the generacions of the Leuites.

26 This is yt Aaron & Moses, vnto whom ye LORDE sayde: Bring ye childre of Israel out of the lande of Egipte wt their armies.

27 It is they (namely Moses & Aaron) yt spake vnto Pharao the kynge of Egipte, yt they might brynge the children of Israel out of Egipte.

28 The same daie spake ye LORDE vnto Moses in ye lande of Egipte, 29 & sayde: I am ye LORDE, speake thou vnto Pharao ye kynge of Egipte, all yt I saye vnto ye.

30 And he answered before ye LORDE: Beholde, I am of vncircumcised lippes, how shall Pharao the heare me?

Chapter 7

1 The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Beholde, I haue made the a God ouer Pharao, & Aaro yi brother shall be yi prophet.

2 Thou shalt speake all yt I comaunde ye: but Aaron yi brother shall speake vnto Pharao, yt he maye let the childre of Israel go out of his lande.

3 Neuertheles I wil harden Pharaos hert, yt I maye multiplye my tokens & wonders in the londe of Egipte.

4 And Pharao shall not heare you, yt I maye shewe my hande in Egipte, & brynge myne armyes, euen my people the childre of Israel out of ye lande of Egipte, by greate iudgmetes.

5 And ye Egipcians shall knowe, yt I am the LORDE, when I shall stretch out my hande vpon Egipte, and brynge the children of of Israel out from amonge the.

6 Moses and Aaron dyd as the LORDE comaunded them.

7 And Moses was foure score yeare olde, & Aaron thre & foure score yeare olde, whan they spake vnto Pharao.

8 And ye LORDE sayde vnto Moses & Aaron:

9 Whan Pharao sayeth vnto you: Shew youre wonders, then shalt thou saye vnto Aaron: Take thy staff, and cast it before Pharao, & it shal turne to a serpent.

10 Then wete Moses & Aaron in vnto Pharao, & dyd as the LORDE comaunded them. And Aaron cast his staff before Pharao & before his seruantes, & it turned to a serpet.

11 Then Pharao called for ye wyse men & Sorcerers. And the Sorcerers of Egipte also dyd like wyse with their Sorceries, 12 and euery one cast his staff before him, & they turned vnto serpentes. But Aarons staff deuoured their staues.

13 So Pharaos hert was hardened, and he herkened not vnto them, euen as the LORDE had sayde.

14 And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: The hert of Pharao is hardened, he refuseth to let ye people go.

15 Get ye vnto Pharao in the mornyng, beholde, he shal come vnto ye water, mete thou him vpo the waters brynke, & take ye staff which turned to a serpet, in thine hande, 16 & saye vnto him: The LORDE God of the Hebrues hath sent me vnto the, & sendeth ye worde: Let my people go, that they maye serue me in the wyldernes: but hither to thou woldest not heare.

17 Therefore thus sayeth the LORDE: Hereby shalt thou knowe, yt I am ye LORDE. Beholde, wt the staff yt I haue in my hande, wil I smyte the water which is in ye ryuer, & it shalbe turned in to bloude:

18 so that the fishes in the ryuer shall dye, & the ryuer shall stynke: & it shall greue the Egipcians to drynke of ye water of the ryuer.

19 And ye LORDE spake vnto Moses: Saye vnto Aaron: Take yi staff, & stretch out thine hade ouer ye waters of Egipte, ouer their ryuers & brokes & pondes, & ouer all water poles, yt they maye be turned to bloude, & that there maye be bloude in all ye lande of Egipte, both in vessels of wodd and stone.

20 Moses & Aaron dyd as ye LORDE comaunded them, & lift vp the staff, & smote the water yt was in the ryuer, before Pharao & his seruantes, & all the water in the ryuer was turned into bloude, 21 & the fysh in the ryuer dyed, & the ryuer stanke, so yt the Egipcians coule not drynke of the water of ye ryuer, & there was bloude in all the lande of Egipte.

22 And the Sorcerers also of Egipte, dyd likewise with their Sorceries. But Pharaos hert was hardened, & he herkened not vnto the, like as the LORDE had sayde.

23 And Pharao turned himself, & wente home, & set not his hert there on.

24 All the Egipcians dygged roude aboute ye ryuer, for water to drinke: for they coude not drynke of ye water out of the ryuer.

25 And this endured seuen dayes longe, that the LORDE smote the ryuer.

Chapter 8

1 The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Go yi waye to Pharao, & speake vnto him: Thus saieth the LORDE: Let my people go, yt they maye serue me:

2 Yf thou wilt not let the go, beholde, I wil smyte all ye borders of yi lode wt frogges,

3 so yt the ryuer shal scraule wt frogges: these shal clymme vp, & come in to thine house, in to yi chamber, where thou slepest, vpon thy bed, and in to the houses of thy seruantes, amonge thy people, in to thine ouens, and vpon thy dowe:

4 and the frogges shall come vp vpon the, and vpon thy people, and vpon all thy seruantes.

5 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses: Saie vnto Aaron: Stretch forth thine hande wt thy staff ouer the streames, & ryuers, & pondes, and let frogges come vpon the londe of Egipte.

6 And Aaron stretched his hade ouer the waters in Egipte, & there came vp frogges, so yt the londe of Egipte was couered.

7 The Sorcerers also dyd likewise, wt their Sorcerirs, & caused frogges to come vpo ye lode of Egipte.

8 The called Pharao for Moses & Aaron, & sayde: Praye the LORDE for me, yt he maye take awaye the frogges fro me & fro my people, & I will let ye people go, yt they maye do sacrifice vnto the LORDE.

9 Moses sayde: Haue thou the honor before me, & appoynte me, wha I shal praye for ye, for yi seruantes and for thy people: yt the frogges maye be dryuen awaye fro the & fro thy house, & remayne onely in the ryuer.

10 He sayde: Tomorrow. He sayde: Euen as thou hast sayde, yt thou mayest knowe, yt there is none like vnto the LORDE or God:

11 And the frogges shal be take from the, & from yi house, from thy seruantes, & from thy people, & remayne onely in the ryuer.

12 So Moses & Aaron wete from Pharao, & Moses cried vnto the LORDE for the appoyntment ouer the frogges, which he had promysed vnto Pharao.

13 And ye LORDE dyd as Moses sayde. And the frogges dyed in ye houses, in ye courtes, & vpon ye felde:

14 & they gathered the together, here an heape, & there an heape, & the lande stanke of them.

15 But whan Pharao sawe yt he had gotten breth, his hert was hardened, and he herkened not vnto the, euen as the LORDE had sayde.

16 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses: Saie vnto Aaron: Stretch out thy staff, & smyte the dust vpon the earth, yt there maye be lyfe in the whole lode of Egipte. 17 They dyd so. And Aaron stretched out his hande wt his staff, & smote the dust vpon the earth, & there were lyse vpon men and vpon catell: All the dust of the lande was turned vnto lyse in all the lande of Egipte.

18 The Sorcerers also assayde likewise wt their Sorcerirs yt they might brynge forth lyse, but they coude not. And ye lyse were vpon men & catell.

19 Then sayde ye Sorcerers vnto Pharao: It is the fynger of God. But Pharaos hert was hardened, & he herkened not vnto the, euen as the LORDE had sayde.

20 And ye LORDE saide vnto Moses: Get ye vp tomorow by tymes, & stonde before Pharao: beholde, he wil go vnto the water, & speake thou vnto him: Thus saieth ye LORDE: let my people go, yt they maye serue me:

21 yf not, beholde, I wil cause cruell wormes (or flies) to come vpon the, thy seruantes, yi people, & thy house, so yt all the Egipcians houses, & the felde, and what theron is shall be full of cruell wormes:

22 & the same daye wil I separate the londe of Gosen, wherin my people are, so yt no cruell worme shalbe there, that thou mayest knowe, that I am ye LORDE in the myddest of the earth.

23 And I wil set a delyueraunce betwene my people and thyne. Tomorrow shal this token come to passe.

24 And the LORDE dyd so. And there came perloous cruell wormes in to Pharaos house, in to his seruantes houses, & vpon all the londe of Egipte: and the londe was marred with noysome wormes.

25 The called Pharao for Moses & Aaron, & sayde: Go yor waye, & do sacrifice vnto yor God in ye londe.

26 Moses sayde: It is not mete, yt we shulde so do, so shulde we offer ye abhominacion of ye Egipcians vnto the LORDE or God. Beholde, yf we shulde offer the abhominacion of ye Egipcians before their eyes, shulde they not stone vs?

27 Thre dayes iourney will we go in the wyldernes, and do sacrifice vnto the LORDE oure God like as he hath sayde vnto vs.

28 Pharao sayde: I wil let you go, yt ye maie do sacrifice vnto the LORDE yor God in the wyldernes (onely yt ye go no farther) & praye for me.

29 Moses sayde: Beholde, whan I am come forth from ye, I wil praye vnto ye LORDE, yt the cruell wormes maye be taken from Pharao, & from his seruantes, & fro his people, euen tomorow: onely disceaue me nomore, that thou woldest not let the people go to do sacrifice vnto the LORDE.

30 And Moses wete out from Pharao, and prayed vnto the LORDE.

31 And the LORDE dyd as Moses sayde, & toke awaye the cruell wormes from Pharao, from his seruantes, and from his people, so yt there remainyd not one.

32 But Pharao hardened his hert eue then also, and let not ye people go.

Chapter 9

1 The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Go in to Pharao, and speake vnto him: Thus sayeth the LORDE God of ye Hebrues: let my people go, yt they maye serue me. 2 Yf thou wilt not, but holde them longer, 3 beholde, the hande of the LORDE shalbe vpon thy catell in the felde, vpon horses, vpon Asses, vpon Camels, vpon oxen, vpon shepe with a very sore pestilence.

4 And ye LORDE shall make a diuysion betwene the catell of the Israelites & the Egipcians, so yt there shal nothinge dye of all that the children of Israel haue.

5 And ye LORDE appoynted a tyme, and sayde: Tomorrow shal the LORDE do this vpon earth.

6 And the LORDE dyd the same on the morow. And there dyed of all maner of catell of the Egipcians: but of ye catell of ye childe of Israel there dyed not one.

7 And Pharao sent thither, & beholde, there was not one of the catell of Israel deed. But Pharaos hert was hardened, so yt he let not ye people go.

8 Then sayde ye LORDE vnto Moses & Aaron: Take youre handes full of asshes out of the fornace, & let Moses sprenkle it towarde heauen before Pharao, 9 that it maye be dust in all the lande of Egipte, & that there maye be sores & blaynes vpon men & vpon catell in all the lande of Egipte.

10 And they toke asshes out of ye fornace, & stode before Pharao, & Moses sprenkled it towarde heaue. Then were there sores and blaynes vpon men & vpon catell, 11 so that the Sorcerers might not stode before Moses by reason of the sores. For there were sores vpo the Sorcerers as well as vpon all the Egipcians.

12 But the LORDE hardened Pharaos hert, so that he herkened not vnto them, eue as the LORDE had sayde vnto Moses.

13 Then sayde the LORDE vnto Moses: Get the vp tomorow by tymes, & stonde before Pharao, & speake vnto him: Thus sayeth ye LORDE God of the Hebrues: let my people go, yt they maye serue me, 14 els wyll I at this tyme sende all my plages in to thine hert, & vpon thy seruantes & vpon thy people: that thou mayest knowe, yt there is none like me in all londes.

15 For I will now stretch out my hande, & smyte the & thy people wt pestilence, so yt thou shalt be roted out from the earth.

16 Yet haue I stered ye vp for this cause, euen to shew my power vpon ye, and that my name might be declared in all londes.

17 Thou holdest my people yet, & wilt not let them go,

18 beholde, tomorow aboute this tyme wyll I cause a mightie greate hayle to rayne, such as hath not bene in the londe of Egipte, sence the tyme that it was grouded, hither to.

19 And now sende thou, & saue thy catell, & all yt thou hast in the felde: for all men & catell that shalbe founde in the felde, & not brought in to the houses, yf the hayle fall vpon them, they shall dye.

20 Now who so feared the worde of the LORDE amonge Pharaos seruautes, caused his seruautes & catell to flye in to the houses:

21 but loke whose hertes regarded not the worde of ye LORDE, left their seruautes and catell in the felde.

22 Then sayde the LORDE vnto Moses: Stretch out thy hande toward heaue, that it maye hayle vpon all the lande of Egipte, vpon men, vpon catell, & vpon all herbes of the felde in the lande of Egipte.

23 So Moses stretched out his staff toward heauen, and the LORDE caused it to thunder & hayle, so yt the fyre ranne alonge vpon the earth. Thus the LORDE hayled & rayned vpon the londe of Egipte, 24 so that the hayle & fyre wente so horribly together, as neuer was in all the lade of Egipte, sens the tyme that there were people therin.

25 And the hayle smote the whole lande of Egipte, all that was vpon ye felde, both men & catell, & smote all the herbes vpon the felde, & brake all the trees vpon ye felde, 26 saue onely in the lande of Gosen, where the childe of Israel were, there it hayled not.

27 Then sent Pharao & called for Moses & Aaron, & sayde vnto them: Now haue I synned, ye LORDE is righteous, but I & my people are vngodly.

28 Yet praye ye vnto the LORDE, that the thonder & hayle of God maye cease, then wyl I let you go, that ye shal tary here no longer.

29 Moses sayde vnto him: Whan I am come out of the cite, I wyll stretch out myne handes vnto the LORDE, so shal the thonder cease, & there shal be nomore hayle: that thou mayest knowe, that the earth is the LORDES.

30 But I knowe, yt both thou & thy seruautes feare not yet the LORDE God.

31 Thus the flax and the barlye were smytten: for the barlye was shot vp, & ye flax was boulded:

32 but the wheate and ye rye were not smytten, for they were late sowed.

33 So Moses wente from Pharao out of ye cite, & stretched out his hades vnto ye LORDE. And ye thoder & the hayle ceased, & the rayne dropped not vpo the earth.

34 But wha Pharao sawe yt the rayne & thonder & hayle ceased, he synned agayne, and herdened his hert, he & his seruautes.

35 So Pharaos hert was hardened, yt he let not the childe of Israel go, eue as the LORDE had sayde by Moses.

Chapter 10

1 And the LORDE saide vnto Moses: Go in vnto Pharao, for I haue hardened his hert & the hertes of his seruautes, yt I might do these my tokes amonge the,

2 & that thou mightest shewe it in the eares of thy children & of thy childers children, what I haue done in Egipte, and how I haue shewed my tokens amoge the, that ye maye knowe, how that I am the LORDE.

3 So Moses & Aaron wente in vnto Pharao, & spake vnto him: Thus sayeth ye LORDE God of the Hebrues: How longe refuset thou to submyt thy self vnto me, to let my people go, yt they maye serue me?

4 Yf thou wilt not let my people go, beholde, tomorow wil I cause greshoppers to come vpon all places,

5 yt they maye couer the lande, so yt the lande can not be sene, & they shal eate vp yt is left you & was delyuered fro the hayle: & shal eate vp all yor grene trees vpon the felde,

6 & shal fyll thy house, all yi seruautes houses, & all the Egiptians houses: such as yi fathers & yi fathers fathers haue not sene, sens the tyme yt they were vpon earth vnto this daye. And he turned him, & wente out from Pharao.

7 Then saide Pharaos seruautes vnto him: How longe shall we be snared after this maner? Let the men go, that they may serue ye LORDE their God. Knowest thou not yet, yt Egipte is destroyed?

8 Moses & Aaron were brought agayne to Pharao, which saide vnto them: Go yor waye, & serue ye LORDE yor God. But who are they yt shall go?

9 Moses sayde: We wil go wt yonge & olde, wt sonnes and doughters, with shepe and oxe: for we haue a feast of the LORDE.

10 He sayde vnto the: Let it be so, the LORDE be with you: Shulde I let you go & yor childe also? loke that ye haue not some myschefe in hade.

11 Not so, but go ye that are men, and serue the LORDE, for that was youre desyre. And they thrust them out from Pharao.

12 The saide ye LORDE vnto Moses: Stretch out thine hande ouer ye londe of Egipte, for the greshoppers, yt they maye come vpo ye londe of Egipte, & eate vp all the herbes in the londe, wt all yt escaped the hayle.

13 Moses stretched out his staff ouer ye lande of Egipte, & the LORDE brought an east wynde in to the londe all yt daye & all yt night, & in the mornyng, the east wynde brought the greshoppers.

14 And they came ouer the whole lande of Egipte, and lighted in all places of Egipte, so exceadinge many, that before tyme there were neuer soch, nether shalbe here after:

15 for they couered the londe, and made it darcke. And they ate vp all the herbes in ye londe, & all the frutes vpon the trees which remayned from ye hayle, & left no grene thinge behinde in the trees & herbes vpon the felde in all the lande of Egipte.

16 Then Pharao called for Moses &

Aaron in all ye haist, & saide: I haue synned against the LORDE yor God, & agaynst you:

17 forgeue me my synne this once also, & pray the LORDE yor God, yt he maye take awaye fro me this death onely.

18 And he wete out from Pharao, & prayed vnto the LORDE.

19 The the LORDE turned a maruelous stroge west wynde, and toke vp the greshoppers, & cast them in to the reed see, so that there was not one left in all the quarters of Egipte.

20 But the LORDE hardened Pharaos hert, that he let not the childe of Israel go.

21 The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Stretch out thine hade toward heauen, that it be so darck in the londe of Egipte, yt it maye be felt.

22 And Moses stretched out his hade toward heauen, the was there a thicke darcknesse in all the londe of Egipte thre dayes, 23 so yt in thre dayes no ma sawe another, nor rose vp from ye place where he was. But wt the childe of Israel there was light in their dwellinges.

24 Then Pharao called for Moses, & sayde: Go yor waye & serue the LORDE: onely leaue yor shepe & yor oxen here: let yor childe go wt you also.

25 Moses sayde: Thou must geue vs offringes and brentofferynges, that we maye do sacrifice vnto the LORDE yor God.

26 Oure catell shal go wt vs, and there shal not one hooffe be left behynde: for we must take therof for the seruyce of the LORDE yor God. Morouer we knowe not wherwithall we shal serue ye LORDE, tyll we come thither.

27 But the LORDE hardened Pharaos hert, yt he wolde not let them go.

28 And Pharao sayde vnto him: Get the hence fro me, & bewarre, that thou come nomore in my sight: For loke what daie so euer thou comest in my sight, thou shalt dye.

29 Moses answered: Eue as thou hast sayde, I wil come nomore in thy sight.

Chapter 11

1 And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: I wil yet brynge a plage vpon Pharao and Egipte: after yt shal he let you go from hence, & shal not onely let all go, but also dryue you hence.

2 Therefore saye now vnto the people, yt euery man borowe of his neighboure, & euery woman of his neighbouresse, Jewels of syluer & golde:

3 for the LORDE shal geue the people fauor in the sight of ye Egiptians. And Moses was a very greate man in the lande of Egipte, in ye sight of Pharaos seruautes, & in the sight of the people.

4 And Moses sayde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: At mydnight wil I go out in the lande of Egipte,

5 & all ye first borne in the lande of Egipte shall dye: from Pharaos first sonne

(yt sytth vpon his seate) vnto the first sonne of the mayde seruaunte which is behynde ye myll: & all the first borne amonge the catell:

6 & there shalbe a greate crie in all the lande of Egipte, soch as neuer was, ner shalbe.

7 But amonge all the childe of Israel there shall not a dogg quatch wt his tonge, fro men vnto catell, yt ye maye knowe, how yt the LORDE hath put a differce betwixte Egipte & Israel.

8 The shal all these thy seruautes come downe vnto me, & fal at my fote, & saye: Get the out, thou & all the people that are vnder the. After that wyl I departe. And he wete fro Pharao wt a wroth full displeasure.

9 The LORDE saide vnto Moses: Pharao herkeneth not vnto you, yt many woders maye be done in ye lade of Egipte.

10 And Moses & Aaron dyd all these woders before Pharao: but ye LORDE hardened his hert, yt he wolde not let ye childe of Israel go out of his londe.

Chapter 12

1 The LORDE sayde vnto Moses & Aaron in the londe of Egipte:

2 This moneth shal be with you ye first moneth & at it ye shall begynne the monethes of the yeare.

3 Speake ye vnto all the congregacion of Israel, & saye: Vpon ye tenth daye of this moneth let euery one take a labe (or a kydd) where a housholder is, to euery house a labe.

4 But yf the housholde be to few for a lambe, the let him & his neighbor yt is next vnto his house, take it acordinge to the nombre of ye soules, and counte to the lambe, what euery man maye eate.

5 But it shal be a lambe without blemish, a male, & of a yeare olde. From amonge the lambes & goates shal ye take it.

6 And ye shal kepe it vnto ye fourtene daye of the moneth. And euery man of the congregacion of Israel shal slaye it aboute the eueninge.

7 And they shal take of his bloude, and stryke it on both the syde postes of the dore, and on the vpperdore post of the house, that they eate it in.

8 And so shal they eate flesh ye same night, roasted at the fyre, & vnlouended bred, and shal eate it with sowre sawse.

9 Ye shal not eate it rawe, ner sodden with water, but onely roasted at the fyre, his heade wt his fete and pertenaunce.

10 And ye shal leaue nothyng of it ouer vntyll the mornyng: but yf eny thinge be left ouer vntyll the mornyng, ye shal burne it with fyre.

11 Of this maner shal ye eate it: Ye shal be gyrded aboute youre loynes, and haue youre shues vpon youre fete, and staves in yor handes, and ye shal eate it with haist: for it is ye LORDES Passeouer.

12 For in the same night wil I go thorow the londe of Egipte, & smyte all the firstborne in the lande of Egipte, from men vnto catell, & vpon all the goddes of Egipte wyll I do execucion.

 13 Euen I the LORDE. And the bloude shal be youre token, vpon the houses wherin ye are: yt whan I se the bloude, I maye passe ouer, and that the plage happen not vnto you, to destroye you, whan I smyte the londe of Egipte.
 14 And this daye shall ye haue for a remembraunce, and ye shall kepe it holy for a feast vnto the LORDE, ye & all youre posterities, for a perpetuall custome.
 15 Seuen dayes shall ye eate vnueneded bred: namely, vpon the first daie shal ye leaue of with leuened bred in youre houses. Who so euer eateth leuened bred from the first daye vnto ye seuenth that soule shall be roted out from Israel.
 16 The first daye shall be called holy amonge you, and the seuenth also. No maner of worke shall ye do therein, saue what belongeth to the meate for all maner of soules, that onely maye ye do for you.
 17 And kepe you to leuened bred. For euen vpon that same daye wil I brynge youre armies out of the londe of Egipte, therefore shall ye and all youre posterities kepe this daye for a perpetuall custome.
 18 Vpon the fourtene daye of the first moneth, at euen, shall ye eate vnueneded bred, vnto the one and twentye daye of the moneth, at euen:
 19 so that there be no leuened bred founde in youre houses seuen dayes. For who so euer eateth leuened bred, that soule shall be roted out from the congregacion of Israel, whether it be a straunger or borne in the londe.
 20 Therefore eate no leuened bred, but onely vnueneded bred in all youre dwellynges.
 21 And Moses called all the Elders of Israel, and sayde vnto them: Chose out, and take to euery housholde a shepe, and kyll Passeouer vnto the LORDE:
 22 and take a bunch of ysop, and dyppe it in the bloude in the basen, and stryke it vpon the vpperposte and vpon the two syde postes, and none of you go out at the dore of his house vntyll ye mornynge,
 23 for the LORDE wyll go aboute and plage the Egipcians. And whan he seyeth the bloude vpo the vpperposte, and vpon the two syde postes, he wyl passe ouer by the dore, and not suffre the destroyer to come in to youre houses to plage.
 24 Therefore kepe this custome for the and thy children for euer.
 25 And whan ye be come into ye londe that the LORDE shal geue you, (as he hath sayde) then kepe this seruyce.
 26 And whan youre children saye vnto you: What seruyce is this, that ye haue?
 27 Ye shal saye: It is the sacrifice of the LORDES Passeouer, which passed ouer by the children of Israel in Egipte, whan he played the Egipcians, and saued oure houses. Then the people bowed them selues, and worshipped.
 28 And the children of Israel wente and dyd, as the LORDE had commaunded Moses and Aaron.
 29 And at mydnight the LORDE smote all the firstborne in the lande of Egipte:

from Pharaos first sonne (which sat vpon his seate) vntyll the first sonne of the presoner that was in the preson, and all the firstborne of the catell.
 30 Then Pharaos arose ye same night, and all his seruantes, and all the Egipcians, & there was a greate crye in Egipte: for there was no house wherin there was not one deed.
 31 And he called for Moses and Aaron in ye night, and sayde: Get you vp, and departe out fro my people, ye and the children of Israel: go youre waye, and serue the LORDE, as ye haue sayde:
 32 and take youre shepe and youre oxen with you, as ye haue sayde, and departe, and blesse me also.
 33 And the Egipcians were fearede vpon the people, to dryue them haistely out of the londe, for they saide: we are all but deed.
 34 And the people toke the rawe dowe, before it was leuened (for their foode) bounde in their clothes vpon their sholders.
 35 And the children of Israel had done as Moses sayde, and borrowed Jewels of syluer and golde, and clothes of the Egipcians:
 36 the LORDE also had geuen the people fauoure in the sight of the Egipcians, that they lent them, and so they spoyled the Egipcians.
 37 Thus ye children of Israel toke their journey from Raemes to Suchoth, sixe hundreth thousande men of fote, besyde childre.
 38 There wente with them also moch como people, and shepe, and oxen, and exceedinge many catell.
 39 And of the rawe dowe that they brought out of Egipte, they baked vnueneded cakes: for it was not leuened, in so moch as they were thrust out of Egipte, and coude not tary: nether had they prepared them eny other meate.
 40 The tyme yt the children of Israel dwelt in Egipte, is foure hondreth and thirtie yeares.
 41 Whan the same were ended, the whole hoost of the LORDE wente out of the londe of Egipte in one daye.
 42 Therefore shall this night be kepte vnto the LORDE, because he brought them out of the londe of Egipte: And the children of Israel shall kepe it vnto the LORDE, they and their posterities.
 43 And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses and Aaron: This is the maner of the keynyng of Passeouer. There shal no straunger eate of it.
 44 But who so is a bought seruaunt let him be circumcysed, & then eate therof.
 45 A straunger and an hyred seruaut shal not eate of it.
 46 In one house shal it be eate. Ye shal cary none of his flesh out of the house, and ye shal not breake a bone of him.
 47 The whole congregacion of Israel shal do it.
 48 But yf there dwel a straunger with the, & wil holde passeouer vnto the LORDE, let him circumcise euery one that is male, and then let him first come, and do it, and be as one that is borne in the londe: for there shal no vncircumcysed eate therof.

 49 One maner of lawe be vnto him yt is borne in the londe, & vnto the straunger yt dwelleth amonge you.
 50 And all the childre of Israel dyd as the LORDE commaunded Moses & Aaron.
 51 So vpo one daye the LORDE brought the childre of Israel out of the lode of Egipte with their armies.

Chapter 13

1 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & saide:
 2 Sanctifie vnto me euery firstborne, yt breaketh all maner of Matrices amonge the childre of Israel, both of men & catell: for they are myne.
 3 Then saide Moses vnto ye people: Thinke vpo this daye, in the which ye are gone out of Egipte from the house of bondage, how yt ye LORDE brought you out fro thence wt a mightie hade. Therefore shall ye eate no sowre dowe.
 4 This daye are ye gone out, eue in ye moneth of Abib.
 5 Now wha ye LORDE hath brought ye in to ye lande of ye Cananites, Hethites, Amorites, Heuites & Iebusites, which he sware vnto yi fathers to geue ye (euen a londe that floweth wt mylke & hony) then shalt thou kepe this seruyce in this moneth.
 6 Seue dayes shall thou eate vnueneded bred, & vpon the seuenth daye is the LORDES feast:
 7 therefore shalt thou eate vnueneded bred seue dayes, that there be no sowre dowe, ner sowred bred sene in all thy quarters.
 8 And thou shalt tell thy sonne at the same tyme, & saye: Because of that, which ye LORDE dyd for me, whan I departed out of Egipte.
 9 Therefore shalt it be a signe vnto ye in thine hande, and a token of remembraunce before thine eyes, that the lawe of ye LORDE maye be in thy mouth, how that ye LORDE brought the out of Egipte with a mightie hande:
 10 Therefore kepe this maner yearly in his tyme.
 11 Whan the LORDE now hath brought ye in to ye lande of the Cananites (as he hath sworne vnto the and thy fathers) and hath geuen it the,
 12 then shalt thou sunder out vnto the LORDE all that breaketh the Matrice, and firstborne amonge thy catell, soch as is male.
 13 The firstborne of the Asse shalt thou bye out with a shepe: but yf thou redeme it not, then breake his neck. All the firstborne of men amonge thy children shalt thou redeme.
 14 And whan thy childe axeth the to daie or tomorrow: What is this? Thou shalt saye vnto him: The LORDE brought vs out of Egipte from the house of bondage wt a mightie hande:
 15 for whan Pharaos was loth to let vs go, the LORDE slew all the firstborne in the lande of Egipte, from the firstborne of men vnto ye firstborne of the catell: therefore offer I vnto the LORDE all that breaketh ye Matrice, beyng a male, and ye firstborne of my children I redeme.

 16 And this shal be a signe vnto the in thine hande, and a token to thinke vpon before thine eyes, how that the LORDE brought vs out of Egipte with a mightie hande.
 17 Now whan Pharaos had let ye people go, God led them not the waye thorow the lode of the Philistynes, which was ye nexte: for he thoughte: The people might repet, wha they se warre, and so turne in agayne into Egipte.
 18 Therefore led he the people aboute, euen the waye thorow the wyldernes by ye reed see. And the childre of Israel wente harnesssed out of the londe of Egipte.
 19 And Moses toke Iosephs bones with him, for he toke an ooth of the children of Israel, and sayde: God wyll surely vyset you, therefore cary awaye my bones with you from hence.
 20 So they toke their iourney fro Suchoth, & pitched their tetes in Etha in ye edge of the wildernes.
 21 And ye LORDE wete before the by daye in a piler of a cloude, to lede the ye right waye: and by night in a piler of fyre, that he might shewe the light to walke both by daie and night.
 22 The piler of the cloude departed neuer from the people by daye, and the pyler of fyre departed not from the by night.

Chapter 14

1 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde:
 2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and byd them that they turne aboute, & pitch their tentes before the valley of Hyroth, betwixte Migdol & the see toward Baal Zepho, and there pitch ye tentes right ouer by the see.
 3 For Pharaos shall saye of the children of Israel: They can not tell how to get out of the londe, the wyldernes hath shut them in.
 4 And I wyll harden his hert, yt he shal folowe after them, & I wil get me honoure vpon Pharaos, and vpon all his power. And ye Egipcians shal knowe, yt I am the LORDE. And they dyd so.
 5 And whan it was tolde ye kinge of Egipte, yt ye people fled, his hert & his seruantes were turned agaynst ye people, & saide: Why haue we done this, that we haue let Israel go, yt they shulde not serue vs?
 6 And he bounde his charettes fast, and toke his people wt him,
 7 and toke sixe hudreth chosen charettes, and the other charettes besyde that were in Egipte, and the captaynes ouer all his: 8 for the LORDE hardened ye hert of Pharaos kyng of Egipte, that he folowed after the children of Israel. And the children of Israel wente out with an hie hande.

9 And the Egipcians folowed after the, & ouertoke them (where they had pitched by ye see) with horses and charettes, and horsme, and with his power, in the valley of Hyrath towarde Baal Zephon.

10 And whan Pharao came nye them, the children of Israel lift vp their eyes, and beholde, ye Egipcians wente behinde the, and they were sore afrayed, and cried vnto the LORDE.

11 And sayde vnto Moses: Were there no graues in Egipte, yt thou hast brought vs awaye to dye in the wyldernes? Wherfore hast thou done this vnto vs, that thou hast caried vs out of Egipte?

12 Is not this it, that we sayde vnto the in Egipte? Leaue of, & let vs serue the Egipcians: for it were better for vs to serue the Egipcians, then to dye in the wyldernes?

13 Moses sayde vnto the people: Feare you not, stonde styll, and beholde, what a saluacion the LORDE shall shewe vpon you this daye: for these Egipcians whom ye se this daye, shall ye neuer se more for euer:

14 the LORDE shal fight for you, onely quiete youre selues.

15 The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Wherfore criest thou vnto me? Speake vnto ye children of Israel, yt they go forwarde.

16 But lift thou vp yi staff, & stretch out thine hade ouer ye see, & parte it asunder, yt the children of Israel maye go in thorow ye myddest of it vpon the drye grounde.

17 Beholde, I wyll harden ye hert of the Egipcians, yt they shall folowe after you. Thus wyl I get me honoure vpon Pharao, & vpon all his power, vpo his charettes and horsmen:

18 and the Egipcians shal knowe, that I am ye LORDE, whan I haue gotten me honor vpon Pharao, vpon his charettes, and vpon his horsmen.

19 Then the angell of God yt wente before the armies of Israel, remoued, and gat him behynde them: and the cloudy piler remoued also from before them, and stode behinde the 20 and came betwixte the armies of the Egipcians and the armies of Israel. It was a darcke cloude, and gaue light that night, so that all the night longe these and they coude not come together.

21 Wha Moses now stretched forth his hade ouer ye see, the LORDE caused it to passe awaye thorow a mightie eastwynde all that night, and made the see drye, and ye water deuyded it self a sunder.

22 And the children of Israel wente in thorow the myddest of ye see vpon the drye grounde: and ye water was vnto them as a wall, vpon their right hande & vpo their left.

23 And ye Egipcias folowed, & wente in after the, all Pharaos horses, & charettes, & horsme, eue in to ye myddest of ye see.

24 Now whan the mornynge watch came, the LORDE loked vpo the armies of the Egipcians out the piler of fire and ye cloude, & troubled their armies,

25 and smote the wheles from their charettes, & ouerthrew them wt a storme. Then sayde the Egipcians: Let vs flye from Israel, the LORDE fighteth for the agaynst the Egipcians.

26 But ye LORDE saide vnto Moses: Stretch out thine hande ouer the see, that ye water maye come agayne vpon the Egipcians, vpon their charettes, and horsmen.

27 Then Moses stretched out his hande ouer the see, and the see came agayne before daye in his course and strength, and the Egipcians fled agaynst it. Thus the LORDE ouerthrew them in the myddest of the see, 28 so that the water came agayne, and couered ye charettes and horsmen, and all Pharaos power which folowed after them in to the see, so that there remayned not one of them.

29 But the children of Israel wente drye thorow ye myddest of the see, and the water was vnto them as a wall vpon their right hande and vpon their left.

30 Thus the LORDE deluyered Israel in yt daye from the hande of the Egipcians. And they sawe the Egipcians deed vpon ye see syde, 31 and the greate hande yt the LORDE had shewed vpon the Egipcians. And ye people feared ye LORDE, and beleued him, and his seruauent Moses.

Chapter 15

1 Then sange Moses and the childre of Israel this songe vnto the LORDE, and sayde: I will syng vnto ye LORDE, for he hath done gloriously, horse & charet hath he ouerthrowne in the see.

2 The LORDE is my strength, and my songe, and is become my saluacion. This is my God, I wil magnifie him: He is my fathers God, I wil exalte him.

3 The LORDE is the right man of warre, LORDE is his name.

4 The charettes of Pharao & his power, hath he cast in to the see. His chosen captaynes are drowned in the reed see, 5 ye depe hath couered them: they fell to the grounde as a stone.

6 Thy right hande (O LORDE) is glorious in power: thy right hade (O LORDE) hath smytten the enemies.

7 And with thy greate glory thou hast destroyed thine aduersaries: thou sentest out yi wrath, & it cosumed them, euen as stobble.

8 In the breth of thy wrath the waters fell together, the floudes wente vpon a heape: The depes plomped together in ye myddest of the see.

9 The enemye thought: I will folowe vpon them, and ouertake them, and deuyde ye spoyle, and coole my mynde vpon them. I wil drawe out my swerde, and my hande shal destroye them.

10 Thou blewest with thy wynde, the see couered them, and they sancke downe as leed in the mightie waters.

11 LORDE, who is like vnto the amonge ye goddes? Who is so glorious in holynes, fearfull, laudable, and doinge wonders?

12 When thou stretchest out yi right hande, the earth swallowed them vp.

13 Thou of yi very mercy hast led this people, whom thou hast deluyered, and with yi strength thou hast brought them vnto the dwellynge of thy Sanctuary.

14 Whan ye nacions herde this, they raged, sorowe came vpon the Philistynes.

15 Then were ye prynces of Edom afrayed, trembynge came vpo ye mightie of Moab, all the indwellers of Canaan waxed faynte harted.

16 Let feare and drede fall vpon them thorow thy greate arme, that they maye be as styll as a stone, tyll thy people (O LORDE) be gone thorow, tyll yi people whom thou hast gotten, be gone thorow.

17 Brynge them in, and plante them vpon the mountayne of thy enheritaunce, vnto ye place that thou hast made for thine owne dwellynge: euen to yi teple (O LORDE) which thy handes haue prepared.

18 The LORDE shal be kyng for euer & euer.

19 For Pharao wente in to the see with horses, and charettes, and horsmen, and the LORDE made the see fall agayne vpon them. But the children of Israel wete drye thorow the myddest of the see.

20 And Miriam the prophetisse, Aarons sister, toke a tymbrell in hir hande, and all the women folowed out after her with timbrels in a daunse.

21 And Miriam sange before the: O let vs syng vnto the LORDE, for he hath done gloriously, man and horse hath he ouerthrowne in the see.

22 Moses caused the children of Israel to departe out from the reed see, vnto the wyldernes of Sur, & they wente thre dayes in ye wildernes, yt they founde no water.

23 Then came they to Marath, but they coude not drinke ye water for bytternes, for it was very bytter. Therefore was it called Marah. (yt is bytternes.)

24 Then ye people murmured against Moses, & sayde: What shal we drynke?

25 And Moses cried vnto ye LORDE, which shewed him a tre: this he put in ye water, the was it swete. There he made the a statute, and a lawe, and tempted them, 26 and sayde: Yf thou wylt herken vnto the voyce of ye LORDE yi God, & do that which is right in his sighte, and geue eare vnto his commaundementes, & kepe all his statutes, then wyl I laye vpon ye none of the sicknesses, that I layed vpon Egipte, for I am the LORDE thy surgione.

27 And they came vnto Elim, where there were twolue welles of water, and seuentie palme trees, and there they pitched by ye water syde.

Chapter 16

1 From Elim they toke their iourney, and the whole congregacion of the children of Israel came in to the wyldernes of Sin (which lyeth betwene Elim and Sinai)

vpon the fyftene daye of the seconde moneth, after that they were departed out of the londe of Egipte.

2 And ye whole multitude of the children of Israel murmured agaynst Moses and Aaron in ye wildernes,

3 and saide vnto them: Wolde God we had dyed in the londe of Egipte by the hande of the LORDE, whan we sat by ye flesh pottes, and had bred ynough to eate: for ye haue brought vs out in to this wyldernes, to cause this whole multitude dye of hunger.

4 The sayde ye LORDE vnto Moses: beholde I wyl rayne you bred from heauen, and let the people go out, and gather daylie, what they nede, that I maye proue whether they walke in my lawe or not.

5 But vpon the sixte daye they shal prepare the selues, that they maye brynge in twyse as moch as they gather daylie.

6 Moses and Aaron saide vnto all the children of Israel: At euen ye shal knowe, that the LORDE hath brought you out of the lode of Egipte,

7 and in the mornynge shall ye se the glory of the LORDE: for he hath herde youre grudginges agaynst the LORDE. For what are we, that ye grudge agaynst vs?

8 Moses sayde morouer: At euen shall the LORDE geue you flesh to eate, and in the mornynge bred ynough: because ye LORDE hath herde youre grudginges, that ye haue grudged agaynst him. For what are we? Your murmuringe is not agaynst vs, but against the LORDE.

9 And Moses sayde vnto Aaron: Speake vnto the whole multitude of ye children of Israel: Come forth before the LORDE, for he hath herde youre murmurings.

10 And whyle Aaron spake thus vnto the whole congegacion of the childre of Israel, they turned them towarde the wyldernes: and beholde, the glory of the LORDE appeared in a cloude,

11 and the LORDE sayde vnto Moses:

12 I haue herde the murmuringe of ye children of Israel. Tell them: At euen shall ye haue flesh to eate, and in the mornynge shal ye be fylled with bred, & ye shall knowe, that I am the LORDE youre God.

13 And at euen the quayles came vp, and couered the tentes: and in the mornynge the dewe laye rounde aboute the tentes.

14 And whan the dew was falle, beholde, there laye a thinge in the wildernes, thynne and small, as the horefrost vpon the grounde.

15 And whan the children of Israel sawe it, they saide one to another: This is Ma. For they wyst not what it was. But Moses sayde vnto them: It is the bred that ye LORDE hath geue you to eate.

16 This is it that ye LORDE hath commauded: Euery one gather for himself as moch as he eateth, and take a Gomor for euery heade, accordinge to the nombre of the soules in his tente.

17 And the children of Israel dyd so, and gathered some more, some lesse.

18 But whan it was measured out with ye

Gomor, he that gathered moch, had not the more: and he yt gathered litle, wanted nothinge, but euery one gathered for himself, as moch as he ate.

19 And Moses sayde vnto them: Let no ma leaue ought therof vntyll the mornynge.

20 But they harkened not vnto Moses. And some left of it vntill the morninge. Then waxed it full of wormes and stanke. And Moses was angrie at them.

21 And euery mornynge they gathered for them selues, as moch as euery one ate: but as soone as it was whote of the Sonne, it melted awaye.

22 And vpon the sixte daye they gathered twyse as moch of bred, two Gomors for one. And all the rulers of the congregacion came in, and tolde Moses.

23 And he sayde vnto them: This is it, that the LORDE hath sayde: Tomorrow is the Sabbath of the holy rest of the LORDE: loke what ye wil bake, that bake: and what ye wyll seeth, that seeth and that remayneth ouer, let it remayne, yt it maye be kepte vntyll the mornynge.

24 And they let it remayne tyll the morow, as Moses commaunded. Then stanke it not, nether was there eny worme therein.

25 The sayde Moses: Eate that to daye, for to daye is ye Sabbath of the LORDE, to daye shal ye fynde none in the felde.

26 Sixe dayes shall ye gather it, but the seuenth daye is the Sabbath, wherin there shal be none.

27 But vpon the seuenth daye there wente out some of the people to gather, and founde nothinge.

28 Then sayde ye LORDE vnto Moses: How longe refuse ye to kepe my commaundementes and lawes?

29 Beholde, ye LORDE hath geuen you the Sabbath, therefore vpon the sixte daye he geueth you bred for two dayes: therefore let euery man now byde at home, and noman go forth of his place vpon the seuenth daye.

30 So the people rested vpo ye seuenth daye.

31 And the house of Israel called it Man, and it was like Coriander sede, and whyte, & had a taist like symnells with hony.

32 And Moses sayde: This is it that ye LORDE hath commaunded: Fill a Gomor therof to be kepte for youre posterities, yt they maye se the bred, wherwith I fed you, when I brought you out of ye lande of Egipte.

33 And Moses sayde vnto Aaron: Take a cruse, and put a Gomor full of Man therein, and laye it vp before the LORDE, to be kepte for youre posterities, 34 as the LORDE commaunded Moses. So Aaron layed it vp there for a testimony to be kepte.

35 And the children of Israel ate man fourtye yeares, tyll they came vnto a lande, where people dwelt: euen vntyll they came to ye borders of the lande of Canaan ate they Man.

36 A Gomor is the tenth parte of an Epha.

Chapter 17

1 And the whole multitude of the children of Israel wete on their iourneys out of the wyldernes of Sin (as the LORDE comaunded the) & pitched in Raphidim. Then had the people no water to drynke.

2 And they chode wt Moses, & sayde: Geue vs water, yt we maye drynke. Moses sayde vnto the: Why chyde ye wt me? Wherfore tepte ye ye LORDE?

3 But whan the people thyrsted there for water, they murmured agaynst Moses, & sayde: Wherfore hast thou caused vs to come out of Egipte? to let vs, oure children, and oure catell dye of hunger? 4 Moses cried vnto the LORDE, and sayde: What shal I do wt this people? They are almost ready to stone me.

5 The LORDE saide vnto him: Go before the people, & take some of the elders of Israel with ye, and take in thine hande thy staff, wherwith thou smotest the water, and go thy waye:

6 Beholde, I wyl stonde there before the vpon a rock in Horeb, there shalt thou smyte the rocke, so shall there water runne out, that the people maye drynke. Moses dyd so before the elders of Israel.

7 Then was that place called Massa Meriba, because of the chydinge of the children of Israel, and because they tempted ye LORDE, and sayde: Is the LORDE amonge vs, or not?

8 Then came Ameleck, & fought agaynst Israel in Raphidim.

9 And Moses sayde vnto Iosua: Chose vs out men, go out, & fight against Amaleck, tomorrow wil I stode vpo the toppe of the hyll, & haue ye staff of God in my hande.

10 And Iosua dyd as Moses bade him, & fought agaynst Amalek. Moses & Aaron & Hur wente vp to ye toppe of the hyll.

11 And wha Moses helde vp his hade, Israel had the victory: but whan he let downe his hande, Amalek had the victory.

12 But Moses hades were heuy, therefore toke they a stone, & layed it vnder him, that he might syt vpon it. And Aaron & Hur stayed vp his hades, the one vpon the one syde, and the other vpon ye other syde. So his handes were stedfast vnto ye Sonne wente downe.

13 And Iosua discomfited Amalek, & his people thorow the edge of the swerde.

14 And ye LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Wryte this for a remebraunce in a boke, & comytte it vnto ye eares of Iosua: for I wyll rote out Amalek from vnder heauen, so that he shall nomore be remembered.

15 And Moses buylded an altare vnto the LORDE, and called it: The LORDE Nissi, 16 for he sayde: The battayll of the LORDE shalbe agaynst Amalek thorow an hande vnder the defence of God from childe to childes childe.

Chapter 18

1 And whan Iethro ye prest in Madian Moses father in lawe herde of all yt God had done wt Moses & his people of Israel, how yt the LORDE had brought Israel out of Egipte,

2 he toke Zipora Moses wife, whom he had sent backe,

3 with her two sonnes. The one was called Gerson, for he saide: I am become a straunger in a straunge londe.

4 And the other was called Eliaser, for he sayde: The God of my fathers hath bene my helpe, and hath delyuered me from Pharaos swerde.

5 Now wha Iethro Moses father in lawe, and his sonnes and his wife came vnto him in the wyldernes by the mount of God where he had pitched his tent,

6 he sent word vnto Moses: I Iethro thy father in lawe am come vnto the, and yi wife and both hir children with her.

7 Then wente Moses forth to mete him, and dyd obeysauce vnto him, and kyssed him. And whan they had saluted ech other, they wente in to the tente.

8 Then Moses tolde his father in lawe all that the LORDE had done vnto Pharao and the Egiptians for Israels sake, and all the traually that had happened them by ye waye, and how the LORDE had delyuered them.

9 Iethro reioysed ouer all ye good that the LORDE had done for Israel, yt he had delyuered them from the hade of the Egiptians.

10 And Iethro sayde: Praysed be the LORDE, which hath delyuered you from the hande of the Egiptians and of Pharao, (and) that knoweth how to delyuere his people from the Egiptians hande.

11 Now I knowe, that the LORDE is greater the all goddes, because they dealt proudly wt them.

12 And Iethro toke brentofferynges, and offered vnto God. Then came Aaron and all ye elders of Israel to eate bred with Moses father in lawe before God.

13 On the next morow sat Moses to iudge the people, and the people stode roude aboute Moses from the mornynge vntyll ye euen.

14 But whan his father in lawe sawe all that he dyd with the people, he sayde: What is this, that thou doest with the people? Wherfore syttest thou alone, and all ye people stonde roude aboute from the morninge vntyll the euen?

15 Moses answered him: The people come to me, & axe counsell at God:

16 for whan they haue eny thinge to do, they come vnto me, that I maye iudge betwixte euery one & his neghboure, and shewe them the statutes of God, and his lawes.

17 His father in lawe sayde vnto him: It is not well that thou doest.

18 Thou weeriest thy self, and the people that is with the. This bysnesse is to sore for the, thou canst not perfourme it alone.

19 But herken vnto my voyce, I will geue the counsell, and God shall be with the.

Be thou vnto the people to God warde, and brynge the causes before God, 20 and prouide them with statutes and lawes, that thou mayest shewe the the waie wherin they shulde walke, and the workes that they shulde do.

21 But loke out amonge all the people, for honest men, that feare God, such as are true, & hate couetousnes: make these rulers ouer them, some ouer thousandes, ouer hundredes, ouer fiftie, and ouer ten, 22 that they maye allwaye iudge the people. But where there is eny greate matter, that they brynge the same vnto the, and iudge the small causes them selues: so shall it be lighter for the, yt they beare the burthen with the.

23 Yf thou shalt do this, then mayest thou endure the thinge that God chargeth the withall, and all this people maie go peaceably vnto their place.

24 Moses herkened vnto the voyce of his father in lawe, and dyd all that he sayde.

25 And he chose honest men out of all Israel, and made them heades ouer the people, some ouer thousandes, ouer hundredes, ouer fiftie, and ouer ten,

26 that they might allwaye iudge the people. As for soch causes as were herde, they brought them vnto Moses, and iudged the small matters them selues.

27 So Moses let his father in lawe departe in to his owne londe.

Chapter 19

1 In the thirde moneth after that the children of Israel were gone out of the londe of Egipte, they came the same daye in to the wyldernes of Sinai

2 (for they were departed from Raphidim, and wolde in to the wyldernes of Sinai) and there they pitched in the wyldernes ouer against the mounte.

3 And Moses wente vp vnto God. And the LORDE called vnto him out of the mount, and sayde: Thus shalt thou saye vnto the house of Iacob, and tell the children of Israel:

4 Ye haue sene what I haue done vnto the Egiptians, and how I haue borne you vpon Aegles wynges, & brought you vnto my self.

5 Yf ye wyll harken now vnto my voyce, and kepe my couenaunt, ye shalbe myne owne before all people: for the whole earth is myne:

6 and ye shall be vnto me a presterly kingdome, and an holy people. These are the wordes that thou shalt saye vnto the children of Israel.

7 Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and layed before them all these wordes, that the LORDE had commaunded.

8 And all the people answered together, and sayde: All that the LORDE hath sayde, wyll we do. And Moses tolde the wordes of the people vnto the LORDE agayne.

9 And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Beholde, I wyll come vnto the in a thicke cloude, that the people maye heare my wordes, which I speake vnto the, and beleue the for euer. And Moses shewed the wordes of the people vnto the LORDE.

10 The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Go vnto the people, and sanctifie the to daye and tomorrow, yt they maye wash their clothes, 11 and be ready agaynst the thirde daye: for vpon the thirde daye shall the LORDE come downe vpon mount Sinai before all the people.

12 And set markes rounde aboute the people, and saye vnto them: Bewarre, that ye go not vp in to ye mount, ner touch ye border of it. For whosoouer toucheth ye mout, shal dye ye death.

13 There shal no hade touch it, but he shall either be stoned, or shot thorow: whether it be beest or man, it shal not lyue. Whan the horne bleweth, then shal they come vp vnto the mounte.

14 Moses wente downe from the mount vnto the people, and sanctified them. And they washed their clothes.

15 And he sayde vnto them: Be ready agaynst the thirde daye, and no man come at his wife.

16 Now whan the thirde daye came (and it was early) it beganne to thunder and lighten, and there was a thicke cloude vpon the mount, and a noyse of a trompet excedinge mightie. And the people that were in the tentes, were afrayde.

17 And Moses brought the people out of the tentes to mete wt God, and they stode vnder the mount.

18 But all mount Sinai smoked, because ye LORDE came downe vpo it with fyre. And the smoke therof wente vp as the smoke of a fornace, so that the whole mount was excedinge terrible.

19 And the noyse of the trompet wete out, and was mightie. Moses spake, & God answered him loude.

20 Now whan the LORDE was come downe vpon mount Sinai, euen vpon the toppe of it, he called Moses vp vnto ye toppe of the mount. And Moses wente vp.

21 Then sayde the LORDE vnto him: Go downe, and charge the people, yt they preasse not vnto the LORDE to se him, and so many of them perishe.

22 The rulers also that come nye vnto ye LORDE, shal sanctifie themselues, lest the LORDE smyte the.

23 But Moses sayde vnto the LORDE: The people cannot come vp vpon mount Sinai, for thou hast charged vs, & sayde: Set markes aboute the mount, and sanctifie it.

24 The LORDE sayde vnto him: Go thy waye, get ye downe. Thou and Aaron with the shalt come vp: but the rulers and ye people shal not preasse to come vp vnto ye LORDE, lest he smyte the.

25 And Moses wente downe to the people, and tolde them.

Chapter 20

1 And the LORDE spake all these wordes, and sayde:

2 I am the LORDE thy God, which haue brought the out of the londe of Egipte from ye house of bondage.

3 Thou shalt haue none other Goddes in my sight.

4 Thou shalt make the no grauen ymage ner eny symilitude, nether of it that is aboue in heauen, ner of it that is beneth vpon earth, ner of it that is in the water vnder the earth.

5 Worshipe them not, and serue them not: for I the LORDE thy God am a gelouse God, vysitinge ye synne of the fathers vpon the children, vnto ye thirde and fourth generacion, of them that hate me:

6 And do mercye vpo many thousandes, that loue me, and kepe my commaundementes.

7 Thou shalt not take the name of ye LORDE thy God in vayne. For the LORDE shal not holde him vngiltie, that taketh his name in vayne.

8 Remembre the Sabbath daie, that thou sanctifie it.

9 Sixe dayes shalt thou labour and do all thy worke:

10 But vpon the seuenth daye is the Sabbath of the LORDE thy God: thou shalt do no maner worke in it, nether thou, ner thy sonne, ner thy daughter, ner thy seruauant, ner thy mayde, ner thy catell, ner thy straunger that is within thy gates.

11 For in sixe dayes the LORDE made heauen and earth, and the see, and all that therin is, and rested vpon the seuenth daye: therefore the LORDE blessed the seuenth daye, & halowed it.

12 Honour thy father and thy mother, that thou mayest lyue longe in the londe, which the LORDE thy God shal geue the.

13 Thou shalt not kyll.

14 Thou shalt not breake wedlocke.

15 Thou shalt not steale.

16 Thou shalt beare no false wytnesse agaynst thy neighbour.

17 Thou shalt not lust after thy neighbours house. Thou shalt not lust after thy neighbours wife, ner his seruaut, ner his mayde, ner his oxe, ner his Asse, ner all that thy neighbour hath

18 And all the people sawe the thonder and the lightenyng, and the noyse of the trompet, and how that the mountayne smoked, and were afrayed, and stackerd, & stode afarre of,

19 and sayde vnto Moses: Talke thou with vs, we wil heare: and let not God talke with vs, we might els dye.

20 And Moses sayde vnto the people: Be not afrayed, for God is come to proue you, and that his feare maye be before youre eyes, yt ye synne not.

21 And the people stode afarre of. But Moses gat him in to the darcke cloude, where in God was.

22 And the LORDE spake vnto him: Thus shalt thou saye vnto the children of Israel: Ye haue sene, that I haue talked wt you from heauen:

23 therefore shal ye make nothinge with me: goddes of syluer and golde shal ye not make you.

24 Make me an altare of earth, wher vpon thou mayest offer yi burntofferynges, & peaceofferynges, thy shepe and thine oxen. For loke in what place so euer I make ye remembraunce of my name, there wil I come vnto the, and blesse the.

25 And yf thou wilt make me an altare of stone, thou shalt not make it of hewen stone: For yf thou lift vp thy tole vpon it, thou shalt vnhalowe it.

26 Morouer thou shalt not go vp vpon steppes vnto myne altare, that thy shame be not discouered before it.

Chapter 21

1 These are the lawes, that thou shalt laye before them.

2 Yf thou bye a seruauant that is an Hebrue, he shal serue the sixe yeares, in the seuenth yeare shall he go out fre and lowse.

3 Yf he came alone, then shal he go out alone also: but yf he came married, then shall his wife go out with him.

4 Yf his master haue geue him a wife, & she haue borne him sonnes or daughters, the shal the wife and ye children be the masters, but he shall go out alone.

5 Neuertheles yf the seruauant saye: I loue my master, and my wife and children, I wil not go out fre:

6 then let his master bryng him before the Goddes, and holde him to the dore or post, and bore him thorow the eare with a botkin, and let him be his seruauant for euer.

7 Yf a man sell his daughter to be an handmayde, then shal she not go out as the menseruauentes.

8 But yf she please not hir master, and he haue not married her, then shal he let her go fre: but to sell her vnto a straunge people he hath no auctorite, for so moch as he hath despysed her.

9 Yf he promyse her vnto his sonne, then shal he do vnto her after the lawe of daughters.

10 But yf he geue him another wife, then shall he mynyshe nothinge of hir foode, rayment, and dewtye of mariage.

11 Yf he do not these thre, then shal she go out fre, and paye nothinge.

12 He that smyteth a man that he dye, shall dye the death.

13 Yf he haue not layed wayte for him, but God let him fall in his hande vnawares, then wil I appoynte the a place, where he shal flye vnto.

14 But yf a man presume vpon his neighbour, and slaye him with disceate, then shalt thou take the same fro myne altare, that he maye be slayne.

15 Who so smyteth his father or mother, shall dye the death.

16 He that stealeth a man, and selleth him, so that he be founde by him, the same shall dye the death.

17 Who so curseth father and mother, shal dye the death.

18 Yf men stryue together and one smyte another with a stone, or with his fist, so that he dye not, but lyeth in bedd:

19 Yf he ryse, and go forth vpon his staff, the shall he that smote him, be vngiltie: saue that he shal paye the losse of his tyme, and geue ye money for healyng him.

20 He that smyteth his seruauant or mayde with a staff, that he dye vnder his handes, the same shall suffre vengeance therfore.

21 But yf he endure a daye or two, then shall he suffre no vengeance therfore, for it is his money.

22 Yf men stryue, and hytt a woman with childe, so that ye frute departe from her, and no harme happen vnto her, then shall he be punyshed for money, as moch as the womans husbnde layeth to his charge, and he shall geue it, acordinge to the appoyntement of the dayes men.

23 But yf there come harme vnto her there thorow, then shal he paye soule for soule,

24 eye for eye, toth for toth, hande for hande, fote for fote,

25 burnyng for burnyng, wounde for wounde, strype for strype.

26 Yf a man smyte his seruauant or his mayde in the eye, and destroye it, he shal let them go fre and lowse for the eye sake.

27 In like maner yf he smyte out a tothe of his seruauant or mayde, he shall let them go fre and lowse for the tothes sake.

28 Yf an oxe gorre a man or a woman, that he dye, then shall that oxe be stoned, and his flesh not eaten: so is the master of the oxe vngiltie.

29 But yf the oxe haue bene vsed to push in tymes past, & it hath bene tolde his master, and he hath not kepte him, and besydes that slayeth a man or a woman, then shal ye oxe be stoned, and his master shal dye.

30 But yf there be money set vpon him, then, loke what is put vpon him, that shall he geue, to deluyer his soule.

31 Likewyse shall he be dealte withall, yf he gorre a sonne or a daughter.

32 But yf he gorre a seruauant or a mayde, then shall he geue their master thirtie syluer Sycles: and the oxe shalbe stoned.

33 Yf a man open a well, or dygge a pytt, and couer it not, and there fall an oxe or Asse therin, 34 then shall the owner of the pytt make it good with money, and restore it vnto his master: but the deed carcasse shalbe his owne.

35 Yf one mans oxe gorre another, that he dye, then shall they sell the luyng oxe, and deuyde the money, and the deed carcasse shal they deuyde also.

36 But yf it be knowne, that the oxe haue bene vsed to gorre afore, then shal he paye his oxe for the other, & the deed carcasse shal be his owne.

Chapter 22

1 Yf a man steale an oxe or shepe, and slaye it, or sell it, he shall restore fyue oxen for an ox, and foure shepe for a shepe.

2 Yf a thefe be taken breakinge in, & vpon that be smytten that he dye, then shall not he that smote him, be giltye of his bloude.

3 But yf the sonne be gone vp vpo him, then hath he committed manslaughter, and he shal dye. A thefe shall make restitution. Yf he haue nothige, the let him be solde for his theft.

4 But yf ye theft be founde by him alyue (from the ox vnto the Asse or shepe) then shall he restore dubble.

5 Yf a man hurte a felde or vnyarde, so yt he let his catell do harme in another mans felde, the same shall make restitution euen of the best of his owne felde and vnyarde.

6 Yf a fyre come out, and take holde of ye thornes, so that the sheeues be consumed, or the corne that stondest yet vpon the felde, he that kyndled the fyre shall make restitution.

7 Yf a man delyuer his neyghboure money or vessels to kepe, and it be stollen from him out of his house: yf the thefe be founde, he shal restore dubble.

8 But yf the thefe be not founde, then shal the good man of the house be brought before the Goddes (and shal swaere) that he hath not put his hande vnto his neyghbours good.

9 Yf one accuse another in eny maner of trespase, whether it be for ox, or Asse, or shepe, or rayment, what so euer it be that is lost: then shall both their causes come before the Goddes: Loke whom the Goddes condempne, the same shal restore dubble vnto his neyghboure.

10 Yf a man delyuer vnto his neyghboure an Asse, or ox, or shepe, or eny maner of catell to kepe, and it dye, or be hurte, or dryuen awaye that no man se it, 11 then shall there an oath of the LORDE go betwene them, that he hath not put his hande vnto his neyghbours good: and the owner of ye good shal accepte it, so that the other shall not make it good.

12 Yf a thefe steale it from him, then shal he make restitucio vnto the owner therof.

13 But yf it be rauyshed (of bestes) then shal he brynge recorde therof, and not make it good.

14 Yf a man borowe ought of his neyghboure, and it be hurte, or dye, so that the owner therof be not by, then shall he make it good.

15 But yf the owner therof be by, then shal he not make it good, yf he hyred it for his money.

16 Yf a man begile a mayde, that is not yet spoused, and lye with her, the same shal geue her hir dowry, and take her to his wife.

17 But yf hir father refuse to geue her vnto him, the shall he weye there the money, acordinge to the dowry of virgins.

18 Thou shalt not suffre a witch to lye.

19 Who so lyeth wt a beast, shal dye the death.

20 Who so offreth to eny goddes, saue vnto the LORDE onely, let him dye without redempcion.

21 Thou shalt not vexe ner oppresse a stranger, for ye youre selues were strangers also in the londe of Egipte.

22 Ye shall truble no wyddowe ner fatherlesse childe.

23 Yf thou shalt trouble them, they shall crie vnto me, and I shall heare their crye:

24 then shal my wrath waxe whote, so yt I shal sley you with the swerde, and youre wyues shalbe wedowes, and youre children fatherlesse, 25 Yf thou lende money vnto my people that is poore by the, thou shalt not behaue thyself as an vsurer vnto him, nether shalt thou oppresse him with vsury.

26 Yf thou take a garment of thy neyghboure to pledge, thou shalt geue it him agayne before the Sonne go downe:

27 for his rayment is his onely couerynge of his skynne: wherin he slepeth. But yf he shall crie vnto me, I wyll heare him: for I am mercifull.

28 Thou shalt not speake euell of the Goddes, and the ruler of thy people shall thou not blasphem.

29 Thy drie and moist frutes shalt thou not kepe backe. Thy first sonne shalt thou geue vnto me.

30 So shalt thou do also with thine oxen and shepe. Seuen dayes let it be with the dame: Vpon the eight daye shalt thou geue it vnto me.

31 Ye shalbe holy people before me. Therefore shal ye eate no flesh, that is torne of beestes in the felde, but cast it vnto the dogges.

Chapter 23

1 Thou shalt not accepte a vayne tale, that thou woldest manteyne the vngodly, and be a false wytnesse.

2 Thou shalt not folowe the multitude vnto euell, ner answer at the lawe that thou woldest (to folowe the multitude) turne a syde from the right.

3 Thou shalt not paynte a poore mans cause.

4 Yf thou mete thine enemies ox or Asse, goinge astraye, thou shalt brynge the same vnto him agayne.

5 Yf thou se the Asse of him that hateth the, lye vnder his burthen, thou shalt not let him lye, but shalt helpe him vp.

6 Thou shalt not wraist the righte of thy poore in his cause.

7 Kepe the farre from false matters. The innocent and righteous shalt thou not sley, for I iustifie not ye vngodly.

8 Thou shalt not take giftes: for giftes blinde euen them yt are sharpe of sight, & wraist the righteous causes.

9 Ye shall not oppresse a stranger, for ye knowe the hert of strangers, for so moch as ye youre selues also haue bene strangers in the londe of Egipte.

10 Sixe yeares shalt thou sowe thy londe, and gather in the frute therof:

11 In the seuenth yeare shalt thou let it rest and lye still, that the poore amonge thy people maye eate therof: and loke what remaineth ouer, let ye beestes of the felde eate it. Thus shalt thou do also with thy vnyarde and olyue trees.

12 Sixe dayes shalt thou do thy worke, but vpon the seuenth daye thou shalt kepe holy daye, that thine ox and Asse maye rest, and that the sonne of thy handmayden and the straunger maye refresh them selues.

13 All that I haue sayde vnto you, that kepe. And as for the names of other goddes, ye shall not remembre them, and out of youre mouthes shal they not be herde.

14 Thre tymes in the yeare

15 shalt thou kepe feast vnto me: namely the feast of vnuenced bred shalt thou kepe, that thou eate vnuenced bred seuen dayes (like as I commaunded ye) in the tyme of ye moneth Abib, for in the same wentest thou out of Egipte. (But appeare not emptye before me.)

16 And ye feast whan thou first reapest thy labours, yt thou hast sown vpon the felde. And the feast of ingathering in the ende of ye yeare, whan thou hast gathered in thy laboures out of the felde.

17 Thre tymes in the yeare shal euery male that thou hast, appeare before the LORDE the Gouvernour.

20 Beholde, I sende an angell before the, to kepe the in the waye, and to brynge the vnto the place, that I haue prepared.

21 Therefore bewarre of his face, and herken vnto his voyce, and anger him not, for he shall not spare youre mysdedes, & my name is in him.

22 But yf thou shalt herken vnto his voyce, and do all that I shal tell the, then wyll I be enemye vnto thy enemyes, and aduersary vnto thy aduersaries.

23 Now wha myne angell goeth before the, & bryngeth the vnto ye Amorites, Hethites, Pheresites, Cananites, Heuites & Iebusites, & I shall haue destroyed them:

24 then shalt thou not worships their goddes, ner serue them, nether shalt thou do as they do, but shalt ouerthrowe their goddes, & breake the downe.

28 I wyll sende hornettes before ye, and dryue out the Heuytes, Cananites and Hethytes before the.

29 In one yeare wyll I not cast the out before the, yt the londe become not waist, & wyld beasts multiply agaynst ye:

30 By litle & litle wyll I dryue them out before the, tyll thou growe, & haue the londe in possession.

31 And I wyll set the borders of thy londe, euen from the reed see vnto ye see of the Philistynes, & from the wyldernes vnto the water. For I wyll delyuer the indwellers of the londe in to thine hande, yt thou shalt dryue them out before the.

32 Thou shalt make no couenaunt wt them ner with their goddes, 33 but let the not dwell in thy lande, that they make the not synne ageynst me. For yt thou serue their goddes, it wyll surely be thy decaye.

Chapter 24

1 And he sayde vnto Moses: Come vp vnto the LORDE thou & Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and the seuetie elders of Israel, & worships afarre of.

2 But let Moses onely come nye vnto the LORDE, and let not them come nye, and let not the people also come vp with him.

3 Moses came and tolde the people all the wordes of the LORDE, & all the lawes. Then answered all the people with one voyce, and sayde: All ye wordes that the LORDE hath sayde, wyl we do.

4 Then wrote Moses all the wordes of ye LORDE, & gat him vp by tymes in the mornynge, & buylded an altare vnder ye mount with twolue pilers, acordinge to the twolue trybes of Israel:

8 Moses toke the bloude, & sprenkled it vpon the people, & sayde: Beholde, this is ye bloude of the couenaunt that the LORDE maketh wt you vpon all these wordes.

9 Then wente Moses & Aaron, Nadab & Abihu, & the seuentie elders of Israel vp, 10 & sawe ye God of Israel. Vnder his fete it was like a stone worke of Saphyre, & as the fashion of heaue, wha it is cleare, 11 & he put not his hade vpo the pryncipall of Israel. And whan they had sene God, they ate & dronke.

12 And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Come vp vnto me vpon the mount, & remayne there, yt I maye geue the tables of stone, & ye lawe & commaundemetes yt I haue wrytten, which thou shalt teach the.

13 Then Moses gat him vp & his mynister Iosua, & wente vp into the mount of God,

14 & sayde vnto the elders: Tary ye here, tyll we come to you agayne: beholde, Aaron and Hur are with you, yf eny man haue a matter to do, let him brynge it 30 And in the brestlappe of iudgment thou shalt put light and perfectnesse, that they be vpon Aaros hert, whan he goeth in before the LORDE, and that he maye beare the iudgment of the children of Israel vpon his hert before the LORDE allwaye.

19 As for the other ramme, thou shalt take him, and Aaron with his sonnes shall laye their handes vpon his heade,

22 Then shalt thou take the fat of the ramme, the rompe, and the fatt that couereth ye bowels, the net vpon the leuer, and the two kydneys with the fatt that is aboute them, and the right shulder (for it is a ramme of cosecracion)

23 and a symnel of bred, and an oyled cake, and a wafer out of the maunde of the vnuendred bred that stondest before ye LORDE, 24 and put all in to the handes of Aaron and of his sonnes, and waue it vnto the LORDE.

25 The take it out of their handes, and burne it vpon the altare for a burnt offeringe, to be a swete sauoure vnto ye LORDE. For it is the LORDES sacrifice.

28 And it shalbe a perpetuall custome for Aaro and his sonnes of ye children of Israel: for it is an Heue offrynge, and the Heue offrynge shalbe the LORDES dewtye of the children of Israel, in their deade offrynges and Heueoffrynges which they do vnto the LORDE.

29 And the holy garmentes of Aaron shall his sonnes haue after him, that they maie be anoynted therin, & yt their handes maye be fylled.

30 Loke which of his sonnes shalbe prest in his steade, the same shal put them on seue dayes, that he maye go in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse, to mynister in the Sanctuary.

31 But the ramme of consecracion shalt thou take, and seeth his flesh in an holy place.

32 And Aaron with his sonnes shal eate the flesh of the same ramme with the bred in the maunde, at the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse:

33 for there is an attonement made therewith, to fyll their handes, that they maye be consecrated. A strauger shal not eate therof, for it is holy.

34 But yf eny of the flesh of the consecracion, and of the bred remaine vntyll the mornynge, thou shalt burne it with fyre, and not let it be eaten, for it is holy.

35 And thus shalt thou do with Aaron and his sonnes all that I haue commaunded ye. Seuen dayes shalt thou fyll their handes,

36 and offer a bullocke daylie for a synne offeringe, because of them yt shalbe reconciled. And thou shalt halowe the altare, when thou reconcylest it: & shalt anoynte it, that it maye be consecrated.

37 Seuen dayes shalt thou reconcyte the altare, & consecrate it, that it maye be an altare of the Most holy. Who so wyll touch the altare, must be consecrated.

38 And this shalt thou do with the altare: Two lambes of one yeare olde shalt thou offer euery daye vpon it:

39 the one lambe in the mornynge, and the other at euen.

40 And to one lambe a tenth deale of wheate floure, megled with ye fourth parte of an Hin of beaten oyle, and ye fourth parte of an Hin of wine for a drynk offerynge

41 With the other lambe at euen shalt thou do like as with ye meateofferynge and drynkofferynge in the mornynge, for a swete sauoure of sacrifice vnto ye LORDE.

42 This is the daylie burntofferynge amonge youre posterities, at the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse before the LORDE, where I will proteste vnto you, and talke with the.

43 There wil I proteste vnto the children of Israel, and be sanctified in my glory, 44 and wyl halowe the Tabernacle of wytnes and the altare, and consecrate Aaro and his sonnes, to be my prestes.

45 And I wyl dwell amonge the children of Israel, & wyll be their God:

46 so yt they shal knowe, how that I am the LORDE their God, which brought them out of the londe of Egypete, that I might dwell amonge them, euen I the LORDE their God.

Chapter 30

1 Thou shalt make also an incense altare to burne incense, of Fyrrre tre,

2 a cubyte longe & brode, euen foure squared, and two cubytes hye with his hornes,

3 & shalt ouerlaye it with pure golde, the rofe & the walles of it rounde aboute, and the hornes therof, & a crowne of golde shalt thou make rounde aboute it,

4 and two golde rynges on ether syde vnder the crowne, that there maie be staues put therin, to beare it withall.

5 The staues shalt thou make of Fyrrre tre also, and ouerlaye the with golde:

6 and shalt set it before the vayle, that hangeth before the Arke of wytnesse, and before the Mercyseate yt is vpon the wytnesse, from whence I wyl proteste vnto the.

7 And Aaron shal burne swete incense theron euery mornynge, wha he dresseth the lampes.

8 In like maner when he lighteth the lampes at euen, he shall burne soch incense also. This shal be the daylie incense before the LORDE amonge youre posterities.

9 Ye shall put no straunge incense therin, & offer no burntofferynge, ner meatofferynge, nether drynkofferynge theron.

10 And vpon ye hornes of it shall Aaron reconcyte once in a yeare, with ye bloude of the synneofferynge, which they shall offer that are reconcyled. This shal be done amonge youre posterities for this is the most holy vnto the LORDE.

11 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde:

12 When thou nombrest the heades of the children of Israel, then shal euery one geue vnto the LORDE the reconcylinge of his soule, yt there happe not a plage vnto them, when they are nombred.

13 Euery one that is tolde in the nombre, shall geue half a Sycle, after the Sycle of the Sanctuary: one Sycle is worth twentye Geras. This half Sycle shal be ye LORDES Heue offerynge.

14 Who so is in the nombre from twenty yeare and aboute, shal geue this Heue offerynge vnto ye LORDE.

15 The riche shal not geue more, and the poore shal not geue lesse in the half Sycle, which is geuen vnto the LORDE to be an Heue offerynge for the reconcylinge of their soules.

16 And this money of recocilinge shalt thou take of the children of Israel, & put it to the Gods seruyce of the Tabernacle of wytnes, that it maye be a remembraunce vnto the children of Israel before the LORDE, that he maye let himself be reconcyled ouer their soules.

17 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde:

18 Thou shalt make a brasen lauer also with a fote of brasse to wash, and shalt set it betwixte the Tabernacle of wytnesse and ye altare, and put water therin,

19 that Aaro and his sonnes maye wash their handes and fete therout, 20 when they go in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse, or to the altare, to mynister vnto the LORDE with offerynge incense, yt they dye not.

21 This shalbe a perpetuall custome for him and his sede amonge their posterities.

22 And ye LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde:

23 Take vnto the spyces of the best, fyue hundreth Sycles of Myrre, and of Cynamo half so moch, euen two hundreth and fyfytie,

24 and of Kalmus two hundreth and fyfytie, and of Cassia fyue hundreth (after the Sycle of the Sanctuary) & an Hin of oyle olyue, 25 and make an holy anoyntinge oyle, after the craft of the Apotecary.

26 And there wt shalt thou anoynte the Tabernacle of wytnesse, & the Arke of wytnes, 27 the table with all his apparell, ye candilstickes with his apparell, the altare of incense,

28 the altare of burntofferynges with all his apparell, & the lauer with his fote:

29 and thus shalt thou consecrate them, that they maye be most holy: for who so wil touch the, must be consecrated.

30 Thou shalt anoynte Aaron also, and his sonnes, and consecrate them to be my prestes.

31 And thou shalt speake vnto the childe of Israel, and saye: This oyle shalbe an holy oymntment vnto me amonge yor posterities:

32 It shal not be poured vpon mans body, nether shalt thou make eny soch like it, for it is holy: therfore shal it be holy vnto you.

33 Who so maketh eny soch like, or geueth a strauger therof, the same shalbe roted out from amonge his people.

34 And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Take vnto the spyces: Balme, Stacte, Galban, and pure franckencense, of one as moch as of another, 35 and make incense therof (after the craft of the Apotecary) myngled together, that it maye be pure & holy.

36 And thou shalt beate it to poulder, and shalt put of the same before the wytnesse in the Tabernacle of wytnesse, from whence I wyll proteste vnto the,

37 but it shalbe holy vnto the for the LORDE.

38 Who so maketh soch to cense therwith, shalbe roted out from amoge his people.

Chapter 31

1 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & saide:

2 I haue called by name Bezaleel the sonne of Vri ye sonne of Hur, of ye trybe of Iuda,

3 and haue fylled him with ye sprete of God, with wysdome and vnderstodynge and knowlege, and to worke

4 with all maner of connynges worke, in golde, syluer, brasse,

5 to graue stones connyngly, and to set them, to carue well in tymbre, and to make all maner worke.

6 And beholde, I haue geuen him Ahaliab the sonne of Ahisamach of the trybe of Dan, to be his companyon, and haue geuen wysdome in to the hertes of all that are wyse, that they shall make all that I haue commaunded the:

7 the Tabernacle of wytnesse, the Arke of wytnesse, the Mercyseate theron, and all the ornaments of ye Tabernacle:

8 the table and his apparell, the candilstickes and all his apparell, the altare of incense,

9 the altare of burntofferynges wt all his apparell, the lauer with his fote,

10 the mynistrynge vestymentes of Aaron ye prest, and the garmentes of his sonnes to serue like prestes, 11 the anoyntinge oyle, and the incese of spyces for ye Sactuary. All that I haue commaunded the, shal they make.

12 And the LORDE talked vnto Moses, and sayde:

13 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and saye: Kepe my Sabbath, for it is a token betwene me and you, and youre posterities, that ye maye knowe, how that I am the LORDE which haloweth you:

14 therfore kepe my Sabbath, for it shalbe holy vnto you. Who so vnhaloweth it, shall dye the death: For who so doth eny worke therin, shalbe roted out from amonge his people.

15 Sixe dayes shall men worke, but vpon the seuenth daye is the Sabbath the holy rest of the LORDE. Who so doth eny worke vpon the Sabbath daye, shall dye the death.

16 Therefore shal the children of Israel kepe the Sabbath, that they maye kepe it also amonge their posterities for an euerlastyng couenaunt.

17 An euerlastyng token is it betwixte me and the children of Israel. For in sixe dayes made the LORDE heaue & earth, but vpon ye seuenth daye he rested, and was refreshed.

18 And whan the LORDE had made an ende of talkinge with Moses vpon the mount Sinai, he gaue him two tables of witness, which were of stone, and wryten with the fynger of God.

Chapter 32

1 But whan the people sawe that Moses made loge taryenge to come downe from the mount, they gathered the together agaynst Aaron, & sayde vnto him: Vp, and make vs goddes, to go before vs, for we can not tell what is become of this man Moses, that brought vs out of Egipte.

2 Aaron sayde vnto them: Plucke of the golden earynges from the eares of youre wyues, of yor sonnes, & of yor daughters, & brynge them vnto me.

3 Then all the people pluckte of their golden earynges from their eares, & brought them vnto Aaron.

4 And he toke them of their handes, & fashioned it wt a grauer. And they made a molten calfe, and sayde: These are thy goddes (O Israel) that brought the out of the londe of Egipte.

5 Whan Aaron sawe that, he buylded an altare before him, and caused it be proclaimed, and sayde: Tomorrow is the LORDES feast.

6 And they arose vp early in the mornyng, and offred burntofferynges, and brought deadofferynges also: Then the people sat them downe to eate and drynke, & rose vp to playe.

7 But the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Go get the downe, for thy people whom thou broughtest out of the londe of Egipte,

8 haue marred all: they are soone gone out of the waie, which I commaunded them. They haue made them a molten calfe, and haue worshipped it, & offred vnto it, & sayde: These are thy goddes (O Israel) that brought the out of the lande of Egipte.

9 And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: I se, that it is a styffnecked people,

10 and now suffre me, that my wrath maye waxe whote ouer them, & that I maye consume them, so wil I make a greate people of the.

11 But Moses be sought the LORDE his God, & sayde: Oh LORDE, wherfore wil thy wrath waxe whote ouer thy people, whom thou hast brought out of the lode of Egipte wt greate power & a mightie hade?

12 Wherfore shulde the Egipcians speake, & saye: He hath brought the for their myschefe, to slaye them in the mountaynes, and to destroye the vtterly from the earth? O turne the from the fearcenesse of yi wrath, & be gracious ouer the wickednesse of thy people.

13 Remember thy seruantes Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, vnto who thou swarest by thye owne self, and saydest: I wil multiplye youre sede as the starres of heauen, and all the londe that I haue promysed you, wil I geue vnto youre sede, & they shall inheret it for euer.

14 Thus the LORDE repented of the euell, which he sayde he wolde do vnto his people.

15 Moses turned him, & wente downe from the mount, and in his hande he had the two tables of wytnesse, which were wrytte vpon both the sydes, 16 and were Gods worke, & the wrytinge was the wrytinge of God therein.

17 Now whan Iosua herde the noyse of ye people, as they shouted, he sayde vnto Moses: This is a noyse of warre in the hoost.

18 He answered: It is not a noyse of them that haue the victory, and of them that haue the worse, but I heare a noyse of synginge at a daunse.

19 Whan he came nye vnto the hoost, and sawe the calfe, and the daunsyng, he was moued with wrath, and cast the tables out of his hande, and brake them beneath the mount.

20 And he toke the calfe that they had made, and brent it with fyre, and stamped it vnto poulder, and strowed it in the water, & gaue it vnto the children of Israel to drynke, 21 & sayde vnto Aaron: What dyd this people vnto the, that thou hast brought so greate a synne vpon them?

22 Aaron sayde: Let not the wrath of my lorde waxe feare: thou knowest, that this is a wicked people.

23 They sayde vnto me: Make vs goddes to go before vs, for we cannot tell what is become of this man Moses, yt brought vs out of the londe of Egipte.

24 I sayde vnto them: Who so hath golde, let him plucke it of, and geue it me: and I cast it in the fyre, therof came this calfe.

25 Now whan Moses sawe, that the people were naked (for Aaron, whan he set them vp, made them naked to their shame)

26 he wete in to the gate of the hoost, and sayde: who so belongeth vnto the LORDE, let him come hither vnto me. Then all the children of Leui gathered them selues vnto him, 27 and he sayde vnto them: Thus sayeth the LORDE the God of Israel: Euery man put his swerde by his syde, and go thorow in and out from one gate to another in the hoost, and slaye euery man his brother, frende, & neighoure.

28 The children of Leui dyd, as Moses sayde vnto them. And there fell of the people the same daye thre thousande men.

29 The sayde Moses: Cosecrate youre handes this daie vnto the LORDE, euery man vpon his sonne and brother, that the prayse maye be geuen ouer you this daye.

30 On the morow Moses sayde vnto the people: Ye haue done a greate synne. Now I wil go vp vnto the LORDE, yf peradventure I maye make an attonement for youre synnes.

31 Now wha Moses came agayne vnto ye LORDE, he saide: Oh this people haue done a greate synne, & haue made them goddes of golde.

32 Now for geue them their synne: yf not, the wype me out of yi boke, that thou hast wrytten.

33 The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: What? Him that synneth against me, wil I wype out of my boke.

34 Go thou yi waye therfore, and brynge ye people thither as I haue sayde vnto the, Beholde, myne angell shall go before the. But in the daye of my visitacion I wyll vyset their synnes vpon them.

35 So the LORDE plaged the people, because they made ye calfe which Aaron made.

Chapter 33

1 The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Go, departe hence, thou and the people, whom thou hast brought out of the lande of Egipte, vnto ye londe that I sware vnto Abraham, Isaac and Iacob, and sayde: vnto yi sede wil I geue it,

2 and I wyl sende an angell before the (and cast out the Cananites, Amorites, Hethites, Pheresites, Heuites and Iebusites)

3 in to the londe that floweth with mylke and hony, for I wyll not go vp with the: for thou art an hardnecked people, I might consume the by the waye.

4 Whan the people herde this euell tydings, they sorrowed, and no man put on his best rayment.

5 And ye LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Speake vnto the children of Israel: Ye are a styfnecked people, I must once come sodenly vpon the, and make an ende of the. And now put of thy goodly araye from the, yt I maie knowe what to do vnto the.

6 So the children of Israel laied their goodly araye from the, euen before the mount Horeb.

7 Moses toke the Tabernacle, & pitched it without affarre of from ye hoost, and called it the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And who so euer wolde axe eny question at the LORDE, wente out vnto the Tabernacle of wytnesse before the hoost. 8 And whan Moses wente out vnto the Tabernacle, all the people rose vp, and stode euery one in his tent dore, and loked after Moses, tyll he was gone in to the Tabernacle.

9 And whan Moses entred in to the Tabernacle, the cloudy pyler came downe, and stode in the dore of the Tabernacle, and he talked with Moses..

10 And all the people sawe the cloudy piler stonde in the dore of the Tabernacle, and rose vp, and worshipped, euery one in his tent dore.

11 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh vnto his frende. And whan he turned agayne to the hoost, ye yonge ma Iosua ye sonne of Nun his minister, departed not out of ye Tabernacle.

12 And Moses sayde vnto the LORDE: Beholde, thou saydest vnto me: Brynge ye people vp, and lettest me not knowe, whom thou wilt sende wt me, & yet hast thou sayde: I knowe the by name, and thou hast founde grace in my sight.

13 Let me knowe thy waye therfore, wherby I maye be certified, yt I fynde grace in thy sight: And consydre yet, that this people is thy people.

14 He sayde: My presence shal go before the, there with wyll I lede the.

15 But he sayde vnto him: Yf thy presence go not, then cary vs not vp from hence:

16 for wherby shal it be knowne, yt I and thy people haue founde faouure in thy sight, but in yt thou goest with vs? that I & thy people maye haue some preemynence before all people that are vpon the face of the earth.

17 The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: I wyll do this also that thou hast sayde, for thou hast foude grace in my sight, and I knowe the by name.

18 He sayde: Oh let me the se thy glory. 19 And he sayde: I wyl cause all my good go ouer before thy face, and wyl let the name of ye LORDE be called vpon before the. And I shewe mercy, to whom I shewe mercy: and haue compassion, on whom I haue compassion.

20 And he sayde morouer: Thou mayest not se my face, for there shall no ma lyue, yt seyth me.

21 And ye LORDE sayde farthermore: beholde, there is a place by me, there shalt thou stode vpon the rocke.

22 Now whan my glory goeth forth, I wil put ye in a clyfte of ye rocke, & my hande shal holde styll vpo the, tyll I be passed by.

23 And whan I take awaye myne hande from the, thou shalt se my back partes, but my face shal not be sene.

Chapter 34

1 And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Hew the two tables of stone, like as ye first were, that I maye wryte in them the wordes, yt were in the first tables, which thou brakest:

2 and be ready in the mornyng, that thou mayest come vp early vnto mout Sinai, and stonde me vpon the toppe of the mount.

3 And let no man come vp with the, that there be no man sene thorow out all ye mount: and let nether shepe ner oxen fede before the mount.

4 And Moses hewed two tables of stone, like as the first were, & arose early in the mornyng, & wente vp vnto mount Sinai, as ye LORDE comaunded him, & toke ye two tables of stone in his hade.

5 The came the LORDE downe in a cloude. And there he stepte vnto him, & called vpo ye name of ye LORDE.

6 And whan ye LORDE passed by before his face, he cryed: LORDE LORDE, God, mercifull & gracious, & longe sufferinge, and of greate mercy and trueth,

7 thou that kepest mercy in stoare for thousandes, and forgeuest wickednes, trespace and synne (before whom there is no man innocent) thou that visitest the wickednesse of the fathers vpon ye children and childers children, vnto the thirde and fourth generacion.

8 And Moses bowed him self downe vnto the earth, and worshiped him,

9 and saide: LORDE, yf I haue founde grace in thy sight, the let the LORDE go with vs (for it is an hard necked people) that thou mayest haue mercy vpon oure wickednesses and synnes, and let vs be thyne inheritaunce.

10 And he sayde: Beholde, I make a couenaunt before all yi people, & wil do wonders, such as haue not bene done in all londes, and amonge all people. And all ye people amoge whom thou art, shal se ye worke of ye LORDE, for a terryble thinge shal it be, yt I wyl do wt the.

11 Kepe that I commaunde ye this daye. Beholde, I wyl cast out before the: ye Amorites, Cananites, Hethites, Pheresites, Heuytes and Iebusites.

12 Bewarre, that thou make no couenaunt with the indwellers of the lande yt thou comest in to, lest they be cause of yi ruyne in the myddest of the:

13 but their alters shalt thou ouerthrowe, & breake downe their goddes, and rote out their groaues:

14 for thou shalt worships no other god. For ye LORDE is called gelous, because he is a gelous God:

15 lest (yf thou make any agreement with the indwellers of the londe, and whan they go a whoringe after their goddes, and do sacrifice vnto their goddes) they call ye, and thou eate of their sacrifice,

16 and lest thou take of their daughters vnto thy sonnes to wyues, and the same go a whoringe after their goddes,

17 & make thy sonnes go a whoringe after their goddes also. Thou shalt make ye no goddes of metall.

18 The feast of swete bred shalt thou kepe. Seuen daies shalt thou eate vnuueded bred, like as I comaunded in the tyme of the moneth Abib: for in the moneth Abib thou wentest out of Egipte.

19 All yt first breaketh the Matrix, is myne, such as shalbe male amoge ye catell, yt breaketh the Matrix, whether it be oxe or shepe.

20 But the first of thyne Asse shalt thou bye out wt a shepe: yf thou redeme it not, then breake his necke. All the first borne of thy children shalt thou redeme. And se that no man appeare before me emptye.

21 Sixe dayes shalt thou labor, vpon ye seuth daye shalt thou rest both from plowinge and reapyng.

22 The feast of wekes shalt thou kepe with the firstlings of the wheate harvest: and the feast of yngaderynge at ye yeares ende.

23 Thryse in a yeare shal all yor men children appeare before the Souernoure, euen the LORDE and God of Israel.

24 Whan I shal cast out the Heithen before the, & enlarge yi borders, there shal no man desyre thy lode: for so moch as thou goest vp thre tymes in the yeare, to appeare before ye LORDE thy God.

25 Thou shalt not offer the bloude of my sacrifice wt leueded bred. And the offerynge of the Easterfeast shal not remayne ouer night vntill the mornynge.

26 The firstlings of ye first frutes of thy lode shalt thou brynge in to the house of the LORDE thy God. Thou shalt not seith a kydd, whyle it is yet in his mothers mylke.

27 And the LORDE saide vnto Moses: wryte these wordes, for because of these wordes haue I made a couenaunt with the & with Israel.

28 And he was there with the LORDE fourtye dayes and fourtye nightes, and ate no bred, and dranke no water. And he wrote in the tables the wordes of the couenaunt, euen ten verses.

29 Now wha Moses came downe fro mount Sinai, he had the two tables of wytnesse in his hande, & wylt not yt the skynne of his face shyned, because he had talked with him.

30 And wha Aaron & all the childe of Israel sawe yt the skynne of his face shyned, they were afrayed to come nye him.

31 The Moses called them. And they returned vnto him, both Aaron & all the chefest of the cogregacion. And he talked wt them.

32 Afterwarde came all the children of Israel vnto him. And he comaunded the, all yt the LORDE had sayde vnto him vpon the mount Sinai.

33 Now whan he had made an ende of talkynge wt the, he put a couerynge vpo his face.

34 And whan he wete in before ye LORDE to talke wt him, he toke ye couerynge of, till he wete out agayne. And whan he came forth & spake wt the childe of Israel what was comaunded him, 35 the the childe of Israel sawe his face, how yt the skynne of his face shyned: so he put the couerynge vpo his face agayne, tyll he wente in agayne to talke with him.

Chapter 35

1 And Moses gathered all the cogregacion of ye childe of Israel together, and sayde vnto them: This is it, yt the LORDE hath commaunded you to do:

2 Sixe dayes shall ye worke, but the seuenth daye shall ye kepe holy: a Sabbath of the LORDES rest. Who so euer doeth eny worke therin, shall dye.

3 Ye shal kyndle no fyre vpon the Sabbath daye in all youre dwellynges.

4 And Moses sayde vnto ye whole cogregacion of the children of Israel: This is it, that the LORDE hath commaunded:

5 Geue from amonge you Heue offerynges vnto ye LORDE, so that euery one brynge the LORDES Heue offerynge with a fre hert: golde, syluer, brasse,

6 yalowe sylke, scarlet, purple, whyte sylke, and goates hayre,

7 reed skynnes of rammes, doo skynnes, and Fyrre tre,

8 oyle for the lampes, and spyces for the anoyntinge oyle and for swete incense.

9 Onix stones, and stones to be set in ye ouerbody cote, and for the brestlappe.

10 And who so is wyse of hert amonge you, let him come, & make what the LORDE hath commaunded:

11 namely, the Habitation with the tent & couerynge therof, the rynges, bordes, barres, pilers & sokettes:

12 The Arke wt the stauces therof, the Mercyseate & the vayle:

13 the table with his stauces & all his apparell: & the shewbred:

14 The cadilsticke of light and his apparell, and his lampes, & the oyle for the lightes:

15 The altare of incense with his stauces: The anoyntynge oyle and spyces for incense: The hangynge before ye Tabernacle dore:

16 The alter of burntofferings with his brasen gredyron, stauces and all his apparell: The lauer with his fote:

17 The hanginges of the courte, with the pilers and sokettes therof, & the hangynge of the courte dore:

18 The nales of the habitacion and of ye courte with their coardes:

19 The mynistringe garmentes for the seruyce in the Holy, ye holy vestimentes of Aaron the prest wt the vestimentes of his sonnes for ye prestes office.

20 Then wente all the congregacion of the childe of Israel out fro Moses, 21 & euery one brought the gift of his hert: & all that they wolde of fre will, the same brought they for an Heue offerynge vnto the LORDE for ye worke of the Tabernacle of witness, & for all the seruyce therof, & for the holy vestimetes.

22 Both men & women that were of a wyllynge hert, brought bracelettes, earynges, rynges & gyrdels, and all maner Jewels of golde: Euery man also brought golde for Waue offerynges vnto the LORDE.

23 And who so euer foude by him yalow sylke, scarlet, purple, whyte sylke, goates hayre, reed skynnes of rames, and Doo skynnes, brought it.

24 And who so euer houe vp syluer & brasse, brought it for ye Heue offerynge vnto the LORDE. And who so euer foude Fyrre tre by him, brought it for all maner of worke of the Gods seruyce.

25 And soch women as were wyse herted, spanne with their hades, and brought their sponne worke of yalow sylke, scarlet, purple, and whyte sylke.

26 And soch women as had hye vnderstandinge in wysdome, spanne goates hayre.

27 As for ye prynces, they brought Onix stones, and set stones, for ye ouerbody coate, and for the brestlappe, 28 and spyces, and oyle for ye lightes, and for the anoyntinge oyle, and for swete incense.

29 Thus the children of Israel brought fre wyllynge offerynges, both man and weme, for all maner of worke, that the LORDE had commaunded by Moses, to be made.

30 And Moses saide vnto the childe of Israel: Beholde, ye LORDE hath called by name Bezaleel ye sonne of Vri, ye sonne of Hur of the trybe of Iuda,

31 & hath fylled him wt the sprete of God, that he maye haue wysdome, vnderstandinge, & knowlege for all maner of worke,

32 to worke connyngly in golde, syluer & brasse,

33 to graue precious stones & to set them, to carue in wodd, to make all maner of connynge workes,

34 and hath geue instruction in his hert, both him and Ahaliab the sonne of Ahisamach of ye trybe of Dan.

35 These hath he fylled wt wysdome of hert, to make all maner of worke, to carue, to broder, to worke with nedle worke, with yalow sylke, scarlet, purple and whyte sylke, and with weeuynge to make all maner of worke, and to deuuse connyng workes.

Chapter 36

1 Then wrought Bezaleel & Ahaliab & all the wyse herted men, vnto whom the LORDE had geuen wysdome & vnderstandinge to knowe, how they shulde make all maner worke for the seruyce of the Sanctuary, accordinge vnto all yt the LORDE commaunded.

2 And Moses called for Bezaleel & Ahaliab, & all the wyse herted men, vnto whom the LORDE had geuen wysdome in their hertes, namely, all soch as wyllynge offred them selues there, & came to labour in the worke.

3 And they receaued of Moses all the Heue offerynges, that the children of Israel had brought for the worke of the seruyce of the Sanctuary, that it might be made: & euery morninge brought they their willinge offerynges vnto him.

4 Then came all the wyse men yt wrought in the worke of the Sanctuary, euery one fro his worke that he made,

5 & sayde vnto Moses: The people bryngeth to moch, more the nede is for the worke of this seruice, which the LORDE hath comaunded to make.

6 The commaunded Moses, that it shulde be proclaimed thorow out the hoost: No man brynge more to the Heue offerynge of the Sanctuary. Then were the people forbydden to brynge:

7 for there was stuff ynough for all maner of worke, that was to be made, and to moch.

8 So all ye wyse herted men amonge the yt wrought in ye worke of the Habitation, made ten curtaynes of whyte twyned sylke, yalow sylke, scarlet, purple, with Cherubyns of broderd worke.

9 The leghth of one curtayne was eight and twentye cubites, and the bredth foure cubites, & were all of one measure:

10 & he coupled the curtaynes fyue & fyue together one to the other.

11 And made yalow loupes a longe by ye edge of euery curtayne, where they shulde be coupled together:

12 fiftie loupes vpo euery curtayne, wherby one might be coupled to another.

13 And made fiftie buttons of golde, and with the buttons he coupled the curtaynes together one to the other, that it might be one couerynge.

14 And he made xj. curtaynes of goates hayre (for the tent ouer the habitacion)

15 of thirtie cubytes longe, & foure cubytes brode, all of one measure,

16 & coupled fyue together by them selues, and sixe by them selues,

17 & made fiftie loupes a longe by ye edge of euery curtayne, wherby they might be coupled together, 18 & made fiftie buttons of brasse, to couple ye tent together withall.

19 And made ouer ye tent a couerynge of reed skynnes of rammes, and ouer that a couerynge of Doo skynnes.

20 And made standinge bordes for the Habitacion, of Fyrrre tre,

21 euery one ten cubytes longe, and a cubyte and a half brode,

22 & two fete vnto euery one, wherby one might be ioyned to another:

23 that on the south syde there stode twentye of the same bordes:

24 and made fourtye syluer sokettes there vnder, vnder euery borde two sokettes for his two fete.

25 In like maner for the other syde of the Habitacion towarde the north, he made twentye bordes

26 also with fourtye syluer sokettes, vnder euery borde two sokettes:

27 But behynde the Habitacion vpon the west syde, he made sixe bordes,

28 and two other for the corners of the Habitacion behynde,

29 that either of them both might be ioyned with his corner borde from vnder vp, and aboue vpon the heade to come together with a clampe:

30 so that there were eight bordes, and sixtene sokettes of syluer, vnder euery one two sokettes.

31 And he made barres of Fyrrre tre, fyue for the bordes vpon the one syde of the Habitacion, 32 and fyue vpon the other syde, and fyue behynde towarde the west:

33 and made the barres to shute thorow the bordes, from the one ende to the other,

34 and euerlayde the bordes with golde. But their rynges made he of golde for the barres, and ouerlayde ye barres with golde.

35 And made Cherubyns vpon the hangyng with broderd worke, of yalow sylke, scarlet, purple, & whyte twyned sylke.

36 And made for the same, foure pilers of Fyrrre, and ouerlayed them with golde, and their knoppes of golde, and cast foure sokettes of syluer for them.

37 And made an hanginge in the Tabernacle dore, of yalow sylke, scarlet, purple, and whyte twyned sylke, of nedle worke, 38 and fyue pilers therto with their knoppes (& ouerlayed their knoppes and whopes with golde) and fyue sokettes of brasse there to.

Chapter 37

1 And Bezaleel made the Arke of Fyrrre tre, two cubites and a half loge, a cubyte and a half brode, and a cubyte & a half hie,

2 and ouerlayed it with fyne golde within and without, and made a crowne of golde vnto it rounde aboute,

3 and cast for it foure rynges of golde to the foure corners of it, vpon euery syde two.

4 And made staues of Fyrrre tre, and ouerlayed the with golde,

5 and put them in the rynges a longe by ye sydes of the Arke, to beare it withall.

6 And he made ye Mercyseate of pure golde two cubytes and a half longe, and a cubite and a half brode,

7 & made two Cherubyns of fyne beaten golde vpon the two endes of the Mercyseate:

8 One Cherub vpon the one ende, and the other Cherub vpon the other ende:

9 and the Cherubyns spredde out their wynges aboue an hie, and couered ye Mercyseate ther with: and their faces stode one ouer agaynst the other, and loked vnto the Mercyseate.

10 And he made ye table, of Fyrrre tre, two cubytes longe, a cubyte brode, and a cubyte & a half hie,

11 and ouerlayed it with fyne golde, and made therto a crowne of golde rounde aboute, 12 and made vnto it an whoope of an hande bredth hie, and made a crowne of golde rounde aboute the whoope.

13 And for it he cast foure golde rynges, & put them in the foure corners by the fete

14 harde by the whoope, that the staues might be therin, to beare the table with all:

15 & made the staues of Fyrrre tre, and ouerlayed the with golde, to beare the staues withall.

16 And the vessels vpon the table made he also of fyne golde: the disshes, spones, flat peces and pottes, to poure in and out withall.

17 And he made the candilstick of fyne beaten golde, where vpon was the shaft wt brauches, cuppes, knoppes, & floures:

18 Sixe brauches proceeded out of ye sydes therof, vpon either syde thre brauches:

19 vpo euery brauch were thre cuppes like allmodes, wt knoppes and floures.

20 Vpon the candilstick self were foure cuppes with knoppes and floures,

21 vnder euery two brauches a knoppe.

22 The knoppes & brauches therof proceeded out of it, and were all one pece of fyne beaten golde.

23 And he made the seuen lampes with their snoffers & outquenchers of pure golde.

24 Of an hudreth weight of golde made he it, and all the apparell therof.

25 He made also the altare of incense, of Fyrrre tre, a cubyte longe and brode, eauen foure squared, and two cubytes hie with the hornes of it,

26 and ouerlayed it with fyne golde, the toppe and the sydes of it rounde aboute,

27 and the hornes therof, and made a crowne vnto it rounde aboute of pure golde, & two golde rynges vnder the crowne on both the sydes, to put the staues therin, and to beare it withall:

28 but the staues made he of Fyrrre tre, and ouerlayed them with golde.

29 And he made the holy anyoyntinge oyle, & the incense of pure spyces, after ye craft of the Apotecary.

Chapter 38

1 And the altare of burntoffrynges made he of Fyrrre tre, fyue cubytes loge & brode, eauen foure squared, & thre cubites hie.

2 And made foure hornes, which proceeded out of the foure corners therof, and ouerlaied it with brasse.

3 And he made all maner of vessels for the altare, cauldrons, shouels, basens, fleshokes, and colepannes all of brasse.

4 And vnto the altare he made a brasen gredyron of net worke rounde aboute, from vnder vp vnto the myddest of the altare,

5 & cast foure rynges in the foure corners of the brasen gredyron, for the staues:

6 which he made of Fyrrre tre, and ouerlayed them wt brasse,

7 and put them in the rynges by the sydes of the altare, to beare it withall, and made it holowe with bordes.

8 And he made the Lauer of brasse, & his fote also of brasse vpon the place of ye hoost, that laye before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse.

9 And he made the courte on ye south syde: hangynges an hundreth cubytes longe, of whyte twyned sylke, 10 with the twetye pilers therof, and twentye sokettes of brasse: but the knoppes and whopes of syluer.

11 In like maner vpon the north syde an hundreth cubytes with twentye pilers, and twentye sokettes of brasse, but their knoppes & whoopes of syluer.

12 Vpon the west syde fiftie cubytes with ten pilers and te sokettes, but their knoppes and whoopes of syluer.

13 Vpon the East syde fiftie cubytes.

14 Fiftene cubytes vpon either syde of the courte dore, wt thre pilers and thre sokettes:

15 (Omitted Text)

16 So that all the hanginges of the courte were of whyte twyned sylke,

17 and the sokettes of the pilers were of brasse, & their knoppes and whoopes of syluer: their heades were ouerlayed wt syluer, & all the pilers of the courte were whooped aboute with syluer.

18 And the hangyng in ye courte gate made he wt nedle worke, of yalowe sylke, scarlet, purple, & whyte twyned sylke, twentye cubytes longe, & fyue cubytes hie, after the measure of the hanginges of the courte:

19 foure pilers also therto, & foure sokettes of brasse, and their knoppes of syluer, and their heades ouerlayed, and their whoopes of syluer.

20 And all the nales of the Habitacion and of the courte rounde aboute, were of brasse.

21 This is now the summe of the Habitacion of wytnesse (which was counted at the comaundemet of Moses to ye Gods seruice of the Leuites vnder the hade of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the prest)

22 which Bezaleel the sonne of Vri, the sonne of Hur of the trybe of Iuda made, all as the LORDE commaunded Moses.

23 And wt him Ahaliab ye sonne of Ahisamach of the trybe of Dan, a connyng grauer, to worke nedle worke, wt yalow sylke, scarlet, purple, & whyte sylke.

24 All the golde yt was wrought in all this worke of the Sanctuary (which was geuen to the Waue offeryng) is nyne & twenty hundreth weight, seuen hundreth & thirtie Sycles, after ye Sycle of ye Sanctuary.

25 The syluer yt came of the congregacion, was fyue score hundreth weight, a thousande, seuen hundreth, fyue and seuentye Sycles, after ye Sycle of the Sanctuary:

26 so many heades so many half Sycles, after the Sycle of the Sanctuary, of all that were nombred from twentye yeare olde and aboue, euen sixe hundreth thousande, thre thousande, fyue hundreth and fiftye.

27 Of the fyue score hundreth weight of syluer, were cast the sokettes of the Sanctuary, and the sokettes of the vayle, an hundreth sokettes of the fyue score hundreth weight, an hundreth weight to euery sokett.

28 Of the thousande, seuen hundreth and fyue and seuentye Sycles were made the knoppes of the pilers (and their heades ouerlayed) and their whoopes.

29 As for the Waue offeryng of brasse, it was seuentye hundreth weight, two thousande and foure hundreth Sycles:

30 Wherof were made the sokettes in the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and the brasen altare, and the brasen gredyron therto, and all the vessels of the altare, 31 and the sokettes of ye courte rounde aboute, and the sokettes of ye courte gate, all ye nales of the Habitacion, & all ye nales of ye courte rounde aboute.

Chapter 39

1 Of the yalowe sylke, scarlet, & purple, they made Aarons mynistringe vestimentes, to do seruyce in the Sanctuary, as ye LORDE comaunded Moses.

2 And he made the ouer body cote, of golde, yalowe sylke, scarlet, purple, & whyte twyned sylke,

3 and bett the golde in to thinne plates, and cut it in to wyres, that it might be wrought amonge the yalowe sylke, scarlet, purple and whyte sylke,

4 & made it so, that ye ouerbody cote came together by the edges on both the sydes.

5 And his gyrdel was after the same craft & worke: eue of golde, yalowe sylke, scarlet, purple and whyte twyned sylke, as the LORDE commaunded Moses.

6 And they wrought two Onix stones, set rounde aboute with golde, grauen by the stone grauer with the names of the childre of Israel:

7 and fastened them vpo the shulders of the ouerbody cote, that they might be stones of remebraunce vnto the children of Israel, as the LORDE comaunded Moses.

8 And they made the brestlappe after the craft & worke of the ouerbody cote: of golde, yalowe sylke, scarlet, purple, & whyte twyned sylke,

9 so that it was foure square & dubble, an hande bredth longe and brode,

10 and fylled it with foure rowes of stones. The first rowe was: a Sardis, a Topas, and a Smaragde.

11 The secode: a Ruby, a Saphyre, and a Dyamonde.

12 The thirde: a Ligurios, an Achat, and an Amatist.

13 The fourth: a Turcas, an Onix & a Iaspis: closed rounde aboute with golde in all the rowes.

14 And the stones stode after the twolue names of the children of Israel, grauen by the stone grauer, euey one with his name, acordinge to the twolue trybes.

15 And vpon the brestlappe they made wrythen cheynes of pure golde,

16 and two hokes of golde, & two golde rynges, and fastened the two rynges vpon the two edges of the brestlappe:

17 and ye two wrythen cheynes put they in the two rynges vpon the corners of the brestlappe.

18 But the two endes of ye wrethen cheynes put they to the two hokes, & fastened them vpon the corners of the ouerbody cote, one ouer agaynst another.

19 And they made two other rynges of golde, & fastened them to the other two corners of the brestlappe by the edge of it, that it might hange vpon the out syde of the ouerbody cote.

20 And they made yet two other golde rynges, which they put beneth vpon the two corners of the ouerbody cote, one ouer agaynst another, where the ouerbody cote ioyneth together,

21 that the brestlappe might be festened by his rynges vnto ye rynges of the ouerbody cote with a yalowe lace, that it might lye close vpon ye ouerbody cote, and not be lowsed from ye ouerbody cote, as the LORDE comaunded Moses.

22 And he made the tunycle vnto the ouerbody cote, wrought all of yalow sylke, 23 & the hole therof aboue in the myddest, & a bonde folde together rounde aboute the hole, that it shulde not rente.

24 And beneth vpon ye hemme of it, they made pomgranates of yalow sylke, scarlet, purple, & whyte twyned sylke:

25 & they made belles of pure golde, which they put betwixte ye pomgranates rounde aboute vpon the hemme of the tunycle, a bell & a pomgranate, 26 a bell & a pomgranate rounde aboute, to do seruyce in, as the LORDE comaunded Moses.

27 And they made albes also wrought of whyte sylke for Aaron & his sonnes,

28 & ye myter of whyte sylke, and the goodly bonettes of whyte sylke, and breches of twyned whyte linnen,

29 and the girdle of nedle worke euen of whyte twyned sylke, yalow sylke, scarlet, and purple, as the LORDE comaunded Moses.

30 They made the fore heade plate also to ye holy crowne, of pure golde, and wrote therin with grauen worke: the holynes of the LORDE, 31 and festened a yalowe lace theron, to tye it vnto the myter aboue, as the LORDE comaunded Moses.

32 Thus the whole worke of ye Habitation of ye Tabernacle of wytnesse, was fynished. And the childre of Israel dyd all that the LORDE comaunded Moses,

33 & brought the Habitation vnto Moses: the Tabernacle & all the apparell therof, the buttons, bordes, barres, pilers, sokettes,

34 ye couerynge of reed skynnes of rammes, the couerynge of doo skynnes, & the vayle,

35 ye Arke of wytnesse wt the staues therof, the Mercyseate,

36 the table & all his apparell, & the shewbred,

37 the candilstick, wt the lampes prepared, and all his apparell, & oyle for the lightes,

38 the golden altare, the anyntinge oyle & incense, the hanginge in the Tabernacle dore,

39 the brasen altare, & his brasen gredyron wt his staues, & all his apparell, ye lauer wt his foote,

40 the hangynges of ye courte wt the pilers & sokettes therof, ye hanginge in the courte gate wt his pilers & nales, & all the ordynaunce for the seruyce of the Habitation of ye Tabernacle of wytnesse, 41 ye mynistringe vestimetes of Aaro ye prest, to do seruyce in ye Sanctuary, & the garmetes of his sonnes, yt they might execute ye prestes office.

42 Acordinge to all that ye LORDE comaunded Moses, eue so dyd the childre of Israel in all this seruyce.

43 And Moses sawe all ye worke, yt they dyd it eue as ye LORDE had comaunded, and he blessed them.

Chapter 40

1 And ye LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde:

2 In the fyrst daye of the first moneth shalt thou set vp ye Habitacio of ye Tabernacle of wytnesse,

3 and shal put the Arke of wytnes therin, and hange the vayle before ye Arke.

4 And thou shalt bringe in the table, and garnish it, and brynge in the cadilstick, and put the lampes theron.

5 And ye golde altare of incense shalt thou set before ye Arke of wytnesse, & hange vp the hanginge in the dore of the Habitacio.

6 But the altare of burntofferings shalt thou set before the dore of the Habitation of the Tabernacle of wytnesse:

7 & the lauer betwixte the Tabernacle of wytnesse and the altare, and put water therin,

8 & set the courte rounde aboute, and hange vp the hanginge in the courte gate.

9 And thou shalt take the anyntyng oyle, and anynte the Habitation and all that is there in, and shalt consecrate it, and all ye apparell therof, that it maye be holy.

10 And thou shalt anynte the altare of burntofferings and all his vessels, and consecrate it, that it maye be most holy.

11 The lauer also & his fote shalt thou anynte & consecrate.

12 And thou shalt brynge Aaron & his sonnes vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and wash them with water, 13 & put the holy vestimentes vpon Aaron, and anynte him, and consecrate him, that he maye be my prest.

14 And thou shalt brynge his sonnes also, and put the albes vpon them,

15 and anynte them, as thou hast anynted their father, yt they maye be my prestes. And this anyntinge shall they haue for an euerlasting presthode amonge their posterities.

16 And Moses dyd all as the LORDE comaunded him.

17 Thus was the Tabernacle set vp in the seconde yeare vpon the first daye of the first moneth.

18 And whan Moses reared it vp, he fastened ye sokettes and the bordes, and barres, and set vp the pilers, 19 and spred out the tent ouer the Habitation, and put the couerynge of the tent aboute an hye, as the LORDE comaunded him.

20 And he toke the wytnesse, and layed it in the Arke, and put ye staues in the Arke, and set the Mercyseate aboue vpon the Arke, 21 and brought the Arke in to the Habitation, and hanged the vayle before the Arke of wytnesse, as the LORDE comaunded him.

22 And he set the table in the Tabernacle of wytnesse, in the corner of the Habitation vpon the north syde without the vayle, 23 and prepared bred theron before ye LORDE as the LORDE comaunded him.

24 And he set in the candilstick also, euen ouer agaynst the table, in the corner of the Habitation vpon the south syde, 25 and put the lampes theron before ye LORDE, as the LORDE comaunded him.

26 And the golden altare set he in also before the vayle,

27 and brent swete incense theron, as the LORDE comaunded him.

28 And hanged vp the hangyng in the Tabernacle dore.

29 As for the altare of burntofferings, he set it before the dore of the Habitation of ye Tabernacle of wytnesse, and offred burntofferings and meateofferings theron, as the LORDE comaunded him.

30 And the Lauer set he betwixte the Tabernacle of wytnesse and ye altare, and put water theron to wash withall.

31 And Moses, Aaron and his sonnes washed their hades and fete ther at:

32 for they ought to wash the, whan they wente in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse, or whan they wente vnto the altare, as the LORDE comaunded him.

33 And he set vp the courte rounde aboute the Habitation and the altare, and hanged vp ye hanginge in ye courte gate.

Thus Moses fynished the whole worke.

34 Then a cloude couered ye Tabernacle of wytnesse, and the glory of the LORDE fylled the Habitation.

35 And Moses coude not go in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse, whyle the cloude abode theron, and the glory of ye LORDE fylled the Habitation.

36 And whan the cloude remoued from the Habitation, then wente the children of Israel forth, as oft as they toke their iourney.

37 But yf the cloude remoued not, then toke not they their iourney, tyll the daie that it remoued:

38 for in the daye tyme was the cloude of the LORDE vpon the Habitation, & in the night season was fyre theron, in ye sight of all ye house of Israel, in all their iourneis.

LEVITICUS

Chapter 1

1 And the LORDE called Moses, and spake vnto him out of ye Tabernacle of wytnesse, and sayde:

2 Speake vnto ye childre of Israel, & saie vnto them: Who so euer amoge you wyl brynge an offeringe vnto the LORDE, let him brynge it of ye catell, euen of the oxen, & of the shepe.

3 Yf he wyl brynge a burntofferinge of ye oxen (or greate catell) the let him offre a male without blemish, before ye dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, to reconcyte himself before the LORDE, 4 let him laye his hande vpon the heade of the burntofferynge, then shal he be reconcyled, so yt God shalbe mercifull vnto him.

5 And he shall kyll the yonge oxen before ye LORDE: and ye prestes Aarons sonnes shal brynge the bloude, and sprenkle it rounde aboute vpon the altare, that is before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse.

6 And the skynne shalbe flayne from of the burntofferynge, and it shalbe hewen in peces.

7 And the sonnes of Aaron the prest shal make a fyre vpon the altare,

8 and laye wod aboute theron: and ye peces, the heade, and the fatt shal they laye vpon the wodd that lyeth vpon ye fyre on the altare.

9 But ye bowels & legges shal be wasshen with water, and the prest shal burne altogether vpon the altare for a burnt sacrifice: this is an offerynge of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE.

10 Yf he wyl offre a burnt sacrifice of the small catell, that is, of the lambes or goates, then let him offre a male without a blemish.

11 And he shall kyll it before the LORDE, euen at the corner of the altare on the north syde before ye LORDE. And (the prestes) Aarons sonnes shal sprenkle his bloude rounde aboute vpon ye altare, 12 and it shal be hewen in peces. And the prest shall laye them with the heade and the fatt, vpon the wodd that lyeth vpon the fyre on the altare.

13 But the bowels and ye legges shal be wasshen with water. And ye prest shal offre it altogether, and burne it vpon ye altare for a burnt sacrifice. This is an offerynge of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE.

14 But yf he wil offre a burnt sacrifice of ye foules vnto the LORDE, then let him offre it of the turtill doues or of ye yonge pigeons.

15 And the prest shal brynge it vnto the altare, and wrynge the neck of it a sunder, that it maye be burnt vpon the altare, and let the bloude of it runne out vpon the sydes of the altare,

16 and the croppes of it with the fethers shalbe cast vpon the heape of ashes besyde the altare towarde the east, 17 and he shall deuyde the wynges of it, but not breake the cleane of. And thus shall the prest burne it vpon the altare, euen vpon the wodd that lyeth vpon the fyre, for a burnt sacrifice. This is an offerynge of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE.

Chapter 2

1 Whan a soule wyl offre a meatofferynge vnto the LORDE, then shal it be of fyne floure, and he shal poure oyle vpon it, and put frankencense theron,

2 & so brynge it vnto Aarons sonnes the prestes. Then shal one of them take his handfull of the same floure, and oyle with all the frankencense, and burne it for a remembrance vpon the altare. This is an offeringe of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE.

3 As for ye remnaunt of the meatofferynge, it shalbe Aarons and his sonnes. This shalbe ye most holy of the offerynges of the LORDE.

4 But yf he wyl brynge a meatofferynge of that which is baken in the oven, then let him take swete cakes of wheate, mixte with oyle, and vnleuened wafers anoynted with oyle.

5 Neuertheles yf thy meatofferynge be enythinge of that which is fryed in the panne, then shal it be of fyne swete floure mixte with oyle:

6 And thou shalt cut it in peces, & poure oyle theron: so is it a meatofferynge.

7 But yf thy meatofferynge be ought broyled on the gredyron, then shalt thou make it of fyne floure with oyle.

8 And the meatofferynge that thou wilt make of soch thinges for the LORDE, shalt thou brynge vnto ye prest, which shal brynge it vnto the altare, 9 & shal Heue vp the same meatofferynge for a remembrance, and burne it vpon the altare. This is an offerynge of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE.

10 As for the remnaunt, it shal be Aarons and his sonnes. This shal be the most holy of the offerynges of the LORDE.

11 All the meatofferynges that ye wil offre vnto the LORDE, shal ye make without leue. For there shal no leue nor hony be burnt for an offerynge vnto the LORDE.

12 But for the offerynge of the firstlings shal ye offer the vnto the LORDE. Neuertheles they shal come vpon no altare for a swete sauoure.

13 All thy meatofferynges shalt thou salt. And thy meatofferynge shal neuer be without ye salt of the couenaunt of thy God: for in all thy offerynges shalt thou offre salt.

14 But yf thou wilt offre a meatofferynge of the first frutes vnto ye LORDE, then shalt thou drye that which is grene, by the fyre, & beate it small, and so offre the meatofferynge of thy first frutes.

15 And thou shalt put oyle vpon it, and laye frankencense theron, so is it a meatofferynge.

16 And then shall the prest beate it, and burne of the oyle with all the frankencense for a remembrance. This is an offerynge vnto the LORDE.

Chapter 3

1 Bvt yf his offerynge be a deedofferynge of greate catell (whether it be oxen or cowe) then shal he offre such as is without blemish before the LORDE, 2 & shal laie his hande vpon the heade of it, and kyll it before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And the prestes

Aarons sonnes, shall sprenkle the bloude rounde aboute vpon the altare,

3 and shal offre of ye deadofferynge vnto the LORDE: namely, all the fat that is within,

4 and the two kydneyes with the fat that is theron vpon the loynes, and the nett on the leuer vpon the kydneyes also.

5 And Aarons sonnes shal burne it vpon the altare for a burntofferynge, euen vpon the wod that lyeth on the fyre. This is an offerynge of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE.

6 Yf his deadofferynge be of small catell, whether it be male or female, it shal be without blemish:

7 Yf it be a lambe, then shall he brynge it before the LORDE,

8 & shal laye his hande vpon the heade of it, and sleie it before the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And Aarons sonnes shal sprenkle his bloude rounde aboute vpon the altare,

9 and so offre of the deadofferynge vnto the LORDE: namely, the fat of it, all the rompe with the backe, and the fat that couereth the bowels, with all ye fat that is within,

10 and the two kydneyes with the fat that is theron vpon the loynes, & the nett on the leuer vpon the kydneyes also.

11 And the prest shal burne it vpon the altare, for ye meate of the offerynge vnto ye LORDE.

12 But yf his offeringe be a goate, and bringeth it before the LORDE,

13 he shal laye his hande vpon the heade of it, and kyll it before the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And Aarons sonnes shal sprenkle the bloude rounde aboute vpon the altare,

14 & shal offer therof a sacrifice vnto the LORDE: namely, the fat yt couereth the bowels, and all the fat yt is within,

15 the two kydneyes with the fat that is theron vpon the loynes, & the nett on the leuer vpon the kydneyes.

16 And the prest shal burne it vpon the altare, for the meate of the sacrifice to a swete sauoure.

17 All the fatt is the LORDES. Let this be a perpetuall lawe amonge yor posterities in all youre dwellynges, that ye eate no fatt, ner bloude.

Chapter 4

1 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde:

2 Speake vnto the childe of Israel, and saye: Whan a soule synneth thorow ignoraunce in any commaundement of the LORDE, which he ought not to do: As namely,

3 yf a prest which is anoynted, synne, that he make the people do amysse, he shall brynge for ye synne that he hath done, a yonge bullocke without blemish vnto the LORDE for a synofferynge.

4 And the bullocke shal he brynge to the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse before the LORDE, & laie his hande vpon his heade, & kyll him before ye LORDE.

5 And ye prest yt is anoynted, shall take of his bloude, & brynge it in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse.

6 And he shall dyppe his fynger in to the bloude, & sprenkle therewith seue tymes before the LORDE, towarde the vayle of ye Holy.

7 And he shal put of the same bloude vpon the hornes of the altare of incense, yt stondest before ye LORDE in the Tabernacle of wytnesse: & all the bloude of the bullocke shal he poure vpon the botome of the altare of burntofferings, yt stondest at the entringe in of ye Tabernacle of wytnesse.

8 And all the fat of the synofferynge shal he Heue vp: namely, the fat yt couereth the bowels, & all the fat yt is within,

9 ye two kydneyes with the fatt that is theron vpon the loynes, and the nett on the leuer vpon the kydneyes also 10 (like as he Heueth it from the oxen in the deadofferynge) and shall burne it vpon the altare of burntofferings.

11 But the skynne of the bullocke, and all the flesh, with the heade & legges, & the bowels and the donge, 12 shal he carye altogether out of the hoost, in to a cleane place, where ye ashes are poured out, & shal burne it vpon wodd with fyre.

13 Whan the whole cōgregation of Israel synneth thorow ignoraunce, & the dede be hyd from their eyes, so yt they do ought agaynst eny of the comaundementes of the LORDE, which they shulde not do, 14 & come afterwarde to the knowlege of the synne that they haue done, they shal bringe a yonge bullocke for a synofferynge, and set him before ye dore of ye Tabernacle of wytnesse.

15 And the Elders of the cōgregation shall laye their handes vpon his heade before the LORDE, & kyll ye bullocke before the LORDE.

16 And ye prest yt is anoynted shal brynge of ye bullockes bloude into the Tabernacle of wytnesse, 17 & dyppe ther in with his fynger, and sprenkle therewith seuen tymes before the LORDE, eue before the vayle of the Holy.

18 And shall put of the bloude vpon the hornes of the altare, yt stondest before the LORDE in the Tabernacle of wytnesse: & all ye other bloude shal he poure vpon the botome of ye altare of burntofferings, yt stondest before the dore of ye Tabernacle of wytnesse.

19 But all his fatt shal he Heue vp, & burne it vpon the altare:

20 & shal do with this bullocke, as he dyd with ye bullocke of the synofferynge: Thus the prest shal make an attonement for them, & it shall be forgeuen them.

21 And the bullocke shall he brynge without the hoost, and burne him, as he brent ye first bullocke. This shalbe ye synofferynge of the cōgregation.

22 Whan a prynce synneth, & doth agaynst the comaundement of the LORDE his God, yt he ought not to do, & offendeth ignorantly, & commeth to the knowlege

23 of his synne yt he hath done, he shal bringe for his offeringe an he goate without blemysh,

24 & laye his hande vpo the goates heade, & slaye him in ye place where ye burntofferings are slayne before ye LORDE.

25 The shal ye prest take of ye bloude of ye synofferinge wt his fynger, and put it vpon the altare of burntofferings, & poure the other bloude vpon the botome of the altare of burntofferings.

26 But all the fat of it shal he burne vpo the altare, like as the fat of the healthofferynge. And so the prest shal make an attonement for his synne, and it shal be forgeuen him.

27 Wha a soule of ye comon people synneth ignorauntly, doinge eny thinge agaynst the comaundement of the LORDE, yt he ought not to do, & so offendeth,

28 & cometh to ye knowlege of the synne yt he hath done, he shal bringe for his offerynge a she goate without blemysh, for the synne yt he hath done,

29 and shal laye his hande vpon the heade of the synofferynge, & slaye it in the place of the burntofferings.

30 And the prest shall take of the bloude wt his fynger, & put it vpon the hornes of ye altare of burntofferings, & poure all the bloude vpon the botome of the altare.

31 But all the fat of it shal he take awaye, like as he taketh awaye the fat of the deadofferynge, and shal burne it vpon the altare for a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE. And so shal the prest make an attonemet for him, and it shal be forgeuen him.

32 But yf he brynge a lambe for a synofferynge, then let him brynge a female without blemysh, 33 and laye his hande vpon the heade of the synofferynge, & kyll it for a synofferynge, in the place where the burntofferings are slayne.

34 And the prest shal take of ye bloude wt his fynger, & put it vpon the hornes of the altare of burntofferings, & poure all the bloude vpon the botome of the altare.

35 But all ye fatt therof shall he take fro it, like as he dyd the fat of the lambe of the healthofferynge, & shal burne it vpon ye altare for the LORDES sacrifice. And so ye prest shal make an attonement for the synne that he hath done, and it shalbe forgeuen him.

Chapter 5

1 Whan a soule synneth, yt he heare a cursynge, and is wytnesse therof, or hath sene it, or knowne it, & telleth it not, he is giltye of a trespase.

2 Or whan a soule toucheth eny vnclene thige, whether it be ye carion of an vnclene beast, or catell, or worme, & was not aware of it, he is vnclene, and hath offended.

3 Or whan he toucheth an vnclene man (what vnclennesse so euer a man is defyled withall) & was not aware of it, & afterwarde cometh to ye knowlege therof, ye same hath offended.

4 Or whan a soule sweareth, so yt he pronounceth wt his mouth to do euell or good (what so euer it be that a man pronounceth wt an ooth) & was not aware of it, & afterwarde cometh to the knowlege therof, he hath offended in one of these.

5 Now whan it so is, yt he hath offended in one of these, & is enfourmed therof, what he hath synned,

6 he shal bringe vnto ye LORDE for his trespase of this his synne yt he hath done, a female from the flocke, either a yewe or a she goate for a synofferynge: so shal the prest make an attonement for him concernynge his synne.

7 But yf he be not able to brynge a shepe, then let him brynge vnto ye LORDE for his offence that he hath done, two turtill doues or two yonge pigeons: one for a synofferynge, the other for a burntofferynge,

8 and brynge them to the prest: Which shall make the first of a synofferynge, and fyrst wringe the neck of it, so that he plucke it not cleane of,

9 and sprenkle with the bloude vpo the sydes of the altare, and let the resydue of the bloude blede out vpon the botome of the altare: This is the synofferynge.

10 As for the other, he shal make it a burntofferynge, after the maner therof. And thus shall the prest make an attonement for him concernynge the synne that he hath done, & it shalbe forgeuen him.

11 But yf he be not able to brynge two turtill doues or two yonge pigeons, then let him brynge his offerynge for his synne, a tenth deale of an Epha of fyne floure for a synofferynge. But he shall put no oyle theron, ner laye frankecense vpon it, for it is a synofferynge.

12 And he shal brynge it vnto the prest, & ye prest shal take his hadfull of it for a remembrance, and burne it vpon the altare for an offerynge vnto the LORDE. This is a synofferynge.

13 And so shal the prest make an attoment for him, concernynge his synne that he hath done, & it shalbe forgeuen him. And the remnaunt shall be the prestes, like a meatofferynge.

14 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde:

15 Yf a soule trespase, so yt thorow ignoraunce he offendeth in any thinge yt is halowed vnto the LORDE, he shal brynge his trespacofferynge vnto the LORDE, euen a ramme from ye flocke without blemysh, worth two Sycles of syluer, after the Sytle of the Sanctuary, for a trespase offerynge:

16 and loke what he hath offended in the halowed thinge, he shall make restitution, & geue the fifth parte more therto. And he shal delyuer it vnto ye prest, which shall make an attonement for him wt the ramme of the trespase offeringe, & it shalbe forgeuen him.

17 Whan a soule synneth, and doth ought agaynst eny comaundement of the LORDE, yt he shulde not do, & is infourmed therof, he hath trespassed, & is giltye of the synne.

18 And he shall brynge from the flocke a ramme wt out blemysh (that is worth a trespacofferynge) vnto the prest, which shal make an attonement for him concernynge his ignoraunce which he dyd, and was not aware, and it shalbe forgeuen him.

19 This is the trespacofferynge, because he trespassed agaynst the LORDE.

Chapter 6

1 And ye LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde:

2 Whan a soule synneth, & trespaceth agaynst the LORDE, so that he denyeth vnto his neghboure that which he gaue him to kepe, or that was put vnder his hande, or that he hath violently taken awaye, or gotten vnrighteously,

3 or founde that was lost, and denyeth it with a false ooth, what so euer it be, wherin a man synneth agaynst his neghboure. Now whan it commeth so to passe,

4 that he synneth after this maner, & trespaceth, he shal restore agayne that he toke violently awaye, or gat wrongeously, or that was geuen him to kepe, or that he hath founde,

5 or what so euer it be aboute ye which he hath sworne falsely, he shal restore it againe whole altogether, and geue the fifth parte more therto, euen to him that it belonged vnto, the same daye that he geueth his trespase offerynge.

6 But for his trespase he shall brynge for the LORDE (euen vnto the prest) a ramme from the flocke without blemysh, that is worth a trespase offerynge.

7 Then shall the prest make an attonement for him before the LORDE, and all that he hath synned in, shalbe forgeuen him.

8 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde:

9 Commaunde Aaron and his sonnes, and saye: This is the lawe of the burntofferynge. The burntofferynge shall burne vpon the altare all night vntyll the mornynge. But the fyre of the altare onely shal burne theron.

10 And ye prest shal put on his lynen albe, and his lyuen breches vpon his flesh, and shal take vp the ashes, that the fyre of the burntofferynge vpon the altare hath made, and shall poure them besyde the altare.

11 Then shall he put of his rayment, and put on other rayment, and cary out the ashes without the hoost, into a cleane place.

12 The fyre vpon the altare shal burne, and neuer go out. The prest shal kyndle wod theron euery mornynge, and dresse the burntofferynge vpon it, and burne the fat of the deedofferynges theron.

13 The fyre shall euer burne vpon the altare, and neuer go out.

14 And this is the lawe of the meatofferynge, which Aarons sonnes shall offre before the LORDE vpon the altare.

15 One of them shall Heue his handfull of fyne floure of ye meatofferynge, and of the oyle, and all the frankencense that lyeth vpon the meatofferynge, and shall burne it vpon the altare for a swete sauoure a remembrance vnto the LORDE.

16 As for the remnaunt, Aaron and his sonnes shal eate it, and vnleueded shal they eate it in the holy place, namely, in the courte of the Tabernacle of witness. 17 With leue shal they not bake their porcion, which I haue geuen them of my offerynges. It shalbe vnto them most holy, as the synofferynge and trespac offerynge.

18 All the males amonge the children of Aaron shall eate of it. Let this be a perpetuall lawe for youre posterities in the sacrifices of the LORDE. No man shall touch it, excepte he be consecrated.

19 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde:

20 This shalbe the offerynge of Aaron and of his sonnes, which they shall offre vnto the LORDE in the daie of their anoyntinge. The tenth parte of an Epha of fyne floure for a meatofferynge daylie, the one half parte in the mornynge, the other half parte at euen.

21 In the panne with oyle shall thou make it, and brynge it fryed, and in peces shalt thou offer it for the swete sauoure of the LORDE.

22 And the prest which amonge his sonnes shalbe anoynted in his steade, shall do this. This is a perpetuall dewtye vnto the LORDE. It shal be burnt altogether:

23 for all the meatofferynges of the prest shalbe consumed with the fyre, and not be eaten.

24 And ye LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde:

25 Speake vnto Aaron and his sonnes, and saye: This is the lawe of the synofferynge: In the place where thou slayest ye burntofferynge, shalt thou slaye the synofferynge also before the LORDE. This is most holy.

26 The prest that offereth the synofferynge, shal eate it in the holy place, in the courte of ye Tabernacle of wytnesse.

27 No man shal touch ye flesh therof, excepte he be halowed. And yf eny garment be sprenkled with the bloude of it, it shalbe washe in the holy place.

28 And the earthe pot that it is sodden in, shalbe broken. But yf it be a brasen pot, it shalbe scoured, and resed with water.

29 All ye males amonge the prestes shall eate therof, for it is most holy.

30 Notwithstandinge all ye synofferynge whose bloude is brought in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse to make an attonement, shall not be eaten, but burnt with fyre.

Chapter 7

1 And this is the lawe of the trespac-offerynge, and it shal be most holy.
 2 In the place where the burnt-offerynge is slayne, shall the trespac-offerynge be slayne also, & there shall of his bloude be sprenkled rounde aboute vpon the altare.
 3 And all his fat shalbe offered: the rompe and the fat yt couereth the bowels,
 4 the two kydneyes with the fat yt is theron vpon the loynes, and the net on the leuer vpon the kydneyes also.
 5 And the prest shal burne it vpon the altare for an offerynge vnto the LORDE. This is a trespac offerynge.
 6 All the males amonge the prestes shal eate it in the holy place, for it is most holy:
 7 euen as the synofferynge, so shall the trespac offerynge be also, they shall both haue one lawe: and it shal be the prestes, that reconcyleth ther wt.
 8 Loke which prest offereth eny mans burnt-offerynge, the skynne of the same burnt-offerynge that he hath offered, shalbe his.
 9 And euery meat-offerynge that is baken in the ouen, rosted vpon the gredyron, or fryed in the panne, shal be the prestes yt offereth it.
 10 And euery meat-offerynge yt is myngled with oyle, or drye, shal belonge vnto all Aarons sonnes, vnto one as well as another.
 11 And this is ye lawe of the healthofferynge, that is offered vnto the LORDE, 12 Yf they wyll offre a sacrifice of thankesgeuyng, then shal they offre vnuleded cakes megled with oyle, and swete wafers straked ouer with oyle, and fryed cakes of fyne floure mengled with oyle.
 13 This offerynge also shall they brynge vpon a cake of leueded bred, to the thankofferynge of his healthofferynge:
 14 and of them all he shall offre one for an Heueofferynge vnto the LORDE. And it shalbe the prestes, that sprenkleth the bloude of the healthofferynge.
 15 And the flesh of the thankofferynge in his healthofferynges, shalbe eaten the same daye that it is offred, and there shall nothinge be left ouer vntyll the mornynge.
 16 And whether it be a vowe or a fre wylofferynge, it shalbe eaten the same daye that it is offred: yf ought be left ouer vntyll the mornynge, yet maye it be eaten.
 17 But loke what remayneth vnto ye thirde daye of the flesh that is offred, it shalbe brent with the fyre.
 18 And yf eny man vpon the thirde daie eate of ye offred flesh of his healthofferynge, he shall not be accepted that offred it. Nether shall it be rekened vnto him, but it shalbe refused. And loke which soule eateth therof, the same is giltye of a mysdede.
 19 And the flesh that toucheth eny vnclane thinge, shal not be eaten, but burnt with the fyre. But who so euer is cleane of body, shal eate of the flesh:

 20 and the soule that eateth of ye flesh of ye healthofferynge which belongeth vnto the LORDE, his vnclennes be vpon him, and he shalbe roted out from amonge his people.
 21 And whan a soule toucheth eny vnclane thinge, whether it be an vnclane man, catell, or eny other abhominacion that is, and eateth of the flesh of the burnt-offerynge, that belongeth vnto the LORDE, the same shalbe roted out from amonge his people.
 22 And the LORDE talketh with Moses, and sayde:
 23 Speake vnto the children of Israel, & saye: Ye shall eate no fat of oxen, lambes, and goates:
 24 neuertheless the fat of it that dyeth alone, and of such as is torne of wylde beastes, that maye ye occupye to all maner of vses, but ye shall not eate it.
 25 For who so euer eateth the fat of ye beest that is geuen vnto the LORDE for an offerynge, the same soule shalbe roted out from his people.
 26 Morouer, ye shall eate no bloude, nether of catell, ner of foules, where so euer ye dwell.
 27 What soule eateth eny bloude, the same shall be roted out from his people.
 28 And the LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde:
 29 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and saye: Who so wyll offre his healthofferynge vnto the LORDE, the same shall also brynge with all, that belongeth vnto ye healthofferynge for the LORDE.
 30 But he shall brynge it with his hande for the offerynge of the LORDE: namely the fat vpon the brest shall he brynge, with the brest, to be a Waueofferynge before the LORDE.
 31 And the prest shall burne the fat vpon the altare, and the brest shalbe Aarons and his sonnes.
 32 And the right shulder shal they geue vnto the prest for a gift of their healthofferynges.
 33 And loke which of Aarons sonnes offreth the bloude of the healthofferynges, and the fat, the same shall haue the right shulder for his parte.
 34 For the Wauebrest and the Heueshulder haue I taken of the children of Israel, and of their healthofferynges, and haue geuen them vnto Aaron the prest and vnto his sonnes for a perpetuall dewtye.
 35 This is the anyntinge of Aaron and of his sonnes, of the offerynges of the LORDE, in the daye wha Moses presented them to be prestes vnto the LORDE, 36 what tyme as the LORDE commaunded (in the daye whan he anynted them) to be geuen them of the children of Israel for a perpetuall dewtye, and vnto all their posterities.
 37 And this is the lawe of the burnt-offerynge, of the meat-offerynge, of the synofferynge, of the trespac offerynge, of the offerynge of consecracion, and of the healthofferynges, 38 which the LORDE commaunded Moses vpon mount Sinai, in the daye whan he gaue him in commaudemment vnto the children of Israel, to offre their offerynges vnto ye LORDE in the wyldernesse of Sinai.

Chapter 8

1 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde:
 2 Take Aaron and his sonnes wt him, & their vestimentes, & the anyntinge oyle, and a bullocke for a synofferynge, two rammes, and a maunde with vnuleded bred,
 3 and call the whole congregacion together, before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse.
 4 Moses dyd as the LORDE commaunded him, and gathered the congregacion together vnto the dore of ye Tabernacle of wytnesse,
 5 and sayde vnto them: This is it, that the LORDE hath commaunded to do.
 6 And he toke Aaron and his sonnes, and washed them with water,
 7 and put the albe vpo him, and girde him with the girdell, and put vpon him the yalowe tuncyle, and put the ouerbody cote vpon him, and girde him vpon the ouerbody cote,
 8 & put the brestlappe theron, and in ye brestlappe light and perfectnesse:
 9 And set the myter vpon his heade. And vpon the myter euen aboue his fore heade, put he a plate of golde on the holy crowne: as ye LORDE comaunded Moses.
 10 And Moses toke the anyntinge oyle, & anynted the Habitacion, and all that was therein, and consecrated it,
 11 and sprenkled therwith seue tymes vpon the altare, and anynted the altare with all his vessels, the lauer with his fote, that it might be consecrated:
 12 and poured the anyntinge oyle vpon Aarons heade, and anynted him, yt he might be consecrated.
 13 And he brought Aarons sonnes, and put albes vpon them, and girde them with the girdle, and put bonettes vpon their heades, as the LORDE commaunded him.
 14 And he caused bringe a bullocke for a synoffrynge. And Aaron with his sonnes layed their handes vpon his heade, 15 and then was he slayne. And Moses toke of the bloude, & put it vpon the homes of the altare rounde aboute with his fynger, and purified the altare, and poured the bloude vpon the botome of the altare, and consecrated it, that he might reconcyle it.
 16 And toke all the fat vpo the bowels, the nett vpon the leuer, and the two kydneyes with the fat theron, and burned it vpon the altare.
 17 But the bullocke wt his skynne, flesh, & donge, burned he with fyre without the hoost, as the LORDE commaunded him.

 18 And he brought a ramme for a burnt-offerynge. And Aaron wt his sonnes layed their handes vpon his heade, 19 & then was he slayne. And Moses sprenkled of ye bloude vpon the altare rounde aboute, 20 hewed the ramme in peces, and burnt the heade, the peces, and the fatt.
 21 And washed the bowels and the legges with water, and so burnt ye whole ramme vpo the altare. This was a brunt-offerynge for a swete sauoure, euen a sacrifice vnto the LORDE, as the LORDE commaunded him.
 22 He brought also the other ramme of the offerynge of the consecracion. And Aaron with his sonnes layed their hades vpon his heade, 23 and then was it slayne. And Moses toke of his bloude, and put it vpon the typpe of Aarons right eare, and vpon the thombe of his right hande, and vpon the greate too of his right fote.
 24 And he brought Aarons sonnes, and put of the bloude vpon the typpe of the right eare of them, and vpon ye thombes of their righte handes, and vpon the greate toes of their righte fete, and poured the resydue of the bloude vpon the altare rounde aboute.
 25 And he toke the fat and the rompe, and all the fat vpon the bowels, and the nett vpon the leuer, the two kydneyes with the fat theron, and the righte shulder.
 26 And out of the maunde of vnuleded bred before the LORDE, he toke an vnuleded cake, and a cake of oyled bred, and a wafer, and layed them vpo the fat, and vpon the right shulder, 27 and put altogether vpon the handes of Aaron and of his sonnes, and waued it for a Waueofferynge before the LORDE.
 28 And afterwarde toke he all agayne from their hondes, and burned them on the altare, euen vpon the burnt-offerynge: for it is an offerynge of consecracion for a swete sauoure, euen a sacrifice vnto ye LORDE.
 29 And Moses toke the brest, and waued it a Waueofferynge before the LORDE, of the ramme of the offerynge of consecracion: the same was Moses parte, as the LORDE commaunded Moses.
 30 And Moses toke of ye anyntinge oyle, & of the bloude vpon the altare, & sprenkled it vpon Aaron & his vestimentes, vpon his sonnes & vpon their vestimentes, and so cosecrated Aaron & his vestimentes, his sonnes and their vestimentes with him.
 31 And he sayde vnto Aaron & his sonnes: Seeth ye flesh before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, & there eate it, & the bred in ye maunde of the cosecracion offeringes, as it is comaunded me, & sayde: Aaron & his sonnes shall eate it.
 32 As for yt which remayneth of the flesh & bred, ye shal burne it with fyre.
 33 And in seue dayes shall ye not departe from ye dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, vntyll the daye, yt the dayes of yor consecracion offeringes be at an ende: for seue dayes must yor handes be consecrated,

34 as it is come to passe this daye: The LORDE hath comaunded to do it, that ye might be reconcyled.

35 And ye shal tary before the Tabernacle of wytnesse daye and night seuen dayes longe, & shal kepe ye watch of ye LORDE, that ye dye not, for thus am I comaunded.

36 And Aaron with his sonnes dyd all, that ye LORDE commaunded by Moses.

Chapter 9

1 And vpon the eight daye Moses called Aaron and his sonnes, and the Elders in Israel,

2 and sayde vnto Aaron: Take vnto the a yonge calfe for a synofferynge, and a ramme for a burntofferynge, both without blemysh, and brynge them before the LORDE,

3 and speake vnto the children of Israel, and saye: Take an he goate for a synofferynge: and a calf, and a shepe, both of a yeare olde, and without blemysh for a burntofferynge:

4 and an oxe and a ramme for an healthofferynge, that we maye offre before the LORDE: and a meatofferynge myngled with oyle. For to daye shal the LORDE appeare vnto you.

5 And they toke what Moses commaunded before ye dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and the whole cogregacion came nye, and stode before the LORDE.

6 Then sayde Moses: This is it, which the LORDE commaunded that ye shulde do, and then shall the glory of ye LORDE appeare vnto you.

7 And Moses sayde vnto Aaron: Go vnto ye altare, and offre thy synofferynge and thy burntofferynge, and make an attonemet for the and for the people. Then offre the peoples offerynge, and reconcyle them also, as the LORDE hath commaunded.

8 And Aaron wente vnto the altare, and slawe ye calfe for his synofferynge, 9 & his sonnes brought the bloude vnto him. And he dypte his fynger in the bloude, and put it vpon the hornes of the altare, and poured ye bloude vpon ye botome of the altare.

10 As for the fat and the kydneyes & the net vpon the leuer of the synofferynge, he burnt the vpon the altare, as the LORDE comaunded Moses.

11 The flesh also and the hyde burnt he wt fyre without the hoost.

12 Afterwarde he slewe the burntofferynge, and Aarons sonnes brought the bloude vnto him, & he sprenkled it rounde aboute vpon the altare.

13 And they brought him the burntofferynge in peces, & the heade: & he burnt it vpon the altare.

14 And he washed the bowels and the legges, and burnt them aboute vpon the burntofferynge on the altare.

15 Then brought he the offerynge of the people, and toke the goate, that synofferynge of the people, and slewe it, and made a synofferynge therof, as of the fyrst.

16 And brought the burntofferynge, and dyd as the lawe is:

17 and brought the meatofferynge, and toke his handfull, and burnt it vpon the altare, besyde the burntofferynge of the mornynge.

18 Afterwarde slewe he the oxe and the ramme for the healthofferynge of the people. And his sonnes brought him the bloude, which he sprenkled vpon the altare rounde aboute.

19 But the fat of the oxe & of the ramme, the rompe, and the fat that couereth the bowels, & the kydneyes, & the net vpon the leuer, 20 all soch fat laied they vpon the brest, and burnt the fat vpon the altare.

21 But the brest and the right shulder waued Aaron for a Waueofferynge before the LORDE, as the LORDE commaunded Moses.

22 And Aaron lift vp his hade ouer the people, and blessed them, and came downe from the worke of the synofferynge, burntofferynge, and healthofferynge.

23 And Moses and Aaron wente in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And whan they came out agayne, they blessed the people. Then appeared the glory of the LORDE vnto all the people.

24 For there came a fyre from the LORDE, and vpon the altare it consumed the burntofferynge and the fat. Whan all the people sawe that, they reioysed, and fell vpon their faces.

Chapter 10

1 And ye sonnes of Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, toke ether of the his censoure, & put fyre therin, & layed incense vpon it, and brought straunge fyre before the LORDE, which he comaunded them not.

2 Then wente there out a fyre from ye LORDE, and consumed them, so that they dyed before the LORDE.

3 Then sayde Moses vnto Aaron: This is it, that the LORDE sayde: I wil be sanctified vpo them that come nye me, and before all the people wil I be glorified. And Aaron helde his peace.

4 Moses called Misael and Elzaphan the sonnes of Vsiel Aarons vnclde, and sayde vnto them: Go to, and cary youre brethren out of the Sanctuary, without the hoost.

5 And they wente, and caried them forth in their albes without the hoost, as Moses sayde.

6 Then sayde Moses vnto Aaron, & to his sonnes Eleasar and Ithamar: Ye shall not vncouer youre heades, ner rente yor clothes, that ye dye not, and the wrath come vpon the whole congregacion: Let youre brethre of the whole house of Israel bewepe this burnynge, which the LORDE hath done.

7 As for you, ye shall not go out from the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, lest ye dye: for the anoyntinge oyle of the LORDE is vpon you. And they dyd as Moses sayde.

8 The LORDE spake vnto Aaron, & sayde:

9 Thou & thy sonnes wt the shal drynke no wyne ner stronge drynke, whan ye go in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse: that ye dye not. Let this be a perpetuall lawe vnto all yor posterities:

10 yt ye maye haue knowlege to discerne, what is holy and vnholly, what is cleane & vnclane:

11 & that ye maye teach the children of Israel all the lawes, which the LORDE hath spoken vnto you by Moses.

12 And Moses sayde vnto Aaron, and vnto Eleasar and Ithamar his sonnes that were left: Take the remnaunt of the meatofferynge in the sacrifices of ye LORDE, and eate it without leuen besyde the altare, for it is most holy, 13 euen in the holy place shal ye eate it. For it is thy dutye and thy sonnes dutye in the sacrifices of the LORDE: for thus am I commaunded.

14 But the Wauebrest and the Heushulder shalt thou eate, and thy sonnes and thy doughters with the in a cleane place. For this dutye is geuen vnto the and thy children in the deedofferynges of the children of Israel.

15 For the Heushulder and the Wauebrest to the offerynges of the fat, shalbe brought in, that they maye be waued for a Waueofferynge before the LORDE. Therefore is it thine and thy childrens for a perpetuall dutye, as the LORDE commaunded.

16 And Moses sought for the goate of the synofferynge, and founde it burnt. And he was angrie at Eleasar and Ithamar ye sonnes of Aaron, which were left alyue, and sayde:

17 Wherefore haue ye not eaten the synofferynge in the holy place? for it is most holy, & he hath geuen it you, that ye might beare ye synne of the cogregacion, to make agrement for them before the LORDE.

18 Beholde, the bloude of it came not in to the Sanctuary: Ye shulde haue eaten it in the Sanctuary, as I was commaunded.

19 Aaron sayde vnto Moses: Beholde, this daye haue they offred their synofferynge & their burntofferynge before ye LORDE. And it is chaused me after this maner. And shulde I eate of the synofferynge to daye, & be mery before the LORDE?

20 Whan Moses herde that, he was content.

Chapter 11

1 And ye LORDE talked wt Moses & Aaron & sayde:

2 Speake vnto ye childre of Israel, and saye: These are the beestes which ye shal eate amoge all ye beestes vpo earth:

3 What so euer hath hofte, & deuydeth it in to two clawes, & cheweth cud amonge the beestes, that shal ye eate.

4 But loke what cheweth cud & hath hofte, & deuydeth it not, as the Camell, the same is vnclane vnto you, & ye shal not eate it.

5 The Conyes chewe cud, but they deuyde not the hofte in to two clawes, therfore are they vnclane vnto you.

6 The Hare cheweth cud also, but deuydeth not ye hofte in to two clawes, therfore is he vnclane vnto you.

7 And the Swyne deuydeth ye hofte in to two clawes, but cheweth not the cud, therfore is it vnclane vnto you.

8 Of the flesh of these shall ye not eate, ner touch their carcasses, for they are vnclane vnto you.

9 These shall ye eate of all that are in the waters: What so euer hath fynnes and scales in the waters, sees & ryuers, that shal ye eate.

10 But what so euer hath not fynnes and scales in the sees and ryuers, amonge all yt moue in the waters, & of all that lyue in the waters, it shalbe an abhominacion vnto you, 11 so that ye eate not of their flesh, and that ye abhorre their carcasses.

12 For all that haue not fynnes & scales in the waters, shall ye abhorre.

13 And these shal ye abhorre amonge ye foules, so that ye eate them not: The Aegle, the Goshauke, the Cormoraunte, 14 the Vultur, ye Rycce, and all his kynde, 15 and all Rauens wt their kynde:

16 the Estrich, ye Nightcrow, the Cocow, the Sparow hauke with his kynde,

17 the litle Oule, the Storke, the greate Oule,

18 ye Backe, the Pellycane, the Swanne, the Pye,

19 the Heron, ye Iaye with his kynde, the Lapwyng, and ye Swalowe.

20 And whatsoever creepeth amonge the foules, and goeth vpon foure fete, shalbe an abhominacio vnto you.

21 Yet these shal ye eate of the foules that crepe and go vpon foure fete: euen those that haue no knyves aboute vpon ye legges, to hoppe withall vpon earth.

22 Of these maye ye eate, as there is the Arbe with his kynde, and the Selaam with his kynde, & the Hargol with his kynde, & the Hagab wt his kynde.

23 But what so euer els hath foure fete amonge the foules, it shalbe an abhominacion vnto you,

24 and ye shal take it for vnclane. Who so euer toucheth the carcase of soch, shall be vnclane vntill ye euen:

25 and who so euer beareth the carcase of eny of these, shall wash his clothes, and shalbe vnclane vntill the euen.

26 Therefore euery beest that hath hofte, and deuydeth it not in to two clawes, & cheweth not cud, shalbe vnclane vnto you. Who so euer toucheth soch, shalbe vnclane.

27 And what so euer goeth vpon handes amonge ye beestes that go vpon foure fete, shalbe vnclane vnto you. Who so euer toucheth the carcasses of the, shalbe vnclane vntill euen.

28 And he yt beareth their carcase, shall wash his clothes, and be vnclane vntyll the eue: For soch are vnclane vnto you.

29 These shalbe vnclane vnto you also, amonge the beestes that crepe vpon earth: ye Wesell, the Mouse, the Tode, euery one with his kynde,

30 the Hedgehogge, the Stellio, the Lacerte, the Snale, and the Moule, 31 these are vnclane vnto you amonge all that crepe. Who so euer toucheth the deed carcase of the, shalbe vnclane vntyll the euen.

32 And what so euer eny soch deed carcase falleth vpon, it shalbe vnclane, what so euer vessell of wodd it be, or rayment, or skynne, or bagge. And euery vessell that eny thinge is occupied with all, shalbe put in the water, and is vnclane vntyll the euen, and then shal it be cleane.

33 All maner of earthen vessell that eny soch carcase falleth in to, shal all be vnclane that therin is, & ye shal breake it.

34 All meate which is eate, that eny soch water commeth in to, is vnclane: & all maner of drynke that is dronke in all maner of soch vessell, is vnclane.

35 And what so euer eny soch carcase falleth vpo, it shalbe vnclane, whether it be ouen or kettell, so shal it be broke, for it is vnclane, and shalbe vnclane vnto you:

36 Neuertheles the fountaynes, welles, & poundes of water are cleane. But who so euer toucheth their carcasses, is vnclane.

37 And though the deed carcase of eny soch fell vpon the sede that is sowne, yet is it cleane.

38 But whan there is water poured vpon the sede, and afterwarde eny soch deed carcase falleth theron, then shall it be vnclane vnto you.

39 Whan a beest dyeth that ye maye eate, he that toucheth the deed carcase therof, is vnclane vntyll euen.

40 Who so eateth of eny soch carcase, shall wash his clothes, and be vnclane vntyll the euen. Likewyse he that beareth eny soch carcase, shal wash his clothes, and be vnclane vntyll the euen.

41 What so euer crepeth vpon earth, shall be an abhominacion vnto you, and shall not be eaten.

42 And what so euer crepeth vpon ye bely, or all that goeth vpon foure or mo fete, amoge all that crepeth vpon earth, shall ye not eate, for it shalbe an abhominacion vnto you.

43 Make not youre soules abhominable, and defyle you not in them, to stayne youre selues:

44 for I am the LORDE youre God. Therefore shal ye sanctifie youre selues, that ye maye be holy, for I am holy. And ye shal not defyle youre selues on any maner of crepyng beest, that crepeth vpon earth:

45 for I am the LORDE, which brought you out of the londe of Egipte, that I might be youre God: therefore shal ye be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the lawe ouer ye beestes and foules, & all maner of soules of crepyng beestes in the waters, and all maner of soules yt crepe vpon earth:

47 that ye maie knowe to discerne what is vnclane & cleane, and what maner of beestes are to be eaten, and which are not to be eaten.

Chapter 12

1 And the LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde:

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and saye: Whan a woman hath conceaued, and beareth a manchilde, she shalbe vnclane seuen dayes, so longe as she suffreth hir disease,

3 and in ye eight daye shal ye flesh of his foreskynne be cut awaie.

4 And she shal byde at home thre and thirtie dayes in ye bloude of hir purifienge: she shal touch no holy thinge, ner come in to ye Sactuary, tyll the daies of hir purifienge be out.

5 But yf she beare a maydechilde, the shal she be vnclane two wekes, so longe as she suffreth hir disease, and sixe and thre score daies shall she byde at home in the bloude of hir purifienge.

6 And whan the dayes of hir purifienge are out, for the sonne or for the doughter, she shal brynge a lambe of one yeare olde or a turtill doue for a synofferynge to the dore of ye Tabernacle of wytnesse vnto ye prest,

7 which shal offre it before the LORDE, and make an attonemet for her, and so shal she be censed from hir bloudysse. This is the lawe for her that beareth a manchilde or mayde childe.

8 But yf she be not able to bringe a shepe, then let hir take two turtill doues, or two yonge pigeons, the one for a burntofferynge, the other for a synofferynge, then shall the prest make an attonemet for her, so that she shal be cleane.

Chapter 13

1 And ye LORDE spake vnto Moses & Aaron, & sayde:

2 Whan there ryseth vp eny thinge in the skynne of a mans flesh, whether it be a scabbe or a glistryng whyte (as though there wolde be a leprosy in ye skynne of his flesh) he shal be brought vnto Aaron the prest, or to one of his sonnes amonge ye prestes.

3 And whan the prest seyeth the plage vpon the skynne of the flesh, that the hayres are turned to whyte, and it seme deper in that place then the other skynne of his flesh, then is it surely a leprosy, therefore shal the prest loke vpon him, and iudge him vnclane.

4 But whan there is eny whyte plecke in the skynne of his flesh, and yet seme no deper then the other skynne of the flesh, and the hayres be not turned to whyte, the shal the prest shut him vp seuen dayes,

5 and on ye seuenth daye loke vpon him:

yf the plage seme vnto him as afore, & hath frett no deper in the skynne, then shall the prest shut him vp yet seuen dayes mo.

6 And whan he loketh on him agayne vpon the seuenth daye, and fyndeth, that the plage be darkish, and hath frett no deper in the skynne, the shal he iudge him cleane, for it is but a skyrfe, and he shal wash his clothes, & then is he cleane.

7 But whan the scabbe fretteth farther in the skynne (after that he is sene of the prest, and iudged cleane) and he be now sene of the prest agayne:

8 whan the prest seyeth the, yt the scabbe hath frett farther in the skynne, he shal iudge him vnclane, for it is surely a leprosy.

9 Whan a plage of leprosy is vpo a man, he shalbe brought vnto the prest.

10 Whan he seyeth and fyndeth, that there is whyte rysen vp in the skynne, and the hayre turned vnto whyte, and there be rawe flesh in the sore,

11 the is it surely an olde leprosy in ye skynne of his flesh, therefore shal the prest iudge him vnclane, and not shut him vp, for he is vnclane allready.

12 But whan the leprosy breaketh out in the skynne, and couereth the whole skynne, from the heade vnto the fote, all that the prest can se, 13 So whan the prest loketh vpon it, and fyndeth, that ye leprosy hath couered all the flesh, he shal iudge him cleane, for so moch as it is turned all in to whyte vpon him, for he is cleane.

14 Notwithstodinge yf there be rawe flesh there, in the daye whan he is loked vpon, the is he vnclane.

15 And whan the prest seyeth ye rawe flesh, he shal iudge him vnclane, for he is vnclane, & it is surely a leprosy.

16 But yf the rawe flesh change agayne, and be turned in to whyte, then shall he come vnto the prest.

17 And whan the prest loketh vpon him, and fyndeth, that the plage is turned to whyte, he shal iudge him cleane, for he is cleane.

18 Whan there is a byle in the skynne of eny mans flesh, and healeth agayne, 19 and afterwarde in the same place there aryse vp eny whyte thinge, or a glisteryng whyte somewhat reedish, he shal be sene of the prest.

20 So whan the prest, seyeth, that it appeareth to be lower then the other skynne, and the hayre turned to whyte, then shall he iudge him vnclane, for it is surely a plage of leprosy broken out of the byle.

21 But yf the prest se and fynde, that the hayres are not whyte, and it not lower then the other skynne, and is darkysh, he shal shut him vp seuen dayes.

22 Yf it hath frett farther in the skynne, then shal he iudge him vnclane, for it is surely a plage of leprosy.

23 But yf the glisteryng whyte abyde styll, and freate no farther, the is it but a prynte of the byle, and the prest shal iudge him cleane.

24 Whan the skynne of eny mans flesh is hurt with fyre, and the prynte of the burninge be reedysh or whyte,

25 and the prest loketh vpon him, and fyndeth the hayre turned to whyte vpon the mark of the burnyng, & it apeare deper then the other skynne, the is there surely a leprosy broke out of ye prynte of ye burnyng: therfore shal ye prest iudge hi vnclane, for it is a plage of leprosy.

26 But yf the prest se and fynde, that ye hayre vpon the prynte of the burninge is not turned vnto whyte, & is no lower then the other skynne, and is darkish also, he shall shut him vp seuen dayes.

27 And vpon the seuenth daye he shall loke vpon him: yf it hath frett farther in ye skynne, then shal he iudge him vnclane, for it is a leprosy.

28 But yf it stode styll vpo the mark of the burnyng, and frett no farther in the skynne, and is darkysh, then is it a sore in ye mark of the burnyng, & the prest shal iudge him cleane, for it is but the prynte of the burnyng.

29 Whan a man or woman is skyryue vpon the heade or beard, and the prest seyeth the mark, 30 and fyndeth that it appeareth deper then the other skynne, and the hayre be there golde and thynne, then shal he iudge him vnclane: for it is a skyrfe of leprosy of the heade or of the beerde.

31 But yf the prest se that ye skyrfe apeare no deper the the skynne, and that the hayre is not of a pale coloure, he shall shut him vp seue dayes.

32 And vpo the seuenth daye whan he loketh, and fyndeth, that the skyrfe hath frett no farther, and there be no golden hayre there, and that the skyrfe apeare no deper then the other skynne, 33 then let him be shauen: but so that he shaue not of the scabbe, and the prest shall shut him vp yet seuen dayes moo.

34 And vpon the seueth daye wha he loketh, and fyndeth that the skyrfe hath frett no farther in the skynne, and that it apeareth no deper then the other skynne, then shall the prest iudge him cleane. And he shall wash his clothes, for he is cleane.

35 But yf the scabbe freate farther in the skynne (after yt he is iudged cleane)

36 and the prest loketh, and fyndeth, that ye scabbe hath frett farther in the skynne, then shal he seke nomore for golden hayres, for he is vnclane.

37 Neuerthelesse yf he se that the scabbe stondesth styll, & that pale hayres are there rysen vp, then is ye scabbe hole, and he is cleane, therefore shall ye prest iudge him to be cleane.

38 Wha there is eny glisteryng whyte vpo ye skynne of the flesh of a man or woman, 39 and the prest seyeth there that the glisteryng whyte vanysmeth: then is it but a whyte scabbe rysen vp in ye skynne, & he is cleane.

40 Whan the hayres fall out of the heade of a man or a woman, so that he is balde, the same is cleane.

41 If they fall out of his fore heade, then is he fore heade balde & cleane.

42 But yf there be a whyte reedish sore in the balde heade, or balde fore heade, then is there a leprosy rysen vp in the balde heade or balde foreheade:

43 therefore shal ye prest loke vpon him. And whan he fyndeth the whyte reedysh sore rysen vp in his balde heade or balde foreheade, then shal ye skynne of the flesh be as leporous,

44 therefore is he a leporous man and vnclane. And the prest shall iudge him vnclane, because of ye same sore vpo his heade.

45 Who so now is leporous, his clothes shalbe rent, and the heade bare, & the lippes moffled, and shall in eny wyse be called vnclane.

46 And as longe as the sore is vpon him, he shal be vnclane, dwell alone, and haue his dwellinge without the hoost.

47 Whan the plage of leprosy is in a cloth, whether it be wollen or lynnen, 48 in the warpe or weft, whether it be lynnen or wollen, or in a skynne, or in eny maner thyng that is made of skynne.

49 And whan ye plage is pale or reedish in the cloth or skynne, either in the warpe or weft, or in eny maner thyng that is made of skynne, the same is surely the plage of leprosy, therefore shall the prest loke vpon it.

50 And whan he seyth the plage, he shal shut it vp seuen dayes.

51 And vpon the seuth daye whan he seyth that ye plage hath frett farther in the cloth, in the warpe or weft, in a skynne or in eny maner thyng that is made of skynne, then is it a fretinge plage of leprosy, and is vnclane

52 .And the cloth shalbe burnt, either warpe or weft, whether it be wollen or lynne, or eny thyng made of skynne, wherin is eny soch plage. For it is a plage of leprosy, and shal be burnt wt fyre.

53 But yf the prest se that the plage hath frete no farther in ye cloth, either in the warpe or weft, or eny thyng made of skynne, 54 then shal he commaunde to wash the thyng that the plage is in, and shall shut it vp other seuen dayes.

55 And whan the prest seyth (after that the plage is wasshen) yt the plage is not changed before his eyes, and hath frett no farther also, yet is it vnclane, & shalbe burnt wt fyre: for it is depe frete inwarde, and hath made skyrfes.

56 Neuertheles whan the prest seyth that the prynte is vanyshed after the washinge of it, then shall he rente it out of the clothe, and of the skynne, out of the warpe or weft.

57 But yf it appeare eny more in the clothe (either in the warpe, or in the weft) or eny maner thyng made of skynne, then is it a waxinge plage: and with fyre shal it be burnt that eny soch plage is in.

58 As for the cloth, either warpe or weft, or eny maner thyng made of skynne that is wasshe, and the plage be departed from it, it shalbe wasshen once agayne, & then is it cleane.

59 This is the lawe ouer the plage of leprosy in clothes, whether they be wollen or lynne (ether in the warpe or in the weft) and in eny maner of thyng made of sknne, to iudge them cleane or vnclane.

Chapter 14

1 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde:

2 This is the lawe ouer ye leper, whan he shalbe censed. He shall come vnto ye prest,

3 and the prest shal go out of the hoost, and loke how the plage of leprosy is healed vpon the leper.

4 And he shal commaunde him that is to be censed, to take two luyunge byrdes, which are cleane, and Ceder wodd, and purple woll, and ysope:

5 and shall commaunde the one byrde to be kylled in an earthen vessell ouer sprynginge water.

6 And he shal take the luyunge byrde with the Ceder wodd, the purple woll, and ysope, and dyppe them in the bloude of the slaine byrde vpon the springynge water, 7 and sprenkle it seuen tymes vpon him that must be censed from ye leprosy. And so cense him, and let the luyunge byrde flye at libertye in to the felde.

8 But he that is censed, shal wash his clothes, and shaue of all his hayre, and bathe him self with water, so is he cleane. Afterwarde let him go in to the hoost, yet shall he tarye without his tent seuen dayes.

9 And vpon the seuenth daye shal he shaue of all ye hayre vpon his heade, vpo his beerde, vpon his browes, so that all the hayre be shauen of, and he shall wash his clothes and bathe his flesh in water, then is he cleane.

10 And vpo the eight daye shal he take two lambes without blemysh, and a shepe of a yeare olde without blemysh, and thre tenth deales of fyne floure for a meatofferynge, myngled with oyle, & a Logg of oyle.

11 The shall the prest presente him that is censed and these thynges before the LORDE, before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse,

12 and shal take ye one lambe, and offre it for trespase offerynge, with the Logg of oyle, & shall waue them, before ye LORDE, 13 and afterwarde slaye the lambe, where the synofferynge and burntofferynge are slayne, namely, in the holy place. For as the synofferynge, so is the trespase offerynge the prestes also, for it is most holy.

14 And the prest shall take of the bloude of the trespase offerynge, and put it vpon the ttype of ye right eare of him that is censed, and vpon the thombe of his right hande, and vpon the greate too of his right fote.

15 Afterwarde shall he take of the oyle out of the Logg, and poure it in to his awne left hande,

16 and dyppe his right fynger in the oyle that is in his left hande, and sprenkle the oyle with his fynger seuen tymes before

17 As for the remnaunt of the oyle in his hande, he shall put it vpon the ttype of the right eare of him that is censed, and vpon the thombe of his right hande, & vpon the greate too of his right fote, euen about vpon the bloude of the trespase offerynge.

18 But the remnaunt of the oyle in his hande, shall he poure vpon the heade of him that is censed, and make an attonement for him before the LORDE.

19 And he shall make the synofferynge, and reconcyle him that is censed, because of his vnclennesse. And afterwarde shall he sleue the burntofferynge, 20 and shal offre it vpon the altare with the meatofferynge, and make an attonement for him, & than is he cleane.

21 But yf he be poore, and getteth not so moch with his hande, then let him take one lambe for a trespaseofferynge to wauie it, to make an attonement for him, and a tenth deale of fyne floure myngled with oyle for a meatofferynge, and a Logg of oyle,

22 & two turtyll doues, or two yonge pigeons which he is able to get with his hande, let the one be a synofferynge, the other a burntofferynge:

23 and let him brynge them vpon the eight daye of his clensynge vnto the prest before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse before the LORDE.

24 Then shall the prest take the lambe for the synofferynge, and the Logg of oyle, and shall waue them all before the LORDE,

25 and sleue the lambe of the trespase offerynge: and take of ye bloude of the same trespaseofferynge, and put it vpon the ttype of the righte eare of him that is censed, and vpon the thombe of his right hande, and vpon the greate too of his right fote,

26 and poure of the oyle in to his awne lefte hande,

27 and with his right fynger sprenkle the oyle that is in his left hande, seuen tymes before the LORDE.

28 As for the remnaunt of the oyle in his hande, he shal put it vpon the ttype of the right eare of him that is censed, and vpon the thombe of his right hande, & vpon the greate too of his right fote, euen about vpo ye bloude of ye trespaseofferynge.

29 The other oyle in his hade shal he poure vpo ye heade of him yt is censed, to make an attonement for him before the LORDE.

30 And afterwarde of the one of the turtill doues or yonge pigeons (acordinge as his handes are able to get)

31 he shal make a synofferynge, of ye other a burntofferynge, with the meatofferynge: and so shal the prest make an attonemet for him that is censed before the LORDE.

32 Let this be the lawe for the leper, which is not able with his hande to get, that belongeth vnto his clensynge.

33 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses and Aaron, and sayde:

34 Whan ye are come in to the lande of Canaan, which I geue you to possesse: and yf there happen a plage of leprosy in any house of youre possession, 35 then shal he that oweth the house, come and tell the prest, and saye: Me thynke there is as it were a plage of leprosy in my house.

36 Then shal the prest commaunde to rydde all thyng out of the house or euer the prest go in to se ye plage, lest all that is in the house be made vnclane. Afterwarde shall ye prest go in, to se the plage.

37 Now whan he loketh, and fyndeth, yt there be holowe strakes yalowe or reedish in the walles of the house, & they seme to be lower then the wall besyde, 38 then shall he go out at the dore of the house, and shut vp the house for seuen dayes.

39 And vpon the seuenth daye whan he commeth, and seyth that the plage hath fretten farther in the walles of the house, 40 the shall he commaunde to breake out the stones wherin the plage is, & to cast the in a foule place without the cite,

41 & the house to be scraped within rounde aboute, and the dust yt is scraped of, to be poured without ye cite in an vnclane place,

42 & to take other stones, and put them in the place of the other, and to take other playster, and playster the house.

43 Whan the plage then commeth agayne, and breaketh forth in the house, after yt the stones are broke out, the playster scraped of, and the house playsterd of the new,

44 the shal the prest go in: and whan he seyth that the plage hath fretten farther in the house, then is there surely a fretinge leprosy in the house, and it is vnclane: 45 therefore shal the house be broken downe, both the stones, and ye tymber and all the dust of the house, and shal be caried out of the cite in to an vnclane place.

46 And who so goeth into the house, whyle it is shut vp, is vnclane vntyll ye euen.

47 And he yt lyeth therin, or eateth therin, shal wash his clothes.

48 But yf the prest se (wha he goeth in) that this plage hath frett no farther in the house, after that the house is new playsterd, the shal he iudge it to be cleane, for the plage is healed.

49 And to a synofferynge for the house, he shal take two byrdes, Ceder wodd, & purple woll, and ysope,

50 and slaye the one byrde in an erthen vessell vpon sprynginge water,

51 and shall take the Ceder wodd, the purple woll, the ysope, and the luyunge byrde, & dyppe them in the bloude of the slayne byrde vpon the sprynginge water, and sprenkle the house with all seue tymes:

52 and so shal he purifie the house with the bloude of the byrde, with the springinge water, with the luyunge byrde, with the Ceder wodd, with the ysope, and with the purple woll.

53 And the luyng byrde shall he let flye at libertye out of the towne in to the felde, & make an attonement for the house, and then is it cleane.

54 This is the lawe ouer all maner plage of leprosye & skyrfe,

55 ouer ye leprosy of clothes and of houses,

56 ouer sores, scabbes, and glisteryng whyte,

57 that it maye be knowne, whan eny thinge is vnclane or cleane. This is ye lawe of leprosy.

Chapter 15

1 And the LORDE talked with Moses and Aaron, and sayde:

2 Speake to the children of Israel, and saie vnto him: Whan a man hath a runnyng yssue from out of his flesh, ye same is vnclane: but the is he vnclane by the reason of this yssue,

3 whan his flesh is fretten of ye yssue or wounde.

4 Euery bed where on he lyeth, & what so euer he sytteth vpon, shalbe vnclane.

5 And he that toucheth his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, and be vnclane vntyll the euen.

6 And he yt sytteth where he sat, shal wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, and be vnclane vntyll the eue.

7 Who so toucheth his flesh, shall wash his clothes, & bathe him self with water, and be vnclane vntyll the euen.

8 Whan he spytteth vpon him that is cleane, ye same shal wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, & be vnclane vntyll the euen.

9 And the saddell and what so euer he rydeth vpo, shalbe vnclane.

10 And who so euer toucheth eny thinge that hath bene vnder him, shalbe vnclane vntyll the euen. And who so beareth eny soch, shall wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, and be vnclane vntyll the euen.

11 And whom so euer he toucheth, and washeth not his handes first, the same shal wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, and be vnclane vntyll the euen.

12 Whan he toucheth an erthen vessell, it shal be broken: but the treen vessell shal be rensed wt water.

13 And wha he is cleane of his yssue, he shal nombre vij. dayes, after yt he is made cleane, & wash his clothes, & bathe him self wt sprynginge water, the is he cleane.

14 And vpon the eight daye shal he take two turtill doues or two yonge pigeos, and brynge them before the LORDE before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and geue them vnto the prest.

15 And the prest shal make of the one a synofferynge, of the other a burntofferynge, and make an attonement for him before the LORDE, as concernynge his yssue.

16 Whan a mans sede departeth from him in slepe, the same shal bathe all his flesh wt water, and be vnclane vntyll the euen.

17 And all clothes, and euery skynne that is stained with soch sede, shall he wash with water, & be vnclane vntyll the euen.

18 A woman, by whom soch one lyeth, shall bathe hir self wt water, and be vnclane vntyll the euen.

19 Whan a woman hath the bloude yssue of hir flesh, she shalbe put a parte vij. daies in to a sundrie place. Who so euer toucheth her, shal be vnclane vntyll the eue.

20 And all that she lyeth vpon (as longe as she is put aparte) shalbe vnclane.

21 And that she sytteth vpo, shalbe vnclane. And who so euer toucheth hir bed, shal wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, and be vnclane vntyll the euen.

22 And who so euer toucheth eny maner thinge that she hath sytten vpo, shal wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, and be vnclane vntyll the euen.

23 (Omitted Text)

24 And yf a man lye with her (why she is put a parte) he shalbe vnclane seuen dayes, and the bed that he laye vpon, shalbe vnclane.

25 But whan a woman hath hir bloude yssue a longe season, not onely at the tyme of hir naturall course, but also out of the tyme of hir naturall course, then shall she be vnclane so longe as she hath the yssue: eue as she is at the tyme whan she is put aparte,

26 so shall she be vnclane here also. What so euer she lyeth vpon all the tyme of hir yssue, shalbe as hir bed, whan she is put aparte. And all that she sytteth vpon, shalbe vnclane, as is hir vnclennesse, whan she is put aparte.

27 Who so euer toucheth eny of them, shal be vnclane, and shal wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, & be vnclane vntyll the euen.

28 But yf she be cleane of hir yssue, the shal she nombre seuen dayes, afterwarde shall she be cleane:

29 and vpon the eight daye shall she take two turtill doues, or two yonge pigeons, and brynge them vnto the prest before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse.

30 And the prest shal make of the one a synofferynge, of the other a burntofferynge, and make an attonement for her before the LORDE, as concernynge the yssue of hir vnclennesse.

31 Thus shal ye se that the childe of Israel kepe them selues from their vnclennesse, that they dye not in their vnclennesse, whan they defyle my habitacion, which is amoge you.

32 This is the lawe ouer him that hath a runnyng sore, & him whose sede departeth from him in slepe, so that he is vnclane therof.

33 And ouer her that hath hir bloude yssue, and who so euer hath a runnyng sore, whether it be man or woman, and whan a man lyeth with her that is vnclane.

Chapter 16

1 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses (after that Aarons two sonnes were deed, whan they offered before the LORDE) & sayde:

2 Speake vnto Aaron thy brother, yt he go not at all tymes in to ye ynnermer Sanctuary, within the vale before the Mercyseate, which is vpon the Arke, yt he dye not: for I wyll appeare in a cloude vpon ye Mercyseate.

3 But herewithall shal he go in, euen with a yonge bullocke for a synofferynge, and with a ramme for a burntofferynge,

4 and shal put on the holy linnen albe, and haue linnen breches vpon his flesh, and gyrde him with a lynne girdell, and haue the linnen myter vpon his heade. For these are ye holy garments: & he shal bathe his flesh with water, & put them on:

5 & of the cogregacion of the childe of Israel he shal take two he goates for a synofferynge, and a ramme for a burntofferynge.

6 And Aaron shal brynge the bullocke his owne synofferynge, and make an attonemet for himself and his house:

7 and afterwarde shall he take the two goates, and present them before the LORDE, euen before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse,

8 and shall cast lottes ouer the two goates: the lot of the one goate for the LORDE, and the other for the fre goate.

9 And the goate that ye LORDES lot fell vpon, shal he offre for a synofferynge.

10 But the goate, that the fre goates lot fell vpon, shal he present a lye before ye LORDE, to make an attonement for him, and to let the fre goate go into ye wyldernes.

11 And so shal he brynge the bullocke of his synofferynge, and make an attonement for him and his housholde, and shal kyll him.

12 And he shall take a censor full of coales from the altare that stondest before the LORDE, and his handfull of beaten incense, and brynge them in within ye vayle, 13 and put the incense vpon the fyre before ye LORDE, that the cloude of the incense maye couer the Mercyseate, which is vpon the wytnesse, that he dye not.

14 And he shall take of the bloude of the bullocke, and sprenkle it with his fynger towarde the Mercyseate on the foresyde. Seuen tymes

15 shall be sprenkle of the bloude thus with his fynger before the Mercyseate. The shal he kyll the goate which is the peoples synofferynge, & brynge in of his bloude within the vayle, & shall do with his bloude, as he dyd with the bloude of the bullocke, and sprenkle therwith also on the foresyde towarde the Mercyseate, 16 and so shal he reconcytle the Sactuary from the vnclennesse of the childe of Israel, and fro their trespasses in all their synnes. Thus shal he do vnto the Tabernacle of wytnesse, which is the habitacion with them amoge their vnclenneses.

17 No man shalbe in the Tabernacle of wytnesse, whan he goeth in to make an attonement in the Sactuary, vntyll he go out: and so shall he make an attonement for him self and his house, and for the whole congregacion of Israel.

18 And wha he goeth forth vnto the altare that stondest before the LORDE, he shal reconcytle it, and shal take of ye bullockes bloude, and of the goates bloude, & put it vpon the hornes of the altare rounde aboute.

19 And with his fynger shal he sprekle of the bloude theron seuen tymes, and halowe it, and consecrate it from the vnclennesse of the children of Israel.

20 And whan he hath made an ende of reconcylinge the Sanctuary, and the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and the altare, he shal bringe the luyng bothe.

21 The shal Aaron laie both his hades vpo ye heade of him, & confesse ouer him all the mysdedes of ye childe of Israel, & all their trespasses in their synnes, & shal laye the vpo ye heade of the goate, & by some man yt is at hande, shal he let him runne in to the wildernes:

22 yt the goate maye so beare all their mysdedes vpon him in to ye wyldernes, and he shal leaue him in the wyldernes.

23 And Aaron shal go in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and put of the linnen clothes, which he put on wha he wente in to ye Sactuary, and shal leaue them there,

24 and bathe his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his awne rayment. And he shal go forth, and make his burntofferynge, and the burntofferynge of the people, and make an attonement both for himself and for the people,

25 and burne the fat of the synofferynge vpon the altare.

26 But he yt caried out the fre goate, shal wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, & then come in to the hoost.

27 The bullocke of the synofferynge, and ye goate of the synofferynge (whose bloude was brought in to the Sanctuary to make an attonemet) shalbe caried out of ye hoost, & brent with fyre, both their skynnes, flesh, and donge.

28 And he that burneth them, shal wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, and then come in to the hoost.

29 And this shalbe a perpetuall lawe vnto you: Vpon the tenth daye of the seuenth moneth shal ye humble youre soules, and do no worke, whether it be one of youre selues, or a straunger amonge you.

30 For in this daye is youre attonemet made, that ye maye be clesed from all youre synnes before the LORDE:

31 therefore shall it be a fre Sabbath vnto you, and ye shal humble youre soules. Let this be a perpetuall lawe.

32 But the prest that is anoynted, and whose hande was fylled to be prest in his fathers steade, shal make this attonement, and shal put on the linnen clothes, namely the holy vestimetes,

33 so shal he recocyle the holy Sactuary, and the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and the altare, and ye prestes, and all the people of the congregacion.

34 This shal be a perpetuall lawe vnto you, that ye reconcyle ye children of Israel from all their synnes once a yeaere. And Moses dyd, as the LORDE commaunded him.

Chapter 17

1 And ye LORDE talked with Moses, & sayde:

2 Speake vnto Aaron & his sonnes, & to all ye childre of Israel, & saye vnto them: This is it that ye LORDE hath commaunded:

3 What so euer he be of ye house of Israel, yt kylleth an oxe, or labe, or goate in the hoost, or out of the hoost,

4 and bryngeth it not before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, that it maye be brought vnto the LORDE for an offerynge before the Habitation of ye LORDE, the same shal be giltye of bloude, as though he had shed bloude, and such a man shalbe roted out from amonge his people.

5 Therefore shall the children of Israel brynge their offerynges (that they wyll offre vpon the wyde felde) before the LORDE, euen before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, vnto the prest, & there offre their healthofferynges vnto the LORDE.

6 And the prest shal sprenkle the bloude vpon the altare of the LORDE before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and burne the fat for a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE:

7 and they shall offre their offerynges nomore vnto deuels, with whom they go a whorynge. This shal be a perpetuall lawe vnto them amonge their posterities.

8 Therefore shalt thou saie vnto the: What man so euer he be of the house of Israel, or a straunger also that is amonge you, which offereth a burntofferynge or eny other offerynge, 9 and bringeth it not before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse to offre it vnto the LORDE, he shal be roted out from amoge his people.

10 And what man so euer it be (either of the house of Israel, or a straunger amonge you) that eateth eny maner of bloude, agaynst him wyll I set my face, and wil rote him out from amonge his people:

11 for the soule of ye body is in the bloude, and I haue geuen it you for the altare, that youre soules maye be reconcyled ther with:

12 For the bloude that is in the soule maketh attonement. Therefore haue I sayde vnto the children of Israel: No soule amonge you shall eate bloude, no ner eny straunger that dwelleth amonge you.

13 And what man so euer it be amonge you (whether he be of the house of Israel, or a straunger amoge you) that at the huntynge taketh a beest or foule which maye be eaten, he shall poure out the bloude of the same, & couer it with earth: 14 for all flesh lyueth in the bloude. And I haue sayde vnto the children of Israel: Ye shall eate the bloude of no body: for the life of all flesh is in his bloude. Who so euer eateth it, shalbe roted out.

15 And what so euer soule eateth that which dyed alone, or yt was torne of wylde beestes (whether he be one of youre selues or a straunger) the same shal wash his clothes, and bathe himself with water, and be vnclene vntyll the euen, and then is he cleane.

16 But yf he wash not his clothes, nor bathe him self, then shal he beare his synne.

Chapter 18

1 And the LORDE talked wt Moses, & saide:

2 Speake vnto the childre of Israel, & saye vnto them: I am the LORDE youre God,

3 Ye shall not do after ye workes of the lande of Egipte, wherin ye dwelt: nether after the doynge of the lande of Canaan, in to the which I will brynge you. Ye shall not walke after their customes,

4 but after my lawes shall ye do, & my statutes shall ye kepe, that ye maye walke therein: for I am the LORDE youre God.

5 Therefore shal ye kepe my statutes and my lawes. For the man that doth the same, shal liue therein, for I am the LORDE.

6 No ma shal come at his nexte kinswoma, to vncouer hir preuytie: for I am ye LORDE.

7 Thou shalt not vncouer ye preuytie of yi father & of yi mother. It is thy mother, therfore shalt thou not vncouer hir preuytie.

8 Thou shalt not vncouer ye preuytie of yi fathers wife, for it is yi fathers preuytie.

9 Thou shalt not vncouer the preuytie of thy sister, which is the daughter of yi father or of yi mother, whether she be borne at home or without.

10 Thou shalt not vncouer the preuytie of thy sonnes daughter, or of thy daughters daughter, for it is thine awne preuytie.

11 Thou shalt not vncouer ye preuytie of yi fathers wiues daughter, which is borne vnto him, and is thy sister.

12 Thou shalt not vncouer the preuytie of yi fathers sister, for it is thy fathers nexte kynswoman.

13 Thou shalt not vncouer the preuytie of thy mothers sister, for it is yi mothers nexte kynswoman.

14 Thou shalt not vncouer the preuytie of yi fathers brother, to take his wife, for she is thine awnte.

15 Thou shalt not vncouer ye preuytie of yi daughter in lawe, for she is yi sonnes wife, therfore shalt thou not vncouer hir preuitie.

16 Thou shalt not vncouer the preuytie of thy brothers wife, for it is thy brothers preuytie.

17 Thou shalt not vncouer the preuytie of thy wife and of hir doughter also, nether shalt thou take hir sonnes doughter or hir doughters daughter, to vncouer their preuyties, for they are hir nexte kynswomen. And it is wickednesse.

18 Thou shalt not take a wife and hir sister also, to vncouer hir preuytie, whyle she is yet aloue.

19 Thou shalt not go vnto a woman to vncouer hir preuytie, so longe as she hath hir disease in hir vnclennesse.

20 Thou shalt not lye with thy neighbours wife to meddle with her, for to defyle thy self withall.

21 Thou shalt not geue of thy sede also, to be burnt vnto Moloch, lest thou vnhalowe the name of thy God, for I am the LORDE.

22 Thou shalt not lye with mankynde as with womankynde, for yt is abhominacion.

23 Thou shalt lye with no maner of beest, to defyle yi self therwith. And no woman shal haue to do wt a beest, for it is abhominacion.

24 Ye shal defyle youre selues in none of these thinges. For ye Heithen (whom I wil cast out before you) haue stayned them selues in all these,

25 and the londe is defyled there thorow. And their wickednesse wyl I vyset vpo them, so that the londe shal spue out the indwellers therof.

26 Therefore kepe ye my statutes and lawes, and do not one of these abhominacions, nether one of youre awne selues ner the straunger amonge you

27 (for all soch abhominacions haue ye people of this lode done which were before you, & haue defyled the lande)

28 that the lande spue not you out also, whan ye haue defyled it, as it spewed out the Heythe, that were there before you.

29 For who so euer commytte these abhominacios, the same soules shalbe roted out from amonge their people.

30 Therefore kepe ye my statutes, that ye do not after ye abhominable customes, which were before you, that ye be not defyled therwith: For I am the LORDE youre God.

Chapter 19

1 And the LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde:

2 Speake to the whole congregacion of the children of Israel, and saye vnto them: Ye shall be holy, for I am holy, euen the LORDE youre God.

3 Euery one feare his father and his mother. Kepe my holy dayes: for I am the LORDE youre God.

4 Ye shal not turne youre selues vnto Idols, & ye shal make you no goddes of metall: for I am the LORDE youre God.

5 And whan ye wyll offre health offerynges vnto the LORDE, then shal ye offre the, that he maye be mercifull vnto you,

6 and ye shal eate them the same daye that ye offre them, and on the morow: what so euer is left on the thirde daye, shalbe burnt with fyre.

7 But yf eny man eate therof vpon the thirde daye, then is he vnholly, and shall not be accepted,

8 and the same eater shal beare his synne, because he hath vnhalowed the Sanctuary of the LORDE: and soch a soule shalbe roted out from amonge his people.

9 Whan thou reapest thy londe, thou shalt not reape downe the vtmost borders of it rounde aboute, ner gather it all cleane vp.

10 Euen so likewise thou shalt not plucke thy vnyarde cleane also, ner gather vp the grapes that are fallen downe, but shalt leaue them for ye poore and straungers: for I am the LORDE youre God.

11 Ye shal not steale, nether lye, ner deale falsely one with another.

12 Ye shal not sweare falsely by my name, & so to vnhalowe the name of thy God: for I am the LORDE.

13 Thou shalt do yi neighbour no wronge, ner robbe him. The workmas labour shal not byde with the vntyll the mornynge.

14 Thou shalt not curse the deaf. Thou shalt put no stomblynge blocke before ye blinde, but shalt feare thy God: for I am the LORDE.

15 Ye shall not deale wrongeously in iudgment, nether shal ye accepte the persone of the poore, ner honoure the parsonne of the greate, but thou shalt iudge thy neighbour righteously.

16 Thou shalt let no preuyt accuser go amoge ye people. Nether shalt thou stonde agaynst yi neighbours bloude: for I am ye LORDE.

17 Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine hert, but shalt tell yi neighbour his faute, that thou beare not synne for his sake.

18 Thou shalt not auenge thy self, ner beare euell will agaynst the childre of thy people. Thou shalt loue thy neighbour, as thy self: for I am the LORDE.

19 My statutes shal ye kepe, that thou let not yi catell gendre with beestes of another kynde: nether sowe thy felde with myngled sede. And let no garment come vpon the, yt is mixte with wollen and lynnyn.

20 Whan a man lyeth with a woman, and hath to do with her, which is a bonde woman, and hath bene medled withall of another man, but not loused out, ner hath optayned fredome, it shalbe punyshed, but they shal not suffre death, because she was not fre.

21 But he shal brynge for his trespase vnto ye LORDE (euen before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse) a ramme for a trespase offerynge:

22 and the prest shal make an attonement for him with the trespase offerynge before the LORDE, concernynge the synne that he hath done: so shall God be mercifull vnto him, as concernynge his synne which he hath done.

23 What tyme as ye are come in to the londe and plante all maner trees wherof men eate, ye shall circumcise the foreskyne of the same with their frutes:

three yeares shall ye holde them for vncircumcysed, so that ye eate them not: 24 but in the fourth yeare shall all their frutes be holy and prayesd vnto ye LORDE.

25 In the fifth yeare shall ye eate the frutes, and gather them in: for I am ye LORDE youre God.

26 Ye shall eate nothinge wt bloude. Ye shall not regarde ye foules cryenge, ner chose out dayes.

27 Ye shall shau no crownes vpo youre heade, nether shalt thou clyppe thy beerde cleane off.

28 Ye shall rente out no markes in youre body (for eny that is deed) ner make lettres vpo you: for I am the LORDE.

29 Thou shalt not holde thy doughter to whordome, that the londe fall not to whordome, and waxe full of wickednesse.

30 Repe my holy dayes, and stonde in awe of my Sanctuary; for I am the LORDE.

31 Ye shall not turne yor selues to ye Soythsayers, and axe nothinge at the expounders of tokes, that ye be not defyled by them: for I am the LORDE youre God.

32 Thou shalt ryse vp before a graye heade, and shalt geue reuerence vnto the aged. For thou shalt feare God: for I am ye LORDE.

33 Whan there dwelleth a straunger amonge you in youre londe, ye shall not vexe him.

34 He shall dwell with you, euen as one that is at home amonge you, & thou shalt loue him as yi self: for ye youre selues also were straungers in the lande of Egipte. I am the LORDE youre God.

35 Ye shall not deale wrogeously in iudgmet, with meteyarde, with weight, with measure:

36 A true balaunce, a true weight, a true Epha, a true Hin shall be amoge you. For I am the LORDE youre God, which brought you out of the londe of Egipte, 37 that ye shulde kepe & do all my statutes and lawes: for I am the LORDE.

Chapter 20

1 And the LORDE talked with Moses, and saide:

2 Tell the children of Israel: Who so euer he be amonge the children of Israel, (or eny straunger that dwelleth in Israel) which geueth of his sede vnto Moloch, the same shall dye the death: the people of the lande shal stone him,

3 & I wyll set my face agaynst that man, and wyll rote him out from amoge his people, because he hath geuen of his sede vnto Moloch, and defyled my Sanctuary, & vnhalowed my holy name.

4 And though the people of the londe loke thorow the fyngers vpon that man, which hath geuen of his sede vnto Moloch, so that they put him not to death,

5 yet wyl I set my face agaynst the same man, & agaynst his generacion: And him, and all that go a whorynge with him after Moloch, wyl I rote out from amonge their people.

6 If eny soule turne him to ye soythsayers and expounders of tokens, so that he goeth a whorynge after them, I wyl set my face agaynst the same soule, and wyl rote him out from amonge his people.

7 Sanctifie youre selues therfore, & be holy: for I am holy euen youre God.

8 And kepe ye my statutes, and do them: for I am ye LORDE that sanctifieth you.

9 Who so euer curseth his father or his mother, shall dye the death: his bloude be vpon him, because he hath cursed his father or mother.

10 He that breaketh wedlocke with eny mas wife, shal dye the death (both the aduouterer and ye aduouteresse) because he hath broken wedlocke with his neighbours wife.

11 Yf eny man lye with his fathers wife, so yt he vncouer his fathers preuyte, they shal both dye the death: their bloude be vpo the.

12 Yf eny man lye wt his doughter in lawe, they shall dye both of them, for they have wrought abhominacion: their bloude be vpon them.

13 Yf eny man lye with the mankynde, as with womankynde, they haue wrought abhominacion, & shal both dye the death: their bloude be vpon them.

14 If eny man take a wyfe, and hir mother therto, the same hath wrought wickednes: he shalbe burnt with fyre, and so shal they also, that there be no wickednes amoge you.

15 Yf eny man lye with a beest, he shall dye the death, and the beest shal be slayne.

16 If a woman medle with a beest, so yt she haue to do wt it, thou shalt put her to death, and the beest also, they shall dye the death: their bloude be vpon them.

17 Yf eny man take his sister, his fathers doughter, or his mothers doughter, and se hir preuyte, and she agayne se his secretes, it is a wicked thinge. They shalbe roted out in the sight of their people. For he hath vncouered his sisters preuyte, he shal beare his synne.

18 Yf a man lye with a woman in the tyme of hir sicknesse, and vncouer hir secretes, & open vp hir founteyne, and she vncouer the fountayne of hir bloude, they shall both be roted out from amonge their people.

20 Yf eny man lye with his vncler wyfe, the same hath vncouered the preuytie of his uncle: they shall beare their synne, without children shal they dye.

21 Yf eny man take his brothers wyfe, yt is an vncler thinge: they shalbe without children, because he hath vncouered his brothers secretes.

22 So kepe now all my statutes & my lawes, & do them, yt the lode whither I brynge you to dwell therein, spewe you not out.

23 And walke not ye in ye statutes of the Heithen, which I shal cast out before you. For all soch thinges haue they done, & I haue abhorred the.

24 But I saye vnto you: Ye shall possesse their londe. For I wyll geue you to enheritaunce a lode, that floweth with mylke and hony. I am the LORDE youre God, which haue separated you from the nacions, 25 that ye also shulde separate the cleane beestes fro the vncler, and the vncler foules from the cleane: & not to defyle youre soules vpon beestes, vpon foules & vpon all that crepeth on the grounde: which I haue separated vnto you, that they shulde be vncler.

26 Therfore shall ye be holy vnto me: for I the LORDE am holy, which haue separated you fro the nacions, that ye shulde be myne.

27 Yf a man or woman be a soythsayer or an expounder of tokens, the same shall dye the death: they shalbe stoned, their bloude be vpon them.

Chapter 21

1 And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Speake to ye prestes ye sonnes of Aaron, & saye vnto the: A prest shal defyle him self vpo no soule of his people,

2 but vpon his nexte kynne yt belongeth vnto him: as vpon his mother, vpo his father, vpo his sonne, vpo his doughter, vpon his brother,

3 & vpon his sister, which is yet a virgin, & hath bene no mans wife (which belongeth vnto him) vpon her maie he defyle himself.

4 Morouer he shal not defyle him self vpo eny ruler in his people, to vnhalowe him self.

5 He shall make no crowne also vpon his heade, ner shaue of his beard, nether shall they cut out eny markes i their fleshe.

6 They shalbe holy vnto their God, and not vnhalowe ye name of their God: for they offre the sacrifice of the LORDE, the bred of their God, therfore shal they be holy.

7 They shal take no whore, ner one that is defyled, or yt is put awaye from hir husbande, for he is holy vnto his God:

8 therfore shal he sanctifie him self, for he offreth the bred of thy God. He shal be holy vnto the, for I am holy, euen the LORDE that sanctifieth you.

9 Yf a prestes doughter fall to whoringe, she shalbe burnt with fyre, for she hath shamed hir father.

10 He that is hye prest amonge his brethren, vpo whose heade the anoyntinge oyle is poured, and his hande fylled (yt he might be arayed with the vestimentes) shal not vncouer his heade, ner cut his clothes, 11 & shal come at no deed, & shal defyle him self nether vpon father ner mother.

12 He shall not go out of the Sanctuary, that he vnhalowe not the Sanctuary of his God. For ye crowne of the anoyntinge oyle of his God is vpon him, for I am the LORDE.

13 A virgin shal he take to wife,

14 but no wedowe, ner deuorsed, ner defyled, ner whore, but a virgin of his awne people shal he take to wife, 15 yt he vnhalowe not his sede amonge his people. For I am ye LORDE, which sanctifie him.

16 And ye LORDE talked wt Moses, & sayde:

17 Speake vnto Aaron, & saie: Yf there be a blemysh vpo eny of yi sede in yor generacions, the same shal not preasse to offre the bred of his God:

18 For who so euer hath a blemysh vpon him, shal not come nere, whether he be blynde, lame, with an euell faoured nose, wt eny mysshappen membre,

19 or yt hath a broken fote or hande, 20 or is croke backed, or hath eny blemysh in the eye, or is gleyd, or is skyrvye or scaulde, or hath his stones broken.

21 Who so euer now of the sede of Aaron ye prest hath eny blemysh vpo him, shal not come nye to offre ye sacrifice of the LORDE. For he hath a deformyte. Therfore shall he not preasse vnto the bred of his God, to offre it.

22 Notwithstandinge he shal eate of the bred of his God, both of the holy, & of ye most holy:

23 but he shal not go into ye vayle, ner come nye the altare (for so moch as he hath a blemysh vpo him) yt he vnhalowe not my Sactuary. For I am ye LORDE yt sanctifieth the.

24 And Moses spake this vnto Aaron & to his sonnes, and to all the children of Israel.

Chapter 22

1 And the LORDE talked with Moses, & saide:

2 Speake vnto Aaron, & his sonnes, yt they absteyne from ye halowed thinges of the childre of Israel, which they haue halowed vnto me, & yt they vnhalowe not my holy name: for I am ye LORDE.

3 Saie now vnto them & their posterities: Who so euer he be of yor sede, yt commeth nye vnto the holy thinges, which the childre of Israel halowe vnto the LORDE, & so defyleth him self vpon the same, his soule shal perise before my face: for I am the LORDE.

4 Who so euer of the sede of Aaron is a leper, or hath a runnyng yssue, shall not eate of the holy thinges, tyll he be censed. Who so toucheth eny vncler thinge, or whose sede departeth from him by night,

5 or who so toucheth eny worme that is vncler vnto him,

6 & what so euer defyleth hi, loke what soule toucheth eny soch, is vncler vntyll the euen, & shal not eate of the holy thinges, but shal first bath his flesh with water.

7 And wha ye Sonne is gone downe, and he cleane, then maye he eate therof, for it is his foode.

8 Loke what dyeth alone, or is rent of wyld beestes, shall he not eate, yt he be not vnclene theron: for I am ye LORDE.

9 Therefore shal they kepe my lawe, yt they lade not synne vpon them, & dye therin, when they vnhalowe them selues in it. For I am ye LORDE, yt halowe them.

10 A straunger shal not eate of the holy thynges, ner an housholde gest of the prestes, ner an hyred seruaut.

11 But yf ye prest bye a soule for his money, ye same maye eate therof. And loke who is borne in his house, maye eate of his bred also.

12 Neuertheles yf the prestes doughter be a straungers wife, she shal not eate of the Heueofferings of holynes.

13 But yf she be a wedowe, or deuorced, or haue no sede, & commeth agayne to hir fathers house as a fore (whan she was yet a mayden in hir fathers house) then shall she eate of hir fathers bred. But no strauger shal eate therof.

14 Who so els eateth of the halowed thynges, vnwytingly, shal put ye fifth parte there vnto, and geue it vnto the prest with the halowed thinge,

15 that they vnhalowe not ye halowed thynges of the children of Israel, which they Heue vp vnto the LORDE, 16 lest they lade them selues with mysdoinge and trespase, wha they eate their halowed thynges, for I am ye LORDE which halowe the.

17 And ye LORDE talked wt Moses, & saide:

18 Speake vnto Aaron & his sonnes, & to all ye childe of Israel: What so euer Israelite or straunger in Israel wyll do his offerynge, whether it be their vowe, or of fre wyl, that they wyll offre a burntofferynge vnto the LORDE, 19 to reconcytle them selues, it shal be a male, and without blemysh, of the oxen, or lambes or goates.

20 What so euer hath eny blemish, shal they not offre, for they shal fynde no faouere therwith.

21 And who so wyl offre an health offeringe vnto the LORDE to separate out a vowe, or of fre wyl, oxen or shepe, it shalbe without blemysh, yt it maye be accepted. It shal haue no deformite.

22 Yf it be blynde, or broke, or wounded, or haue a wen, or skyrvye, or scabbed, they shal offre none soch vnto the LORDE, ner put an offerynge of eny soch vpo the altare of the LORDE.

23 An oxen or shepe yt hath mysshappe membres, or no rompe, mayest thou offre of a fre wyl: but to a vowe it maye not be accepted.

24 Thou shalt offre also vnto the LORDE nothinge yt is brused, or broken, or rent, or cutt out, & ye shal do no soch in youre londe.

25 Morouer ye shall offre no bred vnto youre God of a straungers hande: for it is marred of him, and he hath a deformite, therefore shal it not be accepted for you.

26 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & saide:

27 Wha an oxen, or labe, or goate is brought forth, it shal be seuen dayes with the dame, and vpon the eight daye & thereafter it maie be offered vnto the LORDE, the is it accepted.

28 Whether it be oxen or lambe, it shall not be slayne with his yonge in one daye.

29 But wha ye wil offre a thakoffringe vnto the LORDE yt it maye be accepted, 30 ye shal eate it the same daye, & kepe nothinge ouer vntyll the mornynge: for I am the LORDE.

31 Therefore kepe now my commaundementes, and do them: for I am the LORDE, 32 yt ye vnhalowe not my holy name, & that I maye be halowed amonge the children of Israel. For I am he that halowe you, eue ye LORDE, 33 which brought you out of ye lode of Egipte, yt I might be yor God: Euen I ye LORDE.

Chapter 23

1 And the LORDE talked with Moses, & saide:

2 Speake vnto ye children of Israel, and saye vnto them: These are ye feastes of the LORDE, which ye shal call holy dayes.

3 Sixe dayes shalt thou worke, but the seuenth daie is the rest of the Sabbath, and shalbe called holy. Ye shal do no worke therin, for it is the Sabbath of the LORDE, where so euer ye dwell.

4 These are the feastes of the LORDE, yt are called holy, which ye shal call youre feastes:

5 Upon ye fourtene daye of ye first moneth at euen, is the LORDES Easter.

6 And vpon ye fiftene daye of the same moneth is the feast of vnleueded bred of the LORDE. Then shall ye eate vnleueded bred seuen dayes.

7 The first daie shalbe called holy amonge you, ye shal do no worke of bodage therin,

8 seue daies shal ye offre vnto ye LORDE. The seuenth daie shalbe called holy likewise, wherin ye shal do no worke of bondage also.

9 And ye LORDE talked wt Moses, & saide:

10 Speake to the childe of Israel, & saye vnto them: Whan ye come into the lande yt I shall geue you, and reape downe youre haruest, ye shal brynge a shefe of the first frutes of youre haruest vnto the prest, 11 the shall the shefe be waued before the LORDE, that ye maye be accepted: but this shal the prest do the nexte daye after the Sabbath.

12 And ye same daie that yor shefe is waued, shal ye offre a burntofferinge vnto the LORDE, of a lambe which is without blemysh and of one yeare olde, 13 wt the meatofferynge, two tenth deales of fyne floure mengled with oyle, for an offerynge of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE: & the drynk offerynge also, eue the fourth parte of an Hin of wyne.

14 And ye shall eate nether bred, nor cakes, ner furmentye (of new corne) tyll the same daye that ye brynge an offerynge vnto youre God. This shalbe a lawe vnto youre posterities, where so euer ye dwell.

15 Then shal ye nombre (from the nexte daye after the Sabbath, whan ye brought ye Waueshefe) seuen whole wekes, 16 vntyll the nexte daie after ye seuenth weke, namely, fiftie daies, shal ye nombre, and offre new meatofferynges vnto the LORDE.

17 And out of all youre dwellinges shal ye offre, namely, two Waue loaues of two tenth deales of fyne floure leueded, and baken for the first frutes vnto ye LORDE.

18 And with youre bred ye shal brynge seuen lambes of one yeare olde without blemysh, and a yonge bullocke, and two rammes: this shalbe the LORDES burntofferynge, meatofferynge, and drynkofferynge. This is a sacrifice of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE.

19 Morouer ye shal offre an he goate for a synofferynge, and two lambes of a yeare olde for an healthofferynge.

20 And ye prest shal waue it vpon the bred of the first frutes before the LORDE with the two lambes: And they shalbe holy vnto the LORDE, and shalbe the prestes.

21 And this daye shal ye proclame, for it shalbe called holy amonge you: no seruyle worke shal ye do therin. A perpetuall lawe shall it be amonge yor posterities, where so euer ye dwell.

22 Whan ye reape downe ye haruest of youre londe, ye shal not cut it cleane downe vpo the felde, ner gather vp all, but shal leaue it for the poore and straungers. I am the LORDE youre God.

23 And ye LORDE talked with Moses, and saide:

24 Speake vnto the children of Israel, & saye: Vpon the first daye of the seuenth moneth shal ye haue the holy rest of the remembrance of blowinge, 25 wherin ye shal do no seruyle worke, and ye shal offre sacrifice vnto the LORDE.

26 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and saide:

27 Vpon the tenth daye in this seuenth moneth is the daye of reconcylyng, which shalbe an holy conuocacion wt you. Ye shal humble youre soules therin, and offre vnto the LORDE, 28 and shal do no seruyle worke in this daye: for it is the daye of attonement, that ye maye be reconcyled before the LORDE youre God.

29 For what soule so euer humbleth not him self vpon this daye, the same shalbe roted out from amonge his people.

30 And what soule so euer doth eny worke this daye, the same wil I destroye from amonge his people:

31 therefore shall ye do no worke. This shalbe a perpetuall lawe vnto youre posterities, where so euer ye dwell.

32 It is the rest of youre Sabbath, that ye maye humble youre soules. Vpon the nyenth daye of ye moneth at euen, shal ye kepe this holy daye from the euen forth vntyll the eue agayne.

33 And the LORDE talked with Moses, & saide:

34 Vpon the fiftene daye of the seuenth moneth, is the feast of Tabernacles seuen dayes vnto the LORDE.

35 The first daye shalbe an holy couocacion: no seruyle worke shal ye do therin.

36 Seuen dayes shal ye offre vnto the LORDE. The eight daye shalbe an holy conuocacion vnto you also, and ye shal offre vnto the LORDE: for it is the daye of gatheringe together: No seruyle worke shall ye do therin.

37 These are the holy daies of the LORDE, which ye shall proclame and holde for holy conuocacions, that ye maye offre vnto the LORDE burntofferynge, meatofferynge, drynkofferynge and other offerynge, euery one accordinge to his daye, 38 besyde ye Sabbathes of ye LORDE, and youre giftes, and vowe, and frewlofferynges, that ye offre vnto the LORDE.

39 So vpon the fiftene daye of the seuenth moneth, whan ye haue brought in the increase of the londe, ye shall kepe the LORDES feast seuen dayes longe. The first daye shalbe kepte holy daye, and the eight daye shalbe kepte holy daye also.

40 And vpon the first daie ye shal take of ye goodly frutefull trees, braunches of palme trees, & bowes of thicke trees, and Wyllies of the broke, and seue dayes shal ye be mery before ye LORDE youre God:

41 and thus shal ye kepe the feast vnto the LORDE seuen dayes in the yeare. This shalbe a perpetuall lawe amonge youre posterities, that they kepe holy daye thus in ye seuenth moneth.

42 Seuen dayes shal ye dwell in bothes. Who so euer is an Israelite borne, shal dwell in bothes, 43 that they which come after you, maye knowe, how that I made ye children of Israel to dwell in bothes, whan I brought them out of the lode of Egipte. I am the LORDE youre God.

44 And Moses tolde the children of Israel these holy daies of the LORDE.

Chapter 24

1 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & saide:

2 Comaunde the children of Israel, that they brynge pure oyle olyue beaten for lightes, that it maye be allwaye put in the lampes,

3 without before the vayle of wytnesse in the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And Aaron shall dresse it allwaye at euen & in ye mornynge before the LORDE. Let this be a perpetuall lawe vnto youre posterities.

4 The lapes shal he dresse vpon the pure candilstick before the LORDE perpetually.

5 And thou shalt take fyne floure, and bake twolue cakes therof: two teth deales shal euery cake haue, 6 & thou shalt laye them sixe on a rowe vpo the pure table before the LORDE.
 7 And vpon the same shalt thou laye pure frankencense, that it maye be bred of remembraunce for an offerynge vnto ye LORDE.
 8 Euery Sabbath shal he prepare the before the LORDE allwaye, and receaue them of the children of Israel for an euerlastinge couenaunt.
 9 And they shalbe Aarons & and his sonnes, which shal eate them in the holy place. For this is his most holy of the offerynges of the LORDE for a perpetuall dewtye.
 10 And there wente out an Israelitish womans sonne, which was the childe of a man of Egipte (amonge the children of Israel) and stroue in ye hoost
 11 with a man of Israel, & named the name of God blasphemously, & cursed. Then brought they him vnto Moses. His mothers name was Selomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the trybe of Dan.
 12 And they put him in preson, tyll they were informed by the mouth of the LORDE.
 13 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde:
 14 Brynge him that cursed, out of the hoost, and let all the that herde it, laye their handes vpon his heade, and let the whole congregacion stone him.
 15 And saye vnto the childe of Israel. Who so euer blasphemeth his God, shall beare his synne:
 16 and he that blasphemeth the name of the LORDE, shal dye the death. The whole congregacio shal stone him. As the straunger, so shal he of the housholde be also. Yf he blaspheme the name, he shal dye.
 17 He that slayeth a man, shall dye ye death.
 18 but he that slayeth a beest, shall paye for it. Soule for soule.
 19 And he that maymeth his neghbour, it shall be done vnto him, euen as he hath done:
 20 broke for broke, eye for eye, tothe for tothe: euen as he hath maymed a man, so shal it be done vnto him agayne,
 21 so that, who so slayeth a beest, shall paye for it: But he that slayeth a man, shal dye.
 22 There shal be one maner of lawe amonge you, to ye straunger as to one of youre selues: for I am the LORDE youre God.
 23 Moses tolde the children of Israel. And they brought him that had cursed, out of ye hoost, and stoned him. Thus dyd the childe of Israel as the LORDE comaunded Moses.

Chapter 25

1 And the LORDE talked with Moses vpon mount Sinai, and sayde:
 2 Speake to the children of Israel, and saye vnto them: Whan ye come in to the londe, yt I shal geue you, the londe shal rest vnto the LORDE, 3 so that thou sowe thy felde sixe yeares, and sixe yeares cut yi vynes, and gather in the frutes.

 4 But in the seuenth yeare the lode shal haue his Sabbath of rest for a Sabbath vnto the LORDE, wherin thou shalt not sowe thy felde ner cut thy vynes.
 5 Loke what groweth of it self after thy haruest, thou shalt not reape it. And the grapes that growe without thy labour, shalt thou not gather, for so moch as it is the yeare of the londes rest:
 6 But the rest of the londe shalt thou kepe for this intent, that thou mayest eate therof, thy seruauente, thy mayde, thy hyrelinge, thy gest, thy strauger with the, 7 thy catell, and the beestes in thy londe. All the increase shal be meate.
 8 And thou shalt nombre seuen of these yeare Sabbathes, that seuen yeares maye be tolde seuen tymes, and so the tyme of the seuen yeare Sabbathes make nyne and fourtye yeares.
 9 Then shalt thou let the blast of the horne go thorow all youre londe, vpon the tenth daye of the seuenth moneth, euen in ye daye of attonement.
 10 And ye shal halowe the fiftieth yeare, and shall call it a fre yeare in ye londe, for all them that dwell therein: for it is the yeare of Iubilye. Then shall euery one amonge you come agayne to his possession and to his kynred:
 11 for the fiftieth yeare is ye yeare of Iubilye. Ye shal not sowe ner reape it that groweth of it self, ner gather the grapes, that growe without labour.
 12 For the yeare of Iubilye shall be holy amonge you. But loke what the felde beareth, that shall ye eate.
 13 This is the yeare of Iubilye, wherin ye shal come agayne euery man to his owne.
 14 Now whan thou sellest ought vnto thy neghbour, or byest eny thinge of him, there shal none of you oppresse his brother:
 15 but acordinge to the nombre of the yeare of Iubilye shalt thou bye it of him: and acordinge to the nombre of the yeares of increase shall he sell it vnto the.
 16 Acordinge to the multitude of the yeares shalt thou raysse the pryce, & and acordynge to the fewnesse of the yeares shalt thou mynish the pryce: for he shall sell it vnto the acordinge to the nombre of the increase.
 17 Therefore let no man defraude his neghbour, but feare yi God. For I am the LORDE youre God.
 18 Wherefore do after my statutes, and kepe my lawes, so yt ye do them that ye maye dwell safe in the londe.
 19 For the londe shal geue you hir frute, so that ye shal haue ynough to eate, and dwell safe therein.
 20 And yf ye wolde saye: What shall we eate in the seuenth yeare, in as moch as we shal not sowe, ner gather in oure increase?
 21 I will sende my blessinge vpon you in the sixte yeare,

22 that it shal brynge forth frute for three yeare: so that ye shal sowe in ye eight yeare, and eate of the olde frute vntyll the nyenth yeare, that ye maye eate of the olde tyll new frutes come agayne.
 23 Therefore shall ye not sell the londe for euer, for the lode is myne. And ye are straungers and indwellers before me.
 24 And in all youre lande shall ye geue the londe to lowse.
 25 Whan thy brother waxeth poore, and selleth ye his possession, and his nexte kynsma commeth to him, yt he maye redeme it: then shall he redeme that his brother solde.
 26 But whan a man hath none to redeme it, and ca get so moch with his hande as to redeme one parte, 27 then shall it be rekened how many yeares it hath bene solde, and the remnaunt shal be restored vnto him to whom he solde it, yt he maie come agayne to his possession.
 28 But yf his hande can not get so moch, as to haue one parte agayne, the shal it yt he solde be styll in the hande of the byer vntyll ye yeare of Iubilye: In ye same shal it go out, and returne to his owner agayne.
 29 He that selleth a dwellinge house within the wallis of the cite, hath an whole yeare respyte to lowse it out agayne: that shall be the tyme, wherin he maye redeme it.
 30 But yf he redeme it not a fore the whole yeare be out then shal he that bought it, and his successours kepe it for euer, and it shall not go out lowse in the yeare of Iubilye.
 31 Neuertheles yf it be an house in a vyllage that hath no wall aboute it, it shall be counted like vnto the felde of the coure, and maye be redemed and shal go out fre in the yeare of Iubilye.
 32 The cities of the Leuites, and the houses in the cities that their possession is in, maye allwaye be redemed.
 33 Who so purchaceth ought of the Leuites, shal leaue it in the yeare of Iubilye, whether it be house or cite that he hath had in possession. For the houses in the cities of the Leuites are their possession amonge the children of Israel.
 34 But the felde before their cities shal not be solde, for it is their awne for euer.
 35 Whan thy brother waxeth poore, and falleth in decaye besyde the, thou shalt receaue him as a straunger, or gest, that he maye lyue by the:
 36 and thou shalt take no vsury of him, ner more then thou hast geue, but shalt feare thy God, that thy brother maye lyue besydes the.
 37 For thou shalt not lende him yi money vpon vsury, ner delyuer him thy meate vpon vantage.
 38 For I am the LORDE yor God, which haue brought you out of the lode of Egipte, to geue you the lande of Canaan, and to be youre God.
 39 Whan thy brother waxeth poore besyde the, and selleth himself vnto the, thou shalt not holde him as a bode ma:
 40 but as an hyred seruauente and as a soiourner shall he be wt the, and serue the vntyll ye yeare of Iubilye.

 41 Then shal he departe lowse from the, & his childe with him, & shal returne to his awne kinred, and to his fathers possession:
 42 for they are my seruauentes, whom I brought out of the londe of Egipte. Therefore shal they not be solde like bondmen.
 43 And thou shalt not raigne ouer them with crueltye, but shalt feare thy God.
 44 But yf thou wylt haue bode seruauentes and maydens, thou shalt bye them of the Heithen, that are rounde aboute you:
 45 of the children of the soiourners and straungers amonge you, and of their generacions with you, and that are borne in youre londe, the same shal ye haue for bonde seruauentes, 46 & shal possesse them, & youre children after you for an euerlastinge possession, these shalbe yor bondmen.
 47 But ouer youre brethren the children of Israel, there shall none of you raigne ouer another with crueltye.
 48 Whan a straunger or soiourner waxeth ryche by the, and thy brother waxeth poore besyde him, & selleth him self vnto ye straunger or soiourner by the, or to eny of his kynne, then shall he haue right
 48 (after that he is solde) to be redemed agayne. And eny of his brethren maye lowse him out:
 49 or his vncler or his vncler sonne, or eny other kynsman of his kynred: Or yf his awne hande getteth so moch, he shal lowse him self out,
 50 and shal reken with him that bought him, from ye yeare that he solde him self, vntyll the yeare of Iubilye. And ye money shal be counted acordinge to the nombre of the yeares that he was solde, and his wages of the whole tyme shalbe rekened withall.
 51 Yf there be yet many yeares vnto ye yeare of Iubilye, then shal he (acordinge to the same) geue the more for his delyueraunce, thereafter as he is solde.
 52 Yf there remayne but few yeares vnto the yeare of Iubilye, then shall he geue agayne thereafter for his redempcion.
 53 And his wages from yeare to yeare shall he reken withall, and thou shalt not let the other raigne cruelly ouer him in yi sight.
 54 But yf he bye not him self out after this maner, then shal he go out fre in the yeare of Iubilye, and his childe with him:
 55 for the childe of Israel are my seruauentes, which I haue brought out of the londe of Egipte. I am the LORDE youre God.

Chapter 26

1 Ye shall make you no Idols ner ymage, and ye shal reare you vp no piler, ner set vp eny markstone in youre londe, to bowe youre selues therto. For I am the LORDE youre God.
 2 Kepe my Sabbathes, and stonde in awe of my Sanctuary. I am the LORDE.

3 Yf ye wyll walke now in my statutes, and kepe my commaundementes and do them,

4 the wyl I geue you rayne in due season, and ye londe shal geue hir increase, and the trees of ye felde shal brynge forth their frute.

5 And the thresshing tyme shall reache vnto the wyne haruest, and the wyne haruest shal reache vnto the sowyng tyme. And ye shall eate yor bred in plenteousnes, and shal dwell safe in youre londe.

6 I wil geue peace in youre londe, so that ye shall slepe, and no man shall make you afrayed. I wyl ryd euell beestes out of youre londe, and there shall no swerde go thorow youre londe.

7 Ye shal chace youre enemies, & they shal fall into ye swerde before you.

8 Fyue of you shal chace an hundreth: and an hundreth of you shal chace ten thousande. For youre enemies shall fall in to the swerde before you.

9 And I wyl turne me vnto you, and wyl cause you to growe and increase, and wyl set vp my couenanut with you.

10 And ye shal eate of the olde stoare, and shall let go the olde for plenteousnesse of the new.

11 I will haue my dwellynge amonge you, and my soule shall not refuse you.

12 And I wyll walke amonge you, and wyl be youre God, and ye shalbe my people.

13 For I am the LORDE youre God, which brought you out of the londe of Egipte, that ye shulde not be their bondmen. And I haue broke the cepter of youre yocke, and caused you to go vp right.

14 But yf ye wyl not harken vnto me, ner do all these commaundementes,

15 and wyl despyse my statutes, and yf youre soules refuse my lawes, yt ye wyll not do all my commaundementes, & shal let my couenaunt stonde,

16 then wyll I do this agayne vnto you. I wyl vyset you shortly with swellnges and feuers, which shal destroye ye eyes, & consume awaie ye hert. Ye shal sowe youre sede in wayne, and youre enemies shal eate it vp.

17 And I wyl set my face agaynst you, and ye shal be slayne before youre enemies. And they that hate you, shal haue dominion ouer And ye shall flye, wha no man chaseth you.

18 But yf ye wyll not herken vnto me for all this, then wyl I make it yet seuen tymes more, to punysh you for youre synnes,

19 that I maye breake ye pryde of youre strength, and wyl make youre heauen lyke yron, and youre earth as brasse:

20 and youre trauaile and labor shal be but lost, so that youre londe shall not geue hir increase, and the trees in the londe shal not brynge forth their frute.

21 Yf ye walke yet agaynst me, and wyll not harken vnto me, then wyl I make it yet seuen tymes more, to punysh you because of youre synnes:

22 & wyl sende wylde beestes amoge you, which shal robbe you, and destroye youre catell, and make you fewer, and youre hye waye shal be come waist.

23 But yf ye wyl not yet be reformed here withall, and wyll walke contrary vnto me, 24 then wyl I walke contrary vnto you also, & wyl punysh you yet seuen tymes for youre synnes.

25 And I wyl brynge vpon you a swerde of vengeance, which shall auenge my Testament. And though ye gather you together in to youre cities, yet wyll I sende the pestilence amonge you, and wyl delyuer you in to the handes of youre enemies.

26 For I wil destroye youre prouysion of bred, so yt ten wemen shall bake youre bred in one ouen, and youre bred shal be delyuered out by weight. And whan ye eate, ye shall not haue ynough.

27 Yf ye wyl not yet for all this harken vnto me, & wyl walke contrary vnto me,

28 then wyll I also walke cotrary vnto you in wrathfull displeasure, and wyl punysh you seuenfolde because of youre synnes, 29 so that ye shal eate the flesh of youre sonnes and daughters.

30 And I wyl destroye youre hye altares, and rote out youre ymages, and wyll cast youre bodies vpon the bodies of youre Idols, and my soule shall abhorre you.

31 And youre cities wyll I make waist, and brynge youre churches to naught, and wyll not smell youre swete odoures.

32 Thus wyll I make the londe desolate, so that youre enemies shall dwell therein, and make it waist:

33 but you will I scater amonge the Heythen, and drawe out the swerde after you, so that youre londe shal be waist, & youre cities desolate.

34 Then shall the londe reioyse in hir Sabbathes, as longe as it lyeth wayst, and ye be in the enemies londe. Yee then shal the londe kepe holy daye, and reioyse in hir rest, 35 as longe as it lieth wayst, because it coude not rest in youre Sabbathes, whan ye dwelt therein.

36 And as for them that remayne of you, I wyl make them faynte harted in the londe of their enemies, so that a shakynge leaf shall chace them. And they shall flye from it, as though a swerde persecuted them, and shal fall noman folowynge vpon them.

37 And they shall fall one vpon another (as it were before the swerde) and noman yet chacynge them. And ye shall not be so bolde, as to withstonde youre enemies, 38 and shal perishe amonge the Heithen, and the londe of youre enemies shal eate you vp.

39 And they that are left of you, shall pyne awaye in their mysdede, euen in the enemies londe, and in the mysdedes of their fathers shall they consume awaye.

40 Then shall they knowlege their mysdedes, and the mysdedes of their fathers in the trespace, wherwith they haue trespased agaynst me, and walked contrary vnto me.

41 Therefore wyll I also walke contrary vnto the, and wyll brynge them in to the enemies londe. Then shal their vncircumcysed herte be tamed. And then shall they ende their mysdedes.

42 And I shal thinke vpo my couenaunt with Iacob, and vpon my couenaunt with Isaac, and vpon my couenaunt with Abraham, and wyl thynke vpon the lode.

43 As for the londe, whan it shalbe left of them, it shal reioyse in hir Sabbathes, euen then, whan it lyeth waist, and they tulle it not. And they shall make attonement for their mysdedes, because they despysed my lawes, & their soules refused my statutes.

44 Morouer I haue not so refused them, that they shulde be in the enemies londe: nether haue I so vtterly abhorred them, that I wolde brynge them to naught, and breake my couenaunt wt them: for I am ye LORDE their God.

45 And for their sake I wyl remebre my first couenaunt, wha I brought them out of ye londe of Egipte in the sight of the Heythen, yt I might be their God. Euen I the LORDE.

46 These are the ordinaunces, statutes and lawes, which ye LORDE made betwixte him and the children of Israel vpon mount Sinai, by the hande of Moses.

Chapter 27

1 And the LORDE talked with Moses, & sayde:

2 Speake to ye children of Israel, & saye vnto them: Yf eny man make a speciall vowe vnto ye LORDE, so yt he pryse a soule, then shal this be the valuacion:

3 A ma of twentye yeare olde vnto the thre score yeare, shalt thou set at fiftie syluer Sycles, after the Sycle of the Sanctuary:

4 but a woman at thirtie Sycles.

5 Yf it be fyue yeare olde vnto twentye yeare, thou shalt set it at twentye Sycles, whan it is a man childe: but a woman at ten Sycles.

6 Yf it be a moneth olde vnto fiue yeare, thou shalt set it at fyue Sycles of syluer, whan it is a machilde: but a woman at thre Syluer Sycles.

7 Yf he be thre score yeare olde and aboue, the shalt thou set him at fiftene Sicles wha it is a ma a woma at te Sicles.

8 Yf he be to poore so to be set, the let him present himself to ye prest, & ye prest shal value him. Neuertheles he shal value him, acordinge as ye hade of him that vowed, is able to get.

9 But yf it be a beest yt maye be offred vnto ye LORDE, all yt is offred vnto ye LORDE of soch, is holy:

10 it shal not be altered ner chaunged, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good. Yf eny man change it, one beest for another, then shal they both be holy vnto ye LORDE.

11 But yf ye beest be vnclane which maye not be offred vnto ye LORDE, the shal it be set, before ye prest,

12 and ye prest shal value it, whether it be good or bad, & it shal stonde at the prestes valuyng.

13 But yf eny man wil bye it out, he shal geue the fifth parte more, to that it was set at.

14 Whan eny ma sanctifieth his house vnto the LORDE for ye Sanctuary, the prest shall value it, whether it be good or bad. And as the prest valueth it, so shal it stonde.

15 But yf he yt sanctified it, wyl redeme it, he shal geue ye fifth parte of syluer therto, aboue that it was set at: So shal it be his.

16 Yf eny man halowe a pece of lode of his heretage vnto the LORDE, it shalbe set acordinge to yt it beareth. Yf it beare an Homer of barlye, it shalbe valued at fiftie Sycles of syluer.

17 But yf he halowe his londe immediatly from the yeare of Iubilye forth, then shal it be set acordinge to ye value therof.

18 Yf he haue halowed it after the yeare of Iubilye, then shal the prest reke it, acordinge to ye yeares yt remayne vnto ye yeare of Iubilye, & thereafter shal he set it the lower.

19 But yf he yt sanctified the londe, wil redeme it agayne, then shal he geue the fifth parte of syluer therto, aboue that it was set at:

20 So shal it be his. Yf he wil not lowse it out, but sellet it vnto another, then shal he redeme it nomore:

21 but the same londe whan it goeth out fre in ye yeare of Iubilye, shal be holy vnto the LORDE, as a dedicated felde, and shalbe the prestes inheritaunce.

22 Yf eny man halowe vnto the LORDE a felde, which he hath bought, and is not his inheritaunce, 23 then shal ye prest reken it, what it is worth vnto the yeare of Iubilye, & the same daye shall he geue the pryce that it is set at, vnto the LORDE for the Sanctuary.

24 But in ye yeare of Iubilye it shal returne vnto him that bought it, yt it maye be his inheritaunce in the londe.

25 All maner of prysynge shalbe made acordinge to the Sycle of the Sactuary. One Sycle maketh xx. Geras.

26 The first borne amonge ye catell (which belongeth vnto the LORDE) shall no man Sanctifie vnto the LORDE, whether it be oxe or shepe, for it is the LORDES all ready.

27 But yf there be eny vnclane thinge vpon the beest, the shal it be lowsed out thereafter as it is worth, and the fifth parte shalbe geuen more therto. Yf he wil not redeme it, the let it be solde, as it is worth.

28 There shall no dedicated thinge be solde ner bought out, yt eny man dedicateth vnto ye LORDE, of all yt is his good, whether it be me, catell or lode. For euery dedicated thige, is most holy vnto ye LORDE.

29 There shal no dedicated thige of ma be bought out, but shal dye the death.

30 All the tythes in the londe, both of the sede of the londe, & of ye frutes of the trees, are the LORDES, & shal be holy vnto the LORDE.

31 But yf eny man wil redeme his tithes, he shall geue the fifth parte more therto.

32 And all the tithes of oxen & shepe, & that goeth vnder the rod, the same is an holy tythe vnto the LORDE.

33 It shall not be axed whether it be good or bad, nether shall it be chaunged. But yf eny man chaunge it, then both it & that it was chaunged withall, shal be holy, & not redemed.

34 These are the comaundementes, which ye LORDE gaue Moses in charge vnto childre of Israel vpon mount Sinai.

 33 But ye Leuites were not nombred in ye summe amonge the childe of Israel, as ye LORDE comaunded Moses.
 34 And ye childe of Israel dyd all as the LORDE comaunded Moses. And so they pitched vnder their baners, & toke their iourney, euery one in his kynred, accordinge to the house of their fathers.

Chapter 3

1 These are the generacions of Aaron & Moses, whan ye LORDE spake vnto Moses at ye same tyme vpon mount Sinai.
 2 And these are ye names of the sonnes of Aron. The firstborne, Nadab: then Abihu, Eleasar & Ithamar.
 3 These are ye names of the sonnes of Aaron, which were anoynted to be prestes, & their handes fylled for ye presthode.
 4 But Nadab & Abihu dyed before ye LORDE, wha they offred straunge fyre before ye LORDE, in ye wilderness of Sinai, & had no sonnes. But Eleasar and Ithamar executed ye prestes office wt their father Aaron.
 5 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde:
 6 Bringe hither the trybe of Leui, and set them before Aaron the prest, yt they maye serue wt him, & wayte vpon him
 7 & vpo the whole congregacion before ye Tabernacle of wytnesse, and execute the seruyce of the habitacion,
 8 and kepe all the apparell of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and wayte vpon the children of Israel, to mynistrer in the seruyce of the habitacion.
 9 And thou shalt geue ye Leuites vnto Aaron and his sonnes for a gift, vnto euery one his awne, from amonge the children of Israel.
 10 As for Aaron & his sonnes, thou shalt appoynte them to wayte on their prestes office. Yf another preasse therto, he shal dye.
 11 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde
 12 Beholde, I haue take the Leuites fro amonge the childe of Israel, for all the first borne that open the Matrix amonge the children of Israel, so that the Leuites shalbe myne.

 13 For the firstborne are myne, sence ye tyme that I smote all the first borne in ye lande of Egipte, wha I sanctified vnto me all the first borne in Israel, from me vnto catell, that they shulde be myne. I the LORDE.
 14 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses in the wyldernesse of Sinai, and sayde:
 15 Nombre the children of Leui after their fathers houses and kynreds, all that are males of a moneth olde and aboue.
 16 So Moses nombred them accordinge to the worde of the LORDE, as he had comaunded.
 17 And these were the children of Leui with their names: Gerson, Rahath, Merari.

 40 And ye LORDE saide vnto Moses: Nombre all the first borne, that are males amonge the children of Israel, of a moneth olde and aboue, and take the nombre of their names.
 41 And ye Leuites shalt thou take out vnto me the LORDE, for all ye first borne of ye childe of Israel, & the catell of the Leuites for all the first borne amonge the catell of ye children of Israel.
 42 And Moses nombred all the first borne amonge the childe of Israel, as the LORDE comaunded him.

Chapter 4

1 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses & Aaron,
 2 & sayde: Take ye summe of the childe

 3 from thirtie yeare and aboue vntill fiftye yeare, all that are mete for the warre, that they maye do the worke in the Tabernacle of wytnesse.
 4 This shal be the office of the children of Rahath in the Tabernacle of wytnesse, which is most holy.
 5 Whan the hoost breaketh vp, Aaron and his sonnes shal go in, and take downe the vayle, and couer the Arke of wytnesse therewith,
 6 and laye the couerynge of doo skynnes vpon it, and sprede a whole yalowe clothe aboute theron, and put his stauces therin.
 7 And vpon the shewe table they shal sprede a yalowe clothe also, and set ther on the disshes, spones, flatpeces and pottes to poure out and in, and the daylie bred shal lye vpon it,

 15 Now whan Aaron and his sonnes haue done this, and haue couered the Sanctuary & all the ornamentes therof, whan the hoost breaketh vp, then shal the children of Rahath go in, that they maye beare it, and the Sanctuary shall they not touche, lest they dye. This is the charge of the childe of Rahath in the Tabernacle of wytnesse.
 16 And Eleasar the sonne of Aaron ye prest, shal haue the office, to prepare the oyle for the light, and the spyces for the incense, and the daylie meatofferynge, and the anoyntinge oyle, to order the whole habitacion, & all that therin is, in the Sanctuary and the ornamentes therof.
 17 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses and Aaron, & sayde:
 18 Ye shal not destroye the trybe of the kynred of the Rahathites amonge the Leuites, 19 but this shal ye do with them, yt they maye lyeue & not dye, yf they touche the most holy. Aaron and his sonnes shal go in, and appoynte euery one vnto his office & charge.

20 But they shal not go in, presumptuously to loke vpo ye Sanctuary, lest they die.

21 And ye LORDE spake vnto Moses and Aaron & sayde:

24 This shalbe the office of the kynred of the Gersonites, eue to serue & to beare.

25 They shal beare the curtaynes of the habitacion and of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and his couerynge and the coueringe of doo skynnes, that is aboue theron, and the hanginge in the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, 27 Acordinge vnto the worde of Aaron and of his sonnes, shal all the office of the children of Gerson be done, what so euer they shall beare and occupye. And ye shal se, that they wayte vpon all their charge.

28 This shal be ye office of ye kinred of ye childre of ye Gersonites in ye Tabernacle of wytnes. And their waytinge shal be vnder ye hade of Ithamar, the sonne of Aaro the prest.

29 The children of Merari after their kynred and fathers house, shalt thou appoynte also,

30 from thirte yeare and aboue, vnto fyfthe yeare, all that are mete for the warre, yt they maye haue an office in the Tabernacle of wytnesse.

31 But vpon this charge shall they wayte acordinge to all their office in ye Tabernacle of wytnesse, that they beare the bordes of the Habitacion, and the barres, and pilers, and sokettes:

32 the pilers of the courte also rounde aboute, and the sokettes and nales and cordes, with all their apparell, acordinge to all their seruyce. And vnto euery one shall ye appoynte his porcion of charge to waite vpon the apparell.

33 Let this be the office of the kynred of the children of Merari, all that they shall do in the Tabernacle of wytnesse vnder the hande of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the prest.

34 And Moses and Aaron with the captaynes of the congregacion, nombred the children of ye Rahathites, acordinge to their kynreds and houses of their fathers, 35 from thirte yeare and aboue, vntyll fyfthe, all that were mete for the warre, to haue offyce in the Tabernacle of wytnesse.

36 And the summe was, two thousande, seuen hundreth and fyfthe.

37 This is the summe of the kynred of the Rahathites (which all had seruyce in the Tabernacle of wytnesse) whom Moses and Aaron nombred, acordinge to the worde of the LORDE by Moses.

38 The children of Gerson were nombred also in their kynreds and fathers houses 39 from thirte yeare and aboue vntyll fyfthe, all that were mete for the warre, to haue office in ye Tabernacle of wytnesse, 40 and the summe was two thousande, syxe hundreth and thirthe.

41 This is ye summe of the kinred of the childre of Gerson, which all had to do in the Tabernacle of wytnesse, whom Moses and Aaron nombred, acordinge to ye worde of ye LORDE.

42 The children of Merari were nombred also acordinge to their kynreds and fathers houses,

48 was eight thousande fyue hundreth and foure score,

49 which were nombred acordinge to the worde of the LORDE by Moses, euery one to his office & charge, as the LORDE commaunded Moses.

Chapter 5

1 And ye LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde:

2 Commaunde the children of Israel, yt they put out of the hoost all ye lepers, and all that haue yssues, and that are defyled vpon the deed,

3 both men and wome shall they putt out of the hoost, that they defyle not their tentes, wherin I dwell amonge them.

4 And ye children of Israel dyd so, and put them out of the hoost, as ye LORDE had sayde vnto Moses.

5 And the LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde:

6 Speake vnto the children of Israel & saye vnto them: Whan a man or woman doth a synne to eny body, and offendeth therwith agaynst the LORDE, then hath that soule a trespase vpon it.

7 And they shall knowlege their synne, that they haue done, and shall make amendes for their trespase, euen with the whole summe, and put ye fifth parte more therto, and geue it vnto him, agaynst whom they haue trespased.

8 But yf there be noman to make the amendes vnto for the offence yt he hath trespased agaynst him, then shal the reconcylynge be made vnto the LORDE for the prest, besydes the ramme of the attonemet, wherwith he shalbe reconcyled.

9 Likewyse all the Heueofferynges of all that the children of Israel halowe vnto the LORDE, and offre vnto the prest, shall be his.

10 And who so haloweth eny thinge, it shalbe his. And who so geueth the prest eny thinge, it shal be his also.

11 And the LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde:

12 Speake to the children of Israel, and saye vnto them: Whan eny mans wife goth asyde, and trespaceth agaynst him,

13 & eny ma lye with her fleshlye, and the thinge be yet hyd from his eyes, and is not come to light that she is defiled, and he can brynge no wytnesse agaynst her (for she was not take therin)

14 and the sprete of gelousye kyndleth him, so that he is gelous ouer his wife: whether she be vncleane or not vncleane,

15 then shal he brynge her vnto the prest, and brynge an offerynge for her, euen the tenth parte of an Epha of barlye meelee, and shal poure no oyle theron, ner put frankensence vpon it: for it is an offerynge of gelousy, and an offeringe of remembraunce, that remembreth synne.

16 Then shall the prest brynge her, and sett her before the LORDE, 17 and take of the holy water in an earthen vessell, and put of ye dust that is on the floore of the habitacion, in to the water.

18 And he shal set the wife before ye LORDE, and vncouer hir heade, and the offeringe of remembraunce which is an offeringe of gelousy, shall he laye vpon hir handes. And the prest shal haue in his hande bytter cursinge water, and shal coniure the wife, & saye vnto her:

19 Yf no man haue lye with the, and thou hast not gone asyde from thy hu?bande, to defyle thy self, then shall not these bytter cursinge waters hurte the.

20 But yf thou hast gone asyde from thy hu?bande, so that thou art defyled, and some other man hath lye with the besyde thy hu?bande, 21 then shall the prest coniure the wife with this curse, and shal saye vnto her: The LORDE sett the to a curse and a coniuracion amonge thy people, so that the LORDE make thy thye rotte, and thy wombe to berst.

22 So go this cursed water in to thy body, that yi wombe berst, and thy thye rotte. And the wife shal saye: Amen Amen.

23 So the prest shall wryte this curse in a byll, and wash it out with the water, 24 and shall geue the wife of the bytter cursinge waters to drynke.

25 And wha the cursinge water is gone in her, so yt it is bytter vnto her then shal the prest take the gelousy offerynge out of the wyues hande, and waue it for a meatofferynge before the LORDE, and offre it vpon the altare:

26 namely, he shal take an handfull of the meatofferynge for hir remembraunce, & burne it vpo the altare, & then geue the wife the water to drinke.

27 And wha she hath dronken the water, yf she be defyled and haue trespased agaynst hir hu?bande, then shal the cursinge water go in to her, and be so bytter, that hir wombe shal berst, and hir thye shall rotte, and the wife shal be a curse amonge hir people.

28 But yf the same wife be not defyled, but is cleane, then shall it do her no harme, so that she maye be with childe.

29 This is the lawe of gelousy, whan a wyfe goeth asyde from hir hu?bande, and is defyled:

30 Or whan ye sprete of gelousy kyndleth a man, so that he is gelous ouer his wyfe, yt he brynge her before the LORDE, and that ye prest do all wt her acordinge vnto this lawe.

31 And ye man shalbe giltlesse of the synne, but the wife shal beare hir my?dede.

Chapter 6

1 And the LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde:

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and saye vnto them: Whan a man or woman separateth them selues, to vowe a vowe of abstinence vnto the LORDE,

3 he shal absteyne from wyne and stroge drynke. Vyneger of wyne & of stroge drynke shal he not drynke, ner that is pressed out of grapes: he shall nether eate fresh ner drye grapes, so longe as his abstinence endureth.

4 Morouer he shall eate nothinge that is made of the vyne tre, from the wyne cornels vnto the hulle.

5 As longe as the vowe of his abstynence endureth, there shall no rasoure come vpon his heade, tyll the tyme be out which he absteyneth vnto the LORDE, for he is holy. And he shall let the heer of his heade growe, and stonde bare openly.

6 All the tyme ouer yt he absteyneth vnto the LORDE, shal he go to no deed.

7 Nether shal he defyle him self at ye death of his father, of his mother, of his brother, or of his sister. For the abstinence of his God is vpon his heade,

8 and ye whole tyme of his abstinence shall he be holy vnto the LORDE.

9 And yf it chaunce eny man to dye sodenly before him, then shal ye heade of his abstynence be defyled. Therefore shal he shaue his heade in the daye of his clensyng, that is vpon the seuenth daye:

10 and vpon ye eight daye shall he brynge two turtill doues, or two yonge pigeons, vnto the prest before ye dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse.

11 And the prest shall make the one a synofferynge, and the other a burntofferynge, and make an attonemet for him, because he defyled himself vpon ye deed, and so shal he halowe his heade the same daye,

12 that he maye holde out the tyme of his abstinence vnto the LORDE, and he shall brynge a lambe of a yeare olde for a trespacofferynge. But ye daies afore shal be but lost, because his abstinence was defyled.

13 This is the lawe of the absteiner. Whan the tyme of his abstinence is out, he shal be brought before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse.

14 And he shal brynge his offeringe vnto the LORDE, euen an he lambe of a yeare olde without blemysh for a burnt offeringe, & a she lambe of a yeare olde without blemysh for a synofferynge, and a ramme wt out blemish for an healthofferynge, 15 & a maude wt vneued cakes of fyne floure myngled with oyle, and swete wafers anoynted with oyle, & their meatofferings & drynkofferynges.

16 And the prest shall brynge it before the LORDE, and shal make his synofferynge and his burnt offeringe, 17 and ye ramme shal he make an healthofferynge vnto the LORDE, with ye maunde of the vneued bred. His meatofferynge and drinkofferynge shal he make also.

18 And he shall shaue the heade of the absteiners abstinence before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and shall take the heade heer of his abstinence, and cast it vpon the fyre that is vnder ye healthofferynge.

19 And the sodden shulder of the ramme shall he take, and an vneued cake out of the maunde, and a swete wafer, and laye them vpon the handes of the absteiner: (after that he hath shauen of his abstinence.)

20 And he shal Waue them before the LORDE. This is holy for the prest with the Wauebrest, and Heushulder. After that, maye the absteiner drynke wyne.

21 This is the lawe of the absteiner, which voweth his offeringe vnto the LORDE for his abstynce, besydes that, which his hande can get. As he hath vowed, so shall he do acordinge to the lawe of his abstinence.

22 And the LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde:

23 Speake vnto Aaron and his sonnes, and saye: Thus shal ye saye vnto the childe of Israel, whan ye blesse them.

24 The LORDE blesse the, and kepe the.

25 The LORDE make his face to shyne vpon the, and be mercifull vnto the.

26 The LORDE lift vp his countenance vpon the, and geue the peace.

27 For they shal put my name vpon the children of Israel, that I maye blesse them.

Chapter 8

1 And the LORDE talked with Moses, & sayde:

2 Speake to Aaron, & saye vnto him: Whan thou settest vp ye lapess, thou shalt set the so, that they maye all seue geue light aboute vpo ye candilsticke.

3 And Aaron dyd so, & set ye lampes vpo ye candilsticke, as ye LORDE comaunded Moses.

4 The worke of ye candilsticke was of beate golde, both ye shaft & floures therof: Acordyng to ye visio that the LORDE had shewed Moses, euen so made he the candilsticke.

5 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde:

6 Take the Leuites fro amonge the children of Israel, & clense them.

7 But thus shalt thou do with them, that thou mayest clense them. Thou shalt sprenkle purifieng water vpon them, and lett a rasure go ouer their whole body, and washe their clothes, and then are they cleane.

8 Then shall they take a yonge bullocke, and his meatofferynge of fyne floure myngled with oyle. And another yonge bullocke shalt thou take for a synofferynge.

9 And thou shalt bryng the Leuites before the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and gather together the whole congregacion of ye children of Israel,

10 and bryng the Leuytes before the LORDE. And the children of Israel shall laye their handes vpon the Leuites.

11 And Aaron shal waue ye Leuites before the LORDE for the children of Israel, that they maye mynistrer in the seruyce of the LORDE.

12 And the Leuites shall laye their handes vpon the heedes of the bullockes, and the one shalbe made a synnofferynge, the other a burntofferynge vnto the LORDE, to make an attonement for the Leuites.

13 And thou shalt set the Leuites before Aaron and his sonnes, and waue them before the LORDE, 14 and so shalt thou separate them from ye children of Israel, that they maye be myne.

15 The shall they go in, that they maye do seruyce in the Tabernacle of wytnesse. Thus shalt thou clense the, & waue them:

16 for they are my gifte of the children of Israel, and I haue taken them vnto me for all that openeth the Matrix, namely for the first borne of all the children of Israel.

17 For euery first borne amonge the children of Israel is myne, both of men and of catell, sens the tyme that I smote all the first borne in the lande of Egipte, and sanctified them vnto myself,

18 and toke the Leuites for all the first borne amonge the childe of Israel,

19 and gaue them for a gifte vnto Aaro and his sonnes from amonge the children of Israel, yt they shulde do the seruyce of the children of Israel in the Tabernacle of wytnesse, to make attonemet for the children of Israel, that there be not a plage amonge the children of Israel, yf they wyll come nye ye Sanctuary.

20 And Moses with Aaron and the whole congregacio of the childe of Israel, dyd wt the Leuites all as the LORDE had commauded Moses.

21 And they purified the Leuites, and wa?shed their clothes. And Aaron waued them before the LORDE, and made attonment for them, that they might be cleane.

22 After that wente they in, to do their office in the Tabernacle of wytnesse before Aaron and his sonnes: as the LORDE commauded Moses concernyng the Leuites, euen so dyd they with them.

23 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses & sayde:

24 This is it that belongeth vnto the Leuites: From fyue and twentye yeare and aboue, shal they go in to the office of the Tabernacle of wytnesse.

25 But fro fyftie yeare forth, they shal cease from the waitinge of the seruyce therof, and shall mynistrer nomore, 26 but shal appoynte their brethren to waite and to serue in the Tabernacle of wytnesse: but the office shal not they execute. Thus shalt thou do with the Leuites in their seruyces, that euery one maye wayte vpon his awne charge.

Chapter 9

1 Annd the LORDE spake vnto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in ye first moneth of the seconde yeare that they were departed out of the lande of Egipte, & sayde:

2 Let the children of Israel kepe Easter in his season,

3 euen vpon the fourtene daye of this moueth at euen, in his season shall they kepe it, acordyng to all the statutes & lawes therof.

4 And Moses spake to ye childe of Israel, yt they shulde kepe Easter.

5 And they kep Easter vpo the fourtene daye of the first moneth at euen in the wilderness of Sinai. Acordyng to all that the LORDE comaunded Moses, euen so dyd the children of Israel.

6 Then were there certayne men defyled of a deed man, so that they could not kepe Easter vpon that daye: these came before Moses and Aaron the same daye,

7 and sayde vnto him: We are defiled of a deed ma: wherfore shulde we be despysed, that we must not bringe oure giftes in his season amonge the children of Israel?

8 Moses sayde vnto them: Stonde styll, I wil heare what the LORDE commaundeth you.

9 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde:

10 Speake vnto the children of Israel, & saie: Wha eny man is defyled of a deed coarse, or is gone farre from you ouer the felde, or is amonge youre kyn?folkes, yet shall he kepe Easter,

11 but in the seconde moneth vpo ye fourtene daye at euen, and they shal eate it with vnleued bred and sowre sawse, 12 and shall leaue none of it vntyll the mornynge, ner breake eny bone therof, and shal kepe it acordinge to all ye maner of ye Easter.

13 But he that is cleane, and not gone in a iourney, and is negligent to kepe the Easter, the same soule shal be roted out from amoge his people: because he brought not his gifte to the LORDE in his season, he shal beare his synne.

14 And whan there dwelleth a straunger amonge you, he shal kepe Easter also vnto the LORDE, & shal holde it acordinge to ye ordinaunce and lawe of ye Easter. This statute shal be vnto you alike, to the straunger as to him that is borne in the londe.

15 And ye same daye yt the Habitation was set vp, a cloude couered it vpo the Tabernacle of wytnesse, & at euen there was a symilitude of fyre vpon the Habitation vntill the mornynge.

16 So came it to passe allwaye, yt the cloude couered it by daye, & the symilitude of fyre by night.

17 And whan the cloude was take vp from the Habitation, then the children of Israel wente on their iourney. And loke in what place the cloude abode, there the childe of Israel pitched their tentes.

18 Acordinge to the worde of the LORDE toke the children of Israel their iourney, and acordinge to his worde pitched they their tentes. So longe as the cloude abode vpon the Habitation, they laye styll.

19 And whan the cloude taried many dayes vpon the Habitation, the childe of Israel wayted vpon the LORDE, & wente not on their iourney.

20 And whan it chaunced that the cloude abode vpo ye Habitation eny space of dayes, then pitched they acordinge to the worde of the LORDE, & after the worde of the LORDE wente they on their iourney.

21 Whan the cloude was there from the euenyng vntyll the mornynge, and so was taken vp, then wete they on their iourney: and whether it was take vp by daye or by night, they iourneyed.

22 But whan it taried vpon the habitation two dayes, or a moneth, or a longe season, then laye the children of Israel, and iourneyed not: and so whan it was taken vp, they wente on their iourney.

23 For acordinge to the mouth of the LORDE they saye, and after the mouth of the LORDE they iourneyed, so yt they kepte the LORDES watch, acordinge to the worde of the LORDE by Moses.

Chapter 10

1 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde:

2 Make the two trompettes of beaten syluer, that thou mayest vse them, to call the cogregacion together, and whan the hoost shal breake vp.

3 Whan they blowe with both, then shall the whole congregacion gather them selues together vnto the before the dore of the Tabernacle of witnesse.

4 Whan they blowe but with one, then the captaynes, the rulers ouer the thousandes in Israel shal gather them selues together vnto the.

5 Whan ye trompe, then shal the hoostes that lye on the East syde, breake vp.

6 And whan ye trompe the seconde tyme, the hoostes that lye on the South syde, shal breake vp. For ye shal trompe, whan they shal take their iourneys.

7 But whan ye congregacion is to be gathered together, ye shal blowe, and not trompe.

8 This blowinge wt the trompettes shal the sonnes of Aaron the prest do. And it shall be yor lawe for euer amonge youre posterities.

9 Whan ye go to a battayll in youre londe agaynst youre enemies yt vexe you, ye shall trompe with the trompettes, that ye maye be remembred before the LORDE yor God, and delyuered from youre enemies.

10 Like wyse whan ye are mery, and in youre feast dayes, & in youre new Monethes, ye shal blowe with the trompettes ouer youre burnt sacrifices & health offeringes, yt it maie be a remembrance vnto you before youre God. I am the LORDE youre God.

11 Vpon the twentye daye in the seconde moneth of the seconde yeaere, arose the cloude from the habitacion of witnesse.

12 And the childe of Israel wente on their iourney out of the wyldernesse of Sinai, and the cloude abode in the wyldernesse of Paran,

13 First brake vp (acordinge to the worde of the LORDE by Moses.)

14 Namely, the baner of the hoost of Iuda wente forth first with their armies, and ouer their hoost was Nahasson the sonne of Aminadab.

15 And ouer the hoost of the trybe of the children of Isachar was Nathaneel the sonne of Zuar.

16 And ouer the hoost of the trybe of the children of Zabulon was Eliab the sonne of Elon.

17 And the habitacion was taken downe, and the children of Gerson and Merari bare the habitacion.

18 After that wente the baner of the hoost of Ruben with their armies, and ouer their hoost was Elizur the sonne of Sedeur.

19 And ouer the hoost of the trybe of the children of Simeon was Selumiel the sonne of Zuri Sadai.

20 And Eliasaph the sonne of Deguel ouer the hoost of the trybe of the children of Gad.

21 Then wente the Rahathites forwarde also, and bare the Sanctuary, and caused ye habitacion be set vp agaynst they came.

22 After that wente the baner of the hoost of the children of Ephraim with their armies, and ouer their hoost was Elisama the sonne of Amihud.

23 And Gamaliel the sonne of Pedazur ouer the hoost of the trybe of the children of Manasse.

24 And Abidan the sonne of Gedeoni ouer the hoost of the trybe of the children of Ben Iamin.

25 After that wente the baner of the hoost of the children of Dan with their Armyes, (and so were all the hoostes vp) and Ahieser the sonne of Ammi Sadai was ouer their hoost.

26 And Pagiell ye sonne of Ochran, ouer the hoost of the trybe of the children of Asser.

27 And Ahira the sonne of Enan ouer the hoost of the trybe of the children of Nephthali.

28 Thus the childe of Israel wete forth with their armyes.

29 And Moses spake vnto his brother in lawe, Hobab the sonne of Raguel of Madian: We go vnto the place, of the which ye LORDE sayde: I wil geue it you: Come now with vs therfore, and we wil do ye best with the, for the LORDE hath promysed good vnto Israel.

30 But he answered: I wil not go wt you, but wil go in to myne awne londe vnto my kynred.

31 He sayde: Oh nay, leaue vs not: for thou knowest where is best for vs to pytche in the wyldernesse, and thou shalt be oure eye.

32 And yf thou goest with vs, loke what good the LORDE doth vnto vs, the same wil we do vnto the.

33 So they departed from the mount of the LORDE thre dayes iourney, & the Arke of the LORDES couenant wente before them those thre dayes iourney, to shewe the where they shulde rest.

34 And ye cloude of the LORDE was ouer them in the daye tyme, whan they wete out of ye tetes.

35 And whan the Arke wente forth, Moses sayde: Aryse LORDE, let thine enemies be scatered, and let them that hate the, flye before the.

36 And whan it rested, he sayde: Come agayne O LORDE vnto the multitude of the thousandes of Israel.

Chapter 11

1 And whan ye people waxed vnpaciet, it displeasid sore ye eares of ye LORDE. And whan the LORDE herde it, his wrath waxed whote, & the fyre of ye LORDE burnt amoge them, so yt it cosumed the vttemost of ye hoost.

2 The cryed the people vnto Moses. And Moses prayed vnto the LORDE. So ye fyre quenched.

3 And the place was called Tabera, because the fyre of the LORDE burnt amoge them.

4 Then the comon sorte of people yt was amoge them, fell a lusting, and sat & wepte wt the children of Israel, and sayde: Who wyll geue vs flesh to eate?

5 We remembre the fish, the we ate in Egipte for naught, & Cucumbers, Melouns, lekes, onyons, & garleke:

6 But now is oure soule dried awaye, oure eyes se nothinge then the Manna.

7 The Manna was like Coriader sede, and to loke vpon, like Bedellion.

8 And the people ranne here and there, & gathered it, & grounde it in Milles, and beate it in morters, and baked it in panes, and made cakes of it, and it had a taist like an oyle cake.

9 And whan ye dew fell vpon the tetes in the night, ye Manna fell therwith.

10 Now whan Moses herde the people wepe amoge their kynreds, euery one in his tet dore, then the wrath of the LORDE waxed excedinge whote. And it greued Moses also.

11 And Moses sayde vnto the LORDE: Why vexest thou thy seruauante? And why fynde not I fauoure in yi sight, yt thou layest ye burthen of all this people vpo me?

12 Haue I the coceaued all this people, or begotten them, that thou shuldest saye vnto me: Cary them in thine armes (as a nurse beareth a childe) vnto the londe, that thou hast sworne vnto their fathers?

13 Where shal I get flesh, to geue all this people? They wepe before me, and saye: Geue vs flesh, that we maye eate.

14 I am not able to beare all this people alone, for it is to heuy for me.

15 And yf thou wyll deale thus wt me: O kyll me then, yf I haue founde fauoure in thy sight, that I se not my wrechednesse.

16 And the LORDE saide vnto Moses: Gather vnto me seuentye men amonge the Elders of Israel, whom thou knowest yt they are the Elders in ye people and officers ouer them, and brynge them before the Tabernacle of witnesse, and set them there with the:

17 then wil I come downe, and talke with the euen there, & take of thy sprete that is vpon the, and putt it vpon them, that they maye beare the burthen of the people with the, yt thou beare not all alone.

18 And vnto ye people thou shalt saye: Sacrifye yor selues agaynst tomorrow, yt ye maye eate flesh: for youre wepyng is come into the eares of the LORDE, ye that saye: Who shal geue vs flesh to eate? for we were well at ease in Egipte. Therefore shal the LORDE geue you flesh to eate,

19 not one daye, not two, not fyue, not ten, not twentye dayes longe,

20 but a moneth longe, tyll it go out at youre noses, and tyll ye lothe it: euen because ye haue refused the LORDE, which is amonge you, and haue wepte before him, & sayde: Wherefore wente we out of Egipte?

21 And Moses sayde: Sixe hundreth thousande fote men are there of the people amoge whom I am, and thou sayest: I wyll geue you flesh to eate a moneth loge.

22 Shal the shepe and oxen be slayne to be ynough for them? Or shal all the fishes of the see be gathered together, to be sufficient for them?

23 The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Is the LORDES hande shortened then? But now shalt thou se, whether my wordes shall be fulfilled in dede, or no?

24 And Moses wete out, and tolde the people ye worde of the LORDE, and gathered the seuentye men amonge the Eldest of the people, & set them rounde aboute the Tabernacle.

25 Then came the LORDE downe in a cloude, & spake vnto him, & toke of the sprete yt was vpon him, & put it vpon the seuentie Elders. And whan the sprete rested vpon them, they prophecied, and ceased not.

26 But in the hoost there remayned yet two men, of whom the one was called Eldad, ye other Medad, & the sprete rested vpo them. For they were wrytten vp also, & yet were they not gone out vnto the Tabernacle, and they prophecied in the hoost.

27 Then ran there a lad, & tolde Moses, & sayde: Eldad and Medad prophecie in the hoost.

28 Then answered Iosua ye sonne of Nun Moses seruauante (whom he had chosen) and sayde: My lorde Moses, for bydde them.

29 But Moses sayde vnto him: Art thou gelous for my sake? wolde God, yt all the people of ye LORDE coulde prophecie, and that ye LORDE wolde geue them his sprete.

30 So Moses and the Elders of Israel gat them to the hoost.

31 Then wente out the wynde from ye LORDE, & caused quayles to come from the see, & scatred the ouer the hoost, here a dayes iourney, there a dayes iourney rounde aboute ye hoost, two cubytes hye aboute ye earth.

32 Then the people stode vp all that daye and all yt night, and all the nexte daye, and gathered quayles: and he that gathered the leest, gathered ten Homers, & they kylled them rounde aboute the hoost.

33 But whyle ye flesh was yet betwene their tethe, & or euer it was vp, the wrath of the LORDE waxed whote amonge the people, and slewe them with an excedinge greate slaughter.

34 Therefore is the same place called the graues of lust, because the voluptuous people were buried there.

35 From the lustgraues toke the people their iourney vnto Hazeroth, and abode at Hazeroth.

Chapter 12

1 And Miriam & Aaron spake agaynst Moses because of his wife the Morian which he had taken, because he had take a Morian to wife,

2 and they sayde: Doth the LORDE speake onely thorow Moses? Speaketh he not also by vs? And the LORDE herde it.

3 But Moses was a very meke man, aboute all men vpon earth.

4 And haistely spake the LORDE vnto Moses, and to Aaron, and to Miriam: Go out ye thre vnto ye Tabernacle of wytnesse. And they wente out all thre.

5 Then came the LORDE downe in the cloudy piler, & stode in the dore of the Tabernacle, & called Aaron & Miriam, & they both wete out.

6 And he sayde: Heare my wordes: Yf eny man be a prophet of the LORDE, vnto him wil I shewe my self in a vision, or wil speake vnto him in a dreame.

7 But not so wt my seruauant Moses, which is faithfull in all my house.

8 Mouth to mouth speake I vnto him, & he seyth the LORDE in his fashion, not thorow darke wordes or licknesses: Wherefore were ye not afrayed then to speake agaynst my seruauant Moses?

9 And ye wrath of the LORDE waxed whote ouer them, & he turned him awaye.

10 and ye cloude also departed from the Tabernacle. And beholde, then was Miriam become leporous, as it were snowe. And Aaron turned him vnto Miriam, and sawe that she was leporous, 11 and sayde vnto Moses: Oh my lorde, put not the synne vpon vs, which we haue foolishly committed and synned, 12 that she be not as one that commeth deed out of his mothers wombe: It hath eaten vp half hir flesh allready.

13 But Moses cried vnto the LORDE, & sayde: Oh God, heale her.

14 The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Yf hir father had spytted in hir face, shulde she not be ashamed seuen dayes? Let her be shut out of ye hoost seue dayes, after yt let her be receaued agayne.

15 So Miriam was shut out of the hoost seue dayes, & the people wente no farther, tyll Miriam was receaued agayne.

16 Afterwarde departed the people from Hazeroth, and pitched in ye wilderness of Paran.

Chapter 13

1 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde:

2 Sende forth men to spye out ye lande of Canaan (which I wil geue vnto ye children of Israel) of euery trybe of their fathers a man, and let them all be soch as are captaynes amonge them.

3 Moses sent the out of the wilderness of Paran, acordinge to the worde of the LORDE, soch as were all heades amonge the children of Israel, and these are their names:

4 Samma the sonne of Zacur, of the trybe of Ruben.

5 Saphat the sonne of Hori, of the trybe of Simeon.

6 Caleb ye sonne of Iephune, of the trybe of Iuda.

7 Igeal the sonne of Ioseph, of the trybe of Isachar.

8 Hosea the sonne of Nun, of ye trybe of Ephraim.

9 Palti the sonne of Raphu, of the trybe of Ben Iamin.

10 Gadiel the sonne of Sodi, of ye trybe of Zabulon.

11 Gaddi the sonne of Susi, of the trybe of Ioseph of Manasse.

12 Ammiel the sonne of Gemalli, of the trybe of Dan.

13 Sethur ye sonne of Michael, of the trybe of Asser.

14 Nahebi the sonne of Vaphsi, of the trybe of Nephtali.

15 Guel the sonne of Machi, of the trybe of Gad.

16 These are the names of the men, whom Moses sent forth to spye out the lande. As for Hosea the sonne of Nun, Moses called him Iosua.

17 Now whan Moses sent the forth to spye out the lande of Canaan, he sayde vnto the: Go vp southwarde, and get you vp to the mountaynes,

18 and loke vpon the londe how it is: and the people that dwell therin, whether they be stronge or weake, fewe or many:

19 and what maner of lande it is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad: & what maner of cities they be that they dwell in, whether they be fenced with walles, or not:

20 and what maner of lande it is, whether it be fatt or leane, and whether there be trees therin, or not. Be of a good corage, and bringe of the frutes of the londe. It was euen aboute the tyme, that grapes are first rype.

21 They wente vp, & spyed the lande, from ye wilderness of Zin; vntyll Rehob, as me go vnto Hemath.

22 They wente vp also towarde the south, and came vnto Hebron, where Ahiman was, and Sesai and Thalmi, the children of Enack (Hebron was buylded seuen yere before Zoan in Egipte.)

23 And they came to the ryuer of Escol, and there they cut downe a cluster of grapes, and caused two to beare it vpon a staffe, pomgranates also and fygges.

24 The place is called the ryuer of Escol, because of the cluster of grapes, which the children of Israel cut downe there.

25 And whan they had spyed out the lande, they turned bake agayne after fourtye daies,

26 and wente, and came to Moses and Aaron, & to the whole congregacion of ye children of Israel in to ye wilderness of Paran, eue vnto Cades, and brought them worde agayne, and to the whole congregacion, how it stode, and let them se the frute of the lande,

27 and tolde them, and sayde: We came in to ye lande, whither ye sent vs, where it floweth with mylke and hony, and this is the frute therof:

28 sauynge that stronge people dwell therin, and the cities are exceedinge stronge and greate. And we sawe the children of Enack there also.

29 The Amalechites dwell in the south countre, the Hethites, and Iebusites and Amorites dwell vpon the mountaynes, but the Cananites dwell by the see, and aboute Iordane.

30 Howbeit Caleb stilled ye people that was agaynst Moses, and sayde vnto them: Let vs go vp, and conquere the lande, for we are able to ouercome it.

31 But the men that wente vp with him, sayde: We are not able to go vp agaynst that people, for they are to stronge for vs.

32 And of the lande that they had searched, they brought vp an euell reporte amonge the childre of Israel, and saide: The lade that we haue gone thorow to spye out, eateth vp the indwellers therof: and all the people that we sawe therin, are men of greate stature.

33 We sawe giauntes there also, yee giauntes as the children of Enack: and we semed in oure sighte as ye greshoppers, and so dyd we in their sighte.

Chapter 14

1 Then the whole cogregacion toke on, and cryed, and the people wepte yt night.

2 And all the childre of Israel murmured agaynst Moses and Aaron, and the whole congregacion sayde vnto them: Oh that we had dyed in the lande of Egipte, or that we might dye yet in this wilderness.

3 Wherefore bryngeth the LORDE vs in to this lande, that oure wyues shulde fall thorow the swerde, and ouer children be a praye? Is it not better, that we go agayne in to Egipte?

4 And they sayde one to another: Let vs make a captayne, and go into Egipte agayne.

5 But Moses & Aaron fell vpo their faces before ye whole cogregacion of the multitude of the childre of Israel.

6 And Iosua ye sonne of Nun, & Caleb ye sonne of Iephune (which also had spyed out the lande) rente their clothes,

7 & spake to the whole cogregacion of the children of Israel: The londe yt we haue walked thorow to spye it out, is a very good lande.

8 Yf the LORDE haue lust vnto vs, he shal brynge vs in to the same londe, & geue it vs, which is a lade that floweth with mylke & hony.

9 But in anye wyse rebell not ye agaynst the LORDE, & feare not ye people of this lande, for we wil eate the vp as bred. Their defence is departed fro them, but the LORDE is wt vs, be not ye afrayed of them.

10 And all the people, bad stone them wt stones. Then appeared the glory of the LORDE in the Tabernacle of witnessse vnto all the children of Israel, 11 & the LORDE sayde vnMoses: How longe shal this people blaspheme me? And how longe wil it be, or they beleue me, for all the tokes that I haue shewed amonge them?

12 I wil smyte them with pestilence & destroye the, & wil make of the a greater & mightier people then this is.

13 But Moses sayde vnto ye LORDE: Then shal ye Egipcians heare it (for wt thy power hast thou brought this people from amoge the)

14 so shal it be tolde the inhabitants of this lande also, which haue herde, yt thou O LORDE art amonge this people, yt thou art sene from face to face, & that thy cloude stondest ouer them, and that thou goest before them in the cloudy piler on the daye tyme, and in the fyrie piler on the night season.

15 Yf thou shuldest now slaye this people as one man, then the Heythen that haue herde so good reporte of the, shulde saye:

16 The LORDE was not able to brynge the people in to the londe, that he sware vnto them, therefore hath he slayne them in the wyldernes.

17 So let the power of the LORDE now be greate, acordinge as thou hast spoken and sayde:

18 The LORDE is of longe sufferance and of greate mercy, and forgeueth synne and trespace, and leaueh no man innocent, & vysiteth the my?dede of the fathers vpon the children in to the thirde and fourth generacion.

19 O be gracious now vnto the synne of this people acordinge to thy greate mercy, like as thou hast forborne this people also, euer from Egipte vnto this place.

20 And the LORDE sayde: I haue forgeue it, as thou hast saide.

21 But as truly as I lyue, all ye worlde shalbe full of my glory.

22 For of all ye men that haue sene my glory & my tokens, which I dyd in Egipte and in the wilderness, and tempted me new ten tymes, & haue not herkened vnto my voyce, 23 there shall not one se the londe that I sware vnto their fathers: nether shal eny of them that haue blasphemed me, se it.

24 But my seruaut Caleb, because there is another maner sprete with him, & because he hath folowed me, him wil I brynge in to the lande, which he hath gone thorow, & his sede shal conquere it,

25 and ye Amalechites also and the Cananites, that dwell in the lowe countrees. Tomorrow turne you, and get you to the wilderness, in the waye towarde the reed see.

26 And ye LORDE spake vnto Moses & Aaron, & sayde:

27 How loge shal this euell multitude murmur agaynst me?

28 For I haue herde the murmuringe of the childre of Israel, yt they haue murmured agaynst me. Tell them therefore: As trulye as I lyue (sayeth ye LORDE) I wil do vnto you, euen as ye haue spoken in myne eares:

29 Youre carcasses shal lye in this wilderness. And all ye that were nombred from twenty yere and aboue, which haue murmured agaynst me, 30 shall not come in to the lande (cocernynge the which I lift vp my hade, yt I wolde let you dwell therin) saue Caleb ye sonne of Iephune, and Iosua the sonne of Nun.

31 Youre children, of whom ye sayde: They shalbe a spoyle, them wyll I brynge in, so yt they shal knowe the lande, which ye haue refused.

32 But ye with youre carcasses shall lye in this wilderness,

33 and yor children shal wander in this wilderness fourtye yeaes, & beare yor whordome, tyll yor carcasses be waisted in the wilderness,

34 acordinge to the nombre of ye fourtye dayes, wherin ye spyed out the londe. A daye for a yere, so yt fourtye yeaes ye shall beare youre my?dede, that ye maye knowe what it is, whan I withdrawe my hande.

35 Euen I the LORDE haue sayde it, & wil do it in dede vnto all this euell congregacion, that haue lift vp them selues agaynst me: In this wilderness shal they be consumed, and there shal they dye.

36 So there dyed and were plaged before the LORDE all the me, whom Moses sent to spye out the lade, & came agayne, and made the whole cogregacion to murmur agaynst it, because they brought vp a my?reporte of the lande, 37 that it was euell.

38 But Iosua the sonne of Nun, and Caleb ye sonne of Iephune were left alyue, of the men that wente to spye out the lande.

39 And Moses spake these wordes vnto all the children of Israel. The toke the people greate sorowe.

40 And they arose early in ye mornynge, and wente vp to the toppe of ye mountayne, and sayde: Lo, here are we, and will go vp to the place, wherof the LORDE hath sayde: for we haue synned.

41 But Moses sayde: wherfore go ye on this maner beyonde ye worde of the LORDE? It shal not prospere with you: 42 go not vp (for ye LORDE is not amoge you) yt ye be not slayne before yor enemies.

43 For the Amalechites and Cananites are there before you, & ye shal fall thorow ye swerde, because ye haue turned yor selues from the LORDE, and the LORDE shal not be with you.

44 But they were blynded to go vp to the toppe of the mountaine: neuertheles the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt & Moses came not out of the hooste.

45 Then came downe ye Amalechites & Cananites which dwelt vpon that mountayne, and smote them and hewed them, euen vnto Horma.

Chapter 15

1 And the LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde:

2 Speake to the childe of Israel, & saye vnto them: Whan ye come in to the lande of youre dwellinge, which I shal geue you,

3 and wil do sacrifice vnto the LORDE, whether it be a burntofferynge, or an offrynge for a speciall vowe, or a frewyll offerynge, or youre feast offerynges, that ye maye make a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE, of oxen or of shepe.

4 He yt wil offre now his gifte vnto ye LORDE, shal brynge for the meatofferynge a teth deale of fyne floure myngled with oyle of the fourth parte of an Hin,

5 and wyne for ye drynkofferynge the fourth parte of an Hin also: to the burntofferynge, or eny other offerynge, whan a lambe is offred.

6 But wha there is a ramme offred, thou shalt make the meatofferynge two teth deales of fyne floure myngled with oyle, of the thirde parte of an Hin,

7 and ye thirde parte of an Hin of wyne also for a drynkofferynge: this shalt thou offre for a swete saour vnto the LORDE.

8 But yf thou wilt offre an oxe for a burntofferynge, or for a speciall vowe offerynge, or for an healthofferynge vnto the LORDE, 9 thou shalt brynge to the oxe, the meatoffrynge, euen thre tenth deales of fyne floure mingled with half an Hin of oyle, & half an Hin of wyne for a drynkoffrynge.

10 This is an offerynge of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE.

11 Thus shalt thou do with an oxe, with a ramme, with a lambe, and with a goate.

12 Acordinge as the nombre of the offerynges is, thereafter shall the nombre of the meatofferynges and drynkofferynges be also.

13 He that is one of youre selues, shall do this, that he maye offre a sacrifice of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE.

14 And yf there dwell a straunger with you, or is amoge youre kyn?folkes, and wil do an offerynge vnto the LORDE for a swete sauoure, the same shal do as ye do.

15 Let there be one statute for the whole cogregacion, both vnto you and to the straungers. A perpetuall statute shal it be vnto youre posterities, that the straunger be eue as ye before ye LORDE.

16 One lawe, and one ordinaunce shalbe vnto you and to the straunger that dwelleth with you.

17 And the LORDE talked with Moses, & sayde:

18 Speake to the children of Israel, and saye vnto them: Whan ye come in to the lande, in to ye which I shal brynge you,

19 so that ye eate the bred of the londe, ye shal heue vp an Heueofferynge vnto the LORDE,

20 namely, a cake of the firstlinges of youre dowe shall ye geue for an Heueofferynge: as the Heueofferynge of the barne, 21 euen so shal ye geue the firstlinges of youre dowe also vnto the LORDE, for an Heueofferynge amonge youre posterities.

22 And whan ye thorow ignoraunce ouer se eny of these commaundementes, which the LORDE hath spoken by Moses,

23 and all yt the LORDE hath commaunded you by Moses (from the daye that the LORDE beganne to commaunde for youre posterities)

24 and the cogregacion do ought ignorauntly, the shal the whole congregacion offre a yonge bullocke from amonge the greate catell to a burntofferynge, for a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE, with his meatofferynge and drynkofferynge as the maner is, and an he goate for a synofferynge.

25 And so shal the prest make an attonement for the whole congregacion of the children of Israel, and it shalbe forgeuen them: for it is an ignoraunce. And they shal brynge these their giftes for an offerynge vnto the LORDE, and their synofferynge before the LORDE for their ignoraunce,

26 and it shalbe forgeuen the whole congregacion of the childe of Israel, & the straunger also yt dwelleth amonge you, for so moch as all the people is in soch ignoraunce.

27 Yf one soule synne thorow ignoraunce, the same shal brynge a she goate of a yeare olde for a synofferynge.

28 And the prest shall make an attonement for soch an ignoraunt soule with the synofferynge for the ignoraunce before the LORDE, that he maye reconcyle him, and it shal be forgeuen him.

29 And it shal be one lawe, (that ye shal do for ye ignoraunce) both vnto him that is borne amonge the children of Israel, and to the straunger that dwelleth amonge you.

30 But yf a soule do ought presumptuously, whether he be one of youre selues or a straunger, he hath despysed the LORDE: ye same soule shalbe roted out from amoge his people: 31 because he hath despysed the worde of the LORDE, and hath left his commaundement vndone: that soule shall vtterly perishe, his synne shalbe vpon him.

32 Now whyle the children of Israel were in the wyldernesse, they founde a man gatherynge stickes vpon the Sabbath daye.

33 And they that founde him gatherynge stickes, brought him vnto Moses and Aaron, and before the whole congregacion.

34 And they put him in preson, for it was not declared what shulde be done vnto him.

35 The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: The man shall dye the death, the whole congregacion shal stone him without the hoost.

36 Then the whole cogregacion brought him out of ye hoost, and stoned him that he dyed, as ye LORDE commaunded Moses.

37 And ye LORDE sayde vnto Moses:

38 Speake to the childe of Israel, & saye vnto the, yt they make them gardes vpon ye quarters of their garments amonge all yor posterities, and put yalowe rybandes vpon the gardes in ye quarters.

39 And ye gardes shal serue you, yt ye maye loke vpon the, and remembre all the comaundementes of the LORDE, & do them: that ye order not youre selues after ye meanyng of youre awne hert, ner go awhorynge after youre awne eyes.

40 Therefore shal ye remembre and do all my commaundementes, and be holy vnto youre God.

41 I am the LORDE youre God, which brought you out of the lande of Egipte, to be yor God. Euen I the LORDE youre God.

Chapter 16

1 And Corah the sonne of Iezehar the sonne of Kahath, the sonne of Leui, with Dathan and Abiram the sonne of Eliab, and On the sonne of Peleth, ye sonnes of Rube,

2 tode vp agaynst Moses, with certayne men amonge the childe of Israel, two hundreth & fyfte captaynes of the congregacion, councelers, & famous men.

3 And they gathered them selues agaynst Moses & Aaro & sayde vnto them: Ye make to moch adoo, for all the congregacion is holy euery one, and the LORDE is amonge them: Why lifte ye youre selues vp then aboue the congregacion of the LORDE?

4 Whan Moses herde yt, he fell vpo his face,

5 & saide vnto Corah, & to all his company: Tomorrow shal ye LORDE shewe who is his, & who is holy to come vnto him. Who so euer he choseth, ye same shal come vnto him.

6 This do: Take ye censors, thou Corah & all yi copanye,

7 & do fyre therin, & put incense theron tomorow before the LORDE: then whom so euer the LORDE choseth, the same shal be holy. Ye make to moch a doo, ye children of Leui.

8 And Moses sayde vnto Corah: Heare ye childe of Leui,

9 it not ynough vnto you, yt ye God of Israel hath separated you fro ye multitude of Israel, yt ye shulde come nye him, to do the seruce of the dwellynge place of the LORDE, and stonde before the people to mynister vnto them?

10 He hath caused the and all thy brethren the childe of Leui with the, to come nye vnto him: and now ye seke the presthode also.

11 Thou and all thy copanye conspyre agaynst the LORDE. What is Aaron, that ye shulde murmur against him?

12 And Moses sent to call Datha & Abira ye sonnes of Eliab. But they saide: We wil not come vp.

13 Is it to litle yt thou hast brought vs out of ye lande of Egipte (yt floweth wt mylke & hony) to kyll vs in ye wilderness: but thou must raigne ouer vs also?

14 How goodly well hast thou brought vs in to a lande, that floweth wt milke and hony, & geue vs felde and vyniardes in possession? Wilt thou put out these mens eyes? We will not come vp.

15 Then was Moses very wroth, & saide vnto ye LORDE: Turne ye not vnto their meatofferynges. I haue not take so moch as an Asse fro the, nether haue I hurte eny of the.

16 And Moses sayde vnto Corah: Tomorrow be thou & all yi copanye before ye LORDE, thou, and they, & Aaron.

17 And take euery one his censer, and put incense therin, and come before the LORDE, euery one with his censer (that is two hundreth and fiftye censers) and both thou and Aaron take either his censer.

18 And euery one toke his censer, and put fyre therin, and layed incense theron, and came before the dore of the Tabernacle of witnes, and Moses and Aaron also.

19 And Corah gathered ye whole congregacio agaynst the before the dore of the Tabernacle of witnes. But ye glory of the LORDE appeared before ye whole congregacion.

20 And ye LORDE spake vnto Moses & Aaron, & sayde:

21 Separate youre selues fro this congregacio, yt I maye shortly consume them.

22 And they fell vpon their faces, & sayde: O God, thou God of the spretes of all flesh, yf one man haue synned, wilt thou therefore be wroth ouer the whole congregacion?

23 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & saide:

24 Speake to the congregacio, and saye: Come vp from ye dwellynge of Corah, and Dathan, and Abiram.

25 And Moses stode vp, & wente vnto Dathan & Abiram, & the Elders of Israel folowed him, 26 & he spake to ye congregacio, & saide: Departe fro ye tentes of these vngodly me & touche nothings yt is theirs, yt ye perishe not in eny of their synnes.

27 And they gat them vp from the dwellynge of Corah, Dathan, & Abiram. But Dathan and Abira came out, and stode in the dore of their tentes, with their wyues, and sonnes and children.

28 And Moses sayde: Hereby shal ye knowe that the LORDE hath sent me, to do all these workes, and that I haue not done them of myne awne hert.

29 Yf these men dye the comon death of all men, or be vysited as all men are vysited, then hath not the LORDE sent me.

30 But yf the LORDE make a new thinge, and the earth open hir mouth, and swalowe them with all that they haue, so yt they go downe quycke in to hell, the shal ye knowe, that these men haue blasphemed the LORDE.

31 And wha he had spoke out all these wordes, ye groude cloue asunder vnder the,

32 & the earth opened hir wouth, & swallowed the, wt their houses, & all the me yt were wt Corah, & all their substauce, 33 and they wente downe quycke in to the hell, with all that they had. And the earth closed vpo them, & so they perished from amonge ye congregacio.

34 And all Israel yt were aboute the, fled at ye crye of the, for they sayde: That ye earth swalowe not vs also.

35 Morouer the fyre came out fro the LORDE, and consumed the two hundreth and fyfthe men, that offred the incense.

36 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde:

37 Speake to Eleasar ye sonne of Aaron ye prest, yt he take vp ye censers out of ye burninge, & scater ye fyre here & there

38 (For the censers of these synners are halowed thorow their soules) yt they maye be beate in to thinne plates, & fastened vpon ye altare. For they are offred before ye LORDE, & halowed: and they shalbe a token vnto ye childre of Israel.

39 And Eleasar the prest toke ye brasen censers which they yt were burnt, had offred, & bet the to plates, to fasten the vpon ye altare

40 for a remembraunce vnto ye children of Israel yt no straunger (and he that is not of ye sede of Aaron) come nye to offre incense before the LORDE, yt it happe not vnto him as vnto Corah and his companye, acordinge as the LORDE sayde vnto him by Moses.

41 On the nexte morow murmured ye whole congregacion of ye childre of Israel against Moses & Aaro, & saide: Ye haue slayne ye people of ye LORDE.

42 And whan the cogregacio was gathered agaynst Moses & Aaro, they turned the towarde ye Tabernacle of witnes And beholde, ye ye cloude couered ye Tabernacle, & ye glory of ye LORDE appeared.

43 And Moses & Aaro wete in before ye Tabernacle of witnes.

44 And ye LORDE spake vnto Moses & sayde:

45 Get you out of this cogregacion, I wil shortly consume the. And they fell vpon their faces.

46 And Moses sayde vnto Aaron: Take the ceser & put fyre therin fro of the altare, & laye incense theron, & go soone to the cogregacion, & make an attonement for them. For the wrath is gone out from the LORDE, and the plage is begone amonge the people.

47 And Aaron dyd as Moses sayde, & ranne in the myddest amonge ye congregacio. And beholde, ye plage was begone. And he burnt incense & made an attonemet for the people, 48 & stode betwene the deed & the lyuyng, and the plage ceased.

49 But there were fourtene thousande, and seue hundreth deed in the plage, besydes them that dyed aboute the busynesse of Corah.

50 And Aaron came agayne vnto Moses before the dore of the Tabernacle of witnesse. And the plage ceased.

Chapter 17

1 And ye LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde

2 Speake to the children of Israel, & take of the twolue stauces, of euery captayne of his fathers house one, and wryte euery mans name vpon his staffe.

3 But Aarons name shalt thou wryte vpon the staffe of Leui. For euery heade of their fathers house shal haue a staffe.

4 And laye the in the Tabernacle of witnesse, before the witnesse where I testifie vnto you.

5 And loke whom I shall chose, his staffe shal florishe, yt I maye styll the grudginges of the children of Israel, which they grudge agaynst you.

6 And Moses spake vnto the childre of Israel, & all their captaynes gaue him twolue stauces, euery captayne a staffe, after ye house of their fathers. And Aarons staffe was amonge their stauces also.

7 And Moses layed the stauces before the LORDE in the Tabernacle of witnesse.

8 On the morow wha Moses wete in to ye Tabernacle of witnesse, he foude yt Aaros rodde of the house of Leui florishe, and brought forth blossoms, & bare allmondes.

9 And Moses brought forth all ye stauces fro ye LORDE before all ye childre of Israel, that they might se it. And they toke euery ma his staffe.

10 The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Bringe Aaros staffe againe before the wytnesse, yt it maye be kepte for a toke to the children of rebellion, that their murmuringes maye cease fro me, lest they dye.

11 Moses dyd as ye LORDE comaunded him.

12 And ye childre of Israel sayde vnto Moses: Beholde, we cosume awaie, we are destroyed, & perishe.

13 Who so cometh nye ye dwellynge place of ye LORDE, he dyeth. Shal we the vtterly cosume awaie?

Chapter 18

1 And the LORDE sayde vnto Aaron: Thou & thy sonnes, & thy fathers house wt the shal beare the my?dede of ye Sactuary: & thou & thy sonnes wt the, shall beare the my?dede of yor presthode.

2 But thy brethren of the trybe of Leui yi father, shal come nye the, & be ioyned vnto the, that they maye mynistrer vnto ye. But thou & thy sonnes wt the, shal mynistrer before ye Tabernacle of witnesse.

3 And they shal wayte vpo ye seruyce & vpon ye seruyce of the whole Tabernacle. But nye vnto the vessels of ye Sactuary & to the altare, shall they not come, yt both they & ye dye not:

4 howbeit they shal be ioyned vnto the, to wayte vpo the mynistracion in the Tabernacle of witnesse, in all the seruice of the Tabernacle. And there shal no straunger come nye vnto you.

5 Therefore wayte now vpon the seruyce of the Sanctuary, and vpon the seruyce of the altare, that there come no more wrath vpon the children of Israel.

6 For lo, I haue take yor brethre the Leuites fro amonge the children of Israel, to be youre gifte, for a presente vnto ye LORDE, to do ye seruyce in ye Tabernacle of witnes.

7 As for ye, and yi sonnes with the, ye shal waite vpon youre prestes office, that ye maye ministrer in all maner busynes of the altare, and within the vayle: for yor prestes office geue I vnto you for a gifte to do seruyce. Yf a straunger come nye, he shall dye.

8 And the LORDE sayde vnto Aaron:

beholde, I haue geuen the my Heueofferynges: And all that the children of Israel halowe, haue I geuen vnto the, and to thy sonnes for a perpetuall dewtie.

9 This shalt thou haue of the most holy thinges that they offer. All their giftes with all their meatofferings, and with all their synofferynges, and wt all their trespace offerynges, that they geue me, the same shal be most holy vnto the and yi sonnes.

10 In the most holy place shalt thou eate it. All that are males shall eate therof: For it shal be holy vnto the.

11 The Heue offeryng of their giftes in all the Wauceofferynges of the children of Israel, haue I geuen vnto the also, and to thy sonnes, and to thy daughters for a perpetuall dewtie. Who so is cleane in thy house, shal eate therof.

12 All the fat of the oyle, and all ye fat of the wyne and corne of their firstlings, that they geue vnto the LORDE, haue I geuen vnto ye.

13 The first frutes of all that is in their londe, which they bringe vnto the LORDE, shal be thine. Who so euer is cleane in thine house, shal eate therof.

14 All dedicate thinges in Israel shal be thine.

15 All that breaketh the Matrix amonge all flesh, which they bryng vnto the LORDE, whether it be man or beest, shalbe thine. But so, that thou cause the firstborne of ma to be redemed, and that thou cause the first borne of vnclane beestes to be redemed also

16 (They shal redeme it whan it is a moneth olde, and shall geue it lowse for money, euen for fyue Sycles, after the Sycle of the Sanctuary, which Sycle is worth twentye Geras.)

17 But the first frutes of an ox, or lambe, or goate shalt thou not cause to be redemed for they are holy. Their bloude shalt thou sprenkle vpon the altare, and their fat shalt thou burne for an offeryng of a swete sauoure vnto ye LORDE.

18 Their flesh shalbe thine, like as ye Wauebrest and ye right shulder is thine also.

19 All the Heueofferings that ye childre of Israel halowe vnto ye LORDE, haue I geuen vnto the, & to thy sonnes, & to thy daughters with the for a perpetuall dewtie. This shalbe a salted couenaut for euer before ye LORDE, vnto the and thy sede with the.

20 And the LORDE sayde vnto Aaro: Thou shalt inheret nothings in their londe, ner haue eny porcio amonge them: for I am yi porcion, and thine enheritaunce amoge the children of Israel.

21 Vnto the children of Leui haue I geuen all the tithes in Israel to inheritaunce, for ye seruyce which they do vnto me in the Tabernacle of witnesse, 22 that from hece forth the children of Israel come not nye the Tabernacle of witnes, to lade them selues with synne, and to dye:

23 But the Leuites shal do the seruyce in the Tabernacle of witnes, & shal beare their synne, for a perpetuall lawe amonge youre posterities. And they shall inheret none inheritaunce amonge the children of Israel.

24 For ye tithes of the childre of Israel, which they Heue vnto ye LORDE, haue I geuen vnto the Leuites for an heretage. Therefore haue I sayde vnto them, that they shall inheret no inheritaunce amonge the children of Israel.

25 And ye LORDE talked wt Moses, & saide:

26 Speake to the Leuites, & saye vnto them: Wha ye take of ye childre of Israel ye tithes, yt I haue geuen you of the for yor inheritaunce, ye shal take an Heueofferinge of the same vnto the LORDE, euen the tenth of the tithe.

27 And the same yor Heueofferynge shall ye reken, as though ye gaue come out of the barne, and fullnesse out of the wynepresse.

28 Thus shal ye geue an Heueofferynge vnto the LORDE of all yor tithes, which ye take of the children of Israel, yt ye maie geue the same Heueofferynge of ye LORDE, vnto Aaro ye prest.

29 And all yt ye geue of ye tythes, & halowe vnto ye LORDE for a gifte, ye same shall be his of the best.

30 And saye thou vnto them: Whan ye thus Heue vp ye fat therof, it shalbe rekened vnto the Leuites as the increace of the barne, and as the increace of the wine presse.

31 And ye maye eate it in all places, ye & yor children: for it is youre rewarde for youre seruyce in the Tabernacle of witnesse:

32 and ye shal not lade synne vpon you in the same, whan ye Heue the fat therof, and vnhalowe not the halowed thinges of the children of Israel, and ye shal not dye.

Chapter 19

1 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses & Aaro & sayde:

2 This custome shall be a lawe, which the LORDE hath comaunded, & sayde: Speake vnto ye children of Israel, yt they brynge vnto ye a reed cow without spot, wherin is no blemysh, & vpon who there came neuer yock:

3 and ye shal geue her vnto Eleasar the prest, which shall brynge her without the hooste, and cause her to be slayne there before him.

4 And Eleasar ye prest shal take of hir bloude with his fynger, and sprenckle it seuen tymet straight towarde the dore of the Tabernacle of witnesse, and cause the cow to be burnt before him,

5 both hir?kynne and hir flesh, and hir bloude also with hir donge.

6 And the prest shal take Ceder woddd and ysope, and purple woll, and cast it vpo the cow as she burneth,

7 & he shal washe his clothes, and bathe his body with water, and the go in to the hoost, and be vnckleane vntyll ye eue.

8 And he that burnt her, shal wash his clothes also with water, and bathe his body in water, & be vnckleane vntyll ye euen.

9 And one yt is cleane, shal gather vp the a?shes of ye cow, and poure them without the hoost in a cleane place, that they maye be kepte there, for sprencklinge water to the congregacion of the childre of Israel, for it is a synofferinge.

10 And he that gathered vp the a?shes of the cow, shall wash his clothes, and be vnckleane vntyll the euen. This shalbe a perpetuall lawe vnto ye children of Israel, and to the straungers that dwell amonge you.

11 Who so now toucheth a deed ma, shal be vnckleane seuen dayes:

12 the same shall purifie himself herewith, on the thirde daye and on the seuenth daie, and then shall he be cleane. And yf he purifye not himself on the thirde daye, & on the seuenth daye, the shall he not be cleane.

13 But wha eny ma toucheth a deed persone, and wil not purifie himself, he defyleth the dwellynge of the LORDE, and the same soule shal be roted out of Israel, because the sprencklinge water is not sprenckled vpon him: and he is vnckleane, as longe as he letteth not himself be poured therof.

14 This is the lawe. Whan a ma dyeth in ye tente, who so euer goeth in to the tente, and all yt is in the tente, shal be vnckleane seue daies.

15 And euery open vessel that hath no lydd nor couerynge, is vnckleane.

16 And who so euer toucheth one yt is slayne wt the swerde vpon ye felde, or eny other deed, or a deed mans bone, or a graue, ye same is vnckleane seue dayes.

17 So now for the vnckleane persone, they shal take of ye a?shes of this burntsynofferinge, & put springinge water theron in to a vessell,

18 and a cleane man shall take ysope, & dype it in the water, and sprenckle it vpon the tente, and vpon all the vessels, and all the soules that are therin. Likewyse also vpon him, yt hath touched a deed mans bone, or a slayne persone, or a deed body, or a graue.

19 And he that is cleane, shal sprenckle vpon the vnckleane, ye thirde daye, & the seuenth daie, & purifye him on ye seuenth daye. And he shal washe his clothes, & bathe him self wt water, and so at euen he shalbe cleane.

20 But he yt is vnckleane, and wil not purifye him self, ye same soule shal be roted out of ye congregacion. For he hath defyled the Sanctuary of the LORDE, & is not sprekled wt spreklinge water, therfore is he vnckleane. And this shalbe a perpetuall lawe vnto the. And he yt sprenckled wt the spreklinge water, shall wash his clothes also.

21 And who so euer toucheth the spreklinge water, shal be vnckleane vntill the euen.

22 And what so euer he toucheth, shalbe vnckleane: & loke what soule he toucheth, shalbe vnckleane vntill the euen.

Chapter 20

1 And the childre of Israel came wt the whole cogregacion into the wildernesse of Zin in the first moneth, & the people abode at Cades. And there dyed Miriam, & was buried there.

2 And the congregacion had no water, & they gathered them selues together agaynst Moses & Aaron,

3 & the people chode with Moses, & sayde: Wolde God yt we had perished, whan oure brethre perished before the LORDE.

4 Wherfore haue ye brought the cogregacion of the LORDE in to this wildernesse, yt we shulde dye here with oure catell?

5 And wherfore haue ye brought vs out of Egipte in to this place, where men can not sowe, where are nether fygges, ner vynes, ner pomgranates, & where there is no water to drynke?

6 And Moses & Aaron wete fro the cogregacion vnto ye dore of ye Tabernacle of witnesse, & fell vpon their faces. And the glory of the LORDE appeared vnto them.

7 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde:

8 Take the staffe, & gather the cogregacion together, thou & thy brother Aaron, & speake vnto the rocke before their eyes, & it shall geue his water. And thus shalt thou prouyde the water out of the rocke, & geue the cogregacion drynke, and their catell also.

9 The toke Moses the staffe before ye LORDE, as he commaunded him,

10 & Moses & Aaron gathered the cogregacion together before the rocke, & sayde vnto the: Heare ye rebellions: Shal we prouyde you water out of this rocke?

11 And Moses lift vp his hande, & smote ye rocke wt the staffe two tymes. Then came ye water out abudantly, so yt the cogregacion dranke, and their catell also.

12 But the LORDE sayde vnto Moses & Aaron: Because ye beleued me not, to sanctifye me before ye childre of Israel, ye shal not bringe this cogregacion in to the londe that I shal geue the.

13 This is ye water of strife, where the children of Israel stroue wt the LORDE and he was sanctified vpon them.

14 And Moses sent messaungers fro Cades vnto ye kyng of ye Edomites: This worde sendeth the yi brother Israel: Thou knowest all ye trauayle that happened vnto vs, 15 how that oure fathers wente downe in to Egipte, & how we haue dwelt in Egipte a longe tyme, & how the Egipcians dealte euell with vs & or fathers.

16 And we cryed vnto ye LORDE which herde oure voyce, and sent his angell, & hath brought vs out of Egipte: And beholde, we are at Cades in ye cite without the borders of yi londe.

17 O let vs go thorow thy londe, we wyl not go thorow ye feldes ner vynyardes, ner drynke the water out of the foutaynes.

We wyl go the hye strete, and turne nether to ye right hande ner to ye lefte, tyll we be come past ye borders of thy cowntre.

18 But the Edomite answered him: Thou shal not go by me, or I wyl come agaynst ye with ye swerde.

19 The children of Israel saide vnto him: We wil go ye como hye waye, & yf we or oure catell drynke of thy water, we wil paye for it: we wil do nothinge, but passe thorow on fote onely.

20 But he sayde: Thou shalt not go thorow, And the Edomites came out against them with a mightie people & a stroge hande.

21 Thus ye Edomites denied to graute Israel passage thorow the borders of the lande. And Israel turned awaye from them.

22 And the children of Israel brake vp fro Cades, and came with the whole cogregacion vnto mount Hor.

23 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses & Aaron at mount Hor harde vpon the coastes of ye lande of ye Edomites, & sayde:

24 Let Aaro be gathered vnto his people: for he shal not come in to ye lande yt I haue geuen vnto ye children of Israel, because ye were dishobedient vnto my mouth at the water of strife.

25 Take Aaron and Eleasar and his sonne, and brynge them vp vnto mount Hor, 26 and strype Aaron out of his vestimentes, and put the vpon Eleasar his sonne and there shall Aaron be gathered (vnto his people) and dye.

27 Then dyd Moses as the LORDE comaunded him, and they wente vp vnto Mount Hor in ye sight of the whole cogregacion.

28 And Moses toke Aarons clothes, & put the vpon Eleasar his sonne. And Aaron dyed there, euen aboue vpon the mount.

29 And Moses & Eleasar came downe from the mount. And whan the whole cogregacion sawe that Aaron was awaye, they mourned for him thirtie daies thorow out the whole house of Israel.

Chapter 21

1 And whan Arad the kyng of the Cananites (which dwelt towarde the south) herde, that Israel came in by ye waie yt the spyes had founde out, he fought agaynst Israel, and toke some of them presoners.

2 Then vowed Israel a vowe vnto ye LORDE, and sayde: Yf thou wylt geue this people vnder my hande, I wyl vtterly destroye their cities.

3 And the LORDE herde ye voyce of Israel, and delyuered them the Cananites, and they vtterly destroyed them wt their cities also. And he called the place Horma.

4 Then departed they fro mount Hor on ye waye towarde the reed see, that they might go aboute the lande of the Edomites. And the soules of the people faynted by the waie

5 and they spake agaynst God and agaynst Moses: Wherefore hast thou brought vs out of the lande of Egipte, to slaye vs in the wildernesse? For here is nether bred ner water, and oure soule lotheth this lighte meate.

6 Than sent the LORDE fyrie serpentes amonge the people, which bote the peple, so that there dyed moch people in Israel.

7 The came they vnto Moses, and sayde: We haue synned, because we haue spoken agaynst the LORDE and agaynst the. Praye thou vnto the LORDE, that he take awaye the serpentes from vs. And Moses prayed for the people.

8 Then sayde the LORDE vnto Moses: Make the a brasen serpente, and set it vp for a token. Who so euer is bytten, and loketh vpon it, shal lyue.

9 Then made Moses a serpent of brasse, and set it vp for a token: and whan a serpent had bytten eny man, he behelde the brasen serpente, and recouered.

10 And the children of Israel departed, and pitched in Oboth.

11 And from Oboth they wente on, and pitched in Igrim by Abarim in the wyldernesse ouer agaynst Moab, on the Eastsyde.

12 From thence departed they, & pitched by the ryuer of Sared.

13 From thence departed they, and pitched on this syde Arnon, which is in the wyldernesse, and commeth out of the coastes of the Amorites. For Arnon is the border betwixte Moab and ye Amorites.

14 Wherefore it is spoken in the boke of the warres of the LORDE: And go with violence both on the ryuer of Arnon, 15 & on the founteyne of the riuier, which boweth downward to dwell at Ar, & leaneth theron, to be the border of Moab.

16 And from thence they came to the well. This is the well, wherof the LORDE spake vnto Moses: gather the people together, I wil geue them water.

17 Then sange Israel this songe, and they sange one after another ouer the well:

18 This is the well, that the prynces dygged: the nobles amonge the people haue digged it thorow ye teacher and their stauers. And from this wildernes they wente vnto Mathana,

19 & from Mathana vnto Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth,

20 and fro Bamoth vnto the valley that lieth in ye felde of Moab at the toppe of Pisga, and turneth towarde the wyldernesse.

21 And Israel sent messaungers vnto Siho the kynge of the Amorrites, & caused to saye vnto him:

22 Let me go thorow ye lande, we wyl not turne in to ye felde ner in to the vynyards: nether will we drynke the water of the wellles, ye hye strete wil we go, till we be past the borders of thy countre.

23 Howbeit Sihon wolde not geue the children of Israel licence to go thorow the coastes of his londe, but gathered all his people together, and wente out agaynst Israel in the wyldernesse. And whan he came to Iaheza, he fought agaynst Israel. 24 Neuertheless Israel smote him with the edge of the swerde, and conquered his lande from Arnon vnto Iabock, and vnto the children of Ammon. For the borders of the children of Ammon were stroge.

25 So Israel toke all these cities, and dwelt in all the cities of ye Amorites, namely at He?bon, and in the townes belonginge therto.

26 For He?bon the cite was Sihons the kynge of the Amorites, and he had foughten before with the kynge of the Moabites, and conquered all his londe from him vntyll Arnon.

27 Wherefore it is sayde in the prouerbe: Come vnto He?bon, let vs buylde and prepare ye cite of Sihon.

28 For there is a fyre gone out of He?bon, and a flamme from the cite of Sihon, which hath consumed Ar of ye Moabites, and the citisens of ye toppe of Arnon.

29 Wo vnto the Moab, thou people of Camos art vndone. His sonnes are put to flighte, & his daughters brought captiue vnto Sihon the kynge of the Amorites.

30 Their glory is come to naught from He?bon vnto Dibon: waisted are they vnto Nopha, which reacheth vnto Mediba.

31 Thus dwelt Israel in the lande of the Amorites.

32 And Moses sent out spyes vnto Iahezar, & they toke the townes belongynge therto, & coquered the Amorites yt were therein.

33 And they turned, & wente vp the waye towarde Basan. Then Og the kynge of Basan wete out agaynst them wt all his people, to fight in Edrei.

34 And ye LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Feare him not, for I haue geuen him wt his lande & people in to thy hande, & thou shalt do with him, as thou dydest with Sihon the kynge of the Amorites, which dwelt at He?bon.

35 And they smote him, & his sonnes, & all his people (so yt there remayned none) & coquered the londe.

Chapter 22

1 Afterwarde wete ye children of Israel, & pitched in ye felde of Moab beyonde Iordane by Iericho.

2 And whan Balac ye sonne of Ziphor sawe all that Israel had done vnto the Amorites,

3 and that the Moabites were sore afrayed of the people (yt was so greate) and that the Moabites stode in feare of the children of Israel,

4 he sayde vnto ye Elders of the Madianites: Now shal this heape lick vp all that is aboute vs, eue as an oxe licketh vp the grasse in the felde. (And Balac ye sonne of Ziphor was kynge of the Moabites at that tyme.)

5 And he sent out messaungers vnto Balaam the sonne of Beor, which was an interpreter. (The same dwelt by the water of the lande of ye children of his people) that they shulde call him, and he caused to saye vnto him: Beholde, there is come out of Egipte, a people, which couereth ye face of ye earth, and lyeth ouer agaynst me.

6 Come now therfore, and curse me this people, for they are to mightie for me, yf peradventure I might be able to smyte them, and to dryue them out of the lande.

For I wote, that whom thou blessest, he is blessed: and whom thou cursest, he is cursed.

7 And the Elders of the Moabites wente on with ye Elders of the Madianites, and had the rewarde of ye soyth sayenge in their handes, and they came vnto Balaam, & tolde him the wordes of Balaac.

8 And he saide vnto the: Tary here all night, & I will bringe you worde agayne, euen as the LORDE shal saye vnto me. So ye prynces of ye Moabites abode with Balaam.

9 And God came vnto Balaam, & sayde: What men are these, which are with ye?

10 Balaam sayde vnto God: Balac ye sonne of Ziphor the kynge of the Moabites hath sent vnto me:

11 Beholde, there is a people come out of Egipte, and couereth the face of the earth, come now therfore, & curse me the, yf peradventure I maye be able to fighte with them, & to dryue the out.

12 But God sayde vnto Balaam: Go not with them, & curse not that people, for they are blessed.

13 Then rose Balaam vp in the mornynge, & sayde vnto the prynces of Balac: Get you vnto youre londe, for the LORDE wyll not suffer me to go with you.

14 And the prynces of ye Moabites gat the vp, came to Balac, & saide: Balaam refuseth to come wt vs.

15 Then sent Balac yet a greater copany of prynces, & more honorable the they.

16 Whan they came to Balaam, they tolde him: Balac ye sonne of Ziphor sendeth ye this worde: Oh refuse not to come vnto me, 17 for I wyll promote the vnto hye honoure, & wil do what so euer thou sayest vnto me. Come I praye the, curse me this people.

18 Balaam answered, & sayde vnto ye seruautes of Balac: Yf Balac wolde geue me his house full of syluer & golde, yet coulde I not go beyonde ye worde of the LORDE my God, to do litle or greate.

19 Neuertheless tary ye here this night, yt I maye were, what the LORDE wil saye more vnto me.

20 Then came God to Balaam by night, & saide vnto him: Yf the men are come to call the, get the vp then, and go with the: but what I shal saye vnto the, that shalt thou do.

21 Then rose Balaam vp in the mornynge, & sadled his Asse, & wente wt the prynces of ye Moabites.

22 But the wrath of God waxed whote, because he wete. And the angell of ye LORDE stode in the waye, to withstode him. But he rode vpo his Asse, & two seruautes wt him.

23 And ye Asse sawe ye angell of ye LORDE stodinge in ye waye, & his swerde drawn in his hade. And ye Asse turned a syde out of ye waye, & wete in to the felde. But Balaam smote her, yt she shulde go in the waye.

24 Then stode the angell of the LORDE in ye pathe by the vynyards, where there were walles on both the sydes.

25 And whan ye Asse sawe the angell of the LORDE, she wrenshed vnto the wall, & thrust Balaams fote vnto the wall. And he smote her agayne.

26 The wete the angell of the LORDE farther, & stode in a narrow place, where there was no waye to turne, nether to the righte hade ner to ye lefte.

27 And whan the Asse sawe the angell of the LORDE, she fell downe vnder Balaam. Then was Balaams wrath furious, & smote the Asse with a staffe.

28 Then opened the LORDE the mouth of ye Asse, and she sayde vnto Balaam: What haue I done vnto the, that thou hast smytten me now thre tymes?

29 Balaam sayde vnto ye Asse: Because thou hast mocked me. Oh yt I had a swerde now in my hande, I wolde kyll the.

30 The Asse sayde vnto Balaam: Am not I thine Asse, which thou hast rydden vpon in yi tyme vnto this daye? Was I euer wonte to do so vnto the? He sayde: No.

31 Then opened the LORDE the eyes of Balaam, yt he sawe ye angell of the LORDE stondinge in ye waye, & a drawe swerde in his hade. And he enclyned him selfe, & bowed downe wt his face.

32 And the angell of the LORDE sayde vnto him: Wherefore hast thou smytte thine Asse now thre tymes? Beholde, I am come out to resiste ye, for yi waye is frowarde, & cotrary vnto me.

33 And ye Asse sawe me, & auoyded from me thre tymes: or els yf she had not turned asyde from me, I had slayne the, & saued the Asse alyue.

34 Then sayde Balaam vnto ye angell of ye LORDE: I haue synned, for I wyst not, that thou stodest in the waye agaynst me. And now yf it displease ye, I wil turne agayne.

35 The angell of ye LORDE saide vnto him: Go with the me: but thou shalt speake nothinge els, then yt I shal saye vnto ye. So Balaam wente forth wt the princes of Balac.

36 Whan Balac herde yt Balaam came, he wente out to mete him (in the cite of the Moabites yt lieth on the coaste of Arnon, which is on ye vttemost border)

37 & sayde vnto him: Dyd not I sende for ye to call the? Wherefore camest thou not then vnto me? Thinkest thou yt I am not able to promote ye vnto honou?

38 Balaam answered him: Lo, I am come vnto ye But how can I saye eny thinge els, the yt God putteth in my mouth? yt I must speake

39 So Balaam wente with Balac, and they came vnto the cite on the vttemost border of his lande.

40 And Balac slewe oxen and shepe, and sent for Balaam, and for the prynces that were with him.

41 And in the mornynge, Balac toke Balaam, and they wete vp to the hie place of Baal, that from thece he might se vnto the vttemost parte of ye people

Chapter 23

1. And Balaam sayde vnto Balac: Buylde me here seuen altares, and prouyde me here seuen bullockes, and seue rammes.

2 Balac dyd as Balaam sayde. And both Balac and Balaam offred, on euery altare a bullocke & a ramme.

3 And Balaam sayde vnto Balac: Stonde thou by yi burntofferynge, I wil go, yf happily the LORDE wil mete me, & call me, yf I maye tell the, what so euer he sheweth me. And he wente his waye, as he sayde.

4 And ye LORDE mett Balaam. And Balaam saide vnto him: Seuen altares haue I prepared, and offred on euery altare a bullocke and a ramme.

5 The LORDE put ye worde in Balaams mouth, and sayde: Go agayne vnto Balac, and saye on this wise.

6 And whan he came agayne vnto him, beholde, he stode by his burntofferynge, with all ye prynces of the Moabites.

7 Then toke he vp his parable, & sayde: Balac the kynge of the Moabites hath caused to fet me out of Syria from the moutaynes towarde the East, (& sayde:) Come, curse me Iacob: come, defye me Israel.

8 How shall I curse, whom God curseth not? How shal I defye, whom ye LORDE defyeth not?

9 For fro ye toppe of ye stonye rockes I se him, & from the hilles I beholde him. Beholde, ye people shal dwell by theselues, & shal not be rekened amoge the Heithe.

10 Who can tell the dust of Iacob, & the nombre of the fourth parte of Israel? My soule die ye death of ye righteous, and my ende be as the ende of these.

11 The saide Balac vnto Balaam: What doest thou vnto me? I caused to set ye for to curse myne enemies, & beholde, thou blessest the.

12 He answered & saide: Must I not kepe & speake yt, which the LORDE putteth in to me mouth?

13 Balac saide vnto him: Come wt me yet vnto another place, fro whence thou mayest se ye vttemost parte of them, & not se them all, and curse me them there.

14 And he toke him vp to a fre place, eue vnto the toppe of Pisga, & buylded seuen altares, and offered on euery altare a bullocke & a ramme.

15 And he sayde vnto Balac: Stonde so by thy burntoffrynge, whyle I go yonder.

16 And the LORDE mett Balaam, & put the worde in his mouth, & sayde: Go agayne vnto Balac, & saye on this wyse.

17 And whan he came to him agayne, beholde, he stode by his burntofferynge with the prynces of the Moabites. And Balac sayde vnto him: What hath the LORDE sayde?

18 And he toke vp his parable, & sayde: Ryse vp Balac & heare, marke my testimony wt thine eares thou sonne of Ziphor.

19 God is not a man yt he shulde lye, ner a mans childe yt eny thinge shulde repente him. Shulde he saye and not do? Shulde he speake & not make it good?

20 Beholde, I am brought hither to blesse, I blesse, & can not go backe there fro.

21 There is no weerynesse sene in Iacob, nether eny laboure in Israel. The LORDE his God is wt him, & the kynges trompet is amoge the.

22 God hath brought the out of Egipte, his streghth is as of an Vnicorne.

23 For there is no Sorcerye in Iacob, & no Soyth sayer in Israel. Whan the tyme cometh, it shalbe saide vnto Iacob, & to Israel, what God doth.

24 Beholde, the people shall ryse vp as a Lyonesse, & heue vp him self as a Lyon. He shal not lye downe, tyll he eate of the pray, and drynke the bloude of the slayne.

25 Then sayde Balac vnto Balaam: Thou shalt nether curse him ner blesse him.

26 Balaam answered, & sayde vnto Balac: Haue I not tolde the: All yt the LORDE speaketh, yt must I do?

27 Balac saide vnto him: Oh come, I wil brynge ye to another place, yf it maye happily please God, yt thou mayest curse the there.

28 And he brought him vp to the toppe of mount Peor, yt boweth towarde the wyldernesse.

29 And Balaam sayde vnto Balac: Buylde me here seuen altares, and prouyde me seuen bullockes and seuen rammes.

30 Balac dyd as Balaam sayde, and offered on euery altare a bullocke vnd a ramme.

Chapter 24

1 Now whan Balaam sawe yt it pleased the LORDE, that he shulde blesse Israel, he wente not (as he dyd before) to seke witches, but set his face straight towarde the wyldernesse,

2 lifte vp his eyes, and sawe Israel, how they laye acordinge to their trybes, and the sprete of God came vpon him,

3 and he toke vp his parable, and sayde: Thus sayeth Balaam the sonne of Beor:

4 Thus sayeth the man whose eyes are opened: Thus sayeth he which heareth the wordes of God, which sawe the vision of ye Allmightie: which fell downe, and his eyes were opened.

5 How goodly are thy tetes O Iacob, and thy habitacions O Israel?

6 Euen as the brode vallees, as the gardens by the waters syde, as ye tentes which the LORDE hath plated, & as the Ceder trees vpon ye water.

7 The water shal flowe out of his boket, and his sede shalbe a greate water. His kynge shalbe hyer then Agag, & his kyngdome shalbe exalted.

8 God hath broughte hi out of Egipte, his streghth is as of an vnicorne. He shal eate vp the Heithen his enemies, and grynde their bones to poulder, and shute thorow them with his arowes.

9 He hath layed him downe as a Lyon and as a Lyonesse. Who wyll rayse him vp? Blessed be he, yt blesseth the: and cursed, that curseth the.

10 The was Balac furious i wrath against Balaam, & smote his hades together, & sayde vnto him: I haue called the, yt thou shuldest curse myne enemies, and beholde, thou hast blessed the now thre tymes:

11 & now get the hece to yi place. I thoughte yt I wolde promote the vnto honoure, but the LORDE hath kepte the backe from that worshipe.

12 Balaam answered him: Tolde not I thy messaungers (whom thou sendedst vnto me) & sayde:

13 Yf Balac wolde geue me his house full of syluer and golde, yet coulde I not go beyonde the worde of the LORDE, to do either euell or good after myne awne hert: but what ye LORDE speaketh, that must I speake also.

14 And now beholde, for so moch as I go to my people, come therfore, I wyll shewe the what this people shal do vnto yi people after this tyme.

15 And he toke vp his parable, and sayde: Thus sayeth Balaam the sonne of Beor: Thus sayeth ye man, whose eyes are opened:

16 Thus sayeth he which heareth the wordes of God, & yt hath the knowlege of ye hyst, eue he yt sawe ye visio of ye Allmightie, & fell downe, & his eyes were opened:

17 I shal se him, but not now: I shal beholde him, but not nie at hade. There shal a starre come out of Iacob, & a cepter shall come vp out of Israel, and shal smyte ye rulers of the Moabites, and ouercome all the children of Seth.

18 Edom shalbe his possession, and Seir shalbe his enemies possessio, but Israel shal do manfully.

19 Out of Iacob shal come he yt hath dominion, and shall destroye the remnaunt of the cities.

20 And wha he sawe ye Amalechites, he toke vp his parable, & sayde: Amalec the first amoge the Heithe, but at ye last thou shalt perishe vtterly.

21 And whan he sawe the Kenites, he toke vp his parable, & sayde: Stroge is yi dwellinge, and on a rocke hast thou put thy nest, 22 neuertheles thou shalt be a burnynge vnto Kain, tyll Assur take ye presoner.

23 And he toke vp his parable agayne, & sayde: Alas, who shal lyue, wha God doth this?

24 And shippes out of Citim shall subdue Assur and Eber. He himself also shal perishe vtterly.

 6 And Moses sent them with Phineas the sonne of Eleasar the prest in to the battayll, and the holy vessels and ye trompettes to blowe in his hande.
 7 And they fought agaynst ye Madianites as ye LORDE comaunded Moses, & slew all ye males,

 10 and all their cities of their dwellynges & castels burnt they wt fyre.
 11 And they toke all ye spoyles, & all yt they coulde catche men & catell,
 12 and brought the vnto Moses & to Eleasar the prest, and to ye congregacion of the children of Israel (namely ye presoners, and the catell yt were take, and the good that was spoyled) in to the hoost in the felde of the Moabites, which lyeth besyde lordane ouer against lericho.
 13 And Moses and Eleasar the prest and all the captaynes of ye congregacion, wete out of the hoost to mete the.
 14 And Moses was angrie at the officers of the hoost, which were captaynes ouer thousandes and hudreds, yt came from the battayll, 15 and sayde vnto the: Haue ye saued all ye women alyue?
 16 Beholde, haue not they (thorow Balaams busynes) turned awaye ye childre of Israel to synne agaynst the LORDE vpo Peor, & their came a plage ouer the whole cogregacion of ye LORDE?

17 Now therfore slaie all the males amoge ye childre, & kyll all ye women yt haue knowne men & lyen wt them.
 18 But all the women chidren yt haue knowne no me ner lien wt them, kepe those alyue for youre selues.
 19 And lodge ye without the hoost, all yt haue slayne any man, or touched the slayne, that on the thirde and seuenth daie ye maie purifie yor selues and those whom ye haue taken presoners.
 20 And all the clothes, and all stufte that is made of?kynnes, and all maner furrer, and all vessels of wod shal ye purifie.
 21 And Eleasar the prest sayde vnto ye captaynes of the hoost, yt wente out to the battayll: This is the statute of the lawe, which the LORDE comaunded Moses:
 22 Golde, siluer brasse, yron, tynne and leed,
 23 and all that suffreth the fyre, shall ye cause to go thorow the fyre, and clense it, that it maye be purified with ye sprencklynge water. As for all such as suffreth not the fyre, ye shal cause it to go thorow ye water,
 24 and shal washe yor clothes vpon the seuenth daye. and the shall ye be cleane. After that shall ye come in to the hooste.
 25 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde:
 26 Take the summe of the spoyle of those that are taken, both of women and of catell, thou and Eleasar the prest, and the chefe fathers of the congregacion,
 27 and geue ye halfe vnto those that toke the warre vpon them, and wente out to the battayll, and ye other halfe to the congregacion.
 28 And of the men of warre that wente out to ye battayll, thou shalt heue vnto the LORDE one soule of fyue hundreth, both of the women, oxen, Asses and shepe:
 29 Of their halfe parte shalt thou take it, and geue it vnto Eleasar the prest for an Heueofferynge vnto the LORDE.
 30 But of the children of Israels halfe parte, thou shalt take one heade of fyftie, both of the women, oxen, Asses and shepe, and of all the catell, and shalt geue them vnto the Leuites, that wayte vpon the habitacio of the LORDE.
 31 And Moses and Eleasar the prest dyd as the LORDE commaunded Moses.
 32 And the spoyle and praye which ye men of warre had spoyled, was sixe hundreth thousande and fyue and seuentye thousande shepe,
 33 two and seuentye thousande oxen,
 34 one & thre score thousande Asses:
 35 and the women yt had knowne no men ner lyen wt them, were two and thirtie thousande soules.
 36 And the halfe parte which belonged vnto them that wente to the warre, was in noble thre hundreth thousande, and seuen and thirtie thousande, and fyue hundreth shepe:
 37 of the which the LORDE had sixe hundreth, & fyue and seuentye shepe.
 38 Item sixe and thirtie thousande oxen: wherof the LORDE had two & seuentye.
 39 Item thirtie thousande fyue hundreth

Asses: wherof the LORDE had one & thre score.
 40 Item sixtene thousande soules of women: wherof the LORDE had two & thirtie.
 41 And Moses gaued this heueofferynge of the LORDE vnto Eleasar the prest, as the LORDE comaunded him.
 42 As for the other halfe which Moses deuyded vnto the children of Israel fro thorne; men of warre
 43 (namely ye halfe that fell to the congregacion) it was also thre hundreth thousande, and seuen and thyrty thousande, & fyue hundreth shepe,

 47 And of this halfe of the childre of Israel toke Moses one of euery fyftie, both of the catell & of the women, and gaued them vnto ye Leuites, that waited vpon the habitacio of the LORDE, as ye LORDE comaunded Moses.
 48 And the captaynes ouer ye thousandes of the hoost, namely they that were ouer thousandes and ouer hundreds, came forth vnto Moses, and sayde vnto him:
 49 Thy seruantes haue taken ye summe of ye men of warre, that were vnder oure hande, and there lacked not one:
 50 therfore brynge we a present vnto the LORDE, what euery one hath foude of Jewels of golde, cheynes, braceletes, rynges, earinges, and taches, that oure soules maye be reconcyled before the LORDE.

Chapter 32

1 The children of Ruben and the children of Gad had an exceadinge grete multitude of catell, and sawe the londe of laeser and Gilead yt it was a mete place for catell,
 2 and came & spake vnto Moses and to Eleasar the prest, and to the captaynes of the congregacion:
 3 The londe of Atroth, Dibon, Iaesar, Nimra, He?bo, Eleale, Seban, Nebo, & Beon,
 4 which the LORDE smote before ye congregacion of Israel, is a mete londe for catell, and thy seruantes haue many catell.
 5 And they sayde morouer: Yf we haue foude fauoure before the, the geue thy seruantes this londe in possession, and we wyl not go ouer Iordane.

6 Moses sayde vnto them: Youre brethren shall go to the warre, and wyll ye tary here?

7 Wherefore turne ye ye hertes of the children of Israel, that they shulde not go ouer in to the londe that the LORDE shall geue them?

8 Thus dyd youre fathers also, whan I sent them out from Cades Bernea, to spye out ye londe.

9 And whan they were come vp to ye ryuer of Escol, and sawe ye londe, they turned the hertes of the children of Israel, so yt they wolde not into the londe which ye LORDE wolde haue geuen them.

10 And the LORDE was wroth at the same tyme, & sware, & sayde:

11 These men yt are come out of Egipte, from twetye yeare olde & aboue, shall not se the lande which I sware vnto Abraham, Isaac and Iacob, because they haue not wholly folowed me:

12 saue Caleb ye sonne of Iephune ye Kenisite, & Iosua ye sonne of Nun: for they haue wholly folowed ye LORDE.

13 So the LORDE was wroth wt Israel, & let the wander in the wilderness fourtye yeares, tyll all ye generacion yt had done euell before the LORDE, was consumed.

14 And beholde, ye are rysen vp in youre fathers steade, to increase the nombre of synfull men, & to augmente yet the wrath & indignacion of the LORDE agaynst Israel.

15 For yf ye turne you backe from folowinge him, he shal yet leaue them more in the wilderness, & so shal ye destroye all this people.

16 Then stepte they to him, & sayde: we wyll but buylde shepfoldes here for oure shepe & catell, & cities for or children:

17 As for oure selues, we will go ready armed before the children of Israel, tyll we haue broughte them vnto their place: Oure childe shal remayne in the fenced cities, because of ye indwellers of the londe.

18 We will not turne home agayne, tyll the children of Israel haue taken euery one his inheritaunce in possession:

19 for we wyll not inheret with them beyonde Iordane: for or inheritaunce shal fall vnto vs vpon this syde Iordane Eastwarde.

20 Moses sayde vnto them: Yf ye wil do this, that ye wil harnesse youre selues to the warre before the LORDE,

21 then go ouer Iordane before the LORDE, who so euer is harnessed amonge you, tyll he haue dryuen out his enemies before his face, 22 and vntyll the londe be subdued before the LORDE, then shal ye returne, & be vngiltye before the LORDE, and before Israel, & so shal ye haue this londe in possession before the LORDE.

23 But if ye will not do so, beholde, ye shal offende agaynst the LORDE, and be sure, that youre synne shal fynde you out.

24 Buylde cities now therfore for youre children, and shepfoldes and stalles for youre shepe and catell, and do as ye haue spoken.

25 The childe of Gad, & the childe of Ruben sayde vnto Moses: Thy seruantes shal do as my lorde hath comaunded.

26 Oure children, wyues, substance, & all or catell, shal be in ye cities of Gilead.

27 But we yi seruantes will go all harnessed for the warre vnto battaill before ye LORDE, as my lorde hath saide.

28 The Moses comaunded Eleasar ye prest & Iosua the sonne of Nun, & the chefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, 29 and saide vnto them: Yf the children of Gad & the children of Ruben go ouer Iordane wt you, all prepared to fight before the LORDE, & whan the londe is subdued vnto you, the geue them the londe of Gilead in possessio.

30 But yf they go not ouer with you in harnes, then shal they inheret wt you in ye lode of Canaa.

31 The children of Gad and the children of Rube answered, & sayde: As ye LORDE hath spoken vnto yi seruantes, so wyll we do:

32 we wil go harnessed before the LORDE in to ye lade of Canaan, and possesse oure enheritaunce on this syde Iordane.

33 So Moses gaue vnto ye children of Gad and to the children of Ruben, and to the halfe trybe of Manasse the sonne of Ioseph, ye kyngdome of Sihon kyng of the Amorites and the kyngdome of Og the kyng of Basan, the londe with the cities therof in all ye coastes of ye cowntre rounde aboute.

34 The ye children of Gad buylded Dibon, Araroth, Aroer, Atroth, 35 Sophan, Iaesser, & Iegabeha,

36 Bethnimra, & Betharan, stronge fenced cities, & shepe foldes.

37 The children of Ruben buylded He'bo, Eleale, Kiriathaim, 38 Nebo, Baal Meon, & turned ye names, & Sibamas & gaue names vnto ye cities which they buylded.

39 And ye children of Machir the sonne of Manasse wente in to Gilead, & conquered it, and droue out the Amorites yt were therin.

40 Then Moses gaue Gilead vnto Machir ye sonne of Manasse, & he dwelt therin.

41 Iair ye sonne of Manasse, wente and conquered the vylagies therof, and called them Hauoth Iair.

42 Nobah wente, and coquered Kenath, with the townes belonginge therto, and called it Nobah, after his awne name.

38 Then Aaron the prest wente vp vnto mount Hor (acordynge to the commaundement of the LORDE) and died there in the fortyeth yeare, after yt the children of Israel departed out of the londe of Egipte, in the first daie of the fifte moneth, 52 ye shal dryue out all the inhabitors before youre face, and plucke downe all their pilers, and all their ymages of metall, and destroye all their hye places: 53 that ye maye so take the londe in possession and dwell therin For I haue geue you the londe to enioye it.

54 And the londe shall ye deuyde out by lott amonge youre kynreds. Vnto those that are many, shall ye deuyde the more: And vnto them that are fewe, shall ye deuyde the lesse. Euen as the lott falleth there vnto euery one, so shal he haue it, accordinge to the trybes of their fathers.

55 But yf ye wyll not dryue out the inhabitors of ye lande before yor face, then they who ye suffre to remayne, shall be come thornes in youre eyes, and dartes in youre sydes, & shall vex you in the londe where ye dwell.

56 Then wil it come to passe, that I shal do vnto you euen as I thought to do vnto them.

2 Commaunde the childe of Israel, and saye vnto them: Whan ye come into the londe of Canaan, the londe yt falleth to youre inheritaunce, shall haue hir borders in the londe of Canaan.

3 The South quarter shall begynne at the wyldernesse of Zin by Edom, so that youre South quarter be from the edge of the Salt see, which lyeth towarde the South:

4 and that ye same quarter fet a compasse from the South vp to Acrabim, & go thorow Zimma: & that his outgoynge be from the South vnto Cades Barnea, & reache vnto Hazor Adar, and go thorow Azmona,

5 and stretch out from Azmona vnto the ryuer of Egipte, and that the ende therof be at the greete see.

6 But the West quarter shal be this: namely the greete see, let yt be youre border towarde the West.

7 The North quarter shalbe this: Ye shall compasse from the greete see vnto mount Hor.

8 And fro mount Hor ye shall compasse tyll a man come vnto Hemath, that the outgoynge therof be the coast of Zedada, 9 and that the border of the same go out vnto Siphron, and that the goynge out of it be at Hazor Enan. Let this be youre North quarter.

10 And youre East quarter shall ye copasse from Hazor Enan vnto Sephan, 11 & let the coaste go downe from Sephan and Ribla on the East syde of Ain. The let it go downe, & reache vnto the syde of the see of Chinereth East warde, 12 and come downe by Iordane, so yt the goynge out of it be the Salt see. Let this be youre londe with the borders therof rounde aboute.

13 And Moses commaunded the children of Israel, and sayde: This is youre londe that ye shal deuyde out amonge you by lott, which the LORDE hath commaunded to geue vnto the nyne trybes, and to the halfe trybe.

14 For the trybe of the children of Ruben after their fathers house, and the trybe of the children of Gad acordinge to their fathers house, and the half trybe of Manasse haue receaued their porcion.

15 hus the two trybes and the halfe trybe haue their enheritaunce allready, on this syde Iordane, ouer agaynst Iericho, Eastwarde.

16 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde:

17 These are ye names of the men, which shal deuyde the londe amonge you. Eleasar the prest, and Iosua the sonne of Nun.

18 And the captayne of euery trybe shal

19 And these are the names of the men: Caleb the sonne of Iephune of the trybe of Iuda.

Chapter 35

1 And the LORDE spake vnto Moses in the felde of the Moabites by Iordane ouer agaynst Iericho, & sayde:

2 Commaunde the childe of Israel, that they geue vnto ye Leuites of the inheritaunce of their possession, cities to dwell in. The suburbes also aboute the cities shal ye geue vnto the Leuites,

3 that they maye dwell in the cities, and in the suburbes to haue their cattell, and substaunce, and all their beestes.

4 The suburbes which ye geue vnto ye Leuites, shal reache fro the wall of ye cite outwarde, a M. cubites rounde aboute.

5 Thus ye shal measure without the cite on ye East syde, two thousande cubites: & on ye South syde, two thousande cubites: & on ye West syde, two thousande cubites: & on ye North syde, two thousande cubites, so yt the cite be in the myddes. This shal be their suburbes.

6 And amoge the cities which ye shal geue vnto the Leuites, ye shall geue the sixe fre cities, that he which comitteth a slaughter, maie flye thither. Besydes the same ye shal geue the yet two & fourtie cities:

7 so yt all ye cities which ye geue vnto ye Leuites, be eight & fourtye wt their suburbes.

8 And of ye same ye shal geue the more, from the yt haue moch in possession amonge the children of Israel: & the lesse from them, that haue litle in possession. Euery one (acordinge to his enheritaunce that is deuyded vnto him) shall geue of his cities vnto the Leuites.

9 And the LORDE talked wt Moses & saide:

10 Speake to the childe of Israel, & saye vnto the: Whan ye come ouer Iordane into ye londe of Canaan,

11 ye shall chose out cities to be fre cities, yt who so comytteth slaughter vnowarres, maye flye thither.

12 And soch fre cities shalbe amonge you because of the auenger of bloude, that he which hath comytted slaughter, dye not, tyll he stonde in iudgment before the congregacion.

13 And of these cities which ye shall geue, there shalbe sixe fre cities.

14 Thre shal ye geue on this side Iordane, and thre in the londe of Canaan.

15 These are the sixe fre cities, both for ye childe of Israel & for the straungers, & for soch as dwell amoge you, yt who so euer hath slaine eny soule vnowarres, maye flye thither.

16 He yt smyteth eny man wt an yron weapo, yt he dye, the same is a murthurer, & shal dye the death.

17 Yf he cast at him wt a stone (wherwith enyman maye be slayne) yt he dye therof, then is he a murthurer, and shal dye the death.

18 Yf he smyte him wt an handweapen of wodd (wherwith eny man maie be slayne) that he dye, then is he a murthurer, and shal dye the death.

19 The auenger of bloude shal bringe ye murthurer to death. Whan he fyndeth him, he shal slaye him.

20 Yf he thrust at him of hate, or cast ought at him with laienge of wayte, or smyte him of envye wt his hande, that he dye, 21 then shal he that hath slayne him, dye the death: for he is a murthurer. The auenger of bloude shal brynge him to death, as soone as he fyndeth him.

22 But yf he thrust him by chaunce, & not of envye, or hurle ought at him without eny layenge of wayte,

23 or cast at him with a stone (wherof a man maye dye, & sawe it not) so yt he dye, & is not his enemye, nether thought him eny euell,

24 the shal the cogregacion iudge betwene him yt hath comytted ye slaughter, and the auenger of bloude, in soch cases.

25 And the cogregacion shal delyuer the deedslayer from the hande of ye auenger of bloude, & shal let him come agayne to the fre cite, whither he was fled: & there shall he abyde vnto ye death of the hie prest, which was anoynted with ye holy oyle.

26 But yf the deedslayer go out of the borders of his fre cite, that he was fled vnto, 27 and the auenger of bloude fynde him without ye borders of his fre cite, and kyll him, he shal not be gyltye of bloude.

28 For he shulde haue bydden in his fre cite vntyll ye death of the hie prest, & after ye hie prestes death to come agayne vnto the londe of his enheritaunce.

29 This shalbe a statute of the lawe vnto you amoge youre posterities in all youre dwellinges.

30 The deed slayer shal be slayne at ye mouth of witnesses. One witness shal not answer ouer a soule to death.

31 And ye shal receaue none attonement ouer the soule of the deedslayer (for he is giltye of death) but he shal dye the death. 32 And ye shal receaue none attonement of him, which is fled to the fre cite, yt he shulde come agayne to dwell in the londe, tyll the hie prest dye.

33 And defyle not ye ye londe wherin ye dwell. For who so is giltye of bloude, defyleth the londe: and the londe can not be reconcyed from the bloude that is shed therin, but onely thorow the bloude of him that shed it.

34 Defyle not ye the londe that ye dwell in, wherin I dwell also. For I am the LORDE, which dwell amoge ye children of Israel.

Chapter 36

1 And ye chefe fathers of the kynred of the childe of Gilead ye sonne of Machir (which was the sonne of Manasse of the kynred of the children of Ioseph) came forth, and spake before Moses, and before the captaynes amonge the chefe fathers of the children of Israel,

2 and saide: Syr, the LORDE hath commaunded, that ye shulde geue the londe by lott vnto the childe of Israel to inheret. And thou my lorde hast commaunded thorow the LORDE, that the enheritaunce of or brother Zelaphead shulde be geue vnto his daughters.

3 Now yf eny men out of the trybes of Israel take them to wyues, then shal oure fathers enheritaunce be lesse: and as moch as they haue, shal come to ye enheritaunce of the trybe that they come vnto. Thus shal the lott of oure inheritaunce be mynished.

4 So whan the yeare of Iubilye commeth vnto the childe of Israel, then shal their enheritaunce come to ye enheritaunce of the trybe, where they are. Thus shal oure fathers enheritaunce be mynished, as moch as they haue.

5 Moses charged the childe of Israel (acordinge to the commaundement of the LORDE) and sayde: The trybe of the children of Ioseph hath sayde righte.

6 This is it that ye LORDE commaundeth the daughters of Zelaphead, and sayeth: Let them mary as they like best, onely that they mary in ye kynred of the trybe of their father,

7 that the enheritaunce of the children of Israel fall not fro one trybe to another. For euery one amonge the children of Israel shall cleue to the enheritaunce of the trybe of his father:

8 & euery daughter that possesseth eny enheritaunce amonge the trybes of the children of Israel, shal be maryed vnto one of the kynred of the trybe of hir father: yt euery one amonge the children of Israel maye enioye his fathers enheritaunce,

9 and that the enheritaunce fall not from one trybe to another: but that euery one maye cleue to his awne enheritaunce amonge the trybes of the children of Israel.

10 As the LORDE comaunded Moses, eue so dyd ye daughters of ye Zelaphead, 11 Mahela, Thirza, Hagla, Milca & Noa & were married vnto their fathers brothers sonnes, 12 of ye kynred of the children of Manasse the sonne of Ioseph. So their enheritaunce remained in the trybe of the kynred of their father.

 13 These are the commaundemetes & lawes, which ye LORDE commaunded by Moses vnto the childe of Israel, in the felde of the Moabites by Iordane ouer agaynst Iericho.

DEUTERONOMY

Chapter 1

1 These are the wordes that Moses spake vnto all Israel on the other syde Iordane in the wilderness, in the playne felde towarde the reed see, betwene Paran, Thophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Disahab, 2 eleuen daies journey from Horeb, by the waye of mount Seir vnto Cades Bernea.
 3 And it fortuneth the first daye of the eleuenth moneth in the fortieth yeare, that Moses spake vnto ye children of Israel accordinge vnto all as ye LORDE commaunded him,
 4 after he had smytten Sihon ye kynge of the Amorites which dwelt at Hesbon: and Og the kynge of Basan, that dwelt at Astaroth, and at Edrei.
 5 On the other syde Iordane in ye lande of the Moabites, beganne Moses to declare this lawe, and sayde:
 6 The LORDE or God spake vnto vs vpon mount Horeb, & sayde: Ye haue bene loge ynough vpon this mountayne, 7 turne you, & departe hence, that ye maye come to the mountaynes of the Amorites, and to all their neighbours in ye felde, vpon mountaynes, and in the valleys towarde the South and towarde the see syde, of the lande of Canaan: and to mount Libanus, euen vnto the greate water Euphrates.
 8 Beholde, I haue deluyered you the londe, go in, and take it in possession, which the LORDE sware vnto yor fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Iacob, that he wolde geue it vnto the, and their sede after them.
 9 Then saide I vnto you at the same tyme: I am not able to beare you my self alone, 10 for the LORDE youre God hath increased you, so that this daye ye are as ye starres of heauen in multitude.
 11 (The LORDE God of yor fathers make you yet many thousande tymes mo, & blesse you, as he hath promysed you.)
 12 How can I alone beare soche cobraunce, & charge, & stryfe amoge you?
 13 Prouyde here men of wysdome & vnderstandinge, such as are knowne amoge youre trybes, the wil I set to be heades vnto you.
 14 Then answered ye me, and sayde: It is a good thinge, that thou sayest thou wilt do.

 15 Then toke I ye heades of youre trybes, wyse and famous me, and set them ouer you to be heades, ouer thousandes, ouer hundreds, ouer fiftye and ouer ten: and officers amoge youre trybes.
 16 And I charged you iudges at ye same tyme, & sayde: Heare youre brethre, & iudge righteously betwene euery man and his brother, and the straunger.
 17 Ye shall knowe no personne in iudgment, but shall heare the small as well as the greate, and be afrayed of no man: for the Iudgment is Gods. But yf eny cause be to harde for you, let it be broughte vnto me, yt I maye heare it.
 18 Thus commaunded I you at the same tyme, all yt ye shulde doo.
 19 Then departed we from Horeb, and walked thorow the whole wyldernesse (which is greate and terryble as ye haue sene) by the waye to ye mountaynes of the Amorites, as the LORDE oure God commaunded vs, and came vnto Cades Bernea.
 20 Then sayde I vnto you: Ye are come to ye mountaynes of ye Amorites, which the LORDE or God shal geue vs.
 21 Beholde, there the londe before the, which the LORDE thy God hath geue vnto the: Go vp, & conquere it, as ye LORDE God of thy fathers hath sayde vnto the: feare not, and be not discouraged.
 22 Then came ye all vnto me, and sayde: Let vs sende men before vs, to spye vs out the londe, and to bryng vs worde agayne, by what waye we shal go vp, and to what cities we shal come.
 23 That pleased me well, and I toke twolue men from amoge you, of euery trybe one.
 24 Which whan they were departed, and wente vp to hye cowntre, and came to the ryuer Escol, they spye it out,
 25 and toke of the frute of ye londe with the, and broughte it downe vnto vs, and broughte vs worde agayne, and sayde: It is a good londe, that the LORDE oure God hath geuen vs.
 26 But ye wolde not go vp, and were dishobedient vnto the mouth of the LORDE youre God, 27 and murmured in youre tentes, and sayde: Because the LORDE hateth vs, therefore hath he broughte vs out of the londe of Egipte, to deluyere vs in to the handes of the Amorites, to destroye vs.
 28 Whither shal we go vp? Oure brethren haue discouraged oure hertes, & saide: The people is greater & of hyer stature the we, ye cities are greate, & walled euen vp to heauen. Morouer we haue sene there the children of Enakim.
 29 But I sayde vnto you: Feare not, and be not afrayed of them:
 30 for the LORDE youre God goeth before you, and shall fighte for you, like as he dealte with you in Egipte before youre eyes, 31 and in the wyldernesse: where thou sawest, that the LORDE thy God bare the (euen as a man beareth his sonne) thorow out all the waye that ye haue walked, tyll ye came to this place.

 32 And yet for all this ye haue not beleued on the LORDE youre God,
 33 which wente before you, to searche you out a place, where ye shulde pitch your tentes: by night in the fyre (to shewe you the waye, wherin ye shulde go) & on the daye tyme in the cloude.
 34 Whan the LORDE herde ye voyce of yor wordes, he was wroth, and swore, and saide:
 35 There shall none of this euell generacion se that good londe, which I sware to geue vnto youre fathers, 36 excepte Caleb the sonne of Iephune, he shal se it. And vnto him wyl I geue the londe that he hath trodde vpon, & to his children, because he hath perfectly folowed the LORDE.
 37 The LORDE was angrye wt me also for youre sakes, and sayde: Thou also shalt not go in thither.
 38 But Iosua ye sonne of Nun, which stondest before the, he shal go in thither: Courage him, for he shal deuyde the enheritaunce out vnto Israel.
 39 And youre childe, of who ye sayde they shulde be a praye, and youre sonnes which this daie vnderstonde nether good ner bad, they shal go in thither, vnto them wil I geue it, and they shal enioye it.
 40 But as for you, turne you, and take youre journey to the wyldernesse, euen the waye to the reed see.
 41 Then answered ye, & sayde vnto me: We haue synned agaynst ye LORDE, we wil go vp, and fighte, accordinge to all that the LORDE hath commaunded vs. Now whan ye had prepared yor selues, euery one in his harnesse, & were at the poynte to go vp to the mountaynes, 42 ye LORDE sayde vnto me: Speake vnto them, yt they go not vp, & that they fighte not (for I am not amoge you) that ye be not smytten before youre enemies.
 43 Whan I tolde you this, ye wolde not heare, & were dishobedient vnto the worde of the LORDE, and were presumptuous, and wente vp to ye mountaynes.
 44 Then the Amorites that dwelt vpon the moutaynes, came out against you, and chased you, as Bees do, and smote you at Seir, euen vnto Horma.
 45 Now whan ye came agayne, and wepte before the LORDE, he wolde not heare youre voyce, and enclined not his eares vnto you.
 46 So ye abode in Cades a longe season.

Chapter 2

1 Then turned we vs, and toke oure journey to the wilderness, euen the waye to the reed see (as the LORDE sayde vnto me) and compassed mount Seir a longe season.
 2 And ye LORDE saide vnto me:
 3 Ye haue compassed this mountayne now loge ynough, turne you Northwarde, 4 and commaunde the people, and saye: Ye shal go thorow ye coastes of youre brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt at Seir: & they shal be afrayed of you. But take diligente hede to youre selues, 5 that ye prouoke them not: for I wyl not geue you one fote bredth of their londe. For mount Seir haue I geuen to the children of Esau to possesse.

 6 Ye shal bye meate of them for moneye, that ye maye eate. And water shal ye bye of them for money, that ye maye drynke.
 7 For the LORDE thy God hath blessed the in all the workes of thy hondes. He hath considered thy iourneys thorow this greate wyldernesse: and this fortye yeares hath the LORDE thy God bene with the, so that thou hast wanted nothinge.
 8 Now whan we were departed from or brethren the children of Esau, that dwelt vpon mount Seir, by the waye of the felde from Elath & Ezeon gaber, we turned vs, & wente by the waye of the wyldernesse of ye Moabites.
 9 Then sayde the LORDE vnto me: Thou shalt not vexte the Moabites, ner prouoke the vnto battayll, for I wil not geue the of their londe to possesse.
 10 For Ar haue I geuen vnto the children of Lot in possession. The Emims dwelt there before tyme, which were a greate stronge people, & hye of stature, as the Enakims:
 11 and were taken for giauntes, like as ye Enakims. And ye Moabites called them Emims.
 12 The Horites also dwelt in Seir afore tyme, & ye children of Esau droue them out, and destroyed them before them, & dwelt in their steade: like as Israel dyd in ye lode of his possession, that the LORDE gaue them.
 13 Get you vp now, & go ouer the ryuer Sared. And we wente ouer.
 14 The tyme that we were goinge fro Cades Bernea, tyll we came ouer the ryuer Sared, was eight & thirte yeares: tyll all the men of warre were waysted out of the hoost, as the LORDE sware vnto them.
 15 The hande of the LORDE also was agaynst them, to destroye the out of the hoost, tyll they were consumed.
 16 And whan all the men of warre were cosumed, so yt they were deed amoge the people,
 17 the LORDE spake vnto me, and sayde:
 18 This daie shalt thou go thorow the coast of ye Moabites by Ar,
 19 & shalt come nye vnto ye children of Ammon, whom thou shalt not vexte ner prouoke. For I wyl not geue the of the lode of the childe of Ammon to possesse,
 20 for I haue geue it vnto the childe of Lot in possession. It was take for a lode of giauntes also, & giauntes dwelt therein afore tyme. And ye Ammonites calle the Samsumims, 21 which was a people that was greate, many, and of hye stature, as the Enakims. And these ye LORDE destroyed before the, and let them possesse the same, so that they dwelt in their steade.
 22 Like as he dyd with the childe of Esau, which dwell vpon mount Seir, when he destroyed the Horites before them: and let them possesse the same, so that they haue dwelt in their steade vnto this daye.

23 And the Caphthorims came out of Caphther, and destroyed ye Auims (yt dwelt at Hazarim euen vnto Gaza) & there dwelt they in their steade.

24 Get you vp now, and departe, and go ouer the ryuer Arnon. Beholde, I haue geue Sihon ye kyng of the Amorites at Hesbon into thy hande: go to and conquere, and prouoke him vnto battayll.

25 This daye wyll I begynne, so that all nacios vnder all the heauen, shal feare & drede ye: In so moch yt wha they heare of the, they shal tremble and quake for thy commynge.

26 Then sent I messaugers from ye wyldernesse of the East vnto Sihon the kyng of Hesbon wt peaceble wordes, and caused to saye vnto him:

27 I wil go but thorow yi lode, I wil go alonge by the hie waye, I wil nether turne to the righte hade ner to ye lefte.

28 Thou shalt sell me meate for money, that I maye eate: & water shalt thou sell me for money, that I maye drinke. Onely let me go thorow by fote, 29 as the children of Esau (which dwell at Seir) dyd vnto me: and the Moabites that dwell at Ar: vntyll I be come ouer Iordane, into the londe which the LORDE oure God shal geue vnto vs.

30 But Sihon the kyng at Hesbon wolde not let vs go by him: for the LORDE yi God herdened his mynde, & made his hert tough that he mighte delyuer him in to thy hades, as it is come to passe this daye.

31 And ye LORDE sayde vnto me: Beholde, I haue begonne to delyuer Sihon with his londe before the: go to and coquere, and possesse his lode.

32 And Siho came out wt all his people to fight agaynst vs at Iahza.

33 But the LORDE oure God delyuered him in to oure handes, so that we smote him with his children and all his people.

34 Then toke we all his cities at the same tyme, and destroyed vtterly all the cities, men, women, and children, and let none remayne:

35 saue the catell, which we caught to oure selues, & the spoyle of the cities that we wanne

36 from Aroer, which lyeth vpon the ryuer syde of Arnon, and from the cite on the ryuer vnto Gilead. There was no cite that coulde defende it selfe from vs: the LORDE oure God delyuered vs all before vs.

37 But vnto the londe of the children of Ammon thou camest not, ner to all that was on the ryuer Iabok, ner to ye cities vpon ye mountaines, ner vnto what so euer the LORDE oure God forbad vs.

Chapter 3

1 And we turned vs, & wente vp ye waie vnto Basan. And Og ye kyng of Basan, came out wt all his people to fight agaynst vs at Edrei.

2 But the LORDE sayde vnto me: Be not afrayed of him, for I haue delyuered him & all his people wt his londe in to thy hande: & thou shalt do wt him, as thou dydest wt Sihon kyng of ye Amorites, which dwelt at Hesbon.

3 Thus ye LORDE oure God delyuered Og ye kyng of Basan in to oure handes also with all his people: so that we smote him, tyll there was nothinge left ouer vnto him.

4 Then wanne we at the same tyme all his cities, & there was not one cite that we toke not from him, euen thre score cities, the whole region of Argob in the kyngdome of Og at Basan.

5 All these cities were stroge, with hie walles, gates, and barres, besyde many other vnwalled townes.

6 And we vtterly destroyed them, as we dyd with Sihon the kyng at Hesbon. All the cities destroyed we vtterly, and the men, women, and children.

7 But all the catell and spoyle of the cities caughte we for oureselues.

8 Thus toke we at the same tyme the londe out of the honde of the two kynges of the Amorites beyonde Iordane, from the ryuer of Arnon vnto mount Hermon (which the Sidons call Sirion, but the Amorites call it Senir)

9 all the cities vpon the playne, and all Gilead, and all Basan vnto Salcha and Edrei, the cities of the kyngdome of Og at Basan.

10 For onely Og the kyng of Basan remayned ouer of the giauntes. Beholde, his yron bed is here at Rabath amonge the children of Ammon, nyne cubites longe, and foure cubites brode, after the cubite of a man.

11 This londe conquered we at the same tyme, from Aroer that lyeth on ye ryuer of Arnon. And vnto the Rubenites and Gaddites I gaue halfe mount Gilead with the cities therof:

12 but ye remnaunt of Gilead, & all Basan the kyngdome of Og, gaue I vnto the halfe trybe of Manasse. The whole region of Argob with all Basan was called the giauntes londe.

13 Iair the sonne of Manasse toke all the region of Argob vnto the coastes of Gessuri and Maachati, and Basan called he Hauoth Iair after his awne name, vnto this daye:

14 But vnto Machir I gaue Gilead.

15 And vnto the Rubenites and Gaddites I gaue one parte of Gilead vnto the ryuer of Arnon (at the myddes of the ryuer is ye border) and vnto the ryuer Iabok, which is the border of the children of Ammon:

16 the felde also, and Iordane (which is the coaste) from Cinereth vnto the see in the felde, namely, ye Salt see vnder mount Pisga, Eastwarde.

17 And I commaunded you at the same tyme, and sayde: The LORDE oure God hath geuen you this londe to take possession of it, Go youre waye forth therefore harnessed before youre brethren the children of Israel, all ye that be mete for the warre.

19 As for youre wyues, and children and catell (for I knowe that ye haue moch catell) let them remayne in youre cities, which I haue geuen you,

20 vntyl the LORDE oure God haue broughte yor brethren to rest also as well as you, that they also maye take possession of the londe, which ye LORDE oure God shal geue the beyonde Iordane: and then shal ye turne agayne to youre awne possession, which I haue geuen you.

21 And I warned Iosua at the same tyme, and sayde: Thine eyes haue sene all that the LORDE oure God hath done vnto these two kynges: eue so shal the LORDE do also vnto all ye kyngdomes whither thou goest.

22 Feare them not, for the LORDE oure God shal fighte for you.

23 And I besoughte the LORDE at the same tyme, & sayde:

24 O LORDE LORDE, thou hast begonne to shewe yi seruaunte thy greatnesse and thy mightie hade. For where is there a God in heauen & earth, that can do after yi workes and after thy power?

25 O let me go & se yt good londe beyonde Iordane, yt goodly hie cowntre, and Libanus.

26 But the LORDE was angrie with me for youre sakes, and wolde not heare me, but sayde vnto me: Be content, speake nomore to me of this matter.

27 Get the vp to the toppe of mount Pisga, and lifte vp thine eyes towarde the west, and towarde the north, and towarde the south, and towarde ye east: and beholde it with thine eies, for thou shalt not go ouer this Iordane.

28 And geue Iosua his charge, and corage him, and bolde him, for he shal go ouer Iordane before the people, and shal deuyde vnto them the londe, that thou shalt se.

29 And so we abode in the valley ouer agaynst the house of Peor.

Chapter 4

1 And now herken Israel vnto the ordinauces and lawes, which I teach you that ye do them, yt ye maye lyue, and come in, & take possession of the londe, which the LORDE God of yor fathers geueth vnto you.

2 Ye shal put nothinge vnto the worde which I commaunde you, nether do oughte there from, that ye maye kepe the commaundementes of the LORDE oure God, which I commaunde you.

3 Your eyes haue sene what the LORDE hath done wt Baal Peor: all them that walked after Baal Peor, hath the LORDE thy God destroyed from amonge you.

4 But ye that cleue vnto the LORDE yor God, are all aliuie this daye.

5 Beholde I haue taughte you ordinauces and lawes, such as the LORDE my God commaunded me, that ye shulde do eue so in the londe, into ye which ye shal come, to possesse it.

6 Kepe them now therfore and do them: for that is youre wysdome and vnderstandinge in the sight of all nacions, which wha they haue herde all these ordinauces, shall saye: O what a wise and vnderstandinge folke is this? and how excellent a people?

7 For where is there so excellent a nacion, that hath goddes so nye him, as the LORDE oure God is nye vnto vs, as oft as we call vpon him?

8 And where is there so excellent a nacion, that hath so righteous ordinauces and lawes, as all this lawe which I laye before you this daye.

9 Take hede to thy selfe now, and kepe well thy soule, that thou forget not the thinges which thine eyes haue sene, and that they departe not out of thy hert all the dayes of thy life. And thou shalt teach them thy children and thy childers children,

10 the daye wha thou stodest before the LORDE thy God by mount Horeb, whan the LORDE sayde vnto me: Gather me the people together, that I maye make them heare my wordes, which they shal lerne, that they maye feare me all the dayes of their life vpon earth, & that they also maye teach their children.

11 And ye came nye, & stode vnder ye mount. But the mount burnt euen vnto the myddes of heauen, and there was darkness, cloudes, and myst.

12 And ye LORDE spake vnto you out of the myddes of the fyre. The voyce of his wordes ye herde, neuerthelesse ye sawe no ymage, but herde the voyce onely.

13 And he declared vnto you his couenaunt, which he comaunded you to do, namely, the ten verses, and wrote them vpon two tables of stone.

14 And the LORDE commmauded me at the same time, to teach you ordinauces & lawes that ye might do ther after in the londe, in to the which ye go to possesse it.

15 Kepe well youre soules therfore, for ye sawe no maner of ymage, in the daye wha the LORDE spake vnto you out of the fyre vpon mount Horeb, that ye destroye not youre selues,

16 and make you eny ymage, that is like a man, or woman,

17 or beest vpon earth, or fethered foule vnder the heauen,

18 or worme vpon the grounde, or fysshe in the water vnder ye earth:

19 yt thou lifte not vp thine eyes towarde heauen, and se the Sonne and the Moone & the starres, and the whole hoost of heaue, and be disceaused, and worsh ppe, and serue them: which the LORDE yi God hath made to serue all nacios vnder ye whole heaue.

20 But you hath the LORDE taken, and broughte you out of the yron fornace, namely, out of Egipte, that ye shulde be the people of his enheritaunce, as it is come to passe this daye.

21 And the LORDE was angrie with me for youre sakes, so that he sware, yt I shulde not go ouer Iordane, ner come in to that good londe, which the LORDE thy God shall geue the to inheritaunce.

22 As for me, I must dye in this londe, and shal not go ouer Iordane: But ye shal go ouer, and shall haue that good lode in possession.

23 Take hede therfore vnto youre selues, that ye forget not the couenaunt of the LORDE youre God, and that ye make no ymages of eny maner of fashion as the LORDE thy God hath commaunded.

24 For the LORDE thy God is a consumynge fyre and a gelous God.

25 Yf whan ye haue begotten children, and childers children, and haue dwelt in the londe, ye marre youre selues, & make you ymages of eny maner of fashion, and do euell in the sighte of ye LORDE youre God, to prouoke him:

26 I call heauen and earth to recorde ouer you this daie, that ye shall shortly perishe fro the londe, in to ye which ye go ouer Iordane to possesse it. Ye shal not dwell longe therin, but shal vtterly be destroyed.

27 And ye LORDE shal scater you amonge ye nacions and ye shall be left a small people amoge ye Heythen, whyther the LORDE shall brynge you.

28 There shal ye serue goddes, which are ye workes of mens handes, euen wodd & stone, which nether se ner heare, ner eate ner smell.

29 But yf thou seke the LORDE yi God there thou shalt finde him, yee yf thou seke him wt thy whole hert and with all yi soule.

30 Whan thou shalt be strately troubled, & wha all these thinges shal come vpo the in ye latter dayes, then shalt thou turne agayne to ye LORDE thy God, and be obedient vnto his voyce.

31 For ye LORDE yi God is a mercifull God, he shal not forsake the, ner destroye the: nether shall he forget the couenaunt with thy fathers, which he sware vnto them.

32 For axe after the tymes past, which haue bene before the, sens the daie yt God created man vpon earth, from one ende of the heaue vnto the other, whether there was euer eny soch greate thinge done, or eny soch like herde, 33 that a people hath herde ye voyce of God speake out of the fyre (as thou hast herde) & yet liued.

34 Or whether God assaied to go & take vnto him a people out of ye myddes of a nacion, thorow tentacions, thorow tokens, thorow wonders, thorow warre, & thorow a mightie hande, & thorow a stretched out arme, and thorow greate visios, acordinge vnto all as the LORDE youre God hath done with you in Egipte before thine eyes.

35 Thou hast sene it yt thou mightest knowe that the LORDE is God, and that there is none other but he onely.

36 Out of heauen made he the to heare his voyce, that he might nurtoure the: and vpon earth he shewed the his greate feare, & out of ye fyre thou herdest his wordes:

37 because he loued yi fathers, & chose their sede after the. And he brought ye out wt his presence thorow his mightie power out of Egipte, 38 to dryue out (before the) nacions greater and mightier then thou, and to bringe ye in, yt he might geue the their lode to inheritaunce, as it is come to passe this daye.

39 Therfore shalt thou knowe this daye, & turne it into thine herte, that the LORDE is God aboue in heauen, and beneth vpon earth, and that there is no mo.

40 Kepe his ornaunces therfore and commaundementes, which I commaunde the this daie, the shal it go well wt the and thy children after the, so that thy life shal longe endure in ye londe, which the LORDE the God geueth the thy life longe.

41 Then separated Moses thre cities beyonde Iordane, towarde the Sonne rysinge, 42 yt he might flye thither, which had slayne his neyghoure vnawarres, & hated him not afore tyme, yt he might flye in to one of these cities, & lyue.

43 Bezer in ye wildernes in the playne countre amonge the Rubenites, & Ramoth in Gilead amoge ye Gaddites, & Golan in Basan amonge the Manassites.

44 This is the lawe which Moses layed before the children of Israel:

45 these are the testimonies, ordinaunces, & lawes, yt Moses spake vnto the children of Israel (after they were departed out of Egipte)

46 beyonde Iordane in the valley ouer agaynst the house of Peor, in ye londe of Sion kyng of ye Amorites which dwelt at Hesbon, whom Moses & the childre of Israel smote after they were departed out of Egipte,

47 & conquered his lade, & the londe of Og kyng of Basan, two kynges of the Amorites which were beyonde Iordane towarde the Sonne rysinge

48 fro Aroer (which lyeth vpon ye ryuer syde of Arnon) vnto mount Sion, which is Hermon:

49 & all ye playne felde beyonde Iordane eastwarde vnto the see in ye plaine felde vnder mount Pisga.

Chapter 5

1 And Moses called all Israel, & sayde vnto the: Heare Israel the ordinaunces & lawes which I speake in yor cares this daye: lerne them, & kepe the so, that ye do thereafter.

2 The LORDE oure God made a couenaunt with vs at Horeb:

3 he made not this couenaunt with oure fathers, but with vs, that are here this daie, and lyue euery one.

4 He talked with vs face to face out of the fyre vpo the mount.

5 I stode at the same tyme betwixte the LORDE and you, that I mighte shewe you the worde of the LORDE. For ye were afrayed of the fyre, & wente not vp to the mount, and he sayde:

6 I am the LORDE thy God, which haue brought the out of the londe of Egipte, out of the house of bondage.

7 Thou shalt haue none other goddes in my sighte.

8 Thou shalt make the no grauen ymage of eny maner of licknesse of the thinges yt are aboue in heauen, & beneth vpon earth, & in the water vnder the earth.

9 Thou shalt not honor them, ner serue the. For I ye LORDE yi God am a gelous God, vysitinge the synne of the fathers vpo the children, vnto the thirde and fourth generacion, of the yt hate me:

10 & shewe mercye vpon many thousandes yt loue me, and kepe my commaundementes.

11 Thou shalt not take ye name of ye LORDE yi God in vayne: For ye LORDE shal not holde him vngiltie, yt taketh his name in vaine.

12 Kepe ye Sabbath daye, that thou sanctifye it, as the LORDE thy God hath commaunded the.

13 Sixe daies shalt thou laboure, and do all thy worke,

14 but vpon the seuenth daye it is the Sabbath of the LORDE thy God: No maner worke shalt thou do in it, thou, and thy sonne, and thy daughter, and thy seruaut, and thy mayde, and thine oxe, and thine Asse, and all thy catell, and the straunger which is within thy gates, that thy seruaut and thy mayde maye rest as well as thou.

15 For thou shalt remebre, that thou thyself also wast a seruaunte in the londe of Egipte, and how that the LORDE thy God brought the out from thence with a mightye hande, and a stretched out arme. Therfore hath the LORDE yi God commaunded ye to kepe the Sabbath daye.

16 Honoure thy father and thy mother, as the LORDE thy God hath commaunded the that thou mayest lyue longe vpo earth, and that it maye go well with the in the londe, which the LORDE thy God shall geue the.

17 Thou shalt not kyll.

18 Thou shalt not breake wedlocke.

19 Thou shalt not steale.

20 Thou shalt beare no false witnes against thy neyghoure.

21 Thou shalt not lust after yi neyghours wyfe. Thou shalt not lust after thy neyghours house, londe, seruaunt, mayde, oxe, Asse, or what so euer he hath.

22 These are the wordes that the LORDE spake to all youre congregacion, vpon the mount out of the fyre of the cloude and darknesse with a greate voyce, and added nothinge therto. And he wrote them vpon two tables of stone, and delyuered the vnto me.

23 But whan ye herde the voyce out of the darknes, and sawe the mount burne wt fyre, ye came vnto me all ye rulers amonge youre trybes, and youre Elders

24 and sayde: Beholde, the LORDE oure God hath shewed vs his glory & his greatnes, and we haue herde his voyce out of ye fyre. This daye haue we sene, that God maie talke with a man, and he yet lyue.

25 And now wherfore shulde we dye, that this fire shulde cosume vs? Yf we shulde heare the voyce of the LORDE oure God eny more, we shulde dye.

26 For what is all fleshe, that it shulde be able to heare ye voyce of the lyuyng God speake out of ye fyre, as we haue done, and yet lyue?

27 Go thou and heare all yt the LORDE oure God sayeth, and tell us. All yt the LORDE sayeth vnto the, that will we heare and do.

28 Whan the LORDE herde the voyce of yor wordes which ye spake vnto me, he sayde vnto me: I haue herde ye voyce of the wordes of this people, which they haue spoken vnto ye. It is all good that they haue spoken.

29 But who shal geue them soch an herte, yt they maye feare me, & kepe all my comaundementes as longe as they lyue, yt it maye go well with them, and with their childre for euer?

30 Go & saye vnto them: Get you in to yor tentes agayne.

31 But thou shalt stonde here before me, that I maye tell the all the commaundementes, and ordinauces and lawes which thou shalt teach them yt they maye do thereafter in the lode, which I shal geue the to possesse.

32 Take hede now therfore that ye do, as the LORDE yor God hath commaunded you, and turne not asyde nether to ye right hande ner to the lefte:

33 but walke in all ye wayes which the LORDE youre God hath commaunded you, that ye maie lyue, and that it maie go well with you, and yt ye maye lyue longe in ye londe which ye shall haue in possession.

Chapter 6

1 These are the commaundementes, ordinauces & lawes which ye LORDE yor God hath comaunded, yt ye shulde lerne them, & do them, in the londe whyther ye go to possesse it,

2 that thou mayest feare the LORDE yi God, & kepe all his ordinauces & commaundementes, which I commaunde the, thou and yi children, and yi childers children all ye dayes of youre life, that ye maye lyue loge.

3 Thou shalt heare (O Israel) & take hede, yt thou do thereafter, yt it maye go well with ye, & that thou mayest multiplie greatly, as ye LORDE God of yi fathers hath promysed the a londe yt floweth wt mylke & hony.

4 Heare O Israel, the LORDE oure God is one LORDE onely.

5 And thou shalt loue the LORDE thy God wt all thy hart, with all yi soule, & with all thy mighte.

6 And these wordes, which I commaunde the this daie, shalt thou take to hert,

7 & shalt whet them vpon yi children, and shalt talke of them, wha thou syttest in thine house, & whan thou walkest by the waie: whan thou lyst downe, & wha thou rystest vp.

8 And thou shalt bynde them for a signe vpon thine hande, and they shall be a token of remembrance before thine eyes,
9 and thou shalt wryte them vpon the postes of thine house, and vpon thy gates.
10 Now when ye LORDE yi God shall bringe the in to ye londe wherof he sware vnto yi fathers Abraham, Isaac, & Iacob, and shall geue the greate & goodly cities, which thou hast not buylded:
11 and houses full of all goodes, which thou hast not filled: & digged welles which thou hast not digged: and vynyardes and olyue trees, which thou hast not plated, so yt thou eatest and art full:
12 then beware that thou forget not the LORDE, which brought the out of the londe of Egipte, fro the house of bondage:
13 but thou shalt feare the LORDE thy God, and him onely shalt thou serue, and swaie by his name.
14 And ye shal not folowe the other goddesses of the nacions which are aboute you 15 (for the LORDE thy God is a gelous God in the myddest of the) that the wrath of the LORDE thy God waxe not whote ouer the, and destroye the from the earth.
16 Ye shal not tempte ye LORDE youre God, as ye tempted him at Massa:
17 but kepe the commaundementes of the LORDE yor God, and his witnessses, & his ordinaunces, which he hath commaunded the,
18 that thou mayest do that which is right & good in ye sighte of the LORDE, yt thou mayest prospere, and yt thou mayest go in & conquere that good londe, which the LORDE sware vnto yi fathers,
19 that he maye chace out all thine enemies before the, as the LORDE hath sayde.
20 Now when thy sonne axeth the todaye or tomorrow, and sayeth: What meane these witnessses, ordinaunces and lawes, that the LORDE oure God hath comaunded you?
21 Then shalt thou saye vnto thy sonne: We were Pharaos bondmen in Egipte, and the LORDE brought vs out of Egipte with a mightie hande,
22 and the LORDE did greate & euell tokens & wonders in Egipte vpo Pharao and all his house before oure eyes,
23 and brought vs from thence, to bringe vs in and to geue vs ye londe, that he sware vnto oure fathers.
24 And therefore hath the LORDE comaunded vs to do acordinge vnto all these ordinaunces, that we might feare the LORDE oure God, that we might prospere all the dayes of oure life, as it is come to passe this daye.
25 And it shall be righteousnes vnto vs before the LORDE oure God, yf we kepe and do all these commaundementes, as he hath comaunded vs.

Chapter 7

1 When ye LORDE yi God bringeth the in to ye londe where in to thou shalt come to possesse it, & roteth out ma nacions before the: the Hethites, Girgosites Amorites, Cananites, Pheresites, Heuities, and Iebusites, seue nacions which are greater and mightier then thou:
2 and when the LORDE thy God delyuereth the before ye, that thou mayest smyte them, thou shalt vtterly destroye them, so that thou make no couenaunt with them, nor shewe them fauoure, and shalt make no mariages with them:
3 Ye shall not geue youre daughters vnto their sonnes, ner take their daughters vnto youre sonnes.
4 For they will make youre sonnes departe fro me, to serue straunge goddesses: then shall the wrath of the LORDE waxe whote vpon you, and destroye you shortly.
5 But thus shal ye do with them: Ye shal ouerthrowe their altares, breake downe their pilers, cut downe their groues, & burne their ymages with fyre.
6 For thou art an holy people vnto the LORDE thy God. The hath the LORDE thy God chosen, that thou shuldest be his awne peculiar people, from amonge all nacions that are vpon the earth.
7 It was not because of the multitude of you aboue all nacions, that ye LORDE had lust vnto you and chose you. (For ye were the leest amonge all nacions)
8 but because he loued you, and that he mighte kepe the ooth, which he sware vnto youre fathers, he broughte you out with a mightie hade, and delyuered you fro the house of bondage, out of the hande of Pharao kynge of Egipte.
9 Thou shalt vnderstonde now therefore, that the LORDE thy God is a mightie and true God, which kepeth couenaunt and mercy vnto them that loue him, and kepe his comaundementes, euen thorow out a thousande generacions:
10 And rewardeth them that hate him, before his face, that he maye destroye them: and wyll not be longe in tarienge to rewarde them (before his face) that hate him.
11 Kepe now therefore the commaundementes, and ordinaunces and lawes, which I commaunde the this daye, that thou do thereafter.
12 And yf ye shall heare these lawes and kepe them, and do thereafter, then shal the LORDE thy God also kepe the couenaunt and mercy with the, which he sware vnto thy fathers:
13 and shal loue the, blesse the, and multiplye the: he shal blesse the frute of yi wombe, and the frute of thy londe, thy corne, wyne and oyle, the frute of thy kyne, and the frute of thy shepe, in the londe that he sware vnto yi fathers to geue the.
14 Blessed shalt thou be aboue all nacions, there shal no vnfrutefull persone be in the, ner amonge thy catell.

15 The LORDE shall put from the all maner of dysease, and shal brynge vpon the none of ye euell sicknesses of Egipte, which thou hast sene, but shall put them vpon all those that hate the.
16 Thou shalt brynge to naught all the nacions, which the LORDE thy God shal delyuer the. Thine eye shall not spare them, and their goddesses shalt thou not serue, for that shalbe thy decaye.
17 Yf thou shalt saye in thyne hert: These nacions are mo then I, how ca I dryue them out?
18 Feare them not. Remembre what the LORDE thy God did vnto Pharao and to all the Egipcians, 19 thorow greate tentacions (which thou hast sene with thine eyes) thorow tokens and woders, thorow a mightie hande and a stretched out arme, wherwith the LORDE thy God brought the out. Euen so shall the LORDE thy God do vnto all ye nacions of who thou art afrayed.
20 The LORDE yi God also shal sende hornettes amonge them, vntyll they that remayne and hyde them selues from the, be destroyed.
21 Be not thou afrayed of them: for the LORDE thy God is in the myddes of the, euen the mightie and fearfull God.
22 He (euen the LORDE thy God) shall rote out the nacions before the by litle and litle. Thou canst not consume them at one time, yt the beestes of the felde increase not vpon the.
23 The LORDE thy God shall delyuer them before the, and shall smite them with a greate slaughter, tyll they be destroyed.
24 And he shal delyuer their kynges in to thine hade, and thou shalt destroye their names from vnder heauen. There shal noman make the resistance before the, vntyll thou haue destroyed them.
25 The ymages of their goddesses shalt thou burne with fyre, & shalt not desyre the syluer or golde that is on them or to take it vnto the, that thou snare not thy self therein: for it is abhominacion vnto the LORDE yi God.
26 Therefore shalt thou not brynge the abhominacion in to thine house, yt thou be not damned as it is, but shalt vtterly defye it, and abhorre it, for it is damned.

Chapter 8

1 All the commaundementes which I commaunde ye this daye, shal ye kepe, so yt ye do thereafter, that ye maye lyue and multiplye, and come in, and take possession of the lande, which ye LORDE sware vnto youre fathers:
2 and thynke vpon all ye waie thorow the which the LORDE thy God hath led the this fortye yeares in the wyldernes, that he mighte chasten the, and proue the, to wete what were in thyne herte, whether thou woldest kepe his comaundementes or no.
3 He chastened the, and let the hunger, and fed the with Manna (which thou and thy fathers knewe not) to make the knowe, that man lyueth not by bred onely, but by all that procedeth out of the mouth of the LORDE.

4 Thy clothes are not waxed olde vpon the, and thy fete are not swolle this fortye yeare.
5 Vnderstonde therefore in thine hert, that as a man nurtureth his sonne, euen so hath the LORDE thy God nurtured the.
6 Kepe therefore the commaundementes of the LORDE thy God, that thou walke in his wayes, and feare him.
7 For the LORDE thy God bryngeth the in to a good londe: A londe where in are ryuers of water, fountaynes and sprynges, which flowe by the hilles and valleyes:
8 A londe wherin is wheate, barlye, vines, fygge trees, and pomgranates: A londe wherin growe Olyue trees and honye:
9 A londe where thou shalt not eate bred in scarcenes, and where thou shalt lacke nothinge: A lode where ye stones are yron, where thou shalt dygge brasse out of hilles:
10 That wha thou hast eaten and art fylled, thou mayest praise the LORDE thy God, for that good londe, which he hath geuen the.
11 Bewarre now therefore, that thou forget not the LORDE thy God, that thou woldest not kepe his commaundementes, and his ordinaunces, and lawes, which I commaunde the this daye:
12 that (whan thou hast eaten & art fylled, and hast buylded goodly houses, & dwellest therein, 13 and whan thy beestes and shepe, and syluer, and golde, and all yt thou hast, increaseth)
14 thine hert ryse not then, and thou forget the LORDE thy God (which brought the out of the londe of Egipte, fro ye house of bondage,
15 and led ye thorow this greate & terrible wyldernes, where were serpentes that spouted fyre, and Scorpions, & drouth, and where there was no water, and brought the water out of the hard flynte,
16 and fed the in the wyldernes with Manna wherof yi fathers knewe not, that he might chasten the, and proue the) to do the good afterwarde)
17 and lest thou saye in thine hert: My power and the mighte of myne awne hande hath done me all this good:
18 But that thou thynke vpon the LORDE thy God. For it is HE, which geueth the power to exercyse strength, that he maye performe the couenaunt, which he sware vnto thy fathers, as it is come to passe this daye.
19 But yf thou shalt forget the LORDE thy God, and folowe other goddesses, and serue them, and worshipe the, I testifie ouer you this daye, that ye shal vtterly perishe.
20 Euen as the Heythen whom ye LORDE destroyeth before youre face, so shall ye perishe also, because ye are not obedient vnto the voyce of the LORDE youre God.

Chapter 9

1 Hear O Israel, This daie shalt thou go ouer Iordane, that thou maiest come in to conquere the nacions, which are greater and mightier then thou, greate cities, walled vp vnto heauen,

2 a greate people and of an hye stature, namely the childre of Enakim, whom thou hast knowne, and of whom thou hast herde saye: Who is able to stonde agaynst the children of Enakim?

3 Therefore shalt thou knowe this daye, that the LORDE yi God goeth before the, a cosumynge fyre. He shal destroye the, and shall subdue them before the, and shal driue them out, & shortly shall he brynge the to naught, as the LORDE hath promysed the.

4 Now when the LORDE thy God hath expelled them out before the, saye not thou the in thine hert: The LORDE hath brought me in to take possession of this lande for myne awne righteousnes sake, where as ye LORDE yet dryueth out the Heithen before the, because of their vngodlynnes.

5 For thou comest not in to take their londe in possession, for thine awne righteousnes sake, and because of thy right hert: but the LORDE dryueth out these Heythen, for their awne vngodlynnes sake, and that he maye performe the worde, which the LORDE hath sworne vnto yi fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob.

6 Vnderstonde now therefore, that the LORDE yi God geueth not the this londe to possesse it, for thine awne righteousnes sake. For thou art a styffnecked people.

7 Remembre and forget not, how thou displeasdest the LORDE thy God in the wilderness. Sence ye daye that thou departedst out of the londe of Egipte, tyll ye came vnto this place, haue ye bene dishobedient vnto the LORDE.

8 For in Horeb ye angered the LORDE, so that of wrath he wolde haue destroyed you,

9 when I was gone vp to ye mount, to receaue the tables of stone, namely the tables of the couenaunt which the LORDE made wt you, and I abode fortye dayes & fortye nightes vpon the mount, and ate no bred, & dranke no water:

10 and the LORDE gaue me ye two tables of stone, wrytten with the fynger of God, and in them was accordinge to all the wordes, which the LORDE sayde vnto you vpon the mount out of the fyre, in the daye of the gatheringe together.

11 And after the fortye dayes and fortye nightes, ye LORDE gaue me ye two tables of stone, namely ye tables of the couenaunt, 12 and sayde vnto me: vp, & get ye downe quickly from hence, for thy people whom thou broughtest out of Egipte, haue marred the selues, they are soone gone out of the waye, which I commaunded them, and haue made them a molten ymage.

13 And the LORDE saide vnto me: I se this people, that it is a styffnecked people:

14 let me alone, that I maye destroye them, and put out their name from vnder heaue. I wyl make of the a people mightier and greater the this is.

15 And as I turned me, & wente downe fro the mount which brent wt fyre, & had ye two tables of the couenaunt in both my hades, 16 I loked, & beholde, ye had synned agaynst ye LORDE your God, so yt ye had made you a molten calfe, & were soone turned out of ye waie which the LORDE had commaunded you.

17 Then toke I the two tables, & cast them out of both my handes, & brake the before youre eyes, 18 & I fell before the LORDE (euen as at the first tyme) fortye dayes & fortye nightes, & nether ate bred, ner drake water, because of all youre synnes which ye had synned, when ye dyd soch euell in the sighte of the LORDE, to prouoke him vnto wrath.

19 For I was afrayed of the wrath and indignacion, wherwith the LORDE was angrie wt you, euen to haue destroyed you. And the LORDE herde me at that tyme also.

20 Morouer the LORDE was very angrie wt Aaron, so that he wolde haue destroyed him, but I made intercession for Aaron also at ye same tyme.

21 As for youre synne (namely, the calfe that ye had made) I toke it, and burnt it with the fyre, and smote it a sunder, & grynde it in peces, euen vnto dust, and cast the dust in to the broke that descended from the mount.

22 Ye displeasdest the LORDE also, at Tabera, and at Massa, and at the lustgraues,

23 and wha he sent you from Cades Barnea, and sayde: Go vp, and conquere the londe which I haue geuen you. And ye were disobedient vnto the mouth of the LORDE your God, and beleued not on him, and herkened not vnto his voyce:

24 for ye haue bene disobediet vnto the LORDE, as longe as I haue knowne you.

25 The fell I before ye LORDE fortye daies and fortye nightes, which I laye there. For ye LORDE sayde, he wolde destroye you.

26 But I made intercession vnto the LORDE, and sayde: O LORDE LORDE, destroye not yi people and thine enheritaunce, which thou thorow thy greate power hast delyuered, and broughte out of Egipte with a mightie hade.

27 Remembre thy seruauantes Abraham, Isaac and Iacob. Loke not vpon the stubburnesse, and vngodlynnesse and synne of this people

28 (that the londe wherout thou hast broughte vs, saye not: The LORDE was not able to bringe them in to the lande, that he promysed them, and because he hated them, therefore hath he broughte them out, to destroye the in the wyldernes:)

29 For they are thy people & thine enheritaunce, which thou hast broughte out wt thy greate power, and with thy stretched out arme.

Chapter 10

1 At the same tyme sayde the LORDE vnto me: Hew ye two tables of stone like vnto the first, and come vp vnto me in to the mount, and make ye an Arke of wod,

2 and in the tables I wyll wryte the wordes, that were in the first, which thou brakest, and thou shalt laye them in the Arke.

3 So I made an Arke of Fyrre tre, and hewed two tables of stone (like as the first were) & wente vp into the mount, and ye two tables were in my hande.

4 Then wrote he in ye tables (acordinge as the first wrytinge was) the ten verses, which the LORDE spake vnto you out of the fyre vpon the mountayne, at the tyme of the gatheringe together. And the LORDE gaue the vnto me.

5 And I turned me, & wente downe from the mount, and layed the tables in the Arke which I had made, that they mighte be there, as the LORDE commaunded me.

6 And the childre of Israel departed from Beroth & Bue Iackan vnto Mosera (there dyed Aaron, & there was he buried: & Eleasar his sonne became prest in his steade.)

7 Fro thence they departed from Gadgad. From Gadgad to Iathbath, a londe of ryuers of water.

8 At the same season the LORDE separated out the trybe of Leui, to beare the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt, and to stonde before the LORDE, to mynister vnto him, and to prayse his name vnto this daye.

9 Therefore shal the Leuites haue no porcion ner enheritaunce with their brethren: for the LORDE is their enheritaunce, as the LORDE thy God hath promysed them.

10 But I taried vpo the mount (like as afore) euen fortye dayes and fortye nightes, and the LORDE herde me at that tyme also, and wolde not destroye the.

11 But he sayde vnto me: Vp, & get the forth, yt thou mayest go before the people, yt they maye come in, and coquere the lode, which I sware vnto their fathers to geue them.

12 Now Israel, what requyareth the LORDE thy God of the, but yt thou feare the LORDE thy God, and that thou walke in all his wayes, & loue him, & serue the LORDE yi God with all thy hert, & with all thy soule:

13 and yt thou kepe the comaundementes of ye LORDE, & his ordinaunces, which I comaunde the this daye, yt thou mayest prospere?

14 Beholde, the heauen & the heauen of all heaues and the earth, and all yt is therein, is ye LORDES yi God.

15 Yeth hath he had a pleasure vnto yi fathers, to loue the: and hath chosen their sede after the, namely you, aboue all nacions, as it is come to passe this daye. 16 Circumcyse therefore ye foreskynne of yor hert, & be nomore styffnecked.

17 For the LORDE your God is God of all goddes, & LORDE ouer all lordes, a greate God, mightie & terryble, which regardeth no personne, & taketh no giftes

18 and doeth righte vnto the fatherlesse and wedowe, and loueth the straunger, to geue him fode & rayment.

19 Therefore shal ye loue a strauger, for ye youre selues also were straungers in the londe of Egipte.

20 Thou shalt feare the LORDE thy God, him onely shalt thou serue, vnto him shalt thou cleue & swear by his name.

21 He is thy prayse & yi God, which hath done for ye these greate & terryble thinges, yt thine eyes haue sene.

22 Thy fathers wete downe into Egipte wt seuentye soules, but now hath ye LORDE thy God made the as ye starres of heauen in multitude.

Chapter 11

1 Therefore shalt thou loue the LORDE yi God, & kepe his comaundemetes, his ordinaunces, his lawes, & his preceptes all yi life loge.

2 And vnderstode this daye, that which youre childre knowe not: Which haue not sene the nourtoure of the LORDE your God, & his greatnesse, & his mightie hande, & his stretched out arme,

3 & his tokens and actes which he dyd amonge the Egipcias, vnto Pharao the kyng of Egipte, & to all his londe,

4 & what he dyd to the power of ye Egipcians, & vnto their horses & charettes, when he broughte the waters of the reed see vpo them, as they folowed after you, & how ye LORDE hath broughte them to naught vnto this daye: 5 & what he dyd vnto you in the wilderness, vntyll ye came vnto this place:

6 what he dyd vnto Dathan and Abiram the children of Eliab the sonne of Ruben, how the earth opened hir mouth and swallowed them with their householdes & tetes all their good that they had in the myddes amonge all Israel.

7 For youre eyes haue sene the greate workes of ye LORDE, which he hath done.

8 Therefore shal ye kepe all the comaundementes which I commaunde you this daye, that ye maye be stronge to come in, and to conquere the londe, whither ye go to possesse it,

9 & that ye maye lyue longe in the londe, which the LORDE sware vnto youre fathers, to geue vnto them and to their sede, eue a londe that floweth with mylke and hony:

10 For the londe whither thou comest in, to possesse it, is not as the londe of Egipte, whence ye came out, where thou sowdest thy sede, and waterdest it at thy fote as a garden of herbes:

11 but it hath hilles and valleys, which drynke water of the rayne of heauen,

12 a londe that the LORDE thy God careth for. And the eyes of the LORDE thy God are allwaye therin from the begynnyng of the yeare vnto the ende,
 13 Yf ye shal herken therfore vnto my commaundementes, which I commaunde you this daye, yt ye loue the LORDE youre God, and serue him, with all youre hert and with all youre soule
 14 then wyl I geue rayne vnto youre lode in due season, early and late, that thou mayest gather in thy come, thy wyne and thine oyle:
 15 and I wyll geue grasse vpon thy felde for thy catell, that ye maye eate & be fylled.
 16 But bewarre, yt youre hert be not disceaded, that ye go asyde, & serue other goddes, & worships them,
 17 and then the wrath of the LORDE waxe whote vpo you, and he shut vp the heaue, that there come no rayne, and the earth geue not hir increase, & ye perishe shortly from the good lode, which the LORDE hath geuen you.
 18 Put vp therfore these my wordes in youre hertes and in youre soules, and bynde the for a signe vpon youre handes, yt they maye be a token of remembrance before yor eyes:
 19 and teach them youre children, so that thou talke therof, whan thou syttest in thine house, or walkest by the waye: whan thou lyst downe, and whan thou rysest vp:
 20 and wryte them vpon the postes of thine house, and vpon thy gates,
 21 that thou and thy children maye lye longe in the londe, which the LORDE sware vnto thy fathers to geue them, as longe as the dayes of heauen endure vpon earth.
 22 For yf ye shal kepe all these commaundementes which I commaunde you, so that ye do thereafter, that ye loue the LORDE youre God, and walke in all his wayes, and cleue vnto him, 23 then shall the LORDE dryue out all these nacions before you, so that ye shall coquere greater and mightier nacions then ye youre selues are.
 24 All the places that the soles of youre fete treade vpon, shalbe yours, from the wyldernes, and fro mount Libanus, and from the water Euphrates vnto ye vtmost see shal youre coastes be.
 25 Noman shal be able to wstonde you. The LORDE youre God shal let the feare and drede of you come vpon all ye londes wherin ye go, like as he hath promysed you.
 26 Beholde, I laye before you this daye the blesyng and the curse.
 27 The blesyng, yf ye be obedient vnto the commaundementes of the LORDE youre God, which I commaunde you this daye.
 28 The curse, yf ye wyl not be obedient to the commaundementes of the LORDE youre God, but turne out of the waye, which I comaunde you this daye, so that ye walke after other goddes, whom ye knowe not.
 29 Whan ye LORDE yi God hath broughte the in to the londe, whither thou comest in to possesse it, then shalt thou geue the blesyng vpon mount Grism, and the curse vpon mount Ebal, 30 which are beyonde Iordane the waye towarde the goinge downe of the Sonne, in the lode of the Cananites, which dwell in ye playne felde ouer agaynst Gilgal, besyde the Oke groue of More.

 31 For ye shal go ouer Iordane, that ye maye come in to take possession of the londe, which the LORDE youre God hath geuen you, to conquere it, and to dwell therin.
 32 Take hede now therfore, that ye do acordinge vnto all the ordinaunces and lawes, which I laye before you this daye.

Chapter 12

1 These are the ordinaunces and lawes which ye shal kepe, that ye do thereafter in the londe, which the LORDE God of thy fathers hath geuen the to possesse, as longe as ye lye vpon earth.
 2 Destroye all the places, wherin ye Heithen (who ye shal conquere) haue serued their goddes, whether it be vpo hye mountaynes, vpo hilles, or amonge grene trees.
 3 And ouerthrowe their altares, and breake downe their pilers, and burne their groues with fyre, and hewe downe the ymages of their goddes, & brynge the names of them to naught out of the same place.
 4 Ye shal not do so vnto the LORDE youre God:
 5 but the place which ye LORDE youre God shal chose out of all yor trybes (that he maye let his name dwell there) shal ye seke,
 6 and come thither, and thither shal ye brynge youre burnt sacrifices, & youre other offerynges, and youre tithes and the Heueofferings of your handes, and youre vowes, and youre fre wyll offerynges, and the firstborne of youre oxen and shepe:
 7 and there shall ye eate before the LORDE youre God, and reioyse ouer all that ye and youre houses haue geue with youre handes, because the LORDE thy God hath blessed the.
 8 Ye shall do none of the thinges, yt we do here this daye, euery man what semeth him good in his awne eyes.
 9 For ye are not yet come to rest, ner to ye enheritaunce which the LORDE thy God shal geue the.
 10 But ye shal go ouer Iordane, and dwell in the londe yt the LORDE youre God shall deuyde out vnto you, & he shal geue you rest from all your enemies rounde aboute, and ye shal dwell safe.
 11 Now whan the LORDE thy God hath chosen a place, to make his name dwell there, ye shall brynge thither all yt I haue commaunded you, namely, yor burnt sacrifices, youre other offerynges, youre tythes, the Heueofferings of your handes, & all youre fre vowes, which ye shall vowe vnto ye LORDE:

12 and there shal ye eate, and reioyse before the LORDE youre God, ye and youre sonnes, and youre daughters, and youre seruantes, and youre maydes, and the Leuites that are within youre gates, for they haue no porcion ner inheritaunce with you.
 13 Take hede vnto thy selfe, that thou offer not thy burnt offerynges in what so euer place thou seyst:
 14 but in the place which ye LORDE shall haue chosen in one of thy trybes, there shalt thou offer thy burnt offerynges, and do all that I commaunde the.
 15 Notwstondinge thou mayest kyll and eate flesh within all thy gates, after all the desyre of thy soule, acordinge to the blesyng of the LORDE thy God, which he hath geue the: both the cleane and vnclane maye eate it, as of the Roo and herte, 16 onely the bloude shalt thou not eate, but poure it out as water vpon the earth.
 17 But within thy gates mayest thou not eate of the tythes of thy corne, of thy wyne, & of thy oyle, ner of ye first borne of thine oxen and of thy shepe, or of eny of thy vowes which thou hast vowed, or of thy frewyll offerynges, or Heueofferings of thy handes:
 18 but before the LORDE thy God shalt thou eate them, in the place which the LORDE thy God choseth, thou & thy sonne, and thy daughter, thy seruauant, thy mayde, and the Leuite that is within yi gates, & thou shalt reioyse before ye LORDE thy God, ouer all yt thou putttest thine hande vnto.
 19 And bewarre, that thou forsake not the Leuite, as longe as thou lyst vpon the earth.
 20 But whan the LORDE thy God shal enlarge thy bordes of thy londe (as he hath promysed the) and thou saye: I wil eate flesh (for so moch as thy soule longeth to eate flesh) then eate flesh acordinge to all the desyre of thy soule.
 21 But yf the place that the LORDE thy God hath chosen (to let his name be there) be farre from the, then kyll of yi oxen and of thy shepe, which the LORDE hath geuen the, as he hath commaunded the, and eate it within thy gates acordinge to all ye desyre of thy soule.
 22 Euen as a Roo or Hert is eaten, maiest thou eate it: both the cleane and vnclane maie eate it indifferently.
 23 Onely bewarre, that thou eate not the bloude: for the bloude is the life. Therefore shalt thou not eate the life wt the flesh,
 24 but shalt poure it out like water vpon the earth,
 25 yt thou mayest prospere, and yi children after the, whan thou hast done that which is righte in the sighte of the LORDE.
 26 But whan thou halowest oughte that is thine, or makest a vowe, thou shalt take it, and brynge it vnto the place, that the LORDE hath chosen, 27 and do thy burnt offerynges with the flesh and bloude vpon the altare of the LORDE thy God. The bloude of thine offryng shalt thou poure vpon the altare of the LORDE thy God, and eate the flesh.

 28 Take hede, and heare all these wordes, which I commaunde the, yt it maye go well with the, and thy children after ye for euer, whan thou hast done yt which is righte and acceptable in the sighte of the LORDE thy God.
 29 Whan the LORDE yi God hath roted out the Heithen before the, whither thou comest into conquere them, & whan thou hast coquered them, & dwelt in their londe, 30 bewarre then, yt thou fall not in the snare after the, whan they are destroyed before the: & that thou axe not after their goddes, & saye: Eue as these nacions haue serued their goddes, so wil I do also.
 31 Thou shalt not do so vnto the LORDE thy God. For all that is abhominacion vnto the LORDE, & that he hateth, ye same haue they done vnto their goddes. For they haue burnt euen their sonnes and their daughters with fyre vnto their goddes.
 32 All that I commaunde you, shal ye kepe, that ye do thereafter. Ye shal put nothinge therto, ner take ought there from.

Chapter 13

1 Yf there ryse vp a prophet or dreamer amonge you, and geue the a token or a wonder,
 2 and that token or wonder which he spake of, come to passe, and then saye: Let vs go after other goddes (whom thou knowest not) and let vs serue the:
 3 Thou shalt not herken vnto the wordes of soch a prophet or dreamer. For ye LORDE youre God proueth you, to wete whether ye loue him with all youre hert, & with all youre soule.
 4 For ye shall walke after the LORDE youre God, and feare him, and kepe his commaundementes, & herken vnto his voyce, and serue him, and cleue vnto him.
 5 As for that prophet or dreamer, he shal dye: because he hath spoken to turne you awaye from the LORDE youre God (which broughte you out of the londe of Egipte, and delyuered you from the house of bondage) to thrust the out of the waye, which the LORDE thy God commaunded the to walke in, and so shalt thou put awaie the euell from the.
 6 Yf thy brother, the sonne of thy mother, or thine awne sonne, or thy daughter, or the wyfe in thy bosome, or thy frende which is vnto the as thine owne soule, entyse the secretly, and saye: Let vs go and serue other goddes (whom thou knowest not, ner yet thy father)
 7 which are amonge the nacions rounde aboute you, whether they be nye vnto the or farre from the, from the one ende of the earth vnto the other:
 8 consente not vnto him, and herke not vnto him. Thine eye also shal not pytie him, and thou shalt haue no compassion vpon him, ner kepe him secrete, but shalt cause him to be slayne:

9 thine hade shalbe first vpon him, to cause him to be slayne, and then the handes of all the people.

10 He shalbe stoned to death, because he wente aboute to thrust the awaye from the LORDE thy God, which broughte the out of the londe of Egipte from the house of bodage:

11 yt all Israel maye heare, and feare him, and do nomore soch euell amonge you.

12 Yf thou hearest in eny cite which ye LORDE thy God hath geue the to dwell in,

13 that it is sayde: There are certayne men, the children of Belial, gone out from amonge you, and haue discaued the inhabitors of their cite, and sayde: let vs go, and serue other goddes, whom ye knowe not.

14 Then shalt thou seke, make search, and enquire diligently. And yf it be founde of a trueth, that it is so in dede, yt soch abhominacion is wroughte amonge you,

15 then shalt thou smyte the indwellers of the same cite and their catell, with the edge of the swerde, and damne the cite with all that is therein:

16 and all the spoyle therof shalt thou gather together in the myddes of the stretes of it, and burne with fyre, both the cite and all the spoyle therof together vnto the LORDE yi God, that it maye lye vpon a heape for euer, and neuer be buylded eny more.

17 And let nothinge of the damned thinge cleue vnto thy hande, that the LORDE maye be turned from the indignacion of his wrath, and graunte the mercy, and haue compassion on the, and multiplye the (as he hath sworne vnto thy fathers) 18 because thou has herkened vnto ye voyce of the LORDE thy God, to kepe all his commaundementes, which I commaunde the this daye, so that thou doest the thinge which is righte in the sighte of the LORDE thy God.

Chapter 14

1 Ye are the children of the LORDE youre God, Cut not youre selues therfore, & make you no baldnesse betwene youre eyes ouer eny deed.

2 For thou art an holy people vnto the LORDE thy God. And the LORDE hath chosen the to be his awne peculier people, from amonge all the nacions that are vpon the earth.

3 Thou shalt eate no abhominacion.

4 These are the beestes which ye shal eate: Oxen, shepe, Goates,

5 Hert, Roo, Bugle, wylde goate, Unicorne, Origen, and Camelian.

6 And euery beest that deuydeth his clawe, & cheweth cudd, shal ye eate.

7 Neuertheles these shal ye not eate of them that chewe cudd, and deuyde not the hofte in to two clawes: The Camell, the hayre, & the conye, for though they chewe cudd, yet deuyde they not the hofte, therfore shal they be vncleane vnto you.

8 The swyne, though he deuyde the hofte, yet cheweth he not cudd, he shall be vncleane vnto you: ye shall not eate of the flesh of the, and their deed carcasses shal ye not touche.

9 This is it that ye shall eate of all that is in the waters: All that hath fynnes and scales, shall ye eate.

10 But what so euer hath no fynnes ner scales, that shal ye not eate, for it is vncleane vnto you.

11 Eate of all cleane foules.

12 But these are they, wherof ye shal not eate: The Aegle, ye Goshauke, the Cormoraunte,

13 the Ixion, the Vultur, the Kyte with his kynde,

14 & all Rauens in their kynde,

15 the Estriche, the Night crowe, the Cocow, the Sparow hauke with his kynde,

16 the litle Oule, the greate Oule, ye Backe,

17 the Bytture, the Swanne, the Pellicane, the Pye,

18 the Storke, the Heron, the laye wt his kynde, the Lapwyng, ye Swalowe:

19 And all foules yt crepe, shal be vncleane vnto you, and ye shal not eate them.

20 (Omitted Text)

21 Ye shall eate of nothinge yt dyeth alone: thou mayest geue it vnto ye straunger within yi gate, that he eate it, or sell it to a straunger. For thou art an holy people vnto ye LORDE thy God. Thou shalt not seeth a kydd, whyle it yet sucketh his mother.

22 Thou shalt separate out the tythe all the increase of thy sede, yt cometh out of yi felde euery yeare:

23 & shalt eate it before ye LORDE yi God (in ye place which He choseth, yt his name maye dwell there) namely of ye tythes of thy corne, of thy wyne, of thy oyle, & the first borne of thine oxen, and of thy shepe, yt thou mayest lerne to feare the LORDE thy God, all thy life longe.

24 But yf the waye be to moch for ye, and the place, which ye LORDE thy God hath chosen to set his name there, be to farre from the: & thou canst not cary it that ye LORDE thy God hath blessed the withall,

25 Then geue it for money, & take ye money in thine hande, and go vnto the place which the LORDE thy God hath chosen,

26 and geue the money for all that thy soule desyreth, whether it be ox, shepe, wyne, stronge drynke, or for what so euer thy soule desyreth, and eate there before the LORDE thy God, and be mery, thou and thine housholde, 27 and ye Leuite that is within thy gates. Thou shalt not forsake him, for he hath no porcion nor inheritance with the.

28 In the thirde yeare shalt thou brynge forth all the tithes of thine increase of the same yeare, and shalt laye it within thy gates.

29 The shal the Leuite (which hath no porcion ner enheritance with the) and ye straunger, and the fatherlesse, and the wedowe, which are within thy gates, come and eate, and fyll them selues, that the LORDE thy God maye blesse the in all the workes of yi handes which thou doest.

Chapter 15

1 In the seuenth yeare shalt thou make a Fre yeare. This is ye maner of the Fre yeare.

2 Who so euer ledeth oughte with his hande vnto his neghboure, shal not requyre it of his neghboure or his brother: for it is called the Fre yeare vnto the LORDE.

3 Of a straunger mayest thou requyre it: but vnto him that is thy brother, shalt thou remytte it.

4 There shall be no begger amoge you: for the LORDE shal blesse ye in the lode which the LORDE yi God shal geue ye to inheritance to take it in possession,

5 onely yt thou herke vnto the voyce of the LORDE yi God, & kepe all these comaundemetes which I commaunde the this daye,

6 that thou maiest do thereafter. For the LORDE yi God shal blesse the, as he hath promysed the. The shalt thou lende vnto many nacions, & shalt borowe of noman. Thou shalt raigne ouer many nacions, & noman shal reigne ouer ye.

7 Whan one of thy brethre is waxed poore in eny cite within thy londe, which ye LORDE yi God shal geue ye, thou shalt not harden thine hert, ner withdrawe thine hande from thy poore brother:

8 but shalt open thine hande vnto him, and lende him, accordinge as he hath nede.

9 Bewarre, that there be not a poynte of Belial in thine hert, that thou woldest saye: The seuenth yeare, the yeare of Fredome is at honde. For yf thou lokest not fredly vpo thy poore brother, and geuest him nothinge then shall he crye ouer the vnto the LORDE, and it shall be synne vnto the:

10 But thou shalt geue him, and let it not greue thine hert that thou geuest him. For because of it, shall the LORDE thy God blesse the in all thy workes, and in all that thou puttest thine hande vnto.

11 The londe shal neuer be without poore, therfore commaunde I the and saye, that thou open thine hande vnto thy brother, which is neady and poore in thy londe.

12 Yf thy brother an Hebrue or Hebruisse be solde vnto the, he shal serue the sixe yeare, in the seuenth yeare shalt thou let him go Fre.

13 And wha thou deliuerest him fre, thou shalt not let him go from the emptye,

14 but shalt geue him of thy shepe, of thy corne, and of yi wyne, so that thou geue him of that, which the LORDE thy God hath blessed the withall.

15 And remembre that thou also wast a seruaunte in the lode of Egipte, and how that the LORDE thy God deluyered the, therfore commaunde I the this thinge to daye.

16 But yf he saye vnto the: I wyll not go out awaye from the, for I loue ye and thine house (in so moch as he is well at ease with the)

17 then take a botkyn, and bore him thorow his eare to the dore, and let him be thy seruaunt for euer. And with thy mayde shalt thou do likewise.

18 And let it not seme greuouse vnto the, to let him go fre from the (for he hath serued the sixe yeares as a dubble hyred seruaunt) then shall the LORDE thy God blesse the in all that thou doest.

19 All the first borne that come of thine oxen and shepe, yt are males, shalt thou halowe vnto the LORDE thy God. Thou shalt not plowe with the firstborne of thine ox, and shalt not clyppe the firstborne of thy shepe:

20 Before the LORDE thy God shalt thou eate the euery yeare, in the place that the LORDE choseth, thou and thine housholde.

21 But yf it haue a deformyte, so that it is lame or blynde, or hath eny other euell blemysh, thou shalt not offre it vnto ye LORDE thy God, 22 but shalt eate it within thine awne gates) whether thou be vncleane or cleane) euen as the Roo and Hert.

23 Onely se that thou eate not of the bloude therof, but poure it out as water vpon the gronde.

Chapter 16

1 Obserue the moneth Abib, yt thou offre Easter vnto the LORDE yi God: for in the moneth Abib the LORDE thy God broughte ye out of Egipte by nighte.

2 And for the Easter vnto ye LORDE thy God, thou shalt offre oxen & shepe, in ye place which ye LORDE shal chose, yt his name maye dwell there.

3 Thou shalt eate no leuended bred in yt feast. Seuen dayes shalt thou eate the vnuended bred of thy tribulacion: For with soroufull haist camest thou out of the londe of Egipte, that thou mayest remebre the daye of thy departinge out of ye londe of Egipte, all yi life longe.

4 In seue dayes shal there no leuended bred be sene within all thy coastes: & of the flesh that is offred ye first daye at euen, there shal nothinge be lefte ouer night vntyll the mornynge.

5 Thou mayest not offre Easter wt in eny of thy gates, which the LORDE thy God hath geuen the:

6 but in the place which the LORDE thy God hath chosen, that his name maye dwell there, there shalt thou offre this Easter, at euen whan the Sonne is gone downe, euen in the same season that thou camest out of Egipte:

7 and thou shalt dighte it, and eate it in the place that the LORDE thy God hath chosen, and then turne the on the morowe, & go home in to thy tente.

8 Sixe dayes shalt thou eate vnleueded bred, and on the seuenth daye is the gatheringe together of the LORDE thy God. Thou shalt do no worke therin.

9 Seuen wekes shalt thou nombre vnto ye, and begynne to nombre when the syccle begynneth in the corne,

10 and thou shalt kepe the Feast of wekes vnto the LORDE thy God, that thou geue a frewylofferynge of thine hande, accordinge as the LORDE thy God hath blessed the,

11 and shalt reioyse before the LORDE thy God, thou and thy sonne, thy daughter, thy seruauit, thy mayde, and the Leuite that is within thy gates, ye straunger, the fatherlesse, and the wedowe, that are amonge you, in the place which ye LORDE thy God hath chosen, that his name maye dwell there.

12 And remembre, yt thou wast a seruaunte in Egipte, so that thou kepe and do these ordynaunces.

13 The feast of Tabernacles shalt thou kepe seuen dayes, when thou hast gathered in the frutes of thy barne & of thy wyne presse, 14 and thou shalt reioyse in thy feast, thou and thy sonne, thy daughter, thy seruaunte, thy mayde, the Leuite, the straunger, the fatherlesse, and the wedowe that are within yi gates.

15 Seuen dayes shalt thou kepe ye feast vnto the LORDE thy God, in the place that he hath chosen. For the LORDE thy God shall blesse the in all thy frutes and in all the workes of thine hades. Therefore shalt thou be glad.

16 Thre tymes in the yere shall all thy males appeare before the LORDE thy God (in the place that he shall chose) namely, in the feast of vnleueded bred, in the feast of wekes, and in the feast of Tabernacles. He shall not appeare emptie before the LORDE, 17 but euery one after the gifte of his hande, accordinge to the blessinge that the LORDE thy God hath geuen the.

18 Ivdges & officers shalt thou ordeyne within all yi gates, which ye LORDE thy God geueth the amoge thy trybes, yt they maye iudge the people with righteous iudgment.

19 Thou shalt not wrest the lawe. Thou shalt knowe no persone also, ner take giftes. For giftes blynde the eyes of ye wyse, & peruerte ye righte causes.

20 Loke what righte is, yt shalt thou folowe, that thou mayest lye & possesse the londe, which the LORDE thy God shall geue the.

21 Thou shalt plante no groue (of what so euer trees it be) nye vnto the altare of the LORDE thy God, which thou makest the.

22 Thou shalt set the vp no piler, which ye LORDE yi God hateth.

Chapter 17

1 Thou shalt offre vnto the LORDE thy God no oxo or shepe, that hath a blemish or eny euell fauourednesse on it: for that is abhominacion vnto the LORDE thy God.

2 Yf there be founde amonge you (within eny of thy gates which the LORDE yi God shall geue ye) a man or woman, that worketh wickednesse in ye sighte of the LORDE thy God, so that he transgresseth his couenaute and goeth,

3 and serueth other goddes, & worshippeth them, whether it be Sone or Mone, or eny of the hooste of heauen, which I haue not commaunded,

4 and it is tolde the, & thou hearest of it, Then shalt thou make diligent search therfore. And yf thou fyndest that it is so of a trueth, that soch abhominacion is wroughte in Israel,

5 then shalt thou brynge forth the same man or ye same woma (which haue done soch euell) vnto thy gates and shalt stone them to death.

6 At the mouth of two or thre witnesses shall he dye, that is worthy of death. At the mouth of one witness shall he not dye.

7 The handes of the witnesses shall be the first to kyl him, and the ye handes of all the people, that thou mayest put away the euell from the.

8 Yf a matter be to harde for the iudgment betwixte bloude and bloude, betwixte plee and plee, betwixte stroke and stroke, and yf there be matters of stryfe within thy gates then shalt thou ryse, and go vp vnto ye place that ye LORDE thy God hath chosen:

9 and shalt come to the prestes the Leuites, & to the iudge which shall be at that tyme, and shalt axe. They shall shewe the how to iudge,

10 and thou shalt do therafter, as they saye vnto the, in ye place which the LORDE hath chosen: and thou shalt take hede that thou do accordinge vnto all yt they teach the.

11 Accordinge to the lawe yt they teach the, & after the iudgment that they tell ye, shalt thou do so that thou turne not asyde from ye same, nether to the righte hande ner to the lefte.

12 And yf eny man deale presumptuously, so that he herkeneth not vnto the prest (which stoneth to do seruyce vnto the LORDE thy God) or to the iudge, the same shall dye: and thou shalt put away the euell from Israel, 13 that all ye people maye heare, and feare, and be nomore presumptuous.

14 Whan thou art come in to ye londe which the LORDE thy God shall geue the, & takest it in possession, and dwellest therin, and shalt saie: I wil set a kinge ouer me, as all the nacions haue aboute me, 15 the shalt thou set him to be kyng over the, whom the LORDE thy God shall chose. One of thy brethren shalt thou sett to be kyng over the. Thou mayest not set a strauger over the, which is not thy brother.

16 Onely let him not haue many horses, yt he brynge not ye people againe in to Egipte thorow ye multitude of horses, for as moch as ye LORDE hath sayde vnto you, that from hence forth ye shulde come nomore this waye agayne.

17 He shall not haue many wyues also, that his hert be not turned away. Nether shall he gather him syluer and golde to moch.

18 And whan he is set vpon the seate of his kingdome, he shall take of the prestes the Leuites this seconde lawe, and cause it be wrytten in a boke, 19 and that shall he haue by him, and he shall rede therin all the dayes of his life, that he maye lerne to feare ye LORDE his God, to kepe all the wordes of this lawe, all these ordinauces, so that he do therafter.

20 He shall not lifte vp his herte aboute his brethren, and shall not turne asyde from the commaundement, nether to the right hade ner to the lefte, that he maye prologe his dayes in his kyngdome, he and his children in Israel.

Chapter 18

1 The prestes, the Leuites, all the trybe of Leui shall haue no parte ner enheritaunce wt Israel. The offerynges of ye LORDE & his enheritaunce shall they eate.

2 Therefore shall they haue no inheritaunce amonge their brethren, because the LORDE is their enheritaunce, as he hath saide vnto the

3 This shalbe ye prestes dutye of the people, & of the that offre, whether it be oxo or shepe, so that they geue vnto the prest the shulder and both the chekes, and the brest.

4 And the first frutes of thy corne, of thy wyne and of thy oyle, and the first of thy shepe sheringe.

5 For the LORDE thy God hath chosen him out of all thy trybes, to stonde and mynster in the name of the LORDE, he and his sonnes all the dayes of their life.

6 Yf a Leuite come out of eny of thy gates or out of eny place of all Israel, where he is a gest, and cometh with all the desyre of his soule (vnto the place which the LORDE hath chosen)

7 to mynster in the name of the LORDE his God, like as all his brethren ye Leuites, which stonde there before the LORDE,

8 the shall he haue like porcion of meate with the other: besydes that which he hath of the solde good of his fathers.

9 Whan thou comest in to ye londe which the LORDE thy God shall geue ye, thou shalt not lerne to do ye abhominacions of these nacions,

10 that there be not founde amonge you, yt maketh his sonne or daughter go thorow the fyre, or a prophecier, or a choser out of dayes, or that regardeth the foules cryenge,

11 or a witch, or a coniurer, or soythysayer, or an expounder of tokens, or yt axeth eny thinge of the deed.

12 For who so euer doth soch, is abhominacion vnto the LORDE: and because of soch abhominacions doth the LORDE yi God dryue the out before the.

13 But thou shalt be perfecte with the LORDE yi God.

14 For these nacions whom thou shalt conquire, whom the LORDE thy God hath geuen the, herken to the chosers out of dayes, and to the soythysayers: but so shalt not thou do vnto the LORDE thy God.

15 A prophet, like vnto me, shall the LORDE thy God raise the vp euen out of the, & from amonge thy brethren, vnto him shall ye herke, 16 accordinge as thou desyrest before the LORDE thy God in Horeb, (in the daye of ye gatheringe together) & saydest: Let me heare the voyce of the LORDE my God nomore, and se nomore this greite fyre, that I dye not.

17 And ye LORDE saide vnto me: They haue well spoken.

18 I wil raise them vp a prophet from amonge their brethren like vnto the, and wyl put my wordes in his mouth, & he shall speake vnto them all that I shall comaunde him.

19 And who so euer wyl not herken vnto my wordes, which he shall speake in my name, of him wil I requyre it.

20 But yf a prophete presume to speake ought in my name, which I haue not comauded him to speake: and he that speaketh in ye name of other goddes, yt same prophete shall dye.

21 But yf thou saye in thine hert: How can I knowe what worde the LORDE hath not spoken?

22 Euen whan the prophete speaketh in the name of ye LORDE, and the thinge foloweth not, and commeth not to passe, ye same is the worde, yt the LORDE hath not spoke. The prophet hath spoke it presumtuously, therefore be not afrayed of him.

Chapter 19

1 Whan ye LORDE thy God shall haue roted out ye nacions, whose londe ye LORDE thy God shall geue the, so yt thou hast conquered them, and dwellest in their cities and houses,

2 thou shalt appoynte the out thre cities in the myddes of the lode, yt the LORDE thy God shall geue ye to possesse.

3 Thou shalt prepare the waye, and parte the coastes of yi londe (which ye LORDE thy God shall deuyde out vnto the) in to thre partes, that whosoeuer hath commytted a slaughter, maye flie thither.

4 And this shalbe the cause, that whosoeuer hath committed a slaughter, maye flye thither, and lye.

5 Yf eny man smyte his neghboure vnawares, and hath not hated him in tyme passed (as whan a man goeth vnto the wod with his neghboure to hew downe tymbre, and he turneth his hande wt the axe to hewe downe the wod, and the yron slyppeth from the helue, and hytteth his neghboure, that he dyeth) the same shall flye in to one of these cities, that he maye lye,

6 lest the auenger of bloude folowe after the deedsleyer, whyle his hert is whote, and ouertake him, whyle the waye is so farre, and slaye him, where as yet no cause of death is in hi, for so moch as he hated him not in tyme passed.

7 Therefore commaunde I the, that thou appoynte out thre cities.

8 And whan the LORDE yi God enlargeth thy borders, as he hath sworne vnto thy fathers, & geueth the all the lode which he promysed thy fathers to geue 9 (so that thou kepe all these comaundementes, and do yt I commaunde the this daye, yt thou loue the LORDE thy God, and walke in his wayes all yi life longe) the shalt thou adde yet thre cities vnto these thre,

10 that innocent bloude be not shed in thy londe (which the LORDE yi God geueth the to enheritaunce) and so bloude come vpon the.

11 But yf eny man beare hate agaynst his neghboure, and layeth waite for him, and ryseth agaynst him, and smyteth him that he dye, and flyeth in to one of these cities,

12 then shall the Elders of the same cite sende thither, and cause him to be fetched from thence, and delyuer him in to the handes of the auenger of bloude, that he maye dye:

13 thine eye shal not pitie him, and the giltye bloude shalt thou put awaye fro Israel, that thou mayest prosper.

14 Thou shalt not remoue thy neghbours marck, which they of olde tyme haue set in thine enheritaunce, that thou enheretest in the londe, which the LORDE thy God hath geuen the to possesse it.

15 One witness shal not stonde vp alone agaynst a man, ouer eny trespase or synne, what maner of synne so euer it be, yt a man can do, but in the mouth of two or thre witnesses shal euery matter be established.

16 But yf an vnrighteous wytnesse stonde vp agaynst eny man, to testifye eny trespase vpon him, 17 then shall both the men that stryue together, stonde before the LORDE, before the prestes and Iudges, which shall be at the same tyme.

18 And the iudges shall make diligent inquisition: & yf the witness be founde false, and hath geue false witness agaynst his brother, 19 then shall ye do vnto him, euen as he thoughte to do vnto his brother: that thou mayest put awaye the euell from the that 20 other maye heare and feare, and take nomore vpon them to do soch wicked poyntes amonge you.

21 Thine eye shall not pitie him. Soule for soule, eye for eye, tothe for tothe, hande for hande, fote for fote.

Chapter 20

1 Whan thou goest out to battayll agaynst thine enemies, and seyst horses and charettes of the people more then thou, be not afrayed of them: for the LORDE thy God which brought ye out of the londe of Egipte, is with the.

2 Now wha ye are come nye vnto the battayll, the prest shal steppe forth, & speake to the people,

3 and saye vnto the: Heare Israel: Ye go this daye in to the battayll agaynst youre enemies, let not yor hert faynte. Feare not, be not afrayed, ner a drede of them.

4 For the LORDE youre God goeth with you, to fyghte for you agaynst youre enemies, yt he maye saue you.

5 And the captaynes shal speake to ye people, and saye: Who so hath buylded a new house, and hath not dedicate it, let him go, and byde in his house, that he dye not in ye battayll, and another dedicate it.

6 Who so hath planted a vynyarde, and hath not yet made it comen, lett him go, and byde at home, that he dye not in the battayll, and another make it comen.

7 Who so hath spoused a wyfe, and hath not yet brought her home, let him go, and byde at home, yt he die not in the battayll, & another brynge her home.

8 And the captaynes shal speake further vnto the people, and saye: He that feareth and hath a faynte hert, lett him go, and byde at home, that he make not his brethrens hert fainte also, like as his hert is.

9 And whan the captaynes haue made an ende of speakinge vnto the people, they shall set the rulers of the hoost before the people in the fore fronte.

10 Whan thou commest nye vnto a cite to fight against it, thou shalt offre them peace

11 Yf they answere the peaceably, and open vnto the, then shall all ye people yt is founde therein, be tributaries vnto the, and serue ye.

12 But yf they wyl not deale peaceably wt the, and wyll warre with the, then besege it:

13 and whan the LORDE thy God delyuereth it in to thy hande, thou shalt smyte all the males that are therein, with the edge of the swerde:

14 saue the wemen and the children. As for the catell, and all that is in the cite, and all the spoyle, thou shalt take them vnto thy selfe, and eate the spoyle of thine enemies, which the LORDE thy God hath geuen the.

15 Thus shalt thou do vnto all the cities, that are very farre from the, and are not of the cities of these nacions.

16 But in the cities of these nacions, which the LORDE thy God shall geue the to enheritaunce, thou shalt leaue nothinge alyue that hath breth, 17 but shalt vtterly destroye the, namely the Hethites, Amorites, Cananites, Pheresites, Heuites, & Iebusites, as the LORDE thy God hath commaunded the, 18 yt they teache you not to do all ye abhominacions, which they do vnto their goddes, & so ye to synne agaynst the LORDE youre God.

19 Whan thou must lye a longe season before a cite, against the which thou makest warre to take it, thou shalt not destroye ye trees therof that thou woldest hew them downe wt the axe, for thou mayest eate therof: and therefore shalt thou not hew them downe. For it is but wodd vpon the felde, and no man, and can not come & be bullworkes agaynst the.

20 But the trees which thou knowest yt me eate not of, those shalt thou destroye, and rote out, and make bullworkes therof, agaynst the cite that warreth with the, tyll thou haue ouercome it.

Chapter 21

1 Whan there is one slayne founde in ye londe which ye LORDE yi God shall geue ye to possesse it, & lyeth in ye felde, & it is not knowne who hath slaine him, 2 then shal thy Elders & iudges go forth, and mee from the slayne vnto the cities that lyet rounde aboute.

3 Loke which cite is the nexte, ye Elders of the same shal take a yoge cowe, which hath not bene laboured, ner hath drawe in the yocke,

4 & they shal brynge her in to a valley, where as is nether earinge nor sowinge, and strike of hir heade there in the valley.

5 Then shal the prestes ye children of Leui come forth. (For the LORDE thy God hath chosen them, to serue him, and to prayse his name: and at their mouth shal all plees and strypes be tried.)

6 And all the Elders of the same cite shall come forth vnto the slayne, & wash their handes ouer ye yonge cowe, whose heade is stricken of in the valley,

7 and shal answere and saie: Oure hades haue not shed this bloude, nether haue oure eyes sene it.

8 Be mercifull (O LORDE) vnto thy people of Israel, who thou hast delyuered, laye no innocent bloude vnto thy people of Israels charge: then shall they be reconcyled from the bloude.

9 Thus shalt thou put awaye the innocent bloude from the, in that thou doest the thinge whis is righte in the sighte of ye LORDE.

10 Wha thou goest forth to warre against thine enemies, & the LORDE thy God delyuereth them in to thine handes, so that thou cariest awaye their presoners,

11 and seist amoge the captiues a bewtyfull woman, & hast a desyre vnto her to take her to thy wife,

12 the brynge her home to thine house, and let her shaue hir heade, and pare hir nayles,

13 and put of hir clothes that she was taken presoner in, and let her sit in thine house, and mourne for hir father and mother a moneth longe after that lye with her, and mary her, and let her be thy wife.

14 But yf thou haue no fauoure vnto her, then shalt thou let her go whither she wyll, and not to sell her, ner to make cheusaunce of her, because thou hast dishonoured her.

15 Yf a man haue two wyues, one that he loueth, and one that he hateth, and they beare him children, both the beloued and the hated,

16 so that the firstborne be hirs that is hated, and the tyme commeth that he dealeth out the inheritaunce vnto his children, then can he not make the sonne of ye beloued firstborne before the firstborne sonne of the hated,

17 but he shall knowe the sonne of the hated for ye first sonne, so that he geue him dubble of all that is at hande: for the same is ye begynnyng of his strength, & the firstbrythrighte is his.

18 Yf eny man haue a stubborne and dishobedient sonne, which herkeneth not vnto the voyce of his father, and mother, and whan they teach him nurtoure, wyll not folowe them,

19 then shall his father and mother take him, and brynge him to ye Elders of their cite, and to the gate of the same place, 20 and saye vnto the Elders of the cite: This oure sonne is stobburne and dishobedient, and herkeneth not vnto oure voyce, and is a ryoter and a dronkarde.

21 Then shal all the men of ye same cite stone him to death: and thus shalt thou put awaye the euell fro the, that all Israel maye heare and feare.

22 Yf a man haue commytted a synne yt is worthy of death, and is put to death, so that he is hanged on tre,

23 then shal not his body remayne all night on tre, but thou shalt burye him the same daye (For cursed is he of God that is hanged) that thou defyle not thy londe, which the LORDE thy God geueth the to enheritaunce.

Chapter 22

1 Yf thou se thy brothers oxe or shepe, go astraie, thou shalt not withdrawe thy selfe from them, but shalt brynge the againe vnto yi brother.

2 But yf yi brother be not nye vnto the, & thou knowest him not, then shalt thou take the in to thine house, yt they maye be wt the, tyll ye brother axe after them, & then delyuer him the agayne.

3 In like maner shalt thou do with his Asse, wt his rayment, & with euery lost thinge of yi brother, which he hath lost, & thou hast founde it: thou mayest not withdrawe thyselfe.

4 Yf thou se thy brothers oxe or Asse fallen downe by the waye, thou shalt not wt drawe thy selfe from him, but shalt helpe him vp.

5 A woman shall not weere yt which pertayneth to a man, nether shal a man put on womans raymet. For who so euer doth soch, is abhominacion vnto ye LORDE yi God.

6 Yf thou chauce vpon a byrdes nest by ye waye in a tre, or on the grounde, with yonge or with egges, and the dame syttinge vpon the yonge or vpon the egges, thou shalt not take the dame with the yonge,

7 but shalt let the dame flye, and take the yonge, that thou mayest prospere and lyue longe.

8 Whan thou buyldest a new house, make a battelment aboute thy rofe, that thou lade not bloude vpon thine house, yf eny man fall therof.

9 Thou shalt not sowe thy vynyarde with dyuerse sedes, that thou halowe not (to the full offerynge) the sede which thou hast sowne, with the increase of the vynyarde.

10 Thou shalt not plowe with an oxe and an Asse together at one tyme.

11 Thou shalt not weere a garmet, yt is mixte with wollen and lynnen together.

12 Thou shalt make gardes vpon the foure quarters of thy garment, wherwith thou couerest thy selfe.

13 Yf a man take a wife, and hate her whan he hath lyen with her,

14 and layeth eny shameful thinge vnto hir charge, and bryngeth vp an euell name vpon her, and sayeth: I toke this wife, & whan I came to her, I founde her not a mayde.

15 Then shall the father and mother of the damsell take her, and brynge forth the tokens of the damsels virginite before the Elders of the cite, euen vnto the gate.

16 And ye damsels father shall saie vnto ye Elders: I gaue this man my daughter to wyfe. Now hateth he her, 17 and layeth a shameful thinge to hir charge, and sayeth: I founde not thy daughter a mayde. And lo, these are the tokens of my daughters virginite. And they shall sprede out the clothe before the Elders of the cite.

18 So shall the Elders of the cite take that man, and chastice him, 19 and put a pennaunce vpon him of an hundreth Sycles of syluer, and geue the same vnto the father of the damsell, because he hath brougte vp an euell name of a mayde in Israel, and he shall haue her to wyfe, so yt he maye not forsake her all his life longe.

20 But yf it be of a trueth, that the damsell is not founde a virgin, 21 the shall be brought forth vnto the dore of hir fathers house, and the me of the cite shall stone her to death, because she hath wrought foly in Israel, and played the whore in hir fathers house. And so shalt thou put away the euell from the.

22 Yf a man be founde lienge with a woma that hath a married husbande, they shall dye both the man, & the woma that he hath lien withall. And so shalt thou put away euell from Israel.

23 Yf a mayde be handfested to eny man, & another man getteth her in the cite, & lyeth with her,

24 ye shall brynge them both out vnto the gate of the cite, and stone them both, yt they dye. The damsell, because she cryed not, beynge in the cite. The man, because he hath brought his neighbours wife to shame. And thou shalt put away the euell from the.

25 But yf a man get an handfested damsell vpon the felde, and take her, and lye wt her, then the man that laye with her, shall dye alone,

26 and vnto the damsell thou shalt do nothinge: for she hath done no synne worthy of death. It is like as yf a man rose against his neghboure, and slewe him, euen so is this also.

27 For he founde her in the felde, and the handfested damsell cryed, and there was no man to helpe her.

28 Yf a man fynde a mayde that is not hadfested, and take her, and lye with her, and be founde, 29 then shall he that laye with her, geue hir father fyftie Sycles of syluer, and shall haue her to wyfe, because he hath shamed her: he maye not forsake her all his life loge.

30 Noma shall take his fathers wife, ner vncouer his fathers couerynge.

Chapter 23

1 There shall none that hath his stones broken or yt is gelded, come in to the cogregacion of the LORDE.

2 There shall no whores childe also come in to the cogregacion of ye LORDE, no not after ye tenth generacio, but shall neuer come in to ye cogregacio of ye LORDE.

3 The Ammonites & Moabites shall not come in to ye cogregacio of ye LORDE, no not after ye tenth generacion, but shall neuer come in,

4 because they met you not wt bred & water in ye waye, wha ye came out of Egipte. And besides yt, they hired agaynst you Balaam ye sonne of Beor, ye interpreter out of Mesopotamia, to curse ye.

5 But ye LORDE yi God wolde not heare Balaam, and turned the curse to a blesynge vnto the: because the LORDE yi God loued the.

6 Thou shalt wyssh him nether prosperite ner health all thy life longe for euer.

7 Thou shalt not abhorre an Edomite: for he is thy brother. An Egipcian shalt thou not abhorre, for thou wast a straunger in his londe.

8 The children whom they beget in the thirde generacion, shall come in to the congregacion of ye LORDE.

9 Wha thou goest out to fighte agaynst thine enemies, kepe the from all wickednesse.

10 Yf there be eny man amonge you which is vnclene, so that eny thinge is chaunced to him by nighte, the same shall go out of ye hoost

11 vntyll he haue bathed himselfe with water before euen: and whan the Sonne is gone downe, he shall come in to the hoost agayne.

12 And without the hoost thou shalt haue place to resorte vnto for necessyte.

13 & thou shalt haue a shouell vnder the gyrdle: and whan thou wilt set ye downe without, thou shalt dygge therwith: and whan thou hast done thine easement, thou shalt couer that which is departed from the.

14 For the LORDE thy God walketh in thine hooste, to delyuer the, and to geue thine enemies before the. Therefore shall thy hooste be holy, that he se no vnclene thinge in the, and so turne himselfe from the.

15 Thou shalt not delyuer vnto his master the seruaunt, which is escaped fro him vnto the.

16 He shall dwell with the in the place that he choseth within eny of thy gates, for his wealth, and thou shalt not vexe him.

17 There shall be no whore amonge ye daughters of Israel, nether whorekeper amonge the sonnes of Israel.

18 Thou shalt not bringe ye hyre of an whoore ner the price of a dogg in to the house of the LORDE yi God for eny maner of vowe: for they both are abhominacion vnto the LORDE thy God.

19 Thou shalt occupye no vsury vnto yi brother, nether with money, ner with fode, ner with eny maner thinge that vsury maye be vsed withall.

20 (Vnto a straunger thou maigest lende vpo vsury, but not vnto thy brother) yt the LORDE thy God maye blesse the in all yt thou takest in hade, in the lode whither thou comest in to possesse it.

21 Whan thou makest a vowe vnto ye LORDE yi God, to shalt not be slacke to performe it: for the LORDE thy God shall requyre it of the, and it shall be synne vnto the.

22 Yf thou leaue vowinge, then is it no synne vnto the.

23 But that which is proceaded out of yi lypes shalt thou kepe, and do thereafter, acordinge as thou hast vowed vnto the LORDE of a frewyll, which thou hast spoken wt thy mouth.

24 Whan thou goest in to thy neightours vynyarde, thou mayest eate of the grapes acordinge to thy desyre, tyll thou haue ynough. But thou shalt put none in to thy vessell.

25 Whan thou goest in thy neighbours cornfelde, thou mayest plucke the eares with thine hande, but with a syccle mayest thou not reape therin.

Chapter 24

1 Whan a man taketh a wife, and marieth her, and she findeth no faouere in his eyes because of eny vnclennesse, the shall he wryte a byll of deuorcemet, and geue it her in hir hade, and sende her out of his house.

2 Yf whan she is gone out of his house, she go, and be another mans wyfe,

3 and the same seconde man hate her also, & wryte a byll of deuorcement, and geue it her in hir hande, and sende her out of his house: Or yf the same seconde man dye, which toke her to wyfe,

4 then hir first husbande that put hir awaie, maie not take hir againe to be his wife, in so moch as she is defyled, for that is abhominacion before the LORDE: that thou make not the londe to synne, which the LORDE thy God hath geuen the to enheritaunce.

5 Whan a man hath newly taken a wyfe, he shall not go awarre fare, nether shall he be charged withall. He shall be fre in his house one yeare longe, that he maye be mery wt his wife which he hath taken.

6 Thou shalt no take ye nethermost and vppermost mylstone to pledge, for he hat set ye his lyuynge to pledge.

7 Yf eny man be founde that stealeth one of his brethren, from amonge the childe of Israel, and setteth him to pledge, or selleth him soch a thefe shall dye, that thou maigest put away the euell from the.

8 Kepe the from the plage of leprosie, that thou obserue diligently and do acordinge vnto all that the prestes the Leuites teach the, as I haue commaunded them, yt shall ye obserue and do thereafter.

9 Remembre what the LORDE thy God dyd vnto Miriam by the waye, whan ye were come out of Egipte.

10 Yf thou lendest yi brother eny dett, thou shalt not go into his house, and take a pledge, 11 but shalt stonde without: and he, to who thou lendest, shall brynge out his pledge vnto the.

12 But yf it be a poore body, thou shalt not lye downe to slepe, with his pledge, 13 but shalt delyuer him his pledge agayne, whan the Sonne goeth downe, that he maye slepe in his awne rayment, and blesse the, so shall the same be rekened vnto the for righteousnes before the LORDE thy God.

14 Thou shalt not withdrawe the hyre of ye nedye and poore amonge thy brethren, or straunger that is in thy londe, 15 or within thy gates, but shalt geue him his hyre the same daye, that the Sonne go not downe thereon, for so moch as he is nedye, and his life susteyned therwith: that he call not vpon the LORDE agaynst the, and it be synne vnto the.

16 The fathers shall not dye for the children, ner the childe for the fathers, but euery one shall dye for his awne synne.

17 Thou shalt not wrest the righte of the straunger and of the fatherlesse. And ye wedowes rayment shalt thou not take to pledge:

18 For thou shalt remembre, that thou wast a seruaunte in Egipte, and how that ye LORDE thy God delyuered the from thence, therefore commaunde I the to do this.

19 Whan thou hast reaped downe thine haruest in the felde, and hast forgotten a shefe in the felde, thou shalt not turne agayne to fetch it, but it shall be for the straunger, ye fatherlesse and the wedowe, that the LORDE thy God maye blesse the in all the workes of thy handes.

20 Whan thou hast plucked thine Olyue trees, thou shalt not plucke them vp cleane afterwarde: it shall be for the straunger, the fatherlesse and the wedowe.

21 Whan thou hast gathered thy vynyarde, thou shalt not gather it vp cleane afterwarde: it shall be for the straunger, the fatherlesse and the wedowe.

22 And thou shalt remembre, that thou wast a seruaunt in the londe of Egipte: therefore comaunde I the to do this.

Chapter 25

1 When there is a stryfe betwene men, they shalbe brought before ye lawe and iudged: and the iudges shall iustifye the righteous, and condemne the vngodly.

2 And yf the vngodly haue deserued strypes, the iudge shall commaunde to take him downe, and they shall beate him before him, acordyng to the measure and nombre of his trespace.

3 When they haue geue him fortye strypes, they shall beate him nomore, lest (yf there be mo strypes geuen him) he be beaten to moch, and thy brother be horrible before thine eyes.

4 Thou shalt not mosell the mouth of the oxe, that treadeth out the corne.

5 Whan brethren dwell together, and one of them dye with out children, then shall not ye wife of the deed take a straunge man without, but hir kynsman shal go in vnto her, and take her to wyfe:

6 and the first sonne that she beareth, shal he set vp after the name of his brother which is deed, that his name be not put out of Israel.

7 But yf the man wyl not take his kynswoman, then shal his kinswoman go vp vnder the gate to the Elders, and saye: My kynsman refuseth to stere vp a name vnto his brother in Israel, and wyl not marye me.

8 Then shal the Elders of the cite call him, and comen with him. Yf he stonde then and saye: I wyl not take her,

9 then shal his kynswoman steppe forth vnto him before the Elders, and lowse a shue fro his fote, and spyt in his face, and shal answer, and saye: Thus shal it be done vnto euery man, that wyl not builde his brothers house.

10 And his name shalbe called in Israel, the vnshodd house.

11 Yf two men stryue together, and the wyfe of one renne to, to delyuer hir husbände from the hande of him that smyteth him, & put forth hir hande, and take him by the secretes, 12 then shalt thou cut of hir hande, and thine eye shal not pitie her.

13 Thou shalt not haue in yi bagg two maner of weightes, a greate and a small.

14 Nether shalt thou haue in thyne house dyuerse measures, a greate and a small.

15 Thou shalt haue a perfecte and iust weighte, and a perfecte and iust measure, that thy life maye be longe in the londe, which the LORDE yi God shal geue the.

16 For who so euer doth soch (yee all they that do euell) are abhominacion vnto the LORDE thy God.

17 Remebre what the Amalechites did vnto the by the waye, wha ye were departed out of Egipte, 18 how they buckled with the by the waye, and smote thy hymmost, euen all that were feble, which came after the whan thou wast weerye and fainte, and they feared not God.

19 Now wha the LORDE thy God bryngeth the, to rest fro all thine enemies rounde aboute in the londe which the LORDE thy God geueth the for inheritaunce to possesse, then shalt thou put out the remembraunce of the Amalechites from vnder heauen. Forget not this.

Chapter 26

1 When thou comest into the londe that the LORDE thy God shal geue the to inheritaunce, and enjoyest it, and dwellest therein,

2 thou shalt take of all maner first frutes of the londe, that come out of thy grounde, which the LORDE thy God geueth the, & shalt put them in a maunde, and go vnto the place which the LORDE thy God shal chose (yt his name maye dwell there)

3 and thou shalt come vnto the prest which shalbe at that tyme, and saye vnto him: I knowlege this daye vnto the LORDE thy God, that I am come in to the londe, which ye LORDE sware vnto oure fathers to geue vs.

4 And the prest shal take the maunde out of thine hande, and set it downe before the altare of the LORDE thy God.

5 Then shalt thou answer and saye before the LORDE thy God: The Syrians wolde haue destroyed my father, which wete downe in to Egipte, and was a strauger there with a small folke, and became there a nacio greate, mightie & full of people.

6 But the Egipcias intreated vs euell, and troubled vs, and layed an harde bondage vpo vs.

7 Then cried we vnto ye LORDE, the God of oure fathers. And the LORDE herde oure cryenge, and loked on oure aduersite, laboure, and oppressio,

8 & brought vs out of Egipte with a mightie hande, and a stretched out arme, and with greate terryblenesse thorow tokens and woders,

9 and hath brought vs vnto this place and hath geuen vs this londe, that floweth with mylke and hony.

10 Therefore brynge I now the first frutes of the londe, which the LORDE hath geuen vs. And thou shalt leaue them before the LORDE thy God, and geue thanks before the LORDE thy God, 11 and reioyse ouer all the good, that the LORDE yi God hath geuen the, and thyne house: thou and the Leuite, and the straunger that is with the.

12 Whan thou hast brought together all ye tythes of thine increase in the thirde yeare, which is a yeare of tithes, thou shalt geue it vnto the Leuite, to the straunger, to the fatherlesse, and to the wedowe, that they maie eate within yi gates, and be filled.

13 And thou shalt saye before the LORDE thy God: I haue broughte that halowed is, out of my house, and haue geuen it vnto the Leuyte, the straunger, the fatherlesse, and the wedowe, acordinge to all thy commaundement which thou hast comaunded me. I haue not transgressed thy commaundementes, ner forgotten them.

14 I haue not eaten therof in my heuynesse, ner taken awaye therof in vnclennesse. I haue not geue therof vnto the deed. I haue bene obedient vnto the voyce of the LORDE my God, and haue done all as he hath commaunded me.

15 Loke downe from thy holy habitacion, from heauen, and blesse thy people of Israel, and ye londe that thou hast geuen vs, as thou swarest vnto oure fathers, a londe that floweth with mylke and hony.

16 In the daye whan the LORDE thy God commaunded the, to do acordyng vnto all these ordinauces and lawes, that thou shuldest kepe them and do thereafter with all thy hert and with all thy soule.

17 The same daye maydest thou a promysse vnto the LORDE, that he shulde be thy God, and yt thou woldest walke in all his wayes, and kepe his ordynauces, his commaundementes, and his lawes, and to herken vnto his voyce.

18 And the LORDE promysed the vpo the same daye, that thou shuldest be his awne peculier people, like as he hath sayde vnto the (so yt thou kepe all his commaundementes)

19 and that he wolde make the hye in prayse name and honoure aboute all nacions which he hath made yt thou mayest be an holy people vnto ye LORDE thy God, as he hath sayde vnto the.

Chapter 27

1 And Moses with ye Elders of Israel, commaunded the people, & sayde: Kepe all the commaundementes which I commaunde you this daye.

2 And what time as ye go ouer Iordane, in to the londe yt ye LORDE thy God shal geue the, thou shalt set vp greate stones, and playster them with playster,

3 and wryte vpon them all the wordes of this lawe: (whan thou art come ouer) yt thou mayest come in to the londe, which the LORDE thy God shal geue the, a londe yt floweth with milke and hony, as ye LORDE God of thy fathers hath promysed the.

4 Now whan ye go ouer Iordane, ye shall set vp these stones (wherof I comaunde you this daye) vpon mount Eball, and playster them with playster:

5 and there shalt thou buylde vnto the LORDE thy God an altare of stone, whervpon thou shalt lifte no yron.

6 Of whole stones shalt thou builde this altare vnto the LORDE thy God, and offre burntofferings theron vnto the LORDE thy God:

7 and thou shalt offre healthofferings, and eate there, and reioyse before the LORDE thy God:

8 and vpon the stones thou shalt wryte all the wordes of this lawe manyfestly and well.

9 And Moses with the prestes and Leuites spake vnto all Israel, and sayde: Take hede and heare O Israel: This daye art thou become the people of the LORDE thy God,

10 that thou mayest be obedient vnto the voyce of the LORDE thy God, and do acordinge vnto all his commaundementes and ordinauces, which I comaunde the this daye.

11 And Moses charged the people the same daye, and sayde:

12 These shal stonde vpon mount Grism to blesse the people, whan ye are gone ouer Iordane: Simeon, Leui, Iuda, Isachar, Ioseph, and Ben Iamin.

13 And these shal stonde vpon mount Eball to curse: Ruben, Gad, Asser, Zabulon, Dan & Nephtali.

14 And the Leuites shal begynne, and saye vnto euery man of Israel, wt a loude voyce:

15 Cursed be he, that maketh eny carued Idoll or molten ymage (an abhominacion of the LORDE, a worke of the handes of ye craftesman) and putteth it in a secrete place. And all the people shal answer and saye, Amen.

16 Cursed be he, that curseth his father and mother. And all the people shall saye, Amen.

17 Cursed be he, yt remoueth his neighbours mark. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

18 Cursed be he, that maketh a blynde man go out of his waye. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

19 Cursed be he, that wresteth ye righte of ye straunger, of the fatherlesse, & wedowe. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

20 Cursed be he, that lyeth with his fathers wife, to vncouer his fathers couerynge. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

21 Cursed be he, yt lyeth wt eny maner beast. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

22 Cursed be he, yt lyeth wt his sister, which is the daughter of his father or of his mother. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

23 Cursed be he, yt lyeth with his mother in lawe. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

24 Cursed be he that slayeth his neighbour secretly. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

25 Cursed be he, that receaueth giftes to slaye the soule of innocent bloude. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

26 Cursed be he, that contynueth not in all ye wordes of this lawe, to do them. And all ye people shal saye, Amen.

Chapter 28

1 And yf thou shalt herken vnto ye voyce of the LORDE thy God, to obserue and do all his commaundementes which I comaunde ye this daye, then shall the LORDE thy God set ye an hye aboute all nacions vpo earth,

2 and all these blessinges shal come vpon the, and ouertake the, because thou hast bene obedient vnto the voyce of the LORDE thy God.

3 Blessed shalt thou be in the towne, and blessed in the felde.

4 Blessed shalbe the frute of thy body, the frute of thy grounde, and the frute of thy catell, and the frute of thine oxen, and the frute of thy shepe.

5 Blessed shal be yi basket, & thy stoare.

6 Blessed shalt thou be wha thou goest in, and blessed whan thou goest out.

7 And thine enemies that ryse vp agaynst the, shal ye LORDE cause to be smytten before thy face. They shal come out agaynst the one waye, & flye before the seven wayes.

8 The LORDE shal commaunde the blessinge to be with ye in thy cellers, and in all that thou takest in hande, and shal blesse the in ye londe that the LORDE thy God hath geue the.

9 The LORDE shal set the vp to be an holy people vnto himselfe (as he hath sworne vnto the) yf thou kepe the commaundementes of the LORDE thy God:

10 so that all nacions vpon earth shal se, that thou art called after the name of the LORDE: & they shal be afrayed of you.

11 And ye LORDE shal make ye plenteous in goodes, in the frute of yi wombe, in the frute of thy catell, & in the frute of thy grounde, in the londe that the LORDE sware vnto thy fathers, to geue the.

12 And the LORDE shal open vnto ye his good treasure, euen the heauen, to geue rayne vnto thy londe in due season, and to prospere all the workes of thine handes. And thou shalt lede vnto many nacios, but thou shalt borowe of no man.

13 And ye LORDE shal set the before, and not behynde: & thou shalt be aboute onely, and not benethe, yf thou be obedient vnto the commaundementes of ye LORDE thy God, which I commaunde the this daye to kepe and to do them:

14 & yf thou bowe not asyde from eny of these wordes, which I commaunde ye this daye, either to the righte hande or to the left, yt thou woldest walke after other goddes to serue them.

15 But yf thou wylt not herken vnto the voyce of the LORDE thy God, to kepe and to do all his commaundementes and ordinaunces, which I commaunde ye this daie, then shall all these curses come vpon the, and ouertake the.

16 Cursed shalt thou be in the towne, and cursed in ye felde:

17 cursed shal thy basket be, and thy stoare.

18 Cursed shall be the frute of thy body, the frute of thy londe, the frute of thine oxen, and the frute of thy shepe.

19 Cursed shalt thou be whan thou goest in, and cursed wha thou goest out.

20 The LORDE shal sende in to the, consuming, and complayninge, and cursynge, in all that thou takest in hande to do, tyll he haue destroyed the & shortly broughte to the naughte, because of thy wicked inuencions, in that thou hast forsaken me.

21 The LORDE shall make the pestylence to byde longe with the, tyll he haue consumed the out of the londe, into the which thou comest to possesse it.

22 The LORDE shall smyte the with swellynge, feuers, heate, burnynge, venome, drouth, and palensse, & shall persecute the, tyll he haue destroyed the.

23 Thy heauen, that is ouer thy heade, shalbe of brasse, and the earth vnder the, of yron.

24 The LORDE shal geue thy londe dust for rayne, and ashes from heauen vpon the, vntyll thou be broughte to naught.

25 The LORDE shall cause the be smytten before thine enemyes. Thou shalt come out one waye agaynst them, and seven wayes shalt thou flye before them, and shalt be scatered amoge all the kyngdomes vpon earth.

26 Thy carcase shalbe meate vnto all maner foules of the ayre, and to all the beestes vpon earth, and there shalbe no man to fraye them awaye.

27 The LORDE shal smyte the with ye botches of Egipte, with the Emorodes, with scalle, and maungynesse, that thou shalt not be healed therof.

28 The LORDE shall smyte the with madnesse, blyndnesse and dasyng of hert.

29 And thou shalt grope at the noone daye, as ye blynde gropeth in darknesse, and shalt not prospere in thy waye. And thou shalt suffre vyolence and wronge all thy lifelonge, & no man shal helpe ye.

30 Thou shalt spouse a wife, but another shal lye with her. Thou shalt buyde an house, but another shall dwell therein. Thou shalt plante a vynyarde, but shalt not make it comen.

31 Thine oxe shalbe slayne before thine eyes, but thou shalt not eate therof. Thine asse shalbe violently taken awaye (euen before yi face) and shal not be restored ye againe. Thy shepe shalbe geuen vnto thine enemyes, and no man shal helpe the.

32 Thy sonnes and thy daughters shalbe geuen vnto another nacion, and thine eyes shal se it, and dase vpon them all the daye longe, and thy hande shal not be able to delouer them.

33 The frute of yi londe and all yi laboure, shall a nacion eate, which thou knowest not: and thou shalt but onely be he that shalbe oppressed and suffre wronge, all the dayes of thy life.

34 And thou shalt be cleane besyde thy selfe for the sighte, which thine eyes shal se.

35 The LORDE shal smyte the with a myscheuous botch in ye knees & legges, so that thou canst not be healed, euen from the sole of thy fote vnto the crowne of thy heade.

36 The LORDE shal bryng the and thy kynge (which thou hast set ouer the) vnto a nacion, whom thou knowest not, nether thy fathers: and there shalt thou serue other goddes, euen wodd and stone:

37 and thou shalt go to waist, and become a byworde, & a laughinge stocke amoge all nacions, whither ye LORDE hath caryed the.

38 Thou shalt cary out moch sede in to ye felde, and shalt gather but litle in: for the greshoppers shal destroye it.

39 Thou shalt plante vynyardes and dresse the, but thou shalt nether drynke of the wyne, ner gather of ye grapes: for ye wormes shal consume it.

40 Thou shalt haue Oliue trees in all yi coastes, but shalt not be anyoynted with the oyle: for thyne Oliue trees shalbe roted out.

41 Thou shalt get sonnes and doughters, and yet not haue them: for they shal be caried awaye captiue.

42 All thy trees and frutes of thy londe shall be marred with blastinge.

43 The straunger that is with ye, shal clymme vp ouer the, and be allwaye aboute the: but thou shalt come downe alowe, and lye euer beneth.

44 He shal lende vnto the, but thou shalt not lende him. He shalbe before, but thou shalt be behynde.

45 And all these curses shall come vpon the, and folowe the, and ouertake ye, tyll thou be destroyed, because thou herkenest not vnto ye voyce of the LORDE yi God, to kepe his commaundemetes and ordinaunces, which he hath commaunded the.

46 Therefore shal there be tokens and wonders vpon the, & vpon thy sede for euer, 47 because thou hast not serued ye LORDE thy God with a ioyfull and good hert, whan thou haddest abundaunce of all thinges.

48 And therefore shalt thou serue thine enemye, which the LORDE shal sende vpon the, in hunger and thyrst, in nakednesse, and neade of all thinge: & he shal put a yocke of yron vpon thy necke, vntyll he haue broughte the to naughte.

49 The LORDE shal bryng a nacion vpon the from farre, euen from the ende of ye worlde, as a flyenge Aegle: a people, whose speache thou canst not vnderstonde, 50 an harde faouered people, which regarde not the persone of the olde, ner haue compassion on the yonge.

51 And they shal eate vp ye frute of thy catell, & the frute of thy londe, tyll they haue destroyed the, and shall leaue the nothinge in corne, wyne, oyle, in the frute of ye oxen and shepe, vntyll they haue broughte the to naughte:

52 and shal laye sege vnto the wt in all thy gates, tyll they cast downe thy hye and stronge walles, wherin thou trustest thorow out all thy londe. And thou shalt be beseged within all thy portes, thorow out all thy londe which the LORDE thy God hath geuen the.

53 Thou shalt eate the frute of thine awne body, the flesh of thy sonnes and of thy doughters, which the LORDE yi God hath geue the, in that straytnesse and sege, wherwith thine enemye shall besege the:

54 so that it shal greue the man yt afore hath lyued tenderly and in voluptuousnes amonge you, to loke vpon his brother and vpon his wife yt lyeth in his bosome, and on the sonne that is left ouer of his sonnes,

55 lest he shulde geue eny of them of the flesh of his children that he eateth, in as moch as there is nothinge left him in that straytnesse and sege, wherwith thine enemye shal besege ye within all thy gates.

56 And the woman that afore hath lyued so tenderly and voluptuously amonge you, that she durste not set the sole of hir fote vpon the grounde for tendernes and voluptuousnes, shal be greued to loke vpon hir husbnde that lieth in hir bosome, and on hir sonne, and on hir doughter:

57 euen because of hir doughters which she hath norished betwixte hir legges in hir lappe, and because of hir sonnes that she hath borne: For she shall eate them secretly for very scarcenesse of all thinges, in the straytnesse and sege, wherwith thine enemye shal besege ye within thy gates.

58 Yf thou wilt not be diligent to do all the wordes of this lawe which are wrytten in this boke, that thou mayest feare this glorious and fearfull name, euen the LORDE thy God,

59 then shal the LORDE entreate ye wonderously, with plages vpon ye and thy sede, yee with greate and continuall plages, 60 with euell and contynuall sicknesses, and shal bryng vpo ye all ye sicknesses of Egipte (wherof thou wast afrayed) and they shal cleue vnto the.

61 Therto all maner sicknesses and all maner plages, which are not wrytten in the boke of this lawe, shal the LORDE thy God cause to come vpon the, vntyll he haue destroyed the.

62 And there shal be left but a fewe people of you, which afore were as the starrs of heauen in multitude: because thou hast not herkened vnto the voyce of the LORDE thy God.

63 And as ye LORDE reioysed ouer you afore, to do you good, and to multiplye you, eue so shall he reioyse ouer you, to destroye you, and to bryng ye to naughte, and ye shalbe waysted from of the londe, whither thou goest now to possesse it.

64 For the LORDE shal scater the amonge all nacions, from the one ende of the worlde vnto another, and there shalt thou serue other goddes, whom thou knowest not, ner yet thy fathers, euen wodd and stone.

65 And amonge those same nacions shalt thou haue no quyetnesse, nether shal the sole of yi fote haue eny rest: for the LORDE shal geue the there a fearfull hert, and dasyng of eyes, and a troubled soule

66 so that thy life shal hage before the: Night and daye shalt thou feare, and shalt haue no trust in thy life.

67 In the mornynge thou shalt saye: Who shall geue me the euenynge? And at euen shalt thou saye: Who shal geue me the mornynge? For the very greate feare of thine hert, which shal make the afrayed: and for the sighte of thine eyes which thou shalt se.

68 And the LORDE shal brynge the agayne in to Egipte by shippe fulles, euen thorow the waye wherof I sayde vnto ther Thou shalt se it nomore: and there shal ye be solde vnto youre enemies for bonde seruautes and bonde maidens, and there shalbe no man to bye you.

Chapter 29

1 These are ye wordes of the couenaunt, which the LORDE comaunded Moses to make wt the children of Israel in the londe of the Moabites, besyde ye couenaunt which he made with them in Horeb.

2 And Moses called all Israel, and sayde vnto them: Ye haue sene all that the LORDE dyd before youre eyes in the londe of Egipte, vnto Pharao with all his seruautes, and all his londe,

3 the greate tentacions which thine eyes haue sene, that they were greate tokes and wonders.

4 And yet vnto this daye hath not the LORDE geuen you an hert that vnderstondeth, eyes that se, & eares that heare.

5 He hath caused you to walke fortye yeares in the wyldernesse. Your clothes are not waxed olde vpon you, nether is thy shue waxed olde on thy fote.

6 Ye haue eaten no bred, and dronken no wyne, ner stronge drynke, that ye mighte knowe, that he is ye LORDE youre God.

7 And whan ye came vnto this place, Sihon the kyng of Hesbon, and Og ye kyng of Basan, came out agaynst vs vnto battayll, and we smote them,

8 and toke their londe, and gaue it to enheritaunce vnto ye Rubenites and Gaddites, and to the halfe trybe of the Manassites.

9 Kepe now therfore the wordes of this couenaunt, and do thereafter, that ye maye haue vnderstandinge in all that ye do.

10 Ye stonde this daye all before the LORDE youre God, the chefe rulers of youre trybes, youre Elders, youre officers, euery man in Israel,

11 youre children, youre wyues, ye straungers that are in thine hoost, from the hewer of yi wodd vnto ye drawer of yi water:

12 that thou shuldest enter in to the couenaunt of the LORDE thy God, and in to the ooth which the LORDE thy God maketh with the this daye, 13 that he mighte set the vp this daye to be a people vnto himself, and that he mighte be thy God, as he hath sayde vnto the, and as he sware vnto yi fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Iacob.

14 For I make not this couenaunt and this ooth with you onely, 15 but both with you yt are here this daye, and stonde with vs before the LORDE oure God, and also with them that are not here with vs this daye.

16 For ye knowe how we haue dwelt in the londe of Egipte, and how we came thorow the myddes of the Heythen, whom ye passed by,

17 and sawe their abhominacions and their Idols, wodd and stone, syluer and golde, which were with them:

18 Lest there be amoge you man or woman, or an housholde, or a trybe, which turneth away his hert this daye from the LORDE oure God, to go and to serue ye goddes of these nacions: and lest there be amoge you some rote, that beareth gall & wormwodd:

19 so that though he heare the wordes of this curse, he blesse him selfe yet in his hert, and saye: Tush, it shal not be so euell. I wil walke after the meanyng of myne awne hert, that the dronken maye perishe with the thyrstie.

20 Then shall not the LORDE be mercifull vnto him, but his wrath and gelously shall smoke ouer soch a man, and all the curses that are wrytten in this boke, shall lighte vpon him: and the LORDE shal put out his name from vnder heauen, 21 and shall separate him vnto euell out of all the trybes of Israel, acordinge vnto all the curses of the couenaunt, that is wrytten in the boke of this lawe.

22 So the posterities of youre childe which shal ryse vp after you, and the straungers that come out of farre countrees, shall saye (whan they se the plages of this londe, and the diseases wherwith the LORDE hath smytten it)

23 that he hath brent vp all their londe with brymstone and salt, so yt it cannot be sowne, ner is frutefull, nether groweth there eny grasse therin. Like as Sodom, Gomor, Adama and Zeboim are ouerthrowne, which the LORDE ouerthrewe in his wrath and anger.

24 Then shall all nacions saye: Wherefore hath the LORDE done thus vnto this londe? What greate wrothfull displeasure is this?

25 Then shalt it be sayde: Euen because they haue forsaken the couenaunt of ye LORDE God of their fathers (which he made with them whan he broughte them out of the londe of Egipte)

26 and they wete, and serued other goddes, and worshipped the, euen soch goddes as they knewe not, and whom he had not deuyded vnto them.

27 Therfore the wrath of the LORDE waxed whote ouer this londe, to brynge vpon it all the curses that are wrytten in this boke.

28 And the LORDE thrust them out of their londe wt greate wrath, indignacion & displeasoure & hath cast them into another londe, as it is come to passe this daye.

29 These are the secretes of the LORDE oure God, which are opened vnto vs and oure children for euer, yt we shulde do all the wordes of this lawe.

Chapter 30

1 Now whan all this commeth vpon the, whether it be the blessinge or ye curse which I haue layed before the, and thou goest in to thine hert, beyng amoge the

Heithen, whither the LORDE thy God hath thrust the,

2 and thou turnest vnto the LORDE yi God, so that thou herkenest vnto his voyce, thou and thy children with all yi hert and with all thy soule, in all that I commaunde the this daye,

3 then shal the LORDE thy God turne thy captiuyte, and haue compassion vpon the, and shal gather thy congregacion agayne from amonge all the nacions, whither the LORDE thy God hath scatered the.

4 And though thou werest thrust out vnto the vttemost partes of the heauen, yet shall the LORDE thy God gather the from thence, and from thence shal he fetch the,

5 and shal brynge the in to the londe, which thy fathers haue possessed, and thou shalt enioye it, and he shal do the good, and multiplye the aboute thy fathers.

6 And the LORDE thy God shall circumcise thine hert, and the hert of thy sede, that thou mayest loue the LORDE yi God with all thy hert and with all yi soule, that thou mayest lyue.

7 But all these curses shall the LORDE thy God laye vpon thine enemyes, and vpon them that hate the and persecute the.

8 But thou shalt turne, and herken vnto the voyce of the LORDE, to do all his commaundementes, which I commaunde the this daye.

9 And the LORDE thy God shal make the plenteous in all the workes of thine hades, in the frute of thy body, in the frute of thy catell, in the frute of thy londe to good. For the LORDE shall turne, to reioyse ouer the to good, as he reioysed ouer thy fathers, 10 so that thou herken vnto the voyce of the LORDE thy God (to kepe his commaundementes and ordinaunces, which are wrytten in the boke of this lawe) and turne vnto the LORDE thy God with all thy hert and with all thy soule.

11 For the commaundement which I commaunde ye this daye, is not to wonderfull for the, ner to farre, 12 ner yet in heauen, that thou neadest to saye: Who wil go vp for vs in to heauen, and brynge it vnto vs, that we maie heare it and do it?

13 Nether is it beyonde the see, that thou neadest to saye: Who wyll go ouer the see for vs, and fetch it vs, that we maye heare it, and do it?

14 For the worde is very nye vnto the, eue in thy mouth and in thine hert, that thou do it.

15 Beholde, I haue layed before you this daye, life and good, death and euell.

16 For I comaunde the this daye, to loue the LORDE thy God, and to walke in his wayes, and to kepe his commaundementes, ordinaunces, and lawes, that thou mayest lyue and multiplye, and that the LORDE thy God maye blesse the in the londe, whither thou goest to possesse it.

17 But yf thou turnest away thine hert, so that thou wilt not heare, but fall a waye, to worships other goddes and to serue them,

18 I certifye you this daye, that ye shal perishe, & not lyue longe in the londe, whither thou goest ouer Iordane to possesse it.

19 I take heauen and earth this daye to recorde ouer you: I haue layed before you life and death, blessinge and cursinge, that thou mayest chose life, and that thou and thy sede maye lyue, 20 yt ye maye loue the LORDE youre God, and herken vnto his voyce, and cleue vnto him: (For he is thy life and thy loge age) that thou mayest dwell in the londe, which the LORDE sware vnto thy fathers Abraham, Isaac and Iacob, to geue them.

Chapter 31

1 And Moses wente, & spake these wordes to all Israel,

2 and saide vnto them: I am this daye an hundreth and twetye yeare olde, I can nomore go out and in: the LORDE also hath sayde vnto me: Thou shalt not go ouer this Iordane.

3 The LORDE thy God himselfe shall go before the ouer Iordane: and HE himselfe shal destroye these nacions before the, that thou mayest conquere them: and Iosua he shall go ouer before the. as the LORDE hath sayde.

4 And the LORDE shal do vnto them, as he dyd vnto Sihon and Og the kynges of the Amorites and vnto their lode, which he destroyed.

5 Now whan the LORDE shal deliuer the before you, ye shal do vnto them acordinge vnto all the commaundementes which I haue commaunded you.

6 Be manly and stroge, feare not, and be not afrayed of them. For the LORDE thy God himselfe shal go with the, and shal not fayle the, ner forsake the.

7 And Moses called Iosua, and sayde vnto him before all Israel: Be stronge and bolde, for thou shalt brynge this people in to the londe, which the LORDE hath sworne vnto their fathers to geue them, and thou shalt parte it amonge them by lott.

8 But the LORDE himselfe that goeth before you, euen HE shal be with the, and shal not fayle the, ner forsake the: Feare not, and be not afrayed.

9 And Moses wrote this lawe, and deliuered it vnto the prestes the children of Leui (which bare the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE) and vnto all the Elders of Israel.

10 And he commaunded them, and sayde: At the ende of seuen yeares, in the tyme of the Fre yeare, in the feast of Tabernacles

11 whan all Israel come to appeare before the LORDE thy God, in the place that he shall chose, thou shalt cause this lawe to be proclaimed before all Israel in their eares,

12 namely, before the congregacion of the people, both of men, wemen, children, and thy straungers which are within thy gates: that they maye heare and lerne to feare the LORDE their God, and be diligent to do all the wordes of this lawe:

13 and that their children also which knowe nothings, maye heare and lerne to feare the LORDE yor God, all youre lyue dayes which ye lyue in the londe, whither ye go ouer Iordane to possesse it.

14 And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Beholde, thy tyme is come that thou must die, call Iosua, and stonde in the Tabernacle of witnessse, that I maye geue him a charge. Moses wente with Iosua, and stode in the Tabernacle of witnessse.

15 And the LORDE appeared in the Tabernacle in a cloudy pyler and the same cloudy pyler stode in the dore of the Tabernacle.

16 And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Beholde, thou shalt slepe with yi fathers, and this people wyll ryse vp, and go a whoringe after straunge goddes of the londe in to the which they come, and wyll forsake me, and breake the couenaunt which I haue made wt them.

17 And then shall my wrath waxe whote agaynst them, at the same tyme, & I shal forsake the, and hyde my face fro them, that they maye be consumed. And so whan moch aduersite & trouble commeth vpo the, they shal saye: Is not all this euell come vpo me, because God is not with me?

18 But I shal hyde my face at the same tyme because of all the euell that they haue done, in that they haue turned vnto other goddes.

19 Wryte now therfore this songe, & teach it the children of Israel, and put it in their mouth, that this songe maye be a witnessse vnto me amonge the children of Israel.

20 For I wil brynge them in to the londe which I sware vnto their fathers, that floweth with mylke and hony. And whan they eate, and are full and fatt, they shal turne vnto other goddes, and serue them, and blaspheme me, and breake my couenaunt.

21 And so whan moch myschefe and tribulacion is come vpon them, this songe shall answere before them for a witnessse. It shall not be forgotten out of the mouth of their sede: for I knowe their ymaginacion, that they go aboute euen now, before I brynge them in to the londe, which I sware vnto them.

22 So Moses wrote this songe at the same tyme, and taughte it the children of Israel.

23 And the LORDE gaue Iosua the sonne of Nun a charge, and sayde: Be stronge and bolde, for thou shalt brynge the children of Israel in to the londe, which I sware vnto them, and I wil be with the.

24 Now whan Moses had wrytten out all the wordes of this lawe in a boke,

25 he commaunded the Leuites (which bare the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt) and sayde:

26 Take the boke of this lawe, and laye it by the syde of the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE youre God, that it maye be there a wytnesse agaynst the:

27 for I knowe thy stubburnesse and thy harde neck. Beholde, whyle I am yet alyue wt you this daye, ye haue bene disobedient vnto the LORDE: how moch more after my death?

28 Gather now vnto me all the Elders of youre trybes, and youre officers, yt I maye speake these wordes in their eares, and take heauen and earth to recorde agaynst them.

29 For I am sure that after my death ye shall marre youre selues, and turne asyde out of the waye, which I haue commaunded you: and so shall mysfortune happen vnto you herafter, because ye haue done euell in the sighte of the LORDE, in prouokynge him thorow the workes of youre handes.

30 So Moses spake out the wordes of this songe euen to the ende, in the eares of all the congregacion of Israel.

Chapter 32

1 Herken (O ye heauens) I wyll speake: and let the earth heare the wordes of my mouth.

2 My doctryne droppe as doth the raine, and my speach flowe as doth the dew. Euen as the rayne vpon the grasse, and as the droppes vpon the herbe.

3 For I wyl call vpon the name of the LORDE, geue ye the glory vnto oure God.

4 Perfecte are the workes of the Stone, for all his wayes are righteous. God is true, and no wickednes is there in him, righteous and iust is he.

5 The frowarde and ouerthwarte generacion hath marred them selues to himwarde and are not his children, because of their deformyte.

6 Thankest thou the LORDE yi God so, thou foolish and vnwyse people? Is not he thy father and thy LORDE? Hath he not made the, and prepared the?

7 Remembre the dayes that are past, considere the yeares of the generacions afore tyme. Axe thy father, he shall shewe the: thine elders, they shal tell the.

8 Whan the most Hyghest deuyded ye nacions and scatred the children of men. Then set he the borders of the nacions accordinge to the nombre of the children of Israel.

9 For the LORDES parte is his folke, Iacob is the meetlyne of his enheritaunce.

10 He founde him in the wyldernes, euen in the drye deserte where he roared. He led him aboute, and gaue him vnderstandinge: He kepte him as the aple of his eye.

11 As an Aegle stereth vp hir nest, and flotereth ouer hir yonge: Euen so stretched he out his fethers, and toke him and bare him on his wynges.

12 The LORDE onely was his gyde, & there was no straunge God with him.

13 He caried him ouer ye heighth of the earth, and fed him with the increase of the felde. He caused him sucke hony out of the rocke, and oyle out of the harde stone.

14 Butter of the kyne, and mylke of the shepe, with the fat of the lambes, and rammes of the somes of Basan, and he goates with the fat of the kydneyes, and wheate: And gaue him drynke of the very bloude of grapes.

15 And whan he was fat and had ynough, he waxed wanton. He is fat, and thicke, and smothe, & hath letten God go, that made him, and despysed the rocke of his saluacion.

16 He hath prouoked him to indignacion, thorow straunge goddes, and thorow abhominacion hath he angred him.

17 They offred vnto felde deuels, & not vnto their God. Vnto goddes whom they knewe not, eue vnto new goddes, yt came newly vp, whom their fathers honoured not.

18 Thy rocke that begat ye, hast thou despysed: and hast forgotten God that made the.

19 And whan the LORDE sawe it, he was moued vnto wrath ouer his sonnes and his doughters.

20 And he sayde: I wyll hyde my face from them, I wyll se what their ende shal be: for it is a frowarde generacion, they are childre in whom is no fayth.

21 They haue prouoked me in it that is not God: wt their vanites haue they angred me. And I agayne wil prouoke them, by those that are no people: by a foolish nacion wil I anger them.

22 For the fyre is kyndled in my wrath, and shal burne vnto ye nethermost hell, and shal consume the londe with the increase therof, and set the foundations of ye mountaynes on fyre.

23 I wil heape myscheues vpo them, I wil spende all myne arowes at them.

24 They shal pyne awaye thorow hunger, & be consumed of the feuers, and of bytter sicknesses. I wil sende amonge them ye tethe of beestes, and furious serpentes.

25 Without shall the swearde robbe them, & feare in the chambers, both the yonge man and yonge woman, the suckynge children wt the gray headed man.

26 I wyll saye: Where are they? I shall make their remembraunce to cease from amonge men.

27 Yf the wrath of the enemies were not gathered, lest their enemies shulde be proude, & might saie: Oure hande is hye, and: The LORDE hath not done all this.

28 For it is a people, wherin is no counsell, and there is no vnderstandinge in them.

29 O that they were wyse & vnderstode this, that they wolde cosidre what shulde happe vnto them her after.

30 How cometh it, yt one shall chace a thousande of them, and yt two shal put ten thousande to flyghte? Is it not so, euen because their rocke hath solde them, and because the LORDE hath geuen them ouer?

31 For oure rocke is not as their rocke, of this are oure enemies iudges themselues.

32 Their vyne is of the vyne of Sodom, and of the feldes of Gomorra: their grapes are the grapes of gall, they haue bytter clusters.

33 Their wyne is the poysen of Dragons, & the furious gall of Adders.

34 Is not this hid with me, and sealed vp in my treasures?

35 Vengeance is myne, and I wyll rewarde in due season. Their fote shall slyde, for the tyme of their destruccio is at honde, and the thinge that is to come vpon them, maketh haiste.

36 For the LORDE shall iudge his people, and shal haue compassion on his seruantes. For he shal considre that their power is awaie, and that it is gone with them, which were shut vp and remayned ouer.

37 And he shal saye: Where are their goddes, their rocke wherin they trusted?

38 Of whose sacrifices they ate ye fatt, and dranke the wyne of their drynkofferings? Let them ryse vp and helpe you, and be youre proteccion.

39 Se now that I I am, and that there is none other God but I.I can kyl and make alyue: what I haue smytten, that can I heale: and there is noman able to delyuer out of my hande.

40 For I wil lifte vp my hande to heauen, & wyl saye: I lyue euer.

41 Yf I whet ye edge of my swerde, and my hande take holde of iudgment, then wyll I auenge me on myne enemies, and rewarde them that hate me.

42 I wil make myne arowes dronken with bloude, and my swerde shal eate flesh ouer ye bloude of the slayne, and ouer the captyuite, and in that the enemies heade shall be discouered.

43 Reioyse ye Heythen with his people: for he wil auenge the bloude of his seruantes, and wyl auenge him on his enemies, & wil be mercifull vnto the londe of his people.

44 And Moses came and spake all the wordes of this songe in the eares of the people, he and Iosua the sonne of Nun.

45 Now wha Moses had made an ende of speakinge all these wordes vnto all Israel, 46 he sayde vnto the: Take to hert all ye wordes, which I testifye vnto you this daye, that ye commaunde youre children, to obserne and do all the wordes of this lawe.

47 For it is no vaine worde vnto you, but it is yor life: & this worde shal prolonge youre life in ye londe, whither ye go ouer Iordane to conquere it.

48 And ye LORDE spake vnto Moses ye same daie, & sayde:

49 Get the vp to this mount Abarim, vpon mount Nebo, which lyeth in ye londe of the Moabites ouer agaynst Iericho, & beholde the londe of Canaan, which I shall geue vnto the children of Israel in possessio.

50 And dye thou vpon the mount, whan thou art come vp, and be gathered vnto thy people, like as Aaron thy brother dyed vpon mount Hor, and was gathered vnto his people:

51 Because ye trespaced agaynst me amonge the children of Israel by the water of stryfe at Cades in the wildernesse of Zin, and sanctified me not amonge the children of Israel.

52 For thou shalt se the londe ouer against the, which I geue vnto ye children of Israel but thou shalt not come in to it.

Chapter 33

1 This is the blessinge, wherwith Moses the man of God blessed ye childre of Israel before his death,

2 and saide: The LORDE came from Sinai, and rose vp vnto the from Seir. He appeared fro mount Paran, and came wt many thousande sayntes. At his righte hande is there a lawe of fyre for them:

3 O how loued he the people? All his sayntes are in his hande, they shall set them selues downe at thy fete, and receaue of thy wordes.

4 Moses commaunded vs the lawe, which is the enheritaunce of the congregacion of Iacob.

5 And he was in the fulnesse of the kynge, & helde ye rulers of ye people together, with the trybes of Israel.

6 Let Ruben lyue, and not dye, and his people be fewe in nombre.

7 This is the blessinge of Iuda. And he sayde: LORDE heare the voyce of Iuda, and brynge him vnto his people: Let his hades multiplie him, and let him be helped fro his enemies.

8 And vnto Leui he sayde: Thy perfectnes and yi lighte be acordinge vnto the man of thy mercy, who thou hast tempted at Massa, whan ye stroue by the water of stryfe.

9 He that sayeth vnto his father and to his mother: I se him not: and to his brother. I knowe him not: and to his sonne, I wote not of him, those haue obserued thy wordes, and kepte yi couenant:

10 they shal teach Iacob thy iudgmentes, and Israel thy lawe: they shal laie incense before thy nose, & burntofferings vpon thine altare.

11 LORDE, blesse thou his power & accepte the workes of his handes: smyte the loynes of them yt ryse vp agaynst him, & of them that hate him, that they lifte not vp them selues.

12 And to Ben Iamin he saide: The beloued of the LORDE shal dwell in hope on him: All the daye longe shal he wayte vpon him, and shal dwell betwene his shulders.

13 And to Ioseph he sayde: His londe lieth in the blessinge of the LORDE, there are noble frutes of heauen, of the dew, and of the depe that lyeth beneth:

14 There are noble frutes of the increase of the Sonne, and noble rype frutes of ye monethes:

15 And of ye toppes of the mountaynes of olde, and of the hilles allwaye,

16 and of the noble frutes of ye earth, and of the fulnesse therof. The good will of him that dwelleth in the busshe, come vpon the heade of Ioseph, and vpon ye toppe of his heade that was separated fro amonge his brethren.

17 His bewtye is as a firstborne ox, and his hornes are as ye hornes of an Vnicorne: with the same shal he pusshe the nacions together, euen vnto the endes of the worlde. These are the thousandes of Ephraim, and the thousandes of Manasse.

18 And vnto Zabulon he sayde: Reioyse Zabulon of thy outgoynge: but reioyse thou Isachar of thy tentes.

19 They shall call the people vnto ye hyll, and there shal they offre ye offeringes of righteousnes. For they shal sucke the abudaunce of the see, and the treasures hyd in the sonde.

20 And to Gad he sayde: Blessynge haue Gad, which maketh rowme. He dwelleth as a lyon, and spoyleth the arme and the toppe of the heade.

21 And he sawe his begynnynge, that ye heape of the teachers laye hydd there, and came with the rulers of the people, and executed the righteousnesse of the LORDE, and his iudgment on Israel.

22 And to Dan he sayde: Dan a yonge lyon, he shal floue from Basan.

23 And to Nephtali he saide: Nephtali shal haue abudaunce of pleasure, & shalbe full of the blessinge of the LORDE: his possession shalbe towarde the west and south.

24 And to Asser he sayde: Asser be blessed wt sonnes, accepted be he with his brethren, and dyppe his fote in oyle.

25 Yron and brasse be on thy shues. Thyne age be as thy youth.

26 There is no God as the God of the iust. He that syteth vpon heauen, be thy helpe. And his glory is in the cloudes, 27 that is the dwellynge of God from the beginnyng, and vnder the armes of the worlde. And he shal dryue out thyne enemye before the, and saye: Be destroyed.

28 And Israel shall dwell safe alone. The eye of Iacob shalbe vpon ye londe where corne and wine is, heauen also shal droppe with dewe.

29 Happye art thou Israel, who is lyke vnto the? O thou people yt art saued by the LORDE, which is thy helpe, shyld, and the swerde of thy glorye. Thyne enemies shal pyne awaye, and thou shalt treade vpon the height of them.

Chapter 34

1 And Moses wente from the felde of ye Moabites vp vnto mount Nebo, vpo ye toppe of mout Pisga ouer agaynst Iericho. And the LORDE shewed him all the londe of Gilead vnto Dan,

2 and all Nephtali, and the londe of Ephraim and Manasse, and all the londe of Iuda, vnto ye vtmost see,

3 and towarde the south, and the region of the playne of Iericho the cite of the palme trees euen vnto Zoar.

4 And the LORDE sayde vnto him: This is the londe that I sware vnto Abraham, Isaac and Iacob, and sayde: I wyl geue it vnto thy sede. Thou hast sene it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go ouer thither.

5 So Moses ye seruauant of the LORDE died there in the londe of the Moabites, acordinge vnto the worde of ye LORDE.

6 And he buried him in a valley, in the londe of the Moabites ouer agaynst the house of Peor. And noman knewe of his graue vnto this daye.

7 And Moses was an hundreth and twentye yeare olde whan he dyed: his eyes were not dymme, and his chekes were not fallen.

8 And the children of Israel weped for Moses in ye felde of the Moabites thirtie daies, and the dayes of the wepyng and mournynge for Moses were fulfilled.

9 And Iosua the sonne of Nun was filled with ye sprete of wysdome (for Moses had layed his hande vpon him) and the children of Israel herkened vnto him, and dyd as the LORDE commaunded Moses.

10 And there arose no prophet more in Israel, like vnto Moses, whom the LORDE knewe face to face

11 in all tokens and wonders (which the LORDE sent him to do in ye londe of Egipte, vnto Pharao, and to all his seruantes, and his londe)

12 and in all this mightie hande and greate visions which Moses dyd in the sighte of all Israel.

JOSHUA

Chapter 1

1 After the death of Moses the seruauant of the LORDE, spake the LORDE vnto Iosua ye sonne of Nun Moses mynister: 2 My seruauant Moses is deed, vp now, and go ouer this Iordane, thou and all this people in to the londe that I haue geuen the children of Israel.

3 All the places that the soles of youre fete shal treade vpon, haue I geuen vnto you, as I sayde vnto Moses:

4 From the wyldernesse and this Libanus vnto the greate water Euphrates: all the londe of the Hethites vnto the greate see towarde the west, shal be youre border.

5 There shall noman be able to withstonde ye all thy life longe. And like as I was with Moses, so wil I be with the also. I will not fayle the nether forsake the.

6 Be stronge and bolde: for vnto this people shalt thou deuyde ye londe, which I sware vnto their fathers, to geue it them.

7 Be stroge therfore and very bolde, that thou mayest kepe and do euery thyng acordinge to the lawe, that Moses my seruauant commaunded the. Turne not asyde from it, nether to the righte hande ner to the lefte, yt thou mayest deale wysely whither so euer thou goest.

8 And let not the boke of this lawe departe out of thy mouth, but exercyse thy selfe therin daie and nighte, that thou mayest kepe and do euery thyng acordinge to it that is wrytte therin: Then shalt thou prospere in thy waies, and deale wysely.

9 Lo, I haue commaunded the to be stronge and bolde. Feare not, and be not afrayed: for the LORDE thy God is with ye, whither so euer thou goest.

10 Then commaunded Iosua the officers of the people, and sayde:

11 Go thorow the hoost, and charge ye people, and saye: Prepare you vytayles, for ouer thre dayes shal ye go ouer this Iordane, that ye maye come in and take possession of the londe, which the LORDE youre God shal geue you.

12 And to the Rubenites, Gaddites, and to the halfe trybe of Manasse, sayde Iosua: 13 Thynke vpon the worde, that Moses the seruauant of ye LORDE spake vnto you, and sayde: The LORDE yor God hath brought you to rest, and geuen you this londe.

14 Let youre wyues and children and catell remayne in ye londe, that Moses gaue you on this syde Iordane: But ye youre selues (as many as be fightinge men) shal go forth before youre brethren in harnesse, and helpe them, 15 tyll the LORDE haue broughte youre brethren to rest also as well as you: that they also maye take possession of the londe, which the LORDE yor God shal geue them: Then shal ye turne agayne in to the londe of youre possession, that ye maye enioye it, which Moses the seruauant of the LORDE hath geuen you on this syde Iordane towarde ye Easte.

16 And they answered Iosua and sayde: All that thou hast commaunded vs, wyl we do: and whither so euer thou sendest vs, we wyl go thither.

17 Like as we haue obeyed Moses, so wyl we be obedient also vnto the: Onely that the LORDE thy God be with ye, like as he was with Moses.

18 Who so euer disobeyeth thy mouth, and herkeneth not vnto thy wordes in all that thou hast commaunded vs, shal dye: Onely be thou stronge and bolde.

Chapter 2

1 Iosua the sonne of Nun sent out two spyes preuely from Setim, and sayde vnto them: Go youre waye, loke vpon the londe and Iericho. They wente forth, and came in to ye house of an harlot, called Rahab, and laye there.

2 Then was it tolde the kynge of Iericho: Lo, there are men come in this nighte from the childre of Israel, to spye the londe.

3 Then sent the kynge of Iericho vnto Rahab, saynge: Delyuer the men forth that are come vnto the in to thy house, for they are come to spye out the whole londe.

4 Now as for the two men, the woman had hyd them, and sayde: There came men in vnto me in dede, but I knewe not whence they were.

5 And at the shutting in of the gate whan it was darcke, they wente out, so yt I can not tell whither they be gone: folowe soone after them, for ye shal ouertake them.

6 But she had caused them to clymme vp vnto the house toppe, and hyd them vnder the stalkes of flaxe, that she had prepared her vpo the toppe of the house.

7 How beit the men folowed after them in ye waye towarde Iordane, euen vnto the ferye: and whan they that folowed vpon them were gone forth, the gate was shut.

8 And or euer the men layed them downe to slepe, she wente vp to them vnto the house toppe,

9 and sayde vnto the: I knowe that the LORDE shal delyuer you the londe, for the feare of you is fallen vpon vs, and all the inhabters of the londe are discouraged at youre commynge.

10 For we haue herde, how the LORDE dried vp the water in the reed see before you, wha ye departed out of Egipte: and what ye dyd vnto the two kynges of the Amorites, Sihon and Og beyonde Iordane, how ye roted them out, and destroyed them.

11 And sence we herde therof, oure hert hath failed vs, nether is there a good stomacke more in eny man, by the reason of youre commynge. For the LORDE yor God is both the God aboue in heaue and bench vpon earth.

12 Swear now then vnto me euen by the LORDE (for so moch as I haue dealte mercifully with you) that ye wyl also shewe mercy vpon my fathers house: and geue me a true token, 13 that ye wyl let my father Iyue, and my mother, my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they haue, and delyuer oure soules from death.

14 The men sayde vnto her: Yf we shewe not mercy and faithfulness vpon the, whan the LORDE geueth vs the londe, then let oure soule dye for you, so farre as thou betrayest not oure deuyce.

15 Then let she them downe thorow the wyndowe by a coarde: for hir house was in the wall of the cite, and in the wall was hir dwellynge.

16 And she sayde vnto them: Go youre waye vp to the mountaynes, lest they mete you that folowe vpon you: and hyde youre selues there thre dayes, tyll they be come agayne yt folowe after you: and then get you youre waye.

17 But the men sayde vnto her: As for this ooth that thou hast taken of vs, we wyl be discharged of it 18 whan we come in to ye londe, excepte thou knytest in the wyndowe ye lyne of this rosecoloured rope (yt thou hast lette vs downe with all) & gatherest vnto ye in to the house, thy father, thy mother, yi brethren & all thy fathers house.

19 And loke who so euer goeth out at the dore of thy house, his bloude be vpon his owne heade, and we giltlesse. But of all those yt are in yi house, yf a hande be layed vpon the, their bloude shalbe vpo or heade.

20 And yf thou bewrayest eny of this deuyce of ours, the wil we be discharged of the ooth yt thou hast take of vs.

21 She sayde: Let it be so as ye saye, and she let the go. And they wente their waye.

And she knyt the rose coloured lyne in the wyndowe.

22 They wente on their waye, and came to the mountaynes, and remayned there this dayes, tyll they that folowed vpon them were come agayne: for they soughte them thorow euery strete, & yet they founde them not.

23 So the two men turned agayne, and departed from the mountaynes, and passed ouer (Iordane) and came to Iosua the sonne of Nun, and tolde him euery thinge, as they had founde it, 24 & they sayde vnto Iosua: The LORDE hath geue vs all the londe in to oure handes, and all they that dwell in the londe, are sore afrayed of vs.

Chapter 3

1 And Iosua rose vp early, and they departed from Setim, & came vnto Iordane, he and all the children of Israel, and remayned there all night, afore they wete ouer.

2 But after thre dayes wente the officers thorow ye hoost,

3 and commaunded the people, and sayde: Whan ye se the Arke of ye couenaunt of the LORDE youre God, and the prestes from amoge the Leuites bearinge it, departe ye then out of youre place, and folowe after 4 (but so, that there be rowme betwene you and it by two thousande cubites, & that ye come not nye it) yt ye maye knowe what waye ye shulde go: for ye neuer wente that waye afore.

5 And Iosua sayde vnto the people: Halowe youre selues, for tomorrow shal yi LORDE bringe wonderous thinges to passe amoge you.

6 And vnto the prestes he sayde: Beare ye the Arke of ye couenaunt, and go before the people. Then bare they the Arke, and wente before the people.

7 And the LORDE sayde vnto Iosua: This daye wyl I begynne to make the greate in the sighte of all Israel, that they maie knowe, how that like as I was with Moses, so am I with the also.

8 And commaunde thou the prestes that beare the Arke, and saye: Whan ye come before in the water of Iordane, stonde styll.

9 And Iosua sayde vnto the children of Israel: Come hither, & heare the worde of the LORDE youre God.

10 He sayde morouer: By this shal ye perceaue, that the Iyuyng God is amonge you, and that he shall dryue out before you ye Cananites, Hethites, Heuites, Pheresites, Girgosites, Amorites and Iebusites.

11 Beholde, the Arke of the couenaunt of him yt hath domynion ouer all londes, shall go before you in Iordane.

12 Take now therfore twolue men out of ye trybes of Israel, out of euery trybe one.

13 And whan the soles of the fete of the prestes that beare ye Arke of the LORDE the gouernoure of all londes, are set in the water of Iordane, then shal ye water of Iordane withdrawe it selfe from the water that floweth from aboue, that it maye stonde on a heape.

14 Now whan the people departed out of their tentes, to go ouer Iordane, & the prestes bare the Arke of the couenaunt before the people,

15 and came into Iordane, & dypte their fete before in the water (as for Iordane on all his banckes it was full of all maner waters of the londe)

16 then the water that came downe fro aboue, stode straight vp vpon one heape, very farre from the cite of Adom, that lyeth on the syde of Zarthan: But the water that ranne downe to the see (euen to the salt see) fell awaye, and decreased. So ye people wente thorow ouer agaynst Iericho.

17 And the prestes that bare the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt, stode drye in ye myddes of Iordane, readye prepared: & all Israel wete thorow drye shod, vntyll ye whole people were all come ouer Iordane.

Chapter 4

1 And ye LORDE sayde vnto Iosua: Take you twolue men, out of euery trybe one, & comaunde them, & saye:

2 Take vp twolue stones out of Iordane, 3 from the place where the fete of the prestes stode in their araye: & cary them with you, yt ye maie leaue them in ye lodginge, where ye shal lodge this night.

4 The Iosua called twolue me which were prepared of the children of Israel, out of euery trybe one,

5 & sayde vnto the: Go youre waye ouer before the Arke of the LORDE youre God in the myddes of Iordane, & take euery man a stone vpon his shulder, after the nombre of the trybes of ye children of Israel,

6 yt they maye be a token amonge you. And whan youre children are their fathers here after, and saye: What do these stones there?

7 That ye maye then saye vnto them, how that the water of Iordane claue in sunder before the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt, whan it wente thorow Iordane, & that these stones are set for a perpetuall remembraunce vnto the children of Israel.

8 Then dyd the children of Israel as Iosua commaunded them, and bare twolue stones out of the myddes of Iordane (as the LORDE had sayde vnto Iosua) acordinge to the nombre of the trybes of the children of Israel, and broughte the same with them in to the lodginge, and lefte them there.

9 And Iosua set vp twolue stones in ye myddes of Iordane, where ye fete of the prestes stode, that bare ye Arke of the couenaunt: and there they be yet vnto this daye.

10 As for ye prestes that bare ye Arke, they stode in the myddes of Iordane, vntyll all was perfourmed that the LORDE charged Iosua to saye vnto ye people acordinge as Moses gaue Iosua in commaundemet. The people also made haist, and wente ouer.

11 Now whan all the people was gone ouer, the Arke of the LORDE wente ouer also, and the prestes wente before the people.

12 And the Rubenites, & Gaddites, and ye halfe trybe of Manasse wente harnessed before the childe of Israel, like as Moses had sayde vnto the:

13 Aboute a fortye thousande men ready harnessed to the warre, wente before the LORDE to the battayll, vpon ye felde of Iericho.

14 In that daye the LORDE made Iosua greate in the sighte of all Israel: and like as they feared Moses, so stode they in awe of him, all his life longe.

15 And the LORDE sayde vnto Iosua: 16 Commaunde the prestes which beare the Arke of witness, that they come vp out of Iordane.

17 So Iosua comaunded the prestes, & sayde: Come vp out of Iordane.

18 And whan the prestes yt bare the Arke of the couenaunt of ye LORDE were come out of Iordane, and trode with the soles of their fete vpon the drye londe, ye water of Iordane came agayne in to his place, and flowed (like as afore tyme) vpon all his banckes.

19 It was ye tenth daye of the first moneth, whan the people came vp out of Iordane: & they pitched their tentes in Gilgall vpon ye East syde of ye cite of Iericho.

20 And ye twolue stones which they had taken out of Iordane, dyd Iosua set vp at Gilgall, 21 & saide vnto the children of Israel: Whan youre children are their fathers hereafter, & saie: What meane these stones?

22 Ye shall tell the, & saye: Israel wete drye thorow Iordane,

23 what tyme as ye LORDE yor God dried vp ye water of Iordane before you, vntyll ye were ouer: like as the LORDE yor God dyd in the reed see, which he dried vp before vs, yt we mighte go thorow:

24 that all the people vpon earth mighte knowe the hade of the LORDE, how mightie it is, to the intent that ye shulde allwaye feare the LORDE youre God.

Chapter 5

1 Now whan all the kynges of ye Amorites that dwelt beyonde Iordane westwarde, and all the kynges of ye Cananites by the see syde herde, how ye LORDE had dried vp the water of Iordane before the children of Israel, tyll they were come ouer their hert fayled them, nether was there eny more corage in them at the presence of the children of Israel.

2 At the same tyme sayde ye LORDE vnto Iosua: Make the knyues of stone, & circumcise the children of Israel agayne the seconde tyme.

3 Then Iosua made him knyues of stone, and circumcysed the childe of Israel vpon the toppe of the foreskynnes.

4 And the cause why Iosua circumcysed all the males of the people yt were come out of Egipte, is this: for all the men of warre dyed in ye wildernesse by the waye, after they were departed out of Egipte:

5 for all the people that came forth, were circumcysed. But all the people that were borne in ye wyldernesse by the waye (after they departed out of Egipte) were not circumcysed:

6 for the children of Israel walked fortye yeares in the wyldernesse, vntyll all the people of the men of warre that came out of Egipte, were consumed, because they herkened not vnto the voyce of the LORDE, like as the LORDE sware vnto them, that they shulde not se the londe, which the LORDE sware vnto their fathers to geue vnto vs, euen a londe that floweth with mylke & honye:

7 their children which were come vp in their steade, dyd Iosua circumcysed: for they had the foreskynne, and were not circumcysed by the waye.

8 And whan all the people were circumcysed, they abode in their place, eue in ye tetes, tyll they were whole.

9 And ye LORDE saide vnto Iosua: To daie haue I turned ye shame of Egipte awaye from you, & the same place was called Gilgall vnto this daye.

10 And whyle the children of Israel laye thus at Gilgall, they kepte Easter the fourteenth daye of the moneth at eue in the felde of Iericho.

11 And they ate of the corne of the lode the seconde daye of the Easter: namely, vnlouended bred, & fyrmentye of yt yeare, eue the same daye.

12 And vpon the morow, the Manna fayled, whan they ate of the corne of ye londe, so that the children of Israel had nomore Manna, but ate of the corne of the londe of Canaan the same yeare.

13 And it fortuneth that wha Iosua was by Iericho, he lifte vp his eyes, & was aware, that there stode a ma agaynst him, and had a naked swerde in his hande. And Iosua wete to him, & sayde vnto him: Art thou one of vs, or of oure enemies?

14 He sayde: No, but I am the prynce of the LORDES hoost, and now am I come. Then fell Iosua downe to the earth vpon his face, & worshipped him, and sayde vnto him: What sayeth my LORDE vnto his seruauant?

15 And the prynce ouer the LORDES hoost sayde vnto him: Put yi shues of yi fete, for the place wher vpo thou stondest, is holy. And Iosua dyd so.

Chapter 6

1 As for Iericho, it was shut & kepte because of the childe of Israel, so that no man mighte go out ner in.

2 But the LORDE sayde vnto Iosua: Beholde, I haue geuen Iericho with ye kynge and men of warre therof, in to yi hande.

3 Let all the men of warre go once rounde aboute ye cite, and do so sixe dayes.

4 But vpon the seuenth daye let the prestes take the seuen trompettes of the yeare of Iubilye before the Arke, and go the same seuenth daye seuen tymes aboute the cite, and let the prestes blowe the trompettes.

5 And whan the horne of the yeare of Iubilye bloweth and maketh a sounde, so that ye heare the trompettes, all the people shal make a greate shoute, then shal the walles of the cite fall downe, and ye people shal fall in, euery one straight before him.

6 Then Iosua the sonne of Nun called ye prestes, and sayde vnto them: Beare ye the Arke of the couenaunt, and let seuen prestes take the seuen trompettes of the yeare of Iubilye before the Arke of the LORDE.

7 But vnto the people he sayde: Get you hence, and go roude aboute the cite: and let him that is harnesssed, go before the Arke of the LORDE.

8 Whan Iosua had spoken this vnto the people, the seuen prestes bare the seuen trompettes of the yeare Iubilye before the Arke of the LORDE, and wente & blew the trompettes, and the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt folowed after them:

9 and who so was harnesssed, wente before the prestes that blew the trompettes, and the multitude folowed the Arke. And all was full of ye noyse of the trompettes.

10 But Iosua commaunded the people, and sayde: Ye shall make no shoute, ner let youre voyce be herde, nether shall ye geue one worde out of youre mouth, vntyll the daye yt I saye vnto you: Make a shoute, then make a shoute.

11 So the Arke of the LORDE wente once rounde aboute the cite, and came agyne in to ye hooste, & remayned therein: 12 for Iosua vsed to ryse vp early in the mornynge. And the prestes bare the Arke of the LORDE:

13 so dyd the seuen prestes beare the seuen trompettes of the yeare of Iubilye before ye Arke of the LORDE, and wente and blew the trompettes: and who so was harnesssed, wente before the, but ye multitude folowed ye Arke of the LORDE. And all was full of the noyse of the trompettes.

14 The seconde daye wente they once aboute the cite also, and came agayne into the hoost. Thus dyd they sixe dayes.

15 But vpon the seuenth daye whan the mornynge sprynge arose, they gat them vp early, and wente after the same maner seuen tymes aboute ye cite, so that vpon the same one seuenth daye they wente seuen tymes aboute the cite.

16 And at the seuenth tyme whan the prestes blew the trompettes, Iosua sayde vnto the people: Make a shoute, for ye LORDE hath deluyered you the cite:

17 Howbeit this cite, & all that is therein, shalbe damned vnto the LORDE: onely the harlot Rahab shal lyue, & all that are with her in ye house, for she hyd the messaungers, whom we sent forth.

18 Onely bewarre of it that is damned, lest ye damne youre selues (yf ye take ought of it which is damned) and make the hoost of Israel to be damned, and brynge it into mysfortune.

19 But all the syluer and golde, with the ornarnetes of brasse & yron, shalbe sanctified vnto the LORDE, that it maye come to the LORDES treasure.

20 Then made the people a greate shoute, and the prestes blew the trompettes (for whan the people herde the noyse of the trompettes, they made a greate shoute) and the walles fell, and ehe people clymmed vp in to the cite, euery one straight before him.

21 Thus they wanne ye cite, and destroyed all that was in the cite with the edge of the swerde, both man and woman, yonge and olde, oxe, shepe, and Asse.

22 But Iosua sayde vnto ye two men which had spyeed out the londe: Go in to the house of the harlot, and bringe out the woman fro thence with all that she hath, acordynge as ye haue sworne vnto her.

23 Then ye yonge men (the spyes) wente in, and brought forth Rahab with hir father and mother, & brethren, and all that she had, and all hir kynred, and caused her to dwell without the hoost of Israel.

24 As for the cite, they brent it with fyre, & all that was therein: onely the syluer and golde, and the ornarnetes of brasse and yro put they vnto the treasure in the house of ye LORDE:

25 but Iosua let the harlot Rahab lyue, with hir fathers house, and all that she had: & she dwelt in Israel vnto this daie, because she had hyd the messaungers who Iosua sent vnto Iericho to spye.

26 At the same tyme sware Iosua, and sayde: Cursed be that man before the LORDE, which setteth vp this cite of Iericho & buyldeth it: Whan he laieth ye foundacio therof, let it cost him his first sonne: And wha he setteth vp the gates of it, let it cost him his yogest sonne.

27 Thus the LORDE was with Iosua, so that he was spoken of in all londes.

Chapter 7

1 But the children of Israel had comytted a sinne in the thinge yt was damned: for Achan the sonne of Charmi the sonne of Sabdi the sonne of Serah, of ye trybe of Iuda, toke some of it yt was danned. Then was the wrath of the LORDE fearece ouer the children of Israel.

2 Now whan Iosua sent out men from Iericho vnto Hai, which lyeth besyde Bethaue on ye eastsyde of Bethel, he sayde vnto the: Go vp, and spye the londe. And whan they had gone vp, and spyed out Hai,

3 they came agayne to Iosua, and sayde vnto him: Let not all the people go vp, but vpon a two or thre thousande, that they maye go vp and smyte Hai, lest all the people weerye them selues there, for they are but fewe.

4 So there wente vp, of the people vpon a thre thousande men, and they fled before the men of Hai,

5 and they of Hai smote vpon a syxe and thyrtye men of them, and chased them from the porte vnto Sebarim, and smote them downe the waye. Then was the hert of the people discouraged, and became like water.

6 As for Iosua he rente his clothes, and fell vpon his face vnto the earth before the Arke of the LORDE, vntill the eueninge, with the Elders of Israel, and cast dust vpon their heades.

7 And Iosua sayde: Oh LORDE LORDE, wherfore hast thou broughte this people ouer Iordane, to deluyer vs in to the handes of the Amorites to destroye vs? O that we had taried beionde Iordane, as we begane.

8 Oh my LORDE, what shal I saye, whyle Israel turneth his backe vpon his enemies?

9 Wha the Cananites heare of this, they shal compasse vs rounde aboute, yee and rote out oure names from of the earth. What wylt thou do then vnto thy greate name?

10 Then sayde the LORDE vnto Iosua: Stode vp, why lystest thou so vpon thy face?

11 Israel hath offended, and trasgressed ouer my couenaunt, which I commaunded the. They haue taken also of the thinge that was damned, and haue stollen, and dyssembled, and layed it amonge their ornarnetes.

12 The children of Israel are not able to stonde before their aduersaries, but must turne their backes vpon their enemies: For they are a cursed. I wyll no more be with you from hece forth yf ye put not out the damned from amonge you.

13 Stonde vp, and sanctifie the people, and saye: Sanctifie yr selues agaynst tomorow for thus sayeth the LORDE God of Israel: There is a damned thinge in the O Israel, therefore canst thou not stonde before thine enemies, tyll ye put awaye the damned from amonge you.

14 And ye shall ryse vp early, one trybe after another: and loke which trybe so euer the LORDE taketh, the same shall come forth, one kynred after another: and loke which kynred the LORDE taketh, the same shall come forth, one house after another. And loke what house the LORDE taketh, the same shal come forth, one housholder after another.

15 And who so euer is founde in ye curse, the same shalbe burnt in the fyre with all that he hath: because he hath gone beyonde the couenaunt of the LORDE, and committed folye in Israel.

16 Then Iosua gat him vp by tymes in the mornynge, and brought forth Israel, one trybe after another, and ye trybe of Iuda was taken.

17 And whan he had brought forth the kynreds in Iuda, ye kinred of the Serahites was taken. And whan he had brought forth the kynred of the Serahites, one housholde after another, Sabdi was taken.

18 And wha he had brought forth his house, one housholder after another, Achan the sonne of Charmi ye sonne of Sabdi the sonne of Serah of the trybe of Iuda, was taken.

19 And Iosua sayde vnto Achan: My sonne, geue the glory vnto the LORDE the God of Israel, and geue him the prayse, and tell me, what thou hast done, and hide nothinge fro me.

20 Then answered Achan vnto Iosua, and sayde: Verely I haue synned agaynst ye LORDE God of Israel, thus & thus haue I done:

21 I sawe amoge ye spoiles a costly Babilonish garment, and two hudreth Sycles of syluer and a tunge of golde, worth fiftye Sycles in weight, vnto the which I had a lust, and toke it: and beholde, it is hyd in the grounde in my tente, and the syluer vnder it.

22 Then Iosua sent messengers thither, which ranne to the tente, and beholde, it was hyd in his tente, and the siluer vnder it.

23 And they toke it out of the tente, and broughte it vnto Iosua, and to all the children of Israel and poured it before the LORDE.

24 Then Iosua and all Israel with him, toke Achan the sonne of Serah with the siluer, the garment and golde tunge, his sonnes and daughters, his oxen and asses, and shepe, and all that he had broughte they in to ye valley of Achor.

25 And Iosua sayde: For so moch as thou hast troubled vs, the LORDE trouble the this daye. And all Israel stoned him, and burned him with fyre with all that he had.

26 And whan they had stoned him, they made ouer him a greate heape of stones, which remayneth vnto this daye. (So the LORDE turned from the rigorousnes of his wrath.) Therefore is the same place called ye valley of Achor vnto this daye.

Chapter 8

1 And ye LORDE saide vnto Iosua: Feare not, and be not afrayed. Take all the men of warre with the, and ryse, and get the vp vnto Hai. Beholde, I haue geuen in to thy hande, the kynge of Hai with his people in his cite & countre.

2 And thou shalt do with Hai and the kynge of it, as thou dyddest with Iericho and the kynge therof, sauynge that ye shall deale amoge you their spoyle & catell: but set thou a prey watch behynde the cite.

3 Then Iosua arose, and all ye men of warre, to go vp vnto Hai: and Iosua chose thirtie thousande fightinge men, and sent them out by night

4 and commaunded them, and sayde: Take hede, ye shall be ye prey watch behynde the cite, but go not to farrre from the cite, and se that ye be redye alltogether.

5 As for me and all the people that is with me, we wyll make vs to the cite. And whan they come forth agaynst vs (as afore) we wyll flye before them, 6 that they maye folowe out after vs, tyll we haue prouoked them forth of the cite: for they shall thinke that we flye before them, like as at ye first.

7 And whyle we flye before them, ye shall get you vp out of the prey watch, and wyne the cite. For ye LORDE youre God shall delyuer it in to youre handes.

8 But whan ye haue wonne the cite, set fyre vpon it, doynge acordinge vnto the worde of the LORDE. Beholde, I haue commaunded you.

9 So Iosua sent them awaye, & they wente vnto the place of the prey watch, and laye betwixte Bethel and Hai, on the west syde of Hai. But Iosua abode that night amoge the people.

10 And in the mornynge he arose early, and set the people in order, and wente vp with the Elders of Israel before the people towarde Hai:

11 and all the men of warre that were with him, wente vp, & gat them forth, and came ouer agaynst the cite, and pitched their tentes on the north syde of Hai, so yt there was but a valley betwene him and Hai.

12 He had taken aboute a fyue thousande men, and set them in the hynder watch betwene Bethel and Hai, on the west syde of the cite, 13 and they ordred the people of the whole hoost that was on the north syde of the cite, so that the vttemost of the people reached vnto the west ende of the cite. So Iosua wente the same nighte in to the myddes of the valley.

14 But whan the kynge of Hai sawe that, he made haist, and gat him vp early, and the men out of the cite, to mete Israel to ye battayll, with all his people, euen righte before the felde: for he wyst not that there was a prey watch behynde him on the backe syde of the cite.

15 But Iosua and all Israel were feble before them, and fled by the waye to ye wyldernesse.

16 Then cried all the people in the cite, that they shulde folowe vpon them, and they folowed after Iosua and rushed out of the cite,

17 so that there remayned not one man in Hai and Bethel, which wente not out to folowe vpon Israel, and they lefte the cite stondinge open, that they mighte persecute Israel.

18 The sayde ye LORDE vnto Iosua: Reach out the speare that thou hast in thine hande, towarde Hai: for I wyll delyuer it in to thy hande. And whan Iosua reached out the speare that was in his hande, towarde ye cite, 19 ye hinder watch brake vp out of their place, and ranne (whan he had stretched out his hande) and came in to the cite, and wanne it, and made haist, & set fyre vpon it.

20 And the men of Hai turned them, and loked behynde them, and the smoke of the cite wente vp towarde heauen, and they had no place to flie vnto, nether hither ner thither: and the people that fled towarde the wyldernes turned aboute, to folowe vpon them.

21 And whan Iosua and all Israel sawe, yt the hynder watch had wonne the cite (for ye smoke of the cite ascended) they turned againe, and smote the men of Hai.

22 And they in the cite came forth also agaynst them, so yt they came in the myddes amonge Israel on both the sydes, and they slewe them, so that there was not one man of them left ouer or escaped: 23 and they toke the kynge of Hai alyue, and broughte him vnto Iosua.

24 And wha Israel had slayne all the inhabitors of Hai, which had folowed vpon them in the felde and in the wyldernesse: and whan they were all fallen thorow the edge of the swerde, tyll they were destroyed, the turned all Israel vnto Hai, and smote it with the edge of ye swerde.

25 And of all them which fell that daye fro man vnto woma, there were twolue thousande, all men of Hai.

26 But Iosua withdrue not his hande (wherwith he reached out the speare) tyll all the inhabitors of Hai were vtterly destroyed, 27 sauynge the catell and the spoyle of ye cite, dyd Israel parte amonge them selues, acordinge vnto the worde of the LORDE, which he comaunded Iosua.

28 And Iosua burned vp Hai and made an heape therof for euer, which is there yet vnto this daye.

29 And the kynge of Hai caused he to be hanged on a tre vntyll the euen. But wha the Sonne was gone downe, he commaunded to take his body from the tre, and to cast it vnder the gate of the cite, and made vpon him a greate heape of stones, which is there yet vnto this daye.

30 Then buylded Iosua an altare vnto the LORDE God of Israel vpon mount Ebal

31 acordinge as Moses the seruauant of ye LORDE commaunded the children of Israel, as it is wrytten in the boke of the lawe of Moses euen an altare of whole stone, wherupon there was no yron lifted: and he offred burntofferings and healthofferings, 32 and there vpon the stones he wrote the seconde lawe of Moses, which he wrote before the childe of Israel.

33 And all Israel with their Elders and officers and iudges, stode on both the sydes of the Arke, right ouer agaynst the prestes yt bare the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE, the straunger as well as one of them selues, the one halfe besyde mount Grysim, and the other halfe beside mount Ebal, as Moses the seruauant of the LORDE commaunded afore, to blesse the people of Israel.

34 Afterwarde caused he to proclame all the wordes of the lawe of the blessynge and cursynge, as it is wrytten in the boke of the lawe.

35 There was not one worde that Moses commaunded, but Iosua caused it to be proclaimed before all the congregacion of Israel, and before the weme, and children, and straugers which walked amonge them.

Chapter 9

1 Now whan all the kynges that were beyonde Iordane vpon the mountaynes, and in the lowe countrees, & in all the hauens of the greate see, and besyde mount Libanus, herde this (namely, ye Hethites, Amorites, Cananites, Pheresites, Heuites and Iebusytes)

2 they gathered the selues together with one acorde, to fighte agaynst Iosua, and agaynst Israel.

3 But whan the inhabitors of Gibeon herde, what Iosua had done with Iericho and Hai,

4 they deale craftely, wete on their waie, and made a message, and toke olde sakes vpon their asses, and olde rente wyne botels,

5 and olde mended shues vpon their fete, and put on olde and peced garmentes, and all ye bred of their vytyles was harde and moulde,

6 and they wente vnto Iosua in to ye hoost at Gilgall, and sayde vnto him, and to euery man in Israel: We are come out of a farre countre, therfore make now a couenaunt wt vs.

7 Then sayde euery man in Israel vnto ye Heuyte: Peradventure thou dwellest amonge vs, how can I then make a couenaunt with the?

8 They saide vnto Iosua: We are yi seruantes. Iosua sayde vnto them: What are ye, & whence come ye?

9 They sayde: Thy seruantes are come out of a very farre countre, because of the name of the LORDE thy God: for we haue herde the reporte of him, and all that he dyd in Egipte,

10 and all that he dyd vnto the two kynges of the Amorites beyode Iordane, Sihon the kynge at Hesbo, and Og the kynge of Basan, which dwelt at Astaroth.

11 Therfore sayde oure Elders and all the inhabitors of oure countre: Take fode with you for youre iourney, and go mete them, and saye vnto them: We are youre seruantes, therfore make now a bonde with vs:

12 This oure bred that we toke out of oure houses for oure foode, was new whan we toke or iourney towarde you: but now lo, it is harde & moulde.

13 And these botels fylled we new, and lo, they are rete. And these oure clothes and shues are waxed olde, by ye reason of the sore longe iourney.

14 Then the captaynes toke their vytyles, and axed not the mouth of the LORDE.

15 And Iosua made peace with them, and set vp a couenaunt with them, that they shulde be saued alyue, and the rulers of the congregacion sware vnto them.

16 But thre dayes after that they had made a couenaunt with them, they herde, that they were their neighbours, and dwelt amonge them:

17 For as the children of Israel wente forth on their iourney, they came on the thirde daye vnto their cities, which are called Gibeon, Caphira, Beeroth, and Cirath Iearim, 18 and smote the not, because that the rulers of the congregacisn had sworne vnto them by the name of the LORDE the God of Israel. But whan all the congregacion murmured agaynst the rulers, 19 all the rulers sayde vnto the whole congregacion: We haue sworne vnto them by the LORDE the God of Israel, therefore maye we not touch them.

20 But this wil we do vnto them: Let them lyue, that there come no wrath vpon vs, because of the ooth that we haue made vnto them.

21 And the rulers sayde vnto them: Let them lyue, that they maye be hewers of wodd and bearers of water for the whole congregacion, as the rulers haue sayde vnto them.

22 Then Iosua called them, and commened with them, and sayde: Wherefore haue ye disceaued vs, and sayde, that ye were farre from vs, where as ye dwell amonge vs?

23 Therefore shall ye be cursed, so that of you there shall not cease seruantes to hew wodd and to beare water for the house of my God.

24 They answered Iosua, & sayde: It was tolde thy seruantes, that the LORDE thy God commaunded Moses his seruaut, that he shulde geue you the whole lode, and that he wolde destroye all the inhabitors of the londe before you: therefore were we sore afrayed of oure lyues before you, and thus haue we done.

25 But now lo, we are in thy handes: loke what thou thinkest good and righte to do vnto vs, that do.

26 And he dyd euen so vnto them, and delyuered them from the children of Israels hade, that they shulde not slaye them.

27 So vpo the same daye Iosua made them hewers of wodd and water bearers for the congregacion, and for the altare of the LORDE vnto this daye, in the place that he shall chose.

Chapter 10

1 Whan Adonisedech the kynge of Ierusalem herde, that Iosua had wonne Hai, and damned it, and done vnto Hai and ye kynge of it, like as he dyd vnto Iericho and to the kynge therof, and that they of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were come vnder them, they were sore afrayed.

2 For Gibeon was a greate cite, like as one of the kynges cities, and greater then Hai, and all the citisyns therof were men of armes.

3 Therefore sent he vnto Hoham the kynge of Hebron, and to Pirea the kynge of Iarmuth, and to Iaphia the kynge of Lachis, and to Debir the kynge of Eglon, and caused to saie vnto them:

4 Come vp vnto me, and helpe me, that we maie smyte Gibeon, for they haue made peace with Iosua and the children of Israel.

5 Then came the fyue kynges of the Amorites together, and wente vp, the kynge of Ierusalem, the kynge of Hebron, ye kynge of Iarmuth, the kynge of Lachis, the kynge of Eglon, with all their armies, & layed sege vnto Gibeon, and foughte agaynst it.

6 Howbeit they of Gibeon sent vnto Iosua to Gilgall, and caused to saie vnto him: Withdrawe not thine hande from thy seruantes, come vp soone vnto vs: delyuer and helpe vs, for all the kynges of the Amorites that dwell vpon the mountaynes, are gathered together agaynst vs.

7 Iosua wente vp from Gilgall, and all the warryers and all the men armes with him.

8 And the LORDE sayde vnto Iosua: Feare them not, for I haue geue them in to thy hande. There shall not one of them be able to stonde before the.

9 So Iosua came sodenly vpon them, for all that night wente he vp from Gilgall.

10 And the LORDE discomfyted the before Israel, and smote them with a greate slaughter at Gibeon: & they chaced them the waie downe to Beth Horon, and smote them vnto Aseka and Makeda.

11 And whan they fled before Israel, the waye downe to Bethoron, the LORDE caused a greate hayle from heauen to fall vpon them, vnto Aseka, so that they dyed: & many mo of them dyed of the hayle, then the children of Israel slewe with the swerde.

12 Then spake Iosua vnto the LORDE (the same daye that the LORDE gaue ouer the Amorites before the children of Israel) and sayde in the presence of Israel: Sonne, holde styll at Gibeon, and thou Moone in the valley of Aialon.

13 Then the Sonne helde styll, and ye Moone stode, vntyll the people had auenged the selues on their enemies. Is not this wrytten in the boke of the righteous? Thus the Sonne stode styll in the myddes of heauen, and dyfferred to go downe for the space of a whole daye after.

14 And there was no daye like vnto this (nether before ner after) whan the LORDE herkened vnto the voyce of one man: for the LORDE fought for Israel.

15 And Iosua wente agayne to Gilgall in to the tetes, and all Israel with him.

16 As for the fyue kynges, they were fled, and had hyd the selues in the caue at Makeda.

17 Then was it tolde Iosua: We haue foude the fyue kynges hyd in the caue at Makeda.

18 Iosua sayde: Rolle greate stones then before the hole of the caue, and set men there to kepe them.

19 As for you, stonde not ye styll, but folowe after youre enemies, and smyte them behynde, and let them not come in their cities, for the LORDE youre God hath delyuered the in to youre hande.

20 And whan Iosua and ye children of Israel had ended the sore greate slaughter vpo them, so yt they were brought to nought, the remnaunt of them came in to the stronge cities.

21 So all the people came agayne to the hoost vnto Iosua to Makeda in peace, and no man durst moue his tunge agaynst the children of Israel.

22 Iosua sayde: Open the mouth of the caue, and brynge the fyue kynge forth vnto me.

23 They dyd so, and broughte the kynges vnto him out of the caue: the kinge of Ierusalem, the kynge of Hebro, the kynge of Iarmuth, the kynge of Lachis, the kinge of Eglon.

24 Whan these fyue kynges were broughte forth vnto him, Iosua called euery man of Israel, and sayde vnto the rulers of the men of warre that wente with him: Come forth and treade vpon the neckes of these kynges with youre fete. And they came forth, and trode vpon their neckes with their fete.

25 And Iosua saide vnto them: Be not afrayed, and feare not: be stronge and bolde, for thus shal the LORDE do vnto all yor enemies, agaynst whom ye fighte.

26 And Iosua smote them afterwarde, and put them to death, and hanged them vpon fyue trees. And they hanged styll vpon the trees vntyll the euenynge.

27 But whan the Sonne was gone downe, he commaunded to take them of from the trees: and they cast them in the caue, wherin they had hyd them selues, & before the hole of the caue they layed greate stones, which are there yet vnto this daye.

28 The same daye wanne Iosua Makeda also, and smote it with the edge of the swerde, and the kynge therof, and damned it, and all the soules that were therin, and let none remayne escaped: and dyd vnto the kynge of Makeda as he dyd vnto the kynge of Iericho.

29 Then Iosua and all Israel with him departed fro Makeda vnto Lybna, & foughte agaynst it.

30 (And the LORDE gaue it with ye kynge therof into the hande of Israel) and smote it and all the soules that were therin, with the edge of the swerde, and let not one remayne in it: and dyd vnto the kinge therof as he had done vnto the kynge of Iericho.

31 Afterwarde wente Iosua and all Israel with him from Lybna vnto Lachis, and layed sege vnto it, and fought agaynst it.

32 And the LORDE delyuered Lachis also in to the hande of Israel, so that they wanne it vpon the seconde daye, and smote it with ye edge of the swerde, and all the soules that were therin, acordinge to all as he had done vnto Lybna.

33 At the same tyme Horam ye kynge of Gazer wente vp, to helpe Lachis. But Iosua smote him with all his people, tyll there remayned not one.

34 And Iosua wente with all Israel from Lachis, vnto Eglon, and layed sege vnto it, and fought agaynst it,

35 and wanne it the same daye, and smote it with the edge of the swerde, and damned all the soules that were therin the same daye, acordinge vnto all as he had done vnto Lachis.

36 After that wente Iosua with all Israel from Eglon vnto Hebron, and foughte agaynst it, 37 and wanne it, and smote it with ye edge of the swerde, and the kynge of it, and all the cities therof, and all the soules that were therin, and let not one remayne, acordinge vnto all as he had done vnto Eglon: and damned it, and all the soules that were therin.

38 Then turned Iosua agayne with all Israel towarde Debir, and fought agaynst it, 39 and wanne it, with the kinge of it, and all ye cities therof, and smote them with the edge of the swerde, and damned all ye soules that were therin, and let not one remayne ouer. Euen as he had done vnto Hebro and Lybna with their kynges, so dyd he also vnto Debir, and the kynge therof.

40 Thus Iosua smote all the londe vpon the mountaynes, and towarde the south, and in the lowe countrees, and by the ryuers, with all their kynges, and let not one remaine ouer and damned all that had breth, as the LORDE God of Israel had commaunded.

41 And Iosua smote them from Cades Bernea vnto Gaza, and all the londe of Gosen vnto Gibeon, 42 and toke all these kynges with their lode at one tyme: for the LORDE God of Israel foughte for Israel.

43 And Iosua wente agayne with all Israel to the tentes vnto Gilgal.

Chapter 11

1 Whan Iabin the kynge of Asor herde this, he sent vnto Iabob the kynge of Madon and to the kynge of Samron, and to the kynge of Achsaph,

2 and to the kynges that dwelt towarde the north vpon the mountaynes, and in the playne on the southsyde of Cineroth, and in the lowe countrees, and in the lordshippes of Dor by the see syde:

3 and to the Cananites towarde ye east and west, to ye Amorites, Hethites, Pheresites, and Iebusites, vpon the mountaynes and to the Heuites, vnder mount Hermon in the londe of Mispa.

4 These wete out with all their armies, a greate people, as many as ye sonde of the see, and exceedinge many horses and charettes.

5 All these kynges gathered the selues, and came, and pitched together by ye water of Meram, to fighte with Israel.

6 And the LORDE sayde vnto Iosua: Feare them not, for tomorow aboute this tyme wil I delyuer them all slayne, before the children of Israel: thou shalt lame their horses, and burne their charettes with fire.

7 And Iosua came sodenly vpon them, and all the men of warre with him by the water of Merom, & fell vpon them.

8 And the LORDE delyuered them in to ye handes of Israel, and they smote them, and chased them vnto greate Sido and to the warme water, and to the playne of Mispa towarde ye east: and smote them, vntyll there remayned not one.

9 Then dealte Iosua with them as ye LORDE had saide vnto him, & lamed theis horses, & brent their charettes.

10 And he turned backe at the same tyme, & wanne Hasor, & smote ye kyng of it wt the swerde (for Hasor was afore tyme ye head cite of all these kyngdomes)

11 and smote all the soules that were therin wt the edge of the swerde, and damned it, & let nothinge remayne that had breth, & damned Hasor with fyre.

12 All the cities of these kyngdomes wane Iosua also, and smote the with the edge of the swerde, and damned them, acordinge as Moses the seruauant of the LORDE commaunded.

13 Howbeit the cities that stode vpon the hilles, dyd not the children of Israel burne with fyre: but Hasor onely dyd Iosua burne.

14 And all the spoyles of these cities and the catell, dyd the children of Israel deale amonge them, but smote all the men with the edge of the swerde, tyll they had destroyed them, and let nothinge remayne that had breth.

15 As the LORDE commaunded his seruauant Moses, and as Moses commaunded Iosua, euen so dyd Iosua, so that there was nothinge vndone of all that the LORDE comaunded Moses.

16 So Iosua toke all this lode vpon ye moutaynes, & all yt lyeth towarde the south, & all the londe of Gosen, and the lowe countre, & the playne felde, and the mountayne of Israel with the valley therof, 17 from the mountayne that parteth the londe vp towarde Seir, vnto Baalgad, in the playne of mout Libanus beneth mount Hermon. All their kynges toke he, and smote them, and put the to death.

18 Howbeit he warred a longe season with these kynges.

19 Yet was there not one cite, that yielded it selfe peaceably vnto the children of Israel (excepte the Heuites, which dwelt at Gibeon) but they wanne them all with battayll.

20 And this was done so of the LORDE that their hert was so hardened, to come against the children of Israel with battayll, yt they mighte be daned, & no faouore to be shewed vnto them, but to be destroyed, as the LORDE commaunded Moses.

21 At the same tyme came Iosua, and roted out the Enakims from ye mountayne, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, from euery mountayne of Iuda, and from euery mountayne of Israel, and damned the with their cities, and let none of the Enakims remayne in the londe of the children of Israel, saue at Gasa, at Gath, at Asod, there remayned of them.

23 Thus Iosua conquered all the londe acordinge vnto all as the LORDE sayde vnto Moses, & gaue it vnto Israel to enheritaunce, vnto euery trybe his porcion, and ye londe rested from warre.

Chapter 12

1 These are ye kynges of the londe, who the childre of Israel smote, & conquered their lode, beyonde Iordane, eastwarde, fro the water of Arnon, vnto mount Hermon, and vnto all ye playne felde towarde the east:

2 Sihon the kyng of the Amorites, which dwelt at Hesbon, and had dominion from Aroer that lieth by the water syde of Arnon, and vnto the myddes of ye water: and ouer halfe Gilead, vnto the water of Iabok, which is the border of the childre of Ammon:

3 and ouer the playne felde, vnto the see of Cynneroth eastwarde, and vnto the see of the playne felde, namely the Salt see towarde the east, the waye vnto Beth Iesimoth: and from the south beneth by the ryuers of mount Pisga.

4 And the border of Og the kyng of Basan, which remayned yet of Raphaim, and dwelt at Astaroth and Edrei,

5 and had the dominion ouer mout Hermon, ouer Salcha, and ouer all Basan vnto the border of Gessuri & Maachati, & of halfe Gilead, which was the border of Sihon the kyng of Hesbon.

6 Moses the seruauant of the LORDE and the childre of Israel smote them. And Moses the seruauant of ye LORDE gaue it vnto the Rubenites, Gaddites and to the halfe trybe of Manasse in possession.

7 These are the kynges of the lode, whom Iosua & the children of Israel smote on this syde Iordane westwarde, fro Baalgad vpo the playne of mount Libanus, vnto ye mout that parteth the londe vp towarde Seir, & that Iosua gaue vnto the trybes of Israel in possession, vnto euery one his parte,

8 what so euer was in ye moutaynes, valleyes, playne felde, by the ryuers, in ye wyldernesses & towarde the south, the Hethites, Amorites, Cananites, Pheresites, Heuites, and Iebusites.

9 The kyng of Iericho, the kyng of Hai, which lyeth besyde Bethel,

10 the kyng of Ierusalem, the kyng of Hebron,

11 the kyng of Iarmoth, the kyng of Lachis,

12 the kyng of Eglon, the kyng of Geser,

13 the kyng of Debir, the kyng of Geder,

14 the kyng of Horma, the kyng of Arad,

15 ye kyng of Libna, the kyng of Adulla,

16 the kyng of Makeda, the kyng of Bethel,

17 the kyng of Tapnah, the kyng of Hopher,

18 the kyng of Aphek, the kyng of Lasaron,

19 the kyng of Madan, the kyng of Hasor,

20 the kyng of Simron Meron, the kyng of Achsaph,

21 the kyng of Takenah, the kyng of Megido,

22 the kyng of Cades, the kyng of Iakneam by Carmel,

23 the kyng in the lordshippes of Dor, the kyng of the Heithen at Gilgall, 24 the kyng of Thirza. These are one and thirtie kynges.

Chapter 13

1 Now whan Iosua was olde and wel stricken in age, the LORDE sayde vnto him: Thou art olde & well aged,

2 and there remayneth yet moch of the londe to conquere, namely all Galile of the Philistynes, and all Gessuri,

3 from Sihor which floweth before Egipte, vnto the border of Ekron, northwarde, which is rekened vnto the Cananites: fyue lordes of the Philistynes, namely, the Gasites, the Asdodites, the Ascalonites, the Gethites, the Ekronites & the Hauites.

4 But from the north it is all ye londe of the Cananites, and Maara of the Sidonians vnto Aphek, euen vnto the border of the Amorites.

5 Morouer the londe of the Giblites eastwarde, from Baalgad vnder mount Hermon, tyll a ma come vnto Hamath.

6 All they that dwell vpon the mount, from Libanus vnto the warme waters, and all the Sidonians. I wyl dryue them out before the children of Israel: Onely let them be dealte out amonge Israel, as I haue commaunded the.

7 Deuyde thou this lode now to enheritaunce amonge the nyne trybes and ye halfe trybe of Manasse.

8 For the Rubenites & Gaddites with ye halfe trybe of Manasse, haue receaued their enheritaunce, which Moses gaue the beyonde Iordane Eastwarde, acordinge as Moses the seruauant of the LORDE gaue them the same,

9 from Aroer which lieth vp by the water syde of Arnon, and the cite in the myddes of the water, & all the coastes of Medba vnto Dibon,

10 and all the cities of Sihon the kyng of the Amorites, which, dwelt at Hesbon, vnto the border of the children of Ammon:

11 and Gilead and ye border of Gessuri and Maachati, and all mout Hermon, and all Basan vnto Salcha:

12 all ye kyngdome of Og at Basan, which dwelt at Astaroth and Edrei, that remained yet ouer of Raphaim. But Moses smote them and droue them out.

13 The children of Israel droue not out the Gessurites & Maachathites, but both Gessur and Maachat dwelt amonge the childre of Israel vnto this daye.

14 But vnto ye trybe of the Leuites he gaue no enheritaunce: for the offeringe of the LORDE God of Israel is their enheritaunce, acordinge as he hath promysed them.

15 So Moses gaue vnto the trybe of ye children of Ruben after their kynreds,

16 so that their border was Aroer, which lyeth vpon the water syde of Arnon, and the cite in the myddes of the same water, with all the playne felde vnto Medba:

17 Hesbon, and all the cities therof which lye in the playne felde: Dibon, Bamoth Baal, & Beth Baal Meon,

18 Iahza, Kedemoth, Mephaath,

19 Kiriathaim, Sibama, Zeretha Sahar, vpon mount Emek,

20 Beth Peor: the ryuers by Pisga, and Beth Iesimoth,

21 and all the cities vpon the playne, and all the realme of Sihon kyng of the Amorites, which dwelt at Hesbon, whom Moses smote with the prynces of Madian, Eui, Rekem, Zur, Hur, & Reba, the mightie men of kyng Sihon, which were inhabitants of the londe.

22 And Balaam the sonne of Beor the prophecier, dyd the children of Israel kyll with the swerde amonge the other that were slayne:

23 and the border of ye childre of Ruben was Iordane. This is the enheritaunce of the children of Ruben amonge their kynreds, cities and vyllages.

24 Vnto the trybe of the children of Gad amonge their kynreds gaue Moses,

25 so that their border was, Iahesar and all the cities in Gilead, and the halfe londe of the children of Ammon, vnto Aroer, which lyeth before Rabbath:

26 and from Hesbon vnto Ramath Mispe & Betomim: and fro Mahanaim vnto the border of Debir.

27 But in the valley, Beth Haram, Beth Nimra, Suchoth and Zaphon (which remayned yet of the realme of Sihon kyng of Hesbon) and was by Iordane, vnto the edge of the see of Cyneroth, on this syde Iordane eastwarde.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad in their kynreds, cities & vyllages.

29 Vnto the halfe trybe of the children of Manasse after their kynreds, gaue Moses, 30 so that their border was fro Mahanaim, all Basan, all the kyngdome of Og kyng of Basan, and all the townes of Iair which lye in Basan, namely thre score cities.

31 And halfe Gilead, Astaroth, Edrei, the cities of the kyngdome of Og at Basan, vnto the children of Machir the sonne of Manasse. This is the halfe porcion of the children of Machir after their kynreds.

32 This is it that Moses dealte out vpon the felde of Moab beyonde Iordane ouer agaynst Iericho eastwarde.

33 But vnto ye trybe of Leui gaue Moses no enheritaunce: for the LORDE God of Israel is their enheritaunce, as he hath promysed them.

Chapter 14

1 This is it that the children of Israel haue enhereted in the londe of Canaan, which Eleasar the prest, and Iosua the sonne of Nun, and the chefe of the fathers amonge the trybes of the children of Israel parted out amonge them.

2 But by lot dyd they deuyde it out amoge them, acordinge as the LORDE comaunded Moses to geue vnto the nyne trybes and ye halfe:

3 for vnto the two trybes and the halfe dyd Moses geue enheritaunce beyonde Iordane. But vnto the Leuites he gaue no enheritaunce amonge them.

4 For of the childe of Ioseph there were two trybes, Manasses and Ephraim. Therefore gaue they the Leuites no porcion in the londe, but cities, to dwell therein, and suburbs for their catell and goodes.

5 Euen as the LORDE comaunded Moses, so dyd the childe of Israel, and deuyded the londe.

6 Then came forth the children of Iuda to Iosua at Gilgall: and Caleb ye sonne of Iephunne the Kenisite sayde vnto him: Thou knowest what ye LORDE sayde vnto Moses the man of God, concerninge me and the in Cades Bernea.

7 I was fortye yeare olde, whan Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE sent me out from Cades Bernea, to spye out the londe, and I broughte him worde agayne, euen as I had it in my hart.

8 Howbeit my brethren that wente vp with me, discouraged the hert of the people: but I folowed ye LORDE my God vnto the vttemost.

9 Then sware Moses vnto me the same daye, and sayde: The londe whervpon thou hast troden with thy fote, shalbe thine enheritaunce and thy childrens for euer, because thou hast folowed the LORDE my God vnto the vttemost.

10 And now hath the LORDE letten me lyue, acordinge as he sayde. It is now fyue and fortye yeare sence ye LORDE spake this vnto Moses, wha Israel walked in the wyldernes. And now lo, this daie am I fyue and foure score yeare olde

11 and am yet as stronge to daye, as I was in that daye whan Moses sent me out: euen as my strength was then, so is it now also to fighte, and to go out and in.

12 Geue me now therfore this mountayne, wherof the LORDE spake in that daye, and thou herdest it the same daye: for now the Enakims dwell theron, and it hath greate and stronge cities: yf happily the LORDE wyl be with me, that I maye dryue the out, as he hath sayde.

13 Then Iosua blessed him, and so gaue Hebron vnto Caleb the sonne of Iephunne.

14 Therefore was Hebron the enheritaunce of Caleb the sonne of Iephunne the kenisite, vnto this daye, because he folowed the LORDE God of Israel vnto the vttemost.

15 But afore tyme was Hebron called Kiriatharba, & greate people were there amonge the Enakims. And the lode ceassed from warre.

Chapter 15

1 The lot of the trybe of the children of Iuda amonge their kynreds, was ye coaste of Edom by the wyldernes of Zin, which borderth southwarde on the edge of the south coutrees.

2 Their south borders were from the vttemost syde of the salt see, that is, from the coast that goeth southwarde,

3 and commeth out from thence towarde ye eastsyde of Acrabbim, and goeth forth thorow Zinna, and yet goeth vp from the south towarde Cades Bernea, and goeth thorow Hesron, and goeth vp to Adara, & fetcheth a compasse aboute Carcaa, 4 & goeth thorow Asmona, and commeth forth to the ryuer of Egipte, so that the see is the ende of ye border. Let this be youre border southwarde.

5 But the east border is from the salt see to the vttemost parte of Iordane.

6 The border northwarde, is from the see coast which is on ye edge of Iordane, and goeth vp vnto Beth Hagla, and stretcheth out from the north vnto Betharaba, and commeth vp vnto the stone of Bohem the sonne of Ruben,

7 and goeth vp vnto Debir from ye valley of Achor, and from the north coaste that is towarde Gilgall, which lyeth ouer agaynst Adumim vpwarde, which is on the north syde of the water. Then goeth it vnto ye water of Ensemes, and commeth out vnto the well of Rogell.

8 Then goeth it vp to the valley of the sonne of Hinnam, a longe besyde the Iebusite that dwelleth from ye southwarde, that is Ierusalem: and commeth vp vnto the toppe of the mount which lyeth before the valley of Hinnam from the westwarde, that borderth on the edge of the valley of Raphaim towarde the north.

9 Then commeth it from the toppe of the same mount vnto the water well of Nephtoah, and commeth out vnto the cities of mount Ephron, and boweth towarde Baala, that is Kiriath Iarim,

10 and fetcheth a copasse aboute from Baala westwarde vnto mount Seir, and goeth by the north syde of the mount Iarim, that is Chessalon: and cometh downe to Bethsemes, and goeth thorow Thimna, 11 and breaketh out on the north syde of Acron, and stretcheth forth towarde Sicron, and goeth ouer mount Baala, and commeth out vnto Iabueel: so that their vttemost border is the see.

12 The weste border is the greate see. This is the border of the children of Iuda rounde aboute in their kynreds.

13 Caleb the sonne of Iephunne had his porcion geue him amoge the children of Iuda (as the LORDE comaunded Iosua) namely Kiriatharba of the father of Enak, that is Hebron.

14 And Caleb droue from thence the three sonnes of Enak, Sesai, Ahiman, and Thalmas begotten of Enak.

15 And from thence he wente vp to the inhabitants of Debir. (As for Debir, it was called Kiriath Sepher afore tyme.)

16 And Caleb sayde: Who so smyteth Kiriath Sepher and wynneth it, I wyll geue him my daughter Achsa to wyfe.

17 Then Athniel the sonne of Kenas the brother of Caleb wanne it: and he gaue him his daughter Achsa to wife.

18 And it fortuneth whan they wente in, that she was counceled of hir housbande, to axe a pece of londe of hir father. And she fell downe from the asse. Then sayde Caleb vnto her: What ayleth the?

19 She sayde: Geue me a blessinge, for thou hast geue me a south (and drye) londe: geue me welles of water also. Then gaue he her welles aboue and beneth.

20 This is the enheritaunce of the trybe of Iuda amonge their kynreds.

21 And the cities of the trybe of the children of Iuda, from one to another by the coastes of the Edomites towarde the south, were these: Cabzeel, Eder, Iagur,

22 Kina, Dimona, Adada,

23 Keddes, Hazor, Iethnam,

33 But in the lowe countrees was Esthaol, Zaren, Asna,

34 Saroah, Engannim, Thapua, Enam,

35 Iarmoth, Adullam, Socho, Aseka,

36 Saaraim, Adithaim, Gedera,

37 Zena Hadasa, Migdal Gad,

46 From Ekron vnto the see, all that reacheth vnto Asdod and the vyllages therof.

47 Asdod with the daughters and vyllages therof. Gasa with hir daughters and vyllages vnto the water of Egipte. And the greate see is his border.

48 But vpon the mount was Samir, Iatir, Socho,

49 Danna, Kiriath Sanna, that is Debir:

50 Anab, Esthemo, Annim,

51 Gosen, Holon, Gilo. These are eleuen cities and their vyllages.

52 (Omitted Text)

53 (Omitted Text)

54 (Omitted Text)

55 Maon, Carmel, Siph, Iuta,

56 Iesrael, Iakdea, Sanoah,

57 Kain, Gibeaa, Thimna. These are ten cities and their vyllages.

61 And in the wyldernes was Betharaba, Middin, Sechacha, 62 Nibsan, and the Salt cite, and Engaddi.

These are sixe cities and their vyllages.

63 But the Iebusites dwelt at Ierusalem, and the children of Iuda coude not dryue them awaye. So the Iebusites remayne with the children of Iuda at Ierusalem vnto this daye.

Chapter 16

1 And the lot fell vnto the children of Ephraim fro Iordane ouer agaynst Iericho, vnto the water on the east syde of Iericho, and the wyldernes, yt goeth vp from Iericho thorow the mountayne of Bethel,

2 and commeth out from Bethel vnto Lus, and goeth thorow the coast of Arciataroth,

3 and stretcheth downe westwarde vnto ye coaste of Iaphleti to ye border of the lower Bethoron, and vnto Gaser: and the ende therof is by the greate see.

4 This the children of Ioseph (Manasses & Ephraim) receaued to enheritaunce.

5 The Border of the children of Ephraim amonge their kynreds of their enheritaunce from the east, was Ataroth Adar vnto the vpper Bethoron,

6 & goeth out westwarde by Michmethath that lyeth towarde the north, there fetcheth it a compasse towarde the east syde of the cite Thaenath Silo, and goeth there thorow from the east vnto Ianoha,

7 and commeth downe from Ianoha vnto Ataroth and Naaratha, and bordreth on Iericho, and goeth out at Iordane.

8 From Thapuah goeth it westwarde vnto Naalkama, and the out goinge of it is at the see. This is the enheritaunce of the trybe of the children of Ephraim amonge their kynreds.

9 And all the borders, cities with their vyllages of the childe of Ephraim laye scatred amonge the enheritaunce of the children of Manasse.

10 And they droue not out ye Cananites, which dwelt at Gaser. So ye Cananites remayned amoge Ephraim vnto this daye, and became tributaries.

Chapter 17

1 And the lot fell vpo the trybe of Manasse (for he is Iosephs first sonne) and it fell vpon Machir the first sonne of Manasse ye father of Gilead: for he was a ma of armes, therefore had he Gilead and Basan.

2 It fell also vnto the other children of Manasse, namely vnto ye childe of Abieser, the children of Helek, the children of Asriel, the children of Sechem, the children of Hopher, and the children of Semida: These are the childe of Manasse the sonne of Ioseph, males, amonge their kynreds.

3 But Zelaphead the sonne of Hopher the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasse, had no sonnes, but daughters, and their names are these:

Mahala, Noa, Hagla, Milca, Tirza,
 4 and they came before Eleasar the prest, and before Iosua the sonne of Nun, and before the rulers, and sayde: The LORDE commaunded Moses, to geue vs enheritaunce amonge oure brethren. And so they had enheritaunce geuen them amonge their fathers brethren, acordinge to the commaundement of the LORDE.
 5 There fell vpon Manasse ten meetlynes without the londe of Gilead and Basan, which lyeth beyode Iordane.
 6 For ye daughters of Manasse receaued enheritaunce amonge his sonnes: but the other children of Manasse had the londe of Gilead.
 7 And the border of Manasse was fro
 Asser forth vnto Michmethath, that lyeth before Sicheim, and reacheth vnto the righte syde of them of En Tapuah:
 8 for the londe of Tapuah fell vnto Manasse, and the border of Manasse is vnto the childre of Ephraim.
 9 Then commeth it downe to Nahelkana towarde the south syde of the ryuer cities, which are Ephraims amonge the cities of Manasse. But from the north is the border of Manasse by the ryuer, and goeth forth by the see syde,
 10 south warde vnto Ephraim, and to Manasse northwarde, and the see is his coaste. And it shal border on Aser from the north, and on Isachar from the easte.
 11 So (amoge Isachar and Asser)
 Manasses had Beth Sean and the townes therof, and Ieblaam and the townes therof, and them of Dor and their townes, and them of En Dor and their townes, & them of Taanach and their townes, and them of Mageddo and their townes, and the thirde parte of (the cite) Nophet.
 12 And the children of Manasse coude not dryue awaye the inhabiteres of these cities, but the Cananites beganne to dwell in the same londe.
 13 Howbeit whan the children of Israel were able, they made the Cananites tributaries, and droue them not out.
 14 Then spake the children of Ioseph vnto Iosua, and sayde: Wherefore hast thou geue me but one porcion and one meetlyne of enheritaunce, and I am yet a greate people, as the LORDE hath blessed me so largely?
 15 Then sayde Iosua vnto them: For so moch as thou art a greate people, go vp therfore into ye wodd, and make thy selfe rowme there in the londe of the Pheresites and Raphaim, seyng me
 Ephraim is to narowe for the.
 16 Then sayde the children of Ioseph: We shal not be able to attayne vnto the mountaynes, for there are yron charettes amonge all the Cananites, that dwell in the londe of Emek, by whom lyeth Beth Sean and the vyllages therof, and Iesrael in Emek.
 17 Iosua sayde vnto the house of Ioseph, euen to Ephraim and Manasses: Thou art a greate people, & for so moch as thou art so greate, thou must not haue one lot, 18 but the mountayne where ye wod is, shal be thine: rote yt out for ye, so shal it be the outgoinge of thy porcion, whan thou dryuest out the Cananites, which haue yro charettes, & are mightie.

Chapter 18

1 And all the multitude of the children of Israel gathered them selues together vnto Silo, and they set vp ye Tabernacle of witness, and the londe was subdued vnto them.
 2 But there were yet seuen trybes of the childre of Israel, vnto whom they had not deuoyded their enheritaunce.
 3 And Iosua sayde vnto the children of Israel: How longe are ye so slowe, to go and coquere the londe, which the LORDE God of youre fathers hath geuen you?
 4 Chose you thre men out of euery trybe, yt I maye sende them, and that they maye get them vp and go thorow the londe, and descrybe it acordinge to the enheritaunces therof, and come vnto me.
 5 Deuyde the londe in seuen partes. Iudas shal remayne vpon his borders of the south syde, and the house of Ioseph shal remayne vpon his borders of the north parte:
 6 but descrybe ye the londe in seuen partes, and bryng them vnto me, then shal I cast ye lot for you before the LORDE oure God.
 7 For the Leuites haue no porcion amonge you, but the presthode of the LORDE is their enheritaunce. As for Gad & Ruben and ye halfe trybe of Manasse, they haue receaued their enheritaunce beyonde Iordane eastwarde, which Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE gaue them.
 8 Then the men gat vp, to go their waye.
 And whan they were aboute to go for to descrybe the londe, Iosua commaunded them, and sayde: Go youre waye, and walke thorow the londe, and descrybe it, and come agayne vnto me, that I maye cast ye lot for you before the LORDE at Silo.
 9 So the men departed, and wente thorow
 the londe, and descrybed it in seuen partes vpon a letter acordinge to the cities, and came to Iosua in to the hoost at Silo.
 10 Then Iosua cast the lot ouer them at Silo before the LORDE, and there distributed the londe amonge the children of Israel, vnto euery one his parte.
 11 And the lot of the trybe of the children of Ben Iamin fell acordinge to their kynreds, and the border of their lot wente out betwene the children of Iuda &
 the children of Ioseph.
 12 And their border was on ye north quarter of Iordane, and goeth vp from the north syde of Iericho, and commeth vp to the mountayne westwarde, and goeth out by the wyldernesse of Bethauen, 13 and goeth from thence towarde Lus, euen by the south syde of Lus (that is Bethel) and commeth downe vnto Ataroth Adar by the mountayne which lyeth on ye south syde of the lower Bethoron.
 14 Then boweth it downe, and fetcheth a compasse vnto the south west quarter from the mount that lyeth ouer agaynst Bethoron towarde the south, and goeth out vnto Kiriath Baal, yt is Kiriath

 Iearim, a cite of the children of Iuda.
 This is the west border.
 15 But the south border is from Kiriath Iearim forth, and goeth out towarde the west, and commeth forth vnto ye water well of Nephthoah:
 16 and goeth downe by the edge of the mount, that lyeth before the valley of the sonne of Hinnam: and goeth downe thorow the valley of Hinnam on ye south syde of the Iebusites, and commeth downe to the well of Rogell, 17 and stretcheth from the northwarde, and commeth out vnto EnSemes, and commeth forth to the heapes that lye vp towarde Adumim, and cometh downe vnto the stone of Bohem the sonne of Ruben,
 18 and goeth a longe besyde ye playne felde which lyeth north warde, and commeth downe vnto ye playne felde, 19 and goeth besyde Beth Hagla that lyeth towarde the north, and his ende is at the north border of the Salt see, vnto ye edge of Iordane southwarde. This is the south border.
 20 But Iordane shal be the ende of the east quarter. This is the enheritaunce of ye children of Ben Iamin in their borders rounde aboute, amonge their kynreds.
 21 The cities of the trybe of the children of Ben Iamin amoge their kynreds are these: Iericho, Beth Hagla, Emek Rezig, 22 Betharaba, Zemaraim, Bethel,
 23 Auim, Haphar, Aphra,
 24 Caphar Amonai, Aphni, Gaba: these are twolue cities and their vyllages.
 25 Gibeon, Rama, Beeroth,
 26 Mispa, Caphira, Moza,
 27 Rekem, Ieerpeel, Thareala,
 28 Zela, Eleph, and the Iebusites, that is Ierusalem, Gibeath, Kiriath: these are fourtene cities and their vyllages. This is the enheritaunce of the children of Ben Iamin in their kynreds.

Chapter 19

1 Then fell the seconde lot of the trybe of the children of Simeon acordinge to their kynreds, and their enheritaunce was amonge the enheritaunce of ye children of Iuda.
 2 And to their enheritaunce they had Beer Seba, Molada,
 3 Hazar Sual, Baala, Azem,
 4 El Tholad, Bethul, Harma,
 5 Ziklag, Betha Markaboth, Hazar Sussa,
 6 Beth Lebaoth, and Saruhen: these are thirtene cities & their vyllages.
 7 Ain, Rimon, Ether, Asan: these are foure cities and their vyllages.
 8 And all ye vyllages that lye aboute the cities vnto Balath Beer Ramath towarde the south. This is the enheritaunce of the trybe of the children of Simeon in their kynreds:
 9 for the enheritaunce of the children of Simeon is vnder the porcion of the children of Iuda. For so moch as the enheritaunce of the children of Iuda was to greate for them, therfore inhereted the children of Simeon amonge their enheritaunce.

 10 The thirde lot fell vpon the childre of Zabulon after their kynreds. And the border of their enheritaunce was vnto
 Sarid,
 11 & goeth vp westwarde to Mareala, &
 bordreth vpon Dabaseth, and reacheth vnto the ryuer that floweth ouer agaynst lakneam:
 12 & turneth from Sarid eastwarde vnto the border of Cisloth Thabor, and cometh out vnto Dabrath, and reacheth vp to Iapia,
 13 and from thence goeth it westwarde
 thorow Githa Hopher, and Itha Razim, and commeth out towarde Rimon,
 Hamthoar Hanea,
 14 & fetcheth a compasse aboute from the north vnto Nathon, & the goynge out of it is in ye valley Iephtha El,
 15 Ratath, Nahalal, Simron, Iedeala, &
 Bethlehem: These are twolue cities and their vyllages.
 16 This is the enheritaunce of the childre of Zabulon in their kynreds: these are their cities and vyllages.
 17 The fourth lot fell vpo the childre of Isachar after their kynreds,
 18 & their border was Iesraela,
 Chessulloth, Sunem,
 19 Hapharaim, Sion, Anaharath,
 20 Raabith, Rision, Abez,
 21 Kemeth, En Ganim, Enhada, Beth Pazez,
 22 & bordreth vpon Thabor, Sahazima,
 Beth Semes, and ye outgoinge of it was at Iordane. These are sixtene cities and their vyllages.
 23 This is the enheritaunce of the trybe of the children of Isachar in their kynreds, cities and vyllages.
 24 The fifth lot fell vpon the trybe of the children of Asser, after their kynreds.
 25 And their border was Helkath, Hali,
 Beten, Achsaph,
 26 Alamelech, Ameid, Miseal, and borderth on Carmel vnto the see, and on Sihor, and Libnath,
 27 and turneth towarde the east vnto Beth Dagon, and bordreth on Zabulon, and on the valley of Iephtael, and towarde the north syde of Beth Emek and Negiel: & commeth out vnto Cabul on the lefte syde 28 of Ebron, Rehob, Hamon and Cana, vnto greate Sidon.
 29 And turneth towarde Rama, vnto the stronge cite of Zor, and turneth towarde Hossa, and goeth out vnto the see, after ye meetlyne towarde Achsib, 30 Vma, Aphek, Rehob. These are two and twentye cities and their vyllages.
 31 This is the enheritaunce of the trybe of the children of Asser in their kinreds cities and vyllages.
 32 The sixte lot fell vpon the children of Nephtali in their kynreds.
 33 And their border was fro Heleph Elon thorow Zaanaim, Adai Nekeb, Iabne El vnto Lakum, and goeth out vnto Iordane,
 34 and turneth westwarde to Asnoth

Thabor, and cometh out from thence vnto Hukok, and bordreth on Zabulon towarde the south, and on Asser towarde the west, and on Iuda by Iordane towarde the east: 35 and hath stronge cities, Zidimzer, Hamath Rakath, Chinnaret, 36 Adama, Rama, Hazor, 37 Kedes, Edrei, En Hazor, 38 Iereon, Migdal Elhare, Beth Anath, Beth Sames. These are nyentene cities and their vyllages. 39 This is the enheritaunce of ye trybe of the children of Nephtali in their kynreds, cities, and vyllages. 40 The seuenth lot fell vpon the trybe of the children of Dan after their kynreds. 41 And the border of their enheritaunce was Zarea, Esthaol, Irsames, 42 Saalabin, Aialon, Iethla, 43 Elon, Thimnata, Ekron, 44 Eltheke, Gibetho Baalath, 45 Iehud, Bnerbarak, Gat Rimon, 46 Me Iarkon, Rakon with the border by Iapho, 47 and on the same goeth the border of the children of Dan out. And the children of Da wente vp, and foughte agaynst Lesem, and wanne it, and smote it with the edge of the swerde, and toke it in possession, & dwelt therin, and called it Dan, after ye name of their father.

48 This is the enheritaunce of the trybe of the children of Dan in their kynreds, cities, and vyllages. 49 And wha ye lode was all parted out with the borders therof, the children of Israel gaue Iosua the sonne of Nun, an enheritaunce amonge them, 50 and (acordynge to the commaundement of the LORDE) they gaue him ye cite that he requyred, namely, Thimnath Serah, vpon mout Ephraim: there buylded he the cite, and dwelt therin. 51 These are the enheritaunces which Eleasar the prest and Iosua ye sonne of Nun, and the chefest of the fathers amonge ye tribes, deuided out by lot vnto the childe of Israel at Silo before the LORDE, euen before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnes, and so they ended the deuydinge out of the londe.

Chapter 20

1 And the LORDE spake vnto Iosua, and sayde: 2 Speake to the children of Israel: Geue amonge you fre cities, wherof I spake vnto you by Moses, 3 that a deedsleyer which sleyeth a soule vnawarres and vnwittingly, maye flye thither, yt they maye be fre amoge you from the avenger of bloude. 4 And he that flyeth to one of those cities, shal stonde without before the porte of the cite, and shewe his cause before the Elders of the cite, then shall they take him to them in to the cite, and geue him place to dwell with them. 5 And yf the auenger of bloude folowe vpon him, they shall not delyuer the deedsleyer in to his handes, for so moch as he hath slayne his neghboure vnawarres, and was not his enemye afore: 6 but he shall dwell in ye cite, tyll he stonde before the congregacion in iudgment, vntyll the hye prest dye, which shall be at that tyme. Then shall the deedsleyer returne, and go vnto his awne cite, and vnto his house to the cite, from whence he was fled. 7 Then appoynted they Kedes in Galile vpon mount Nephtali, and Sechem vpon mount Ephraim, and Kiriatharba, that is Hebron vpon mout Iuda. 8 And beyode Iordane on the east syde of Iericho, they gaue Beser in the wildernes vpon the playne out of the trybe of Ruben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the trybe of Gad, and Golan in Basan out of the trybe of Manasse. 9 These were the cities appoynted for all ye children of Israel, and for the straungers which dwelt amonge them, that whosoeuer had slayne a soule vnawarres, might flye thither, that he shulde not be put to death by the auenger of bloude, tyll he had stonde before the congregacion.

Chapter 21

1 Then the chefe fathers amonge the Leuites came forth vnto Eleasar the prest and to Iosua the sonne of Nun, and to ye awncient fathers amoge the trybes of the children of Israel, 2 and spake vnto them at Silo in the londe of Canaan, and sayde: The LORDE commaunded by Moses, that we shulde haue cities geuen vs to dwell in, and the suburbes of the same for oure catell. 3 Then the children of Israel gaue of their enheritaunce these cities and the suburbes therof, vnto the Leuites, acordynge to the commaundement of the LORDE. 4 And the lot fell vpon the kynred of the Kahathites, and the children of Aaron the prest amonge the Leuites, had by the lott thyrten cities of the trybe of Iuda, of the trybe of Simeon, and of the trybe of Ben Iamin. 5 The other childe of Kahath of the same kynred, had by the lot ten cities, of the trybe of Ephraim, of the trybe of Dan, and of the halfe trybe of Manasse. 6 But the children of Gerson of the same kynred had by the lot thyrten cities, of the trybe of Isachar, of the trybe of Asser, of ye trybe of Nephtali, and of the halfe trybe of Manasse at Basan. 7 The children of Merari of their kynred had twolue cities, of the trybe of Ruben, of the trybe of Gad, and of the trybe of Zabulon. 8 So the children of Israel gaue these cities and their suburbes vnto the Leuites by lott, as the LORDE commaunded by Moses. 9 Of the trybe of the children of Iuda, and of the trybe of the children of Simeon, they gaue these cities (which they named by name) 10 vnto the children of Aaron of the kynred of the Kahathites amonge the children of Leui: for the first lot was theirs. 11 So they gaue them Kiriatharba, which was the fathers of Enak, that is Hebron vpon the mount Iuda, and the suburbes therof rounde aboute. 12 But the felde of the cite and the vyllages therof, gaue they vnto Caleb the sonne of Iephune for his possession. 13 Thus gaue they vnto the children of Aaron the prest, the fre cite of the deed sleyers, Hebron and the suburbes therof, Libna and the suburbes therof, 14 Iathir and the suburbes therof, Esthuma and the suburbes therof, 15 Holon and the suburbes therof, Debir and the suburbes therof, 16 Ain and the suburbes therof, Iuta and the suburbes therof, Beth Semes and the suburbes therof, euen nyne cities of these two trybes. 17 But of the trybe of Ben Iamin they gaue foure cities, Gibeon and ye suburbes therof, Gaba, and the suburbes therof, 18 Anathot and the suburbes therof, Almon and the suburbes therof: 19 so that all the cities of the children of Aaron the prest were thirtene with their suburbes. 20 The kynreds of the other children of Kahath the Leuites, had by their lott foure cities, of the trybe of Ephraim, 21 and they gaue the the fre cite of the deedsleiers, Seche and the suburbes therof vpon mount Ephraim Gaser and the suburbes therof, 22 Kibzaim and the suburbes therof, Bethron and the suburbes therof. 23 Of the trybe of Dan foure cities, Eltheke and ye suburbes therof, Gibthon and the suburbes therof, 24 Aialon and the suburbes therof, Gath Rimon and the suburbes therof. 25 Of the halfe trybe of Manasses two cities, Thaenach and the suburbes therof, Gath Rimon and the suburbes therof: 26 so that all the cities of the other children of ye kynred of Kahath, were ten with their suburbes. 27 But vnto the children of Gerson amonge the kynreds of the Leuites were geuen, Of the halfe trybe of Manasse two cities, the fre cite for the deedslayer, Gola in Basan and the suburbes therof, Beathra, and the suburbes therof. 28 Of the trybe of Isachar foure cities, Kision and the suburbes therof, Dabrach and the suburbes therof, 29 Iarmuth and the suburbes therof, Engannim and the suburbes therof. 30 Of the trybe of Asser foure cities, Miseal, Abdon, 31 Helkath and Rehob with the suburbes therof. 32 Of the trybe of Nephtali thre cities, the fre cite Kedes (for the deedsleyer) in Galile, Hamoth, Dor, and Karthan with the suburbes therof: 33 so that all the cities of the kynred of the Gersonites were thirtene wt their suburbes. 34 Vnto the kynreds of Merari the other Leuites were geuen, Of the trybe of Zabulon foure cities, Iakneam, Kartha, 35 Dimna and Nahalal wt ye suburbes therof. 36 Of the trybe of Ruben foure cities, Bezer, Iahza, 37 Kedemoth and Mephaat with their suburbes. 38 Of the trybe of Gad foure cities, the fre cite for the deedsleyer, Ramoth in Gilead, Mahanaim, 39 Hesbon and Iaeser with their suburbes: 40 so that all the cities of the children of Merari amonge their kynreds of ye other Leuites, were twolue. 41 Thus all the cities of the Leuites amonge ye possession of the children of Israel, were eight and fortye with their suburbes. 42 And these cities were so dealte out, that euery one had their suburbes rounde aboute, the one as the other. 43 Thus the LORDE gaue the children of Israel all the londe, which he had sworne vnto their fathers to geue: & they toke possession of it, and dwelt therin. 44 And the LORDE gaue the rest before all those yt were aboute them like as he sware vnto their fathers, & none of their enemies stode agaynst the, but all their enmies delyuered he in to their hande. 45 And their myssed nothinge of all the good that the LORDE had promysed vnto the house of Israel, it came euery whyt.

1 Then Iosua called ye Rubenites and Gaddites, and ye halfe trybe of Manasse, 2 and sayde vnto them: Ye haue kepte all, that Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE commaunded you, and haue herkened vnto my voyce in all yt I haue commauded you. 3 Ye haue not forsaken youre brethre a longe season, vnto this daye, and haue wayted vpon the commaundement of the LORDE youre God. 4 For so moch now as the LORDE youre God hath broughte youre brethre to rest, as he promysed them, turne you now, and go youre waye to youre tentes in to the londe of youre possession, which Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE gaue you beyode Iordane. 5 But take diligent hede now, that ye do accordinge to the commaundement and lawe which Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE hath commaunded: That ye loue the LORDE youre God, and walke in all his wayes, and kepe his commaundementes, and cleue vnto him, and serue him with all youre hert and with all youre soule. 6 So Iosua blessed them, and let them go. And they wente vnto their tentes. 7 Vnto the halfe trybe of Manasse had Moses geuen possession at Basan: vnto the other halfe gaue Iosua amonge their brethren on this syde Iordane westwarde. And when he let them go to their tentes and blessed them, 8 he sayde vnto them: Ye come home agayne with greate good vnto youre tetes, with exceedynge moch catell, syluer, golde, brasse, yron and rayment, distribute therfore the spoyle of youre enemyes amonge youre brethren.

9 So the Rubenites, Gaddites, and the halfe trybe of Manasse returned, and wente from the children of Israel out of Silo (which lyeth in the londe of Canaan) to go in to the countre of Gilead to the londe of their possession, that they mighte possesse it, acordinge to the commaundement of the LORDE by Moses.

10 And whan they came vnto the heapes by Iordane, which lye in the londe of Canaan, the same Rubenites, Gaddites, and the halfe trybe of Manasses buylded there besyde Iordane, a fayre greate altare.

11 But whan the children of Israel herde saye: Beholde, the children of Ruben, the children of Gad, and the halfe trybe of Manasse haue buylded an altare ouer agaynst the londe of Canaan vpon the heapes by Iordane on this syde the children of Israel, 12 they gathered them selues together with the whole congregacion at Silo, to go vp agaynst the with an armye.

13 And (in the meane season) they sent to them in to the londe of Gilead, Phineas the sonne of Eleasar the prest, 14 and with him ten chefe prynces amonge the houses of their fathers, out of euery tribe in Israel one.

15 And they came to the children of Ruben, to the children of Gad, and to the halfe trybe of Manasse in the londe of Gilead, and sayde:

16 Thus sayeth the whole congregacion of the LORDE vnto you: What trespase is this, yt ye haue trespassed agaynst the God of Israel, that ye shulde turne backe from ye LORDE this daye, to builde you an altare, for to fall awaye from the LORDE?

17 Haue we not ynough of the wickednesse of Peor? from the which we are not yet clenched this daye, and there came a plage amonge the congregacion of the LORDE:

18 and ye turne you backe this daye from the LORDE, and this daye are ye fallen awaye from the LORDE, that he maye be wroth to daye or tomorow at the whole congregacion of the LORDE.

19 Yf the londe of youre possession be vncleane, then come ouer in to the londe that the LORDE posseseth, where the dwellynge of the LORDE is, and take possessions amonge vs, and fall not awaye from the LORDE and from vs, to builde you an altare without the altare of the LORDE oure God.

20 Did not Achan the sonne of Serah trespase in the thinge that was damned, and the wrath came ouer ye whole congregacion of Israel and he wente not downe alone for his mysdede?

21 Then answered the children of Ruben, and the children of Gad, and the halfe trybe of Manasse, and sayde vnto the heades and prynces of Israel:

22 The mightie God ye LORDE, the mightie God the LORDE knoweth, and

Israel knoweth also, yf this be a trangressynge or trespacynge agaynst the LORDE, then let it not helpe vs this daye:

23 Yf we haue buylded the altare, because we wolde turne awaye backe from the LORDE, to offre burntofferings or meatofferings theron, or to make eny deedofferings vpon it, then let the LORDE requyre it:

24 And yf we haue not done it rather for very feare of this thinge, and sayde: To daye or tomorow mighte youre children saye vnto oure children: What haue ye to do with the LORDE the God of Israel?

25 The LORDE hath set Iordane for a border betwene vs and you ye children of Ruben and Gad, ye haue no porcion in the LORDE: By this shulde youre children make oure children to turne awaye from the feare of the LORDE.

26 Therfore sayde we: Let vs make oure children an altare, not for sacrifice, ner for burntofferinge, 27 but that it maye be a toke betwene vs and you, and oure posterities, that we maye serue the LORDE in his sighte with oure burntofferings, deedofferings, and other offerings: and yt youre children to daye or tomorow neade not to saye vnto oure children: Ye haue no parte in the LORDE.

28 And we sayde: But yf they shulde speake so vnto vs, or to oure posterities to daye or tomorow, then maye we saye: Beholde the symilitude of ye altare of the LORDE, which oure fathers made, not for sacrificye, ner for burntofferynge, but for a wytnesse betwene vs and you.

29 God forbydde, that we shulde fall awaye from the LORDE, to turne backe from him this daye, and to buylde an altare for sacrifice, for burntofferinge and for eny presente, without ye altare of the LORDE oure God, that stondesth before his Habitacion.

30 But whan Phineas the prest, and the chefe of the congregacion, the prynces of Israel which were with him, herde these wordes, that the children of Ruben, Gad, and Manasse had spoken, they pleased them well.

31 And Phineas the sonne of Eleasar the prest sayde vnto the children of Rube, Gad and Manasse: This daye we knowe, that ye LORDE is amonge vs, in that ye haue not trespassed agaynst the LORDE in this dede. Now haue ye delyuered the children of Israel out of the hande of the LORDE.

32 Then Phineas the sonne of Eleasar the prest, and the rulers returned out of the londe of Gilead, from the children of Ruben and Gad, vnto ye londe of Canaa to the children of Israel, and brought them worde agayne of the matter.

33 Then were the children of Israel well cotente with the thinge. And they praysted the God of Israel, and sayde nomore that they wolde go vp agaynst them with an armye, to destroye the londe that the childre of Ruben and Gad dwelt in.

34 And ye childre of Ruben and Gad called the name of the altare: This altare be witness betwene vs, that the LORDE is God.

Chapter 23

1 And after a longe season, whan the LORDE had broughte Israel to rest from all their enemies rounde aboute: and Iosua was now olde and well stricken in age,

2 he called all Israel and their Elders, heades, iudges, and officers, and sayde vnto them: I am olde and well aged,

3 and ye haue sene all that the LORDE youre God hath done vnto all these nacions in youre sighte. For the LORDE youre God himself hath foughte for you.

4 Beholde, I haue parted amonge you ye renaunt of the nacions by lot, vnto euery trybe his enheritaunce from Iordane forth, and all the nacions whom I haue roted out vnto the greate see westwarde.

5 And the LORDE youre God shal thrust them out before you, and dryue them awaye from you, that ye maye haue their londe in possession, as the LORDE youre God hath promysed you.

6 Be stroge now therfore, that ye maye obserue and do all that is wrytten in the boke of the lawe of Moses: so that ye turne not asyde from it, nether to the righte hande ner to the lefte:

7 that ye come not amonge ye remnaunt of these nacions, which are with you: And se that ye make no mencion ner swaere by the names of their goddes, nether serue them, ner bowe youre selues vnto them:

8 But cleue vnto the LORDE youre God, as ye haue done vnto this daye:

9 the shal the LORDE dryue awaye greate and mightie nacions before you, like as there hath no man bene able to stonde before you vnto this daye.

10 One of you shall chace a thousande: for the LORDE youre God fighteth for you, acordinge as he promysed you.

11 Take diligent hede therfore vnto youre soules, that ye loue the LORDE youre God.

12 But yf ye turne backe, and cleue vnto these other nacions, and make mariages with them, so that ye come amoge them, and they amonge you,

13 be ye sure then, that the LORDE youre God shall nomore dryue out all these nacions before you, but they shall be vnto you a snare and net, and prickes in youre sydes, and thornes in youre eyes, vntyll he haue destroyed you from the good lode, which the LORDE youre God hath geuen you.

14 Beholde, this daye do I go the waye of all the worlde, and ye shal knowe euen from all youre hert and from all youre soule, that there hath not fayled one worde of all the good that the LORDE youre God promysed you.

15 Now like as all the good is come that the LORDE youre God promysed you: euen so shal the LORDE cause all euell to come vpon you, tyll he haue destroyed you from this good londe, which the LORDE youre God hath geuen you:

16 yf ye transgresse ye couenaunt of the LORDE youre God, which he hath commaunded you. And yf ye go yor waye and serue other goddes, and worshipe the, then shall the wrath of the LORDE waxe whote ouer you, & shall shortly destroye you out of the good londe, yt he hath geuen you.

Chapter 24

1 Iosua gathered all the trybes of Israel together vnto Sicheim, and called the Elders of Israel, the heades, iudges and officers. And wha they were come before God,

2 he sayde vnto all the people: Thus sayeth the LORDE the God of Israel: Yor fathers dwelt afore time beyode ye water, Abraha & Nahor wt Tarah their father & serued other goddes.

3 Then toke I yor father Abraham beyode the water, & caused him to walke in the londe of Canaan, & multiplied his sede, and gaued him Isaac, 4 and vnto Isaac I gaued Jacob and Esau, and gaued Esau mout Seir to possesse As for Iacob, & his childre, they wente downe in to Egipte.

5 Then sent I Moses and Aaron, and plaged Egipte as I haue done amonge the.

6 After yt brought I you and youre fathers out of Egipte. And whan ye came to ye see, and the Egipcians folowed vpon youre fathers with charettes and horse men vnto the reed see,

7 then cryed they vnto the LORDE, which put a darcknesse betwene you and the Egipcians, and broughte the see vpon them, and ouerwhelmed them. And youre eyes haue sene what I dyd to ye Egipcians, & ye dwelt in ye wildernes a loge season.

8 And I broughte you in to ye londe of the Amorites, which dwelt beionde Iordane: & wha they fought agaynst you, I delyuered them into yor hande, that ye mighte haue their countre in possession, and I destroyed them before you.

9 Then Balac the sonne of Ziphor the kynge of the Moabites gat him vp, and foughte agaynst Israel: and he sente and bad call Balaam the sonne of Beor, to curse you,

10 neuertheles I wolde not heare him, but I blessed you, and delyuered you out of his hande.

11 And whan ye wente ouer Iordane, and came vnto Iericho, the citesyns of Iericho foughte agaynst you, the Amorites, Pheresites, Cananites, Hethites, Girgosites, Heuites, & Iebusites: howbeit I delyuered the into youre hande.

12 And I sent hornettes before you, which droue them out before you, namely the two kynges of ye Amorites: not thorow thy swerde, ner thorow thy bowe.

13 And I haue geuen you a londe wherupon ye bestowed no labour, and cities which ye haue not buylded, that ye might dwell therin, and that ye might eate of the vnyardes and olyue trees which ye haue not planted.

14 Feare the LORDE now therfore, and serue him perfectly and in the trueth, and let go the goddes, whom youre fathers serued beyonde the water and in Egipte, and serue ye ye LORDE.

15 But yf ye like not to serue the LORDE, the chose you this daye whom ye wyll serue: the God whom youre fathers serued beionde ye water, or ye goddes of the Amorites, in whose lode ye dwell. As for me and my house, we wyll serue the LORDE.

16 Then answered the people, and saide: God forbidde, that we shulde forsake the LORDE, & serue other goddes.

17 For the LORDE oure God brought vs and oure fathers out of the londe of Egipte fro the house of bondage, and did soch greate tokens before oure eyes, and preserued vs all ye waye that we wente, and amonge all the nacions, whom we trauallyd by.

18 And the LORDE thrust out before vs all the people of the Amorites that dwelt in the londe. Therfore wyll we also serue the LORDE, for he is oure God.

19 Iosua sayde vnto the people: Ye can not serue the LORDE: for he is an holy God, mightie, and gelous, which spareth not youre transgressions and synnes.

20 But yf ye forsake the LORDE, and serue a straunge god, then shall the LORDE turne him, and do you euell, and consume you, after that he hath done you good.

21 The people sayde vnto Iosua: Not so, but we will serue the LORDE.

22 Then sayde Iosua vnto the people: Ye are witnesses ouer youre selues, that ye haue chosen you the LORDE, to serue him. And they sayde: Yee.

23 Then put awaye from you (sayde he) the straunge goddes yt are amonge you, and encline youre hert vnto the LORDE the God of Israel.

24 And the people sayde vnto Iosua: We wyll serue the LORDE oure God, and be obedient vnto his voyce.

25 So Iosua made a couenaunt with the people ye same daye, and laied statutes & lawes before them at Sichein.

26 And Iosua wrote this acte in the boke of the lawe of God, and toke a greate stone, & set it vp there vnder an oke, which was in ye Sanctuary of ye LORDE, 27 and sayde vnto all the people: Beholde, this stone shall be witnesse ouer you: For it hath herde all the wordes of the LORDE, which he hath spoken vnto vs, and shall be a witnesse ouer you, that ye denye not youre God.

28 So Iosua let the people go euery one to his enheritaunce.

29 And it fortunated after these actes, yt Iosua the sonne of Nun ye seruaut of the LORDE dyed, when he was an hundreth and ten yeare olde, 30 and was buried in the border of his enheritaunce at Thimnath Serah, which lyeth on the mount Ephraim, on the north side of mount Gaas.

31 And the children of Israel serued the LORDE as longe as Iosua lyued, and the Elders (that lyued longe after Iosua) which knewe all the workes of ye LORDE, that he had done vnto Israel.

32 The bones of Ioseph, which the children of Israel had broughte out of Egipte, buried they at Sichein, in the pece of the londe, yt Iacob boughte of the children of Hemor ye father of Sichein for an hundreth pens, and was the enheritaunce of the children of Ioseph.

33 Eleasar the sonne of Aaron died also, and they buried him at Gibeath, which was Phineas his sonnes, that was geuen him vpon mount Ephraim.

JUDGES

Chapter 1

1 After the death of Iosua the children of Israel axed the LORDE, and sayde: Who shall go vp & be or captayne of warre against ye Cananites?

2 The LORDE sayde: Iuda shall go vp. Beholde, I haue delyuered the londe in to his hande.

3 Then sayde Iuda vnto his brother Simeon: Go vp wt me in to my lot, and let vs fighte against the Cananites, then wyl I go agayne with the in to yi lot: So Simeon wente with him.

4 Now whan Iuda wente vp the LORDE delyuered the Cananites and Pheresites in to their hades, & they slewe te thousande me at Besek:

5 & they foude Adoni Besek at Besek, & foughte agaynst him, and slewe the Cananites and Pheresites.

6 But Adoni Besek fled, and they folowed after him: and whan they had ouertaken him, they cut of the thobes of his handes and fete.

7 Then sayde Adoni Besek: Thre score and ten kynges wt the thombes of their hades & fete cut of, gathered vp the meate yt was lefte vnder my table. Now as I haue done, so hath God rewarded me agayne. And he was broughte vnto Ierusalem, where he dyed.

8 But ye childre of Iuda foughte agaynst Ierusalem, and wane it, and smote it with the edge of the swerde, and set fyre vpon the cite.

9 Then wente the children of Israel downe, to fighte agaynst ye Cananites, yt dwelt vpon the mount, and towarde the south, and in the valleys.

10 And Iuda wente agaynst the Cananites, which dwelt at Hebron. (As for Hebron, it was called Kiriatharba afore tyme) and they smote Sesai, & Achiman, and Thalmal.

11 And from thence he wente agaynst ye inhabitors of Debir (but Debir was called Kiriath Sepher aforetyme.)

12 And Caleb sayde: He yt smyteth Kiriath Sepher, & wynneth it, I wyl geue him my daughter Achsa to wife.

13 Then Athniel the sonne of Kenas, Calebs yongest brother wane it. And he gaue him his daughter Achsa to wife.

14 And it fortunated yt whan they wete in, she was counceled of hir housbande, to axe a pece of londe of hir father. And she fell from the asse. The sayde Caleb vnto her: What ayleth ye?

15 She sayde: Geue me a blessinge, for thou hast geuen me a south & drye londe, geue me also a watery londe. Then gaue he her a londe that was watery aboue and beneth.

16 And the childre of ye Kenyte Moses brother in lawe, wente vp out of the palme cite, with the children of Iuda in to the wyldernesse of Iuda, that lyeth on ye south syde of the cite Arad: and wente their waye, & dwelt amonge the people.

17 And Iuda wente with his brother Simeon, & they smote the Cananites at Zephath, & dammed them, & called the name of the cite Horma.

18 Iuda also wanne Gasa with the borders therof, & Ascalon with hir borders, & Accaron with the coastes therof.

19 And the LORDE was wt Iuda, so that he conquered the mountaynes: but them that dwelt in the valley coulde he not conquere, because they had yron charettes.

20 And acordinge as Moses had sayde, they gaue Hebron vnto Caleb, which droue out the thre sonnes of Enak.

21 Howbeit ye children of Ben Iamin droue not out ye Iebusites which dwelt at Ierusalem, but ye Iebusites dwelt amonge the children of Ben Iamin at Ierusalem vnto this daye.

22 Likewise the children of Ioseph wete vp also vnto Bethel, & the LORDE was wt the.

23 And the house of Ioseph spyed out Bethel (which afore tyme was called Lus) 24 and the watch men sawe a man goinge out of the cite, and saide vnto him: Shewe vs where we maye come in to the cite, & we wyll shewe mercy vpon the.

25 And whan he had shewed them where they mighte come in to the cite, they smote ye cite wt the edge of the swerde: but they let the man go & all his frendes.

26 Then wete the same man vp in to ye countre of the Hethites, & buylded a cite, and called it Lus, & so is the name of it yet vnto this daye.

27 And Manasses droue not out Beth Sean wt the vyllages therof, ner Thaanah with the vyllages therof, ner the inhabitors of Dor with the vyllages therof: ner the inbiters of Iebleam wt the vyllages therof, ner the inhabitors of Mageddo wt the vyllages therof, and ye Cananites beganne to dwell in the same londe.

28 But whan Israel was mightie, he made the Cananites tributaries, and droue them not out.

29 In like maner Ephraim droue not out ye Cananites that dwelt at Gaser, but the Cananites dwelt amonge them at Gaser.

30 Zabulon also droue not out the inhabitors of Kitron and Nahalol, but ye Cananites dwelt amonge them, & were tributaries.

31 Asser droue not out ye inhabitors of Aco, & ye inhabitors of Sidon, of Ahelab, of Achsib, of Helba, of Aphik & of 32 but ye Asserites dwelt amoge the Cananites that dwelt in the lode, for they droue the not out.

Rehob,

33 Nephtali droue not out ye inhabitors of Beth Semes, ner of Beth Anath, but dwelt amonge the Cananites which dwelt in the londe: howbeit they of Beth Semes and of Beth Anath were tributaries.

34 And the Amorites subdued the childre of Dan vpon the mountaine, and suffred them not to come downe in to the valley.

35 And the Amorites beganne to dwell vpo mount Heres at Aiolon and at Saalbim. Howbeit ye hande of ye house of Ioseph was to sore for them, and they became tributaries.

36 And the border of the Amorites was, as a ma goeth vp towarde Acrabim, and from the rocke, & from the toppe.

Chapter 2

1 But there came vp a messauger of ye LORDE from Gilgall vnto Bochim, and sayde: I haue caried you vp hither out of Egipte, and broughte you in to the londe that I sware vnto youre fathers, & saide: I wyl neuer breake my couenaunt wt you,

2 that ye shulde make no couenaunt with the indwellers of this londe, but breake downe their altares: Neuertheles ye haue not herkened vnto my voyce. Wherfore haue ye done this?

3 Then saide I morouer: I wil not dryue them out before you, that they maye be a fall vnto you, and their goddes a snare.

4 And whan ye messauger of the LORDE had spoken these wordes vnto all the children of Israel, the people lefte vp their voyce, & wepte,

5 and called ye name of the place Bochim, and offred there vnto the LORDE.

6 For whan Iosua had sente awaye ye people, and the childre of Israel were gone, euery one to his enheritaunce, for to take possession of the londe,

7 the people serued the LORDE as longe as Iosua lyued and ye Elders, which lyued longe after Iosua, and yt sawe all the greate workes of the LORDE, which he dyd for Israel.

8 Now whan Iosua the sonne of Nun, the seruaut of the LORDE, was deed (whan he was an hudreth and ten yeare olde)

9 they buried him in ye border of his inheritance at Timnath Heres vpon mount Ephraim on the north syde of mount Gaas.

10 And whan all the same generacion was gathered vnto their fathers, there came vp after them another generacion, which knew not the LORDE, ner the workes that he had done for Israel.

11 Then wroughte the children of Israel euell before the LORDE, and serued Baalim,

12 and forsoke ye LORDE the God of their fathers (which broughte them out of the londe of Egipte) and folowed other goddes & the goddes of the nacions that dwelt rounde aboute them, & worshipped them, & displeased the LORDE:

13 for they forsoke ye LORDE euer more and more, and serued Baal and Astaroth.

14 Then ye wrath of the LORDE waxed whote vpo Israel, & he delyuered the in to ye handes of those yt spoyled the, that they mighte spoyle them, & solde the in to the handes of their enemies roud aboute, & they were not able to withstonde their enemies eny more,

15 but what waye so euer they wolde out, ye hade of the LORDE was agaynst the to their hurte (euen as the LORDE sayde and sware vnto them) and they were sore oppressed.

16 Now whan the LORDE rayseed them vp iudges, which helped them out of the hande of such as spoyled the,

17 they folowed not the iudges nether, but wente a whoringe after other goddes, & worshipped them, and were soone gone out of ye waye yt their fathers walked in, to heare the commaundementes of the LORDE, & dyd not as they dyd.

18 But whan ye LORDE rayseed vp iudges vnto them, the LORDE was with ye iudge, and helped them out of the hande of their enemies, as longe as the iudge lyued. For the LORDE had pitie of their complaynte, which they made ouer those yt subdued the and oppressed them.

19 Neuertheles whan the iudge dyed, they turned backe, and marred all more the their fathers, so that they folowed other goddes to serue them and to bowe them selues vnto them: they wolde not fall from their purposes, ner from their obstinate waye.

20 Therefore waxed the wrath of the LORDE allwaie so whote ouer Israel, that he sayde: For so moch as the people haue transgressed my couenaunt, which I commaunded their fathers, & folowe not my voyce,

21 I wil from hence forth dryue out none of the Heythen, who Iosua lefte behynde him, wha he dyed, 22 that by them I maye proue Israel, whether they wil kepe the waye of the LORDE, to walke therin, as their fathers dyd, or not.

23 Thus the LORDE suffred all these nacions, so that in a shorte tyme he droue them not out, whom he had not geuen ouer in to Iosuas hande.

Chapter 3

1 These are the nacions, whom the LORDE suffred to remayne, yt by them he mighte proue Israel, which had no vnderstandinge in the warres of Canaan: 2 onely because yt the trybes of the childre of Israel might knowe & lerne to warre, which afore had no knowlege therof,

3 namely: The fyue lordes of ye Philistynes, & all the Cananites, & Sidonians, & the Hethites yt dwelt vpon mount Libanus, fro mount Baal Hermon, vntyll a man come vnto Hemath.

4 The same remayned, that Israel mighte be proued by them, that it mighte be knowne whether they wolde herken to the commaundementes of the LORDE, which he commaunded their fathers by Moses.

5 Now whan the children of Israel dwelt thus amoge the Cananites, Hethites, Amorites, Pheresites, Heuites & Iebusites,

6 they toke their doughters to wyues, & gaue their doughters vnto their sonnes, & serued their goddes,

7 and wroughte wickednes before the LORDE, & forgat the LORDE their God, & serued Baalim & Astaroth.

8 Then ye wrath of ye LORDE waxed whote ouer Israel, & he solde the vnder the hade of Cusan Risathaim kyng of Mesopotamia, & so ye childre of Israel serued Cusan Risathaim viij. yeare.

9 The cried the childre of Israel vnto the LORDE, & the LORDE rayseed the vp a sauior which delyuered the, namely Athniel ye sonne of Kenas, Calebs yongest brother.

10 And the sprete of the LORDE came vpon him, & he was iudge in Israel, & wente out a warre fare. And ye LORDE delyuered Cusan Risathaim the kyng of Syria in to his hade, so yt his hande was to stroge for him.

11 Then was the londe in rest fortye yeares. And Athniel the sonne of Kenas dyed.

12 But the children of Israel dyd yet more euell before the LORDE. Then the LORDE strengthened Eglon the kyng of ye Moabites agaynst ye childre of Israel, because they wrought wickednesse before ye LORDE.

13 And he gathered vnto him ye childre of Ammon, & the Amalechites, & wete and smote Israel, and conquered the cite of the palme trees.

14 And the children of Israel serued Eglon ye kyng of ye Moabites eightene yeare.

15 The cried they vnto the LORDE. And the LORDE rayseed the vp a sauioire, namely Ehud the sonne of Gera ye sonne of Iemini, which was a man that mighte do nothings with his righte hande. And wha the childre of Israel sent a present by him vnto Eglon the kyng of the Moabites,

16 Ehud made him a two edged dagger of a spanne longe, & gyrded it vnder his garmet vpo his righte thye, 17 & broughte ye present vnto Eglon the kyng of ye Moabites. As for Eglon, he was a very fat man.

18 And whan he had delyuered the presente, he let the people go that had caried the present,

19 and he himselfe turned backe from the Idols at Gilgall, & caused to saye thus (vnto the kyng): I haue a secrete thinge to tell the O kyng. And he commaunded to kepe sylence, & all they that stode aboute him, wente out from him.

20 And Ehud came in vnto him. He sat in a sylde Sommer perler, which was for him selfe alone. And Ehud sayde: I haue somewhat to saye vnto the of God. The rose he vp fro his seate.

21 But Ehud put forth his lefte hande, & toke the dagger from his righte thye, & thrust it in to his bely, 22 so yt the hefte wente in also after the blade, & the fatt closed the hefte: for he drue not ye dagger out of his bely, & ye fylthines departed fro him.

23 But Ehud gat him out at the backe dore, & put to ye dore after him, and lockte it.

24 Now whan he was gone, his seruauntes came in, and sawe that the dore of the Sommer perler was lockte, and they sayde: peradventure he is gone to the preuye in the sylde Sommer perler.

25 But whan they had wayted so loge tyll they were ashamed (for no man opened the perler dore) they toke the keye, and opened it. Beholde, then laye their lorde deed vpo the earth.

26 As for Ehud, he was gotten awaye, whyle they made so longe tariege, & he wente ouer by the Idols, and ranne his waye vnto Seirath.

27 And whan he came in he blewe ye trompet vpo mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel wente with him from the mount, and he before them,

28 and he saide vnto them: Folowe me, for the LORDE hath delyuered the Moabites youre enemies in to yor hande. And they folowed him, & wanne ye ferye of Iordane, yt goeth towarde Moab, & suffred no man to go ouer, 29 and at ye same tyme they smote of the Moabites vpo a ten thousande men, all nobles and men of armes, so that there escaped not one.

30 Thus were the Moabites broughte vnder the hande of the children of Israel at that tyme, and the londe was in rest foure score yeares.

31 Afterwarde was Samgar ye sonne of Anath, which slewe sixe hundreth Philistynes with an oxes gadd, and delyuered Israel also.

Chapter 4

1 But the children of Israel dyd yet more euell before ye LORDE, whan Ehud was deed.

2 And the LORDE solde the in to the hande of Iabin the kyng of the Cananites, which dwelt at Hazor, & the chefe captayne of his hooste was Sissera, and he dwelt at Haroseth of the Heythen.

3 And the childre of Israel cried vnto the LORDE: for he had nyne hudreth yron charettes, and subdued the children of Israel by violence twentye yeare.

4 At ye same tyme was Iudgesse in Israel the prophetisse Debbora, the wyfe of Lapidoth,

5 and she dwelt vnder ye palme of Debbora betwene Rama & Bethel, vpon mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel came vp vnto her to the lawe.

6 She sent forth, & called for Barak the sonne of Abi Noam of Kedes Nephtali, and sayde vnto him: Hath not ye LORDE the God of Israel comaunded the: Go thy waye, and get the vp vnto mount Thabor, & take wt the ten thousande men of the children of Nephtali & Zabulon?

7 For I wil make Sissera the chefe captayne of Iabins hoost to come to the vnto ye water of Cyson, with his charettes and with his multitude, and I wyll delyuer him in to thy hande.

8 Barak sayde vnto her: Yf thou wilt come wt me, I wil go: but yf thou wilt not come with me, I wil not go.

9 She sayde: I wyll go with the: neuerthelesse the prayse shal not be thine in this iourney that thou goest, but ye LORDE shal delyuer Sissera in to a womas hande. So Debbora gat hir vp, and wente with Barak vnto Kedes.

10 Then Barak called Zabulon and Nephtali vnto Kedes, and wete on fote wt ten thousande men. And Debbora wente wt him also.

11 As for Heber the Kenyte he was departed from the Kenytes from the children of Hobab Moses brother in lawe, and had pitched his tent by ye Oke of Zaanaim besyde Kedes.

12 Then was it tolde Sissera, yt Barak the sonne of Abi Noa, was gone vp vnto mout Thabor:

13 & he gathered all his charettes together, nyne C. yron charettes, & all the people yt was with him from Haroseth of the Heythe, vnto the water Cyson.

14 Debbora sayde vnto Barak: Vp, this is the daie wherin the LORDE hath delyuered Sissera in to yi hande: for ye LORDE shal go forth before ye. So Barak wente fro mount Thabor, and ye ten thousande men after him.

15 But the LORDE discomfited Sissera wt all his charettes & hoost, & made the afrayed of the edge of the swerde before Barak, so yt Sissera leapte of his charet, & fled on fote.

16 Neuerthelesse Barak folowed vpon the charettes & the hoost vnto Haroseth of the Heythen, & all Sisseras hoost fell thorow ye edge of the swerde, so yt not one escaped.

17 As for Sissera, he fled on fote vnto the tente of Iael, ye wife of Heber ye Kenite. For there was peace betwene kyng Iabin at Hasor, & the house of Heber the Kenite.

18 Iael wete forth to mete Sissera, & sayde vnto him: Turne in my lorde, turne in to me, & be not afrayed. And he turned in vnto her in to the tente, & she couered him with a garmet.

19 He sayde vnto her: I praye ye geue me a litle water to drynke, for I am a thyrst. The opened she a mylke pot, & gaue him to drynke, and couered him.

20 And he sayde vnto her: Stode in the tente dore, & yf one come & axe, is there eny man here? saye Noman.

21 Then Iael the wife of Heber toke a nale of the tente, and an hammer in hir hande, & wente in preuely vnto him, & smote the nale in thorow the temples of his heade, so yt he sancke to ye earth. As for him, he was fallen on a slomber, and weery, and so he dyed.

22 But wha Barak folowed after Sissera,

Iael wente for to mete him, and sayde vnto him: Come hither, I wil shewe the the man, whom thou sekest. And whan he came in vnto her, he sawe Sissera deed, & the nale stickinge in his temples.
 23 Thus God broughte downe Iabin the kynge of the Cananites before the children of Israel at that tyme, 24 the hande of the children of Israel wente & subdued Iabin ye kynge of the Cananites, tyll they had roted him out.

Chapter 5

1 Then Debhora and Barac the sonne of Abi Noam, sange at the same tyme, and sayde:
 2 Now that ye are come to rest, ye quyete men in Israel, prayse ye LORDE, amonge soch of the people as be fre wyllinge.
 3 Heare ye kynges, & herken to ye prynces: I wyl, I wyl synge to the LORDE, euen vnto the LORDE ye God of Israel wil I playe.
 4 LORDE, whan thou wentest out from Seir, & camest in from the felde of Edom, ye earth quaked, the heauen dropped, and the cloudes dropped with water.
 5 The hilles melted before the LORDE, Sinai before the LORDE the God of Israel.
 6 In the tyme of Sanger the sonne of Anath: In the tyme of Iael the wayes fayled: and they that shulde haue gone in pathes, walked thorow croked wayes.
 7 There was scarcenesse, there was scarcenesse of housbande men in Israel, vntyll I Debhora came vp, vntyll I came vp a mother in Israel.
 8 God hath chosen a new thinge. He hath ouercome ye portes in battayll: and yet was there sene nether shyldes ner speare amonge fortye thousande in Israel.
 9 My hert loeth ye teachers of Israel: ye yt are frewyllinge amonge the people, prayse the LORDE.
 10 Ye that ryde vpo fayre Asses, ye that syt in iudgment and geue sentence, ye that go by the waye, prayse the LORDE.
 11 Wha ye archers cried betwene ye drawers of water, then was it spoke of ye righteousnes of the LORDE, of the righteousnes of his husbände men in Israel: then ruled the people of the LORDE vnder the gates.
 12 Vp Debhora vp, get the vp, get the vp, & rehearse a songe. Arise Barak, & catch him yt caught the, thou sonne of Abinoam.
 13 Then had the desolate the rule with the mightie of the people. The LORDE had ye dominion thorow the giauntes.
 14 Out of Ephraim was their rote against Amalek, and after him Ben Iamin in thy people. Out of Machir haue teachers ruled, and out of Zabulo are there become gouernours thorow the wrytinge penne.
 15 And out of Isachar there were prynces with Debhora, and Isachar was as Barak in ye valley, sent with his people on fote: As for Ruben, he stode hie in his awne consayte, and separated him selfe from vs.

 16 Why abodest thou betwixte the borders, whan thou herdest the noyse of the flockes? because Ruben stode hie in his awne cosayte, and separated him selfe from vs.
 17 Gilead abode beyonde Iordane, and why dwelt Dan amonge the shippes? Asser sat in the hauen of the see, and taried in his porcions.
 18 But Zabulons people ioperde their life vnto death: Nephtali also in the toppe of ye felde of Merom.
 19 The kynges came & foughte, then foughte ye kynges of the Cananites at Thaanah by the water of Megiddo, but spoyle of money broughte they not there from.
 20 From heaue were they foughte agaynst, the starres in their courses foughte with Sissera.
 21 The broke Cyson ouerwhelmed them, the broke Kedumim, yee the broke Cyson. My soule treade thou vpon the mightie.
 22 Then made the horse fete a russhinge together, for the greate violence of their mightie horse men.
 23 Curse the cite of Meros (sayde ye angell of the LORDE) curse the citesyns therof, because they come not to helpe ye LORDE, to helpe the LORDE to the giauntes.
 24 Blessynge amonge wemen haue Iael the wife of Heber the Kenite: blessinge haue she in the tente amonge the wemen.
 25 Whan he axed water, she gaue him mylke, & broughte forth butter in a lordly disshe.
 26 She toke holde of the nale wt hir hande, & the smyth hammer with hir righte hande, and smote Sissera, cut of his heade & pearsed and bored thorow his temples.
 27 He bowed him selfe downe at hir fete, he fell downe, and laye there. He sanke downe, and fell at hir fete: whan he had soncke downe, he laye there destroyed.
 28 His mother loked out at the wyndowe, & cried piteously thorow the trallace: Why tarieth his charet out so loge, that he cometh not? Wherefore do the wheles of his charet make so longe tarienge?
 29 The wysest amoge his ladies answered, & sayde vnto her:
 30 Shulde they not finde & deuide the spoyle, vnto euery man a fayre mayde or two for a pray, & partye coloured garmetes of nedle worke to Sissera for a spoyle, partye coloured garmetes of nedle worke aboute the necke for a pray?
 31 Thus all thine enemies must perishe O LORDE: but they that loue the, shal be euen as the Sonne rysinge vp in his mighte. And the londe had peace fortye yeares.

Chapter 6

1 And whan the children of Israel dyd euell in the sighte of the LORDE, the LORDE delyuered them vnder the hande of the Madianites vij. yeares.

 2 And wha the hande of the Madianites was to mightie ouer the children of Israel, the children of Israel made them clyffes in ye mountaynes, and caues and holdes, to defende them selues from ye Madianites.
 3 And whan Israel sowed eny thinge, ye Madianites and Amalechites, and the children towarde the south came vp vpon them, and pitched their tetes agaynst them,
 4 and destroyed the increase of the londe downe vnto Gasa, & let nothings remayne ouer of the beestes in Israel, nether shepe, ner oxen, ner asses.
 5 For they came vp with their catell and tentes, as it had bene a greate multitude of greshoppers (so that nether they ner their camels mighte be nombred) and fell in to the londe, that they mighte destroye it.
 6 Thus was Israel exceadinge small before the Madianites. Then cried the children of Israel vnto the LORDE.
 7 But whan they cried vnto the LORDE because of ye Madianites,
 8 ye LORDE sent the a prophet, which sayde vnto the: Thus saiethe the LORDE the God of Israel: I caried you out of Egipte, & broughte you out of ye house of bondage,
 9 & delyuered you from the hande of the Egipcians, & from the hade of all them that oppressed you, and I haue thrust them out before you, & geuen you their lode
 10 and sayde vnto you: I am the LORDE youre God. Feare not ye the goddesses of the Amorites, in whose londe ye dwell: neuertheles ye haue not herkened vnto my voyce.
 11 And there came an angell of the LORDE, & sat him downe vnder an Oke at Aphra, which belonged vnto Ioas the father of ye Esrites, and his sonne Gedeon was throsshinge wheate in the barne, that he mighte flye awaye before the Madianites.
 12 Then appeared vnto him the angell of ye LORDE, and sayde vnto him: The LORDE with ye thou mightie giaunte.
 13 But Gedeon sayde vnto him: Syr, yf the LORDE be wt vs, wherefore is all this then happened vnto vs? And where are all the wonders, which oure fathers tolde vs, & sayde: The LORDE brought vs out of Egipte? But now hath the LORDE forsaken vs, and delyuered vs in to the hande of the Madianites.
 14 The LORDE turned him vnto him, & sayde: Go thy waye in this thy strength, thou shalt delyuer Israel out of the hande of ye Madianites. I haue sent the.
 15 But he sayde: My LORDE, wherwithall shal I delyuer Israel? Beholde, my kynred is the smallest in Manasse, & I am the leest in my fathers house?
 16 The LORDE sayde vnto him: I will be wt the, so yt thou shalt smyte the Madianites, euen as though they were but one man.
 17 He sayde vnto him: Yf I haue foude grace in thy sighte, then make me a token, that it is thou, which speakest with me:

 18 go not awaye, tyll I come to ye, and brynge a meatofferynge, to set before the. He sayde: I wyll tary, tyll thou comest agayne.
 19 And Gedeon wete, and made ready a kydd, and an Ephra of vneleueded floure, and layed the flesh in a maunde, and put the broth in a pot, and broughte it forth vnto him vnder the Oke, and came nye.
 20 But the angell of God sayde vnto him: Take the flesh and the vneleueded bred, & set it vpon the stonye rocke that is here, and poure the broth theron. And he dyd so.
 21 Then the angell of the LORDE stretched out the staffe that he had in his hande, and with the ende of it he touched the flesh and the vneleueded floure: and the fyre came out of the rocke, and consumed the flesh and the vneleueded floure. And the angell of the LORDE vanyshe out of his sighte.
 22 Now wha Gedeon sawe that it was an angell of ye LORDE, he sayde: O LORDE LORDE, haue I thus sene an angell of ye LORDE face to face?
 23 The LORDE sayde vnto him: Peace be with the, feare not, thou shalt not dye.
 24 The Gedeon buylded an altare there vnto ye LORDE, & called it: The LORDE of peace. The same stondesth yet vnto this daye at Apra, yt belogeth vnto the father of ye Esrites.
 25 And in ye same night sayde ye LORDE vnto him: Take a fedd bullocke fro amoge thy fathers oxen, & another bullocke of seuen yeare olde, and breake downe the altare of Baall which is thy fathers, and cut downe the groue that stondesth by it,
 26 and buylde thou an altare vnto the LORDE yi God aboute vpon the toppe of this rocke, and make it ready, and take the other bullocke, and offre a burntofferynge with the wodd of the groue that thou hast hewen downe.
 27 Then toke Gedeon ten men of his seruauntes, and dyd as ye LORDE sayde vnto him: but he was afrayed to do this by daye tyme, for his fathers house and the people in ye cite, and so he dyd it by nighte.
 28 Now whan the people in the cite rose vp early in the mornynge, beholde, Baals altare was broken, and the groue hewen downe by it, and the other bullocke a burntofferynge vpon the altare that was buylded, 29 & one sayde vnto another: Who hath done this? And whan they soughte & made searche, it was sayde: Gedeon the sonne of Ioas hath done it.
 30 The sayde the people of ye cite vnto Ioas: Brynge forth yi sonne, He must dye, because he hath broken Baals altare, and hewen downe the groue therby.
 31 But Ioas sayde vnto all them that stode by him: Wyl ye stryue for Baal? Wil ye delyuer him? He yt stryueth for him, shal dye this mornynge. Yf he be God, let him auege him selfe, because his altare is broken downe.

32 From yt daye forth was he called Ierubaal, because it was sayde: Let Baal auenge him selfe, that his altare is broken downe.

33 Whan ye Madianites now & ye Amalechites, & the childe towarde the south had gathered the selues together, & were passed thorow (Iordane) & had pitched their tentes in the valley of Iesrael,

34 the sprete of the LORDE endued Gedeon, & he caused the trompet to be blowne, & called (the house of) Abieser, that they shulde folowe him:

35 & he sent messaungers vnto all Manasse, & called them, yt they shulde folowe him also: and he sent messaungers likewise vnto Asser & Zabulon & Nephtali, which came vp to mete him.

36 And Gedeon sayde vnto God: Yf thou wilt deluyuer Israel thorow my hande, as thou hast saide, 37 the wil I laye a flese of woll in the courte: yf ye dew be onely vpon ye flese, & drye vpon all the grounde, then wyll I perceaue, that thou shalt deluyuer Israel thorow my hande, as thou hast sayde.

38 And it came so to passe. And whan he rose vp early on the morow, he wrage ye dew out of the flese, and fylled a dysse full of water.

39 And Gedeon sayde vnto God Be not wroth at me, that I speake yet this one tyme. I wyl proue yet but once with the flese, let it be drye onely vpon the flese, and dew vpon all the grounde.

40 And God dyd so the same nighte: so that it was drye onely vpon the flese, and dew vpon all the grounde.

Chapter 7

1 Then Ierubaal (that is Gedeon) gat him vp early, and all the people that was with him, and pitched their tentes besyde the well of Harod, so that he had the hoost of the Madianites on the north side behynde the hyll of More in the valley.

2 But the LORDE sayde vnto Gedeon: The people that be with ye are to many for me to deluyuer Madian into their hande, lest Israel boost them selues agaynst me, and saye: My hande hath deluyered me.

3 Cause a proclamacion now to be made in the eares of the people, and saye: He that feareth, and is afrayed, let him turne backe, and get him soone fro mount Gilead. Then returned there of the people aboute a two and twenty thousande so that there was left but ten thousande.

4 And the LORDE sayde vnto Gedeon. The people are yet to many: brynge them downe to the water, there wyl I proue them for ye: and of whom I saye that he shal go wt the, the same shal go with the: but of who I saie that he shal not go with the, the same shall not go.

5 And he broughte the people vnto ye water. And the LORDE sayde vnto Gedeon: Whosoeuer licketh of the water with his tuge, as a dogg licketh, make him stonde asyde and lykewyse who soeuer falleth downe vpo his knees to drynke.

6 Then was the nombre of them that had licked out of the hande to the mouth, thre hundreth men.

7 And the LORDE sayde vnto Gedeon: Thorow the thre hudreth which haue licked, wyl I deluyuer you, and geue ouer the Madianites in to thy hade: As for the other people, let them go euery one vnto his place.

8 And they toke vytayles with them for ye people, and their trompettes: but the other Israelites let he go, euery one vnto his tente. And he strengthened himselfe with the thre hundreth men, and the Madianites hoost laye before him beneth in the valley.

9 And the same night sayde the LORDE vnto him: Vp, and go downe in to the hoost, for I haue geuen them ouer in to thy hande.

10 But yf thou be afrayed to go downe, then let yi seruaunt Pura go downe with the vnto the hoost, 11 yt thou maiest heare what they saie: after that shalt thou be bolde, and thy honde stronge, that thou mayest go downe in to the hoost. Than wente Gedeon downe with his sernaunt vnto ye uttmost parte of ye watchme of armes yt were in ye hoost.

12 And ye Madianites and Amalechites, and all the children of the south, had layed them selues beneth in the valley, as a multitude of greshoppers, and their Camels were not to be nombred for multitude, eue as the sonde on ye see shore.

13 Now whan Gedeon came, beholde, one tolde another his dreame, & sayde: Beholde, I haue dreamed a dreame: Me thoughte a bake barlye lofe came rollinge downe to ye hoost of ye Madianites: and whan it came to the tente, it smote it, and ouerthrew it, and turned it vpsyde downe, so that the tente fell.

14 Then answered the other: That is nothinge els then ye swerde of Gedeon the sonne of Ioas ye Israelite: God hath geue ouer the Madianites with all the hoost in to his hande.

15 Whan Gedeon herde this dreame tolde, & the interpretation of it, he worshipped, and came agayne in to the hoost of Israel, and sayde: Up, for the LORDE hath deluyered ye hoost of the Madianites in to youre hade.

16 And he deuyded the thre hundreth men in to thre partes, and gaue euery one a trompet in his hande, and emptye pytchers, and lampes therin,

17 and sayde vnto them: Loke vnto me, and do ye eue so, and beholde, wha I come to the vtmost parte of the hoost, euen as I do, so do ye also.

18 Whan I blowe ye trompet, and all that are wt me, then shal ye blowe ye tropettes also rounde aboute all the hoost, and saye: Here the LORDE & Gedeon.

19 Thus came Gedeon and the thre hundreth men with him vnto the vtmost parte of ye hoost (aboute the tyme whan the mydwatch begynneth) and waked vp the watchme, and blewe with the trompettes, and smote asunder the pitchers in their handes.

20 So all the thre companies blewe with ye trompettes, and brake the pitchers. But the lampes helde they in their left hande, and the trompettes in their righte hade, so that they blewe, and cried: Here the swerde of the LORDE and Gedeon.

21 And euery one stode in his place aboute the hoost. Then ranne all the hoost, and cried and fled.

22 And whyle the thre hundreth men blewe the trompettes, ye LORDE broughte it so to passe, that euery mans swerde in all ye hoost was agaynst another, and the hoost fled vnto Bethsitha Zereratha, and vnto the border of the playne of Mehohab besyde Tabath.

23 And ye men of Israel of Nephtali, of Asser, & of Manasse cried, and folowed vpon the Madianites.

24 And Gedeon sent messaungers vp vnto all mount Ephraim, sayenge: Come downe against the Madianites, and stoppe the water from them vnto Beth Bara and Iordane. And then cryed all they that were of Ephraim, and stopped the water from them vnto Bethbara and Iordane, 25 and toke two prynces of the Madianites Oreb and Zeb, and slewe Oreb vpon the rocke of Oreb, and Zeb in the wynepresse of Zeb, and folowed vpon the Madianites, and broughte the heades of Oreb and Zeb, vnto Gideon ouer Iordane.

Chapter 8

1 And the men of Ephraim sayde vnto him: Wherefore hast thou done this vnto vs, that thou hast not called vs, wha thou wentest forth to fight agaynst ye Madianites? and they chode sore with him.

2 But he sayde vnto them: What haue I done now that is like youre acte? Is not the aftergadderynge of Ephraim better then the whole haruest of Abieser?

3 God hath deluyered ye prynces of the Madianites Oreb and Zeb in to youre hande, how coulede I do that ye haue done? Whaa he had sayde this, their blast was swaged from him.

4 Now whan Gedeon came vnto Iordane, he wente ouer with the thre hundreth me that were with him, and they were weery, and folowed vpon their chace.

5 And he sayde vnto the men of Sucoth: I praye you geue the people that are with me, some loaves of bred (for they are weery) that I maye folowe vpon Zebea and Salmana the kinges of the Madianites.

6 But the rulers of Sucoth sayde: Are the handes of Zebea and Salmana in thy handes allready, that we must geue bred vnto thy men of warre?

7 Gedeon sayde: Well, whan the LORDE deluyereth Zebea and Salmana in to my hade, I wyll thresshe youre flesh with thornes of the wyldernesse and with breares.

8 And from thence he wente vp vnto Penuel, and spake euen so vnto them. And the me of Penuel gaue him like answeare as they of Sucoth.

9 And he sayde also vnto the men of Penuel: Yf I come peaceably agayne, I wil breake downe this tower.

10 As for Zebea and Salmana, they were at Karkar, and their hoost with them vpon a fyftene thousande, which were all that were lefte of the whole hoost of the children of the Easte: for there were fallen an hundreth and twentye thousande, that coulede drawe the swerde.

11 And Gedeon wente vp by the waye, where they dwell in the tentes on the east side of Nobah and Iakbeha, & smote the hoost, for the hoost was carelesse, and mystrusted nothinge.

12 And Zebea and Salmana fled, but he folowed after them, and toke ye two kynges of the Madianites Zebea and Salmana, and put all the hoost in feare.

13 Now whan Gedeon ye sonne of Ioas came agayne fro the battayll out of ye east, 14 he toke a lad of the men of Sucoth, & examyned him, which wrote him vp the names of the rulers of Sucoth, and their Elders, eue threscore and seuentene men.

15 And he came to the men of Sucoth, & sayde: Beholde, here is Zebea & Salmana, cocernyng who ye laughed me to scorne, & sayde: Are the handes of Zebea and Salmana in thy hades all ready, that we must geue bred vnto thy men which are weery?

16 And he toke the Elders of the cite, and thornes out of the wildernes, and breres, and caused ye men of Sucoth to be torne therwith.

17 And the tower of Penuel brake he downe, and slewe the men of the cite.

18 And he saide vnto Zebea and Salmana: What maner of me were they who ye slewe at Thabor? They sayde: They were euen like the, & goodly men, as yf they had bene a kynges childe.

19 He sayde: They were my brethren, euen my mother sonnes: As truly as the LORDE Iyueh, yf ye had lette them Iyue, I wolde not slaye you.

20 And he saide vnto his first borne sonne Iether: Stonde vp, & slaye them. Howbeit the lad drue not out his swerde, for he was afrayed, for so moch as he was yet but a lad.

21 Zebea & Salmana sayde: Stonde thou vp, & slaye vs, for as the man is, soch is also his stregth. So Gedeon arose, and slewe Zebea and Salmana, and toke the ornamentes that were aboute their Camels neckes.

22 Then sayde certayne in Israel vnto Gedeon: Be thou lorde ouer vs, thou and thy sonne, and thy sonnes sonne, for so moch as thou hast deluyered vs from ye hande of ye Madianites.

23 Neuertheles Gedeon saide vnto them: I wil not be lorde ouer you, nether shal my sonne be lorde ouer you, but the LORDE shalbe lorde ouer you.

24 Gedeon sayde vnto them: One thinge I desyre of you, Euery man geue me the earinge that he hath spoyled. (For in so moch as ye men were Ismaelites, they had earinges.)

25 They sayde: Them wyll we geue the. And they spred out a cloth, and euery man cast the earinge theron that he had spoyled.

26 And the golden earynges which he requyred, had in weight, a thousande and seuen hundreth Sycles of golde, besyde the spanges and cheynes, and scarlet rayment which the kynges of the Madianites dyd weere, and besyde the neckbandes of their Camels.

27 And Gideon made a cote armour therof, and set it in his cite at Aphra. And all Israel wente there a whoringe after it, and it turned to an occasion of fallinge vnto Gedeon and his house.

28 Thus were ye Madianites brought downe before the children of Israel, and lifte vp their heade nomore: and the londe was in rest fortye yeares, as loge as Gedeon lyued.

29 And Ierubaal the sonne of Ioas wete & dwelt in his house.

30 And Gedeon Had thre score & ten sonnes, which were come out of his thye: for he had many wyues.

31 And his concubyne which he had at Siche, bare him a sonne also, whom he called Abimelech.

32 And Gideon the sonne of Ioas dyed in a good age, & was buried at Aphra in ye sepulcre of his father Ioas the father of the Esrites.

33 But whan Gedeon was deed, the childre of Israel turned backe, and wente awhoringe after Baalim, and made a couenaunt wt Baal Berith, yt he shulde be their God.

34 And ye childre of Israel thoughte not on ye LORDE their God, which had delyuered them fro the hande of their enemies rounde aboute:

35 and they shewed not mercy vnto the house of Ierubaal Gedeon, acordinge to all the good that he had done vnto Israel.

Chapter 9

1 Abimelech the sonne of Ierubaal, wente vnto Siche to his mothers brethren, & spake vnto them, & to all the kynred of his mothers fathers house, and sayde:

2 I praye you speake in the eares of all the men at Siche: What is better for you, that thre score and ten men all children of Ierubaal shulde be lordes ouer you, or that one man shulde be lorde ouer you? Remembre also that I am youre bone and youre flesh.

3 Then spake his mothers brethre all these wordes for him, in ye eares of all ye men at Siche. And their hert enclined to Abimelech, for they thoughte: He is oure brother:

4 and gaue him thre score and ten syluerlinges out of ye house of Baal Berith. And wt them Abimelech hyred men that were vagabundes and of light condicions, which folowed him.

5 And he came to his fathers house vnto Aphra, and slew his brethren the children of Ierubaal, euen thre score men and te vpon one stone. But Iotham the yongest sonne of Ierubaal remayned ouer, for he was hydd.

6 And all the men of Siche, and all the house of Millo gathered them selues together, and wente and made Abimelech kyng by the Oke that stondesth at Siche.

7 Whan this was tolde Iotham, he wente, and stode vpon the toppe of mount Grisim, and lifte vp his voyce, cried, and sayde: Heare me ye men of Siche, that God maye heare you also 8 The trees wente to anointe a kinde ouer them, and sayde vnto the Olyue tre: Be thou oure kyng.

9 But the Olyue tre answered them: Shall I go and leaue my fatnesse (which both God and men commende in me) and go to be puft vp aboute the trees?

10 Then sayde the trees vnto the fygge tre: Come thou and be kyng ouer vs.

11 But the fygge tre sayde vnto the: Shal I leaue my swetnes and my good frute, and go to be puft vp aboute the trees?

12 Then sayde the trees vnto the vyne: Come thou and be oure kyng.

13 But the vyne sayde vnto them: Shal I leaue my swete wyne, which reioyseth God and men, and go to be puft vp aboute the trees?

14 The sayde all the trees vnto the thorne busshe: Come thou, and be kyng ouer vs.

15 And the thorne busshe sayde vnto the trees: Yf it be true, yt ye anynte me to be kyng ouer you, the come, and put youre trust vnder my shadowe. Yf no, then go fyre out of the thorne busshe, & cosume ye Ceder trees of Libano.

16 Yf ye haue done right now and iustly, yt ye haue made Abimelech to be kyng: and yf ye haue done well vnto Ierubaal and to his house, and haue done vnto him as he deserued you to.

17 Which (euen my father) foughte for youre sakes, and ioperde his lyfe, to delyuer out of the Madianites hade, 18 eue you, which are rysen vp this daye agaynst my fathers house, & haue slaine his childre, thre score persones & ten vpon one stone, and haue made you a kyng (euen Abimelech the sonne of his handmaide) ouer the men at Siche, for so moch as he is youre brother.

19 Yf ye haue done right now and iustly vnto Ierubaal and his house this daye, then reioyse ouer Abimelech, and let him reioyse ouer you.

20 Yf no, then go fyre out from Abimelech, and cosume the men of Siche and the house of Millo: And fyre go out also fro the men of Siche, and from the house of Millo, and consume Abimelech.

21 And Iotha (whan he had spoken this out) fled, and gat him out of the waye, and wente vnto Ber, and dwelt there because of his brother Abimelech.

22 Now whan Abimelech had reigned thre yeare ouer Israel,

23 God sent an euell mynde betwene Abimelech and the men of Siche (for the men of Siche despysed Abimelech, 24 and rehearsed the wronge done to the sonnes of Ierubaal, and their bloude, and layed it vpon Abimelech their brother which slewe them, and vpon the men of Siche that strengthed his hande therto, that he mighte slaye his brethren.

25 And the men of Siche set an hynder watch vpon the toppes of the mountaynes, and spoyled all them that walked nye them by the waye, and it was tolde Abimelech.

26 But there came Gaal the sonne of Ebed and his brethren, and entred into Siche, and the men of Siche put their trust in him, 27 and wete out in to the felde, and gathered their vynyardes, and pressed them, and made a daunse, and wente in to their gods house, and ate and dranke, and cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal ye sonne of Ebed sayde: Who is Abimelech? and what is Siche, that we shulde serue him? Is he not the sonne of Ierubaal, and hath set Sebul his seruaut ouer the men of Hemor the father of Siche? Wherefore shulde we serue him?

29 Wolde God the people were vnder my hade, yt I mighte put downe Abimelech. And it was tolde Abimelech: Increace thine hooste, and departe.

30 For Sebul the chefe ruler of the cite, whan he herde the wordes of Gaal ye sonne of Ebed, he was wrothfully displeased, 31 and sente message secretly to Abimelech, and caused to saye vnto him: Beholde, Gaal the sonne of Ebed and his brethren are come to Siche, and make the cite to be agaynst the.

32 Arise therfore by nyght, thou and thy people that is with the, and laye wayte for the in the felde:

33 and tomorrow whan the Sonne aryseth, get the vp soone, and fall vpon the cite: and yf he and the people that is with him come out vnto the, the deale with him, as thyne hande fyndeth.

34 Abimelech stode vp by night, and all the people that was with him, and layed wayte for Siche with foure companies of men of warre.

35 And Gaal the sonne of Ebed we out and stode at the dore of the gate of the cite. But Abimelech gat him vp out of the hinder watch, and the people that was with him.

36 Now whan Gaal sawe the people, he sayde vnto Sebul: Beholde, there commeth a people downe from the toppe of ye mount. Sebul saide vnto him: Thou seist ye shadowe of the mountaines as though they were me.

37 Gaal spake yet more and sayde: Beholde, there commeth a people downe from ye myddes of the londe, & one bonde of men cometh by the waye to ye witch Oke.

38 The sayde Sebul: Where is now yi mouth yt sayde: Who is Abimelech, that we shulde serue him? Is not this ye people, whom thou hast refused? Go forth now, and fighte with him.

39 Gaal wente forth before the citesyns of Siche, and foughte with Abimelech. 40 But Abimelech chaced him, so that he fled, and there fell many slayne euen vnto the gate of the cite.

41 And Abimelech abode at Aruma. But Sebul droue awaye Gaal and his brethren, so that they must not remayne at Siche.

42 Vpon the morowe wente the people forth into ye felde. Wha this was tolde Abimelech, 43 he toke the people, and parted them into thre bodes of men, and wayted for the in the felde. Now whan he sawe yt the people wete out of the cite, he rose agaynst the, and smote them.

44 Abimelech and ye company of men that was with him, fell vpon them, and stepte vnto the dore of the porte: but the other two companies fell vpon all them that were in the felde, and slewe them.

45 The foughte Abimelech agaynst the cite all ye same daye, and wanne it, and slewe the people that was there in, and brake downe ye cite, and sowed salt theron.

46 Whan all the men of the tower of Siche herde this, they wente in to a stronge holde of ye house of their God Berith.

47 But whan Abimelech herde, that all the men of the tower of Siche had gathered the selues together, 48 he wente vp vnto mount Zelmon, and all the people that was with him, and toke an axe in his hade, and hewed downe a braunch of a tre, and toke it vp, & layed it vpon his shulder, and sayde vnto all the people that was with him: As ye haue sene me do, make ye haist, and do euen so as I.

49 Then all the people hewed downe euery one a brauch, and folowed Abimelech: and they layed them to the holde, and set fyre vpon them agaynst them and the holde: and all the men of the tower of Siche dyed thorow the smoke and fyre, vpon a thousande men and wemen.

50 As for Abimelech, he wete vnto Thebetz, and layed sege vnto it, and wanne it.

51 But in the myddes of the cite, there was a stronge tower, vnto the which all the men and wemen, and all the citesyns of the cite fled, and shutt it after them, and clymmed vp to the toppe of the tower.

52 Then came Abimelech vnto the tower, and soughte agaynst it, and came nye vnto the dore of the tower, that he might burne it with fyre.

53 But a woman cast a pece of a mylstone vpon Abimelechs heade, and brake his brane panne.

54 Then Abimelech in all the haist, called the seruaut that bare his wapen, and sayde vnto him: Drawe out thy swerde, and kyll me, that it be not sayde of me: A woman hath slayne him. Then his seruaut thrust him thorow, and he dyed.

55 Whan the Israelites which were with him, sawe, yt Abimelech was deed, they gatt them away euery one vnto his awne place.

56 Thus God recompenced Abimelech the euell that he had done vnto his father, wha he slewe his threscore and ten brethren:

57 likewise all the euell of the men of Sicheim, dyd God rewarde them vpon their heade: and so the curse of Iotham ye sonne of Ierubaal came vpon them.

Chapter 10

1 After Abimelech there rose vp another sauioure in Israel, Thola a man of Isachar, and the sonne of Pua, the sonne of Dodo. And he dwelt at Samir vpo the mount Ephraim,

2 and iudged Israel thre and twentye yeare, and died, and was buried at Samir. 3 After him stode vp one Iair a Gileadite, and iudged Israel two and twentye yeare, 4 and hath thirtie sonnes, rydinge vpon thirtie asses foales: and had thirtie cities, whose names are Hauoth Iair (that is, the cities of Iair) vnto this daye, and lye in Gilead.

5 And Iair dyed, and was buried at Camon.

6 But the children of Israel wrought wickednes in the sighte of the LORDE, and serued Baalim and Astaroth, and the goddess of Siria, and the goddess of Sidon, and the goddess of Moab, and the goddess of ye children of Ammon, and the goddess of the Philistines, and forsoke ye LORDE, and serued him not.

7 Then was ye wrath of ye LORDE feerce vpon Israel, and he gaue the ouer vnder the hade of the Philistynes, and of the children of Ammo.

8 And they vexed and oppressed ye children of Israel eightene yeare longe, all the children of Israel that were beyonde Iordane in the londe of the Moabites, which lyeth in Gilead.

9 The children of Ammon also wente ouer Iordane, and fought agaynst Iuda, Ben Iamin, and agaynst the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was very sore troubled.

10 Then cryed the children of Israel vnto the LORDE, and sayde: We haue synned agaynst the, for we haue forsaken oure God, & serued Baalim.

11 But the LORDE sayde vnto the childe of Israel: Did not the Egipcias, the Amorites, the children of Ammon, ye Philistines, 12 the Sidonians, the Amalechites and Maonites oppresse you, and I helped you out of their hande, whan ye cryed vnto me?

13 Yet haue ye forsaken me, and serued other goddesses? Therefore wyll I helpe you nomore

14 Go youre waye, and crye vpon the goddess whom ye haue chosen, let them helpe you in the tyme of youre trouble.

15 But the childe of Israel sayde vnto the LORDE: We haue synned, do thou vnto vs what pleaseth the, onely delyuer vs at this tyme.

16 And they put the straunge goddesses from them, and serued the LORDE, And his soule had pytie on the mysery of Israel.

17 And the children of Ammon called them selues together, and pitched in Gilead: But the children of Israel gathered them selues together also, and pitched at Mispa.

18 And ye people of the cheifest of Gilead sayde amoge them selues: Who so euer begynneth to fight agaynst the children of Ammon, shalbe heade ouer all them that dwell in Gilead.

Chapter 11

1 Iephthae a Gileadite was a valeaut man of armes, but an harlottes childe. Gilead begat Iephthae.

2 But whan the wyfe had borne children vnto Gilead, and the same wyues childe were waxe greate, they thrust out Iepthae, and sayde vnto him: Thou shalt not be heire in oure fathers house, for thou art another womans sonne.

3 The fled he from his brethre, and dwelt in the londe of Tob. And there resorted vnto him vagabudes, and wete out with him.

4 And after a certayne tyme foughte the children of Ammon with Israel.

5 Now wha the childe of Ammon foughte thus with Israel, the Elders wente from Gilead to fetch Iephthae out of the londe of Tob,

6 and sayde vnto him: Come, and be oure captayne, and fight agaynst the children of Ammon.

7 But Iephthae sayde vnto the Eldes of Gilead: Are not ye they that hate me and haue thrust me out of my fathers house, and now come ye to me whan ye are in trouble?

8 The Elders of Gilead sayde: Therefore come we now againe vnto the, that thou mayest go with vs, and fighte agaynst the children of Ammon, and be oure captayne ouer all that dwell in Gilead.

9 Iephthae sayde vnto the Elders of Gilead: Yf ye fetch me agayne to fighte agaynst the childe of Ammon, and the LORDE delyuer them before me shal I then be youre heade?

10 The Elders of Gilead saide vnto Iephthae: The LORDE be hearer betwene vs, yf we do not as thou hast sayde.

11 So Iephthae wete with the Elders of Gilead. And the people made him heade and duke ouer them. And Iephthae spake all this before the LORDE at Mispa.

12 Then sente Iephthae messaungers to the kyng of the children of Ammon, and caused to saye vnto him: What hast thou to do with me, that thou comest vnto me to fight agaynst my londe?

13 The kyng of the childe of Ammo answered Iephthaes messaungers Because that Israel toke away my londe (whan they departed out of Egipte) from Arnon vnto Iabock, and vnto Iordane: geue it me agayne now therefore peaceably.

14 But Iephthae sent yet mo messaungers to ye kyng of the children of Ammon, 15 which sayde vnto him: Thus sayeth Iephthae: Israel hath taken no londe, nether from the Moabites ner from the children of Ammon:

16 for when they departed out of Egipte, Israel walked thorow the wyldernes vnto the reed see, and came to Cades,

17 and sent messaungers to the kyng of the Edomites, and sayde: Let me go thorow thy londe. But the kyng of ye Edomites wolde not heare the. They sent lykewise vnto the kyng of the Moabites, which wolde not also. Thus Israel abode in Cades, 18 and compased the lode of the Edomites and Moabites, and came on the eastsyde of the londe of the Moabites and pitched beyonde Arnon, and came not within the coaste of the Moabites. For Arnon is the border of the Moabites.

19 And Israel sent messaungers vnto Sihon the kyng of the Amorites at Hesbon, and caused to saye vnto him: Let me go thorow thy londe vnto my place.

20 Neuertheles Sihon wolde not trust Israel to go thorow the border of his londe, but gathered all his people, and pitched at Iahza, and foughte with Israel.

21 Howbeit the LORDE God of Israel gaue Sihon with all his people in to Israels hade, so that they slewe them. Thus Israel conquered all the londe of the Amorites that dwelt in ye same countre.

22 And they toke possessio of all the borders of the Amorites, from Arnon vnto Iabok, & from ye wyldernes vnto Iordane.

23 So ye LORDE God of Israel droue away the Amorites before his people of Israel, and wilt thou coquere them?

24 Is it not so, yf thy God Camos gaue the oughte to possesse, woldest thou not possesse it? What so euer the LORDE oure God hath geue vs before vs to possesse, that shal we conquere and take in possession.

25 Hast thou better right (thinkest thou) the Balac the sonne of Ziphor, the kyng of ye Moabites? Dyd he euer go to lawe or fighte agaynst Israel?

26 Though Israel haue dwelt now vpo a thre hudreth yeare in Hesbon, and in the vyllages therof, in Aroer and in the vyllages therof, and in all the cities that lye by Arnon. Why dyd not ye rescue it at the same tyme?

27 I haue not offended the, & thou doest me euell to fighte agaynst me? The LORDE geue sentence this daie betwene Israel and the children of Ammon.

28 Neuertheles the kyng of the children of Ammon wolde not heare ye wordes of Iephthae, which he sent vnto him.

29 Then came ye sprete of the LORDE vpon Iephthae, and he wente thorow Gilead and Manasse, and thorow Mispa which lieth in Gilead, and fro Mispa that lieth in Gilead, vnto ye children of Ammon.

30 And Iephthae vowed a vowe vnto the LORDE, and sayde: Yf thou wilt delyuer the childe of Ammon in to my hande,

31 what so euer commeth (first) out at the dore of my house in my waye, whan I returne agayne peaceably from the childe of Ammon, that same shalbe the LORDES, and I wyl offre it for a burtnofferynge.

32 So Iephthae wente vpon the children of Ammon, to fighte against them. And ye LORDE gaue them in to his hande, 33 and he smote the from Aroer tyll thou comest vnto Minnith, euentwentye cities, and vnto the playne of ye vynyardes a very greate slaughter, and thus were the children of Ammon subdued before the children of Israel.

34 Now whan Iephthae came to Mispa vnto his house, beholde, his daughter wente out to mete him with tabrettes and daunces: and she was his onely childe, & he had els nether sonne ner daughter.

35 And whan he sawe her, he rente his clothes, & sayde: Alas my daughter, thou makest my hert soroufull, and discomfortest me: for I haue opened my mouth vnto the LORDE, and can not call it agayne.

36 She sayde: My father, yf thou hast opened thy mouth vnto the LORDE, then do vnto me as it is proceeded out of yi mouth, acordinge as the LORDE hath aueged the of thyne enemies the children of Ammon.

37 And she sayde vnto hir father: Do this for me, geue me leue to go downe vpo the mountaynes two monethes, that I maye bewepe my virginite with my playfeeres.

38 He sayde: Go thy waye. And he let her go two monethes. Then wente she with her playfeeres, and bewayled hir mayden heade vpon the mountaynes.

39 And after two monethes she came agayne vnto hir father. And he dyd vnto her acordinge as he had vowed. And she had neuer bene in daunger of eny man. And it was a custome in Israel, 40 that the daughters of Israel shulde go euery yeare, and mourne for the daughter of Iephthae the Gileadite, foure dayes in the yeare.

Chapter 12

1 And they of Ephraim made insurreccion, & wente northwarde, & sayde vnto Iephthae: Wherefore wetest thou to the battayll agaynst the children of Ammon, & hast not called vs, that we mighte go with the? We wil burne thy house and the with fyre.

2 Iephthae sayde vnto the: I and my people had a greate matter with ye children of Ammon, and I cried vpon you, but ye helped me not out of their handes.

3 Now whan I sawe yt there was no helper, I put my soule in my honde, and wente agaynst the children of Ammon, and the LORDE delyuered them in to my hande. Wherefore come ye vp to me, to fighte agaynst me?

4 And Iephthae gathered all the men in Gilead, & foughte agaynst Ephraim. And the men in Gilead smote Ephraim, because they sayde: Ye Gileadites are as they yt fle away before Ephraim, (and dwell) amoge Ephraim & Manasse.

5 And the Gileadites toke ye ferye of Iordane from Ephraim. Now wha one of ye fugityue Ephraites dyd saye: Let me go ouer, ye men of Gilead sayde: Art thou an Ephraite? yf he answered: No, 6 they bad him saye: Schiboleth, & he sayde: Siboleth, & coulde not speake it righte: then they toke him, & slew him at ye ferye of Iordane, so yt the same tyme there fell of Epraim two & fortye M.

7 Iepthae iudged Israel sixe yeares. And Iepthae ye Gileadite dyed, & was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

8 After him iudged Israel one Ebzan of Bethleem,

9 which had thirtie sonnes and as many daughters: and his thirtie daughters gaue he forth to mariage, and thirtie daughters toke he from without for his sonnes, and iudged Israel seuen yeare,

10 and died, and was buried at Bethleem.

11 After him iudged Israel one Elon a Zabulonite, & he iudged Israel ten yeare, 12 & was buried at Aialon in the londe of Zabulon.

13 After him iudged Israel one Abdo a sonne of Hillel, a Pirgathonite

14 which had fortye sonnes, & thirtie neuies (which rode vpo seuentye Asses foales) and he iudged Israel eighte yeare, 15 and dyed, & was buried at Pirgathon in the londe of Ephraim vpon the mount of the Amalechites.

Chapter 13

1 And the children of Israel wroughte more euell before the LORDE, & the LORDE gaue them ouer into the hades of the Philistynes fortye yeares.

2 But there was a man at Zarga, of one of ye kynreds of the Danites, named Manoah, and his wife was vnfrutefull & bare him no children.

3 And the angell of the LORDE appeared vnto ye woman, & sayde vnto her: Beholde, thou art baren, & bearest not: but thou shalt conceaue, & beare a sonne. 4 Take hede therefore, yt thou drynke no wyne ner stronge drynke, and yt thou eate no vnclene thinge,

5 for thou shalt conceaue, and beare a sonne, vpo whose heade there shal come no rasoure: for ye childe shal be a Nazaree of God, euen from his mother wombe, and shall begynne to delyuer Israel out of the hande of the Philistynes. 6 Then came ye woman and tolde hir husbade, & sayde: There came a ma of God vnto me, & his proporcion was to loke vpon as an angell of God, very terrible, so yt I axed him not whence he came, & whither he wolde: nether tolde he me his name.

7 But he sayde vnto me: beholde, thou shalt conceaue & beare a sonne: drynke no wyne therefore ner stroge drynke, & eate no vnclene thinge: for the childe shal be called a Nazaree of God, euen fro his mother wombe vnto his death.

8 Then Manoah prayed the LORDE, & sayde: Oh LORDE, let ye man of God whom thou hast sent, come to vs agayne, yt he maye enfourme vs what we shall do vnto the childe which shalbe borne.

9 And God herde the voyce of Manoah, & the angell of God came to his wife agayne. But she sat in ye felde, and his husbade Manoah was not wt her.

10 The ranne she in all the haist, & tolde hir husbade, & saide vnto him: beholde, ye man hath appeared vnto me, yt came to me to daye.

11 Manoah gat him vp, & wente after his wife, and came to the man, and sayde vnto him: Art thou ye man that spake to the woman? He sayde: Yee.

12 And Manoah sayde: wha it commeth to passe that thou hast sayde, what shal be the maner and worke of ye childe:

13 The angell of the LORDE sayde vnto Manoah: He shal kepe him from all that I tolde the woman:

14 he shal not eate that which commeth of the vyne, and shal drynke no wyne ner stronge drynke, and eate no vnclene thinge: & all that I haue comaunded her, shal he kepe.

15 Manoah sayde vnto ye angell of the LORDE: let vs holde the here (I praye the) we will prepare a kydd for the.

16 Neuertheles ye angell of the LORDE answered Manoah: Though thou kepest me here, yet wyll I not eate of thy bred. But yf thou wilt make a burntofferynge vnto the LORDE, thou mayest offre it. (For Manoah wist not that it was an angell of the LORDE.)

17 And Manoah sayde vnto the angell of the LORDE: What is thy name, that we maye prayse ye, whan it commeth now to passe, that thou hast sayde?

18 But the angell of the LORDE sayde vnto him: Why axest thou after my name, which is wonderful?

19 Then toke Manoah a kyd and a meatofferynge, & layed it vpo a rocke vnto the LORDE, which doth ye wonders him selfe. But Manoah and his wife behelde it.

20 And wha the flamme wente vp from ye altare towarde heauen, the angell of the LORDE ascended vp in the flamme of the altare. Whan Manoah & his wife sawe yt, they fell downe to ye earth vpo their faces.

21 And the angell of ye LORDE appeared nomore vnto Manoah & his wife. The knewe Manoah, that it was an angell of the LORDE, 22 and he sayde vnto his wife: We must dye the death, because we haue sene God. 23 But his wife answered him: Yf the LORDE wolde haue slaine vs, he had not receaued the burntofferynge and meatofferynge of oure handes: nether had he shewed vs all these thinges, ner letten vs heare soch as is now come to passe.

24 And the woman broughte forth a sonne, and called his name Samson. And the childe grewe, and the LORDE blessed him.

25 And the sprete of the LORDE begane to be wt him in the tentes of Dan, betwene Zarga and Esthaol.

Chapter 14

1 Samson wente downe vnto Thimnath, & there he sawe a woman amoge the daughters of ye Philistynes.

2 And whan he came vp, he tolde his father & his mother, & sayde: I haue sene a woman amoge the daughters of the Philistynes, I praye you geue me the same to wife.

3 His father & his mother sayde vnto him: Is there not a woman amonge the daughters of yi brethren, & in all yi people, but thou must go & take a wife amoge the Philistynes, which are vncircumcised? Samson sayde vnto his father: Geue me this woma, for she pleaseth myne eyes.

4 But his father & his mother knewe not yt it came of the LORDE, & that he soughte an occasion agaynst the Philistynes. For the Philistynes reigned ouer Israel at ye same tyme.

5 So Samson wente downe with his father and with his mother vnto Thimnath. And whan they came to the vynyardes of Thimnath, beholde, there came a yonge rearinge lyon against him.

6 And the sprete of the LORDE came vpon him, and he rente him in peces, euen as a kydd is parted a sunder, and yet had he nothinge at all in his hade, and he tolde it not vnto his father & his mother. 7 Now whan he came downe, he spake wt the woman, and she pleased Samsons eyes.

8 And after certayne dayes he came agayne, to receaue her, & wente out of ye waye, that he mighte se ye deed carcas of the lyon: and beholde, in ye lyons carcas there was a swarme of beyes, and hony: 9 and he toke of it in his hande, and ate therof by the waye: and wete vnto his father and to his mother, and gaue them to eate also. But he tolde them not, that he had taken the hony out of the lyons carcas.

10 And whan his father came downe to the woman, Samson made a feast there, as the yonge men vsed to do.

11 And whan they sawe him, they gaue him thirtie companyons to be with him.

12 Samson sayde vnto them: I wil expresse a darke sentence vnto you, yf ye expounde me the same with in these seuen dayes of the feast, I wyll geue you thirtye shertes, and thirtie change of raymente.

13 But yf ye can not expounde it, then shall ye geue me thirtie shertes, & thirtie change of rayment. And they sayde vnto him: Shewe forth thy ryddle, let vs heare it.

14 He sayde vnto them: Meate wente out from the deuouer, and swetenesse from the mightie. And in thre dayes they coulde not expounde the ryddle.

15 Vpon the seuenth daye they sayde vnto Samsons wife: Persuade thy husbade, that he tell vs what the ryddle meaneth, or els we shal burne the and thy fathers house with fyre. Haue ye called vs hither, to brynge vs to pouerte?

16 Then wepte Samsons wife before him, and sayde: Thou art displeased at me, and louest me not: thou hast expressed a darke sentence vnto the children of my people, and hast not tolde it me. But he sayde vnto her: Beholde, I haue not tolde it vnto my father and mother, and shulde I tell it the?

17 And she wepte before him those seuen dayes, whyle they had ye feast. But on the seuenth daye he tolde it her, for she was so importune vpon him. And she expounded the darke sentence vnto the children of her people.

18 Then sayde the men of the cite vnto him vpon the seuenth daye oreuer the Sonne wente downe: What is sweter then hony? What is strouger then the lyon? But he sayde vnto the: Yf ye had not plowed wt my calfe, ye shulde not haue founde out my ryddle.

19 And the sprete of ye LORDE came vpon him, and he wente downe vnto Ascalon, and slewe thirtie men of them, & toke their spoyles, and gaue change of rayment vnto the, yt had expounded the ryddle. And he was wrothfully displeased, & wente vp vnto his fathers house.

20 As for Samsons wife, she was geuen vnto one of his companyons, which belonged vnto him.

Chapter 15

1 It fortunated after certaine daies aboute the wheate haruest tyme, yt Samson visited his wife wt a kydd. And wha he thoughte, I wyl go to my wife in to the chamber, hir father wolde not let him in, 2 and sayde: I thoughte thou wast displeased at her, and I gaue her vnto thy frende. But she hath a yonger sister which is more beutyfull then she, let ye same be thine for her.

3 The sayde Samson vnto the: I haue once gotte a righte occasion agaynst the Philistynes, I wyl do you displeasure.

4 And Samson wete and caughte thre hundreth foxes, and toke fyre brandes, and festened one tayle to another, and put euer a fyre brande betwene two tayles, 5 and kynled the same with fyre, and let them go amonge the Philistynes corne, and thus he brenyt ye stoukes and the standinge corne, and ye vynyardes, and the olyue trees.

6 Then sayde the Philistynes: Who hath done this? And they sayde: Samson the husbade of the Thimnites daughter, because he toke awaye his wife from him, and gaue hir vnto his frende. Then wente the Philistynes vp, and brenyt her and hir father also with fyre.

7 But Samson sayde vnto them: I can suffre you to do this, neuertheles I wyl be aueged vpon you my selfe, and then wyl I leaue of.

8 And he smote them sore both vpo the shulders & loynes: and wete downe, & dwelt in the stone clyffe at Eram.

9 Then wente the Philistynes vp, and layed sege vnto Iuda, & pitched at Lechi. 10 But they of Iuda sayde: Wherefore are ye come vp against vs? They answered: we are come vp to bynde Samson, yt we maye do vnto him, as he hath done vnto vs.

11 Then wete there thre M. men of Iuda downe to the stone clyffe of Etam, & sayde vnto Samson: Knowest thou not that the Philistynes raigne ouer vs? Wherefore hast thou done this then vnto vs? He sayde: As they dyd vnto me, so haue I done vnto the agayne.

12 They sayde vnto him: We are come downe to bynde the, & to delyuer ye into the hade of the Philistynes. Samson sayde vnto the: Then swaere & promyse me, yt ye wyll not slaye me.

13 They answered him: We wyll not kyl the, we wil but bynde the, & delyuer the in to their hande, & wyl not slaye ye. And they bounde him with two new coardes & caried him from the stone.

14 And whan he came vnto Lechi, the Philistynes shouted, and rane vnto him. But ye sprete of ye LORDE came vpon him, & the coardes aboute his armes were like thredes burnt in the fyre, so yt the bondes were lowshed from his hondes. 15 And he founde the cheke bone of a deed asse: then put he forth his hande, and toke it, & slewe a thousande men therwith:

16 And Samson sayde: With an olde asses cheke bone, yee eue with the cheke bone of an asse haue I slayne a thousande men. 17 And whan he had sayde yt, he cast ye cheke bone out of his hande, & called the place Ramath Lechi.

18 But wha he was sore a thyrst, he called vpo the LORDE, & saide: Soch greate health hast thou geue by the hade of thy seruaunt, but now must I dye a thyrst, & fall in to ye hande of ye vncircused.

19 The God opened a gometohe in ye chekebone, so yt water wete out: & whan he dranke, his sprete came agayne, & he was refreshed. Therfore vnto this daye it is yet called ye well of ye cheke bone of him yt made intercession.

20 And he iudged Israel in the tyme of the Philistynes twetye yeare.

Chapter 16

1 Samson wente vnto Gasa, & there he sawe an harlot, & laye with her.

2 The was it saide vnto the Gasites: Samson is come hither. And they compased him aboute, & caused to laye wayte for him preuely, & watched all the nighte in the gate of ye cite, & all that nighte they helde them styll, & sayde: Abyde, tomorow whan it is lighte, we wyll slaye him.

3 But Samson laye vnto mydnighte, then rose he at mydnighte, & toke holde on both ye syde portes of ye gate of the cite, wt both the postes, & lifte them out with the barres, & layed them vpon his shulders, & bare them vp to ye toppe of ye mount ouer agaynst Hebron.

4 After this he fell into the loue of a woman by ye broke of Sorek, whose name was Dalila,

5 vnto whom the prynces of the Philistynes came vp, and sayde vnto her: Persuade him, and loke wherin he hath soch greate strength, & how we maye overcome him, yt we mighte bynde him & subdue him, so wyll we geue the euery man a M. and an C. syluerlinges.

6 And Dalila sayde vnto Samson: I praye the tell me, wherin thy greate strength is, & how thou mightest be bounde to be subdued.

7 Samson sayde vnto her: Yf I were bounde with seue roapes of fresh senowes, which are not yet dryed vp, I shulde be weake, and as another man.

8 The the prynces of the Philistynes broughte vp vnto her seuen new roapes, which were not yet dryed vp. And she bounde him therwith.

9 (But there was wayte layed for him besyde her in the chamber) and she sayde vnto him: The Pilstynes vpon the Samson. Neuertheles he brake the roapes in sunder, eue as a twyned threde breaketh, whan it hath caught the heate of the fyre. And it was not knowne wherin his strength was.

10 Then sayde Dalila vnto Samson: beholde, thou hast begyled me & dyssembled with me: tell me yet, wherwithall mayest thou be bounde?

11 He answered her: Yf they bounde me with new coardes, wherwith no labor hath bene done, I shulde be feble, & as another man.

12 Then toke Dalila new coardes, & bounde him withall, and sayde: The Philistynes vpo the Samson (but there was wayte layed for him in the chamber.) And he brake them from his armes, euen as it had bene a threde.

13 Dalila sayde vnto him: Yet hast thou begyled me & dessembled wt me: O tell me yet, wherwithall mightest thou be bounde? He answered her: Yf thou playtest seue hayrie lockes of my heade together in a fyllet, 14 and fastenest them in with a nayle (I shulde be weake.) And she saide vnto him: The Philistynes vpo the Samson. But he awaked out of his slepe, & drue out ye playted hayrie lockes with the nale and the fyllet.

15 The sayde she vnto him: How cast thou saye yt thou louest me, where as thine hert is not yet with me? Thre tymes hast thou disceaued me, and not tolde me wherin thy greate strength is.

16 So whan she was euery daye importune vpon him wt her wordes, & wolde not let him haue rest, his soule was faynte euen vnto the death,

17 & he shewed her his whole hert, & sayde vnto her: There came neuer rasoure vpon my heade, for I am a Nazaree of God fro my mothers wombe. Yf I were shauen, my strength shulde departe fro me, so that I shulde be weake, and as all other men.

18 Now whan Dalila sawe that he had opened all his hert vnto her, she sent & called for the prynces of the Philistynes, & sayde: Come yet once vp, for he hath opened his whole hert vnto me. The came the prynces of the Philistynes vp vnto her, & broughte the money wt them in their handes.

19 And she made him to slepe vpon hir lappe, & called one which shoue of the seue hayrie lockes of his heade. And she beganne to vexe him. The was his strength departed fro him.

20 And she sayde vnto him: The Philistynes vpon the Samson. Now wha he awoke out of his slepe, he thoughte: I wil go forth as I haue done aforetyme, & ease my selfe, & knewe not yt the LORDE was departed from him.

21 But the Philistynes toke him, & put out his eyes, and broughte him downe to Gasa, & bounde him wt fetters, and made him to grynde in the preson.

22 But the heer of his heade beganne to growe agayne, where it was shauen of.

23 Whan ye prynces of the Philistynes were gathered together, to make a greate sacrifice vnto Dagon their god, and to be ioyfull, they sayde: Oure god hath delyuered Samson or enemye in to or hande.

24 Like wyse whan ye people sawe him, they prayed their god, & sayde: Oure god hath delyuered in to oure handes oure enemye, yt destroyed oure londe, & slewe many of vs.

25 Now whan their hert was ioyfull, they sayde: Let vs fetch Samson, that he maye make some pastyme before vs. Then fetched they Samson out of the preson, & he made pastyme before them. And they set him betwene two pilers.

26 But Samson sayde vnto the lad yt led him by the hande: Let me touche the pilers wher vpon the house stondest, yt I maye leane ther vnto.

27 As for ye house, it was full of men & wemen. All the prynces of the Philistynes were there also, and vpon the rofe were aboute a thre thousande men and wemen, which behelde what pastyme Samson made.

28 But Samson called vpon the LORDE, & sayde: O LORDE LORDE, thynke vpon me, & strength me but this once O God I beseke the, yt for both myne eyes I maye auege me on the Philistynes.

29 And he toke holde of ye two mydpilers, that the house stode vpon & was holden by, the one in his righte hade, & ye other in his lefte,

30 & saide: My soule dye wt the Philistynes, & he bowed him selfe mightely. Then fell the house vpon the prynces & vpon all the people that were therin, so that there were mo of ye slayne which dyed in his death, the he slewe whyle he lyued.

31 Then came his brethren downe and all his fathers house, and toke him, and caried him vp, and buried him in the graue of his father Manoah betwene Zarga and Esthaol. He iudged Israel twentye yeare.

Chapter 17

1 There was a man vpo mount Ephraim, named Micha

2 which sayde vnto his mother: The thousande and hundreth syluerlinges which thou hast taken vnto the, & sworne, and spoken of before myne eares: beholde, ye same money is by me, I haue taken it vnto me. Then sayde his mother: The blessinge of the LORDE haue thou my sonne.

3 So he gaue his mother the thousande & hundreth syluerlinges agayne. And his mother saide: That money haue I sanctified vnto the LORDE wt my hande for my sonne, to make a molten ymage: therfore I geue it the agayne.

4 Neuertheles he delyuered ye money agayne vnto his mother. Then toke his mother two hundreth syluerlinges, & put them forth to ye goldsmith, which made a molten ymage, yt was afterwarde in Michas house.

5 And thus the man Micha had a gods house, & made an ouerbody cote, & Idols, and fylled ye handes of one of his sonnes, yt he mighte be his prest.

6 At yt tyme was there no kyng in Israel, & euery man dyd the thinge yt was righte in his awne eyes.

7 There was a yoge man of Bethleem Iuda, amoge the kynreds of Iuda, and he was a Leuite, and was a straunger there. 8 The same wente out of the cite of Bethleem Iuda, to walke whither he coulde. And wha he came vp to mount Ephraim vnto the house of Micha, to go on his iourney, 9 Micha axed him: Whence comest thou? He answered him: I am a Leuite of Bethleem Iuda, and am walkyng where I can.

10 Micha sayde vnto him: Tary with me, thou shalt be my father and my prest, I will geue the euery yeare ten syluerlinges and thy appoynted raymet, and meate and drynke: and the Leuite wete on.

11 And the Leuite agreed to abyde with the man: and he helde the yonge ma, as one of his owne sonnes.

12 And Micha fylled the Leuites hande, that he mighte be his prest, and so he was in Michas house.

13 And Micha sayde: I am sure the LORDE wyll do me good now, that I haue a Leuite to my prest.

Chapter 18

1 At that tyme was there no kyng in Israel. And ye trybe of ye Danites soughte them an enheritaunce to dwell in, for vnto that daie there was no enheritaunce fallen vnto them amonge the trybes of Israel.

2 And the childre of Dan sent out of their kynreds fyue captaynes (which were men of armes) from Zarga and Esthaol, to spye and search out the londe. And they sayde vnto them: Go youre waie, and search out the londe. And they came vp to mount Ephraim in to ye house of Micha, and taried there all nighte.

3 And whyle they were there wt Michas husscholde, they knewe ye voyce of the yonge man the Leuite, and sayde vnto him: Who broughte ye hither? What makest thou here? and why woldest thou come hither?

4 He answered the: Thus & thus hath Micha done vnto me, & hath hyred me to be his prest.

5 They sayde vnto him: O axe at God, yt we maye perceauē, whether oure iourney which we go, shal prospere well or not.

6 The prest answered them: Go youre waye in peace, youre iourney yt ye go, is before the LORDE.

7 Then the fyue men wente their waye, & came vnto Lais, and sawe that the people which was therin, dwelt sure, euen as ye Sidonians, at rest, and carelesse, and that there was no lorde in the londe to vexē them, and were farre from the Sidonias, and had nothinge to do with eny man.

8 And they came to their brethre to Zarga and Esthaol. And their brethren saide vnto them: How is it wt you?

9 They sayde: Arise, let vs go vp vnto them, for we haue sene the londe, yt it is a very good londe: make haist therfore, & be not slacke to go, that ye maye come to take possession of the londe.

10 Whan ye come, ye shall come to a carelesse people, and the londe is wyde: for God hath delyuered this place in to yor hande, where nothinge wanteth of all yt is vpon earth.

11 Then wente there thence out of the kynreds of Dan from Zarga and Esthaol, sixe hundreth men ready wapened to ye battayll, 12 and wente vp, and pitched at Kiriath Iearim in Iuda: therfore called they the same place, ye hoost of Dan, vnto this daye, which is behinde Kiriath Iearim.

13 And fro thence they wete vp vnto mout Ephraim, and came to the house of Micha.

14 Then answered the fyue men that wete out to spye the londe of Lais, & sayde vnto their brethren: Knowe ye not that in these houses there is an ouerbody cote, Idols, & molten ymages? Now maye ye loke what ye haue to do.

15 They departed thence, and came to the house of the yonge man the Leuite in Michas house, and saluted him fredly.

16 But the sixe hundreth men, which were of ye children of Dan, stode ready harnesssed before ye gate.

17 And the fyue men that were gone out to spye ye londe, wete vp, and came thither, and toke the ymage, the ouerbody cote, & the molten Idols. In the meane whyle stode ye prest at the gate, with the sixe hundreth readye harnesssed.

18 Now wha these were come in to Michas house, and toke the ymage, the ouerbody cote, and the molten Idols, the prest sayde vnto them: What do ye?

19 They answered him: Holde thy peace, and laye thine hande vpon thy mouth, and go with vs, yt thou mayest be oure father & prest. Is it better for the to be prest in one mans house, then amonge a whole trybe & kynred in Israel?

20 This pleased the prest well, & he toke both the ouerbody cote, and the Idols, and the ymage, and came in amonge the people.

21 And whan they turned them and wente thence, they sent their children, and catell, and soch precious thynges as they had, before them.

22 Whan they were come farre now from the house of Micha, the men yt were in Michas houses gathered the together by Michas house, & folowed ye childre of Dan, and cried vpon the childre of Dan.

23 They turned their faces aboute, and sayde vnto Micha: What ayleth the, yt thou makest soch a crienge?

24 He answered: Ye haue taken awaye my goddes, and the prest, & are goinge yor waie, and what haue I behynde? What is here? And yet ye saye vnto me: What ayleth the?

25 But the childre of Dan saide vnto him: Let not thy voyce be herde amoge vs, that some worthfull me thrust not at the, and so yi soule and the soule of yi house be destroyed.

26 So the childre of Dan wete on their waye. And Micha, whan he sawe yt they were to stronge for him, turned backe, and came agayne to his house.

27 But they toke that Micha had made, & the prest whom he had, & came vnto Lais, to a quyete carelesse people, and slewe them with the edge of the swerde, and burnt the cite with fyre,

28 and there was no man to delyuer them: for they laye farre fro Sidon, and had to do with no man. And they laye in the valley, which is besyde Beth Rehob. Then buylded they the cite, & dwelt therin, 29 & called it Dan, after name of their father Dan, whom Israel begat. And ye cite was called Lais afore tyme.

30 And the children of Dan set vp the ymage for them, and Ionathan ye sonne of Gerson the sonne of Manasse, & his sonnes were prestes amoge the trybe of ye Danites, vnto the tyme yt they were led awaye captiue out of the londe.

31 And thus they set amonge the the ymage of Micha, which he had made, as loge as ye house of God was at Silo.

Chapter 19

1 At the same tyme was there no kynge in Israel, and there was a man of Leui, which was a strauger besyde mout Ephraim, and had taken him a cocubine of Bethleem Iuda to wife.

2 And wha she had played the harlot besyde him, she ranne fro him to hir fathers house vnto Bethleem Iuda, & was there foure monethes longe.

3 And hir husbade gat him vp, & wente after her, to speake fredly wt her, & to fetch her againe, & had a seruaut & a couple of asses wt him. And she led him in to hir fathers house. But whan the damsels father sawe him, he was glad, & receaued him:

4 & his father in lawe, yt the damsels father kepte him, so yt he taried thre dayes wt him: thus they ate and droke, and remayned there all nighte.

5 But on ye fourth daye he gat him vp early, & wolde go his waye. Then sayde ye damsels father vnto his sonne in lawe: Refresh thine hert first wt a morsell of bred, and then shal ye go.

6 And they sat them downe, & ate and dronke both together: Then sayde the damsels father vnto the man: Oh tarye all nighte, yt we waie refresh thine hert.

7 But ye ma arose, & wolde nedes go. And his father in lawe constrayned him to tarye all nighte.

8 On the fifth daye in the mornynge he gat him vp, and wolde be gone. Then sayde the damsels father: I praye the conforte thine hert, & let vs tary tyll ye daye be farther past, and so they ate both together.

9 And the man gat him vp, and wolde go with his concubine and with his seruaut. But his father in lawe the damsels father, saide vnto him agayne: Lo, the daye is spent, & it begynneth to be euen, tary all night: beholde, here is lodginge yet this daye, abyde here this night, it shal refresh thine hert: tomorrow by times get you vp, and go youre waye vnto thy tent.

10 Neuertheles the man wolde not tary, but gat him vp, and wete his waye, and came ouer agaynst Iebus (that is Ierusalem) and his couple of asses lade, and his concubine with him.

11 Now whan they were come nye vnto Bethleem, the daye fell fast awaye. And ye seruaut saide vnto his master: I prairie you go on, and let vs turne in to this cite of the Iebusites, and tarye therin allnight.

12 Not withstandinge his master sayde vnto him: I wil not turne in to ye cite of the aleautes, that are not of the children of Israel, but I wyl go ouer vnto Gibea.

13 And he sayde vnto his seruaut: Go thou before, that we maye come to some place, and tarye at Gibea or at Ramah allnight.

14 And they wente on and walked, and the Sonne wente downe vpon the harde by Gibea, which lyeth in the trybe of Benlamin:

15 and they turned in there, yt they mighte come in, and tarye at Gibea all nighte. But whan he came in, he sat him downe in ye strete of the cite: for there was noman that wolde lodge them in his house that night.

16 And beholde, then came there an olde ma from his worke out of the felde in the eueninge: and he was also of mount Ephraim, and a strauger at Gibea: but ye me of that place were ye childre of Iemini.

17 And whan he lifte vp his eies, & sawe the straunger in the strete he sayde vnto him: Whither wilt thou go? & whence comest thou?

18 He answered him: We are goinge on oure iourney from Betlee Iuda, vntyll we come besyde mount Ephraim, whece I am, and wente vnto Bethleem Iuda, and now I go vnto ye house of ye LORDE & no ma wil harbarow me.

19 We haue strawe and proueder for oure asses, and bred and wyne for me and thy handmayden, and for the yonge man which is with thy seruaut, so yt we wante nothinge.

20 The olde man sayde: Peace be with the: what soeuer thou wantest, thou findest it wt me, onely tarye not in the strete all nighte.

21 And he broughte him in to his house, and gaue the asses prouender: and they washed their fete, and ate & dronke.

22 And wha their hert was now ioyfull, the men of the cyte, the children of Belial, came, and compased the house rounde aboute, and russhed at ye dore, and sayde vnto ye olde man, which was the good man of ye house: Bringe out the ma which is come in to thy house, that we maye knowe him.

23 But the good man of the house wente forth to them, and sayde vnto them: Oh no my brethren, do not so wickedly, consideringe this man is come in to my house: Oh do not soch folye.

24 Beholde, I haue a daughter yet a virgin, and this man hath a cocubine, those wil I brynge forth vnto you, that ye maye humble them, and do with them as ye lyke: but do not soch folye vnto this man.

25 Neuertheles the men wolde not herken vnto him. Then toke ye man his concubine and broughte her forth vnto them: and they knewe her, and dealt shamefully with her all yt night vntill the mornynge. And whan the mornynge brake on, they let her go.

26 Then came the woman early in the mornynge, and fell downe at the dore of the mas house that her lorde was in, and laye there tyll it was light.

27 Now whan hir lorde rose vp in the mornynge, and opened the dore of the house, and wente forth to go on his iourney, beholde, his concubine laye at the dore of the house, and hir handes vpon the thersholde.

28 He saide vnto her: stonde vp, let vs go, Neuertheles she gaue him no answer. The toke he her vp vpon his asse, gat him vp, and wente vnto his place.

29 Now whan he came home, he toke a swerde, and helde his concubine, and cut her wt the bones and all in to twolue peces, and sent them in to all the coastes of Israel.

30 Who so euer sawe it, sayde: Soch a thinge hath not bene done ner sene, sence the tyme that ye children of Israel departed out of the londe of Egipte, vnto this daye. Now as concernynge this, take youre advysement, and geue yor councill, and shew it forth.

Chapter 20

1 Then wente the children of Israel out and gathered a congregacion together as one man, fro Dan vntill Bersaba, and from the londe of Gilead vnto the LORDE to Mispā:

2 and there came together of all the quarters of the people, and of all the trybes of Israel in to the congregacion of the people of God, foure hundreth thousande fote men that drue out ye swerde.

3 But the children of Benjamin herde, how that ye children of Israel were gone vp vnto Mispa. And the children of Israel sayde: Tell vs, how happened this euell? 4 Then answered the Leuite the husbande of the woman that was slayne, and sayde: I came to Gibe in Benjamin with my concubyne, to tary there allnight, 5 then the cytesins of Gibe gat them vp agaynst me, and compased me aboute in the house by night, and thoughte to slaye me, and defyled my cocubyne, so that she dyed:

6 then toke I my cocubyne, and cut her in peces, and sent the peces in to euery countre of the inheritaunce of Israel: for they haue done an abhominacion and folye in Israel.

7 Beholde, here are ye children of Israel: aduise you well, and take this matter in hande.

8 So all the people gat them vp as one ma, and sayde: Noma shal go in to his tente, ner departe to his house,

9 but this wil we do now agaynst Gibe: Let vs cast lot,

10 and take ten men of an hundreth, and an hundreth of a thousande, and a thousande of ten thousande, out of all ye trybes of Israel, yt they maie take fode for ye people, to come & do with Gibe Benjamin, acordinge to their folye which they haue done in Israel.

11 Thus all the men of Israel beyng confederate, gathered them selues together as one man vnto the cite:

12 and the trybes of Israel sent men vnto all the kinreds of Benjamin, and caused to saye vnto them: What maner of wickydnes is this, that is done amonge you?

13 Delyuer here therfore the men the children of Belial at Gibe, that we maye put them to death, and do awaye the euell out of Israel. Neuertheles the children of Benjamin wolde not folowe the voyce of their brethren the children of Israel, 14 but gathered them selues out of ye cities vnto Gibe, to go forth in battayll agaynst the children of Israel.

15 And the same daye were there nombred of the children of Benjamin out of the cities, sixe and twentye thousande men, that drue the swerde, beside the citsyns of Gibe of whom there were tolde seue hundreth chosen men.

16 And amoge all this people there were chosen out seuen hundreth men, which vsed not the right hande but the left, and yet wt the slynge coulde they touch an heer, and not mysse.

17 But the men of Israel, beside them of Benjamin, were nobred foure hundreth thousande, which drue the swerde, & were all men of armes.

18 And the children of Israel arose, and wente vp to the house of God (in Silo) and axed at God, and sayde: Who shall go vp for vs to beginne the battayll with ye children of Benjamin? The LORDE saide: Iuda shall begynne.

19 So the children of Israel gat the vp in ye mornige, & pitched ouer agaist Gibe, 20 & euery man of Israel wete out to fighte with Ben Iamin, and set them selues in araye to fighte agaynst Gibe.

21 Then fell the children of Ben Iamin out of Gibe, and slewe the same daye amonge Israel two & twentye thousande to the grounde.

22 But the people of the men of Israel comforted them selues, and made them ready to fighte yet more in the same place, after they had prepared them selues the daye afore.

23 And the children of Israel wente vp, and wepte before the LORDE vntyll the euenyng, and axed at the LORDE, & sayde: Shall we go enymore to fighte with oure brethren the children of Ben Iamin? The LORDE sayde: Go vp vnto them.

24 And whan the children of Israel gat them vp to the childe of Ben Iamin on ye next daye, 25 the Ben Iamites fell out of Gibe agaynst them the same daye, and slewe yet eightene thousande of ye children of Israel to the grounde, which all drue the swerde.

26 Then wente all the children of Israel vp, and all the people, and came to the house of God, and wepte, and taried there before the LORDE, & fasted that daye vntyll the euen, and offred burntofferings and deedofferings before the LORDE.

27 And the children of Israel axed at the LORDE (the Arke of the couenaunt of God was there at that tyme, 28 and Phineas the sonne of Eleasar the sonne of Aaron stode before him at the same tyme) & they sayde: Shal we go forth eny more to fighte with oure brethren the childe of Ben Iamin, or shal we leaue of? The LORDE sayde: Go vp, tomorow wyll I delyuer them in to youre handes.

29 And the children of Israel set a prey watch agaynst Gibe rounde aboute, 30 and so the children of Israel wente vp to the children of Ben Iamin on the thirde daye, and set them selues in araye agaynst Gibe like as the other two tymes afore.

31 The came the children of Ben Iamin out agaynst the people, & brake out of the cite, & beganne to slaye certayne wounded of the people (like as the other two times afore) in the felde vpon two stretes: wherof one goeth towarde Bethel, the other vnto Gilead vpon a thirte men in Israel.

32 Then thought the childe of Ben Iamin: They are smytten before vs like as afore. But the childe of Israel sayde: Let vs flye, that we maie prouoke them out of the cite in to the hye stretes.

33 Then all the men of Israel gat them vp from their place, and prepared them selues vnto Baal Thamar. And the hinder watch of Israel brake out of their place, from ye caue of Gaba,

34 and came vnto Gibe, twentye thousande chosen men out of all Israel, so that it was a sore battayll: but they knewe not that the euell shulde happen vnto them.

35 Thus the LORDE smote Benjamin before the children of Israel, so that the same daye the children of Israel destroyed fyue & twentye thousande and an hundreth men in Ben Iamin, which all drue the swerde.

36 For whan the childe of Benjamin sawe that they were smitten, the men of Israel gaue them rowme (to flye). For they trusted to the watch, which they had sett by Gibe.

37 And the watch made haist also, & brake forth vnto Gibe, and wente vpon it, and smote all the cite with the edge of ye swerde.

38 They were appoynted betwene them selues the men of Israel and the hynder watch, to fall vpon them with the swerde, whan the smoke of the cite arose.

39 Now whan the men of Israel turned them in the battayll, and Ben Iamin beganne to smyte the wounded in Israel vpon a thirte men, and thoughte, they are smytten before vs, like as in the battayll afore, 40 then beganne there a piler of smoke to arise vp from the cite. And Benjamin loked behinde them: and beholde, the flamme of ye cite wente vp vnto heauen.

41 And the men of Israel turned them, and were fearece vpon ye men of Benjamin: for they sawe that the euell wolde happen vnto them.

42 And they turned them before the men of Israel in the waye to the wyldernes, but the battayll folowed vpon them. And them of the cite destroyed they amoge them.

43 And they compased Benjamin rounde aboute, and folowed vpon them vnto Mennah, and trode them downe tyll afore Gibe eastwarde.

44 And there fell of Benjamin eightene thousande men, which were all men of armes.

45 Whan the remnaunt of Benjamin sawe that, they turned them and fled towarde the wilderness vnto the stonye rocke of Rimon. But in the same strete they slewe fyue thousande men, and folowed vpon them vnto Gideom, and slewe two thousande of the:

46 and so there fell the same daye of Benjamin fyue and twentye thousande men which drue ye swerde, and were all me of armes.

47 Onely sixe hundreth men turned backe, and fled towarde the wyldernes vnto the stonye rocke of Rimon, and abode in the rocke of Rimon foure monethes.

48 And the men of Israel came agayne to the children of Benjamin, and smote them that were in the cite with ye edge of the swerde, both me and catell and all that was founde: and what soeuer was foude in the cite, they cast it in to the fyre.

Chapter 21

1 The men of Israel had swore at Mispa, and sayde: Noman shal geue his daughter to the BenIamites to wife.

2 And the people came to the house of God (in Silo) & abode there before God vntill the euenyng, and lifte vp their voyce, and wepte sore,

3 and sayde: O LORDE God of Israel, wherfore is this come to passe in Israel this daye?

4 But on the morow the people gat the vp early, and builded there an altare, and offred burntofferings and deedofferings.

5 And the children of Israel sayde: Where is there eny ma of the trybes of Israel, that is not come vp with the congregacion vnto the LORDE? For there was a greate oath made, that who so came not vp to Mispa vnto the LORDE, shulde dye the death.

6 And the children of Israel were sorry for Benjamin their brother, and sayde: This daye is there one trybe lesse in Israel.

7 How wyll we do that the remnaunt maye haue wyues? For we haue sworne by the LORDE, that we wyl not geue the wyues of oure daughters.

8 And they sayde: Where is there eny ma of the trybes of Israel, that is not come vp to the LORDE vnto Mispa?

9 And beholde, there was not one man of the citsyns of Iabes in Gilead.

10 Then sent the congregacion twolue thousande men of armes thither, and commaunded them, and sayde: Go youre waye, and smite the citsyns of Iabes in Gilead with the swerde, the women also and the children, 11 but so that ye do after this maner: Se that ye damne all them that are males, and all the women that haue lyen with men.

12 And amonge the citsyns of Iabes in Gilead they foude foure hundreth damsels, which were virgins, and had lyen with noman: those they broughte in to the hoost vnto Silo, which lyeth in the londe of Canaan.

13 Then sent the whole congregacion, and caused to talke with the children of Benjamin, which were in the stonie rocke of Rimo and called vnto them frendly.

14 So the children of Benjamin came agayne at the same tyme, and thy gaue them women which they had of the women of Iabes in Gilead, and founde no mo after that maner.

15 Then were the people sorry for Benjamin, that ye LORDE had made a gappe in the trybes of Israel.

16 And the Elders of the congregacio sayde: What wil we do, that the remnaunt maye haue wyues also? for the weme in Ben Iamin are destroyed,

17 and they sayde: The enheritaunce of them of Benjamin that are escaped, must nedes remayne, that there be not a trybe destroyed out of Israel:

18 & we cannot geue them oure daughters to wiues. For the children of Israel haue sworne and sayde: Cursed be he that geueth a wyfe to the BenJamites. 19 And they sayde: Beholde there is a yearly feast of the LORDE at Silo, which lieth on the northsyde of the Gods house, and on the eastside of the strete as a ma goeth from Bethel vnto Sichem, and lieth on the south side of Libona. 20 And they commaunded the children of Benjamin, & sayde: Go youre waye, and wayte in the vynyardes. 21 And whan ye se that the daughters of Silo go forth by copanyes to daunse, get you out of the vynyardes, and euery man take him a wyfe of the daughters of Silo, and go youre waye in to the lode of Benjamin. 22 As for their fathers and brethren, whan they come to lawe with vs, we wyll saye vnto them: Be faourable to them, for they haue not taken the in battaill: but ye gaue the not vnto them by time, and it is youre faute. 23 The children of Benjamin did so, and acordinge to their nombre toke them wyues from the daunse, whom they caught by violence, and wente their waye, & dwelt in their awne inheritance, and buylded cities and dwelt therein. 24 The children of Israel also gat them vp from thence at the same time, euery one to his trybe and to his kinred, and departed thence, euery man to his awne inheritance. 25 At yt time was there no kynge in Israel, and euery man dyd ye thinge yt was right in his awne eies.

RUTH

1 In ye tyme whan the Iudges ruled, there was a derth in the londe. And there wente a ma from Bethlee Iuda to take his journey into the londe of the Moabites wt his wife and two sonnes, 2 which man was called EliMelech, and his wife Naemi, & his two sonnes, the one Mahelon, and the other Chilion: these were Ephrates of Bethleem Iuda. And whan they came in to the londe of ye Moabites, they dwelt there. 3 And Eli Melech Naemis husbände dyed, & she was left behinde wt hir two sonnes, 4 which toke Moabitish wyues: the one was called Arpa, the other Ruth. And whan they had dwelt there ten yeare, 5 they dyed both, Mahelon and Chilion, so that the woman remayned desolate of both hir sonnes and hir husbände. 6 Then gat she her vp wt both hir sonnes wyues, & wente agayne out of the lode of ye Moabites (for she had herde in the londe of the Moabites, yt the LORDE had visited his people & geuen them bred) 7 & so she departed from ye place where she was, & both hir sonnes wyues wt her. And as they wete by the waye to come agayne into the londe of Iuda, 8 she sayde vnto both hir sonnes wyues: Go yor waye, & turne backe ether of you to hir mothers house: the LORDE shewe mercy vpon you, as ye haue done on the yt are deed & on me. 9 The LORDE graunte you, yt ye maie fynde rest ether of you in hir husbades house (whom ye shal get) and she kyssed them. Then lift they vp their voyce, and wepte, 10 & sayde vnto her: We wil go with the vnto yi people. 11 But Naemi sayde: Turne agayne my daughters, why wolde ye go with me? How can I haue children eny more in my body, to be youre husbändes? 12 Turne agayne my daughters, and go youre waye, for I am now to olde to take an husbände. And though I shulde saye: I hope this night to take an husbände & to brynge forth children, 13 yet coulde ye not tary till they were growne vp: for ye shulde be to olde, so that ye coulde haue no husbändes. No my daughters, therfore am I sory for you, for ye hade of the LORDE is gone forth ouer me. 14 Then lifte they vp their voyce, and wepte yet more, and Arpa kyssed hir mother in lawe (and turned backe agayne) but Ruth abode styll by her. 15 Neuertheles she sayde: Beholde, thy syster in lawe is turned backe vnto hir people and to hir god, turne thou agayne also after thy sister in lawe. 16 Ruth answered: Speake not to me therof, that I shulde forsake the, and turne backe from the: whithersoer thou goest, thither wil I go also: and loke where thou abydest, there wil I abide also: Thy people is my people, & thy God is my God. 17 Loke where thou diest, there wil dye, and euen there wil I also be buried. The LORDE do this and that vnto me, death onely shal departe vs. 18 Now whan she sawe, that she was stedfastly mynded to go with her, she spake nomore to her therof. 19 So they wente on both together, till they came vnto Bethleem. And whan they were come in to Bethleem, the whole cite was moued ouer them, and sayde Is not this Naemi? 20 Neuerthelesse she sayde vnto them: call me not Naemi, but Mara: for the Allmightie hath made me very sory. 21 I departed full, but the LORDE hath brought me home agayne emptye. Why call ye me then Naemi? wha the LORDE hath brought me lowe, and the Allmightie hath made me sory? 22 It was aboute the tyme of the begynninge of the barlye haruest, whan Naemi and his sonnes wife Ruth ye Moabitysse, came agayne from the londe of the Moabites vnto Bethleem.

Chapter 2

1 There was a kinsman also of ye kynred of EliMelech Naemis husbände, whose name was Boos, which was an honest man. 2 And Ruth the Moabitisse saide vnto Naemi: Let me go in to ye felde, & gather eares of corne, after him, in whose sight I shal finde fauor. She sayde vnto her: Go yi waie my daughter. 3 She wete on, & came & gathered after ye reapers in ye feld. And it fortunated that the same felde was the enheritance of Boos, which was of the kynred of Elimelech, 4 and beholde, Boos came from Bethleem, and sayde vnto the reapers: The LORDE be with you. They answered: The LORDE blesse the. 5 And Boos sayde vnto his yongman which had the ouersight of ye reapers. Whose damsell is this? 6 The yonge man that was set ouer ye reapers, answered and sayde: It is the damsell the Moabitisse, which came agayne with Naemi from the londe of the Moabites. 7 And she sayde: Let me plucke vp and gather (I prairie the) betwene the sheues after the reapers: and thus is she come, and hath stonde here euer sence the mornynge, and within a litle whyle she wolde haue bene gone home agayne. 8 Then sayde Boos vnto Ruth: Hearst thou my daughter? Thou shalt not come vpon another mans londe to gather, and go not awaye from hence, but tary with my dasels, 9 and loke where they reape in ye felde, go thou after them: for I haue comaunded my seruantes that no man touch the. And yf thou be a thyrst, go thy waye to the vessell & drynke, where my seruantes drawe. 10 Then fell she downe vpon hir face, and bowed hir self downe to the earth, and sayde vnto him: How haue I founde this faouore in yi sighte, that thou woldest knowe me, which am yet a stranger? 11 Boos answered and sayde vnto her: It is tolde me alltogether, what thou hast done vnto thy mother in lawe after thy husbades death, how that thou hast left yi father and thy mother, and thy natiue countre, and art come to a people, whom thou hast not knowne afore. 12 The LORDE recompence the thy doinge, and thy rewarde be perfecte wt the LORDE God of Israel, vnto whom thou art come to put thy trust vnder his wynges. 13 She sayde: let me fynde faouore (syr) before thyne eyes, for thou hast comforted me, and spoken frendly vnto thy handmayde, where as I am not yet like one of yi handmaydes. 14 Boos sayde vnto her: Whan it is eatinge tyme, come hither, and eate of the bred, and dyppe thy morsell in the vyneger. And she sat hir downe besyde the reapers. And he set parched corne before her, and she ate, & was satisfied, and lefte ouer. 15 And wha she rose to gather, Boos commaunded his seruantes, and sayde: Let her gather betwene the sheues also, and do her no dishonestye:

16 and cast of the sheues vnto her, and let it lye that she maye gather it vp, and se that noman reprove her for it. 17 So she gathered in the felde vntyll euen and she shaken out what she had gathered, and it was almost an Ephah of barlye: 18 and she toke it vp, and came in to the cite, and shewed hir mother in lawe what she had gathered. She toke forth also, and gaue her of that which was left, wherof she was satisfied. 19 The sayde hir mother in lawe vnto her Blessinge haue the man that hath knowne the, where thou hast gathered and laboured this daye. She tolde hir mother in lawe by whom she had laboured, and sayde: The mans name, by whom I haue wroughte to daye, is Boos. 20 Naemi sayde vnto hir daughter in lawe: The blesynge of the LORDE haue he, for he hath not lefte of to be mercifull vnto the luyunge and to the deed. And Naemi sayde vnto her: The same man belongeth vnto vs, and is oure nye kynsman. 21 Ruth the Moabitisse saide: He saide morouer vnto me: Thou shalt resorte vnto my seruantes, tyll they haue made an ende of all my haruest. 22 Naemi sayde vnto Ruth hir daughter in lawe: It is better my daughter, that thou go forth with his damsels, lest eny man withstode the in another felde. 23 Thus she kepte herselfe with Boos damsels, so that she gathered vntill the barlye haruest and the wheate haruest was out, and came agayne to hir mother in lawe.

Chapter 3

1 And Naemi hir mother in lawe sayde vnto her: My daughter, I wyll prouyde rest for the, that thou maiest prospere. 2 Boos oure kynsman, by whose damsels thou hast bene, casteth vp barlye now this night in his barne. 3 Bathe thyselfe therfore, and moffell the, and put on thy clothes, and go downe vnto the barne, so yt noma knowe the, tyll they haue all eaten and dronken. 4 Whan he layeth him downe then to sleape, mark ye place where he lyeth downe, and come thou, and take vp the couerynge at his fete, and laye the downe, so shall he tell the what thou shalt do. 5 She sayde vnto her: what so euer thou saiest vnto me, I wil do it. 6 She wente downe to the barne, & dyd all as hir mother in lawe had comaunded her. 7 And wha Boos had eate & dronke, his hert was mery, & he came and layed him downe behynde a heape of sheues. And she came secretly, and toke vp the coueringe at his fete, and layed hir downe. 8 Now wha it was midnight, the man was afrayed, and groped aboute him, and beholde, a woman laye at his fete. 9 And he sayde: Who art thou? She answered: I am Ruth thy handmayden, sprede yi wynges ouer thy hadmayden: for thou art the nexte kynsman.

10 He sayde: The LORDES blessinge haue thou my daughter. Thou hast done a better mercy here after then before, yt thou art not gone after yonge men, nether riche ner poore.

11 Feare not now my daughter: All yt thou hast sayde, will I do for the: for all the cite of my people knoweth, yt thou art a vertuous woma.

12 Trueth it is now, yt I am a nye kynsma, but there is one nyer then I.

13 Tarye thou allnighte. Tomorrow yf he take the, well: yf he like not to take ye, then wil I take ye my selfe, as truly as ye LORDE lyueth. Slepe thou tyll ye mornynge. And she slepte at his fete vntyll ye morow.

14 And she rose vp or euer one coulde knowe another. And he thoughte thus: That no ma knowe now yt there hath come a woman in to the barne,

15 and he sayde: Reach me the cloke yt thou hast on the, & holde it forth. And she helde it forth. And he meet her sixe measures of barleye, and layed it vpon her, & she wente in to the cite,

16 & came to hir mother in lawe, which sayde: How is it wt the my daughter? And she tolde her all yt the ma had done vnto her, 17 & sayde: These sixe measures of barleye gaue he me, for he sayde: Thou shalt not come emptye vnto yi mother in lawe.

18 She sayde: Abyde my daughter, tyll thou se what ye matter wil growe to: for the man wilt not cease, tyll he brynge it to an ende this daye.

Chapter 4

1 Boos wente vp to ye gate, and sat him downe there: & beholde, whan ye nye kynsman wente by, Boos spake vnto him, & sayde: Come & syt the downe here (and called him by his name.) And he came & sat him downe,

2 & he toke ten men of the Elders of ye cite, & sayde: Syt you downe here. And they sat the downe.

3 The sayde he to the nye kynsman: Naemi which is come againe fro the lode of the Moabites offreth to sell ye pece of londe, yt was oure brothers Eli Melech,

4 therefore thoughte I to shewe it before thine eares, & to tell the: Yf thou wilt redeme it, then bye it before the citesyns & before the Elders of my people: but yf thou wylt not redeme it, then tell me, yt I maie knowe: for there is no nye kynsma excepte thou, and I nexte after the. He sayde: I wil redeme it.

5 Boos saide: In the daye yt thou byest the lode out of ye hande of Naemi, thou must take Ruth also the Moabitisse the wife of the deed, that thou mayest rayse vp a name to ye deed in his inheritance. 6 The sayde he: I can not redeme it, lest I happlye destroye myne awne enheritance. Redeme thou yt I shulde redeme, for I can not redeme it.

7 But this was an olde custome in Israel concernynge the redemyng & chaunginge, yt all matters mighte be stable, the one put of his shue, & gaue it vnto ye other: yt was the testimony in Israel.

8 And the nye kynsman sayde vnto Boos: Bye thou it, & he put of his shue.

9 And Boos sayde vnto the Elders and to all the people: Ye are witnesses this daie, yt I haue boughte out of the hande of Naemi, all that belonged to Eli Melech, and all that was Chilions and Mahelons: 10 And Ruth the Moabitisse Mahelons wife, take I to wife, that I maye rayse vp a name vnto ye deed in his inheritance, and that his name be not roted out from amonge his brethren, and out of the gate of his place: Of this are ye witnesses.

11 And all the people that was in the gate with the Elders, saide: We are witnesses. The LORDE make the woman that commeth in to thy house, as Rachel and Lea (which both haue buylded vp the house of Israel) that she maye be an ensample of vertue in Ephrata, and haue an honorable name in Bethleem.

12 And thy house be as ye house of Phares (who Tamar bare vnto Iuda) thorow the sede, that the LORDE shall geue the of this damsell.

13 So Boos toke Ruth, and she became his wife. And whan he laye with her, the LORDE graunted her yt she conceaued, and bare a sonne.

14 The sayde the women vnto Naemi: Prayed be the LORDE, which hath not suffred a kynsman to cease from the at this tyme, that his name maye contynue in Israel:

15 he shal restore thy life agayne, and prouyde for thine age. For yi sonnes wife which hath loued the, hath borne him that is better vnto the, then seuen sonnes.

16 And Naemi toke the childe, and layde it vpon hir lappe, and became the nurse of it,

17 and hir neighbours gaue him a name & sayde: There is a childe borne vnto Naemi, and they called his name Obed. The same is the father of Isai, which is ye father of Dauid.

18 This is ye generacion of Phares. Phares begat Hesrom.

19 Hesrom begat Aram. Aram begat Aminadab.

20 Aminadab begatt Naasson. Naasson begat Salmon.

21 Salmo begat Boos. Boos begat Obed.

22 Obed begat Isai. Isai begat Dauid.

1 SAMUEL

Chapter 1

1 There was a man of Ramathaim Sophim of mount Ephraim, whose name was Elcana ye sonne of Ieroham, ye sonne of Elihu, ye sonne of Tohu, ye sonne of Zuph, yt was an Ephrate.

2 And he had two wyues, ye one was called Anna, ye other Peninna. As for Peninna, she had children, but Anna had no childe.

3 And ye same man wete vp fro his cite at his tyme, to worshippe and to offer vnto the LORDE Zebaoth at Silo. There were the prestes of the LORDE Ophni and Phineas, the two sonnes of Eli.

4 Now whan it came vpon a daye that Elcana offred, he gaue partes vnto his wife Peninna, and to all his sonnes and daughters.

5 But vnto Anna he gaue one deale heuely, for he loued Anna. Neuertheles the LORDE had closed hir wombe,

6 & hir aduersary cast her in the tethe with hir vnfrutefulnes, because the LORDE had closed hir wombe:

7 thus dyd she euery yeare, whan they wente vp to the house of the LORDE, and thus she prouoked her. So she wepte, and ate nothinge.

8 But Elcana hir husbunde sayde vnto her: Wherefore wepest thou? and why eatest thou not? And wherefore is thine hert so greued? Am not I better vnto the then ten sonnes?

9 Then stode Anna vp, whan she had eaten and dronken at Silo. But Eli the prest sat vpon a stole by the poste of the temple of the LORDE.

10 And she was full of heuynes in hir herte, and prayed vnto the LORDE, and wepte, 11 and vowed a vowe, and sayde: O LORDE Zebaoth, yf thou wilt loke vpon the aduersite of thy handmayden, and thynke vpon me, and not forget thy handmayden, and wilt geue thy handmayden a sonne, I wil geue him vnto the LORDE all his life longe, and there shal no rasoure come vpon his heade.

12 And wha she had prayed longe before ye LORDE, Eli toke hede to hir mouth,

13 for Anna spake in hir hert, hir lippes onely moued, but hir voyce was not herde. Then thoughte Eli she had bene dronken, 14 and sayde vnto her: How longe wilt thou be dronken? Let come from the the wyne that thou hast by the.

15 Neuertheles Anna answered and sayde: No my lorde, I am a soroufull woman, wyne and stronge drynke haue I not dronken but haue poured out my hert before ye LORDE.

16 Counte not thy handmayden a daughter of Belial: for out of my heuy thoughte and sorow haue I spoken hitherto.

17 Eli answered her, and sayde: Go yi waye in peace, the God of Israel shal graunte ye thy peticion that thou hast desyred of him.

18 She sayde: Let thy handmayden fynde fauoure in thy sighte. So the woman wente hir waye and ate, and loked nomore so soroufully:

19 and on ye morow they gat them vp by tymes. And whan they had worshipped before ye LORDE, they returned, and came home vnto Ramatha. And Elcana laye with Anna his wife, and the LORDE remembered her.

20 And after certayne dayes, she coceaued and bare a sonne, and called his name Samuel, for I haue desyred him (sayde she) of the LORDE.

21 And whan the man Elcana wente vp with all his housholde to offre sacrifice and his vowe vnto the LORDE at soch tyme as ye custome was,

22 Anna wente not vp, but sayde vnto hir husbunde: (I wil not go vp) tyll ye childe be weened: then will I brynge him, that he maye appeare before the LORDE, and cotynue there for euer.

23 Elcana hir husbunde sayde vnto her: The do as thou thynkest best, tary tyll thou haue weened him: but the LORDE performe that he hath spoken. So the woman abode, and gaue hir sonne sucke, tyll she weened him.

24 And whan she had weened him, she broughte him vp with her, with thre bullockes, with an Ephi of fyne floure, and a bottell of wyne, and broughte him in to ye house of the LORDE at Silo. Neuertheles the childe was yet but yonge.

25 And they slewe a bullocke, and broughte the childe vnto Eli.

26 And she sayde: O my lorde, as truly as thy soule lyueth my lorde, I am the woman that stode here by ye, and made intercession vnto the LORDE,

27 whan I prayed for this childe. Now hath ye LORDE graunted me my peticion, which I desyred of him, 28 therefore haue I geuen him ouer vnto the LORDE, as longe as he is lent vnto the LORDE. And they worshipped ye LORDE there.

Chapter 2

1 And Anna prayed, and sayde: My hert reioyseth in the LORDE, & my home is exalted in the LORDE. My mouth is opened wyde vpo myne enemies, for I am glad of thy saluacion.

2 There is no man holy as the LORDE, for without the is nothinge, and there is no coforte like vnto oure God.

3 Let go yor greate boostinge of hie thynges, let go out of youre mouth that olde byworde: for the LORDE is a God yt knoweth all thynges, & he hath set all workes in order.

4 The bowe of the mightie is broken, and the weake are gyrded aboute with strength.

5 They that were fylled afore, are solde for bred: and they that were hongrie, are satisfied: vntyll the baren bare seuen, and tyll she that had many childe, was become weake.

6 The Lorde slayeth, and geueth life: he ledeth vnto hell, and bryngeth out agayne.

7 The LORDE maketh poore and maketh riche: He bryngeth lowe and exalteth.

8 He taketh vp the neady out of the dust, and lifteth vp ye poore out of the myre, that he maye set them amonge the prynces, and to let them inheret the seate of honour: for the foundacions and corners of the worlde are the LORDES, and he hath set the compase of the earth theron.

9 He shall preserue the fete of his sayntes, but ye vngodly shal be put to sylece in darnesses. For there is no ma that can do oughte of his owne power.

10 The LORDES enemies shal be put in feare before him, he shal thoder vpo the in heaue. The LORDE shall iudge the endes of the worlde, & shal geue strenght vnto his kynge, & shall exalte the horne of his anoynted.

11 Elcana wente his waye to Ramath vnto his house. And the childe became the LORDES mynister before Eli the prest.

12 But Elis sonnes were the childe of Belial, and knewe not the LORDE,

13 ner the dutye of the prestes vnto the people: but whan eny man wolde offre oughte, the prestes boye came, whyle the flesh was seethinge, and had a thre forked fleshoke in his hande,

14 and thrust it in to the cauldron, or ketell, or panne, or pot: and loke what he drue forth with the fleshoke, that toke the prest therof. Thus dyd they vnto all Israel, which came thither vnto Silo.

15 Like wyse, or euer they burned the fatt, the prestes lad came, and sayde vnto him that broughte the offerynge: Geue me the flesh, that I maye roste it for the prest, for he wyl receaue no sodden flesh of ye, but rawe.

16 Yf eny man sayde then vnto him: Let the fat burne as it oughte to do this daye, and afterwarde take what thine hert desyreth, then sayde he vnto him: Thou shalt geue it me euen now: yf no, I wyl take it from the by violece.

17 Therefore was the synne of ye childe very greate before the LORDE, for ye people spake euell of ye meatofferynge of ye LORDE.

18 But Samuel was a mynister before the LORDE, and the childe was gyrded with an ouer body cote of lynnyn.

19 His mother also made him a litle cote of sylke, and broughte it vp vnto him at couenient tymes, wha she wente vp with hir husbnde to offer ye offerynge in due season.

20 And Eli blessed Elcana & his wife, and sayde: The LORDE geue the sede of this woman, for this good that thou hast lent vnto the LORDE. And they wete vnto their place.

21 And the LORDE vysited Anna, so that she coceaude and bare thre sonnes and two daughters: but the childe Samuel grewe vp with the LORDE.

22 As for Eli, he was very olde, and herde of all that his sonnes dyd vnto all Israel, and how they laye with the wemen that serued God before the dore of the tabernacle of witness, 23 and he sayde vnto them: wherfore do ye this? For I heare of youre euell consuercion of all this people.

24 Not so my childe, this is no good reporte that I heare, ye cause the people of the LORDE to offende.

25 Yf eny ma synne agaynst a man, the iudge ca redresse it. But yf eny ma synne agaynst ye LORDE, who can redresse it? Neuertheles they herkened not vnto the voyce of their father, for the LORDES wyll was to slaye them.

26 But the childe Samuel wente and grewe vp, & was accepted of the LORDE & of me.

27 There came a man of God to Eli, and sayde vnto him: Thus sayeth the LORDE: I shewed my selfe vnto thy fathers house, whan they were yet in Egipte vnder ye house of Pharao, 28 and chose him there vnto my selfe before all the trybes of Israel, for the presthode, that he shulde offer vpon myne altare, and burne incense, and weere the ouerbody cote before me, and vnto thy fathers house I gaue all the offeringes of the children of Israel.

29 Why layest thou thy selfe then agaynst my sacrifices and meatofferynges, which I commaunded (to offer) in the habitacion: and thou honourest thy sonnes more then me, that ye mighte fede youre selues with the firstlinges of all the meatofferynges of my people of Israel?

30 Therefore sayeth the LORDE God of Israel: I haue spoken, that thy house and thy fathers house shulde walke before me for euer. But now sayeth the LORDE: That be farre fro me. But who so euer honoureth me, him wil I honor also: as for those yt despise me, they shal not be regarded.

31 Beholde, the tyme shal come, that I wyll breake thyne arme in two, and the arme of thy fathers house, so that there shal no oldeman be in thy house.

32 And thou shalt se thine aduersaries in the habitacion, in all the good of Israel, and there shal neuer be olde man in thy fathers house.

33 Yet wyll I not rote out euery man of the fro myne altare, but yt thyne eyes maye be consumed, & that yi soule maye be sory: & a greate multitude of thy house shal dye, whan they are come to be men.

34 And this shalbe a token vnto the, that shal come vpon thy two sonnes Ophni and Phineas: They shall both dye in one daye.

35 But vnto my selfe I wyll rayse vp a faithfull prest, which shal do acordinge as it is in my hert & in my soule: vnto him wyll I buylde a sure house, that he maye allwaye walke before myne anoynted.

36 And who so euer remayneth of thy house, shall come and worships him for a syluer peny and for a pece of bred, and shall saye: I praye the leaue me to one prestes parte, that I maye eate a morsell of bred.

Chapter 3

1 And whan the childe Samuel mynistred vnto the LORDE vnder Eli, the worde of ye LORDE was deare at the same tyme, nether was there eny sure & manifest vision.

2 And it fortunated at the same tyme, that Eli laye in his place, and his eyes beganne to be dymme, so that he coulde not se.

3 And Samuel had layed him downe in ye temple of the LORDE (where the Arke of God was) before ye lampe of God was put out.

4 And the LORDE called Samuel. He answered: Beholde, here am I.

5 And he ranne vnto Eli, & sayde: Beholde, here am I, thou hast called me. But he saide: I haue not called the, go thy waye agayne, and laye the downe to slepe. And he wente his waye, and layed him downe to slepe.

6 The LORDE called againe: Samuel. And Samuel arose, & wente vnto Eli, & sayde: Beholde, here am I, thou hast called me. Neuertheles he sayde: My sonne, I haue not called the. So thy waye agayne, and laye the downe to slepe.

7 As for Samuel, he knewe not the LORDE as yet, & the worde of ye LORDE was not yet shewed vnto him.

8 And ye LORDE called Samuel ye thirde tyme. And he arose, & wente vnto Eli, & sayde: Beholde, here am I, thou hast called me. Then perceaued Eli yt the LORDE called ye childe, 9 & he sayde vnto him: Go thy waye agayne, & laye the downe to slepe: and yf the LORDE call the eny more, then saye: Speake LORDE, for yi seruauant heareth. Samuel wete his waye, and layed him downe in his place.

10 The came ye LORDE, & stode, and called like as afore: Samuel, Samuel. And Samuel sayde: Speake (LORDE) for thy seruauant heareth.

11 And the LORDE saide vnto Samuel: Beholde, I do a thinge in Israel, yt who so euer shall heare it, both his eares shal glowe.

12 In yt daie will I rayse vp vpon Eli all yt I haue spoke cocernynge his house. I will take it in hande, & perfourme it:

13 for I haue tolde him, yt I wilbe Iudge ouer his house for euer, because of the wickednes, yt he knewe how shamefully his childe behaued the selues, and hath not once loked sowerly therto.

14 Therefore haue I sworne vnto ye house of Eli, yt this wickednes of ye house of Eli shall not be recocyled nether wt sacrifice ner wt meatoffrynge for euer.

15 And Samuel laye vnto ye morow, & opened the dores of the house of the LORDE. But Samuel was afrayed to tell the vysion vnto Eli.

16 Then Eli called him & sayde: Samuel my sonne. He answered: Beholde, here am I.

17 He sayde: What is ye worde yt the LORDE hath spoke vnto the? hyde it not fro me. God do this & that vnto ye, yf thou hyde oughte fro me, of all that he hath talked wt the.

18 Then Samuel tolde him alltogether, & hyd nothinge from him. He sayde: It is the LORDE, let him do what pleaseth him.

19 Samuel grewe vp, & the LORDE was wt him, & there fell none of all his wordes vpo the earth.

20 And all Israel fro Dan vnto Bersaba, knewe yt Samuel was faithfull to be a prophet of the LORDE.

21 And the LORDE appeared agayne at Silo: for the LORDE shewed him selfe vnto Samuel at Silo, thorow the worde of the LORDE.

Chapter 4

1 And all Israel spake of Samuel. And Israel wente forth to the battayll against the Philistynes, & pitched besyde the. Helpe stone: As for the Philistynes, they pitched at Aphek,

2 and prepared them selues agaynst Israel. And whan the battayll beganne, the hoost was deuyded, so that Israel was smytte before the enemies, & in the edge in the felde they slewe aboute a foure thousande men.

3 And whan the people came in to the hoost, the Elders of Israel sayde: Wherfore hath the LORDE caused vs to be smytten this daie before the Philistynes? Let vs take vnto vs the Arke of the LORDES couenauant from Silo, & let it come amoge vs, that it maye helpe vs from the hande of oure enemies.

4 And the people sent vnto Silo, & caused to fet thece the Arke of ye couenauant of the LORDE Zebaoth, that sytthett vpon the Cherubins. And with the Arke of the couenauant of God there were the two sonnes of Eli, Ophni and Phineas.

5 And whan the Arke of the couenauant of the LORDE came in to the hoost, all Israel shouted wt a greate shoute, so that the earth sounded withall.

6 But whan the Philistynes herde ye noyse of ye shoute, they sayde: what noyse is this of soch greate shoutinge in the tentes of the Hebrues? And whan they perceaued yt the Arke of the LORDE was come in to the hoost, 7 they were afrayed & sayde: God is come in to the hoost. And they sayde morouer: Wo vnto vs, for it hath not bene thus afore tyme.

8 Wo vnto vs. Who wil delyuer vs fro the hande of these hye goddes? These are the goddes that smote Egipte wt all maner of plages in the wyldernesse.

9 Be stronge now and manly ye Philistynes, that ye serue not the Hebrues as they haue serued you. Be manly and fighte.

10 Then foughte the Philistynes, & Israel was smytten, & euery one fled vnto his tete, & there was a very greate slaughter, so that there fell of Israel thirte thousande fote me, 11 & the Arke of God was take, & the two sonnes of Eli, Ophni and Phineas dyed.

12 Then rane there one of Ben Iamin out of the fore fronte of the battayll, & came vnto Silo the same daye, & had his clothes rente, and had earth vpo his heade.

13 And whan he came in, Heli sat vpon the seate, that he mighte loke towarde the waye: for his herte was fearfull aboute ye Arke of God. And whan the man came in to the cite, he tolde it forth: and all the cite cried.

14 And whan Eli herde ye noyse of the cryege, he axed: What noyse of busynes is this? The man came haistely, and tolde Eli.

15 (As for Eli, he was fourescore and eightene yeare olde, and his eyes were dymme, so that he coulde not se.)

16 The man sayde vnto Eli: I come and am fled this daye out of the hoost. He sayde: How is it my sonne?

17 Then answered the tydinge bringer, & sayde: Israel is fled before the Philistynes, and a greate slaughter hath there bene amonge the people, & thy two sonnnes Ophni & Phineas are deed, yee & the Arke of God is take awaye.

18 Whan he had made mencion of the Arke of God, he fell downe bacwarde from the seate by the gate, and brake his neck, and dyed: for he was olde, & an heuy man. He iudged Israel fortie yeares.

19 The wife of his sonne Phineas was wt childe, & shulde shortly be delyuered, whan she herde the tydinges yt the Arke of God was taken, and yt hir brother in lawe and hir husbade were deed, she bowed hir selfe and trauayled: for hir payne came vpon her.

20 And whan she was now at the poynte of death, the wemen that stode by her, sayde: Feare not, thou hast a yoge sonne. But she gaue no answere, nether regarded it, 21 and she called the childe Icabod, and sayde: The glory is gone from Israel, because the Arke of God was taken awaye, and hir brother in lawe and hir husbade.

22 And she sayde morouer: The glory is gone from Israel, for the Arke of God is take awaye

Chapter 5

1 As for the Arke of God, the Philistynes toke it and broughte it from the stone of helpe vnto A dod

2 in to the house of Dagon, and set it besyde Dagon.

3 And whan they of Asdod rose vp early on the morowe, they founde Dagon lyenge on his face vpon the earth, before the Arke of the LORDE. But they toke vp Dagon, and set him agayne in his place.

4 Neuertheles whan they rose vp early on the nexte morowe, they founde Dagon lyenge on his face agayne vpon the earth before the Arke of the LORDE: but his heade and both his hades hewen of vpon the thresholde, so that the block laie there onely.

5 Therefore the prestes of Dagon, and all they that go in to his house, treade not vpo the thresholde of Dagon at Asdod vnto this daye.

6 But the hande of the LORDE was heuy vpon them of Asdod, and destroyed them, and smote Asdod and all the borders therof in secrete places.

7 Whan the men of Asdod sawe that they were so plaged, they sayde: Let not the Arke of the God of Israel tary with vs, for his hande is to harde vpo vs & vpon our god Dagon.

8 And they sent forth and gathered all the prynces of the Philistynes vnto them, and sayde: What shal we do with the Arke of the God of Israel? Then answered they of Geth: Let the Arke of the God of Israel be borne aboute.

9 And they caried the Arke of the God of Israel rounde aboute. But wha they bare it aboute, there was a very greate rumoure in the cite thorow the hande of the LORDE, and smote the people of the cite, from the smallest vnto the greatest, and destroyed them in the secrete places.

10 Then sent they the Arke of the LORDE vnto Ekron. But wha the Arke of the LORDE came vnto Ekron, they of Ekron cried: They haue caried the Arke of God aboute vnto me, to slaye me and my people.

11 Then sente they forth, and gathered all ye prynces of the Philistynes together, and sayde: Sende awaye the Arke of the God of Israel agayne vnto hir place, that it slaye not me & my people: for there is a very greate rumoure with the deed in all the cite, and the hande of God is there.

12 And the people that dyed not, were smytten in secrete places, so that the noyse of the cite wete vp vnto heauen.

Chapter 6

1 Thus was the Arke of the LORDE in the londe of the Philistynes seuen monethes.

2 And the Philistynes called their prestes and soithsayers, and sayde: What shal we do with the Arke of the LORDE? Shewe vs, wher with shal we sende it vnto hir place?

3 They sayde: Yf ye wyll sende awaye the Arke of the God of Israel, sende it not awaye emptye, but geue a trespaece offerynge: so shal ye be made whole, and ye shal knowe, why his hande departeth not from you.

4 They sayde: What is the trespaece offeringe that we shall geue him? They answered: Fyue hynder partes of golde, and fyue golden myce, acordinge to the nombre of the fyue prynces of ye Philistynes. For there hath bene one maner of plage vpon you all, and vpon youre prynces.

5 Therefore must ye make youre hynder partes of one fasshion and youre myce, which haue destroyed youre londe, that ye maye geue the God of Israel the honoure: peraduenture his hade shal be the lighter vpon you and vpon youre God, and vpon youre londe.

6 Why harden ye youre hert, as the Egipcians and Pharao hardened their hert? Whan he shewed him selfe vpon them dyd not they let them departe to go their waye?

7 Go to now therefore, and make a new cart, and take two mylke kyne, vpon ye which there neuer came yock, and yocke them to ye cart, and let their calues tary behynde them at home:

8 and take ye the Arke of the LORDE and laye it vpon the cart: and the Iewels of golde that ye geue him for a trespaece offeringe put in a coffer beside it, & sende it awaye and let it go.

9 And loke well: yf it go the waie of hir awne coaste BethSemes, the hath he done vs all this greate euell: Yf no, then shal ye knowe that his hande hath not touched vs, but yt it is happened vnto vs by chauce.

10 The men dyd so, and toke two yonge mylke kyne, and yocked them to a cart, and helde their calues at home,

11 and layed the Arke of the LORDE vpon the cart, and the coffer with the golden myce, and with the ymages of their disease.

12 And the kyne wente straight waye vnto BethSemes vpon one hye strete, and wente on bleatynge, and turned nether to the righte hande ner to the lefte. And the prynces of the Philistynes wente after them vnto ye coast of BethSemes.

13 The BethSamites were euen reapyng downe their wheate haruest in the valley, and lyfte vp their eyes, and sawe the Arke, and reioysed to se it.

14 The cart came in to the felde of Iosua the BethSemite, and there it stode styll. And there was a greate stone, and they claued the tymbre of the cart, and offred the kyne vnto the LORDE for a burntofferynge.

15 But the Leuites toke downe the Arke of the LORDE, and the coffer that was by it, wherin the Iewels of golde were, and set the vpon the greate stone. The men of BethSemes offred burntofferynge, and other offerynge also vnto the LORDE the same daye.

16 And whan the fyue prynces of the Philistynes had sene it, they departed agayne the same daye towarde Ekron.

17 These are the golden diseases, that the Philistynes offred for a trespaece offerynge vnto the LORDE: Asdod one, Gasa one: Ascalon one, Gath one, and Ekron one:

18 and golden myce, acordinge to the nombre of all the cities of the Philistynes amonge the fyue prynces, from the walled cite vnto the vyllage, and vnto the greate playne felde, whervpon they set the Arke of the LORDE (which was) vnto this daye vpon the felde of Iosua the BethSemite.

19 And certaine of BethSemes were slaine because they had sene ye Arke of the LORDE, and he slewe fyfthe thousande and seuentye men of the people. Then mourned the people, because the LORDE had done so greate a slaughter in the people.

20 And the men at BethSemes sayde: Who maye stode before the LORDE so holy a God? And to who shal he go fro vs?

21 And they sent messaungers to ye inhabiters of Kiriath Iearim, saiege: The Philistynes haue brought the Arke of God agayne, come downe, & fetch it vp vnto you.

Chapter 7

1 So the men of Kiriath Iearim came downe, & fetched vp ye Arke of ye LORDE, & brought it in to ye house of Abinadab at Gibe, & they consecrated Eleasar his sonne, yt he might kepe ye Arke.

2 And fro yt daye that the Arke of ye LORDE abode at KiriathIearim, ye tyme extended forth so longe tyll it came to twentye yeares: and all the house of Israel wepte after the LORDE.

3 But Samuel sayde vnto all the house of Israel: Yf ye turne you withall youre hert vnto the LORDE, then put awaye from you the straunge goddes and Astaroth, and directe youre hert vnto the LORDE and serue him onely, so shall he delyeur you out of the hande of the Philistynes.

4 Then the childre of Israel put awaye Baalim and Astaroth from them, and serued the LORDE onely.

5 Samuel saide: Gather all Israel together vnto Mispa, that I maye praye for you vnto the LORDE.

6 And they came together vnto Mispa, and drue water, & poured it out before the LORDE, and fasted the same daye, and there they sayde: We haue synned vnto the LORDE. So Samuel iudged the children of Israel at Mispa.

7 But whan the Philistynes herde that ye children of Israel were come together vnto Mispa, the prynces of the Philistynes wete vp against Israel. Whan ye childre of Israel herde that, they were afrayed of ye Philistynes, 8 & sayde vnto Samuel: Cesse not to crye vnto the LORDE oure God for vs, yt he maie helpe vs out of the hande of ye Philistynes.

9 Samuel toke a fat lambe, & offred an whole burntofferynge vnto the LORDE, & cried vnto the LORDE for Israel, and the LORDE herde him.

10 And whyle Samuel was offerynge ye burnt sacrifice, ye Philistines came to fight agaynst Israel. But the LORDE thondred a thonder vpon the Philistynes the same daye & discofyted the, so yt they were smyte before Israel.

11 The wente ye men of Israel forth, & chaced ye Philistynes, & smote them till vnder BethCar.

12 Then toke Samuel a stone, & set it vp betwene Mispa & Sen, & called it ye Help stone, & sayde: Hither to hath the LORDE helped vs.

13 Thus were the Philistynes brought downe, & came nomore within the border of Israel. And ye hade of ye LORDE was against the Philistynes, as longe as Samuel lyued.

14 So Israel gat the cities agayne, that the Philistynes had conquered, fro Ekron vnto Gath, with the borders therof, those did Israel rescue out of the hande of the Philistynes: & Israel had peace wt the Amorites.

15 Samuel iudged Israel as loge as he liued,

16 & wete aboute euery yeare vnto Bethel

& Gilgal & Mispa: & wha he had iudged Israel in all these places,
17 he came agayne vnto Ramath for there was his house, & there he iudged Israel, & builded an altare there vnto ye LORDE.

Chapter 8

1 Bvt whan Samuel waxed olde, he set his sonnes to be iudges ouer Israel.

2 His firstborne sonne was called Ioel & the secode Abia, & they were iudges at Bersaba.

3 Neuertheles his sonnes walked not in his wayes, but enclyned vnto couetousnes, & toke giftes, & wraysted the lawe.

4 Then all ye Elders in Israel gathered the selues together, & came to Ramath vnto Samuel,

5 & saide vnto him: Beholde, thou art waxen olde, & thy sonnes walke not in yi wayes, set a kynge now ouer vs therefore, to iudge vs, as all ye Heithe haue.

6 The was Samuel displeased wha they sayde: Geue vs a kynge, to iudge as. And Samuel prayed before the LORDE.

7 The LORDE saide vnto Samuel: Herken vnto the voice of the people in all yt they haue sayde vnto the. For they haue not refused the, but me, yt I shulde not be kinge ouer them.

8 They do vnto the as they haue done euer, sence the daie yt I brought them out of the londe of Egipte vnto this daye, and haue forsaken me, and serued other goddess.

9 Herke now therefore vnto their voyce. Yet testifye vnto them, and shewe them the lawe of the kynge that shall raigne ouer them.

10 And Samuel tolde all the wordes of the LORDE vnto ye people, that requyred a kinge of him.

11 This shal be the lawe of the kynge yt shal raigne ouer you: Yor sonnes shall he take for his charettes, and for horsmen to runne before his charettes, 12 and to be rulers & captaynes, to be plowemen to tyll his londe and to be reapers in his haruest, and to make his harness, and soch thinges as belonge to his charettes.

13 As for yor doughters, he shall take the, to be Apotecaries, cokes and bakers

14 Youre best londe and vynyardes, and oyle gardens shall he take, and geue vnto his seruantes:

15 Of youre sedes also and viniardes shal he take the Tithes, & geue vnto his chaberlaynes and seruantes.

16 And youre seruantes and youre maydes, and youre best yonge men, and youre asses shal he take, and do his busynes withall.

17 Of youre flockes shal he take the Tithes, and ye shal be his seruantes.

18 Whan ye shal crye then at the same tyme ouer youre kynge, whom ye haue chosen you, the LORDE shall not heare you at the same tyme.

19 Neuerthelesse the people refused to heare the voyce of Samuel, and sayde:

Not so, but there shall be a kynge ouer vs, 20 yt we maye be as all other Heithe, yt or kynge maie iudge vs, & go forth before vs, and gouerne oure warres.

21 The herkened Samuel vnto all yt ye people sayde, & tolde it before ye eares of the LORDE.

22 The LORDE sayde vnto the: Herken thou vnto their voyce, and make them a kynge. And Samuel sayde vnto the men of Israel: Go youre waye euery one vnto his cite.

Chapter 9

1 There was a man of Ben Iamin named Cis, the sonne of Abiel, the sonne of Zeor, the sonne of Bethorah, ye sonne of Apiah, the sonne of a man of Iemini, a valeaunt man,

2 which had a sonne named Saul, which was so goodly a yonge man, that there was not a goodlier amonge the children of Israel, higher by the heade then all the people.

3 Cis the father of Saul had lost his asses, and he sayde vnto Saul his sonne: Take one of the children with the, get the vp, go thy waye, aud seke the asses.

4 And he wente his waye thorow mount Ephraim, and thorow the lode of Solisa, and founde them not. They wente thorow the lode of Saalim, & there they were not. They passed thorow ye lode of Iemini, & foude the not.

5 But wha they came in to the londe of Zuph, Saul sayde vnto the childe that was with him: Come, let vs go home agayne, lest my father let go the asses, and take care for vs.

6 He sayde: Beholde, here is an honorable man of God in this cite, all that he sayeth, commeth to passe. Let vs go thither now, perauenture he maye shewe vs oure waye which we go.

7 But Saul saide vnto his childe: Though we shulde go, what brynge we the man? For the bred is gone out of or walet, and els haue we no gifte to brynge the man of God, what haue we?

8 The childe answered agayne, and sayde: Beholde, I haue the fourth parte of a syluer Sycle by me, ye same wyll we geue the man of God, that he maye shewe vs oure waye.

9 (Afore tyme in Israel, whan a man wente to axe counsell at the LORDE, he sayde: Come, let vs go to the Seer: for they that now are called prophetes, were called Seers afore tyme).

10 Saul sayde vnto his childe: Thou hast well spoken, come let vs go. And whan they wente vnto the cite where the man of God was,

11 and came vp to the cite, they founde damsels which were gone forth to drawe water, vnto them they sayde: Is the Seer here?

12 They answered them and sayde: Yee. Beholde, he is there, make haist, for he came in to the cite this daye, because the people haue a sacrifice to do to daye in the hie place.

13 Whan ye come in the cite, ye shal fynde him, afore he go vp to the hie place for to eate: for the people wyll not eate tyll he come. For he shall blesse the offerynge, then shal they eate that are called. Therfore go yor waie vp, for eue now shal ye finde him

14 And whan they came vp to the cite, and were euen in the myddes of the cite, beholde, Samuel came forth in their waye, and wolde go vp to the hie place. 15 (But the LORDE had opened Samuels eare the daye afore, or euer Saul came, and sayde:

16 Tomorow aboute this tyme wyll I sende a man vnto the out of the lode of BenIamin, him shalt thou anynte to be pryncy ouer my people of Israel, that he maye delyuer my people from the hande of the Philistynes: for I haue loked vpon my people, and their crye is come before me.)

17 Now whan Samuel behelde Saul, the LORDE answered him: Io, yt is the man of whom I tolde the, that he shulde raigne ouer my people.

18 Then came Saul vnto Samuel vnder ye gate, and sayde: Tell me (I praye the) where is the Seers house?

19 Samuel answered Saul, and sayde: I am the Seer. Go vp before me vnto the hie place: for ye shall eate with me to daye, tomorow wyll I lett the go, and all that is in thyne hert, wyll I tell the:

20 and as for the Asses which were lost thre dayes agoo, care not thou for them, for they are founde. And to whom shall belonge all that is pleasaunt in Israel? Shall it not belonge vnto the and to all thy fathers house?

21 Saul answered: Am not I a sonne of Iemini, and of the smallest trybe, and my kynred the leest amonge all the kynreds of ye trybe of BenIamin? Why speakest thou so the vnto me?

22 Samuel toke Saul & his childe & brought them in to the perler where they shulde eate, and satt them aboute those that were called, of whom there were aboute a thirtie men.

23 And Samuel sayde vnto the coke: Geue me the porcion that I gaue the, and bad the kepe it by the.

24 Then the coke toke vp a shulder, and bare it forth, and set it before Saul. And (Samuel) sayde: Beholde, this is left, laye it before the, and eate: for it was kepte for the agaynst this tyme, whan I called the people. Thus Saul ate with Samuel the same daye.

25 And whan they were gone downe from the hie place vnto the cite, he talked with Saul in the chamber.

26 And they rose vp early on the morow. And whan the mornynge sprynge arose, Samuel called Saul in the chamber, and sayde: Vp, yt I maye sende the thy waye. And Saul gat him vp: & they both wete forth together, he and Samuel.

27 And whan they came downe to the ende of the cite, Samuel sayde vnto Saul: Speake vnto ye childe, that he go on forth before vs, but stode thou styll now, that I maie shewe the what God hath sayde:

Chapter 10

1 Then toke Samuel a glasse of oyle, and poured it vpo his heade, and kissed him, and sayde: Seist thou that the LORDE hath anoynted the, to be the prince ouer his enheritauce?

2 Whan thou goest now fro me, thou shalt fynde two men besyde Rachels graue in the coast of Benlamin at Zelzah, which shal saie vnto the: The asses are founde, whom thou wentest to seke: and beholde, thy father hath put the asses out of his mynde, and taketh thoughte for the, and sayeth: What shall I do for my sonne?

3 And whan thou goest on forth from thence, thou shalt come to the Oke of Thabor, there shall thre men fynde the, which go vp vnto God towarde Bethel: one beareth thre kiddes, another thre loaves of bred the thyrde a bottel with wyne:

4 and they shall salute the, and geue the two loaves, which thou shalt take of their hande.

5 After that shalt thou come to the hyll of God, where the Philistynes watch is: and wha thou comest there in to the cite, there shall mete the a company of prophetes commynge downe from the hie place, and before them a Psaltery, and tabret, a pype and a harpe, and they them selues prophecience.

6 And the sprete of the LORDE shall come vpon the, and thou shalt prophecye with them, and shalt be chaunged in to another man.

7 Whan these tokens now come vnto the, then do what so euer commeth vnder thyne hande: for God is with the.

8 Thou shalt go downe before me vnto Gilgall: Beholde, thither wyl I come downe vnto the, that thou mayest offre burntofferynges and deedofferynges. Seuen dayes shalt thou tarye till I come to the, and shewe the what thou shuldest do. 9 And whan he turned his shulder to go from Samuel, God chaunged him another hert, and all these tokes came the same daye.

10 And whan they came vnto the hill, beholde, there met him a company of prophetes and the sprete of God came vpon him, so that he prophecied amonge them.

11 But wha they which knewe him before, sawe him that he prophecied with the prophetes, they sayde all amonge them selues: What is happened vnto the sonne of Cis? Is Saul also amonge the prophetes?

12 And one yt was there, answered and sayde: Who is their father? Hereof came the prouerbe: Is Saul also amonge the prophetes?

13 And wha he had left of prophecience, he came vp to the hyll.

14 Sauls vnclie sayde vnto him and to his childe: Whither wente ye? They answered: To seke the asses. And whan we sawe that they were awaye, we came vnto Samuel.

15 Then sayde Sauls vnclie: Tell me, what sayde Samuel vnto you?

16 Saul answered his vncl: He tolde vs, yt the asses were foude. But of ye kyngdome he tolde him nothinge what Samuel had sayde.

17 Samuel called the people together vnto the LORDE to Mispa,

18 and spake vnto the children of Israel: Thus saieyth ye LORDE the God of Israel: I broughte Israel out of Egipte, and delyuered you from the hande of ye Egipcians, and from the hande of all the kyngdomes that oppressed you.

19 But now haue ye refused yor God, which hath helped you out of all youre sorowes and troubles, & ye haue saide vnto him: Set a kinge ouer vs. Well, stonde ye now before ye LORDE acordinge to youre trybes and kynreds.

20 Now whan Samuel had brought forth all the trybes of Israel, the trybe of Benlamin was taken.

21 And whan he had broughte forth the trybe of Benlamin with his kynreds, the kynred of Matri was take, & Saul the sonne of Cis was take. And they sought him, but they founde him not.

22 Then axed they further at the LORDE, whether he was for to come thither. The LORDE answered: Beholde, he hath hyd him selfe amonge ye vessels.

23 Then ranne they thither, and fetched him. And whan he stode amonge the people, he was hygher by the heade then all the people.

24 And Samuel sayde vnto all the people: There se ye him whom the LORDE hath chosen, for in all the people there is none like him. Then gaue all the people a shoute, and sayde: God saue the new kyng.

25 Samuel tolde the people all the lawe of the kyngdome, and wrote it in a boke, and layed it before the LORDE. And Samuel let all the people go, euery one to his awne house.

26 And Saul wente home also vnto Gibeaa, and there wente with him one parte of the hoost, whose hertes God had touched.

27 But the childre of Belial sayde: What shal this felowe helpe vs, and despysed him, & broughte him no presente. But he made him as though he herde it not.

Chapter 11

1 Nahas ye Ammonite wete vp & layed sege vnto Iabes in Gilead. And all the men of Iabes sayde vnto Nahas: Be at one with vs, & we wyl serue the.

2 But Nahas ye Ammonite answered them: I wil make a couenauit with you, of this condicion, that I maye thrust out all youre right eyes, and put you to shame amonge all Israel.

3 Then sayde all the Elders of Iabes vnto him: Geue vs seuen dayes respyte, that we maye sende messaungers into all ye coastes of Israel: Yf there be then no sauioure, we wyl go forth vnto the.

4 So the messaungers came vnto Gibeaa of Saul, and spake this before the eares of the people. Then all ye people lifte vp their voyce, and wepte.

5 And beholde, Saul came after the oxen out of the felde, and sayde: What ayleth the people that they wepe? So they tolde him the earande of the men of Iabes.

6 Then came the sprete of God vpon him, whan he had herde these wordes, and his wrath was sore moued,

7 and he toke a couple of oxen, and hewed them in sunder, and sent them in to all the coastes of Israel by the messaungers, sayenge: Who so euer goeth not forth after Saul and Samuel, his oxen shalbe thus dealte withall. Then fell the feare of the LORDE vpon the people, so that they wente forth like as one man, 8 and they were tolde at Basek, and of the childre of Israel there were thre hundreth thousande men, and thirtie thousande of the children of Iuda.

9 And they spake vnto the messaungers that were come: Saye thus to the men of Iabes in Gilead: Tomorrow shal ye haue helpe, whan ye Sonne is at the whotest. Whan ye messaungers came and tolde this to the men of Iabes, they were glad.

10 And the men of Iabes sayde: Tomorrow wyl we come forth vnto you, that ye maye do vnto vs, what so euer it pleaseth you.

11 And on ye nexte morow Saul set the people in thre partes, and came in to the hoost aboute the mornynge watch, and smote the Ammonites tyll the daye was at the whotest. As for those yt remayned, they were so scatred, that two of them abode not together.

12 Then sayde the people vnto Samuel: Where are they that sayde: Shulde Saul raigne ouer vs? Delyuer vs here the men, that we maye put them to death.

13 But Saul sayde: There shal noman dye this daye, for to daye hath the LORDE geuen health in Israel.

14 Samuel sayde vnto the people: Come, let vs go vnto Gilgall, and renue the kyngdome there.

15 Then wente all the people vnto Gilgall, and there they made Saul kinge before the LORDE at Gilgal, and offred deedofferings before the LORDE. And Saul with all the men of Israel reioysed there greatly.

Chapter 12

1 Samuel sayde vnto all Israel: Beholde, I haue herkened vnto youre voyce in all that ye sayde vnto me, and haue made a kynge ouer you.

2 And now lo, there goeth youre kyng before you. As for me, I am waxen olde and graye heered, and my sonnes are with you: and I haue gone before you fro my youth vp vnto this daye.

3 Beholde, here am I: answer ye agaynst me before the RORDE and his anoynted, yf I haue taken eny mans ox or asse, yf I haue done eny man violence or wronge, If I haue oppressed eny ma, yf I haue receaued a gifte of eny mans hande, and kepte it secretly, I wil restore it you agayne.

4 They saide: Thou hast done vs nether violence ner wronge, nether oppressed, ner taken ought of eny mans hande.

5 He sayde: The LORDE be witness agaynst you, and so be his anoynted this daye, that ye haue founde nothinge in my hade. They saide: Yee they shalbe witnesses.

6 And Samuel sayde vnto the people: The LORDE which made Moses and Aaron, and broughte youre fathers out of the londe of Egipte (is here present.)

7 Stode forth now therfore, that I maye iudge you before the LORDE ouer the righteousnes of the LORDE, which he hath done for you and youre fathers.

8 Whan Iacob was come in to Egipte, youre fathers cryed vnto the LORDE. And he sent Moses and Aaron to brynge youre fathers out of Egipte, and to cause them for to dwell in this place.

9 But whan they forgat the LORDE their God, he solde them vnder the power of Sissera, the captayne at Hazor and vnder the power of the Philistynes and vnder the power of the kinge of the Moabites, which foughte agaynst them.

10 But they cried vnto the LORDE, and sayde: We haue synned, in that we haue forsaken the LORDE, and serued Baalim and Astaroth. But now deliuer vs from the hande of oure enemies, and we wyl serue the.

11 Then the LORDE sent Ierubaal, Bedan, Iephthae, and Samuel, & delyuered you from youre enemies rounde aboute, and caused you to dwell safe.

12 But whan ye sawe that Nahas the kyng of the children of Ammon came agaynst you ye sayde vnto me: Not thou, but a kyng shal raigne ouer vs, where as notwithstandinge youre God was youre kyng.

13 Now, there haue ye youre kyng, who ye haue chosen and desyred: for lo, the LORDE hath set a kinge ouer you.

14 Yf ye shal feare the LORDE now, and serue him, and herken vnto his voice, and not be dishobedient vnto the mouth of the LORDE, then shall both ye and youre kyng that raigneth ouer you, folowe ye LORDE youre God.

15 But yf ye herken not vnto ye voyce of the LORDE, but be dishobedient vnto his mouth, then shal the hande of the LORDE be agaynst you, and agaynst youre fathers.

16 Stonde forth now also, and beholde this greate thinge, that the LORDE shal do before youre eyes.

17 Is not now the wheate haruest? Yet wyl I call vpo the LORDE, so that he shal cause it thonder and rayne, that ye shall knowe and se the greate euell, which ye haue done in the sight of the LORDE, in that ye haue desyred to haue a kyng.

18 And whan Samuel called vpon the LORDE, the LORDE caused it to thoder and raine the same daye. Then all the people feared the LORDE greatly and Samuel,

19 and they sayde all vnto Samuel: Praie thou vnto the LORDE thy God for thy seruauntes, that we dye not: for beside oure sinnes we haue done this euell also, that we haue desyred vnto vs a kinge.

20 Samuel sayde vnto the people: Feare not, ye haue done all this euell in dede. Neuertheles departe not backe from the LORDE, but serue the LORDE with all youre hert, 21 and go not asyde after vanite, for it profyteth you nothinge, and can not delyuer you, in so moch as it is but a vayne thinge.

22 For the LORDE shall not forsake his people because of his greate names sake: for the LORDE hath begonne to make you a people vnto him selfe.

23 But God forbyd that I shulde synne so vnto the LORDE, to ceasse from prayenge for you, and from teachinge you the good & righteous waye.

24 Feare ye the LORDE therfore, and serue him faithfully with all yor hert: for ye haue sene, how greate thinges he doth vnto you.

25 But yf ye do wickedly, both ye & youre kyng shal perishe.

Chapter 13

1 Saul had bene kyng one yeaere, and wha he had raigned ouer Israel two yeaeres,

2 he chose him thre thousande me out of Israel: two thousande were with Saul at Michmas vpon the mount of Bethel, and one thousande with Ionathas at Gibeaa of Benlamin. As for the other people, he let them go euery one vnto his tente.

3 But Ionathas smote ye Philistynes in their awne watch, which was at Gibeaa. That came to ye Philistynes eares. And Saul caused to blowe the trompes in all the londe, & to saye: Let the Hebrues heare.

4 And all Israel herde saye: Saul hath smytten the Philistynes watch, for Israel stanke before the Philistynes. And all the people cried after Saul vnto Gilgal.

5 Then the Philistynes gathered them selues together to fighte wt Israel, thirtie thousande charettes, sixe thousande horsmen, and other people besyde, in nombre as the sonde by the See shore, and wente vp, and pitched at Michmas on the eastsyde of Bethauen.

6 Whan the men of Israel sawe that mysfortune laye vpon the neckes of the (for the people was come therto) they crope in to caues and dennes, in to rockes, and holes and welles.

7 But the Hebrues wente ouer Iordane in to ye lande of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul he was yet at Gilgal, and all the people were fayntharted after him.

8 Then taried he seuen dayes acordinge to the tyme apoynted of Samuel. And whan Samuel came not vnto Gilgal, the people were scatrede abrode from him.

9 Then sayde Saul: Brynge me hither a burntofferinge and deedofferings. And he offred a burntofferynge.

10 But whan he had made an ende of the burntofferynge beholde, Samuel came.

Then wente Saul forth to mete him, that he might salute him.

11 But Samuel sayde: What hast thou done? Saul answered: I sawe that the people was scatered abroad fro me, and thou camest not in due season: and the Philistynes were gathered together at Michmas.

12 Then sayde I. Now shall the Philistynes come downe to me vnto Gilgal, and I haue not besoughte the face of the LORDE: & so I boldened my selfe, & offered a burnt offeringe.

13 Samuel sayde vnto Saul: Thou hast done foolishly, and not kepte the commaundement of the LORDE thy God, which he commaunded the. For (yf thou haddest not done this) he had prospered thy kyngdome vpo Israel for euer:

14 but now shall not thy kyngdome contynue. The LORDE hath soughte him out a man after his owne hert: him hath the LORDE commaunded to be prynde ouer his people, for thou hast not kepte yt the LORDE commaunded ye.

15 And Samuel arose, and wente vp from Gilgal vnto Gibea Ben Iamin. And Saul nombred the people that was founde with him, vpon a sixe hundred men.

16 Saul & his sonne Ionathas, and ye people that was with them, taried at Gibea Ben Iamin: but ye Philistynes had pitched their tentes at Michmas.

17 And out of the hoost of the Philistynes there wente three bondes of men to destroye: one turned the waye towarde Ephraim in to the londe of Sual:

18 another turned towarde the waye of Bethoron: the thirde turned towarde the waye, that reacheth to the valley of Zeboim vnto the wyldernes.

19 But there was not a smyth founde in all the lode of Israel: for ye Philistynes thoughte: The Hebrues mighte happily make swerdes and speares.

20 And all Israel were fayne to go downe to the Philistynes, whan eny man had a plowshare, a mattock, an axe, or a sythe to sharpe:

21 and the edges of the plowshares, and mattocks, & forckes, and axes, were laboured, and the poyntes blont.

22 Now whan the daye of the battayll came, there was nether swerde ner speare founde in the hande of all the people, that was with Saul and Ionathas: but for Saul and Ionathas his sonne there was somewhat founde.

23 And ye Philistynes watch wete out ouer by Michmas.

Chapter 14

1 It fortunated at ye same tyme, yt Ionathas sayde vnto his lad which was his wapen bearer: Come, let vs go ouer to the Philistynes watch yt Iyeth aboute, & he tolde not his father.

2 Saul dwelt at ye ende of Gibea vnder a Pomgranate tre, which was in the suburbe. And the people yt were by him, were vpon a sixe hundred men.

3 And Ahia the sonne of Achitob the brother of Icabod, the sonne of Phineas ye sonne of Eli ye prest of the LORDE at Silo, wayre the ouerboddy cote. But the people knewe not that Ionathas was gone.

4 Betwene the passages where Ionathas soughte to go ouer vnto the Phylistynes watch, there were two hye rockes, the one on the one syde, the other on the other: the one was called Bozez, the other Senne.

5 And ye one laye on the north syde towarde Michmas, and the other on the south syde towarde Gaba.

6 And Ionathas sayde vnto his wapen bearer: Come, let vs go ouer to ye watch of these vncircumcised, peradventure the LORDE shall worke with vs, For it is no harde matter for the LORDE to helpe by many or by fewe.

7 Then answered him his wapen bearer: Do all that is in thine hert, go on thy waie, beholde, I am with the, euen as thine hert wyll.

8 Ionathas sayde: Well than, Whan we are gone ouer to the men, and come within the sighte of them, 9 yf they saye: stonde styll, tyll we come to you, then wyll we stonde styll in oure place, and not go vp to them.

10 But yf they saye: Come vp to vs, we wyll go vp to them, the hath the LORDE deluyered them in to oure hande, and this shalbe a token for vs.

11 Now whan they came both in the sighte of the Philistynes watch, the Philistynes sayde: Se, ye Hebrues are gone out of their holes, that they were crepte in to.

12 And the men in the watch answered Ionathas and his wape bearer, and sayde: Come vp to vs, and we wyll teach you what the matter is. Then sayde Ionathas to his weapen bearer. Come vp after me, the LORDE hath deluyered them into Israels hande.

13 And Ionathas clamme vp with handes and fete, and his wapen bearer after him. And Ionathas smote them downe before him, and his wape bearer slewe behynde him, 14 so that the first slaughter that Ionathas and his wapen bearer dyd, was vpo a twentye men, with in the length of halue an aker of londe, which a pare of oxen maye tyll in one daye.

15 And there came a fearfulness and flight in the hoost vpon the felde, and amonge all the people of the watch: and vpon the destroyers there came a fearfulness also and flight, so that the londe was in a rumoure, and there came a flight thorow God.

16 And Sauls watchme at Gibea Be Iamin sawe, that ye multitude gat them awaye, and ranne to and fro.

17 Saul sayde vnto the people that was with him: Tell and se which of vs is gone awaye. And whan they nombred, beholde, Ionathas & his wapen bearer was not there.

18 Then saide Saul vnto Ahia: Brynge hither the Arke of God (for at that tyme was the Arke of God with the children of Israel.)

19 And whyle Saul was yet speakeynge to the prest, the multitude in the Philistynes hoost gat vp, ranne, and was greate. And Saul sayde vnto the prest: Withdrawe thine hande.

20 And Saul cried, and all the people that was with him, and came to the battayll. And beholde, euery mans swerde was agaynst another, and there was a very greate rumoure.

21 The Hebrues also that were with ye Philistynes afore, and had gone vp with them in the hoost on euery syde, ioyned them selues vnto Israel which were with Saul and Ionathas.

22 And all the men of Israel which had hyd the selues vpon mount Ephraim, whan they herde that the Philistynes fled, folowed after them in the battayll.

23 Thus ye LORDE helped Israel at that tyme, and ye battayll lasted vnto Bethauen.

24 And whan the men of Israel came forth, Saul charged all the people the same daye, and sayde: Cursed be euery man, which eateth bred vntyll euen, that I maye auenge me on myne enemies. Then all the people taisted no bred.

25 And all the people of the londe came in to the wodd. But there laye hony vpon the felde:

26 and whan the people came in to the wodd, beholde, the hony flowed, but no man put of it to his mouth with his hade: for the people were afraied because of the ooth.

27 As for Ionathas he had not herde, that his father had charged the people, and he put forth his staff that he had in his hande, and dypped the ende of it in ye hony combe, and turned his hande to his mouth, and his eyes were lighted.

28 Then answered one of the people, and sayde: Thy father hath charged the people, and sayde: Cursed be euery ma that eateth oughte this daye. Neuertheles the people were faynte.

29 Then sayde Ionathas: My father hath troubled the londe: Se how lighte myne eyes are become, because I haue taisted a litle of this hony.

30 Yf the people this daie had eate of the spoyle of their enemies that they founde, the slaughter shulde haue bene greater agaynst the Philistynes.

31 Yet smote they the Philistynes the same daye fro Michmas vnto Aialon, and the people were very weery.

32 And ye people turned to the spoyles, and toke shepe and oxen, and calues, and slewe them vpon the earth, and ate them with the bloude.

33 Then was it tolde Saul: Beholde, the people synne agaynst the LORDE, in that they eate bloude. He sayde: Ye haue done euell: roll vnto me now a greate stone.

34 And Saul sayde morouer: Go abroad amoge the people, and saye vnto them, that euery one brynge me his ox and his shepe, and slaye them here, that ye maye eate, and not to synne agaynst the LORDE with eatynge of bloude. Then broughte all the people euery one his ox with his hade the same nighte, and slewe them there.

35 And Saul buylded an altare vnto ye LORDE. This is the first altare that he buylded vnto the LORDE.

36 And Saul sayde: Let vs go downe after the Philistynes, by nighte, and spoyle them tyll it be cleare mornynge, that we let none escape. They answered: Do what so euer pleaseth the. But the prest sayde: Let vs go nye here vnto God.

37 And Saul axed at God. Shal I go downe here after ye Philistines? & wilt thou deluyere the in to Israels hande? Neuertheles he answered him not at that tyme.

38 Then sayde Saul: Let all the armyes of the people come hither, and make search and se, in whom is this synne at this tyme.

39 For as truly as God the Sauioure of Israel Iyeth, & though it be in my sonne Ionathas, he shal dye. And no man answered him of all the people.

40 And he sayde vnto all Israel: Be ye on the one syde, I & my sonne Ionathas wyl be on this syde. The people sayde vnto Saul: Do as it pleaseth the.

41 And Saul sayde vnto the LORDE the God of Israel: Do thou that right is. The was Ionathas and Saul taken: but the people wente forth fre.

42 Saul sayde: Cast the lot ouer me and my sonne Ionathas. So Ionathas was take.

43 And Saul sayde vnto Ionathas: Tell me, what hast thou done? Ionathas tolde him, & sayde: I taisted a litle hony with the staff that I had in my hande, and beholde, must I dye therfore?

44 The sayde Saul: God do this and that vnto me, Ionathas thou must dye the death.

45 But the people sayde vnto Saul: Shulde Ionathas dye, that hath done so greate health in Israel this night? God forbyd. As truly as the LORDE Iyeth, there shal not one heer of his heade fall vpon ye earth: for with God hath he wroughte at this tyme. So the people deluyered Ionathas, that he dyed not.

46 Then wente Saul vp from the Philistynes: and the Philistynes wente vnto their place.

47 But whan Saul had coquered the kyngdome ouer Israel, he foughte against all his enemyes rounde aboute, against the Moabites, agaynst the childe of Ammon, agaynst the Edomites, agaynst the kynge of Zoba, agaynst ye Philistynes: and whither so euer he turned him, he gat ye victory.

48 And he made an hoost, and smote ye Amalechites, and deluyered Israel from the hande of all those that spoyled them.

49 Saul had these sonnes: Ionathas, Isui, and Malchisua. And these were ye names of his two daughters: the firstborne Merob, & ye yogest Michol.

50 And Sauls wife was called Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaas. And his chefe captaynes name was Abner, the sonne of Ner, Sauls vncl.

51 Cis was ye father of Saul. But Ner ye father of Abner was the sonne of Abiel.

52 There was a mightie sore warre against the Philistynes, as loge as Saul lyued. And where Saul sawe a man that was stronge and mete for ye warre, he toke him to him.

Chapter 15

1 Samuel sayde vnto Saul: The LORDE sent me to anoynte the for to be kyng over his people of Israel: heare now therfore the voyce of the wordes of the LORDE.

2 Thus sayeth ye LORDE Zebaoth: I haue remembred what Amaleck dyd vnto Israel, & how he layed wayte for him in ye waye, whan he wente out of Egipte:

3 Go yi waye now therfore, and smyte the Amalechites, & damne them with all that they haue, & spare him not: but slaye both man and woman, children & sucklynges, oxen & shepe, Camels and asses.

4 Saul commaunded the people the same, and nombred them at Talaim, two hudreth thousande fote men, & ten thousande men of Iuda.

5 And whan Saul came to the cite of the Amalechites, he set an hynder watch by the ryuer,

6 and sayde vnto ye Kenites: Get you hence, departe, and go downe from ye Amalechites, yt I smyte you not with them, for ye shewed mercy vnto all the children of Israel, wha they departed out of Egipte. So the Kenites gat them awaye from amonge the Amalechites.

7 Then smote Saul the Amalechites from Heuila vnto Sur (which lyeth ouer against Egipte)

8 & toke Agag the kyng of ye Amalechites alyue, & damned all ye people wt the edge of the swerde.

9 Neuertheles Saul and the people spared Agag, and the shepe and oxen yt were good and fat, and the lambes, and all that was good, and wolde not damne the: but loke what was foule and nothinge worth, that they damned.

10 Then came the worde of the LORDE vnto Samuel, and sayde:

11 It repenteth me that I made Saul kyng, for he hath turned him selfe backe fro me, and not cofirmed my wordes. Therfore was Samuel angrye, & cried vnto the LORDE all that nighte.

12 And Samuel gat him vp early, that he might mete Saul in ye mornynge. And it was tolde him, that Saul was come vnto Carmel, & had set him vp a piler, and was gone aboute, and come downe to Gilgall.

13 Now wha Samuel came to Saul, Saul sayde vnto him: Blessed be thou vnto ye LORDE, I haue perfourmed the worde of ye LORDE.

14 Samuel answered: What crye is this then of shepe in myne eares, and the crye of oxen which I heare?

15 Saul sayde: They haue broughte them from the Amalechites: for the people spared the best shepe & oxen for the offerynge of ye LORDE thy God, the other haue we damned.

16 Neuertheles Samuel answered Saul: Let me tell the what ye LORDE hath sayde vnto me this nighte. He sayde: Saye on.

17 Samuel sayde: Whan thou wast but small in thine awne eyes, wast thou not ye heade amoge the trybes of Israel? & the LORDE anoynted the to be kyng ouer Israel?

18 and ye LORDE sent ye in to the waye, & sayde: Go yi waie & damne the synners the Amalechites, and fighte agaynst them, tyll thou haue vtterly destroyed the?

19 Wherfore hast thou not herkened vnto the voyce of the LORDE, but hast turned thy selfe to the spoyle, and done euell in the sighte of the LORDE?

20 Saul answered Samuel: Yee I haue herkened vnto the voyce of the LORDE, & haue gone the waye that ye LORDE sent me, and broughte Agag the kyng of the Amalechites, & damned the Amalechites:

21 but ye people haue take of the spoyle, shepe & oxen, and ye best amoge the damned, to offer vnto ye LORDE thy God in Gilgall.

22 Samuel saide: Hath the LORDE pleasure in sacrifices and burnttofferynges, as in obeynge the voyce of the LORDE? Beholde, obedience is better then offerynge, and to herken is better then the fat of rammes.

23 For disobedience is as ye synne of witchrafte, and rebellion is as the blasphemy of Idolatrye. In so moch now as thou hast refused the worde of the LORDE, he hath refused the also, that thou shuldest not be kyng.

24 Then sayde Saul vnto Samuel: I haue synned, yt I haue transgressed the commaundement of the LORDE and thy worde: for I was afrayed of the people, and herkened vnto their voyce.

25 And now forgeue me my synne, & returne with me, that I maye worshippe ye LORDE.

26 Samuel saide vnto Saul: I wil not turne backe with ye, for thou hast refused the worde of the LORDE, and the LORDE hath refused the also, yt thou shuldest not be kyng in Israel.

27 And whan Samuel turned him backe to go his waye, he gat him by ye edge of his garment, & rete it.

28 Then sayde Samuel vnto him: The LORDE hath rente the kyngdome of Israel from ye this daye, & geuen it vnto yi neighbor, which is better then thou.

29 The ouerwynner in Israel also shal not lye, nether shal he repente: for he is no man, that he shulde repente.

30 He sayde: I haue synned, yet honoure me now before the Elders of my people and before Israel, and turne backe with me, that I maye worshippe the LORDE thy God.

31 So Samuel turned agayne after Saul, that Saul mighte worshippe the LORDE.

32 But Samuel sayde: Bringe me hither Agag the kyng of the Amalechites. And Agag wente vnto him tederly. And Agag saide: Thus departeth the bytternesse of death.

33 Samuel sayde: Like as thy swerde hath made wemen childlesse, so shal yi mother also be without children amonge wemen. So Samuel hewed Agag in peces before ye LORDE in Gilgall.

34 And Samuel departed vnto Ramath. But Saul wente vp to his house at Gibeat Saul.

35 And Samuel sawe Saul nomore vnto the daye of his death. Neuertheles Samuel mourned for Saul, because it repented the LORDE, that he had made Saul kyng ouer Israel.

Chapter 16

1 And ye LORDE sayde vnto Samuel: How longe mournest thou for Saul, whom I haue refused, that he shulde not be kyng ouer Israel? Fyll thine horne with oyle, go thy waye, I wyll sende the to Isai the Bethleemite: for amonge his sonnes haue I prouyded me a kyng.

2 But Samuel sayde: How shal I go? Saul shal perceaue it, and shal slaye me. The LORDE sayde: Take the a calfe from the droue, & saye: I am come to do sacrifice vnto ye LORDE.

3 And thou shalt call Isai to ye sacrifice, so shall I tell the what thou shalt do, that thou mayest anoynte me him, whom I shall shewe the.

4 Samuel dyd as the LORDE sayde, and came to Bethleem. Then were the Elders of the cite astonnyed, and wente forth to mete him, and sayde: Is thy commynge peaceable?

5 He sayde: Yee. I am come to do sacrifice vnto the LORDE. Sanctifye youre selues, & come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Isai and his sonnes, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 Now wha they came in, he behelde Eliab, & thoughte, whether he shulde be his anoynted before the LORDE.

7 But ye LORDE sayde vnto Samuel: loke not vpon his countenance, ner vpon the tallnesse of his person, For I iudge not after the sighte of man. A man hath respecte vnto the thinge that is before his eyes, but the LORDE loketh vpon the hert.

8 Then Isai called Abinadab, & broughte him before Samuel. And he sayde: This hath not the LORDE chosen.

9 Then Isai broughte Samma. But he sayde: This also hath not the LORDE chosen.

10 Then broughte Isai his seuen sonnes before Samuel. Neuertheles Samuel saide vnto Isai: The LORDE hath chosen none of these.

11 And Samuel sayde vnto Isai: Are here all the childre? He sayde: There is yet one ye leest of all, and beholde, he kepeth the shepe. The sayde Samuel vnto Isai: Sende & cause him to be fetched, for we will not syt downe at the table, vntyll he come.

12 Then sent he, & caused him be broughte. And he was well coloured wt fayre eyes & of a beutyfull countenance. And the LORDE saide: Aryse, and anoynte him, that is he.

13 The toke Samuel his oyle horne, & anoynted him amonge his brethre. And the sprete of the LORDE came vpo Dauid fro ye daye forth. As for Samuel, he gat him vp, & wente vnto Ramath.

14 But the sprete of the LORDE departed from Saul, and an euell sprete from ye LORDE vexed him.

15 Then sayde Sauls seruauantes vnto him: Beholde, an euell sprete from God vexeth the.

16 Let oure lorde saie vnto his seruauantes which stonde before him, yt they seke a man which can playe vpon the harpe, and instrumente, that whan the euell sprete of God cometh vpon the, he maye playe wt his hande, to ease the withall.

17 Then sayde Saul vnto his seruauates: Prouyde me a ma, that can playe well vpon the instrumente, & brynge him vnto me.

18 Then answered one of the children, & sayde: Beholde, I sawe a sonne of Isai ye Bethleemite, which can playe vpon the instrumete, an honest & valeaut man, and one yt hath vnderstodinge in matters, & is welfaoured.

19 The Saul sent messaungers vnto Isai, sayege: Sende me Dauid yi sonne, which is with the shepe.

20 Then toke Isai an asse wt bred, & a bottell wt wyne, and a kyd, and sent it vnto Saul by Dauid his sonne.

21 So Dauid came to Saul, & stode before him, & he loued him well, and he became his wapen bearer.

22 And Saul sente vnto Isai, sayege: Let Dauid remayne before me, for he hath founde fauor in my sighte.

23 Now whan the sprete of God came vpo Saul, Dauid toke ye harpe, & played wt his hande: so was Saul refreshed, & eased, & the euell sprete departed from him.

Chapter 17

1 The Philistynes gathered their hoost to ye battayll, and came together to Socho in Iuda, & pitched their tentes betwene Socho & Aseka, at the ende of Damin.

2 But Saul & the me of Israel came together, & pitched in the Oke valley, & prepared them selues to the battayll agaynst the Philistynes.

3 And the Philistynes stode vpon a hyll on the one syde, and the Israelites vpon a hyll on the other syde, so that there was a valley betwene them.

4 Then stepte there forth from amoge the Philistynes a stoute bolde man, named Goliath of Gath, sixe cubites and an hande breth hye,

5 and had an helmet of stele on his heade, and a fast habergion vpon him, and the weight of his habergion was fyue thousande Sicles of stele,

6 and harnesse of stele had he vpon his legges, and a shyld of stele vpon his shuldres:

7 and the shaft of his speare was like a weuers lome, and the yron of his speare had sixe hundreth Sicles of yron, and his wapen bearer wente before him.

8 And he stode and called vnto the hoost of Israel, and sayde vnto them: Wherefore are ye come forth to prepare youre selues to the battayll? Am not I a Philistyne, and ye the seruantes of Saul? Chose one amonge you to come downe vnto me:

9 yf he can fighte agaynst me and slaye me, then wil we be youre seruantes: but yf I can ouercome him and slaye him, then shal ye be oure seruantes, to do vs seruyce.

10 And the Philistyne sayde: I haue spoke disdanedly vnto the hoost of Israel this daye. Geue me one, and let vs fighte together.

11 Whan Saul and all Israel herde these wordes of ye Philistyne, they were astonnyed, and sore afrayed.

12 But Dauid was the sonne of a man of Ephrata of Bethleem Iuda, whose name was Isai, which had eight sonnes, and was an olde man in Sauls tyme, and was well strycken in age amonge men.

13 And the thre eldest sonnes of Isai were gone with Saul to the battayll. And there names were these: Eliab the first borne, Abinadab the seconde, and Samma the thirde.

14 But Dauid was the yongest of all. So whan the thre eldest were gone with Saul to the battayll, 15 Dauid wente agayne from Saul, to kepe his fathers shepe at Bethleem.

16 But the Philistyne stepte forth early in the mornynge and at euen, and stode there fortye dayes.

17 Isai sayde vnto Dauid his sonne: Take this Ephra of firmentye for thy brethren, and these ten loaues of bred (and runne to the hoost vnto thy brethren)

18 & these ten new cheses, and brynge them to ye captayne, and loke how thy brethren do, whether it go well with them or no, and take what they byd the.

19 But Saul and they, and all the men of Israel were in the Oke valley, and foughte agaynst the Philistynes.

20 Then Dauid gat him vp early in the mornynge, and commytted the shepe to ye keper, and toke his burthen, wente his waye, as Isai commaunded him, and came to the tet. And the hoost was gone forth, and had prepared them selues, and cried in the battayll:

21 For Israel had set them selues in araye, and the Philistynes were agaynst their hoost in their araye also.

22 Then lefte Dauid the vessell that he bare, with the keper of the stuffe, and ranne to the hoost, and wente in, and saluted his brethren.

23 And whyle he was yet talkynge with them, beholde, then came vp the stoute bolde man, whose name was Goliath, the Philistine of Gath, out of the Philistynes hoost, and spake like as afore, and Dauid herde it.

24 But euery man of Israel, whan he sawe the man, fled from him, and was sore afrayed of him.

25 And euery man in Israel sayde: Haue ye sene the man commynge vp hither? For he is come vp hither, to speake disdanedly vnto Israel. And who so euer smyteth him, him wyll the kynge make ryche, and geue him his daughter, and make his fathers house fre in Israel.

26 Then sayde Dauid vnto the men that stode by him: What shalbe done to the man, that smyteth this Philistyne, and turneth this shame away from Israel? For what is he this Philistyne this vncircucysed, that defyeth the hoost of ye luyngge God?

27 Then the people tolde him as afore. Thus shall it be done vnto ye man that smyteth him.

28 And Eliab his greater brother herde him talke with the men, and was very wroth agaynst Dauid, and sayde: Wherefore art thou come downe? and why hast thou left a fewe shepe in the wyldernesse? I knowe thy presumptuousnesse well ynough, and the wickednesse of thine hert: for thou art come downe to se the battayll.

29 Dauid answered: What haue I downe now? Is there not an occasion?

30 And he turned him selfe from him vnto another, and spake acordinge as he had sayde before. Then the people answered him like as afore.

31 And whan they herde the wordes which Dauid sayde, they tolde them in the presence of Saul, and he caused him be fetched.

32 And Dauid sayde vnto Saul: Let no mans hert be discouraged because of him. Thy seruaut shall go, and fighte with the Philistyne.

33 Neuertheles Saul sayde vnto Dauid: Thou art not able to go agaynst this Philistyne to fighte with him, for thou art but a childe: but this is a man of warre from his youth vp.

34 Dauid sayde vnto Saul: Thy seruaut keppe his fathers shepe, and there came a lyon and a Bere, and caried away a shepe from the flocke, 35 then wente I forth after him, and smote him, and delyuered it out of his mouth. And whan he wolde haue bene vpon me, I toke him by his beerde, and smote him, and slewe him.

36 So thy seruaut smote both the Lyon and ye Bere. Therefore shall this Philistyne this vncircucysed be euen as one of them: for he hath defyed the hoost of the luyngge God.

37 And Dauid sayde: The LORDE that delyuered me from ye Lyon and Beer, shall delyuer me also from this Philistyne. And Saul sayde vnto Dauid: Go thy waye, the LORDE be with the.

38 And Saul clothed Dauid with his clothes, and set an helmet of stele vpon his heade, and put an habergion vpo him.

39 And Dauid girded his swerde aboute his clothes, and beganne to go, for he had neuer bene vsed to it afore. Then sayde Dauid vnto Saul: I can not go thus, for I haue not bene vsed to it, and so he laied it from him,

40 and toke his staff in his hande, and chose fyue slughte stones out of the ryuer, and put them in the shepardes bagge which he had by him, and toke a slyng in his hande, and made him to the Philistyne.

41 And the Philistyne wente forth, and made him to Dauid, and his wapen bearer before him.

42 Now whan the Philistyne loked & sawe Dauid, he thoughte scorne of him: for he was but a childe, well coloured, and beautyfull to loke vpon.

43 And the Philistyne sayde vnto Dauid: Am I a dogg then, that thou commest vnto me with a staffe? And he cursed Dauid by his God, 44 and sayde vnto Dauid: Come hither to me, I wil geue thy flesh to the foules vnder the heauen, and to the beastes in the felde.

45 Neuertheles Dauid sayde vnto the Philistyne: Thou commest vnto me with swerde, speare and shyld. But I come vnto the in the name of the LORDE Zebaoth the God of the hoost of Israel, whom thou hast despysed.

46 This daye shall the LORDE delyuer the in to my hade, that I maye smyte the, and take thy heade from the, and geue the bodies of the hoost of the Philistynes this daye vnto the foules vnder the heauen, and to the wylde beestes vpon the earth, that all the londe maye knowe yt Israel hath a God.

47 And all this congregacion shal knowe, that the LORDE saueh nether thorow swerde ner speare: for the battayll is the LORDES, & he shal delyuer you in to oure handes.

48 Now whan the Philistyne gat him vp, and wente forth and drue nye vnto Dauid, Dauid made haiste, and ranne from ye hoost vnto the Philistyne.

49 And Dauid put his hade in his bagg, and toke out a stone, & thru it with the slyng, and hytt the Philistyne euen in the fore heade, so that the stone stacke in his fore heade, and he fell downe to the grounde vpon his face.

50 So Dauid ouercame ye Philistyne with the slyng and with ye stone, and smote him, and slewe him. And for so moch as Dauid had no swerde in his hande, 51 he ranne and stode ouer ye Philistyne, and toke his swerde, and drue it out of the sheeth, and slewe him, and smote of his heade withall. Whan the Philistynes sawe that the strongest of them was deed, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and Iuda gat the vp, and cryed and folowed vpon the Philistynes, tyll they came vnto the valley, and to the Portes of Ekron. And the Philistynes fell downe slayne vnto Gath and to Ekron.

53 And the children of Israel turned agayne from chasyng of the Philistynes, and spoyled their tentes.

54 But Dauid toke the heade of the Philistyne, and broughte it vnto Ierusalem, as for is armour, he layed it in his tent.

55 Whan Saul sawe Dauid go forth agaynst the Philistyne, he saide vnto

Abner his chefe captayne: Abner, whose sonne is this childe? Abner sayde: As truly as thy soule lyueth O kynge, I wote not.

56 The kynge sayde: Axe the whose sonne the yonge ma is.

57 Now whan Dauid came agayne from the slaughter of the Philistyne, Abner toke him, and broughte him before Saul, and he had the Philistynes heade in his hande.

58 And Saul sayde vnto him: Whose sonne art thou, thou yonge man? Dauid sayde: I am a sonne of thy seruaut Isai the Bethleemite.

Chapter 18

1 And whan he had made an ende of talkynge with Saul, the soule of Ionathas was bounde with the soule of Dauid, and Ionathas loued him as his owne soule.

2 And Saul toke him the same daye, and let him not go agayne to his fathers house.

3 And Ionathas and Dauid made a couenant together, for he loued him as his owne soule.

4 And Ionathas put of his owne cote that he had vpon him, and gaue it vnto Dauid: yee and his cloke, his swerde, his bowe, and his girdell.

5 And Dauid wente forth whither so euer Saul sent him, and behaued him selfe wysely. And Saul set him ouer the men of warre, and he pleased all the people well, and all the seruantes of Saul.

6 It fortunod, that whan Dauid was come agayne from the slaughter of the Philistyne, the wemen wente out of all the cities of Israel with songes & daunses, to mete kynge Saul, with tymbrels, with myrth, and with fyddels.

7 And the wemen sange one to another, and played & sayde: Saul hath smytten his thousande: but Dauid his ten thousande.

8 Then was Saul very wroth, and yt worde displeased him sore, and he sayde: They haue ascrybed ten thousande vnto Dauid, and but one thousande vnto me: what shal he haue more but the kyngdome?

9 And from that daye forth, Saul loked sowerly vpo Dauid.

10 The nexte daye after came the euell sprete of God vpon Saul, and prophecied in ye myddes of the house. But Dauid played on the instrumente with his hande, as he was wonte daylie.

11 And Saul had a iauelyng in his hande, and cast it, and thoughte: I wyll stycke Dauid fast to the wall. Neuerthelesse Dauid turned himselfe twyse away from him.

12 And Saul was afrayed of Dauid: for the LORDE was with him, and was departed from Saul.

13 Then Saul put him from him, and set him to be prynce ouer a thousande men, and he went out and in before the people.

14 And Dauid behaued himselfe wysely in all his doynge, and the LORDE was with him.

15 Now when Saul saw that he was so exceedingly wise, he stood in feare of him.

16 But all Israel and Iuda loved Dauid, for he wente out and in before them.

17 And Saul sayde vnto Dauid: Beholde, my greatest daughter Merob wyl I geue the to wyfe: be stronge now, & gouerne the warres of the LORDE. For Saul thought: my hade shal not be vpon him, but the hande of ye Philistynes 18 Neuertheles Dauid answered Saul: Who am I? & what is my life & the kynred of my father in Israel, that I shulde mary the kynges daughter?

19 But when the tyme came, that Merob ye daughter of Saul shulde haue bene geue vnto Dauid, she was geuen vnto Adriel ye Meholahithe to wyfe.

20 Neuerthelesse Michol Sauls daughter loved Dauid. When this was tolde Saul, ye matter pleased him well, 21 & he sayde: I wyl geue him her, yt she maye be a snare vnto him, & that the handes of ye Philistynes maye come vpon him. And he sayde vnto Dauid: This daye shalt thou be my daughters husbade ye secode time.

22 And Saul spake vnto his seruantes: Talke wt Dauid secretly & saye: Beholde, the kyng hath pleasure in the, and all his seruantes loue the, mary thou therfore the kynges daughter.

23 And Sauls seruantes spake these wordes in the eares of Dauid. But Dauid saide: Thynke ye it but a small matter, to mary the kynges daughter? As for me, I am but a poore symple man.

24 And Sauls seruantes tolde him agayne, and sayde: Soch wordes hath Dauid spoken.

25 Saul sayde: Then saye ye vnto Dauid: The kyng desyreth no dowry, but onely an hundreth foreskynnes of the Philistynes, that vengeance maye be taken of the kynges enemies. Howbeit Saul thought to cause Dauid be slayne by the hades of the Philistynes.

26 Then his seruantes tolde Dauid these wordes, and Dauid was contente with the matter, to mary the kynges daughter.

27 And after a fewe dayes Dauid gatt him vp, and wente with his men, and smote two hundreth men amonge the Philistynes. And Dauid broughte their foreskynnes, and made their nombre sufficient vnto the kyng, yt he mighte mary the kynges daughter. The Saul gaue him his daughter Michol to wyfe.

28 And Saul sawe and perceaued, that the LORDE was wt Dauid. And Michol Sauls daughter loved him.

29 Then was Saul the more afrayed, and became his enemye as loge as he lyued.

30 And when the prynces of the Philistynes wete forth, Dauid behaued him selfe more wysely then all the seruantes of Saul in their outgoynge: so that his name was in greate reputacion.

Chapter 19

1 Saul spake to Ionathas his sonne, and to all his seruantes, that they shulde kyll Dauid.

2 Neuerthelesse Ionathas the sonne of Saul loved Dauid exceedingly, and tolde him, and sayde: Saul my father goeth aboute to slaye the. Kepe the therfore (I praye the) in the mornyng and abyde in secrete, and hyde the.

3 But I wyl go forth, and stonde besyde my father in the felde where thou art, and wyl speake of the vnto my father: and what soeuer I se I shal brynge the worde.

4 And Ionathas reported ye best of Dauid vnto Saul his father, and sayde vnto him: Oh let not the kyng synne agaynst his seruaut, for he hath not synned agaynst the, and his doynge is very necessary for the,

5 he put his lyfe in his hande also, and smote the Philistyne, & the LORDE dyd a greate health vnto all Israel: this hast thou sene, and reioysed therof. Wherefore wylt thou then offende agaynst innocent bloude, that thou woldest kyll Dauid without a cause?

6 Then herkened Saul vnto the voice of Ionathas and sware: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, he shal not dye.

7 Then Ionathas called Dauid, and tolde him all these wordes, and brought him to Saul, so that he was in presence like as afore tyme.

8 But there arose a battayll agayne, and Dauid wente forth, and fought agaynst the Philistynes, and smote a greate slaughter, so that they fled before him.

9 Neuertheles ye euell sprete of the LORDE came vpon Saul, and he sat in his house, and had a iauelynge in his hande. But Dauid plaied vpon the instrument with his hade.

10 And Saul thought with the iauelynge to sticke Dauid fast to the wall. Howbeit, he wente asyde fro Saul and the iauelynge smote in the wall. And Dauid fled, and escaped that night.

11 Notwithstandinge Saul sent his messaungers to Dauids house, that they shulde laye wayte for him, and kyll him in the mornyng. Michol Dauids wyfe tolde him this, and sayde: Yf thou saue not thy soule this night, thou shalt dye tomorrow.

12 Then Michol let him downe thorow the wyndow, so that he wente his waye, fled, and escaped.

13 And Mickol toke an ymage, and layed it in the bed, and laied a goates skinne at the heade of it, and couered it with clothes.

14 Then Saul sent messaungers, to fetch Dauid. But she sayde: He is sicke.

15 Neuerthelesse Saul sent messaungers to se Dauid, & sayde: Bringe him vp to me with the bed, that he maye be slayne.

16 Now when the messaungers came, beholde, the ymage laye in the bed, and a goates skynne at the heade of it.

17 Then sayde Saul vnto Michol: Why hast thou begyled me, and let myne enemye go, that he mighte escape? Michol sayde vnto Saul: He sayde vnto me: Let me go, or I wyl kyll the.

18 As for Dauid, he fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel vnto Ramath, and tolde him all yt Saul had done vnto him. And he wente wt Samuel, and they abode at Naioth.

19 And it was tolde Saul: Beholde, Dauid is at Naioth in Ramath.

20 Then Saul sente messaungers to fetch Dauid. And they sawe a company of prophetes prophecience, and Samuel had the ouersight of them. Then came the sprete of God vpon the messaungers of Saul, so that they prophecied also.

21 When this was tolde Saul, he sent other messaungers, which prophecied likewise. Then sente he messaungers the thyrd tyme, and they in like maner prophecied.

22 Then wente he himselfe also vnto Ramath, and when he came to the greate well which is at Secho, he axed and sayde: Where is Samuel and Dauid? Then was it tolde him: beholde, at Naioth in Ramath.

23 And he wente thither, euen vnto Naioth in Ramath. And ye sprete of God came vpon him also, and he wete & prophecied till he came vnto Naioth in Ramath.

24 And he put of his clothes, & prophecied likewise before Samuel, & fell downe naked all that daye and all that nighte. Here of came the prouerbe: Is Saul also amonge the prophetes?

Chapter 20

1 Dauid fled fro Naioth in Ramath, and came, & spake before Ionathas: What haue I done? What trespace haue I made? What haue I synned in ye sighte of thy father, yt he seketh to kyll me?

2 He sayde vnto him: God forbyd, thou shalt not dye. Beholde, my father doth nothinge, nether greate ner small, but he sheweth it before myne eares. Wherefore shulde my father the hyde this fro me? It shal not be so.

3 The sware Dauid agayne, and sayde: Thy father knoweth well, yt I haue founde fauoure in yi sighte, therfore shal he thynke: Ionathas shal not knowe of this, lest it greue him. Verely, as truly as the LORDE lyueth, and as truly as yi soule lyueth, there is but one steppe betwene me & death.

4 Ionathas sayde vnto Dauid: I wil do for the what so euer thy hert desyreth.

5 Dauid sayde vnto him: Beholde, tomorrow is the new Mone, that I shulde syt at the table with the kyng. Let me hyde my selfe therfore in the felde vnto the thirde daye at euen.

6 Yf thy father then axe after me, saye: Dauid prayed me, yt he mighte runne to Bethleem vnto his cite, for all his kynred haue there a yearly sacrifice.

7 Yf he saye then: It is good, the stondesth it well with yi seruaut. But yf he be wroth, thou shalt perceaue that he intendeth euell.

8 Do mercy therfore vpon thy seruaut: for with me yi seruaut hast thou made a couenant in the LORDE. But yf there be eny trespace in me, then slaye me thy selfe, for why woldest thou brynge me vnto thy father?

9 Ionathas sayde: That be farre from the, that I shulde perceaue my father to intende eny euell agaynst the, and shulde not tell the.

10 Dauid sayde: Who shal brynge me worde, yf thy father geue the an harde answere?

11 Ionathas sayde vnto Dauid: Come, let vs go forth into the felde. And they wente out both in to ye felde.

12 And Ionathas sayde vnto Dauid: LORDE God of Israel, yf I perceaue by my father tomorrow or on the thirde daye, that it goeth well with Dauid, & sende not vnto the, and shewe the before thine eares, 13 then let the LORDE do this and that vnto Ionathas. But yf my father delyte in euell agaynst the, I wil shewe it before thine eares also, and let ye go, that thou mayest departe in peace. And the LORDE be with the, as he hath bene with my father.

14 Yf I do it not, then do thou no mercy of the LORDE on me, while I lyue, no not when I dye,

15 and plucke thy mercy fro my house for euer. And when the LORDE rotheth out ye enemies of Dauid, euery one out of the londe, 16 then let Dauid rote out Ionathas also with his house, and the LORDE requyre it of the hande of Dauids enemies.

17 And Ionathas proceeded further, and sware vnto Dauid (he loved him so well: for he loved him euen es his owne soule)

18 and Ionathas sayde vnto him: Tomorrow is ye new Mone, and thou shalt be axed after: for thou shalt be wanted where thou wast wonte to sit.

19 But on the thirde daye come downe soone, & go in to ye place where thou hydest the on the worckdaye, & set the downe by the stone of Asel:

20 then wyl I shute thre arrowes on yt side, as though I wolde shute at a marck:

21 and beholde, I wil sende the boye, and saye vnto him, Go seke ye arrowes. Yf I saye now vnto the lad: Lo, the arrowes lye hitherwarde behynde ye, fetch them, then come thou, for it is peace, and there is no parell, as truly as the LORDE lyueth.

22 But yf I saye vnto the lad: beholde, the arrowes lye yonderwarde before the, then go thou thy waye, for the LORDE hath let the go.

23 As for that which thou and I haue spoke together, the LORDE is betwene me and the for euer.

24 Dauid hid himself in the felde. And wha the new Mone came, the kyng sat him downe at the table to eate.

25 When the kyng had set him downe in his place as he was wonte by the wall, Ionathas stode vp, but Abner sat him downe besyde Saul. And Dauid was myssed in his place.

26 And Saul spake nothinge that daye, for he thoughte: There is somewhat happend vnto him, that he is not cleane.

27 On the seconde daye of the new

Mone, whan Daudid was myssed in his place, Saul saide vnto Ionathas his sonne: Wherefore is not the sonne of Isai come to the table nether yesterdaye ner to daye? 28 Ionathas answered Saul: He prayed me that he mighte go vnto Bethleem, 29 and sayde: Let me go, for oure kynred hath a sacrifyce to do in the cyte, and my brother hath sent for me himselfe: yf I haue founde faouore now in thy syghte, I wyll go, and se my brethren: therfore is he not come to the kynges table.

30 Then was the kyng wroth at Ionathas, and sayde vnto him: Thou wicked and vnthrift, I knowe how that thou hast chosen the sonne of Isai, to the shame of thy selfe and of yi shamefull mother.

31 For as longe as ye sonne of Isai lyueth vpo earth nether thou ner thy kingdome shal prospere. Sende now therfore, and cause him to be fetched vnto me, for he is a childe of death.

32 Ionathas answered his father Saul and sayde vnto him: Wherefore shal he dye? what hath he done?

33 Then shot Saul the iauelynge at him, that he might smite him. The perceaued Ionathas, that his father was vtterly determed to kyll Daudid, 34 and he rose vp from ye table in a wrothfull displeasure, and ate no bred yt same seconde daye of the new Mone: for he was vexed because of Daudid, that his father had done him soch dishonor.

35 On the morow wente Ionathas forth in to the felde, at the tyme appoynted of Daudid, and a litle boy with him, 36 and sayde vnto ye boy: Runne and seke me the arowes which I shute. Whan the boy ranne, he shot an arowe ouer him.

37 And whan the boy came to the place whither Ionathas had shot ye arowe, Ionathas cryed after him, and sayde: The arowe lyeth yonderwarde before the.

38 And he cryed after him agayne: haist the, and stonde not styll. Then the boy gathered vp Ionathas arowes, and brought them to his lorde.

39 And the boy knewe nothings, onely Ionathas and Daudid knewe of ye matter.

40 Then Ionathas gaue his boy his wapes and sayde vnto him: Go thy waye, and cary them in to the cite.

41 And whan the boy was gone, Daudid arose from the place towarde the south, and fell vpon his face to the groude, and worshipped thre tymes, and they kissed one another, and wepte together. But Daudid most specially.

42 And Ionathas saide vnto Daudid: Go thy waye in peace: What soeuer we both haue sworne & spoke together in the name of the LORDE, the LORDE be witness betwene me and the, betwene my sede and yi sede for euer. And Ionathas gat him vp, and came in to the cite.

Chapter 21

1 Daudid came to Nobe to ye prest Ahimelech. And Ahimelech was astonnyed, whan he sawe Daudid comminge, and sayde vnto him: Why comest thou alone, and noman is with the?

2 Daudid sayde vnto Ahimelech the prest: The kinge hath comytted a matter vnto me, and sayde: Let noma knowe wherfore I haue sent the, and what I haue commaunded the: for I haue appoynted my seruantes to mete me here & there.

3 Yf thou haue now ought vnder thy hande, a loafe of bred or fyue, geue me the same in my hande, or what so euer thou findest.

4 The prest answered Daudid, and sayde: I haue no comen bred vnder my hande, but the holy bred, yf the yonge men haue onely refrained them selues from wemen.

5 Daudid answered the prest, and sayde vnto him: The wemen were kepte thre dayes from vs whan we departed forth, and the yonge mens vessels were holy. But this waye is vnholly, neuerthelesse it shalbe santified to daye in the instrumentes.

6 Then the prest gaue him of ye holy, in so moch as there was none other bred but the shewbredes, which were taken vp before the LORDE, that there might be other freshbredes set therin the daye wha he toke them awaye.

7 But the same daye was there a man sparred in before the LORDE, one of Sauls seruantes, named Doeg an Edomite, ye mightiest amonge Sauls hyrdmen.

8 And Daudid sayde vnto Ahimelech: Is there not a speare or a swerde here vnder thine hande? I haue not taken my swerde and weapens with me: for the kynges matter requyred haist.

9 The prest sayde: The swerde of Goliath the Philistyne whom thou smotest in the Oke valley, is here wrapped in a cloth behynde the ouerbody cote. Yf thou wylt haue it, take it, for here is els none but it. Daudid sayde: There is not soch another, geue me it.

10 And Daudid gat him vp, and fled from Saul, and came to Achis ye kyng of Gath.

11 But Achis seruantes sayde vnto him: This is Daudid the kyng of the londe, of whom they sunge in the daunse, and sayde: Saul hath smytten his thousande, but Daudid his ten thousande.

12 And Daudid toke these wordes to hert, and was sore afrayed of Achis the kyng of Gath, 13 and altered his countenance before them, and shewed himselfe as he had bene madd in their handes, and stackered towarde the dores of the gate, and his slauerynges ranne downe his beard.

14 Then sayde Achis vnto his seruantes: Beholde, ye se that the man is out of his wyt, why haue ye brought him vnto me?

15 Haue I to fewe madd men, that ye haue brought this hither to be madd before me? Shulde he come in to my house?

Chapter 22

1 Daudid wente fro thence, & fled vnto the caue of Adullam. Whan his brethren and all his fathers house herde that, they came downe thither vnto him.

2 And there gathered vnto him all men that were in trouble and det, and sory of hert, and he became their heade, so that there were with him vpon a foure hundreth men.

3 And Daudid wente from thence towarde Mispa in the londe of the Moabites, and sayde vnto the kyng of the Moabites: Let my father and my mother go out and in amonge you, tyll I se what God wil do with me.

4 And he lefte them before the kyng of ye Moabites, so that they remayned by him, as longe as Daudid was in the castell. 5 Neuertheles the prophet Gad sayde vnto Daudid: Abyde not in the castell, but go yi waye, and come in to the londe of Iuda. Then departed Daudid, and came into the wodd of Hareth.

6 And Saul herde that Daudid and the men which were with him, were come forth. Now whye Saul dwelt at Gibeon vnder a groue in Rama, he had a Iauelinge in his hande, and all his seruantes stode by him.

7 Then sayde Saul vnto his seruantes that stode by him: Heare ye children of Iemini: Shal the sonne of Isai geue lodes and vynyardes vnto you all, & make you all captaynes ouer thousandes and ouer hudreds,

8 that ye haue all conspyred agaynst me, and there is no ma that sheweth it before myne eares, for so moch as my sonne also hath made a couenaunt with the sonne of Isai? There is no man amonge you that letteth it for my sake, or yt openeth it vnto myne eares: for my sonne hath stered vp my seruantes against me, that he maye laye wayte for me, as it is manifest.

9 Then answered Doeg ye Edomite which stode besyde Sauls seruantes, and sayde: I sawe the sonne of Isai, that he came vnto Nobe, to Ahimelech ye sonne of Achitob, 10 which axed councill at the LORDE for him, and gaue him fode, & the swerde of Goliath the Philistyne.

11 Then sent the kyng, and caused to call Ahimelech the prest the sonne of Achitob, and all his fathers house, the prestes that were at Nobe, and they came all to the kyng.

12 And Saul sayde: Heare thou sonne of Achitob. He saide: Here am I my lorde.

13 And Saul sayde vnto him: Wherefore haue ye conspyred agaynst me, thou & the sonne of Isai, that thou hast geuen him bred and a swerde, and axed councill at God for him, to stere him vp, that he mighte laye awayte for me, as it is manifest?

14 Ahimelech answered the kyng and saide: And who is amonge all thy seruantes like Daudid, which is faithfull, and hath married the kynges doughter, and goeth in thine obedience, & is honorably taken in thine house?

15 Haue I begonne then first this daye to axe councill at God for him? That be farre frome. Let not the kinge laie soch to his seruantes charge in all my fathers house: for thy seruant knewe not of all these thinges nether small ner greate.

16 Neuertheles the kyng saide: Ahimelech thou must dye ye death, thou and all thy fathers house.

17 And the kyng sayde to his fote men that stode by him: Turne you, and slaye the prestes of the LORDE, for their hande is with Daudid also. Not withstandinge the kynges seruantes wolde not laye their handes vpon ye prestes of the LORDE, to slaye them.

18 Then saide ye kyng vnto Doeg: Turne the, and slaye the prestes. Doeg the Edomite turned him, and slewe the prestes, so that the same daye there dyed fyue and foure score men, which wayre ouerbody cotes of lynn.

19 And Nob the cite of the prestes smote he with the edge of the swerde, both men and wemen, children and sucklynges, oxen and asses, and shepe.

20 Neuerthelesse there escaped a sonne of Ahimelech (the sonne of Achitob) whose name was Abiathar, and fled after Daudid, 21 and tolde him, that Saul had slayne ye prestes of the LORDE.

22 Daudid sayde vnto Abiathar: I knewe well the same daye that Doeg the Edomite was there, that he wolde tell Saul. I am giltie of the soules of thy fathers house.

23 Abyde thou with me, and feare not. He that layeth wayte for my lyfe, shall laye wayte for thyne also, and thou shalt be preserued with me.

Chapter 23

1 And it was tolde Daudid: Beholde, the Philistynes fight against Cegila, and spoyle the barnes.

2 Then Daudid axed at the LORDE, and sayde: Shal I go, & smyte these Philistynes? And the LORDE sayde vnto Daudid: Go thy waye, thou shalt smyte the Philistynes, and delyuer Cegila.

3 But ye men that were with Daudid, sayde vnto him: Beholde, we are here in feare in Iewry, and shall we go to Cegila vnto the hoost of the Philistynes?

4 The Daudid axed at the LORDE agayne. And the LORDE answered him, and sayde: Vp, get the downe to Cegila, for I wil delyuer the Philistynes in to thy hande.

5 So Daudid wente with his men vnto Cegila, and foughte agaynst the Philistynes, & droue awaye their catell, and smote them wt a greate slaughter. Thus Daudid delyuered them of Cegila.

6 For whan Abiathar the sonne of Ahimelech fled vnto Daudid at Cegila, he bare downe the ouerbody cote with him.

7 The was it tolde Saul, that Daudid was come to Cegila, and he sayde: God hath deliuered him in to my hade, for he is shut fast in, now that he is come in to a cite which is kepte wt gates and barres.

8 And Saul caused for to call all the people downe to ye battaill vnto Cegila, yt they might besege Daud and his men.
9 But whan Daud perceaued yt Saul inteded euell against him, he saide vnto Abiathar ye prest: Brynge me hither the ouerbody cote.

10 And Daud sayde: O LORDE God of Israel, thy seruauant hath herde, that Saul goeth aboute to come for to destroye the cite of Cegila for my sake.

11 Shal the citysens of Cegila delyuer me ouer in to his handes? And shal Saul come downe, as thy seruauant hath herde? Tell thy seruauant this, O LORDE God of Israel. And the LORDE saide: He shal come downe.

12 Daud sayde: Shall the citysens of Cegila delyuer me and my men in to Sauls handes? The LORDE sayde: Yee.
13 The Daud gat him vp with his me, of whom there were vpon a sixe hundreth, & walked whither they coulede. Now whan it was tolde Saul that Daud was escaped from Cegila, he let his journey stonde.

14 As for Daud, he remayned in the wildernes in the castell, and abode vpon the mount in the wildernes of Siph. But Saul soughte him as longe as he lyued. Neuertheles God gaue him not in to his handes.

15 And Daud sawe, that Saul was gone forth to seke after his life. But Daud was in the wildernes of Siph, in the wodd.

16 Then Ionathas the sonne of Saul gat him vp, and wete vnto Daud in to the wod, and strengthed his hande in God, 17 and sayde vnto him: Feare not, my father Sauls hande shal not finde ye: and thou shalt be kynge ouer Israel, so will I be the nexte vnto the. And yt my father knoweth right well.

18 And they made a couenaunt both together before the LORDE. And Daud remayned in the wodd. As for Ionathas, he wente home agayne.

19 But the Siphites wente vp to Saul vnto Gibeah, and sayde: Is not Daud hyd with vs in the castell in ye wodd, vpon mount Hachila, which lyeth on the righte hande of the wildernes?

20 Let the kynge come downe now therfore acordinge to all the desyre of his hert, and we wyll delyuer him in to the kynges hande.

21 Then sayde Saul: Blessed be ye of the LORDE, that ye haue had pytie vpon me:

22 Go youre waye now therfore, and be sure, that ye maye knowe and se in what place his fete haue bene, and who hath sene him there: for it is tolde me, that he is full of sotilyte.

23 Loke well and spye out all the places, where he hydeth him, and come agayne to me, whan ye are sure, and I will go with you. Yf he be in the londe, I wyl enquere after him amonge all the thousandes in Iuda.

24 Then gat they them vp, and wente their waye vnto Siph before Saul. But Daud and his men were in the wyldernes of Mao, euen in the felde on the righte hande of the wildernes.

25 Now whan Saul wente thither with his men to seke him, it was tolde Daud and he gat him downe to the rocke, and abode in the wildernes of Mahon.

26 Whan Saul herde that, he folowed after Daud in the wildernes of Mahon. And Saul with his men wente on the one syde of the hyll: Daud wt his men on ye other syde of ye hill. But whan Daud made haist to escape from Saul, Saul with his men compased aboute Daud and his men, that he might take the.

27 Neuertheles there came a messenger vnto Saul, and sayde: Make haist and come, for the Philistynes are falle in to the londe.

28 The Saul turned him from chacynge of Daud, and wente agaynst the Philistynes. Therfore is ye place called Sela Mahelkoth.

29 And Daud wente vp from thence, and abode in the castell at En Gaddi.

Chapter 24

1 Now whan Saul came agayne from the Philistines, it was tolde him: Beholde, Daud is in the wyldernes of Engaddi.

2 And Saul toke thre thousande chosen men out of all Israel, and wente to seke Daud with his men vpon the stony rockes of the wyld goates.

3 And whan he came to the shepe foldes by ye waye, there was a caue, and Saul wente in to couer his fete. But Daud and his men sat behinde within the caue.

4 Then sayde Dauds men vnto him: Lo, this is the daye, wherof the LORDE thy God hath sayde vnto the: Beholde, I wyll delyuer thyne enemye in to thy hande, that thou mayest do wt him what it pleaseth the. And Daud stode vp, & cut of the tpype of Sauls garment quyetly.

5 Neuertheles it smote him afterwarde in his hert, because he had cut of the tpype of Sauls garment,

6 and sayde vnto his men: The LORDE let that be farre frome, that I shulde do it, & laye my hande vpo my lorde the LORDES anyntd: for he is ye anynted of the LORDE.

7 And Daud withelde his seruantes with wordes, & suffred the not to ryse vp agaynst Saul. But whan Saul gat him vp out of the caue, and was goinge his waye,

8 Daud rose vp also after him, and wente out of the caue, and cried behynde Saul, & sayde: My lorde the kynge. And Saul lokted behynde him. And Daud bowed downe his face to the earth, and worshipped, 9 and sayde vnto Saul: Why herkenest thou vnto the wordes of men, that saye: Daud seketh thy mysfortune?

10 Beholde, thine eyes se this daye that the LORDE gaue the into my hande in the caue, and I was conueled to slaye the: Neuertheles thou wast faouored, for I sayde: I wil not laye my hande vpon my lorde, for he is the LORDES anynted.

11 Beholde, my father the tpype of thy garment in my hande, that I wolde not slaye the, whan I cut of the tpype of thy garment. Knowe and se, yt there is no euell ner trespase in my hande: nether haue I offended the, and thou folowest after my soule, to take it awaye.

12 The LORDE shal be iudge betwene me and the, and auenge me on the, but my hade shal not be vpon the,

13 acordinge as it is sayde after the olde prouerbe: Vngodlynes commeth of the vngodly: but my hande shal not be vpon the.

14 Whom persecutest thou O kynge of Israel, whom persecutest thou? a deed dogg? a flee?

15 The LORDE be iudge, and geue sentence betwene me and the, and cosidre it, and defende my cause, and delyuer me from thy hande.

16 Now whan Daud had spoken out these wordes vnto Saul, Saul saide: Is not this thy voyce my sonne Daud? And Saul lifte vp his voyce, and wepte, 17 and saide vnto Daud: Thou art more righteous then I: for thou hast recompensed me good, but I haue rewarded the euell.

18 And this daye hast thou shewed me how thou hast done me good, for so moch as ye LORDE hath delyuered me in to thy hande, and thou neuertheles hast not slaine me.

19 What is he, which yf he fynde his enemye, wyl let him go in a good waye? The LORDE rewarde the good for yt thou hast done vnto me this daye?

20 Beholde now, I knowe that thou shalt be kynge, & the kyngdome of Israel stondest in thy hande:

21 Swear now therfore vnto me by the LORDE, yt thou shalt not rote out my sede after me, nether destroye my name out of my fathers house.

22 And Daud sware vnto Saul. Then wente Saul home, but Daud gat him vp with his men vnto the castell.

Chapter 25

1 And Samuel dyed, and all Israel gathered them selues together, mourned for him, & buried him in his house at Ramath. As for Daud, he rose, and wente downe into the wyldernes of Paran.

2 And there was a man at Maon, and his possession at Carmel, and the man was of greate power, and had thre thousande shepe, and a thousande goates. And it fortunated that he clypped his shepe at Carmel,

3 and his name was Nabal, but his wyues name was Abigail, and she was a woman of good vnderstondinge, & bewtyfull of face. But the man was harde, and wicked in his doynge, and was one of Caleb.

4 Now whan Daud herde in the wyldernes yt Nabal clypped his shepe,

5 he sent out ten yonge men, & saide vnto them: Go vp vnto Carmel, & whan ye come to Nabal, salute him frendly on my behalf.

6 & saye: Good lucke, peace be wt the & thine house, & with all yt thou hast.

7 haue herde saye that thou hast shepe clyppers. Now yi shepherdes whom thou hast, haue bene with vs, we haue done them no dishonoure, and they wated nothings of their nombre, as longe as they were at Carmel:

8 Axe thy yonge men, they shal tell the, and let thy yonge men fynde faouore in yi sighte: for we are come in a good daye, geue thy seruantes & thy sonne Daud what thy hande fyndeth.

9 And wha Dauds yonge men came, and spake all these wordes on Dauds behalfe vnto Nabal, they lefte of.

10 But Nabal answered Dauds seruantes, & sayde: What is he yt Daud? & who is the sonne of Isai? There are many seruantes now yt runne awaye from their masters.

11 Shulde I take my bred, water and flesh, that I haue slayne for my clyppers, & geue it vnto me whom I knowe not whence they are?

12 The Dauds yonge men turned their waye agayne. And whan they came agayne vnto him, they tolde him all these wordes.

13 The sayde Daud vnto his men: Euery man gyrde his swerde aboute him. And euery one gyrde his swerde aboute him. And Daud gyrde his swerde aboute him also, and there wete vp after him vpon a foure hundreth men, but two hundreth remayned wt the stuffe.

14 Neuertheles Abigail Nabals wife tolde one of hir yonge men, and sayde: Beholde, Daud sent messaungers out of the wyldernes to blesse oure lorde, Notwithstandinge he was fearede vpo them,

15 and yet haue they bene very profitable men vnto vs, and haue done vs no dishonoure, and we wanted none of the nombre as loge as we walked with them, whan we were in the felde:

16 but they haue bene oure wall daye and nighte, as longe as we kepte the shepe by them.

17 Take hede now therfore, and loke well what thou doest, for there is surely a mysfortune at hande agaynst oure lorde, & agaynst all his house. And he is a man of Belial, to whom no man darre saye eny thinge.

18 Then Abigail made haist, and toke two hundred loaues of bred, and two botels of wyne, and fyue shepe ready dighte, and fyue measures of firmentye, and an hundreth frayles of rasens, and two hundreth frayles of fygges, & layed them vpo asses, 19 and sayde to hir yonge men: Go ye youre waye before me, beholde, I wyl come after. And she tolde Nabal hir housbade nothings therof.

20 And as she rode vpo the asse, and wente downe in the shadowe of ye hill, beholde, Daud & his me met hir downe, so that she came vpon them.

21 But Daud sayde: Wel, all that this man had in ye wyldernes, haue I kepte for naughte, so that there wanted nothinge of all that he had, and he rewardeth me euell for good.

22 God do this and yet more vnto the enemies of Daudid, yf vntyll tomorrow in the mornynge I leaue this man (of all that he hath) so moch as one that maketh water agaynst ye wall.

23 Now whan Abigail sawe Daudid, she lighte downe from the asse in all the haist, and fell vpo hir face before Daudid, and worshiped him to the grounde,

24 and fell at his fete, and sayde: Oh my lorde, let this trespass be myne, and let thy handmayde speake before thine eares, and heare the wordes of thy handmayden:

25 Let not my lorde set his hert agaynst this Nabal the man of Belial, for he is a foole, accordinge as his name is called: his name is foole, and foolishnes is with him. As for me thy handmayde, I sawe not my lordes yonge men, whom thou dydest sende.

26 But now my lorde, as truly as the LORDE lyueth, and as truly as thy soule lyueth, the LORDE hath kepte the backe, yt thou shuldest not come agaynst bloude, and he hath delyuered thine hande. Thine enemyes be now as Nabal, and so be they that wolde my lorde euell.

27 Here is ye blessinge, yt thy handmayde hath brought my lorde, take it, and geue it vnto the yonge men, that walke vnder my lorde.

28 For a sure house shal ye LORDE make my lorde, which fighteth the fighte of the LORDE, and no euell shall be founde in the all thy life longe.

29 And yf eny man ryse vp to persecute ye, and to laye wayte for thy soule, then shal the soule of my lorde be bounde in the bundell of ye lyuynge, euen with the LORDE thy God. But ye soule of thine enemyes shalbe turned backe wt the slynge.

30 Whan the LORDE therefore doth all this good for my lorde (which he hath promysed the) and commaundeth ye to be his Duke ouer Israel, 31 then shal it be no stomblinge blocke ner occasiion of fallynge vnto my lordes hert, that thou hast not shed bloude without a cause, and auenged thy selfe, then shal ye LORDE do good vnto my lorde, and thou shalt thynke vpon thy handmayden.

32 Then saide Daudid vnto Abigail: Blessed be the LORDE God of Israel, which hath sent the to mete me this daye:

33 and blessed be thy speach, and blessed be thou, which hast kepte me backe this daye, that I am not come agaynst bloude, to auenge me with myne awne hande.

34 Verely (as truly as the LORDE the God of Israel lyueth, which hath hyndred me that I shulde do the no euell.) Yf thou haddest not met me in all the haist, Nabal shulde not haue had lefte him vntyll ye lighte mornynge, so moch as one that maketh water agaynst the wall.

35 So Daudid toke of hir hade what she had broughte him, and sayde vnto her: Go vp in peace vnto yi house: beholde, I haue herkened vnto yi voyce, and accepted thy personne.

36 But whan Abigail came to Nabal, beholde, he had prepared a feast in his house like a kynges feast, and his hert was mery, for he was very dronken. And she tolde him nothinge, nether small ner greate vntyll ye cleare mornynge.

37 But whan it was daye, & the wyne was come from Nabal, his wife tolde him these thinges. Then was his hert deed in his body, so that he became euen as a stone:

38 and ouer ten dayes the LORDE smote him, so yt he dyed.

39 Whan Daudid herde that Nabal was deed, he sayde: Blessed be ye LORDE which hath auenged my rebuke on Nabal, and preserued his seruaut from euell. And the LORDE hath rewarded Nabal that euell vpon his heade. And Daudid sent, and caused to talke with Abigail, yt he mighte take her to wife.

40 And whan Daudids seruauentes came to Abigail vnto Carmel, they spake vnto her, and saide: Daudid hath sent vs vnto the, that he maye take ye to wife.

41 She rose vp, and worshipped vpon hir face vnto the earth, and sayde: beholde, here is thy handmayde, that she maie do seruyce vnto the seruauentes of my lorde, 42 and to washe their fete. And Abigail made haist, and gat her vp, and rode vpo an asse, and fyue maydens that were vnder her, and wente after Daudids messaungers, and became his wife.

43 Daudid toke Ahinoam of Iesrael also, and they both became his wyues.

44 But Saul gaue Michol his daughter the wife of Daudid vnto Phalti ye sonne of Laïs of Gallim.

Chapter 26

1 They of Siph came to Saul vnto Gibeath, & sayde: Is not Daudid hyd vpo the hill of Hachila, which lyeth ouer agaynst the wyldernes?

2 Then Saul gat him vp, and wente downe to the wildernes of Siph, and thre thousande chosen men of Israel with him, to seke Daudid in the wildernes of Siph,

3 and pitched vpon the hill of Hachila, which lyeth by the waye before the wildernes. But Daudid remayned in the wyldernes, and whan he sawe that Saul came after him in to the wildernes,

4 he sent out spyes, and knewe of a suertie, that he was come in dede.

5 And Daudid gat him vp, and came to the place where Saul had pitched his tet, and sawe the place where Saul laye with his chefe captayne Abner ye sonne of Ner: for Saul laye in the tent, and the hoost aboute him.

6 Then answered Daudid, and sayde vnto Ahimelech the Hethite, and to Abisai the sonne of Ieru Ia ye brother of Ioab: Who wil go downe wt me to Saul in to the hoost? Abisai sayde: I wil go downe with the.

7 So Daudid and Abisai came to the people in the night season, & beholde, Saul laye and slepte in the tent, and his speare stacke in ye grounde at his heade. But Abner and the people laye rounde aboute him.

8 The sayde Abisai vnto Daudid: God hath closed thine enemye in thine hande this daye. Therefore will I now thrust him thorow once with the speare euen in to the grounde, yt he shall haue ynough of it.

9 Neuertheles Daudid sayde vnto Abisai: Destroye him not, for who wil laye hande vpon the anoynted of ye LORDE, & remayne vngiltye?

10 Daudid sayde morouer: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, yf ye LORDE him selfe smyte him not, or excepte his tyme come that he dye, or that he go in to the battayll and perishe, 11 the LORDE let it be farre fro me, that I shulde laye my hande on the LORDES anoynted. Take ye speare now therfore at his heade, & the cuppe of water, & let vs go.

12 So Daudid toke ye speare & the cuppe of water at Sauls heade, & they wente their waye. And there was no man yt sawe it, ner perceaued it, nether awaked, but they slepte euery one, for there was a depe slepe fallen vpon them from the LORDE.

13 Now whan Daudid was come ouer on ye other syde, he stode vpon the toppe of the mount a farre of (so that there was a wyde space betwene them)

14 and cried vpon ye people, and vpo Abner the sonne of Ner, & sayde: Hearest thou not Abner? And Abner answered and sayde: Who art thou that cryest so, and diseasest the kyng?

15 And Daudid sayde vnto Abner: Art thou not a man? And where is there soch one as thou in Israel? Why hast thou not then kepte thy lorde ye kyng? for there is one of ye people come in to destroye thy lorde ye kyng.

16 It is not well that thou hast done. As truly as the LORDE lyueth ye are the children of death, because ye haue not kepte youre lorde the LORDES anoynted. Beholde now, where is ye kynges speare, and the cuppe of water that was at his heade.

17 Then knewe Saul the voyce of Daudid, and saide: Is not that thy voyce my sonne Daudid? Daudid sayde: It is my voyce my lorde the kyng.

18 And he sayde morouer: Why doth my lorde so persecute his seruaut? What haue I done? and what euell is there in my hande?

19 Yet let my lorde the kyng heare but the wordes of his seruaut? Yf ye LORDE prouoke the against me, let there be smelled a meatofferynge: but yf the childe of men do it, cursed be they before the LORDE, because they haue thrust me out this daye (that I shulde not dwell in the LORDES inheritaunce) and saye: Go yi waye, and serue other goddes.

20 So fall not now my bloude vpon the earth from the face of the LORDE. For the kyng of Israel is gone forth to seke a flee, as a partriche is folowed on vpo the mountaynes.

21 And Saul sayde: I haue synned: Come agayne Daudid my sonne, I wil do the nomore hurte, because my soule hath bene deare in yi sighte this daye. Beholde, I haue done foolishly and very vnwysely.

22 Daudid answered and sayde: Beholde, here is the kynges speare, let one of the yongemen come ouer here and fetch it.

23 But the LORDE shal rewarde euery one accordinge to his righteousnes and faith, for ye LORDE delyuered ye this daye in to my hande: neuertheles I wolde not laie my hande vpo the LORDES anoynted.

24 And as yi soule hath bene greatly reputed in my sighte this daye, so let ye LORDE repute my soule in his sighte, & delyuere me from all trouble.

25 Saul saide vnto Daudid: Blessed be thou Daudid my sonne, thou shalt do it, & be able. But Daudid wente his waye, and Saul turned agayne vnto his place.

Chapter 27

1 Daudid thoughte in his hert: One of these dayes shal I fall in to the handes of Saul: It is better that I get me my waye in to ye londe of ye Philistynes, that Saul maye leaue of from sekyng me in all the coastes of Israel, so shall I escape his handes.

2 And he gat him vp, and wente ouer (with the sixe hundreth men that were with him) vnto Achis the sonne of Maoch kyng of Gath.

3 So Daudid remayned by Achis at Gath, with his me, euery one with his housholde, and Daudid with his two wyues, Ahinoam the Iesraelitisse, and Abigail Nabals wife of Carmel.

4 And whan worde came to Saul that Daudid was fled vnto Gath, he soughte him nomore.

5 And Daudid sayde vnto Achis: Yf I haue founde grace in thy sighte, then let there be geuen me a place in one of the cities of the londe, that I maye dwell therein. Wherefore shulde thy seruaut dwell in the kynges cite with the?

6 Then Achis gaue him Siclag the same daye. Therefore belongeth. Siclag to the kynges of Iuda vnto this daye.

7 The tyme that Daudid dwelt in the londe of the Philistynes, is foure monethes.

8 Daudid wente vp with his men, and fell in to the londe of the Gessurites and Girsites, and Amalechites: for these were the inhabters of this londe of olde, as thou comest to Sur vnto the lode of Egipte.

9 But wha Daudid smote ye londe, he let nether man ner woman lyue, and toke the shepe, oxen, asses, Camels and rayment, and returned and came to Achis.

10 So whan Achis spake: Whither fell ye in to daye? Daudid sayde: Towarde the south parte of Iuda, towarde ye south parte of the Ierahmielites, & towarde the south parte of the Kenites.

11 But Daudid let nether man ner woman come lyuynge vnto Geth, and thoughte:

They mighte peradueture speake & reporte agaynst vs: thus dyd Dauid, and this was his maner as longe as he dwelt in ye londe of the Philistynes.

12 Therefore Achis gaue credence vnto Dauid, and thoughte: he hath made him selfe stynte before his people of Israel, therfore shal he be my seruaunt for euer.

Chapter 28

1 It fortunated at ye same tyme, that the Philistynes gathered their hoost together to the battayll, to go agaynst Israel. And Achis sayde vnto Dauid: Thou shalt knowe, that thou and thy men shal go forth with me in the hoost.

2 Dauid sayde vnto Achis: Well, thou shalt se what thy seruaunt shal do. Achis sayde vnto Dauid: Therefore wyll I ordene the to be the keper of my heade as longe as I lyue.

3 As for Samuel, he was deed, and all ye people had mourned for him, & buried him in his cite Ramath. So Saul had dryuen the soythsayers and expounders of tokens out of ye londe.

4 Now whan the Philistynes gathered them selues together, and came and pitched their tentes at Sunem, Saul gathered all the people together, & they pitched at Gilboa.

5 But whan Saul sawe the hoost of the Philistynes, he was afrayed, and his hert was discouraged,

6 and he axed counsell at the LORDE. But ye LORDE gaue him no answer, nether by dreames, ner by the lighte, ner by prophetes.

7 The sayde Saul vnto his seruauntes: Seke me a woma which hath a sprete of soythsaye, that I maye go vnto her, and axe at her. His seruauntes sayde vnto him: Beholde, at Endor is there a woman, which hath a sprete of soythsayenge.

8 And Saul chaunged his clothes, and put on other, and wente his waye and two men with him, and came by nighte vnto the woman, and sayde: Prophecye vnto me (I pray the) thorow the sprete of soythsayenge, and brynge me him vp whom I shal name vnto the.

9 The woma sayde vnto him: Beholde, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath roted out the soythsayers & witches from the londe, wherfore wilt thou brynge my soule then in to ye nett, that I maye be slayne?

10 But Saul sware vnto her by ye LORDE, and sayde: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, there shall no harme happen vnto the for this.

11 Then sayde ye woman: Whom shal I brynge vp vnto the? He sayde: Brynge me vp Samuel.

12 Now whan ye woman sawe Samuel, she cryed loude, and sayde vnto Saul: Wherfore hast thou begyled me? Thou art Saul.

13 And the kynge sayde vnto her: Feare not, what seist thou? The woman sayde vnto Saul: I se goddes comynge vp out of ye earth?

14 He sayde: How is he shapened? She sayde: There commeth vp an olde man, and is clothed with a longe garment. Then perceaued Saul that it was Samuel, & bowed him selfe downe wt his face to the grounde, and worshiped him.

15 Samuel sayde vnto Saul: Why hast thou disquyeted me, to cause me be broughte vp? Saul sayde: I am sore troubled, the Philistynes fighte against me, & God is departed frome, & geueth me no answer, nether by prophetes ner by dreames: therfore haue I called the, yt thou mightest shewe me, what I shal do.

16 Samuel sayde: What wilt thou axe at me, seyng the LORDE is departed from the, and is become thine enemye?

17 The LORDE shal do vnto the euen as he spake by me, and shall plucke the kyngdome out of thy hande, and geue it vnto Dauid thy neghboure, 18 because thou hast not herkened vnto the voyce of the LORDE, ner perfourmed the displeasure of his wrath agaynst Amalek. Therfore hath the LORDE done this now vnto the.

19 Morouer the LORDE shal delyuer Israel with the also in to the handes of the Philistynes: tomorow shalt thou and thy sonnes be with me. And the hoost of Israel shal the LORDE delyuer in to the handes of the Philistynes.

20 Then fell Saul immediatly vnto the earth, for he coulde not stonde, and was sore afrayed at these wordes of Samuel, so that there was nomore strength in him: for he had eaten no bred all that daye and all that night.

21 And the woman wente into Saul, & sawe that he was sore vexed, and sayde vnto him: Beholde, thy handmayde hath herkened vnto thy voyce, and I haue put my soule in my hande, so that I haue herkened vnto yi wordes which thou spakest vnto me.

22 Therefore folowe thou also the voyce of thy handmayde. I wil set a morsell of bred before the to eate, that thou mayest come to thy strength, & go yi waye.

23 But he refused, and sayde, I wil not eate. Then his seruauntes & the woman copelled him, so that he herkened vnto their voyce. And he rose vp from ye grounde, and sat vpon the bed.

24 The woman had a fat calfe at home, so she made haist, and kylled it, and toke meell and dyd kneet it, and baked swete cakes, 25 & broughte them forth before Saul, & before his seruauntes. And whan they had eaten, they stode vp, and wete their waye yt nighte.

Chapter 29

1 The Philistynes gathered all their armies together at Aphek. But Israel pitched at Ain in Iesrael.

2 And the prynces of the Philistynes wete forth with hundreds and with thousandes, but Dauid and his men wete behynde with Achis.

3 The sayde the prynces of the Philistynes: What shal these Hebrues do? Achis saide vnto the: Is not this Dauid ye seruaunt of Saul kynge of Israel, which hath bene with me now yeares and dayes, & I haue founde no euell in him sence the tyme that he fell to me vnto this daye?

4 Neuertheles the prynces of ye Philistynes were wroth at him, & sayde vnto him: Let the man turne backe agayne, & abyde in his place, which thou hast appoynted him, that he go not downe with vs to ye batayll, and become oure aduersary in ye felde. For wherin coulde he better do his lorde a pleasure, the in the heades of these men?

5 Is not this Dauid, of whom they sunge in the daunce: Saul hath smytte his thousande, but Dauid his ten thousande?

6 Then Achis called Dauid, and sayde vnto him: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, I take the for an honest man, and thy out goynge and ingoynge with me in ye hoost pleaseth me well, and no euell haue I marked in the, sence ye tyme that thou camest to me vnto this daye. But thou pleasest not the prynces.

7 Returne now therfore, and go yi waye in peace, that thou do no euell in the sighte of the prynces of ye Philistynes.

8 Dauid sayde: What haue I done, & what hast thou marked in thy seruaunt, sence ye tyme that I haue bene in yi presence vnto this daye, that I shulde not come and fighte agaynst the enemies of my lorde the kynge?

9 Achis answered and sayde vnto Dauid: I knowe well that thou pleasest myne eyes eue as an angell of God. But the prynces of ye Philistynes haue sayde: Let him not go vp with vs vnto the batayll.

10 Get the vp therfore tomorow by tymes, and yi lordes seruauntes which are come with the. And whan ye haue gotten you vp early in the mornynge, whan it is lighte, go yor waye.

11 So Dauid & his men gat them vp early, to go their waye in the mornynge, and to come agayne in to the londe of the Philistynes. But the Philistynes wente vp towarde Iesrael.

Chapter 30

1 Now whan Dauid came to Siclag on the thirde daie with his men, the Amalechites had falle in on ye south parte and at Siclag, and had smytten Siclag, and burned it with fyre,

2 and had caried a waye the weme out of it, both small & greate. Neuertheles they had slayne no man, but dryuen the thence, and were goynge on their waye.

3 Now whan Dauid with his men came to the cite, and sawe that it was brent wt fyre, and that their wyues, sonnes & daughters were led awaye captiue,

4 Dauid and the people that was with him lefte vp their voyce, and wepte so longe tyll they coulde wepe nomore.

5 For Dauids two wyues also were caried awaye captiue, Ahinoam ye Iesraelitisse, and Abigail Nabals wife of Carmel.

6 And Dauid was very soroufull, for the people wolde haue stoned him: for ye soule of all the people was in greate heuynes, euey one ouer his sonnes and daughters. Neuertheles Dauid strenghted him selfe in the LORDE his God,

7 & sayde vnto Abiathar ye prest the sonne of Ahimelech: Bringe me hither the ouerbody cote. And whan Abiathar had broughte the ouerbody cote vnto Dauid,

8 Dauid axed at the LORDE, and sayde: Shal I folowe vpon the men of warre, and shal I ouertake them? He sayde: Yee, folowe vpo them, thou shalt ouertake them, and shalt rescue the pray.

9 Then wente Dauid his waye, and the sixe hudreth men that were with him. And whan they came to the ryuer of Besor, some stode styll.

10 But Dauid and the foure hundreth men folowed after: As for the two hudreth men that stode styll, they had bene slowe to go ouer the ryuer of Besor.

11 And they founde a man of Egipte vpon the felde, him they broughte vnto Dauid, & gaue him bred to eate, and water to drynke, 12 and gaue him a quantite of fygges, & two quantities of rasyns. And whan he had eaten, his sprete came to him againe: for in thre dayes and thre nightes he had eate no bred, and dronke no water.

13 Dauid sayde vnto him: Whose art thou? & whence art thou? He sayde: I am a childe of Egipte, an Amalechites seruaunt, & my master hath forsaken me, because I was sicke thre dayes a goo.

14 We fell her in towarde ye south syde of Chrethus, and vpon Iuda, and towarde ye south parte of Caleb, & haue burned Siclag with fyre.

15 Dauid sayde vnto him: Wilt thou brynge me downe to these men of warre? He sayde: Swear vnto me by God, yt thou shalt not slaye me, ner delyuer me in to my masters hade, and I wil brynge the downe to these me of warre.

16 And he broughte the downe, and beholde, they were scatted vpon all ye grounde, eatinge and drynkyng, and kepyng holy daye, and were makinge mery chere, because of all the greate spoyles that they had taken out of the londe of the Philistynes and of Iuda.

17 And Dauid smote them from ye morow tyll the euen, agaynst the nexte daye, so that there escaped none, excepte foure hundreth yonge men, which rode vpon camels, & fled.

18 So Dauid rescued all that the Amalechites had taken, and his two wyues, 19 & there myssed nothinge, nether small ner greate, nether sonnes ner daughters, ner spoyles: and what so euer they had taken, Dauid broughte all agayne.

20 And Dauid toke the shepe and oxen, and droue ye catell before him. And they sayde: This is Dauids spoyle.

21 And whan Dauid came to the two hundreth men, which had bene slowe to folowe after Dauid, and abode at the ryuer of Besor, they wente forth to mete Dauid, and the people yt was with him.

And Daud came to the people, and saluted them frendly.

22 Then answered soch men as were euell & Belials men (amonge them that had gone with Daud) and sayde: Seynge they wente not wt vs, they shal haue none of the spoyle that we haue rescued: but let euery ma take his wife & his children and be goynge.

23 Then sayde Daud: Ye shall not do so (my brethren) with that which ye LORDE hath geuen vs, and hath preserued vs, and deluyered these men of warre (which were come agaynst vs) in to oure hades.

24 Who shulde cosente vnto you herin? like as the porcion is of them that wente downe to the battayll, so shal ye porcion be of them also that a bode wt the stuffe, & shalbe deuyded a lyke.

25 From that tyme forth hath this bene an ordinaunce & lawe in Israel vnto this daye.

26 And whan Daud came to Siclag, he sent of the spoyle vnto the Elders in Iuda his neighbours, and sayde: Beholde, there haue ye the blessinge out of the spoyle of the enemies of the LORDE,

27 namely vnto them of Bethel, vnto them at Ramath in the south, vnto them at Iathir, 28 vnto them at Aroer, vnto them at Siphamoth, vnto them at Eschemoa,

29 vnto them at Rachal, vnto them in the cities of the Ierahmielites, vnto them in the cities of the Kenites,

30 vnto them at Horma, vnto the at Borasan, vnto the at Atach, 31 vnto them at Hebron, and vnto all the places where Daud had walked wt his men.

Chapter 31

1 Bvt ye Philistynes foughte against Israel, and the men of Israel fled before the Philistynes, and fell downe smytten vpon the mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistynes preassed vpon Saul and his sonnes, and slewe Ionathas, & Abinadab and Malchisua the sonnes of Saul.

3 And the battayll was sore agaynst Saul, & the archers fell vpon him with bowes, and he was sore wounded of the archers. 4 Then sayde Saul vnto his wapebearer: Drawe out thy swerde, and thrust it thorow me, that these vncircumcised come not and slaie me, and make a laughinge stocke of me. Neuertheles his wapenbearer wolde not, for he was sore afrayed. Then toke Saul ye swerde, and fell therin.

5 Now whan his wapenbearer sawe that Saul was deed, he fell also vpon his swerde, and dyed with him.

6 Thus dyed Saul and his thre sonnes, & his wapenbearer, and all his men together the same daye.

7 Whan ye men of Israel which were beyonde the valley, and beyonde lordane, sawe, yt the men of Israel were fled, and that Saul and his sonnes were deed, they lefte ye cities, and fled also. Then came the Philistynes, & dwelt therin.

8 On the nexte daye came the Philistynes to spoyle ye slayne, and founde Saul and his thre sonnes lyenge vpon mount Gilboa,

9 and smote of his heade, and toke of his harnesse, and sent it in to the lande of the Philistynes rounde aboute, to shewe it in the house of their Idols, and amonge the people,

10 & layed his harnesse in ye house of Astaroth: but his body hanged they vp vpo the wall of Bethsan.

11 Whan they of Iabes in Gilead herde, what the Philistynes had done vnto Saul,

12 they gat them vp, as many as were men of armes, and wente all the nighte, and toke ye body of Saul, and the bodies of his sonnes from ye wall of Bethsan, broughte the to Iabes, and brent them there, 13 and toke their bones, and buried them vnder ye tre at Iabes, & fasted seue dayes.

2 SAMUEL

Chapter 1

1 After ye death of Saul whan Daud was come agayne from the slaughter of ye Amalechites, and had remayned two dayes at Siclag,

2 beholde, on the thirde daye there came a man out of Sauls hoost, with his clothes rente, and earth vpon his heade. And whan he came vnto Daud, he fell downe to the grounde, and worshipped.

3 Daud sayde vnto him: Whence comest thou? He sayde vnto him: Out of the hoost of Israel am I fled.

4 Daud sayde vnto him: Tell me, what is the matter? He sayde: the people is fled from the battayll, and many of the people are fallen: Yee and Saul also is deed and his sonne Ionathas.

5 Daud sayde vnto the yonge ma that brought him this worde: How knowest thou that Saul and Ionathas his sonne are deed?

6 The yonge man yt tolde him this, sayde: I came by chauce vnto mount Gelboa, and beholde, Saul leaned vpon his speare, & the charettes and horsme folowed harde after him:

7 and he turned him aboute, and sawe me, and called me. And I sayde: Here, am I.

8 And he sayde vnto me: What art thou? I sayde vnto him: I am an Amalechite.

9 And he saide vnto me: Come to me, and kyll me, for anguysh hath gotten holde of me: for my life is yet whole within me.

10 Then stepte I to him, and slewe him, for I knowe well that he coulde not lyue after his fall. And I toke the crowne from his heade, and the armelet fro his arme, and haue broughte it here vnto ye my lorde.

11 Then toke Daud holde of his clothes, and rente them, and so dyd all the me that were with him,

12 & mourned, and wepte, and fasted vntyll the euen, ouer Saul & Ionathas his sonne, and ouer the people of the LORDE, and ouer the house of Israel, because they were fallen thorow the swerde.

13 And Daud sayde to the yonge man that broughte him worde: What art thou? He sayde: I am ye sonne of a straunger an Amalechite.

14 Daud sayde: How happeneth it that thou wast not afrayed to laye thine hade vpon the LORDES anointed to destroye him?

15 And Daud sayde vnto one of his yonge men: Come hither, and slaye him. And he smote him that he dyed.

16 Then sayde Daud vnto him: Thy bloude be vpon thyne owne heade. For thy mouth hath spoken against thyselve and sayde: I haue slayne the anoynted of the LORDE.

17 And Daud mourned this lamentacion ouer Saul and Ionathas his sonne, 18 and commaunded to teach the childre of Iuda the bowe. Beholde, it is wrytten in the boke of the righteous.

19 The Eldest in Israel are slayne vpon the heighth of the. How are the Worthies falle?

20 Tell it not at Gath: speake not of it in ye stretes at Ascalon: lest the daughters of ye Philistynes reioyse, lest the daughters of ye vncircumcysed tryumphe.

21 Ye mountaynes of Gelboa, nether dew ner rayne come vpo you, nether lode be wherof commeth Heueofferynges: for there is ye shyld of the Worthies smytten downe, the shyld of Saul, as though he had not bene anoynted with oyle.

22 The bowe of Ionathas fayled not, and the swerde of Saul came not agayne voyde from the bloude of the slayne, and for the fat of the giauntes.

23 Saul and Ionathas louely and pleasaut in their lyfe, and in their deeth were not parted asunder: lighter then Aegles, and stronger then Lyons.

24 Ye daughters of Israel wepe ouer Saul which clothed yow with purple in pleasures, and decked you with Iewels of golde on youre garmentes.

25 How are the Worthies fallen so in the battayll? Ionathas is slayne vpon ye heighth of the.

26 I am sory for the my brother Ionathas: thou hast bene very louely vnto me: Thy loue hath bene more speciall vnto me, then the loue of wemen.

27 How are the Worthies fallen, and ye weapens destroyed?

Chapter 2

1 After these actes Daud axed at the LORDE, and sayde: Shall I go vp in to one of the cities of Iuda? And the LORDE sayde vnto him: Go vp. Daud sayde: Whither? He sayde: Vnto Hebron.

2 So Daud wente thither with his two wyues, Ahinoam the Iesraelitisse, and Abigail Nabals wyfe of Carmel.

3 And Daud broughte vp the men that were him also, euery one with his housholde, and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 And ye men of Iuda came, and there they anointed him kynge ouer the house of Iuda. And wha it was tolde Daud, that they of Iabes in Gilead had buried Saul, 5 he sent messaungers vnto them, sayenge: Blessed be ye of the LORDE, that ye haue done soch mercy vpon youre lorde Saul, and haue buried him.

6 The LORDE therfore shewe mercy now and faithfulness vpon you. And because ye haue done this, I also wyll do you good.

7 Let youre hade now therfore be comforted, and be ye stronge: for though Saul youre lorde be deed, yet hath the house of Iuda chosen me to be kynge ouer them.

8 But Abner the sonne of Ner, which was Sauls chefe captayne, toke Isboseth the sonne of Saul, and broughte him thorow the hoost, 9 and made him kynge ouer Gilead, Assuri, Iesrael, Ephraim, Ben Iamin and ouer all Israel.

10 And Isboseth the sonne of Saul was fourtye yeare olde, whan he was made kynge of Israel, & he raigned two yeares. But the house of Iuda helde with Daud:

11 The tyme yt Daud was kynge at Hebron ouer the house of Iuda, was seuen yeare and sixe monethes longe.

12 And Abner the sonne of Ner wete forth with the seruautes of Isboseth the sonne of Saul, out of ye hoost vnto Gibeon.

13 And Ioab the sonne of Zeru Ia wete forth with Dauds seruautes, and they met together by the pole at Gibeon, and these laye on the one syde of the pole, the other on the other syde.

14 And Abner sayde vnto Ioab: Let the yonge me get them vp, and playe before vs. Ioab sayde: Let them aryse.

15 Then gat they them vp, & wente in nombre twolue of Ben Iamin on Isboseth Sauls sonnes syde, and twolue of Dauds seruautes.

16 And euery one gat another by the heade, and thrust his swerde in his syde, and fell together: therfore is the place called Helkath hazurim (that is, the felde of the Worthies) which is at Gibeon.

17 And there arose a sore harde battayll the same daye. But Abner and the men of Israel were put to flighte of Dauds seruautes.

18 Thre sonnes of Zeru Ia were there, Ioab, Abisai & Asahel. As for Asahel, he was lighte of fete as a Roo in ye felde, 19 & folowed after Abner, and turned not asyde nether to the righte hande ner to ye lefte from Abner.

20 Then Abner turned him aboute, and sayde: Art thou Asahel? He sayde: Yee.

21 Abner sayde vnto him: Go thy waye ether to the righte hande or to the lefte, and get the one of ye yonge men, and take his harness from him. Neuertheles he wolde not leaue of fro him.

22 Then sayde Abner agayne to Asahel: Get the awaye fro me, why wilt thou that I smyte the to the grounde? and how darre I lifte vp my face before yi brother Ioab?

23 Howbeit he wolde not go his waye. Then Abner thrust him in with a speare in to his bely, so that the speare wete out behynde him. And there he fell and dyed before him: and who so came to the place where Asahel laye deed, stode styll there.

24 But Ioab and Abisai folowed vpon Abner, till the sonne wente downe. And whan they came to ye hyll of Amma, which lieth before Giah, by ye waye to the wildernes of Gibeon, 25 the children of Ben Iamin gathered them selues together behynde Abner, and grewe to a multitude, and stode vpon the toppe of an hyll.

26 And Abner called vnto Ioab, and sayde: Shal the swerde the deuoure without ende? Knowest thou not, that it wyll be bytter at the last? How longe wil it be or thou saie vnto the people, that they leaue of from their brethre:

27 Ioab sayde: As truly as God lyueth yf thou haddest sayde thus daye in the morninge, the people had ceassed euery one from his brother.

28 And Ioab blew the trompet, & all the people stode still, and folowed nomore vpon Israel, nether foughte they any more.

29 Abner and his men wente all that same night ouer the playne felde, and passed ouer Iordane, & walked thorow all Bithron, and came to the tentes.

30 Ioab turned him from Abner, and gathered all ye people together. And of Dauids seruantes there myssed nyntene men, and Asahel.

31 But Dauids seruantes had smytten so amonge Ben Iamin and the men of Abner, that thre hundreth and thre score men were deed.

32 And they toke vp Asahel, and buried him in his fathers graue at Bethleem. And Ioab with his men wete all that nighte: and at the breake of the daie they came vnto Hebron.

Chapter 3

1 And there was a longe battayll betwene the house of Saul and the house of Dauid. But Dauid wente and increased, and the house of Saul wente and mynished.

2 And vnto Dauid were children borne at Hebron. His firstborne sonne Ammon of Ahinoam the Israhelitisse:

3 the seconde Chileab of Abigail the wyfe of Nabal of Carmel: the thirde Absalon the sonne of Maacha the daughter of Thalmay kynge of Gessur:

4 the fourth Adonia the sonne of Hagith: the fyfth Saphatia the sonne of Abital:

5 ye sixte Ierhream of Eglia Dauids wife. These were borne vnto Dauid at Hebron.

6 Now whan it was warre betwene the house of Saul & the house of Dauid, Abner strengthed Sauls house.

7 And Saul had a concubyne, whose name was Rispa the daughter of Aia. And Isboseth sayde vnto Abner: Wherefore liest thou with my fathers concubyne?

8 Then was Abner very wroth at these wordes of Isboseth, and sayde: Am I a dogges heade then, that I agaynst Iuda do mercy vnto the house of Saul thy father, and vnto his brethren and kynsfolkes? and haue not delyuered the into ye hande of Dauid, and thou layest a trespance to my charge this daye for a womans sake?

9 God do Abner this and that, yf I do not as the LORDE hath sworne vnto Dauid, 10 that the kyngdome maye be taken fro the house of Saul, and ye seate of Dauid set vp ouer Israel and Iuda, from Dan vnto Berseba.

11 Then coulde he not answere him one worde agayne, he feared him so.

12 And Abner sent messaungers vnto Dauid, sayenge: Whose is the londe? And sayde: Make thy couenaunt with me. Beholde, my hande shall be with the, to turne all Israel vnto the.

13 He sayde: Wel, I wyll make a couenaunt with the, but one thyng I desyre of the, that thou se not my face, excepte thou brynge me first Michol Sauls daughter, whan thou comest to se my face.

14 Dauid sent messaungers also vnto Isboseth the sonne of Saul, sayenge: Geue me my wyfe Michol, whom I married with an hundreth foreskinnes of the Philistynes.

15 Isboseth sent, and caused for to take her from the man Palthiel the sonne of Lais.

16 And hir husbände wente with her, and wepte behynde her vnto Bahurim. Then sayde Abner vnto him: Turne backe agayne, and go thy waye. And he turned backe agayne.

17 And Abner talked with the Elders in Israel, and sayde: Youre myndes haue bene set afore tyme and longe a goo vpon Dauid, that he mighte be kynge ouer you, 18 do it now therefore, for ye LORDE hath sayde of Dauid: I wil delyuer my people of Israel by the hade of Dauid my seruauant, from the hande of the Philistynes, and from the hande of all their enemies.

19 Abner spake also before the eares of Ben Iamin, and wente to speake before the eares of Dauid at Hebron all that Israel and the whole house of Ben Iamin was contente withall.

20 Now whan Abner came to Hebron vnto Dauid, and twety men with him, Dauid made them a feast.

21 And Abner sayde vnto Dauid: I wyll get me vp, and go gather all Israel together to my lorde the kynge, and that they maye make a couenaunt with the, that thou mayest be kynge, at thy soules desyre. So Dauid let Abner go from him in peace.

22 And beholde, Dauid seruantes and Ioab came from the men of warre, and broughte a greate spoyle with them. And Abner was not now with Dauid at Hebron, for he had sent him from him, so that he was gone his waye in peace.

23 But whan Ioab and all the hoost with him was come, it was tolde him that Abner the sonne of Ner came to the kynge, and how he had sent him fro him, so that he was gone his waye in peace.

24 Then wente Ioab in to the kynge, and sayde: What hast thou done? Beholde, Abner came to the, why hast thou sent him from the, that he is gone his waye?

25 Knowest thou not Abner the sonne of Ner? For he came to the to disceaue the, that he mighte knowe thy outgoynge, and ingoynge, and to spie out all that thou doest.

26 And whan Ioab wente out from Dauid, he sent messaungers after Abner, to fetch him agayne from Boharsira, and Dauid knewe not therof.

27 Now whan Abner came agayne vnto Hebron, Ioab brought him in to ye middes vnder ye gate, to talke wt him secretly, and thrust him there in to ye bely that he dyed, because of his brother Asahels bloude.

28 Whan Dauid knewe of it thereafter, he sayde: I am vngiltye, and so is my kyngdome for euer before the LORDE concernynge the bloude of Abner ye sonne of Ner:

29 but vpon the heade of Ioab fall it, and vpon all his fathers house, and in the house of Ioab there ceasse not one to haue a renninge yssue and a leprosy, and to go vpon a staffe, and fall thorow the swerde, and to haue scarnesse of bred.

30 Thus Ioab and his brother Abisai slewe Abner, because he had slayne their brother Asahel in the battaill at Gibeon.

31 Dauid sayde vnto Ioab and to all ye people yt was with him: Rente youre clothes, and gyrdle sack cloth aboute you, and make lamentacion for Abner. And the kynge wente after the Bere.

32 And whan they buried Abner at Hebron, the kynge lifte vp his voyce, and wepte besyde Abners graue, and all the people wepte also.

33 And the kynge mourned for Abner, and sayde: Abner is not deed as a foole dyeth.

34 Thy handes were not bounde, thy fete were not vexed with fetters, thou art fallen as a man falleth before wicked vnthriftes. Then all the people bewayled him yet more.

35 Now whan all the people came in to eate with Dauid, whyle it was yet hye daye, Dauid sware, and sayde: God do this and that vnto me, yf I taist ether bred or oughte els afore the Sone go downe.

36 And all ye people knewe it, and it pleased them well all that ye kynge dyd in the sighte of all the people.

37 And all the people and all Israel perceaued the same daye, that it came not of the kynge, that Abner the sonne of Ner was slayne.

38 And the kynge sayde vnto his seruantes: Knowe ye not that this daye a prynce and a greate man is fallen in Israel?

39 As for me, I am yet but tender and anoynted kynge. But the men the children of Zeru Ia are to harde for me. The LORDE recompence him that doth euell, accordinge to his wickednes.

Chapter 4

1 Whan Sauls sonne herde yt Abner was deed at Hebron, his hades were feble, & all Israell was sory.

2 But there were two men captaynes ouer the soudyers vnder the sonne of Saul, the one was called Baena, the other Rehob, sonnes of Rimon ye Berothite, of the childre of Ben Iamin: for Beroth was couted also in Ben Iamin.

3 And the Berothites were fled vnto Gethaim, & were straugers there vnto this daye.

4 Ionathas also the sonne of Saul had a sonne which was lame on his fete, & was fyue yeare olde whan the rumoure of Saul and Ionathas came from Iesrael. And his nurse toke him, and fled. And whyle she made haist and fled, he fell, and was lame: And his name was Mephiboseth.

5 Then wente the sonnes of Rimon ye Berothite, Rehob & Baena, & came to the house of Isboseth, in the heate of the daye, & he laye vpo his bed at the noone daie.

6 And they came in to the house to fetch wheate, & thrust him in the bely, & gat them awaye.

7 For wha they came into ye house, he laye vpo his bed in his chamber, & they stickte him to death, & smote of his heade, and toke his heade, and departed by the waye of the playne felde all that nighte,

8 and broughte the heade of Isboseth to Dauid vnto Hebron, and sayde vnto the kynge: Beholde, there is the heade of Isboseth the sonne of Saul thine enemye, which layed wayte for thy soule. This daye hath the LORDE auenged my lorde the kynge of Saul and his sede.

9 Then answered Dauid vnto Rehob and Baena his brother, ye sonnes of Rimon ye Berothite, & sayde: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, which hath deliuered my soule out of all trouble,

10 I toke him yt brought me worde and sayde: Saul is deed, and he thoughte he had bene a good messaunger, and at Siclag I put him to death, vnto whom I shulde haue geuen a rewarde for his message.

11 And these vngodly personnes haue slayne a righteous man in his owne house vpon his bed. Yee shulde not I requyre his bloude of youre handes, and take you awaye from ye earth?

12 And Dauid commaunded his yonge men, which slewe them, and smote of their handes and fete, and hanged them vp by ye pole at Hebron. But the heade of Isboseth toke they, and buried it in Abners graue at Hebron.

Chapter 5

1 And all the trybes of Israel came to Daudid vnto Hebron, and sayde: Beholde, we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2 And afore tyme wha Saul was kynge ouer vs, thou leddest Israel out and in. So the LORDE hath sayde: Thou shalt kepe my people of Israel, and shalt be the duke ouer Israel.

3 And all the Elders in Israel came to ye kynge vnto Hebron. And kynge Daudid made a couenaut with them at Hebron before ye LORDE. And they anoynted Daudid to be kynge ouer Israel.

4 Thyrtie yere olde was Daudid whan he was made kynge, and reigned fortye yeares.

5 At Hebron rained he seue yeares and sixe monethes ouer Iuda: but at Ierusalem he reigned thre and thirtie yeares ouer all Israel and Iuda.

6 And the kynge wente with his men to Ierusalem, agaynst the Iebusites, which dwelt in the londe. Neuertheles they sayde vnto Daudid: Thou shalt not come hither but the blynde and lame shal dryue ye awaie. (They thoughte planely, that Daudid shulde not come in.)

7 Howbeit Daudid wanne the castell of Sion, which is the cite of Daudid.

8 Then sayde Daudid the same daye: Who so euer smyteth the Iebusites, and optayneth the perquellies, the lame & the blynde, which (Iebusites) Daudids soule hateth. Herof cometh the prouerbe: Let no blynde ner lame come in to the house.

9 So Daudid dwelt in ye castell, and called it the cite of Daudid. And Daudid builded roude aboute fro Millo and within.

10 And Daudid grewe, & the LORDE the God Zebaoth was with him.

11 And Hiram the kyng of Tyre sent messaungers vnto Daudid, and Cedar trees for walles, and Carpenters, and Masons, to builde Daudid an house.

12 And Daudid knewe, that the LORDE had conformed him kynge ouer Israel, and exalted his kingdome for his people of Israels sake.

13 And Daudid toke yet mo wyues and concubynes at Ierusalem, after he was come from Hebron, and there were yet mo sonnes & daughters borne vnto him.

14 And these are the names of them that were borne vnto him at Ierusalem: Samma Sobab, Nathan, Salomon,

15 Iebegar, Elisua, Nepheg, Iaphia,

16 Elisama, Eliada, Eliphaet.

17 And whan the Philistines herde that Daudid was anoynted kinge ouer Israel, they wete vp all to seke Daudid. Whan Daudid perceaued that, he wete downe in to a castell.

18 But the Philistynas came and scatered them selues beneth in the valley of Rephaim.

19 And Daudid axed at the LORDE, and sayde: Shal I go vp agaynst the Philistynes? and wylt thou delyuer them in to my hande? The LORDE sayde vnto Daudid: Go vp, I wyll delyuer the Philistynes in to thy hande.

20 And Daudid came vnto Baal Prazim, and smote the there, and sayde: The LORDE hath deuyded myne enemies, euen as the waters parte asunder: therfore is the same place called Baal Prazim.

21 And they lefte their ymagines there, but Daudid and his men caried the awaye.

22 Neuerthelesse the Philistynes wente vp agayne, and scatered them selues beneth in the valley of Rephaim.

23 And Daudid axed at the LORDE. The LORDE sayde: Thou shalt go vp, but compase them behinde, that thou mayest be vpon them ouer agaynst the Peertrees: 24 and whan thou hearest vpon the toppe of the Peertrees, the sounde of the goinge be bolde, for then is the LORDE gone forth before the, to smyte the hoost of the Philistines

25 Daudid dyd as the LORDE commaunded him and smote the Philistynes from Geba, tyll thou commest vnto Gaser.

Chapter 6

1 And Daudid gathered agayne all the yonge chosen men in Israel, euen thre thousande,

2 and gat him vp, and wente with all the people that was with him of the citesins of Iuda, to fetch vp the Arke of God from thence: whose name is: The name of the LORDE Zebaoth dwelleth theron betwene the Cherubins

3 And they caused the arke of God to be caried vpo a new cart, and fetched it out of ye house of Abinadab, which dwelt at Gibea. Vsa and Ahio the sonnes of Abinadab droue ye new cart.

4 And whan they broughte it with the Arke from the house of Abinadab which dwelt at Gibea, Ahio wente before the Arke:

5 and Daudid and all the house of Israel played before the LORDE, with all maner of instrumentes of Pine tre, with harpes, and Psalteries, and tabrettes, and belles, and Cymbals.

6 And whan they came to the barnefloore of Nahon, Vsa stretched out his hande, and helde the Arke of God, for the oxen wete out asyde.

7 Then waxed the wrath of the LORDE fearce agaynst Vsa, and God smote him there because of his presumpcio, so that he dyed there besyde the Arke of God.

8 Then was Daudid sory, because the LORDE had made soch a rente vpon Vsa, and he called the same place Perez Vsa vnto this daye.

9 And Daudid feared the LORDE the same daie, and sayde: How shall the Arke of the LORDE come vnto me?

10 And he wolde not let it be broughte to him in to the cite of Daudid, but caused it be brought in to ye house of Obed Edom the Gathite.

11 And whan the Arke of the LORDE had contynued thre monethes in the house of Obed Edom the Gathite, the LORDE blessed him and all his house.

12 And it was tolde kynge Daudid, that the LORDE had blessed the house of Obed Edo and all that he had because of the Arke of God. Then wente he, and fetched vp the Arke of God out of ye house of Obed Edom in to the cite of Daudid with ioye.

13 And wha they were gone sixe steppes in with the Arke of the LORDE, they offered an oxen and a fat shepe.

14 And Daudid daused wt all his mighte before the LORDE, and was girded with an ouerbody cote of lynne.

15 And Daudid withall Israel brought vp ye Arke of the LORDE with tabrettes and trompettes.

16 And whan the Arke of the LORDE came into the cite of Daudid, Michol the doughte of Saul loked out at a window, and sawe kynge Daudid leapyng, sprynginge and dausyng before the LORDE, and despysed him in hir hert.

17 But whan they brought in ye Arke of the LORDE, they set it in hir place in the myddes of the Tabernacle, which Daudid had pitched for it. And Daudid offred burntofferynges and deedofferynges before ye LORDE.

18 And whan Daudid had made an ende of offeryng the burntofferynges and deedofferynges, he blessed the people in the name of the LORDE Zebaoth, 19 and dealete out vnto all the people, and to the multitude of Israel, both to man & woma, vnto euery one a cake of bred, and a pece of flesh, and a meece of potage. Then wente all the people their waye, euery one vnto his house.

20 Whan Daudid came agayne to blesse his house, Michol the daughter of Saul wente forth to mete him, and sayde: How glorious hath the kyng of Israel bene to daye, which hath vncouered himselfe before the maydes of his seruantes, like as the rascall people discouer them selues.

21 But Daudid saide vnto Michol: I wil playe before ye LORDE, which hath chosen me afore yi father, and afore all his house, because he hath commaunded me to be the pryncce ouer the people of the LORDE, euen ouer Israel, 22 and yet wyl I be vyler then so, and wyll be lowe in myne owne sighte: and with the maydens wherof thou hast spoken, wyl I be honoured.

23 As for Michol the daughter of Saul, she had no childe vnto the daye of hir death.

Chapter 7

1 Now whan the kyng sat in his house, and the LORDE had geuen him rest from all his enemies on euery syde,

2 he sayde vnto the prophet Nathan: Beholde, I dwell in a house of Cedre, and the Arke of God dwelleth amonge the curtaynes.

3 Nathan sayde vnto the kyng: Go thy waye, what so euer thou hast in thine hert, yt do: for the LORDE is wt the.

4 But the same nighte came ye worde of the LORDE vnto Nathan, & sayde:

5 Go & speake to my seruaut Daudid: Thus sayeth ye LORDE: Shalt thou buylde me an house to dwell in?

6 I haue dwelt in no house sence the daye that I broughte the children of Israel vnto this daye, but haue walked in the Tabernacle and Habitation,

7 whither so euer I wente with the children of Israel. Dyd I euer speake to eny of the trybes of Israel (whom I commaunded to kepe my people of Israel) & sayde: Wherfore do ye not buylde me an house of Cedar wodd?

8 So shalt thou speake now vnto my seruaut Daudid: Thus sayeth the LORDE Zebaoth: I toke the from the pasture whan thou wentest behynde the shepe, yt thou shuldest be ye pryncce ouer my people of Israel, 9 & haue bene wt the whither so euer thou wentest, & haue roted out all thine enemies before the, & haue made the a greate name, accordinge to the name of the greate men vpon earth.

10 And for my people of Israel I wyll appoynte a place, and wyll plante them, that they maye remayne there, nomore to be remoued, and yt the childe of wickednes oppresse them nomore, like as afore, 11 and sence the tyme that I ordeyned Iudges ouer my people of Israel. And I wyll geue the rest from all thine enemies. And the LORDE sheweth the, that the LORDE wyl make the a house.

12 Now whan yi tyme is fulfilled yt thou shalt slepe wt thy fathers, I wil after ye rayse vp thy syde, which shal come of thy body: his kyngdome wyl I stablishe, 13 he shal buylde an house for my name, and I wyll stablyshe ye seate of his kyngdome for euer.

14 I wyl be his father, and he shal be my sonne. Whan he doth a trespace, I wyll reprove him with the rodd of men and with the plagges of ye childe of men:

15 But my mercy shal not be withdrawn fro him, as I haue withdrawe it fro Saul, who I haue take awaye before the.

16 As for yi house & thy kyngdome, it shal be stablishe for euer before the, & thy seate shal endure fast for euermore.

17 Whan Nathan had tolde all these wordes & all this vision vnto Daudid, 18 kynge Daudid came and sat him downe before the LORDE, and sayde: O LORDE God, who am I? and what is my house, yt thou hast broughte me thus farre?

19 This O LORDE God hast thou thoughte to litle also, but hast spoken of the house of thy seruaut yet loge for to come. O LORDE God, is that the lawe of men?

20 And what shall Daudid speake vnto the? thou knowest thy seruaut O LORDE God, 21 for thy wordes sake and accordinge to yi hert hast thou done all these greate things, yt thou mightest shewe the vnto thy seruaut.

22 Therefore art thou greatly magnified O LORDE God: for there is none like the, & there is no God but thou, accordinge vnto all that we haue herde with our eares.

 23 For where is there a people vpon earth as thy people of Israel? For whose sake God wente to deluyer him a people, and to make him selfe a name, and to do them such greate and terrible thinges in thy lode before yt people, whom thou hast deluyered vnto thy selfe fro Egipte, from the people, and from their goddes.
 24 And thy people of Israel hast thou prepared the to be a people vnto thyne owne selfe for euer, and thou O LORDE art become their God.
 25 Stablish now ye worde therefore for euer (O LORDE God) which thou hast spoke ouer thy seruauant & ouer his house, & do acordinge as thou hast sayde.
 26 So shall thy name be greate for euer, so that it shal be sayde: The LORDE Zebaoth is the God ouer Israel, & the house of thy seruauant Dauid shal be made sure before the.
 27 For thou LORDE Zebaoth, thou God of Israel hast opened the eare of thy seruauant, and sayde: I wil buylde the an house. Therefore hath yi seruauant founde his hert, to praye this prayer vnto the.
 28 Now LORDE God thou thy selfe art God, & thy wordes shal be the trueth. Thou hast spoken soch good ouer thy seruauant.
 29 Begynne now therefore, and blesse yi seruauantes house, that it maye be before the for euer, for thou LORDE God thine awne selfe hast spoken it: and with thy blessinge shal thy seruauantes house be blessed for euer.

Chapter 8

1 And it fortuneth after this, yt Dauid smote ye Philistynes, and discomfited them, and toke the brydell of bondage out of the Philistynes hande.
 2 He smote the Moabites also to the grounde, so that he broughte two partes of them to death, and let one parte lyue. Thus the Moabites were subdued vnto Dauid, so yt they broughte him giftes.
 3 Dauid smote Hadad Eser also the sonne of Rehob kynge of Zoba, whan he wete to fetch his power agayne at ye water Euphrates.
 4 And of them toke Dauid a thousande & seuen hundreth horsmen, and twenty thousande fote men, and lamed all the charettes, saue an hundreth which he kepte behynde.
 5 But the Siryans came from Damascus to helpe Hadad Eser kynge of Zoba. And Dauid smote two and twenty thousande men of the Siryans,
 6 and layed people vnto Damascus in Syria. Thus was Syria subdued vnto Dauid, so that they broughte him giftes: for ye LORDE helped Dauid whither so euer he wente.
 7 And Dauid toke ye shyldes of golde, which Hadad Esers seruauantes had, and broughte them to Ierusalem.
 8 But from Bethah & Berothai ye cities of Hadad Eser toke Dauid very moch brasse.

9 Whan Thoi the kynge of Hemath herde, that Dauid had smytten all the power of Hadad Eser,
 10 he sent his sonne Ioram vnto Dauid to salute him frendly, & to blesse him, because he had foughten with Adad Eser and smytten him (for Thoi had warred with Hadad Eser) and had Iewels with him of syluer, of golde, and of brasse:
 11 which kynge Dauid halowed also vnto ye LORDE, with the syluer and golde which he sanctified vnto the LORDE from all the Heythe, whom he subdued, 12 from Siria, fro Moab, from the childe of Ammon, from the Philistynes, fro Amalek, from the spoyle of Hadad Eser ye sonne of Rehob kynge of Zoba.
 13 Dauid gat him selfe a name also whan he came, and smote eightene thousande of ye Siryans in ye Salt valley.
 14 And he layed people in all Edomea, and all Edem was subdued vnto Dauid: for the LORDE helped Dauid, whither so euer he wente.
 15 Thus was Dauid kynge ouer all Israel. And he executed iudgmente and righteousnes vnto all ye people.
 16 Ioab ye sonne of Zeru la was captayne ouer the hoost. Iosaphat the sonne of Ahilud was Chaunceler.
 17 Zadok the sonne of Achitob, & Ahimelech the sonne of Abiathar were prestes. Seraia was Scrybe.
 18 Benaia the sonne of Ioiada was ouer ye Chrethians & Plethians. And the sonnes of Dauid were prestes.

Chapter 9

1 And Dauid sayde: Remayneth there yet eny man of Sauls house, that I maye do mercy vpon him for Ionathas sake?
 2 There was a seruauant of Sauls house, named Siba, whom they called vnto Dauid, & the kynge sayde vnto him: Art thou Siba? He sayde: Yee thy seruauant.
 3 The kynge sayde: Is there yet eny man of Sauls house, yt I maye do the mercy of God vpon him? Siba sayde vnto the kynge: There is yet a sonne of Ionathas, lame on his fete.
 4 The kynge sayde vnto him: Where is he? Siba sayde vnto ye kynge: Beholde, he is at Ladober in ye house of Machir ye sonne of Ammuel.
 5 The sent kynge Dauid thither, & caused for to fetch him from Lodaber out of ye house of Machir the sonne of Ammuel.
 6 Now whan Mephiboseth the sonne of Ionathas the sonne of Saul came vnto Dauid, he fell vpon his face, & worshiped him. Dauid sayde: Mephiboseth. He sayde: Here am I thy seruauant.
 7 Dauid sayde vnto him: Feare not, for I wyll do mercy vpon the for thy father Ionathas sake, and wil restore vnto the all the londe of thy father Saul: but thou shalt eate bred daylie at my table.
 8 He worshiped and sayde: Who am I thy seruauant, that thou turnest the to a dead dogg as I am?
 9 Then the kynge called Siba ye seruauant of Saul, and sayde vnto him: All yt hath belonged vnto Saul & to all his house,

 10 haue I geuen to thy lordes sonne. Tyll his londe for him therefore, thou & thy children & seruauantes, & brynge it in, yt it maye be bred for yi lordes sonne, and yt he maye enioye it: but Mephiboseth yi lordes sonne shal eate bred daylie at my table. Siba had fyftene sonnes & twenty seruauantes.
 11 And Siba sayde vnto ye kynge: Acordinge vnto all as my lorde the kynge hath commaunded his seruauant, so shal his seruauant do. And let Mephiboseth (sayde Dauid) eate at my table, as one of the kynges owne children.
 12 And Mephiboseth had a yoge sonne, whose name was Micha. But all yt dwelt in the house of Siba, serued Mephiboseth.
 13 As for Mephiboseth him selfe, he dwelt at Ierusalem: for he ate daylie at the kynges table and was lame on both his fete.

Chapter 10

1 And it fortuneth after this, that ye kynge of the children of Ammon dyed, & his sonne Hanun was kynge in his steade.
 2 Then sayde Dauid: I wyll do mercy vpon Hanun the sonne of Nahas, as his father dyd mercy vpon me. And so he sent, and comforted him by his seruauantes ouer his fathers death. Now whan Dauids seruauantes came into the londe of the children of Ammon,
 3 the mightie men of the children of Ammon sayde vnto Hanun their lorde: Thynkest thou it is for the honor of yi father in yi sighte, yt Dauid hath sent comforters vnto the? Hath he not sent his seruauantes vnto ye (thynkest thou) to spye and search out the cite and to ouerthrowe it?
 4 Then toke Hanun the seruauantes of Dauid, and shoue of the one halue of their beerdes, and cut of the halfe of their garmetes euen by the girdell, and so let them go.
 5 Wha this was tolde Dauid, he sent to mete them: for the men were put to greate shame. And the kynge caused to saye vnto them: Abyde at Iericho, tyll youre beerdes be growne, & then come agayne.
 6 Whan the childe of Ammon sawe that they stynked in the sighte of Dauid, they sent and hyred the Siryans of the house of Rehob, and the Siryans at Zoba euen twenty thousande fote men, and from the kynge of Maecha a thousande men, and from Istob twolue thousande men.
 7 Whan Dauid herde that, he sent Ioab with all the hoost of ye men of warre.
 8 And the children of Ammon wente forth, and prepared them selues to ye battayll before the intraunce of the gate. But the Siryans of Soba, of Rehob, of Istob and of Maecha were alone in the felde.
 9 Now whan Ioab sawe that the battayll was set vpo him before and behynde, he chose of all the best yonge men in Israel, & prepared him selfe agaynst the Siryans.

 10 And the resydue of the people put he vnder the hande of his brother Abisai, that he mighte prepare him agaynst the childe of Ammon.
 11 And sayde: Yf ye Siryans be to mightie for me, helpe thou me: but yf the children of Ammon be to mightie for the, I shal helpe the.
 12 Take a good corage vnto the, and let vs be stronge for oure people, and for ye cite of oure God: neuertheles the LORDE do what pleaseth him.
 13 And Ioab made him forth with the people that was with him, to fighte agaynst the Siryans: and they fled before him.
 14 And whan the children of Ammon sawe that the Siryans fled, they fled also before Abisai, & wente in to the cite. So Ioab turned agayne from the children of Ammon, & came to Ierusalem.
 15 And whan the Siryans sawe yt they were smytten before Israel, they came together.
 16 And Hadad Eser sent & broughte out ye Siryans beyonde the water, and conueyed their power in, & Sobath the chefe captayne of Hadad Eser wente before the.
 17 Whan this was tolde Dauid, he gathered all Israel together, & wente ouer Iordane, and came to Helam, & the Siryans prepared them selues against Dauid to fighte with him, 18 howbeit the Siryans fled before Israel. And Dauid slewe of the Siryans seue hundreth charettes, & fortye thousande horsme, & Sobath the chefe captayne smote he also, so that he dyed there.
 19 Whan the kynges which were vnder Adad Eser, sawe, that they were smytten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and were subdued vnto them. And the Siryans were afrayed to helpe the children of Ammon enymore.

Chapter 11

1 And whan ye yeare came aboute what tyme as ye kynges vse to go forth, Dauid sent Ioab and his seruauantes with him, and all Israel, to destroye the children of Ammon, and to laye sege vnto Rabba: but Dauid abode at Ierusalem.
 2 And aboute the euetyde it fortuneth that Dauid arose from his restinge place, & wente vp to ye toppe of the kynges palace, and from ye toppe he sawe a woman wassing hir selfe, and the woman was of a very fayre bewtye.
 3 And Dauid sent, and caused to axe what woman it was, and sayde: Is not that Bethseba the daughter of Eliam the wife of Vrias the Hethite?
 4 And Dauid sent messaugers, and caused for to fetch her. And wha she was come in vnto him, he laye with her. Neuertheles she halowed hir selfe from hir vncleannes, and turned agayne vnto hir house.
 5 And the woma was with childe, and sent, and caused to tell Dauid and to saye: I am with childe.

6 Daud sent vnto Ioab (sayege:) Sende me Vrias ye Hethite. And Ioab sent Vrias vnto Daud.

7 And whan Vrias came to him, Daud axed him yf it stode well with Ioab, and with the people and with the battayll.

8 And Daud sayde to Vrias: Go downe in to thy house, and wash thy fete. And whan Vrias wente out of the kynges palace, the kynges gifte folowed him.

9 And Vrias layed him downe to slepe before the kynges palace gate, where all his lordes seruautes laye, & wente not downe in to his house.

10 Whan worde came to Daud: Vrias is not gone downe in to his house, Daud sayde vnto him: Camest thou not ouer the felde? Why wentest thou not downe in to thy house?

11 Vrias sayde vnto Daud: The Arke and Israel & Iuda abyde in the tentes: And Ioab my lorde and my lordes seruautes lye in ye felde, and shal I go in to my house to eate and drynke, and to lye with my wife? As truly as thou luyest, and as truly as thy soule luyeth, I wyll not do this thinge.

12 Daud sayde vnto Vria: Abyde here then to daye, tomorow wil I let the go. So Vrias abode at Ierusalem the same daye, and the nexte also.

13 And Daud called him to eate & drynke before him, & made him dronken. And at euen he wente to lye him downe for to slepe vpon his couche with his lordes seruautes, and wente not downe in to his house.

14 On the morow wrote Daud a letter vnto Ioab, & sent it by Vrias.

15 After this maner wrote he in the letter: Set Vrias in ye forest parte of ye batayll, & turne you behynde him, yt he maye be slayne.

16 Now wha Ioab layed sege to the cite, he set Vrias in ye place, where he knewe yt the mightiest men of Armes were.

17 And whan the men of the cite fell out and foughte agaynst Ioab, there fell certayne of ye people of Dauds seruautes. And Vrias the Hethite dyed also.

18 Then sent Ioab, and caused to tell ye kyng all the matter concernynge the battayll,

19 and comaunded the messaunger, and sayde: Whan thou hast tolde ye kyng all the matter concernynge the batayll,

20 and seist that he is wroth, and yf the kyng saye vnto the: Wherefore came ye so nye the cite with the batayll? Knowe ye not how they vse to shute from the wall?

21 Who smote Abimelech the sonne of Ierubaal? Dyd not a woma cast a pece of a mylstone vpo him from the wall, so that he dyed at Thebez? Why came ye so nye the wall? Then shalt thou saye: Thy seruaunt Vrias the Hethite is deed also.

22 The messaunger wente his waye, and came and tolde Daud all together, wherefore Ioab had sent him.

23 And the messaunger sayde vnto Daud: The men preuayled agaynst vs, and fell out vnto vs in to ye felde: and we were vpon them harde at the dore of ye porte.

24 And the archers shot from the wall vpon thy seruautes, and slewe certayne of the kynges seruautes: and thy seruaunt Vrias the Hethite is deed also.

25 Daud sayde vnto the messaunger: Thus shalt thou saye vnto Ioab: Let not yt vexe the, for the swerde consumeth now one now another. Go forth with the battayll against the cite, that thou mayest destroye it, and coforte the men.

26 And whan Vrias wife herde that Vrias was deed, she mourned for hir husbnde.

27 But wha she had made an ende of mournynge, Daud sent, and caused her be fetched vnto his palace, and she became his wyfe, and bare him a sonne. Neuertheles this dede yt Daud dyd, displeased the LORDE.

Chapter 12

1 And the LORDE sent Nathan vnto Daud. Whan he came to him, he tolde him: There were two men in one cite, the one riche, the other poore.

2 The riche man had very many shepe and oxen:

3 but the poore man had nothinge saue one litle shepe, which he had boughte, and norished it, so that it grewe vp with him and his children together. It ate of his bred, and dranke of his cuppe, and slepte in his lappe, and he helde it as a daughter.

4 But whan there came a straunger vnto the riche man, he spared to take of his awne shepe & oxen (to prepare oughte for the straunger that was come vnto him) and toke the poore mans shepe, and prepared it for the man that was come vnto him.

5 The was Daud wroth with greate displeasure agaynst that man, and sayde vnto Nathan: As truly as the LORDE luyeth, the man that hath done this, is the childe of death.

6 The shepe also shal he make good foure folde, because he hath done soch a thinge, and not spared it.

7 Then sayde Nathan vnto Daud: Thou art euen the man. Thus sayeth the LORDE the God of Israel: I haue anoynted the to be kyng ouer Israel, and deluyered the out of the hande of Saul, and haue geuen the yi lordes house, and his wyues into thy lappe, and the house of Israel and Iuda haue I geuen the: and yf that be to litle, I wyl yet do this and that for the also.

9 Wherefore hast thou then despysed the worde of the LORDE, to do soch euell in his sighte? Vrias the Hethite hast thou slayne with the swerde: His wife hast thou taken to be thy wyfe, but him hast thou slayne with ye swerde of the children of Ammon.

10 Now therefore shal not ye swerde departe from thy house for ouer, because thou hast despysed me, and taken the wife of Vrias the Hithite, to be thy wife.

11 Thus sayeth the LORDE: Beholde, I wyl raise vp euell of thyne awne house, and wyl take thy wyues before thyne eyes, and wyl geue them vnto thy neghboure, so that he shall lye with thy wyues by Sonnelighte.

12 For thou hast done it secretly, but I wyl do this in the sighte of all Israel, and by Sonne lighte.

13 Then sayde Daud vnto Nathan I haue synned vnto the LORDE. Nathan sayde vnto Daud: So hath the LORDE also taken awaye thy synne, thou shalt not dye.

14 But for so moch as thou thorow this dede hast caused the enemies of the LORDE to blaspheme, ye sonne that is borne vnto the, shall dye the death.

15 And Nathan wente home. As for the childe which Vrias wife bare vnto Daud, the LORDE smote it, so that it was deedsicke.

16 And Daud besoughte God for the childe, and fasted, and wente in, and laie all night vpon the earth.

17 Then rose the Elders of his house, and wolde haue taken him vp fro the grounde: neuertheles he wolde not, nether ate he wt them.

18 Vpon the seuenth daye ye childe dyed. And Dauds seruautes durst not tell him that the childe was deed. For they thoughte: Beholde, whan the childe was yet alyue, we spake vnto him, and he herkened not vnto oure voyce, How moch more shall it greue him, yf we saye: The childe is deed?

19 And Daud sawe that his seruautes made a whisperinge together, and perceaued that the childe was deed, and sayde vnto his seruautes: Is the childe deed? They sayde: Yee.

20 Then rose Daud vp from the earth, and washed him selfe, and anoynted him, and put on other garmentes, & wente in to the house of the LORDE, and worshipped. And whan he came agayne, he comaunded to set bred before him, and ate.

21 Then sayde his seruautes vnto him: What maner of thinge is this that thou doest? Whan the childe was alyue, thou fastedst and weptest: but now that it is deed, thou stodest up and eatest?

22 He sayde: I fasted and wepte for the childe whan it was yet a lyeue, for I thoughte: Who knoweth, peraduenture the LORDE maye be gracious vnto me, that the childe maye lyeue.

23 But now that it is deed, wherefore shulde I fast? Can I fetch it agayne. I shal go vnto it, but it shall not come agayne vnto me.

24 And whan Daud had comforted Bethseba his wife, he wente in vnto her, and laye with her. And she bare a sonne, whom he called Salomon. And the LORDE loued him.

25 And he put him vnder the hade of Nathan ye prophet, which called him Iedidia because of the LORDE.

26 So Ioab foughte agaynst Rabba of ye children of Ammon, and wanne the kynges cite,

27 & sent messagers vnto Daud, & caused to saye vnto him: I haue foughte against Rabba, and haue wonne the water cite also.

28 Gather thou therfore the residue of the people together, and laye sege to ye cite, and wyne it, that I wyne it not, and haue the name therof.

29 So Daud gathered all ye people together, and wente, & foughte agaynst Rabba, and wanne it, 30 and toke their kynges crowne fro his heade (which in weight had a talente of golde, and precious stones) and was set vpon Dauds heade, and very moch spoyle caried he out of the cite.

31 As for the people that was therin, he broughte the forth, and layed them vnder yron sawes and hokes and wedges of yron, and burned the in tyle ouens. Thus dyd he vnto all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then returned Daud and all the people vnto Ierusalem agayne.

Chapter 13

1 And it fortunated after this, that Absalom ye sonne of Daud had a fayre sister, whose name was Tamar, & Ammon the sonne of Daud loued her.

2 And Ammon was in greate combraunce, in so moch that he was euen sicke, because of Tamar his sister. For she was a virgin, and Ammon thoughte it shulde beharde for him to do eny thinge vnto her.

3 But Ammon had a frede, whose name was Ionadab the sonne of Simea Dauds brother, And the same Ionadab was a very wyse man,

4 which sayde vnto him: Why art thou so leane (thou kynges sonne) from daye to daye? Mayest thou not tell me? Then sayde Ammon vnto him: I loue Tamar my brother Absaloms sister exceedingly. 5 Ionadab sayde vnto him: laye the downe vpon thy bedd, and make the sicke. And whan thy father commeth to loke how thou doest, saye vnto him: Oh let my sister Tamar come, that she maye fede me, and make a meece of meate before me, that I maye se it, & eate it of hir hande.

6 So Ammon layed him downe, and made him sicke. Now wha the kyng came in to loke how he dyd, Ammon sayde vnto the kyng: Oh let my sister Tamar come, and make me a sypynge or two, and that I maye eate it of hir hande.

7 Then sent Daud for Tamar in to the house, and sayde vnto her: Go thy waye to thy brother Ammons house, & make him a meece of meate.

8 Tamar wente vnto hir brother Amons house, but he laye in his bed. And she toke floure, and mixte it, and dighte it before his eyes, and made him a sypynge.

9 And she toke the meece of meate, and poured it out before him: but he wolde not eate.

10 And Ammon saide: Put forth euery man fro me. And euery man wete forth from him. Then sayde Ammon vnto Thamar: Brynge me that meece of meate in to the chamber, that I maye eate it of thy hande. Then toke Thamar ye syppeinge that she had made, and broughte it vnto Ammon hir brother into the chamber.

11 And when she broughte it vnto him yt he mighte eate, he toke holde of her, & sayde vnto her: Come my sister, lye with me.

12 Neuertheles she saide: Oh no my brother, force me not: for so do they not in Israel, do not thou soch foly.

13 Whither shal I go with my shame? And thou shalt be as one of the vnwyse in Israel. But speake vnto the kynge, he shal not withholde me from the.

14 Howbeit he wolde not herken vnto her, and ouercame her, forced her, and laye with her.

15 And Ammon hated her exceedingly, so that the hate was greater then the loue was before. And Ammon sayde vnto her: Vp, and get the hence.

16 She saide vnto him: This euell that thou thrustest me out, is greater then the other, that thou hast done vnto me. Neuertheles he herkened not vnto her, 17 but called his boye that serued him, and sayde: Put away this woman fro me, and locke the dore after her.

18 And she had a partye garment on: for soch garmentes wayre ye kynges daughters whyle they were virgins. And wha his seruauant had put hir forth, & lockte the dore after her,

19 Thamar strowed ashes vpon hir heade, and rente the partye garment which she had vpon her, and layed hir hande vpon hir heade, and wente on, and cryed.

20 And hir brother Absalom sayde vnto her: Hath thy brother Ammon bene with the? Now holde thy peace my sister, it is thy brother, and take not the matter so to hert. So Thamar remayned a wyddowe in brother Absaloms house.

21 And whan kynge Dauid herde of all this, he was very sorry.

22 As for Absalom, he spake nether euell ner good to Ammon: but Absalom hated Ammon, because he had forced his sister Thamar.

23 After two yeares had Absalom shepe clyppers at Baal Hazor, which lyeth by Ephraim. And Absalom called all the kynges children, 24 and came to the kynge, and sayde: Beholde, thy seruauant hath shepe clyppers, let it please ye kynge with his seruantes to go with his seruante.

25 But the kynge sayde vnto Absalom: No my sonne, let vs not all go, lest we be to chargeable vnto the. And he wolde nedes haue had him to go, howbeit he wolde not, but blessed him.

26 Absalom sayde: Shall my brother Ammon go with vs then? The kynge sayde vnto him: Wherefore shall he go with the?

27 Then was Absalom so importune vpon him, that he let Ammon and all the kynges childe go with him.

28 But Absalom commaunded his yongemen, and sayde: Take hede whan Ammon is mery with wyne (and I saye vnto you: Smyte Ammon, and slaye him) that ye be not afrayed: for I haue commaunded you, be stronge, and playe the men.

29 So Absaloms yonge men dyd vnto Ammon, as Absalom had commaunded them. Then stode all the kynges children vp, and euery one gat him vp vpo his Mule, and fled.

30 And whyle they were yet on their waye, the rumoure came to kynge Dauid, that Absalom had slayne all the kynges children, so that not one of them was lefte.

31 Then stode the kynge vp, and rente his clothes, & layed him downe vpon the earth, and all his seruantes that stode aboute him, rente their clothes.

32 Then answered Ionadab ye sonne of Simea Dauids brother, and sayde: Let not my lorde thynke that all the yonge men the kynges children are deed, but yt Ammon is deed onely: for Absalom hath kepte it in him selfe sence the daie that he forced his sister Thamar.

33 Therefore let not my lorde the kynge take it so to hert, that all the kynges children shulde be deed, but that Ammon is deed onely.

34 As for Absalom, he fled. And the yongeman that kepte the watch, lifte vp his eyes, and loked, and beholde, A greate people came in the waye one after another by the hill syde.

35 Then sayde Ionadab vnto the kynge: Beholde, the kynges children come. Euen as thy seruauant sayde, so is it happened.

36 And whan he had ended his talkynge, the kynges children came, and lifte vp their voyce, and wepte. The kynge and all his seruantes wepte also very sore.

37 But Absalom fled, and wente vnto Thalmai the sonne of Ammihud kynge of Gesur. As for Dauid, he mourned for his sonne euery daye.

38 Whan Absalom was fled and gone vnto Gesur, he was there thre yeare.

39 And kynge Dauid ceased from goinge out agaynst Absalom, for he had comforted him selfe ouer Ammon that he was deed.

Chapter 14

1 Ioab the sonne of Ieru Ia perceaued yt the kynges hert was agaynst Absalom, 2 and sent vnto Thecoa, and caused to fetch from thence a prudent woman and saide vnto her: Make lametacion, and weere mournynge garmentes, & anynte the not with oyle: but fayne thy selfe as a woman which hath mourned longe ouer a deed,

3 and thou shalt go in to the kynge, and speake for so vnto him. And Ioab tolde her what she shulde saye.

4 And whan the woman of Thecoa wolde speake with the kynge, she fell vpon hir face to the grounde, and worshipped, and sayde: Helpe me O kynge.

5 The kynge sayde vnto her: What ayleth the? She sayde: I am a wedowe, a woman that mourneth, and my husbade is deed. 6 And thy handmayde had two sonnes, which stroue together in the felde: and whyle there was noman to parte the a sunder, the one smote the other, and slewe him.

7 And beholde, all the whole kynred ryseth vp agaynst thy handmayden, and saye: Delyuer him which hath smytten his brother, that we maye kyll him, for the soule of his brother whom he hath slayne, and that we maye destroye the heyre also. And thus are they mynded to put out my sparke, which yet is lefte, that there shulde no name ner eny thinge els remayne ouer vnto my husbade vpon earth.

8 The kynge sayde vnto the woman: Go ye waye home, I wil geue a comaudemet for ye.

9 And the woman of Thecoa saide vnto ye kynge: The trespace be vpon me (my lorde ye kynge) and vpon my fathers house: but the kynge and his seate be vngiltye.

10 The kynge sayde: He that speaketh agaynst the, brynge him vnto me, so shall he touch the nomore.

11 She sayde: Let the kynge thynke vpon the LORDE his God, that there be not to many auengers of bloude to destroye, and that they brynge not my sonne to naught. He sayde: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, there shall not one heer of thy sonne fall vpon the earth.

12 And the woman sayde: Let thy handmayde speake somewhat to my lorde the kynge. He sayde: speake on.

13 The woman sayde: Wherefore hast thou deuised soch a thinge agaynst the people of God? And how happeneth it that the kynge speaketh soch, to make himselfe giltye, and causeth not his outlawe to be broughte agayne?

14 For we all dye the death, and as the water that sinketh in to the earth, which is not taken vp. And God will not take awaye the lyfe, but vnbethynketh himselfe, yt euen the very outlawe be not cleane thrust out from him.

15 Thus am I come also to speake this to my lorde the kynge in the presence of the people, for thy handmayden thoughte: I wyll speake to the kynge, peradventure he shall do that his handmayden sayeth, 16 for he shall heare his handmayden, to delyuer me from the hande of all them, that wolde destroye me with my sonne from the inheritaunce of God.

17 And thy handmayden thoughte, ye worde of my lorde the kynge shall be as a meatofferynge, for my lorde the kinge is as an angell of God, so that he can heare good and euell, therefore shall the LORDE thy God be with the.

18 The kynge answered and sayde vnto the woman: Kepe nothyng fro me that I axe the. The woman sayde: Let my lorde the kinge speake on.

19 The kynge sayde: Is not the hande of Ioab with the in all this? The woman answered and sayde: As truly as thy soule lyueth (my lorde O kynge,) there is els noman nether at the righte hande ner at ye lefte, but euen as my LORDE the kynge hath sayde, for thy seruauant Ioab hath commaunded me, and he himselfe hath taughte thy handmayden all these wordes, 20 that I shulde turne this matter of this fasshio, this hath Ioab thy seruauant done. But my lorde is wyse, as the wysdome of an angell of God, so that he knoweth all thynges vpon earth.

21 Then sayde the kynge vnto Ioab: Beholde, I haue done this: go thy waye therfore and brynge the childe Absalom agayne.

22 Then fell Ioab vpon his face vnto the grounde, and worshipped, and thanked the kynge, and sayde: This daye doth thy seruauant perceau, that I haue founde grace in thy syghte my lorde the kynge, in that the kynge doth as his seruauant hath sayde.

23 So Ioab gat him vp, and wente vnto Gesur, and broughte Absalom to Ierusalem.

24 But the kinge sayde: Let him go againe in to his house, and not se my face. Thus Absalom came agayne to his house, and sawe not ye kynges face.

25 But in all Israel there was not so fayre, and so maruelous goodly a man, as Absalom. From the sole of his fote vnto the toppe of his heade there was not one blemysh in him.

26 And whan his heade was rounded (that was comonly euery yeare, for it was to heuy for him, so that it must nedes haue bene rounded) the heer of his heade weyed two hudreth Sicles after ye kynges weight.

27 And vnto Absalom there were borne thre sonnes and one daughter, whose name was Thamar, and she was a woman of a fayre bewtye:

28 So Absalom abode two yeare at Ierusalem, and sawe not the kynges face.

29 And Absalom sent for Ioab, that he mighte sende him to the kynge. And he wolde not come to him. But he sent the seconde tyme, yet wolde he not come.

30 Then sayde he vnto his seruantes: Ye knowe Ioabs pece of londe that lyeth by myne, and he hath barlye theron: go youre waye therfore and set fyre vpon it. So Absaloms seruantes sett fyre vpon Ioabs pece of londe.

31 Then Ioab gat him vp, and came to Absalom in to the house, and sayde vnto him: Wherefore haue thy seruantes sett fire vpon my pece of londe?

32 Absalo sayde vnto Ioab: Beholde, I sent for the, and caused to saye vnto the: Come hither, that I maye sende the to the kynge, and to saye: Wherefore came I from Gesur? It were better for me that I were there yet. Let me therfore se the kynges face. But yf there be eny trespace in me, then put me to death.

33 And Ioab wente in to the kynge, and tolde him. And he called Absalom, to come in to the kynge, and he worshipped vpon his face to the grounde before the kynge. And the kynge kyssed Absalom.

Chapter 15

1 And after this it fortuneth that Absalom caused to prepare himselfe chearettes and horses, and fyfity men, which were his fote me.

2 And Absalo gat him vp allwaye early in the mornynge, and stode in the waye by the porte: and whan eny man had a matter which shulde come to the kynge for iudgment, Absalom called vnto him and sayde: Of what cite art thou? Yf he sayde then: thy seruauant is of one of the trybes of Israel,

3 then sayde Absalom vnto him: Beholde, thy matter is righte and plaine: but there is noman appoynted ye of the kynge to heare the.

4 And Absalom sayde: O who setteth me to be iudge in ye londe, that euery man which hath a plee or matter to do in ye lawe, might come to me, that I might helpe him to right

5 And whan eny man came to him to do worshippe & to do him obeisaunce, he put forth his hade, and helde him & kyssed him.

6 After this maner dyd Absalom vnto all Israel whan they came to the lawe vnto the kynge, and so dyd he steale awaye the hert of ye men of Israel.

7 After fortye yeares sayde Absalom vnto the kynge: I wil go and perfourme my vowe at Hebron, which I made vnto the LORDE.

8 For thy seruauant made a vowe, whan I dwelt at Gesur in Siria, and saide: Whan ye LORDE bryngeth me agayne to Ierusalem, I shal do a Gods seruyce vnto the LORDE.

9 The kynge sayde vnto him: Go thy waye in peace. And he gat him vp, and wente vnto Hebron.

10 But Absalom had sent out spyes in all the trybes of Israel, sayenge: Whan ye heare the noyse of the trompe, saye: Absalom is made kynge at Hebron.

11 There wente with Absalom two hundred men called from Ierusalem, but they wente on symply, and knewe not of the matter.

12 Absalom sent also for Achitophel (the Gilonyte) Dauids councler, out of his cite Gilo. Now whan he did the sacrifice, the conspiracion was mightie and the people ranne together, and multiplyed with Absalom.

13 Then came one which tolde Dauid, and sayde, that the hert of euery man in Israel folowed Absalom.

14 Dauid sayde vnto all his seruauantes that were with him at Ierusalem: Vp, let vs fle, for here shall be no escapyng for vs before Absalom. Make haist that we maye be goynge, lest he ouertake vs and catch vs, and dryue some mysfortune vpon vs, and smyte the cyte with the edge of the swerde.

15 Then sayde the kynges seruauantes vnto him: Loke what my LORDE ye kinge choseth, beholde, here are thy seruauantes.

16 And the kynge wente forth on fote wt all his housholde. But ten concubynes lefte he to kepe the house.

17 And whan the kynge and all the people came forth on fote, they wete farre from home,

18 and all his seruauantes wente by him, and all the Chrethians and Plethians, and all the Gethites (euen sixe hundred men) which were come on fote from Gath, wente before the kynge.

19 And the kynge sayde vnto Ithai ye Gethite: Why goest thou also with vs? Turne backe, and byde with the kynge, for thou art a straunger: get the hence agayne vnto thy place.

20 Thou camest yesterdaye, and to daye thou iuperdest to go with vs: As for me, I wyl go whither I can: turne thou backe agayne, and mercy and faithfulness happen vnto thy brethren with the.

21 Ithai answered, and sayde: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, and as truly as my lorde the kynge lyueth, loke in what place my lorde the kynge shalbe, (whether it chaunce to life or death) there shal thy seruauant be also.

22 Dauid sayde vnto Ithai: Then come, and go with vs. So wente Ithai the Gethite and all his men, and the whole multitude of the children that were with him.

23 And all the lande wepte with loude voyce, and all the people with them. And the kynge wete ouer the broke Cedron, and all the people wente ouer by the waye that goeth to the wyldernes.

24 And beholde, Sadoc was there also, and all the Leuites that were with them, & they bare ye Arke of the couenuat of God, and set it there. And Abiathar wente vp, tyll all the people came out of the cite.

25 But the kynge sayde vnto Sadoc: Brynge the Arke of God into the cite agayne. Yf I shal fynde grace before the LORDE, he shall fetch me agayne, and shall let me se it, and the house of it.

26 But yf he saye thus: I haue no pleasure to ye, beholde, here am I, let him do with me as it pleaseth him.

27 And the kynge saide vnto Sadoc ye prest: O thou Seer, turne agayne to ye cite with peace, and Ahimaas thy sonne with the and Ionathas the sonne of Abiathar: 28 beholde, I wyl tary in the playne of the wyldernes, tyll the message come from you, and tell me.

29 So Sadoc and Abiathar broughte the Arke of God agayne to Ierusalem, and remayned there.

30 But Dauid wente vp to mount Olyuete and wepte, & his heade was couered. And all the people that was with him, had euery man his heade couered and wente on and wepte.

31 And whan it was tolde Dauid, that Achitophel was in the cofederacy with Absalom, he sayde: LORDE turne thou Achitophels counsell to foolishnes.

32 And whan Dauid came vp to the toppe of the mount, where the vse was to worshippe God, Chusai the Arachite met him with his cote rent, and earth vpon his heade.

33 And Dauid sayde vnto him: Yf thou go with me, thou shalt be chargeable vnto me:

34 but yf thou goest agayne in to the cite, and sayest vnto Absalom: I am thy seruauant O kynge euen as I was thy fathers seruauant, so wyll I now be thy seruauant, Then shalt thou brynge Achitophels counsell to naughte.

35 So is Sadoc and Abiathar ye prestes with the, and all that thou hearest out of the kynges house, tell it vnto Sadoc and Abiathar the prestes.

36 Beholde, their two sonnes are with the: Ahimaas the sonne of Sadoc, and Ionathas the sonne of Abiathar, by them mayest thou sende me worde what thou hearest.

37 So Chusai Dauids frende came in to the cite. And Absalom came to Ierusalem.

Chapter 16

1 And whan Dauid was gone a lytle by from the toppe of the mount, beholde, Siba the seruaut of Mephiboseth met him with a couple of asses sadled, wheron were two hundred loaves of bred, and an hundred quantities of rasyns and an hundred quantities of fygges, and a bottell of wyne.

2 Then sayde the kynge vnto Siba: What wilt thou do herewith? Siba sayde: The asses shalbe for the kynges housholde to ryde vpon, and the loaves and fygges for the yonge men to eate, and the wyne shallbe for them to drynke whan they are weery in the wyldernes.

3 The kynge sayde: Where is thy lordes sonne? Siba sayde vnto the kynge: Beholde, he abyde that Ierusalem, for he saide: To daye shal ye house of Israel restore my fathers kigdome vnto me.

4 The kynge saide vnto Siba: Beholde, all that Mephiboseth hath, shalbe thine. Siba sayde with reuerence, Let me finde grace in thy sight my lorde O kynge.

5 But whan kynge Dauid came to Bahurim, beholde, there wente out a man of the kynred of the house of Saul, whose name was Semei the sonne of Gera, which wente forth and cursed,

6 and cast stones at Dauid, and at all kynge Dauids seruauantes and all the people and all the mightie men men were at his righte hande and at his lefte.

7 Thus sayde Semei whan he cursed: Get the forth, get the forth thou bloody hounde, thou man of Belial.

8 The LORDE hath rewarded the for all the bloude of the house of Saul, yt thou becamest kynge in his steade. Now hath the LORDE geuen the kyngdome into ye hande of Absalom thy sonne, and beholde, now stickest thou in thine owne myschefe, for thou art a bloody hounde. 9 But Abisai the sonne of Zeru Ia sayde vnto the kynge: Shall this deed dogg curse my lorde the kynge? I wyl go and take the heade awaye from him.

10 The kynge saide: Ye children of Zeru Ia, what haue I to do wt you? Let him curse on, for the LORDE hath commaunded him: Curse Dauid. Who can saye now: Why doest thou so?

11 And Dauid sayde vnto Abisai and to all his seruauantes: Beholde, my sonne which came of my body, seketh after my lyfe, how moch more now the sonne of Iemini? Let him curse on, for the LORDE hath commaunded him:

12 peradventure the LORDE shall consydre my aduersyte, and recompence me good for his cursynge this daye.

13 So Dauid wente on his waye with his men. But Semei wente on by the mount besyde him, and cursed, and cast stones at him, & threwe clottes of earth.

14 And the kynge came in and all the people that was with him, weery, and refreshed him selfe there.

15 But Absalom and all the people of the men of Israel came to Ierusalem and Achitophel with him.

16 Whan Chusai the Arachite Dauids frende came into Absalom, he sayde vnto Absalom: God saue the kynge God saue the kynge.

17 Absalom sayde vnto Chusai: Is this thy mercy vnto thy frende? Why art thou not gone with thy frende?

18 Chusai sayde vnto Absalom: Not so, but loke whom the LORDE choseth, and this people, and all the men in Israel, his wyl I be, and byde with him.

19 Secondly, whom shulde I serue? Shulde I not do seruyce before his sonne? Like as I haue serued in the presence of thy father, so wyll I do seruyce before the also.

20 And Absalom sayde vnto Achitophel: Geue vs youre counsell what we shal do?

21 Achitophel sayde vnto Absalom: Go lye with thy fathers concubynes, whom he hath lefte to kepe the house, so shall all Israel heare that thou hast made thy father to stynke, and the hande of all them that are with ye, shal be the bolder. 22 Then made they a tente vnto Absalom vpon the house toppe. And Absalom laye with his fathers concubynes in the sighte of all Israel.

23 At that tyme whan Achitophel gaue a counsell, that was euen as yf a man axed counsell at God: So were all the counsels of Achitophel both with Dauid and with Absalom.

Chapter 17

1 And Achitophel sayde vnto Absalom: I wil chose out twolue thousande me, and wyl get me vp, and persue Dauid by nighte,

2 and fall vpo him whan he is feble and weery: When I vexe him the, so that all the people which is by him, flieth, I wil smite the kynge onely.

3 and brynge all the people vnto the agayne. So whan euery man is brought vnto the as thou desyrest, then shal all the people be in peace.

4 Absalom thought that good, and so dyd all the Elders in Israel.

5 But Absalom sayde: I praye you call Chusai the Arachite also, and let vs heare what he sayeth therto.

6 And wha Chusai came in to Absalom, Absalom saide vnto him: Thus hath Achitophel spoken, Saye thou now, shal we do it or not?

7 Then sayde Chusai vnto Absalom: It is no good counsell yt Achitophel hath geuen at this tyme.

8 And Chusai sayde morouer: Thou knowest thy father well and his men, that they are stronge and of a wrothfull stomack, euen as a Beer that is robbed of hir yonge ones in the felde, Thy father also is a man of warre, and wyl not be negliget with the people.

9 Beholde, he hath now peradventure hyd hymselfe in some caue or in some place. Yf it came to passe then that it chaunced euell at the first, & there shulde come a rumor and saye: There is a slaughter done in the people that folowed Absalo:

10 the shulde euery man be discouraged, which els is valeaunt, & hath a hert like a lyo: for all Israel knoweth that thy fater is stronge, and that all they which be with him, are mightie men.

11 But this is my coucell, that thou gather together all Israel from Dan vnto Berseba in nombre as the sonde of the See, and go thou thine owne person amonge them, 12 then wil we fall vpon him in what place we finde him, and wyll ouerwhelme him euen as the dew falleth vpon the earth, so that we shal not leaue one of him and of all his men.

13 But yf he resorte in to a cite, then shal all Israel cast roapes aboute the same cite, and drawe it in to the riuier, so that there shal not one stone of it be founde

14 Then sayde Absalom and euery man in Israel: The counsell of Chusai the Arachite is better then Achitophels counsell. But the LORDE broughte it so to passe, that ye good counsell of Achitophel was hyndred, that the LORDE mighte brynge euell vpon Absalom.

15 And Chusai sayde vnto Sadoc & Abiathar the prestes: Thus and thus hath Achitophel counceled Absalom and the Elders in Israel: but so and so haue I counceled.

16 Sende now therfore in all the haist, and tell Daudid, and saye: Abyde not all night in the playne felde of the wyldernes, but get the ouer, that the kynge be not swallowed vp, and all the people that is with him.

17 As for Ionathas and Ahimaaz, they stode by the well of Rogel, and a damsell wente thither and tolde them. They wente on their waye, and tolde kynge Daudid, for they durst not be sene to come in to the cite.

18 But a lad sawe them, and tolde Absalom. Neuertheles they wente on their waye, and came to a mans house at Bahurim, which had a well in his courte, and they wete downe in to it.

19 And the woman toke and spred a couerynge ouer the welles mouth, & strowed firmentye corne thereon, that it was not perceaued.

20 Now whan Absaloms seruauantes came to the woman in to the house, they sayde:

where is Ahimaaz and Ionathas? The woma sayde vnto them: They are gone ouer the litle water. And wha they soughte and founde them not, they wente agayne to Ierusalem.

21 And whan they were gone, they clymmed vp out of the well, and wente their waye, and tolde Daudid ye kynge, and sayde vnto Daudid: Get you vp, and go soone ouer ye water, for thus and thus hath Achitophel geuen counsell agaynst you.

22 Then Daudid gat him vp, and all the people that was with him, and passed ouer Iordane tyll it was cleare mornynge. And there was not one, but he wente ouer Iordane.

23 Whan Achitophel sawe that his coucell wente not forth, he saddled his asse, gat him vp, and wete home in to his cite and put his house to poynte, and hanged him selfe, and dyed, and was buried in his fathers graue.

24 And Daudid came to Mahanaim, and Absalom wente ouer Iordane, & all the men of Israel wt him.

25 And Absalom had set Amasa ouer the hoost in Ioabs steade. Amasa was the sonne of a man, whose name was Iethra a Iesraelite, which laye with Abigail the daughter of Nahas the sister of Zeru Ia Ioabs mother.

26 But Israel and Absalom pitched in Gilead.

27 Whan Daudid was come to Mahanaim, Nahas of Rabbath of the childe of Ammon, and Machir the sonne of Ammiel of Lodebar, and Barsillai a Gileadite of Roglim

28 broughte bedstufte, tapestrie worke, basens, earthen vessell, whete, barley, meel, parched corne, beenes, otmeell, ryse, 29 hony, butter, shepe and fat oxen vnto Daudid, and to ye people that was with him, for to eate: for they thought, The people shall be hongrie, weerye and thirstye in the wyldernes.

Chapter 18

1 And Daudid mustred the people yt was with him, and set captaynes ouer the, ouer thousandes and ouer hundreds.

2 And sent out of the people one thirde parte vnder Abisai the sonne of Zeru Ia Ioabs brother, and one thirde parte vnder Ithai the Gethite. And the kynge sayde vnto the people: I wyll go forth with you also.

3 Neuertheles the people sayde: Thou shalt not go forth, for though we fle, or die halfe of vs they shal not regarde vs. For thou art as ten thousande of vs. Therefore is this better that thou mayest helpe vs out of the cite.

4 The kynge sayde: Loke what ye are content withall, that wyl I do. And the kynge stode in the gate, and all the people wente forth by hundreds and by thousandes.

5 And ye kynge comaunded Ioab and Abisai, and Ithai, and sayde: Intreate me the yonge man Absalom gently. And all the people herde it, wha the kynge comaunded all the captaynes concernynge Absalom.

6 And whan the people were come forth in to the felde agaynst Israel, the battayll beganne in the wod of Ephraim.

7 And the people of Israel were smitten there before Dauids seruauantes, so that there was a greate slaughter the same daye, of twentye thousande men.

8 And the battail was scatered abrode there in the londe. And the wod consumed moch more people the same daye, then the swerde consumed.

9 And Absalom met Dauids seruauantes, and rode vpon a Mule. And whan the Mule came vnder a greate thicke Oke tre, his heade toke holde on the Oke, and so hanged he betwene heauen and earth, but the Mule ranne awaye from vnder him.

10 Whan a certayne man sawe that, he tolde Ioab, and saide: Beholde, I sawe Absalom hange vpo an Oke tre.

11 And Ioab saide vnto the ma yt tolde it him: Beholde, sawest thou that, why smotest thou him not there to the groude? so wolde I haue geuen the of myne awne behalfe ten syluerlynges and a gyrdell.

12 The man sayde vnto Ioab: Yf thou haddest weyed me a thousande syluerlynges in my handes, yet wolde I not haue layed my handes on the kynges sonne. For the kynge commaunded the and Abisai and Ithai before oure eares, and sayde: Kepe me the yonge man Absalom.

13 Or yf I had dyssembled vpon the ioperdy of myne owne soule (for so moch as nothings shulde be hyd from ye kinge) thou thy selfe shuldest haue stode against me.

14 Ioab sayde: Not so, I wil vpon him before thy face. Then toke Ioab thre speares in his hande, and thrust Absalom thorow ye hert, while he was yet alyue vpon the Oke.

15 And ten yoge men Ioabs weapenbearers, came aboute him, and smote him to death.

16 Then blewe Ioab the trompe, and broughte the people agayne, that they shulde folowe nomore vpon Israel. For Ioab wolde faouere the people.

17 And they toke Absalom, and cast him in the wod in to a greate pytt, and layed a greate heape of stones vpon him. And all Israel fled, euery one vnto his tente.

18 Absalom had set him vp a piler whyle he was yet alyue, which stode in the kynges valley, for he sayde: I haue no sonne, therefore shall this be a remembraunce of my name: and he called the piler after his owne name. And vnto this daie it is yet called Absaloms place.

19 Ahimaas the sonne of Sadoc sayde: Let me runne now, and brynge the kynge worde, that the LORDE hath gotten him righte fro the hande of his enemies.

20 But Ioab sayde: Thou shalt bringe no good tidinges to daie another daye shalt thou brynge him worde, and not to daye, for the kynges sonne is deed thy waye, and tell the kynge what thou hast sene. And Chusi did his obeysauce vnto Ioab, and ranne.

21 But vnto Chusi sayde Ioab: Go thou

22 Ahimaas the sonne of Sadoc saide agayne vnto Ioab: What and I ranne also? Ioab sayde: What wilt thou runne my sonne? Come hither, thou shalt brynge no good tydings. (He answered:) What and I ranne yet.

23 He saide vnto him: Renne on yi waye then. So Ahimaas ranne the straight waye, and came before Chusi.

24 As for Daudid, he sat betwene the two gates. And the watchman wente vp to ye toppe of the porte vpon the wall, and lifte vp his eyes, and sawe a man renninge alone,

25 and cryed, and tolde the kinge. The kynge sayde: Yf he be alone, then is there good tydings in his mouth. And as the same wente and came forth, 26 the watchman sawe another man rennyng, and cryed in the porte and sayde: Beholde, there renneth a man alone. The kinge sayde: The same is a good messaunger also.

27 The watchman sayde: I se the rennyng of the first as it were the rennyng of Ahimaas the sonne of Sadoc. And the kynge sayde: He is a good man, and bryngeth good tidinges.

28 Ahimaas cryed, and sayde vnto ye kinge: Peace, and worshipped before the kynge vpon his face to the grounde, and sayde: Praised be the LORDE thy God, which hath geuen ouer ye men that lifte vp their handes agaynst my LORDE the kynge.

29 The kynge sayde: Goeth it well with the yonge man Absalom? Ahimaas sayde: I sawe a greate vproure, whan Ioab the kynges seruauant sent me thy seruauant, and I wote not what it was.

30 The kynge sayde: Go aboute, and stonde here. And he wente aboute and stode there.

31 Beholde, then came Chusi and sayde: I brynge good tydings my lorde the kynge: The LORDE hath executed righte for the this daye, from the hande of all them that rose vp agaynst the.

32 But the kynge sayde vnto Chusi: Goeth it well with the yonge man Absalom? Chusi sayde: Euen so go it wt all the enemies of my lorde the kynge, and with all them that ryse vp agaynst the to do euell, as it goeth with the yonge man.

33 Then was the kynge soroufull, and wente vp in to the perler vpon the gate, and wepte, and as he wente, he sayde thus: O my sonne Absalo, my sonne, my sonne Absalom, wolde God yt I shulde dye for the. O Absalom my sonne, my sonne.

Chapter 19

1 And it was tolde Ioab: beholde, ye kinge wepeth & mourneth for Absalom.

2 And so out of ye victory of yt daye there came a mourninge amonge all the people. For the people had herde the same daye, yt the kynge toke on heuely because of his sonne.

3 And ye people stale awaye the same daye, so that they came not in to the cite: as a people that is put to shame, pycketh them selues awaye, when they are fled in a battayll.

4 As for the kynge, he had couered his face, and cryed loude, and sayde: Oh my sonne Absalom, Absalom my sonne, my sonne.

5 But Ioab came to the kynge in to the house, and sayde: This daye hast thou shamed all thy seruantes (which haue deliuered thy soule this daye, and the soules of thy sonnes, of thy daughters, of thy wyues, and of thy cocubynes)

6 in that thou louest them that hate the, and hatest those that loue ye. For to daye thou shewest thy selfe, that thou carest not for the captaynes and seruantes: For I perceaued this daye, that yf Absalom onely were alyue, and we all deed this daye, thou woldest thinke it were well.

7 Get the vp now therfore, and go forth, and speake loungly vnto thy seruantes. For I sweare vnto the by ye LORDE, yf thou go not forth, there shall not be lefte the one man this nighte: this shall be worse vnto ye, then all the euell that happened the sence yi youth vp hither to.

8 The the kynge gat him vp, and sat in the gate. And it was sayde vnto the people: beholde, the kynge sytth in the gate. Then came all the people before ye kynge. But Israel was fled euery one vnto his tent.

9 And all the people stroue in all the trybes of Israel, and sayde: The kynge ryd vs from the hande of oure enemies, and deliuered vs from the hande of the Philistynes, and was fayne to fle out of the lode for Absalom.

10 So Absalom whom we had anoynted ouer vs, is deed in the battayll. Why are ye so styll now, that ye fetch not the kynge agayne?

11 The kynge sent vnto Sadoc & Abiathar the prestes, & caused to saye vnto the: Speake to the Elders of Iuda, & saye: Why wyl ye be the last to fetch the kynge agayne vnto his house? (for ye sayenge of all Israel was come before the kynge into his house)

12 ye are my brethren, my bone, and my flesh. Wherefore wyl ye then be the last to brynge the kynge agayne?

13 And saye vnto Amasa: Art not thou my bone and my flesh? God do this & that vnto me, yf thou shalt not be the chefe captayne before me in Ioabs steade, as longe as thou lyuest.

14 And he bowed the hert of all the men of Iuda as of one man. And they sent vnto ye kynge: Come agayne, thou and all thy seruantes:

15 So the kynge came agayne. And when he came vnto Iordane, ye men of Iuda were come to Gilgal, for to go downe to mete the kynge, that they mighte brynge ye kynge ouer Iordane.

16 And Semei the sonne of Gera the sonne of Iemini, which dwelt at Bahurim, made haist, and wente downe with ye men of Iuda to mete kynge Dauid,

17 and there were with him a thousande me of Ben Iamin. Siba also the seruaut of the house of Saul with his fyftene sonnes and twenty seruantes, & gat them thorow Iordane and passed ouer ye fery, 18 that they mighte brynge ouer the kynges housholde, and to do him pleasure. But Semei the sonne of Gera fell downe before the kynge, when he passed ouer Iordane,

19 and sayde vnto the kynge: O my lorde, laye not the trespace vnto my charge, & thinke not vpon it that thy seruaut vexed the, in the daye when my lorde the kynge wente out of Ierusalem: and let not ye kynge take it to hert,

20 for thy seruaut knoweth that he hath synned. And beholde, this daye am I come the first amonge all the house of Ioseph, for to go downe to mete my lorde the kynge.

21 Neuertheles Abisai the sonne of Zeru Ia answered and sayde: And shulde not Semei dye therfore, seynge he hath cursed ye anoynted of ye LORDE?

22 But Dauid sayde: What haue I to do with you ye children of Zerula, that ye wyl become Sathan vnto me this daye? Shulde eny man dye this daye in Israel? Thinkest thou that I knowe not, yt I am become kynge ouer Israel this daye?

23 And ye kynge sayde vnto Simei: Thou shalt not dye? And the kynge sware vnto him.

24 Mephiboseth the sonne of Saul came downe also to mete the kynge. And he had not made cleane his fete ner combed his beerde, nether had he wasshed his clothes from the daye that the kynge was gone awaye, vntyll the daye that he came agayne in peace.

25 Now wha he came to Ierusalem for to mete the kynge, the kynge sayde vnto him: Mephiboseth, wherfore wentest thou not with me?

26 And he sayde: My lorde O kynge, my seruaut hath dealte vnrightously with me: for thy seruaut thoughte: I wyl saddell an asse and ryde theron, and go vnto the kynge: for thy seruaut is lame, 27 and he hath accused thy seruaut before my lorde ye kynge. But my lorde ye kynge is an anngell of God, and thou mayest do what pleaseth the.

28 For all my fathers house was nothinge, but people of death before my lorde ye kynge. And yet hast thou set thy seruaut amonge them that eate at yi table. What other righteousnes haue I, that I shulde crye eny more vnto the kynge?

29 The kynge sayde vnto him: What speakest thou yet more of thy matter? I haue sayde: Thou and Siba parte the londe betwene you.

30 Mephiboseth sayde vnto the kynge: Let him take it all, in as moch as my lorde ye kynge is come home in peace.

31 And Barsillai the Gileadite came downe from Roglim, and broughte the kynge ouer Iordane, that he mighte coueye him in Iordane.

32 And Barsillai was very olde, so good as foure score yeare olde, the same had prouyded ye kynge of fode whyle he was at Mahanaim, for he was a very noble man.

33 And the kynge sayde vnto Barsillai: Thou shalt go ouer with me, I wyl take care for the wt myne awne selfe at Ierusalem.

34 But Barsillai sayde vnto the kynge: What haue I yet to lyue, that I shulde go vp to Ierusalem wt the kynge?

35 This daye am I foure score yeare olde. How shulde I knowe what is good or euell, or taist what I eate or drynke, or heare what the Musicians do syng? Why shulde thy seruaut be chargeable first vnto my lorde the kynge?

36 thy seruaut shall go a litle with the kynge ouer Iordane. Why wil the kynge recompence me after this maner?

37 Let thy seruaut turne backe agayne, that I maye dye in my cite besyde my father and my mothers graue. Beholde, there is thy seruaut Chimeam, let him go ouer with my lorde the kynge, and do vnto him what pleaseth the.

38 The kynge sayde: Chimeam shal go ouer with me, and I wyl do for him what liketh the: and what so euer thou desyrest of me, that wyl I do for the also.

39 And when all ye people was gone ouer Iordane and the kynge likewise, the kynge kyssed Barsillai and blessed him, and he turned vnto his place.

40 And ye kynge passed ouer vnto Gilgal, and Chimeam wente with him. And all the people of Iuda broughte the kynge ouer, howbeit there was but halfe of the people of Israel there.

41 And beholde, the came all the men of Israel vnto the kynge, & sayde vnto him: Why haue oure brethren the men of Iuda stollen the awaye, and haue conueyed ye kynge and his housholde ouer Iordane, and all Dauids men with him?

42 Then answered they of Iuda vnto them of Israel: The kynge is of oure nye kynrede, why are ye angrie therfore? Thinke ye that we haue receaued eny fode or giftes of the kynge?

43 Then answered they of Israel vnto them of Iuda, & sayde: We haue ten tymes more with the kynge and with Dauid, the thou, why hast thou regarded me then so lightly, that oures were not the first to fetch oure kynge agayne? But they of Iuda spake harder then they of Israel.

Chapter 20

1 There was a famous man of Belial there, whose name was Seba ye sonne of Bichri, a ma of Iemini, which blew the trompe, and sayde: We haue no porcion in Dauid, ner inheritance in ye sonne of Isai: let euery get him to his tent, O Israel. 2 Then fell euery man in Israel from Dauid, and folowed Seba the sonne of Bichri. But the men of Iuda cleued vnto their kynge from Iordane vnto Ierusalem. 3 When Dauid came home to Ierusalem, he toke the ten concubynes (whom he had lefte to kepe the house) and put them in a holde to be kepte, and made prouysion for them: but he laye not with them, and so were they shut vp vnto their death, and lyued wedowes.

4 And ye kynge sayde vnto Amasa: Call me all the men of Iuda together agaynst the thirde daye, & be thou here present also.

5 And Amasa wete to call Iuda together. And he was slacke to come at ye tyme which he had appoynted him.

6 And Dauid sayde vnto Abisai: Now shall Seba the sonne of Bichri do vs more harme then Absalom. Take thou yi lordes seruantes, and folowe vpon him, yt he fynde not some stroge cities for him, and so escape out of oure sighte.

7 Then wente Ioabs me forth after him, and the Chrethians and Plethians, and all the mightie me: and they wete out of Ierusalem to folowe vpon Seba the sonne of Bichri.

8 But when they were by the greate stone at Gibeon, Amasa came before them. As for Ioab, he was gyrded about his garment which he had on, and vpon it he had a swerde gyrded, which hanged by his thye in the sheeth, and wente easely out and in, and fell fro him.

9 And Ioab sayde vnto Amasa: Peace be with the my brother. And Ioab toke Amasa by the beerde with his righte hade, to kysse him.

10 And Amasa toke no hede vnto ye swerde in Ioabs hande, and he thrust him therwith in to the bely, yt his bowels ranne out vpon the earth, and he thrust at him nomore. And so he dyed. Ioab & his brother Abisai folowed vpon Seba ye sonne of Bichri.

11 And one of Ioabs seruantes stode by him, and sayde: What is he this yt wolde be agaynst Ioab to please Dauid, and to be with Dauid in Ioabs steade?

12 As for Amasa, he laye rolled in the bloude in ye myddes of the strete. But wha one sawe that all the people stode there still, he remoued Amasa from the strete vnto the felde, and cast a clothe vpon him, for so moch as he sawe, that who so euer came by him, stode styll.

13 Now when he was put out of the waye, euery man wete after Ioab, to folowe vpon Seba the sonne of Bichri.

14 And he wente thorow all ye trybes of Israel vnto Abel Beth Maacha, and all the best chosen men gathered them selues together, & folowed after him,

15 and came and beseged him at Abel Beth Maacha, and made a banke aboute to cite harde on ye wall. And all the people that was with Ioab, layed to their ordynance, and wolde haue cast downe the wall.

16 Then cried there a wyse woma out of ye cite: Heare, heare, saye vnto Ioab that he come hither, I wyl speake with him.

17 And wha he came to her, the woman sayde: Art thou Ioab? He sayde: Yee. She sayde vnto him: Heare the wordes of thy handmayden. He sayde: I heare.

18 She sayde: The comonsayenge was somtyme: Who so wyl axe, let him axe at Abel, and so came it to a good ende.

19 This is ye noble and faithfull cite in Israel, and wilt thou destroye the cite and the mother in Israel? Why wilt thou swalowe vp the enheritaunce of the LORDE?

20 Ioab answered and sayde: That be farre, that be farre fro me, that I shulde swalowe vp and destroye.

21 The matter is not so, but a certayne man of mount Ephraim named Seba the sonne of Bichri, hath lifte vp him selfe agaynst kynge Dauid, delyuer him onely, and I wyl departe from the cite. The woman sayde vnto Ioab: Beholde, his heade shal be cast vnto the ouer the wall. 22 And the woman came in to all the people with hir wysdome. And they smote of the heade of Seba the sonne of Bichri, and cast it vnto Ioab. Then blew he the trompe, and they departed from the cite, euery one vnto his tent. But Ioab came agayne to Ierusalem vnto the kynge. 23 Ioab was captayne ouer all the hoost of Israel: Benaia ye sonne of Ioiada was ouer the Chrethians and Plethians:

24 Adoram was rent gatherer: Iosaphat the sonne of Ahilud was Chaunceler:

25 Seia was the scribe: Sadoc and Abiathar were the prestes:

26 Ira also ye Iairite was Dauids prest.

Chapter 21

1 There was a derth also in Dauids tyme thre yeares together. And Dauid soughte the face of ye LORDE. And the LORDE sayde: Because of Saul and because of that bloody housholde yt he slewe the Gibeonites.

2 Then the kynge caused for to call the Gibeonites, and spake vnto them. (As for the Gibeonites, they were not of ye children of Israel, but a remnaunt of the Amorites: howbeit the children of Israel had sworne vnto the, and Saul soughte for to smyte them in his gelousy, for the childe of Israel and Iuda.)

3 Then sayde Dauid to the Gibeonites: What shal I do vnto you? And where withall shal I make the attonement, that ye maye blesse ye enheritaunce of ye LORDE?

4 The Gibeonites sayde vnto him: It is not for golde and syluer that we haue to do wt Saul and his house, nether haue we oughte to do for to slaye eny ma in Israel. He sayde: What saye ye then, that I shal do vnto you?

5 They sayde vnto ye kynge: The man that hath destroyed vs and broughte vs to naughte, shulde we destroye, that nothinge be lefte him in all the coastes of Israel.

6 Let there be geuen vs seuen men of his sonnes, that we maye hange them vp vnto the LORDE at Gibea of Saul the chosen of the LORDE. The kynge sayde: I wyl geue them.

7 Howbeit the kynge spared Mephiboseth ye sonne of Ionathas ye sonne of Saul, because of the ooth of the LORDE yt was betwene them: namely, betwene Dauid & Ionathas the sonne of Saul.

8 But the two sonnes of Rispa ye doughter of Aia, whom she had borne vnto Saul, Armoni & Mephiboseth, And the fyue sonnes of Michol the daughter of Saul, whom she bare vnto Adriel the sonne of Barsillai the Mahalothite, 9 dyd the kynge take, and gaue them in to the handes of ye Gibeonites, which hanged the vp vpo the mount before the LORDE. So these seuen fell at one tyme, and dyed in the tyme of the first haruest, whan ye barly haruest begynneth.

10 Then toke Rispa the daughter of Aia a sack cloth, & spred it vpon the rock in the begynnyng of the haruest, tyll the water from the heauen dropped vpo them, and suffred not the foules of the heauen to rest on them on the daye tyme, nether the wyld beestes of the felde on the nighte season.

11 And it was tolde Dauid what Rispa the daughter of Aia Sauls concubyne had done.

12 And Dauid wente and toke the bones of Saul and the bones of Ionathas his sonne from ye citesens at Iabes in Gilead (which they had stollen from ye strete at Bethsan, where ye Philistynes had hanged the, what tyme as the Philistynes had smytten Saul vpon mount Gilboa)

13 and broughte them vp from thence, and gathered them together wt the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and of his sonne Ionathas buried they in ye londe of Ben Iamin, besyde ye graue of his father Cis. So after this was God at one with the londe.

15 But there arose warre agayne of ye Philistynes agaynst Israel. And Dauid wente downe & his seruantes with him, & foughte agaynst the Philistynes. And Dauid was weery, 16 & Iesbi of Nob (which was one of the children of Rapha, and the weight of his speare was thre C. weight of brasse, and had a new harnesse vpon him) thoughte to smyte Dauid.

17 Neuertheles Abisai the sonne of Zeru Ia helped him, & smote the Philistyne to death. Then sware Dauids men vnto him, & sayde: Thou shalt nomore go forth with vs vnto the warre, that the lanterne in Israel be not put out.

18 Afterwarde there arose yet warre at Nob with the Philistynes. Then Sibechai the Husathite smote Saph, which also was one of the childe of Rapha.

19 And there arose yet warre at Gob with the Philistynes. Then Elhanan the sonne of Iaere Orgim a Bethleemite smote Goliath the Gethite, which had a speare, whose shaft was like a weeuers lome.

20 And there arose yet warre at Gath, where there was a cotencious man, which had sixe fyngers on his handes, and sixe toes on his fete, that is foure and twety in the nombre, and he was borne also of Rapha.

21 And whan he spake despitefully vnto Israel, Ionathas ye sonne of Simea Dauids brother smote him.

22 These foure were borne vnto Rapha at Gath, and fell thorow the hande of Dauid and of his seruantes.

Chapter 22

1 And Dauid spake the wordes of this songe before the LORDE, what tyme as the LORDE had delyuered him fro the hande of all his enemies, and from the hande of Saul,

2 and he sayde. The LORDE is my stony rock, & my castell, and my delyuerer.

3 God is my strength, in him wyl I put my trust: my shyld & the horne of my saluacion, my defence & my refuge, my Sauioure, thou shalt helpe me from violent wronge.

4 I wil call vpon the LORDE with prayse, so shal I be delyuered fro myne enemies.

5 For the sorowes of death copased me, and the brokes of Belial made me afrayed.

6 The paynes of hell came aboute me, and the snares of death had ouertaken me.

7 Wha I was in trouble, I called vpo the LORDE, yee euen my God called I vpon, & so he herde my voyce fro his holy temple, & my coplaynte (came) into his cares.

8 The earth trembled and quaked, the foundacions of the heauen shoke and moued, because he was wroth.

9 Smoke wente vp from his nose, and consumynge fyre out of his mouth, coles were kyndled therof.

10 He bowed the heauens and came downe, and it was darke vnder his fete.

11 He sat vpon Cherub and dyd flye, and appeared vpon the fethers of the wynde.

12 He made darknes his paulyon rounde aboute him, thicke water in the cloudes of ye ayre.

13 At the brightnesse of him were the fyre coles kyndled.

14 The LORDE thondered from heaue, and the Hiest put forth his voyce.

15 He shot his arowes, and scatered them: he lightened, and discomfited them.

16 The pourynges out of the See were sene, and the foundacions of the earth were discoverd at the chyinge of the LORDE, & at the breth of the sprete of his wrath.

17 He sent downe from aboue, and receaued me, and drue me out of many waters.

18 He delyuered me fro my stronge enemye, from them that hated me, for they were to mightie for me.

19 They ouertoke me in the tyme of my trouble, but the LORDE was my succoure.

20 He broughte me forth in to liberty: he delyuered me, because he had a faouure vnto me.

21 The LORDE shal rewarde me after my righteousnes, and acordinge to the clenness of my handes shal he recompence me.

22 For I haue kepte ye waye of the LORDE, & haue not bene vngodly agaynst my God.

23 For I haue an eye vnto all his lawes, and haue not put his ordinaunces fro me. 24 Therefore wil I be perfecte vnto him, and wyl eshue myne awne wickednes.

25 So shal ye LORDE rewarde me after my righteousnes, acordinge to the clenness of my handes in his eye sighte.

26 With the holy shalt thou be holy, and wt the perfecte thou shalt be perfecte.

27 With the cleane thou shalt be cleane, and with the frowarde thou shalt be frowarde.

28 For thou shalt saue the poore oppressed people, and shalt set thine eyes agaynst the proude to brynge them downe.

29 For thou O LORDE art my lanterne. The LORDE shal lighte my darknesse.

30 For in ye I shal discofite an hoost of men, & in my God I shal leape ouer the wall.

31 The waye of God is perfecte: ye wordes of the LORDE are tryed in the fyre: he is a shyld for all the that put their trust in him.

32 For where is there a God, excepte ye LORDE? Or who hath eny strength without oure God?

33 God hath stregthed me with power, and made playne a perfecte waye for me.

34 He hath made my fete like hartes fete, & hath set me vp an hye.

35 He teacheth my handes to fighte, and bendeth the stele bowe with myne armes.

36 And thou hast geuen me the shyld of yi health, and with yi louynge correccion shalt thou multiplie me.

37 Thou hast enlarged my goinge vnder me, and myne ankles haue not slyded.

38 I wyl folowe vpon myne enemies, and destroye the: and wyl not turne backe agayne, tyll I haue broughte them to naught.

39 I wil cosume them and thrust them thorow, that they come not vp: they shal fall vnder my fete.

40 Thou hast girded me with strength to ye battayll, and hast subdued them vnder me yt rose vp agaynst me.

41 Thou hast made myne enemies to turne their backes vpo me, that I might destroye them that hate me.

42 They shal crye, but there shalbe no Sauioure: yee euen vnto the LORDE, but he answereth them not.

43 I wil beate them as small as the dust of the earth: euen as ye claye of the stretes wil I make them thynne, and sprede them out abroad.

44 But me shalt thou delyuer from the struynges of the people, and shalt kepe me to be ye heade of the Heythen: A people whom I haue not knowne, shal serue me.

45 The straunge children haue denyed me: at the hearynge of the eare shal they herke vnto me.

46 The straunge children are waxen olde, & are shut vp in their presons.

47 The LORDE lyueth, and blessed be my God, and magnified be the strength of my health.

48 God seyth that I be auenged, and subdueth the people vnto me.

49 He bryngeth me out fro myne enemies: & from them yt ryse vp agaynst me, shalt thou exalte me, and from ye cruell man shalt thou delyuer me.

50 For this cause wyl I geue thankes vnto the amonge the Heythen, and synge prayes vnto thy name.

51 Which doth greate health for his kynge, & sheweth mercy vnto Dauid his anoynted, and to his sede for euermore.

Chapter 23

1 These are the last wordes of Dauid: Dauid the sonne of Isai sayde. The man, that was set vp to be ye anoynted of the God of Iacob, & a pleasaunt dyter of songes of Israel, sayde:

2 The sprete of the LORDE hath spoken by me, and the vtterance therof is done thorow my tunge.

3 He sayde: The God of Israel hath spoke vnto me, the strength of Israel, the gouernoure amonge men, the righteous gouernoure in the feare of God.

4 As the lighte is in ye mornynge whan the Sonne aryseth, so that for the brightnesse therof no cloude remayneth: and as the grasse loketh vpon the earth thorow the rayne,

5 euen so shal my house be with God. For he hath made an euerlasting couenaunt with me, well appoynted on euery syde and sure. For this is all my health & pleasure, that it shal growe.

6 But the Belial shalbe vtterly & cleane roted out as the thornes, which me take not in their hades.

7 And they yt touch them, shal destroye them wt yrons & speares: & in the fyre shal they be brent, that they maye be broughte to naught.

8 These are the names of Dauids Worthies: Iasabeam ye sonne of Hachmoni, the chefest amonge thre, which lifte vp his speare, & slewe eight hundreth at one tyme.

9 After him was Eleasar the sonne of Dodi the sonne of Ahohi amonge the thre Worthies with Dauid, whan they spake despytfully to the Philistynes, and were gathered together to the battayll, and the men of Israel wente vp.

10 Then stode he vp and smote the Philistynes, tyll his hande was so weery that it crompled with the swerde. And the LORDE gaue a greate victory at the same tyme, so that the people turned after him to spoyle.

11 After him was Samma the sonne of Age ye Hararite. Wha the Philistynes had gathered themselues in a company, and in the same place there was a pece of lode full of small corne, and the people fled before the Philistynes, 12 the stode he in the myddes of ye pece of londe, & delyuered it, & smote ye Philistynes. And God gaue a greate victory.

13 And these thre pryncipall amonge thirtie, came downe in the haruest vnto Dauid, into the caue of Adullam, & the hoost of ye Philistynes laye in ye valley of Rephaim.

14 But Dauid was at the same tyme in the castell, and ye Philistynes people laye at Bethleem.

15 And Dauid was desyrus, and sayde: Wolde God yt some man wolde fetch me a drynke of water out of the well at Bethleem vnder the gate.

16 The brake the thre Worthies into the hoost of the Philistynes, and drue of the water out of the well at Bethleem vnder ye gate, & caried it & broughte it vnto Dauid: neuertheles he wolde not drynke it, but offred it vnto the LORDE, 17 & sayde: The LORDE let this be farre fro me, that I shulde do it. Is it not the bloude of the men that ioperded their lyues, and wente thither? And he wolde not drynke it. This dyd the thre Worthies.

18 Abisai ye brother of Ioab the sonne of Zeru Ia was one also chefe amonge thre. He lifte vp his speare & smote thre hundreth, & was an awncient man amonge thre, 19 & the noblest amonge thre, & was their ruler. But he came not vnto the thre.

20 And Benaia the sonne of Ioiada, the sonne of Ishail (a man of greate actes of Cabzeill) smote two mightie giautes of ye Moabites, & wete downe, & slewe a lyon at a well in the snowe tyme.

21 He smote also a fayre goodly man of Egipte, which had a speare in his hande. But he wete downe to him with a staffe, and toke the speare out of the Egipcians hande by violence, and slewe him with his owne speare.

22 This dyd Benaia the sonne of Ioiada, and was a famous man amonge thre Worthies, 23 and more honorable then the thirtie, but he came not vnto the thre. And Dauid made him of his secrete coucell.

24 Asahel the brother of Ioab is amonge ye thirtie: Elham his vnclcs sonne at Bethleem.

25 Samma the Haradite, Elika the Haradite,

26 Helez the Paltite, Ira the sonne of Tekoite,

27 Abiser the Anthothite, Mebunai the Husathite,

28 Zalmon the Ahohite, Maherai the Netophatite,

29 Ithai the sonne of Ribai of Gibea of the childre of Ben Iamin,

30 Benaia the Pargathonite, Hidai of the broke of Gaas,

31 Abialbon the Arbatite, Asmaueth the Bahumite,

32 Eliaheba the Baalbonite. The children of Iasen and Ionathas:

33 Samma the Hararite,

34 Eliphelet the sonne of Ahasbai ye sonne of Maechathi, Eliam the sonne of Achitophel ye Gilonite,

35 Hesrai of Carmel, Paerai the Arbite,

36 Iegael the sonne of Nathan of Soba, Bani the Gadite,

37 Zeleg the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, the weapon bearer of Ioab the sonne of Zeru Ia,

38 Ira the Iethrite, Gareb the Iethrite,

39 Vrias the Hethite. These are altogether seuen and thirtie.

Chapter 24

1 And the LORDE was wrothfully displeased of ye new agaynst Israel, and moued Dauid amonge them, because he saide: Go, nombre Israel and Iuda.

2 And the kynge sayde vnto Ioab ye chefe captayne of his hoost: Go aboute in all the trybes of Israel, from Dan vnto Berseba, and nombre the people, that I maye knowe how many they be.

3 Ioab sayde vnto the kynge: The LORDE thy God adde vnto this people an hundreth tymes as moch as it is now, that my lorde the kynge maye se his eyes lust theron. But why hath my lorde the kynge a desyre to this thinge?

4 Neuertheles the kynges worde preuayled agaynst Ioab and the captaynes of the hoost. So Ioab and ye captaynes of the hoost wente forth from the kynge, to nombre the people of Israel,

5 and passed ouer Iordane, and pitched at Aroer, at the righte hande of the cite which lyeth in ye ryuer of Gad, and at Iaseer,

6 & came to Gilead, and in the lowe cowntre of Hadsai, and came vnto Dan Iaan, and aboute Sidon,

7 and came to the stronge cite of Tyrus, and all the cities of the Heuites and Cananites, and came forth to the south parte of Iuda vnto Berseba,

8 and wete rounde aboute that cowntre, and after nyne monethes and twenty daies they came to Ierusalem.

9 And Ioab delyuered vnto ye kynge the summe of the people that was nombred. And in Israel there were eight C. thousande stronge men, that drue out the swerde: and in Iuda fyue hundreth thousande men.

10 And after that the people was nombred, Dauids hert smote him selfe. And Dauid sayde vnto ye LORDE: I haue synned sore, that I haue done this. And now LORDE take awaie the trespase of thy seruauant. For I haue done very vnwysely.

11 And whan Dauid rose vp in the mornynge, the worde of the LORDE came vnto the prophet Gad, Dauids Seer, & sayde:

12 Go & speake vnto Dauid. Thus sayeth the LORDE: I brynge the thre thinges, chose the one of them, that I maye do it vnto the.

13 Gad came vnto Dauid, and tolde him, and sayde vnto him: Wilt thou that seuen yeare derth shall come in to thy londe? Or that thou be fayne to flye before thine aduersaries thre monethes, and they to persecute the? Or that there be pestilence thre dayes in the londe? Take aduysment therfore and se, what answer I shal bringe agayne vnto him yt sent me.

14 Dauid sayde vnto Gad: I am in extreme trouble. Neuertheles (yf it maye be) let me rather fall in to ye handes of the LORDE (for his mercy is greate) I wyl not fall in to the handes of men.

15 So the LORDE sent pestilece in to Israel from the morow vnto the tyme appoynted, so that there dyed of the people from Dan vnto Berseba, thre score and ten thousande men.

16 And whan the angel stretched his hande ouer Ierusalem to destroye it, the LORDE repented ouer the euell, and sayde vnto the angell: It is ynough, holde now thy hande. The angell of the LORDE was besyde the barne of Arafna the Iebusite.

17 But whan Dauid sawe the angell that smote the people, he sayde vnto the LORDE: beholde, It is I that haue synned, I haue done the trespase: As for these shepe, what haue they done? Oh let thy hade be agaynst me and agaynst my fathers house.

18 And Gad came to Dauid at the same tyme, and saide vnto him: Go vp, and set vp an altare vnto the LORDE in ye barne of Arafna the Iebusite.

19 So Dauid wete vp as Gad sayde, and as the LORDE had commaunded.

20 And wha Arafna loked aboute him, he sawe the kynge with his seruauantes goinge vnto him, and he worshipped vpon his face to the grounde, 21 and sayde: Wherefore commeth my lorde ye kynge vnto his seruauant? Dauid sayde: To bye the barne of the, and to buylde an altare vnto the LORDE, that the plage maye ceasse from the people.

22 But Arafna sayde vnto Dauid: Let my lorde the kynge take it, and offre what pleaseth him. Beholde, there is an oxen for a burntofferynge, and sledgedes, and vessels of oxen to the wodd.

23 All this gaue Arafna vnto the kynge. And Arafna sayde vnto ye kynge: The LORDE thy God make the accepted vnto him.

24 Neuertheles ye kynge sayde vnto Arafna: Not so, but I wyl bye it of the for as moch as it is worth. For I wyl not offre burntofferynges vnto ye LORDE, of yt which I haue for naughte. So Dauid boughte the barne and the oxen for fiftye Sicles of syluer, 25 and buylded an altare there vnto the LORDE, and offred burntofferynges & deedofferynges. And the LORDE was mercifull vnto ye londe, and ye plage ceased from the people of Israel.

1 KINGS

Chapter 1

1 And wha kinge Dauid was olde & well strycke in age, he coulde not be warme, though he was couered with clothes.

2 Then sayde his seruauantes vnto him: Let vs seke a yonge damsell a virgin for oure lorde the kynge, to stonde before the kynge, and to norish him, & to slepe in his armes, and to warme oure lorde the kynge.

3 And they sought a fayre dasell, in all the coastes of Israel, and founde Abisag of Sunem, and brought her vnto ye kynge.

4 And she was a very fayre damsell, and noryshed ye kynge, and serued him. Howbeit the kynge knewe her not.

5 Adonias ye sonne of Hagith lifte vp him selfe and sayde: I wyl be kynge. And he prepared him charettes and horsmen, and fyftie men to be renners on fote before him.

6 And his father reproued hi not therfore, so moch as to saye: Wherefore doest thou so? And he was a man of a very fayre bewtye and he had begotten him nexte after Absalo.

7 And his matter stode by Ioab ye sonne of Zeru Ia and by Abiathar the prest, which helped Adonias.

8 But Sadoc the prest, and Benaia the sonne of Ioiada, and Nathan the prest and Semei and Rei, and Dauids Worthies were not with Adonias.

9 And wha Adonias offred shepe and oxe, and fat catell besyde the stone of Soheleth, which lyeth by the well of Rogel, he called all his brethre the kynges sonnes, and all the men of Iuda the kynges seruantes.

10 But the prophet Nathan and Benaia, and the Worthies, and his brother Salomon called he not.

11 Then sayde Nathan vnto Bethseba Salomons mother: Hast thou not herde yt Adonias is kynge, and oure lorde Dauid knoweth not therof?

12 Come now therfore, I wyll geue the councell, that thou mayest deluere thy soule and the soule of thy sonne Salomon.

13 Come now and go in to kynge Dauid and saye vnto him: Hast not thou my lorde the kynge sworne and sayde vnto thy handmayden: Salomon thy sonne shall be kynge after me, and he shall sytt vpon my seate? Why is then Adonias made kynge?

14 Beholde, while thou art yet there, and talkest with the kynge, I wyll come in after the, and tell forth thy tayle.

15 And Bethseba wente in to the kynge to ye chamber. And the kynge was very olde. And Abisag of Sunem serued the kynge.

16 And Bethseba bowed hirselfe, and worshipped the kynge. The kynge sayde: What wilt thou?

17 She sayde vnto him: My lorde, Thou hast sworne vnto thy handmayde by the LORDE thy God: Thy sonne Salomon shall be kynge after me and syt vpon my seate.

18 But now lo, Adonias is kynge, and my lorde the kynge knoweth it not.

19 He hath offred oxen and fat catell, and many shepe, and hath called all the kynges sonnes, and Abiathar the prest, and Ioab the chefe captayne. But thy seruauant Salomon hath he not bydden.

20 Neuertheles thou my lorde art kynge, the eyes of all Israel loke vnto the., that thou shuldest shewe them who shall syt vpon the seate of my lorde the kynge after the.

21 And wha my lorde the kynge slepeth with his fathers then shal I and my sonne Salomon be fayne to be synners.

22 But whyle she yet spake to the kynge, the prophet Nathan came,

23 and she tolde ye kinge: beholde, there is the prophet Nathan. And whan he came in before the kynge, he worshipped the kynge vpon his face to the grounde, 24 and sayde My lorde O kynge, hast thou saide: Adonias shal be kinge after me, & syt vpo my seate?

25 For he is gone downe this daye, and hath offred oxen, and fat catell, & hath called all the kynges sonnes, and the captaynes, and the prest Abiathar. And beholde, they eate and drynke before him, and saye: God saue the kynge Adonias.

26 But me thy seruauant, and Sadoc the prest, and Benaia the sonne of Ioiada, and thy seruauant Salomon hath he not called.

27 Hath my lorde the kynge commaunded this, and not certified his seruantes who shall sytt vpon the seate of my lorde the kynge after him?

28 The kinge answered and saide: Call Bethseba vnto me. And she came in before the kinge. And whan she stode before the kynge,

29 the kynge sware and sayde: As truly as the LORDE lyueth (which hath deluereed my soule out of trouble.)

30 I wyl do vnto the this daye, euen as I sware vnto the by the LORDE the God of Israel, so that Salomon thy sonne shalbe kynge after me, and he shal sit pon my seate in my steade.

31 Then Bethseba bowed hir selfe with hir face to the grounde, and thanked the kynge and sayde: God saue my lorde kynge Dauid for euermore.

32 And the kynge sayde: Call me the prest Sadoc & the prophet Nathan, and Benaia the sonne of Ioiada. And whan they came in before the kynge,

33 the kynge sayde vnto them: Take youre lordes seruantes with you, and set my sonne Salomon vpon my Mule, and cary him downe to Gihon:

34 and let Sadoc ye prest and the prophet Nathan, anoynte him there to be kynge ouer Israel, and blowe the trompe, and saye: God saue kynge Salomon, 35 and go ye vp after him: and whan he commeth, he shal syt vpo my seate, and be kynge in my steade: for I haue ordeyned him to be prynce ouer Israel and Iuda.

36 Then answered Benaia the sonne of Ioiada vnto the kynge, & sayde: Amen. The LORDE God of my lorde the kynge saye thus also.

37 As the LORDE hath bene with my lorde the kynge, so be he with Salomon also, that his seate maye be greater then the seate of my lorde kynge Dauid.

38 Then wente they downe, the prest Sadoc and the prophet Nathan, and Benaia the sonne of Ioiada, and the Chrethians, & Plethians, & set Salomon vpon kynge Dauids Mule, & broughte him to Gihon.

39 And Sadoc the prest toke the oyle horne out of the Tabernacle, and anoynted Salomon. And they blew the trompe: And all ye people sayde: God saue kynge Salomon.

40 And all the people wente vp after him, and the people pyped with pypes, and was very ioyfull, so that the earth range at the noyse of them.

41 And Adonias herde it, and all they whom he had called, which were wt him, and they had new eaten. And whan Ioab herde the noyse of the trompe, he sayde: What meaneth this noyse of the cite and this busynes?

42 But whyle he yet spake, beholde, Ionathas the sonne of Abiathar ye prest came. And Adonias sayde: Come in, for thou art a valeaunt man, and bryngest good tydings.

43 Ionathas answered and sayde vnto Adonias: Alas, or lorde kynge Dauid hath made Salomon kynge, 44 and hath sent with him Sadoc the prest, and the propheth Nathan, and Benaia the sonne of Ioiada, and the Chrethians and Plethians, and they haue set him vpon the kynges Mule:

45 and Sadoc ye prest with the prophet Nathan hath anoynted him kynge at Gihon, and from these are they gone vp with ioye, that the cite range with all: that is the noyse that ye haue herde.

46 Salomon also syteth vpo the kynges seate,

47 and the kynges seruantes are gone in to wyssh good lucke vnto ouer lorde kynge Dauid, and haue sayde: Thy God make Salomon a better name then thy name is, and make his seate greater then thy seate. And they haue wy?shed the kynge good lucke vpon the bed.

48 Morouer ye kynge hath sayde thus: Prayed be ye LORDE God of Israel, which this daye hath made one to syt vpon my seate, that myne eyes haue sene it.

49 Then were they afrayed, and gatt them vp all that were called by Adonias, and so they departed euery man his waye.

50 But Adonias was afrayed of Salomon, and gat him vp, and wete his waye, & toke holde of ye hornes of ye altare.

51 And it was tolde Salomon: beholde, Adonias feareth kynge Salomo, & beholde, he taketh holde of the hornes of ye altare, & sayeth: Let kige Salomo swaere vnto me this daye, that he shall not slaye his seruauant with the swerde.

52 Salomon sayde: Yf he wil be an honest man, there shall not one heer fall from him vpon the earth: but yf there be euell founde in him, he shall dye.

53 And kinge Salomo sent, and caused him to be fetched from the altare. And whan he came, he fell downe before kynge Salomon. But Salomon sayde vnto him: Go yi waye in to thy house.

Chapter 2

1 Now whan the tyme came that Dauid shulde dye, he commaunded Salomon his sonne, and sayde:

2 I go the waye of all the worlde, Be thou stroge therfore, and shewe thyselfe a man,

3 and kepe the watch of the LORDE thy

God, that thou walke in his wayes, and holde his ordinaunces, his commaundementes, his lawes, and his testimonies, as it is written in the lawe of Moses, that thou mayest be wyse in all that thou doest, and whither so euer thou turnest the:

4 that the LORDE maye rayse vp his worde, which he hath spoke ouer me, and saide: Yf thy children kepe their waye and walke before me faithfully and truly and with all their hert and withall their soule, the shal there neuer fayle the a man vpon the seate of Israel.

5 Thou knowest well also what Ioab the sonne of Zeru Ia hath done vnto me, what he dyd vnto the two chefe captaynes of Israel, Abner the sonne of Ner, and Amasa the sonne of Iether, whom he slewe and shed the bloude of warre wha it was peace, & put the bloude of warre vpon his girdel yt was aboute his loynes, and in his shues that were vpon his fete:

6 Do thou acordinge to thy wy?dome, that thou brynge not his graye heer downe to the graue in peace.

7 And to the children of Barsyllai the Gileadite, thou shalt shewe mercy, that they maye eate at thy table. For so ioined they the selues vnto me, whan I fled before thy brother Absalom.

8 And beholde, thou hast with the Semei the sonne of Gera the sonne of Iemini of Bahurim, which cursed me with very bytter and shamefull cursynges, what tyme as I wente to Mahanaim. Yet came he downe to mete me at Iordan, where I sware vnto him by the LORDE, and sayde: I wyll not slaye the with the swerde.

9 But suffre not thou him to be vngiltye, for thou art a wyse man, and shalt wel knowe what thou oughtest to do vnto him, that thou mayest brynge his graye heer downe to the graue with bloude.

10 So Dauid slepte with his fathers, and was buried in the cite of Dauid.

11 The tyme that Dauid was kynge ouer Israel, is fortie yeaere. Seuen yeaeres was he kynge at Hebro and thre and thirtie yeaere at Ierusalem.

12 And Salomon sat vpon the seate of Dauid his father, and his kyngdome was made very sure.

13 But Adonias the sonne of Hagith came in to Bethseba Salomons mother. And she sayde: Is thy commynge peaceable? He spake: Yee, 14 and sayde: I haue somewhat to saye to the. She sayde: Saye on.

15 He sayde: Thou knowest that the kyngdome was myne, and that all Israel had sett them selues vpon me, that I shulde be kynge, but now is the kyngdome turned, and become my brothers: for he hath it of the LORDE.

16 Now desyre I one petition of the, Make not my face ashamed. She sayde vnto him: Saye on.

17 He sayde: Speake vnto kynge Salomon (for he shall not shame thy face) that he maye geue me Abisag to wyfe.

18 Bethseba sayde: Wel, I wil speake to the kynge for the.

19 And Bethseba came in to kynge Salomon to speake with him. And the kynge stode vp, and wente to mete her, and worshipped her, and sat him downe vpon his seate. And there was a chayre set for the kynges mother, so that she sat at his righte hande.

20 And she sayde: One peticion desyre I of the make not my face ashamed. The kynge saydt: Axe O my mother, I wyl not shame thy face.

21 She saide: Let Abisag of Sunem be geuen thy brother Adonias to wyfe.

22 Then answered kynge Salomon, and saide vnto his mother: Why desyrest thou Abisag of Sunem for Adonias? Axe the kyngdome or him also, for he is my greater brother, and hath Abiathar the prest, and Ioab the sonne of Zeru Ia.

23 And the kynge sware by the LORDE, and sayde: God do this and that vnto me, Adonias shall haue spoken this agaynst his lyfe.

24 And now as truly as the LORDE lyueth which hath ordeyned me, and made me to syt vpon the seate of my father Dauid, and hath made me a house (acordynge as he sayde) this daye shal Adonias dye.

25 And kynge Salomon sent thither by Benaia the sonne of Ioiada, which smote him that he dyed.

26 And to the prest Abiathar sayde ye kynge: Go thy waye vnto Anathot to thy londe, for thou art a man of deeth. Neuerthesse I wyl not slaye the this daye for thou hast borne the Arke of the LORDE God before my father Dauid, and hast suffred also where my father suffred.

27 Thus Salomo put forth Abiathar, that he must nomore be the prest of the LORDE, that the worde of the LORDE mighte be fulfilled, which he spake ouer the house of Eli at Silo.

28 And this rumonre came before Ioab: for Ioab cleued vnto Adonias, and not vnto Salomon. Then fled Ioab into the Tabernacle of the LORDE, and toke holde of the hornes of the altare.

29 And it was tolde kynge Salomon, that Ioab was fled in to the Tabernacle of the LORDE, and beholde, he stondest at the altare. Then sent Salomon Benaia the sonne of Ioiada, and sayde: Go slaye him.

30 And whan Benaia came to the Tabernacle of the LORDE, he sayde vnto him: Thus sayeth the kynge: Come forth. He sayde: No, I wyl dye here. And Benaia tolde this vnto the kynge agayne. and sayde: Thus hath Ioab spoken, and thus hath he answered me.

31 The kinge saide vnto him: Do as he hath spoken, and slaye him, and bury him, that thou mayest put fro me and my fathers house the bloude which Ioab hath shed without a cause,

32 and that the LORDE maye recompence him his bloude vpon his heade, because he smote two men, which were more righteous and better then he, and slewe them with ye swerde that my father Dauid knewe not of: namely, Abner ye sonne of Ner the chefe captaine

ouer Israel, & Amasa the sonne of Iether ye chefe captaine ouer Iuda yt

33 their bloude maye be recompensed vpo ye heade of Ioab and of his sede for euer: but Dauid and his sede, his house and his seate haue peace for euermore of the LORDE.

34 And Benaia the sonne of Ioiada wente vp, and smote him, and slewe him: & he was buried in his house in the wyldernes.

35 And ye kynge set Benaia ye sonne of Ioiada in his steade ouer the hoost. And Sadoc ye prest dyd the kynge set in the steade of Abiathar.

36 And the kynge sent, and caused for to call Semei, and sayde vnto him: Buylde the an house at Ierusalem, and dwell there, and departe not from thence, nether hither ner thither.

37 In what daye so euer thou departest forth, and goest ouer ye broke Cedron, be thou sure, that thou shalt dye the deeth: thy bloude be vpon thy heade.

38 Semei sayde vnto the kynge: This is a good meanyng, as my lorde the kynge hath sayde, so shal thy seruauant do. So Semei dwelt at Ierusalem a longe season.

39 But after thre yeare it fortunated that two seruauantes ranne awaye from Semei vnto Achis the sonne of Maecha kynge of Gath. And it was tolde Semei: beholde, thy seruauantes are at Gath.

40 Then Semei gat him vp, and sadled his asse, and wete vnto Gath to Achis, for to seke his seruauates. And wha he came thither, he broughte his seruauantes from Gath.

41 And it was tolde Salomon, that Semei wente from Ierusalem vnto Gath, and was come agayne.

42 Then sent the kynge, and caused for to call Semei, and sayde vnto him: Sware not I to the by the LORDE, and assured the, and sayde: Loke what daye so euer thou departest out and goest hither or thither, be sure that thou shalt dye the death? And thou saydest vnto me: I haue herde a good meanyng.

43 Why hast thou not kepte the then acordinge to the ooth of the LORDE, and commaundement that I commaunded the?

44 And the kynge sayde vnto Semei: Thou remembrest all ye wickednes, which thy hert knoweth that thou dydest vnto my father Dauid. The LORDE hath recompenced ye thy wickednes, vpon thy heade.

45 And kynge Salomon is blessed, and the seate of Dauid shalbe stablished before ye LORDE for euer.

46 And the kynge commaunded Benaia ye sonne of Ioiada, which wente forth, and smote him that he dyed. And the kyngdome was stablished by Salomons hande.

Chapter 3

1 And Salomon made mariage wt Pharao the kynge of Egipte, & toke Pharaos daughter, and broughte her in to the cite of Dauid, tyll he had buylded his house, and the LORDES house, and the walles rounde aboute Ierusalem.

2 But the people offred yet vpon the hie places: for as yet there was no house buylded vnto the name of the LORDE vnto that tyme.

3 But Salomon loued the LORDE, and walked after the ordinaunces of Dauid his father: excepte onely that he offred and brent incense vpon the hie places.

4 And the kynge wente vnto Gibeon, to do sacrifice there: for that was a goodly hie place. And Salomon offred a thousande burntofferynges vpon the same altare.

5 And the LORDE appeared vnto Salomon at Gibeon in a dreame of the nighte, and God sayde: Axe what I shal geue ye.

6 Salomo saide: Thou hast done greate mercy vnto my father Dauid thy seruauant. Like as he walked before the in faithfulness and righteounes, and in a true hert with the, & this greate mercy hast thou layed vp for him, and geuen him a sonne to syt vpon his seate, as it is now come to passe.

7 Now LORDE my God, thou hast made thy seruauant kynge in my father Dauids steade: As for me, I am but a small yonge man, knowynge nether my outgoynge ner ingoynge.

8 And thy seruauant is amonge the people whom thou hast chosen: which is so greate, that no man can nombre them ner describe them for multitude.

9 Geue thy seruauant therfore an obedient hert, that he maye iudge thy people, & vnderstonde what is good & bad: for who is able to iudge this thy mightie people?

10 This pleased the LORDE well, that Salomon axed soch a peticion.

11 And God sayde vnto him: For so moch as thou axest this, and desyrest not longe lyfe, nether riches, nether ye soules of thine enemies, but vnderstodinge to heare iudgment, 12 beholde, therfore haue I done acordynge to thy wordes. Beholde, I haue geuen the an hert of wy?dome and vnderstondynge, so that soch one as thou hath not bene before the, nether shall ryse vp after the.

13 Yee and that thou hast not prayed for, haue I geuen the also, namely, ryches, and honoure, so that amonge the kynges in yi tyme there is not soch one as thou.

14 And yf thou wilt walke in my wayes, so that thou kepe myne ordinaunces and lawes, as Dauid thy father hath walked, then wyl I geue the a longe lyfe.

15 And whan Salomon awaked, beholde, it was a dreame, and he came to Ierusalem, and stode before the Arke of the LORDES couenant, and offred burntofferynges, and healthofferings, and made a greate feast vnto his seruauantes.

16 At the same tyme came there two harlottes vnto ye kynge, and stode before him.

17 And the one woman sayde: Oh my lorde, I and this woman dwelt in one house, and I was delyuered of a childe in the house with her:

18 & on the thirde daye after that I was delyuered, she was delyuered of a childe also. And we were together, so yt there was no straunger in ye house, but we two: 19 & this womans sonne died in the nighte (for she smooed him in the slepe) 20 and she rose vp in the nighte, and toke my sonne fro my syde (where thy handmayde slepte,) and layed it in hir arme, and hir deed sonne layed she in myne arme.

21 And whan I rose vp in the mornynge to geue my sonne sucke, beholde, he was deed. But in the mornynge I loked well, and beholde, it was not my sonne, whom I had borne.

22 The other woman sayde: Not so, my sonne lyueth, and thy sonne is deed. But she sayde: Not so, thy sonne is deed, and my sonne liueth. And thus spake they before the kynge.

23 And the kynge sayde: This woma saith: my sonne lyueth and thy sonne is deed: Yonder woman sayeth: Not so, thy sonne is deed, & my sonne lyueth.

24 And the kynge saide: Fetch me a swerde. And whan the swerde was brought before the kynge, 25 the kynge sayde: Parte the lyuynge childe in two partes, and geue this woman the one halfe, and yonder woman the other halfe.

26 Then sayde the woman whose sonne lyued, vnto ye kinge: (for hir motherly hert was kyndled with pite ouer hir sonne) Oh my lorde, geue hir the childe alyue, and kyll it not. But the other sayde: Let it nether be myne ner thine, but let it be parted.

27 Then answered the kynge, and sayde: Geue this woman the lyuynge childe, and slaye it not, for she is his mother.

28 And all Israel herde of this iudgment that the kynge had geuen: and they feared the kynge, for they sawe that ye wysdome of God was in him to kepe iudgmet.

Chapter 4

1 Thus was Salomon kynge ouer all Israel.

2 And these were his prynces: Asaria the sonne of Sadoc the prest:

3 Elihoreph, and Ahi Ia the sonnes of Sisa, were prestes: Iosaphat the sonne of Ahilud was chaunceler:

4 Benaia ye sonne of Ioiada was the chefe captayne: Sadoc and Abiathar were prestes:

5 Asaria the sonne of Nathan was ouer the officers: Sabud the sonne of Nathan the prest was the kynges frende:

6 Ahisar was stewarde: Adoniram the sonne of Abda was rent gatherer.

7 And Salomon had twolue offycers ouer all Israel, which made prouysion of fode for the kynge and his house: One had a moneth longe in ye yeare to make prouysion:

8 The sonne of Hur vpon mount Ephraim.

9 The sonne of Deber at Macaz and at Saalbaim, & at Bethsames, and at Elon, and BethHana.

10 The sonne of Hased at Aruboth, and had therto Socho and all the londe of Hopher.

11 The sonne of Abinadab all ye lordshippe at Dor: & had Taphat Salomos daughter to wife.

12 Baena ye sonne of Ahilud at Thaenach & at Magiddo, & ouer all BethSean, which lyeth besyde Zarthana vnder Iesrael from BethSean vnto the playne of Mehelo, tyll the other syde of Iakmeam.

13 The sonne of Geber at Ramoth in Gilead: he had the townes of Iair the sonne of Manasse in Gilead, and had ye coastes of Argob which lyeth in Basan, euen thre score greate walled cities, and with brasen barres.

14 Ahinadab ye sonne of Iddo at Mahanaim.

15 Ahimaas in Nephtali: and he also toke Basmath Salomons daughter to wife.

16 Baena the sonne of Husai in Asser and at Aloth.

17 Iosaphat the sonne of Paruha in Isachar.

18 Semei the sonne of Ela in Benlamin.

19 Geber the sonne of Vri in the londe of Gilead, in the londe of Sihon kynge of the Amorites, and of Og the kynge in Basan. One officer was in the same londe.

20 As for Iuda and Israel, they were in nombre as the sonde of the see, and ate and dronke, and were mery.

21 Thus was Salomo lorde ouer all the kyngdomes (from the water of the londe of the Philistynes, vnto the border of Egipte) which broughte him giftes, and serued him as longe as he lyued.

22 And Salomon had daylie to his vytayles thirtie quarters of fyne meel, threscore quarters of other meel, 23 ten fat oxen, and twety small catell, and an hundreth shepe, beside hartes and Roes, and wilde goates, and fat capons, and foules.

24 For he had the lordshippe of all the londe on this syde the water, fro Tiphsa vnto Gasa, and ouer all ye kynges on this syde ye water: & had peace of all his subiectes rounde aboute, 25 so that Iuda and Israel dwelt safe, euery one vnder his vyne, and vnder his figge tre, from Dan vnto Berseba, as longe as Salomon lyued.

26 And Salomo had fortye thousande cart horses and twolue thousande horsmen.

27 And the officers prouyded the kynge Salomon with vytayles: and whatsoeuer belonged to the kynges table, that brought euery man in his moneth, and myssed not:

28 Barlye also & strawe for the horses and coursers, & broughte them vnto the place where ye kynge was, euery one after his charge.

29 And God gaued Salomon maruelous greate wy?dome and vnderstondinge, and a large hert, as the sonde that lyeth vpon ye See shore:

30 so that the wy?dome of Salomon was greater then the wy?dome of all the children towarde the south and of all ye Egipcians.

31 And he was wyser then all men, yee wyser then Ethan the Esrahite, Heman, Chalcal, and Darda, the sonnes of Mahol: and had a greate name amonge all the Heythe on euery syde.

32 And he spake thre thousande prouerbes, & his songes were a thousande & fyue.

33 And he spake of trees, from ye Ceder of Libanus vnto the Isope yt groweth out of ye wall: he talked also of catell, of foules, of wormes, of fishes.

34 And there came of all nacions to heare ye wy?dome of Salomon, and there came of all the kynges of ye earth, which had herde of his wy?dome.

Chapter 5

1 And Hiram ye kynge of Tyre sent his seruantes vnto Salomon, for he had herde, yt they had anoynted him kynge in his fathers steade: For Hiram loued Dauid as loge as he lyued.

2 And Salomon sent vnto Hiram, sayenge:

3 Thou knowest that my father might not buylde an house vnto the name of the LORDE his God, because of the warre that was aboute him, vntyll the LORDE deluyered them vnder the soles of his fete:

4 But now hath the LORDE my God geuen me rest on euery syde, so that there is no aduersary ner euell hynderaunce:

5 Beholde, I am therfore aduysed to buylde an house vnto the name of the LORDE my God, acordinge as the LORDE spake vnto Dauid my father, and sayde: Thy sonne, whom I shal set vpon thy seate in thy steade, shal buylde an house vnto my name.

6 Commaunde therfore that they hewe me downe Ceders out of Libanus, and that thy seruantes be with my seruantes, & the rewarde of thy seruantes wyll I geue the, what so euer thou shalt axe: for thou knowest, yt with vs there is no ma which can hewe tymber as the Sidonians.

7 Whan Hiram herde the wordes of Salomon, he was very glad, and sayde: Praysed be the LORDE this daye, which hath geuen Dauid a wyse sonne ouer this greate people.

8 And Hiram sent vnto Salomon, sayenge: I haue herde what thou hast sent vnto me: I wyl do acordinge vnto all thy desyre with Ceders and Pynetrees.

9 My seruantes shall brynge them downe from Libanus vnto ye See, and I wyl make them to flote vpo the See, vnto the place which thou shalt shewe me, and there wyl I cause them to aryue, & thou shalt make the to be fetched. But thou shalt fulfill my desyre also, and geue fode vnto my housholde folkes.

10 So Hira gaued Salomon Ceders and Pyne trees acordinge to all his desyre.

11 But Salomon gaued Hiram twentye thousande quarters of wheate to eate for his housholde, and twety quarters of beaten oyle. This gaued Salomon yearly vnto Hiram.

12 And the LORDE gaued Salomon wy?dome, acordynge as he had sayde vnto him, & there was peace betwene Hiram and Salomon, and they made a couenaunt both together.

13 And Salomon made an outchосynge (of workmen) thorow out all Israel. And ye outchосynge was thirtie thousande me, 14 and he sent the to mount Libanus euery two monethes ten thousande, so that they were one moneth vpon Libanus, and two monethes at home. And Adoniram was ouer the outchосynge.

15 And Salomon had thre score thousande & ten that bare burthens, & foure score thousande that hewed tymber vpon the mount,

16 besyde Salomons chefe officers, which were ordeyned ouer the worke: namely thre thousande and thre hundreth, which ruled ye people that laboured there in the worke.

17 And ye kynge commaunded, that they shulde breake out greate and costly stones, namely frestone, for the foundation of the house.

18 And Salomons masons, and Hirams, and they that were in those coastes, hewed out & prepared tymbre and stones to the buyldinge of the house.

Chapter 6

1 In the foure hundreth and foure score yeare after the departinge of the children of Israel out of the londe of Egipte, in the fourth yeare of the raigne of Salomon ouer Israel, in the moneth Sif (yt is the seconde moneth) was the house buylded vnto the LORDE.

2 This house that kynge Salomon buylded vnto ye LORDE, was thre score cubytes loge, twenty cubytes brode, & thirtie cubytes hye.

3 And he buylded a Porche before the temple of twentye cubytes longe after the bredth of the house, & ten cubites brode before the house.

4 And in ye house he made wyndowes, which might be opened and shut with lyddes.

5 And rounde aboute by the wall of ye house he buylded a compase, so yt it wente both aboute the temple and the quere, and made his outwarde wall rounde aboute.

6 The nethermost stacion was fyue cubytes wyde, and ye myddest sixe cubites wyde, and the thirde seuen cubites wyde. For he layed balkes rounde aboute the house, that they touched not ye wall of the house.

7 And whan ye house was buylded, it was buylded of whole and outbroken stones, so yt there was herde nether hammer ner axe, ner eny other instrument of yron, whan the house was a buyldinge.

8 But on the righte syde of the myddes of the house there was a dore, so yt they might go vp to the myddest stacion by a turne grese, & from the myddest stacion vnto ye thirde.

9 Thus buylded he the house, & fynished it, & syled ye house both aboute & by the walles wt Ceder wodd.

10 He buylded a galery also aboute vpon the whole house fyue cubytes hye, and couered the house with Ceder tymbre.

11 And the worde of the LORDE came vnto Salomon, & sayde:

12 Let this be the house yt thou buyldest. Yf thou shalt walke in myne ordinaunces, & do acordinge to my lawes, & kepe all my comaundementes, to walke therin, then wyl I stably?she my worde with ye, (as I sayde vnto Dauid thy father)

13 & wyll dwell amonge the childre of Israel, and wil not forsake my people of Israel.

14 Thus Salomon buylded the house, & fynished it,

15 & buylded the walles on the insyde with Ceder tymbre, from the gronde of ye house vnto the rofe, and syled it with tymbre on the ynsyde, and ouerlayed the floore of ye house with bordes of Pyne tre.

16 And behynde in the house he buylded a wall of Ceder tymbre twentye cubytes longe, from the floore vnto the rofe. And there on the ynsyde buylded he the quere for the most holy.

17 But the house of the temple before the quere was fortye cubites longe:

18 on the ynsyde was the whole house of Ceder with throwne knoppes and floures, so that there was no stone sene.

19 As for the quere, he prepared it on the ynsyde of the house, that the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE might be set therin.

20 And before the quere (which was twentye cubites longe, twentye cubytes brode, and twentye cubytes hye, and ouerlayed with pure golde) he syled the altare with Ceder.

21 And Salomon ouerlayed the house on ye ynsyde wt pure golde, & shot barres of golde before the quere, which he had ouerlayed wt golde, 22 so that ye whole house was layed ouer with golde. And all the altare also before ye quere ouerlayed he with golde.

23 He made also in the quere two Cherubins ten cubites hye of Olyue tre.

24 One wyng of ether of the Cherubs had fyue cubytes, so that from the edge of his one wyng to the edge of his other wyng there were ten cubytes.

25 Euen so had the other Cherub ten cubites also, and both the Cherubs were of one measure and of one quantitie

26 so yt ether Cherub was ten cubites hye. And he put the Cherubins within in the house.

27 And the Cherubins spred forth their wynges, so that the wyng of the one touched the one wall, and the other Cherubs wyng touched the other wall. But in the myddes of ye house the one wyng touched another.

28 And he ouerlayed the Cherubins with golde.

29 And on all the walles of the house rounde aboute, he caused to make carued worke, with carued Cherubins, palme trees, and floures.

30 And the pauement of the house ouerlayed he also with golde plates.

31 (Omitted Text)

32 And at the intrauce of the quere he made two dores of olyue thre with fyue squared postes, and caused carued worke to be made therof with Cherubins, palme trees and floures, & ouerlayed them with plates of golde.

33 So made he also at the intrauce of the temple, foure squared postes of Olyue tre,

34 and two dores of Pyne tre (so that ether dore had two syde dores one haginge to another)

35 and made carued worke therof, palme trees and floures, right as it was appoynted.

36 And he buylded a courte also within wt thre rowes of fre stone, and with one rowe of playne Ceder tymbre.

37 In the fourth yeare in the moneth Sif, was the foundation of the LORDES house layed:

38 and in the eleuenth yeare in the moneth Bul (that is the eight moneth) was the house fynished as it shulde be, so that they were seuen yeare a buyldinge of it.

Chapter 7

1 Bvt Salomon was a buyldinge his awne house thirtene yeare, & fynished it, namely,

2 he buylded an house of the wodd of Libanus, an hundred cubites longe, fifty cubites wyde, & thirtie cubites hie, fouresquared with rowes of pilers, and wt carued Ceders.

3 And the rofe aboute syled he also with Cederwodd vpon the fyue & fortie pilers, for one rowe had fyfteen pilers,

4 so yt there stode euer thre pilers one right ouer agaynst another:

5 so that euery space betwixte the pilers was one ouer agaynst another foure squared with the pilers.

6 And he made a porche with pilers which was fyftee cubites longe, and thirtie cubites brode, & yet a porche before it with pilers & wt a greate poste.

7 He made a porche also vnto ye kynges seate (wherin ye iudgment was kepte) and made it to be the porche of iudgment, and syled it with Ceder from the pauement vnto the pauement agayne,

8 and his owne house wherin he dwelt, in ye back courte made betwene ye house and the porche like the other. And like vnto the porche made he a house for Pharaos daughter, whom Salomon had taken to wife.

9 All these were costly stone hewen after ye measure, cut with sawes on euery syde, from the grounde vnto the rofe: and without the greate courte also.

10 As for the foundacions, they were costly and greate stones, ten and eighte cubites greate:

11 and costly fre stones theron acordinge to ye measure, and Ceders.

12 But the greate courte rounde aboute had thre rowes of fre stone, & one rowe of playne Ceders: Euen so also the courte by ye hou of the LORDE within, and the porch by the house.

13 And kyng Salomon sent to fetch one Hiram of Tyre

14 a wedowes sonne, of the trybe of Nephtali, and his father had bene a man of Tyre, which was a connyng ma in metall, full of wy?dome, vnderstondinge and knowlege to worke all maner of metall worke. Whan he came to kyng Salomon, he made all his worke,

15 and made two brasen pilers, ether of them eightene cubites hie: and a threde of xij. cubites was the measure aboute both ye pilers:

16 and he made two knoppes of brasse molten, to set aboute vpon the pilers: and euery knoppe was fyue cubytes hie:

17 and on euery knoppe aboute vpon ye pilers seue wrythen ropes like cheynes.

18 And vpon euery knoppe he made two rowes of pomgranates rounde aboute on one rope, wherwith ye knoppe was couered.

19 And the knoppes were like roses before ye porche foure cubites greate.

20 And the pomgranates in the rowes rounde aboute were two hudreth aboute and beneth vpon the rope, which wete rounde aboute the thicknes of the knoppe, on euery knoppe vpon both the pilers.

21 And set vp the pilers before the porche of the temple. And that which he set on the right hande, called he Iachin: and that which he set on the lefte hande, called he Boos.

22 And so stode it aboute vpon the pilers euen like roses. Thus was the worke of ye pilers fynished.

23 And he made a molten lauer ten cubytes wyde from the one syde to the other rounde aboute, and fyue cubites hie, and a threde of thirtie cubites loge was ye measure rounde aboute:

24 and aboute the same lauer that was then cubites wyde, there wente knoppes on the edge therof rounde aboute the lauer. Two rowes were there of the knoppes molten with the lauer.

25 And it stode vpon twolue bullockes, wherof thre were turned towarde the north, thre towarde the west, thre towarde the south, and thre towarde the east, and the lauer aboute theron, so that all their hynder partes were within vnder the lauer:

26 wherof the thicknesse was an handbreth: and the edge of it was like the edge of a cuppe, and as a floured rose, and it conteyned two thousande Battes.

27 And he made ten brasen seates, euery one foure cubites longe and brode, and thre cubites hie.

28 The seate was made so, that it had sydes betwene the ledges.

29 And on the sydes betwene the ledges there were lyons, bullockes and Cherubins. And on ye ledges which were aboute and beneth the lyons and bullockes, were the sydes made so, that they were set downwardes.

30 And euery stole had foure brasen wheles with brasen axeltrees. And vpon the foure corners there were proppes molten, euery one ouer agaynst another, vnderset vnto the kettell.

31 And the soket vpon the stole was a cubyte hie and rounde, a cubyte and an halfe wyde: and on the soket there were knoppes in foldes, which were foure squared & not rounde.

32 The foure wheles stode beneth by the sydes, & the axeltrees of the wheles were harde on ye seate. Euery whele was a cubite and a halfe hie, 33 and they were wheles like cart wheles. And their axeltrees, spikes, nales, & shaftes were all molten.

34 And the foure proppes vpo the foure corners of euery seate were harde on the seate.

35 And on the soket aboute vpon the seate a cubyte and an halfe rounde aboute, there were ledges and sydes harde on the seate.

36 And on the plat of the same sydes and ledges, he caused to carue Cherubins, lyons and palme trees, one by another rounde aboute theron.

37 After this maner made he ten molte seates, one maner of measure & widenes was in all.

38 And he made ten copper kettels, so that one kettell coteyned fortye Battes, and was foure cubites greate, and vpon euery seate was a kettell.

39 And fyue seates set he on the righte syde of the house, and the other fyue on the lefte syde. But the lauer set he before on the righte hande towarde the south.

40 And Hiram made pottes also and shouels and basens, & so fynished he all the worke, that kyng Salomon caused to be made in the house of the LORDE:

41 namely ye two pilers, and the rounde knoppes aboute vpon the two pilers, and the two wrythen ropes to couer the two rounde knoppes vpon the pilers.

42 And the foure hudreth pomgranates on the two wrythen ropes, euer two rowes of pomgranates vnto euery rope, to couer the two rounde knoppes vpon the pilers.

43 And the ten seates, and ten kettels theron, and the lauer, 44 and twolue bullockes vnder ye lauer.

45 And the pottes, shouels and basens. And all the ornamentes which Hiram made vnto kyng Salomon for the house of the LORDE, were of pure metall.

46 In the countre by Iordane, caused the kyng them to be molten in thicke earth, betwene Sucoth and Zarthan.

47 And Salomon let all the apparell be vnweyed, because the metall was so moch.

48 Morouer Salomon made all the apperell that belonged vnto the house of the LORDE: namely a golden altare, a golden table that the shewbred laye on,

49 fyue candelstickes on the righte hande, and fyue candelstickes on the lefte (before the quere) of pure golde, wt floures,

50 lampes and snoffers of golde, therto flat peces, charges, basens, spones and censours of pure golde. And the hokes of ye dores on the insyde of the house in the most holy, and in the dores of the house of the teple of the LORDE were of golde.

51 Thus all the worke that kyng Salomon made in ye house of the LORDE, was fynished. And Salomon brought in that his father Dauid had sanctified, of syluer and golde and ornamentes, and layed it amonge the treasures of the house of the LORDE.

Chapter 8

1 Then gathered kyng Salomon all ye Elders in Israel together, all the rulers of the trybes and prynces of the fathers amonge the children of Israel, vnto Ierusalem, to bryng vp the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE, out of the cite of Dauid, that is Sion.

2 And there resorted vnto kyng Salomon all the men in Israel, at the feast in the moneth Ethanim, that is ye seuenth moneth.

3 And whan all ye Elders of Israel came, the prestes toke the Arke of the LORDE,

4 and broughte it vp, and the Tabernacle of witness, and all the ornamentes of the Sanctuary that were in the Tabernacle. This dyd the prestes and the Leuites.

5 And kyng Salomon and all the congregacion of Israel yt were gathered vnto him, wente with him before the Arke, and offred shepe and bullockes, so many, that they coulde not be nombred ner tolde.

6 So the prestes broughte the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt vnto hir place, euen in to ye Quere of the house in the most holy vnder ye wynges of the Cherubins.

7 For ye Cherubins spred out their wynges in the place where the Arke stode, and couered the Arke and the staues therof from aboute.

8 And the staues were so loge, that ye knoppes of them were sene from the Sanctuary before ye quere, but on the outsyde were they not sene, and they were there vnto this daye.

9 And in the Arke there was nothinge, but onely the two tables of stone, which Moses had layed therin at Horeb, whan ye LORDE made a couenaunt with the children of Israel, what tyme as they were departed out of the londe of Egipte.

10 But whan the prestes wente out of the Sanctuary, a cloude fylled the house of the LORDE, 11 so yt the prestes coulde not stonde & execute the office for the cloude: for the glory of the LORDE fylled the LORDES house.

12 Then sayde Salomon: The LORDE sayde, that he wolde dwell in a darke cloude.

13 I haue buylded an house, to be an habitacion vnto the: a seate, yt thou mayest dwell there for euer.

14 And ye kyng turned his face, & blessed all the congregacion of Israel.

And all the cogregacion of Israel stode, 15 & he sayde: Praysed be the LORDE God of Israel, which promised by his mouth vnto my father Dauid, and by his hade hath fulfilled it, and sayde:

16 Sence the daye yt I broughte my people of Israel out of Egipte, haue I chosen no cite amoge all the trybes of Israel, to buylde me an house, that my name might be there. But Dauid haue I chosen, to be ouer my people of Israel.

17 And in dede my father Dauid was mynded to buylde an house vnto the name of the LORDE God of Israel:

18 neuertheless the LORDE sayde vnto my father Dauid: Where as thou wast mynded to buylde an house vnto my name, thou hast done well, that thou art so aduysed.

19 Howbeit thou shalt not buylde the house, but thy sonne which shal come out of thy loynes, he shal buylde an house vnto my name.

20 And the LORDE hath perfourmed his worde that he spake: For I am come vp in my father Dauids steade, and syt vpon the seate of Israel, as the LORDE sayde: and haue buylded an house vnto the name of the LORDE God of Israel:

21 and there haue I ordeyned a place for the Arke, wherin is the LORDES couenaut, which he made with oure fathers, whan he broughte them out of ye londe of Egipte.

22 And Salomon stode before the altare of the LORDE in the presence of the whole congregacion of Israel, and helde out his handes towarde heauen,

23 and sayde: O LORDE God of Israel, there is no god like the, nether aboue in heauen, ner beneth vpo earth, thou that kepest couenaut and mercy for all thy seruantes that walke before ye with all their hert, 24 thou that hast kepte promes with my father Dauid thy seruaut: With thy mouth thou saydest it, and with thy hande hast thou fulfilled it, as it is come to passe this daye.

25 Now LORDE God of Israel make good vnto my father Dauid yi seruaut, that which thou hast promysed him, and sayde: Thou shalt not wante a man before me to syt vpon the seate of Israel, yf thy childe kepe their waye, so yt they walke before me like as thou hast walked before me.

26 Now thou God of Israel, let yi worde be verified, which thou hast promysed vnto my father Dauid thy seruaut.

27 For thinkest thou yt God dwelleth vpon earth? Beholde, the heauens and the heauens of all heauens maye not contayne the: how shulde then this house do it, that I haue buylded?

28 But turne the vnto the prayer of thy seruaut, and to his supplicacion (O LORDE my God) that thou mayest heare the thankesgeuyng and prayer, which thy seruaut maketh before the this daye,

29 so that thine eyes be open ouer this house night and daye, euen ouer this place (wherof thou saydest: My name shall dwell there.) That thou mayest heare the prayer which thy seruaut maketh in this place.

30 & heare the intercession of yi seruaut & of thy people of Israel, which they shall make here in this place of thy habitacion in heauen: and whan thou hearest it, be gracious.

31 Whan eny ma synneth agaynst his neghboure, and taketh vpon him an ooth wherwith he byndeth him selfe, and ye ooth commeth before thine altare in this house, 32 then heare thou in heaue, and se that thy seruantes haue right, to condemne the vngodly, and to brynge his waye vpon his owne heade, and to iustifie the righteous, to geue him acordinge to his righteousnes.

33 Whan thy people of Israel is smytten before their enemies (whyle they haue synned agaynst the) and yf they turne vnto the and knowlege thy name, & make their prayer and intercession vnto the in this house, 34 the heare thou them in heauen, and be mercifull vnto the synne of thy people of Israel, and brynge them agayne into the londe, yt thou hast geuen vnto their fathers.

35 Whan the heauen is shut vp, so yt it rayneth not (for so moch, as they haue synned agaynst the) and yf they make their prayer in this place, and knowlege thy name, and turne from their synnes wha thou troublest them,

36 heare thou them then in heauen, and be mercifull vnto the synnes of thy seruantes, and of thy people of Israel, that thou mayest shewe them the good waye, wherin they shulde walke, and let it rayne vpon the londe that thou hast geuen thy people to inheritance.

37 Whan a derth, or pestilence, or drouth, or burnyng, or greshopper or catirpillar, is in their londe, or whan his enemye layeth sege to his portes in the londe, or whan eny other plage or disease happeneth,

38 who so euer then maketh his prayer and peticion, whether it be eny other men or thy people of Israel (which the are aware of their plage) euery one in his hert, and spredeth out his handes vnto this house:

39 Heare thou then in heauen in the seate where thou dwellest, and be mercifull, & se that thou geue euery one acordinge as he hath walked, like as thou knowest his hert (for thou onely knowest the hert of all the children of men)

40 that they maye alwaye feare the, as longe as they lyue in the lande, which thou hast geuen vnto oure fathers.

41 And whan eny straunger, that is not of thy people of Israel, commeth out of a farre cowntre for thy names sake

42 (for they shall heare of thy greate name, and of thy mightie hade, and of thy outstretched arme) and commeth to make his prayer in this house,

43 heare thou him then in heauen, euen in the seate of thy dwellinge, and do all for the which that straunger calleth vpon the, that all the nacions vpon earth maye knowe thy name, and that they maye feare the, as thy people of Israel do: and that they maye knowe, how that this house which I haue buylded, is named after thy name.

44 Whan thy people go forth to the battayll agaynst their enemyes, the waye that thou shalt sende them and shall praye vnto the LORDE towarde the waye of the cite which thou hast chosen, and towarde the house that I haue buylded vnto thy name, 45 heare thou then their prayer and peticion in heauen, and execute iudgment for them.

46 Whan they synne agaynst the (for there is no ma that synneth not) & thou be wroth, and deluyer the vnto their enemyes, so that they cary them awaye captiue in to the enemyes londe farre or nye,

47 and yf they remembre them selues in the londe where they are captiue, and turne, and make their intercession vnto the in the londe of their captiuite, and saye: We haue synned, & done amyssse, and haue bene vngodly,

48 and so turne vnto ye with all their hert, and with all their soule in the lode of their enemyes (which led them awaye captiue) and make their prayer vnto the towarde the waye of their londe, that thou hast geuen vnto their fathers, euen towarde the cite which thou hast chosen, and towarde the house that I haue buylded vnto thy name:

49 then heare thou their prayer and supplicacion in heauen, from the seate of thy dwellyng, and execute iudgment for them,

50 and be mercifull vnto thy people that haue synned agaynst the, and vnto all their respases, wherwith they haue transgressed agaynst the, and graunte the mercy in the sighte of them which led them awaye presoners, that their enemyes maye be mercifull vnto them:

51 for they are thy people, and thine enheritaunce, whom thou broughtest out of Egipte, from the yron fornace:

52 that thine eyes maye be open vnto the peticion of thy seruaut, and of thy people of Israel, that thou maiest heare them in all thinges for the which they shall call vpon the

53 (for thou O LORDELORDE) hast sundered them out to be an inheritance vnto thy selfe, from amoge all the nacions vpon earth, acordinge as thou saydest by Moses thy seruaut, whan thou broughtest oure fathers out of Egipte.

54 And wha Salomon had ended all this prayer and peticion before the LORDE, he rose vp from the altare of the LORDE, and lefte of from knelyng and holdyng out of handes towarde heauen,

55 and stode and blessed all the congregacion of Israel with loude voyce, and sayde:

56 Praysed be the LORDE which hath geuen rest vnto his people, acordinge as he sayde. There hath not one fayled of all his good wordes, which he spake by his seruaut Moses.

57 The LORDE oure God be with vs, as he hath bene with oure fathers, and forsake vs not,

58 nether withdrawe his hande from vs, but bowe oure hertes vnto him, that we maye walke in all his wayes, and kepe his commaundementes, ordinaunces and lawes, which he commaunded oure fathers.

59 And these wordes wherwith I haue made my peticion before the LORDE, come nye vnto the LORDE oure God daye and nighte, that he maye execute iudgment for his seruaut and for his people of Israel, euery one at his tyme:

60 that all nacions vpon earth maye knowe, that the LORDE is God, & that there is none other.

61 And let youre hert be perfecte with the LORDE oure God, to walke in his statutes, and to kepe his commaundementes, as it is this daye.

62 And the kyng with all Israel his people offred sacrifice before the LORDE.

63 And Salomon offred deed offerynges (which he offred vnto the LORDE) two and twenty thousande oxen, and an hundreth & twenty thousande shepe. So the kyng and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORDE.

64 The same daye dyd the kyng dedicate the myddelmost court, which was before the house of the LORDE: that he mighte there perfourme the burntofferings, meatofferings, and the fat of the deedofferings: for the brasen altare that stode before ye LORDE, was to litle for the burntofferings, meatofferings, and for the fat of the deedofferings.

65 And at the same tyme made Salomon a solempne feast, and all Israel a greate congregacion with him, from the border of Hemath vnto the ryuer of Egipte, before the LORDE oure God, seuen dayes, and yet seuen dayes, that were fourtene daies.

66 And on the eight daye he let the people go. And they blessed the kyng, and wente vnto their tentes reioysinge and with a mery hert, because of all the good that the LORDE had done vnto Dauid his seruaut, & to his people of Israel.

Chapter 9

1 And whan Salomon had fynished ye buyldinge of the house of the LORDE, and the kynges house, and all that his desyre and pleasure was to make,

2 ye LORDE appeared vnto him the seconde tyme, euen as he appeared vnto him at Gibeon.

3 And the LORDE sayde vnto him: I haue herde thy prayer and peticion, that thou hast made before me, and haue sanctified this house which thou hast buylded, that I maye set my name there for euer: and myne eyes and my hert shalbe there alwaye.

4 And yf thou walke before me (as thy father Dauid walked) with a perfecte and a true hert, so that thou do all that I haue commaunded the, and kepe myne ordinaunces and lawes,

5 then wyll I stablish the seate of thy kyngdome ouer Israel for euer, acordinge as I promysed thy father Daud, and sayde: Thou shalt not wante a man from the seate of Israel.

6 But yf ye turne back fro me, ye and youre childre, and kepe not my commaundementes and ordinaunces which I haue layed before you, but go and serue other goddes, and worshipe them,

7 then wyll I rote Israel out of the londe that I haue geuen them. And the house that I haue halowed vnto my name, wyll I put away fro my face. And Israel shall be come a byworde and fabell amoge all nacions,

8 and so shal this hye house: so that euery one yt goeth by, shall be astonied, and make an hyssynge, and saye: Wherefore hath the LORDE done thus vnto this londe and to this house?

9 Then shal it be answered: Because they forsoke ye LORDE their God, (which brought their fathers out of the londe of Egipte) and haue receaued other goddes, and worshipped them, and serued them. Therefore hath ye LORDE brought all this euell vpon them.

10 Now whan the twentye yeares were ended, wherin Salomon buylded the two houses, the LORDES house and the kynges house, 11 where vnto Hiram the kyng of Tyre brought Salomo Ceder trees & Pyne trees, and golde after all his desyre, then gaue kyng Salomon vnto Hiram twentye cities in the countre of Galile.

12 And Hiram departed from Tyre to vyset the cities which Salomon had geuen him, & they pleased him not,

13 and he sayde: What maner of cities are these (my brother) that thou hast geue me? And he called them the londe of Cabul vnto this daye.

14 And Hiram vnto the kyng, sixe score hundredth weight of Golde.

15 And the same is the summe of the taxe, that kyng Salomon rayسد to the buyldinge of the house of the LORDE, and his awne house, & Millo, and the walles of Ierusalem, and Hasor, and Megiddo, and Gaser.

16 For Pharao ye kyng of Egipte came vp, and wane Gaser, & brent it with fyre, & slewe the Cananites yt dwelt in the cite, & gaue it for a gifte vnto his daughter Salomos wife.

17 So Salomon buylded Gaser, & the lower Bethoron,

18 and Baelath and Thamar, in ye wyldernes, in the londe,

19 & all the cities of the corne houses that Salomon had, and all the cities of the charettes, & all the cities of the horsmen, and what it pleased him to buylde at Ierusalem, in Libanus, & in euery countre of his domynion.

20 And all the remnaunt of the people of the Amorytes, Hethites, Pheresites, Heuites and Iebusites, which were not of the children of Israel, 21 their children which they lefte behynde them in the londe (whom the children of Israel coulde not vtterly destroye) those dyd Salomon make tributaries vnto this daye.

22 But of the children of Israel he made no bondmen, but let them be men of warre, and his seruauntes, and prynces, and knightes, and ouer his charettes and horsme.

23 And the officers which were ouer Salomons busynesse, were fyue hundredth and fyftye, which ruled the people, and performed the worke.

24 And Pharaos daughter wente vp from the cite of Daud, in to hir house which he had buylded for her. Then buylded he Millo likewyse.

25 And thre tymes in the yeare dyd Salomon offre burntofferynges and deedofferynges vpon the altare that he had buylded vnto the LORDE, and burnt incense vpon it before the LORDE, and so was the house ended and fynished.

26 And Salomon made shippes also at Ezeon Geber, which lyeth by Eloth besyde the Reed See shore in ye londe of the Edomites.

27 And Hiram sent his seruauntes by shippe, which were shipmen, and had experience of the See, with Salomons seruauntes, 28 and they came vnto Ophir, and fetched from thence one & twenty score hundredth weight of golde, and brought it vnto Salomon.

Chapter 10

1 And whan kyng Salomons fame of the name of the LORDE came to the eares of the Quene of riche Arabia, she came to proue him with darke sentences.

2 And she came to Ierusalem with a maruelous greate trayne, with camels which bare spyces, and moch golde, and precious stones And whan she came in to kyng Salomon, she spake vnto him all that was in hir hert.

3 And Salomon tolde her euerythinge, and the kyng had nothinge in secrete, but he tolde it her.

4 But whan the Quene of riche Arabia sawe all the wy?dome of Salomon, and the house that he had buylded,

5 and the meates of his table, and the dwellinges of his seruauntes, & the offyces of his ministers, and their garmentes, and his butlers and the burntofferynges which he offred in the house of the LORDE, she wondred exceedingly, and coulde no longer refrayne,

6 but sayde vnto the kyng: It is true that I haue herde in my londe of thy behauoure and of thy wy?dome.

7 And I wolde not beleue it, tyll I came and sawe it with myne eyes: and beholde, the halfe hath not bene tolde me. hou hast more wy?dome and good, the the fame is that I haue herde.

8 Happye are thy people and thy seruauntes, that allwaie stonde before the,

and heare thy wy?dome.

9 Praysed be the LORDE thy God, which had soch a pleasure vnto the, that he set the vpon the seate of Israel: because he hath allwaye loued Israel, and hath set the to be kyng, that thou shuldest mantayne iustyce and equitye.

10 And she gaue the kyng syxe score hundredth weighte of golde, and very moch spyce, and precious stones. There came neuer so moch spyce thither, as the Quene of riche Arabia gaue vnto kyng Salomon.

11 And Hiram shippes, which caried golde out of Ophir, broughte maruelous moch costly tymber and precious stones from Ophir.

12 And of that costly tymber the kyng caused to make pilers in the house of the LORDE, and in ye kinges house, and harpes and Psalteries for the Musicians. There came nomore soch costly tymber, nether was it sene vnto this daye.

13 And kyng Salomon gaue the quene of riche Arabia, all that she desyred and axed, besydes that which he gaue her of a frye hande. And she returned, and departed in to hir lande with hir seruauntes.

14 The golde that came to Salomon in one yeare, was nyne and thyrtye score hundredth weighte, 15 besydes that which came of chapmen, marchauntes and Apotecaries, and of the nexte kynges, and of the mightie men in the londe.

16 And kyng Salomon caused to make two hundredth speares of beaten golde, sixe hundredth peces of golde put he to euery speare:

17 and thre hundredth shyldes of ye best golde, euen thre pounce of golde vpon euery shyld. And the kyng put them in the house of the wod of Libanus.

18 And the kyng made a greate seate of Yuery, and ouerlayed it with ye most precious golde.

19 And the seate had sixe steppes, and ye heade of the seate was roude behynde.

And there were two postes to leane vpo on both the sydes of the seate, and two Lyons stode vpon the leanyng postes, 20 and twolue Lyons stode vpon the sixe steppes on both the sydes. Soch one hath not bene made in eny kyngdome.

21 All kyng Salomos drynkyng vessels were of golde, and all the vessels in the house of ye wod of Libanus were of pure golde also: for syluer was not regarded in Salomons tyme.

22 For the kynges Seeshippe yt sayled vpon the See with ye shippe of Hiram, came once in thre yeare, and broughte golde, syluer, Yuery, Apes, and Pecoakes.

23 Thus was kyng Salomon greater in riches and wy?dome, then all the kynges vpo earth:

24 And all the worlde desyred to se Salomon, that they mighte heare the wy?dome which God gaue him in his hert.

25 And they broughte him yearly euery man his present, vessels of syluer and golde, rayment and harnesse, spyces, horses and Mules.

26 And Salomon broughte charettes and horsmen together, so that he had a thousande and foure hundredth charettes, and twolue thousande horsmen: and those he put in ye charet cities, and with the kyng at Ierusalem.

27 And the kyng broughte it to passe, that there was as moch syluer at Ierusalem as stones: and as many Ceders as there were wyld figge trees in the valleys.

28 And Salomos horses were broughte out of Egipte, and fro Reua: for the kynges marchauntes fetched them from Reua for money.

29 And a charet came vp out of Egipte for sixe hundredth Sycles of Syluer, and an horse for an hundredth and fyfty. Thus were they brought also vnto all the kynges of the Hethites and to the kynges of Siria by their handes.

Chapter 11

1 But kyng Salomon loued many outlandish wemen, Pharaos daughter, and wemen of Moab, of Ammo, of Edom, of Sidon, and of Heth,

2 euen of those nacions, that the LORDE spake of vnto the children of Israel: Go not ye vnto them, and let not them come vnto you: they shal surely bowe youre hertes after their goddes: Vnto these dyd Salomon encline with affeccion.

3 And he had seuen hundredth wemen to wyues, and thre hundredth concubynes, and his wyues turned his hert asyde.

4 And whan he was now olde, his wyues bowed his hert after straunge goddes, so that his hert was not whole with the LORDE his God, as was the hert of Daud his father.

5 So Salomon walked after Astaroth the god of the Sidonians, and after Malcom the abhominacion of the Ammonites.

6 And Salomon dyd yt which displeased the LORDE, and folowed not ye LORDE to ye vtmost as dyd his father Daud.

7 The buylded Salomo an hie place vnto Chamos the abhominacio of ye Moabites (vpon the mount that lyeth before Ierusalem) and vnto Moloch the abhominacion of the Ammnites.

8 Thus dyd Salomon for all his outladish wyues, which brent incense, and offred vnto their goddes.

9 But the LORDE was wroth at Salomon, because his hert was turned asyde from ye LORDE God of Israel, which had two tymes appeared vnto him,

10 and comaunded him, that he shulde not walke after other goddes: and yet kepte he not that the LORDE commaunded him.

11 Therefore sayde the LORDE vnto Salomon: For so moch as this is done with the, and hast not kepte my couenant and myne ordinaunces, which I commaunded the, therefore wyll I also plucke thy kyngdome from the, and geue it vnto thy seruaunt:

12 Neuertheles in yi tyme will I not do it, for thy father Dauids sake, but from the hande of thy sonne wyl I plucke it.

13 Howbeit I wyl not plucke ye kyngdome cleane awaye. One trybe wyl I geue vnto thy sonne, for Dauid my seruauntes sake, and for Ieruselems sake which I haue chosen.

14 And the LORDE raysed vp an aduersary vnto Salomon, euen Hadad the Edomite of the kynges sede, which was in Edom.

15 For whan Dauid was in Edom, and Ioab the chefe captayne wente vp to bury the slayne, he smote all the males in Edom.

16 (For Ioab remayned there sixe monethes and all Israel, tyl he had rote out all ye males that were in Edom.)

17 Then fled Hadad, and certayne men of ye Moabites with him, of his fathers seruauntes. As for Hadad, he was a yonge man.

18 And they gat them vp fro Madian, and came vnto Paran, and toke men with them out of Paran, and came in to Egipte vnto Pharao the kyng of Egipte: which gaue him an house and certayne vytales appoynted, & gaue him a countre.

19 And Adad founde greate fauoure in the sighte of Pharao, so that he gaue him to wife euen the sister of his owne wife Thaphenes the Quene.

20 And Thaphenes sister bare him Genubath his sonne, and Thaphenes norished him vp in Pharaos house, in so moch that Genubath was in Pharaos house amonge Pharaos children.

21 Now wha Hadad herde in Egipte, that Dauid was falle on slepte with his fathers, and yt Ioab the chefe captayne was deed, he sayde vnto Pharao: Let me go in to my countre.

22 Pharao sayde vnto him: What lackest thou with me, that thou wilt go in to thy countre? He sayde: Nothyng, but yet let me go.

23 God raysed him vp another aduersary also, one Reson the sonne of El Iada, which fled from his lorde Hadad Eser kyng of Zeba,

24 and gathered men agaynst him, and was a captayne of the men of warre whan Dauid slewe them: and they wente vnto Damascus and dwelt there, and reigned at Damascus,

25 and he was Israels aduersary as loge as Salomon lyued. This is the harme yt Hadad suffred: therfore had he euell will at Israel, and was kyng ouer Israel

26 Morouer Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat an Ephraite Salomons seruaunt (and his mothers name was Zeruga, a wedowe) lifte vp his hande also agaynst the kyng.

27 And this is the cause wherfore he lifte vp his hande agaynst the kyng: Whan Salomon buylded Millo, he shut vp a gappe in the cite of Dauid his father.

28 And Ieroboam was a ma of armes. And whan Salomon sawe that it was a mete yonge man, he set him ouer all the burthens of the house of Ioseph.

29 But at the same tyme it fortunated, that Ieroboam wente out from Ierusalem, and the prophet Ahias of Silo founde him by the waye, and he had a new cloke vpon him, and they two were alone in the felde.

30 And Ahia toke holde of the new cloke yt he had on, and rente the same in to twolue peces, 31 and sayde vnto Ieroboam: Take thou ten peces vnto the. For thus sayeth the LORDE God of Israel: Beholde, euen thus wyl I rente the kyngdome from the hande of Salomo, and wyl geue the ten trybes.

32 One trybe shall he haue for my seruaunt Dauids sake, and because of the cyte of Ierusalem, which I haue chosen out of all the trybes of Israel:

33 for they haue forsaken me, and worshipped Astaroth the god of the Sidonians, Chamos the god of the Moabites, and Malco the god of the children of Ammon, and haue not walked in my wayes, to fulfill my pleasure, myne ordinaunces, and lawes, as dyd Dauid his father.

34 Notwithstandynge I wyl not take the whole kyngdome from out of his hande, but wil make him a prynce as longe as he lyueth for my seruaunt Dauids sake, whom I dyd chose, which kepte my commaundementes & ordinaunces.

35 From out of the hande of his sonne wyl I take the kyngdome, and wyl geue ten trybes vnto the, 36 and one vnto his sonne, that Dauid my seruaunt maye allwaye haue a lanterne before me in the cite of Ierusalem, which I haue chosen, that I maye set my name there.

37 Therfore wyl I take the now, to raygne ouer all that thine hert desyreth, and thou shalt be kyng ouer Israel.

38 Yf thou folowe now all that I shall commaunde the, and walke in my wayes, and fulfill my pleasure to kepe myne ordinaunces and commaundementes, as dyd my seruaunt Dauid, then wyl I be with the, and buylde the a sure house, as I buylded vnto Dauid, and wyl geue Israel vnto the 39 and therwith wyl I subdue the sede of Dauid, but not for euermore.

40 But Salomon soughte to kyll Ieroboam. Then Ieroboam gat him vp, and fled in to Egipte to Sisak the kyng of Egipte, and remayned in Egipte, tyll Salomon dyed.

41 What more there is to saye of Salomon, and all that he dyd, and his wy?dome, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of Salomon.

42 The tyme that Salomon was kyng at Ierusalem ouer all Israel, is fortye yeare.

43 And Salomon fell on slepe with his fathers, and was buried in the cite of Dauid his father, and Roboam his sonne was kyng in his steade.

Chapter 12

1 And Roboam wete vnto Sicheim, for all Israel was come to Sicheim to make him kyng.

2 And whan Ieroboam ye sonne of Nebat herde that, while he was yet in Egipte (whither he was fled for Salomon) he came agayne out of Egipte.

3 And they sent for him, and called him. And Ieroboam with all the congregacion of Israel came and spake to Roboam, and sayde:

4 Thy father made oure yock to harde: therfore make thou now the harde bondage and the sore yock lighter, and we wyl submytte oure selues vnto the.

5 He sayde vnto them: Go youre waye vnto the thirde daye, and then come to me agayne. And the people wete their waye.

6 And Roboam the kyng helde a counsell with the Elders that stode before Salomo his father whyle he lyued, & he sayde: What is youre counsell, that we maye geue this people an answe?e?

7 They sayde vnto him: Yf thou do this people a pleasure to daye, and folowe their mynde, and heare them, and geue them good wordes, then shal they be obedient vnto the as longe as thou liuest.

8 Neuertheles he forsoke the counsell that ye Elders had geuen him, and axed counsell at the yonge men which were growne vp with him, and stode before him.

9 And he sayde vnto them: What is youre counsell that we maye answe?e this people which haue sayde vnto me: Make the yock lighter, that thy father hath layed vpo vs.

10 And the yonge men that were growne vp with him, sayde vnto him: Where as the people haue sayde vnto the: Thy father hath made oure yock to sore, make thou it easyer for vs, Thus shalt thou saye vnto them: My litle fynger shall be thicker then my fathers loynes.

11 Now, my father layed a sore yock vpon you, but I wyl yet laye more theron: My father correcte you with scourges, but I wyl nourture you with scorpions.

12 So vpon the thyrde daye came Ieroboam with all the people vnto Roboam, as ye kyng had appoynted and saide, come to me agayne on the thyrde daye.

13 And the kyng gaue the people an harde rough answe?e, and forsoke the coucell that the Elders had geuen him, 14 and talked with them after the counsell of the yonge men, and sayde: My father made youre yock sore, but I wyl make it yet sorer vpon you. My father correcte you with scourges, but I wil nourture you with scorpions.

15 Thus the kyng folowed not the peoples mynde, for he was turned so fro the LORDE, that he mighte stablish his worde which he spake by Ahias of Silo vnto Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat.

16 But whan all Israel sawe that the kyng wolde not heare them, the people gaue ye kyng an answe?e and sayde: What porcion haue we then in Dauid or inheritaunce in the sonne of Isai? Get the to thy tentes O Israel. Loke thou now to thy house thou Dauid. So Israel wente vnto their tentes.

17 As for Roboam, he raigned but ouer ye children of Israel, which dwelt in the cities of Iuda.

18 And whan kyng Roboam sent thither Adoram the rengatherer, all Israel stoned him to death. But kyng Roboam strengthed himselfe, and gat him vp in to a charet, to fle vnto Ierusalem.

19 Thus departed Israel from the house of Dauid vnto this daye.

20 Now whan all Israel herde, that Ieroboam was come agayne, they sent for to call him to the whole congregacion, and made him kyng ouer all Israel. And no man folowed the house of Dauid, saue onely the tribe of Iuda.

21 And whan Roboam came to Ierusalem, all the house of Iuda and the trybe of Ben Iamin (euen an hundreth and foure score thousande chosen men of armes) gathered themselues together to fight against ye house of Israel, & to brynge the kyngdome agayne vnto Roboam ye sonne of Salomo.

22 But the worde of God came to Semeia the man of God, and sayde:

23 Speake thou to Roboam the sonne of Salomon kyng of Iuda, and to all ye house of Iuda and Ben Iamin, and to the other people, and saye:

24 Thus sayeth the LORDE: Ye shall not go vp and fighte agaynst youre brethern the children of Israel. Let euery man go home agayne, for this is my dede. And they herkened vnto the worde of the LORDE, and turned back, to go their waye, as the LORDE sayde.

25 But Roboam buylded Sicheim vpon mount Ephraim, and dwelt therin, and departed thence, and buylded Penuel.

26 Ieroboam thoughte in his hert: The kingdome shall fall agayne now vnto the house of Dauid, 27 yf this people go vp to offre in the LORDES house at Ierusalem, and so shall the hert of this people turne to their lorde Roboam kyng of Iuda, and the shal they slaye me, and fall agayne to Roboam kyng of Iuda.

28 And the kyng helde a counsell and made two golden calues, and sayde vnto them: It is to moch for you to go to Ierusalem: beholde, there is thy God (O Israel) which broughte ye out of Egipte.

29 And the one set he at Bethel, & the other in Dan.

30 And this dede turned to synne, for the people wente before the one vnto Dan.

31 He made an house also in the hie places, and made prestes of the smallest in the people, which were not of the childre of Leui.

32 And vpon the fiftene daye of the eighte moneth he made an holy daye, like as the solempne feast in Iuda, and offered vpon the altare. Thus dyd he at Bethel, in doynge sacrifice vnto the calues which he had made, and at Bethel he ordeyned the prestes of the hie places that he had made:

33 and offred vpon the altar (which he had made) at Bethel, the fiftene daye of the eight moneth, which he inuented of his owne hert. And he made the children of Israel an holy daye, & wente vp to the altare to burne incense.

Chapter 13

1 And beholde, there came a ma of God from Iuda (thorow the worde of the LORDE) vnto Bethel, and Ieroboam stode by the altar to burne incense.

2 And he cried agaynst the altare thorow the worde of the LORDE, and sayde: O altar, altar, thus sayeth the LORDE: Beholde, there shal be borne vnto ye house of Daudid a sonne, Iosias by name which on the shal offer the prestes of the hie places, that burne incense vpon the, and mens bones shal he burne on the.

3 And he gaue a wonder token the same daye, and sayde: This is the token, that the LORDE hath spoken it, beholde, the altar shall ryue, and the a?shes, that are thereon, shall be poured out.

4 But whan the kynge herde the worde of the man of God, that cried agaynst the altare at Bethel, he stretched out his hande by ye altare, and sayde: Laye hondes on him. And his hande that he stretched out, wythered, and he coule not drawe it vnto him agayne.

5 And ye altare roue, and the a?shes were poured out from the altare, acordinge to the wonder token that the man of God had geuen by the worde of the LORDE.

6 And the kynge answered, and sayde vnto the man of God: O praye the face of the LORDE thy God, and make intercession for me, that my hande maie be restored vnto me agayne. Then prayed the man of God vnto the face of the LORDE. And the kynges hande was restored him agayne, and became as it was afore.

7 And the kynge sayde vnto the man of God: Come home with me, and dyne, and I wil geue the a rewarde.

8 But the man of God sayde vnto the kynge: Yf thou geuest me halfe thy house, I wil not come with the: for in this place wyll I nether eate bred, ner drynke water.

9 For thus am I commaunded, and thus it sayde vnto me by the worde of the LORDE: Thou shalt eate no bred, and drynke no water, nether returne the waye that thou wentest.

10 And he departed another waye, and returned not agayne the waye that he came to Bethel.

11 But at Bethel there dwelt an olde prophet vnto who his sonnes came, & tolde him all the workes yt the ma of God had done that daye at Bethel, & the wordes that he had spoken vnto the kynge.

12 And their father sayde vnto them: Which waye is he gone? And his sonnes shewed him the waye that the man of God was gone: which came from Iuda.

13 He sayde vnto his sonnes: Saddell me the asse. And wha they had saddled him the asse, he rode thereon,

14 and wente after the man of God, and founde him syttinge vnder an Oke tre, and sayde vnto him: Art thou the man of God that came from Iuda? He sayde: Yee.

15 He sayde vnto him: Come home with me, and eate bred.

16 He sayde: I maye not turne backe with the, and come with the. Nether wyll I eate bred, ner drynke water with the in this place:

17 for it is spoken vnto me by the worde of the LORDE: Thou shalt nether eate bred there, ner yet drynke water, nether shalt thou go agayne by the waye which thou wentest.

18 He sayde vnto him: I myselfe am a prophet as well as thou, and an angell hath spoken with me by ye worde of the LORDE, and saide: Bringe him agayne with the, that he maye eate bred, and drynke water. But he lyed vnto him, 19 and broughte him agayne, so that he ate bred, and dranke water in his house.

20 And whan they sat at the table, the worde of the LORDE came to the prophet that had broughte him agayne, 21 and cryed vnto the man which was come fro Iuda, and sayde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Because thou hast bene dishobedient vnto the mouth of ye LORDE, and hast not kepte the commaundement that the LORDE thy God commaunded the,

22 but hast turned backe, and hast eaten bred, and dronke water in ye place, wherof he saide vnto the: Thou shalt nether eate bred ner drynke water, therfore shall not thy body come in to thy fathers graue.

23 And whan he had eaten bred and dronke the asse was saddled vnto the prophet whom he had brought agayne.

24 And wha he was gone, a lyon founde him by the waye, & slewe him, and his body was cast in ye waye. And the asse stode by him, and the lyon stode by the body.

25 And wha men wente by, they sawe the body cast in the waye, and the lyon stonyng besyde the body, and came and tolde it in the cite, where the olde prophet dwelt.

26 Whan the prophet which had broughte him agayne, herde that, he sayde: It is the man of God, that hath bene dishobediet vn the mouth of the LORDE, therfore hath ye LORDE delyuered him vnto the Lyon, which hath rente him, and slayne him, acordynge to the worde that the LORDE spake vnto him.

27 And he sayde vnto his sonnes: Saddell me the asse. And whan they had saddled it, 28 he wente, and founde his body cast in the waie and the asse and the lyon stonyng beside ye body. The lyon had eate nothinge of the body, nether had he torne the asse.

29 Then toke the prophet the deed coarse of the man of God, and layed it vpo the asse, and broughte it agayne in to the cite of the olde prophet, to mourne, and to burye him.

30 And he layed the coarse in his awne graue, and they mourned for him: Alas my brother.

31 And whan they had buried him, he sayde vnto his sonnes: Whan I dye, burye me in the graue where the ma of God is buried, and laye my bones besyde his bones.

32 For it shal come to passe, that he cried (thorow the worde of the LORDE) against Bethel, and agaynst all ye houses of the hie places, which are in the cities of Samaria.

33 Howbeit after this acte dyd not Ieroboa turne from his euell waye, but was peruerted, and made prestes of the hie places, eue of the smallest of the people: Loke whom it pleased him, his handes he fylled, & he was prest of the hie places.

34 And this turned to synne vnto the house of Ieroboa, to destroye him and to brynge him to naughte.

Chapter 14

1 At the same tyme was Abia the sonne of Ieroboam sicke,

2 and Ieroboam saide vnto his wyfe: Get the vp, and disguise the, so that no man perceau that thou art Ieroboams wyfe, and go vnto Silo: beholde, there is the prophet Ahias, which promysed me yt I shulde be kynge ouer this people:

3 and take with the ten loaues of bred and cakes, and a cuppe with hony, & go to him, that he maye tell the how it shal go wt the childe.

4 And Ieroboams wyfe did so, and gat hir vp, and wente vnto Silo, and came in to the house of Ahias. But Ahias coule not se, for his eyes were dymme for age.

5 Neuerthelesse the LORDE sayde vnto Ahias: Beholde, Ieroboams wyfe commeth, to axe a matter at the for hir sonne, for he is sycke. Speake thou therfore vnto her thus & thus Now whan she came in, she shewed hirselfe straunge.

6 But whan Ahias herde the noyse of hir fete goynge in at the dore, he saide: Come in thou wyfe of Ieroboa. Why shewest thou thy selfe so straunge? I am sent vnto ye an harde messaunger.

7 Go thy waye and tell Ieroboam: Thus sayeth ye LORDE God of Israel: I haue exalted the from amonge the people, and set the to be prynce ouer my people of Israel,

8 and haue rente the kyngdome from the house of Daudid, and geuen it the. But thou hast not bene as my seruauent Daudid, which kepte my commaundemetes, and walked after me with all his hert, so that he did onely ye thinge that was righte in my sighte:

9 and thou hast done worse then all they that haue bene before the: thou hast gone thy waye and made the other goddes, and molten ymages, to prouoke me vnto wrath, and hast cast me behynde thy backe.

10 Beholde therfore, I wil brynge mysfortune vpon the house of Ieroboam, and wyl rote out from Ieroboam eue him that maketh water agaynst the wall, the prisoner and forsaken in Israel: and the posterite of ye house of Ieroboam wyll I swepe out, as donge is swepte out, tyll he be cleane broughte to naught.

11 He that dieth (of Ieroboam) in the cite, the dogges shal eate him vp. But him yt dyeth in the felde, shall the foules of the aire eat vp, for the LORDE hath spoken it.

12 Get the vp therfore, and go home, & whan thy fete enter in to ye cite, the childe shal dye.

13 And all Israel shal bewaile him, and burye him. For he onely of Ieroboam shal come to the graue, because there is some good founde in him before the LORDE God of Israel, in Ieroboams house.

14 But the LORDE shall rayse him vp a kynge, which shal rote out ye house of Ieroboam in that daie. And what is it, yt is now in hande all ready?

15 And the LORDE shal smyte Israel, like as a rede is moued in the water: & shal rote out Israel from this good londe, that he gaue vnto their fathers, & shal scatter them beyonde the water, because they haue made their groues to prouoke the LORDE vnto wrath.

16 And Israel shall be geuen ouer because of the synne of Ieroboam, which hath synned him selfe, & made Israel to synne.

17 And Ieroboams wife gat her vp, wente hir waye, & came vnto Thirza. And whan she came vpo the thresholde of the house, ye childe dyed, 18 & they buried him, & all Israel made lamentacion for him, acordinge to ye worde of the LORDE, which he spake by his seruauent Ahia ye prophet.

19 What more there is to saye of Ieroboam, how he foughte & raigned, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel.

20 The tyme that Ieroboam raigned, was two & twentye yeare. And he slepte with his fathers. And Nadab his sonne was kynge in his steade.

21 Roboam ye sonne of Salomon was kynge in Iuda. One and fortye yeare olde was Roboam wha he was made kynge, & seuentene yeare raigned he at Ierusalem, in the cite yt the LORDE had chosen out of all ye trybes of Israel, to set his name there. His mothers name was Naamaan Ammonitisse.

22 And Iuda dyd yt which displeased the LORDE, & prouoked him to indignacion more the all yt their fathers had done wt their synnes which they dyd:

23 for they likewise buylded them hie places, pilers, and groues vpo euery hie hill, and amonge all grene trees.

24 There were whoremogers also, & they dyd all ye abhominacios of ye Heythe, whom ye LORDE droue out before the children of Israel.

25 But in ye fifth yeare of kynge Roboam wete Sisack ye kynge of Egipte vp agaynst Ierusalem, 26 & toke the treasure out of ye house of the LORDE, & out of the kynges house, & all that mighte be gotten, & toke all the shyldes of golde, which Salomon caused to be made.

27 In steade wherof ye kynge Roboam caused for to make shyldes of stele, & commytted them vnder the handes of the chefe fotemen, which kepte the dore of the kynges house.

28 And as oft as the kyng wente in to ye house of the LORDE, the fote men bare them, and brought them agayne in to the fote mens chamber.

29 What more there is to saye of Roboam, and all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda.

30 But betwene Roboam & Ieroboam there was warre as longe as they lyued.

31 And Roboam slepte with his fathers, & was buried wt his fathers in the cite of Daudid. And his mothers name was Naema an Ammonitisse. And his sonne Abia was kyng in his steade.

Chapter 15

1 In the eighteenth yeare of kyng Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, was Abia kyng in Iuda,

2 and reigned thre yeare at Ierusalem. His mothers name was. Maecha, the daughter of Abisalom,

3 and he walked in all the synnes of his father, which he had done before him, and his hert was not perfecte with the LORDE his God, as was the hert of Daudid his father.

4 For because of Dauids sake dyd the LORDE his God geue him a lanterne at Ierusalem, so yt he rayسد his sonne after him, & manteyned him at Ierusalem,

5 because Daudid dyd the thinge yt was righte in ye sighte of the LORDE, and departed not from all that he commaunded him as longe as he lyued (sauynge in the matter with Vrias ye Hethite).

6 But there was warre betwene Roboam and Ieroboam, as longe as he lyued.

7 What more there is to saye of Abia, and all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda. There was warre also betwene Abia and Ieroboam.

8 And Abia slepte with his fathers, and they buried him in the cite of Daudid. And Asa his sonne was kyng in his steade.

9 In ye twentyeth yeare of kyng Ieroboam ouer Israel, was Asa kyng in Iuda, 10 and reigned one & fortye yeare at Ierusalem. His graundmothers name was Maecha the daughter of Abisalom.

11 And Asa dyd that which was righte in the sighte of the LORDE, as dyd his father Daudid.

12 And he remoued ye whoremongers out of the londe, and put downe all the Idols that his fathers had made.

13 He put his mother from the mynistracion, that she had made vnto Miplezeth in ye groue. And Asa roted out hir Miplezeth, and brent it in the broke Cedron:

14 but the hye places put he not downe. Yet was the hert of Asa perfecte with the LORDE as longe as he lyued.

15 And the syluer and golde, and vessels that his father had halowed, & soch as was sanctified vnto ye house of the LORDE, that broughte he in.

16 And there was warre betwene Asa & Baesa the kyng of Israel, as longe as they lyued.

17 Baesa the kyng of Israel wente vp agaynst Iuda, and buylded Rama, that no man shulde go out and in of Asas syde the kyng of Iuda.

18 Then toke Asa all the syluer and golde that was lefte in the treasure of the house of the LORDE, and in the treasure of the kynges house, and delyuered it in to his seruantes handes, & sent it vnto Benadab the sonne of Tabrimon the sonne of Hesion kyng of Siria, which dwelt at Damascon, and let saye vnto him:

19 There is a couenant betwene me and the, and betwene my father and thy father: therfore sende I the a present of syluer and golde, that thou shuldest breake the couenant which thou hast with Baesa the kyng of Israel, that he maye departe fro me.

20 Benadab agreed vnto kyng Asa, and sent his captaynes agaynst the cities of Israel, and smote Iion and Dan, & Abel Beth Maecha, and all Cineroth with the whole londe of Nephtali.

21 Wha Baesa herde that, he left of from buyldinge Rama, and wente agayne vnto Thirza.

22 Kyng Asa caused it be proclaimed in all Iuda: Here be no man excepte. And they toke awaye the stones and tymber from Rama, wherwith Baesa had buylded. And kyng Asa buylded Geba Ben Iamin & Mispa therwith.

23 What more there is to saye of Asa, and of all his power, and all that he dyd, and of ye cities which he buylded, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda: sauynge that in his olde age he was diseased in his fete.

24 And Asa slepte with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the cite of Daudid his father. And Iosaphat his sonne was kyng in his steade.

25 But Nadab the sonne of Ieroboam was kyng ouer Israel in the secode yeare of Asa kyng of Iuda, & raigned ouer Israel two yeare, 26 and dyd euell in the sighte of the LORDE, and walked in the waye of his father, and in his synnes, wherwith he made Israel to synne.

27 Howbeit Baesa the sonne of Ahia of the house of Isachar conspired agaynst him, & smote him at Gibbethon, which was the Philistynes: for Nadab and all Israel layed sege to Gibbethon.

28 So Baesa slewe him in the thirde yeare of Asa kyng of Iuda, & was kyng in his steade.

29 Now whan he was kyng, he smote all the house of Ieroboam, and let nothings of Ieroboam remayne that had breth, tyll he had destroyed it, acordinge to ye worde of the LORDE, which he spake by his seruaut Ahia of Silo,

30 because of Ieroboams synnes which he dyd, & made Israel synne withall: euen with ye prouokynge wherwith he displeased the LORDE God of Israel.

31 What more there is to saye of Nadab, & all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel,

32 and there was warre betwene Asa & Baesa the kyng of Israel, as longe as they lyued.

33 In the thirde yeare of Asa kyng of Iuda was Baesa ye sonne of Ahia kyng ouer all Israel at Thirza foure and twentye yeare, 34 and dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE, and walked in the waye of Ieroboam, and in his synnes, wherwith he made Israel to synne.

Chapter 16

1 Neuertheles the worde of the LORDE came vnto Iehu the sonne of Hanani agaynst Baesa, and sayde:

2 For so moch as I lifted the out of the dust, and made the prynce ouer my people of Israel, and thou walkest in the waye of Ieroboam, and makest my people ouer Israel for to synne, to prouoke me vnto wrath thorow their synnes,

3 beholde, therfore wyll I take awaye the posterite of Beasa, and the posterite of his house, and wyll set thine house euen as the house of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat.

4 He that of Baesa dyeth in the cite, the dogges shal deuoure him: and who so beyng of him dyeth in the felde, the foules of the ayre shall eate him vp.

5 What more there is to saye of Baesa, & what he dyd, & of his power, beholde, it is wrytten in ye Cronicles of the kynges of Israel.

6 And Baesa slepte with his fathers, & was buried at Thirza: & his sonne Ella was kyng in his steade.

7 And the worde of ye LORDE came by the prophet Iehu the sonne of Hanani, ouer Baesa, and ouer his house, and agaynst all the euell that he dyd in the sighte of ye LORDE, to prouoke him vnto wrath thorow the workes of his handes: so that he became as the house of Ieroboam, and because he slewe this man.

8 In the sixe & twentieth yeare of Asa kyng of Iuda, was Ella the sonne of Baesa kyng ouer Israel at Thirza two yeare.

9 Neuertheles his seruaut Simri, ye principall man ouer the halfe of ye charettes cospyred against him. As for Ella, he was at Thirza, dranke & was dronke in ye house of Arza the ruler of Thirza.

10 And Simri came in, and slewe him in the seuen & twentieth yeare of Asa kyng of Iuda, and was kyng in his steade.

11 And whan he was kyng, and sat vpon his seate, he smote all the house of Baesa, & lefte not so moch as one to make water agaynst ye wall: his bloud auengers also & his frendes.

12 Thus dyd Simri destroye all the house of Baesa, acordinge to the worde of the LORDE, which he spake ouer Baesa by the prophet Iehu,

13 because of all the synnes of Baesa and of Ella his sonne, which they dyd, and made Israel for to synne, to prouoke the LORDE God of Israel vnto wrath thorow their vanities.

14 What more there is to saye of Ella, and all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel.

15 In the seuen and twentieth yeare of Asa kyng of Iuda, was Simri kyng vij. dayes at Thirza, and the people laye before Gibbethon of the Philistynes.

16 But whan the people in the hoost herde saye yt Simri had conspired and slayne the kyng, then all Israel the same daye made Amri the chefe captayne kyng ouer all in the hoost.

17 And Amri wente vp and all Israel with him from Gibbethon, and layed sege vnto Thirza.

18 But whan Simri sawe yt the cite shulde be wonne, he wente in to the palace in the kynges house, & brent it with ye kynges house, & dyed

19 because of his synnes which he had committed, in that he dyd euell in the sighte of the LORDE, and walked in the waye of Ieroboam, and in his synnes which he dyd, wherwith he made Israel to synne.

20 What more there is to saye of Simri, and how he conspired, beholde, it is wrytten in ye Cronicles of the kynges of Israel.

21 At the same tyme were ye people deuyded in two partes: the one parte helde with Thibni the sonne of Ginath, that they might make him kyng: the other halfe helde with Amri.

22 But the people that helde with Amri, were mightier then the people which helde with Thibni ye sonne of Ginath. And Thibni dyed, and Amri was kyng.

23 In ye one and thirtieth yeare of Asa kyng of Iuda, was Amri kyng ouer Israel twolue yeares, & raigned at Thirza sixe yeares.

24 He boughte the mount of Samaria of Semei for two hundred weight of syluer, & buylded vpon the mount, and called the cite which he buylded, after ye name of Semei ye owner of ye mount of Samaria.

25 And Amri dyd that which was euell in ye sighte of the LORDE, and was worse then all they that were before him, 26 and walked in all ye wayes of Ieroboam ye sonne of Nebat, and in his synnes, wherwith he made Israel to synne, so that they prouoked the LORDE God of Israel vnto wrath in their vanities.

27 What more there is to saye of Amri, & all that he dyd, and his power that he exercysed, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel.

28 And Amri slepte with his fathers, & was buried in Samaria, and Achab his sonne was kyng in his steade.

29 In the eight & thirtieth yeare of Asa kyng of Iuda, was Achab the sonne of Amri kyng ouer Israel, & raigned ouer Israel at Samaria two & twentie yeare,

30 & dyd euell in the sighte of the

LORDE, more the all they yt were before him.

31 And he thoughte it but a small matter to walke in the synnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat: and toke Iesabel the daughter of Eth Baal kynge of Sidon to wife, and wente and serued Baal, and worshiped him.

32 And vnto Baal he set vp an altare in Baals house, which he buylded him in Samaria, 33 and made a groue: so that Achab dyd more to prouoke the God of Israel vnto wrath, then all the kynges yt were before him in Israel.

34 At ye same tyme dyd Hiel of Bethel buylde Iericho: It cost him his first sonne Abiram, yt he layed ye foundation: & his yongest sonne Segub, yt he set vp the portes: Acordinge to the worde of the LORDE, which he spake by Iosua the sonne of Nun.

Chapter 17

1 And Elias ye The?bite one of the inhabitants of Gilead, saide vnto Achab: As truly as the LORDE God of Israel lyueth, whose seruauent I am, there shal nether rayne ner dew come this yeare, excepte I speake it.

2 And the worde of the LORDE came vnto him, and sayde:

3 Get the hence, and turne the towarde the east, and hyde the by the ryuer Crith, which is ouer agaynst Iordane,

4 and thou shalt drynke of the ryuer: and I haue commaunded the rauens, that they shal fede the there.

5 He departed, and dyd acordinge to the worde of the LORDE, and wente his waye, and sat him downe by the ryuer Crith, which is ouer agaynst Iordane.

6 And the raues broughte him bred and flesh in the mornynge and in the euenynge, and he dranke of the ryuer.

7 And it fortunated after cerayne dayes, that the riuer was dryed: vp for there was no rayne in the lode.

8 Then came ye worde of ye LORDE vnto him, and sayde:

9 Get ye vp, and go vnto Sarepta, which lieth by Sido: for there haue I commaunded a wedowe to make prouyson for the.

10 And he gat him vp, and wente vnto Sarepta. And whan he came to the gate of ye cite, beholde, the wedowe was there, and gathered stickes. And he called her, and sayde: Fetch me a litle water in a vessell, yt I maye drinke.

11 And as she was goinge to fetch it, he cried vnto her, & sayde: Brynge me a morsell of bred also in thine hande.

12 She sayde: As truly as the LORDE yi God lyueth, I haue no bred, but an handfull of floure in a pitcher, & a curtesy oyle in a cruse: and beholde, I haue gathered vp one or two stickes, & wyll go and prepare it for me and my sonne, that we maye eate and dye.

13 Elias sayde vnto her: Feare not, go thy waye, & do as thou hast sayde: yet make me first a morsell of bred therof, & brynge it me forth: & afterwarde shalt thou make it for ye & thy sonne.

14 For thus sayeth ye LORDE God of Israel: The meell in the pitcher shall not be spent, & the oyle in ye cruse shall not fayll, vnto the daye yt the LORDE shal cause it for to rayne vpo earth.

15 She wente & dyd as Elias sayde. And he ate, & she also, and hir house a certayne season.

16 The meel in the pitcher was not mynished, and the oyle in the cruse fayled not, acordinge to the worde of ye LORDE which he spake by Elias.

17 And after these actes the sonne of the wife of ye house was sicke: and his sicknes was so exceedinge sore, that there remayned no breth in him.

18 And she sayde vnto Elias: What haue I to do with the, thou man of God? Art thou come in vnto me, yt my synne shulde be kepte in remembraunce, & that my sonne shulde be slayne?

19 He sayde vnto her: Geue me thy sonne. And he toke him fro hir lappe, & caried him vp in to ye chamber where he himselfe dwelt, and layed him vpo his bed, 20 & called vpon the LORDE, and sayde: O LORDE my God, hast thou dealt so euell wt the wedow with whom I dwell, yt thou woldest slaye hir sonne?

21 And he stretched out him selfe ouer the childe thre tymes, & called vpon the LORDE, and saide: O LORDE my God, let the soule of this childe come agayne in to him.

22 And the LORDE herde the voyce of Elias. And the soule of the childe came agayne vnto him, & he reuyued.

23 And Elias toke the childe, and broughte him downe from the chamber in to the house and delyuered him vnto his mother, and sayde: Beholde, thy sonne lyueth.

24 And the woman sayde vnto Elias: Now knowe I, that thou art a man of God, & that the worde of the LORDE is in thy mouth of a trueth.

Chapter 18

1 And after a longe season came ye worde of the LORDE vnto Elias in the thirde yeare, & sayde: Go thy waye, & shewe yi selfe vnto Achab, yt I maye cause it for to rayne vpon earth.

2 And Elias wente to shewe him selfe vnto Achab. But there was a greate derth i Samaria.

3 And Achab called Abdia his chefe officer: (As for Abdia, he feared ye LORDE greatly:

4 for wha Iesabel roted out ye prophetes of ye LORDE, Abdia toke an C. prophetes, and hyd them in caues, here fiftye, & there fiftye, & prouyded for them wt bred and water.)

5 Achab now sayde vnto Abdia: Go thorow the londe vnto all the welles of water & ryuers, yf happlye we maye finde hay, & to saue ye horses & mules, yt all the catell perishe not.

6 And they parted the selues into the londe, to go thorow it. Achab departed the one waye alone, and Abdia ye other waye alone.

7 Now whan Abdia was on ye waye, Elias met him. And whan he knewe him, he fell downe vpon his face, & sayde: Art not thou my lorde Elias?

8 He sayde: yee, go thy waye, and tell yi lorde: beholde, Elias is here.

9 But he sayde: What haue I offended, that thou wilt delyuer thy seruauent in to the handes of Achab, that he maye slaye me?

10 As truly as the LORDE thy God lyueth, there is no people ner kingdome, but my lorde hath sent thither to seke the. And whan they sayde: He is not here, he toke an ooth of the same kyngdome and nacion, that they had not founde the.

11 And now thou sayest: Go tell yi LORDE: beholde, Elias is here.

12 Now whan I were gone from the, the sprete of the LORDE shulde take ye awaye, I can not tell whither: and yf I then came and tolde Achab, and founde the not, he shulde slaye me: But thy seruauent feareth the LORDE from his youth vp.

13 Hath it not bene tolde my lorde what I dyd, whan Iesabel slewe the prophetes of the LORDE, how that I hyd an hundreth of the LORDES prophetes, here fiftye, and there fiftye in the caues, and prouyded for them with bred and water?

14 And thou sayest now: Go thy waye, tell thy lorde: Elias is here, that he maye slaye me.

15 Elias saide: As truly as ye LORDE Zebaoth lyueth, before whom I stode, I wil shewe my selfe vnto him this daye.

16 Then wete Abdia to mete Achab, & tolde him. And Achab wete for to mete Elias.

17 And whan Achab sawe Elias, Achab sayde vnto him: Art thou he that troublest Israel?

18 He sayde: I trouble not Israel, but it is thou and thy fathers house, because ye haue forsaken the commaundementes of the LORDE, and walke after Baal.

19 Go to, sende forth now, and gather me all Israel together vnto mount Carmell, and the foure hundreth and fiftye prophetes of Baal, and the foure hundreth prophetes of ye groue, which eate of Iesabels table.

20 So Achab sent vnto all the children of Israel, & gathered the prophetes together vnto mount Carmell.

21 Then stepte Elias vnto all the people, & sayde: How longe halte ye on both ye sydes? Yf the LORDE be God, the walke after him: but yf Baal be he, the folowe him. And the people gaue him no answere.

22 The sayde Elias vnto the people: I onely am lefte a prophet of ye LORDE: but Baals prophetes are foure C. and fiftie me.

fyre theron: so wil I take ye other bullock, & laye him vpo the wod, & put no fyre theron also:

24 call ye then vpo the name of yor god, & I wil call vpo the name of the LORDE: loke which God now answereth with fyre, let the same be God. And all the people answered & sayde: That is righte.

25 And Elias sayde vnto Baals prophetes: Chose ye one bullock, and do ye it first (for ye are many) and call ye vpon the name of youre god, & laye no fyre theron.

26 And they toke the bullock which he gaue them, & prepared it, & called vpon the name of Baal from the mornynge vntyll the noone daye, and sayde: O Baal heare vs. But there was nether voyce ner answere. And they hopped aboute the altare, as their vse was to do.

27 Now whan it was noone daye, Elias mocked them, and sayde: Crye loude. For he is a god, peradueture he is musynge, or hath somewhat to do, or is gone some iourneye, or happlye he slepeth, so that he wolde be waked vp.

28 And they cried loude, and prouoked the selues with knyues & botkens, (as their maner was) tyll ye bloude folowed.

29 But whan ye noone daye was past, they prophecied vntyll the tyme that the meatofferynge shulde be offered, & there was nether voyce ner answere, ner one to regarde them.

30 Then sayde Elias vnto all the people: Come hither all ye people vnto me. And whan all ye people came to him, he repayred ye altare of the LORDE yt was broken,

31 & toke twolue stones acordinge to the nombre of ye trybes of the childe of Iacob (vnto whom the worde of the LORDE spake, and sayde: Thy name shal be Israel)

32 and of ye stones he buylded an altare in the name of the LORDE, & made a pytt rounde aboute the altare, like two forowes in the corne londe,

33 & prepared the wod, & hewed ye bullock in peces, and layed him vpon the wod, & sayde: Fetch foure pitchers full of water, and poured it vpo the burntofferynge, and vpon the wod.

34 And he sayde: Do it yet once. And they dyd it once agayne. And he sayde: Do it ye thirde tyme. And they dyd it the thirde tyme.

35 And ye water ranne aboute the altare, and ye pytt was full of water also.

36 And whan the tyme was to offer ye meatofferynge, Elias stepte forth, and sayde: O LORDE God of Abraham, of Isaac and of Israel, let it be knowne this daye, that thou art God in Israel, and I thy seruauent, and that I haue done all this acordinge vnto yi worde.

37 Heare me O LORDE, O heare me, yt this people maye knowe, how that thou art the LORDE God, that thou mayest afterwarde turne their hertes.

38 Then fell downe the fyre of the LORDE, and consumed the burntofferynge, the wodd, the stones and the earth, and licked vp the water that was in the pytt.

39 Whan all the people sawe that, they fell vpon their faces, and sayde: The LORDE is God, ye LORDE is God.

40 Elias sayde vnto them: Laye handes vpon Baals prophetes, yt none of them escape. And they toke them. And Elias broughte them downe vnto ye broke Cyson, & slewe the there.

41 And Elias sayde vnto Achab: Go vp, eate & drynke, for it soundeth as though it wolde rayne sore.

42 And whan Achab wete vp to eate & drinke. Elias ascended vp to the toppe of Carmel, & bowed him selfe downe to the earth, & put his heade betwene his knees, 43 & sayde vnto his lad: Go vp, and loke towarde the See. He wente vp & loked, & sayde: There is nothinge. He sayde: Go agayne seuen tymes.

44 And at the seuth tyme he sayde: Beholde, there goeth vp a litle cloude out of the see, like a mans hande. He sayde: Go vp, and saie vnto Achab: Bynde yi charet, & go downe, yt the rayne ouertake the not.

45 And or a ma coulde turne him, the heauen was blacke wt cloudes & wynde, & there came a greate rayne. But Achab rode his waie, & departed vnto Iesrael.

46 And the hade of ye LORDE came vpo Elias, and he gyrde his loynes, & ranne before Achab, tyll he came vnto Iesrael.

Chapter 19

1 And Achab tolde Iesabel all yt Elias had done, & how he had slayne all Baals prophetes wt the swerde.

2 The sent Iesabel a messaunger vnto Elias, sayenge: The goddes do this & that vnto me, yf I tomorow aboute this tyme, make not thy soule as one of these.

3 Then was he afrayed, & gat him vp, & wente where he wolde, & came vnto Berseba in Iuda, and lefte his lad there.

4 But he him selfe wente a daies journey in to ye wyldernes, & came in, & sat him downe vnder a Iuniper tre, & wyshed vnto his soule yt he mighte dye, & sayde: It is now ynough LORDE, take my soule, for I am no better then my fathers.

5 And he layed him downe & slepte vnder the Iuniper tre. And beholde, ye angell touched him, & sayde vnto him: Stonde vp, and eate.

6 And he loked aboute him, & beholde, at his heade there was a bred baken on the coles, & a cruse wt water. And whan he had eaten and dronke, he layed him downe agayne to slepe.

7 And ye angell of the LORDE, came agayne the seconde tyme, & touched him, & sayde: Stonde vp, and eate, for thou hast a greate waye to go.

8 And he arose, and ate and drake, and wente on thorow the strength of that meate fortye dayes and fortye nightes, eue vnto Horeb ye mount of God:

9 and there he came to a caue, and abode there all nighte. And beholde the worde of the LORDE came to him, and sayde vnto him: What doest thou here Elias?

10 He sayde: I haue bene zelous for the LORDE God Zebaoth: for the children of Israel haue forsaken thy couenaunt, and broken downe thine altares, and slayne thy prophetes with the swerde, and I am lefte onely, & they seke to take awaye my life.

11 He sayde: Go forth, and stonde vpon the mount before the LORDE. And beholde, the LORDE wete ouer: and a greate mightie wynde, which roue the mountaynes, and brake the harde stones, came before the LORDE, but the LORDE was not in the wynde. After the wynde came there an earthquake, but the LORDE was not in the earthquake.

12 And after the earth quake there came a fyre, but the LORDE was not in the fyre. And after the fyre came there a styll softe hyssinge.

13 Whan Elias herde that, he couered his face with his cloke, and wente forth, and stode in the dore of the caue. And beholde, there came a voyce vnto him, and sayde: What hast thou here to do Elias?

14 He sayde: I haue bene zelous for the LORDE God Zebaoth: for the children of Israel haue forsake thy couenaunt, broken downe thine altares, slayne yi prophetes wt the swerde, & I onely am lefte, and they seke to take awaye my life.

15 But the LORDE sayde vnto him: Go yi waye agayne thorow the wyldernes vnto Damascon, & go in, & anoynte Hasael kynge ouer Siria, 16 & Iehu the sonne of Nimsi kynge ouer Israel, & Eliseus ye sonne of Saphat of Abel Mehola to be prophet in yi steade.

17 And it shal come to passe, yt, who so escapeth the swerde of Hasael, Iehu shall slaye him, & who so escapeth ye swerde of Iehu, Eliseus shal slaye him.

18 And I wil reserue vnto me vij.M. men in Israel: namely, all ye knees which haue not bowed the selues vnto Baal, and euery mouth yt hath not kyssed him.

19 And he departed thence, & founde Elizeus ye sonne of Saphat, plowinge wt twolue yocke of oxen before him, & he him selfe was amoge the twolue. And Elias wete vnto him, & cast his cloke vpon him.

20 And he lefte the oxen, & ranne after Elias, & sayde: Let me kysse my father & my mother, and so wil I folowe the. And he sayde vnto him: Go thy waye, & come agayne, for I haue some what to do with the.

21 And he ranne agayne from him, and toke a yock of oxen, and offred it, and sod ye flesh with the wod of the oxen plowes, and gaue it vnto the people to eate, and gat him vp, & folowed Elias, and mynistred vnto him.

Chapter 20

1 And Benadab ye kynge of Siria gathered all his power, & there were two & thirtie kynges wt him, & horses & charettes, and he wente vp, and layed sege vnto Samaria, & foughte agaynst it.

2 And he sent messaungers vnto Achab ye kynge of Israel in to ye cite, & caused to saye vnto him: Thus sayeth Benadab:

3 Thy syluer & thy golde is myne, and thy wyues & thy best children are myne also.

4 The kynge of Israel answered, & sayde: My lorde O kynge, euen as thou hast sayde, I am thine, and all that I haue.

5 And the messaungers came agayne, & sayde: Thus sayeth Benadab: For somoch as I haue sent vnto the, sayenge: Thy syluer & thy golde, thy wyues & thy childe

6 shalt thou geue me, tomorow aboute this tyme wil I sende my seruantes vnto the, yt they maye serch thyne house and the houses of thy subiectes: & loke what pleasaunt thinge thou hast, yt shal they take in their handes, and cary it awaye.

7 So the kynge of Israel called all ye Elders of the lode, & sayde: Mark well & se, what myschefe this ma seketh: He sent vnto me for my wyues & children for syluer & golde, & I haue not sayde him naye.

8 Then sayde all the Elders and all the people vnto him: Thou shalt not cosente ner agree vnto him.

9 And he spake vnto Benadabs messaungers, Saye vnto my lorde ye kynge: All ye thynges wherfore thou dyddest sende vnto me yi seruauant at ye first, wil I do, but this can I not do. And ye messaungers wete, and tolde this agayne.

10 The sent Benadab vnto him sayege: The goddes do this and yt vnto me, yf the dust of Samaria shalbe ynough, for euery one of my people to brynge me an handfull therof.

11 But ye kynge of Israel answered, & sayde: Tell him, Let not him yt putteth on ye harnes, make his boast like him yt hath put it of 12 Wha Benadab herde yt (eue as he was drynkinge wt the kynges in ye paulyon) he sayde vnto his seruantes: Set yor selues in araye. And they set the selues in araye against ye cite.

13 And beholde, there came a prophet vnto Achab ye kynge of Israel, & saide: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Hast thou sene all this greate multitude? Beholde, this daie wil I delyuer the in to yi hande, so yt thou shalt knowe, how yt I am ye LORDE.

14 Achab sayde: By whom? He sayde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Euen by the yonge men of the rulers of the londe. He sayde: Who shal order the battayl? He sayde: Thou.

15 Then mustered he the yonge men of the rulers of the londe, & there were two hudreth and two and thirtie of them: & after the mustered he of the whole people of all the childe of Israel, seue thousande men,

16 and they wente out in the noone daye. As for Benadab, he dranke and was dronken in the paulyon with the two & thirtie kynges which were come to helpe him.

17 And the yonge men of the rulers of the londe wente forth first. Benadab sent forth, & they brought him worde, & sayde: There come men out of Samaria.

18 He sayde: Take them alyue, whether they be come forth for peace, or for warre.

19 But whan the londe rulers yonge men were gone forth, and the hoost behynde them, euery one smote him yt came in his waye.

20 And the Sirians fled, and Israel folowed after them. And Benadab the kynge of Syria escaped with horses and horsme.

21 And the kynge of Israel wente forth, and smote horses and charettes, and dyd a greate slaughter on the Syrians.

22 Then came there a prophet vnto the kynge of Israel, and sayde vnto him: Go thy waye and strength the, and take hede, and loke well what thou doest: for whan the yeare is aboute, the kynge of Syria shall come agaynst the of the new.

23 For the kynge of ye Syrians seruantes sayde vnto him: Their goddes are goddes of the mountaynes, therefore haue they gotten the victory. But let vs fyghte with them on the playne, and thou shalt se that we shal ouercome them.

24 Do thus, put awaye the kynges euery one from his place, and set dukes in their steades, 25 and appoynte the an hoost as was that which thou hast lost, & horses & charettes as the other were, and let vs fight agaynst the in the plaine, and thou shalt se that we shal haue the victory. He cosented vnto their voyce, and dyd so.

26 Now whan the yeare was gone aboute, Benadab appoynted the Sirians, and wente vp towarde Aphek, to fighte agaynst Israel, 27 and the childe of Israel mustured, and prouyded them selues with vytailes, and wete to mete them, and pitched their tetes ouer against them, like two litle flockes of goates but the londe was full of the Syrians.

28 And there came a man of God, and sayde vnto the kynge of Israel: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Because the Syrians haue sayde, that the LORDE is a God of the moutaynes and not a God of the valleys, therefore haue I geuen all this greate heape in to thy handes, that ye maye knowe how that I am ye LORDE.

29 And they pitched their tentes right ouer agaynst them seuen dayes. But vpon ye seuenth daye they wente together in to the battayll: and the children of Israel smote of the Sirians an hundreth thousande fote men in one daye, 30 and the remnaunt fled to Aphek in to the cite, and the wall fell vpon the other seuen and twenty thousande men. And Benadab fled also vnto the cite in to a litle chamber.

31 Then sayde his seruantes vnto him: Beholde, we haue herde that the kynges of the house of Israel are mercifull kinges, Let vs therefore put sack cloth aboute oure loynes, and halters aboute oure neckes, & go forth to the kynge of Israel, peraduenture he shal let yi soule lyue.

32 And they put sack cloth aboute their loynes, and halters aboute their neckes, and came to the kyng of Israel, and sayde: Benadab thy seruauant sayeth vnto the: O let my soule lyue. He sayde: yf he be yet alyue, he is my brother.

33 And the men toke him shortly at his worde, and expounded it for them selues and sayde: Yee Benadab is thy brother. He sayde: Come and brynge him. The wente Benadab forth vnto him, and he caused him to syt vpon the charet, 34 and sayde vnto him: The cities that my father toke from thy father, wyl I geue the agayne. And make thou stretes for thyselfe at Damasco, as my father did at Samaria, so wyl I let the go with a bonde of peace. And he made a couenant with him, and let him go.

35 Then spake there a man amonge the children of the prophetes vnto his neyghboure by the worde of the LORDE: I praye the smite me. But he refused to smite him.

36 Then saide he vnto him, because thou hast not herkened vnto the voyce of the LORDE, beholde, therfore shall there a lyon smyte the, whan thou goest fro me. And whan he wente fro him, a lyon founde him, and slewe him.

37 And he founde another man, and sayde: I praye the smyte me. And the man smote him, and wounded him, 38 Then wente the prophet, and stepte vnto the kyng by the waye syde, and altered his face with a?shes.

39 And whan the kyng wente by, he cried vpon ye kyng, and sayde: Thy seruauant wente forth in to the battayll, and beholde, there wente one asyde, and broughte a man vnto me, and sayde: Kepe this ma: yf he be myssed, thy soule shall be in steade of his soule, or els thou shalt weye downe an hundreth weighte of syluer.

40 And whyle thy seruauant had here & there to do, he was awaye. The kyng of Israel sayde vnto him: It is thine owne iudgment, thou hast geuen it thyselfe.

41 Then put he the a?shes from his face in all the haist. And the kyng of Israel knewe him, that he was one of the prophetes.

42 And he sayde vnto him: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Because thou hast let the damned man go, therfore shall thy soule be for his soule, and thy people for his people.

43 And the kyng of Israel departed vnto his house, beinge troubled in his mynde and full indignacion, and came to Samaria.

Chapter 21

1 After these actes it fortunod, that Naboth the Iesraelite had a vynyarde at Iesreel besyde the palace of Achab kyng of Samaria.

2 And Achab spake to Naboth, and sayde: Geue me thy vynyarde, I wyl make me an herbgarden therof, because it is so nye my house: I wyl geue the a better vynyarde for it: or yf it please the, I wyl geue the syluer for it, as moch as it is worth.

3 But Naboth sayde vnto Achab: The LORDE let that be farre fro me, that I shulde geue ye my fathers heretage.

4 Then came Achab home, beinge moued and full of indignacion, because of the worde that Naboth the Iesraelite had spoken vnto him, & sayde: I wyl not geue the my fathers inheritaunce. And he laied him downe vpon his bed, and turned his face asyde, and ate no bred.

5 Then Iesabel his wyfe came in to him and sayde vnto him: What is ye matter, that thy sprete is so cobred, and that thou eatest no bred?

6 He sayde vnto her: I haue spoke vnto Naboth the Iesraelite, and sayde: Geue me thy vynyarde for money: or yf it please ye, I wyl geue the another for it. But he sayde: I wyl not geue the my vynyarde.

7 Then sayde Iesabel his wyfe vnto him: What kingdom were in Israel, yf thou diddest it? Stonde vp, and eate bred, I wyl get the the vynyarde of Naboth the Iesraelite.

8 And she wrote a letter vnder Achabs name, and sealed it with his signet, and sent it vnto ye Elders and rulers in his cite, which dwelt aboute Naboth, 9 and wrote thus in ye letter: Proclame a fast, and set Naboth aboue in the people, 10 and set two men of Belial before him, to testifie and saye: Thou hast blasphemed God and the kyng. And brynge him forth, and stone him to death.

11 And the Elders and rulers of his cyte, which dwelt in his cite, dyd as Iesabel had commaunded them, acordynge as she had wrytten in the letter that she sent vnto them

12 and they proclaimed a fast, and caused Naboth to syt aboue amonge the people.

13 Then came the two men of Belial, and stode before him, and testified agaynst Naboth in ye presence of the people, and sayde: Naboth hath blasphemed God and the kyng. Then broughte they him out of the cite, and stoned him to death.

14 And they sent Iesabel worde, sayenge: Naboth is stoned & put to death.

15 Wha Iesabel herde that Naboth was stoned and deed, she sayde vnto Achab: Vp, and take possession of the vynyarde of Naboth the Iesraelite, which he denyed to geue the for money: for Naboth lyueth nomore but is deed.

16 And whan Achab herde yt Naboth was deed, he rose to go downe vnto the vynyarde of Naboth the Iesraelite, and to take possession of it.

17 But the worde of the LORDE came to Elias the The?bite, and sayde:

18 Get the vp, and go downe to mete Achab the kyng of Israel, which is at Samaria: beholde, he is in Naboths vynyarde, in to the which he is gone downe to take possession of it,

19 and talke thou with him, and speake: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Thou hast slayne, and taken in possession. And thou shalt talke morouer vnto him, and saye:

Thus sayeth the LORDE: Euen in the place where the dogges licked vp Naboths bloude, shall the dogges lick the thy bloude also.

20 And Achab sayde vnto Elias: Hast thou euer founde me thine enemye? He saide: Yee, I haue founde the, because thou art euen solde to do euell in the sighte of the LORDE.

21 Beholde, I wyl brynge mysfortune vpon the, and take awaye thy posterite, and wil rote out from Achab, euen him that maketh water agaynst the wall, and him that is shut vp and lefte behynde in Israel:

22 and thy house wyl I make as the house of Ieroboam ye sonne of Nebat, and as the house of Baesa the sonne of Ahia, because of ye prouocacion wherwhith thou hast prouoked me vnto wrath, and made Israel to synne.

23 And ouer Iesabel spake the LORDE also and sayde: The dogges shal deuoure Iesabel in ye felde of Iesrael.

24 Who so of Achab dyeth in ye cite, him shal the dogges eate vp: and who so dyeth in the felde, the foules vnder the heauen shall eate him vp.

25 So cleane solde to do myschefe in ye sighte of the LORDE hath no man bene, as Achab: for his Iesabel hath so disceaueu him, 26 and he maketh him selfe a greate abhominacion, that he goeth after Idols, acordige vnto all as dyd the Amorites, whom the LORDE expelled before the children of Israel.

27 But whan Achab herde these wordes, he rete his clothes, & put a sack cloth on his body, & fasted, and slepte in sack cloth, and wente aboute hanginge downe his heade.

28 And the worde of the LORDE came to Elias the The?bite, & sayde:

29 Hast thou not sene how Achab humbleth him selfe before me? For so moch now as he humbleth him selfe in my sighte, I wil not brynge that plage whyle he lyueth: but by his sonnes life wil I brynge mysfortune vpon his house.

Chapter 22

1 And there passed ouer thre yeares, that there was no warre betwene the Sirians & Israel.

2 But in the thirde yeare wente Iosaphat the kyng of Iuda downe to the kyng of Israel.

3 And the kyng of Israel sayde vnto his seruantes: Knowe ye not yt Ramoth in Gilead is oures? and we syt styll, and take it not out of the hande of the kyng of Syria.

4 And he sayde vnto Iosaphat: Wilt thou go with me to the battaill vnto Ramoth in Gilead? Iosaphat sayde vnto the kyng of Israel: I wyl be as thou my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses.

5 And Iosaphat sayde vnto ye kyng of Israel: Axe this daye at the worde of the LORDE.

6 Then the kyng of Israel gathered the prophetes aboute a foure hundreth men, and sayde vnto them: Shal I go vnto Ramoth in Gilead to fighte, or shal I let it alone? They sayde: Go vp, ye LORDE shal delyuer it in to ye kinges hande.

7 But Iosaphat sayde: Is there not one prophet here more of ye LORDE, that we maye axe at him?

8 The kyng of Israel saide vnto Iosaphat Here is yet a man, one Micheas the sonne of Iemla, at whom we maye axe of the LORDE: but I hate him, for he propheciethe me no good, but euell. Iosaphat sayde: Let not the kyng saye so.

9 Then called the kyng of Israel a chamberlayne, and sayde: Brynge hither soone Micheas the sonne of Iemla.

10 As for the kyng of Israel and Iosaphat ye kyng of Iuda, they sat ether of them vpon his seate, arayed in their garmentes in the place at ye dore of the porte of Samaria, and all ye prophetes prophecied before the.

11 And Sedechias the sonne of Cnaena had made him hornes of yron, and sayde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: With these shalt thou pu?she at ye Syrians, tyll thou brynge them to naughte

12 And all the prophetes prophecied likewise, and sayde: Go vp vnto Ramoth in Gilead, thou shalt prospere right well, & the LORDE shal delyuer it in to the kynges hande.

13 And the messaunger that wente to call Micheas sayde vnto him: Beholde, The wordes of ye prophetes are with one acorde good before the kyng, let thy worde therfore be as their worde, and speake thou good also.

14 Micheas sayde: As truly as the LORDE liueth, loke what the LORDE sayeth vnto me, yt wyl I speake.

15 And whan he came to the kyng, the kyng sayde vnto him: Micheas, shal we go vnto Ramoth in Gilead to fight or shall we let it alone? He sayde vnto him: Yee, go vp, thou shalt prospere righte well, the LORDE shall geue it in to the kynges hande.

16 But the kyng sayde vnto him agayne: I charge ye that thou saye no other thinge vnto me but the trueth, in the name of ye LORDE.

17 He sayde: I sawe all Israel scatted brode vpon the mountaynes, as the shepe that haue no shepherde. And the LORDE saide: Haue these no lorde? Let euery one turne home agayne in peace.

18 Then sayde ye kyng of Israel vnto Iosaphat: Tolde not I ye that he wolde prophecye me no good, but euell?

19 He sayde: Heare now therfore the worde of the LORDE: I sawe the LORDE syt vpon his seate, and all the hoost of heauen stodinge by him at his righte hande & at his lefte.

20 And the LORDE saide: Who wil disceaue Achab to go vp, & fall at Ramoth in Gilead. And one sayde this, another that.

21 Then wete there forth a sprete, & stode before the LORDE, and sayde: I wyl disceaue him.

22 The LORDE sayde vnto him:

Wherwith? He sayde vnto him: I wyll go forth, and be a false sprete in the mouth of all his prophetes. He saide: Thou shalt disceau him, and shalt be able: go forth and do so.

23 Beholde now, the LORDE hath geue a false sprete in ye mouth of all these yi prophetes, and the LORDE hath spoken euell ouer the.

24 Then stepte forth Sedechias the sonne of Cnaena, and smote Micheas vpon the cheke, and sayde: What, is the sprete of the LORDE departed fro me, to speake with the?

25 Micheas sayde: Beholde, thou shalt se it in yt daye, whan thou shalt go fro one chamber to another to hyde the.

26 The kynge of Israel sayde: Take Micheas, and let him remayne with Amon the ruler of the cite, and with Ioas the kynges sonne, 27 and saye: Thus sayeth the kynge: Put this man in preson, and fede him with bred and water of trouble, tyll I come agayne in peace.

28 Micheas sayde: Yf thou comest agayne in peace, then hath not the LORDE spoken thorow me. And he sayde: herken to all ye people.

29 So the kynge of Israel and Iosaphat ye kynge of Iuda wente vp vnto Ramoth in Gilead.

30 And the kynge of Israel sayde vnto Iosaphat: Change thy clothes, and come in to ye battayll in thine araaie. The kynge of Israel changed his clothes also, and wete in to the battayll.

31 But the kynge of Siria commaunded the rulers of his charettes (of whom there were two and thirtie) and saide: Ye shal fight nether agaynst small ner greate, but onely agaynst the kynge of Israel.

32 And whan the rulers of the charettes sawe Iosaphat, they thought it had bene the kynge of Israel, and fell vpon him with fightinge. But Iosaphat cried.

33 So whan the rulers of the charettes sawe that it was not ye kynge of Israel, they turned back fro him.

34 A certayne man bended his bowe harde, and shott the kynge of Israel betwene the mawe and ye longes. And he sayde vnto his charetman: Turne thine hade, and cary me out of the hoost, for I am wounded.

35 And ye battayll was sore the same daie. And the kynge stode vpo his charet, agaynst the Syrias and dyed in the eueninge, and the bloude ranne from the wounde in to the myddes of the charet.

36 And whan the Sonne wente downe there was a proclamacion made in the hoost, and sayde: Euery one gett him in to his cite, and to his countre.

37 Thus the kynge dyed, and was broughte vnto Samaria, and they buried him in Samaria.

38 And whan they wa?shed the charett in the pole of Samaria, ye dogges licked his bloude (but the harlottes wa?shed him) accordinge to the worde of ye LORDE which he spake.

39 What more there is to saye of Achab, & all yt he dyd, and of the Yuery house which he buylded, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel.

40 So Achab slepte with his fathers, and his sonne Ahasia was kynge in his steade.

41 And Iosaphat the sonne of Asa was kynge ouer Iuda in the fourth yeare of Achab kynge of Israel,

42 and was fyue and thirtie yeare olde whan he was made kynge and raigned fyue and twentye yeare at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Asuba ye doughter of Silhi,

43 and he walked in all the waye of his father Asa, & departed not there from And he dyd that which was right in ye sighte of the LORDE, yet put he not awaye ye hie places, and ye people offred and brent incese yet vpon the hye places, 44 and he had peace with the kynge of Israel.

45 What more there is to saye of Iosaphat and the mighte that he exercised, and how he fought, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda.

46 He put out of the londe also the whoremongers that yet were lefte, which remayned ouer in the tyme of his father Asa.

47 And at that tyme there were no kynges in Edom.

48 And Iosaphat had caused to make shippes vpon the See, which shulde go to fetch golde in Ophir, but they wente not: for they were broken at Ezeon Gaber.

49 At that tyme sayde Ahasia the sonne of Achab vnto Iosaphat: Let my seruantes passe with thy seruantes in the shippes. But Iosaphat wolde not.

50 And Iosaphat slepte with his fathers, and was buried in ye cite of Dauid. And Ioram his sonne was kynge in his steade.

51 Ahasia the sonne off Achab was kynge ouer Israel at Samaria in ye seuententh yeare of Iosaphat kige of Iuda, & reigned ouer Israel two yeares, 52 & dyd yt which was euell in ye sight of the LORDE, and walked in the waye of his father and of his mother, & in the waie of Ieroboam ye sonne of Nebat, which made Israel for to synne.

53 And serued Baal, and worshipped him, and displeased the LORDE God of Israel, eue as his father dyd.

2 KINGS

Chapter 1

1 The Moabites also fell awaye from Israel, whan Achab was deed.

2 And Ochosias fell thorow ye grate in his chaber at Samaria, and was deed sicke, and sent messaungers, and sayde vnto them: Go youre waye, and axe counsell at Beelzebub the god of Ekron, whether I shall recouer from this sicknesse.

3 But the angell of ye LORDE sayde vnto Elias the Tishbite: Vp, & go mete the messaungers of the kynge of Samaria, and saie vnto them: Is there no God in Israel that ye go to axe counsell at ye god of Ekron?

4 Therefore thus sayeth the LORDE: Thou shalt not come from the bed wheron thou lvest, but shalt dye the death. And Elias wente his waye.

5 And wha ye messaunges came to Ochosias agayne, he sayde vnto the: Why come ye agayne?

6 They sayde vnto him: There came vp a man in oure waye, and sayde vnto vs: Go againe to the kynge that hath sent you, and saye vnto him: Thus saith the LORDE: Is there no God in Israel, yt thou sendest to axe coucel at Beelzebub ye god of Ekro? Therefore shalt thou not come from ye bed wheron thou lvest, but shalt dye the death.

7 He sayde vnto them: What maner of man was it that mett you, and sayde this vnto you?

8 They sayde vnto him: He had a rough heer vpon him, and a letheren gyrdell aboute his loynes. He sayde: It is Elias the Tishbite.

9 And he sent vnto him a captaine ouer fiftye, with the same fyfitye. And whan he came vnto him, beholde, he sat aboue vpon the mout. He sayde vnto him: Thou ma of God, the kynge sayeth: Thou shalt come downe

10 Elias answered the captayne ouer fiftye, and sayde vnto him: Yf I be a man of God, the fyre fall downe then from heauen, and cosume the and thy fyftie. Then fell there fire from heauen, and consumed him and his fyfitye.

11 And agayne he sent another captayne ouer fiftye vnto him, with his fyfitye, which answered, and sayde vnto him: Thou man of God, thus sayeth the kynge: Come downe in all the haist.

12 Elias answered, and saide: Yf I be a ma of God, ye fire fall downe from heauen, and consume the and thy fyfitye. Then fell the fyre of God from heauen, & consumed him, and his fyfitye. Agayne, he sent vnto him the thirde captayne ouer fyfitye, with his fyfitye.

13 Now whan he came to him, he kneled to Elias, and besoughte him, and sayde vnto him: Thou man of God, let my soule and ye soules of thy seruantes these fyfitye, be somewhat worth in thy syghte.

14 Beholde, the fyre fell downe from heauen, and hath consumed the fyrst two captaynes ouer fyfitye wt their fyftyes. But now let my soule be somewhat worth in thy sighte.

15 Then saide the angel of the LORDE vnto Elias: Go downe with him, and feare him not. And he gatt him vp, and wente downe with him vnto ye kynge.

16 And he sayde vnto him: Thus saith the LORDE: Because thou hast sent forth messaungers, and caused to axe counsell at Beelzebub the god of Ekron, as though there were no God in Israel to axe coucell at his worde, therefore shalt thou not come from the bed wheron thou hast layed the, but shalt dye ye death.

17 So he dyed, acordinge to the worde of the LORDE which Elias sayde. And Ioram (his brother) was kynge in his steade in the seconde yeare of Ioram the sonne of Iosaphat kynge of Iuda: for he had no sonne.

18 What more there is to saye of Ochosias, what he dyd, beholde, it is wrytte in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel.

Chapter 2

1 Whan the LORDE was mynded to take vp Elias in the tempest, Elias and Eliseus wente from Gilgall.

2 And Elias sayde to Eliseus: Tary thou here I praye the, for the LORDE hath sent me vnto Bethel. But Eliseus sayde: As truly as the LORDE liueth, and as truly as thy soule lyueth, I wyll not forsake the. And whan they came downe vnto Bethel,

3 the prophetes children that were at Bethel, wete forth to Eliseus, and sayde vnto him: Knowest thou not, that the LORDE wyl take thy lorde awaye from thy heade this daye? He saide: I knowe it well, holde ye youre peace.

4 And Elias sayde vnto him: Eliseus, tary thou here I praye the, for the LORDE hath sent me vnto Iericho. Neuerthelesse he sayde: as truly as the LORDE lyueth, and as truly as thy soule lyueth, I wyl not forsake the And whan they came vnto Iericho,

5 the prophetes children which were at Iericho, stepte forth to Eliseus and sayde vnto him: Knowest thou not that the LORDE wyl take yi lorde awaye from thy heade this daie? He saide: I knowe it well, holde ye yor peace.

6 And Elias sayde vnto him: I prairie the tary here, for ye LORDE hath sent me vnto Iordane. But he sayde: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, and as truly as thy soule lyueth, I wil not forsake the. And they wente both together.

7 But fyfitye men of ye prophetes children wete forth, and stode ouer agaynst the a farre of: but they both stode by Iordane.

8 Then toke Elias his cloke, and wrapped it together, and smote the water, which deuyded it selfe on both the sydes, so that they wete dry shod thorow it.

9 And whan they were come ouer, Elias sayde vnto Eliseus: Axe what I shall do for the, afore I be taken awaye from the. Eliseus saide: That thy sprete maye be vpo me to speake twyse as moch.

10 He sayde: Thou hast desyred an harde thinge: neuertheles yf thou shalt se me wha I am taken awaye from the, it shal be so: Yf no, the shal it not be.

11 And as they were goinge together, and he talked, there came a fyrie charet with horses of fyre, and parted the both asunder. And so wente Elias vp to heauen in the storme.

12 But Eliseus sawe it, & cryed: My father, my father, the charetman of Israel and his horsme. And he sawe him nomore. And he toke holde of his clothes, and rente them in two peces,

13 and toke vp Elias cloke that was fallen from him, and turned backe, and stode by the shore of Iordane, 14 and toke the same cloke of Elias which was fallen from him, and smote it in the water, and saide: Where is now the LORDE God of Elias? And he smote it in to the water, and then parted it asunder on both the sydes, and Eliseus wente thorow.

15 And whan the prophetes children which were at Iericho ouer agynst him, sawe him, they sayde: The sprete of Elias resteth vpo Eliseus, and so they wete forth to mete him, and worshipped him to the groude, 16 and sayde vnto him: Beholde, there are fiftye valeaunt me amonge thy seruauentes, let them go and seke thy lorde, peradventure the sprete of the LORDE hath taken him, and cast him vpon some mountaine or in some valley. But he saide: Sende them not.

17 Neuertheles they constrayned him, tyll he was ashamed, and sayde: Let them go. And they sent fiftye men, which soughte him thre dayes: but they founde him not, 18 and came agayne vnto him. And he abode at Iericho, and sayde vnto them: Tolde not I you, that ye shulde not go?

19 And the men of the cite sayde vnto Eliseus: Beholde, there is good dwellynge in this cite, as my lorde seyth, but the water is euell, and the londe vnfrutefull.

20 He sayde: Bringe me hither a new vessell, & put salt in it. And they broughte it him.

21 Then wete he forth vnto the well of water, and cast the salt therin, & sayde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: I haue healed this water: from hence forth shal there no deed ner vnfrutefulness come of it.

22 So the water was healed vnto this daye, accordinge to the worde of Eliseus which he spake.

23 And he wete vp towarde Bethel. And as he was goynge vp by the waye, there came litle boyes out of the cite, and mocked him, & sayde: Come vp here thou balde heade, come vp here thou balde heade.

24 And he turned him aboute. And wha he sawe them, he cursed them in the name of the LORDE. Then came there two Beeres out of the wod, and rente two and fortye of the children.

25 From thence wete he vp vnto mount Carmel, and from it turned he backe to Samaria.

Chapter 3

1 Ioram the sonne of Achab was kynge ouer Israel at Samaria in ye eighteenth yere of Iosaphat kynge of Iuda, & reigned xij. yeres,

2 & dyd yt which was euell in ye sighte of ye LORDE, but not as his father & his mother: for he put awaye ye pilers of Baal, which his father caused to make.

3 Neuertheles he cleued vnto ye synnes of Ieroboa & sonne of Nebat, which made Israel for to synne, & departed not there fro.

4 Mesa ye kynge of the Moabites had many shepe, & payed tribute vnto the kynge of Israel wt the woll of an hundreth thousande labes, & of an hudreth thousande rames.

5 But whan Achab was deed, the kynge of ye Moabites fell awaye fro the kynge of Israel.

6 At ye same tyme wete kynge Ioram fro Samaria, & mustered all Israel,

7 & sent vnto Iosaphat kynge of Iuda, sayenge: The kynge of the Moabites is fallen awaye fro me, come thou wt me to fighte agaynst ye Moabites. He sayde: I wil come vp, I am euen as thou, and my people as yi people, and my horses as thy horses.

8 And sayde morouer: Which waye wil we go vp? He sayde: by the waye in the wyldernesse of Edom.

9 So the kynge of Israel, the kynge of Iuda, & the kynge of Edom wente forth. And whan they had gone aboute seue dayes journey, ye hoost & the catell yt were amonge the had no water.

10 Then sayde the kynge of Israel: Alas, the LORDE hath called these thre kynges, to delyuer the in to the hande of the Moabites.

11 But Iosaphat sayde: Is here no prophet of ye LORDE, yt we maye axe coucell at ye LORDE by him? Then answered one of ye kynge of Israels seruauentes, & saide: Here is Eliseus ye sonne of Saphat, which poured water vpon Elias handes.

12 Iosaphat sayde: The worde of ye LORDE is with him. So the kynge of Israel & Iosaphat, and ye kynge of Edom wente downe vnto him.

13 But Eliseus sayde vnto the kynge of Israel: What hast thou to do wt me? go to the prophetes of thy father & to yi mothers prophetes. The kinge of Israel saide vnto him: No, for ye LORDE hath called these thre kynges, to delyuer them in to the handes of the Moabites.

14 Eliseus sayde: As truly as the LORDE Zebaoth lyueth, before whom I stode, yf I regarded not Iosaphat the kynge of Iuda, I wolde not regarde the, ner set oughte by ye.

15 So bringe me now a mynstrell. And whan the mynstrell played vpo the instrument, the hande of the LORDE came vpo him.

16 And he sayde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Make pittes by this broke.

17 For thus sayeth the LORDE: Ye shal se nether wynde ner rayne, yet shall the broke be full of water, that ye and youre housholdes & youre catell maie drynke.

18 Yee and that is but a small thinge in the sighte of the LORDE. And the Moabites shal he delyuer in to youre handes, 19 so yt ye shal smyte all the stronge cities, and all ye chosen cities & shal fell downe all the good trees, and stoppe all the welles of water and all the good felde shall ye make waist with stones.

20 On the morow, whan the meatofferynge is offered, beholde, there came water ye waye from Edom, and fylled ye londe with water.

21 But whan the Moabites herde, yt the kynges came vp to fighte agaynst the, they called all ye harnessed men, & their rulers, & stode on ye border.

22 And whan they rose early in ye mornynge, & the Sonne wete vp vpon ye water, the Moabites thoughte the water ouer agaynst the to be eue as reed as bloude, 23 & they sayde: It is bloude, ye kynges haue destroyed them selues wt the swerde, & one hath smytten another. Now Moab get the vp to the spoyles.

24 But whan they came to the tentes of Israel, the Israelites gat vp, & smote the Moabites, & they fled before them. Neuertheles they came in, & smote Moab, 25 & brake downe the cities, & euery one cast his stone vpon all the good felde, and made them full, and stopped all ye welles of water, and felled downe all the good trees, tyll there remayned but the stones in the brickwall, and they compased them aboute with slynges, and smote them.

26 But wha the kynge of ye Moabites sawe yt the battayll was to stroge for him, he toke to him seuen C. men, which drue ye swerde, to fall vpon the kynge of Edom: neuertheles they were not able.

27 Then toke he his first sonne, which shulde haue bene kynge in his steade, and offred him for a burntofferynge vpon the wall. Then came there a greate wrath ouer Israel, that they departed from him, and turned agayne into their londe.

Chapter 4

1 And there cried a woman amoge the wyues of the prophetes children vnto Eliseus, and sayde: Thy seruauent my hu?bade is deed, and thou knowest that thy seruauent feared the LORDE. Now commeth the man that he was detter vnto, and wyll take awaye both my children to be bonde seruauentes.

2 Eliseus sayde vnto her: What shal I do for the? Tell me, what hast thou in the house? She sayde: Thy handmayden hath nothinge in the house but a pitcher wt oyle.

3 He sayde: Go yi waye, borowe without of all thy neighbores emptye vessels, & that not a fewe,

4 and go in, and shut ye dore behynde the with thy sonnes, and poure of it in to all ye vessels: & whan thou hast fylled them, delyuer them forth.

5 She wente, and shut the dore vnto her with hir sonnes, which broughte her the vessels, and so she poured in.

6 And whan the vessels were full, she sayde vnto hir sonne: Brynge me yet one vessell. He sayde vnto her: There is not one vessell more here. Then stode ye oyle styll.

7 And she sent, and tolde the man of God. He sayde: Go thy waye, sell the oyle, and paye the creditour: but lyeue thou and yi sonnes of the resydue.

8 And it fortunated at ye same tyme, that Eliseus wente vnto Sunem. And there was a riche woman, which helde him to eate with her: & as he passed oft thorow yt waye, he wete in vnto her: & ate wt her.

9 And she sayde vnto hir hu?bade: Beholde, I perceaue that this is an holy man of God, which goeth euer thorow this waye, 10 let vs make hi a litle chamber of boordes, & set a bed, a table, a stole & a candelstick therin, that whan he commeth vnto vs, he maye resorte thither.

11 And it fortunated vpon a tyme, that he came in, & layed him downe in the chamber, & slepte therin.

12 And he saide vnto Gehasi his childe: Call this woma of Sunem. And wha he had called her, she stode before him.

13 He sayde vnto him: Speake thou vnto her, beholde, thou hast mynstred vnto vs in all these thinges, what shal I do for the? Hast thou eny matter to be spoken for to the kynge, or to the chefe captayne of the hoost? She sayde: I dwell amonge my people.

14 He sayde: What hast thou then to do? Gehasi sayde: Alas, she hath no sonne, and hir hu?bade is olde.

15 He sayde: Call her. And wha he had called her, she stode at the dore.

16 And he sayde: Aboute this tyme yf ye frute can lyue, thou shalt embrace a sonne. She sayde: Alas, no my lorde, thou man of God, lye not vnto thy handmayden.

17 And the woman concealed, and bare a sonne aboute the same tyme, wha the frute coulde lyue, acordinge as Eliseus had sayde vnto her.

18 But whan ye childe was growne, it fortunated, yt he wente forth to his father vnto the reapers, 19 & sayde vnto his father: Oh my heade, my heade. He saide vnto his seruaut: Bringe him to his mother.

20 And he toke him, and broughte him to his mother: and she set him vpon hir lappe vntyll ye noone daye, & the he dyed.

21 And she wente vp, and layed him vpo the bed of the man of God, & shut the dore, and wete forth, 22 & called hir hu?bade, & sayde vnto him: Sende me one of the seruauentes, and an Asse, I wyl go quckly vnto the man of God, and come agayne.

23 He sayde: Why wilt thou go vnto him? To daye is it nether new moone ner Sabbath. She sayde: Well.

24 And she sadled the asse, & sayde to the yongman: dryue forth, and kepe me not bak with rydinge, and do as I byd the.

25 So she wente, and came to the man of God vnto mount Carmell. Wha the man of God sawe her ouer agaynst him, he sayde vnto his childe Gehasi: Beholde, the Sunamitisse is there, 26 runne now & mete her, and axe her yf it go well with her, and hir hu?bade & hir sonne. She sayde: Well.

27 But whan she came to the man of God vpon ye mount, she helde him by his fete. And Gehasi stepte to her, to put her awaye. But ye man of God sayde: Let her alone, for hir soule is in heuynes, and the LORDE hath hyd it fro me, and not shewed it me.

28 She sayde: Whan desyred I a sonne of my lorde? Sayde I not, yt thou shuldest not mocke me?

29 He sayde vnto Gehasi: Girde vp thy loynes, and take my staffe in thy hande, and go thy waye. Yf eny man mete the, salute him not: and yf eny man salute the, thanke him not, and laye thou my staffe vpon ye childes face.

30 But the childes mother sayde: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, and as truly as yi soule lyueth, I wyll not leaue the. Then gat he vp, and wente after her.

31 As for Gehasi, he wente before them, and layed the staffe vpon the childes face, but there was nether voyce ner felynge. And he wente agayne to mete him, and shewed him, and sayde: The childe is not rysen vp.

32 And whan Eliseus came into the house, beholde, ye childe laye deed vpon his bed.

33 And he wete in, & shut the dore on the both, & made his prayer vnto the LORDE, 34 & wente vp, & layed him selfe vpon the childe, & layed his mouth vpon the childes mouth, and his eyes vpon his eyes, and his handes vpon his handes, & so stretched him selfe forth vpon him, so yt the childes body was warme.

35 And he rose vp, & wente in to the house once hither and thither, & wente vp, & layed him selfe a longe vpon him. Then neded the childe seue tymes, and afterwarde the childe opened his eyes.

36 And he cried vpon Gehasi, and sayde: Call the Sunamitisse. And whan he had called her, she came in vnto him. He sayde: Take there thy sonne.

37 Then came she, and fell at his fete, and worshipped vnto the grounde, and toke hir sonne, and wente forth.

38 But wha Eliseus came againe vnto Gilgal, there was a derth in the londe, & the prophetes children dwelt before him, & he sayde vnto his seruauant: Set on a greate pot, and make potage for the children of the prophetes.

39 Then wente there one into the felde, to gather herbes, and founde a Cucumbers stalke, & gathered wylde Cucumbers therof his cotefull. And whan he came, he chopped it small for potage to the pott, for they knewe it not.

40 And wha they poured it forth for the me to eate, & they ate of ye potage, they cried and sayde: O thou man of God, death is in the pot: for they mighte not eate it.

41 Neuertheles he sayde: Brynge meel hither. And he put it in the pot, & sayde: Poure it out for the people, that they maye eate. And then was it not bytter in the pot.

42 There came a man from Baal Salisa, & broughte the man of God bred of the first frutes, namely twentye barlye loaves, & newe corne in his garment. But he sayde: Geue it vnto ye people, that they maye eate.

43 His mynister sayde: How shall I geue an hudreth men of this? He sayde: Geue it vnto the people, that they maye eate. For thus sayeth the LORDE: They shal eate, and there shall be lefte ouer 44 And he set it before them, so that they ate, and there lefte ouer, accordinge to ye worde of the LORDE.

Chapter 5

1 Naaman the chefe captayne of the kynge of Syria, was an excellet ma in the sighte of his lorde, and moch set by (for throw him the LORDE gaue health vnto Syria) and he was a mightie man, but a leper.

2 And there had men of warre fallen out of Syria, and caried awaye a litle damsel out of the londe of Israel: the same was in seruyce with Naamas wife,

3 and sayde vnto hir mastresse: O that my master were with the prophet at Samaria, he wolde heale him from his leprosy.

4 Then wente he into his lorde, and tolde him, and sayde: Thus and thus hath the damsel of the londe of Israel spoken.

5 The kynge of Syria sayde: Go thy waye then, & I wyl wrytte a letter vnto the kynge of Israel. And he wente, and toke with him ten hundreth weighte of syluer, and sixe thousande guldens, & ten change of rayment,

6 & broughte the letter vnto the kynge of Israel, with these wordes: Whan this letter commeth vnto the, beholde, thou shalt vnderstonde yt I haue sent my seruauant Naaman vnto the, that thou mayest heale him of his leprosy.

7 And whan the kynge of Israel red the letter, he rente his clothes, & sayde: Am I God then, that I can kyll and quycke agayne, yt he sendeth vnto me, to heale the man fro his leprosy? Considre and se, how he seketh an occasion vnto me.

8 Whan Eliseus the man of God herde, yt the kynge of Israel had rente his clothes, he sent vnto him, sayenge: Why hast thou rente thy clothes? Let him come to me, that he maye knowe, yt there is a prophet in Israel.

9 So Naaman came with horses and charettes, and helde still at the dore of Eliseus house.

10 Then sent Eliseus a messaunger vnto him, sayenge: Go thy waye, and wa?she the seuen tymes in Iordane, so shal thy flesh be restored the agayne, & be censed.

11 Then was Naaman wroth, & wente his waye, & sayde: I thoughte he shulde haue come forth vnto me, & to haue stode here & to haue called vpo the name of the LORDE his God, & to haue touched the place with his hande, & so to haue put awaye the leprosy.

12 Are not ye waters of Amana and Pharphar at Damascon better then all the waters in Israel, yt I might wa?she me therin & be clesed? and he turned him, and wete his waye in displeasure.

13 Then his seruauantes gat the to him, and sayde: Father, yf the prophet had comauended the eny greate thinge, shuldest thou not haue done it? moch more the yf he saye vnto the: Wasshe the, & thou shalt be cleane.

14 Then wete he downe, & wa?shed him selfe in Iordane seue tymes (as the man of God sayde) & his flesh was restored him agayne, euen as the flesh of a yonge childe and he was censed.

15 And he turned agayne to ye man of God with all his armye. And whan he came in, he stode before him, and sayde: Beholde, I knowe that in all londes there is no God, but in Israel. Take now therfore this blessinge I praye the of thy seruauant.

16 Neuertheles he sayde: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, before whom I stonde, I wil not take it. And he wolde nedes haue him to take it, but he wolde not.

17 Then sayde Naaman: Mighte there not a burthe of this earth be geue vnto yi seruauant, as moch as two Mules maye beare? For thy seruauant wyll nomore do sacrifice and offer burntofferynge vnto other goddes, but vnto the LORDE, 18 That the LORDE maye be gracious vnto thy seruauant, yf I worshippe in the house of Rimmon, wha my lorde goeth there in to ye house to worshippe, & leaneth vpon my hande.

19 He sayde vnto him: Go thy waye in peace. And as he was gone from him a felde bredth in the londe, 20 Gehasi the seruauant of Eliseus ye man of God thoughte: beholde, my lorde hath spared Naama this Syrian, so that he hath not taken from him yt which he broughte: As truly as ye LORDE lyueth, I wil rune after him, & take somthinge of him.

21 So Gehasi folowed Naaman. And wha Naaman sawe yt he ranne after him, he lighte downe from the charet to mete him, & sayde: Are all thinges well?

22 He sayde: Yee. But my lorde hath sent me, & caused to saye vnto the: Beholde, there are now come to me fro mount Ephraim two yonge men of the prophetes childe, geue them a talet of siluer (I praye the) & two change of rayment.

23 Naama saide: Go to, take two taletes. And he copelled him, & bande two talentes in two bagges, and two change of rayment, and delyuered it vnto two of his seruauantes, which bare it before him.

24 And whan he came in ye darcke, he toke it from their handes, & layed it a syde in the house, & let the men go.

25 And whan they were gone their waye, he stode before his lorde. And Eliseus sayde vnto him: Whence comest thou Gehasi? He sayde: Thy seruauant wente nether hither ner thither.

26 But he sayde vnto him: Wente not my hert wt the, whan the man turned backe from his charet to mete the? Now thou hast take the syluer & the rayment, olyue trees, vynyardes, shepe, oxen, seruauantes & maydens.

27 But the leprosy of Naaman shal cleue vnto the & to thy sede for euer. Then wete he forth from him leporous as snowe.

Chapter 6

1 The children of ye prophetes sayde vnto Eliseus: Beholde, the place where we dwell before ye, is to narow for vs,

2 let vs go vnto Iordane, & euery one fetch tymbre there, yt we maye there buylde vs a place to dwell in. He saide: Go yor waye.

3 And one sayde: Go to then, & come wt thy seruauantes. He sayde: I wil go with you.

4 And he wete with them. And whan they came to Iordane, they hewed downe tymber.

5 And as one was fellynge downe a tre, the yron fell in to the water, and he cried and sayde: Alas my lorde, & it is burowed.

6 But the man of God sayde: Where fell it in? And whan he had shewed him the place, he cut downe a stick, and thrust it in there. Then swame the yron.

7 And he sayde: Take it vp. So he put forth his hande, and toke it.

8 And the kynge of Syria warred agaynst Israel, and toke counsell at his seruauantes, and sayde: There & there will we lye.

9 But the man of God sent to ye kynge of Israel, sayenge: Bewarre yt thou go not vnto that place, for the Syrians sent vnto ye place wherof ye man of God tolde him, & kepte it, & helde watch there, & dyd that not once or twyse onely.

11 The was ye kynge of Syrias herte vexed therfore, and called his seruauantes, and sayde vnto them: Wyll ye not tell me, which of oure men is fled vnto the kynge of Israel?

12 Then sayde one of his seruauantes: Not so my lorde O kynge, but Eliseus the prophet in Israel telleth the kynge of Israel all that thou speakest in thy chamber where thou lyest.

13 He sayde: Go youre waye the and loke where he is, that I maye sende, and cause him be fetched. And they shewed him and sayde: Beholde, he is at Dothan.

14 The sent he thither horses & charettes, & a greate power. And wha they came thither by nighte, they compased the cite aboute.

15 And the mynister of the ma of God arose early to get him vp. And as he wete forth, beholde, there laye an hoost of men aboute ye cite with horses and charettes. Then saide his childe vnto him: Alas syr, how wyll we now do?

16 He sayde: Feare not, for there are mo of them yt are with vs, then of those that are with them.

17 And Eliseus prayed & sayde: LORDE open his eyes, yt he maye se. Then the LORDE opened ye childes eyes, yt he sawe, & beholde, ye mount was full of fyrie horses & charettes roude aboute Eliseus.

18 And wha they came downe vnto him, Eliseus made his prayer, & sayde: LORDE smyte this people wt blyndnes. And he smote the with blyndnes acordinge to the worde of Eliseus.

19 And Eliseus saide vnto them: This is not ye waye nor the cite, folowe me, I wil brynge you to the man whom ye seke. And he broughte them vnto Samaria.

20 And when they came to Samaria, Eliseus sayde: LORDE open these mens eyes, yt they maye se. And the LORDE opened their eyes, yt they sawe, & beholde, they were in the myddes of Samaria.

21 And when the kynge of Israel sawe them, he saide vnto Eliseus: My father, shal I smyte the?

22 He saide: Thou shalt not smyte the: loke whom thou takest with thy swerde and bowe, smyte those. Set bred and water before them, that they maye eate and drynke, and let them departe vnto their lorde.

23 The was there a greate dyner prepared. And when they had eaten and dronken, he let them go to departe vnto their lorde. From that tyme forth came the men of warre of the Syrians nomore into the londe of Israel.

24 After this it fortunied, that Benadab the kynge of Syria gathered all his hoost, and wete vp, & layed sege vnto Samaria: 25 & there was a greate derth at Samaria. But they layed sege to the cite so longe, tyll an Asses heade was worth foure score syluer pes, and the fourth parte of a Cab of doues donge worth fyue syluer pens.

26 And when the kynge of Israel wente vnto the wall, a woman cried vnto him and sayde: Helpe me my lorde O kynge.

27 He sayde: Yf the LORDE helpe the not, wherwith shal I helpe the? with ye barne or with the wyne presse?

28 And the kynge sayde vnto her: What ayleth ye? She sayde: This woman sayde vnto me: Geue vs yi sonne, that we maye eate him, tomorow wyll we eate my sonne.

29 So we sod my sonne, & haue eaten him, and I sayde vnto her on ye thirde daye: Geue vs thy sonne and let vs eate him, but she hath hyd him awaye.

30 When the kynge herde the womans wordes, he rente his clothes, whyle he was goynge to the wall. The sawe all the people, that he had a sackcloth vnder vpon his body.

31 And he sayde: God do this and that vnto me, yf the heade of Eliseus the sonne of Saphat shal this daye stonde vpon him.

32 As for Eliseus, he sat in his house, & the Elders sat by him. And he sent a man before him, but or euer the messaunge came to him, he sayde vnto ye Elders: Haue ye not sene how this childe of murthure hath sent hither, to take awaye my heade? Take hede, when the messaunger cometh, yt ye holde him at the dore. Beholde, ye noyse of his lordes fete foloweth him.

33 Whyle he was thus talkynge wt them, beholde, ye messaunger came to him, & sayde: Beholde, this euell cometh of ye LORDE, and what more shal I loke for of the LORDE?

Chapter 7

1 Eliseus sayde: Heare the worde of the LORDE. Thus sayeth the LORDE: Tomorow aboute this tyme shal a bu?shel of fyne meel be solde for one Sycle, and two bu?shels of barley for one Sycle vnder the porte of Samaria.

2 Then a knyghte (vpon whose hande the kynge leaned) answered the ma of God, and sayde: And though the LORDE made wyndowes in heaue, how coulede soch a thinge come to passe? He saide: Beholde, thou shalt se it with thine eyes, & shalt not eate therof.

3 And there were foure leporous men at ye dore before the porte, and one sayde vnto another: Why tary we here whyle we dye?

4 Though we thoughte to come into the cite, yet is there derth in ye cite, and there shulde we be fayne to dye. And yf we tary here, we must dye also. Let vs go now, and flye vnto the hoost of the Syrians. Yf they let vs lyue, we shall lyue: yf they slaye vs, then are we deed.

5 And so they gat them vp early, to come vnto the hoost of the Syrians. And when they came to the vttemost ende of ye tentes, beholde, there was no body.

6 For the LORDE had made the Syrians to heare a noyse of horses, charettes, and of a mightie greate hoost, so that they sayde one to another amonge the selues: Beholde, the kynge of Israel hath hyred the kynge of the Hethites, and the kynge of the Egipcians agaynst vs, to come vpo vs.

7 And they gat them vp, and fled early in the twilight, and lefte their bothes, and horses and Asses in the tentes as they stode, & fled euery man where he mighte saue his life.

8 Now when the lepers came to the place of the tentes, they wente in to the tentes, ate and dronke, and toke syluer, golde and rayment, and wente and hyd it: & came agayne & entred in to another tent, and toke therout, and wente and hyd it.

9 But one of them saide vnto another: Let vs not do thus, this daye is a daye of good tidynge. Yf we kepe this secreate and byde tyll the lighte mornynge, oure trespase wyl be founde out. Let vs go now therfore, that we maye come, & tell the kynges house.

10 And when they came, they cried at the porte of the cite, and tolde them, and sayde: We came to the tentes of the Sirians, and beholde, there is no ma there, nether yet eny mans voyce, but horses and asses bounde, and the bothes as they stonde.

11 Then cried ye porters and tolde it within in ye kynges house.

12 And the kynge arose in the nighte, & sayde vnto his seruantes: I will tell you how ye Syrians deale with vs: they knowe yt we suffer hunger, and are gone out of the tetes, to hyde them selues in the felde, and thinke thus: when they go out of the cite, we wyll take them alyue, & come in to the cite.

13 Then answered one of his seruantes, and sayde: Let vs take the fyue horses that remayne, which yet are lefte in the cite (beholde, these are left therin for all ye multitude in Israel, which is destroyed) let vs sende these and se.

14 The toke they two charettes with ye horses. And the kynge sent them vnto the tentes of the Syrians, and sayde: Go youre waye and se.

15 And when they wente after the vnto Iordane, beholde, the waye laye full of garmetes and vessels, which the Syrians had cast from the, whyle they made haist. And when the messaungers came agayne, and tolde the kynge, 16 the people wente forth, and spoyled the tentes of the Syrians. And a bu?shel of fyne meell was solde for a Sycle, and two bu?shels of barley for a Sycle also, acordinge to the worde of the LORDE.

17 But the kynge appoynted the knyghte (vpon whose hande he leened) to be at the gate, & the people trode vpon him, so that he dyed, euen as the man of God sayde, when the kynge came downe vnto him.

18 And it came to passe euen as ye man of God tolde the kynge, wha he sayde: Tomorow aboute this tyme shall two bu?shels of barley be solde for one Sycle, and a bu?shel fyne meel for one Sycle vnder the gate at Samaria.

19 And the knyghte answered the man of God, and sayde: Beholde, though ye LORDE made wyndowes in heauen, how coulede soch a thinge come to passe? Neuertheles he sayde: Beholde, with thine eyes shalt thou se it, and shalt not eate therof.

20 And euen so fortunied it vnto him, for the people trode vpon him in the gate, yt he dyed.

Chapter 8

1 Eliseus spake vnto the woma, whose sonne he had restored vnto life againe, and sayde: Get the vp, & go with thine housholde, and be a straunger where thou canst: for the LORDE shall call for a derth, which shal come into the londe seuen yeare loge.

2 The woman gat her vp, and dyd as the man of God sayde, & wente with hir housholde, and was a straunger in the londe of the Philistynes seuen yeare.

3 But when the seuen yeares were ended, the woman came agayne out of the Philistynes lode, and wente forth to crye vpon the kynge for hir house and londe.

4 The kynge spake vnto Gehasi the seruaunt of the man of God, & sayde: Tell me all the greate actes that Eliseus hath done.

5 And whyle he was tellynge the kynge how he had made one that was deed, to lyue agayne, beholde, the woman whose sonne he had caused to reuyue, came euen in the meane season, and cried vnto the kynge for hir house and londe. Then sayde Gehasi: My lorde O kynge, this same is the woma, and this is hir sonne, whom Eliseus restored vnto life agayne.

6 And the kynge axed ye woman, and she tolde him. Then the kynge delyuered her a chamberlayne, & saide: Restore her agayne all that is hers, and all the increase of the londe, sence the tyme that she lefte the londe vntyll now.

7 And Eliseus came to Damascon, & Benadab the kynge of Syria laye sicke. And it was tolde him, and sayde: The man of God is come hither.

8 Then sayde the kynge vnto Hasael: Take giftes with the, & go mete the man of God, and axe counsell at ye LORDE by him, and saye: Maye I recouer from this sicknesse?

9 Hasael wente for to mete him, and toke rewardes with him, and of all the goodes at Damasco, as moch as fortye Camels mighte beare. And when he came, he stode before him, and sayde: Thy sonne Benadab the kynge of Syria hath sent me vnto the, sayenge: Maye I recouer from this siknes?

10 Eliseus sayde vnto him: Go yi waye and tell him: Thou shalt recouer. But the LORDE hath shewed me, yt he shal dye ye death.

11 And the man of God loked earnestly, & made a troublous countenance, & wepte.

12 The sayde Hasael: Wherfore wepeth my lorde? He sayde: I knowe what euell thou shalt do vnto the children of Israel. Thou shalt burne their stronge cities with fyre, and slaye their yonge men with the swerde, and kyll their yonge children, and ryppe vp their wemen with childe.

13 Hasael sayde: How so, is thy seruauant a dogg, that he shulde do soch a greate thyng? Eliseus saide: The LORDE hath shewed me, yt thou shalt be kynge of Syria.

14 And he wete his waye from Eliseus, & came to his lorde, which saide vnto him: What saieth Eliseus vnto the? He sayde: He tolde me, Thou shalt recouer.

15 But on the nexte daye he toke ye bed couerynge, and dypte it in water, and spred it ouer him, and he dyed, & Hasael was kynge in his steade.

16 In the fyfth yeare of Ioram the sonne of Achab kynge of Israel, was Ioram ye sonne of Iosaphat kynge of Iuda.

17 Two & thirthe yeare olde was he wha he was made kynge, & reigned eighte yeare at Ierusalem, 18 & walked in the waye of the kynges of Israel, as the house of Achab dyd (for Achabs daughter was his wife) & he dyd yt which was euell in ye sighte of the LORDE.

19 Neuertheles the LORDE wolde not destroye Iuda for his seruauant Dauids sake, as he promysed him, to geue him euer a lanterne amonge his childe.

20 At ye same tyme fell ye Edomites awaye from Iuda, & made a kynge ouer them selues:

21 ye cause was this, Ioram had gone thorow Seira, and all the charettes with him, & had gotten him vp by nighte, and smyten the Edomites that were aboute him, and ye rulers ouer the charettes, so that the people fled vnto their tentes:

 22 therefore fell the Edomites away from Iuda vnto this daye. At the same tyme fell Libna awaye also.
 23 What more there is to saye of Ioram, & all yt he dyd, beholde, it is wyrtten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda.
 24 And Ioram fell on slepe with his fathers, & was buried wt his fathers in ye cite of Dauid, & Ochosias his sonne was kyng in his steade.
 25 In the twelueht yeare of Ioram the sonne of Achab kyng of Israel, was Ochosias ye sonne of Ioram kyng in Iuda.
 26 Two and twente yeare olde was Ochosias whan he was made kyng, and reigned one yeare at Iurasalem. His mothers name was Atalia the daughter of Amri kyng of Israel,
 27 & he walked in the waye of the house of Achab, & dyd that which was euell in the syght of ye LORDE, euen as dyd the house of Achab:
 28 for he was sonne in lawe in the house of Achab. And he wente with Ioram the sonne of Achab into the battayll agaynst Hasael ye kinge of Syria vnto Ramoth in Gilead, but ye Syrians smote Ioram.
 29 Then Ioram the kinge turned backe, to be healed at Iesreel of ye woundes, wherwith the Syrians had wounded him at Ramoth, wha he foughte with Hasael kinge of Syria. And Ochosias ye sonne of Iora kinge of Iuda, came downe to viset Ioram the sonne of Achab at Iesreel, for he laye sicke.

Chapter 9

1 Eliseus the prophet called one of the prophetes childe, & sayde vnto him: Girde vp yi loynes, and take this cruse of oyle with the, and go vnto Ramoth in Gilead:
 2 and wha thou comest thither, thou shalt se there one Iehu, ye sonne of Iosaphat the sonne of Nimsi, and go in, and byd him stonde vp amonge his brethren, and brynge him in to the ynmmost chamber,
 3 & take thou ye cruse of oyle, and poure it vpon his heade, & saye: Thus sayeth the LORDE: I haue anoynted the to be kyng ouer Israel: & thou shalt open the dore, and flye, and not tary.
 4 And the prophetes yonge man, the childe wente his waye vnto Ramoth in Gilead.
 5 And whan he came in, beholde, the captaynes of the hoost sat there, and he sayde: I haue somewhat to saye vnto the O captayne. Iehu saide: Vnto whom amonge vs all? He sayde: Euen vnto the o captayne.
 6 Then stode he vp, and wente in. So he poured the oyle vpon his heade, and sayde vnto him: Thus sayeth the LORDE God of Israel: I haue anoynted ye to be kyng ouer the LORDES people of Israel, 7 and thou shalt smyte thy lorde Achabs house, that I maye auenge the bloude of my seruantes the prophetes, and the bloude of all the LORDES seruantes, from the hande of Iesabel,

 8 that all the house of Achab maye peri?she. And I wyl rote out from Achab, euen him that maketh water agaynst the wall, and the closed vp and the desolate in Israel:
 9 and the house of Achab wyll I make euen as the house of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, and as the house of Baesa the sonne of Ahia,
 10 and ye dogges shall eate vp Iesabel vpon the felde at Iesrael, and noman shall burye her. And he opened the dore, and fled.
 11 And wha Iehu came forth to his lordes seruantes, they saide vnto him: Are all things well? Werfore came this madd felowe vnto the? He saide vnto them: Ye knowe the man well, & what he hath spoken.
 12 They sayde: That is not true, but tell thou vs. He sayde: Thus and thus hath he spoken vnto me, and sayde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: I haue anoynted the to be kyng ouer Israel.
 13 Then made they haist, and euery one toke his garment and laied them vnder him in maner of a iudges seate, and blew the trompet, and sayde: Iehu is made kinge.
 14 So Iehu the sonne of Iosaphat the sonne of Nimsi, made a confederacion agaynst Ioram. As for Iora he laye before Ramoth in Gilead with all Israel agaynst Hasael the kyng of Syria.
 15 But Ioram the kyng was turned backe, yt he might be healed of the woundes wherwith the Syrians had wounded him, wha he foughte with Hasael the kyng of the Syrians. And Iehu sayde: Yf it be youre mynde, there shall noman escape out of the cite, to go and tell it at Iesreel.
 16 And he rode, and departed vnto Iesrael: for Ioram laye there, and Ochosias the kinge of Iuda was come downe to vyset Ioram.
 17 But the watchman that stode vpon the tower at Iesrael, sawe the company of Iehu commynge, and sayde: I se a company. Then sayde Ioram: Take a charet, and sende to mete the, and saye: Is it peace?
 18 And the charetman rode to mete them, and sayde: Thus sayeth the kyng: Is it peace? Iehu sayde: What hast thou to do with peace? Turne the behynde me. The watchman tolde it, and sayde: The messaunger is come vnto them, and cometh not agayne.
 19 Then sent he another charetman, which whan he came to them, saide: Thus sayeth the kyng: Is it peace? Iehu sayde: What hast thou to do with peace? Turne ye behynde me.
 20 And the watchman tolde it, and sayde: He is come to them: and commeth not agayne, and the goynge is as it were the goynge of Iehu the sonne of Nimsi: for he dryueth on as he were mad.
 21 Then sayde Ioram: Binde the charet fast. And they bounde the charet, and so they wente forth, Ioram the kyng of Israel, and Ochosias the kyng of Iuda, euery one vpon his charet, to mete Iehu. And they founde him vpon the felde of Naboth the Iesraelite.

 22 And whan Ioram sawe Iehu, he sayde: Iehu, is it peace? But he sayde: What peace? The whordome and witchcraft of thy mother Iesabel is not yet come to an ende.
 23 Then turned Ioram his hande and fled, and sayde vnto Ochosias: There is treason Ochosias.
 24 But Iehu toke his bowe, & shot Ioram betwene the armes, that the arowe wente thorow his hert, and he fell downe in his charet.
 25 And Iehu sayde vnto Bidekar the knyghte: Take and cast him in the pece of londe of Naboth the Iesraelite: for I remembre sence thou rodest with me in a charet after Achab his father, that the LORDE wolde laye this heuy burthen vpon him.
 26 I holde (sayde the LORDE) I wyl recompence the yt bloude of Naboth and of his childe, euen in this pece of londe. Take him now and cast him in to that pece of londe, acordynge to the worde of the LORDE.
 27 Whan Ochosias the kinge of Iuda sawe this, he fled by the waie vnto ye garden house. But Iehu folowed after him, and commaunded to smyte him also vpon his charet in the goynge vp towarde Gur, which lieth by Iebloom: and he fled vnto Megiddo, and dyed there.
 28 And his seruantes caused him to be caried vnto Ierusalem, and there they buryed him in his awne graue with his fathers in the cite of Dauid.
 29 Ochosias reigned ouer Iuda in ye eleuenth yeare of Iora ye sonne of Achab.
 30 And whan Iehu came to Iesrael, and Iesabel herde therof, she coloured hir face, and decked hir heade, and loked out at the wyndowe.
 31 And whan Iehu came vnder the gate, she sayde: Prospered Symri well that slewe his lorde?
 32 And he lifte vp his face to the wyndow, and sayde: Who is with me? Then resorted there two or thre chamberlaynes vnto him.
 33 He sayde: Cast her downe headlynges. And they cast her downe headlynges, so that ye wall and the horses were sprenkled with hir bloude, and she was trodde vnder fete.
 34 And whan he came in, and had eaten and drunken, he sayde: Loke vpon yonder cursed woman, & burye her, for she is a kynges daughter.
 35 Neuertheles whan they wente in to burye her, they founde nothings of her, but the?kull and the fete, and the palmes of her handes.
 36 nd they came agayne and broughte him worde. He saide: This is euen it that the LORDE spake by his seruaut Elias the Tishbite, and sayde: In the felde of Iesrael shal the dogges eate Iesabels flesh.
 37 So the deed carcase of Iesabel became euen as donge in the felde of Iesrael, so yt a man coulede not saye: This is Iesabel.

Chapter 10

1 Achab had thre score and ten sonnes at Samaria. And Iehu wrote a letter, and sent it to Samaria, vnto the rulers of the cite Iesrael, euen vnto the Elders, & to Achabs tuters, sayenge these wordes:
 2 Whan this letter commeth vnto you wt whom are youre lordes sonnes, charettes, horses, stronge cities, & ordynance,
 3 loke which is the best and most righteous amonge youre lordes sonnes, & set him vpon his fathers seate, and fighte for youre lordes house.
 4 Neuertheles they were sore afrayed, and sayde: Beholde, two kynges were not able to stonde before him, how wyl we then endure?
 5 And they that were ouer the house and ouer the cite, and the Elders and tuters sent vnto Iehu, sayege: We are thy seruantes, we wyll do all that thou sayest vnto vs: We wil make no man kyng, do thou what pleaseth the.
 6 Then wrote he the seconde letter vnto them with these wordes: Yf ye be myne, and herken vnto my voyce, then take the heades of the men youre lordes sonnes, and brynge me them tomorow by this tyme vnto Iesrael. The kynges sonnes were thre score men and ten, and ye chefemen of the cite broughte the vp.
 7 Now whan this letter came they toke the kynges sonnes, and slewe them euen thre score men and ten, and layed their heades in ba?kettes, and sent them to him vnto Iesrael.
 8 And whan the messaunger came, & tolde him, and sayde: They haue broughte the heades of the kynges children, he sayde: Laye them vpon two heapes at the dore of the porte tyll tomorow.
 9 And on the morow whan he wente forth, he stode, and sayde vnto all the people: Are ye righteous? Beholde, I haue made an appoyntmet against my lorde, and slayne him, who hath slayne all these then?
 10 Vnderstonde ye now therefore, that there is not fallen vpon the earth one worde of the LORDE, which he spake agaynst the house of Achab: and the LORDE hath done, euen as he sayde by his seruaut Elias.
 11 So Iehu smote all the remnaunt of the house of Achab at Iesrael, all his greate men, his kynsfolkes, and his prestes, tyll there was not one lefte ouer.
 12 And he gat him vp, wente his waye, and came to Samaria. By the waye there was a shepherdes house, 13 where Iehu founde the brethren of Ochosias kyng of Iuda, and sayde: Whence are ye? They sayde: We are Ochosias brethren, and are goynge downe to salute the kynges children, and the quenes children.
 14 He sayde: Take them alyue. And they toke them alyue, and slewe them by the wellles syde at the shepherdes house, euen two and fortye men, and let not one of them remayne.
 15 And whan he wente from thence, he foude Ionadab ye sonne of Rechab, which met him, & saluted him. And he sayde vnto him: Is thyne hert righte, as myne hert is with thyne hert? Ionadab sayde: Yee. Yf it be so (sayde he) then geue me thy hande. And he gaue him his hande. And so he caused him to syt besyde him in the charet, 16 and saide: Come with me, and se my zele for the LORDE. And they caryed him with him vpon his charet.

17 And whan he came to Samaria, he smote all that remayned of Achab at Samaria, tyll he had destroyed him, acordyng to the worde of the LORDE, which he spake vnto Elias.

18 And Iehu gathered all the people together, and saide vnto them: Achab did Baal but litle seruyce, Iehu wyll serue him better.

19 Call vnto me now therfore all Baals prophetes, all his seruantes and all his prestes, that there be none wantyng, for I haue a greate sacrificy to do vnto Baal. Who so euer is myssed, shal not lyue. But Iehu dyd it craftely, that he mighte destroye all the mynisters of Baal.

20 And Iehu sayde: Sanctifie ye feast vnto Baal, and proclame it.

21 And Iehu sent in to all Israel, and caused all Baals ministers to come, so that there was noma lefte behynde, which came not. And they came into Baals house, so that the house of Baal was full from one corner to another.

22 Then sayde he vnto him that had the rule of the vestrye. Brynge forth rayment for all Baals mynisters. And he broughte forth the rayment.

23 And Iehu wente in to Baals house with Ionadab the sonne of Rechab, and sayde vnto Baals mynisters: Search and se that there be not here amoge you eny mynyster of the LORDE, but onely Baals mynisters.

24 And whan they came in to offer sacrificyes and burntofferynges, Iehu appoynted him foure score men without, & sayde: Yf eny of these men escape whom I deluyer vnder youre handes, then shal the same mans soule be for his soule.

25 Now wha he had made an ende of the burntofferyng, Iehu sayde vnto the fotemen and knyghtes: Go in, & smyte euery man, let noman go forth. And they smote the with the edge of the swerde. And the fote men and knyghtes threw the awaie and wete vnto the cite of Baals house,

26 and brought forth the piler in ye house of Baal, and brent it,

27 and brake downe Baals pyler with the house of Baal, and made a preuy house therof vnto this daie.

28 Thus Iehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29 But Iehu lefte not of from the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat (which caused Israel to synne) namely, from the golden calues at Bethel and at Dan.

30 And the LORDE sayde vnto Iehu: Because thou hast bene wyllinge to do that which was righte in my sighte, & hast done vnto Achabs house all that was in my hert, therfore shall thy children syt vpon ye seate of Israel vnto the fourth generacion.

31 Neuerthelesse Iehu was not diligent to walke in the lawe of the LORDE God of Israel with all his hert: for he lefte not of fro the synnes of Ieroboam which made Israel to synne.

32 At the same time beganne the LORDE to be greued at Israel. For Hasael smote them in all the borders of Israel 33 from Iordane Eastwarde, and all the londe Gilead of the Gaddites, Rubenites and Manassytes, from Aroer that lyeth on the ryuer by Arnon, and Gilead and Basan.

34 What more there is to saye of Iehu, and all that he dyd, and all his power, beholde, it is wryten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel.

35 And Iehu fell on slepe with his fathers, & they buryed him in Samaria. And Ioahas his sonne was kyng in his steade.

36 The tyme that Iehu reigned ouer Israel, is eight and twentye yeares at Samaria.

Chapter 11

1 Athalia the mother of Ochosias, wha she sawe that hir sonne was deed, gat her vp, and destroyed all the kynges sede.

2 But Ioseba kyng Iorams daughter the syster of Ochosias, toke Ioas the sonne of Ochosias and stale him awaye with his nurse in the chamber from amonge the kynges children which were slayne, and she hyd him from Athalia, so that he was not slayne.

3 And he was hyd with her in the house of the LORDE sixe yeares. But Athalia was quene in the londe.

4 Neuertheles in the seuenth yeare sent Ioiada, and toke the rulers ouer hudsons with the captaynes and fote men, and caused the to come to him in to the house of the LORDE and made a couenaunt with them, and toke an ooth of them in the house of the LORDE, and shewed them the kynges sonne,

5 and commaunded them, and sayde: This is it that ye shall do: One thirde parte of you which enter on the Sabbath, shall kepe the watch in the kynges house,

6 and one thyrde parte shalbe at the porte of Sur, and one thirde parte shal be at ye porte which is behynde the fote men, and ye shal kepe the watch at the house of Massa.

7 But two partes of you all that go of on the Sabbath, shal kepe the watch in the house of the LORDE aboute the kinge 8 and ye shall get you rounde aboute ye kyng and euery one with his weapen in his hande: and who so euer cometh within ye wall, let him die, so that ye be with the kinge, wha he goeth out and in.

9 And the rulers ouer the hundreds dyd all as Ioiada the prest had commaunded them, and toke vnto them their men which entred vpon the Sabbath, with those that wente of on the Sabbath, and came to Ioiada ye prest.

10 And the prest gaue the captaynes speares and shyldes which had bene kyng Dauids, and were in the house of the LORDE.

11 And the fote men stode aboute the kyng, euery one with his weapen in his hande, fro the corner on the righte syde of the house vnto the corner of the lefte syde, euen vnto the altare and to the house.

12 And he broughte forth the kynges sonne, and set a crowne vpon his heade, and toke the witness, and made him kyng, and they were glad, and clapped their handes together, and sayde: God saue the kyng.

13 And whan Athalia herde the noyse of the people that ranne together, she came to the people into the house of the LORDE,

14 and loked, and beholde, the kyng stode by the piler, as the vse was, and the syngers and tropettes by the kyng: and all the people of ye lode were glad, and blewe with trompettes. But Athalia rente hir clothes, & sayde: Vproure, vproure.

15 Neuertheles Ioiada ye prest commaunded ye rulers ouer hundreds, which were appointed ouer the hoost, and saide vnto them: Brynge her without the wall, and whosoeuer foloweth hir, let him dye of the swerde (for the prest had sayde, that she shulde not dye in the house of the LORDE.)

16 And they layde handes vpo her, and she wente in by the waye where the horses go in to ye kynges house, and there was she slayne.

17 Then made Ioiada a couenaunt betwene the LORDE and the kyng, and the people, yt they shulde be the people of the LORDE. Likewise also betwixte the kyng and ye people.

18 Then wente all the people of the londe into the house of Baal, and brake downe his altares, and destroyed his ymages right well. And Mathan the prest of Baal slewed they before the altare: And the prest appoynted the officers in the house of the LORDE, 19 and toke the rulers ouer hundreds, and the captaynes, and the fote men, and all ye people of the londe, & broughte the kyng downe from the house of the LORDE, and came the waye from the porte of the fote men vnto the kynges house, and he sat vpon the kynges seate.

20 And all the people of the lode were glad, and the cite was at rest. As for Athalia, they slewed her with the swerde in ye kynges house.

21 And Ioas was seuen yeare olde, whan he was made kyng.

Chapter 12

1 In the seuenth yeare of Iehu, was Ioas made kyng, and reigned fortye yeare at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Zibea of Bersaba.

2 And Ioas dyd that which was righte in the sighte of the LORDE, as longe as Ioiada ye prest taught him.

3 But they put not downe ye hye places: for the people offred & brent incense yet vpon the hye places.

4 And Ioas sayde vnto the prestes: All the money that is sanctified to be bestowed vpo ye house of the LORDE, namely the money yt euery man geueth vnto the treasury, and ye money that euery man geueth for his soule, and all the money that euery man geueth of a fre hert, to be bestowed on the house of the LORDE, 5 let the prestes take it vnto them, euery one his porcion: with that shall they repayre the decaye in the house of the LORDE, where they fynde that there is eny decaye.

6 But whan ye prestes repayred not the decaye in the house vnto the thre and twetieth yeare of kyng Ioas,

7 Ioas the kyng called Ioiada the prest with the other prestes, and sayde vnto them: Wherefore do ye not repayre the decaye in the house? Therfore shall ye not take the money vnto you now euery one his porcion, but shall geue it to the decaye of the house.

8 And the prestes agreed to take no money of the people, and to repayre the decaye of the house.

9 Then Ioiada the prest toke a chest, and bored an hole aboue therin, and set it on the righte hande besyde the altare, at the entryng in to the house of the LORDE. And the prestes that kepte the thresholde, put all the money therin that was broughte vnto the house of the LORDE.

10 Whan they sawe then that there was moch money in the chest, ye kynges scribe came vp with the hye prest, and bounde the money together, and tolde it as moch as was founde in the house of the LORDE.

11 And so the ready money was geuen vnto them that wrought and were appoynted to the house of the LORDE, and they gaue it forth to the carpenters and to the that buylded and wroughte in the house of the LORDE, 12 namely, to the dawbers and masons, and to them that boughte tymber and fre stone, to repayre the decaye in the house of the LORDE and all that they founde to haue nede of repayringe in the house.

13 Howbeit there were no syluer chargers, flat peces, basens, trompettes, ner eny other vessell of golde and syluer made on the house of the LORDE, of the money that was brought vnto the LORDES house:

14 but it was geuen vnto the workmen to repayre the decaye in the house of the LORDE therwith.

15 The men also that the money was deluyered vnto, for to geue the workmen, neded not to make eny acomptes, but did their busynes vpon credence.

16 But the money of trespace offerynges and synneofferynges was not broughte vnto the house of the LORDE: for it was the prestes.

17 At the same tyme wente Hasael the kyn of Syria vp, and foughte agaynst Gath, and wanne it. And whan Hasael set his face to go vp to Ierusalem, 18 kyng Ioaſe toked all that was ſanctified, which his fathers Ioſaphat, Ioram and Ocholiaſe the kynges of Iuda had halowed, and what he himſelfe had ſanctified, and all the golde that was founde in the treaſures of the houſe of the LORDE, and in the kynges houſe, and ſent it vnto Haſael the kyng of Syria. And ſo he departed from Ieruſalem.

19 What more there is to ſaye of Ioaſe, and all that he dyd, it is written in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda.

20 And his ſeruauntes made inſurreccion and conſpyred, and ſmote him in the houſe of Millo, at the goynge downe vnto Silla.

21 For Ioſebar the ſonne of Simeath, and Ioſabad the ſonne of Somer his ſeruauntes ſmote him to death: and he was buried with his fathers in the cite of Dauid. And Amaliaſe his ſonne was kyng in his ſtede.

Chapter 13

1 In ye XXIII. yeare of Ioaſe the ſonne of Ocholiaſe kyng of Iuda, was Ioahas the ſonne of Iehu kyng ouer Iſrael at Samaria, ſeuenteene yeare:

2 & dyd yt which was euell in the ſighte of the LORDE, and walked after the ſinnes of Ieroboam ye ſonne of Nebat (which cauſed Iſrael to ſynne) and lefte not of from them.

3 And ye wrath of the LORDE waxed whote vpon Iſrael, & he deliuered them ouer vnder the hande of Haſael kyng of Syria, and vnder the hande of Benadad the ſonne of Haſael, as longe as they luyed.

4 And Ioahas beſoughte the face of the LORDE. And the LORDE herde him, for he conſidered the myserie of Iſrael, how the kyng of Syria oppreſſed them.

5 And ye LORDE gaue Iſrael a ſauoure, which broughte them out of the power of the Syrians, ſo yt the children of Iſrael dwelt in their tentes, like as afore tyme.

6 Yet lefte they not from the ſynnes of the houſe of Ieroboam, which cauſed Iſrael to ſynne, but walked in them. The groue at Samaria ſtode ſtyll alſo.

7 For of the people of Ioahas there were no mo lefte, but fyfthe horsmen, ten charettes, and ten thouſande fote men: for the kyng of Syria had deſtroyed them, and made them as the duſt in the barne.

8 What more there is to ſaye of Ioahas, and all that he dyd, and his power, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iſrael.

9 And Ioahas fell on ſlepe with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria, & Ioaſe his ſonne was kyng in his ſtede.

10 In the ſeuene and thirtieth yeare of Ioaſe kyng of Iuda, was Ioaſe the ſonne of Ioahas kyng ouer Iſrael at Samaria ſixtene yeare.

11 And he dyd that which was euell in the ſighte of the LORDE, and departed not from all the ſynnes of Ieroboam the ſonne of Nebat, which made Iſrael for to ſynne, but walked in them.

12 What more there is to ſaye of Ioaſe, and what he dyd, & his power, how he foughte with Amaliaſe kyng of Iuda, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iſrael.

13 And Ioaſe fell on ſlepe with his fathers, and Ieroboam ſat vpo his ſeate. And Ioaſe was buried in Samaria wt the kynges of Iſrael.

14 As for Eliſeuſe, he fell in to a ſickneſe, wherof he dyed. And Ioaſe the kyng of Iſrael came downe vnto him, and wepte for him, and ſaide: My father, my father, the charetman of Iſrael, and his horsmen.

15 Eliſeuſe ſaide vnto him: Take the bowe and the arrowes

16 And whan he had taken the bowe and the arrowes, he ſaide vnto the kyng of Iſrael: Bende the bowe with thine hande.

And he bent it with his hade. And Eliſeuſe layed his hande vpon the kynges hande, 17 and ſaide: Open that wyndowe toward the Eaſt. And he opened it. And Eliſeuſe ſaide: Shute. And he ſhot. He ſaide: one arrowe of the ſaluacion of the LORDE, one arrowe of ſaluacion agaynſt the Syrians: and thou ſhalt ſmyte the Syrians at Aphek, tyll they be brought to nauhte.

18 And he ſaide: Take ye arrowes. And whan he had taken them, he ſaide vnto the kyng of Iſrael: Smyte the earth. And he ſmote thre tymes and ſtode ſtyll.

19 Then was the ma of God wroth at him, and ſaide: Yf thou haddeſt ſmytten fyue or ſixe tymes, thou ſhuldeſt haue ſmytten ye Syrians, tyll thou haddeſt vtterly brought them to nauhte. But now ſhalt thou ſmyte them thre tymes.

20 Whan Eliſeuſe was deed and buried, the men of warre of the Moabites fell in to the londe the ſame yeare.

21 And it fortuneth yt they buryed a certayne man. But whan they ſawe the men of warre, they caſt the man in to Eliſeuſe graue.

And whan he was therein, and touched Eliſeuſe bones, he reuyued, and ſtode vpon his feſe.

22 So Haſael the kyng of Syria oppreſſed Iſrael, as longe as Ioahas luyed.

23 But the LORDE was gracious vnto them, and had mercy vpon them, and turned him to them for his couenauntes ſake, with Abraham, Iſaac and Iacob, and wolde not deſtroye the nether dyd he caſt them out from his preſence vnto this houre.

24 And Haſael the kyng of Syria dyed, and Benadad his ſonne was kyng in his ſtede.

25 But Ioaſe turned backe, and toke out of the hande of Benadad the ſonne of Haſael the cyties which he had take in battaill out of the hande of his father Ioaſe: Thre tymes dyd Ioaſe ſmyte him, and broughte the cities of Iſrael agayne.

Chapter 14

1 In the ſeconde yeare of Ioaſe ye ſonne of Ioaſe kyng of Iſrael, was Amaliaſe the ſonne of Ioaſe kyng of Iuda made kyng:

2 fyue and twenty yeare olde was he, whan he was made kyng, & reigned nyne and twenty yeare at Ieruſale. His mothers name was Ioadan of Ieruſalem.

3 And he dyd that which was righte in the ſighte of the LORDE: yet not as his father Dauid, but euen as his father Ioaſe did ſo dyd he alſo:

4 for ye hye places were not put downe, but the people offred and brent incenſe yet vpon the hye places.

5 Now whan he had gotten the power of the kyngdome, he ſmote his ſeruauntes which had ſmytten the kyng his father:

6 but the children of ye deedſlayers ſlewe he not, accordinge to yt which is wrytten in the boke of the lawe of Moſes, where the LORDE hath comaunded & ſaide: The fathers ſhal not dye for the children, & the children ſhal not dye for the fathers: but euery one ſhal dye for his awne ſynne.

7 Ten thouſande of the Edomites ſmote he alſo in the Salt valley, and wanne Sela in battaill, and called it Iatheel vnto this daye.

8 Then ſent Amaliaſe meſſengers vnto Ioaſe the ſonne of Ioahas the ſonne of Iehu kyng of Iſrael, ſayinge: Come hither, let vs ſee one another.

9 But Ioaſe ye kyng of Iſrael ſent vnto Amaliaſe the kyng of Iuda, ſayinge: The hawthorne that is in Libanus, ſent to the Cedar tre in Libanus, ſayinge: Geue thy daughter vnto my ſonne to wife. But a wyld beaſt of the felde ranne ouer ye hawthorne, and trode it downe.

10 Thou haſt ſmytten the Edomites, therefore is thine hert waxen proude: Take the prayſe, and byde at home: why ſtryueſt thou for myſfortune, yt thou mayeſt fall, and Iuda with the?

11 Howbeit Amaliaſe conſented not. Then wete Ioaſe the kyng of Iſrael vp, and they ſawe one another, he and Amaliaſe the kyng of Iuda at Beth Semes which lyeth in Iuda.

12 But Iuda was ſmytten before Iſrael, ſo that euery one fled in to his tente.

13 And Ioaſe the kyng of Iſrael toked Amaliaſe the kyng of Iuda, the ſonne of Ioaſe the ſonne of Ocholiaſe at Beth Semes, and came to Ieruſalem, and brake downe ye wall of Ieruſalem from ye porte of Ephraim vnto the corner porte, euen foure hundred cubites loge:

14 and toked all the golde and ſyluer, and ornamentes that were founde in the houſe of the LORDE, and in ye treaſures of the kynges houſe, & the children alſo to pledge, & departed agayne to Samaria.

15 What more there is to ſaye of Ioaſe, what he dyd, and of his power, & how he foughte with Amaliaſe the kyng of Iuda, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iſrael.

16 And Ioaſe fell on ſlepe with his fathers, and was buried at Samaria amonge ye kynges of Iſrael. And Ieroboam his ſonne was kyng in his ſtede.

17 But Amaliaſe the ſonne of Ioaſe kyng of Iuda, luyed after the death of Ioaſe the ſonne of Ioaſe kyng of Iſrael, fiftene yeare.

18 What more there is to ſaye of Amaliaſe, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda.

19 And they conſpyred agaynſt him at Ieruſalem, but he fled vnto Lachiſ. And they ſent after him vnto Lachiſ, and ſlewe him there.

20 And they broughte him vpon horſes, & he was buried at Ieruſalem with his fathers in ye cite of Dauid.

21 And all the people of Iuda toked Aſariaſe in his ſixteenth yeare, and made him kyng in ſtede of Amaliaſe his father.

22 He buylded Eloth, and broughte it agayne vnto Iuda, after that the kyng was fallen on ſlepe with his fathers.

23 In the fyfteenth yeare of Amaliaſe the ſonne of Ioaſe kyng of Iuda, was Ieroboam the ſonne of Ioaſe kyng ouer Iſrael at Samaria, one and fortye yeare.

24 And he dyd that which was euell in the ſighte of the LORDE, and departed not from all the ſynnes of Ieroboam the ſonne of Nebat, which cauſed Iſrael for to ſynne.

25 But the borders of Iſrael broughte he agayne from Hemath vnto ye ſee that lyeth in the playne felde, accordinge to the worde of the LORDE God of Iſrael, which he ſpake by his ſeruaunt Ionas ye ſonne of Amithai the prophete, which was of Gath Ephraim.

26 For the LORDE conſidered the myſerable affliction of Iſrael, how that euen they which were ſhut vp and deſolate, were awaye, and that there was no helper in Iſrael.

27 And the LORDE ſaide not that he wolde deſtroye the name of Iſrael from vnder heaue. And he helped the by Ieroboam the ſonne of Ioaſe.

28 What more there is to ſaye of Ieroboam, and all that he dyd, and of his power, how he foughte, and how broughte Damascon and Hemath agayne vnto Iuda in Iſrael, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iſrael.

29 And Ieroboam fell on ſlepe with his fathers, with the kynges of Iſrael. And Zachariaſe his ſonne was kyng in his ſtede.

Chapter 15

1 In the ſeuene & twentieth yeare of Ieroboam kyng of Iſrael, reigned Aſariaſe the ſonne of Amaliaſe kyng of Iuda:

2 and was ſixtene yeare olde whan he was made kyng, and reigned two and fyfthe yeare at Ieruſalem. His mothers name was Iechalia of Ieruſale.

3 And he dyd righte in the ſighte of the LORDE, accordinge to all as dyd Amaliaſe his father,

4 ſayinge that they put not downe the hye places. For the people dyd ſacrifice and brent incenſe yet vpon the hye places.

5 Howbeit the LORDE ſmote the kyng, ſo that he was leper vnto his death, and dwelt in a frye houſe. But Iotham the kynges ſonne ruled the houſe, and iudged the people in the londe.

6 What more there is to saye of Asarias, & all yt he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda.

7 And Asarias fell on slepe with his fathers, & was buried with his fathers in the cite of Daudid, & Iotham his sonne was kyng in his steade.

8 In the eight and thirtieth yeare of Asarias kyng of Iuda, was Zacharias the sonne of Ieroboam kyng ouer Israel at Samaria sixe monethes.

9 And he dyd yt which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE, euen as his fathers dyd. He departed not from ye synnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which caused Israel for to synne.

10 And Sellum the sonne of Iabes conspyred agaynst him, and smote him in the presence of ye people, and slewe him, & was kyng in his steade.

11 What more there is to saie of Zacharias, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel.

12 And this is it, yt the LORDE sayde vnto Iehu: Thy children shall syt vpo the seate of Israel vntyll the fourth generacion. And euen so came it to passe.

13 Sellum the sonne of Iabes reigned in ye nyne & thirtieth yeare of Asarias kyng of Iuda, & reigned one moneth at Samaria.

14 For Menahem the sonne of Gadi wete vp from Thirza, & came to Samaria, and smote Sellum the sonne of Iabes at Samaria, & slewe him, and was kyng in his steade.

15 What more there is to saye of Sellum, & of his sedicion which he stered vp, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel.

16 At the same tyme dyd Manahem smyte Tiphsa, & all yt were therein, & the coastes therof from Thirza, because they wolde not let him in, and smote all their wemen wt childe, and rypte them vp.

17 In the nyne & thirtieth yeare of Asarias kyng of Iuda, beganne Manahem the sonne of Gad to reigne ouer Israel ten yeares at Samaria, 18 and dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE. As longe as he lyued, departed he not from ye synnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which caused Israel for to synne.

19 And Phul the kyng of Assiria came into the lode. And Manahem gaue vnto Phul a thousande talentes of syluer to holde with him, and to cofirme him in the kyngdome.

20 And Manahem raysed vp a taxe in Israel vpon the richest, fiftye Sycles of syluer vpon euery man, to geue vnto ye kyng of Assiria. So the kyng of Assiria wete home agayne, and taried not in the londe.

21 What more there is to saye of Manahem, & all yt he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel.

22 And Manahem fell on slepe wt his fathers. And Pecahia his sonne was kyng in his steade.

23 In the fiftieth yeare of Asarias kyng of Iuda, beganne Pecahia the sonne of Manahem to reigne ouer Israel at Samaria two yeare, 24 and dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE: for he departed not fro the synnes of Ieroboam ye sonne of Nebat, which caused Israel for to synne.

25 And Pecah the sonne of Romelia his knyghte conspyred agaynst him, & smote him at Samaria in ye palace of the kynges house wt Argob and Aria, and fiftye men wt him of ye childe of Gilead, & slewe him, & was kyng in his steade.

26 What more there is to saye of Pecahia, & all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel.

27 In the two and fiftieth yeare of Asarias kyng of Iuda, beganne Pecah the sonne of Romelia to reigne ouer Israel at Samaria, twentye yeare, 28 & dyd that which was euell in the sighte of ye LORDE: for he departed not from the synnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which caused Israel for to synne.

29 In the tyme of Pecah the kyng of Israel, came Teglatphalasser the kyng of Assiria, & toke Eion, Abel Beth Maecha, Ianoa, Redes, Hasor, Gilead, Galile, and all the londe of Nephtali, & caried the awaye in to Assiria.

30 And Osea the sonne of Ela conspyred agaynst Pecah the sonne of Romelia, & slue him, and was kyng in his steade in the twetieth yeare of Iotham the sonne of Osias.

31 What more there is to saye of Pecah, & all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel.

32 In the seconde yeare of Pecah the sonne of Romelia kyng of Israel, was Iotham the sonne of Osias kyng of Iuda, 33 & was fyue and twentye yeare olde whan he was made kyng, and reigned sixtene yeare at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Ierusa the daughter of Sabok.

34 And he dyd yt which was righte in ye sighte of the LORDE, acordinge vnto all as dyd Osias his father, 35 sauynge that he put not downe the hye places: for the people offred & brent incense yet vpon the hye places. He buylded the hye porte of the house of the LORDE.

36 What more there is to saye of Iotham, and all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytte in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda.

37 At ye same tyme beganne ye LORDE to sende Rezin ye kyng of Syria, & Pecah ye sonne of Romelia into Iuda.

38 And Iotham fell on slepe with his fathers, and was buried wt his fathers in the cite of Daudid his father. And Achas his sonne was kyng in his steade.

Chapter 16

1 In the seuententh yeare of Pecah ye sonne of Romelia, was Achas the sonne of Iotham kyng of Iuda.

2 Twetye yeare olde was Achas wha he was made kyng, & reigned sixtene yeare at Ierusalem, & dyd not yt which was righte in the sighte of ye LORDE his

God, as dyd Daudid his father:

3 for he walked in the waye of the kynges of Israel, Yee and caused his sonne to go thorow the fyre, after the maner of the abhominacions of the Heythen, whom the LORDE droue awaye before the childe of Israel.

4 And he dyd sacrifice, and brent incense vpon the hye places, & vpon all hilles, and amonge all grene trees.

5 Then wente Rezin the kyng of Syria, and Pecah the sonne of Romelia kyng of Israel vp to Ierusalem to fighite agaynst it, and layed sege to Achas: but they coulde not wyne it.

6 At the same tyme dyd Rezin the kyng of Syria, brynge Eloth agayne vnto Syria, and thrust ye Iewes out of Eloth. But the Syrians came & dwelt therein vnto this daye.

7 Neuertheles Achas sent messaungers vnto Teglatphalasser ye kyng of Assiria, sayege: I am thy seruauant & thy sonne, come vp & helpe me out of ye hande of the kyng of Syria, & of the kyng of Israel, which are rysen vp agaynst me.

8 And Achas toke the syluer & golde yt was founde in ye house of ye LORDE, & in the treasures of ye kynges house, & sent a present to ye kyng of Assiria.

9 And ye kinge of Assiria cosented vnto him, & wente vp to Damascon, & wanne it, & caried them awaye vnto Cira, & slewe Rezin.

10 And kyng Achas wete to Damascon for to mete Teglatphalasser ye kyng of Assiria. And wha he sawe an altare yt was at Damascon, kyng Achas sent a patrone & symilitude of ye same altare vnto the prest Vrias, euen as it was made.

11 And Vrias the prest buylded an altare, and made it acordinge as kyng Achas had sent vnto him from Damascon, tyll Achas ye kyng came from Damascon.

12 And whan ye kyng came from Damascon, and sawe the altare, he offred theron, 13 & kyndled his burntofferynges and meatofferynges vpon it, and poured his drynkofferynges theron, & caused the bloude of ye deedofferynges which he offred, to be sprenkled vpon the altare.

14 But the brasen altare that stode before the LORDE, put he awaye, so that it stode not betwene the altare and the house of the LORDE, but set it in the corner on the north syde of the altare.

15 And Achas the kyng commaunded Vrias ye prest, & sayde: Vpo the greate altare shalt thou kyndle ye burntoffrynge in the mornynge, & the meatoffrynge in the euenynge, & the kynges burntoffrynge & his meatoffrynge, & the burntoffrynge of all the people in the londe, wt their meatoffrynge & drynkoffrynge. And all the bloude of the burntofferynges, & all the bloude of the other offrynges shalt thou sprenkle theron: but with the brasen altare wyll I deuse what I can.

16 Vrias the prest dyd all acordinge as Achas the kyng commaunded him.

17 And kyng Achas brake downe the seates, and put a waye the ketell from aboue, and toke the lauer from the brasen bullockes that were there vnder, and set it vpon ye pauement of stone.

18 And the pulpit for the Sabbath which they had buylded in the house, and ye entree of the kynges house turned he vnto the house of the LORDE, for the kyng of Assirias sake.

19 What more there is to saye of Achas, what he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in ye Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda.

20 And Achas fell on slepe with his fathers, & was buried wt his fathers in the cite of Daudid. And Ezechias his sonne was kyng in his steade.

Chapter 17

1 In the twolueth yeare of Achas the kyng of Iuda, beganne Oseas ye sonne of Ela to reigne ouer Israel at Samaria nyne yeare,

2 and dyd yt which was euell in ye sighte of the LORDE, but not as ye kynges of Israel yt were before him.

3 Agaynst him dyd Salmanasar ye kyng of Assiria come vp. And Oseas was subiecte vnto him, & gaue him trybutes.

4 But wha ye kyng of Assiria perceaued yt Oseas had conspyred & sent messaungers to Sua ye kyng of Egipte, & payed not trybute yearly to ye kyng of ye Assirians, he beseged him & put him in preson.

5 And the kyng of Assiria wente vp in to all the londe and to Samaria, and layed sege vnto it thre yeare.

6 And in the nyenth yeare of Oseas dyd ye kyng of Assiria wyne Samaria, and caried Israel awaye in to Assiria, and set them at Halah and at Habor by the water Gosan, and in the cities of the Meedes.

7 For whan the childe of Israel synned agaynst ye LORDE their God (yt broughte the out of ye londe of Egipte, from the hade of Pharao kyng of Egipte) and serued other goddes:

8 and walked after the customes of the Heythe, whom the LORDE had dryuen out before the children of Israel, and dyd as the kynges of Israel,

9 and prouoked ye LORDE their God, and dyd secretly the thinges that were not righte in the sighte of ye LORDE their God: namely in that they buylded them hye places in all cities, both in castels and stronge cities,

10 and set vp pilers and groues, vpon all hye hilles, and amonge all grene trees,

11 and brent incense there in all ye hye places, euen as dyd the Heythen, whom the LORDE had cast out before them, & wroughte wicked thinges, wherwith they prouoked the LORDE vnto wrath, 12 & serued the Idols, wherof the LORDE sayde vnto them: Ye shal not do soch a thyng.

13 And whan the LORDE testified in Israel and Iuda by all the prophetes and Seers, sayenge: O turne agayne from youre euell wayes, and kepe my commaundemetes and ordynaunces, acordinge to all ye lawe which I gaue vnto youre fathers, and that I sent vnto you by my seruantes the prophetes:

14 they wolde not herken, but herdened their neckes, acordinge to the hardneck of their fathers, which beleued not on the LORDE their God.

15 Yee they despyed his ordinaunces and his couenaunt which he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he witnessed amonge them, and walked in their awne vanities, and became vayne folowinge the Heythen, which dwelt rounde aboute them, concernynge whom the LORDE had commaunded them, that they shulde not do as they dyd.

16 Neuertheles they forsoke all the commaundementes of the LORDE their God and made them two molten calues and groues, and worshipped all the hoost of heauen, & serued Baal,

17 and caused their sonnes and daughters to go thorow the fyre, and medled wt soythayers and witches, and gaue them selues ouer to do that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE, to prouoke him vnto wrath.

18 Then was the LORDE very wroth at Israel, and put them away fro his presence, so yt there remainyd nomo but onely ye trybe of Iuda.

19 Nether dyd Iuda kepe the commaundementes of the LORDE their God, but walked after the customes of Israel, which they dyd.

20 Therefore dyd ye LORDE cast away all ye sede of Israel, and troubled them, and deluyered them in to the handes of the spoylers, tyll he had cast them out of his presence:

21 for Israel was deuyded from the house of Dauid. And they made the a kynge, one Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which turned Israel back from ye LORDE, & caused the to synne so sore.

22 Thus walked the childre of Israel in all ye synnes of Ieroboam, which he had done, & departed not fro them, 23 vntyll ye LORDE put Israel out of his presence, acordinge as he had spoke by all his seruantes ye prophetes. So Israel was caried awaye out of their awne londe to Assiria vnto this (daye).

24 The kynge of Assiria caused men to come fro Babilon, from Cutha, fro Aua, from Hemath & Sepharuaim, & caused the to inhabite ye cities in Samaria in steade of the children of Israel. And they toke possession of Samaria, & dwelt in ye same cities.

25 But wha they begane to dwell there, & feared not ye LORDE, the LORDE sent lyons amoge the, which slewe them.

26 And they caused it be sayde vnto ye kynge of Assiria: The Heythe whom thou hast broughte hither, & caused them to inhabite the cities of Samaria, knowe not the lawe of ye God of the londe. Therefore hath he sent lyons amoge them, & beholde, they slaye the, because they knowe not the ordinaunce of the God of the londe.

27 The kinge of Assiria comaunded & saide: Bringe thither one of ye prestes yt were caried awaye fro thence & let him go thither, & dwell there, & teach the the ordinaunce of the God of ye londe.

28 Then came one of ye prestes which were caried awaye from Samaria, & dwelt at Bethel, & taughte them how they shulde feare ye LORDE.

29 But euerye people made the goddes, & put the in the houses vpon ye hye places, which the Samaritanes had made, euerye people i their cities wherin they dwelt.

30 They of Babilo made Sochoth Benoth. They of Chut made Nergel. They of Hemath made Asima.

31 They of Aua made Nibehas & Tharthak. They of Sepharuaim burnt their sonnes vnto Adramelech and Anamelech ye goddes of the of Sepharuaim.

32 And whyle they feared ye LORDE, they made prestes in ye hye places of ye lowest amonge them, & put them in ye houses of ye hye places:

33 thus they feared ye LORDE, & serued ye goddes also, acordinge to ye custome of euerye nacion, from whence they were broughte.

34 And vnto this daye do they after ye olde fashion, so yt they nether feare ye LORDE, ner yet kepe their awne ordinaunces and lawes, after the lawe and commaundement that the LORDE comaunded the childre of Iacob, vnto whom he gaue ye name of Israel,

35 and made a couenaunt with them, and commaunded them, and sayde: Feare none other goddes, and worshipe them not, and serue them not, and offer not vnto them:

36 but the LORDE which broughte you out of the lode of Egipte, with greate power and outstretched arme, Him feare, him worshipe, & vnto him do sacrifice: 37 and the statutes, ordinaunces, lawe & comaundement which he hath caused to be wrytten vnto you, those se that ye kepe, that ye allwaye do thereafter, and feare none other goddes.

38 And forget not the couenaunt which he hath made with you, lest ye feare other goddes.

39 But feare ye LORDE youre God, he shall deluyer you from all youre enemies.

40 Neuertheles they wolde not herken, but dyd after their olde custome.

41 Thus these Heythen feared the LORDE, and serued their Idols also, and so dyd their children and childers childre likewise. Eue as their fathers haue done before them, so do they vnto this daye.

Chapter 18

1 In the thirde yeare of Oseas ye sonne of Ela kynge of Israel, reigned Ezechias ye sonne of Achas kynge of Iuda.

2 And he was fyue and twentie yeare olde whan he was made kynge, & reigned nyne & twentye yeare at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Abi the daughter of Zachary.

3 And he dyd that which was righte in the sighte of the LORDE, acordinge vnto all as dyd Dauid his father.

4 He put awaye the hye places, and brake downe the pilers, & roted out the groues, and brake the brasen serpente which Moses had made. For vnto that tyme had the children of Israel brent incense vnto it. And it was called Nehusthan.

5 He put his trust in the LORDE God of Israel, so that after him there was not his like amoge all the kynges of Iuda nether had bene before him.

6 He cleued vnto the LORDE, and departed not backe from him, and kepte his commaundementes, which the LORDE had comaunded Moses.

7 And the LORDE was wt him. And whither so euer he wete forth, he behaued him selfe wysely. He resisted the kyn of Assiria, and was not subdued vnto him.

8 He smote the Philistynes also vnto Gasa, and their borders, from the castels vnto the stronge cities.

9 In the fourth yeare of Ezechias kynge of Iuda (yt was the seuenth yeare of Oseas the sonne of Ela kynge of Israel) came Salmanasar the kynge of Assiria vp agaynst Samaria, and layed sege vnto it, 10 and wanne it after thre yeares in the sixte yeare of Ezechias, that is in the nyenth yeare of Oseas kynge of Israel, the was Samaria wonne.

11 And the kynge of Assiria caried Israel awaye vnto Assiria, and set them at Halah and Habor by the water Gosan, and in the cities of the Meedes.

12 And all because they herkened not vnto the voyce of the LORDE their God, and had transgressed his couenaunt: And as for all that Moses the seruauant of the LORDE had commaunded the, they had nether herkened vnto eny of those, ner done them.

13 In the fourteth yeare of kynge Ezechias dyd Sennacherib ye kynge of Assiria come vp agaynst all the stronge cities of Iuda, & coquered the.

14 Then sent Ezechias the kynge of Iuda to ye kynge of Assiria vnto Lachis, sayenge: I haue offended, turne back fro me: loke what thou layest vnto me, I wil beare it. The the kynge of Assiria layed vnto Ezechias the kynge of Iuda, thre hundred talentes of syluer, & thirtie talentes of golde.

15 So Ezechias gaue all ye slyuer yt was foude in ye house of the LORDE, & in the treasures of ye kynges house.

16 At ye same tyme brake Ezechias the kynge of Iuda the dores of the temple of ye LORDE, & the plates of golde which he him selfe had caused to laye ouer the, & gaue the vnto the kynge of Assiria.

17 And the kynge of Assiria sent Thartan, and the chefe chamberlayne, & the chefe butler from Lachis to kynge Ezechias with a greate power vnto Ierusalem. And they wete vp: and whan they came there, they stode styll at the condyte by the ouer pole, which lyeth in the waye vpo the fullers londe, 18 and called vnto the kynge. The came there forth vnto them Eliachim the sonne of Helchias the stewarde, and Sobna the scribe, & Ioah the sonne of Assaph the Secretary.

19 And the chefe butler sayde vnto the: Tell kynge Ezechias: Thus sayeth ye greate kynge, eue the kynge of Assiria: What presumption is this yt thou trustest vnto?

20 Thinkest thou, yt thou hast yet counsell and power to fighte? Where vnto trustest thou then, that thou art fallen of fro me?

21 Beholde, putttest thou thy trust in this broken staffe of rede, in Egipte? which who leaneth vpon, it shall go into his hande, & pearse it thorow. Euen so is Pharao the kynge of Egipte vnto all them that put their trust in him.

22 But yf ye wolde saye vnto me: We put oure trust in ye LORDE oure God. Is not that he, whose hye places and altares Ezechias hath take downe, and sayde vnto Iuda and Ierusalem: Before this altare which is at Ierusalem, shal ye worshipe? 23 Make a multitude now therfore vnto my lorde the kynge of Assiria, and I wil geue ye two thousande horses, let se yf thou be able to man them:

24 how wilt thou then endure before the smallest prynce of my lordes subiectes? And trustest thou vnto Egipte because of the charettes and horsmen?

25 But thinkest thou that I came vp hither without ye LORDE to destroye these cities? The LORDE hath commaunded me: Go vp in to that londe and destroye it.

26 Then sayde Eliachim the sonne of Helchia & Sobna and Ioah vnto the chefe butler: Speake to thy seruantes in the Syrias language, for we vnderstonde it, and speake not vnto vs in the Iewes speche before the eares of the people that are vpon the wall.

27 Neuertheles ye chefe butler sayde vnto the: Hath my lorde then sent me vnto thy lorde, or to the, to speake these wordes? Yee euen vnto the men, which syt vpon the wall, that they maye eate their owne donge and drynke their owne stale wt you.

28 So the chefe butler stode and cried with loude voyce in the Iewes language, and spake and sayde: Heare the worde of the greate kynge the kynge of Assiria.

29 Thus sayeth the kynge: Let not Ezechias disceaue you, for he is not able to deluyer you fro my hade:

30 & let not Ezechias make you to trust in the LORDE, sayenge: The LORDE shall deluyer vs, and this cite shal not be geuen in to the handes of ye kynge of Assiria.

31 Folowe not ye Ezechias, for thus sayeth the kynge of Assiria: Do me this blesynge, and come forth vnto me, so shal eueryman eate of his vyne and of his fygge tre, and drynke of his well, 32 tyll I come my selfe and fetch you in to a londe, which is like youre awne lode, wherin is corne, wyne, bred, vnyardes, oyle trees, oyle and hony, so shal ye lyue, and not dye. Folowe not ye Ezechias, for he disceaueeth you, when he sayeth: The LORDE shal deluyer vs.

33 Haue the goddes of the Heythen deluyered eueryone his londe from the hande of the kyng of Assiria?

34 Where are the goddesses of Hemath and Arphad? Where are the goddesses of Sepharaim Hena and Iua? Have they deliuered Samaria fro my hande?

35 Where is there one god amonge the goddesses of all londes, which hath deliuered his londe fro my hande? that the LORDE shulde deliuer Ierusalem fro my hande.

36 As for the people, they helde their peace, and gaue him no answer: for the kyng had commaunded and sayde: Answer me nothinge.

37 Then came Eliachim the sonne of Helchia ye steward, and Sobna the scribe, and Ioah the sonne of Assaph the Secretary vnto Ezechias with rente clothes, and tolde him the wordes of the chefe butler.

Chapter 19

1 Whan Ezechias ye kyng herde this, he rente his clothes, & put on a sack cloth, & wente in to ye house of the LORDE, & sent Eliachim the steward & Sobna the scribe with the Eldest prestes, clothed in sackcloth, vnto the prophet Esay ye sonne of Amos,

3 & they saide vnto him: Thus sayeth Ezechias: This is a daye of trouble, & of defiaunce & blasphemy. The childre are come to the byrth, & there is no strength to be deliuered of them.

4 Yf happily the LORDE thy God wil heare all the wordes of ye chefe butler, whom his lorde the kyng of Assiria hath sent, to blasphemie ye luyunge God, & to defye him with soch wordes as the LORDE thy God hath herde, therefore lifte thou vp thy prayer for the remnaunt, which are yet lefte behynde.

5 And wha kyng Ezechias seruantes came to Esay,

6 Esay sayde vnto them: Speake thus vnto youre lorde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Feare not thou the wordes yt thou hast herde, wherwith the kyng of Assiria seruantes haue blasphemed me.

7 Beholde, I wil put him in another mynde, so yt he shall heare tydings, & go agayne in to his awne cowntre, and in his awne londe wil I cause him to fall thorow the swerde.

8 And whan ye chefe butlar came agayne, he founde the kyng of Assiria fightinge agaynst Libna: for he had herde that he was departed from Lachis.

9 And he herde of Taracha the kyng of the Morians: Beholde, he is gone forth to fighte with the.

10 Then turned he back, & sent messengers to Ezechias, & caused to saye vnto him: Let not thy God disceaue the, on whom thou trustest & sayest: Ierusalem shal not be geue in to the hade of the kyng of Assiria.

11 Beholde, thou hast herde what the kynges of Assiria haue done vnto all londes, & how they daned them, & shalt thou be deliuered?

12 Haue ye goddesses of ye Heithen deliuered the, whom my father destroyed, as Gosan, Haran, Reseph, & the childre of Eden which were at Thalassar?

13 Where is ye kyng of Hemath, ye kyng of Arphad, & ye kyng of ye cite Sepharaim, Hena & Iua?

14 And whan Ezechias had receaued the letters of the messengers and had red them, he wente vp vnto the house of the LORDE, and layed them abroad before the LORDE, 15 & made his prayer before the LORDE, and sayde: O LORDE God of Israel, thou that syttest vpo the Cherubins, thou onely art God amonge all ye kyngdomes of the earth, thou hast made heauen and earth.

16 Encline thine eare O LORDE, and heare: open thine eyes, and beholde, and heare the wordes of Sennacherib, which hath sent hither to blaspheme the luyunge God.

17 It is true (O LORDE) that the kynges of Assiria haue destroyed the Heythen and their londe with the swerde, 18 and haue cast their goddesses in the fyre: for they were not Goddesses, but ye worke of mes hondes, wodd and stone, therefore haue they destroyed them.

19 But now O LORDE helpe thou vs out of his hande, that all the kyngdomes vpon earth maye knowe, that thou LORDE art God alone.

20 Then sent Esay the sonne of Amos vnto Ezechias, sayenge: Thus sayeth the LORDE God of Israel: Where as thou hast made thy prayer vnto me concernyng Sennacherib ye kyng of Assiria, I haue herde it.

21 This is it that the LORDE hath spoken agaynst him: He hath despysed ye and mocked the O virgin thou doughter Sion: he hath shake his heade at the O doughter Ierusalem.

22 Whom hast thou despysed & blasphemed? Ouer whom hast thou lifte vp thy voyce? Eue agaynst ye holy one in Israel hast thou lifte vp thine eyes:

23 thou hast blasphemed ye LORDE by thy messengers, and sayde: Thorow the multitude of my charettes haue I gone vp to the toppes of the mountaynes, vpon the sydes of Libanus. I haue hewen downe his hye Ceders and his chosen Pyne trees, and am come to the vttest habitacion of the wod of Carmel that belongeth vnto it.

24 I haue dygged and dronke vp the straunge waters, and with ye soles of my fete haue I dryed vp the See.

25 But hast thou not herde how that I haue done this longe agoo, and haue prepared it from the begynnyng? Now haue I caused it for to come, that contentious stronge cities mighte fall into a waist heape of stones, 26 & they that dwell therein, shal be faynte, and fearfull and a shamed, and shal be as the grasse vpon the felde, and as ye grene herbe and hay vpon the house toppes, that wythereth afore it be growne vp.

27 I knowe thy habitacion, thy out and ingoyng, and that thou ragest agaynst me.

28 For so moch then as thou ragest agaynst me, and seynge thy presumpcion is come vp to myne eares, therefore wyll I put a rynge in thy nose, and a byrdle bytt in thy lippes, and wyll bryng the agayne, euen the same waye thou camest.

29 And let this be a token vnto the O Ezechias. In this yeare eate yt which is fallen. in the seconde yeare soch as groweth of it selfe: In ye thirde yeare sowe and reape, and plante vynyardes, and eate the frute therof.

30 And the doughter Iuda which is escaped & remayneth, shall from hence forth take rote beneth, and beare frute aboute.

31 For the remnaunt shal go forth from Ierusalem, & they yt are escaped, shall go out fro mount Sion. The gelousy of the LORDE Zebaoth shall bryng this to passe.

32 Therefore thus sayeth the LORDE concernyng ye kyng of the Assyrians: He shall not come in to this cite, and shall shute no arowe therein, nether shal there come eny shyld before it, nether shall he dygge eny backe aboute it,

33 but shal go agayne the waye that he came, and shall not come in to this cite, sayeth the LORDE:

34 and I wyll defende this cite, to helpe it for myne awne sake, and for my seruaut Dauids sake.

35 And in the same nighte wente the anngell of the LORDE, and smote in the hoost of the Assyrians, an hundreth and fyue and foure score thousande men. And whan they gatt them vp in the mornynge, beholde, all laye full of deed coarses.

36 So Sennacherib the kyng of Assyria brake vp, and departed, and returned, and abode at Ninieue.

37 And as he worshipped in ye house of Nesrach his god, his awne sonnes Adramalech and Sarazer smote him with the swerde, and fled in to ye londe of Ararat. And Asarhadon his sonne was kyng in his steade.

Chapter 20

1 At that tyme was Ezechias deedsicke. And the prophet Esay ye sonne of Amos, came to him, & sayde vnto him: Thus sayeth ye LORDE: Set thine house in ordre for thou shalt dye & not lye.

2 And he turned, his face to the wall, and prayed vnto ye LORDE, and sayde:

3 Remembre (O LORDE) that I haue walked faithfully before the, & with a perfecte hert, and haue done yt which is good in thy syghte. And Ezechias wepte sore.

4 But whan Esay was not gone out of halfe the cite, ye worde of ye LORDE came to him, & sayde:

5 Turne back, & tell Ezechias ye prynce of my people: Thus sayeth ye LORDE God of thy father Daud: I haue herde thy praier, & considered yi teares. Beholde, I wil heale ye: on the thirde daye shalt thou go in to ye house of the LORDE, 6 & fiftene yeares wil I adde vnto yi life, & wyll deliuer the & this cite from the kyng of Assyria, & this cite wil I defende for myne awne sake, and for my seruaut Dauids sake.

7 And Esay sayde: Bringe hither a quantite of fygges. And whan they broughte them, they layed them vpon the sore, and it was healed.

8 Ezechias sayde vnto Esay: Which is ye token, that the LORDE wyll heale me, and that I shal go vp in to the house of ye LORDE on the thirde daye?

9 Esay sayde: This token shalt thou haue of the LORDE, that the LORDE shal do acordyng as he hath sayde. Shall the shadowe go ten degrees forwarde, or shal it turne ten degrees backwarde?

10 Ezechias sayde: It is an easy thinge for the shadowe to go ten degrees downwarde, yt is not my mynde: but that it go ten degrees backwarde.

11 Then cryed the prophet Esay vnto the LORDE, and the shadowe wente backe ten degrees in Achas Dyall, which he was descended afore.

12 At the same tyme Merodach Baladan the sonne of Baladan kyng of Babilon, sent letters and presentes vnto Ezechias, for he had herde that Ezechias had bene sicke.

13 And Ezechias reioysed with them, & shewed them all the house of rotes, the syluer, golde, spyces, and the best oyle, and the house of ordinance, and all that was founde in his treasures. There was nothinge in his house and in all his domynion, but Ezechias shewed it them.

14 Then came Esay the prophet vnto kyng Ezechias, and sayde vnto him: What haue these men sayde? and whence came they vnto the? Ezechias sayde: They came to me out of a farre cowntre, euen from Babilon.

15 He sayde: What haue they sene in thine house? Ezechias sayde: They haue sene all that is in my house, and there is nothyng in my treasures but I haue shewed it them.

16 Then sayde Esay vnto Ezechias: Heare the worde of the LORDE:

17 Beholde, the tyme commeth, that it shall all be caryed awaye vnto Babilon, and whatsoeuer thy fathers haue layed vp vnto this daye, and there shall nothinge be lefte, sayeth the LORDE.

18 Yee and the children which come of the, whom thou shalt beget, shalbe taken awaye, to be chamberlaynes in the kyng of Babilons palace.

19 Ezechias sayde vnto Esay: It is good that the LORDE hath spoken. And he sayde morouer: Let there be peace yet and faithfulness in my tyme.

20 What more there is to saye of Ezechias, and all his power, and what he dyd, and of the pole and water condyte, wher by he conueyed water in to the cite, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda.

21 And Ezechias fell on slepe with his fathers, and Manasses his sonne was kyng in his steade.

Chapter 21

1 Manasses was twolue yeare olde, when he was made kinge, and reigned fyue and fyfthe yeare at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Hephziba.

2 And he dyd that which was euell in ye sight of the LORDE (euen after the abhominacions of the Heithen, whom the LORDE expelled before the children of Israel) and waxed frowarde,

3 and builded vp the hie places which his father Ezechias had destroyed, and sett vp Baals altares, and made groues (as Achab the kynge of Israel dyd) and worshipped all the hoost of heauen, and serued them.

4 And buylded altares in the LORDES house, wherof the LORDE sayde: I wyll set my name at Ierusalem.

5 And in both the courtes of the house of the LORDE buylded he altares vnto all the hoost of heaue.

6 And caused his sonne to go thorow the fyre, and regarded byrdes cryenge and tokens, and maynteyned soythsayers, and expounders of tokens, and so moch dyd he of this which was euell in the sight of the LORDE, that he prouoked him vnto wrath.

7 A groue Idol also which he had made, set he in the house, wherof the LORDE sayde vnto Dauid and to Salomon his sonne: In this house, and at Ierusalem (which I haue chosen out of all the trybes of Israel) wil I set my name for euer,

8 and wyl not cause ye fote of Israel to be remoued eny more from the londe, which I gaue vnto their fathers, yee so that they obserue and do acordynge vnto all that I haue charged them, and after all the lawe that my seruauant Moses comaunded them.

9 Neuertheles they wolde not herken, but Manasses discaued them, so yt they dyd worse then the Heithen, whom the LORDE expelled before ye children of Israel.

10 Then spake the LORDE by his seruauentes the prophetes, and saide:

11 Because that Manasse the kynge of Iuda hath gone these abhominacions, which are worse then all ye abhominacions that the Amorites haue done which were before them, and hath caused Iuda also to synne agaynst their God,

12 therefore thus sayeth the LORDE God of Israel: Beholde, I wyll brynge soch a plage vpon Ierusalem and Iuda, that who so euer heareth it, both his eares shal glose, 13 and ouer Ierusalem wyll I stretch forth the lyne of Samaria, and the weighte of the house of Achab, and wyll wpe out Ierusalem, euen as one wypeth a platter, and I wyl ouerthrowe it.

14 And ye remnaunt of myne inheritaunce wil I cast out, & scater them abrode, & wil deluyer them in to the hades of their enemies, to be spoyled and rent of all their enemies:

15 because they haue done yt which is euell in my sighte, & haue prouoked me vnto wrath, sence the daye that I broughte their fathers out of Egipte, vnto this daye. 16 Manasses also shed exceedinge moch innocet bloude, so longe tyll Ierusalem was full on euery syde, without the synnes wherwith he caused Iuda for to synne, so yt they dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE.

17 What more there is to saie of Manasses, and all that he dyd, and his synnes which he comytted, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda.

18 And Manasses fell on slepe with his fathers, and was buried in the garden besyde his house, namely, in the garden of Vsa, and Amon his sonne was kynge in his steade.

19 Two and twenty yeare olde was Amon when he was made kynge, & he reigned two yeare at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Mesumeleth, ye daughter of Harus of Iatba,

20 and he dyd euell in the sighte of the LORDE, as Manasses his father had done,

21 and walked in all the waye which his father walked, and serued the Idols which his father had serued, and worshipped them,

22 and forsoke the LORDE the God of his father, and walked not in the waye of the LORDE.

23 And his seruauentes conspyred agaynst Amon, & slewe the kynge in his house.

24 But the people of the londe slewe all them yt had cospyred agaynst kynge Amon. And the people of the londe made Iosias his sonne kynge in his steade.

25 As for other thinges that Amon dyd, beholde, they are wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda.

26 And he was buried in his graue in Vsas garde. And Iosias his sonne was kynge in his steade.

Chapter 22

1 Iosias was eight yeare olde wha he was made kynge, & reigned one and thirtie yeare at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Iedida the daughter of Adaia of Bascath,

2 and he dyd that which was righte in ye sighte of the LORDE, and walked in all ye waye of Dauid his father, & turned not asyde, nether to the righte hande ner to the lefte.

3 And in the eighteenth yeare of kynge Iosias, the kynge sent Saphan ye sonne of Asalia the sonne of Mesulam the scribe, in to ye house of the LORDE, and sayde: 4 Go vp to Helchias the hie prest, that the money that is brought vnto ye house of ye LORDE (which the tresholde keepers haue gathered of ye people)

5 maye be deluyered vnto them, that they maye geue it to the workmen which are appoynted in the house of the LORDE, & to geue it vnto the labourers in the house (yt they maye repayre the decaye of the house) namely,

6 vnto the carpenters, and buylders, & masons, and to them yt bie timber & fre stone for the repaireing of the house:

7 but so yt there be no accomptes taken of them concernynge the money, that is vnder their hande, but yt they deale withall vpon credence.

8 And Helchias ye prest sayde vnto Sapha the scribe: I haue founde the boke of the lawe in the house of the LORDE. And Helchias gaue the boke vnto Saphan, that he might reade it.

9 And Saphan the scribe bare it vnto the kynge, and brought him worde agayne, & sayde: Thy seruauentes haue gathered together ye money yt was founde in the house, & haue deluyered it vnto the workme, which are appoynted in ye house of the LORDE.

10 And Saphan the scribe tolde the kynge and sayde: Helchias the prest hath deluyered me a boke, and Saphan red it before the kynge.

11 But when the kynge herde the wordes of the boke of lawe, he rente his clothes.

12 And the kynge comaunded Helchias the prest, & Ahicam the sonne of Saphan, & Achbor the sonne of Michaia, and Saphan the scribe, & Asaia ye kynges seruauant, and sayde:

13 Go yor waye and axe counsell at the LORDE for me, for the people, and for all Iuda, concernynge the wordes of this boke that is founde: for greate is the wrath of the LORDE that is kyndled ouer vs, because or fathers haue not herkened vnto the wordes of this boke, to do all that is wrytten vnto vs therin.

14 Then wente Helchias the prest, and Ahicam, Achbor, Saphan & Asaia vnto Hulda the prophetisse ye wife of Sellu the sonne of Thecua the sonne of Harham the keeper of ye clothes, and she dwelt at Ierusalem in the seconde porte, and they spake vnto her.

15 And she sayde vnto them: Thus sayeth ye LORDE God of Israel: Tell the man that sent you vnto me,

16 Thus sayeth the LORDE: Beholde, I wil brynge euell vpon this place, and the inhabitants therof, euen all the wordes of ye lawe which the kynge hath caused to be red,

17 because they haue forsaken me, and brent incense vnto other goddes, to prouoke me vnto wrath with all the workes of their handes. Therefore is my wrath kindled agaynst this cite, and shall not be quenched.

18 But tell this vnto the kynge of Iuda, which hath sent you to axe counsell at the LORDE: Thus sayeth the LORDE God of Israel: Because thine hert is not departed fro the wordes which thou hast herde,

19 and hast humbled thyselfe before the LORDE, to heare what I haue spoken agaynst this place and the inhabitants therof (how that they shall become a very desolacion and curse) & hast rente thy clothes, and wepte before me, I haue herde it, sayeth the LORDE:

20 therefore wyll I gather the vnto thy fathers, so yt thou shalt be put in to thy graue in peace, and thine eyes shall not see all the euell that I wyll brynge vpon this place. And they brought the kynge worde agayne.

Chapter 23

1 And the kynge sent forth, and all the Elders in Iuda and Ierusalem resorted vnto him,

2 and the kynge wente vp in to the house of the LORDE, and all the men of Iuda, and all the inhabitants of Ierusalem with him, the prestes and prophetes and all the people both small and greate, and all the wordes of the boke of the couenaunt that was founde in the house of the LORDE, were red in their eares.

3 And the kinge stode vpon a piler, and made a couenaunt before the LORDE, that they shulde walke after the LORDE, and to kepe his commaundementes, witnesses, and ordinaunces with all their hert and with all their soule, yt they shulde set vp the wordes of this couenaunt, which are wrytten in this boke. And all the people entred in to the couenaunt.

4 And the kynge comaunded Helchias the hie prest, and the prestes of the secode course, and the keepers of the thresholde, yt they shulde put out of the temple all the vessels which were made for Baal, and for the groue, and for all the hoost of heauen, & he brent them without Ierusalem in the valley of Cedron, and the dust of them was caryed vnto Bethel.

5 And he put downe the Kemurims, who the kynges of Iuda had founded, to burne incense vpon the hie places, in the cities of Iuda, and aboute Ierusalem. He put downe also them that brent incense vnto Baal, to the Sonne, and the Mone, and the twolue tokens, and to all ye hoost of heauen.

6 And the groue caused he to be caryed from the house of the LORDE out of Ierusalem in to ye valley of Cedron, and brent it in the valley of Cedron, and made it to dust, and cast the dust vpon the graues of ye comen people.

7 And he brake downe the whorekeepers houses which were by the house of the LORDE, wherin the wemen made mansions for the groue.

8 And he caused all the prestes for to come out of the cities of Iuda, and suspended ye hie places, where the prestes brent incense, from Geba vnto Berseba. And brake downe the hie places in the portes, that were at ye dore of the gate of Iosua ye shreue of the cite, at the lefte hande as one goeth to the cite porte. 9 Yet had not the prestes of the hie places offred vpon the altare of the LORDE at Ierusalem, but ate vnto the bred amonge their brethren.

10 He suspended Tophet also in the valley of the children of Ennon, that noman shulde cause his sonne or his daughter to go thorow ye fyre vnto Moloch.

11 And he put downe the horses, which ye kynges of Iuda had set vnto the Sonne, at the intringe in to the house of the LORDE, besyde the chest of Netham Melech the chamberlayne which was at Paruarim, and the charettes of the Sonne brent he with fyre, 12 and the altares vpon the rofe of Achabs perler, which the kynges of Iuda had made. And the altares which Manasses had made in the two courtes of the house of the LORDE, dyd the kyng breake downe. And ranne from thence, and cast the dust of them in to the broke Cedron.

13 And the hie places that were before Ierusalem on the righte hande of Mount Mashith which Salomon the kyng of Israel had buylded vnto Astaroth the abhomyacion of Sidon, and to Camos the abhominacion of Moab, and to Malcom the abhominacion of the children of Ammon, those did the kyng suspende, 14 and brake the pilers, and roted out the groues, and fylled their places with mens bones.

15 And the altare at Bethel, and the hie place that Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat made, which caused Israel to synne, the same altare brake he downe, and the hie place, & brent the hie place, and made it to dust, and brent vp the groue.

16 And Iosias turned him aboute, and sawe the graues that were vpo the mount, and caused the bones to be fetched out of the graues, and brent them vpo the altare, and suspended it, acordinge to the worde of the LORDE, which the man of God cryed out, that tolde this before.

17 And he sayde: What titell is this, that I se here? And the men of the cite sayde vnto him: It is the graue of the man of God, which came from Iuda, and cryed out this that thou hast done agaynst ye altare of Bethel.

18 And he sayde: Let him lye, no man touche his bones. Thus were his bones delyuered with the bones of the prophet that came from Samaria.

19 He put away also all the houses of the hie places in the cities of Samaria (which the kynges of Israel had made to prouoke ye LORDE vnto wrath) and dyd with them acordinge to all as he had done at Bethel.

20 And all ye prestes of the hie places that were there, offred he vp vpon the altares, and so brent he mens bones theron, and came agayne to Ierusalem.

21 And the kyng commaunded the people, and sayde: Kepe Easter vnto the LORDE youre God, as it is wrytten in the boke of this couenaunt.

22 For there was no Easter so kepte as this, sence the tyme of the Iudges which iudged Israel, and in all the tymes of the kynges of Israel, and of the kynges of Iuda:

23 but in the eighteenth yeare of kyng Iosias, was this Easter kepte vnto the LORDE at Ierusalem.

24 And Iosias expelled all soythysayers, expounders of tokes, ymagines and Idols, and all the abhominacions which were sene in the londe of Iuda and at Ierusalem, that he mighte set vp the wordes of the lawe, which were wrytten in the boke, that Helchias ye prest foude in the house of ye LORDE.

25 His like was no kyng before him, which so couerted vnto ye LORDE wt all his hert, wt all his soule, & with all his strength, acordinge to all the lawe of Moses. And after him came there not vp soch another.

26 Yet turned not the LORDE from the indignacion of his greate wrath, wherwith he was displeased ouer Iuda, because of all the prouocacion wherwith Manasses had prouoked him.

27 And ye LORDE sayde: I wil put Iuda out of my presence also, euen as I haue put away Israel: and this cite which I haue chosen, wyl I cast out, namely, Ierusalem, & the house wherof I sayde: My name shalbe there.

28 What more there is to saye of Iosias, and all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda.

29 In his tyme wete Pharao Necho ye kyng of Egipte vp agaynst the kyng of Assyria by the water Euphrates. But kyng Iosias wente agaynst him, and dyed at Megiddo, wha he had sene him.

30 And his seruantes caried him deed fro Megiddo, & brought him to Ierusalem, & buryed him in his graue. And the people of the londe toke Ioahas the sonne of Iosias, and anoynted him, and made him kyng in his fathers steade.

31 Thre & twentye yeare olde was Ioahas wha he was made kyng, & reigned thre monethes at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Hamutal ye daughter of Ieremia of Libna.

32 And he dyd yt which was euell in ye sight of ye LORDE, euen as his fathers had done.

33 But Pharao Necho toke him presoner of Reblatha in the londe of Hemath, yt he shulde not reigne at Ierusalem: & raysed a taxe vpo the londe, an hundreth taletes of siluer, & one talente of golde.

34 And Pharao Necho made Eliachim ye sonne of Iosias kyng in his father Iosias steade, & turned his name Ioachim. But Ioahas toke he, & brought him in to Egipte where he dyed.

35 And Ioachim gaued the siluer & golde vnto Pharao, yet taxed he the londe, yt he might geue ye syluer acordinge to Pharaos comaundement. Euery one amonge the people in ye londe taxed he after his abilitie in siluer & golde, to geue it vnto Pharao.

36 Fyue & twentye yeare olde was Ioachim whan he was made kyng, & reigned eleuen yeares at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Sebida ye daughter of Pedaia of Ruma, 37 & he dyd euell in the sight of the LORDE, euen as his fathers had done.

Chapter 24

1 In his tyme came vp Nabuchodonosor ye kyng of Babilon, & Ioachim was in subieccion vnto him iij. yeare. And he turned back, & rebelled agaynst him.

2 And ye LORDE sent men of warre vpon him out of Chaldea, out of Syria, out of Moab, & fro amonge the childre of Ammon, & caused the for to come in to Iuda, to destroie it acordinge to the worde of the LORDE, which he spake by his seruantes the prophetes.

3 It fortunede eue so vnto Iuda, acordinge to ye worde of the LORDE, that he wolde put them away from his presence, because of ye synnes of Manasses which he dyd,

4 & because of the innocent bloude that he shed. And he fylled Ierusalem with innocent bloude, therefore wolde not the LORDE be reconcyled.

5 What more there is to saye of Ioachim, and all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda.

6 And Ioachim fell on slepe with his fathers. And Ioachim his sonne was kyng in his steade.

7 And the kyng of Egipte came nomore out of his londe: for the kyng of Babilon had conquered all that was the kyng of Egiptes, from the ryuer of Egipte vnto ye water Euphrates.

8 Eightene yeare olde was Ioachim whan he was made kyng, and reigned thre monethes at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Nebustha the daughter of Elnathan of Ierusalem.

9 And he dyd euell in the sighte of the LORDE, euen as his father had done.

10 At the same tyme wente the seruantes of Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babilon vp to Ierusalem, and came vpon the cyte with ordinaunce of warre.

11 And whan Nabuchodonosor and his seruantes came to the cite they layed sege vnto it.

12 But Ioachim ye kyng of Iuda wente forth to the kyng of Babilon with his mother, with his seruantes, with his rulers and chamberlaynes. And the kyng of Babilon receaued him in the eight yeare of his reigne.

13 And he toke forth fro thence all the treasure in the house of the LORDE, and in ye kynges house, and brake all the golden vessell yt Salomon the kyng of Israel had made in the house of the LORDE (acordinge as the LORDE had sayde)

14 and caryed awaye all Ierusalem, all the rulers, all the mightie men, euen ten thousande presoners, and all the carpenters, and all the smithes, and lefte none behynde but the poore people of the londe.

15 And he caryed Ioachim awaye vnto Babilon, and the kynges mother, the kinges wyues, and his chamberlaynes: and ye mightie men of the londe led he awaye presoners also from Ierusalem vnto Babilon, 16 and seuen thousande of the best men, and a thousande carpenters and smythes, and all the stronge men of warre.

17 And the kyng of Babilon made Matania his vnkle kyng in his steade, and turned his name Sedechias.

18 One and twentye yeare olde was Sedechias, whan he was made kyng, and reigned eleuen yeare at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Amithal the daughter of Ieremia of Libna.

19 And he dyd euell in the sight of the LORDE, eue as Ioachim dyd:

20 for thus fortunede it vnto Ierusalem thorow the wrath of the LORDE, tyll he had cast them out fro his presence. And Sedechias fell awaye fro the kyng of Babilon.

Chapter 25

1 And it fortunede, that in ye nyenth yeare of his reigne, vpon the tenth daye of the tenth moneth, Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babilon came with all his power agaynst Ierusalem. And they laied sege vnto it, and buylded stronge holdes rounde aboute it.

2 Thus was the cite beseged vnto the eleuenth yeare of kyng Sedechias.

3 But on ye nyenth daye of the fourth moneth was the hunger so stronge in the cite, that the people of the londe had nothinge to eate.

4 And the cite was broken vp, & all the men of warre fled in the night by the waye of the porte betwene the two walles, which goeth to the kynges garde. But the Caldees laye aboute the cite. And he fled by the waye to the playne felde.

5 Neuertheles the power of the Caldees folowed after the kyng, and toke him in the plaine felde of Iericho: and all the men of warre that were with him, were scatered abrode from him.

6 And they toke the kyng, and led him vp to the kyng of Babilon vnto Reblatha. And he gaued iudgmet vpon him.

7 And they slewe Ezechias children before his eyes, and put out Sedechias eies, and bounde him with cheynes, and caryed him vnto Babilon.

8 Vpon the seuenth daye of the fyfth monet, that is the ninetenth yeare of Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babilon, came Nabusaradan the chefe captayne the kyng of Babilons seruaut, vnto Ierusalem, 9 and brent ye house of the LORDE, and the kynges house, & all the houses at Ierusalem, and all the greate houses brent he with fyre.

10 And all the power of the Caldees which was with the chefe captayne, brake downe the walles rounde aboute Ierusalem.

11 As for the other people that yet were lefte in the cite, and were falle vnto the kinge of Babilon, and the other comen people, Nabusaradan the chefe captayne caryed them awaye.

12 And of the poorest people dyd the chefe captaine leaue in ye londe to be wyngardeners and plowmen.

13 But the brasen pilers in the house of the LORDE, and the seates, and the brasen lauer that was in the house of the LORDE, dyd ye Caldees breake downe, and caryed the metall vnto Babilon.

14 And the pottes, shouels, fleshokes, spones, & all ye brasen vessell that was occupied in the seruyce, caried they awaye.

15 And ye chefe captayne toke awaye ye censors and basens yt were of golde and syluer, 16 two pilers, one lauer, and the seates yt Salomon had made for ye house of the LORDE. The metall of all these ornamentes coulede not be weyed.

17 Eightene cubytes hye was one piler, and ye knoppe theron was of brasse also, & thre cubytes hye: & the rope and the pomgranates vpon the knoppe rounde aboute, were all of brasse. After the same maner was the other piler also with the rope.

18 And the chefe captayne toke Seraia the prest of the first course, & Sophony the prest of the seconde course, and thre dorekeepers,

19 and one chamberlayne out of the cite, which was appoynted ouer ye men of warre: and fyue men that were euer before the kyng, which were founde in the cite: and Sophar the captayne, which taught the people of ye londe to fighte: and thre score men of ye people of the londe, that were founde in the cite:

20 these dyd Nabusaradan ye chefe captayne take, and broughte them to the kyng of Babilon vnto Reblatha.

21 And the kyng of Babilon slewe them at Reblatha in ye londe of Hemath. Thus was Iuda caried awaye out of his awne londe.

22 But ouer the remnaunt of the people in the londe of Iuda, whom Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babilon lefte behynde, he set Godolias ye sonne of Ahicam ye sonne of Saphan.

23 Now wha all the captaynes of the soudyers, & the men herde, that the kyng of Babilon had made Godolias gouernoure, they came to Godolias vnto Mispas, namely, Ismael ye sonne of Nathanas, & Iohanna ye sonne Carea, & Seraia ye sonne of Tanhometh the Netopharite, & Iesanas ye sonne of Maechaty wt their men.

24 And Godolias sware vnto them & to their men, & sayde vnto them: Feare not ye ye officers of the Caldees, tary in the londe, & submytte youre selues vnto the kyng of Babilon, & ye shal prospere.

25 But in the seuenth moneth came Ismael the sonne of Nathanas the sonne of Elisama (of the kynges kynred) and ten men with him, and slewe Godolias, and the Iewes and Caldees that were with him at Mispas.

26 Then all the people gat them vp, both small and greate, and the captaynes of the hoost, and came in to Egipte, for they were afrayed of ye Caldees.

27 Howbeit in the seuen and thirtieth yeare after that Ioachim the kyng of Iuda was caried awaye on the seuen and twenty daye of the twolueth moneth, Euilmerodach the kyng of Babilon in the first yeare of his reigne, lifte vp the heade of Ioachim ye kyng of Iuda out of preson,

28 and spake louyngly vnto him, and set his trone aboute ye trones of ye kynges that were with him at Babilon, 29 and chaunged the clothes of his captiuyte. And he ate allwaye before him as longe as he lyued.

7 So Daudid dwelt in ye castell, therfore was it called ye cite of Daudid.

8 And he buylded ye cite roud aboute, fro Millo forth on euery syde. As for ye remnaunt of ye cite, Iobab buylded it, & repayed it.

18 The brake those thre in to the Philistynes hoost, and drue of the water out of the well at Bethleem vnder the gate, and caried it, and broughte it vnto Daudid. Neuertheles he wolde not drynke it, but poured it vnto the LORDE, 19 and sayde: God let this be farre fro me, yt I shulde do it, and drynke the bloude of these men in ye parell of their life: for with the parell of their life haue they broughte it: therfore wolde he not drynke it. This dyd the thre Worthies.

20 Abisai the brother of Iobab, he was the chefest amoge thre. And he lifte vp his speare, and smote thre hundreth. And he was famous amoge thre, 22 Benaia the sonne of Ioiada the sonne of Ishail of Cabzeel, was a man of greate actes. He smote two lyons of the Moabites. And he wente downe, and smote a lyon in the myddes of a well in the tyme of snowe.

 16 There came of the children of Benlamin also and of Iuda vnto the castell of Dauid.
 17 But Dauid wente forth vnto them, and answered and sayde vnto them: Yf ye come to me in peace, and to helpe me, my hert shal be with you. But yf ye come vpo disceate, and to be mine aduersaries (where as there is yet no vnrighte in me) the God of oure fathers loke vpon it, and rebuke it.

 18 Neuertheles the sprete endued Amasai the captayne amouge thirtie, and he sayde: We are thine O Dauid, and holde with the thou sonne of Isai. Peace, peace be with the, peace be with thy helpers, for thy God helpeth the. Then Dauid receaued them, and made them captaynes ouer the men of warre.
 19 And of Manasses there fell certaine vnto Dauid, whan he came to the battayll with the Philistynes agaynst Saul, and helped them not, for the prynces of ye Philistynes councel to let him go from them, and sayde: Yf he fell vnto his lorde Saul, it mighte cost vs oure neckes.
 20 Now wha he departed vnto Siclag, there fell vnto him of Manasses, Adna, Iosabad, Iediael, Michael, Iosabad, Elihu, Zilthai, heades ouer thousandes in Manasses.
 21 And they helped Dauid against the men of warre: for they were all valeaunt Worthies, and were captaynes ouer the hoost.
 22 And euery daye came there some to Dauid, to helpe him, till there was a greate hoost as an hoost of God.
 23 And this is the nombre of the heades harnessed vnto the warre, which came to Dauid vnto Hebron, for to turne the kyngdome of Saul vnto him, acordinge to the worde of the LORDE.
 24 The childe of Iuda, which handled speares and swerdes, were sixe thousande, & eight hundreth ready harnessed vnto ye warre.

 30 Of ye children of Ephraim, twentie thousande and eighte hundreth valeaunt men of armes, and famous in the house of their fathers.
 31 Of the halfe trybe of Manasses, eightene thousande, named by name, to come and make Dauid kynge.
 32 Of the children of Isachar (which were men of vnderstondyng, whan nede requyred to knowe what Israel shulde do) two hundreth captaynes, and all their brethren folowed their worde.
 33 Of Sabulon, soch as wente forth in the hoost to ye warre, ready with all maner of weapens for the battayll, fyfthe thousande, beyng of one mynde to kepe them selues in ordre.

34 Of Nephtali, a thousande captaynes, & with them soch as handled shyldes and speare, seuen and thyrty thousande.

 38 All these men of warre, ready harnessed to the battayll, came with a whole hert vnto Hebron, to make Dauid kynge ouer all Israel. And all Israel besyde were of one hert, that Dauid shulde be made kynge.
 39 And there were they with Dauid thre dayes, eatyng and drynkynge: for their brethren had prepared for them.
 40 And soch neighbours as were aboute them vntyll Isachar, Zabulon and Nephtali, brought bred vpon Asses, Camels, Mules and oxen to eate: meel, fyges, rasens, wyne, oyle, oxen, shepe, very many: for there was ioye in Israel.

Chapter 13

1 And Dauid helde a counsell with the captaynes ouer thousandes and ouer hundreds, and with all the prynces,
 2 and sayde vnto all the congregacion of Israel: Yf it lyke you, and yf it be of the LORDE oure God, let vs sende forth on euery syde to oure other brethren in all the countrees of Israel, and to the prestes and Leuites in the cities where they haue suburbes, yt they maye be gathered together vnto vs,
 3 and let vs fetch the Arke of oure God agayne vnto vs: for by Sauls tyme we axed after it.
 4 The sayde the whole cogregacion, that the same shulde be done, for it pleased all the people well.
 5 So Dauid gathered all Israel together from Sihor of Egipte, tyll a man come vnto Hemath, to fetch the Arke of God from Kiriath Iearim.
 6 And Dauid wente vp wt all Israel to Kiriath Iearim, which lieth in Iuda, to brynge from thence the Arke of God the LORDE, that syteth vpo the Cherubins, where the name is named:
 7 and they caused the Arke of God to be caried vpo a new cart from the house of Abinadab. Vsa and his brethren droue the cart.
 8 As for Dauid and all Israel, they played with all their strength before God, with songes, with harpes, with psalteries, with tabrettes, with Cymbales and trompes.
 9 But whan they came to the barne floore of Chidon, Vsa stretched out his hande to holde the Arke: for the oxen wente out asyde.
 10 Then waxed the wrath of the LORDE feare ouer Vsa, & smote him, because he stretched out his hade to the Arke, so yt he dyed there before God.

 11 The was Dauid sory, because ye LORDE had made soch a rente vpo Vsa, and called the place Perez Vsa, vnto this daye.
 12 And Dauid stode in feare of God the same daye, & sayde: How shal I bryng ye Arke of God vnto me?
 13 Therefore wolde he not let ye Arke of God be broughte vnto him in to ye cite of Dauid, but caried it in to ye house of Obed Edom the Gathite.
 14 So the Arke of God abode with Obed Edom in his house thre monethes. And ye LORDE blessed Obed Edoms house and all that he had.

Chapter 14

1 And Hiram ye kynge of Tyre sent messaungers vnto Dauid and Cedre tymber, and masons and carpenters, to buylde him an house.
 2 And Dauid perceaued, that the LORDE had confirmed him kynge ouer Israel: for his kyngdome increased for his people of Israels sake.
 3 And Dauid toke yet mo wyues at Ierusalem, & begat yet mo sonnes & daughters.
 4 And the names of them yt were borne vnto him at Ierusalem, are these: Sammua, Sobab, Nathan, Salomon,
 5 Iebegar, Elisua, Elipalet,
 6 Noga, Nepheg, Iaphia,
 7 Elisamma, Baal Iada, Eliphalet.
 8 And whan the Philistynes herde that Dauid was anoynted kynge ouer all Israel, they wente vp all to seke Dauid. Whan Dauid herde that, he wente forth agaynst them.
 9 And the Philistynes came, and scatered the selues beneth in ye valley of Rephaim.
 10 And Dauid axed counsell at God, & sayde: Shal I go vp agaynst the Philistynes? and wilt thou delyuer them in to my hande? The LORDE sayde vnto him: Go vp, and I wil delyuer them in to thy hande.
 11 And whan they were gone vp to Baal Prasim, Dauid smote them there. And Dauid sayde: God hath deuyded myne enemies thorow my hande, euen as the water parteth asunder: therefore called they the place Baal Prasin.
 12 And there lefte they their goddes. Then commaunded Dauid to burne them with fyre.
 13 But the Philistynes gat them thither agayne, and scatered them selues beneth in ye valley.
 14 And Dauid axed counsell at God agayne. And God sayde vnto him: Thou shalt not go vp behynde them, but turne the from them, that thou mayest come vpon the ouer agaynst the Peertrees.
 15 So whan thou hearest aboute vpon the Peertrees the noyse of the goyng, go thou forth then to the batayll: for God is gone forth then before the to smyte the hoost of the Philistynes.
 16 And Dauid dyd as God commaunded him. And they smote the hoost of the Philistynes from Gibeon forth vnto Gaser.

17 And Dauids name was noysed out in all londes. And the LORDE caused ye feare of him to come vpo all the Heythen.

Chapter 15

1 And he buylded him houses in the cite of Dauid, & made ready a place for ye Arke of God, & pitched a Tabernacle for it.

2 At that tyme sayde Dauid: The Arke of God is not to be borne, but onely of ye Leuites: for them hath the LORDE chosen to beare the Arke of the LORDE, and to mynister vnto him for euer.

3 Therefore gathered Dauid all Israel together vnto Ierusalem, to brynge vp the Arke of the LORDE vnto the place which he had prepared for it.

4 And Dauid broughte the children of Aaron & the Leuites together.

5 Of the children of Kahath: Vriël the chefe wt his brethren, an C. and twenty.

6 Of the children of Merari: Asaia the chefe wt his brethre, two C. and twenty.

7 Of the childre of Gerson: Ioel the chefe wt his brethren, an C. and thirtie.

8 Of ye childre of Elizaphan: Semaia the chefe wt his brethren, two hundreth.

9 Of the childre of Hebron: Eliel the chefe, with his brethre, foure score.

10 Of the children of Vsiel: Amminadab the chefe, with his brethren, an hudreth and twolue.

11 And Dauid called Sadoc and Abiathar the prestes, and the Leuites, namely Vriël, Asaia, Ioeli, Semaia, Eliel, Aminadab, 12 and sayde vnto them: Ye are the heades of ye fathers amonge the Leuites: sanctifye yor selues therfore & youre brethre, yt ye maye brynge vp the Arke of the LORDE God of Israel, to the place yt I haue prepared for it.

13 For a fore whan ye were not there, the LORDE oure God made a rent amonge vs, because we soughte him not, as we shulde haue done.

14 So ye prestes & the Leuites halowed the selues, yt they mighte brynge vp the Arke of the LORDE God of Israel.

15 And the children of Leui bare the Arke of God the LORDE vpon their shulders with the staues theron, as Moses commaunded accordinge to ye worde of the LORDE.

16 And Dauid spake vnto ye rulers of ye Leuites, that they shulde ordeyne some of their brethren to be syngers with psalteries, harpes and loude instrumentes, and Cimbales, to syng loude with ioie.

17 Then the Leuites appoynted Heman ye sonne of Ioel: and of his brethren Assaph the sonne of Barachias: and of the children of Merari their brethren, Ethan the sonne of Cusaia:

18 and with them their brethren of the seconde course, namely Zacharias, Iaesiël, Semiramoth, Iehiël, Vnni, Eliab, Benaia, Maeseia, Mathithia, Elipheleia, Mikneia, Obed Edom, Ieiel, the dore keepers.

19 For Heman, Assaph and Ethan were syngers, with brasen belles makyng a loude noyse:

20 but Zacharias, Iaesiël, Semiramoth, Iehiël, Vnni, Eliab, Maeseia & Benaia with Phalteries to Alamothe:

21 Mathithia, Elipheleia, Mikneia, Obed Edom, Ieiel & Asasia with harpes to syng aboute them on hye.

22 Chenania the ruler of the Leuites was the master of Musick to teach them for to syng, for he was a man of vnderstandinge.

23 And Barachias and Elcana were the dorekeepers of the Arke.

24 But Sachania, Iosaphat, Nathaneel, Amasai, Zacharias, Benaia, Elieser the prestes, blewe the trompettes before ye Arke of God. And Obed Edom and Iehia were dorekeepers of the Arke.

25 So Dauid and the Elders of Israel, and the captaynes ouer thousandes wente vp to fetch the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE out of the house of Obed Edom wt ioie.

26 And whan God had helped the Leuites yt bare the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt, there were offred seuen bullockes & seuen rames, 27 And Dauid had a lynne garment vpo him, and so had all the Leuites yt bare the Arke, and ye syngers, and Chenania the master of Musick wt the syngers. Dauid had an ouerbody cote of linnen vpon him also.

28 Thus all Israel brought vp the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE with myrth, with trompettes, tabrettes, & loude Cymbales, with psalteries and harpes.

29 Now whan the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE came in to the cite of Dauid, Michol ye daughter of Saul loked out at a wyndowe: & wha she sawe kyngye Dauid daunsyng & playenge, she despysed him in hir hert.

Chapter 16

1 And wha they brought in the Arke of God, they set it in ye Tabernacle, that Dauid had pitched for it, and offred burntofferings & thankofferynges before God.

2 And wha Dauid had ended the burntofferings and thankofferynges, he blessed the people in the name of the LORDE,

3 & distributed vnto euery man in Israel (both vnto man and woman) a cake of bred, and a pece of flesh and a meece of potage.

4 And he appoynted before the Arke of ye LORDE certayne Leuites to mynister, that they shulde geue prayse, thankes and loauinges vnto the LORDE God of Israel: 5 namely Assaph the first, Zacharias the seconde, Ieiel, Semiramoth, Iehiël, Mathithia, Eliab, Benaia, Obed Edom and Iehiël, with psalteries and harpes. But Assaph with loude Cymbales.

6 Benaia and Iehasiel the prestes with tabrettes, allwaye before the Arke of ye couenaunt of God.

7 At the same tyme ordeyned Dauid first of all to geue thakes vnto the LORDE by Assaph and his brethren.

8 O geue thankes vnto the LORDE, call vpon his name, tell the people what thinges he hath done.

9 O let youre songes be of him: prayse him, and let youre talkyng be of all his wonderous workes.

10 Geue his holy name a good reporte: let ye hert of them reioyce, that seke the LORDE.

11 O seke the LORDE and his strength, seke his face euermore.

12 Remebre his maruelous workes that he hath done, his wonders, and the iudgmetes of his mouth.

13 Ye sede of Israel his seruauant, ye children of Iacob his chosen.

14 He is the LORDE oure God, his iudgmetes are in all londes.

15 Be myndefull euer of his couenaunt what he hath commaunded in to a thousande generacions.

16 Which he made with Abraham, & his ooth vnto Isaac.

17 And he confirmed the same vnto Iacob for a perpetuall lawe, and to Israel for an euerlastinge couenaunt.

18 And sayde: Vnto the wyl I geue ye londe of Canaan, ye metelyne of yor inheritaunce.

19 Wha they were yet but small & fewe in nobre, and straungers in the same londe.

20 And they wente from one nacion to another, & from one realme to another people.

21 He suffred no man to hurte them, and reproued euen kynges for their sakes.

22 Touch not myne anoynted, & do my prophetes no harme.

23 O syng vnto ye LORDE, let all ye earth be tellyng of his saluacion from daye to daye.

24 Declare his holynes amoge the Heythe, & his wonderous workes amonge ye people.

25 For the LORDE is greate, and can not worthely be prayed, and more to he had in awe then all goddes.

26 As for all the goddes of the Heythe, they are but Idols: but it is the LORDE that made the heuens.

27 Thankesgeuyng and worshipe are before him, strength and ioie is in his place.

28 Ascrybe vnto the LORDE ye kynreds of nacions: ascrybe vnto the LORDE worshipe and strength.

29 Ascrybe vnto the LORDE the honoure of his name: bryng presentes, and come before him, and worshipe ye LORDE in ye bewtye of holynes.

30 Let the whole earth stode in awe of him: he hath made the compase of the worlde so fast, that it can not be moued.

31 Let the heuens reioyse, and let the earth be glad: and let it be tolde amonge the Heythen, that the LORDE reigneth.

32 Let the See make a noyse, and the fulnesse therof: let the felde be ioyfull, and all that therein is.

33 Let all the trees in the wod leape for ioie before the LORDE, for he commeth to iudge the earth.

34 O geue thankes vnto the LORDE, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for euer.

35 And saye: Helpe vs O God oure Sauioure, and gather vs together, and deluyer vs from the Heythen, that we maye geue thankes vnto yi holy name, and syngye prayses vnto the in thy Psalmes.

36 Praysed be the LORDE God of Israel from euerlastinge to euerlastinge: and let all people saye, Amen, And: Prayse be vnto the LORDE.

37 So he lefte Assaph and his brethren there before the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE, to mynister allwaye before the Arke, euery daye his daye worke.

38 But Obed Edom and their brethren, eight and thre score, and Obed Edom the sonne of Iedithun, and Hossa, to be dore keepers.

39 And Sadoc ye prest, & his brethre the prestes, lefte he before the habitacion of the LORDE vpon the hye place at Gibeon, 40 to offre burnt sacrifices daylie vnto the LORDE vpon the altare of burntofferings in the mornynge & in the euenynge, as it is wrytten in the lawe of the LORDE, which he comaunded vnto Israel.

41 And with them Heman & Iedithun, and ye other chosen, which were named by name to geue thankes vnto the LORDE, because his mercy endureth for euer.

42 And with them Heman & Iedithun to stryke vpon the tabrettes and Cymbales, and the musical instrumentes of God. As for the childre of Iedithun, he made them dorekeepers.

43 So all the people departed, euery one to his house: and Dauid returned also to blesse his house.

Chapter 17

1 It fortunede wha Dauid dwelt in his house, he sayde vnto ye prophet Nathan: Beholde, I dwell in a house of Ceder, and the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE is amonge the curtaynes.

2 Nathan saide vnto Dauid: What so euer is in thine hert, that do: for God is with ye.

3 But the same night came ye worde of God vnto Nathan, and sayde:

4 Go and speake to Dauid my seruauant: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Thou shalt not buylde me an house to be an habitacio:

5 for I haue dwelt in no house sence the daye that I broughte forth the children of Israel, vnto this daye: But where the Tabernacle and habitacion hath bene, there haue I bene where so euer

6 I haue walked in all Israel. Spake I euer to eny of the Iudges in Israel (whom I commaunded to kepe my people) and sayde: Wherefore do ye not buylde me an house of Cedre tymbre?

7 So shalt thou speake now vnto my seruauent Dauid: Thus sayeth the LORDE Zebaoth: I toke the from the pasture behynde the shepe, that thou shuldest be the prynce ouer my people,
 8 and haue bene with the whither so euer thou westest, and haue roted out all thine enemies before the, and haue made the a name, acordinge to the name of the greate men that are vpo earth.
 9 And for my people of Israel, I wyl appoynte them a place, and wyl plante them, that they may dwell there, and nomore to be remoued. And the childe of wickednes shal oppresse them nomore,
 10 like as afore tyme, whan I comaunded the Iudges ouer my people of Israel. And I wyl subdue all thine enemies, and do declare vnto the, that the LORDE wyl buylde the an house.
 11 But whan thy dayes are fulfilled, that thou departest hence with yi fathers, I wyl after the rayse vp yi sede, which shall be eue one of thy sonnes: his kyngdome wyl I stabli'she, 12 he shal buylde me an house, & I wyl make his seate sure for euer.
 13 I wyl be his father, and he shal be my sonne. And I wyl not withdrawe my mercy from him, as I haue withdrawen it fro him that was before the:
 14 But I wyl set him in my house and in my kyngdome for euer, so that his seate shalbe sure for euermore.
 15 And wha Nathan had spoken vnto Dauid acordinge to all these wordes & all this vision, 16 kynged Dauid came and sat him downe before the LORDE, and sayde: O LORDE God, who am I? and what is my house, yt thou hast broughte me thus farre?
 17 And this (O God) hast thou thoughte yet to litle, but hast spoken of thy seruauentes house yet longe for to come. And thou LORDE God hast loked downe vpon me from aboue, euen as one man loketh vpon another.
 18 What more shal Dauid saye vnto the, yt thou bryngest yi seruauent to soch honoure? Thou knowest thy seruauent
 19 O LORDE, for thy seruauentes sake and acordinge to thy hert hast thou done all these greate things, that thou mightest shewe all greate things vnto thy seruauent.
 20 LORDE, there is none lykely the, and there is no God but thou, of whom we haue herde with oure eares.
 21 And where is there a people vpon earth as thy people of Israel, where God wente to delyuer him a people, and to make him selfe a name thorow greate & terrible things, to cast out the Heythen before thy people, whom thou hast delyuered out of Egipte?
 22 and ye people of Israel hast thou made yi people for euer, and thou LORDE art become their God.
 23 Now LORDE, let the worde be verified for euer, that thou hast spoken ouer thy seruauent and ouer his house, & do as thou hast spoken:
 24 and let thy name endure and be magnified for euer, that it maye sayde: The LORDE Zebaoth, the God of Israel is the God in Israel, and that the house of thy seruauent Dauid maye be stably'shed before the:

 25 for thou LORDE hast opened the eare of yi seruauent, that thou wilt buylde him an house. Therefore hath thy seruauent founde (confydenge) to make his prayer before the.
 26 Now LORDE, thou art God, and hast promysed soch good vnto thy seruauent.
 27 Begynne now to blesse the house of thy seruauent, that it maye be euermore before the: for loke what thou blessest (O LORDE) the same is blessed for euer.

Chapter 18

1 After this smote Dauid the Philistynes, and subdued them, and toke Gath & the vyllages therof out of the hande of the Philistynes.
 2 He smote the Moabites likewyse, so that the Moabites were subdued vnto Dauid, and gaue him trybute.
 3 He smote Hadad Eser also ye kyng of Zoba in Hemath, whan he wente to set vp his power by the water Euphrates.
 4 And Dauid toke from him a thousande charettes, seuen thousande horsmen, and twetye thousande fote men. And Dauid lamed all the charettes, and kepte an hundred charettes ouer.
 5 And the Syrias came from Damascon, to helpe Hadad Eser the kyng of Zoba. Howbeit Dauid smote two & twentie thousande of the same Syrias,
 6 and layed men of warre at Damascon in Syria, so that the Syrias were subdued vnto Dauid, and broughte him trybute. For the LORDE helped Dauid, whither so euer he wente.
 7 And Dauid toke the shyldes of golde, yt Hadad Esers seruauentes had, & broughte the to Ierusalem.
 8 And out of Tibethath & Chun the cities of Hadad Eser, toke Dauid very moch brasse, wherof Salomon made the brasen lauer, and pilers, and brasen vessels.
 9 And wha Thogu the kyng of Hemath herde, yt Dauid had smytten all ye power of Hadad Eser,
 10 he sent his sonne Hadora vnto kynged Dauid, to salute him & to blesse him, because he had foughte wt Hadad Eser, & smytte hi (for Thogu had warre wt Hadad Eser) and all the same vessels of golde, syluer and of brasse, 11 dyd kynged Dauid consecrate vnto the LORDE, with the syluer and golde that he had taken from the Heythen, namely, from the Edomites, Moabites, Ammonites, Philistynes, and Amalechites.
 12 And Abisai the sonne of Zeru Ia smote eightene thousande of the Edomites in the Salt valley, 13 and layed me of warre in Edomea, so that all the Edomites were subdued vnto Dauid: for ye LORDE helped Dauid, whither so euer he wente.
 14 Thus Dauid reigned ouer all Israel, and executed iudgment and righteousnes vnto all the people.

 15 Ioab the sonne of Zeru Ia was captayne ouer the hoost. Iosaphat the sonne of Ahilud was Chaunceler.
 16 Sadoc the sonne of Achitob, and Ahimelech ye sonne of Abiathar, were prestes. Sauesa was Scrybe.

Chapter 19

1 And after this dyed Nahas ye kynged of the childe of Ammon, and his sonne was kynged in his steade.
 2 Then sayde Dauid: I wil do mercy vpon Hanun the sonne of Nahas, for his father dyd mercy vpon me: and so he sent messaungers to comforte him ouer his father. And wha Dauids seruauentes came in to the londe of the children of Ammon vnto Hanun to comforte him,
 3 the prynces of the children of Ammon sayde vnto Hanun: Thinkest thou that Dauid honoureth thy father in thy sighte, that he hath sent conforters vnto the? Yee his seruauentes are come vnto the, to search and to ouerthrowe, and to spye out the londe.
 4 Then toke Hanun the seruauentes of Dauid, and shoue them, & cut the halfe of their garmentes of, eue by the loynes, & so let the go.
 5 And they wente their waye, & sent men to tell Dauid. Neuertheles he sent to mete them (for ye men were put to greate shame) and the kynged sayde: Abyde at Iericho, tyll youre beerdes be growne, and then come agayne.
 6 Whan the childe of Ammon sawe, that they stynked in ye sighte of Dauid, both Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousande taletes of syluer, to hyre charettes and horsmen out of Mesopotamia, out of Maecha and out of Zoba:
 7 and hyred two and thirtie thousande charettes, & ye kynged of Maecha with his people, which came & pitched their tentes before Medba. And the children of Ammon gathered them selues together out of their cities, and came to the battayll.
 8 Whan Dauid herde that, he sent Ioab thither with all the hoost of the men of armes.
 9 And the childe of Ammon were gone forth, and prepared them selues to the battayll before the gate of the cite. But the kynges yt were come, kepte them asyde in the felde.
 10 Now wha Ioab sawe that the battayll was agaynst him both before and behynde, he chose of all the best yonge men in Israel, and prepared him selfe agaynst ye Syrias.
 11 As for ye residue of the people, he put them vnder the hande of Abisai his brother, that they shulde prepare them selues agaynst the children of Ammon, 12 and he sayde: Yf ye Syrias be to mightie for me, helpe thou me: but yf the childe of Ammon be to stroge for ye, I shall helpe the:

 13 take a good corage vnto the, and let vs quyte oure selues manly for oure people and for the cities of oure God: neuertheles the LORDE do what pleaseth him.
 14 And Ioab made him forth with ye people that was with him, to fighte agaynst ye Syrias: & they fled before him.
 15 And whan the children of Ammon sawe yt the Syrias fled, they fled also before Abisai his brother, and wente in to the cite. And Ioab came to Ierusalem.
 16 But whan the Syrias sawe that they were smytte before Israel, they sent messaungers, and broughte forth ye Syrias which were beyonde the water. And Sophach the chefe captayne of Hadad Eser wente before them.
 17 Wha this was tolde Dauid, he gathered all Israel together, and wente ouer Iordane. And whan he came at them, he set ye battayll in araye agaynst them. And Dauid prepared him selfe to ye battayll agaynst ye Syrias, & they foughte with him:
 18 but ye Syrias fled before Israel. And Dauid slewe of the Syrias seuen thousande charettes, & fortye thousande fote men. And Sophach the chefe captayne slewe he also.
 19 And whan Hadad Esers seruauentes sawe that they were smytte before Israel, they made peace wt Dauid & his seruauentes. And the Syrias wolde helpe the childe of Ammon nomore.

Chapter 20

1 And whan ye yeare came aboute, what tyme as ye kynges vse to go forth, Ioab broughte the power of the hoost, & destroyed the londe of the children of Ammon, and came and layed sege vnto Rabba. But Dauid abode at Ierusalem. And Ioab smote Rabba, and brake it downe.
 2 And Dauid toke their kynges crowne from his heade, and founde the weighte of a talent of golde theron, & precious stones. And it was set vpo Dauids heade. And very moch spoyle caried he out of the cite.
 3 As for the people that were therin, he broughte the forth, & parted them in sunder wt sawes, & hokes & betels of yron. Thus dyd Dauid vnto all ye cities of the childe of Ammon. And Dauid departed agayne, with the people vnto Ierusalem.
 4 Afterwarde arose there warre at Gasar with the Philistynes. Then Sibechai ye Husathite smote Sibai, which was one of the children of Rephaim, and he subdued him.
 5 And there arose warre agayne wt the Philistynes. The Elhamah ye sonne of Iair smote Lahemi ye brother of Goliath ye Gathite, whose speares staff was life a weeuers lome.

6 Afterwarde was there a battayll at Gath, where there was a man of a greate stature, yt had sixe fyngers and sixe toes, which make foure and twentye. And he was borne also of Rapha, and spake despytfully vnto Israel.

7 But Ionathas the sonne of Simea Dauids brother smote him.

8 These were the childre of Rapha at Gath, & fell thorow ye hande of Dauid, and of his seruantes.

Chapter 21

1 And Sathan stode agaynst Israel, & entysed Dauid to nombre Israel.

2 And Dauid sayde vnto Ioab & to ye rulers of the people: Go yor waye, nombre Israel from Berseba vnto Dan, and brynge me the nombre of the, that I maye knowe it.

3 Ioab sayde: The LORDE make his people an hundreth tymes mo then they are now. But my lorde O kynge, are they not all my lordes seruantes? Why doth my lorde then axe thereafter? Wherefor shal there a trespase come vpon Israel?

4 Neuertheles the kynges worde preuayled agaynst Ioab. And Ioab wente forth, and walked thorow all Israel, and came to Ierusalem,

5 and delyuered vnto Dauid ye nombre of the people that was tolde. And of all Israel there were a thousande tymes a thousande, and an hundreth thousande men, that drue out the swerde: and of Iuda foure hundreth thousande and seuetye thousande men, which drue out the swerde.

6 As for Leui and Ben Iamin, he nombred them not amonge these: for the kynges worde was abhominable vnto Ioab.

7 But this displeased God righte sore: for he smote Israel.

8 And Dauid sayde vnto God: I haue synned greuously, that I haue done this. But now take awaye the trespase of thy seruaut: for I haue done very vnwisely.

9 And the LORDE spake vnto Gad Dauids Seer, & sayde:

10 Go speake to Dauid, & saye: Thus saith the LORDE: Thre thynges laye I before the, chose ye one of them, yt I maye do it vnto the.

11 And wha Gad came to Dauid, he spake vnto him: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Chose ye 12 ether thre yeare derth, or thre monethes to flye before thine aduersaries, & before the swerde of thine enemies, yt it maye ouertake the: or thre dayes ye swerde of the LORDE, & pestilece in the londe, yt the angell of the LORDE maye destroye in all ye coastes of Israel. Loke now what answere I shal geue vnto him yt sent me.

13 Dauid sayde vnto Gad: I am in greate trouble: yet wyl I rather fall in to ye hande of the LORDE, for his mercy is excedyng greate, & I wil not fall in to the handes of men.

14 Then dyd the LORDE cause pestilence to come into Israel, so that there fell of Israel thre score & ten thousande me.

15 And God sent the angell to Ierusalem for to destroye it. And euen in the destruccion the LORDE considered, and he repeted of the euell, and sayde vnto the angell ye destroyer: It is ynough, holde now thy hande. The angell of the LORDE stode besyde ye barne of Arnan ye Iebusite.

16 And Dauid lifte vp his eyes, and sawe the angell of ye LORDE stondinge betwene heaue and earth, and a naked swerde in his hande stretched out ouer Ierusalem. Then Dauid and ye Elders beyng clothed with sack cloth, fell vpo their faces.

17 And Dauid sayde vnto God: Am not I he that caused the people to be nombred? I am he that hath synned and done euell: as for these shepe, what haue they done? LORDE my God, let thine hande be agaynst me and agaynst my fathers house, and not agaynst thy people to plage them.

18 And the angell sayde vnto Gad, that he shulde speake vnto Dauid, that Dauid shulde shulde go vp, & set vp an altare in the barne of Arnan the Iebusite.

19 So Dauid wente vp acordinge to ye worde of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORDE.

20 But wha Arnan turned him, and sawe the angell (and his foure sonnes with him) they hyd the selues: for Arnan thro'shed wheate.

21 Now whan Dauid came to Arnan, Arnan loked, and was aware of Dauid, and wete forth out of the barne, and worshipped Dauid with his face to the grounde.

22 And Dauid sayde vnto Arnan: Geue me rowme in the barne, to buylde an altare vnto the LORDE therin: for ye full money shalt thou geue it me, that the plage maye cease from the people.

23 But Arnan sayde vnto Dauid: Take it vnto the, and let my lorde the kynge do as pleaseth him. Beholde, that ox geue I for a burntofferynge, and those vessels to the ox, and wheate for the meatofferynge, I geue it all.

24 Neuertheles the kynge sayde vnto Arnan: Not so, but for ye full money wyl I bye it: for that which is thine wyl not I take for the LORDE, and offre a burntofferynge for naughte.

25 So Dauid gaue Arnan for ye rowme, sixe hundreth Sycles of golde in weight.

26 And there buylde Dauid an altare vnto ye LORDE, & offered burntofferynges & slaynofferynges. And whan he called vpo the LORDE, he herde him thorow the fyre from heaue vpon ye altare of the burntofferynge.

27 And ye LORDE sayde vnto the angell, that he shulde put his swerde in to his sheeth.

28 At the same tyme wha Dauid sawe, that the LORDE had herde him vpon the corne floore of Arnan ye Iebusite, he dyd sacrifice there.

29 For ye habitacion of ye LORDE which Moses had made in the wyldernes, and the altare of burntofferynges, was at that tyme in the hie place at Gibeon.

30 But Dauid coule not go thither to seke God before it, for he feared the swerde of the LORDES angell.

Chapter 22

1 And Dauid sayde: Here shal be ye house of God ye LORDE, and this the altare of burntofferynges for Israel.

2 And Dauid comaunded to gather together the straungers that were in ye londe of Israel, and appoynted masons to hewe stone for the buyldinge of the house of God.

3 And Dauid prepared moch yron for nales in the dores of the portes, and for soch thynges as were to be naled together, and so moch brasse, that it was not to be weyed:

4 and Cedre trees innumerable: for they of Zidon & Tyre brought Dauid moch Cedre tymbre:

5 for Dauid thoughte, Salomo my sonne is but a childe and tender: But the house that shal be buylde vnto the LORDE, shal be greate, that his name & prayse maye be exalted in all londes, therfore wyl I prouyde for him. So Dauid made greate prouysion before his death.

6 And he called Salomon his sonne, & comaunded him to buylde the house of LORDE God of Israel,

7 and sayde vnto him: My sonne, I was minded to buylde an house vnto the name of the LORDE my God,

8 but the worde of ye LORDE came vnto me, and sayde: Thou hast shed moch bloude, and strycken many battayls, therfore shalt thou not buylde an house vnto my name, for as moch as thou hast shed so moch bloude vpon the earth before me.

9 Beholde, the sonne which shal be borne vnto the, shal be a quyete man: and I wyl cause him to be in rest from al his enemies on euery syde, for his name shalbe Salomon: for I wyl geue peace and rest vpon Israel as longe as he lyueth.

10 He shal buylde an house vnto my name. He shal be my sonne, and I wyl be his father. And I wyl stablyshe ye seate of his kyngdome vpo Israel for euer.

11 Now my sonne, the LORDE shal be wyth the, and thou shalt prospere, that thou mayest buylde an house vnto the LORDE thy God, acordinge as he hath spoken of the.

12 The LORDE also shal geue the wy?dome & vnderstondyng, and shal commytte Israel vnto the, that thou mayest kepe the lawe of the LORDE thy God.

13 But then shal thou prospere, yf thou take hede to do after the ordynaunces and lawes which the LORDE commaunded Moses vnto Israel. Be stronge, and take a good corage vnto the, feare not, and be not faynt harted.

14 Beholde, I haue in my pouerte prouyded for the house of the LORDE, an hundreth thousande talentes of golde, and a thousande tymes a thousande talentes of syluer, and brasse and yron without nombre: for there is so moch of it. And tymbre and stone haue I prepared, thou mayest get more therof.

15 Thou hast many workmen also, mesons and carpenters in stone and tymbre, and all maner of men that haue vnderstondinge in all worke

16 off golde, syluer, brasse, and yron without nombre. Yet get the vp, and be doynge, and the LORDE shal be with the.

17 And Dauid comaunded all the rulers of Israel, to helpe Salomon his sonne, and sayde:

18 Is not the LORDE youre God with you, and hath geuen you rest on euery syde? for he hath delyuered the inhabitors of the londe in to youre handes, and the londe is subdued before the LORDE and before his people.

19 Geue ouer youre hert now therfore and youre soule, to seke the LORDE youre God, and get you vp, and buylde a Sanctuary vnto the LORDE God, that the Arke of the couenant of the LORDE and the holy vessels of God, maye be brought in to the house, which shalbe buylde vnto the name of the LORDE.

Chapter 23

1 So Dauid made Salomon his sonne kynge ouer Israel, whan he himselfe was olde, and had lyued ynough.

2 And Dauid gathered all the rulers in Israel together, and the prestes & Leuites, 3 to nombre ye Leuites from thirtie yeare olde & aboue. And ye nombre of the (which were stroge men) fro heade to heade, was eight and thirtie thousande:

3 But God sayde vnto me: Thou shalt not buylde an house vnto my name, for thou art a man of warre, and hast shed bloude.

4 Now hath the LORDE God of Israel chosen me out of all my fathers house, yt I shulde be kynge ouer Israel: for Iuda hath he chosen to be the Prynce, and in the house of Iuda amonge my fathers children hath he had pleasure vnto me, to make me kynge ouer all Israel:

7 & wyll stablish his kyngdome for euer, yf he be constant to do after my commaundementes and lawes, as it is this daye.

8 Now in the sight of all Israel the congregacion of the LORDE, and in the eares of oure God, se that ye obserue and seke all the commaundemetes of the LORDE yor God, that ye maye possesse this good londe and that ye and youre children maie haue ye inheritaunce therof for euer.

9 And thou my sonne Salomo, knowe thou the God of thy father, and serue him with all thy hert, and with the desyre of thy soule: for the LORDE searcheth all hertes, and vnderstondeh all thoughtes & ymaginacions Yf thou seke him, thou shalt fynde him: but yf thou forsake him, he shall refuse the for euer.

19 All this is geuen me in wrytinge of the hande of the LORDE, to make me vnderstonde all the workes of the patrone.

20 And Dauid sayde vnto Salomo his sonne: Be thou manly and stronge, and make it, feare not, and be not fayntharted, the LORDE God my God shal be with the, and shall not withdrawe his hande, ner fayle the, tyll thou haue fynished euery worke for the seruyce in the house of the LORDE.

21 Beholde, the courses of the prestes and Leuites to all the offyces in the house of God are with the in euery worke, and are willinge, and haue wisdome to all the offyces: and so haue the prynces and all the people for euery thinge that thou hast to do.

Chapter 29

1 And kynge Dauid sayde vnto all the congregacion: God hath chosen Salomon one of my sonnes, which yet is yonge and tender. But the worke is greate: for it is not a mans palace, but the LORDE Gods.

2 Yet haue I after all my abilite prepared vnto the house of God, golde for the vessels of golde, syluer for them of syluer, brasse for them of brasse, yron for the of yron, wod for them of wod, Onix stones, set Rubyes, & stones of dyuerse coloures, & all precious stones, & Marble stones in multitude.

3 Besydes this, for the good wyl yt I haue to the house of God,

4 I haue of myne awne proper good thre M. taletes of golde of Ophir, & seuen M. taletes of pure syluer, which I geue vnto the holy house of God, besyde all yt I haue prepared, to ouerlaye ye wallis of the house,

5 yt the same which ought to be of golde, maye be of golde: & that it which ought to be of syluer, maye be of syluer: and for all maner of worke by the hande of the craftesmen. And who is now fre wyllinge, to fyll his hande this daye vnto the LORDE?

6 Then were the prynces of the fathers, ye prynces of the trybes of Israel, the captaynes ouer thousandes & ouer hundredes, the rulers ouer the kynges busynes, fre wyllinge,

7 & gaue to ye mynistracion in the house of God fyue M. talentes of golde, and ten M. guldens, and ten M. talentes of syluer, eightene M. taletes of brasse, and an hundred M. taletes of yron.

8 And by whom so euer were foude stones, they gaue them to the treasure of the house of the LORDE, vnder the hade of Iehiel the Gersonite.

9 And ye people were glad that they were fre wyllinge: for they gaue it wt a good wyl (euen with all their hert) vnto the LORDE. And Dauid also ye kynge reioysed greatly,

10 and prayed God, and sayde before the whole congregacion: Prayed be thou O LORDE God of Israel oure father, 11 vnto the belongeth worshippe and power, glory, victory & thanks: for all that is in heauen and earth, is thine: thine is ye kyngdome, and thou art exalted aboue all prynces.

12 Thine are riches and honoure before ye, thou reignest ouer all, in thy hande consisteth power and might, in thy hade is it to make euery man greate and stronge.

13 Now thake we the oure God, and prayse ye name of thy glory:

14 For who am I? What is my people? that we shulde be able with a fre wyl to offre, as this is done? For of the commeth all, and of thy hande haue we geuen it the:

15 For we are but pilgrims & straegers before the, as were all oure fathers. Oure life vpon earth is as a shadowe, and here is no abydng.

16 O LORDE oure God, all this abundaunce that we haue prepared to buylde the an house vnto thy name, came of thy hande, and is thine alltogether.

17 I knowe my God, that thou tryest the hert, and that vnfaynednes is acceptable vnto the: therfore haue I geue all this with an vnfayned hert, eue with a good wyl, and now haue I had ioye to se thy people (which here are present) offre with a fre wyl vnto the.

18 O LORDE God of oure fathers Abraham, Isaac, & Israel, kepe thou euermore soch purposes and thoughtes in ye hertes of thy people, & prepare thou their hertes vnto the.

19 And graunte my sonne Salomon a perfecte hert, that he maye kepe thy comaundementes, thy testimonies, & thy statutes, that he maye do all, & buylde this palace, which I haue prepared.

20 And Dauid sayde vnto the whole cogregacion: O prayse the LORDE yor God. And all the cogregacion prayed ye LORDE God of their fathers, & bowed them selues, & worshipped the LORDE & then the kynge, 21 and offered sacrifices vnto the LORDE. And on ye nexte morow offered they burntofferynges, a M. bullockes, a M. rames, a M. labes wt their drynkofferynges, & plenteously offered they amonge all Israel.

22 And they ate and dranke the same daie before the LORDE with greate ioye, and made Salomon the sonne of Dauid kynge ye seconde tyme, and anoynted him to be ye prynce for the LORDE, & Sadoc to be the prest.

23 Thus sat Salomon vpon the seate of ye LORDE, kynge in his fathers steade, & prospered. And all Israel obeyed him, 24 & all ye rulers & mightie men, & all kynge Dauids children submytted themselues vnto kynge Salomon.

25 And ye LORDE made Salomon excellent & greate in ye sighte of all Israel, and gaue him soch a glorious kyngdome, as none had before him ouer Israel.

26 So had Dauid now bene kynge ouer all Israel.

27 And ye tyme that he was kynge ouer Israel, is fortye yeares: At Hebron reigned he seuen yeare, and at Ierusalem thre & thirtie yeare, 28 & dyed in a good age, full of dayes, riches and honoure. And Salomon his sonne was kynge in his steade.

29 These actes of kynge Dauid (both ye first and last) beholde, they are wrytten amonge the actes of Samuel the Seer, and amonge the actes of the prophet Nathan, and amoge the actes of Gad the Seer, 30 with all his kyngdome, power and tymes which passed vnder him, both vpon Israel & vpon all the kyngdomes of the earth.

2 CHRONICLES

Chapter 1

1 And Salomon the sonne of Dauid was stablyshed in his kyngdome, and the LORDE his God was with him, & made him exceeding greate.

2 And Salomon spake vnto all Israel, to the captaynes ouer thousandes and ouer hundredes, to the Iudges, and to all ye prynces in Israel, and to the chefest fathers,

3 so that they wente (Salomon and the whole congregacion with him) vnto the hye place which was at Gibea: for there was ye Tabernacle of ye witnesse of God, which Moses the seruauant of the LORDE had made in ye wyldernesse.

4 For Dauid had brought vp the Arke of God from Kiriath Iarim, whan he had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Ierusalem.

5 As for ye brasen altare which Bezaleel the sonne of Vri the sonne of Hur had made, it was there before the habitation of the LORDE: and Salomon and the congregacion soughte God.

6 And Salomon offered a thousande burntofferynges vpo the brasen altare that stode before the Tabernacle of witnesse.

7 In the same nighte appeared God vnto Salomon, and sayde vnto him: Axe, what shal I geue the?

8 And Salomon sayde vnto God: Thou hast done greate mercy vnto my father Dauid, and hast made me kynge in his steade.

9 Now LORDE God, let yi worde that thou hast promysed vnto my father Dauid, be verified, for thou hast made me kynge ouer a people, which is as many in noble as the dust vpon the earth.

10 Graunte me wy?dome therfore and knowlege, yt I maye go out and in before this people: for who is able to iudge this greate people of thine?

11 Then sayde God vnto Salomon: For so moch as thou art so mynded, and hast not desyred riches ner good, ner honor, ner the soules of thine enemies, ner longe life, but hast requyred wy?dome and knowlege, to iudge my people, ouer whom I haue made the kynge, 12 wy?dome therfore and knowlege be geuen the. Morouer, riches & good and honoure wyl I geue the, so that soch one as thou hath not bene before the amoge the kynges, nether shal be after the.

13 So came Salomon from the hye place (which was at Gibeon) vnto Ierusalem from ye Tabernacle of witnesse, and reigned ouer Israel.

14 And Salomon gathered him charettes and horsmen, so that he had a thousande and foure hundred charettes, & twolue thousande horsmen: and those appoynted he to be in the charet cities, and with the kynge at Ierusalem.

15 And the kynge broughte it so to passe, that there was as moch syluer & golde at Ierusalem as stones: and as many Ceders, as the Molberyes trees, that are in the valleys.

16 And there were horses broughte vnto Salomon out of Egipte, & the kynges marchauntes fetched them from Kena for moneye.

17 And they came vp, and broughte out of Egipte a charet for sixe hudreth syluer pes, and an horse for an hundreth and fiftye. Thus broughte they also vnto all the kynges of the Hethites, and to the kynges of ye Syrians.

Chapter 2

1 And Salomon thoughte to buylde an house vnto the name of the LORDE, & an house for his kyngdome:

2 and tolde out thre score and ten thousande men to beare burthens, and foure score thousande that hewed tymber vpo the mount, and thre thousande and sixe hundreth officers ouer them.

3 And Salomon sent vnto Hiram the kyng of Tyre, sayenge: As thou dydst with my father, & sendest him Ceder trees, to builde an house for to dwell in (euen so do thou wt me also.)

4 Beholde, I wyl buylde an house vnto the name of the LORDE my God, to sanctifie it, for to burne good incense before him, and allwaye to prepare ye shewbred, and burntofferynge in the mornyng and in the euenyng, on the Sabbathes & Newmones, and solempne feastes of ye LORDE oure God euermore for Israel.

5 And the house that I wyl buylde, shal be greate: for oure God is greater then all goddes.

6 But who is able to buylde him an house? For heauen & the heuens of all heuens maye not coprehende him. Who am I then, that I shulde buylde him an house? But onely for this intent to burne incense before him?

7 Sede me now therfore a wyse ma to worke with golde, syluer, brasse, yron, scarlet, purple, yalow sylke and soch one as can graue carued worke with the wyse men that are with me in Iewry and Ierusalem, whom my father Dauid ordeyned.

8 And sende me tymber of Ceder, pyne tre and costly wodd from Libanus: for I knowe that yi seruauntes can hewe tymber vpon Libanus. And beholde, my seruauntes shalbe with yi seruauntes, 9 to prepare me moch tymber: for the house that I wyl buylde, shalbe greate & maruelous goodly.

10 And beholde, I wyl geue vnto the carpenters thy seruauntes which hewe the tymber, twetye thousande quarters, of beaten wheate, and twentye thousande Batthes of wyne, and twentye thousande Batthes of oyle.

11 Then sayde Hiram the kyng of Tyre by wrytinge, and sent it vnto Salomon: Because the LORDE loueth his people, therfore hath he made ye to be kyng over them.

12 And Hiram sayde morouer: Prayed be ye LORDE God of Israel, which made heauen earth, that he hath geue kynge Dauid a wyse and prudent some, and soch one as hath vnderstandinge to buylde an house vnto the LORDE, & an house for his realme.

13 Therfore sende I now a wyse man that hath vnderstandyng, euen Hiram Abi

14 (which is the sonne of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was of Tyre) which can worke in golde, syluer, brasse, yron, stone, tymber, scarlet, yalowe sylke, lynnyn, purple and to carue all maner of thinges, and to make what conyng thinge so euer is geuen him, with thy wyse men, and with the wyse men of my lorde kyng Dauid yi father.

15 And now let my lorde sende the wheate, barlye, oyle and wyne vnto his seruautes, acordinge as he hath sayde,

16 and so wyll we hewe ye tymber vpon Libanus, as moch as thou nedest, and wyll bryng it by flotes in the See vnto Iapho, from whence thou mayest bryng it vp to Ierusalem.

17 And Salomon nombred all the straungers in the londe of Israel, acordinge to the nombre whan Dauid his father nombred them: and there were founde an hundreth & fiftye thousande, thre thousande and sixe hudreth.

18 And of the same he made thre score and ten thousande beares of burthens, and foure score thousande hewers vpo ye mount, and thre thousande and sixe hundreth ouerseers, which helde ye people at their worke.

Chapter 3

1 And Salomon beganne to buylde the house of the LORDE at Ierusalem vpon the mount Moria, that was shewed vnto Dauid his father, which Dauid had prepared for the rowme, vpon the corne floore of Arnan the Iebusite.

2 In the seconde daye of the seconde moneth in the fourth yeare of his reigne begane he to buylde.

3 And so layed Salomon the foundation to buylde the house of God: first the length thre score cubytes, the bredth twentye cubites

4 and the Porche before the wydenes of the house, was twentye cubites longe, but the height was an hundreth and twentye, and he ouerlayed it on the ynsyde with pure golde.

5 But the greate house syled he with Pyne tre, and ouerlayed it with the best golde, and made palme trees and throwne worke theron,

6 and ouerlayed the house with precious stones to beautifye it. As for the golde, it was golde of Paruaim.

7 And the balkes and postes aboue, and the walles, and the dores of it ouerlayed he with golde, and caused Cherubins to be carued on the walles.

8 He made also the house of the Most holy, whose length was twentye cubites acordinge to the wydenesse of the house:

and the bredth of it was twentye cubites likewyse, and he ouerlayed it with the best golde by sixe hundreth talentes.

9 And for nales he gaued fiftye Sicles of golde in weight, and ouerlayed the chambers with golde.

10 He made also in the house of the most holy, two Cherubins of carued worke, and ouerlayed them with golde:

11 and the length on the wynges of the Cherubins, so that one wyng had fyue cubytes, and touched the wall of the house: and the other wyng had fyue cubytes also, and touched the wyng of the other Cherub.

12 Euen so had one wyng of the other Cherub fyue cubites likewyse, and touched the wall of the house: and his other wyng had fyue cubites also, and touched the wyng of the other Cherub:

13 so that these wynges of the Cherubins were spred out twentye cubites wyde. And they stode vpo their fete, and their face was turned to the house warde.

14 He made a vayle also of yalow sylke, scarlet, purple and lynworke, and made Cherubins theron.

15 And before the house he made two pilers fyue and thirtie cubites longe, and the knoppes aboue theron, fyue cubytes.

16 And he made throwne worke for the quere, and put it aboue vpon the pilers: and made an hundreth pomgranates, and put them on the wrythren worke.

17 And he set vp the pilers before the temple, the one on the righte honde, and the other on the left: and that on the righte honde called he Iachin, and it on the lefte honde called he Boos.

Chapter 4

1 He made a brasen altare also, twentye cubytes longe, and twentye cubytes brode, and ten cubites hye.

2 And he made a molten lauer ten cubites wyde fro the one syde to the other rounde aboute, and fyue cubytes hye. And a metelyne of thirtie cubites mighte comprehend it aboute.

3 And ymages of Bullockes were vnder it. And aboute the lauer (which was ten cubites wyde) there were two rowes of knoppes, yt were molten withall.

4 It stode so vpon the bullockes, that thre were turned towarde the north, thre towarde the west, thre towarde the south, and thre towarde the east, and the lauer aboue vpon them, and all their hynder partes were on the ynsyde.

5 The thickness of it was an handbredth, and the edge of it was like the edge of a cuppe, and as a floured rose. And it contenyed thre thousande Batthes.

6 And he made ten kettels, wherof he set fyue on the righte hande and fyue on the left, to wa'she in them soch thinges as belonged to the burntofferynge, that they mighte thrust them therin: but ye lauer (made he) for for the prestes to wash in.

7 Ten golden candelstickes made he also as they ought to be, and set them in the temple: fyue on the righte hande, and

8 And made ten tables, and set them in the temple: fyue on the righte hande, and fyue on the left. And made an hundreth basens of golde.

9 He made a courte likewyse for the prestes, and a greate courte, and dores in the courte, and ouerlayed ye dores with brasse.

10 And the lauer set he on the righte syde towarde the south east.

11 And Hiram made cauldrous, shouels and basens. So Hiram fynished the worke which he made for kyng Salomon in the house of God:

12 namely the two pilers with the roundels and knoppes aboue vpon both the pilers, and both the wrythen ropes to couer both the roundels of ye knoppes aboue vpo the pilers,

13 and the foure hundreth pomgranates on both the wrythe ropes, two rowes of pomgranates on euery rope, to couer the roundels of the knoppes that were aboue vpon the pilers.

14 He made the stoles also and ye kettels vpon the stoles,

15 and a lauer, and twolue bullockes there vnder.

16 And pottes, shouels, fleshokes, and all their vessels made Hiram Abif of pure metall for kyng Salomon vnto the house of the LORDE.

17 In the coaste of Iordane dyd the kyng cause them to be molten in thicke earth betwene Suchoth and Zaredatha.

18 And Salomon made all these vessels which were so many, that the weight of ye metall was not to be soughte out.

19 And Salomon made all the ornamentes for the house of God: namely, the golden altare, the tables and the shewbreds theron,

20 the candelstickes with their lampes of pure golde, to burne before the Quere acordinge to the maner:

21 and the floures and the lampes and the snoffers were of golde, all these were of pure golde.

22 And the knyues, basens, spones and pottes, were of pure golde. And the intrauce and his dores within vnto the Most holy, and the dores of the house of the temple were of golde.

Chapter 5

1 Thus was all ye worke fynished, which Salomon made in the house of the LORDE. And Salomon broughte in all yt his father Dauid had sanctified, namely, syluer and golde, and all maner of ornamentes, and layed them in the treasures of the house of God.

2 The gathered Salomon all the Elders in Israel together, all ye heades of the trybes, prynces of the fathers amoge the childre of Israel vnto Ierusalem, to bryng vp the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE out of the cite of Dauid, that is Sion.

3 And there resorted vnto the kyng all the men in Israel at the feast, that is in the seuenth moneth,

4 and all ye Elders in Israel came. And ye
Leuites toke the Arke,

5 & broughte it vp with the Tabernacle of witness, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle: and ye prestes and Leuites broughte them vp.

6 As for kynge Salomon and all the cogregacion of Israel that was gathered vnto him before the Arke, they offred shepe and oxen, so many, that no man coule nombre ner reken them.

7 Thus the prestes broughte the Arke of ye couenaunt of the LORDE vnto hir place in to the quere of the house, euen in to ye Most holy vnder the wynges of the Cherubins,

8 so that the Cherubins spred out their wynges ouer the place of the Arke: and the Cherubins couered the Arke and the staues therof from aboue.

9 And the staues were so longe, yt the knoppes of them were sene from the Arke before the quere, but on the outsyde were they not sene. And it was there vnto this daye.

10 And there was nothinge in the Arke, saue the two tables, which Moses put therin at Horeb, whan the LORDE made a couenaunt with the childre of Israel, what tyme as they were departed out of Egipte.

11 And whan the prestes wente out of the Sanctuary (for all ye prestes that were founde, sanctified them selues, because the courses were not kepte)

12 the Leuites with all those that were vnder Asaph, Heman, Iedithun and their children and brethren, beyng clothed in lynnen, songe with Cymbales, psalteries and harpes, and stode towarde the east parte of the altare, and an hundreth & twentye prestes with them, which blew wt trompettes.

13 And it was, as yf one dyd trompet and synge, as though a voyce had bene herde of praynsinge and geuyng thanks vnto the LORDE. And whan the voyce arose from ye trompettes, cymbales and other instrumentes of musick, and from praynsinge the LORDE (because he is gracious, and because his mercy endureth for euer) the house of the LORDE was fylled on the nysyde with a cloude,

14 so yt the prestes coule not stonde to mynister for the cloude: for the glory of the LORDE fylled the house of God.

Chapter 6

1 Then sayde Salomon: The LORDE sayde, that he wolde dwell in a darck cloude:

2 I haue buylded an house to be an habitation vnto the: & a seate, yt thou mayest dwell there for euer.

3 And the kynge turned his face, and blessed all the congregacion of Israel: for the whole cogregacion of Israel stode,

4 & he sayde: Praysed be the LORDE
God of Israel, which promysed by his mouth vnto my father Dauid, and with his hande hath fulfilled it, wha he sayde:

5 Sece the tyme that I broughte my people out of the londe of Egipte, I haue chosen no cite in all ye trybes of Israel, to buylde an house for my name to be there, nether haue I chosen eny man to be prynce ouer my people of Israel.

6 But Ierusalem haue I chosen, for my name to be there: & Dauid haue I electe, to be prynce ouer my people of Israel.

7 And whan my father Dauid was mynded to buylde an house vnto the name of the LORDE God of Israel,

8 the LORDE sayde vnto Dauid my father: Where as thou wast mynded to buylde an house vnto my name, thou hast done well:

9 howbeit thou shalt not buylde the house, but thy sonne which shall come out of thy loynes, shal buylde the house vnto my name.

10 Thus hath ye LORDE now performed his worde, that he spake: for
I am come vp in my father Dauids steade, and syt vpon the seate of Israel, euen as the LORDE sayde, & haue buylded an house vnto the name of ye
LORDE God of Israel,

11 & in it haue I put ye Arke, wherin is the couenaunt of ye LORDE, which he made with the childre of Israel.

12 And he stode before the altare of the LORDE in the presence of the whole cogregacion of Israel, and spred out his handes:

13 for Salomon had made a brasen pulpit, and set it in the myddes of the courte, fyue cubites longe, and fyue cubites brode, and thre cubites hye:
vpon the same stode he, and fell downe vpon his knees in the presence of the whole cogregacion of Israel, and helde out his handes towarde heaue

14 and sayde: O LORDE God of Israel, there is no god like the, nether in heauen ner vpon earth, thou that kepest couenaunt and mercy for thy seruantes, that walke before the with all their hert.
15 Thou hast kepte promes wt my father Dauid thy seruaut: With thy mouth thou saydest it, and with thy hande hast thou fulfilled it, as it is come to passe this daye.

16 Now LORDE God of Israel, make good vnto my father Dauid yi seruaut, that which thou hast promysed him, & sayde: Thou shalt not want a man before me, to syt vpon the seate of Israel: yf thy children kepe their waye, so yt they walke in my lawe, like as thou hast walked before me:

17 Now LORDE God of Israel, let yi worde be verified, which thou hast promysed vnto Dauid thy seruaut.

18 For thinkest thou that God in very dede dwelleth amonge men vpon earth? Beholde, the heauen and ye heauens of all heuens maye not coteyne the: how shulde then this house do it, which I haue buylded?

19 But turne the vnto the prayer of thy seruaut, and to his supplicacio (O LORDE my God) that thou mayest heare the thankesgeuyng and prayer, which thy seruaut maketh before the,

20 so that thine eyes be open ouer this house daye and night, euen ouer this place (wherin thou saydest thou woldest set thy name) that thou mayest heare the prayer, which thy seruaut shall make in this place.

21 Heare now therfore the intercession of thy seruaut and of thy people of Israel, what so euer they shall desyre in this place: heare thou it from the place of thy habitation, eue from heauen: and whan thou hearest it, be mercifull.

22 Whan eny man synneth agaynst his neyghoure, and an ooth be put vpon him which he ought to sweare, and the ooth commeth before thine
altare in this house,

23 then heare thou from heauen, and se yt thy seruaut haue righte, so that thou rewarde the vngodly, and recopence him his waye vpon his awne heade, and to iustifye the righteous, and to geue him acordinge to his righteousnes.

24 Whan thy people of Israel is smytte before their enemies (whylye they haue synned agaynst the) and yf they turne vnto the, and knowlege thy name, and make their prayer and intercession before the in this house,

25 then heare thou them from heauen, and be mercifull vnto the synne of thy people of Israel, & bryng them agayne into the londe, yt thou hast geuen them and their fathers.

26 Whan the heauen is shut vp, so that it rayne not (for so moch as they haue synned agaynst the) and yf they make their prayer in this place, and knowlege thy name, and turne from their synnes (whan thou hast brought them lowe)

27 heare thou them then in heauen, and be mercifull vnto the synne of thy seruantes, and of thy people of Israel, that thou mayest teach them the good waye wherin they shulde walke, and let it rayne vpon thy londe which thou hast geuen thy people to possesse.

28 Whan a derth, or pestilence, or drouth, or blastinge, or greshopper or catirpiller, is in the londe: Or whan their enemye layeth sege to their portes in the lode, or whan eny other plage or disease happeneth,

29 who so euer the maketh his prayer or petition amonge eny maner of men, or amonge all thy people of Israel, yf eny man fele his plage and disease, and spredeth out his handes vnto this house,

30 heare thou then from heauen, euen from ye seate of thy habitation, and be mercifull: and geue euery man acordinge to all his wayes, in so moch as thou knowest his hert (for thou onely knowest the hert of the children of men)

31 that they maye feare the, and allwaye walke in thy wayes, as longe as they lyue in the londe, which thou hast geuen vnto oure fathers.

32 And whan eny straunger which is not of thy people of Israel, commeth out of a farre cowntre because of thy greate name, and mightie hande, and out stretched arme, and commeth to make his prayer in this house,

33 heare thou him then from heaue, euen from the seate of thy habitation:
and do all for ye which that straunger calleth vpo the, that all the nacions vpon earth maye knowe thy name, and feare the, as thy people of Israel do: and that they maye knowe, how yt this house which I haue buylded, is named after thy name.

34 Whan thy people go forth to ye battayll agaynst their enemies, the waye that thou shalt sende them, and shall praye vnto the towarde the waye of this cite which thou hast chosen, and towarde the house that I haue buylded vnto thy name,

35 heare thou the their prayer and petition from heauen, and helpe them to their righte.

36 Whan they synne agaynst the (for there is no man that synneth not) and thou be wroth at them, and geue them ouer before their enemyes, so that they cary them awaye captiue in to a cowntre farre or nye,

37 and yf they turne within their hertes in the londe where they are presoners, and so conuerte, and make their intercession vnto the in the londe of their captiuyte, and saye: We haue synned, and done amysse, and haue bene vngodly:

38 and so turne them selues vnto ye with all their hert and with all their soule in the londe of their captiuyte, wherin they are presoners:
and make their prayer towarde
the waye of their owne londe, which thou gauest vnto their fathers, and towarde the cite which thou hast chosen, and towarde the house that I haue buylded vnto thy name:

39 then heare thou their prayer and supplicacion from heauen, euen from the seate of thy dwellyng, and helpe them to their righte, and be mercifull vnto thy people that haue synned agaynst the.

40 My God, let thine eyes now be ope, and let thine eares geue hede vnto prayer in this place.

41 Aryse now O LORDE God vnto thy restinge place, thou and the Arke of thy strength. Let thy prestes O LORDE God be clothed with health, and let thy sayentes reioyse ouer this good.

42 LORDE God, turne not awaye the face of thine anyoynted:
thinke vpon the mercies of thy seruaut Dauid.

Chapter 7

1 And wha Salomo had ended his praier, there fell a fyre from heauen, and cosumed the burntofferynge and the other offeringes. And the glory of the LORDE fylled the house,

2 so that ye prestes coule not go in to the house of the LORDE, while ye glory of the LORDE filled ye LORDES house.

3 And all the children of Israel sawe the fyre fall downe, and the glory of the LORDE ouer the house: and they fell on their knees wt their faces to the grounde vpon the pauement, and worshipped, and gaue
thanks vnto the LORDE, because he is gracious, and because his mercy

endureth for euer.

4 As for the kynge and all the people, they offred before the LORDE.

5 For kynge Salomon offred two and twetye thousand bullockes, and an hundreth thousande and twentye thousande shepe, & so both the kynge and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 But the prestes stode in their watches, & the Leuites with the musically instruments of the LORDE, which kynge Dauid had caused to make for to geue thanks vnto the LORDE, (because his mercy endureth for euer) wt psalmes of Dauid thorow their hande. And the prestes blewetrompettes ouer agaynst them, and all Israel stode.

7 And Salomon halowed the myddelmost courte, which was before the house of the LORDE, for there prepared he the burntofferynges and the fat of the slayne offeringes: for the brasen altare that Salomon made, might not conteyne all the burntofferings, meatofferynges, and the fat.

8 And at the same tyme helde Salomon a feast seuen daies longe, and all Israel with him a very greate congregacion, from Hemath vnto the ryuer of Egipte.

9 and on the eight daye helde he a conuocacion. For the dedicacion of the altare helde they seuen daies, and the feast seuen dayes also.

10 But on the thre and twentyeth daye of the seuenth moneth he let the people go vnto their tentes ioyfull and with mery hertes because of all the good, that the LORDE had done vnto Dauid, vnto Salomo, and to his people of Israel.

11 Thus fynished Salomo the house of ye LORDE, and the kinges house, and all yt came in his hert to make in the house of the LORDE, and in his awne house, prosperously.

12 And the LORDE appeared vnto Salomon in the nighte season, and sayde vnto him: I haue herde thy prayer and chosen this place vnto my selfe for an house of sacrifice.

13 Beholde, whan I shut the heaue so yt it raine not, or commaunde the greshopper to cosume the londe, or cause a pestilence to come amonge my people, 14 to humble my people, which is named after my name: and yf they praye, and seke my face, and turne from their euell wayes, the wyl I heare them from heauen, and wyl forgeue their sinne, and heale their londe.

15 So shal myne eyes now be open, and myne eares shal be attente vnto prayer in this place.

16 Thus haue I now chosen this house, and sanctified it, that my name maye be there for euer: and myne eyes and my hert shal allwaye be there.

17 And yf thou walke before me, as thy father Dauid walked, so that thou do all that I commaunde the, and kepe myne ordinauces and lawes,

18 then wyl I stabilishe the seate of thy kyngdome, acordinge as I promysed thy father Dauid, and sayde: Thou shalt not wante a man to be lorde ouer Israel.

19 But yf ye turne backe, and forsake myneordynaucesandcommaudemetes which I haue layed before you, and so go youre waye, and serue other goddes, and worshippethem, 20 the wyl I rote you out of my londe that I haue geuen you: and this house which I haue sanctified vnto my name, wil I cast awaye out of my presence, and geue it ouer to be a byworde and fabell amoge all nacions.

21 And euery one that goeth by, shall be astonnyed at this hye house, and shall hysses at it, and saye: Wherefore hath the LORDE dealte thus with this londe and with this house?

22 Then shall it be sayde: Euen because they haue forsaken the LORDE God of their fathers (which brought them out of the londe of Egipte) & haue cleued vnto other goddes, & worshipped them, and serued the: therefore hath he brought all this euell vpon the.

Chapter 8

1 And after twentye yeares (wherin Salomon buylded the house of the LORDE and his awne house)

2 he buylded the cyties also which Hiram gaue vnto Salomon, and caused the children of Israel to dwell therein.

3 And Salomon wente vnto Hemath Zoba, and made it stronge,

4 and buylded Thadmor in the wyldernes, and all the cornecyties which he buylded in Hemath.

5 He buylded the vpper and lower Bethoron likewise, so that they were stronge cities wt walles, portes and barres.

6 And Baelath, and all the cornecites which Salomon had, and all the cities of the charettes and of the horse men, and all that Salomon had lust to buylde, both at Ierusalem and vpon Libanus, and in all the londe of his domynion.

7 All the remnaunt of the people of the Hethites, Amorites, Pheresites, Heuites and Iebusites, which were not of the children of Israel,

8 and their children which they had left behynde them in the londe, (whom the children of Israel had not vtterly destroyed) those dyd Salomon make trybutaries vnto this daye.

9 As for the children of Israel, Salomon made no bondmen of them vnto his worke, but they were men of warre, and chefe captaynes, and ouer his charettes & horsmen.

10 And the chefe of kynge Salomons officers were two hundreth and fyftie, which ruled the people.

11 And Salomon caused Pharaos daughter to be fetched vp out of the cite of Dauid, in to the house that he had bnylded for her: for he sayde: My wyfe shall not dwell in the house of Dauid the kynge of Israel, for it is sanctified, in as moch as ye Arke of the LORDE is come in to it.

12 Then offred Salomon burntofferynges vnto the LORDE vpon the LORDES altare, which he had buylded before the porche, 13 euery one vpon his daye to offre after the commaundement of Moses, on the Sabbathes, Newmones & at the appoynted seasons of the yeare, euen thre tymes, namely in ye feast of vnleued bred, in the feast of wekes, & in the feast of Tabernacles.

14 And he set the prestes in ordre to their ministracion acordinge as Dauid his father had appoynted, and the Leuites in their offyces, to geue thanks and to mynister in the presence of the prestes, euery one vpon his daye. And the dorekeepers in their courses, euery one at his dore, for so had Dauid the ma of God commaunded.

15 And they departed not from the kynges commaundement ouer the prestes and Leuites in euery matter and in the treasures.

16 Thus was all Salomons busynesse made ready, from the daye that the foundation of the LORDES house was layed, tyll it was fynished, so that the house of the LORDE was all prepared.

17 Then wente Salomon vnto Ezeon Geber, and vnto Eloth by the See syde in the londe of Edomea.

18 And Hiram sent him shippes by his seruantes which had knowlege of the See, and they wente with Salomos seruantes vnto Ophir, and fetched from thence foure hundreth and fyfthe talentes of golde, and broughte it vnto kynge Salomon.

Chapter 9

1 And whan the quene of rich Arabia herde the fame of Salomon, she came with a very greate tryne to Ierusalem (with Camels that bare spyces and golde, and precious stones) to proue Salomon with darke sentences. And whan she came vnto Salomon, she spake vnto him all that she had deuysed in hir mynde.

2 And the kynge tolde her all hir matters, & Salomon had nothinge in secrete, but he tolde it her.

3 And whan the Quene of riche Arabia sawe the wy?dome of Salomon, and ye house that he had buylded,

4 the meates of his table, the dwellinges of his seruantes, ye offices of his mynisters and their garmentes, & his butlers and their apparell, and his parler where he wente vp in to the house of the LORDE, she coulde no longer refrayne.

5 And she sayde vnto the kynge: It is true that I haue herde in my londe of thy behaueoure and of thy wy?dome:

6 howbeit I wolde not beleue their wordes, tyll I came my selfe, & sawe it with myne eyes: and beholde, the halfe of thy greate wy?dome hath not bene tolde me: there is more in ye then the fame that I haue herde.

7 Happye are thy men, and happie are these thy seruantes, yt allwaye stonde before the, and heare thy wy?dome.

8 Prayed be the LORDE thy God, which had soch pleasure vnto the, that he hath set the vpon his seate to be kynge vnto the LORDE thy God. Because thy God loueth Israel, to set them vp for euer, therefore hath he ordeyned ye to be kynge ouer them, that thou shuldest mayntayne iustice and equyte.

9 And she gaue ye kynge an hundreth and twentye talentes of golde, & very moch spyce & precious stones. There were no mo soch spyces as these that the Quene of riche Arabia gaue vnto kynge Salomo.

10 And Hiram's seruantes and the seruantes of Salomon, which broughte golde from Ophir, broughte costly tymbre also & precious stones.

11 And of the same costly tymbre dyd Salomon cause to make staires in the house of the LORDE, and the kynges house, and harpes and psalteries for the Musicians. There was no soch tymbre sene before in the londe of Iuda.

12 But kynge Salomon gaue the Quene of riche Arabia all that she desyred and axed, & moch more then she had broughte vnto the kynge. And she returned, and departed into hir londe with hir seruantes.

13 The golde that was broughte vnto Salomon in one yeare, was sixe hundreth and sixe and thre score talentes, 14 besydes that ye chapmen and marchauntes broughte. And all the kynges of the Arabians, and the lordes in ye londe broughte golde and syluer vnto Salomon.

15 Of the which kynge Salomon made two hundreth speares of beaten golde, so yt sixe hundreth peces of beaten golde came vpo one speare:

16 & thre hundreth shildes of beaten golde, so that thre hundreth peces of beaten golde came to one shyld: and the kynge put the in the house of the wod of Libanus.

17 And the kynge made a greate seate of Yuery, and ouerlaied it with pure golde:

18 and the seate had sixe steppes, and a fotestole of golde festened vnto the seate, and it had two leanyng postes vpon both the sydes of the seate,

19 and two lyons stode beside the leanyng postes, and there stode twolue Lions vpo the syxe steppes on both the sides. In all realmes hath not soch one bene made.

20 And all kynge Salomons drynkynge vessels were of golde, and all the vessels of the house of the wod of Libanus, were of pure golde: for syluer was rekened nothinge in Salomons tyme.

21 For the kynges shippes wente vpon the See with the seruantes of Hira, & came once in thre yeare, and brought golde, syluer, Yuery, Apes and Pecockes.

22 Thus was kynge Salomon greater then all the kynges vpon earth, in riches and wisdom.

23 And all the kynges of ye earth desired (to se) Salomons face, and to heare his wisdom, which God had geuen him in his hert.

24 And they brought him yearly euery ma his present: Iewels of siluer and golde, raymet, harnesse, spyces, horses and Mules.

25 And Salomon had foure thousande charethorses, and twolue thousande horsmen, and put them in the charecities, and with the kynge at Ierusalem.

26 And he was lorde ouer all the kynges from the water vnto the londe of the Philistynes, and to the coaste of Egipte.

27 And the kynge brought it so to passe, that there was as moch syluer at Ierusalem as stones: and as many Ceders, as there were Molbery trees in the valleys.

28 And there were horses broughte vnto him out of Egipte, and out of all countres.

29 What more there is to saye of Salomon, both of his first and of his last, beholde, it is writte in the Cronicles of the prophet Nathan, and in the prophecies of Ahia of Silo, & in ye actes of Ieddi the Seer against Ieroboa ye sonne of Nebat.

30 And Salomo reigned at Ierusalem ouer all Israel fortie yeares.

31 And Salomon fell on slepe wt his fathers, & was buried in the cyte of Daudid his father. And Roboa his sonne was kige i his steade.

Chapter 10

1 Roboam wente vnto Sichem: for all Israel was come vnto Sichem: to make him kinge.

2 And whan Ieroboa the sonne of Nebat herde that, which was in Egipte (whither he was fled for kynge Salomon) he came agayne out of Egipte.

3 And they sent for him and called him. And Ieroboa came with all Israel, and spake to Roboam, and sayde:

4 Thy father made or yocke greuous: make thou lighter now ye harde bondage of thy father, and ye heuy yocke that he layed vpon vs, and we wyll submytte oure selues vnto the.

5 He sayde vnto them: Come to me agayne ouer thre dayes. And ye people wente their waye.

6 And Roboam the kynge axed coucell at the Elders, which had stonde before Salomon his father whyle he lyued, and he sayde: What is youre coucell, that I maye geue this people an answer?

7 They spake vnto him, and sayde: Yf thou be louynge vnto this people, and deale gently with them, and geue them good wordes, then shal they allwaye be obedient vnto the.

8 Neuerthelesse he forsoke the coucell of the Elders that they had geuen him, and toke coucell at ye yonge men which were growne vp wt him, and stode before him.

9 And he sayde vnto the: What is youre coucell, that we maye answere this people, which haue spoken vnto me, and saide: Make oure yock lighter, yt thy father layed vpon vs?

10 The yongemen yt were growne vp with him, spake vnto him, and sayde:

Thus shalt thou saye vnto the people, that haue talked with the & spoken: Thy father made oure yock to heuy, make thou or yock lighter, Thus shalt thou saye vnto them: My litle finger shalbe thicker then my fathers loynes.

11 Yf my father hath layed an heuy yock vpon you, I wyl make youre yock the more. My father chastened you wt scourges, but I wyl beate you with scorpions.

12 Now whan Ieroboa and all the people came to Roboam on the thirde daye (acordynge as ye kinge sayde: Come to me againe on the thirde daie)

13 the kynge gaue the an harde answer. And Roboa the kynge forsoke ye coucell of the Elders, 14 & spake vnto the after ye yonge mens coucell, & sayde: Yf my father haue made yor yock to heuy, I wil make it yet heuyer. My father chastened you wt scourges, but I wyl beate you wt scorpions.

15 Thus the kynge folowed not ye peoples minde: for so was it deterned of God, yt ye LORDE might stablishe his worde, which he spake by Ahia of Silo, vnto Ieroboa ye sonne of Nebat.

16 But whan all Israel sawe that the kynge wolde not consente vnto them, ye people answered the kynge, and sayde: What porcion haue we then in Daudid, or inheritaunce in the sonne of Isai? Let euery man of Israel get him to his tent. Loke thou now to thy house Daudid. And all Israel wente vnto their tentes, 17 so that Roboam reigned but ouer the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Iuda.

18 And Roboam sent forth Adoram the rentgatherer, but the children of Israel stoned him to death. And kynge Roboa strengthed himselfe vpon his charet, to flye vnto Ierusalem.

19 Thus fell Israel awaie fro the house of Daudid vnto this daye.

Chapter 11

1 And whan Roboam came to Ierusalem, he gathered together the house of Iuda and Benlamin (euen an hudreth and foure score thousande chosen men of armes) to fyghte agaynst Israel, that they mighte brynge the kyngdome agayne vnto Roboam.

2 But ye worde of the LORDE came to Semaia the man of God, and sayde:

3 Speake to Roboam the sonne of Salomon kynge of Iuda, and to all Israel yt are in Iuda and Benlamin, and saye:

4 Thus sayeth the LORDE: Ye shal not go vp, ner fyght agaynst youre brethren: let euery man go home agayne, for this is my dede. They herkened vnto the wordes of ye LORDE, and wete not forth agaynst Ieroboa.

5 As for Roboa, he dwelt at Ierusalem, and buylded vp the stronge cities in Iuda,

6 namely Bethlee, Etan, Tekoa,

7 Bethzur, Socho, Adulla,

8 Gath, Maresa, Siph,

9 Adoraim, Laches, Aseka,

10 Zarega, Aialon, and Hebron (which were the fensed cities in Iuda and Benlamin)

11 & he made them stronge, and set prynces therin, & prouyded them of vytayles, oyle and wyne, 12 and in all cities prepared he shildes and speares, and made them very stronge.

And Iuda and Benlamin were vnder him.

13 The Prestes and Leuites also came vnto him out of Israel and from all the borders therof, 14 And lefte their suburbes & possession, and came to Iuda vnto Ierusalem: for Ieroboa and his sonnes expelled them, that they shulde not execute the offyce of ye presthode vnto ye LORDE.

15 But for himselfe he fouded prestes to ye hye places, & to feldedeuels & calues, which he caused to make.

16 And after them came there men out of all the trybes of Israel, which gaue ouer their hertes to seke ye LORDE God of Israel, & came to Ierusalem for to offre vnto the LORDE God of their fathers.

17 And so strengthened they ye kingdome of Iuda, and matayned Roboam the sonne of Salomon thre yeare longe: for they walked in ye waye of Daudid & Salomon thre yeares.

18 And Roboam toke Mahelath ye daughter of Ieremoth ye sonne of Daudid to wife, & Abihail the daughter of Eliab ye sonne of Isai, 19 which bare him these sonnes: Ieus, Semaria & Saham.

20 After her toke he Maecha the daughter of Absalom, which bare him Abia, Athai Sisa and Selomith.

21 But Roboam loued Maecha the daughter of Absalom better then all his wyues & concubynes: for he had eightene wyues and thre score cocubynes, and begat eight & twentye sonnes, and thre score daughters.

22 And Roboam set Abia the sonne of Maecha to be heade and prynce amonge his brethren: for he thoughte to make him kynge:

23 for he was wyse, & more mightie then all his sonnes in all the countrees of Iuda & Benlamin, and in all the stronge cities. And he gaue them plenteousnes of fode, and desyred many wyues.

Chapter 12

1 Bvt wha the kyngdome of Roboam was confirmed and stablyshed, he forsoke the lawe of the LORDE & all Israel with him.

2 And in the fyfth yeare of Roboam wete Sisack the kynge of Egipte vp agaynst Ierusalem (for they had transgressed agaynst the LORDE)

3 with a thousande and two hundreth charettes, and with thre score thousande horsmen, and the people were innumerable that came with him out of Egipte, Libya, Suchim & out of Ethiopias, 4 and he wanne the stroge cities that were in Iuda, and came to Ierusalem.

5 Then came Semaia ye prophet vnto

Roboam and to ye rulers of Iuda (which were gathered together at Ierusalem for Sisack) & sayde vnto them: Thus sayeth ye LORDE: Ye haue lefte me, therfore haue I lefte you also in Sisacks hande.

6 The rulers in Israel with the kynge submytted them selues, and sayde: The LORDE is righteous.

7 But wha the LORDE sawe yt they hubled them selues, ye worde of the LORDE came to Semaia, & sayde: They haue humbled them selues, therfore wyl I not destroye them, but I wyl geue them a litle delyueraunce, that my indignacion fall not vpon Ierusalem by Sisack:

8 for they shalbe subdued vnto him, yt they maye knowe what it is to serue me, & to serue the kyngdomes of the worlde.

9 Thus wete Sisack the kynge of Egipte vp to Ierusalem, & toke the treasures in the house of the LORDE, & the treasures in the kynges house, and caried all awaye, and toke the shyldes of golde that Salomon caused to make:

10 In steade wherof kynge Roboa made shyldes of stele, and commytted the vnto the chefe fotemen, which kepte the dore of the kynges house.

11 And as oft as the kynge wente in to the house of the LORDE, ye fote men came & bare them, & brought them againe in to ye fote mens chaber.

12 And for so moch as he submytted himselfe, ye wrath of ye LORDE turned fro him, so that all was not destroyed: for there was yet some good in Iuda.

13 Thus was Roboam the kinge established in Ierusalem, and reigned. One and fortye yeare olde was Roboam wha he was made kynge, and reigned seuentene yeare at Ierusalem in the cite, which the LORDE had chosen out of all the trybes of Israel, to set his name there. His mothers name was Naema an Ammonitisse:

14 and he did euell, and prepared not his hert to seke the LORDE.

15 These actes of Roboam, both fyrst and last, are wrytten in the actes of Semaia the prophet, & of Iddo the Seer, and are noted, & so are the warres that Roboam and Ieroboa had together as longe as they lyued.

16 And Roboam fell on slepe with his fathers and was buried in the cite of Daudid, & Abia his sonne was kynge in his steade.

Chapter 13

1 In the eighteenth yeare of kynge Ieroboa, was Abia kynge in Iuda, 2 & reigned thre yeare at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Michaiia the daughter of Vriel of Gibeia. And there was warre betwene Abia and Ieroboa.

3 And Abia prepared himselfe to the battayll with foure hudreth thousande stronge chosen men of warre. But Ieroboa made himselfe ready to fight agaynst him wt eight hundreth thousande chosen men of strength.

4 And Abia gatt him vp vpon the hyll

Zemaraim, which lyeth vpon mount Ephraim and sayde: Herken vnto me thou Ieroboam and all Israel:

5 Knowe ye not that the LORDE God of Israel hath geuen Daudid ye kyngdome of Israel for euer, vnto him and his sonnes with a Salt couenaunt?

6 But Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, the seruaunt of Salomon Dauids sonne, gat him vp & fell away from his lorde.

7 And there resorted vnto him vagaboundes and children of Belial, and haue strengthened them selues against Roboam the sonne of Salomo: for Roboam was but yonge and of a fearfull hert, and coulde not resiste them.

8 Now thinke ye to set youre selues against the kyngdome of the LORDE amonge the sonnes of Daudid, for so much as there is so greate a multitude of you, and haue ye golden calues yt Ieroboam made for goddes.

9 Haue ye not expelled the prestes of the LORDE the children of Aaron and the Leuites? and haue made you prestes of youre awne, euen as the people of the londes? Who so euer commeth to fyll his hande with a yonge bullocke and seuen rammes, shall be preste vnto them that are not goddes.

10 But with vs is ye LORDE oure God, who we forsake not: and the prestes that minister vnto the LORDE, the children of Aaron and the Leuites in their busines, 11 and euery mornynge and euery euenynge kyndle they the burntofferynge vnto the LORDE, and the swete incense, and prepare the shewbred vpo the pure table, and the golden candilstick with his lampes, to be kyndled euery euenynge: for we wayte vpo the LORDE oure God. As for you, ye haue forsaken him.

12 Beholde, God is the captayne of oure hoost, and with vs are his prestes, and the blowingge trompettes, to trompe agaynst you. Ye children of Israel, fight not agaynst the LORDE God of your fathers: for ye shall not prosper.

13 Neuertheles Ieroboam made a preuy watch on euery syde, to come vpon them behynde, so that they were before Iuda, and ye preuy watch behynde.

14 Now wha Iuda turned them, beholde, there was battayll before the & behynde. Then cryed they vnto ye LORDE, & the prestes tromped with the trompettes, 15 & wha euery man in Iuda gaue a shoute, God plagued Ieroboam and Israel before Abia and Iuda.

16 And the children of Israel fled before Iuda, and God gaue them in to their handes, 17 so that Abia & his people dyd a greate slaughter vpon them, and there fell wounded of Israel fyue hundreth thousande chosen men.

18 Thus were the children of Israel subdued at that tyme, but the children of Iuda were comforted, for they put their trust in ye LORDE God of their fathers.

19 And Abia folowed vpon Ieroboam, and wanne cities fro him, Bethel with the vyllages therof, Iesana wt hir vyllages, and Ephron with the villages therof, 20 so that Ieroboam came nomore to strength, as longe as Abia lyued. And the LORDE smote him that he dyed.

21 Now whan Abia was strengthened, he toke fourtene wyues, and begat two and twenty sonnes and sixtene daughters.

22 What more there is to saye of Abia, and of his wayes and his doynge, it is wrytten in the storrye of the prophet Iddo.

Chapter 14

1 And Abia fell on slepe with his fathers, and they buryed him in ye cite of Daudid: and Asa his sonne was kyng in his steade. In his tyme was the londe in rest ten yeares.

2 And Asa dyd that which was good & right in the sighte of the LORDE his God,

3 and put away the straunge altares, and the hye places, and brake the pilers, and hewed downe the groues,

4 and sayde vnto Iuda, that they shulde seke the LORDE God of their fathers, and to do after ye lawe and commaundementes.

5 And the hye places and ymages put he awaye out of all the cities of Iuda: and the kyngdome had rest before him.

6 And he builded stroge cities in Iuda, whyle the londe was in quietnes, & whyle there was no warre agaynst him in the same yeares: for ye LORDE gaue him rest.

7 And he sayde vnto Iuda: Let vs buylde vp these cities, and fense them rounde aboute with walles and towres, with portes and barres, while the londe is yet with vs: for we haue soughte the LORDE oure God, and he hath geuen vs rest on euery syde. So they buylded, and it wente prosperously with the 8 And Asa had an hoost of me which bare shildes & speares, out of Iuda thre C. thousande, and out of BenIamin two hundreth and foure score thousande, that bare shyldes & coulde shute wt bowes, and all these were mightie stronge men.

9 But Serah the Moryan came out against the wt an hoost of a thousande times a thousande, and with thre hundreth charettes, and came vnto Maresa.

10 And Asa wente forth agaynst him. And they prepared them selues to the battayll in the valley Zephata beside Maresa.

11 And Asa called vpon ye LORDE his God and sayde: LORDE, it is no differece wt ye, to helpe by fewe or by many. Helpe vs O LORDE oure God: for oure trust is in the, & in thy name are we come forth against this multitude.

LORDE oure God, let no man preuayle agaynst the.

12 And the LORDE smote the Morias before Asa and before Iuda, so that they fled.

13 And Asa with ye people that was by him, folowed vpon them vnto Gerar. And the Morias fell, so that none of them remained alyue, but were smytten before the LORDE and before his hoost. And they caried exceadinge moch spoyle from thence.

14 And he smote all the cyties aboute Gerar, for a fearfulnessse of the LORDE came vpon them. And they spoyled all the cities, for there was moch spoyle in them.

15 They smote the tentes of the catell also, and toke many shepe and Camels, and came agayne to Ierusalem.

Chapter 15

1 And the sprete of God came vpo Asarias the sonne of Obed,

2 which wente forth to Asa, and sayde vnto him: Heare me Asa and all Iuda & Ben Iamin: The LORDE is with you, whyle ye are with him: and yf ye seke him, he wylbe founde of you. But yf ye forsake him, he shal forsake you also.

3 Neuertheles there shal be many dayes in Israel, that there shalbe no true God, no prest to teach, & no lawe.

4 And when they turne in their trouble vnto the LORDE God of Israel, and seke him, he shalbe founde.

5 At that tyme shall it not be well with him that goeth out and in: for there shal be greate vprours vpon all them yt dwell on the earth.

6 For one people shall all to smyte another, & one cite another: for God shal vexe them wt all maner of trouble.

7 But be ye stronge, and let not youre handes be feble: for youre worke hath his rewarde.

8 Whan Asa herde these wordes, and the propheciege (of Asarias the sonne) of Obed the prophet, he toke a corage vnto him, and put awaye the abhominacions out of all ye londe of Iuda and Ben Iamin, and out of the cities that he had wonne vpon mount Ephraim: and renewed the LORDES altare, which stode before the porche of the LORDE.

9 And all Iuda and Ben Iamin gathered them selues together, and the straungers with them out of Ephraim, Manasses and Simeon: for there fell many vnto him out of Israel, when they sawe that the LORDE his God was with him.

10 And they resorted vnto Ierusalem in the thirde moneth of the fyfteenth yeare of the reigne of Asa,

11 and the same daye offred they vnto the LORDE of the spoyle that they had broughte, seuen hundreth oxen, and seuen thousande shepe.

12 And they entred in to ye couenaunt, that they wolde seke the LORDE God of their fathers, with all their hert and with all their soule.

13 And who so euer wolde not seke ye LORDE God of Israel, shulde dye, both small & greate, both man and woman:

14 and they sware vnto the LORDE with loude voyce, with shoutinge, with trompettes and with shawmes.

15 And all Iuda were glad ouer the ooth: for they had sworne with all their hert, and they soughte him with a whole wyll:

and he was founde of them, and the LORDE gaue them rest on euery syde.

16 And Asa ye kyng put downe his mother from the mynistracion, that she had founded in the groue vnto Miplezeth. And Asa roted out hir Miplezeth, and beate it in sunder, and brent it by the broke Cedron.

17 But the hye places were not put downe out of Israel. Yet was the hert of Asa perfecte as longe as he lyued.

18 And loke what his father had halowed, and that he him selfe had halowed, he broughte it in to ye house of God, syluer, golde and ornemetes.

19 And there was no warre vnto the fyue and thirtieth yeare of the reigne of Asa.

Chapter 16

1 In the sixe and thirtieth yeare of ye reigne of Asa, wente Baesa the kyng of Israel vp agaynst Iuda, and buylded Rama, to let Asa the kyng of Iuda, yt he shulde not go out and in:

2 But Asa toke forth the treasure in the house of the LORDE, and the syluer and golde in the kynges house, and sent it vnto Benadad ye kyng of Syria, which dwelt at Damascon, and caused to saye vnto him:

3 There is a couenaunt betwene me and the, betwene my father and thy father, therefore haue I sent ye syluer and golde, that thou mayest breake ye couenaunt with Baesa the kyng of Israel, that he maye departe fro me,

4 Benadad herkened vnto kyng Asa, and sent his hoost agaynst the cities of Israel, which smote Eion, Dan and Abel Maim, and all the corne cities of Nephtali.

5 Whan Baesa herde that, he lefte of from buyldinge Rama, and ceased from his worke.

6 But kyng Asa toke all Iuda vnto him, and caried awaye ye stones and tymber (wherwith Baesa buylded) and he buylded Geba & Mizpa withall.

7 At the same tyme came Hanani the Seer vnto Asa the kyng of Iuda, and sayde vnto him: Because thou hast trusted vnto the kyng of Syria, and not put thy trust in the LORDE thy God, therefore is the power of the kyng of Syria escaped thy hade.

8 Were not the Moryans and Lybians a greate multitude with exceadinge many charettes and horsmen? Yet gaue the LORDE them in to thy hande, whan thou dydest put thy trust in him:

9 for the eyes of the LORDE loke rounde aboute all londes, to strength them yt are in him with all their hert. Thou hast done vnwisely, therefore shalt thou haue warre from hece forth.

10 But Asa was wroth at ye Seer, and put him in preson: for he murmured with him ouer this thinge. And Asa oppressed certayne of the people at ye same tyme.

11 These actes of Asa both first and last, beholde, they are wrytten in the boke of ye kynges of Iuda & Israel.

12 And Asa was diseased in his fete in the nyne and thirtieth yeare of his reigne, and endured ther ouer. Nether soughte he the LORDE in his sicknesse, but trusted vnto Phisicians.

13 Thus fell Asa on slepe with his fathers, & dyed in the one and fortieth yeare of his reigne, 14 & was buried in his awne sepulcre which he had caused to be grauen for him selfe in the cite of Dauid. And they layed him vpon his bed, which was fylled with swete odoures & all maner of spyces (made after ye Apotecaries craft) and made a very greate burnynge.

Chapter 17

1 And Iosaphat his sonne was kynge in his steade, & waxed mightie against Israel.

2 And he put men of warre in all the stronge cities of Iuda, and set officers in the londe of Iuda, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had wonne.

3 And the LORDE was wt Iosaphat: for he walked in the olde wayes of his father Dauid, & soughte not Baalim,

4 but the God of his father, & walked in his commaundementes, & not after the workes of Israel:

5 therefore dyd the LORDE stablysche the kyngdome in his hade. And all Iuda gaue presentes vnto Iosaphat, & he had greate riches & worshippe.

6 And whan his hert was coraged in the wayes of the LORDE, he put downe styll the hye places and groues out of Iuda.

7 In the thirde yeare of his reigne sent he his prynces, Benhail, Obadia, Zacharias, Nethaneel & Michaia, to teach in the cities of Iuda:

8 & with them the Leuites: Semaia, Nethania, Sebadia, Asahel, Semiramoth, Ionathan, Adonia, Tobia & Tob Adonia, & with them ye prestes Elisama & Ioram.

9 And they taughte in Iuda, & had the boke of the lawe of ye LORDE wt them, & wente aboute in all ye cities of Iuda, & taughte the people.

10 And the feare of the LORDE came vpon all ye kyngdomes in the countrees that laye aboute Iuda, so yt they foughte not agaynst Iosaphat.

11 And the Philistynes broughte presentes and trybute of syluer vnto Iosaphat. And the Arabians broughte him seuen thousande and seuen hundreth rammes, and seuen thousande and seuen hundreth he goates.

12 Thus increased Iosaphat, & grewe euer greater. And he buylded castels and corne cities in Iuda.

13 And dyd moch in the cities of Iuda, and had valeaunt and mightie men at Ierusalem.

14 And this was ye ordinaunce thorow out the house of their fathers, which were rulers ouer the thousandes in Iuda. Adna a captayne, & wt him were thre hundreth thousande mightie men.

15 Nexte vnto him was Iohanan ye chefe, and with him were two hundreth and four score thousande.

16 Nexte him was Amasia the sonne of Sichri the fre wyllinge of ye LORDE, and with him were two hundreth thousande valeaunt men.

17 Of the children of Ben Iamin was Eliada a mightie man, and with him were two hundreth thousande ready with bowes and shyldes.

18 Nexte vnto him was Iosabad, and with him were an hundreth and four score thousande harnessed men of warre.

19 All these wayted vpon the kynge, besydes those that the kynge had layed in the stroge cities thorow out all Iuda.

Chapter 18

1 And Iosaphat had greate riches and worshippe, and made frendshippe wt Achab.

2 And after two yeares wente he downe to Achab vnto Samaria. And Achab caused many shepe and oxen to be slayne for him and for ye people that were with him. And he counceled him to go vp vnto Ramoth in Gilead.

3 And Achab the kynge of Israel sayde vnto Iosaphat the kynge of Iuda: Go with me vnto Ramoth in Gilead. He sayde vnto him: I am as thou, and my people as thy people, we wyll go with the vnto the battayll.

4 But Iosaphat sayde vnto the kynge of Israel: Axe counsell (I praye the) this daye at the worde of the LORDE.

5 And the kynge of Israel gathered the prophetes together, euen four hundred men, & saide vnto them: Shal we go to the battayll vnto Ramoth in Gilead, or shal I let it alone? They sayde: Go vp, God shal delyuer it into the kynges hade.

6 But Iosaphat sayde: Is there not yet one prophet of the LORDE here, yt we maye axe at him?

7 The kynge of Israel sayde vnto Iosaphat: There is yet one man, at whom we maye axe of ye LORDE: but I hate him, for he prophecieth me no good, but allwaye euell, namely Micheas the sonne of Iemla. Iosaphat sayde: Let not the kynge saye so.

8 And the kynge of Israel called one of his chamberlaynes, & sayde: Brynge hither soone Micheas the sonne of Iemla.

9 And the kynge of Israel, and Iosaphat the kynge of Iuda, sat either of them vpon his seate, arayed in their garmentes. Euen in the place at the dore of the porte of Samaria sat they, and all ye prophetes prophecied before them.

10 And Sedechias the sonne of Cnaena had made him hornes of yron, and sayde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: With these shalt thou pu?she at the Syrians, tyll thou brynge them to naughte.

11 And all the prophetes prophecied likewyse, & sayde: Go vp vnto Ramoth in Gilead, and thou shalt prospere, and ye LORDE shal delyuer it in to the kynges hande.

12 And the messaunger that wente to call Micheas, spake vnto him, and sayde:

Beholde, ye wordes of the prophetes are with one acorde good before the kynge: let thy worde (I praye the) be as one of theirs, and speake thou good also.

13 But Micheas sayde: As truly as the LORDE Iyueth, loke what my God sayeth vnto me, yt wyl I speake.

14 And whan he came to the kynge, the kynge sayde vnto him: Micheas, shulde we go vnto Ramoth in Gilead to the battayll, or shulde we let it alone? He saide: Go vp, and ye shal prospere. It shal be geue you in youre handes.

15 But ye kynge sayde vnto him: I charge ye yet agayne, that thou tell me nothings but ye trueth in the name of the LORDE.

16 Then saide he: I sawe all Israel scatered abrode vpo the mountaynes, as the shepe yt haue no shepherd. And the LORDE sayde: Hau these no lorde? Let euery one turne home agayne in peace.

17 The sayde the kynge of Israel vnto Iosaphat: Dyd not I tell the, yt he wolde prophecie me no good, but euell?

18 And he sayde: Therfore heare ye the worde of the LORDE: I sawe the LORDE syt vpon his seate, and all the hoost of heauen standinge at his righte hande & at his lefte.

19 And the LORDE sayde: Wo yll disceaue Achab the kynge of Israel, that he maye go vp & fall at Ramoth in Gilead? And whan one sayde thus, another so, 20 there came forth a sprete, and stode before ye LORDE, and sayde: I wyl disceaue him. The LORDE sayde vnto him: Wherwith?

21 He sayde: I wyl go forth, and be a false sprete in the mouth of all his prophetes. And he sayde: Thou shalt disceaue him, and shalt be able: go thy waye, and do so.

22 Beholde now, the LORDE hath geuen a false sprete in the mouth of all these thy prophetes, and the LORDE hath spoke euell agaynst the.

23 Then stepte forth Sedechias the sonne of Cnaena, and smote Micheas vpon the cheke, and sayde: Which waye is the sprete of ye LORDE departed fro me, to speake thorow the?

24 Micheas sayde: Beholde, thou shalt se it, whan thou comest in to ye ynmst chamber to hyde the.

25 But the kynge of Israel sayde: Take Micheas, and let him remayne wt Amon the ruler of the cite, and with Ioas the sonne of Melech, 26 and saye: Thus sayeth the kynge: Put this man in preson, and fede him wt bred and water of trouble, tyll I come agayne in peace.

27 Micheas saide: Yf thou comest agayne in peace, then hath not the LORDE spoken thorow me. And he sayde: Herken to all ye people.

28 So the kynge of Israel, and Iosaphat ye kynge of Iuda wente vp vnto Ramoth in Gilead.

29 And ye kynge of Israel sayde vnto Iosaphat: Change thy clothes, and come to the battayll in thine araye. And ye kynge of Israel chaunged his rayment, & came in to the battayll.

30 But the kynge of Syria had commaunded the rulers of his charettes: Ye shal fighte nether agaynst small ner greate, but onely agaynst the kynge of Israel.

31 Now whan the rulers of the charrettes sawe Iosaphat, they thoughte: It is ye kynge of Israel, and they wete aboute to fighte agaynst him. But Iosaphat cryed, and the LORDE helped him. And God turned them from him:

32 for whan the rulers of the charettes sawe that it was not ye kynge of Israel, they turned back from him.

33 But a certayne man bended his bowe harde, & shot the kynge of Israel betwene the mawe and the longes. The sayde he vnto his charet man: Turne thine hade, and cary me out of the hoost, for I am wounded.

34 And the battayll was sore the same daye. And the kynge of Israel stode vpon his charet agaynst the Syrians vntyll the euenynge, and dyed wha the Sonne wente downe.

Chapter 19

1 Bvt Iosaphat the kynge of Iuda came home agayne in peace vnto Ierusalem.

2 And Iehu ye sonne of Hanani the Seer wete forth to mete him, & sayde vnto kynge Iosaphat: Shuldest thou so helpe the vngodly, and loue them that hate the LORDE? And for this cause is ye wrath vpo the from the LORDE:

3 neuertheles there is some good founde in the, that thou hast put the groues out of the londe, and hast prepared thine hert to seke God.

4 So Iosaphat abode at Ierusalem. And he wente agayne amonge the people, from Berseba vnto mout Ephraim, and broughte them agayne to the LORDE God of their fathers.

5 And he set Iudges thorow out the londe, in all the stronge cities of Iuda, and a certayne in euery cite.

6 And sayde vnto the Iudges: Take hede what ye do: for ye execute not the iudgment of man, but of the LORDE, and he is with you in iudgment:

7 therefore let the feare of the LORDE be with you, and bewarre, and do it: for with the LORDE oure God there is no vnrighteousnes, ner respecte of persones, ner acceptinge of giftes.

8 And at Ierusalem dyd Iosaphat ordeyne certayne of the Leuites and prestes, and of the awnciet fathers of Israel for ye iudgment of the LORDE, and ouer the matter of the lawe, and caused them to dwell at Ierusalem, 9 and commaunded them, and sayde: Se that ye do thus in the feare of the LORDE, in faithfulness & in a perfect hert.

10 In all causes that come vnto you from youre brethren (which dwell in their cities) betwene bloude and bloude, betwene lawe and commaundement, betwene statutes and ordinaunces ye shal enforme them, yt they synne not against the LORDE, and so the wrath to come vpon you and youre brethren. Do thus, and ye shal not offende.

11 Beholde, Amaria the prest is chefe ouer you in all causes of ye LORDE: so is Sabadia the sonne of Ismael prynce in the house of Iuda in all the kynges matters: Ye haue officers likewyse the Leuites before you. Take a good corage vnto you, and be doynge, and the LORDE shalbe with the good.

Chapter 20

1 After this came the childe of Moab, the children of Ammon, and certayne of Amanim wt them, to fighte against Iosaphat.

2 And they came and tolde Iosaphat, and sayde: There cometh a greate multitude agaynst the from beyonde the See of Syria, & beholde, they are at Hazezon Tamar, that is Engaddi.

3 And Iosaphat was afrayed, & set his face to seke ye LORDE, & caused a fast to be proclaimed in all Iuda.

4 And Iuda came together to seke the LORDE. And out of all ye cities of Iuda came they to seke the LORDE.

5 And Iosaphat stode amoge ye cogregacion of Iuda & Ierusalem in the house of ye LORDE before the new courte,

6 and sayde: O LORDE God of oure fathers, art not thou God in heauen, and hast domynion in all the kyngdomes of the Heythen? And in thy hande is strength and power, and there is no man that can withstode the.

7 Hast not thou or God expelled the inhabitants of this londe before thy people of Israel? and hast geue it vnto the sede of Abraham thy louer for euer?

8 so that they haue dwelt in it, & haue buylde the a Sanctuary vnto yi name therin, and sayde:

9 Yf there come eny plage, swerde, iudgmet, pestilence, or derth vpon vs, we wyll stonde before this house euen before the (for thy name is in this house) and wyll crye vnto the in oure trouble, and thou shalt heare, and shalt saue vs.

10 Beholde now, the children of Ammon, of Moab, & they of mount Seir, vpon whom thou woldest not suffre the children of Israel to go, when they wente out of the londe of Egipte, but they were fayne to departe from the, and not to destroye them:

11 and beholde, they deale contrarely with vs, and come to thrust vs out of the inheritance, that thou hast geuen vs in possession.

12 O oure God, wylt thou not iudge them? For in vs is no strength to withstonde this greate multitude that commeth agaynst vs. We knowe not what we shulde do, but oure eyes loke vnto the.

13 And all Iuda stode before the LORDE, with their children, wyues and sonnes.

14 But vpon Iehasiel the sonne of Zacharias, the sonne of Benaia, the sonne of Iehiel, the sonne of Mathania the Leuite of ye children of Assaph, came the sprete of the LORDE in the myddes of the congregacion, 15 and sayde: Geue hede all thou Iuda, and ye inhabitants of Ierusalem, and thou kyng Iosaphat: Thus sayeth the LORDE vnto you: Be not ye afrayed, nether feare ye this greate multitude: for it is not ye that fighte, but God.

16 Tomorrow shal ye go downe vnto the. And beholde, they go vp by Sis, and ye shal fynde them at the reed see by the broke before the wyldernes of Ieruel:

17 for ye shall not fighte in this cause. Do ye but steppe forth, and stonde, and se the health of the LORDE that is with you. Feare not O Iuda and Ierusalem, and be not afrayed, tomorrow go ye forth agaynst them, and the LORDE shalbe with you.

18 The Iosaphat bowed him selfe wt his face to the earth, & all Iuda, & the inhabitants of Ierusalem fell before the LORDE, & worshipped the LORDE.

19 And the Leuites of ye childe of the Kahathites & of the children of the Corahites arose to prayse the LORDE God of Israel wt loude voyce on hye.

20 And they gat them vp early in ye mornynge, and wete forth by the wyldernes of Thekoa. And when they were goynge out, Iosaphat stode, & sayde: Herke vnto me O Iuda, & ye indwellers of Ierusalem: Put youre trust in the LORDE yor God, & ye shal be safe: and geue credence vnto his prophetes, & ye shall prospere.

21 And he gaue counsell vnto ye people, and appoynted the syngers vnto ye LORDE, and them that gaue prayse in the bewtye of holynes to go before the harnessed me, & to saye: O geue thanks vnto the LORDE, for his mercy endureth for euer.

22 And when they beganne to geue thanks and prayse, the LORDE caused the hynder watch that was come agaynst Iuda, to come vpon the childe of Ammon, Moab & them of mount Seir, and they smote them.

23 Then stode the children of Ammon & Moab agaynst them of mount Seir, to damne them, and to destroye them. And when they had destroyed them of mount Seir, one helped another to destroye them selues also.

24 And when Iuda came to Mispa vnto the wyldernes, they turned them towarde the multitude, and beholde, the deed bodies laye vpo the earth, so that none was escaped.

25 And Iosaphat came with his people to deuyde the spoyle of them. And they founde amonge them so moch goodes and rayment and precious Iewels (which they toke from them) that they coulde not beare them. And three dayes were they deuydinge the spoyle, for it was so moch.

26 On the fourth daye came they together into the valley of blessinge: for there blessed they the LORDE. Therefore is the place called the valley of blessinge vnto this daye.

27 So euery man of Iuda & Ierusalem turned back agayne, & Iosaphat before them, to go to Ierusalem with ioye: for ye LORDE had geuen them gladnesse on their enemies.

28 And they entred in to Ierusalem with psalteries, harpes & trompettes vnto the house of the LORDE.

29 And there came a feare of God ouer all the kyngdomes in the londes, when they herde that the LORDE had foughte agaynst ye enemies of Israel.

30 Thus was ye kyngdome of Iosaphat in quyetnes, & God gaue him rest on euery syde.

31 And Iosaphat reigned ouer Iuda, & was fyue & thirtie yeare olde when he was made kyng, & reigned fyue & twenty yeare at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Asuba the daughter of Silhi

32 And he walked in the waye of his father Asa, & departed not asyde from doynge yt which was righte in the sighte of the LORDE:

33 sauynge that ye hye places were not put downe, for the people had not yet prepared their hert to the God of their fathers.

34 What more there is to saye of Iosaphat, both the first & the last, beholde, it is wrytten in the actes of Iehu ye sonne of Hanani, which he noted vp in the boke of the kynges of Israel.

35 Afterwarde dyd Iosaphat the kyng of Iuda agree wt Ahasia the kyng of Israel, which was vngodly in his doynge.

36 And he agreed with him to make shippes, for to go vpon the see. And they made the shippes at Ezeon Gaber.

37 But Eliaser the sonne of Dodana of Maresa prophecied agaynst Iosaphat, and sayde: Because thou hast agreed with Ahasia, therefore hath the LORDE broken thy workes. And so ye shippes were broken, & mighte not go vpon the See.

Chapter 21

1 And Iosaphat fell on slepe wt his fathers, & was buried wt his fathers in the cite of Daud, & Ioram his sonne was kyng in his steade.

2 And he had brethre the sonnes of Iosaphat: Asaria, Iehiel, Zacharias, Asaria, Michael & Sephatia. All these were the children of Iosaphat kyng of Iuda.

3 And their father gaue them many giftes of syluer, golde & Iewels, wt stronge cities in Iuda. But the kyngdome gaue he vnto Ioram: for he was the first borne.

4 But when Ioram came vp ouer his fathers kyngdome, & had gotten the power of it, he slewe all his brethre with the swerde, & certayne rulers also in Israel.

5 Two & thirtie yeare olde was Ioram when he was made kyng, & reigned eight yeare at Ierusalem,

6 & walked in the waye of ye kynges of Israel, euen as the house of Achab dyd (for Achabs daughter was his wife) & he dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE.

7 Neuertheles ye LORDE wolde not destroye the house of Daud, for the couenauntes sake, which he made wt Daud, and accordinge as he had sayde, yt he wolde geue him and his children a lanterne for euermore.

8 At ye same tyme fell ye Edomites awaye from Iuda, and made a kyng ouer them selues:

9 for Ioram had gone ouer with his captaynes and all the charettes with him, & had gotten him vp in the night season, and slayne the Edomites on euery syde, and the rulers of the charettes:

10 therefore fell ye Edomites awaye from Iuda vnto this daye. At ye same tyme fell Lybna awaye from him also: because he forsoke the LORDE God of his fathers.

11 He made hye places also on the mountaynes in Iuda, & caused them of Ierusalem to go awhorynge, and discaued Iuda.

12 But there came a wrytinge vnto him fro the prophet Elias, sayenge: Thus sayeth the LORDE God of thy father Daud: Because thou hast not walked in the wayes of thy father Iosaphat, nether in ye wayes of Asa the kyng of Iuda, 13 but walkest in the waye of the kynges of Israel, and makest Iuda and them of Ierusalem to go awhorynge after the whordome of the house of Achab, and hast slayne thy brethren also of thy fathers house, which were better the thou.

14 Beholde, the LORDE shal smyte the wt a greate plage on thy people, on thy children & thy wyues, and on all thy substaunce.

15 But thou thy selfe shalt haue moch sicknesse in thy bowels, tyll thy bowels go forth from daye to daye for very disease.

16 So ye LORDE raysed vp agaynst Ioram, the sprete of the Philistynes, & Arabians, which lye besyde the Morians, 17 and they wente vp in to Iuda, and waysted it, and caried awaye all the substaunce that was founde in the kynges house, & his sonnes, and his wyues, so yt there was not one sonne lefte him, saue Ioahas his yogest sonne.

18 And after all this dyd ye LORDE smyte him in his bowels, with soch a sicknesse as coulde not be healed.

19 And whyle that endured from daye to daye, when the tyme of two yeares was expyred, his bowels wente from him wt his sicknesse, and he dyed in euell diseases. And they made not a burninge ouer him, as they dyd vnto his fathers.

20 Two and thirtie yeare olde was he wha he was made kyng, and reigned eight yeare at Ierusalem, and walked not well. And they buried him in the cite of Daud, but not amoge the sepulcres of the kynges.

Chapter 22

1 And they of Ierusalem made Ochosias his yogest sonne kyng in his steade: for the men of warre that came wt the hoost of the Arabians, had slayne all ye first, therefore reigned Ochosias the sonne of Ioram kynge of Iuda.

2 Two and fortye yeare olde was Ochosias whan he was made kynge, and reigned one yeare at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Athalia the daughter of Amri.

3 And he walked also in ye wayes of the house of Achab: for his mother entysed him so yt he was vngodly.

4 Therefore dyd he euell in ye sighte of the LORDE, euen as ye house of Achab: for they were his counsell geuers after his fathers death, to destroye him, and he walked after their counsell.

5 And he wente with Ioram the sonne of Achab kynge of Israel, to the battayll vnto Ramoth in Gilead, agaynst Hasael the kynge of Syria. But the Syrias smote Ioram,

6 so yt he turned back to be healed at Iesreel: for he had woundes that were geuen him at Rama, whan he foughte with Hasael the kynge of Syria. And Asarias the sonne of Ioram kynge of Iuda wete downe to vyset Ioram ye sonne of Achab at Iesreel, which laye sicke:

7 For it was ordeyned of God vnto Ochosias, that he shulde come to Ioram, & so to go forth with Ioram agaynst Iehu ye sonne of Nimsi, whom the LORDE had anoynted to rote out the house of Achab.

8 Now whan Iehu wolde be aueged of ye house of Achab, he founde certayne rulers of Iuda, and ye childre of Ochosias brethren which serued Ochosias, and he slewe them.

9 And he soughte Ochosias, and they ouertoke him, wha he had hyd him at Samaria: & he was broughte vnto Iehu, which slewe him, and they buried him, for they sayde: He his the sonne of Iosaphat, which soughte ye LORDE with all his hert. And there was no man more of the house of Ochosias that mighte be kynge.

10 Whan Athalia the mother of Ochosias sawe yt hir sonne was deed, she gat hir vp, & destroyed all the kynges sede in the house of Iuda.

11 But Iosabeath ye kynges sister toke Ioas ye sonne of Ochosias, and stale him awaye fro amonge the kynges childre yt were slayne, & put him with his nurse in a chamber. Thus Iosabeath kynge Iorams douhgter, the wyfe of Ioiada the prest, hyd him from Athalia, so yt he was not slayne: for she was Ochosias sister.

12 And he was hyd with them in the house of God sixe yeares, for so moch as Athalia was quene in the londe.

Chapter 23

1 Bvt in the seuenth yeare was Ioiada bolde, and toke the rulers ouer hundreds: namely Asaria ye sonne of Ieraham, Ismael ye sonne of Iohanan, Asaria ye sonne of Obed, Maeseia ye sonne of Adaia, and Elisaphat ye sonne of Sichri with him, into the couenaunt:

2 and they wente aboute in Iuda, and broughte ye Leuites together out of all the cities of Iuda, and the chefe fathers of Israel, to come vnto Ierusalem.

3 And all the cogregacion made a couenaunt with the kynge in the house of God, and he sayde vnto them: Beholde, the kynges sonne shal be kynge, eue as the LORDE spake cocernynge the children of Dauid.

4 This is it therfore yt ye shal do: The thirde parte of you that entre on the Sabbath, shalbe amonge the prestes & Leuites, which are dorekeepers at the thresholdes:

5 & one thirde parte in the kynges house, and one thirde parte at the grounde porte. But all the people shalbe in the courtes of the house of the LORDE,

6 and that no man go in to the house of the LORDE, excepte the prestes and Leuites that mynister there, they shal go in: for they are halowed. And let all ye people wayte vpon the LORDE.

7 And the Leuites shal get them rounde aboute ye kynge, euery one with his weapen in his hande. And who so els goeth in to ye house, let him dye. And they shall be wt the kynge wha he goeth out & in.

8 And the Leuites & all Iuda dyd as Ioiada ye prest had commaunded, and euery one toke his men that entred on the Sabbath, wt those yt wente of on the Sabbath: for Ioiada ye prest suffred not those two companies to parte asunder.

9 And Ioiada ye prest gaue the captaynes ouer hundreds speares & shyldes, and kynge Dauids weapens, which were in the house of God,

10 and set all the people euery one wt his weapen in his hande, from the righte corner of the house, vnto the lefte corner of the altare, and to the house warde aboute the kynge.

11 And they broughte forth the kynges sonne, & set the crowne vpon his heade, and gaue them the wytnesse, & made him kynge. And Ioiada wt his sonnes anoynted him, & sayde: God saue the kynge.

12 But whan Athalia herde the noyse of ye people yt ranne together and praysed ye kynge, she wente forth to the people in to ye house of the LORDE, 13 and loked: and beholde, ye kynge stode in his place at ye intrauce, and the rulers and trompettes aboute ye kynge: and all the people of the londe were glad, & blewe the trompes, and there were syngers yt coulde playe wt all maner of musically instrumentes. But she rete hir clothes, & sayde: Sedicion, sedicion.

14 Neuertheles Ioiada ye prest gat him forth with the captaynes ouer hundreds and rulers of the hoost, and sayde vnto them: Brynge her forth betwene ye walles, & who so euer foloweth her, shal be slayne with ye swerde: for the prest had comaunded, that she shulde not be slayne in ye house of the LORDE.

15 And they layed handes on her. And whan she came at the intrauce of the horsgate of the kynges house, they put her to death there.

16 And Ioiada made a couenaunt betwene him and all the people, and the kynge, yt they shulde be the people of the LORDE.

17 The wete all the people in to the house of Baal, and destroyed it, & brake downe his altares & ymages, & slewe Mathan the prest of Baal before the altare.

18 And Ioiada appoynted ye officers in the house of the LORDE amonge the prestes & Leuites whom Dauid had ordeyned for ye house of the LORDE, to offre burnt sacrifices vnto ye LORDE, as it is wrytten in the lawe of Moses: wt ioye & songes made by Dauid.

19 And ye porters set he at ye gates of ye house of ye LORDE, yt none shulde entre, which were defiled wt eny maner of thinge.

20 And he toke the captaynes ouer hudreds and the mightie men and lordes of ye people, and all the people of the londe, and brought the kinge downe from the house of the LORDE, and broughte him thorow the hye porte of the kynges house, and caused the kinge sit vpon the seate royall.

21 And all the people of the lode were glad, and the cite was at rest. But Athalia was slayne with the swerde.

Chapter 24

1 Ioas was seuen yeare olde whan he was made kynge, and reigned fortie yeare at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Zibea of Berseba.

2 And Ioas dyd that which was right in the sight of the LORDE, as longe as Ioiada the prest lyued.

3 And Ioiada gaue him two wiues, & he begat sonnes & daughters.

4 Afterwarde deuysed Ioas to renue the house of the LORDE,

5 & gathered together the prestes and Leuites, & sayde vnto the: Go forth vnto all the cities of Iuda, & gather the money of all Israel, to repayre ye house of God yearly, and do it righte soone: but the Leuites made no haist.

6 Then the kynge called Ioiada the pryncipall, and sayde vnto him: Why lokest thou not vnto the Leuites, yt they bringe in from Iuda and Ierusalem, the colleccion which Moses the seruauant of the LORDE appoynted to be gathered amonge Israel for the Tabernacle of wtnes?

7 For yt vngodly Athalia & hir sonnes haue waisted the house of God: and all that was halowed for the house of the LORDE, haue they bestowed on Baalim. 8 Then commaunded the kynge to make a chest, and to set it without at the intrauce of the house of the LORDE:

9 & caused it to be proclaimed in Iuda and Ierusalem, that they shulde bringe in to the LORDE, the colleccio, which Moses the seruauant of God appointed vnto Israel in ye wildernes.

10 The were all ye rulers glad, & so were all ye people, & brought it, and cast it in to the chest, tyll it was full.

11 And whan the tyme was yt the Leuites shulde brynge the Arke at ye kinges comaundement (whan they sawe yt there was moch money therin) then came the kinges scribe, & he yt was appoynted of the chefe prest, and emptied the chest, and caried it againe in to his place. Thus dyd they euery daye, so that they gathered moch money together.

12 And ye kinge & Ioiada gaue it vnto ye workmasters of ye house of the LORDE, and they hired masons & carpenters to repayre the house of ye LORDE, and men that coulde worke in yron and brasse, to repayre the house of ye LORDE.

13 And the labourers wrought, so that ye repairinge in ye worke wente forwarde thorow their hande, and they set the house of God in his bewtye, and made it stronge.

14 And whan they had perfourmed this, they brought the resydue of the money before the kynge and Ioiada, wherof there were made vessels for the house of the LORDE, vessels for the ministracion and burnt offeringe, spones and ornamentes of golde and siluer. And they offred burnt offeringes allwaye in the house of the LORDE, as longe as Ioiada lyued.

15 And Ioiada waxed olde, and had lyued longe ynough, and dyed, & was an hundredth and thirtie yeare olde whan he dyed:

16 and they buried him in the cite of Dauid, amonge the kynges, because he had done good vnto Israel, and towarde God & his house.

17 And after the death of Ioiada, came the rulers in Iuda, and worshipped the kynge. Then consented the kynge vnto the.

18 And they forsoke the house of the LORDE God of their fathers, and serued ye groues and ymages. Then came ye wrath of the LORDE vpo Iuda and Ierusalem because of this trespass of theirs.

19 Yet sent he prophetes vnto the, yt they shulde turne vnto the LORDE, & they testified vnto the: but they wolde not heare.

20 And the sprete of God came vpon Zachary the sonne of Ioiada the prest, which stode ouer ye people, & sayde vnto the: Thus sayeth God: Wherfore do ye transgresse the comaundementes of the LORDE, which shall not be to yor prosperite: for ye haue forsaken ye LORDE, therfore shal he forsake you. 21 Neuertheles they conspyred agaynst him, & stoned him at ye kynges comaundement in ye courte of the house of the LORDE.

22 And Ioas ye kinge thought not on the mercy yt Ioiada his father had done for him, but slewe his sonne. Notwithstandinge wha he dyed, he sayde: The LORDE shal loke vpon it, and requyre it.

23 And whan the yeare was gone aboute, ye power of the Syrians wente vp, & came to Iuda & Ierusalem, and destroyed the rulers in the people, and sent all the spoiles of them vnto Damascon.

24 For the power of the Syrians came but with a few men, yet gaue ye LORDE a very greate power in to their hande: because they had forsaken ye LORDE God of their fathers. They executed iudgment also vpon Ioas.

25 And when they departed fro him, they lefte him in greate sicknesses. Neuertheles his seruantes conspyred against him (because of the bloude of the childe of Ioiada the prest) & slewe him vpo his bed, & he dyed, and they buried him in the cite of Daud, but not amonge the sepulcres of the kynges.

26 They that conspyred against him, were these: Sabad ye sonne of Simeath the Ammonitisse, and Iosabad the sonne of Simrith the Moabitisse.

27 As for his sonnes, and the summe that was gathered vnder him, and the buyldinge of the house of God beholde, they are wrytten in the storye in the boke of the kynges. And Amasias his sonne was kyng in his steade.

Chapter 25

1 Fyue and twentye yeare olde was Amasias when he was made kyng, and reigned nyne and twentye yeare at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Ioadan of Ierusalem.

2 And he dyd yt which was right in the sighte of the LORDE, but not wt a whole her.

3 Now when his kingdome was in strenght, he slewe his seruantes which had slayne the kyng his father.

4 But their childe slewe he not, for so is it wrytten in the boke of the lawe of Moses, where the LORDE comaundeth, and sayeth: The fathers shal not dye for the children, nether shal the children dye for the fathers: but euery one shal die for his awne synne.

5 And Amasias broughte Iuda together, and set them after the fathers houses, after the rulers ouer thousandes & ouer hundreds amonge all Iuda and BenIamin, and nombred them from twentye yeare olde & aboue, and founde of the three hundreth thousande chosen men, which were able to go forth to the warre, and caryed speares and shyldes.

6 And out of Israel appoynted he an hundreth thousande stronge men of warre for an hundreth talentes of siluer.

7 But there came a man of God vnto him, and sayde: O kyng, Let not the hoost of Israel come wt the: for the LORDE is not with Israel, nether with all the childe of Ephraim.

8 For yf thou comest to shewe yi boldnes in the battaill, God shal make the fall before thine enemies. For God hath power to helpe, and to cause for to fall.

9 Amasias sayde vnto the man of God: What shal be done then with ye hundreth talentes yt I haue geue ye soudyers of Israel? The ma of God sayde: The LORDE hath yet more the this to geue the.

10 So Amasias separated out the men of warre which were come to him out of Ephraim, yt they shulde departed vnto their place. Then waxed their wrath very whote agaynst Iuda, and they wente agayne vnto their place in wrothfull displeasure.

11 And Amasias stregthed himselfe, and caried out his people, and wente forth in to the Salt valley, and smote ten thousande of the children of Seir.

12 And the childe of Iuda toke ten thousande of the alyue, whom they broughte vp to the toppe of a mountayne, and cast the downe headlinges from the toppe of the mount, so that they all to barst in sunder.

13 But ye childe of the men of warre whom Amasias had sent awaye agayne (that they shulde not go to the battayll with his people) fell in to the cities of Iuda, from Samaria vnto Beth Horon, and smote thre thousande of me, and toke moch spoyle.

14 And when Amasias came agayne from the slaughter of the Edomites, he broughte the goddesses of the children of Seir, and made them his goddesses, and worshipped before them, & brent incense vnto them.

15 Then was the LORDE very wroth at Amasias, & sent vnto him a prophet, which sayde vnto him: Why sekest thou the goddesses of the people, which could not deluyer their folke from yi hande?

16 And when he talked with him, the kyng sayde vnto him: Hauē they made ye of the kynges counsell? Ceasse, why wilt thou be smytten? Then the prophet ceased, & sayde: I perceauē, that the LORDE is mynded to destroye ye, because thou hast done this, and herkenest not vnto my counsell.

17 And Amasias ye kyng of Iuda toke coucell, & sent vnto Ioas the sonne of Ioahas ye sonne of Iehu, kyng of Israel, sayege; Come, let vs se one another.

18 But Ioas the kyng of Israel sent vnto Amasias ye kyng of Iuda, sayenge: The hawthorne in Libanus sent vnto ye Cedre tre in Libanus, sayege: Geue thy daughter vnto my sonne to wife. But a wylde beest in Libanus ranne ouer ye hawthorne, & trode it downe.

19 Thou thinkest: Beholde, I haue smytten the Edomites, therfore is thine hert proude to boaste. Now byde at home: why stryuest thou after mysfortune, that thou mayest fall & Iuda wt the?

20 Neuertheles Amasias consented not: for so was it broughte to passe of God, yt they mighte be geuen in to the handes of the enemies, because they soughte the goddesses of ye Edomites.

21 Then wente Ioas the kyng of Israel vp, & they sawe one another, he and Amasias the kyng of Iuda, at Beth Semes which lyeth in Iuda.

22 But Iuda was smytte before Israel, and they fled euery one vnto his tent.

23 And Ioas the kyng of Israel toke Amasias ye kyng of Iuda, the sonne of Ioas ye sonne of Ioahas, at Beth Semes, & broughte him to Ierusalem, & brake downe the wall of Ierusalem, from ye porte of Ephraim vnto the corner porte, eue foure hundreth cubites longe:

24 and toke with him all the golde, and siluer, and all the ornamentes that were foude in ye house of God with ObedEdom, and in the treasures in the kynges house, and the childe to pledge vnto Samaria.

25 And Amasias the sonne of Ioas kyng of Iuda, liued after the death of Ioas the sonne of Ioahas kyng of Israel fiftene yeare.

26 What more there is to saye of Amasias (both the first and last) beholde, it is written in ye boke of the kynges of Iuda & Israel.

27 And fro the tyme forth that Amasias departed from the LORDE, they conspyred against him at Ierusalem. But he fled vnto Lachis. The sent they after him vnto Lachis, & slewe him there.

28 And they brought him vpo horses & buried him beside his fathers in the cite of Iuda.

Chapter 26

1 Then all the people of Iuda toke Osias, which was syxtene yeare olde, and made him kyng in steade of his father Amasias.

2 He buylded Eloth, & broughte it agayne vnto Iuda, after that the kyng was fallen on slepe with his fathers.

3 Sixtene yeare olde was Osias when he was made kyng, and reigned two and fiftie yeare at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Iechalia of Ierusalem.

4 And he did right in the syght of the LORDE, as his father Amasias had done,

5 and soughte God as longe as Zacharias lyued, which taughte in the visyons of God: and as longe as he sought the LORDE, God made him to prospere.

6 For he wente forth, and foughte agaynst the Philistynes, and brake downe ye walles of Gath, and the walles of Iabne, and the walles of A?dod, and buylded cities aboute A?dod, & amonge the Philistynes.

7 For God helped him agaynst the Philistines, against the Arabians, agaynst them of GurBaal, & agaynst the Meunites.

8 And ye Ammonites gaue Osias presentes, & his name came in to Egipte: for he was exceedinge stronge.

9 And Osias buylded towres at Ierusalem vpon the cornerporte, and on the valley gate, and on other corners, and made them stronge.

10 He buylded castels also in the wyldernesse, and dygged many welles: for he had many catell, both in the medewes and in the playnes, hu?bandmen also and wynegardeners on the mountaynes and on Carmel: for he delyed in hu?bandrye.

11 And Osias had an hoost of men of warre goynge forth to the battaill, which were nobred vnder the hande of Ieiel the scribe & of Maesa the offyicer, vnder the hade of Hanania of the kynges rulers.

12 And the nombre of the chefe fathers amonge the stronge me of warre, was two thousande and syxe hundreth.

13 And vnder the hande of the hoost thre hundreth thousande, and seuen thousande and fyue hundreth mete for the battayll, in the strength of an armye to helpe the kyng agaynst the enemies.

14 And Osias prepared for all the hoost, shyldes, speares, helmettes, brestplates, bowes and slyngstones.

15 And at Ierusalem he made ordinaunce conyngly, to be vpon the towres and in the pynnacles, to shute arowes and greate stones. And the fame of him came farre abrode, because he was specially helped, tyll he became mightie.

16 And when his power was greate, his hert arose to his awne destruccion: for he trespased agaynst the LORDE his God, and wente in to the temple of the LORDE, to burne incense vpon the altare of incense.

17 But Asarias the prest wente after him, and foure score prestes with him, valeaunt men, 18 and withstode kyng Osias, and saide vnto him: It belongeth not vnto thy offyce (Osias) to burne incense vnto the LORDE, but vnto the prestes belongeth it, euen vnto the children of Aaron, which are halowed to burne incense. Go forth out of the Sanctuary: for thou offendest, and it shall be no worshippe vnto the before God the LORDE.

19 And Osias was wroth, and had a censoure in his hande. And whyle he murmured with the prestes, the leprosy spronge out of his foreheade in the presence of the prestes in the house of the LORDE before the altare of incense.

20 And Asarias the chefe prest turned his heade towarde him, and so dyd all the prestes, and beholde, he was leper in his foreheade. And they put him out from thence. Yee he made haist himselfe to go forth, for his plage came of the LORDE.

21 Thus became Osias ye kyng a leper vnto his death, and dwelt full of leprosy in a fre house: for he was put out of the house of the LORDE. But Ioram his sonne had the ouersight of the kynges house, and iudged the people in the londe.

22 What more there is to saie of Osias (both first and last) Esay the sonne of Amos hath wrytten it.

23 And Osias fell on slepe wt his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the pece of grounde beside ye kynges sepulcres: for they sayde: He is leporous. And Iotham his sonne was kyng in his steade.

Chapter 27

1 Iotham was fyue and twentye yeare olde when he was made kyng, and reigned sixtene yeare at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Ierusa the daughter of Sadoc:

2 & he dyd righte in the sighte of the LORDE as did Osias his father: sauynge yt he wente not in to the temple of the LORDE, and the people yet marred them selues.

3 He buylded the hie porte of the house of ye LORDE, and on the wall of Ophel buylded he moch,

4 and buylded the cities vpon the mountaynes of Iuda, and in the woddess buylded he castels and towres.

5 And he fought with the kinge of the children of Ammon, and ouer came them, so that the childe of Ammon gaue him ye same yeare an hundreth talentes of siluer, ten thousande quarters of wheate, and ten thousande of barlye. So moch dyd the children of Ammon geue him also in ye seconde & thirde yeare.

6 Thus became Iotham mightye, for he gyded his wayes before the LORDE his God.

7 What more there is to saye of Iotham, & all his warres, vnd his waies, beholde, it is wrytten in ye boke of the kinges of Israel & Iuda.

8 Fyue and twentye yeare olde was he whan he was made kyng, & reigned sixtene yeare at Ierusalem.

9 And Iotha fell on slepe wt his fathers, & they buried him in the cite of Dauid, and Achas his sonne was kyng in his steade.

Chapter 28

1 Achas was twentye yeare olde whan he was made kyng, and reigned sixtene yeare at Ierusalem, and dyd not that which was righte in the sighte of the LORDE, as did Dauid his father,

2 but walked in the wayes of the kinges of Israel, and made molten ymages vnto Baalim,

3 and brent incense in the valley of the children of Hennon, and bret his awne sonnes in ye fire, after the abhominacions of the Heithen, who the LORDE expelled before the childe of Israel.

4 And he dyd sacrifice and brent incense vpon the hie places and vpon the hilles, and amoge all grene trees.

5 Therefore dyd the LORDE his God delyuer him in to the hande of the kyng of Syria, so that they smote him, and caryed awaye a greate multitude of his men presoners, and broughte them to Damascon. He was geuen also vnder the hande of the kyng of Israel, so yt he dyd a greate slaughter vpon him.

6 For Pecah the sonne of Romelia smote in Iuda an hundreth & twentye thousande in one daye (which all were valeaunt men) eue because they had forsaken ye LORDE God of their fathers.

7 And Sichri a mightie ma of Ephraim slewe Maeseia ye kinges sonne, & Asrikam the prynce of the house, & Elkana the nexte vnto the kyng.

8 And the children of Israel caried of their brethren presoners two hundreth thousande, wemen, sonnes and daughters, and toke a greate spoyle from them, and broughte the spoyle vnto Samaria.

9 But eue there was there a prophet of ye LORDE, whose name was Obed, which wete out to mete ye hoost that came to Samaria, and sayde vnto them: Beholde, because the LORDE God of youre fathers is wroth at Iuda, therefore hath he geuen them ouer in to youre handes: but ye haue slayne them so abhominably, that it is come vnto heaue.

10 Now thinke ye to subdue the children of Iuda and Ierusalem, to be bondmen and bondmaydens vnto you. Is not this a trespase then wt you agaynst the LORDE yor God?

11 Herken now vnto me, and sende ye presoners hence agayne, whom ye haue caried awaye from youre brethren: for the wrath of ye LORDE is feare ouer you.

12 Then gat vp certayne of the chefe of the children of Ephraim, Asarias the sonne of Iohanan, Barachias the sonne of Mesillemoth, Ezechias the sonne of Sallum, & Amasa ye sonne of Hadlai, agaynst them yt came from ye battayll, 13 & sayde vnto them: Ye shal not brynge the presoners in hither, for youre mynde is but to make vs trespase before the LORDE, to make oure synnes and offences the greater: for the trespase is to moch already, & the wrath is feare ouer Israel.

14 So the hoost lefte the presoners & the spoyle before ye rulers and before the whole cogregacion.

15 Then stode vp the men (which now were reheared by name) and toke the presoners, and as many as were naked amonge them, clothed they with ye spoyles, & deckte them, and put shues vpon their fete, and gaue the to eate and drynke, and anoynted them, and caried them vpon asses (as many as were feble) and broughte them to Iericho to ye Palme cite vnto their brethren, and came agayne to Samaria.

16 At the same tyme sent kyng Achas vnto the kynges of Assur, yt they shulde helpe him.

17 And the Edomites came agayne, and smote Iuda, and caried some awaye captiue.

18 The Philistynes also fell in to the cities in the playne, & towarde ye south parte of Iuda, & wanne Beth Semes, Aialon, Gederoth, and Socho with the vyllages therof, Timna wt the vyllages therof, & Gimso with the vyllages therof, and dwelt therein.

19 For ye LORDE subdued Iuda for Achas sake ye kyng of Iuda, because he made Iuda naked, and rebelled agaynst the LORDE.

20 And Teglatpilnesser the kyng of Assur came agaynst him, and beseged him, & he was not mightie ynough for him.

21 For Achas spoyled the house of the LORDE, and the kynges house, and of the rulers, to geue vnto ye kyng of Assur, but it helped him not.

22 Morouer kyng Achas trespased yet more against the LORDE euen in his trouble, 23 and dyd sacrifice vnto the goddes of them of Damascon, which had smitten him, & sayde: The goddes of the kynges of Syria helpe them, therefore wil I offre vnto them, that they maye helpe me also, where as the same yet were a fall vnto him and to all Israel.

24 And Achas gathered the vessels of ye house of God together, and brake the vessels in ye house of God, & shut the dores of the house of ye LORDE, and made him altares in all corners at Ierusalem, 25 and euery where in the cyties of Iuda made he hie places to burne incense vnto other goddes, and prouoked ye LORDE God of his fathers vnto wrath.

26 What more there is to saye of him and of all his wayes (both first and last) beholde, it is wrytten in the boke of the kynges of Iuda and Israel.

27 And Achas fell on slepe with his fathers, and they buried him in ye cite of Ierusalem: for they brought him not amonge the sepulchres of the kynges of Israel. And Ezechias his sonne was kyng in his steade.

Chapter 29

1 Ezechias was fyue & twentye yeare olde whan he was made kyng, & reigned nyne & twentye yeares at Ierusalem. His mothers name was Abia ye doughter of Zachary.

2 And he dyd that which was right in the sighte of the LORDE, as did his father Dauid.

3 He opened the dores of ye house of the LORDE in the first moneth of ye first yeare of his raigne, & made them stronge,

4 & brought in the prestes and Leuites, and gathered them together vnto the East streate

5 and sayde vnto them: Herken vnto me ye Leuites, sanctifye youre selues now, yt ye maye halowe the house of the LORDE God of yor fathers, and put fylthines out of the Sanctuary:

6 for oure fathers haue trespased, and done yt which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE oure God, and haue forsaken him. For they turned their faces from the habitacio of ye LORDE oure God, & turned their backs on it,

7 and shut the dores of the Porche, and put out the lampes, and brent no incense, & offred no burntsacrifyces in the Sanctuary vnto the God of Israel.

8 Therefore is the wrath of the LORDE come ouer Iuda and Ierusalem, and he hath geuen them ouer to be scatred abrode, desolate and to be hyssed at, as ye se with yor eies.

9 For beholde, euen for the same cause fell oure fathers thorow the swerde, oure sonnes doughters and wyues were caryed awaye captiue.

10 Now am I mynded to make a couenaut with the LORDE God of Israel, yt he maye turne awaie from vs his wrath & indignacion.

11 Now my sonnes, be not ye negligent: for the LORDE hath chosen you to stode before him, and to be his mynisters and to burne incense vnto him.

12 Then rose the Leuites: Mahath the sonne of Amasai, and Ioel the sonne of Asaria of the children of the Kahathites. Of the children of Merari: Cis the sonne of Abdi, & Asaria the sonne of Iehaleleel. Of the children of the Gersonites: Ioah the sonne of Simma, and Eden the sonne of Ioah.

13 And of the childe of Elizaphan: Simri & Ieiel. And of the childe of Assaph: Sachary and Mathama.

14 And of the chidren of Heman: Iehiel and Simei. And of the children of Iedithun: Semaia and Vsiel.

15 And they gathered their brethren together, and were sanctified, and wente in acordinge to the kynges commaundement at the worde of the LORDE, to cense the house of ye LORDE.

16 And the prestes entred within in the house of the LORDE to purifye, and put out all the vnclennes that was founde in the teple of the LORDE, in the courte of the LORDES house: and the prestes toke it vp, and caryed it out in to the broke Cedron.

17 The fyrst daye of the fyrst moneth beganne they to sanctifye them selues, and on the eight daye of the moneth wente they in to the porche of the LORDE, and halowed the house of ye LORDE eight dayes, and fynished it on the sixteenth daye of the fyrst moneth.

18 And they wete in to the kyng Ezechias, and sayde: We haue censed all the house of the LORDE, the altare of burntofferynge, and all his vessels, the table of the shewbred and all the apparell therof:

19 and all the ornamentes that kyng Achas cast awaye wha he was kyng, what tyme as he transgressed, those haue we prepared and halowed. Beholde, they are before the altare of the LORDE.

20 The the kyng Ezechias gat him vp early, and gathered together the Elders of the cite, and wete vp vnto the house of the LORDE, 21 and they broughte seven bullockes, seven rammes, seven lambes, and seven he goates to be the synofferynge, for the Sanctuary, & for Iuda. And he spake vnto the prestes the children of Aaron, that they shulde offre vpon the altare of the LORDE.

22 So they slewe the bullockes, and the prestes toke the bloude, and sprenkled it vpon ye altare: and slewe the rammes, and sprenkled the bloude vpon the altare: and slewe the labes, and sprenkled the bloude vpon the altare.

23 And ye goates to ye synofferynge brought they before the kyng and the congregacio, and layed their handes vpon them:

24 and the prestes slewe them, and sprenkled their bloude vpon the altare to make attonemet for all Israel: for the kyng commaunded to offre burntsacrifyces and sinofferinges for all Israel.

25 And he set the Leuites in the house of the LORDE with Cymbales, Psalteries and harpes, as Dauid had commaunded, and Gad the kynges Seer, and the prophet Nathan for it was the commaundement of the LORDE by his prophetes.

26 And the Leuites stode with the musicall instrumentes of Dauid, & the prestes with the trompettes.

27 And Ezechias commaunded them to offre burntsacrifyces vpon the altare. And aboute the tyme that the burntsacrifyce begane to be offred the songe of the LORDE beganne also, and ye trompettes, and dyuerse instrumentes of Dauid the kyng of Israel

28 and all the congregacion gaue praise & thanks: and the songe of the Musicians, and ye blowynge of the trompettes, endured all tyll the burntofferynge was fynished.

29 Now whan the burntofferynge was performed, the kyng and all they that were with him, bowed them selues, and gaue praise and thanks.

30 And Ezechias the kyng wt the rulers commaunded the Leuites to prayse the LORDE with the songes of Dauid and Assaph the Seer. And they gaue prayse tyll they were ioyfull, and they bowed them selues, and worshipped.

31 And Ezechias answered and saide: Now haue ye fylled youre hades vnto the LORDE steppe forth, and brynge hither ye sacrifyces and thankofferynges vnto the house of the LORDE. And the congregacion broughte sacrifyces and thankofferynges, and euery ma of a fre wyllinge hert brought burntofferynge.

32 And the nombre of the burntofferynge that the congregacion broughte, was thre score bullockes and ten, an hundreth rames, and two hundreth lambes, and all these for the burntofferynge vnto the LORDE, 33 and they sanctified sixe hundreth bullockes, and thre thousande shepe.

34 But the prestes were to fewe, and coulde not pluck of the skynnes of all the burnt offerynge, therefore toke they their brethren the Leuites, tyll the worke was fynished, and tyll the prestes were halowed (for the Leuites are easier to be halowed then the prestes)

35 and many of the burnt offerynge were with the fat of the thankofferynges and drynkofferynges to the burntsacrifices. Thus was the ministracion of the house of the LORDE prepared.

36 And Ezechias reioysed with all the people, that they were prepared with God: for it was done righte haistely.

Chapter 30

1 And Ezechias sent into all Israel and Iuda, and wrote letters vnto Ephraim and Manasses, that they shulde come to the house of the LORDE at Ierusalem, to kepe easter vnto the LORDE God of Israel.

2 And the kyng helde a counsell with his rulers, and all the cogregacion at Ierusalem, to kepe Passeouer in the seconde moneth:

3 for at that tyme they coulde not kepe it, because the prestes were not sanctified ynough, and the people were not yet come together vnto Ierusalem.

4 And it pleased the kyng well and all the cogregacion.

5 And they appointed it to be proclaimed thorow out all Israel from Berseba vnto Dan, that they shulde come to kepe Passeouer vnto the LORDE God of Israel: for they were not many to kepe it as it is wrytten.

6 And the postes wente with the letters from the hande of the kyng and of his rulers thorow out all Israell and Iuda, at ye kynges commaundement, and sayde: Ye children of Israel, turne you vnto the LORDE God of Abraham, Isaac and Iacob, and he shal turne to ye escaped, which are lefte ouer amonge you from the hande of the kyng of Assur:

7 and be not ye as youre fathers and brethren, which rebelled agaynst the LORDE God of their fathers, and he gaue the ouer in to desolacion as ye se youre selues.

8 Be not ye hardnecked now as were youre fathers, but offre youre hade vnto the LORDE, and come to his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for euer, and serue the LORDE youre God, & so shal the indignacion of his wrath turne awaye from you.

9 For yf ye turne vnto the LORDE, then shal youre brethren and children haue mercy in the sighte of them which holde them in captiuyte, that they maye come agayne in to this londe: for the LORDE youre God is gracious and mercifull, and shal not turne awaye his face from you, yf ye conuerte vnto him.

10 And the postes wente from one cite to another in the londe of Ephraim and Manasses, and vnto Zabulon. But they mocked them and laughed them to scorne.

11 Yet were there some of Asser and Manasses, and of Zabulon, that submytted them selues, and came to Ierusalem.

12 And the hande of God came in to Iuda, so that he gaue the one hert to do after the commaundement of the kyng and the rulers at the worde of the LORDE.

13 And there came together vnto Ierusalem a greate people, to kepe the feast of vneuendred bred in the seconde moneth, a very greate congregacion.

14 And they gat them vp, and put downe ye altares that were at Ierusalem, and all the incense put they awaye, and cast it in to the broke Cedron,

15 and slewe the Passeouer on the fourteenth daye of the secode moneth. And ye prestes and Leuites were ashamed, and halowed them selues, and broughte the burntofferynge to the house of the LORDE,

16 and stode in their ordinaunce, as it was acordinge, after the lawe off Moses the man of God. And the prestes sprenkled the bloude from the hande of the Leuites: 17 for there were many in the cogregacion which were not sanctified, therefore dyd the Leuites kyll Passeouer for them which were not clensed, that they mighte be sanctified vnto the LORDE.

18 There were many people also of Ephraim, Manasses, Isachar and Zabulon, which were not cleane, but ate the Easter lambe not as it is wrytten: for Ezechias prayed for them, and sayde: The LORDE, which is gracious, 19 shalbe mercifull vnto all them that prepare their hertes vnto God, to seke the LORDE God of their fathers, though they be not clensed after the holy purificacion.

20 And the LORDE herde Ezechias, and healed the people.

21 Thus the children of Israel that were founde at Ierusalem, helde ye feast of vneuendred bred seuen dayes with greate ioye. And the Leuites and prestes praysed the LORDE euery daye with the loude instrumentes of the LORDE.

22 And Ezechias spake hertely vnto all ye Leuites, which had good vnderstandinge in the LORDE, and they ate the feast seuen dayes, and offred thakofferynges, and gaue thanks vnto ye LORDE God of their fathers.

23 And all the congregacion deuysed to kepe the feast yet other seue dayes, and so they helde it those seuen dayes also with ioye:

24 for Ezechias the kinge of Iuda gaue an Heueofferynge for the cogregacion, euen a thousande bullockes, and seuen thousande shepe. But the rulers gaue an Heueofferinge for ye congregacion, euen a thousande bullockes, and ten thousande shepe. And many of the prestes sanctified them selues.

25 And the whole congregacion of Iuda reioysed, the prestes and Leuites, and all the congregacion that came out of Israel, and the straungers that were come out of the londe of Israel, and they that dwelt in Iuda, 26 and greate ioye was there at Ierusalem: for sence the tyme of Salomon the sonne of Dauid the kyng of Israel, was there no soch (ioye) at Ierusalem.

27 And the prestes and Leuites stode vp and blessed the people, and their voyce was herde, and their prayer came in to his holy habitacion in heauen.

Chapter 31

1 And whan all this was fynished, all the Israelites that were founde in ye cities of Iuda, wente out, and brake the pilers, and hewed downe the groues, and brake downe the hye places and altares out of all Iuda, Ben Iamin, Ephraim and Manasses, tyll they had destroyed the. And all the children of Israel wente agayne euery one to his possession vnto their cities.

2 But Ezechias set the prestes and Leuites in their ordinaunces, euery one after his office, both the prestes and Leuites, for the burntsacrifices and thankofferynges, to mynster, to geue thanks and prayse in the gates of the hoost of the LORDE.

3 And the kyng gaue his porcion of his substauce for the burntofferynge in the mornynge and euenynge, and for the burntofferynge of the Sabbath, and of the newmone and of the feastes, as it is wrytten in the lawe of the LORDE.

4 And he spake vnto ye people which dwelt at Ierusalem, that they shulde geue porcios vnto the prestes and Leuites, yt they mighte the more stedfastly endure in the lawe of the LORDE.

5 And wha ye worde came forth, the childre of Israel gaue many fyrst frutes of come, wyne, oyle, hony, and all maner increace of the felde, and broughte in moch of all maner tithes.

6 And the children of Israel and Iuda which dwelt in the cities of Iuda, broughte the tithes also of oxen and shepe, and the tithes of soch thinges as were sanctified, which they had halowed vnto the LORDE their God, and made here an heape, and there an heape.

7 In the thirde moneth begane they to laye vpon heapes, and in the seuenth moneth dyd they fynishe it.

8 And wha Ezechias with the rulers wente in, and sawe the heapes, they praysed the LORDE, and his people of Israel.

9 And Ezechias axed the prestes and Leuites concernynge the heapes.

10 And Asaria the prest the chefe in the house of Sadoc, sayde vnto him: Sence the tyme that they beganne to brynge the Heueofferynge in to ye house of the LORDE, we haue eaten, and are satisfied, and yet is there lefte ouer: for the LORDE hath blessed his people, therefore is this heape lefte ouer.

11 Then commaunded the kyng, that they shulde prepare chestes in the house of the LORDE. And they prepared them, 12 and put in the Heueofferynge, and tithes and that which was halowed, faithfully. And the ouersight of the same had Chanania the Leuite, and Simei his brother the seconde, 13 and Iehiel, Asasia, Naglath, Asahel, Ierimoth, Iosabad, Eliel, Iesmachia, Mahath and Benaia, ordeyned of the hande off Chanania and Simei his brother, acordinge to the commaundement of kyng Ezechias. But Asaria was pryncie in the house of God.

14 And Core ye sonne of Iemna the Leuite the porter of the Eastgate was ouer the frewyllinge giftes of God (which were geuen for Heueofferynge vnto the LORDE) and ouer the Most holy.

15 And vnder his hande were, Eden, Miniamin, Iesua, Semaia, Amaria, and Sachania in the cities of the prestes vpon credence, that they shulde geue vnto their brethren acordinge to their courses, to the leest as to the greatest.

16 And vnto them that were counted for men childre from thre yeare olde and about, amonge all the that wete in to the house of the LORDE, euery one vpo his daye to their office in their attendaunces after their courses.

17 And they that were rekened for prestes in the house of their fathers, and the Leuites from twentye yeare and aboute, in their attendaunces after their courses.

18 And they that were rekened amonge their children, wyues, sonnes and daughters amonge the whole congregacion: for that which was halowed, sanctified they vpon credence.

19 There were men also named by name amonge Aarons children the prestes vpon the felde of the suburbs in all ye cities, that they shulde geue porcions vnto all the men children amonge the prestes, and to all them that were nombred amonge the Leuites.

20 Thus dyd Ezechias in all Iuda, and dyd that which was good, righte and true in the sighte of the LORDE his God.

21 And in all the busynes that he toke in hade concernynge the seruyce of the house of God, acordinge to the lawe and commaundement, to seke his God, that dyd he with all his hert, and therefore prospered he well.

Chapter 32

1 After these actes and faithfulnes came Sennacherib the kynge of Assur, and wente in to Iuda, and pitched before the stroge cities, and thoughte to plucke them vnto him.

2 And whan Ezechias sawe that Sennacherib came, and that his face stode to fighte agaynst Ierusalem,

3 he deuysed with his rulers and mightie men, to couer the waters of the welles that were without the cite, and they helped him:

4 and there gathered together a greate people, and couered all ye welles and water brokes in the myddes of the londe, and sayde: Lest the kynges of Assur fynde moch water wha they come.

5 And he toke a corage vnto him, and buylded all the wallis where they were in decaye, and made towres thereon, and buylded yet another wall without, and strengthed Millo in the cite of Dauid. And made moch ordinaunce and shyldes,

6 and set captaynes of warre ouer the people. And gathered them vnto him vpon the brode strete by the gate of the cite, and spake hertely vnto them, and sayde: 7 Be stronge and bolde, feare not, and be not afrayed for the kynge of Assur, ner all ye multitude that is with him: for there is one greater with vs then with him.

8 With him is a fleshly arme, but with vs is the LORDE oure God, to helpe vs and to fighte for vs. And ye people trusted vnto the wordes of Ezechias kynge of Iuda.

9 Afterwarde sent Sennacherib the kynge of Assur his seruauantes vnto Ierusalem (for he laye before Lachis, & all his hoost wt him) to Ezechias ye kinge of Iuda, & to all Iuda that was at Ierusalem, sayenge: 10 Thus sayeth Sennacherib ye kynge of Assur: Wherin put ye youre trust ye that dwell in the beseged Ierusalem?

11 Ezechias disceaueueth you, that he maye delyuer you vnto death, hoger and thyrst, and sayeth: The LORDE oure God shal delyuer vs from the hande of the kynge of Assur.

12 Is it not Ezechias, that hath put awaye his hye places and altares, and sayde vnto Iuda and Ierusalem: Before one altare shal ye worshippe, and burne incense thereon?

13 Knowe ye not what I and my fathers haue done to all ye people in the londes? Haue the goddes of the Heythen in the londes bene able to delyuer their countrees fro my hande?

14 What is he amonge all the goddes of these Heythen (whom my father damned) that was able to delyuer his people fro my hande? yt youre God shulde be able to delyuer fro my hande.

15 Therefore let not Ezechias now disceaue you, and let him not persuade you eny soch thinge, and beleue him not. For yf no god of all the Heythe and kyngdomes might delyuer his people fro my hande and from the hande of my progenitours, then shal not youre goddes be able to delyuer you fro my hande.

16 His seruauantes also spake yet more against the LORDE God, and agaynst his seruauant Ezechias.

17 And he wrote a letter to blaspheme the LORDE God of Israel, and spake of him, and sayde: Like as the goddes of the Heythen in their londes haue not bene able to delyuer their people from my hande, euen so shal not the God of Ezechias delyuer his people fro my hande.

18 And the cryed with loude voyce in the Iewish langage vnto the people of Ierusalem that were vpon the wall, to make them fearfull and to be fayntharted, that they might wyne the cite.

19 And they spake agaynst the God off Ierusalem, euen as agaynst the goddes off the nacions vpon earth, which were but the workes of mens hondes.

20 But contrary wyse the kynge Ezechias and the prophet Esay the sonne of Amos prayed, and cryed vnto heaue.

21 And the LORDE sent an angell, which destroyed all the mightie men of the hoost, and the prynces and rulers in ye tentes of the kynge of Assur, so that he departed agayne with shame in to his owne londe. And whan he wente in to his gods house, they yt came of his owne body, slewe him there with the swerde.

22 Thus the LORDE, helped Ezechias and them at Ierusalem, out of the hade of Sennacherib ye kynge of Assur, and of all other, and mayntayned the fro all on euery syde, 23 so yt many broughte presentes vnto the LORDE to Ierusalem, and Iewels vnto Ezechias the kynge of Iuda. And afterwarde was he exalted in the sighte of all Heythen.

24 At ye same tyme was Ezechias deedsicke, and he prayed vnto the LORDE, which made him promes, and gaue him a wondertoken.

25 But Ezechias recopensed not acordinde as was geuen vnto him, for his hert was lifted vp: therfore came the wrath vpon him, and vpon Iuda and Ierusalem.

26 Neuertheles Ezechias humbled him selfe because his hert had bene exalted, with them at Ierusalem: therfore came not the wrath of the LORDE vpon them, whyle Ezechias lyued.

27 And Ezechias had very greate riches and worshippe, and made him treasures of syluer, golde, precious stones, spyces, shyldes, and all maner costly vessel, 28 and corne houses for the increace of corne, wyne and oyle, and stalles for all maner catell, and foldes for the shepe, 29 and buylded him cities, and had many catell of shepe and oxen: for God gaue him very moch good.

30 It is the same Ezechias that couered the hye water condyte in Gihon, and conveyed it vnder on the west syde of ye cite of Dauid: for Ezechias prospered in all his workes.

31 But whan the interpreters the chefe of Babilon were sent vnto him, to axe question at him (concernynge the wondertoken that had happened in the londe) God lefte him to be tempted, that it mighte be knowne what soeuer was in his hert.

32 What more there is to saye of Ezechias, and of his mercifulnes, beholde, it is wrytte in the vision of the prophet Esay the sonne of Amos, and in the boke of the kynges of Iuda and Israel.

33 And Ezechias fell on slepe with his fathers, and they buried him ouer the sepulchres of the children of Dauid, and all Iuda and they of Ierusalem dyd him worshippe in his death: and Manasses his sonne was kynge in his steade.

Chapter 33

1 Manasses was twolue yeare olde wha he was made kynge, and reigned fyue and fifty yeare at Ierusalem,

2 and dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE (euen after the abominacions of the Heythen, whom the LORDE expelled before the children of Israel) and turned backe,

3 and buylded the hye places, (which his father Ezechias had broken downe) and set vp altares vnto Baalim, and made groues, and worshipped all the hoost of heauen, and serued them.

4 He buylded altares also in ye LORDES house, wherof the LORDE had sayde: At Ierusalem shal my name be for euer.

5 And vnto all the hoost of heauen buylded he altares in both the courtes of ye house of the LORDE.

6 And in the valley of the sonne of Hennon caused he his awne sonnes to go thorow the fyre, and chosed dayes, & regarded byrdescryenge, and witches, and founded soithsayers and expounders of tokens, and dyd moch that was euell in the sighte of the LORDE to prouoke him vnto wrath.

7 Carued ymages also and Idols (which he caused to make) set he vp in Gods house, wherof the LORDE saide vnto Dauid and to Salomon his sonne: In this house at Ierusalem which I haue chosen out of all the trybes of Israel, wyl I set my name for euer

8 and wyl nomore let the fote of Israel remoue fro the londe that I appoynted for their fathers, so farre as they obserue to do all yt I haue commaunded them, in all the lawe, statutes and ordinaunces by Moses.

9 But Manasses disceaueu Iuda and them of Ierusalem, so that they dyd worse then the Heythen, whom the LORDE destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORDE spake vnto Manasses and his people, and they regarded it not.

11 Therefore dyd the LORDE cause the rulers of the hoost of the kynge of Assur to come vpo the, which toke Manasses presoner with bodes, and bounde him with cheynes, & broughte him vnto Babilon.

12 And whan he was in trouble, he made intercession before the LORDE his God, and humbled him selfe greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 and prayed and besoughte him. Then herde he his prayer, and broughte him agayne to Ierusalem to his kyngdome. And Manasses knewe that the LORDE is God.

14 Afterwarde buylded he ye vtmost wall of the cite of Dauid, on the west syde of Gihon by the broke, and at the intraunce of the Fyshgate, and rounde aboute Ophel, and made it very hye. And layed captaynes in ye stroge cities of Iuda,

15 & put awaye ye straunge goddes & Idols out of ye house of ye LORDE, and all the altares which he had buylded vpo the mount of the house of the LORDE, and in Ierusalem, and cast them out of the cite,

16 and buylded the altare of the LORDE, and offred slaynofferynges and thankofferynges thereon, and commaunded Iuda, that they shulde serue the LORDE God of Israel.

17 Neuertheles though the people offred vnto the LORDE their God, yet offred they vpon the hye places.

18 What more there is to saye of Manasses and of his prayer to his God, and the wordes of the Seers that spake vnto him in the name of the LORDE God of Israel, beholde, they are amonge the actes of the kynges of Israel.

19 And his prayer and intercession, and all his synne and offence, & the rowmes wherin he buylded the hye places & groues and founded ydols, a fore he hubled himselfe, beholde, they are wrytten amonge the actes of the Seers.

20 And Manasses fell on slepe with his fathers, and they buried him in his house, and Amon his sonne was kynge in his steade.

21 Two and twetye yeare olde was Amon wha he was made kynge, and reigned two yeare at Ierusalem, 22 and dyd euell in the sighte of the LORDE, as Manasses his father had done. And Amon offred vnto all the Idols that his father Manasses had made and serued the.

23 Yet dyd not he humble himselfe before the LORDE, as Manasse his father had submitted himselfe: but Amon trespased euer more and more.

24 And his seruautes cospyred agaynst him, and slewe him in his house.

25 Then smote the people in the londe all them that had conspyred agaynst kynge Amon. And the people in the londe made Iosias his sonne kynge in his steade.

Chapter 34

1 Iosias was eight yeare olde whan he was made kynge, and reigned one and thirtie yeare at Ierusalem,

2 and dyd that which was righte in the sighte of the LORDE, and walked in the wayes of Daud his father, and turned not asyde, nether to the righte hande ner to the lefte.

3 For in the eight yeare of his reigne wha he was yet but a childe, he beganne to seke the God of his father Daud: and in the twolueth yeare begane he to clense Iuda and Ierusalem from the hye places and groues, and carued Idols, and molten ymages:

4 and caused the altares of Baalim to be broken downe before him, and the ymages that were thereon, hewed he downe. And ye groues and carued Idols and molte ymages brake he in peces, and made them to dust, and scatred it vpon the graues of them that had offred vnto them.

5 And the bones of the prestes brent he vpo the altares, and so clesed he Iuda & Ierusalem, 6 & in ye cities of Manasses, Ephraim, Simeon, and vnto Nephtali in their wyldernesses on euerysyde.

7 And wha he had broken downe the altares and groues, and smytten the Idols in peces, and hewed downe all the ymages in all the londe of Israel, he came agayne to Ierusalem.

8 In the eighteenth yeare of his reigne wha he had clensed the londe and the house, he sent Saphan the sonne of Asalia and Maeseia the Shreue of the cite, and Ioath the sonne of Ioahas the Chaunceler, to repayre the house of the LORDE his God.

9 And they came to Hechias ye hye prest, and there was delyuered vnto them the money that was broughte vnto the house of God, which the Leuites (that kepte the thresholdes) had gathered, of Manasses, Epraim, and of all the residue in Israel, and of all Iuda & Ben Iamin, and of them that dwelt at Ierusalem,

10 and they delyuered it vnto the hades of the worke men in the house of the LORDE, and gaue it vnto those that wrought in the house of the LORDE, where it was in decaye, yt they shulde repayre it.

11 And the same gaue it forth vnto the carpenters and buylders, to bye fre stone and hewen tymber for the balkes in the houses, which the kynges had destroyed.

12 And the men laboured faithfully in the worke. And ouer them were ordeyned, Iahath and Obadia the Leuites of the children of Merari: Zachary and Mesullam of the children of the Kahathites, to further the worke, and they were all Leuites that coulede playe vpon instrumentes.

13 But ouer them that bare burthens and furthured all maner of worke in all the offices, there were scribes, officers and dore keepers of the Leuites.

14 And wha they toke out the money that was broughte vnto ye house of the LORDE, Helchias the prest founde the boke of the lawe of the LORDE geuen by Moses.

15 And Helchias answered, and saide vnto Saphan the Scribe: I haue founde the boke of the lawe in ye house of ye LORDE. And Helchias delyuered the boke vnto Saphan.

16 And Saphan bare it vnto the kynge, and broughte ye kynge worde agayne, and sayde: All that was geuen vnder the handes of thy seruautes, that make they:

17 and ye money that was founde in ye house of the LORDE, haue they gathered together, and delyuered it vnto ye officers, and to the workmen.

18 And Saphan the Scribe tolde the kynge, and sayde: Helchias the prest hath delyuered me a boke. And Saphan red therein before the kynge.

19 And whan the kynge herde the wordes of the lawe, he rente his clothes.

20 And the kynge commaunded Helchias and Ahicam the sonne of Saphan, and Abdon the sonne of Micha, and Saphan the Scribe, and Asaia the kynges seruaunt, and sayde:

21 Go youre waye, axe counsell at the LORDE for me and for the remnaunt in Israel, and for Iuda, concernynge these wordes of the boke that is founde. For greate is the indignacion of the LORDE that is gone forth ouer vs, because oure fathers haue not kepte the worde of the LORDE, to do acordinge as it is wrytten in this boke.

22 Then wete Helchias (with the other that were sent from the kynge) vnto the prophetisse Hulda the wife of Sallum the Sonne of Thecoath the sonne of Hasra the keeper of the clothes, which dwelt at Ierusalem in the secode parte, and they spake this vnto her.

23 And she sayde vnto them: Thus sayeth the LORDE God of Israel: Tell the man yt sent you vnto me:

24 Thus sayeth ye LORDE: Beholde, I wil brynge plages vpo this place and the inhabitors therof, eue all the curses which are wrytten in the boke, that was red before the kynge of Iuda:

25 because they haue forsake me, and bret incese vnto other goddes, to prouoke me with all the workes of their handes. And my indignacion shal go forth vpon this cite, and shal not be quenched.

26 And after this maner shal ye saye vnto the kynge of Iuda, that sent you to axe counsell at the LORDE: Thus sayeth ye LORDE God of Israel concernynge the wordes that thou hast herde:

27 Because thine hert is moued, and because thou hast humbled thy selfe in the sighte of God, whan thou herdest his wordes agaynst this place and the inhabitors therof, and hast submytted thy selfe before me, and rent thy clothes, and wepte before me, therefore haue I herde the, sayeth ye LORDE.

28 Beholde, I wil gather the vnto thy fathers, and thou shalt be layed in thy graue with peace, so yt thine eyes shal not se all the euell that I wyl brynge ouer this place, and the indwellers therof. And they broughte the kynge worde agayne.

29 Then sent ye kynge, and caused all the Elders in Iuda and Ierusalem to come together.

30 And the kynge wente vp in to the house of the LORDE, and all the men of Iuda and inhabitors of Ierusalem, the prestes, the Leuites, and all the people both small and greate: and all the wordes in the boke of the couenaunt that was founde in the house of the LORDE, were red in their eares.

31 And ye kynge stode in his place, and made a couenaunt before the LORDE, that they shulde walke after the LORDE, to kepe his comaundementes, his testimonies, and his statutes with all their hert and with all their soule, to do acordinge vnto all the wordes of the couenaunt that are wrytten in this boke.

32 And there stode all they that were founde at Ierusalem and in Ben Iamin. And ye inhabitors of Ierusalem dyd acordinge to the couenaunt of God the God of their fathers.

33 And Iosias put awaye all abhominacions out of all the londes that were the children of Israels, and caused all them that were founde in Israel, to serue the LORDE their God. As longe as Iosias lyued, departed they not from the LORDE the God of their fathers.

Chapter 35

1 And Iosias kepte Passeouer vnto the LORDE at Ierusalem, and slewe the Passeouer on the fourteenth daye off the first moneth,

2 and set the prestes in their offices, and strengthed them to their mynistracion in the house of the LORDE,

3 and sayde vnto the Leuites that taughte in all Israel, and were sanctified vnto ye LORDE: Put the holy Arke in the house that Salomon ye sonne of Daud kynge of Israel dyd buylde. Ye shal beare it nomore vpon youre shulders. Se that ye serue now the LORDE youre God, and his people of Israel,

4 and prepare the house of youre fathers in youre courses, as it was appoynted by

Daud the kynge of Israel, and by Salomo his sonne:

5 and stonde in the Sanctuary after ye course of the fathers houses amonge youre brethren the children of the people, And after the course of the fathers houses amonge the Leuites,

6 and kyll Passeouer, sanctifye and prepare youre brethren, that they maye do acordinge to the worde of the LORDE by Moses.

7 And Iosias gaue lambes and yonge kyddes which were males, to the Heueofferynge for the comontye (all to the Passeouer for euery one that was founde) in the nombre thirtie thousande, and thre thousande oxen, all of the kynges good.

8 And his prynces of their awne good wyll gaue to the Heueofferynge for the people, & for the prestes and Leuites (namely, Helchias, Zachary and Iehiel the prynces in ye house of God amonge the prestes) for the Passeouer, two thousande and sixe hundreth, And thre hundreth oxen.

9 But Chanania, Semaia, Nathaneel and his brethren, Gasabia, Ieiel and Iosabad the chefe of the Leuites gaue the Leuites to the Heue offerynge for the Passeouer, fyue thousandeshepe, & fyue hundreth oxen.

10 Thus was the Gods seruyce prepared, and the prestes stode in their place, and the Leuites in their courses acordinge to the kynges comaundement.

11 And they kylld the Passeouer, and the prestes toke it off their handes, and sprenkled it: and the Leuites toke the skynnes off them, 12 and remoued the burntofferynge there from, to geue it amonge the porcions of the fathers houses in the multitudes of their congregacion to offre vnto the LORDE, as it is wrytten in ye boke of Moses, Euen so dyd they with the oxen also.

13 And they dighte the Passeouer at the fyre acordinge to the lawe. And that which was halowed, dighte they in pottes, kettels, and pannes, and made haist for the comon people.

14 Afterwarde prepared they for them selues also and for ye prestes: for the prestes the children of Aaron were occupied in the burntofferynges and fat vntyll the nighte. Therefore must the Leuites prepare for them selues and for the prestes the children of Aaron.

15 And the syngers the children of Asaph stode in their place (acordinge to Dauids comaundement) and Asaph and Heman, and Iedithim the kynges Seer, and the porters at all the gates. And they departed not from their office. For the Leuites their brethren prepared for them.

16 Thus was all the Gods seruyce prepared the same daye, that the Passeouer mighte be kepte, and the burnt sacrifices offred vpon the altare off the LORDE acordinge to the comaundement of kynge Iosias.

17 So the children of Israel that were at hande, helde Passeouer at that tyme, and the feast of vnleueded bred, seuen dayes.

18 Sence ye tyme of Samuel the prophet, was no Passeouer kepte in Israel like this: and no kynge of Israel had holde soch a Passeouer as Iosias dyd, and the prestes, Leuites, all Iuda, and soch as were founde of Israel, and the inhabitants of Ierusalem.

19 In the eighteth yere of the reigne of Iosias was this Passeouer kepte.

20 After this, whan Iosias had prepared the house, Necho the kynge of Egipte wente vp to fighte agaynst Carcamis besyde Euphrates. And Iosias wete forth agaynst him.

21 But he sent messaungers vnto him, sayenge: What haue I to do with the O kynge off Iuda? I am not come now agaynst the, but I fighte agaynst another house: and God hath sayde, that I shal make haist. Ceasse from God which is with me, that he destroye the not.

22 Neuertheles Iosias turned not his face from him, but prepared himselfe to fighte with him, and herkened not vnto the wordes of Necho out of the mouth of God, & came to fighte wt him vpon the playne besyde Mageddo.

23 But the Archers shot at kynge Iosias. And the kynge sayde vnto his seruantes: Cary me awaye, for I am sore wounded.

24 And his seruantes toke him from the charet, and caried him vpon his seconde charet, and broughte him to Ierusalem. And he dyed, and was buried amonge the sepulchres off his fathers. And All Iuda and Ierusalem mourned for Iosias, 25 and Jeremy bewayled Iosias, and all the synginge men and women, spake their lametacions ouer Iosias vnto this daye, and made a custome therof vnto this daye. Beholde, it is wrytten also amonge the Lamentacions.

26 What more there is to saye of Iosias, and his mercy acordinge to the scripture in the lawe of the LORDE, 27 and of his actes (both first and last) beholde, it is wrytten in the boke of the kynges of Israel and Iuda.

Chapter 36

1 And the people of the londe toke Ioahas the sonne of Iosias, and made him kynge in his fathers steade at Ierusalem.

2 Thre and twentye yere olde was Ioahas whan he was made kynge, and reigned thre monethes at Ierusalem.

3 For the kynge of Egipte deposed him at Ierusalem, and condemned the londe in an hundreth talentes of syluer, and one talent off golde.

4 And the kynge of Egipte made Eliachim his brother kynge ouer Iuda and Ierusalem, and turned his name Ioachim. But Necho toke his brother Ioahas, and caried him in to Egipte.

5 Fyue and twentye yere olde was Ioachim wha he was made kynge, and reigned eleue yere at Ierusalem, and dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE his God.

6 And Nabuchodonosor the kynge of Babilon wente vp agaynst him, and bounde him with cheynes, to cary him vnto Babilon.

7 And Nabuchodonosor broughte certayne vessels of ye house of the LORDE vnto Babilon, and put them in his temple at Babilon.

8 What more there is to saye of Ioachim, and off his abhominacions which he dyd, and that were founde in him, beholde, they are wrytten in the boke of the kynges of Israel and Iuda. And Ioachim his sonne was kynge in his steade.

9 Eight yere olde was Ioachim whan he was made kynge, and reigned thre monethes and ten dayes at Ierusalem, and dyd yt which was euell in the sighte of ye LORDE.

10 But wha the yere came aboute, Nabuchodonosor sent thither, and caused him be fetched vnto Babilon with the costly vessels and Iewels of the house of the LORDE, and made Sedechias his brother kynge ouer Iuda and Ierusalem.

11 One and twentye yere olde was Sedechias whan he was made kynge, & reigned eleuen yere at Ierusalem, 12 and dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE his God, and submytted not himselfe before the face of the prophet Jeremy, which spake out of the mouth of the LORDE.

13 He fell awaye also from Nabuchodonosor the kynge of Babilon (which had taken an ooth of him by God) and was styfnecked, and hardened his hert, that he shulde not conuerte vnto the LORDE God of Israel.

14 And all ye chefe amonge the prestes, and the people, multiplyed their synnes, acordinge to all the abhominacions of the Heythen, and dyfyled the house of the LORDE, which he had sanctified at Ierusalem.

15 And the LORDE God of their fathers sent vnto them early by his messaungers (for he spared his people and his habitacion)

16 but they laughed the messaungers of God to scorne, and despysed his wordes, and had his prophetes in derision, so loge tyll the indignacion of the LORDE increased ouer his people, and there was no remedye of healinge.

17 For he broughte the kynge of the Caldees vpon them, and caused for to slaye all their yonge men with the swerde in the house of their Sanctuary, and spared nether yonge ma ner virgin, nether aged ner graudfather, but gaue them all in to his hande.

18 And all the vessels in the house of God, greate and small, the treasures in the house of ye LORDE, and the treasures of the kynge and of his prynces, all this caused he to be caried vnto Babilon.

19 And they brent the house of God, and brake downe the wall of Ierusalem, and all the palaces therof brent they with fyre, so that all the costly ornamentes of it were destroyed.

20 And loke who escaped ye swerde, hi caried he awaye vnto Babilon, & they became his seruantes, & the seruantes of his sonnes, tyll the Persians had the empyre:

21 that ye worde of the LORDE by the mouth of Jeremy mighte be performed, euen vntyll the londe had ynough of hir Sabbathes: for all the tyme of the desolacion was it Sabbath, vntyll the seuentye yeres were fulfilled.

22 But in the first yere of Cyrus the kynge of Persia (that the worde of the LORDE spoken by the mouth of Jeremy mighte be fulfilled) the LORDE rased vp the sprete of Cyrus the kynge of Persia, that he caused it be proclaimed thorow out all his empyre, yee and by wrytinge also, sayenge:

23 Thus sayeth Cyrus the kynge of Persia: The LORDE God of heauen hath geuen me all the kyngdomes in the londe, and hath commaunded me to buylde him an house at Ierusalem in Iuda. Who soeuer now amonge you is of his people, the LORDE his God be with him, and let him go vp.

EZRA

Chapter 1

1 In the first yere of Cyrus kynge off Persia (that the worde of the LORDE spoken by the mouth of Jeremy mighte be fulfilled) the LORDE stered vp the sprete of Cyrus kynge of Persia, yt he caused it be proclaimed thorow out all his empyre, yee and by wrytinge also, sayenge:

2 Thus sayeth Cyrus the kynge of Persia: The LORDE God of heauen hath geuen me all the kyngdomes in the londe and hath commaunded me to buylde him an house at Ierusalem in Iuda.

3 Who soeuer now amonge you is of his people, the LORDE his God be with him, and let him go vp to Ierusalem in Iuda, and buylde the house of the LORDE God of Israel. He is ye God that is at Ierusalem.

4 And who so euer remayneth yet in eny maner of place (where he is a stranger) let the me of his place helpe him with syluer and golde, with good and catell of a good frewill, for the house of God at Ierusalem.

5 Then gat vp the pryncipall fathers of Iuda and Ben Iamin, and the prestes and Leuites, and all they whose sprete God had rased to go vp, and to buylde the house of the LORDE at Ierusalem.

6 And all they that were aboute them, strengthened their hande with vessels of syluer and golde, with good and catell, and Iewels, besydes that which they gane of their awne frewill.

7 And kynge Cyrus brought forth the vessels of the LORDES house, which Nabuchodonosor had take out of Ierusalem, and put in his gods house.

8 But Cyrus ye kynge of Persia brought the forth by Mithredath the treasurer, and nombred the vnto Se?bazar the prynce of Iuda.

9 And this is the nombre of them: thirtye basens of golde, and a thousande basens of syluer, and nyne and twentye knyues, 10 thirte cuppes of golde, and of other syluer cuppes foure hundreth and ten, and of other vessels a thousande.

11 So that all the vessels both of golde and syluer, were fyue thousande and foure hundreth. Se?bazar broughte them all vp, with them that came vp out of the captiuyte off Babilon vnto Ierusalem.

Chapter 2

Chapter 3

1 And whan the seuenth moneth came, and the children of Israel were now in their cities, the people came together euen as one man, vnto Ierusalem.
 2 And there stode vp Iesua the sonne of Iosedec and his brethren the prestes, and Zorobabel the sonne of Saalthiel and his brethren, and buylde the altare of the God of Israel, to offre burntofferings theron, as it is wrytten in the lawe of Moses the man of God,
 3 and the altare set they vpon his sokettes (for there was a fearfulness amonge them because of the nacions and lodes) and offred burntofferings theron vnto ye LORDE in the mornynge and at euen.
 4 And helde the feast of Tabernacles as it is wrytten, and offred burntofferings daylie after the nombre as acordinge was, euery daye his sacrifice.
 5 Afterwarde the daylie burntofferings also, and of the new Mones and of all the feast dayes of the LORDE that were halowed, and allmaner of fre wyllinge offeringes, which they did of their awne fre wyl vnto the LORDE.

 6 Vpon the first daye of the seuenth moneth beganne they to offre burnt sacrifices vnto the LORDE. But the foundation of the teple of the LORDE was not yet layed.
 7 Neuertheles they gaue money vnto ye masons and carpenters, and meate and drynke and oyle vnto them of Zidon and of Tyre, to brynge the Cedre tymbre from Libanus by See vnto Ioppa, acordinge to the comaundement of Cyrus the kynge of Persia.
 8 In the seconde yeare of their comynge vnto the house of God at Ierusalem in the seconde moneth, beganne Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, and Iesua the sonne of Iosedec, and the remnaunt of their brethren the prestes and Leuites, and all they that were come out of the captiuyte vnto Ierusalem, and appoynted the Leuites fro twentye yeare olde and aboue, to se that the worke of the house of the LORDE wete forwarde.
 9 And Iesua stode with his sonnes and brethren, and Cadmiel with his sonnes, and the children of Iuda, to furthur the workmen of the house of God, namely the childre of Henadad with their children and their brethren the Leuites.
 10 And whan the buylders layed the foundation of the temple of the LORDE, the prestes stode in their araye, with trompettes. And the Leuites the children of Asaph with Cimbales, to prayse ye LORDE with the Dytie of Dauid kynge of Israel.
 11 And they sunge together, geuyng prayse & thankes vnto ye LORDE, because he is gracious, and because his mercy endureth for euer vpon Israell. And all the people shouted loude in praysinge the LORDE, because the foundation of ye house of the LORDE was layed.
 12 Neuertheles many of the olde prestes and Leuites and awncient fathers, which had sene the house afore in his foundation, and this was now before their eyes, wepte loude. But many shouted with ioye, 13 so that the noyse gaue a greate sounde, in so moch that the people coulde not knowe ye ioyfull sounde for the noyse of the wepinge in the people: for the people shouted loude, so that the noyse was herde farre of.
 14 But now that we all are therby which destroyed the temple, we wolde no longer se the kynges dishonoure. Therefore sent we out, and caused the kynge to be certified therof:
 15 That it maye be soughte in ye Cronicles of thy progenitours, and so shalt thou fynde in the same Cronicles, and perceauce, that this cite is sedicious and noysome vnto kynges and londes, and that they cause other also to rebell of olde, and for the same cause was this cite destroyed.
 16 Therefore do we certifie the kynge, that yf this cite be buylde, and the walles therof made vp, thou shalt kepe nothinge on this syde the water by the reason of it.
 17 Then sent ye kynge an answere vnto Rehum the chaunceler, and Simsai the tyme that Assar Hadon the kynge of Assur broughte vs vp hither.

 3 But Zorobabel and Iesua and the other awncient fathers of Israel, answered them: It is not mete for vs and you to buylde the house of oure God, but we wyl buylde alono vnto the LORDE God of Israel, as Cyrus the kynge of Persia hath commaunded vs.
 4 Then the folke of the londe hyndered the people of Iuda, and made them afrayed to buylde,
 5 and hyred councelers aganst them and hyndered their deuyce, as longe as Cyrus the kynge of Persia lyued, vntyll the reigne off Darius kynge off Persia.
 6 But whan Ahasuerus was kynge, in the begynnyng off his reigne wrote they vnto him a complaynt agaynst them of Iuda and Ierusalem.
 7 And in the tyme of Artaxerses, wrote Bisellam, Mithudath, Tabeel and the other of their counsell vnto Artaxerses the kynge of Persia. But the scripture of ye letter was wrytten in the Syrians speach, and was interpreted in the langage of the Syrians.
 8 Rehum ye chaunceler, and Simsai the scribe, wrote this letter agaynst Ierusalem to Artaxerses the kynge.
 9 We Rehum the chaunceler, and Simsai the scribe, and other of the counsell of Dina, off Arphasath, off Tarplat, off Persia, off Arach, of Babilon, of Susan, of Deha, and of Elam,
 10 and other of the people whom the greate and noble Asnaphar broughte ouer, and set in the cities of Samaria, and other on this syde the water, and in Canaan.
 11 And this is ye summe of the letter that they sent vnto kynge Artaxerses: Thy seruauentes the men on this syde the water and in Canaan.
 12 Be it knowne vnto ye kynge, that the Iewes which are come vp from the to vs vnto Ierusalem in to that sedicious & wicked cite, buylde the same, and make vp ye walles of it, & brynge it out of ye foundation.
 13 Be it knowne now therfore vnto ye kynge, yt yf this cite be buylde & the walles made vp agayne, the shal not they geue tribute, toll, and yearly custome, and their deuyce shal do ye kynge harme.
 14 But now that we all are therby which destroyed the temple, we wolde no longer se the kynges dishonoure. Therefore sent we out, and caused the kynge to be certified therof:
 15 That it maye be soughte in ye Cronicles of thy progenitours, and so shalt thou fynde in the same Cronicles, and perceauce, that this cite is sedicious and noysome vnto kynges and londes, and that they cause other also to rebell of olde, and for the same cause was this cite destroyed.
 16 Therefore do we certifie the kynge, that yf this cite be buylde, and the walles therof made vp, thou shalt kepe nothinge on this syde the water by the reason of it.
 17 Then sent ye kynge an answere vnto Rehum the chaunceler, and Simsai the

Chapter 4

1 But whan the aduersaries of Iuda and Ben Iamin herde, that the children of the captiuyte buylde the teple vnto the LORDE God of Israel,
 2 they came to Zorobabel & to the princypall fathers, and sayde vnto them: We wyl buylde with you: for we seke the LORDE youre God like as ye do. And we haue done sacrifice vnto him, sence the Scrybe, and to the other of their councell that dwelt in Samaria, and vnto the other beyonde ye water. Peace and salutacion. 18 The letter which ye sent vnto vs, hath bene opely red before me, 19 and I haue commaunded to make search: and it is founde, that this cite of olde hath made insurreccion agaynst, kynges, & how yt vpror and rebellion hath bene commytted therin. 20 There haue bene mightie kynges also at Ierusalem, which haue reigned ouer all that is beyonde the water, and toll, tribute and yearly custome was geuen vnto them. 21 Do ye now after this commaundemet, forbyd the same men, that the cite be not builded, tyll I haue geue comaundemet. 22 Take hede now that ye be not negligent here in, lest the kyngye haue harme there thorow. 23 Now wha kyngye Artaxerses letter was red before Rehum the chaunceler and Simsai the Scrybe and their councell, they wente vp in all the haist to Ierusalem vnto the Iewes, and forbad them with the arme and auctorite. 24 Then ceased the worke of the house of God at Ierusalem, and continued so vnto the seconde yeare of Darius kyngye of Persia.

Chapter 5

1 The prophetes, Aggeus and Zachary ye sonne of Iddo, prophecied vnto ye Iewes that were in Iuda and Ierusalem, in the name of the God of Israel. 2 Then gat vp Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, and Iesua the sonne of Iosedec, and beganne to buylde the house of God at Ierusalem, and with them the prophetes of God which strenghted the. 3 At the same tyme came to the Thatnai the debite on this syde the water, and Sethar of Bosen, and their councelers, and sayde thus vnto them: Who hath commaunded you to buylde this house, and to make vp the walles therof? 4 Then tolde we them the names of the men, that made this buyldinge. 5 But the eye of their God came vpon the Elders of the Iewes, that they were not inhibyte, tyll the matter was brought before Darius, and tyll there came a wrytinge therof agayne. 6 This is the summe of the letter yt Thatnai the Debyte on this syde the water, and Sethar of Bosen, and their councellers of Apharsach (which were on this syde the water) sent vnto kyngye Darius. 7 And these are the wordes that they sent vnto him: Vnto Darius the kyngye, all peace. 8 Be it knowne vnto the kyngye, that we came in to Iewry to the house of ye greate God, which is buylded with all maner of stone, and balckes are layed in the walles, and ye worke goeth fast forth, and prospereth in their handes. 9 Neuertheles we axed the Elders and sayde vnto them: Who hath comaunded you to buylde this house, and to make vp the walles therof?

10 We axed their names also, that we might certifye the, and haue wrytten the names of the men that were their rulers. 11 But they answered vs wt these wordes, and sayde: We are the seruantes of the God of heauen and earth, and buylde the house yt was buylded many yeares agoo, which a greate kyngye of Israel buylded and set vp. 12 Howbeit whan oure fathers prouoked the God of heauen vnto wrath, he gaue them ouer in the hande of Nabuchodonosor the kyngye of Babilon the Caldee, which brake downe this house, & caried ye people awaye vnto Babilon. 13 Neuertheles in the first yeare of Cyrus the kyngye of Babilon, ye same kyngye Cyrus commaunded to buylde this house of God: 14 for the vessels of golde and siluer in the house of God, which Nabuchodonosor toke out of the temple at Ierusalem, and broughte the in to ye temple at Babilon, those dyd Cyrus the kyngye take out of ye temple at Babilon, and delyuered them vnto Se?bazer by name, whom he made Debyte, 15 and sayde vnto him: Take these vessels, go thy waye and bryngye them vnto the temple at Ierusalem, and let the house of God be buylded in his place. 16 Then came the same Se?bazar, and layed ye fundacion of the house of God at Ierusalem. Sence that tyme hath it bene in buyldinge, and yet is it not fynished. 17 Yf it please ye kyngye now, let there be search made in ye kynges treasure house which is at Babilon, whether it haue bene kyngye Cyrus commaundemet, that the house of God at Ierusalem shulde be buylded: & sende vs ye kynges mynde concernyngye the same.

Chapter 6

1 Then comaunded kinge Darius, that search shulde be made in ye library of ye kynges treasure house, which laye at Babilon. 2 So at Egbathanis in a castell that lyeth in the londe of the Meedes, there was founde a boke, & in it was there an acte wrytten after this maner: 3 In the first yeare of kyngye Cyrus, comaunded the same kyngye Cyrus to buylde ye house of God at Ierusalem, in the place where the sacrifice is made, & to laye the fundacion to beare thre score cubites heygth, & thre score cubites bredth, 4 & thre walles of all maner of stones, and one wall of tymber, & the expences shalbe geuen of the kynges house. 5 And the golde and syluer vessell of ye house of God (which Nabuchodonosor toke out of the temple at Ierusalem, and broughte vnto Babilon) shalbe restored agayne, yt they maye be broughte vnto the temple at Ierusalem to their place in to the house of God. 6 Get you farre from them therefore, thou

Thatnai Debyte beyonde the water, and Sethar of Bosen, & youre councelers which are beyonde the water. 7 Let them worke in ye house of God, that the Debyte of ye Iewes and their Elders maye buylde the house of God in his place. 8 I haue commaunded also, what shalbe done to ye Elders of Iuda for the buyldinge of the house of God, that there shal diligently be take of the kynges goodes, euen of the rentes beyonde the water, & geuen vnto the men, and that they be not hyndered. 9 And yf they haue nede of calues, lambes, or goates for the burntoffryngye vnto ye God of heauen, wheate, salt, wyne and oyle, after the custome of the prestes at Ierusalem, there shalbe geuen them daylie as is acordinge: and se that this be not done negligently, 10 that they maye offre swete sauoures vnto ye God of heauen, and praye for the kynges lyfe, and for his children. 11 This commaundemet haue I geue. And what man so euer he be that altereth these wordes, there shal a balke be taken from his house, and set vp, and he shalbe hanged theron, and his house shalbe prysed for the dede. 12 But the God that dwelleth in heauen, destroye all kynges and people, that put to their hade to alter and to breake downe the house of God at Ierusalem. I Darius haue commaunded, that this be diligently done. 13 Then Thatnai ye Debyte beyonde ye water, and Sethar of Bosen with their councelers (to whom kyngye Darius had sent) dyd their diligence. 14 And ye Elders of the Iewes buylded, and they prospered thorow the prophecience of Aggeus the prophet and Zachary the sonne of Iddo: and they buylded, and set vp the worke, acordinge to the commaundemet of the God of Israel, and after the commaundemet of Cyrus, Darius and Artaxerses kynges of Persia. 15 And they performed the house vnto the thirde daye of the moneth Adar, that was the sixte yeare of the reigne of kyngye Darius. 16 And the children of Israel, the prestes, the Leuites, and the other children of ye captiuite helde the dedicacion of the house of God with ioye, 17 and offred at the dedicacion of the house of God, an hundreth calues, two hundreth lambes, foure hundreth goates: and for the synofferyngye for all Israel, twolue he goates, acordinge to the nombre of the trybes of Israel, 18 and set the prestes in their courses, and ye Leuites in their offices, to mynister vnto God which is at Ierusalem, as it is wrytten in the boke of Moses. 19 And the children of the captiuite helde Passeouer vpon the fourteenth daye of the first moneth: 20 for ye prestes and Leuites had purified them selues, so yt they were all cleane as one man, and kyled Passeouer for all the children of the captiuite, and for their brethre the prestes, and for them selues. 21 And the childre of Israel which were come agayne out of captiuyte, and all soch as had separated them selues vnto them from the fylthinesse of the Heythen in the londe, to seke the LORDE God of Israel, ate 22 & helde the feast of vnleueded bred seuen dayes with ioye: for the LORDE had made them glad, and turned the hert of the kyngye of Assur vnto the, so that their handes were strenghted in the worke of the house of God, which is ye God of Israel.

Chapter 7

1 After these actes in the reigne of Artaxerses kyngye of Persia, there wente vp from Babilon, E?dras the sonne of Seraia, the sonne of Asaria, the sonne of Helchias, 2 the sonne of Sallum, the sonne of Sadoc, the sonne of Achitob, 3 the sonne of Amaria, the sonne of Asaria, the sonne Meraioth, 4 the sonne of Serahia, ye sonne of Vsi, the sonne of Buki, 5 the sonne of Abisua, the sonne of Phineas, the sonne of Eleasar, the sonne of Aaron the chefe prest, 6 which was a quycke scrybe in the lawe of Moses, which the LORDE God of Israel dyd geue. And ye kyngye gaue him all that he requyred, acordinge to the hande of the LORDE his God vpon him. 7 And there wente vp certayne of the children of Israel, and of the prestes, and of the Leuites, of the syngers, of the porters, and of the Nethinims vnto Ierusalem, in the seuenth yeare of kyngye Artaxerses. 8 And they came to Ierusalem in the fifth moneth, that is the seuenth yeare of the kyngye. 9 For vpon the first daye of the first moneth, deuysed he to go vp from Babilon: and on ye first daye of the fifth moneth came he to Ierusalem, acordinge to the good hande of God vpon him: 10 For E?dras prepared his hert to seke the lawe of the LORDE, and to do it, and to teach the precepte & iudgment in Israel. 11 And this is the summe of the letter, that kyngye Artaxerses gaue vnto E?dras the prest, the scrybe, which was a teacher in the wordes of the LORDE and of his statutes ouer Israel. 12 Vnto E?dras the prest and scrybe in the lawe of the God of heauen, peace and salutacion. 13 I haue commaunded, that all they of the people of Israel, and of the prestes and Leuites in my realme, which are mynded of their awne good wyll to go vp to Ierusalem, that they go with the, 14 beyngye sent of the kyngye and of the seuen lordes of the councell, to vyset Iuda and Ierusalem, acordinge to the lawe of God, which is in thy hade: 15 And that thou shuldest take with the, syluer and golde, which the kyngye and the lordes of his counsell geue of their awne good wyll vnto the God of Israel (whose habitacion is at Ierusalem)

16 and all the syluer and golde that thou canst fynde in all ye countre of Babilon: with it that the people and prestes geue of their awne good wil vnto the house of God at Ierusalem.

17 Take thou the same, and bye diligently with the same money, calues, lambes, goates, and meatofferynges and drynkofferynges, to be offred vpon the altare of the house of youre God at Ierusalem.

18 And loke what it lyketh the and thy brethren to do with the remnaunt of the money, that do after the wyll of youre God.

19 And the vessels that are geuen the for the mynistracion in the house of thy God, those deluyuer thou before God at Ierusalem.

20 And what so euer thinge more shal be nedefull for the house of thy God, which is necessary for the to spende, let the same be geue out of the kynges chamber.

21 I kyng Artaxerses haue commaunded all the treasurers beyonde the water, yt loke what so euer E?dras the prest and scribe in the lawe of the God of heaue, requyreth of you, that ye fulfill the same diligently, 22 vntyll an hundreth taletes of syluer, and tyll an hundreth quarters of wheate, and tyll an hundreth Batthes of wyne, and tyll an hundreth Batthes of oyle, and salt without measure.

23 Whatsoeuer belongeth to the lawe of the God of heauen, let the same be done with diligence for the house of the God of heaue, that there come no wrath vpon the kynges realme & his children.

24 And knowne be it vnto you, that ye shall haue no auctorite to requyre taxinge & custome, and yearly rentes vpon eny of the prestes, Leuites, syngers, porters, Nethinims and mynisters in ye house of this God.

25 But thou E?dras (after the wy?dome of yi God that is in thy hande) set thou iudges and arbiters, to iudge all the people that is beyonde Iordane, euen all soch as knowe the lawe of thy God: and them that knowe it not, those se that ye teache.

26 And who so euer wyl not diligently fulfill the lawe of thy God, and the kynges lawe, shall haue his iudgmet for the dede, whether it be vnto death, or to be banyshed, or to be condemned in good, or to be put in preson.

27 Praysed be the LORDE God of oure fathers, which so hath inspyred ye kynges hert to garnysh the house of God at Ierusalem:

28 and hath enclnyed his mercy vnto me in the presence of the kyng, and his counclers, and before all the kynges hie estates. And I was comforted (acordinge to the hade of the LORDE my God ouer me) and so gathered I the heades of Israel together, yt they mighte go vp with me.

13 Of the last children of Adonicam, and these were their names: Eliphelet, Ieiel and Semaia, and with them thre score males.

14 Of the children of Bigeuai, Vthai and Sabud, and with them seue males.

15 And I gathered them together by the water that renneth towarde Aheua, & there abode we thre dayes, And whan I loked amonge the people & the prestes, I founde no Leuites there.

16 The sent I Elieser, Ariel, Semaia, Elnathan, Iarib, Elnathan, Natha, Zachary and Mesullam the rulers, and Ioiarib and Elnathan the teachers, 17 and those sent I vnto Iddo ye chefest at Casiphia, that they shulde fetch us mynysters for the house of oure God, and I tolde them what they shulde saye vnto Iddo and to his brethren the Nethinims at Casiphia.

18 And (acordinge to the good hande of oure God vpon us) they broughte us a wyse man from amonge the children of Maheli the sonne of Leui the sonne of Israel, euen Serebia with his sonnes and brethren, eightene.

19 And Hasabia, and with him Iesaia of the children of Merari, with his brethren & their sonnes, twentye.

20 And of the Nethinims, whom Dauid and the princes gaue to mynister vnto the Leuites, two hundreth & twentye, all named by name.

21 And euen there at the water besyde Aheua, caused I a fastinge to be proclaimed, yt we mighte humble oure selues before oure God, to seke of him a righte waye for us, & oure children and all oure substaunce.

22 For I was ashamed to require of the kyng, soudyers & horsmen, to helpe us agaynst the enemye in the waye. For we had sayde vnto the kyng: The hande of oure God is for the best vpon all them that seke him, and his violence and wrath vpon all them that forsake him.

23 So we fasted, and soughte this at oure God, and he herde us.

24 And I toke out twolue of the chefe prestes, Serebia and Hasabia, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 and weyed them there the syluer and golde and vessels for the Heueofferinge vnto the house of oure God, which the kyng, and the lordes of his counsell and prynces, and all Israel that were at hande, had geuen to the Heue offerynge:

26 and there weyed I them vnder their hande sixe hundreth and fiftye talentes of syluer, and in syluer vessell an hundreth talentes, and in golde an hundreth talentes,

27 twentye cuppes of golde of a thousande guldens, and two costly ornamentes of good brasse, as cleare as golde,

28 and sayde vnto them: Ye are holy vnto the LORDE, therefore are the vessels holy also, and so is the syluer and golde that is geuen of a good wyll vnto the LORDE God of youre fathers:

29 Watch ye therefore and kepe it, tyll ye weye it downe before the chefe prestes and Leuites, and awncient fathers of Israel at Ierusalem in the chestes of the house of the LORDE.

30 Then toke the prestes and Leuites that weyed syluer and golde & vessell, to brynge it to Ierusalem vnto ye house of oure God.

31 So we brake vp, from the water of Aheua on the twolueth daye of the first moneth, to go vnto Ierusalem: and the hande of oure God was vpon us, and deluyered us fro the hande of the enemies and prey waytinges by the waye.

32 And we came to Ierusalem, and abode there thre dayes.

33 But on ye fourth daye was the syluer and golde, and vessell weyed in the house of oure God vnder the hande of Meremoth the sonne of Vrias the prest, and with him Eleasar the sonne of Phineas, and with them Iosabad the sonne of Iesua, and Noadia ye sonne of Benui the Leuites, 34 acordinge to the nombre & weight of euery one. And the weight was all wrytten vp at the same tyme.

35 And the children of the captiuyte, which were come out of preson, offred burntofferings vnto ye God of Israel: twolue bullockes for all Israel, sixe and nynetye rammes, seuen and seuentye lambes, and twolue goates for a synofferynge, all to the burnt offeringe of the LORDE.

36 And they deluyered the kynges comyssion vnto the kynges officers, & to the Debytes on this syde the water. And they promoted the people and the house of God.

Chapter 9

1 Whan all this was perfourmed, the rulers came to me, and sayde: The people of Israel, and the prestes, & Leuites are not separated from the nacions in the londes as touchinge their abhominacions, namely of the Cananites, Hethites, Pheresites, Iebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egipcians, and Amorites.

2 For they haue taken the daughters of the same, & their sonnes, and haue myxte the holy sede with ye nacions in the londes: and the hande of the rulers and lordes of counsell hath bene principall in this trespase.

3 Whan I herde this, I rente my clothes and my rayment, and plucte out the heer of my heade and of my beard, and sat mournynge.

4 And there resorted vnto me all soch as feared the worde of the LORDE God of Israel because of the greate transgression. And I sat mournynge vntyll the euenynge sacrifice.

5 And aboute the euenynge sacrifice I rose vp fro my heuynes, and rente my clothes and my raiment, and fell vpon my knees, and spred out my handes vnto the LORDE my God,

6 and sayde: My God, I am ashamed, and darre not lifte vp mine eies vnto the my God: for oure wickednesses are growne ouer oure heade, & oure trespases are waxen greate vnto ye heaue.

7 Sence the tyme of oure fathers haue we bene in greate trespase vnto this daie, and because of oure wickednesses haue we and or kynges bene deluyered in to the hande of ye kynges of the nacions, in to the swerde, in to captiuyte, in to spoyle, and in to confusion of face, as it is come to passe this daye.

8 But now is there a litle and sodane graciousnes come from the LORDE oure God, so that some of vs are escaped, that he maie geue vs a nayle in his holy place, that oure God maye lighte oure eyes, and geue vs a litle lyfe in oure bondage.

9 For we are bondmen, and or God hath not forsake vs though we be bondmen, and hath enclnyed mercy vnto vs in the sighte of the kynges of Persia, that they shulde geue vs lyfe, and promote the house of oure God, and to sett vp the desolacion therof, and to geue vs an helacion in Iuda and Ierusalem.

10 O oure God, what shall we saye now after this? that we haue forsaken thy commaundementes, 11 which thou hast commaunded by thy seruantes the prophetes, and saide: The londe wherin ye shal come to possesse it, is an vnclene londe thorow the fylthines of the people of the londes, in their abhominacions wherwith they haue made it full of vnclennes on euery syde.

12 Therefore shal ye not geue youre doughters vnto their sonnes, and their doughters shall ye not take vnto youre sonnes, and seke not their peace and welth for euer, that ye maye be stronge, and enioye the good in the londe, and yt ye and youre children maye haue the inheritaunce of it for euermore.

13 And after all this that is come vpon vs (because of oure euell dedes and greate trespase) thou oure God hast spared oure wickednesses, and hast geuen vs a delyueraunce as it is come to passe.

14 As for vs, we haue turned backe, & haue let go thy commaundementes, to make contracte with the people of these abhominacions. Wilt thou then be wroth at vs, tyll we be vtterly consumed, so that nothyng remayne, and tyll there be no delyueraunce?

15 O LORDE God of Israel, thou art righteous, for we remaine yet escaped, as it is this daie. Beholde, in thy presence are we in oure trespase, for because of it is there no standinge before the.

Chapter 10

1 And whan E?dras prayed after this maner and knowleged, wepte, and laie before the house of God, there resorted vnto him out of Israel a very greate congregacion of men and wemen, and children: for the people wepte very sore.

2 And Sachania the sonne of Iehiel one of the children of Elam, answered, and sayde vnto E?dras: We haue trespased agaynst the LORDE oure God, in that we haue taken straunge wyues of all the people of the londe. Now there is hope yet in Israel cocerninge this,

3 therfore let vs make a couenant now with oure God, that we shal put awaye all the wyues (and soch as are borne of them) acordinge to the counsell of ye LORDE, and of them that feare the commaundement of oure God, yt we maye do acordinge to the lawe.

4 Get the vp therfore, for the matter belongeth vnto the. We wyll be with the, be of good comforte, and do it.

5 Then rose E?dras, and toke an oath of the rulers, prestes and Leuites, and of all Israel, that they shulde do acordinge to this worde: and they swore.

6 And E?dras stode vp before the house of God, and wente in to the chamber of Iohanen the sonne of Eliasab. And whan he came thither, he ate no bred, and dranke no water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had bene in captiuyte.

7 And they caused a proclamacion be made thorow out Iuda and Ierusalem, vnto all the children which had bene in captiuyte, yt they shulde gather them selues together vnto Ierusalem:

8 And that who soeuer came not within three dayes acordinge to the deucey of the rulers and Elders, all his substance shulde be forfeit, and he put out from the cogregacion of the captiue.

9 Then all the men of Iuda and Ben Iamin gathered them selues together vnto Ierusalem in three dayes, yt is on the twentieth daye of the nyenth moneth: and all the people sat in the strete before the house of God, and trembled because of the matter, and for the rayne.

10 And E?dras ye prest stode vp, and sayde vnto them: Ye haue transgressed, yt ye haue taken straunge wyues, to make the trespase of Israel yet more:

11 confesse now therfore vnto ye LORDE God of youre fathers, & do his pleasure, and separate youre selues from the people of the londe, & from ye straunge wyues.

12 The answered all the cogregacion, & sayde with loude voyce: Let it be done as thou hast sayde.

13 But the people are many, & it is a raynye wether, & they ca not stode here without, nether is this a worke of one daye or two, for we are many yt haue offended in this transgression.

14 Let vs appoynte oure rulers therfore in all the cogregacion, yt all they which haue taken straunge wyues in oure cities, maye come at the tyme appoynted, and the Elders of euery cite and their Iudges with them, tyll the wrath of oure God because of this matter be turned awaye from vs.

15 Then were appoynted Ionathan the sonne of Asahel & Iehasia the sonne of Thecua ouer this matter. And Mesullam and Sabthai the Leuites helped them.

16 And the children of the captiuyte dyd euen so. And E?dras the prest, and ye awncient fathers thorow the house of their fathers, and all that were now rehearsed by name, separated the selues, and sat them downe on the first daye of the tenth moneth, to exame this matter.

17 And on ye first daye of ye first moneth broughte they the matter to a conclusion, concernyng all the men yt had take straunge wyues.

18 And amoge the childre of the prestes there were men founde yt had take straunge wyues, namely amoge the children of Iesua the sonne of Iosedec & of his brethre, Maeseia, Elieser, Iarib and Godolia.

19 And they gaue their hades there vpon, that they wolde put awaye their wyues: & for their trespase offerynge to geue a rame for their trespase.

20 Amoge the children of Immer, Hanani & Sabadia.

21 Amonge the childre of Harim, Maeseia, Elia, Semaia, Iehiel, and Vsia.

22 Amonge ye children of Pashur, Elioenai, Maeseia, Ismael, Nethaneel, Iosabad & Eleasa.

23 Amonge the Leuites, Iosabad, Simei and Celaia, He is that Celita, Pethahia, Iuda & Eleasar.

24 Amonge the syngers, Elyasib. Amonge the porters, Sallum, Telem and Vri.

25 Of Israel. Amonge the children of Pareos, Ramia, Iesia, Malchia, Meiamin, Eleasar, Malchia & Benaia.

26 Amonge ye children of Elam, Mathania, Zachary, Iehiel, Abdy, Ieremoth & Elia.

27 Amonge the children of Sathu, Elioenai, Eliasib, Mathania, Ieremoth, Sabad & Asisa.

28 Amonge the children of Bebai, Iohanen, Hanania, Sabai & Athlai.

29 Amonge the children of Bani, Mesullam, Malluch, Adaia, Iasub, Seal and Ieremoth.

30 Amonge the children of Pahath Moab, Adna, Chelal, Benaia, Maesea, Mathania, Bezaleel, Benui and Manasse.

31 Amonge the children of Harim, Elieser, Iesia, Malchia, Semaia, Simeon, 32 Be Iamin, Malluch & Samaria.

33 Amonge the childre of Hasum, Mathnai, Mathatha, Sabad, Eliphelet, Ieremai, Manasse & Simei.

34 Amoge the childre of Bani, Maedai, Amram, Huel,

35 Benaia, Bedia, Chelui,

36 Naia, Meremoth, Eliasib,

37 Mathania, Mathnai, Iaesau,

38 Bani, Benui, Simei,

NEHEMIAH

Chapter 1

1 These are the actes of Nehemias the sonne of Hachalia. It fortunod in ye moneth Chisleu in ye twetieth yeare, that I was in the castell at Susan:

2 and Hanani one of my brethren came with certayne me of Iuda, and I axed them how the Iewes dyd that were delyuered and escaped from the captiuyte, & how it wente at Ierusalem.

3 And they sayde vnto me: The remnaunt of the captiuyte are there in the londe in greate mysfortune & rebuke. The walles of Ierusalem are broken downe, and the portes ther of are brent with fyre.

4 Wha I herde these wordes, I sat me downe & wepte, & mourned two dayes, & fasted & prayed before the God of heauen,

5 & sayde: O LORDE God of heauen, thou greate & terrible God, thou yt kepest couenant & mercy for them yt loue the & obserue thy comaundementes:

6 let yi eares marke, & let thine eies be open, yt thou mayest heare the prayer of yi seruaunt, which I praye now before ye daye and nighte for the children of Israel thy seruautes, & knowlege the synnes of the children of Israel, which we haue commytted agaynst the. And I & my fathers house haue synned also.

7 We haue bene corrupte vnto the, in yt we haue not kepte the comaundementes, statutes & lawes, which thou comaundest yi seruaunt Moses.

8 Yet call to remembraunce ye worde that thou comaundest thy seruaunt Moses, and saydest: Yf ye trasgresse, then wil I scater you abrode amonge the nacios.

9 But yf ye turne vnto me, and kepe my commaundementes & do them: though ye were cast out vnto the vttemost parte of heauen yet wyl I gather you from thence, and wyl bryngye you from thence, eue vnto the place, that I haue chosen for my name to dwell there.

10 They are thy seruautes, and thy people, whom thou hast delyuered thorow thy greate power & mightie hande.

11 O LORDE, let thine eares marke the prayer of thy seruaunt, & the prayer of thy seruautes, whose desyre is to feare thy name, & let thy seruaunt prospere this daye, & graunte him mercy in the sight of this man: for I was the kynges butlar.

Chapter 2

1 In the moneth Nisan of the twentieth yeare of kyng Artaxerses, wha the wyne stode before him, I toke vp the wyne, and gaue it vnto ye kyng, and I was heuy in his presence.

2 Then sayde ye kyng vnto me: Why lokest thou so sadly? Thou art not sicke, that is not ye matter, but thou art heuy harted. Neuertheles I was sore afrayed,

3 & sayde vnto the kyng: God saue the kynges life for euer, shulde I not loke sadly? the cite of my fathers buryall lyeth wayest, & the portes therof are consumed wt the fyre.

4 Then sayde the kyng vnto me: What is the thy request? Then made I my prayer to the God of heaue,

5 and sayde vnto the kyng: yf it please the kyng, and yf thy seruaunt be fauoured in thy sighte, I beseke the sende me in to Iuda vnto ye cite of my fathers buryall, that I maye buylde it.

6 And ye kyng sayde vnto me, & so dyd the quene yt sat by him: How loge shal thy iourney cotynue, and wha wilt thou come agayne? And it pleased ye kyng to sende me, and I set him a tyme,

7 & sayde vnto the kyng: Yf it please the kyng, let him geue me letters to the Debites beyonde ye water, yt they maye conueye me ouer, tyll I come in to Iuda:

8 & letters vnto Assaph the lorde of the kynges wod, yt he maye geue me wodd for balkes to the gates of the palace, which are harde on the house & harde on the walles of the cite, & for the house that I shal entre in to. And ye kyng gaue me acordinge to the good hande of God vpo me.

9 And whan I came to ye Debites beyonde the water, I gaue them ye kynges letters. And the kyng sent captaynes and horsmen with me.

10 But whan Saneballath the Horonite, & Tobias the seruaunt of the Ammonites herde yt, it greued them sore, yt there was come a man which soughte the welth of the children of Israel.

11 And whan I came to Ierusalem, & had bene there thre daies,
 12 I gat me vp in ye night season, & a fewe men with me: for I tolde no man what God had geue me in my hert to do at Ierusalem: & there was not one beest wt me, saue it yt I rode vpon.
 13 And I rode by nighte vnto the valley porte before the Dragon well, & to the Dongporte, & considered ye walles of Ierusalem that were broken downe, & the portes therof consumed wt the fyre.
 14 And I wente ouer vnto ye Well porte, & to the kynges condyte, & there was no rowme for my beest, yt it coulde go vnder me.
 15 Then wete I on in the nighte by the broke syde, & cosidered ye wall, & turned back, & came home agayne to ye valley porte.
 16 And ye rulers knewe not whither I wete, or what I dyd: for hither to had I not tolde the Iewes & the prestes, the councelers & the rulers, & the other yt laboured in the worke, 17 & I saide vnto the: Ye se the myserye yt we are in, how Ierusalem lyeth wayst, & how ye gates therof are brent wt fyre, come, let vs buylde vp ye walles of Ierusalem, yt we be nomore a rebuke.
 18 And I tolde the of the good hade of my God which was vpo me: And ye kynges wordes yt he had spoke vnto me. And they saide: Then let vs get vp. And we buylde, and their handes were strengthed to good.
 19 But whan Saneballat ye Horonite, and Tobias the seruauant of ye Ammonites, & Gosem the Arabian herde it, they laughed vs to scorne, and despised vs, & sayde: What is this that ye do? Wyll ye fall awaye agayne from the kynges?
 20 Then answered I them, and sayde: The God of heauen shal cause vs to prospere: for we his seruauantes are gotten vp, & are buyldinge. As for you, ye haue no porcioner right, ner remembrance in Ierusalem.

Chapter 4

1 Bvt whan Saneballat herde that we builded ye wall, he was wroth, & toke greate indignacio & mocked ye Iewes
 2 & saide before his brethren & the mightie men of Samaria: What do the impotent Iewes? shall they be thus suffred? shall they offre? shal they performe it in one daie? shal they make ye stones whole agayne, yt are brought to dust, & brent?
 3 And Tobias the Ammonite beside him saide: Let the builde on, yf a foxe go vp, he shall breake downe their stony wall.
 4 Heare O thou oure God, how we are despysed, turne their shame vpon their awne heade, yt thou mayest geue them ouer in to despisinge in the londe of their captiuite.
 5 Couer not their wickednesse, & put not out their sinne fro yi presence: for they haue prouoked the buylders.
 6 Yet buylde we the wall, & ioyned it whole together, vnto ye halfe heighth. And the people were well mynded to labor.
 7 But whan Saneballat, & Tobias, and ye Arabias, & Ammonites, & A?dodites herde, yt the walles of Ierusalem were made vp, and that they had begonne to stoppe vp ye gappes, they were very wroth,
 8 and conspyred all together, to come and fight against Ierusalem, & to make an hinderaunce therin.
 9 Neuertheles we made or prairer vnto oure God, & set watchme vpo the wall daye & night ouer against them.

 10 And Iuda saide: The strength of the bearers is to feble, & there is to moch dust, we are not able to builde on the wall.
 11 And or aduersaries thought: They shall not knowe nether se, tyll we come in the myddes amonge the, and slaye them, & hynder ye worke.
 12 But whan the Lewes that dwelt besyde them, came out of all the places where they dwelt aboute vs, and tolde vs as good as te tymes,
 13 then set I the people after their kynreds with their swerdes, speares & bowes beneth in the lowe places behynde the wall,
 14 & loked, and gat me vp, and sayde vnto the chefe men and rulers, & to the other people: Be not ye afrayed of them, thynke vpon ye greate LORDE which ought to be feared, & fighte for yor brethren, sonnes, daughters, wyues, & houses.
 15 Neuertheles whan or enemies herde yt we had gotten worde of it, God broughte their counsell to naughte, and we turned all agayne to the wall, euery one vnto his labor.
 16 And from that time forth it came to passe, yt the halfe parte of the yonge men dyd the labour, & the other halfe parte helde the speares, shyldes, bowes, and brestplates, and the rulers stode behynde all the house of Iuda,
 17 which buylde on the wall, & bare burthes, from those that laded the. With one hande dyd they ye worke, and with the other helde they the weapen.
 18 And euery one yt buylde, had his swerde girde by his side, & so builded they. And the trompetters stode beside me.
 19 And I sayde vnto the pryncipall men, & rulers, and to ye other people: The worke is greate & large, & we are separated vpon the wall one farre from another.
 20 Loke in what place now ye heare the noise of ye trompe, resorte ye thither vnto vs. Oure God shal fight for vs, 21 & we wil be labourige in ye worke. And the halfe parte of the helde ye speares fro ye morninge springe, till ye starres came forth.
 22 And at ye same tyme sayde I vnto ye people: Euery one abyde with his seruauant at Ierusalem, yt in the night season we maye geue attendaunce to ye watch, and to labour on the daye tyme.
 23 As for me and my brethren, & my seruauantes, and ye men of the watch behynde me, we put neuer of oure clothes, so so moch as to washe oure selues.

Chapter 5

1 And there arose a greate complaynte of ye people, & of their wyues against their brethren the Iewes.
 2 And there were some yt sayde: oure sonnes and daughters are to many, let vs take come for the, & eate, that we maye lyue.

3 Some saide: Let vs set or londes, vnyyardes & houses to pledge, & take vp come in the derth.

4 But some saide: Let vs borowe money of the kinge vpo vsury for oure londes and vnyyardes.

5 Now are oure brethrens bodies as oure awne bodies, and their children as oure children: els shulde we subdue oure sonnes and daughters vnto bondage, and some of oure daughters are subdued already, and no strength is there in oure handes, and other men shal haue oure londes and vnyyardes.

6 But whan I herde their complaynte and soch wordes, it displeasid me sore,

7 and I aduysed so in my mynde, yt I rebuked the councelers, and the rulers, and sayde vnto them: Wyl ye requyre vsury one of another? And I broughte a greate congregacion agaynst them, 8 and sayde vnto them: We (after oure abilyte) haue boughte oure brethren the Iewes, which were solde vnto the Heythen. And wyl ye sell youre brethren, whom we haue boughte vnto vs? Then helde they their peace, & coulde fynde nothinge to answer.

9 And I sayde: It is not good that ye do. Oughte ye not to walke in the feare of God, because of the rebuke of the Heythen oure enemies?

10 I and my brethre, and my seruautes haue lent them money and come: but as for vsury, let vs leaue it.

11 Therefore this same daye se that ye restore the their londes agayne, their vnyyardes, oyle gardens and houses, and the hundreth parte of the money of the corne, wyne and oyle that ye haue wonne of them.

12 Then sayde they: We wyl restore them agayne, and wyl requyre nothinge of them, and wyl do as thou hast spoken. And I called the prestes, and toke an oath of the, that they shulde do so.

13 And I shoke my lappe, and sayde: God shake out euery man after the same maner fro his house and laboure, that maynteyneth not this worde: euen thus be he shaken out, and voyde. And all ye congregacion sayde: Amen, and prayed the LORDE. And the people dyd so.

14 And from the tyme forth that it was commytted vnto me to be a Debyte in the londe of Iuda, namely from the twentieth yeare vnto the two and thirtieth yeare off kynge Artaxerses (that is twolue yeare) I and my brethre luyed not of soch sustenaunbe as was geuen to a Debyte:

15 For the olde Debytes that were before me, had bene chargeable vnto the people, and had take of the bred and wyne, and fortye Sycles of syluer: Yee and their seruautes had oppressed the people. But so dyd not I, and that because of the feare of God.

16 I laboured also in the worke vpon the wall, and boughte no lode. And all my seruautes came thither together vnto ye worke.

17 Morouer there were at my table an hundreth and fiftie of the Iewes and rulers, which came vnto me, from amonge the Heythen, that are aboute vs. 18 And there was prepared me daylie an oxe, and sixe chosen shepe, and byrdes, and euer once in ten dayes a greate summe of wyne. Yet requyred not I the luyunge of a Debyte for ye bondage was greuous vnto ye people.

19 Thynke vpo me my God vnto ye best, acordige to all that I haue done for this people.

Chapter 6

1 And whan Saneballat, Tobias and Gosem the Arabian, and the other of oure enemyes herde, that I had buylded the wall, and that there were no mo gappes ther in (howbeit at the same tyme had I not hanged the dores vpon the gates)

2 Saneballat and Gosem sent vnto me, sayenge: Come and let us mete together in the vyllages vpon the playne of the cite Ono. Neuertheles they thoughte to do me euell.

3 Notwithstondyng I sent messaungers vnto them, sayenge: I haue a greate busynes to do, I can not come downe. The worke shulde stonde still, yf I were necligent, and came downe to you.

4 Howbeit they sent vnto me as good as foure tymes after the same maner. And I gaue the same answer.

5 Then sent Saneballat his seruaunt vnto me the fifth tyme, with an open letter in his hande,

6 wherin was wrytten: It is tolde the Heythen, & Gosem hath sayde it, that thou and the Iewes thynke to rebell: for ye which cause thou buyldest the wall, and wylt be their kynge in these matters,

7 and hast ordeyned the prophetes to preach of the at Ierusalem, and to saye: He is kynge of Iuda. Now shal this come to the kynges eares: come now therefore, and let us take oure councill together.

8 Neuertheles I sent vnto him, sayenge: There is no soch thinge done as thou sayest: thou hast fayned it out of thine owne hert.

9 For they were all mynded to make us afrayed, and thoughte: They shal withdrawe their handes from the worke, yt they shal not laboure. Howbeit I strengthed my hande the more.

10 And I came vnto ye house of Semaia ye sonne of Delaia the sonne of Mechetabeel, & he had shut him selfe within, & sayde: Let us come together in to ye house of God, eue vnto ye myddes of ye teple, & sparre ye dores of ye teple: for they wyl come to slaye ye, yee eue in the night wyl they come to put the to death.

11 But I sayde: Shulde soch a ma flye? Shulde soch a ma as I am, go in to ye teple, to saue his life? I wyl not go in.

12 For I perceaued, that God had not sent him: Yet spake he prophecy vpon me, neuerthelesse Tobias and Saneballat had hired him for money.

13 Therefore toke he the money, that I shulde be afrayed, and so to do and synne, that they might haue an euell reporte of me, to blaspheme me.

14 My God thynke thou vpon Tobias and Saneballat, acordyng vnto these their workes, and of ye prophet Noadia, and of the other prophetes, yt wolde haue put me in feare.

15 And the wall was fynished on the fyue & twentyeth daye of the moneth Elul, in two and fyfity dayes.

16 And whan all or enemies herde therof, all the Heithen yt were aboute vs, were afrayed, and their corage failed the: for they perceaued, that this worke came of God.

17 And at ye same tyme were there many of ye chefe of Iuda, whose letters wete vnto Tobias, & from Tobias vnto them

18 for there were many in Iuda that were sworne vnto him: for he was the sonne in lawe of Sachania the sonne of Arah, and his sonne Iohanan had the daughter of Mesullam the sonne of Barachia, 19 and they spake good of him before me, and tolde him my wordes. And Tobias sent letters, to put me in feare.

1 Now whan we had buylded the wall I hanged on the dores, and the porters, syngers and Leuites were appoynted.

2 And I comaunded my brother Hanam, and Hanama the ruler of the palace at Ierusalem: for he was a faithfull man, and feared God more then dyd many other

3 and I sayde vnto them: Let not the gates of Ierusalem be opened vntyll the Sonne be whote. And whyle they are yet standinge in the watch, the dores shall be shut and barred. And there were certayne citesyns of Ierusalem appoynted to be watchmen, euery one in his watch, and aboute his house.

4 As for ye cite, it was large of rowme, and greate, but ye people were fewe therin, and the houses were not buylded.

Chapter 8

1 Now when the seuenth moneth drue nye, and ye children of Israel were in their cities, all the people gathered them selues together as one man vpon the strete before the Watergate, and sayde vnto E?dras the scribe, that he shulde fetch the boke of the lawe of Moses, which the LORDE commaunded Israel.

2 And E?dras the prest brought ye lawe before the congregacio both of men and wemen, and of all that coude vnderstode it, vpon the first daye of the seuenth moneth,

3 and red therin in the strete that is before the Watergate, from ye light mornynge vntyll the noone daye before men and wemen and soch as coude vnderstode it: and the eares of all the people were inclyned vnto the boke of the lawe.

4 And E?dras the scribe stode vpon an hye pulpit of wode, which they had made for the preachynge, & beside him stode Mathithia, Sema, Anania Vria, Ezechias, and Maeseia on his righte hand: And on his lefte honde stode Pedaia, Misael, Malchia, Hasum, Ha?badana, Zachary and Mesullam.

5 And E?dras opened ye boke before all ye people, for he stode aboue all ye people. And when he opened it, all the people stode vp.

6 And E?dras prayded the LORDE the greate God. And all the people answered Amen, Amen, with their handes vp, and bowed the selues, and worshipped ye LORDE with their faces to the grounde.

7 And Iesua, Bani, Serebia, Iamin, Acub, Sabthai, Hodaia, Maeseia, Celita, Asaria, Iosabad, Hanam, Plaia, and the Leuites, caused ye people to geue hede vnto the lawe, & the people stode in their place.

8 And they red in the boke of the lawe of God distinctly and planely, so that men vnderstode the thinge that was red.

9 And Nehemias (which is Hathirsatha) and Esdras the prest and scribe, and the Leuites yt caused the people to take hede, sayde vnto all the people: This daye is holy vnto the LORDE youre God: be not ye sory therfore, & wepe not. For all ye people wepte, wha they herde the wordes of the lawe.

10 Therefore sayde he vnto them: Go youre waye, and eate the fat, and drynke the swete, and sende parte vnto them also that haue not prepared themselues: for this daye is holy vnto our LORDE, be not ye sory therfore: for the ioye of the LORDE is youre strength.

11 And the Leuites styllled all the people, and sayde: Holde youre peace, for the daye is holy, vexe not ye youre selues.

12 And all the people wente their waye to eate and drinke, and to sende parte vnto other, and to make greate myrth, for they had vnderstode the wordes that were declared vnto them.

13 And on the nexte daye were gathered together the chefe fathers amonge all the people, and the prestes and Leuites, vnto Esdras the scribe, that he shulde teach them ye wordes of the lawe.

14 And they founde written in the lawe, how that the LORDE had commaunded by Moses, that the childre of Israel shulde dwell in bothes in the feast of the seuenth moneth.

15 And so they caused it be declared and proclaimed in all their cities, & at Ierusalem, sayenge: Go vp vnto ye mout and fetch Olyue braunches, Pynebraunches, Myrtbraunches, Palmebraunches, & braunches of thicketrees, to make bothes as it is wrytten.

16 And ye people wente vp, and fetched the, and made them bothes, euery one vpon the rofe of his house, and in their courtes, and in the courtes of the house of God, and in the strete by the Watergate, and in the strete by Ephraims porte.

17 And all the congregacion of them that were come agayne out of the captuyte, made bothes, and dwelt therin: for sence the tyme of Iosua the sonne of Nu vnto this daye, had not the children of Israel done so, and there was very greate gladnesse.

18 And euery daye from the first daie vnto the last, red he in the boke of the lawe of God. And seuen dayes helde they the feast, & on the eight daye the gatherynge together, acordynge vnto the maner.

Chapter 9

1 In the foure and twentieth daye of this moneth came the children of Israel together with fastinge and sack clothes, and earth vpon them,

2 and separated the sede of Israel from all the straunge children, and stode and knowledged their synnes, and the wyckednesses of their fathers,

3 and stode vp in their place, and red in the boke of the lawe of the LORDE their God foure tymes on the daye, and they knowledged, and worshipped the LORDE their God foure tymes on the daye.

4 And the Leuites stode on hye, namely Iesua, Bani, Cadmiel, Sebania, Buni, Serebia, Bani, and Chenani, and cryed loude vnto the LORDE their God.

5 And the Leuites, Iesua, Cadmiel, Bani, Hasabenia, Serebia, Hodia, Sebania, Pethahia, sayde: Stonde vp, prayse the LORDE oure God for euer: and let thankes be geue vnto the name of thy glorye, which excelleth all thankesgeuyng and prayse.

6 LORDE, thou art alone, thou hast made heauen, and the heauen of all heuens, with all their hoost, the earth and all that therin is, the See and all that is therein: thou geuest life vnto all, and ye hoost of heauen bowe themselues vnto the.

7 Thou art the LORDE God, that hast chosen Abra, and broughte him out of Vr in Chaldea, & called him Abraham,

8 and founde his hert faithfull before the, and madest a couenant with him, to geue vnto his sede the londe of the Cananites, Hethites, Amorites, Pheresites, Iebusites, and Girgosites, and hast made good thy wordes: for thou art righteous.

9 And hast considered the mysery of oure fathers in Egipte, and herde their complainte by the reed See,

10 and shewed tokes and wonders vpo Pharao, and on all his seruantes, and on all his people of his londe: for thou knewest yt they were presumptuous & cruell against them, & so madest thou the a name as it is this daie.

11 And the reed See partedst thou in sunder before them, so that they wete thorow the myddes of the See drye shod: & their persecuters threwest thou in to the depe as a stone, in the mightie waters, 12 and leddest them on the daye tyme in a cloudy pyler, and on the nighte season in a piler of fyre, to shewe them lighte in the waye yt they wente.

13 Thou camest downe also vpo mount Sinai, and spakest vnto them from heauen, and gauest them righte iudgmentes, true lawes, good commaundementes and statutes,

14 and declared vnto them thy holy Sabbath, and commaunded them preceptes, ordinaunces, and lawes, by Moses thy seruaut:

15 and gauest them bred from heauen when they were hongrye, and broughte forth water for them out of the rock when they were thyrstye: and promysed them, that they shulde go in, and take possession of the londe, where ouer thou haddest lyfte vp thine hande for to geue them.

16 Neuertheles oure fathers were proude and hardnecked, so that they folowed not yi comaundementes, 17 and refused to heare, and were not myndefull of the wonders yt thou dyddest for them: but became obstynate and heady, in so moch that they turned back to their bondage in their dishobediensce. But thou my God forgauest, and wast gracious, mercifull, pacient, and of greate goodnesse, and forsokest them not.

18 And though they made a molten calfe (and sayde: This is thy God, that broughte the out of the londe of Egipte) and dyd greate blasphemies, 19 yet forsokest thou them not in the wyldernes, acordinge to thy greate mercy. And ye cloudy piler departed not from them on ye dayetyme to lede them the waye, nether the piler of fyre in the night season, to shewe them lighte in the waye that they wente.

20 And thou gauest them thy good sprete to enfourme them, and withheldst not thy Manna from their mouth, and gauest the water wha they were thirstie.

21 Fortye yeares longe madest thou prouision for them in the wyldernesse, so that they wanted nothinge: their clothes waxed not olde, and their fete swelled not.

22 And thou gauest the kigdomes & nacions, & partedst the acordinge to their porcions, so that they possessed the londe of Sihon kynge of He?bon, & the londe of Og ye kynge of Basan.

23 And their childre multiplyedst thou as the starres of heauen, and broughtest the in to the londe wherof thou haddest spoken vnto their fathers, that they shulde go in to it, and haue it in possession.

24 And ye children wente in, and possessed the londe, and thou subdudest before the the inhabiters of the londe, euen the Cananites, & gauest them in to their hande, and their kynges and ye people of the londe, yt they might do with them what they wolde.

25 And they wanne their stronge cities, & a fat londe, and toke possession of houses yt were full of all maner goodes, welles dygged out, vynyardes, oylgardens, & many frutefull trees: and they ate & were fylled, & became fat, & lyled in welth thorow thy greate goodnes.

26 Neuertheles they were disobedient, and rebelled agaynst the, and cast thy lawe behynde their backes, and slewe thy prophetes (which exhorted them so earnestly, that they shulde couerte vnto the) and dyd greate blasphemies.

27 Therefore gauest thou them ouer in to the hade of their enemies that vexed them. And in ye tyme of their trouble they cried vnto the, and thou hardest them from heauen: and thorow thy greate mercy thou gauest them sauours, which helped the out of the hande of their enemies.

28 But whan they came to rest, they turned back agayne to do euell before the: therfore leftest thou them in the hande of their enemies, so yt they had ye dominion ouer them. So they couerted, and cryed vnto the, and thou herdest them from heauen, and many a tyme hast thou deluyered them acordinge to yi greate mercy,

29 and testified vnto them, that they shulde turne agayne vnto thy lawe. Notwithstodginge they were proude, and herkened not vnto thy comaundementes, but synned in thy lawes (which a man shulde do, & lyeue in them) & turned their shulder awaye, & were styffnecked, & wolde not heare.

30 And many yeares dyddest thou forbear them, & testified vnto them thorow yi sprete, euen by the office of yi prophetes, & yet wolde they not heare. Therefore gauest thou the in to ye hade of ye nacions in the londes.

31 But for thy greate mercies sake thou hast not vtterly cosumed them, nether forsaken them for thou art a gracious and mercifull God.

32 Now oure God, thou greate God, mightie and terrible, thou that kepest couenant and mercy, regarde not a litle all the trauaile yt hath happened vnto vs, & oure kynges, prynces, prestes, prophetes, fathers & all thy people, sence the tyme of the kynges of Assur vnto this daie.

33 Thou art righteous in all yt thou hast broughte vpo vs: for thou hast done righte.

34 As for vs, we haue bene vngodly, and or kynges, prynces, prestes & fathers haue not done after yi lawe, ner regarded yi comaundementes, & thy earnest exhortacios wherwith thou hast exhorted them,

35 & haue not serued ye in their kyngdome, and in thy greate goodes yt thou gauest them, and in the large and plenteous lode which thou gauest them to good, and haue not conuerted from their wicked workes.

36 Beholde, therefore are we in bondage this daye: Yee euen in the lode that thou gauest vnto oure fathers, to enioye the frutes and goodes therof, beholde, there are we bondmen.

37 And greate is the increase of it vnto the kynges, whom thou hast set ouer vs because of oure synnes, and they haue dominion ouer oure bodies and catell, and we are in greate trouble.

38 And in all this made we a sure couenant, & wrote it, & let or prynces, Leuites & prestes seale it.

29 and their lordes that had rule of them, receaued it for their brethren. And they came to swear, and to bynde them selues with an ooth to walke in Gods lawe, which was geuen by Moses the seruaunt of God, that they wolde obserue and do acordinge vnto all the commaundementes, iudgmentes and statutes of the LORDE oure God:

30 and that we wolde not geue oure daughters vnto the people in the lode, nether to take their daughters for oure sonnes.

31 And yf ye people of the lode broughte ware on the Sabbath, and all maner of vytayles to sell, that we wolde not take it of them on the Sabbath and on the holy dayes. And that we wolde let the seueith yeare be fre concernynge all maner of charge.

32 And we layed a statute vpon oure selues, to geue yearly ye thirde parte of a Sycle to the mynistracion in the house of oure God, 33 namely to the shewbred, to the daylie meatofferynge, to the daylie burntofferynge of ye Sabbathes, of the new mones and feast dayes, and to the thinges that were sanctified, and to the synofferynges, to reconcyle Israel with all, and to all the busynes in ye house of oure God.

34 And we cast the lot amonge the prestes, Leuites and the people, for offerynge of ye wod, to be brought vnto ye house of oure God from yeare to yeare, after the houses of oure fathers, that it might be brent at tymes appoynted, vpon the altare of the LORDE oure God, as it is wrytten in the lawe:

35 and yearly to brynge the firstlinges of or londe, & the firstlinges of oure frutes of all trees, yeare by yeare, vnto ye house of the LORDE:

36 and the firstlinges of oure sonnes, and of oure catell, as it is wrytten in the lawe: and the firstlinges of oure oxen and of oure shepe, that we shulde brynge all this to the house of oure God vnto the prestes that mynister in the house of oure God:

37 and that we shulde brynge the firstlinges of oure dowe, and of oure Heueofferings, and the frutes of all maner trees, of wyne also and of oyle, vnto the prestes to the chestes of the house of oure God. And the tithes of or lode vnto the Leuites, yt the Leuites might haue the tithes in all the cities of oure mynistracion.

38 And the prest the sonne of Aaron shal wt the Leuites haue also of the tithes of ye Leuites, so that the Leuites shal brynge vp the tithes of their tithes vnto the house of oure God to the chest in ye treasure house.

39 For the children of Israel and the children of Leui shall brynge vp the Heueofferynges of the corne, wyne and oyle vnto the chestes, there are the vessels of the Sanctuary, & the prestes yt mynister, and the porters & syngers, yt we forsake not the house of oure God.

9 Bacbuchia & Vnni and their brethre, were aboute them in the watches.

10 Iesua begat Ioachim. Ioachim begat Eliasib. Eliasib begat Ioiada.

11 Ioiada begat Ionathan. Ionathan begat Iaddua.

12 And in the tyme of Ioachim were these the chefe fathers amonge the prestes: namely of Seraia was Meraia, of Ieremy was Hanania,

13 of E?dras was Mesullam, of Amaria was Iohanen,

14 of Malluch was Ionathan, of Sebania was Ioseph,

15 of Harim was Adna, of Meraioth was Helcai,

22 And in the tyme of Eliasib. Ioiada, Iohanen and Iaddua, were the chefe fathers amonge the Leuites, and the prestes wrytte vnder the reigne of Darius ye Persian.

23 The children of Leui the pryncipall fathers were wrytten in the Cronicles, vntyll the tyme of Iohanen the sonne of Eliasib.

24 And these were the chefe amoge the Leuites, Hasabia, Serebia and Iesua the sonne of Cadmiel, & their brethren ouer agaynst them, to geue prayse and thankes, acordinge as Dauid ye ma of God had ordeyned it, one watch ouer agaynst another.

25 Mathania, Bacbuchia, Obadia, Mesullam, Talmon and Acub were porters in the watch at the thresholdes of the gates.

26 These were in the tyme of Ioiachim the sonne of Iesua the sonne of Iosedec, and in the tyme of Nehemias the Debyte, and of the prest E?dras the scribe.

27 And in the dedicacion of the wall at Ierusalem, were the Leuites soughte out of all their places, that they mighte be broughte to Ierusalem, to kepe ye dedicacion in gladnesse, with thankesgeuynges, with synginge, with Cymbales, Psalteries and harpes.

28 And the children of the syngers gathered the selues together from the playne countre aboute Ierusalem, and from the vyllages of Nethophathi, 29 and from the house of Gilgal, & out of the felde of Gibeab & Asmauth: for ye syngers had buylded them vyllages aboute Ierusalem.

30 And ye prestes and Leuites purified them selues, and censed the people, the gates and the wall.

31 And I caused the prynces to go vp vpon the wall, and appoynted two greates queres of thankesgeuyng, which wete on the righte hande of the wall towarde the Donggate,

32 and after them wete Hosaia, and halfe of the prynces of Iuda,

33 & Asaria, E?dras, Mesullam,

34 Iuda, Ben Iamin, Semaia and Ieremy: 35 and certayne of the prestes childre wt trompettes, namely Zachary ye sonne of Ionathan, the sonne of Semaia, the sonne of Mathania, the sonne of Michaia, the sonne of Sachur, the sonne of Assaph, 36 and his brethren, Semaia, Asareel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nathaneel and Iuda and Hanani, with the musicall instruments of Dauid ye man of God.

And E?dras ye scribe before the 37 towarde the Wellgate, and they wente vp ouer agaynst them vpon the steppes of the cite of Dauid at the goynge vp of the wall to the house of Dauid, vnto the Watergate Eastwarde.

38 The other quere of thankesgeuyng wente ouer against them, and I after them, and the halfe parte of the people vpon ye wall, towarde ye Fornagegate vpwarde, vntyll ye brode wall,

39 and to ye porte of Ephraim, and to the Oldgate, and to ye Fyshgate, and to the tower of Hananeel, and to the tower of Meah, vntyll the Shepegate. And in ye presongate stode they styll,

40 and so stode the two queres of thankesgeuyng of the house of God, and I and the halfe of the rulers with me,

41 and the prestes, namely Eliachim, Maeseia, Miniamin, Michaia, Elioenai, Zachary, Hanania, with tropettes, 42 and Maeseia, Semaia, Eleasar, Vsi, Iohanen, Malchia, Elam and Aser. And the syngers songe loude, and Iesrahia was the ouerseer.

43 And the same daye were there greates sacrifices offred, & they reioysed: for God had geue them greates gladnesse, so that both the wyues and children were ioyfull, & the myrth of Ierusalem was herde farre of.

44 At the same tyme were there men appoynted ouer the treasure chestes (wherin were ye Heueofferynges, the firstlings and the tithes) that they shulde gather them out of ye felde aboute the cities, to distribute the vnto the prestes and Leuites acordinge to the lawe: for Iuda was glad of the prestes, and Leuites, that they stode and wayted

45 vpon the office of their God, and the office of the purification. And the syngers & porters stode after the commaundemet of Dauid & of Salomon his sonne:

46 for in the tyme of Dauid and Assaph, were the chefe syngers founded, and the songes of prayse and thankesgeuyng vnto God.

47 In the tyme of Zorobabel and Nehemias, dyd all Israel geue porcions vnto the syngers and porters, euery daye his porcion, and they gaue thinges halowed vnto the Leuites, and the Leuites gaue thinges that were sanctified, vnto the childre of Aaron.

Chapter 13

1 And what tyme as the boke of Moses was red in ye eares of the people, there was founde wrytten therin, yt the Ammonites and Moabites shulde neuer come in to the congregacion of God,

2 because they mett not the children of Israel wt bred and water, and hyred Balaam against the, that he shulde curse them: neuertheles oure God turned ye curse in to a blessinge.

3 Now when they herde the lawe, they separated from Israel euery one that had myxte him selfe therin.

4 And before this had the prest Eliasib deluyered the chest of ye house of oure God vnto his kynsman Tobia:

5 for he had made him a greates chest, and there had they aforetyme layed the meatofferynges, frankencense, vessell, and the tithes of corne, wyne and oyle (acordinge to the commaundemet geuen to the Leuites, syngers and porters) and the Heueofferynges of the prestes.

6 But in all this was not I at Ierusalem: for in ye two and thirtieth yeare of Artaxerses kynge of Babilon, came I vnto the kynge, and after certayne dayes optayned I lycence of the kynge

7 to come to Ierusalem. And I gat knowlege of ye euell that Eliasib dyd vnto Tobia, in that he had made him a chest in the courte of the house of God,

8 and it greued me sore, and I cast forth all the vessels of Tobias house out of the chest,

9 and commauded them to clense the chest. And thither broughte I agayne the vessels of the house of God, the meatofferyng and the incense.

10 And I perceaued, that the porcions of ye Leuites were not geuen them, for the which cause the Leuites and syngers were fled, euery one to his londe for to worke.

11 Then reproued I the rulers, and sayde: Why forsake we the house of God? But I gathered them together, and set them in their place.

12 Then brought all Iuda the tithes of corne, wyne and oyle vnto the treasure.

13 And I made treasurers ouer ye treasure, euen Selemia ye prest, and Sadoc the scribe, & of the Leuites Pedaia, and vnder their hande Hanan the sonne of Sachur the sonne of Mathania: for they were counted faithfull, and their office was, to distribute vnto their brethren.

14 Thynke vpon me O my God here in, & wype not out my mercy, that I haue shewed on ye house of my God, & on the offices therof.

15 At the same tyme sawe I some tredinge wyne presses on the Sabbath, and brynginge in clusters, and asses laden wyth wyne, grapes, fygges, and brynginge all maner of burthens vnto Ierusalem, vpon the Sabbath daye. And I rebuked them earnestly ye same daye that they solde ye vyntayles.

ESTHER

Chapter 1

16 There dwelt me of Tyre also therein, which broughte fysh and all maner of ware, and solde on the Sabbath vnto the childre of Iuda and Ierusalem.

17 Then reprov'd I the rulers in Iuda, and saide vnto them: What euell thinge is this that ye do, and breake the Sabbath daye?

18 Dyd not oure fathers euen thus, and oure God broughte all this plage vpon vs & vpon this cite? And ye make the wrath more yet vpon Israel, in that ye breake the Sabbath.

19 And when the portes of Ierusalem were drawn vp before the Sabbath, I commaunded to shutt the gates, and charged that they shulde not be opened tyll after the Sabbath: and some of my seruantes set I at the gates, yt there shulde no burthe be broughte in on the Sabbath daye.

20 Then remayned the chapmen and marchautes once or twyce ouer nighte without Ierusalem with all maner of wares.

21 Then reprov'd I them sore, & sayde vnto them: Why tary ye all night aboute the wall? Yf ye do it once agayne, I wil laye handes vpon you. From that tyme forth came they nomore on the Sabbath.

22 And I sayde vnto the Leuites which were cleane, that they shulde come and kepe the gates, to halowe the Sabbath daye. Thynke vpo me (O my God) cocernyng this also, & spare me acordyng to thy greate mercy.

23 And at the same tyme sawe I Iewes, that mari'd wyues of Asdod, Ammon and of Moab, 24 and their children spake halfe in the speache of Asdod, and coulde not speake in ye Iewish language, but by ye tonge mighte a ma perceaue euery people.

25 And I reprov'd them, and curs'd them, & smote certayne men of the, and plucte them vp, and toke an ooth of them by God: Ye shal not geue youre daughters vnto their sonnes, nether shal ye take their daughters vnto youre sonnes, or for youre selues.

26 Dyd not Salomon ye kynge of Israel synne ther in? & yet amonge many Heythen was there no kynge like him, & he was deare vnto his God, and God made him kynge ouer all Israel, and the outlandish wemen.

27 (Omitted Text)

28 And one of the children of Ioiada the sonne of Eliasib ye hye prest, had made a cotracte wyth Saneballath the Horonite: but I chaced him fro me.

29 O my God, thynke thou vpon them that are quyte of the presthode, and haue desyled the couenaunt of the presthode and of the Leuites.

30 Thus clens'd I them from all such as were outlandish, and appoynted the courses of the prestes and Leuites, euery one to his office, 31 and to offre the wod at tymes appoynted, and the first frutes. Thynke thou vpon me (O my God) for the best.

1 In the tyme of Ahasuerus, which reigned from India vnto Ethiopia, ouer an hundreth and seuen and twentye londes, 2 what tyme as he sat on his seate roiall in the castell of Susan

3 in the thirde yeare of his reigne, he made a feast vnto all his prynces and seruautes, namely vnto the mightie men of Persia and Media, to the Debities and rulers of his countrees,

4 that he mighte shewe the noble riches of his kingdome, and the glorious worshipp of his greatnesse, many dayes longe, euen an hundreth and foure score dayes.

5 And when these dayes were expyred, the kynge made a feast vnto all the people that were in the castell of Susan, both vnto greate and small, seuen dayes longe in the courte of the garden by the kynges palace:

6 where there hanged whyte, reed & yalow clothes, fastened with coardes of lynn and scarlet in siluer rynges, vpon pylers of Marble stone. The benches were of golde and siluer made vpon a pauement of grene, white, yalowe and black Marble.

7 And ye drinke was caried in vessels of golde, and there was euer chaunge of vessell. And the kynges wine was moch acordyng to the power of the kynge.

8 And no man was appoynted what he shulde drinke: for the kynge had commaunded all the officers of his house, that euery one shulde do as it lyked him.

9 And the quene Vasthi made a feast also for the wemen in the palace of Ahasuerus.

10 And on the seuenth daye when the kynge was mery of the wine, he comaunded Mehuman, Bistha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Sethar and Charcas, the seuen chamberlaynes (that dyd seruyce in the presence of kynge Ahasuerus)

11 to fetch the quene Vasthi with the crowne regall, that he might shewe ye people and prynces hir fairness: for she was bewtiful.

12 But the quene Vasthi wolde not come at the kynges worde by his chamberlaynes. Then was the kynge very wroth, and his indignacio kyndled in him.

13 And the kynge spake to ye wyse men that had vnderstandinge in the ordinaunces of the londe (for the kynges matters must be hadled before all such as haue knowlege of the lawe and iudgment:

14 And the nexte vnto him were, Charsena, Sethar, Admatha, Tharsis, Meres, Marsena and Memuchan, the seuen prynces of the Persians, and Meedes, which sawe the kynges face, and satt aboute in the kyngdome)

15 What lawe shulde be execute vpon the quene Vasthi, because she dyd not acordyng to the worde of the kynge by his chamberlaines.

16 The saide Memucha before the kynge & the prynces: The quene Vasthi hath not onely done euell agaynst the kinge but also agaynst all the prynces and all the people in all the londes of kynge Ahasuerus

17 for this dede of the quene shall come abrode vnto all wemen, so that they shall despise their hu?bandes before their eyes, and shall saye: The kynge Ahasuers comaunded Vasthi ye quene to come before him, but she wolde not.

18 And so shall the pryncesses in Persia and Media saye lykewyse vnto all the kynges prynces, when they heare of this dede of the quene, thus shall there aryse despytfulnes and wrath ynough.

19 Yf it please the kynge, let there go a kyngly commaundemet from him, and let it be wrytten acordyng to the lawe of the Persians and Medians (and not to be transgressed) that Vasthi come nomore before kynge Ahasuerus, and let the kynge geue the kyngdome vnto another that is better then she.

20 And yt this wrytinge of the kynge which shalbe made, be published thorow out all his empyre (which is greate) that all wyues maye holde their hu?bandes in honoure, both amonge greate and smal.

21 This pleased the kynge and the prynces, and the kynge dyd acordyng to the worde of Memuchan.

22 Then were there letters sent forth in to all the kynges londes, in to euery londe acordinge to the wrytinge ther of, and to euery people after their laguage, yt euery man shulde be lorde in his awne house. And this caused he be spoken after the laguage of his people.

Chapter 2

1 After these actes when the displeasure of kynge Ahasuerus was layed, he thoughte vpon Vasthi, what she had done, and what was concluded concernyng her.

2 Then sayde the kynges seruautes: Let there be fayre yonge virgins soughte for the kynge,

3 and let the kynge appoynte ouerseers in all ye londes of his empyre, that they maye bryng together all fayre yonge virgins vnto the castel of Susan to the Wemens buyldinge, vnder the hande of Hegai the kynges clamberlayne, that kepeth the wemen, and let him geue them their apparell.

4 And luke which damselle pleaseth the kynge, let her be quene in Vasthis steade. This pleased the kynge, and he dyd so.

5 In the castell of Susan there was a Iewe, whose name was Mardocheus, the sonne of Iair, the sonne of Simei, the sonne of Cis, the sonne of Iemini,

6 which was caried awaye from Ierusalem, when Iechonias the kynge of Iuda was led awaye, (whom Nabuchodonosor the kynge of Babilon caried awaye)

7 and he norished Hadassa (that is Hester) his vncl's daughter: for she had nether father ner mother, and she was a fayre and beutyfull damselle. And when hir father and mother dyed, Mardocheus receaued her as his awne daughter.

8 Now when ye kynges comaundemet and comysion was published, & many dasels were broughte together vnto the castell of Susan vnder ye hande of Hegai, Hester, was take also vnto ye kynges house vnder ye hande of Hegai ye keeper of ye weme, 9 & the damselle pleased him, & she founde grace in his sighte. And he put her wt hir maydes in ye best place of ye Womes buildige.

10 And Hester shewed it not vnto hir people & hir kynred: for Mardocheus had charged her, yt she shulde not tell it.

11 And Mardocheus walked euery daye before ye courte of ye Womes buyldinge, yt he might knowe how Hester dyd, and what shulde become of her.

12 And when the appoynted tyme of euery damselle came that she shulde come to ye kynge Ahasuerus, after that she had bene twolue monethes in the deckyng of the wemen (for their deckyng must haue so moch tyme, namely sixe monethes with Balme & Myrre, & sixe monethes wt good spyces, so were the weme beutyfyed)

13 then wente there one damselle vnto ye kynge, and what so euer she requyred, yt must be geue her to go wt her out of the Wemens buyldinge vnto ye kynges palace.

14 And when one came in the euenyng, ye same wete fro him on ye morow in to ye seconde house of wemen, vnder the hande of Saasgas the kynges chamberlayne, which kepte ye concubines. And she must come vnto the kynge nomore, excepte it pleased the kynge, and that he caused her to be called by name.

15 Now when the tyme came of Hester the daughter of Abihail Mardocheus vncl (whom he had receaued as his awne daughter) yt she shulde come to the kynge, she desyred nothyng but what Hegai the kynges chamberlayne the keeper of the wemen sayde. And Hester founde faouure in the sighte of all them that lok'd vpon her.

16 And Hester was taken vnto kynge Ahasuerus in to the house royall, in the tenth moneth which is called Tebeth, in the seuenthe yeare of his reigne.

17 And the kynge loued Hester aboute all the wemen, and she founde grace and mercy in his sighte before all the virgins: and he set the quenes croune vpon hir heade, and made her quene in steade of Vasthi.

18 And the kynge made a greate feast vnto all his prynces and seruautes (which feast was because of Hester) and let the londes be in quyetnes, & gaue royall giftes.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the seconde tyme, Mardocheus sat in the kynges gate.

20 And as yet had not Hester shewed hir kynred and hir people, acordinge as Mardocheus had bydden her: for Hester dyd after the worde of Mardocheus, like as whan he was hir tutoure.

21 At the same tyme whyle Mardocheus sat in the kynges gate, two of the kynges chamberlaynes, Bigthan and Theres which kepte the dore, were wroth, and sought to laye their handes on the kyng Ahasuerus:

22 Wherof Mardocheus gat knowlege, and tolde it vnto quene Hester, and Hester certified the kyng therof in Mardocheus name.

23 And whan inquisicion was made, it was founde so. And they were both hanged on tre: and it was wrytte in the Cronicles before the kyng.

Chapter 3

1 After these actes dyd the kyng promote Aman the sonne of Amadathi the Agagite, vnd set him hye, & set his seate aboute all ye prynces that were with him.

2 And all the kynges seruauntes that were in the gate, bowed their knees, and dyd reuerence vnto Aman: for the kinge had so comaunded. But Mardocheus bowed not the knee, and worshipped him not.

3 Then the kynges seruauntes which were in the kynges gate, sayde vnto Mardocheus: Why transgresses thou the kynges commaundement?

4 And whan they spake this daylie vnto him, and he folowed them not, they tolde Aman, that they mighte se whether Mardocheus matters wolde endure: for he had tolde them, yt he was a Iewe.

5 And wha Aman sawe, that Mardocheus bowed not the knee vnto him, ner worshipped him, he was full of indignacion & despyte,

6 that he shulde laye hondes onely on Mardocheus: for they had shewed him ye people of Mardocheus, but he sought to destroye the people of Mardocheus, and all the people that were in the whole empyre of Ahasuerus.

7 In the first moneth that is the moneth Nissan, in ye twolueth yere of kinge Ahasuerus, was there occasion and oportunyte sought by Aman, from one daye to another, and from the same moneth vnto the twolueth moneth, that is the moneth Adar.

8 And Ama sayde vnto kinge Ahasuerus: There is a people scatered abrode and dispersed amonge all people in all the londes of thine empire, and their lawe is cotrary vnto all people, and they do not after the kynges lawes, nether is it the kynges profit to suffre the after this maner.

9 Yf it please the kyng, let him wryte, that they maye be destroyed, & so wil I weye downe ten thousande talentes of siluer, vnder the handes of the workmen, to be brought in to the kynges chamber.

10 Then toke the kyng his rynge from his hande, and gaue it vnto Aman the sonne of Amadathi the Agagite the Iewes enemie.

11 And the kinge sayde vnto Aman: Let the siluer be geuen the, and that people also, to do withall what pleaseth the.

12 Then were the kynges scribes called on ye thirteenth daye of the first moneth, & there was wrytten (acordynge as Aman commauded) vnto the kynges prynces, and to the Debites euery where in the londes, and to the captaynes of euery people in the countrees on euery syde, acordynge to the wrytinge of euery nacion, and after their language in the name of kyng Ahasuerus, and sealed with the kynges rynge.

13 And the wrytynges were sent by postes in to all the kynges lodes, to rote out, to kyll, and to destroye all Iewes, both yonge and olde, childre and wemen in one daye (namely vpon the thirteenth daye of the twolueth moneth, which is the moneth Adar) and to spoyle their goodes.

14 This was the summe of the wrytinge, yt there shulde be a commaundement geuen in all londes, to be published vnto all people, yt they shulde be ready agaynst the same daye.

15 And the postes wente in all the haist acordynge to the kynges commaundement. And in the castell of Susan was the commaundement deused. And the kyng & Aman sat & dranke. But ye cite of Susan was disquieted.

Chapter 4

1 Whan Mardocheus perceaued all that was done, he rete his clothes, and put on a sack cloth, & a?shes, & wente out in to the myddes of the cite, and cried loude and lamentably,

2 and came before the kynges gate: for there might no man entre within the kynges gate, that had a sack cloth on.

3 And in all lodes & places, as farre as the kynges worde and commaundement extended, there was greate lamentacion amonge the Iewes, and many fasted, wepte, mourned, & laye in sack clothes & in ashes.

4 So Hesters dasels, and hir chamberlaines, came and tolde it her. Then was the quene exceedingly astonnyed. And she sent rayment, that Mardocheus shulde put them on, and laye the sacklothe from him. But Mardocheus wolde not take them.

5 The called Hester Hathac one of the kynges chamberlaines (which stode before her) and gaue him a commaundement vnto Mardocheus, that he might knowe what it were, and wherfore he dyd so.

6 So Hathac wente forth to Mardocheus vnto the strete of the cite, which was before the kynges gate.

7 And Mardocheus tolde him of all yt had happened vnto him, and of the summe of siluer that Ama had promysed to weie downe in the kynges chamber because of ye Iewes for to destroye them,

8 and he gaue him the cople of the commaundement, that was deused at

Susan to destroye them, that he mighte shewe it vnto Hester, and to speake to her and charge her, yt she shulde go into the kyng, and make her prayer and supplicacion vnto him for hir people.

9 And wha Hathac came in, and tolde Hester the wordes of Mardocheus,

10 Hester spake vnto Hathac, and comaunded him to saye vnto Mardocheus:

11 All the kynges seruauntes, and the people in the londes of the kyng knowe, that who so euer commeth within the courte vnto ye kyng, whether it be man or woman, which is not called, the comaundement is that the same shal dye immediatly, excepte the kyng holde out the golde cepter vnto him, that he maye lyue. As for me, I haue not bene called to come in to the kyng now this thirtie dayes.

12 And wha Mardocheus was certified of Hesters wordes,

13 Mardocheus bad saie againe vnto Hester: Thynke not to saue thine awne life, whyle thou art in ye kynges house before all Iewes:

14 for yf thou holdest thy peace at this tyme, then shal the Iewes haue helpe and deluyeraunce out of another place, & thou & thy fathers house shalbe destroyed. And who knoweth whether thou art come to the kyngdome, for this tymes sake?

15 Hester bad geue Mardocheus this answere:

16 Go thou yi waye then, & gather together all ye Iewes yt are founde at Susan, & fast ye for me, yt ye eate not & drynke not in thre dayes, nether daye ner nighte. I & my damsels wil fast likewise, & so wyl I go into the kyng cotrary to the comaundement: yf I perishe, I perishe.

17 So Mardocheus wente his waye, & dyd all yt Hester had comaunded him.

Chapter 5

1 And on the thirde daye put Hester on hir royall apparell, and stode in the courte of ye kynges palace within ouer agaynst the kynges house. And ye kyng sat vpo his royall seate in ye kynges palace ouer agaynst ye dore of the house.

2 And whan the kyng sawe Hester the quene stodinge in the courte, she founde grace in his sighte. And ye kyng helde out the golde cepter in his hade towarde Hester. So Hester stepte forth, and touched the toppe of ye cepter.

3 Then sayde ye kyng vnto her: What wilt thou quene Hester? & what requyrest thou? axe eue the halfe of ye empyre, & it shal be geue the.

4 Hester sayde: Yf it please ye kyng, let ye kyng & Aman come this daye vnto ye banket yt I haue prepared.

5 The kyng sayde: Cause Aman to make haist, yt he maye do as Hester hath saide. Now wha the kyng & Aman came to ye banket yt Hester had prepared,

6 the kyng sayde vnto Hester whan he had dronken wyne: Hester, what is thy petition? it shal be geue the. And what requyrest thou? euen the halfe of the empyre, it shal be done.

7 Then answered Hester and sayde: My petition and desire is,

8 yf I haue founde grace in ye sight of the kyng, & yf it please the kinge to geue me my petition, and to fulfill my request, then let the kyng & Aman come to the bancket yt I shal prepare for the, and so wil I do tomorow as the kyng hath sayde.

9 Then wente Aman forth the same daye ioyfull and mery in his mynde. And whan he sawe Mardocheus in the kynges gate, yt he stode not vp and kneled before him, he was full of indignacion at Mardocheus.

10 Neuertheles he refrained himselfe: and wha he came home, he sent, and called for his fredes, and Seres his wyfe, 11 and tolde them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, all together how the kyng had promoted him so greatly, and how that he was taken aboute the prynces and seruauntes of the kyng.

12 Aman sayde morouer: Yee and Hester the quene let no man come with the kyng vnto the bancket that she had prepared, excepte me, and tomorow am I bidden vnto her also with the kyng.

13 But in all this am I not satisfied as longe as I se Mardocheus the Iewe syttinge in ye kynges gate.

14 Then sayde Seres his wife and all his frendes vnto him: Let the make a galowe of fiftye cubites hie, & tomorow speake thou vnto the kyng, that Mardocheus maye be hanged thereon, yf thou comest merely with the kyng vnto the bancket. Aman was well content withall, and caused a galowe to be prepared.

Chapter 6

1 The same night coude not the kyng slepe, and he commaunded to bryng ye Cronicles and storyes: which wha they were red before ye kinge,

2 they happened on the place where it was wrytte, how Mardocheus had tolde, that the kynges two chaberlaynes (which kepte ye tresholdes) sought to laie hondes on kinge Ahasuerus.

3 And the kyng saide: What worshippe and good haue we done to Mardocheus therfore? Then sayde the kynges seruauntes that mynistred vnto him. There is nothinge done for him.

4 And the kyng sayde: Who is in ye courte? (for Aman was gone in to ye courte without before ye kynges house, yt he might speake vnto ye kinge to hange Mardocheus on ye tre, yt he had prepared for him.)

5 And the kynges seruauntes saide vnto him: Beholde, Ama stodeth in the courte. The kyng saide: Let him come in.

6 And wha Ama came in, ye kinge saide vnto him: What shal be done vnto ye ma, whom the kyng wolde fayne bryng vnto worshippe? But Hama thought in his hert: Whom shulde the kyng els be glad to brynge vnto worshippe, but me?

7 And Aman sayde vnto the kyng: Let the man vnto whom the kyng wolde be glad to do worshippe, be broughte hither, 8 that he maye be araied with the royall garmentes which the kyng vseth to weere: and the horse that the kyng rydeth vpon, and that the crowne royall maye be set vpon his heade.

9 And let this rayment and horse be deluered vnder the hande of one of the kynges prynces, that he maye araye the man withall (whom the kyng wolde fayne honoure) and cary him vpon the horse thorow the strete of the cite, and cause it to be proclaimed before him: Thus shall it be done to euery man, whom the kyng wolde fayne honoure.

10 The kyng sayde: Make haist, and take (as thou hast sayde) the raymet and the horse, and do euen so with Mardocheus ye Iewe that sitteth before the kynges gate, and let nothinge fayle of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then toke Aman the rayment and the horse, and arayed him, and broughte him on hor?backe thorow the strete of the cite, and proclaimed before him: Euen thus shall it be done vnto euery man whom the kyng is disposed to honoure.

12 And Mardocheus came agayne to the kynges gate, but Aman gat him home in all the haist, mournynge with bare heade, 13 and tolde Seres his wyfe and all his frendes, euery thynge that had happened him. Then sayde his wise men and Seres his wyfe vnto him: Yf it be Mardocheus of the sede of the Iewes, before who thou hast begonne to fall, thou canst do nothinge vnto him, but shalt fall before him.

14 Whyle they were yet talkynge with him, came the kynges chamberlaynes, and caused Aman to make haist to come vnto the bancket that Hester had prepared.

Chapter 7

1 And whan the kyng and Aman came to the bancket that quene Hester had prepared,

2 the kyng sayde vnto Hester on the seconde daye whan he had droken wyne: What is thy peticion quene Hester, that it maye be geuen the? And what requyrest thou? Yee axe euen halfe of the empyre, and it shal be done.

3 Hester ye quene answered and sayde: Yf I haue founde grace in thy sighte (O kyng) and yf it please the kyng, then graunte me my lyfe at my desyre and my people for my petitions sake:

4 for we are solde to be destroyed, to be slayne, and to perishe. And wolde God we were solde to be bondmen and bondwemen, then wolde I holde my tonge, so shulde not the enemye be so hie to the kynges harme.

5 The kyng Ahasuerus spake & saide vnto quene Hester: What is he that? Or where is he yt darre presume in his mynde to do soch a thinge after that maner?

6 Hester sayde: The enemye and aduersary is this wicked Aman. As for Ama, he was exceedingly afraied before ye kyng & ye quene.

7 And the kyng arose fro the bancket & fro ye wyne in his displeasure, and wente in to the palace garden. And Aman stode vp, and besoughte quene Hester for his life: for he sawe yt there was a mischance prepared for him of the kyng already.

8 And whan the kyng came agayne out of the palace garden in to ye parler where they had eaten, Aman had layed him vpon the bed that Hester sat vpon. Then saide the kyng: wyl he force the quene also besyde me in the house? As soone as that worde wente out of the kynges mouth, they couered Amans face.

9 And Harbona one of the chamberlaynes that stode before the kyng, sayde Beholde, there stondeth a galowe in Amas house fiftie cubytes hie, which he had made for Mardocheus, that spake good for ye kyng. The kyng sayde: Hange him theron.

10 So they hanged Aman on the galowe that he had made for Mardocheus. Then was the kynges wrath styllid.

Chapter 8

1 The same daye dyd kyng Ahasuerus geue the house of Aman the Iewes enemye, vnto quene Hester. And Mardocheus came before ye kyng: for Hester tolde how that he beloged vnto her.

2 And the kyng put of his fynger ryng, which he had taken from Aman, & gaue it vnto Mardocheus. And Hester set Mardocheus ouer the house of Aman.

3 And Hester spake yet more before the kyng, and fell downe at his fete, & besought him, that he wolde put awaye the wyckednes of Aman the Agagite, and his deuice that he had ymaged against ye Iewes.

4 And the kyng helde out the golden cepter vnto Hester. Then rose Hester, and stode before the kyng,

5 and sayde: Yf it please the kyng, and yf I haue foude grace in his sight, & yf it be couenyent for the kyng, and yf it be accepted in his sighte, then let it be writte, yt the letters of the deuice of Ama the sonne of Amadathai the Agagite, maie be called agayne: which letters he wrote, to destroie ye Iewes in all ye kynges lodes.

6 For how can I se the euell that shal happe vnto my people? and how can I loke vpon the destruction of my kynred?

7 Then sayde ye kyng Ahasuerus vnto quene Hester, and to Mardocheus the Iewe: Beholde, I haue geuen Hester the house of Aman, & him haue they hanged vpon a tre, because he layed hade vpon ye Iewes.

8 Wryte ye now therfore for the Iewes, as it liketh you in the kynges name, and seale it with ye kynges ryng (for the wrytinges that were wrytten in ye kynges name, and sealed with the kynges ryng, durst no man dysanulle.)

9 Then were the kynges scribes called at the same tyme in the thirde moneth, that is the moneth Siuan, on the thre & twentieth daie. And it was wrytten (as Mardocheus comaunded) vnto the Iewes and to the prynces, to the Debities and captaynes in the londes from India vntyll Ethiopia, namely, an hundreth and seuen and twenty londes, vnto euery one acordinge to the wrytinge therof, vnto euery people after their speche, and to the Iewes acordinge to their wrytinge and language.

10 And it was written in the kyng Ahasuerus name, and sealed with the kynges ryng. And by postes that rode vpon swyfte yonge Mules, sent he the wrytinges,

11 wher in the kyng graunted the Iewes (in what cities so euer they were) to gather them selues together, and to stonde for their lyfe, and for to rote out, to slaye, and to destroye all the power of the people and londe that wolde trouble them, with children and wemen, and to spoyle their good

12 vpon one daye in all the londes of kyng Ahasuerus, namely vpon the thirteenth daye of the twolueth moneth, which is the moneth Adar.

13 The summe of the wrytinge was, how there was a commaundement geuen in all londes to be publisid vnto all the people, that ye Iewes shulde be ready agaynst that daye to auenge them selues on their enemies.

14 And the postes that rode vpon the Mules, made haistwith all spede, acordinge to the kynges worde: and the commaundement was deuysed in the castel of Susan.

15 As for Mardocheus, he wente out from the kyng in royall apparell of yalow and whyte, and wyth a greate crowne of golde, beyng arayed with a garment of linnen and purple, and ye cite of Susan reioysed & was glad:

16 but vnto the Iewes there was come light and gladnesse, & ioye & worshippe.

17 And in all londes and cities, in to what places so euer the kynges worde and commaundemet reached, there was ioye & myrth, prosperite and good dayes amonge the Iewes: in so moch that many of the people in the londe became of the Iewes beleue, for the feare of the Iewes came vpon them.

Chapter 9

1 In the twolueth moneth, that is the moneth Adar, vpon the thyrteenth daye, which the kynges worde and commaundement had appoynted, that it shulde be done, eue vpon ye same daie yt the enemies shulde haue destroyed the Iewes to haue oppressed them, it turned contrary wise, euen yt the Iewes shulde subdue their enemies.

2 Then gathered the Iewes together in their cities within all ye londes of kyng Ahasuerus, to laye honde on soch as wolde do the euell, & no man coulde withstonde them: for ye feare of the was come ouer all people.

3 And all the rulers in the londes, and prynces and Debities, and officers of the kyng promoted the Iewes: for the feare of Mardocheus came vpo the.

4 For Mardocheus was greate in the kynges house, & the reporte of him was noised in all lodes, how he increased & grewe.

5 Thus the Iewes smote all their enemies with a sore slaughter, and slewe and destroyed, & dyd after their wyll vnto soch as were their aduersaries.

6 And at ye castell of Susan slewe the Iewes and destroyed fyue hudreth men:

7 & slewe Parsandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,

8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

9 Parmastha Arissai, Aridai, Vaiesatha, 10 the ten sonnes of Aman ye sonne of Amadathi ye enemye of the Iewes: but on his goodes they layed no handes.

11 At the same tyme was the kyng certified of the nombre of those that were slaine at the castell of Susan.

12 And the kyng sayde vnto quene Hester: The Iewes haue slayne and destroyed fyue hudreth men at ye castell of Susan, and the ten sonnes of Ama: What shal they do in the other londes of ye kyng? What is thy peticion, that it maye be geuen the? & what requyrest thou more to be done?

13 Hester sayde: Yf it please the kyng, let him suffre the Iewes tomorrow also to do acordinge vnto this dayes commaundement, that they maye hange Amans ten sonnes vpo ye tre.

14 And the kyng charged to do so, and the commaundement was deuysed at Susan, & Amans ten sonnes were hanged.

15 And the Iewes gathered the selues together at Susan, vpon the fourteenth daye of the moneth Adar, and slewe thre hundreth men at Susan, but on their goodes they laied no hades.

16 As for the other Iewes in the kynges lodes, they came together, & stode for their lyues, & gatt rest for their enemies: and slewe of their enemies fyue and seuentye thousande, howbeit they layed no hondes on their goodes.

17 This was done on the thirteenth daie of the moneth Adar, and on the fourteenth daye of the same moneth rested they, which (daye) they ordeyned to be a daye of feastinge and gladnesse.

18 But the Iewes at Susan were come together both on the thyrteenth daye and on the fourteenth, and on the fyfteenth daye they rested, and the same daye ordeyned they to be a daye of feastinge & gladnes.

19 Therefore the Iewes that dwelt in the vyllages and vnwalled townes, ordeyned ye fourteenth daye of the moneth Adar, to be a daye of feastinge and gladnes, and one sent giftes vnto another.

20 And Mardocheus wrote these actes, and sent the wrytinges vnto all the Iewes yt were in all ye londes of kynge Ahasuerus, both nye and farre, 21 that they shulde yearly receaue and holde the fourtenth and fifteenth daie of the moneth Adar,

22 as the daies wherin ye Lewes came to rest from their enemies, & as a moneth wherin their payne was turned to ioye, and their sorowe in to prosperite: that they shulde obserue the same as dayes of wealth and gladnes, and one to sende giftes vnto another, & to distribute vnto the poore.

23 And the Lewes receaued it that they had begonne to do, and that Mardocheus wrote vnto them:

24 how that Aman the sonne of Amadathai all ye Lewes enemye, had deuyced to destroye all the Lewes, and caused the lot to be cast for to put them in feare, and to brynge them to naughte:
25 and how Hester wente and spake to the kynge, that thorow letters his wicked deuyce (which he ymagyned agaynst the Lewes) might be turned vpon his awne heade, and how he and his sonnes were hanged on the tre.

26 For the which cause they called this daye Purim after the name of the lot, acordinge to all ye wordes of this wrytinge: and what they the selues had sene, and what had happened vnto them.
27 And the Lewes set it vp, and toke it vpon them and their sede, and vpon all soch as ioyned themselues vnto them, that they wolde not mysse to obserue these two dayes yearly, acordinge as they were wrytte and appoynted, 28 how yt these dayes are not to be forgotten, but to be kepte of childers children amoge all kynreds in all londes and cities. They are the dayes of Purim, which are not to be ouerslypte amonge the Lewes, and the memoriall of them oughte not to perishe from their sede.

29 And quene Hester the daughter of Abihail and Mardocheus the Iewe, wrote with all auctorite, to confirme this seconde wrytinge of Purim,

30 and sent the letters vnto all the Lewes in the hundreth and seuen and twenty londes of ye empyre of Ahasuerus, with frendly and faithfull wordes,

31 to confirme these dayes of Purim, in their tyme appoynted, acordinges as Mardocheus the Iewe and Hester the quene had ordeined cocernynge them: lyke as they vpon their soule and vpon their sede had cofirmed the actes of the fastinges and of hir coplainte.

32 And Hester comaunded to stablish these actes of this Purim, and to wryte them in a boke.

Chapter 10

1 And the kynge Ahasuerus layed tribute vpon the londe, and vpon the Iles of the See.

2 As for all ye worke of his power and auctoryte, and ye greate worshippe of Mardocheus, which the kynge gaue him, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Media & Persia,

3 For Mardocheus the Iewe was the seconde nexte vnto kynge Ahasuerus, and greate amonge ye Lewes, and accepted amonge the multitude of his brethren, as one yt seketh the welth of his people, and speaketh the best for all his sede.

JOB

Chapter 1

1 In the lode of Hus there was a man called Iob: an innocent and vertuous man, soch one as feared God, and eschued euell.

2 This man had vij. sonnes, and iij. daughters.

3 His substaunce was vij. M. shepe, iij. M. camels, v. C. yock of oxen, v. C. she asses, and a very greate housholde: so yt he was one of the most principall men amoge all them of the east countre.

4 His sonnes now wente on euery man, and made banckettes: one daye in one house, another daye in another, and sent for their iij. sisters, to eate & drinke with them.

5 So when they had passed ouer the tyme of their banckettinge rounde aboute, Iob sent for them, and clensted them agayne, stode vp early, and offered for euery one a bretofferinge. For Iob thought thus: peradventure my sonnes haue done some offence, and haue bene vnthankfull to God in their hertes. And thus dyd Iob euery daye.

6 Now vpon a tyme, when the seruauntes of God came and stode before the LORDE, Sathan came also amonge them.

7 And the LORDE sayde vnto Sathan: From whence comest thou? Sathan answered the LORDE, and sayde: I haue gone aboute the lode, and walked thorow it.

8 Then sayde the LORDE vnto Satha: hast thou not considered my seruaunt Iob, how that he is an innocet and vertuous ma: soch one as feareth God, and eschueth euell, and that there is none like him in the londe?

9 Sathan answered, and sayde vnto the LORDE: Doth Iob feare God for naught? 10 hast thou not preserued him, his house, and all his substaunce on euery syde? hast thou not blessed the workes of his hondes? Is not his possession encreaced in the londe?

11 But laye thyne honde vpo him a litle, touch once all that he hath, and (I holde) he shall curse the to thy face.

12 And the LORDE sayde vnto Sathan: lo all that he hath, be in thy power: only vpon himself se that thou laye not thine honde. Then wente Sathan forth from the LORDE.

13 Now vpon a certayne daye when his sonnes and daughters were eatinge, and drynkinge wyne in their eldest brothers house,

14 there came a messaunger vnto Iob, and sayde: Whyle the oxen were a plowing, and the Asses goinge in the pasture besyde them:

15 the Sabees came in violetly, and toke them all awaye: yee they haue slayne the seruauntes with the swearde, and I only ranne my waye, to tell the.

16 And whyle he was yet speakynge, there came another, and sayde: The fyre of God is fallen from heauen, it hath consumed & bret vp all the shepe and seruauntes: and I only ranne my waye, to tell the.

17 In the meane season whyle he was yet speakinge, there came another, and sayde: The Caldees made thre armies, and fell in vpon the camels, which they haue caried awaye, yee and slayne the seruauntes with the swearde: and I only am gotte awaye, to tell the.

18 Whyle he was speakinge, there came yet another, ad sayde: Thy sonnes and daughters were eatinge ad drynkinge wyne in their eldest brothers house, 19 ad sodenly there came a mightie greate wynde out off the South, and smote the iij. corners of the house: which fell vpon thy children, so that they are deed: and I am gotten awaye alone, to tell the.

20 Then Iob stode vp, and rente his clothes shaued his heade, fell downe vpon the groude, worshipped, 21 and sayde: Naked came I out of my mothers wombe, and naked shall I turne thither agayne. The LORDE gaue, and the LORDE hath taken awaye (the LORDE hath done his pleasure) now blessed be ye name off the LORDE.

22 In all these thinges dyd Iob not offende, ner murmured foolishly agaynst God.

Chapter 2

1 It happened also apon a tyme, that when the seruauntes of God came & stode before the LORDE, Sathan came also amonge them, and stode before him.

2 And the LORDE sayde vnto Sathan: From whence comest thou? Sathan answered and sayde: I haue gone aboute the lode, and walked thorow it.

3 Then sayde the LORDE vnto Sathan: Hast thou not considered my seruaunt Iob, how that he is an innocet & vertuous man soch one as feareth God, and eschueth euell, and that there is none like him in the londe? But thou mouedest me agaynst him, to punysh him: yet is it in vayne, for he contynueth still in his godlynesse.

4 Sathan answered the LORDE, and sayde: Skynne for skynne? yee a man will geue all yt euer he hath, for his life.

5 But laye thine honde vpon him, touch him once vpon the bone and flesh, and (I holde) he shall curse the to thy face.

6 Then sayde the LORDE vnto Satha: lo, there hast thou him in thy power, but spare his life.

7 So wente Sathan forth from the LORDE, and smote Iob with maruelous sore byles, from the sole off the fote vnto his crowne:

8 so that he sat vpon the grounde in the ashes, and scraped of the etter off his sores with a potsherde.

9 Then sayde his wife vnto him: Dost thou yet cotynue in thy perfectnesse? curse God, & dye.

10 But Iob sayde vnto her: Thou speakest like a foolish woma. Seinge we haue receaued prosperite at the honde of God, wherfore shulde we not be content with aduersite also? In all these thinges, dyd not Iob synne with his lippes.

11 Now when Iobs frendes herde of all ye trouble, that happened vnto him, there came thre off them, euery one from his owne place: namely, Eliphaz the Themanite, Baldad the Suhite, and Sophar the Naamathite. For they were agreed together to come, to shewe their compassion vpon him, and to comforte him.

12 So when they lifte vp their eyes a farre off, they knewe him not. Then they cried, and wepte: then euery one off them rente his clothes, and sprynckled dust vpon their heades in the ayre.

13 They sat them downe by him also vpon the grounde, vij. dayes and vij. nightes. Nether was there eny of them that spake one worde vnto him, for they sawe that his payne was very greate.

Chapter 3

1 After this opened Iob his mouth, and cursed his daye,

2 and sayde:

3 lost be that daye, wherin I was borne: and the night, in the which it was sayde: there is a manchilde conceaued.

4 The same daye be turned to darcknesse, and not regarded of God from aboue, nether be shyned vpo wt light:

5 but be couered with darcknesse, and the shadowe of death. Let the dymme cloude fall vpon it, and let it be lapped in with sorowe.

6 Let the darckstorme ouercome ye night, let it not be reckened amonge the dayes off the yeare, ner counted in the monethes.

7 Despysed be that night, and discommended: let them that curse the daye,

8 geue it their curse also, euen those that be ready to rayse vp Leuiathan.

9 Let the starres be dymme thorow darcknesse of it. Let it loke for light, but let it se none, nether the rysynge vp of the fayre mornynge:

10 because it shut not vp the wombe that bare me, ner hyd these sorowes fro myne eyes.

11 Alas, why dyed I not in ye byrth? Why dyd not I perysh, as soone as I came out of my mothers wobe?

12 Why set they me vpo yeir knees? Why gaue they me suck with their brestes?

13 Then shulde I now haue lyen still, I shulde haue slepte, and bene at rest:

14 like as the kynges ad lordes of ye earth, which buylde them selues speciall places:

15 As the prynces that haue greate substaunce of golde, & their houses full of syluer.

16 O that I vtterly had no beyng, or were as a thige borne out of tyme (that is put asyde) ether as yonge children, which neuer sawe the light.

17 There must the wicked ceasse from their tyranny, there such as are ouerlaboured, be at rest:

18 there are those letten out fre, which haue bene in preson, so that they heare nomore the voyce of the oppressoure:

19 There are small and greate: the bonde man, and he that is fre fro his master.

20 Wherefore is the light geuen, to him that is in mysery? and life vnto them, that haue heuy hertes?

21 (Which longe for death, and it commeth not: for yf they might fynde their graue, 22 they wolde be maruelous glad, as those that dygge vp treasure)

23 To the man whose waye is hyd, which God kepeth backe from him.

24 This is the cause, that I syghe before I eate, and my roaringes fall out like a water floude.

25 For the thyng that I feared, is come vpon me: and the thyng that I was afrayed of, is happened vnto me.

26 Was I not happy? Had I not quyetnesse? Was I not in rest? And now commeth soch mysery vpon me.

Chapter 4

1 Then answered Eliphaz of Theman and sayde vnto him:

2 Yf we begynne to comon with the, peradueture thou wilt be myscontent, but who can witholde himself from speakyng?

3 Beholde, thou hast bene a teacher of many, and hast comforted the weery hondes.

4 Thy wordes haue set vp those that were fallen, thou hast refresshed the weake knees.

5 But now that the plage is come vpon the, thou shreckest awaye: now that it hath touched thyself, thou art faint harted.

6 Where is now thy feare of God, thy stedfastnesse, thy patience, and the perfectnesse of thy life?

7 Considre (I praye the) who euer peryshed, beyng an innocent? Or, when were the godly destroyed?

8 As for those that plowe wickednesse (as I haue sene myself) and sowe myscheffe, they reape ye same.

9 For whe God bloweth vpon them, they perysh, and are destroyed thorow the blast of his wrath.

10 The roaringe of the lyon, the cryenge off the lyonnesse, & ye teth off ye lyos whelpes are broke.

11 The greate lyon perysheth, because he ca get no pray and the lyons whelpes are scated abroad.

12 There is spoken vnto me a thyng in counsell, which hath geuen a terrible sounde in myne eare, 13 with a vision in the night, when men are fallen a slepe.

14 Soch feare and drede came vpo me, that all my bones shoke.

15 And when the wynde passed ouer by me, the hayres of my flesh stode vp.

16 Then stode there one before me, whose face I knewe not: an ymage there was, and the wether was still, so that I herde this voyce:

17 Maye a man be iustified before God? Maye there eny man be iudged to be clene, by reason of his owne workes?

18 Beholde, he hath founde vnfaithfulnesse amonge his owne seruautes, and proude disobedience amonge his angels.

19 How moch more the shal they (that dwell in houses of claye, whose foundation is but earth) be moth eaten?

20 They shalbe destroyed from the mornynge vnto the euenynge: yee they shall perish, or euer they be awarre:

21 and be taken awaye so clene, that none of the shall remayne, but be deed, or euer they be awarre off it.

Chapter 5

1 Name me one els, yf thou canst fynde eny: yee loke aboute the, vpon eny of the holy men.

2 As for the foolish man displeasure kylleth him, and anger slayeth ye ignoraunt.

3 I haue sene my self, when the foolish was depe roted, that his bewty was sodely destroyed:

4 that his children were without prosperite or health: that they were slayne in the dore, and no ma to deluyer them:

5 that his haruest was eaten vp off the hungrie: that the weapened man had spoyled it, and that the thurstie had droncke vp his riches. It is not the earth that bryngeth forth traauyle,

6 neither commeth sorow out of ye groude:

7 but it is man, that is borne vnto mysery, like as the byrde for to fle.

8 But now will I speake off the LORDE, and talke of God:

9 which doth thynges, that are vnsearcheable, and marueles without noble:

10 Which geueth rayne vpo the earth, and poureth water vpon all thynges:

11 which setteth vp them of lowe degre, and sendeth prosperite, to those that are in heuynesse:

12 Which destroyeth the deuyces of the sotyll, so that they are not able to perfourme the thynges that they take in hode:

13 which compaseth ye wyse in their owne craftynesse, and ouertroweth the counsell of the wicked:

14 In so moch that they runne in to darcknesse by fayre daye, and grope aboute them at the noone daye, like as in the night.

15 And so he deluyereth the poore from the swearde, from their mouth, and from the hode of the cruell:

16 that the poore maye haue hope, & that the mouth of the oppressoure maye be stopped.

17 Beholde, happie is the man, whom God punysheth: therfore, despyse not thou ye chastenyng of the Almighty.

18 For though he make a wounde, he geueth a medycyne agayne: though he smyte, his honde maketh whole agayne.

19 He deluyereth the out of sixe troubles, so that in the seuenth there can no harme touch the.

20 In the myddest of hunger he saueth ye from death: and when it is warre, from the power of the swearde.

21 He shall kepe the from the perlous tonge so that when trouble commeth, thou shalt not nede to feare.

22 In destruccion and derth thou shalt be mery, and shalt not be afrayed for the beastes of the earth:

23 But the castels in the londe shal be confederate with the, & the beastes of the felde shall geue the peace:

24 Yee thou shalt se, that thy dwellyng place shalbe in rest: thou shalt beholde thy substaunce, and be nomore punyshed for synne.

25 Thou shalt se also, that thy sede shall encrease, and that thy posterite shalbe as the grasse vpon the earth.

26 Thou shalt come to thy graue in a fayre age, like as ye corne sheeues are brought in to the barne in due season.

27 Lo, this is the matter, as we oure selues haue proued by experience. Therefore now that thou hearest it, take better hede to thy selff.

Chapter 6

1 Iob answered, and sayde:

2 O that my misery weere weyed, and my punishment layed in the balaunces:

3 for then shulde it be heuyer, then the sonde of the see. This is the cause, that my wordes are so soroufull.

4 For the allmighty hath shott at me with his arowes, whose indignacion hath droncke vp my sprete, and ye terrible feares of God fight agaynst me.

5 Doth the wilde asse roare when he hath grasse? Or crieth the ox, whe he hath fodder ynough?

6 Maye a thyng be eaten vnseasoned, or without salt? What taist hath ye whyte within the yoke an egg?

7 The thynges that sometyme I might not awaye withall, are now my meate for very sorow.

8 O that I might haue my desyre: O yt God wolde graunte me the thyng, that I longe for:

9 That he wolde begynne and smyte me: that he wolde let his honde go, & hew me downe.

10 The shulde I haue some coforte: yee I wolde desyre him in my payne, that he shulde not spare, for I will not be agaynst ye wordes of the holy one.

11 What power haue I to endure? Or? what is myne ende, that my soule might be paciet?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? Or, is my flesh made of brasse?

13 Am I able to helpe my self? Is not my strength gone fro me, 14 like as yf one withdrew a good dede from his frende, and forsok the feare of God?

15 Myne owne brethren passe ouer by me as the waterbroke, that hastely runneth thorow ye valleys.

16 But they that feare the horefrost, the snowe shal fall vpon them.

17 When their tyme cometh, they shalbe destroyed and perishe: and when they be set on fyre, they shalbe remoued out of their place, 18 for the pathes yt they go in, are croked: they haist after vayne thynges, and shal perish.

19 Considre the pathes off Theman, & the wayes off Saba, wherin they haue put their trust.

20 Confounded are they, that put eny cofidence in them: For whe they came to opteyne the thynges that they loked for, they were brought to confucion.

21 Eue so are ye also come vnto me: but now that ye se my mysery, ye are afrayed.

22 Dyd I desyre you, to come hyther? Or, to geue me eny off youre substaunce?

23 To deluyer me me from the enemies honde, or to saue me from the powers off the mightie?

24 Teach me and I will holde my tonge: and yf I do erre, shewe me wherin.

25 Wherefore blame ye then the wordes, that are well and truly spoken?

26 which of you can reprove them? Sauynge only that ye are sotyll to check mens sayenges, and can speake many wordes in the wynde.

27 Ye fall vpon the fatherlesse, ad go aboute to ouerthrowe youre owne frende.

28 Wherefore loke not only vpon me, but vpon youre selues: whether I lye, or no.

29 Turne into youre owne selues (I praye you) be indifferent iudges, and considre myne vngyltinesse:

30 whether there be eny vnrightuousnesse in my tonge, or vayne wordes in my mouth.

Chapter 7

1 Is not the life off ma vpon earth a very batayll? Are not his dayes, like the dayes of an hyred seruaunte?

2 For like as a bonde seruaunt desyareth the shadowe, and as an hyrelinge wolde fayne haue an ende of his worke:

3 Euen so haue I laboured whole monethes longe (but in vayne) and many a carefull night haue I tolde.

4 When I layed me downe to slepe, I sayde: O when shal I ryse? Agayne, I longed sore for the night. Thus am I full off sorowe, till it be darcke.

5 My flesh is clothed with wormes, fylthinesse and dust: my skynne is wythered, and crompted together:

6 my dayes passe ouer more spedely, the a weeuer can weeue out his webbe, and are gone, or I am awarre.

7 O remember, that my life is but a wynde, ad that myne eye shal nomore se the pleasures

8 therof yee and that none other mans eye shall se me eny more. For yf thou fasten thine eyes vpon me, I come to naught like

9 as a cloude is cosumed and vanysched awaye, euen so he that goeth downe to hell, commeth nomore vp,

10 ner turneth agayne in to his house, nether shall his place knowe him eny more.

11 Therefore I will not spare my mouth, but will speake in the trouble of my sprete, in ye bytternesse of my mynde will I talke.

12 Am I a see or a whalfysh, that thou kepest me so in preson?

13 When I thinke: my bedd shall comforte me, I shall haue some refresshing by talkynge with myself vpon my couche:

14 The troublest thou me with dreames, ad makest me so afrayed thorow visions, 15 that my soule wysseth rather to be hanged, and my bones to be deed.

16 I can se no remedy, I shall lye nomore: O spare me then, for my dayes are but vayne

17 What is man, that thou hast him in soch reputacion, and settest so moch by him?

18 Thou takest diligent care for him, and sodely doest thou trye him.

19 Why goest thou not fro me, ner lettest me alone, so longe till I swallow downe my spete?

20 I haue offended, what shal I do vnto ye, O thou preseruer off men? Why hast thou made me to stonde in thy waye, and am so heuy a burden vnto myself?

21 Why doest thou not forgeue me my synne? Wherefore takest thou not awaye my wickednesse? Beholde, now must I slepe in the dust: and yff thou sekest me tomorow in the mornynge, I shalbe gone.

Chapter 8

1 Then answered Baldad the Suhite, and sayde:

2 How longe wilt thou talke of soch thinges? how longe shal yi mouth speake so proude wordes?

3 Doth God peruerte the thinge that is lauffull? Or, doth the Allmightie destroye the thyng that is right?

4 Whe thy sonnes synned agaynst him, dyd not he punysh the for their wickednesse?

5 Yff thou woldest now resorte vnto God by tymes, and make thine humble prayer to ye Allmightie:

6 yf thou woldest lye a pure and a godly life: shulde he not wake vp vnto the immediatly, & geue the the bewtie of rightuousnesse agayne?

7 In so moch, that where i so euer thou haddest litle afore, thou shuldest now haue greate abundaunce.

8 Enquere of them that haue bene before the, search diligently amonge thy forefathers:

9 Namely, yt we are but of yesterdaye, and conside not, that oure dayes vpon earth are both a very shadow.

10 They shall shewe the, they shall tell the, yee they will gladly confesse the same.

11 Maye a resshe be grene without moystnesse? maye the grasse growe without water?

12 No: but (or euer it be shot forth, and or euer it be gathered) it wythereth, before eny other herbe.

13 Euen so goeth it with all them, that forget God: and euen thus also shal the ypcrytes hope come to naught.

14 His confidence shalbe destroyed, for he trusteth in a spyders webbe.

15 He leeneth him vpo his house, but he shal not stonde: he holdeth him fast by it, yet shal he not endure.

16 Oft tymes a thinge doth florish, and men thynke that it maye abyde the Sonneshyne: it shuteth forth the braunches in his garden, 17 it taketh many rotes, in so moch that it is like an house off stones.

18 But yf it be taken out off his place, euery man denyeth it, sayenge: I knowe the not.

19 Lo, thus is it wt him, that reioyseth in his owne doinges: and as for other, they growe out of the earth.

20 Beholde, God will not cast awaye a vertuous man, nether wil he helpe the vngodly.

21 Thy mouth shall he fyll with laughynge, ad thy lypes with gladnesse.

22 They that hate the, shalbe confounded, & ye dwellinges of ye vngodly shal come to naught.

Chapter 9

1 Job answered, and sayde:

2 As for yt I knowe it is so of a treuth, yt a man compared vnto God, can not be iustified.

3 Yf he wil argue with him, he shall not be able to answeere him vnto one amonge a thousande.

4 He is wyse of hert, and mightie in strength. Who euer prospered, that toke parte agaynst him?

5 He translateth the moutaynes, or euer they be awarre, & ouerthroweth them in his wrath.

6 He remoueth the earth out of hir place, that hir pilers shake withall.

7 He commaundeth the Sone, & it ryseth not: he closeth vp the starres, as it were vnder a signet.

8 He himself alone spredeth out ye heauens, and goeth vpon the wawes of the see.

9 He maketh the waynes of heauen, the Orions, the vij. starres and the secrete places of the south.

10 He doth greate thinges, such as are vnsearcheable, yee and wonders without nombre.

11 Yf he came by me, I might not loke vpo him: yf he wente his waye, I shulde not perceaue it.

12 Yf he be haisty to take eny thinge awaye, who wil make him restore it agayne? Who wil saye vnto him: what doest thou?

13 He is God, whose wrath no man maye with stode: but the proudest of all must stoupe vnder him.

14 How shulde I then answeere him? or, what wordes shulde I fynde out agaynst him?

15 Yee though I be rightuous, yet will I not geue him one worde agayne, but mekely submytte my self to my iudge.

16 All be it that I call vpon him, and he heare me, yet am I not sure, yt he hath herde my voyce:

17 he troubleth me so with the tempest, and woundeth me out of measure without a cause.

18 He will not let my sprete be in rest, but fylleth me wt bytternesse.

19 Yf men will speake of strength, he is the stogest of all: yf me will speake of rightousnes, who darre be my recorde?

20 yf I will iustifie my self, myne owne mouth shall codemme me: yf I will put forth my self for a perfecte man, he shal proue me a wicked doer:

21 For that I shulde be an innocent, my coscience knoweth it not, yee I my self am weery off my life.

22 This one thige wil I saye: He destroyeth both the rightuous & vngodly.

23 And though he slaye sodenly wt the scourge, yet laugheth he at the punyshment of the innocent.

24 As for the worlde, he geueth it ouer in to the power of the wicked, such as the rulers be, wherof all londes are full. Is it not so? where is there eny, but he is soch one?

25 My dayes haue bene more swifte, then a runner: they are gone sodenly, and haue sene no good thinge.

26 They are passed awaye, as the shippes that be good vnder sale, and as the Aegle that haisteth to the pray.

27 When I am purposed to forget my complainynges to change my countenance, and to coforte my self:

28 then am I afrayed of all my workes, for I knowe, thou faourest not an euell doer.

29 Yf I be then a wicked one, why haue I laboured in vayne?

30 Though I wasshed my self with snowe water, and made myne hondes neuer so clene, 31 yet shuldest thou dyppe me in ye myre, & myne owne clothes shulde defyle me.

32 For he yt I must geue answeere vnto, and with whom I go to lawe, is not a man as I am.

33 Nether is there eny dayes man to reproue both the partes, or to laye his hode betwixte vs.

34 Let him take his rod awaye fro me, yee let him make me nomore afrayed of him,

35 and then shal I answeere him without eny feare. For as longe as I am in soch fearfulnessse, I can make no answeere: And why?

Chapter 10

1 it greueth my soule to lye. Neuerthelesse, now will I put forth my wordes: I wil speake out of the very heuynesse off my soule,

2 and will saye vnto God: O do not condemne me, but shewe me the cause, wherfore thou iudget me on this maner. 3 Thinkest thou it well done, to oppresse me, to cast me of (beinge a worke of thy hondes) and to manteyne the councill of the vngodly?

4 Hast thou fle?shy eyes then, or doest thou loke as man loketh?

5 Are thy dayes as the dayes of man, and thy yeares as mans yeares?

6 that thou makest soch inquisicion for my wickednesse, and searchest out my synne?

7 where as (notwithstandinge) thou knowest that I am no wicked person, & that there is no man able to deliyuer me out of thine honde.

8 Thy hondes haue made me, & fashioned me alltogether rounde aboute, wilt thou then destroye me sodely?

9 O remember (I beseke the) how that thou madest me of the moule of the earth, and shalt brynge me to earth agayne.

10 Hast thou not milked me, as it were mylck: and turned me to cruddes like chese?

11 Thou hast couered me with skynne and flesh, and ioyned me together with bones & synowes.

12 Thou hast graunted me life, and done me good: and the diligent hede that thou tokest vpon me, hath preserued my sprete.

13 Though thou hydest these thinges in thine hert, yet am I sure, that thou remembrest the all.

14 Wherfore didest thou kepe me, when I synned, and hast not clensed me fro myne offence?

15 Yf I do wickedly, wo is me therefore: Yf I be rightuous, yet darre I not lift vp my heade: so full am I of confucion, and se myne owne misery.

16 Thou huntest me out (beynge in heuynesse) as it were a Lyon, and troublest me out of measure.

17 Thou bringest fresh witnesses agaynst me, thy wrath increasest thou vpon me, very many are the plaghes that I am in.

18 Wherfore hast thou brought me out of my mothers wombe? O that I had perished, & that no eye had sene me.

19 Yf they had caried me to my graue, as soone as I was borne, then shulde I be now, as though I had neuer bene.

20 Shall not my short life come soone to an ende? O holde the fro me, let me alone, that I maye ease myself a litle:

21 afore I go thyther, from whence I shal not turne agayne: Namely, to that londe of darcknesse & shadowe of death:

22 yee into that darck cloudy londe & deadly shadowe, where as is no ordre, but terrible feare as in the darcknesse.

Chapter 11

1 Then answered Sophar the Naamathite, and sayde:

2 Shulde not he that maketh many wordes, be answered? Shulde he that bableth moch, be commended therein?

3 Shulde men geue eare vnto the only? Thou wilt laugh other men to scorne, & shal no body mocke the agayne?

4 Wilt thou saye vnto God: The thinge that I take in honde, is perfecte, & I am clene in thy sight?

5 O that God wolde speake, and open his lippes agaynst the,

6 that he might shewe the (out of his secrete wy?dome) how manyfolde his lawe is: then shuldest thou knowe, that God had forgotten the, because of thy synnes.

7 Wilt thou fynde out God with thy sekyng? wilt thou attayne to the perfectnesse of the Allmightie?

8 He is hyer the heaue, what wilt thou do? Deper the hell, how wilt thou then knowe him?

9 His length exceedeth the length of the earth, and his bredth ye bredth of the see.

10 Though he turne all thinges vpsyde downe, close them in, or thrust the together, who darre check him therfore?

11 For it is he, that knoweth the vanite of men: he seyth their wickednesse also, shulde he not then conside it?

12 A wayne body exalteth him self, and the sonne of man is like a wylde asses foale.

13 Yf thou haddest now a right herte, & liftest vp thine hondes towarde him:

14 yf thou woldest put away the wickednesse, which thou hast in honde, so that no vngodlynesse dwelt in thy house:

15 Then mightest thou lift vp thy face without shame, the shuldest thou be sure, and haue no nede to feare.

16 Then shuldest thou forget thy misery, and thynke nomore vpon it, then vpon the waters that runne by.

17 Then shulde thy life be as cleare as the noone daye, and sprynge forth as the mornyng.

18 Then mightest thou haue comforth, in the hope that thou hast: & slepe quietly, when thou art buried.

19 Then shuldest thou take thy rest, and no ma to make the afrayed, yee many one shulde set moch by the.

20 As for the eyes of the vngodly, they shal be consumed, and not escape: their hope shalbe misery and sorow of mynde.

Chapter 12

1 So Iob answered, and sayde:

2 Then (no doute) ye are the men alone, and wy?dome shal perish with you.

3 But I haue vnderstodinge as well as ye, and am no lesse then ye. Yee who knoweth not these thinges?

4 Thus he that calleth vpo God, and whom God heareth, is mocked of his neighbour: the godly & innocent man is laughed to scorne.

5 Godlynesse is a light despysed in ye hertes of the rich, & is set for them to stomble vpon.

6 The houses of robbers are in wealth and prosperite, & they that maliciously medle agaynst God, dwel without care: yee God geueth all thinges richely with his honde.

7 Axe the catell, & they shal enfourme the: the foules of the ayre, and they shall tell ye:

8 Speake to the earth, and it shall shewe the: Or to the fyshes of the see, and they shal certifie the.

9 What is he, but he knoweth, that ye hode of the LORDE made all these?

10 In whose honde is the soule of euery luyng thinge, and the breth of all men.

11 Haue not the eares pleasure in hearinge, and the mouth in tastinge the thinge that it eateth?

12 Amonge olde personnes there is wy?dome, and amonge the aged is vnderstodinge.

13 Yee with God is wy?dome and strength, it is he that hath counsell & foreknowlege.

14 Yf he breake downe a thinge, who can set it vp agayne? Yf he shutt a thinge, who wil open it?

15 Beholde, yf he witholde the waters, they drye vp: Yf he let the go, they destroye the earth.

16 With him is strength and wy?dome: he knoweth both the disceauer, and him that is disceaued.

17 He carieth awaye the wyse men, as it were a spoyle, and bryngeth the iudges out of their wyttes.

18 He lowseth the gyrdle of kynges, and gyrdeth their loynes with a bonde.

19 he ledeth awaye the prestes into captiuyte, and turneth the mightie vp syde downe.

20 He taketh the verite from out of the mouth, & disapoynteth ye aged of their wy?dome.

21 He poureth out confucion vpon prynces, and coforteth them that haue bene oppressed.

22 Loke what lyeth hyd in darcknesse, he declareth it opely: and the very shadowe of death bringeth he to light.

23 He both increaseth the people, and destroyeth them: He maketh them to multiplie, and dryueth them awaye.

24 He chaungeth the herte of the prynces and kynges of the earth, and disapoynteth them: so that they go wadringe out of the waye,

25 and grope in the darke without light, stackeringe to and fro like droncken men.

Chapter 13

1 Lo, all this haue I sene with myne eye, herde with myne eare, & vnderstode it.

2 Loke what ye knowe, that same do I knowe also, nether am I inferior vnto you.

3 Neuerthelesse I am purposed to talke with the Allmightie, and my desyre is to comon with God.

4 As for you, ye are workmasters of lyes: and vnprofitable Phisicians alltogether.

5 Wolde God ye kepte youre tonge, that ye might be taken for wyse men.

6 Therefore heare my wordes, and pondre the sentence of my lippes.

7 Will ye make answer for God with lyes, and mateyne him with disceate?

8 Wil ye accepte ye persone of God, and intreate for him?

9 Shal that helpe you, when he calleth you to rekenyng? Thynke ye to begyle him, as a man is begyled?

10 Punysh you shall he and reprove you, yf ye do secretly accepte eny persone.

11 Shall he not make you afrayed, when he sheweth himself? Shal not his terrible feare fall vpo you?

12 youre remembraunce shalbe like the dust, & youre pryde shalbe turned to claye.

13 Holde youre tonges now, and let me speake, for there is some thinge come in to my mynde.

14 Wherefore do I beare my flesh in my teth, and my soule in myne hondes?

15 Lo, there is nether coforte ner hope for me, yf he wil slaye me. But yf I shewe and reprove myne owne wayes in his sight,

16 he is euen the same, that maketh me whole: and why? there maye no Ypocrite come before him, 17 Heare my wordes, and pondre my sayenges with youre eares.

18 Beholde, though sentence were geuen vpon me, I am sure to be knowne for vngilty.

19 What is he, that will go to lawe with me? For yf I holde my tonge, I shal dye.

20 Neuerthelesse graunte me ij. thinges, and then will I not hyde my self from the.

21 Withdrowe thine honde fro me, & let not the fearfull drede of the make me afrayed.

22 And then sende for me to the lawe, yt I maye answer for my self: or els, let me speake, and geue thou the answer.

23 How greate are my my?dedes & synnes? Let me knowe my trasgressions & offences.

24 Wherefore hydest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemye?

25 Wilt thou be so cruell & extreme vnto a flyenge leaf, and folowe vpon drye stubble?

26 that thou layest so sharply to my charge, and wilt vtterly vndoo me, for ye synnes of my yough?

27 Thou hast put my fote in the stockes: thou lokest narrowly vnto all my pathes, & marckest the steppes of my fete:

28 where as I (notwithstodinge) must consume like as a foule carion, and as a cloth that is moth eaten.

Chapter 14

1 Man that is borne of a woman, hath but a shorte tyme to lyue, and is full of dyuerse miseries.

2 He cometh vp, and falleth awaye like a floure. He flyeth as it were a shadowe, and neuer continueth in one state.

3 Thinkest thou it now well done, to open thine eyes vpon soch one, and to brynge me before the in iudgment?

4 Who can make it cleane, that commeth of an vnclene thinge? No body.

5 The dayes of man are shorte, ye nombre of his monethes are knowne only vnto the. Thou hast apoynted him his boundes, he can not go beyonde them.

6 Go from him, that he maye rest a litle: vntill his daye come, which he loketh for, like as an hyrelinge doth.

7 Yf a tre be cutt downe, there is some hope yet, that it will sproute and shute forth the braunches againe:

8 For though a rote be waxen olde and deed in the grounde, yet whe the stocke 9 getteth the sent of water, it will budde, and brynge forth bowes, like as when it was first planted.

10 But as for man, when he is deed, perished and consumed awaye, what becommeth of him?

11 The flouides when they be dried vp, & the ryuers when they be emptie, are fylled agayne thorow the flowinge waters of the see:

12 but when man slepeth, he ryseth not agayne, vntill the heauen perish: he shal not wake vp ner ryse out of his slepe.

13 O that thou woldest kepe me, and hyde me in the hell, vntill thy wrath were stilled: & to appoynte me a tyme, wherin thou mightest remembre me.

14 Maye a deed man lyue agayne? All the dayes of this my pilgremage am I lokyng, when my chaunginge shal come. 15 Yf thou woldest but call me, I shulde obeie the: only despyse not the worke of thine owne hondes.

16 For thou hast nombred all my goynges, yet be not thou to extreme vpon my synnes.

17 Thou hast sealed vp myne offences, as it were in a bagg: but be mercifull vnto my wickednesse.

18 The mountaynes fall awaye at the last, the rockes are removed out of their place, 19 the waters pearse thorow the very stones by litle and litle, the flouides wa?she awaye the grauell & earth: Euen so destroyest thou the hope of man in like maner.

20 Thou preuaylest agaynst him, so that he passeth awaye: thou chaungest his estate, and putttest him from the.

21 Whether his children come to worshipe or no, he can not tell: And yf they be men of lowe degre, he knoweth not.

22 Whye he lyueth, his flesh must haue trauallye: and whye the soule is in him, he must be in sorowe.

Chapter 15

1 Then answered Eliphaz the Themanite, and sayde:
 2 Shulde a wyse man geue soch an answere (as it were one that spake in the wynde) and fyll his stomacke with anger?
 3 Thou reouest wt wordes, that are nothinge wroth: and speakest the thinges, which can do no good.
 4 As for shame, thou hast set it asyde, els woldest thou not make so many wordes before God:
 5 but thy wickednesse teacheth thy mouth, and so thou hast chosen the a craftie tonge.
 6 Thine owne mouth condemne the, and not I: yee thine owne lippes shappe the an answere.
 7 Art thou the first man, that euer was borne? Or, wast thou made before the hylles?
 8 hast thou herde the secrete councill of God, that all wy?dome is to litle for ye?
 9 What knowest thou, yt we knowe not? What vnderstondest thou, but we can the same?
 10 With vs are olde and aged men, yee soch as haue lyued longer then thy forefathers.
 11 Dost thou nomore regarde the comforte of God? but thy wicked wordes wil not suffre the.
 12 Why doth thine herte make the so proude? Why stondest thou so greatly in thine owne conceate? Where vnto loke thine eyes, 13 yt thy mynde is so puft vp agaynst God & lettest soch wordes go out of thy mouth?
 14 What is man, that he shulde be vnclene? what hath he (which is borne of a woman) wherby he might be knowne to be righteous?
 15 Beholde, he hath founde vnfaithfulnesse amoge his owne sanctes: yee the very heauens are vnclene in his sight.
 16 How moch more then an abhominable and vyle ma, which dryncketh wickednesse like water?
 17 I will tell the, heare me: I wil shewe the a thinge, that I knowe:
 18 which wyse men haue tolde, & hath not bene hyd from their fathers:
 19 vnto whom only the londe was geuen, that no straunger shulde come amonge them.
 20 The vngodly despayreth all the dayes of his life, & the nombre of a tyrautes yeares is vnknowne.
 21 A fearfull sounde is euer in his eares, & when it is peace, yet feareth he destruction:
 22 He beleueth neuer to be deliyuered out of darcknesse, the swearde is allway before his eyes.
 23 When he goeth forth to get his luyinge, he thinketh planely, that the daye of darcknesse is at honde.
 24 Sorow and carefulnesse make him afrayed, & copasse him rounde aboute, like as it were a kinge with his hoost redy to the battayll.

 25 For he hath stretched out his honde agaynst God, & armed himself agaynst ye Allmightie.
 26 He runneth proudly vpon him, & with a stiff necke fighteth he agaynst him:
 27 where as he couereth his face with fatnesse, and maketh his body well lykynge.
 28 Therefore shall his dwellynge be in desolate cities, & in houses which no ma inhabiteth, but are become heapes of stones.
 29 He shall not be rich, nether shall his substaunce continue, ner encrease vpon earth.
 30 He shal neuer come out of darcknesse, the flame shal drye vp his braunches, with ye blast of the mouth of God shal he be take awaie.
 31 He wil nether applye himself to faithfulness ner treuth, so sore is he disceaue wt vanite.
 32 He shall perish, afore his tyme be worne out, and his honde shal not be grene.
 33 He shalbe pluckte of as an vntymely grape from ye vyne, and shal let his floure fall, as the olyue doth.
 34 For the congregation of Ypocrites is vnfrutefull, & the fyre shal consume the houses of soch, as are gredy to receaue giftes.
 35 He conceaueth trauayle, he beareth myschefe, & his body bryngeth forth disceate.

Chapter 16

1 Job answered, and sayde:
 2 I haue oft tymes herde soch thinges. Miserable geuers of comforte are ye, all the sorte of you.
 3 Shall not thy wayne wordes come yet to an ende? Or, hast thou yet eny more to saye?
 4 I coude speake, as ye do also. But wolde God, that youre soule were in my soules steade: then shulde I heape vp wordes agaynst you, and shake my heade at you.
 5 I shulde comforte you with my mouth, and release youre payne with ye talkinge of my lypes.
 6 But what shall I do? For all my wordes, my sorow wil not ceasse: and though I holde my toge, yet wil it not departe fro me.
 7 And now that I am full of payne, and all that I haue destroyed
 8 (wherof my wryncles beare wytnesse) there stodeth vp a dyssembler to make me answer with lyes to my face.
 9 He is angrye at me, he hateth me, and gnassheth vpon me with his teth. Myne enemy skoulet h vpon me with his eyes.
 10 They haue opened their mouthes wyde vpon me, and smytten me vpon the cheke despitefully, they haue eased the selues thorow myne aduersite.
 11 God hath geuen me ouer to the vngodly, and deliyuered me in to the hondes of ye wicked.

12 I was somtyme in wealth, but sodenly hath he brought me to naught. He hath taken me by the neck, he hath rente me, and set me, as it were a marck for him to shute at.
 13 He hath compased me rounde aboute with his dartes, he hath wounded my loynes, & not spared. My bowels hath he poured vpon the grounde.
 14 He hath geue me one wounde vpon another, and is falle vpon me like a giaunte.
 15 I haue sowed a sack cloth vpon my skynne, and lye with my strength in the dust.
 16 My face is swolle with wepinge, & myne eyes are waxen dymne.
 17 Howbeit there is no wickednesse in my hondes, and my prayer is clene.
 18 O earth, couer not my bloude, and let my crienge fynde no rowme.
 19 For lo, my witnesse is in heauen, and he that knoweth me, is aboute in the heyth.
 20 My frendes laugh me to scorne, but myne eye poureth out teares vnto God.
 21 Though a body might pleate wt God, as one man doth with another,
 22 yet the nombre of my yeares are come, & I must go the waye, from whence I shal not turne agayne.

Chapter 17

1 My breth fayleth, my dayes are shortened, I am harde at deathes dore.
 2 I haue disceaue no man, yet must myne eye continue in heuynesse
 3 O deliyuer me, and set me by the, who shall then be able to thrust my hondes together?
 4 Thou hast withholdeth their hertes from vnderstodinge, therefore shall they not be set vp an hye.
 5 He promiseth his fredes parte of his good, but his owne childe spende it.
 6 He hath made me as it were a byworde of the comon people, I am his gestinge stocke amoge the.
 7 My countenance is heuy for very anger, & the membres of my body are become like a shadowe.
 8 Vertuous me therefore shall wel cosidre this, and the innocent shal take parte agaynst the Ypocrite.
 9 The rightuous wil kepe his waye, and he yt hath cleane handes, wil euer be stronger & stronger.
 10 As for you, turne you, & get you hence, for I can not se one wyse ma amonge you.
 11 My dayes are past, my thoughtes are vanished awaye, which haue vexed myne herte, 12 chaunginge the night in to daye, & ye light in to darcknes.
 13 Though I tary neuer so moch, yet the graue is my house, and I must make my bed in the darcke.
 14 I call corrupcion my father, and the wormes call I my mother and my sister.
 15 What helpeth then my longe tarienge? Or, who wil fulfill the thinge, that I loke for?

 16 All that I haue, shall go downe in to the pytt, & lye with me in the dust.

Chapter 18

1 Then answered Baldad the Suhite, and sayde:
 2 when wil ye make an ende of youre wordes? Marcke well, and considre, we wil speake also.
 3 Wherfore are we counted as beestes, & reputed so vyle in youre sight?
 4 Why destroyest thou thy self with anger? Shal ye earth be forsaken, or the stones remoued out of their place because of ye?
 5 Shal not the light of the vngodly be put out? yee the flame of his fyre shal not burne.
 6 The light shalbe darcke in his dwellynge, & his candle shalbe put out with him.
 7 His presumptuous goinges shal be kepte in, and his owne councill shal cast him downe.
 8 For his fete shalbe taken in the nett, and he shal walke in the snare.
 9 His fote shalbe holden in the gilder, and the thurstie shal catch him.
 10 The snare is layed for him in the grounde, and a pytfall in the waye.
 11 Fearfulness shal make him afrayed on euery syde, that he shall not knowe, where to get out.
 12 Honger shalbe his substaunce, and my?fortune shall hange vpon him.
 13 He shall eate his owne skynne, yee his owne armes shall he deuoure, beynge a firstborne of death.
 14 All his comforte and hope shalbe roted out of his dwellynge, very fearfulness shall brynge him to the kynge.
 15 Other men shall dwel in his house (which now is none of his) and brymstone shalbe scatered vpon his habitacion.
 16 His rotes shalbe dryed vp beneth, & aboute shall his haruest be cut downe.
 17 His remembrance shall perish from the earth, & his name shall not be prayseed in the stretes:
 18 he shalbe dryuen from the light into darcknesse, and be cast clene out of the worlde.
 19 He shall nether haue children ner kyn?folkes amonge his people, no ner eny posterite in his countre:
 20 yonge & olde shalbe astonysed at his death.
 21 Soch are now the dwellynges of the wicked, and this is ye place of him that knoweth not God.

Chapter 19

1 Job answered, & sayde:
 2 How loge wil ye vexe my mynde, & trouble me with wordes?
 3 Lo, ten tymes haue ye reproued me: are ye not ashamed, for to laugh me so to scorne?
 4 yf I go wronge, I go wronge to my self.

5 But yf ye wil enhaunce yor selues agaynst me, & accuse me to be a wicked personne because of the shame that is come vpon me:
 6 knowe this then, yt it is God, which hath handled me so violetly, & hath compased me aboute with his scourges.
 7 Beholde, though I crie, yet violece is done vnto me, I can not be herde: Though I complaine, there is none to geue sentece with me.
 8 He hath hedged vp my path, I ca not get awaye, he hath set darcknesse in my gate.
 9 He hath spoyled me of myne honoure, & taken the crowne awaye fro my heade.
 10 He hath destroyed me on euery syde, and I am vndone: My hope hath he taken awaye fro me, as it were a tre plucte vp by the rote.
 11 His wrath is kyndled agaynst me, he taketh me, as though I were his enemy.
 12 His men of warre came together, which made their waye ouer me, and beseged my dwellinge rounde aboute.
 13 He hath put my brethren farre awaye fro me, and soch as were of myne aquauntaunce, are become straugers vnto me.
 14 Myne owne kyn?folkes haue forsaken me, and my frendes haue put me out of remembrance.
 15 The seruantes and maydens of myne owne house take me for a strauger, and I am become as an aleaunt in their sight.
 16 When I call vpon my seruaut, he geueth me no answer: no though I praie him with my mouth.
 17 Myne owne wyfe maye not abyde my breth, I am fayne to speake fayre vnto the children of myne owne body.
 18 Yee the very deserte foolles despise me, and when I am gone from them, they speake euell vpon me.
 19 All soch as were my most familiars, abhorre me: and they whom I loued best, are turned agaynst me.
 20 My bone hangeth to my skynne, and the flesh is awaye, only there is left me the skynne aboute my teth.
 21 Haue pite vpon me, haue pite vpon me (o ye my frendes) for the hande of the LORDE hath touched me.
 22 Seynge God persecuteth me, wil ye vex me also? Haue ye not yet ynough of the trouble of my flesh?
 23 O that my wordes were written, O that they were put in a boke:
 24 wolde God they were graue wt an yron pene in leade or in stone.
 25 For I am sure, that my redemer lyueth, and that I shall ryse out of the earth in the latter daye:
 26 that I shal be clothed againe with this skynne, and se God in my flesh.
 27 Yee I my self shal beholde him, not with other but with these same eyes. My reynes are consumed within me, 28 when yee saye: Why do not we persecute him? we haue founde an occasion agaynst him.
 29 But bewarre of the swearde, for the swearde wylbe avenged of wickednesse, and be sure, that there is a iudgment.

Chapter 20

1 Then answered Sophar the Naamathite, and sayde:
 2 For the same cause do my thoughtes compell me to answer. And why? my mynde is tossed here and there.
 3 I haue sufficiently herde the checkynge & reprove, therfore am I purposed to make answe after my vnderstodinge.
 4 Knowest thou not this, namely: that from the begynninge (euer sence the creacion of man vpon earth)
 5 the prayse of the vngodly hath bene shorte, and that the ioye of Ypocrytes continued but ye twincklinge of an eye?
 6 Though he be magnified vp to the heaue, so that his heade reacheth vnto the cloudes:
 7 yet he perisheth at the last like donge: In so moch yt they which haue sene him, saye: Where is he?
 8 He vanysmeth as a dreame, so that he can nomore be founde, & passeth awaye as a vision in ye night.
 9 So that the eye which sawe him before, getteth now no sight of him, & his place knoweth him nomore.
 10 His childre go a begginge, their handes bringe the to sorow and heuynesse.
 11 From his youth his bones are ful of vyce, which shal lie downe wt him in ye earth.
 12 Whe wickednesse is swete in his mouth, he hydeth it vnder his tonge.
 13 That he faouureth, that wyl he not forsake, but kepeth it close in his throte.
 14 The meate that he eateth, shalbe turned to the poyson of serpetes within his body.
 15 The riches yt he deuoureth, shall he perbreake agayne, for God shal drawe them out of his bely.
 16 The serpentes heade shall sucke him, and the adders tonge shall slaye him:
 17 so that he shal nomore se the ryuers and brokes of hony and butter:
 18 But laboure shal he, & yet haue nothinge to eate. Greate trauayle shal he make for riches, but he shal not enioye them.
 19 And why? he hath oppressed the poore, and not helped them: houses hath he spoyled, and not buylded them.
 20 His bely coude neuer be fylled, therfore shall he perish in his couetousnesse.
 21 He deuoured so gredely, yt he left nothinge behynde, therfore his goodes shal not prospere.
 22 Though he had plenteousnesse of euerythinge, yet was he poore, & therfore he is but a wretch on euery syde.
 23 For though ye wicked haue neuer so moch to fyll his bely, yet God shal sende his wrath vpon him, and cause his battayll to rayne ouer him:
 24 so that yf he fle the yron weapens, he shall be shott with the stele bowe.
 25 The arowe shal be taken forth, & go out at his backe, and a glisteringe swearde thorow ye gall of him, feare shal come vpo him.

 26 There shal no darcknes be able to hyde him. An vnkyndled fyre shal consume him, and loke what remayneth in his house, it shall be destroyed.
 27 The heauen shall declare his wickednesse, & the earth shal take parte agaynst him.
 28 The substaunce that he hath in his house, shalbe taken awaye and perish, in the daye of the LORDES wrath.
 29 This is the porcion that ye wicked shal haue of God, and the heretage that he maye loke for of the LORDE.

Chapter 21

1 Iob answered, and sayde:
 2 O heare my wordes, and amende yor selues.
 3 Suffre me a litle, that I maye speake also, and the laugh my wordes to scorne, yf ye will.
 4 Is it with a man, that I make this disputacio? Which yf it were so, shulde not my sprete be the in sore trouble?
 5 Marck me well, be aba?shed, and laye youre hade vpon youre mouth.
 6 For whe I pondre & considre this, I am afrayed, and my flesh is smytten with feare.
 7 Wherfore do wicked me lyue in health and prosperite, come to their olde age, & increase in riches?
 8 Their childers children lyue in their sight, & their generacion before their eyes.
 9 Their houses are safe from all feare, for the rodd of God doth not smyte the.
 10 Their bullocke gendreth, and that not out of tyme: their cow calueth, and is not vnfrutefull.
 11 They sende forth their children by flockes, and their sonnes lede the daunce.
 12 They beare with them tabrettes and harpes, and haue instrumentes of musick at their pleasure.
 13 They spende their dayes in welthynesse: but sodenly they go downe to hell.
 14 They saye vnto God: go from vs, we desyre not the knowlege of thy wayes.
 15 What maner of felowe is the Allmightie, that we shulde serue him? What profit shulde we haue, to submitte oure selues vnto him?
 16 Lo, there is vtterly no goodnesse in them, therfore wil not I haue to do with the councill of the vngodly.
 17 How oft shal the candle of ye wicked be put out? how oft commeth their destruccion vpon them? O what sorowe shall God geue them for their parte in his wrath?
 18 Yee they shal be euen as chaffe before the wynde, and as dust that the storme carieth awaye.
 19 And though God saue their childre from soch sorowe, yet wil he so rewarde theselues, that they shal knowe it.
 20 Their owne destruccion and misery shal they se with their eyes, and drynke of the fearfull wrath of the Allmightie.

21 For whath careth he, what become of his housholde after his death? whose monethes passe awaye swifter then an arowe.
 22 In as moch the as God hath ye hiest power of all, who can teach him eny knowlege?
 23 One dyeth now when he is mightie & at his best, rich and in prosperite:
 24 euen when his bowels are at the fattest, and his bones full of mary.
 25 Another dyeth in sorowe and heuynesse, and neuer had good daies.
 26 Now slepe they both a like in the earth, & the wormes couer them.
 27 But I knowe what ye thinke, yee and what ye ymagin agaynst me vnrightuously.
 28 For ye saye: where is the prynces palace? where is the dwellynge of the vngodly:
 29 Axe eny man that goeth by the waye, and (yf ye will not regarde their tokens & dedes) he shal tell you,
 30 that the wicked is kepte vnto the daye of destruccion, and that the vngodly shalbe brought forth in the daye of wrath.
 31 Who darre reprove him for his wayes to his face? who rewardeth him for the vngraciousnesse that he doth?
 32 Yet shal he be brought to his graue, and watch amonge the heape of the deed.
 33 The shal he be fayne to be buried amoge the stones by the broke syde. All men must folowe him, & there are innumerable gone before him.
 34 O how vayne is the comforte yt ye geue me? Are not youre answeres cleane contrary to right and treuth?

Chapter 22

1 So Eliphas the Themanite gaue answer, & sayde:
 2 Maye a man be copared vnto God in wy?dome, though he seme to himself, for to be like him?
 3 What pleasure hath God in yt thou art righteous? Or what doth it profite him, yt thy waies are perfecte?
 4 Is he afrayed to reprove the, & to steppe forth wt the in to iudgment?
 5 Cometh not this for ye greate wickednesse, & for thine vngracious dedes which are innumerable?
 6 Thou hast take the pledge from thy brethre for naught, & robbed the naked of their clothinge:
 7 To soch as were weery, hast thou geue no water to drynke, thou hast withdrawe bred fro the hungrie:
 8 Shulde soch one the as vseth violece, wroge & oppression (doinge all thinges of parcialyte, & hauynge respecte of personnes) dwell in the lode?
 9 Thou hast sent wyddowes awaye emptie and oppressed the poore fatherlesse.
 10 Therfore art thou compased aboute with snares on euery syde, & sodely vexed wt feare.
 11 Shuldest thou the se no darcknesse? Shulde not the water floude runne ouer the?

12 Now because yt God is hyer the the heauens, & because thou seist yt the starres are so hye, 13 wilt thou therfore saye: Tush, how shulde God knowe? Doth his dominion reach beyonde the cloudes?

14 Tush, the cloudes couer him, yt he maye not se, for he dwelleth in heauen.

15 Well, thou wilt kepe the olde waye, yt all wicked me haue gone:

16 both olde & yonge, whose foundation is a runnyng water,

17 which saye vnto God: go from vs, and after this maner: Tush, what wil the Allmightie do vnto vs?

18 where as he (not with stodinge) fylleth their houses wt all good. Which meanynge of the vngodly be farre fro me.

19 For wt ioy shal the godly, and with gladnesse shal the innocet se, 20 that their increase shal be hewen downe, & their posterite consumed with the fyre.

21 Therfore recocile the vnto God, & be content, so shal all thinges prospere wt the right well.

22 Receaue the lawe at his mouth, & laye vp his wordes in thine herte.

23 For yf thou wilt turne to the Allmightie, thou shalt stonde fast, & all vnrightuousnesse shall be farre from thy dwellinge:

24 He shal geue the an haruest, which in plenty & abundaunce shall excede the dust of the earth, and the golde of Ophir like ryuer stones.

25 Yee the Allmightie his owne self shalbe thine haruest, & the heape of thy money.

26 Then shalt thou haue thy delyte in the Allmightie, & lift vp thy face vnto God.

27 The shalt thou make thy prayer vnto him, & he shal heare the, & thou shalt kepe thy promyses.

28 The, loke what thou takest in honde, he shal make it to prospere with the, and the light shall shyne in thy wayes.

29 For who so humbleth himself, him shal he set vp: and who so loketh mekely, shalbe healed.

30 Yf thou be innocet, he shal saue the: and thorow the vngiltynesse of thyne handes shalt thou be delyuered.

Chapter 23

1 Job answered, and sayd:

2 My sayenge is yet this daye in bytternes, and my hande heuy amonge my groninges.

3 O that I might se him & fynde him: O that I might come before his seate,

4 to pleate my cause before him, and to fyll my mouth with argumentes:

5 That I might knowe, what answer he wolde geue me: & that I might vnderstonde, what he wolde saye vnto me.

6 Wil he pleate agaynst me with his greate power & strength, or wyl he leane him self vtterly vpon me?

7 Oh no, let him not do so with me. But let hym geue me like power to go to lawe, then am I sure to wyne my matter.

8 For though I go before, I fynde him not: yf I come behynde, I ca get no knowlege of him:

9 Yf I go on the left syde to pondre his workes, I can not atteyne vnto them: Agayne, yf I go on the right syde, he hydeth himself, yt I can not se him.

10 But as for my waye, he knoweth it: & trieth me as ye golde in ye fyre.

11 Neuertheles my fete kepe his path, his hye strete haue I holden, and not gone out of it.

12 I haue not forsaken the comaundemet of his lippes, but loke what he charged me with his mouth, that haue I shutt vp in my herte.

13 It is he himself alone, who wil turne him back? He doth as him listeth, and bryngeth to passe what he wil.

14 He rewardeth me into my bosome, & many other thinges mo doth he, as he maye by his power.

15 This is ye cause, that I shrenke at his presence, so that when I considre him, I am afrayed of him.

16 For in so moch as he is God, he maketh my herte soft: and seynge that he is Allmightie, he putteth me in feare.

17 Thus can not I get out of darcknesse, the cloude hath so couered my face.

Chapter 24

1 Consideringe then that there is no tyme hyd from the Allmightie, how happeneth it, that they which knowe him, wil not regarde his dayes?

2 For some me there be, that remoue other mes londe markes: that robbe them of their catell, and kepe the same for their owne:

3 that dryue awaye the asse of the fatherlesse: that take ye wyddowes ox for a pledge:

4 that thrust the poore out of the waye, & oppresse the symple of the worlde together.

5 Beholde, the wilde asses in ye deserte go by tymes (as their maner is) to spoyle: Yee the very wildernesse ministreth foode for their children.

6 They reape the corne felde that is not their owne: and gather the grapes out of his vynyarde, whom they haue oppressed by violence.

7 They are the cause yt so many men are naked and bare, hauyng no clothes to couer them and kepe them from colde:

8 So that when the showers in the mountaynes haue rayned vpon them, & they be all wett, they haue none other soucure, but to kepe them amonge the rockes.

9 They spoyle the suckinge fatherlesse children, and put the poore in preson:

10 In so moch that they let them go naked without clothinge, and yet the hungrie beare the sheeues.

11 The poore are fayne to laboure in their oyle mylles, yee and to treade in their wyne presses, and yet to suffre thyrst.

12 The whole cite crieth vnto the LORDE with sighinge, the soules of the slayne make their complaynte: But God destroyeth them not for all this, 13 where as they (not wt stodinge) are rebellious and disobedient enemies: which seke not his light and waye, ner turne agayne in to his path.

14 Tymely in the mornyng do they aryse, to murthur the symple and poore, & in the night they go a stealinge.

15 The eye of the vngodly is like the aduouerter, that wayteth for the darcknesse, and sayeth thus in him self: Tush, there shal no ma se me, & so he disgyseth his face.

16 In the night season they search the houses, and hyde them selues in the daye tyme, but wil not knowe ye light

17 For as soone as the daye breaketh, the shadowe of death commeth vpo them, and they go in horrible darcknesse.

18 The vngodly is very swyft: O yt his porcio also vpo earth were swyfter then ye runnyng water, which suffreth not ye shipma to beholde the fayre & pleasaut vnyiardes.

19 O yt they (for the wickednesse which they haue done) were drawn to the hell, sooner the snowe melteth at the heate.

20 O yt all copassion vpon the were forgotte: yt their daynties were wormes: that they were clene put out of remembraunce, & vtterly hewe downe like an vnfrutefull tre.

21 For they manteyne the baren, & make them yt they can not beare, & vnto wyddowes they do no good.

22 They plucke downe the mightie wt their power, & when they them selues are gotten vp, they are neuer without feare, as longe as they liue.

23 And though they might be safe, yet they wil not receaue it, for their eyes loke vpon their owne wayes.

24 They are exalted for a litle, but shortly are they gone, brought to extreme pouerte, & take out of the waye: yee & vtterly plucte of as the eares of corne.

25 Is it not so? Who wil the reprove me as a lyar, & saye yt my wordes are nothinge worth?

Chapter 25

1 Then answered Baldad the Suhite, & sayde:

2 Power & feare is with him aboue, that maketh peace (sittinge) in his hynesse, 3 whose men of warre are innumerable, and whose light aryseth ouer all.

4 But how maye a man copared vnto God, be iustified? Or, how can he be clene, that is borne of a woman?

5 Beholde, the Moone shyneth nothinge in comparison to him, & the starres are vnclene in his sight.

6 How moch more the, ma, that is but corrupcion: and the sonne of man, which is but a worme?

Chapter 26

1 Job answered, and sayde:

2 O how helpeth thou the weake? what comforte geuest thou vnto him that hath no strenght?

3 Where is ye coucell yt thou shuldest geue him, which hath no wy?dome? Wilt thou so shewe thine excellent rightuousnes?

4 Before whom hast thou spoken those wordes? Who made the breth to come out of ye mouth?

5 The giauntes & worthies yt are slayne, & lye vnder ye worlde wt their copanions:

6 yee & all they which dwell beneth in the hell are not hyd fro him, & the very destruccion it self ca not be kepte out of his sight.

7 He stretcheth out ye north ouer the emptie, & hagethe ye earth vpo nothinge.

8 He byndeth ye water in his cloudes, that they fall not downe together.

9 He holdeth back his stole, that it caa not be sene, and spredeth his cloudes before it.

10 He hath copased the waters wt certayne boundes, vntill the daye & night come to an ende.

11 The very pilers of heaue treble & quake at his reprove.

12 He stilleth the see with his power, & thorow his wy?dome hath he set forth ye worlde.

13 With his sprete hath he garnished the heaues, & with his hande hath he wounded the rebellious serpet.

14 This is now a shorte summe of his doynge. But who is able sufficiently to rehearse his workes? Who can perceaue and vnderstonde ye thondre of his power?

Chapter 27

1 Job also proceeded and wete forth in his comunicacion, sayege:

2 As truly as God lyueth (which hath taken awaye my power fro me) & the Allmightie, that hath vexed my mynde:

3 My lippes shall talke of no vanite, and my tonge shal speake no disceate,

4 whyle my breth is in me, and as longe as the wynde (that God hath geuen me) is in my nostrels.

5 God forbydde, that I shulde graunte youre cause to be right. As for me, vntill myne ende come wil I neuer go fro myne innocency.

6 My rightuous dealyng wil I kepe fast, & not forsake it: For my conscience reproueth me not in all my conuersacion.

7 Therfore myne enemy shalbe founde as the vngodly, & he yt taketh parte agaynst me, as the vnrightuous.

8 What hope hath ye Ypocrite, though he haue greate good, and though God geue him riches after his hertes desyre?

9 Doth God heare him the sooner, whe he crieth vnto him in his necessite?

10 Hath he soch pleasure & delyte in the Allmightie, that he darre allwaye call vpon God?

11 I wil teach you in the name of God, & the thinge that I haue of ye Allmightie, wil I not kepe from you.

12 Beholde, ye stonde in yor owne conceate, as though ye knew all thinges. Wherefore then do ye go aboute wt soch wayne wordes, 13 sayege: This is the porcion that the wicked shall haue of God, & the heretage that Tyrautes shal receaue of ye Allmightie.

14 Yf he get many childre, they shal perish wt the swearde, & his posterite shall haue scarcenesse of bred.

15 Loke whom he leaueth behinde him, they shal dye & be buried, & no man shall haue pite of his wyddowes.

16 Though he haue as moch money as the dust of the earth, & raymet as ready as the claye, 17 he maye well prepare it: but the godly shal put it vpon him, and the innocet shal deale out the money.

18 His house shal endure as the moth, & as a bothe that the watch man maketh.

19 When the rich man dyeth, he carieth nothinge with him: he is gone in ye twincklynge of an eye.

20 Destruccion taketh holde vpo him as a water floude, & ye tepest stealeth him awaye in the night season.

21 A vehement wynde carieth him hence, & departeth: a storme plucketh him out of his place.

22 It ru'sheth in vpon him, and spareth him not, he maye not escape from the power therof.

23 Than clappe me their hodes at him, yee and ieast of him, whe they loke vpon his place.

Chapter 28

1 There are places where syluer is molte, & where golde is tryed:

2 where yron is dygged out of the grounde, & stones resolued to metall.

3 The darcknes shal once come to an ende, he can seke out the grounde of all thinges: the stones, the darcke, & the horrible shadowe,

4 wt the ryuer of water parteth he a sunder the straunge people, yt knoweth no good neghbourheade: soch as are rude, vnmanerly & boysteous.

5 He bryngeth foode out of the earth, & yt which is vnder, consumeth he with fyre.

6 There is founde a place, whose stones are clene Saphirs, and where ye clottes of the earth are golde.

7 There is a waye also that the byrdes knowe not, that no vulturs eye hath sene: 8 wherin ye proude & hye mynded walke not, & where no lyon commeth.

9 There putteth he his honde vpon the stony rockes, & ouerthroweth the mountaynes.

10 Ryuers flowe out of the rockes, & loke what is pleasaunt, his eye seyth it.

11 Out of droppes bryngeth he greate floudes together, & the thinge that is hyd bryngeth he to light.

12 How commeth a man then by wy?dome? Where is the place that men fynde vnderstandinge?

13 Verely no man can tell how worthy a thinge she is, nether is she foude in the lode of the lyuynge.

14 The depe sayeth: she is not in me. The see sayeth: she is not with me.

15 She can not be gotten for the most fyne golde, nether maye the pryce of her be bought with eny moneye.

16 No wedges of golde of Ophir, no precious Onix stones, no Saphirs maye be buyed vnto her.

17 No, nether golde ner Christall, nether swete odours ner golden plate.

18 There is nothinge so worthy, or so excellet, as once to be named vnto her: for perfecte wy?dome goeth farre beyonde the all.

19 The Topas that cometh out of Inde, maye in no wyse be lickened vnto her: yee no maner of apparell how pleasaunt and fayre so euer it be.

20 From whece then commeth wy?dome? & where is the place of vnderstandinge?

21 She is hyd from the eyes of all men, yee & fro the foules of the ayre.

22 Destruccion & death saie: we haue herde tell of her wt oure eares.

23 But God seyth hir waie, & knoweth hir place.

24 For he beholdeth the endes of the worlde, and loketh vpon all that is vnder the heaue.

25 When he weyed the wyndes, & measured ye waters:

26 when he set the rayne in ordre, and gaue the mightie floudes a lawe:

27 Then dyd he se her, the declared he her, prepared her and knewe her.

28 And vnto man he sayde: Beholde, to feare the LORDE, is wy?dome: & to forsake euell, is vnderstandinge.

Chapter 29

1 So Iob proceeded and wete forth in his comunicacion, sayenge:

2 O yt I were as I was in the monethes by past, & in the dayes whe God preserued me:

3 when his light shyned vpon my heade: whe I wente after the same light & shyne eue thorow the darcknesse.

4 As it stode wt me, whe I was welthy & had ynough: whe God prospered my house:

5 when the allmightie was with me: when my housholde folkes stode aboute me:

6 whe my wayes ranne ouer wt butter, & when the stony rockes gaue me ryuers of oyle:

7 when I wente thorow the cite vnto the gate, & whe they set me a chayre in ye strete:

8 whe the yonge me (as soone as they sawe me) hyd the selues, & when the aged arose, & stode vp vnto me:

9 whe the princes left of their talkinge, & laied their hade to their mouth:

10 whe the mightie kepte still their voyce, and whe their tonges cleued to the rofe of their mouthes.

11 When all they yt herde me, called me happie: & when all they yt sawe me, wysshed me good.

12 For I delyuered ye poore whe he cried, & the fatherlesse yt wanted helpe.

13 He yt shulde haue bene lost, gaue me a good worde, & ye widdowes hert praised me.

14 And why? I put vpon me rightuousnes, which couered me as a garmet, & equite was my crowne.

15 I was an eye vnto the blynde, & a fote to the lame.

16 I was a father vnto the poore, & whe I knew not their cause, I sought it out diligetly.

17 I brake the chaffes of ye vnrightuous, & plucte the spoyle out of their teth.

18 Therefore, I thought verely, yt I shulde haue dyed in my nest: & yt my dayes shulde haue bene as many as the sondes of the see.

19 For my rote was spred out by the waters syde, & the dew laye vpo my corne.

20 My honor encreased more & more, and my bowe was euer the stronger in my hande.

21 Vnto me men gaue eare, me they regarded, & wt sylence they taried for my coucell.

22 Yf I had spoken, they wolde haue it none other wayes, my wordes were so well taken amonge the.

23 They wayted for me, as the earth doth for the rayne: & gaped vpon me, as the groude doth to receaue the latter shower.

24 When I laughed, they knew well it was not earnest: & this testimony of my coutenance pleased the nothinge at all.

25 When I agreed vnto their waye, I was the chefe, & sat as a kynge amonge his seruantes: Or as one that comforteth soch as be in heuynesse.

Chapter 30

1 Bvt now they that are my inferiours & yonger then I, haue me in derision: yee eue they, whose fathers I wolde haue thought scorne to haue set wt the dogges of my catell.

2 The power & strenght of their hades might do me no good, & as for their age, it is spet & past awaye without eny profit.

3 For very misery & honger, they wente aboute in the wildernesses like wretches & beggers,

4 pluckyng vp herbes from amonge the bu'shes, & the Iunipers rote was their meate.

5 And when they were dryuen forth, men cried after them, as it had bene after a thiefe.

6 Their dwellinge was beside foule brokes, yee in the caues & dennes of the earth.

7 Vpo the drye heeth wete they aboute crienge, & in the brome hilles they gathered them together.

8 They were the children of fooles & vylanes, which are deed awaye fro the worlde.

9 Now am I their songe, & am become their iestinge stocke.

10 they abhorre me, they fle farre fro me & stayne my face wt spetle.

11 For ye LORDE hath opened his quyuer, he hath hytt me, & put a brydle in my mouth.

12 Vpon my right hade they rose together agaynst me, they haue hurte my fete, made awaye to destroye me, 13 & my path haue they clene marred. It was so easy for them to do me harme, that they neded no man to helpe the.

14 They fell vpon me, as it had bene ye breakynge in of waters, & came in by heapes to destroye me.

15 Fearfulnesse is turned agaynst me. Myne honoure vanisheth awaye more swiftly then wynde, & my prosperite departeth hece like as it were a cloude.

16 Therefore is my mynde poured full of heuynesse, & ye dayes of trouble haue take holde vpon me.

17 My bones are pearsed thorow in ye night season, & my synewes take no rest.

18 With all their power haue they chaunged my garmet, & gyrded me therwith, as it were wt a coate.

19 I am eue as it were claye, & am become like ashes & dust.

20 Whe I crie vnto the, thou doest not heare me: & though I stonde before the, yet thou regardest me not.

21 Thou art become myne enemye, & wt yi violet hade thou takest parte agaynst me.

22 In tymes past thou didest set me vp an hye, as it were aboute ye winde, but now hast thou geue me a very sore fall.

23 Sure I am, yt thou wilt delyuer me vnto death: where as a lodgyng is prepared for all me

24 Now vse not me to do violece vnto the, yt are destroyed allready: but where hurte is done, there vse thei to helpe.

25 Dyd not I wepe in ye tyme of trouble? Had not my soule copassion vpo ye poore?

26 Yet neuerthelesse where as I loked for good, euell happened vnto me: and where as I waited for light, there came darcknesse.

27 My bowels seeth wt in me & take no rest, for ye dayes of my trouble are come vpo me.

28 Mekely & lowly came I in, yee & without eny displeasure: I stode vp in ye cogregacion, & commoned with the 29 But now. I am a copanyon of dragons, & a felowe of Esiriches.

30 My skynne vpo me is turned to black, & my bones are bret wt heate:

31 my harpe is turned to sorow, & my pipe to wepinge.

Chapter 31

1 I made a couenant wt myne eyes, yt I wolde not loke vpo a dasell.

2 For how greate a porcio shal I haue of God fro aboute? & what enheritaue fro ye Almightye on hie?

3 As for the vngodly & he yt ioyneth himself to ye copani of wicked doers shal not destruccion & misery came vpon him?

 4 Doth not he se my wayes, & tell all my goinges?
 5 Yf I haue cleued vnto vanite, or yf my fete haue runne to disceau:
 6 let me be weyed in an eauen balaunce, that God maye se my innocency.
 7 Yf so be that I haue withdrawen my fote out of the right waye, yf my hert hath folowed myne eyesight, yf I haue stayned or defyled my hodes:
 8 O then is it reason that I sowe, and another eate: yee that my generacion and posterite be clene roted out.
 9 Yf my hert hath lusted after my neighbours wife, or yf I haue layed wayte at his dore:
 10 O then let my wife be another mans harlot, and let other lye with her.
 11 For this is a wickednesse and synne, that is worthy to be punyshed, 12 yee a fyre that vtterly shulde consume, & rote out all my substance.
 13 Dyd I euer thynke scorne to do right vnto my seruantes and maydens, when they had eny matter agaynst me?
 14 But seyng that God wil sytt in iudgment, what shal I do? And for so moch as he wil nedes vyset me, what answere shal I geue him?
 15 He that fashioned me in my mothers wombe, made he not him also? were we not both shappen alyke in oure mothers bodies?
 16 When the poore desyred anythinge at me, haue I denied it them? Haue I caused ye wyddowe stonde waytinge for me in vayne?
 17 Haue I eaten my porcion alone, that the fatherles hath had no parte with me?
 18 (for mercy grewe vp with me fro my youth, & compassion fro my mothers wombe.)
 19 Haue I sene eny man perish thorow nakednes & want of clothinge? Or, eny poore man for lack of rayment, 20 whose sydes thanked me not, because he was warmed wt ye woll of my shepe?
 21 Dyd I euer lyft vp my honde to hurte the fatherlesse? Yee in the gate where I sawe my self to be in auctorite:
 22 The let myne arme fall fro my shulder, & myne arme holes be broken from the ioyntes.
 23 For I haue euer feared ye vengeaunce & punyshmet of God, & knew very well, yt I was not able to beare his burthe.
 24 Haue I put my trust in golde? Or, haue I sayde to the fynest golde of all: thou art my confidenc?
 25 Haue I reioysed because my substance was greate, and because my honde gat so moch?
 26 Dyd I euer greatly regarde the rysinge of the Sonne? Or, had I the goinge downe of ye Moone in greate reputacion?
 27 Hath my hert medled priuely wt eny disceate? Or, dyd I euer kysse myne owne honde
 28 (that were a wickednesse worthy to be punyshed, for then shulde I haue denied the God that is aboue.)

29 Haue I euer reioysed at the hurte of myne enemy? Or, was I euer glad, yt eny harme happened vnto him? Oh no, 30 I neuer suffred my mouth to do soch a sinne, as to wysch him euell.
 31 Yet they of myne owne housholde saye: who shal let vs, to haue oure bely ful of his flesh?
 32 I haue not suffred a straunger to lye wt out, but opened my dores vnto him.
 33 Haue I euer done eny wicked dede where thorow I shamed my self before men: Or eny abhominacion, yt I was fayne to hyde it?
 34 For yf I had feared eny greate multitude of people: Or yf I had bene dispysed of ye symple, Oh then shulde I haue bene afrayed. Thus haue I quyetly spent my lyfe, and not gone out at ye dore.
 35 O that I had one which wolde heare me. Lo, this is my cause. Let ye Allmightie geue me answere: & let him that is my cotrary party, sue me with a lybell.
 36 Then shall I take it vpon my shulder, & as a garlade aboute my heade.
 37 I haue tolde the nombre of my goinges, and delyuered them vnto him as to a prynce.
 38 But yf case be that my londe crie agaynst me, or yt the forowes therof make eny complaynte:
 39 yf I haue eaten the frutes therof vn timerly, or yf I haue greued eny of the plow men:
 40 Than, let thistles growe in steade of my wheate, & thornes for my barleye. Here ende the wordes of Iob.

Chapter 32

1 So these thre men wolde stryue nomore wt Iob, because he helde himself a righteous man.
 2 But Eliu the sonne of Barachel the Bussite of the kynred of Ram, was very sore displeased at Iob, that he called himself iust before God.
 3 And with Iobs thre fredes he was angrie also, because they had founde no reasonable answere to ouercome him.
 4 Now taried Eliu till they had ended their comunicacion with Iob, for why? they were elder then he.
 5 So when Eliu ye sonne of Barachel ye Bussite sawe, that these thre men were not able to make Iob answere, he was myscontent:
 6 so that he gaue answere himself, and sayde: Considerinve yt I am yonge, & ye be men of age, I was afrayed, & durst not shewe forth my mynde,
 7 for I thought thus within my self: It becometh olde men to speake, & the aged to teach wy?dome.
 8 Euery ma (no doute) hath a mynde, but it is the inspyracion of the Allmightie that geueth vnderstandinge.
 9 All men are not wyse, nether doth euery aged man vnderstonde the thinge that is lauffull.
 10 Therefore wil I speake also (in so farre as I maye be herde) & wil shewe yow myne opinyon.

 11 For whe I had wayted till ye made an ende of youre talkynge, & herde youre wy?dome, what argumetes ye made in youre comunicacion:
 12 yee when I had diligently pondred what ye sayde, I founde not one of you that made eny good argument agaynst Iob, or that directly coude make answere vnto his wordes:
 13 lest ye shulde prayse youre selues, to haue founde out wy?dome: because it is God that hath cast him out, & no man.
 14 Neuerthelesse, seyng he hath not spoken vnto me, therfore will not I answere him as ye haue done 15 (for they were so aba?shed, that they coude not make answere, ner speake one worde)
 16 but in so moch as ye wil not speake, stondinge still like dom men & makinge no answere:
 17 I haue a good hope for my parte to shappe him an answere & to shewe him my meanyng.
 18 For I am full of wordes, & the sprete that is within me, copelleth me.
 19 Beholde, I am as the new wyne which hath no vente, & bursteth the new vessels in sunder.
 20 Therefore wil I speake, that I maye haue vete: I wil open my lypes, and make answere.
 21 I will regarde no maner of persone, no man wil I spare.
 22 For yf I wolde go aboute to please me, I knowe not how soone my maker wolde take me awaye.

Chapter 33

1 Wherefore, heare my wordes (O Iob) & herken vnto all, that I wyll saye:
 2 Beholde, I wil open my mouth, & my tonge shal speake out of my chawes.
 3 My hert shall ordre my wordes a right, & my lypes shal talke of pure wy?dome.
 4 The sprete of God hath made me, & the breth of the Allmightie hath geue me my life.
 5 Yf thou cast, then geue me answere: prepare thy self to stode before me face to face.
 6 Beholde, before God am I euen as thou, for I am fashioned and made eue of the same moule.
 7 Therefore, thou nedest not be afrayed of me, nether nedest thou to feare, that my auctorite shal be to heuy for the.
 8 Now hast thou spoken in myne eares, & I haue herde ye voyce of thy wordes:
 9 I am clene without eny fawte, I am innocent, & there is no wickednesse in me.
 10 But lo, he hath pyked a quarell agaynst me, & taketh me for his enemy:
 11 he hath put my fote in the stockes, & loketh narrowly vnto all my pathes.
 12 Beholde, vnto these vnreasonable wordes of thyne wil I make answere. Shulde God be reproued of man?
 13 Why doest thou then stryue agaynst him, because he geueth the no accomptes of all his doinges?

 14 For whe God doth once commaunde a thinge, there shulde no man be curious, to search whether it be right.
 15 In dreames and visions of the night season (when slombryng cometh vpo me, that they fall a slepe in their beddes)
 16 he rowneth them in the eares, he infourmeth them, & sheweth the planely, 17 that it is he, which withdraweth man from euell, delyuereth him from pryde, 18 kepeth his soule from destruccion, & his life from ye swearde.
 19 he chasteneth him with sicknesse, & bringeth him to his bed: he laieth sore punyshmet vpo his bones,
 20 so that his life maye awaye wt no bred, & his soule abhorreth to eate eny dayntie meate:
 21 In so moch, that his body is clene consumed awaye, & his bones appeare nomore.
 22 His soule draweth on to destruccion, & his life to death.
 23 Now yf there be an angel (one amonge a thousande) sent for to speake vnto ma, and to shewe him the right waye:
 24 the the LORDE is mercifull vnto him, & sayeth: He shalbe delyuered, yt he fall not downe to destruccion, for I am sufficiently recociled.
 25 Than his flesh (which hath bene in misery & trouble) shalbe, as it was in his youth.
 26 For yf he submitte himself vnto God, he is gracious, & sheweth him his countenance ioyfully, & rewardeth man for his righteousnes.
 27 Soch a respecte hath he vnto me. Therefore let a man cofesse, (& saye:) I offended, but he hath chastened & reformed me: I dyd vnrightuously, neuerthelesse he hath not recopensed me thereafter.
 28 Yee he hath delyuered my soule from destruccion, & my life, that it seyth ye light.
 29 Lo, thus worketh God allwaie with ma,
 30 that he kepeth his soule from perishinge, & latteth him enjoye the light of ye lyuinge.
 31 Marke well (O Iob) & heare me: holde the still, vntill I haue spoken.
 32 But yf thou hast eny thinge to saye, then answere me and speake, for thy answere pleaseth me.
 33 Yf thou hast nothings, then heare me, and holde thy tonge, so shal I teach the wy?dome.

Chapter 34

1 Eliu proceeded forth in his comunicacion, & sayde:
 2 Heare my wordes (O ye wyse men) herken vnto me, ye yt haue vnderstandinge.
 3 For like as the mouth tasteth the meates, so the eare proueth & discerneth the wordes.
 4 As for the iudgmet, let vs seke it out amonge or selues, yt we maye knowe what is right.

5 And why? Iob hath sayde: I am righteous, but God doth me wronge.

6 I must nedes be a lyar, though my cause be right: & violetly am I plaged, where as I made no fawte.

7 where is there soch one as Iob, yt drinketh vp scornfulnes like water?

8 which goeth in ye company of wicked doers, & walketh wt vngodly me?

9 For he saith: Though a ma be good, yet is he naught before God.

10 Therefore herke vnto me, ye yt haue vnderstondinge. Farre be it from God, that he shulde medle with wickednesse: and farre be it from the Allmightie, yt he shulde medle with vnrightuous dealyng: 11 but he rewardeth the workes of man, and causeth euery man to fynde acordinge to his wayes.

12 For sure it is, that God codemneth no man wrongeously, and the iudgmet of the Allmightie is not vnrightuous.

13 Who ruleth the earth in his steade? Or, whom hath he set to gouerne the whole worlde?

14 To whom hath he geuen his herte, for to drawe his sprete and breth vnto him?

15 All flesh shal come together vnto naught, & all me shal turne agayne vnto earth.

16 Yf thou now haue vnderstondinge, heare what I saye and herken to the voyce of my wordes.

17 Maye he be made whole, that loueth no right? Yf thou were a very innocent man, shuldest thou then be punyshed?

18 For he is euen the same, yt knoweth the rebellious kynges, & sayeth to princes:

19 Vngodly men are ye He hath no respecte vnto the personnes of ye lordly, & regardeth not the rich more the poore. For they be all the worke of his hondes. 20 In the twinklinge off an eye shall they be slayne: and at mydnight, when the people & the tyrauntes rage, then shall they perish, ad be taken awaye with out hondes.

21 And why? his eyes loke vpon the wayes of man, and he seyth all his goinges.

22 There is no darcknes ner thicke shadowe, yt can hyde the wicked doers from him.

23 For no ma shalbe suffred to go into iudgment with God.

24 Many one, yee innumerable doth he punyshe and setteth other in their steades.

25 For he knoweth their euell & darcke workes, therefore shal they be destroyed.

26 They that were in ye steade of Seers, dealt like vngodly me.

27 Therefore turned they back traytorously and vnfaithfully fro hi, & wolde not receaue his wayes.

28 In so moch that they haue caused ye voyce of the poore to come vnto him, & now he heareth the copleynthe of such as are in necessite.

29 Yf he delyuer & graunte pardo, who will iudge or condemne? But yf he hyde awaye his countenance, who will turne it aboute agayne, whether it be to the people or to eny man?

30 For the wickednesse & synne of ye people, he maketh an ypocrite to reigne ouer the.

31 For so moch then as I haue begonne to talke of God, I wil not hyndre the.

32 Yf I haue gone amysse, enfourme me: yf I haue done wronge, I wil leaue of.

33 Wilt thou not geue a reasonable answeere? Art thou afrayed of eny thinge, seyng thou beganest first to speake, & not I?

34 For els the men of vnderstondinge & wisdome that haue herde me, might saye: What cast thou speake?

35 As for Iob he hath nether spoken to the purpose ner wysely.

36 O father, let Iob be well tryed, because he he hath turned himself to ye wicked:

37 yee aboute his synnes he hath blasphemed, which offence he hath done euen before vs, in yt he stryueh agaynst God with his wordes.

Chapter 35

1 Eliu spake morouer, and sayde:

2 Thinkest thou it right that thou sayest: I am righteous before God

3 Seinge thou sayest so, how doest thou knowe it? What thinge hast thou more excellet, the I yt am a synner?

4 Therefore will I geue answeere vnto the & thy frendes:

5 loke vnto the heaue, & beholde it: cosidre ye cloudes, how they are hyer then thou.

6 Yf thou synnest, what dost thou vnto him? Yf thine offences be many, how gettest thou his faouere?

7 Yf thou be righteous, what geuest thou him? Or, what receaueh he of thy handes?

8 Of soch an vngodly personne as thou, & of ye sonne of man that is righteous as thou pretendest to be:

9 there is a greate crie & copleynthe made by the that are oppressed with violence, yee eueryman complayneth vpon the cruell arme of tyrauntes.

10 For soch one neuer sayeth: Where is God that made me? ad yt shyneth vpon vs, that we might prayse him in the night?

11 Which geueth vs more vnderstondinge then he doth the beastes of the earth, and teacheth vs more then the foules off heaue.

12 Yf eny soch complayne, no ma geueth answeere, and yt because of the wickednesse off proude tyrauntes.

13 But yf a man call vpon God, doth not he heare him? Doth not the Almightye accepte his crie?

14 Wha thou speakest then, shulde not he pardon the, yff thou open thyself before him, and put thy trust in him?

15 Then vseth he no violence in his wrath nether hath he pleasure in curious and depe inquisicions.

16 Therefore hath Iob opened his mouth but in vayne, ad folishly hath he made so many wordes.

Chapter 36

1 Eliu proceeded forth in his talkinge, & sayde:

2 holde the still a litle, and I shal shewe the, what I haue yet to speake on Gods behalfe.

3 I wil open vnto ye yet more of myne vnderstondinge, and proue my maker righteous.

4 True are my wordes, & no lye: and the knowlege wherwithall I argue agaynst the, is perfecte.

5 Beholde, God casteth not awaye ye mightie, for he himselff is mightie in power and wisdome.

6 As for the vngodly, he preserueth the not but helpeth the poore to their right.

7 He turneth not his eyes awaye from the righteous he setteth vp kynges in their Trone, and cofirmeth them, so that they allwaye syt therin.

8 But yf they be layed in preson and cheynes, or bounde with the bondes of pouerte:

9 then sheweth he them their workes ad dedes and the synnes wherwt they haue vsed cruell violence.

10 He with punyshinge and nurturinge off them, rowneth them in the eares, warneth them to leaue of from their wickednesse, and to amende.

11 Yf they now will take hede and be obedient, they shall weere out their dayes in prosperite, and their yeares in pleasure ad ioye.

12 But yff they will not obeye, they shall go thorow the swearde, & perish or euer they be aware.

13 As for soch as be fayned, dyssemblers and ypocrites, they heape vp wrath for them selues: for they call not vpon him, though they be his presoners.

14 Thus their soule perisheth in foolishnesse, and their lyfe wt ye condened.

15 The poore delyuereth he out of his straytnesse, and comforteth soch as be in necessite and trouble.

16 Euen so shall he kepe the (yf thou wilt be content) from the bottomlesse pytte that is beneth: & yf thou wilt holde the quete, he shal fyll thy table with plenteousnesse.

17 Neuerthelesse, thou hast condemned the iudgment of the vngodly, yee euen soch a iudgment and sentence shalt thou suffre.

18 For then shal not thy cause be stilled with crueltie, ner pacified with many giftes.

19 Hath God ordened then, that the glorious life off the & all soch mightie men shulde not be put downe?

20 Prolonge not thou the tyme, till there come a night for the, to set other people in thy steade.

21 But beware that thou turne not asyde to wickednesse and synne, which hyther to thou hast chosen more then mekenesse.

22 Beholde, God is of a mightie hye power: Where is there soch a gyde and lawegeuer as he?

23 Who wil reprove him of his waye? who wil saye vnto him: thou hast done wronge?

24 O considre how greate and excellent his workes be, whom all men loaue and prayse:

25 yee wondre at him, and yet they se him but afarre of.

26 Beholde, so greate is God, that he passeth oure knowlege, nether are we able to come to ye experiece of his yeares.

27 He turneth ye water to smaldroppes, he dryueth his cloudes

28 together for to rayne, so that they poure downe and droppe vpon men.

29 He can sprede out the cloudes (a couerynge off his tabernacle)

30 and cause his light to shyne vpo them, and to couer the botome of the see.

31 By these thinges gouerneth he his people, and geueth the abundaunce of meate.

32 In ye turnyng of a hande he hydeth the light, & at his commaundement it commeth agayne.

33 The rysyng vp therof sheweth he to his frendes and to the catell.

Chapter 37

1 At this my hert is astonnied, and moued out of his place.

2 Heare then the sounde of his voyce, and the noyse yt goeth out of his mouth.

3 He gouerneth euery thinge vnder the heauen, and his light reacheth vnto the ende of the worlde.

4 A roaringe voyce foloweth him: for his glorious magesty geueth soch a thondre clappe, that (though a man heare it) yet maye he not perceaue it afterwarde. It geueth an horrible sounde, 5 when God sendeth out his voyce: greate thinges doth he, which we can not coprehende.

6 When he commaundeth the snowe, it falleth vpon the earth: As soone as he geueth the rayne a charge, Immediatly the showers haue their strength and fall downe

7 He sendeth feare vpon euery man, that they might knowe their owne workes.

8 The beestes crepe in to their dennes, & take their rest.

9 Out of the south commeth the tempest, and colde out of the north.

10 At the breth of God, the frost commeth, & the waters are shed abroad.

11 The cloudes do their labour in geuyng moystnesse, the cloudes poure downe their rayne.

12 He distributeth also on euery syde, acordinge as it pleaseth him to deale out his workes, that they maye do, what so euer he commaundeth the thorow the whole worlde:

13 whether it be to punysh eny londe, or to do good vnto them, that seke him.

14 Herken vnto this (o Iob) stonde still, and conside the wonderous workes of God.

15 Art thou of coucel with God, when he doth these thinges? When he causeth the light to come forth of his cloudes?

16 Art thou of his coucell, when he spredeth out the cloudes? Hast thou the perfecte knowlege of his wonders?

17 and how thy clothes are warme, when the lode is still thorow the south wynde?

18 hast thou helped him to spred out the heauen, which is to loke vpo, as it were cast of cleare metall?

19 Teach vs what we shal saye vnto hi, for we are vnmete because of darcknes.

20 Shal it be tolde him, what I saye? Shulde a man speake, or shulde he kepe it backe?

21 For euery ma seith not the light, yt he kepeth cleare in the cloudes, which he clenseth when he maketh the wynde to blowe.

22 Golde is brought out of the north, but the prayse and honoure off Gods feare commeth fro God himself.

23 It is not we that can fynde out the allmightie: for in power, equite and rigtuousnesse he is hyer then can be expressed.

24 Seinge then that euery body feareth him, why shulde not all wyse men also stode in feare of hi?

Chapter 38

1 Then spake the LORDE vnto Iob out of the storme, and sayde:

2 what is he, that hydeth his mynde with foolysh wordes?

3 Gyrde vp thy loynes like a ma, for I will question the, se thou geue me a dyrecte answere.

4 Where wast thou, when I layed ye foundations of the earth? Tell planely yff thou hast vnderstandinge.

5 Who hath measured it, knowest thou? Or, who hath spred ye lyne vpon it?

6 Where vpon stode the pilers of it? Or, who layed ye corner stone?

7 where wast thou when the mornynge starres gaue me prayse, ad when all the angels of God reioysed?

8 Who shutt the see with dores, when it brake forth as a childe out off his mothers wombe?

9 When I made the cloudes to be a coueringe for it, and swedled it with ye darcke?

10 when I gaue it my comaundement, makinge dores & barres for it,

11 sayenge: Hither to shalt thou come, but no further, and here shalt thou laye downe thy proude and hye wawes.

12 Hast thou geue the mornynge his charge (as soone as thou wast borne) and shewed the dayespringe his place, 13 yt it might take holde of the corners of the earth, & yt the vngodly might be shake out?

14 Their tokes & weapes hast thou turned like claye, & set the vp agayne as the chaunginge of a garment.

15 Yee thou hast spoyled the vngodly off their light, & broke the arme of the proude.

16 Camest thou euer into the groude of the see, Or, hast thou walked in ye lowe corners of ye depe?

17 Haue the gates of death bene opened vnto the or hast thou sene the dore of euerlastige treasure?

18 Hast thou also perceaued, how brode ye earth is? Now yf thou hast knowlege of all,

19 the shewe me where light dwelleth, and where darcknes is:

20 yt thou mayest bringe vs vnto their quarters, yf thou cast tell the waye to their houses.

21 Knewest thou (when thou wast borne) how olde thou shuldest be?

22 Wentest thou euer in to the treasures off the snowe, or hast thou sene ye secrete places of the hale:

23 which I haue prepared agaynst the tyme of trouble, agaynst the tyme of batell & warre?

24 By what waye is the light parted, & the heate dealt out vpon earth?

25 Who deuydeth the abundaunce of waters in to ryuers, or who maketh a waye for the stormy wether,

26 yt it watereth & moystureth ye drye & baren grounde:

27 to make the grasse growe in places where no body dwelleth, & in the wildernes where no ma remayneth?

28 Who is the father of rayne? Or, who hath begotten the droppes of dew?

29 Out of whose wobe came the yse? who hath gendred the coldnes of ye ayre?

30 yt the waters are as harde as stones, & lye congeeled aboute the depe.

31 Hast thou brought ye vij. starres together? Or, art thou able to breake the Circle of heaue?

32 Cast thou bringe forth the mornynge starre or the euenynge starre at couenient tyme, & coueye the home agayne?

33 Knowest thou the course off heaue, yt thou mayest set vp the ordinaunce therof vpo earth?

34 Morouer, cast thou lift vp thy voyce to ye cloudes, yt they maye poure downe a greate rayne vpo the?

35 Canst thou thodre also yt they maye go their waye, & be obediet vnto the, sayege: lo, here are we?

36 Who geueth sure wisdome, or stedfast vnderstodinge?

37 who nombreth the cloudes in wisdome? who stilleth ye vehement waters of the heaue?

38 who turneth the clottes to dust, & the to be clottes agayne?

39 Hunttest thou the praye fro the Lyon, or fedest thou his whelpes

40 lyege in their denes & lurkinge in their couches?

41 who prouydeth meate for the rauens, whe his yonge ones crie vnto God, ad fle aboute for want of meate?

Chapter 39

1 Knowest thou the tyme when the wilde

gotes brige forth their yoge amoge the stony rockes? Or layest thou wayte when the hindes vse to fawne?

2 Rekenest thou the monethes after they ingendre, yt thou knowest the tyme of their bearinge?

3 Or when they lye downe, when they cast their yonge ones, & when they are delyuered off their trauayle & payne?

4 How their yoge ones growe vp & waxe greate thorow good fedenge?

5 who letteth the wilde asse go fre, or who lowseth the bodes of the Moole?

6 Vnto who I haue geuen the wyldernes to be their house, & the vntilled londe to be their dwellinge place.

7 That they maye geue no force for the multitude off people in the cities, nether to regarde the crienge of the dryuer:

8 but to seke their pasture aboute the moutaynes, & to folowe vpon the grene grasse.

9 Wyll the vnicorne be so tame as to do ye seruyce, or to abyde still by thy cribsse?

10 Cast thou bynde ye yock aboute him in thy forowes, to make him plowe after the in ye valleis?

11 Mayest thou trust hi (because he is stroge) or comitte thy labor vnto hi?

12 Mayest thou beleue hi, yt he wil brige home yi corne, or to cary eny thinge vnto yi barne?

13 The Estrich (whose fethers are fayrer the ye wynges of the sparrow hauke)

14 whe he hath layed his egges vpon the grounde, he bredeth them in the dust,

15 and forgetteth them: so that they might be troden with fete, or broken with somme wilde beast.

16 So harde is he vnto his yong ones, as though they were not his, and laboureth in vayne without eny feare.

17 And that because God hath taken wisdome from him, & hath not geuen him vnderstodinge.

18 When his tyme is, he flyeth vp an hye, and careth nether for horse ner man.

19 Hast thou geuen the horse is strength, or lerned him to bowe downe his neck with feare:

20 that he letteth him self be dryuen forth like a greshopper, where as the stoute neyenge that he maketh, is fearful?

21 he breaketh ye grounde with the hoffes of his fete chearfully in his strength, and runneth to mete the harnest men.

22 He layeth asyde all feare, his stomach is not abated, nether starteth he a back for eny swerde.

23 Though the quyuers rattle vpon him, though the speare and shilde glistre:

24 yet russseth he in fearsly, and beateth vpon the grounde. He feareth not the noyse of the trompettes, 25 but as soone as he heareth the shawmes blowe, tush (sayeth he) for he smelleth the batell afarre of, ye noyse, the captaynes and the shoutinge.

26 Commeth it thorow thy wysdome, that the goshaue flyeth towarde the south?

27 Doth the Aegle mounte vp & make his nest on hye at thy commaundement?

28 He abydeh in the stony rockes, ad vpon the hye toppes of harde mountaynes, where no man can come.

29 From thence maye he beholde his praye, and loke farre aboute with his eyes.

30 His yonge ones are fed with bloude, and where eny deed body lyeth, there is he immediatly.

Chapter 40

1 Morouer, God spake vnto Iob and sayde:

2 Can he that stryueh with the Allmightie, be at rest? Shulde not he which disputeth with God, geue him an answere?

3 Iob answered the LORDE, sayenge:

4 Beholde, I am to vyle a personne, to answere the, therefore will I laye my hande vpon my mouth.

5 Once or twyse haue I spoken, but I will saye nomore.

6 Then spake the LORDE vnto Iob out of the storme, and sayde:

7 gyrde vp yi loynes like a man, and tell me the thige that I will axe the.

8 Wilt thou disanulle my iudgment? Or, wilt thou condemne me, yt thou thy self mayest be made rightuous?

9 Is thine arme then like the arme of God? Maketh thy voyce soch a soude as his doth?

10 Then arme thy self with thine owne power, vp, decke the in thy ioly araye,

11 poure out the indignacion of thy wrath: se that thou cast downe all ye proude,

12 loke well, that thou makest all soch as be stubburne, to obeye: treade all the vngodly vnder thy fete,

13 cast the downe in to the myre, and couer their faces with darcknesse:

14 Then will I confesse also, that thynne owne right honde hath saued the.

15 Beholde, the cruell beaste (whom I made wt the) which eateth haye as an oxe:

16 lo, how stronge he is in his loynes, and what power he hath in the nauell of his body.

17 He spredeth out his tale like a Cedre tre, all his vaynes are stiff.

18 His shyennes are like pipes off brasse, his rygge bones are like staues of yro

19 First when God made him, he ordered the wyldernesse for him,

20 yt the mountaynes shulde geue him grasse, where all the beastes off the felde take their pastyme.

21 He lyeth amoge the redes in the Mosses, the fennes

22 hyde him with their shadowe, and the wylowes of the broke couer him rounde aboute.

23 Lo, without eny laboure might he drynke out the whole floude, and suppe off Iordane without eny trauayle.

24 Who darre laye honde vpon him openly, and vndertake to catch him? Or, who darre put an hoke thorow his nose, ad laye a snare for him?

Chapter 41

1 Darrest thou drawe out Leuiathan with an angle, or bynde his tonge with a snare?
 2 Canst thou put a ryng in the nose of him, or bore his chaftes thorow with a naule?
 3 Wyll he make many fayre wordes with the (thynkest thou) or flatre the:
 4 Wyll he make a couenaunt with the? Or, art thou able for to compell him to do the contynuall seruyce?
 5 Wilt thou take thy pastyne wt him as with a byrde, or geue him vnto thy maydens,
 6 that thy companyons maye hew him in peces, to be parted amonge the marchaunt men?
 7 Canst thou fyll the nett wt his skynne, or ye fysh panyer with his heade?
 8 Darrest thou laye honde vpon him? It is better for the to considere what harme might happe the there thorow and not to touch him.
 9 For when thou thynkest to haue holde vpon him, he shall begyle the: Euery man also that seyth him, shall go backe. And why?
 10 There darre none be so bolde, as to rayse him vp. Who is able to stonde before me?
 11 Or, who hath geuen me eny thyng afore hande, that I am bounde to rewarde him agayne? All thynges vnder heauen are myne.
 12 I feare him not, whether he threaten or speake fayre.
 13 Who lifeth him vp and stripeth him out of his clothes, or who taketh him by the bytt of his byrdle?
 14 Who openeth the dore of his face? for he hath horrible tethe rounde aboute.
 15 His body is couered with scales as it were with shyldes, lockte in, kepte, and well copacte together.
 16 One is so ioyned to another, that no ayre can come in:
 17 Yee one hangeth so vpon another, and sticke so together, that they can not be sundered.
 18 His nesinge is like a glisteringe fyre, and his eyes like the mornyng shyne.
 19 Out of his mouth go torches and fyre brandes, 20 out off his nostrels there goeth a smoke, like as out off an hote seetinge pott.
 21 His breth maketh the coales burne, the flame goeth out of his mouth.
 22 In his necke remayneth strength, and before his face sorowe is turned to gladnesse.
 23 The membres of his body are ioyned so straye one to another, and cleue so fast together, that he can not be moued.
 24 His hert is as harde as a stone, ad as fast as the styth ye that the hammer man smyteth vpon.
 25 When he goeth: the mightiest off all are afrayed, and the wawes heuy.
 26 Yff he drawe out the swearde, there maye nether speare ner brest plate abyde him.

27 He setteth as moch by a strawe as by yro, and as moch by a rotten stocke as by metall.
 28 He starteth not awaye for him that bendeth the bowe, & as for slyng stones, he careth as moch for stubble as for them
 29 He counteth the hammer no better then a strawe, he laugheth him to scorne that shaketh the speare.
 30 He treadeth the golde in the myre like ye sharpe potsherdes.
 31 He maketh the depe to seeth and boyle like a pott, and stereth the see together like an oymntent.
 32 The waye is light after him, the depe is his walkyng place.
 33 Vpon earth is there no power like vnto his, for he is so made, that he feareth not.
 34 Yff a man will cosidre all hie thynges, this same is a kyng over all the children off pryde.

Chapter 42

1 The Iob answered the LORDE, and sayde:
 2 I knowe that thou hast power of all thynges, and that there is no thought hyd vnto the.
 3 For who can kepe his owne councill so secrete, but it shall be knowne? Therefore haue I spoken vnwisely, seyng these thynges are so hie, and passe myne vnderstandinge.
 4 O herken thou vnto me also, and let me speake: answeere me vnto the thinge that I will axe the.
 5 I haue geuen diligent eare vnto the, and now I se ye with myne eyes.
 6 Wherefore I geue myne owne self ye blame, and take repentaunce in the dust and ashes.
 7 Now whe the LORDE had spoken these wordes vnto Iob, he sayde vnto Eliphaz ye Themanite: I am displeasid with the & thy two frendes, for ye haue not spoken the thinge yt is right before me, like as my seruauant Iob hath done.
 8 Therefore take vij. oxen and seuen rammes, and go to my seruauant Iob, offre vp also for youre selues a brentofferynge, and lat my seruauant Iob praye for you. Him will I accepte, and not deale with you after youre foolishnesse: in that ye haue not spoke ye thinge which is right, like as my seruauant Iob hath done.
 9 So Eliphaz the Themanite, Baldad ye Suhite and Sophar the Naamathite wete their waye, and did acordyng as the LORDE commaunded them. The LORDE also accepted the persone off Iob,
 10 and the LORDE turned him vnto Iob, whe he prayed for his frendes: Yee the LORDE gaue Iob twyse as moch as he had afore.
 11 And the came there vnto him all his brethren, all his sisters with all them that had bene off his acquatauce afore, and ate bred with him in his house, wondring at him, ad comfortinge him ouer all the trouble, that the LORDE had brought vpon him. Euery ma gaue him a shepe and a Jewell of golde.

12 And the LORDE made Iob richer then he was before: for he had xiiiij. M. shepe, vi. M. camels, a M. yocke oxen, and a M. asses.
 13 He had children also: vij. sonnes and iij. daughters.
 14 The first he called Daye, the seconde, pouerte: the thirde, All plenteousnes.
 15 In all the lond were none founde so fayre, as the daughters of Iob, & their father gaue them enheritaunce amonge their brethren.
 16 After this lyued Iob xl. yeares, so that he sawe his children, & his childers children vnto the fourth generacion.
 17 And so he dyed, beinge olde & of a perfecte age.

PSALMS

Psalm 1

1 O blessed is ye man, yt goeth not in the councill of ye vngodly: yt abydeh not in the waye off synners, & sytthet not in ye seate of the scornefull.
 2 But delyteth in the lawe of ye LORDE, & exercyseth himself in his lawe both daye and night.
 3 Soch a ma is like a tre plated by ye watersyde, yt brigeth forth his frute in due season. His leeuies shal not fall off, ad loke what soeuer he doth, it shal prospere.
 4 As for the vngodly, it is not so with them: but they are like the dust, which ye wynde scattereth awaye from the grounde.
 5 Therefore the vngodly shall not be able to stonde in the iudgmet, nether the synners in the congregacion off the rightuous.
 6 For the LORDE aloweth ye waye of the rightuous, but the waye of the vngodly shal perishe.

Psalm 2

1 Why do the Heithe grudge? why do the people ymagyn wayne thynges?
 2 The kynges of the earth stode vp, and the rulers are come together, agaynst the LORDE ad agaynst his anyointed.
 3 Let vs breake their bondes a sunder, and cast awaye their yocke from vs.
 4 Neuerthelesse, he that dwelleth in heauen, shal laugh the to scorne: yee euen the LORDE himself shall haue them in derision.
 5 Then shal he speake vnto them in his wrath, and vexe them in his sore dispeasure.
 6 Yet haue I set my kyng vpon my holy hill of Sion.
 7 As for me I will preach the lawe, wherof the LORDE hath sayde vnto me: Thou art my sonne, this daye haue I begotten the.
 8 Desyre off me, and I shall geue the the Heithen for thine enheritaunce, Yee the vttemost partes of the worlde for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt rule them with a rodde of yron, and breake the in peces like an erthen vessell.

10 Be wyse now therfore (o ye kynges) be warned, ye that are iudges of the earth.

11 Serue the LORDE with feare, and reioyse before him with reuerence.

12 Kysse the sonne, lest the LORDE be angrie, and so ye perish from the right waye. For his wrath shalbe kindled shortly: blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Psalm 3

1 Why are they so many (o LORDE) yt trouble me? a greate multitude are they, that ryse agaynst me.

2 Yee many one there be that saye off my soule: there is no helpe for him in God.

3 Sela But thou (o LORDE) art my defender, my worshipec, ad the lifter vp of my heade.

4 I call vpon the LORDE with my voyce, and he heareth me out of his holy hill.

5 Sela I layed me downe and slepte, but I rose vp agayne, for the LORDE susteyned me.

6 I am not afrayed for thousandes of the people, that copasse me rounde aboute.

7 Vp LORDE, and helpe me, o my God: for thou smyttest all myne enemies vpon the cheke bones, and breakest the teth of the vngodly.

8 Helpe belongeth vnto the LORDE, therefore let thy blessinge be vpon thy people.

Psalm 4

1 Heare me whe I cal, o God of my rightuousnes, thou that comfortest me in my trouble: haue mercy vpon me, and herken vnto my prayer.

2 O ye sonnes off men: how longe will ye blaspheme myne honoure? why haue ye soch pleasure in vanyte, & seke after lyes?

3 Sela Knowe this, that the LORDE dealeth maruelously with his saynte: and when I call vpon the LORDE, he heareth me.

4 Be angrie, but synne not: como wt youre owne hertes vpo yor beddes, & remembre yor selues.

5 Sela. Offre ye sacrifice of rightuousnes, & put yor trust in ye LORDE.

6 There be many yt saye: who wil do vs eny good? where as thou (o LORDE) hast shewed vs the light of yi countenance.

7 Thou reioycest myne herte, though their encrease be greate both in corne & wyne.

8 Therefore wil I laye me downe in peace, & take my rest: for thou LORDE only settest me in a sure dwellyng.

Psalm 5

1 Heare my wordes (o LORDE) considre my callynge.

2 O marke the voyce of my peticion, my kynge & my God: for vnto the wil I make my prayer.

3 Heare my voyce by tymes (o LORDE) for early in the morninge wil I gett me vnto the, yee & yt wt diligece.

4 For thou art not the God yt hath pleasure in wickednesse, there maye no vngodly persone dwel with the.

5 Soch as be cruell maye not stonde in thy sight, thou art an enemie vnto all wicked doers. Thou destroyest the lyers: the LORDE abhorreth the bloude thurstie and disceatfull.

6 But as for me, I wil come in to thy house, euen vpon the multitude of thy mercy: ad in thy feare wyll I worshippe towarde thy holy teple.

7 Led me (o LORDE) in thy rightuousnesse, because of myne enemyes, ad make thy waye playne before me.

8 For there is no faithfulness in their mouthes: they dyssemble in their hertes: 9 their throte is an open sepulchre: with their tonges they disceau.

10 Punysh them (o God) that they maye perish in their owne ymaginacions: cast them out because of the multitude of their vngodlinesse, for they rebell agaynst the.

11 Agayne, let all them that put their trust in the, reioyse: yee let them euer be geyunge of thankes, because thou defendest them: that they which loue thy name, maye be ioyfull in the.

12 For thou LORDE geuest thy blessinge vnto the rightuous: and with thy fauorable kyndnes thou defendest him, as with a shyld.

Psalm 6

1 Oh LORDE, rebuke me not in thine anger: Oh chaste me not in thy heuy displeasure.

2 Haue mercy vpon me (o LORDE) for I am weake: o LORDE heale me, for all my bones are vexed.

3 My soule also is in greate trouble, but LORDE how longe?

4 Turne the (o LORDE) & delyuer my soule: Oh saue me, for thy mercies sake.

5 For in death no man remembreth the: Oh who wil geue the thankes in the hell?

6 I am weery of gronyng: Euery night wasshe I my bedde, & water my couche with my teares.

7 My coutenance is chaunged for very inwarde grefe, I cosume awaye, I haue so many enemyes.

8 Awaye fro me all ye wicked doers, for the LORDE hath herde the voyce off my wepinge.

9 The LORDE hath herde myne humble peticio, the LORDE hath receaued my prayer.

10 All myne enemyes shalbe cofounded & sore vexed: yee they shalbe turned backe and put to shame, and that right soone.

Psalm 7

1 O Lorde my God, in ye do I trust: saue me fro all the yt persecute me, & delyuer me.

2 Lest he hantch vp my soule like a lyon, & teare it in peces, whyle there is none to helpe.

3 O LORDE my God, yff I haue done eny soch thinge: yf there be eny vnrightuousnes in my hades:

4 Yff I haue rewarded euell vnto the yt dealt frendly wt me or hurte the yt wt out eny cause are myne enemyes:

5 Then let myne enemie persecute my soule, & take me: yee let hi treade my life downe in the earth, & laye myne honor in the dust.

6 Sela. Stode vp (o LORDE) in yi wrath, lift vp thyself ouer the furious indignacio of myne enemyes: aryse vp (for me) in the vengeance that thou hast promysed.

7 That the congregacion of the people maye come aboute the, for their sakes therfore lift vp thyself agayne,

8 The LORDE is iudge ouer the people: Auenge me then (o LORDE) accordinge to my rightuousnes & innocency.

9 Oh let the wickednes of the vngodly come to an ende: but manteyne the iust, 10 thou rightuous God, yt triest the very hertes & the reynes.

11 My helpe cometh of God, which preserueth them yt are true of herte.

12 God is a rightuous iudge, & God is euer threateninge. Yf men wil not turne, he hath whet his swerde: he hath bent his bowe & made it ready.

13 He hath prepayred him the weapens of death, & ordered his arowes to destroye.

14 Beholde, he trauayleth with myschefe, he hath coceaued vnhappynesse, and brought forth a lye.

15 He hath grauen and dygged vp a pytte, but he shal fall himself in to ye pytte yt he hath made.

16 For his vnhappynes shall come vpon his owne heade, & his wickednes shall fall vpon his owne pate.

17 As for me, I will geue thankes vnto the LORDE for his rightuousnes sake, and wil prayse the name of the LORDE the most hyest.

Psalm 8

1 O Lorde oure gouernoure: how wonderfull is thy name in all the worlde? how excellent is thy glory aboute the heauens?

2 Out of the mouth of the very babes & sucklings thou hast ordered prayse, because of thine enemyes, yt thou mightest destroye the enemie and the auenger.

3 For I considre thy heauens, euen the worke off thy fyngers: the Moone and the starres which thou hast made.

4 Oh what is man, yt thou art so myndfull of him? ether the sonne of ma that thou visitest him?

5 After thou haddest for a season made him lower the the angels, thou crownedest him with honor & glory.

6 Thou hast set him aboute the workes off thy hondes: thou hast put all thinges in subieccion vnder his fete.

7 All shepe and oxen, yee and the beastes of the felde.

8 The foules of the ayre: the fysh of the see, and what so walketh thorow the wayes of the see.

9 O LORDE oure gouernoure, how wonderfull is thy name in all the worlde?

Psalm 9

1 I wil geue thakes vnto the (o LORDE) with my whole herte, I wil speake of all thy maruelous workes.

2 I wil be glad & reioyse in the, yee my songes wil I make of thy name, o thou most hyest.

3 Because thou hast dryue myne enemyes abacke, they were discofited, & perished at thy presence.

4 For thou hast manteyned my right and my cause: thou syttest in the Trone that art the true iudge.

5 Thou rebukest the Heithen, and destroyest the vngodly, thou putttest out their name for euer and euer.

6 The enemyes swerdes are come to an ende, thou hast ouerthrowen their cities, their memoriall is perished with the.

7 But ye LORDE endureth for euer, he hath prepared his seate vnto iudgmet.

8 He gouerneth ye worlde with rightuousnes & ministreth true iudgmet vnto the people.

9 The LORDE is a defence for the poore, a defence in the tyme of trouble.

10 Therfore they yt knowe thy name, put their trust in ye: for thou (LORDE) neuer faylest the, that seke the.

11 O prayse the LORDE, which dwelleth in Sion shewe ye people of his doinges.

12 And why? he maketh inquisicion for their bloude, and remembreth them: he forgetteth not the complaynte of the poore.

13 Haue mercy vpo me (o LORDE) considre the trouble that I am in amoge myne enemyes, thou that liftest me vp from ye gates of death.

14 That I maye shewe all thy prayses within the portes off the daughter Sion, and reioyse in thy sauynge health.

15 As for the Heithen, the are suncke downe in the pytte that they made: in the same nette, which they spred out priuely, is their owne fote take.

16 Thus ye LORDE is knowne to execute true iudgment, whe the vngodly is trapped in the workes of his owne handes.

17 Sela. The wicked must be turned vnto hell, and all the Heithen yt forget God.

18 But the poore shal not allwaye be out of remembrance, the paciet abydinge of soch as be in trouble shall not perish for euer.

19 Vp LORDE, let not man haue the vpper hade, let the Heithe be codemned before the.

20 O LORDE, set a scolemaster ouer the,

that the Heithe maye knowe them selues to be but me. Sela.

Psalm 10

1 Why art thou gone so farre of, o LORDE? wilt thou hyde thyself in tyme of trouble?

2 Whye ye vngodly hath the ouer hande, the poore must suffre persecucion: O that they were taken in the ymaginacions which they go aboute.

3 For the vngodly maketh boost of his owne hertes desyre, the cuetousnes lesseth him self, and blasphemeth the LORDE.

4 The vngodly is so proude and full of indignacio, that he careth not: nether is God before his eyes.

5 His wayes are allwaye filthie, thy iudgmentes are farre out of his sight, he defyeth all his enemyes.

6 For he sayeth in his herte: Tush, I shal neuer be cast downe, there shal no harme happe vnto me. His mouth is full of cursynge, fraude and disceate: vnder his toge is trauayle & sorow.

7 He sytteth lurkyng in the gardens, that he maye pruely murthur the innocent, his eyes are set vpo the poore.

8 He lyeth waytinge secretly, as it were a lyon in his denne. He lurketh that he maye rayush the poore, 9 yee to rauish the poore, when he hath gotten him in to his nett.

10 Then smyteth he, then oppresseth he & casteth downe the poore with his auctorite.

11 For he sayeth in his herte: Tush, God hath forgottene, he hath turned awaye his face, so yt he will neuer se it.

12 Aryse o LORDE God, lift vp thine honde, and forget not the poore.

13 Wherefore shulde the wicked blaspheme God, and saye in his herte: Tush, he careth not for it?

14 This thou seist, for thou considrest the mysery and sorowe: The poore geueth himself ouer in to thy hande, and committeth him vnto the, for thou art the helper of the frendlesse.

15 Breake thou ye arme off the vngodly and malycious, search out the wickednesse which he hath done, that he maye perish.

16 The LORDE is kynge for euer, ye Heithen shal perish out off his londe.

17 LORDE, thou hearest the desyrus longinge off the poore: their herte is sure, that thine eare herkeneth therto.

18 Helpe the fatherlesse and poore vnto their right, that the vngodly be nomore exalted vpon earth.

Psalm 11

1 In the LORDE put I my trust: how wil ye then saye to my soule: that she shulde fle as a byrde vpon youre hill?

2 For lo, the vngodly haue bet their bowe, and made redy their arowes in the quyer: that they maye priuely shute at them, which are true of herte.

3 The very foundation haue they cast downe, what ca the rightuous the do withall?

4 But the LORDE is in his holy temple, the LORDES seate is in heauen: He cosidereth it with his eyes, his eye lyddes beholde the children of men.

5 The LORDE seith both the rightuous and vngodly, but who so deliteth in wickednes, him his soule abhorreth.

6 Vpon the vngodly he shal rayne snares, fyre, brymstone, storme and tempest: this rewarde shal they haue to drynke.

7 For the LORDE is rightuous, ad he loueth rightuousnes, his countenance beholdeth the thige yt is iust.

Psalm 12

1 Helpe LORDE, for there is not one saynte more: very fewe faithfull are there amonge the children off men.

2 Euery man telletth lyes to his neighbor, they do but flater with their lippes and dissemble in their herte.

3 O that the LORDE wolde rote out all disceatfull lippes, ad the tonge that speaketh proude thinges.

4 Which saye: Oure toge shulde preuayle: we are they that ought to speake, who is lorde ouer vs?

5 Now for the troubles sake off the oppressed, & because of the complaynte of the poore, I wil vp (sayeth the LORDE) I wil helpe the, and set the at rest.

6 The wordes of the LORDE are pure wordes: eue as ye syluer, which from earth is tried and purified vij. tymes in the fyre.

7 Kepe the therefore (o LORDE) and preserue vs fro this generacion for euer.

8 And why? when vanite and ydynes getteth the ouer hande amonge the children of men, all are full of ye vngodly.

Psalm 13

1 How longe wilt thou forget me, o LORDE? for euer? how longe wilt thou hyde thy face fro me?
