2 Oh how loge shall I seke counsell in my soule? how longe shall I be so vexed in my herte? how longe shal myne enemye triumphe ouer me?

3 Considre, ad heare me, o LORDE my God: lighten myne eyes, that I slepe not in death.

4 Lest myne enemye saye: I haue preuayled agaynst hi for yf I be cast downe, they that trouble me will reioyce at it.

5 But my trust is in thy mercy, and my hert is ioyfull in thy sauynge health.

6 I wil synge of the LORDE, that dealeth so louyngly with me. (Yee I wil prayse the name of the LORDE the most hyst)

Psalm 14

1 The foolish bodyes saye in their hertes: Tush, there is no God. They are corrupte, ad become abhominable in their doynge, there is not one yt doth good.

2 The LORDE loked downe fro heaue vpo the children of men, to se yf there were eny, that wolde vnderstonde & seke after God. But they are all gone out of the waye, they are alltogether become vnprofitable: there is none that doth good, no not one.

3 Their throte is an open sepulcre, with their tonges they haue disceaued, the poysoun of Aspes is vnder their lippes.

4 Their mouth is full of cursing and bytternes, their fete are swift to shed bloude. Destruction & wretchednes are in their wayes, ad the waye of peace haue they not knowne: there is no feare off God before their eyes.

5 How can they haue vnderstonding, yt worke myschefe, eatinge vp my people, as it were bred, & call not vpo ye LORDE?

6 Therefore shal they be brought in greate feare, for God stondesth by the generacion of the rightuous.

7 As for you, ye haue made a mocke at the coucell of the poore, because he putteth his trust in the LORDE. Oh yt the sauynge health were geuen vnto Israel out off Sion. Oh that the LORDE wolde deluyuer his people out of captiuyte. The shulde Iacob reioyse, and Israel shulde be right glad.

1 Lorde, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle? who shal rest vpo yi holy hill?

2 Euen he yt ledeth an vncorrupte life: that doth the thinge which is right, ad that speaketh the treuth from his herte.

3 He yt vsseth no disceat in his tonge: he that doth no euell to his neighbour, & slaundreth not his neighbours.

4 He yt setteth not by the vngodly but maketh moch of the that feare the LORDE: he yt sweareth vnto his neighbour & dispoynnteth him not.

5 He that geueth not his money vpon vsury, and taketh no rewarde agaynst the innocet. Who so doth these thiges, shal neuer be removed.

Psalm 16

1 Preserue me (o God) for in the do I trust.

2 I haue sayde vnto ye LORDE: thou art my God, my goodes are nothinge vnto the.

3 All my delyte is vpon the sanctes that are in the earth, and vpon soch like.

4 But they yt runne after another, shall haue greate trouble.

5 Their drynkofferynges of bloude wil not I offre, nether make mencion of their name in my mouth.

6 The LORDE himself is my good and my porcion, thou manteynest my inheritaunce.

7 The lott is fallen vnto me in a fayre grounde, yee I haue a goodly heretage.

8 I wil thanke the LORDE for geuynge me warnynge: my reynes also haue chastened me in the night season.

9 Afore honde sawe I God allwayes before me, for he is on my right honde, that I shulde not be moued.

10 Therefore dyd my hert reioyce, & my tunge was glad, my flesh also shall rest in hope.

11 For why? thou shalt not leaue my soule in hell, nether shalt thou suffre thy saynte to se corrupcion. Thou hast shewed me the wayes off life: thou shalt make me full of ioye wt thy countenance. At thy right hande there is pleasure and ioye for euermore.

Psalm 17

1 Heare ye right (O LORDE) cosidre my coplaynte: herken vnto my prayer, that goeth not out of a fayned mouth.

2 Let my sentence come forth fro thy presence, and loke vpon the thinge that is equall.

3 Thou hast proued & visited myne herte in the night season: thou hast tried me in the fyre, & hast founde no wickednes in me: for I vtterly purposed, that my mouth shulde not offende.

4 Because of the wordes of thy lippes, I haue kepte me fro the workes of men, in ye waye off the murthurer.

5 Oh ordre thou my goynges in thy pathes, that my fote steppes slippe not.

6 For vnto the I crie, heare me o God: enclyne thine eares to me, and herke vnto my wordes.

7 Shewe yi maruelous louinge kindnesse, thou that sauest them which put their trust in the, from soch as resist thy right honde.

8 Kepe me as the apple of an eye, defende me vnder the shadowe of thy wynges.

9 From the vngodly that trouble me, fro myne enemies which compasse my soule rounde aboute.

10 Which manteyne their owne welthynges with oppression, & their mouth speaketh proude thinges.

11 They lye waytinge in or waye on euery syde, turnynge their eyes downe to the grounde.

12 Like as a lyon that is gredy of his pray, & as it were a lyons whelpelurkyng in his denne.

13 Vp LORDE, dispoynnt him & cast him downe: deluyuer my soule with thy swerde from the vngodly.

14 Fro the men of thy honde (o LORDE) from the men off the worlde, which haue their porcion in this life: whose belies thou fyllest with thy treasure.

15 They haue children at their desyre, and leaue the reste of their substauce for their babes. But as for me, I will beholde thy presence in rightuousnes: and when thy glory appeareth, I shal be satisfied.

Psalm 18

1 I wil loue the (o LORDE) my stregth. The LORDE is my sucour, my refuge, my Sauior: my god, my helper i who I trust: my buckler, ye horne of my health, & my proteccio.

2 I wil prayse ye LORDE & call vpon him, so shal I be safe fro myne enemies.

3 The sorowes of death copassed me, & the brokes of vngodlynes made me afrayed.

4 The paynes of hell came aboute me, the snares of death toke holde vpo me.

5 Yet in my trouble I called vpo the LORDE, & coplaynted vnto my God.

6 So he herde my voyce out off his holy teple, & my coplaynte came before hi, yee eue into his eares.

7 The the earth trembled & quaked, the very foudacios of the hilles shoke & were removed, because he was wrothe.

8 There wete a smoke out of his nostrils, ad a cosumynge fyre out of his mouth, so yt coales were kyndled at it.

9 He bowed the heaues & came downe, & it was darcke vnder his fete.

10 He rode vpo the Cherubins & dyd fle: he came flyenge with the wynges of the wynde.

11 He made darcknesse his pauilion rounde aboute hi, with darcke water & thicke cloudes to couer him.

12 At the brightnes off his presence the cloudes removed, with hale stones & coales of fyre.

13 The LORDE also thondred out of ye heaue, & the heyth gaue his thondre wt hale stones & coales of fyre.

14 He sent out his arowes & scatted the, he cast sore lightenings, & destroyed the.

15 The springes of waters were sene, & the foundacios of the roudde worlde were discouered at yi chiding (o LORDE) at the blasting & breth of thy displeasure.

16 He sent downe fro the heyth to fetch me, & toke me out of greate waters.

17 He deluyered me fro my stronge enemies, and fro my foes which were to mightie for me.

18 They preuented me in the tyme of my trouble, but ye LORDE was my defence.

19 He brought me forth also into lyberte: & deluyered me, because he had a fauor vnto me.

20 The LORDE shall rewarde me after my rightuous dealynge, & accordinge to the clenesse of my hodes shal he recopense me.

21 For I haue kepte the wayes of the LORDE, & haue not behaued myself wickedly agaynst my God.

22 I haue an eye vnto all his lawes, & cast not out his commaundemetes fro me.

23 Vncorrupte will I be before hi, & wil eschue myne owne wickednes.

24 Therefore shal ye LORDE rewarde me after my rightuous dealinge, & accordinge vnto ye clenesse of my hodes in his eye sight.

25 With the holy thou shalt be holy, & wt ye innocet thou shalt be innocet.

26 With the clene thou shalt be clene & with the frowarde thou shalt be frowarde.

27 For thou shalt saue the poore oppressed, & brige downe the hie lokes of the proude.

28 Thou lightest my candle, o LORDE my God: thou makest my darcknesse to be light.

29 For in the I can discofit an hoost of me: yee in my God I ca leape ouer the wall.

30 The waye of God is a perfecte waye: the wordes of the LORDE are tried in the fyre: he is a shyld of defence, for all them that trust in him.

31 For who is God, but the LORDE? Or, who hath eny strength, but oure God?

32 It is God that hath gyrded me with strength and made my waye vncorrupte.

33 He hath made my fete like hartes fete, and set me vp an hye.

34 He teacheth myne hondes to fight, and maketh myne armes to breake euen a bowe off stele.

35 Thou hast geue me the defence of thy health, thy right hande vpholdeth me, and thy louyng correccion maketh me greate.

36 Thou hast made rowme ynough vnder me for to go, that my fote stappes shulde not slyde.

37 I will folowe vpon myne enemies, and take them: I will not turne till they be discomfited.

38 I will smyte them, they shall not be able to stonde, but fall vnder my fete.

39 Thou hast gyrded me with strength vnto ye batell, thou hast throwe them all downe vnder me, that rose vp agaynst me.

40 Thou hast made myne enemies to turne their backs vpon me, thou hast destroyed the yt hated me.

41 They cried, but there was none to helpe the: yee euen vnto the LORDE, but he herde the not.

42 I will beate them as small as the dust before the wynde, I will cast them out as ye claye in the stretes.

43 Thou shalt delyuer me from the stryuynges of the people, thou shalt make me the heade of the Heithe.

44 A people whom I haue not knowne, shall serue me.

45 As soone as they heare of me, they shall obeye me, but the straunge childre dyssemble with me.

46 The straunge children are waxe olde, and go haltinge out of their pathes.

47 The LORDE lyueth: ad blessed be my helper, praysed be the God of my health.

48 Eue ye God which seyeth that I be auenged, and subdueth the people vnto me.

49 It is he that delyuereth me fro my cruell enemies: thou shalt lift me vp from them that ryse agaynst me, thou shalt ryd me from the wicked man.

50 For this cause I wil geue thanks vnto ye (o LORDE) amonge the Gentiles, and synge prayses vnto thy name. Greate prosperite geueth he vnto his kynge, and sheweth louinge kyndnesse vnto Dauid his anoynted, yee & vnto his sede for euermore.

Psalms 19

1 The very heaues declare the glory off

God, ad the very firmamet sheweth his hadye worke.

2 One daye telleth another, and one night certieth another.

3 There is nether speach ner langage, but their voyces are herde amoge the.

4 Their soude is gone out in to all londes, and their wordes in to the endes of the worlde.

5 In the hath he sett a tabernacle for ye Sone, which cometh forth as a brydegrome out of his chambre, & reioyseth as a giaunte to rune his course.

6 It goeth forth fro the one ende of the heauen, and runneth aboute vnto the same ende agayne, & there maye no ma hyde himself fro the heate therof.

7 The lawe of the LORDE is a perfecte lawe, it quickeneth the soule. The testimony of ye LORDE is true, & geueth wisdom euen vnto babes.

8 The statutes of the LORDE are right, & reioyse the herte: ye comaundemet of ye LORDE is pure, and geueth light vnto the eyes.

9 The feare of the LORDE is cleane, & endureth for euer: the iudgmentes of the LORDE are true and rigtuous altogether.

10 More pleasunt are they then golde, yee then moch fyne golde: sweter then hony & the hony combe.

11 These thy seruauit kepeth, & for kepinge of them there is greate rewarde.

12 Who can tell, how oft he offendeth? Oh clese thou me fro my secreta fautes.

13 Kepe thy seruauit also from presumptuous synnes, lest they get the dominion ouer me: so shal I be vndefyled & innocet fro the greate offence.

14 Yee the wordes of my mouth & the meditacio of my herte shalbe acceptable vnto the, o LORDE, my helper and my redemer.

Psalms 20

1 The LORDE heare the in the tyme off trouble, the name of the God of Iacob defende the.

2 Sende the helpe fro the Sanctuary, & strength ye out of Sion

3 Remembre all thy offerynges, and accepte thy brent sacrifice.

4 Sela. Graunte the thy hertes desyre, & fulfill all thy mynde.

5 We will reioyse in thy health, & triuphe in ye name of the LORDE oure God: the LORDE perfourme all thy peticios.

6 Now knowe I, that the LORDE helpeth his anoynted, and will heare him fro his holy heauen: mightie is the helpe of his right hode.

7 Some put their trust in charettes, & some in horses: but we wil remebre ye name of the LORDE oure God.

8 They are brought downe and fallen, but we are rysen and stonde vp right.

9 Saue (LORDE) & helpe vs (o kynge) when we call vpon the.

Psalms 21

1 Lorde, how ioyfull is the kynge in yi strength? O how exceadinge glad is he of thy sauynge health?

2 Thou hast geuen him his hertes desyre, & hast not put him fro the request of his lippes.

3 Sela. For thou hast preueted him wt liberall blessinges, & set a crowne of golde vpon his heade.

4 He asked life of the, & thou gauest him a longe life, eue for euer & euer.

5 His honoure is greate in thy sauynge health, glory and greate worshipe shalt thou laye vpon him.

6 For thou shalt geue him euerlastige felicite, & make him glad wt the ioye of yi coutenance.

7 And why? because the kinge putteth his trust in the LORDE, & in the mercy of the most hiest he shal not mysuary.

8 Let all thine enemies fele thy honde, let thy right honde fynde out all the yt hate the.

9 Thou shalt make the like a fyre ouen in tyme of thy wrath: the LORDE shal destroye the in his displeasure, & the fyre shall consume them.

10 Their frute shalt thou rote out of the earth, & their sede fro amoge the childre of men.

11 For they inteded myschefe agaynst the, & ymaged soch deuyces, as they were not able to perfourme.

12 Therefore shalt thou put the to flight, & with thy stringes thou shalt make ready thine arowes agaynst the faces off them.

13 Be thou exalted (LORDE) in thine owne strength, so wil we synge and prayse thy power.

Psalms 22

1 My God, my God: why hast thou forsaken me? ye wordes of my coplaynte are farre fro my health.

2 O my God, I crie in the daye tyme, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest.

3 Yet dwellest thou in the Sanctuary, o thou worshipe of Israel.

4 Oure fathers hoped in the, they trusted in the, ad thou dydest delyuer them.

5 They called vpon the, and were helped: they put their trust in the, and were not cofounded.

6 But as for me, I am a worme and no man: a very scorne of me and the outcast of the people.

7 All they yt se me, laugh me to scorne: they shute out their lippes, and shake their heades.

8 He trusted in God, let him delyuer him: let him helpe hi, yf he wil haue him.

9 But thou art he that toke me out of my mothers wobe: thou wast my hope, when I hanged yet vpon my mothers brestes.

10 I haue bene left vnto the euer sence I was borne, thou art my God, eue fro my mothers wombe.

11 O go not fro me the, for trouble is harde at honde, and here is none to helpe

12 Greate bulles are come aboute me, fatt oxen close me in on euery syde.

13 They gape vpon me with their moutes, as it were a rampinge and roaring lyon.

14 I am poured out like water, all my bones are out of ioynt: my hert in the myddest off my body is euen like meltinge waxe.

15 My strength is dried vp like a potsherde, my tunge cleueth to my goomes, and thou hast brought me in to the dust of death.

16 For dogges are come aboute me, the coucell of ye wicked hath layed sege agaynst me.

17 They pearsed my hondes and my fete, I might haue tolde all my bones: as for them, they stode staringe and lokinge vpon me.

18 They haue parted my garmentes amonge them, ad cast lottes vpon my vesture.

19 But be not thou farre fro me, o LORDE: thou art my sucoure, haist the to helpe me.

20 Delyuer my soule from the swearde, my dearlinge from the power of the dogge.

21 Saue me from the lyons mouth, and heare me fro amonge the hornes off the vnicornes.

22 So will I declare thy name vnto my brethren, in the myddest off the congregacion will I prayse the.

23 O prayse the LORDE ye that feare him: Magnifie him all ye sede of Iacob, & let all ye sede of Israel feare hi.

24 For he hath not despysed ner abhorred the myserable estate of the poore: he hath not hyd his face fro me, but whe I called vnto him, he herde me.

25 I wil prayse the in the greate congregacion, and perfourme my vowes in the sight off all the that feare the.

26 The poore shal eate ad be satisfied: they yt seke after ye LORDE shal prayse him: youre herte shal lyue for euer.

27 All the endes of the worlde shal remembre themselues, & be turned vnto the LORDE: and all the generacions of the Heithen shal worsh pe before him.

28 For the kyngdome is the LORDES, and he shal be the gouernoure of ye Heithen.

29 All soch as be fat vpo earth, shal eate also and worshipe:

30 All they that lye in the dust, and lyue so hardly, shall fall downe before him.

31 The sede shall serue him, and preach of the LORDE for euer. They shal come, & declare his rightuousnes: vnto a people that shal be borne, who the LORDE hath made.

Psalms 23

1 The LORDE is my shepherde, I can wante nothinge.

2 He fedeth me in a grene pasture, ad ledeth me to a fresh water.

3 He quickeneth my soule, & bringeth me forth in the way of rightuouſnes for his names ſake.

4 Though I ſhulde walke now in the valley of the ſhadowe of death, yet I feare no euell, for thou art with me: thy ſtaffe & thy ſhepehoke coforte me.

5 Thou prepareſt a table before me agaynſt mine enemies: thou anoynteſt my heade with oyle, & fylleſt my cuppe full.
6 Oh let thy louynge kyndnes & mercy folowe me all the dayes off my life, that I maye dwell in the houſe off the LORDE for euer.

Pſalm 24

1 The earth is the LORDES, & all that therein is: the copoſe of the worlde, ad all yt dwell therein.

2 For he hath fouded it vpo the ſees, & buylded it vpon the floudes.

3 Who ſhal go vp in to the hill off the LORDE? Or, who ſhal remayne in his holy place?

4 Eue he yt hath innocet hodes & a clene herte: which lifteth not vp his mynde vnto vanite, & ſweareth not to diſceau.

5 He ſhal receaue the bleſſinge fro the LORDE, ad mercy fro God his ſauioire.
6 This is ye generacio of the yt ſeke him, of the yt ſeke yi face, o Iacob.

7 Sela. Open yor gates (o ye prices) let the euerlaſtinge dores be opened, yt ye kynge of glory maye come in.

8 Who is this kynge of glory? It is the LORDE ſtroge and mightie, euen the LORDE mightie in batell.

9 Open youre gates (o ye prynces) let the euerlaſtinge dores be opened, yt the kynge off glory maye come in.

10 Who is this kynge off glory? It is the LORDE of hoosteſ, he is the kynge of glory. Sela.

Pſalm 25

1 Unto the (o LORDE) I lift vp my ſoule.
2 My God, I truſt in ye: Oh let me not be confounded, leſt myne enemies triuphe ouer me.

3 For all they yt hope in ye ſhal not be aſhamed: but ſoch as be ſcornfull deſpysers wt out a cauſe. they ſhall be put to cofucio.

4 Shewe me thy wayes (o LORDE) & teach me thy pathes.

5 Lede me in yi trueth and lerne me, for thou art the God off my health, and in the is my hope all the daye longe.

6 Call to remembrance, O LORDE, thy tender mercyes & thy louinge kyndneſſes, which haue bene euer of olde.

7 Oh remembre not ye ſynnes & offences of my youth, but accordinge vnto thy mercy thynke vpon me (O LORDE) for thy goodneſſe.

8 O how fredly & rightuous is the LORDE, therefore wil he teach ſynners in the waye.

9 He ledeth the ſymple a right, and ſoch as be meke the lerneth he his wayes.

10 All the wayes of the LORDE are very mercy & faithfulneſſe, vnto ſoch as kepe his teſtament and couenaunt.

11 For thy names ſake, O LORDE, be mercifull vnto my ſynne, for it is greate.

12 What ſo euer he be that feareth the LORDE, he ſhal ſhewe him the waye that he hath choſen.

13 His ſoule ſhall dwell at eaſe, and his ſede ſhall poſſeſſe the londe.

14 The ſecrete of the LORDE is amonge them that feare him, and he ſheweth them his couenaunt.

15 Myne eyes are euer lokyng vnto the LORDE, for he ſhal plucke my fete out of ye nett.

16 Turne the vnto me and haue mercy vpon me, for I am deſolate and in miſery.

17 The ſorowes of my herte are greate, O brynge me out of my troubles.

18 Loke vpon my aduerſite and miſery, and forgeue me all my ſynnes.

19 Conſidre how myne enemies are many, and beare a malicious hate agaynſt me.

20 O kepe my ſoule, and delyuer me: let me not be confounded, for I haue put my truſt in the.

21 Let innocency and rightuous dealinge wayte vpon me, for my hope is in the.

22 Delyuer Israel (O God) out of all his trouble.

Pſalm 26

1 Be thou my iudge (O LORDE) for I walke innocently: my truſt is in the LORDE, therefore ſhall I not fall.

2 Examen me O LORDE, and proue me: trie out my reynes and my hert.

3 For thy louynge kyndneſſe is before myne eyes, and I walke in thy trueth.

4 I ſyt not amoge vayne perſonnes, and haue no fellishepe with the diſceatfull.

5 I hate the congregacion of the wicked, and I will not ſyt amonge the vngodly.

6 I wa?ſhe my hondes with innocency O LORDE, and ſo go I to thine aulter.

7 That I maye ſhewe the voyce of thy prayſe, and tell of all thy wonderous workes.

8 LORDE, I loue the habitacion of thy houſe, and ye place where thy honoure dwelleth.

9 O deſtroye not my ſoule with the ſynners, ner my life with the bloudthurſtie.

10 In whoſe hondes is wickedneſſe, and their right honde is full of giftes.

11 But as for me I will walke innocently: O delyuer me, and be mercifull vnto me.

Pſalm 27

1 The LORDE is my light and my health: whom then ſhulde I feare? the LORDE is the ſtrength of my life, for whom the ſhulde I be afrayed?

2 Therefore when the wicked (euen myne enemies & my foes) came vpon me, to eate vp my fleſh, they ſtumbled and fell.

3 Though an hoost of men were layed agaynſt me, yet ſhal not my hert be afrayed: and though there roſe vp warre againſt me, yet wil I put my truſt in him.

4 One thinge haue I deſyred of the LORDE, which I wil requyre: namely, that I maye dwell in the houſe of the LORDE all the dayes of my life, to beholde the fayre beutie of the LORDE, and to vyſet his temple.

5 For in the tyme of trouble he hath hyd me in his tabernacle, yee in the ſecrete place of his dwellinge hath he kepte and ſet me vp vpon a rocke of ſtone.

6 And now hath he lift vp my heade aboute myne enemies, that copoſſed me rounde aboute.

7 Therefore wil I offre in his dwellinge, the oblacion of thakesgeuyng: I wil both ſynge & ſpeake prayſes vnto the LORDE.

8 Herke vnto my voyce (O LORDE) when I crie vnto the: haue mercy vpon me & heare me.

9 My hert ſpeaketh vnto the, my face ſeketh the, yee LORDE, thy face wil I ſeke. O hyde not thou thy face fro me, caſt not thy ſeruaut of in diſpleaſure.

10 Thou art my ſuccoure, leaue me not, nether forſake me, O God my ſauioire.

11 For my father and my mother haue forſaken me, but the LORDE hath taken me vp. Shewe me thy waye O LORDE, and lede me in the right path, becauſe of myne enemies.

12 Delyuer me not into the wylles of myne aduerſaries, for there are falſe wytnesſes ryſen vp againſt me, and they ymagyn myſchefe.

13 Neuertheleſſe, I beleue verely to ſe the goodneſſe of the LORDE in the londe of the lyuynge.

14 O tary thou ye LORDES leysure, be ſtronge, let thine hert be of good comforte, and wayte thou ſtill for the LORDE.

Pſalm 28

1 Unto the wil I crie, o my ſtronge defence: thinke no ſcorne of me, leſt (yf thou make the as though thou herdeſt not) I become like them, that go downe into ye pytte.

2 Heare the voyce of my humble peticion, when I crie vnto the, and holde vp my hondes towarde thy holy temple.

3 O plucke me not awaye amonge the vngodly and wicked doers, which ſpeake frendly to their neyhboure, but ymagin myſchefe in their hertes.

4 Rewarde them accordinge to their dedes and wickedneſſe of their owne inuencions.

5 Recompenſe them after ye workes of their hodes, paye them that they haue deſerued.

6 For they regarde not the workes of the LORDE, ner the operacion of his hades: therefore ſhal he breake them downe, and not buylde them vp.

7 Prayſed be ye LORDE, for he hath herde the voyce of my humble peticio.

8 The LORDE is my ſtrength and my ſhyld: my herte hoped in him, & I am helped: therefore my hert dauſeth for ioye, and I will ſynge prayſes vnto him.

9 The LORDE is the ſtrength of his people, he is the defender and ſauioire of his anoynted. O helpe thy people, geue thy bleſſynge vnto thy enheritaunce: fede them, and ſet them vp for euer.

1 A ſcrybe vnto the LORDE (o ye mightie) aſcribe vnto the LORDE worſhipe and ſtrength.

2 Geue the LORDE the honoure of his name, bowe youre ſelues to the holy mageſty of the LORDE

3 It is the LORDE that commaundeth the waters: It is the glorious God that maketh ye thonder:

4 It is the LORDE yt ruleth the ſee.

5 The voyce of the LORDE is mightie in operacion, the voyce of the LORDE is a glorious voyce

6 The voyce of the LORDE breaketh the Cedre trees: yee the LORDE breaketh the Ceders of Libanus.

7 He maketh them to ſkippe like a calfe: Libanus and Sirion like a yonge vnycome.

8 The voyce of the LORDE deuideth the flames of fyre: the voyce of the LORDE ſhakeſh the wilderneſſe, yee the LORDE ſhakeſh the wilderneſſe of Cades.

9 The voyce of the LORDE moueth ye hyndes & diſcouereth the thicke bu?ſhes: in his temple ſhal euery man ſpeake of his honoure.

10 The LORDE ſtilleth the water floude, & ye LORDE remayneth a kynge for euer.

11 The LORDE ſhall geue power vnto his people, the LORDE ſhal geue his people the bleſſynge of peace.

Pſalm 30

1 I wil magnifie ye (O LORDE) for thou haſt ſet me vp, & not ſuffred my foes to triuphe ouer me.

2 O LORDE my God, I cried vnto the, and thou haſt healed me.

3 Thou LORDE haſt brought my ſoule out of hell: thou haſt kepte my life, where as they go downe to the pytte.

4 Synge prayſes vnto the LORDE (o ye ſayntes of his) geue thanks vnto him for a remembrance of his holynneſſe.

5 For his wrath endureth but the twinklinge of an eye, and his pleaſure is in life: heuynneſſe maye well endure for a night, but ioye commeth in the mornynge.

6 As for me, whe I was in proſperite, I ſayde: Tuſh, I ſhal neuer fall more. (And why? thou LORDE of thy goodneſſe haddeſt made my hill ſo ſtronge.)

7 But as ſoone as thou turnedeſt thy face fro me, I was brought in feare.

8 The cried I vnto ye (O LORDE) yee vnto ye LORDE made I my prayer.

9 What profit is there in my bloude, yf I go downe to corrupcion?

10 Maye the dust geue thanks vnto ye?
Or shal it declare thy faithfulness?
11 Hear (O LORDE) and haue mercy vpon me: LORDE be thou my helper.
12 And so thou hast turned my heynesse into ioye: thou hast put of my sack cloth, & gyrded me wt gladnesse. That my honor might synge prayses vnto the wt out ceassyng: O LORDE my God, I wil geue thanks vnto the for euer.

Psalm 31

1 In the, O LORDE, is my trust: let me
neuer be put to confucion, but delyuer me in thy rightuousnesse.
2 Bowe downe thine eare to me, make haist to delyuer me:
3 be thou my stronge rocke and a house of defence, that thou mayest saue me.
4 For thou art my stronge holde & my castell: O be thou my gyde, & lede me for thy names sake.
5 Drawe me out of the nett yt they haue layed priuely for me, for thou art my stregth.
6 Into thy hondes I commende my sprete:
thou hast delyuered me O LORDE thou
God of treuth.
7 I hate them that holde of vanities, and my trust is in the LORDE.
8 I will be glad and reioyse in thy mercy:
for thou hast considered my trouble, thou hast knowne my soule in aduersite.
9 Thou hast not delyuered me ouer in to the hodes of the enemye, but hast set my fete in a large rowme.
10 Haue mercy vpon me, O LORDE, for I am in trouble, myne eye is consumed for very heynesse, yee my soule and my body.
11 My life is waxen olde with heynesse, and my yeares wt mournynge.
12 My stregth fayleth me because of my aduersite, and my bones are corrupte.
13 I am become a very reprofte amonge all myne enemies, my neighbours & they of myne owne aquauntaunce are afrayed of me: they yt se me in the strete, coveye them selues fro me.
14 I am clene forgotten and out of mynde, as a deed man: I am become like a broken vessell.
15 For I haue herde the blasphemy of the multitude: euery man abhorreth me: they haue gathered a counsell together agaynst me, and are purposed to take awaye my life.
16 But my hope is in ye O LORDE, & I saye: thou art my God.
17 My tyme is in thy honde: delyuer me from the honde of myne enemies, & from them yt persecute me.
18 Shewe thy seruauent the light of thy countenance, helpe me for thy mercies sake.
19 Let me not be confounded (o LORDE) for I call vpon the: let the vngodly rather be put to confucion, and brought vnto the hell.
20 Let the lyenge lippes be put to sylence, which cruelly, di?danedly & despitefully speake agaynst the rightuous.

21 O how greate and manifolde is thy good, which thou haist hyd for them that feare ye? O what thinges bringest thou to passe for them, that put their trust in the, euen before the sonnes of men?
22 Thou hydest them priuely by thine owne presence from the proude men, thou kepest them secretly in thy tabernacle, from the strife of tonges.
23 Thanks be to the LORDE, for he hath shewed me maruelous greate kyndnesse in a stronge cite. For when the sodane feare came vpon me, I sayde: I am cast out of thy sight.
24 Neuertheles, thou herdest myne humble prayer, when I cried vnto the. O loue the LORDE (all ye his sayntes) for the LORDE preserueth the faithfull, and plenteously rewardeh he the proude doer. Be stroge therfore & take a good herte vnto you, all ye that put youre trust in the LORDE.

Psalm 32

1 Blessed are they, whose vnrightuousnesse is forgeuen, and whose synnes are couered.
2 Blessed is the man, vnto whom the LORDE imputeth no synne, in whose sprete there is no gyle.
3 For whye I helde my tonge, my bones consumed awaye thorow my daylie complaynynges.
4 And because thy hande was so heuy vpon me both daye and night, my moysture was like the drouth in Sommer.
Sela.
5 Therfore I confessed my synne vnto the, and hyd not myne vnrightuousnesse.
6 I saide: I will knowlege myne offence, and accuse my self vnto the LORDE, and so thou forgauest me the wickednesse of my synne.
7 Sela. For this shal euery saynte make his prayer vnto the in due season, therfore shall not the greate water floudes come nye him.
8 Thou art my defence in the trouble that is come aboute me, O copasse thou me aboute also with the ioye of delyueraunce.
9 Sela. I wil enforme the, and shewe the the waye wherin thou shalt go: I wil fasten myne eyes vpon the.
10 Be not ye now like horses & mooles, which haue no vnderstandinge. Whose mouthes thou must holde with bytt & brydle, yf they wil not obeie the.
11 Greate plages shall ye vngodly haue, but who so putteth his trust in the LORDE, mercy shall compasse him on euery syde. Be glad (o ye rightuous) and reioyse in the LORDE, be ioyfull all ye that are true of herte.

Psalm 33

1 Reioyse in ye LORDE (o ye rightuous) for it becommeth well the iust to be thankfull.
2 Prayse the LORDE with harpe: synge psalmes vnto him with the lute and instrument of ten strynges.

3 Singe him a new songe, yee synge lustely vnto him & with a good corage.
4 For the worde of ye LORDE is true, and all his workes are faithfull.
5 He loueth mercy & iudgment, ye earth is full of the goodnesse of the LORDE 6 By the worde of the LORDE were the heauens made, & all the hoostes of them by ye breth of his mouth.
7 He gathereth ye waters together as it were in a bottell, & laieih vp the depe in secrete.
8 Let all the earth feare the LORDE, and let all them that dwell in the worlde, stode in awe of him.
9 For loke what he sayeth, it is done: and loke what he comaundeth, it stondesth fast.
10 The LORDE bryngeth the coucell of the Heithen to naught, and turneth the deuyces of the people.
11 But the coucell of the LORDE endureth, and the thoughtes of his hert from generacion to generacion.
12 Blessed are the people that holde the LORDE for their God, & blessed are the folke whom he hath chosen to be his heretage.
13 The LORDE loketh downe from heauen, & beholdeth all the children of men:
14 from his stronge seate he considreth all them yt dwell in the worlde.
15 He only hath fashioned all the hertes of them, & knoweth all their workes.
16 A kynge is not helped by his owne greate hoost, nether is a giaunte saued thorow the might of his owne stregth.
17 A horse is but a vayne thyng to saue a man, it is not the power of his stregth that can delyuer him.
18 Beholde, the eye of the LORDE loketh vnto them that feare him, & put their trust in his mercy.
19 That he maye delyuer their soules from death, and to fede them in the deare tyme.
20 Let oure soule paciently abyde the LORDE, for he is oure helpe and shilde.
21 So shal oure herte reioyse in him, because we haue hoped in his holy name.
22 Let thy mercifull kyndnesse (o LORDE) be vpon vs, like as we put oure trust in the.

1 I wil allwaye geue thanks vnto the LORDE, his prayse shal euer be in my mouth.
2 My soule shall make hir boast in the LORDE: the poore oppressed shal heare therof, and be glad.
3 O prayse ye LORDE with me, and let vs magnifie his name together.
4 I sought the LORDE, and he herde me, yee he delyuered me out of all my feare.
5 They that haue an eye vnto him, shalbe lightened, & their faces shall not be ashamed.
6 This poore man cried vnto the LORDE, and he herde him, yee and delyuered him out of all his troubles.

7 The angell of the LORDE pitcheth his tente rounde aboute them that feare him, and delyuereth them.
8 O taist and se how frendly the LORDE is, blessed is the man yt trusteth in him.
9 O feare the LORDE, ye yt be his sayntes: for they that feare him, lacke nothinge.
10 The rich shal want and suffre hunger, but they which seke the LORDE, shal wt no maner of thinge, that is good.
11 Come hither (o ye children) herken vnto me, I wil teach you the feare of the LORDE.
12 Who so listeth to lyue, & wolde fayne
se good dayes.
13 Let him refrayne his tonge from euell, and his lippes that they speake no gyle.
14 Let him eschue euell, and do good:
Let him seke peace & ensue it.
15 For the eyes of the LORDE are ouer the rightuous, and his eares are open vnto their prayers.
16 But the face of the LORDE beholdeth them that do euell, to destroye the remembraunce of them out of the earth.
17 When the rightuous crie, the LORDE heareth them, and delyuereth the out of all their troubles.
18 The LORDE is nye vnto them yt are contrite in hert, & wil helpe soch as be of an huble sprete.
19 Greate are ye troubles of the rightuous, but the LORDE delyuereth them out of all.
20 He kepeth all their bones, so yt not one of them is broken.
21 But mi?fortune shal slaye the vngodly, and they that hate ye rightuous shal be giltie.
22 The LORDE delyuereth the soules of his seruantes, and all they that put their trust in him, shal not offende.

Psalm 35

1 Stryue thou with them (o LORDE) that stryue wt me, fight thou agaynst them that fight agaynst me.
2 Laye honde vpon the shyld and speare, and stonde vp to helpe me.
3 Drawe out thy swearde, and stoppe the waye agaynst them that persecute me, saye vnto my soule: I am yi helpe.
4 Let them be cofounded and put to shame, that seke after my soule: let the be turned back and brought to confucion, that ymagin myscheffe for me.
5 Let the be as ye dust before the wynde, and the angell of the LORDE scaterynge
6 Let their waye be darcke and slippery, and the angell of the LORDE to persecute them.
7 For they haue pryuely laied their nett to destroye me without a cause, yee and made a pitte for my soule, which I neuer deserued.
8 Let a sodane destruccio come vpon him vnawares, and ye nett that he hath layed priuely, catch him self, that he maye fall in to his owne myscheffe.
9 But let my soule be ioyfull in the LORDE, and reioyse in his helpe.

10 All my bones shal saie: LORDE, who is like vnto the? which delyuerest ye poore from those that are to stronge for him, yee the poore and the nedy from his robbers.

11 False witnesses are rysen vp, & laye to my charge thinges that I knowe not.

12 They rewarde me euell for good, to the greate discomforth of my soule.

13 Neuertheles, when they were sick, I put on a sack cloth: I humbled my soule with fastinge, and my prayer turned in to myne owne bosome.

14 I behaued myself as though it had bene my frende or my brother, I wete heuely, as one yt mourneth for his mother.

15 But in my aduersite they reioyse, and gather them together: yee ye very lame come together agaynst me vnawarres, makyng mowes at me, & cease not.

16 With ye gredy & scornfull ypocrites, they gna?shed vpon me with theirteth.

17 LORDE, whan wilt thou loke vpo this? O restore my soule from ye wicked rumoure of the, my dearlinge from the lyons.

18 So wil I geue ye thanks in the greate congregacion, & prayse the amonge moch people.

19 O let the not triuphe ouer me, that are myne enemies for naught: O let them not wyncke wt their eyes, that hate me without a cause.

20 And why? their comonyng is not for peace, but they ymagin false wordes agaynst ye outcastes of the londe.

21 They gape vpon me wt their mouthes, sayenge: there there: we se it with oure eyes.

22 This thou seist, o LORDE: holde not thy tonge the: go not farre fro me, o LORDE.

23 Awake (LORDE) and stonde vp: auenge thou my cause, my God, and my LORDE.

24 Iudge me (o LORDE my God) acordinge to thy rightuousnesse, yt they triuphe not ouer me.

25 O let the not saye in their hertes: there there, so wolde we haue it. O let them not saye: we haue ouercome him.

26 Let them be put to confucion and shame, that reioyse at my trouble: let the be clothed with rebuke and dishonoure, that boost the selues agaynst me.

27 Let them also be glad and reioyse, that faouere my rightuous dealinge: yee let them saye allwaye: blessed be ye LORDE, which hath pleasure in the prosperite of his seruauant.

28 And as for my tonge, it shall be talkyng of thy rightuousnes and of thy prayse, all the daye longe.

Psalm 36

1 My hert sheweth me the wickednesse of the vngodly, that there is no feare of God before his eyes.

2 For he dyssembleth before his face, so longe till his abhominable synne be founde out.

3 The wordes of his mouth are vnrightuousnesse and disceate, he wil not be lerned to do good.

4 He ymagineth myschefe vpon his bedde, he will come in no good waye, ner refuse the thinge that is euell.

5 Thy mercy (O LORDE) reacheth vnto the heauen, and thy faithfulness vnto the cloudes.

6 Thy rightuousnesse stondest like the stronge mountaynes, & thy iudgment like the greate depe.

7 Thou LORDE preseruest both me & beestes. How precious is thy mercy (O God) that the children of men maye put their trust vnder ye shadowe of thy wynges?

8 They shalbe satisfied with the pleteousnesse of thy house, and thou shalt geue them drynke of the ryuer of thy pleasures.

9 For by the is ye well of life, & in thy light, shall we se light.

10 O sprede forth thy louynge kyndnesse vnto them that knowe the, & thy rightuousnes vnto the that are true of hert.

11 O let not the fote of pryde ouertake me, O let not the hande of ye vngodly cast me downe.

12 As for wicked doers, they fall, they are cast downe, & are not able to stode.

1 Frett not thy self at the vngodly, be not thou enuious agaynst the euell doers.

2 For they shall soone be cut downe like ye grasse, & be wythered euen as ye grene herbe.

3 Put thou thy trust in ye LORDE, & be doinge good: so shalt thou dwell in the londe, & verely it shal fede the.

4 Delyte thou in the LORDE, & he shal geue the thy hertes desyre.

5 Committe thy waye vnto ye LORDE, set thy hope in him, and he shal bryng it to passe.

6 Yee he shall make thy rightuousnesse as cleare as the light, & thy iust dealinge as the noone daye.

7 Holde the still in ye LORDE, and abyde pacietly vpon him: but greue not thy self at one that hath prosperite, and lyueth in abhominacion.

8 Leau of from wrath, let go displeasure, let not thy gelousy moue the also to do euell.

9 For wicked doers shal be roted out, but they that pacietly abyde the LORDE, shal enheret the londe.

10 Suffre yet a litle whyle, & ye vngodly shalbe clene gone: thou shalt loke after his place, & he shal be awaye.

11 But the meke spreded shal possesse the earth, & haue pleasure in moch rest.

12 The vngodly layeth wayte for the iust, & gna?sheth vpon him wt his teth.

13 But ye LORDE laugheth him to scorne, for he seith yt his daye is cominge.

14 The vngodly drawe out the swerde &

bende their bowe, to cast downe ye symple & poore, and to slaye such as go ye right waye.

15 Neuertheles, their swerde shal go thorow their owne hert, and their bowe shalbe broke.

16 A small thinge yt the rightuous hath, is better then greate riches of the vngodly.

17 For the armes of ye vngodly shalbe broken, but the LORDE vpholdeth the rightuous.

18 The LORDE knoweth the dayes of the godly, & their enheritaunce shal endure for euer.

19 They shal not be cofounded in ye perlous tyme, & in ye dayes of derth they shall haue ynough.

20 As for ye vngodly, they shall perishe: & whe ye enemies of ye LORDE are in their floures, they shal cosume, yee euen as the smoke shal they cosume awaye.

21 The vngodly boroweth and paieth not agayne, but the rightuous is mercifull & liberrall.

22 Soch as be blessed of him, shal possesse the londe: & they whom he curseth, shalbe roted out.

23 The LORDE ordreth a good mans goinge, & hath pleasure in his waye.

24 Though he fall, he shal not be hurte, for the LORDE vpholdeth him wt his hade.

25 I haue bene yonge, & now am olde: yet sawe I neuer the rightuous forsake, ner his sede to seke their bred.

26 The rightuous is euer mercifull, & ledeth getly, therfore shal his sede be blessed.

27 Fle fro euell, & do ye thinge that is good, so shalt thou dwell for euer.

28 For ye LORDE loueth ye thinge yt is right, he forsaketh not his sayntes, but they shal be preserued for euermore:

29 as for the sede of the vngodly, it shalbe roted out.

30 Yee the rightuous shal possesse ye lode, & dwell therin for euer.

31 The mouth of the rightuous is exercised in wy?dome, & his toge talketh of iudgment.

32 The lawe of his God is in his hert, therfore shal not his fotesteppes slyde.

33 The vngodly seyeth the rightuous, & goeth aboute to slaye him.

34 But the LORDE wil not leaue him in his hodes, ner codemme him when he is iudged.

35 Hope thou in the LORDE, & kepe his waye: & he shal so promote the, that thou shalt haue the lode by enheritaunce, & se, when the vngodly shall perishe.

36 I myself haue sene the vngodly in greate power, & flourishinge like a grene baye tre:

37 but when I wente by, lo, he was gone: I sought him, but he coude no where be founde.

38 Kepe innocency, and take hede vnto the thinge that is right, for that shall bryng a man peace at the last.

39 As for the trasgressours, they shal perishe together, and the vngodly shal be roted out at ye last. The helpe of the rightuous commeth of the LORDE, he is their strength in the tyme of trouble.

40 The LORDE shal stode by them, and saue them: he shal delyuer them from the vngodly, and helpe the, because they put their trust in him.

Psalm 38

1 Pvt me not to rebuke (Oh LORDE) in thine anger: Oh chaste me not in thy heuy displeasure.

2 For thy arowes stick fast in me, and thy honde presseth me sore.

3 There is no whole parte in my body, because of thy displeasure: there is no rest in my bones, by reason of my synnes.

4 For my wickednesse are gone ouer my heade, and are like a sore burthen, to heuy forme to beare.

5 My woundes styncke & are corrupte, thorow my folishnesse.

6 I am brought into so greate trouble and misery, that I go mournynge all the daye longe.

7 For my loynes are clene dried vp, and there is no whole parte in my body.

8 I am feble and sore smytte, I roare for the very disquietnes of my hert.

9 LORDE, thou knowest all my desyre, & my gronyng is not hyd from the.

10 My hert paunteth, my strength hath fayled me, & the light of myne eyes is gone fro me.

11 My louers & frendes stonde lokyng vpon my trouble, and my kynsmen are gone a farre of.

12 They that sought after my life, and to do me euell, spake of lyes and ymaged disceate all the daye longe.

13 As for me, I was like a deaf ma, and herde not: and as one that were domme, not openyng his mouth.

14 I am become as a man that heareth not, and that can make no resistance wt his mouth.

15 For in the (O LORDE) is my trust, thou shalt heare me, O LORDE my God.

16 My desyre is, yt myne enemies triumphe not ouer me: for yf my fote slippe, they reioyse greatly against me.

17 I am redy to suffre trouble, and my heynesse is euer in my sight.

18 For I cofesse my wickednesse, & my synne greueth me.

19 But myne enemies lyue, and are mightie: and they that hate me without a cause, are many in nombre.

20 They that rewarde me euell for good, speake euell of me, because I folowe the thinge that good is.

21 Forsake me not (O LORDE my God) O go not farre fro me.

22 Haist the to helpe me, O LORDE my succoure.

Psalm 39

1 I sayde: I wil kepe my waies, that I offended not in my tonge.

2 And so I shut my mouth, whyle the vngodly layed wayte for me.

3 I helde my tonge, I was domme, I kepte sylence, yee eue fro good wordes, but it was payne and grefe to me.

4 My hert was hote within me, & whyle I was thus musyng, the fyre kyndled: so that I spake with my tonge.

5 LORDE, let me knowe myne ende, and the nombre of my dayes: that I maye be certified what I wante.

6 Beholde, thou hast made my dayes a spanne longe, and my life is as it were nothinge before the. O how wayne are all men lyuyng?

7 Sela. Yee euery man walketh as it were a shadowe, and disquieteth him self in wayne: he heapeth vp riches, and can not tell to whom he gathereth them.

8 And now LORDE, wherin shall I comforte me? my hope is in the.

9 Delyuer me from all myne offences, and make me not a scorne vnto the foolish.

10 I kepe sylece, and open not my mouth, for thou hast done it. Turne thy plages awaye fro me, for I am consumed thorow the feare of thy hade.

11 When thou punyshest man for synne, thou chastenest him: so that his beutie consumeth awaye, like as it were a mothe. O how wayne are all men?

12 Sela. Heare my prayer o LORDE, and conside my callinge: shewe not thy self as though thou sawest not my teares. For I am a straunger and pilgrymme with the, as all my forefathers were.

13 Oh spare me a litle, that I maye refresh myself, before I go hence, and be nomore sene.

Psalms 40

1 I wayted paciently for the LORDE, which enclyned himself vnto me, and herde my callinge.

2 He brought me out of the horrible pitte, out of the myre and claye: he set my fete vpo the rocke, and ordred my goinges.

3 He hath put a new songe in my mouth, euen a thankesgeuyng vnto oure God. Many men seyng this, shal feare the LORDE, & put their trust in him.

4 Blessed is the man that setteth his hope in the LORDE, and turneth not vnto the proude, & to soch as go aboute with lies. 5 O LORDE my God, greate are yi wonderous workes which thou hast done: & in thy thoughtes towarde vs there maye none be lickened vnto the.

6 I wolde declare them, and speake of the: but they are so many, that they can not be tolde.

7 Sacrifice and offeringe thou woldest not haue but a body hast thou ordeined me: burntofferynges and sacrifice for synne thou hast not alowed. Then sayde I: Lo, I come.

8 In the begynnyng of the boke it is written of me, that I shulde fulfill thy wil O my God, & that am I contet to do: yee thy lawe is within my hert.

9 I wil preach of yi righteousness in the greate congregacion: Lo, I wil not refrayne my lippes, o LORDE, & that thou knowest.

10 I do not hyde yi righteousness in my hert, my talkyng is of thy treuth and sauynge health: I kepe not thy louynge mercy and faithfulness backe from the greate congregacion.

11 Turne not thou thy mercy fro me o LORDE, but let thy louynge kyndnesse and treuth allwaye preserue me.

12 For innumerable troubles are come aboute me: my synnes haue taken soch holde vpon me, that I am not able to loke vp: yee they are mo in nombre then the hayres of my heade, and my hert hath fayled me.

13 O LORDE, let it be thy pleasure to deliuer me, make haist (o LORDE) to helpe me. Let them be ashamed and cofounded, that seke after my soule, to destroie it: let them fall backwarde and be put to confucion, that wysch me euell.

14 Let the soone be brought to shame, that crie ouer me: there there.

15 But let all those that seke the, be ioyfull and glad in the: and let all soch as delyte in thy sauynge health, saye allwaye: the LORDE be prayسد.

16 As for me, I am poore & in mysery, but the LORDE careth for me.

17 Thou art my helper & redemer, make no longe tariage, o my God.

1 Blessed is he, yt considreth ye poore: ye LORDE shal delyuer him in the tyme of trouble.

2 The LORDE shal preserue him, and kepe him alyue: he shal make him to prospere vpon earth, and shal not delyuer him into ye wil of his enemies.

3 The LORDE shal refresh him, when he lyeth sick vpon his bedd, yee thou makest his bed in all his sicknesse.

4 I sayde: LORDE be mercifull vnto me, heale my soule, for I haue synned agaynst the.

5 Myne enemies speake euell vpo me: whan shal he dye, and his name perishe? 6 Though he came in to se, yet meant he falsede in his hert, heapinge myschefe vpon himself.

7 All they that hate me, runne together agaynst me, and ymagin euell agaynst me.

8 They haue geuen a wicked sentence vpon me: when he lyeth, he shal ryse vp nomore.

9 Yee euen myne owne familier frende, whom I trusted, which dyd eate my bred, hath lift vp his hele agaynst me.

10 But be thou mercifull vnto me (o LORDE) rayse thou me vp, and I shal rewarde them.

11 By this I knowe thou faourest me, that my enemye shal not triumphe ouer me.

12 Thou hast vpholden me because of my innocency, and set me before thy face for euer.

13 O blessed be ye LORDE God of Israel, from hece forth and for euermore. Amen, Amen.

Psalms 42

1 Like as the hert desyareth the water brokes, so longeth my soule after the, o God. My soule is a thurste for God, yee eue for the lyuyng God: wha shal I come, & beholde the face of God?

2 My teares are my meate daye and night, whyle it is daylie sayde vnto me: where is now thy God?

3 Now when I thinke there vpo, I poure out my hert by my self: for I wolde fayne go hence with the multitude, & passe ouer with them vnto the house of God, in ye voyce of prayse & thankesgeuyng, amonge soch as kepe holy daye.

4 Why art thou so full of heuynes (o my soule) & why art thou so vnquiete within me?

5 O put thy trust in God, for I wil yet geue him thanks, for the helpe of his countenance.

6 My God, my soule is vexed within me: therfore I remebre the londe of Iordane, & the litle hill of Hermonim. One depe calleth another wt the voyce of thy whystles, all thy wawes & water floudes are gone ouer me.

7 The LORDE hath promised his louynge kyndnesse daylie, therfore wil I prayse him in the night season, and make my prayer vnto ye God of my life.

8 I wil saye vnto God my stony rock: why hast thou forgotten me? why go I thus heuely, whyle the enemye oppresseth me?

9 Whyle my bones are broken, & whyle myne enemies cast me in the tethe,

10 daylie sayenge vnto me: where is now thy God?

11 Why art thou so heuy (o my soule) & why art thou so disquieted within me? O put thy trust in God, for I wil yet thanke him for the helpe of his countenance, and because he is my God.

Psalms 43

1 Geue sentence vpon me (o God) & defende my cause agaynst the vnholy people: Oh delyuer me from the disceatfull & wicked man.

2 For thou (o God) art my strenght: why hast thou shot me from the? Why go I then so heuely, whyle the enemye oppresseth me?

3 Oh sende out yi light & thy trueth, yt they maye lede me & bryng me vnto thy holy hill and to thy dwellinge.

4 That I maye go into the aluter of God, euen vnto the God which is my ioye & pleasure, & vpon the harpe to geue thakes vnto ye, o God, my God.

5 Why art thou so heuy (o my soule) & why art thou so disquieted within me? O put thy trust in God, for I wil yet geue him thakes for ye helpe of his countenance, and because he is my God.

Psalms 44

1 We haue herde with or eares (o God) or fathers haue tolde vs, what thou hast done in their tyme, of olde.

2 How thou hast dryue out the Heithen wt thy honde, & plated the in: how thou hast destroyed the nacions & cast the out.

3 For they gat not the londe in possession thorow their owne swerde, nether was it their owne arme that helped them.

4 But thy right hade, thyne arme & the light of thy countenance, because thou haddest a faouere vnto them.

5 Thou art ye kinge & my God, thou sendest helpe vnto Iacob.

6 Thorow ye, wil we ouerthrowe oure enemies: & in thy name will we treade them vnder, that ryse vp agaynst vs.

7 For I will not trust in my bowe, it is not my swerde yt shal helpe me.

8 But it is thou that sauest vs fro oure enemies, and putttest them to confucion that hate vs.

9 We will allwaye make oure boast of God, and prayse thy name for euer.

10 Sela. But now thou forsakest vs, & putttest vs to confucion, and goest not forth with oure hoostes.

11 Thou makest vs to turne oure backs vpon oure enemies, so that they which hate vs, spoile oure goodes.

12 Thou lettest vs be eaten vp like shepe, & scatrest vs amonge the Heithen.

13 Thou sellest thy people for naught, & takest no moneye for them.

14 Thou makest vs to be rebuked of or neghbours, to be laughed to scorne aud had in derision, of them that are rounde aboute vs.

15 Thou hast made vs a very byworde amonge the Heithen, & that the people shake their heades at vs.

16 My cofucion is daylie before me, & the shame of my face couereth me.

17 For the voyce of the slauderer & blasphemmer, for the enemye and auenger.

18 All this is come vpon vs, & yet haue we not forgotten the, ner behaued oure selues vnfaithfully in thy couenaunt.

19 Oure hert is not turned backe, nether oure steppes gone out of thy waye.

20 That thou smytest vs so in the place of the serpet, & couerest vs with ye shadowe of death.

21 Yf we had forgotten the name of oure God, & holde vp oure hondes to eny straunge God: Shulde not God fynde it out? for he knoweth the very secretes of the hert.

22 But for thy sake we are kylled all the daie longe, and are counted as shepe apoynted to be slayne.

23 Vp LORDE, why slepest thou? Awake, and cast vs not of for euer.

24 Wherefore hydest thou thy face? wilt thou clene forget oure misery and oppressio?

25 For oure soule is brought lowe euen vnto the dust, and oure bely cleueth vnto the grounde.

26 Arise o LORDE, helpe vs, and delyuer vs for thy mercie sake.

Psalms 45

1 My hert is dytinge of a good matter, I speake of that, which I haue made of the kynge:

2 My tonge is ye penne of a ready wryter.

3 Thou art the fayrest amonge the children of me, full of grace are thy lippes, therefore God blesseth the for euer.

4 Gyrde the with thy swerde vpon thy thee (o thou mightie) with worships and renowne.

5 Good lucke haue thou with thine honoure, ryde on with the truth, mekenesse & rightuousnes: & thy right hode shal teach ye woderfull thinges.

6 Thy arowes are sharpe, the people shalbe subdued vnto the, euen in the myddest amonge the kynges enemies.

7 Thy seate (o God) endureth for euer: the cepter of thy kyngdome is a right cepter.

8 Thou hast loued rightuousnesse, & hated iniquite: wherfore God (which is thy God) hath anoynted the with the oyle of gladnes aboute thy felowes.

9 All thy garmentes are like myrre, Aloes & Cassia, when thou comest out of thine yuerie palaces in thy beutifull glory.

10 Kynges doughters go in thy goodly araye, & vpon thy right honde stondesth the quene in a vesture of the most fyne golde.

11 Herken (o doughter) considre, & encline thine eare: forget thine owne people, & thy fathers house.

12 So shal the kynge haue pleasure in thy beutie, for he is thy LORDE, & thou shalt worships him.

13 The doughters of Tyre shal be there with giftes, the riche amonge the people shal make their supplicacion before the.

14 The kynges doughter is all glorious within, hir clothinge is of wrought golde.

15 She shalbe brought vnto the kynge in rayment of nedle worke, and maydens after her: soch as be next her shalbe brought vnto the.

16 With ioye and gladnesse shal they be brought, and go in to the kynges palace.

17 In steade of thy fathers thou hast gotten children, whom thou shalt make prynces in all londes. I wil remembre thy name from one generacio to another: therfore shal the people geue thanks vnto the, worlde without ende.

Psalm 46

1 In oure troubles and aduersite, we haue founde, that God is oure refuge, oure strength and helpe.

2 Therefore wil we not feare, though the earth fell, and though the hilles were caried in to the myddest of the see.

3 Though the waters of the see raged & were neuer so troublous, & though the mountaynes shoke at the tepest of the same.

4 Sela. For there is a floude, which wt his ryuers reioyseth ye cite of God, the holy dwellynge of the most hyest.

5 God is in ye myddest of her, therefore shall she not be remoued: for God helpeth her, & yt right early.

6 The Heithen are madd, the kyngdomes make moch adoo: but whe he sheweth his voyce, ye earth melteth awaye.

7 The LORDE of hoostes is wt vs, the God of Iacob is oure defence.

8 Sela. O come hither, & beholde ye workes of the LORDE, what destruccios he hath brought vpo ye earth.

9 He hath made warres to ceasse in all the worlde: he hath broken the bowe, he hath knapped the speare in sonder, & bret the charettes in the fyre.

10 Be still the & confesse yt I am God: I wil be exalted amonge the Heithe, & I wil be exalted vpon earth.

11 The LORDE of hoostes is wt vs, the God of Iacob is oure defence. Sela.

Psalm 47

1 O clappe youre hodes together (all ye people) O syng vnto God with the voyce of thakesgeuyng.

2 For the LORDE the most hyest is to be feared, & he is the greate kynge vpo all ye earth.

3 He shal subdue the people vnder vs, & the Heithe vnder oure fete.

4 He choseth vs for an heretage, the beutie of Iacob whom he loued.

5 Sela. God is gone vp wt a mery noyse, & the LORDE wt the sownde of the tropet.

6 O syng praises, syng praises vnto God: O syng praises, syng praises vnto oure kynge.

7 For God is kynge of all the earth, O syng praises vnto him with vnderstandinge.

8 God is kynge ouer the Heithe, God sitteth in his holy seate.

9 The prynces of the people are gathered together vnto the God of Abraham: for God is farre farre hyer exalted, then the mightie lordes of the earth.

Psalm 48

1 Greate is ye LORDE & hyelie to be prayed, in ye cite of or God, eue vpo his holy hill.

2 The hill of Sion is like a fayre plate, wherof all the londe reioyseth: vpon the north syde lyeth the cite of the greate kinge.

3 God is well knowne in hir palaces, yt he is the defence of the same.

4 For lo, kynges are gathered, and gone by together.

5 They marveled, to se soch thinges: they were astonied, & sodely cast downe.

6 Feare came there vpon the, & sorowe as vpo a woman in hir trauayle.

7 Thou shalt breake ye shippes of the see, thorow the east wynde.

8 Like as we haue herde, so se we in the cite of the LORDE of hoostes, in the cite of or God: God vpholdeth the same for euer.

9 Sela. We wayte for thy louynge kyndnesse (o God) in the myddest of thy temple.

10 O God, acordinge vnto thy name, so is yi prayse vnto the worldes ende: thy right hode is full of rightuousnes.

11 Oh let the mout Sion reioyse, & ye doughters of Iuda be glad because of thy iudgmetes.

12 Walke aboute Sion, go rounde aboute her, and tell hir towres.

13 Marke well hir walles, set vp hir houses: that it maye be tolde them yt come after.

14 For this God is or God for euer & euer, and he shal allwaie be or gyde.

Psalm 49

1 O heare this, all ye people: pondre it well, all ye that dwell vpo the earth.

2 Hye & lowe, riche & poore, one wt another.

3 My mouth shal speake of wy?dome, and my hert shal muse of vnderstandinge.

4 I wil encline myne eare to the parable, & shewe my darcke speach vpon the harpe.

5 Wherfore shulde I feare the euell dayes, whe the wickednesse of my heles copaseth me rounde aboute?

6 They that put their trust in their good, & boost them selues in the multitude of their riches.

7 No man maye deliuer his brother, ner make agrement for him vnto God.

8 For it costeth more to redeme their soules, so that he must let that alone for euer.

9 Yee though he lyue loge, & se not ye graue.

10 For it shal be sene, yt soch wyse me shal dye & perishe together, as well as the ignoraunt and foolish, & leaue their goodes for other.

11 Loke what is in their houses, it cotinueth still: their dwellinge places endure from one generacion to another, & are called after their owne names vpon the earth, 12 Neuertheless ma abydeh not insoch honor, but is copared vnto ye brute beastes, & becometh like vnto the.

13 This waie of theirs is very foolishnesse, & yet their posterite prayse it wt their mouth.

14 Sela. They lye in the hell like shepe, death shal gnawe vpon them, & the rightuous shal haue dominacion of them in the mornynge by tymes: their stregth shal consume, & hell shalbe their dwellinge.

15 But God shal deliuer my soule from the power of hell, when he receaueth me.

16 Sela. O be not thou afrayed, whan one is made riche, & the glory of his house increased.

17 For he shal cary nothings awaye wt him when he dyeth, nether shal his pompe folowe him.

18 Whye he lyueth, he is counted an happie man: & so loge as he is in prosperite, me speake good of him.

19 But whe he foloweth his fathers generacion, he shal neuer se light any more.

20 When a man is in honoure and hath no vnderstodinge, he is compared vnto the brute beastes, and becommeth like vnto them.

Psalm 50

1 The LORDE euen the mightie God hath spoke, & called the worlde from the rysinge vp of the sonne vnto the goinge downe of the same.

2 Out of Sion appeareth the glorious beutie of God.

3 Oure God shal come, and not kepe sylence: there goeth before him a consumynge fyre, and a mightie tempest rounde aboute him.

4 He shal call the heauens from aboue, and the earth, that he maye iudge his people.

5 Gather my sayntes together vnto me, those yt set more by the couenaunt then by eny offeringe.

6 And the heauens shal declare his rightuousnesse, for God is iudge himself.

7 Sela. Heare, o my people: let me speake, let me testifie amonge you, o Israel: I am God, euen thy God.

8 I reprove the not because of thy sacrifice, yi burntofferings are allwaie before me.

9 I wil take no bullockes out of thy house, ner gotes out of thy foldes.

10 For all the beestes of the felde are myne, and thousandes of catell vpon the hilles.

11 I knowe all the foules vpon the mountaynes, and the wilde beastes of the felde are in my sight.

12 Yf I be hongrie, I wil not tell the: for ye whole worlde is myne, and all that therein is.

13 Thynkest thou, that I wil eate the flesh of oxen, or drynke the bloude of goates?

14 Offre vnto God prayse and thankesgeuyng, and paye thy vowes vnto the most hyest.

15 And call vpo me in the tyme of trouble, so wil I heare the, that thou shalt thanke me.

16 But vnto the vngodly sayeth God: Why doest thou preach my lawes, and takedst my couenaunt in thy mouth?

17 Where as thou hatest to be reformed, and castest my wordes behynde the?

18 Yf thou seist a thefe, thou runnest with him, and art partaker with the aduouterers.

19 Thou lettest yi mouth speake wickednesse, & thy tonge paynteth disceate.

20 Thou syttest and speakest agaynst thy brother, yee and slaundrest thine owne mothers sonne.

21 This thou doest, whye I holde my tonge: and thinkest me to be eue soch one as thy self; but I wil reprove the, & set my self agaynst the.

22 O considre this, ye that forget God: lest I plucke you awaie, and there be none to deliuer you.

23 Who so offreth me thakes and prayse, he honoureth me: & this is the waye, wherby I wil shewe him the sauynge health of God.

Psalm 51

1 Haue mercy vpon me (o God) after thy goodnes, & acordinge vnto thy greate mercies, do awaye myne offences.
 2 Wash me well fro my wickednesse, & clense me fro my synne.
 3 For I knowlege my fautes, and my synne is euer before me.
 4 Agaynst the only, agaynst the haue I synned, and done euell in thy sight: that thou mightest be iustified in thy saynges, and shuldest ouercome when thou art iudged.
 5 Beholde, I was borne in wickednesse, and in synne hath my mother conceaued me.
 6 But lo, thou hast a pleasure in the treuth, and hast shewed me secrete wy?dome.
 7 O reconcile me with Isope, and I shal be clene: wash thou me, and I shalbe whyter then snowe.
 8 Oh let me heare of ioye and gladnesse, that the bones which thou hast broken, maye reioyse.
 9 Turne thy face fro my synnes, and put out all my my?dedes.
 10 Make me a clene hert (o God) and renue a right sprete within me.
 11 Cast me not awaie from thy presence, and take not thy holy sprete fro me.
 12 O geue me the comforte of thy helpe agayne, and stablish me with thy fre sprete.
 13 Then shal I teach thy wayes vnto the wicked, that synners maye be conuerted vnto the.
 14 Delyuer me from bloudegylytnesse o God, thou that art the God of my health, that my tonge maye prayse thy rightuousnesse.
 15 Open my lippes (O LORDE) that my mouth maye shewe thy prayse.
 16 For yf thou haddest pleasure in sacrifice, I wolde geue it the: but thou delytest not in burntofferynges.
 17 The sacrifice of God is a troubled sprete, a broken and a cotrite hert (o God) shalt thou not despise.
 18 O be fauorable and gracious vnto Sion, that the wallis of Ierusalem maye be buylded.
 19 For then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of rightuousnesse, with the burntofferynges and oblacions: then shal they laye bullockes vpon thine autler.

Psalm 52

1 Why boastest thou thy self (thou Tyraunt) that thou canst do myschefe?
 2 Where as the goodnesse of God endureth yet daylie.
 3 Thy tonge ymagineth wickednesse, and with lyes it cutteth like a sharpe rasoure.
 4 Thou louest vngraciousnesse more the good, to talke of lyes more then rightuousnesse.
 5 Sela. Thou louest to speake all wordes yt maye do hurte, O thou false toge.
 6 Therefore shal God cleane destroyethe, smyte the in peces, plucke the out of thy dwellinge, and rote the out of the londe of the lyuinge.

 7 Sela. The rightuous shal se this, & feare, and laugh him to scorne.
 8 Lo, this is the ma, yt toke not God for his strenght, but trusted vnto the multitude of his riches, & was mightie in his wickednesse.
 9 As forme, I am like a grene olyue tre in ye house of God: my trust is in the tender mercy of God for euer & euer. I wil allwaye geue thanks vnto the, for that thou hast done: and wil hope in thy name, for thy sayntes like it well.

Psalm 53

1 The foolish bodies saye in their hertes: Tush, there is no God. Corrupte are they, and become abhominable in their wickednesse: there is not one, that doth good.
 2 God loked downe from heauen vpo the children of men, to se yf there were eny that wolde vnderstonde, or seke after God.
 3 But they are all gone out of ye waye, they are all become vnprofitable: there is none yt doth good, no not one.
 4 How ca they haue vnderstandinge, that are the workers of wickednes, eatinge vp my people as it were bred, & call not vpon God?
 5 They are afrayed, where no feare is: for God breaketh the bones of them that besege the: thou putttest them to confucion, for God despiseth them.
 6 Oh yt the sauynge health were geuen vnto Israel out of Sion: Oh that the LORDE wolde delyuer his people out of captiuyte. Then shulde Iacob reioyse, & Israel shulde be right glad.

Psalm 54

1 Helpe me (o God) for thy names sake, and delyuer me in thy strenght.
 2 Heare my prayer (o God) considre the wordes of my mouth.
 3 For straungers are rysen vp agaynst me, and the mightie (which haue not God before their eyes) seke after my soule.
 4 Sela. But lo, God is my helper: it is he that vpholdeth my soule.
 5 He shall rewarde euell vnto myne enemies, and in thy treuth shalt thou destroye them.
 6 A frewil offeringe wil I geue the, and prayse thy name o LORDE, because it is so comfortable.
 7 For thou hast delyuered me out of all my trouble, so that myne eye seyth his desyre vpo myne enemies.

Psalm 55

1 Heare my prayer (o God) and hyde not thy self fro my petition. Take hede vnto me and heare me, how piteously I mourne & coplayne.
 2 The enemye crieth so, & the vngodly commeth on so fast: for they are mynded to do me some myschefe, so maliciously are they set agaynst me.

 3 My herte is heuy within me, and the feare of death is fallen vpon me.
 4 Fearfullnesse and tremblinge are come vpon me, and an horrible drede hath ouerwhelmed me.
 5 And I sayde: O that I had wynges like a doue, that I might fle somewhere, and be at rest.
 6 Lo, then wolde I get me awaye farre of, and remayne in the wilderness.
 7 Sela. I wolde make haist to escape, from the stormy wynde and tempest.
 8 Destroie their tonges (o LORDE) and deuyde them, for I se vnrightuousnes & strife in ye cite.
 9 This goeth daye and night aboute the wallis, myschefe and vyce are in the myddest of it.
 10 Wickednesse is therin, disceate and gyle go not out of hir stretes.
 11 Yf it were myne enemye that reuyled me, I coude beare it: or yf one that ought me euell wil dyd threaten me, I wolde hyde myself from him.
 12 But it is thou my companyon, my gyde and myne owne familier frede.
 13 We had swete and secrete comunicacion together, and louynge walked we together in ye house of God.
 14 Let death come hastely vpon them, and let them go downe quick into hell, for wickednes is amonge them in their dwellinges.
 15 As for me, I will call vnto God, and the LORDE shall helpe me.
 16 In the eueninge, mornynge and at noone daye wil I mourne and coplayne: and he shal heare my voyce.
 17 It is he that delyuereth my soule in peace, from them that laye waite for me: for they are many agaynst me.
 18 Yee euen God that endureth for euer, shal heare me, and brynge them downe.
 Sela. For they wil not turne: and why? they feare not God.
 19 Yee they laye hondes vpon soch as be at peace with him, and so thei breake his couenant.
 20 Their mouthes are softer then butter, & yet haue they batell in their mynde: their wordes are smoothen then oyle, and yet be they very swerdes.
 21 O cast thy burthen (or care) vpon the LORDE, he shal norish the, and not leaue the rightuous in vnquietnesse.
 22 But as for them, thou (o God) shalt cast them downe in to the pitte of destruction.
 23 The bloudthurstie and disceatfull shal not lyue out half their daies.
 Neuerthelesse my trust is in the.

Psalm 56

1 Be mercifull vnto me (o God) for men wil treade me downe: they are daylie fightinge & troublinge me.
 2 Myne enemies treade me daylie vnder their fete, for they be many, yt proudly fight agaynst me.
 3 Neuerthelesse, whe I am afrayed, I put my trust in the.

 4 I wil comforte my self in Gods worde, yee I wil hope in God, and not feare: What can flesh then do vnto me?
 5 They vexe me daylie in my wordes: all yt they ymagin, is to do me euell.
 6 They holde alltogether, & kepe them selues close: they marck my steppes, how they maye catch my soule.
 7 But in vayne, for it shal escape the: and why? thou (o God) in thy displeasure shalt cast downe soch people.
 8 Thou tellest my flittinges, thou putttest my teares in thy botell, and nombrest them.
 9 When so euer I call vpon the, myne enemies are put to flight: wherby I knowe, that thou art my God.
 10 In Gods worde wil I reioyse, in the LORDES worde wil I comforte me.
 11 Yee in God do I trust, & am not affraid: what ca man the do vnto me?
 12 Vnto the (o God) wil I paye my vowes, vnto ye wil I geue thakes & prayse.
 13 For thou hast delyuered my soule fro death, & my fete fro fallinge, yt I maye walke before God in ye light of ye lyuynge.

Psalm 57

1 Be mercifull vnto me (o God) be mercifull vnto me, for my soule trusteth in ye: & vnder the shadowe of thy wynges shalbe my refuge, vntill wickednesse be ouerpast.
 2 I call vnto God ye most hiest, eue ye God yt shal helpe me vp agayne.
 3 He shal sende fro heauen, & saue me fro the reprove of him that wolde swalowe me vp.
 4 Sela. This shal God sende, for his mercy and faithfulness sake. I lye with my soule amonge the cruell Lyons:
 5 euen amonge the children of men, whose tethe are speares and arowes, and their tonge a sharpe swerde.
 6 Set vp thy self (o God) aboute the heaues, and thy glory aboute all the earth.
 7 They haue layed a nett for my fete, & pressed downe my soule: they haue dygged a pyt before me, and are fallen in to it them selues.
 8 Sela. My hert is ready (o God) my hert is ready, to synge and geue prayse.
 9 Awake (o my glory) awake lute and harpe, I my self wil awake right early.
 10 I wil geue thakes vnto the (o LORDE) amonge the people, I wil synge prayses vnto the amonge the Heithe.
 11 For ye greatnes of thy mercy reacheth vnto the heuens, and thy faithfulness vnto the cloudes. Set vp thy self (o God) aboute the heaues, & thy glory aboute all ye earth.

Psalm 58

1 Yf youre myndes be vpon rightuousnesse in dede, then iudge the thinge that is right, o ye sonnes of men.
 2 But ye ymagin myschefe in youre hertes, and youre hondes deale with wickednesse.

3 The vngodly are frowarde, eue from their mothers wombe: as soone as they be borne, they go astraie & speake lyes.

4 They are as furious as the serpent, euen like the deaf Adder that stoppeth hir eares.

5 That she shulde not heare the voyce of the charmer, charme he neuer so wysely.

6 Breake their teth (o God) in their mouthes, smyte the chaft bones of the Lyons whelpes in sonder, o LORDE.

7 That they maye fall awaye, like water yt runneth a pace: and that when they shote their arowes, they maye be broke.

8 Let the cosume awaye like a snale, & like the vntymely frute of a woman, and let them not se the Sonne.

9 Or euer youre thornes be sharpe, the wrath shal take them awaye quycke, like a stormy wynde.

10 The rightuous shal reioyse when he seyth the vengeance, and shal wash his fete in the bloude of the vngodly.

11 So that men shal saye: verely, there is a rewarde for ye rightuous: doutles, there is a God that iudgeth the earth.

Psalm 59

1 Delyuer me fro myne enemies (o my God) & defende me fro the yt ryse vp agaynst me.

2 O delyuer me fro the wicked doers, & saue me fro the bloudthurstie me.

3 For lo, they lye waytinge for my soule: ye mightie me are gathered together against me, wt out eny offence or faute of me, o LORDE.

4 They rune & prepare the selues, wt out my faute: Arise, come thou helpe me, & beholde.

5 Stode vp o LORDE God of hoostes, thou God of Israel, vt vyset all Heithen: be not mercifull vnto the yt offende of malicious wickednesse.

6 Sela. Let the go to & fro, & runne aboute the cite youlinge like dogges.

7 Beholde, they speake (agaynst me) wt their mouth, swerdes are vnder their lippes, for who reprobeth the?

8 But thou (o LORDE) shalt haue them in derision, thou shalt laugh all Heithe to scorne.

9 My strength do I ascrybe vnto the, for thou (o God) art my defender.

10 God sheweth me his goodnesse plenteously, God letteth me se my desyre vpo myne enemies.

11 Slaye the not, lest my people forget it: but scatere the abroad with thy power & put the downe, o LORDE our defence.

12 For ye synne of their mouth, for the wordes of their lippes, & because of their pryde, let the be taken: & why? their preachinge is of cursynge & lyes.

13 Cosume them in yi wrath, cosume the yt they maye perish, & knowe yt it is God, which ruleth in Iacob and in all the worlde.

14 Sela. Let the go to & fro, & rune aboute the cite, youlinge like dogges.

15 Let the runne here & there for meate, and grudge when they haue not ynough.

16 As for me, I wil syng of thy power, ad prayse thy mercy betymes in the mornynge: for thou art my defence and refuge in the tyme of my trouble.

17 Vnto the (o my strength) wil I syng, for thou (o God) art my defence, and my merciful God.

Psalm 60

1 O God, thou yt hast cast vs out and scatred vs abroad, thou yt hast bene so sore displeasid at vs, coforte vs agayne.

2 Thou yt hast remoued the lode & deuyded it, heale the sores therof, for it shaketh.

3 Thou hast shewed thy people heuy thinges, thou hast geuen vs a drynke off wyne, yt we slobre withall.

4 Yet hast thou geue a toke for soch as feare the, yt they maye cast it vp in ye treuth.

5 Sela. That thy beloued might be deluyered, helpe them with thy right hande, and heare me.

6 God hath spoke in his Sactuary (which thinge reioyseth me) I wil deuyde Siche, & mete out the valley of Suchoth

7 Galaad is myne, Manasses is myne, Ephraim is the strength of my heade, Iuda is my captayne.

8 Moab is my washpotte, ouer Edom wil I stretch out my shue, Philistea shal be glad of me.

9 Who will lede me in to the stronge cite? Who will bringe me in to Edom?

10 Shalt not thou do it, o God, thou yt hast cast vs out: thou God, yt wentest not out wt or hoostes?

11 O be thou oure helpe in trouble, for vayne is the helpe of man.

12 Thorow God we shal do greate actes, for it is he that shal treade downe oure enemies.

Psalm 61

1 Heare my crienge (o God) geue hede vnto my prayer.

2 From the endes of ye earth wil I call vnto the, whe my herte is in trouble:

3 Oh set me vp vpo an hye rocke. For thou art my hope, a stronge tower for me agaynst the enemye.

4 I will dwell in thy tabernacle for euer, that I maye be safe vnder the couerynge of thy wynges.

5 Sela. For thou (o LORDE) hast herde my desyres, thou hast geuen an heretage vnto those that feare thy name.

6 Thou shalt graunte the kynge a loge life, that his yeares maye endure thorow out all generacions.

7 That he maye dwell before God for euer: Oh let thy louynge mercy & faithfulness preserue him.

8 So wil I allwaye syng prayses vnto thy name, yt I maye daylie perfourme my vowes.

Psalm 62

1 My soule wayteth only vpon God, for of him commeth my helpe.

2 He only is my strength, my saluacion, my defence, so yt I shal not greatly fall.

3 How longe wil ye ymagin myschefe agaynst euery man? ye shal be slayne all ye sorte of you: yee as a tottringe wall shal ye be, & like a broken hedge.

4 Their deuyce is only how to put him out, their delyte is i lyes: they geue good wordes wt their mouth but curse wt their herte.

5 Sela. Neuertheles, my soule abydeth only vpon God, for he is my God.

6 He only is my strength, my saluacion, my defence: so yt I shal not fall.

7 In God is my health, my glory, my might, & in God is my trust.

8 Oput yor trust in him allwaye (ye people) poure out yor hertes before him, for God is oure hope.

9 Sela. As for men, they are but vayne, me are disceatfull: vpo the weightes they are al together lighter then vanite itself.

10 O trust not in wronge & robbery, geue not yor selues vnto vanite: yf riches increase, set not yor herte vpon them.

11 God spake once a worde, twyse haue I herde the same: that power belongeth vnto God.

12 That thou LORDE art mercifull, & that thou rewardest euery man accordinge to his workes.

Psalm 63

1 O God, thou art my God: early wil I seke the.

2 My soule thirsteth for the, my flesh longeth after the in a bare & drie lode, where no water is.

3 Thus do I loke for the in thy Sactuary, that I might beholde yi power & glory.

4 For thy louynge kyndnesse is better then life, my lypes shal prayse the.

5 As loge as I liue wil I magnifie the, & lift vp my hondes in thy name.

6 My soule is satisfied eue as it were with marry & fatnesse, when my mouth prayseth the with ioyfull lippes.

7 In my bedde wil I remembre ye, & whe I wake, my talkynge shalbe of the.

8 For thou hast bene my helper, & vnder the shadowe of yi wynges wil I reioyse.

9 My soule hangeth vpon the, thy right honde vpholdeth me.

10 They seke after my soule, but in vayne, for they shal go vnder the earth.

11 They shal fall in to the swerde, & be a porcio for foxes. But ye kynge shal reioyse in God: all they that sweare by hym, shal be commeded, for the mouth of lyers shalbe stopped.

Psalm 64

1 Heare my voyce (o God) in my coplaynte, preserue my life fro feare of ye enemye.

2 Hyde me from the gatheringe together of ye frowarde, fro ye heape of wicked doers.

3 Which whette their tuges like a swerde, & shute wt their venimous wordes like as wt arowes.

4 That they maye preuely hurte ye innocet, & sodely to hit him wt out eny feare.

5 They haue deuysed myschefe, and commoned amonge them selues, how they maye laye snares: tush (saye they) who shall se them?

6 They ymagin wickednesse, and kepe it secreate amonge them selues, euery man in ye depe of his herte.

7 But God shall sodenly shute with an arowe, yt they shall be wounded.

8 Yee their owne tinges shal make them fall, In so moch that who so seyth the, shal laugh the to scorne.

9 And all men that se it, shal saye: this hath God done for they shal perceaue, yt it is his worke.

10 The rightuous shal reioyse in the LORDE, and put his trust in him: and all they yt are true off herte, shalbe glad therof.

Psalm 65

1 Thou (o God) art prayed in Sion, and vnto the is the vowe performed.

2 Thou hearest the prayer, therefore cometh all flesh vnto the.

3 Oure my?dedes preuayle agaynst vs, oh be thou mercifull vnto oure synnes.

4 Blessed is the man who thou cholest and receauest vnto the, that he maye dwell in thy courte: he shall be satisfied with the pleasures of thy house, euen off thy holy temple.

5 Heare vs accordinge vnto thy woderfull rightuousnesse, o God oure saluacio: thou that art the hope of all the endes of ye earth, and off the brode see.

6 Which in his strength setteth fast the moutaynes, & is gyrded aboute with power.

7 Which stilleth ye ragie of the see, the roaringe off his wawes, and the woodnes of the people.

8 They that dwell in ye vttemost partes are afrayed at thy tokens, thou makest both the mornynge and euenynge starres to prayse ye.

9 Thou visetest the earth, thou watrest it, and makest it very plenteous.

10 The ryuer of God is full of waters, thou prearest man his corne, ad thus thou prouydest for the earth.

11 Thou watrest hir forowes, thou breakest the harde clottes therof, thou makest it soft with ye droppes of rayne, and blesset the increase of it.

12 Thou crownest the yeare with thy good, and thy fotesteppes droppe fatnesse.

13 The dwellinges of the wildernes are fitt also, yt they droppe withall, & the litle hilles are pleasaunt on euery syde.

The foldes are full of shepe, the valleys stonde so thicke with corne yt they laugh and syng.

Psalm 66

1 O be ioyfull in God (all ye lodes) syng praises vnto the honor of his name make his prayse to be glorious.
2 Saye vnto God: O how wonderfull are thy workes? thorow the greatnesse of thy power shal thine enemies be confounded.
3 O yt all the worlde wolde worshippe the,
syng of the and prayse thy name.
4 Sela. O come hither and beholde the workes of God, which is so wonderfull in his doinges amonge the children of men.
5 He turned the see in to drye lode, so that they wente thorow the water on fote:
therefore wil we reioyse in him.
6 He ruleth with his power for euer, his eyes beholde the people: the rennagates shal not be able to exalte them selues.
7 Sela. O magnifie or God (ye people) make ye voyce off his prayse to be herde.
8 Which holdeth or soule in life, and suffreth not oure fete to slippe.
9 For thou (o God) hast proued vs, thou hast tried vs like as syluer is tried.
10 Thou hast brought vs in to captiuyte, and layed trouble vpon or loynes.
11 Thou hast suffred men to ryde ouer or heades,
12 we wete thorow fyre and water, butt thou hast brought vs out, and refreshed vs.
13 Therefore will I go into thy house wt bretofferings, to paye the my vowes, 14 which I promised wt my lippes, and spake with my mouth, when I was in trouble.
15 I wil offre vnto the fatte brentsacrifices with the smoke of rames,
I will offre bullockes and goates.
16 Sela. O come hither and herke (all ye that feare God) I wil tell you, what he hath done for my soule.
17 I called vnto hi wt my mouth and gaue him prayes with my tuge.
18 (Yff I encline vnto wickednes with my herte, ye LORDE wil not heare me.)
19 Therefore God hath herde me, ad considered the voyce off my prayer.
20 Praysed be God, which hath not cast out my prayer, ner turned his mercy fro me.

Psalm 67

1 God be mercifull vnto vs, blesse vs, &
shewe the light off his countenance apon
vs.
2 Sela. That we maye knowe yi waye vpo earth, yi sauynge health amonge all Heithen.
3 Let the people prayse the (o God) yee let all people prayse the.
4 O let the people reioyse and be glad, that thou iudgeth the folke rightuously, and gouernest the nacions vpo earth.
5 Let the people prayse the (o God) let all people prayse the.
6 God (euen oure owne God) geue vs his blessinge, that the earth maye bringe forth hir increase 7 God blesse vs, and let all the endes of ye worlde feare him.

Psalm 68

1 Let God aryse, so shal his enemies be scatered, and they that hate him, shal fe before him.
2 Like as the smoke vanisheth, so shalt thou dryue them awaye: and like as waxe melteth at the fyre, so shall the vngodly perish at the presence off God.
3 But the righteous shal be glad & reioyse before God, they shalbe mery & ioyful.
4 Oh syng vnto God, syng praises vnto his name: magnifie him yt rydeth aboue the heaues (whose name is ye LORDE) & reioyse before hi.
5 He is a father of ye fatherlesse, he is a defender of widdowes: eue God in his holy habitacio.
6 He is the God yt maketh me to be of one mynde in a house, & bryngeth ye presoners out of captiuite in due season, but letteth ye rennagates cotinue in scarcenesse.
7 O God, when thou wetest forth before yi people, whe thou wetest thorow ye wildernes.
8 Sela. The earth shoke, & ye heaues dropped at the presence of God in Sinai, at ye presence of God which is ye God of Israel.
9 Thou o God sendest a gracious rayne vpon thyne enheritaue, & refreshest it, when it is drye.
10 That thy beastes maye dwell therin, which thou of thy goodnes hast prepared for the poore.
11 The LORDE shal geue the worde, wt greate hoostes of Euagelistes.
12 Kinges wt their armies shal fe, & they of ye housholde shal deuyde ye spoyle.
13 Yf so be yt ye lye amoge the pales,
the doues fethers shalbe couered with syluer,
& hir winges of the color of golde.
14 When the Allmightie setteth kynges vpo the earth, it shalbe cleare euen in the darknesse.
15 The hill of Basan is Gods hill, the hill of Basan is a pleteous hill.
16 Why hoppe ye so, ye greate hilles? It pleaseth God to dwell vpo this euill, yee the LORDE wil abyde in it for euer.
17 The charettes of God are many M. tymes a thousande, the LORDE is amoge them in the holy Sinai.
18 Thou art gone vp an hie, thou hast led captiuite captiue, & receaued giftes for me: Yee euen for thy enemies, that they might dwell with the LORDE God.
19 Praysed be the LORDE daylie, eue ye God which helpeth vs, & poureth his benefites vpo vs.
20 Sela. The God yt is or Sauior, eue God the LORDE by who we escape death.
21 The God that smyteth his enemies vpo the heades & vpon the hayrie scalpes:
soch as go on still in their wikednes.
22 The LORDE hath sayde: some wil I bringe agayne from Basan, some wil I bringe agayne fro the depe of the see.
23 That thy fote maye be dipped in the bloude of thine enemies, & that thy dogges maye lick it vp.
24 It is well sene (o God how thou goest, how thou my God and kyng goest in the Sanctuary.

25 The syngers go before, and then the mynstrells amonge the maydens with the tymbrels.
26 O geue thanks vnto God the LORDE in the congregacion, for the welles of Israel.
27 There litle Beniamin, the prynces of Iuda, the prynces of Zabulo, and the prynces of Nephthali beare rule amoge them.
28 Thy God hath comitted stregth vnto the, stablish the thinge (o God) that thou hast wrought in vs.
29 For thy teples sake at Ierusalem shal kynges brynge presentes vnto the.
30 Reproue the beestes amonge the redes, the heape of bulles with the calues: those that dryue for money. Oh scatre the people that delyte in batayle.
31 The prynces shal come out of Egipte, the Morians lode shal stretch out hir hondes vnto God.
32 Syng vnto God, o ye kyngdomes of the earth: o syng praises vnto the
LORDE.
33 Sela. Which sytteth in the heaues ouer all fro the begynnge: Lo, he shal sende out his voyce, yee and that a mightie voyce.
34 Ascrybe ye the power vnto God, his glory is in Israel, and his might in the cloudes.
35 God is wonderfull in his Sanctuary, he is the God of Israel, he will geue strength and power vnto his people. Blessed be God.

Psalm 69

1 Helpe me (o God) for the waters are come in eue vnto my soule.
2 I sticke fast in the depe myre, where no grounde is: I am come into depe waters, and the floudes wil drowne me.
3 I am weery of crienge, my throte is drye, my sight fayleth me, for waytinge so longe vpon my God.
4 They yt hate me without a cause, are mo then the hayres of my heade: they that are myne enemies & wolde destroye me giltlesse, are mightie:
5 I am fayne to paye the thinges yt I neuer toke. God, thou knowest my symplenesse, and my fautes are not hyd from the.
6 Let not them that trust in the (o LORDE God of hoostes) be ashamed for my cause: let not those yt seke the, be confounded thorow me, o God of Israel.
7 And why? for thy sake do I suffre reprofe, shame couereth my face.
8 I am become a straunger vnto my brethren, and an aleaunt vnto my mothers children.
9 For the zele of thine house hath euen eaten me, and the rebukes of them that rebuked the, is fallen vpon me.
10 I wepte and chastened my self wt fastinge, and that was turned to my reprofe.
11 I put on a sackcloth, and therefore they iested vpon me.

12 They that satt in the gate, spake agaynst me, and the dronckardes made songes vpon me.
13 But LORDE, I made my prayer vnto
the in an acceptable tyme:
14 Heare me (o God) with thy greate mercy & sure helpe.
15 Take me out of the myre, yt I syncke not: Oh let me be deluyered fro the yt hate me, & out of ye depe waters.
16 Lest ye water floude drowne me, that the depe swalowe me not vp, & yt the pitte shut not hir mouth vpon me.
17 Heare me (o LORDE) for thy louynge kyndnesse is comfortable: turne the vnto me acordinge vnto yi greate mercy.
18 Hyde not thy face from thy seruaut, for I am in trouble: O haist ye to helpe
me.
19 Drawe nye vnto my soule, and saue it:
Oh deluyer me because of myne enemies.
20 Thou knowest my reprofe, my shame & my dishonor: my aduersaries are all in thy sight.
21 The rebuke breaketh my hert, & maketh me heuy: I loke for some to haue pitie vpon me, but there is no man: & for some to coforte me, but I fynde none.
22 They gaue me gall to eate, & whe I was thurstie, they gaue me vyneger to drynke.
23 Let their table be made a snare to take them selues withall, an occasion to fall & a rewarde vnto them.
24 Let their eyes be blynded, that they se not: & euer bowe downe their backes.
25 Poure out thy indignacion vpon them, & let thy wrothfull displeasure take holde of them.
26 Let their habitacion be voyde, & no man to dwell in their tentes.
27 For they persecute him whom thou hast smytten, & besyde thy woundes they haue geuen him moo.
28 Let them fall fro one wickednesse to another, & not come into thy rightuousnesse.
29 Let the be wyped out of ye boke of the lyuinge, & not be written amonge the rightuous.
30 As for me, I am poore & in heuynesse, let thy helpe defende me, o God.
31 That I maye prayse ye name of God with a songe, & magnifie it with thankesgeuynges.
32 This shal please the LORDE better then a bullocke, that hath hornes & hoffes.
33 O conside this & be glad (ye that be in aduersite) seke after God, & yor soule shal lyue.
34 For the LORDE heareth the poore, & despysset not his presoners.
35 Let heauen & earth praise him, the see
& all that moueth therin.
36 For God wil saue Sion, & buylde the cities of Iuda, that men maye dwell there, & haue the in possession. The sede of his seruautes shal iheret it, & they that loue his name, shal dwell therin.

Psalm 70

1 Haist the (o God) to delyuer me, & to helpe me, o LORDE.
 2 Let the be shamed & confounded that seke after my soule: let them be turned backward & put to confucio, that wyshe me euell.
 3 Let them soone be brought to shame, yt crie ouer me: there there.
 4 But let all those that seke the, be ioyfull & glad in the: and let all soch as delyte in thy sauynge health, saye alwaye: ye LORDE be prayesed.
 5 As for me, I am poore & in misery, haist the God for to helpe me. Thou art my helpe, my redemer & my God: oh make no longe tarienge.

Psalm 71

1 In the, o LORDE, is my trust, let me neuer be put to cofucio, but rydde me: & delyuer me thorow thy rightuousnesse: encline thine eare vnto me, & helpe me.
 2 Be thou my stronge holde (where vnto I maye allwaye fle) thou that hast promised to helpe me: for thou art my house of defence & my castell.
 3 Delyuer me (o my God) out of ye hade of the vngodly, out of the hande of the vnrightuous & cruell man.
 4 For thou (o LORDE God) art the thinge that I loge for, thou art my hope euen from my youth.
 5 I haue leaned vpo ye euer sens I was borne, thou art he that toke me out of my mothers wombe, therefore is my praye allwaye of the.
 6 I am become a wonder vnto the multitude, but my sure trust is in the.
 7 Oh let my mouth be fylled with thy prayse & honoure all the daye loge.
 8 Cast me not awaye in myne olde age, forsake me not when my strength fayleth me.
 9 For myne enemies speake agaynst me, & they that laye wayte for my soule, take their counsell together, sayenge: God hath forsake him, persecute him, take him, for there is none to helpe him.
 10 Go not farre fro me, o God: my God, haist the to helpe me.
 11 Let them be cofounded & perish, that are agaynst my soule: let the be couered with shame & dishonoure, that seke to do me euell.
 12 As for me, I wil pacietly abyde allwaye, & wil euer encrease thy prayse.
 13 My mouth shal speake of thy rightuousnesse & sauynge health all the daye loge, for I knowe no ende therof.
 14 Let me go in (o LORDE God) & I wil make mencion of thy power and rightuousnesse only.
 15 Thou (o God) hast lerned me fro my youth vp vntill now, therefore wil I tell of yi wonderous workes.
 16 Forsake me not (o God) in myne olde age, when I am gray headed: vntill I haue shewed thine arme vnto childers children, & thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

17 Thy rightousnes (o God) is very hie, thou that doest greate thinges: o God, who is like vnto the?
 18 O what greate troubles & aduersite hast thou shewed me? & yet didest thou turne & refresh me, yee & broughtest me from the depe of the earth agayne.
 19 Thou hast brought me to greate honoure, & comforted me on euery syde.
 20 Therefore wil I prayse the & thy faithfulness (o God) playege vpon the lute, vnto the wil I synge vpon the harpe. o thou holy one of Israel.
 21 My lippes wolde fayne synge prayes vnto the:
 22 & so wolde my soule, whom thou hast delyuered.
 23 My tonge talketh of thy rightuousnesse all the daye longe,
 24 for they are confounded & brought vnto shame, yt sought to do me euell.

Psalm 72

1 Geue the kinge thy iudgmet (o God) and thy rightuousnesse vnto the kynges sonne.
 2 That he maye gouerne thy people acordinge vnto right, and defende thy poore.
 3 That the mountaynes maye brynge peace, and the litle hilles rightuousnes vnto the people.
 4 He shal kepe the symple folke by their right, defende the childre of the poore, and punysh the wrongeous doer.
 5 Thou shalt be feared as longe as ye Sonne and the Moone endureth, from one generacion to another.
 6 He shal come downe like the rayne in to a flese of woll, and like the droppes that water ye earth.
 7 In his tyme shal rightuousnesse flourish, yee and abundaunce of peace, so longe as the Moone endureth.
 8 His dominion shalbe from the one see to the other, and from the floude vnto the worldes ende.
 9 They that dwell in the wildernes, shal knele before him, & his enemies shal licke the dust.
 10 The kynges of the see and of the Iles shal brynge presentes, ye kinges of Araby & Saba shall offre giftes.
 11 All kynges shal worshipe him, & all Heithe shal do him seruyce.
 12 For he shal deliuer the poore whe he crieth, & the nedy yt hath no helpe.
 13 He shall be fauorable to the symple & poore, he shal preserue the soules of soch as be in aduersite.
 14 He shal deliuer their soules from extortion & wronge, & deare shal their bloude be in his sight.
 15 He shal lyue, & vnto him shalbe geue of ye golde of Arabia: Prayer shal be made euer vnto him, & daylie shal he be prayesed.
 16 There shalbe an heape of come in the earth hye vpon the hilles, his frute shal shake like Libanus, 17 & shal be grene in the cite, like grasse vpo the earth.

18 His name shal endure for euer, his name shal remayne vnder the sonne amonge the posterites, which shalbe blessed thorow him, & all the Heithen shal prayse him.
 19 Blessed be the LORDE God, euen the God of Israel, which only doth woderous thinges.
 20 And blessed be the name of his maiesty for euer, and all londes be fulfilled with his glory. Amen, Amen.

Psalm 73

1 O how louynge is God vnto Israel, to soch as are of a cleane hert?
 2 Neuertheless my fete were almost gone, my treadinges had wel nye slipte.
 3 And why. I was greued at ye wicked, to se the vngodly in soch prosperite.
 4 For they are in no parell of death, but stonde fast like a palace.
 5 They come in no misfortune like other folke, nether are they plaged like other men.
 6 And this is the cause that they be so puft vp in pryde, & ouerwhelmed with cruete and vnrightuousnesse.
 7 Their eyes swell for fatnesse, they do euen what they lyst.
 8 Corrupte are they, and speake blasphemies maliciously, proude and presumptuous are their wordes.
 9 They stretch forth their mouth vnto the heauen, & their tonge goeth thorow the worlde.
 10 Therefore fall the people vnto them, and there out sucke they no small auantage.
 11 Tush (saye they) how shulde God perceaue it? is there knowlege in the most hyest?
 12 Lo, these are the vngodly, these prospere in the worlde, these haue riches in possession.
 13 Shulde I then clense my hert in vayne (thought I) & wash my hondes in innocency?
 14 Wherefore shulde I be then punyshed daylie, & be chastened euery mornynge?
 15 Yee I had almost also sayde euen as they: but lo, then shulde I haue condemned the generacion of thy children.
 16 Then thought I to vnderstonde this, but it was to harde for me.
 17 Vntill I wete in to ye Sanctuary of God, & considered the ende of these men.
 18 Namely, how thou hast set the in a slippery place, that thou maiest cast the downe headlynges & destroye the.
 19 O how soderly do they consume, perish, & come to a fearfull ende?
 20 Yee euen like as a dreame when one awaketh, so makest thou their ymage to vanish out of the cite.
 21 Thus my hert was greued, & it wente euen thorow my reynes.
 22 So foolish was I and ignoraunt, and as it were a beest before the.
 23 Neuertheless, I am allwaye by the, thou holdest me by my right hande.

24 Thou ledest me with thy coucel, and afterwarde receauest me vnto glory.
 25 O what is there prepared for me in heauen? there is nothinge vpo earth, that I desyre in comparision of the.
 26 My flesh and my herte fayleth, but God is the strength of my hert, and my porcion for euer.
 27 For lo, they that forsake the, shal perishe, thou destroyest all them that committe fornicacion agaynst the.
 28 But it is good for me, to holde me fast by God, to put my trust in the LORDE God, and to speake of all thy workes.

Psalm 74

1 O God, wherefore doest thou cast vs so cleane awaye? why is yi wrath so hote agaynst ye shepe of yi pasture?
 2 O thinke vpon thy congregacion, whom thou hast purchased fro the begynnyng: 3 the staff of thine inheritaunce, whom thou hast redemed, euen this hill of Sion wherin thou dwellest.
 4 Treade vpon them with thy fete, & cast them downe to the grounde, for the enemy hath destroyed alltogether in the Sactuary.
 5 Thy aduersaries roare in thy houses, & set vp their banners for tokens.
 6 Men maye se the axes glister aboue, like as those that hewe in the wod.
 7 They cutt downe all the sylinge worke of ye Sactuary wt bylles & axes.
 8 They haue set fyre vpon yi Sactuary they haue defiled ye dwellynge place of yi name, eue vnto the groude.
 9 Yee they saye in their hertes: Let vs spoyle the all together, thus haue they brent vp all the houses of God in the londe.
 10 We se oure tokens nomore, there is not one prophet more, no not one that vnderstondeth enymore.
 11 Oh God, how loge shal the aduersary do this dishonoure, how loge shal the enemy blasphemie thy name? forever?
 12 Why withdrawest thou thine honde? why pluckest thou not thy right hode out of thy bosome, to consume thine enemies?
 13 But God is my kynge of olde, the helpe that is done vpon earth he doth it himself.
 14 Thou denydest ye see thorow thy power, thou breakest the heades of the dragos in the waters.
 15 Thou smyttest the heades of Leuiathan in peces, & geuest him to be meate for the people in the wilderness.
 16 Thou dyggest vp welles & brokes, thou dryest vp mightie waters.
 17 The daye is thine, & the night is thine: thou hast prepared the lightes & the Sonne.
 18 Thou hast set all ye borders of the earth thou hast made both Sommer & wynter.
 19 Remembre this (o LORDE) how the enemy rebuketh, & how the foolish people blasphemie thy name.
 20 O delyuer not the soule of thy turtle doue vnto the beestes, & forget not the congregacon of the poore for euer.

21 Loke vpon the couenaunt, for the darcke houses of the earth are full of wickednesse.

22 O let not the symple go away ashamed, for the poore & nedy geue prayses vnto thy name.

23 Aryse (o God) & manteyne thine owne cause, remembre how the foolish ma blasphemeth the daylie. Forget not the voyce of thine enemies, for the presumption of them that hate the, increaseth euer more & more.

Psalm 75

1 Unto the (o God) will we geue thakes, yee vnto the wyll we geue thanks,

2 & syenge thy name is so nye, we will tell of thy wonderous workes.

3 When I maye get a conuenient tyme, I shal iudge acordinge vnto right.

4 The earth is weake & all that is therein, but I beare vp hir pilers.

5 Sela. I sayde vnto the madde people: deale not so madly, & to the vngodly: set not vp youre hornes.

6 Set not vp youre hornes an hye, & speake not with a stiff necke.

7 For promocio commeth nether from the east ner from the west, ner yet fro the wyldernesse.

8 And why? God is the iudge: he putteth downe one & setteth vp another.

9 For in the honde of the LORDE there is a cuppe full of stronge wyne, & he poureth out of the same: As for the dregges therof, all ye vngodly of the earth shal drynke them, & sucke them out.

10 But I wil talke of the God of Iacob, & prayse him for euer. All the hornes of the vngodly will I breake, & ye hornes of the righuous shalbe exalted.

Psalm 76

1 In Iuda is God knowne, his name is greate in Israel.

2 At Salem is his tabernacle, & his dwellinge in Sion.

3 There breaketh he the arowes of the bowe, ye shyldes, the swerde & the whole battayll.

4 Sela. Thou art of more honoure & might the the hilles of robbers.

5 The proude shalbe robbed & slepe their slepe, & ye mightie shalbe able to do nothinge with their hodes.

6 Whe thou rebukest them (o God of Iacob) both the charettes & horsmen shal fall on slepe.

7 Thou art feareful, for who maye abyde in yi sight, when thou art angrye?

8 When thou lattet thy iudgment be herde from heauen, the erth trembleth & is still.

9 Yee when God aryseth to geue iudgment, & to helpe all them that be in aduersite vpon earth.

10 Sela. When thou punyshest one man, he must knowlege, that thou art redy to punysh other mo.

11 Loke what ye promyse vnto the LORDE youre God, se that kepe it, all ye that be roude aboute him: brynge presentes vnto him yt ought to be feared.

12 Which taketh awaye the breth of prynces, & is wonderfull amoge the kynges of the earth.

Psalm 77

1 I cried vnto God with my voyce, yee euen vnto God cried I with my voyce, & he herde me.

2 In the tyme of my trouble I sought the LORDE, I helde vp my hondes vnto him in the night season, for my soule refused all other comforte.

3 When I was in heuynesse, I thought vpo God: whe my hert was vexed, then dyd I speake.

4 Sela. Thou heldest myne eyes wakyng, I was so feble, that I coude not speake, 5 Then remembred I the tymes of olde, & the yeares that were past.

6 I called to remembraunce my songe in the night, I comoned with myne owne herte, and sought out my sprete.

7 Wil the LORDE cast out for euer? Wil he be nomore intreated?

8 Is his mercy cleane gone? Is his promyse come vterly to an ende for euermore?

9 Hath the LORDE forgotten to be gracious? Or, hath he shut vp his louynge kyndnesse in displeasure?

10 Sela. At the last I came to this poynte, that I thought: O why art thou so foolish? the right honde of the most hyest can chaunge all.

11 Therefore wil I remembre the workes of the LORDE, and call to mynde thy wonders of olde tyme.

12 I wil speake of all thy workes, and my talkynge shalbe of thy doinges.

13 Thy waye (o God) is holy, who is so greate & mightie as God?

14 Thou art the God, that doth wonders, thou hast declared thy power amonge the people.

15 Thou with thine arme hast delyuered thy people, euen the sonnes of Iacob and Ioseph.

16 Sela. The waters sawe ye (o God) ye waters sawe ye, & were afrayed: ye depthes were moued.

17 The thicke cloudes poured out water, ye cloudes thodered, and thy arowes wente abrode.

18 Thy thonder was herde rounde aboute, the lighteninges shone vpon the grounde, the earth was moued and shoke withall.

19 Thy waye was in the see, and thy pathes in the greate waters, yet coude no man knowe thy fotestepes.

20 Thou ledest thy people like a flocke of shepe, by the honde of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

1 Heare my lawe (o my people) encline yor eares vnto ye wordes of my mouth.

2 I wil open my mouth in parables, and speake of thinges of olde.

3 Which we haue herde and knowne, and soch as oure fathers haue tolde vs.

4 That we shulde not hyde them from the children of the generacions to come: but to shewe the honoure of the LORDE, his might and wonderfull workes that he hath done.

5 He made a couenaunt with Iacob, and gaued Israel a lawe, which he comaunded oure forefathers to teach their children.

6 That their posterite might knowe it, and the children which were yet vnborne.

7 To the intent yt when they came vp, they might shewe their children the same.

8 That they also might put their trust in God, & not to forget what he had done, but to kepe his comaundementes.

9 And not to be as their forefathers, a frowarde and ouerthwarte generacion, a generacion that set not their herte a right, and whose sprete was not true towarde God.

10 Like as the children of Ephraim, which beyng harnesssed and carienge bowes, turned them selues backe in the tyme of battayll.

11 They kepte not the couenaunt of God, & wolde not walke in his lawe.

12 They forgat what he had done, and the wonderfull workes that he had shewed for them.

13 Maruelous thinges dyd he in the sight of their fathers in the londe of Egipte, euen in the felde of Zoan.

14 He deuyded the see and let them go thorow it, and made the waters to stonde like a wall.

15 In the daye tyme he led them with a cloude, and all the night thorow with a light of fyre.

16 He clouae the hard rockes in the wilderness, and gaued them drynke therof, as it had bene out of the greate deapth.

17 He brought waters out of the stony rocke, so that they gushed out like the ryuers.

18 Yet for all this they synned agaynst him, and prouoked the most hyest in the wilderness.

19 They tempted God in their hertes, and requyred meate for their lust, 20 For they spake agaynst God and sayde: Yee yee, God shal prepare a table in the wyldernesse, shall he?

21 Lo, he smote the stony rocke, that the watery streames gushed out, and the streames flowed withall: but how can he geue bred and prouyde flesh for his people?

22 When the LORDE herde this, he was wroth: so the fyre was kyndled in Iacob, and heuy displeasure agaynst Israel.

23 Because they beleued not in God, and put not their trust in his helpe.

24 So he comaunded the cloudes aboue, and opened the dores of heauen.

25 He rayned downe Manna vpo them for to eate, and gaued them bred from heauen.

26 Then ate they angels fode, for he sent them meate ynough.

27 He caused the east wynde to blowe vnder the heauen, and thorow his power he brought in the south wynde.

28 He made flesh to rayne vpon them as thicke as dust, and fethered foules like the sonde of ye see.

29 He let it fall amoge their tetes roude aboute their habitacios.

30 So they ate & were fylled, for he gaued them their owne desyre. They were not dispoyned of their lust.

31 But whye ye meate was yet in theyr mouthes: The heuy wrath of God came vpo the, slewe ye welthiest of the, & smote downe ye chosen men of Israel.

32 But for all this they synned yet more, and beleued not his woderous workes.

33 Therfore their dayes were consumed in vanite, and sodenly their yeares were gone.

34 When he slewe them, they sought him, and turned them early vnto God.

35 They thought then that God was their socoure, and that the hye God was their redemer.

36 Neuerthelesse, they dyd but flater him in their mouthes, and dissembled with him in their tonges.

37 For their herte was not whole with him, nether continued they in his couenaunt.

38 But he was so mercifull, that he forgaued their mysdedes, and destroyed them not:

39 Yee many a tyme turned he his wrath awaye, and wolde not suffre his whole displeasure to aryse.

40 For he considered yt they were but flesh: euen a wynde that passeth awaye, and commeth not agayne.

41 O how oft haue they greued him in the wilderness? How many a tyme haue they prouoked him in the deserte?

42 They turned backe & tempted God, and moued the holy one in Israel.

43 They thought not of his hade, in ye daye when he delyuered them from the hande of ye enemye.

44 How he had wrought his miracles in Egipte, and his woders in the londe of Zoan.

45 How he turned their waters in to bloude, so that they might not drynke of the ryuers.

46 How he sent lyse amonge them, to eate them vp, and frogges to destroye them.

47 How he gaued their frutes vnto the catirpiller, and their laboure vnto the greshopper.

48 How he bett downe their vynyardes with hayle stones, and their Molbery trees with the frost.

49 How he smote their catell with haylestones, and their flockes with hote thoder boltes.

50 How he sent vpon them ye furiousnesse of his wrath, anger & displeasure: with trouble and fallinge in of euel angels.

51 When he made a waye to his fearfull indignacio, and spared not their soules from death, yee and gaued their catell ouer to the pestilence.

52 When he smote all the firstborne in Egipte, the most principall and mightiest in ye dwellings of Ham.

53 But as for his owne people, he led them forth like shepe, and caried them in the wyldernesse like a flocke.

54 He brought them out safely, that they shulde not feare, and ouerwhelmed their enemies with the see.

55 He caried them vnto the borders of his Sanctuary: euen in to this hill, which he purchased with his right hande.

56 He dyd cast out the Heithen before them, caused their londe to be deuoyded amonge them for an heretage, and made ye tribes of Israel to dwell in their tetes.

57 For all this they tempted and displeasde the most hye God, and kepte not his couenaunt.

58 But turned their backes and fell awaye like their forefathers, startinge asyde like a broken bowe.

59 And so they greued him with their hie places, & prouoked him with their ymages.

60 When God herde this, he was wroth, and toke sore displeasure at Israel.

61 So that he forsoke the tabernacle in Silo, euen his habitacion wherin he dwelt amonge men.

62 He deluyered their power in to captiuyte, and their glory in to the enemies hode.

63 He gaue his people ouer in to the swerde, for he was wroth with his heretage.

64 The fyre consumed their yonge men, and their maydes were not geuen to mariage.

65 Their prestes were slayne with the swerde, and there were no wyddowes to make lamentacion.

66 So the LORDE awaked as one out of slepe, and like a giaunte refreshed with wyne.

67 He smote his enemies in ye hynder partes, and put them to a perpetuall shame.

68 He refused the tabernacle of Ioseph, and chose not the trybe of Ephraim.

69 Neuerthelesse, he chose ye trybe of Iuda, eue the hill of Sion which he loued.

70 And there he buylded his temple on hye, and layed ye foundacion of it like ye grounde, that it might perpetually endure.

71 He chose Dauid also his seruaut, and toke him awaye from the shepe foldes.

72 As he was folowinge the yowes greate with yonge, he toke him, that he might fede Iacob his people, and Israel his enheritaunce. So he fed them with a faithfull and true hert, and ruled them with all ye diligence of his power.

Psalm 79

1 O God, ye Heithen are fallen in to thine heretage: thy holy temple haue they defyled, and made Ierusalem an heape of stones.

2 The deed bodies of thy seruantes haue they geuen vnto ye foules of the ayre to be deuoyded, and the flesh of thy sayntes vnto ye beestes of the londe.

3 Their bloude haue they shed like water on euery syde of Ierusalem, and there was no ma to burie them.

4 We are become an open shame vnto oure enemies, a very scorne and derision vnto them that are rounde aboute vs.

5 LORDE, how longe wilt thou be angrie? shal thy gelousy burne like fyre for euer?

6 Poure out thy indignacion vpon the Heithen that knowe the not, and vpon the kyngdomes that call not vpon thy name.

7 For they haue deuoyded Iacob, and layed waiste his dwellinge place.

8 O remembre not oure olde synnes, but haue mercy vpon vs (& that soone) for we are come to greate mysery.

9 Helpe vs (O God or Sauyor) for ye glory of yi name: o deluyer vs, & forgeue vs or synnes for yi names sake.

10 Wherefore shall ye Heithe saye: where is now their God?

11 O let the vengeance of thy seruantes bloude that is shed, be openly shewed vpon the Heithe in oure sight.

12 O let the soroufull sighinge of the presoners come before the, and accordinge vnto ye power of thine arme, preserue those yt are appoynted to dye.

13 And for the blasphemy wher wt or neighbours haue blasphemed ye, rewarde the (o LORDE) seuelfolde in to their bosome. So we yt be yi people & shepe of thy pasture, shal geue the thanks for euer, & wil allwaye be shewinge forth thy prayse more & more.

Psalm 80

1 Heare o thou shepherde of Israel, thou yt ledest Iacob like a flocke of shepe: shewe yi self, thou yt syttest vpo ye Cherubins.

2 Before Ephraim, Be Iamin & Manasses: stere vp thy power & come helpe vs.

3 Turne vs agayne (o God) shewe the light of thy countenance & we shalbe whole.

4 O LORDE God of hoostes, how loge wilt thou be angrie ouer the prayer of thy people?

5 Thou hast fed the with the bred of teares, yee thou hast geuen the pleteousnes of teares to drynke.

6 Thou hast made vs a very strife vnto or neighbours, & or enemies laugh vs to scorne.

7 Turne vs agayne (thou God of hoostes) shewe the light of thy countenance, & we shalbe whole.

8 Thou hast brought a vnyarde out of Egipte, thou didest cast out ye Heithe, & plate it.

9 Thou maydest rowme for it, & caused it to take rote, so yt it fylled the lode.

10 The hilles were couered with the shadowe of it, & so were the stronge Cedretrees wt the bowes therof.

11 She stretched out hir brauches vnto the see, & hir bowes vnto the water:

12 Why hast thou then broken downe hir hedge, that all they which go by, plucke of hir grapes?

13 The wilde bore out of the wod hath writt it vp, & the beestes of the felde haue deuoyded it.

14 Turne ye agayne (thou God of hoostes) loke downe from heauen, beholde & viset this vnyarde.

15 Manteyne it, that thy right hode hath plated, & the sonne whom thou maydest so moch of for thy self.

16 For why? it is Bret with fyre, & lyeth waist: o let the perishe at the rebuke of thy wrath.

17 Let thy honde be vpon the man of thy right honde, & vpon the man who thou maydest so moch off for thine owne self.

18 And so wil not we go backe from the: oh let vs lyue, & we shal call vpon thy name.

19 Turne vs agayne o LORDE God of hoostes, shewe the light of thy countenance, & we shal be whole.

Psalm 81

1 Synge merely vnto God which is or stregh make a chearful noyse vnto ye God of Iacob.

2 Take ye psalme, brynge hither the tabret, the mery harpe & lute.

3 Blowe vp the tropettes in the new Moone, vpon or solepne feast daye.

4 For this is the vse in Israel, & a lawe of the God of Iacob.

5 This he ordered in Ioseph for a testimony, when he came out of Egipte, & had herde a straunge laguage.

6 When he eased his shulder from the burthe, & when his hondes were deluyered from the pottes.

7 Whe thou caldest vpon me in trouble, I helped the & herde the, what tyme as the storme fell vpo the,

8 I proued the also at the water of strife.

9 Sela. Heare o my people, for I assure the o Israel, yf thou wilt herken vnto me:

10 There shal no straunge God be in the, nether shalt thou worships eny other God.

11 I am the LORDE thy God, which brought the out of the lode of Egipte: ope thy mouth wyde, & I shal fyll it.

12 But my people wolde not heare my voyce, & Israel wolde not obeye me.

13 So I gaue the vp vnto their owne hertes lust, & let the folowe their owne ymaginacions.

14 Oy my people wolde obeye me, for yf Israel wolde walke in my wayes.

15 I shulde soone put downe their enemies, & turne myne hode agaynst their aduersaries.

16 The haters of ye LORDE shulde mysse Israel, but their tyme shulde endure for euer. He shulde fede them with the fynest wheate floure, & satisfie them with hony out of the stony rocke.

Psalm 82

1 God stondesth in the congregacion of the goddes, & is a iudge amonge the iudges.

2 How longe wil ye geue wroge iudgment, & accepte the personnes of the vngodly?

3 Sela. Defende the poore & fatherlesse, se that soch as be in nede & necessite haue right.

4 Delyuer the outcaste & poore, & saue hym from the hande of the vngodly.

5 Neuertheles, they wil not be lerned & vnderstonde, but walke on still in darcknesse: therfore must all the foundacions of the londe be moued.

6 I haue sayde: ye are goddes, ye all are the childre of ye most hyst.

7 But ye shal dye like men, & fall like one of the tyrauntes.

8 Aryse (o God) & iudge thou the earth, for all Heithen are thine by enheritaunce.

Psalm 83

1 Holde not thy tonge (o God) kepe not still sylece., refrayne not yi self, o God.

2 For lo, thy enemies make a murmuringe, & they yt hate the, lift vp their heade.

3 They ymagin craftely agaynst thy people, & take counsell agaynst thy secrete ones.

4 Come (saye they) let vs rote them out from amonge the people, that the name of Israel maye be put out of remembrance.

5 For they haue cast their heades together with one consent, & are cofederate agaynst the.

6 The tabernacles of the Edomites & Ismaelites, the Moabites & Hagarenes.

7 Gebal, Ammon and Amalech: the Philistynes with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 Assur also is ioyned vnto the & helpe the children of Loth.

9 Sela. But do thou to them as vnto the Madianites, vnto Sisera and vnto Iabin by ye broke of Cyson.

10 Which perished at Endor, & became as the doge of ye earth.

11 Make their prynces like Oreb and Zeeb: Yee make all their prynces like as Zebea and Salmana.

12 Which saye: we wil haue the houses of God in possession?

13 O my God, make them like vnto a whele, and as the stuble before the wynde.

14 Like as a fyre that burneth vp the wodd, & as the flame that consumeth the mountaynes.

15 Persecute them euen so with thy tempest, & make them afrayed with thy storme.

16 Make their faces ashamed (o LORDE) yt they maye seke thy name.

17 Let the be cofounded & vexed euer more & more: Let the be put to shame & perish.

18 That they maye knowe, that thou art alone, that thy name is the LORDE, and that thou only art the most hyst ouer all the earth.

Psalm 84

1 O how amiable are yi dwelliges, thou LORDE of hoostes?

2 My soule hath a desyre & loginge for ye courte of ye LORDE, my hert & my flesh reioyse in ye luyunge God.

3 For the sparrow hath founde hir an house, & the swalowe a nest, where she maye laye hir yoge: eue yi aulters O LORDE of hoostes, my kynge & my God.

4 O how blessed are they that dwell in thy house, they are allwaye prayinge ye.

5 Blessed are ye men whose strength is in ye, in whose herte are yt wayes.

6 Which goinge thorow the vale of mysery, vse it for a well, and the poles are fylled with water.

7 They go from strength to strength and so the God of Gods apeareth vnto the in Sion.

8 O LORDE God of hoostes, heare my prayer: herken o God of Iacob.

9 Beholde o God oure defence, loke vpon the face of thyne anoynted.

10 For one daye in thy courte is better then a thousande:

11 I had rather be a dore keper in the house of my God, then to dwell in the tentes of the vngodly.

12 For the LORDE God is a light and defence, the LORDE wil geue grace & worshipec, and no good thinge shal he witholde from them, that lye a godly life. O LORDE God of hoostes, blessed is the man, yt putteth his trust in the.

Psalm 85

1 Lorde, thou barest a loue vnto thy londe, thou didest bringe agayne the captiuyte of Iacob.

2 Thou diddest forgeue the offence of thy people, and couerdest all their synnes.

3 Sela. Thou tokest awaye all thy displeasure, & turnedest thy self from thy wrothful indignacion.

4 Turne vs then (o God or Sauioure) & let thine anger cease from vs.

5 Wilt thou be displeasid at vs for euer? wilt thou stretch out thy wrath from one generacion to another?

6 Wilt thou not turne agayne, & quycken vs, that thy people maye reioyse in the?

7 Shew us thy mercy, O Lord: and grant vs thy saluation.

8 I wil herken what the LORDE God wil saie, for he shal speake peace vnto his people and to his sayntes, that they turne not them selues vnto foolshnes.

9 For his saluacion is nye them that feare him, so that glory shal dwell in oure londe.

10 Mercy and trueth are met together, rightuousnesse and peace kysse ech other.

11 Trueth shal ryse out of ye earth, and rightuousnesse shall loke downe from heauen.

12 And why? the LORDE shal shewe louinge kyndnesse, and oure londe shal geue hir increase.

13 Rightuousnesse shal go before him, and prepare the waye for his commynge.

Psalm 86

1 Bowe downe thine eare (o LORDE) and heare me, for I am cofortles and poore.

2 O kepe my soule, for I am holy: my God, helpe thy seruauit that putteth his trust in the.

3 Be mercifull vnto me (o LORDE) for I call daylie vpon the.

4 Coforte the soule of thy seruauit, for vnto the (o LORDE) do I lift vp my soule.

5 For thou LORDE art good and gracious, & of greate mercy vnto all them that call vpon the.

6 Geue eare LORDE vnto my prayer, and pondre my humble desyre.

7 In the tyme of my trouble I call vpon the, for thou hearest me.

8 Amonge the goddes there is none like the o LORDE, there is not one that ca do as thou doest.

9 All nacions whom thou hast made, shall come and worshipec before the o LORDE, and shal glorifie thy name.

10 For thou art greate, thou doest wonderous thinges, thou art God alone.

11 Lede me in thy waye (o LORDE) that I maye walke in thy trueth: O let my hert delyte in fearynge thy name.

12 I thanke the o LORDE my God, & wil prayse thy name for euer.

13 For greate is thy mercy towarde me, thou hast delyuered my soule from ye nethermost hell.

14 O God, the proude are rysen agaynst me, and the cogregacion of ye mightie seketh after my soule, & set not ye before their eyes.

15 But thou (o LORDE God) art full of compassion and mercy, longesuffrynge, greate in goodnesse & trueth.

16 O turne the then vnto me, haue mercy vpo me: geue thy strength vnto thy seruauit, & helpe the sonne of thy handmayde.

17 Shewe some toke vpon me for good, that they which hate me, maye se it and be ashamed: because thou LORDE hast helped me, & comforted me.

Psalm 87

1 Hir foundacions are vpo the holy hilles: the LORDE loueth the gates of Sion more, the all ye dwelliges of Iacob.

2 Very excellet thiges are spoke of ye, thou cite of God.

3 Sela. I wil thinke vpo Rahab & Babilo, so that they shal knowe me:

4 Yee the Philistynes also & they of Tyre with the Morians. Lo, there was he borne.

5 And of Sion it shalbe reported, that he was borne in her, euen the most hiest which hath buylded her.

6 The LORDE shal cause it be preached & written amonge the people, that he was borne there.

7 Sela. Therefore the dwellinge of all syngers & dauners is in the.

Psalm 88

1 O Lorde God my Sauyor, I crie daye & night before the: Oh let my prayer entre in to thy presence, encline thine eare vnto my callynge.

2 For my soule is full of trouble, & my life draweth nye vnto hell.

3 I am couted as one of the that go downe vnto the pytte, I am eue as a ma that hath no strength.

4 Fre amoge the deed, like vnto the yt lye in the graue, which be out of remembrauce, and are cutt awaye from thy honde.

5 Thou hast layed me in the lowest pytte, in ye darcknesse and in the depe.

6 Thy indignacion lieth hard vpon me, and thou vexest me with all thy floudes.

7 Sela. Thou hast put awaye myne acquataunce farre fro me, & made me to be abhorred of them:

8 I am so fast in preson, that I can not get forth.

9 My sight fayleth for very trouble: LORDE, I call daylie vpo the, and stretch out my hondes vnto the.

10 Doest thou shewe wonders amonge the deed? Can the physicias rayse them vp agayne, that they maye prayse the?

11 Maye thy louynge kyndnes be shewed in the graue, or thy faithfulness in destruccio?

12 Maye thy wonderous workes be knowne in the darcke, or thy righteousnes in the londe where all thinges are forgotte?

13 Vnto the I crie (o LORDE) and early cometh my prayer before the.

14 LORDE, why putttest thou awaye my soule? Wherefore hydest thou thy face fro me?

15 My strength is gone for very sorow and misery, with fearfulness do I beare thy burthens.

16 Thy wroth full displeasure goeth ouer me, the feare of the oppresseth me.

17 They come rounde aboute me daylie like water, and compase me together on euery syde.

18 My louers and fredes hast thou put awaye fro me, and turned awaye myne acquataunce.

Psalm 89

1 My songe shal be allwaye of the louynge kyndnesse of the LORDE, wt my mouth wil I euer be shewinge thy faithfulness fro one generacion to another.

2 For I haue sayde: mercy shal be set vp for euer, thy faithfulness shalt thou stablish in the heauens.

3 I haue made a couenaunt with my chosen, I haue sworne vnto Dauid my seruauit.

4 Thy sede wil I stablish for euer, and set vp thy Trone from one generacion to another.

5 Sela. O LORDE, the very heaues shal prayse thy wonderous workes, yee & thy faithfulness in ye congregacion of the sayntes.

6 For who is he amonge the cloudes, that maye be copared vnto the LORDE?

7 Yee what is he amonge the goddes, that is like vnto the LORDE?

8 God is greatly to be feared in the counsell of the sayntes, & to be had in reuerence of all the that are aboute him.

9 O LORDE God of hoostes, who is like vnto the in power? thy trueth is rounde aboute the.

10 Thou rulest the pryde of the see, thou stillest the wawes therof, whe they arise.

11 Thou breakest the proude, like one that is wounded, thou scatrest thine enemies abrode with thy mightie arme.

12 The heaues are thine, the earth is thine: thou hast layed the foundacio of the roude world and all that therin is.

13 Thou hast made the north and the south, Tabor and Hermon shal reioyse in thy name.

14 Thou hast a mightie arme, stronge is thy hande, and hye is thy right hande.

15 Rightuousnes and equite is the habitacion of thy seate, mercy and trueth go before thy face.

16 Blessed is the people (o LORDE) that can reioyse in the, and walketh in the light of thy countenance.

17 Their delite is in thy name all the daye longe, and thorow thy rightuousnesse they shalbe exalted.

18 For thou art the glory of their strength, & thorow thy fauoure shalt thou lift vp oure hornes.

19 The LORDE is oure defence, and the holy one of Israel is oure kynge.

20 Thou spakest somtyme in visios vnto thy sayntes, and saydest: I haue layed helpe vpon one that is mightie, I haue exalted one chosen out of the people.

21 I haue founde Dauid my seruauit, with my holy oyle haue I anoynted him.

22 My honde shal holde him fast, and my arme shal strength him.

23 The enemye shal not ouercome him, and the sonne of wickednesse shal not hurte him.

24 I shal smyte downe his foes before his face, and plage them that hate him.

25 My trueth also & my mercy shalbe with him, and in my name shal his horne be exalted.

26 I wil set his honde in the see, and his right honde in the floudes.

27 He shal call me: thou art my father, my God, and the strength of my saluacion.

28 And I wil make him my firstborne, hyer then the kinges of the earth.

29 My mercy wil I kepe for him for euermore, and my couenaunt shall stonde fast with him.

30 His sede wil I make to endure for euer, yee and his Trone as the dayes of heauen.

31 But yf his childre forsake my lawe, and walke not in my iudgmentes.

32 Yf they breake myne ordinaunces, and kepe not my commaundementes.

33 I wil vsyet their offences with the rodde, and their synnes with scourges.

34 Neuertheless, my louynge kyndnesse wil I not vtterly take from him, ner fuffre my trueth to fayle.

35 My couenaunt wil I not breake, ner disanulle the thinge yt is gone out of my lippes.

36 I haue sworne once by my holynesse, that I wil not fayle Daudid.

37 His sede shal endure for euer, and his seate also like as the Sonne before me.

38 He shal stonde fast for euermore as the Moone, and as the faithfull witness in heauen.

39 Sela. But now thou forsakest and abhorrest thyne anoyned, and art displeased at him.

40 Thou hast turned backe the couenaunt of thy seruaunt, and cast his crowne to the grounde.

41 Thou hast ouerthrowne all his hedges, and broke downe his stronge holdes.

42 Al they that go by, spoyle him, he is become a rebuke vnto his neighbours.

43 Thou settest vp the right hade of his enemies, and makest all his aduersaries to reioyse.

44 Thou hast taken awaye the strength of his swerde, and geuest him not victory in the battayll.

45 Thou hast put out his glory, and cast his Trone downe to the grounde.

46 The dayes of his youth hast thou shortened, and couered him with dishonoure.

47 Sela. LORDE, how longe wilt thou hyde thy self? For euer? shal thy wrath burne like fyre?

48 O remembre how shorte my tyme is, hast thou made all men for naught?

49 What man is he that lyueth, and shal not se death? Maye a ma deluyer his owne soule from the honde of hell?

50 Sela. LORDE, where are thy olde louynge kyndnesses, which thou sworest vnto Daudid in thy trueth?

51 Remebre LORDE the rebuke that ye multitude of the people do vnto thy seruautes, & how I haue borne it in my bosome.

52 Wher wt thine enemies blasphemethe, & slauder ye fotestepes of yi anoyned. Thankes be to the LORDE for euermore: Amen, Amen.

Psalm 90

1 Lorde, thou art oure refuge from one generacion to another.

2 Before the mountaynes were brought forth, or euer the earth & the worlde were made, thou art God from euerlastinge and worlde withoute ende.

3 Thou turnest man to destruccion, Agayne, thou sayest: come agayne ye children of men.

4 For a thousande yeares in thy sight are but as yesterdaye that is past, and like as it were a night watch.

5 As soone as thou scatrest them, they are euen as a slepe, and fade awaye sodenly like the grasse.

6 In the mornynge it is grene and groweth vp, but in the euenynge it is cutt downe and wythered.

7 For we consume awaye in thy displeasure, and are afrayed at thy wrothfull indignacion.

8 Thou settest oure mi?dedes before the, and oure secrete synnes in the light of thy countenance.

9 For when thou art angrie, all or dayes are gone, we brynge or yeares to an ende, as it were a tayle that is tolde.

10 The dayes of oure age are iij. score yeares & ten: & though men be so stronge that they come to iiij. score yeares, yet is their strength then but labour and sorowe: so soone passeth it awaye, & we are gone.

11 But who regardeth the power of thy wrath, thy fearfull & terrible displeasure?

12 O teach vs to nombre oure dayes, that we maye applie oure hertes vnto wy?dome.

13 Turne the agayne (o LORDE) at the last, and be gracious vnto thy seruautes.

14 O satisfie vs with thy mercy, and that soone: so shal we reioyse and be glad all the dayes of oure life.

15 Comforte vs agayne, now after the tyme that thou hast plaged vs, and for the yeares wherin we haue suffred aduersite.

16 Shewe thy seruautes thy worke, & their children thy glory.

17 And the glorious maiesty of the LORDE oure God be vpon vs: O prospere thou the worke of oure hondes vpon vs, o prospere thou oure hondy worke.

Psalm 91

1 Who so dwelleth vnder ye defence of the most hiest, & abydeyth vnder ye shadowe of ye allmightie:

2 He shal saye vnto ye LORDE: o my hope, & my stronge holde, my God, in who I wil trust.

3 For he shal deliuer the fro the snare of the hunter, & fro the noysome pestilence.

4 He shal couer the vnder his wynges, that thou mayest be safe vnder his fethers: his faithfulness and trueth shal be thy shyld and buckler.

5 So yt thou shalt not nede to be afrayed for eny bugges by night, ner for arowe that flyeth by daye.

6 For the pestilence that crepeth in ye darcknesse, ner for the sicknesse yt destroyeth in the noone daye.

7 A thousande shal fall besyde the, and ten thousande at thy right honde, but it shal not come nye the.

8 Yee with thyne eyes shalt thou beholde, and se the rewarde of the vngodly.

9 For thou LORDE art my hope, thou hast set thy house of defence very hye.

10 There shal no euell happen vnto the, nether shal eny plage come nye thy dwellinge.

11 For he shall geue his angels charge ouer the, to kepe the in all thy wayes.

12 They shal beare the in their hondes, that thou hurte not thy fote agaynst a stone.

13 Thou shalt go vpo the Lyon and Adder, the yonge Lyon and the Dragon shalt thou treade vnder thy fete.

14 Because he hath set his loue vpon me, I shal deluyer him: I shal defende him, for he hath knowne my name.

15 When he calleth vpon me, I shall heare him: yee I am with him in his trouble, wherout I wil deluyer him, and brynge him to honoure.

16 With loge life wil I satisfie him, & shewe him my saluacion.

Psalm 92

1 It is a good thinge to geue thanks vnto the LORDE, and to synge praises vnto yi name, o most hiest.

2 To tell of thy louynge kyndnesse early in the mornynge, and of thy trueth in the night season.

3 Vpon an instrumet of ten strynges, vpon the lute and with a songe vpon the harpe.

4 For thou LORDE hast made me glad thorow thy workes, and I wil reioyse ouer the operacion of thy hondes.

5 O LORDE, how glorious are thy workes, thy thoughtes are very depe.

6 An vnwyse man wil not knowe this, & a foole wil not vnderstode it.

7 That the vngodly are grene as the grasse, and that all the workes of wickednes do florish, to be destroyed for euer.

8 But thou LORDE o most hiest, abydest worlde withoute ende.

9 For lo, thy enemies (o LORDE) lo, thy enemies shal perishe, and all the workers of wickednes shalbe scatred abrode.

10 But my horne shalbe exalted like the horne of an Vnicorne, & shal be anoyned with fresh oyle.

11 Myne eye also shal se his lust of myne enemies,

12 & myne eare shall heare his desyre of the wicked yt ryse vp agaynst me.

13 The righteous shal florish like a palme tre, and growe like a Cedre of Libanus.

14 Soch as be planted in the house of the LORDE, be frutefull, plenteous & grene.

15 That they maye shewe, how true the LORDE my strength is, and that there is no vnrightousnesse in him.

Psalm 93

1 The LORDE is kyng, and hath put on glorious apparell, the LORDE hath put on his apparell, & gyrded himself with strength:

2 he hath made the rounde worlde so sure, that it can not be moued.

3 From that tyme forth hath yi seate bene prepared, thou art from euerlastinge.

4 The floudes aryse (o LORDE) the floudes lift vp their noyse, ye floudes lift vp their wawes.

5 The wawes of the see are mightie, & rage horribly: but yet the LORDE that dwelleth on hye, is mightier. Thy testimonies (o LORDE) are very sure, holynesse becommeth thyne house for euer.

Psalm 94

1 O Lorde God, to whom vengeance belongeth: thou God to whom vengeance belongeth, shewe thy self.

2 Arise thou iudge of the worlde, & rewarde the proude after their deseruyng.

3 LORDE, how longe shal the vngodly, how longe shal the vngodly tryumphe?

4 How longe shal all wicked doers speake so di?daynedly, and make soch proude boastynge?

5 They smyte downe thy people (o LORDE) and trouble thine heretage.

6 They murthur the widdowe and the straunger, and put the fatherlesse to death.

7 And yet they saie: Tush, the LORDE seyth not, the God of Iacob regardeth it not.

8 Take hede, ye vnwise amonge the people: o ye fooles, when wil ye vnderstode?

9 He that planted the eare, shal he not heare? he that made the eye, shal he not se?

10 He that nurtureth the Heithen, and teacheth a man knowlege, shal he not he punysh?

11 The LORDE knoweth the thoughtes of men, that they are but vayne.

12 Blessed is the ma, whom thou lernest (o LORDE) and teachest him in thy lawe.

13 That thou mayest geue him pacience in tyme of aduersite, vntill the pytte be dygged vp for the vngodly.

14 For the LORDE wil not fayle his people, nether wil he forsake his inheritance.

15 And why? iudgment shalbe turned agayne vnto rightousnesse, and all soch as be true of hert shal folowe it.

16 Who ryseth vp with me agaynst the wicked? who taketh my parte agaynst the euell doers?

17 Yf the LORDE had not helped me, my soule had almost bene put to sylence.

18 When I sayde: my fote hath slipped, thy mercy (o LORDE) helde me vp.

19 In ye multitude of the sorowes that I had in my herte, thy confortes haue refreshed my soule.

20 Wilt thou haue eny thinge to do with the stole of wickednesse, which ymagineth myscheffe in the lawe?

21 They gather them together agaynst the soule of the righteous, & condemne the innocent bloude.

22 But the LORDE is my refuge, my God is the strength of my confidece.

23 He shal recompence the their wickednesse, and destroye them in their owne malice: yee the LORDE oure God shal destroye them.

Psalm 95

1 O come, let vs praise the LORDE, let vs hertely reioyse in the strength of oure saluacion.

2 Let vs come before his presence with thakesgeuyng, & shewe oure self glad in him wt psalmes.

3 For the LORDE is a greate God, and a greate kynge aboue all goddes.

4 In his honde are all ye corners of the earth, and the strength of the hilles is his also.

5 The see is his, for he made it, and his hondes prepared the drie lode.

6 O come, let vs worshipe and bowe downe oure selues: Let vs knele before the LORDE oure maker.

7 For he is oure God: as for vs, we are the people of his pasture, and the shepe of his hodes.

8 Todaye yf ye wil heare his voyce, harde not youre hertes, as whe ye prouoked in tyme of temptacion in the wildernes.

9 Where yor fathers tepted me, proued me, and sawe my workes.

10 XL. yeares longe was I greued with that generacion, & sayde: they euer erre in their hertes, they verely haue not knowne my wayes.

11 Therefore I sware vnto the in my wrath, that they shulde not enter in to my rest.

Psalm 96

1 O synge vnto the LORDE a new songe, synge vnto the LORDE all the whole earth.

2 Synge vnto ye LORDE, & prayse his name, be tellynge of his saluacion from daye to daye.

3 Declare his honoure amonge the Heithe, and his wonders amonge all people.

4 For ye LORDE is greate, and can not worthely be prayed: he is more to be feared then all goddes.

5 As for all ye goddes of the Heithe, they be but Idols, but it is the LORDE that made the heaues.

6 Thankesgeuyng and worshipe are before him, power and honoure are in his Sanctuary.

7 Ascrybe vnto the LORDE (o ye kinredes of the Heithen) ascrybe vnto the LORDE worshipe and strength.

8 Ascrybe vnto the LORDE the honoure of his name, brynge presentes, and come in to his courte.

9 O worshipe the LORDE in the beuty of holynesse, let the whole earth stonde in awe of him.

10 Tell it out amonge the Heithe, that the LORDE is kynge: and that it is he which hath made the rounde worlde so fast, that it cannot be moued, and how that he shal iudge the people rightuously.

11 Let the heaues reioyse, and let the earth be glad: let the see make a noyse, yee & all that therein is.

12 Let the felde be ioyfull and all that is in it, let all the trees of the wodd leape for ioye.

13 Before the LORDE, for he commeth: for he cometh to iudge the earth: yee with rightuousnesse shal he iudge the worlde, and ye people with his trueth.

Psalm 97

1 The LORDE is kynge, the earth maye be glad therof: yee the multitude of the lles maie be glad therof.

2 Cloudes and darcknesse are rounde aboute him, rightuousnesse and iudgment are the habitacion of his seate.

3 There goeth a fyre before him, to burne vp his enemies on euery syde.

4 His lightenynges geue shyne vnto the worlde, the earth seyth it & is afraied.

5 The hilles melt like wax at the presence of ye LORDE, at the presence of the LORDE of the whole earth.

6 The very heaues declare his rightuousnes, & all people se his glory.

7 Cofounded be all they that worshipe ymages, and delite in their Idols: worshipe him all ye goddes.

8 Sion heareth of it and reioyseth: yee all ye daughters of Iuda are glad because of thy iudgmentes, o LORDE.

9 For thou LORDE art the most hiest ouer all the earth, thou art exalted farre aboue all goddes.

10 O ye that loue the LORDE, se that ye hate the thinge which is euell: the LORDE preserueth the soules of his sayntes, he shal delyuer the from the honde of the vngodly.

11 There is spronge vp a light for the rightuous, and a ioyfull gladnesse for soch as be true herted.

12 Reioyse therfore in the LORDE, ye rightuous: and geue thanks for a remembrance of his holynesse.

Psalm 98

1 O synge vnto the LORDE a new songe, for he hath done maruelous thinges.

2 With his owne right honde and with his holy arme hath he gotten the victory.

3 The LORDE hath declared his sauynge health, and his rightuousnes hath he openly shewed in the sight of the Heithe.

4 He hath remembered his mercy and trueth towarde the house of Israel: so that all the endes of the worlde se the sauynge health of oure God.

5 Shewe youre self ioyfull vnto the LORDE all ye londes, synge, reioyse and geue thanks.

6 Prayse the LORDE vpon the harpe, synge to the harpe with a psalme of thankesgeuyng.

7 With trompettes also & shawmes: O shewe youre selues ioyfull before the LORDE the kynge.

8 Let the see make a noyse and all yt therein is, yee the whole worlde & all that dwell therein.

9 Let the floudes clappe their hondes, and let all the hilles be ioyfull together. Before the LORDE, for he is come to iudge the earth. Yee with rightuousnes shall he iudge the worlde, and the people with equite.

Psalm 99

1 The LORDE is kynge, be the people neuer so vnpatient: he syteth vpon the Cherubins, be the earth neuer so vnquiete.

2 The LORDE is greate in Sion, & hye aboue all people.

3 O let men geue thakes vnto thy greate & wonderful name, for it is holy.

4 The kynges power loueth iudgment, thou preparrest equite, thou executest iudgment & rightuousnes in Iacob.

5 O magnifie the LORDE or God, fall downe before his fote stole, for he is holy.

6 Moses & Aaron amonge his prestes, & Samuel amonge soch as call vpo his name: these called vpon the LORDE, & he herde the.

7 He spake vnto the out of the cloudy piler, for they kepte his testimonies, & the lawe that he gaue them.

8 Thou herdest the (o LORDE or God) thou forgauest the o God, & punyshedst their owne inuencions.

9 O magnifie the LORDE oure God, and worshipe him vpo his holy hill, for the LORDE oure God is holy.

Psalm 100

1 O be ioyfull in God (all ye lodes) serue the LORDE wt gladnes, come before his presence wt ioye.

2 Be ye sure, yt the LORDE he is God:

3 It is he yt hath made vs, & not we oure selues: we are but his people, & the shepe of his pasture.

4 go youre waye in to his gates the with thankesgeuyng, & in to his courtes wt prayse: be thakfull vnto him, & speake good of his name.

5 For the LORDE is gracious, his mercy is euerlastinge, and his trueth endureth from generacion to generacion.

Psalm 101

1 My songe shalbe of mercy and iudgment, yee vnto the (o LORDE) wil I synge.

2 O let me haue vnderstandinge in the waye of godlynesse, vntill the tyme that thou come vnto me: & so shal I walke in my house wt an innocent herte.

3 I wil take no wicked thinge in honde, I hate the synne of vnfaithfulnesse, it shal not cleue vnto me.

4 A frowarde herte shal departe fro me, I wil not knowe a wicked persone.

5 Who so preuely slaundreth his neighbour, him wil I destroye: Who so hath a proude loke & an hye stomacke, I maye not awaye with him.

6 Myne eyes shal loke for soch as be faithfull in the londe, yt they maye dwell with me: and who so ledeth a godly life, shalbe my seruaut.

7 There shall no disceatfull persone dwell in my house, he that telleth lyes shal not tary in my sight.

8 I shal soone destroye all the vngodly of the londe, that all wicked doers maye be roted out of the cite of the LORDE.

Psalm 102

1 Heare my prayer (o LORDE) and let my criegre come vnto the.

2 Hyde not thy face fro me in the tyme of my trouble: encline thine eares vnto me when I call, O heare me, and that right soone.

3 For my dayes are consumed awaye like smoke, & my bones are brent vp as it were a fyre brande.

4 My hert is smytte downe and wythered like grasse, so that I forget to eate my bred.

5 For the voyce of my gronyng, my bone wil scarce cleue to my flesh.

6 I am become like a Pellicane in the wildernes, and like an Oule in a broken wall.

7 I wake, and am euen as it were a sparow sittinge alone vpon the house toppe.

8 Myne enemies reuyle me all the daye longe, they laugh me to scorne, and are sworne together against me.

9 I eate ashes with my bred, and mengle my drynke with wepyng.

10 And that because of ye indignacion and wrath, for thou hast taken me vp, and cast me awaye.

11 My dayes are gone like a shadowe, and I am wythered like grasse.

12 But thou (o LORDE) endurest for euer, and thy remembrance thorow out all generacions.

13 Arise therfore and haue mercy vpon Sion, for it is tyme to haue mercy vpon her, yee the tyme is come.

14 And why? thy seruantes haue a loue to hir stones, & it pitieth them to se her in the dust.

15 The Heithen shal feare thy name (o LORDE) and all the kynges of the earth thy maiesty.

16 For the LORDE shal buylde vp Sion, and shal apeare in his glory.

17 He turneth him vnto the prayer of the poore destitute, and despyseth not their desyre.

18 This shalbe written for those yt come after, that the people which shalbe borne, maye prayse the LORDE.

19 For He loketh downe from his Sanctuary, out of the heauen doth the LORDE beholde the earth.

20 That he maye heare the mournynges of soch as be in captiuyte, and delyuer the children of death.

21 That they maie preach the name of the LORDE in Sion, and his worshipe at Ierusalem.

22 When the people are gathered together, and the kyngdomes also to serue ye LORDE.

23 He hath brought downe my strength in my journey, and shortened my dayes.

24 Yet wil I saye: O my God, take me not awaye in ye myddest of myne age: as for thy yeares, they endure thorow out all generacions.

25 Thou LORDE in the begynnyng hast layed ye foundation of the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thy hondes.

26 They shal perishe, but thou shalt endure: they all shall wexe olde as doth a garment, 27 & as a vesture shalt thou change the, and they shalbe changed. But thou art the same, and thy yeares shal not fayle.

28 The children of thy seruantes shall contynue, & their sede shal prospere in yf sight.

Psalm 103

1 Prayse the LORDE (o my soule) & all that is within me prayse his holy name.

2 Prayse the LORDE o my soule, & forget not all his benefites.

3 Which forgeueth all thy synnes, and healeth all thy infirmities.

4 Which saueth thy life from destruccion, and crowneth the with mercy & louynge kyndnesse.

5 Which satisfieth thy desyre with good thinges, makeynge the yonge and lusty as an Aegle.

6 The LORDE executeth rightuousnesse and iudgment, for all them yt suffre wronge.

7 He shewed his wayes vnto Moses, and his workes vnto the children of Israel.

8 The LORDE is full of compassion and mercy, longe sufferinge, and of greate goodnesse.

9 He wil not allwaye be chyinge, nether wil he kepe his anger for euer.

10 He hath not dealt with vs after oure synnes, ner rewarded vs accordinge to oure wickednesse.

11 For loke how hye the heaue is in comparison of the earth, so greate is his mercy also towarde them that feare him.

12 Loke how wyde the east is from the west, so farre hath he set oure synnes from vs.

13 Yee like as a father pitieth his owne children, euen so is the LORDE mercifull vnto the that feare him.

14 For he knoweth wherof we be made, he remembreth that we are but dust.

15 That a man in his tyme is but as is grasse, & florisheth as a floure of the felde.

16 For as soone as the wynde goeth ouer it, it gone, and the place therof knoweth it nomore.

17 But the mercifull goodnesse of ye LORDE endureth for euer and euer, vpon them yt feare him, and his rightuousnesse vpon their childers children.

18 Soch as kepe his couenaunt, and thinke vpon his commaundementes to do them.

19 The LORDE hath prepared his seate in heaue, and his kyngdome ruleth ouer all.

20 O prayse the LORDE ye angels of his, ye that be mightie instregth, fulfillingge his commaundement, that me maye heare the voyce of his wordes.

21 O prayse the LORDE all ye his hoostes, ye seruantes of his, that do his pleasure.

22 O speake good of the LORDE all ye workes of his, in euery place of his dominion: prayse thou the LORDE, o my soule.

Psalm 104

1 Prayse the LORDE o my soule: O LORDE my God, thou art become excedeinge glorious, thou art clothed with maiesty and honour.

2 Thou deckest thy self with light, as it were wt a garment, thou spredest out the heauen like a curtayne.

3 Thou voltest it aboue with waters, thou makest the cloudes thy charet, and goest vpon the wynges of the wynde.

4 Thou makest thine angels spretes, and thy ministers flammes of fyre.

5 Thou hast layed ye earth vpon hir foundation, that it neuer moueth at eny tyme.

6 Thou couerest it with the depe like as with a garmet, so that the waters stonde aboue the hilles.

7 But at thy rebuke they fle, at the voyce of thy thonder they are afrayed.

8 Then are the hilles sene alofte, & the valleys beneth in their place which thou hast appoynted for the.

9 Thou hast set them their boundes, which they maie not passe, that they turne not agayne to couer ye earth.

10 Thou causest the welles to sprynge vp amonge the valleys, and the waters runne amonge ye hilles.

11 That all the beastes of the felde maye haue drynke, & that the wylde asses maye quenche their thyrste.

12 Aboue vpon the hilles haue the foules of the ayre their habitacion, and synge amonge the braunches.

13 Thou watrest the hylles from aboue, the erth is fylled with ye frutes of thy workes.

14 Thou bryngest forth grasse for the catell, and grene herbe for the seruyce of men.

15 Thou bryngest fode out of the earth: wyne to make glad ye herte of ma, oyle to make him a chearfull countenance, & bred to strength mans herte.

16 The trees of the LORDE are full of sappe, euen the trees of Libanus which he hath planted.

17 There make the byrdes their nestes, and the fyrrer trees are a dwellinge for the storcke.

18 The hilles are a refuge for the wylde goates, and so are the stony rockes for ye conyes.

19 Thou hast appoynted the Moone for certayne seasons, the Sonne knoweth his goinge downe.

20 Thou makest darcknesse, that it maye be night, wherin all the beastes of the forest do moue.

21 Yee and the yonge lyons which roare after the praye, and seke their meate at God.

22 But when the Sonne ariseth, they get them awaye together, and lye them downe in their dennes.

23 Then goeth man forth to his worke, and to till his londe vntill the euenynge.

24 O LORDE, how manifolde are thy workes, right wysely hast thou made the all: yee the earth is full of thy riches.

25 So is this greate and wyde see also, wherin are thinges crepynge innumerable, both small and greate beastes.

26 There go the shippes ouer, and there is that Leuiathan, whom thou hast made, to take his pastyme therin.

27 They wayte all vpo the, that thou mayest geue them meate in due season.

28 Whe thou geuest it them, they gather it: whe thou openest thine honde, they are fylled with good.

29 But when thou hydest thy face, they are soroufull: yf thou takest awaye their breth, they dye, & are turned agayne to their dust.

30 Agayne, when thou lattest thy breth go forth, they are made, and so thou renewest the face of the earth.

31 The glorious magesty of the LORDE endureth for euer, and the LORDE reioyseth in his workes.

32 The earth trebleth at the loke of him, he doth but touch ye hilles and they smoke.

33 I will synge vnto the LORDE as longe as I lyue, I wil prayse my God whyle I haue my beinge.

34 O that my wordes might please him, for my ioye is in the LORDE.

35 As for synners, they shalbe cosumed out of the earth, and the vngodly shal come to an ende: but prayse thou the LORDE, o my soule. Halleluya.

Psalm 105

1 O geue thanks vnto the LORDE, and call vpon his name: tell the people what thinges he hath done.

2 O let youre songes be of him: prayse him, and let youre talkynge be of all his wonderous workes.

3 Geue his holy name a good reporte, let their hertes reioyse that seke the LORDE.

4 Seke the LORDE, and his strength, seke his face euermore.

5 Remembre the maruelous workes that he hath done, his wonders and the iudgmentes of his mouth.

6 O ye sede of Abraham his seruauant, ye children of Iacob his chosen.

7 He is the LORDE oure God, whose punyshmentes are thorow out all the worlde.

8 He is allwaye myndfull of his couenaunt, and promyse that he made to a thousande generacions.

9 Yee the couenaunt that he made wt Abraham, and the ooth that he swore vnto Isaac.

10 And apoynted the same vnto Iacob for a lawe, and to Israel for an euerlastinge testament.

11 Sayenge: vnto the wil I geue the londe of Canaan, the lott of youre heretage.

12 When there was yet but a fewe of them, and they straungers therin.

13 What tyme as they wente from one nacion to another, from one kyngdome to another.

14 He suffred no man to hurte them, but reproued euen kynoges for their sakes.

15 Touch not myne anoynted, do my prophetes no harme.

16 Morouer he called for a derth vpon the lode, and destroyed all the prouision of bred.

17 But he had sent a man before them, euen Ioseph which was solde to be a bonde seruauant.

18 They hurte his fete in the stockes, the yron pearsed his herte.

19 Vntill the tyme that his worde came, and till the worde of ye LORDE had tried him.

20 Then sent the kinge and caused him be deluyered, the prynce of the people bad let him go.

21 He made him lorde of his house, & ruler of all his substaunce.

22 That he might enfourme his prynces after his wil, and teach his Senatours wysdome.

23 Israel also came in to Egipte, and Iacob was a straunger in the lode of Ham.

24 But he increased his people excedeinge, and made them stronger then their enemies.

25 Whose hert turned, so that they hated his people, and dealt vnruly with his seruantes.

26 Then sent he Moses his seruauant, and Aaron whom he had chosen.

27 These dyd his tokens amoge them, and wonders in the londe of Ham.

28 He sent darcknesse and it was darcke, for they were not obedient vnto his worde.

29 He turned their waters in to bloude, and slewe their fishe.

30 Their londe brought forth frogges, yee euen in their kynoges chambers.

31 He spake the worde, & their came all maner of flies & lise in all their quarters.

32 He gaued them hale stones for rayne, and flammes of fyre in their lode.

33 He smote their vynyardes & fige trees, and destroyed the trees that were in their coastes.

34 He spake ye worde, and their came greshoppers & catirpillers innumerable.

35 These ate vp all the grasse in their lode, and deuoured the frutes of their groude.

36 He smote all ye first borne in their lode, euen the chefe of all their substaunce.

37 He brought them forth wt syluer & golde, there was not one feble personne amoge their trybes.

38 Egipte was glad of their departinge, for they were afraied of the.

39 e sprud out a cloude to be a couerynge, and fyre to geue light in the night season.

40 At their desyre, there came quales, and he fylled them with the bred of heaue.

41 He opened the rocke of stone, & the waters flowed out: so that ryuers ranne in the wilderness.

42 For why, he remembered his holy promyse which he had made vnto Abraham his seruauant.

43 Thus he brought forth his people with ioye, and his chosen with gladnesse.

44 And gaue them the lodes of the Heithe, where they toke the labours of the people in possession.

45 That they might kepe his statutes, and obserue his lawes. Halleluya. Halleluya.

Psalms 106

1 O geue thanks vnto the LORDE, for he is gracious, and his mercy endureth for euer.

2 Who can expresse ye noble actes of the LORDE, or shewe forth all his prayse?

3 Blessed are they that alwaye kepe iudgment, and do rightuousnes.

4 Remembre vs (o LORDE) acordinge to the faouere that thou bearest vnto thy people: o vyset vs wt thy sauinge health.

5 That we might se the pleasure of thy chosen, that we might reioyse in the gladnesse of thy people, and geue thanks with thine enheritaunce.

6 We haue synned with oure fathers, we haue done amysse, we haue dealt wickedly.

7 Oure fathers regarded not thy wonders in Egipte, they kepte not thy greete goodnesse in remembrance: but were dishobediet at the see, eue at the reed see.

8 Neuertheles, he helped the for his names sake, that he might make his power to be knowne.

9 He rebuked the reed see, and it was dried vp: so he led the thorow the depe as in a wilderness.

10 Thus he saued them from the honde of the hater, & delyuered them from the honde of the enemye.

11 As for those yt troubled them, the waters ouerwhelmed the, there was not one of the left.

12 Then beleued they in his worde, and songe prayse vnto him.

13 But within a whyle they forgat his workes, & wolde not abyde his counsell.

14 A lust came vpo them in the wilderness, so that they tempted God in the deserte.

15 Yet he gaue them their desyre, and sent the ynough at their willes.

16 They angered Moses in the tetes, and Aaron the saynte of the LORDE.

17 So the earth opened & swallowed vp Dathan, and couered the congregacio of Abiram.

18 The fyre was kyndled in their company, the flame brent vp the vngodly.

19 They made a calfe in Horeb, and worshipped the molte ymage.

20 Thus they turned his glory into the similitude of a calfe, yt eateth haye.

21 They forgat God their Sauior, which had done so greate thinges in Egipte.

22 Wonderous workes in the londe of Ham, and fearfull thinges in the reed see.

23 So he sayde he wolde haue destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stonde before him in yt gappe: to turne awaie his wrothfull indignacion, lest he shulde destroye the.

24 Yee they thought scorne of yt pleasaut londe, and gaue no credence vnto his worde.

25 But murmured in their tentes, and herkened not vnto the voyce of the LORDE.

26 Then lift he vp his honde agaynst them, to ouerthrowe them in the wildernes.

27 To cast out their sede amonge the nacions, and to scater them in the londes.

28 They ioyned them selues vnto Baal Peor, and ate the offeringes of the deed.

29 Thus they prouoked him vnto anger with their owne invecions, and the plage was greate amonge them.

30 Then stode vp Phineas and excuted iustice, & so the plage ceased.

31 And that was counted vnto him for rightuousnesse, amonge all posterites for euermore.

32 They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that Moses was punyshed for their sakes.

33 Because they prouoked his sprete, and he tolde the planely with his lippes.

34 Nether destroyed they the Heithen, as the LORDE commaunded them.

35 But were mengled amonge the Heithen, and lerned their workes.

36 In so moch that they worshipped their ymages, which turned to their owne decaye.

37 Yee they offred their sonnes & their daughters vnto deuels.

38 And shed the innocent bloude of their sonnes and of their daughters, whom they offred vnto the ymages of Canaan, so that the londe was defyled with bloude.

39 Thus were they stayned wt their owne workes, and wente a whoringe with their owne invecions.

40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORDE kyndled agaynst his people, in so moch that he abhorred his owne enheritaunce.

41 And gaue them ouer in to the honde of the Heithe, and they that hated them, were lordes ouer them.

42 Their enemies oppressed the, and had them in subieccion.

43 Many a tyme dyd he delyuer them, but they prouoked him with their owne invecions, and were brought downe for their wickednesse.

44 Neuerthelesse whe he sawe their aduersite, he herde their complaynte.

45 He thought vpo his couenaunt, and pitied the, acordinge vnto the multitude of his mercies.

46 Yee he made all those yt had led them awaye captiue, to pitie them.

47 Delyuer vs (o LORDE oure God) & gather vs from amoge the Heithen: that we maye geue thanks to thy holy name, & make oure boast of thy prayse.

48 Blessed be the LORDE God of Israel from euerlastinge and worlde without ende, and let all people saye: Amen. Amen. Halleluya.

Psalms 107

1 O geue thanks vnto the LORDE, for he is gracious, and his mercy endureth for euer.

2 Let them geue thakes whom the LORDE hath redemed, & delyuered from the hande of the enemye.

3 And gathered the out of the londes, fro the east, fro the west, fro the north & from the south.

4 They wente astraye in the wilderness in an vntroden waye, & founde no cite to dwell in.

5 Hongrie & thirstie, & their soule faynted in the.

6 So they cried vnto the LORDE in their trouble, & he delyuered the from their distresse.

7 He led the forth by ye right waie, yt they might go to ye cite where they dwelt.

8 O that me wolde prayse the goodnesse of the LORDE, & the wonders that he doth for the childre of me.

9 For he satisfied the emptie soule, & fylled the hongrie soule wt good.

10 Soch as sat in darcknesse and in the shadowe of death, beyng fast bounde in misery & yron.

11 Because they were not obediet to the comaundementes of God, but lightly regarded the counsell of the most highest.

12 Their herte was vexed with labor, they fell downe, & there was none to helpe them.

13 So they cried vnto the LORDE in their trouble, & he delyuered them out of their distresse.

14 He brought the out of darcknesse & out of the shadowe of death, & brake their bondes in sonder.

15 O that men wolde prayse the goodnesse of the LORDE, & the woders that he doth for the childre of men.

16 For he hath broken the gates of brasse, & smitte the barres of yron in sonder.

17 Foolish me were plaged for their offence, & because of their wickednesse.

18 Their soule abhorred all maner of meate, they were eue harde at deathes dore.

19 So they cried vnto the LORDE in their trouble, & he delyuered the out of their distresse.

20 He sent his worde & healed the, & saued the from destruccion.

21 O that men wolde prayse the goodnesse of the LORDE, & the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

22 That they wolde offre vnto him the sacrifice of thankesgeuyng, and tell out his workes with gladnes.

23 They that go downe to the see in shippes, & occupie their busynesse in greate waters.

24 These men se the workes of the LORDE, & his wonders in the depe.

25 For at his worde, the stormy wynde aryseth, and lifteth vp the wawes therof.

26 They are caried vp to the heauen, & downe agayne to the depe, their soule melteth awaye in the trouble.

27 They rele to and fro, they stacker like a droncken man, and are at their wittes ende.

28 So they crie vnto the LORDE in their trouble, & he delyuere the out of their distresse.

29 He maketh the storme to cease, so that the wawes are still.

30 The are they glad because they be at rest, & so he bryngeth them vnto the hauen where they wolde be.

31 O that men wolde prayse the goodnes of the LORDE, and the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

32 That they wolde exalte him in the cogregacion of the people, & loaue him in the seate of the elders.

33 Which turneth the floudes in to drie londe, and drieth vp the water sprynges.

34 A frutefull londe maketh he baren, for the wickednesse of them that dwell therein.

35 Agayne, he maketh the wildernes a stondeing water, and water sprynges of a drye grounde.

36 There he setteth the hongrie, that they maye buylde them a cite to dwell in.

37 That they maye sowe their groude, plante vynyaydes, to yelde them frutes of increase.

38 He blesseth them, so that they multiplie exceedingly, and suffreth not their catell to decrease.

39 Whe they are minished & brought lowe thorow oppressio, thorow eny plage or trouble.

40 Though he suffre the to be euell intreated thorow tyrautes, or let them wandre out of the waye in the wilderness:

41 Yet helpeth he the poore out of misery (at the last) and maketh him an housholde like a flocke of shepe.

42 The rightuous wil cosidre this and reioyse, the mouth of all wickednesse shall be stopped.

43 Who so is wyse, and pondreth these thinges well, shall vnderstonde the louynge kyndnesses of the LORDE.

Psalms 108

1 O God, my hert is ready to synge, & to geue prayse.

2 Awake (o my glory) awake lute & harpe, I my selfe will awake right early.

3 I wil geue thakes vnto the (o LORDE) amonge the people, I wil synge prayses vnto the amonge the Heithe.

4 For the greatnesse of thy mercy is higher then the heauens, and thy faithfulness reacheth vnto the cloudes.

5 Set vp thy self (o God) aboute the heaues, & thy glory aboute all the earth.

6 That thy beloued maye be delyuered: helpe then with thy right hande, & heare me.

7 God hath spoken in his Sanctuary (which thinge reioyseth me.) I will deuyde Sichem, and mete out the valley of Suchoth.

8 Galaad is myne, Manasses is myne, Ephraim is the strenght of my heade,

9 Iuda is my captaine. Moab is my wash potte, ouer Edom wil I stretch out my shue, Philistea shal be glad of me.

10 Who wil lede me in to the stronge cite? Who wil brynge me in to Edom?

11 Shalt not thou do it (o God) which hast cast vs out: thou God, yt wentest not forth with oure hoostes?

12 O be thou or helpe in trouble, for vayne is the helpe of man.

13 Thorow God we shall do greate actes, for it is he yt shal treade downe oure enemies.

Psalms 109

1 Holde not thy toge, o God of my prayse. For the mouth of the vngodly, yee and the mouth of the disceatfull is opened vpon me,

2 and speake agaynst me with false toges. They compase me aboute with wordes of hatred, & fight agaynst me without a cause.

3 For the loue that I had vnto them, they take now my contrary parte, but I geue my self vnto prayer.

4 Thus they rewarde me euell for good, & hatred for my good will.

5 Set an vngodly man to be ruler ouer him, & let Satan stonde at his right hande.

6 When sentence is geuen vpon him, let him be codempned, and let his prayer be turned in to synne.

7 Let his dayes be fewe, and his bishopricke another take.

8 Let his children be fatherlesse, & his wife a wyddowe.

9 Let his children be vagabundes, and begg their bred: let them seke it, as they that be destroyed.

10 Let the extorcioner cosume all that he hath, and let straungers spoyle his labour.

11 Let there be no man to petie, ner to haue compassion vpon his fatherlesse children.

12 Let his ende be destruccion, and in the nexte generacion let his name be clenep put out.

13 Let the wickednesse of his fathers be had in remembraunce in the sight of the LORDE, and let not the synne of his mother be done awaye.

14 Let them be allwaye before the LORDE, but as for the memoriall of them selues, let it perish from out of the earth.

15 And that because his mynde was not to do good, but persecuted the poore helplesse, and him that was vexed at the herte, to slaye him.

16 His delite was in cursynge, and therefore shall it happe vnto him: he loued not blesynge, and that shall be farre from him.

17 He clothed him self with cursynge like as with a rayment: yee it wente in to his bowels like water, and like oyle in to his bones.

18 Let it be vnto him as the cloke that he hath vpon him, and as the gyrdle that he is gyrded withall.

19 Let it thus happen from the LORDE vnto myne enemies, and to those that speake euell agaynst my soule.

20 But deale thou with me (o LORDE God) acordinge vnto thy name, for swete is thy mercy.

21 O delyuer me, for I am helplesse & poore, & my herte is wounded within me, 22 I go hence like ye shadowe that departeth, and am dryuen awaye as ye greshoppers.

23 My knees are weake thorow fastinge, my flesh is dried vp for want of fatnesse.

24 I am become a rebuke vnto them, they loke vpo me and shake their heades.

25 Helpe me o LORDE my God, oh saue me for thy mercies sake.

26 That they maye knowe, how that this is thy hande, and that thou hast done it.

27 Though they curse, yet blesse thou: 28 and let them be cofounded, that ryse vp agaynst me, but let thy seruauant reioyse.

29 Let myne aduersaries be clothed with their owne shame, as with a cloake.

30 As for me, I wil geue thanks vnto the LORDE with my mouth, and prayse him amonge the multitude.

31 For he stondesth at the right hande of the poore, to saue him from such as condempne his soule.

Psalms 110

1 The LORDE sayde vnto my LORDE: Syt thou on my right hande, vntill I make thine enemies thy fotestole.

2 The LORDE shal sende the rodde of thy power out of Sion, be thou ruler euen in ye myddest amonge thine enemies.

3 In the daye of thy power shal thy people offre the frewill offeringes with an holy worshippe, ye dewe of thy byrth is of the wobe of the mornynge.

4 The LORDE sware, and wil not repent: Thou art a prest for euer after ye order of Melchisedec.

5 The LORDE vpon thy right honde, shal smyte euen kynges in the daye of his wrath.

6 He shal be iudge amoge the Heithen, he shal fyll them with deed bodies, and smyte in sonder the heades ouer dyuerse countres.

7 He shal drynke of the broke in the waye, therfore shal he lift vp his heade.

Psalms 111

1 I wil geue thanks vnto the LORDE with my whole herte: secretly amonge the faithfull, and in the congregacion.

2 The workes of the LORDE are greate, sought out of all the that haue pleasure therein.

3 His worke is worthy to be prayed and had in honoure, and his rightuousnesse endureth for euer.

4 The mercifull & gracious LORDE hath so done his marvelous workes, yt they ought to be had in remebrauce.

5 He geueth meate vnto the yt feare him, he is euer myndfull of his couenaut.

6 He sheweth his people the power of his workes, that he maye geue them the heretage of the Heithen.

7 The workes of his hodes are verite & iudgment, all his comaundemetes are true.

8 They stonde fast for euer & euer, & are done in trueth & equite.

9 He sent redempcion vnto his people, he hath commaunded his couenaut for euer, holy & reuerent is his name.

10 The feare of the LORDE is the begynnynge of wy?dome, a good vnderstandinge haue all they that do therafter: the prayse of it endureth for euer.

Psalms 112

1 Blessed is the man yt feareth the LORDE, & hath greate delite in his commaundemetes.

2 His sede shall be mightie vpon earth, the generacion of the faithfull shalbe blessed.

3 Riches & pleteousnesse shalbe in his house, & his rightuousnes endureth for euer.

4 Vnto the godly there ariseth vp light in the darcknesse: he is merciful, louynge & rightuous.

5 Wel is him that is mercifull, & lendeth gladly, & podreth his wordes wt discrecion.

6 For he shal neuer be moued, the rightuous shal be had in an euerlastinge remembraunce.

7 He wil not be afrayed for eny euell tydinges, his herte stondesth fast, & beleueth in ye LORDE.

8 His herte is stablished, he wil not shrencke, vntill he se his desyre vpon his enemies.

9 He hath sparsed abrode, & geue to the poore, his rightuousnes remayneth for euer, his horne shalbe exalted wt honor.

10 The vngodly shal se it, & it shal greue him: he shall gnash wt his teth & consume awaye, & the desyre of the vngodly shal perish.

Psalms 113

1 Prayse the LORDE (O ye seruauantes) O prayse the name of the LORDE.

2 Blessed be the name of the LORDE, fro this tyme forth for euermore.

3 The LORDES name is worthy to be prayed, fro the rysynge vp of the Sonne vnto the goinge downe of the same.

4 The LORDE is hye aboue all Heithen, and his glorye aboute the heaues.

5 Who is like vnto the LORDE oure God, yt hath his dwellinge so hye,

6 which humbleth himself, to beholde that is in heauen and earth?

7 Which taketh vp the symple out of the dust, and lifteth the poore out of the myre.

8 That he maye set him amonge the prynces, euen amonge the prynces of his people.

9 Which maketh the baren woman to kepe house, and to be a ioyfull mother of children. Halleluya.

Psalms 114

1 When Israel came out of Egipte, & the house of Iacob from amonge that straunge people.

2 Iuda was his Sactuary, Israel his dominion.

3 The see sawe that, and fled, Iordan turned backe.

4 The mountaynes skipped like rammes, & the litle hilles like yonge shepe.

5 What ayled the (o thou see) that thou fleddest? and thou Iordan, that thou turnedest backe?

6 Ye mountaynes, that ye skipped like rammes? and ye litle hilles, like yonge shepe?

7 The earth trembled at the presence of the LORDE, at the presence of the God of Iacob.

8 Which turned the harde rocke in to a stondinge water, & the flynt stone in to a sprynge well.

Psalms 115

1 Not vnto vs (o LORDE) not vnto vs, but vnto thy name geue the prayse, for thy louinge mercy and faithfulness.

2 Wherfore shal the Heithen saye: where is now their God?

3 As for oure God, he is in heauen, he doth what soeuer it pleaseth him.

4 Their ymages are but syluer and golde, euen the worke of mens hodes.

5 They haue mouthes, and speake not: eyes haue they, but they se not.

6 They haue eares, and heare not: noses haue they, but they smell not.

7 They haue handes and handle not, fete haue they, but they can not go, nether can they speake thorow their throte.

8 They that made them, are like vnto them, and so are all such as put their trust in them.

9 But let Israel trust in ye LORDE, for he is their sucoure & defence.

10 Let the house of Aaron put their trust in ye LORDE, for he is their sucoure & defence.

11 They that feare the LORDE, let the put their trust in the LORDE, for he is their sucoure and defence.

12 The LORDE is myndefull of vs, & blesseth vs: he blesseth ye house of Israel, he blesseth ye house of Aaron.

13 Yee he blesseth all them that feare the LORDE, both small & greate.

14 The LORDE encrease you more & more: you, and youre childe.

15 For ye are ye blessed of the LORDE, which made heauen & earth.

16 All the whole heuens are the LORDES, but the earth hath he geue vnto ye childe of men.

17 The deed prayse not the (o LORDE) nether all they that go downe in to sylence.

18 But we will prayse the LORDE, from this tyme forth for euermore. Halleluya.

Psalms 116

1 I am wel pleased, yt the LORDE hath herde ye voyce of my prayer.
 2 That he hath enclyned his eare vnto me, therefore wil I call vpo him as longe as I lyue.
 3 The snares of death copased me rounde aboute, the paynes of hell gat holde vpon me,
 4 I founde trouble and heuynesse. Then called I vpon ye name of the LORDE: o LORDE, delyuer my soule.
 5 Gracious is ye LORDE & rightuous, yee oure God is mercifull.
 6 The LORDE preserueth ye symple, I was brought downe, and he helped me.
 7 Turne agayne then vnto thy rest (o my soule) for the LORDE hath geuen the thy desyre.
 8 And why? thou hast delyuered my soule from death, myne eyes from teares, and my fete from fallenge.
 9 I wil walke before ye LORDE, in the londe of the lyuynge.
 10 I beleued, and therefore haue I spoke, but I was sore troubled.
 11 I sayde in my haist: All men are lyers.
 12 What rewarde shal I geue vnto ye LORDE, for all the benefites yt he hath done vnto me?
 13 I wil receaue the cuppe of saluacio, and call vpon the name of the LORDE.
 14 I wil paye my vowes in the presence of all his people, right deare in the sight of ye LORDE is the death of his sayntes.
 15 O LORDE, I am thy seruauant, I am thy seruauant, 16 and the sonne of thy handmayden, thou hast broken my bondes in sonder.
 17 I wil offre the the sacrifice of thankes geuyng, and wil call vpon the name of the LORDE.
 18 I wil paye my vowes vnto the LORDE in the sight of all his people, 19 in the courtes of the LORDES house, eue in the myddest of the, o Ierusalem. Halleluya.

Psalms 117

1 O prayse the LORDE all ye Gentiles, laude him all ye people.
 2 For his mercifull kyndnes is euer more and more towarde vs, & the trueth of the LORDE endureth for euer. Halleluya.

Psalms 118

1 O Geue thanks vnto the LORDE, for he is gracious, and his mercy endureth for euer.
 2 Let Israel now confesse, yt his mercy endureth for euer.
 3 Let the house of Aaron now confesse, that his mercy endureth for euer.
 4 Yee let the now that feare the LORDE, confesse, that his mercy endureth for euer.
 5 I called vpon the LORDE in trouble, and the LORDE herde me at large.
 6 The LORDE is my helper, I wil not feare what man doeth vnto me.

 7 The LORDE is my helper, & I shal se my desyre vpon myne enemies.
 8 It is better to trust in the LORDE, then to put eny confidence in man.
 9 It is better to trust in the LORDE, then to put eny confidece in prynces.
 10 All Heithen compased me rounde aboute, but in the name of the LORDE wil I destroye the.
 11 They kepte me in on euery syde, but in the name of the LORDE, I wil destroye them.
 12 They came aboute me like bees, & were as hote as the fyre in the thornes, but in the name of the LORDE I wil destroye them.
 13 They thrust at me, that I might fall, but the LORDE was my helpe.
 14 The LORDE is my stregth, & my songe, & is become my saluacion.
 15 The voyce of ioye & myrth is in the dwellynges of ye rightuous, for ye right hande of the LORDE hath gotte the victory.
 16 The right hande of the LORDE hath the preemynence, the right hade of the LORDE hath gotte the victory.
 17 I wil not dye, but lyue, and declare the workes of the LORDE.
 18 The LORDE hath chastened & correcte me, but he hath not geuen me ouer vnto death.
 19 Open me the gates of rightuousnes, yt I maye go in there thorow, & geue thakes vnto the LORDE.
 20 This is the dore of the LORDE, the rightuous shall entre in thorow it.
 21 I thanke the, yt thou hast herde me, & art become my saluacio.
 22 The same stone which the buylders refused, is become the heade stone in the corner.
 23 This was the LORDES doinge, & it is maruelous in or eyes.
 24 This is the daye which the LORDE hath made, let vs reioyse and be glad in it.
 25 Helpe now o LORDE, o LORDE sende vs now prosperite.
 26 Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the LORDE, we wish you good lucke, ye that be of the house of the LORDE.
 27 God is the LORDE, & hath shewed vs light: O garnish the solempne feast with grene braunches, eue vnto the hornes of ye autler.
 28 Thou art my God, & I wil thanke the: thou art my God, and I wil prayse the.
 29 O geue thanks vnto the LORDE, for he is gracious, & his mercy endureth for euer.

Psalms 119

1 Blessed are those yt be vndefiled in the waye: which walke in the lawe of ye LORDE.
 2 Blessed are they that kepe his testimonies, & seke him with their whole herte.
 3 Which walke in his wayes, & do no wickednesse.
 4 Thou hast geuen strayte charge to kepe thy commaundementes.

 5 O that my wayes were stablished to kepe thy statutes.
 6 So shulde I not be confounded, whyle I haue respecte vnto all thy commaundementes.
 7 I wil thanke the with an vnfaigned herte, because I am lerned in the iudgmentes of thy rightuousnesse.
 8 I wil kepe thy statutes, o forsake me not vtterly.
 9 Where withall shall a yonge man clense his waye? Euen by rulinge himself after thy worde.
 10 With my whole herte do I seke ye, O let me not go wronge out of thy comaundemetes.
 11 Thy wordes haue I hyd within my herte, yt I shulde not synne agaynst the.
 12 Prayed be thou O LORDE, O teach me thy statutes.
 13 With my lippes wil I be tellynge out all the iudgmentes of thy mouth.
 14 I haue as greates delite in the waye of thy testimonies, as in all maner of riches.
 15 I wil exercise my self in thy comaundementes, & haue respecte vnto thy fotepathes.
 16 My delite shalbe in thy statutes, I will not forget thy wordes.
 17 O do well vnto thy seruauant, that I maye lyue and kepe thy wordes.
 18 Open thou myne eyes, & so shal I spie out wonderous thinges in yi lawe.
 19 I am a strauger vpo earth, O hyde not thy commaundementes fro me.
 20 My soule breaketh out, for the very feruent desyre that I haue allwaye vnto thy iudgmentes.
 21 Thou rebukest the proude, cursed are they that departe from thy commaundemetes
 22 O turne fro me shame & rebuke, for I kepe thy testimonies.
 23 Prynces also syt & speake agaynst me, but thy seruaut is occupied in thy statutes.
 24 In thy testimonies is my delite, they are my councilers.
 25 My soule cleueth to the dust, O quicken thou me acordinge to thy worde.
 26 I knowleged my wayes, & thou herdest me, O teach me then thy statutes.
 27 Make me to vnderstonde the waye of thy commaundemetes, & so shal I talke of thy wonderous workes.
 28 My soule melteth awaye for very heuynesse, o set me vp acordinge vnto thy worde.
 29 Take fro me the waye of lyenge, & graunte me thy lawe.
 30 I haue chossen the waye of treuth, thy iudgmentes haue I layed before me.
 31 I sticke vnto thy testimonies, o LORDE cofounde me not.
 32 I wil rune the waye of thy commaundementes, when thou hast comforted my herte.
 33 Teach me o LORDE the waye of thy statutes, and I shal kepe it vnto the ende.
 34 O geue me vnderstonding, and I shal kepe yi lawe, yee I shal kepe it with my whole herte.
 35 Lede me in the path of thy commaundemetes, for that is my desyre, 36 Enclyne myne herte vnto thy testimonies, & not to cuvetousnes.

 37 O turne awaye myne eyes, lest they beholde vanite, & quicke me in thy waie.
 38 O stablish thy worde in thy seruauant, yt I maye feare the.
 39 Take awaye the rebuke yt I am afraied of, for thy iudgmentes are amiable.
 40 Beholde, my delite is in thy commaundemetes, o quicke me in thy rightuousnesse.
 41 Let thy louynge mercy come vnto me (o LORDE) and thy sauynge health acordinge vnto thy worde.
 42 That I maye geue answere vnto my blasphemers, for my trust is in yi worde.
 43 O take not ye worde of treuth vtterly out of my mouth, for my hope is in thy iudgmentes.
 44 So shal I allwaye kepe thy lawe, yee for euer and euer.
 45 And I wil walke at liberty, for I seke thy commaundementes.
 46 I wil speake of thy testimonies euen before kynges, and wil not be ashamed.
 47 My delite shalbe in thy commaundementes, which I loue.
 48 My hondes also will I lift vp vnto thy commaundemetes which I loue, & my talkynge shalbe of thy statutes.
 49 O thinke vpon thy seruauant as concernynge yi worde, wherin thou hast caused me to put my trust.
 50 For it is my comforte in my trouble, yee thy worde quyckeneth me.
 51 The proude haue me greatly in derision, yet shrencke not I from thy lawe.
 52 I remembre thy euerlastinge iudgmentes (o LORDE) and am comforted.
 53 I am horribly afrayed for ye vngodly, that forsake thy lawe.
 54 Thy statutes are my songes in the house of my pilgremage.
 55 I thinke vpon thy name (o LORDE) in the night season, and kepe thy lawe.
 56 It is myne owne, for I kepe thy commaundementes.
 57 Thou art my porcion (o LORDE) I am purposed to kepe thy lawe.
 58 I make myne humble petition in thy presence wt my whole herte, o be mercifull vnto me acordinge vnto yi worde.
 59 I call myne owne wayes to remembrance, and turne my fete in to thy testimonies.
 60 I make haist, and prolonge not the tyme, to kepe thy commaundemetes.
 61 The congregacions of the vngodly haue robbed me, but I forget not thy lawe.
 62 At mydnight stonde I vp, to geue thakes vnto the, for the iudgmentes of thy rightuousnesse.
 63 I am a companion of all them that feare the, and kepe thy commaundementes.
 64 The earth (o LORDE) is full of thy mercy, O teach me thy statutes.
 65 O LORDE, thou hast dealt frendly with thy seruauant, acordinge vnto thy worde.

66 O lerne me kyndnesse, nourtour & knowlege, for I beleue thy commaundementes.
 67 Before I was troubled, I wente wronge, but now I kepe thy worde.
 68 Thou art good and frendly, O teach me thy statutes.
 69 The proude ymagin lyes vpon me, but I kepe thy commaundemetes with my whole herte.
 70 Their herte is as fat as brawne, but my delite is in thy lawe.
 71 It is good for me that I haue bene in trouble, that I maye lerne thy statutes.
 72 The lawe of thy mouth is dearer vnto me, the thousandes of golde & syluer.
 73 Thy hades haue made me and fashioned me, O geue me vnderstandinge, that I maye lerne thy commaundementes.
 74 They that feare the, wil be glad when they se me, because I put my trust in thy worde.
 75 I knowe (o LORDE) yt thy iudgmentes are right, and yt thou of very faithfulnessse hast caused me be troubled.
 76 O let thy mercifull kyndnesse be my comforte, acordinge to the promyse that thou hast made vnto thy seruaut.
 77 O let thy louynge mercies come vnto me, that I maye lyue, for thy lawe is my delyte.
 78 Let the proude be confounded, which handle so falsly agaynst me.
 79 But let soch as feare the, & knowe thy testimonies, be turned vnto me.
 80 O let my herte be vndefyled in thy statutes, that I be not ashamed.
 81 My soule longeth for thy sauynge health, for my trust is in thy worde.
 82 Myne eyes loge sore for thy worde, sayege: Oh when wilt thou coforte me?
 83 For I am become like a botell in ye smoke, yet do not I forget thy statutes.
 84 How many are the dayes of thy seruaut? Whe wilt thou be auenged of my aduersaries?
 85 The proude haue dygged pittes for me, which are not after thy lawe.
 86 All thy commaundemetes are true, they persecute me falsly, O be thou my helpe.
 87 They haue almost made an ende of me vpon earth, but I forsake not thy commaundemetes.
 88 O quycke me after yi louinge kyndnes, & so shall I kepe the testimonies of thy mouth.
 89 O LORDE, thy worde endureth for euer in heaue.
 90 Thy treuth also remayneth from one generacion to another: thou hast layed the foundation of the earth, and it abydeth.
 91 They cotinue this daye acordinge to thy ordinaunce, for all thinges serue the.
 92 Yf my delyte were not in thy lawe, I shulde perishe in my trouble.
 93 I wil neuer forget thy comaundementes, for with the thou quyckenest me.
 94 I am thine, oh helpe me, for I seke thy commaundementes.
 95 The vngodly laye wayte for me to destroye me, but I conside thy testimonies.

 96 I se that all thinges come to an ende, but thy commaundemet is exceadinge brode.
 97 O what a loue haue I vnto thy lawe? all the daye longe is my talkynge of it.
 98 Thou throw thy comaundement hast made me wyser the myne enemies, for it is euer by me.
 99 I haue more vnderstandinge then all my teachers, for thy testimonies are my studye.
 100 Yee I am wyser then the aged, for I kepe thy comaundementes.
 101 I refrayne my fete from euery euell waye, that I maye kepe thy wordes.
 102 I shrenck not from thy iudgmentes, for thou teachest me.
 103 O how swete are thy wordes vnto my throte? Yee more the hony vnto my mouth.
 104 Thorow thy commaundementes I get vnderstandinge, therfore I hate all false wayes.
 105 Thy worde is a lanterne vnto my fete & a light vnto my pathes.
 106 I haue sworne & am sted fastly purposed, to kepe the iudgmetes of thy rightuousnesse.
 107 I am troubled aboute measure, quycken me (o LORDE) acordinge vnto thy worde.
 108 Let the frewil offeringes of my mouth please the (o LORDE) & teach me yi iudgmetes.
 109 My soule is allwaye in my hode, yet do not I forget thy lawe.
 110 The vngodly haue laied a snare for me, but yet swarue not I fro thy comaundemetes.
 111 Thy testimonies haue I claymed as myne heretage for euer: & why? they are the very ioye of my herte.
 112 I applye myne herte to fulfill thy statutes all waye, euen vnto the ende.
 113 I hate ye vngodly, but thy lawe do I loue.
 114 Thou art my defence & shyld, my trust is in thy worde.
 115 Awaye fro me ye wicked, I wil kepe the comaundementes of my God.
 116 O stablish me acordinge vnto thy worde, yt I maye lyue, & let me not be disapoynted of my hope.
 117 Holde thou me vp, & I shall be safe: yee I shal euer be talkynge of thy statutes.
 118 Thou treadest downe all the yt departe from thy statutes, for they ymagin but disceate.
 119 Thou putttest awaye all the vngodly of the earth like drosse, therfore I loue thy testimonies.
 120 My flesh trebleth for feare of the, and I am afrayed of thy iudgmetes.
 121 I deale wt the thinge yt is lauffull & right, O geue me not ouer vnto my oppressours.
 122 Be thou suertie for thy seruaut to do him good, that the proude do me no wronge.
 123 Myne eyes are waysted awaye wt lokynge for thy health, & for ye worde of thy rightuousnesse.
 124 O deale with thy seruaut acordinge vnto thy louynge mercy, and teach me thy statutes.

 125 I am thy seruaut, O graunte me vnderstodunge, that I maye knowe thy testimonies.
 126 It is tyme for the (o LORDE) to laye to thine hode, for they haue destroyed thy lawe.
 127 For I loue thy comaundemetes aboute golde and precious stone.
 128 Therfore holde I straight all thy comaundemetes, and all false wayes I vterly abhorre.
 129 Thy testimonies are wonderfull, therfore doth my soule kepe them.
 130 When thy worde goeth forth, it geueth light and vnderstodunge, eue vnto babes.
 131 I ope my mouth & drawe in my breth, for I desyre thy comaundemetes.
 132 O loke thou vpon me, and be mercyfull, as thou vset to do vnto those yt loue yi name.
 133 Ordre my goings after thy worde, that no wickednesse raigne in me.
 134 O delyuer me from the wrogeous dealinges of me, and so shal I kepe thy comaundemetes.
 135 Shewe the light of thy countenance vnto thy seruaut, and lerne me thy statutes.
 136 Myne eyes gusshe out with water, because men kepe not thy lawe.
 137 Rightuous art thou (o LORDE) & true is yi iudgmet.
 138 The testimonies that thou hast commauded, are exceadinge rightuous and true.
 139 My zeale hath euen consumed me, because myne enemies haue forgotten thy wordes.
 140 Thy worde is tried to the vttermost, & thy seruante loueth it.
 141 I am small and of no reputacio, yet do not I forget thy comaundementes.
 142 Thy rightuousnesse is an euerlastinge rightuousnes, and thy lawe is true.
 143 Trouble and heuynesse haue take holde vpo me, yet is my delite in thy comaundementes.
 144 The rightuousnes of thy testimonies is euerlastinge, o graunte me vnderstodunge, and I shal lyue.
 145 I call wt my whole herte, heare me (o LORDE) I wil kepe thy statutes.
 146 Yee euen vpo the do I call, helpe me, and I shal kepe yi testimonies.
 147 Early in ye mornynge do I crie vnto the, for in thy worde is my trust.
 148 Myne eyes preuete ye night watches, yt I might be occupied in thy wordes.
 149 Heare my voyce (o LORDE) acordige vnto thy louynge kyndnesse, quycke me acordige as thou art wot.
 150 They drawe nye yt of malice persecute me, & are farre fro yi lawe.
 151 Be thou nye at hode also (o LORDE) for thy promises are faithfull.
 152 As concernynge thy testimonies, I haue knowne euer sens the begynnynge, that thou hast grounded them for euer.
 153 O conside my aduersite, & delyuer me, for I do not forget thy lawe.
 154 Manteyne thou my cause and defende me, quycken me acordinge vnto thy worde.

 155 Health is farre fro the vngodly, for they regarde not thy statutes.
 156 Greate is thy mercy (o LORDE) quycken me as thou art wot.
 157 Many there are that trouble me, and persecute me, yet do not I swarue fro thy testimonies.
 158 It greueth me, whan I se, that the transgressours kepe not thy lawe.
 159 Conside (LORDE) how I loue thy comaundementes, O quycken me wt thy louinge kyndnesse.
 160 Thy worde is true from euerlastinge, all the iudgmentes of thy rightuousnesse endure for euermore.
 161 The prynces persecute me without cause, but my herte stodeth in awe of thy wordes.
 162 I am as glad of thy worde, as one yt fyndeth greate spoyles.
 163 As for lyes, I hate & abhorre them, but thy lawe do I loue
 164 Seuen tymes a daye do I prayse the, because of thy rightuous iudgmentes.
 165 Greate is the peace yt they haue which loue yi lawe, & they are not offended at it.
 166 LORDE, I loke for yi sauynge health, & do after thy comaundemetes.
 167 My soule kepeth thy testimonies, & loueth the exceadingly.
 168 I kepe thy comaundemetes & testimonies, for all my wayes are before the.
 169 Let my coplynte come before the (o LORDE) geue me vnderstodunge, acordinge vnto thy worde.
 170 Oh let my supplicacio come before the, delyuer me acordinge to thy promyse.
 171 My lippes shall speake of thy prayse, seynghe thou hast taught me thy statutes.
 172 Yee my toge shall synge of thy worde, for all thy comaundemetes are right.
 173 Let thy hade helpe me, for I haue chosen thy comaundementes.
 174 I longe for thy sauynge health (o LORDE) & in thy lawe is my delyte.
 175 Oh let my soule lyue & prayse the, yt thy iudgmentes maye helpe me.
 176 I go astraye, like a shepe that is lost: Oh seke thy seruaut, for I do not forget thy comaundementes.

Psalm 120

1 When I am in trouble, I call vpon ye LORDE, & he answereth me.
 2 Delyuer my soule (o LORDE) fro lyenge lippes, & fro a disceatfull toge.
 3 What rewarde shalbe geuen or done vnto the, thou false tonge?
 4 Euen mightie & sharpe arowes, wt hote burnige coales.
 5 Wo is me yt my banishmet endureth sologe: I dwell in the tabernacles of the soroufull.
 6 My soule hath loge dwelt amonge them, that be enemies vnto peace.
 7 I laboured for peace, but when I spake therof, they made them to batayll.

Psalms 121

1 I lift vp myne eyes vnto the hilles, fro whence commeth my helpe?

2 My helpe cometh euen from the LORDE, which hath made heauen and earth.

3 He will not suffre thy fote to be moued, and he yt kepeth the, slepeth not.

4 Beholde, he that kepeth Israel, doth nether slombre ner slepe.

5 The LORDE himself is thy keper, the LORDE is thy defence vpon yi right honde.

6 So that the Sonne shal not burne the by daye, nether the Moone by night.

7 The LORDE preserueth the from all euell, yee it is the LORDE thath kepeth thy soule.

8 The LORDE preserueth thy goinge out and thy comynge in, from this tyme forth for euermore.

Psalms 122

1 I was glad, when they sayde vnto me: we wil go in to the house of the LORDE. 2 Oure fete shal stonde in thy gates, O Ierusalem.

3 Ieruale is buylded as a cite, that is at vnite in it self.

4 For there ye trybes go vp, euen the trybes of the LORDE: to testifie vnto Israel, to geue thanckes vnto the name of the LORDE.

5 For there is the seate of iudgement, eue the seate of the house of Dauid.

6 O praye for the peace of Ieruale, they shal prospere that loue the.

7 Peace be within yi walles, and plenteousnes within thy palaces,

8 For my brethren and companyons sakes, I wil wish the prosperite.

9 Yee because of ye house of the LORDE oure God, I wil seke to do the good.

Psalms 123

1 Unto the lift I vp myne eyes, thou yt dwellest in the heauens.

2 Beholde, euen as the eyes of seruantes loke vnto the handes of their masters: and as the eyes of a mayden vnto the handes of hir mastresse, euen so oure eyes wayte vpon the LORDE or God, vntill he haue mercy vpo vs.

3 Haue mercy vpo vs (o LORDE) haue mercy vpon vs, for we are vtterly despyed.

4 Oure soule is fylled wt the scornfull reprove of the welthy, & with ye despitefulnesse of the proude.

Psalms 124

1 If the LORDE had not bene of oure syde (now maye Israel saye) Yf the LORDE had not bene of oure syde, wherose rose vp agaynst vs:

2 They had swallowed vs vp quycke, when they were so wrothfully displeased at vs.

3 Yee the waters had drowned vs, the streame had gone ouer oure soule.

4 The depe waters of the proude had gone eue vnto oure soule.

5 But prayd be ye LORDE, which hath not geuen vs ouer for a pray vnto their teth.

6 Oure soule is escaped, euen as a byrde out of the snare of ye fouler:

7 ye snare is broke, and we are deliyuered.

8 Oure helpe stodeth in the name of the LORDE, which hath made heauen and earth.

Psalms 125

1 They that put their trust in ye LORDE, are eue as the mount Sion, which maye not be removed, but stodeth fast for euer.

2 The hilles stonde aboute Ierusalem, euen so stondest the LORDE rounde aboute his people, fro this tyme forth for euermore.

3 That the rodd of the vngodly come not into the lott of the righteous, lest the righteous put their honde vnto wickednesse.

4 Do wel (o LORDE) vnto those that be good and true of herte.

5 As for soch as turne backe vnto their owne wickednesse, the LORDE shal lede them forth with the euell doers: but peace be vpon Israel.

Psalms 126

1 When the LORDE turneth agayne ye captiuyte of Sion, then shal we be like vnto them that dreame.

2 The shal oure mouth be fylled with laughter, and oure tonge with ioye.

3 Then shal it be sayed amonge the Heithen: the LORDE hath done greate thinges for them.

4 Yee the LORDE hath done greate thinges for vs allready, wherof we reioyse.

5 Turne oure captiuyte (o LORDE) as the ryuers in the south.

6 They that sowe in teeres, shal reape in ioye. He yt now goeth his waye wepige & beareth forth good sede, shal come agayne with ioye, and brynge his sheaues with him.

Psalms 127

1 Excepte the LORDE buylde the house, their labour is but lost that buylde it.

2 Excepte the LORDE kepe the cite, the watchman waketh but in vayne.

3 It is but lost labour that ye ryse vp early, and take no rest, but eate the bred of carefulness: for loke to whom it pleaseth him, he geueth it in slepe.

4 Lo, children and ye frute of the wombe are an heretage and gift, that cometh of the LORDE.

5 Like as the arowes in the hode of the giaute, eue so are the yonge childre.

Happie is the ma, yt hath his quyuer full of them: they shal not be ashamed, when they speake with their enemies in the gate.

Psalms 128

1 Blessed are all they that feare the LORDE, & walke in his wayes.

2 For thou shalt eate the laboures of thine owne hondes: o well is the, happie art thou.

3 Thy wife shalbe as a frutefull vyne vpon the walles of thy house.

4 Thy children like the olyue braunches roude aboute yi table.

5 Lo, thus shal ye ma be blessed, yt feareth the LORDE.

6 The LORDE shal so blesse the out of Sion, that thou shalt se Ieruale in prosperite all thy life longe. Yee that thou shalt se thy childers childre, & peace vpo Israel.

Psalms 129

1 Many a tyme haue they fought agaynst me fro my youth vp (maye Israel now saie).

2 Yee many a tyme haue they fought agayst me fro my youth vp, but they haue not ouercome me.

3 The plowers plowed vpo my backe, & made loge forowes.

4 But the righteous LORDE hath hewen ye yocke of ye vngodly in peces.

5 Let them be confounded & turned backwarde, as many as haue euell will at Sion.

6 Let the be eue as the haye vpon the house toppes, which wythereth afore it be pluckte vp.

7 Wherof the mower fylleth not his hande, nether he that byndeth vp the sheaues, his bosome.

8 So that they which go by, saye not so moch as: the LORDE prospere you, we wish you good lucke in the name of the LORDE.

Psalms 130

1 Ovt of the depe call I vnto the (o LORDE) LORDE heare my voyce.

2 Oh let thine eares considre well the voyce of my complaynte.

3 Yf thou (LORDE) wilt be extreme to marcke what is done amysse, Oh LORDE, who maye abyde it?

4 But there is mercy with the, that thou mayest be feared.

5 I loke for the LORDE, my soule doth wayte for him, and in his worde is my trust.

6 My soule doth patiently abyde the LORDE, fro the one mornynge to the other.

7 Let Israel trust in the LORDE, for with the LORDE there is mercy and plenteous redempcion.

8 And he shal redeme Israel from all his synnes.

Psalms 131

1 Lorde, I am not hye mynded, I haue no proude lokes.

2 I do not exercise myself in greate matters, which are to hye for me.

3 But I refrayne my soule and kepe it lowe, like as a childe yt is weened from his mother, yee my soule is euen as a weened childe. Let Israel trust in the LORDE, fro this tyme forth for euermore.

Psalms 132

1 Lorde, remembre Dauid and all his trouble.

2 How he swore vnto ye LORDE, & vowed a vowe vnto ye mightie one of Iacob:

3 I wil not come within the tabernacle of my house, ner clymme vp i to my bedde.

4 I wil not suffre myne eyes to slepe, ner myne eye lyddes to slober.

5 Vntill I fynde out a place for the LORDE, an habitacio for the mightie one of Iacob.

6 Lo, we herde of the same at Ephrata, & foude it in ye wod.

7 We wil go into his tabernacle, & fall downe before his fote stole.

8 Arise (o LORDE) in to thy restinge place, thou & ye arke of yi strength.

9 Let thy prestes be clothed with rightuousnesse, and let thy sayntes reioyse.

10 For thy seruante Dauids sake turne not awaye the presence of thine anoyned.

11 The LORDE hath made a faithfull ooth vnto Dauid, & he shal not shrenke from it:

12 Of the frute of thy body shal I set vpon thy seate.

13 Yf thy children wil kepe my couenaunt, & my testimony yt I shal lerne the, their childre also shal syt vpo thy seate for euermore.

14 For the LORDE hath chosen Sio, to be an habitacio for him self hath he chosen her.

15 This shalbe my rest, here wil I dwell, for I haue a delite therin.

16 I wil blesse hir vytales wt increase, & wil satisfie hir poore with bred.

17 I wil decke hir prestes with health, & hir sayntes shal reioyse & be glad.

18 There shall I make the horne of Dauid to florish, I haue ordened a lanterne for myne anoyned. As for his enemies, I shal clothe the wt shame, but vpon himself shal his crowne florish.

Psalms 133

1 Beholde, how good & ioyfull a thinge it is, brethre to dwell together in vnite. It is like yt precious oyntment vpon the heade, that ranne downe vnto the beard, eue vnto Aarons beard, & wete downe to the skyrtes of his clothinge.

2 Like the dewe of Hermon, which fell vpon the hill of Sion.

3 For there the LORDE promised his blesynge, and life for euermore.

Psalm 134

1 Beholde, O prayse the LORDE all ye seruautes of the LORDE, ye that by night stode in the house of the LORDE.
2 O lift vp youre handes in the Sanctuary, and prayse the LORDE.
3 The LORDE yt made heauen & earth, blesse the out of Sion.

Psalm 135

1 O prayse ye name of ye LORDE, praise it o ye seruautes of ye LORDE.
2 Ye yt stode in ye house of ye LORDE, in the courtes of the house of oure God.
3 O prayse the LORDE, for the LORDE is gracious: o synge prayses vnto his name, for it is louely.
4 For why, the LORDE hath chosen Iacob vnto him self, & Israel for his owne possessio.
5 For I knowe yt ye LORDE is greate. & yt or LORDE is aboue all goddes.
6 What so euer ye LORDE pleaseth, yt doth he in heaue & in earth, in the see & in all depe places.
7 He bryngeth forth the cloudes from the endes of the worlde, he turneth ye lighteniges vnto rayne, bringige the wyndes out of their treasures.
8 Which smote the firstborne of Egipte, both of man and beest.
9 He hath sent tokens and wonders in to the myddest of the (o thou londe of Egipte) vpon Pharao and all his seruautes.
10 Which smote dyuerse nacions, & slewe mightie kynges.
11 Sihon kyng of ye Amorites, Og the kyng of Basan, and all the kyngdomes of Canaa.
12 And gaue their lode for an heretage, for an heretage vnto Israel his people.
13 Thy name (o LORDE) endureth for euer, so doth thy memoriall (o LORDE) from one generacion to another.
14 For the LORDE wil auege his people, & be gracious vnto his seruautes.
15 As for the ymages of the Heithe, they are but syluer and golde, the worke of mens hades.
16 They haue mouthes, & speake not: eyes haue they, but they se not.
17 They haue eares, and yet they heare not, nether is there eny breth i their mouthes.
18 They that make them, are like vnto them, & so are all they that put their trust in the.
19 Prayse the LORDE ye house of Israel, prayse the LORDE ye house of Aaron.
20 Prayse the LORDE ye house of Leui, ye that feare ye LORDE, prayse the LORDE.
21 Praysed be the LORDE out of Sion, which dwelleth at Ierusalem. Halleluya.

Psalm 136

1 O geue thanks vnto the LORDE, for he is gracious, and his mercy endureth for euer.
2 O geue thakes vnto the God of all goddes, for his mercy endureth for euer.
3 O thanke the LORDE of all lordes, for his mercy endureth for euer.
4 Which only doth greate wonders, for his mercy endureth for euer.
5 Which by his wysdome made the heauens, for his mercy endureth for euer.
6 Which layed out the earth about the waters, for his mercy endureth for euer.
7 Which hath made greate lightes, for his mercy endureth for euer.
8 The Sonne to rule the daye, for his mercy endureth for euer.
9 The Moone and the starres to gouerne the night, for his mercy endureth for euer.
10 Which smote Egipte with their firstborne, for his mercy endureth for euer.
11 And brought out Israel from amonge them, for his mercy endureth for euer.
12 With a mightie hade and a stretched out arme, for his mercy endureth for euer.
13 Which deuyded the reed see in to partes, for his mercy endureth for euer.
14 And made Israel to go thorow ye myddest of it, for his mercy endureth for euer.
15 But as for Pharao and his hoost, he ouerthrowe them in the reed see, for his mercy endureth for euer.
16 Which led his people thorow the wyldernes, for his mercy endureth for euer.
17 Which smote greate kynges, for his mercy endureth for euer.
18 Yee and slewe mightie kynges, for his mercy endureth for euer.
19 Sihon kyng of the Amorites, for his mercy endureth for euer.
20 And Og the kyng of Basan, for his mercy endureth for euer.
21 And gaue a waye their londe for an heretage, for his mercy endureth for euer.
22 Euen for an heretage vnto Israel his seruaunt, for his mercy endureth for euer.
23 Which remembreth vs, whe we are in trouble, for his mercy endureth for euer.
24 Which geueth foode vnto all flesh, for his mercy endureth for euer.
25 O geue thanks vnto the God of heauen, for his mercy endureth for euer.

Psalm 137

1 By the waters of Babilon we sat downe and wepte, when we remebred Sion.
2 As for oure harpes, we hanged them vp vpon the trees, that are therein.
3 The, they that led vs awaye captiue, requyred of vs a songe and melody in or heuynes: synge vs one of the songes of Sion.
4 How shal we synge the LORDES songe in a strauge lode?

5 Yf I forget the (o Ierusalem) let my right hande be forgotten.
6 Yf I do not remembre the, let my tonge cleue to the rofe of my mouth: yee yf I preferre not Ierusalem in my myrth.
7 Remembre the childe of Edom (o LORDE) in the daye of Ierusalem, how they sayde: downe with it, downe with it, eue to the grounde.
8 O daughter Babilo, thou shalt come to misery thy self: yee happie shal he be, that rewardeth ye as thou hast serued vs.
9 Blessed shal he be, that taketh thy children, and throweth them agaynst the stones

Psalm 138

1 I wil geue thakes vnto the (o LORDE) with my whole hert, euen before the goddes wil I synge prayses vnto the.
2 I wil worshippe towards thy holy teple, and prayse thy name because of thy louynge kyndnesse and treuth, for thou hast magnified thy worde, acordynge vnto thy greate name.
3 When I call vpo the, thou hearest me, and endwest my soule with moch strength.
4 All the kynges of the earth shal prayse the (o LORDE) when they heare the wordes of thy mouth.
5 Yee they shal synge in the wayes of the LORDE, that greate is the glory of the LORDE.
6 For though the LORDE be hye, yet hath he respecte vnto ye lowly: as for ye proude, he beholdeth him afarre off.
7 Though I walke i ye myddest of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hade vpo the furiousnes of myne enemies, & yi righthande shal saue me.
8 The LORDE shal make good for me, yee thy mercy (o LORDE) endureth for euer: despyse not then the worke of thine owne handes.

Psalm 139

1 O Lorde, thou searchest me out, and knowest me. Thou knowest my downe syttinge & my vprisyng, thou vnderstodest my thoughtes a farre of.
2 Thou art aboute my path & aboute my bedd, & spyest out all my wayes.
3 For lo, there is not a worde i my toge, but thou (o LORDE) knowest it alltogether.
4 Thou hast fashioned me behinde & before, & layed thine hode vpon me.
5 Soch knowlege is to wonderfull & excellet for me, I can not atteyne vnto it.
6 Whither shal I go then from thy sprete? Or, whither shal I fle from thy presence?
7 Yf I clymme vp in to heauen, thou art there: yf I go downe to hell, thou art there also.
8 Yf I take the wynges of the mornynge, & remayne in the vttemost parte of the see:
9 Euen there also shal thy honde lede me, and thy right hande shal holde me.

10 Yf I saye: peradueture the darcknesse shal couer me, then shal my night be turned to daye.
11 Yee the darcknesse is no darcknesse with the, but the night is as cleare as the daye, the darcknesse & light are both alike.
12 For my reynes are thyne, thou hast couered me in my mothers wombe.
13 I wil geue thakes vnto the, for I am woderously made: maruelous are thy workes, and that my soule knoweth right well.
14 My bones are not hyd from the, though I be made secretly, and fashioned beneth in the earth.
15 Thine eyes se myne vnparfitnesse, they stonde all writte i thy boke:
16 my dayes were fashioned, when as yet there was not one of them
17 How deare are yi coucels vnto me o God? O how greate is the summe of them?
18 Yf I tell them, they are mo in nombre then the sonde: when I wake vp, I am present with the.
19 Wilt thou not slaye ye wicked (oh God) that the bloudethyrstie mighte departe from me?
20 For they speake vnright of the, thine enemies exalte them selues presumptuously.
21 I hate them (o LORDE) that hate the, & I maye not awaye with those that ryse vp agaynst the?
22 Yee I hate them right sore, therefore are they myne enemies.
23 Trye me (o God) and seke the grounde of myne hert: proue me, & examen my thoughtes.
24 Loke well, yf there be eny waye of wickednesse in me, & lede me in the waye euerlastinge.

Psalm 140

1 Delyuer me (o LORDE) from the euell men, oh preserue me from the wicked men.
2 Which ymagin myschefe in their hertes, & stere vp strife all the daye longe.
3 They sharpen their tonges like a serpent, Adders poyson is vnder their lippes.
4 Sela. Kepe me (o LORDE) from the hande of the vngodly, preserue me from the wicked men, which are purposed to ouerthrowe my goings.
5 The proude haue layed a snare for me, & spred a nett abroad with coardes, yee & sett trappes in my waye.
6 Sela. But my sayenge is vnto the LORDE: thou art my God, heare the voyce of my prayer o LORDE.
7 O LORDE God, thou strength of my health, thou hast couered my heade in ye daye of battayll.
8 Let not ye vngodly haue his desyre (o LORDE) let him not haue his purpose, lest they be to proude.
9 Sela. Let the myschefe of their owne lippes fall vpon ye head of the, yt copase me aboute.

10 Let hote burnynge coales fall vpo the, let the be cast in to the fyre, and in to the pytt, that they neuer ryse vp agayne.

11 A man full of wordes shal not prospere vpon earth: a malicious & wicked person shal be hunted awaye and destroyed.

12 Sure I am, that the LORDE wil auenge the poore, and manteyne the cause of the helplesse.

13 The righteous also shal geue thakes vnto thy name, & the iust shal continue in thy sight.

Psalm 141

1 Lorde, I call vpon the: haist the vnto me, and consider my voyce, whe I crie vnto the.

2 Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as the incense, and let the liftinge vp of my hades be an euenynge sacrifice.

3 Set a watch (o LORDE) before my mouth, yee a watch at the dore of my lippes.

4 O let not myne hert be enclined to eny euell thige, to be mynded as the vngodly or wicked men, lest I eate of soch thinges as please the 5 Let the righteous (rather) smyte me friendly, and reprove me:

6 so wil I take it, as though he had poured oyle vpo my heade: it shal not hurte my heade, yee I wil praye yet for their wickednesse.

7 Their iudges stoble at the stone, yet heare they my wordes, yt they be ioyfull.

8 Oure bones lye scatered before ye pytt, like as when one graueth and dygeth vp the grounde.

9 But myne eyes loke vnto ye, o LORDE God: in the is my trust, oh cast not out my soule.

10 Kepe me fro ye snare which they haue layed for me, and fro the trappes of the wicked doers. Let the vngodly fall in to their owne nettes together, vntill I be gone by them.

Psalm 142

1 I crie vnto the LORDE with my voyce, yee eue vnto the LORDE do I make my supplicacion. I poure out my complaynte before him, and shewe him of my trouble.

2 When my sprete is in heynesse, for thou knowest my path: in the waye where in I walke, haue they preuely layed a snare for me.

3 I loke vpon my right honde & se, there is no man that wil knowe me. I haue no place to fle vnto, no man careth for my soule.

4 Therefore do I crie vnto the (o LORDE) and saye: thou art my hope and my porcion, in the londe of the luyunge.

5 Cosidre my complaynte, for I am brought very lowe.

6 Oh delyuer me fro my persecuters, for they are stronge for me:

7 Brynge my soule out of prerson, that I maye geue thakes vnto thy name: which thinge yf thou wilt graute me, then shal the righteous resorte vnto my copany.

Psalm 143

1 Heare my prayer (o LORDE) considre my desyre: answere me for thy treuth & righteousnesse sake.

2 And entre not in to iudgment with thy seruaut, for in thy sight shal no man luyunge be iustified.

3 For the enemy persecuteth my soule, he smyteth my life downe to the grounde, he layeth me in the darcknesse, as the deed men of the worlde.

4 Therefore is my sprete vexed within me, and my herte within me is desolate.

5 Yet do I remembre the tymes past, I muse vpo all yi workes, yee I exercise my self in the workes of thy hondes.

6 I stretch forth my hondes vnto the, my soule crieth vnto the out of the thyrstie londe.

7 Sela. Heare me (o LORDE) and that soone, for my sprete waxeth faynte: hyde not yi face fro me, lest I be like vnto the that go downe in to the graue.

8 Oh let me heare thy louynge kyndnesse by tymes in the mornynge, for in the is my trust: shewe thou me the waye that I shulde walke in, for I lift vp my soule vnto the.

9 Delyuer me (o LORDE) fro myne enemies, for I resorte vnto the.

10 Teach me to do the thinge that pleaseth the, for thou art my God: let thy louynge sprete lede me forth vnto the londe of righteousnesse.

11 Quycke me (o LORDE) for thy names sake, and for thy righteousnesse sake brynge my soule out of trouble.

12 And of thy goodnesse scater myne enemies abroad, and destroye all them that vexe my soule, for I am thy seruaut.

Psalm 144

1 Blessed be the LORDE my refuge, which teacheth my hades to warre, & my fyngers to fight.

2 My hope and my castell, my defence and my delyuerer, my shyld in whom I trust, which gouerneth the people that is vnder me.

3 LORDE, what is ma, that thou hast soch respecte vnto him? Or the sonne of man, that thou so regardest him?

4 Man is like a thinge of naught, his tyme passeth awaye like a shadowe.

5 Bowe thy heaues (o LORDE) & come downe, touch the mountaynes, yt they maye smoke withall.

6 Sende forth the lightenyng & scater the, shute out thine arowes and consume them.

7 Sende downe thine hande from aboue, delyuer me and take me out of ye greate waters, from the hande of straunge childe.

8 Whose mouth talketh of vanite, & their right hade is a righthande of falsede.

9 That I maye synge a new songe vnto the (o God) & synge praises vnto the vpon a tenstrynged lute,

10 Thou that geuest victory vnto kynges, and hast delyuered Dauid thy seruaut from the parell of the swerde.

11 Saue me and delyuer me from the honde of straunge childe, whose mouth talketh of vanite, and their right hande is a right hande of falsede.

12 That or sonnes maye growe vp as the yoge plantes, and that oure daughters maye be as the polished corners of the temple.

13 That or garners maye be full and plenteous with all maner of stoare: that or shepe maye brynge forth thousandes and hundreth thousandes in oure villages.

14 That oure oxen maye be stronge to labour, that there be no myschaunce, no decaye, and no complayninge in oure stretes.

15 Happie are the people that be in soch a case: yee blessed are the people, which haue the LORDE for their God.

Psalm 145

1 I wil magnifie the (o my God & kyng) I wil prayse yi name for euer & euer.

2 Euery daye wil I geue thakes vnto the, and prayse yi name for euer and euer.

3 Greate is the LORDE, & maruelous worthy to be prayseed, there is no ende of his greatnesse.

4 One generacion shal prayse thy workes vnto another, and declare thy power.

5 As for me I wil be talkige of thy worshipec, thy glory, thy prayse and woderous workes.

6 So that men shal speake of the might of thy maruelous actes, and tell of yi greatnes.

7 The memoriall of yi abundaunt kyndnes shalbe shewed, and me shal synge of thy righteousnesse.

8 The LORDE is gracious and mercifull, longe sufferyng & of greate goodnesse.

9 The LORDE is louynge vnto euery man, and his mercy is ouer all his workes.

10 All thy workes prayse the (o LORDE) and thy sayntes geue thakes vnto the.

11 They shewe the glory of thy kyngdome, and talke of yi power.

12 That yi power, thy glory & mightnesse of thy kyngdome might be knowne vnto men.

13 Thy kyngdome is an euerlastinge kyngdome, & thy dominion endureth throw out all ages.

14 The LORDE vpholdeth all soch as shulde fall, and lifeth vp all those that be downe.

15 The eyes of all wayte vpon the, and thou geuest them their meate in due season.

16 Thou openest thine hade, and fyllest all thinges luyunge with plenteousnesse.

17 The LORDE is righteous in all his wayes, & holy in all his workes.

18 The LORDE is nye vnto all them that call vpon him, yee all soch as call vpon him faithfully.

19 He fulfilleth the desyre of them that feare him, he heareth their crie, and helpeth them.

20 The LORDE preserueth all them that loue him, but scatereth abroad all the vngodly.

21 My mouth shal speake the prayse of the LORDE, And let all flesh geue thakes vnto his holy name for euer and euer. Halleluya.

Psalm 146

1 Prayse the LORDE (o my soule:) whyle I lyeue wil I prayse the LORDE, yee as loge as I haue eny beyng, I wil synge prayses vnto my God.

2 O put not yor trust in prynces, ner in the childe of man, for there is no helpe in the.

3 For when ye breth of man goeth forth, he shal turne agayne to his earth, and so all his thoughtes perishe.

4 Blessed is he that hath ye God of Iacob for his helpe, and whose hope is in the LORDE his God.

5 Which made heauen and earth, ye see and all that therein is, which kepeth his promise for euer

6 Which helpeth them to right yt suffre wronge, which fedeth ye hongrie.

7 The LORDE lowseth men out of prerson, the LORDE geueth sight to the blynde.

8 The LORDE helpeth the vp that are fallen, the LORDE loueth the righteous.

9 The LORDE careth for the strangers, he defendeth ye fatherlesse and wyddowe: as for the waye of ye vngodly, he turneth it vpsyde downe.

10 The LORDE thy God (o Sion) is kyng for euermore, and thorow out all generacions. Halleluya.

Psalm 147

1 O prayse the LORDE, for it is a good thinge to synge prayses vnto or God: yee a ioyfull and pleasaunt thinge is it to be thankfull.

2 The LORDE shal buylde vp Ierusalem, & gather together ye outcastes of Israel.

3 He healeth the contrite in herte, and byndeth vp their woundes.

4 He telleth the nombre of the starres, and calleth them all by their names.

5 Greate is or LORDE, and greate is his power, yee his wy?dome is infinite.

6 The LORDE setteth vp ye meke, & bryngeth ye vngodly downe to ye groude

7 O synge vnto ye LORDE wt thankesgeuyng, synge prayses vpo ye harpe vnto or God.

8 Which couereth ye heauen wt cloudes, prepareth rayne for ye earth, & maketh ye grasse to growe vpon the mountaynes.

9 Which geueth foder vnto ye catell, & fedeth ye yonge rauens yt call vpo him.

10 He hath no pleasure in the strength of an horse, nether delyteth he in eny mas legges.

11 But the LORDES delyte is in them that feare him, and put their trust in his mercy.

12 Prayse ye LORDE o Ierusalem, prayse yi God o Sion.

13 For he maketh fast ye barres of yi gates, & blesseth yi childre within ye.

14 He maketh peace in yi borders, & fylleth ye with ye flor of wheate.

15 He sendeth forth his comaundemet vpo earth, his worde runeth swiftly.

16 He geueth snowe like woll, & scatereth ye horefrost like ashes.

17 He casteth forth his yse like morsels, who is able to abyde his frost?

18 He sendeth out his worde and melteth them, he bloweth wt his wynde, & the waters flowe.

19 He sheweth his worde vnto Iacob, his statutes & ordinaunces vnto Israel.

20 He hath not dealte so wt all the Heithen, nether haue they knowlege of his lawes. Halleluya.

Psalm 148

1 O prayse the LORDE of heauen, prayse him in the heyth.

2 Prayse him all ye angels of his, prayse hi all his hoost.

3 Prayse him Sonne & Moone, prayse him all ye starres & light.

4 Prayse him all ye heauens, & ye waters yt be vnder the heauens.

5 Let them prayse the name of the LORDE, for he comaunded, & they were made.

6 He hath made the fast for euer and euer, he hath geue them a lawe which shal not be broke.

7 Prayse the LORDE vpon earth, ye whalfishes and all depes.

8 Fyre and hayle, snowe & vapors wynde and storme, fulfyllinge his worde.

9 Mountaynes and all hilles, frutefull trees & all Ceders.

10 Beastes and all catell, wormes & fethered foules.

11 Kynges of the earth & all people, princes & all iudges of ye worlde.

12 Yonge men & maydes, olde men and children.

13 Let them prayse the name of the LORDE, for his name only is excellent, and his prayse aboue heauen and earth.

14 He exalthe the horn of his people, all his sayntes shal prayse him, the children of Israel, euen the people that serueth him. Halleluya.

Psalm 149

1 Halleluya. O synge vnto ye LORDE a new songe, let the cogregacion of sayntes prayse him.

2 Let Israel reioyse in him that made him, and let the children of Sion be ioyfull in their kynge.

3 Let them prayse his name in the dauce, let them synge prayses vnto him with tabrettes and harpes.

4 For the LORDE hath pleasure in his people, and helpeth the mekeharted.

5 Let the sayntes be ioyfull with glory, let them reioyse in their beddes.

6 Let the prayses of God be in their mouth, and sharpe swerdes in their handes.

7 To be auenged of the Heithe, & to rebuke the people.

8 To bynde their kynges in cheynes, & their nobles with lynckes of yron.

9 That they maye be auenged of them, as it is written, Soch honoure haue all his sayntes. Halleluya.

Psalm 150

1 Halleluya. O prayse the LORDE in his Sanctuary, prayse him in the firmament of his power.

2 Prayse him in his noble actes, prayse him in his excellet greatnesse.

3 Prayse him in the sounde of the trompet, prayse him vpo the lute and harpe.

4 Prayse him in the cymbals and daunse, prayse him vpon the strynges and pype.

5 Prayse him vpo the welltuned cymbals, prayse him vpon the loude cymbals.

6 Let euery thinge yt hath breth, prayse the LORDE. Halleluya.

PROVERBS

Chapter 1

1 These are the prouerbes of Salomon the sonne of Daud kyng of Israel:

2 to lerne wy?dome nurtoure, vnderstondinge, prudence,

3 rightuousnesse, iudgment and equite.

4 That the very babes might haue wyt, and that yonge men might haue knowlege and vnderstondinge.

5 By hearinge, the wyse ma shal come by more wysdome: and by experience,

6 he shal be more apte to vnderstonde a parable, and the interpretacion therof: the wordes of the wyse, and the darcke speeches of the same.

7 The feare of the LORDE is the begynnyng of wysdome. But fooles despise wysdome and nurtoure.

8 My sonne, heare thy fathers doctryne, and forsake not the lawe of yi mother:

9 for that shal brynge grace vnto thy heade, & shalbe a cheyne aboute thy necke.

10 My sonne, cosente not vnto synners,

11 yf they entyse the, and saye: come wyth us, let us laye wayte for bloude, & lurke preuely for the innocet wythout a cause:

12 let us swalowe the vp like ye hell, let us deuoure the quycke and whole, as those that go downe in to the pytt.

13 So shal we fynde all maner of costly riches, and fyll oure houses wyth spoyles.

14 Cast in thy lott amonge us, we shal haue all one purse.

15 My sonne, walke not thou wt them, refrayne yi fote fro their wayes.

16 For their fete rune to euell, & are haistie to shed bloude.

17 But in vayne is ye net layed forth before the byrdes eyes.

18 Yee they the selues laye wayte one for another bloude, and one of the wolde slaye another.

19 These are the wayes of all soch as be couetous, that one wolde rauysh another's life.

20 Wy?dome crieth without, & putteth forth hir voyce in the stretes.

21 She calleth before ye congregacion in ye open gates, and sheweth hir wordes thorow ye cite, sayenge:

22 O ye childre, how loge wil ye loue childyshnesse? how longe wil ye scorners delyte in scornynge, & ye vnwyse be enemies vnto knowlege?

23 O turne you vnto my correccion: lo, I wil expresse my mynde vnto you, and make you vnderstode my wordes.

24 Seinge then that I haue called, and ye refused it: I haue stretched out my honde, and no ma regarded it, 25 but all my coucels haue ye despysed, and set my correccios at naught.

26 Therefore shal I also laugh in yor destruccion, and mocke you, when ye thinge that ye feare cometh vpon you:

27 euen whe ye thinge that ye be afrayed of, falleth in sodenly like a storme, and yor misery like a tempest: yee wha trouble and heynesse cometh vpon you.

28 Then shal they call vpo me, but I wil not heare: they shal seke me early, but they shal not fynde me:

29 And yt because they hated knowlege, and receaued not ye feare of ye LORDE, 30 but abhorred my counsell, and despysed my correccion.

31 Therefore shal they eate ye frutes of their owne waye, and be fylled wt their owne counsels:

32 for ye turnynge awaye of ye vnwyse shal slaye the, & ye prosperi of fooles shalbe their owne destruccion.

33 But who so harkeneth vnto me, shal dwell safely, and haue ynough without eny feare of euell.

Chapter 2

1 My sonne, yf thou wilt receaue my wordes, and kepe my comaundemetes by the,

2 that thine eare maye herken vnto wysdome, applie thine herte then to vnderstodinge.

3 For yf thou criest after wy?dome, & callest for knowlege:

4 yf thou sekest after her as after money, and dyggest for her as for treasure:

5 The shalt thou vnderstonde ye feare of the LORDE, and fynde ye knowlege of God.

6 For it is the LORDE that geueth wy?dome, out of his mouth commeth knowlege and vnderstondinge.

7 He preserueth ye welfare of the rightuous, and defendeth them yt walke innocently:

8 he kepeth them in ye right path, and preserueth ye waye of his sayntes.

9 Then shalt thou vnderstonde rightuousnesse, iudgment and equite, yee and euery good path.

10 Yf wy?dome entre in to thine herte, and yi soule delyte in knowlege:

11 then shal counsell preserue the, and vnderstondinge shal kepe the.

12 That thou mayest be deluyered fro ye euell waye, and from the man yt speaketh frowarde thinges.

13 From soch as leaue the hye strete, and walke i ye wayes of darcknesse:

14 which reioyse in doynge euell, and delyte i wicked thinges:

15 whose wayes are croked, and their pathes slaundersous.

16 That thou mayest be deluyered also from the straunge woman, and from her that is not thine owne: which geueth swete wordes, 17 forsaketh the hu?bande of hir youth, and forgetteth the couenaunt of hir God.

18 For hir house is enclenyed vnto death, and hir pathes vnto hell.

19 All they that go in vnto her, come not agayne, nether take they holde of the waye of life.

20 That thou mayest walke in ye good waye, and kepe the pathes of the rightuous.

21 For the iust shal dwell in the londe, and the innocentes shal remayne in it:

22 but the vngodly shalbe roted out of ye londe, and the wicked doers shalbe taken out of it.

Chapter 3

1 My sonne, forget not my lawe, but se yt thine hert kepe my comaundemetes.

2 For they shal prologe ye dayes & yeares of yi lyfe, & brynge ye peace.

3 Let mercy & faithfulness neuer go from ye: bynde the about yi necke, & wryte them in the tables of thine herte.

4 So shalt thou fynde fauor and good vnderstondinge in ye sight of God and men.

5 Put thy trust in ye LORDE with all thine herte, and leane not vnto thine owne vnderstondinge.

6 In all thy wayes haue respecte vnto him, and he shal ordre thy goings.

7 Be not wyse in thine owne conceate, but feare ye LORDE and departe from euell:

8 so shal thy nauel be whole, and thy bones stronge.

9 Honour the LORDE wt yi substaunce, & wt ye firstlings of all thine increase:

10 so shal thy barnes be fylled with plenteousnesse, and thy presses shal flowe ouer with swete wyne.

11 My sonne, despise not the chastenyng of ye LORDE, nether faynte when thou art rebuked of him.

12 For who the LORDE loueth, him he chasteneth: and yet delyteth in him euen as a father in his owne sonne.

13 Well is him that fyndeth wy?dome, & opteyneth vnderstondinge,

14 for the gettinge of it is better then eny marchaundise of syluer, & the profit of it is better then golde.

15 Wy?dome is more worth the precious stones, & all ye thinges yt thou canst desyre, are not to be compared vnto her.

16 Vpon hir right hande is longe life, & vpon hir left hande is riches & honor.
 17 Hir wayes are pleasaunt wayes, and all hir pathes are peaceable.
 18 She is a tre of life to them that laye holde vpon her, and blessed are they that kepe her fast.
 19 With wy?dome hath ye LORDE layed the foudacion of ye earth, & thorow vnderstandinge hath he stablished ye haues.
 20 Thorow his wi?dome ye depthes breake vp, & ye cloudes droppe downe the dew.
 21 My sonne, let not these thinges departe from thine eyes, but kepe my lawe and my counsell:
 22 so shal it be life vnto thy soule, & grace vnto yi mouth.
 23 Then shalt thou walke safely in yi waye, & thy fote shal not stamble.
 24 Yf thou slepest, thou shalt not be afrayed, but shalt take thy rest & slepe swetely.
 25 Thou neddest not to be afrayed of eny sodane feare, nether for the violent russhinge in of the vngodly, when it commeth.
 26 For the LORDE shal be besyde the, & kepe thy fote yt thou be not taken.
 27 Refuse not to do good vnto him that shulde haue it, so longe as thine hande is able to do it.
 28 Saye not vnto thy neghbour: go thy waye & come agayne, tomorow wil I geue the:
 29 where as thou hast now to geue him. Intende no hurte vnto thy neghbour, seyng he hopeth to dwell in rest by the.
 30 Stryue not lightly wt eny man, where as he hath done ye no harme.
 31 Folowe not a wicked man, and chose none of his wayes:
 32 for the LORDE abhorreth the frowarde, but his secrete is amonge the righteous.
 33 The curse of the LORDE is in the house of the vngodly, but he blesseth the dwellinges of the righteous.
 34 As for the scornfull, he shal laugh the to scorne, but he shal geue grace vnto the lowly.
 35 The wyse shal haue honor in possession, but shame is the promocio that fooles shal haue.

Chapter 4

1 Heare (O ye children) the fatherly exortacio, & take good hede, that ye maye lerne wy?dome.
 2 Yee I shal geue you a good rewarde, yf ye wil not forsake my lawe.
 3 For when I myself was my fathers deare sonne, and tenderly beloued of my mother,
 4 he taught me also, sayenge: let thine herte receaue my wordes, kepe my commaundementes, and thou shalt lyue.
 5 Get the wy?dome, get the vnderstandinge, forget not ye wordes of my mouth, & shreke not from them.
 6 Forsake her not, and she shal preserue the: loue her, and she shal kepe the.

 7 The chefe poynte of wy?dome is, that thou be wyllynge to opteyne wy?dome, and before all thy goodes to get the vnderstandynge.
 8 Make moch of her, and she shal promote the: Yee yf thou embracest her, she shal brynge the vnto honoure.
 9 She shal make the a gracious heade, and garnish the with ye crowne of glory.
 10 Heare my sonne, and receaue my wordes, that the yeares of thy life maye be many.
 11 I wil shewe the ye waye of wy?dome, and lede the in the right pathes.
 12 So that yf thou goest therin, there shal no straytnesse hynder the: and when thou runnest, thou shalt not fall.
 13 Take fast holde of doctryne, let her not go: kepe her, for she is thy life.
 14 Come not in the path of the vngodly, and walke not in the waye of the wicked.
 15 Eschue it, & go not therin: departe asyde, & passe ouer by it.
 16 For they can not slepe, excepte they haue first done some myschefe: nether take they eny rest, excepte they haue first done some harme.
 17 For they eate the bred of wickednesse, and drike the wyne of robbery.
 18 The path of the righteous shyneth as the light, and is euer brighter & brighter vnto the perfecte daye.
 19 But ye waye of the vngodly is as the darcknesse, wherein me fall, or they be awarre.
 20 My sonne, marcke my wordes, and encline thine eare vnto my saynges.
 21 Let them not departe from thine eyes, kepe them euen in the myddest of thine herte.
 22 For they are life vnto all those that finde the, and health vnto all their bodies.
 23 Kepe thine hert with all diligence, for there vpon hangeth life.
 24 Put awaye from the a frowarde mouth, and let the lippes of slaunder be farre from the.
 25 Let thine eyes beholde the thinge yt is right, & let thine eye lyddes loke straight before the.
 26 Podre the path of thy fete, so shal all yi wayes be sure.
 27 Turne not asyde, nether to the right hande ner to the left, but witholde thy fote from euell.

Chapter 5

1 My sonne, geue hede vnto my wysdome, & bowe thine eare vnto my prudece:
 2 yt thou mayest regarde good counsell, and that thy lippes maye kepe nurtoure.
 3 For the lippes of an harlot are a droppinge hony combe, and hir throte is softer then oyle.
 4 But at ye last she is as bitter as wormwod, and as sharpe as a two edged swerde.
 5 Hir fete go downe vnto death, and hir stepes pearse thorow vnto hell.
 6 She regardeth not the path of life, so vntedfast are hir wayes, that thou canst not knowe them.

 7 Heare me therfore (o my sonne) and departe not fro the wordes of my mouth.
 8 Kepe thy waye farre from her, and come not nye ye dores of hir house.
 9 That thou geue not thine honor vnto another, and thy yeares to the cruell.
 10 That other men be not fylled with thy goodes, & that thy labours come not in a straunge house.
 11 Yee that thou mourne not at the last (when thou hast spent thy body and goodes)
 12 and then saye: Alas, why hated I nurtoure? why dyd my hert despise correccion?
 13 Wherefore was not I obedient vnto the voyce of my teachers, & herkened not vnto them that infourmed me?
 14 I am come almost in to all mysfortune, in the myddest of the multitude and congregacion.
 15 Drinke of the water of thine owne well, and of the ryuers that runne out of thine owne spriges.
 16 Let yi welles flowe out a brode, that there maye be ryuers of water in the stretes.
 17 But let them be only thine owne, & not straungers with the.
 18 Let thy well be blessed, and be glad with the wife of thy youth.
 19 Louynge is the hynde, and frendly is the Roo: let her brestes alwaye satisfie the, and holde the euer content with hir loue.
 20 My sonne, why wilt thou haue pleasure in an harlot, and embrace the bosome of another woma?
 21 For euery mas wayes are open in the sight of the LORDE, and he podereth all their goinges.
 22 The wickednesses of the vngodly shal catch himself, and with the snares of his owne synnes shal he be trapped.
 23 Because he wolde not be reformed, he shal dye: and for his greate foolishnesse he shal be destroyed.

Chapter 6

1 My sone, yf thou be suertie for yi neghbour, thou hast fastened thine hode wt another ma:
 2 yee thou art boude with thine owne wordes, and taken wt thine owne speach.
 3 Therfore (my sonne) do this, discharge thy self, for thou art come i to yi neighbours daunger. Go thy waye then soone, & intreate thy neghbour:
 4 let not thine eyes slepe, ner thine eye lyddes slomber.
 5 Saue thy self as a doo fro ye honde, & as a byrde fro the hode of the fouler.
 6 Go to the Emmet (thou slogarde) cosidre hir wayes, & lerne to be wyse.
 7 She hath no gyde, no teacher, no leder:
 8 yet in the sommer she prouideth hir meate, & gathereth hir foode together i ye haruest.
 9 How loge wilt thou slepe, thou slogish ma? Wha wilt thou aryse out of thy slepe?

 10 Yee slepe on still a litle, slober a litle, folde thine handes together yet a litle, that thou mayest slepe:
 11 so shal pouerte come vnto the as one yt trauallyth by the waye, & necessite like a wapened man.
 12 A dissemblynge person, a wicked man goeth with a frowarde mouth:
 13 he wynceth with his eyes, he tokeneth wt his fete, he poynteth wt his fyngers, 14 he is euer ymageninge myschefe & frowardnesse in his hert, & causeth discorde.
 15 Therfore shal his destruccion come hastely vpo him, sodenly shal he be all tobroken, and not be healed.
 16 There be sixe thinges, which the LORDE hateth, & the seuenth he vtterly abhorreth:
 17 A proude loke, a dyssemblynge tonge, hades that shed innocent bloude,
 18 an herte yt goeth aboute wt wicked ymaginacios, fete that be swift in rennyng to do myschefe, 19 a false wytnesse yt bringeth vp lyes, & soch one as soweth discorde amonge brethren.
 20 My sonne, kepe thy fathers commaundemetes, & forsake not ye lawe of thy mother.
 21 Put the vp together in thine herte, and bynde the aboute thy necke.
 22 That they maye lede the where thou goest, preserue the when thou art aslepe, & yt when thou awakest, thou mayest talke of the 23 (For the commaundement is a lanterne, and the lawe a light: yee chastenyng & nurtoure is ye waye of life)
 24 that they maye kepe the fro the euell woman, & from the flaterynge tonge of the harlott:
 25 yt thou lust not after her beuty in thine herte, & lest thou be take wt hir fayre lokes.
 26 An harlot wil make a ma to begg his bred, but a married woman wil hunt for ye precious life.
 27 Maye a man take fyre in his bosome, and his clothes not be brent?
 28 Or can one go vpon hote coales, and his fete not be hurte?
 29 Euen so, who so euer goeth in to his neighbours wife, and toucheth her, can not be vngiltie.
 30 Men do not vtterly despise a thefe, that stealeth to satisfie his soule, when he is hongerie:
 31 but yf he maye be gotten, he restoreth agayne seuen tymes asmoch, or els he maketh recompence with all the good of his house.
 32 But who so comitteth aduoutrie with a woma, he is a foole, and bryngeth his life to destruccion.
 33 He getteth him self also shame & dishonor, soch as shal neuer be put out.
 34 For the gelousy & wrath of the ma will not be itreated, 35 no though thou woldest ofre him greate giftes to make amendes, he will not receaue them.

Chapter 7

1 My sonne, kepe my wordes, & laye vp my comaundemetes by the.
 2 Kepe my comaundemetes & my lawe, eue as the aples of thine eye, & thou shalt lyue.
 3 Bynde them vpon thy fyngers, & wryte the in the table of thine hert.
 4 Saye vnto wysdome: thou art my sister, and call vnderstandinge thy kynswoman:
 5 that she may kepe ye fro ye straunge woma, & fro ye harlot which geueth swete wordes.
 6 For out of the wyndowe of my house I loked thorow the trelies,
 7 & behelde the simple people: & amonge other yonge folkes I spied one yonge foole
 8 goinge ouer the stretes, by the corner in the waye towarde the harlottes house
 9 in the twylyght of of the euenyng, when it begane now to be night and darcke.
 10 And beholde, there mett him a woma in an harlottes apparell
 11 (a disceatfull, waton & an vnstedfast woma: whose fete coude not abyde in ye house, 12 now is she without, now i ye stretes, & lurketh i euery corner)
 13 she caught ye yoge ma, kyssed him & was not ashamed, sayege:
 14 I had a vowe to paye, & this daye I perfourme it.
 15 Therefore came I forth to mete the, that I might seke thy face, and so I haue founde the.
 16 I haue deckte my bed with coueringes & clothes of Egipte.
 17 My bed haue I made to smell of Myrre, Aloes and Cynamom.
 18 Come, let vs lye together, & take oure pleasure till it be daye light.
 19 For the good man is not at home, he is gone farre of.
 20 He hath taken the bagge of moneye with him, who can tell whe he cometh home?
 21 Thus with many swete wordes she ouercame him, and with hir flateringe lippes she wanne him.
 22 Immediatly he foloweth her, as it were an oxele to the slaughter (and like as it were to the stockes, where fooles are punyshed)
 23 so longe till she hath wounded his lyuer with hir darte: like as yf a byrde haisted to the snare, not knowinge that the parrill of his life lyeth there vpo.
 24 Heare me now therfore (o my sonne) and marcke the wordes of my mouth.
 25 Let not thine herte wandre in hir wayes, & be not thou disceaue in hir pathes.
 26 For many one hath she woued and cast downe, yee many a stronge ma hath she slayne.
 27 Hir house is the waye vnto hell, where men go downe to the chambers of death.

Chapter 8

1 Doth not wysdome crie? doth not vnderstandinge put forth hir voyce?
 2 Stondeth she not in the hye places in the stretes & wayes?
 3 doth she not crie before the whole cite, & in the gates where men go out & in?
 4 It is you, o ye men (sayeth she) whom I call. Unto you (o ye childre of me) lift I vp my voyce.
 5 Take hede vnto knowlege o ye ignoraut, be wyse in herte o ye fooles.
 6 Geue eare, for I wil speake of greate matters, & open my lippes to tell thinges that be right.
 7 For my throte shal be talkyng of ye trueth, & my lippes abhorre vngodlynesse.
 8 All the wordes of my mouth are righteous, there is no frowardnesse ner falsede therein.
 9 They are all playne to soch as wil vnderstode, & right to the that fynde knowlege.
 10 Receaue my doctryne therfore and not syluer, & knowlege more then fyne golde.
 11 For wysdome is more worth then precious stones, yee all the thinges that thou cast desyre, are not to be compared vnto it.
 12 I wysdome haue my dwellyng wt knowlege, and prudent councell is myne owne.
 13 With me is the feare of the LORDE, and ye eschuyng of euell. As for pryde, disdayne, an euell waye, & a mouth that speaketh wicked thiges, I vtterly abhorre the.
 14 I can geue councell, and be a gyde: I haue vnderstandinge, I haue strength.
 15 Thorow me, kynges reigne: thorow me, prices make iust lawes.
 16 Thorow me, lordes beare rule, and all iudges of ye earth execute iudgmet.
 17 I am louyng vnto those that loue me, and they that seke me early, shal fynde me.
 18 Riches & honoure are wt me, yee excellent goodes & righteousnes.
 19 My frute is better the golde & precious stone, & myne encrease more worth then fyne syluer.
 20 I walke in ye waye of righteousnes, & in the strete of iudgment.
 21 That I maye sende prosperite to those that loue me, & to encrease their treasure.
 22 The LORDE himself had me in possessio in the begynnyng of his wayes, or euer he begame his workes aforetyme.
 23 I haue bene ordered fro euerlastige, & fro ye begynnyng or euer the earth was made.
 24 When I was borne, there were nether depthes ner springes of water.
 25 Before the foundacions of ye mountaynes were layed, yee before all hilles was I borne.
 26 The earth and all that is vpon the earth was not yet made, no not the grounde it self.
 27 For when he made the heauens, I was present: wha he set the depthes in ordre:

28 when he hanged the cloudes aboue: when he fastened the sprynges of the depe:
 29 When he shutt the see within certayne bowndes, that ye waters shulde not go ouer their marckes. When he layed the foundacions of the earth,
 30 I was with him, ordryng all thinges, delytyng daylie & reioysyng allwaye before him.
 31 As for the roude copase of his worlde, I make it ioyfull, for my delyte is to be amoge the children of men.
 32 Therefore harken vnto me (o ye children) for blessed are they that kepe my wayes.
 33 O geue eare vnto nurtoure, be wyse, and refuse it not.
 34 Blessed is ye man that heareth me, watchinge daylie at my gates, & geuyng attendaunce at the postes of my dores.
 35 For who so fyndeth me, fyndeth life, and shal optayne fauoure of the LORDE.
 36 But who so offendeth agaynst me, hurteeth his owne soule. All they that hate me, are the louers of death.

Chapter 9

1 Wysdome hath buylded herself an house, and hewen out seuen pilers:
 2 she hath slaughtered, poured out hir wyne, and prepared hir table.
 3 She hath sent forth hir maydens to crie vpo the hiest place of the cite:
 4 Who so is ignoraut, let him come hither. And to the vn wise she sayde:
 5 O come on youre waye, eate my bred, and drynke my wyne, which I haue poured out for you.
 6 Forsake ignoraunce, and ye shal lyue: and se that ye go in the waye of vnderstandinge.
 7 Who so reproueth a scornefull persone, getteth him self dishonoure: and he that rebuketh the vngodly, stayneth himself.
 8 Reproue not a scorne, lest he owe the euell wil: but rebuke a wyse man, and he wil loue the.
 9 Geue a discrete man but an occasion, & he wilbe the wyser: teach a righteous man, and he wil increase.
 10 The feare of the LORDE is the begynnyng of wysdome, & the knowlege of holy thinges is vnderstandinge.
 11 For thorow me yi dayes shalbe prolonged, and the yeares of thy life shal be many.
 12 Yf thou be wyse, yi wysdome shal do yi selfe good: but yf thou thynkest scorne therof, it shalbe thine owne harme.
 13 A foolish restlesse woman, full of wordes, and soch one as hath no knowlege, 14 sytteth in the dores of hir house vpo a stole aboue in the cite,
 15 to call soch as go by and walke straight in their wayes.
 16 Who so is ignoraut (sayeth she) let him come hither, and to the vnwyse she sayeth:
 17 stollen waters are swete, & the bred that is preuely eaten, hath a good taist.

 18 But they cosider not that death is there, and that hir gestes go downe to hell.

Chapter 10

1 These are prouerbes of Salomon. A wyse sonne maketh a glad father, but an vndiscrete sonne is the heuynesse of his mother.
 2 Treasures that are wickedly gotten, profit nothinge, but righteousnesse delyuereth from death.
 3 The LORDE wil not let the soule of the righteous suffre hoger, but he putteth ye vngodly fro his desyre.
 4 An ydle hande maketh poore, but a quycke laboringe hande maketh riche.
 5 Who so gathereth in Sommer, is wyse: but he that is slogish in haruest, bringeth himself to confucion.
 6 Louyng and faurable is the face of the righteous, but ye fore heade of the vngodly is past shame, and presumptuous.
 7 The memoriall of the iust shall haue a good reporte, but the name of the vngodly shal stynke.
 8 A wyse man wil receaue warnyng, but a foole wil sooner be smytten in the face.
 9 He that leadeth an innocent life, walketh surely: but who so goeth a wroge waye, shalbe knowne.
 10 He yt wynketh with his eye, wil do some harme: but he that hath a foolish mouth, shalbe beaten.
 11 The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life, but ye mouth of the vngodly is past shame, & presumptuous.
 12 Euell will stereth vp strife, but loue couereth ye multitude of synnes.
 13 In ye lippes of him yt hath vnderstodinge a ma shal fynde wysdome, but ye rodde belogeth to ye backe of ye foolish.
 14 Wyse me laye vp knowlege, but ye mouth of ye foolish is nye destruccio.
 15 The rich mas goodes are his stroge holde, but pouerte oppresseth the poore.
 16 The righteous labourereth to do good, but the vngodly vseth his increase vnto synne.
 17 To take hede vnto ye chastenyng of nurtoure, is ye waye of life: but he that refuseth to be reformed, goeth wroge.
 18 Dissemblyng lippes kepe hatred secretly, and he that speaketh eny slauder, is a foole.
 19 Where moch bablinge is, there must nedes be offence: he that refrayneth his lippes, is wysest of all.
 20 An innocent tonge is a noble treasure, but the herte of the vngodly is nothinge worth.
 21 The lippes of the righteous fede a whole multitude, but fooles shal dye in their owne foly.
 22 The blessyng of the LORDE maketh rich me, as for carefull trauayle, it doth nothinge thereto.
 23 A foole doth wickedly & maketh but a sporte of it: neuertheles it is wysdome for a man to bewarre of soch.

24 The thinge that the vngodly are afrayed of, shal come vpon them, but the rightuous shal haue their desyre.
 25 The vngodly is like a tempest that passeth ouer & is nomore sene, but the rightuous remaineth sure for euer.
 26 As vyneger is to the teth, and as smoke is vnto ye eyes, eue so is a slogish personne to them that sende him forth.
 27 The feare of ye LORDE maketh a loge life, but ye yeares of ye vngodly shal be shortened.
 28 The pacient abydinge of the rightuous shalbe turned to gladnesse, but the hope of the vngodly shal perish.
 29 The waye of the LORDE geueth a corage vnto ye godly, but it is a feare for wicked doers.
 30 The rightuous shal neuer be ouerthrowne, but ye vngodly shal not remayne in the londe.
 31 The mouth of the iust wilbe talkynge of wysdome, but the tonge of the frowarde shal perish.
 32 The lippes of the rightuous are occupied in acceptable thinges, but the mouth of the vngodly taketh them to the worst.

Chapter 11

1 A false balauce is an abhominacion vnto the LORDE, but a true weight pleaseth him.
 2 Where pryde is, there is shame also and confucion: but where as is lowlynes, there is wysdome.
 3 The innocent dealyng of the iust shal lede them, but the vnfaithfulnesse of the despysers shalbe their owne destruccion.
 4 Riches helpe not in the daye of vengeance, but rightuousnesse delyuereth fro death.
 5 The rightuousnes of ye innocent ordreth his waye, but the vngodly shal fall in his owne wickednesse.
 6 The rightuousnesse of the iust shal delyuer them, but the despysers shalbe taken in their owne vngodlynesse.
 7 When an vngodly man dyeth, his hope is gone, the confydence of riches shal perish.
 8 The rightuous shalbe delyuered out of trouble, & the vngodly shal come in his steade.
 9 Thorow ye mouth of ye dyssembler is his neyghboure destroyed, but thorow knowlege shal the iust be delyuered.
 10 When it goeth well with the rightuous, the cite is mery: and when the vngodly perish, there is gladnesse.
 11 When the iust are in wealth, the cite prospereth: but when the vngodly haue the rule, it decayeth.
 12 A foole bryngeth vp a slaunde of his neyghboure, but a wyse man wil kepe it secreete.
 13 A dyssemblynge person wil discouer prey things, but he that is of a faithfull hert, will kepe counsell.
 14 Where no good counsell is there the people decaye: but where as are many that can geue counsell, there is wealth.

15 He that is suertye for a straunger, hurteth himself: but he that medleth not with suerteshippe, is sure.
 16 A gracious woma manteyneth honestie, as for the mightie, they manteyne ryches.
 17 He yt hath a gentle liberall stomacke, is mercifull: but who so hurteth his neighbor, is a tyraut.
 18 The laboure of the vngodly prospereth not, but he that soweth rightuousnes, shal receaue a sure rewarde.
 19 Like as rightuousnes bryngeth life, eue so to cleue vnto euell, bryngeth death.
 20 The LORDE abhorreth a fayned hert, but he hath pleasure in them that are vndefyled.
 21 It shal not helpe ye wicked, though they laye all their hondes together, but the sede of the rightuous shalbe preserued.
 22 A fayre woman without discrete maners, is like a ryng of golde in a swynes snoute.
 23 The iust laboure for peace and traquylite, but the vngodly for disquyetnesse.
 24 Some man geueth out his goodes, and is the richer, but ye nygarde (hauynge ynough) wil departe from nothinge, and yet is euer in pouerte.

25 He that is lyberall in geuynge, shal haue plenty: and he that watereth, shalbe watered also himself.
 26 Who so hoordeth vp his corne, shalbe cursed amonge the people: but blessinge shal light vpon his heade that selleth it.
 27 He that laboureth for honesty fyndeth his desyre: but who so seketh after myschefe, it shal happe vnto him.
 28 He that trusteth in his riches, shal haue a fall, but ye rightuous shal florish as the grene leaf.
 29 Who so maketh disquyetnesse in his owne house, he shal haue wynde for his heretage, and the foole shal be seruaunt to the wyse.
 30 The frute of the rightuous is as the tre of life, a wyse man also wynneth mens soules.
 31 Yf ye rightuous be recopesed vpo earth how moch more the the vngodly & ye synner?

Chapter 12

1 Who so loueth wy?dome, wil be content to be reformed: but he that hateth to be reprobud, is a foole.
 2 A good man is acceptable vnto the LORDE, but ye wicked wyl he condempne.
 3 A man ca not endure in vngodlynesse, but ye rote of ye righteous shal not be moued.
 4 A stedfast woman is a crowne vnto hir hu?bonde: but she that behaueth herself vnonestly, is a corrupcion in his bones.
 5 The thoughtes of ye righteous are right, but the ymaginacion of the vngodly are disceatfull.
 6 The talkynge of the vngodly is, how they maye laye wayte for bloude, but the mouth of ye righteous wil delyuer them.

7 Or euer thou canst turne the aboute, the vngodly shal be ouerthrowne, but the house of the righteous shal stode.
 8 A man shalbe commended for his wy?dome, but a foole shal be despysed.
 9 A simple man which laboureth and worketh, is better the one that is gorgious and wanteth bred.
 10 A righteous man regardeth the life of his catell, but the vngodly haue cruell hertes.
 11 He that tilleth his lode, shal haue plenteuousnesse of bred: but he yt foloweth ydylnes, is a very foole.
 12 The desyre of ye vngodly hunteth after myschefe, but the rote of the righteous bryngeth forth frute.
 13 The wicked falleth in to the snare thorow ye malyce of his owne mouth, but the iust shal escape out of parell.
 14 Euery man shal enioye good acordinge to the innocency of his mouth, and after the workes of his hades shal he be rewarded.
 15 Loke what a foole taketh in honde, he thinketh it well done: but he that is wyse, wyl be couceled.
 16 A foole vttereth his wrath in all the haist, but a discrete man forgeueth wronge.
 17 A iust man will tell the trueth, & shewethe thinge yt is right: but a false wytnesse disceaueth.
 18 A slaundeous personne pricketh like a swerde, but a wyse mans tonge is wholsome.
 19 A true mouth is euer constat, but a dyssemblynge toge is soone changed.
 20 They that ymagin euell in their mynde, wil disceau: but the councelers of peace shal haue ioye folowinge the.
 21 There shal no mysfortune happen vnto the iust, but the vngodly shal be fylled with misery.
 22 The LORDE abhorreth disceatfull lippes, but they that laboure for treuth, please him.
 23 He that hath vnderstodinge, can hyde his wysdome: but an vndiscrete herte telleth out his foolishnesse.
 24 A diliget hande shal beare rule, but the ydle shal be vnder tribute.
 25 Heuynesse discourageth ye herte of man, but a good worde maketh it glad agayne.
 26 The righteous is liberall vnto his neyghboure, but the waye of the vngodly wil disceau them selues.
 27 A disceatfull man shal fynde no vantage, but he that is content wt that he hath, is more worth the golde.
 28 In the waye of rightuousnesse there is life, as for eny other waye, it is the path vnto death.

Chapter 13

1 A wyse sonne wyl receaue his fathers warnynge, but he yt is scornefull, wyl not heare when he is reprobud.
 2 A good ma shal enioye the frute of his mouth, but he that hath a frowarde mynde, shalbe spoyled.

3 He that kepeth his mouth, kepeth his life: but who so speaketh vnaduyssed, fyndeth harme.
 4 The slogarde wolde fayne haue, and can not get his desyre: but the soule of the diliget shal haue plenty.
 5 A righteous man abhorreth lyes, but the vngodly shameth both other and himself.
 6 Righteousnesse kepeth the innocet in the waye, but vngodlynesse shal ouerthrowe the synner.
 7 Some men are riche, though they haue nothinge: agayne, some me are poore hauynge greate riches.
 8 With goodes euery man delyuereth his life, and the poore wyl not be reprobud.
 9 The light of the righteous maketh ioyfull, but the candle of the vngodly shal be put out.
 10 Amonge the proude there is euer strife, but amonge those that do all thinges with aduysement, there is wy?dome.
 11 Hastely gotte goodes are soone spent, but they that be gathered together with the hande, shal increase.
 12 Longe tarienge for a thinge that is dyfferred, greueth ye herte: but when the desyre commeth, it is a tre of life.
 13 Who so despyseth the worde, destroyeth himself: but he that feareth the comaundement, shal haue peace.
 14 The lawe is a wel of life vnto the wyse, that it maye kepe him from the snares of death.
 15 Good vnderstodinge geueth faouore, but harde is the waye of the despysers.
 16 A wyse man doth all thinges with discrecion, but a foole wil declare his folly.
 17 An vngodly messauger bryngeth myschefe, but a faithfull embassitoure is wholsome.
 18 He that thinketh scorne to be reformed, commeth to pouerte and shame: but who so receaueth correccion, shal come to honoure.
 19 When a desyre is brought to passe, it delytheth the soule: but fooles abhorre him that eschuethe euell.
 20 He that goeth in the company of wyse men, shal be wyse: but who so is a copany of fooles, shal be hurte.
 21 Myschefe foloweth vpon synners, but the rightuous shal haue a good rewarde.
 22 Which their childers childre shal haue in possessio, for the riches of the synner is layed vp for ye iust.
 23 There is plenteuousnesse of fode in the feldes of the poore, & shalbe increased out of measure.
 24 He that spareth the rodde, hateth his sonne: but who so loueth him, holdeth him euer in nurtoure.
 25 The rightuous eateth, and is satisfied, but ye bely of the vngodly hath neuer ynough.

Chapter 14

1 A wyse woma vpholdeth hir house, but a foolish wife plucketh it downe.
 2 Who so feareth the LORDE, walketh in the right path: & regardeth not him that abhorreth the wayes of the LORDE.

3 In the mouth of the foolish is the boostinge of lordshipe, but ye lippes of ye wyse wilbe warre of soch.

4 Where no oxen are, there the crybb is emptie: but where the oxen laboure, there is moch frute.

5 A faithfull wytnesse wyl not dyssemble, but a false recorde wil make a lye.

6 A scornfull body seketh wy?dome, & fyndeth it not: but knowlege is easy to come by, vnto him that wil vnderstonde.

7 Se yt thou medle not with a foole, & do as though thou haddest no knowlege.

8 The wy?dome of him that hath vnderstandinge is, to take hede vnto his waye, but the foolishnesse of the vnwyse disceaueth.

9 Fooles make but a sporte of synne, but there is fauourable loue amoge the righteous.

10 The herte of him that hath vnderstandinge wil nether dispare for eny sorow, ner be to presumptuous for eny sodane ioye.

11 The houses of the vngodly shalbe ouerthrowne, but the tabernacles of ye righteous shal florish.

12 There is a waye, which some men thinke to be right, but the ende therof ledeth vnto death.

13 The herte is soroufull euen in laughter, and the ende of myrth is heuynesse.

14 An vnfaithfull persone shal be fylled with his owne wayes, but a good ma wyl beware of soch.

15 An ignoraut body beleueth all thinges, but who so hath vnderstandinge, loketh well to his goinges.

16 A wyse man, feareth, and departeth from euell, but a foole goeth on presumptuously.

17 An vnpatient man handeleth foolishly, but he that is well aduysed, doth other wayes.

18 The ignoraut haue foolishnes in possessio, but the wyse are crowned with knowlege.

19 The euell shal bowe them selues before ye good, and the vngodly shal wayte at the dores of the righteous.

20 The poore is hated euen of his owne neighbours, but the riche hath many frendes.

21 Who so despyseth his neighbor, doth amyse: but blessed is he that hath pyte of the poore.

22 They that ymagin wickednes, shalbe disapoynted: but they that muse vpo good thinges, vnto soch shal happen mercy and faithfulness.

23 Diliget labor bryngeth riches, but where many vayne wordes are, truly there is scarcenesse.

24 Riches are an ornament vnto the wyse, but the ignorance of fooles is very foolishnesse.

25 A faithfull wytnesse delyuereth soules, but a lyar dysceaueth them.

26 The feare of the LORDE is a stroge holde, for vnto his he wyl be a sure defence.

27 The feare of the LORDE is a well of life, to auoyde the snares of death.

28 The increase and prosperite of the comons is the kynges honoure, but the decaye of the people is the confucio of the prynce.

29 Pacience is a token of wi?dome, but wrath and haistie displeasure is a token of foolishnesse.

30 A mery herte is the life of the body, but rancoure consumeth awaye the bones.

31 He that doth a poore man wroge, blasphemeth his maker: but who so hath pitie of the poore, doth honoure vnto God.

32 The vngodly is afrayed of euery parell, but the righteous hath a good hope eue in death.

33 Wy?dome resteth in the herte of him that hath vnderstandinge, and he wyl teach them that are vlnerned.

34 Rightousnes setteth vp the people, but wyckednesse bryngeth folke to destruccion.

35 A discrete seruauant is a pleasure vnto ye kyng, but one yt is not honest, prouoketh him vnto wrath.

Chapter 15

1 A softe aswere putteth downe displeasure, but frowarde wordes prouoke vnto anger.

2 A wyse tonge commendeth knowlege, a foolish mouth blabbeth out nothinge but foolishnesse.

3 The eyes of the LORDE loke in euery place, both vpon ye good and badd.

4 A wholesome tonge is a tre of life, but he that abuseth it, hath a broken mynde.

5 A foole despyseth his fathers correccion, but he yt taketh hede when he is reprobued, shal haue ye more vnderstodinge.

6 In the house of the righteous are greate riches, but in the increase of the vngodly there is mysordre.

7 A wyse mouth poureth out knowlege, but ye herte of the foolish doth not so.

8 The LORDE abhorreth ye sacrifice of the vngodly, but the prayer of the righteous is acceptable vnto him.

9 The waye of the vngodly is an abhominacio vnto ye LORDE, but who so foloweth righteousnes, him he loueth.

10 He that forsaketh ye right strete, shalbe sore punyshed: & who so hath correccion, falleth in to death.

11 The hell wt hir payne is knowne vnto the LORDE, how moch more then the hertes of men?

12 A scornfull body loueth not one yt rebuketh him, nether wil he come amonge ye wyse.

13 A mery herte maketh a chearfull countenance, but an vnquyet mynde maketh it heuy.

14 A wyse herte wil seke after knowlege, but ye mouth of fooles medleth with foolishnesse.

15 All the dayes of the poore are miserable, but a quyet herte is as a cotynual feast.

16 Better is a litle with the feare of the LORDE then greate treasure, for they are not without sorowe.

17 Better is a meace of potage with loue, then a fat oxe wt euell will.

18 An angrie man stereth vp strife, but he yt is pacient stilleth discorde.

19 The waye of ye slouthfull is full of thornes, but ye strete of the righteous is well clenched.

20 A wyse sonne maketh a glad father, but an vndiscrete body shameth his mother.

21 A foole reioyseth in foolish thinges, but a wyse man loketh well to his owne goinges.

22 Vnadyused thoughtes shal come to naught, but where as are men yt can geue counsell, there is stedfastnesse.

23 O how ioyfull a thinge is it, a man to geue a conuenient answer? O how pleasaunt is a worde spoken in due season?

24 The waye of life ledeth vnto heaue, yt a man shulde beware of hell beneth.

25 The LORDE wyl breake downe ye house of ye proude, but he shal make fast ye borders of ye wyddowe.

26 The LORDE abhorreth ye ymaginations of ye wicked, but pure wordes are pleasaunt vnto him.

27 The couetous man wrutteth vp his owne house, but who so hateth rewardes, shal lyue.

28 A righteous ma museth in his mynde how to do good, but ye mynde of the vngodly ymagineth, how he maye do harme.

29 The LORDE is farre from the vngodly, but he heareth ye prayer of the righteous.

30 Like as ye clearnesse of ye eyes reioyseth ye herte, so doth a good name fede ye bones.

31 The eare yt harkeneth vnto wholesome warnyng, and enclyneth therto, shall dwell amonge ye wyse.

32 He that refuseth to be reformed, despyseth his owne soule: but he that submyteth himself to correccion, is wyse.

33 The feare of ye LORDE is ye right scycece of wy?dome, and lowlynes goeth before honor.

Chapter 16

1 A man maye well purpose a thinge in his harte, but ye answer of ye tonge cometh of ye LORDE.

2 A ma thinketh all his waies to be clene, but it is ye LORDE yt fashioneth ye myndes.

3 Commytte thy workes vnto ye LORDE, and loke what thou deuysest, it shal prospere.

4 The LORDE doth all thinges for his owne sake, yee & when he kepeth ye vngodly for ye daye of wrath.

5 The LORDE abhorreth all presumptuous & proude hertes, there maye nether strength ner power escape.

6 With louyng mercy & faithfulness synnes be forgeuen, and who so feareth ye LORDE eschueth euell.

7 When a mans wayes please ye LORDE, he maketh his very enemies to be his frendes.

8 Better is it to haue a litle thinge wt righteousness, the greate rentes wrongeously gotten.

9 A ma deuyseth a waye in his herte, but it is ye LORDE yt ordreth his goinges.

10 When ye prophecy is in ye lippes of ye kyng, his mouth shal not go wroge in iudgment.

11 A true measure & a true baluce are ye LORDES, he maketh all weightes.

12 It is a greate abhominacio when kynges are wycked, for a kynges seate shulde be holden vp wt righteousnesse.

13 Righteous lippes are pleasaut vnto kynges, and they loue him yt speaketh ye trueth.

14 The kynges displeasure is a messaunger of death, but a wyse man wyl pacifie him.

15 The cherefull countenance of ye kyng is life, and his louyng fauor is as the euenyng dewe.

16 To haue wy?dome in possession is better then golde, and to get vnderstondyng, is more worth then syluer.

17 The path of ye righteous eschueth euell, & who so loketh well to his wayes, kepeth his owne soule.

18 Presumptuousnes goeth before destruccion, and after a proude stomake there foloweth a fall.

19 Better it is to be of humble mynde wt the lowly, then to deuyde ye spoyles wt ye proude.

20 He yt handleth a matter wysely, opteyneth good: & blessed is he, yt putteth his trust in ye LORDE.

21 Who so hath a wyse vnderstandinge, is called to counsell: but he yt can speake fayre, getteth more riches.

22 Vnderstandinge is a well of life vnto him yt hath it, as for ye chastenyng of fooles, it is but foolishnesse.

23 The herte of the wyse enfourmeth his mouth, and amendeth ye doctryne in his lypes.

24 Fayre wordes are an hony combe, a refreshyng of ye mynde, & health of ye bones.

25 There is a waye yt men thinke to be right, but the ende therof leadeth vnto death.

26 A troublous soule disquyeteth hir selfe, for hir owne mouth hath brought her therto.

27 An vngodly persone stereth vp euell, and in his lippes he is as an whote burnyng fyre.

28 A frowarde body causeth strife, and he yt is a blabbe of his tonge, maketh deuyson amonge prynces.

29 A wicked ma begyleth his neighbor, & ledeth him ye waye yt is not good.

30 He that wyncketh wt his eyes, ymagineth myschefe: and he yt byteth his lippes, wyl do some harme.

31 Age is a crowne of worship, yf it be founde in the waye of righteousness.

32 A pacient man is better then one that is stroge: and he that can rule him selfe, is more worth then he yt wynneth a cite.

33 The lottes are cast in to the lappe, but their fall stodeth in the LORDE.

Chapter 17

1 Better is a drye morsell wt quietnesse, the a full house and many fatt catell wt stryfe.

2 A discrete seruaut shal haue more rule then the sonnes yt haue no wysdome, and shal haue like heretage wt the brethren.

3 Like as syluer is tried in the fyre and golde in the furnace, euen so doth the LORDE proue the hertes.

4 A wicked body holdeth moch of false lippes, & a dyssemblynge persone geueth eare to a disceatfull toge.

5 Who so laugheth ye poore to scorne, blasphemeth his maker: and he yt is glad of another mans hurte, shal not be vnpunished.

6 Childers children are a worshipe vnto the elders, and the fathers are the honor of the children.

7 An eloquent speach becometh not a foole, a dyssemblinge mouth also besemeth not a prynce.

8 Liberalite is a precious stone vnto him that hath it, for where so euer he becometh, he prospereth.

9 Who so couereth another mans offence, seketh loue: but he yt discloseth the faute, setteth frendes at variaunce.

10 One reprove only doth more good to him yt hath vnderstodunge, then an C. stripes vnto a foole.

11 A sedicious persone seketh myschefe, but a cruell messaunger shal be sent agaynst him.

12 It were better to come agaynst a she Bere robbed of hir whelpes, then agaynst a foole in his foolishnes.

13 Who so rewardeth euell for good, the plage shal not departe fro his house.

14 He yt soweth discorde & strife, is like one yt dyggeth vp a water broke: but an open enemy is like the water yt breaketh out & reneth abroad.

15 The LORDE hateth as well him yt iustifieth ye vngodly, as him yt condempneth the innocet.

16 What helpeth it to geue a foole money in his hode, where as he hath no mynde to bye wy?dome?

17 He is a frende that allwaye loueth, and in aduersite a man shal knowe who is his brother.

18 Who so promiseth by the hande, & is suertie for another, he is a foole.

19 He yt loueth strife, delyteth in synne: & who so setteth his dore to hye, seketh after a fall.

20 Who so hath a frowarde herte, opteyneth no good: and he yt hath an ouerthwarte tonge, shal fall into myschefe.

21 An vnwyse body bryngeth himselfe in to sorow, and ye father of a foole can haue no ioie.

22 A mery herte maketh a lusty age, but a sorowfull mide dryeth vp ye bones.

23 The vngodly taketh giftes out of the bosome, to wraist the wayes of iudgment.

24 Wy?dome shyneth in ye face of him yt hath vnderstodunge, but ye eyes of fooles wandre thorow out all lodes.

25 An vndiscrete sonne is a grefe vnto his father, and heynesse vnto his mother yt bare him.

26 To punysh ye innocent, and to smyte ye prynces yt geue true iudgmet, are both euell.

27 He is wyse and discrete, yt tempereth his wordes: and he is a ma of vnderstodunge, yt maketh moch of his sprete.

28 Yee a very foole (when he holdeth his tonge) is counted wyse, and to haue vnderstodunge, when he shutteth his lippes.

Chapter 18

1 Who so hath pleasure to sowe discorde, piketh a quarell in euery thinge.

2 A foole hath no delyte in vnderstodunge, but only in those thinges wherin his herte reioyseth.

3 Where vngodlynes is, there is also di?dayne: & so there foloweth shame & dishonor.

4 The wordes of a mas mouth are like depe waters, and the well of wy?dome is like a full streame.

5 It is not good to regarde ye persone of the vngodly, or to put backe ye righteous in iudgmet.

6 A fooles lippes are euer brawlinge, and his mouth prouoketh vnto batayll.

7 A fooles mouth is his owne destruction, and his lippes are ye snare for his owne soule.

8 The wordes of a slaunderer are very woudes, and go thorow vnto the ymmost partes of the body.

9 Who so is slouthfull and slacke in his labor, is ye brother of him ye is a waister.

10 The name of ye LORDE is a stronge castell, ye righteous flyeth vnto it, and shalbe saued.

11 But ye rich mas goodes are his stronge holde, yee he taketh them for an hye wall roude aboute him.

12 After pryde cometh destruccio, and honor after lowlynes.

13 He that geueth sentece in a matter before he heare it, is a foole, and worthy to be confounded.

14 A good stomacke dryueth away a mas disease, but wha ye sprete is vexed, who maye abyde it?

15 A wyse herte laboureth for knowlege, and a prudent eare seketh vnderstodunge.

16 Liberalite bryngeth a man to honor and worshipe, & setteth him amonge greate men.

17 The righteous accuseth hi self first of all, yf his neighbor come, he shal fynde him.

18 The lot pacieth ye variauce, & parteth ye mightie asunder.

19 The vnite of brethren is stronger then a castell, and they that holde together are like the barre of a palace.

20 A mans bely shalbe satisfied with the frute of his owne mouth, and with the increase of his lippes shal he be fylled.

21 Death and life stonde in the power of the tonge, he that loueth it, shal enioye the frute therof.

22 Who so fyndeth a wife fyndeth a good thyng, & receaueth an wholsome benefite of the LORDE.

23 The poore maketh supplicacion and prayeth mekely, but the riche geueth a rough answeere.

24 A frende that delyteth in loue, doth a man more fredshipe, and sticketh faster vnto him then a brother.

Chapter 19

1 Better is the poore that lyueth godly, the the blasphemers that is but a foole.

2 Where no discrecion is, there the soule is not well: and who so is swifte on fote, stombeeth hastily.

3 Foolishnesse maketh a man to go out of his waye, & then is his herte vnpacient agaynst the LORDE.

4 Riches make many frendes, but the poore is forsake of his owne frendes.

5 A false wytnesse shal not remayne vnpunished, and he that speaketh lyes shal not escape.

6 The multitude hageth vpo greate men, & euery man faouureth him that geueth rewardes.

7 As for the poore, he is hated amonge all his brethren: yee his owne frendes forsake him, & he that geueth credece vnto wordes, getteth nothinge.

8 He that is wyse, loueth his owne soule: and who so hath vnderstodunge, shal prospere.

9 A false wytnesse shal not remayne vnpunished, & he yt speaketh lyes shal perishe.

10 Delicate ease becometh not a foole, moch more vnsemyly is it, a bonde man to haue ye rule of prynces.

11 A wyse man putteth of displeasure, & it is his honor to let some fautes passe.

12 The kynges disfaour is like ye roaringe of a Lyo, but his fredshipe is like the dewe vpo ye grasse.

13 An vndiscrete sonne is ye heynes of his father, & a braulynge wife is like the topp of an house, where thorow it is euer droppyng.

14 House & riches maye a ma haue by ye heretage of his elders, but a discrete woma is the gifte of the LORDE.

15 Slouthfulnes bryngeth slepe, & an ydell soule shal suffer hoger.

16 Who so kepeth the comaundemet, kepeth his owne soule: but he yt regardeth not his waye, shal dye.

17 He yt hath pitie vpon the poore, ledeth vnto ye LORDE: & loke what he layeth out, it shalbe payed him agayne.

18 Chaste yi sonne whyle there is hope, but let not yi soule be moued to slaye hi.

19 For greate wrath bryngeth harme, therefore let him go, and so mayest thou teach him more nurtoure.

20 O geue eare vnto good counsell, & be content to be refourmed, that thou mayest bewyse here after.

21 There are many deuices in a mas herte, neuertheles the coucell of ye LORDE shal stode.

22 It is a mans worshipe to do good, & better it is to be a poore ma, then a dyssembler.

23 The feare of the LORDE preserueth the life, yee it geueth pleteousnes, without the visitacio of anye place.

24 A slouthfull body shutteth his honde in to his bosome, so yt he can not put it to his mouth.

25 Yf thou smyttest a scorneful persone, the ignoraut shal take better hede: & yf thou reprouest one yt hath vnderstodunge, he wil be ye wyser.

26 He yt hurteth his father or shutteth out his mother, is a shamefull & an vnworthy sonne.

27 My sonne, heare nomore the doctrine yt leadeh the awaye from the wordes of vnderstodunge.

28 A false wytnes laugheth iudgmet to scorne, & the mouth of the vngodly eateth vp wickednes.

29 Punyshmentes are ordered for the scornefull, and stripes for fooles backes.

Chapter 20

1 Wyne is a voluptuous thinge, & drockennes causeth sedicion: who so delyteth therin, shal neuer be wyse.

2 The kyng ought to be feared as the roaringe of a lyon, who so prouoketh him vnto anger, offendeth agaynst his owne soule.

3 It is a mans honoure to kepe himselfe from strife, but they yt haue pleasure in braulinge, are fooles eueryone.

4 A slouthfull body wyl not go to plowe for colde, therefore shal he go abegginge in Sommer, and haue nothinge.

5 Wyse counsell in the herte of man is like a water in the depe of the earth, but he that hath vnderstodunge, bryngeth it forth.

6 Many there be that are called good doers, but where shal one fynde a true faithful ma?

7 Who so ledeth a godly and an innocent life, happie shal his children be, whom he leaueth behynde him.

8 A kyng that sytteth in iudgment, and loketh well aboute him, dryueth awaye all euell.

9 Who can saye: my hert is cleane, I am innocet from synne?

10 To vse two maner of weightes, or two maner of measures, both these are abominable vnto the LORDE.

11 A childe is knowne by his conuersacion, whether his workes be pure and right.

12 As for the hearinge of the eare & the sight of ye eye, ye LORDE hath made the both.

13 Delyte not thou in slepe, lest thou come vnto pouerte: but ope thine eyes, & thou shalt haue bred ynough.

14 It is naught, It is naught (saye men) when they haue it, but when it is gone, they geue it a good worde.

15 A mouth of vnderstodunge is more worth then golde, many precious stones, and costly Iewels.

16 Take his garment that is suertie for a stranger, & take a pledge of him for ye vnknowne mans sake.

17 Euery ma liketh the bred that is gotten with disceate, but at the last is mouth shalbe fylled with grauell.

18 Thorow counsell the thinges that men deuuse go forwarde: & with discrecion ought warres to be taken in honde.

19 Medle not with him that bewrayeth secretes, and is a slaunderer, and disceaueth with his lippes.

20 Who so curseth his father and mother, his light shalbe put out in the myddest of darcknesse.

21 The heretage that commeth to haistely at the first, shal not be prayed at the ende.

22 Saye not thou: I will recompence euell, but put yi trust in the LORDE, & he shal defende ye.

23 The LORDE abhorreth two maner of weightes, and a false balauce is an euell thinge.

24 The LORDE ordreth euery mas goinges, for what is he, that vnderstondeth his owne wayes?

25 It is a snare for a man to blasphemie that which is holy, & then to go aboute wt vows.

26 A wyse kynge destroyeth ye vngodly, & bryngeth the whele ouer them.

27 The lanterne of ye LORDE is ye breth of man, & goeth thorow all the inwarde partes of the body.

28 Mercy & faithfulness preserue the kynge, & with louynge kyndnes his seate is holden vp.

29 The strength of yonge men is their worshipec, & a gray heade, is an honor vnto ye aged.

30 Woundes dryue away euell, and so do stripes the inwarde partes of the body.

Chapter 21

1 The kynges hert is in the hande of the LORDE, like as are the ryuers of water: he maye turne it whyther so euer he wyll.

2 Euery man thinketh his owne waye to be right, but the LORDE iudgeth ye hertes.

3 To do rightuousnesse and iudgmet is more acceptable to the LORDE the sacrifice.

4 A presumptuous loke, a proude stomacke, & the lanterne of the vngodly is synne.

5 The deuyses of one that is diligent, brynge plenteousnes: but he yt is vnadused, commeth vnto pouerte.

6 Who so hoordeth vp riches wt ye disceatfulness of his tonge, he is a foole, & like vnto them that seke their owne death.

7 The robberies of the vngodly shalbe their owne destruccion, for they wolde not do the thyng that was right.

8 The wayes of the frowarde are straunge, but ye workes of him yt is cleane, are right.

9 It is better to dwell in a corner vnder ye house toppe, then with a braulinge woman in a wyde house.

10 The soule of the vngodly wyseth euell, and hath no pitie vpon his neghboure.

11 When the scornfull is punyshed, the ignoraunt take ye better hede: & when a wyse man is warned, he wil receaue the more vnderstodunge.

12 The rightuous enfourmeth the house of the vngodly, but ye vngodly go on still after their owne wickednesse.

13 Who so stoppeth his eare at the criege of the poore, he shal crie himself and not be herde.

14 A preyrewarde pacieth displeasure, and a gifte in the bosome stilleth furiousnesse.

15 The iust delyteth in doynge the thyng that is right, but the workers of wickednesse abhorre the same.

16 The man that wandreth out of the waye of wy?dome, shal remayne in the cogregation of ye deed.

17 He yt hath pleasure in banquettes, shal be a poore man: Who so delyteth in wyne and delicates, shal not be riche.

18 The vngodly shalbe geuen for the rightuous, & the wicked for the iust.

19 It is better to dwell in a wyldernesse, the with a chydinge and an angrie woman.

20 In a wyse mans house there is greate treasure and plenteousnesse, but a foolish body spendeth vp all.

21 Who so foloweth rightuousnesse and mercy, fyndeth both life, rightuousnesse and honor.

22 A wyse man wynneth the cite of the mightie, and as for the strength yt they trust in, he bryngeth it downe.

23 Who so kepeth his mouth and his tonge, the same kepeth his soule from troubles.

24 He yt is proude & presumptuous, is called a scornfull ma, which in wrath darre worke maliciously.

25 The voluptuousnesse of the slouthfull is his owne death, for his hades wyll not labor.

26 He coueteth and desyret all the daye longe, but the rightuous is allwaye geuyng & kepeth nothinge backe.

27 The sacrifice of the vngodly is abhominacion, for they offre the thinge yt is gotten wt wickednes.

28 A false wytnesse shal perishe, but he yt wilbe content to heare, shal allwaye haue power to speake himself.

29 An vngodly man goeth forth rashly, but the iust refourmeth his owne waye.

30 There is no wy?dome, there is no vnderstodunge, there is no counsell agaynst the LORDE.

31 The horse is prepared agaynst ye daye of battayll, but the LORDE geueth the victory.

Chapter 22

1 A good name is more worth then greate riches, and louynge fauor is better then syluer and golde.

2 Whether riches or pouerte do mete vs, it commeth all of God.

3 A wyse man seyeth the plage and hydeth himself, but the foolish go on still and are punyshed.

4 The ende of lowlynes & the feare of God, is riches, honor, prosperite and health.

5 Speares and snares are in ye waye of the frowarde, but he yt wil kepe his soule, let him fle fro soch.

6 Yf thou teachest a childe in his youth what waye he shulde go, he shall not leaue it when he is olde.

7 The rich ruleth the poore, and ye borower is seruauant to ye lender.

8 He yt soweth wickednesse, shal reape sorowe, & the rodde of his plage shal destroye him.

9 A louynge eye shalbe blessed, for he geueth of his bred vnto ye poore.

10 Cast out ye scornfull man, and so shal strife go out wt him, yee variaunce and slaunder shal cease.

11 Who so delyteth to be of a clene herte and of gracious lypes, ye kynge shal be his frende.

12 The eyes of ye LORDE preserue knowlege, but as for ye wordes of ye despyteful, he bryngeth them to naught.

13 The slouthfull body sayeth: there is a lye wt out, I might be slayne in ye strete.

14 The mouth of an harlot is a depe pytt, wherin he falleth that ye LORDE is angrie withall.

15 Foolishnes sticketh in the herte of ye lad, but ye rod of correccion driueth it awaye.

16 Who so doth a poore man wronge to increase his owne riches, geueth (comoly) vnto the rich, and at the last commeth to pouerte himself.

17 My sonne, bowe downe thine eare, and herken vnto the wordes of wy?dome, applye yi mynde vnto my doctryne:

18 for it is a pleasaunt thinge yf thou kepe it in thine herte, and practise it in thy mouth:

19 that thou mayest allwaye put yi trust in the LORDE.

20 Haue not I warned ye very oft with counsell and lerninge?

21 yt I might shewe ye the treuth and that thou wt the verite mightest answer them yt laye eny thinge against ye?

22 Se yt thou robbe not ye poore because he is weake, and oppresse not ye simple in iudgment:

23 for ye LORDE himself wyl defende their cause, and do violence vnto them yt haue vsed violence.

24 Make no fredshipec with an angrie wylfull man, and kepe no company wt ye furious:

25 lest thou lerne his wayes, and receaue hurte vnto thy soule.

26 Be not thou one of them yt bynde ther hande vpo promyse, and are suertie for dett:

27 for yf thou hast nothinge to paye, they shal take awaye thy bed from vnder the.

28 Thou shalt not remoue the lande marcke, which thy fore elders haue sett.

29 Seist thou not, yt they which be diligent in their busines stonde before kynges, and not amonge the symple people?

Chapter 23

1 When thou syttest at the table to eate wt a lorde, ordre thy self manerly wt ye thinges

2 that are set before ye Measure thine appetite:

3 and yf thou wilt rule thine owne self, be not ouer gredy of his meate, for meate begyleth and disceaueth.

4 Take not ouer greate trauayle and labor to be riche, bewarre of soch a purpose.

5 Why wilt thou set thine eye vpon ye thinge, which sodenly vanisheth awaye? For riches make them selues wynges, and take their flight like an Aegle in to ye ayre.

6 Eate not thou wt ye enuyous, and desyre no his meate,

7 for he hath a maruelous herte. He sayeth vnto ye: eate and drynke, where as his herte is not wt ye.

8 Yee ye morsels that thou hast eaten shalt thou perbreake, and lese those swete wordes.

9 Tel nothinge in to ye eares of a foole, for he wyl despyse the wy?dome of thy wordes.

10 Remoue not ye olde lande marke, and come not within ye felde of the fatherlesse:

11 For he yt deliuereth them is mightie, euen he shal defende their cause agaynst the.

12 Applie thine herte vnto lernynge, and thine eare to the wordes of knowlege.

13 Witholde not correccion from ye childe, for yf thou beatest him wt the rodde, he shal not dye therof.

14 Thou smyttest him wt the rodde, but thou delyuerest his soule from hell.

15 My sonne, yf yi herte receaue wy?dome, my herte also shal reioyce:

16 yee my reynes shalbe very glad, yf yi lypes speake the thinge yt is right.

17 Let not thine herte be gelous to folowe synners, but kepe ye still in the feare of the LORDE all the daye loge:

18 for the ende is not yet come, and thy pacient abydinge shal not be in vayne.

19 My sonne, ue eare & be wyse, so shal thine hert prospere in the waye.

20 Kepe no company wt wyne bebbers and ryotous eaters of flesh:

21 for soch as be dronckardes and ryotous, shal come to pouerte, & he that is geuen to moch slepe, shal go wt a ragged cote.

22 Geue eare vnto thy father that begat the, and despyse not thy mother whan she is olde.

23 Labor for to get ye treuth: sell not awaye wy?dome, nourtor &

vnderstodinge

24 (for a righteous father is maruelous glad of a wyse sonne, & delyteth in hi)
 25 so shal thy father be glad, and thy mother that bare the, shal reioyse.
 26 My sonne, geue me thyn herte, and let thine eyes haue pleasure in my wayes.
 27 For an whore is a depe graue, and an harlot is a narrow pytt.
 28 She lurketh like a thefe, and those that be not aware she brigeth vnto her.
 29 Where is wo? where is sorow? where is strife? where is braulyng? where are woundes without cause? where be reed eyes?
 30 Euen amonge those that be euer at the wyne, and seke out where the best is.
 31 Loke not thou vpon the wyne, how reed it is, and what a color it geueth in the glasse.
 32 It goeth downe softly, but at the last it byteth like a serpet, and styngeth as an Adder.
 33 So shal thine eyes loke vnto straunge women, & thine herte shal muse vpon frowarde thinges.
 34 Yee thou shalt be as though thou slepte, in ye myddest of ye see, or vpo ye toppe of the mast.
 35 They wounded me (shalt thou saie) but it hath not hurte me, they smote me, but I felt it not. Whe I am wel wakened, I wil go to ye drynke agayne.

Chapter 24

1 Be not thou gelous ouer wicked me, & desyre not thou to be amonge them.
 2 For their herte ymagineth to do hurte, & their lippes talke of myschefe.
 3 Thorow wy?dome an house shalbe buylded, & wt vnderstodinge it shalbe set vp.
 4 Thorow discrecion shal ye chabers be fylled wt all costly & pleasaunt riches.
 5 A wyse ma is stroge, yee a ma of vnderstodinge is better, the he yt is mightie of stregh.
 6 For with discrecion must warres be take in honde, and where as are many yt can geue counsell, there is ye victory.
 7 Wy?dome is an hie thinge, yee eue to ye foole, for he darre not ope his mouth in ye gate.
 8 He yt ymagineth myschefe, maye wel be called an vngracious personne.
 9 The thoughte of ye foolish is synne, & ye scornefull is an abhominacion vnto me.
 10 Yf thou be ouersene & negliget in tyme of nede, the is thy stregh but small.
 11 Delyuer the yt go vnto death, & are led awaie to be slaine, & be not negliget therein.
 12 Yf thou wilt saie: I knewe not of it. Thynkest thou yt he which made ye hertes, doth not cosidre it? & yt he which regardeth yi soule, seith it not? Shal not he recopence euery man accordinge to his workes?
 13 My sonne, thou eatest hony & ye swete hony cobe, because it is good & swete in thy mouth.

14 Euen so shall ye knowlege of wysdome be vnto yi soule, as soone as thou hast gotte it. And there is good hope, yee yi hope shal not be in vayne.
 15 Laye no preuy waite wickedly vpon ye house of ye righteous, & disquiete not his restinge place.
 16 For a iust ma falleth seuen tymes, & ryseth vp agayne, but ye vngodly fall in to wickednes.
 17 Reioyce not thou at ye fall of thine enemye, and let not thine herte be glad whan he stomblyeth.
 18 Lest ye LORDE (when he seyth it) be angrie, & turne his wrath from him vnto the.
 19 Let not yi wrath & gelously moue ye, to foolow ye wicked and vngodly.
 20 And why? ye wicked hath nothinge to hope for, & ye cadle of the vngodly shall be put out.
 21 My sonne, feare thou ye LORDE & ye kinge, & kepe no copany wt ye slauderous:
 22 For their destruccion shal come sodenly, & who knoweth ye fall of the both?
 23 These are also ye saieges of ye wyse. It is not good, to haue respecte of any personne in iudgmet.
 24 He yt saith to ye vngodly: thou art righteous, him shall the people curse, yee ye comotie shal abhorre him.
 25 But they yt rebuke ye vngodly shalbe comended, & a riche blessinge shal come vpo the.
 26 He maketh him self to be well loued, that geueth a good answer.
 27 First make vp yi worke yt is wt out, & loke well vnto yt which thou hast in ye felde, & the buylde thine house.
 28 Be no false wytnesse agaynst yi neighbor, & hurte him not wt yi lypes.
 29 Saye not: I wil hadle him, eue as he hath dealte wt me, & wil rewarde euery ma accordinge to his dedes.
 30 I wente by ye felde of ye slouthfull, & by ye vynyarde of the foolish ma.
 31 And lo, it was all couered wt nettels, & stode full of thistles, & ye stone wall was broke downe.
 32 This I sawe, & cosidered it wel: I loked vpo it, & toke it for a warnynge.
 33 Yee slepe on still a litle, slobre a litle, folde thine hodes together yet a litle:
 34 so shall pouerte come vnto the as one yt trauallyth by ye waye, & necessite like a wapened man.

Chapter 25

1 These also are Salomons prouerbes, which the men of Ezechias kinge of Iuda gathered together.
 2 It is the honor of God to kepe a thinge secrete, but ye kinges honor is to search out a thinge.
 3 The heauen is hie, ye earth is depe, and ye kinges hert is vnsearcheable.
 4 Take ye drosse from ye syluer, & there shalbe a cleane vessell therof.
 5 Take awaye vngodlinesse fro ye kyng, & his seate shal be established wt rightuousnes.

6 Put not forth yi self in ye presence of ye kyng, & prease not in to ye place of greate men.
 7 Better it is yt it be sayde vnto ye: come vp hither, then thou to be set downe in ye presence of ye prynce, whom thou seyest with thine eyes.
 8 Be not haistie to go to the lawe, lest happlie thou ordre yi self so at ye last, yt thy neighbor put ye to shame.
 9 Handle thy matter wt yi neighbor himself, & discouer not another mans secrete:
 10 lest whan men heare therof, it turne to yi dishonor, & lest thine euell name do not cease.
 11 A worde spoken in due season, is like apples of golde in a syluer dyshe.
 12 The correccion of the wyse is to an obedient eare, a golden cheyne and a Jewel of golde.
 13 Like as the wynter coole in the haruest, so is a faithfull messaunger to him that sent him, & refre?sheth his masters mynde.
 14 Who so maketh greate boastes & geueth nothinge, is like cloudes & wynde without rayne.
 15 With pacience maye a prynce be pacified, & wt a soft tonge maye rigorousnes be broke.
 16 Yf thou findest hony, eate so moch as is sufficiet for ye: lest thou be ouer full, & perbreake it out againe.
 17 Withdrawe yi foote fro thy neighbours house, lest he be weery of the, and so abhorre the.
 18 Who so beareth false wytnesse agaynst his neighoure, he is a very speare, a swearde & a sharpe arowe.
 19 The hope of the vngodly in tyme of nede, is like a rotten toth and a slippery foote.
 20 Who so syngeth a songe to a wicked herte, clotheth hi with ragges in the colde, and poureth vyneger vpon chalke.
 21 Yf thine enemye hunger, fede him: yf he thyrst, geue him drynke:
 22 for so shalt thou heape coales offyre vpo his heade, and the LORDE shal rewarde the.
 23 The north wynde dryueth awaye the rayne, euen so doth an earnest sober countenance a backbyters tonge.
 24 It is better to syt in a corner vnder the rofe, then wt a braulyng woman in a wyde house.
 25 A good reporte out of a farre countre, is like colde water to a thyrstie soule.
 26 A righteous man fallynge downe before the vngodly, is like a troubled well and a sprynge yt is destroyed.
 27 Like as it is not good to eate to moch hony, euen so he that wyll search out hie thynges, it shal be to heuy for him.
 28 He that can not rule himself, is like a cite, which is broken downe, and hath no walles.

Chapter 26

1 Like as snowe is not mete in sommer, ner rayne in haruest: euen so is worshipec vnsemely for a foole.

 2 Like as ye byrde and the swalowe take their flight and fle here and there, so the curse that is geuen in vayne, shal not light vpon a man.
 3 Vnto the horse belongeth a whypp, to the Asse a brydle, and a rodde to the fooles backe.
 4 Geue not the foole an answer after his foolishnesse, lest thou become like vnto him:
 5 but make ye foole an answer to his foolishnesse, lest he be wyse in his owne coceate.
 6 He is lame of his fete, yee droncken is he in vanite, that comitteth eny thinge to a foole.
 7 Like as it is an vnsemely thige to haue legges & yet to halte, eue so is a parable in ye fooles mouth.
 8 He yt setteth a foole in hie dignite, yt is eue as yf a man dyd cast a precious stone vpo ye galous.
 9 A parable in a fooles mouth, is like a thorne yt pricketh a droncken man in ye hande.
 10 A man of experience discerneth all thinges well, but whoso hyreth a foole, hyreth soch one as wyl take no hede.
 11 Like as the dogg turneth agayne to his vomite, euen so a foole begynneth his foolishnesse agayne afresh.
 12 Yf thou seyest a man yt is wyse in his owne conceate, there is more hope in a foole then in hi.
 13 The slouthfull sayeth: there is a leoparde in ye waye, and a lyon in ye myddest of the stretes.
 14 Like as the dore turneth aboute vpon the tresholde, euen so doth the slouthfull welter himself in his bedd.
 15 The slouthfull body thrusteth his hode in to his bosome, and it greueth him to put it agayne to his mouth.
 16 The slogarde thinketh him self wyser, then vij. men that sytt and teach.
 17 Who so goeth by and medleth with other mens strife, he is like one yt taketh a dogg by ye eares.
 18 Like as one shuteth deadly arowes and dartes out of a preuy place, euen so doth a dyssembler with his neighoure, 19 And then sayeth he: I dyd it but in sporte.
 20 Where no wodd is, there the fyre goeth out: and where the bacbyter is taken awaye, there the strife ceaseth.
 21 Coles kyndle heate, and wodd ye fyre: euen so doth a braulinge felowe stere vp variaunce.
 22 A slauderers wordes are like flattery, but they pearse ye inwarde partes of ye body.
 23 Venymous lippes & a wicked herte, are like a potsherde couered wt syluer drosse.
 24 An enemye dyssembleth with his lippes, and in the meane season he ymagineth myschefe:
 25 but wha he speaketh fayre, beleue him not, for there are seuen abhominacions in his herte.
 26 Who so kepeth euell wil secretly to do hurte, his malyce shalbe shewed before the whole congregacion.

27 Who so dyggeth vp a pytt, shal fall therin: and he yt weltreth a stone, shal stomble vpon it hymselfe.

28 A dyssemblynge tonge hateth one that rebuketh him, and a flaterige mouth worketh myscheffe.

Chapter 27

1 Make not thy boost of tomorrow, for thou knowest not what maye happen todaye.

2 Let another ma prayse the, & not thine owne mouth: yee other folkes lippes, and not thyne.

3 The stone is heuy, and the sonde weightie: but a fooles wrath is heuyer then they both.

4 Wrath is a cruell thige, and furiousnesse is a very tempest: yee who is able to abyde envye?

5 An open rebuke is better, then a secreete loue.

6 Faithfull are the woundes of a louer, but ye kysses of an enemie are disceatfull.

7 He that is full, abhorreth an hony combe: but vnto him that is hogrie, euery sower thinge is swete.

8 He that oft tymes flytteth, is like a byrde yt forsaketh hir nest.

9 The herte is glad of a swete oyntment and sauoure, but a stomacke that ca geue good counsell, reioyseth a mans neghboure.

10 Thyne owne frende and thy fathers frende se thou forsake not, but go not in to thy brothers house in tyme of thy trouble. Better is a frende at hode, then a brother farre of.

11 My sonne, be wyse, and thou shalt make me a glad herte: so that I shal make answeere vnto my rebukers.

12 A wyse man seyge the plage wyl hyde him self, as for fooles they go on still, and suffer harme.

13 Take his garment that is suertie for a straunger, & take a pledge of him for the vnkowne mans sake.

14 He that is to hastie to praise his neghboure aboue measure, shalbe taken as one yt geueth him an euell reporte.

15 A brawlynge woman and the rofe of the house droppynge in a raynie daye, maye well be compared together.

16 He that refrayneth her, refrayneth the wynde, and holdeth oyle fast in his hode.

17 Like as one yro whetteth another, so doth one man comforte another.

18 Who so kepeth his fyge tre, shal enioye the frutes therof: he that wayteth vpon his master, shal come to honoure.

19 Like as in one water there apeare dyuerse faces, eue so dyuerse men haue dyuerse hertes.

20 Like as hell & destrucccion are neuer full, euen so the eyes of me can neuer be satisfied.

21 Syluer is tryed in the moulde, & golde in the fornace, & so is a man, whan he is openly prayseed to his face.

22 Though thou shuldest bray a foole wt a pestell in a mortar like otemeell, yet wil not his foolishnesse go from him.

23 Se yt thou knowe the nombre of thy catell thy self, and loke well to thy flockes.

24 For riches abyde not allwaye, & the crowne endureth not for euer.

25 The hay groweth, ye grasse cometh vp, & herbes are gathered in ye mountaines.

26 The lambes shal clothe the, & for the goates thou shalt haue money to yi hu?bondry.

27 Thou shalt haue goates mylck ynough to fede the, to vpholde thy husholde, & to susteyne thy maydens.

Chapter 28

1 The vngodly flyeth no man chasyng him, but the righteous stondestiff as a lyon.

2 Because of synne ye londe doth oft change hir prynde: but thorow men of vnderstandinge & wy?dome a realme endureth longe.

3 One poore man oppressinge another by violence, is like a contynuall rayne that destroyeth ye frute.

4 They that forsake the lawe, prayse ye vngodly; but soch as kepe the lawe, abhorre them.

5 Wicked men discerne not the thinge yt is right, but they that seke after the LORDE, discusse all thinges.

6 A poore man ledynge a godly life, is better then the riche that goeth in frowarde wayes.

7 Whoso kepeth the lawe, is a childe of vnderstandinge: but he yt fedeth ryotous men, shameth his father.

8 Who so increaseth his riches by vantage & wynnyng, let him gather them to helpe the poore withall.

9 He that turneth away his eare from hearinge ye lawe, his prayer shalbe abhorred.

10 Who so ledeth ye righteous in to an euell waye, shal fall in to his owne pytt, but ye iust shal haue the good in possession.

11 The rich man thynketh him self to be wyse, but the poore that hath vnderstandinge, ca perceauie him wel ynough.

12 When righteous men are in prosperite, the doth honoure flourish: but when the vngodly come vp, ye state of men chaungeth.

13 He that hydeth his synnes, shall not prospere: but who so knowlegeth them and forsaketh them, shall haue mercy.

14 Well is him that stodeth allwaye in awe: as for him that hardeneth his herte, he shal fall in to mischeffe.

15 Like as a roaringe lyon and an hongrie beer, euen so is an vngodly prynde ouer the poore people.

16 Where the prynde is without vnderstandinge, there is greate oppression & wronge: but yf he be soch one as hateth couetousnesse, he shal longe raigne.

17 He that by violece sheddeth eny mans bloude, shal be a rennagate vnto his graue, and no man shal be able to sucor him.

18 Who so leadeth a godly and an innocent life, shalbe safe: but he that goeth frowarde wayes, shall once haue a fall.

19 He yt tylleth his londe, shal haue plenteousnesse of bred: but he that foloweth ydilnesse, shal haue pouerte ynough.

20 A faithfull man is greatly to be commeded, but he that maketh to moch haist for to be riche, shal not be vngiltie.

21 To haue respecte of personnes in iudgment is not good: And why? he wil do wronge, yee euen for a pece of bred.

22 He that will be rich all to soone, hath an euell eye, and considereth not, that pouerte shall come vpon him.

23 He that rebuketh a man, shall fynde more faouere at ye last, the he that flatreth him.

24 Who so robbeth his father and mother, and sayeth it is no synne: the same is like vnto a mortherer.

25 He that is of a proude stomacke, stereth vp strife: but he that putteth his trust in ye LORDE, shalbe well fedd.

26 He that trusteth in his owne hert, is a foole: but he that dealeth wisely, shalbe safe.

27 He that geueth vnto the poore, shal not wante: but he that turneth away his eyes from soch as be in necessite, shall suffre greate pouerte hymself.

28 Whan the vngodly are come vp, men are fayne to hyde them selues: but whe they perish, the righteous increase.

Chapter 29

1 He that is stiffnecked & wyll not be reformed, shal sodenly be destroyed wt out eny helpe.

2 Where ye righteous haue the ouer hande, ye people are in prosperite: but where the vngodly beareth rule, there ye people mourne.

3 Who so loueth wy?dome, maketh his father a glad man: but he yt kepeth harlottes, spedeth away yt he hath.

4 With true iudgment ye kynge setteth vp the londe, but yf he be a man yt taketh giftes, he turneth it vpsyde downe.

5 Who so flatreth his neighbor, layeth a nette for his fete.

6 The synne of ye wicked is his owne snare, but ye righteous shal be glad and reioyse.

7 The righteous considreth the cause of the poore, but the vngodly regardeth no vnderstondynge.

8 Wicked people brynge a cite in decaye, but wyse men set it vp agayne.

9 Yf a wyse man go to lawe with a foole (whether he deale with him frendly or roughly) he getteth no rest.

10 The bloudethyrstie hate the righteous, but the iust seke his soule.

11 A foole pouereth out his sprete altogether, but a wyse man kepeth it in till afterwarde.

12 If a prynde delyte in lyes, all his seruauentes are vngodly.

13 The poore and the lender mete together, the LORDE lighteneth both their eyes.

14 The seate of the kinge yt faithfully iudgeth the poore, shal continue sure for euermore.

15 The rodde and correccion mynistrer wy?dome, but yf a childe be not loked vnto, he bryngeth his mother to shame.

16 When the vngodly come vp, wickednesse increaseth: but the righteous shall se their fall.

17 Nurture thy sonne with correccion, and he shal comforte the, yee he shal do the good at thine herte.

18 Where no prophet is, there the people perishe: but well is him that kepeth the lawe.

19 A seruaut wil not be the better for wordes, for though he vnderstonde, yet wil he not regarde them.

20 Yf thou seyest a man that is haistie to speake vnadysed, thou mayest trust a foole more then him.

21 He that delicately bryngeth vp his seruaut from a childe, shal make him his master at length.

22 An angrie man stereth vp strife, and he that beareth euell wyll in his mynde, doth moch euell.

23 After pryde commeth a fall, but a lowly sprete bryngeth greate worshippe.

24 Who so kepeth company wt a thefe, hateth his owne soule: he heareth blasphemies, & telleth it not forth.

25 He that feareth men, shal haue a fall: but who so putteth his trust in the LORDE, shal come to honor.

26 Many there be that seke ye prynces faouere, but euery mans iudgment commeth from the LORDE.

27 The righteous abhorre the vngodly: but as for those that be in ye right waye, ye wicked hate them.

Chapter 30

1 The wordes of Agur the sonne of Iake. The prophecie of a true faithfull man, who God hath helped, whom God hath coforted & norished.

2 For though I am ye leest of all, & haue no mas vnderstodie

3 (for I neuerlerned wi?dome) yet haue I vnderstodie & am wel enformed in godly thinges.

4 Who hath clymmed vp i to heauen? Who hath come downe from thence? Who hath holden ye wynde fast in his hade? Who hath coprehended ye waters in a garment? Who hath set all the endes of ye worlde? What is his name, or his sonnes name? Canst thou tell?

5 All the wordes of God are pure & cleane, for he is a shyld vnto all them, that put their trust in him.

6 Put thou nothinge therefore vnto his wordes, lest he reprove the, and thou be founde as a liar.

7 Two thinges I requyre of the, that thou wilt not denye me before I dye.

8 Remoue fro me vanite and lyes: geue me nether pouerte ner riches, only graunte me a necessary luyunge.

9 Lest yf I be to full, I denye ye, & saye: what felowe is ye LORDE? And lest I beinge constrainyd throw pouerte, fall vnto stealinge, and forswaere the name of my God.

10 Accuse not a seruaunt vnto his master, lest he speake euell of the also, and thou be hurte.

11 He that bryngeth vp an euell reporte vpo the generacion of his father and mother, is not worthy to be commended.

12 The generacion that thynke them selues cleane, shal not be censed from their fylthynesse.

13 There are people yt haue a proude loke, and cast vp their eye lyddes.

14 This peoples tethe are swerdes, and with their chaf bones they consume and deuoure the symple of the earth, and the poore from amonge me.

15 This generacion (which is like an horsleche) hath two daughters: ye one is called, fetch hither: the other, brynge hither.

16 There be thre thinges that are neuer satisfied, and the fourth saieth neuer hoo. The hell, a womans wombe, and the earth hath neuer water ynough. As for fyre, it sayeth neuer: hoo.

17 Who so laugheth his father to scorne, and setteth his mothers commaudemant at naught: the rauens pycke out his eyes in the valley, and deuoured be he of the yongle Aegles.

18 There be thre thinges to hye for me, and as for the fourth, it passeth my knowlege.

19 The waye of an Aegle in ye ayre, ye waye of a serpent ouer ye stone, ye waye of a shippe in ye see, & ye waye of a ma wt a yonge woma.

20 Soch is the waye also of a wyfe yt breaketh wedlocke, which wypeth hir mouth like as wha she hath eate, & sayeth: As for me, I haue done no harme.

21 Thorow thre thinges the earth is disquieted, & the fourth maye it not beare:

22 Thorow a seruaut yt beareth rule, thorow a foole yt hath greate riches, 23 thorow an ydle houswife, & thorow an handmayden yt is heyre to hir mastres.

24 There be foure thinges in the earth, the which are very litle: but in wy?dome they excede the wyse.

25 The Emmettes are but a weake people, yet gather they their meate together in ye haruest.

26 The conyes are but a feble folke, yet make they their couches amonge the rockes.

27 The greshoppers haue not a gyde, yet go they forth together by heapes.

28 The spyder laboureth wt hir hades, & yt in ye kynges palace.

29 There be thre thinges yt go stiffly, but the goinge of the fourth is the goodliet of all.

30 A Lyon which is kyng of bestes, & geueth place to no man:

31 A cock ready to fight: A rame: And a kyng yt goeth forth wt his people.

32 Yf thou be so foolish to magnifie yi self, or medlest wt eny soch thinge, the laye thine hade vpon yi mouth.

33 Who so chyrneth mylck, maketh butter: he that rubbeth his nose, maketh it blede, and he that causeth wrath, bryngeth forth strife.

Chapter 31

1 These are the wordes of Kyng Lamuel, & ye lesson yt his mother taught him.

2 My sonne, thou sonne of my body: O my deare beloued sonne,

3 geue not ouer thy substaunce & mynde vnto women, which are the destruccio eue of kynges.

4 O Lamuel, geue kinges no wyne, geue kynges & prynces no stronge drynke:

5 lest they beinge dronken forget the lawe, & regarde not ye cause of the poore, & of all soch as be in aduersite.

6 Geue stronge drynke vnto soch as are condempned to death, & wyne vnto those yt mourne:

7 that they maye drynke it, & forget their misery & aduersite.

8 Be thou an aduocate & stonde in iudgment thyself, to speake for all soch as be dome & scourles.

9 With yi mouth defende ye thinge yt is lafull and right, and ye cause of ye poore and helplesse.

10 Who so fyndeth an honest faithful woma, she is moch more worth the perles.

11 The herte of hir husbände maye safely trust in her, so that he shal haue no nede of spoyles.

12 She wil do him good & not euel all ye dayes of hir life.

13 She occupieth woll & flax, & laboureth gladly wt hir handes.

14 She is like a marchauntes shippe, that bryngeth hir vytales from farre.

15 She is vp in ye night season, to prouyde meate for hir housholde, & foode for hir maydens.

16 She considreth lode, & byeth it, and wt the frute of hir handes she planteth a vynyarde.

17 She gyrdeth hir loynes with strength, and courageth hir armes.

18 And yf she perceaue that hir houswifrie doth good, hir candle goeth not out by night.

19 She layeth hir fyngers to the spyndle, & hir hande taketh holde of ye rocke.

20 She openeth hir hande to ye poore, yee she stretcheth forth hir hades to soch as haue nede.

21 She feareth not yt the colde of wynter shal hurte hir house, for all hir housholde folkes are duple clothed.

22 She maketh hir self fayre ornametes, hir clothige is whyte sylke & purple.

23 Hir hu?bade is moch set by in ye gates, whe he sytteth amonge ye rulers of ye londe.

24 She maketh cloth of sylke & selleth it, and delyuereth a gyrdle vnto ye marchaut.

25 Stregth and honoure is hir clothinge, & in the latter daye she shal reioyse.

26 She openeth hir mouth with wy?dome, & in hir toge is the lawe of grace.

27 She loketh wel to the wayes of hir housholde, & eateth not hir bred with ydilnes.

28 Hir children arise & call hir blessed, & hir hu?bände maketh moch of her.

29 Many daughters there be yt gather riches together, but thou goest aboute the all.

30 As for fauor, it is disceatfull, and beutie is a vayne thinge: but a woman that feareth the LORDE, she is worthy to be prayسد.

31 Geue her of the frute of hir handes, and let hir owne workes prayse her in the gates.

ECCLESIASTES

Chapter 1

1 These are the wordes of the Preacher, the sonne of Daud, kyng of Ierusalem.

2 All is but vanite (saieth ye preacher) all is but playne vanite.

3 For what els hath a ma, of all the labor yt he taketh vnder the Sonne?

4 One generacio passeth awaye, another commeth, but the earth abydeeth still.

5 The Sone aryseth, the Sonne goeth downe, & returneth to his place, yt he maye there ryse vp agayne.

6 The wynde goeth towarde ye South, & fetcheth his copase aboute vnto the North, & so turneth in to himself agayne.

7 All floudes runne in to the see, & yet the see is not fylled: for loke vnto what place the waters runne, thence they come agayne.

8 All thinges are so harde, yt no ma can expresse them. The eye is not satisfied wt sight, the eare is not fylled wt hearinge.

9 The thinge yt hath bene, cometh to passe agayne: & ye thinge yt hath bene done, is done agayne, there is no new thinge vnder the Sonne.

10 Is there eny thinge, wherof it maye be sayde: lo, this is new? For it was loge agoo in the tymes yt haue bene before vs.

11 The thinge yt is past, is out of remembrance: Eue so the thiges that are for to come, shal no more be thought vpo amoge the that come after.

12 I myself ye Preacher, beyng kyng of Israel & Ierusalem,

13 applyed my mynde to seke out & search for the knowlege of all thiges yt are done vnder heaue. Soch trauayle & labor hath God geue vnto ye childre of me, to exerceyse the selues theri.

14 Thus I haue considered all the thinges that come to passe vnder the Sone, & lo, they are all but vanite & vexacion of mynde.

15 The croked can not be mayde straight, & the fautes ca not be nobred.

16 I comoned wt myne owne herte, sayege: lo, I am come to a greate estate, and haue gotte more wy?dome, the all they yt haue bene before me in Ierusalem. Yee my hert had greate experiece of wy?dome & knowlege,

17 for there vnto I applyed my mynde: yt I might knowe what were wy?dome & vnderstodinge, what were error & foolishnes. And I perceaued yt this also was but a vexacion of mynde:

18 for where moch wy?dome is, there is also greate trauayle & disquietnes: & ye more knowlege a man hath, the more is his care.

Chapter 2

1 The sayde I thus in my hert: Now go to, I wil take myne ease & haue good dayes. But lo, that was vanite also:

2 in so moch that I sayde vnto laughter: thou art madd, and to myrth: what doest thou?

3 So I thought in my herte, to withdrawe my flesh from wyne, to applye my mynde vnto wy?dome, and to comprehede foolishnes vntill the tyme that (amonge all ye thinges which are vnder ye Sonne) I might se what were best for men to do, so longe as they lyue vnder heauen.

4 I made gorgious fayre workes, I buylded me houses, and planted vynyardes:

5 I made me ortchardes and gardens of pleasure, and planted trees in them of all maner frutes.

6 I made poles of water, to water ye grene and frutefull trees withall.

7 I bought seruauentes and maydes, and had a greate housholde. As for catell and shepe, I had more substaunce of them, then all they yt were before me in Ierusalem.

8 I gathered syluer & golde together, euen a treasure of kynges & londes. I prouided me syngers and wome which coude playe of instrumentes, to make men myrth and pastime. I gat me drynkyng cuppes also and glasses.

9 (Shortly) I was greater & in more worshippe, then all my predecessours in Ierusalem. For wy?dome remayned with me:

10 & loke what so euer myne eyes desyred, I let them haue it: & wherin so euer my herte delyted or had eny pleasure, I with helde it not fro it. Thus my hert reioysed in all yt I dyd, and this I toke for the porcion of all my trauayle.

11 But whan I considered all the workes yt my handes had wrought, and all the labours that I had taken therin: lo, all was but vanite and vexacion of mynde, & nothinge of eny value vnder ye Sonne.

12 Then turned I me to considre wy?dome, erreure and foolishnesse (for what is he amonge men, that might be compared to me ye kyng in soch workes?)

13 And I sawe, that wy?dome excelleth foolishnesse, as farre as light doth darknesse.

14 For a wyse man beareth his eyes aboute in his heade, but the foole goeth in the darknesse. I perceaued also that they both had one ende.

15 Then thought I in my mynde: Yf it happen vnto the foole as it doth vnto me, what nedeth me then to labour eny more for wy?dome? So I confessed within my harte, that this also was but vanite.

16 For the wyse are euer as litle in remembraunce as the foolish, and all the dayes for to come shalbe forgotten, yee the wyse man dyeth as well as ye foole.

17 Thus begane I to be weery of my life, in so moch that I coude awaye with nothinge that is done vnder the Sonne, for all was but vanite & vexacion of mynde:

18 Yee I was weery of all my labour, which I had taken vnder the Sonne, because I shulde be fayne to leaue them vnto another man, that cometh after me: 19 for who knoweth, whether he shalbe a wyse ma or a foole? And yet shal he be lorde of all my labours, which I with soch wy?dome haue taken vnder the Sonne. Is not this a vayne thinge?

20 So I turned me to refrayne my mynde from all soch trauayle, as I toke vnder the Sonne:

21 for so moch as a man shulde weery him self with wy?dome, with vnderstandinge and opportunitie, and yet be fayne to leaue his labours vnto another, yt neuer swett for them. This is also a vayne thinge and a greate misery.

22 For what getteth a ma of all ye labor & trauayle of his mynde, yt he taketh vnder the Sonne, 23 but heynesse, sorowe & disquyetnes all ye dayes of his life? In so moch that his herte can not rest in the night. Is not this also a vayne thinge?

24 Is it not better then for a ma to eate and drynke, and his soule to be mery in his labour? Yee I sawe that this also was a gifte of God:

25 For who maye eate, drynke, or brynge eny thige to passe without him? And why?

26 he geueth vnto ma, what it pleaseth him: whether it be wy?dome, vnderstandinge, or gladnesse. But vnto the synner he geueth weerynes and sorow, that he maye gather and heape together ye thinge, yt afterwarde shalbe geuen vnto him whom it pleaseth God. This is now a vayne thinge, yee a very disquietnesse and vexacio of mynde.

Chapter 3

1 Every thinge hath a tyme, yee all that is vnder the heauen, hath is conuenient season.

2 There is a tyme to be borne, and a tyme to dye. There is a tyme to plate, and a tyme to plucke vp the thinge, yt is planted:

3 A tyme to slaye, and a tyme to make whole: A tyme to breake downe, and a tyme to buylde vp:

4 A tyme to wepe, and a tyme to laugh: A tyme to mourne, and a tyme to daunse:

5 A tyme to cast awaye stones, and a tyme to gather stones together: A tyme to embrace, & a tyme to refrayne from embracynge:

6 A tyme to wynne, and a tyme to lese: A tyme to spare, and a tyme to spende:

7 A tyme to cutt in peces, and a tyme to sowe together: A tyme to kepe sylece, and a tyme to speake:

8 A tyme to loue, & a tyme to hate: A tyme of warre, and a tyme of peace.

9 What hath a ma els (that doth eny thinge) but weerynesse and labour?

10 For as touchinge the trauayle and carefulnesse which God hath geuen vnto me, I se that he hath geuen it them, to be exercised in it.

11 All this hath he ordered maruelous goodly, to euery thinge his due tyme. He hath plated ignoraunce also in the hertes of men, yt they shulde not fynde out ye grounde of his workes, which he doth from ye beginninge to ye ende.

12 So I perceaued, yt in these thinges there is nothinge better for a man, the to be mery & to do well so longe as he lyueth.

13 For all yt a man eateth & drynket, yee what so euer a ma enioyeth of all his labor, ye same is a gift of God.

14 I cosidered also yt what so euer God doth, it cotinueth for euer, & yt nothinge can be put vnto it ner take from it: & yt God doth it to ye intent, yt men shulde feare him.

15 The thinge yt hath bene, is now: & the thinge yt is for to come, hath bene afore tyme, for God restoreth agayne the thinge that was past.

16 Morouer, I sawe vnder ye Sonne, vngodlynesse in the steade of iudgment, & iniquite in steade of rightuousnesse.

17 Then thought I in my mynde: God shal separate the rightuous from the vngodly, & then shal be the tyme & iudgment of all counsels & workes.

18 I comoned wt myne owne herte also cocernyng the childe of men: how God hath chosen them, and yet letteth the apere, as though they were beastes:

19 for it happeneth vnto men as it doth vnto beastes, & as the one dyeth, so dyeth ye other: yee they haue both one maner of breth, so yt (in this) a man hath no preemynce aboute a beest, but all are subdued vnto vanite.

20 They go all vnto one place, for as they be all of dust, so shal they all turne vnto dust againe.

21 Who knoweth the sprete of man yt goeth vpwarde, and the breth of the beest yt goeth downe in to the earth?

22 Wherefore I perceaued, yt there is nothinge better for a man, then to be ioyfull in his labour, for that is his porcion. But who wil brynge him to se the thinge, that shal come after him?

Chapter 4

1 So I turned me, and considered all the violent wronge that is done vnder the Sonne: and beholde, the teares of soch as were oppressed, and there was no man to comforte them, or that wolde delyuer and defende them from the violence of their oppressours.

2 Wherefore I iudged those that are deed, to be more happie then soch as be alyue: 3 yee him that is yet vnborne to be better at ease the they both, because he seith not the miserable workes that are done vnder the Sonne.

4 Agayne, I sawe that all trauayle and dilgence of labour was hated of euery man. This is also a vaine thinge, and a vexacion of mynde.

5 The foole foldeth his handes together, & eateth vp his owne flesh.

6 One handfull (saieth he) is better wt rest, the both ye handes full with labor and trauayle.

7 Morouer, I turned me, and beholde yet another vanite vnder the Sonne.

8 There is one man, no mo but himself alone, hauyng nether childe ner brother: yet is there no ende of his carefull trauayle, his eyes can not be satisfied with riches, (yee doth he not remembre himself, & saye:) For whom do I take soch trauayle? For whose pleasure do I thus consume awaye my lyfe? This is also a vayne and miserable thinge.

9 Therefore two are better then one, for they maye well enioye the profit of their labour.

10 Yf one of them fall, his companyon helpeth him vp againe: But wo is him that is alone, for yf he fall, he hath not another to helpe him vp.

11 Agayne, when two slepe together, they are warme: but how can a body be warme alone?

12 One maye be ouercome, but two maye make resistaunce: A thre folde cable is not lightly broken.

13 A poore childe beyng wyse, is better then an olde kinge, that doteth, and can not bewarre in tyme to come.

14 Some one commeth out of preson, & is made a kynge: & another which is borne in the kyngdome, commeth vnto pouerte.

15 And I perceaued, yt all men lyuyng vnder the Sonne, go wt the seconde childe, that commeth vp in the steade of the other.

16 As for the people that haue bene before him, and that come after him, they are innumerable: yet is not their ioye the greater thorow him. This is also a vayne thinge and a vexacion of mynde.

Chapter 5

1 Whan thou comest in to the house of God, kepe thy fote, and drawe nye, that thou mayest heare: that is better then the offeringes of fooles, for they knowe not what euell they do.

2 Be not hastie with thy mouth, & let not thine hert speake eny thige rashly before God. For God is in heauen, & thou vpon earth, therefore let thy wordes be fewe.

3 For where moch carefulnesse is, there are many dreames: & where many wordes are, there men maye heare fooles.

4 Yf thou make a vowe vnto God, be not slacke to performe it. As for foolish vowes, he hath no pleasure in them.

5 Yf thou promyse eny thinge, paye it: for better it is that thou make no vowe, then that thou shuldest promise, and not paye.

6 Vse not thy mouth to cause yi flesh for to synne, yt thou saye not before the angell: my foolishnesse is in ye faute. For the God wil be angrie at thy voyce, and destroye all ye workes of thine handes.

7 And why? where as are many dreames & many wordes, there are also dyuerse vanities: but loke yt thou feare God.

8 Yf thou seyst the poore to be oppressed and wrongeously dealt withall, so yt equite & the right of the lawe is wraisted in the londe: maruell not thou at soch iudgment, for one greate ma kepeth touch with another, and the mightie helpe the selues together.

9 The whole londe also with the feldes and all that is therein, is in subieccion and bondage vnto ye kinge.

10 He that loueth money, wil neuer be satisfied with money: and who so delyteth in riches, shal haue no profit therof. Is not this also a vayne thinge?

11 Where as many riches are, there are many also that spende them awaye. And what pleasure more hath he that possesseth them, sauynge that he maye loke vpon them with his eyes?

12 A labouringe man slepeth swetely, whether it be litle or moch that he eateth: but the abundaunce of the riche wil not suffre him to slepe.

13 Yet is there a sore plage, which I haue sene vnder the Sonne (namely) riches kepte to the hurte of him yt hath them in possession.

14 For oft times they perishe with his greate misery and trouble: and yf he haue a childe, it getteth nothinge.

15 Like as he came naked out of his mothers wombe, so goeth he thither agayne, and carieth nothinge awaye with him of all his labour.

16 This is a miserable plage, yt he shal go awaye euen as he came. What helpeth it him then, yt he hath labored in the wynde?

17 All the daies of his life also must he eate in the darcke, with greate carefulnesse, sicknesse & sorow.

18 Therefore me thinke it a better and a fayrer thinge, a man to eate and drynke, and to be refreshed of all his labour, yt he taketh vnder the Sonne all the dayes of his life which God geueth him, for this is his porcion.

19 For vnto whom so euer God geueth riches, goodes and power, he geueth it him to enioye it, to take it for his porcion, and to be refreshed of his labour: this is now the gifte of God.

20 For he thinketh not moch how longe he shal lyue, for so moch as God fylleth his hert with gladnesse.

Chapter 6

1 There is yet a plage vnder ye Sonne, &

it is a generall thinge amonge me:
 2 when God geueth a man riches, goodes & honoure, so that he wanteth nothinge of all that his herte can desyre: and yet God geueth him not leue to enioye the same, but another man spedeth them. This is a vayne thinge & a miserable plage.
 3 Yf a man begett an hundreth children, and lyue many yeares, so that his dayes are many in nombre, and yet can not enioye his good, nether be buried: as for him I saye, that an vntymely byrth is better then he.
 4 For he cometh to naught, & goeth his waye in to darcknes, and his name is forgotten.
 5 Morouer, he seyth not the Sonne, and knoweth of no rest nether here ner there:
 6 Yee though he lyued two thousande yeares, yet hath he no good life. Come not all to one place?
 7 All the labourate that a man taketh, is for himself, and yet his desyre is neuer fylled after his mynde.
 8 For what hath the wyse more then the foole? What helpeth it the poore, that he knoweth to walke before the luyunge?
 9 The sight of the eyes is better, then that the soule shulde so departe awaye. Howbeit this is also a vayne thinge and a disquietnesse of mynde.
 10 What is more excellent then man? yet can he not in the lawe get the victory of him that is mightier the he:
 11 A vayne thinge is it to cast out many wordes, but what hath a man els?
 12 For who knoweth what is good for man luyunge, in ye dayes of his vayne life, which is but a shadowe? Or, who wil tell a man, what shal happen after him vnder the Sonne?

Chapter 7

1 A good name is more worth then a precious oyntment, and the daye of death is better the ye daye of byrth.
 2 It is better to go in to an house of mournynge, then in to a bancket house. For there is the ende of all men, and he that is luyunge, taketh it to herte.
 3 It is better to be sory then to laugh, for whe the countenance is heuy, the herte is ioyfull.
 4 The herte of ye wyse is in the mournynge house, but the hert of the foolish is in the house of myrth.
 5 It is better to geue eare to the chastenynge of a wyse man, then to heare the songe of fooles.
 6 For the laughinge of fooles is like ye crackynge of thornes vnder a pott. And yt is but a vayne thinge.
 7 Who so doeth wronge, maketh a wyse man to go out of his witt, and destroyeth a gentle hert.
 8 The ende of a thinge is better then the begynnynge. The pacient of sprete is better then the hie mynded.
 9 Be not haistely angrie in yi mynde, for wrath resteth in the bosome of a foole.
 10 Saye not thou: What is the cause that ye dayes of ye olde tyme were better, then they yt be now? for that were no wyse question.

 11 Wy?dome is better then riches, yee moch more worth then the eye sight.
 12 For wy?dome defendeth as well as moneye, and the excellent knowlege and wy?dome geueth life vnto him that hath it in possession.
 13 Considre the worke of God, how that no man can make the thinge straight, which he maketh croked.
 14 Vse well the tyme of prosperite, and remembre the tyme of mysfortune: for God maketh the one by the other, so that a man can fynde nothinge els.
 15 These ij. thiges also haue I cosidred in ye tyme of vanite: yt the iust man perisheth for his rightuousnes sake, & the vngodly liueth in his wickednesse.
 16 Therfore be thou nether to rightuous ner ouer wyse, yt thou perish not:
 17 be nether to vnrightuous also ner to foolish, lest thou die before thy tyme.
 18 It is good for the to take holde of this, & not to let yt go out of thy hande. For he yt feareth God shal escape them all.
 19 Wy?dome geueth more corage vnto the wyse, then ten mightie men of the citie:
 20 for there is not one iust vpo earth, yt doth good, & sinneth not.
 21 Take not hede vnto euery worde yt is spoken, lest thou heare thy seruauent curse the:
 22 for thine owne hert knoweth, that thou thy self also hast oft tymes spoke euell by other men.
 23 All these thinges haue I proued because of wy?dome: for I thought to be wyse, but she wente farther fro me
 24 then she was before, yee & so depe that I might not reach vnto her.
 25 I applied my mynde also vnto knowlege, and to seke out sciece, wisdom and vnderstondinge: to knowe the foolishnesse of the vngodly, and the erreure of dotinge fooles.
 26 And I founde, that a woman is bytterer then death: for she is a very angle, hir hert is a nett, and hir handes are cheynes. Who so pleaseth God shal escape from her, but the synner will be taken wt her.
 27 Beholde (sayeth ye preacher) this haue I diligently searched out & proued, yt I might come by knowlege: which as yet I seke, and fynde it not.
 28 Amonge a thousande men I haue founde one, but not one woman amonge all.
 29 Lo, this onely haue I founde, that God made man iust & right, but they seke dyuerse sotylties,

Chapter 8

1 where as no man hath wy?dome & vnderstondinge, to geue answeere there vnto. Wy?dome maketh a mas face to shyne, but malice putteth it out of faouere.
 2 Kepe the kynges commaundemet (I warne the) & the ooth yt thou hast made vnto God.

 3 Be not haistie to go out of his sight, & se thou cotynue in no euell thinge: for what so euer it pleaseth him, yt doeth he.
 4 Like as when a kynge geueth a charge, his commaundement is mightie: Euen so who maye saye vnto him: what doest thou?
 5 Who so kepeth the commaundement, shall fele no harme: but a wyse mans herte discerneth tyme and maner:
 6 For euery thinge wil haue opportunitie and iudgment, and this is the thinge that maketh men full of carefulness & sorowe.
 7 And why? a man knoweth not what is for to come, for who wyll tell him?
 8 Nether is there eny ma yt hath power ouer ye sprete, to kepe stil ye sprete, ner to haue eny power in the tyme of death: It is not he also that can make an ende of the batayll, nether maye vngodlynes delyuer him yt medleth withall.
 9 All these thinges haue I considered, and applied my mynde vnto euery worke that is vnder the Sonne: how one man hath lordshipe vpon another to his owne harme.
 10 For I haue oft sene ye vngodly brought to their graues, and fallen downe from the hye and glorious place: in so moch yt they were forgotten in the cite, where they were had in so hye & greate reputacion. This is also a vayne thinge.
 11 Because now that euell workes are not haistely punyshed, the hert of man geueth him self ouer vnto wickednesse:
 12 But though an euell personne offende an hundreth tymes, and haue a longe life: yet am I sure, that it shal go well with the that feare God, because they haue him before their eyes.
 13 Agayne, as for the vngodly, it shall not be well with him, nether shal he prologe his dayes: but euen as a shadowe, so shall he be that feareth not God.
 14 Yet is there a vanite vpon earth: There be iust men, vnto whom it happeneth, as though they had the workes of the vngodly: Agayne, there be vngodly, with whom it goeth as though they had the workes of ye rightuous. This me thinke also a vaine thinge.
 15 Therfore I commende gladnesse, because a man hath no better thinge vnder the Sonne, then to eate and drynke, and to be mery: for that shal he haue of his labour all the daies of his life, which God geueth him vnder the Sonne.
 16 When I applied my mynde to lerne wy?dome, and to knowe the trauayle that is in the worlde (and that of soch a fashion, yt I suffred not myne eyes to slepe nether daye ner night)
 17 I vnderstode of all ye workes of God, that it is not possible for a man, to attayne vnto ye workes that are done vnder ye Sonne: and though he bestowe his labour to seke them out, yet can he not reach vnto the: yee though a wyse man wolde vndertake to knowe them, yet might he not fynde them.

Chapter 9

1 For all these thinges purposed I in my mynde to seke out. The righteus and wyse yee and their workes also are in the hande of God: and there is no man that knoweth ether the loue or hate of the thinge that he hath before him.
 2 It happeneth vnto one as vnto another: It goeth with the rightuous as with the vngodly: with the good & cleane as with the vnclane: with him that offereth as with him that offereth not: like as it goeth with the vertuous, so goeth it also with the synner: As it happeneth vnto the periured, so happeneth it also vnto him that is afrayed to be man sworne.
 3 Amonge all thinges yt come to passe vnder the Sonne, this is a misery, that it happeneth vnto all alyke. This is the cause also that the hertes of men are full of wickednesse, & madd foolishnesse is in their hertes as longe as they lyue, vntill they dye.
 4 And why? As longe as a man lyueth, he is careles: for a quyck dogg (saye they) is better the a deed lion:
 5 for they that be luyunge, knowe yt they shall dye: but they yt be deed, knowe nothinge, nether deserue they eny more. For their memoriall is forgotte,
 6 so yt they be nether loued, hated ner envyed: nether haue they eny more parte in ye worlde, in all yt is done vnder the Sonne.
 7 Go thou yi waye then, eate thy bred with ioye, & drynke yi wyne wt gladnesse, for thy workes please God.
 8 Let thy garmetes be all waye whyte, & let yi heade want no oyntmet.
 9 Vse thy self to lyue ioyfully wt thy wife whom thou louest, all ye daies of thy life (which is but vayne) yt God hath geue the vnder the Sonne, all ye dayes of thy vanite: for yt is thy porcion in this life, of all thy labor & trauayle yt thou takest vnder the Sonne.
 10 What so euer thou takest in hande to do, that do with all thy power: for amoge the deed (where as thou goest vnto) there is nether worke, counsell, knowlege ner wy?dome.
 11 So I turned me vnto other thinges vnder ye Sonne, and I sawe, that in runnyng, it helpeth not to be swift: in batayll, it helpeth not to be stronge: to fedyng, it helpeth not to be wyse: to riches, it helpeth not to be sutyll: to be had in faouere, it helpeth not to be connyng: but that all lyeth in tyme & fortune.
 12 For a man knoweth not his tyme, but like as the fyshe are take with the angle, and as the byrdes are catched wt the snare: Eue so are men taken in the perilous tyme, when it commeth sodenly vpon them.
 13 This wi?dome haue I sene also vnder ye Sone, & me thought it a greate thinge.
 14 There was a litle cite, & a fewe me within it: so there came a greate kynge & beseged it, & made greate bulworkes agaynst it.

15 And in the cite there was founde a poore man (but he was wyse) which wt his wy?dome delyuered the cite: yet was there no body, yt had eny respecte vnto soch a symple man.

16 Then sayde I: wy?dome is better then strength. Neuertheles, a symple mans wy?dome is despysed, & his wordes are not herde.

17 A wise mans counsell that is folowed in sylence, is farre aboute the crienge of a captaine amoge foolles.

18 For wy?dome is better then harnesse: but one vnthrifft alone destroyeth moch good.

Chapter 10

1 Deed flies yt corruppe swete oyntment & make it to styncke, are somthinge more worth then the wy?dome & honor of a foole.

2 A wyse mans hert is vpon the right hande, but a fooles hert is vpon the left.

3 A dotinge foole thinketh, yt euery ma doth as foolishly as himself.

4 Yf a principall sprete be geue the to beare rule, be not negligeth in thine office: for so shal greate wickednesse be put downe, as it were wt a medecyne.

5 Another plage is there, which I haue sene vnder the Sonne: namely, ye ignorauce yt is comonly amonge prynces:

6 in yt a foole sytteth in greate dignite, & the rich are sett downe beneth:

7 I se seruautes ryde vpon horses, & prynces goinge vpon their fete as it were seruautes.

8 But he yt dyggeth vp a pytt, shall fall therin himself: & who so breaketh downe the hedge, a serpent shal byte him.

9 Who so remoueth stones, shall haue trauayle withall: and he that heweth wod, shalbe hurt therwith.

10 When an yron is blont, and ye poynt not sharpened, it must be whett againe, and that with might: Euen so doth wi?dome folowe diligence.

11 A babler of his tonge is no better, then a serpent that styngeth without hyssynge.

12 The wordes out of a wyse mans mouth are gracious, but the lippes of a foole wil destroye himself.

13 The begynnynge of his talkynge is foolishnes, and the last worde of his mouth is greate madnesse.

14 A foole is so full of wordes, that a man can not tell what ende he wyll make: who wyl then warne him to make a conclusion?

15 The labour of ye foolish is greuous vnto the, while they knowe not how to go in to the cite.

16 Wo be vnto the (O thou realme and londe) whose kynge is but a childe, and whose prynces are early at their banquettes.

17 But well is the (O thou realme and londe) whose kinge is come of nobles, and whose prynces eate in due season, for strength and not for lust.

18 Thorow slouthfulness the balkes fall downe, and thorow ydle hades it rayneth in at the house.

19 Meate maketh men to laugh, and wyne maketh them mery: but vnto money are all thinges obedient.

20 Wysh the kynge no euell in yi thought, and speake no hurte of ye ryche in thy preyu chambre: for a byrde of the ayre shal betraye thy voyce, and wt hir fethers shal she bewraye thy wordes.

Chapter 11

1 Sende thy vytales ouer the waters, and so shalt thou fynde the after many yeares.

2 Geue it awaye amonge seuen or eight, for thou knowest not what misery shal come vpo earth.

3 Whe the cloudes are full, they poure out rayne vpon the earth. And whe ye tre falleth, (whether it be towarde the south or north) in what place so euer it fall, there it lyeth.

4 He that regardeth ye wynde, shal not sowe: and he that hath respecte vnto the cloudes, shal not reape.

5 Now like as thou knowest not the waye of the wynde, ner how ye bones are fylled in a mothers wombe: Euen so thou knowest not the workes of God, which is the workemaster of all.

6 Cease not thou therfore with thy handes to sowe thy sede, whether it be in ye mornynge or in the euenynge: for thou knowest not whether this or that shall prospere, & yf they both take, it is the better.

7 The light is swete, & a pleasaunt thinge is it for the eyes to loke vpon the Sonne.

8 Yf a man lyue many yeares, and be glad in them all, let him remembre the dayes of darcknesse, which shalbe many: & when they come, all thinges shalbe but vanite.

9 Be glad then (O thou yonge man) in thy youth, and lat thine hert be mery in thy yonge dayes: folowe the wayes of thine owne hert, and the lust of thine eyes: but be thou sure, that God shal bringe the in to iudgment for all these thinges.

10 Pvt awaye displeasure out of yi hert, & remoue euell from thy body: for childehode and youth is but vanite.

Chapter 12

1 Remembre thy maker in thy youth, or euer the dayes of aduersite come, and or the yeares drawe nye, when thou shalt saye: I haue no pleasure in them:

2 before the Sonne, ye light, ye Moone and the starres be darckened, and or the cloudes turne agayne after the rayne:

3 when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and when the stronge men shal bowe them selues: when the Myllers stonde still because they be so fewe, and when the sight of the wyndowes shal waxe dymme:

4 whan the dores in the stretes shal be shutt, and whan ye voyce of the Myller shall be layed downe: whan men shall ryse vp at the voyce of the byrde, and whan all ye doughters of musyck shalbe brought lowe:

5 whan men shal feare in hye places, and be afrayed in the stretes: whan the Almonde tre shalbe despysed, the greshopper borne out, and whan greate pouerte shall breake in: when man goeth to his longe home, and the mourners go aboute the stretes.

6 Or euer the syluer lace be taken awaye, and or the golden bende be broken: Or the pott be broken at the well, & the whele vpon the Cisterne:

7 Or dust be turned againe vnto earth from whence it came, and or the sprete returne vnto God, which gaue it.

8 All is but vanite (sayeth the preacher) all is but playne vanite.

9 The same preacher was not wyse alone, but taught the people knowlege also: he gaue good hede, sought out the groude and set forth many parables.

10 His diligence was to fynde out acceptable wordes, right scripture, and the wordes of trueth.

11 For the wordes of ye wyse are like prickes and nales that go thorow, wherwith men are kepte together: for they are geuen of one shepherde onely.

12 Therefore bewarre (my sonne) that aboute these thou make the not many & innumerable bokes, nor take dyuerse doctrynes in hande, to weery thy body withall.

13 Lat vs heare the conclusion of all thinges: Feare God, and kepe his comaundementes, for that toucheth all men:

14 For God shall iudge all workes and secrete thinges, whether they be good or euell.

SONG OF SOLOMON

Chapter 1

1 Salomons Balettes, called Cantica Canticorum.

2 O that thy mouth wolde geue me a kysse, for yi brestes are more pleasaunt then wyne,

3 & that because of the good and pleasaunt sauoure. Thy name is a swete smellynge oyntment, therfore do the maydens loue the:

4 yee that same moueth me also to renne after the. The kynge hath brought me into his preyu chambre. We wil be glad & reioyce in the, we thynke more of thy brestes then of wyne: well is them that loue the.

5 I am black (o ye doughters of Ierusalem) like as the tentes of the Cedarenes, and as the hanginges of Salomon:

6 but yet am I faire & welfauoured withal. Maruell not at me yt I am so black, & why? ye Sonne hath shyned vpo me. For whan my mothers childe had euell wil at me, they made me ye keeper of the vnyarde. Thus was I fayne to kepe a vnyarde, which was not myne owne.

7 Tell me (o thou whom my soule loueth) where thou fedest, where thou restest at the noone daye: lest I go wronge, and come vnto the flockes of thy companions,

8 Yf thou knowe not yi self (o thou fayrest amoge women) tha go yi waye forth after ye fotesteppes of the shepe, as though thou woldest fede yi goates besyde ye shepherdes tentes.

9 There wil I tary for the (my loue) wt myne hoost & with my charettes, which shalbe no fewer then Pharaos.

10 Then shal thy chekes & thy neck be made fayre, & hanged wt spages & goodly iewels:

11 A neck bande of golde wil we make ye wt syluer bottons.

12 When the kynge sytteth at the table, he shal smell my Nardus:

13 for a bodell of Myrre (o my beloued) lyeth betwixte my brestes.

14 A cluster of grapes of Cypers, or of the vnyardes of Engaddi, art thou vnto me, O my beloued.

15 O how fayre art thou (my loue) how fayre art thou? thou hast doues eyes.

16 O how fayre art thou (my beloued) how well faoured art thou? Oure bed is decte with floures, 17 ye sylinges of oure house are of Cedre tre, & oure balkes of Cypresse.

Chapter 2

1 I am the floure of the felde, and lylie of the valleys:

2 as the rose amonge the thornes, so is my loue amonge the daughters.

3 Like as the aples tre amonge the trees of the wodd, so is my beloued amonge the sonnes. My delite is to sitt vnder his shadowe, for his frute is swete vnto my throte.

4 He bryngeth me in to his wyne seller, and loueth me specially well.

5 Refresh me wt grapes, coforte me with apples, for I am sick of loue.

6 His left hade lyeth vnder my heade, & his right hande embraceth me.

7 I charge you (o ye doughters of Ierusalem) by the Roes & hyndes of the felde, yt ye wake not vp my loue ner touch her, till she be content herself.

8 Me thynke I heare the voyce of my beloued: lo, there commeth he hoppinge vpon ye mountaynes, and leapinge ouer the litle hilles.

9 My beloued is like a Roo or a yonge hart. Beholde, he stondest behynde or wall, he loketh in at the wyndowe, & pepeth thorow the grate.

10 My beloued answered & sayde vnto me: O stode vp my loue, my doue, my beautyfull, & come:

11 for lo, the wynter is now past, the rayne is awaie & gone.

12 The floures are come vp in the felde, the twystringe tyme is come, the voyce of the turtle doue is herde in oure londe.

13 The fyge tre bryngeth forth hir fyges, the vynes beare blossoms, and haue a good smell. O stode vp my loue, my beutyfull, and come

 14 (my doue) out of the caues of the rockes, out of the holes of the wall: O let me se thy countenance and heare thy voyce, for swete is thy voyce and fayre is thy face.
 15 Gett vs the foxes, yee the litle foxes that hurte ye vynes, for oure vynes beare blossoms.
 16 My loue is myne, and I am his, (which fedeth amoge the lylies)
 17 vntill the daye breake, and till the shadowes be gone. Come agayne preuely (o my beloued) like as a Roo or a yonge harte vnto the mountaynes.

Chapter 3

1 By night in my bedd, I sought him, whom my soule loueth: yee diligently sought I him, but I founde him not.
 2 I wil get vp (thought I) and go aboute the cite: vpon the market and in all ye stretes will I seke him whom my soule loueth, but whan I sought him, I founde him not.
 3 The watchmen that go aboute ye cite, founde me. Sawe ye not him, whom my soule loueth?
 4 So whan I was a litle past them, I founde him whom my soule loueth. I haue gotten holde vpon him, and wyl not let him go, vntill I brynge him into my mothers house, and in to hir chambre that bare me.
 5 I charge you (o ye daughters of Ierusalem) by the Roes and hyndes of the felde, that ye wake not vp my loue ner touch her, till she be content herself.
 6 Who is this, that commeth out of ye wyldernesse like pilers of smoke, as it were a smell of Myrre, frankencense and all maner spycyces of the Apotecary?
 7 Beholde, aboute Salomos bedsteade there stonde LX. valeaunt men of the mightie in Israel.
 8 They holde swerdes euery one, & are experte in warre. Euery man hath his swerde vpo his thee, because of feare in the night.
 9 Kynge Salomon hath made himself a bedsteade of the wodd of Libanus,
 10 the pilers are of syluer, the coueringe of golde, ye seate of purple, ye grounde pleasauntly pauerd for the daughters of Ierusalem.
 11 Go forth (o ye daughters of Sion) and beholde kynge Salomon in the crowne, wherwith his mother crowned him in the daye of his mariage, and in the daye of the gladnesse of his hert.

Chapter 4

1 O how fayre art thou (my loue) how fayre art thou? thou hast doues eyes besyde that which lyeth hid within.
 2 Thy hayrie lockes are like a flocke of shepe that be clypped, which go first vp from the washinge place: where euery one beareth two twyns, and not one vnfrutefull amoge them.
 3 Thy lippes are like a rose coloured rybende, thy wordes are louely: thy chekes are like a pece of a pomgranate, besydes that which lyed hyd within.

 4 Thy neck is like the tower of Daud buylded with bulworkes, wher vpon there hage a thousande sheldes, yee all the weapes of the giautes.
 5 Thy two brestes are like two twyns of yonge roes, which fede amoge the lilies.
 6 O that I might go to the mountayne of Myrre, and to the hyll of frankynsense: till the daye breake, and till the shadowes be past awaye.
 7 Thou art all fayre (o my loue) & no spott is there in the.
 8 Come to me from Libanus (o my spouse) come to me from Libanus: come soone the next waye from the toppe of Amana, from the toppe of Sanir and Hermon, from the Lyons dennes and from the mountaynes of ye leopardes.
 9 Thou hast wouDED my hert (o my sister, my spouse) thou hast wounded my hert, with one of thine eyes, and with one cheyne of thy neck.
 10 O how fayre and louely are thy brestes, my sister, my spouse? Thy brestes are more pleasaunt then wyne, and the smell of thy oyntmentes passeth all spices.
 11 Thy lippes (o my spouse) droppe as the hony combe, yee mylck and hony is vnder thy tonge, and the smell of thy garmentes is like the smell of frankynsense.
 12 Thou art a well kepte garden (o my sister, my spouse) thou art a well kepte water sprynge, a sealed well.
 13 The frutes that sproute in the, are like a very paradysse of pogramates wt swete frutes:
 14 as Cypresse, Nardus, Saffron, Calmus, and all the trees of Libanus: Myrre, Aloes, and all the best spycyces.
 15 Thou art a well of gardens, a well of luyunge waters, which renne downe from Libanus.
 16 Vp thou northwynde, come thou southwynde, and blowe vpo my garde, that the smell therof maye be caried on euery syde: Yee that my beloued maye come in to my garden, & eate of the frutes and apples that growe therein.

Chapter 5

1 Come in to my garden o my sister, my spouse: I haue gathered my Myrre wt my spycy. I wil eate my hony and my hony cobe, I wil drynke my wyne & my mylk Eate o (ye frendes) drynke and be mery, o ye beloued.
 2 As I was a slepe, & my hert wakyng, I herde the voyce of my beloued, wha he knocked. Open to me (sayde he) o my sister, my loue, my doue, my derlinge: for my heade is full of dew, and ye lockes of my hayre are full of the night droppes.
 3 I haue put off my cote, how ca I do it on agayne? I haue washed my fete, how shal I fyle them agayne?
 4 But whan my loue put in his hande at the hole, my hert was moued towarde him:

 5 so that I stode vp to open vnto my beloued. My hades dropped wt Myrre, & the Myrre ranne downe my fyngers vpon ye lock.
 6 Neuerthelesse wha I had opened vnto my beloued, he was departed, and gone his waye. Now like as afore tyme whan he spake, my hert coude no longer refrayne: Euen so now I sought hi, but I coude not fynde him: I cried vpon him, neuerthelesse he gaue me no answer.
 7 So the watchmen that wente aboute the cite, foude me, smote me, and wounded me: Yee they that kepte the walles, toke awaye my garnet fro me.
 8 I charge you therfore (o ye daughters of Ierusalem) yf ye fynde my beloued, that ye tell him, how that I am sick for loue.
 9 Who is thy loue aboute other louers, O thou fayrest amonge wemen? Or, what can thy loue do, more then other louers, that thou chargest vs so straitly?
 10 As for my loue, he is whyte and reade coloured, a synguler personne amonge many thousandes:
 11 his heade is the most fyne golde, the lockes of his hayre are bu?shed, browne as the euenynge:
 12 His eyes are as the eyes of doues by the water brokes, washen with mylck, and remaynyng in a plenteous place:
 13 His chekes are like a garden bedd, where in the Apotecaryes plate all maner of swete thinges: His lippes droppe as the floures of the most princypall Myrre,
 14 his hades are full of golde rynges and precious stones. His body is as the pure yuery, decte ouer with Saphyres:
 15 His legges are as the pilers of Marbell, sett vpon sokettes of golde: His face is as Libanus, and as the bewty of the Cedre trees:
 16 His throte is swete, yee he is alltogether louely. Soch one is my loue (o ye daughters of Ierusalem) soch one is my loue.

Chapter 6

1 Whither is thy loue gone the (o thou fayrest amonge weme) whither is thy loue departed, that we maye seke him with the?
 2 My loue is gone downe in to his garden, vnto ye swete smellingge beddes, that he maye refresh himself in the garden, and gather floures.
 3 My loue is myne, and I am his, which fedeth amonge the lilies.
 4 Thou art pleasaunt (o my loue) euen as louelynesse itself, thou art fayre as Ierusalem, glorious as an armye of men with their baners
 5 (Turne awaye thine eyes fro me, for they make me to proude) Thy hayrie lockes are like a flocke of goates vpon ye mount of Galaad.
 6 Thy teth are like a flock of shepe yt be clypped, which go out of the washinge place: where euery one beareth two twyns, & not one vnfrutefull amoge them.
 7 Thy chekes are like a pece of a pomgranate, besydes yt which lyeth hid within.

 8 There are thre score quenes, foure score concubynes, and yonge weme without nombre.
 9 But one is my doue, my derlyng. She is the onely beloued of hir mother, & deare vnto her that bare her. Wha the daughters sawe her, they sayde she was blessed: Yee the quenes and concubines prayed her.
 10 What is she this, that pepeth out as the mornynge? fayre as the Moone, excellent as the Sonne, glorious as an armye of men with their banners?
 11 I wente downe in to the nutt garden, to se what grew by the brokes, to loke yf the vynyarde florished, and yf the pomgranates were shot forth.
 12 Then the charettes of the prynce of my people made me sodenly afrayed.
 13 Turne againe, turne againe (O thou Sulamite) turne agayne, turne agayne, that we maye loke vpon the. What pleasure haue ye more in ye Sulamite, than when she daunseth amonge the men of warre?

Chapter 7

1 O how pleasaunt are thy treadinges with thy shues, thou prynces daughter? Thy thees are like a fayre iewell, which is wrought by a connyng workmaster:
 2 Thy nauell is like a rounde goblett, which is neuer without drynke: Thy wombe is like an heape of wheate, sett aboute with lilies:
 3 Thy two brestes are like two twyns of yonge roes:
 4 Thy neck is as it were a tower of yuery: Thyne eyes are like ye water poles in Hesebon, besyde the porte of Bathrabbim: Thy nose is like the tower of Libanus, which loketh towarde Damascus:
 5 That heade that stondest vpon the is like Carmel: The hayre of thy heade is like the kynges purple folden vp in plates.
 6 O how fayre and louely art thou (my derlyng) in pleasures?
 7 Thy stature is like a date tre, and thy brestes like the grapes. I sayde:
 8 I wil clymme vp into the date tre, and take holde of his braunches. Thy brestes also shalbe as the vyne grapes, the smell of thy nostrels like the smell of apples,
 9 and thy throte like the best wyne. This shalbe pure & cleare for my loue, his lippes and teth shal haue their pleasure.
 10 There wil I turne me vnto my loue, and he shal turne him vnto me.
 11 O come on my loue, let vs go forth in to the felde, and take oure lodginge in the vyllages.
 12 In the mornynge wil we ryse by tymes, and go se the vynyarde: yf it be spronge forth, yf the grapes be growne, & yf the pomgranates be shott out. There wil I geue the my brestes:
 13 There shal the Mandragoras geue their smell besyde oure dores: There (o my loue) haue I kepte vnto the all maner of frutes, both new and olde.

Chapter 8

1 O that I might fynde the without & kysse ye, whom I loue as my brother which suckte my mothers brestes: & that thou woldest not be offended,

2 yf I toke the and brought the in to my mothers house: that thou mightest teach me, and that I might geue the drynke of spyced wyne and of the swete sappe of my pomgranates.

3 His left hande lyeth vnder my heade, & his right hande embraceth me.

4 I charge you (o ye daughters of Ierusalem) that ye wake not vp my loue ner touch her, tyll she be content herself.

5 What is she this, that cometh vp from the wildernes, and leaneth vpon hir loue? I am the same that waked the vp amonge the aple trees, where thy mother beare ye, where yi mother brought the in to the worlde.

6 O set me as a seale vpo thine hert, and as a seale vpon thine arme: for loue is mightie as the death, & gelously as the hell. Hir coales are of fyre, and a very flamme of the LORDE:

7 so yt many waters are not able to quench loue, nether maye ye streames drowne it. Yee yf a man wolde geue all the good of his house for loue, he shulde counte it nothinge.

8 When oure loue is tolde oure yonge sister, whose brestes are not yet growne, what shal we do vnto her?

9 Yf she be a wall, we shal buylde a syluer bollworke there vpon: Yf she be a tower, we shal festen her with bordes of Cedre tre.

10 Yf I be a wall, & my brestes like towres, then am I as one that hath founde fauoure in his sight.

11 Salomon had a vynyarde at Baal Hamon, this vynyarde delyuered he vnto the keepers: yt euery one for the frute therof shulde geue him a thousande peces of syluer.

12 But my vynyarde (o Salomon) geueth the a thousande, and two hundreth to ye keepers of the frute.

13 Thou that dwellest in the gardens, O let me heare thy voyce, that my companions maye herken to the same.

14 O get the awaye (my loue) as a roo or a yonge hert vnto the swete smellinge moutaynes.

ISAIAH

Chapter 1

1 This is the prophecy of Esay the sonne of Amos, which he shewed vpon Iuda and Ierusalem: In the tyme of Osias, Ioathan, Ahas, and Ezechias kynges of Iuda.

2 Heare o heauen, herken o earth, for the LORDE speaketh: I haue norished & brought vp children, and they are fallen awaye from me.

3 An oxen knoweth his LORDE, and an Assen his masters stall, but Israel knoweth nothinge, my people hath no vnderstandinge.

4 Alas for this synful people, which are experte in blasphemies, a frawerde generacion, vnnatural children. They haue forsaken the LORDE, they haue prouoked the holy one of Israel vnto anger, and are gone backward.

5 Wherefore shulde ye be plaged eny more? For ye are euer fallinge awaye. The whole heade is sick, and the herte is very heuy.

6 From the sole of the foote vnto the heade, there is no whole parte in all yor body: but all are woundes, botches, sores and strypes, which can nether be helped, bounde vp, mollified, ner eased with eny oymntment.

7 Youre londe lieth waist, youre cities are brent vp, youre enemies deuoure youre londe, and ye must be fayne to stonde, and loke vpon it: and it is desolate, as it were with enemies in a batell.

8 Morouer ye doughter of Syon is left alone like a cotage in a vnyearde, like a watchouse in tyme of warre, like a beseged cite.

9 And excepte the LORDE of hostes had left us a fewe alyue: we shulde haue bene as Sodoma, & like vnto Gomorra.

10 Heare the worde of the LORDE ye tyrauntes of Sodoma: and herken vnto the lawe of oure God, thou people of Gomorra.

11 Why offre ye so many sacrifices vnto me? I am discontent for the brentoffringes of wethers, and with ye fatnesse offedbeastes. I haue no pleasure in the bloude of bullockes, lambes and gootes.

12 When ye apere before me, who requyeth you to treade within my porches?

13 Offre me no mo oblacions, for it is but lost labour. I abhorre youre incense. I maye not awaye with youre newmoones, youre Sabbathes and solemne dayes. Youre fastinges are also in vayne.

14 I hate youre new holy dayes and fastinges, euen fro my very harte. They make me weery, I can not abyde them.

15 Though ye holde out yor hondes, yet turne I myne eyes from you. And though ye make many prayers, yet heare I nothinge at all, for youre hondes are full of bloude.

16 Wash you, make you clene, put awaye yor euell thoughtes out of my sight, cease from doinge of euell and violence.

17 Lerne to do right, applie youre selues to equitye, delyuer the oppressed, helpe the fatherlesse to his right, let the wydowes complaynte come before you.

18 Now go to (saieth the LORDE) we wil talke together. Is it not so? Though youre synnes be as read as scarlet, shal they not be whyter then snowe? And though they were like purple, shall they not be like whyte woll?

19 Is it not so? Yf ye be louynge & obedient, ye shal enioye the best thinge that groweth in the londe.

20 But yf ye be obstinate and rebellious, ye shalbe deuoured with the swerde: for thus the LORDE hath promised with his owne mouth.

21 How happeneth it then that the righteous cite (which was full of equitye) is become vnfaithfull as an whore? righteousnes dwelt in it, but now murthur.

22 Thy Siluer is turned to drosse, and thy wyne myxte wt water.

23 Thy prynces are traytours and companions of theues. They loue giftes altogether, and folowe rewardes. As for the fatherles, they helpe him not to his right, nether wil they let the wydowes causes come before them.

24 Therefore speaketh the LORDE God of hostes the mighty one of Israel: Ah I must ease me of myne enemies, and a venge me vpo the.

25 And therefore shal I laye my honde vpon the, and burne out thy drosse from the fynest and purest, and put out all thy leade, 26 & set thy iudges agayne as they were somtyme, and thy Senatours as they were from ye begynnyng. Then shalt thou be called the righteous cite, the faithful cite.

27 But Sion shalbe redemed with equitye, and hyr captiuyte with righteousnesse

28 For the transgressours and vngodly, and soch as are become vnfaithfull vnto the LORDE, must all together be vtterly destroyed.

29 And excepte ye be ashamed of the oketrees wherin ye haue so delited, and of the gardes that ye haue chosen:

30 ye shalbe as an oke whose leaues are fallen awaye, and as a garden that hath no moystnesse.

31 And as for the glory of these thinges, it shalbe turned to drie strawe, and he that made them to a sparke. And they shal both burne together, so that no man shalbe able to quench them.

Chapter 2

1 Morouer this is the worde that was opened vnto Esaye the sonne of Amos, vpon Iuda and Ierusalem.

2 It will be also in processe of tyme: That the hill where the the house of the LORDE is buylded, shal be ye chefe amoge hilles, and exalted aboue al litle hilles. And al heithe shal prease vnto him and the multitude of people shall go vnto him,

3 speakinge thus one to another: vp, let us go to the hill of the LORDE, and to the house of ye God of Iacob: yt he maye shewe us his waye, and yt we maye walke in his pathes. For ye lawe shal come out of Syon, and the worde of God from Ierusalem,

4 and shal geue sentence amonge the heithen, and shal reforme the multitude of people: So that they shal breake their swerdes and speares, to make sythes, cycles & sawes therof. From that tyme forth shal not one people lift vp wapen agaynst another, nether shal they lerne to fight from thensforth.

5 It is to the that I crie (o house of Iacob) vp, let us walke in the light of the LORDE.

6 But thou art scatred abroad with thy people (o house of Iacob) for ye go farre beyonde yor fathers, whether it be in Sorcerers) whom ye haue as the phylistynes had) or in calkers of mens byrthes, wherof ye haue to many.

7 As soone as youre londe was ful of syluer and golde, and no ende of youre treasure: so soone as youre londe was ful of stronge horses and no ende of youre charettes:

8 Inmediatly was it ful of Idols also, euen workes of youre owne hondes, which ye youre selues haue facioned, and youre fyngers haue made.

9 There kneleth the man, there falleth the man downe before them, so yt thou canst not bringe him awaye from thence.

10 And therefore get ye soone in to some rock, vnd hyde the in the grounde from the sight of the fearful iudge, and from ye glory of his Magestie.

11 Which casteth downe ye high lokes of presumptuous persones, and bryngeth lowe the pryde of ma, and he only shall be exalted in ye daye.

12 For the daye of ye LORDE of hostes shal go ouer all pryde & presumpcio, vpon all the that exalte the selues, and shal bringe them all downe?

13 vpo all high & stoute Cedre trees of Libanus, and vpon all the okes of Basan, 14 vpon all high hilles, and vpon all stoute mountaynes,

15 vpon all costly towres, and vpon all stronge walles,

16 vpon all shippes of the see, and vpon euery thinge yt is glorious and pleasaunt to loke vpon.

17 And it shall bringe downe the pryde of man, and laye mans presumptuousnesse full lowe, and the LORDE shal only haue the victory in that daye.

18 But the Idols shal utterly be roted out. 19 Men shal crepe in to holes of stone, and in to caues of the earth, from the sight of the fearfull iudge, and from the glory of his magesty: what tyme as he shal make him vp to shake the earth.

20 Then, the shal ma cast awaye his goddes of syluer and golde (which he neuertheles had made to honoure the) vnto Molles and Backes:

21 that he maye the better crepe in to the caues and rockes, and in to the cliffes of hard stones, from ye sight of the fearful iudge and from the glory of his Magesty.

22 Every man can eschue a persone moued in anger, for what doth he wysely?

Chapter 3

1 Euen so shal ye LORDE of hoostes take awaye fro Ierusalem & Iuda, all possessios & power, all meat and drinke, 2 ye captayne and the soudyare, ye iudge and the prophete, the wyse and the aged ma,

3 the worshipful of fiftie yeare olde, and the honorable: the Senatours, and men of vnderstandinge: the masters of craftes and oratours.

4 And I shal geue you children to be youre prynces (saieth the LORDE) and babes shall haue the rule of you.

5 One shall euer be doinge violence and wronge to another. The boye shal presume agaynst the elder, and the vyle persone agaynst the honorable.

6 Yee one shal take a frende of his owne kynred by ye bosome, and saye: thou hast clothinge, thou shalt be oure heade, for thou mayest kepe us from this fall and parell.

7 Then shall he sweare and saye: I can not helpe you. Morouer, there is nether meate ner clothinge in my house, make me no rueler of the people.

8 For Ierusalem and Iuda must decaye, because that both their wordes and counceles are agaynst the LORDE, they prouoke the presence of his magesty vnto anger.

9 The chaunginge of their countenance bewrayeth them, yee they declare their owne synnes them selues, as the Sodomites, & hyde the not. Wo be vnto their souldes, for they shalbe heuely rewarded.

10 Then shal they saye: O happie are the godly, for they maye enioye the frutes of their studies.

11 But wo be to ye vngodly and vnrightuous for they shalbe rewarded after their workes.

12 O my people, rybaudes oppresse ye, and women haue rule of the. O my people, thy leders deceaue the, and treade out the waye of thy footsteppes.

13 The LORDE is here to comon of the matter, and stondesth to geue iudgment with the people.

14 The LORDE shal come forth to reason with the Senatours and prynces of his people, and shal saye thus vnto them: It is ye that haue burnt vp my vynearde, the robbery of the poore is in youre house.

15 Wherefore do ye oppresse my people, and marre ye faces of the innocentes? thus shal the God of hoostes reuyle them.

16 Morouer thus saieth ye LORDE: Seinge the daughters of Sion are become so proude, and come in with stretched out neckes, and with vayne wanton eyes: seinge they come in trippinge so nycey with their fete:

17 Therefore shal the LORDE shaue the heades of the daughters of Sion, and make their bewtie bare in that daye.

18 In that daye shal the LORDE take awaye the gorgiousnes of their apparell, and spanges, cheynes, partlettes,

19 and colares, bracelettes and hooues,

20 ye goodly floured, wyde and broderd raymet, brusses and headbandes,

21 rynges and garlades,

22 holy daye clothes and vales, kerchues and pyennes,

23 glasses and smockes, bonettes and taches.

24 And in steade of good smell there shalbe stynck amonge them. And for their gyrdles there shalbe lowse bondes. And for wellset hayre there shalbe baldnesse. In steade of a stomacher, a sack cloth, and for their bewty wythrednesse and sonneburnynge.

25 Their husbandes and their mightie men shall perish with the swerde in batell.

26 At that tyme shall their gates mourne and complayne, and they shal syt as desolate folck vpon the earth.

Chapter 4

1 Then shal seuen wyues take holde of one man, and saye: we will laye all oure meat and cloothinge together in comon, only that we maye be called thy wyues, and that this shamefull reprofte maye be take from us.

2 After that tyme shal the braunch of ye LORDE be beutiful and mightie, and ye frute of the earth shalbe fayre and pleasaunt for those Israelites that shall springe therof.

3 Then shall the remnaunt in Sion and the remnaunt at Ierusalem be called holy: namely all soch as are written amonge the luyunge at Ierusalem:

4 what tyme as the LORDE shall wash awaye the desolacion of the daughters of Sio, ad pouрге the bloude out from Ierusalem, wt ye wynde of his smoke and fyre.

5 Morouer vpon all the dwellinges of the hill of Sion and vpon their whole congregacion, shal the LORDE prouyde a cloude and smoke by daye, and the shyinghe of a flammyng fyre by night, for all their glory shalbe preserued.

6 And Ierusalem shall be a tabernacle for a shadowe because of hete in the daye tyme, a place and refuge where a man maye kepe him for wether and rayne.

Chapter 5

1 Now well than, I will syng my beloued frende a songe of his vynearde. My beloued frende hath a vynearde in a very frutefull plenteous grounde.

2 This he hedged, this he walled rounde aboute, and planted it with goodly grapes. In the myddest of it buylded he a towre, and made a wyne presse therin And afterwarde when he loked yt it shulde bringe him grapes, it brought forth thornes.

3 I shewe you now my cause (o ye Citysens of Ierusalem and whole Iuda:) Iudge I praye you betwixte me: and my wynegardinge.

4 What more coude haue bene done for it, that I haue not done? Wherefore then hath it geuen thornes, where I loked to haue had grapes of it?

5 Well, I shall tell you how I will do wt my vynearde: I will take the hedge from it, that it maye perish, and breake downe ye wall, that it maye be troden vnder fote.

6 I will laye it waist, that it shall nether be twysted nor cut, but beare thornes and breares. I wil also forbyd ye cloudes, that they shal not rayne vpon it.

7 As for the vynearde of the LORDE of hoostes it is the house of Israel, and whole Iuda his fayre plantinge. Of these he loked for equyte, but se there is wronge: for rightuousnesse, lo, it is but misery.

8 Wo to you that ioyne one house to another, and bringe one londe so nigh vnto another, till ye can get no more grounde. Wil ye dwell vpon the earth alone?

9 The LORDE of hoostes rowneth me thus i myne eare: shal not many greater and more gorgions houses be so waist, that no man shall dwell in the?

10 And ten akers of vynes shal geue but a Quarte, and xxx. bushels of sede shal geue but thre.

11 Wo be vnto them that ryse vp early to vse them selues in dronkynnes, and yet at night are more superfluous with wyne.

12 In whose companies are harpes and lutes, tabrettes and pipes, and wyne. But they regarde not the worke of the LORDE, and cosidre not the operacio of his hondes.

13 Therefore cometh my folck also in captiuyte, because they haue no vnderstondynge. Their glory shalbe myxte with huger, and their pryde shalbe marred for thurst.

14 Therefore gapeth hel, and openeth hyr mouth marvelous wyde: that pryde, boostinge and wisdom, with soch as reioyse therin, maye descende in to it.

15 Thus shal man haue a fall, he shalbe brought lowe, and the high lokes of the proude layde downe.

16 But the LORDE of hoostes, yt holy God: shalbe exalted and vntouched, when he shal declare his equyte and rightuousnesse after this maner.

17 Then shal ye lambes eate their apoynted foder, and shal fede plenteously in the mountaynes

18 Wo vnto wayne persones, that drawe wickednes vnto the, as it were with a coorde: and synne, as it were with a cart rope.

19 Which vse to speake on this maner: let him make haist now, and go forth wt his worke, that we maye se it. Let the council of ye holy one of Israel come, and drawe nie, yt we maye knowe it.

20 Wo vnto them that call euel good, and good euel: which make darcknesseligh, & light darcknesse, yt make sower swete, and swete sower.

21 Wo vnto them that are wyse in their owne sight, and thinke them selues to haue vnderstodinge.

22 Wo vnto them, yt are connynge men to suppe out wyne, and experte to set vp drokenesse.

23 These gyue sentence with the vngodly for rewardes, but condemne the iust cause of the rightuous.

24 Therefore, like as fyre licketh vp the strawe, and as the flame cosumeth the stubble: Euen so (when their root is ful,) their blossome shal vanish awaye like dust or smoke. for they despise the lawe of the LORDE of hoostes, and blasphem the worde of the holy maker of Israel.

25 Therefore is the wrath of the LORDE kyndled also agaynst his people, and he shaketh his honde at them: yee he shal smyte so, that the hilles shal tremble. And their carcasses shal lye in the ope stretes, like myre. After all this, the wrath of God shall not cease, but he shal stretch his hode wyder.

26 And he shal gyue a toke vnto a straunge people, and call vnto them in a farre cuntrye: and beholde, they shal come hastily with spede.

27 There is not one faynt nor feble amonge them, no not a slogish nor sleperry parson. There shal not one of them put of the gyrdle from his loynes, ner lowse the lachet of his shue.

28 Their arowes are sharpe, and their bowes bent. Their horse hoofes are like flynt, and their cartwheles like a stormy wynde.

29 Their crie is as it were of a lyon, and the roaringe of them like lyons whelpes. They shal roare, and hatch vp the praye, and no man shal recouer it or get it from the.

30 In that daye they shalbe so fearece vpon them, as the see. And yf we loke vnto the londe, beholde, it shalbe all darcknesse and sorowe. Yf we loke to heauen: beholde, it shalbe darck with careful desperation.

Chapter 6

1 In the same yeare yt kynge Osias dyed, I sawe the LORDE sittinge vpon an high and glorious seate, and his trayne fylled ye palace.

2 From aboue flakred the Seraphins, wherof euery one had sex wynges. With twayne ech couered his face, wt twayne his fete, and with twayne dyd he flye.

3 They cried also ech one to other on this maner: holy, holy, holy is the LORDE of hoostes. The whole worlde is ful of his glory.

4 Yee the geastes and dorechekes moued at their crienge, and the house was ful of smoke.

5 Then I sayde: O wo is me. For I was astonished: that I (which am a man of vnclene lippes, and dwell amonge people yt hath vnclene lippes also:) Shulde se ye Kynge and LORDE of hoostes with myne eyes.

6 Then flewe one of the Seraphins vnto me, hauinge a hote cole in his honde, which he had taken from the aluter with the tonges,

7 and touched my mouth, and sayde: lo, this hath touched thy mouth, & thy vnrightuousnes is taken a waye, and thy synne forgeuen.

8 After this I herde the voyce of the LORDE takinge advysement on this maner: Whom shall I sende, and who wilbe oure messaunger? The I sayde: here am I, sende me.

9 And so he sayde: go, and tel this people: ye shall heare in dede, but ye shal not vnderstonde, ye shal planely se, and not perceau.

10 Harden the harte of this people, stoppe their eares, and shut their eyes, that they se not wt their eyes, heare not with their eares, and vnderstonde not with their hartes, and conuerte and be healed.

11 Then spake I: LORDE, how longe? he answered: vntil the cities be vtterly without inhabitours, and ye houses without men, till the lode be also desolate, and lye vnbuylded.

12 For the LORDE shal take the men farre awaye, so that the londe shall lye waist

13 Neuertheles, the tenth parte shal remayne therin, for it shal conuerte and be fruteful. And likewise as the Terebyntes and Oketrees bringe forth their frutes, so shal the holy sede haue frute.

Chapter 7

1 It happened in the tyme of Ahas the sonne of Ionathas, which was the sonne of Ioathan Kyng of Iuda: that Rezin the Kinge of Siria, and Poca Romelies sonne, Kyng of Israel: wente vp toward Ierusalem to besege it (but wanne it not.)
2 Now when the house of Dauid (that is Ahas) herde worde therof, yt Siria and Ephraim vnderfederate together: his herte quaked (yee and ye hertes also of his people) like as a tre in the felde, that is moued with the wynde.

3 Then sayde God vnto Esay: go mete Ahas (thou and thy sonne Sear Iasub) at the heade of ye ouer pole, in the fote path by the fullers gronde,

4 and saye vnto him: take hede to thyself and be still, but feare not, nether be faynt harted, for these two tales: that is: for these two smokyng fyre brandes, the wrath and furiousnes of Rezin the Sirian and Romelies sonne:

5 because that the Kyng of Siria Ephraim and Romelies sonne haue wekedly conspyred agaynst the,

6 sayenge: We will go downe in to Iuda, vexe the, and brynge them vnder vs, and set a Kyng there, euen the sonne of Taball.

7 For thus saith the LORDE God ther to, It shall not so go forth, nether come so to passe:

8 for the headcitie of ye Sirians is Damascus, but the head of Damascus is Rezin. And after fyue and threscore yeare, shal Ephraim be nomore a people.

9 And the chefe citie of Ephraim is Samaria, but the head of Samaria is Romelies sonne. And yf ye beleue not, there shall no promyse be kepte with you.

10 Morouer, God spake vnto Ahas, sayenge:

11 requyre a token of the LORDE thy God, whether it be towarde the depth beneth or towarde ye hight aboue.

12 The sayde Ahas: I will requyre none, nether will I tempte the LORDE.

13 The LORDE answered: Then heare to, ye of the house of Dauid: Is it not ynough for you, that ye be greuou vnto men, but ye must greue my God also?

14 And therfore the LORDE shal geue you a token of himself: Beholde, a virgin shal coceau and beare a sonne, and shal call his name Emanuel.

15 Butter and hony shal he eate, yt he maye knowe the euel, and chose ye good.

16 But or euer that childe come to knowlege, to eschue the euel and chose the good: The londe (that thou art so afrayde for) shalbe desolate of both hir kynges.

17 The LORDE also shal sende a tyme vpon the, vpon thy people, and vpo thy fathers house (soch as neuer came sence the tyme yt Ephraim departed from Iuda) thorow ye kyng of the Assirians.

18 For at the same tyme shal the LORDE whistle for the flyes yt are aboute the water of Egipte, and for ye Beyes in the Assirians londe.

19 These shall come, and shal light all in the valeyes, in ye vowtes of stone, vpon all grene things, and in all corners.

20 At the same tyme shal the LORDE shaue the hayre of the heade and the fete and the beerd clene of, with the rasoure that he shall paye them withall beyonde the water: namely, with ye kyng of the Assirians.

21 At the same tyme shall a man lye with a cowe, and two shepe.

22 Then because of the aboundaunce of mylck, he shal make butter and eat it. So that euery one which remaineth in the londe, shal eate butter and hony.

23 At the same tyme all vynyardes (though there be a thousand vynes in one, and were solde for a thousand siluerlinges) shalbe turned to brears and thornes.

24 Like as they shal come in to the londe with arowes and bowes, so shal all the londe become brears and thornes.

25 And as for all hilles that now are hewen downe, thou shalt not come vpo them, for feare of brears and thornes. But the catel shalbe dryuen thither, and the shepe shal fede there.

Chapter 8

1 Morouer the LORDE sayde vnto me: Take the a greate leaf, and wryte in it, as men do with a penne, that he spede him to robbe, and haist him to spoyle.

2 And Immediatly I called vnto me faithful wytnesses: Vrias the prest, and Zacharias ye sonne of Barachias.

3 After that went I vnto the prophetisse, that now had conceaued and borne a sonne. Then sayde the LORDE to me: geue him this name: Maherschallal haschbas, that is: a spedie robber, an hastie spoyler.

4 For why, or euer the childe shal haue knowlege to saye: Abi and Im, yt is father, and mother: shal ye riches of Damascus and ye substance of Samaria be take awaye, thorow the Kyng of ye Assirians.

5 The LORDE spake also vnto me, sayenge:

6 for so moch as the people refuseth the stilrenninge water of Silo, and put their delite in Rezin and Romelies sonne:

7 Beholde, the LORDE shal bringe mightie and great floudes of water vpon them: namely, ye kyng of the Assirians with all his power. Which shall poure out his furyousnes vpo euery man, and renne ouer all their bankes.

8 And shal breake in vpon Iuda, increasinge in power, till he get him by the throte. He shal fyl also the wydenesse of thy londe wt his brode wynges, O Emanuel.

9 Go together ye people, and gather you, herken to all ye of farre countrees. Mustre you, and gather you: mustre you and gather you,

10 take youre councel together, yet must youre councel come to nought: go in honde withal, yet shal it not prospere. Excepte Emanuel: (that is God) be with 11 For the LORDE chastised me, and toke me by ye honde, and warned me, sayenge vnto me: that I shulde not walcke in the waye of this people. He sayde morouer:

12 rounde with none of the, who so euer saye: yonder people are bounde together. Neuertheles feare them not, nether be afrayde of them,

13 but sanctifie the LORDE of hoostes, let him be youre feare and drede.

14 For he is the sanctifienge, and stone to stombe at, ye rock to fall vpon, a snare and net to both the houses: to Israel, and the inhabitours of Ierusalem.

15 And many shal stombe, fall, and be broke vpon him: yee they shalbe snared and taken.

16 Now laye the witnesses together (sayde the LORDE) and seale the lawe with my disciples.

17 Thus I waite vpon the LORDE, that hath turned his face from the house of Iacob, and I loke vnto him.

18 But lo, as for me, and the children which the LORDE hath geuen me: we are a token and a wondre in Israel, for the LORDE of hoostes sake, which dwelleth vpon the hill of Syon.

19 And therfore yf they saye vnto you: aske councel at the soythsayers, witches, charmers and coniuers, then make them this answer: Is there a people enywhere, that axeth not councel at his God: whether it be concernyng the dead, or the lyuyng?

20 Yf eny man want light, let him loke vpon the lawe and the testimony, whether they speake not after this meanyng.

21 Yf he do not this, he stombleth and suffreth huger. And yf he suffre hunger, he is out of pacience, and blasphemeth his kyng and his God. Then loketh he vpwarde, and downewarde to the earth, 22 and beholde, there is trouble and darcknesse, vexacion is rounde aboute him, and the cloude of erreure And out of soch aduersite, shall he not escape.

Chapter 9

1 Even like as in tyme past it hath bene well sene, that ye londe of Zabulon and the londe of Nephthali (where thorow the see waye goeth ouer Iordane in to the londe of Galilee) was at the first in litle trouble, but afterward sore vexed.

2 Neuertheles ye people that haue dwelt in darcknesse, shal se a greate light. As for them that dwel in the londe of the shadowe of death, vpon them shal the light shyne.

3 Shalt thou multiplie the people, and not increase the ioye also? They shal reioyce before the euen as men make mery in haruest, and as men that haue gotten the victory, when they deale the spoyle.

4 For thou shalt breake the yocke of the peoples burthen: the staff of hys shulder, and the rod of his oppressoure, as in ye daye at Madia.

5 Morouer all temerarious and sedicious power (yee where there is but a cote fylled wt bloude) shalbe burnt, and fede the fyre.

6 For vnto us a childe shalbe borne, and vnto us a sonne shalbe geue. Vpo his shulder shal the kyngdome lye, and he shalbe called wt his owne name: The woderous geuer of councel, the mightie God, the euerlastinge father, the prynce of peace,

7 he shal make no ende to encrease the kyngdome and peace, and shal syt vpon the seate of Dauid and in his kyngdome, to set vp the same, to stablish it with equyte and rightuousnesse, from thence forth for euermore. This shal the gelousy of the LORDE of hoostes bringe to passe.

8 The LORDE sent a worde in to Iacob, the same is come in to Israel.

9 All the people also of Ephraim, and they that dwel in Samaria, can saye with pryde and hie stomackes, on this maner: 10 The tyle worcke is fallen downe, but we will buylde it with harder stones. The Molbery tymbre ys broken, but we shal set it vp agayne with Cedre.

11 Neuertheles, the LORDE shal prepare Rezin the enemye agaynst the, and so ordre their aduersaries, 12 that ye Sirians shal laye holde vpon them before, and the Philistynes behynde, and so deuoure Israel with open mouth. After all this, the wrath of the LORDE shal not cease, but yet his hande shalbe stretched out still.

13 For the people turneth not vnto him, that chastiseth them, nether do they seke the LORDE of hoostes.

14 Therefore the LORDE shal rote out of Israel both heade and tale, braunch and twygge in one daye.

15 By the heade, is vnderstonde the Senatoure and honorable man, and by ye tale, the prophet that preacheth lyes.

16 For all they which enfourme the people that they be in a right case, soch be disceauers. Soch as men thynke also to be perfecte amonge these, are but cast awaye.

17 Therefore shal the LORDE haue no pleasure in their yonge me, nether faouere their fatherlesse and wydowes. For thei are altogether ypocrites and wicked, and all their mouthes speake foly. After all this shal not the LORDES wrath cease, but yet his honde shalbe stretched out still.

18 For the vngodly burne, as a fyre in the bryers and thornes: And as it were out of a fyre in a wod or a redbush, so ascendeth the smoke of their pryde.

19 For this cause shal ye wrath of the LORDE of hoostes fall vpon the londe, and the people shalbe consumed, as it were with fyre, no man shal spare his brother.

20 Yf a man do turne him to the right honde, he shal famesh, or to the left hande to eat, he shal not haue ynough. Euery man shal eate the flesh of his owne arme:

21 Manasses shal eate Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasses, and they both shal eate Iuda. After all this shal not the LORDES wrath cease, but yet shal his honde be stretched out still.

Chapter 10

1 Wo be vnto you yt make vnrightuous lawes, and devyse thinges, which be to harde for to kepe:

2 wherthorow the poore are oppressed, on euery syde, and the innocetes of my people are there with robbed of iudgment: that wyddowes maye be youre praye, and that ye maye robbe the fatherlesse.

3 What will ye do in tyme of the visitacion and destruction, that shal come from farre? To whom will ye renne for helpe? or to whom will ye geue youre honoure, that he maye kepe it?

4 that ye come not amonge the presoners, or lye amonge the deed? After all this shal not the wrath of the LORDE cease, but yet shal his honde be stretched out still.

5 Wo be also vnto Assur, which is a staff of my wrath, in whose honde is the rod of my punyishment.

6 For I shal sende him amonge those ypocritish poeple, amonge the people that haue deserued my disfauoure shal I send him: that he maye utterly robbe them, spoyle them, and treade them downe like the myre in the strete.

7 Howbeit his meanyng is not so, nether thinketh his harte of this fashion. But he ymagineth only, how he maye ouerthrowe and destroye moch people,

8 for he saieth: are not my princes all kynges?

9 Is not Calno as easie to wynne, as Charchamis? Is it harder to conquere Antiochia then Arphad? Or is it lighter to ouercome Damascus the Samaria?

10 As who say: I were able to wynne the kingdome of the Idolaters and their goddes, but not Ierusalem and Samaria.

11 Shal I not do vnto Ierusalem and their ymages, as I dyd vnto Samaria and their ymages?

12 Wherefore the LORDE saieth: As soone as I haue performed my whole worcke vpon the Hyl of Syon and Ierusalem: the will I also vyset the noble and stoute kyng of Assiria, with his wysdome and pryde.

13 For he stondesth thus in his owne coceate: This do I, thorow the power of myne owne honde, and thorow my wisdome: For I am wyse, I am he that remoue the londes of the people, I robbe their prynces: and (like one of the worthies) I dryue them from their hie seates.

14 My honde hath founde out the hoostes of the people, as it were a nest. And like as egges, that were layde here and there, are gathered together: So do I gather all countrees. And there is no man, yt darre be so bolde, as to touch a fether, that darre open his mouth, or once whisper.

15 But doth the axe boost itself, agaynst him yt heweth therwith, or doth the sawe make eny krakinge, agaynst him that ruleth it? That were euen like, as yf the rod dyd exalte it self agaynst him, that beareth it: or as though ye staff shulde magnifie it self, as who saye: it were no wodd.

16 Therefore shal the LORDE of hoostes sende him pouerte in his riches, and burne vp his power, as it were with a fyre.

17 But the light of Israel shalbe yt fyre, and his Sanctuary shalbe the flame, and it shal kyndle, and burne vp his thornes and bryers in one daye, 18 yee all the glory of his woddess and felde shalbe consumed with body and soule. As for him self, he shalbe as one chased awaye.

19 The trees also of his felde shalbe of soch a nombre, that a childe maye tell them.

20 After yt daye shal the remnaunt of Israel, and soch as are escaped out of the house of Iacob, seke no more coforte at him that smote them, but shal conforte them selues with faithfulness and treuth in the LORDE, the holy, one of Israel.

21 The remnaunt, yee and the Posteryte of Iacob, shal couerte vnto God the mighty one

22 For though thy people (o Israel) be as the sonde of the see, yet shal but the remnaunt of them only conuerte vnto him. Perfecte is the iudgment of him that floweth in rightuousnesse:

23 and therefore ye LORDE of hoostes shal perfectly fulfil the thinge, that he hath determyned in the myddest of the whole worlde.

24 Therefore thus saieth the LORDE God of hoostes: Thou my people, that dwellest in Sion, be not afrayde for the kinge of the Assirians: He shal wagg his staff at the, yee and beate the with the rodd, as the Egypciens dyd sometyme:

25 But soone after, shal my wrath and my indignacion be fulfilled agaynst their blasphemies.

26 Morouer the LORDE of hoostes shal prepare a scourge for him, like as was the punyishment of Madia vpo ye mount of Oreb. And he shal lift vp his rod ouer the see, as he dyd somtyme ouer the Egypciens.

27 Then shal his burthen be taken from thy shulders, and his yock from thy neck, yee the same yock shal corrupte for very fatnesse.

28 He shal come to Aiath, and go thorow toward Migron. But at Machnias shal he muster his hooste, 29 and go ouer ye foorde. Gaba shalbe their restinge place, Rhama shalbe afrayde, Gabea Saul shal fle awaye.

30 The voyce of ye noyse of thy horses (o daughter Gallim) shalbe herde vnto lais and to Anathoth, which also shalbe in trouble.

31 Madmena shal tremble for feare, but the citesyns of Gabim are maly, 32 yet shal he remayne at Nob that daye. After that, shal he lift vp his honde agaynst the mount Sion, and agaynst the hill of Ierusalem.

33 But se, the LORDE God of hoostes shal take awaye the proude from thence, wt feare. He shal hew downe the proude, and fel the hie mynded.

34 The thornes of the wod shal be rooted out wt yron, and Libanus shal haue a mightie fal.

Chapter 11

1 After this there shal come a rod forth of ye Kynrede of Iesse, and a blossome out of his rote.

2 The sprete of the LORDE shal light vpon it: the sprete of wysdome, and vnderstandinge: the sprete of counsel, and strength: ye sprete of knowlege, and of the feare of God:

3 and shal make him feruent in the feare of God. For he shal not geue sentece, after the thinge yt shal be brought before his eies, nether reproue a matter at the first hearinge:

4 but with rightousnesse shal he iudge the poore, and with holynes shal he reforme the symple of the worlde. He shal smyte ye worlde with ye staff of his mouth, & with ye breath of his mouth shal he slaye the wicked.

5 Rightousnesse shalbe the gyrdle of his loynes, treuth and faithfulness the gyrdinge vp of his raynes.

6 The shal ye wolfe dwel with the labe, and the leopard shal lye downe by the gotte. Bullokes, Lyons and catel shal kepe company together, so that a litle childe shal dryue them forth.

7 The cowe and the Bere shal fede together, and their yongones shal lye together. The lye shal eate strawe like the ox, or the cowe.

8 The childe whyle he sucketh, shal haue a desyre to the serpent's nest, and whe he is weened, he shal put his hande in to the Cockatryce denne.

9 Noman shal do euel to another, no man shal destro another, in all the hill of my Sanctuary. For the earth shalbe ful of ye knowlege of ye LORDE, euen as though the water of the see flowed ouer the earth.

10 Then shal the Gentiles enquire after the rote of Iesse (which shalbe set vp for a token vnto the Gentiles) for his dwellinge shalbe glorious.

11 At the same tyme shal the LORDE take in honde agayne, to conquere ye remnaunt of his people (which are lefft alyue) From the Assirias, Egypciens, Arabians, Morians, Elamites, Caldeyes, Antiochias and Ilodes of the see.

12 And he shal set vp a toke amonge the Gentiles, and gather together ye dispersed of Israel, yee and the outcastes of Iuda from the foure corners of ye worlde.

13 The hatred of Ephraim, and ye enmyte of Iuda shalbe clene rooted out. Ephraim shal beare no euel wil to Iuda, and Iuda shal not hate Ephraim:

14 but they both together shal flye vpo the shulders of the Philistynes toward the West, and spoyle them together that dwell toward the East. The Idumytes and the Moabites shal let their hodes fall, and the Ammonites shalbe obedient vnto them.

15 The LORDE also shal cleue the tunges of the Egipcias see, and with a mightie wynde shal he lift vp his honde ouer Nilus, and shal smyte his seuie streames and make men go ouer drye shod.

16 And thus shal he make a waye for his people, yt remayneth from the Assirians, like as it happened to ye Israelites, what tyme they departed out of the londe of Egypite.

Chapter 12

1 So that then thou shalt saye: O LORDE, I thanke the, for thou wast displeasid at me, but thou hast refrayned thy wrath, and hast mercy vpon me.

2 Beholde, God is my health, in whom I trust, and am not afrayde. For the LORDE God is my strength, and my prayse, he also shalbe my refuge.

3 Therefore with ioye shal ye drawe water out of the welles of the Sauioiure,

4 and then shal ye saye: Let vs geue thanks vnto the lorde, and call vpon his name, and declare his counceils amonge the people, and kepe them in remembrance, for his name is excellet. 5 O synge praises vnto the LORDE, for he doth greate thinges, as it is knowne in all the worlde.

6 Crie out, and be glad, thou that dwellest in Sion, for greate is thy prince: the holy one of Israel.

Chapter 13

1 This is ye heuy burthe of Babilo, which Esaye the sonne of Amos dyd se.

2 Make some tokes to the hie hilles, call vnto them, holde vp youre hode, that the prynces maye go in at the dore.

3 For I will sende for my debites and my gyautes (sayeth the LORDE) and in my wrath I will call for soch, as trumpe in my glory.

4 With that, me thought I herde in the moutaynes, a noyse, like as it had bene of a greate people: and a ru?shinge, as though the kyngdomes of all nacions had come together. (And the LORDE of hoostes was the captayne of the whole armye.)

5 As they had come not only out of farre countrees, but also from the endes of the heaues: Eue the LORDE himself with the ministers of his wrath, to destroye the whole lode.

6 Mourne therefore, for the daye of the LORDE is at honde, and commeth as a destroyer from ye allmighty.

7 Then shall all hondes be letten downe, and all mens hertes shal melt awaie,

8 they shal stonde in feare, carefulnesse and sorowe shal come vpo them, and they shal haue payne, as a woman that traueleth with childe. One shall euer be aba?shed of another, & their faces shal burne, like ye flame.

9 For lo, the daye of the LORDE shall come, terrible, full of indignacion and wrath: to make the londe waist, and to root out the synne therof.

10 For the starres and planetes of heauen shal not geue their light, the Sonne shalbe quenched in the rysinge, and the Mone shal not shyne with his light.

11 And I wil punysh the wickednesse of the worlde, & the synnes of the vngodly, sayeth the LORDE. The hie stomackes of the proude will I take awaye, and will laye downe the boostinge of tyrauntes.

12 I will make a man dearer the fyne golde, and a man to be more worth, the a golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Morouer, I will so shake the heaue, that the earth shall remo out of hir place. Thus shall it go wt Babilon, in the wrath of the LORDE of hoostes in ye daye of his fearful indignacio.

14 And Babilon shalbe as an hunted or chased doo, and as a flocke wt out a shepherde. Euery ma shal turne to his owne people, & fle echone into his owne londe.

15 Who so is founde alone, shalbe shot thorow: And who so gather together, shalbe destroyed wt the swerde.

16 Their children shalbe slayne before their eyes, their houses spoyled, & their wyues rauyshed.

17 For lo, I shall bringe vp ye Medes agaynst the, which shal not regarde syluer, nor be desyrus of golde.

18 Then shall yonge mens bowes be knapped asunder. The Medes shal haue no pitie vpo wome wt childe, & their faces shal not spare ye childe.

19 And Babilo (yt glory of kigdomes and bewtie of the Caldees honor) shalbe destroyed, eue as God destroyed Sodom & Gomorra.

20 It shal neuer be more inhabited, nether shal there be eny more dwellinge there, from generacion to generacion. The Arabians shall make no mo tentes there, nether shall the shepardes make their foldes there eny more:

21 but wylde beastes shal lie there, & ye houses shalbe full of greate Oules. Estriches shal dwell there, & Apes shal daunce there:

22 The litle Oules shall crie in the palaces, one after another, & Dragos shalbe in the pleasaut perlours. And as for Babilons tyme, it is at honde, & hir dayes maye not be longe absent.

Chapter 14

1 Bvt ye LORDE wilbe mercyfull vnto Iacob, & wyll take vp Israel agayne, & set the in their owne lode. Straugers shal cleue vnto the, & get the to ye house of Iacob.

2 They shal take ye people, & cary the home wt the. And ye house of Israel shal haue the in possession, for seruantes & maydes in ye lode of ye LORDE. They shal take those prisoners, whose captuyes they had bene afore: & rule those, yt had oppressed the.

3 When ye LORDE now shal bringe ye to rest, fro ye trauayle, feare, & harde bondage yt thou wast laden withall:

4 then shalt thou vse this mockage vpon ye kinge of Babilon, & saye: How happeneth it yt ye oppressour leaueth of? It ye golden tribute come to an ende?

5 Doutles the LORDE hath broken the staff of the vngodly, & the cepter of ye lordly.

6 Which whe he is wroth, smyteth ye people wt durable strokes, & in his woders he persecuteth the, & tameth the cotinually.

7 And therefore ye whole worlde is now at rest and quyetnesse, & men synge for ioye.

8 Yee euen the Fyrre trees and Cedres of Libanus reioyce at thy fall, sayenge: Now yt thou art layde downe, there come no mo vp to destroye vs.

9 Hell also trembleth at thy comynge, All mightie men and prynces of the earth, steppe forth before the. All kynges of the earth stonde vp fro their seates,

10 that they maye all (one after another) synge and speake vnto the. Art thou wounded also as we? art thou become like vnto vs?

11 Thy pompe and thy pryde is gone downe to hell: Mothes shalbe layde vnder the, & wormes shalbe thy coueringe.

12 How art thou fallen from heauen (o Lucifer) thou faire mornige childe? hast thou gotten a fall euen to the grounde, thou that (notwithstandinge) dydest subdue the people?

13 And yet thou thoughtest in thine harte: I will clymme vp in to heauen, and make my seate aboute the starres of God, I wyll syt vpon the glorious mount toward the North, 14 I wyll clymme vp aboute the cloudes, & wilbe like the highest of all.

15 Yet darre I laye, yt thou shalt be brought downe to the depe of hell.

16 They that se the, shal narrowly loke vpo the, and thinke in them selues, sayenge: Is this the man, that brought all londes in feare, and made ye kingdomes afrayde:

17 Is this he that made the worlde in a maner waist, & and layde the cities to the grounde, which let not his prisoners go home?

18 How happeneth it, that the kynges of all people lie, euery one at home in his owne palace, with worshipe,

19 and thou art cast out of thy graue like a wilde braunch: like as dead mens rayment that are shott thorow with the swerde: as they that go downe to the stones of the depe: as a dead coarse that is troden vnder fete:

20 and art not buried wt them? Euen because that thou hast waisted thy lode, and destroyed thy people. For the generacion of the wicked shalbe without honor, for euer.

21 There shal a waye be sought to destroye their childe, for their fathers wickednes: they shal not come vp agayne to possesse the londe, and fyll the worlde ful of castels and townes.

22 I wil stonde vp agaynst them (sayeth the LORDE of hoostes) and root out ye name and generacion of Babilon (saieth the LORDE)

23 & wil geue it to the Otters, and wil make water poddels of it. And I wil swepe them out with the besome of destruccion, sayeth the LORDE of hoostes.

24 The LORDE of hoostes hath sworne an ooth, sayege: It shal come to passe as I haue determined: & shalbe fulfilled as I haue deuysed.

25 The Assirians shalbe destroyed in my londe, and vpon my mountayntaines wyll I treade them vnder fote. Wherthorow his yocke shall come from you, & his burthen shalbe taken from youre sholders.

26 This deuyce hath God taken thorow the whole worlde, and thu s is his honde stretched out ouer all people.

27 For yf the LORDE of hoostes determe a thinge, who wyl dysanulle it? And yf he stretch forth his honde, who wil holde it in agayne?

28 The same yere that kyng Achas dyed, God threatned by Esay on this maner:

29 Reioyse not (thou whole Palestina) as though ye rod of him yt beateth the were broken: For out of ye serpentis rote, there shal waxe a kockatrice, & the frute shalbe a fyrie worme.

30 But the poore shall fede of the best thinges, and the symple shal dwell in safetie. Thy rotes wil I destroye wt honger, and it shal slaye yi remnaunt.

31 Mourne ye portes, wepe ye Cities And feare thou (o whole Palestina) for there shal come fro the North a smoke, whose power no man maye abyde.

32 Who shall then maynteyne the messages of the Gentyles? But the LORDE stablisheth Syon, & the poore of my people shall put their trust in him.

Chapter 15

1 This is ye heuy burthe vpo Moab: Ar of Moab was destroyed (as me thought) in the night season: The walles of Moab perished in the night, & vanished awaye: 2 They wete to Baith and Dibon in the hie places, for to wepe: Moab did mourne fro Nebo to Medba: All their heades were colled, and al their bearded shauen.

3 In their stretes were they gyrded aboute with sack cloth. In all the toppes of their houses & stretes was there nothinge, but mournynge and wepinge.

4 Hesebon and Eleale cried, that their voyce was herde vnto Iahaz. The worthies also of Moab bleared and cried for very sorow of their myndes:

5 Wo is my hert for Moabs sake. They fled vnto the cite of Zoar, which is like a fayre fruteful bullock, they went vp to Luhith, wepinge. The waye toward Horonaim was ful of lamentacion for ye hurte.

6 The waters of Nimrim were dried vp, the grasse was wythred, the herbes destroyed, & what necessary grene thinge there was besyde.

7 In like maner the thinge yt was left them of their substauce, they caried it by water to Araby.

8 The crie went ouer the whole londe of Moab: from Eglaim vnto Beer, was there nothinge but mouanynge.

9 The waters of Dimon were full of bloude, for ye enemie had sent thither a bonde of men, which as a lyon, layde waite foe the remnaunt of the londe, and for them yt were escaped.

Chapter 16

1 Then sent the lordes of the lode a ma of warre, from the rocke that lieth toward the deserte, vnto the hill of the doughter Sion

2 (For as for the daughters of Moab, they were as it had bene a trymblinge byrde, yt is put out of hir nest, by the fery of Arnon) which messaunger sayde:

3 gather youre council, come together, couer vs with youre shadowe in the myddaye, as the night doth: hyde the chased, & bewraye not the that are fled,

4 let the persecuted Moabites dwel amoge you, be oure open refuge agaynst the destroyer: for the aduersary oppresseth vs, the robber vndoeth vs, & the tyraunte dryueth vs out of oure londe.

5 But ye Trone of youre kingdome is ful of grace, therefore he that sytteth vpon it wt faitfulnessse & treuth in the house of Daudi, knowe the thinge & do his diligence to helpe shortly, acordinge to Equite and rightuousnes.

6 As for Moabs pride (shal they answere) it is wel knowne. And all though they be excellent, proude, arrogant, & hie mynded: yet is their strength nothinge like.

7 And therefore Moab complayneth vnto Moab, wherthorow they come all to mourne: & now yt they be smytten, they take their deuyce beneth by the bryck wall, and make their coplaynte.

8 The suburbes also of Hesebon were made waist, & the princes of the Gentyles hewed downe ye vnyardes of Sibma, which were planted with noble grapes, and spread vnto Iazer, and went vnto the ende of the deserte, whose branches stretched their selues forth beyonde the see.

9 Therefore I mourned for Iazer, & for ye vnyardes of Sibma wt greate sorow. I poured my teares vpon Hesebon & Eleale, for all their songs were layde downe, in their haruest & gatheringe of their grapes:

10 Myrth and chere was gone out of ye felde & vnyardes, in so moch, that no man was glad ner sunge. There wete no treader in to the wynepresse, their mery chere was layde downe.

11 Wherefore my bely robled (as it had bene a lute) for Moabs sake, & myne inwarde membres, for the bryck wallis sake.

12 For it happened thus also: whe Moab sawe that she was turned vp syde downe: she went vp an hie in to hir sanctuary, to make hir prayer there, but she might not be helped.

13 This is the deuyce, which the LORDE toke in honde at that tyme agaynst Moab.

14 But now the LORDE sayeth thus: In three yeare shal ye power of Moab wt their pope (which is greate) be minished, like as ye burthe of an hyred seruaunte: And as for ye remnaunt of them, they shalbe lesse then a fewe, and not rekened moch worth.

Chapter 17

1 This is the heuy burthe vpo Damascus: Beholde, Damascus shal be nomore a cite, but an heape of broken stones.

2 The cities of Aroer shalbe waist, The catel shal lie there, & noma shal fraye the awaye.

3 Ephraim shal no more be stroge, & Damascus shal nomore be a kyngdome. And as for ye glory of ye remnaunt of ye Sirians, it shalbe as the glory of the childe of Israel, saieth ye LORDE of hoostes.

4 At that tyme also shal ye glory of Iacob be very poore, & his fatnes leane.

5 It shal happe to the, as when one sheareth in haruest, which cutteth his handful wt the sickle, & when one gathreth ye sheaues together in the valley, of Rephaim,

6 there remaineth yet some ears ouer. Or as whe one shaketh an olyue tre, which fyndeth but two or thre olyue beries aboue in the toppe, and foure or fyue in the braunches. Thus the LORDE God of Israel hath spoken.

7 Then shal man couerte agayne vnto his maker, & turne his eyes to the holy one of Israel

8 And shal not turne to the aulters that are ye worke of his owne hodes, nether shal he loke vpon groaues & ymagis, which his fyngers haue wrought.

9 At the same tyme shal their stronge cities be desolate, like as were once ye forsake plowes & come, which they forsoke, for feare of ye children of Israel.

10 So shalt thou (o Damascus) be desolate, because thou hast forgotte God yi Sauioure, & hast not called to remembrance ye rock of thi strength, Wherefore thou hast also set a fayre plate, & grafted a straunge braunch.

11 In the daye when thou diddest plante it, it was greate, and gaue soone the frute of thi sede: But in the daye of haruest, thou shalt reape an heape of sorowes & miseries.

12 Wo be to the multitude of moch people, that russh in like the see, and to the heape of folke, that renne ouer all like greate waters.

13 For though so many people increase as the flowinge waters, and though they be armed, yet they fle farre of, and vanish awaye like the dust with the wynde vpon an hill, and as the whyrle wynde thorow a storme.

14 Though they be fearful at night, yet in the morninge it is gone with the. This is their porcion, that do vs harme, and heretage of them, that robbe vs.

Chapter 18

1 Wo be to the londe of flienge shippes, which is of this syde ye floude of Ethiopia:

2 which sendeth hir message ouer the see in shippes of redes vpo ye water, and sayeth: go soone, and do yor message vnto a straunge and harde folke: to a fearful people, & to a people yt is further then this: to a desperate and pylled folke, whose londe is deuyded from vs with ryuers of water.

3 Yee all ye yt syt in the compasse of the worlde, and dwell vpon the earth: when the token shalbe geuen vpo the mountaynes, then loke vp: and when the horne bloweth, then herken to,

4 for thus hath ye LORDE sayde vnto me. I layde me downe, and pondred the matter in my house, at the noone daye when it was hote: and there fel a myslinge shower, like a dew, as it happeneth in haruest.

5 But the frutes, were not yet ripe cut of, and the grapes were but yonge and grene. Then one smote of the grapes with an hoke, yee he hewed downe also the buwes and the braunches, & dyd cast the awaye.

6 And thus they were layde waist, for the foules of the mountaynes, and for ye bestes of the earth together. So yt the foules sat ther vpon, and the bestes of the earth wyntered there.

7 Then shal there be a present brought vnto the LORDE of hoostes: euen that harde folke, that fearful folke, and that further is the this: yt desperate and pylled folke (whose londe is deuyded from vs with floudes of water) vnto the place of the name of the LORDE of hoostes: euen vnto the hill of Sion.

Chapter 19

1 This is the heuy burthen vpon Egipte: Beholde, the LORDE wil ryde vpon a swifte cloude, and come in to Egipte. And the goddes of Egipte shal trymble at his comynge, and the hert of Egipte shal quake within her.

2 For thus saieth the LORDE: I wil sterve vp the Egiptians one agaynst another amonge them selues, so that one shalbe euer agaynst his brother and neghboure, yee one cite agaynst another, and one kyngdome agaynst another.

3 And Egipte shalbe choked in hir self. Whe they axe councel at their goddes, at their Prophetes, at their soythsayers and witches: then will I bringe their councel to naught.

4 I wil delyuer Egipte also in to the hondes of greuous rulers, and a cruel kinge shal haue the rule of them.

5 The water of the see shalbe drawe out, Nilus shal synke awaye, & be dronke vp.

6 The ryuers also shalbe drawen out, the welles shal decrease and drie awaye. Rede and rush shal fayle,

7 the grasse by the waters syde or vpon ye ryuers bancke, yee and what so euer is sowne by the waters, shalbe wythered, destroyed, & brought to naught.

8 The fyshers shall mourne, all soch as cast angles in the water, shal complayne, & they that sprede their nettes in the water, shalbe faynt harted.

9 Soch as laboure vpon flax & sylcke, shal come to pouerte, & they also that weewe fyne workes.

10 All the poundes of Egipte, all the policie of their Moates & diches shal come to naught.

11 Yee the vndiscrete prynces of Zoan, the councel of the wyse Senatours of Pharao, shal turne to foolishnesse: Those that darre boast & saye of Pharaos behalfe: I am come of wyse people.

12 I am come of ye olde regall Progeny. But where are now thy wyse me? Let them tel the & shewe the, what the LORDE of hoostes hath taken in honde agaynst Egipte.

13 Fooles are those prynces of Zoan, & proude are the prynces of Noph: yee they dysceau Egipte mith the nobilite of their stocke.

14 For the LORDE hath made Egipte droncke with the sprete of erreure, and they shal vse it in all matters: eue like as a dronke ma goeth spewing aboute.

15 For Egipte shal lacke good councel, so yt they shal not knowe what to do, nether beginnyng nor ende, nether vpon the lode nor water.

16 The shal ye Egiptians be like vnto wome, afrayde & astoied, at the liftinge vp of the hode, which ye LORDE of hoostes shal lifte vp ouer them.

17 The londe of Iuda also shal make the Egiptians afrayde, who so doth but speake vpon it, shal put them in feare: And that because of the councel, which ye LORDE of hoostes hath deuysed agaynst them.

18 Then shal the fyue cities of Egipte speake with the Canaanites tunge, and sweare by the LORDE of hoostes, & Heliopolis shalbe one of them.

19 At the same tyme shal the LORDE of hoostes haue an aulter in the myddest of the londe of Egipte, with this title ther by: Vnto the LORDE.

20 This shalbe a token or testimony vnto the LORDE of hoostes in the londe of Egipte, when they shal crie vnto him, because of those that oppresse them: that he shal sende them a captayne and a Sauioure to delyuer them.

21 Morouer, Egipte shalbe bought vnto the LORDE, and the Egiptians also shal knowe the LORDE at the same tyme: they shal do him reuerence with peace offrings, and with meatoffringes: they shal promyse him offrings, yee & paye him also.

22 Thus the LORDE shal smyte Egipte, & heale it agayne: & so shal they turne to ye LORDE, and he also shal haue mercy vpo them, and saue them.

23 Then shal there be a comon waye out of Egipte in to Assiria. The Assirians shal come in to Egipte, and the Egiptians in to Assiria. The Egiptians also and the Assirians shal both haue one Gods seruyce.

24 Then shal Israel with honoure be the thirde to Egipte and Assur.

25 And the LORDE of hoostes shal blesse them, sayenge: Blisshed is my people of the Egiptians, Assur is mye worke of my hodes, but Israel is mye enheritaunce.

Chapter 20

1 The same yeare that Harthan came to Aschod, where Sarge the kinge of the Assirians sent him, what tyme as he also beseged Aschod, & wane it ye same season:

2 The spake the LORDE vnto Esaye ye sonne of Amos, sayenge: go and lowse of yt sack cloth fro thy loynes, and put of yi shues from thy fete. And so he dyd, goinge naked & barefote.

3 Then sayde the LORDE: where as my seruaunt Esaye goeth naked and barefote, it is a token and signifieng of the thinge, that after three yeare shal come vpo Egipte and Ethiopia.

4 For euen thus shal the kinge of the Assirians driue both yonge and olde, as prisoners naked and barefote, out of Egipte and Ethiopia, And shal dyscouer ye shame of Egipte.

5 They shalbe also at their wittes ende, and ashamed one of another: the Egiptians of the Moryans, and the Morians of the Egiptians, at the sight of their glory.

6 Morouer they that dwel in ye Iles shal saye euen the same daye: beholde, this is oure hope, to whom we fled to seke hope, that we might be delyuered from the kinge of ye Assirians. How will we escape?

Chapter 21

1 This is the heuy burthe of the waist see: A greuous visio was shewed vnto me, like as when a storme of wynde and rayne russheth in from the wyldernesse, that terrible londe.

2 Who so maye disceau (sayde the voyce) let him disceau: Who so maye distroye, let him distroye. Vp Elam, besege it o Madai, for I will still all their gronynges.

3 With this, the raynes of my backe were ful of payne: Panges came vpon me, as vpon a woman in hir trouaile. When I herde it, I was abashed: and whe I loked vp, I was afrayde.

4 Myne herte paunted, I trembled for feare. The darcknesse made me fearful in my mynde.

5 Yee soone make redy the table (sayde this voyce) kepe the watch, eate and drynke: Vp ye captaynes, take you to youre shyldes,

6 for thus the LORDE hath charged me: go thy waye, and set a watchma, that he maye tell what he seyth.

7 And whe he had wayted diligetly, he sawe two horsmen: the one rydinge vpon an Asse, the other vpon a camel.

8 And the lyon cried: LORDE, I haue stonde waytinge all the whole daye, and haue kepte my watch all the night.

9 With yt came there one rydinge vpon a charet, which answered, and sayde Babilon is fallen, she is turned vpsyde downe, and all ye ymages of hir goddes are smytten to ye grounde.

10 This (o my felowe throsshers and fanners) haue I herde of the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel, to shewe it vnto you.

11 The heuy burthen of Duma. One of Seir cried vnto me: watchman, what hast thou espied by night? Watchman, what hast thou espied by night?

12 The watchman answered: The daye breaketh on, and the night is comyng: Yf youre request be earnest, then axe, and come agayne.

13 The heuy burthen vpon Arabia. At euen ye shal abyde in the wod, in the waye toward Dedanim.

14 Mete the thurstie with water, (o ye citisens of Hema) mete those with bred that are fled.

15 For thei shal runne awaye from the weapen, from the drawe swerde, from the bet bowe, and from the greate batell.

16 For thus hath the LORDE spoken vnto me: ouer a yere shal all the power of Cedar be gone, like as when the office of an hyred seruaunte goeth out:

17 And the remnaunt of the good Archers of Cedar, shalbe very few: For the LORDE God of Israel hath spoken it.

Chapter 22

1 The heuy burthen, apon the valley of Visions. What hast thou there to do, that thou climnest vp in to the house toppe, 2 o thou citie of miracles, sedicious and wilfull? seinge, thy slayne me are nether killed wt swerde, ner deed in batel?

3 For all thy captaynes gat them to their horses from the ordinaunce, yee they are altogether rydden awaye, and fled farre of.

4 When I perceaued yt, I sayde: awaye fro me, yt I maye wepe bytterly. Take no laboure for to coforte me, as touchinge the destruction of my people.

5 For this is ye daye of the LORDE of hoostes, wherin he will plage, treade downe, and wede out the valley of Visios, and breake downe the walles, with such a crack, that it shal geue a sownde in the mountaynes.

6 I sawe the Elamites take the quyuers to carte and to horse, and that the walles were bare from harness.

7 Thy goodly valleys were ful of Charettes, the horse men made them soone to besege the gates.

8 Then was the coueringe of Iuda put from thence, and then was sene the sege of the tymbre house.

9 There shal ye se the riftes in the walles of the cite of Daud, wherof there shalbe many. Ye shal gather together the waters of the lower pole,

10 and tel the houses of Ierusalem, and break of some of the to kepe ye walles.

11 And ye shal make a pyt betwyxte ye twayne walles of the water of the olde pole, and nothinge regarde him, that toke it in honde and made it.

12 And at the same tyme shal ye LORDE of hoostes cal me to wepinge mourninge, to baldnesse and puttinge on of sack clothe.

13 But they to fulfil their lust and wilfulness, slaughter oxen, they kyll shepe, they eate costly meate, & drynke wyne: let vs eate and drinke, tomorrow we shal die.

14 Neuertheles whe the LORDE of hoostes herde of it, he sayde: yee, yf this wickednes of yours shalbe remitted, ye must die for it. This hath ye LORDE God of hoostes spoken.

15 Thus sayeth the LORDE God of hoostes: Go in to the treasury vnto Sobna the gouernoure, and saye vnto him:

16 What hast thou here to do? & from whence comest thou? that thou hast made the a graue here? For he had caused a costly tombe of stone to be made for himself, and a place to lye in to be hewen out of a rock.

17 Beholde the LORDE shal cast the out by violence, he will deck the of another fashion, and put vpon the a straunge clothe.

18 He shal carie ye in to a farre coudre, like a ball with his hondes, There shalt thou die, there shal the pompe of thy charettes haue an ende: thou vylleyn of the house of thy LORDE:

19 I wil shute the out of thine office, and put the from thine estate.

20 After this wil I cal my seruaunt Eliakim, ye sonne of Helkia,

21 and araye him with thy cote, and gyrdle him with thy gyrdle, and I wil geue thy power in to his honde He shalbe a father of the citisens of Ierusalem, and of the Kynred of Iuda.

22 I will also laye the keye of Dauides house vpon his sholders, and yf he open, no man shal shut, and yf he do shytt, no man shal open.

23 I wil fasten him to a nale in the place of the most hie faithfulness, and he shalbe vpon the glorius trone of his fathers house.

24 They shal hage vpon him all the glory of his fathers house, of the children and childers childre, all apparel small and great, all instrumentes of measure & musike.

25 This shal come to passe, (saieth the LORDE of hoostes) when the nale, yt is fastened to the place of the highest faithfulness: shalbe plucked of, And whe the weight that hangeth vpon it, shal fall, be broken, and hewen in peces. For the LORDE himself hath sayde it.

Chapter 23

1 An heuy burthen vpon Tirus. Mourne ye shippes of Tharsis, for she is throwne downe to the grounde, and conquered of them, that are come from Cithim.

2 The Indwellers of the Ilondes, the marchauntes of Sidon, and they that occupied the see (of whom thou wast ful sooty) are at a poynte.

3 For by see were there frutes brought vnto the, and all maner of corne by water. Thou wast the comon marcket of al people.

4 Sido is sory for it, yee and all ye power of the see coplaneth, and saieth: O yt I had neuer traueled with childe, that I had neuer borne eny, yt I had nether norished boye, ner brought vp daughter.

5 As soone as Egipte perceaueth it, she wilbe as sory as Tirus it self.

6 Go ouer the see, Mourne ye yt dwel in the Iles.

7 Is not that the glorious cite, which hath bene of longe antiquite? whose natyues dwellinge farre of, commende her so greatly?

8 Who hath deuysed soch thinges vpon Tirus the crowne of al cities, whose marchautes and captaynes were the highest and principal of the worlde?

9 Eue the LORDE of hoostes hath deuysed it, that he maye put downe al pompe, and minish all the glory of the worlde.

10 Go thorow thy londe (o thou daughter of the see) as men go ouer the water, and there is not a gyrdle more.

11 Thus the LORDE that remoueth the kingdomes, and hath taken in hande agaynst that mightie Canaan to rote it out:) hath stretched out his honde ouer the see,

12 and sayde: From hence forth shalt thou make no more myrth (o thou daughter Sidon) for thou shalt be put downe of the Cethes. Stonde vp therefore, and go where the enemie wil carie the, where thou shalt also haue no rest.

13 Beholde (for thyne ensample:) The Caldees were soch a people, that no man was like them, Assur buylded them: he set vp his castels & palaces, and broke them downe agayne.

14 And therefore mourne (ye shippes of the see) for youre power shalbe throwne downe.

15 After that, shal the lxx yeaes of Tirus (euen as longe as their kinges life was) be forgotten. And after lxx. yeaes, it shal happe to Tirus as with an harlot that playeth vpon a lute.

16 Take thy lute (saie men to her) and go aboute the citie, thou art yet an vnknowne wensche, make pastyme with dyuerse balettes, wherby thou mayest come in to aquauntance.

17 Thus shal it happen after lxx. yeaes. The LORDE shal uiset the cite of Tirus, and it shal come agayne to hyr Marchaundayse, and shal occupie with al the Kingdomes that be in the worlde.

18 But all hir occupiege and wynnyng, shalbe halowed vnto the LORDE. For then shal they laye vp nothinge behinde them nor vpon heapes: but the marchandise of Tirus shal beloge vnto the citisens of the LORDE, to the fedinge and susteninge of the hugrie, and to the clothinge of the aged.

Chapter 24

1 Beholde, ye LORDE shal waist and plage the worlde, he shal make the face of the earth desolate, & scatre abroad ye inhabitours therof.

2 Then shal the prest be as the people, the master as the seruaunt, the dame like the mayde, the seller like the byer, he that ledeth vpon vsury, like him yt boroweth vpon vsury, the creditoure, as the detter.

3 Yee miserably shal ye worlde be waysted & clene destroyed. For ye LORDE hath so determed in himself.

4 The earth shalbe heuye and decaye: The face of ye earth shal perish & fal awaye, the proude people of ye worlde shal come to naught,

5 For ye earth is corrupte of hir indwellers. For why they haue offended ye lawe, chaunged the ordinauces, and made the euerlastinge testamet of none effecte,

6 And therefore shal the curse deuoure the earth: for they yt dwel thero, haue synned. wherfor they shalbe brent also, and those that remayne, shalbe very few.

7 The swete wyne shal mourne, the grapes shalbe weake, and all yt haue bene mery in harte, shal sigh.

8 The myrth of tabrettes shalbe layde downe, the chere of the ioyful shal cease, and the pleasure of lutes shal haue an ende:

9 there shal no more wyne bedronke with myrth, the beer shal be bytter to the that drinke it,

10 the wicked cities shalbe broken downe, all houses shalbe shut, that no man maye come in.

11 In the stretes shal there be lift vp a crie because of wyne, all mens chere shal vanish away, and all ioye of the earth shal passe.

12 Desolacion shal remayne in the cities, and the gates shalbe smytten with waistnesse.

13 For it shal happen vnto all londes and to all people, like as when a ma smyteth downe ye olyues, yt are left vpon the tre: or seketh after grapes, when the wyne gathering is out.

14 And those same (that remayne) shal lift vp their voyce, and be glad, & shal magnifie the glory of the LORDE, euen from the see, 15 & prayse the name of the LORDE God of Israel, in the valeis and Ildodes.

16 We heare songes sunge to the prayse of the righteous, fro al the endes of the worlde. Therefore I must speake: O my vnfrutfulnesse, o my pouerte, Wo is me, all is ful of synneres, which offende of purpose and malice.

17 And therefore, (o thou that dwellest vpon the earth) there is at hode for the, feare, pyt and snare.

18 Who so escapeth the terrible crie, shal fall in to the pyt. And yf he come out of the pyt, he shalbe take with the snare. For the wyndowes aboue shalbe opened, and the foundation of the earth shal moue.

19 The earth shal geue a greate crack, it shal haue a sore ruynes, and take an horrible fall.

20 The earth shal stacker like a dronken man, and be take awaye like a tent. Hir misdedes shal lie so heuye vpo her, yt she must fall, and neuer rise vp agayne.

21 At the same tyme shal the LORDE mustre together the hie hooste aboue, and ye kynges of the worlde vpon the earth.

22 These shalbe coupled together as prisoners be, and shalbe shut in one ward and punished innumerable daies.

23 The Moone and the Sonne shalbe ashamed, when the LORDE of hoostes shal rule them at Ierusalem vpon the mount Sion, before and with his excellent council.

Chapter 25

1 O Lorde, thou art my God, I wil prayse the, and magnifie yi name: For thou bringest marvelous thinges to passe, accordinge to thine olde counsels, truly and stedfastly.

2 Thou makest of townes, heapes of stone: and of head cities, broken walles: The palaces of the wicked destroyest thou out of the citie, that they shal neuer be buylded agayne.

3 Therefore the very rude people must magnifie the, and the cities of the cruel heithen must feare the.

4 For thou art the poore mans helpe, a strenght for the neadful in his necessite. Thou art a defence agaynst euel wether, a schadowe agaynst the hete. But vnto the presumptuous, thou art like a stroge whyrle wynde, that casteth downe

5 the boostinge of the vngodly, thou kepest men from heate with the shadow of the cloudes, thou cuttest of the branches of tyrauntes.

6 Morouer the LORDE of hoostes shal once prepare a feast for all people vpo the hill: A plenteous, costly, pleasaunt feast, of fat and welfed beastes, of swete and most pure thinges.

7 Vpon the hill shal he take awaye the syde vale yt hageh before ye face of al people, and the coueringe wherwith all Gentiles are couered.

8 As for death, he shal vtterly cosume it, The LORDE God shal wipe awaye the teares from all faces, and take awaye the confucio of his people thorow ye whole worlde. For ye LORDE himself hath sayde it.

9 At the same tyme shal it be sayde: Io, this is oure God in who we put oure trust, and he hath healed vs. This is the LORDE that we haue wayted for: Let vs reioyse & delyte in his health.

10 For the hode of ye LORDE ceaseth vpo this hil. But Moab shalbe throsshe downe vnder him, like as the straw is trode vnder fete in a doge hill.

11 For he shal stretch out his hodes vpon him, like as a swimmer doth to swymme. And wt the power of his hondes shal he cast downe his hie pompe.

12 As for his stroge holdes & hie walles: he shal buwe them, cast the downe, and sell the to the grounde in to dust.

Chapter 26

1 Then shal this songe be sunge in the londe of Iuda: We haue a stroge citie, the walles & the ordinauce shal kepe vs.

2 Ope ye gates, yt the good people maye go in, which laboureth for the treuth.

3 And thou, which art the doer and hast the matter in honde: shalt prouyde for peace, eue the peace yt me hope for in the.

4 Hope stil in the LORDE, for in the LORDE God is euerlastinge strenght.

5 For why, it is he, yt bringeth lowe the hie mynded citesyns, & casteth downe the proude cities. He casteth the to the groude, yee eue in to ye myre, yt they maye be trode

6 vnder the fete of the symple, & with the steppes of the poore.

7 Thou (LORDE) cosidrest the path of ye righteous, whether it be right, whether the waye of ye righteous be right.

8 Therefore (LORDE) we haue a respecte vnto the worlde, the yd the inhabitours of the soule.

9 My soule lusteth after the all the night loge, & my mynde haisteth frely to the. For as soone as thy iudgment is knowne to the worlde, the yd the inhabitours of the earth lerne righteousnesse.

10 But the vngodly (though he haue recaued grace) yet lerneth he not righteousnesse, but in that place where he is punished, he offendeth, & feareth not the glory of the LORDE.

11 LORDE, they wil not se thine hie honde, but they shal se it, and be confounded: whe thou shalt deuoure them with the wrath of the people, and with the fyre of thine enemies.

12 But vnto vs (LORDE) prouyde for peace: for thou workest in vs all or workes.

13 O LORDE oure God, though soch lordes haue dominacion vpon vs as knowe not the: yet graute, that we maye only hope in the, and kepe thy name in remembraunce.

14 The malicious Tyrauntes whe they die, are nether in life nor in the resurreccio, for thou visitest the and roostest the out, and destroyest all the memoryall of them.

15 Agayne, thou increcest the people (o LORDE), thou increcest the people, thou shalt be praysed and magnified in all ye endes of the worlde.

16 The people that seke vnto the in trouble, that same aduersite which they complane of, is vnto the a chastenyng before the.

17 Like as a wife wt childe (whe hir trauayle cometh vpo her) is ashamed, crieth and suffreth the payne: Eue so are we (o LORDE) in thy sight.

18 We are with childe, we trauayle, & beare, & with the sprete we bringe forth health, wherethorow the earth is vndestroyed, and the inhabitours of the worlde perish not.

19 But as for thy dead men and ours, that be departed, they are in life and resurrection. They lie in the earth, they wake, & haue ioye: for yi dew is a dew of life & light. But ye place of the malicious Tyrauntes is falle awaye.

20 So go now my people in to thy chabre, and shut the doore to the, and suffre now ye twicklinge of an eye, till the wrath be ouerpast

21 For beholde, the LORDE wil go out of his habitacion, & vyset the wickednes of the that dwell vpon earth. He wil discouer the bloude that she hath deuoured, she shal neuer hyde the, that she hath murthured.

Chapter 27

1 Then the LORDE with his heuye, great and loge swearde shal vyset Leuiatha, that invincible serpet: eue Leuiatha yt croked serpent, and shal slaye the Wallfish in ye see.

2 At the same tyme shal me synge of the vnyarde of Muscatel.

3 I the LORDE kepe it, and water it in due season. I watch daye & night, that no man breake in to it. I beare no euel wil in my mynde.

4 Who will compell me, that I greatly forgettinge all faithfulnessse, shulde burne it vp at once wt thornes & bushes?

5 Or who will enforce me to kepe or make peace?

6 It wil come to this poynte, yt Iacob shalbe rooted agayne, and Israel shalbe grene & beare floures, & they shal fyll ye whole worlde wt their frute.

7 Smyteth he not his smyter, as euel as he is smytte himself? Destroieth he not ye murthers, as he is murthured?

8 Euery ma recopenseth wt ye measure yt he receaueth: He museth vpo his sore wynde, as vpo the dayes of extreme heate.

9 And therefore shal the iniquite of Iacob be thus reconciled. And so shal he take awaye all ye frute of his synnes. As for aulter stones, he shal make them all as stones beaten to poulder: the Groues and Idols shal not stonde.

10 The stronge cities shalbe desolate, and ye fayre cities shalbe left like a wildernes. The catel shal fede and lie there, and the shepe shal eate it vp.

11 Their haruest shal be brent, their wyues which were their bewtie when they came forth: shalbe defyled. For it is a people without vnderstodinge, and therefore he yt created them, shal not fauoure them: and he yt made them, shal not be merciful to the.

12 In yt tyme shal ye LORDE shute from ye swifte water of Euphrate, vnto ye ryuer of Egipte. And there shal the children be chosen out one by one.

13 Then shal the greate trompet be blowen, so that those which haue bene destroyed in the Assirians londe, and those that be scaterd abroad in Egipte: shal come & worshipe the LORDE at Ierusalem, vpo the holy mount.

Chapter 28

1 Wo be to ye crowne of pryde, to ye dronke Ephraemites, and to the faydinge floure, to the glory of his pope, yt is vpo the toppe of the pleteous valley: which me be ouerladen wt wyne.

2 Beholde, the strenght and power of the LORDE shal breake in to the londe on euery syde, like a tempest of hale, that beareth downe stronge holdes, and like an horrible, mightie and ouer flowinge water.

3 And the proude crowne of the dronken Ephraemites, shal be troden vnderfoote.

4 And as for the faydinge floure, the glory of his pompe, which is vpon the toppe of the plenteous valley: it shal happen vnto him, as to a vntymely frute before the haruest come. Which as soone as it is sene, is by and by deuoured, or euer it come well in a mans honde.

5 And then shal the LORDE of hoostes be a ioyful crowne, and a glorious garlade vnto the remnaunt of his people.

6 Vnto the lowly, he shalbe a sprete of iudgment, and vnto them that dryue awaye the enemies from ye gates, he shalbe a sprete of strenght.

7 But they go wronge by ye reason of wyne, they fall and stacker because of stroge drynke. Yee eue the prestes and prophetes them selues go amisse, they are dronken with wyne, and weake braned thorow stronge drynke. They erre in seinge, and in iudgment they fayle.

8 For all tables are so ful of vomyte and fylthynes, yt no place is clene.

9 What is he amonge them, yt can teach, instructe or enfourme the childe, which are weened from suck or taken from the brestes: of eny other fashion, then:

10 Commaunde yt maye be commaunded, byd yt maye be bydde, forbyd that maye be forbydde, kepe backe yt maye be kepte backe, here a litle, there a litle.

11 And therefore the LORDE also shal speake wt lispinge lippes and wt a straunge laguage vnto this people, to whom he spake afore of this maner:

12 This shal bringe rest, yf one refresh the weery, ye this shal bringe rest. But they had no will to heare.

13 And therefore the LORDE shal answere their stubbournes (Comaunde yt maye be comaunded, byd yt maye be bydden, forbyd yt maye be forbydde, kepe backe yt maye be kepte backe, here a litle, there a litle) That they maye go forth, fall backwarde, be brussted, snared and taken.

14 Wherefore heare the worde of the LORDE, ye mockers that rule the LORDES people, which is at Ierusalem.

15 For ye coforte yor selues thus: Tush, death & we are at a poynte, & as for hell, we haue made a codicion with it: that though there breake out eny sore plage, it shal not come vpon vs. For with disceate wil we escape, and with nymblenes wil we defende or selues.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORDE God: Beholde, I wil laye a stone in Sion, a greate stone, a costly corner stone for a sure foundation: yt who so putteth his trust in him, shal not be confounded.

17 Rightuousnes wil I set vp agayne in ye balauce, and iudgment in the weightes. The tepest of hale shal take awaye yor refuge, that ye haue to disceau withal, and ye ouerflowinge waters shal breake downe yor stroge holdes of dissimulacio.

18 Thus the appoyntmet that ye haue made wt death, shalbe done awaye, and the codicion that ye made with hell, shal not stode. When the greate destructio goeth thorow, it shal all to treade you, It shal take you quyte awaye before it.

19 For it shal go forth early in the mornyng, and contynue only yt daye and yt night. And the very feare only shal teach you, when ye heare it.

20 For ye bedde shalbe so narrow yt a ma ca not lye vpon it. And the cowering to small, that a ma maye not wynde him self therin.

21 For the LORDE shal steppe forth as he dyd vpon the mount Perazim, and shal take on as he dyd vpo the dale of Gabaon: that he maye bringe forth his deuyce, his strange deuyce: and fulfil his worke, his wonderful worcke.

22 And therefore make no mockes at it, that youre captiuyte increase not: for I haue herde the LORDE of hoostes saye, that there shal come a soden destruction and plage vpon the whole earth.

23 Take hede, and heare my voyce, pondre and merck my wordes wel.

24 Goeth not the husbonde man euer in due season earnestly to his londe? he moweth & ploweth his grounde to sowe. 25 And whe he hath made it playne, he soweth it with fitches or comyn. He soweth ye wheate and Barlye in their place, Milium and Rye also in their place.

26 And yt he maye do it right, his God teacheth him and sheweth him.

27 For he treadeth not the fitches out with a wayne, nether bringeth he the cart here and there ouer the comyn, but he throssheth ye fitches out with a flale, and the comyn with a rod.

28 As for the wheate, he gryndeth it to make bred therof, In as moch as he can not bringe it to passe wt treadinge out. For nether the brussinge that the cart wheles make, ner his beastes can grynde it.

29 This and soch like thinges come of the LORDE of hostes which is maruelous in counsell, and greate in rightuousnesse.

Chapter 29

1 Wo vnto the o Ariel Ariel, thou cite that Dauid wane. Take yet some yeares, and let some feastes yet passe ouer:

2 then shal Ariel be beseged, so that she shal be heuy and sorouful, and shal be vnto me euen as a lyon.

3 For I wil laye sege to the rounde aboute, and kepe ye in with towers, and graue vp dykes agaynst ye.

4 And thou shalt be brought lowe, and speake out of the earth, and thy wordes shal go humbly out of ye grounde.

5 Thy voyce shal come out of the earth, like the voyce of a witch, and thy talkinge shal groane out of the myre. For the multitude of thine enemies shalbe like mealdust. And the nombre of Tyrautes shalbe as ye dust that the wynde taketh awaye sodenly.

6 Thou shalt be visited of the LORDE of hoostes with thondre, earth quake, and with a greate crack, with the whyrle wynde, tempest, and with the flame of a consumynge fyre.

7 But now the multitude of all the people, that went out agaynst Ariel: the whole hooste, the stronge holdes, and sege: is like a dreame which apeareth in the night.

8 It is like as when an hungrie man dreameth that he is eatynge, and when he awaketh, he hath nothinge: like as when a thurstie man dreameth that he is drinkinge, and when he awaketh, he is faynt, and his soule vnpacient. So is the multitude of all people, that mustre them selues agaynst the hill of Sion.

9 But ye shalbe at youre wittes ende, ye shalbe abasshed: ye shal stackre, and rele to and fro. Ye shalbe dronken, but not of wyne. Ye shal fall, but not thorow dronkenes:

10 For the LORDE shal geue you an hard slepinge sprete, and holde downe youre eyes: namely yor prophetes and heades which shulde se, them shal he couer.

11 And all visions shalbe vnto you, as the wordes that stonde in a sealed lettre, when one offreth it to a man that is lerned, and sayeth: rede vs this lettre. The he answereth: I ca not rede it, for it is stutt.

12 But yf it be geue to one yt is not lerned, or sayde vnto him: rede this lettre: Then sayeth he. I can not rede.

13 Therefore thus sayeth the LORDE: For so moch as this people draweth nye me wt their mourh, and prayseth me highly with their lippes (where as there herte neuertheles is farre fro me, and the feare which they owe vnto me, that turne they to mens lawes and doctrynes)

14 therefore wil I also shewe vnto this people, a maruelous terrible and greate thinge (Namely this:) I wil destroye the wisdome of their wise, and the vnderstodinge of their lerned men shal perish.

15 Wo be vnto them that seke so depe, to hyde their ymaginacion before the LORDE, which rehearse their coucels in ye darknes, and saye: who seith vs, or who knoweth vs?

16 Which ymaginacion of yours is euen as when the potters claye taketh advisemet, as though the worke might saye to ye worke master: make me not, or as when an erthen vessel saieth of the potter: he vnderstodeth not.

17 Se ye not that it is hard by, that Libanus shalbe turned in to Charmel, and that Charmel shalbe taken as a wodde?

18 Then shal deaf men vnderstonde the wordes of the boke, and the eyes of the blynde shal se without eny cloude or darknes.

19 The oppressed shal holde a mery feast in the LORDE, and the poore people shal reioyse in the holy one of Israel.

20 Then shal the furious people cease, and ye mockers shal be put awaye, and all they yt do wronge shalbe rooted out, 21 soch as laboure to drawe me vnto synne: and yt disceau him, which reprooueth them in the gate, & soch as turne good persones to vanite.

22 And therefore the LORDE (euen the defender of Abraham) saith thus vnto the house of Iacob: Now shal not Iacob be ashamed, nor his face cofounded,

23 when he seith amonge his children (whom my hondes haue made) soch as halowe my name amonge them: that they maye sancifie the holy one of Iacob, and feare the God of Israel:

24 and that they which afore tyme were of an erroneouse sprete, haue now vnderstodinge, and yt soch as before coude not speake, are now lerned in my lawe.

Chapter 30

1 Wo be to those shrenkinge children (saieth the LORDE) which seke counsell, but not at me: which take a webbe in honde, but not after my will: that they maye heape one synne vpon another.

2 They go downe in to Egipte, (and axe me no counsell) to seke helpe at the power of Pharao, and coforte in the shadowe of the Egipcians.

3 But Pharaos helpe shalbe youre cofucion, and the comforte in the Egipcians shadowe shalbe youre owne shame.

4 Youre rulers haue bene at Zoan, and yor messaungers came vnto Hanes.

5 But ye shal all be ashamed of the people yt maye not helpe you, which shal not bringe you strength or comforte, but shame and confucion.

6 Youre beastes haue borne burthens vpo their backes towarde the South, thorow the waye that is ful of parell and trouble, because of the lyo and lyones, of the Cockatrice and shutynge dragon. Yee the Mules bare youre substaunce, and the Camels brought yor treasure vpon their croked backes, vnto a people that can not helpe you.

7 For the Egipcians helpe shalbe but vane and lost. Therefore I tolde you also yt youre pryde shulde haue an ende.

8 Wherefore go hece, and write them this in their tables, and note it in a booke: that it maye remayne by their posterite, and be stil kepte.

9 For it is an obstinate people, vnfaithful children, children that wil not heare the lawe of the LORDE.

10 They darre saye to the prophetes: Intromitte youre selues with nothinge, and vnto ye Soythsayers: tell us of nothinge for to come, but speake frendly wordes vnto vs, and preach vs false thinges.

11 Treade out of the waye, go out of the path, turne the holy one of Israel from vs.

12 Therefore thus saith the holy one of Israel: In as moch as ye haue cast of youre bewtie, and comforted youre selues with power and nymblenesse, and put youre confidence therin:

13 therefore shal ye haue this myschefe agayne for youre destruction and fall, like as an hie wall, that falleth because of some rift (or blast,) whose breakinge cometh sodenly.

14 And youre destruction shalbe like as an erthe pot, which breaketh no man touchinge it, yee and breaketh so sore, that a man shal not fynde a sheuer of it to fetch fyre in, or to take water with all out of the pyt.

15 For the LORDE God, euen the holy one of Israel hath promised thus: With stilsittinge and rest shal ye be healed, In quietnesse and hope shal youre strength lye.

16 Notwithstodinge ye regarde it not, but ye will saie: No, for thus are we costrayned to fle vpo horses. (And therefore shall ye fle) we must ryde vpon swift beastes, and therefore youre persecutours shal yet be swifter.

17 A thousand of you shal fle for one, or at the most for fyue, which do but only geue you euell wordes: vntil ye be desolate, as a shipmast vpon an hie mountayne, and as a beaken vpon an hill.

18 Yet stondesth the LORDE waitinge, that he maye haue mercy vpon you, and lifteth him self vp, that he maye receaue you to grace. For the LORDE God is rightuous. Happie are all thei that wate for him.

19 For thus (o thou people of Sion and ye citisens of Ierusalem) shal ye neuer be in heuynes, for doutlesse he will haue mercy vpon the. As soone as he heareth the voyce of thy crie, he will helpe the.

20 The LORDE geueth you the bred of aduersite, and the water of trouble. But thine instructor fleyth not farre from the, yf thine eyes loke vnto thine instructor, 21 and thine eares harken to his worde, that crieth after the and saith: This is the waye, go this, and turne nether to the right honde nor the leffte.

22 Morouer yf ye destroye the syluer workes of youre Idols, and cast awaye the golden coapes that ye deckt them withall (as fylthynges) and saie, get you hence:

23 The wil he geue rayne to the sede, that ye shal sowe in the earth, and geue you breade of the increase of the earth, so that all shalbe plenteous aud abundaunt. Thy catel also shal he fede in the brode medowes.

24 yee thine oxe and Mules that till the grounde, shal eat good fodder, which is poured wt ye fanne.

25 Goodly ryuers shal flowe out of all his mountaynes and hilles. In the daye of the greate slaughter when the towers shal fall, 26 the Moone shal shyne as the Sonne and ye Sone shyne shalbe seuefolde, and haue as moch shyne, as in seuen dayes beside. In that daye shal the LORDE bynde vp ye brusced sores of his people, and heale their woundes.

27 Beholde, the glory of the LORDE shal come from farre, his face shal burne, that no man shalbe able to abyde it, his lippes shal wagge for very indignacion, and his tunge shal be as a consumynge fyre.

28 His breath like a vehement floude of water, which goeth vp to the throte. That he maye take awaye ye people, which haue turned them selues vnto vanite, and the brydle of errooure, that lieth in other folkes chawes.

29 But ye shal synge, as the vse is in ye night of the holy solempnite. Ye shal reioyse from youre hert, as they that come with the pipe, when they go vp to the mount of the LORDE, vnto ye rock of Israel.

30 The LORDE also shal set vp the power of his voyce, and declare his terrible arme, with his angrie countenance, yee and the flame of the consumynge fyre, with earth quake, tempest of wynde, and hale stones.

31 Then shal the Assirian feare also, because of the voyce of the LORDE, which shal smyte him with the rodde.

32 And the same rodde which the LORDE wil sende vpon him, shal moue the whole foundation: with trompet, with noyse of warre and batell to destroye.

33 For he hath prepared the fyre of payne from the begynnyng, yee euen for kynges also. This hath he made depe & wyde, ye norishing therof is fyre and wodde innumerable, which the breath ofte LORDE kyndleth, as it were a match of brymstone.

Chapter 31

1 Wo vnto them that go downe in to Egipte for helpe, and trust in horses, and conforte them selues in Charettes, because they be many, and in horse me because they be lustie and stronge. But they regarde not the holy one of Israel, and they aske no question at the LORDE.

2 Where as he neuertheles plageth ye wicked, and yet goeth not from his worde, wha he steppeth forth and taketh the victory agaynst the housholde of the frauwerde, and against the helpe of euel doers.

3 Now the Egiptians are men, and not God, and their horses flesh and not sprete. And as soone as the LORDE stretcheth out his honde, then shal the helper fall, and he that shulde haue bene helped, and shal altogether be destroyed.

4 For thus hath the LORDE spoke vnto me: Like as the Lyon or lyos whelpe roareth vpon the pray that he hath gotten, and is not afrayde, though ye multitude of shepardes crie out vpon him, nether abashed for all the heape of them: So shal the LORDE of hoostes come downe from the mount Sion, and defende his hill.

5 Like as byrdes flote aboute their nestes, so shal the LORDE of hoostes kepe, saue, defende and deliuer Ierusalem.

6 Therefore (o ye childre of Israel turne agayne, like as ye hahau exceede in youre goinge back.

7 For in yt daye euery man shal cast out his Idols of syluer and golde, which ye haue made with youre synful hondes.

8 Assur also shalbe slayne with the swerde, not wt a mans swerde. A swerde shal deuoure him, but not a mans swerde. And he shal fle from the slaughter, and his seruantes shalbe taken prisoners.

9 He shal go for feare to his stronge holdes, and his prynces shal fle from his badge. This hath ye LORDE spoke, whose light burneth in Sion, and his fyre in Ierusalem.

Chapter 32

1 Beholde, the kinge shal gouerne after ye rule of rightuousnes, and ye princes shal rule accordinge to the balaunce of equite.

2 He shalbe vnto me, as a defence for the wynde, and as a refuge for the tempest, like as a ryuer of water in a thirstie place, and ye shadowe of a greate rock in a drie lode.

3 The eyes of the seinge shall not be dymme, and the eares of them that heare, shal take diliget hede.

4 The hert of the vnwise, shal attayne to knowlege, and the vnparfite tuge shal speake planely and distinctly.

5 Then shal the nygarde be no more called gentle, ner the churle lyberall.

6 But the churle wil be churlishly mynded, and his hert wil worke euell and playe the yprocrite, and ymagyn abhominacios agaynst God, to make the hungrie leane, and to withholde drinke from the thirstie:

7 These are the perlous weapons of the cuvetous, these be his shameful counsels: that he maye begyle the poore with his disceatful workes, yee euen there as he shulde geue sentence with the poore.

8 But the liberall person ymagineth honest thinges, and commeth vp with honesty.

9 Vp (ye rich and ydle cities), harken vnto my voyce. Ye careles cities, marcke my wordes.

10 After yeares and dayes shal ye be brought in feare, o ye carelesse cities. For Haruest shalbe out, and the grape gatheringe shal not come.

11 O ye rich ydle cities, ye that feare no parell, ye shalbe abashed and remoued: when ye se the barennesse, the nakednesse and preparinge to warre.

12 Ye shal knock vpo youre brestes, because of the pleasaut felde, and because of the fruteful vnyarde.

13 My peoples felde shal bringe thornes and thistels, for in euery house is voluptuousnes & in the cities, wilfulnes.

14 The palaces also shalbe broken, and the greatly occupide cities desolate. The towers and bulwerckes shalbe become dennes for euermore, the pleasure of Mules shalbe turned to pasture for shepe:

15 Vnto the tyme that ye sprete be poured vpon vs from aboue. Then shal the wildernesse be a fruteful felde & the plenteous felde shalbe rekened for a wodde.

16 Then shal equyte dwel in the deserte, and rightuousnesse in a fruteful londe.

17 And the rewarde of rightuousnesse shalbe peace, and hir frute rest and quietnesse for euer.

18 And my people shal dwel in the ynnnes of peace, in my tabernacle and pleasure, where there is ynough in the all.

19 And whe the hale falleth, it shal fall in the wodde and in the citie.

20 O how happy shal ye be, whe ye shal safely wowe youre sede besyde all waters & dryue thither the fete of youre oxe & asses.

Chapter 33

1 Therefore wo vnto the (o robber) shalt not thou be robbed also? and vnto the that laiest wait, as who saye there shulde no waite be layde for the? Wo vnto the which doest hurte, euen so shalt thou be hurt also. And as thou layest waite, so shal wait be layde for the also.

2 LORDE be merciful vnto vs, we wait for the. Thine arme is at a poynte to vyset vs, but be thou oure health in the tyme of trouble.

3 Graute that the people maye fle at the anger of thy voyce, & that at thy vpstondinge the Gentiles maye be scatred abrode,

4 and that their spoyle maye be gathered, as the greshoppers are comonly gathered together in to the pyt.

5 Stonde vp LORDE, thou that dwellest on hie: Let Sio be fylled with equyte and rightuousnesse.

6 Let treuth and faithfulness be in hir tyme: power, health, wisdom, knowlege & the feare of God are hir treasure.

7 Beholde, their aungels crie with out, the messengers of peace wepe bitterly.

8 The stretes are waist, there walketh no man therin, the appoyntmen is broken, the cities are despised, they are not regarded,

9 the desolate earth is in heuynes. Libanus taketh it but for a sporte, that it is hewen downe: Saron is like a wyldernes: Basa & Charmel are turned vpside downe.

10 And therefore saith ye LORDE: I wil vp, now wil I get vp, now wil I aryse.

11 Ye shal conceaue stubble, and beare strawe, & youre sprete shalbe the fyre, that it maye consume you:

12 & the people shalbe burnt like lyme, & as thornes burne that are hewen of, & cast in the fyre.

13 Now herken to (ye that are farre of) how I do with them, & cosidre my glory, ye that be at honde.

14 The synners at Sion are afrayde, a sodane fearfulnessse is come vpon the ypocrytes. What is he amonge us (saye they) that wil dwell by that consumynge fyre? which of vs maye abyde that euerlasting heate?

15 He that ledeth a godly life (saye I) & speaketh the treuth: He that abhorreth to do violence and disceate: he that kepeth his hode that he touch no rewarde: which stoppeth his eares, that he heare no counsell agaynst the innocent: which holdeth downe his eyes, that he se no euel.

16 He it is, that shal dwel on hie, whose sauegarde shalbe in the true rocke, to him shalbe geuen the right true meat & drynke.

17 His eyes shal se the kyng in his glory: & in the wyde worlde,

18 and his herte shal delite in the feare of God. What shal then become of the scribe? of the Senatoure? what of him that teacheth childre?

19 There shalt thou not se a people of a straunge tuge, to haue so diffused a laguage, that it maye not be vnderstonde: nether so straunge a speache, but it shal be perceaued.

20 There shal Sion be sene, the head citie of oure solempne feastes. There shal thine eyes se Ierusalem that glorious habitation: the tabernacle that neuer shal remoue, whose nailes shal neuer be taken out worlde without ende, whose coardes euerychone shal neuer corruppe:

21 for the glorious Magesty of the LORDE shal there be present amoge vs. In that place (where fayre broade ryuers & streames are) shal nether Gallye rowe, ner greate shippe sale.

22 For the LORDE shalbe oure capteyne, the LORDE shalbe oure lawe geuer, The LORDE shalbe oure kinge, & he himself shalbe oure Sauioure.

23 There are the coardes so layd abrode, that they ca not be better: The mast set vp of such a fashion, that no baner ner sale hageht thero: but there is dealed greate spoyle, yee lame men runne after the pray.

24 There lieth no ma that saieth: I am sick, but all euel is taken awaye from the people, that dwel there.

Chapter 34

1 Come ye Heithen & heare, take hede ye people. Herke thou earth & all that is therin: thou rounde copasse & al that groweth thervpon:

2 for the LORDE is angrie with al people, & his displeasure is kindled agaynst all the multitude of them, to curse them, & to slaye them.

3 So that their slayne shalbe cast out, & their bodies stincke: that eue the very hilles shalbe wet with the bloude of them.

4 All the starres of heauen shalbe consumed, & the heauen shal folde together like a roll, & all the starres therof shall fall, like as the leaues fall from the vynes and fygetrees.

5 For my swearde (saieth he) shalbe bathed in heauen, & shal immediatly come downe vpon Idumea, and vpon the people which I haue cursed for my vengeance.

6 And the LORDES swearde shalbe full of bloude, & be rustie with the fatnesse & bloude of lambes and gootes, with the fatnesse of neeres of the wethers. For the LORDE shal kyl a great offringe in Bosra, and in the londe of Idumea.

7 There shal the Vnicornes fall with the Bulles, (that is with the gyautes) and their londe shalbe washed with bloude, & their grounde corrupte with fatnesse.

8 Vnto the also (o Sion) shal come the daye of the vengeance of God, and the yearre when as thynne owne iugdmentes shalbe recompensed.

9 Thy floudes shalbe turned to pytch, and thine earth to brymstone, & therwith shal the londe be kyndled,

10 so that it shal not be quenched daye ner night: But smoke euermore, & so forth to lie waist. And no man shal go thorow thy londe for euer:

11 But Pellicanes, Storkes, great Oules, and Rauens shall haue it in possession, & dwell therein. For God shal sprede out the lyne of desolacion vpon it, & weye it with the stonnes of emptynes.

12 When kinges are called vpo, there shalbe none, and all princes shalbe awaye.

13 Thornes shal growe in their palaces, nettles & thistles in their stronge holdes, yt the dragons maye haue their pleasure therin, & that they maye be a courte for Estriches.

14 There shal straunge visures and monstruous beastes mete one another, & the wyld kepe company together. There shal the lamia lye, & haue hir lodginge.

15 There shall the hedghogge buylde, digge, be there at home, and bringe forth his yongeones. There shal the kytes come together, ech one to his like.

16 Seke thorow the scripture of the LORDE & rede it. There shal none of these thinges be left out, there shal not one (ner soch like) fayle. For what his mouth commaundeth, that same doth his sprete gather together (or fulfilleth).

17 Vpon whom so euer ye lot fallet, or to whom he dealeth it with the line: those shal possesse the enheritaunce from generacion to generacion, and dwel therin.

Chapter 35

1 Bvt the deserte & wildernesse shal reioyse, ye waist grounde shal be glad, and florish as the lilly.

2 She shal florish pleasantly, and be ioyful, and euer be geuynge of thankes more and more. For ye glory of libanus, the bewty of Charmel & Saro shalbe geuen her. These shal knowe the honoure of the LORDE, and the magesty of oure God.

3 And therfore strength ye weake hodes, and conforte the feble knees.

4 Saye vnto them that are of a fearful herit: Be of good chere, and feare not. Beholde: youre God cometh, to take vengeance & to rewarde, God cometh his owne self, and wil delyuer you.

5 Then shal the eyes of the blinde be lightned, and the eares of the deaff opened.

6 Then shal the lame man leape as an herte, & the domme mas tuge shal geue thankes. In the wildernesse also there shal welles springe, and floudes of water in the deserte.

7 The drie grounde shal turne to ryuers, and the thurstie to springes of water. Where as dragons dwelt afore, there shal growe swete floures and grene russhes.

8 There shalbe footpathes & comon stretes, this shalbe called the holywaye. No vnclene person shal go thorow it, for the LORDE himself shal go with the that waye, and the ignoraut shal not erre.

9 There shalbe no lyon, and no rauyshinge beast shall come therin nor be there, but men shal go there fre and safe.

10 And the redemed of the LORDE shal conuerte, and come to Sion with thankesgeuynge. Euerlastinge ioye shal they haue, pleasure & gladnesse shalbe amoge them, And as for all sorow and heuynes, it shal vanish awaye.

Chapter 36

1 In the xiiij. yeare of kinge Ezechias, came Sennacherib kinge of the Assirians downe, to laye sege vnto all the stronge cities of Iuda

2 And the kinge of the Assirias sent Rabsaches from Lachis toward Ierusalem, agaynst kinge Ezechias, with a greuous hooste, which set him by the condite of the ouerpole, in the waye that goeth thorow ye fullers lode.

3 And so there came forth vnto him Eliachim Helchias sonne the presydet, Sobna the scribe, and Ioah Asaphs sonne the Secretary.

4 And Rabsaches sayde vnto them: Tel Ezechias, that the greate kinge of Assiria sayeth thus vnto him: What presumpcion is this, that thou trustest vnto?

5 Thou thinkest (peradueture) that thou hast counsel & power ynough, to mayntene this warre: or els wher to trustest thou, that thou castest thi self of fro me?

6 lo, Thou putttest thy trust in a broken staff of rede (I meane Egipte) which he that leaneth vpon, it goeth in to his honde & shuteth him thorow. Euen so is Pharao the kinge of Egipte, vnto all the that trust in him.

7 But yf thou woldest saye to me: We trust in ye LORDE oure God: A goodly god, in dede: whose hie places & alteres Ezechias toke downe, and commaunded Iuda and Ierusalem, to worshipe only before the alter.

8 Abyde the, thou hast made a condicion with my lorde the kinge of the Assirias, that he shulde geue the two thousande horses: Art thou able to set me there vp?

9 Seinge now that thou canst not resist the power of the smallest prynce that my LORDE hath, how darrest thou trust in yt charettes and horse men of Egipte?

10 Morouer, thinkest thou yt I am come downe hither, to destroye this londe with out the LORDES will? The LORDE sayde vnto me: go downe in to that londe, that thou mayest destroye it.

11 Then sayde Eliachim, Sobna & Iohah vnto Rabsaches: Speake to vs thy seruantes (we praye the) in the Sirians language, for we vnderstonde it well: And speake not to vs in the Iewes tunge, lest the folcke heare, which lieth vpon the wall.

12 Then answered Rabsaches: Thinke ye, yt the kinge sent me to speake this only vnto you? Hath he not sent me to the also, that lie vpo the wall? that they be not copelled to eate their owne donge, and drinke their owne stale with you?

13 And Rabsaches stode stiff, & cried with a loude voyce in the Iewes tuge, and sayde: Now take hede, how the greate kinge of the Assirias geueth you warnynge.

14 Thus saieth the kinge: Let not Ezechias disceaue you, for he shal not be able to delyuer you.

15 Morouer, let not Ezechias comferte you in the LORDE, when he saieth: The LORDE with out doute shal defende vs, & shal not geue ouer this cite in to the hondes of the kinge of the Assirias, beleue him not.

16 But thus saieth the kinge of Assiria: opteyne my faouere, encline to me: So maye euery ma enioye his vynyardes and fygetrees, and drinke the water of his cisterne:

17 vnto the tyme that I come myself, & bringe you in to a londe, yt is like youre owne: wher in is wheat and wyne, which is both sowed with sede, and planted with vynyardes.

18 Let not Ezechias disceaue you, when he sayeth vnto you: the LORDE shal delyuer us. Might the goddes of the Gentiles kepe euerymans londe, from the power of the kinge of the Assirians?

19 Wher is the God of hemath & Arphad? Where is the God of Sepharnaim? And who was able to defende Samaria out of my honde?

20 Or which of all the goddes of the lodes, hath deliuered their countre out of my power, so that the LORDE shulde delyuer Ierusalem fro my honde?

21 Vnto this, Ezechias messaugers helde their tungen, and answered not one worde: for the kinge had charged them, that they shulde geue him none answere.

22 So came Eliachim Elchias sonne the presidet, Sobna the scribe, and Ioah Asaphs sonne the Secretary, vnto Ezechias with rente clothes, & tolde him the wordes of Rabsaches.

Chapter 37

1 When Ezechias herde that, he rente his clothes, & put on a sack cloth, & went in to the temple of the LORDE.

2 But he sent Eliachim the Presidet, Sobna the scribe wt the eldest prestes clothed in sack, vnto the Prophet Esay the sonne of Amos,

3 & they sayde vnto him: Thus saieth Ezechias: this is the daye of trouble, of plage & of wrath: like as when a childe cometh to the byrth, but the woman hath no power to bringe it forth.

4 The LORDE thy God (no doute) hath well considered the wordes of Rabsaches, whom his lorde ye kinge of the Assirians hath sent, to defie & blaspheme the Iyuyng God: with soch wordes, as the LORDE yi God hath herde rightwell. And therfore lift vp yi prayer for the remnaunt, that yet are left.

5 So the seruantes of kinge Ezechias came to Esay.

6 And Esay gaue them this answer: Saie thus vnto youre lorde: thus saieth the LORDE: Be not afrayde of the wordes that thou hast herde, wherwith the kinge of Assirias seruantes haue blasphemed me.

7 Beholde, I will cause a wynde go ouer him, as soone as he heareth it, he shal go agayne in to his countre, there will I distroye him with the swerde.

8 Now when Rabsaches returned, he founde ye kinge of Assiria layenge sege to Lobna, for he had vnderstonde, that he was departed from Lachis.

9 For there came a rumoure, yt Taracha kinge of Ethiopie was come forth to warre agaynst him. And when the kinge of Assiria herde yt, he sent other messaugers to kinge Ezechias, with this commaundement.

10 Saye thus to Ezechias kinge of Iuda: Let not thy God disceaue the, in whom thou hopest, & sayest: Ierusalem shal not be geue in to the hondes of the kinge of Assiria.

11 For thou knowest well, how the kinges of Assiria haue handled all the londes, that they haue subuerted, & hapest thou to escape?

12 Were the people of the Getiles (whom my progenitours coquered) deliuered at eny tyme thorow their goddes? As namely, Gozan, Haran, Rezep, & the childre of Eden, which dwell at Thalassar.

13 Where is the kinge of Hemath, & the kinge of Arphad, & the kinge of the citie Sepharnaim, Ena and Aua?

14 Now when Ezechias had receaued ye lettre of the messaugers, & red it, he went vp in to the house of the LORDE, & opened the lettre before ye LORDE.

15 And Ezechias prayed before the LORDE on this maner:

16 O LORDE of hoostes, thou God of Israel, which dwellest vpo Cherubin. Thou art the God, that only is God of all the kingdome of the worlde, for thou only hast created haue & earth.

17 Encline thine eare LORDE & cosidre, open thine eyes (o LORDE,) & se, and pondre all the wordes of Senacherib, which hath sent his embassage to blasphem the, the luyunge God.

18 It is true (o LORDE) that the kinges of Assiria haue coquered all kingdomes & londes, 19 & cast their goddes in the fyre. Notwithstodinge those were no goddes but the workes of mens hondes, of wodd or stone, therefore haue they destroyed them.

20 Delyuer vs then (o LORDE oure God) from the hondes of Sennacherib, yt all kingdomes of the earth maye knowe, that thou only art ye LORDE.

21 Then Esay the sonne of Amos sent vnto Ezechias, sayenge: Thus saieth ye LORDE God of Israel: Where as thou hast made thy prayer vnto me, as touching Sennacherib, 22 this is the answer, that the LORDE hath geuen concernyng him: Despised art thou, & mocked (o daughter of Sion) he hath shaken his heade at the, o daughter of Ierusalem.

23 But thou Sennacherib, whom hast thou defied or blaspemed? And agaynst who hast thou lifted vp thy voyce, & exalted thy proude lokes? euen agaynst the holy one of Israel.

24 Thou with thy seruauntes hast blasphemed the LORDE, and thus holdest thou of thyself: I couer the hie mountaynes, & sydes of Libanus with my horsmen. And there wil I cut downe the hie Cedre trees & the fayrest Fyrrre trees. I will vp in to the heyth of it & in to the chefest of his timbre wodd.

25 Yf there be no water, I wil graue & drynke. And as for waters of defence, I shal drie them vp with the fete of myne hooste.

26 Yee (saiest thou) hast thou not herde, what I haue taken in honde, & brought to passe of olde tyme? That same wil I do now also: waist, destroye, & bringe the stronge cities vnto heapes of stones.

27 For their inhabitours shalbe like lame men, brought in feare & confounded. They shalbe like the grasse & grene herbes in the felde, like the hay vpo house toppes, that wythereth, afore it be growne vp.

28 I knowe thy wayes, thy goinge forth & thy comynge home, yee & thy madnesse agaynst me.

29 Therefore thy furiousnesse agaynst me, & thy pryde is come before me. I wil put a ryng in yi nose, & a bridle byt in the chawes of the, & turne the aboute, eue the same waye thou camest.

30 I wil geue the also this token (o Ezechias) this yeare shalt thou eate that is kepte in stoare, & the next yeare soch as groweth of himself, and in the thirde yeare ye shal sowe and reape, yee ye shal plante vnyardes, and enioye the frutes therof.

31 And soch of the house of Iuda as are escaped, shal come together, and the remnaunt shal take rote beneth, & bringe forth frute aboute.

32 For the escaped shal go out of Ierusalem, & the remnaunte from the mount Sion. And this shal the gelousy of the LORDE of hoostes bringe to passe.

33 Therefore thus saieth the LORDE, cocernyng the kinge of the Assirians: He shall not come in to the citie, and shal shute no arowe in to it, there shall no shilde hurte it, nether shal they graue aboute it.

34 The same waye that he came, shal he returne, and not come at this citie, saieth the LORDE.

35 And I wil kepe and saue the citie (saieth he) for myne owne, & for my seruaunte Dauids sake.

36 Thus the angel went forth, and slewe of the Assirians hooste, an cxxxv. thousande. And when men arose vp early (at Ierusalem:) Beholde, all laye ful of deed bodies.

37 So Sennacherib the kinge of the Assirians brake vp, and dwelt at Ninieue.

38 Afterwarde it chaused, as he prayed in the Teple of Nesrah his god, that Adramalech and Sarazer his owne sonnes slewe him with the swearde, and fled in to the londe of Ararat. And Esarhadon his sonne reigned after him.

Chapter 38

1 Not longe afore this, was Ezechias deadsick: And the prophet Esay the sonne of Amos came vnto him, and sayde: Thus commaundeth the LORDE: Set thyne house in ordre, for thou must dye, and shalt not escape.

2 Then Ezechias turned his face toward the wall, & prayed vnto the LORDE,

3 and sayde: Remembre (o LORDE) that I haue walked before the in treuth and a stedfast hert, and haue done the thinge that is pleasaunt to the. And Ezechias wepte sore.

4 The sayde God vnto Esay:

5 Go and speake vnto Ezechias: The LORDE God of Dauid thy father sendeth ye this worde: I haue herde thy prayer, and considred thy teares: beholde, I will put xv yeares mo vnto thy life,

6 and delyuer the and the citie also, from the honde of the kinge of Assiria, for I will defende the cite.

7 And take the this token of the LORDE, yt he will do it, as he hath spoken:

8 Beholde, I will returne the shadowe of Achas Diall, yt now is layed out with the Sonne, and bringe it ten degrees backward. So the Sonne turned ten degrees backward, the which he was descended afore.

9 A thankesgeuyng, which Ezechias kinge of Iuda wrote, when he had bene sicke, & was recouered.

10 I thought I shulde haue gone to the gates of hell in my best age, and haue wanted the residue of my yeares.

11 I spake within my self: I shal neuer viset the LORDE God in this life: I shal neuer se man, amonge the dwellers of the worlde

12 Myne age is folden vp together and taken awaye fro me, like a sheperdes cotage: my lyfe is hewen of, like as a weueer cutteth of his webb. Why I was yet takinge my rest, he hewed me of, & made an ende of me in one daie.

13 I thought I wolde haue luyed vnto the morow, but he brused my bones like a lyon, and made an ende of me in one daye.

14 Then chatred I like a swallowe, and like a Crane, and mourned as a doue. I lift vp myne eyes in to ye hight: O LORDE, (sayde I) violence is done vnto me, be thou suertie for me.

15 What shal I speake or say, ethat he maye this doo? yt I maye lye out all my yeares, yee in the bytternesse of my life?

16 Verely (LORDE,) men must lye in bytternesse, & all my life must I passe ouer therin: For thou raysest me vp, and wakest me. But lo, I wilbe wel content with this bytternesse.

17 Neuertheles my couersacion hath so pleased ye, that thou woldest not make an ende of my life, so that thou hast cast all my synnes behynde thy backe.

18 For hell prayseth not the, death doth not magnifie the. They that go downe into the graue, prayse not thy treuth:

19 but the luyunge, yee the luyunge acknowlege the, like as I do this daye. The father telleth his children of thy faithfulness.

20 Delyuer vs (o LORDE) and we wil syng prayses in thy house, all the dayes of oure life.

21 And Esay sayde: take a playster offyges, and laye it vpon the sore, so shal it be whole.

22 Then saide Ezechias: O what a greate thinge is this, that I shal go vp in to the house of the LORDE.

Chapter 39

1 At the same tyme Merodach Balada, Baladas sonne kinge of Babilon, sent lettres and presentes to Ezechias. For he vnderstode, how that he had bene sick, & was recouered agayne.

2 And Ezechias was glad therof, & shewed them the comodities of his treasure: of syluer, of golde, of spyces & rootes, of precious oyles, all that was in his cubboordes and treasure houses. There was not one thinge in Ezechias house, & so thorow out all his kingdome, but he let them se it.

3 The came Esay the prophet to kinge Ezechias, and sayde vnto him: What haue ye men sayde, and from whence came they vnto the? Ezechias answered: They came out of a farre countre vnto me: out of Babilon.

4 Esay sayde: what haue they looked vpon in thyne house? Ezechias answerde: All that is in myne house, haue they sene: and there is nothinge in my treasure, but I shewed it them.

5 Then sayde Esay vnto Ezechias: Vnderstode the worde of the LORDE of hoostes,

6 Beholde, the tyme wil come, that euery thinge which is in thine house, and all that thy progenitours haue layde vp in stoare vnto this daye, shalbe caried to Babilon, and nothinge left behinde. This sayeth the LORDE.

7 Yee and parte of thy sonnes that shal come of the, and whom thou shalt get, shalbe caried hence, and become gelded chamberlaines in the kinge of Babilons courte:

8 Then sayde Ezechias to Esay: Now God prospere his owne counceyl, which thou hast tolde me. He sayde morouer: So that there be peace, and faithfulness in my tyme.

Chapter 40

1 Be of good chere my people, be of good chere (saieth youre God)

2 Conforte Ierusalem, and tell her: that hir trauale is at an ende, that hir offence is pardoned, that she hath receaued of the LORDES honde sufficient correction for all hir synnes.

3 A voyce crieth: Prepare ye waye for the LORDE in the wyldernes, make straight ye path for oure God in the deserte.

4 Let all vallis be exalted, and euery mountayne and hill be layde lowe. What so is croked, let it be made straight, and let the rough places be made playne feldes.

5 For the glory of the LORDE shal appeare, & all flesh shal se it, for why, ye mouth of the LORDE hath spoken it.

6 The same voyce spake: Now crie. And I sayde: what shal I crie? Then spake it: that, all flesh is grasse, and that all the bewtie therof, is as the floure of the felde.

7 When the grasse is wythered, the floure falleth awaye. Euen so is the people as grasse, when the breath of the LORDE bloweth vpon them.

8 Neuerthelesse whether the grasse wyther, or the floure fade awaye: Yet the worde of oure God endureth for euer. Morouer the voyce cried thus:

9 Go vp vnto the hill (o Sion) thou that bringest good tidings, lift vp thy voyce with power, o thou preacher Ierusalem. Lift it vp without feare, and say vnto the cities of Iuda: Beholde, youre God: 10 beholde, the LORDE, euen the almightie sha come with power, & beare rule with his arme. Beholde, he bringeth his treasure with him, and his workes go before him.

11 He shal fede his flock like an hirdman. He shal gather the lambes together with his arme, and carie them in his bosome, & shal kindly intreate those that beare yonge.

12 Who hath holden the waters in his fist? Who hath measured heauen with his spanne, and hath comprehended all the earth of ye worlde in thre fyngers? Who hath weyed the mountaynes and hilles?

13 Who hath reformed the mynde of the LORDE? Or who is of his counsel to teach him?

14 At whom hath he asked coucel, to make him vnderstode, and to lerne him the waye of iudgment: to teach him science, and to enstructe him in the waye of vnderstodinge?

15 Beholde, all people are in coparison of him, as a droppe to a bucketfull, and are counted as the leest thinge yt the balaunce weyeth. Beholde, ye lles are in comparison of him, as the shadowe of the Sonne beame.

16 Libanus is not sufficiet to ministrate fyre for his offeringe, and all the beastes therof are not ynough to one sacrifice.

17 All people in comparison of him, are rekened, as nothinge, yee vayne vanite and emptynesse.

18 To whom then will ye licke God? or what similitude will ye set vp vnto him?

19 Shal the caruer make him a carued ymage? and shal the goldsmyth couer him with golde, or cast him in to a fourme of syluer plates?

20 Morouer shal the ymage maker (yt the poore man which is disposed, maye haue somthinge to set vp also) seke out and chose a tre, that is not rotten, and carue ther out an ymage, yt moueth not?

21 Knowe ye not this? Herde ye neuer of it? Hath it not bene preached vnto you sence the hegynnyng? Haue ye not bene enfourmed of this, sence the foundation of ye earth was layde:

22 That he sytteth vpon the Circle of the worlde, and that all the inhabitours of the worlde are in coparison of him, but as greshoppers: That he spredeth out the heaues as a coueringe, that he stretcheth them out, as. a tent to dwell in:

23 That he bringeth princes to nothinge, and the iudges of the earth to dust:

24 so that they be not planted nor sowne agayne, nether their stocke rooted agayne in the earth? For as soone as he bloweth vpon them, they wither & fade awaye, like the strawe in a whirle wynde.

25 To whom now wil ye lick me, & whom shal I be like, saith the holy one?

26 Lift vp youre eyes an hie, and conside. Who hath made those thinges, which come out by so greate heapes? and he can call them all by their names. For there is nothinge hyd vnto the greatnesse of his power, strength, and might.

27 How maye then Iacob thinke, or how maye Israel saye: My wayes are hyd from the LORDE, and my God knoweth not of my iudgmentes.

28 Knowest thou not, or hast thou not herde, that the euerlastinge God, the LORDE which made all the corners of the earth, is nether weery nor faynt, and that his wisdome can not be comprehended:

29 but that he geueth strength vnto the weery, and power vnto the faynte?

30 Children are weery and faynt, and the strongest men fall:

31 But vnto them that haue the LORDE before their eyes, shal strength be encreased, Aegles wynges shal growe vpon them: When they runne, they shal not fall: and when they go, they shal not be weery.

Chapter 41

1 Be still (ye londes) and herken vnto me. Be stronge ye people, Come hither, and shew youre cause, we will go to the lawe together.

2 Who rayseth vp ye iuste from the rysinge of the Sonne, and calleth him to go forth? Who casteth downe the people, and subdueth the kinges before him: that he maye throwe them all to the groude with his swearde, and scatere them like stuble with his bowe?

3 He foloweth vpon them, and goeth safely himself, and cometh in no footpath with his fete.

4 Who hath made, created, and called the generacions from the begynnyng? Euen I the LORDE, which am the first, and with the last.

5 Beholde ye lles, that ye maye feare, and ye endes of the earth, that ye maye be abashed, draw nye, and come hither.

6 Euery man hath exorted his neyhboure, and brother, and bydden him be stronge. 7 The Smyth comforted the moulder, & the Ironsmyth the hammerman, sayenge: It shalbe good, that we fasten this cast worke: and then they fastened it with nales, that it shulde not be moued.

8 And thou Israel my seruauant: Iacob my electe sede of Abraha my beloued, 9 whom I led from the endes of the earth by the honde: For I called the from farre, & saide vnto the: Thou shalt be my seruauant: I haue chosen the, & will not cast ye awaye:

10 be not afrayde, for I wil be with ye. Lake not behinde ye, for I wil be thy God, to strenght ye, helpe ye, & to kepe ye with this right hode of myne.

11 Beholde, all they that resist the, shal come to confucion and shame: and thine aduersaries shalbe destroyed & brought to naught.

12 So that who so seketh after them, shal not fynde them. Thy destroyers shal perish, & so shall they that vndertake to make batell agaynst the.

13 For I thy LORDE & God, wil strength thy right honde. Euen I that saye vnto the: Feare not, I will helpe the.

14 Be not afrayde thou litle worme Iacob, and thou despysed Israel: For I will helpe the, saith the LORDE, & the holyone of Israel thine avenger.

15 Beholde, I wil make the a treadinge cart & a new flale, yt thou mayest throsshe & grynde the mountaynes, and bringe the hilles to poulder.

16 Thou shalt fanne them, & the wynde shal carie them awaye, & the whyrlwynde shal scatere the. But thou shalt reioyse in the LORDE, and shalt delite in praysinge the holyone of Israel.

17 When the thurstie and poore seke water & fynde none, & when their tunge is drie of thirst: I geue it them, saith the LORDE. I the God of Israel forsake them not.

18 I bringe forth floudes in the hilles, & welles in the playne felde. I turne ye wildernes to ryuers, and the drie londe to condytes of water.

19 I plante in the wayst grounde trees of Cedre, Boxe, Myrre and olyues. And in the drie, I set Fyrre trees, elmes and hawthornes together.

20 All this do I, yt they altogether maye se and marcke, perceauie with their hertes, & conside: that the honde of the LORDE maketh these thinges, and that the holyone of Israel bringeth them to passe.

21 Stonde at youre cause (saith the LORDE) and bringe forth youre strogest grounde, counceleth the kinge of Iacob.

22 Let the goddes come forth them selues, and shewe vs the thinges ye are past, what they be: let the declare the vnto vs, yt we maye take them to herte, and knowe them hereafter.

23 Ether, let the shewe vs thinges for to come, and tel vs what shalbe done hereafter: so shal we knowe, that they be goddes. Shewe somthinge, ether good or bad, so wil we both knowlege ye same, & tel it out.

24 Beholde, ye goddes are of naught, & yor makeinge is of naught, but abhominacion hath chosen you.

25 Neuertheles I haue waked vp one from the North, & he shal come. And another from the East, which shal call vpo my name, & shal come to the prynces, as the Potter to his claye, & as ye Potter treadeth downe the myre.

26 Who tolde yt afore? So wil we confesse & saye, that he is rightuous. But there is none that sheweth or declareth eny thinge, there is none also that heareth youre wordes.

27 Beholde, I will first graute the of Sion & Ierusalem to be Euangelistes.

28 But when I cosidre: there is not one amonge the yt prophecieti, nether (when I axe him) yt answereth one worde.

29 Lo, wicked are they & vayne, with the thinges also that they take in honde: yee wynde are they, and emptynesse, with their ymages together.

Chapter 42

1 Beholde now therefore, this is my seruauant whom I will kepe to my self: my electe, In whom my soule shalbe pacified. I will geue him my sprete, that he maye shewe forth iudgment & equyte amonge the Gentiles.

2 He shal not be an outcryer, ner an hie mynded person. His voyce shal not be herde in ye stretes.

3 A brusedrede shal he not breake, & the smokinge flax shal he not quench: but faithfully & truly shal he geue iudgmet.

4 He shal nether be ouersene ner haistie, that he maye restore rightuousnesse vnto the earth: & the Getiles also shal kepe his lawes.

5 For thus saith God the LORDE vnto him (Euen he that made the heauens, and spred them abroad, & set forth the earth with hir encrease: which geueth breath vnto the people that is in it, & to them that dwel therein)

6 I the LORDE haue called ye in rightuousnesse, & led the by the honde. Therefore wil I also defende the, & geue the for a couenaunt of the people, & to be the light of the Getiles.

7 That thou mayest open the eyes of the blinde, let out the prysoners, & them that syt in darknesse, out of the dongeon house.

8 I my self, whose name is the LORDE, which geue my power to none other, nether myne honoure to the goddes:

9 shewe you these new tidinges, and tel you them or they come, for olde thinges also are come to passe.

10 Synge therfore vnto the LORDE, a new songe of thakes geuyng, blow out his prayse vnto the ende of the worlde. They that be vpon the see, & all that is therin, prayse him, the lles & they that dwel in them.

11 Let the wildernes with hir cities lift vp hir voyce, the townes also that be in Cedar. Let them be glad that syt vpon rockes of stone, and let them crie downe from the hie mountaynes:

12 ascribinge almightynes vnto the LORDE, & magnifienge him amonge the Getiles.

13 The LORDE shal come forth as a gyaunte, and take a stomacke to him like a fresh man of warre. He shal roare and crie, and ouercome his enemies.

14 I haue longe holden my peace (saith the LORDE) shalke I therfore be still, and kepe sylence for euer? I will crie like a trauelinge woman, and once wil I destroye, and deuoure.

15 I wil make waist both mountayne & hill, & drie vp euery grene thinge, that groweth theron. I wil drie vp the floudes of water, & drinke vp the ryuers.

16 I wil bringe the blinde into a strete, that they knowe not: and lede them in to a fotepath, that they are ignoraunt in. I shal make darknesse light before the, & the thinge yt is croked, to be straight. These thinges will I do, & not forget them.

17 And therfore let them conuerte, and be ashamed earnestly, that hope in Idols, & saye to fashioned ymages: ye are oure godes.

18 Heare, o ye deaf men, and sharpen youre sightes to se (o ye blinde.)

19 But who is blynder, the my seruaunt? Or so deaf, as my messaugers, whom I sent vnto them? For who is so blynde as my people, & they yt haue the rule of them?

20 They are like, as yf thou vnderstodest moch, and keptest nothinge: or yf one herde well, but were not obedient.

21 The LORDE be merciful vnto them for his rightuousnesse sake, that his worde might be magnified & prayseed.

22 But it is a myscheuous & wiked people. Their yonge men belonge all to the snare, & shalbe shut in to preson houses. They shal be caried awaye captiue and no man shal lowse them. They shal be trode vnder fote, & no man shal labour to bringe the agayne.

23 But who is he amonge you, yt pondreth this in his mynde, yt considreth it, & taketh it for a warnynge in tyme to come?

24 Who suffred Iacob to be trodden vnder fote, and Israel to be spoyled? dyd not the LORDE? Now haue we synned agaynst him, and haue had no delite to walke in his wayes, nether bene obedient vnto his lawe.

25 Therefore hath he poured vpon vs his wroothful displeasure, and stroge batell, which maketh vs haue to do on eury syde, yet will we not vnderstode: He burneth vs vp, yet syncketh it not in to oure hartes.

Chapter 43

1 Bvt now, the LORDE that made the (o Iacob) and he that fashioned the (o Israel) saith thus: Feare not, for I will defende ye. I haue called ye by thy name, thou art myne owne.

2 When thou wentest in the water, I was by the, that the stroge floudes shulde not pluck ye awaye: When thou walkest in the fyre, it shal not burne ye, and the flame shal not kindle vpon the.

3 For I am the LORDE thy God, the holyone of Israel, thy Sauioure. I gaue Egipte for yi deliuerance, the Moryas and the Sabees for the:

4 because thou wast deare in my sight, and because I set by the, and loued the. I pilld all men for the, and deliuered vp all people for thy sake,

5 that thou shuldest not feare, for I was with the. I wil bringe thy sede from the east, and gather the together from the west.

6 I wil saye to the north: let go. And to the south, kepe not backe: But bringe me my sonnes from farre, and my daughters from the endes of the worlde:

7 Namely, all those that be called after my name: For the haue I created, fashioned, and made for myne honoure.

8 Bringe forth that people, whether they haue eyes or be blynde, deaf or haue eares.

9 All nacions shal come in one, and be gathered in one people. But which amonge yonder goddes shall declare soch thinges, & tell vs what is to come? Let them bringe their witnesses, so shal they be fre: for the men shal heare it, and saye: it is truth.

10 But I bringe you witnesses (saith the LORDE) euen those that are my seruauntes, whom I haue chosen: to the intent that ye might be certified, and geue me faithful credence: yee and to cosidre, that I am he, before whom there was neuer eny God, and that there shalbe none after me.

11 I am only the LORDE, and without me is there no Sauioure.

12 I geue warnynge, I make whole, I teach you, that there shulde be no straunge God amonge you. And this recorde must ye beare me youre selues (saith the LORDE) that I am God.

13 And euen he am I from the begynnyng, and there is none, that can take eny thinge out of my honde. And what I do, can no man change.

14 Thus saith the LORDE the holy one of Israel youre redemer: For youre sake I will sende to Babilon, and bringe all the strongest of them from thence: Namely, the Caldees that boost them of their shippes:

15 Euen I the LORDE youre holy one which haue made Israel, and am youre kinge.

16 Morouer, thus saith the LORDE (Euen he that maketh a waye in the see, and a footpath in the mightie waters:

17 which bringeth forth the charettes and horses, the hooste and the power, that they maye fall a slepe and neuer ryse, and be extincte, like as tow is quenched.

18 Ye remembre not thinges of olde, and regarde nothinge that is past.

19 Therefore beholde, I shal make a new thinge, and shortly shall it apere: Ye shall well knowe it, I tolde it you afore, but I will tell it you agaane. I will make stretes in the deserte, and ryuers of water in the wilderness.

20 The wilde beastes shal worshippe me: the dragon, and the Estrich. For I shall geue water in ye wilderness, and streames in the deserte: that I maye geue drike to my people, whom I chose.

21 This people haue I made for my self, and they shal shewe forth my prayse.

22 For thou (Iacob) woldest not call vpon me, but thou haddest an vnlust towarde me, o Israel.

23 Thou gauest me not thy yonge beastes for burntofferings, nether didest honoure me with thy sacrifices. Thou boughtest me no deare spice with thi money, nether pouredest the fat of thy sacrifices vpon me. Howbeit I haue not bene chargeable vnto the in offrages, nether greuous in Incense.

24 But thou hast lade me with thy synnes, and weered me with thy vngodlynes:

25 Where as I yet am euen he only, that for myne owne selves sake do awaye thine offences, & forget thy synnes: so that I wil neuer thinke vpon them.

26 Put me now in remembraunce (for we will reason together) & shewe what thou hast for the, to make the quyte.

27 Thy first father offended sore, and thy rulers haue synned agaynst me

28 Therefore I ether suspended, or slewe the chefest prynces: I dyd curse Iacob, and gaue Israel into reprofe.

Chapter 44

1 So heare now, o Iacob my seruaunt, and Israel whom I haue chose.

2 For thus saith the LORDE, that made the, fashioned the, and helped the, euen from thy mothers wombe: Be not afrayde (o Iacob my seruaunte,) thou rightuous, whom I haue chosen.

3 For I shal poure water vpon the drie grounde, and ryuers vpon the thirstie. I shal poure my sprete vpon thi sede, and myne encrease vpo thy stocke.

4 They shal growe together, like as the grasse, and as the Willies by the waters side.

5 One will saye: I am the LORDES. Another wil call vnder the name of Iacob. The thirde shal subscribe with his honde vnto ye LORDE, and geue him self vnder the name of Israel.

6 Morouer, thus hath the LORDE spoke: euen the kinge of Israel, and his avenger, ye LORDE of hoostes: I am the first, and the last, and without me is there no God.

7 For what is he, that euer was like me, which am from euerlastinge? Let him shewe his name and do wherthorw he maye be lickened vnto me. Let him tell you forth planely thiges, that are past and for to come:

8 yee and that without eny feare or stoppe. For haue not I euer tolde you hyther to, & warned you? Ye can beare me recorde youre selues. Is there eny God excepte me? or eny maker, that I shulde not knowe him?

9 Wherefore all caruers of Idols are but vayne, and their labour lost. They must beare recorde them selues, that (seinge they can nether se ner vnderstonde) they shalbe confounded.

10 Who shulde now make a god, or fashio an Idol, that is profitable for nothinge?

11 Beholde all the felashippe of the must be brought to confucion. Let all the workmasters of them come and stonde together from amonge men: they must be abashed and confounded one with another.

12 The smyth taketh yron, and tempreth it with hote coles, and fashioneth it with hammers, & maketh it wt all the strength of his armes: Yee somtyme he is faynt for very hunger, and so thirstie, that he hath no more power.

13 The carpenter (or ymage caruer) taketh me the tymbre, and spredeth forth his lyne: he marketh it with some coloure: he playneth it, he ruleth it, ad squareth it, and maketh it after the ymage of a man, and acordinge to the bewtie of a man: that it maye stonde in the temple.

14 Morouer, he goeth out to hewe downe Cedre trees: He bringeth home Elmes and okes, and other tymbre of the wodd. Or els the Fyrre trees which he planted himself, ad soch as the rayne hath swelled,

15 which wodde serueth for me to burne. Of this he taketh and warmeth himself withall: he maketh a fyre of it to bake bred. And after warde maketh a god there of, to honour it: and an Idol, to knele before it.

16 One pece he burneth in the fyre, with another he rosteth flesh, that he maye eate roste his bely full: with the thirde he warmeth himself, and saith: Aha: I am well warmed, I haue bene at the fyre.

17 And of the residue, he maketh him a god, and an Idol for himself. He kneleth before it, he worshipping it, he prayeth vnto it, and sayeth: deliuer me, for thou art my god.

18 Yet men nether considre ner vnderstonde, because their eyes are stopped, that they can not se: and their hertes, that they cannot perceau.

19 They pondre not in their myndes (for they haue nether knowlege ner vnderstodinge) to thinke thus: I haue bret one pece in the fyre, I haue baked bred wt ye coles there of, I haue rosted flesh withall, & eaten it: Shal I now of the residue make an abhominacion, and fall downe before a rotten pece of wodd?

20 The kepinge of dust, and folishnesse of herte hath turned them a syde: so that none of them can haue a fre conscience to thinke: maye not I erre?

21 Cosidre this (o Iacob and Israel) for thou art my seruaunt. I haue made the, that thou mightest serue me. O Israel, forget me not.

22 As for thyne offences, I dryue them awaye like the cloudes, and thy synnes as the myst. Turne ye agayne vnto me, & I will deliuer ye.

23 Be glad ye heauens, whom the LORDE hath made, let all yt is here beneth vpon the earth, be ioyfull. Reioyse ye mountaynes & woddes, with all the trees that are in you: for ye LORDE shal redeme Iacob, & shewe his glory vpon Israel.

24 For thus saith the LORDE thy redemer, euen he that fashioned the from thy mothers wombe: I am the LORDE, which do all thinges my self alone. I only haue spred out the heauens, and I only haue layde the foundation of the earth.

25 I destroye the tokens of witches, and make the Sothsayers go wronge. As for the wise, I turne them backward, and make their conninge folishnesse.

26 But I set vp the purpose of my seruauntes, and fulfil the counsel of my messaugers. I saye to Ierusalem: turne agayne: And to the cities of Iuda, be ye buylded agayne: and I repayre their decayed places.

27 I saye to the grounde: be drie. And I drie vp thy water floudes.

28 I saye to Cirus: thou art myne hyrd man, so that he shal fulfill all thinges after my will. I saye to Ierusalem: be thou buylded, and to the teple: be thou fast grounded.

Chapter 45

1 Thus saith the LORDE vnto Cirus his anoynted, whom he ledeth by ye right hode: that the people maye fall downe before him: I wil lowse the gyrdle of kinges, yt they shal open the gates before thy face, and not to shut their dores.

2 I wil go before the, and make the croked straight. I shal breake the brasen dores, & burst the yron barres.

3 I shall geue the the hyd treasure, & the thinge which is secretly kepte: that thou mayest knowe, yt I the God of Israel haue called the by thy name:

4 and that for Iacob my seruauit sake, & for Israel my chosen. For I called the by yi name, and ordened the, or euer thou knewest me:

5 Euen I the LORDE, before whom there is none other, for wt out me there is no God I haue prepared the, or euer thou knewest me:

6 that it might be knowne from the risynge of the Sonne to the goynge downe of the same, that all is nothinge without me. For I am the LORDE, & there is els none.

7 It is I yt created the light and darcknes, I make peace and trouble: Yee euen I the LORDE do all these thinges.

8 The heauens aboute shal droppe downe, and the cloudes shal rayne rightuousnes. The earth shal open itself, and brynge forth health, and therby shal rightuousnes florish. Euen I the LORDE shal bringe it to passe.

9 Wo be vnto him that chydeth wt his maker, the potsherde with the potter. Saieth ye claye to the potter: What makest thou? or, yi worke serueth for nothynge?

10 Wo be vnto him, yt saith to his father: why begettst thou? And to his mother: why bearest thou?

11 Thus saith the LORDE, euen the holy one & maker of Israel: Axe me of thinges for to come, concernynge my sonnes: and put me in remembrance, as touchynge the workes of my hodes:

12 I haue made the earth, and created ma vpon it. With my hondes haue I spread forth heauen, and geuen a commaundment for all the hooste therof.

13 I shal wake him vp with rightuousnesse, and ordre all his wayes. He shal buylde my cite, & let out my prisoners: & that nether for gift nor rewardes, saith the LORDE of hoostes.

14 The LORDE hath sayde morouer: The occupiers of Egipte, the marchauntes of the Moryans and Sabees, shal come vnto the with tribute, they shalbe thine, they shal folowe the, and go with cheynes vpon their fete. They shal fall downe before the, and make supplicacion vnto the. For God (wt out who there is none other God) shal be with the.

15 O how profounde art thou o God, thou God & Sauoure of Israel!

16 Confounded be ye, and put to dishonoure: go hence together with shame, all ye that be workmasters of erreure: (that is worshippers of Idols)

17 But Israel shalbe saued in the LORDE, which is the euerlastinge saluacio: They shal not come to shame ner confucion, worlde without ende.

18 For thus sayeth the LORDE: euen he that created heauen, the God yt made the earth, that fashioned it, and set it forth: I haue not made it for naught, but I made it to be inhabited: Euen I the LORDE, without whom there is none other.

19 I haue not spoken secretly, nether in darcke places of the earth. It is not for naught, that I sayde vnto the sede of Iacob: seke me. I am the LORDE, which whe I speake, declare the thinge that is righteous and true.

20 Let the be gathered & come together, let the drawe nye hyther, yt are escaped of the people: Haue they eny vnderstandinge, that set vp the stockes of their Idols, and praye vnto a god, that ca not helpe the?

21 Let men drawe nye, let them come hither, ad aske counceyl one at another, and shewe forth: What is he, that tolde this before? or, who spake of it, euer sence the begynnynge? Haue not I ye LORDE done it: without whom there is none other God? the true God and sauoure, and there is els none but I?

22 And therefore turne you vnto me (all ye endes of the earth) so shal ye be saued, for I am God, & there is els none.

23 I sweare by myself: out of my mouth cometh ye worde of rightuousnesse, and that maye no man turne: but all knees shal bowe vnto me, and all tunges shal sweare by me,

24 sayenge: Verely in the LORDE is my rightuousnes and strength. To him shal me come: but all they that thinke scorn of him, shalbe confounded.

25 And the whole sede of Israel shalbe iustified, & prayesd in ye LORDE

Chapter 46

1 Neuertheles Bel shal fall, & Nabo shalbe broken: whose ymages are a burthe for the beastes and catell, to ouerlade the, and to make them weery.

2 They shal syncke downe, and fall together: for they maye not ease them of their burthen, therefore must they go in to captiuyte.

3 Herken vnto me, o house of Iacob, and all ye that remaine yet of the housholde of Israel: whom I haue borne from youre mothers wombe, and brought you vp from yor byrth, till ye were growen:

4 I I which shall beare you vnto youre last age: I haue made you, I will also norish you, beare you and saue you.

5 Whom will ye make me like, in fashion or ymage, that I maye be like him?

6 Ye fooles (no doute) wil take out syluer and golde out of youre purses, and weye it, and hyre a goldsmith to make a god of it, that men maye knele downe and worshipe it.

7 Yet must he be taken on mens sholders and borne, and set in his place, that he maye stonde and not moue. Alas that men shulde crie vnto him, which geueth no answere: and delyuereth not the man that calleth vpon him, from his trouble.

8 Considre this well, and be ashamed, Go in to youre owne selues (O ye runnagates).

9 Remembre the thinges which are past, sence the begynnynge of the worlde: that I am God, and that there is els no God, yee and yt there is nothinge like vnto me.

10 In the begynnynge of a thinge, I shewe the ende therof: and I tel before, thinges that are not yet come to passe. With one worde is my deuyce accomplished, & fulfilleth all my pleasure.

11 I call a byrde out of the east, and all that I take in honde, out of farre countrees. As soone as I commaunde, I bringe it hither: as soone as I thinke to deuyse a thinge, I do it.

12 Heare me, o ye that are of an hie stomack, but farre from rightuousnesse.

13 I shal bringe forth my rightuousnesse, It is not farre, and my health shal not tarie longe awaye. I wil laye health in Sio, and geue Israel my glory.

Chapter 47

1 But as for the (O daughter, thou virgin Babilon) thou shalt syt in the dust. Thou shalt syt vpon the grounde, and not in a trone (o thou mayden of Chaldea). Thou shalt nomore be called tender, and pleasaut.

2 Thou shalt bringe forth the querne, & grynede meel, put downe thy stomacher, make bare thy knees, and shalt wade throw the water ryuers.

3 Thy shame shalbe discouered, ad thy preuyties shal be sene. For I wil auenge me of the, and no man shal let me:

4 saith oure redemer, which is called the LORDE of hoostes, the holy one of Israel.

5 Syt still, holde thy tunge, and get the in to some darcke corner (O daughter Caldea) for thou shalt nomore be called lady of kyngdomes.

6 I was so wroth with my people, yt I punished myne enheritaunce, and gaue them in to thy power. Neuertheles, thou shewdest them no mercy, but euen the very aged men of the, didest thou oppresse right sore with thy yock, 7 & thou thoughtest thus: I shalbe lady for euer. And besyde all that, thou hast not regarded these thinges, nether cast, what shulde come after.

8 Heare now therefore, thou wilful, that syttest so carelesse, & speakest thus in thine herte: I am alone, and without me is there none: I shal neuer be wydow, ner desolate agayne.

9 And yet both these thiges shal come to the vpo one daye in the twyncklinge of an eye: Namely, wyddowhead, and desolacion. They shal mightly fall vpon the, for ye multitude of thy witches, and for the greate heape of thy coniuers.

10 For thou hast confortd thy self in thy disceatfulnes, and hast sayde: No ma seith me. Thyne owne wisdome & connyng haue disceaued the, In that thou hast sayde: I am alone, and without me there is none.

11 Therefore shal trouble come vpo ye, & thou shalt not knowe, from whence it shal arise. Myscheffe shal fall vpo ye, which thou shalt not be able to put of. A sodane misery shal come vpon the, or euer thou be awarre.

12 Now go to thy coniuers, and to the multitude of thy witches, (whom thou hast bene acquainted withal from thy youth) yf they maye helpe the, or strengthe the.

13 Thou hast hither to had many counceyls of them, so let the heauengasers & the beholders of starres, come on now and delyuer the: yee and let the shewe, when these new thinges shall come vpon the.

14 Beholde, they shalbe like strawe, which yf it be kindled with fyre, no man maye rydde it for the vehemence of the flame: And yet it geueth no zynders to warme a ma by, ner cleare fyre to syt by.

15 Euen so shal they be vnto the, whom thou hast vsed & occupide from thy youth. Euery one shal shewe ye his erroneous waye, yet shall none of them defende the.

Chapter 48

1 Heare this, O thou house of Iacob: ye yt are called by the name of Israel, and are come out of one stocke wt Iuda: which sweare by the name of the LORDE, and beare witness by the God of Israel (but not wt treuth and right)

2 which are called fre men of the holy citie, as they that loke for conforth in the God of Israel, whose name is the LORDE of hoostes.

3 The thinges that I shewed you euer sence the begynnynge: Haue I not brought the to passe, immediatly as they came out of my mouth, and declared them? And they are come?

4 Howbeit I knewe that thou art obstinate, and that thy neck hath an yron vane, and that thy brow is of brasse.

5 Neuertheles I haue euer sence the begynnynge shewed the of thinges for to come, and declared the vnto the, or euer they came to passe: that thou shuldest not saye: myne Idol hath done it, my carued or cast ymage hath shewed it.

6 Heare & considre all these thinges, whether it was ye that prophecied the: But as for me, I tolde the before at the begynnynge, new & secrete thinges, yt thou knewest not of:

7 And some done now not of olde time, wherof thou neuer herdest, before they were brought to passe: that thou canst not saye: I knewe of them.

8 Morouer there be some wherof thou hast nether herde ner knowne, nether haue they bene opened vnto thine eares afore tyme. For I knew that thou woldest maliciously offende, therefore haue I called the a transgressoure, euen from thy mothers wombe.

9 Neuertheles for my names sake, I haue withdrawn my wrath, and for myne honours sake I haue ouersene the, so that I haue not rooted the out.

10 Beholde I haue poured the, and not for moneye. I haue chosen the in the fyre of pouerte, 11 And that only for myne owne sake, for I geue myne Honoure to none other, that thou shuldest not despise me.

12 Herken vnto me o Iacob, & Israel who I haue called. I am euen he that is, I am ye first and the last.

13 My honde is the foundacion of the earth, & my right honde spanneth ouer the heauens. As soone as I called the they were there.

14 Gather you all together, ad herken: Which of yonder goddes hath declared this, that the LORDE wil do by the kinge of Babilon, (whom he loueth & faouere) and by the Caldees his arme?

15 I my self alone haue tolde you this before. Yee I shal call him and bringe him forth, & geue him a prosperous iourneye.

16 Come nye & heare this: haue I spoke eny thige darcly sence the begynnyng? whe a thige begynneth, I am there. Wherefore the LORDE God with his sprete hath sent me,

17 And thus saith the LORDE thine auenger, the holyone of Israel: I am ye LORDE thy God, which teach the profitable thinges, and lede ye the waye, that thou shuldest go

18 Yf thou wilt now regarde my comaundement, thy welthynes shalbe as the water streame: & thy rightuousnes as the wawes flowinge in the see.

19 Thy sede shalbe like as the sonde in the see, & the frute of thy body, like the grauel stoneth therof: Thy name shal not be roted out, nor destroyed before me.

20 Ye shal go awaye from Babilon, and escape the Caldees with a mery voyce. This shalbe spoken of, declared abroad, & go forth vnto the ende of the worlde: so that it shalbe sayde: The LORDE hath defended his seruauente Iacob, 21 that they suffred no thurst, whe they trauayled in the wilderness. He claue the rockes a sonder, and the water gushed out.

22 As for the vngodly, they haue no peace, saith the LORDE.

Chapter 49

1 Herken vnto me, ye lles, and take hede ye people from farre: The LORDE hath called me fro my byrth, and made mecion of my name fro my mothers wobe:

2 he hath made my mouth like a sharpe swerde, vnder ye shadowe of his honde hath he defended me, and hyd me in his quyuer, as a good arowe,

3 and sayde vnto me: Thou art my seruaut Israel, I wilbe honoured in the.

4 Then answerde I: I shal lese my laboure, I shal spende my strength in vayne. Neuertheles, I wil commytte my cause and my worke vnto the LORDE my God.

5 And now saith the LORDE (eue he that fashioned me fro my mothers wombe to be his seruante, that I maye bringe Iacob agayne vnto him: howbeit, Israel will not be gathered vnto hi agayne. In whose sight I am create, which also is my LORDE, my God and my strenght)

6 Let it be but a smal thinge, that thou art my seruaut, to set vp the kinreddes of Iacob, & to restore the destructio of Israel: yf I make the not also the light of the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my health vnto the ende of the worlde.

7 Morouer thus saith the LORDE the aveger and holy one of Israel, because of the abhorringe and despisinge amonge the Gentiles, concernyng the seruaut of all them yt beare rule: Kynges and prynces shal se, and arise and worships, because of the LORDE that he is faithfull: and because of the holy one of Israel, which hath chosen the.

8 And thus saith the LORDE: In the tyme apoynted wil I be present with the. And in the houre of health wil I helpe the, & delyuer the. I wil make the a pledge for ye people, so yt thou shalt helpe vp the earth agayne, and challenge agayne the scatred heretages:

9 That thou mayest saye to ye prisoners: go forth, & to them that are in darknesse: come in to the light, that they maye fede in the hie wayes, & get their lyuyng in all places.

10 There shal nether hunger ner thurst, heate nor Sonne hurte them. For he that faouere them, shal lede them, and geue them drike of the springe welles.

11 I will make wayes vpon all my mountaynes, and my fote pathes shalbe exalted.

12 And beholde, they shal come from farre: lo, some from the north and west, some from the south.

13 Reioyse ye heuens, and synge prayses thou earth: Talke of ioie ye hilles, for God wil coforte his people, & haue mercy vpon his, yt be in trouble.

14 Then shal Sion saye: God hath forsaken me, and the LORDE hath forgotte me.

15 Doth a wife forget the childe of hir wombe, ad the sonne who she hath borne? And though she do forget, yet wil not I forget the.

16 Beholde, I haue written the vp vpon my hondes, thy walles are euer in my sight.

17 They that haue broken the downe, shal make haist to buylde the vp agayne: and they that made the waist, shal dwell in the.

18 Lift vp thine eyes, and loke aboute the: all these shal gather them together, and come to the. As truly as I lyue (saith the LORDE) thou shalt put them all vpo the, as an apparell, and gyrdle the to the, as a bryde doth hir Jewels.

19 As for thy lond that lieth desolate, waisted & destroyed: it shalbe to narrow for the, that shal dwell in it. And they yt wolde deuoure the, shalbe farre awaye.

20 Then the childe who ye bare shall bringe forth vnto ye, shal saye in thine eare: this place is to narrow, syt nye together, yt I maye haue rowme.

21 Then shalt thou thinke by thy self: Who hath begotte me these? seinge I am bare & aloe, a captyue & an outcast? And who hath nourished the vp for me? I am desolate & alone, but fro whece come these?

22 And therfore thus saith the LORDE God: Beholde, I will stretch out myne honde to the Gentiles, and set vp my token to the people. They shal bringe the thy sonnes in their lappes, & carie thy daughters vnto ye vpon their sholders.

23 For kinges shalbe thy nursinge fathers, and Quenes shalbe thy nursinge mothers. They shal fall before the wt their faces flat vpon the earth, and lick vp the dust of thy fete: that thou mayest knowe, how that I am the LORDE. And who so putteth his trust in me, shal not be confounded.

24 Who spoyleth the giaunte of his pray? or who taketh the presoner from the mightie?

25 And therfore thus saith the LORDE: The prisoners shalbe taken from the giaunte, and the spoyle delyuered from the violete: for I wil maynteyne thy cause agaynst thine aduersaries, and saue thy sonnes.

26 And wil fede thine enemies with their owne fleshe, and make the drinke of their owne bloude, as of swete wyne. And all flesh shal knowe (o Iacob) that I am the LORDE thy Sauioure, and stronge auenger.

Chapter 50

1 Thus saith the LORDE: Where is the bill of yor mothers deuorcemet, that I sent vnto her? or who is the vsurer, to who I solde you? Beholde, for youre owne offeces are ye solde: & because of youre transgression, is youre mother forsake.

2 For why wolde no ma receaue me, when I came? & when I called, no man gaue me answer. Was my hode clene smyte of, that it might not helpe? or, had I not power to delyuer? lo, at a worde I drike vp the see, & of water floude I make drie lode: so yt for want of water, the fish corruppe, and die of thirst.

3 As for heauen, I clooth it with darknesse, and put a sack vpon it.

4 The LORDE God hath geue me a wel lerned tuge, so that I can conforte them which are troubled, yee & yt in due season. He waked myne eare vp by tymes in ye mornynge (as ye scolemasters do) yt I might herke.

5 The LORDE God hath opened myne eare, therfore ca I not saye naye, ner wt drawe myself,

6 but I offre my backe vnto ye smyters, and my chees to the nyppers. I turne not my face fro shame ad spittinge,

7 for the LORDE God helpeth me, therfore shal I not be cofounded. I haue hardened my face like a flynt stone, for I am sure, that I shal not come to confucion.

8 Myne aduocate speaketh for me, who wil then go with me to lawe? Let vs stode one agaynst another: yf there be eny that wil reason with me, let him come here forth to me.

9 Beholde, the LORDE God stondesth by me, what is he that can condempne me? lo, they shalbe all like as an olde cloth, which ye mothes shal eate vp.

10 Therefore who so feareth the LORDE amoge you, let him heare the voyce of his seruaut. Who so walketh in darcknesse, & no light shyneth vpo him, let him hope in the LORDE, and holde him by his God.

11 But take hede, ye haue all kyndled a fyre, and gyrded youre selues with the flame: Ye walke in the glistrige of youre owne fyre, and in the flame that ye haue kyndled. This cometh vnto you fro my honde, namely, yt ye shal slepe in sorowe.

Chapter 51

1 Herken vnto me, ye that holde of rightuousnes, ye that seke the LORDE. Take hede vnto the stone, wherout ye are hewen, and to the graue wherout ye are digged.

2 Considre Abraham youre father, & Sara that bare you: how that I called him alone, prospered him wel, & encreased him:

3 how the LORDE confortd Sio, and repayed all hir decaye: makinge hir deserte as a Paradise, and hir wilderness as the garden of the LORDE. Myrth and ioie was there, thankesgeuyng and ye voyce of prayse.

4 Haue respecte vnto me then (o my people) and laye thine eare to me: for a lawe, and an ordinaunce shal go forth from me, to lighten the Gentiles.

5 It is hard by, that my health & my rightuousnes shal go forth, and the people shalbe ordred with myne arme. The Ilondes (that is ye Gentiles) shal hope in me, and put their trust in myne arme.

6 Lift vp youre eyes toward heave, and loke vpon the earth beneth. For the heuens shal vanish awaye like smoke, and the earth shall teare like a clothe, & they that dwel therin, shal perish in like maner. But my health endureth for euer, and my rightuousnes shall not ceasse.

7 Therfore hercken vnto me, ye yt haue pleasure in rightuousnes, thou people that bearest my lawe in thine herte. Feare not the curse of men, be not afrayde of their blasphemies & reuylinges:

8 for wormes & mothes shal eat the vp like clothe & woll. But my rightuousnes shal endure for euer, & my sauynge health from generacion to generacion.

9 Wake vp, wake vp, & be stronge: O thou arme of the LORDE: wake vp, lyke as in tymes past, euer and sence the worlde beganne.

10 Art not thou he, that hast wounded that proude lucifer, and hewen the dragon in peces? Art not thou euen he, which hast dried vp the depe of the see, which hast made playne the see grounde, that the deluyered might go thorow?

11 That the redemed of the LORDE, which turned agayne, might come with ioye vnto Sio, there to endure for euer? That myrth and gladnesse might be with them: that sorowe & wo might fle from the?

12 Yee I, I am eue he, that in all thiges geueth you consolacion. What art thou then, that fearest a mortall ma, ye childe of man, which goeth awaye as doeth the floure?

13 And forgettest the LORDE that made the, that spread out the heauens, and layde the foundation of the earth. But thou art euer afrayde for the sight of thine oppressoure, which is ready to do harme: Where is the wrath of the oppressoure? 14 It cometh on fast, it maketh haist to apere: It shal not perish, yt it shulde not be able to destroye, nether shal it fayle for faute of norishinge.

15 I am the LORDE yi God, that make the see to be still, and to rage: whose name is the LORDE of hoostes.

16 I shal put my worde also in thy mouth, and defende the with the turnynge of my honde: that thou mayest plante the heauens, and laye the foundacions of the earth, and saye vnto Sion: thou art my people.

17 Awake, Awake, and stonde vp o Ierusalem, thou that from the honde of the LORDE, hast dronke out the cuppe of his wrath: thou that hast supped of, and sucked out the slombringe cuppe to the botome.

18 For amonge all the sonnes whom thou hast begotten, there is not one that maye holde the vp: and not one to lede the by the honde, of all the sonnes that thou hast norished.

19 Both these thinges are happened vnto the, but who is sory for it? Yee, destruction, waistinge, hunger & swerde: but who hath comforted the?

20 Thy sonnes lie comfortles at ye heade of euery strete like a take venyson, & are ful of ye terrible wrath of ye LORDE, & punyshmet of thy God.

21 And therfore thou miserable & dronke (howbe it not wt wyne) Heare this:

22 Thus saith thy LORDE: thy LORDE & God, ye defender of his people: Beholde, I wil take ye slobrige cuppe out of thy hode, eue ye cuppe wt the dregges of my wrath: yt fro hence forth thou shalt neuer drinke it more, 23 & wil put it i their hode that trouble the: which haue spoken to thy soule: stoupe downe, that we maye go ouer the: make thy body eaue with the grounde, and as the strete to go vpon.

Chapter 52

1 Vp Sion vp, take thy strength vnto the: put on thine honest rayment o Ierusalem, thou citie of the holy one. For from this tyme forth, there shal no vncircumcised ner vnclane person come in the.

2 Shake the fro the dust, arise & stonde vp, o Ierusalem. Pluck out thy neck from the bode, o thou captiue daughter Sion.

3 For thus saith the LORDE: Ye are solde for naught, therfore shal ye be redemed also without eny money.

4 For thus hath the LORDE sayde: My people wete downe afore tyme in to Egipte, there to be straungers. Afterwarde dyd the kinge of the Assirians oppresse the, for naught.

5 And now what profit is it to me (saith ye LORDE) yt my people is frely caried awaye, & brought in to heuynes by their rulers, and my name euer still blasphemed? saith the LORDE.

6 But yt my people maye knowe my name, I my self will speake in that daye. Beholde, here am I.

7 O how bewtiful are the fete of the Embassitoure, yt bringeth the message fro the mountayne, & proclameth peace: yt brigeth the good tydings, & preacheth health, & saith vnto Sion: Thy God is the kinge.

8 Thy watchme shal lift vp their voyce, wt loude voyce shal they preach of him: for they shal se him present, whe the LORDE shal come agayne to Sion.

9 Be glad, o thou desolate Ierusalem, & reioyse together: for the LORDE will coforte his people, he wil deluyer Ierusalem.

10 The LORDE wil make bare his holy arme, & shewe it forth in the sight of all the Getiles, & all the endes of the earth shal se the sauynge health of oure God.

11 Awaye, Awaye, get you out fro thence, & touch no vnclane thinge. Go out from amonge soch, And be cleane, ye that beare the vessell of the LORDE.

12 But ye shal not go out with sedicio, ner make haist as they that fle awaye: for the LORDE shal go before you, ad the God of Israel shal kepe the watch.

13 Beholde, my seruaut shal deale wysely, therfore shal he be magnified, exalted & greatly honoured.

14 Like as ye multitude shal wodre vpon him, because his face shalbe so deformed & not as a mans face, & his bewtie like no man:

15 Euen so shal the multitude of the Getiles loke vnto him, & ye kinges shal shut their mouthes before him. For they yt haue not bene tolde of him, shal se him: and they yt herde nothinge of him, shal beholde him.

Chapter 53

1 Bvt who geueth credence vnto oure preachinge? Or to who is the arme of the LORDE knowne?

2 He shal growe before the LORDE like as a brauch, & as a rote in a drie grounde. He shal haue nether bewty ner faouore.

When we loke vpon him, there shalbe no faynesse: we shal haue no lust vnto him.

3 He shalbe the most symple & despised of all, which yet hath good experience of sorowes & infirmities. We shal reken him so symple & so vyle, that we shal hyde oure faces fro him.

4 Howbeit (of a treuth) he only taketh awaye oure infirmite, & beareth oure payne: Yet we shal iudge him, as though he were played and cast downe of God:

5 where as he (not withstoddinge) shal be wouled for oure offences, & smytten for oure wickednes. For the payne of or punyshmet shalbe layde vpo him, & wt his stripes shal we be healed.

6 As for vs, we go all astraye (like shepe), euery one turneth his owne waye. But thorow him, the LORDE pardoneth all or synnes.

7 He shal be payned & troubled, ad shal not ope his mouth. He shalbe led as a shepe to be slayne, yet shal he be as still as a lambe before the shearer, & not open his mouth.

8 He shal be had awaye, his cause not herde, & wtout eny iudgment: Whose generacion yet no man maye nombre, when he shalbe cut of fro the grounde of the lvyng: Which punyshment shal go vpon him, for the transgression of my people.

9 His graue shalbe geue him with the codemned, & his crucifieng with the theues, Where as he dyd neuer violence ner vnright, nether hath there bene eny disceatfulnesse in his mouth.

10 Yet hath it pleased ye LORDE to smyte him with infirmite, that when he had made his soule an offeringe for synne, he might se a loge lastinge sede. And this device of the LORDE shal prospere in his honde.

11 With traually and laboure of his soule, shal he optayne greate riches. My righteous seruaut shall with his wisdom e iustifie & deluyer the multitude, for he shal beare awaye their synnes.

12 Therfore wil I geue him the multitude for his parte, & he shal deuyde the stroge spoyle because he shal geue ouer his soule to death, & shalbe rekened amonge the transgressours, which neuertheles shal take awaye ye synnes of the multitude, and make intercession for the my?doers.

Chapter 54

1 Therfore be glad now, thou bare that bearest not. Reioyce, syng & be mery, thou yt art not with childe: For the desolate hath moo children, then the married wife, saith the LORDE.

2 Make thy tente wyder, & sprede out the hanginges of thine habitacio: spare not, laye forth thy coardes, and make fast thy stakes:

3 for thou shalt breake out on the right syde and on the left, & thy sede shal haue ye Getiles in possession, ad dwel in the desolate cities.

4 Feare not, for thou shalt not be confouled: Be not ashamed, for thou shalt not come to confucion. Yee thou shalt forget the shame off thy youth, and shalt not remembre the dishonoure of thy wedowheade.

5 For he that made the, shalbe thy

LORDE & husbonde (whose name is the LORDE of hoostes) & thine avenger shalbe euen the holy one off Israel, the LORDE of the whole worlde.

6 For the LORDE shal call the, beinge as a desolate soroufull woman, and as a yonge wife that hath broken hir wedlocke: saith thy God.

7 A litle while haue I forsaken the, but wt greate mercifulnes shal I take the vp vnto me.

8 Whe I was angrie, I hid my face from the for a litle season, but thorow euerlastinge goodnesse shal I pardon the, saith the LORDE thine avenger.

9 And this must be vnto me, as the water of Noe: For like as I haue sworne yt I wil not bringe the water off Noe eny more vpo the worlde: So haue I sworne, yt I wil neuer be angrie wt the, ner reprove the:

10 The mountaynes shall remoue, & the hilles shal fall downe: but my louynge kyndnesse shal not moue, and the bonde off my peace shal not fall downe fro ye, saith ye LORDE thy mercifull louer.

11 Beholde, thou poore, vexed & despised: I wil make thy walles of precious stones, & yi foundacio of Saphires, 12 thy wyndowes off Cristall, thi gates of fyne cleare stone, & yi borders of pleasaut stones.

13 Thy childe shal all be taught of God, & I wil geue the plenteousnes of peace.

14 In rightuousnes shalt thou be grounded, & be farre fro oppression: for the which thou nedest not be afrayed, nether for hynderauce, for it shal not come nye the.

15 Beholde, ye aleaunt yt was farre fro the, shal dwell wt the: & he yt was somtyne a straunger vnto the, shalbe ioyned wt the:

16 Beholde, I make the smyth yt bloweth the coles in the fyre, & he maketh a weapon after his hondy worke. I make also the waister to destroye:

17 but all the weapons yt are made agaynst the, shal not prospere. And as for all tunges, yt shal resiste the in iudgmet, thou shalt ouercome the, & codemme them. This is the heretage of the LORDES seruantes, & the rightuousnes that they shal haue of me, saith the LORDE.

Chapter 55

1 Come to the waters all ye, yt be thurstie, & ye that haue no moneye. Come, bye, that ye maye haue to eate. Come, bye wyne & mylck, without eny money, or moneye worth,

2 Wherefore do ye laye out yor moneye, for the thinge yt fedeth not, and spende youre laboure aboute the thinge that satisfieth you not? But herke rather vnto me, ad ye shal eate of the best, & youre soule shal haue hir pleasure in pleteousnes.

3 Enclyne youre eares, & come vnto me, take hede & youre soule shal lyue. For I will make an euerlastinge couenaunt with you, eue the sure mercies of Daud.

4 Beholde, I shal geue him for a witness amoge ye folke, for a prynce & captayne vnto the people.

5 Lo, thou shalt call an vnknowne people: & a people that had no knowledge of the, shall runne vnto the: because off the LORDE thy God, ye holy one of Israel, which glorifieth the.

6 Seke the LORDE while he maye be founde, call vpo him while he is nye.

7 Let the vngodly man forsake his wayes, ad the vnrightuous his ymaginacios, & turne agayne vnto the LORDE, so shal he be merciful vnto him: and to oure God, for he is redy to forgeue.

8 For thus saieith the LORDE: My thoughtes are not youre thoughtes, & youre wayes are not my wayes:

9 But as farre as the heauens are hyer then the earth, so farre do my waies excede yours, & my thoughtes yours

10 And like as the rayne & snowe cometh downe from heauē, & returneth not thither agayne, but watereth the earth, maketh it frutefull & grene, that it maye geue corne & breade vnto the sower:

11 So the worde also that commeth out of my mouth, shal not turne agayne voyde vnto me, but shal accomplish my wil & prospere in the thinge, wherto I sende it.

12 And so shal ye go forth wt ioye, & be led with peace. The mountaynes and hilles shal synge with you for ioye, and all the trees of the felde shal clappe their hondes.

13 For thornes, there shal growe Fyrre trees, & ye Myrte tre in the steade of breres. And this shal be done to the prayse of the LORDE, & for an euerlastinge toke, that shal not be taken awaye.

Chapter 56

1 Thus saieith ye LORDE: Kepe equite, and do right, for my sauynge health shal come shortly, & my rightuousnes shalbe opened.

2 Blisshed is the man yt doth this, & the mans childe which kepeth the same. He that taketh hede, yt he vnhalowe not the Sabbath (that is) he that kepeth himself that he do no euel.

3 Then shal not the straunger, which cleaueth to the LORDE, saye: Alas the LORDE hath shut me cleane out from his people. Nether shal the gelded man saye: lo, I am a drie tre.

4 For thus saieith the LORDE, first vnto the gelded yt kepeth my Sabbath: Namely: that holdeth greatly of the thinge that pleaseth me, and kepeth my couenaut:

5 Vnto them wil I geue in my housholde and with in my walles, a better heretage & name: the yf they had bene called sonnes & daughters. I wil geue them an euerlastinge name, that shall not perishe.

6 Agayne, he saieith vnto the straungers that are disposed to sticke to the LORDE, to serue him, & to loue his name: That they shalbe no bode me. And all they, which kepe the selues, that they vnhalowe not the Sabbath, namely: that they fulfill my couenaut:

7 Them wil I bringe to my holy moutayne, & make the ioyfull in my house of prayer. Their burntofferings and sacrifices shalbe accepted vpo myne autler. for my house shalbe an house of prayer for all people.

8 Thus saieith the LORDE God which gathereth together the scatred of Israel: I wil bringe yet another crogagation to him.

9 All the beastes of the felde, & all the beastes of ye wod, shal come to deuoure hi.

10 For his watchmen are all blinde, they haue alltogether no vnderstandinge, they are all domme dogges, not beinge able to barcke, they are slepery: slogish are they, & lie snortinge:

11 they are shamelesse dogges, yt be neuer sati'fied. The sheperdes also in like maner haue no vnderstandinge, but euery man turneth his owne waye, euery one after his owne couetousnes, wt all his power.

12 Come (saye they) I wil fetch wyne, so shal we fyll oure selues, that we maye be dronken. And do tomorrow, like as to daye, yee and moch more.

Chapter 57

1 Bvt in the meane season ye righteous perisheth, & no ma regardeth it in his hert. Good godly people are taken awaye. & no ma cosidreth it. Namely: that the righteous is conuayed awaye thorow ye wicked:

2 that he himself might be in rest, lie quietly vpon his bed, & lyue after his owne pleasure.

3 Come hither therfore ye charmers children, ye sonnes of the aduoutrer & the whore:

4 Wherin take ye youre pleasure? Vpo whom gape ye with yor mouth, & bleare out yor tonge? Are ye not childe of aduoutry, & a sede of dissimulaicon?

5 Ye take youre pleasure vnder the okes, & vnder all grene trees, the childe beyng slayne in the valleys, & dennes of stone.

6 Thy parte shalbe with the stony rockes by the ryuer: Yee euen these shal be thy parte. For there thou hast poured meat and drynkoffringes vnto the. Shulde I ouersee that?

7 Thou hast made thy bed vpon hie mountaynes, thou wentest vp thither, and there hast thou slayne sacrifices.

8 Behynde the dores & postes, hast thou set vp thy remembraunce? When thou haddest discovered thyself to another then me, when thou wettest downe, & made thy bed wyder (that is) when thou didest carue the certayne of yonder Idols, & louedest their couches, where thou sawest the:

9 Thou wentest straight to kinges with oyle & dyuerse oyntmentes (that is) thou hast sent thy messaungers farre of, and yet art thou fallen in to the pyt therby.

10 Thou hast had trouble for ye multitude of thyne owne wayes, yet saydest thou neuer: I wil leaue of. Thou thinkest to haue life (or health) of thy self, and therfore thou beleuest not that thou art sick.

11 For when wilt thou be aba'shed or feare, seinge thou hast broken thy promyse, & remembrest not me, nether hast me in thine hert? Thinkest thou, that I also will holde my peace (as afore tyme) yt thou fearest me not?

12 Yee verely I wil declare yi goodnes & yi workes, but they shal not profit ye.

13 whe thou criest, let yi chosen heape delyuer the. But the wynde shal take them all awaye, & cary the in to ye ayre. Neuertheles, they yt put their trust in me, shal inheret the londe, and haue my holy hill in possession.

14 And therfore thus he saieith: Make redy, make redy, and clense ye strette, take vp what ye can out of the waye, that ledeth to my people.

15 For thus saieith the hie and excellet, euen he that dwelleth in euerlastingnesse, whose name is the holyone: I dwel hie aboue and in the sanctuary, & with him also, yt is of a cotrite and huble sprete: yt I maye heale a troubled mynde, and a cotrite herte.

16 For I chide not euer, & am not wroth wt out ende. But ye blastinge goeth fro me, though I make the breath.

17 I am wroth wt hi for his couetousnes & lust, I smyte him, I hyde me, and am angrie, whe he turneth himself, and foloweth ye bywaye of his owne hert.

18 But yf I maye se his right waye agayne, I make him whole, I lede him, and restore him vnto them whom he maketh ioyful, & that were sorry for him.

19 I make the frutes of thakesgeuinge. I geue peace vnto them that are farre of, and to them that are nye, saye I the LORDE, that make him whole.

20 But the wicked are like the raginge see, that ca not rest, whose water fometh with the myre & grauel.

21 Eueso ye wicked haue no peace, saieith my God.

Chapter 58

1 And therfore crie now, as loude as thou canst. Leaue not of, lift vp thy voyce like a tropet, and shewe my people their offences, and ye house of Iacob their synnes.

2 For they seke me dalye, and wil knowe my wayes, euen as it were a people that dyd right, and had not forsaken the statutes of their God. They argue with me concernynge right iudgment, and wil pleate at the lawe with their God.

3 Wherefore fast we (saye they) and thou seist it not? we put oure liues to straitnesse, and thou regardest it not?

4 Beholde, when ye fast, youre lust remaineth still: for ye do no lesse violence to youre detters: lo, ye fast to strife and debate, and to smyte him with youre fist, that speaketh vnto you. Ye fast

(as somtyme) that youre voyce might be herde aboue.

5 Thynke ye this fast pleaseth me, that a ma shulde chasten himself for a daye, and to wryth his heade aboute like an hoke in an hairy cloth, & to lye vpon the earth? Shulde that be called fastinge, or a daye yt pleaseth ye LORDE?

6 But this fastinge pleaseth not me, till ye tyme be thou lowse him out of bondage, that is in thy daunger: that thou breake the ooth of wicked bargaynes, that thou let the oppressed go fre, and take from them all maner of burthens.

7 It pleaseth not me, till thou deale thy bred to the hongrie, & brynge the poore fatherlesse home in to thy house, when thou seist the naked that thou couer him, and hyde not thy face fro thine owne flesh.

8 Then shal thy light breake forth as ye mornynge, and thy health florish right shortly: thy rightuousnesse shal go before the, and ye glory of the LORDE shal embrace the.

9 Then yf thou callest, the LORDE shal answer the: yf thou criest, he shal saye: here I am. Yee yf thou layest awaye thy burthens, and holdest thy fyngers, and ceasest from blasphemous talkinge, 10 yf thou hast compassion vpon the hongrie, and refre'shest ye troubled soule: Then shal thy light springe out in the darknesse, and thy darknesse shalbe as the noone daye.

11 The LORDE shal euer be thy gyde, and satisfie the desyre of thine hert, and fyl yi bones with marry. Thou shalt be like a freshwatred garden, and like the founteyne of water, that neuer leaueth runnyng.

12 Then the places that haue euer bene waist, shalbe buylded of the: there shalt thou laye a foundation for many kynreds. Thou shalt be called the maker vp of hedges, and ye buylder agayne of ye waye of the Sabbath.

13 Yee yf thou turne thy fete from the Sabbath, so that thou do not the thinge which pleaseth thyself in my holy daye: then shalt thou be called vnto the pleasaunt, holy & glorious Sabbath of the LORDE, where thou shalt be in honor: so yt thou do not after thine owne ymaginacion, nether seke thine owne wil, ner speake thine owne wordes.

14 The shalt thou haue yi pleasure in ye LORDE, which shal carie ye hie aboue ye earth, & fede the wt the heretage of Iacob thy father: for the LORDES owne mouth hath so promised.

Chapter 59

1 Beholde the LORDES honde is not so shortened yt it can not helpe, nether is his eare so stopped yt it maye not heare.

2 But yor my?dedes haue separated you from yor God, & yor synnes hyde his face from you, yt he heareth you not.

3 For yor hondes are defyled with bloude, and yor fyngers wt vnrighteousnesse: Yor lippes speake lesynges, & yor tonge setteth out wickednes.

4 No man regardeth righteousnes, & no ma iudgeth truly Euery man hopeth in wayne things, and ymagineth disceate, coceaueth weerynesse, & bringeth forth euell.

5 They brede cockatrice egges, & weeue ye spyders webb. Who so eateth of their egges, dieth. But yf one treade vpon the, there cometh vp a serpent.

6 Their webbe maketh no clothe, & they maye not couer the wt their labours. Their dedes are ye dedes of wickednes, & ye worke of robbery is in their hodes.

7 Their fete runne to euell, & they make haist to shed innocet bloude. Their coucels are wicked coucels, harme & destruccio are in their wayes.

8 But ye waye of peace they knowe not. In their goinges is no equyte, their wayes are so coked, yt who so euer goeth therin, knoweth nothings of peace.

9 And this is ye cause yt equite is so farre fro vs, & yt righteousnes cometh not nye vs. We loke for light, lo, it is darknesse: for ye mornynge shyne, se, we walke in ye darke.

10 We grope like ye blynde vpon ye wall, we grope euen as one yt hath none eyes. We stombe at ye noone daye, as though it were toward night: in ye fallinge places, like men yt are half deed.

11 We roare all like Beeres, & mourne stil like doues. We loke for equite, but there is none: for health, but it is farre fro vs.

12 For or offences are many before ye, & or synnes testifie agaynst vs. Yee we must cofesse yt we offende, & knowlege, yt we do amysse:

13 Namely, transgresse & dyssemble agaynst ye LORDE, & fall awaye fro or God: vsinge presuuptuous & traytorous ymaginacions, & castinge false matters in or hertes.

14 And therefore is equyte gone asyde, & righteousnes stodeth farre of: treuth is fallen downe in the strete, and the thinge that is playne and open, maye not be shewed.

15 Yee ye treuth is lade in preson, and he that refrayneth himself fro euell, must be spoyled. When the LORDE sawe this, it displeasid him sore, yt there was no where eny equite.

16 He sawe also, that there was no man, which had pitie therof, or was greued at it. And he helde him by his owne power, and cleued to his owne righteousnes.

17 He put righteousnes vpo him for a brest plate, & set the helmet of health vpo his heade. He put on wrath in steade of clothige, & toke gelously aboute him for a cloke:

18 (like as when a man goeth forth wrothfully to recopence his enemies, & to be avenged of his aduersaries.) Namely, that he might recompence and rewarde the Ilodes,

19 wherthrow the name of the LORDE might be feared, from the risynge of the Sone: and his magesty, vnto the goinge downe of the same. For he shal come as a violent waterstreame, which the wynde of the LORDE hath moued.

20 But vnto Sion there shal come a redemer, and vnto them in Iacob that turne from wickednesse, saith the LORDE.

21 I will make this couenaunt with them (sayeth ye LORDE): My sprete that is come vpon the, & the wordes which I haue put in yi mouth, shal neuer go out of thy mouth, nor out of ye mouth of thy childre, no ner out of ye mouth of thy childers childre, from this tyme forth for euer more.

Chapter 60

1 And therefore get the vp by tymes, for thy light cometh, & the glory of ye LORDE shal ryse vp vpo ye.

2 For lo, while ye darknesse & cloude couereth the earth & the people, the LORDE shal shewe the light, & his glory shal be sene in the.

3 The Gentiles shal come to thy light, & kynges to the brightnes yt springeth forth vpo ye.

4 Lift vp thine eyes, & loke rounde aboute the: All these gather the selues, & come to the. Sonnes shal come vnto ye from farre, & daughters shal gather the selues to the on euery side.

5 When thou seist this, thou shalt maruel exceedingly, and thine hert shalbe opened: when the power of the see shalbe couerted vnto the (that is) whe the strength of the Gentiles shal come vnto the.

6 The multitude of Camels shal couer ye, the Dromedaries of Madia and Ephra. All they of Saba shal come, bringinge golde & incense, & shewinge the prayse of the LORDE.

7 All the catel of Cedar shalbe gathered vnto ye, the rames of Nabaioth shal serue the, to be offred vpo myne autler, which I haue chosen, & in the house of my glory which I haue garnished.

8 But what are these that fle here like the cloudes, and as the doues flienge to their wyndowes?

9 The Iles also shal gather the vnto me, and specially the shippes of ye see: that they maye bringe the sonnes from farre, and their syluer and their golde with them, vnto the name of the LORDE thy God, vnto the holy one of Israel, that hath glorified the.

10 Straugers shal buylde vp thy walles, and their kiges shal do the seruyce. For when I am angrie, I smyte the: and when it pleaseth me, I pardon the.

11 Thy gates shal stonde open still both daye and night, and neuer be shut: that the hooste of the Gentiles maye come, and that their kinges maye be brought vnto the.

12 For euery people & kingdome that serueth not the, shal perish, and be destroyed wt the swerde.

13 The glory of libanus shal come vnto the: The Fyrre trees, Boxes & Cedres together, to garnish the place of my Sanctuary, for I wil glorifie the place of my fete.

14 Morouer those shal come kneelinge vnto the, yt haue vexed the: & all they that despised ye, shal fall downe at yi fote. Thou shalt be called the cite of the LORDE, the holy Sion of Israel.

15 Because thou hast bene forsake and hated, so that noman went thorow the: I wil make the glorious for euer and euer, ad ioyful thorow out all posterities.

16 Thou shalt sucke the mylck of the Gentiles, and kinges brestes shal fede the. And thou shalt knowe that I the LORDE am thy Sauoure and defender, the mighty one of Iacob.

17 For brasse wil I geue the golde, and for yron syluer, for wod brasse, and for stones yron. I wil make peace thy ruler, and righteousnes thine officer.

18 Violence and robbery shal neuer be herde of in thy londe, nether harme and destruction with in thy borders. Thy walles shalbe called health, & thy gates the prayse of God

19 The Sonne shal neuer by thy daye light, ad the light of the Moone shal neuer shyne vnto the: but ye LORDE himself shalbe thy euerlastinge light, & thy God shalbe thy glory.

20 The Sonne shal neuer go downe, & thy Moone shal not be taken awaye, for the LORDE himself shalbe thy euerlastinge light, ad thy sorouful dayes shal be rewarded ye.

21 Thy people shalbe all godly, & possesse the londe for euer: the floure of my plantinge, the worke of my hondes, wherof I wil reioyce.

22 The yongest & leest shal growe in to a thousande, & the symplest in to a stronge people. I the LORDE shal shortly bringe this thinge to passe in his tyme.

Chapter 61

1 The sprete of the LORDE God is wt me, for ye LORDE hath anoynted me, & sent me, to preach good tydiges vnto the poore, yt I might bynde vp ye wounded hertes, yt I might preach delyuerance to ye captiue, & open the preson to the that are bounde:

2 yt I might declare ye acceptable yeare of ye LORDE, & the daye of ye avegeance of oure God: that I might comforte all them that are in heuynesse, 3 that I might geue vnto them yt mourne in Sion, bewty in the steade of ashes, ioyful oymtmet for sighinge, pleasaunt raymet for an heuy mide: That they might be called excellent in righteousnesse, a platinge of the LORDE for him to reioyce in.

4 They shal buylde the loge rough wildernes, & set vp ye olde deserte. They shal repayre the waist places, & soch as haue bene voyde thorow out many generacios

5 Straugers shal stode & fede yor catel, & the Aleautes shalbe yor plowme & reapers.

6 But ye shalbe named the prestes of the LORDE, & me shall call you the seruantes of oure God. Ye shall enioye the goodes of ye Getiles & tryuphe in their substauce.

7 For yor greate reprofe & shame, shal they haue ioye, yt ye maye haue parte wt the. For they shal haue dubble possession i their lode, & euerlastinge ioye shalbe wt them.

8 For I the LORDE, which loue right ad hate robbery (though it were offred me) shal make their workes ful of faithfulness, & make an euerlastinge couenaunt with them.

9 Their sede also and their generacion shalbe knowne amoge the Gentiles, and amoge the people. All they that se them, shall knowe, that they are the hie blessed sede of ye LORDE.

10 And therefore I am ioyful in the LORDE, & my soule reioyseth in my God. For he shall put vpon me the garmet of health, & couer me with the matle of righteousnes. He shal decke me like a brydegrome, & as a bryde that hath hir apparell vpo her.

11 For like as ye grounde bringeth forth frute, & as the garde shuteth forth sede: So shal the LORDE God cause righteousnes, and the feare of God to florish forth before all the Heithen.

Chapter 62

1 For Sions sake therefore wil I not holde my tuge, & for Ierusalem sake I will not cease: vntill their righteousnes breake forth as ye shyninge light, & their health as a burnynge lampe.

2 Then shal the Getiles se thy righteousnesse & all kinges thy glory. Thou shalt be named with a new name, which the mouth of ye LORDE shal shewe.

3 Thou shalt be a crowne in the honde of the LORDE, and a glorious garlade in the hode of thy God.

4 From this tyme forth thou shalt neuer be called the forsake, & thy lode shal nomore be called the wilderness. But thou shalt be called Hephziba (that is, my beloued) & yi londe Beula (that is) a maried woma: for ye LORDE loueth ye, & thy lode shalbe inhabited.

5 And like as yonge ma taketh a daughter to mariage, so shal God mary himself vnto yi sonnes. And as a brydegrome is glad of his bryde, so shal God reioyse ouer the.

6 I wil set watchme vpo thy walles (o Ierusalem) which shall nether cease daye nor night, to preach ye LORDE. And ye also shall not kepe him close,

7 nor leaue to speake of hi, vntill Ierusalem be set vp, & made the prayse of the worlde.

8 The LORDE hath sworne by his right honde & by his stronge arme, that fro hence forth he wil not geue thy corne to be meate for thine enemies, ner yi wyne (wheri thou hast laboured) to be drynke for ye straungers.

9 But they that haue gathered in the corne, shal eate it, & geue thanks to the LORDE: & they that haue borne in the wyne, shall drynke it in the court of my Sanctuary.

10 Stode back, & departe a sunder, ye yt stonde vnder ye gate, make rowme ye people, repayre the strete, & take awaye ye stones, & set out a toke for the people.

11 Beholde, ye LORDE proclame the endes of the worlde: tel ye daughter Sio: se, thy Saluacio cometh, beholde, he bringeth his treasure wt him, & his workes go before him.

12 For they who ye LORDE delyuereth, shalbe called the holy people: & as for the, thou shalt be named the greatly occupied, and not the forsaken.

Chapter 63

1 What is he this, that cometh from Edom, with stayned reade clothes of Bosra: (which is so costly, cloth) & cometh in so neebly with all his strenght? I am he yt teacheth rightuousnes, & am of power to helpe.

2 Wherefore the is thy clothinge reade, & thy raymet like his yt treadeth in ye wyne presse?

3 I haue trodde the presse my self alone, & of all people, there was not one with me. Thus haue I trode downe myne enemies in my wrath, and set my fete vpo them in my indignacion: And their bloude sprange vpo my clothes, & so haue I stayned all my rayment.

4 For the daye of vengeauce that I haue take in honde, & the yeare of my delyuerance is come.

5 I loked aboute me, and there was no ma to shewe me eny helpe, I fel downe, and no man helde me vp. The I helde me by myne owne arme, & my feruetnesse susteyned me.

6 And thus haue I troden downe the people in my wrath, and bathed them in my displeasure: In so moch that I haue shed their bloude vpon the earth.

7 I will declare the goodnesse of the LORDE, yee and the prayse of the LORDE for all that he hath gyuen vs, for the greate good yt he hath done for Israel: which he hath gyuen them of his owne faouore, & acordinge to the multitude of his louynge kindnesse.

8 For he sayde: These no doute wilbe my people, and no shrekinge children, and so he was their Sauioure.

9 In their troubles he forsoke the not, but the angel that went forth from his presence, delyuered them: Of very loue & kindnesse that he had vnto them, redemed he them. He hath borne them, and caried them vp euer, sence the worlde begane.

10 But after they prouoked him to wrath and vexed his holy minde, he was their enemy, and fought agaynst them him self.

11 Yet remebred he the olde tyme, of Moses & his people: How he brought them from the water of the see, as a shepherde doth with his shepe: how he had geuen his holy sprete amonge them:

12 how he had led Moses by the right honde with his glorious arme: how he had deuyded the water before them (wherby he gat him self an euerlastinge name)

13 how he led them in the depe, as an horse is led in the playne, that they shulde not stamble.

14 The sprete of the LORDE led them, as a tame beast goeth in the felde. Thus (o God) hast thou led thy people, to make thy self a glorious name with all.

15 Loke downe then from heaue, and beholde the dwellinge place of thy sanctuary & thy glory. How is it, yt thy gelousy, thy strength, the multitude of thy mercies and thy louynge kyndnesse, wyl not be entreated of vs?

16 Yet art thou or father: For Abraham knoweth vs not, nether is Israel acquainted with vs. But thou LORDE art oure father and redemer, and thy name is euer lastinge.

17 O LORDE wherfore hast thou led vs out of thy waye? wherfore hast thou hardened oure hertes, that we feare the not? Be at one with vs agayne, for thy seruantes sake yt are of the generacio of thy heretage.

18 Thy people hath had but litle of thy Sanctuary in possessio, for oure enemies haue take it in:

19 And we are become, euen as we were from the beginnyng: but thou art not their LORDE, for they haue not called vpon thy name.

Chapter 64

1 O that thou woldest cleue the heauen in sonder, & come downe: that the mountaynes might melt awaye at thy presence,

2 like as at an hote fyre: and that the malicious might boyle, as the water doth vpon the fyre: Wherby thy name might be knowne amoge thine enemies, & yt the Getiles might treble before ye.

3 That thou mightest come downe with thy wonderous straunge workes, then shulde the hilles melt at thy presence.

4 For sence the begynnynge of the worlde there was none (excepte thou o God) that herde or perceaued, nether hath eny eye sene what thou dost for the, that put their trust in the.

5 Thou helpest him that doth right with cherefulness, and them that thynke vpon thy wayes. But lo, thou art angrie, for we offende, and haue bene euer in synne, and there is not one whole.

6 We are all as an vnclene thinge, & all oure rightuousnesse are as the clothes stayned with the floures of a woman: we fall euerychone as the leaf, for oure synnes carie vs awaye like the wynde.

7 There is no man that calleth vpon thy name, that stondest vp to take holde by the. Therefore hydest thou thy face from vs, and consumest vs, because of oure synnes.

8 But now o LORDE, thou father of ours: we are the claye, and thou art oure potter, and we all are the worke of thy hondes.

9 Be not to sore displeas'd (o LORDE) and kepe not oure offences to loge in thy remembraunce, but conside that we all are thy people.

10 The cities of thy Sanctuary lye waist, Sion is a wilderness, and Ierusalem a deserte.

11 Oure holy house which is oure bewty, where oure fathers prayesd the, is brent vp, yee all oure comodities and pleasures are waysted awaye.

12 Wilt thou not be intreated (LORDE) for all this? Wilt thou holde thy peace, and scourge vs so sore?

Chapter 65

1 They shal seke me, that hitherto haue not axed for me: they shal fynde me, that hither to haue not sought me. Then shal I saye immediatly, to the people that neuer called vpon my name: I am here, I am here.

2 For thus longe haue I euer holden out my hondes to an vnfaithful people, that go not the right waye, but after their owne ymaginacions:

3 To a people, that is euer defyenge me to my face. They make their oblacions in gardens, and their smoke vpon alters of bricke,

4 they lurck amonge the graues, and lie in the dennes all night. They eate swyne flesh, and vnclene broth is in their vessels.

5 Yf thou comest nye them, they saie: touch me not, for I am holier then thou. All these men when I am angrie, shalbe turned to smoke and fyre, that shal burne for euer.

6 Beholde, it is written before my face, & shal not be forgotten, but recopensed. I shal rewarde it them in to their bosome:

7 I meane youre mysdedes, and the mysdedes of youre fathers together (saieth the LORDE) which haue made their smokes vpon the mountaynes, and blasphemed me vpon the hilles: therfore will I measure their olde dedes in to their bosome agayne.

8 Morouer thus saie the LORDE: like as when one wolde gather holy grapes, men saye vnto him: breake it not of, for it is holy: Euen so will I do also for my seruantes sakes, that I will not destroye them all.

9 But I will take a sede out of Iacob, and out of Iuda one, to take possession of my hill. My chosen shal possesse these thinges, & my seruantes shall dwell there.

10 Saron shalbe a shepefolde, and the valley of Achor shal geue stallinge for the cattell of my people, that feare me.

11 But as for you, ye are they, yt haue forsaken the LORDE, and forgotten my holy hill. Ye haue set vp an alter vnto fortune, & geue rich drinkofferings vnto treasure.

12 Therfore wil I nombre you with the swerde, that ye shall be destroyed all together. For when I called, no man gaue me answere: when I spake, ye herkened not vnto me, but dyd wickednes before myne eyes, and chosed the thinge that pleased me not.

13 Therfore thus saie the LORDE God: Beholde, my seruantes shal eate, but ye shall haue hunger. Beholde, my seruantes shall drynke, but ye shall suffre thurst. Beholde, my seruantes shal be mery, but ye shall be cofounded.

14 Beholde, my seruantes shal reioyse for very quietnesse of herte. But ye shall crie for sorow of hert, and coplayne for vexacion of mynde.

15 Youre name shal not be sworne by amonge my chosen, for God the LORDE shal slaye you, and call his seruantes by another name.

16 Who so reioyseth vpo earth, shall reioyse in the true God: And Who so sweareth vpo earth, shal sweare in the true God. For the olde enemite shalbe forgotten, and taken awaye out of my sight.

17 For lo, I shal make a new heaue, & a new earth. And as for the olde, they shall neuer be thought vpo, ner kepte in mynde:

18 but me shalbe glad and euermore reioyse, for the thinges, that I shall do. For why: Beholde, I shal make a ioyfull Ierusalem, 19 yee I myself will reioyse with Ierusalem, & be glad with my people: And the voyce of wepinge and waylinge shall not be herde in her from thece forth.

20 There shall neuer be childe ner olde man, that haue not their full dayes. But whe the childe cometh to an huderth yeare olde, it shall dye. And yf he that is an huderth yeare of age do wronge, he shalbe cursed.

21 They shal buylde houses, and dwell in them: they shal plante vnyardes, and eate the frute of them.

22 They shall not buylde, & another possesse: they shall not plante, and another eate: But the life of my people shalbe like a tre, and so shal the worke of their hondes.

23 My chosen shal lyue longe, they shall not laboure in vayne, ner beget wt trouble: for they are the hie blessed sede of the LORDE, & their frutes with them.

24 And it shalbe, that or euer they call, I shal answere them. Whye they are yet but thinkinge how to speake, I shal heare them.

25 The wolff and the lambe shal fede together, and the lyon shal eate haye like the bullocke. But earth shalbe the serpetes meate. There shal no man hurte ner slaye another, in all my holy hill, saie the LORDE.

Chapter 66

1 Thus saie the LORDE: Heaue is my seate, and the earth is my fote stole. Where shal now the house stonde, yt ye will buylde vnto me? And where shal be the place, yt I wil dwell in?

2 As for these thinges, my hode hath made them all, and they are all created, saieth the LORDE. Which of them shal I then regarde? Eue him that is of a lowly troubled sprete, and stodeth in awe of my wordes.

3 For who so slayeth an ox for me, doth me so greate dishonoure, as he yt kylleth a ma. He that kylleth a shepe for me, choketh a dogge. He that bringeth me meatoffringes, offreth swynes bloude: Who so maketh me a memoriall of Incense, prayseth the thinge yt is vnright. Yet take they such wayes in honde, and their soule delieth in these abhominacions.

4 Therefore wil I also haue pleasure in laughinge them to scorne, and the thinge that they feare, wil I bringe vpon the. For when I called, no man gaue answer: when I spake, they wolde not heare: But dyd wickednesse before myne eyes, & chose the thinges that displeas me.

5 Heare the worde of God all ye, that feare the thinge which he speaketh. Your brethren that hate you, and cast you out for my names sake, saye: Let the LORDE magnifie himself, that we maye se youre gladnesse: & yet they shalbe cofounded.

6 For as touchinge the cite and the temple, I heare the voyce of the LORDE, that will rewarde, and recompece his enemies:

7 like as when a wife bringeth forth a man childe, or euer she suffre the payne of the byrth and anguysch of ye trauayle. 8 Who euer herde or sawe such thinges? doth the grounde beare in one daye? or are the people borne all at once, as Sion beareth his sonnes?

9 For thus sayeth the LORDE: Am I he that maketh other to beare, and beare not my self? Am not I he that beareth, and maketh baren? saieth thy God.

10 Reioyse with Ierusalem, & be glad with her, all ye that loue her. Be ioyful with her, all ye that mourned for her.

11 For ye shal sucke coforte out of hir brestes, and be satisfied. Ye shal taist, and haue delite in the plenteousnesse of hir power.

12 For thus sayeth the LORDE: beholde, I wil let peace i to her, like a water floude, & ye might of the Heithe like a flowinge streame. Then shal ye sucke, ye shal be borne vpon hir sydes, and be ioyful vpo hir knees.

13 For like as a childe is comforted of his mother, so shal I conforte you, and ye shalbe comforted in Ierusalem.

14 And when ye se this, youre herte shal reioyse, and youre bones shal florish like an herbe. Thus shal the honde of the LORDE be knowne amonge his seruantes, and his indignacion amonge his enemies.

15 For beholde, the LORDE shal come wt fyre, and his charet shal be like a whyrlwynde, that he maye recompence his vengeaunce in his wrath, and his indignacion with the flame of fyre.

16 For ye LORDE shal iudge all flesh with the fyre and with his swerde, and there shalbe a greate nombre slayne of the LORDE.

17 Soch as haue made themselves holy and cleane in the gardens, and those that haue eaten swyne flesh, myce, and other abhominacios, shalbe taken awaye together, saieth the LORDE.

18 For I wil come to gather all people and tonges, with their workes and ymaginacions: these shal come, and se my glory.

19 Vnto them shal I geue a toke, and sende certayne of the (that be delyuered) amonge the Gentiles: in to Celicia, Africa and Lidia (where men can handle bowes) into Italie also and Grekelonde. The Iles farre of, that haue not herde speake of me, & haue not sene my glory: shal preach my prayse amonge the Gentiles, 20 and shal bringe all youre brethre for an offringe vnto the LORDE, out of al people, vpo horses, charettes and horse lytters, vpo Mooles and cartes to Ierusalem my holy hill (saieth the LORDE) like as the children of Israel bringe the offringe in cleane vessels, to the house of the LORDE.

21 And I shal take out certayne of them for to be preastes and leuites, saieth ye LORDE.

22 For like as the new heaue and the new earth which I wil make, shalbe fast stablished by me: (saieth the LORDE) So shal youre sede and youre name contynue,

23 and there shalbe a new Moone for the other, and a new Sabbath for the other, & all flesh shal come to worships before me, (saieth ye LORDE.)

24 And they shal go forth, and loke vpo the caryons of them, that haue transgressed agaynst me. For their wormes shal not dye, nether shal their fyre be quenched, & all flesh shal abhorre them.

JEREMIAH

Chapter 1

1 These are the Sermons of Ieremy the sonne of Helchia the prest, one of them that dwelt at Anathot in the londe of Ben lamin:

2 when the LORDE had first spoken with him, in the tyme of Iosias the sonne of Amon kinge of Iuda, in the xiiij yeare of his kingdome:

3 and so duringe vnto the tyme of Ioachim the sonne of Iosias kinge of Iuda, and vnto the xj yeares of Sedechias the sonne of Iosias kinge of Iuda were ended: when Ierusalem was taken, euen in the fyfth Moneth.

4 The worde of the LORDE spake thus vnto me:

5 Before I fasshioned the in thy mothers wobe, I dyd knowe the: And or euer thou wast borne, I sanctified the, & ordened the, to be a prophet vnto the people.

6 The sayde I: Oh LORDE God, I am vnmete, for I am yet but yonge.

7 And the LORDE answered me thus:

Saye not so, I am to yonge: For thou shalt go to all that I shall sende the vnto, and what so euer I comaunde the, that shalt thou speake.

8 Be not afrayed of their faces, for I wilbe with the, to delyuer the, saieth the LORDE.

9 And with that, the LORDE stretched out his honde, and touched my mouth, and sayde morouer vnto me: Beholde I put my wordes in thy mouth,

10 and this daye do I set the ouer the people and kingdomes: that thou mayest rote out, breake of, destroye, and make waist: and that thou mayest buylde vp, and plate.

11 After this, the LORDE spake vnto me sayenge: Ieremy, what seist thou? And I sayde: I do se a wakyng rodde.

12 Then sayde ye LORDE: thou hast sene right, for I will watch diligently vpon my worde, to perfourme it.

13 It happened afterwarde, that the LORDE spake to me agayne, & sayde: What seist thou? And I sayde: I do se a seethinge pot, lokinge from out of the north hitherwarde.

14 Then sayde the LORDE vnto me: Out of the north shall come a plage vpon all the dwellers of the londe.

15 For lo, I will call all the officers of the kyngdomes of the north, (saieth the LORDE.) And they shall come, and euery one shall set his seate in the gates of Ierusalem, and in all their walles rounde aboute, and thorow all the cities of Iuda.

16 And thorow them shall I declare my iudgment, vpon all the wickednesse of those men that haue forsaken me: that haue offred vnto straunge goddes, & worshipped the workes of their owne hondes.

17 And therefore gyrd vp thy loynes, arise, and tell them all, that I geue the in comaundement. Feare them not, I will not haue the to be afrayed of the.

18 For beholde, this daye do I make the a stroge fensed towne, an yron pyler, and a wall of stele agaynst ye whole londe, agaynst the kinges and mightie men of Iuda, agaynst the prestes and people of the londe.

19 They shall fight agaynst the, but they shall not be able to ouercome the: for I am wt the, to delyuer the, saieth the LORDE.

Chapter 2

1 Morouer, the worde of the LORDE comaunded me thus:

2 Go thy waye, crie in the eares of Ierusalem, & saye: Thus saieth the LORDE: I remembre the for the kyndnesse of thy youth, and because of thy stedfast loue: in that thou folowdest me thorow the wilderness, in an vntilled londe.

3 Thou Israel wast halowed vnto te LORDE, and so was his first frutes. All they that deuoured Israel, offended: mi?fortune fell vpon them, saieth the

LORDE.

4 Heare therefore the worde of the LORDE, O thou house of Iacob, and all the generacion of the house of Israel.

5 Thus saieth ye LORDE vnto you: What vnfaithfulnesse founde youre fathers in me, that they wente so farre awaye from me, fallinge to lightnesse, and beinge so vayne?

6 They thought not in their hertes: Where haue we left the LORDE, yt brought vs out of the lode of Egipte: yt led vs thorow the wilderness, thorow a deserte and rough londe, thorow a drie and a deedly londe, yee a londe that no man had gone thorow, and wherein no man had dwelt.

7 And when I had brought you in to a pleasaunt welbuylded londe, that ye might enioye the frutes and all the comodities of the same: ye went forth and defyled my londe, & brought myne heretage to abhominacion.

8 The prestes the selues saide not once: where is ye LORDE? They yt haue the lawe in their hondes, knowe me not: The shepherdes offende agaynst me. The prophetes do seruyce vnto Baal, & folowe soch thinges as shall bringe them no profit.

9 Wherefore I am constrayned (sayeth the LORDE) to make my complaynte vpon you, and vpon youre children.

10 Go in to the Iles of Cethim, and loke wel: sende vnto Cedar, take diligent hede: and se, whether soch thinges be done there, 11 whether the Gentiles themselves deale so falsly & vntruly with their goddes (which yet are no goddes in dede.) But my people hath geuen ouer their hie honoure, for a thinge that maye not helpe them.

12 Be astonished (o ye heauens) be afrayde, & abashed at soch a thinge, saieth the LORDE.

13 For my people hath done two euels. They haue forsake me the well of the water of life, and digged them pittes, yee vile and broken pittes, that holde no water.

14 Is Israel a bonde seruaunt, or one of the housholde? Why is he then so spoyled?

15 Why do they roare and crie then vpon him, as a lyon? They haue made his londe wayst, his cities are so brent vp, that there is no man dwellinge in them.

16 Yee the children of Noph and Taphanes haue defyled thy necke.

17 Cometh not this vnto the, because thou hast forsaken the LORDE thy God, euer sence he led the by the waye?

18 And what hast thou now to do in ye strete of Egipte? to drinke foule water?

19 Thine owne wickednesse shal reproue the, and thy turnynge awaye shal condemne the: that thou mayest knowe and vnderstonde, howe euell and hurtful a thinge it is, yt thou hast forsaken the LORDE thy God, and not feared him, saieth the LORDE God of hoostes.

20 I haue euer broken thy yock of olde,

& bursten thy bondes: yet saiest thou, I wil nomore serue, but (like an harlot) thou runnest aboute vpon all hie hilles, & amonge all grene trees:

21 where as I planted the out of noble grapes and good rotes. How art thou turned then into a bytter, vnfrutefull, and straunge grape?

22 Yee and that so sore: that though thou washest the with Nitrus & makest thiself to sauoure with that swete smellinge herbe of Borith: yet in my sight thou art stayned with thy wickednesse, saie the LORDE thy God.

23 Saye not now: I am not vnclene, and I haue not folowed the goddes. Loke vpo thyne owne waies in the woddess, valleis & dennes: so shalt thou knowe, what thou hast done. Thou art like a swift Dromedary, that goeth easely his waye: 24 and thy wantonnes is like a wilde Asse, that vseth the wilderness, and that snoffeth and bloweth at his wil. Who can tame the? All they that seke the, shal not fayle, but fynde the in thyne owne vnclennes.

25 Thou kepest thy fote from nakednes, and thy throte from thurste, and thinkest thus in thy self: tush, I wil take no sorowe, I wil loue the straunge goddes, & hange vpon them.

26 Like as a thefe that is taken with the dede, commeth to shame, eue so is the house of Israel come to confucion: the comon people, their kinges and rulers, their prestes and prophetes.

27 For they saye to a stock, thou art my father, and to a stone: thou hast begotten me, yee they haue turned their back vpon me, & not their face. But in the tyme of their trouble, when they saye: stonde vp, and helpe vs, 28 I shal answer the: Where are now thy goddes, that thou hast made the? byd them stonde vp, and helpe the in the tyme of nede? For loke how many cities thou hast (o Iuda) so many goddes hast thou also.

29 Wherefore the wil ye go to lawe with me, seinge ye all are synners agaynst me, saie the LORDE?

30 It is but lost labour, that I smyte youre children, for they receaue not my correction. Your owne swearde destroyeth youre prophetes, like a deuouringe lyon.

31 Yf ye be the people of the LORDE, then herke vnto his worde: Am I the become a wilderness vnto the people of Israel? or a londe that hath no light? Wherefore saie the my people then: we are falle of, and we wil come no more vnto the?

32 Doth a mayden forget hir raymet, or a bryde hir stomacher? And doth my people forget me so loqe?

33 Why boostest thou thy wayes so hylie, (to optayne fauoure there thorow) when thou hast yet stayned them wt blasphemies?

34 Vpon thy wynges is founde the bloude of poore and innocent people, and that not in corners and holes only, but opely in all these places.

35 Yet darrest thou saye: I am giltlesse: Tush, his wrath can not come vpo me. Beholde, I wil reason with ye, because thou darrest saye: I haue not offended.

36 O how euell wil it be for the, to abyde it: when it shall be knowne, how oft thou hast gone bacwarde? For thou shalt be confounded, as wel of Egipte, as of the Assirians:

37 Yee thou shalt go thy waye from the, & smyte yine hondes together vpon thy heade. Because the LORDE shal bringe that confidence and hope of thine to naught, and thou shalt not prospere with all.

Chapter 3

1 Comonly, when a man putteth awaye his wife, and she goeth from him, and marieth with another, then the question is: shulde he resorte vnto her eny more after that? Is not this felde then defyled and vnclene? But as for the, thou hast played the harlot with many louers, yet turne agayne to me, saie the LORDE.

2 Lift vp thine eyes on euery syde, and loke, yf thou be not defyled. Thou hast waited for them in the stretes, and as a murthurer in the wilderness. Thorow thy whordome and shamefull blasphemies, is the londe defyled.

3 This is the cause, that the rayne and euenynge dew hath ceased. Thou hast gotten the an whores foreheade, and canst not be ashamed.

4 Els woldest thou saye vnto me: O my father, thou art he that hast brought me vp, and led me fro my youth:

5 Wilt thou then put me awaye, and cast me of foreuer? Or wilt thou withdrawe thy self clene fro me? Neuertheles, thou speakest soch wordes, but thou art euer doinge worse, and worse.

6 The LORDE sayde also vnto me, in the tyme of Iosias the kinge: Hast thou sene what that shrekinge Israel hath done? how she hath runne vp vpon all hie hilles, and amonge all thick trees, and there played the harlot?

7 hast thou sene also, (when she had done all this) how I sayde vnto her: that she shulde turne agayne vnto me, and yet she is not returned? Iuda that vnfaithfull sister of hirs also sawe this:

8 Namely, that affter I had well sene the adoutrye of the shrenkinge harlot Israel, I put her awaye, and gaue her a byll of deuorcement. For all this, hir vnfaithfull sister Iuda was not ashamed, but wente backe and played the whore also.

9 Yee and the noyse of hir whordome hath defyled the whole lode. For she hath committed hir adoutrie with stones and stockes.

10 Neuerthelesse, hir vnfaithfull sister Iuda is not turned vnto me agayne with hir whole herte, but faynedly, saie the LORDE.

11 And the LORDE sayde vnto me: The bacsluder Israel is more rightuous, the vnfaithfull Iuda:

12 and therefore go preach these wordes

towarde the north, & saye: Thou shrenkinge Israel, turne agayne (saie the LORDE,) and I will not turne my face from you, for I am merciful, saie the LORDE, & I will not allwaye beare displeasure agaynst the:

13 but on this condicon, that thou knowe thy greate blasphemy: Namely, that thou hast vnfaithfully forsaken the LORDE thy God, & hast made thy self partaker of straunge goddes vnder all grene trees, but hast had no wil to heare my voyce, saie the LORDE.

14 O ye shrenkinge children, turne agayne, saie the LORDE, and I wil be married with you. For I will take one out of the citie and two out of one generacion from amoge you, and bringe you out of Sion:

15 and will geue you hyrdme after myne owne mynde, which shal fede you with lernynge and wy?dome.

16 Morouer, when ye be increased and multiplied in the londe, then (saie the LORDE) there shall nomore boost be made of the arke of the LORDES Testament: No man shall thinke vpon it, nether shall eny man make mencion of it: for from thence forth it shall nether be visited, ner honoured with giftes.

17 Then shall Ierusalem be called the LORDES seate, and all Heithen shalbe gathered vnto it, for the name of the LORDE sake, which shalbe set vp at Ierusalem. And from that tyme forth, they shall folowe nomore the ymaginacion of their owne frauwerde herte.

18 The those yt be of the house of Iuda, shal go vnto the house of Israel: And they shal come together out of the north, in to the same londe that I haue geuen youre fathers.

19 I haue shewed also, how I toke the vp beinge but a childe, and gaue the a pleasaunt londe for thine heretage, yee and a goodly hooste of the Heithen: and how I commaunded the, that thou shuldest call me father only, and not to shrencke fro me.

20 But like as a woman fayleth hir louer, so are ye vnfaithfull vnto me (o ye house of Israel) saie the LORDE.

21 And therfore the voyce of the children of Israel was herde on euery side, wepinge and waylinge: for they haue defyled their waye, and forgotten God their LORDE.

22 O ye shrenkinge children, turne agayne, (saynge: lo, we are thine, for thou art the LORDE oure God:) And so shal I heale youre bacturnynge.

23 The hilles fall, and all the hie pryde of the mountaynes, but the health of Israel stondesth only vpon God oure LORDE.

24 Confucion hath deuoured oure fathers labour from oure youth vp: yee their shepe and bullockes, their sonnes and daughters.

25 So do we also slepe in oure confucion, and shame couereth vs: for we and oure fathers from oure youth vp vnto this daye haue synned agaynst the LORDE oure God. and hahaha not obeyed the voyce of the LORDE oure God.

Chapter 4

1 O Israel, yf thou wilt turne the, then turne vnto me, saie the LORDE. And yf thou wilt put awaye thy abhominacions out of my sight, thou shalt not be moued:

2 And shalt swear: The LORDE Iyue the: in treuth, in equite and rightuousnesse: and all people shall be fortunable and ioyfull in him.

3 For thus saie the LORDE, to all Iuda and Ierusalem: plowe youre londe, and sowe not amonge the thornes.

4 Be circumcided in the LORDE, and cutt awaye the foreskynne of youre hertes, all ye of Iuda, and all the indwellers of Ierusalem: that my indignacion breake not out like fyre, & kyndle, so that no man maye quench it, because of the wickednes of youre ymaginacions.

5 Preach in Iuda and Ierusalem, crie out and speake: blowe the trompettes in the londe, crie that euery man maye heare, and saye: Gather you together, and we will go in to stronge cities.

6 Set vp the token in Sion, spede you, and make no tarienge: for I will bringe a greate plage, and a greate destruction from the north.

7 For the spoyler of the Gentiles is broken vp from his place, as a lyon out of his dene, that he maye make the londe waist, and destroye the cities, so, that no man maye dwell therein.

8 Wherefore gyrde youre selues aboute wt sack cloth, mourne, and wepe, for the fearful wrath of the LORDE shal not be withdrawn from you.

9 At the same tyme (saie the LORDE) the hert of the kinge and of the prynces shal be gone, the prestes shalbe astonished, and the prophetes shalbe sore afrayed.

10 Then sayde I: O LORDE God, hast thou then disceaue this people and Ierusalem, sayenge: ye shall haue peace, and now the swearde goeth thorow their lyues?

11 Then shal it be saide to the people & to Ierusalem: there commeth a warme wynde from the north thorow the waye of my people, but nether to fanne, ner to clese.

12 After that shall there come vnto me a stronge wynde, and then wil I also geue sentence vpon them.

13 For lo, he commeth downe like as a cloude, and his charettes are like a stormy wynde: his horsmen are swifter then the Aegle. Wo vnto vs, for we are destroyed.

14 O Ierusalem, wash thine hert from wickednesse, that thou mayest be helped. How longe shal thy noysome thoughtes remayne with the?

15 For a voyce from Dan and from ye hill of Ephraim speaketh out, and telleth of a destruction.

16 Beholde, the Heithen geue Ierusalem warnynge, and preach vnto her, that hir destroyers are comynge from farre countrees. They tell the cities of Iuda the same also,

17 they shall geue them warnynge in euery place, like as the watch men in the felde. For they haue prouoked me to wrath, saieth the LORDE.

18 Thy wayes and thy thoughtes, haue brought the vnto this, this is thyne owne wickednesse and disobediece, that hath possessed thyne hert:

19 Ah my bely, ah my bely, (shalt thou crie) how is my hert so sore? my hert paunteth within me, I can not be still, for I haue herde the crienge of the trompettes, and peales of warre.

20 They crie murthur vpon murthur, the whole londe shal perish. Immediately my tentes were destroyed, and my hanginges, in the twyncklinge of an eye.

21 How longe shall I se the tokens of warre, and heare the noyse of the trompettes?

22 Neuertheles this shall come vpon them, because my people is become foolish, and hath vterly no vnderstandinge. They are the children of foolishnes, and without eny discrecio. To do euell, they haue witt ynough: but to do well, they haue no wi?dome.

23 I haue loked vpon the earth, and se, it is wayst and voyde. I loked towarde heauen, and it had no shyne.

24 I behelde the mountaynes, and they trembled, and all the hilles were in a feare.

25 I loked aboute me, and there was no body, and all the byrdes of the ayre were awaye.

26 I marked well, and the plowed felde was become waist: yee all their cities were broken downe at the presence of the LORDE, and indignacion of his wrath.

27 For thus hath the LORDE sayde: The whole londe shalbe desolate, yet will I not then haue done.

28 And therefore let the earth mourne, and let the heauen be sory aboute: for the thinge that I haue purposed and taken vpon me to do, shal not repente me, and I will not go from it.

29 The whole londe shal fle, for the noyse of the horsmen and bowmen: they shall runne in to dennes in to woddess, and clymme vp the stony rockes. All the cities shalbe voyde, and no man dwellinge therein.

30 What wilt thou now do, thou beinge destroyed? For though thou clothest thy self with scarlet, & deckest ye with gold: though thou payntest thy face wt colours, yet shalt thou trymme thy self in wayne. For those that hither to haue bene thy greate faouers, shal abhorre the, and go aboute to slaye ye.

31 For (me thinke) I heare a noyse, like as it were of a woman traueling, or one laboringe of hir first childe: Euen the voyce of the daughter Sion, that casteth out hir armes, and swowneth, sayenge: Ah wo is me, how sore vexed and faynte is my herte, for them that are slayne?

Chapter 5

1 Loke thorow Ierusalem, beholde and se: Seke thorow hir stretes also within, yf ye can fynde one man, that doth equall and right, or that laboureth to be faithfull: and I shall spare him (saieth the LORDE)

2 For though they can saye: the LORDE lyueth, yet do they sweare to disceau:

3 Where as thou (o LORDE) lokest only vpon faith and treuth. Thou hast scourged them, but they toke no repentaunce: thou hast correcte them for amendemet, but they refused thy correction. They made their faces harder then a stone, and wolde not amende.

4 Therefore I thought in my self: peraduenture they are so symple and folish, that they vnderstonde nothinge of the LORDES waye, and iudgmentes of oure God.

5 Therefore will I go vnto their heades and rulers, and talke with them: yf they knowe the waye of the LORDE, and the iudgmetes of oure God. But these (in like maner) haue broken the yock, and bursten the bondes in sonder.

6 Wherefore a lyon out of the wod shal hurte them, and a wolfe in the euenynge shal destroye them. The cat of the mountayne shal lie lurking by their cities, to teare in peces all them, that come therout. For their offences are many, and their departinge awaye is greate.

7 Shulde I then for all this haue mercy vpon the? Thy children haue forsaken me, and sworne by them that are no goddes. And albeit they were bounde to me in marriage, yet they fell to aduoutrie, and haunted harlottes houses.

8 In the desyre of vnclenly lust they are become like the stoned horse, euery man neyeth at his neighbours wife.

9 Shulde I not correcte this, saieth the LORDE? Shulde I not be avenged of euery people, that is like vnto this?

10 Clymme vp vpon their walles, beate them downe, but destroye them not vtterly: cut of their braunches, because they are not the LORDES.

11 For vnfaithfully hath the house of Israel and Iuda forsaken me, saieth the LORDE.

12 They haue denied the LORDE, and sayde: it is not he. Tush, there shall no mi?fortune come vpon vs, we shall se nether swearde ner hunger.

13 As for the warnynge of the prophetes, they take it but for wynde, yee there is none of these, which will tell them, that soch thinges shal happen vnto them.

14 Wherefore thus saieth the LORDE God of hoostes: because ye speake soch wordes, beholde: The wordes that are in thy mouth will I turne to fyre, and make the people to be wod, that it maye consume them.

15 Lo, I will bringe a people vpo you from farre, o house of Israel (saieth the LORDE) a mightie people, an olde people, a people whose speach thou knowest not, nether vnderstodest what they saye.

16 Their arowes are sodane death, yee they them selues be very giauntes.

17 This people shal eate vp thy frute & thy meate, yee they shal deuoure thy sonnes and thy daughters, thy shepe and thy bullockes. They shall eate vp thy grapes & fyges. As for thy stronge and well fensed cities, wherin thou didest trust, they shal destroye them with the swearde.

18 Neuertheles I will not then haue done with you, saieth the LORDE.

19 But yf they saye: wherefore doth the LORDE oure God all this vnto vs? Then answere them: because, that like as ye haue forsake me, and serued straunge goddes in youre owne londe, euen so shall ye serue other goddes also in a strange londe.

20 Preach this vnto the house of Iacob, & crie it out in Iuda, and saye thus:

21 Heare this (thou folish and vndiscrete people.) Ye haue eyes, but ye se not: eares haue ye, but ye heare not.

22 Feare ye not me, saieth the LORDE? Are ye not ashamed, to loke me in the face? which bynde the see with the sonde, so that it can not passe his boundes: For though it rage, yet can it do nothinge: and though the wawes therof do swell, yet maye they not go ouer.

23 But this people hath a false and an obstinate herte, they are departed and gone awaye fro me.

24 They thinke not in their hartes: O let vs feare the LORDE oure God, that geueth vs rayne early and late, when nede is: which kepeth euer still the haruest for vs yearly.

25 Neuertheles youre mi?dedes haue turned these from you, & youre synnes haue robbed you herof.

26 For amonge my people are founde wicked personnes, that priuely laye snares and waite for men, to take them, and destroye them.

27 And like as a net is full of byrdes, so are their houses full of that, which they haue gotten with falsede and disceate. Herof cometh their greate substaunce and riches, 28 herof are they fat and welthy, and are runne awaye fro me with shamefull blasphemies. They ministre not the lawe, they make no ende of the fatherlesse cause, they iudge not the poore acordinge to equite.

29 Shulde I not punysh these thinges, saieth the LORDE? Shulde I not be avenged of all soch people, as these be?

30 Horrible and greuouse thinges are done in the londe.

31 The prophetes teach falsely, and the prestes folowe them, and my people hath pleasure therein. What will come therof at the last?

Chapter 6

1 Come out of Ierusalem, ye stronge childre of Benlamin: blowe vp the trompettes ye Tecuites, set vp a token vnto Bethacarem, for a plage and a greate misery pepeth out from the North.

2 I will lick the daughter Sion to a fayre and tendre woman, and to her shall come the shepherdes with their flockes.

3 Their tentes shal they pitch rounde aboute her, and euery one shal fede with his honde.

4 Make batell agaynst her (shal they saye:) Arise, let vs go vp, while it is yet daye. Alas, the daye goeth awaye, & the night shadowes fall downe:

5 Arise, let vs go vp by night, and destroye hir stronge holdes,

6 for thus hath the LORDE of hoostes commaunded. Hew downe hir trees, and set vp bulworkes agaynst Ierusalem. This is the cite that must be punished, for in her is all maliciousnes.

7 Like as a codyte aboundeth in water, eue so this citie aboundeth in wickednes. Robbery and vnrightuousnesse is herde in her, sorow & woundes are euer there in my sight.

8 Amede the (o Ierusalem) lest I with drawe my herte from the, and make the desolate: & thy londe also, yt no man dwel in it.

9 For thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes: The residue of Israel shalbe gathered, as the remnaunt of grapes. And therefore turne thine honde agayne in to the ba?ket, like the grape gatherer.

10 But vnto whom shal I speake? whom shal I warne, that he maye take hede? Their eares are so vncircumcised, that they maye not heare. Beholde, they take the worde of God but for a scorne, and haue no lust therto.

11 And therefore I am so full of thy indignacion (o LORDE) that I maye suffre no longer. Shed out thy wrath vpon the children that are without, and vpon all yonge men. Yee the man must be taken presoner with the wife, and the aged with the crepel.

12 Their houses with their londes and wiues shal be turned vnto straungers, whe I stretchout myne hode vpon the inhabitours of this londe, saieth the LORDE.

13 For from the leest vnto the most, they hange all vpon covetousnes; and from the prophet vnto the prest, they go all aboute with falsede and lyes.

14 And besyde that, they heale the hurte of my people with swete wordes, sayenge: peace, peace, when there is no peace at all.

15 Therefore they must be ashamed, for they haue comitted abhominacion. But how shulde they be ashamed, when they knowe nothinge, nether of shame ner good nurture? And therefore they shal fall amonge the slayne, and in the houre when I shall viset them, they shalbe brought downe, saieth the LORDE.

16 Thus saieth the LORDE: go into the stretes, considre and make inquisicion for the olde waye: and yf it be the good and right waye, then go therin, that ye maye fynde rest for youre soules. (But they saye: we will not walke therein)

17 and I will set watchmen ouer you, and therfore take hede vnto the voyce of the trompet. But they saye: we will not take hede.

18 Heare therfore ye Gentiles, and thou congregacion shalt knowe, what I haue deuysed for them.

19 Heare thou earth also: beholde, I will cause a plage come vpon this people, euen the frute of their owne ymaginacions. For they haue not bene obedient vnto my wordes and to my lawe, but abhorred them.

20 Wherefore bringe ye me incense from Saba, & swete smellinge Calamus from farre countrees? Youre burnt offerings displeas me, and I reioyse not in youre sacrifices.

21 And therfore thus saith the LORDE: beholde, I will make this people fall, and there shall fall from amonge them the father wt the children, one neighbour shall perish with another.

22 Morouer thus saith ye LORDE: Beholde, there shall come a people from the North, & a greate people shall arise from ye endes of ye earth, 23 wt bowes & wt darts shall they be weapened: It is a rough & fearece people, an vnmerciful people: their voyce roareth like the see, they ride vpon horses wel appointed to ye batell agaynst the, o daughter Sion.

24 Then shall this crie be herde: Oure armes are feble, heuynes and sorow is come vpon vs, as vpon a woman traueling with childe.

25 Noman go forth in to the felde, no man come vpon the hie strete: for the swearde and feare of the enemye shall be on euery side.

26 Wherefore, gyrd a sack cloth aboute the (o thou daughter of my people) sprynkle thy self with a'shes, mourne and wepe bitterly, as vpon thy only beloued sonne: For the destroyer shall sodenly fall vpon vs.

27 The haue I set for a prouer of my harde people, to seke out and to trye their wayes.

28 For they are all vnfaithful and fallen awaye, they hange vpon shameful lucre, they are clene brasse and yron, for they hurte and destroye euery man.

29 The bellous are brent in the fyre, the leade is consumed, the melter melteth in wayne, for the euell is not taken awaye from them.

30 Therfore shall they be called naughty syluer, because the LORDE hath cast them out.

Chapter 7

1 These are the wordes, that God spake vnto Ieremy:

2 Stonde vnder the gates of the LORDES house, and crie out these wordes there, with a loude voyce, and saye: Heare the worde of the LORDE, all ye of Iuda, that go in at this dore, to honour the LORDE.

3 Thus saith the LORDE of hostes the God of Israel. Amende youre wayes and youre counsels, and I wil let you dwell in this place.

4 Trust not in false lyenge wordes, sayenge: here is the temple of the LORDE, here is the temple of the LORDE, here is the temple of the LORDE.

5 For yf ye will amende youre waies and counsels, yf ye wil iudge right betwixte a man and his neighbour:

6 yf ye wil not oppresse the straunger, the fatherles & the wyddowe: yf ye wil not shed innocent bloude in this place: yf ye wil not cleue to straunge goddes to youre owne destruction:

7 then wil I let you dwell in this place, yee in the londe that I gaue afore tyme vnto youre fathers for euer.

8 But take hede, yee trust in counsels, that begyle you and do you no good.

9 For when ye haue stolle, murthured, committed adoutrie, and periury: Whe ye haue offred vnto Baal, folowinge straunge & vnknowne goddes:

10 Then come ye, and stonde before me in this house (which hath my name geuen vnto it) and saye: Tush, we are absolved quyte, though we haue done all these abhominacions.

11 What? thinke you this house that beareth my name, is a denne of theues? And these thinges are not done priuely, but before myne eyes, saith the LORDE.

12 Go to my place in Silo, where vnto I gaue my name afore tyme, and loke well what I dyd to the same place, for the wickednes of my people of Israel.

13 And now, though ye haue done all these dedes (saith the LORDE) and I my self rose vp euer by tymes to warne you and to comon with you: yet wolde ye not heare me: I called, ye wolde not answere. 14 And therfore euen as I haue done vnto Silo, so wil I do to this house, that my name is geuen vnto, (and that ye put youre trust in) yee vnto the place that I haue geuen to you and youre fathers.

15 And I shall thrust you out of my sight, as I haue cast out all youre brethren the whole sede of Ephraim.

16 Therfore thou shalt not praye for this people, thou shalt nether geue thakes, nor byd prayer for them: thou shalt make no intercession to me for them, for in no wise will I heare the.

17 Seist thou not what they do in the cities of Iuda, and without Ierusalem?

18 The children gather stickes, the fathers kyndle the fyre, the mothers kneade the dowe, to bake cakes for the queene of heauen. They poure out drinkoffringes vnto straunge goddes, to prouoke me vnto wrath:

19 How be it they hurte not me (saith the LORDE) but rather confounde, and shame them selues.

20 And therfore thus saith the LORDE God: beholde, my wrath and my indignacion shall be poured out vpon this place, vpon men and catell, vpon the trees in the felde and all frute of the londe, & it shall burne so, that no man maye quench it.

21 Thus saith the LORDE of hostes, the God of Israel: Ye heape vp youre burnt offerings with youre sacrifices, & eate ye flesh.

22 But when I brought youre fathers out of Egipte, I spake no worde vnto them of burnt offerings and sacrifices:

23 but this I commaunded them, sayenge: herken and obeye my voyce, and I shall be your God and ye shall be my people: so that ye walke in all the wayes, which I haue comaunded you, that ye maye prospere.

24 But they were not obedient, they inclyned not their eares there vnto, but went after their owne ymaginacions and after the mocions of their owne wicked herte, and so turned them selues awaye, and conuerted not vnto me.

25 And this haue they done, from the tyme that youre fathers came out of Egipte, vnto this daye. Neuertheles, I sent vnto them my seruantes all the prophetes: I rose vp early and sent them worde, 26 yet wolde they not herke, ner offre me their eares, but were obstinate, and worse then their fathers.

27 And thou shalt now speake all these wordes vnto them, but they shall not heare the: thou shalt crie vpon them, but they shall not answere the.

28 Therfore shalt thou saye vnto them: this is the people, that nether heareth the voyce of the LORDE their God, ner receaueth his correction. Faithfulnes & treuth is clene rooted out of their mouth. 29 Wherefore cut of thine hayre, and cast it awaye, take vp a complaynte in the whole londe: for the LORDE shall cast awaye, and scatere the people, yt he is displeasd withall.

30 For the children of Iuda haue done euell in my sight, saith the LORDE. They haue set vp their abhominacions, in the house yt hath my name, and haue defyled it.

31 They haue also buylded an aluter at Tophet, which is in the valley of ye childe of Enno: yt they might burne their sonnes and daughters, which I neuer comaunded them, nether came it euer in my thought.

32 And therfore beholde, the dayes shall come (saith the LORDE) that it shall no more be called. Tophet, or the valley of the children of Ennon, but the valley of the slayne: for in Tophet they shall be buried, because they shall els haue no rowme.

33 Yee ye deed bodies of this people shall be eaten vp of the foules of the ayre & wilde bestes of the earth, & no man shall fraye them awaie.

34 And as for the voyce of myrth & gladnesse of the cities of Iuda, & Ierusalem, the voyce of the brydegrome and of the bryde: I will make them cease, for the londe shall be desolate.

Chapter 8

1 At the same tyme, saith the LORDE, the bones of the kinges of Iuda, the bones of his princes, the bones of the prestes and prophetes, yee and the bones of the citisens of Ierusalem, shall be brought out of their graues

2 and layed agaynst the Sonne, the Moone and all the heavenly hooste: whom they loued, whom they serued, whom they ranne after, whom they sought & worshipped. They shall nether be gathered together ner buried, but shall lye vpon the earth, to their shame and despisinge.

3 And all they that remayne of this wicked generacion, shall desyre rather to dye the to lyue: where so euer they remayne, & where as I scatere them, saith the LORDE of hostes.

4 This shalt thou saye vnto them also: Thus saith the LORDE: Do men fall so, that they arise not vp agayne: And turne they so farre awaye, yt they neuer conuerte?

5 Wherefore then is this people and Ierusalem gone so farre backe, that they turne not agayne? They are euer the longer the more obstinate, and will not be conuerted.

6 For I haue looked, and considered: but there is no ma, that speaketh a good worde: there is no man, that taketh repetaunce for his synne, that will so moch as saye: wherefore haue I done this? But euery man (as soone as he is turned backe) runneth forth still, like a wilde horse in a battayl.

7 The Storke knoweth his apoynted tyme, the Turtledoue, ye Swallow and the Crane, cosidre the tyme of their trauallye: but my people will not knowe the tyme of the punyshment of the LORDE.

8 How darre ye saye then: we are wise, we haue the lawe of the LORDE amonge vs? Beholde, the disceatfull penne of the scribes, setteth forth lies:

9 therfore shall the wise be confounded, they shall be afrayed and taken: for lo, they haue cast out the worde of the LORDE: what wy?dome can then be amonge them?

10 Wherefore, I will geue their wynes vnto aleauntes, and their felde to destroyers. For from the lowest vnto the hiest, they folowe all shamefull lucre: and from the prophet vnto the prest, they deale all with lies.

11 Neuertheles, they heale the hurte of my people with swete wordes, sayenge: peace, peace, where there is no peace at all.

12 Fye for shame, how abhominable thinges do they? And yet they be not ashamed, yee they knowe of no shame. Wherefore in the tyme of their visitacion, they shall fall amonge the deed bodies, saith the LORDE.

13 Morouer I will gather them in (saith the LORDE) so that there shall not be one grape vpon the vyne, nether one fyge vpon the fyge tre, and the leaues shall be plucte of. Then will I cause them to departe, and saye:

14 why prolonge we the tyme? Let vs gather oure selues together, and go in to the stronge cite, there shall we be in rest:

For the LORDE oure God hath put vs to sylence, and geuen vs water myxte with gall, to drynke, because we haue synned agaynst him.

15 We loked for peace, and we fayre not the better, we wayted for the tyme of health, and lo, here is nothing but trouble.

16 Then shall the noyse of his horses be herde from Dan, the whole londe shall be afrayed at the neyge of his stronge horses: for they shal go in, and deuoure the londe, with all that is in it: the cities, and those that dwell therein.

17 Morouer, I will sende Cockatrices & serpetes amonge you (which will not be charmed) and they shal byte you, sayeth the LORDE.

18 Sorowe is come vpon me, and heuynes vexeth my herte:

19 for lo, the voyce of the criege of my people is herde from a farre countre: Is not the LORDE in Sion? Is not he kinge in her? Wherefore then haue they greued me (shall the LORDE saye) with their ymages and foolish straunge fashions?

20 The haruest is gone, the Somer hath an ende, and we are not helped.

21 I am sore vexed, because of the hurte of my people: I am heuy and abashed, 22 for there is no more Triacle at Galaad, and there is no Phisician, that ca heale the hurte of my people.

Chapter 9

1 O who will geue my heade water ynough, & a well of teares for myne eyes: that I maye wepe night ad daye, for the slaughter of my people?

2 Wolde God that I had a cotage some where farre from folke, that I might leaue my people, and go from the: for they be all adoutrers and shrenckinge sorte.

3 They bede their tuges like bowes, to shute out lies: As for the treuth, they maye nothinge awaye with all in the worlde. For they go from one wickednes to another, and holde nothinge of me, saieth the LORDE.

4 Yee one must kepe himself from another, no man maye safelye trust his owne brother: for one brother vndermyne another, & one neyghboure begyleth another.

5 Yee one dissembleth with another, and they deale with no treuth. They haue practised their tungen to lye, and taken greate paynes to do myschefe.

6 They haue set their stole in the myddst of disceate, and (for very dissemblinge falsede) they wil not knowe me, saieth the LORDE.

7 Therefore thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes, beholde, I wil melte them and trie the, for what shulde I els do to my people?

8 Their tungen are like sharpe arowes, to speake disceate. With their mouth they speake peaceably to their neyghboure, but preuely they laye waite for him.

9 Shulde I not punysh them for these thinges, saieth the LORDE? Or, shulde I not be auenged of eny soch people, as this?

10 Vpon the mountaynes will I take vp a lamentacion and soroufull crie, and a mournynge vpon the fayre playnes of the wildernes: Namely, how they are so brent vp, that no man goeth there enymore: Yee a man shal not heare one beast crie there. Byrdes and catell are all gone from thece.

11 I will make Ierusalem also an heape of stones, and a denne of venomous wormes. And I wil make the cities of Iuda so waist, that no man shal dwell therein.

12 What man is so wise, as to vnderstonde this? Or to whom hath the LORDE spoken by mouth, that he maye shewe this, and saye: O thou londe, why perishest thou so? Wherefore art thou so brent vp, and like a wilderness, that no ma goeth thorow?

13 Yee the LORDE himself tolde the same vnto them, that forsoke his lawe, and kepte not the thyng that he gaue them in commaundement, nether lyued thereafter:

14 but folowed the wickednes of their owne hertes, and serued straunge goddes, as their fathers taught them.

15 Therefore, thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes, the God of Israel: Beholde, I will fede this people with wormwod, and geue the gall to drynke.

16 I will scatre them also amonge the Heithen, whom nether they ner their fathers haue knowne: and I will sende a swearde amonge them, to persecute them, vntill I bringe them to naught.

17 Morouer, thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes: loke that ye call for mournynge wyues, and sende for wise women: that they come shortly, 18 and singe a mournynge songe of you: that the teares maye fall out of oure eyes, and that oure eye lyddes maye gushe out of water.

19 For there is a lamentable noyse herde of Sion: O how are we so sore destroyed? O how are we so piteously confounded? We must forsake oure owne naturall countre, and we are shot out of oure owne lodgiges.

20 Yet heare the worde of the LORDE (o ye women). And let youre eares regarde the wordes of his mouth: that ye maye lerne youre doughters to mourne, and that euery one maye teach hir neyghboursse, to make lamentacion.

21 Namely thus: Deeth is clymme vp in at oure wyndowes, he is come in to oure houses, to destroye the childe before the dore, & ye yonge man in the strete.

22 But tell thou planely, thus saieth ye LORDE: The deed bodies of men shal lye apon ye grounde, as the donge vpon the felde, and as the hay after the mower, and there shalbe no man to take them vp.

23 Morouer, thus saieth the LORDE: Let not the wise man reioyse in his wisdom, ner the stronge man in his strength, nether the rich man in his riches:

24 But who so wil reioyse, let him reioyse in this, that he vnderstodeth, and knoweth me: for I am the LORDE, which do mercie, equite and rightuousnes vpon earth. Therefore haue I pleasure in soch thinges, saieth ye LORDE.

25 Beholde, the tyme cometh (saieth the LORDE) that I wil vyset all them, whose foreskyne is vncircumcised:

26 The Egipcians, the Iewes, the Edomites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, and the shauen Madianites, that dwell in the wildernes. For all ye Gentiles are vncircumcised in the flesh, but all the house of Israel, are vncircumcised in the herte.

Chapter 10

1 Heare the worde of the LORDE, yt he speaketh vnto the, o thou house of Israel: 2 Thus saieth the LORDE: Ye shal not lerne after the maner of the Heithe, and ye shal not be afrayed for the tokens of heauen: for the Heithen are afrayed of soch:

3 Yee all the customes and lawes of the Getiles are nothinge, but vanite. They hewe downe a tre in the wod with the hondes of the worke man, and fashion it with the axe:

4 they couer it ouer with golde or syluer, they fasten it wt nales and hammers, that it moue not.

5 It stodeth as stiff as the palme tre, it can nether speake ner go, but must be borne. Be not ye afrayed of soch, for they ca do nether good ner euel.

6 But there is none like vnto ye (o LORDE) thou art greate, and greate is the name of yi power.

7 Who wolde not feare the? or what kige of the Gentiles wolde not obeye the? For amonge all the wysemen of the Gentiles, and in all their kingdomes, there is none, that maye be lickened vnto the.

8 They are all together vlnerned and vnwise, All their conynge is but vanite:

9 namely, wod, syluer, which is brought out of Tharsis, and beate to plates: and golde from Ophir, a worke yt is made with the honde of the craftesman & the caster, clothed with yalow sylck and scarlet: euen so is the worke of their wyse men all together.

10 But the LORDE is a true God, a lyuinge God, and an euerlastinge kinge. Yf he be wroth, the earth shaketh: all the Getiles maye not abyde his indignacion.

11 As for their goddes, it maye well be sayde of the: they are goddes, that made nether heaue ner earth: therfore shal they perish fro the earth, and from all thinges vnder heauen.

12 But (as for oure God) he made the earth with his power, and with his wisdom hath he fynished the whole compasse of the worlde, with his discrecion hath he spred out the heauens,

13 At his voyce the waters gather together in the ayre, he draweth vp ye cloudes from the vttemost partes of ye earth: he turneth lighteninge to rayne, and brigeth forth the wyndes out of their treasuries:

14 His wisdom maketh all men fooles.

And confunded be all casters of ymages, for that they cast, is but a vayne thinge, and hath no life.

15 The vayne craftes men with their workes, that they in their vanite haue made, shall perish one with another in the tyme of visitacion.

16 Neuertheles, Iacobors porcio is not soch: but it is he, that hath made all thinges, and Israel is the rodd of his inheritauce: The LORDE of hoostes is his name.

17 Put awaye thy vnclennesse out of the londe, thou that art in the stronge cities.

18 For thus saieth the LORDE: Beholde, I wil now thrust out the inhatours of this londe a greate waye off, and trouble them of soch a fashio, that they shal no more be founde.

19 Alas, how am I hurte? Alas, how panefull are my scourges vnto me? For I cosidre this sorow by my self, & I must suffre it, 20 My tabernacle is destroyed, and all my coardes are broken. My children are gone fro me, ad can no where be founde. Now haue I none to sprede out my tente, or to set vp my hanginges.

21 For the hyrdmen haue done folishly, that they haue not sought the LORDE. Therefore haue they dealt vnwisely with their catell, & all are scatred abrode.

22 Beholde, the noyse is harde at honde, and greate sedicio out of the north: to make the cities of Iuda a wyldernes, and a dwellinge place for Dragons.

23 Now I knowe (o LORDE) that is not in mas power to ordre his owne waies, or to rule his owne steppes & goinges.

24 Therefore chaste thou vs (o LORDE) but with faouure, and not in thy wrath, bringe vs not vtterly to naught.

25 Poure out thy indignacion rather vpon the Getiles, that knowe ye not, and vpon the people that call not on thy name: And that because they haue consumed, deuoured and destroyed Iacob, and haue roted out his glory.

Chapter 11

1 This is another Sermon, which the LORDE commaunded Ieremy for to preach, sayenge:

2 Heare the wordes of the couenant, and speake vnto all Iuda, and to all them that dwell at Ierusalem,

3 And saye thou vnto the: Thus saieth the LORDE God of Israel: Cursed be euery one, that is not obedient vnto ye wordes of this couenant:

4 which I commaunded vnto youre fathers, what tyme as I brought them out of Egipte, from the yron furnace, sayenge: Be obedient vnto my voyce, and do accordinge to all that I commaunde you: so shal ye be my people, and I wil be youre God,

5 and will kepe my promyse, yt I haue sworne vnto youre fathers: Namely, that I wolde geue them a londe which floweth with mylke and hony, as ye se, it is come to passe vnto this daye. Then answered I, and sayde: Amen. It is euen so LORDE, as thou sayest.

6 Then the LORDE sayde vnto me agayne: Preach this in ye cities off Iuda and rounde aboute Ierusalem, and saye: Heare the wordes off this couenaunt, that ye maye kepe them.

7 For I haue diligently exorted youre fathers, euer sence the tyme that I brought them out off the Londe off Egipte, vnto this daye. I gaue them warnynge by tymes, sayenge: herken vnto my voyce:

8 Neuertheles, they wolde not obeye me, nor encline their eares vnto me, but folowed the wicked ymaginacios of their owne hertes. And therefore haue I accused them as transgressours of all the wordes off this couenaunt, that I gaue them to kepe, which they (notwithstodinge) haue not kepte.

9 And the LORDE sayde vnto me: It is foude out, that whole Israel and all the citisens off Ierusalem are gone backe.

10 They haue turned them selues to the blasphemies off their fore fathers, which had no lust to heare my worde. Euen likewise haue these also folowed straunge goddes, and worshipped them. The house off Israel and Iuda haue broken my couenaunt, which I made wt their fathers.

11 Therefore thus saith the LORDE: Beholde, I will sende a plage amonge you, which ye shal not be able to escape: and though ye crie vnto me, I will not heare you.

12 The shal the townes off Iuda and the citisens of Ierusalem go, and call vpon their goddes, vnto whom they made their oblacios: but they are not able to helpe them in tyme off their trouble.

13 For as many cities as thou hast (o Iuda) so many goddes hast thou also: And loke how many stretes there be in the (o Ierusalem) so many shameful aulters haue ye set vp, to offre vpon them vnto Baal.

14 But praye not thou for this people, byd nether prayse ner prayer for them: for though they crie vnto me in their trouble, yet will I not heare them.

15 O thou beloued, why doest thou so shamefull greate blasphemies in my house? euen as though that holy flesh might absolue the, specially when thou hast made thy boost off thy wickednes.

16 The LORDE called the a grene olyue tre, a fayre one, a frutefull one, a goodly one: but now that there is a contrary reporte off the abrode, he will burne the vp, ad destroye thy braunches.

17 For the LORDE off hoostes that plated the, hath deuysed a plage for the (o thou house of Israel & Iuda) for ye euel that ye haue done, to prouoke him to wrath, in that ye dyd seruyce vnto Baal.

18 This (o LORDE) haue I lerned of the, and vnderstonde it, for thou hast shewed me their ymaginacios.

19 But I (as a meke lambe) was caried awaye to be slayne: not knowinge, that they had deuysed soch a counceyl agaynst me, sayenge: We will destroye his meate with wod, and dryue him out of the londe of the luyunge, that his name shal neuer be thought vpon.

20 Therefore I will beseke the now (o LORDE of hoostes) thou rightuous iudge, thou that tryest the reynes and the hertes: let me se the auenged of them, for vnto the haue I committed my cause.

21 The LORDE therfore spake thus of the citisens of Anothot, that sought to slaye me, sayege: Preach not vnto vs in the name of the LORDE, or els thou shalt dye of oure hondes.

22 Thus (I saye) spake the LORDE of hoostes: Beholde, I will viset you. Your e yonge me shal perish with the swearde, yor sonnes and youre daughters shal vtterly dye of hunger, 23 so that none shal remayne. For vpon the citisyns off Anathot wil I bringe a plage, and the yeare of their visitacion.

Chapter 12

1 O Lorde, thou art more rightuous, then that I shulde dispute with the: Neuertheles, let me talke with the in thinges reasonable. How happeneth it, that the waye off the vngodly is so prosperous? and that it goeth so wel with them, which (with out eny shame) offede and lyue in wickednesse?

2 Thou plantest them, they take rote, they growe, and bringe forth frute. They boost moch off the, yet doest thou not punysh them.

3 But thou LORDE (to whom I am well knowne) thou that hast sene, & proued my herte, take them awaye, like as a flock is caried to the slaughter house, and apoynte them for the daye off slaughtinge.

4 How longe shall the londe mourne, and all the herbes off the felde perish, for the wickednes off them that dwell therin? The catell and the byrdes are gone, yet saye they: tush, God will not destroye vs vtterly.

5 Seinge thou art weery in runnyng with the fote men, how wilt thou then runne wt horses? In a peaceable sure londe thou mayest be safe, but how wilt thou do in the furious pryde of Iordane?

6 For thy brethren ad thy kynred haue altogether despised the, and cried out vpon the in thine absence. Beleue them not, though they speake fayre wordes to the.

7 As for me (saye I) I haue forsaken myne owne dwellinge place, and left myne heretage. My life also that I loue so wel, haue I geuen in to the hodes of myne enemies.

8 Myne heretage is become vnto me, as a Lyon in the wod. It cried out vpon me, therefore haue I forsaken it.

9 Myne heretage is vnto me, as a speckled byrde, a byrde of dyuerse coloures is vpon it. Go hence, and gather all the beastes of the felde together, that they maye eate it vp.

10 Dyuerse hyrdme haue broken downe my vnyarde, and troden vpon my porcion. Of my pleasaunt porcion, they haue made a wildernes & deserte.

11 They haue layed it waist: and now that it is waist, it sigheth vnto me. Yee the whole londe lieth waist, and no man regardeth it.

12 The distroyers come ouer the heeth euery waye, for the swearde off the LORDE shal consume from the one ende of ye lode to the other, and no flesh shal haue rest.

13 They shal sowe wheat, and reepe thornes. They shal take heretage in possession, but it shal do them no good. And ye shalbe confounded of youre owne wynnynge, because of the greate wrath of the LORDE.

14 Thus saith the LORDE vpon all myne euel neghbour, that laye honde on myne heretage, which I haue geuen my people of Israel: Beholde, I wil plucke them (namely Israel) out of their londe, and put out the house of Iuda from amonge them.

15 And whe I haue rooted the out, I wilbe at one with the agayne, and wil haue mercy vpon them: and brynge them agayne, euery man to his owne heretage, and in to his lode.

16 And yf they (namely that trouble my people) wil lerne ye wayes of them, to swaere by my name: The LORDE lyueth (like as they lerned my people to swaere by Baal) the shal they be rekened amoge my people.

17 But yf they wil not obeye, the will I rote out the same folke, and destroye them, saith the LORDE,

Chapter 13

1 Morouer, thus saied the LORDE vnto me: go thy waye & get the a linnen breche, and gyrd it aboute thy loynes, and let it not be wet.

2 Then I got me a brech, acordinge to the commaundemet of the LORDE, and put it aboute my loynes.

3 After this, the LORDE spake vnto me agayne:

4 Take the breche that thou hast prepared & put aboute the, and get the vp, and go vnto Euphrates, and hyde it in a hole off the rock.

5 So wet I, and hydde it, as the LORDE commaunded me.

6 And it happened longe after this, that the LORDE spake vnto me: Vp, and get the to Euphrates, and fet the breche from thence, which I commaunded the to hyde there.

7 Then went I to Euphrates, and digged vp, and toke the brech from the place where I had hyd it: and beholde, the brech was corrupte, so that it was profitable for nothinge.

8 Then sayde the LORDE vnto me:

9 Thus saith the LORDE: Euen so will I corruppe the pryde off Iuda, and the hie mynde off Ierusalem.

10 This people is a wicked people, they wil not heare my worde, they folowe ye wicked ymaginacios off their owne hert, & hange vpon straunge goddes, the haue they serued & worshipped: and therefore they shalbe as this brech, that serueth for nothinge.

11 For as strately as a brech lieth vpon a mas loynes, so strately dyd I bynde ye whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Iuda vnto me, saith the LORDE: that they might be my people: that they might haue a glorious name: yt they might be in honoure: but they wolde not obeye me.

12 Therefore laye this ryddle before them, and saye: Thus saith the LORDE God of Israel: euery pot shal be fylled with wyne. And they shal saye: thinkst thou we knowe not, yt euery pot shalbe fylled with wyne?

13 Then shalt thou saye vnto them: Thus saith the LORDE: Beholde, I shal fyll all the inhabitours of this lode wt dronckenes, the kynges that syt vpo Dauids stole, the prestes and prophetes, with all yt dwell at Ierusalem.

14 And I will shute them one agaynst another, yee ye fathers agaynst the sonnes, saith the LORDE. I wil not pardon them, I wil not spare them, ner haue pitie vpon them: but destroye them.

15 Be obedient, geue eare, take no di?dayne at it, for it is the LORDE himself that speaketh.

16 Honour ye LORDE youre God herein, or he take his light from you, and or euer youre fete stamble in darknesse at ye hill: lest whe ye loke for the light, he turne it in to ye shadowe and darknesse of death.

17 But yf ye wil not heare me, that geue you secrete warnynge, I will mourne for my whole herte for youre stubbornnesse. Piteously will I wepe, and the teares shal gush out of myne eyes. For the LORDES flocke shal be caried awaye captiue.

18 Lift the kinge & the rulers: Humble yor selues, set you downe lowe, for ye crowne of yor glory shal fall from youre heade.

19 The cities towarde the south shalbe shut vp, & no man shal open the. All Iuda shal be caried awaye captiue, so that none shal remayne.

20 Lift vp youre eyes, and beholde the, that come from the North: Like a fat flocke shal they fall vpon the.

21 To whom wilt thou make thy mone, when they come vpon the? for thou hast taught the thy self, and made the masters ouer the. Shal not sorowe come vpo the, as on a woman trauelinge with childe?

22 And yf thou woldest saye the in thine hert: Wherefore come these thinges vpo me? Eue for the multitude of thy blasphemies, shall thy hynder partes & thy fete be discouered.

23 For like as the man of Inde maye change his kynne, & the cat of the mountayne hir spottes: so maye ye that be exercised in euell, do good.

24 Therefore will I scatere you, lyke as ye stobbe that is take awaye with ye south wynde.

25 This shal be youre porcion, and the porcion of youre measure, wher with ye shalbe rewarded of me, saith the LORDE: because ye haue forgotten me, and put your trust in deceitful things.

 26 Therefore shall I turne thy clothes ouer thy heade, and discouer thy thees, that thy preuyties may be sene:
 27 yf adoutrie, thy deedly malice, thy beastlynes and thy shamefull whordome. For vpon the felde and hilles I haue sene thy abhominacions. Wo be vnto the (o Ierusalem) who wilt thou euer be clensed enymore?

Chapter 14

1 The worde of the LORDE shewed vnto Jeremy, cocernynge ye derth off the frutes.
 2 Iuda shal mourne, men shall not go moch more thorow his gates: the londe shal be nomore had in reputacion, & the crie of Ierusalem shal breake out.
 3 The lordes shall sende their seruantes to fetch water, & when they come to the welles, they shal fynde no water, but shal carie their vessels home emptie. They shalbe ashamed ad confounded, & shal couer their heades.
 4 For the ground shalbe dried vp, because there cometh no rayne vpon it. The plowmen also shalbe ashamed, ad shal couer their heades.
 5 The Hynde shal forsake the yonge fawne, that se brigeth forth in ye felde, because there shalbe no grasse.
 6 The wilde Asses shall stonde in the Mosse, and drawe in their wynde like the Dragos, their eyes shal fayle for wat of grasse.
 7 Doutles our owne wickednesse rewarde vs: But LORDE do thou accordinge to yi name, though our transgressions and synnes be many.
 8 For thou art the comforte & helpe of Israel in the tyme of trouble. Why wilt thou be as a straunger in the Londe, and as one that goeth ouer the felde, ad cometh in only to remayne for a night?
 9 Why wilt thou make thy self a coward, and as it were a giate that yet maye not helpe? For thou art ours (o LORDE) and we beare thy name, therefore forsake vs not.
 10 Then spake the LORDE, concernynge this people yt haue pleasure to go so nembly wt their fete, and leaue not of, and therefore displeaseth the LORDE: in so moch, that he will now bringe agayne to remembrance all their my?dedes, ad punysh all their synnes.
 11 Yee euen thus sayde the LORDE vnto me: Thou shalt not praye to do this people good.
 12 For though they fast, I will not heare their prayers. And though they offre burnt offrages & sacrifices, yet wil not I accepte them. For I will destroye them with the swerde, hunger and pestilence.
 13 Then answerde I: O LORDE God, the prophetes saye vnto them: Tush, ye shal se no swerde, and no hunger shall come vpon you, but the LORDE shal geue you continuall rest in this place.
 14 And the LORDE sayde vnto me: The prophetes preach lies vnto them in my name. I haue not spoken with them, nether gaue I them eny charge, nether dyd I sende the: yet they preach vnto you false visions, charmynge, vanite, and deceitfulness of their owne herte.

 15 Therefore thus saith the LORDE: As for those prophetes that preach in my name (whom I neuertheles haue not sent) and yt saye: Tush, there shal nether batel ner hunger be in this londe: With swerde ad with hunger shal those prophetes perish, 16 and the people to whom they haue preached, shal be cast out of Ierusalem, dye of hunger, ad be slayne with the swerde, (and there shal be no man to burie them) both they ad their wyues, their sonnes and their daughters. For thus wil I poure their wickednesse vpon the.
 17 This shalt thou saye also vnto them: Myne eyes shal wepe without ceassing daye & night. For my people shalbe dtstroyed with greate harme, and shall perish with a greate plage.
 18 For yff I go in to the felde, lo, it lieth all full off slayne men: Yff I come in to the cite, lo, they be all fameshed of hunger. Yee their prophetes also and prestes shalbe led in to an vnknowne londe.
 19 Hast thou then vtterly forsaken Iuda? (sayde I) Dost thou so abhorre Sio? Or hast thou so plaged vs, that we can be healed nomore? We looked for peace, and there cometh no good: for the tyme of health, & lo, here is nothinge but trouble.
 20 We knowlege (o LORDE) all our my?dedes, and the synnes of our fathers, that we haue offended ye.
 21 Be not displeaseth (o LORDE) for thy names sake, forget not thy louynge kyndnes: Remembre ye trone of thyne honoure, breake not the couenaut, that thou hast made with vs.
 22 Are there eny amonge the goddes of the Gentiles, that sende rayne, or geue the showers of heauen? Dost not thou it o LORDE our God, in who we trust? Yee LORDE, thou dost all these thinges.

Chapter 15

1 Then spake the LORDE vnto me, ad sayde: Though Moses and Samuel stode before me, yet haue I no herte to this people. Dryue them awaye, that they maye go out of my sight.
 2 And yf they saye vnto the: Whyther shal we go? The tell the: The LORDE geueth you this answer: Some vnto death, some to the swerde, some to hunger, some in to captiuyte.
 3 For I will bringe foure plagis vpon them, saith the LORDE. The swerde shal stragle them, the dogges shal deuoure them, the foules of the ayre ad beestes of the earth shal eate them vp, and destroye them.
 4 I will scatere them aboute also in all kingdomes and londes to be plaged, because of Manasses the sonne of Ezechias kinge of Iuda, for the thinges that he dyd in Ierusalem.

5 Who shal then haue pite vpon the, o Ierusalem? Who shal be sory for the? Or who shal make intercession, to opteyne peace for the?
 6 seinge thou goest fro me, ad turnest bacwarde, saith the LORDE? Therefore I will stretch out myne honde agaynst the, to destroye the, and I will not be intreated.
 7 I will scatere the abroad with the fanne on euery side of the londe: I will waist my people and destroye them, for they haue had no lust to turne from their owne wayes.
 8 I will make their wyddowes mo in nombre, then the sondes of the see. Vpon ye mothers of their children, I shal bringe a destroyer in the noone daye. Sodenly and vnawarres, shal I sende a feare vpon their cities.
 9 She that hath borne vij. children, shal haue none, hir herte shalbe ful of sorowe. The Sonne shall fayle her in the cleare daye, when she shalbe confounded and faynte for very heuynesse. As for those yt remayne, I wil delyuer them vnto the swerde off their enemies, saith the LORDE.
 10 O mother, alas that euer thou dydest beare me, an enemye and hated of the whole londe: Though I neuer lente ner receaued vpon vsury, yet euery man speake euell vpon me.
 11 And ye LORDE answered me: Lede not I the then vnto good? Come not I to the, when thou art in trouble: and helpe ye, when thine enemye oppressteth the?
 12 Doth one yron hurte another, or one metall that cometh from the north, another?
 13 As for youre riches and treasure, I wil geue them out in to a pray, not for eny money, but because of all youre synnes, that ye haue done i all youre coastes.
 14 And I wil brige you with youre enemies in to a londe, yt ye knowe not: for the fyre that is kyndled in my indignacion, shal burne you vp.
 15 O LORDE (sayde I then) thou knowest all thinges, therefore remembre me, ad viset me, delyuer me fro my persecuters: Receaue not my cause in yi loge wrath, yet thou knowest, that for thy sake I suffre rebuke.
 16 When I had founde thy wordes, I at them vp gredely: they haue made my hert ioyfull & glad. For I call vpon thy name, o LORDE God off hoostes.
 17 I dwell not amonge the scornors, nether is my delyte therin: but I dwell only in the feare of thy honde, for thou hast fylled me with bytternes.
 18 Shall my heuynes endure for euer? Are my plagis then so greate, yt they maye neuer be healed? Wilt thou be as a water, that falleth, and can not contynue?
 19 Vpon these wordes, thus sayde the LORDE vnto me: Yf thou wilt turne agayne, I shal set the in my seruyce: and yf thou wilt take out the thinge that is precious from the vyle, thou shalt be euen as myne owne mouth. They shal conuert vnto the, but turne not thou vnto the:
 20 and so shal I make the a stroge wall of stele agaynst this people. They shal fight agaynst the, but they shal not preuayle. For I myself will be with the, to helpe the, and delyuer the, saith the LORDE.

 21 And I will ryd the out of the hondes of the wicked, and delyuer the out of the honde of Tirautes.

Chapter 16

1 Morouer, thus sayde the LORDE vnto me:
 2 Thou shalt take ye no wife, ner beget children in this place.
 3 For of the children that are borne in this place, of their mothers that haue borne them, and of their fathers that haue begotten them in this londe, thus saith the LORDE:
 4 They shal dye an horrible deeth, no ma shal mourne for them, ner burie them, but they shal lye as doge vpon the earth. They shal perish thorow the swerde and hunger, and their bodies shal be meate for the foules of the ayre, and beestes of the earth.
 5 Agayne, thus saith the LORDE: Go not vnto them, that come together, for to mourne and wepe: for I haue taken my peace fro this people (saith the LORDE) yee my faouere and my mercy.
 6 And in this londe shal they dye, olde and yonge, and shall not be buried: no man shall bewepe them, no man shall clippe or shaue himself for them.
 7 There shal not one viset another, to mourne with them for their deed, or to comforte them. One shall not offre another the cuppe off consolacion, to forget their heuynes for father and mother.
 8 Thou shalt not go in to their feast house, to syt downe, moch lesse to eate or drynke with them.
 9 For thus saith the LORDE off hoostes the God off Israel: Beholde, I shall take awaye out of this place, the voyce off myrth ad gladnesse, the voyce off the brydegrome and off the bryde: yee and that in youre dayes, that ye maye se it.
 10 Now when thou shewest this people all these wordes, and they saye vnto the: Wherefore hath the LORDE deuysed all this greate plage for vs? Or what is the offence and synne, that we haue done agaynst the LORDE our God?
 11 Then make thou them this answer: Because youre fathers haue forsaken me (saith the LORDE) and haue cleued vnto straunge goddes, whom they haue honoured and worshipped: but me haue they forsake, and haue not kepte my lawe.
 12 And ye wt youre shamefull blasphemies, haue exceded the wickednes off youre fathers. For euery one off you foloweth the frawerde euel ymaginacion off his owne hert, and is not obedient vnto me.
 13 Therefore wil I cast you out off this londe, in to a londe that ye and youre fathers knowe not: and there shall ye serue straunge goddes daye and night, there will I shewe you no faouere.

 14 Beholde therfore (saieth the LORDE) the daies are come, that it shall nomore be sayed: The LORDE lyueth, which brought the children of Israel out of the lode of Egipte:
 15 but (it shall be sayde) the LORDE lyueth, that brought the children of Israel from the North, & from all londes where I had scatred them. For I wil bringe the agayne in to the lode, that I gaue vnto their fathers.
 16 Beholde, (saieth the LORDE) I wil sende out many fishers to take them, and after yt wil I sende out many hunters to hunte the out, from all mountaynes and hilles ad out of the caues of stones.
 17 For myne eyes beholde all their wayes, and they can not be hyd fro my face, nether can their wicked dedes be kepte close out of my sight.
 18 But first will I sufficiently rewarde their shamefull blasphemies and synnes, wherwith they haue defyled my londe: Namely, with their stinckinge Idols and abhominacions, wherwt they haue fylled myne heretage.
 19 O LORDE, my strength, my power, and refuge in tyme off trouble. The Gentiles shall come vnto the from the endes off the worlde, and saye: Verely oure fathers haue cleued vnto lies, their Idols are but vayne and vnprofitable.
 20 How can a man make those his goddes, which are not able to be goddes?
 21 And therfore, I will once teach them (saieth ye LORDE) I wil shewe them my honde and my power, that they maye knowe, yt my name is ye LORDE.

Chapter 17

1 Youre synne (o ye off the trybe of Iuda) is writte in the table of yor hertes, & graue so vpon the edges of yor aulters wt a penne of yron & with an Adamat clawe:
 2 yt youre children also maye thynke vpon youre aulters, woddes, thicke trees, hie hilles, mountaynes & feldes.
 3 Wherefore, I will make all youre substaunce & treasure be spoyled, for the greate synne that ye haue done vpon youre hie places, thorow out all ye coostes off youre lode.
 4 Ye shal be cast out also from the heretage, that I gaue you. And I wil subdue you vnder the heuy bodage of youre enemies, in a londe that ye knowe not. For ye haue ministred fyre to my indignacion, which shal burne euermore.
 5 Thus saieth the LORDE: Cursed be the man that putteth his trust in man, ad that taketh flesh for his arme: and he, whose herte departeth from ye LORDE.
 6 He shall be like the heeth, that groweth in the wildernes. As for the good thinge that is for to come, he shall not se it: but dwell in a drie place off the wildernes, in a salt and vnoccupied londe.
 7 O Blissed is the man, that putteth his trust in the LORDE, and whose hope the LORDE is himself.

8 For he shalbe as a tre, that is planted by the water syde: which spredeth out the rote vnto moystnesse, whom the heate can not harme, when it commeth, but his leaues are grene. And though there growe but litle frute because off drouth, yet is he not carefull, but he neuer leaueth of to bringe forth frute.
 9 Amonge all thinges lyuyng, man hath the most disceatfull and vnsercheable hert. Who shall then knowe it?
 10 Euen I the LORDE ripe out the grounde off the hert, ad search the reynes and rewarde euery ma acordinge to his wayes, and acordinge to the frute off his counceles.
 11 The disceatfull maketh a nest, but bringeth forth no yonge: He commeth by riches, but not rightuously. In the myddest off his life must he leaue them behinde him, and at the last be founde a very foole.
 12 But thou (o LORDE) whose trone is most glorious, excellent and off most antiquite, which dwellest in the place of oure holy rest:
 13 Thou art the comferte off Israel. All they that forsake the, shalbe confounded: all they that departe from the, shalbe written in earth, for they haue forsaken the LORDE, the very condite of the waters of life.
 14 Heale me (o LORDE) and I shall be whole: saue thou me, and I shalbe saued, for thou art my prayse.
 15 Beholde, these men saye vnto me: Where is the worde of the LORDE? Let it come.
 16 Where as I neuertheles ledinge the flock in thy wayes, haue compelled none by violence. For I neuer desyred eny mas deeth, this knowest thou well. My wordes also were right before the.
 17 Be not now terrible vnto me (o LORDE) for thou art he, in whom I hope, when I am in parell.
 18 Let my persecuters be confounded, but not me: let them be afayed, and not me. Thou shalt bringe vpon the the tyme off their plage, and shalt destroye them right sore.
 19 Agayne, thus hath the LORDE sayde vnto me: Go and stonde vnder the gate, where thorow the people and the kinges of Iuda go out and in, yee vnder all the gates of Ierusalem,
 20 and saye vnto them: Heare the worde of the LORDE, ye kinges of Iuda, and all thou people of Iuda, and all ye citesyns of Ierusalem, that go thorow this gate:
 21 Thus the LORDE commaundeth: Take hede for youre lyues, that ye carie no burthen vpon you in the Sabbath, to bringe it thorow the gates of Ierusalem:
 22 ye shall beare no burthen also out of youre houses in the Sabbath: Ye shall do no labour there in, but halowe the Sabbath, as I commaunded youre fathers.
 23 How be it they obeyed me not, nether herkened they vnto me: but were obstinate & stubburne, ad nether obeyed me, ner receaued my correccion.
 24 Neuertheles, yf ye will heare me (saieth the LORDE) and beare no burthen in to ye cite thorow this gate vpon the Sabbath: Yf ye will halowe the Sabbath, so that ye do no worke there in:

 25 then shal there go thorow the gates of this cite, kinges and prynces, that shall syt vpon the stole of Daud: They shall be caried vpon charettes, and ryde vpon horses, both they and their princes: Yee whole Iuda and all the citesyns of Ierusalem shall go here thorow, and this cite shall euer be the more and more inhabited.
 26 There shall come men also from the cities of Iuda, from aboute Ierusalem, ad from ye londe of Ben Iamin, from the playne feldes, from the mountaynes and from the wilderness: which shall bringe burntofferings, sacrifices, oblacions, and incense, and offre vp thankesgeuyng in the house of the LORDE.
 27 But yff ye will not be obedient vnto me, to halowe the Sabbath, so that ye will beare youre burthens thorow the gates off Ierusalem vpon the Sabbath: Then shall I set fyre vpon the gates off Ierusalem, ad it shal burne vp the houses off Ierusalem, and no man shal be able to quench it.

Chapter 18

1 This is another comunicacion, that God had with Ieremy, sayenge:
 2 Arise, and go downe in to the Potters house, and there shall I tell the more off my mynde.
 3 Now when I came to the Potters house, I founde him makinge his worke vpon a whele.
 4 The vessel that the Potter made off claye, brake amonge his hodes: So he beganne a new, and made a nother vessell, acordinge to his mynde.
 5 Then sayde the LORDE thus vnto me: 6 Maye not I do wt you, as this Potter doth, O ye house off Israel? saieth the LORDE? Beholde, ye house off Israel: ye are in my honde, euen as the claye in the Potters honde.
 7 When I take in honde to rote out, to destroye, or to waist awaye eny people or kigdome:
 8 yff that people (agaynst whom I haue thus deuysed) couerte from their wickednes: Immediatly, I repente off the plage, that I deuysed to bringe vpon the.
 9 Agayne: Whe I take in honde, to buylde, or to plante a people or a kigdome:
 10 yff the same people do euell before me, and heare not my voyce: Immediatly, I repente of the good, that I deuysed to do for them.
 11 Speake now therfore vnto whole Iuda, and to them that dwell at Ierusalem: Thus saieth the LORDE: Beholde, I am deuysinge a plage for you, and am takinge a thinge in honde agaynst you. Therefore, let euery man turne from his euell waye, take vpon you the thinge that is good, and do right.
 12 But they saye: No more of this, we will folowe oure owne ymaginacions, and do euery ma acordinge to the wilfulnessse of his owne mynde.

 13 Therfore thus saieth the LORDE: Axe amonge the Heithen, yf eny man hath herde soch horrible thinges, as the daughter of Sion hath done.
 14 Shal not ye snowe (yt melteth vpon the stony rockes of Libanus) moysture the feldes? Or maye the springes off waters be so grauen awaye, that they runne nomore, geue moystnesse, ner make frutefull?
 15 But my people hath so forgotten me, yt they haue made sacrifice vnto vayne goddes. And whyle they folowed their owne wayes they are come out of the hie strete, and gone in to a fote waye not vsed to be troden.
 16 Where thorow they haue brought their londe in to an euerlastinge wildernes and scorne: So yt who so euer trauallyeth ther by, shalbe abashed, and wagge their heades.
 17 With an East wynde will I scatthe the, before their enemies. And when their destruction cometh, I will turne my backe vpo them, but not my face.
 18 Then sayde they: come, let vs ymagin somthinge agaynst this Ieremy. Yee this dyd euen the prestes, to whom ye lawe was commytted: the Senatours, yt were the wysest: and the prophetes, which wanted not ye worde off God. Come (sayde they) let vs cut out his tuge, and let vs not regarde his wordes.
 19 Considre me (o LORDE) and heare the voyce of myne enemies.
 20 Do they not recompence euell for good, when they dygg a pyt for my soule? Remembre, how that I stode before the, to speake for the, ad to turne awaye thy wrath from them.
 21 Therfore let their childre dye off hunger, and let them be oppressed with the swearde. Let their wyues be robbed of their childre, and become wyddowes: let their hu?bodes be slayne, let their yonge men be kylled with the swearde in the felde.
 22 Let the noyse be herde out of their houses, when the murtherer cometh sodenly vpon them: For they haue digged a pit to take me, and layed snares for my fete.
 23 Yet LORDE, thou knowest all their coucell, that they haue deuysed, to slaye me. And therfore forgeue them not their wickednes, and let not their synne be put out of thy sight: but let them be iudged before the as the giltye: This shalt thou do vnto the in ye tyme of thy indignacion.

Chapter 19

1 Morouer, thus saide the LORDE vnto Ieremy: Go thy waye, and bye the an erthen pytcher, and bringe forth the Senatours and chefe prestes
 2 in to the valley of the children off Ennon, which lieth before the porte that is made of brick, & shewe them there the wordes, that I shall tell the,
 3 and saye thus vnto them: Heare the worde of the LORDE, ye kinges of Iuda, ad ye citesyns of Ierusalem: Thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: Beholde, I will bringe soch a plage vpon this place, that ye eares of all that heare it, shal glowe.

Chapter 20

4 And that because they haue forsake me, and vnhalowed this place, and haue offred in it vnto straunge goddes: who nether they, their fathers, ner the kinges off Iuda haue knowne. They haue filled this place also wt the bloude of innocentes,

5 For they haue set vp an aulter vnto Baal, to burne their children for a burntoffringe vnto Baal, which I nether commaunded, ner charged them, nether thought once there vpon.

6 Beholde therefore, ye tyme cometh (saieth the LORDE) yt this place shal no more be called Tophet, ner ye valley of ye childre of Enno, but ye valley of slaughter.

7 For in this place wil I slaye the Senatours of Iuda & Ierusalem, & kill the downe wt the swearde in ye sight of their enemies, ad of them that seke their lyues. And their deed carca es wil I geue to be meate for the foules of the ayre, and beestes of the felde.

8 And I wil make this cite so desolate, ad despysed: that who so goeth there by, shal be abashed & geast vpon her, because of all hir plages.

9 I will fede them also wt the flesh of their sonnes & their daughters. Yee euery one shal eate vp another in the beseginge & straytnesse, wher wt their enemies (yt seke their lyues) shal kepe the in.

10 And the pitcher shalt thou breake in the sight of the me, yt shalbe wt the, and saye vnto the:

11 Thus saieth the LORDE off hoostes: Eue so wil I destroye this people & cite: as a Potter breaketh a vessel, that can not be made whole agayne. In Tophet shal they be buried, for they shal haue none other place.

12 Thus wil I do vnto this place also, saieth the LORDE, and to the yt dwell there in: yee I wil do to this cite, as vnto Tophet

13 (For the houses of Ierusalem & the houses of the kinges of Iuda are defyled, like as Tophet,) because off all the houses, in whose parlars they dyd sacrifice vnto all the hooste of heaue, and poured out drynke offringes vnto straunge goddes.

14 And so Ieremy came from Tophet, where the LORDE had sent him to prophecie, and stode in the courte off the house off the LORDE, and spake to all the people:

15 Thus saieth the LORDE off hoostes the God of Israel: Beholde, I will bringe vpon this cite and vpon euery towne aboute it, all the plages that I haue deuysed agaynst them: for they haue bene obstinate, ad wolde not obeye my warnynges.

1 When Pashur the preast, the sonne off Emmer, chefe in the house of ye LORDE, herde Ieremy preach so stedfastly:

2 he smote Ieremy, and put him in the stockes, that are by the hie gate of Ben lamin, in the house of ye LORDE.

3 The nexte daye folowinge, Pashur brought Ieremy out of the stockes agayne. Then sayde Ieremy vnto him: The LORDE shall call the nomore Pashur (that is excellent and increasinge) but Magor (that is fearfull ad afrayed) euery where.

4 For thus saieth the LORDE: beholde, I will make the afrayed, the thy self, and all that faouere ye: which shal perish with the swearde off their enemies, euen before yi face. And I wil geue whole Iuda vnder the power of the kinge of Babilon, which shall carie some vnto Babilon presoners, and slaye some with the swearde.

5 Morouer, all ye substance of this londe, all their precious and gorgeous workes, all costlynesse, and all the treasure of the kinges of Iuda: wil I geue in to the hodes of their enemies, which shal spoyle them, and carie them vnto Babilon.

6 But as for the (o Pashur) thou shalt be caried vnto Babilon with all thine housholde, & to Babilo shalt thou come, where thou shalt die, and be buried: thou and all thy faouers, to whom thou hast preached lies.

7 O LORDE, thou makest me weake, but thou refreshest me, & makest me stronge agayne. All the daye longe am I despysed, and laughed to scorne of euery man:

8 because I haue now preached longe agaynst malicious Tyranny, and shewed them off destruction. For ye which cause they cast the worde off the LORDE in my teth, and take me euer to the worst.

9 Wherfore, I thought from hence forth, not to speake of him, ner to preach eny more in his name. But the worde off the LORDE was a very burnynge fyre in my hert and in my bones, which when I wolde haue stopped, I might not.

10 For why, I herde so many derisios and blasphemies, yee euen of myne owne companyons, and off soch as were conuersaunte with me: which wente aboute, to make me afrayed sayenge: vpon him, let vs go vpon him, to feare him, and make him holde his tonge: yt we maye ouercome him, and be avenged off him.

11 But the LORDE stode by me, like a mightie giaunte: therefore my persecuters fell, and coude do nothinge. They shal be sore confouded, for they haue done vnwisely, they shall haue an euerlasting shame.

12 And now, o LORDE of hoostes, thou righteous sercher) which knowest the reynes and the very hertes:) let me se them punyshed, for vnto the I committe my cause.

13 Synge vnto the LORDE, and prayse him, for he hath delyuered the soule off the oppressed, from the honde off the violent.

14 Cursed be the daye, wherein I was borne: vnhappy be ye daye, where in my mother brought me forth.

15 Cursed be the man, that brought my father the tidinges, to make him glad, sayenge: thou hast gotten a sonne.

16 Let it happen vnto that man, as to the cities which ye LORDE turned vpside downe (when he had longe herde the wicked rumoure of them)

17 because he slewe me not, as soone as I came out off my mothers wombe, and because my mother was not my graue hirsself, that the byrth might not haue come out, but remayned still in her.

18 Wherfore came I forth off my mothers wombe? To haue experience of labour and sorowe? and to lede my life with shame?

Chapter 21

1 These are the wordes that the LORDE spake vnto Ieremy, what tyme as kinge Sedechias sent vnto him Pashur the sonne off Melchia, and Sophonias the sonne of Maasia prest, sayenge:

2 Axe councill at the LORDE (we praye the) of oure behalfe, for Nabuchodonosor the kinge off Babilon besegeth vs, yff the LORDE (peradventure) will deale with vs, acordinge to his maruelous power, and take him from vs.

3 Then spake Ieremy: Geue Sedechias this answeare,

4 Thus saieth the LORDE God off Israel: beholde, I will turne backe the weapens, that ye haue in youre hondes, wherwith ye fight agaynst the kinge of Babilo & the Caldees, which besege you rounde aboute ye walles: & I wil brige the together in to the myddest of this cite,

5 and I myselff will fight agaynst you, with an outstretched honde, ad with a mightie arme, in greate displeasure and terrible wrath:

6 and will smyte them, that dwell in this cite: yee both me ad catell shal dye of the pestilence.

7 And after this (saieth the LORDE) I shall delyuer Sedechias the kinge of Iuda, & his seruantes, his people (and soch as are escaped in the cite, from the pestilence, swearde, and hunger) into the power of Nabuchodonosor kinge of Babilon: yee in to the hodes of their enemies, in to the hodes of those yt folowe vpon their lyues, which shall smyte them with ye swerde: they shal not pite the, they shal not spare them, they shal haue no mercy vpon them.

8 And vnto this people thou shalt saye: Thus saieth the LORDE: beholde, I laye before you the waye of life and death.

9 Who so abydeth in this cite, shal perish: ether wt the swearde, with hunger, or with pestilece. But who so goeth out to holde on ye Caldees parte, yt besege it, he shal saue his life, and shall wyne his soule for a pray.

10 For I haue set my face agaynst this cite (saieth the LORDE) to plage it, and to do it no good. It must be geue in to the honde of the kinge of Babilon, & be brent with fyre.

11 And vnto the house of the kinge off Iuda, saye thus: Heare the worde of ye LORDE

12 (o thou house off Daud) for thus saieth the LORDE: Ministre righteousnes, and that soone, delyuer the oppressed fro violent power: or euer my terrible wrath break out like a fyre. and burne so, that no man maye quech it, because of the wickednes of youre ymaginations.

13 Beholde (saieth the LORDE) I wil come vpo you, that dwell in the valleis, rockes and felde and saye: Tush, who will make vs afrayed? or who will come in to oure houses?

14 For I will vyset you (saieth the LORDE) because off the wickednes off youre inuencions, and will kyndle soch a fyre in youre wod, as shall cosume all, that is aboute you.

Chapter 22

1 Thus sayde the LORDE also: Go downe in to the house of the kinge off Iuda, and speake there these wordes,

2 & saye: Heare the worde off the LORDE, thou kinge off Iuda that syttest in the kyngly seate off Daud: thou and thy seruantes ad ye people, that go in & out at this gate.

3 Thus the LORDE commaundeth: kepe equite and rightuousnesse, delyuer the oppressed fro the power off the violent: do not greue ner oppresse the straunger, the fatherlesse ner the wyddowe, ad shed no innocet bloude in this place.

4 And yff ye kepe these thinges faithfully, then shall there come in at the dore off this house kynges, to syt vpo Dauds seate: they shal be caried in Charettes and ryde vpon horses, both they & their seruantes, ad their people.

5 But yf ye wil not be obedient vnto these commaundementes, I swear by myne owne self (saieth ye LORDE) this house shalbe waist.

6 For thus hath the LORDE spoken vpon the kinges house of Iuda: Thou art the heade, as Galaad is in Libanus: What wilt thou laye of it, yf I make the not so waist (& thy cities also) that no man shal dwell there in?

7 I will prepare a destroyer with his weapes for the, to hew downe thy special Cedre trees, and to cast them in the fyre.

8 And all the people that go by this cite, shall speake one to another: Wherfore hath the LORDE done thus vnto this noble cite?

9 Then shall it be answered: because they haue broken the couenaunt off the LORDE their God, and haue worshipped and serued straunge goddes.

10 Mourne not ouer the deed, and be not wo for them, but be sory for him that departeth away: for he commeth not agayne, ad seeth his natyue countre no more.

11 For thus saith the LORDE, as touchinge Sellum the sonne of Iosias kinge of Iuda, which reyned after his father, and is caried out off this place: He shal neuer come hither agayne, 12 for he shal dye in the place, where vnto he is led captiue, and shall se this londe nomore.

13 Wo worth him, that buyldeth his house with vnrightuousnes, ad his perlers with the good, that he hath gotten by violence: which neuer recompenseth his neghburs laboure, ner payeth him his hyre.

14 He thinketh in himself: I wil buylde me a wyde house, ad gorgeous perlers: He causeth wyndowes to be hewen there in, and the sylinges and geastes maketh he off Cedre, and paynteth them with Zenober.

15 Thinkest thou to reigne, now that thou prouokest me to wrath with yi Cedre trees? Dyd not thy father eate and drynke, and prospere well, as loge as he dealt with equite ad rightuousnesse?

16 Yee when he helped ye oppressed and poore to their right, then prospered he well. From whence came this, but only because he had me before his eyes? saith the LORDE.

17 Neuertheles, as for thine eyes and thine herte, they loke vpon covetousnesse, to shed innocent bloude, to do wronge and violence.

18 And therefore, thus saith the LORDE agaynst Ioachim, ye sonne of Iosias kyng of Iuda: They shall not mourne for him (as they vse to do) alas brother, alas syster: Nether shall they saye vnto him: Alas syr, alas for that noble prynce.

19 But as an Asse shall he be buried, corrupte and be cast without the gates of Ierusalem.

20 Clymme vp the hill off Libanus (o thou daughter Sion) lift vp thy voyce vpon Basan, crie from all partes: for all thy louers are destroyed.

21 I gaue the warninge, whyle thou wast yet i prosperite, But thou saydest: I wil not heare. And this maner hast thou vsed from thy youth, that thou woldest neuer heare my voyce.

22 All thy hyrdmen shalbe dryuen with the wynde, and thy derlinges shalbe caried away in to captiuyte: Then shalt thou be brought to shame and confucion, because of all thy wickednes:

23 thou that dwellest vpon Libanus, ad makest thy nest in the Cedre trees. O how greate shal yi mournynge be, when thy sorowes come vpon the, as a woman traueling with childe?

24 As truly as I lyue (saith the LORDE.) Though Iechonias the sonne off Ioachim kinge off Iuda were the signet off my right honde, yet will I plucke him off:

25 And I wil geue the in to ye power off the that seke to slaye the, and in to the power off them that thou fearest: in to the power off Nabuchodonosor the kinge off Babilon, and in to the power of the Caldees.

26 Morouer, I will sende the, and thy mother that bare the, in to a straunge londe, where ye were not borne, ad there shall ye dye.

27 But as for the londe that ye will desyre to returne vnto, ye shall neuer come at it agayne.

28 This ma Iechonias shalbe like an ymage robbed and torne in peces, which pleaseth no man, for all his apparell. Wherefore both he and his sede shalbe sent away, and cast out into a lode, that they knowe not.

29 O thou earth, earth, earth: heare the worde off the LORDE:

30 Wryte this man amonge the outlawes, for no prosperite shall this man haue all his life longe. Nether shall eny of his sede be so happie, as to syt vpon the seate of Dauid, and to beare rule in Iuda.

Chapter 23

1 Wo be vnto the shepherdes, that destroye, and scatre my flocke, saith the LORDE.

2 Wherefore, this is the comaundemet of the LORDE God of Israel, vnto the shepherdes that fede my people: Ye scatre ad thrust out my flocke, and loke not vpon them. Therefore, now will I vyset the wickednes of youre ymaginacions, saith ye LORDE:

3 And will gather together the remnaunt of my flocke, from all londes that I had dryuen them vnto, and will bringe them agayne to their pastures, that they maye growe and increace.

4 I will set shepherdes also ouer them, which shall fede them. They shall nomore feare and drede, for there shall none off them be lost, saith the LORDE

5 Beholde, the tyme commeth (saith the LORDE) that I wil rayse vp the rightuous braunch off Dauid, which shall beare rule, and discusse matters with wy?dome, and shall set vp equyte and rightuousnes agayne in the earth.

6 In his tyme shall Iuda be saued, and Israel shal dwell with out feare. And this is the name that they shall call him: euen the LORDE oure rightuous maker.

7 And therefore beholde, the tyme commeth (saith the LORDE) that it shall no more be sayde: the LORDE lyueth, which brought the children off Israel out of the londe of Egipte:

8 But the LORDE lyueth, which brought forth, ad led the sede of the house off Israel, out off the north londe, and from all countrees where I had scatred them, and they shal dwell in their owne londe agayne.

9 My herte breaketh in my body because of the false prophetes, all my bones shake: I am become like a droncken man (that by the reason of wyne can take no rest) for very feare of the LORDE, and of his holy wordes:

10 Because the londe is full of aduoterers, where thorow it is destroyed and mourneth, and ye pleasaut pastures of the deserte are dryed vp. Yee the waye that men take, is wicked, & their gouernaunce is nothinge like the holy worde of the LORDE.

11 For the prophetes and the prestes them selues are poluted Ypocrytes, ad their wickednes haue I founde in my house, saith the LORDE.

12 Wherefore, their waye shall be slippery in the darcknesse, where in they maye stacker and fall. For I will bringe a plage vpon them, euen the yeare of their visitacion, saith the LORDE.

13 I haue sene foly amonge the prophetes of Samaria, yt they preched for Baal, ad disceaued my people off Israel.

14 I haue sene also amonge the Prophetes off Ierusalem foule aduotery, and presumptuous lies. They take the most shamefull men by the hode, fltringe them, so that they canot returne from their wickednes. All these with their citesyns are vnto me, as Sodom, and as the inhabitours off Gomorre.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORDE of hoostes concernynge the prophetes: Beholde, I wil fede them with wormwod, & make them dryncke the water of gall. For fro the prophetes of Ierusalem is the sicknes of Ypocrisie come in to all the londe.

16 And therefore the LORDE of hoostes geueth you this warnynge: Heare not the wordes of the prophetes, that preach vnto you, and disceau you: for they speake the meanyng of their owne herte, and not out of the mouth of the LORDE.

17 They saye vnto them, that despyse me: The LORDE hath spoken it: Tush, ye shal prospere right well. And vnto all them, that walke after the lust of their owne herte, they saye: Tush, there shall no my?fortune happen you.

18 For who hath sytten in the councill of the LORDE, that he hath herde and vnderstonde, what he is aboute to do? Who hath marcked his deuyce, and herde it?

19 Beholde, the stormy wether of the LORDE (that is, his indignacion) shal go forth, and shal fall downe vpon the heade of the vngodly.

20 And the wrath of the LORDE shal not turne agayne, vntill he perfourme, and fulfill the thoughte of his herte. And in the latter dayes ye shall knowe his meanyng.

21 I haue not sent these prophetes, (saith the LORDE) and yet they ranne. I haue not spoken to them, and yet they preached.

22 But yf they had continued in my councill and herde my wordes: they had turned my people from their euell wayes and wicked ymaginacions.

23 Am I the God that seeth but the thinge, which is nye at honde, and not that is farre off? saith the LORDE.

24 Maye eny man hyde him self so, that I shal not se him? saith the LORDE. Do not I fulfill heauen and earth? saith the LORDE.

25 I haue herde well ynough, what the prophetes saye, that preach lyes in my name, sayege: I haue dreamed, I haue dreamed.

26 How longe wil this cotynue in the prophetes hertes, to tel lyes, and to preach the craftie sotylte of their owne herte?

27 Whose purpose is, (with the dreames that euery one tell) to make my people forget my name, as their fore fathers dyd, whe Baal

28 The prophet that hath a dreame, let him tell it: and he that vnderstondeth my worde, let him shewe it faithfully. For what hath chaffe and wheat to do together? saith the LORDE.

29 Is not my worde like a fyre, saith the LORDE) and like an hammer, that breaketh the harde stone?

30 Therefore thus saith the LORDE: beholde, I wil vpo the prophetes, that steale my worde priuely from euery man. 31 Beholde, here am I (saith the LORDE) agaynst the prophetes, that take vpon their tinges to speake: The LORDE hath sayde it.

32 , that darre propcey lies, and disceau my people with their vanities and miracles, whom I neuer sent, ner commaunded them. They shal do this people greate harme, saith the LORDE.

33 Yf this people, ether eny prophete or prest axe the, and saye: what is the burthen of the LORDE? Thou shalt saye vnto them: What? burthen? Therefore will I cast you fro me (saith the LORDE) because ye youre selues are a burthen.

34 And the prophet, prest or people that vseth this terme (the burthen of the LORDE) him will I viset, and his house also.

35 But thus shall ye saye, euery one to another: What answer hath the LORDE geuen? or, what is the LORDES commaundement?

36 And as for the burthen of the LORDE, ye shal speake nomore of it: for euery mans owne worde is his burthen, because ye haue altered the wordes of the lyuyng God the LORDE of hoostes oure God.

37 Thus shall euery man saye to the prophetes: what answer hath the LORDE geuen the? Or, what saith the LORDE?

38 And not once to name the burthen of the LORDE. Therefore thus saith the LORDE: For so moch as ye haue vsed this terme (the burthen of the LORDE) where as I notwithstandinge sent vnto you, and forbade you to speake of the LORDES burthen:

39 Beholde therefore, I will repute you as a burthen, and will cast you out of my presence: yee and the cite also, that I gaue you and youre fathers:

40 and will bringe you to an euerlasting confucion, and in to such a shame, as shal neuer be forgotten.

Chapter 24

1 The LORDE shewed me a visio: Beholde, there stode two maundes off

figes before ye Teple of the LORDE, after yt Nabuchodonosor kynge of Babilo had led awaye captiue Iechonias the sonne of Ioachim kinge of Iuda, the mightie men also of Iuda, with the workemasters and conyng men of Ierusalem, vnto Babilon.

2 In the one maunde were very good fyges, euen like as those that be first ripe. In the other maunde were very naughtie figes, which might not be eaten, they were so euell.

3 Then sayde the LORDE vnto me: what seist thou Ieremy? I sayde: fyges, where of some be very good, and some so euell, that no man maye eate them.

4 Then came the worde of the LORDE vnto me, after this maner:

5 Thus saieth ye LORDE the God of Israel: like as thou knowest the good fyges, so shal I knowe the men led awaye, whom I haue sent out of this place in to the londe of the Caldees, for their profite: 6 and I will set myne eyes vpon them for the best, for I will bringe them agayne in to this londe: I will buylde them vp, and not breake them downe: I will plante them, and not rote them out.

7 And I will geue them an herte, to knowe, how that I am the LORDE. They shalbe my people, and I wilbe their God, for they shal returne vnto me with their whole herte.

8 And like as thou knowest the naughtie fyges, which maye not be eate, they are so euell: Euen so wil I (saieth the LORDE) let Sedechias the kinge of Iuda, (ye and all his prynces, & the residue of Ierusalem that remayne ouer in this londe, & them also that dwell in Egipte) to be vexed & played in all kingdomes & londes.

9 And will make them to be a reprofte, a comon byworde, a laughinge stocke & shame, in all the places, where I shal scatere them.

10 I will sende the swearde, hunger & pestilence amonge them, vntill I haue clene consumed them out of the londe, that I gane vnto them & their fathers.

Chapter 25

1 A sermone that was geuen vnto Ieremy, vpon all the people of Iuda: In the fourth yeare of Ioachim the sonne of Iosias kinge of Iuda, that was, in the first yeare of Nabuchodonosor kinge of Babilon.

2 Which sermone, Ieremy the prophet made vnto all the people of Iuda, & to all ye Inhabitours of Ierusalem, on this maner: 3 From the xiiij yeare of Iosias the sonne of Amon kinge of Iuda, vnto this present daye, (that is euen xxiiij yeare) the worde of the LORDE hath bene committed vnto me. And so I haue spoke to you, I haue rysen vp early, I haue geue you warnynge in season, but ye wolde not heare me.

4 Though the LORDE hath sent his seruantes, all the prophetes vnto you in season: Yet wolde ye not obeye, ye wolde not encline yor eares to heare.

5 He sayde: turne agayne euery man from his euell waye, & from youre wicked ymaginacions, & so shal ye dwell for euer in the londe, that the LORDE promised you & youre fore fathers:

6 And go not after straunge goddes, serue them not, worshippe them not, & angre me not with the workes of youre hodes: then will not I punysh you.

7 Neuertheles, ye wolde not heare me (saieth the LORDE) but haue defied me with the workes of youre hodes, to youre owne greate harme.

8 Wherefore, thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes: Because ye haue not herkened vnto my worde,

9 lo, I will sende out, & call for all the people, yt dwell in the north (saieth the LORDE) & wil prepayre Nabuchodonosor the kinge of Babilon my seruaunt, and wil bringe them vpon this londe, and vpon all yt dwell therein, & vpon all the people that are aboute them, and will vtterly rote them out. I will make of them a wilderness, a mockage, and a continuall deserte.

10 Morouer, I will take from them the voyce of gladnesse and solace, the voyce of the brydegrome & the bryde, the voyce of the anyoynted, with the cre?shettes:

11 & this whole londe shal become a wildernes, & they shal serue the sayde people and the kinge of Babilon, thre score yeares and ten.

12 When the lxx yeares are expyred, I wil viset also the wickednesse of the kinge of Babylon & his people, saieth the LORDE: yee & the londe of the Caldees, & wil make it a perpetuall wildernes,

13 & wil fulfil all my wordes vpon that londe, which I haue deuysed agaynst it: yee all that is written in this boke, which Ieremy hath prophecied of all people:

14 so that they also shal be subdued vnto dyuerse nacions & greate kynges, for I wil recompense them, acordinge to their dedes & workes of their owne hondes.

15 For thus hath the LORDE God of Israel spoken vnto me: Take this wyne cuppe of indignacion fro my honde, that thou mayest cause all the people (to whom I sende the) for to drinke of it:

16 that when they haue dronke there of, they maye be madd, & out of their wyttes, when the swearde commeth, that I wil sende amoge them.

17 Then toke I the cuppe from the LORDES honde, & made all the people drynke there of, vnto whom the LORDE had sent me.

18 But first the cite of Ierusalem, & all the cities of Iuda, their kinges & prynces: to make the desolate, waist, despysed & cursed, acordinge as it is come to passe this daye.

19 Yee & Pharao ye kinge of Egipte, his seruantes, his prynces & his people altogether one wt another

20 and all kinges of the londe of Hus, all kinges of the Philistynes londe, Ascalon, Gaza, Accaron & the remnaunt of A?dod, 21 the Edomites, the Moabites & the Ammonites:

22 all the kinges of Tirus & Sidon: the kinges of the Iles, that are beyonde the see:

23 Dedan, Thema, Buz & the shauen Ismaelites:

24 all the kinges of Araby, & (generally) all the kinges that dwell in the deserte:

25 all the kinges of Simri, all the kinges of Elam, all ye kinges of the Meedes, 26 all kinges towarde the north (whether they be farre or nye) euery one with his neighbours: Yee and all the kingdomes that are vpon the whole earth. The kinge of Sesach (sayde he) shal drinke with them also.

27 And saye thou vnto them: this is the commaundement of the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: drinke and be droncken, spewe, and fall, that ye neuer ryse: and that thorow the swearde, which I wil sende amonge you.

28 But yf they will not receaue the cuppe of thy honde, and drinke it, then tell them: Thus doth the LORDE of hoostes threaten you: drynke it ye shal, and that shortly.

29 For lo, I begynne to plage the cite, that my name is geuen vnto: thynke ye then, that I will leaue you vnpunished? Ye shall not go quyte. For why, I call for a swearde vpo all the inhabitours of the earth, saieth the LORDE of hoostes.

30 Therefore tell them all these wordes, and saye vnto them: The LORDE shal crie from aboue, and let his voyce be herde from his holy habitacion. With a greate noyse shall he crie from his courte regall. He shal geue a greate voyce (like the grape gatherers) and the sounde thereof shalbe herde vnto the endes of the worlde.

31 For the LORDE hath a iudgment to geue vpon all people, and will holde his courte of iustice with all flesh and punyshe the vngodly, saieth the LORDE.

32 For thus sayeth ye LORDE of hoostes: Beholde, a miserable plage shall go from one people to another, and a greate stormy water shal arise from all the endes of the earth.

33 And the same daye shall the LORDE himself slaye them, from one ende of the earth to another. There shall no mone be made for any of them, none gathered vp, none buried: but shall lie as dunge vpon the grounde.

34 Mourne (o ye shepherdes) & crie: sprinkle youre selues with a?shes, o ye rammes of the flocke: for the tyme of youre slaughter is fulfilled, and ye shal fall like vessels connyngly made for pleasure.

35 The shepherdes shall haue no waye to fle, and the rammes of the flocke shall not escape.

36 Then shal the shepherdes crie horribly, and the rammes of the flocke shal mourne: for the LORDE shal consume their pasture, 37 and their best feldes shal lie deed because of the horrible wrath of the LORDE.

38 They shall forsake their foldes like as a lyon: For their londes shalbe waist, because of the wrath of the destroyer, and because of his fearfull indignacion.

Chapter 26

1 In the begynnyng of the reigne of Ioachim the sonne of Iosias kinge of Iuda, came this worde from the LORDE, sayenge:

2 Thus saieth the LORDE: Stonde in the courte of the LORDES house, and speake vnto all them which (out of the cities of Iuda) come to do worshippe in the LORDES house, all the wordes yt I commaunde the to saye. Loke that thou kepe not one worde backe,

3 yf (perauenture) they will herke, and turne euery man from his wicked waye: that I maye also repente of the plage, which I haue determed to bryng vpon them, because of their wicked inuencions.

4 And after this maner shalt thou speake vnto them: Thus saieth the LORDE: yf ye will not obeye me, to walke in my lawes, which I haue geuen you,

5 and to heare the wordes of my seruantes the prophetes, whom I sent vnto you, rysynge vp tymely, and still sendinge: Yf ye will not folowe the (I saye)

6 then will I do to this house, as I dyd vnto Silo, and will make this cite to be abhorred of all the people of the earth.

7 And the prestes, the prophetes and all the people herde Ieremy preach these wordes, in the house of the LORDE.

8 Now when he had spoken out all the wordes, that the LORDE commaunded him to preach vnto all the people, then the prestes, the prophetes and all the people toke holde vpon him, and sayde: thou shalt dye.

9 How darrest thou be so bolde, as to saye in the name of the LORDE: it shal happen to this house as it dyd vnto Silo? and this cite shalbe so waist, that no man shal dwell there in?

10 And when all the people were gathered aboute Ieremy in the house of the LORDE, the prynces of Iuda herde of this rumoure, & they came soone out of the kinges Palace in to the house of the LORDE, and sat them downe before the new dore of the LORDE.

11 Then spake the prestes and the prophetes vnto the rulers & to all the people, these wordes: This man is worthy to dye, for he hath preached agaynst this cite, as ye youre selues haue herde with youre eares.

12 Then sayde Ieremy vnto the rulers and to all the people: The LORDE hath sente me to preach agaynst this house & agaynst this cite all the wordes that ye haue herde.

13 Therefore amende youre wayes, and youre advysementes, and be obedient vnto the voyce of the LORDE youre God: so shal the LORDE repet of the plage, yt he had deuysed agaynst you.

14 Now as for me: I am in youre hondes, do with me, as ye thinke expediet and good.

15 But this shall ye knowe: yf ye put me to death, ye shall make youre selues, this cite & all the inhabitours there of, guiltie of innocent bloude. For this is of a treuth: that the LORDE hath sente me vnto you, to speake all these wordes in youre eares.

16 Then sayde the rulers and the people vnto the prestes and prophetes: This man maye not be condemned to death, for he hath preached vnto vs in the name of the LORDE oure God.

17 The Elders also of the londe stode vp, & sayde thus vnto all the people:

18 Micheas the Morascite, which was a prophet vnder Ezechias kinge of Iuda, spake to all the people of Iuda: Thus saith the LORDE of hoostes: Sion shall be plowed like a felde, Ierusalem shall be a heape of stones, & the hill of the LORDES house shall be turned to an hie wod.

19 Dyd Ezechias ye kinge of Iuda & the people of Iuda put him to deeth for this? No verely, but rather feared ye LORDE, & made their praier vnto him. For the which cause also ye LORDE repented of the plage, yt he had deuysed agaynst them. Shulde we then do soch a shamefull dede agaynst oure soules?

20 There was a prophet also, that preached stiffly in the name of the LORDE, called Vrias the sonne of Semeia of Cariathiarim: this ma preached also agaynst this cite & agaynst this lode, accordinge to all as Jeremy saith.

21 Now when Ioachim the kinge with all the estates & prynces had herde his wordes, the kinge went aboute to slaye him. When Vrias perceaued that, he was afrayed, & fled, & departed in to Egipte.

22 Then Ioachim the kinge sent seruauntes into the lode of Egipte, Namely: Elnatha the sonne of Achbor, & certayne men wt him into Egipte, 23 which fetched Vrias out of Egipte, & brought him vnto kinge Ioachim that slewe him with the swerde, & cast his deed body into ye como peoples graue.

24 But Ahicam the sonne of Saphan helped Jeremy, that he came not in to the hondes of the people to be slayne.

Chapter 27

1 In the begynnyng of the reigne of Ioachim the sonne of Iosias kyng of Iuda, came this worde vnto Jeremy from the LORDE, which spake thus vnto me:

2 Make the bondes & chaynes, and put them aboute thy neck,

3 & sende the to the kinge of Edom, the kinge of Moab, the kinge of Amon, the kinge of Tirus, & to the kinge of Sidon: & that by the messangers, which shall come to Ierusalem vnto Sedechias the kinge of Iuda,

4 and byd them saye vnto their masters: Thus saith the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel, speake thus vnto yor masters:

5 I am he that made the earth, the men & ye catell that are vpon the grounde, with my greate power & outstretched arme, & haue geuen it vnto whom it pleased me.

6 And now will I deliuer all these londes in to the power of Nabuchodonosor the kinge of Babilon my seruauant. The beestes also of the felde shall I geue him to do him seruyce.

7 And all people shall serue him, & his sonne, and his childes children, vntil the tyme of the same lode be come also: Yee many people & greate kinges shall serue him.

8 Morouer, that people & kingdome which wil not serue Nabuchodonosor, and that wil not put their neckes vnder ye yock of the kinge of Babilon: the same people will I viset with swerde, with hunger, with pestilence, vntill I haue consumed them in his hondes, saith the LORDE.

9 And therefore, folowe not youre prophetes, soythsayers, expounders of dreames, charmers & witches, which saye vnto you: ye shall not serue the kinge of Babilon.

10 For they preach you lies, to bringe you farre from youre londe, & that I might cast you out, & destroye you.

11 But the people that put their neckes vnder the yock of the kinge of Babilon, & serue him, those I wil let remayne still in their owne lode (saith the LORDE) & they shall occupie it, & dwell there in.

12 All these thinges tolde I Sedechias the kinge of Iuda, and sayde: Put youre neckes vnder the yock of the kinge of Babilon, and serue him & his people, that ye maye lyue.

13 Why wilt thou and thy people perish with the swerde, with hunger, with pestilence: like as the LORDE hath deuysed for all people, that wil not serue the kinge of Babilon?

14 Therefore geue no eare vnto those prophetes (that tell you: Ye shall not serue the kinge of Babilon) for they preach you lies, 15 nether haue I sent them, saith the LORDE: how be it they are bolde, falsely for to prophecie in my name: that I might ye sooner dryue you out, & that ye might perish with yor preachers.

16 I spake to the prestes also and to all the people: Thus saith the LORDE: Heare not the wordes of those prophetes, that preach vnto you, & saye: Beholde, the vessels of the LORDES house shall shortly be brought hither agayne from Babilon: For they prophecie lies vnto you.

17 Heare them not, but serue the kinge of Babilon, yt ye maye lyue. Wherefore will ye make this cite to be destroyed?

18 But yf they be true prophetes in very dede, and yf the worde of the LORDE be comytted vnto them, then let them praye the LORDE of hoostes, that the remnaunt of the ornamentes (which are in the house of the LORDE, and remayne yet in the house of the kinge of Iuda and at Ierusalem) be not caried to Babilon also.

19 For thus hath the LORDE of hoostes spoken concernyng the pylers, the lauer, the seate and the residue of the ornamentes that yet remayne in this cite,

20 which Nabuchodonosor the kinge of Babilon toke not, when he caried awaye Iechonias the sonne of Ioachim kinge of Iuda, with all the power of Iuda and Ierusalem, from Ierusalem vnto Babilon, captiue.

21 Yee thus hath the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel spoken, as touchyng the residue of the ornamentes of the LORDES house, of the kinge of Iudaes house, and of Ierusalem:

22 They shall be caried vnto Babilon, and there they shall remayne, vntil I viset them, saith the LORDE. Then wil I bringe them hither agayne.

Chapter 28

1 And this was done in the same yeare: eue in the begynnyng of the reigne of Sedechias kinge of Iuda. But in the fourth yeare of the reigne of Sedechias kinge of Iuda, in the fifth Moneth, It happened, that Hananias ye sonne of Assur the prophet of Gaboon, spake to me in the house of the LORDE, in the presence of the prestes & of all the people, & sayde:

2 Thus saith the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: I haue broke the yock of the kinge of Babilon,

3 and after two yeare wil I bringe agayne in to this place, all the ornamentes of the LORDES house, yt Nabuchodonosor kinge of Babilon caried awaye from this place vnto Babilon.

4 Yee I wil bringe agayne Iechonias the sonne of Ioachim the kinge of Iuda himself, with all the presoners of Iuda, (yt are caried vnto Babilon,) eue in to this place, saith ye LORDE, for I wil breake ye yock of the kinge of Babilo.

5 Then the prophet Jeremy gaue answere vnto that prophet Hananias, before the prestes & before all the people that were present in the house of the LORDE.

6 And the prophet Jeremy sayde: Amen, the LORDE do that, & graunte the thinge, which thou hast prophecied: that he maye bringe agayne all the ornamentes of the LORDES house, & restore all the presoners from Babilon in to this place.

7 Neuertheles, herken thou also, what I will saye, that thou & all the people maye heare:

8 The prophetes that were before vs in tymes past, which prophecied of warre, or trouble, or pestilence,

9 ether of peace, vpon many nacions & greate kingdomes, were proued by this (yf God had sende them in very dede) when the thinge came to passe, which that prophet tolde before.

10 And Hananias the prophet toke the chayne from the prophet Ieremias neck, & brake it:

11 & with that sayde Hananias, that all the people might heare: Thus hath the LORDE spoken: Euen so wil I breake the yock of Nabuchodonosor kinge of Babilo, from the neck of all nacions, yee & that within this two yeare. And so the prophet Jeremy wente his waye.

12 After now that Hananias the prophet had taken the chayne from the prophet Ieremias neck, and broken it: The worde of the LORDE came vnto the prophet Jeremy sayenge:

13 Go, and tell Hananias these wordes: Thus saith the LORDE: Thou hast broken the chayne of wodd, but in steade of wodd, thou shalt make chaynes of yron.

14 For thus saith the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: I wil put a yock of yron vpon the neck of all this people, that they maye serue Nabuchodonosor the kinge of Babilon, yee & so shall they do. And I wil geue him ye beestes in the felde.

15 Then sayde the prophet Jeremy vnto ye prophet Hananias: Heare me (I praye the) Hananias: The LORDE hath not sent the, but thou bringest this people in to a false beleue.

16 And therefore thus saith ye LORDE: beholde, I wil sende the out of the lode, & within a yeare thou shalt die, because thou hast falsely spoke agaynst the LORDE.

17 So Hananias the prophet died the same yeare in the seuenth Moneth.

Chapter 29

1 This is the Copie of the lettre, yt Jeremy the prophet sent from Ierusalem vnto the presoners: the Senatours, prestes, prophetes, & all the people, whom Nabuchodonosor had led vnto Babilo:

2 after ye tyme yt kinge Iechonias & his Quene, his chambrelaynes, the prynces of Iuda & Ierusalem & the workmasters of Ierusalem were departed thither.

3 Which lettre, Elasa ye sonne of Sapha & Gamaria ye sonne of Helchia dyd beare, who Sedechias the kinge of Iuda sent vnto Babilo to Nabuchodonosor ye kinge of Babilo: these were ye wordes of Ieremias lettre:

4 Thus hath ye LORDE of hoostes ye God of Israel spoke, vnto all the presoners, yt were led fro Ierusalem vnto Babilo:

5 Buylde you houses to dwell therein: plate you gardes, yt ye maye enioye the frutes thereof:

6 take you wyues, to beare you sonnes and daughters: prouyde wyues for youre sonnes, & hu?bondes for youre daughters: that they maye get sonnes & daughters, and that ye maye multiplie there. Laboure not to be fewe,

7 but seke after peace & prosperite of the cite, where in ye be presoners, & praye vnto God for it. For in the peace there of, shall yor peace be.

8 For thus saith the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: Let not those prophetes and soythsaiers yt be amonge you, disceau you: & beleue not youre owne dreames.

9 For why, they preach you lies in my name, & I haue not sent them, saith the LORDE.

10 But thus saith the LORDE: When ye haue fulfilled lxx yeares at Babilon, I wil bringe you home, and of myne owne goodnes I will carie you hither agayne vnto this place.

11 For I knowe, what I haue deuysed for you, saieth the LORDE. My thoughtes are to geue you peace, & not trouble (which I geue you all redie) & that ye might haue hope agayne.

12 Ye shall crie vnto me, ye shal go & call vpo me, & I shal heare you.

13 Ye shal seke me, & fynde me: Yee, yf so be that ye seke me with youre whole herte,

14 I will be founde of you (saieth the LORDE) and will delyuer you out of preson, & gather you together agayne out of all places, where in I haue scatered you, saieth the LORDE: and wil bringe you agayne to the same place, from whence I caused you be caried awaye captiue.

15 But where as ye saye, that God hath rayseed you vp prophetes at Babilon:

16 Thus hath the LORDE spoken (concernynge the kinge that sytteth in the stole of Dauid, and all ye people that dwell in this cite, youre brethren that are not gone with you into captiuyte.)

17 Thus (I saye) speaketh the LORDE of hoostes: Beholde, I wil sende a swearde, hunger & pestilence vpon them, & wil make them like vntymely fyges, that maye not be eate for bytternes.

18 And I wil persecute them with the swearde, with hunger & death. I will delyuer them vp to be vexed of all kingdomes, to be cursed, abhorred, laughed to scorne, & put to confucion of all the people, amonge whom I haue scatered them:

19 & that because they haue not bene obedient vnto my commaundementes, (saieth the LORDE) which I sent vnto them by my seruantes the prophetes. I stode vp early, and sent vnto them, but they wolde not heare, saieth the LORDE.

20 Heare therefore the worde of the LORDE, all ye presoners, whom I sent from Ierusalem vnto Babilon:

21 Thus hath the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel spoken, of Achab ye sonne of Colaias, & of Sedechias the sonne of Maasia, which prophecie lies vnto you in my name: Beholde, I wil delyuer them in to the honde of Nabuchodonosor the kinge of Babilon, that he maye slaye them before youre eyes.

22 And all ye presoners of Iuda that are in Babilon, shal take vpo them this terme of cursinge, and saye: Now God do vnto the, as he dyd vnto Sedechias & Achab, whom the kinge of Babilon rosted in the fyre, 23 because they synned shamefully in Israel. For they haue not onely defiled their neighbours wyues, but also preached lyenge wordes in my name, which I haue not commaunded them. This I testifie, & assure, saieth the LORDE.

24 But as for Semeia the Nehelamite, thou shalt speake vnto him:

25 Thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: Because thou hast sealed lettres vnder thy name, vnto all the people that is at Ierusalem, & to Sophonias the sonne of Maasia the prest, yee and sent them to all the prestes: where in thou wrytest thus vnto him:

26 The LORDE hath ordened the to be prest in steade of Ioiada the prest, that thou shuldest be the chefe in the house of the LORDE about all prophetes, & preachers, & that thou mightest put them in preson, or in ye stockes.

27 How happeneth it then, that thou hast not reproued Ieremy of Anathot, which neuer leaueth of his prophecience.

28 And beside all this, he hath sent vs worde vnto Babilon, and tolde vs planely, that oure captiuyte shal longe endure: that we shulde buylde vs houses to dwell therein, & to plante vs gardens, that we might enioye the frutes therof.

29 Which letre Sophonias the prest dyd rede, and let Ieremy the prophet heare it.

30 Then came the worde of the LORDE vnto Ieremy, sayenge:

31 Sende worde to all them that be in captiuyte, on this maner: Thus hath the LORDE spoken concernynge Semeia ye Nehelamite: Because that Semeia hath prophecied vnto you without my comyssion, & brought you in to a false hope, 32 therefore thus the LORDE doth certifie you: Beholde, I wil vyset Semeia the Nehelamite, & his sede: so that none of his shall remayne amonge this people, & none of them shall se the good, yt I will do for this people, saieth the LORDE. For he hath preached falsely of the LORDE.

Chapter 30

1 These are the wordes, that the LORDE shewed vnto Ieremy, saienge:

2 Thus saieth the LORDE God of Israel: Wryte vp diligently all the wordes, that I haue spoken vnto the, in a boke

3 For lo, the tyme commeth (saieth the LORDE) that I will bringe agayne the presoners of my people of Israel and Iuda, saieth the LORDE: For I will restore them vnto the londe, that I gaue to their fathers, and they shall haue it in possession.

4 Agayne, these wordes spake the LORDE, cocernynge Israel and Iuda:

5 Thus saieth the LORDE: We heare a terrible crie, feare and disquietnesse.

6 For what els doth this signifie, that I se? Namely, that all stronge men smyte, euery man his honde vpon his loynes, as a woman in the payne of hir trauayle. Who euer sawe a man trauayle with childe? Enquere thereafter, & se. Yee all their faces are maruelous pale.

7 Alas for this daye, which is so dredefull, that none maye be lickened vnto it: and alas for the tyme of Iacobs trouble, from the which he shall yet be delyuered.

8 For in that daye, saieth the LORDE, I will take his yock from of thy neck, & breake thy bondes. They shall nomore serue straunge goddes vnder him,

9 but they shall do seruyce vnto God their LORDE, and to Dauid their kinge, whom

I will rayse vp vnto them.

10 And as for the, o my seruauent Iacob, feare not (saieth ye LORDE) and be not afrayed, o Israel. For lo, I will helpe the also from farre, & thy sede from the londe of their captiuyte. And Iacob shall turne agayne, he shalbe in rest, and haue a prosperous life, and no man shall make him afrayed.

11 For I am with the, to helpe the, saieth the LORDE. And though I shal destroye all the people, amonge whom I haue scatered the, yet will I not destroye the, but correcke the, and that with discrecion. For I knowe, that thou art in no wise without faute.

12 Therefore thus saieth ye LORDE: I am sorry for thy hurte and woundes.

13 There is no man to medle with thy cause, or to bynde vp thy woundes: there maye no man helpe the.

14 All thy louers haue forgotten the, and care nothinge for the. For I haue geuen the a cruell stroke, and chastened the roughly: and that for the multitude of thy my?dedes, for thy synnes haue had the ouer hande.

15 Why makest thou mone for thy harme? I my self haue pite of thy sorowe, but for the multitude of thy my?dedes and synnes, I haue done this vnto the.

16 And therefore all they that deuoure the, shalbe deuoured, and all thine enemies shalbe led in to captiuyte. All they that make the waist, shalbe waisted them selues: and all those that robbe the, will I make also to be robbed.

17 For I will geue the thy health agayne, and make thy woundes whole, saieth the LORDE: because they reuyled the, as one cast awaye and despised, o Sion.

18 For thus saieth the LORDE: Beholde, I will set vp Iacobs tentes agayne, and defende his dwellinge place. The cite shalbe buylded in hir olde estate, and the houses shal haue their right foundation.

19 And out of them shall go thankesgeuyng, and the voyce of ioye. I will multiplie them, and they shall not mynische: I shall endue them with honoure, and no man shall subdue them.

20 Their children shalbe as afore tyme, and their congregacion shal cotinue in my sight. And all those that vexed them, will I viset.

21 A captayne also shall come of them, and a prynce shall springe out from the myddest of them: him will I chalenge to myself, and he shall come vnto me. For what is he, that geueth ouer his herte, to come vnto me? saieth the LORDE.

22 Ye shalbe my people also, and I wilbe youre God.

23 Beholde, on the other syde shall the wrath of the LORDE breake out as a stormy water, as a mightie whyrle wynde: and shal fall vpo the heades of the vngodly.

24 The terrible displeasure of the LORDE shall not leaue of, vntill he haue done, & perfourmed the intent of his herte, which in the latter dayes ye shal vnderstonde.

Chapter 31

1 At the same tyme (saieth the LORDE) shal I be the God of all the generacions of Israel, & they shalbe my people.

2 Thus saieth the LORDE: The people of Israel which escaped in ye wildernes from the swearde, founde grace to come in to their rest.

3 Euen so shal the LORDE now also appeare vnto me from farre, and saye: I loue the with an euerlastinge loue, therfore do I sprede my mercy before the.

4 I will repayre the agayne (o thou daughter of Israel) that thou mayest be fast and sure. Thou shalt take thy tabrettes agayne, & go forth with them, that lede the daunce.

5 Thou shalt plante vynes agayne vpon ye hilles of Samaria, and the grape gatherers shall plante, and synge.

6 And when it is tyme, the watch men vpon the mount of Ephraim shall crie: Arise, let vs go vp vnto Sion to oure LORDE God,

7 for thus saieth the LORDE: Reioyce with gladnes because of Iacob, crie vnto the heade of the Gentiles: speake out, synge, and saye: The LORDE shall delyuer his people, the remnaunt of Israel &, make them whole

8 Beholde, I will bringe them agayne from out of the north lode, and gather them from the endes of the worlde, with the blynde and lame that are amonge them, with the women that be greate with childe, and soch as be also delyuered: and the company of them that come agayne, shal be greate.

9 They departed from hence in heuynes, but with ioye will I bringe them hither agayne. I will lede them by the ryuers of water in a straight waye, where they shall not stombe: For I will be Israels father, and Epraim shalbe my firstborne.

10 Heare the worde of the LORDE (o ye Gentiles) preach in the Iles, that lie farre of, and saye: he that hath scatered Israel, shall gather him together agayne, and shall kepe him as a shepherde doth his flocke.

11 For the LORDE shall redeme Iacob, and ryd him from the honde of the violent.

12 And they shal come, & reioyce vpon the hill of Sion, & shal haue plenteousnes of goodes, which the LORDE shall geue them: Namely, wheate, wyne, oyle, yonge shepe and calues. And their conscience shalbe as a well watred garden, for they shall nomore be hongrie.

13 Then shal the mayde reioyce in the daunce, yee both yonge and olde folkes. For I will turne their sorow in to gladnesse, and will comforte them, and make them ioyfull, euen from their hertes.

14 I will poure plenteousnes vpon the hertes of the prestes, and my people shalbe satisfied with good things, saieth the LORDE.

15 Thus saith the LORDE: The voyce of heynes, wepynge and lamentacion came vp in to heauen: euen of Rachel mourninge for hir children, and wolde not be comforted, because they were awaye.

16 But now saith the LORDE: leaue of from wepynge and crienge, witholde thyne eyes from teares, for thy labour shalbe rewarded, saith the LORDE. And they shall come agayne out of the londe of their enemies:

17 Yee euen thy posterite shall haue consolacion in this (saith the LORDE) that thy children shall come agayne in to their owne londe.

18 Morouer I herde Ephraim, (that was led awaye captiue) complayne on this maner: O LORDE, thou hast correcte me, and thy chastenyng haue I receaued, as an vntamed calfe. Conuerte thou me, and I shalbe conuerted, for thou art my LORDE God.

19 Yee as soone as thou turnest me, I shall reforme my self: and when I vnderstonde, I shall smyte vpon my thee. For verely I haue comitted shameful things: O let my youth beare this reprove and confucion.

20 Vpon this complaynte, I thought thus by myself: is not Ephraim my deare sonne? Is he not the childe, with whom I haue had all myrth and pastyme? For sence the tyme that I first comoned with him, I haue him euer in remembrance: therefore my very herte dryueth me vnto him: gladly and louyngly will I haue mercy vpon him, saith the LORDE.

21 Get the watchmen, prouyde teachers for the: set thine herte vpon the right waie, that thou shuldest walke, and turne agayne: (o thou daughter of Israel,) turne agayne to these cities of thyne.

22 How longe wilt thou go astraie, o thou shrekinge daughter? For the LORDE will worke a new thyng vpon earth: A woman shall compasse a man.

23 For thus saith the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: It will come therto, that when I haue brought Iuda out of captiuyte, these wordes shalbe herde in ye londe and in his cities: The LORDE, which is the fayre brydegrome of rightuousnesse, make the frutefull, o thou holy hill:

24 And there shall dwell Iuda and all hir cities, the shepherdes and hu?bonde men:

25 For I shall fede the hongrie soule, and refresh all faynte hertes.

26 When I herde this, I came agayne to myself, and mused, like as I had bene waked out of a swete slepe.

27 Beholde (saith the LORDE) the dayes come, that I will sowe the house of Israel and the house of Iuda, with men and with catell.

28 Yee it shall come therto, that like as I haue gone aboute in tymes past to rote them out, to scatere them, to breake them downe, to destroye them and chaste them: Euen so will I also go diligently aboute, to buylde them vp agayne, and to plante them, saith the LORDE.

29 Then shall it no more be sayde: ye fathers haue eaten a sower grape, and the childrens teth are set on edge:

30 for euery one shal dye for his owne my?dede, so that who so eateth a sower grape, his teth shalbe set on edge.

31 Beholde, the dayes come (saith the LORDE) yt I will make a new couenaunt with ye house of Israel & with ye house of Iuda:

32 not after the couenaunt that I made with their fathers, when I toke them by the honde, & led them out of the londe of Egipte: which couenaunt they brake, wherfore I punyshed them sore, saith the LORDE:

33 But this shalbe the couenaunt that I will make with the house of Israel after those dayes, saith the LORDE: I will plante my lawe in the inwarde partes of them, and write it in their hertes, and wilbe their God, and they shalbe my people.

34 And from these forth shall no man teach his neighboure or his brother, and saye: knowe the LORDE: But they shall all knowe me, from the lowest vnto the hiest, saith the LORDE. For I will forgeue their my?dedes, and wil neuer remembre their synnes eny more.

35 Thus saith the LORDE which gaue the sonne to be a light for the daye, and the Moone and starres to shyne in the night: which moueth the see, so that the floudes therof waxe feare: his name is the LORDE of hoostes.

36 Like as this ordinaunce shal neuer be taken out of my sight, saith the LORDE: So shal the sede of Israel neuer cease, but all waye be a people before me.

37 Morouer, thus saith the LORDE: like as the heauen aboue can not be measured, and as the foundations of the earth beneth maye not be sought out: So will I also not cast out the whole sede of Israel, for that they haue commytted, saith the LORDE.

38 Beholde, the daies come saith the LORDE, yt the cite of ye LORDE shalbe enlarged from the towre of Hananeel, vnto ye gate of the corner wall.

39 From thence shal the right measure be taken before her vnto the hill toppe of Gareb, and shal come aboute Gaatha, 40 and the whole valley of the deed carcasses, and of the ashes, & all Seremoth, vnto the broke of Cedron: and from thence vnto the corner of the horsgate towarde ye east, where as the Sanctuary of the LORDE also shalbe set. And when it is now buylded, & set vp of this fashion it shall neuer be broken, ner cast downe eny more.

Chapter 32

1 These wordes spake the LORDE vnto Jeremy, in the tenth yeare of Sedechias kinge of Iuda, which was xvij yeare of Nabuchodonosor,

2 what tyme as the kinge of Babilons hooste layed sege vnto Ierusalem. But Jeremy the prophet laye bounde in ye court of the preson, which was in the kinge of Iudaes house:

3 where Sedechias the kinge of Iuda caused him to be layed, because he had prophecied of this maner: Thus saith the LORDE: Beholde, I will delyuer this cite in to the hondes of the kinge of Babilon, which shal take it.

4 As for Sedechias the kinge of Iuda, he shal not be able to escape the Caldees, but surely he shall come in to the hondes of the kinge of Babilon: which shall speake with him mouth to mouth, and one of them shall loke another in the face.

5 And Sedechias shalbe caried vnto Babilon, and there shall he be, vntill the tyme that I vyset him, saith the LORDE. But yf thou takest in hode to fight agaynst the Caldees, thou shalt not prospere.

6 And Jeremy sayde: Thus hath the LORDE spoken vnto me:

7 Beholde, Hananeel the sonne of Sellum thine Vncles sonne shall come vnto the, and requyre the to redeme ye londe, that lieth in Anathot vnto thy self: for by reason of kynred it is thy parte to redeme it, and to bye it out.

8 And so Hananeel myne Vncles sonne came to me in the court of the preson, (acordinge to the worde of the LORDE,) and sayde vnto me: Bye my londe (I praye the) that lieth in Anathot in the countre of Ben Iamyn: for by heretage thou hast right to lowse it out for thy self, therfore redeme it. Then I preceaued, that this was the commaundement of the LORDE,

9 and so I lowsed the londe from Hananeel of Anathot, myne Vncles sonne, and weyed him there the moneye: euen seuen sycles, and ten syluer pens.

10 I caused him also to make me a writinge, and to seale it, and called recorde there by, and weyed him there the money vpon the waights.

11 So I toke the eydence with the copie (when it was orderly sealed and red ouer)

12 and I gaue the eydence vnto Baruch the sonne of Nerias the sonne of Maasia in the sight of Hananeel my cosen, and in the presence of the witnesses, that be named in the eydence, and before all the Iewes that were therby in the court of the preson.

13 I charged Baruch also before them, saiege:

14 The LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel commaundeth the, to take this sealed eydence with the copie, and to laye it in an erthen vessell, that it maye longe continue.

15 For the LORDE of hoostes of the God of Israel hath determed, that houses, feldes and vnyardes shalbe possessed agayne in this londe.

16 Now when I had delyuered the eydence vnto Baruch ye sonne of Nerias, I besought the LORDE, sayenge:

17 O LORDE God, It is thou that hast made heauen and earth with thy greete power and hie arme, and there is nothinge to harde for ye.

18 Thou shewest mercy vpon thousandes, thou recompecest the wickednes of the fathers, in to the besome of the children that come after them.

19 Thou art the greate and mightie God, whose name is the LORDE of hoostes: greate in councill, and infinite in thought: Thine eyes loke vpon all the wayes of mens children, to rewarde euery one after his waye, and acordinge to the frutes of his inuencions:

20 Thou hast done greate tokens and wonders in the londe of Egipte (as we se this daye) vpon the people of Israel and vpon those men: to make thy name greate, as it is come to passe this daye:

21 Thou hast brought thy people of Israel out of the londe of Egipte, with tokens, with wondres, with a mightie honde, with a stretched out arme and with greate terriblenes:

22 and hast geuen them this londe, like as thou haddest promysed vnto their fathers: Namely, that thou woldest geue them a lode, that floweth with mylke and honye. 23 Now when they came therin, and possessed it, they folowed not thy voyce, and walked not in thy lawe: but all that thou commaundedest them to do, that haue they not done, and therefore come all these pages vpon them.

24 Beholde, there are bulworckes made now agaynst the cite, to take it: and it shalbe wonne of the Caldees that besege it, with swerde, with hunger and death, and loke what thou hast spoken, that same shal come vpon them. For lo, all thinges are present vnto the:

25 Yet sayest thou vnto me (o LORDE God) and commaundest me, that I shall loose a pece of londe vnto my self, and take witnesses therto: and yet in the meane season the cite is delyuered in to the power of the Caldees.

26 Then came the worde of the LORDE vnto me, sayenge:

27 Beholde, I am the LORDE God of all flesh, Is there eny thinge then to harde for me?

28 Therefore thus sayde the LORDE: beholde, I shal delyuer this cite in to the power of the Caldees, and in to the power of Nabuchodonosor the kinge of Babilon, they shall take it in:

29 For the Caldees shall come, and wyne this cite, and set fyre vpon it, and burne it: with the gorgeous houses, in whose parlors they haue made sacrifice vnto Baal, and poured drynkeofferings vnto straunge goddes, to prouoke me vnto wrath.

30 For seinge the children of Israel and the children of Iuda haue wrought wickednes before me euer from their youth vp, what haue they els done, but prouoked me with the workes of their owne hondes? saith the LORDE.

31 Or, what hath this cite bene els, but a prouokinge of my wrath, euer sence the daye that I buylded it, vnto this houre? Wherin I cast it out of my sight,

32 be cause of the greate blasphemies of the childe of Israel and Iuda, which they haue done to prouoke me: yee they, their kinges, their prynces, their prestes, their prophetes, whole Iuda, and all the citiesyns of Ierusalem.

33 When I stode vp early, and taught them and instructe them, they turned their backs to me, and not their faces.

34 They wolde not heare, to be reformed and correcte. They haue set their goddes in ye house, that is halowed vnto my name, to defyle it.

35 They haue buylded hie places for Baal in the valley of the children of Ennon, to vowe their sonnes and daughters vnto Moloch: which I neuer commauded them, nether came it euer in my thought, to make Iuda synne with soch abhominacion.

36 Morouer thus hath the LORDE God of Israel spoken, concernynge this cite, which (as ye youre selues confesse) shalbe delyuered in to the honde of the kinge of Babilon, when it is wonne with the swerde, with hunger and with pestilence.

37 Beholde, I will gather them together from all londes, wherin I haue scatted them in my wrath, in my fearfull and greate displeasure: and will bringe them agayne vnto this place, where they shal dwell safely.

38 And they shalbe my people, and I wilbe their God.

39 And I will geue them one herte and one waye, that they maye feare me all the daies of their life, that they and their children after them maye prospere.

40 And I will set vp an euerlastinge couenaunt with them, Namely: that I will neuer ceasse to do them good, and that I will put my feare in their hertes, so that they shall not runne awaye fro me.

41 Yee I will haue a lust and pleasure to do them good, and faithfully to plante them in this londe, with my whole herte, and with all my soule.

42 For thus saith the LORDE: like as I haue brought all this greate plage vpon this people: so will I also bringe vpon them all the good, that I haue promysed them

43 And men shall haue their possessions in this londe, wherof ye saye now, that it shal nether be inhabited of people ner of catell, but be deliuered in to the hodes of the Caldees:

44 Yee londe shalbe bought for money, & euydecas made ther vpon & sealed before witnesses in the countre of Ben lamin, & rounde aboute Ierusalem: in the cities of Iuda, in the cities that are vpo the mountaynes, & in them that lie beneath, yee & in the cities that are in the deserte. For I wil bringe their presoners hither agayne, saith the LORDE.

Chapter 33

1 Morouer the worde of the LORDE came vnto Ieremy on this maner, whe he was yet bounde in the courte of the preson:

2 Thus saith the LORDE, which fulfilleth the thinge that he speaketh the LORDE which perfourmeth the thinge that he taketh in honde: euen he, whose name is the LORDE:

3 Thou hast cried vnto me, and I haue herde the: I haue shewed greate and hie thinges, which were vnknowne vnto you. 4 Thus (I saye) spake the LORDE God of Israel, concernynge the houses of this cite, and the houses of the kinges of Iuda: that they shalbe broken thorow the ordinaunce and weapens,

5 when the Caldees come to besege them: and they shalbe fylled with the deed carcasses of men, whom I will slaye in my wrath and displeasure: whe I turne my face from this cite, because of all hir wickednes.

6 Beholde, (saith the LORDE) I will heale their woundes, and make them whole: I will open them the treasure of peace and treuth.

7 And I will returne the captiuyte of Iuda and Israel: and will set them vp agayne, as they were afore.

8 From all my?dedes (wherin they haue offended agaynst me) I will clesse them: And all their blasphemies which they haue done agaynst me, when they regarded me not, I will forgeue them.

9 And this shal get me a name, a prayse and honour, amonge all people of the earth, which shall heare all the good, that I will shewe vnto them: Yee they shall be afrayed and astonnied at all the good dedes and benefites, that I will do for them.

10 Morouer, thus saith the LORDE: In this place, wherof ye saye that it shalbe a wilderness, wherin nether people ner catell shal dwell: In like maner in the cities of Iuda and without Ierusalem (which also shalbe so voyde, that nether people ner catell shall dwell there)

11 Shal the voyce of gladnesse be herde agayne, the voyce of the brydegrome and of the bryde, the voyce of them that shall synge: (Prayse the LORDE of hoostes, for he is louynge, and his mercy endureth for euer) and the voyce of them that shall offre vp giftes in the house of the LORDE. For I will restore the captiuyte of this londe, as it was afore, saith the LORDE.

12 Thus saith the LORDE of hoostes. It shall come yet therto, that in this londe, which is voyde from men and catell, and in all the cities of the londe, there shal be set vp shepherdes cotages:

13 in the cities vpon the mountaynes, and in the cities that lie vpon the playne, and in the deserte. In the londe of Benjamin, in the feldes of Ierusalem, and in the cities of Iuda shal the shepe be nombred agayne, vnder the honde of him, that telleth them, saith the LORDE.

14 Beholde, the tyme commeth (saith the LORDE) that I wil perfourme that good thinge, which I haue promised vnto the house of Israel and to the house of Iuda.

15 In those daies and at the same tyme, I will bringe forth vnto Daud, the branch of rightuousnes, and he shall do equite and rightuousnesse in the londe.

16 In those daies shall Iuda be helped, and Ierusalem shall dwell safe, and he that shall call her is euen God oure rightuous maker.

17 For thus the LORDE promyseth: Daud shal neuer want one, to syt vpon the stole of the house of Israel:

18 nether shall the prestes and Leuites want one to offre all waye before me, burntofferings, to kyndle the meatofferings, & to prepare the sacrifices.

19 And the worde of the LORDE came vnto Ieremy after this maner:

20 Thus saith the LORDE: Maye the couenaunt which I haue made with daye and night, be broken, that there shulde not be daye and night in due season?

21 Then maye my couenaunt also be broken, which I made with Daud my seruauant, and so he not to haue a sonne to reigne in his Trone. So shall also the prestes and Leuites neuer fayle, but serue me.

22 For like as the starres of heauen maye not be nombred, nether the sonde of the see measured: so will I multiplie the sede of Daud my seruauant, and of the Leuites my ministers.

23 Morouer, the worde of the LORDE came to Ieremy, saienge:

24 Cosidrest thou not what this people speaketh? Two kynreddes (saye they) had the LORDE chosen, & those same two hath he cast awaye. For so farre is my people come, yt they haue no hope to come together eny more, and to be one people agayne.

25 Therfore thus saith the LORDE: Yf I haue made no couenaunt with daye & night, and geue no statute vnto heauen and earth:

26 then will I also cast awaye the sede of Daud my seruauant: so that I wil take no prynce out of his sede, to rule the posterite of Abraha, Isaac and Iacob. But yet I will turne agayne their captiuyte, and be mercifull vnto them.

Chapter 34

1 These are the wordes which the LORDE spake vnto Ieremy, what tyme as Nabuchodonosor the kinge of Babilon, & all his hoostes (out of all the kingdomes yt were vnder his power) and all his people, fought agaynst Ierusalem and all the cities therof.

2 Thus saith the LORDE God of Israel: Go, & speake to Sedechias the kinge of Iuda, & tell him: The LORDE sendeth the this worde: Beholde, I will delyuer this cite in to the hode of the kinge of Babilon, he shal burne it,

3 and thou shalt not escape his hondes, but shalt be led awaye presoner, and delyuered into his power. Thou shalt loke the kinge of Babilon in the face, and he shal speake with the mouth to mouth, and then shalt thou go to Babilon.

4 Yet heare the worde of the LORDE, o Sedechias thou kinge of Iuda: Thus saith the LORDE vnto the: Thou shalt not be slayne with the swerde,

5 but shalt die in peace. Like as yi fore fathers, the kinges, thy progenitours were brente: so shalt thou be brente also, & in the mournynge they shal saye: oh lorde. For thus haue I determed, saith the LORDE.

6 Then spake Ieremy the prophet all these wordes vnto Sedechias kinge of Iuda in Ierusalem:

7 what tyme as the kinge of Babilons hooste beseged Ierusalem, and the rermaunt of the cities: Namely, Lachis & Azecha, which yet remainyd of the stronge defended cities of Iuda.

8 These are the wordes that the LORDE spake vnto Ieremy the prophet, when Sedechias was agreed with all the people at Ierusalem, that there shulde be proclaimed a liberte:

9 so that euery man shulde let fre go his seruauant and handemayde, Hebrue & Hebruesse & no Lewe to holde his brother as a bonde man.

10 Now as they had consented, euen so they were obedient, & let them go fre.

11 But afterwarde they repented, & toke agayne the seruauantes and handemaydens, whom they had letten go fre, and so made them bonde agayne.

12 For the which cause the worde of the LORDE came vnto Ieremy from the LORDE him self, sayenge:

13 Thus saith the LORDE God of Israel: I made a couenaunt with youre fathers, when I brougt them out of Egipite, (that they shulde no more be bondmen,) sayenge:

14 When seuen yeares are out, euery man shal let go fre his bought seruauante an Hebrue, yf he haue serued him sixe yeares. But yor fathers obeyed me not & herkened not vnto me

15 As for you, ye were now turned, & dyd right before me, in yt ye proclaimed, euery ma to let his neghbour go fre, & in yt ye made a couenaunt before me, in the temple that beareth my name:

16 But yet ye haue turned youre selues agayne, and blasphemed my name: In this, yt euery man hath requyred his seruauant and handemayden agayne, whom ye had letten go quyte and fre, and compelled them to serue you agayne, and to be youre bonde men.

17 And therfore thus saith the LORDE: Ye haue not obeyed me, euery man to proclame fredome vnto his brother and neighbor: wherfore, I will call you vnto a fredome, saith the LORDE: euen vnto the swerde, to the pestilence, and to hunger, and will make you to be plaged in all the kyngdomes of the earth.

18 Yee those men that haue broke my couenaunt, and not kepte the wordes of the apoyntmet, which they made before me: when they hewed the calfe in two, & when there wente thorow the two halfes therof:

19 The prynces of Iuda, the prynces of Ierusalem, the gelded men, the prestes and all the people of the londe (which wete thorow the two sydes of the calfe.)

20 Those men wil I geue in to the power of their enemies, and in to the hondes of them that folowe vpon their luyes. And their deed bodies shall be meate for the foules of the ayre, and beestes of the felde.

21 As for Sedechias the kinge of Iuda & his prynces, I will deluyer them in to the power of their enemies, and of them that desyre to slaye them, and in to the honde of the kynge of Babilons hooste, which now is departed from you:

22 But thorow my commaundement (saieth the LORDE) they shal come agayne before this cite, they shall fight agaynst it, wynne it, and burne it. Morouer I will laye the cities of Iuda so waist, that no man shall dwell therein.

Chapter 35

1 The wordes which the LORDE spake vnto Ieremy, (in the reigne of Ioachim the sonne of Iosias kinge of Iuda) are these:

2 Go vnto ye house of the Rechabites, & call them out, & bringe the to ye house of the LORDE in to some commodious place, and geue them wyne to drynke.

3 Then toke I Iasania the sonne of Ieremy, the sonne of Habazania, and his brethre and all his sonnes, and the whole housholde off the Rechabites:

4 and brought them to the house off the LORDE, in to the closet of the children off Hanan the sonne off Igdalia the man off God: which was by the closet off the prynces, that is aboue the closet of Maasia the sonne of Sellum, which is the chefe off the tresury.

5 And before the sonnes of the kynred of the Rechabites, I set pottes full of wyne, and cuppes, and sayde vnto them: drynke wyne.

6 But they sayde: we drynke no wyne. For Ionadab the sonne of Rechab oure father commaunded vs, sayenge: Ye and youre sonnes shall neuer drynke wyne, buylde no houses, sowe no sede, plante no vynes,

7 yee ye shall haue no vnyardes: but for all youre tyme ye shall dwell in tetes, yt ye maye lye loge in the lode, wherin ye be straungers.

8 Thus haue we obeyed the comaundemet of Ionadab ye sonne of Rechab oure father, in all yt he hath charged vs, and so we drynke no wyne all oure lye longe: we, oure wyues, or sonnes & oure daughters.

9 Nether buylde we eny house to dwell therein, we haue also amonge vs nether vnyardes, ner corne lode to sowe:

10 but we dwell in tentes, we obeye, & do accordinge vnto all, that Ionadab oure father commaunded vs.

11 But now yt Nabuchodonosor the kinge of Babilo came vp in to the lode, we sayde: come, let vs go to Ierusalem, yt we maye escape the hooste of the Caldees ad the Assirias: & so we dwell now at Ierusalem.

12 Then came ye worde of the LORDE vnto Ieremy, sayenge:

13 Thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: Go & tell whole Iuda & all the inhabitours of Ierusalem: Wyll ye not be reformed, to obeye my wordes? saieth the LORDE.

14 The wordes which Ionadab the sonne off Rechab comaunded his sonnes, yt they shulde drynke no wyne, are fast & surely kepte: for vnto this daye they drynke no wyne: but obeye their fathers comaundement. But as for me, I haue stode vp early, I haue spoke vnto you, & geuen you earnest warnynge: & yet haue ye not bene obediet vnto me.

15 Yee I haue sent my seruantes, all the prophetes vnto you, I rose vp early, & sent you worde, sayenge: O turne you, euery man from his wicked waye: amede yor luyes, & go not after straunge goddes, to worshippe the: yt ye maye cotinue in the lode, which I haue geuen vnto you and youre fathers, but ye wolde nether heare me, ner folowe me.

16 The childre of Ionadab Rachabs sonne haue stedfastly kepte their fathers comaundement, yt he gaue them, but this people is not obediet vnto me

17 And therefore thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes ye God of Israel: Beholde, I wil bringe vpo Iuda & vpo euery one yt dwelleth in Ierusalem, all the trouble yt I haue deuysed agaynst the. For I haue spoke vnto the, but they wolde not folowe: I haue called vnto them, neuertheles they wolde geue me no answer.

18 Ieremy also spake vnto the housholde off the Rechabites: Thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: For so moch as ye haue obeyed ye comaundemet of Ionadab yor father, & kepte all his preceptes, & done accordinge vnto all yt he hath bydden you:

19 Therefore thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: Ionadab the sonne of Rechab shal not fayle, but haue one out of his stocke, to stode allwaye before me.

Chapter 36

1 In the fourth yere of Ioachim the sonne of Iosias kyng of Iuda, came ye worde of the LORDE vnto Ieremy, saye:

2 Take a boke, & write therein all ye wordes, yt I haue spoke to the, to Israel, to Iuda & to all the people, fro the tyme yt I begane for to speake vnto the (in ye reigne of Iosias) vnto this daye.

3 That when the house of Iuda heareth of the plage, which I haue deuysed for the, they maye peradueture turne, eueryman fro his wicked waye, that I maye forgeue their offences and synnes.

4 Then dyd Ieremy call Baruch the sonne of Nerias, & Baruch wrote in the boke at ye mouth of Ieremy, all the wordes of the LORDE, which he had spoken vnto him.

5 And Ieremy commaunded Baruch sayenge: I am in preson, so that I maye not come in to the house of ye LORDE:

6 therefore go thou thither, & rede the boke, that thou hast writte at my mouth:

Namely, the wordes off the LORDE, & rede the in the LORDES house vpon the fastinge daye: that the people, whole Iuda, & all they that come out of the cities, maye heare.

7 Peraduenture they will praye mekely before the face of the LORDE, and turne, euery one from his wicked waye. For greate is the wrath and displeasure, that the LORDE hath taken agaynst this people.

8 So Baruch the sonne of Nerias dyd, accordinge vnto all that Ieremy the prophet comauded him, readinge the wordes off the LORDE out off the boke in the LORDES house.

9 And this was done in the fyfth yere off Ioachim ye sonne of Iosias kinge of Iuda, in the ix. moneth when it was commaunded, that all the people of Ierusalem shulde fast before the LORDE, and they also that were come from the cities of Iuda vnto Ierusalem.

10 Then red Baruch the wordes of Ieremy out of the boke within the house of the LORDE, out of ye treasury of Gamarias the sonne off Saphan the scribe, which is besyde the hyer loffte off the new dore of the LORDES house: that all ye people might heare.

11 Now whe Micheas the sonne off Gamarias the sonne of Saphan had herde all the wordes of the LORDE out of ye boke, 12 he wete downe to the kinges palace in to ye scribes chabre for there all ye prynces were set: Elisama the scribe, Dalias the sonne of Semei, Elnatha the sonne off Achbor, Gamaria the sonne of Saphan, Sedechias the sonne of Hananias, with all the prynces.

13 And Micheas tolde them all the wordes, yt he herde Baruch rede out of the boke before the people.

14 Then all the prynces sent Iehudi ye sonne of Nathanas the sonne of Salamia the sonne of Chusi, vnto Baruch, sayenge: Take in thine honde the boke, wherout thou hast red before all the people, and come. So Baruch the sonne of Nerias toke ye boke in his honde, and came vnto them.

15 And they sayde vnto him: Syt downe, and rede the boke, yt we maye heare also. So Baruch red, yt they might heare.

16 Now when they had herde all the wordes, they were abashed one vpon another, and sayde vnto Baruch: We wil certifie the kinge of all these wordes

17 And they examined Baruch, sayenge: Tell vs, how didest thou wryte all these wordes out off his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them: He spake all these wordes vnto me with his mouth, and I alone was with him, and wrote them in the boke.

19 Then sayde the prynces vnto Baruch: Go thy waye, and hyde the with Ieremy, so that no man knowe where ye be.

20 And they went in to the kinge to the courte. But they kepte the boke in the chabre off Elisama the scribe, ad tolde the kyng of all the wordes, that he might heare.

21 So the kyng sent Iehudi to fetch him ye boke, which he brought out of Elisama ye scribes chabre. And Iehudi red it, that the kyng and all the prynces, which were aboute him, might heare.

22 Now the kyng sat in the wynter house, for it was in the ix. Moneth, and there was a good fyre before him.

23 And whe Iehudi had red thre or foure leaues therof, he cut the boke in peces with a penne knyfe, and cast it in to the fyre vpo the herth, vntil the boke was all brente in the fyre vpon the herth.

24 Yet no man was abashed therof, or rente his clothes: nether the kyng himselfe, ner his seruantes, though they herde all these wordes.

25 Neuertheles Elnathan, Dalias ad Gamarias, besoughte the kinge, that he wolde not burne the boke: notwithstandinge ye kyng wolde not heare them,

26 but commaunded Ieremyhel the sonne off Amalech, Sarias the sonne of Esriel and Selamia ye sonne of Abdiel, to laye hondes vpon Baruch the scribe, and vpon Ieremy the prophet: but the LORDE kepte them out of sight.

27 After now that the kyng had brente the boke, ad ye sermons which Baruch wrote at ye mouth off Ieremy: The worde of the LORDE came vnto Ieremy sayenge:

28 Take another boke, and write in it all the forsayde sermons, that were written in the first boke, which Ioachim the kyng off Iuda hath brente.

29 And tell Ioachim the kyng off Iuda, Thus saieth the LORDE: thou hast brente ye boke, and thoughtest within thy selff: Why hast thou written therein, that the kyng off Babilon shal come, & make this lode waist? so that he shall make both people and catel to be out of it?

30 Therefore thus the LORDE saieth, off Ioachim the kyng of Iuda: There shal none of his generacion syt vpon the trone of Dauid. His deed corse shalbe cast out, that the heat off the daye, and the frost of the night maye come vpon him:

31 And I will vsyet the wickednes of him, of his sede, and of his seruantes. Morouer all the euell that I haue promised the (though they herde me not) will I bringe vpon them, vpon ye inhabitours of Ierusalem, and vpon all Iuda.

32 Then toke Ieremy another boke, and gaue it Baruch the scribe the sonne of Nerias, which wrote therein out of the mouth off Ieremy: all the sermons that were in the first boke, which Ioachim the kyng off Iuda dyd burne. And there were added vnto them many mo sermons, then before.

Chapter 37

1 Sedechias ye sonne of Iosias (which was made kyng thorow Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babilon) reigned in the londe of Iuda, in the steade off Iechonias the sonne of Ioachim.

2 But nether he, ner his seruautes, ner the people in the lode wolde obeye the wordes of ye LORDE, which he spake by the prophet Ieremy.

3 Neuertheles Sedechias the kynge sent Iuchal the sonne of Selamia and Sophonias the sonne of Maasia the prest to the prophet Ieremy, sayenge: O praye thou vnto the LORDE oure God for vs.

4 Now Ieremy walked fre amonge the people at that tyme, and was not put in preson as yet.

5 Pharaos hooste also was come out of Egipte: which when the Caldees that beseged Ierusalem, perceaued, they departed from thence.

6 Then came the worde of the LORDE vnto Ieremy the prophet, sayenge:

7 Thus saith ye LORDE God of Israel, This answeere shal ye geue to the kynge of Iuda, that sent you vnto me for counsell: Beholde, Pharaos hooste which is come forth to helpe you, shall returne to Egipte in to his owne londe:

8 But the Caldees shall come agayne, & fight agaynst this cite, wyne it, and set fyre vpon it.

9 For thus saith the LORDE: disceauce not yor owne myndes, thinkynge on this maner: Tush, the Caldees go now their waye from vs: No, they shall not go their waye.

10 For though ye had slayne the whole hooste off the Caldees. that besege you, and euery one of the slayne laye in his tent, yet shulde they stonde vp, and set fyre vpon this cite.

11 Now whe the hooste of the Caldees was broke vp from Ierusalem for feare of the Egipcians armye, 12 Ieremy went out of Ierusalem towarde the lode of Ben Iamin, to do certayne busynesse there amoge ye people.

13 And whe he came vnder Ben Iamyns Porte, there was a porter called Ierias the sonne of Selamia ye zone of Hananias, which fell vpo him & toke him, sayenge: yi mynde is to runne to the Caldees.

14 Then sayde Ieremy: It is not so, I go not to the Caldees. Neuertheles Ierias wolde not beleue him, but brought Ieremy boude before the princes.

15 Wherfore the princes were angrie with Ieremy, causinge him to be beaten, & to be layed in preson in the house of Ionathas the scribe. For he was the ruler of the preson.

16 Thus was Ieremy put in to the dongeon & preson, and so laye there a longe tyme.

17 Then Sedechias the kynge sent for him, & called him, & axed him quietly in his owne house, sayenge: thinkest thou this busynes (that now is in honde) cometh of the LORDE? Ieremy answerde: yee yt it doth: & thou (sayde he) shalt be deluyered in to the kynge of Babilons power.

18 Morouer, Ieremy sayde vnto kynge Sedechias: What haue I offended agaynst ye, agaynst thy seruautes, or agaynst this people, that ye haue caused me be put in preson?

19 Where are youre prophetes, which haue prophecied vnto you and sayde, that ye kynge of Babilo shulde not come agaynst you & this lode?

20 And therfore heare now, o my lorde the kynge: let my prayer be accepte before the, & sende me nomore in to ye house of Ionathas the scribe, that I dye not there.

21 Then Sedechias the kynge commaunded to put Ieremy in the fore entrie off the preson, and dayly to the geuen him a cake of bred, and els no dighte meate, vntill all the bred in the cite was eaten vp. Thus Ieremy remayned in ye fore entre off the preson.

Chapter 38

1 Saphatias the sonne off Matha, Gedolias the sonne of Pashur, Iuchal the sonne of Selamia, & Pashur the sonne of Malchias perceaued the wordes, yt Ieremy had spoke vnto all the people, namely on this maner:

2 Thus saith the LORDE: Who so remayneth in this cite, shall perisher, ether with the swearde, with hunger or with pestilence: But who so falleth vnto the Caldees, shal escape, wynnynge his soule for a pray, & shal lyue.

3 For thus saith the LORDE This cite (no doute) must be deluyered into ye power of the kige of Babilo, & he also shal wyne it.

4 The sayde the prynces vnto ye kynge: Syr, we besech you let this man be put to death, For thus he discourageth the hodes of the soudyers yt be in this cite, & the hodes of all the people, whe he speaketh soch wordes vnto the. This ma verely laboureth not for peace of ye people, but mischeffe.

5 Sedechias the kinge answered and sayde: lo, he is in yor hodes, for ye kige maye denye you nothinge.

6 Then toke they Ieremy, and cast him in to the dongeon off Malchias the sonne off Amalech, that dwelt in the fore entre off the preson. And they let downe Ieremy wt coardes in to a dongeon, where there was no water, but myre.

7 So Ieremy stack fast in the myre. Now when Abdemelech the Morian beyng a chamberlayne in the kynges courte, vnderstode, that they had cast Ieremy in to the dongeon:

8 he went out off the kynges house, and spake to the kynge (which the sat vnder the porte off Ben Iamin) these wordes:

9 My lorde the kynge, where as these men medle with Ieremy the prophet, they do him wronge: Namely, in that they haue put him in preson, there to dye of hunger, for there is no more bred in the cite.

10 The the kynge commauded Abdemelech the Morian, and sayde: Take from hece xxx. men whom thou wilt, & drawe vp Ieremy the prophet out of the dongeon, before he dye.

11 So Abdemelech toke the men wt him, & went to ye house of Amalech, & there vnder an almery he gat olde ragges & worne cloutes, & let the downe by a coarde, in to the dongeon to Ieremy.

12 And Abdemelech the Morian sayde vnto the prophet Ieremy: O put these ragges and cloutes vnder thine arme holes, betwixte the and the coardes: ad Ieremy dyd so.

13 So they drewe vp Ieremy with coardes and toke him out of the dongeon, and he remayned in the fore entrie of the preson.

14 The Sedechias the kynge sent and caused Ieremy the prophet be called vnto him, in to the thirde entrie, that was by the house off the LORDE. And the kynge sayde vnto Ieremy: I wil axe the somewhat, but hyde nothinge fro me.

15 The Ieremy answerde Sedechias: Yf I be playne vnto the, thou wilt cause me suffre death: yf I geue the coucell, thou wilt not folowe me.

16 So the kynge swore an ooth secretly vnto Ieremy, sayenge: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, that made vs these soules, I wil not slaye the, ner geue the in to the hodes of them, that seke after thy life.

17 Then sayde Ieremy vnto Sedechias: Thus saith ye LORDE off hoostes the God of Israel: Yf case be, that thou wilt go forth vnto the kynge off Babilons prynces, thou shalt saue thy life, and this cite shall not be bret, yee both thou and thy housholde shall escape with youre lyues.

18 But yff thou wilt not go forth to the kynge off Babilons prynces, then shal this cite be deluyered in to the hodes of the Caldees which shal set fyre vpon it, and thou shalt be able to escape them.

19 And Sedechias sayde vnto Ieremy: I am afrayde for the Iewes, that are fled vnto the Caldees, lest I come in their hodes, and so they to haue me in derision.

20 But Ieremy answerde: No, they shal not betraye the: O herken vnto the voyce off the LORDE (I beseke ye) which I speake vnto the, so shalt thou be well, and saue thy life.

21 But yf thou wilt not go forth, the LORDE hath tolde me this planely:

22 Beholde, all the women that are left in the kynge of Iudaes house, shal go out to the kynge of Babilons prynces. For they thynke, yt thou art disceaued: and that ye men in whom thou didest put thy trust, haue gotten the vnder, and set thy fete fast in the myre, and gone their waye from the.

23 Therefore all thy wyues with their children shal fle vnto the Caldees, and thou shalt not escape their hodes, but shalt be ye kynge of Babilons presoner, & this cite shall be brent.

24 Then sayde Sedechias vnto Ieremy: loke yt no body knowe off these wordes, and thou shalt not dye.

25 But yf the prynces perceaued, that I haue talked with the, and come vnto the, sayenge: O speake, what sayde the kynge to the? hyde it not from vs, and we wil not put the to death. Tell vs (we praye the) what sayde ye kynge to the?

26 Se thou geue them this answer: I haue humbly besought the kynge, that he will let me lye nomore in Ionathas house, that I dye not there?

27 Then came all the princes vnto Ieremy, and axed him, And he tolde them, after the maner as the kynge bad him. Then they helde their peace, for they perceaued nothinge.

28 So Ieremy abode still in the fore entrie off the preson, vntill the daye that Ierusalem was wonne.

Chapter 39

1 Now when the cite off Ierusalem was taken (for in the ix. yeare of Sedechias kynge of Iuda in the tenth Moneth, came Nabuchodonosor the kynge off Babilon and all his hooste, and beseged Ierusalem.

2 And in the xi. yeare of Sedechias in the fourth Moneth ye ix. daye of ye Moneth, he brake in to the cite).

3 Then all the kynge of Babilons prynces came in, & sat the downe vnder the porte: Nergall, Sarezzer, Samgarnebo, Sarsechim, Rabsaris, Nergal, Sarezzer, Rabmag, with all the other prynces of the kynge of Babilon.

4 And when Sedechias the kynge of Iuda with his soudyers sawe them, they fled, and departed out of ye cite by night thorow the kynges garde, and thorow the porte that is betwene the two walles, and so they wente towarde the wilderness.

5 But the Caldees hooste folowed fast after them, and toke Sedechias in the felde of Iericho, and brought him presoner to Nabuchodonosor the kynge off Babilo vnto Reblatha, that lieth in the londe off Hemath where he gaue iugdment vpon him.

6 So the kynge of Babilon caused the children of Sedechias and all the nobles off Iuda be slayne, before his face at Reblatha

7 And made Sedechias eyes be put out, and boude him with chaynes, and sent him to Babilon.

8 Morouer, the Caldees bret vp the kynges palace, with ye other houses of the people, and brake downe the walles off Ierusalem.

9 As for the remnaunt of the people that were in the cite, and soch as were come to helpe them (what so euer was left of the come sorte) Nabuzaradan the chefe captayne caried them to Babilon.

10 But Nabuzarada the chefe captayne let the rascall people (and those that had nothinge) dwell still in the lode off Iuda, and gaue them vnyardes and corne felde at the same tyme.

11 Nabuchodonosor also the kynge of Babilon gaue Nabuzarada the chefe captayne a charge, cocernynge Ieremy, sayenge:

12 take and cherish him, and make moch off him: se thou do him no harme, but intreate him after his owne desyre.

13 So Nabuzarada ye chefe captayne, Nabusa?ba the chefe chamberlayne, Nergalsarezzer the treasurer and all the kynge of Babilons lordes, sent for Ieremy, 14 & caused him be fet out off the fore entrie off the preson, and committed him vnto Godolias the sonne off Ahicam the sonne of Saphan: that he shulde carie him home, and so he dwelt amonge the people.

15 Now whyle Ieremy laye yet bounde in the fore entrie of the preson, ye worde off the LORDE came vnto him sayenge: 16 Go, and tell Abdemelech the Morian: Thus saieith the LORDE off hoostes ye God off Israel: Beholde, the cruell and sharpe plage that I haue deuyded for this cite, will I brynge vpon them, that thou shalt se it:

17 but I wil delyuer the (sayeth the LORDE) and thou shalt not come in the hondes off those men, whom thou fearest.

18 For doutles I will saue the, so that thou shalt not perish with the swearde: but thy life shalbe saued, and that because thou hast put thy trust in me, saieith the LORDE.

Chapter 40

1 This is the maner, how the LORDE intreated Ieremy, when Nebuzaradan the chefe captayne had let him go fre from Rama, whither as he had led him bounde, amonge all the presoners, that were caried from Ierusalem and Iuda vnto Babilon.

2 The chefe captayne called for Ieremy, and sayde vnto him: The LORDE thy God spake mightly before off the mysery vpon this place:

3 Now the LORDE hath sent it, and perfourmed it, as he had promised: For ye haue synned agaynst the LORDE, and haue not bene obedient vnto his voyce, therefore commeth this plage vpon you.

4 Beholde, I lowse the bondes from thy hodes this daye: yf thou wilt now go with me vnto Babilon, vp the: For I will se to the, and prouyde for the: But yf thou wilt not go with me to Babilon, then remayne here. Beholde, all the londe is at thy will: loke where thou thinkest conuenient & good for the to Abyde, there dwell.

5 Yf thou canst not be content to dwell alone, then remayne wt Godolias the sonne off Ahica the sonne of Sapha, whom the kyng of Babilo hath made gouernoure ouer ye cities of Iuda, & dwell wt him amonge the people, or remayne, where so euer it pleaseth ye. So the chefe captayne gaue him his expes wt a rewarde, & let him go.

6 Then wete Ieremy vnto Godolias ye sonne of Ahica to Masphat, & dwelt there wt him amonge the people that were left in the londe.

7 Now when ye captaynes of the hooste of Iuda (which wt their felowes were scatred abrode on euery syde in ye lode) vnderstode, yt the kyng of Babilo had made Godolias ye sonne of Ahica gouernoure in the lode, & yt man, wife & childe, yee & the poore men in the londe (yt were not led captiue to Babilon) shulde be vnder his Iurisdictio:

8 They came to Godolias vnto Masphat: Namely, Ismael the sonne of Nathania, Iohana & Ionathas the sonnes of Carea, Sareas the sonne of Tanhometh, the sonnes of Opheus ye Netophetite, Iesania ye sonne of Machati, wt their copanyons.

9 And Godolias the sonne of Ahicam the sonne off Sapha, swore vnto the & their felowes on this maner: Be not afrayed to serue the Caldees, dwell in the lode, & do the kyng of Babilon seruyce, so shal ye prospere.

10 Beholde, I dwell at Masphat to be an officer in the Caldees behalfe, & to satisfie soch as come to vs. Therefore gather you wyne, corne and oyle, and kepe them in youre ware houses, and dwell in youre cities, that ye haue in kepunge.

11 Yee all the Iewes also yt dwelt in Moab vnder ye Ammonites, in Idumea & in all ye coutrees, whe they herde, yt the kinge of Babilo had made Godolias the sonne of Ahica the sonne of Sapha, gouernoure vpo the yt were left in Iuda: 12 All the Iewes (I saye) returned out off all places where they were fled vnto: & came in to the lode of Iuda to Godolias vnto Masphat, & gathered wyne and other frutes, and that very moch.

13 Morouer Iohanna the sonne of Carea & all ye captaynes of ye hooste, yt were scatred on euery syde in the londe, came to Godolias in Masphat, & sayde vnto him:

14 knowest thou not yt Baalis kinge of ye Ammonites hath sent Ismael ye sonne of Nathania, to slaye the? But Godolias ye sonne of Ahica beleued the not.

15 The sayde Iohana the sonne of Carea vnto Godolias in Masphat these wordes secretly: Let me go (I praye the) & I will slaye Ismael the sonne of Nathania, so yt no body shal knowe it. Wherefore will he kyl the, yt all the Iewes which resorte vnto the, might be scatred, & the remnaunt in Iuda perishe?

16 The sayde Godolias the sonne of Ahicam to Iohanna the sonne of Carea: Thou shalt not do it, for they are but lies, that men saye of Ismael.

Chapter 41

1 Bvt in the seuenth Moneth it happened, yt Ismael the sonne of Nathania ye sonne of Elisama (one of ye kynges bloude) came wt the that were greatest aboute the kyng, & ten men that were sworne with him: vnto Godolias the sonne off Ahicam to Masphat, and eate there together.

2 And Ismael ye sonne of Nathania wt those ten men that were sworne to him, starre vp, and smote Godolias the sonne of Ahicam the sonne of Saphan wt the swearde, & slewe hym, whom the kyng off Babilo had made gouernoure off the londe.

3 Ismael also slewe all the Iewes that were with Godolias at Masphat, and all the Caldees that he founde there waitynge vpon him.

4 The nexte daye after that he had slayne Godolias (the matter was yet vnknowne) 5 there came certayne men from Siche, fro Silo and Samaria, to the nombre off lxxx. which had shauen their beerdes, rent their clothes, & were all heuye, bringinge meatoffringes and incense in their hondes, to offre it in the house off the LORDE.

6 And Ismael the sonne of Nathamas went forth of Masphat wepinge, to mete them. Now whe he met them, he sayde: Go youre waye to Godolias the sonne of Ahicam.

7 And when they came in the myddest off the cite, Ismael the sonne off Nathamas (with them that were sworne vnto him) slewe them, eue at the myddest off the pyt.

8 Amonge these lxxx. me there were ten, yt sayde vnto Ismael: Oh slaye vs not, for we haue yet a greate treasure in the felde, off wheate, barley, oyle and hony. So he spared the, and slewe them not with their brethren.

9 Now the pyt wherin Ismael dyd cast the deed bodies off the me (whom he slewe because off Godolias) had kyng Asa caused to be made, for feare off Baasa the kyng off Israel, and the same pit dyd Ismael fyll with slayne men.

10 As for the renaunt off th peeple, the kynges doughters and all the people that were yet left at Masphat; vpon whom Nabusaradan the chefe Captayne had made Godolias the sonne of Ahicam gouernoure: Ismael the sonne off Nathania caried them awaye presoners towarde the Ammonites.

11 But when Iohana the sonne off Carea and all they which had bene captaynes ouer the kynges hooste with him, herde off all the wickednes that Ismael the sonne off Nathania had done:

12 they toke their companyons, and wente out for to fight with Ismael the sone of Nathania, and founde him by the waters of Rabim in Gabaa.

13 Now when all the people, whom Ismael led captiue, sawe Iohana ye sonne off Carea and all the other captaynes off the hooste, they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ismael had caried awaye fro Masphat, were brought agayne. And whe they returned, they came to Iohanna the sonne off Carea.

15 But Ismael the sonne off Nathania fled from Iohana wt eight of his sworne companyons, & wente to the Ammonites.

16 Then Iohanna the sonne of Carea and all the captaynes of the hooste that were wt him, toke the remnaunt of the people, whom Ismael the sonne of Nathania had led awaye (When he had slayne Godolias the sonne of Ahica) whom they also had rescued from him: fightinge men, women & children, and gelded men, whom they brought agayne from Gabaa:

17 and wente from thence, and sat them downe at Geruth Chimham, which lieth besyde Bethlee, that they might go into Egipte for feare of the Caldees:

18 of whom they were afrayed, because that Ismael the sonne off Nathania had slayne Godolias Ahicams sonne, whom the kyng off Babilon had made gouernoure in the londe.

Chapter 42

1 So all the rulers, and Iohana the sonne off Carea, Iesania the sonne off Osias came with all the people fro the leest vnto the most,

2 & sayde vnto Ieremy the prophet: O heare oure peticio, that thou mayest praye for vs vnto the LORDE yi God, and for the remnaunt, wherof there be very few left off many, as thou seist vs:

3 that the LORDE thy God maye shewe vs a waye to go in, & tell vs, what we shulde do.

4 Then Ieremy the prophete sayde vnto them: I haue herde you. Beholde, I will praye vnto God youre LORDE, as ye haue requyred me: and loke what answere the LORDE geueth you, I shall certifie you theroff, and kepe nothinge back fro you.

5 And they sayde vnto Ieremy: The LORDE off treuth & faithfulnes be oure recorde, that we wil do all, that the LORDE thy God commaundeth vs,

6 whether it be good or euell. We will herken vnto the voyce off oure LORDE God, to whom we sende the: that we maye prospere, when we haue folowed the voyce off the LORDE oure God.

7 And after ten dayes came the worde off the LORDE vnto Ieremy.

8 Then called he Iohanna the sonne of Carea, and all the captaynes of the people that were with him: Yee & all the people from the leest to the most,

9 & sayde vnto them: Thus saieith the LORDE God of Israel vnto whom ye sent me, to laye forth youre prayers before him:

10 Yf ye wil dwell in this londe, I shall buylde you vp, & not breake you downe: I shall plante you, & not rote you out: for I am pacified, as cocernynge the trouble that I haue done to you.

11 Feare not the kyng off Babilon, off whom ye stonde in awe: O be not afrayed off him, saieith the LORDE: for I will be with you, to helpe you, and delyuer you from his honde.

12 I will pardon you, I wil haue mercy vpon you, and brynge you agayne in to youre owne londe.

13 Neuertheless, yf ye purpose not to dwell in this londe, ner to folowe the voyce off the LORDE youre God:

14 but will saye thus: we will not dwell here, but go in to Egipte: where we shall nether se warre, heare the noyse off batell, ner suffre hunger, there will we dwell.

15 Wherefore heare now the worde of the LORDE, o ye remnaunt of Iuda. Thus saieith the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: Yf ye be whole purposed to go in to Egipte, ad to be there as straugers:

16 the swearde that ye feare, shall ouertake you in Egipte: and the hunger wheroff ye be here afrayed, shall hange vpon you into Egipte, and there ye shall dye.

17 For all they, that off set purpose vndertake to go in to Egipte, there to ease them selues off their mysery, shall perish with the swerde, with honger and pestilence: not one off them shall remayne, there shal none escape the plage, that I wil bringe vpon them.

18 For thus saieith the LORDE off hoostes the God off Israel: like as my wrath and indignacion is come vpon the inhabitours of Ierusalem, so shall my displeasure go forth vpon you also, yf ye go in to Egipte: For there ye shalbe reuyled, abhorred, brought to shame and confucion: and as for this place, ye shall neuer se it more.

19 The LORDE forbyddeth you (o ye remnaut of Iuda) that ye shall not go in to Egipte. And forget not that I haue warned you earnestly this daye

20 Is shal ye begyle youre selues. For ye sent me vnto the LORDE youre God, and sayde: O praye thou the LORDE oure God for vs: and loke what answere the LORDE oure God geueth the, that bringe vs agayne, ad we shall do thereafter.

21 Now haue I shewed, and declared vnto you the voyce off the LORDE youre God, for the which cause he hath sent me to you.

22 Yf ye will not folowe it, be sure, yt ye shall perishe with the swerde, with honger & pestilence: euen in the same place, where youre lust was to go, and dwell.

Chapter 43

1 Now when Ieremy had ended all ye wordes of ye LORDE God vnto ye people, (for their sakes to whom God had sent him)

2 Asarias the sonne of Osias, & Iohana ye sonne of Carea, with all the proude personnes, sayde vnto Ieremy: Thou lvest, the LORDE oure God hath not sent ye to speake vnto vs, that we shulde not go in to Egipte, and dwell there:

3 But Baruch the sonne of Nerias prouoketh the agaynst vs, that he might bringe vs in to the captuyte off the Caldees: that they might slaye vs, and carie vs awaye prsoners vnto Babilon.

4 So Iohanna the sonne of Carea, and all the captaynes of the hooste, and all the people folowed not the commaundement of the LORDE: Namely, to dwell in the londe off Iuda:

5 But Iohanna the sonne of Carea & all the captaynes of the hooste, caried awaye all the remnaut in Iuda, that were come together agayne from the Heithen (among whom they had bene scatred) to dwell in the londe of Iuda:

6 Men, women, childre, the kynges doughters: all those that Nabusaradan the chefe captayne had left with Godolias the sonne of Ahicam. They caried awaye also the prophet Ieremy, Baruch the sonne of Nerias,

7 and so came in to Egipte: for they were not obedient vnto the commaundement of God. Thus came they to Taphnis.

8 And in Taphnis the worde off the LORDE happened vnto Jeremy, sayenge:

9 Take greate stones in thine hode, and hyde them in the brick wall, vnder the dore off Pharaos house in Taphnis, that all the men of Iuda maye se,

10 and saye vnto them: Thus saieith the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: Beholde, I will sende and call for Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babilon my seruaunt, and will set his seate vpon these stones that I haue hyd, and he shall sprede his tente ouer them.

11 And when he commeth, he shal smyte the lode of Egipte with slaughter, with presonment and with the swerde.

12 He shall set fyre vpon the temples of the Egipcias goddes, and burne them vp, & take them selues prsoners. Morouer he shall araye himself wt the lode of Egipte, like as a shepherde putteth on his cote, and shall departe his awaye from thence in peace.

13 The pilers also of the temple of the Sonne that is in Egipte, shal he breake in peces, and burne the tempels of the Egipcians goddes.

Chapter 44

1 This is the worde yt was shewed to Jeremy cecerninge all ye Iewes, which dwelt in Egipte: at Magdal, at Taphnis, at Memphis, & in the londe of Patures.

2 Thus saieith the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: Ye haue sene all ye mysery, yt I haue brought vpon Ierusalem, and vpon all the cities of Iuda: so that this daye they are desolate, and no man dwellinge therein:

3 & yt because of the greate blasphemies, which they committed, to prouoke me vnto anger: In that they wente backe to do sacrifice ad worshipe vnto straunge goddes: whom nether they, ner ye, ner yor fathers haue knowne.

4 How be it, I sent vnto them my seruantes all the prophetes: I rose vp early, I sent vnto them, and gaue them warninge: O do no such abhominable thinges, & thinges that I hate

5 But they wolde not folowe ner herke, to turne from their wickednes, and to do nomore sacrifice vnto straunge goddes.

6 Wherefore my indignacion & wrath was kyndled, and it brente vp the cities of Iuda, the feldes with the stretes off Ierusalem: so that they were made waist and desolate, as it is come to passe this daye.

7 Now therfore thus saieith the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: How happeneth it, that ye do so greate euell vnto youre owne soules, thus to destroye the men and women, childre and babes of Iuda? so that none of you is left,

8 because ye prouoke me vnto wrath with the workes of youre owne hondes: wher ye offre vnto straunge goddes in the londe off Egipte, where as ye be gone to dwell: That ye might vtterly perishe, and that ye might be reuyled and shamfully intreated of all nacions.

9 Or, haue ye now forgotten the wickednes off yor forefathers, the wickednes off ye kynges of Iuda and their wyues, ye wickednes that ye youre selues ad youre wyues haue done in the londe of Iuda, in the cite and in the londe off Ierusalem?

10 Yet are ye not sory this daye, ye feare not, nether walke ye in my lawe and in my commaundementes, that I haue geue vnto you and youre forefathers.

11 Therfore thus saieith the LORDE of hoostes the God off Israel: I am stedfastly advysed and determed, to punysh you, and to rote out all Iuda.

12 As for the remnaut off Iuda that purposely wente in to Egipte, there to ease them off their mysery: I will take them, and they shall all be destroyed. In ye londe of Egipte shall they perishe, beyng consumed with the swerde and with honger. For from ye leest vnto ye most, they shal perishe with the swerde and with honger. Morouer they shalbe reuyled, abhorred, shamed, and confounded.

13 For I will viset them that dwell in Egipte, as I haue visited Ierusalem: with the swerde, with honger and with pestilence:

14 So that none off the remnaut off Iuda, which are gone to dwell in Egipte, shall be left to come agayne in to ye londe off Iuda: all though they thinke to come thither agayne, and to dwell there. For none shal come agayne, but such as are fled awaye.

15 Then all the men which knewe that their wyues had offred vnto straunge goddes, & a greate sorte off wyues that stode there, yee and all the people that dwelt there in Egipte in the cite of Patures, answerde Ieremy, & sayde:

16 As for the wordes that thou hast spoken vnto vs in the name of the LORDE, we will in no wyse heare them:

17 but what so euer goeth out of oure owne mouth, that wil we do: We will do sacrifice, and offre oblacions vnto the Quene off heauen: like as we and or forefathers, oure kynges and oure heades haue done in the cities off Iuda, and in the stretes and feldes of Ierusalem. For then had we plenteousnesse off vytales, then were we in prosperite, and no my?fortune came vpon vs.

18 But sens we left of, to offre, and to do sacrifice vnto the Quene of heauen, we haue had scarcenes of all thinges, and perish wt the swerde and honger.

19 Last of all, when we wome did sacrifice and offred vnto the Quene of heaue, did we make her cakes ad poure vnto her drinkofferings, to do her seruyce, without oure hu?bondes wylles?

20 Then sayde Ieremy vnto all the people, to the men, to the women and to all the folke, which had geuen him that answer:

21 Dyd not the LORDE remembre the sacrifices that ye, yor forefathers, youre kiges & rulers (wt all the people) haue offred in the cities of Iuda, in the stretes and londe off Ierusalem? and hath he not considered this in his mynde?

22 In so moch, that the LORDE might no longer suffre the wickednes off youre inuencions, and the abhominable thynges which ye dyd? Is not youre londe desolate & voyde, yee and abhorred, so that no ma dwelleth therein enymore, as it is come to passe this daye?

23 Dyd not all this happen vnto you, because ye made soch sacrifice, and synned agaynst the LORDE? Ye haue not folowed his voyce, to walke in his lawe, in his ordinaunces and statutes. Yee this is the cause, that all mysfortune happened vnto you, as it is come to passe this daye.

24 Morouer, Ieremy spake vnto all the people and to all the women: Heare the worde off the LORDE all Iuda, ye that be in the londe off Egipte:

25 Thus saieith the LORDE off hoostes the God of Israel: Ye and youre wyues haue spoken with youre owne mouth, the thinge that ye haue fulfilled in dede. Yee thus haue ye sayde: We will not fayle, but do the thyng that pleaseth vs: we wil do sacrifice and poure out drynkoffringes to the Quene of heauen. Purposly haue ye set vp youre owne good meanynges, & hastely haue ye fulfilled youre owne intente.

26 And therfore, heare the worde of the LORDE all Iuda, ye that dwell in the londe off Egipte. Beholde, I haue sworne by my greate name (saieith the LORDE) that my name shal not be rehearsed thorow eny mans mouth of Iuda, in all the londe of Egipte: to saye: The LORDE God Iyueth, 27 for I wil watch, to plage them, and not for their wealth. And all the men of Iuda that be in the lode of Egipte, shal perish with the swerde and with honger, vntill they be vtterly destroyed.

28 Neuertheles, those that fled awaye for ye swerde, shal come agayne in to the lode of Iuda (but there shal be very fewe of them) And all the remnaut off Iuda, that are gone in to Egipte, there to dwell, shall knowe, whose wordes shalbe founde true: theirs or myne.

29 Take this for a token, that I wil viset you in this place (saieith the LORDE) and that ye maye knowe, how that I (without doute) wil perfourne my purpose vpon you,) to punysh you.

30 Beholde (saieith the LORDE I wil deluyer Pharao Ophram kyng of Egipte in to the hondes of his enemies, yt seke after his life: euen as I gaue Sedechias the kyng of Iuda in to the hondes of Nabuchodonosor kige of Babilo, which sought after his life.

Chapter 45

1 These are the wordes yt Ieremy the prophet spake vnto Baruch the sonne of Nerias, after that he had written these Sermos into a boke at the mouth of Ieremy, In the fourth yeare of Ioachim the sonne of Iosias kyng of Iuda.

2 Thus saieith the LORDE God of Israel

vnto the, O Baruch:

3 In so moch as thou thoughtest thus (when thou wast writinge) Wo is me, the LORDE hath geuen me payne for my trauayle: I haue weeried my self wt sighinge, and shall I fynde no rest?

4 Therefore tell him (O Ieremy) yt the LORDE saieyth thus: Beholde, The thige that I haue buylded, wil I breake downe agayne, and rote out the thinge, that I haue planted, yee this whole londe.

5 And sekest thou yet promocio? Loke not for it, and desyre it not. For I will bringe a miserable plage vpo all flesh, saieyth the LORDE. But thy life will I geue the for a pray, where so euer thou goest.

Chapter 46

1 Here folowe the wordes off the LORDE to the prophet Ieremy, which he spake vnto the Gentiles.

2 These wordes folowinge preached he to the Egipcias concernynge the hoost off Pharao Necho kyng off Egipte, when he was in Charcamis besyde the water off Euphrates: what tyme as Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babilon slewe him, In the fourth yeare off Ioachim the sonne off Iosias kyng off Iuda.

3 Ye make redy buckler and shyld, ye go forth to fight:

4 Yee harness youre horses, & set youre selues vpon them: Ye set youre salettes fast on, ye bringe forth speares, ye scoure youre swerdes, & put on youre brest plates.

5 But alas, how happeneth it, that I se you so afrayed? why shrecke ye backe? where fore are youre worthies slayne? Yee they runne so fast awaye, that none off them loketh behynde him. Fearfulnesse is fallen vpon euerychone off them, saieyth the LORDE.

6 The lightest off fote shall not fle awaye, and the worthies shall not escape. Towarde the north by the water of Euphrates they shall stamble and fall.

7 But what is he this, that swelleth vp, as it were a floude, roaringe & raginge like the streames off water?

8 It is Egipte that ryseth vp like the floude, and casteth out the waters with so greate noyse. For they saye: We will go vp, and will couer the earth: we will destroye ye cities, with them that dwell therein.

9 Get you to horse backe, roll forth ye Charettes, come forth ye worthies: ye Morians, ye Libeans with youre buclers, ye Lideans with youre bowes:

10 So shall this daye be vnto the LORDE God of hoostes, a daye of vegeaunce, that he maye avege him of his enemies. The swerde shal deuoure, it shalbe satisfied and bated in their bloude: For the LORDE God off hoostes shall haue a slayneoffringe towarde the North, by the water of Euphrates.

11 Go vp (o Galaad) & bringe triacle vnto the daughter off Egipte: But in vayne shalt thou go to surgery, for thy wounde shall not be stopped.

12 The Heithen shall heare off thy shame, and the londe shalbe full of thy confucion: for one stronge man shall stomble vpon another, how then shulde they not fall both together?

13 These are the wordes that the LORDE spake to the prophet Ieremy, concernynge ye hoost of Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babilon, which was to destroye the londe off Egipte:

14 Preach out thorow the londe of Egipte, and cause it be proclaimed at Migdal, Memphis and Taphnis, and saye: Stonde still, make the redie, for the swerde shal consume the rounde aboute.

15 How happeneth it that thy mightie worthies are fallen? why stode they not fast? Euen because the LORDE thrust them downe.

16 The slaughter was greate, for one fell euer still vpon another. One cried vpon another: Vp, let vs go agayne to oure owne people, and to oure owne naturall countre, from the swerde of oure enemye.

17 Crie euen there: O Pharao kyng of Egipte, the tyme will bringe sedicion.

18 As truly as I lyue (saieyth the kyng, whose name is the LORDE of hoostes) it shall come as ye mount of Thabor, and as Libanus yf it stode in the see.

19 O thou daughter of Egipte, make redy thy geer to flyt. For Memphis shalbe voyde and desolate, so that no ma shal dwell therein.

20 The londe of Egipte is like a goodly fayre calfe, but one shall come out of the north to dryue her forwarde.

21 Hir wagied souldyers that be with her, are like fat calves. They also shall fle awaye together, and not abyde: for the daye off their slaughter and the tyme of their visitacion shall come vpon them.

22 The crie off their enemies shall make a noyse, as the blast of a trompet. For they shall entre in with their hooste, and come wt axes, as it were hewers downe of wod.

23 And they shall cut downe hir wod (saieyth the LORDE) with out eny discrecion. For they shal be mo in noble then the greshoppers, so that no man shalbe able to tell the.

24 The daughter of Egipte shalbe confounded. whe she shalbe delyuered in to the hondes off the people off the north.

25 Morouer thus saieyth the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: Beholde I will vyset that restlesse people off Alexandria, Pharao and Egipte, yee both their goddes and their kynges: euen Pharao, and all them yt litten vnto him.

26 Yee I will delyuer them in to the hondes off those, that seke after their lyues: Namely, in to the power off Nabuchodonosor the kyng off Babilon, and in to the power off his seruantes. And after all these thinges, it shalbe inhabited as afore tyme, saieyth the LORDE

27 But be not thou afrayed (o my seruaunt Iacob) feare not thou, o Israel. For lo, I wil helpe the from farre, and thy sede from the londe of thy captiuyte. Iacob also shall come agayne, and be in rest: he shall be rich, and no man shall do him harme.

28 Feare thou not (o Iacob my seruaunt) saieyth the LORDE, for I am with the: and will destroye all nacions, amonge whom I haue scatred the. Neuertheles I will not consume the, but chasten the and correcke the: yee and that with discrecion: nether wil I spare the, as one that were faultlesse.

Chapter 47

1 These are the wordes, that the LORDE spake vnto Ieremy the prophet agaynst the Phylistines, before that Pharao smote the cite off Gaza.

2 Thus saieyth the LORDE: Beholde, there shall waters arise out off the north: and shall growe to a greate floude, runnyng ouer and coueryng the londe, the cities and them that dwell therein. And the men shall crie, and all they that dwell in the londe, shall mourne

3 at the noyse and stampynge off their stronge barded horses, at the shakynge off their charettes, and at the romblinge off the wheles. The fathers shall not loke to their children, so feable and weery shall their hondes be:

4 at the same tyme, when he shal be there, to destroye the whole londe off the Phylistynes. He shall make waist both Tirus, Sidon ad all other that are sworne vnto them. For the LORDE will destroye all Palestina, and the other Iles, that be deuyded fro the countre.

5 Baldnesse is come vpon Gaza, Ascalon with hir other valleys shall kepe hir peace. How longe wilt thou slaye, 6 O thou swerde off the LORDE? Turne agayne in to ye sheeth, reste, and leaue off.

7 But how can it cease, when the LORDE himselff hath geuen it a charge agaynst Ascalon, and rased it vp agaynst the cities off the see coast?

Chapter 48

1 Thus saieyth ye LORDE off hoostes ye God of Israel against Moab: Wo be to ye cite of Nebo, for it shal be layed waist, brought to confucion and taken. Yee ye stroge cite of Cariatharim shalbe brought to shame, and afrayed:

2 Moab shall nomore be had in honoure: Wicked counsell shalbe taken vpon Hesebon. Come (shall they saye) let vs rote them out, that they maye be nomore amonge the nombre of the Gentiles, yee that they maye nomore be thought vpon: Thus the swerde shall persecute ye.

3 A voyce shall crie from Horonaim: With greate waistinge and destruction, 4 is Moab made desolate. And this crie shalbe herde in all hir cities.

5 At the goinge vp vnto Luhtih there shall arise a lametacion: and downe towarde

Horonaim, there shall be herde a cruell and a deedly crie:

6 Get you awaye, saue youre lyues & be like vnto the heeth in ye wildernes

7 For, because thou hast trusted in thy stronge holdes and treasure, thou shalt be taken. Chamos with his prestes and prynces shall go awaye in to captiuyte.

8 The destroyer shal come vpon all cities, none shall escape. The valleys shalbe destroyed, and the felde shall be layed waist: like as the LORDE hath determed.

9 Make a token vnto Moab, that she get hir awaye spedely: for hir cities shalbe made so desolate, that no man shall dwell therein.

10 Cursed be he that doth the worke of the LORDE negligently, and cursed be he that kepeth backe his swerde from shedyng off bloude.

11 Moab hath euer bene rich and carlesse from hir youth vp, she hath sytten and take hir ease with hir treasure. She was neuer yet put out off one vessell in to another (yt is) she neuer wente awaye in to captiuyte, therefore hir taist remayneth, and hir sauoure is not yet changed.

12 But lo, the tyme commeth (saieyth the LORDE) that I shall sende hir trussers to trusse her vp, to prepare and season hir vessels: yee hir tankerdes rattell, and shake to & fro.

13 And Moab shalbe ashamed off Chamos, like as Israel was ashamed off Bethel, wherin she put hir trust.

14 Wherefore do ye thinke thus: we are mightie, and stronge men off warre?

15 Moab shalbe destroyed, and hir cities brente vp: hir chosen yonge men shall be slayne, saieyth the kinge, whose name is the LORDE off hoostes.

16 The destruction off Moab commeth on a pace, and hir fall is at honde.

17 All hir neighbours shall mourne for her, and all they that knowe hir name, shal saye: O how happeneth it, that the stronge staff and the goodly rod is thus broken?

18 And thou daughter Dibo, come downe from thy glory, and syt in pouerte. For he that destroyeth Moab, shall come vp to the also, and breake downe thy stronge holdes.

19 And thou that dwellest in Aroer, get to the ye strete, & loke aboute the: axe them that are fled and escaped, and saye: what thyng is happened?

20 O, Moab is confounded and ouercome. Mourne and crie, tell it out at Arnon, that Moab is destroyed.

21 And mysery shall come vpon the playne londe: Namely, vpo holon, and Iaza: vpon Mephat

22 and Dibo, vpon Nebo and the house of Diplathaim,

23 vpon Cariatharim and Bethgamul, vpon Bethmaon

24 and Carioth, vpon Bosra and all the cities in the lode off Moab, whether they lye farre or neare.

25 The horne of Moab shal be smytte downe, & hir arme broken, saieyth the LORDE.

26 Make hir dronken (for she magnified hirsself about the LORDE;) that men maye clappe their hondes at hir vomyte, and that she also maye be laughed to scorne.

27 O Israell, shalt thou not laugh him to scorne, when he is taken amoge theues? Yee because off thy wordes that thou hast spoken agaynst him, thou shalt be dryuen awaye.

28 Ye Moabites shal leaue the cities, and dwell in rockes off stone, and become like doues, that make their nestes in holes.

29 As for Moabs pryde, we haue herde off it, she is very hie mynded. I knowe hir stoutnesse, hir boostinge, hir agogacy and the pryde off hir stomack, saieth the LORDE.

30 For hir furiousnes maye nether vpholde her wt strength, ner dede.

31 Therefore shal there mournynge be made for Moab, and euery ma shal crie for Moabs sake: a lamentacion shalbe made, to the men that stonde vpon the wall.

32 So will I mourne for the also (o Iazer) and for the, O thou vynyarde off Sybma. Thy wyne brauches shal come ouer ye see, and the braunches off Iazer but vnto the see: the destroyer shal breake in to thy haruest and grape gatheringe.

33 Myrth and cheare shalbe taken awaye from the tymbre felde, and from the whole londe off Moab. There shall be no swete wyne in the presse, the treader shall haue no stomacke to crie, yee there shall be none to crie vnto him:

34 which afore tyme were herde from hesebon to Eleale and Ioaz, which lifted vp their voyce from Zoar vnto Horonaim, that bullock off three yere olde. The waters also off Nemrim shalbe dried vp. 35 Morouer I will make Moab cease (saieth the LORDE) from the offringes and censing that she hath made vnto hir goddess in hie places.

36 Wherefore my herte mourneth for Moab, like a crowde playenge an heuy songe: and for the mens sake off the bricke wall my herte mourneth also, euen as a pype, that pipeth a dolefull songe: for they shalbe very fewe, and destroyed.

37 All heades shall be shauen, and all beerdes clipped off: all hondes bounde, and all loynes gyrded aboute with sack cloth.

38 Vpo all the house toppes and stretes off Moab, there shalbe mournynge: For I will breake Moab like an vnprofitable vessell saieh the LORDE

39 O how fearfull is she? O how mourneth she? O how doth Moab hange downe hir heade, and is ashamed? Thus shall Moab be a laughinge stocke, and had in derision off all them, that be rounde aboute her.

40 For thus saieth the LORDE: Beholde, the enemie shal come flyenge as an Aegle, and sprede his wynges vpon Moab.

41 They shall clymme ouer the walles, and wynde the stronge holdes. Then the mighty mens hertes in Moab, shalbe like the herte off a woman trauelinge with childe.

42 And Moab shalbe made so desolate, that she shal nomore be a people, because she hath set vp her selfe agaynst the LORDE.

43 Feare, pyt, and snare shall come vpo the (o Moab) saieth the LORDE.

44 Who so escapeth the feare, shal fall in the pyt: and who so getteth out off the pyt, shall be taken in the snare. For I will bringe a yere off visitacion vpon Moab, saieth the LORDE.

45 They that are able to fle, shall stonde vnder the shadowe off Hesebon. For there shall go a fyre out off Hesebon, and a flame from Sion, & shall burne vp that proude people off Moab, both before and behynde.

46 Wo be vnto the (o Moab) for thou people off Chamos shalt perish: Yee thy sonnes and doughters shall be led awaye captiue.

47 Yet at the last will I bringe Moab out off captiuyte agayne, saieth the LORDE. Thus farre off the plage off Moab.

Chapter 49

1 As concerninge the Ammonites, thus the LORDE saieth: Hath Israel no children, or is he without an heyre? Why hath youre kynge then taken Gad in? wherefore doth his people dwell in his cities?

2 Beholde therefore, the tyme commeth (saieth ye LORDE) that I will brynge a noyse off warre into Rabath off the Ammonites. Lahel shalbe desolate, and hir cities brent vp: and the Israelites shall be lordes ouer those, that had in the possession a fore, saieth the LORDE.

3 Hesebon shall mourne, for it shalbe roted out off the grounde, saieth the LORDE. The cities off Rabath shall crie out, and gyrded them selues with sack cloth: they shall mourne, and runne aboute the walles: for their kynge shall be led awaye presoner: yee his preestes and prynces with him.

4 Wherefore trustest thou in the water streames, that flowe to and fro, o thou fearde daughter: and thynkest thou art so safe (by reason off thy treasure) that no man shal come to the?

5 Beholde, I will brynge a feare vpon the, saieth the LORDE God off hoostes, from all those that be aboute the: so that ye shall be scatred euery man from another, and no ma shall gather them together agayne, that be fled.

6 But after that, I will bringe the Ammonites also out off captiuyte agayne.

7 Vpon the Edomites hath the LORDE off hoostes spoken on this maner: Is there nomore wy?dome in Theman? Is there nomore good counsell amoge his people? Is their wy?dome then turned clene to naught?

8 Get you hence, turne youre backes, crepe downe into the depe, O ye citesyns off Dedan. For I will bringe destructio vpon Esau, yee and the daye off his visitacion.

9 Yff the grape gatherers came vpon the, shulde they not leaue some grapes? Yff the night robbers came vpon the, shulde they not take so moch, as they thought were ynough?

10 But I will make Esau bare, and discouer his secretes, so that he shall not be able to hyde them. His sede shalbe waisted awaye, yee his brethren and his neighbours, ad he himselff shall not be left behinde.

11 Thou shalt leaue thy fatherlesse children behinde the, and I will kepe them and thy wydowes shall take their comforth in me.

12 For thus hath the LORDE spoken: Beholde, they that men thought were vnmte to drinke of the cuppe, haue dronken with the first: and thynkest thou then to be fre? No, no: thou shalt nether be quite no fre, but thou must drynke also:

13 For why, I haue sworne by my selff (saieth the LORDE) that Bosra shall become a wyldernes, an open shame, a laughinge stocke and cursynge: and hir cities shalbe a continuall deserte.

14 For I am perfectly infourmed of the LORDE, that he hath sent a message all ready vnto the Hiethen. Gather you together, and go forth agaynst them: make you ready to the battayle, 15 for lo: I will make the but small amonge the Heithen, and litle regarded amonge men.

16 Thy hie stomach & the pryde of thy herte haue disceaueed ye, because thou wilt dwell in the holes of stony rockes, and haue the hie mountaynes in possession. Neuertheles though thy nest were as hie as the Aegles, yet wil I cast the downe, saieth the LORDE.

17 Morouer Idumea shall be a wilderness: who so goeth by it, shalbe abashed, and wondre at all hir miserable plages.

18 Like as Sodom, Gomor and the cities that laye there aboute, were turned vpsyde downe (saieth ye LORDE) so shal no body dwell in Idumea, and no man shal haue his habitacion there.

19 Beholde, like as the Lyon cometh vp from the pleasaunt medowes of Iordane vnto ye grene pastures of Etha, so wil I dryue him, & make him runne agaynst her. But who is the yonge man that I will ordene therto? Who is like, vnto me? What is he that will stryue with me? What shepherde maye stonde in my hondes?

20 Therefore heare the counsell of the LORDE, that he hath taken vpon Idumea: & his purpose, that he hath deused vpon the citesyns of Theman: The leest of the flocke shal tear them in peces, & loke what fayre thynge they haue, they shal make it waist, & them selues also.

21 At the noyse of their fall ye earth shal quake, the crie of their voyce shalbe herde vnto the reed see.

22 Beholde, ye enemie shall come and fle vp hither, like as it were an Aegle, & sprede his wynges vpon Bosra. Then shal the hertes of the worthies in Edom be as the herte of a woman trauelinge of childe. 23 Vpon Damascus, Hemath and Arphad shall come confucion, for they shall heare euell tydings: they shal be tossed to and fro like the see that can not stonde still.

24 Damascus shalbe sore afrayde, & shal fle, tremblinge shal come vpon her. Sorowe and payne shal ouer take her as a woman trauelinge of childe.

25 But how shulde so worshipfull and glorious a cite be forsaken?

26 Heare therfore: hir yonge men shal fall in the stretes, and all hir men of warre shal be take awaye in that tyme, saieth the LORDE of hoostes.

27 I will kyndle a fyre in the walles of Damascus, which shal cosume the palace of Benadad.

28 As for Cedar and the kyngdome of Hasor, whom Nabuchodonosor the kynge of Babilon smote downe, the LORDE hath spoken thus vpon them: Arise, and get you vp vnto Cedar, and destroye the people towarde the easte.

29 Their tentes and their flockes shal they take awaye, yee their hanginges and their vessell. Their Camels also shall they carie awaye with them. They shall come aboute them on euery syde with a fearfulf crie.

30 Fle, get you soone awaye, crepe in to caues, that ye maye dwell there: O ye inhabitours of Hasor, saieth the LORDE: for Nabuchodonosor ye kinge of Babilon hath holden a council concernynge you, & concluded his deuce agaynst you.

31 Arise, & get you vp agaynst yonder rich & carelesse people (saieth the LORDE) which haue nether gates ner dore barres, & that dwell not together.

32 Their Camels shalbe stollen, & the droues of their catell dryuen awaye. Morouer, these that be shauen wil I scatre towarde all the wyndes, & bringe them to destruction: Yee & that thorow their owne familiers, saieth the LORDE.

33 Hasor also shall be a dwellinge for Dragons, and an euerlasting wilderness: so that no body shal dwell there, and no man shal haue there his habitacion.

34 These are the wordes, that the LORDE spake to the prophet Jeremy concernynge Elam, in the begynnyng of the reigne of Sedechias kinge of Iuda.

35 Thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes: Beholde, I wil breake the bowe of Elam, and take awaye their strength:

36 aud vpon Elam I wil bringe the foure wyndes from ye foure quarters of heauen, & wil scatre them agaynst the same foure wyndes. And there shal be no people, but some of Elam shal fle vnto them.

37 For I wil cause Elam be afrayed of their enemies, & of them that seke their lyues: & wil bringe vpo them the indignacion of my wrath, saieth the LORDE. And I wil persecute them with the swearde so longe til I haue brought them to naught.

38 I wil set my stole in Elam, I wil destroye both the kinge & ye prynces from thence, saieth the LORDE.

39 But in processe of tyme, I wil bringe Elam out of captiuyte agayne, saieth the

LORDE.

Chapter 50

1 The wordes yt the LORDE spake vnto the prophet Ieremy, concernynge Babilon, & the londe of the Caldees:

2 Preach amonge the Gentiles, let youre voyce be herde, make a toke: crie out, kepe no sylence, but saye: Babilon shal be wonne, Bel shalhe cofounded, and Merodach shalbe ouer come. Yee their goddes shal be brought to shame, and their ymages shal stonde in feare.

3 For out of the north there shal come a people agaynst her, which shal make hir londe so waist, that no body shal dwell therin: nether man ner beast, for they shal fle and departe from thence.

4 In those dayes & at that tyme (saieth the LORDE) the childre of Israel shall come, they & the children of Iuda, wepinge & makinge haist, & shal seke the LORDE their God.

5 They shall axe the waye to Sion, thither shall they turne their faces, & come, and hange vpon the, in a couenaunt that neuer shal be broken.

6 My people hath bene a lost flocke, my shepherdes haue disceaused them, & haue made them go astraye vpon the hilles. They haue gone from the mountayne to the litle hill, & forgotten their folde.

7 All they yt came vpon them, haue deuoured the: & their enemies sayde: We haue made no faute agaynst them, for they haue displeased the LORDE, yee euen the LORDE which is the bewtie of their righteousnes, & yt defended their fathers.

8 Yet shal ye fle from Babilon, & departe out of ye londe of the Caldees, and ye shall be as the rammes that go before the flocke.

9 For lo, I will wake vp an hoost of people from ye northren londe, & bringe them vpon Babilon: these shal laye sege to it, & wyne it: Their arowes shal not mysse, like as a conynge archer shuteth not wronge.

10 And the Caldees shalbe spoyled, & all they that spoyle them, shalbe satisfied, saieth the LORDE:

11 because ye were so chearfull & glad, to treade downe myne heretage, & fulfilled youre pleasures, as the calues in the grasse: and triumphed ouer them like the bulles, when ye had gotten the victory.

12 Your mothers shalbe sore cofounded, and they that bare you, shal come to shame. She shall be the leest set by amonge the nacions, vyode, waist, & dried vp.

13 No man shal be able to dwell there, for the feare of ye LORDE, but she shal be whole desolate. All they that go by Babilon, shall stonde still, & be abashed, & shal wondre at all hir plages.

14 Go forth in yor araye agaynst Babilon rounde aboute, all ye that can hadle bowes: shute as her, spare no arowes, for she hath synned agaynst the LORDE.

15 Crie out: vpon her, vpon her, agaynst her roude aboute: she shal yelde herselfe, her foundacios shal fall, & hir walles shal come downe, for it shalbe the vengeance of the LORDE. Yee vegeaunce shalbe taken of her, & she hath done, so shal she be dealt withall.

16 They shal rote out the sower from Babilon, & him yt handleth the sickle in haruest. For feare of the swearde of the enemye, euery man shall get him to his owne people, & euery man shal fle to his owne londe.

17 Israel is a scatered flocke, the Lyons haue dispersed them. First the kinge of the Assirians deuoured them, last of all this Nabuchodonosor kynge of Babilon hath brused all their bones.

18 Therefore thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: Beholde, I will viset the kinge of Babilon & his kingdome, as I haue visited the kinge of the Assirians:

19 and will bringe Israel agayne to his pleasaunt pasture, that he maye fede vpon Charmel & Basan, and be satisfied vpon the mount of Ephraim & Galaad.

20 In those dayes and at the same tyme (saieth the LORDE) yf the offence of Israel be sought for, there shal none be founde: Yf men enquire for the synne of Iuda, there shal be none: for I wil be mercifull vnto them, whom I suffre to remayne ouer.

21 Go downe (o thou avenger) in to the enemies londe, & viset them that dwell therin: downe with them, and smyte them vpon the backes, saieth the LORDE: do accordinge to all, that I haue commaunded the.

22 There is gone aboute the londe a crie of a slaughter & greate murthur, namely on this maner:

23 How happeneth it, that the hammer of the whole worlde is thus broken & brused in sonder? How chaunceth it, that Babilon is become a wildernes amonge the Heithen on this maner?

24 I myself haue layed wayte for the, & thou art taken: vnawarres art thou trapped & snared: for why, thou hast prouoked ye LORDE vnto anger:

25 The LORDE hath opened his house of ordinaunce, & brought forth the weapens of his wrath. For the thinge that is done in the londe of the Caldees, it is the LORDE of hoostes worke.

26 These thinges shal come vpon her at the last, they shal breake in to hir prey chabres, they shall leaue her as bare as stones, that be layed together vpon heapes. They shall so destroye her, yt nothinge shal be left.

27 They shal slaye all hir mightie souldyers, and put them to death. Wo be vnto the, for the daye & tyme of their visitacion is at honde.

28 Me thinke I heare already a crie, of them that be fled & escaped out of the londe of Babilon, which shewe in Sion the vengeance of the LORDE oure God, the vengeance of his temple: Yee a voyce of them, that crie agaynst Babilon:

29 Call vp all the archers agaynst

Babilon, pytch youre tentes rounde aboute her, that none escape. Recompence her, as she hath deserued: and accordinge as she hath done, so deale with her agayne: for she hath set vp her self agaynst the LORDE, agaynst ye holy one of Israel.

30 Therefore shal hir yonge men fall downe in the stretes, & all hir men of warre shal be roted out in yt daye, saieth the LORDE.

31 Beholde, I speake vnto the (o thou proude) saieth the LORDE God of hoostes: for thy daye shal come, eue the tyme of yi visitacio.

32 And the proude shal stombe & fall, & no man shal helpe him vp. I wil burne vp his cities with fyre, & it shal consume all that is rounde aboute him.

33 Thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes: The children of Israel & Iuda suffre violence together. All they that haue them in captiuyte, kepe them fast, & wil not let them go:

34 but their auerger & redemer is mightie, whose name is the LORDE of hoostes: he shal manteyne their cause, he shal make the londe shake, & iudge them that dwell therin, one with another.

35 The swearde shall come vpon the Caldees (saieth the LORDE) vpon them that dwell in Babilon, vpon their prynces, & vpo their wyse me:

36 The swearde vpon their soythsayers, (as for those, they shall become foolcs.) The swearde vpo their worthies, so that they shal stonde in feare:

37 The swearde vpon their horsmen and charettes, & vpon all the comon people that dwell vnder the: so that they all shal become like women: The swearde vpon their treasure, so that it shal be stolen awaye:

38 The swearde vpon their waters, so that they shalbe dried vp: For the londe worshippeth ymages, & delyteth in straunge wondrefull thinges.

39 Therefore shal wilde beestes, Apes & Estriches dwell therin: for there shal neuer man dwell there, nether shal eny man haue his habitacion there fore euermore.

40 Like as God destroyed Sodom & Gomorre, with the cities that laye there aboute, saieth the LORDE: So shal noman dwell there also, nether shal eny ma haue there his habitacion.

41 Beholde, there shal come a people from the north, with a greate bonde of men, & many kinges shal stonde vp from the endes of the earth:

42 They beare bowes & buclers, cruell are they & vnmercifull. Their voyce roareth like the raginge see, they ryde vpon horses, & come weapened to fight agaynst the: O Babilon.

43 As soone as the kinge of Babilon hearth tell of them, his hondes shal waxe feable: Sorowe and heuynes shall come vpon him, as a woman traueling with childe.

44 Beholde, like as the Lyon commeth vp from the pleasaunt medowes of Iordane vnto the grene pastures of Ethan, so wil I dryue the forth, and make them runne agaynst her. But whom shal I chose out, & ordene to soch thinge? For who is like me, or who wil stryue with me? or what shepherde maye stonde agaynst me?

45 Therefore heare the council that the LORDE hath geuen vpon Babilon, and the deuyce that he hath taken vpon the londe of the Caldees. The leest amoge the people shal teare them in peces, & loke what pleasaunt thinge they haue: they shal laye it waist.

46 The noyse at ye wyngynge of Babilon shal moue the earth, & the crie shalbe herde amonge the Getiles.

Chapter 51

1 Thus hath the LORDE sayde: Beholde, I will rayse vp a perlous wynde agaynst Babilon & hir citesens, yt beare euell will agaynst me.

2 I wil sende also in to Babilo fanners, to fanne her out, & to destroye hir londe: for in the daye of hir trouble they shalbe aboute her on euery syde.

3 Morouer, the LORDE hath sayde vnto the bowe men, & to them yt clymme ouer the walles in brest plates: Ye shal not spare hir yongeme, kyll downe all hir hoost.

4 Thus the slayne shal fall downe in the londe of the Caldees, and the wounded in the stretes.

5 As for Israel & Iuda, they shall not be forsake of their God, of the LORDE of hoostes, of the holyone of Israel: no, though they haue fylled all their londe full of synne.

6 Fle awaye from Babilon, euery man saue his life. Let no man holde his tunge to hir wickednes, for the tyme of the LORDES vengeance is come, yee he shal rewarde her agayne.

7 Babilon hath bene in the LORDES honde a golden cuppe, yt maketh all londes droncken. Of hir wyne haue all people droncken, therefore are they out of their wittes.

8 But sodenly is Babilon fallen, and destroyed. Mournre for her, brynge plasters for hir woundes, yf she maye peraduenture be healed agayne.

9 We wolde haue made Babilon whole (saye they) but she is not recouered. Therefore wil we let her alone, & go euery ma in to his owne countre. For hir iudgmet is come in to heauen, & is gone vp to the cloudes.

10 And therefore come on, we will shewe Sion the worke of the LORDE oure God.

11 Make sharpe the arowes, and fyll the quyers: for the LORDE shall rayse vp the sprete of the kynge of the Meedes, which hath allready a desyre to destroye Babilon. This shalbe the vengeance of the LORDES, and the vengeance of his temple.

12 Set vp tokens vpon the walles of Babilon, make youre watch stronge, set yor watch men in araye, yee holde preuye watches: & yet for all that shall the LORDE go forth with the deuyce, which he hath taken vpon them that dwell in Babilon.

13 O thou that dwellest by the greate waters, o thou that hast so greate treasure and riches, thyne ende is come: & the rekenynge of thy wynnynges.

14 The LORDE of hoostes hath sworne by himself, that he wil ouerwhelme the with men like greshoppers in nombre, which with a corage shall crie Alarum Alarum agaynst the.

15 Yee euen the LORDE of hoostes, that with his power made the earth, with his wi?dome prepayred ye rounde worlde, & with his discrecion spred out the heauens.

16 As soone as he letteth his voyce be herde, the waters in the ayre waxe feare: He draweth vp the cloudes from the endes of the earth. He turneth ye lightenynges to rayne, he bringeth the wyndes out of their secrete places

17 By the reason of wy?dome, all men are become fooles. Confounded be all the casters of ymages: for ye thinge that they make, is but disceate, & hath no breath.

18 Vayne is it, & worthy to be laughed at: & in the tyme of visitacion it shal perish.

19 Neuertheles, the porcion of Iacob is none soch: but he that made all thinges, whose name is the LORDE of hoostes, he is the rodde of his enheritaunce.

20 Thou breakest my weapens of warre, & yet thorow the I haue scatred the nacions & kyngdomes:

21 Thorow the haue I scatred horse & horseman, yee the charettes, & soch as sat vpon them:

22 Thorow the I haue scatred man & woman, olde and yonge, bachelor & mayden.

23 Thorow the I haue scatred the shepherde & his flocke, the husband man & his catell, the prynces & the rulers.

24 Therefore wil I rewarde the cite of Babilon & all his citesyns the Caldees, with all the euell which they haue done vnto Sion: Yee that ye youre selues shall se it, saieth the LORDE.

25 Beholde, I come vpon the (thou noysome hill) saieth the LORDE, thou that destroyest all londes. I wil stretch out my honde ouer the, & cast the downe from the stony rockes: & wil make the a brente hill, 26 so that nether corner stones, ner pinnacles, ner foundation stones shalbe taken enymore out of the but waist & desolate shalt thou lie for euermore, saieth the LORDE.

27 Set vp a toke in the londe: blowe the trompettes amonge the Heithen, prouoke the nacions agaynst her, call the kyngdomes, of Ararat, Menni & Ascanes agaynst her: nombre out Taphsar agaynst her, bringe as greate a sorte of horses agaynst her, as yf they were greshoppers.

28 Prepare agaynst them ye people of the Meedes wt their kynges, prynces & all their chefe rulers, yee and the whole londe that is vnder them.

29 The londe also shal shake & be afrayed, when the deucey of the LORDE shall come forth agaynst Babilon: to make the londe of Babilon so waist, that no ma shal dwell eny more therin.

30 The Worthies of Babilon shal leaue the batell, & kepe themselues in stronge holdes, their strength hath fayled them, they shalbe like women. Their dwellinge places shal be brent vp, their barres shalbe broken.

31 One purseuaut shal mete another, yee one poste shal come by another, to bringe the kinge of Babilon tydinges: that his cite is taken in on euery syde, 32 the foordes occupyde, the fennes brent vp, and the souldyers sore afrayed.

33 For thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel: The daughter of Babilon hath bene in hir tyme like as a thre?shinge floore, but shortly shal hir haruest come.

34 Nabuchodonosor the kinge of Babilon hath deuoured and destroyed me, he hath made me an emptie vessell. He swallowed me vp like a Dragon, and fylled his bely with my delicates: he hath cast me out, 35 he hath take my substance awaye, & the thinge that was left me hath he caried vnto Babilon, saieth the daughter, that dwelleth in Sion: Yee & my bloude also, vnto the Caldees, saieth Ierusalem.

36 Therefore thus saieth the LORDE: Beholde, I wil defende thy cause, & avenge the: I will drynke vp hir see, & drye vp hir water sprynges.

37 Babilon shal become an heape of stones, a dwellinge place for dragons, a fearfulness & wondringe, because no man dwelleth there.

38 They shall roare together like lyons, & as the yonge lyons when they be angrie, so shal they bede them selues.

39 In their heate I shal set drynke before the, & they shalbe droncken for ioye: Then shal they slepe an euerlastinge slepe, & neuer wake, saieth the LORDE.

40 I shal carie them downe to be slayne like shepe, like wethers & gootes.

41 O, how was Sesah wonne? O, how was the glory of ye whole londe taken? how happeneth it, that Babilon is so wondred at amonge the Heithe?

42 The see is rysen ouer Babilon, & hath couered her with his greate waves.

43 Hir cities are layed waist, the londe lieth vnbylded and voyde: it is a londe, where no man dwelleth, & where no ma traueleth thorow.

44 Morouer, I wil vyset Bel at Babilo: & the thinge that he hath swallowed vp, that same shal I plucke out of his mouth. The Gentiles also shall runne nomore vnto him, yee and the walles of Babilon shal fall.

45 O my people, come out of Babilon, that euery man maye saue his life, from the fearfull wrath of the LORDE.

46 Be not faynte herted, & feare not at euery rumoure that shalbe herde in the londe: for euery yeare bringeth new tydinges, yee straunge wickednes and lordshipe.

47 And lo, the tyme commeth that I wil vyset the ymages of Babilo, and the whole londe shalbe confounded, yee and hir slayne shal lie in the myddest of her.

48 Heauen and earth with all that is therin, shall reioyce ouer Babilon, when the destroyers shal come vpon her from the north, saieth ye LORDE.

49 Like as Babilo hath beaten downe and slayne many out of Israel, so shal there fall many, and be slayne in all hir kyngdome.

50 Ye that haue escaped the swearde, haist you, stode not still, remembre the LORDE afarre of: and thinke vpon Ierusalem, 51 for ye were ashamed to heare the blasphemies: oure faces were couered with shame, because the straunge aleauntes came in to the Sanctuary of the LORDE.

52 Wherefore beholde (saieth the LORDE) the tyme commeth, that I wil vyset the ymages of Babilon, and thorow the whole lode they shal mourne and fall.

53 Though Babilon clymmed vp in to heauene, and kepte her power an hie: yet shal I sende her destroyers saieth the LORDE.

54 A piteous crie shall be herde from Babilon, and a greate mysery from the londe of the Caldees:

55 when the LORDE destroyeth them, and when he dryueth out the hie stomach & proude boostinge, where with they haue bene as furious, as the waves of greate water floudes, and made greate crakes with their wordes

56 For the destroyers shall come vpon her (euen vpon Babilon) which shal take hir worthies, and brake their bowes: for God is disposed to avenge him self vpon them, & sufficiently to recompence the.

57 Yee (saieth the LORDE) I will make their prynces, their wyse men, their chefe rulers & all their worthies, droncke: so that they shal slepe an euerlastinge slepe, and neuer wake: Thus saieth the kinge, whose name is ye LORDE of hoostes.

58 Morouer, thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes: The thicke wall of Babilon shalbe broken, and hir proude gates shalbe brente vp. And the thinge that the Getiles and the people haue wrought with greate trauallye and laboure, shal come to naught, and be consumed in the fyre.

59 This is the charge that Ieremy gaue vnto Sarias the sonne of Nerias, the sonne of Maasia, when he wente towarde Babilon with Sedechias the kinge of Iuda, in the fourth yeare of his reigne. Now this Sarias was a peaceable prynce.

60 Ieremy wrote in a boke, all the misery that shulde come vpon Babilon, yee and all these sermons that be written agaynst Babilon,

61 and gaue Sarias this charge: When thou commest vnto Babilon, se that thou rede all these wordes,

62 and saye: O LORDE, thou art determed to rote out this place, so that nether people ner catell shal dwell there eny more, but to lie waist for euer:

63 and when thou hast redde out the boke, bynde a stone to it, and cast it in the myddest of Euphrates,

64 and saye: Euethus shal Babilon syncke, & be thrust downe with the burthen of trouble, that I will bringe vpon her: so that she shal neuer come vp agayne. Thus farre are ye preachinges of Ieremy.

Chapter 52

1 Sedechias was xxj. yeare olde, when he was made kyng, & he reigned xj. yeare in Ierusalem. His mothers name was Hamithal, Ieremies daughter of Lobna.

2 He lyued wickedly before the LORDE euen as Ioachim dyd.

3 Wherefore the LORDE was angrie at Ierusalem & Iuda, so longe till he had cast the out of his presence. And Sedechias fel from the kyng of Babilon.

4 But in ye ix. yeare of his raigne, In the teth Moneth, the tenth daye of the Moneth it happened, that Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babilon with all his hooste came before Ierusalem, & beseged it, & made them bulworkes rounde aboute it.

5 And this beseginge of the cite endured vnto the xj yeare of kyng Sedechias.

6 And in the fourth Moneth, the ix daye of the Moneth, there was so greate hunger in the cite: that there were no more vitayles for the people of the londe.

7 So all the souldyers brake awaye, and fled out of the cite by night, thorow the waye of the porte betwene the two walles by the kynges garden. Now ye Caldees had copped the cite rounde aboute, yet wente these men their waye towarde the wilderness.

8 And so the Caldees folowed vpon them, and toke Sedechias the kinge in the felde of Iericho, when his hoost was runne from him.

9 So they caried the kyng awaye presoner to Reblatha, vnto the kinge of Babilon in the londe of Hemath, where he gaue iudgment vpon him.

10 The kinge of Babilo also caused Sedechias sonnes be slayne before his face, yee & put all the prynces of Iuda to death at Reblatha.

11 Morouer he put out the eyes of Sedechias, caused him be bounde with cheynes, to be caried vnto Babilon: & let him lie in preson, till he dyed.

12 Now ye tenth daye of the fyfth Moneth in the xix yeare of Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babilon, Nabusaradan the chefe captayne and the kinge of Babilons seruantes came vnto Ierusalem, 13 & brent vp the house of the LORDE. He brent vp also the kinges palace, all the houses & all the gorgeous buyldinges in Ierusalem.

14 And the whole hoost of the Caldees yt were with the chefe captayne, brake downe all the walles of Ierusalem rounde aboute.

15 As for the poore people & soch folke as yet was left in the cite, which also were fallen to the kinge of Babilon, yee & what people as yet remayned: Nabusaradan the chefe captayne caried them awaye presoners

16 But ye poore people of the cowntre, dyd Nabusaradan the chefe captayne leaue in the londe, to occupie the vynyardes & felde.

17 The Caldees also brake the brasen pilers, that were in the house of the LORDE, yee the seate and the brasen lauer that was in the house of ye LORDE: & caried all the metall of them vnto Babilon.

18 They toke awaye also the Cauldrons, shouels, flesh hokes, sprinklers, spones & all the brasen vessell that was occupide in the seruyce:

19 with the basens, colepannes, sprinklers, pottes, candilstickes, spones, and cuppes: wherof some were of golde, and some of syluer.

20 The chefe captayne toke also the two pilers, the lauer, the xij brasen bullockes yt stode vnder ye seate, which kinge Salomon made in the house of the LORDE: & all the vessell conteyned so moch metall, that it might not be weyed
21 For euery piler was xvij cubites hie, & the rope that went aboute it, was xij cubites, & foure fingers thick and rounde:

22 Now vpon the rope were brasen knoppes, & euery knoppe was fyue cubites hie: & vpon the knoppes were whopes, & pomgranates rounde aboute of clene brasse.

23 After this maner were both the pilers fashioned with the pomgranates, wherof there were an hundreth and xcviij, which hanged vpon the whoopes rounde aboute.

24 The chefe captayne also toke Sarias ye hie prest, & Sophonias that was chefe next him, and the thre keepers of the treasury.

25 He toke out of the cite a chamberlayne which was a captayne of the souldyers, & seuen men that were the kinges seruauantes, which were founde in the cite: & Sepher a captayne that vsed to muster the men of warre: with lx men of the countre that were taken in the cite.

26 These Nabusaradan the chefe captayne toke, & caried them to the kinge of Babilon vnto Reblatha:

27 and the kinge of Babilon caused them to be put to death at Reblatha in the londe of Hemath. And thus Iuda was ledde awaye captiue, out of his owne londe.

28 This is the summe of the people, whom Nabuchodonosor ledde awaye captiue. In the seuenth yeare of his reigne, he caried awaye of ye Lewes, thre thousande thre and twenty.

29 In the xvij yeare Nabuchodonosor caried awaye from Ierusalem eight hundredth & xxxij personnes.

30 In the xxij yeare of Nabuchodonosor Nabusaradan the chefe captayne, toke awaye seuen hundredth xlv Lewes presoners. The whole summe of all the presoners, is foure thousande and sex hundredth.

31 In the xxxvij yeare after that Ioachim the kinge of Iuda was caried awaye in the xxv daye of the xij Moneth, Euilmerodach kinge of Babilon (the same yeare yt he reigned) gaue Ioachim the kinge of Iuda his pardon, and let him out of preson,

32 and spake louyngly to him: And set his trone aboute ye trones of the other kinges that were with him in Babilon.

33 He changed also the clothes of his preson, yee and he ate with him all his life longe.

34 And he had a cotinually luyng geuen him of the kinge of Babilon, euery daye a certayne thinge allowed him, all the dayes of his life, vntill he dyed.

LAMENTATIONS

Chapter 1

1 Alas, how sitteth the cite so desolate, yt some tyme was full of people? how is she become like a wedowe, which was the lady of all nacions? How is she brought vnder tribute, that ruled all londes?

2 She wepeth sore in the night, so that ye teares runne downe hir chekes: for amonge all hir louers, there is none, that geueth her eny comforte: yee hir nexte frendes abhorre her, & are become hir enemies.

3 Iuda is taken presoner, because she was defyled: & for seruyng so many straunge goddes, she dwelleth now amonge the Heithen. She fyndeth no rest, all they that persecuted her, toke her, and so she dwelleth amonge hir enemies.

4 The stretes of Sion mourne, because no man commeth more to the solempne feastes: All hir gates are desolate, hir prestes make lamentacion, hir maydens are carefull, and she herself is in greate heuynesse.

5 Hir enemies are fallen vpon hir heade, & haue put her to shame: because the LORDE hath chastened her for hir greate wickednes: hir children are ledde awaye captiue before their enemye.

6 All the bewtie of the daughter of Sion is awaye, hir prynces are become like wethers, that fynde no pasture. They are drye awaye before their enemye, so that they haue no more power.

7 Now doth Ierusalem remembre the tyme of hir misery & disobedience, yee the ioye & pleasure yt she hath had in tymes past: seyng hir people is brought downe thorow the power of their enemye, & there is no man for to helpe her: hir enemies stode lokinge at her and laugh hir Sabbath dayes to scorne.

8 Ierusalem synned euer more & more, therefore is she come in decaye. All they that had her in honoure, despise her: for they haue sene hir fylthinesse. Yee she sigheth, and is a shamed of herselfe.

9 Hir skyrtes are defyled, she remebred not what wolde folowe: therefore is hir fall so greate, and there is no ma to comforte her. O LORDE, cosidre my trouble, for myne enemye hath the vpper honde.

10 The enemye hath put his honde to all the precious thinges that she had, yee euen before hir eyes came the Heithen in and out of the Sanctuary: whom thou (neuetherles) hast forbydden to come within thy congregacion.

11 All hir people seke their bred with heuynes, & loke what precious thinge euery man hath, that geueth he for meate, to saue his life. Considre (O LORDE) and se, how vyle I am become.

12 O ye all that go fore by, beholde and se, yf there be eny sorowe like vnto myne, wherwith the LORDE hath troubled me, in the daye of his fearefull wrath.

13 From aboute hath he sent downe a fyre, in to my bones and chastened me: he hath layed a net for my fete, and throwne me wyde open: he hath made me desolate, so that I must euer be mournynge.

14 The yocke of my transgression is come at the last, with his honde hath he taken it vp, and put it aboute my neck. My strength is gone: the LORDE hath deluyered me in to those hondes, wherout I can not quyte myselfe.

15 The LORDE hath destroyed all the mightie men, that were in me. He hath proclaimed a feast, to slaughter all my best me. The LORDE hath troden downe the daughter of Iuda, like as it were in a wyne presse.

16 Therefore do I wepe, and myne eyes gusshe out of water: for the coforter that shulde quycken me, is farre fro me. My children are dryuen awaye, for why? the enemye hath gotten the ouer honde.

17 Sion casteth out hir hodes, and there is no man to comforte her. The LORDE hath layed the enemies rounde aboute Iacob, and Ierusalem is as it were a menstruous woma, in the myddest of them.

18 The LORDE is righteous, for I haue prouoked his countenance vnto anger. O take hede all ye people, and considre my heuynes: My maydens and my yonge men are led awaye in to captiuyte.

19 I called for my louers (but they begyled me:) for my prestes and councelors, but they perished: euen while they sought for meate, to saue their lyues.

20 Considre (O LORDE) how I am troubled, my wombe is disquieted, my herte turneth aboute in me, and I am full of heuynes. The swearde hurteth me without, and within I am like vnto death.

21 They heare my mournynge, but there is none that wil comforte me. All myne enemies haue herde of my trouble, and are glad therof, because thou hast done it. But thou shalt brynge forth the tyme, when they also shal be like vnto me.

22 From the shall come all their aduersite: thou shalt plucke them awaye, eue as thou hast plucked me, because of all my wickednesse. For my sorow is very greate, and my herte is heuy.

Chapter 2

1 Alas, how hath ye LORDE darckened the daughter of Sion so sore in his wrath? As for the honoure of Israel, he hath casten it downe from heauen: How happeneth it, that he remembred not his owne fote stole, when he was angrie?

2 The LORDE hath cast downe all the glory of Iacob without eny fauoure: All the stronge places of the daughter Iuda hath he broken in his wrath, & throwne them downe to the grounde: hir kyngdome & hir prynces hath he suspended.

3 In the wrath of his indignacion he hath broken all the horne of Israel: he hath withdrawe his right honde from the enemye: yee a flame of fyre is kyndled in Iacob, & hath consumed vp all rounde aboute.

4 He hath bent his bowe like an enemye, he hath fastened his right honde as an aduersary; and euery thinge that was pleasaut to se, he hath smyten it downe. He hath poured out his wrath like a fyre, in to the tabernacle of the daughter Sion.
5 The LORDE is become, like as it were an enemye, he hath cast downe Israel & all his places: yee all his stronge holdes hath he destroyed, and fylled the daughter of Iuda wt moch sorow and heuynesse.

6 Hir tabernacle (which was like a garden of pleasure) hath he destroyed: hir hie solempne feastes hath he put downe. The LORDE hath brought it so to passe, that the hie solempne feastes and Sabbathes in Sion, are clene forgotte. In his heuy displeasure hath he made the kyng & prestes to be despised.

7 The LORDE hath forsaken his owne alter, & is wroth with his owne Sanctuary, & hath geuen the walles of their towres in to the hondes of the enemye. Their enemies made a noyse in the house of the LORDE, as it had bene in a solempne feast daye.

8 The LORDE thought to breake downe the walles of the daughter Sion, he spred out his lyne, & drewe not in his honde, till he had destroyed them. Therefore mourne the turrets and the broken walles together.

9 Hir portes are casten downe to the grounde, hir barres are broken & smyten in sonder: hir kyng & prynces are caried awaye to the Getiles. They haue nether lawe ner prophetes, ner yet eny vision from the LORDE.

10 The Senatours of the daughter Sion sit vpon the grounde in sylence, they haue strowed a?shes vpon their heades, and gyrded them selues with sack cloth. The maydens of Ierusalem hange downe their heades to the grounde.

11 Myne eyes begynne to fayle me thorow wepinge, my body is disquieted, my leuer is poured vpon the earth, for the greate hurte of my people, seyng the children and babes dyd swowne in the stretes of the cite.

12 Euen when they spake to their mothers: where is meate and drynke? for whyle they so sayde, they fell downe in the stretes of the cite, like as they had bene wounded, and some dyed in their mothers bosome.

13 What shal I saye of the (O thou daughter Ierusalem) to whom shall I licke the? To whom shal I copare the (o thou doughter Sion) to comferte the withall? Thy hurte is like a mayne see, who maye heale the?

14 Thy prophetes haue looked out vayne & folish thinges for the, they haue not shewed the of thy wickednesse, to kepe the from captiuyte: but haue ouerladen the, and thorow falsede scatred the abrode.

15 All they that go by the, clappe their hondes at the: hissinge and wagginge their heades vpon the doughter Ierusalem, and saye: is this the cite that men call so fayre, wherin the whole londe reioyseth?

16 All thine enemies gape vpon the, whisperinge and bytinge their teth, sayenge: let vs deuoure, for the tyme that we looked for, is come: we haue founde and sene it.

17 The LORDE hath fulfilled the thinge, that he was purposed to do: and performed that he had deuysed longe agoo: he hath destroyed, and not spared. He hath caused thine aduersary to tryumphe ouer the, and set vp the horne of thineemie.

18 Let thine hert crie vnto the LORDE, O thou cite of the doughter Sion: let thy teares rune downe like a ryuer daye & night: rest not, & let not the aple of thine eye leaue of.

19 Stonde vp, and make thy prayer in the first watch of the night, poure out thine hert like water before the LORDE: lift vp thine hondes, for the lyues of thy yonge children, that dye of hunger in the stretes.

20 Beholde (O LORDE) & conside, why hast thou gathered me vp so clene? Shal the women then eate their owne frute, euen children of a spanne longe? Shal the prestes and prophetes be slayne thus in the Sanctuary of the LORDE?

21 Yonge & olde lye behinde the stretes vpon the grounde, my maydens & yonge men are slayne with the swearde: whom thou in the daye of thy wrothfull indignacion hast put to death: Yee euen thou hast put them to death, & not spared them.

22 My neighbours that are rounde aboute me, hast thou called, as it were to a feast daye: so that in the daye of the LORDES wrath none escaped, nether was eny left behinde. Those that I had brought vp & norrisshed, hath myne enemy destroyed.

Chapter 3

1 I am the ma, that (thorow the rodd of his wrath) haue experiece of misery.

2 He droue me forth, and led me: yee into darknesse, but not in to light.

3 Agaynst me only he turneth his honde, & layeth it euer vpon me.

4 My flesh & my skynne hath he made olde, and my bones hath he brusshed.

5 He hath buylded rounde aboute me, & closed me in with gall and trauallye.

6 He hath set me in darknesse, as they that be deed for euer.

7 He hath so hedged me in, that I can not get out, & hath layed heuy lynckes vpon me.

8 Though I crie & call piteously, yet heareth he not my prayer.

9 He hath stopped vp my wayes with foure squared stones, & made my pathes croked.

10 He layeth waite for me like a Bere, and as a lyon in a hole.

11 He hath marred my wayes, and broke me in peces, he hath layed me waist altogether.

12 He hath bent his bowe, and made me as it were a marck to shute at.

13 The arrowes of his quyuer hath he shot, euen in to my reynes.

14 I am laughed to scorne of all my people, they make songes vpon me all ye daye loqe.

15 He hath fylled me with bytternesse, & geuen me wormwod to drynke.

16 He hath smytten my teth in peces, & rolled me in the dust.

17 He hath put my soule out of rest, I forget all good thinges.

18 I thought in my self: I am vndone, there is no hope for me in the LORDE.

19 O remembre yet my mysery and my trouble, the wormwod and the gall.

20 Yee thou shalt remebre them, for my soule melteth awaye in me.

21 Whye I cosidre these thinges in my hert, I get a hope agayne.

22 Namely, that the mercies of the LORDE are not clene gone, & that his louynge kyndnesse ceasseth not.

23 His faithfulnes is greate, and renueth it self as the mornyng.

24 The LORDE is my porcion (saieth my soule) therefore wil I hope in him.

25 O how good is the LORDE vnto the, that put their trust in him, and to the soule that seketh after him?

26 O how good is it with stilnesse to wate and tarie, for the health of the LORDE?

27 O how good is it for a man, to take the yock vpon him from his youth vp?

28 He sitteth alone, he holdeth him still, and dwelleth quietly by him self.

29 He layeth his face vpon the earth, yf (percase) there happen to be eny hope.

30 He offreth his cheke to the smyter, he will be content with reproues.

31 For the LORDE wil not forsake for euer.

32 But though he do cast of, yet (acordinge to ye multitude of his mercies) he receaueth to grace agayne.

33 For he doth not plage, & cast out the children of men from his herte.

34 To treade all the prisoners of the earth vnder his fete.

35 To moue the iudgment of man before the most highest.

36 To condemne a man in his cause: The LORDE hath no pleasure in soch thinges.

37 What is he then that saieth: there shulde somthinge be done without the LORDES comaundement?

38 Out of the mouth of the most highest goeth not euell and good.

39 Wherfore them murmureth the lyuinge man? let him murmoure at his owne synne,

40 Let vs loke well vpon oure owne waies, & remembre oure selues, and turne agayne to ye LORDE.

41 Let vs lift vp oure hertes with oure hondes vnto the LORDE, that is in heauen.

42 We haue bene dyssemblers & haue offended, wilt thou therefore not be intreated?

43 Thou hast couered vs in thy wrath, & persecuted vs, thou hast slayne vs without eny fauoure.

44 Thou hast hyd thy self in a cloude, that oure prayer shulde not go thorow.

45 Thou hast made vs outcastes, and to be despysed amonge the Heithen.

46 All oure enemies gape vpon vs.

47 Feare and snare is come vpon vs, yee despite and destruccion.

48 Whole ryuers of water gu?she out of myne eyes, for the greate hurte of my people.

49 Myne eyes runne, and can not cease, for there is no rest.

50 O LORDE, when wilt thou loke downe fro heauen, and conside?

51 Myne eye breaketh my herte, because of all the doughters of my cite.

52 Myne enemies hunted me out sharply like a byrde, yee and that with out a cause.

53 They haue put downe my life in to a pitte, and layed a stone vpon me.

54 They poured water vpon my heade, then thought I: now am I vndone.

55 I called vpon thy name (O LORDE) out of the depe pitte.

56 Thou hast herde my voyce, & hast not turned awaye thine eares fro my sighinge and crienge.

57 Thou hast enclyned yi self vnto me, whe I called vpon the, & haist sayde: feare not.

58 Thou (O LORDE) hast mayntened the cause of my soule, and hast redemed my life.

59 O LORDE, thou hast sene my blasphemers, take thou my cause vpon the.

60 Thou hast well consided how they go aboute to do me harme, & that all their counceles are agaynst me.

61 Thou hast herde their despytefull wordes (O LORDE) yee and all their ymaginacions agaynst me.

62 The lippes of myne enemies, & their deuyces that they take agaynst me, all the daye longe.

63 Thou seist also their sittinge downe and their rysinge vp, they make their songes of nothinge but of me.

64 Rewarde them (O LORDE) acordinge to the workes of their hondes.

65 Geue them ye thinge, that their owne herte is afrayed of: euen thy curse.

66 Persecute them, (O LORDE) with thy indignacion, & rote them out from vnder the heauen.

Chapter 4

1 O how is the golde become so dymme? How is the goodly coloure of it so sore changed? and the stones of ye Sanctuary thus scatred in the corner of euery strete?

2 The children of Sion that were allwaye in honoure, & clothed with ye most precious golde: how are they now become like the erthen vessels which be made with the potters honde?

3 The Lamyes geue their yonge ones suck wt bare brestes: but the doughter of my people is cruel, and dwelleth in the wyldernesse: like the Estriches.

4 The tonges of the suckinge children, cleue to ye rofe of their mouthes for very thirst. The yonge children axe bred, but there is noman, that geueth it them.

5 They that were wonte to fayre delicatly, perishe in the stretes: they that afore were brought vp in purple, make now moch of donge.

6 The synne of the doughter of my people is become greater, then ye wickednesse of Sodome, that sodely was destroyed, and not taken with hondes.

7 Hir abstayners (or Nazarees) were whyter then ye snowe or mylke: their coloure was fresh read as the Corall, their beutie like the Saphyre.

8 But now their faces are very black: In so moch, that thou shuldest not knowe them in the stretes. Their skynne cleueth to their bones, It is wythered, and become like a drye stock.

9 They that be slayne with the swearde, are happier, then soch as dye of hunger, and perishe awaye famishinge for the frutes of the felde.

10 The wome (which of nature are pitifull) haue sodden their owne children with their hondes: that they might be their meate, in ye miserable destruccion of the doughter of my people.

11 The LORDE hath performed his heuy wrath: he hath poured out the furiousnes of his displeasure. He hath kindled a fyre in Sion, which hath consumed the foundacions therof.

12 Nether the kinges of the earth, ner all ye inhabitours of the worlde, wolde haue beleued, that the enemye & aduersary shulde haue come in at the gates of the cite of Ierusalem.

13 Which neuertheles is come to passe for ye synnes of hir prophetes, and for the wickednes of hir prestes, that haue shed innocentes bloude within her.

14 So that these blynde men wete stomblinge in the stretes, and stayned themselues wt bloude, which els wolde touche no bloudy cloth.

15 But they cried vnto euery ma: fle the staynyng, awaye, get you hece, touch it not. Yee (sayde they) ye must be brent, ye must dwell amonge the Gentiles, & byde no longer here.

16 The countenance of the LORDE hath banysshed them, & shal neuer loke more vpon them: For they them selues nether regarded the prestes, nor pitied their elders.

17 Wherfore yet oure eyes fayle vs, whyle we loke for vayne helpe: seyng we be euer waitynge vpon a people, that can do vs no good,

18 They laye so sharpe waite for vs, that we can not go safe vpon the stretes: for oure ende is come, oure dayes are fulfilled, oure ende is here.

19 Oure persecuters are swifter then the Aegles of the ayre: they folowed vpon vs ouer the mountaynes, and layed wait for vs in ye wilderness.

20 The very breth of oure mouth; euen the anoynted LORDE himselfe shalbe take in oure synnes, of whom we saye: Vnder his shadowe we shal be preserued amonge the Heithen.

21 And thou (O daughter Edom) that dwellest in the londe of Hus, be glad and reioyce: for the cuppe shal come vnto the also, which whe thou suppest of, thou shalt be droncke.

22 Thy synne is wel punished (O thou daughter Sion) he shall not suffre the to be caried awaye eny more. But thy wickednesse (O daughter Edom) shall he vyset, and for thy synnes sake, he shal lede the into captiuyte.

Chapter 5

1 Call to remebraunce (O LORDE) what we haue suffred, cosidre and se oure cofucion.

2 Oure enheritaunce is turned to the straungers, & oure houses to the aleautes.

3 We are become carefull and fatherlesse, and oure mothers are as the wydowes.

4 We are fayne to drynke oure owne water for moneye, and oure owne wod must we bye with moneye.

5 Oure neckes are vnder persecucion, we are weery, and haue no rest.

6 Afore tyme we yelded oure selues to the Egipcians, and now to the Assirians, only that we might haue bred ynough.

7 Oure fathers (which now are gone) haue synned, & we must beare their wickednesse.

8 Seruautes haue the rule of vs, and no man delyuereth vs out of their hodes.

9 We must get or luyunge with the parell of oure lyues, because of the drouth of the wilderness.

10 Oure skynne is as it had bene brent in an ouen, for very sore honger.

11 The wyues are raueshed in Sion, & the maydens in the cities of Iuda.

12 The prynces are hanged vp with the honde of the enemies, they haue not spared the olde sage men, 13 they haue taken yonge mens lyues from them, and the boyes are hanged vp vpon trees.

14 The elders syt no more vnder the gates, and the yonge men vse nomore playenge of Musick.

15 The ioye of oure herte is gone, oure mery quere is turned in to mourninge.

16 The garlande of oure heade is fallen: alas, that euer we synned so sore.

17 Therefore oure hert is full of heuynesse, & oure eyes dymme:

18 because of ye hill of Sion that is destroyed, In so moch, that the foxes runne vpon it.

19 But thou (O LORDE) that remainest for euermore, and thy seate worlde with out ende:

20 Wherefore wilt thou still forget vs, and forsake vs so longe?

21 O LORDE: Turne thou vs vnto the, & so shal we be turned. Renue or daies as in olde tyme, 22 for thou hast now banished vs longe ynough, and bene sore displeased at vs.

EZEKIEL

Chapter 1

1 It choused, in the xxx. yeare the fifth daye off the fourth Moneth, that I was amonge the presoners by the ryuer off Cobar: where the heauens opened, & I sawe a vision of God.

2 Now the fifth daye off the Moneth made out the fyfth yeare off kynge Ioachims captiuyte.

3 At the same tyme came ye worde off the LORDE vnto Ezechiel the sonne off Buzi prest, in the londe off the Caldees by the water of Cobar, where the honde off the LORDE came vpo him.

4 And I loked: & beholde, a stormy wynde came out off the north with a greate cloude full of fyre, which wt his glistre lightened all rounde aboute. And in ye myddest off the fyre it was all cleare,

5 and as it were the licknesse of foure beastes, which were fashioned like a man: sauynge,

6 that euery one had foure faces and foure wynges.

7 Their legges were straight, but their fete were like bullockes fete, and they glistred, as it had bene fayre scoured metall.

8 Vnder their wynges vpon all the foure corners, they had mens hondes. Their faces and their wynges were towarde the foure corners:

9 yet were the wynges so, that one euer touched another. When they wente, they turned them not aboute: but ech one wente straight forwarde.

10 Vpon the rightside off these foure, their faces were like the face off a man and the fa off a Lyon: But vpon the leftside, they had the face off an ox and the face off an Aegle.

11 Their faces also and their wynges were spread out aboute: so that two wynges off one touched euer two wynges off another, and with the other two they couered their bodie.

12 Euery one when it wente, it wente straight forwarde. Where as the sprete led them, thither they wente, and turned not aboute in their goynge.

13 The fashion and countenance of the beestes was like hote coales off fyre, euen as though burnynge cresshettes had bene amonge the beestes: and the fyre gaue a glistre, and out off the fyre there wente lighteninge.

14 Whe ye beestes wete forwarde & backwarde, one wolde haue thought it had lightened.

15 Now whe I had well considered the beestes, I sawe a worke off wheles vpon the earth with foure faces also like the beestes.

16 The fashion & worke of the wheles was like the see. The foure wheles were ioyned and made (to loke vpon) as it had bene one whele in another.

17 When one wente forwarde, they wente all foure, and turned the not aboute i their goynge.

18 They were large, greate and horrible to loke vpon. Their bodies were full off eyes rounde aboute them all foure. Whe the beestes wete, the wheles wente also with them:

19 And when the beestes lift them selues vp from ye earth, the wheles were lift vp also.

20 Whyther so euer the sprete wente, thither wente they also, & ye wheles were lift vp & folowed the. for ye sprete of life was in the wheles.

21 When ye beestes wete forth, stode still, or lift themselues vp from the earth: then the wheles also wente, stode still, & were lift vp, for ye breth off life was in the wheles.

22 Aboue ouer ye heades of the beestes there was a firmament, which was fashioned as it had bene off the most pure Christall, & that was spread out aboute vpon their heades:

23 vnder the same firmament were their wynges layed abroad, one towarde another, and two wynges couered the body of euery beest.

24 And when thy wente forth, I herde the noyse off their wynges, like the noyse of greate waters, as it had bene the voyce off the greate God, and a russhing together as it were off an hoost off men. And when they stode still, they let downe their 25 Now when they stode still, and had letten downe their wynges, it thondred in the firmament, that was aboute their heades.

26 Aboute the firmament that was ouer their heades, there was the fashion off a seate, as it had bene made off Saphir. Apon the seate there sat one like a ma.

27 I behelde him, and he was like a cleare light, as it had bene all of fyre with in from his loynes vpwarde. And beneth when I loked vpon him vnder ye loynes, me thought he was like a shyninge fyre, that geueth light on euery syde. Yee the shyne and glistre yt lightened rounde aboute, 28 was like a raynbowe, which in a raynie daye apeareth in the cloudes. Eue so was the similitude, wherin the glory off the LORDE apeared. Whe I sawe it, I fell vpon my face, and herkened vnto the voyce off him, that spake.

Chapter 2

1 Then sayde he vnto me: Stonde vp vpon thy fete (O thou sonne of ma) and I will talke with the.

2 And as he was commonynge with me, the sprete came in to me, and set me vp vpon my fete: so that I marcked the thinge, that he sayde vnto me.

3 And he sayde: Beholde, thou sonne off man: I will sende the to the children off Israel, to those runnagates and obstinate people: for they haue take parte agaynst me, and are runne awaye fro me: both they, and their forefathers, vnto this daye.

4 Yee I will sende ye vnto a people yt haue rough vysages and stiff stomackes: vnto whom thou shalt saye on this maner: This the LORDE God himselfe hath spoken,

5 yt whether they be obedient or no (for it is a frauwarde housholde) they maye knowe yet that there hath bene a prophet amonge them.

6 Therfore (thou sonne off man) feare the not, nether be afrayed off their wordes: for they shall rebell agaynst the, and despise ye. Yee thou shalt dwell amonge scorpions: but feare not their wordes, be not abashed at their lokes, for it is a frauwerde housholde.

7 Se that thou speake my wordes vnto them, whether they be obediet or not, for they are obstinate.

8 Therfore (thou sonne of man) obeye thou all thinges, that I saye vnto ye, and be not thou stiffnecked, like as they are a stiffnecked housholde. Open thy mouth, and eate that I geue the.

9 So as I was lokyng vpon, beholde, there was sent vnto me an hande, wherin was a closed boke:

10 and the hande opened it before me, and it was written within and without, full off carefull mourninges: alas, and wo.

Chapter 3

1 Then sayde he vnto me: thou sonne of ma, eate that, what so euer it be: Yee eate that closed boke, and go thy waye, and speake vnto the children off Israel.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he gaue me the boke for to eate,

3 and sayde vnto me: Thou sonne of man, thy bely shal eate, and thy bowels shalbe fylled with ye boke, that I geue the. Then dyd I eate the boke, and it was in my mouth sweter then hony.

4 And he sayde vnto me: thou sonne of ma, get the soone vnto the house off Israel, ad shewe the ye wordes, that I comaunde the:

5 for I sende the not to a people that hath a straunge, vnknowne or harde speache, but vnto the house off Israel:

6 Not to many nacions, which haue diuerse speaches and harde languages, whose wordes thou vnderstodest not: Neuertheles, yf I sent the to those people, they wolde folowe the:

7 But the house off Israel wil not folowe ye, for they wil not folowe me: Yee all the house off Israel haue stiff foreheades and harde hertes.

8 Beholde therefore, I will make thy face preuayle agaynst their faces, and harden thy foreheade agaynst their foreheades: 9 so that thy foreheade shall be harder then an Adamat or flynt stone: that thou mayest feare them ye lesse, and be lesse afrayed off them, for they are a frauwerde housholde.

10 He sayde morouer vnto me: thou sonne off man, take diligent hede with thine eares, to ye wordes that I speake vnto the, fasten them in thine herte:

11 and go to the presoners off thy people, speake vnto them, ad saye on this maner: Thus the LORDE God hath spoke: Whether ye heare, or heare not.

12 With that, the sprete toke me vp. And I herde the noyse of a greate russhinge and remouynge off the most blissed glory off the LORDE out off his place.

13 I herde also the noyse off the wynges off the beestes, that russhed one agaynst another, yee and the ratlynge off the wheles, that were by them, which russhinge & noyse was very greate.

14 Now when the sprete toke me vp, and caried me awaye, I wente with an heuy and a soroufull mynde, but the honde off ye LORDE comforted me right soone.

15 And so in the begynnyng off the Moneth Abib, I came to the presoners, that dwelt by the water off Cobar, and remayned in that place, where they were: and so continued I amonge them seuen dayes, beinge very sory.

16 And when the seuen dayes were expyred, the LORDE sayde vnto me:

17 Thou sonne off man, I haue made the a watch man vnto the house of Israel: therfore take good hede to the wordes, and geue them warnynge at my commaundement.

18 Yff I saye vnto the, concernynge the vngodly ma, that (without doute) he must dye, and thou geuest him not warnynge, ner speakest vnto him, that he maye turne from his euell waye, and so to lyue: Then shall the same vngodly man dye in his owne vnrightuosnes: but his bloude will I requyre off thyne honde.

19 Neuertheles, yff thou geue warnynge vnto the wicked, and he yet forsake not his vngodlynesse: then shall he dye in his owne wickednesse, but thou hast discharged thy soule.

20 Now yf a righteous ma go fro his rightuosnesse, and do the thinge that is euell: I will laye a stomblinge blocke before him, and he shall dye, because thou hast not geuen him warninge: Yee dye shall he in his owne synne, so that the vertue, which he did before, shall not be thought vpon: but his bloude will I requyre of thine honde.

21 Neuertheles, yf thou exhortest the righteous, that he synne not, and so ye righteous do not synne: Then shall he lyue, because he hath receaued thy warnynge, and thou hast discharged thy soule.

22 And there came the hode off the LORDE vpon me, and he sayde vnto me: Stonde vp, and go in to the felde, yt I maye there talke with the.

23 So when I had rysen vp, and gone forth into the felde: Beholde, the glory off the LORDE stode there, like as I sawe it afore, by the water off Cobar. Then fell I downe vpon my face, 24 and ye sprete came in to me, which set me vp vpon my fete, and sayde thus vnto me: Go thy waye, and sparre thy self in thyne house.

25 Beholde (O thou sonne off man) there shall chaynes be brought for the, to bynde the wt all, so that thou shalt not escape out off the.

26 And I will make thy tunge cleue so the rofe off thy mouth, that thou shalt be domme, and not be as a chider with them: for it is an obstinate housholde.

27 But when I speake vnto the, then open thy mouth, and saye: Thus saieth the LORDE God: who so heareth, let him heare: who so will not, let him leaue: for it is a frauwarde housholde.

Chapter 4

1 Thou sonne off man: take a tyle stone, and laye it before the, and descrybe vpon it the cite off Ierusalem:

2 how it is beseged, how bulworkes and stroge diches are grauen on euery syde off it: descrybe also tentes, and an hoost off men rounde aboute it.

3 Morouer, take an yron panne, and set it betwixte the & ye cite in steade off an yron wall, Then set thy face towarde it, besege it, and laye ordinaunce agaynst it, to wynne it. This shal be a token vnto the house off Israel.

4 But thou shalt slepe vpon thy left syde, and laye the synne of the house off Israel vpon the. Certaine dayes apoynted, thou shalt slepe vpon that syde, and beare their synnes.

5 Neuertheles I will apoynte the a tyme (to put off their synnes) and the nombre off the daies: Thre hundreth & xc. dayes must thou beare the wickednesse off the house of Israel.

6 When thou hast fulfilled these dayes, lye downe agayne, and slepe vpon thy right syde xl. dayes, and beare the synnes off the house of Iuda. A daye for a yeaere, a daye (I saye) for a yeaere, will I euer laye vpon the.

7 Therfore set now thy face agaynst that beseged Ierusalem, and discouer thine arme, that thou mayest prophecie agaynst it.

8 Beholde, I will laye chaynes vpon the, that thou shalt not turne the from one syde to another, till thou hast ended the dayes of thy sege.

9 Wherefore, take vnto the wheate, barley beanes, growell sede, milium and fitches: and put these together in a vessell, and make the loaues of bred therof, accordinge to the nombre of the dayes that thou must lye vpon yi syde: that thou mayest haue bred to eate, for thre hundreth and XC. dayes.

10 And the meate that thou eatest, shall haue a certayne waight apoynted: Namely, twentie sycles euery daye. This apoynted meate shalt thou eate daylie, from the begynnyng to the ende.

11 Thon shalt dryncke also a certayne measure off water: Namely, the sixte parte of an Hin shalt thou dryncke daylie from the begynnyng to the ende.

12 Barly cakes shalt thou eate, yet shalt thou first strake the ouer with mas donge, yt they maye se it.

13 And with that, sayde the LORDE: Euen thus shal the children of Israel eate their defyled bred in the myddest off the Gentiles, amonge whom I will scatere them.

14 Then sayde I: Oh LORDE God, Beholde, my soule was yet neuer stayned: for fro my youth vp vnto this houre, I dyd neuer eate of a deed carcase, or of that which was slayne of wilde beestes, nether came there euer eny vnclene flesh in my mouth.

15 Where vnto he answered me, and sayde: Well than, I will graunte the to take cowes donge, for the donge off a man, and to strake the bred ouer with all, before the.

16 And he sayde vnto me: Beholde thou sonne off man, I will mynyshe all the prouysion of bred in Ierusalem, so that they shall weye their bred, and eate it with scarcenesse. But as for water, they shall haue a very litle measure theroff, to dryncke.

17 And when they haue nomore bred ner water, one shal be destroyed with another, and famish awaye for their wickednesse.

Chapter 5

1 Take the then a sharpe knyfe (O thou sonne of man) namely, a rasoure. Take that, and shaue the hayre off thy heade and beard: Then take the scoales and the waight, and deuyde the hayre a sunder.

2 And burne the thirde parte therof in the fyre in the myddest off the cite, and cut the other thirde parte in peces with a knyfe. As for the thirde parte that remayneth, cast it in the wynde, and then shewe the bare knyfe.

3 Yet afterwarde take a litle off the same, & bynde it in they cote lappe.

4 Then take a curtesy of it, and cast it in the myddest of ye fyre, and burne it in the fyre. Out of the same fyre shall there go a flame, vpon the whole house of Israel.

5 Morouer, thus sayde the LORDE God: This same is Ierusalem. I set her in the middest of the Heithen and nacions, that are rounde aboute her,

6 but she hath despised my iudgmetes more then ye Gentiles the selues, and broken my commaundementes more then the nacions, that lye rounde aboute her: For they haue cast out myne ordinaunces, and not walked in my lawes.

7 Therefore, thus saieth the LORDE God: For so moch as ye wt youre wickednesse farre exceede the Heithe, that dwell rounde aboute you: (For ye haue not walked in my lawes, nether haue ye kepte myne ordinaunces)

8 Therefore thus saieth ye LORDE God: I will also come vpon the, for in the myddest of the will I syt in iugdmet, in the sight of the Heithen,

9 and will handle the of soch a fashion, as I neuer dyd before, and as I neuer wil do from that tyme forth, and that because of all thy abhominacions.

10 For in the the fathers shal be fayne to eate their owne sonnes, and the sonnes their owne fathers. Soch a courte will I kepe in the, and the whole remnaunt will I scatere in to all the wyndes.

11 Wherefore, as truly as I lyue (saieth the LORDE God) seyng thou hast defyled my Sanctuary, with all maner off abhominacions and with all thy shamefull offences: For this cause will I also destroye the. Myne eye shall not ouersee the, nether will I spare the.

12 One thirde parte within the, shall die of the pestilence and of honger: Another thirde parte shall be slayne downe rounde aboute the, with the swearde: The other thirde parte that remayneth, will I scatere abroad towarde all the wyndes, and drawe out the swearde after them.

13 Thus wil I perfourme my indignacion and set my wrath agaynst them, and ease my self. So that when I haue fulfilled myne anger agaynst them, they shall knowe, that I am the LORDE, which wt a feruent gelousy haue spoken it.

14 Morouer I will make the waist and abhorred, before all the Heithen that dwell aboute the, and in the sight off all them, that go by the:

15 so that when I punysh the in my wrath, in myne anger, and with the plage off my whote displeasure: thou shalt be a very abhominacion, shame, a gasinge and wondringe stocke, amonge the Heithen that lye aboute the. Euen I the LORDE haue spoken it, and it shall come to passe,

16 when I shute amonge them the perlous dartes of hoger, which shalbe but death: Yee therfore shall I shute them, because I will destroye you. I will encrease hunger, and mynish all the prouysion off bred amonge you.

17 Plages and mysery will I sende you, yee and wilde beestes also to destroye you. Pestilence and bloudsheddinge shall come vpon you, and the swearde wil I bringe ouer you. Euen I the LORDE, haue sayde it.

Chapter 6

1 The worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne off man, turne thy face to the mountaynes of Israel, that thou mayest prophecie vnto them,

3 and saye: Heare the worde of the LORDE God, o ye mountaynes off Israel: Thus hath the LORDE God spoken to the moutaynes, hilles, valleys and dales: Beholde, I will brynge a swearde ouer you, and destroye youre hie places:

4 I wil cast downe youre altuers, and breake downe youre temples. Youre slayne men will I laye before youre goddes,

5 and the deed carcasses off the children off Israel will I cast before their ymages, youre bones wil I strowe rounde aboute youre alters,

6 and dwellinge places. The cities shalbe desolate, ye hillchapels layed waist: youre alters destroyed, & broken: youre goddes cast downe, and taken awaye, yor tepels layde eaue with the groude, youre owne workes clene roted out.

7 Youre slayne men shall lie amonge you, that ye maye lerne to knowe, how yt I am the LORDE.

8 Those yt amoge you haue escaped the swearde, will I leaue amonge the Gentiles, for I will scatere you amonge the nacions.

9 And they that escape from you, shall thinke vpon me amonge the heithen, where they shalbe in captiuyte. As for that whorish and vnfaithfull herte of theirs, wherwith they runne awaye frome, I will breake it: yee & put out those eyes off theirs, that committe fornicacion with their Idols. Then shall they be ashamed, and displeased with their selues, for the wickednesses ad abhominacions, which they haue done:

10 and shal lerne to knowe, how that it is not in wayne, that I the LORDE spake, to bringe soch mysery vpon them.

11 The LORDE sayde morouer vnto me: Smyte thine hondes together, and stampe with thy fete, and saye: Wo worth all the abhominacions and wickednesses of the house of Israel, for because of the, they shal perish with the swearde, with hoger and with pestilence.

12 Who so is farre of, shall dye off the pestilence: he that is nye at hande, shall perish with the swearde: and ye other that are beseged, shall dye of hunger. Thus wil I satisfie my wrothfull displeasure vpon them.

13 And so shall ye lerne to knowe, that I am the LORDE, whe youre slayne men lye amoge youre goddes, and aboute youre alters: vpon all hie hilles and toppes off mountaynes, amoge all grene trees, amonge all thicke okes: euen in the places, where they dyd sacrifice to all their Idols.

14 I will stretch myne honde out vpon them, & wil make the londe waist: So that it shall lye desolate and voyde, from the wilderness off Deblat forth, thorow all their habitacions: to lerne them for to knowe, that I am the LORDE.

Chapter 7

1 The worde off the LORDE came vnto me, on this maner:

2 The I call, O thou sonne off man. Thus saith the LORDE God vnto the londe off Israel: The ende commeth, yee verely the ende commeth vpon all the foure corners off the earth.

3 But now shall the ende come vpon the: for I will sende my wrath vpo the, and wil punysh the: acordinge to thy wayes, and rewarde the after all thy abhominacions.

4 Myne eye shall not ouersee the, nether will I spare the: but rewarde the, acordinge to thy waies, and declare thy abhominacions. Then shall ye knowe, that I am the LORDE.

5 Thus saith the LORDE God: Beholde, one mysery and plage shall come after another:

6 the ende is here. The ende (I saye) that waiteth for the, is come already,

7 ye houre is come agaynst the, that dwellest in the londe. The tyme is at honde, the daye of sedicio is hard by, & no glad tidings vpo the moutaynes.

8 Therefore, I will shortly poure out my sore displeasure ouer the, and fulfill my wrath vpon the. I will iudge the after thy waies, and recompence the all thy abhominacions.

9 Myne eye shal not ouersee the, nether wil I spare the: but rewarde the after thy waies, and shewe thy abhominacions: to lerne you for to knowe, how yt I am the LORDE, yt smyteth.

10 Beholde, the daye is here, the daye is come, the houre is runne out, the rodde florisheth, wyfulnessse waxeth grene, 11 malicious violece is growne vp, and the vngodly waxen to a staff. Yet shall there no complaynte be made for them, ner for the trouble that shall come of these thinges.

12 The tyme cometh, the daye draweth nye: Who so byeth, let him not reioyce: he that selleth, let him not be sory: for why, Trouble shall come in the myddest off all rest:

13 so that the seller shall not come agayne to the byer, for nether off them both shall lye. For the vision shal come so greatly ouer all, yt it shal not be hyndered: No ma also wt his wickednesse shall be able to saue his owne life.

14 The trompettes shall ye blowe, and make you all ready, but no man shall go to the batell, for I am wroth with all the whole multitude.

15 The swearde shalbe without, pestilence and hunger within: so that who so is in the felde, shalbe slayne with the swearde: and he that is in the cite, shall perish with hunger and pestilence.

16 And soch as escape and fle from amonge them, shal be vpon the hilles, like as the doues in the felde: euery one shalbe afrayed, because off his owne wickednesse.

17 All hondes shalbe letten downe, and all knees shalbe weake as the water:

18 they shall gyrded them selues with sack cloth, feare shal fall vpon them. Their faces shall be confounded, and their heades balde:

19 their syluer shall lye in the stretes, and their golde shalbe despised: Yee their syluer and golde maye not deluyer them, in the daye of the fearfull wrath of the LORDE. They shall not satisfie their hongrie soules, nether fyll their emptie belies therwith: For it is become their owne decaye thorow their wickednesse:

20 because they made therof, not only costly Ieweles for their pompe and pryde, but also abhominable ymages and Idols.

For this cause will I make them to be abhorred.

21 Morouer, I will geue it in to ye hondes off the straungers to be spoyled: and to ye wicked, for to be robbed, and they shall destroye it.

22 My face wil I turne from the, my Treasury shall be defyled: for the theues shall go into it, and suspende it.

23 I wil make clene ryddaunse, for the londe is whole defyled with vnrightuous iudgment of innocent bloude, & the cite is full off abhominacions.

24 Wherfore, I will bringe the most cruell tyrauntes from amonge the Heithen, to take their houses in possession. I will make the pompe off the proude to cease, ad they shal take in their Sanctuary.

25 When this trouble cometh, they shal seke peace, but they shal haue none.

26 One myschefe and sorowe shal folowe another, and one rumoure shal come after another: Then shall they seke visions in wayne at their prophetes. The lawe shal be gone from the prestes, and wy?dome from the elders.

27 The kyng shall mourne, the princes shalbe clothed with heuynesse, and ye hodes off the people in the londe shall tremble for feare. I will do vnto them after their owne waies, & acordinge to their owne iudgments will I iudge them: to lerne them for to knowe, that I am the LORDE.

Chapter 8

1 It happened, that in the sixte yeare, the fifth daye of the sixte Moneth I sat in my house, and the LORDES off the counceill off Iuda with me: and the honde off the LORDE God fell euen there vpo me.

2 And as I loked vp, I sawe as it were a licknesse off fyre from his loynes downwarde, and from his loynes vpwarde it shyned maruelous cleare.

3 This symilitude stretched out an honde, and toke me by the hayrie lockes off my heade, and the sprete lift me vp betwixte heauen and earth: and God brought me in a vision to Ierusalem, in to the courte off the inwarde porte that lieth towarde the north: there stode an ymage, with whom he that hath all thinges in his power, was very wroth.

4 And beholde, the glory off the God off Israel was in the same place: eue as I had sene it afore in the felde.

5 And he sayde vnto me: Thou sonne off man, O lift vp thine eyes, and loke towarde the north. Then lift I vp myne eyes towarde the north, and beholde: Besyde the porte northwarde, there was an alter made vnto the ymage off prouocacion in the very entrynge in.

6 And he sayde furthermore vnto me: Thou sonne off man, Seist thou what these do? Seist thou the greates abhominacions that the house off Israel comytte in this place? which ought not to be done in my sanctuary? But turne the aboute, and thou shalt se yet greater abhominacions.

7 And with that brought he me to the courte gate: and whe I loked, beholde, there was an hole in the wall.

8 Then sayde he vnto me: Thou sonne off man, dygge thorow the wall. And when I dygged thorow the wall, beholde, there was a dore.

9 And he sayde vnto me: go thy waye in, & loke what wicked abhominacions they do there.

10 So I wente in, and sawe: and beholde, there were all maner ymages off wormes & beastes, all Idols and abhominacions of ye house off Israel paynted euerychone rounde aboute the wall.

11 There stode also before the ymages lxx. lordes of the counceill off the house off Israel: and in the myddest off them stode Iaasania the sonne off Saphan: And euery one off them had a censure in his honde, & out off the incense, there wente a smoke, as it had bene a cloude.

12 Then sayde he vnto me: Thou sonne off man, hast thou sene what the Senatours off the house off Israel do secretly, euery one in his chambre? For they saye: Tush, the LORDE seth vs not, the LORDE regardeth not the worlde.

13 And he sayde vnto me: Turne the yet agayne, and thou shalt se the greates abhominacions that they do.

14 And with that, he brought me to the dore off the porte off the LORDES house, towarde the north. And beholde, there sat women mournynge for Thamus.

15 Then sayde he vnto me: hast thou sene this, thou sonne of ma? Turne ye aboute, & thou shalt se yet greater abhominacions.

16 And so he brought me in to the inwarde courte of the LORDES house: & beholde, at the porte of the LORDES house, betwixte the fore entrie and the alter, there were fyue and twenty men, that turned their backes vpon the Temple of the LORDE, & their faces towarde the easte, and these worshipped the Sonne.

17 And he sayde vnto me: hast thou sene this, thou sonne of man? Thinketh the house of Israel, that it is but a trifle, to do these abhominacions here? Shulde they fyll the londe full of wickednesse, and vndertake to prouoke me vnto anger? Yee & purposely to cast vp their noses vpon me?

18 Therefore wil I also do some thinge in my wrothfull displeasure, so that myne eye shall not ouersee them, nether wil I spare them. Yee and though they crie in myne eares with loude voyce, yet wil I not heare them.

Chapter 9

1 He cried also with a loude voyce in myne eares, sayenge: Come here ye rulers of the cite, euery man with his weapened honde to the slaughter.

2 Then came there sixe men out of the strete of the vpper porte towarde the north, and euery man a weapen in his honde to the slaughter. There was one amongst them, that had on him a lynninge rayment, and a wryters ynckhorne by his syde. These wente in, and stode beside the brasen autler:

3 for the glory of the LORDE was gone awaye from the Cherub, and was come downe to the thresholde of the house, & he called the ma, that had the lynnyng rayment vpon him, and the writers ynckhorne by his syde,

4 and the LORDE sayde vnto him: Go thy waye thorow the cite of Ierusalem, and set this marck Thau vpo the foreheades of them, that mourne, and are sorry for all the abhominacions, that be done therin.

5 And to the other, he sayde that I might heare: Go ye after him thorow the cite, slaye, ouersee none, spare none:

6 Kyll, & destroye both olde men and yonge, maydens, children, and wyues. But as for those, that haue this marck Thau vpo them: se that ye touch them not, and begynne at my Sanctuary. Then they begane at the elders, which were in the Temple,

7 for he had sayde vnto them: When ye haue defyled the Temple, and fylled the courte with the slayne, then go youre waye forth. So they wete out and slewe downe thorow ye cite.

8 Now when they had done ye slaughter, & I yet escaped: I fell downe vpon my face, & cried, sayenge: O LORDE, wilt thou then destroye all the resydue of Israel, in thy sore displeasure, that thou hast poured vpo Ierusalem?

9 Then sayde he vnto me: The wickednesse of the house of Israel and Iuda is very greate: so that the lode is full of bloude, and ye cite full of vnfaithfulnesse: For they saye: Tush, ye LORDE regardeth not the earth, he seyth vs not.

10 Therefore will I vpon them, myne eye shall not ouersee them, nether will I spare them, but will recompence their wickednesse vpon their heades.

11 And beholde, the ma that had the lynnyng rayment vpon him, and the writers, ynckhorne by his syde: tolde all the matter how it happened, and sayde: LORDE, as thou hast commaunded me, so haue I done.

Chapter 10

1 And as I loked, beholde, In the firmament that was aboute the Cherubins there appeared the similitude of a stole of Saphir vpo them:

2 Then sayde he that sat therin, to him that had the lynnyng rayment vpon him: Crepe in betwene the wheles that are vnder the Cherubins, and take thine honde full of hote coales out from betwene the Cherubins, and cast them ouer the cite. And he crepte in, that I might se.

3 Now the Cherubins stode vpo the right syde of the house, when the man wete in, and the cloude fylled the ynnermer courte.

4 But the glory of the LORDE remoued from the Cherubins, and came vpon the thresholde of the house: so that the Temple was full of cloude, and the courte was full of the shyne of the LORDES glory.

5 Yee and the sounde of the Cherubins wynges was herde in to the forecourte, like as it had bene the voyce of the almightie God, when he speaketh.

6 Now when he had bydden the man yt was clothed in lynnyng, to go and take the hote coales from the myddest of ye wheles, which were vnder the Cherubins: he wente and stode besyde the wheles.

7 Then the one Cherub reached forth this honde from vnder the Cherubins, vnto ye fyre that was betwene the Cherubins, and toke therof, and gaue it vnto him (that had on the lynnyng rayment) in his honde: which toke it, and wente out.

8 And vnder the wynges of ye Cherubins, there appeared the licknes of a mas hode:

9 I sawe also foure wheles besyde the Cherubins, so that by euery Cherub there stode a whele. And the wheles were (to lode vpon) after ye fashion of ye precious stone of Tharsis:

10 Yet (vnto the sight) were they fashioned & like, as yf one whele had bene in another.

11 When they wente forth, they wete all iij together, not turnyng aboute in their goinge: But where the first wente, thither wente they after also, so that they turned not aboute in their goinge.

12 Their whole bodies, their backes, their hodes & wynges, yee & the wheles also, were all full of eyes rounde aboute them all foure.

13 And I herde him call ye wheles, Galgal (that is) a rounde boull.

14 Euery one of them had foure faces: so that the one face was the face of a Cherub, the seconde of a man, the thirde of a lyon, the fourth of an Aegle, 15 & they were lifted vp aboue. This is the beest, that I sawe at the water of Cobar.

16 Now when the Cherubins wente, the wheles wente with them: & when the Cherubins shoke their wynges to lift them selues vpwarde, the wheles remayned not behynde, but were with them also.

17 Shortly, when they stode, these stode also: And when they were lift vp, ye wheles were lift vp also with the, for the sprete of life was in the wheles.

18 Then the glory of the LORDE was lift vp from the thresholde of the temple, and remayned vpon the Cherubins:

19 And the Cherubins flackred with their wynges, and lift the selues vp from the earth: so that I sawe when they went, and the wheles with them. And they stode at the east syde of the porte that is in the house of the LORDE. So the glory of the LORDE was vpon them.

20 This is the beest that I sawe vnder the God of Israel, by the water of Cobar. And I perceaued, that it was the Cherubins.

21 Euery one had foure faces, & euery one foure wynges, & vnder their wynges, as it were mes hondes.

22 Now the figure of their faces was, euen as I had sene them, by the water of Cobar, & so was the countenance of the: Euery one in his goinge wente straight forwarde.

Chapter 11

1 Morouer, the sprete of the LORDE lift me vp, & brought me vnto ye east porte of the LORDES house. And beholde, there were xxv men vnder the dore: amoge whom I sawe Iaasania the sonne of Asur, & Pheltias the sonne of Banias, the rulers of the people.

2 Then sayde the LORDE vnto me: Thou sonne of man: These men ymagin myschefe, and a wicked councel take they in this cite,

3 sayenge: Tush, there is no destruccion at honde, let vs buylde houses: This Ierusalem is the cauldron, & we be the flesh.

4 Therefore shalt thou prophecie vnto them, yee prophecie shalt thou vnto them, O sonne of man.

5 And with that, fell the sprete of the LORDE vpon me, and sayde vnto me: Speake, thus saieth the LORDE: On this maner haue yee spoke (O ye house of Israel) and I knowe the ymaginacios of youre hertes.

6 Many one haue ye murthured in this cite, & filled the stretes full of the slayne.

7 Therefore, thus saieth the LORDE God: The slayne men that ye haue layed on the grounde in this cite, are the flesh, & this cite is the cauldron: But I wil bringe you out of it:

8 ye haue drage out ye swearde, eue so wil I also bringe a swearde ouer you, saieth ye LORDE God.

9 I will dryue you out of this cite and delyuer you in to youre enemies honde, & wil condemne you.

10 Ye shal be slayne in all the coastes of Israel, I wil be avenged of you: to lerne you for to knowe, that I am the LORDE.

11 This cite shal not be youre cauldron, nether shal ye be the flesh therin: but in the coastes of Israel wil I punysh you,

12 that ye maye knowe, that I am the LORDE: in whose commaundementes ye haue not walked, ner kepte his lawes: but haue done after the customes of the Heithen, that lie rounde aboute you.

13 Now when I preached, Pheltias the sonne of Banias dyed. Then fell I downe vpo my face, & cried with a loude voyce: O LORDE God, wilt thou then vterly destroye all the remnaunt in Israel?

14 And so the worde of the LORDE came to me on this maner:

15 Thou sonne of man: Thy brethren, thy kynsfolke, & ye whole house of Iuda, which dwell at Ierusalem, saye: They be gone farre from the LORDE, but the londe is geuen vs in possession.

16 Therefore tell them, thus saieth the LORDE God: I wil sende you farre of amoge the Gentiles, & scatre you amonge the nacions, & I wil halowe you but a litle, in the londes where ye shall come.

17 Tell them also, thus saieth the LORDE God: I wil gather you agayne out of the nacions, & bringe you from the countrees where ye be scatred, & will geue you the londe of Israel agayne:

18 & thither shal ye come. And as for all impedimentes, & all youre abhominacions: I will take them awaye.

19 And I wil geue you one herte, & wil plante a new sprete within yor bowels. That stony herte wil I take out of youre body, & geue you a fleshy herte:

20 that ye maye walke in my commaundementes, and kepe myne ordinaunces, & do them: that ye maye be my people, and I youre God.

21 But loke whose hertes are disposed to folowe their abhominacions and wicked lyuynges: Those mens dedes will I bringe vpon their owne heades, saieth the LORDE God.

22 After this dyd the Cherubins lift vp their wynges, and the wheles wente with them, and the glory of the LORDE was vpon them.

23 So the glory of the LORDE wente vp from the myddest of the cite, & stode vpon the mount of the cite towarde the east.

24 sprete of God) it brought me agayne in to Caldea amonge the presoners. Then the vision that I had sene, vanyshed awaye fro me.

25 So I spake vnto the presoners, all the wordes of the LORDE, which he had shewed me.

Chapter 12

1 The worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne of ma, thou dwellest in the myddest of a frauwerde housholde: which haue eyes to se, & yet se not: cares haue they to heare, and yet heare they not, for they are an obstinate housholde.

3 Therefore (O thou sonne of man) make thy gere redy to flit, and go forth by fayre daye light, yt they maye se. Yee eue in their sight shalt thou go from thy place to another place: yf peradventure they wil considre, yt they be an vnobedient housholde.

4 Thy gere that thou hast made redy to flit withall, shalt thou beare out by fayre daye light, that they maie se: & thou yi self shalt go forth also at eue in their sight, as a ma doth whe he flitteth.

5 Dygge thorow the wall, that they maye se, and beare thorow it the same thinge, that thou tokest vp

6 in their sight. As for thy self, thou shalt go forth in the darcke. Hyde thy face that thou se not ye earth, for I haue made the a shewtoke vnto the house of Israel.

7 Now as ye LORDE comaunded me, so I dyd: ye gere that I had made redy, brought I out by daye. At euen I brake downe an hole thorow the wall with my honde: & when it was darcke, I toke the gere vpo my shulders, and bare them out in their sight.

8 And in the mornyng, came the worde of the LORDE vnto me, sayenge:

9 Thou sonne of man, yf Israel, yt frauwerde housholde axe the, and saye: what dost thou there?

10 Then tell them: Thus saith the LORDE God: This punyishment toucheth the chefe rulers at Ierusalem, and all the house of Israel, that dwell amonge them: 11 Tell them: I am youre shewtoken: like as I haue done, so shal it happen vnto you: Flyt shal ye also, and go in to captiuyte.

12 The chefest that is amonge you, shall lade his shulders in the darcke, and get him awaye. He shal breake downe the wall, to carie stuff there thorow: He shal couer his face, that he se not the gronde, with his eyes.

13 My lyne will I sprede out vpon him, and catch him in my net, and carie him to Babilon, in the lode of the Caldees: which he shal not se, & yet shal he dye there.

14 As for all his helpers, and all his hoostes that be aboute him: I will scatere them towarde all the wyndes, and drawe out a swerde after them.

15 So when I haue scatred them amonge the Heithen, and strowed them in the londes: they shal knowe, that I am ye LORDE.

16 But, I will leaue a litle nombre of them, from the swerde, hunger & pestilence: to tell all their abhominacions amonge the Heithen, where they come: that they maye knowe, how that I am the LORDE.

17 Morouer, the worde of the LORDE came vnto me sayenge:

18 Thou sonne of man: with a fearfull treblinge shalt thou eate thy bred, with carefulnesse & sorowe shalt thou drynke thy water.

19 And vnto the people of the londe, speake thou on this maner: Thus saith the LORDE God, to them that dwell in Ierusalem, and to the londe of Israel: Ye shall eate youre bred with sorowe, and drynke youre water with heuynesse: Yee the londe with the fulnesse therof shalbe layde waist, for ye wickednesse of them that dwell therein.

20 And the cities that now be well occupied, shal be voyde, and the londe desolate: that ye maye knowe, how that I am the LORDE.

21 Yet came the worde of the LORDE vnto me agayne, sayenge:

22 Thou sonne of man, what maner of byworde is that, which ye vse in the londe of Israel, sayenge: Tush, seyng that the daies are so slacke in comynge, all the visios are of none effecte:

23 Tell them therefore, thus saith the LORDE God: I wil make that byworde to ceasse, so that it shall nomore be comonly vsed in Israel. But saye this vnto them: The daies are at honde, that euery thinge which hath bene prophecied, shalbe fulfilled.

24 There shall no vision be in vayne, nether eny prophecie fayle amonge the children of Israel:

25 For it is I the LORDE, that speake it: and what so euer I ye LORDE speake, it shal be performed, and not be slacke in comynge. Yee euen in youre dayes (O ye frauwerde housholde) will I deuyse somethinge, & bringe it to passe, saith the LORDE God.

26 And the worde of the LORDE came vnto me sayenge:

27 Beholde, thou sonne of man: The house of Israel saye in this maner: Tush, as for the vision that he hath sene, it will be many a daye or it come to passe: Is it farre of yet, the thinge that he prophecietieth.

28 Therefore saye vnto them: Thus saith the LORDE God: All my wordes shal nomore be slacke: Loke what I speake, that same shal come to passe, saith the LORDE.

Chapter 13

1 The worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayege:

2 Thou sonne of man, Speake prophecie agaynst those prophetes, that preach in Israel: & saye thou vnto them that prophecie out of their owne hertes: Hear the worde of the LORDE,

3 thus saith the LORDE God: Wo be vnto those folish prophetes, that folowe their owne sprete, and speake, where they se nothinge.

4 O Israel, thy prophetes are like the foxes vpon the drie felde:

5 For they stonde not in the gappes, nether make they an hedge for the house of Israel, that me might abyde the parell in the daye of the LORDE.

6 Wayne thinges they se, & tell lies, to mayntene their preachinges withall. The LORDE (saye they) hath spoke it, when in very dede the LORDE hath not sent them.

7 Wayne visios haue ye sene, & spoke false prophecies. when ye saye: the LORDE hath spoken it, where as I neuer sayde it.

8 Therefore, thus saith the LORDE God: Because youre wordes be vayne, & ye seke out lies: Beholde, I wil vpon you, saith ye LORDE.

9 Myne hondes shal come vpon the prophetes, that loke out vayne thinges, and preach lies: they shal not be in the councill of my people, ner written in the boke of the house of Israel, nether shal they come in the londe of Israel: that ye maye knowe, how that I am the LORDE God.

10 And that for this cause: they haue disceaued my people, & tolde them of peace, where no peace was. One setteth vp a wall, & they dawbe it with lowse claye.

11 Therefore tell them which dawbe it with vntempered mortar, that it shall fall. For there shal come a greate shuwer of rayne, greate stones shall fall vpon it, & a sore storme of wynde shal breake it, 12 so shal ye wall come downe. Shal it not then be sayde vnto you: where is now the mortar, that ye dawbed it withall?

13 Therefore thus saith the LORDE God: I wil breake out in my wrothfull displeasure with a stormy wynde, so that in myne anger there shal come a mightie shuwer of rayne, & hale stones in my wrath, to destroye withall.

14 As for ye wall, that ye haue dawbed with vntempered mortar, I wil breake it downe, & make it eauen with the gronde: so that the foundation therof shal remoue, & it shal fall, yee & ye youre selues shall perish in the myddest therof: to lerne you for to knowe, that I am the LORDE.

15 Thus wil I perfourme my wrath vpon this wall, & vpon them that haue dawbed it with vntempered mortar, and then will I saye vnto you: The wall is gone, & the dawbers are awaye.

16 These are the prophetes of Israel, which prophecie vnto the cite of Ierusalem, & loke out visions of peace for them, where as no peace is, saith the LORDE God.

17 Wherefore (o thou sonne of ma,) set thy face agaynst the daughters of yi people, which prophecie out of their owne hertes: & speake thou prophecie agaynst them,

18 & saye: Thus saith the LORDE God: Wo be vnto you, that sowe pilowes vnder all arme holes, and bolsters vnder the heades both of yonge and olde, to catch soules withall. For when ye haue gotten the soules of my people in youre captiuyte, ye promyse them life, 19 and dishonoure me to my people, for an handfull of barley, & for a pece of bred: when ye kyl the soules of them that dye not, & promyse life to them, that lyue not: Thus ye dyssemble with my people, yt beleueth yor lies.

20 Wherefore thus saith the LORDE God: Beholde, I wil also vpo the pillowes, wherwith ye catch the soules in flyenge: the will I take from youre armes, & let the soules go, that ye catch in flyenge.

21 Your bolsters also wil I teare in peces, & delyuer my people out of youre honde: so that they shal come no more in youre hodes to be spoyled, & ye shal knowe, that I am the LORDE.

22 Seinge yt with youre lyes ye discomforte the herte of the rightuous, whom I haue not discomforted: Agayne: For so moch as ye corage the honde of the wicked, so that he maye not turne from his wicked waye, & lyue:

23 therefore shall ye spie out nomore vanyte, ner prophecie youre owne gessinges: for I wil delyuer my people out of youre honde, that ye maye knowe, how that I am the LORDE.

Chapter 14

1 There resorted vnto me certayne of ye elders of Israel, & sat downe by me.

2 Then came the worde of the LORDE vnto me, sayenge:

3 Thou sonne of man, these men beare their Idols in their hertes, & go purposely vpon the stomblinge block of their owne wickednesse: how darre they then axe councill at me?

4 Therefore speake vnto them, & saye:

thus saith the LORDE God: Euery man of the house of Israel that beareth his Idols in his herte, purposynge to stomble in his owne wickednesse, and commeth to a prophet, to enquire eny thinge at me by him: vnto that man wil I the LORDE myself geue answere, accordinge to the multitude of his Idols:

5 that the house of Israel maye be snared in their owne hertes, because they be clene gone fro me, for their Idols sakes.

6 Wherefore, tell the house of Israel: thus saith the LORDE God: Be conuerted, forsake youre Idols, and turne youre faces from all yor abhominacions.

7 For euery man (whether he be of the house of Israel, or a straunger, that sogeourneth in Israel) which departeth fro me, and carieth Idols in his herte, purposinge to go still stomblinge in his owne wickednesse, and commeth to a prophet, for to axe councill at me thorow him: vnto yt man wil I the LORDE geue answere, by myne owne self.

8 I wil set my face agaynst that man, and wil make him to be an example for other, yee and a comon byworde: and wil rote him out of my people, that he maye knowe, how yt I am the LORDE.

9 And yf that prophet be disceaued, when he telleth him a worde: then I the LORDE myself haue disceaued that prophet, and wil stretch forth myne honde vpon him, to rote him out of my people of Israel:

10 and they both shall be punyshed for their wickednesse. Accordinge to ye synne of him that axeth, shal the synne of the prophet be:

11 that ye house of Israel be led nomore fro me thorow erreure, and be nomore defyled in their wickednesse: but that they maye be my people, and I their God, saith the LORDE God.

12 And the worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

13 Thou sonne of man, when the londe synneth agaynst me, and goeth forth in wickednesse: I will stretch out myne hode vpon it, and destroye all the prouysion of their bred, and sende derth vpon them, to destroye man & beest in the londe.

14 And though Noe, Daniel and Iob these thre men were amonge them, yet shal they in their rightuousnesse delyuer but their owne soules, saith the LORDE God.

15 Yf I bringe noysome beestes in to the londe, to waist it vp, and it be so desolate, that no man maye go therein for beestes:

16 yf these thre men also were in the londe, as truly as I lyue (saith the LORDE God) they shal saue nether sonnes ner daughters, but be only delyuered the selues: and as for the londe, it shal be waist.

17 Or, yf I bringe a swerde in to the londe, and charge it to go thorow the londe: so that I slaye downe man and beest in it,

18 and yf these thre men were therein: As truly as I lyue (saith the LORDE God) they shal delyuer nether sonnes ner daughters, but only be saued them selues.

19 Yf I sende a pestilence in to the londe, and poure out my sore indignacion vpon it in bloude, so that I rote out of it both man and beest, 20 and yf Noe, Daniel and Iob were therin: As truly as I lyue (saieth the LORDE God) they shal delyuer nether sonnes ner daughters, but saue their owne soules in their righteousnesse.

21 Morouer, thus saieth the LORDE God: Though I sende my foure trubulous plagis vpon Ierusalem: the swearde, honger, perulous beestes and pestilence, to destroye man and beest out of it:

22 yet shal there a remnaunt be saued therin, which shal bringe forth their sonnes and daughters. Beholde, they shal come forth vnto you, and ye shall se their waye, and what they take in honde, & ye shalbe coforted, as touchinge all the plagis that I haue brought vpon Ierusalem.

23 They shall comforte you, when ye se their waye and workes: and ye shal knowe, how yt it is not without a cause, that I haue done so agaynst Ierusalem, as I dyd, saieth the LORDE God.

Chapter 15

1 The worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne of man: What commeth of the vyne amonge all other trees? and of the vyne stocke, amonge all other tymbre of the grouae?

3 Do me take wodd of it, to make eny worke withall? Or maye there a nale be made of it, to hange eny thinge vpon?

4 Beholde, it is cast in the fyre to be brent, the fyre consumeth both the endes of it, the myddest is brent to a?shes. Is it mete then for eny worke? No.

5 Seinge then, that it was mete for no worke, beinge whole: moch lesse maye there eny thinge be made of it, when the fyre hath consumed and brent it.

6 And therefore thus saieth the LORDE God: Like as I cast the vyne in to the fyre for to be brent, as other trees of the wod: Euen so wil I do with them that dwell in Ierusalem,

7 and set my face agaynst them: they shall go out from the fyre, and yet the fyre shall consume them. Then shal ye knowe, that I am the LORDE, when I set my face agaynst them,

8 and make the londe waist: because they haue so sore offended, saieth the LORDE God.

Chapter 16

1 Agayne, the worde of LORDE spake vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne of man, shewe the cite of Ierusalem their abhominacions,

3 and saye: thus saieth the LORDE God vnto Ierusalem: Thy progeny and kynred came out of the londe of Canaan, thy father was an Amorite, thy mother a Cethite.

4 In ye daye of thy byrth when thou wast borne, ye stringe of thy nauel was not cut of: thou wast not bathed in water to make the clene: Thou wast nether rubbed wt salt, ner swedled in cloutes:

5 No man regarded the so moch, as to do eny of these thinges for ye, or to shewe the soch fauoure, but thou wast vtterly cast out vpon ye felde, yee despised wast thou in the daye of thy byrth.

6 Then came I by the, and sawe the troden downe in thine owne bloude, & sayde vnto the: thou shalt be poured from thine owne bloude, fro thine owne bloude (I saye) shalt thou be clensed.

7 So I planted the, as the blossome of thy felde: thou art growen vp, & waxe greate: thou hast gotten a maruelous pleasaunt beutie, thy brestes are come vp, thy hayre is goodly growen, where as thou wast naked and bare afore.

8 Now when I wente by ye, & loked vpon the: beholde, thy tyme was come, yee eue the tyme to wowe the. Then spred I my clothes ouer the, to couer thy dishonestie: Yee I made an ooth vnto the, & married my self with the (saieth the LORDE God) & so thou becamest myne owne.

9 Then wa?shed I the with water, & poured thy bloude from the. I anoynted the with oyle,

10 I gaued the chaunge of raymentes, I made the shues of Taxus lether: I gyrthed ye aboute wt white sylcke, I clothed the with kerchues,

11 I decked the wt costly apparell, I put rynges vpon thy fyngers: a chayne aboute thy necke, 12 spages vpo thy foreheade, eare rynges vpon thyne eares, & set a beutifull crowne vpon thine heade.

13 Thus wast thou deckte with syluer & golde, & thy rayment was of fyne white sylke, of nedle worke & of dyuerse colours. Thou didest eate nothinge but symnels, honny & oyle: maruelous goodly wast thou & beutifull, yee euen a very Quene wast thou:

14 In so moch, that thy beuty was spoken of amonge the Heithen, for thou wast excellet in my beuty, which I put vpo the, saieth the LORDE God.

15 But thou hast put confidece in thine owne beuty, & played the harlot, when thou haddest gotten the a name. Thou hast committed whordome, with all that wente by the, & hast fulfilled their desyres:

16 Yee thou hast taken thy garmetes of dyuerse colours, & deckte thine aulters therwith, where vpon thou mightest fulfill thine whordome, of soch a fashion, as neuer was done, ner shalbe.

17 The goodly ornamentes & Jewels which I gaued the of myne owne golde and syluer, hast thou take, & made the mes ymages therof, and committed whordome withall.

18 Thy garmentes of dyuerse colours hast thou taken, and deckte them therwith: myne oyle & incense hast thou set before them.

19 My meate which I gaued the, as symnels, oyle & honny: (to fede the withall) that hast thou set before them, for a swete sauoure. And this came also to passe, saieth the LORDE God:

20 Thou hast take thine owne sonnes & daughters, whom thou haddest begotten vnto me: and these hast thou offred vp vnto them, to be their meate. Is this but a small whordome of thine (thinkest thou)

21 that thou slayest my children, and geuest them ouer, to be bret vnto them?

22 And yet in all thy abhominacions and whordome, thou hast not remembred the dayes of thy youth, how naked and bare thou wast at that tyme, & troden downe in thine owne bloude.

23 After all these thy wickednesses (wo wo vnto the, saieth ye LORDE)

24 thou hast buylded thy stewes and brodel houses in euery place: yee at the heade of euery strete

25 hast thou buylded the an aulter. Thou hast made thy beuty to be abhorred: thou hast layed out thy legges to euery one that came by, and multiplied thine whordome.

26 Thou hast committed fornicacion with the Egipcians thy neighbours, which had moch flesh: & thus hast thou vsed thine whordome, to anger me.

27 Beholde, I will stretch out myne honde ouer the, and wil mynish thy stoare of fode, and delyuer the ouer in to the willes of the Philistynes thine enemies, which are ashamed of thy abhominable waye.

28 Thou hast played the whore also with the Assirians, which might not satisfie the: Yee thou hast played the harlot, & not had ynough.

29 Thus hast thou still comitted thy fornicacion from the londe of Canaan vnto the Caldees, and yet thy lust not satisfied.

30 How shulde I circumside thine herte (saieth the LORDE God) seinge thou doest all these thinges, thou precious whore:

31 buyldinge thy stewes at the heade of euery strete, and thy brodel houses in all places? Thou hast not bene as an other whore, yt maketh booste of hir wynnyng:

32 but as a wife yt breaketh wedlocke, & taketh other in steade of hir hu?bode.

33 Giftes are geuen to all other whores, but thou geuest rewardes vnto all thy louers: & offrest them giftes, to come vnto the out of all places, & to committe fornicacio with the.

34 It is come to passe with the in thy whordomes, contrary to the vse of other women: yee there hath no soch fornicacion bene committed after the, seinge that thou profrest giftes vnto other, & no rewarde is geuen the: this is a contrary thinge.

35 Therefore heare the worde of the LORDE, o thou harlot:

36 Thus saieth the LORDE God: For so moch as thou hast spet thy moneye, & discouered thy shame, thorow thy whordome with all thy louers, and with all the Idols of thy abhominacions in the bloude of thy children, whom thou hast geuen them:

37 Beholde therefore, I wil gather together all thy louers, vnto whom thou hast made thy self comon: yee & all them whom thou fauourest, and euery one that thou hatest: and will discouer thy shame before the, that they all maye se thy fylthines

38 Morouer, I wil iudge the as a breaker of wedlocke and a murthurer, and recompence the thine owne bloude in wrath and gelousy.

39 I wil geue the ouer in to their power, that shal breake downe thy stewes, and destroye thy brodel houses: they shal stripe the out of thy clothes, all thy fayre & beutifull Jewels shal they take from the, and so let the syt naked & bare:

40 Yee they shal bringe the comon people vpon the, which shal stone the, & slaye the downe with their sweardes.

41 They shall burne vp thy houses, and punysh the in the sight of many wome. Thus wil I make thy whordome to cease, so that thou shalt geue out no mo rewardes.

42 Shulde I make my wrath to be still, take my gelousy from the, be content, and nomore to be displeased?

43 seinge thou remembreth not the dayes of thy youth, but hast prouoked me to wrath in all these thinges? Beholde therefore, I wil bringe thine owne wayes vpon thine heade, saieth the LORDE God: how be it, I neuer dyd vnto the, acordinge to thy wickednesse and all thy abhominacions.

44 Beholde, all they yt vse comon prouerbes, shall vse this prouerbe also agaynst the: Soch a mother, soch a daughter.

45 Thou art euen thy mothers owne daughter, that hath cast of hir hou?bonde and hir children: Yee thou art the sister of thy sisters, which forsoketh hir hu?bodes and their children. Youre mother is a Cethite, and youre father an Amorite.

46 Thine eldest sister is Samaria, she and hir daughters that dwel vpo thy left honde. But thy yongest sister that dwelleth on ye right hode, is Sodoma and hir daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their wayes, ner done after their abhominacions: But in all thy wayes thou hast bene more corrupte then they.

48 As truly as I lyue, saieth the LORDE God: Sodoma thy sister with hir daughters, hath not done so euel, as thou and thy daughters.

49 Beholde, the synnes of thy sister Sodoma were these: Pryde, fulnesse of meate, abundaunce and Idilnesse: these thinges had she and hir daughters. Besydes that, they reached not their honde to the poore and nedy, 50 but were proude, and dyd abhominable thinges before me: therefore I toke them awaye, when I had sene it.

51 Nether hath Samaria done half of thy synnes, yee thou hast exceeded them in wickednesse: In so moch that in comparison of all the abhominacions which thou hast done, thou hast made thy sisters good women.

52 Therefore beare thine owne shame, thou that in synne hast ouercome thy sisters: seinge thou hast done so abhominably, that they were better then thou. Be ashamed therfore (I saye) and beare thine owne confucion, thou that makest thy sisters good women.

53 As for their captiuyte, namely the captiuyte of Sodoma and hir dougters: the captiuyte of Samaria and hir daughters: I wil bringe them agayne, so will I also bringe agayne thy captiuyte amoge them: 54 that thou mayest take thine owne confucion vpon the, and be ashamed of all that thou hast done, and to comforte them.

55 Thus thy sisters (namely) Sodoma and hir daughters: Samaria and hir daughters with yi self & thy daughters, shalbe brought agayne to youre olde estate.

56 Whe thou wast in thy pryde,

57 and before thy wickednesse came to light: thou woldest not heare speake of thy sister Sodoma, vntill the tyme that the Sirians with all their townes, and the Philistynes with all that lye rounde aboute them, brought the to shame and confucion:

58 that thou mightest beare thine owne fylthynes and abhominacion, saieyth the LORDE.

59 For thus saieyth the LORDE God: I shulde (by right) deale with the, as thou hast done. Thou hast despysed the ooth, and broken the couenaunte.

60 Neuertheles, I wil remembre the couenaunt, that I made with the in thy youth, in so moch that it shall be an euerlastinge couenaunt:

61 So that thou also remembre thy wayes, and be ashamed of the: then shalt thou receaue of me thy elder and yonger sisters, whom I wil make thy daughters, and that besyde thy couenaunt.

62 And so I wil reneue my couenaunt with the, yt thou mayest knowe, that I am the LORDE:

63 that thou mayest thincke vpo it, be ashamed, and excuse thine owne confucion nomore: when I haue forgeuen the, all that thou hast done, saieyth the LORDE God.

Chapter 17

1 The worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne of man: put forth a darcke speakeyng and a parable, vnto the house of Israel,

3 and saye: Thus saieyth the LORDE God: There came a greate Aegle with greate wynges, yee wt mightie longe wynges, and full of fethers of dyuerse colours, vpon the mount of Libanus, and toke a branch from a Cedre tre,

4 and brake of the toppe of his twygge, and caried it in to the londe of Canaan, and set it in a cite of marchantes.

5 He toke also a branch of the londe, and planted it in a frutefull grounde, he brought it vnto greate waters, & set it as a wyllye tre therby.

6 Then dyd it growe, and was a greate wyne stocke, but lowe by the grounde:

thus there came of it a vyne, and it brought forth blossomes, & spred out braunches.

7 But there was another Aegle, a greate one, which had greate wynges and many fethers: and beholde, ye rotes of this vyne had an huger after him, and spred out his braunches towarde him, to water his frutes:

8 Neuertheles it was plated vpon a good grounde besyde greate waters: so that (by reason) it shulde haue brought out braunches and frute, and haue bene a goodly vyne.

9 Speake thou therfore, thus saieyth the LORDE God: Shal this vyne prospere? shal not his rotes be pluckte out, his frute broken of, his grene braunches wythereed and fade awaye? yee without ether stronge arme or many people, shal it be plucked vp by the rotes.

10 Beholde, it was planted: shall it prospere therfore? Shall it not be dryed vp and withered, yee euen in the shutinge out of his blossomes, as soone as ye east wynde bloweth?

11 Morouer, the worde of the LORDE came vnto me sayenge:

12 Speake to that frauwarde housholde: knowe ye not, what these thinges do signifie? Tell them: Beholde, the kinge of Babilon came to Ierusalem, and toke the kinge & his prynces, and ledde them to Babilon.

13 He toke of the kinges sede, and made a couenaunt with him, and toke an ooth of him: The prynces of the londe toke he with him also,

14 that the londe might be holden in subieccion, and not to rebelle, but kepe the couenaunt, and fulfill it.

15 But he fell from him, & sent his Embassitours in to Egipte, that he might haue horses & moch people. Shulde that prospere? Shulde he be kepte safe, that doth soch thinges? Or shulde he escape, that breaketh his couenaunt?

16 As truly as I lye, saieyth the LORDE God: He shal dye at Babilon, in ye place where the kinge dwelleth, that made him kinge: whose ooth he hath despised, and whose couenaunt he hat broken.

17 Nether shall Pharao with his greate hoost and multitude of people, maynteyne him in the warre: when they cast vp diches, and set vp bulworkes to destroye moch people.

18 For seinge he hath despysed the ooth, and broken the couenaunt (where as he yet gaue his honde thervpon) and done all these thinges, he shall not escape.

19 Therfore thus saieyth the LORDE God: As truly as I lye, I will bringe myne ooth that he hath despysed, and my couenaunt that he hath broken, vpon his owne heade.

20 I wil cast my net aboute him, and catch him in my yarne. To Babilon will I cary him, there will I punysh him, because of the greate offence that he made me.

21 As for those yt fle from him out of ye hoost, they shalbe slayne with the swearde. The residue shalbe scatred towarde all the wyndes: and ye shal knowe, that I the LORDE haue spoken it. 22 Thus saieyth the LORDE God: I will also take a branch from an hie Cedre tre, and will set it, and take the vppermost twygge, that yet is but tendre, and plante it vpon an hie hill:

23 Namely, vpon the hie hill of Sion will I plante it: that it maye bringe forth twygges, and geue frute, and be a greate Cedre tre: so that all maner of foules maye byde in it, and make their nestes vnder the shadowe of his braunches.

24 And all the trees of the felde shall knowe, that I the LORDE haue brought downe the hie tre, and set the lowe tre vp: that I haue dryed vp the grene tre, and made the drye tre to florish: Euen I the LORDE yt spake it, haue also brought it to passe.

Chapter 18

1 The worde of the LORDE came vnto me, on this maner:

2 what meane ye by this comon prouerbe, that ye vse in the londe of Israel, sayenge: The fathers haue eaten soure grapes, and the childres teth are set on edge?

3 As truly as I lye, saieyth ye LORDE God, ye shal vse this byworde nomore in Israel.

4 Beholde, all soules are myne. Like as the father is myne, so is ye sonne myne also. The soule that synneth, shal dye.

5 Yf a man be godly, and do the thinge that is equall & right,

6 (he eateth not vpon the hilles: he lifteth not his eyes vp to the Idols of Israel: he defyleth not his neighbours wife: he medleth wt no menstruous woman:

7 he greueth no body: he geueth his detter his pledge agayne: he taketh none other mans good by violece: he parteth his mete with the hongrie: he clotheh the naked:

8 he lendeth nothinge vpon vsury: he taketh nothinge ouer: he withdraweth his honde from doinge wronge: he hadleth faithfully betwixte man & man:

9 he walbeth in my commaundementes, & kepeth my lawes, & perfourmeth the faithfully:) This is a righteous ma, he shal surely lye, saieyth the LORDE God.

10 Yf he now get a sonne, that is a murthurer, a shedder of bloude: yf he do one of these thinges

11 (though he do not all) he eateth vpon the hilles: he defyleth his neighbours wife:

12 he greueth the poore and nedy: he robbeth and spoyleth: he geueth not the detter his pledge agayne: he lifteth vp his eyes vnto Idols, & medleth with abhominable thinges:

13 he lendeth vpon vsury, and taketh more ouer. Shal this man lye? He shal not lye. Seinge he hath done all these abhominacions, he shall dye: his bloude shalbe vpon him.

14 Now yf this man get a sonne also, that seith all this fathers synnes, which he hath done: and feareth, nether doth soch like:

15 Namely, he eateth not vpon the mountaynes: he lifteth not his eyes vp to the Idols of Israel: he defyleth not his neighbours wife:

16 he vexeth no man: he kepeth no mans pledge: he nether spoyleth, ner robbeth eny man: he dealeth his meate with the hungrye: he clotheh the naked:

17 he oppresseth not the poore: he receaueth no vsury, ner eny thinge ouer: he kepeth my lawes, and walketh in my commaundementes: This man shal not dye in his fathers synne, but shall lye without fayle.

18 As for his father: because he oppressed and spoyled his brother, and dyd wyckedly amonge his people: lo, he is deed in his owne synne.

19 And yet saye ye: Wherefore the shulde not this sonne beare his fathers synne? Therfore: because the sonne hath done equyte and right, hath kepte all my commaundementes, and done them: therfore, shall he lye in dede.

20 The same soule yt synneth, shall dye. The sonne shal not beare the fathers offence, nenether shal the father beare the sonnes offence. The righteousnes of the righteous shall be vpon himself, and the wickednes of the wicked shal be vpon him self also.

21 But yf ye vngodly will turne awaye, from all his synnes that he hath done, and kepe all my commaundemetes, and do the thinge ye is equall & right: doutles he shal lye, and not dye.

22 As for all his synnes that he dyd before, they shal not be thought vpon: but in his righteousnes that he hath done, he shall lye.

23 For haue I eny pleasure in the death of a synner, saieyth the LORDE God? but rather that he conuerte, and lye?

24 Agayne: yf the righteous turne awaye from his righteousnes, and do iniqyete, acordinge to all the abhominacions, that ye wicked ma doth: shal he lye? All the righteousnes that he hath done, shall not be thought vpo: but in the fawte that he hath offended withall, and in the synne that he hath done, he shal dye.

25 And yet ye saye: Tush, the waye of ye LORDE is not indifferet. Heare therfore ye house of Israel: Is not my waye right? Or, are not youre wayes rather wicked?

26 When a righteous ma turneth awaye from his righteousnesse, and medleth with vngodlynes: he must dye therin: Yee for the vnrighteousnes that he hath done, must he dye.

27 Agayne: when the wicked man turneth awaye from his wickednesse, that he hath done, and doth the thinge which is equall and right: he shal saue his soule alyue.

28 For in so moch as he remembreth himself, and turneth him from all the vngodlynes, that he hath vsed, he shall lye, and not dye.

29 And yet saieyth the house of Israel: Tush, the waye of the LORDE is not equall. Are my wayes vnright, o ye house of Israel? Are not youre wayes rather vnequall?

30 As for me, I wil iudge euery man, acordinge to his wayes, O ye house of Israel, saieith the LORDE God. Wherefore, be conuerted, and turne you clene from all youre wickednesse, so shal there no synne do you harme.

31 Cast away fro you all youre vngodlynesse, that ye haue done: make you new hertes and a new sprete. Wherefore wil ye dye, O ye house of Israel?

32 seyng I haue no pleasure in ye death of him that dyeth, saieith the LORDE God. Turne you then, and ye shal lyue.

Chapter 19

1 Bvt mourne thou for the prynces off Israel,

2 & saye: Wherefore laye thy mother that lyonnesse, amoge the lyons? & norished hir yonge ones amoge the lyons whelpes? 3 to spoyle, and to deuoure folke.

4 The Heithen herde of him, & toke him in their nettes, & brought him in chaynes vnto the londe of Egipte.

5 Now when the damme sawe, that all hir hope & comforth was awaye, she toke another of hir whelpes, and made a lyon of him:

6 which wente amonge the lyons, & became a fearece lyon: lerned to spoyle and to deuoure folcke:

7 he destroyed their palaces, and made their cities waist: In so moch that the whole londe and euery thinge therin, were vtterly desolate, thorow the very voyce of his roaringe.

8 Then came the Heithen together on euery syde out of all countrees agaynst him, layed their nettes for him, and toke him in their pytte.

9 So they bounde him with chaynes, and brought him to the kinge of Babilon: which put him in preson, that his voyce shulde nomore be herde vpon the mountaynes of Israel.

10 As for thy mother, she is like a vyne in thy bloude, planted by the watersyde: hir frutes and braunches are growen out of many waters:

11 hir stalkes were so stronge, that men might haue made staues therof for officers: she grew so hie in hir stalkes. So when men sawe that she exceded ye heith and multitude of hir braunches,

12 she was roted out in displeasure, and cast downe to the grounde. The East wynde dried vp hir frute, hir stronge stalkes were broken of, wythered and brent in the fyre.

13 But now she is planted in the wilderness, in a drye and thurstie grounde.

14 And there is a fyre gone out of hir stalkes, which hath bret vp hir braunches and hir frute: so that she hath no mo stronge stalkes, to be staues for officers. This is a piteous and miserable thinge.

Chapter 20

1 In in the xvij yeare the x daye of the v Moneth, it happened, that certayne of the elders of Israel came vnto me for to axe councell at the LORDE, and sat them downe by me.

2 Then came the worde of the LORDE vnto me on this maner:

3 Thou sonne of man: Speake to the elders of Israel, and saye vnto them: Thus saieith the LORDE God: Are ye come hither to axe eny thinge at me? As truly as I lyue (saieith the LORDE,)

4 I will geue you no answere. Wilt thou not reproue them (thou sonne of man) wilt thou not reproue them? Shewe them the abhominacions of their forefathers,

5 & tell the: Thus saieith the LORDE God: In the daye when I chose Israel, and lift vp myne honde vpon the sede of the house of Iacob, & shewed my self vnto them in the londe of Egipte: Yee when I lifte vp myne honde ouer the, and sayde: I am the LORDE youre God,

6 euen in the daye that I lift vp myne honde ouer them, to bringe them out of the londe of Egipte: in to a londe that I had prouided for them, which floweth with mylcke and hony, and is a pleasaunt lode amonge all other:

7 Then sayde I vnto them: Cast awaye euery man the abhominacions that he hath before him, and defyle not youre selues with the Idols of Egipte, for I am the LORDE youre God.

8 But they rebelled agaynst me, and wolde not folowe me: to cast awaye euery man the abhominacions of his eyes, and to forsake the Idols of Egipte. Then I made me to poure my indignacion ouer them, and to satisfie my wrath vpon them: yee euen in the myddest of the londe of Egipte.

9 But I wolde not do it, for my names sake: that it shulde not be vnhalowed before the Heithen, amonge whom they dwelt, and amonge whom I shewed my self vnto them, that I wolde bringe them out of the londe of Egipte.

10 Now when I had caried them out of the londe of Egipte, and brought them into the wilderness:

11 I gaue them my commaundementes, & shewed the my lawes: which who so kepeth shal lyue in them.

12 I gaue them also my holy dayes, to be a token betwixte me and them, and therby to knowe, that I am the LORDE, which haloweth them.

13 And yet the house of Israel rebelled agaynst me in the wilderness, they wolde not walke in my commaundementes, they haue cast awaye my lawes: (which whoso kepeth shulde lyue in them,) and my Sabbath daies haue thy greatly vnhalowed. The I made me to poure out my indignacion vpon them, & to cosume them in the wilderness.

14 Yet I wolde not do it, for my names sake: lest it shulde be dishonoured before the Heithe, from the which I had caried them awaye.

15 But I swore vnto them in the wilderness, that I wolde not bringe them into the londe, which I gaue them: a londe that floweth with mylcke & hony, & is a pleasure of all londes:

16 & yt because they refused my lawes,

& walked not in my comaundemetes, but had vnhalowed my Sabbathes, for their herte was gone after their Idols.

17 Neuertheles myne eye spared the, so yt I wolde not vtterly slaye the, & cosume the in the wilderness.

18 Morouer, I sayde vnto their sonnes in ye wilderness: walke not in the statutes of yor forefathers, kepe not their ordinaunces, and defyle not youre selues with their Idols,

19 for I am the LORDE youre God. But walke in my statutes, kepe my lawes & do them, 20 halowe my Sabbathes: for they are a token betwixte me & you, that ye maye knowe, how yt I am the LORDE.

21 Notwithstodginge, their sonnes rebelled against me also: they walked not in my statutes, they kepeth not my lawes to fulfill them (which he that doth shal lyue in them) nether halowed they my Sabbath dayes. The I made me agayne to poure out my indignacion ouer them, and to satisfie my wrath vpon them in the wilderness.

22 Neuertheles I with drewe my honde for my names sake, lest it shulde be vnhalowed amonge the Heithe, before whom I had brought them forth.

23 I lift vp myne honde ouer them also in the wilderness, that I wolde scatere them amonge the Heithen, and strowe them amonge the nacions:

24 because they had not kepeth my lawes, but cast asyde my commaundementes, vnhalowed my Sabbathes, and lift vp their eyes to their fathers Idols.

25 Wherefore I gaue them also commaundementes not good, & lawes thorow the which they shulde not lyue, 26 & I vnhalowed them in their owne giftes: (when I appoynted for my self all their first borne) to make them desolate: that they might knowe, how that I am the LORDE.

27 Therefore (O thou sonne of man) tell the house of Israel, thus saieith the LORDE God: Besyde all this, youre forefathers haue yet blasphemed me more, and greatly offended agaynst me:

28 For after I had brought them in to the londe, yt I promysed to geue them, when they sawe euery hie hill & all the thicke trees: they made there their offringes, and prouoked me with their oblacions, makinge swete sauoures there, & poured out their drinkeoffringes.

29 Then I axed them: what haue ye to do with all, that ye ye go thither? And therfore is it called the hie place vnto this daye.

30 Wherefore, speake vnto the house of Israel: Thus saieith the LORDE God: Ye are euen as vnclene as youre forefathers, & committe whordome also with their abhominacios.

31 In all youre Idols, where vnto ye bringe youre oblacions, & to whose honoure ye burne youre children: ye defyle youre selues, euen vnto this daye: how darre ye the come, and axe eny question at me? O ye housholde of Israel? As truly as I lyue (saieith the LORDE God) ye get no answere of me:

32 & as for the thinge that ye go aboute, it shal not come to passe, where as ye saye: we wil be as the Heithen, & do as other people in the londe, wod & stone wil we worshipe.

33 As truly as I lyue (saieith the LORDE God) I myself, wil rule you with a mightie honde, with a stretchedout arme, and with indignacion poured out ouer you:

34 & wil bringe you out of the nacions and londes, wherin ye are scatred: and gather you together with a mightie hode, with a stretchedout arme & wt indignacion poured out vpon you:

35 & wil bringe you in to the wilderness of the people, & there I will reason with you face to face.

36 Like as I punished yor forefathers in the wilderness, so wil I punish you also, saieith the LORDE God.

37 I wil bringe you vnder my iuri?diction, and vnder the bonde of the couenaunt.

38 The forsakers also and the transgressours wil I take from amonge you, & bringe them out of the londe of youre habitacion: as for the londe of Israel, they shall not come in it: that they maye knowe, how that I am the LORDE. 39 Go now then (saieith the LORDE God) ye house of Israel, cast awaye, and destroye euery man his Idols: then shal ye heare me, and nomore blaspheme my holy name with youre offrynges and Idols.

40 But vpon my holy hill, eue vpon the hie hill of Israel shal all the house of Israel and all that is in the londe, worshipe me: and in the same place will I faouere them, and there will I requyre youre heaueoffringes, and the firstlinges of youre oblacions, with all youre holy thinges.

41 I wil accepte youre swete sauoure, when I bringe you from the nacions, and gather you together out of the londes, wherin ye be scatred: that I maye be halowed in you before the Heithen, 42 and that ye maye knowe, that I am the LORDE, which haue brought you in to the londe of Israel: yee in to the same lode, that I swore to geue vnto youre forefathers.

43 There shal ye call to remembraunce youre owne wayes and all youre ymaginacions, wherin ye baue bene defyled: and ye shal be displeasid with youre owne selues, for all youre wickednes, that ye haue done.

44 And ye shal knowe, that I am the LORDE: when I entreate you after my name, not after yor wicked wayes, ner accordinge to youre corrupte workes: o ye house of Israel, saieith the LORDE.

45 Morouer, the worde of ye LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

46 Thou sonne of ma, set thy face towarde the south, & speake to the south wynde,

47 and saye to the wodde towarde the south: Heare the worde of the LORDE, thus saieith the LORDE God: Beholde, I wil kyndle a fyre in the, yt shal cosume the grene trees wt the drye. No man shal be able to quench his flame, but all that loketh from the south to the north, shal be brent therin:

48 & all flesh shal se, that I the LORDE haue kyndled it, so that no man maye quench it.

49 Then sayde I: O LORDE, they wil saye of me: Tush, they are but fables, that he telleth.

Chapter 21

1 The worde of the LORDE came to me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face towarde Ierusalem, speake agaynst the Sanctuary, & prophecie agaynst the londe of Israel, saye to the lode of Israel:

3 Thus saith the LORDE God: Beholde, I wil vpon the, & wil drawe my swearde out of ye sheth, & rote out of ye both the rightuous & the wicked.

4 Seinge then that I will rote out of the both the rightuous & wicked, therfore shal my swearde go out of his sheth, agaynst all flesh from the north to the south:

5 that all flesh maye knowe, how that I the LORDE haue drawn my swearde out of the sheth, & it shal not be put in agayne.

6 Mourne therfore (o thou sonne of man) yt thy loynes crack withall, yee mourne bitterly for them:

7 And yf they saye, wherfore mournest thou? Then tell them: for the tydings that commeth, at the which all hertes shall melt, all hondes shal be letten downe, all stomackes shal faynte, and all knees shall waxe feble. Beholde, it commeth & shal be fulfilled, saith the LORDE God.

8 Agayne, the worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

9 Thou sonne of man, prophecie, and speake: Thus saith the LORDE God: speake, the swearde is sharpened & wel scoured.

10 Sharpened is it for the slaughter, & scoured yt it maye be bright. O, the destroyenge staff of my sonne, shal bringe downe all wodde.

11 He hath put his swearde to ye dightinge, yt good holde maye be take of it. This swearde is sharpened & dight, yt it maye be geuen in to the honde of the manslayer.

12 Crie (o thou sonne of man) and howle, for this swearde shal smyte my people, & all the rulers in Israel, which with my people shall be slayne downe to the grounde thorow this swearde.

13 Smyte thou vpo thy thee, for, wherfore shulde not the plage & staff of iudgmet come?

14 Prophecy thou sonne of man, & smyte thine hodes together: make the swearde two edged, yee make it thre edged, yt manslayers swearde, that swearde of the greate slaughter, which shal smyte them, euen in their prey chambers:

15 to make them abashed & faynte at the hertes, & in all gates to make some of them fall. O how bright and sharpe is it, how wel dight & mete for ye slaughter?

16 Get the to some place alone, ether vpon the right honde or on the lefte, whither so euer thy face turneth.

17 I wil smyte my hondes together also, and satisfie my wrathfull indignacion: Euen I the LORDE haue sayde it.

18 The worde of the LORDE came yet vnto me agayne, sayenge:

19 Thou sonne of man, make the two stretes, that the swearde of ye kinge of Babilo maye come. Both these stretes shall go out of one londe. He shal set him vp a place, at the heade of the strete shal he chose him out a corner.

20 Make ye a strete, that the swearde maye come towarde Rabath of the Ammonites, and to the stronge cite of Ierusalem.

21 For the kinge of Babilon shall stonde in the turnyng of the waye, at the heade of the two stretes: to axe counsell at the soysayers, castinge the lottes with his arowes, to axe counsell at the Idols, and to loke in the lyuer.

22 But the soysayenge shall poynte to the right syde vpon Ierusalem, that he maye set men of warre, to smyte it with a greate noyse, to crie out Alarum, to set batellrammes agaynst the gates, to graue vp dyches, & to make bulworkes.

23 Neuertheles, as for ye soysayenge, they shall holde it but for vanite, euen as though a iest were tolde them: Yee and they them selues remembre their wickednesse, so that by right they must be take and wonne.

24 Therfore saith the LORDE God: For so moch as ye youre selues shewe your offence, and haue opened youre wickednesse, so that in all youre workes men maye se youre synnes: Yee in so moch (I saye) that ye youre selues haue made mencion therof, ye shalbe taken by violence.

25 O thou shameful wicked gyde of Israel, whose daye is come: euen the tyme that wickednesse shall haue an ende:

26 Thus saith the LORDE God: take awaye the mytre, and put of the crowne, and so is it awaye: the humble is exalted, and the proude brought lowe.

27 Punysh, punysh, yee punysh them will I, and destroye them: and that shall not be fulfilled, vntill he come, to whom the iudgment belongeth, and to whom I haue geue it.

28 And thou (o sonne of man) prophecy, & speake: Thus saith the LORDE God to the children of Ammon, & to their blasphemy, speake thou: The swearde, the swearde, is drawn forth alreedy to the slaughter, & scoured that it glistreth 29 (because thou hast loked the out vanities, & prophecied lyes) yt it maye come vpon thy necke, like as vpo the other vngodly, which be slayne: whose daye came, when their wickednesse was full.

30 Though it were put vp agayne into the sheath, yet will I punysh the, in the londe where thou wast norished & borne,

31 and poure my indignacion vpon the,

and will blowe vpon the in the fyre of my wrath, and delyuer the vnto cruell people, which are lerned to destroye.

32 Thou shalt fede the fyre, and yi bloude shall be shed in the londe, that thou mayest be put out of remembrance. Euen I the LORDE haue spoken it.

Chapter 22

1 Morouer, the worde of ye LORDE came vnto me, & sayde:

2 Thou sonne of man, wilt thou not reprove this bloudthurstie cite? Shewe the their abhominacios,

3 & tell them: Thus saith the LORDE God: O thou cite, yt sheddest bloude in ye myddest of the, yt thy tyme maye come also: and makest the Idols to defyle the withall.

4 Thou hast made thy self guilty, in ye bloude yt thou hast shed: & defyled ye i ye ydols, which thou hast made. Thou hast caused thy daies to drawe nye, & made the tyme of thy yeares to come. Therfore will I make ye to be confounded amoge the Heithe, & to be despised in all the lodes,

5 whether they be nye or farre fro the: they shal laugh ye to scorne, thou yt hast gotte the so foule a name, & art full off myschefe.

6 Beholde, the rulers of Israel haue brought euery man his power, to shed bloude in the.

7 In the haue they despised father & mother, in the haue they oppressed the strauger, in the haue they vexed the wyddowe & the fatherlesse.

8 Thou hast despysed my Sactuary, and vnhalowed my Sabbath.

9 Murtherers are there in the, that shed bloude, & eate vpon the hilles, and in the they vse vnhappyenesse.

10 In ye haue they discouered their fathers shame, in the haue they vexed women in their sicknesse.

11 Euery ma hath dealte shamefully with his neghbours wife, & abhominably defyled his daughter in lawe. In the hath euery man forced his owne sister, euen his fathers daughter:

12 Yee giftes haue bene receaued in the, to shed bloude. Thou hast taken vsury & encrease, thou hast oppressed thy neghbours by extorcion, and forgotten me, saith the LORDE God.

13 Beholde, I haue smytten my hondes vpo thy couetousnesse, that thou hast vsed, and vpon the bloude which hath bene shed in the.

14 Is thy herte able to endure it, or maye thy hondes defende them selues, in the tyme that I shall bringe vpon the? Euen I the LORDE that speake it, will bringe it also to passe.

15 I will scatere the amonge the Heithen, & strowe the aboute in the lodes, and wil cause thy fylthynesse to cease out off the:

16 yee and I will haue the in possession in the sight of the Heithen, that thou mayest knowe, that I am the LORDE,

17 And the worde off the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

18 Thou sonne of man, the house of Israel is turned to drosse. C All they that shulde be brasse, tynne, yro & leade, are in the fyre become drosse.

19 Therefore, thus saith the LORDE God: For so moch as ye all are turned in to drosse, beholde: I will brynge you together vnto Ierusalem, 20 like as syluer, brasse, yron, tynne and leade are put together in the fornace, and the fyre blowen there vnder to melt them: Euen so will I gather you, put you in together, and melt you in my wrath and indignacion.

21 I will brynge you together, and kyndle the fyre of my cruell displeasure vnder you, that ye maye be melted therin.

22 Like as the syluer is melted in the fyre, so shall ye also be melted therin: that ye maye knowe, how that I the LORDE haue poured my wrath vpon you.

23 And the worde off the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

24 Thou sonne of ma, tell her: Thou art an vnclene londe, which is not rayned vpon in the daye off the cruell wrath:

25 thy prophetes that are in the, are sworne together to deuoure soules, like as a roaringe Lyon, that lyueth by his pray. They receaue riches and good, and make many wyddowes in ye.

26 Thy prestes breake my lawe, and defyle my Sanctuary. They put no dyfference betwene the holy and vnholy, nether discerne betwene the clene and vnclene: they turne their eyes fro my Sabbathes, and I am vnhalowed amonge them.

27 Thy rulers in the are like rauyshinge wolues, to shed bloude, and to destroye soules, for their owne covetous lucre.

28 As for thy prophetes, they dawbe with vntempered claye, they se vanities, and prophecie lies vnto them, sayenge: the LORDE God sayeth so, where as the LORDE hath not spoken

29 The people in the londe vseth wicked extorcio and robbery. They vex the poore and nedy: and oppresse the straunger agaynst right.

30 And I sought in the londe for a man, that wolde make vp the hedge, and set him self in the gappe before me in the lodes behalfe, yt I shulde not vtterly destroye it: but I coude fynde none.

31 Therfore wil I poure out my cruell displeasure vpon them, and burne them in the fyre of my wrath: their owne wayes will I recompence vpo their heades, saith the LORDE God.

Chapter 23

1 The worde off the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne of man, there were two wome, that had one mother:

3 These (when they were yonge) beganne to playe the harlottes in Egipte. There were their brestes brussted, and the pappes off their maydenheade destroyed.

4 The eldest of them was called Oola, and hir yongest sister Ooliba. These two were myne, and bare sonnes and daughters. Their names were, Samaria, and that was Oola: and Ierusalem, that was Ooliba.

5 As for Oola, she beganne to go a whorynge, when I had take her to me. She was set on fyre vpon hir louers the Assirians, 6 which had to do with her: euen the prynces and lordes, that were deckte in costly araye: fayre yonge men, lusty ryders of horses.

7 Thus thorow hir whordome, she cleued vnto all the yonge men off Assiria: Yee she was made vpon them, and defyled herself with all their Idols.

8 Nether ceased she fro the fornicacio, that she vsed with the Egipcians: for in hir youth they laye wt her, they brussted the brestes of hir maydenheade, and poured their wordome vpon her.

9 Wherefore, I deluyered her in to ye hodes of hir louers, euen the Assirians, whom she so loued.

10 These discouered hir shame, toke hir sonnes and daughters, and slewe her with the swearde: An euell name gat she of all people, ad they punyshed her.

11 Hir sister Ooliba sawe this, ad destroyed herself wt inordinate loue, more then she, & exceeded hir sister in whordome:

12 she loued ye Assirians (which also laye wt her) namely, the prynces & greate lordes, that were clothed wt all maner of gorgeous apparell, all lusty horsmen and fayre yonge personnes.

13 Then I sawe, that they both were defyled a like.

14 But she increased still in whordome: for when she sawe men paynted vpon the wall, the ymages off the Caldees set forth with fresh colours,

15 with fayre gyrdles aboute them, and goodly bonettes vpon their heades, lokyng all like prynces (after ye maner of the Babilonias and Caldees in their owne londe, where they be borne).

16 Inmediatly, as soone as she sawe them, she brent in loue vpon them, and sent messaugers for them in to the londe of the Caldees.

17 Now when the Babilonias came to her, they laye with her, and defyled her with their whordome, and so was she poluted with with them. And when hir lust was abated from them, 18 hir whordome and shame was discouered & sene: then my herte forsoke her, like as my herte was gone from hir sister also.

19 Neuertheles she vsed hir whordome euer the longer the more, and remembred the dayes off hir youth, wherin she had played the harlot in the londe off Egipte:

20 she brent in lust vpon them, whose flesh was like ye flesh of Asses, and their sede like the sede off horses.

21 Thus thou hast renewed the fylthynesse of thy youth, when thy louers bressed yi pappes, and married thy brestes in Egipte.

22 Therefore (o Ooliba) thus saieth ye LORDE God. I will rayse vp thy louers

(with whom thou hast satisfied thy lust) agaynst the, and gather them together rounde aboute the:

23 Namely, the Babilonians, and all the Caldees: Pecod, Schoa and Coa, with all the Assirians: all yonge and fayre louers: prynces and lordes, knyghtes and gentlemen, which be all good horsmen:

24 These shall come vpon the with horses, charettes, & a greate multitude of people: which shal be harnessed aboute the on euery syde, wt brestplates, sheldes and helmettes. I will punysh ye before them, yee they the selues shal punysh the, acordinge to their owne iudgmet.

25 I will put my gelousy vpon the, so that they shall deale cruelly with the. They shal cut of thy nose and thine eares, and the remnaunt shall fall thorow the swearde. They shall cary awaye thy sonnes and daughters, & the resydue shalbe brent in the fyre.

26 Thy shal strype the out of thy clothes, & cary thy costly Jewels awaye with them.

27 Thus will I make an ende off thy fylthynesse & whordome, which thou hast brought out of the lode of Egipte: so that thou shalt turne thine eyes nomore after them, & cast thy mynde nomore vpon Egipte.

28 For thus saieth the LORDE: Beholde, I will deluyere ye in to the hodes of them, whom thou hatest: yee euen in to the hondes of them, with who thou hast fyllylled thy lust, 29 which shall deale cruelly with ye: All thy laboure shal they take with them, and leaue the naked and bare, and thus the shame of thy filthy whordome shal come to light.

30 All these thinges shal happen vnto the, because of thy whordome, which thou hast vsed amonge the Gentiles, with whose Idols thou hast defyled yi self.

31 Thou hast walked in the waye of thy sister, therefore will I geue the hir cuppe in thy honde.

32 Thus saieth the LORDE God: Thou shalt drynke off thy sisters cuppe, how depe & farre so euer it be to the botome. Thou shalt be laughed to scorne, and had as greatly in derision, as is possible.

33 Thou shalt be full off dronckennes and sorowe, for the cuppe of yi sister Samaria is a cuppe of destruccion & waistinge:

34 the same shalt thou drynke, and suppe it out eue to ye dregges, yee thou shalt eate vp the broken peces off it, and so teare thine owne brestes: For euen I haue spoken it, saieth the LORDE God.

35 Therefore thus saieth ye LORDE God: For so moch as thou hast forgotte me, & cast me asyde, so beare now thine owne fylthynesse & whordome.

36 The LORDE sayde morouer vnto me: Thou sonne of ma, wilt thou not reprove Oola & Ooliba? Shewe the their abhominacios:

37 namely, yt they haue broke their wedlocke, & stayned their hodes wt bloude: yee euen wt their Idols haue they committed aduoutry, & offred them their owne children (to be deuoured) who they had borne vnto me.

38 Yee & this haue they done vnto me also: they haue defyled my Sactuary in that same daye, & haue vnhalowed my Sabbath.

39 For when they had slayne their childe for their Idols, they came the same daye in to my Sanctuary, to defyle it. Lo, this haue they done in my house.

40 Besyde all this, thou hast sent yi messaugers for men out of farre coutrees: and whe they came, thou hast bathed, trymmed and set forth thy self off the best fashion:

41 thou sattest vpo a goodly bed, & a table spred before the: wherupon thou hast set myne incense and myne oyle.

42 Then was there greate cheare wt her, & the men yt were sent fro farre coutrees ouer the deserte: vnto these they gaue bracelettes vpon their hondes, & set gloriously crownes vpon their heades.

43 Then thought I: no doute, these wil vse their harlotry also wt yoder olde whore.

44 And they wente in to her, as vnto a comon harlot: Euen so wente they also to Oola & Ooliba, those filthy women.

45 O ye all that loue vertue and rightuousnes, iudge the, punysh them: as aduoutrers and murderers ought to be iudged and punyshed. For they are breakers off wedlocke, and the bloude is in their hondes.

46 Wherefore thus saieth the LORDE God: bringe a greate multitude off people vpon them, and make them be scatred and spoyled:

47 these shal stone them, and gorre them with their sweardes. They shal slaye their sonnes and daughters and burne vp their houses with fyre.

48 Thus will I destroye all soch fylthynes out off the londe: that all women may lerne, not to do after youre vnclennesse.

49 And so they shall laye youre fylthynesse vpon youre owne selues, and ye shalbe punyshed for the synnes, that ye haue committed with youre Idols: & ye shall knowe, that I am the LORDE.

Chapter 24

1 In the ix. yeare, in the x. Moneth. the x. daye off the Moneth, came the worde off the LORDE vnto me, sayenge:

2 O thou sonne off man, wryte vp the name off this daye, yee eue ye houre of this present daye: when the kynge of Babilon set himself agaynst Ierusalem.

3 Shewe yt obstinate housholde a parable, & speake vnto the: Thus sayet the LORDE God: Get the a pot, set it on, & poure water in to it:

4 put all the peces together in it, all the good peces: the loyne and the shulder, & fyll it with the best bones.

5 Take one off the best shepe, & an heape off bones withall: let it boyle well, & let the bones seyth well therein.

6 With that, sayde the LORDE God on this maner: Wo be vnto the bloudy cite of ye pot, wherupon the rustynesse hageht, and is not yet scoured awaye. Take out the peces that are in it, one after another: there nede no lottes be cast therfore,

7 for the bloude is yet in it Vpon a playne drye stone hath she poured it, and not vpon the gronde, that it might be couered with dust.

8 And therefore haue I letten her poure hir bloude vpon a playne drye stony rocke, because it shulde not be hid, and that I might bringe my wrothfull indignacion and vengeance vpon her.

9 Wherefore, thus saieth ye LORDE God: O, wo be vnto that bloudthurstie cite, for who I wil prepare a heape off wodde:

10 beare thou ye bones together, kyndle thou the fyre, seeth the flesh, let all be well sodde, that the bones maye be suckte out.

11 Morouer, set the pot emptye vpon the coales, that it maye be warme and the metall hote: that the fylth and rustynesse maye be consumed.

12 But it will not go off, there is so moch off it: the rustynesse must be brent out.

13 Thy filthynesse is abhominable, for I wolde haue clenched the, but thou woldest not be clenched. Thou canst not be purged from thine vnclennesse, till I haue poured my wrothfull indignacion vpon the.

14 Euen I the LORDE haue so deuysed: Yee it is come therto allredy, that I will do it. I will not go backe, I will not spare, I wil not be intreated: but acordinge to thy wayes ad ymaginacions, thou shalt be punyshed, saieth the LORDE God.

15 And the worde off the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

16 Thou some off man, beholde, I will take awaye the pleasure off thine eyes wt a plage: yet shalt thou nether mourne ner wepe, ner water thy chekes therfore:

17 thou mayest mourne by thy self alone, but vse no deadly lamentacion. Holde on thy bonet, and put on thy shues vpon thy fete, couer not thy face, and eate no mourners bred.

18 So I spake vnto the people bytymes in the mornynge, and at euen my wyfe dyed: then vpon the nexte morow, I dyd as I was comaunded.

19 And ye people sayde vnto me: wilt thou not tell vs, what that signifieth, which thou doest?

20 I answered them, the worde off the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

21 Tell the house of Israel, thus saieth ye LODDE God: beholde, I wil suspende my Sanctuary: eue the glory of youre power, the pleasure of yor eyes, and the thinge that ye loue: youre sonnes and daughters whom ye haue left, shal fall thorow the swerde.

22 Like as I haue done, so shall ye do also: Ye shal not hyde youre faces, ye shal eate no mourners bred:

23 youre bonettes shal ye haue vpon youre heades, & shues vpon youre fete Ye shal nether mourne ner wepe, but in youre synnes ye shal be soroufull, and one repete with another.

24 Thus Ezechiel is youre shewtoke. For loke as he hath done, so (when this commeth) ye shall do also: that ye mayerne to knowe, that I am ye LORDE God.

25 But beholde, O thou sonne of man: In the daye when I take from them their power, their ioye and honoure, the lust off their eyes, the burthe of their bodies: namely, their sonnes and daughters:

26 The shall there one escape, and come vnto the, for to shewe the.

27 In that daye shall yi mouth be opened to him, which is escaped, that thou mayest speake, and be nomore domme: Yee and thou shalt be their shewtoke, that they maye knowe, how that I am the LORDE.

Chapter 25

1 The worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face agaynst ye Ammonites, prophecy vpon them,

3 and saye vnto the Ammonites: Heare the worde off the LORDE God, Thus saith the LORDE God: For so moch as thou speakest ouer my Sanctuary: A ha, I trow it be now suspended: and ouer the londe of Israel, I trow it be now desolate: yee ad ouer the house of Iuda, I trow they be now led awaye presoners:

4 Beholde, I will deliuer ye to the people of the east, yt they maye haue the in possession: these shall set their castels and houses in the. They shall eate thy frute, and drynke vp thy mylcke.

5 As for Rabath, I will make of it a stall for camels, and of Ammon a shepfold: and ye shall knowe, that I am the LORDE.

6 For thus saith the LORDE God: In so moch as thou hast clapped with thine hondes, and stamped with thy fete, yee reioysed in thine herte ouer the londe of Israel with despyte:

7 beholde, I will stretch out myne hode ouer the also, and deliuer the, to be spoyled off the Heithen, and rote the out from amonge the people, and cause the be destroyed out off all londes: yee I will make the be layed waist, that thou mayest knowe, that I am the LORDE.

8 Thus saith ye LORDE God: For so moch as Moab and Seir do saye: As for the house off Iuda, it is but like as all other Getiles be:

9 Therefore beholde, I will make the cities off Moab weaponlesse, and take awaye their strength: their cities and chefe coastes off their londe, which are the pleasures off the countre: As namely, Betiesimoth, Baalmeo and Cariathaim: 10 these will I open vnto the off the east, yt they maye fall vpon the Ammonites: and will geue it them in possession: so that the Ammonites shall no more be had in remembrance amonge the Heithen.

11 Euen thus will I punysh Moab also, that they maye knowe, how that I am the LORDE.

12 Morouer, thus sayeth the LORDE God: Because that Edom hath avenged & eased himself vpon the house off Iuda, 13 therefore thus saith the LORDE: I will reach out myne honde vpon Edom, and take awaye man and beest out off it. From Thema vnto Dedan wil I make it desolate, they shall be slayne with the swearde.

14 Throw my people of Israel, wil I avenge me agayne vpo Edo: they shall hadle him, accordinge to my wrath and indignacio, so that they shall knowe my vengeance, saith the LORDE God.

15 Thus saith ye LORDE God: For so moch as the Philistynes haue done this: namely, taken vengeance with despitefull stomackes, and off an olde euell will set them selues to destroye:

16 Therefore thus saith the LORDE God: Beholde, I wil stretch out myne hode ouer the Philistynes, and destroye the destroyer, and cause all the remnaunt off the see coast to perish.

17 A greate vengeance will I take vpon them, and punysh them cruelly: that they maye knowe, how that I am the LORDE, which haue avenged me off them.

Chapter 26

1 It happened, that in the xi. yeare, the first daye off the Moneth, the worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne of man, Because that Tyre hath spoken vpon Ierusalem: A ha, now I trow the portes of the people be broken, and she turned vnto me, for I haue destroyed my bely full.

3 Yee therefore saith ye LORDE God: Beholde O Tyre, I will vpo the, I will bringe a greate multitude off people agaynst ye, like as we the see aryseth with his wawes:

4 These shall breake the walles off Tyre, and cast downe hir towres: I wil scrape the grounde from her, and make her a bare stone:

5 yee as the dryenge place, where the fyshers hange vp their nettes by the see syde. Euen I haue spoken it, sayeth the LORDE God. The Getiles shall spoyle her:

6 hir daughters vpon the felde shall perish with the swearde, yt they maye knowe, how that I am the LORDE.

7 For thus saith the LORDE God: Beholde, I will brynge hither Nabuchodonosor (which is the kynge off Babilon & a kynge of kynges) from the North, vpo Tyre, with horses, charettes, horsmen and with a greate multitude of people.

8 Thy daughters that are in the londe, shall he slaye with ye swearde: But agaynst ye, he shall make bullworkes & graue vp dyches aboute the, & lift vp his shyld agaynst ye.

9 His slynges & batelrames shall he prepare for thy walles, & wt his weapes breake downe thy towres.

10 The dust of his horses shall couer ye, they shall be so many: ye walles shall shake at the noyse of ye horse men, charettes & wheles: when he cometh to thy portes, as men do into an open cite.

11 With the hoffes off his horse fete, shall he treade downe all thy stretes. He shall slaye thy people wt the swearde, & breake downe the pilers of thy strength.

12 They shall waist awaye thy riches, & spoyle yi marchaudise. Thy walles shall they breake downe, & destroye thy houses of pleasure. Thy stones, thy tymbre & foundacions, shall they cast in the water.

13 Thus wil I brynge the melody of thy songes, & the voyce of thy mynstrelsy to an ende, so that they shall nomore be herde.

14 I wil make a bare stone off the, yee a dryenge place for nettes, and shalt neuer be buylded agayne: For eue I ye LORDE haue spoken it, sayeth the LORDE God: 15 thus hath the LORDE God spoken concernyng Tyre: The Iles shall be moued at the noyse off thy fall, & at the crie of the slayne, yt shall be murthured in the.

16 All kynges off the see shall come downe from their seates regall: they shall laye awaye their roabes, and put off their costly clothinge: Yee with trembling shall they be clothed, they shall syt vpo the grounde: they shall be afrayed at thy sodane fall, and be abashed at the.

17 They shall mourne for the, and saye vnto the: O thou noble cite, yt hast bene so greatly occupied off olde, thou that hast bene the strongest vpon the see wt thine inhabitours off whom all men stode in feare: How art thou now so vterly destroyed?

18 Now at the tyme off thy fall the inhabitours off the Iles, yee and the Iles them selues shall stonde in feare at thine ende.

19 For thus sayeth the LORDE God: when I make the a desolate cite (as other cities be, that no man dwell in) and when I brynge the depe vpon the, yt greate waters maye couer the:

20 Then will I cast the downe vnto them, that descende into ye pytte: vnto a people that hath bene lode deed, and set the in a londe yt is beneth, like the olde wyldernes, with them which go downe to their graues, so yt no ma shall dwell more in the. And I wil make the to be no more in honor, in the lode of the lyuyng.

21 I wil make an ende off the, ad thou shalt be gone. Though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou not be founde for euermore, saith ye LORDE God.

Chapter 27

1 The worde off the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 O thou sonne off ma, make a lamentable coplaynte vpon Tyre,

3 & saye vnto Tyre, which is a porte off the see, yt occupieth with moch people: and many Iles: thus speaketh ye LORDE God: O Tyre thou hast sayde: what, I am a noble cite.

4 thy borders are in the myddest of the see, and thy buylders haue made the maruelous goodly.

5 All yi tables haue they made of Cipre trees of the mount Senir. Fro Libanus haue they take Cedre trees, to make the mastes:

6 & the Okes of Basan to make the rowers. Thy boordes haue they made of yuery, & of costly wod out of the Ile of Cethim.

7 Thy sale was of whyte small nedle worke out off the londe of Egipte, to hage vpo thy mast: & thy hanginges of yalow sylcke & purple, out of ye Iles of Elisa.

8 They of Sido & Arnad were thy maryners, & the wysest in Tyre were thy shypmasters.

9 The eldest and wysest at Gebal were they, that mended & stopped thy shippes. All shippes off the see with their shipme occupied their marchaudies in the.

10 The Perses, Lydians and Lybians were in thyne hoost, and helped the to fight: these hanged vp their shildes & helmettes with the, these set forth thy beuty.

11 They off Arnad were with thine hoost roude aboute thy walles, & were thy watchmen vpon thy towres: these hanged vp their shildes roude aboute thy walles, and made the maruelous goodly.

12 Tharsis occupide with the in all maner of wares, in syluer, yron, tynne and lead, and made thy market greate.

13 Iauan, Tubal and Mesech were thy marchauntes, which brought the men, & ornamentes off metall for thy occupyenge.

14 They off the house of Thogarma brought vnto the at the tyme off thy Marte, horse, horsmen and mules.

15 They off Dedan were thy marchautes: and many other Iles that occupied with the, brought the wethers, elephat bones and Paycookes for a present

16 The Sirians occupied with the, because of thy dyuerse workes, and increased thy marchaudies, with Smaragdes, with scarlet, with nedle worke, wt whyte lynninge cloth, with sylcke and with Christall.

17 Iuda and the londe off Israel occupide with the, and brought vnto thy markettes, wheate, balme, hony, oyle, & triacle.

18 Damascus also vsed marchaudies with the, in the best wyne and whyte woll: because thy occupyenge was so greate, and thy wares so many.

19 Dan, Iauan, and Meusal haue brought vnto thy markettes, yron redy made, with Casia and Calamus, accordinge to thyne occupyenge.

20 Dedan occupied with the, in fayre tapestry worke and quy?hyns.

21 Arabia & all the princes off Cedar haue occupied wt the, in shepe, wethers and goates.

22 The marchauntes off Seba and Rema haue occupied also with the, in all costly spices, in all precious stones and golde, which they brought vnto thy markettes.

23 Haran, Chene and Eden, the marchauntes off Saba, Assiria and Chelmad, were all doers with ye

24 and occupied with the: In costly rayment, off yalow sylke and nedle worke, (very precious, & therefore packte & boude together wt roapes) Yee and in Cedre wodde, at the tyme off yi marckettes.

25 The shippes of Tharsis were the chefe off thy occupieng. Thus thou art full, and in greate worshippe, euen in the myddest off the see.

26 Thy maryners were euer brynginge vnto the out of many waters. But ye easte wynde shal ouerbear the in to the myddest off the see:

27 so yt thy wares, thy marchaudies, thy ryches, thy maryners, thy shipmasters, thy helpers, thy occupiers (that brought the thinges necessary) the men off warre that are in the: yee and all thy comons shall perish in the myddest off the see, in the daye off thy fall.

28 The suburbes shall shake at the loude crie off thy shippmen.

29 All whirry men, and all maryners vpo the see, shall leape out of their boates, and set them selues vpon the lode.

30 They shal lift vp their voyce because off the, and make a lamentable crye. They shall cast dust vpon their heades, ad lye downe in the asshes.

31 They shal shaue them selues, & put sacke cloth vpon them for thy sake. They shall mourne for the with hertfull sorow, 32 and heuy lamentacion, yee their children also shall wepe for the: Alas, what cite hath so bene destroyed in the see, as Tyre is?

33 When thy wares & marchaudies came from the sees thou gauest all people ynough. The kynges off the earth hast thou made rich, thorow the multitude off thy wares and occupieng:

34 But now art thou cast downe in to the depe of the see, all thy resorte of people is perished with the.

35 All they that dwell in the Iles are abashed at the, and all their kynges are afrayed, yee their faces haue chaunged coloure.

36 The marchauntes of the nacions wondre at the, In that thou art so clene brought to naught, & comest nomore vp.

Chapter 28

1 The worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne of man, tell the prynce of Tyre: Thus saieth the LORDE God: because thou hast a proude hert and hast sayde: I am a God, I haue my seate in the myddest off the see like a god: where as thou art but a man & not God, & yet stondest in thine owne cocreate, that thou art God:

3 Beholde, thou thynkest thy selfe wyser then Daniel, that there is no secretes hyd from ye.

4 With thy wi?dome & thy vnderstodinge, thou hast gotte the greate welthynesse, and gathered treasure of syluer & golde.

5 With thy greate wi?dome and occupieng, hast thou increased thy power, and because of thy greate riches thy hert is proude.

6 Therefore thus saieth ye LORDE God: For so moch as thou hast lift vp thine herte, as though thou werst God:

7 beholde, I wil bringe enemies vpon the, euen the tyrauntes of the Heithe: these shal drawe out their swardes vpon thy beuty and wi?dome, and shall defyle thy glory.

8 They shal cast the downe to the pytte, so that thou shalt dye in the middest of the see,

9 as they that be slayne. Let se, yff thou wilt saye then (before the that slaye ye) I am God: where as thou art but a man, and not God, in the hondes of them that slaye the.

10 Dye shalt thou, euen as the vncircumcised in the hodes of ye enemies: for I myself haue spoken it, saieth the LORDE God.

11 Morouer, the worde off the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

12 Thou sonne off man, make a lamentable playnte ouer the kyng of Tyre, & tell him: Thus saieth the LORDE God: Thou art a seale of a licknesse, full off wy?dome & excellent beuty.

13 Thou hast bene in ye pleasaut garde off God: thou art decte with all maner of precious stones: with Ruby, Topas, Christall, Iacyncte, Onyx, Iaspis, Saphir, Smaragde, Carbucl, & golde. Thy beuty & ye holes yt be in ye were set forth in the daye of yi creacion.

14 Thou art a fayre Cherub, stretched wyde out for to couer. I haue set the vpon the holy mount off God, there hast thou bene, and walked amoge the fayre glisteringe stones.

15 From the tyme of thy creacion thou hast bene right excellent, tyll wickednesse was founde in the.

16 Because off thy greate marchandise, thy hert is full of wickednesse, & thou hast offended. Therefore wil I cast the from the mount of God, (O thou coueringe Cherub) and destroye the amoge the glisteringe stones.

17 Thy hert was proude in yi fayre beuty, & thorow thy beuty thou hast destroyed thy wi?dome. I will cast ye downe to the grounde, & yt in ye sight of kynges.

18 Thou hast defyled thy Sactuary, wt the greate wickednesse off thy onrighthous occupieng. I wil bringe a fyre from the myddest of the, to consume the: ad wil make the to asshes, in the sight of all the yt loke vpon the.

19 All they that haue bene acquainted with the amonge the Heithe, shalbe abashed at the: seinge thou art so clene brought to naught, and comest no more vp.

20 And the worde off the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

21 Thou sonne of man, set thy face agaynst Sido, Prophecie vpo it,

22 and speake. Thus saieth the LORDE God: Beholde o Sidon, I wil vpo the, & get me honoure in the: that it maye be knowne, how that I am ye LORDE, when I punysh her, & get me honoure in her.

23 For I will sende pestilence & bloudsheddinge in to hir stretes, so yt those which be slayne with the swerde, shal lye rounde aboute in the myddest of her: & they shal knowe, that I am the LORDE.

24 She shal no more be a prickinge thorne, & an hurtinge brere vnto the house of Israel, ner vnto the that lye rounde aboute her and hate her: and they shal knowe, that I am the LORDE.

25 Thus saieth the LORDE God: when I gather the housholde of Israel together agayne, from the nacions amonge whom they be scatred: then shal I be sanctified in the, in ye sight of the Getiles: & they shal dwell in the lode, yt I gaue to my seruauant Iacob.

26 They shal dwell safely therin, buylde houses, and plante vnyardes: Yee safely shal they dwell therin, when I haue punyshed all those, that despise them rounde aboute: and then shall they knowe, yt I am the LORDE their God.

Chapter 29

1 In the x. yeare, vpon the xij. daye off the x. Moneth, the worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 O thou sonne off ma, set now thy face agaynst Phrao the kyng off Egipte, Prophecye agaynst him and agaynst the whole lode of Egipte:

3 Speake, and tell him, thus saieth the LORDE God: beholde, o Phrao thou kinge of Egipte, I wil vpo the, thou greate whall fysh, yt lyst in yi waters: Thou yt sayest: the water is myne, I haue made it myself.

4 I wil put an hoke in thy chawes, & hage all the fish in thy waters vpo thy skales: after yt I wil drawe the out of thy waters, yee & all the fish, of ye waters that hange vpon thy skales.

5 I wil cast the out vpon the dry lode with the fish of thy waters, so that thou shalt lye vpon the felde. Thou shalt not be gathered ner taken vp, but shalt be meate for the beestes of the felde, & for the foules off the ayre:

6 that all they which dwell in Egipte, maye knowe, that I am the LORDE: because thou hast bene a staff of rede to the house of Israel.

7 When they toke holde of ye wt their hode thou brakest and prycdest them on euery syde: and yff they leaned vpo the, thou brakest, ad hurtdest the reynes of their backes.

8 Therefore, thus sayeth the LORDE: God: beholde, I will brynge a swearde vpon the, and rote out of the both man and beest.

9 Yee the londe of Egipte shalbe desolate and waist, & they shal knowe, that I am the LORDE: Because he sayde: the water is mine, I myself haue made it.

10 Beholde therefore, I wil vpon the, & vpon thy waters: I wil make the londe off Egipte waist and desolate, from the towre of Syenes vnto the borders of the Morias londe:

11 so that in xl. yeares there shall no fote off man walke there, nether fote of catell go there, nether shal it be inhabited.

12 I wil make the londe of Egipte to be desolate amonge other waist countrees, and her cities to lye voyde xl. yeares, amonge other voyde cities: And I wil scatre the Egiptions amonge the Heithen and nacions.

13 Agayne, thus sayeth the LORDE God: Whe the xl. yeares are expyred, I wil gather the Egiptions together agayne, out off the nacios, amonge who they were scatred,

14 and wil bringe the presoners off Egipte agayne in to the londe off Pathures their owne natyue countre, that they maye be there a lowly small kyngdome:

15 yee they shal be the smallest amonge other kyngdomes, lest they exalte them selues aboute the Heithen: for I wil so mynish them,

16 that they shall nomore rule the Heithen. They shall nomore be a hope vnto the house off Israel, nether prouoke the enymore to wickednesse, to cause them turne backe, and to folowe them: ad they shal knowe, that I am the LORDE God.

17 In the xxvij. yeare, the first daye of the first Moneth, came ye worde off the LORDE vnto me, sayenge:

18 Thou sonne off man, Nabuchodonosor the kyng off Babilon hath made his hoost, with greate trauayle and labour to come before Tyre: that euery heade maye be balde, and euery shulder bare. Yet hath Tyre geuen nether him ner his hoost eny rewarde, for ye greate trauayle yt he hath taken there.

19 Therefore thus saieth ye LORDE God: beholde I wil geue the lode of Egipte vnto Nabuchodonosor the kyng off Babilo, yt he maye take awaye all hir substauce, robbe hir robberies, ad spoyle hir spoyles, to paye his hoost their wagies withall.

20 I wil geue him the londe of Egipte for his labour, that he toke for me before Tyre.

21 At the same tyme wil I cause the horne off the house of Israel to growe forth, & open thy mouth agayne amonge them: that they maye knowe, how that I am the LORDE.

Chapter 30

1 Morouer, the worde off the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne of man, prophecy & speake: thus saieth the LORDE God: Mourn, wo worth this daye,

3 for the daye is here, the daye of ye LORDE is come: the darcke daye of ye Heithe the houre is at honde,

4 the swearde commeth vpon Egipte. When the wounded men fall downe in Egipte, when hir people are taken awaye, and when hir foundacios are destroyed:

5 the Morians londe shal be afrayed, yee the Morians londe, Lybia & Lydia, all their comon people, & Chub, & all yt be confederate vnto the, shal fall wt the thorow ye swearde.

6 Thus saieth ye LORDE: The maynteyners of the lode of Egipte shal fall, the pryde of hir power shal come downe: eue vnto the tower off Syenas shall they be slayne downe wt the swearde, saieth ye LORDE God:

7 amonge other desolate countrees they shal be made desolate, & amoge other waist cities they shalbe waisted.

8 And they shal knowe, yt I am ye LORDE, when I kyndle a fyre in Egipte, & when all hir helpers are destroyed.

9 At that tyme, shal there messaungers go forth fro me in shippes, to make ye carelesse Morians afrayed: and sorowe shal come vpon them in the daye of Egipte, for doutles it shal come.

10 Thus saieth the LORDE God: I wil make an ende of the people of Egipte thorow the honde of Nabuchodosor kynge of Babilon.

11 He and his people with him, yee and the cruell tyrantes of the Heithen shalbe brought to destroye the londe. They shal drawe out their sweardes vpon Egipte and fylle the londe full of slayne men.

12 I will drye vp their floudes of water, ad sell the lode in to the hondes of wicked people. The lode and all yt is therin, wil I destroye thorow the enemies. Eue I the LORDE haue sayde it.

13 And thus saieth the LORDE God: I will destroye the Idols, and brynge the ymages of Noph to an ende. There shal no more be a prynce of Egipte, and a fearfulnessse will I sende in to the Egiptians londe.

14 As for Pathures, I wil make it desolate, ad kyndle a fyre in Zoan. Alexandria will I punysh,

15 & poure my wrathfull indignacio vpo Sin, which is the strength of Egipte. All the sustaunce of Alexandria will I destroye, 16 and kyndle a fyre in Egipte. Sin shalbe in greate heynesse, Alexandria shalbe roted out and Noph shall haue daylye sorowe.

17 The best men off Heliopolis & Bubasto shalbe slayne with the swearde ad caried awaye captiue.

18 At Taphnis the daye shalbe darcke, when I breake there the scepter of the londe of Egipte, and when ye pompe of hir powr shal haue an ende. A cloude shal couer her, and hir daughters shalbe led awaye in to captiuyte.

19 Thus will I punysh Egipte, that they maye knowe, how that I am the LORDE.

20 It happened in the xi. yeaere, vpon the seuth daye of ye first Moneth, yt the LORDES worde came vnto me, sayege:

21 Beholde, thou sonne of ma, I wil breake ye arme of Pharao kynge of Egipte: and lo, it shal not be boude vp to be healed, nether shal eny playstre be layed vpon it, for to ease it, or to make it so stroge, as to holde a swearde.

22 Therefore, thus saieth the LORDE God: beholde, I will vpon Pharao ye kinge of Egipte, & brusse his stroge arme (yet is it but a broken one) & will smyte the swearde out of his honde.

23 As for the Egiptians, I wil scatere them amonge the Heithen, & strowe the in the londes aboute.

24 Agayne I will strength ye arme of the kinge of Babilo, & geue him my swearde in his hode: but I wil breake Pharaos arme, so yt he shal holde it before him piteously, like a wounded man.

25 Yee I will stablish the kynge of Babilos arme, & the armes of Pharao shal fall downe: that it maye be knowne, that I am the LORDE, which geue the kynge off Babilon my swearde in his hode, that he maye drawe it out vpon the londe of Egipte:

26 and that when I scatere the Egiptians amonge the Gentiles, and strowe them in ye lodes aboute, they maye knowe, yt I am the LORDE.

Chapter 31

1 Morouer, it happened in the xi. yeaere ye first daye of the thirde Moneth, that the worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne of man, speake vnto Pharao the kynge of Egipte, ad to all his people: Whom art thou like in yi greatnesse?

3 Beholde, Assur was like a Cedre tre vpo the mount of Libanus, with fayre brauches: so thicke, that he gaue shadowes, and shot out very hye. His toppe reached vnto the cloudes.

4 The waters made him greate, and the depe set him vp an hye. Roude aboute the rotes of him rane there floudes of water, he sent out his litle ryuers vnto all the trees of the felde.

5 Therefore was he hyer the all the trees of the felde, and thorow ye multitude of waters that he sent fro him, he optayned many and longe brauches.

6 All foules of the ayre made their nestes in his brauches, vnder his bowes gedred all the beastes of ye felde, & vnder his shadow dwelt all people.

7 Fayre and beutifull was he in his greatnesse, and in the length of his brauches, for his rote stode besyde greate waters:

8 no Cedre tre might hyde him. In the pleasaut garden of God, there was no Fyrre tre like his brauches, the playne trees were not like ye bowes of him. All the trees in the garden off God might not be copared vnto him in his beuty:

9 so fayre and goodly had I made him with the multitude of his brauches: In so moch, yt all the trees in the pleasaut garde of God, had envye at hi.

10 Therefore, thus saieth the LORDE God: For so moch as he hath lift vp himself so hie, & stretched his toppe in to the cloudes, & seinge his hert is proude in his highnesse:

11 I wil delyuer him in to ye hondes of ye mightiest amoge ye Heithe, which shall rote him out. Acordige to his wickednes will I cast him awaye,

12 the enemies shal destroye him, & the mighty men of the Heithen shall so scatere him, that his braanches shal lye vpon all mountaynes & in all valleys: his bowes shall be broken downe to the grounde thorow out the londe. Then all the people of the londe shal go from his shadowe, and forsake him.

13 When he is falle, all ye foules of ye ayre shal syt vpon him, and all wilde beestes of the felde shal go aboute amonge his brauches:

14 so that from hence forth, no tre in the water shall attayne to his hyennesse, nor reach his toppe vnto the cloudes, nether shall eny tre off the water stonde so hye, as he hath done. For vnto death shall they all be delyuered vnder the earth, and go downe to ye graue, like other men.

15 Morouer, thus saieth the LORDE God: In the daye when he goeth downe to the graue, I will cause a lamentacion to be made. I will couer the depe vpon him, I will staunch his floudes, and the greate waters shalbe restrayned. I shall cause Libanus to be soroufull for his sake, and all the trees off the felde shall be smytte.

16 I wil make the Heithen shake at the sounde of his fall, when I cast him downe to hell, with them yt descende in to the pytte. All the trees of Eden, wt all the chosen and best trees of Libanus, yee and all they that are planted vpon the waters, shal mourne with him also in the lower habitacios:

17 for they shal go downe to hell wt him, vnto the that be slayne with the swearde, which dwelt afore vnder the shadow off his arme amoge the Heithe.

18 To whom shalt thou be lickened, that art so glorious & greate, amonge the trees off Eden? Yet art thou cast downe vnder ye earth (amonge the trees off Eden) where thou must lye amonge the vncircumcised, with them that be slayne wt the swearde. Euen thus is it with Pharao & all his people, saieth the LORDE God.

Chapter 32

1 In the xij. yeaere, the first daye of the xij. Moneth, the worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne of man, take vp a lamentacion vpo Pharao the kynge of Egipte, & saye vnto him: Thou art reputed as a Lyon of the Heithen, & as a whalfish in the see. Thou castest yi waters aboute the, thou troublest the waters wt thy fete, and stampst in their floudes.

3 Thus sayeth the LORDE God: I wil sprede my net ouer ye, namely, a greate multitude of people: these shal dryue the into my yarne,

4 for I will cast the vpo the lode, and let the lye vpo the felde, that all the foules of the ayre maye syt vpo the: I wil geue all the beastes of the felde ynough off the.

5 Thy flesh will I cast vpo the hilles, and fylle the valleys with thy hyennesse.

6 I will water the londe with the abundaunce off thy bloude euen to the moutaynes, & ye valleys shal be full off the.

7 When thou art put out, I will couer the heauen, and make his starres dymme. I will sprede a cloude ouer the Sonne, ad the Moone shall not geue hir light.

8 All the lightes off heauen will I put out ouer the, and bringe darcknesse vpon thy londe, saieth ye LORDE God.

9 I wil trouble the hertes off many people, when I bringe thy destruccion amoge the Heithen and countrees, whom thou knowest not.

10 Yee I will make many people with their kynoges so afrayed thorow ye, that their hayre shal stonde vp, whe I shake my swearde at their faces. Sodenly shal they be astonnyed, euery man in him self, at ye daye of thy fall.

11 For thus saieth the LORDE God: the kynge of Babilons swearde shal come vpon ye, 12 with ye sweardes of the worthies will I smyte downe thy people. All they that be mightie amonge the Getiles, shal waist the proude pompe of Egipte, and brynge downe all hir people.

13 All the catell also of Egipte wil I destroye, that they shal come nomore vpo the waters: so that nether mas fote ner beastes clawe, shal stere them enymore.

14 Then wil I make their waters cleare, and cause their floudes to runne like oyle, sayeth the LORDE God:

15 when I make the londe of Egipte desolate, and when ye countre with all that is therin, shalbe layde waist: and whe I smyte all the which dwell in it, that they maye knowe, that I am the LORDE.

16 This is the mournynge, that the daughters off the Heithen shall make: Yee a sorow and lamentacio shal they take vp, vpon Egipte and all hir people, saieth the LORDE God.

17 In the xij. yeaere, the xv. daye of the Moneth, came the worde off the LORDE vnto me sayenge:

18 Thou sonne of man. Take vp a lamentacion vpon the people of Egipte, and cast them downe, yee ad the mightie people of the Heithe also, euen with the that dwell beneth: and with them that go downe in to the graue.

19 Downe (how fayre so euer thou be) and laye the with the vncircumcised.

20 Amoge those that be slayne with the swearde, shal they lye. The swearde is geuen alrede. he shal be drawn forth and all his people.

21 The mightie worthies and his helpers, yt be gone downe and lye with the vncircumcised and with them that be slayne with ye swearde: shal speake to him out of the hell.

22 Assur is there also with his company, ad their graues rounde aboute, which were slayne ad fell all with the swearde,

23 whose graues lye besyde him in the lowe pytte. His comos are buried rounde aboute his graue: alltogether wounded and slayne with the swearde, which men afore tyme brought feare in to ye londe off the luyunge.

24 There is Elam also with all his people, and their graues rounde aboute: which all beyng wounded and slayne with the swearde, are gone downe vncircumcised vnder the earth, which neuertheles somtyme brought feare in to the londe off the lyuynge: for the which they beare their shame, with the other that be gone downe to ye graue.

25 Their buryall is geuen them and all their people, amonge them that be slayne. Their graues are rounde aboute all them, which be vncircumcised; and with them that be slay thorow the swearde: for seynge that in tymes past they made the londe off the lyuynge afrayed, they must now beare their owne shame, with them that go downe to the pytte, and lye amonge them, that be slayne.

26 There is Mesech also and Tubal, and their people, and their graues rounde aboute. These all are amonge the vncircumcised, and them that be slayne with the swearde, because afore tyme they made the londe off the lyuynge afrayed.

27 Shulde not they then lye also amonge ye worthies, and vncircumcised Giautes? which wt their weapens are gone downe to hel: whose swearde are layed vnder their heades, whose wickednesse is vpon their bones: because that as worthies, they haue brought feare into ye lode of ye lyuynge;?

28 Yee amoge the vncircumcised shalt thou be destroyed, and slepe with them, that perished thorow the swearde.

29 There is the lode off Edom with hir kynges and prynces also, which wt their stregh are layed by them that were slayne with the swearde, yee amonge the vncircumcised, and them which are gone downe in to the pytte.

30 Morouer, there be all the prynces of the north, with all the Sidonias, which are gone downe to the slayne. With their feare and strength they are come to confucion, and lye there vncircumcised, amonge those that be slayne with the swearde: and beare their owne shame, with them that be gone downe to ye pytte.

31 Now when Pharao seyth this, he shall be comforted ouer all his people, that is slayne with the swearde: both Pharao & all his hoost, saieth ye LORDE God.

32 For I haue geue my feare in the lode of the lyunge. But Pharao & all his people shall lye amoge the vncircumcised, and amonge them that be slayne with the swearde, saieth the LORDE God.

Chapter 33

1 Agayne, the worde off the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne off man, Speake to the childre of thy people, and tell them: When I sende a swearde vpon a londe, yf the people off the londe take a man off their countre, and set him to be their watchman:

3 ye same man (wha he seyth the swearde come vpon the londe) shall blowe the trompet, and warne the people.

4 Yff a man now heare the noyse off the trompet & will not be warned, and the swearde come ad take him awaye: his bloude shall be vpo his owne heade:

5 For he herde the soude of the trompet, and wolde not take hede, therfore his bloude be vpon him. But yff he will receaue warnynge, he shal saue his life.

6 Agayne, yf the watch man se the swerde come, and shewe it not with the trompet, so yt the people is not warned: yff the swearde come then, and take eny man from amoge the: the same shall be taken awaye in his owne synne, but his bloude will I requyre off the watchmans honde.

7 And now (O thou sonne of man) I haue made the a watchman vnto the house of Israel: that where as thou hearest eny thinge out of my mouth, thou mayest warne them on my behalfe.

8 Yff I saye vnto the wicked: thou wicked, thou shalt surely dye: and thou geuest him not warnynge, that he maye bewarre off his vngodly waye: then shall the wicked dye in his owne synne, but his bloude will I requyre of thy honde.

9 Neuertheles yf thou warne the wicked off his waye, to turne from it, where as he yet wil not be turned from it: then shall he dye because off his synne, but thou hast deluyered thy soule.

10 Therfore (O thou sonne off man) speake vnto the house off Israel, Ye saye thus: Oure offences and synnes lye vpon vs, and we be corrupte in them: how shulde we then be restored vnto life?

11 Tell them: As truly as I lye (saieth the LORDE God) I haue no pleasure in the death off the wicked, but moch rather that the wicked turne from his waye and lye. Turne you, turne you from yor vngodly wayes, o ye off the house off Israel. Oh, wherfore will ye dye?

12 Thou sonne off man, tell the children off thy people: The rightuousnes of the rightuous shall not saue him, whan so euer he turneth awaye vnfaithfully: Agayne, the wickednesse of the wicked shal not hurte him, whan so euer he conuerteth from his vngodlynesse: And ye rightuousnesse of the rightuous shal not saue his life, when so euer he synneth.

13 Yff I saye vnto the rightuous, that he shall surely lye, and so he trust to his owne rightuousnesse, and do synne: then shall his rightuousnesse be nomore thought vpon, but in the wickednesse that he hath done, he shall dye.

14 Agayne, yff I saye to the wicked: thou shalt surely dye: and so he turne fro his synnes, and do the thinge that is lauffull and right:

15 In so moch that the same wicked ma geueth the pledge agayne, restoreth that he had taken awaye by robbery, walketh in the comaundementes off life, and doth no wroge: Then shall he surely lye, and not dye.

16 Yee the synnes that he had done, shal neuer be thought vpon: For in so moch as he doth now the thyng that is lauffull and right, he shall lye.

17 And yet the children off thy people saye: Tush, the waye of the LORDE is not right, where as their owne waye is rather vnright.

18 When the rightuous turneth from his rightuousnesse, and doeth the thyng that is wicked, he shall dye therfore.

19 But yf the wicked turne from his wickednesse, doinge the thinge that is lauffull and right, he shall lye therfore.

20 Yet ye saye: the waye of ye LORDE is not equall. O ye house of Israel, I will iudge euery one of you after his wayes.

21 In the xij. yeare, the v. daye of the x. Moneth of oure captuyte, it happened, that one which was fled out of Ierusalem, came vnto me, and sayde: ye cite is destroyed.

22 Now the honde of the LORDE had bene vpon me the euenynge, afore this man (which was escaped) came vnto me, and had opened my mouth, vntyll the mornynge that he came to me: Yee he opened my mouth, so yt I was nomore domme.

23 Then came the worde of ye LORDE vnto me, and sayde:

24 Thou sonne off man, these that dwell in the waisted londe of Israel, saye: Abraham was but one man, ad he had the londe in possessio: now are we many, and the londe is geuen vs to possesse also

25 And therfore tell them: Thus saieth the LORDE: In the bloude haue ye eaten, youre eyes haue ye lift vp to Idols, and haue shed bloude: shal ye then haue the londe in possession?

26 Ye leane vpon youre swearde, ye worke abhominacions, eueryone defyleth his neighbours wife: and shal ye then possesse the londe?

27 Saye thou these wordes vnto the: Thus saieth the LORDE God: As truly as I lye, all ye that dwell in this wilderness, shall be slayne wt the swearde: what so is vpon the felde, will I geue vnto the beestes to be deuoured: those that be in stronge holdes and dennes, shall dye off the pestilece.

28 For I wil make the londe desolate and waist, and ye pope off hir strength shall come to an ende. The mountaynes in Israel shalbe so waiste that no man shall traually therby.

29 Then shall they lerne to knowe, that I am the LORDE, whe I make the lode waist and desolate, because off all their abhominacions, that they haue wrought.

30 And thou sonne off man, the children off thy people yt talke of the, by the walles ad in the dores of their houses, sayenge one to another: come, let vs heare, what worde is gone forth from the LORDE:

31 These come vnto the, after ye maner of a gratee people: yee my people syt downe before the, and heare thy wordes, but they do not thereafter: For in their mouthes they shewe themselues, as though they were feruent, but their herte goeth after their owne couetous lucre.

32 And as a balet yt hath a swete tune, ad is pleasaut to synge, so shalt thou be vnto them: thy wordes shal they heare, but they will not do thereafter.

33 Whe this commeth to passe (for lo, it cometh in dede) then shall they knowe, that there hath bene a prophet amonge them.

Chapter 34

1 And the worde off the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne off ma, prophecye agaynst the shepherdes of Israel, prophecy, and speake vnto them: Thus saieth the LORDE God: Wo be vnto the shepherdes off Israel, that fede them selues. Shulde not the shepherdes fede ye flockes?

3 Ye haue eaten vp the fatte, ye haue clothed you with the woll: the best fedde haue ye slayne, but ye flocke haue ye not norished:

4 The weake haue ye not holden vp, the sicke haue ye not healed: the broken haue ye not bounde together, the outcastes haue ye not brought agayne: ye lost haue ye not sought, but churlishly and cruelly haue ye ruled the.

5 Thus are they scated here and there without a shepherde: yee all the beastes off the felde deuoure them, and they go astraye.

6 My shepe go wandringe vpon all moutaynes and vpon euery hye hill, yee they be scated abroad in all felde, and there is no man, that careth for them, or sekech after them.

7 Therfore o ye shepherdes heare the worde off the LORDE,

8 Thus sayeth the LORDE God: As truly as I lye, for so moch as my shepe are robbed, and deuoured off all the wyld beestes off the felde, hauynge no shepherde: and seynge that my shepherdes take no regarde off my shepe, but fede them selues only, and not my shepe:

9 Therfore heare ye worde off the LORDE, o ye shepherdes:

10 Thus sayeth the LORDE God: Beholde, I myselff will vpon the shepherdes, and requyre my shepe from their hondes, and make the cesse from fedyng of my shepe: yee the shepherdes shall fede them selues nomore: For I will deluyer my shepe out off their mouthes so that they shall not deuoure them after this.

11 For thus saieth the LORDE God: Beholde, I will loke to my shepe myselff, and seke them.

12 Like as a shepherde amoge the flocke sekech after the shepe that are scated abroad, euen so will I seke after my shepe, and gather them together out off all places, where they haue bene scated in the cloudy and darcke daye.

13 I will bringe them out from all people, and gather them together out of all londes. I will bringe the in to their owne londe, and fede them vpon the mountaynes off Israel, by the ryuers, and in all the places of the countre.

14 I will fede them in right good pastures, and vpon the hie mountaynes off Israel shall there foldes be. There shal they lye in a good folde, ad in a fat pasture shall they fede: euen vpon the mountaynes of Israel.

15 I will fede my shepe myselff, and bringe them to their rest, sayeth the LORDE God.

16 Soch as be lost, will I seke: soch as go astraye, wil I brynge agayne: soch as be wouDED, will I bynde vp: soch as be weake, will I make stronge: soch as be fat and well lykinge, those will I preserue, and fede them with ye thinge that is lauffull.

17 And as for you (o my shepe) sayeth the LORDE God: I will put a difference amonge the shepe, amonge the wethers ad the goates.

18 Was it not ynough for you, to eat vp the good pasture, but ye must treade downe the residue of youre pasture wt youre fete also? Was it not ynough for you to drynke cleare water, but ye must trouble the residue also with youre fete?

19 Thus my shepe must be fayne to eate ye thinge, that ye haue troden downe with yor fete, and to drynke it, that ye with youre fete haue defyled.

20 Therefore, thus sayeth the LORDE God vnto them: Beholde, I will seuer the fat shepe from the leane:

21 for so moch as ye haue shot the weake shepe a po ye sydes & shulders, and runne vpon them with youre hornes, so longe till ye haue vtterly scatred them abrode.

22 I wil helpe my shepe, so yt they shal nomore be spoyled: yee I wil discerne one shepe from another.

23 I wil rayse vp vnto them one only shepherde: euen my seruauant Dauid, he shal fede the, and he shal be their shepherde.

24 I the LORDE wil be their God, and my seruauant Dauid shal be their prince: Euen I the LORDE haue spoken it.

25 Morouer, I wil make a couenant of peace with them, and dryue all euell beastes out of the londe: so that they maye dwell safely in the wilderness, and slepe in the woddess.

26 Good fortune & prosperite wil I geue them, and vnto all that be rounde aboute my hill. A prosperous shower and rayne wil I sende them in due season, 27 that the trees in the wodde maye bringe forth their frutes, & ye grounde hir increase. They shalbe safe in their londe, and shal knowe, that I am the LORDE, which haue broke their yocke, and deluered them out of the hondes of those, that helde them in subieccion.

28 They shal nomore be spoyled of the Heithen, ner deuoured with the beastes of the lode: but safely shal they dwell, & no man shall fraye them.

29 I wil set vp an excellet plate for them, so yt they shal suffre no more hunger in the londe, nether beare the reprove of ye Heithen eny more.

30 Thus shal they vnderstonde, that I the LORDE their God am wt them, & yt they (euen the house of Israel) are my people, saieth the LORDE God.

31 Ye men are my flocke, ye are the shepe of my pasture: and I am youre God, saieth the LORDE God.

Chapter 35

1 Morouer, the worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne of man, turne thy face towarde the mount Seir, prophecy vpon it,

3 & saye vnto it: Thus saieth the LORDE God: Beholde, (o thou mount Seir) I will vpon the, I will reach out myne hode ouer the, yee waist & desolate wil I make the. 4 Thy cities wil I breake downe, & thou shalt lye voyde: that thou mayest knowe, how that I am the LORDE.

5 For so moch as thou bearest an olde enemyte agaynst the children of Israel, & with a cruel honde hast made them afrayed, what tyme as they were troubled & punyshed for their synne:

6 Therefore, as truly as I lye (saieth ye LORDE God) I wil prepare the vnto bloude, yee bloude shal folowe vpon the: seinge thou layest waite for bloude, therefore shall bloude persecute the.

7 Thus wil I make the mount Seir desolate & waist, and bringe to passe, that there shall no man go thither, ner come from thence.

8 His mountaynes wil I fyll wt his slayne men: thy hilles, dales and valleys shal lye full of them, that are slayne with ye swearde.

9 I wil make the a perpetuall wilderness, so that noman shal dwell in thy cities: yt ye maye knowe, how yt I am the LORDE.

10 And because thou hast sayde: what, both these nacions and both these londes must be myne, & I wil haue them in possession, where as the LORDE was there. Therefore, thus saieth the LORDE God:

11 As truly as I lye, I will hadle the accordinge to thy wrath and gelousy, like as thou hast dealt cruelly with them: that I maye be knowne amoge them, how I haue punyshed the 12 Yee and that thou also mayest be sure, that I the LORDE haue herde all thy despytful wordes, which thou hast spoke agaynst the mountaynes of Israel, sayenge: Lo, they are made waist, and geuen vs to deuoure.

13 Thus with youre mouthes ye haue made youre boost agaynst me, yee & multiplied youre proude wordes agaynst me, which I haue herde altogether.

14 Where vnto, thus saieth ye LORDE God: when the whole worlde is in wealth, then wil I make the waist.

15 And like as thou (o mount Seir) wast glad, because the heretage of the house of Israel was destroyed: euen so wil I do vnto the also, that thou and whole Edom shall be destroyed, & knowe, that I am the LORDE.

Chapter 36

1 Thou sonne of man, prophecie vpon the mountaynes of Israel, & speake: Heare

the worde of the LORDE, o ye mountaynes of Israel:

2 Thus saieth the LORDE God: Because yor enemye hath sayde vpon you: A ha, ye hie euerlastyng places are now become ours:

3 prophecy therefore, & speake: thus saieth ye LORDE God: Seinge ye be waisted & trode downe on euery syde, & become a possession vnto ye resydue of ye Getiles, which haue brought you in to mes mouthes & vnto an euel name amonge ye people:

4 Therefore, heare the worde of the LORDE God, o ye mountaynes of Israel: Thus saieth the LORDE God vnto the mountaynes and hilles, valleys & dales, to the voyde wildernesses & desolate cities, which are spoyled, and had in derision on euery syde, amonge the resydue of the Heithe:

5 Yee eue thus saieth the LORDE God: In the fyre of my gelousy haue I taken a deuyce, agaynst the resydue of the Getiles, and agaynst all Edom: which haue take in my lode vnto theselues for a possession: which also reioysed fro their whole herte wt a despitful stomacke, to waist it, and to spoyle it.

6 Prophecy therefore vpon the londe of Israel, speake vnto ye mountaynes and hilles, to valleys and dales, thus saieth the LORDE God: Beholde, this haue I deuysed in my gelousy and terrible wrath: For so moch as ye haue suffred reprove of the Heithen, 7 therefore thus saieth the LORDE God: I haue sworne, that the Gentiles which lye aboute you, shal beare youre confucion them selues.

8 And as for you (o mountaynes of Israel) ye shall shute out youre braunches, and bringe forth youre frute to my people of Israel, for it is harde by, that it wil come.

9 Beholde, I come vnto you, and vnto you will I turne me, that ye maye be tyled and sowen.

10 I wil sende you moch people, which shalbe all of the house of Israel: the cities shalbe inhabited, and ye decayed places shalbe repayed againe.

11 I wil prouyde you with moch people and catell, which shal increase & bringe frute. I wil restore you also to youre olde estate, and shewe you more kindnes the euer ye had before: wherby ye shal knowe, yt I am the LORDE.

12 Yee people wil I sende vnto you (o my folke of Israel (which shal haue the in possession, and thou shalt be their inheritaunce, so that thou shalt nomore be without them.

13 Agayne, thus saieth the LORDE God: For so moch as they saye vnto you: thou art an eater vp of men, and a waister of thy people:

14 therefore thou shalt eate no mo men, nether destroye thy people eny more, saieth the LORDE God.

15 And I wil not suffre the, for to heare thine owne confucion amonge the Gentiles from hensforth. Thou shalt not beare the reprove of the nacions, ner cast out thine owne people enymore, saieth the LORDE God.

16 Morouer, the worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

17 O thou sonne of ma, when the house of Israel dwelt vpon their owne grounde, they defyled them selues with their owne wayes & ymaginacions: so that in my sight their waye was like the vnclennesse of a menstruous woman.

18 Wherfore I poured my wrothfull displeasure vpon them, because of the bloude that they had shed in the londe, & because of their Idols, wherwith they had defyled them selues.

19 I scatred them also amonge the Heithen, so that they were strowed aboute in the lodes. Acordinge to their wayes & after their owne inuencions, so dyd I punysh them.

20 Now when they were gone vnto the Heithen, and come in amonge them, they dishonoured my holy name: so that it was sayde of them: Are these the people of God, & must go out of their owne londe?

21 Then spared I my holy name, which ye house of Israel had dishonoured amonge the Gentiles, to whom they came. 22 Therefore tell ye house of Israel: Thus saieth the LORDE God: I do not this for yor sakes (O house of Israel) but for my holy names sake, which ye dishonoured amoge the Heithen, when ye came to them.

23 Therefore, I wil halowe my greate name agayne, which amonge the Getiles is euel spoken of: for ye youre selues haue dishonoured it amonge them. And the Gentiles shal knowe, that I am the LORDE, when I am honoured in you before their eyes, saieth ye LORDE God.

24 As for you, I wil take you from amonge the Heithen, and gather you together out of all countrees, and bringe you agayne in to youre owne londe.

25 Then will I poure cleare water vpon you, & ye shalbe clene: Yee from all youre vnclennesse and from all yor Idols shal I clense you.

26 A new herte also wil I geue you, and a new sprete wil I put in to you: As for that stony hert, I will take it out of youre body, and geue you a fle?shy herte.

27 I wil geue you my sprete amonge you, and cause you to walke in my commaundemetes, to kepe my lawes, and to fulfill them.

28 And so ye shall dwell in the londe, that I gaued to yor forefathers, & ye shal be my people, and I wil be youre God.

29 I wil helpe you out of all youre vnclennesse, I wil call for the corne, and wil increase it, and wil let you haue no hunger.

30 I will multiplie the frutes of the trees and ye increase of the felde for you, so that ye shal beare no more reprove of hunger amonge the Heithe.

31 Then shal ye remembre yor owne wicked wayes, and youre ymaginacions, which were not good: so that ye shal take displeasure at youre owne selues, by reason of youre synnes and abominacions.

32 But I wil not do this for youre sakes

(saieth the LORDE God) be ye sure of it. Therefore (o ye house of Israel) be ashamed of youre synnes.

33 Morouer, thus saieth the LORDE God: what tyme as I shal clese you from all youre offences, then wil I make the cities to be occupied agayne, and wil repayre the places that be decayed.

34 The desolate londe shalbe buylded agayne, which afore tyme laye waist, in the sight of all them, that wete by.

35 Then shal it be sayde: This waist lode is become like a garden of pleasure, and the voyde, desolate and broke downe cities, are now stronge, and fensed agayne.

36 Then the residue of the Heithen that lye rounde aboute you, shal knowe, that I am the LORDE, which repayre that was broken downe, and plante agayne, that was made waist. Euen I the LORDE haue spoken it, & wil do it in dede.

37 Thus saieth the LORDE God: I wil yet once be founde agayne of ye house of Israel, & do this for them: I shal increase them as a flocke of men.

38 Like as the holy flocke and the flocke of Ierusalem are in the hie solempne feastes: so shal also the wilde waisted cities be fylled with flockes of men: and they shal knowe, that I am the LORDE.

Chapter 37

1 The honde of the LORDE came vpon me, & caried me out in the sprete of the LORDE, & let me downe in a playne felde, that laye full of bones,

2 & he led me rounde aboute by them: & beholde, the bones that laye vpon the felde, were very many, & maruelous drye also.

3 Then sayde he vnto me: Thou sonne of man: thinkest thou these bones maye lyue agayne? I answered: O LORDE God, thou knowest.

4 And he sayde vnto me: Prophecy thou vpon these bones, & speake vnto them: Ye drye bones, heare the worde of the LORDE.

5 Thus saieth the LORDE God vnto these bones: Beholde, I will put breth in to you, that ye maye lyue:

6 I wil geue you synowes, & make flesh growe vpon you, & couer you ouer with skynne: & so geue you breth, that ye maye lyue, and knowe, that I am the LORDE.

7 So I prophecied, as he had comaunded me. And as I was prophecienge, there came a noyse and a greate mocion, so that the bones ranne euery one to another.

8 Now wher I had loked, beholde, they had synowes, and flesh grewe vpon them: and aboute they were couered with skynne, but there was no breth in them.

9 Then sayde he vnto me: Thou sonne of man, prophecie thou towarde the wynde: prophecy, and speake to the wynde: Thus saieth the LORDE God: Come (o thou ayre) from the foure wyndes, & blowe vpon these slayne, that they maye be restored to life.

10 So I prophecied, as he had commaunded me: Then came the breth into them, and they receaued life, and stode vp vpon their fete, a maruelous greate sorte.

11 Morouer, he sayde vnto me: Thou sonne of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Beholde, they saye: oure bones are dried vp, oure hope is gone, we are clene cut of.

12 Therefore prophecie thou, & speake vnto them. Thus saieth the LORDE God: Beholde, I wil open youre graues (o my people) & take you out of youre sepulcres, & bringe you in to the londe of Israel agayne.

13 So shall ye knowe yt I am the LORDE, when I open youre graues, & bringe you out of them.

14 My sprete also wil I put in you, & ye shal lyue: I wil set you agayne in youre owne londe, and ye shal knowe, that I am the LORDE, which haue sayde it, and fulfilled it in dede.

15 The worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

16 Thou sonne of man, take a sticke and wryte vpon it: Vnto Iuda & to the children of Israel his companyons. Then take another sticke, and wryte vpon it: Vnto Ioseph the stocke of Ephraim, and to all the housholde of Israel his companyons.

17 And than take both these together in thine honde, so shal there be one stycke therof.

18 Now yf the childe of thy people saye vnto the: wilt thou not shewe vs, what thou meanest by these?

19 Then geue them this answere: Thus saieth the LORDE God: Beholde, I wil take the stocke of Ioseph, which is in the honde of Ephraim and of the trybes of Israel his felowes, and wil put them to the stocke of Iuda, & make them one stocke, and they shalbe one in my honde.

20 And the two stickes where vpon thou wrytest, shalt thou haue in thine honde, that they maye se,

21 and shalt saye vnto them: Thus saieth the LORDE God: beholde I wil take awaye the childe of Israel from amonge the Heithen, vnto whom they be gone, and wil gather them together on euery syde, and bringe them agayne in to their owne londe:

22 yee I wil make one people of the in ye londe, vpon the mountaynes of Israel, and they all shal haue but one kinge. They shall nomore be two peoples from hensforth, nether be deuyded in to two kingdomes:

23 they shal also defyle the selues nomore with their abhominacions, Idols and all their wickeddoinges. I wil helpe the out of all their dwellinge places, wherin they haue synned: & will so clesne them, that they shalbe my people, and I their God.

24 Daudid my seruauant shalbe their kinge, & they all shal haue one shepherde only. They shal walke in my lawes, and my commaundementes shalt they both kepe & fulfill.

25 They shal dwell in the londe, that I gaue vnto Iacob my seruauant, where as youre fathers also haue dwelt. Yee eue in the same londe shal they, their children, & their childers children dwell for euermore: and my seruauant Daudid shal be their euerlastyng prynce.

26 Morouer, I wil make a bonde of peace with them, which shal be vnto them an euerlastyng couenaunt. I wil sattle the also, and multiplie them, my Sanctuary wil I set amonge the for euermore.

27 My dwellinge shalbe wt them, yee I wil be their God, & they shalbe my people.

28 Thus the Heithen also shal knowe, that I the LORDE am ye holy maker of Israel: whe my Sanctuary shal be amonge them for euer more.

Chapter 38

1 And the worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thou sonne of man, turne thy face towarde Gog in the londe of Magog, which is the chefe prynce at Mesech and Tubal: prophecy agaynst him,

3 and saye: Thus saieth the LORDE God: O Gog thou chefe prynce of Mesech and Tubal: beholde, I wil vpon the,

4 and wil turne the aboute, and put a bytt in thy chawes: I wil bringe the forth and all thine hoost, both horse & horsmen, which be all weapened of the best fashion: a greate people, that handle altogether speares, shyldes, and swerdes: 5 the Perses, Moryans and with them the Lybians, which all beare shyldes and helmettes:

6 Gomer, and all his hoostes: the house of Thogorma out of the north quarters, and all his hoostes, yee and moch people with the.

7 Therefore prepare the, set thy self in araye with all thy people, that are come vnto the by heapes, and be thou their defence.

8 After many dayes thou shalt be visited, and in the latter yeares thou shalt come in to the lode, that hath bene destroyed with the swearde, & now is replenished agayne wt dyuerse people vpon the mountaynes of Israel, which haue loge lyen waist. Yee they be brought out of the nacions, & dwell all safe.

9 Thou shalt come vp like a stormy wether, to couer the lode, and as it were a darcke cloude: thou with all thine hoostes, and a greate multitude of people with the.

10 Morouer, thus saieth the LORDE God: At the same tyme shal many thinges come in to thy mynde, so that thou shalt ymagyn myschefe,

11 and saye: I wil vp to yonder playne londe, seinge they syt at ease, and dwell so safely (for they dwell all without eny walles, they haue nether barres nor dores)

12 to spoyle them, to robbe the, to laye honde vpon their so wel inhabited wildernesses: agaynst that people, yt is gathered together from amonge the Heithe, which haue gotten catell and good, and dwell in the myddest of the londe.

13 Then shal Saba and Dedan and the marchauntes of Tharsis wt all their Worthies, saye vnto the: Art thou come to robbe? Hast thou gathered thy people together, because thou wilt spoyle? to take syluer and golde: to cary awaye catell and good: and to haue a greate pray?

14 Therefore, o thou sonne of man, thou shalt prophecie, and saye vnto Gog: Thus saieth the LORDE God: In that daye thou shalt knowe, that my people of Israel dwelleth safe:

15 and shalt come from thy place, out of the north partes: thou and moch people wt the, which ryde vpon horses, wherof there is a greate multitude and an innumerable sorte.

16 Yee thou shalt come vpon my people of Israel, as a cloude to couer the lode. This shal come to passe in the latter dayes: I wil bringe the vp in to my londe, that the Heithen maye knowe me, when I get me honoure vpon the (o Gog) before their eyes.

17 Thus saieth the LORDE God: Thou art he, of whom I haue spoken aforetyme, by my seruauantes ye prophetes of Israel, which prophecied in those dayes & yeares, that I shulde bringe the vpon them.

18 At the same tyme, when Gog cometh vp in to the londe of Israel (saieth the LORDE God) shal my indignacio go forth in my wrath.

19 For in my gelousy and hote displeasure I haue deused, that there shalbe a greate trouble in the londe of Israel at that tyme.

20 The very fy'shes in the see, the foules of the ayre, the beestes of the felde, and all the men yt are vpon the earth, shal tremble for feare of me. The hilles also shalbe turned vpsidedowne, the stayres of stone shal fall, and all walles shal syncke to the grounde.

21 I wil call for a swearde vpon them in all my mountaynes, saieth the LORDE God: so that euery mans swearde shal be vpon another.

22 With pestilece and bloude wil I punysh him: stormy rayne and hale stones, fyre and brymstone, wil I cause to rayne vpon him and all his heape, yee and vpon all that greate people that is with him.

23 Thus wil I be magnified, honoured, and knowne amonge the Heithen: that they maye be sure, how yt I am ye LORDE.

Chapter 39

1 Therefore o thou sonne of man, prophecie agaynst Gog, and speake: Thus saieth the LORDE God: Beholde, o Gog: thou chefe prynce at Mesech and Tubal, I wil vpon the,

2 and turne the aboute, & carie the forth, & lede ye from the north partes, and bringe the vp to the mountaynes of Israel

3 As for thy bowe, I wil smyte it out of thy left honde, and cast thine arowes out of thy right honde.

4 Thou with all thine heape, and all the people that is with the, must fall vpon the mountaynes of Israel. Then wil I geue the vnto ye foules and wilde bestes of the felde, to be deuoured:

5 there must thou lye vpon the felde: for eue I the LORDE haue spoken it, saieth the LORDE God.

6 In to Magog, and amonge those that sit so carelesse in the Iles: wil I sende a fyre, and they shal knowe, yt I am the LORDE.

7 I wil make also the name of my holynesse to be knowne amonge my people of Israel: and I will not let my holy name be euel spoken of enymore: but the very Heithen also shal knowe, that I am the LORDE, the holy one of Israel.

8 Beholde, it commeth, and shalbe fulfilled in dede, saieth the LORDE God. This is the daye, wherof I haue spoken:
9 They that dwell in ye cities of Israel, shal go forth and set fyre vpon the weapons, and burne them: shyldes and speres, bowes and arowes, bylles and clubbes: seuen yeares

10 shall they be burnynge therof, so that they shall els bringe no stickes from ye felde, nether haue nede to hew downe eny out of the wodde: For they shall haue weapens ynew to burne. They shal robbe those that robbed them, and spoyle those that spoyled them, saieth ye LORDE God.

11 At the same tyme will I geue vnto Gog, a place to be buried in, in Israel: eue the valley, where thorow men go from the east to the see warde. Those that trauayle therby, shal abhorre it. There shal Gog and all his people be buried: and it shalbe called the valley of the people of Gog.

12 Seuen monethes longe shall the house of Israel be burienge of them, that they maye clense the lode:

13 Yee all the people of the londe shal burie them. O it shal be a glorious daye, when I get me that honoure, saieth the LORDE God.

14 They shal ordene men also to be deedburiers, euer goinge thorow the lode, and appoynte them certayne places to bury those in, which remayne vpon the felde, that the londe maye be clensed. From ende to ende shal they seke, and that vij monethes loge.

15 Now those that go thorow the londe, where they se a mans bone, they shall set vp a token by it, till the deedburiers haue buried it also, in the valley of the people of Gog.

16 And the name of the cite shalbe called Hamona: Thus shall they make the londe clene.

17 And thou sonne of man: thus saieth the LORDE God: Speake vnto all the foules and euery byrde, yee and to all the wilde bestes of the felde: heape you together and come, gather you rounde aboute vpo my slaughter, that I haue slayne for you: euen a greate slaughter vpon the mountaynes of Israel: eate flesh, and drynke bloude.

18 Ye shal eate ye flesh of the worthies, and drynke the bloude of the prynces of the londe: of the wethers, of the lambes, of the goates, and of the oxen that be all slayne at Basan.

19 Eate ye fat youre bely full, and drynke bloude, till ye be droncken of the slaughter, which I haue slayne vnto you.

20 Fyl you at my table, with horses & stronge horsmen: with captaynes and all me of warre, saieth the LORDE God.

21 I will bringe my glory also amonge the Gentiles, that all the Heithen maye se my iudgment, that I haue kepte, and my honde which I haue layed vpon them:

22 that ye house of Israel maye knowe, how that I am ye LORDE their God, from that daye forth.

23 And the Heithen shal knowe, that where as the house of Israel were led into captiuyte: it was for their wickednes sake, because they offended me. For the which cause I hyd my face from them, and delyuered them in to the hondes of their enemies, that they might all be slayne with the swearde.

24 Acordinge to their vnclennesse and vnfaithfull dealinges, so haue I entreated them, and hyd my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saieth ye LORDE God: Now will I bringe agayne the captiuyes of Iacob, and haue mercy vpon the whole house of Israel, and be gelous for my holy names sake.

26 All their confucion and offence that they haue done agaynst me, shal be taken awaye: and so safely shal they dwell in their londe, that no man shal make them afrayed.

27 And when I haue brought the agayne from amonge the people, when I haue gathered them together out of their enemies londes, and am prayed in them before many Heithen:

28 then shall they knowe, that I am the LORDE their God, which suffred them to be led in to captiuyte amonge the Heithen, but now haue brought them agayne in to their owne londe, and not left one of them yonder.

29 After that, will I hyde my face nomore from them, but will poure out my sprete vpon the house of Israel, saieth the LORDE God.

Chapter 40

1 In the xxv yeare of oure captiuyte, in the begynnynge of the yeare, the x daye of the moneth: that is the xiiij yeare, after that ye cite was smytten downe: the same daye came the honde of the LORDE vpon me, and caried me forth:

2 euen into the londe of Israel brought he me in the visions of God: and set me downe vpo a maruelous hie mountayne, whervpon there was a buyldinge (as it had bene of a cite) towarde the north.

3 Thither he caried me, and beholde, there was a man, whose similitude was like brasse, which had a threde of flax in his honde, and a meterodde also. He stode in the dore,

4 & sayde vnto me: marcke well with thine eyes, herken to with thine eares, and fasten it in thine hert, what so euer I shal shewe the, for to the intent that they might be shewed the, therefore art thou brought hither. And what soeuer thou seyst, thou shalt certifie the house of Israel therof.

5 Beholde, there was a wall on the outsyde rounde aboute the house: the meterodde that he had in his honde, was six cubites longe & a spanne. So he measured the bredth of the buyldinge, which was a meterodde, and the heyth also a meterodde.

6 Then came he vnto the eastdore, and wente vp the staires, & measured the postes of the dore: wherof euery one was a meterodde thicke. Euery chambre was a meterodde longe and brode:

7 betwene the chambers were fyue cubites. The poste of the dore within the porche, was one meterodde.

8 He measured also the porche of the ynnermer dore, which conteyned a meterodde.

9 The measured he the entrie of the dore, that conteyned eight cubites, and his pilers two cubites: and this entrie stode inwarde.

10 The chambers of the dore eastwarde, were thre on euery syde: alike brode and longe. The pilers also that stode of both the sydes, were of one measure.

11 After this, he measured the wydenesse of the dore: which was x cubites, & the heyth of the dore xiiij cubites.

12 The edge before the chabres was one cubite brode vpo both the sydes, & the chambres six cubites wyde of either syde.

13 He measured ye dore from the rygge of one chabre to another, whose wydenesse was xxv cubites, & one dore stode agaynst another.

14 He made pilers also lx cubites hie, rounde aboute the courte dore.

15 Before the inwarde parte vnto the fore entre of the ynnermer dore, were fiftie cubites.

16 The chambers and their pilers within, rounde aboute vnto ye dore, had syde wyndowes: So had the fore entries also, whose wyndowes wente rounde aboute within. And vpon the pilers there stode date trees.

17 Then brought he me in to the fore courte, where as were chabres & paued workes, made in ye fore courte rounde aboute: xxx chabres vpon one paued worcke.

18 Now the paued worcke was a loge besyde the dores, and that was the lower paued worcke.

19 After this, he measured ye bredth from the lower dore, vnto the ynnermer courte of the outsyde, which had an hundredth cubites vpon the east & the north parte.

20 And the dore in the vttemost courte towarde the north, measured he after the legth and bredth:

21 his thre chambres also on either syde, with his pilers & fore entries: which had euen the measure of the first dore. His heyth was fiftie cubites, the bredth xxv cubites:

22 his wyndowes & porches with his datetrees, had euen like measure as the dore towarde the east: there where vij steppes to go vp vpo, & their porche before them.

23 Now ye dore of the ynnermer courte stode straight ouer agaynst the dore, that was towarde ye north east. From one dore to another, he measured an C cubites.

24 After that, he brought me to the south syde, where there stode a dore towarde ye south: whose pilers and porches he measured, these had the fyrst measure,

25 & with their porches they had wyndowes rounde aboute, like the first wyndowes. The heyth was l cubites, ye breadth xxv, 26 with steppes to go vp vpon: his porche stode before him, with his pilers and datetrees on either syde.

27 And the dore of the ynnermer courte stode towarde the south, & he measured from one dore to another an C cubites.

28 So he brought me in to ye ynnermer courte, thorow the dore of the south syde: which he measured, & it had the measure afore sayde.

29 In like maner, his chambres, pilers and fore entries, had euen the fore sayde measure also. And he had with his porches rounde aboute, wyndowes of l cubites hie, & xxv cubites brode.

30 The porches rounde aboute were xxv cubites longe, and v cubites brode:

31 and his porch reached vnto ye vttemost courte: vpon his pilers there were date trees, and viij steppes to go vp vpon.

32 He brought me also in to the ynmst courte vpon the east syde, and measured the dore, acordinge to ye measure afore sayde.

33 His chabers, pilers and porches had euen the same measure, as the first had: & with his porches he had wyndowes rounde aboute. The heith was l cubites, ye breadth xxv cubites:

34 His porches reached vnto the vttemost courte: his pilers also had date trees on either syde, and viij steppes to go vp vpon.

35 And he brought me to the north dore, and measured it, which also had the foresayde measure.

36 His chabres, pilers and porches had wyndowes rounde aboute: whose heyth was l cubites, and the bredth xxv.

37 His pilers stode towarde the vttemost courte, and vpon them both were date trees, and viij steppes to go vp vpon.

38 There stode a chambre also, whose intrauce was at the dore pilers, and there the burntofferings were wa?shed.

39 In the dore porche, there stode on ether syde two tables for the slaughtinge: to slaye the brentofferings, synneofferings and trespaceofferings therupon.

40 And on the out syde as men go forth to the north dore, there stode two tables.

41 Foure stables stode on ether syde of the dore, that is viij tables, whervpon they slaughtered.

42 Foure tables were of hewen stone for the burnt offerings, of a cubite and a half longe and brode, and one cubite hie: whervpon were layed ye vessels and ornamentes, which were vsed to, the burnt & slayne offeringes, when they were slaughtered.

43 And within there were hokes foure fyngers brode, fastened rounde aboute, to hange flesh vpon, & vpon the tables was layed the offeringe flesh.

44 On the outsyde of the ynnermer dore were the syngers chambers in the inwarde courte besyde ye north dore ouer agaynst the south. There stode one also, besyde the east dore north warde.

45 And he sayde vnto me: This chambre on the south syde belongeth to the prestes, that kepe the habitacion:

46 and this towarde the north, is the prestes that wayte vpon the altar: which be the sonnes of Sadoch, that do seruyce before the LORDE in steade of the children of Leui.

47 So he measured the fore courte, which had in length an C cubites, and as moch in bredth by the foure corners. Now the altar stode before the house:

48 And he brought me to the fore entre of the house, and measured the walles by the entre dore: which were fyue cubites longe on ether syde. The thicknesse also of the dore on ether syde, was thre cubites.

49 The legth of the porche was xx cubites, the bredth xj. cubites, and vpon steppes went men vp to it: by the walles also were pilers, on either syde one.

Chapter 41

1 After this he brought me to the temple, and measured the postes: which were of both the sydes vj. cubites thicke, accordinge to the wydenesse of the tabernacle.

2 The bredth of ye dore was x. cubites, & the walles of the dore on either syde fyue cubites. He measured the length therof, which conteyned xl. cubites, and the bredth xx.

3 The wente he in, and measured the dore postes, which were two cubites thicke: but the dore itself was sixe cubites, and the bredth of the dore was vij. cubites.

4 He measured the legth and bredth therof, which were euery one xx. cubites, before the temple. And he sayde vnto me: this is the holiest of all.

5 He measured also the wall of the house, which was sixe cubites. The chambres yt stode rounde aboute ye house, were euery one foure cubites wyde,

6 and one stode harde vpo another, wherof there were xxxij. And there stode postes beneth by the walles rounde aboute the house, to beare the vp: but in ye wall of ye house they were not fastened:

7 The syde chambres were the hyer the wyder, and had steppes thorow them rounde aboute ye house. Thus was it wyder aboue, that from the lowest men might go to the hiest & mydde chabers.

8 I sawe also that the house was very hie rounde aboute. The foundation of the syde chambres was a meterodde (that is sixe cubites) brode.

9 The thicknesse of the syde wall without, conteyned fyue cubites, & so dyd ye outwall of the chabers in ye house.

10 Betwene the chambers, was the wydenes xx. cubites rounde aboute ye house.

11 The chambre dores stode ouer agaynst the outwall, the one dore was towarde the north, ye other towarde the south: and the thicknesse of the outwall was v cubites rounde aboute.

12 Now the buyldinge that was separated towarde the west, was lxx. cubites wyde: the wall of the buyldinge was v cubites thicke roude aboute, and the length foure score cubites and ten.

13 So he measured the house which was an C. cubites longe, and the separated buyldinge with the wall were an C. cubites loge also.

14 The wydensse before the house and of it yt was separated towarde the east, was an C. cubites.

15 And he measured the length of the buyldinge before and behinde with the chabers vpon both the sydes: and it conteyned an C. cubites. The ynnermer temple, the porch of the forecourte,

16 ye syde postes, these thre had syde wyndowes, and pilers rounde aboute ouer agaynst the postes, from the grounde vp to the wyndowes: The wyndowes them selues were syled ouer with bordes:

17 & thus was it aboue the dore, vnto the ymmost house, and without also: Yee the whole wall on euery syde both within and without was syled ouer wt greate bordes.

18 There were Cherubins and date trees made also, so that one date tre stode euer betwixte two Cherubins: One Cherub had two faces,

19 ye face of a man lokinge asyde towarde the date tre, and a Lyons face on the other syde. Thus was it made rounde aboute in all the house:

20 Yee the Cherubins and date trees were made from the grounde vp aboute the dore, and so stode they also vpon the wall of the temple.

21 The bypostes of the temple were foure squared, and the fashion of the Sanctuary was, euen as it appeared vnto me afore in ye vision.

22 The table was of wodde, thre cubites hie and two cubites longe: his corners, the length and the walles were of wodde. And he sayde vnto me: This is the table, that shal stonde before the LORDE.

23 The temple and the holiest of all had ether of them two dores,

24 and euery dore had two litle wickettes which were folden in one vpon another, on euery syde two.

25 And vpon the dores of the temple there were made Cherubins and date trees, like as vpon the walles: and a greate thicke balke of wodde was before on the outsyde of the porche.

26 Vpo both the sydes of the walles of the porche, there were made depe wyndowes and date trees, hauynge beames and balkes, like as the house had.

Chapter 42

1 Then caried he me out in to the fore courte towarde the north, & brought me in to the chambre that stode ouer agaynst the backebuyldinge northwarde, which had the length of an C. cubites, whose dore turned towarde the north.

2 The wydenesse conteyned L. cubites, 3 ouer agaynst the xx. cubites of the ynnermer courte, & agaynst the pauer worke that was in the fore courte. Besyde all these thre there stode pilers, one ouer against another:

4 And before this chabre there was a walkinge place of x. cubites wyde, and within was a waye of one cubite wyde, and their dores towarde the north.

5 Thus the hiest chambres were allwaye narrower then the lowest and myddelmost of ye buildinge:

6 for they bare chambre vpon chambre, and stode thre together one vpon another, not hauynge pilers like the fore courte: therfore were they smaller then those beneth and in the myddest, to reken from the grounde vpwarde.

7 The wall without that stode by ye chambres towarde the vttemost courte vpon the fore syde of the chambres, was L. cubites loge:

8 for the legth of ye vttemost chambers in the fore courte was L. cubites also: but the length therof before the temple was an C. cubites.

9 These chambres had vnder them an inraunce of the east syde, wherby a man might go into them out of the fore courte, 10 thorow the thicke wall of the fore courte towarde the east, right ouer agaynst the separated buyldinge.

11 Before the same buyldinge vpo this syde there were chabers also which, had a waye vnto them, like as the chambers on the north syde of the same length and wydenesse. Their inraunce, fashion and dores were all of the same maner.

12 Yee euen like as the other chamber dores were, so were those also of the south syde. And before the waye towarde the syngers steppes on the east syde, there stode a dore to go in at.

13 Then sayde he vnto me: The chambers towarde the north & the south, which stode before the backe buyldinge: those be holy habitacions, wherin the prestes that do seruyce before the LORDE, must eate the most holy offeringes: and there must they laye the most holy offeringes: meatofferings, synneofferings & trespace offeringes, for it is an holy place.

14 When the prestes come therin, they shal not go out in to the fore courte: but (seyng they be holy) they shall leaue the clothes of their ministracion, and put on other garmentes, when they haue eny thinge to do with the people.

15 Now when he had measured all the ynnermer house, he brought me forth thorow the east porte, and measured the same rounde aboute.

16 He measured the east syde with ye meterodde, which rounde aboute conteyned v.C. meteroddes.

17 And the north syde measured he, which conteyned rounde aboute euen so moch.

18 The other two sydes also towarde the south

19 and the west (which he measured) conteyned ether of them v.C. meteroddes.

20 So he measured all ye foure sydes where there wente a wall rounde aboute v.C. meteroddes longe, and as brode also, which separated the holy from the vnholy.

Chapter 43

1 So he brought me to ye dore, that turneth towarde the east.

2 Beholde, the came the glory of the God of Israel from out of the east, whose voyce was like a greate noyse of waters, and the earth was lightened with his glory.

3 His sight to loke vpon was like the first, that I sawe, when I wente in, what tyme as the cite shulde haue bene destroyed: and like the vision that I sawe by the water of Cobar. Then fell I vpon my face, 4 but the glory of the LORDE came in to the house thorow the eastdore.

5 So a wynde toke me vp, and brought me into ye ynnermer courte: & beholde, the house was full of the glory of the LORDE.

6 I herde one speakinge vnto me out of the house, and there stode one by me,

7 that sayde vnto me: O thou sonne of man, this rowme is my seate, and the place of my fotesteppes: where as I will dwell amonge the children of Israel for euermore: so that the house of Israel shal nomore defyle my holy name: nether thei, ner their kinges, thorow their whordome, thorow their hie places, & thorow the deed bodies of their kinges:

8 which haue buylde their thresholdes in maner harde vpon my thresholdes, and their postes almost at my postes: so that there is but a bare wall betwixte me and them. Thus haue they defyled my holy name with their abhominacions, that they haue comitted. Wherfore I haue destroyed them in my wrath:

9 But now they shal put awaye their whordome and the deed bodies of their kinges out of my sight, that I maye dwell amoge them for euermore.

10 Therfore (o thou sonne of man) shewe thou the housholde of Israel a temple, that they maye be ashamed of their wickednesse, and measure them selues an example therat.

11 And when they be ashamed of all their workes, then shewe them the fourme and fashion of the temple: the comynge in, the goinge out, all the maner and descripcion therof, yee all the vses and ordinaunces of it, yt they maye kepe & fulfill all the fashions and customes therof.

12 This is the descripcion of the house: Aboue vpo the mount rounde aboute all the corners, it shalbe ye holiest of all. Beholde, that is the descripcion and fashion of the house.

13 This is the measure of the altar (after the true cubite,; which is a spanne longer then another cubite) his botome in the myddest was a cubite longe and wyde, and the ledge that wente rounde aboute it, was a spanne brode. This is the heyth of the altar:

14 From the grounde to the lower steppes the length is two cubites, and the bredth one cubite: and from the lower steppes to the higher are foure cubites, & the bredth but one cubite.

15 The altar was foure cubites hie, & from the altar vpwarde stode foure hornes,

16 and it was xij cubites longe and xij cubites brode, vpon the foure corners:

17 the coueringe of the altar was xiiij cubites longe and brode vpon the foure corners, and the ledge that wente rounde aboute, had half a cubite: and the botome therof rounde aboute one cubite: his steppes stode towarde the easte.

18 And he sayde vnto me: Thou sonne of man, thus saith the LORDE God: these are the ordinaunces and lawes of the altar, in the daye whe it is made, to offre burntofferings, and to sprenkle bloude ther vpon.

19 To the prestes, to ye Leuites that be of the sede of Sadoch, and treade before me to do me seruyce, saith the LORDE God: Vnto these geue thou a yonge bullocke, for a synoffringe:

20 & take the bloude of him & sprenkle his foure hornes withal, & the foure corners of the altar coueringe, with the ledge that goeth rounde aboute: here with shalt thou clense it, and reconcile it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the synoffringe, & burne him in a seuerall place without the Sanctuary.

22 The nexte daye, take a gootbuck without blemish for a synoffringe, to reconcile the altar withall: like as it was reconciled with ye bullocke.

23 Now when thou hast made it clene, then offre a yonge bullocke without blemish, and a ramme out of the flocke without blemish also:

24 Offre them before the LORDE, and let the prest cast salt therupon, and geue them so vnto the LORDE for a burntoffringe.

25 Seuen dayes shalt thou bringe, euery daye a gootbucke. A yonge bullocke & a ramme of the flocke (both without blemish) shal they offre.

26 Seuen dayes shal they reconcile and clense the altar, & offre vpon it.

27 When these dayes are expired, then vpon the viij daye and so forth, the prestes shal offre their burntofferings and healthofferings vpo ye altar: so wil I be mercifull vnto you, saith the LORDE God.

Chapter 44

1 After this, he brought me agayne to ye outwarde dore of the Sanctuary on the east syde, and that was shut.

2 Then sayde the LORDE vnto me: This dore shalbe stil shut, and not opened for eny ma to go thorow it, but only for the LORDE God of Israel: yee he shal go thorow it, els shal it be shut still.

3 The prynce himself shal come thorow it, that he maye eate bred before the LORDE. At the porche shal he come in, and there shal he go out agayne.

4 Then brought he me to the dore, vpon the north syde of the house. And as I lokod aboute me, beholde, the glory of the LORDE fylled the house: and I fell downe vpon my face.

5 So the LORDE spake vnto me: O thou sonne of man, fasten this to thine herte, beholde, and take diliget hede to all that I wil saye vnto the, concernynge all the ordinaunces of the LORDE and all his lawes: pondre well with thine herte the comynge in of the house and the goinge forth of the Sanctuary:

6 and tell that obstinate housholde of Israel: Thus saith the LORDE God: O house of Israel, ye haue now done ynough with all youre abhominacions,

7 seyng that ye haue brought in to my Sanctuary straungers, hauynge vncircumcised hertes & flesh, where thorow my Sactuary is defiled, whe ye offre my bred, fat, & bloude. Thus with all youre abhominacions ye haue broken my couenaunt,

8 and not kepte the holy ordinaunces of my Sanctuary: but set keepers of my Sanctuary, euen after youre owne mynde.

9 Therefore thus saith ye LORDE God: Of all the straungers that dwell amoge the childre of Israel, no straunger (whose herte & flesh is not circumcised) shal come within my Sanctuary:

10 No ner the Leuites that be gone backe fro me, and haue disceaued the people of Israel with erreours, goinge after their Idols: therefore shal thei beare their owne wickednes.

11 Shulde they be set and ordened to ministre, vnder the dores of the house of my Sanctuary? and to do seruyce in the house: to slaye burntofferings and sacrifices for ye people: to stode before them, and to serue them:

12 seyng the seruyce that they do them, is before their Idols, and cause the house of Israel to stamble thorow wickednesse? For the which cause I haue plucked out myne honde ouer them (saith the LORDE) so that now they must beare their owne iniquyte, 13 and not to come nye me, to serue me with their preasheade, in my Sanctuary, and most holiest of all: that they maye beare their owne shame and abhominacions, which they haue done.

14 Shulde I vse them to be porters of the house, and to all the seruyce yt is done therin?

15 But the prestes ye Leuites the sonnes of Sadoch, that kepte the holy ordinaunces of my Sanctuary, when the children of Israel were gone fro me: shal come to me, to do me seruyce, to stonde before me, and to offre me the fat and the bloude, saith the LORDE God.

16 They shall go in to my Sanctuary, and treade before my table, to do me seruyce, and to waite vpo myne ordinaunces.

17 Now whe they go in at the dores of the ynnermer courte, they shal put on lynnyng clothes, so that no wollyne come vpon them: whyle they do seruyce vnder the dores of ye ynnermer courte, and within.

18 They shal haue fayre lynnyng bonettes vpon their heades, and lynnyng breches vpon their loynes, which in their labour they shal not put aboute them:

19 And when they go forth to the people in to the outwarde courte, they shal put of the clothes, wherin they haue ministred, and laye them in the habitacion of the Sanctuary, & put on other apparell, lest they onhalowe ye people with their clothes.

20 They shal not shauie their heades, ner norish the bushe of their hayre, but roude their heades only.

21 All the prestes that go in to the ynmost courte, shall drynke no wyne.

22 They shall mary no wydowe, nether one that is put from hir hu?bonde: but a mayde of the sede of the house of Israel, or a wydowe, that hath had a prest before.

23 They shal shewe my people the difference betwene the holy and vnholly, betwixte the clene and vnclene.

24 Yf eny discorde aryse, they shal discern it, and geue sentence after my iudgments. My solempne feastes, my lawes and ordinaunces shal they kepe, and halowe my Sabbathes.

25 They shal come at no deed persone, to defyle them selues: (excepte it be father or mother, sonne or daughter, brother or sister that hath had yet no husbonde) in soch they maye be defyled.

26 And when he is clensed, there shal be rekened vnto him vij dayes:

27 and yf he go in to the Sanctuary agayne to do seruyce, he shal bringe a synoffringe saith the LORDE God.

28 They shall haue an heretage, yee I my self wilbe their heretage: els shall ye geue the no possession in Israel, for I am their possession.

29 The meatoffringe, synoffringe & trespace offeringe shal they eate, and euery dedicate thinge in Israel, shalbe theirs.

30 The firstlinges of all the first frutes, and all fre will offerings shal be the prestes. Ye shall geue vnto the prest also the firstlinges of youre dowe, that God maye prospere the resydue.

31 But no deed carion shall the prest eate, ner soch as is deuoured of wilde beestes, foules or catell.

Chapter 45

1 When ye deuyde the lode by the lott, ye shal put asyde one parte for the LORDE, to be holy from other londes: namely, xxv M meteroddes longe, and x M brode. This shalbe holy, as wyde as it is rounde aboute.

2 Of this parte there shal be longe vnto the Sanctuary v C meteroddes in all the foure corners, and l cubites wyde rounde aboute to the suburbes.

3 And from this meausre, namely of xxv M metteroddes longe, and x M brode, thou shalt measure, wherin the Sanctuary and the holiest of all maye stonde.

4 The resydue of that holy grounde shall be the prestes, which do seruyce in the Sanctuary of the LORDE, and go in before the LORDE to serue him, that they maye haue rowme to dwell in.

5 As for the Sanctuary, it shal stonde for it self: and to the Leuites the serue in that house, there shalbe geuen xx habitacions, of the xxv M leghth & x M bredth:

6 ye shal geue also vnto the cite a possessio of v M meteroddes brode, & xxv M longe, besyde the parte of ye Sanctuary: that shal be for the whole house of Israel.

7 Vpon both the sydes of the Sanctuaries parte, & by the cite, there shalbe geuen vnto the prynce, what so euer lyeth ouer agaynst the cite, as farre as reacheth westwarde and eastwarde: which shalbe as longe as one parte, fro ye west vnto ye east.

8 This shalbe his owne lode in Israel, that my princes be no more chargeable vnto my people. And soch as remayneth yet ouer in the londe, shalbe geuen to the house of Israel acordinge to their trybes.

9 Thus saith the LORDE God: O ye princes, ye haue now oppressed and destroyed ynough: now leaue of, handle now acordinge to the thinge, that is equall and lafull: and thrust out my people nomore, sayeth ye LORDE God.

10 Ye shal haue a true weight, a true Epha, & a true Bat.

11 The Epha & the Bat shalbe a like. One Bat shal coteyne ye teth parte of an Homer, and so shal one Epha do: their measure shalbe after ye Homer.

12 One Sycle maketh xx. Geras. So xx. Sycles, and xxv. & xv. Sycles make a pounde.

13 This is the Heaue offryng, that ye shal geue to be heaued: namely, the xvj. parte of an Epha, out of an Homer of wheat: and the xvj. parte of an Epha, out of an Homer of barlie.

14 The oyle shalbe measured with the Bat: euen the x. parte of one Bat out of a Cor. Ten Battes make one Homer: for one Homer maketh ten Battes.

15 And one labe from two hundreth shepe out of the pasture of Israel, for a meatoffryng, burntoffryng and healthoffryng, to recocile them, sayeth the LORDE God.

16 All the people of the londe shal geue this heaue offryng with a frewill.

17 Agayne, it shal be the prynces parte to offre burntoffrynges, meatoffrynges and drynkoffrynges vnto the LORDE, in the holy dayes, new Moones, Sabbathes, and in all the hye feastes of the house of Israel. The synoffrynge, meatofferynge, brentofferynge & healthoffrynge shal he geue, to recocile the house of Israel.

18 Thus sayeth ye LORDE God: The first daye of the first moneth thou shalt take a yoge bullocke without blemysh, and cense the Sanctuary.

19 So the prest shal take of the bloude of ye synoffrynge, and sprenkle it vpon the postes of the house, and vpon the foure corners of the aluter, with the dorepostes of the ynnermer courte.

20 And thus shalt thou do also the seuenth daye of ye moneth (for soch as haue synned of ignoraunce, or beyng disceued) to reconcile the house withall.

21 Vpon ye xiiij. daye of the first moneth ye shal kepe Easter. Seue dayes shal the feast contynue, wherin there shal no sower ner leueded bred be eate.

22 Vpon the same daye shal ye prynce geue for himself and all the people of the londe, a bullocke for a synoffrynge.

23 And in the feast of the seuen dayes he shal offre euery daye a bullocke & a ram, that are with out blemysh, for a burntoffrynge vnto the LORDE: & an he gaote daylie for a synoffrynge.

24 For the meatoffrynges he shall geue euer an Epha to a bullocke, an Epha to a ram, & an Hin of oyle to an Epha.

25 Vpon ye xv. daye of the seuenth moneth, he shal kepe the seuen dayes holy one after another, eue as the other vij. dayes: with the synoffrynge, burntoffrynge, meatoffrynge, and with the oyle.

Chapter 46

1 Thus sayeth the LORDE God: ye dore of the ynnermer courte towarde the east, shall be shut the vj. worke dayes: but in the Sabbath and in the daye of the new Moone, it shalbe opened.

2 Then shal the prynce come vnder the dore porche, & stonde still without by the dore cheke. So ye prestes shall offre vp his burnt & healthoffrynges. And he shal worshipe at the dore poste, and go his waye forth agayne: but ye dore shal nomore be shut till the euenyng.

3 On the same maner shal the people of the londe also do their worshipe before the LORDE, without this dore vpon the Sabbathes and new Moones.

4 This is now the burntoffrynge, that the prynce shall bringe vnto the LORDE vpon the Sabbath: sixe lambes without blemysh, & a ram without blemysh,

5 and an Epha for a meatoffrynge, with ye ram. As for the lambes, he maye geue as many meatoffrynges to them, as he wil, & an Hin of oyle to an Epha.

6 In the daye of the new moneth, it shalbe a yonge bullocke without blemysh, sixe lambes & a ram also without blemysh.

7 With the bullocke he shal geue an

Epha, and with the ram an Epha also for a meatofferynge: but to ye lambes, what he maye come by: And euer an Hin of oyle to an Epha.

8 When the prynce cometh, he shall go vnder the dore porche, and euen there departe forth agayne.

9 But when the people of the londe come before the LORDE in the hye solempne feast, as many as come in by the north dore to do worshipe, shal go out agayne at the south dore. And they that come in at the south dore, shal go forth agayne at ye north dore. There shal none go out at the dore where he came in, but shal go forth right ouer on the other syde,

10 and the prynce shall go in and out amonge them.

11 Vpon the solempne and hie feaste dayes, this shalbe the meatofferynge: An Epha to a bullock, and an Epha to a ram: and to the lambes, as many as he wil, but euer an Hin of oyle to an Epha.

12 Now when the prynce bryngeth a burntofferynge or an healthofferynge with a fre wil vnto the LORDE, the east dore shalbe opened vnto him, yt he maye do with his burnt & healthofferynges, as he doth vpo the Sabbath: and when he goeth forth, the dore shal be shut after him agayne.

13 He shal daylie brynge vnto the LORDE a lambe of a yeare olde without blemish for a burntofferynge: this shall he do euery mornynge.

14 And for a meatofferynge he shal geue the sixte parte of an Epha, & the thirde parte of an Hin of oyle (to myngle with the cakes) euery mornynge. Yee this shalbe a daylie meatofferynge vnto the LORDE, for an euerlasting ordinance: 15 & thus shal the lambe, the meatofferynge and oyle be geuen euery mornynge, for a dailie burntofferynge.

16 Morouer, thus sayeth the LORDE God: Yf the prynce geue a gifte vnto eny of his sonnes, then shall it be his sonnes heretage perpetuall, yt he maye possesse it.

17 But yf he wil geue one of his seruauntes some of his heretage, it shall be his to the fre yeare, and the to returne agayne vnto ye prynce: for his heretage shalbe his sonnes only.

18 The prynce also shal take none of the peoples enheritaunce, ner put the from their possession: but to his owne sonnes shal he geue his possession, that my people be not scatred abrode, but that euery man maye haue his owne.

19 And he brought me thorow the intraunce at the syde of the dore to ye habitacion of the Sanctuary, that belongeth to ye prestes and stode towarde the north, & beholde, there was a place vpon the west syde, 20 then sayde he vnto me: This is the place, where the prestes shall dight the trespace and synofferynges, & bake ye meatofferynges: that they nede not beare the in to the outwarde courte, and so to vnhalowe the people.

21 So he brought me in to the vtmost courte, rounde aboute all the foure corners. Beholde, in euery corner of ye fore courte, there was yet a litle courte.

22 Yee in all the foure corners of the courte, there was made a litle courte of xl. cubites longe, and xxx. cubites brode: these foure litle courtes were of one like measure,

23 & there went a rygge wall rounde aboute them all foure, vnder the which there were harthes made rounde aboute.

24 Then sayde he vnto me: This is the kechin, where the ministers of the house shal dight the slayne offerynges of the people.

Chapter 47

1 After this he brought me agayne before the dore of the house: & beholde, there gu?shed out waters from vnder ye postes of the house eastwarde (for the house stode towarde the east) that ranne downe vpo the right syde of the house, which lyeth to the aluter south warde.

2 The caried he me out to the north dore, and brought me forth there rounde aboute by the vtmost dore, yt turneth eastwarde. Beholde, there came forth the water vpon the right syde.

3 Now whan the man yt had the meterodde in his honde wente out vnto the east dore, he measured a M. cubites, & the he brought me thorow ye water, eue to the ancles:

4 so he measured yet a thousande, & brought me thorow ye water agayne vnto the knees: yet measured he a thousande, and brought me thorow the water vnto the loynes.

5 After this he measured a thousande agayne, then was it soch a ryuer, yt I might not wade thorow it: The water was so depe, that it was nedefull to haue swymmed, for it might not be waded ouer.

6 And he sayde vnto me: hast thou sene this, o thou sonne of man? and with that, he brought me to the ryuer banck agayne.

7 Now when I came there, there stode many trees vpon ether syde of the ryuer backe.

8 Then sayde he vnto me: This water that floweth out towarde the east, and runneth downe in to the playne felde, commeth in to the see: and from the see it runneth out, & maketh the waters whole.

9 Yee all that liue and moue, where vnto this ryuer commeth, shal recouer. And where this water cometh, there shalbe many fysh. For all that commeth to this water, shall be lusty and whole.

10 By this riuier shal the fy?shers stonde from Engaddi vnto En Eglaim, & there sprede out their nettes: for there shalbe greate heapes of fysh, like as in the mayne see.

11 As for his claye and pyttes, they shal not be whole, for why, it shalbe occupide for salt.

12 By this ryuer vpon both the sydes of the shore, there shall growe all maner of frutefull trees, whose leaues shall not fall of, nether shal their frute perish: but euer be ryte at their monethes, for their water runneth out of the Sanctuary. His frute is good to eate, and his leaf profitable for medycine.

13 Thus sayeth the LORDE God: Let this be the border, wherin ye shall deuyde the londe vnto the xij. trybes of Israel, with the lyne.

14 Parte it indifferently vnto one as vnto another: of the which lode I swore vnto youre fathers, that it shulde fall to youre enheritaunce.

15 This is the border of the londe vpon the northsyde, from the mayne see, as men go to Zadada:

16 namely, Hemath, Berotha, Sabarim: from the borders of Damascus and Hemath vnto Hazar Tichon, that lieth vpon the coastes of Hauera.

17 Thus the borders fro the see forth, shalbe Hazar Euan, the border of Damascus the north, and the borders of Hemath: that is the north parte.

18 The east syde shal ye measure from Haueran and Damascus, from Galead and the londe of Israel by Iordane and so forth, from the see coast, that lieth eastwarde: and this is the east parte.

19 The south syde is, from Tamar forth to the waters of strife vnto Cades, the ryuer, to the mayne see: and that is the south parte.

20 The west parte: namely the greate see from the borders therof, till a man come vnto Hemath: this is the west parte.

21 This londe shal ye parte amonge you, acordinge to the trybes of Israel, 22 and deuyde it to be an heretage for you, and for the straugers that dwel amoge you, and begette children. For ye shal take them amonge the childe of Israell, like as though they were of youre owne housholde and countre, and they shal haue heretage with you amonge the childe of Israel.

23 Loke in what trybe the stranger dwelleth, in the same trybe shal ye geue him his heretage, saith the LORDE God.

Chapter 48

1 These are ye names of the trybes that lye vpon the northsyde by the waye of Hetlon, tyll thou commest vnto Hemath and Hazar Enam, the borders of Damascus towarde the north besyde Hemath: Dan shal haue his porcio from the east quarter vnto the west.

2 Vpon the borders of Dan from the east syde vnto the west, shal Asser haue his porcion.

3 Vpon the borders of Asser fro the east parte vnto the west, shal Nephtali haue his porcion.

4 Vpon the borders of Nephtali from the east quarter vnto the west, shal Manasses haue his porcion.

5 Vpon the borders of Manasses from the east syde vnto the west, shal Ephraim haue his porcion.

6 Vpon the borders of Ephraim from the east parte vnto the west, shal Ruben haue his porcion.

7 Vpon the borders of Ruben from the east quarter vnto the west, shal Iuda haue his porcion.

8 Vpon the borders of Iuda from the east parte vnto the west, ye shal set a syde one porcio of xxv.M. meteroddes longe and brode (like as another porcion from the east syde vnto the west,) wherin the Sanctuary shal stode.

9 As for the porcion, that ye shal separate out for the LORDE, it shalbe xxv.M. longe, and x.M. brode.

10 Which separated holy porcion shal belonge vnto these: namely to the prestes, towarde the north xxv.M. & towarde the west x.M. brode, towarde the east x. M. brode also, & towarde the south xxv.M. longe, wherin the Sanctuary of the LORDE shal stonde.

11 Yee this same place shal be the prestes, yt are of the childre of Sadoch, & haue kepte my holy ordinaunce: which wente not astraye in the erreure of the children of Israel, like as the Leuites are gone astraye:

12 and this separated pece that they haue of the londe, shalbe the most holy, harde vpon the borders of the Leuites.

13 And nexte vnto the prestes, shal the Leuites haue xxv.M. loge and x.M. brode. This shalbe on euery syde xxv. M. longe, and x. M. brode.

14 Of this porcio they shal sell nothings, ner make eny permutacion therof, lest the chefe of the londe fall vnto other, for it is halowed vnto the LORDE.

15 The other v.M. after the bredth, yt lyeth by the xxv.M. shalbe comon: it shal belonge to the cite and to the suburbes for habitacions, and ye cite shal stonde in the myddest therof.

16 Let this be the measure: towarde ye north parte, v.C. & iiij.M: towarde the south parte, v.C. & iiij.M: towarde the east parte, v.C. and iiij.M: towarde ye west parte, v.C. and iiij.M.

17 The suburbes harde vpon the cite, shall haue towarde the north, L. and ij.C: towarde the south, L. and two C: towarde the east, L. and two C: towarde the west also, L. and two C.

18 As for the residue of the length, that lyeth hard vpon the separated holy ground: namely, x.M. towarde the east and x.M. towarde the west, next vnto the holy porcio: it and the increase therof shal serue for their meate, that laboure in the cite.

19 They that laboure for the welth of the cite, shall manteine this also, out of what tribe so euer they be in Israel.

20 All that is separated of the xxv.M. longe and xxv.M. brode on the foure partes, yt shall ye put a syde for the separated porcion of the Sanctuary, & for the possession of ye cite.

21 The resydue vpon both the sydes of the Sanctuary and possession of the cite, shall belonge to the prynce, before the place of ye xxv.M. vnto the east ende, & before the place of ye xxv.M. westwarde, vnto the borders of ye cite: this shalbe ye prynces porcio. This shalbe the holy place, and the house of the Sanctuary shal stonde in the myddest.

22 Morouer, from the Leuites and the cities possession, yt lye in the myddest of the prynces parte: loke what remaineth betwixte the border of Iuda & the border of Ben Iamin, it shalbe the prynces.

23 Now of the other trybes. Fro the east parte vnto the west, shal Ben Iamin haue his porcion.

24 Vpon the borders of Ben Iamin fro the east syde vnto ye west, shal Symeon haue his porcion.

25 Vpon the borders of Symeo from the east parte vnto the west, shal Isachar haue his porcion.

26 Vpon the borders of Isachar from the east syde vnto the west, shal Sabulon haue his porcion.

27 Vpon the borders of Sabulon from the east parte vnto the west, shal Gad haue his porcion.

28 Vpon the borders of Gad southwarde, the coastes shal reach fro Thamar forth vnto the waters of strife to Cades, and to the floude, euen vnto the mayne see.

29 This is ye lode wt his porcios, which ye shal distribute vnto the trybes of Israel, saith ye LORDE God.

30 Thus wyde shal the cite reach: vpon the north parte v C and iiij M measures.

31 The portes of the cite, shal haue the names of the trybes of Israel. Three portes of ye northsyde: One Ruben, another Iuda, the thirde Leui.

32 Vpon ye east syde, v C & iiij M measures, wt ye thre portes: The one Ioseph, another Be Iamin, the thirde Dan.

33 Vpon the south syde v C and iiij M measures, with the thre portes: the one Symeon, another Isachar, the thirde Sabulon.

34 And vpon the west syde v C and iiij M measures, with thre portes also: the one Gad, another Asser, the thirde Nephtali.

35 Thus shal it haue xviiij M measures roud aboute. And from that tyme forth, ye name of the cite shalbe: the LORDE is there.

DANIEL

Chapter 1

1 In ye thirde yeare of ye raigne of Ioachim kynge off Iuda, came Nabuchodonosor kynge of Babilon vnto Ierusalem, & beseged it:

2 and the LORDE delyuered Ioachim the kynge off Iuda in to his honde, with certayne ornamentes of the house off God, which he caried awaye vnto the londe of Sennar, to the house of his god and there brought them in to his gods treasury.

3 And the kynge spake vnto Asphenes ye chefe chamberlayne, that he shulde brynge him certayne of the children of Israel, that were come of the kynges sede and of prynces,

4 yoge spryngaldes with out eny blemish but fayre ad welfauored, instructe in all wisdomme, connyng and vnderstodinge: which were able to stonde in the kynges palace, to reade, and to lerne for to speake Caldeish.

5 Vnto these the kinge appoynted a certayne porcion of his owne meate and of the wine, which he drancke himselff, so to norish the thre yeare: that afterwarde they might stonde before the kynge.

6 Amonge these now were certayne of the children off Iuda: namely Daniel, Ananias, Misael and Azarias.

7 Vnto these the chefe chamberlayne gaue other names, and called Daniel, Balthasar: Ananias, Sydrac: Misael, Misac: and Asarias, Abdenago.

8 But Daniel was at a poynt wt himselff, that he wolde not be defyled thorow the kynges meate, ner ye wyne which he droke. And this he desyred off the chefe chaberlayne, lest he shulde defyle himselff.

9 So God gaue Daniel faououre and grace before ye chefe chamberlayne,

10 that he sayde vnto him: I am afrayed off my lorde the kynge, which hath appoynted you youre meate and drynke: lest he spye youre faces to be worse lykynge then the other spryngaldes of youre age, ad so ye shal make me loose my heade vnto ye kynge.

11 Then Daniel answered Melassar, whom the chefe chamberlayne had set ouer Daniel, Ananias, Misael and Asarias, and sayde:

12 O proue but ten dayes with thy seruantes, and let vs haue potage to eate, and water to drynke:

13 then loke vpon oure faces, and theirs that eate off the kynges meate. And as thou seyst, so deale with thy seruantes.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, ad proued the x. dayes.

15 And after ye ten dayes, their faces were better lykynge & fatter, then all the yonge spryngaldes, which ate of the kynges meate.

16 Thus Melassar toke awaye their meate and wyne, and gaue them potage therfore.

17 God gaue now these foure spryngaldes connyng and lernynge in all scripture and wisdomme: but vnto Daniel specially, he gaue vnderstodinge off all visions and dreames.

18 Now when the tyme was expyred, that the kynge had appoynted to brynge in these yonge springaldes vnto him: the chefe chamberlayne brought them before Nabuchodonosor,

19 and the kynge commoned with them. But amonge them all were founde none soch as Daniel, Ananias, Misael, and Asarias. Therefore stode they before the kynge, 20 which in all wisdomme and matters off vnderstodinge, that he enquired off them, founde them ten tymes better, the all the soithsayers and charmers, that were in all his realme.

21 And Daniel abode still, vnto the first yeare of kynge Cyrus.

Chapter 2

1 In the secode yeare off the raigne of Nabuchodonosor, had Nabuchodonosora dreame, where thorow his sprete was vexed, and his slepe brake from him.

2 Then the kynge comaunded to call together all ye soithsayers, charmers, witches and Caldees, for to shewe the kynge his dreame. So they came, and stode before the kynge.

3 And the kynge sayde vnto them: I haue dreamed a dreame, & my sprete was so troubled therwith, yt I haue clene forgotten, what I dreamed.

4 Vpon this, the Caldees answered the kynge in the Syrians speach: O kynge, God saue thy life for euer. Shewe thy seruantes the dreame, and we shal shewe the, what it meaneth.

5 The kynge gaue the Caldees their answeere, ad sayde: It is gone fro me: Yf ye wil not make me vnderstonde the dreame with the interpretacion theroff, ye shal dye, and youre houses shal be prysed.

6 But yff ye tell me the dreame and the meanynge therof, ye shall haue off me giftes, rewardes and greate honoure: only, shewe me the dreame and the significacion of it.

7 They answered agayne, and sayde: the kynge must shewe his seruantes the dreame, and so shal we declare, what it meaneth.

8 Then the kynge answerde, sayenge: I perceaue off a treuth, that ye do but prologe ye tyme: for so moch as ye se, that the thinge is gone fro me.

9 Therefore, yff ye wil not tell me the dreame, ye shal all haue one iudgment. But ye fayne and dyssemble with vayne wordes, which ye speake before me, to put off the tyme. Therefore tell me the dreame, ad so shall I knowe, yff ye can shewe me, what it meaneth.

10 Vpon this, the Caldees gaue answeere before the kynge, and sayde: there is no man vpon earth, that can tell the thinge, which ye kynge speaketh of: Yee there is nether kynge prynce ner LORDE, that euer axed soch thinges at a soithsayer, charmer or Caldeer:

11 for it is a very harde matter, that the kynge requyreth. Nether is there eny, that can certifie the kynge theroff, excepte the goddes: whose dwellinge is not amonge the creatures.

12 For ye which cause the kynge was wroth with greate indignacio, and comaunded to destroye all the wyse men at Babilon:

13 and ye proclamacion wete forth, that the wyse me shulde be slayne. They sought also to slaye Daniel with his copanyons.

14 Then Daniel enquired Arioch the kynges stewarde, off the iudgment and sentence, that was gone forth alreedy to kyll soch as were wyse at Babilon.

15 He answered, and sayde vnto Arioch beinge then the kynges debyte: Why hath the kynge proclaimed so cruell a sentence? So Arioch tolde Daniel the matter.

16 Vpon this, wente Daniel vp, and desyred the kinge, yt he might haue leysoure, to shewe the kynges the interpretacion:

17 and then came he home agayne & shewed the thinge vnto Ananias, Misael & Asarias his companios:

18 yt they shulde beseke the God of heauen for grace in this secrete, that Daniel and his felowes with other such as were wyse in Babilon, perished not.

19 Then was the mystery shewed vnto Daniel in a visio by nyght. And Daniel praysed ye God of heaue,

20 Daniel also cryed loude, and sayde: O that the name of God might be prayed for euer and euer, for wi?dome and strength are his owne:

21 he chaungeth the tymes and ages: he putteth downe kynges, he setteth vp kynges: he geueth wy?dome vnto the wyse, and vnderstodinge to those that vnderstode

22 he openeth the depe secretes: he knoweth ye the thynges that lyeth in darknesse, for the light dwelleth with him.

23 I thanke the, and prayse the (O thou God off my fathers) that thou hast lent me wy?dome and strength, & hast shewed me the thinge, that we desyred off the, for thou hast opened the kynges matter vnto me.

24 Vpon this wente Daniel in vnto Arioch, whom the kinge had ordered to destroye the wyse at Babilon: he wente vnto him, and sayde: destroye not such as are wyse in Babilon, but bringe me in vnto the kynges, and I shal shewe the kynges the interpretacion.

25 Then Arioch brought Daniel into the kynges in all the haist, and sayde vnto him: I haue founde a man amonge the presoners off Iuda, yt shal shewe the kinge the interpretacion.

26 The answered the kynges, and sayde vnto Daniel, whose name was Balthasar: Art thou he, yt cast shewe me ye dreame, which I haue sene, & the interpretacion therof?

27 Daniel answered the kynges to his face, and sayde: As for this secrete, for the which the kinge maketh inquisition: it is nether the wyse, the sorcerer, the charmer ner the deuell coniurer, that can certifie the kynges off it:

28 Only God in heaue ca open secretes, and he it is, that sheweth the kinge Nabuchodonosor, what is for to come in the latter dayes. Thy dreame, and that which thou hast sene in thyne heade vpon thy bed, is this:

29 O kynges, thou didest cast in thy mynde, what shulde come hereafter: So he that is the opener off mysteries, telleth the, what is for to come.

30 As for me, this secrete is not shewed me, for eny wi?dome that I haue, more then eny other luynges: but only that I might shewe the kynges the interpretacion, & that he might knowe the thoughtes off his owne herte.

31 Thou kynges sawest, and beholde: there stode before the a greate ymage, whose fygure was maruelous greate, and his vysage grymme.

32 The ymage heade was of fyne golde, his brest and armes off syluer, his body ad loynes were off copper, 33 his legges were off yron, his fete were parte off yron, and parte of earth.

34 This thou sawest, till the tyme that (with out eny hondes) there was hewen off a stone which smote the ymage vpon the fete, that were both off yron and earth, and brake the to poulder:

35 then was the yron, the earth, the copper, the syluer and golde broken altogether in peces: and became like the chaffe off corne, that the wynde bloweth awaye from ye somer floores, that they ca nomore be foude. But the stone that smote the ymage, became a greate mountayne, which fulfylleth the whole earth:

36 This is the dreame. And now will we shewe before the kynges, what it meaneth.

37 O kynges, thou art a kynges off kynges: For the God off heaue hath geue the a kingdome, ryches, strength and maesty:

38 & hath delyuered the all thinges, that are amoge ye children off men: the beastes off the felde, ad the foules vnder the heaue, and geuen the dominion ouer them all. Thou art that golde heade.

39 After ye there shal aryse another kingdome, which shal be lesse then thyne. The thyrde kingdome shal be lyke copper, and haue dominacion in all lodes.

40 The fourth kingdome shal be as stronge as yron. For like as yron brusseth and breaketh all thinges: Yee euen as yron beateth euery thinge downe, so shal it beate downe and destroye.

41 Where as thou sawest the fete and toes, parte of earth and parte off yron: that is a deuyded kyngdome, which neuertheles shal haue some off the yron grounde mixte with it, for so moch as thou hast sene the yron mixte with the claye.

42 The toes of the fete that were parte off yron and parte off claye, signifieh: that it shalbe a kyngdome partely stronge and partely weake.

43 And where as thou sawest yron myxte with claye: they shall myngle them selues wt ye sede off symple people, & yet not contynue one with another, like as yron wil not be souldered with a potsherde.

44 In the dayes off these kynges, shall the God of heauen set vp an euerlastinge kyngdome which shall not perish, and his kyngdome shall not be geuen ouer to another people: Yee the same shall breake and destroye all these kyngdomes, but it shall endure for euer.

45 And where as thou sawest, that without eny hondes there was cut out of the mount a stone, which brake the yron, the copper ye earth, the syluer and golde in peces: by that hath ye greate God shewed the kynges, what wyl come after this. This is a true dreame, and the interpretacion of it is sure.

46 Then the kynges Nabuchodonosor fell downe vpon his face, and bowed him self vnto Daniel, and commaunded that they shulde offre meatoffrynges and swete odoures vnto him.

47 The kynges answerde Daniel, and sayde: Yee off a treuth, youre God is a God aboue all goddes, a LORDE aboue all kynges, and an opener of secretes: seynges thou canst discouer this mysterie.

48 So the kynges made Daniel a greate man, and gaue him many and greate giftes. He made him ruler off all the countrees of Babilon, and lorde of all the nobles, that were at Babilon.

49 Now Daniel intreated the kynges for Sydrac, Misac and Abdenago, so that he made them rulers ouer all the offyces in the londe off Babilon: but Daniel himself remayned still in the courte by the kynges.

Chapter 3

1 Nabuchodonosor the kynges caused a golde ymage to be made, which was lx. cubites hye, and sixe cubites thicke. This he made to be set vp in the valley of Duran in the londe of Babilon

2 & sent out to gather together the dukes, lordes & nobles, the iudges and officers, the debites ad shreues, with all the rulers of the londe: yt they might come to the dedicacion of the ymage which Nabuchodonosor the kynges had set vp.

3 So the dukes, lordes and nobles, the iudges and officers, debytes and shreues with all the rulers of the londe gathered them together, and came vnto the dedicatynges of ye ymage, that Nabuchodonosor the kinge had set vp. Now when they stode before the ymage, which Nabuchodonosor set vp,

4 the bedell cried out wt all his might: O ye people, kynreddes and tungenes, to you be it sayde:

5 that whe ye heare the noyse off the trompettes, which shalbe blowne, wt ye harpes, shawmes, Psalteries, Symphonies and all maner off Musick: ye fall downe and worshiye the golden ymage, yt Nabuchodonosor the kynges hath set vp.

6 Who so then falleth not downe and boweth himself, shal euen the same houre be cast in to an hote burnynges ouen.

7 Therefore, when all the folke herde the noyse off the trompettes that were blowne, with the harpes, shawmes, Psalteries, Symphonies and all kynde of Melody: the all the people, kynreddes and nacions fell downe, and bowed them selues vnto the golden ymage, that Nabuchodonosor the kynges had set vp.

8 Now were there certayne men off the Caldees, that went euen then and accused ye Iewes, 9 and sayde vnto kynges Nabuchodonosor: O kynges, God saue thy lyfe for euer.

10 Thou beynges kynges hast geuen a commaudemet, that all men when they heare the noyse off the trompettes, harpes, shawmes, psalteries, symphonies and all the other melodies: shall fall downe and bowe them selues towarde the golden ymage:

11 who so the fell not downe and worshipped not, that he shulde be cast in to an hote burnynges ouen.

12 Now are there certayne Iewes, whom thou hast set ouer the offices of the londe off Babilon: namely, Sydrac, Misac and Abdenago. These men (o kynges) regarde not thy comaudemet, yee they will not serue thy goddes, ner bowe them selues to the golden ymage, that thou hast set vp.

13 Then Nabuchodonosor in a cruell wrath and displeasure, commaunded, yt Sidrac, Misac & Abdenago shulde be brought vnto him. So these men were brought before the kynges.

14 Then Nabuchodonosor spake vnto them, and sayde: what? o Sidrac Misac and Abdenago, will not ye serue my goddes? nor bowe youre selues to the golden ymage, that I haue set vp?

15 wel, be redy hereafter, when ye heare the noyse of the tropettes, blowne with the harpes, shawmes, psalteries, symphonies and all ye other melodies: that ye fall downe, and worshiye the ymage which I haue made. But yff ye worshiye it not, ye shal be cast immediatly in to an hote burnynges ouen.

Let se, what god is there, yt maye delyuer you out of my hondes?

16 Sydrac, Misac and Abdenago answered the kynges, and sayde: O Nabuchodonosor, we ought not to cosente vnto ye in this matter, for why:

17 oure God whom we serue, is able to kepe vs from the hote burnynges ouen (O kynges) and can right wel delyuer vs out off thy hondes.

18 And though he wil not, yet shalt thou knowe (o kynges) that we will not serue thy goddes, ner do reuerce to the ymage, which thou hast set vp.

19 Then was Nabuchodonosor full off indignacion, so that ye countenance of his face chaunged vpo Sidrac, Misac & Abdenago. Therefore he charched and commaunded, that the ouen shulde be made seuen tymes hoter, then it was wote to be:

20 and spake vnto the strongest worthies that were in his hooste, for to bynde Sidrac, Misac and Abdenago, and to cast them in to the hote burnynges ouen.

21 So these men were bounde in their cotes, hosen, shues with their other garmentes, ad cast in to the hote burnynges ouen:

22 for the kinges commaudemet was so strate, and the ouen was exceedynges hote. As for the men that put in Sydrac, Misac and Abdenago, the flame off the fyre destroyed them.

23 And these thre men Sydrac, Misac and Abdenago fell downe in ye hote burnynges ouen, beinge fast bounde.

24 Then Nabuchodonosor the kynges marueled, and stode vp in all haist: he spake vnto his councel and sayde: dyd not ye cast these thre men bounde in to the fyre? They answered, and sayde vnto the kynges: Yee o kynges.

25 He answered and sayde: lo, for all that, yet do I se foure men goynges lowse in the myddest off the fyre, and nothinge corrupte: and the fourth is like an angel to loke vpon.

26 Vpon this wete Nabuchodonosor vnto the mouth of the hote burnynge ouen: he speake also, & sayde: O Sydrac, Misac and Abdenago, ye seruantes of the hye God: go forth, and come hither. And so Sydrac, Misac, and Abdenago wente out of the fyre.

27 Then the dukes, lordes and nobles, and the kynges counsell came together to se these men, vpon whom the fyre had no maner of power in their bodies: In so moch that the very hayre of their heade was not burnt, and their clothes vnchaunged: Yee there was no smell of fyre felt vpon them.

28 Then spake Nabuchodonosor, and sayde: Blessed be the God of Sidrac, Misac & Abdenago: which hath sent his angel, ad defended his seruantes, that put their trust in him: yt haue altered the kynges commaundement, and ioperde their bodies therupon: rather then they wolde serue or worshiue eny other god, excepte their owne God only.

29 Therefore I wil and commaude, that all people, kynreddes & tunges, which speake eny blasphemy agaynst the God of Sydrac, Misac and Abdenago, shal dye, and their houses shalbe prysed: Because, there is no God yt maye sane, as this.

30 So the kyng promoted Sidrac, Misac and Abdenago, in the londe of Babylon.

Chapter 4

1 Nabuchodonosor kyng, vnto all people, kynreddes and tunges that dwell vpon the whole earth: peace be multiplied amoge you

2 I thought it good to shewe the tokes & maruelous workes, yt ye hye God hath wrought vpon me.

3 O how greate are his tokes, & how mightie are his wonders? His kyngdome is an euerlasting kyngdome, and his power lasteth for euer and euer.

4 I Nabuchodonosor beyng at rest in myne house, ad florishinge in my palace, 5 sawe a dreame, which made me afrayed: ad thoughtes that I had vpo my bed, with the visions of myne heade, troubled me.

6 Then sent I out a commission, that all they which were of wi?dome at Babilo shulde be brought before me, to tell me the interpretation of the dreame.

7 So there came the soythsayers, charmers, Caldees and coniuers of deuels: to whom I tolde the dreame, but what it betokened, they coude not shewe me:

8 till at the last, there came one Daniel (otherwyse called Balthasar, acordinge to the name of my God) which hath the sprete of the holy goddes in him: to whom I tolde the dreame, sayenge:

9 O Balthasar, thou prynce of saythsayers: For so moch as I knowe, that thou hast the sprete of the holy goddes, and no secrete is hyd from the: tel me therefore, what ye visio of my dreame (yt I haue sene) maye signifie.

10 I sawe a vision in my heade vpon my bed: and beholde, there stode a tre vpon the grounde,

11 which was very hye, greate and mightie: ye heyth reached vnto the heaue, and the bredth extended to all the endes of the earth:

12 his leaues were fayre, he had very moch frute, so yt euery ma had ynough to eate therin. The beastes of the felde had shadowes vnder it, and the foules off the ayre dwelt in the bowes therof. Shortly, all creatures fed of it.

13 I sawe in my heade a vision vpon my bed: & beholde, a watcher (eue an holy angel) came downe from heauen, 14 and cryed mightely, sayenge: Hew downe the tre, breake off his braunches, shake of his leaues, and scatre his frute abrode: that all the beastes maye get them awaye from vnder him, and the foules from his braunches.

15 Neuertheles leaue the grounde of his rote still in the earth, and bynde him vpon the playne felde, with cheynes of yron and stele. With the dew of heauen shall he be wet, and he shall haue his parte in the herbes of the grounde with other wyld beastes.

16 That mans herte off his shall be taken from him, and a beastes herte shall be geuen him, till seuen yeares be come and gone vpon him.

17 This erande of the watcher, is a comaundemet grounded and sought out in the counsell off him, that is most holy: to lerne men for to vnderstonde, that the hyest hath power ouer the kyngdomes off men, ad geueth them, to whom it liketh him, and bryngeth the very outcastes off men ouer them.

18 This is the dreame, yt I kyng Nabuchodonosor haue sene. Therefore o Balthasar, tell thou me what it signifieth: for so moch as all the wyse men off my kyngdome are not able to shewe me, what it meaneth. But thou canst do it, for ye sprete of the holy Goddes is in the.

19 Then Daniel (whose name was Balthasar) helde his peace by the space of an houre ad his thoughtes troubled him. So the kyng spake, and sayde: O Balthasar, let nether the dreame ner the interpretation theroff feare the. Balthasar answered, sayenge: O my LORDE, this dreame happen to thine enemies, and the interpretacion to thine aduersaries.

20 As for the tre that thou sawest which was so greate & mightie, whose heyth reached vnto the heauen, and his bredth in to all the worlde:

21 whose leaues were fayre, ad the frute moch: vnder the which the beastes of the felde had their habitacion, and vpon whose braunches the foules of the ayre dyd syt:

22 Euen thou (o kyng) art the tre, greate & stroge. Thy greatnesse increaseth, & reacheth vnto the heauen, so doth thy power to the endes of the earth.

23 But where as the kyng sawe a watcher euen an holy angel, that came downe from heauen, and sayde: hew downe the tre, and destroye it: yet leaue the groun of the rote in the earth, and bynde him vpon the playne felde with cheynes off yron and stele: He shall be wet with the dew off heauen, and his parte shalbe with the beestes of the felde, till seuen yeares be come and gone vpon him:

24 This (o kyng) is ye interpretacio, yee it is the very deuyce of him, yt is hyst of all, & it toucheth my LORDE the kyng. 25 Thou shalt be cast out fro men, and thy dwellinge shalbe with the beestes of the felde: with grasse shalt thou be fed like an ox. Thou must be wet with the dew of the heauen: yee seuen yeares shall come and go vpon the, till thou knowe, that the hyest hath power vpon the kyngdomes of men, & geueth them, to whom he lyst.

26 Morouer, where as it was sayde, that the rote of the tre shulde be left still in the grounde: it betokeneth, yt thy kyngdome shall remayne whole vnto ye, after thou hast lerned to knowe, that the power commeth from heauen.

27 Wherefore (o kinge) be contet with my counsell, that thou mayest lowse thy synnes with rightousnesse, ad thine offences with mercy to poore people: for soch thinges shall prolonge thy peace.

28 All these thynges touch the kyng Nabuchodonosor.

29 So after xij. monethes, the kyng walked vp and downe in the paalace off the kyngdome off Babilon.

30 and sayde: This is the greate cite off Babilo, which I myself (with my power & strength) haue made a kynges courte, for the honoure off my magesty.

31 Whyle these wordes were yet in the kynges mouth, there fell a voyce from heaue, sayengt: O king Nabuchodonosor, to the be it spoke: Thy kyngdome shall departe from the,

32 thou shalt be cast out of mens company: thy dwellinge shalbe with the beestes off the felde, so that thou shalt eate grasse like as an ox, till seuen yeares be come and gone ouer the: euen vntill thou knowest, that the hyest hath power vpon the kyngdomes off men, and that he maye geue them, vnto whom it pleaseth him.

33 The very same houre was this matter fulfilled vpo Nabuchodonosor: so that he was cast out off mes copany, & ate grasse like an ox. His body was wet with the dew of heauen, till his hayres were as greate as Aegles fethers, and his nales like byrdes claws.

34 When this tyme was past, I Nabuchodonosor lift vp myne eyes vnto heauen, and myne vnderstonding was restored vnto me agayne. Then gaue I thanks vnto the hyest. I magnified and prayed him that lyueth for euermore, whose power endureth allwaye, and his kyngdome from one generacion to another:

35 in comparyson off whom, all they that dwell vpon the earth, are to be reputed as nothinge. He handleth acordinge to his will, amoge ye powers of heauen & amonge the inhabitours of the earth: and there is none that maye resiste his honde, or saye: what doest thou?

36 At the same tyme was myne vnderstondyng geuen me agayne, and I was restored to the honoure of my kingdome, to my dignite, and to myne owne shappe agayne. My great estates and prynces sought vnto me, and I was set in my kyngdome agayne, so that I had yet greater worshiue.

37 The dyd I Nabuchodonosor, loaue, magnifie and prayse the kyng of heauen: for all his workes are true, and his wayes right. As for those that go on proudly, he is able to bri bringe them downe.

Chapter 5

1 Balthasar the kyng made a greate bancket to his thousande lordes: withall these thousande he made greate cheare, 2 and when he was dronken wt wyne, he commaunded to bryng him ye golden and syluer vessel, which his father Nabuchodonosor had taken out of the temple at Ierusalem: that the kyng and his lordes (with his quene and concubynes) might drike therout.

3 So they brought the golden vessel, that was take out of the temple of the LORDES house at Ierusalem. Then the kyng and his lordes with his quene and concubines dronke out of them.

4 They dronke wyne, and prayed their Idols of golde, syluer, copper, yron, wodde and stone.

5 In the very same houre there appeared fyngers, as it had bene of a mans honde wrytyng, right ouer agaynst the candelsticke vpon the playne wall in the kynges palace: and the kyng sawe the palme of ye honde yt wrote.

6 Then chaunged the kyng his countenance, and his thoughtes troubled him: so that the ioyntes off his body shoke, and his knees smote one agaynst the other.

7 Wherefore the kyng cryed mightely, that they shulde bryng him the charmers, Caldees and coniuers of deuels. The kyng spake also to the wyse men of Babilon, and sayde: Who so can rede this wrytyng, and shewe me the playne meanyng theroff: shall be clothed with purple, haue a cheyne off golde aboute his necke, and rule the thirdeparte off my kyngdome.

8 Vpon this, came all the kynges wyse men: but they coude nether rede the wrytyng, ner shewe the kyng what it signified.

9 The was the kyng sore afrayed, in so moch, that his coloure chaunged, and his lordes were sore vexed.

10 So by reason off this matter, yt had happened to the kyng & his lordes, the quene went vp herself in to the bancket house, and spake vnto the kyng, sayenge: O kyng God saue thy life for euer: Let not yi thoughtes trouble the, and let not thy countenance be chaunged.

11 For why: there is a man in ye kyngdome, that hath the sprete off the holy goddes within him, as it was sene in thy fathers dayes. He hath vnderstandinge ad wysdome like the goddes. Yee the kyng Nabuchodonosor thy father made this man chefe of the soythayers, charmars, Caldees and deuel coniuers: 12 because that soch an abundaunt sprete, knowlege & wisdome (to expoude dreames, to open secretes, and to declare harde dowtes) was founde in him: yee euen in Daniel, whom the kyng named Balthasar. Let this same Daniel be sente for, and he shall tell, what it meaneth.

13 Then was Daniel brought before the kinge. So the kyng spake vnto Daniel, and sayde: Art thou that Daniel, one off the presoners of Iuda, whom my father the kyng brought out of Iewry?

14 I haue herde speake of the, that thou hast the sprete of the holy goddes, experience and vnderstodinge, and that there hath bene greates wisdome founde in the.

15 Now haue there bene brought me, wise and connyng charmeys, to rede this wrytynge, and to shewe me the meanyng theroff: But they coude not tell me, what this matter signified.

16 Then herde I saye, yt thou canst expoude darcke thinges, and declare harde doutes. Well than, yf thou canst rede this writinge, and shewe me the meanyng theroff: thou shalt be clothed wt purple, haue a cheyne of golde aboute thy necke, & rule the thirde parte of my kyngdome.

17 Daniel answered, and sayde before ye kyng: As for thy rewardes, kepe them to thy self, or geue yi rych giftes to another: yet not thelesse, I wil rede the wrytynge vnto ye kinge, and shewe him the interpretacion

18 therof O kinge, God the hiest gaue vnto Nabuchodonosor thy father, ye dignite of a kyng, wt worshipec & honor:

19 so yt all people, kynreddes & tungen stode in awe & feare of him, by reason off the hie estate, that he had lent him. For why: he slewe, whom he wolde: he smote, whom it pleased him. Agayne: whom he wolde, he set vp: and whom he list, he put downe.

20 But because his herte was so proude, and his stomack set fast vnto wyfulnessse: he was deposed from his kyngly trone, and his magesty was taken from him.

21 He was shot out from amonge men, his herte was like a beestes herte, and his dwellyng was with the wylde Asses: he was fayne to eate grasse like an oxe, and his body was wet with the dew off the heauen: till he knewe, that the hiest had power vpon the kyngdomes of men, and setteth ouer them, whom he list.

22 And thou his sonne (o Balthasar) for all this, hast not submitted thine hert, though thou knewest all these thinges:

23 but hast magnified thy selff aboute the LORDE off heauen, so that the vessels off his house were brought before the: that thou, and thy lordes, with thy quene and concubynes, might drynke wyne therout: And hast prayed the Idols of syuler and golde, copper and yron, off wodde & stone: As for the God, in whose honde consisteth thy breth ad all thy wayes: thou hast not loued him.

24 Therefore is the palme off this honde sent hither from him, to token vp this wrytynge.

25 And this is the scripture, that is written vp: Mane, Thetel, Phares.

26 Now the interpretacion off the thyng is this: Mane, God hath nombred thy kyngdome, and brought it to an ende:

27 Thetel, Thou art weyed in the balaunce, and art founde to light:

28 Phares, Thy kyngdome is delt in partes, and geuen to the Medes and Perses.

29 Then commaunded Balthasar, to clothe Daniel with purple, to hange a cheyne off golde aboute his necke, and to make a proclamacion concernynge him: that he shulde be the ruler off the thirde parte off his kyngdome.

30 The very same night was Balthasar the kyng off the Caldees slayne, 31 and Darius out of Media toke in the kyngdome, beyng lxij. yeare off age.

Chapter 6

1 It pleased Darius to set ouer his kidgome an C and xx.lordes, which shulde be in all his kingdome aboute.

2 Aboute these he set thre prynces (off whom Daniel was one) that the lordes might geue accomptes vnto them, and the kyng to be vndiseased.

3 But Daniel exceeded all these princes ad lordes, for the sprete off God was plenteous in him: so that the kyng was mynded to set him ouer the whole realme.

4 Wherefore the prynces and lordes sought, to pyke out in Daniel some quarel agaynst the kyngdome: yet coude they fynde none occasion ner fauwe vpon him. For why: he was so faythful, yt there was no blame ner dishonesty founde in him.

5 Then sayde these men: we will get no quarell agaynst this Daniel, excepte it be in the lawe off his God.

6 Vpon this, wente the princes and lordes together vnto the kyng, and sayde thus vnto him: kyng Darius, God saue thy life for euer.

7 All the great estates off the realme: as ye prynces, dukes, senatours and iudges, are determed to put out a commaundement off ye kyng, and to make a sure statute: namely, that who so desyret eny peticion, ether of eny god or man (with in this xxx. dayes) excepte it be only off the, O kyng: the same person maye be cast in to the Lyons denne.

8 Wherefore, o kyng, confirme thou this statute, and make a wrytynge: that the thyng which the Medes and Perses haue ordered be not altered ner broken.

9 So Darius made the wrytynge, and confirmed it.

10 Now when Daniel vnderstode that the wrytynge was made, he wente in to his house: and the wyndowes of his hall towarde Ierusalem stode open. There kneled he downe vpon his knees, thre tymes a daye: there he made his peticion, and prayed his God, like as his maner was to do afore tyme.

11 Then these men made searche, and founde Daniel makinge his peticion, and prayenge vnto his God.

12 So they came to the kyng, and spake before him concernynge his commaundement, sayenge: O kyng, hast thou not subscribed the statute, that within xxx. dayes who so requyret his peticion off eny god or man, but only of thy self, o kyng: he shalbe cast in to the denne of the Lyons? The kyng answered, ad sayde: yee, it is true. It must be as a lawe of ye Medes and Perses, that maye not be broken.

13 Then answered they, and sayde vnto the kyng: Daniel one of the presoners of Iuda (O kyng) regardeth nether the ner thy statute, that thou hast made, but maketh his peticion thre tymes a daye.

14 When the kyng herde these wordes, he was sore greued, and wolde haue excused Daniel, to delyuer him, and put off the matter, vnto the Sonne wete downe, to the intent that he might saue him.

15 These men perceauynge the kynges mynde, sayde vnto him: knowe this (o kyng) that the lawe off the Medes and Perses is, that the commaundement and statute which the kyng maketh, maye not be altered.

16 Then the kyng bad them bryng Daniel, and they cast him in to the Lyons denne. The kyng also spake vnto Daniel, ad sayde: Thy God, whom thou allwaye seruest, euen he shall defende the.

17 And there was brought a stone, and layed vpon the hole of the denne: this the kyng sealed with his owne ryng, and with ye signet of his prynces: that the kynges commaundement concernynge Daniel, shulde not be broken.

18 So the kyng wente in to his palace, and kepte him sober all night, so that there was no table spred before him, nether coude he take eny slepe.

19 But be tymes in the mornynge at the breake off the daye, the kyng arose, and wente in all haist vnto the denne off the Lyons.

20 Now as he came nye vnto ye dene, he cried wt a piteous voyce vnto Daniel: Yee ye kige spake, and sayde vnto Daniel: O Daniel, thou seruaut off the Iuyng God, Is not thy God (whom thou allwaye seruest) able to delyuer the from the Lyons?

21 Daniel sayde vnto the kyng: O kyng, God saue thy life for euer:

22 My God hath sent his angel, which hath shut the Lyons mouthes, so that they might not hurte me. For why: myne vngiltynesse is founde out before him. And as for the (o kyng) I neuer offended the.

23 Then was the kyng exceadinge glad, ad commaunded to take Daniel out off the denne. So Daniel was brought out of the dene, and no maner of hurte was founde vpo him For he put his trust in his God.

24 And as for those men which had accused Daniel, the kige commaunded to bringe them, and to cast them in the Lyons denne: them, their children and their wyues. So the Lyons had the mastry of them, and brake all their bones a sonder, or euer they came at the grounde.

25 After this, wrote kyng Darius vnto all people, kynreddes and tungen, that dwelt in all londes: peace be multiplied with you:

26 My commaundement is, in all my dominio and kyngdome, that men feare and stonde in awe off Daniels God: For he is the Iyuing God, which abydeth euer: his kyngdome shall not fayle, and his power is euerlastynge.

27 It is he that delyuereth, and saueth: he doth wonders and maruelous workes, in heauen and in earth: he hath preserued. Daniel from the power of the Lyons.

28 This Daniel prospered in the raigne off Darius and Cirus of Persia.

Chapter 7

1 In the first yeare off Balthasar kyng off Babilon, sawe Daniel a dreame, and a vision was in his heade vpon his bedde. Which dreame he wrote, and the summe of the matter is this:

2 Daniel spake, and sayde: I sawe in my vision by nyght, and beholde: the foure wyndes of ye heauen stroue vpon the see, 3 and foure greate beestes came vp from the see, one vnlike another.

4 The first was as a lyon, and yet had he Aegles wynges. I sawe, that his wynges were plucte from him, and he taken awaye from the earth: that he stode vpon his fete as a man, and that there was geuen him a mans herte.

5 Beholde, the seconde beest was like a Beer, and stode vpon the one syde. Amonge his teth in his mouth he had iij greate loge teth and it was sayde vnto him: Arise, eate vp moch flesh.

6 Then I loked, & beholde: there was another like vnto a Leopard: this had wynges as a foule, euen foure vpon the backe. This beest had foure heades, ad there was power geuen him.

7 After this I sawe in a vision by night, & beholde: the fourth beest was grymme and horrible, and maruelous stronge. It had greates yron teth, it deuoured, and destroyed, and stamped the residue vnder fete. It was farre vnlike the other beestes that were before it: for it had ten hornes, wheroff I toke good hede.

8 And beholde, there came vp amonge the, another like horne, before whom there were thre of the first hornes plucte awaye. Beholde, this horne had eyes like a ma, & a mouth speakynge presumptuous thinges.

9 I loked till the seates were prepared, ad till the olde aged sat him downe. His clothinge was as white as snowe, and the hayres of his heade like the pure woll. His trone was like the firie flame, and his whelas as the burnynge fyre.

10 There drew forth a firie streame, & wente out from him. A thousand tymes a thousande serued him, x.M. tymes ten thousande stode before him. The iudgment was set, and the bokes opened.

11 Then toke I hede there vnto, because of the voyce of the proude wordes, which that horne spake. I behelde, till the beest was slayne, and his body destroyed, & geuen ouer to be brent in the fyre.

12 As for the power of the other beestes also, it was taken awaye, but their luyes were prolonged for a tyme and season.

13 I sawe in a vision by night, and beholde: there came one in the cloudes of heauen like the sonne of a man, which wente vnto the olde aged, before whom they brought him:

14 Then gaue he him power ad dignite regall, that all people, trybes and tunges shulde serue him. His power is an euerlastinge power, which shal neuer be put downe: & his kyngdome endureth vncorrupte.

15 My herte was vexed, & I Daniel had a troubled sprete within me, ad the visions off my heade made me afrayed:

16 till I gat me vnto one off them that stode by, to knowe the treuth, concerninge all these thinges. So he tolde me, and made me vnderstode the interpretacio of these thinges.

17 These foure greate beastes, are foure kinges which shal aryse out of the earth.

18 These shal take in the kyngdome off the sayntes of the most hyst, and possesse it still more & more for a longe season.

19 After this I requyred diligently to knowe the treuth, concerninge the fourth beest, which was so farre vnlike the other beestes, and so horrible: whose teth were of yron, and his nales off brasse: which deuoured and destroyed, and stamped the resydue vnder his fete.

20 I desyred also to knowe the treuth, as touchinge the ten hornes that he had vpon his heade, and this other which came vp afterwarde, before whose face there fell downe thre: which horne had eyes and a mouth that spake presumptuous thinges, and loked with a grimmer visage then his felowes.

21 I behelde, and the same horne made battail agaynst the sayntes, yee ad gat the victory off them:

22 vntill the tyme, that the olde aged came, that the iudgment was geue to the chefest sayntes: and till the tyme, that ye sayntes had the kyngdome in possession.

23 He gaue me this answer: That fourth beest shalbe the fourth kyngdome vpon earth: it shalbe more then all other kyngdomes, it shall deuoure, treade downe ad destroye all other londes.

24 The ten hornes, are ten kynges that shal aryse out of that kyngdome, after who there shall stonde vp another, which shall be greater then the first.

25 He shall subdue thre kynges, and shall speake wordes agaynst the hyst off all: he shall destroye the sayntes of the most hyst and thynke, that he maye chaunge tymes and lawes. They shall be geuen vnder his power, vntill a tyme, two tymes, and halff a tyme.

26 But the iudgment shalbe kepte, so that his power shalbe taken from him, for he shalbe destroyed, and perish at the last.

27 As for the kyngdome, power and all might that is vnder the heauen: it shal be geuen to the holy people off the most hyst, whose kyngdome is euerlastinge, yee all powers shall serue and obeye him.

28 Thus farre extede ye wordes. Neuerthelesse, I Daniel was so vexed in my thoughtes, that my countenance chaunged, but the wordes I kepte still in my herte.

Chapter 8

1 In the thirde yeare off the raigne of kinge Balthasar, there appeared a visio vnto me Daniel, after that I had sene the first.

2 I sawe in a vision, (and when I sawe it, I was at Sisis in the chefe cite, which lyeth in the londe off Elam) and in ye vision, me thought I was by the ryuer off Vlai.

3 Then I loked vp, and sawe: and beholde there stode before the ryuer, a ramme, which had hornes: and these hornes were hye, but one was hyer then another, and the hyst came vp last.

4 I sawe that this ramme pu?hed with his hornes, agaynst the west, agaynst the north, and agaynst the south: so that no beestes might stonde before him, ner defende them from his power: but he dyd as him listed, and waxed greatly.

5 I toke hede vnto this, and then came there an hegoate from the west, ouer the whole earth, and touched not the grounde. This goate had a maruelous goodly horne betwixte his eyes,

6 and came vnto the ramme, that had the two hornes (whom I had sene afore by the ryuer syde) and ranne fearcely vpon him with his might.

7 I sawe him drawe nye vnto the ramme, beyng very fearece vpon him: yee he gaue him soch a stroke, that he brake his two hornes: Nether had the ramme so moch strength as to stonde before him: but he kest him downe, trodde him vnder his fete: and no man was able to deluyer the ramme out of his power.

8 The goate waxed exceedinge greate, and when he was at the strongest, his greate horne was broken also. Then grewe there other foure soch like in the steade, towarde the foure wyndes off the heauen.

9 Yee out of one of the leest off these hornes, there came vp yet another horne, which waxed maruelous greate: towarde the south, towarde the east, and towarde the fayre pleasaunt londe.

10 It grewe vp to the hoost off heauen, wherof it dyd cast some downe to the grounde, and off the starres also, and trode them vnder fete.

11 Yee it grewe vp vnto the prynce off the hoost, from whom the daylie offeringe was taken, and the place off his Sanctuary casten downe.

12 And a certayne season was geuen vnto it, agaynst the daylie offeringe (because of wickednesse) that it might cast downe the verite to the grounde, and so to prospere in all thinges, that it went aboute.

13 Vpon this I herde one off the sayntes speakyng, which saynte sayde vnto one that axed this question: How longe shall this vision off the daylie sacrifice and of the waistinge abhominacion endure: that the Sanctuary and the power shall so be troden vnder fote?

14 And he answered him: Vnto the euenyng & the morninge, euen two thousande and thre hudreth dayes: then shall the Sanctuary be censed agayne.

15 Now when I Daniel had sene this vision, and sought for the vnderstandinge of it: beholde, there stode before me a thinge like vnto a man.

16 And I herde a mans voyce in the ryuer off Vlai, which cryed, and sayde: O Gabriel, make this man vnderstode the vision.

17 So he came, and stode by me. But I was afrayed at his cominge, and fell downe vpon my face. Then sayde he vnto me: O thou sonne of man, marcke well, for in the last tyme shall this vision be fulfilled.

18 Now as he was speakyng vnto me, I waxed faynte, so that I suncke downe to the grounde. But he toke holde vpon me, and set me vp agayne, 19 sayng: Beholde, I will shewe the, what shall happen in the last wrath: for in the tyme appoynted it shal be fulfilled.

20 The ramme which thou sawest with the two hornes, is the kyng off the Medes ad Perses:

21 but the goate is the kyng off Grekelonde: the greate horne that stode betwixte his eyes, that is the pryncipall kyng.

22 But where as it brake, and foure other rose vp in the steade: it signifieth, that out of this people shall stonde vp foure kyngdomes, but not so mightie as it.

23 After these kyngdomes (whyle vngodnesse is a growinge) there shall aryse a kyng off an vnshamefast face, which shall be wyse in darcke speakings.

24 He shalbe mightie and stronge, but not in his owne strength. He shall destroye aboute measure, and all that he goeth aboute, shall prospere: he shall slaye the stronge and holy people.

25 And thorow his craftynes, falsede shall prospere in his honde, his herte shall be proude, and many one shall he put to death in his welthynesse. He shal stonde vp agaynst the prynce off prynces, but he shalbe destroyed without honde.

26 And this vision that is shewed vnto the, is as sure as the evenyng and the mornynge. Therefore wryte thou vp this sight, for it wylbe longe or it come to passe.

27 Vpon this was I Daniel very faynte, so that I laye sicke certayne dayes: but when I rose vp, I wente aboute the kynges busynesse, and marueled at the vision, neuerthelesse no man knewe of it.

Chapter 9

1 In the first yeare off Darius the sonne off Ahasuerus, which was of the sede off the Medes, & was made kyng ouer the realme of the Caldees:

2 Yee euen in the first yeare off his raigne, I Daniel desyred to knowe the yearly nombre out of the bokes, wherof the LORDE spake vnto Jeremy the prophet: that Ierusalem shulde lie waist lxx. yeares:

3 ad I turned me vnto God the LORDE, for to praye and make myne intercessio, with fastinge, sackcloth ad ashes

4 I prayed before the LORDE my God, and knowledged, sayng: OLORDE, thou greate & fearfull God, thou that kepest couenaunt and mercy with them, which loue the, and do thy commaundementes:

5 We haue synned, we haue offended, we haue bene disobedient and gone backe: yee we haue departed from all thy preceptes and iudgments.

6 We wolde neuer folowe thy seruauentes the prophetes, that spake in thy name to oure kynges and prynces to oure forefathers, and to all the people off the londe.

7 O LORDE, rightuousnesse belongeth vnto the, vnto vs pertayneth nothyng but open shame: as it is come to passe this daye vnto euery man of Iuda, and to them that dwell at Ierusalem: Yee vnto all Israel, whether they be farre or nye: thorow out all londes, wherin thou hast strowed them, because of the offences that they had done agaynst the.

8 Yee o LORDE, vnto vs, to oure kinges & prynces, to oure forefathers: euen to vs all, that haue offended the, belongeth open shame.

9 But vnto the o LORDE oure God, pertayneth mercy and forgeuenesse. As for vs, we are gone backe from him,

10 and haue not obeyed the voyce of the LORDE oure God, to walke in his lawes, which he layed before vs by his seruauentes the prophetes:

11 yee all Israel haue transgressed, and gone backe from thy lawe, so that they haue not herkened vnto thy voyce. Wherfore the curse and ooth, that is written in the law of Moses the seruaut of God (agaynst whom we haue offended) is poured vpon vs.

12 And he hath perfourmed his wordes, which he spake agaynst vs, & agaynst oure iudges that iudged vs: to bringe vpon vs soch a greate plage, as neuer was vnder heauen, like as it is now come to passe in Ierusalem.

13 Yee all this plage, as it is written in the lawe of Moses, is come vpon vs. Yet made we not oure prayer before the LORDE oure God, that we might turne agayne from oure wickednesse, and to be lerned in thy verite.

14 Therefore hath ye LORDE made haist, to bringe this plage vpon vs: for the LORDE oure God is rightuous, in all his workes which he doth: for why, we wolde not harken vnto his voyce.

15 And now, o LORDE oure God, thou that with a mightie honde hast brought thy people out of Egip̄te, to get thy self a name, which remayneth this daye: we haue synned

16 (o LORDE) & done wickedly agaynst all thy righteousnes: yet let thy wrothfull displeasure be turned awaye (I beseeke the) from thy cite Ierusalem thy holy hill. And why? for oure synnes sake and for the wickednesse of oure forefathers: is Ierusalem and thy people abhorred, of all them that are aboute vs.

17 Now therfore (O oure God) heare the prayer of thy seruaūt, and his intercession: O let thy face shyne ouer thy sanctuary, that lieth waist.

18 O my God, encline thine eare, and herken (at the leest for thine owne sake) open thine eyes: beholde how we be desolated, yee and the cite also, which is called after thy name: For we do not cast oure prayers before the in oure owne righteousnesse, no: but only in thy greate mercies.

19 O LORDE, heare: O forgeue LORDE: O LORDE considere, tary not ouer longe: but for thy owne sake do it, O my God: for thy cite and thy people is called after thy name.

20 As I was yet speakinge at my prayers, knowleginge myne owne synnes and ye synnes of my people, makinge so myne intercession before the LORDE my God, for the holy hills sake of my God:

21 yee whyle I was yet speakinge in my prayer, beholde, the ma Gabriel (whom I had sene afore in the vision) came flyenge to me, and touched me aboute ye offeringe tyme in the euenyng.

22 He informed me, and spake vnto me: O Daniel (sayde he) I am now come, to make the vnderstode it:

23 For as soone as thou begannest to make thy prayer, it was so diuysed, and therefore am I come to shewe the. And why? for thou art a man greatly beloued. Wherefore, pondre the matter wel, that thou mayest lerne, to vnderstode the vision.

24 Lxx. wekes are determed ouer thy people, & ouer thy holy cite: that the wickednesse maye be consumed, that the synne maye haue an ende, that the offence maye be reconciled, and to bringe in euerlastinge righteousness, to fulfill ye visions and the prophetes, and to anoynte the most holy one.

25 Vnderstode this then, and marcke it well: that from the tyme it shalbe concluded, to go and repayre Ierusalem agayne, vnto Christ (or the anoynted) prynce: there shalbe seuen wekes. Then shall the stretes & walles be buylded agayne lxiij. wekes, but with harde troublous tyme.

26 After these lxiij. wekes, shal Christ be slayne, & they shal haue no pleasure in him. Then shal there come a people with the prynce, and destroye the cite and the sanctuary: and his ende shal come as the water floude. But the desolacion shall continue till the ende of the batell.

27 He shall make a stronge bonde with many, for the space of a weke: and when the weke is half gone, he shal put downe the slayne and meatoffringe. And in the temple there shalbe an abhominable desolacio, till it haue destroyed all. And it is concluded, yt this waistinge shal continue vnto the ende.

Chapter 10

1 In the thirde yeare of kinge Cirus of Persia, there was shewed vnto Daniel (otherwise called Balthasar) a matter, yee a true matter, but it is yet a longe tyme vnto it. He vnderstode the matter well, and perceaued what the vision was.

2 At the same tyme, I Daniel mourned for the space of thre wekes,

3 so that I had no lust to eate bred: as for flesh and wyne, there came none within my mouth: No, I dyd not ones anoynte my self, till the whole thre wekes were out.

4 Vpon the xxiiij. daye of the first moneth, I was by the greate floude, called Tigris:

5 I lift vp myne eyes, and loked: and beholde, a man clothed in lynnynge, whose loynes were gyrded vp with fyne golde of Araby:

6 his body was like the Chrisolite stone, his face (to loke vpon) was like lightenyng, his eyes as the flame of fyre, his armes and fete were like fayre glisteringe metall, but the voyce of his wordes was like ye voyce of a multitude.

7 I Daniel alone sawe this vision, the men that were with me, sawe it not: but a greate fearfulness fell vpon them, so that they fled awaye, and hyd them selues.

8 I was left there my self alone, and sawe this greate vision, so longe til there remayned nomore strength within me: Yee I lost my coloure clene, I waisted awaye, and my strength was gone.

9 Yet herde I the voyce of his wordes: & as soone as I herde it, fayntnesse came vpon me, and I fell downe flat to the grounde vpon my face.

10 And beholde, an hande touched me, which set me vp vpon my knees & vpon the palmes of my hondes,

11 sayenge vnto me: O Daniel, thou well beloued man: take good hede of the wordes, that I shal saye vnto ye, & stode right vp, for vnto ye am I now sent. And when he had sayde these wordes, I stode vp tremblinge.

12 Then saide he vnto me: feare not Daniel: for why, sence the first daye that thou set thine herte to vnderstode, and diddest chasten thy self before thy God: thy wordes haue bene herde. And I had come vnto the whe thou begannest to speake,

13 had not the prynce ouer the kingdome of the, Perses wt stonde me xxj. dayes. But lo, Michael one of the chefe prynces, came to helpe me, him haue I left by the kinge of Persia,

14 & am come to shewe the, what shal happen vnto thy people in the latter dayes: for it wilbe loge yet or the vision be fulfilled.

15 Now when he had spoken these wordes vnto me, I kest downe my heade to ye grounde, and helde my tunge.

16 Beholde, there touched my lippes one, very like vnto a man. Then opened I my mouth, and sayde vnto him, that stode before me: O my lorde, my ioyntes are lowsed in the vision, and there is no more strength within me:

17 How maye my lordes seruaūt then talke with my lorde? seinge there is no strength in me, so that I can not take my breth?

18 Vpon this there touched me agayne, one moch like a man, & comforted me, 19 sayenge: O thou man so wel beloued, feare not: be content, take a good herte vnto the, and be stronge. So when he had spoken vnto me, I recouered, & sayde: Speake on my lorde, for thou hast refre?shed me.

20 The sayde he: knowest thou wherfore I am come vnto ye? now wil I go agayne to fight with the prynce of the Perses. As soone as I go forth, lo, the prynce of Grekelonde shal come.

21 Neuertheles, I wil shewe the the thinge, yt is fast noted in the scripture of treuth. And as for all yonder matters, there is none that helpeth me in them, but Michael youre prynce.

Chapter 11

1 And in the first yeare of Darius of Media, I stode by him, to conforte him, & to strength him,

2 and now wil I shewe the the treuth. Beholde, there shal stonde vp yet thre kinges in Persia, but ye fourth shal be farre richer then they all. And when he is in the cheifest power of his riches, he shal prouoke euery man agaynst the realme of Grekelonde.

3 Then shal there arise yet a mightie kinge, that shal rule with greate dominion, and do what him list.

4 And as soone as his kingdome commeth vp, it shalbe destroyed, & deuyded towarde ye foure wyndes of the heauen. They yt come after him, shall not haue soch power & dominion as he: but his kingdome shalbe scatred, yee euen amonge other the those.

5 And the kyng of ye south shalbe migthier, then his other prynces. Agaynst him there shal one make himself stroge, & shal rule his dominio wt greate power.

6 But after certayne yeares they shalbe ioyned together, & the kynges daughter of the south shall come to the kyng of the north, for to make fredshipe, but she shal not optayne the power of that arme, nether shall she be able to endure thorow his might: but she, & such as brought her (yee & he yt begat her, & comforted her for his tyme) shalbe deluyered vp.

7 Out of ye braunches of hir rote, there shal one stonde vp in his steade: which with power of armes shal go thorow the kynges londe of the north, & handle him acordinge to his strength. As for their Idols & prynces, with their costly Iewels of golde & syluer, 8 he shal cary them awaye captyues in to Egip̄te, and he shal preyayle agaynst the kyng of the north certayne yeares.

9 And when he is come into ye kynges realme of ye south, he shal be fayne to turne agayne in to his owne londe.

10 Wherfore his sonnes shalbe displeased, and shal gather together a mightie greate hoost of people: and one of them shal come, and go thorow like a waterfloude: then shal he returne, and go forth with defyenge and boostinge vnto his owne londe.

11 The the kinge of ye south shalbe angrie, and shal come forth to fight agaynst the kinge of the north: Yee he shall bringe a greate multitude of people together, and a greate heape shalbe geue into his honde:

12 these shal he cary awaye wt greate pryde, for so moch as he hath cast downe so many thousandes, neuertheles he shall not preyuale.

13 For ye kinge of ye north shal gather (of the new) a greater heape of people then afore, & come forth (after a certayne tyme and yeares) with a mightie hoost & exceadinge greate good.

14 At the same tyme there shall many stonde vp agaynst the kinge of the south, so that ye wicked children of thy people also shal exalte them selues (to fulfill the vision) and then fall.

15 So the kinge of the north shall come to laye sege, and to take the stroge fensed cities: And the power of the of ye south shal not be able to abyde him, & the best men of the people shall not be so stronge, as to resist him.

16 Shortly, when he commeth, he shal handle him as he list, & no man shalbe so hardy as to stonde agaynst him. He shal stode in the pleasaunt countre, which thorow him shalbe destroyed.

17 He shal set his face wt all his power to optayne his kingdome, & to be like it. Yee that shal he do, & geue him vnto the daughters amoge women, to destroye him. But he shal fayle, nether shal he optayne his purpose.

18 After this, shall he set his face vnto the Iles, & take many of the. A prynce shal stoppe him, to do him a shame, besyde the confucion that els shal come vnto him.

19 Thus shal he turne agayne to his owne londe, stomble, & fall, and be nomore founde:

20 so he that came vpon him & dyd him violence, shal stonde in his place, & haue a pleasaunt kingdome: and after few dayes he shal be destroyed, & that nether in wrath ner in batell.

21 In his steade there shal aryse a vyle person not holde worthy of a kinges dignite: this shall come in craftely, & optayne the kingdome with fayre wordes:

22 he shal fight agaynst the armes of the mightie (& destroye them,) yee & agaynst the prynce of the couenaunt.

23 So after yt he hath taken truce with him, he shal hadle disceatfully: that he maye get vp, & ouer come him with a small flocke:

24 & so with craftynesse to get him to ye fattest place of the londe, and to deale otherwise, then ether his fathers or graudfathers dyd. For he shal destroye the thinge, ye they had robbed & spoyled, yee & all their substauce: ymagenynge thoughtes agaynst the stroge holdes, & that for a tyme.

25 His power and herte shalbe sterred vp wt a greate armye agaynst the kinge of the south: where thorow the kinge of the south shalbe moued then vnto batell, with a greate & mightie hoost also. Neuerthelesse, he shal not be able to stonde, for they shall conspyre agaynst him.

26 Yee they yt eate of his meate, shal hurte him: so that his hoost shal fall, & many be slayne downe.

27 These two kinges shalbe mynded to do myschefe, & talke of disceate at one table: but they shal not prospere: for why, the ende shal not come yet, vnto the tyme apoynted.

28 The shall he go home agayne in to his owne londe with greate good, & set his herte agaynst the holy couenaunt, he shalbe busy agaynst it, & then returne home.

29 At the tyme apoynted he shal come agayne, & go towarde the south: So shall it happen otherwise then at the first, yet ones agayne.

30 And why, the shippes of Cythim shal come vpon him, that he maye be smytten & turne agayne: yt he maye take indignacion agaynst the couenaunt of holynes, to medle agaynst it. Yee he shal turne him, & drawe soch vnto him, as leaue the holy couenaunt.

31 He shal set mightie men to vnhalowe the sanctuary of strength, to put downe the daylie offeringe, & to set vp the abhominable desolacion.

32 And soch as breake the couenaunt, shal he flatre with fayre wordes. But ye people that wil knowe their God, shal haue the ouerhade and prospere.

33 Those also that haue vnderstondinge amonge the people, shal enfourme the multitude: & for a longe season, they shalbe persecuted with swerde, with fyre, with captyuyte & with the takynge awaye of their goodes.

34 Now whe they fall, they shalbe set vp with a litle helpe: but many shal cleue vnto them faynedly.

35 Yee some of those which haue vnderstondynge shal be persecuted also: yt they maye be tryed, purified & clesed, till the tyme be out: for there is yet another tyme apoynted.

36 The kinge shal do what him list, he shal exalte and magnifie himself agaynst all, that is God. Yee he shall speake maruelous thinges agaynst the God of all goddes, wherin he shal prospere, so longe till the wrath be fulfilled, for the conclusion is deuyded alreedy.

37 He shal not regarde the God of his fathers, but his lust shall be vpon wome: Yee he shal not care for eny God, for he shal magnifie himself aboute all.

38 In his place shal he worshipec the mightie Idols: & the god whom his fathers knewe not, shal he honoure with golde and syluer, with precious stones and pleasaunt Iewels.

39 This shal he do, sekinge helpe and sucoure at the mightie Idols and straunge goddes. Soch as wil receaue him, and take him for God, he shal geue them greate worshipec and power: yee and make them lordes of the multitude, and geue them the londe with rewardes.

40 In the latter tyme, shal the kinge of the south stryue with him: and the kinge of the north in like maner shall come agaynst him with charettes, horsmen & with a greate nauy of shippes. He shal come in to the londes, destroye and go thorow:

41 he shal entre also in to the fayre pleasaunt londe. Many cities & countrees shal decaye, excepte Edom, Moab & the best of the children of Ammon, which shal escape from his honde.

42 He shall stretch forth his hodes vpon the countrees, & the londe of Egipte shal not escape him.

43 For thorow his goinge in, he shal haue dominion ouer the treasures of syluer & golde, & ouer all the precious Iewels of Egipte, Lybia and Ethiopia.

44 Neuerthelesse the tydings out of the east and the north shall trouble him, for the which cause he shal go forth to destroye & curse a greate multitude.

45 The tentes of his palace shall he pytch betwixte the two sees, vpon the hill of the noble sanctuary, for he shal come to the ende of it, and then shal no man helpe him.

Chapter 12

1 The tyme wil come also, that the greate prynce Michael, which stondesth on thy peoples syde, shal aryse vp, for there shal come a tyme of trouble, soch as neuer was, sens there begane to be eny people, vnto that same tyme. Then shal thy people be deluyered, yee all those that be foude written in the boke.

2 Many of them that slepe in the dust of the earth, shal awake: some to euerlastinge life, some to perpetuall shame & reprove.

3 The wyse (soch as haue taught other) shal glister, as the shyninge of heauen: and those that haue instructe the multitude vnto godlynesse, shalbe as the starres, worlde without ende.

4 And thou o Daniel, shut vp these wordes, & seale the boke, till the last tyme. Many shal go aboute here and there, and the shal knowlege increase.

5 So I Daniel loked, and beholde, there stode other two: one vpon this shore of the water, the other vpon yonder syde.

6 And one of the sayde vnto him, which was clothed in lynnynge, and stode aboute vpon the waters of the floude: How longe shall it be to the ende of these wonderous workes?

7 Then herde I the man with the lynnynge clothes, which stode aboute vpon the waters of the floude: when he helde vp his right and left honde vnto heauen, & sware by him which lyueth for euer: that it shal tary for a tyme, two tymes & half a tyme: & when the power of the holy people is clene scatred abroad, the shal all these thinges be fulfilled.

8 I herde it well, but I vnderstode it not. Then sayde I: O my lorde, what shal happen after that?

9 He answered: Go thy waye Daniel, for these wordes shal be closed vp & sealed, till the last tyme:

10 & many shalbe purified, clensted & tried. But the vngodly shall lyue wickedly, and those wicked (as many of the as they be) shal haue no vnderstondinge. As for soch as haue vnderstondinge, they shal regarde it.

11 And from ye tyme forth that the daylie offeringe shalbe put downe & the abhominable desolacion set vp, there shalbe a thousande two hudreth & xc. dayes.

12 O well is him, that waiteth, & cometh to the thousande iij.C. & xxxv. dayes.

13 Go thou thy waye now, till it be ended: take thy rest, and byde in thy lot, till the dayes haue an ende.

HOSEA

Chapter 1

1 This is the worde of the LORDE, that came vnto Oseas the sonne of Beeri, in the dayes of Osias, Ioathan, Achas & Ezechias kinges of Iuda: and in the tyme of Ieroboam the sonne of Ioas kyng of Israel.

2 First, when the LORDE spake vnto Oseas, he saide vnto him: Go thy waye, take an harlot to thy wife, and get childe by her: for the lode hath comitted greate whordome agaynst the LORDE.

3 So he wente, and toke Gomer ye daughter of Deblaim: which conceaued, and brought forth a sonne.

4 And the LORDE sayde vnto him: call his name Iesrael, for I wil shortly auenge the bloude of Iesrael vpon the house of Iehu, and will bringe the kingdome of the house of Israel to an ende.

5 Then will I breake the bowe of Israel, in the valley of Iesrael.

6 She conceaued yet agayne, and bare a daughter. And he sayde vnto him: Call hir name Loruham (that is, not opteyninge mercy) ofr I wil haue no pyte vpon the house of Israel, but forget them, and put them clene out of remembrance.

7 Neuerthelesse I wil haue mercy vpon the house of Iuda, & wil saue them, euen thorow the LORDE their God. But I wil not deluyere them thorow eny bow, swerde, batel, horses or horsmen.

8 Now when she had weened Loruham, she conceaued agayne, & bare a sonne.

9 Then sayde he: call his name Lo Ami (that is to saye, not my people.) For why? ye are not my people, therefore will not I be yours.

10 And though the nombre of the children of Israel be as the sonde of the see, which can nether be measured ner tolde: Yet in the place where it is sayde vnto them, ye be not my people: euen there shall it be thus reported of them: they be ye childre of the lyuynge God.

11 Then shal the children of Iuda and the childre of Israel be gathered together agayne, & chose them selues one heade, and then departe out of the londe: for greate shalbe the daye of Iesrael.

Chapter 2

1 Tell youre brethren, that they are my people: and youre sisteren, that they haue optayned mercy.

2 As for youre mother, ye shal chyd with her, and reprove her: for she is not my wife, nether am I hir hu?bode: vnlesse she put awaye hir whordome out of my sight, and hir adououty from hir brestes.

3 Yf no, I shal stryue her naked, & set her, euen as she came in to ye worlde: Yee I shal laye hir waist, and make her like a wilderness, and slaye her for thyrste.

4 I shal haue no pite also vpon hir children, for they be the children of fornicacion.

5 Their mother hath broken hir wedlocke, and she that bare them, is come to cofucion. For she sayde: I wil go after my louers, that geue me my water and my bred, my woll & my flax, my oyle and my drynke.

6 But I will hedge hir waye with thornes, and stoppe it, that she shal not fynde hir fotestoppes:

7 and though she runne after hir louers, yet shall she not get them: she shal seke them, but not fynde them. Then shal she saye: well, I will go turne agayne to my first hu?bode, for at yt tyme was I better at ease, then now:

8 But this wolde she not knowe, where as I yet gaue her corne, wyne, oyle, syluer and golde, which she hath hanged vpon Baal.

9 Wherefore now will I go take my corne & wyne agayne in their season, and fet agayne my woll and my flax, which I gaue her, to couer hir shame.

10 And now will I dyscouer hir foolishnesse, euen in the sight of hir louers, and no man shal deluyere her out of my hondes.

11 Morouer, I wil take awaye all hir myrth, hir holy dayes, hir newmoones, hir Sabbathes and all hir solempne feastes:

12 I will destroye hir vynyardes and fyge trees, though she saie: lo, here are my rewardes, that my louers haue geuen me. I wil make it a wodde, and the wylde beestes shall eate it vp:

13 I will punysh her also for the dayes of Baal, wherin she censd him, deckynge him with hir earynges and cheynes: when she folowed hir louers, and forgat me, saith the LORDE.

14 Wherefore beholde, I wil call her againe, bringe her in to a wildernes, and speake frendly vnto her:

15 there wil I geue her hir vynyardes agayne, yee and the valley of Achor also, to shewe hir hope & comforte. Then shal she synge there as in the tyme of hir youth, & like as in the daye when she came out of the londe of Egipte.

16 Then (saith the LORDE) she shal saye vnto me: O my hou?bande, & shal call me nomore Baal:

17 for I wil take awaye those names of Baal from hir mouth, yee she shal neuer remembre their names eny more.

18 Then will I make a couenaunt with them, with the wylde bestes, with the foules of the ayre, & with euerthinge that crepeth vpon the earth. As for bowe, swerde and batel, I will destroye soch out of the londe, & wil make them to slepe safely.

19 Thus wil I mary the vnto myne owne self for euermore: yee euen to my self wil I mary the, in rightousnesse, in equyte, in louynge kyndnesse and mercy.

20 In faith also will I mary the vnto my self, & thou shalt knowe the LORDE.

21 At the same tyme wil I shewe my self frendly and gracious vnto ye heauens, saith the LORDE: & the heauens shal helpe the earth, 22 and the earth shal helpe the corne, wyne and oyle, and they shal helpe Iesrael.

23 I wil sowe them vpo earth, for a sede to myne owne self, & wil haue mercy vpon her, yt was without mercy. And to the which were not my people, I wil saye: thou art my people. And he shal saye: thou art my God.

Chapter 3

1 Then sayde ye LORDE to me: Go yet yi waye & wowe an aduouterous woma, who thy neghboure loueth, as ye LORDE doth the childre of Israel: how be it they haue respecte to straunge goddes, and loue the wyne kannes.

2 So I gat her for xv. syluerlinges, and for an Homer and an half of barlye,

3 & sayde vnto her: Thou shalt byde with me a longe season, but se that thou playest not the harlot, and loke thou medle with none other man, & then wil I kepe my self for the.

4 Thus the childre of Israel shal syt a greate whyle without kinge and prynce, without offerynge and aulter, without prest and reuelacion.

5 But afterwarde shal the children of Israel conuerte, and seke the LORDE their God, and Daud their kinge: and in ye latter dayes they shal worshippe the LORDE, and his louynge kyndnesse.

Chapter 4

1 Heare ye worde of the LORDE, o ye children of Israel: For the LORDE must punysh the, yt dwel in the londe. And why? There is no faithfulnessse, there is no mercy, there is no knowlege of God in the lode:

2 but swearinge, lyege, maslaughter, theft and adoutry haue gotten the ouerhande, & one bloudgiltynesse foloweth another.

3 Therefore shal the londe be in a miserable case, and all they that dwell therin, shal mourne. The bestes in the felde, the foules in ye ayre, and the fishes in the see shall dye.

4 Yet is there none, that wil chaste nor reprove another. The prestes which shulde refourme other me, are become like the people.

5 Therefore stomblest thou in ye daye tyme &, the prophet with the in the night. I wil bringe thy mother to sylence, & why?

6 my people perish, because they haue no knowlege. Seinge then that thou hast refused vnderstandinge, therefore wil I refuse ye also: so that thou shalt nomore be my prest. And for so moch as thou hast forgotten the lawe of thy God, I wil also forget thy childre.

7 The more they increased in multitude, the more they synned agaynst me, therefore wil I charge their honour in to shame.

8 They ate vp the synnes of my people, & corage them in their wickednesse.

9 Thus the prest is become like the people. Wherefore I will punysh them for their wicked wayes, & rewarde them acordinge to their owne ymaginacions.

10 They shal eate, & not haue ynough: They haue vsed whordome, therefore shall they not prospere: & why? they haue forsaken the LORDE, & not regarded him.

11 Whordome, wyne and dronckennesse take the herte awaye.

12 My people axe counsel at their stockes, their staffe must tell them. For an whorish mynde hath disceaued them, so yt they comitte fornicacion agaynst their God.

13 They make sacrifice vpon the hie mountaynes, & burne their incense vpon the hilles, yee amonge the okes, groues & bu?shes, for there are good shadowes. Therefore yor daughters are become harlottes, and youre spouses haue broke their wedlocke

14 I wil not punish yor daughters for beinge defyled, & yor brydes that became whores: seinge the fathers themselues haue medled with harlottes, and offered with vnthriftes: but the people that wil not vnderstonde, must be punyshed.

15 Though thou Israel art disposed to playe ye harlot, yet shuldest not thou haue offended, o Iuda: thou shuldest not haue runne to Galgala, ner haue gone vp to Bethaue, ner haue sworne: the LORDE lyueth.

16 For Israel is gone backe, like a waton cowe. The LORDE therefore shal make hir fede, as ye labe yt goeth astraye.

17 And where as Ephraim is become partaker of Idols, wel, let him go.

18 Their dronckennesse hath put the backe, & brought them to whordome. Their rulers loue rewardes, brynge (saye they,) to their owne shame.

19 A wynde shall take holde of their fethers, & they shall be cofounded in their offeringes.

Chapter 5

1 Heare this, o ye prestes: take hede, o thou housholde of Israel: geue eare, o thou kingly house: for this punyshment wil come vpon you, that are become a snare vnto Myspa, and a spred net vnto the mount of Thabor.

2 They kyll sacrifices by heapes, to begyle the people therwith: therefore wil I punysh them all.

3 I knowe Ephraim well ynough, & Israel is not hyd fro me: for Ephraim is become an harlot, and Israel is defyled.

4 They are not mynded to turne vnto their God, for they haue an whorish herte, so yt they can not knowe the LORDE.

5 But the pryde of Israel wil be rewarded him in his face, yee both Israel and Ephraim shal fall for their wickednesse, and Iuda with them also.

6 They shall come with their shepe & bullockes to seke ye LORDE, but they shal not fynde him, for he is gone from them.

7 As for the LORDE, they haue refused him, and brought vp bastarde children: a moneth therefore shall deuoure them with their porcions.

8 Blowe with the shawmes at Gabea, and with the trumpet in Rama, crie out at Bethauen vpon the yonside of Ben Iamin.

9 In the tyme of ye plage shal Ephraim be layed waist, therefore dyd I faithfully warne the trybes of Israel.

10 Yet are the prynces of Iuda become like them, that remoue the londemarckes, therefore wil I poure out my wrath vpon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed, and can haue no right of the lawe: for why? they folowe ye doctrynes of men.

12 Therefore will I be vnto Ephraim as a moth, & to the house of Iuda as a caterpillar.

13 When Ephraim sawe his sicknesse, and Iuda his disease: Ephraim wente vnto Assur, and sent vnto kinge Iareb: yet coude not he helpe you, ner ease you of youre payne.

14 I am vnto Ephraim as a lyon, and as a lyons whelpe to the house of Iuda. Euen I, I wil spoyle them, & go my waye. I wil take them with me, and no man shal rescue them.

15 I wil go, and returne to my place, till they waxe faynt, and seke me.

Chapter 6

1 In their aduersite they shall seke me, and saye: come, let vs turne agayne to the LORDE: for he hath smytten vs, and he shal heale vs:

2 He hath wounded vs, & he shal bynde vs vp agayne: after two dayes shal he quycken vs, in the thirde daye he shal rase vs vp, so that we shal lyue in his sight.

3 Then shal we haue vnderstandinge, & endeouore oure selues to knowe the LORDE. He shal go forth as the sprynge of the daye, and come vnto vs as the euenynge and mornynge rayne vpon the earth.

4 O Ephraim, what shal I do vnto the? O Iuda, how shal I intreate the? seynge youre loue is like a mornynge cloude, & like a dew yt goeth early awaye.

5 Therefore haue I cut downe the prophetes, & letten them be slayne for my wordes sake: so that thy punyshment shal come to light.

6 For I haue pleasure in louynge kyndnesse, and not in offerynge: Yee in the knowlege of God, more then in burntsacrifice.

7 But euen like as Adam dyd, so haue they broken my couenaunt, and set me at naught.

8 Galaad is a cite of wicked doers, of malicious people and bloudshedders.

9 The multitude of the prestes is like an heape of theues, murtherers & bloudthurstie: for they haue wrought abhominacion.

10 Horrible thinges haue I sene in the house of Israel, there playeth Ephraim the harlot, and Israel is defyled:

11 but Iuda shall haue an haruest for himself, when I returne the captiuyte of my people.

Chapter 7

1 When I vndertake to make Israel whole, then the vngraciousnesse of Ephraim and the wickednes of Samaria commeth to light: then go they aboute with lyes. At home, they be theues: and without, they fall to robberyng.

2 They cosidre not in their hertes, that I remebre all their wickednes. They go aboute wt their owne ynuencios, but I se them wel ynough.

3 They make the kinge and the princes, to haue pleasure in their wickednes & lyes.

4 All these burne in adoutry, as it were an ouen yt the baker heateth, whe he hath lefte kneadinge, till the dowe be leuended.

5 Euen so goeth it this daye with oure kinges and prynces, for they begynne to be woode droncken thorow wyne: they vse familiarite with soch as disceau the.

6 They with the ymaginacion of their herte are like an oue, their slepe is all ye night like the slepe of a baker, in the mornynge is he as hote as the flame of fyre:

7 they are altogether as hote as an ouen.

They haue deuoured their owne iudges, all their kinges are falle: yet is there none of the yt calleth vpon me.

8 Therefore must Ephraim be mixte amonge ye Heithen. Ephraim is become like a cake, yt no man turneth:

9 straungers haue deuoured his strength, yet he regardeth it not: he waxeth ful of gray haire, yet wil he not knowe it:

10 & ye pride of Israel is cast downe before their face, yet wil they not turne to the LORDE their God, ner seke him, for all this.

11 Ephraim is like a doue, that is begyled, and hath no herte. Now call they vpon the Egipcians, now go they to the Assirians:

12 but whyle they be goinge here and there, I shal sprede my net ouer them, & drawe them downe as ye foules of the ayre: and acordinge as they haue bene warned, so will I punysh them.

13 Wo be vnto them, for they haue forsake me. They must be destroyed, for they haue set me at naught. I am he that haue redemed them, and yet they dyssemble wt me.

14 They call not vpon me with their hartes, but lye youlinge vpon their beddes. Where as they come together, it is but for meate & drincke, and me will they not obeye.

15 I haue taught them, and defended their arme, yet do they ymagin myschefe agaynst me.

16 They turne them selues, but not a right, & are become as a broken bowe. Their prynces shalbe slayne wt the swearde, for the malice of their tungen, soch blasphemies haue they lerned in the londe of Egipte.

Chapter 8

1 Set the horne to thy mouth, and blowe: get the swiftly (as an Aegle) vnto the house of the LORDE: for they haue broken my couenant, and transgressed my lawe.

2 Israel can saye vnto me: thou art my God, we knowe the:

3 but he hath refused the thinge that is good, therefore shall the enemye folowe vpon him.

4 They haue ordened kinges, but not thorow me: they haue made prynces, and I must not knowe of it. Of their syluer and golde haue they made them ymages, to bringe them selues to destruccion.

5 Thy calfe (O Samaria) shalbe taken awaye. for my wrothfull indignacion is gone forth agaynst the. How longe wil it be, or they can be censed?

6 For the calfe came from Israel, the worke man made it, therefore can it be no God, but euen to a spyders webbe shal ye calfe of Samaria be turned.

7 They haue sowne wynde, therefore shal they reepe a storme. Their sede shal beare no corne, there shal no meel be made of their increase: though yere be, yet shall straungers deuoure it vp.

8 Israel shall perish, the Gentiles shall entreate him as a foule vessel.

9 Sens they went vp to the Assirians, they are become like a wylde asse in the deserte. Ephraim geueth rewardes to get louers, 10 therefore are they scatred amoge the Heithe, there wil I gather them vp. They shal soone be weery of the burthen of kinges & prynces.

11 Ephraim hath made many aulters to do wickednes, therfore shal the aulters turne to his synne.

12 Though I shewe the my lawe neuer so moch, they counte it but straunge doctrine.

13 Where as they do sacrifice, offeringe the flesh and eatinge it: the LORDE will haue no pleasure therin: but will remembre their wickednes, and punysh their synnes. Israel turneth agayne in to Egipte, 14 they haue forgotten him that made them, they buylde churches, and Iuda maketh many stronge cities: therfore wil I sende a fyre in to their cities, and it shal consume their places.

Chapter 9

1 Do not thou triumphe (O Israel) make no boostinge more then the Heithen, for thou hast comitted aduoutry agaynst yi God: straunge rewardes hast thou loued, more the all corne floores.

2 Therefore shall they nomore enioye the cornefloores and wyne presses, and their swete wyne shal fayle the.

3 They wil not dwel in the LORDES londe, but Ephraim turneth agayne in to Egipte, & eateth vnclane thinges amonge the Assirians.

4 They poure out no wyne for a drinkofferinge vnto the LORDE, nether geue they him their slayne offerings: but they be vnto them as mourners meates, wherin all they that eate them, are defyled. For the bred that they haue soch lust vnto, shal not come in the house of the LORDE.

5 What wil ye do then in the solempne dayes, and in the feast of the LORDE?

6 lo, they shall get them awaye for the destruccion, Egypte shal receaue them, & Noph shal bury them. The nettles shall ouergrowe their pleasaunt goodes, and burres shalbe in their tabernacles.

7 Be ye sure (O Israel) the tyme of visitacion is come, the dayes of recompencinge are at honde. As for the prophet, ye holde him for a foole: and him that is rich in the sprete, for a mad man: so greate is youre wickednes and malice.

8 Ephraim hath made himself a watchman of my God, a prophet yt is become a snare to do hurte in euery strete, and abhominacion in the house of his God.

9 They be gone to farre, & haue destroyed the selues, like as they dyd afore tyme at Gabaa. Therefore their wickednes shal be remebred, and their synnes punyshed.

10 I fande Israel like grapes in the wildernes, & sawe their fathers as the first fyges in ye toppe of ye fyge tre. But they are gone to Baal Peor, & runne awaie fro me to yt shamefull Idoll, & are become as abhominable as their louers 11 Ephraim flieth like a byrde, so shal their glory also: In so moch, yt they shal nether begette, coceaue ner beare children.

12 And though they bringe vp eny, yet will I make them childlesse amonge men. Yee wo shall come to them, when I departe from them.

13 Ephraim (as me thinke) is planted in welthinesse, like as Tyrus, but now must she bringe hir owne children forth to the manslayer.

14 O LORDE thou shalt geue them: what shalt thou geue them? geue them an vnfrutefull wombe and drye brestes.

15 All their wickednesse is done at Galgal, there do I abhorre them. For the vngraciousnes of their owne inuencions, I wil dryue them out of my house. I will loue them nomore, for all their prynces are vnfaithfull.

16 Ephraim is hewen downe, their rote is dryed vp, so yt they shal bringe nomore frute: yee and though they bringe forth eny, yet wil I slaye euen the best beloued frute of their body.

17 My God shall cast them awaye, for they haue not bene obediet vnto him, therfore shal they go astraye amonge the Heithen.

Chapter 10

1 Israel was a goodly vyne, but he hath brought forth vnprofitable frute: yee the more frute he had, the mo aulters he made: ye more good I dyd to their londe, the more frendshipe shewed they to their ymages.

2 Their herte is deuyded, therefore wil they be destroyed. The LORDE shall breake downe their ymages, he shal destroye their aulters.

3 Then shal they saye: we haue no kinge, for why? we haue not feared the LORDE. And what shal then the kinge do to vs?

4 They comon together, and swaere vayne oothes: they be cofederate together, therfore groweth their punyshment, as the wedes in the forowes of the londe.

5 They that dwell in Samaria haue worshipped the calfe of Bethaue: therfore shall the people mourne ouer them, yee and the prestes also, that in their welthynesse reioysed with them: and why? it shal passe awaye from them.

6 It shalbe brought to the Assirian, for a present vnto kinge Iareb. Ephraim shal receaue full punishment: Israel shalbe confounded for his owne ymaginacions, 7 Samaria wt his kinge shall vanish awaye, as the scomme vpon the water.

8 The hye places of Auen where Israel do synne, shal be cast downe: thistles and thornes shal growe vpon their aulters. Then shal they saye to ye mountaynes:

couer vs, and to the hilles: fall vpon vs. 9 O Israel, thou hast synned as Gabaa dyd afore tyme, where they remayned: shulde not the batel then come vpon the wicked children, as wel as vpon the Gabaonites? 10 I wil chasten them, euen after myne owne desyre, the people shal be gathered together ouer them, whe I punysh them for their greate wickednesse.

11 Ephraim was vnto me, as a cow that is vsed to go to plowe, therfore I loued him, and fell vpon his fayre neck. I droue Ephraim, Iuda plowed, & Iacob played the hu?bode man:

12 that they might sowe vnto rightuousnes, and reape the frutes of weldoynge: yt they might plowe vp their fresh londe, and seke the LORDE, till he came, and lerned them rightuousnes.

13 But now they haue plowed them wickednesse, therfore shal they reepe synne, and eate the frute of lyes. Seinge thou putttest thy cofidence in thine owne wayes, and leane to ye multitude of thy worthies:

14 there shal growe a sedicion amonge thy people. All yi stroge cities shalbe layed waist, euen as Salmana was destroyed with his familiers, thorow him that was auenged of Baal, in the daye of batel, where ye mother perished with hir childre.

15 Euen so shal it go with you (o Bethel) because of youre malicious wickednes. Like as the mornynge goeth awaye, so shal the kinge of Israel passe.

Chapter 11

1 When Israel was yoge, I loued him: and called my sonne out of the londe of Egipte.

2 But ye more they were called, the more they wente backe: offerynge vnto Idols, and censynge ymages.

3 I lerned Ephraim to go, and bare them in myne armes, but they regarded not me, that wolde haue helped them.

4 I led them with coardes of frendshipe, & with bondes of loue. I was euen he, that layed the yocke vpon their neckes. I gaue them their fodder my self,

5 yt they shulde not go agayne in to Egipte: And now is Assur their kinge: For they wolde not turne vnto me.

6 Therefore shal ye swearde begynne in their cities, the stoare that they haue lickened vnto, shall be destroyed and eaten vp: and that because of their owne ymaginacions.

7 My people hath no lust to turne vnto me, their prophetes laye the yocke vpon the, but they ease them not of their burthen.

8 What greate thinges haue I geuen the, o Ephraim? how faithfully haue I defended the, o Israel? haue I dealt with the as with Adama? or haue I intreated the like Seboim? No, my hert is otherwise mynded. Yee my mercy is to feruent:

9 therefore haue I not turned me to destroye Ephraim in my wrothfull displeasure. For I am God and no man, I am euen that holy one in the myddest of the, though I came not within the cite.

10 The LORDE roareth like a lyon, that they maye folowe him: Yee as a lyon roareth he, that they maye be afrayed, like the children of the see:

11 that they maye be scarred awaye from Egipte, as men scarre byrdes: & frayed awaye (as doues vse to be) from the Assirias londe: and that because I wolde haue them tary at home, saieyth the LORDE.

12 But Ephraim goeth aboute me with lies, and the house of Israel dyssembleth. Only Iuda holdeth him with God, and with the true holy thinges.

Chapter 12

1 Ephraim kepeth the ayre, and foloweth after the east wynde: he is euer increasinge lyes & destruction. They be confederate with the Assirians, their oyle is caried in to Egipte.

2 The LORDE hath a courte to holde with Iuda, and wil punysh Iacob: After their owne waies and accordinge to their owne inuencions, shal he recompence them.

3 He toke his brother by the hele, when he was yet in his mothers wombe: and in his strength he wrestled with God.

4 He stroue with the Angel, and gat the victory: so that he prayde and desyred him. He fande him at Bethel, & there he talked wt vs.

5 Yee the LORDE God of hoostes, euen ye LORDE him self remembered him:

6 Then turne to thy God, kepe mercy and equyte, and hope still in thy God.

7 But the marchaunt hath a false weight in his honde, he hath a pleasure to occupie extorcion.

8 Ephraim thinketh thus: Tush, I am rich, I haue good ynough: In all my workes shal not one fawte be founde, that I haue offended.

9 Yet am I the LORDE thy God, eue as when I brought the out of the londe of Egipte, and set the in thy tentes, and as in the hye feast dayes.

10 I haue spoke thorow the prophetes, and shewed dyuerse visions, and declared my self by the ministracion of ye prophetes.

11 But at Galaad is the abhominacion, they are fallen to vanyte. At Galgal they haue slayne oxen: and as many heapes of stones as they had in their lode forowes, so many aulters haue they made.

12 Iacob fled into the londe of Siria, and Israel serued for a wife, and for a wife he kepthe shepe.

13 By a prophet the LORDE brought them out of Egipte, and by a prophet he preserued the.

14 But Ephraim hath prouoked him to displeasure thorow his abhominacions: therefore shal his bloude be poured vpon him self, and the LORDE his God shal rewarde him his blasphemies.

Chapter 13

1 The abhominacion of Ephraim is come also in to Israel. He is gone backe to Baal, therfore must he dye.

2 And now they synne more and more: of their syluer, they make them molten ymages, like the Idols of the Heithen, and yet all is nothinge but the worke of the craftesman. Notwithstodinge they preach of the same: who so wil kysse the calues, offreth to men.

3 Therfore they shalbe as the mornynge cloude, and as the dew that early passeth awaye: and like as dust that ye wynde taketh awaye from the floore, and as smoke that goeth out of ye chymney.

4 I am the LORDE thy God, which brought the out of the londe of Egipte: that thou shuldest knowe no God but me only, & that thou shuldest haue no Sauioure but only me.

5 I toke diligent hede of the in the wilderness that drye londe.

6 But when they were wel fedde and had ynough, they waxed proude, and forgat me.

7 Therfore will I be vnto them as a lyon, and as a leopard in ye waye to the Assirians.

8 I wil come vpon them as a she beer, that is robbed of hir welpes, and I wil breake that stubburne herte of theirs. There wil I deuoure them as a lyon: yee the wylde beastes shal teare them.

9 O Israel, thou doest but destroyeth thyself, In me only is thy helpe.

10 Where are thy kinges now, that shulde helpe the in all thy cities? Yee and thy iudges, of whom thou saydest: geue me a kinge and prynces?

11 well, I gaue the a kinge in my wrath, and in my displeasure will I take him from the agayne.

12 The wickednesse of Ephraim is bounde together, & his synne lieth hyd.

13 Therfore shall sorowes come vpon him, as vpon a woman that traualleth. An vndiscrete sonne is he: for he considreth not, that he shulde not haue bene able to haue endured in the tyme of his byrth, 14 had not I defended him from the graue, and delyuered him from death. O death, I wil be thy death: o hell, I wil be thy styng.

15 Yet can I se no comforth, for when he is now the goodliest amonge the brethren, the east wynde (euen the wynde of the LORDE) shal come downe from the wilderness, and drye vp his condytes, and drynke vp his welles: he shal spoyle the treasure of all pleasaut vessels.

16 As for Samaria, they shalbe made waist, & why? they are disobedient vnto their God. They shal perish with the swearde, their children shalbe slayne, and their women bygg with childe shalbe rypte vp.

Chapter 14

1 Tvrne the now (o Israel) vnto ye LORDE thy God, for thou hast taken a greate fall thorow thy wickednesse.

2 Take these wordes with you, when ye turne to the LORDE, & saye vnto him: O forgeue vs all oure synnes, receaue vs graciously, & then wil we offre ye bullockes of oure lypes vnto the.

3 Assur shalbe no more oure helper, nether will we ryde vpon horses eny more. As for the workes of oure hondes, we wil nomore call vpon them: For it is thou that art oure God, thou shewest euer mercy vnto the fatherlesse.

4 O (yf they wolde do this) I shulde heale their sores: yee with all my herte wolde I loue them: so yt my wrath shulde clene be turned awaye from them.

5 Yee I wolde be vnto Israel as the dewe, and he shulde growe as ye lylie, & his rote shulde breake out as Libanus.

6 His braunches shulde sprede out abrode, & be as fayre as the olyue tre, & smel as Libanus.

7 They that dwel vnder his shadowe, shulde come agayne, & growe vp as the corne, & flourish as the vyne: he shulde haue as good a name, as the wyne of Libanus.

8 O Ephraim, what haue I to do with Idols eny more? I wil graciously heare him, & lede him forth. I wil be vnto the as a grene Fyrre tre, vpon me shalt thou fynde thy frute.

9 Who so is wyse, shal vnderstonde this: & he yt is right enstructe, wil regarde it. For ye wayes of the LORDE are righteous, such as be godly wil walke in them: As for the wicked, they wil stomble therin.

JOEL

Chapter 1

1 This is the worde of the LORDE, that came vnto Joel the sonne of Phatuel:

2 Heare o ye elders: podre this wel, all ye that dwell in the lode: yf euer there happened such a thinge in youre dayes, or in ye dayes of youre fathers.

3 Tell youre children of it, & let them shewe it vnto their children, & so they to certifie their posterite therof.

4 Loke what the caterpillar hath left, yt hath the greshopper eaten vp: what the greshopper left, that hath the locuste eaten vp: & what the locuste hath left, that hath the blastinge consumed.

5 Wake vp ye dronckardes, & wepe: mourne all ye wyne suppers, because of youre swete wyne, for it shal be taken awaye from youre mouth.

6 Yee a mightie & an innumerable people shall come vp in to my londe: these haue teth like the teth of lyons, & chaftbones like the lyonesses.

7 They shal make my vinyarde waist, they shal pyll of the barckes of my fygetrees, strype them bare, cast them awaye, and make the braunches whyte.

8 Make yi mone as a virgin doth, yt gyrdeth her selfe with sacke, because of hir bryde grome.

9 For the meate & drynkofferynge shalbe taken awaye from the house of the LORDE: & the prestes ye LORDES ministers shal mourne.

10 The felde shalbe waisted, the londe shalbe in a miserable case: for the corne shalbe destroyed, the swete wyne shal come to confucion, & the oyle vtterly desolate.

11 The hu?bodemen & the wyne gardeners shal loke piteously & make lamentacion, for the wheate wyne & barley, & because the haruest vpon the felde is so clene destroyed.

12 The grape gatherers shal make greate mone, when the vynyarde & fygetrees be so vtterly waisted. Yee all the pomgarnettes, palmtrees, apletrees, & the other trees of the felde shall wyther awaye. Thus the mery cheare of the children of men, shal come to confucion.

13 Gyrde you, & make yor mone, o ye prestes: mourne ye ministres of the altar: go youre waye in, & slepe in sack cloth, o ye officers of my God: for the meat & drynkofferynge shalbe taken awaye from the house of yor God.

14 Proclame a fastynge, call the cogregacion, gather the elders & all the inhabitants of the londe together into the house of the LORDE yor God, & crie vnto the LORDE:

15 alas, alas for this daye. And why? the daye of the LORDE is at honde, and commeth as a destroyer from the Allmightie.

16 Shal not ye meates be taken awaye before oure eyes, the myrth also & ioye from the house of oure God?

17 The sede shal perish in the grounde, the garners shall lye waist, the floores shalbe broken downe, for the corne shalbe destroyed.

18 O what a sighinge make the catell? the bullockes are very euel likynge, because they haue no pasture: and the shepe are fame?shed awaye.

19 O LORDE, to the will I crie: for the fyre hath consumed the goodly pastures of the wyldernesse, and the flame hath brent vp all the trees of the felde.

20 Yee the wylde beestes crie also vnto the: for the water ryuers are dryed vp, and the fyre hath consumed the pastures of the wyldernesse.

Chapter 2

1 Blowe out ye trompet in Sion, & crie vpo my holy hill, yt all soch as dwel in the londe, maye treble at it: for ye daie of the LORDE commeth, & is harde at honde:

2 a darcke daye, a gloomyng daye, a cloudy daye, yee & a stormy daye, like as the mornynge spredeth out vpo the hilles: Namely, a great & mightie people: soch as haue not bene sens ye begynnyng, nether shal be after them for euermore.

3 Before him shal be a consumynge fyre, & behynde him a burnynge flame. The londe shal be as a garden of pleasure before him, but behinde him shal it be a very waist wilderness, & there is no man, that shal escape him.

4 They are to loke vpon like bayrred horses, & runne like horse men.

5 They skyppe vp vpon ye hilles, as it were the sounde of charettes: as the flame of fyre that consumeth the strawe, and as a mightie people redy to the batell.

6 The folke shalbe afrayed of him, all faces shal be as blacke as a pot.

7 These shal rune like giauntes, & leape ouer the walles like men of warre. Euery ma in his goinge shal kepe his araaie, & not go out of his Path.

8 There shal not one dryue another, but ech shal kepe his owne waye. They shal breake in at the wyndowes, & not be hurte:

9 They shal come into the cite, & runne vpon the walles: They shal clymme vp vpon the houses, & slyppe in at the wyndowes like a thefe.

10 The earth shal quake before him, yee the heauens shalbe moued: the Sonne & Moone shal be darckened, and the starres shal withdrawe their shyne.

11 The LORDE shal shewe his voyce before his hoost, for his hoost is greate, stronge & mightie to fulfill his commaundement. This is yt greate and maruelous fearfull daye of the LORDE: And who is able to abyde it?

12 Now therfore saieth the LORDE: Turne you vnto me with all youre hertes, with fastinge, wepyng and mournyng: 13 rente youre hertes, & not your clothes. Turne you vnto the LORDE youre God, for he is gracious & mercifull, longe sufferyng & of greate compassion: & redy to pardone wickednes.

14 Then (no doute) he also shal turne, & forgeue: & after his chastenyng, he shal let youre increase remayne, for meat & drynck offerynges vnto the LORDE youre God?

15 Blowe out with the tropet in Sion, proclame a fastyng, call the congregacion, 16 & gather the people together: warne the congregacion, gather the elders, bringe the children & suclynge together. Let ye brydegrome go forth of his chabre, & the bryde out of her closet.

17 Let the prestes serue the LORDE betwixte the porch & ye aulter, wepyng & sayenge: be faourable (o LORDE) be faourable vnto thy people: let not thine heretage be brought to soch confucion, lest the Heithen be lordes therof. Wherefore shulde they saye amonge the Heithen: where is now their God?

18 Then shal the LORDE be gelous ouer his londe, & spare his people:

19 yee ye LORDE shal answeere, & saye vnto his people: Beholde, I wil sende you corne, wyne & oyle, so that ye shal haue plenty of them: & I wil nomore geue you ouer to be a reprofte amonge the Heithen.

20 Agayne, as for him of the north, I shal dryue him farre from you: & shute him out in to a drye and waist londe, his face towarde the east see, and his hynder partes towarde the vttemost see. The stynke of him shall go vp, and his fylthy corrupcion shal fall vpon himself, because he hath dealte so proudly.

21 Feare not (o londe) but be glad and reioyse, for the LORDE wil do greate thynges.

22 Be not ye afrayed nether (o ye beastes of the felde) for the pastures shal be grene, and the trees shal beare their frute: the fygetrees & vinyardes shal geue their increase.

23 Be glad then (o ye children of Sion) and reioyse in the LORDE youre God, for he hath geuen you the teacher of rightuousnes: & he it is yt shal sende you downe shuwers of rayne, early and late in the first moneth:

24 so that ye garners shal be full of corne, and the presses plenteous in wyne and oyle.

25 And as for the yeares that ye gre?shopper, locuste, blasstinge & caterpillar (my greate hoost, which I sent amonge you) haue eaten vp, I shal restore them to you agayne:

26 so that ye shal haue ynough to eate, and be satisfied: and prayse the name of the LORDE youre God, that so maruelously hath dealte with you. And my people shall neuer be confounded eny more:

27 Ye shall well knowe, that I am in the myddest of Israel, and that I am youre God: yee and that there is none other, and my people shall nomore be brought to confucion.

28 After this, will I poure out my sprete vpon all flesh: & yor sonnes & yor daughters shal prophecy: yor olde me shal dreame dreames & youre yonge men shal se visions:

29 Yee in those dayes I will poure out my sprete vpon seruantes and maydens.

30 I will shewe wonders in heauen aboue, and tokes in the earth beneth: bloude and fyre, and the vapoure off smoke.

31 The Sonne shalbe turned in to darcknesse, & ye Moone in to bloude: before yt greate & notable daye off the LORDE come.

32 And the tyme shal come: yt who so euer calleth on the name of the LORDE, shalbe saued. For vpon the mount Sion & at Ierusalem, there shalbe a saluacion, like as the LORDE hath promised: yee & amonge the other remnaunt, whom the LORDE shall call.

Chapter 3

1 For take hede: In those dayes & at ye same tyme, when I turne agayne the captiuite of Iuda & Ierusalem:

2 I shal gather all people together, & bryng the in to the valley of Iosaphat: and there wil I reason with the, because of my people & heretage of Israel: who they haue scatred aboute in the nacions, & parted my lode:

3 yee they haue cast lottes for my people, the yonge me haue they set in the brodel house, & solde the Damsels for wyne, yt they might haue to drike.

4 Thou Tirus and Sido and all ye borders of the Philistynes: what haue ye to do with me? Will ye defye me? well: yf ye will nedes defye me, I shall recopece you, euen vpon youre heade, & yt right shortly:

5 for ye haue take awaye my syluer & golde, my fayre & goodly Iewels, & brought them in to youre gods houses.

6 The children also of Iuda and Ierusalem haue ye solde vnto the Grekes, that ye might bryng the farre fro ye borders of their owne countrees.

7 Beholde therfore: I will rayse them out of the place, where ye haue solde them, & will rewarde you euen vpon youre heade.

8 Your sonnes & youre daughters will I sell thorow the hondes of the childe of Iuda, & so they shal geue them forth to sell, vnto the of Saba, a people of a farre coudre: for the LORDE himself hath sayde it.

9 Crie out these thynges amonge the Gentiles, proclame warre, wake vp the giauntes, let them drawe nye, let the come vp all the lusty warryours of the.

10 Make you sweardes of youre plowshares, and speares of youre syckles & sythes. Let ye weake man saye: I am stronge.

11 Mustre you, and come, all ye Heithe roude aboute: gather you together, there shall the LORDE laye all thy giauntes to the grounde.

12 Let the people aryse, and get them to the valley of Iosaphat: for there wil I syt, and iudge all Heithe roude aboute.

13 Laye to youre sythes, for the haruest is rype: come, get you downe: the wynepresse is full, yee the wynepresses runne ouer, for their wickednesse is waxen greate.

14 In the valley appoynted, there shalbe many, many people: for the daye of the LORDE is nye in ye valley appoynted.

15 The Sonne and Moone shall be darckened, & the starres shal withdrawe their light.

16 The LORDE shal roare out of Sion, & crie out of Ierusalem, that the heauens & the earth shal quake withall. But the LORDE shal be a defence vnto his owne people, ad a refuge for the childe of Israel.

17 Thus shal ye knowe, yt I the LORDE youre God dwell vpo my holy mount of Sion. Then shal Ierusalem be holy, & there shal no straungers go thorow her eny more.

18 Then shal the moutaynes droppe swete wyne, & the hylles shall flowe with mylcke, All the ryuers of Iuda shal haue water ynough, & out of the LORDES house, there shal flowe a spryng, to water ye broke of Sitim:

19 but Egipte shalbe layed waist, & Edo shal be desolate: because they haue dealte so cruelly with the childe of Iuda, and shed innocent bloude in their londe.

20 Agayne, Iuda shalbe inhabited for euermore, & Ierusalem from generacion to generacion:

21 for I wil not leaue their bloude vnaunged. And the LORDE shal dwell in Sion.

AMOS

Chapter 1

1 These are the sermons, that were shewed vnto Amos (which was one of the shepherdes at Thecua) vpon Israel, in the tyme of Osias kynge of Iuda, & in the tyme of Ieroboam ye sonne of Ioas kynge of Israel, two yere before ye earthquake

2 And he sayde: The LORDE shal roare out off Sion, & shewe his voyce fro Ierusalem: so that ye pastures of the shepherdes shal be in a miserable case, & ye toppe of Charnel dried vp.

3 Thus sayeth the LORDE: for thre & foure wickednesses of Damascus, I will not spare her: because they haue thro?hed Galaad wt yro flales:

4 But I wil sende a fyre in to ye house of Hazael, the same shal consume the palaces of Benadab.

5 Thus wil I breake the barres off Damascus, & rote out the inhabiter fro the felde of Auen, and him yt holdeth the scepter, out of ye pleasunt house: so yt the people shalbe dryuen out of fayre Siria, sayeth the LORDE.

6 Thus saith the LORDE: For thre & foure wickednesses of Gaza, I wil not spare her: because they make the presoners yet more captiue, & haue dryuen the in to the lode of Edom.

7 Therfore wil I sende a fyre in to ye walles of Gaza, which shal deuoure hir houses.

8 I wil rote out the yt dwell at Asdod & him yt holdeth the scepter of Ascalon, and stretch out myne honde ouer Accaron, that the remnaunt of the Philistines shal perish saith the LORDE.

9 Thus sayeth the LORDE: For thre and foure wickednesses off the cite off Tyre, I will not spare her: because they haue increased ye captiuyte of the Edomites, and haue not remembered the brotherly couenant.

10 Therfore will I sende a fyre into the walles off Tyre, that shal consume hir pallaces.

11 Thus sayeth the LORDE: For thre and foure wickednesses of Edom I wil not spare him, because he persecuted his brother with the swerde, destroyed his mothers wombe, bare hatred very longe, and so kepte indignacion allwaye by him. 12 Therefore will I sende a fyre in to Thema, which shal deuoure the pallaces of Bosra.

13 Thus sayeth the LORDE: For thre ad foure wickednesses of the children off Ammon, I will not spare them: because they rypte vp the wome greate with childe in Galaad, to make the borders of their londes the wyder.

14 Therefore I wil kyndle a fyre in the walles of Rabbath, that shal consume hir palaces: with a greate crie, in the daye of batel, in tempest and in the daye off storme:

15 so that their kynge shal go in to captiuyte, he and his prices together, sayeth the LORDE.

Chapter 2

1 Thus sayeth the LORDE: For thre and foure wickednesses off Moab, I will not spare him: because he brent the bones off the kynge of Edom to ashes.

2 Therfore wil I sende a fyre in to Moab, which shal cosume ye pallaces of Carioth: so yt Moab shal perish with a noyse, and the sounde of a shawme.

3 I will rote out the iudge from amoge them, and slaye all his prynces with him, sayeth the LORDE.

4 Thus sayeth the LORDE: for thre ad foure wickednesses of Iuda, I wil not spare him: because he hath cast asyde the lawe of the LORDE, and not kepte his commaundementes: for why, they wolde nedes be disceaued with the lyes, that their forefathers folowed.

5 Therfore wil I sende a fyre in to Iuda, which shal consume the palaces of Ierusalem.

6 Thus sayeth the LORDE: For thre & foure wickednesses of Israel, I wil not spare him: because he hath solde the rightuous for money, and the poore for shues.

7 They treade vpon poore mens heades in the dust of the earth, & croke the wayes off the meke. The sonne and the father go to the harlot, to dishonoure my holy name:

8 they lye besyde euery aulter vpon clothes taken to pledge, and in the house of their goddes they drynke the wyne of the oppressed.

9 Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, that was as hie as the Cedre trees, and as stronge as the okes: notwithstandinge I destroyed his frute fro aboute, and his rote from vnder.

10 Agayne: I brought you out of the londe of Egipte, and led you xl. yeares thorow the wyldernes, that ye might haue the Amoriers londe in possession.

11 I rayseed vp prophetes amonge youre children, and absteyners amonge youre yoge men. Is it not so, o ye children of Israel, sayeth the LORDE?

12 But ye gaue the absteyners wyne to drynke, yee ye comaunded the prophetes, sayenge: Prophecy not.

13 Beholde, I wil crassehe you in sonder, like as a wayne crassheth, yt is full of sheaues:

14 so that ye swifte shall not escape, nether the stronge be able to do eny thyng: no, the giaunte shal not saue his owne life.

15 The archer shall not abyde, and the swifte off fote shall not escape. The horsma shal not saue his life, 16 & he that is as maly of stomack as a giaunte, shall in that daye be fayne to runne his waye naked, sayeth the LORDE.

Chapter 3

1 Heare, what the LORDE speaketh vnto you (o ye children of Israel) namely, vnto all ye trybes, who I brought out of Egipte, and sayde:

2 You only haue I accepted from all the generacions off the earth: therfore wil I vyset you in all youre wickednesses.

3 Maye twaine walke together excepte they be agreed amonge them selues?

4 Doth a lyon roare in the wodde, excepte he haue a pray? Or crieth a lyons whelp out of his denne, excepte he haue gotten somthinge?

5 Doth a byrde fall in a snare vpo ye earth where no fouler is? Taketh a man his snare vp from the grounde, afore he catche somewhat?

6 Crie they out Alarum with the trompet in the cite, and the people not afrayed? Commeth there eny plage in a cite, without it be the LORDES doinge?

7 Now doth the LORDE God no maner of thinge, but he telleth his secrete before vnto his seruauantes ye prophetes.

8 When a lyon roareth, who will not be afrayed? Seynge then that the LORDE God himself speaketh, who will not prophesy?

9 Preach in the palaces at Asdod, and in the palaces off the londe off Egipte, and saye: gather you together vpon the moutaynes off Samaria, so shall ye se greate murthur and violent oppression amonge them: for why, they regarde not the thinge that is right,

10 sayeth the LORDE: they gather together euell gotten goodes, and laye vp robbery in their houses.

11 Therfore, thus sayeth the LORDE God: This londe shalbe troubled and beseged roude aboute, thy strength shalbe plucte from the, and thy palaces robbed.

12 Thus saith the LORDE: like as an hyrdeman taketh two legges or a pece off an eare out off the Lyons mouth: Euen so the children of Israel (that dwell in Samaria, hauynge their couches in the corner, and their beddes at Damascus) shalbe plucte awaye.

13 Heare, and beare recorde in the house of Iacob (sayeth the LORDE God of hoostes)

14 that when I begynne to vyset the wickednesse of Israel, I will vyset ye altuers at Bethel also: so that the hornes of the aulter shalbe broken of, & fall to the groude.

15 As for the wynter house and sommer house, I will smyte them downe: and the houses of yuery, yee and many other houses shal perish, and be destroyed, sayeth the LORDE.

Chapter 4

1 Heare this worde, o ye fat kyne, that be vpon the hill of Samaria: ye that do poore me wronge, and oppresse the nedy: ye that saye to youre lordes: brynge hyther, let vs drynke.

2 Therefore the LORDE hath sworne by his holynesse: The dayes shall come vpon you, that ye shalbe lift vp vpo speares, and youre posterite caried awaye in fyssher pannes.

3 Ye shall get you out at the gappes one after another, and in Armon shal ye be cast awaye, sayeth the LORDE.

4 Ye came to Bethel for to worke vngraciousnes, and haue increased youre synnes at Galgal. Ye brought youre sacrifices in the mornynge, and youre tythes vnto the thirde daye.

5 Ye made a thakofferinge off leuen, ye promised frewillofferinges, and proclaimed them. Soch lust had ye, o ye children of Israel, sayeth the LORDE God.

6 Therfore haue I geuen you ydle teth in all youre cities, & scarcenesse off bred in all youre places: yet will ye not turne vnto me, sayeth the LORDE.

7 Whe there were but thre monethes vnto ye haruest, I withelde the rayne from you: yee I rayned vpo one cite, and not vpo another one pece off grounde was moystured with rayne, and the grounde that I rayned not vpon, was drye.

8 Wherefore two (yee thre) cities came vnto one, to drynke water: but they were not satisfied, yet will ye not turne vnto me, sayeth ye LORDE.

9 I haue smyten you with drouth and blastinge: and loke how many orchardes, vinyardes, fygetrees and olyue trees ye had: ye catirpiller hath eaten them vp. But yet will ye not turne vnto me, sayeth the LORDE.

10 Pestilence haue I sent amoge you, as I dyd in Egipte: youre yonge men haue I slayen wt ye swerde, and caused youre horses be taken captiue: I made the stynckinge sauoure of youre tentes to come vp in to youre nostrels: Yet wil ye not turne vnto me, sayeth the LORDE.

11 Some off you haue I ouerthrowen? as I ouerthrewe Sodome & Gomorre: so that ye were as a brande plucte out of the fyre. Yet will ye not turne vnto me, sayeth the LORDE.

12 Therefore, thus will I handle the agayne (O Israel) ye euen thus will I handle the. Make the ready then to mete thy God, o Israel.

13 For lo, he maketh the mountaynes, he ordeneth the wynde, he sheweth man what he is aboute to do: he maketh the mornynge and the darcknesse, he treadeth vpo the hye places off the earth: ye LORDE God of hoostes is his name.

Chapter 5

1 Heare this worde (o ye house of Israel) and why? I must make this mone for you:

2 The vyrgin Israel shall fall, & neuer ryse vp agayne: she shall be cast downe vpon hir owne grounde, and no man shal helpe hir vp.

3 For thus sayeth ye LORDE God: Where as there dwelt a M. in one cite, there shalbe left scarce an C. therin: and where yere dwelt an C. there shal scarce ten be left for the house off Israel.

4 Neuertheles, thus sayeth the LORDE vnto ye house of Israel: Seke after me, ad ye shal lyue,

5 but seke not after Bethel. Come not at Galgal, and go not to Bersaba: for Galgal shall be caried awaye captiue, and Bethel shal come to naught.

6 Seke the LORDE, yt ye maye lyue: lest the house of Ioseph be brent with fyre and cosumed, and lest there be none to quench Bethel.

7 Ye turne the lawe to wormwod, and cast downe rightuousnes vnto the grounde.

8 The LORDE maketh the vij. starres and the Oryons, he turneth the night in to daye, and off the daye he maketh darcknesse. He calleth ye waters of the see, and poureth them out vpon the playne grounde: the LORDE is his name.

9 He rayseth destruccion vpon the mightie people, & bryngeth downe the stronge holde:

10 but they owe him euel will, yt reppoueth them openly: and who so telleth the the playne treuth, they abhorre him.

11 For so moch the as ye oppresse ye poore, and robbe him of his best sustenance: therfore, where as ye haue buylded houses off square stone, ye shall not dwell in them. Maruelos pleasaunt vynyardes shall ye plante, but the wyne of the shal ye not drynke: and why?

12 as for the multitude of youre wickednesses and youre stoute synnes, I knowe them right well. Enemies are ye off the rightuous, ye take rewardes, ye oppresse the poore in iudgment.

13 Therfore the wyse must now be fayne to holde his tuge, so wicked a tyme is it.

14 Seke after the thinge that is good, & not euell, so shall ye lyue: yee the LORDE God off hoostes shal be with you, acordinge to youre owne desyre.

15 Hate the euell, and loue the good: set vp right agayne in the porte: & (no doute) the LORDE God of hoostes shal be mercifull vnto the remnaunt of Ioseph.

16 Yff no (sayeth the LORDE God, the God of hoostes) there shal be mourninge in all stretes, yee they shal saye i euery strete: alas, alas. They shall call the housbonde man to lamentacio, and soch as can mourne, to mounynge.

17 In all vynyardes there shal be heuynesse, for I will come amonge you, sayeth the LORDE.

18 Wo be vnto them that desyre the daye off ye LORDE: Wherefore wolde ye haue it? As for that daye of the LORDE, it shalbe darcke ad not cleare:

19 Yee like as when a ma runeth fro a lyon, and a Beer meteth with him: or, whe he commeth into the house, and leeneth his honde vpon the wall, a serpent byteth him.

20 Shall not the daye of the LORDE be darcke, and not cleare? shal it not be cloudy, and no shyne in it?

21 I hate and abhorre youre holy dayes, ad where as ye cense me when ye come together I will not accepte it.

22 And though ye offre me brentofferings and meatofferings, yet haue I no pleasure therein: As for youre fat thankofferynges, I wil not loke vpon them.

23 Awaye with that noyse of thy songes, I wil not heare thy playes of musick:

24 but se that equyte flowe as the water, and rightuousnesse as a mightie streame.
25 O ye house of Israel, gaue ye me offeringes and sacrifices those xl. yeares longe in the wyldernesse?

26 Yet haue ye set vp tabernacles to youre Moloch, and ymages of youre Idols, Yee ad the starre of youre god Rempha, figures which ye made to worshipec them.

27 Therefore wil I cause you be caried awaye beyonde Damascus, sayeth the LORDE, whose name is the God off hoostes.

Chapter 6

1 Wo be to the proude welthy in Sio, to soch as thinke the so sure vpon ye mount of Samaria? which holde them selues for the best of the worlde, and rule the house of Israel. eue as they list.

2 Go vnto Calne, and se: and from thence get you to Hemath the greate cite, and so go downe to Gath of the Philistines: be they better at ease then these kyngdomes, or the border of their londe wyder then yours?

3 Ye are taken out for the euel daye, euen ye that syt in the stole of wylfulness:

4 Ye that lye vpon beddes off yuery, and vse youre wantonnesse vpon youre couches: ye that eate the best lambes of ye flocke, and the fattest calues off the droaue:

5 ye that synge to the lute, and in playenge off instrumentes compare youre selues vnto Dauid:

6 ye that drynke wyne out of gobettes, & anoynte youre selues with the best oyle, but no man is sory for Ioseps hurte.

7 Therefore now shall ye be the first of them, that shall be led awaye captiue, and the lusty chere of the wylfull shall come to an ende.

8 The LORDE God hath sworne euen by himself (sayeth the LORDE God of hoostes:) I hate the pryde of Iacob, and I abhorre his palaces: and I wil geue our the cite, wt all that is therein:

9 so that that though there remaine ten men in one house, they shal dye.

10 So their nexte kyn?folckes and the deed buriers shall take them, and cary awaye their bones, and saye vnto him, that is in the ynnermer house: is there yet eny mo by ye? And he shal answer: they are all gone, holde thy tunge (shall he saye) for they wolde not remembre the name of the LORDE.

11 Beholde, the LORDE is mynded to smyte the greate houses, so that they shal decaye: ad the litle houses, that they shal cleue a sunder.

12 Who can runne with horses, or plowe wt oxen vpon the harde rockes off stone? For why, ye haue turned true iudgment in to bytternesse, and the frute of rightuousnesse in to wormwod:

13 Yee euen ye, that reioyse in vayne thynges: ye that saye: haue not we optayned hornes in oure owne strength?

14 Well, take hede, o ye house off Israel, sayeth the LORDE God of hoostes: I wil brynge a people vpo you, which shall trouble you, from the waye that goeth towarde Hemath, vnto the broke in the medowe.

Chapter 7

1 The LORDE God shewed me soch a vision: beholde, there stode one that made gre?shoppers, euen when the corne was shutynge forth, after the kyng had clipte his shepe.

2 Now when they vndertoke to eate vp all the grene thynges in ye lode, I sayde: O LORDE God, be mercifull, I beseke the: who shulde els helpe vp Iacob, that is brought so lowe?

3 So the LORDE was gracious therin, and the LORDE sayde: well, it shall not be.

4 Agayne, ye LORDE shewed me this vision: beholde, the LORDE God called the fyre to punysh withall, and it deuoured the greate depe: yee it consumed a parte allredy.

5 Then sayde I: O LORDE God, holde thyne honde: for who shulde els helpe vp Iacob that is brought so lowe?

6 So the LORDE was merciful therin, and the LORDE God sayde: well, it shall not be.

7 Morouer, he shewed me this vision: beholde, the LORDE stode vpon a plastered wall, & a masons trowell in his hode.

8 And the LORDE sayde vnto me: Amos, what seist thou? I answered: a masons trowell. Then sayde the LORDE: beholde, I will laye the trowell amoge my people of Israel, and will nomore ouersee them:

9 but the hye hilchapels off Isaac must be layed waist, and the churches off Israel made desolate: and as for the house of Ieroboam, I will stonde vp agaynst it with the swerde.

10 Vpon this sent Amasias the prest to Bethel vnto Ieroboam the kinge of Israel, sayenge: Amos maketh the house off Israel to rebell agaynst the, the londe ca not awaye with his wordes.

11 For Amos sayeth: Ieroboam shall dye with the swerde, and Israel shall be led awaye captiue out of their owne londe.

12 And Amasias sayde vnto Amos: Get the hence (thou that cast se so well) and fle in to the londe of Iuda: get the there thy luyngge, and prophecy there:

13 and prophecy nomore at Bethel, for it is the kynges chapel, and the kynges courte.

14 Amos answered, and sayde to Amasias: As for me, I am nether prophet, ner prophetes sonne: but a keper of catell. Now as I was breakynge downe molberies, and goynge after the catell,

15 the LORDE toke me, & sayde vnto me: Go thy waye, and prophecy vnto my people of Israel.

16 And therefore, heare thou now the worde off the LORDE: Thou saiest: prophecy not agaynst Israel, and speake nothinge agaynst the house off Isaac.

17 Wherefore thus sayeth the LORDE: Thy wife shall be defyled in ye cite, yi sonnes and doughters shall be slayne with the swerde, and thy londe shall be measured out with the lyne: Thou thy self shalt dye in an vnclene londe, and Israel shall be dryuen out off his owne countre.

Chapter 8

1 The LORDE God shewed me me this vision: and beholde, there was a maude with sommer frute.

2 And he sayde: Amos, what seist thou? I answered: a maude with sommer frute. Then sayde the LORDE vnto me: the ende commeth vpon my people of Israel, I wil nomore ouersee them.

3 In that daye shall the songes off the temple be turned in to sorow, sayeth the LORDE God. Many deed bodies shal lye in euery place, & be cast forth secretly.

4 Heare this, O ye yt oppresse the poore, and destroye the nedy in ye londe, sayenge:

5 Whan will the new moneth be gone, that we maye sell vytale, and ye Sabbath, that we maye haue scarcenesse of corne: to make the bu?shel lesse, and the Sycle greater?

6 We shall set vp false waightes, yt we maye get the poore vnder vs with their money, and the nedy also for shues: yee let vs sell the chaffe for corne.

7 The LORDE hath sworne agaynst the pryde of Iacob: these workes of theirs will I neuer forget.

8 Shal not the londe tremble, and all they that dwell therin, mourne for this? Shal not their destruccion come vpon them like a water streame, & flowe ouer the, as the floude of Egipte?

9 At the same tyme (sayeth the LORDE God) I shall cause ye Sone to go downe at noone, and the londe to be darcke in the cleare daye.

10 Youre hye feastes will I turne to sorow, and youre songes to mournynge: I wil brynge sack cloth vpo all backes, & baldnes vpo euery heade: yee soch a mournynge wil I sende them, as is made vpon an only begotten sonne, and they shall haue a miserable ende.

11 Beholde, the tyme commeth (sayeth the LORDE God) yt I shal sende an huger in to ye earth: not the hunger of bred, ner the thyrst of water: but an hunger to heare the worde off the LORDE:

12 so that they shal go from the one see to the other, yee from ye north vnto ye east, runnyngge aboute to seke the worde of ye LORDE, and shal not fynde it.

13 In that tyme, shal the fayre virgins and the yonge men perish for thyrst,

14 yee euen they that sweare in the offence off Samaria, and saye: as truly as thy God Iyueth at Dan, and as truly as ye

God Iyueth at Bersaba. These shal fall, and neuer ryse vp agayne.

Chapter 9

1 I sawe the LORDE standinge vpon the aulter, and he sayde: smyte the dore cheke, that the postes maye shake withall. For their couetousnesse shal fall vpon all their heades, and their posterite shal be slayne with the swerde. They shall not fle awaye, there shall not one off them escape, ner be delyuered.

2 Though they were buried in the hell, my honde shal fetch them from thence: though they clymme vp to heauen, yet shal I cast them downe:

3 though they hyde them selues vpo the toppe of Carmel, yet shal I seke them out, and brynge them from thence: Though they crepe downe fro my sight in to the depe of the see, I shal comaunde the serpente, euen there to byte them.

4 Yff they go awaye before their enemies i to captiuyte, then shall I commaunde the swerde, there to slaye them. Thus wil I set myne eyes vpon them, for their harme and not for their wealth.

5 For when the LORDE God of hoostes toucheth a londe, it cosumeth awaye, and all they that dwell therin, must nedes mourne: And why? their destruccion shal aryse as euery streame and runne ouer them, as the floude in Egipte.

6 He that hath his dwellinge in heauen, ad groundeth his tabernacle in the earth: He that calleth the waters of the see, and poureth them out vpon the playne ground: his name is the LORDE.

7 O ye children off Israel. are ye not vnto me, euen as the Morians, sayeth the LORDE? haue not I brought Israel out off the londe off Egipte, the Philistynes from Capthor, and the Sirians fro Cyr?

8 Beholde, the eyes of the LORDE are vpon the realme that synneth, to rote it clene out of the earth: Neuertheles, I will not vterly destroye the house of Iacob, saieth the LORDE.

9 For lo, this I promyse: though I siffte ye house of Israel amonge all nacions (like as they vse to sifte in a syue) yet shall not ye smallest grauel stone fall vpo the earth:

10 But all the wicked doers of my people, that saye: Tush, the plage is not so nye, to come so hastily vpon vs: those shal perish with the swerde.

11 At that tyme wil I buylde agayne the tabernacle off Dauid, that is fallen downe, and hedge vp his gappes: and loke what is broke, I shal repayre it: Yee I shal buylde it agayne, as it was a fore tyme, 12 yt they maye possesse the remnaunt of Edom, yee and all soch people as call vpon my name wt the, saieth the LORDE, which doth these thynges.

13 Beholde, the tyme commeth (saieth the LORDE) that the plowman shal ouertake ye mower, and ye treader off grapes, him that soweth sede. The mountaynes shall droppe swete wyne, and the hilles shall be frutefull,

14 and I wil turne the captiuyte of my people of Israel: they shal repayre the waist cities, & haue the in possessio: they shal plante vinyardes, ad drynke the wyne therof: they shal make gardens, and enioye the frutes off the.

15 And I wil plate them vpo their owne groude, so that I will neuer rote them out agayne from their londe, which I haue geuen the sayeth the LORDE thy God.

OBADIAH

Chapter 1

1 This is the vision that was shewed vnto Abyd: Thus hath ye LORDE God spoke vpo Edo: We haue herde of the LORDE yt there is an embassage sent amonge the Heithen: Vp, let vs aryse, and fight agaynst them.

2 Beholde, I will make ye small amoge the Heithen, so that thou shalt be vtterly despised.

3 The pryde of thine herte hath lift the vp, thou that dwellest in ye stroge holdes off stone, and hast made the an hye seate: Thou sayest in thyne herte: who shal cast me downe to the grounde?

4 But though thou wentest vp as hye as the Aegle, and maydest thy nest aboue amonge the starres: yet wolde I plucke the downe from thee.

5 Yf ye theues & robbers came to ye bynight, thou takinge thy rest: shulde they not steale, till they had ynough? yf the grape gatherers came vpon the, wolde they not leaue the some grapes?

6 But how shall they rype Esau, and seke out his treasures?

7 Yee the men that were sworne vnto the, shal dryue the out off the borders off thyne owne londe. They that be now at one with the, shal disceaue the, and ouercome ye: Eue they that eate thy bred, shall betraye the, or euer thou perceaue it.

8 Shal not I at the same tyme destroye the wyse men of Edom, ad those that haue vnderstandinge, from the mount of Esau?

9 Thy giantes (o Theman) shalbe afrayed, for thorow the slaughter they shalbe all ouer throwne vpon the mout of Esau.

10 Shame shal come vpon the, for ye malice that thou shewedest to thy brother Iacob: yee for euermore shalt thou perish, 11 & that because of the tyme, when thou didest set thyself agaynst him, euen when the enemies caried awaye his hoost, and when the aleauntes came in at his portes, and cast lottes vpon Ierusalem, and thou thyself wast as one of them.

12 Thou shalt nomore se the daye of thy brother, thou shalt nomore beholde the tyme of his captiuyte: thou shalt nomore reioyse ouer the children of Iuda, in the daye of their destruccion, thou shalt tryumphe nomore in the tyme of their trouble.

13 Thou shalt nomore come in at the gates off my people, in the tyme of their decaye: thou shalt not se their mysery in the daye of their fall. Thou shalt sende out no man agaynst their hoost, in the daye of their aduersite:

14 nether shalt thou stode waytinge enymore at ye corners of the stretes, to murthur such as are fled, or to take them presoners, that remayne in the daye of their trouble.

15 For the daye off the LORDE is harde by vpon all Heithen. Like as thou hast done, so shalt thou be dealte withall, yee thou shalt be rewarded euen vpon thine heade.

16 For like wyse as ye haue droncken vpon myne holy hill, so shal all heithen dryncke continually: yee dryncke shall they, and swalowe vp, so that ye shall be, as though ye had neuer bene.

17 But vpon the mount Sion, there shall a remnaunt escape: these shalbe holy, and the house of Iacob shal possesse euen those, that had them selues afore in possessio.

18 Morouer, the house of Iacob shalbe a fyre, the house of Ioseph a flame, & the house of Esau shalbe the strawe: which they shal kyndle and cosume, so that nothinge shalbe left of the house of Esau, for the LORDE himself hath sayde it.

19 They of the south shal haue the mount of Esau in possession: and loke what lieth vpon the grounde, that shal the Philistynes haue: the playne feldes shal Ephraim and Samaria possesse: and the mountaynes of Galaad shal Ben Iamin haue.

20 And this hoost shalbe the childre of Israels presoners: Now what so lieth from Canaan vnto Sarphad, and in Sepharad, that shal be vnder the subieccion of Ierusalem: and the cities of the south shall enheret it.

21 Thus they that escape vpon the hill off Sion, shall go vp to punysh the mount off Esau, and the kyngdome shalbe the LORDES.

JONAH

Chapter 1

1 The worde of the LORDE came vnto Ionas the sonne of Amithai, sayenge:

2 Aryse, and get the to Niniue that greate cite: and preach vnto them, how yt their wickednesse is come vp before me.

3 And Ionas made him ready to fle vnto Tharsis from the presence of the LORDE, and gat him downe to Ioppa: where he founde a shippe ready for to go vnto Tharsis. So he payde his fare, and wente aborde, that he might go with them vnto Tharsis from the presence of the LORDE.

4 But the LORDE hurled a greate wynde in to the see, and there was a mightie tempest in the see: so that the shippe was in ioperdy of goinge in peces.

5 Then the maryners were afrayde, and cried euery man vnto his god: and the goodes that were in the shippe, they cast in to the see, to lighten it off them. But Ionas gat him vnder ye hatches, where he layed him downe and slombred.

6 So the master of the shippe came to him and sayde vnto him: why slomberest thou? Vp, call vpon thy God: yf God (happly) wil thinke vpon vs, that we peryshe not.

7 And they sayde one to another: come, let vs cast lottes: that we maye knowe, for whose cause we are thus troubled. And so they cast lottes, and the lot fell vpon Ionas.

8 The sayde they vnto him: tell vs, for whose cause are we thus troubled? what is thine occupacion? whence comest thou? what countre man art thou, and of what nacion?

9 He answered them: I am an Ebrue, and I feare the LORDE God of heauen, which made both the see and drie londe.

10 Then were ye men exceedingly afrayed, & sayde vnto him: why didest thou so? (for they knewe, that he was fled from the presence of the LORDE, because he had tolde them)

11 and sayde morouer vnto him: What shall we do vnto the, that the see maye ceasse from troublinge vs? (for the see wrought and was troublous)

12 he answered them: Take me, and cast me in to the see, so shal it let you be in rest: for I wote, it is for my sake, that this greate tempest is come vpon you.

13 Neuerthelesse, the men assayed with rowinge, to brynge the shippe to lode: but it wolde not be, because the see wrought so, & was so troublous agaynst them.

14 Wherefore they cried vnto the LORDE, and sayde: O LORDE, let vs not perish for this mans death, nether laye thou innocent bloude vnto oure charge: for thou (o LORDE) hast done, euen as thy pleasure was.

15 So they toke Ionas, and cast him in to the see, and the see lefte ragynge.

16 And the men feared the LORDE exceedingly, doynge sacrifices ad makynge voves vnto the LORDE.

17 Bvt the LORDE prepared a greate fyshe, to swallow vp Ionas. So was Ionas in the bely of the fyshe, thre dayes and thre nightes.

Chapter 2

1 And Ionas prayed vnto the LORDE his God, out of the fysshes bely,

2 and sayed: In my trouble I called vnto ye LORDE, and he herde me: out off the bely off hell I cried, and thou herdest my voyce.

3 Thou haddest cast me downe depe in ye midst off the see, and the floude compased me aboute: yee all thy wawes and rowles of water went ouer me,

4 I thought that I had bene cast awaye out of thy sight: but I wil yet agayne loke towarde thy holy temple.

5 The waters compased me, euen to the very soule: the depe laye aboute me, and the wedes were wrapte aboute myne heade.

6 I wente downe to the botome of the hilles, & was barred in with earth for euer. But thou (o LORDE my God) hast brought vp my lyfe agayne out of corrupcion.

7 When my soule faynted within me, I thought vpon the LORDE: and my prayer came in vnto the, euen in to thy holy temple.

8 They that holde of vayne vanyties, wil forsake his mercy.

9 But I wil do the sacrifice with the voyce of thankesgeuyng, and wil paye that I haue vowed: for why? saluacion commeth of the LORDE.

10 And ye LORDE spake vnto ye fyshe, and it cast out Ionas agayne vpon the drie londe.

Chapter 3

1 Then came the worde of the LORDE vnto Ionas agayne, sayenge:

2 vp, and get the to Niniue that greate cite, & preach vnto them the preachinge, which I bade the.

3 So Ionas arose, and wente to Niniue the LORDES commaundement. Niniue was a greate cite vnto God, namely, off thre dayes iourney.

4 And Ionas wente to, and entred in to ye cite: euen a dayes iourney, and cried, sayenge: There are yet xl. dayes, and then shal Niniue be ouerthrown.

5 And the people of Niniue beleued God, and proclaimed fastinge, and arayed them selues in sack cloth, as well the greate as the small of them.

6 And the tydinges came vnto ye kinge of Niniue, which arose out off his seate, and dyd his apparell off, and put on sack cloth, and sate him downe in asshes.

7 And it was cried and commaunded in Niniue, by the auctorite of the kige and his lordes, sayenge: se that nether man or beest, oxe or shepe taist ought at all: and that they nether fede ner drinke water:

8 but put on sack cloth both man and beest, and crye mightely vnto God: yee se that euery man turne fro his euell waye, and from the wickednesse, yt he hath in honde.

9 Who can tell? God maye turne, and repete, and cease from his fearece wrath, that we perish not.

10 And when God sawe their workes, how they turned from their wicked wayes: he repented on the euell, which he sayde he wolde do vnto them, and dyd it not.

Chapter 4

1 Wherefore Ionas was sore discontet, and angrie.

2 And he prayed vnto the LORDE, and sayde: O LORDE, was not this my sayenge (I praye the) when I was yet in my countre? therefore I haisted rather to fle vnto Tharsis, for I knowe well ynough that thou art a mercifull God, full of compassion, loge sufferinge, and of greate kyndnesse, and repentest when thou shuldest take punyshment.

3 And now o LORDE, take my life from me (I beseke the) for I had rather dye then lyue.

4 Then sayde the LORDE: art thou so angrie?

5 And Ionas gat him out of the cite, and sat downe on ye east syde therof: and there made him a bothe, and sat vnder it in the shadow, till he might se, what shulde chaunce vnto the cite.

6 And the LORDE God prepared a wylde vyne, which sprange vp ouer Ionas, that he might haue shadowe aboute his heade, to deluyer him out of his payne. And Ionas was exceadinge glad of the wylde vyne.

7 But vpo the nexte morow agaynst the springe of the daye, the LORDE ordered a worme, which smote the wylde vyne, so that it withered awaye.

8 And when the Sone was vp God prepared a feruent east wynde: and the Sonne bete ouer the heade of Ionas, that he faynted agayne, and wyshed vnto his soule, that he might dye, and sayde: It is better for me to dye, the to lyue.

9 And God sayd vnto Ionas: Art thou so angrie for the wylde vyne? And he sayde: yee very angrie am I euen vnto the deeth.

10 And the LORDE sayde: thou hast compassion vpon a wylde vyne, whero thou bestowdest no labour, ner maydest it growe: which sprange vp in one night and perished in another:

11 And shulde not I then haue compassion vpon Ninieue that greate cite, wherin there are aboute an C. and xx. thousande personnes, yt knowe not their right hode fro the lefte, besydes moch cattell?

MICAH

Chapter 1

1 This is the worde of the LORDE, that came vnto Micheas the Morastite, in the dayes of Ioathan, Achas and Ezechias kiges of Iuda: which was shewed him vpon Samaria and Ierusalem.

2 Heare all ye people, marcke this well o earth, and all that therin is: Yee the LORDE God himself be witness amonge you, euen ye LORDE from his holy temple.

3 For why? beholde, the LORDE shal go out of his place, & come downe, and treade vpon the hie thinges of the earth.

4 The moutaynes shall consume vnder him, & the valleys shal cleue asunder: like as wax cosumeth at the fyre, & as ye waters runne downward.

5 And all this shalbe for the wickednesse of Iacob, and the synnes of the house of Israel. But what is the wickednesse of Iacob? Is not Samaria? Which are the hie places of Iuda? Is not Ierusalem?

6 Therefore I shall make Samaria an heape of stones in the felde, to laye aboute the vnyarde: hir stones shal I cast in to the valley, & discouer hir foudacios.

7 All hir ymages shalbe broke downe & all hir wynnynges shal be brent in the fyre: yee all hir Idols will I destroye: for why, they are gathered out of the hyre of an whore, & in to an whores hyre shal they be turned agayne.

8 Wherefore I wil mourne & make lamentacion, bare & naked will I go: I must mourne like ye dragos, & take sorow as ye Estriches:

9 For their woude is past remedy: And why? it is come in to Iuda, & hath touched ye porte of my people at Ierusalem allredy.

10 Wepe not, lest they at Geth perceau it. Thou at Betaphra, welter thy self in the dust and asshes.

11 Thou that dwellest at Sephir, get the hence with shame. The proude shall boost nomore for very sorowe: & why? hir neghboure shall take from her what she hath.

12 The rebellious cite hopeth, that it shal not be so euell: but for all that, the plage shal come from the LORDE, euen in to the porte of Ierusalem.

13 The greate noyse off the charettes shall feare them, that dwell at Lachis, which is an occasion of ye synne of ye daughter of Sion, for in the came vp the wickednesses of Israel.

14 Yee she sent hir coursers in to the londe of Geth. The houses of lies will disceau the kynges of Israel.

15 And as for the (o thou that dwellest at Morassa) I shal brynge a possessor vpon the, ad the plage of Israel shal reach vnto Odolla.

16 Make the balde, and shaue the, because of thy tender children: Make the cleane balde as an Aegle, for they shalbe caried awaye captiue from the.

Chapter 2

1 Wo vnto them, that ymagyn to do harme, and deuise vngraciousnesse vpon their beddes, to perfourme it in ye cleare daye: for their power is agaynst God.

2 When they covet to haue londe, they take it by violence, they robbe men off their houses. Thus they oppresse a ma for his house, & euery man for his heretage.

3 Therefore thus sayeth the LORDE: Beholde, agaynst this housholde haue I deuyed a plage, wherout ye shal not plucke youre neckes: Ye shal nomore go so proudly, for it will be a perlous tyme.

4 In that daye shall this terme be vsed, and a mournynge shal be made ouer you on this maner: We be vtterly desolate, the porcion off my people is translated. Whan will he parte vnto vs the londe, that he hath taken from vs?

5 Neuerthelesse there shalbe noman to deuide the thy porcion, in the congregacion off the LORDE.

6 Tush, holde youre tunge (saye they) It shall not fall vpon this people, we shall not come so to confucion,

7 sayeth the house off Iacob. Is the sprete off the LORDE so clene awaye? or is he so mynded? Treuth it is, my wordes are frendly vnto them that lyue right:

8 but my people doth the contrary, therfore must I take parte agaynst them: for they take awaye both cote and cloke from the symple. Ye haue turned youre selues to fight,

9 the women off my people haue ye shot out fro their good houses, and taken awaye my excellent giftes from their children.

10 Vp, get you hence, for here shall ye haue no rest. Because off their Idolatry they are corrupte, and shall miserably perish.

11 Yff I were a fleshly felowe, and a preacher of lyes and tolde them that they might syt bebbinge and bollynge, and be droncken: O that were a prophet for this people.

12 But I will gather the indede (o Iacob) and dryue the remnaunt off Israel all together. I shall cary them one with another, as a flocke in the folde, and as the cattell in their stalles, that they maye be disquieted of other men.

13 Who so breaketh the gappe, he shall go before. They shall breake vp the porte, and go in and out at it. Their kyng shall go before them, and the LORDE shalbe vpon the heade of them.

Chapter 3

1 Heare, o ye heades of the house of Iacob, and ye leders of the house of Israel: Shulde not ye knowe, what were lauffull and right?

2 But ye hate the good, and loue the euell: ye plucke of mens skynnes, and the flesh from their bones:

3 Ye eate the flesh of my people, ad flay of their skynne: ye breake their bones, ye choppe them in peces as it were in to a cauldron, ad as flesh into a pot.

4 Now the tyme shall come, that when they call vnto the LORDE, he shall not heare them, but hyde his face from them: because that thorow their owne ymaginacios, they haue dealte so wickedly.

5 And as concernynge the prophetes that disceau my people, thus the LORDE sayeth agaynst them: When they haue eny thinge to byte vpon, then they preach that all shalbe well: but yf a man put not some thinge in to their mouthes, they preach of warre agaynst him.

6 Therefore youre vision shalbe turned to night, & youre prophecynge to darcknesse. The Sonne shall go downe ouer those prophetes, & the daye shalbe darcke vnto them.

7 Then shall the vision seers be ashamed, & ye saythsayers confounded: yee they shalbe fayne (all the packe of the) to stoppe their mouthes, for they haue not Gods worde.

8 As for me, I am full of strength, & of ye sprete of ye LORDE, full of iudgment & boldnesse: to shewe the house of Iacob their wickednesse, & the house of Israel their synne.

9 O heare this ye rulers of the house of Iacob, and ye iudges of the house off Israel: ye that abhorre the thinge that is lauffull, and wraist asyde the thinge that is straight:

10 Ye that buylde vp Sion with bloude, and Ierusalem with doynge wronge.

11 O ye iudges, ye geue sentence for giftes: O ye preastes, ye teach for lucre: O ye prophetes, ye prophecy for money. Yet wil they be take as those that holde vpon God, and saye: Is not the LORDE amonge vs? Tush, there can no misfortune happen vs.

12 Therefore shal Sion (for youre sakes) be plowed like a felde: Ierusalem shal become an heape of stones, and the hill off ye temple shal be turned to an hye wodde.

Chapter 4

1 But in the latter dayes it wil come to passe, that the hill off the LORDES house shalbe set vp hyer the eny moutaynes or hilles: Yee the people shall preese vnto it,

2 and the multitude off the Gentiles shal haist them thither, sayege: Come, let vs go vp to the hill of the LORDE, & to the house of the God of Iacob: that he maye teach vs his waye, and that we maye walke in his pathes. For the lawe shall come out off Sion, ad the worde of God from Ierusalem,

3 and shall geue sentence amonge the multitude off the Heithen, and reforme the people off farre coutrees: so that of their swerdes they shal make plowshares, and sythes off their speares. One people shall not lift vp a swerde agaynst another, yee they shall nomore lerne to fight:

4 but euery man shal syt vnder his vinyarde and vnder his fyge tre, and no man to fraye him awaye: for the mouth off ye LORDE of hoostes hath spoken it.

5 Therefore, where as all people haue walked euery man in ye name of his owne god, we will walke in the name of oure God for euer and euer.

6 At the same tyme (sayeth the LORDE) will I gather vp the lame and the outcastes, and soch as I haue chastened:

7 and will geue yssue vnto the lame, and make of ye outcastes a greate people: and the LORDE himself shal be their kyng vpon the mount Sion, fro this tyme forth for euermore.

8 And vnto the (O thou tower of Eder, thou stronge holde off the daughter Sion) vnto the shal it come: eue the first lordshipe and kyngdome of the daughter Ierusalem.

9 Why the art thou now so heuy? is there no kyng in the? are thy counclers awaye that thou art so payned, as a woman in hir trauayle?

10 And now (o thou daughter Sion) be sory, let it greue the as a wife laboringe with childe: for now must thou get the out off the cite, and dwell vpon the playne felde: Yee vnto Babilo shalt thou go, there shalt thou be deluyered, and there the LORDE shal lowse the from the honde off thine enemies.

11 Now also are there many people gathered together agaynst the, sayenge: what, Sion is cursed, we shall se oure lust vpon her.

12 But they knowe not the thoughtes off the LORDE, they vnderstonde not his counsell, that shall gather them together as the sheeues in the barne.

13 Therefore get the vp (o thou daughter Sion) and throshe out the corne: For I wil make thy horne yron, and thy clawes brasse, that thou mayest grynde many people: their goodes shalt thou appropriate vnto the LORDE, and their substaunce vnto the ruler off the whole worlde.

Chapter 5

1 After that shalt thou be robbed thy selff, o thou robbers daughter: they shal laye sege agaynst vs, and smyte the iudge off Israel with a rodde vpon the cheke.

2 And thou Bethleem Ephrata, art litle amonge the thousandes off Iuda, Out off the shal come one vnto me, which shall be ye gouernoure i Israel: whose outgoinge hath bene from the begynnyng, and from euerlastinge.

3 In the meane whyle he plageth them for a season, vntill the tyme that she (which shall beare) haue borne: then shall the remnaunt of his brethren be conuerted vnto ye children of Israel.

4 He shal stonde fast, and geue fode in the strength of the LORDE, and in the victory of the name of ye LORDE his God: and when they be conuerted, he shall be magnified vnto the farthest partes of the worlde.

5 Then shal there be peace, so that the Assirian maye come in to oure londe, and treade in oure houses. We shall brynge vp seven shepherdes and viij. prynces vpo them:

6 these shal subdue the londe of Assur wt the swerde, and the londe of Nymrod with their naked weapons. Thus shal he delyuer vs from the Assiria, when he commeth within oure lande, and setteth his fote within oure borders.

7 And the remnaunt of Iacob shal be amonge the multitude of people, as the dew of the LORDE, and as the droppes vpon the grasse, that tarieth for no man, and waiteth of no body.

8 Yee the residue of Iacob shalbe amonge the Gentiles and the multitude off people, as the lyon amonge the beestes of ye wodde, and as the lyons whelp amonge a flocke of shepe: which (when he goeth thorow) treadeth downe, teareth in peces, and there is no man that can helpe.

9 Thyne honde shalbe lift vp vpon thine enemies, and all thine aduersaries shal perish.

10 The tyme shal come also (sayeth the LORDE) that I wil take thine horses from the, & destroye thy charettes.

11 I will breake downe the cities off thy londe, and ouerthrewe all thy stronge holdes.

12 All witchcraftes will I rote out of thyne hande, there shall no mo soithsayenges be within the.

13 Thine Idols and thyne ymages will I destroye out of ye so that thou shalt nomore bowe thy self vnto the workes of thyne owne hondes.

14 Thy groues wil I plucke vp by the rotes, & breake downe thy cities.

15 Thus will I be aueged also, vpon all Heithen that will not heare.

Chapter 6

1 Herken now what the LORDE sayeth: Vp, reprove the mountaynes, and let the hilles heare thy voyce.

2 O Heare the punyshment of the LORDE, ye mountaynes, and ye mightie foundacios of ye earth: for the LORDE wil reprove his people, ad reason with Israel:

3 O my people, what haue I done vnto the? or wherin haue I hurte the? geue me answer.

4 Because I brought the fro the londe of Egipte, and delyuered the out of the house of bondage? Because I made Moses, Aaron and Miriam to lede the?

5 Remembre (o my people) what Balach the kynge of Moab had ymaged agaynst the, ad what answer that Balaam the sonne of Beor gaue him, from Sethim vnto Galgal: yt ye maye knowe the louynge kyndnesses of ye LORDE.

6 What acceptable thyng shal I offre vnto the LORDE? shall I bowe mykne to the hye God? Shal I come before him wt brentofferings, and with calues of a yeare olde?

7 Hath the LORDE a pleasure in many thousand rammes, or innumerable streames of oyle? Or shal I geue my firstborne for myne offences, and the frute of my body for the synne of my soule?

8 I wil shewe the (O ma) what is good, and what the LORDE requyeth off the: Namely, to do right, to haue pleasure in louynge kyndnesse, to be lowly, and to walke with thy God:

9 that thou mayest be called a cite of the LORDE, & that thy name maye be righteousnesse. Heare (o ye trybes) who wolde els geue you soch warnynge?

10 Shulde I not be displeased, for the vnrightuous good in the houses of the wicked, and because the measure is minished?

11 Or shulde I iustfie the false balaunces and the bagge of disceatfull weightes, 12 amonge those that be full off riches vnrightuously gotten: where the citesyns deale with falsede, speake lyes, and haue disceatfull tungen in their mouthes?

13 Therefore I will take in honde to punysh the, and to make the desolate, because of thy synnes.

14 Thou shalt eate, & not haue ynough: yee thou shalt bringe thy self downe. Thou shalt fle, but not escape: ad those yt thou woldest saue, wil I delyuer to the swerde.

15 Thou shalt sowe, but not reape: thou shalt presse out olyues, but oyle shalt thou not haue, to anynte thy self withall: thou shalt treade out swete must, but shalt drynke no wyne.

16 Ye kepe the ordinaunces of Amri, & all the customes of the house of Achab: ye folowe their pleasures, therefore wil I make the waist, & cause yi inhabiters to be abhorred, O my people: & thus shalt thou beare thine owne shame.

Chapter 7

1 Wo is me: I am become as one, that goeth a gleenynge in the haruest. There are no mo grapes to eate, yet wolde I fayne (with all my herte) haue of the best frute.

2 There is not a godly man vpo earth, there is not one righteous amoge me. They labour all to shed bloude, & euery ma hunteth his brother to death:

3 yet they saye they do well, when they do euell. As the prince wil, so sayeth the iudge: yt he maye do him a pleasure agayne. The greate ma speaketh what his herte desyret, & ye hearers alowe him.

4 The best off the is but as a thistle, and the most righteous of them is but as a brere in the hedge But when the daye of thy preachers commeth, yt thou shalt be vysited: the shal they be waisted a waye. 5 Let no man beleue his frende, ner put his confidece in a prince. Kepe the porte of thy mouth, from her yt lieth in thy bosome:

6 for ye sonne shal put his father to dishonoure, the daughter shal ryse agaynst her mother, ye daughter in lawe agaynst hir mother in lawe: and a mans foes shalbe euen they of his owne housholde.

7 Neuertheless I wil loke vp vnto ye LORDE, I wil patiently abyde God my sauioure: my God shal heare me.

8 O thou enemye of myne, reioyce not at my fall, for I shal get vp agayne: and though I syt in darcknesse, yet ye LORDE is my light.

9 I will beare the punishment of the LORDE (for why, I haue offended him) till he syt in iudgment vpon my cause, and se that I haue right. He wil bringe me forth to the light, and I shal se his righteousnesse.

10 She that is myne enemy shall loke vpon it, & be confounded, which now saith: Where is thy LORDE God? Myne eyes shal beholde her, when she shalbe troden downe, as the claye in the stretes.

11 The tyme wil come, that thy gappes shal be made vp, and the lawe shal go abrode:

12 and at that tyme shal they come vnto the, from Assur vnto the stroge cities, and from the stronge cities vnto the ryuer: from the one see to the other, from the one mountayne to the other.

13 Not wt standinge the londe must be waisted, because of them that dwell therein, and for the frutes of their owne ymaginacions.

14 Therefore fede thy people with thy rodde, the flocke of thine heretage which dwell desolate in the wodde: that they maye be fedde vpon the mount of Charmel, Basan & Galaad as afore tyme. 15 Maruelous things will I shewe them, like as when they came out of Egipte.

16 This shal the Heithen se, and be a?shamed for all their power: so that they shal laye their honde vpon their mouth, and stoppe their eares.

17 They shal lick the dust like a serpent, & as the wormes of the earth, yt tremble in their holes. They shalbe afrayed of the LORDE oure God, & they shal feare ye.

18 Where is there soch a God as thou? that pardonest wickednes, and forgeuest the offences of the remnaunt of thine heretage? He kepeth not his wrath for euer. And why? his delyte is to haue compassion:

19 he shal turne agayne, & be mercyfull to vs: he shal put downe oure wickednesses, & cast all oure synnes in to the botome of the see.

20 Thou shalt kepe thy trust with Iacob, and thy mercy for Abraham, like as thou hast sworne vnto oure fathers longe agoo.

NAHUM

Chapter 1

1 This is the heuy burthen of Niniue, which Naum of Elchos dyd wryte, as he sawe it.

2 The LORDE is a gelous God, and a taker of vengeance: yee a taker of vegeaunce is ye LORDE, and wrothfull. The LORDE taketh vengeance of his enemies, and reserueth displeasure for his aduersaries.

3 The LORDE suffreth longe, he is of greate power, & so innocent, that he leaueh no man faultlesse before him. The LORDE goeth forth in tempest and stormy wether, the cloudes are the dust of his fete.

4 Whe he reproueth the see, he dryeth it vp, & turneth all the floudes to drye londe. Basan is desolate, Charmel and the pleasure of Libanus waisteth awaye.

5 The mountaynes tremble for him, the hilles consume. At the sight of him, the earth quaketh: yee the whole worlde, and all that dwell therein.

6 Who maye endure before his wrath? Or who is able to abyde his grymme displeasure? His anger taketh on like fyre, and the harde rockes burst in sunder before him.

7 Ful gracious is the LORDE, and a stronge holde in tyme of trouble, he knoweth the that put their trust in him:

8 when the floude renneth ouer, and destroyeth the place, and when the darcknesse foloweth still vpon his enemies.

9 What do ye ymagin then agaynst the LORDE on this maner? (Tush, when he hath once made an ende, there shal come nomore trouble.)

10 For like as the thornes that sticke together, and as the drye strawe, so shal the dronckardes be consumed together, euen when they be full.

11 There come out of ye such as ymagin myschefe, and geue vngracious counsell agaynst the LORDE.

12 Therefore thus saieith the LORDE: Let the be as wel prepared, yee and as many as they can, yet shal they be hewen downe, and passe awaye. And as for the, I wil vex the, but not vtterly destroie the.

13 And now wil I breake his rodde from thy backe, and burst thy bondes in sonder.

14 But the LORDE hath geuen a commaundement cocernynge the, that there shall come nomore sede of thy name. The carued and casten ymages will I rote out of the house of thy god. Thy graue shal I prepare for the, and thou shalt be confounded.

15 Beholde, vpon the mountaynes come the fete of him, that bryngeth good tydings, & preacheth peace. O Iuda, kepe thy holy dayes, perfourme thy promyses: for Belial shal come no more in the, he is vtterly roted out.

Chapter 2

1 The scaterer shal come vp agaynst the, & laye sege to the castell. Loke thou wel to the stretes, make thy loynes stronge, arme thy self with all thy myght:

2 for the LORDE shal restore agayne the glory of Iacob, like as ye glory of Israel. The destroyers haue broken them downe, & marred the wyne braunches.

3 The shyld of his giauntes glistereith, his men of warre are clothed in purple. His charettes are as fyre, when he maketh him forwarde, his archers are wel deckte & trimmed.

4 The charettes rolle vpon the stretes, & welter in the hye wayes. They are to loke vpon like cressettes of fyre, and go swyftly, as the lightenynge.

5 When he doth but warne his giauntes, they fall in their araye, & haistely they clymme vp the walles: yee the engyns of the warre are prepared all ready.

6 The water portes shal be opened, and the kinges palace shall fall.

7 The quene hir self shal be led awaye captiue, and hir gentilwomen shal mourne as the doues, & grone within their hertes.

8 Ninieue is like a pole full of water, but then shal they be fayne to fle. Stonde, stode, (shal they crie) & there shal not one turne backe.

9 Awaye with the syluer, awaye with the golde: for here is no ende of treasure. There shalbe a multitude of all maner costly ornaments.

10 Thus must she be spoyled, emptied & clene striped out: that their hertes maye be melted awaye, their knees treble, all their loynes be weake, and their faces blacke as a pot.

11 Where is now the dwellinge of the lyos, and the pasture of the lyons whelpes? where the lyon and the lyonnesse wente with the whelpes, and no man frayed them awaye?

12 But the lyon spoyled ynough for his yonge ones, and deuoured for his lyonnesse: he fylled his dennes with his pray, & his dwellinge place with that he had rauy?shed.

13 Beholde, I wil vpon the (saieth the LORDE of hoostes) and wil set fyre vpon thy charettes, that they shal smoke withall, and the swerde shal deuoure thy yonge lyons. I wil make an ende of thy spoylinge from out of the earth, & the voyce of thy messaungers shall nomore be herde.

Chapter 3

1 Wo to that bloudthursty cite, which is all full of lyes and robbery, & wil not leaue of from rauy?shinge.

2 There a man maye heare scourginge, ru?shinge, the noyse of the wheles, the crienge of the horses, & the rollinge of the charettes.

3 There the horse men get vp with naked swerdes, and glisterynge speares: There lyeth a multitude slayne, and a greate heape of deed bodies: There is no ende of deed coarses, yee men fall vpon their bodies:

4 And that for the greate and manyfolde whordome, of the fayre and beutifull harlot: which is a mastresse of wychcraft, yee and selleth the people thorow hir whordome, and the nacions thorow hir wychcraft.

5 Beholde, I wil vpon the (saieth the LORDE of hoostes) and wil pull thy clothes ouer thy heade: that I maye shewe thy nakednes amonge the Heithen, and thy shame amonge the kingdomes.

6 I wil cast dyrte vpon ye, to make the be abhorred, and a gasyng stocke:

7 Yee all they that loke vpon the, shal starte backe, & saye: Ninieue is destroyed. Who wil haue pyte vpo the? where shal I seke one to conforte the?

8 Art thou better then the greate cite of Alexandria? that laye in the waters, and had the waters rounde aboute it: which was strongly fenced & walled with the see?

9 Ethiopia and Egipte were hir strength, & that exceadinge greate aboue measure. Aphrica and Lybia were hir helpers,

10 yet was she dryuen awaye, & brought in to captiuyte: hir yonge children were smytten downe at the heade of euery strete, the lottes were cast for the most awncient men in her, and all hir mightie men were bounde in chaynes.

11 Euen so shalt thou also be droncken, and hyde thy self, and seke some helpe agaynst thine enemy.

12 All thy stronge cities shal be like fyge trees wt rype fyges: which whe a ma shaketh, they fall in to the mouth of the eater.

13 Beholde, thy people with in the are but women: the portes of thy londe shal be opened vnto thine enemies, and the fyre shal deuoure yi barres.

14 Drawe water now agaynst thou be beseged, make vp thy stroge holdes, go into the claye, tempre the mortar, make stronge bricke:

15 yet the fyre shal consume the, the swerde shal destroye the, yee as ye locuste doth, so shal it eate the vp. It shal fall heuely vpon the as the locustes, yee right heuely shal it fall vpon the, euen as the greshoppers.

16 Thy marchauntes haue bene mo then the starres of heaue: but now shal they sprede abrode as the locustes, and fle their waye:

17 Thy lordes are as the greshoppers, & thy captaynes as the multitude of greshoppers: which whe they be colde, remayne in ye hedges: but when the Sonne is vp, they fle awaye, and no ma can tell where they are become.

18 Thy shepherdes are aslepe (o kinge of Assur) thy worthies are layed downe: yi people is scatred abrode vpon the mountaynes, and no man gathereth them together agayne.

19 Thy wounde can not be hyd, thy plage is so sore. All they that heare this of the, shall clappe their handes ouer the. For what is he, to who thou hast not allwaye bene doynge hurte?

HABAKKUK

Chapter 1

1 This is the heuy burthe, which the prophet Abacuc dyd se.

2 O LORDE, how longe shal I crie, & thou wilt not heare? How longe shall I complayne vnto the, suffryng wronge, and thou wilt not helpe?

3 Why letttest thou me se weerynesse and laboure? Tyrany and violence are before me, power ouergoeth right:

4 for the lawe is torne in peces, and there can no right iudgment go forth. And why? the vngodly is more set by then the rightuous: this is the cause, yt wronge iudgment procedeth.

5 Beholde amonge the Heithen, and loke wel: wondre at it, and be aba?shed: for I wil do a thinge in youre tyme, which though it be tolde you, ye shal not beleue.

6 For lo, I wil rase vp ye Caldees, that bytter and swifte people: which shal go as wyde as the londe is, to take possession of dwellinge places, that be not their owne.

7 A grymme & boysteous people is it, these shal syt in iudgment & punyshe.

8 Their horses are swifter then the cattles of the mountayne, & byte sorer then ye wolues in ye euenynge. Their horsmen come by greate heapes from farre, they fle hastely to deour as the Aegle.

9 They come all to spoyle: out of them commeth an east wynde, which bloweth and gathereth their captiuyes, like as the sonde.

10 They shall mocke the kinges, and laugh the prynces to scorne. They shal not set by eny stronge holde, for they shal laye ordinaunce agaynst it, and take it.

11 Then shal they take a fresh corage vnto them, to go forth & to do more euell, & so ascrybe that power vnto their God.

12 But thou o LORDE my God, my holy one, thou art from the begynnynge, therefore shal we not dye. O LORDE, thou hast ordered them for a punyshmet, and set them to reprove the mightie.

13 Thine eyes are clene, thou mayest not se euell, thou canst not beholde ye thinge that is wicked. Wherefore then dost thou loke vpon the vngodly, and holdest thy tunge, when the wicked deuoureth the man that is better the himself?

14 Thou makest men as the fish in the see, and like as the crepinge beestes, that haue no gyde.

15 They take vp all with their angle, they catch it in their net, & gather it in their yarne: wherof they reioyce and are glad.

16 Therefore offre they vnto their net, and do sacrifice vnto their yarne: because that thorow it their porcion is become so fat, and their meate so pleteous.

17 Wherefore they cast out their net agayne, & neuer ceasse to slaye the people.

Chapter 2

1 I stode vpon my watch, and set me vpon my bulworke, to loke & se what he wolde saye vnto me, and what answer I shulde geue him yt reproueth me.

2 But the LORDE answered me, and sayde: Wryte the vision planely vpon thy tables, that who so commeth by, maye rede it:

3 for ye visio is yet farre of for a tyme, but at ye last it shal come to passe, & not fayle. And though he tary, yet wait thou for him, for in very dede he wil come, and not be slacke.

4 Beholde, who so wil not beleue, his soule shal not prospere: but the iust shal lyue by his faith.

5 Like as the wyne disceaueth the dronckarde, euen so the proude shal fayle & not endure. He openeth his desyre wyde vp as the hell, & is as vnsaciab as death. All Heithen gathereth he to him, & heapeith vnto him all people.

6 But shall not all these take vp a prouerbe agaynst him, and mocke him with a byworde, and saye: Wo vnto him that heapeith vp other mens goodes? How longe wil he lade himself with thicke claye?

7 O how sodenly wil they stonde vp, yt shal byte the, & awake, that shal teare ye in peces? yee thou shalt be their pray.

8 Seinge thou hast spoyled many Heithen, therefore shall the remnaunt of the people spoyle the: because of mens bloude, & for the wronge done in the londe, in the cite & vnto all them that dwel therin.

9 Wo vnto him, that couetously gathereth euell gotten goodes in to his house: that he maye set his nest an hye, to escape from the power of mysfortune.

10 Thou hast deuysed ye shame of thine owne house, for thou hast slayne to much people, and hast wilfully offended:

11 so that the very stones of the wall shall crie out of it, and the tymbre that lieth betwixte the ioyntes of the buydinge shall answeere.

12 Wo vnto him, yt buyldeth the towne with bloude, and maynteneth ye cite with vnrightuousnes.

13 Shal not the LORDE of hoostes bringe this to passe, that the laboures of the people shal be brent with a greate fyre, and that the thinge wher vpon the people haue weered them selues, shall be lost?

14 For the earth shalbe full of knowlege of the LORDES honoure, like as the waters that couer the see.

15 Wo vnto him that geueth his neghboure dryncke, to get him wrothfull displeasure for his dronckenness: that he maye se his preytees.

16 Therefore with shame shalt thou be fylled, in steade of honoure. Dryncke thou also, till thou slombre withall: for the cuppe of the LORDES right hode shall compass the aboute, and shamefull spewing in steade of thy worshippe.

17 For the wroge that thou hast done in Libanus, shal ouerwhelme the, and the wilde beastes shal make the afrayed: because of mens bloude, and for the wronge done in the londe, in the cite, and vnto all soch as dwel therein.

18 What helpe than wil ye ymage do, whom the workman hath fashioned? Or the vayne cast ymage, wherin because the craftsman putteth his trust, therefore maketh he domme Idols?

19 Wo vnto him, that saieth to a pece of wod: arise, and to a domme stone: stonde vp. For what instruccio maye soch one geue? Beholde, it is layed ouer with golde and syluer, & there is no breth in it.

20 But the LORDE in his holy teple is he, whom all the worlde shulde feare.

Chapter 3

1 A prayer of the prophet Abacuc for the ignoraunt.

2 O Lorde, when I herde speake of ye, I was afrayed. The worke yt thou hast taken in honde, shalt thou performe in his tyme, O LORDE: and when thy tyme commeth, thou shalt declare it. In thy very wrath thou thinkest vpon mercy.

3 God commeth from Theman, and the holy one from the mount of Pharan. Sela.

4 His glory couereth the heauens, and the earth is full of his prayse. His shyne is as ye sonne, & beames of light go out of his hondes, there is his power hid.

5 Destructio goeth before him, and burnynge cressettes go from his fete.

6 He stondesth, & measureth the earth: He loketh, & the people consume awaye, the moutaynes of ye worlde fall downe to powder, and the hilles are fayne to bowe them selues, for his goinges are euerlastinge and sure.

7 I sawe, that the paulions of the Morians and the tentes of the londe of Madian were vexed for weerynesse.

8 Wast thou not angrie (o LORDE) in the waters? was not thy wrath in the floudes, and thy displeasure in the see? yes, whe thou sattet vpon thine horse, and when thy charettes had the victory.

9 Thou shewdest thy bowe opely, like as thou haddest promised with an ooth vnto the trybes. Sela. Thou diddest deuyde the waters of the earth.

10 When the mountaynes saw the, they were afrayed, ye water streame wete awaye: the depe made a noyse at the liftinge vp of thine honde.

11 The Sonne and Mone remayned still in their habitacion. Thine arowes wente out glisteringe, and thy speares as the shyne of the lightenyng.

12 Thou trodest downe the londe in thine anger, and diddest throsshe the Heithen in thy displeasure.

13 Thou camest forth to helpe thy people, to helpe thine anoyned. Thou smotest downe the heade in the house of the vngodly, & discoueredest his fundacions, eue vnto ye necke of him. Sela.

14 Thou cursest his septers, the captayne of his men of warre: which come as a stormy wynde to scatere me abroad, & are glad when they maye eat vp ye poore secretly.

15 Thou makest a waye for thine horses in the see, euen in the mudde of greate waters.

16 Whe I heare this, my body is vexed, my lippes tremble at ye voyce therof, my bones corruppe, I am afrayed where I stonde. O that I might rest in the daye of trouble, that I might go vp vnto oure people, which are already prepared.

17 For the fyge trees shal not be grene, & the vynes shal beare no frute. The labour of ye olyue shalbe but lost, and the londe shall bringe no corne: the shepe shalbe taken out of ye folde, and there shalbe no catell in ye stalles.

18 But as for me, I wil be glad in the LORDE, and will reioyce in God my Sauioure.

19 The LORDE God is my strength, he shall make my fete as the fete of hertes: & he which geueth ye victory, shal bringe me to my hye places, synginge vpon my psalmes.

ZEPHANIAH

Chapter 1

1 This is the worde of the LORDE, which came vnto Sophony the sonne of Chusi, the sonne of Gedolias, the sonne of Amarias ye sonne of Hezechias: in the tyme of Iosias the sonne of Amon kinge of Iuda.

2 I will gather vp all thinges in the londe (saieth the LORDE)

3 I wil gather vp man and beest: I wil gather vp the foules in the ayre, and the fysh in the see (to the greate decaye of the wicked) & wil vtterly destroye the men out of the londe, saieth the LORDE.

4 I wil stretch out myne honde vpon Iuda, and vpon all soch as dwel at Ierusalem. Thus wil I rote out the remnaunt of Baal from this place, and the names of the Kemuryns and prestes:

5 yee & soch as vpon their house toppes worshippe & bowe them selues vnto the hoost of heauen: which sweare by the LORDE, and by their Malchom also:

6 which starte a backe from ye LORDE, and nether seke after the LORDE, ner regarde him.

7 Be still at ye presence of the LORDE God, for the daye of the LORDE is at honde: yee the LORDE hath prepared a slayne offeringe, and called his gestes therto.

8 And thus shall it happen in the daye of the LORDES a slaynofferynge: I wil vyset the prynces, the kinges children, & all soch as weere straunge clothinge.

9 In the same daye also wil I vyset all those, that treade ouer the thresholde so proudly, which fyll their lordes house wt robbery and falsede.

10 At ye same tyme (saieth the LORDE) there shall be herde a greate crie from the fyshporte, and an howlinge from ye other porte, and a greate murthur from the hilles.

11 Howle ye that dwel in the myll, for all the marchaunt people are gone, and all they that were laden with syluer, are roted out.

12 At the same tyme wil I seke thorow Ierusalem with lanternes, and vyset them that contynue in their dregges, and saye in their hertes: Tush, the LORDE wil do nether good ner euell.

13 Their goodes shalbe spoyled, and their houses layed waist. They shall buylde houses, and not dwel in them: they shal plante vynyardes, but not drynke the wyne therof.

14 For the greate daye of the LORDE is at honde, it is harde by, & commeth on a pace. Horrible is ye tydinges of the LORDES daye, then shall the giaunte crie out:

15 for that daye is a daye of wrath, a daye of trouble & heuynesse, a daye of vtter destructio & mysery, a darcke & glomyng daye, a cloudy & stormy daye, 16 a daye of the noyse of trompettes and shawmes, agaynst the stronge cities and hie towres.

17 I wil bringe ye people into soch vexacion, that they shal go aboute like blinde me, because they haue synned agaynst the LORDE. Their bloude shalbe shed as the dust, & their bodies as the myre.

18 Nether their syluer ner their golde shalbe able to delyuer the in that wrothfull daye of the LORDE, but the whole londe shalbe cosumed thorow the fyre of his reddyss: for he shall soone make clene reydance of all them that dwell in the londe.

Chapter 2

1 Come together and gather you, O ye frauwerde people:

2 or ye thinge go forth that is concluded, & or the tyme be passed awaye as the dust: or the fearfull wrath of the LORDE come vpon you,

3 yee or the daye of the LORDES sore displeasure come vpon you. Seke the LORDE all yee meke harted vpon earth, ye that worke after his iudgmet: seke rightuousnesse, seke lowlynesse: that ye maye be defended in the wrothfull daye of ye LORDE.

4 For Gaza shal be destroyed, & Ascalon shall be layed waist: They shal cast out A?dod at the noone daye, and Accaron shalbe pluckte vp by the rotes.

5 Wo vnto you yt dwel vpon the see coast, ye murthurous people: the worde of ye LORDE shal come vpon you. O Canaan thou londe of the Philistynes, I wil destroye the, so that there shal no man dwel in the eny more:

6 & as for the see coast, it shal be hyrdmennes cotages & shepe foldes:

7 yee it shalbe a porcion for soch as remayne of the house of Iuda, to fede ther vpon. In ye houses of Ascalon shal they rest towarde night: for the LORDE their God shal vyset the, & turne awaye their captyuite.

8 I haue herde the despite of Moab, & the blasphemies of the children of Ammon: how they haue shamefully intreated my people, and magnified them selues within the borders of their londe.

9 Therefore as truly as I lye (saieth the LORDE of hoostes the God of Israel) Moab shalbe as Sodome, & Ammon as Gomorra: euen drie thorne hedges, salt pittes and a perpetuall wyldernes. The residue of my folke shall spoyle them the remnaunt of my people shall haue them in possession.

10 This shal happen vnto them for their pryde, because they haue dealte so shamefully with the LORDE of hoostes people, and magnified them selues aboute them.

11 The LORDE shall be grymme vpon them, and destroye all the goddes in the londe. And all the Iles of the Heithen shal worshippe him, euery man in his place.

12 Ye Morias also shal perish with my swerde:

13 Yee he shall stretch out his honde ouer the north, and destroye Assur. As for Ninieue, he shal make it desolate, drye and waist.

14 The flockes and all the beastes of the people shall lye in the myddest of it, pellicanes and storckes shall abyde in the vpper postes of it, foules shal synge in the wyndowes, and rauens shal syt vpon the balckes, for the bordes of Cedre shalbe ryue downe.

15 This is the proude and carelesse cite, that sayde in hir herte: I am, and there is els none. O how is she made so waist, yt the beestes lye therein? Who so goeth by, mocketh her, and poynteth at her with his fynger.

Chapter 3

1 Wo to the abhominable, fylthie and cruel cite:

2 which wil not heare, ner be reformed. Hir trust is not in the LORDE, nether wil she holde her to hir God.

3 Hir rulers within her are as roaring Lyons: hir iudges are as wolues in the euenynge, which leaue nothinge behynde them till the morow.

4 Hir prophetes are light personnes and vn faithfull men: hir prestes vnhalowe the Sanctuary, and do wronge vnder the pretence of the lawe.

5 But the iust LORDE that doth no vnright, was amonge them, euey mornynge shewinge them his lawe clearly, and ceased not. But the vngodly will not lerne to be a?shamed.

6 Therefore wil I rote out this people, and destroye their towres: yee and make their stretes so voyde, that no man shall go therin. Their cities shall be broke downe, so that no body shal be left, ner dwell there eny more.

7 I sayde vnto them: O feare me, and be cotent to be reformed. That their dwellinge shulde not be destroyed, and that there shulde happen vnto them none of these thinges, wherwith I shal vset the. But neuertheles they stonde vp early, to folowe the filthynes of their owne ymaginacions.

8 Therefore ye shal waite vpon me (saieth the LORDE) vntill the tyme that I stonde vp: for I am determed, to gather the people and to bringe the kingdomes together, that I maye poure out myne anger, yee all my wrothfull displeasure vpon them. For all the worlde shalbe consumed with the fyre of my gelousy.

9 And then wil I clense the lippes of the people, that they maye euerychone call vpon the name of the LORDE, and serue him with one shulder.

10 Soch as I haue subdued, and my children also whom I haue scaterd abrode, shal brynge me presentes beyonde the waters of Ethiopia.

11 In that tyme shalt thou nomore be confounded, because of all thy ymaginacions, wher thorow thou haddest offended me: for I wil take awaye the proude boosters of thine honoure from the, so that thou shalt nomore tryumphe because of my holy hill.

12 In the also wil I leaue a smal poore symple people, which shal trust in the name of the LORDE.

13 The remnaunt of Israel shal do no wickednes, ner speake lyes: nether shal there eny disceatful tunge be founde in their mouthes. For they shal be fed, and take their rest, and no man shal make them afrayed.

14 Geue thanks o doughter Sio, be ioyful o Israel: reioyce & be glad from thy whole herte, o doughter Ierusalem,

15 for the LORDE hath taken awaye thy punyshment, and turned backe thine enemies. The kinge of Israel, euen the LORDE himself is with the: so that thou nedest nomore to feare eny my?fortune.

16 In that tyme it shall be sayed to Ierusalem: feare not, and to Sion: let not thine hondes be slacke, 17 for the LORDE thy God is with the, it is he that hath power to saue: he hath a special pleasure in the, and a maruelous loue toward the: yee he reioyseth ouer the wt gladnesse.

18 Soch as haue bene in heuynesse, wil I gather together, and take out of thy congregacion: as for the shame and reprofe that hath bene layed vpon the, it shal be farre from the.

19 And lo, in yt tyme wil I destroye all those that vex the: I wil helpe the lame, and gather vp the cast awaye: yee I wil get them honoure and prayse in all lodes, where they haue bene put to shame.

20 At ye same tyme wil I bringe you in, and at the same tyme wil I gather you. I wil get you a name and a good reporte, amonge all people of the earth, when I turne backe youre captiuyte before youre eyes, saieth the LORDE.

HAGGAI

Chapter 1

1 In the seconde yeare of kynge Darius, in the vj. moneth the first daye of the moneth, came the worde of the LORDE (by the prophet Aggeus) vnto Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel ye prynce of Iuda, and to Iesua the sonne of Iosedec the hie prest, sayenge:

2 Thus speaketh the LORDE of hoostes, and saieth: This people doth saye: The tyme is not yet come to buylde vp the LORDES house.

3 Then spake the LORDE by the prophet Aggeus & sayed:

4 Ye yor selues can fynde tyme to dwell in syled houses, and shal this house lye waist?

5 Considre now youre owne wayes in youre hertes (saieth ye LORDE of hoostes)

6 ye sowe moch, but ye bringe litle in: Ye eate, but ye haue not ynough: ye drinke, but ye are not fylled: ye decke youre selues, but ye are not warme: & he yt earneth eny wage, putteth it in a broken purse.

7 Thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes: Cosidre youre owne wayes in youre hertes,

8 get you vp to the mountayne, fetch wod, & buylde vp the house: that it maye be acceptable vnto me, and that I maye shewe myne honoure, saieth the LORDE.

9 Ye loked for moch, and lo it is come to litle: & though ye brynge it home, yet do I blowe it awaye. And why so, saieth the LORDE of hoostes? Eue because that my house lyeth so waist, and ye renne euery man vnto his owne house.

10 Wherefore the heauen is forbydde to geue you eny dew, and the earth is forbydden to geue you encrease.

11 I haue called for a drouth, both vpo the londe & vpon the mountaynes, vpon corne, vpon wyne & vpon oyle, vpon euery thinge that the grounde bryngeth forth, vpon men and vpon catell, yee and vpon all handy labour.

12 Now when Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, & Iesua the sonne of Iosedec the hie prest with the remnaunt of the people, herde the voyce of the LORDE their God, & the wordes of the prophet Aggeus (like as the LORDE their God had sent him) the people dyd feare the LORDE.

13 Then Aggeus the LORDES angel sayed in the LORDES message vnto the people: I am wt you, saieth the LORDE.

14 So the LORDE waked vp the sprete of Zorobabel the prynce of Iuda, and the sprete of Iesua the sonne of Iosedec the hie prest, and the sprete of the remnaunt of all the people: yt they came & laboured, in the house of the LORDE of hoostes their God.

15 Vpon the xxiiij. daye of the sixte moneth, in the secode yeare of kinge Darius,

Chapter 2

1 The xxi. daye of the seuenth moneth, came the worde of the LORDE by the prophet Aggeus, sayenge:

2 speake to Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel prynce of Iuda, and to Iesua the sonne of Iosedec the hie prest, and to the residue of ye people, & saye:

3 Who is left amoge you, that sawe this house in hir first beuty? But what thinke ye now by it? Is it not in youre eyes, eue as though it were nothinge?

4 Neuerthelesse be of good chere, o Zorobabel (saieth the LORDE) be of good conforte, o Iesua thou sonne of Iosedec, hie prest: take good hartes vnto you also, all ye people of the londe, saieth the LORDE of hoostes,

5 and do accordinge to the worde (for I am with you, saieth the LORDE of hoostes) like as I agreed with you, when ye came out of the londe of Egypte: & my sprete shalbe amonge you, feare ye not.

6 For thus saieth the LORDE of hoostes: Yet once more will I shake heaue and earth, the see and the drye lode:

7 Yee I will moue all Heithen, & the conforte of all Heithen shall come, & so wil I fyll this house with honoure, saieth the LORDE of hoostes.

8 The syluer is myne, & the golde is myne, saieth the LORDE of hoostes.

9 Thus ye glory of the last house shalbe greater the the first, saieth the LORDE of hoostes: & in this place wil I geue peace, saieth the LORDE of hoostes.

10 The xxiiij. daye of the ix moneth in the seconde yeare of kinge Darius, came the worde of the LORDE vnto the prophet Aggeus sayenge:

11 Thus saieth ye LORDE God of hoostes: Axe the prestes concernynge the lawe, & saye:

12 Yf one beare holy flesh in his cote lappe, & with his lappe do touch the bred, potage, wyne, oyle or eny other meate: shall he be holy also? The prestes answered, & saide: No.

13 Then sayde Aggeus: Now yf one beynge defyled with a deed carcase, touch eny of the se: shall it also be vnclene?

14 The prestes gaue answer & sayed: yee, it shall be vnclene. The Aggeus answered, and sayde: Euen so is this people & this nacion before me, saieth ye LORDE: and so are all the workes of their hodes, yee and all that they offre, is vnclene.

15 And now (I praye you) cosidre from this daye forth, and how it hath gone with you afore: or euer there was layed one stone vpo another in the temple of the LORDE:

16 that when ye came to a corne heape of xx. bussshels, there were scarce ten: and that when ye came to the wyne presse for to poure out L. pottes of wyne, there were scarce xx.

17 For I smote you with heate, blastinge & hale stones in all the labours of youre hondes: yet was there none of you, that wolde turne vnto me, saieth the LORDE.

18 Considre then from this daye forth and afore, namely, from the xxiiij. daye of the ix. moneth, vnto the daye that the foundation of the LORDES temple was layed: Marck it well, 19 Is not the sede yet in the barne? haue not the vynes, the fygetrees, the pomgranates and olyue trees bene yet vnfrutefull? but fro this daye forth, I shal make them to prospere.

20 Morouer the xxiiij. daye of the moneth came the worde of the LORDE vnto Aggeus agayne, sayenge:

21 Speake to Zorobabel the prynce of Iuda, and saye: I will shake both heauen and earth, 22 and ouerthrowe the seate of the kingdomes, yee & destroye the mightie kingdome of the Heithe. I wil ouerthrowe the charettes, and those that syt vpon them, so that both horse and man shal fall downe, euery man thorow his neighbours swerde.

23 And as for the, o Zorobabel (saieth the LORDE of hoostes) thou sonne of Salathiel, my seruauant: I wil take the (saieth the LORDE) at the same tyme, and make the as a seale: for I haue chosen the, saieth the LORDE of hoostes.

ZECHARIAH

Chapter 1

1 In the eight moneth of the secode yeare of kinge Darius, came the worde of the LORDE vnto Zachary the sonne of Barachias, the sonne of Addo, the prophet, sayenge:

2 The LORDE hath bene sore displeased at youre forefathers.

3 And saye thou vnto them: thus saieith the LORDE of hoostes. Turne you vnto me (saieith the LORDE of hoostes) and I wil turne me vnto you, saieith the LORDE of hoostes.

4 Be not ye like youre forefathers, vnto whom the prophetes cried a fore tyme, sayege: Thus saieith the LORDE God of hoostes: Turne you from youre euell wayes, & from youre wicked ymaginations. But they wolde not heare, ner regarde me, saieith the LORDE.

5 What is now become of youre forefathers and the prophetes? are they yet still alyue?

6 But dyd not my wordes & statutes (which I comaunded by my seruauentes ye prophetes) touch yor forefathers? Vpo this, they gaue answere & sayde: like as ye LORDE of hoostes deuysed to do vnto vs, acordinge to or owne wayes & ymaginations, euen so hath he dealte with vs.

7 Vpon the xxiiij. daye of the xj. moneth (which is the moneth Sebat) in the seconde yeare of Darius, came the worde of the LORDE vnto Zachary the sonne of Barachias, the sonne of Addo the prophete, sayenge:

8 I sawe by night, and lo, there sat one vpon a reade horse, and stode still amonge the Myrte trees, that were beneth vpon the grounde: and behynde him were there reade, spreckled and whyte horses. 9 Then sayde I: O my LORDE, what are these? And the angel that talked with me, sayed vnto me: I will shewe the what these be.

10 And the man that stode amoge the Myrte trees, answered & sayde: These are they, whom the LORDE hath sent to go thorow the worlde.

11 And they answered the angel of the LORDE, that stode amonge the Myrte trees, and sayde: We haue gone thorow the worlde: and beholde, all the worlde dwell at ease, and are carelesse.

12 Then the LORDES angel gaue answere and sayde: O LORDE of hoostes, how longe wilt thou be vnmercifull to Ierusalem and to the cities of Iuda, with whom thou hast bene displeased now these lxx. yeares?

13 So the LORDE gaue a louynge and a comfortable answere, vnto the angel that talked with me.

14 And the angel that commoned with me, sayde vnto me: Crie thou, and speake, thus saieith the LORDE of hoostes: I am eceadynge gelous ouer Ierusalem and Sion,

15 and sore displeased at the carelesse Heithen: for where as I was but a litle angrie, they dyd their best that I might destroye them

16 Therefore thus saieith the LORDE: I wil turne me agayne in mercy towarde Ierusalem, so that my house shalbe buylded in it, saieith the LORDE of hoostes: yee and the plommet shal be layed abrode in Ierusalem, saieith the LORDE of hoostes.

17 Crie also, and speake: thus saieith the LORDE of hoostes: My cities shall be in good prosperite agayne, the LORDE shall yet conforte Sion, and chose Ierusalem.

18 Then lift I vp myne eyes and sawe, and beholde, foure hornes.

19 And I sayde vnto the angel, that talked with me: what be these? he answered me: These are ye hornes, which haue scatred Iuda, Israel and Ierusalem abrode.

20 And ye LORDE shewed me iiij. carpenters.

21 Then sayde I: what wil these do? He answered, & sayde: Those are the hornes, which haue so strowed Iuda abrode, that no man durst lift vp his heade: But these are come to fraye them awaye, and to cast out ye hornes of the Gentiles, which lift vp their horne ouer the londe of Iuda, to scatre it abrode.

Chapter 2

1 I lift vp myne eyes agayne, & loked: and beholde, a man with a measure lyne in his honde.

2 Then saide I: whether goest thou? And he sayde vnto me: To measure Ierusalem, that I maye se how longe and how brode it is.

3 And beholde, the angel that talked wt me, wente his waye forth. Then wete there out another angel to mete him,

4 & sayde vnto him: Runne, speake to this yonge man, & saye: Ierusalem shal be inhabited without eny wal, for ye very multitude of people & catell, yt shal be therin.

5 Yee I myself (saieith the LORDE) wil be vnto her a wall of fyre rounde aboute, & wilbe honoured in her.

6 O get you forth, O fle from the londe of ye north (saieith the LORDE) ye, whom I haue scatred in to the foure wyndes vnder heaue, saieith the LORDE.

7 Saue thy self, o Sion: thou that dwellest with ye doughter of Babilon,

8 for thus saieith the LORDE of hoostes: With a glorious power hath he sent me out to the Heithe, which spoyled you: for who so toucheth you, shal touche the aple of his owne eye.

9 Beholde, I will lift vp myne honde ouer them: so that they shal be spoyled of those, which afore serued them: & ye shal knowe, that the LORDE of hoostes hath sent me.

10 Be glad, & reioyce, o doughter of Sion: for lo, I am come to dwell in the myddest of the, saieith the LORDE.

11 At the same tyme there shal many Heithen cleue to the LORDE, & shal be my people. Thus wil I dwel in the myddest of the, & thou shalt knowe, that the LORDE of hoostes hath sent me vnto the.

12 The LORDE shall haue Iuda in possession for his parte in the holy grounde, & shal chose Ierusalem yet agayne.

13 Let all flesh be still before the LORDE, for he is rysen out of his holy place.

Chapter 3

1 And he shewed me Iesua ye hye prest, stonde before the angel of the LORDE, and Satan stode at his right honde to resiste him.

2 And the LORDE sayde vnto Satan: The LORDE reprove the (thou Satan) yee the LORDE that hath chosen Ierusalem, reprove the. Is not this a brande take out of the fyre?

3 Now Iesua was clothed in vnclene rayment, and stode before the angel:

4 which answered & sayde vnto those, yt stode before him: take awaye ye foule clothes from him. And vnto him he sayde: Beholde, I haue take awaye thy synne from the, & wil decke the with change of raymet.

5 He sayde morouer: set a fayre myter vpon his heade. So they set a fayre myter vpon his heade, & put on clothes vpon him, and the angel of ye LORDE stode there.

6 Then the angel of the LORDE testified vnto Iesua, & spake,

7 thus sayeth the LORDE of hoostes: Yf thou wilt walke in my wayes, & kepe my watch: thou shalt rule my house, & kepe my courtes, & I wil geue the place amoge these that stonde here.

8 Heare o Iesua thou hye prest, thou & thy frendes that dwell before the, for they are woderous people. Beholde, I will bringe forth the braunch of my seruaut: 9 for lo, the stone that I haue layed before Iesua: vpon one stone shalbe vij. eyes. Beholde, I will hewe him out (saieith the LORDE of hoostes) and take awaye the synne of that londe in one daye.

10 Then shall euery man call for his neghboure, vnder the vyne & vnder ye fyge tre, saieith the LORDE of hoostes.

Chapter 4

1 And ye angel that talked with me, came agayne, & waked me vp (as a man that is rased out of his slepe)

2 & sayde vnto me: What seist thou? And I sayde: I haue loked, and beholde: a candelsticke all of golde, with a boll vpon it & his vij. lampes therin, & vpon euery lampe vij. stalkes:

3 And ij. olyue trees therby, one vpon the right syde of the boll, & the other vpon the left syde.

4 So I answered, & spake to the angel yt talked with me, sayenge: O my lorde what are these?

5 The angel that talked with me, answered & sayde vnto me: knowest thou not what these be? And I sayde: No, my lorde.

6 He answered, & sayde vnto me: This is the worde of the LORDE vnto Zorobabel, sayenge: Nether thorow an hoost of men, ner thorow strenght, but thorow my sprete, saieith ye LORDE of hoostes.

7 What art thou (thou greate mountayne) before Zorobabel? thou must be made eauen. And he shal bringe vp the first stone, so that men shall crie vnto him: good lucke, good lucke.

8 Morouer, the worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

9 The hondes of Zorobabel haue layed ye foundation of this house, his hondes also shal fynishe it: that ye maye knowe, how that the LORDE of hoostes hath sent me vnto you.

10 For he that hath bene despysed a litle season, shal reioyce, whe he seyth the tynne weight in Zorobabels honde. The vij. eyes are the LORDES, which go thorow the hole worlde.

11 Then answered I, & sayde vnto him: What are these two olyue trees vpon the right and left syde of the candilsticke?

12 I spake morouer, & sayde vnto him: what be these ij. olyue branches which (thorow ye two golden pipes) emptie them selues into the golde?

13 He answered me, & sayde: knowest thou not, what these be? And I sayde: No, my lorde.

14 Then sayde he: These are the two olyue branches, that stonde before the ruler of the whole earth.

Chapter 5

1 So I turned me lifytynge vp myne eyes, & loked, & beholde, a flyenge boke.

2 And he sayde vnto me: what seist thou? I answered: I se a flyenge boke of xx. cubites longe & x. cubites brode.

3 Then sayde he vnto me: This is the curse, yt goeth forth ouer the whole earth: For all theues shalbe iudged after this boke, & all swearers shalbe iudged acordinge to the same.

4 I wil bringe it forth (saieith the LORDE of hoostes) so yt it shal come to the house of the thefe, & to the house of him, that falsely sweareth by my name: & shal remaine in his house, & cosume it, with the tymbre & stons therof.

5 The the angel that talked with me, wente forth, & sayde vnto me: lift vp thine eyes & se, what this is yt goeth forth.

6 And I sayde: what is it? He answered: this is a measure goinge out. He sayde morouer: Euen thus are they (yt dwell vpon the whole earth) to loke vpon.

7 And beholde, there was lift vp a talent of leade: & lo, a woman sat in the myddest of the measure.

8 And he sayde: This is vngodlynesse. So he cast her in to the myddest of the measure, & threwe ye lompe of leade vp in to an hole.

9 Then lift I vp myne eyes, & loked: & beholde, there came out ij. women, & the wynde was in their wynges (for they had wynges like the wynges of a Storke) & they lift vp the measure betwixte the earth & the heauen.

10 Then spake I to the angel, yt talked wt me: whyther wil these beare the measure?

11 And he sayde vnto me: in to the londe of Synear, to buylde them an house: which when it is prepared, the measure shall be set there in his place.

Chapter 6

1 Morouer I turned me, lifynge vp myne eyes, & loked: & beholde, there came iiij. charettes out fro betwixte two hilles, which hilles were of brasse:

2 In the first charet were reade horse, In the secode charet were blacke horse,

3 In ye thirde charet were whyte horse, In ye fourth charet were horses of dyuerse colours, & stronge.

4 Then spake I, and sayde vnto the angel that talked with me: O lorde, what are these?

5 The angel answered, & sayde vnto me: These are the iiij. wyndes of the heauen, which be come forth to stode before the ruler of all ye earth.

6 That with the blacke horse wente in to the londe of the north, & the whyte folowed the, and the sprekled horses wente forth towarde the south.

7 These horses were very stronge, & wente out: and sought to go and take their journey ouer the whole earth. And he sayde: get you hence, and go thorow the world. So they wete thorow out the world.

8 Then cried he vpon me, and spake vnto me, sayenge: Beholde, these that go towarde ye north, shal still my wrath in the north countre.

9 And the worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

10 Take of the presoners that are come from Babilon: namely, Heldai, Tobias and Idaia: & come thou the same daye, and go into the house of Iosias the sonne of Sophony.

11 Then take golde and syluer, and make crownes therof, and set them vpon the heade of Iesua the sonne of Iosedec, the hie prest,

12 and speake vnto him: Thus saith the LORDE of hoostes: Beholde, the man whose name is the braunch: & he that shall springe vp after him, shal buylde vp the temple of the LORDE:

13 yee euen he shall buylde vp the temple of the LORDE. He shal beare the prayse, he shall syt vpon the LORDES trone, and haue the dominaciou. A prest shall he be also vpon his trone, & a peaceable counsell shalbe betwixte them both.

14 And the crownes shal be in the temple of the LORDE, for a remembraunce vnto Helem, Tobias, Idaia and Hen the sonne of Sophony. And such as be farre of, shal come and buylde the temple of the LORDE:

15 that ye maye knowe, how that the LORDE of hoostes hath sent me vnto you. And this shal come to passe, yf ye wil herken diligently vnto the voyce of the LORDE youre God.

Chapter 7

1 It happened also in the fourth yeare of kyng Darius, that the worde of the LORDE came vnto Zachary in the fourth daye of the ix. moneth, which is calleth Casleu:

2 what tyme as Sarasar and Rogomelech and the men that were with them, sent vnto Bethel for to praye before ye LORDE:

3 and that they shulde saye vnto the prestes, which were in the house of the LORDE of hoostes, and to the prophetes: Shulde I wepe in the fyfte moneth, and absteyne, as I haue done now certayne yeares?

4 Then came the worde of the LORDE of hoostes vnto me, sayenge:

5 Speake vnto all the people of the londe, and to the prestes, and saye: when ye fasted and mourned in the v & vij. moneth (now this lxx. yeares) dyd ye fast vnto me?

6 When ye ate also and dronke, dyd ye not eate and drinke for youre owne selues?

7 Are not these the wordes, which the LORDE spake by his prophetes afore tyme, when Ierusalem was yet inhabited and welthy, she and the cities rounde aboute her: when there dwelt me, both towarde the south and in the playne countrees?

8 And the worde of the LORDE came vnto Zachary, sayenge:

9 Thus saith ye LORDE of hoostes: Execute true iudgment: shewe mercy and louynge kyndnesse, euery man to his brother:

10 Do the wyddowe, the fatherlesse, the straunger, and poore no wronge: and let no man ymagen euell agaynst his brother in his hert.

11 Neuertheles they wolde not take hede, but turned their backes, and stopped their eares, that they shulde not heare.

12 yee they made their hertes as an Adamant stone, lest they shulde heare the lawe & wordes, which the LORDE of hoostes sent in his holy sprete by the prophetes afore tyme. Wherefore the LORDE of hoostes was very wroth at them.

13 And thus is it come to passe, that like as he spake and they wolde not heare: euen so they cried, and I wolde not heare (saieth the LORDE of hoostes)

14 but scatered them amonge all Gentiles, whom they knewe not. Thus the londe was made so desolate, yt there traualed no man in it nether to ner fro, for that pleasaunt londe was vtterly layed waist.

Chapter 8

1 So the worde of the LORDE came vnto me, sayenge:

2 Thus saith the LORDE of hoostes: I was in a greate gelously ouer Sion, yee I haue bene very gelous ouer her in a greate displeasure.

3 thus saith the LORDE of hoostes: I wil turne me agayne vnto Sion, and wil dwel in the myddest of Ierusalem: so that Ierusalem shalbe called a faithfull and true cite, the hill of the LORDE of hoostes, yee an holy hill.

4 Thus saith the LORDE of hoostes: There shall yet olde men and women dwel agayne in the stretes of Ierusalem: yee and such as go with stauies in their hondes for very age.

5 The stretes of the cite also shalbe full of yonge boyes and damselles, playnge vpon the stretes.

6 Thus saith the LORDE of hoostes: yf the residue of this people thynke it to be vnpossible in these dayes, shulde it therfore be vnpossible in my sight, sayeth the LORDE of hoostes

7 Thus saith the LORDE of hoostes: Beholde, I wil delyuer my people from the londe of the east and west,

8 and wil brynge them agayne: that they maye dwel at Ierusalem. They shalbe my people, and I will be their God, in treuth and rightuousnesse.

9 Thus saith the LORDE of hoostes: let youre hondes be stronge, ye that now heare these wordes by the mouth of the prophetes, which be in these dayes that the foundation is layed vpon the LORDE of hoostes house, that the temple maye be buylde.

10 For why? before these dayes nether men ner catel coude wyne eny thinge, nether might eny man come in and out in rest, for trouble: but I let euery man go agaynst his neigboure.

11 Neuerthelesse I wil now intreate the residue of this people nomore, as afore tyme (saieth the LORDE of hoostes)

12 but they shalbe a sede of peace. The vynyarde shal geue hir frute, the grounde shal geue hir increase, and the heuens shal geue their dew: and I shal cause the remnaunt of this people, to haue all these in possession.

13 And it shall come to passe, that like as ye were a curse amonge the Heithen (O ye house of Iuda and ye house of Israel) Euen so wil I delyuer you, that ye shalbe a blessinge: feare not, but let youre hodes be stronge.

14 For thus saith the LORDE of hoostes: like as I deuyd to punysh you, what tyme as youre fathers prouoked me vnto wrath (sayeth the LORDE of hoostes) and spared not:

15 Euen so am I determed now in these dayes, for to do wel vnto the house of Iuda and Ierusalem, therfore feare ye not.

16 Now the thinges that ye shal do, are these: Speake euery man the treuth vnto his neigboure, execute iudgment truly and peaceably within youre portes, 17 none of you ymagyn euell in his hert agaynst his neigboure, and loue no false oother: for all these are the thinges that I hate, sayeth the LORDE.

18 And the worde of the LORDE of hoostes came vnto me, sayenge:

19 thus sayeth the LORDE of hoostes: The fast of the fourth moneth, the fast of the fifth, the fast of the seuenth, and the fast of the tenth, shal be ioye and gladnesse, & prosperous hye feastes vnto the house of Iuda: Only, loue the treuth and peace.

20 Thus saith the LORDE of hoostes: There shall yet come people, and the inhabitants of many cities:

21 and they that dwell in one cite, shal go to another, sayenge: Vp, let vs go, and praye before the LORDE, let vs seke the LORDE of hoostes, I wil go with you.

22 Yee moch people and mightie Heithen shal come and seke the LORDE of hoostes at Ierusalem, and to praye before the LORDE.

23 Thus saith the LORDE of hoostes: In that tyme shal ten men (out of all maner of languages of the Gentiles) take one Iewe by the hemme of his garment, and saye: we wil go with you, for we haue herde, that God is amonge you.

Chapter 9

1 The worde of the LORDE shalbe receaued at Adrach, & Damascus shalbe his offerynge: for the eyes of all me and of the trybes of Israel shall loke vp vnto the LORDE.

2 The borders of Hemath shal be harde therby, Tyrus also & Sidon, for they are very wise.

3 Tyrus shal make himself stronge, heape vp syluer as the sonde, and golde as the claye of the stretes.

4 Beholde, the LORDE shal take her in, and haue her in possession: he shal smyte downe hir power in to the see, and she shalbe consumed with fyre.

5 This shal Ascalon se, and be afrayed. Gaza shalbe very sory, so shal Accaron also, because hir hope is come to confucion. For the kinge of Gaza shall perish, and at Ascalon shal no man dwel.

6 Straugers shall dwel at A'dod, & as for ye pryde of ye Philistynes, I shal rote it out.

7 Their bloude will I take awaye from their mouth, and their abhominacios from amonge their teth. Thus they shal be left for oure God, yee they shalbe as a prynce in Iuda, & Accaron like as Iebusi.

8 And so will I compase my house rounde aboute with my men of warre, goinge to and fro: that no oppressoure come vpon them eny more. For that haue I sene now with myne eyes.

9 Reioyce thou greatly, o daughter Sion: be glad, o daughter Ierusalem. For lo, thy kinge commeth vnto the, euen the rightuous and Sauioure: Lowly and symple is he, he rydeth vpon an asse, and vpo the foale of an asse.

10 I wil rote out the charettes fro Ephraim, & the horse from Ierusalem, the batel bowes shal be destroyed. He shall geue the doctryne of peace vnto the Heithen, and his dominion shalbe from the one see to the other, & from the floudes to the endes of the world.

11 Thou also thorow the bloude of thy couenant: shalt let thy presoners out of the pytte, wherin is no water.

12 Turne you now to the stronge holde, ye that be in preson, & longe sore to be delyuered: And this daye I bringe the worde, that I wil rewarde the dubble agayne.

13 For Iuda haue I bent out as a bowe for me, and Ephraim haue I fylled. Thy sonnes (o Sio) wil I rayse vp agaynst the Grekes, and make the as a giauntes swearde:

14 the LORDE God shalbe sene aboute the, and his dartes shall go forth as the lightenyng. The LORDE God shall blowe the trompet, and shal come forth as a storme out of the south.

15 The LORDE of hoostes shall defende the, they shall consume and deuoure, and subdue them with slyng stones. They shal drynke & rage, as it were thorow wyne. They shalbe fylled like ye basens, & as ye hornes of ye aulter.

16 The LORDE their God shal deluyer the in ye daye, as the flock off his people: for the stonnes off his Sanctuary shalbe set vp in his lade.

17 O how prosperous and goodly a thyng shall that be? The corne shall make the yongemen chearefull, and the new wyne the maydens.

Chapter 10

1 Praye the LORDE then by tymes to geue you the latter rayne, so shall the LORDE make cloudes, and geue you rayne ynough for all the increase off the felde:

2 For vayne is the answer of Idols. The soythsayers se lyes, and tell but vayne dreames: the comforth that they geue, is nothyng worth. Therefore go they astraye like a flocke of shepe, ad are troubled, because they haue no shepherde.

3 My wrothfull displeasure is moued at the shepherdes, and I will vyset the goates. For the LORDE of hoostes wil graciously vyset his flocke (the house of Iuda) and holde them as a goodly fayre horse in the batell.

4 Out of Iuda shal come the helmet, the nale, the batelbowe, and all the princes together.

5 They shalbe as the giauntes, which in the batell trede downe the myre vpon ye stretes. They shal fight, for ye LORDE shalbe with them, so that the horsmen shalbe confounded.

6 I wil coforte the house of Iuda, and preserue the house of Ioseph. I wil turne them also, for I pytie them: and they shal be like as they were, when I had not cast them of. For I the LORDE am their God, and wil heare them.

7 Ephraim shalbe as a giant, and their herte shalbe cherefull as thorow wyne: Yee their children shal se it, and be glad; and their herte shal reioyce in the LORDE.

8 I wil blowe for them & gather them together, for I wil redeme them. They shall increase, as they increased afore.

9 I wil sowe the amonge the people, yt they maye thinke vpo me in farre countrees: they shal lyue wt their childre, and turne agayne.

10 I wil bringe them agayne also from the londe of Egipte, and gather them out of Assiria. I wil carye them in to ye londe of Galaad and to Libanus, and they shal wante nothyng.

11 He shall go vpon the see of trouble, and smyte the see wawes: so yt all the depe floudes shalbe dried vp. The proude boostinge of Assur shalbe cast downe, and the scepter off Egipte shall be taken awaye.

12 I will comforte them in the LORDE, that they maye walke in his name, saie the LORDE.

Chapter 11

1 Open thy dores (o Libanus) that the fyre maye consume thy Cedre trees.

2 Howle ye Fyrrre trees, for the Cedre is falle, yee all ye proude are waisted awaye Howle (o ye oke trees of Baasan) for ye mightie stronge wod is cut downe.

3 Men maye heare the shepherdes mourne, for their glory is destroyed. Me maye heare the lyons whelpes roare, for the pryde off Iordane is waisted awaye.

4 Thus sayeth the LORDE my God: Fede the shepe of ye slaughter,

5 which shalbe slayne of those that possesse them: yet they take it for no synne, but they yt sell the, saye: The LORDE be thanked, I am rich: Yee their owne shepherdes spare them not.

6 Therefore wil I nomore spare those that dwell in the londe (sayeth the LORDE) but lo, I will deluyer the people, euery man in to his neighbours honde, and in to the hode of his kynge: that they maye smyte the londe, and out off their hondes wil not I deluyer them.

7 I myself fedde ye slaughter shepe (a poore flocke verely) ad toke vnto me two stauas: the one I called louynge mekenesse, the other I called wo, and so I kepte the shepe.

8 Thre shepherdes destroyed I in one moneth, for I might not awaye wt them, nether had they eny delyte in me.

9 Then sayde I: I will fede you nomore, the thinge that dyeth, let it dye: and that wil perishe, let it perishe, & let the renaunt eate, euery one the flesh of his neyghoure.

10 I toke also my louynge meke staff, ad brake it, that I might disanull the conuenaunt, which I made with all people, 11 And so it was broken in that daye. Then the poore symple shepe that had a respecte vnto me, knewe therby, that it was the worde of the LORDE.

12 And I sayde vnto them: yff ye thynke it good, brynge hither my pryce: yf no, then leaue. So they wayed downe xxx. syluer pens, ye value that I was pryed at.

13 And the LORDE sayde vnto me: cast it vnto the potter (a goodly pryce for me to be valued at of them) and I toke the xxx. syluers pens, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORDE.

14 Then brake I my other staff also (namely wo) that I might lowse the brotherheade betwixte Iuda and Israel.

15 And the LORDE sayde vnto me: Take to the also the staff off a foolish shepherde:

16 for lo, I will rayse vp a shepherde in the londe, which shall not seke after the thinges that be lost, ner care for soch as go astraye: he shall not heale the wounded, he shal not norish the thinge that is whole: but he shall eate the flesh off soch as be fat, and teare their clawes in peces.

17 O Idols shepherde, that leaueth the flocke. The swerde shal come vpon his arme and vpon his right eye. His arme shalbe clene dried vp, and his right eye shalbe sore blynded.

Chapter 12

1 The heuy burthen which ye LORDE hath deuysed for Israel. Thus saie the LORDE, which spred the heaues abrode, layde the foundacion of the earth, and geueth man ye breath of life:

2 Beholde, I will make Ierusalem a cuppe of surfet, vnto all the people yt are rounde aboute her: Yee Iuda himself also shalbe in the sege agaynst Ierusalem.

3 At the same tyme will I make Ierusalem an heuy stone for all people, so that all soch as lift it vp, shalbe toarne and rete, and all the people of the earth shalbe gathered together agaynst it.

4 In that daye (sayeth ye LORDE) I wil make all horses abasshed, and those that ryde vpon them, to be out of their wyttes. I will open myne eyes vpon the house of Iuda, ad smyte all the horses of the people with blyndnesse.

5 And the prynces of Iuda shall saye in their hertes: The inhabitors off Ierusalem shall geue me consolacion in the LORDE off hoostes their God.

6 In that tyme will I make the prynces of Iuda like an hote burnynge ouen with wodd, and like a cresshet off fyre amonge the strawe: so that they shal cosume all the people rounde aboute them, both vpon the right honde and the left. Ierusalem also shalbe inhabited agayne: namely, in the same place where Ierusalem stondeth.

7 The LORDE shall preserue the tentes off Iuda like as afore tyme: so that the glory of the house of Daud and the glory of the cytesyns of Ierusalem, shalbe but litle regarded, in comparison off the glory off Iuda.

8 In that daye shall the LORDE defende the citesyns of Ierusalem: so that the weakest then amonge them shalbe as Daud: and the house of Daud shalbe like as Gods house, and as the angell off the LORDE before them.

9 At the same tyme will I go aboute to destroye all soch people as come agaynst Ierusalem.

10 Morouer, vpon the house off Daud and vpon the citesyns off Ierusalem, will I poure out the sprete of grace and prayer: so that they shal loke vpon me, whom they haue pearsed: and they shall bewepe him, as men mourne for their only begotten sonne: Yee and be sory for him, as men are sory for their first childe.

11 Then shall there be a greate mournyng at Ierusalem, like as the lamentacion at Adremnon in the felde off Maggadon.

12 And the londe shall bewayle, euery kynred by the selues: The kynred off the house of Daud them selues alone, and their wyues by them selues:

13 The kynred off the house of Nathan them selues alone, and their wyues by them selues: The kynred off the house of Leui the selues alone, and their wiues by them selues: The kynred of the house of Semei them selues alone, and their wyues by them selues:

14 In like maner, all the other generacios, euerychone by them selues alone, and their wyues by them selues.

Chapter 13

1 In that tyme shall the house off Daud and the citesyns off Ierusalem haue an open well, to wash of synne and vnclennesse.

2 And then (sayeth the LORDE off hoostes) I will destroye the names of Idols out off the londe: so that they shal nomore be put in remembraunce. As for the false prophetes also and the vnclene sprete, I shall take them out of the londe:

3 So that yf eny off them prophecy eny more, his owne father and mother that begat him, shall saye vnto him: Thou shalt dye, for thou speakest lyes vnder the name off the LORDE: Yee his owne father and mother that begat him, shall wounde him, when he prophecyeeth.

4 And then shall those prophetes be confounded, euery one off his vision when he prophecieth: nether shall they weere sack clothes eny more, to disceaue me withall.

5 But he shall be fayne to saye: I am no prophet: I am an husbonde man, for so am I taught by Adam fro my youth vp.

6 And yff it be sayde vnto him: How came these woundes then in thine hondes? He shall answer: Thus am I wounded in the house off myne owne frendes.

7 Arise (o thou swearde) vpon my shepherde, and vpon the prynce of my people, sayeth the LORDE of hoostes: Smyte the shepherde and the shepe shalbe scatred abrode, and so will I turne myne honde to the litle ones.

8 And it shal come to passe (sayeth the LORDE) that in all the londe two partes shalbe roted out, but the thirde parte shal remayne therin.

9 And the same thirde parte wil I brynge thorow the fyre, and will clense them, as the syluer is clensed: Yee and trye them, like as golde is tryed. Then shall they call vpon my name, and I wil heare them: I wil saye: it is my people. And they shal saye: LORDE, my God.

Chapter 14

1 Beholde, the daye of the LORDE cometh, that thou shalt be spoyled and robbed:

2 for I wil gather together all the Heithen, to fight agaynst Ierusalem: so that the cite shalbe wonne, the houses spoyled, and the women defyled. The half of the cite shal go awaye in to captiuyte, and the residue of the people shal not be caried out of the cite.

3 After that shall the LORDE go forth to fight agaynst those Heithen, as men vse to fight in the daye of batell.

4 The shall his fete stode vpo the mount oliuete, that lieth vpon the east syde of Ierusalem. And ye mount olyuete shal cleue in two, eastwarde, & westwarde so yt there shal be a greate valley: & the halff mount shal remoue towarde the north, and the other half towarde the south.

5 And ye shall fle vnto the valley of my hilles, for the valley off the hylles shal reach vnto Asal. Yee fle shall ye. like as ye fled for the earthquake in the dayes off Osias kynge of Iuda. And the LORDE my God shal come, and all sanctes with him.

6 In that daye shal it not be light, but colde and frost.

7 This shalbe that specyall daye, which is knowne vnto the LORDE: nether daye ner night, but aboute the euenynge tyme it shalbe light.

8 In that tyme shall there waters of life runne out from Ierusalem: the half parte of them towarde the east see, ad the other half towarde the vttemost see, and shall continue both somer and wynter.

9 And the LORDE himself shalbe kynge ouer all the earth. At that tyme shal there be one LORDE only, and his name shalbe but one.

10 Men shal go aboute the whole earth, as vpon a felde: from Gibea to Remmon, and from ye south to Ierusalem. She shalbe set vp, and inhabited in hir place: From BenJamins porte, vnto the place of the first porte, and vnto ye corner porte: and from the tower of Hanael, vnto the kynges wyne presses.

11 There shall men dwell, and there shal be nomore cursinge, but Ierusalem shalbe safely inhabited.

12 This shalbe the plage, wherwith ye LORDE wil smyte all people, that haue fought agaynst Ierusalem: Namely, their flesh shall consume awaye, though they stonde vpon their fete: their eyes shall corruppe in their holes, and their tunge shal consume in their mouth.

13 In that daye shall the LORDE make a greate sedicion amoge them, so that one ma shal take another by the honde, and laye his hondes vpon the hondes of his neighbour.

14 Iuda shal fight also agaynst Ierusalem, ad the goodes of all the Heithen shalbe gathered together rounde aboute: golde and syluer and a very greate multitude off clothes.

15 And so shal this plage go ouer horses, mules camels, asses and all the bestes that shall be in the hooste, like as yonder plage was.

16 Euery one that remayueth then of all ye people, which came agaynst Ierusalem, shal go vp yearly, to worshipe the kynge (euen ye LORDE of hoostes) and to kepe the feast off tabernacles.

17 And loke what generacion vpon earth goeth not vp to Ierusalem, for to worshipe the kynge (euen the LORDE of hoostes) vpon the same shal come no rayne.

18 Yff the kynred of Egipte go not vp & come not, it shall not rayne vpon them nether. This shalbe the plage wherwith ye LORDE wil smyte all Heithen, that come not vp to kepe the feast of tabernacles:

19 Yee this shalbe the synneplage of Egipte and the synneplage of all people, that go not vp to kepe the feast of tabernacles.

20 At that tyme shal the rydinge geer of ye horses be holy vnto the LORDE, and the kettels in the LORDES house shal be like the basens before the altar:

21 Yee all the kettels in Ierusalem and Iuda, shalbe holy vnto the LORDE of hoostes: and all they that slaye offeringes, shall come and take of them, and dight them therin. And at that tyme there shal be no mo Cananites in the house of the LORDE.

MALACHI

Chapter 1

1 The heuy burthen which the LORDE sheweth agaynst Israel by Malachy.

2 I haue loued you, sayeth ye LORDE: ad yet ye saye: wherin hast thou loued vs? Was not Esau Jacobs brother, sayeth the LORDE? yet haue I loued Iacob,

3 and hated Esau: Yee I haue made his hilles waist, and his heretage a wyldernesse for dragos.

4 And though Edom sayde: well, we are destroyed, we wil go buylde vp agayne the places that be waisted: yet (sayeth ye LORDE of hoostes) what they buylded, that brake I downe: so that it was called a cursed londe, and a people, whom the LORDE hath euer bene angrie withall.

5 Your eyes haue sene it, ad ye your selues must confesse, that ye LORDE hath brought the londe of Israel to greate honoure.

6 Shulde not a sonne honoure his father, and a seruaut his master? Yf I be now a father, where is myne honoure? Yf I be the LORDE, where am I feared? sayeth the LORDE of hoostes. Now to you prestes, that despise my name. And yf ye saye: wherin haue we despised thy name?

7 In this, that ye offre vnclene bred vpo myne altar. And yf ye wil saye: wherin haue we offred eny vnclene thyng vnto the? In this that ye saye: the altar of the LORDE is not to be regarded.

8 Yf ye offre ye blynde, is not yt euell? And yf ye offre the lame and sick, is not that euell? Yee offre it vnto thy prynce, shal he be cotent with the, or accepte thy persone, sayeth the LORDE of hoostes?

9 And now make youre prayer before God, that he maye haue mercy vpon vs: for soch thynges haue ye done. Shal he regarde youre personnes (thynke ye) sayeth the LORDE of hoostes?

10 Yee what is he amonge you, that wil do so moch as to shut ye dores, or to kyndle ye fyre vpo myne altar for naught? I haue no pleasure in you, sayeth the LORDE off hoostes: and as for the meatofferinge, I wil not accepte it at youre honde.

11 For from the rysinge vp of ye sonne vnto ye goinge downe of the same, my name is greate amonge the Gentiles: Yee in euery place shal there sacrifice be done, and a clene meatofferinge offred vp vnto my name: for my name is greate amonge the Heithe, sayeth the LORDE of hoostes.

12 But ye haue vnhalowed it, in that ye saye, the altar of ye LORDE is not to be regarded, and the thinge that is set thervpon, not worthy to be eaten.

13 Now saye ye: It is but laboure and traually, and thus haue ye thought scorne at it, (sayeth the LORDE off hoostes) offerynge robbery, yee the lame and the sicke. Ye haue brought me in a meatofferynge, shulde I accepte it of youre honde, sayeth the LORDE?

14 Cursed be the dyssembler, which hath in his flocke one that is male, and when he maketh a vowe, offereth a spotted one vnto the LORDE. For I am a greate kynge (sayeth the LORDE of hoostes) and my name is fearfull amonge the Heithen.

Chapter 2

1 And now (o ye prestes) this commaundement toucheth you:

2 yf ye will not heare it, ner regarde it, to geue the glory vnto my name (sayeth the LORDE off hoostes) I wil sende a curse vpon you, & will curse youre blessings: yee curse them will I yf ye do not take hede.

3 Beholde, I shal corruppe youre sede, and cast donge in youre faces: euen the donge of youre solempne feastes and it shal cleue fast vpon you.

4 And ye shall knowe, that I haue sent this commaundement vnto you: that my couenant which I made with Leui, might stonde, sayeth ye LORDE of hoostes.

5 I made a couenant of life and peace wt him: this I gaue him, that he might stonde in awe of me: and so he dyd feare me, ad had my name in reuerence.

6 The lawe of treuth was in his mouth, and there was no wickednesse founde in his lippes. He walked with me in peace ad equitye, and dyd turne many one awaye from their synnes.

7 For the prestes lippes shulde be sure knowlege, that men maye seke the lawe at his mouth, for he is a messaunger of the LORDE of hoostes.

8 But as for you, ye are gone clene out off the waye, and haue caused the multitude to be offended at the lawe: ye haue broken the couenant of Leui, sayeth the LORDE of hoostes.

9 Therefore wil I also make you to be despised, and to be of no reputacion amonge all ye people: because ye haue not kepte my wayes, but bene parciall in the lawe.

10 Haue we not all one father? Hath not one God made vs? why doth euery one off vs then despise his owne brother, and so breake the couenant of oure fathers?

11 Now hath Iuda offended: yee the abhominacion is done in Israel and in Ierusalem, for Iuda hath defyled the Sactuary of the LORDE, which he loued, and hath kepte the daughter of a straunge God.

12 But the LORDE shal destroye the ma that doth this (yee both the master & the scolar) out off the tabernacle of Iacob, with him that offreth vp meatofferynge vnto the LORDE off hoostes.

13 Now haue ye brought it to this poynte agayne, that the altar of the LORDE is couered with teares wepyng and mournynge: so that I will nomore regarde the meatofferynge, nether wil I receave or accepte enythinge at youre hodes.

14 And yet ye saye: wherfore? Euen because that where as the LORDE made a couenant betwixte ye and the wife off thy youth, thou hast despised her: Yet is she thyne owne copanyon and married wife.

15 So dyd not the one, & yet had he an excellent sprete. What dyd then the one? He sought the sede promised of God. Therefore loke well to youre sprete, & let no man despise ye wife of his youth.

16 Yf thou hatest her, put her awaye, sayeth the LORDE God of Israel and geue her a clothinge for the scorne, sayeth the LORDE of hoostes. Loke well then to youre sprete, and despise her not.

17 Ye greue the LORDE with youre wordes, and yet ye saye: wherwithall haue we greued him? In this, that ye saye: All that do euell are good in the sight of God, and soch please him. Or els where is the God that punysheth?

Chapter 3

1 Beholde, I wil sende my messaunger, which shal prepare the waye before me: and the LORDE whom ye wolde haue, shal soone come to his temple, yee euen the messaunger of the couenant whom ye longe for. Beholde, he commeth, sayeth the LORDE of hoostes.

2 But who maye abyde the daye of his commynge? Who shalbe able to endure, when he appeareth? For he is like a goldsmythes fyre, ad like wasshers sope.

3 He shall syt him downe to trye and to clense ye syluer, he shal poure the children of Leui, and purifie them like as golde and syluer: that they maye bryng meatofferings vnto the LORDE in rightuousnes.

4 Then shall the offeringe of Iuda and Ierusalem be acceptable vnto the LORDE, like as from the begynninge & in the yeares afore tyme.

5 I will come & punysh you, & I myself wil be a swift wytnes agaynst the witches, agaynst the aduouterers, agaynst false swearers: yee ad agaynst those, that wrogeously kepe backe the hyrelynges dewty: which vexe the wyddowes & the fatherlesse, & oppresse the straunger, and feare not me, sayeth the LORDE of hoostes.

6 For I am the LORDE yt chaunge not, & ye (o children of Iacob) wil not leaue of: 7 ye are gone away fro myne ordinauces, & sens ye tyme of youre forefathers haue ye not kepte them. Turne you now vnto me, and I wil turne me vnto you, sayeth the LORDE of hoostes. Ye saye: Wherin shal we turne? 8 Shulde a man vse falsede and disceate with God, as ye vse falsede and disceate with me? Yet ye saye: wherin vse we disceate with the? In Tythes and heaue offerynges.

9 Therefore are ye cursed with penury, because ye dyssemble with me, all the sorte of you.

10 Brynge euery Tythe in to my barne, yt there maye be meat in myne house: and proue me withall (sayeth the LORDE of hoostes) yf I wil not open the wyndowes of heauen vnto you, and poure you out a blessing with plenteousnesse.

11 Yee I shal reprove the consumer for youre sakes, so that he shall not eate vp the frute of youre grounde, nether shal ye vynyarde be baren in the felde, sayeth ye LORDE of hoostes:

12 In so moch that all people shal saye, that ye be blessed, for ye shall be a pleasaunt lode, sayeth the LORDE off hoostes.

13 Ye speake hard wordes agaynst me, sayeth the LORDE. And yet ye saye: What haue we spoken agaynst the?

14 Ye haue sayed: It is but lost labour, to serue God: What profit haue we for keypynge his commaundementes, and for walkinge humbly before the LORDE off hoostes?

15 Therefore maye we saye, that the proude are happie, and that they which deale with vngodlynesse, are set vp: for they tempte God, and yet escape.

16 But they that feare God, saye thus one to another: The LORDE cosidreth and heareth it. Yee it is before him a memoriall boke written for soch as feare the LORDE, and remembre his name.

17 And in the daye that I wil make (saieth ye LORDE of hoostes) they shalbe myne owne possession: and I will faouere them, like as a man faouereh his owne sonne, that doth him seruyce.

18 Turne you therfore, and conside what difference is betwixte the righteous and vngodly: betwixte him that serueth God, ad him that serueth him not.

Chapter 4

1 For marck, the daye commeth that shall burne as an oue: and all the proude, yee and all soch as do wickednesse, shalbe straw: and the daye that is for to come, shall burne the vp (sayeth the LORDE of hoostes) so that it shal leaue them nether rote ner braunch.

2 But vnto you that feare my name, shall the Sone of rightuousnesse aryse, & health shalbe vnder his winges. Ye shal go forth, & multiplie as ye fat calues.

3 Ye shal treade downe ye vngodly: for they shalbe like the ashes vnder the soles of youre fete, in the daye yt I shal make, sayeth the LORDE of hoostes.

4 Remembre the lawe of Moses my seruaunt, which I committed vnto him in Oreb for all Israel, with the statutes and ordinauces.

5 Beholde, I will sende you Elias ye prophet: before the comynge off the daye of the great and fearfull LORDE.

6 He shall turne the hertes of the fathers to their children and the hertes of the children to their fathers, that I come not, and smyte the earth with cursynge.

MATTHEW

Chapter 1

1 This is the boke of the generacion of Iesus Christ ye sonne of Daud, the sonne of Abraham.

2 Abraha begat Isaac: Isaac begat Iacob: Iacob begat Iudas & his brethre:

3 Iudas begat Phares & Zara of Thamar: Phares begat Hesrom: Hesrom begat Aram:

4 Aram begat Aminadab: Aminadab begat Naasson: Naasson begat Salmon:

5 Salmon begat Boos of Rahab: Boos begat Obed of Ruth: Obed begat Iesse:

6 Iesse begat Daud the kyng: Daud the kyng begat Salomon, of her that was the wyfe of Vry:

7 Salomon begat Roboam: Roboam begat Abia: Abia begat Asa:

8 Asa begat Iosaphat: Iosaphat begat Ioram: Ioram begat Osias:

9 Osias begat Ioatham: Ioatham begat Achas: Achas begat Ezechias:

10 Ezechias begat Manasses: Manasses begat Amon: Amon begat Iosias:

11 Iosias begat Iechonias and his brethren aboute the tyme of the captiuyte of Babylon.

12 And after the captiuyte of Babylon, Iechonias begat Salathiel: Salathiel begat Zorobabel:

13 Zorobabel begat Abiud: Abiud begat Eliachim: Eliachim begat Azor:

14 Azor begat Sadoc: Sadoc begat Achin: Achin begat Eliud:

15 Eliud begat Eleasar: Eleasar begat Matthan: Matthan begat Iacob:

16 Iacob begat Ioseph the hussbande of Mary, of who was borne that Iesus, which is called Christ.

17 All the generacions from Abraha to Daud are fourtene generacions: From Daud vnto the captiuite of Babylon, are fourtene generacions. From the captiuite of Babylon vnto Christ, are also fourtene generacions.

18 The byrth of Christ was on thys wyse: When his mother Mary was married to Ioseph before they came together, she was foude with chylde by ye holy goost, 19 But Ioseph her hussbande was a perfect man, and wolde not bringe her to shame, but was mynded to put her awaie secretly.

20 Neuertheles whyle he thus thought, beholde, the angell of the LORDE appered vnto him in a dreame, saynge: Ioseph thou sonne of Daud, feare not to take vnto the Mary thy wyfe. For that which is coceaued in her, is of ye holy goost.

21 She shall brynge forth a sonne, and thou shalt call his name Iesus. For he shall saue his people from their synnes.

22 All this was done, yt the thing might, be fulfilled, which was spoken of the LORDE by the Prophet, saynge:

23 Beholde, a mayde shall be with chylde, and shall brynge forth a sonne, and they shall call his name Emanuel, which is by interpretacion, God wt vs.

24 Now whan Ioseph awoke out of slepe he did as the angell of ye LORDE bade hym, and toke his wyfe vnto hym, 25 and knewe her not, tyll she had brought forth hir fyrst borne sonne, and called his name Iesus.

Chapter 2

1 When Iesus was borne at Bethlee in Iury, in the tyme of Herode the kyng, Beholde, there came wyse men from the east to Ierusalem,

2 saynge: Where is the new borne kyng of the Iues? We haue sene his starre in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herode ye kyng had herde thys, he was troubled, & all Ierusalem with hym, 4 and he gathered all the hie Prestes and Scribes of ye people, & axed of them, where Christ shulde be borne.

5 And they sayde vnto hym: at Bethleem in Iury. For thus it is written by the Prophet:

6 And thou Bethleem in the londe of Iury, art not the leest amonge the Princes of Iuda. For out of ye shall come vnto me the captayne, that shall gouerne my people Israel.

7 Then Herod preuely called the wyse men, and dyligently enqyred of them, what tyme the starre appered,

8 and sent them to Bethleem, sainge: Go, and searche dyligently for the chylde. And when ye haue founde hym, bringe me worde agayne, that I maye come and worshippe hym also.

9 When they had heard the kyng, they departed: and lo, the starre which they sawe in the east, went before them, tyll it came, and stode ouer the place where the chylde was.

10 When they sawe the starre, they were maruelously glad:

11 and went into the house, and found the chylde with Mary his mother, and kneeled downe and worshipped hym, & opened ther treasures, and offred vnto hym gyftes: gold, franckynsence and myrre.

12 And after they were warned of God in a dreame, that they shuld not go ageine to Herod, they returned into their awne cowntre another waye.

13 When they were departed: beholde, the angell of the LORDE appered to Ioseph in a dreame, sayinge: aryse, and take the chylde and his mother, and flye into Egypte, and abyde there tyll I brynge the worde. For Herod wyl seke the chylde to destroye hym.

14 The he arose, and toke the chylde and his mother by night, and departed into Egypte,

15 and was there vnto ye deeth of Herod, that the thinge might be fulfilled which was spoke of the LORDE, by the Prophet, which sayeth: out of Egypte haue I called my sonne.

16 Then Herod perceauynge yt he was disceaued of the wyse men, was excedynge wroth, and sent forth, and slue all the chylde that were in Bethleem, and in all the coastes there of, as many as were two yere olde and vnder, accordynge to the tyme which he had dyligently searched out of the wyse men. 17 Then was yt fulfilled which was spoken by ye Prophet Ieremy sayinge:

18 On ye hilles was a voyce herde, greate mournynge, wepyng, & lamentacion: Rachel wepyng for her chylde, and wolde not be comforted, because they were not.

19 When Herode was deed: beholde, an angell of the LORDE appered in a dreame to Ioseph in Egypte, 20 sayinge: arise and take the chylde and his mother, & go into ye londe of Israel. For they are deed, which sought the chylde's life.

21 And he arose vp, and toke ye chylde and his mother, & came into the londe of Israel.

22 But whe he herde that Archelaus did raygne in Iury, in ye rowme of his father Herode, he was afrayde to go thither. Notwithstondinge after he was warned of God in a dreame, he turned asyde into the parties of Galile, 23 and went and dwelt in a cite called Nazareth, to fulfill yt which was spoken by the Prophetes: he shalbe called a Nazarite.

Chapter 3

1 In those dayes Ihon the Baptyst came and preached in the wildernes of Iury, 2 saynge: Amede youre selues, the kyngdome of heuen is at honde.

3 This is he, of whom it is spoke by ye Prophet Esay, which sayeth: The voyce of a cryer in ye wyldernes, prepare the LORDES waye, and make his pathes straight.

4 This Ihon had his garment of camels heer, and a lethre gerdell aboute his loynes. Hys meate was locustes and wyld honey.

5 Then went out to hym Ierusalem, and all Iury, and all the region rounde aboute Iordan,

6 and were baptised of him in Iordan, cofessynge their synnes.

7 Now when he sawe many of the Pharises and of ye Saduces come to hys baptim, he sayde vnto them: ye generacion of vipers, who hath certified you, that ye shal escape ye vengeance to come?
 8 Bewarre, bryngye forth due frutes of pennaunce.
 9 Thinke not now, to saye in your selues, we haue Abraham to oure father. For I saye vnto you, that God is able of these stones to rayse vp chyldeyn vnto Abraham.
 10 Euen now is the axe put vnto ye rote of the trees: therfore euery tre which bringeth not forth good frute, shalbe hewe downe, and cast into the fyre.
 11 I baptise you with water to repentance: but he that cometh after me, is myghtier the I, whose shues I am not worthy to beare. He shall baptise you with ye holy goost & wt fyre:
 12 which hath also his fan in his hond, and will poure his floore, and gadre the wheet into his garner, & will burne ye chaffe with vnquencheable fyre.
 13 Then came Iesus from Galile to Iordan, vnto Ihon, to be baptised of hym.
 14 But Iho forbade hym, saynge: I haue ned to be baptysed of the: and comest thou to me?
 15 Iesus answered & sayd vnto hym: Let it be so now. For thus it be commeth vs to fulfill all rightewesnes. Then he suffred hym.
 16 And Iesus assone as he was baptised, came straight out of the water. And lo, heue was ope ouer hym: and Ihon sawe the spirite of God descende lyke a doue, and lyght vpon hym.
 17 And lo, there came a voyce fro heue sayng: Thys ys that my beloued sonne, in whom is my delyte.

Chapter 4

1 Then was Iesus ledd awaye of the spirite in to wildernes, to be tempted of the deuyll.
 2 And when he had fasted fourtye dayes and fourtye nightes, he was afterward an hungred.
 3 And the tepter came to him and sayde: yf thou be the sonne of God, commaunde, that these stones be made breed.
 4 He answered & sayde: yt is wrytten: Man shall not lyue by bred onlye, but by euery worde that procedeth out of the mouth of God.
 5 Then the deuyll toke hym vp into the holy cite, and set hym on a pynacle of the temple,
 6 and sayde vnto hym: yf thou be ye sonne of God, cast thy sylfe downe. For it is wrytten: he shall geue his angels charge ouer the and with their handes they shal holde the vp, that thou dashe not thy fote agaynst a stone.
 7 And Iesus sayde vnto hym: it ys wrytten also: Thou shalt not tempte thy LORDE God.
 8 Agayne, the deuyll toke hym vp and led hym into an excedyng hie mountayne, and shewed hym all the kyngdomes of the worlde, and all the glorie of them, 9 and sayde vnto hym: all these wil I geue the, yf thou wilt fall downe and worship me.

 10 Then sayde Iesus vnto hym: Auoyde Sata. For it ys wrytten: thou shalt worshyp the LORDE thy God and hym onely shalt thou serue.
 11 Then the deuell left hym, and beholde, the angels came and ministred vnto hym.
 12 When Iesus had herde that Ihon was taken, he departed into Galile
 13 and left Nazareth, and went and dwelt in Capernaum, which is a cite apon the see, in the coostes of zabulon and Neptalim,
 14 yt the thinge might be fulfilled whiche was spoken by Esay the Prophet, saynge:
 15 The londe of zabulon and Neptalim, the waye of the see beyonde Iordan, and Galile of the Gentylys,
 16 the people which sat in darknes, sawe a greate lyght, & to them which sat in the region & shadowe of deeth, lyght is begone to shyne.
 17 From that tyme forth beganne Iesus to preach, and to saye: Amende youre selues, ye kingdome of heauen is at honde.
 18 As Iesus walked by the see of Galile, he sawe two brethren: Simon which was called Peter, & Andrew his brother, castyng a net into ye see, for they were fishers,
 19 and he sayde vnto them: folowe me, & I will make you fishers of me.
 20 And they strayght waye lefte their nettes, and folowed hym.
 21 And whan he wet forth from thence, he sawe other two brethren, Iames the sonne of zebede, and Ihon his brother, in the ship with zebede their father, mendyngye their nettes, and called them.
 22 And they without taryngye lefte ye shyp and their father, and folowed hym.
 23 And Iesus went aboute all Galile, teachyng in their synagoges, and preachyngye the gospel of the kyngdome, and healed all maner of siknes, & all maner dyseases amonge the people.
 24 And his fame spred abrode through out all Siria. And they brought vnto hym all sick people, that were taken with diuers diseases and gripinges, and the yt were possessed with deuils, & those which were lunatyke, and those that had the palsie: & he healed the.
 25 And ther folowed hym a greate nombre of people, from Galile, & from the ten cities, and from Ierusalem, and from the regions that lye beyonde Iordan.

Chapter 5

1 When he sawe the people, he went vp into a mountayne: and when he was set, his disciples came to hym,
 2 and he opened his mouth, and taught them, saynge:
 3 Blessed are the poore in sprete: for theirs is the kyngdome of heue.
 4 Blessed are they that mourne: for they shalbe coforted.

 5 Blessed are the meke: for they shall inheret the erth.
 6 Blessed are they which hunger & thyrst for rightewesnes: for they shalbe filled.
 7 Blessed are the mercifull: for they shall obteyne mercy.
 8 Blessed are the pure in herte: for they shall se God.
 9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shalbe called the chyldeyn of God.
 10 Blessed are they which suffre persecucion for rightwesnes sake: for theirs is the kyngdome of heuen.
 11 Blessed are ye when men reuyle you, and persecute you, and falsly say all manner of yuell saynges against you for my sake.
 12 Reioyce and be glad, for greate is youre rewarde in heue. For so persecuted they the Prophetes which were before youre dayes.
 13 Ye are ye salt of the earth, but and yf the salt haue lost his saltnes, what can be salted therwith? It is thence forth good for nothyngye, but to be cast out, and to be trodden vnder fote of men.
 14 Ye are the light of the worlde. A cite that is set on an hill, can not be hid:
 15 nether do men lyght a candell, and put it vnder a busshell, but on a candelstick, and it lighteth all that are in the house.
 16 Let youre light so shyne before men, that they maye se youre good workes, and glorify youre father which is in heauen.
 17 Thinke not, that I am come to destroye the lawe, or the Prophetes: no, I am not come to destroye them, but to fulfill them.
 18 For truly I saye vnto you: till heauen and earth perisse, one iott or one tytle of the lawe shall not escape, tyll all be fulfilled.
 19 Whosoeuer breaketh one of these least comaundmentes, and teacheth me so, he shalbe called the leest in the kyngdome of heauen, But whosoeuer obserueth and teacheth the same shalbe called greate in the kyngdome of heauen.
 20 For I saye vnto you: excepte youre rightewesnes excede the rightewesnes of the Scribes and Pharises, ye can not entre in to the kyngdome of heauen.
 21 Ye haue herde, how it was sayde to the of the olde tyme: Thou shalt not kyl. For whosoeuer kylleth, shall be in daunger of iudgement.
 22 But I saye vnto you: whosoeuer is angrie with his brother, is in daunger of the iudgement. Whosoeuer sayeth vnto his brother: Racha, is in daunger of ye counsell. But whosoeuer sayeth: thou foole, is in daunger of hell fyre.
 23 Therfore when thou offrest thy gift at the altare, and there remembreth that thy brother hath ought agaynst the:
 24 leaue there thyne offryngye before the altare, and go thy waye first, and reconcyle thy selfe to thy brother, & then come and offre thy gyfte.
 25 Agre with thine aduersary quicklye, whyle thou art in the waye with hym, lest that aduersary deliuer the to the iudge, and the iudge deliuer the to the minister, and then thou be cast in to preson.

 26 I saye vnto the verely: thou shalt not come out thece, till thou haue payed the vtmost farthinge.
 27 Ye haue herde, how it was sayde to them of olde tyme: Thou shalt not committe aduoutrie.
 28 But I saye vnto you, that whosoeuer loketh on a wife lustyng after her, hath committed aduoutrie with hir already in his hert.
 29 Wherefore yf thy right eye offende the, plucke hym out, and cast him from the. Better it is for the, that one of thy membres perisse, then that thy whole body shulde be cast in to hell.
 30 Also yf thy right honde offende the, cut hym off, and cast him from the. Better yt is that one of thy mebres periss, the yt all yi body shulde be cast in to hell.
 31 It is sayde: whosoeuer putteth awaye his wyfe, let hym geue her a testimony all of the deuorcemet.
 32 But I saye vnto you: whosoeuer putteth awaye his wyfe (except it be for fornicacio causeth her to breake matrimony. And whosoeuer maryeth her that is deuorsed, breaketh wedlocke.
 33 Agayne, ye haue herde, how it was sayde to the of olde tyme: Thou shalt not forswear thy selfe, but shalt performe thyne ooth to God.
 34 But I saye vnto you: sweare not at all, nether by heaue, for it is Godis seate:
 35 nor yet by the earth, for it is his fote stole: nether by Ierusalem, for it is the cyte of ye greate kinge:
 36 nether shalt thou swear by thy heed, because thou canst not make one heer whyte or blacke:
 37 But your comunicacion shalbe, yee, yee: nay, nay. For what soeuer is more then that, commeth of euell.
 38 Ye haue herde howe it is sayde: An eye for an eye, a toth for a toth.
 39 But I saye vnto you: that ye resist not euell. But whosoeuer geueth the a blowe on thy right cheke, turne to him the other also.
 40 And yf eny man will sue the at the lawe, & take awaye thy coate, let him haue thy cloake also.
 41 And who so compelleth the to go a myle, go wt hym twayne.
 42 Geue to hym that axeth: and from hym that wolde borowe, turne not awaye.
 43 Ye haue herde, how it is saide: thou shalt loue thyne neyghboure, & hate thyne enemy.
 44 But I saye vnto you: loue youre enemies: Blesse the that curse you: Do good to the that hate you: Praye for the which do you wronge and persecute you, 45 that ye maye be the chyldeyn of youre father which is in heauen: for he maketh his sonne to aryse on the euell and on the good, and sendeth his rayne on the iust and vniuste.
 46 For yf ye loue them which loue you, what rewarde shall ye haue? Do not the Publicans eue so?
 47 And yf ye be frendly to youre brethren onely: what singuler thyngye do ye? Do not the Publicans also lyke wyse?

48 Ye shall therefore be perfecte, euen as youre father in heauen is perfecte.

Chapter 6

1 Take hede to youre almes, that ye geue it not in the syght of men, to the intent that ye wolde be sene of them: or els, ye get no rewarde of youre father which is in heauen.

2 When soeuer therefore thou geuest thine almes, thou shalt not make a trompet to be blown before the, as the ypocrites do in the synagoges and in the stretes, for to be praised of me. Verely I saye vnto you: they haue their rewarde.

3 But whe thou doest almes, let not thy lefte hande knowe, what thy righte hande doth;

4 that thine almes maye be secrete: and thy father which seith in secrete, shall rewarde the openly.

5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as ye ypocrytes are. For they loue to stode and praye in the synagoges, and in the corners of the stretes, to be sene of men. Verely I saie vnto you: they haue their rewarde.

6 But when thou prayest, entre in to thy chamber, and shut thy dore to the, & praye to thy father which is in secrete: and thy father which seith in secrete, shall rewarde the openly.

7 And when ye praye, bable not moch, as ye Hethen do: for they thinke that they shalbe herde, for their moch bablynges sake.

8 Be not ye lyke them therefore. For youre father knoweth where of ye haue nede, before ye axe of him.

9 After thys maner therefore shall ye praye: O oure father which art in heauen, halowed be thy name.

10 Thy kyngdome come. Thy wyll be fulfilled vpon earth as it is in heauen.

11 Geue vs this daye oure dayly bred.

12 And forgeue vs oure dettes, as we also forgeue oure detters.

13 And lede vs not in to teptacion: but delyuer vs from euell. For thyne is the kyngdome, and the power, and the glorye for euer. Amen.

14 For yf ye forgeue other men their trespasses, youre heauenly father shall also forgeue you.

15 But and ye wyll not forgeue me their trespasses, nomore shall youre father forgeue you youre trespasses.

16 Moreouer when ye fast, be not sad as ye ypocrytes are. For they disfigure their faces, that they myght be sene of men to fast. Verely I saye vnto you: they haue their rewarde.

17 But thou, whe thou fastest, annoynt thyne heed, and wash thy face, 18 that it appere not vnto men, that thou fastest: but vnto thy father which is in secrete: and thy father which seith in secrete, shal rewarde the openly.

19 Se that ye gather you not treasure vpon the earth, where rust and mothes corrupte, and where theues breake through and steale.

20 But gather you treasure together in heauen, where nether rust nor mothes corrupte, and where theues nether breake vp nor yet steale.

21 For where youre treasure is, there is youre herte also.

22 The eye is the light of the body. Yf thyne eye then be syngle, all thy body shalbe ful of light:

23 But and yf thyne eye be wycked, all thy body shalbe full of darckenes: Wherefore yf the light that is in the, be darckenes, how greate then shall that darckenes be?

24 No ma can serue two masters. For ether he shall hate the one and loue the other: or els he shall leane to the one, and despise the other: Ye can not serue God and mammon.

25 Therefore I saye vnto you: be not ye carefull for your lyfe, what ye shall eate, or what ye shall drinke: nor yet for youre body, what ye shal put on. Ys not the lyfe more worth the meate, and the body more of value then raymet?

26 Beholde the foules of ye ayer: for they sowe not, nether reepe, nor yet cary in to the barnes: and yet youre heauely father fedeth the. Are ye not moch better the they?

27 Which of you (though he toke thought therfore) coulde put one cubit vnto his stature?

28 why care ye then for rayment? Considre the lylies of the felde, how they growe. They labour not, nether spynne.

29 And yet for all that I saye vnto you, that euen Salomon in all his royalte was not arayed lyke vnto one of these.

30 Wherefore yf God so cloth the grasse, which is to daye in the felde, and to morowe shalbe cast into the fornace: shal he not moch more do the same vnto you, o ye of litle fayth?

31 Therfore take no thought, sayinge: what shall we eate, or what shall we drinke? or where with shall we be clothed?

32 After all soch thynges do the heithen seke. For youre heauenly father knoweth, that ye haue nede of all these thynges.

33 Seke ye fyrst the kyngdome of heauen and the righteousnes therof, so shal all these thynges be ministred vnto you.

34 Care not then for the morow, for the morow shall care for it self: Euery daye hath ynough of his owne trauayll.

Chapter 7

1 Ivdge not, that ye be not iudged:

2 For as ye iudge, so shal ye be iudged. And with what measure ye meete, with the same shall it be measured to you agayne.

3 Why seist thou a moate in thy brothers eye, and perceauest not the beame yt is yn thine awne eye?

4 Or why saiest thou to yi brother: holde, I wil plucke the moate out of thyne eye, and beholde, a beame is in thyne awne eye.

5 Ypocryte, fyrst cast out the beame out of thyne awne eye, and then shalt thou see clearly, to plucke out the moate out of thy brothers eye.

6 Geue not that which is holy, to dogges: nether cast ye youre pearles before swyne, lest they treade them vnder their fete, & the other turne agayne and all to rente you.

7 Axe, and it shalbe geuen you: Seke, and ye shall fynde: knocke, and it shalbe opened vnto you.

8 For whosoeuer axeth, receaueth: and he that seketh, fyndeth: and to hym yt knocketh, it shal opened.

9 Ys there eny man amonge you, which yf his sonne axed hym bred, wolde offer him a stone?

10 Or yf he axed fysshe, wolde he proffer hym a serpent?

11 yf ye then which are euell, can geue youre chyldren good gyftes: how moche more shall youre father which is in heauen, geue good thynges to them that axe hym?

12 Therfore what soeuer ye wolde that me shulde do to you, eue so do ye to them. This ys the lawe and the Prophetes.

13 Enter in at the straye gate: for wyde is the gate, and broade is the waye, that leadeth to destruction: & many there be, which go in therat.

14 But straye is the gate, and narowe ys the waye, which leadeth vnto lyfe, and fewe there be that fynde it.

15 Beware of false Prophetes, which come to you in shepes clothinge, but inwardly they are rauenynges wolues, 16 Ye shall knowe them by their frutes. Do men gather grapes of thornes? or figges of thistles?

17 Euen so euery good tree bryngeth forth good frute. But a corrupte tree, bryngeth forth euyl frute, 18 A good tree can not bryng forth bad frute: nother can a rotten tre bringe forth good frute.

19 Euery tre that bryngeth not forth good frute, shalbe hewen downe, and cast into the fyre.

20 Wherefore by their frutes ye shall knowe them.

21 Not all they that saye vnto me, LORDE LORDE, shall enter in to the kyngdome of heauen: but he that doth the will of my father which ys in heauen.

22 Many shall saye to me in that daye: LORDE, LORDE: haue we not prophecied in thy name? Haue we not cast out deuyls in thy name? Haue we not done many greate dedes in thy name?

23 And then will I knowlege vnto them: I neuer knewe you, Departe fro me, ye workers of iniquite.

24 Whosoeuer therefore heareth of me these sayinges, and doeth the same, I wyll lycke hym vnto a wyse man, which buylt hys house vpon a rocke:

25 Now whan abudaunce of rayne descended, and the wyndes blewe and bet vpon that same house, it fel not, because it was grounded on the rocke.

26 And who soeuer heareth of me these sayinges, & doth the not, shalbe lyckened vnto a folysh ma, which buylt his housse apon the sonde:

27 Now whan abudaunce of rayne descended, & the wyndes blewe, & bet vpon yt housse, it fell, and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to passe, that when Iesus had ended these saynges, the people were astonnyed at hys doctryne.

29 For he taught them as one hauyng power, and not as the Scribes.

Chapter 8

1 When he was come downe from the mountayne, moch people folowed him.

2 And lo, there came a leper, and worsheped him, sayinge: LORDE, yf thou wylt, thou canst make me cleane.

3 And Iesus put forth hys honde, & touched him, sayinge: I wyl, be thou cleane: & immediatly his leprosie was clensed?

4 And Iesus sayde vnto hym: Se thou tell no ma, but go and shew thy selfe to the preste, and offer the gyfte that Moses comaunded, in witness to them.

5 When Iesus was entred into Capernaum, there came vnto him a Captayne, & besought hym, 6 sayinge: Syr, my seruauit lyeth sicke at home of the palsye, and ys greuously payned.

7 Iesus sayd vnto hym: I wil come & heale him.

8 The Captayne answered and sayde: Syr, I am nor worthy, that thou shuldest come vnder my rofe, but speake the worde only, and my seruauit shalbe healed.

9 For I myselfe also am a ma subiect to ye auctorite of another, & haue soldiers vnder me. Yet wha I saye to one: go, he goeth, and to another: come, he commeth: & to my seruauit: do this, he doeth it.

10 When Iesus hearde that, he marueled, and sayde to them that folowed hym: Verely I say vnto you: I haue not founde so greate fayth: no not i Israel.

11 But I say vnto you: Many shall come from the east and west, and shall rest with Abraham, Isaac and Iacob in the kyngdome of heauen:

12 and the chyldren of the kyngdome shalbe cast out in to vtter darcknes: there shalbe wepinge & gnashing of teth.

13 And Iesus sayd vnto ye Captayne: go thy waye, and as thou beleuest, so be it vnto the. And his seruauit was healed the same houre.

14 And Iesus went in to Peters housse, and sawe hys wyues mother lyinge sicke of a feuer:

15 so he touched her hande, and the feuer left hir: and she arose, and ministred vnto them.

16 When the euen was come, they brought vnto him many that were possessed with deuyls. And he cast out ye spirites with a worde, & healed all that were sicke,

17 that ye thinge might be fulfilled, which was spoken by Esay the Prophet, sayinge: He toke on him oure infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 When Jesus sawe moche people about him, he commaunded to go ouer the water.

19 And there came a scribe and sayde vnto hym: master, I wyll folowe the, whyther so euer thou goest.

20 And Jesus sayde vnto him: the foxes haue holes, and the byrddes of the ayer hane nestes, but ye sonne of ma hath not wheron to rest his heede.

21 Another that was one of his disciples, sayde vnto hym: Syr, geue me leue fyrst, to go & burye my father.

22 But Jesus sayde vnto him: folowe thou me, and let the deed burie their deed.

23 And he entred in to a shyppe, & his disciples folowed him.

24 And beholde, there arose a greate tempest in the see, in so moche that the shippe was couered with wawes, & he was a slepe.

25 And his disciples came vnto him, and awoke hym, sayinge: LORDE, saue vs, we perishe.

26 And he sayde vnto them: why are ye fearfull, o ye of lytell faithe? Then he arose, and rebuked the wyndes and the see, & there folowed a greate calme.

27 And the men marueyled and sayde: what ma is this, that both wyndes and see obey hym?

28 And when he was come to ye other syde, in to the countre of the Gergesites, there met him two possessed of deuyls, which came out of the graues, and were out of measure feare, so that no man myght go by that waye.

29 And beholde, they cryed out sayinge: Oh Iesu thou sonne of God, what haue we to do wt the? Art thou come hyther to tormet vs, before the tyme be come?

30 And there was a good waye of from them a greate heerd of swyne fedinge.

31 Then the deuyles besought him, sayinge: yf thou cast vs out, suffre vs to go oure waye in to the heerd of swyne.

32 And he sayde vnto them: go youre wayes. Then went they out, and departed in to the heerd of swyne. And beholde, ye whoale heerd of swyne was caryed with violece headlinge in to the see, and perished in the water.

33 The the heerdmen fled and wente their wayes in to the cyte, and tolde euery thinge, & what had fortunied vnto the possessed of the deuyls.

34 And beholde, all the cyte came out and met Iesus. And when they sawe hym, they besought hym, for to departe out of their coostes.

Chapter 9

1 Then entred he into a shipp, and passed ouer and came into his awne cite.

2 And lo, they brought vnto him a man sicke of ye palsie, lyinge in his bed. And when Iesus sawe the faith of the, he sayde to the sicke of ye palsie: my sonne, be of good cheare, thy synnes are forgeue the.

3 And beholde, certeyne of the scribes sayde in them selues: this man blasphemeth.

4 But when Iesus sawe their thoughtes, he sayde: wherfore thinke ye euill in youre hertes?.

5 Whether ys it easier to saye: thy synnes be forgeue ye, or to saie: arise and walke?

6 But that ye maye knowe, that the sonne of man hath power to forgeue synnes in earth, the sayde he vnto the sicke of ye palsie: arise, take vp thy bed, and go home.

7 And he arose and wente home.

8 hen ye people sawe it, they marueyled, & glorified God, which had geue soch power vnto men.

9 And as Iesus passed forth from thence, he sawe a man syt a receyuinge of custome, named Mathew, & sayde vnto him: folowe me.

10 And he arose, and folowed him. And it came to passe as he sat at meate in the house: beholde, many publicans and synners came and sat downe also with Iesus and hys disciples.

11 When the Pharises sawe that, they sayde to hys disciples: why eateth youre master with publicans and synners?

12 When Iesus herde that, he sayde vnto them: The whole nede not ye phisicio, but they that are sicke.

13 Go and learne, what that meaneth: I haue pleasure in mercy, and not in offerynge. For I am not come to call the righteous, but ye synners to repentaunce, 14 Then came the disciples of Ihon to hym sayinge: why do we & ye Pharises fast so oft: and thy disciples fast not?

15 And Iesus sayde vnto the: Can the weddyng chylde mourne as loge as the bridegrome is with them? The tyme will come, when the bridegrome shalbe taken from them, and the shall they fast.

16 No man peceth an olde garment with a pece of newe clothe. For then taketh he awaye the pece agayne from the garment, & the rent ys made greater.

17 Nether do men put new wyne in to olde vessels, for then the vessels breake, and the wyne runneth out, & ye vessels peryshe, But they poure newe wyne in to newe vessels, and so are both saued together,

18 Whyle he thus spake vnto them, beholde there came a certayne ruler, and worshipped him, sayinge: My doughter is eue now deceased, but come and lay yi honde on her, and she shall liue.

19 Iesus arose and folowed hym with hys disciples.

20 And beholde, a woman which was diseased wt an yssue of bloude xij. yeres, came behynde hym, and touched the hem of hys vesture.

21 For she sayde in her silfe: yf I maye touche but euen his vesture only, I shalbe safe.

22 Then Iesus tourned him aboute, and behelde her, sayinge: Doughter be of good conforte, thy faith hath made ye safe. And she was made whole, euen that same houre.

23 And when Iesus came into the rulers house, and sawe the minstrels and the people raginge, 24 he sayde vnto them: Get you hece, for ye mayde is not deed, but slepeth. And they laughed hym to scorne.

25 But whan the people were put forth, he went in, and toke her by the honde, and the mayde arose.

26 And this was noysed through out all that londe.

27 And as Iesus departed thence, two blynde me folowed hym, cryinge and sayinge: O thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercy vpon vs.

28 And when he was come home, the blynde came to hym, And Iesus sayde vnto them Beleue ye, that I am able to do thys? And they sayde vnto hym: yee, LORDE.

29 Then touched he their eyes, sayinge: accordinge to youre fayth, be it vnto you.

30 And their eyes were opened. And Iesus charged the, sayinge: Se that no ma knowe of it.

31 But they departed, & spred abroade his name through out all the londe.

32 Whan these were gone out, beholde, they brought to hym a domme man possessed of a deuyl.

33 And whan the deuyl was cast out, the domme spake: And the people merueled sayinge: it was neuer so sene in Israel.

34 But ye Pharises sayde: he casteth out deuyls, thorow the chefe deuyll.

35 And Iesus wente aboute in all cities and townes, teachinge in their synagoges & preachinge ye gospel of ye kyngdome, & healinge all maner sicknes & all maner desease amoge the people.

36 And when he sawe the people, he had compassion on the, because they were pyned awaye, and scattered abroade, euen as shepe hauinge no shepherd, 37 Then sayde he to hys disciples: ye heruest is greate, but ye laborers are fewe.

38 Wherfore praye the LORDE of the haruest, to sende forth laborers into hys haruest.

Chapter 10

1 And he called his xii. disciples vnto hym, & gaue them power ouer vnclene spretes, to cast them out, & to heale all maner of sicknesses, and all maner of deseases.

2 The names of the xii. Apostels are these: The fyrst, Simon called Peter: & Andrew his brother. James the sonne of Zebede, and Ihon his brother.

3 Philip and Bartlemew. Thomas, and Mathew the Publican. James the sonne of Alphe, and Lebbeus otherwyse called Tadeus.

4 Simon of Cane, and Iudas Iscarioth, which also betrayed hym.

5 These twolue sent Iesus, and commaunded them, sayinge: Go not in to the wayes yt leade to the Heithen, and in to the cities of the Samaritas enter ye not.

6 But go rather to the lost shepe of the housse of Israel.

7 Go and preach, sayinge: The kyngdome of heue is at hande.

8 Heale the sicke, clense the lepers rayse the deed, cast out the deuils. Frely ye haue receaued, frely geue agayne.

9 Posses not golde, nor siluer, nor brasse yn youre gerdels,

10 nor yet scrip towards your iorney: nether two cotes, nether shues, nor yet a staffe. For the workman is worthy of his meate.

11 In to whatsoever cite or towne ye shall come, enquire in it, who is mete for you, and there abyde, tyll ye go thence.

12 And whe ye come in to an house, salute ye same.

13 And yf the housse be mete for you, yor peace shal come vpo it. But yf it be not mete for you, yor peace shal turne to you agayne.

14 And yf no man wil receaue you, ner heare youre preachinge, departe out of that house or that cite, and shake the dust of youre fete.

15 Truly I saye vnto you: it shall be easier for ye londe of Sodoma and Gomorra in ye daye of iudgment, then for that cite.

16 Beholde, I sende you forth as shepe amoge wolues. Be ye therfore wyse as serpentes, and innocent as doues.

17 Beware of men, for they shall deliuer you vp to the counsels, and shal scourge you in their synagoges.

18 And ye shall be brought before prynces and kynges for my sake, in witnes to them and to the gentyls.

19 But when they deliuer you vp, take no thought how or what ye shall speake, for yt shalbe geuen you, euen in that same houre, what ye shall saye.

20 For it is not ye that speake, but the sprete of your father which speaketh in you.

21 The brother shall deliuer the brother to deeth, and the father the sonne. And the chylde shall aryse agaynst their fathers & mothers, & shall helpe them to deeth:

22 & ye shall be hated of all men for my names sake. But he yt endureth to the ende, shalbe saued.

23 When they persecute you in one cite, flye in to another. I tell you for a treuth, ye shall not fynysshe all the cities of Israel, tyll the sonne of man come.

24 The disciple is not aboute the master, nether the seruaunt aboute the LORDE.

25 It is ynough for the disciple, to be as his master, and the seruaunt as his LORDE. Yf they haue called the good ma of the house Beelzebub, how moche more shal they call them of his housholde so?

26 Feare them not therfore. There is nothinge hyd, that shal not be openly shewed: and nothinge secrete, that shall not be knowne.

27 What I tell you in darcknes, that speake ye in light: and what ye heare in the eare, that preach ye vpon the house toppes.

28 And feare ye not them that kyll the body, and be not able to kyll the soule. But rather feare hi, which is able to destroye both soule and body in to hell.

29 Are not two sparowes solde for a farthinge? Yet doth there none of the light vpon the groude without youre father.

30 And now are all ye hayres of youre heade tolde.

31 Feare ye not therefore: ye are of more value then many sparowes.

32 Therefore whosoever knowleth me before me, him wil I knowlege also before my father which is in heauen.

33 But who soeuer denyeth me before me, him wil I also deny before my father which is in heauen.

34 Thynke not that I am come to sende peace vpon earth. I came not to sende peace, but a swerde.

35 For I am come to set a ma at variaunce ageynst his father, and the doughter ageynst hir mother, & the doughter in lawe ageynst her mother in lawe:

36 and a mans foes shalbe they of his owne housholde.

37 Who so loueth father and mother more then me, is not mete for me: and he that loueth sonne or doughter more then me, is not mete for me.

38 And he yt taketh not his crosse and foloweth me, is not mete for me.

39 Who so fyndeth his life, shal lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake, shal fynde it.

40 He that receaueth you, receaueth me: & who so receaueth me, receaueth him yt sent me.

41 He that receaueth a prophet in the name of a prophet, shal receaue a prophetes reward. He yt receaueth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man, shal receane a righteous mans reward:

42 And who soeuer geueth vnto one of the least of these a cupp of colde water onely to drinke, in ye name of a disciple, verely I saie vnto you: he shal not lose his reward.

Chapter 11

1 And it came to passe, wha Iesus had made an ende of comaunding his twolue disciples, he departed thence. to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 Whan Ihon beinge in preson herde of the workes of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 and sayde vnto him: Art thou he yt shal come, or shal we loke for another?

4 Iesus answered and sayde vnto the: Go youre waye and tell Ihon agayne, what ye se and heare.

5 The blynde se, and the lame go: the lepers are censed, and ye deaf heare: the deed aryse ageyne, and the gospell is preached to the poore:

6 and blessed is he, that is not offended at me.

7 Whan they wente their waye, Iesus beganne to speake vnto the people, concernynge Ihon: What are ye gone out for to se in the wyldernes? Wolde ye se a rede shaken with the wynde?

8 Or what are ye gone out for to se? Wolde ye se a man clothed in soft rayment? Beholde, they that weare soft clothinge, are in kinges houses, 9 But what are ye gone out for to se? A prophet? Yee I saie vnto you, and more the a prophet.

10 For this is he, of who it is written: Beholde, I sende my messauger before thy face, which shal prepare thy waye before the.

11 Verely I saie vnto you: Amonge ye children of women arose there not a greater then Ihon the baptist. Not withstandinge he that is lesse in the kyngdome of Heauen, is greater then he.

12 From the tyme of Ihon baptist hither to, ye kyngdome of heauen suffreth violence, and the violent plucke it vnto them.

13 For all the prophetes and the lawe prophecied vnto Ihon.

14 Also yf ye wil receaue it, this is Helias, which shulde come.

15 Who so hath eares to heare, let hi heare.

16 But where vnto shal I licke this generacion? It is like vnto childe which syt in the market, and call vnto their felowes, 17 & saie: ye haue pyped vnto you, and ye wolde not daunse: We haue morned vnto you, & ye wolde not wepe.

18 For Ihon came nether eatinge nor drynkinge, & they saie: he hath the deuyll.

19 The sonne of man came eatinge and drynkinge, & they saie: lo what a glutton and wyne bebbber this ma is, and a companyon of publicans & synners? And wissdome is iustified of hir children.

20 Then beganne he to vprade the cities, in the which most of his miracles were done, because they amended not.

21 Wo vnto the Chorasin, Wo vnto the Bethsaida: for yf the miracles which haue bene shewed amoge you, had bene done in Tyre and Sidon, they had repented longe agoo in sack cloth and ashes.

22 Neuertheles I saie vnto you: It shalbe easier for Tyre and Sidon in the daye of iudgment, then for you.

23 And thou Capernaum which art lift vp vnto heauen, shalt be brought downe vnto hel. For yf the miracles which haue bene done in the, had bene shewed in Sodom, they had remained vnto this daye.

24 Neuertheles I saie vnto you: It shalbe easier for the londe of Sodome in the daye of iudgment, the for the.

25 At ye same tyme Iesus answered, and sayde: I prayse the (O father and LORDE of heauen and earth) that thou hast hid these thinges from the wyse and prudent, and opened the vnto babes.

26 Euen so father, for so it pleased the.

27 All thinges are geuen ouer vnto me of my father: and no ma knoweth the sonne, but the father: nether knoweth eny man the father, saue the sonne, and he to whom the sonne wil open it.

28 Come vnto me all ye that labour and are laden, and I wil ease you.

29 Take my yock vpon you, and lerne of me, for I am meke and lowlye of hert, & ye shal fynde rest vnto youre soules:

30 for my yock is easy, and my burden is light.

Chapter 12

1 At the same tyme wete Iesus thorow the corne vpon the Sabbath, and his disciples were hongrie, and beganne to plucke of the eares of the corne, and to eate.

2 When ye Pharises sawe that, they sayde vnto him: Beholde, thy disciples do that, which is not lafull to do vpon the Sabbath.

3 He sayde vnto them: haue ye not red what Daudid did, whan he was hongrie, & they also yt were with him?

4 How he entred in to the house of God, & ate the shew breds which were not lafull for him to eate, nether for the yt were with him, but onely for the prestes?

5 Or haue ye not red in the lawe how that the prestes in the temple breake the Sabbath, and yet are blamelesse?

6 But I saie vnto you: yt here is one greater then the temple.

7 But yf ye wist what this were (I haue pleasure in mercy, and not in offeringe) ye wolde not haue condemned innocents:

8 For the sonne of man is LORDE euen ouer the Sabbath.

9 And he departed thence, and wente in to their synagoge:

10 and beholde, there was a ma which had his hade dried vp. And they axed him, sayenge: Is it lafull to heale, vpon the Sabbath? because they might accuse him.

11 But he sayde vnto the: Which of you is it, yf he had a shepe falle in to a pytte vpon the Sabbath, that wolde not take him, and lift him out?

12 And how moch is a man better then a shepe? Therefore it is lefull to do good vpon the Sabbath.

13 Then sayde he to the ma: Stretch forth thine hande. And he stretched it forth: and it was whole agayne like vnto the other.

14 Then wente the Pharises out, and helde a councill agaynst him, how they might destroye him.

15 But wha Iesus knew therof, he departed thence, & moch people folowed him: and he healed them all,

16 and charged them, yt they shulde not make him knowne:

17 that the thinge might be fulfilled, which was spoken by Esay the prophet, which sayeth:

18 Beholde, this is my seruauant, whom I haue chosen: and my beloued, in whom my soule delyteth: I wil put my sprete vpon hi, and he shal shewe iudgment vnto the Heithen.

19 He shal not stryue, ner crye, nether shal eny man heare his voyce in the stretes.

20 A brosed rede shal he not breake, and flax that beginneth to burne shal he not quench, tyll he sende forth iudgment vnto victory.

21 And in his name shal the Heithen trust.

22 Then was there brought vnto him one possessed (of a deuell) the which was blynde and domne, and he healed him: in so moch yt ye blynde and domne both spake and sawe.

23 And all the people were amased, and sayde: Is not this the sonne of Daudid?

24 But whan the Pharises herde that, they sayde: He dryueth the deuyls out none other wyse, but thorow Beelzebub the chefe of the deuyls.

25 Neuertheles Iesus knew their thoughtes, and sayde vnto them: Euery kyngdome deuyded within it self, shalbe desolate: and euery cite or house deuyded in it self, maye not contynue.

26 So yf one Sathan cast out another, the is he at variaunce within him self: how maye then his kyngdome endure?

27 But yf I cast out deuyls thorow Beelzebub, thorow whom do youre childe cast them out? Therefore shal they be youre iudges.

28 But yf I cast out the deuyls by the sprete of God then is the kyngdome of God come vpon you.

29 Or how ca a man entre in to a stronge mans house, and violently take awaye his goodes, excepte he first bynde the stronge ma, & the spoyle his house?

30 He that is not wt me, is agaynst me: & he yt gathereth not wt me, scatereth abroad.

31 Therefore I saie vnto you: All synne and blasphemy shalbe forgeuen vnto men, but the blasphemy agaynst the sprete shal not be forgeuen vnto men:

32 And whosoever speaketh a worde agaynst the sonne of man, it shalbe forgeue him. But whosoever speaketh agaynst the holy goost it shal not be forgeuen him, nether in this worlde, ner in the worlde to come.

33 Either make the tre good and his frute good also, or els make the tre euell & his frute euell also. For the tre is knowne by the frute.

34 O ye generacio of vypers, how can ye speake good, whan ye youre selues are euell? For of ye abundace of ye hert ye mouth speaketh.

35 A good man out of the good treasure of his hert, bringeth forth good thinges: & an euell man out of his euell treasure, bringeth forth euell thinges.

36 But I saie vnto you, that of euery ydell worde that me haue spoken, they shal geue accomptes at ye daye of iudgment.

37 Out of thy wordes thou shalt be iustified, & out of thy wordes thou shalt be codemned.

38 Then answered certayne of the scribes and Pharises, and sayde: Master, we wolde fayne se a toke of the.

39 And he answered and saide vnto the: This euell and aduouterous generacion seketh a token: and there shal no token be geuen the, but the token of the prophete Ionas.

40 For as Ionas was thre dayes and thre nightes in the Whalles bely, so shal the sonne of ma be thre dayes and thre nightes in the hert of the earth.

41 The men of Ninyue shal ryse in the last iudgment with this generacion, and shal condemne it: for they dyd penaunce acordinge to ye preachinge of Ionas. And beholde, here is one greater the Ionas.

42 The queene of the south shal aryse in the last iudgment with this generacion, and shal condene it: for she came from the vttemost partes of the earth, to heare ye wysdome of Salomon: And lo, here is one greater then Salomon.

43 Whan the vnclene sprete is gone out of man, he walketh thorow dry places, sekinge rest, & fyndeth none.

44 The saieth he: I wil turne agayne in to my house, fro whence I wete out. And whan he cometh, he fyndeth it emptye, swepte and garnysed.

45 Then goeth he his waye, & taketh vnto him seuen other spretes worse then him self: and whan they are entred in, they dwell there: And the ende of that man is worse then the begynnynge. Euen so shal it go wt this euell generacion.

46 Whye he yet talked vnto the people, beholde, his mother & his brethre stode without desyringe to speake wt him.

47 Then sayde one vnto him: Beholde, thy mother and thy brethren stonde without, & wolde speake wt the.

48 Neuertheles he answered & sayde vnto him that tolde him: Who is my mother? & who are my brethren?

49 And he stretched forth his hande ouer his disciples, & sayde: Beholde my mother and my brethre.

50 For who soeuer doth ye wyll of my father which is in heaue, the same is my brother, sister and mother.

Chapter 13

1 The same daye wente Iesus out of ye house, and sat by the see syde,

2 & moch people resorted vnto him: so yt he wete in to a shypp and satt him downe, and all the people stode vpo the shore.

3 And he spake many things vnto the in symylitudes, sayenge: Beholde, The sower wente forth to sowe:

4 and as he sowed, some fell by the waye syde: Then came the foules, & ate it vp.

5 Some fell vpon stony grounde, & anone it spronge vp, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But whan the Sonne arose, it caught heate: and for so moch as it had no rote, it withred awaye.

7 Some fell amoge the thornes, & the thornes grewe vp, and choked it.

8 Some fell vpo good groude, & gaue frute: some an hundredth folde, some sixtie folde, some thirtie folde.

9 Who so hath eares to heare, let hi heare.

10 And the disciples came vnto him, and sayde: Why speakest thou to the by parables?

11 He answered and sayde vnto the: Vnto you it is geuen to knowe the mystery of the kingdome of heauen, but vnto them it is not geuen.

12 For whoso hath, vnto him shal be geue, and he shal haue abundaunce. But who so hath not, from him shalbe taken awaye, eue that he hath.

13 Therefore speake I vnto the by parables, for with seyng eyes they see not, & with hearinge eares they heare not, for they vnderstode it not.

14 And in them is fulfilled ye prophecie of Esay, which sayeth: Ye shal heare in dede, and shal not vnderstode: and with seinge eyes shal ye see, and not perceaue.

15 For ye hert of this people is waxed grosse, & their eares are thick of hearige, & their eyes haue they closed, lest they shulde once se wt ye eyes, & heare wt the eares, & vnderstode wt the hert, & turne, that I might heale them.

16 But blessed are youre eyes, for they see: & youre eares, for they heare.

17 Verely I saye vnto you: Many prophetes & righteous men haue desyred to se ye things that ye se, and haue not sene the: and to heare the things that ye heare, and haue not herde the.

18 Heare ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 Whan one heareth ye worde of the kyngdome, and vnderstodeth it not, the euell man cometh, and plucketh it awaye that is sowne in his hert: & this is he yt is sowne by the waye syde.

20 But he yt is sowne in the stony grounde, is this: wha one heareth the worde, & anone with ioye receaueith it:

21 neuertheles he hath no rote i him, but endureth for a season: wha trouble & persecucion aryseth because of the worde, immediatly he his offended.

22 As for him that is sowne amonge ye thornes, this is he: Wha one heareth the worde, & the carefulnes of this worlde, & the disceatfulnes of riches choke the worde, & so he becometh vnfrutefull.

23 But he yt is sowne in the good grounde, is this: whan one heareth the worde, and vnderstodeth it, and bringeth forth frute: and some geueth an hundredth folde, some sixtie folde, and some thirtie folde.

24 Another parable put he forth vnto the, & sayde: The kyngdome of heaue is like vnto a man, yt sowed good sede in his felde.

25 But whye me slepte, there came an enemye, and sowed tares amonge ye wheate, & wente his waye.

26 Now wha the blade was sproge vp & brought forth frute, the ye tares appeared also.

27 Then came the seruantes to ye housholder, & sayde vnto him: Syr, sowdest not thou good sede in yi felde? Fro whence the hath it tares?

28 He sayde vnto the: that hath the enemye done. The sayde ye seruantes: wilt thou then yt we go & wede the out?

29 He sayde: No, lest whye ye wede out ye tares, ye plucke vp the wheate also wt the.

30 Let the both growe together tyll the haruest, and in tyme of haruest I wil saye vnto the reapers: Gather ye tares first, & bynde the in sheeues to be bret: but gather the wheate in to my barne.

31 Another parable put he forth vnto the, and sayde: The kyngdome of heauen is like vnto a grane of mustarde sede, which a man toke, and sowed it in his felde.

32 Which is the leest amonge all sedes. But whan it is growne, it is the greatest amonge herbes, and is a tre: so that the byrdes vnder the heauen come and dwell in the braunches of it.

33 Another parable spake he vnto the: The kyngdome of heaue is like vnto leue, which a woman toke, and myxte it amonge thre peckes of meelee, tyll all was leuended.

34 All soch things spake Iesus vnto ye people by parables, & without parables spake he nothinge vnto the:

35 yt the thinge might be fulfilled, which was spoke by ye prophet, sayenge: I wil open my mouth in parables, and wil speake out the secretes from the begynnynge of the worlde.

36 Then sent Iesus the people awaye, and came home. And his disciples came vnto hi, and sayde: Declare vnto us ye parable of ye tares of ye felde.

37 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them: He that soweth the good sede, is the sonne of man:

38 the felde is the worlde: ye good sede are the childe of the kyngdome: The tares are the children of wickednes:

39 ye enemye that soweth the, is the deuell: ye haruest is the ende of the worlde: ye reapers are ye angels.

40 For like as ye tares are weded out, and brent in the fyre, eue so shal it go in ye ende of this worlde.

41 The sonne of man shal sende forth his angels, & they shal gather out of his kyngdome all things yt offende, & the yt do iniquyte, 42 & shal cast the in to a fornace of fyre, there shalbe waylinge and gnasshing of teth.

43 The shal the righteous shyne as the Sonne, in the kyngdome of their father. Who so hath eares to heare, let him heare.

44 Agayne, the kyngdome of heauen is like vnto a treasure hyd in the felde, which a ma founde and hid it, and for ioye therof he wete & solde all yt he had, and bought yt felde.

45 Agayne, the kyngdome of heauen is like vnto a marchaut, yt sought good pearles:

46 & wha he had founde a precious pearle, he wete and solde all that he had, & bought it.

47 Agayne, ye kyngdome of heaue is like vnto a nett cast in to ye see, wherwith are take all maner of fyshes:

48 & wha it is ful, me drawe it out vnto ye shore, & sytt & gather ye good i to the vessels, but cast the bad awaye.

49 So shal it be also in ye ende of ye worlde. The angels shal go out, & seuer the bad fro the righteous,

50 & shal cast the in to a fornace of fyre, there shalbe waylinge & gnasshing of teth.

51 And Iesus sayde vnto them: Haue ye vnderstode all these thinges? They sayde: Yee LORDE.

52 Then sayde he vnto the: Therfore euery scribe taught vnto ye kyngdome of heauen, is like an houssholder, which bryngeth out of his treasure thinges new and olde.

53 And it came to passe wha Iesus had ended these parables, he departed thence, 54 and came in to his owne coutre, and taught the in their synagoges: in so moch, that they were astonnyed and sayde: Whece cometh soch wysdome & power vnto him?

55 Is not this the carpeters sonne? Is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren Iames & Ioses, and Symon and Iude?

56 And are not all his sisters here with us? Whence hath he the all these thinges?

57 And they were offended at him. But Iesus sayde vnto the: A prophet is nowhere lesse sett by, the at home & amonge his owne.

58 And he dyd not many miracles there, because of their vnbeleue.

Chapter 14

1 At that tyme Herode ye Tetrarcha herde of ye fame of Iesu,

2 & sayde vnto his seruantes: This is Iho ye baptist. He is rysen agayne fro the deed, therefore are his dedes so mightie.

3 For Herode had take Iho bounde hi, & put him in preson for Herodias sake his brothers Philips wife.

4 For Ihon sayde vnto him: It is not lauffull for ye to haue her.

5 And fayne wolde he haue put him to death, but he feared the people, because they helde him for a Prophet.

6 But whan Herode helde his byrth daye, the daughter of Herodias daunsed before the, and that pleased Herode well,

7 wherfore he promysed her with an ooth, yt he wolde geue her, what soeuer she wolde axe.

8 And she (beyng instructed of hir mother afore) sayde: geue me Ihon baptistes heade in a platter.

9 And the kynge was sory. Neuertheles for ye ooth sake, & the yt sat with him at ye table, he comaunded it to be geuen her,

10 and sent, & beheeded Ihon in the preson.

11 And his heed was brought in a platter, and geuen to the damsell, & she brought it vnto her mother.

12 Then came his disciples, and toke his body, and buried it, and wente and tolde Iesus.

13 Whan Iesus hetde yt, he departed thence by shippe in to a desert place alone. And wha the people herde therof, they folowed him on fote out of ye cities.

14 And Iesus wete forth, and sawe moch people, and had pytie vpon them, and healed their sicke.

15 But at euen his disciples came vnto him, & saide: This is a deserte place, and ye night falleth on: let ye people departe from the, that they maye go in to the townes, and bye them vyttayles.

Chapter 15

16 But Iesus sayde vnto them: They nede not go awaye, geue ye the to eate.

17 The saide they vnto him: We haue here but fyue loaues and two fyshes.

18 And he sayde: bringe the hither.

19 And he comaunded ye people to syt downe vpon the grasse, and toke ye fyue loaues and two fyshes, and lokyd vp towarde heauen, and gaue thankes, and brake and gaue the loaues vnto the disciples, and the disciples gaue them to the people.

20 And they all ate, and were suffised. And they gathered vp of the broken meate that remayned ouer, twolue basskettes full.

21 And they yt ate, were aboute a fyue thousande men, besyde wemen and children.

22 And straight waye Iesus made his disciples to entre in to a shippe, & to go ouer before hi, tyll he had sent ye people awaye.

23 And whan he had sent the people awaye, he wete vp in to a mountayne alone, to make his prayer. And at euen he was there him self alone.

24 And ye shippe was already in ye myddest of the see, & was tost wt wawes, for the winde was cotrary.

25 But in ye fourth watch of ye night Iesus came vnto the, walkinge vpon the see.

26 And whan his disciples sawe him goinge vpon the see, they were afrayed, sayenge: It is some sprete, and cried out for feare.

27 But straight waye Iesus spake vnto them, and sayde: Be of good cheare, it is I, be not afrayed.

28 Peter answered him, & saide: LORDE, yf it be thou, byd me come vnto the vpon ye water.

29 And he sayde: come on yi waye. And Peter stepte out of the shippe, & wete vpon the water, to come vnto Iesus.

30 But whan he sawe a mightie wynde, he was afrayed, & begane to synke, & cried, sayenge: LORDE, helpe me.

31 And imediatly Iesus stretched forth his hande, & caught him, & sayde vnto him: O thou of litle faith, wherfore doutest thou?

32 And they wente in to the shippe, & the wynde ceased.

33 Then they that were in ye shippe, came & fell downe before him, & sayde: Of a trueth thou art ye sonne of God.

34 And they shipped ouer, & came in to the lode of Genazereth.

35 And wha ye me of yt place had knowlege of hi, they sent out in to all that coutre rounde aboute, & brought vnto him all that were sicke, 36 & besought him, that they might but touch the hemme of his vesture onely: & as many as touched it, were made whole.

1 Then came vnto him the scribes and pharises from Ierusalem, sayenge:

2 Why do thy disciples transgresse ye tradicions of the elders? for they wash not their hodes whan they eate bred.

3 He answered & sayde vnto the: Why do ye transgresse the comaundemet of God, because of youre owne tradicions?

4 For God comaunded, sayege: Honoure father & mother: & he yt curseth father & mother, shal dye the death.

5 But ye saye: Euery man shal saye to father or mother: The thige yt I shulde helpe ye withal, is geue vnto God.

6 By this is it come to passe, that no man honoureth his father or his mother eny more. And thus haue ye made the comaundemet of God of none effecte, for youre owne tradicions.

7 Ye ypocrites, full well hath Esaye prophecied of you, & sayde:

8 This people draweth nye vnto me wt their mouth, & honoureth me wt their lippes, howbeit, their hert is farre fro me.

9 But in wayne do they serue me, whyle they teach soch doctrynes as are nothinge but the commaundementes of men.

10 And he called ye people to hi, & saide vnto the: Heare & vnderstode:

11 That which goeth in to the mouth, defyleth not the ma: but yt which cometh out of the mouth, defyleth ye ma.

12 Then came his disciples, & sayde vnto him: knowest thou yt the Pharises were offended, whan they herde this sayenge?

13 He answered, and sayde: All plantes which my heauenly father hath not planted, shal be pluckte vp by ye rotes.

14 Let the go, they are ye blynde leaders of ye blynde. Wha one blinde leadeth another, they fall both i ye diche.

15 Then answered Peter & sayde vnto him: Declare vnto us this parable.

16 And Iesus sayde vnto the: Are ye yet the without vnderstondinge?

17 Perceauye ye not, yt what soeuer goeth in at ye mouth, descedeth downe in to ye bely, & is cast out into the draught?

18 But the thinge that proceedeth out of the mouth, cometh fro ye hert, & that defyleth ye ma.

19 For out of ye hert come euell thoughtes murthur, breakynge of wedlocke, whordome theft, false witness, blasphemy.

20 These are ye thinges that defyle a man. But to eate wt vnwasshen hondes, defyleth not a man.

21 And Iesus wente out from thence, & departed in to the coastes of Tyre of Sidon.

22 And beholde, a woma of Canaan wete out of ye same coastes, & cried after him, sayege: O LORDE, thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercy vpon me. My daughter is sore vexed wt a deuell.

23 And he answered her neuer a worde. The came his disciples vnto him, & besought him, sayege: Sede her awaye, for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered, & saide: I am not sent, but vnto the lost shepe of the house of Israel.

25 Notwithstondinge she came & fell downe before him, & sayde: LORDE, helpe me.

26 He answered & sayde: It is not good, to take the childrens bred, & to cast it vnto dogges.

27 It is trueth LORDE (sayde she) Neuertheles the whelpes eate of the crommes, that fall fro their lordes table.

28 Then answered Iesus & sayde vnto her: O woma, greate is yi faith be it vnto the, eue as thou desyrest. And hir daughter was made hole at ye same houre.

29 And Iesus departed thece, and came nye vnto the see of Galile, and wente vp in to a mountayne, and sat downe there,

30 And there came vnto him moch people, hauinge with them, lame, blynde, dome, crepell, and other many, and cast them downe at Iesus fete. And he healed the,

31 in so moch that the people wodred, to se the dome speake, the crepell whole, the halt to go, & the blynde to se. And they praysed the God of Israel.

32 And Iesus called his disciples vnto him, & sayde: I haue copassion vpon the people, for they haue cotynued wt me now thre dayes, & haue nothinge to eate, & I wil not let the departe fastynge, lest they perishe in ye waye.

33 And his disciples sayde vnto him: Whence shulde we get so moch bred in the wyldernes, that we might satisfisfie so moch people?

34 And Iesus sayde vnto the: How many loaues haue ye? They sayde: seue, & a few litle fyshes.

35 And he comaunded ye people to syt downe vpo the grounde,

36 and toke ye seue loaues, & the fyshes, & gaue thankes & brake the, & gaue the to his disciples, & ye disciples gaue the vnto the people.

37 And they all ate, & were suffised. And they toke vp of the broke meate yt was left, seuen basskettes full.

38 And they yt ate, were foure thousande me, besyde wemen and children.

39 And whan he had sent awaye the people, he wente in to a shippe, & came in to the parties of Magdala.

Chapter 16

1 Then came the Pharises & Saduces vnto him, & tepted him, requyringe him to shewe the a toke from heaue.

2 But he answered, & sayde: At eue ye saye: It wil be fayre wedder. for ye sskye is reed.

3 And in ye mornynge, ye saye: It wil be foule wedder to daye, for the sskye is reed, & gloometh. O ye ypocrytes, ye can discerne the fashion of ye sskye: can ye not the discerne the tokes of these tymes also?

4 This euell and aduouterous generacio seketh a toke, & there shal no toke be geue the, but the toke of ye prophet Ionas. So he left the, and departed.

5 And wha his disciples were come to the other syde of the water, they had forgotten to take bred wt them.

6 Iesus sayde vnto the: Take hede & beware of the leue of ye Pharises & of the Saduces.

7 The thought they in the selues, sayege: We haue take no bred wt us.

8 Whe Iesus perceaued yt, he sayde to the: O ye of litle faith, why are ye combred (in yor mindes (because ye haue take no bred wt you?

9 Do ye not yet perceauye? Remembre ye not those fyue loaues, whe there were fyue thousande me, and how many basskettes toke ye vp?

10 Nether ye seue loaues whan there were foure thousande men, & how many baskettes toke ye vp?

11 Why perceauye ye not then, yt I spake not to you of bred, whe I saide: beware of ye leue of ye Pharises & of ye Saduces?

12 The vnderstode they, how yt he had not the beware of the leue of bred, but of ye doctryne of the Pharises and of the Saduces.

13 Then came Iesus into the coastes of the cite Cesarea Philippi, & axed his disciples & saide: Who do me saie, yt ye sonne of ma is?

14 They sayde: Some saye, yt thou art Iho the baptist, Some yt thou art Elias, Some yt thou art Jeremy, or one of ye prophetes.

15 He saide to the: But who saye ye yt I am.

16 The answered Symo Peter and saide: Thou art Christ ye sonne of ye luyinge God.

17 And Iesus answered, & saide vnto hi: Blessed art thou Symo ye sonne of Ionas, for flesh & bloude hath not opened yt vnto the, but my father yt is in heaue.

18 And I saie to ye: Thou art Peter, & vpo this rocke wil I builde my cogregation: and ye gates of hell shal not preuayle agaynst it.

19 And the keyes of heauen wil I geue vnto the: Whatsoeuer thou shalt bynde vpon earth, shalbe bounde also in heauen: & whatsoeuer thou shalt lowse vpon earth, shalbe lowsed also in heaue.

20 Then charged he his disciples, that they shulde tell no ma that he was Iesus Christ.

21 From that tyme forth beganne Iesus to shew vnto his disciples, how that he must go vnto Ierusalem, and suffre many thinges of the elders, and of the hye prestes, and of the scribes, and be put to death, and ryse againe the thirde daye.

22 But Peter toke him asyde, and beganne to rebuke him, sayenge: LORDE, faouore thy self, let not this happen vnto the.

23 Neuertheles he turned him aboute, & sayde vnto Peter: Auoyde fro me Satha, thou hindrest me, for thou sauourest not ye thinges that be of God, but of men.

24 Then sayde Iesus vnto his disciples: Yf eny man wil folowe me, let him forsake himself, & take vp his crosse, and folowe me.

 25 For who so wil saue his life, shal lose it: but whoso loseth his life for my sake, shal fynde it.
 26 What helpeth it a man though he warne the whole worlde, and yet suffred harme in his soule? Or what can a man geue, to redeme his soule withall?
 27 For it wil come to passe, that the sonne of ma shal come in the glory of his father with his angels, and then shal he rewarde euery one accordinge to his dedes.
 28 Verely I saye vnto you: there stonde here some, which shal not taist of death, tyll they se ye sonne of ma come in his kingdome.

Chapter 17

1 And after sixe dayes Iesus toke Peter Iames, and Ihon his brother, and brought them vp in to an hye mountayne out of the waye,
 2 and was transfigured before the: & his face shone as ye Sonne, and his clothes were as white as the light.
 3 And beholde, there appeared vnto the Moses and Elias talkinge with him.
 4 Then answered Peter, and sayde vnto Iesus: LORDE, here is good beyng for us. Yf thou wilt, let us make here thre tabernacles: one for the, one for Moses, and one for Elias.
 5 Whye he yet spake, beholde, a bright cloude ouershadowed them: and lo, there came a voyce out of the cloude, saienge: This is my deare sonne, in whom I delyste, heare him.
 6 Whan ye disciples herde that, they fell vpon their faces, and were sore afrayed.
 7 But Iesus came and touched them, and sayde: Aryse, and be not afrayed.
 8 And whan they loked vp, they sawe no man, but Iesus onely.
 9 And wha they came downe fro ye mountayne, Iesus charged them, and sayde: Tell no man of this vision, tyll the sonne of man be rysen agayne from ye deed.
 10 And his disciples axed him, and sayde: Why saye the scribes then, that Elias must first come?
 11 Iesus answered and sayde vnto them: Elias shall come first in dede, and bringe all thinges to right agayne.
 12 But I saye vnto you: Elias is come all ready, & they knewe him not, but haue done vnto him what they wolde. Eue so shal also the sonne of man suffre of them.
 13 Then the disciples perceaued, that he spake vnto them of Ihon the baptist.
 14 And whan they were come to the people, there came vnto him a certayne man, and kneled vnto him, and sayde:
 15 LORDE, haue mercy vpon my sonne, for he is lunatike, & sore vexed. He falleth oft tymes in to ye fyre, and oft in to ye water:
 16 and I brought him vnto thy disciples, and they coude not heale him.
 17 Iesus answered, and sayde: O thou faithles and frowarde generacion, how longe shal I be with you? How longe shal I suffre you? Bringe him hither to me.

 18 And Iesus rebuked him, and ye deuyl wete out of him, and ye childe was healed, euen that same houre.
 19 Then came the disciples vnto Iesus secretly, & sayde: Why coude not we cast him out?
 20 Iesus sayde vnto them: Because of youre vnbeleue. For I saye verely vnto you? Yf ye haue faith as a grane of mustarde sede, ye maye saye vnto this mountayne: Remoue hence to yonder place, and he shal remoue, nether shal enythinge be vnpossible vnto you.
 21 How beit this kinde goeth not out, but by prayer and fastyng.
 22 Whye they occupied in Galile, Iesus sayde vnto them: it wil come to passe, that the sonne of man shalbe delyuered in to the hondes of men,
 23 and they shal kyll him, and the thirde daye shal he aryse agayne. And they were very sorry.
 24 Now wha they were come to Capernaum, they that receaued ye tribute money, came to Peter, and sayde: Doth youre master paye tribute?
 25 He sayed: yee. And when he was come home, Iesus preuented him, and sayde: What thinkest thou Symon? Of whom do the kynges of the earth take toll or tribute? Of their children, or of straungers?
 26 Then sayde Peter to him: Of straungers. Iesus sayde vnto him: Then are ye children fre.
 27 Neuertheles lest we offende them, go thy waye to the see, and cast thine angle, and take the fysh that first cometh vp, and whan thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt fynde a pece of twenty pens, take that, and geue it them for me and the.

Chapter 18

1 At the same tyme came the disciples vnto Iesus, and sayde: Who is the greatest in the kyngdome of heauen?
 2 And Iesus called a childe vnto him, and set him in the myddest amonge them,
 3 and sayde: Verely I saye vnto you: Excepte ye turne and become as children, ye shal not entre into the kyngdome of heauen.
 4 Whosoouer therfore humbleth him self as this childe, ye same is the greatest in ye kyngdome of heauen.
 5 And who so receaueth soch a childe in my name, receaueth me.
 6 But who so offendeth one of these litle ones which beleue in me, it were better for him, that a mylstone were hanged aboute his neck, and he drowned in the depth of the see.
 7 Wo vnto the worlde because of slauders. Yee there must slauders come: but wo vnto that man, by whom slaunders commeth.
 8 But yf thy hande or thy fote offende the, cut him of, and cast him from the. It is better for ye to entre in vnto life lame or crepell, the yt thou shuldest haue two hodes or two fete, and be cast in to euerlastinge fyre.

 9 And yf thine eye offende the, plucke it out, & cast it from the. Better it is for the to entre in vnto life with one eye, the to haue two eyes, and to be cast in to hell fyre.
 10 Take hede, yt ye despyse not one of these litle ones. For I saye vnto you: their angels do alwaye beholde the face of my father which is in heauen:
 11 for the sonne of man is come to saue that which is lost.
 12 How thinke ye? Yf a man haue an hundreth shepe, and one of the be gone astraye, doth not he leaue the nyentie and nyene in the mountaynes, and goeth, and seketh that one which is gone astraye?
 13 And yf it happen that he fynde it, verely I saye vnto you: he reioyseth more ouer it, then ouer the nyentie & nyene which wete not astraye.
 14 Euen so is it not the will before youre father in heauen, that one of these litle ones shulde perishe.
 15 Yf thy brother trespace agaynst the, go and tell him his faute betwene the and him alone. Yf he heare the, thou hast wone thy brother.
 16 But yf he heare the not, then take yet with the one or two, that in the mouth of two or thre wytnesses, euery matter maye be stablyshed.
 17 Yf he heare not them, tell it vnto the congregacion. Yf he heare not the crogegacion, holde him as an Heithen and Publican.
 18 Verely I saye vnto you: what soeuer ye shal bynde vpon earth, shalbe boude also in heauen: & what soeuer ye lowse vpon earth, shalbe lowsed also in heaue.
 19 Agayne, I saye vnto you: Yf two of you shal agree vpon earth (for what thinge soeuer it be yt they wolde desyre) they shal haue it of my father which is in heaue.
 20 For where two or thre are gathered together i my name, there am I in the myddest amonge them.
 21 Then came Peter vnto him, & sayde, LORDE, how oft shal I forgeue my brother, yt trespaceth agaynst me? Seue tymes?
 22 Iesus saide vnto hi: I saye not vnto ye seue tymes, but seuetie tymes seuen tymes.
 23 Therfore is ye kingdome of heaue lickened vnto a kyng which wolde reken wt his seruauentes.
 24 And whan he beganne to reke, one was brought vnto him, which ought him ten thousande poude.
 25 Now wha he had nothinge to paye his lorde comaunded him to be solde, & his wife & his childe, & all yt he had, & payment to be made.
 26 Then the seruaunt fell downe, & besought him, sayenge: Syr, haue paciece wt me, and I wil paye the all.
 27 Then had the lorde pytie on that seruaunt, & discharged him, and forgaue him the dett.
 28 And the same seruaunt wete out, &

foude one of his felowes, which ought him an hudreth pens, and layed hande vpon him, and toke him by the throte, and sayde: paye me that thou owest.
 29 The his felowe fell downe, and besought him, sayenge: haue paciece wt me, and I wil paye the all 30 Neuertheles, he wolde not, but wente and cast him in to preson, tyll he shulde paye the dett.
 31 Whan his felowes sawe what was done, they were very sorry, and came and tolde their lorde all that had happened.
 32 Then his lorde called for him, and sayde vnto him: O thou wicked seruaunt, I forgau the all this dett, because thou praydest me:
 33 shuldest not thou then haue had compassion also vpon thy felowe, euen as I had pytie vpon the?
 34 And his lorde was wroth, and delyuered him vnto the iaylers, tyll he payed all that he ought.
 35 So shal my heauenly father do also vnto you, yf ye euery one of you fro youre hertes, forgeue not his brother his trespasses.

Chapter 19

1 And it came to passe, wha Iesus had ended these sayenges, he gat him fro Galile, & came i to ye coastes of Iewry beyonde Iordane,
 2 & moch people folowed him, and he healed them there.
 3 Then came vnto him the Pharises & tepted him, & sayde vnto him: Is it lafull for a man to put away his wife for eny maner of cause?
 4 He answered & sayde vnto the: Haue ye not red, how yt he which made (man) at the begynnynge, made the ma & woma, 5 & sayde: For this cause shal a ma leaue father & mother, & cleue vnto his wife, & they two shalbe one fleshe.
 6 Now are they not twayne then, but one flesh. Let not man therfore put a sunder, yt which God hath coupled together.
 7 Then sayde they: Why dyd Moses then comaunde to geue a testimoyall of deoursement, & to put her awaye?
 8 He sayde vnto the: Moses (because of ye hardnes of yor hertes) suffred you to put awaye youre wyues: Neuertheles fro the begynnynge it hath not bene so.
 9 But I saye vnto you: Whosoouer putteth away his wife (excepte it be for fornicacion) and marieth another, breaketh wedlocke. And who so marieth her yt is deourced, commytteth aduoutrye.
 10 Then sayde his disciples vnto him: Yf ye matter be so betwene ma and wife, the is it not good to mary.
 11 But he sayde vnto them: All me can not coprehende yt sayenge, saue they to who it is geue.
 12 For there be some gelded, which are so borne from their mothers wombe: and there be some gelded, which are gelded of men: & there be some gelded, which haue gelded the selues for the kyngdome of heuens sake. He that can coprehende it, let him comprehende it.

13 Then were brought vnto him yoge children, yt he shulde put his hondes vpon the, & praye. And ye disciples rebuked them.

14 But Iesus sayde: Suffre ye childre, & forbyd the not to come vnto me, for vnto soch belogeth the kyngdome of heauen. 15 And wha he had layed his hodes vpo the, he departed thece.

16 And beholde, one came vnto him, and sayde: Good master, what good shal I do, yt I maye haue the euer lastinge life?

17 He sayde vnto him: Why callest thou me good? there is none good, but God onely. Neuertheles yf thou wilt entre into life, kepe ye comaudemetes.

18 The sayde, he vnto him: Which? Iesus saide: Thou shalt not kyll: thou shalt not breake wedlocke: thou shalt not steale: thou shalt beare no false wytnes:

19 Honoure father and mother: and thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy self.

20 Then sayde the yonge ma vnto him: All these haue I kepte fro my youth vp: what lack I yet?

21 Iesus sayde vnto him: Yf thou wilt be perfecte, go thy waye and sell that thou hast, & geue it vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue a treasure in heauen, and come and folowe me.

22 Whan ye yonge man herde yt worde, he wente awaye sory, for he had greate possessions.

23 Iesus sayde vnto his disciples: Verely I saie vnto you: it shalbe harde for a rich man to entre in to the kyngdome of heaue.

24 And morouer I saye vnto you: It is easier for a Camell to go thorow the eye of a nedle, the for a rich man to entre in to the kyngdome of heauen.

25 Whan his disciples herde that, they were exceedingly amased, and sayde: Who can the be saued?

26 Neuertheles Iesus behelde them, and sayde vnto them: With men it is vnpossyble, but with God all thinges are possyble.

27 Then answered Peter & sayde vnto him: Beholde, we haue forsake all, and folowed the: What shal we haue therefore?

28 Iesus sayde vnto the: Verely I saye vnto you: that when the sonne of man shal sytt in the seate of his maiestye, ye which haue folowed me in the new byrth, shal syt also vpon twolue seates, and iudge ye twolue trybes of Israel.

29 And who so euer forsaketh houses or brethre, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or londes, for my names sake, the same shal receaue an hundreth folde, and inheret euerlastinge life.

30 But many that be the first, shalbe the last: and the last shalbe the first.

Chapter 20

1 The kyngdome of heauen is like vnto an housholder, which wete out early in the mornynge, to hyre labourers in to his vyniarde.

2 And wha he had agreed with the labourers for a peny a daye, he sent the in to his vyniarde.

3 And aboute ye thirde houre he wente out, and sawe other stondinge ydle in the market place,

4 and sayde vnto them: Go ye also in to my vyniarde, & what so euer is right, I wil geue it you. And they wete their waye.

5 Agayne, he wete out aboute the sixte and nyenth houre, and dyd likewyse,

6 And aboute the eleuenth houre he wete out, and founde other stodynge ydle, and sayde vnto them: Why stonde ye here all the daye ydle?

7 They sayde vnto him: because no man hath hyred us. He saide vnto the: Go ye also in to my vyniarde, and loke what is right, ye shal haue it.

8 Now whan euen was come, the lorde of the vyniarde sayde vnto his stewarde: Call the labourers, and geue them their hyre, begynnynge from the last vnto ye first.

9 Then they that were hyred aboute the eleuenth houre, came and receaued euery man a peny.

10 But whan the first came, they supposed that they shulde receaue more: and they also receaued euery man a peny.

11 And whan they had receaued it, they murmured agaynst the housholder, 12 and sayde: These last haue wrought but one houre, and thou hast made the equall vnto us, which haue borne the burthen and heate of the daye.

13 He answered and sayde vnto one of them: frende, I do ye no wronge: diddest not thou agree with me for a peny?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy waye. I wil geue vnto this last also, like as vnto the.

15 Or haue I not power, to do as me listeth with myne owne? Is thine eye euell, because I am good?

16 So the last shalbe the first, & the first the last. For many are called, but few are chosen.

17 And Iesus wente vp to Ierusalem, and toke the twolue disciples asyde in the waye, and sayde vnto them:

18 Beholde, we go vp to Ierusalem, and the sonne of man shalbe delyuered vnto the hye prestes and scribes: & they shal condemne him to death,

19 and shal delyuer him vnto ye Heithen, to be mocked to be scourged, and to be crucified. And the thirde daye he shal ryse agayne.

20 Then came vnto him the mother of Zebedes childre with hir sonnes, fell downe before him, and desyred a certayne thinge of hi.

21 And he saide vnto her: What wilt thou? She sayde vnto him: Let these two sonnes of myne syt in thy kyngdome: the one vpon thy right honde, & the other vpon thy left honde.

22 But Iesus answered, and sayde: Ye wote not what ye axe. Maye ye drynke the cuppe, that I shal drynke? & to be baptysed with the baptyme, that I shalbe baptyesed withall?

23 They sayde vnto him: Yee that we maye. And he sayde vnto them: My cuppe truly shal ye drynke, & with the baptyme yt I shal be baptysed withall, shal ye be baptysed: Neuertheles to syt vpon my right honde & on my left, is not myne to geue, but vnto the for who it is prepared of my father.

24 Whan the ten herde that, they disdayned at the two brethren.

25 But Iesus called them vnto him, and sayde: Ye knowe that ye prynces of the worlde haue domynacion of the people, and the greatest exercise power amonge the.

26 It shal not be so amonge you. But whoso euer wyl be greate amonge you, let him be youre mynister:

27 & who soeuer wyl be chefe, let him be youre seruauant:

28 Euen as the sonne of man came, not to be serued, but to do seruyce, and to geue his life to a redepcion for many.

29 And when they departed from Iericho, moch people folowed him:

30 and beholde, two blyndemen sat by the waye syde: And when they herde that Iesus passed by, they cried & sayde. O LORDE, thou sonne Dauid, haue mercy vpon vs.

31 But ye people rebuked the, that they shulde holde their peace. Neuertheles they cried the more, & sayde: O LORDE, thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercy vpon vs.

32 And Iesus stode styll, and called them, and sayde: What wil ye, yt I shal do vnto you?

33 They sayde vnto him: LORDE, that oure eyes maye be opened.

34 And Iesus had compassion vpon them, and touched their eyes: & immediatly their eies receaued sight. And they folowed him.

Chapter 21

1 Now whan they drew nye vnto Ierusalem, and were come to Bethphage vnto mount Oliuete, Iesus sent two of his disciples,

2 and sayde vnto them: Go in to the towne that lyeth before you, & anone ye shal fynde an Asse bounde, and hir foale with her: lowse them, and brynge the vnto me.

3 And yf eny man saye ought vnto you, saye ye: the LORDE hath nede of the, And straight waye he wil let them go.

4 But all this was done, that the thinge might be fulfilled, which was spoken by the prophet, sayenge:

5 Tell the daughter of Sion: beholde, thy kynge commeth vnto ye meke, syttinge vpon an Asse and a foale of ye Asse vsed to the yocke.

6 The disciples wente, and dyd as Iesus commaunded them,

7 and brought the Asse and the foale, & layed their clothes vpon them, and set him theron.

8 But many of the people spred their garmentes in the waye: other cut downe braunches from the trees, and strawed them in the waye.

9 As for the people that wente before and that came after, they cryed and sayde: Hosianna vnto the sonne of Dauid, Blessed be he that commeth in the name of the LORDE, Hosianna in the height.

10 And whan he was come in to Ierusalem, all the cite was moued, and sayde: Who is this?

11 And the people sayde: This is Iesus ye prophet of Nazareth out of Galile.

12 And Iesus wente in to the teple of God, and cast out all them that bought and solde in the teple, and ouerthrew the tables of the money chaungers, and the seates of them that solde doues, 13 and sayde vnto them: It is wrytte: My house shalbe called ye house of prayer, but ye haue made it a denne of murthurers.

14 The blynde also and ye lame came vnto him in the temple, and he healed them.

15 But whan the hye prestes and the scribes sawe the wonders that he dyd, and the children crienge in the temple and sayenge: Hosianna vnto the sonne of Dauid, they disdayned, 16 and sayde vnto him: Hearest thou what these saye? Iesus sayde vnto them: Yee. Haue ye neuer red: Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings thou hast ordeyned prayse?

17 And he left them there, and wente out of the cite vnto Bethania, and there abode ouer night.

18 But in the mornynge as he returned in to the cite, he hugred.

19 And in the waye he sawe a fygge tre, and came vnto it, and founde nothinge theron, but leaues onely, and sayde vnto it: Neuer frute growe on the from hence forth. And immediatly the fygge tre wythred awaye.

20 And whan his disciples sawe that, they marueyled, and sayde. How is ye fygge tre wythred awaye so soone?

21 Iesus answered and sayde vnto them: Verely I saye vnto you: Yf ye haue faith & doute not, ye shal not onely do this with the fygge tre, but yf ye shal saye vnto this mountayne: Avoyde, and cast thy self in to the see, it shal be done.

22 And what soeuer ye axe in prayer, yf ye beleue, ye shal receaue it.

23 And when he was come in to the teple, the chefe prestes and the elders of the people came vnto him (as he was teachinge) & sayde: By what auctorite doest thou these thinges? and who gaue the this auctorite?

24 Iesus answered and sayde vnto them: I wil axe a worde of you also: which yf ye tell me, I in like wyse wyl tell you, by what auctorite I do these thinges.

25 The baptyme of Iho, whece was it? from heaue, or of men? Then thought they amoge them selues, and saide: Yf we saye it was from heaue, then shal he saye vnto us: Why dyd ye not then beleue him?

26 But yf we saye it was of men, the feare we the people: For euery ma helde Ihon for a prophet.

27 And they answered Iesus, & sayde: We can not tell. Then sayde he vnto them: Nether tell I you, by what auctorite I do these thinges.

28 But what thinke ye? A certayne man had two sonnes, and came to the first, and sayde: Go thy waye my sonne, & worke to daye in my vnyarde.

29 He answered and sayde: I wil not, but afterwarde he repented, and wente.

30 He came also vnto the secode, and sayde likewise. And he answered and saide: I wil syr. And wete not.

31 Whether of them twayne dyd the wil of the father? They sayde vnto him: the first. Iesus sayde vnto the: Verely I saye vnto you: The publicans and harlottes shal come in to the kyngdome of God before you.

32 For Ihon came vnto you, and taught you ye right waye and ye beleued him not: but the publicans & harlottes beleued hi. As for you, though ye sawe it, yet were ye not moued with repetaunce, that ye might afterwarde haue beleued him.

33 Heare another parable. There was a certayne houssholder which planted a vnyarde, and hedged it roude aboute, and dygged a wyne presse in it, and built a tower, and let it out vnto hussbandmen, and wente in to a straunge countre.

34 Now wha the tyme of the frute drew neare, he sent his seruautes to the hussbandmen, to receaue the frutes of it.

35 Then the hussbandmen caught his seruautes: one they bett, another they kylled, the thirde they stoned.

36 Agayne, he sent other seruautes, moo then the first, and they dyd vnto them in like maner.

37 At the last he sent his owne sonne vnto them, and sayde: they wyl stode in awe of my sonne.

38 But whe the hussbandme sawe the sonne, they sayde amonge the selues: This is the Heyre, come, let us kyl hym, and take his inheritaunce vnto oure selues.

39 And they caught him, and thrust him out of the vnyarde, & slew him.

40 Now whe the lorde of the vnyarde commeth, what wyl he do wt those hussbandmen?

41 They sayde vnto him: He wyl cruelly destroye those euell personnes, & let out his vnyarde vnto other hussbandmen, which shal deluyer him the frute at tymes conuenient.

42 Iesus sayde vnto the: Dyd ye neuer rede in the scriptures: The same stone which the buylders refused, is become the heade stone in the corner? This was the LORDES doynge, & it is maruelous i oure eyes

43 Therefore I saie vnto you: The kingdome of God shalbe take fro you, & shalbe geue vnto the Heithe, which shal brynge forth ye frutes of it.

44 And who so falleth vpo this stone, shalbe broke in peces: & loke vpo whom it falleth, it shal grynde him to poulder.

45 And when the hye prestes & Pharises herde his parables, they perceaued, that he spake of them.

46 And they wente aboute to take him, but they feared ye people, because they helde hi for a prophet.

Chapter 22

1 And Iesus answered, and spake vnto the agayne by parables, & sayde:

2 The kingdome of heauen is like vnto a kynge, which married his sonne.

3 And sent forth his seruautes, to call the gestic vnto the mariage, & they wolde not come.

4 Agayne, he sent forth other seruautes, and sayde: Tell the gestic: Beholde, I haue prepared my dynner, myne oxen and my fed catell are kylled, and all thinges are readye, come to the mariage.

5 But they made light of it, and wente their wayes: one to his hussbandrye, another to his marchaundise.

6 As for the remnaut, they toke his seruautes, and intreated the shamefully, and slew the.

7 When the kynge herde that, he was wroth, and sent forth his warryers, and destroyed those murtherers, and set fyre vpon their cite.

8 Then sayde he vnto his seruautes: The mariage in dede is prepared, but the gestic were not worthy.

9 Go youre waye out therfore in to ye hye wayes, and as many as ye fynde, byd them to the mariage.

10 And the seruautes wete out in to the hye wayes, and gathered together as many as they coulde fynde, both good and bad, & the tables were all full.

11 Then the kynge wete in, to se the gestic, and spyed there a man that had not on a weddyng garment, 12 and sayde vnto him: Frende, how camest thou in hither, & hast not on a weddyng garment? And he was euen spechlesse.

13 Then sayde the kynge vnto his seruautes: Take and bynde him hande and fote, & cast him into ye vtter darcknes: there shal be waylinge and gnashinge of teth.

14 For many be called, but few are chose.

15 Then wente the Pharises, and toke counsell, how they might tangle him in his wordes,

16 and sent vnto him their disciples with Herodes officers, and sayde: Master, we knowe that thou art true, and teachest the waye of God truly, and carest for no ma: for thou regardest not the outwarde appearance of me.

17 Tell us therfore, how thinkest thou? Is it lauffull to geue tribute vnto the Emperoure, or not?

18 Now wha Iesus perceaued their wickednes, he sayde: O ye ypocrites, why tepte ye me?

19 Shewe me ye tribute money. And they toke hi a peny.

20 And he saide vnto the: Whose is this ymage and superscription?

21 They sayde vnto him: The Emperours. Then sayde he vnto them: Geue therfore vnto the Emperour, that which is the Emperours: and geue vnto God, that which is Gods.

22 When they herde that, they marueyled, and left him, & wete their waye.

23 The same daye there came vnto him the Saduces (which holde that there is no resurreccion) and axed him,

24 and sayde: Master, Moses sayde: Yf a man dye, hauynge no children, his brother shal mary his wife, & rayse vp sede vnto his brother.

25 Now were there with us seue brethren. The first married a wife, and dyed: & for somoch as he had no sede, he left his wife vnto his brother.

26 Like wyse the secode, and thirde vnto the seueith.

27 Last of all the woman dyed also.

28 Now in the resurreccion, whose wife shal she be of the seuen? For they all had her.

29 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them: Ye erre, and vnderstode not the scriptures, ner the power of God.

30 In the resurreccion they shal nether mary, ner be married, but are as the angels of God in heauen.

31 As touching the resurreccio of the deed, haue ye notred, what is spoken vnto you of God, which sayeth:

32 I am the God of Abraham, and ye God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob? Yet is not God a God of the deed, but of the luyunge.

33 And whan the people herde that, they were astonnyed at his doctryne.

34 When the Pharises herde, that he had stopped the mouth of the Saduces, they gathered them selues together.

35 And one of them (a Scrybe) tepted him, and sayde:

36 Master, which is the chefest commaundemet in the lawe?

37 Iesus saide vnto him: Thou shalt loue the LORDE thy God with all thy hert, with all thy soule, and with all thy mynde:

38 this is the pryncipall and greatest comaundement.

39 As for the seconde, it is like vnto it: Thou shalt loue thy neghbour as thy self.

40 In these two commaundementes hange all the lawe and the prophetes.

41 Now whyle the Pharises were gathered together, Iesus axed them, 42 and sayde: What thinke ye of Christ? Whose sonne is he? They sayde vnto him: Dauids.

43 He sayde vnto them: How then doth Daud in sprete, call him LORDE, sayenge:

44 The LORDE sayde vnto my LORDE: Syt thou on my right honde, tyll I make thine enemies thy fote stole.

45 Yf Daud now call him LORDE, how is he then his some?

46 And no man coude answere him one worde, nether durst eny man axe him eny mo questios, fro that daye forth.

Chapter 23

1 Then spake Iesus vnto ye people and to his disciples,

2 and sayde: The scribes & Pharises are set downe vpon Moses seate.

3 Therfore whatsoever they bid you obserue, that obserue and do, but after their workes shal ye not do,

4 for they saye & do not. For they bynde heuy and intollerable burthens, and laye them vpon mens sholders: But they them selues wil not heaue at them with one of their fyngers.

5 All their workes do they to be sene of men. They set abrode their Philateries, and make large borders vpon their garmetes,

6 and loue to syt vppermost at the table, and to haue the chefe seates in the synagoges,

7 and loue to be saluted in the market, and to be called of me Rabbi.

8 But ye shal not suffre youre selues to be called Rabbi, for one is youre master, euen Christ, and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man father vpon earth, for one is youre father, which is in heaue.

10 And ye shal not suffre youre selues to be called masters, for one is youre master, namely, Christ.

11 He that is greatest amoge you, shalbe youre seruaunt.

12 For who so exalteth himself, shal be brought lowe: and he that humbleth himself, shalbe exalted.

13 Wo vnto you Scrybes and Pharises, ye ypocrytes, that shut vp the kyngdome of heauen before men: Ye come not in youre selues, nether suffre ye them to enter, that wolde be in.

14 Wo vnto you Scrybes and Pharises, ye ypocrytes, that deuoure wyddowes houses, and that vnder the couloure of prayenge longe prayers, therfore shal ye receaue ye greater damnacion.

15 Wo vnto you Scrybes and Pharises, ye ypocrytes, which compasse see and lode to make one Proselyte: and whan he is become one, ye make of him a childe of hell, two folde more then ye youre selues are.

16 Wo vnto you blyndegydes, which saye: Who so euer sweareth by the temple, that is nothinge: but who so euer sweareth by the golde of the temple, he is giltye.

17 Ye fooles and blynde, whether is greater? the golde, or the temple that sanctifieth the golde?

18 And who so euer sweareth by the altare, that is nothinge: but who so euer sweareth by the offeringe that is vpo it, he is giltye.

19 Ye fooles and blynde, whether is greater? the offeringe, or the altare that sanctifieth the offeringe?

20 Therefore who so sweareth by the altare, sweareth by the same, and by all that is thereon:

21 and who so sweareth by the temple, sweareth by the same, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And who so sweareth by heauen, swearth by the seate of God, and by him that syttheth theron.

23 Wo vnto you scribes and Pharises, ye ypocrytes, which tythe Mynt, Ansey and Comyn, and leaue the waightier matters of the lawe behynde: namely, iudgment, mercy, and fayth. These ought to haue bene done, and not to leaue the other behynde.

24 O ye blynde gydes, which strayne out a gnat, but swalowe vp a Camell.

25 Wo vnto you scribes and Pharises, ye Ypocrytes, which make cleane the vttersyde of the cuppe and platter, but within are ye full of robbery and excesse. 26 Thou blynde Pharise, cense first the in syde of the cuppe and platter, that the out syde maye be cleane also. 27 Wo vnto you scribes and Pharises, ye Ypocrites, which be like vnto paynted Sepulcres, that appeare beutyfull outwarde, but within they are full of deed mens bones and all fylthines.

28 Euen so are ye also: Outwarde ye appeare righteous vnto men, but within ye are full of ypocrisy and iniquyte.

29 Wo vnto you scribes and Pharises, ye ypocrites, which buylde the tombes of the prophetes, and garnysh the sepulcres of the righteous,

30 and saye: Yf we had bene in oure fathers tyme, we wolde not haue bene partakers with them in the bloude of the prophetes.

31 Therefore ye be wytnesses vnto youre selues, that ye are the children of them, which slew the prophetes.

32 Go to, fulfill ye also the measure of youre fathers.

33 O ye serpentes, O ye generacion of vipers, how wyl ye escape the damnacion of Hell?

34 Therefore beholde, I sende vnto you prophetes and wysemen, and scribes, and some of them shal ye kylle and crucifye, and some of them shal ye scourge in youre synagoges, and persecute them from cite to cite:

35 that vpon you maye come all the righteous bloude which hath bene shed vpon ye earth, from the bloude of righteous Abel, vnto ye bloude of Zachary ye sonne of Barachias, whom ye slew betwene the temple and the altare.

36 Verely I saye vnto you: All these thinges shal light vpo this generacion.

37 O Ierusalem Ierusalem, thou that slayest the prophetes, and stonest them that are sent vnto thee: How oft wolde I haue gathered thy children together, euen as the henne gathereth hir chekens vnder hir wynges, and ye wolde not?

38 Beholde, youre habitacion shalbe left vnto you desolate.

39 For I saye vnto you: Ye shal not se me hence forth, tyll ye saye: Blessed be he, that commeth in the name of the LORDE.

Chapter 24

1 And Iesus wente out and departed from the temple, and his disciples came vnto him, to shew him the buyldinge of the temple.

2 But Iesus sayde vnto them: Se ye not all these thinges? Verely I saye vnto you: there shal not be left here one stone vpon another, yt shal not be cast downe.

3 And as he sat vpon the mount Oliuete, his disciples came vnto him secretly, & saide: Tell us, whe shal these thinges come to passe? and which shal be the token of thy comynge, and of the ende of the worlde?

4 Iesus answered and sayde vnto them: Take hede, that no man disceau you.

5 For there shal many come in my name, and saye: I am Christ, and shal disceau many.

6 Ye shal heare of warres, and of ye noyse of warres: take hede, and be not ye troubled. All these thinges must first come to passe, but the ende is not yet.

7 For one people shall ryse vp agaynst another, and one realme agaynst another: and there shalbe pestilece, honger, and earthquakes here & there.

8 All these are the begynnyng of sorowes.

9 Then shal they put you to trouble, & shal kylle you, and ye shalbe hated of all people for my names sake.

10 The shal many be offended, and shal betraye one another, and shal hate one the other.

11 And many false prophetes shal aryse, and shal disceau many:

12 and because iniquyte shal haue the vpper hande, the loue of many shal abate.

13 But whoso endureth vnto ye ende, ye same shal be saued.

14 And this gospell of the kyngdome shalbe preached in all the worlde for a wytnes vnto all people, and then shal the ende come.

15 Whan ye therefore shal se the abhominacion of desolacion (wher of it is spoke by Daniel the prophet) stonde in the holy place (who so readeth it, let him marck it well)

16 the let the which be in Iewry, flye vnto ye moutaynes:

17 and let him which is on the house toppe, not come downe to fet eny thinge out of his house:

18 and let him which is in ye felde, not turne back to fetch his clothes.

19 But wo vnto them that are with childe, and to them that geue suck in those dayes.

20 But praye ye, that youre flight be not in ye wynter, ner on the Sabbath.

21 For then shal there be grete trouble, soch as was not from the begynnyng of the worlde vnto this tyme, ner shalbe.

22 Yee and excepte those daies shulde be shortened, there shulde no flesh be saued: but for ye chosens sake those dayes shalbe shortened.

23 Then yf eny man shal saye vnto you: lo, here is Christ, or there, beleue it not.

24 For there shal aryse false Christes and false prophetes, and shal do grete tokes and wonders: In so moch, that (yf it were possible) the very chosen shulde be brought in to erroure.

25 Beholde, I haue tolde you before.

26 Wherefore yf they shal saye vnto you: Beholde, he is in the wildernes, go not ye forth: Beholde, he is in the chamber, beleue it not.

27 For like as the lightenyng goeth out from the East, and shyneth vnto the west, so shal the comynge of the sonne of man be.

28 For where so euer a deed carcase is, there wyl the Aegles be gathered together.

29 Immediatly after the trouble of the same tyme, shal the Sonne and Moone lose their light, and the starres shall fall from heauen, and the powers of heauen shal moue:

30 and then shal appeare the token of the sonne of man in heaue: and then shal all the kynreds of the earth mourne, and they shal se the sonne of man come in the cloudes of heauen with greate power and glory.

31 And he shal sende his angels with ye greate voyce of a trompe, & they shal gather together his chosen from the foure wyndes, from one ende of the heauen to the other.

32 Lerne a symilitude of ye fygge tre. Whan his braunche is yet tender, and his leaues spronge, ye knowe that Sommer is nye.

33 So likewyse ye, whan ye se all thynges, be ye sure, that it is nye euen at the dores

34 Verely I saye vnto you: This generacion shal not passe, tyll all these be fulfilled.

35 Heauen and earth shal perishe, but my wordes shal not perishe.

36 Neuertheles of that daye & houre knoweth no man, no not the angels of heauen, but my father onely.

37 Euen as it was in the tyme of Noe, so shal the comynge of the sonne of man be also.

38 For as they were in the dayes before ye floude (they ate, they dronke, they married, and were married, euen vnto the daye yt Noe entred in to the shippe, 39 and they regarded it not, tyll the floude came and toke them all awaye) So shal also the comynge of the sonne of man be.

40 The shal two be in the felde: the one shal be receaued, and the other shalbe refused:

41 Two shalbe gryndinge at the Myll, the one shalbe receaued, and the other shalbe refused:

42 Watch therefore, for ye knowe not what houre youre LORDE wil come.

43 But be sure of this, that yf the good man of the house knewe what houre the thefe wolde come, he wolde surely watch, and not suffre his house to be broken vp.

44 Therefore be ye ready also, for in the houre that ye thynke not, shal the sonne of man come.

45 Who is now a faithfull and wyse seruaut, whom his lorde hath made ruler ouer his housholde, that he maye geue them meate in due season?

46 Blessed is yt seruaut, whom his lorde

(whan he cometh) shal fynde so doynge. 47 Verely. I saye vnto you: he shal set him ouer all his goodes.

48 But and yf the euell seruaut shal saye in his hert: Tush, it wil be longe or my lorde come,

49 and begynne to smyte his felowes, yee and to eate and drynke with the dronken:

50 The same seruantes lorde shal come in a daye, wha he loketh not for him, and in an houre that he is not ware of,

51 and shal hew him in peces and geue him his rewarde with ypocrytes: there shal be waylinge and gnasshinge of teth.

Chapter 25

1 Then shal the kyngdome of heauen be like vnto ten virgins, which toke their lapes, and wente forth to mete the brydegome.

2 But fyue of them were foolish, and fyue were wyse.

3 The foolish toke their lapes, neuertheles they toke none oyle with them.

4 But the wyse toke oyle in their vessels with their lampes.

5 Now whyle the brydegrome taried, they slombred all and slepte.

6 But at mydnight there was a crye made: Beholde, the brydegrome commeth, go youre waye out for to mete him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and prepared their lampes.

8 But the foolish sayde vnto the wyse: geue vs of youre oyle, for oure lapes are gone out.

9 Then answered the wyse, and sayde: Not so, lest there be not ynough for vs and you, but go rather vnto them that sell, and bye for youre selues.

10 And whyle they wente to bye, the brydegrome came: and they that were readye, wente in with him vnto the mariage, and the gate was shut vp.

11 At ye last came ye other virgins also, and sayde: LORDE LORDE, opo vnto vs.

12 But he answered, and sayde: Verely I saye vnto you: I knowe you not.

13 Watch ye therefore, for ye knowe nether the daye ner yet the houre, whan ye sonne of man shal come.

14 Like wyse as a certayne ma ready to take his iourney into a straunge countre, called his seruantes, and delyuered his goodes vnto the.

15 And vnto one he gaue fyue talentes, to another two, and to another one: vnto euery man after his abilyte, and straight waye departed.

16 Then he that had receaued the fyue talentes, wente and occupied with the same, and wanne other fyue talentes.

17 Likewyse he yt receaued two talentes, wane other two also.

18 But he that receaued ye one wente and dygged a pyt in the earth, and hyd his lordes money.

19 After a longe season the lorde of those seruantes came, and rekened with them.

20 Then came he that had receaued fyue talentes, and brought other fyue talentes, and sayde: Syr, thou delyuerdst vnto me fyue talentes: Beholde, with them haue I wonne fyue taletes mo.

21 Then sayde his lorde vnto hi: wel thou good & faithfull seruaunt, thou hast bene faithfull ouer litle, I wil set the ouer moch: entre thou in to the ioye of thy lorde.

22 The came he also that had receaued two talentes, and sayde: Syr, thou delyuerdst vnto me two talentes: Beholde, I haue wonne two other taletes with the.

23 His lorde sayde vnto him: Wel thou good and faithfull seruaunt, thou hast bene faithfull ouer litle, I wil set the ouer moch: entre thou in to the ioye of thy lorde.

24 Then he that had receaued the one talet, came and sayde: Syr, I knew that thou art an hard man: thou reapest where thou hast not sowed, and gatherest where thou hast not strowed,

25 and so I was afrayed, and wete and hyd thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast thine owne.

26 But his lorde answered, and sayde vnto him: Thou euell and slouthfull seruaunt, knewest thou that I reape where I sowed not, and gather where I strawed not?

27 Thou shuldest therefore haue had my money to the chaungers, and then at my commynge shulde I haue receaued myne owne with vauntage.

28 Therefore take the talent fro him, and geue it vnto him that hath ten talentes.

29 For who so hath, to him shalbe geuen, and he shal haue abundance. But who so hath not, fro him shalbe take awaye euen that he hath.

30 And cast the vnprofitable seruaunt in to vtter darcknes: there shalbe waylinge and gnasshing of teth.

31 But when the sonne of man shal come in his glory, and all holy angels with him, then shal he syt vpon the seate of his glory.

32 And all people shalbe gathered before him: and he shal separate them one from another as a shepherde deuydeth the shepe from ye goates.

33 And he shal set ye shepe on his right honde, and the goates on the left.

34 Then shal the kynge saye vnto them that shalbe on his right honde: Come hither ye blessed of my father, inheret ye ye kingdome, which is prepared for you from the begynnyng of the worlde.

35 For I was hongrie, and ye gaue me meate: I was thirstie, and ye gaue me drynke: I was harbourlesse, and ye lodged me:

36 I was naked, & ye clothed me: I was sicke, and ye vysited me: I was in preson, and ye came vnto me.

37 Then shal the righteous answer him, & saye: LORDE, whe sawe we the hogrie, and fed the? Or thirstie, and gaue the drynke?

38 When sawe we the herbourlesse, and lodged the? Or naked, and clothed ye?

39 Or whe sawe we ye sicke or in preson, and came vnto the?

40 And the kynge shal answer and saye vnto them: Verely I saye vnto you: Loke what ye haue done vnto one of the least of these my brethren, the same haue ye done vnto me.

41 Then shal he saye also vnto them that shalbe on the left hande: Departe fro me ye cursed in to the euerlastinge fyre, which is prepared for the deuell and his angels.

42 For I was hogrie, and ye gaue me no meate: I was thirstye, and ye gaue me no drynke:

43 I was herbourlesse, and ye lodged me not: I was naked, and ye clothed me not: I was sicke and in preson, and ye vysited me not.

44 Then shal they also answer hi, and saye: LORDE, when sawe we the hogrie, or thyrstie, or herbourlesse, or naked, or sicke, or in preson, and haue not mynistred vnto the?

45 The shal he answer them, and saye: Verely I saye vnto you: Loke what ye haue not done vnto one of the leest of these, the same haue ye not done vnto me.

46 And these shal go in to euerlastinge payne, but the righteous in to euerlastinge life.

Chapter 26

1 And it came to passe wha Iesus had fynished all these wordes, he sayde vnto his disciples:

2 Ye knowe, that after two dayes shalbe Easter, and the sonne of man shalbe delyuered to be crucified.

3 Then assembled together the hie prestes and the scribes, and the elders of the people in to the palace of the hie prest which was called Caiphaz,

4 and helde a counsell, how they might take Iesus by disceate, and kyll him.

5 But they sayde: Not on the holy daye, lest there be an vproure in the people.

6 Now when Iesus was at Bethany in the house of Symon the leper,

7 there came vnto hi a woman, which had a boxe with precious oyntment, and poured it vpon his heade, as he sat at the table.

8 Whan his disciples sawe that, they dissdayned, and sayde: Where to serueth this waist?

9 This oyntmet might haue bene wel solde, and geue to the poore.

10 Whe Iesus perceaued that, he sayde vnto them: Why trouble ye the woman? She hath wrought a good worke vpon me 11 for ye haue allwaye the poore with you, but me shal ye not haue allwayes.

12 Where as she hath poured this oyntmet vpon my body, she dyd it to bury me.

13 Verely I saye vnto you: where so euer this gospell shalbe preached thorow out all the worlde, there shal this also that she hath done, be tolde for a memoriall of her.

14 Then one of the twolue (called Iudas Iscarioth) wente vnto the hie prestes,

15 and sayde: What wil ye geue me, and I shal delyuer him vnto you? And they offred hi thirtie syluer pens.

16 And from that tyme forth, he sought oportunyte to betraye him?

17 The first daye of swete bred came the disciples to Iesus, and sayde vnto him: Where wilt thou that we prepare for the, to eate the Easter lambe?

18 He sayde: Go in to the cite to soch a man, and saye vnto him: The Master sendeth the worde: My tyme is at honde, I wil kepe myne Easter by the with my disciples.

19 And the disciples dyd as Iesus had appoynted them, and made ready the Easter lambe.

20 And at euen he sat downe at the table with the twolue.

21 And as they ate, he sayde: Verely I saye vnto you: One of you shal betraye me.

22 And they were exceedinge soroufull, and beganne euery one of them to saye vnto him: Syr, is it I?

23 He answered and sayde: He that depeeth his honde with me in the dysse, the same shal betraye me.

24 The sonne of man goeth forth, as it is wrytten of him: but wo vnto that man by who the sonne of man shalbe betrayed: It had bene better for that ma, yf he had neuer bene borne.

25 The Iudas that betrayed him, answered and sayde: Master, is it I? He sayde vnto him: Thou hast sayde.

26 And as they ate, Iesus toke the bred, gaue thanks, brake it, and gaue it to the disciples, and sayde: Take, eate, this is my body.

27 And he toke the cuppe, and thanked, and gaue it the, and sayde: Drynke ye all therof, 28 this is my bloude of the new testament, that shalbe shed for many for the remission of synnes.

29 I saye vnto you: I wil not drynke hence forth of this frute of the vyne tre, vntill that daye that I shal drynke it new with you in my fathers kyngdome.

30 And when they had sayde grace, they wente forth vnto mount Oliuete.

31 Then sayde Iesus vnto them. This night shal ye all be offended in me. For it is wrytten: I wil myte the shepherde, and the shepe of the flocke shalbe scattered abrode.

32 But after that I ryse agayne, I wil go before you in to Galile.

33 Peter answered and sayde vnto him: Though all men shulde be offended in ye, yet wyl I neuer be offeded.

34 Iesus sayde vnto hi: Verely I saye vnto ye: This same night before ye cock crowe, shalt thou denie me thryse.

35 Peter saide vnto him: And though I shulde dye with the, yet wil I not denye the. Likewise also sayde all the disciples.

36 Then came Iesus with them into a felde which is called Gethsemane, and sayde vnto the disciples: Syt ye here, whyle I go yonder & praye.

37 And he toke with him Peter, and the two sonnes of Zebede, and beganne to wexe soroufull and to be in an agonye.

38 Then sayde Iesus vnto them: My soule is heuy euen vnto the death. Tary ye here, and watch with me.

39 And he wente forth a litle, and fell flat vpon his face, and prayed sayenge: O my father, yf it be possible, let this cuppe passe fro me: neuertheles not as I wil but as thou wilt.

40 And he came to his disciples, and founde the a slepe, & sayde vnto Peter: What? coude ye not watch with me one houre?

41 Watch & praye, that ye fall not in to temptacion. The sprete is wyllinge, but the flesh is weake.

42 Agayne, he wete forth the seconde tyme and prayed, sayenge: O my father, yf this cuppe can not passe awaye fro me (excepte I drynke of it) thy will be fulfilled.

43 And he came, and founde them a slepe agayne, and their eyes were heuy.

44 And he left them, and wente forth agayne, and prayed the thirde tyme, sayenge the same wordes.

45 Then came he to his disciples, and sayde vnto them: Slepe on now, and take youre rest. Beholde, the houre is come, yt the sonne of man shalbe delyuered in to the hondes of synners:

46 Aryse, let us be goynge. Beholde, he is at hode, that betrayeth me.

47 Whyle he yet spake, lo, Iudas one of the twolue came, and with him a greate multitude with swerdes and staues, sent fro the hie prestes and elders of the people.

48 And he that betrayed him, had geuen them a toke, sayenge: Whom so euer I kysse, that same is he, laye hodes vpo him.

49 And forth withal he came to Iesus, and sayde: Hayle master, and kysed him.

50 And Iesus sayde vnto him: Frende, wherfore art thou come? Then came they, and layed hondes vpon Iesus, and toke him.

51 And beholde, one of them that were with Iesus, stretched out his honde, and drue his swerde, and stroke a seruaunt of the hie prestes, & smote of his eare:

52 Then sayde Iesus vnto him: Put vp yi swerde in to his place. For all that take the swerde, shal perish with the swerde.

53 Or thinkest thou that I can not praye my father now, to sende me more then twolue legions of angels?

54 But how the shulde the scriptures be fulfilled? For thus must it be.

55 In the same houre sayde Iesus vnto the multitude: Ye are come out as it were to a murthurer with swerdes and staues for to take me. I sat daylie teachinge in the temple amonge you, and ye toke me not.

56 But all this is done, that the scriptures of the prophetes might be fulfilled.

57 The all the disciples left him, and fled. But they that toke Iesus, led him to Caiphaz the hie prest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together.

58 As for Peter, he folowed him a farre of vnto the hie prestes palace, & wente in, and sat with the seruauntes, that he might see the ende.

59 But the hie prestes and the elders, and the whole councell sought false wytnesse ageynst Iesus, that they might put him to death,

60 and founde none. And though many false wytnesses stepte forth, yet founde they none. At the last there stepte forth two false wytnesses, 61 & spake: He sayde: I can breake downe the temple of God, and buylde it agayne in thre dayes.

62 And the hye prest stode vp, and sayde vnto him: Answerest thou nothinge, vnto it, that these testifie agaynst the?

63 Neuertheles Iesus helde his tonge. And the hye prest answered, and sayde vnto him: I charge the by ye luyngye God, that thou tell us, yf thou be Christ the sonne of God.

64 Iesus spake: Thou hast sayde it. Neuerthelesse I saye vnto you: From this tyme forth it shal come to passe, that ye shal se the sonne of man syttinge vpon the right hande of the power (of God) and commynge in the cloudes of the heauen.

65 Then the hye prest rente his clothes, and sayde: He hath blasphemed, what nede we eny mo wytnesses? Lo, now haue ye herde his blasphemy:

66 What thinke ye? They answered, & sayde: He is gyltie of death.

67 Then spytted they in his face, & smote him with fistes. Some smote him

68 vpon the face, and sayde: Prophecie vnto us thou Christ, who is it, that smote the?

69 As for Peter, he sat without in the palace. And there came vnto him a damsell, and sayde: And thou wast with Iesus of Galile also.

70 Neuertheles he denyed before the all, and sayde: I can not tell what thou sayest. 71 But when he wete out at the dore, another damsell sawe him. and sayde vnto them that were there: This was also with Iesus of Nazareth.

72 And he denyed agayne, and sware also: I knowe not the ma.

73 And after a litle whyle, they that stode there, stepte forth, and sayde vnto Peter: Of a trueth thou art one of them also, for thy speach bewrayeth the.

74 Then begane he to curse and to swaere: I knowe not the man. And immediatly the cock crew.

75 Then thought Peter vpon the wordes of Iesus, which sayde vnto him: before the cock crow, thou shalt denye me thryse. And he wente out, and wepte bitterly.

Chapter 27

1 Vpon the morow, all the hye prestes and elders of the people helde a councell agaynst Iesus, that they might put him to death,

2 and bounde him, and led him forth, and deluyered him vnto Pontius Pilate the debyte.

3 When Iudas which betrayed him, sawe this that he was condemned vnto death, it repented him, and brought agayne the thirtie syluer pens to the hye prestes and the elders,

4 and sayde: I haue done euell, in that I haue betrayed innocet bloude. They sayde: What haue we to do with yt? Se thou therto.

5 And he cast the syluer pens in the teple, and gat him awaye, and wente and hanged him self.

6 So the hye prestes toke the syluer pens, and sayde: It is not lafull to put them in to the Gods chest, for it is bloudmoney.

7 Neuertheles they helde a councell, and bought with the a potters felde, for to burye straugers in.

8 Wherfore the same felde is called the bloudfelde vnto this daye.

9 Then was that fulfilled, which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet sayenge: And they toke thirtie syluer pens, the pryce of him that was solde, whom they bought of the children of Israell:

10 and these they gaue for a potters felde, as the LORDE commaunded me.

11 As for Iesus, he stode before the debyte, and the debyte axed him, and sayde: Art thou the kyngye of the Iewes? And Iesus sayde vnto him: Thou sayest it.

12 And wha he was accused of the hye prestes and elders, he answered nothinge.

13 Then sayde Pylate vnto him: Hearst thou not, how sore they accuse the?

14 And he answered him not one worde: in so moch that the debyte marueled exceedingly.

15 At that feast, the debyte was wote to deluyer a presoner fre vnto the people, whom they wolde.

16 And at the same tyme he had a notable presoner called Barrabas.

17 And when they were gathered together, Pylate sayde vnto them: Whether wil ye, that I geue lowse vnto you? Barrabas, or Iesus which is called Christ?

18 For he knewe well that they had deluyered him of enuye.

19 And wha he sat vpo the iudgmet seate, his wife sent vnto him, sayenge: Haue thou nothinge to do with that righteous man, for I haue suffred many thinges this daye in a dreame because of him.

20 But the hye prestes and the elders persuaded the people, that they shulde axe Barrabas, and destroye Iesus.

21 Then answered the debyte, & sayde vnto the: Whether of these two wyl ye yt I geue lowse vnto you? They sayde: Barrabas:

22 Pylate sayde vnto them: What shal I do then with Iesus, which is called Christ? They sayde all: let him be crucified.

23 The debyte saide: What euell hath he done the? Neuertheles they cried yet more and sayde, let him be crucified.

24 So whan Pilate sawe, that he coude not helpe, but that there was a greater vproure, he toke water, and wasshed his handes before the people, and sayde: I am vngiltie of ye bloude of this righteous man. Se ye therto.

25 Then answered all the people, and sayde: His bloude come vpon vs, and vpon oure children.

26 Then gaue he Barrabas lowse vnto the, but caused Iesus be scourged, and deluyered him to be crucified.

27 Then the debites soudyers toke Iesus, in to the comon hall, and gathered the whole multitude ouer him,

28 and stryded him out of his clothes, and put a purple robe vpo him,

29 and plated a crowne of thorne, & set it vpon his heade, and a rede in his hade, and kneled before him, and mocked him, and sayde: hayle kyngye of the Iewes.

30 And spytted vpon him, and toke ye rede, & smote him vpon the heade.

31 And wha they had mocked hi, they toke the robe of him ageyne, & put his owne clothes vpon him, and led him forth, yt they might crucifie hi.

32 And as they were goinge out, they founde a man of Cyren called Symon: him they compelled to beare his crosse.

33 And when they came vnto the place called Golgatha (that is to saye by interpretacio a place of deed mens sculles)

34 they gaue him to drynke, veneger myxte wt gall. And whan he had tasted therof, he wolde not drynke.

35 So whan they had crucified him, they parted his garmetes, and cast lottes therfore: that the thinge might be fulfilled, which was spoken by the prophet: They haue parted my garmetes amonge the, & cast lottes vpon my vesture.

36 And there they sat, and watched hi.

37 And aboue ouer his heade, they put vp the cause of his death in wrytynge: namely: This is the kyngye of the Iewes.

38 Then were there two murthurers crucified with him, the one of the right hande, and the other on the left.

39 They that wente by, reuyled him, and wagged their heades

40 and sayde: Thou that breakest downe the teple of God, and buyldest it in thre dayes, helpe thyself. Yf thou be the sonne of God, come downe from the crosse.

41 The hye prestes also in like maner with the scribes & elders, laughed him to scorne, and sayde:

42 he hath helped other, and can not helpe himself: Yf he be the kyngye of Israel, let him come downe now from the crosse, and we wil beleue him

43 He trusted in God, let him deluyer him now, yf he wil haue him. For he hath sayde: I am the sonne of God.

44 The murthurers also that were crucified with him, cast the same in his tethe.

45 And from ye sixte houre there was darcknes ouer the whole earth vnto the nyenth houre.

46 And aboute the nyenth houre, Iesus cried with a loude voyce, and sayde: Eli, Eli, Lamma asabthani? that is, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 But some of the that stode there, when they herde yt sayde: He calleth Elias.

48 And immediatly one of them ranne, and toke a spoge, and fylled it with veneger, and put it vpon a rede, and gaue him to dryncke.

49 But ye other sayde: holde, let se whether Elias wyl come, and deluyer him. 50 Iesus cried agayne with a loude voyce, and gaue vp the goost.

51 And beholde, the vale of the temple was rente in two peces, from aboue tyll beneth, and the earth quaked, and the stones rent,

52 and the graues opened, and many bodies of the sayntes that slepte, arose, 53 and wete out of the graues after his resurreccion, and came in to the holy cite, and appeared vnto many.

54 But the captayne and they that were with him, and kepte Iesus, when they sawe the earthquake and the thinges that were done, they were sore afrayed, and sayde: Verely this was Gods sonne.

55 And there were many wemen there lokyngye to afarre of, which had folowed Iesus from Galile, and had mynistred vnto him:

56 amonge whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of Iames and Ioses, and the mother of the children of Zebede.

57 At euen there came a rich man of Arimathia, called Ioseph, which was also a disciple of Iesus.

58 He wete vnto Pylate, and axed the body of Iesus. Then commaunded Pylate that the body shulde be geue him.

59 And Ioseph toke the body, and wrapped it in a cleane linnen cloth, 60 and layed it in his owne new sepulcre, which he had hewen out in a rocke, and rolled a greate stone to the dore of the sepulcre, and wente his waye.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene and ye other Mary, syttinge ouer agaynst the sepulcre.

62 The next daye that foloweth the daye of preparyngye, the hye prestes and Pharises came together vnto Pylate, 63 and saide: Syr, we haue called to remembraunce, that this disceauer sayde whyle he was yet alyue: After thre dayes I wyl ryse agayne.

64 Comaunde therfore that the sepulcre be kepte vnto the thirde daye, lest peraduenture his disciples come, and steale him awaye, and saye vnto the people: He is rysen from the deed, and so shal the last errour be worse the the first. 65 Pylate sayde vnto them: There haue ye watchme, go youre waye, and kepe it as ye can.

66 They wete and kepte the sepulcre wt watchmen, and sealed the stone.

Chapter 28

1 Upon the euenyngye of the Sabbath holy daye, which dawneth ye morow of the first daye of ye Sabbathes, came Mary Magdalene and ye other Mary, to se ye sepulcre.

2 And beholde, there was made a greate earthquake: for the angell of the LORDE descended from heauen, and came and rolled backe ye stone from the dore, and sat vpon it.

3 And his countenance was as ye lightenyng, and his clothyng whyte as snowe.

4 But ye watch me were troubled for feare of him, and became as though they were deed.

5 The angell answered, and sayde vnto ye women: Be not ye afrayed. I knowe that ye seke Iesus that was crucified.

6 He is not here. He is rysen, as he sayde. Come, and se ye place, where the LORDE was layed,

7 and go youre waye soone, and tell his disciples, that he is rysen from the deed. And beholde, he wyl go before you in to Galile, there shal ye se him. Lo, I haue tolde you.

8 And they departed from the graue in all the haist with feare and greate ioye, & ranne to brige his disciples worde.

9 And as they were goinge to tell his disciples, beholde, Iesus met them, and sayde: God spede you. And they wente vnto him, and helde his fete, and fell downe before him.

10 The sayde Iesus vnto them: Be not afrayed: go youre waye and tell my brethren, that they go in to Galile, there shal they se me.

11 And whan they were gone, beholde, certayne of the watchmen came in to the cite, & tolde the hie prestes euery thinge that had happened.

12 And they came together with the elders, and helde a councell, and gaue ye souders money ynough, 13 and sayde: Saye ye: his disciples came by night, and stole him awaye, whyle we were a slepe.

14 And yf this come to the debytes eares, we wyl still him, and brynge it so to passe, that ye shal be safe.

15 And they toke the money, and dyd as they were taught. And this sayenge is noysed amonge the Iewes vnto this daye.

16 The eleuen disciples wente vnto Galile in to a mounytayne, where Iesus had appoynted them.

17 And whan they sawe him, they fell downe before him: but some of them doubted.

18 And Iesus came vnto them, talked with them, and sayde: Vnto me is geue all power in heauen and in earth.

19 Go ye youre waye therfore, and teach all nacions, and baptyse them in the name of the father, and of the sonne, and of the holy goost:

20 and teach them to kepe all thinges, what soeuer I haue commaunded you. And lo, I am with you euery daye vnto the ende of the worlde.

MARK

Chapter 1

1 This is the begynnyng of the gospell of Iesus Christ the sonne of God,

2 as it is wrytte in the prophetes. Beholde, I sende my messauger before thy face, which shal prepare thy waye before the.

3 The voyce of a cryer is in the wyldernes: Prepare the waye of the LORDE, make his pathes straight.

4 Ihon was in the wyldernes, and baptyised, and preached the baptye of amendment, for the remysion of synnes.

5 And there wente out vnto him the whole londe of Iewry, and they of Ierusalem, and were all baptyised of him in Iordan, and knowleged their synnes.

6 Ihon was clothed with Camels heer, and with a lethron gerdell aboute his loynes, and ate locustes and wyld hony,

7 and preached, and sayde: There commeth one after me, which is stronger then I: before whom I am not worthy to stoupe downe, and to lowse vp ye lachet of his shue.

8 I baptyse you with water, but he shal baptyse you with the holy goost.

9 And it happened at the same tyme, that Iesus came out of Galile from Nazareth, and was baptyised of Ihon in Iordan.

10 And as soone as he was come out of the water, he sawe that the heauens opened, and the goost as a doue comynge downe vpon him.

11 And there came a voyce from heaue: Thou art my deare sonne, in whom I delyte.

12 And immediatly the sprete droue him in to the wyldernes:

13 and he was in the wyldernes fourtye dayes, and was tempted of Sathan, and was with the wyld beasts. And the angels mynistred vnto him.

14 But after that Ihon was taken, Iesus came in to Galile, and preached the gospell of the kyngdome of God,

15 and sayde: the tyme is fulfilled, and the kyngdome of God is at hande: Amende youre selues, and beleue the gospell.

16 So as he walked by the see of Galile, he sawe Symon and Andrew his brother, castinge their nettes in the see, for they were fysshers.

17 And Iesus sayde vnto the: Folowe me, and I wil make you fysshers of me.

18 And immediatly they left their nettes, and folowed him.

19 And when he was gone a lytle further from thence, he sawe Iames the sonne of Zebede, and Ihon his brother, as they were in the shyppe mendynge their nettes.

20 And anone he called them. And they left their father Zebede in the shyppe with the hyred seruantes, and folowed him.

21 And they wente in to Capernaum, and immediatly vpon the Sabbathes, he entred in to the synagoge, and taught.

22 And they were astonnyed at his doctryne: for he taught them as one hauynge power, and not as the Scribes.

23 And in their synagoge there was a man possessed with a foule sprete, which cried

24 and sayde: Oh what haue we to do with the, thou Iesus of Nazareth. Art thou come to destroye us? I knowe that thou art euen yt holy one of God.

25 And Iesus reprobud him, and sayde: holde thy tonge, and departe out of him.

26 And the foule sprete tare him, and cried with a loude voyce, and departed out of him.

27 And they were all astonnyed, in so moch that they axed one another amonge the selues, & sayde: What is this? What new lernynge is this? For he comaundeth the foule sprete with power, and they are obedient vnto him.

28 And immediatly the fame of him was noysed rounde aboute in the coastes and borders of Galile.

29 And forth with they wente out of the synagoge, and came in to the house of Symo and Andrew, wt Iames and Ihon.

30 And Symons mother in lawe laye, & had the feuers, and anone they tolde him of her.

31 And he came to her, and set her vp, and toke her by ye hande, and the feuer left her immediatly. And she mynistred vnto them.

32 At euen whan the Sonne was gone downe, they brought vnto him all that were sick and possessed,

33 and the whole cite was gathered together at the dore,

34 and he healed many that were diseased with dyuerse sicknesses, and cast out many deuels, and suffred not the deuels to speake, because they knew him.

35 And in the mornyng before daye, he arose, and wente out. And Iesus departed in to a deserte place, and prayed there.

36 Peter also and they that were with him, folowed after him.

37 And whan they had founde him, they sayde vnto him: Euery man seketh the.

38 And he sayde vnto them: Let us go in to the next townes, that I maye preach there also, for therto am I come.

39 And he preached i their synagoges, in all Galile, and droue out the deuyls.

40 And there came vnto him a leper, which besought him, and kneled before him, & sayde vnto him: Yf thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

41 And it pitied Iesus, and he stretched forth his honde, and touched him, and sayde: I wyll, be thou cleane.

42 And wha he had so spoken, immediatly the leprosy departed fro him, and he was censed.

43 And Iesus forbad him strately, and forth with sent him awaye,

44 and sayde vnto him: Take hede, that thou saye nothyng to eny man, but go thy waye, and shew thy self vnto the prest, and offre for thy clenysynge what Moses commaunded, for a wytnesse vnto them.

45 But he whan he was departed, beganne to speake moch of it, and made the dede knowne: in so moch that Iesus coude no more go into the cite openly, but was without in deserte places, & they came vnto him fro all quarters.

Chapter 2

1 And after certayne dayes he wente agayne vnto Capernaum, and it was noysed that he was in ye house.

2 And immediatly there was gathered a greate multitude, in so moch that they had no rowme, no not without before the dore. And he spake the worde vnto the.

3 And there came vnto him certaine, which brought one sicke of the palsy borne of foure.

4 And when they coude not come nye him for ye people, they vncouered ye rofe of ye house where he was. And when they had made a hole, they let downe the bed (by coardes) wherin the sicke of ye palsy laye.

5 But when Iesus sawe their faith, he sayde vnto the sicke of the palsy: My sonne, thy synnes are forgeuen the.

6 Neuertheles there were certayne scribes which sat there, & thought in their hertes:

7 How speaketh this man soch blasphemy? Who can forgeue synnes, but onely God?

8 And immediatly Iesus knew in his sprete, that they thought so in the selues, and saide vnto them: Why thinke ye soch thinges in youre hertes?

9 Whether is easier to saye to the sicke of the palsy: Thy synnes are forgeue the, or to saye: aryse, take vp thy bed and walke.

10 But that ye maye knowe, that ye sonne of man hath power to forgeue synnes vpon earth, he sayde vnto the sicke of ye palsy:

11 I saye vnto the, aryse, take vp thy bed, and go home.

12 And immediatly he arose, toke his bed, and wente forth before them all: in so moch that they were all astonnyed, and praysed God, and sayde: We neuer sawe soch.

13 And he wente forth agayne vnto the see, and all the people came vnto him, and he taught them.

14 And as Iesus passed by, he sawe Leui the sonne of Alpheus syttinge at the receate of custome, and sayde vnto him: Folowe me. And he arose, and folowed him.

15 And it came to passe as he sat at the table in his house, there sat many publicans & synners at the table with Iesus and his disciples: For there were many yt folowed him.

16 And whan the scribes and Pharises sawe that he ate with publicans & synners, they sayde vnto his disciples: Why doth he eate and dryncke with ye publicans and synners?

17 Whan Iesus herde that, he sayde vnto the: The whole nede not ye Phisician, but they that are sycke. I am not come to call the righteous, but the synners to repetaunce.

18 And the disciples of Ihon and of ye Pharises fasted. And there came certaine, which sayde vnto him: Why fast the disciples of Ihon, and of ye Pharises, and thy disciples fast not?

19 And Iesus sayde vnto them: How can the weddinge children fast, whyle the brydegrome is with them? So longe as ye brydegrome is with them, they can not fast.

20 But the tyme wyl come, that the brydegrome shalbe taken from them, and then shall they fast.

21 No man soweth a pece of new cloth vnto an olde garment, for els he taketh away the new pece from the olde, and so is the ret worse.

22 And no man putteth new wyne into olde vessels, els the new wyne breaketh the vessels, and the wyne is spylt, and ye vessels perishe: but new wyne must be put in to new vessels.

23 And it chaused that vpon ye Sabbath he wente throw the corne felde, and his disciples began to make a waye throw, and to plucke the eares of ye corne.

24 And the Pharises sayde vnto him: Beholde, what thy disciples do, which is not lauffull vpo the Sabbath.

25 And he sayde vnto the: Haue ye neuer red what Daudid dyd, wha he had nede, and was anhongred, both he and they that were wt him:

26 how he wente in to the house of God in the tyme of Abiathar the hye prest, and ate the shewbreds (which was lauffull for no man to eate, but for the prestes) and he gaue them vnto him, and to them that were with him?

27 And he sayde vnto them: The Sabbath was made for mans sake, and not man for the Sabbathes sake.

28 Therefore is the sonne of man LORDE euen ouer the Sabbath.

Chapter 3

1 He wente agayne also in to the synagoge, and there was there a ma that had a wythred hande.

2 And they marked him, whether he wolde heale him on the Sabbath, that they might accuse him.

3 And he sayde vnto ye ma with the wythred hade: Steppe forth here.

4 And he sayde vnto the: Is it lauffull to do good on the Sabbath? Or is it lauffull to do euell? to saue life, or to kyl? But they helde their tonge.

5 And he loked rounde aboute vpon them with wrath, and was sory for the harde hertes of the, and sayde vnto the man: Stretch out thine hande. And he stretched it out. And his hande was made whole like as ye other.

6 And the Pharises wete out, and straight waye they helde a councell with Herodes officers agaynst him, how they might destroye him.

7 But Iesus departed away with his disciples vnto the see. And there folowed him moch people out of Galile, and fro Iewry,

8 and from Ierusalem, and out of Idumea, and from beyonde Iordan, and they that dwelt aboute Tyre and Sydon, a greate multitude which had herde of his noble actes, and came vnto him.

9 And he spake vnto his disciples yt they shulde kepe a shyppe for him because of the people, lest they shulde thrunge him: 10 for he healed many of them, in so moch, that all they which were plagued, preased vpon him, that they might touch him.

11 And whan the foule spretes sawe him, they fell downe before him, and cried, and sayde: Thou art the sonne of God.

12 And he charged them strately, that they shulde not make him knowne.

13 And he wente vp in to a mountayne, and called vnto him whom he wolde, and they came vnto him.

14 And he ordeyned ye twolue, that they shulde be with him, and that he might sende them out to preach,

15 and that they might haue power to heale sicknesses, and to cast out deuyls.

16 And vnto Symon he gaue the name Peter,

17 and Iames the sonne of Zebede, and Ihon the brother of Iames, and gaue the the name Bonarges, that is to saye, the children of thonder:

18 and Andrew, and Philippe, and Bartylmew, and Mathew, and Thomas, and Iames ye sonne of Alpheus, and Taddeus, and Symon of Cana, 19 and Iudas Iscarioth which betrayed him. And they came to house.

20 Then assembled the people together agayne, in so moch that they had no leysure to eate.

21 And when they that were aboute him herde of it, they wente out to holde him. For they sayde: he taketh to moch vpon him.

22 But the scribes that were come downe from Ierusalem, sayde: He hath Belzebug, and thorow the chefe deuell casteth he out deuyls.

23 And he called them together, and spake vnto them in symilitudes: How can one Sathan dryue out another?

24 And yf a realme be deuyded in it self, how can it endure?

25 And yf a house be deuyded agaynst it self, it can not contynue.

26 Yf Sathan now ryse agaynst him self, and be at variaunce with him self, he can not endure, but is at an ende.

27 No man can entre in to a stronge mans house, and take away his goodes, excepte he first bynde the stronge man, and then spoyle his house.

28 Verely I saye vnto you: All synnes shalbe forgeuen the children of men, and the blasphemy also wherwith they blasphemeth.

29 But who so blasphemeth the holy goost, hath neuer forgeuenes, but is giltye of the euerlastinge iudgment.

30 For they sayde: he hath an vnclene sprete.

31 And there came his mother and his brethre, and stode without, and sente vnto him, and called him.

32 And the people sat aboute him, and sayde vnto him: Beholde, thy mother and thy brethre axe after the without.

33 And he answered, and sayde: Who is my mother and my brethren?

34 And he loked rounde aboute him vpon his disciples, which sat rounde in compasse aboute him, and sayde: Beholde, my mother and my brethren.

35 For who so euer doth the will of God the same is my brother, and my sister and my mother.

Chapter 4

1 And he began agayne to teach by ye seeside. And there gathered moch people vnto him, so that he wente in to a shippe, and sat vpon the water. And all the people stode vpon the londe by the see syde.

2 And he preached longe vnto the by parables, and sayde vnto the in his doctryne:

3 Herken to, beholde, there wente out a sower to sowe:

4 & it happened whyle he was sowinge, that some fell by the waye syde. Then came the foules vnder the heauen, and ate it vp.

5 Some fell vpon stonye grounde, where it had not moch earth: and anone it came vp, because it had not depe earth.

6 Now wha the Sonne arose, it caught heate: and in so moch as it had no rote, it wythred awaye.

7 And some fel amonge the thornes, & the thornes grew vp, and choked it, and it gaue no frute.

8 And some fell vpon a good grounde, which gaue frute, that came vp and grew.

9 And he sayde vnto them: Who so hath eares to heare, let him heare.

10 And whan he was alone, they that were aboute him wt the twolue, axed him concernyng this parable.

11 And he sayde vnto the: Vnto you it is geuen, to knowe the mystery of the kyngdome of God: but vnto them that are without, all thinges happen by parables, 12 that with seynge eyes they maye se, and not discern: and that with hearinge eares they maye heare, and not vnderstode, lest at eny tyme they turne, and their synnes be forgeuen them.

13 And he sayde vnto them: Vnderstode ye not this parable? How wyl ye then vnderstode all other parables?

14 The sower soweth the worde.

15 These be they that are by the waye syde: where the worde is sowne, and as soone as they haue herde it, immediatly commeth Satha, and taketh awaye the worde that was sown in their hertes.

16 And likewise are they that are sown on the stonye grounde: which when they haue herde the worde, receaue it with ioye, 17 and haue no rote in them: but endure for a tyme. When trouble and persecucion aryseth for ye wordes sake, immediatly they are offended.

18 And these are they that are sown amoge the thornes: which heare the worde, 19 and ye carefulnes of this worlde, and the disceatfulnes of riches, and many other lustes entre in, and choke the worde, and so is it made vnfrutefull.

20 And these are they yt are sown vpo a good grounde: Which heare ye worde, and receaue it, and brynge forth frute: some thirtie folde, and some sixtie folde, and some an hundred folde.

21 And he sayde vnto the: Is a candle lighted to be put vnder a busshell, or vnder a table? Is it not lighted, to be set vpon a candelsticke?

22 For there is nothinge hyd, that shall not be openly shewed: and there is nothinge secrete, yt shall not be knowne.

23 Who so hath eares to heare, let him heare.

24 And he sayde vnto them: Take hede what ye heare. With what measure ye mete, with the same shal it be measured vnto you agayne. And vnto you that heare this, shal more be geuen.

25 For who so hath, vnto him shal be geuen: and who so hath not, from him shalbe taken awaye, euen that he hath.

26 And he sayde: The kyngdome of God is after this maner, as when a man casteth sede vpon the londe, 27 and slepeth, and stondest vp night and daye, and the sede spryngeth vp, & groweth, he not knowinge of it.

28 (For the earth bryngeth forth frute of her selfe: first the grasse, afterwarde the eare, then the full wheate in the eare)

29 But whan she hath brought forth the frute, he putteth to the syckell, because the haruest is come.

30 And he sayde: Where vnto wyl we licken the kyngdome of God? Or by what symilitude wyl we compare it?

31 It is like a grayne of mustarde sede, which wha it is sowe vpo the londe, is the leest amonge all sedes of the earth.

32 And wha it is sowen, it groweth vp, and is greater then all herbes, and getteth greate braunches, so yt the foules vnder the heaue maye dwell vnder ye shadowe therof.

33 And by many soch parables he spake the worde vnto the, there after as they might heare it, 34 & without parables spake he nothinge vnto them: but vnto his disciples he expounded all thinges pryuately.

35 And the same daye at euen he sayde vnto them: let us passe ouer.

36 And they let the people go, and toke him as he was in the shippe, and there were mo shippes with him.

37 And there arose a greate storme of wynde, and dashed the waves in to the shippe, so that the shippe was full.

38 And he was behynde in the shippe and slepte vpon a pelowe. And they awoke him & sayde vnto him: Master, Carest thou not, that we perishe?

39 And he arose, and rebuked ye wynde, and sayde vnto the see: Peace, and be still, And the wynde was layed, & there folowed a greate calme.

40 And he sayde vnto them: Why are ye so fearfull? How is it, that ye haue no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, & sayde one to another: What is he this? For wynde and see are obedient vnto him.

Chapter 5

1 And they came ouer vnto the other syde of the see in to the countre of the Gaderenities.

2 And whan he wete out of the shippe, there met him a ma possessed of an vnclane sprete,
 3 which had his dwellinge in the graues. And no man coude bynde hym, no not with cheynes:
 4 for he was oft bounde with fetters & cheynes, and pluckte the cheynes in sunder, and brake the fetters in peces, and no man coude tame him.
 5 And he was allwaye both daye and night vpon the mountaynes and in the graues crienge, and beatinge him self with stones.
 6 But whan he sawe Iesus afarre of, he ranne, and fell downe before him,
 7 and cried loude, and sayde: What haue I to do with the O Iesus thou sonne of ye Hyst God? I charge the by God, that thou torment me not.
 8 Neuertheles he sayde vnto him: Go out of the man thou foule sprete.
 9 And he axed him: What is thy name? And he answered and sayde: My name is Legion, for there be many of vs.
 10 And he prayed him instantly, that he wolde not sende them awaye out of that countre.
 11 And euen there in the mountaynes there was a grete heerd of swyne fedynges, 12 and all the deuyls praied him, and sayde: Let vs departe in to the swyne.
 13 And anone Iesus gaue them leue. Then the foule spretes wente out, and intred in to the swyne. And the heerd of swyne, ranne heedlinges in to ye see with a storme. They were aboute a two thousande swyne, and were drowned in the see.
 14 And the swyneherdes fled, and tolde it in the cite, and in the countre. And they wente out for to se what had happened,
 15 and came to Iesus, and sawe hym which was possessed and had had ye legion, that he sat, and was clothed, and in his right mynde, and they were afrayed.
 16 And they that had sene it, tolde them what had happened to the possessed, and of the swyne.
 17 And they beganne to praye him, that he wolde departe out of their coastes.
 18 And whan he came in to the shyppe, the possessed prayed him, that he might be with him.
 19 Neuertheles Iesus wolde not suffre hi, but saide vnto hi: Go i to yi house & to thine awne, and tell the how grete benefites the LORDE hath done for ye, and how he hath had mercy vpon the.
 20 And he wente his waye, and beganne to publish in the ten cities how grete benefites Iesus had done for him. And euery man marueyled.
 21 And whan Iesus passed ouer agayne by shippe, there gathered moch people vnto him, and was by the see syde.
 22 And beholde, there came one of the rulers of the synagoge, whose name was Iairus. And whan he sawe him, he fell downe at his fete, 23 and besought him greatly, & sayde: My doughter is at the poynte (of death) let it be thy pleasure to come and laye thine honde vpon her, that she maye be whole and lyue.

 24 And he wente with him, and moch people folowed him, and thronged him.
 25 And there was a woman, which had had the bloude yssue twolue yeares,
 26 and had suffred moch of many phisicians, and spent all that she had, and was not helped, but rather in worse case.
 27 Whan she herde of Iesus, she came behynde amoge the people, and touched his garment.
 28 For she sayde: Yf I maye but touch his clothes, I shalbe whole.
 29 And immediatly ye fountayne of hir bloude was dried vp, and she felt in hir body, yt she was healed of the plague.
 30 And forth with Iesus felt in himself the power that was gone out of him, and turned him aboute amoge the people, and sayde: Who hath touched my clothes?
 31 And his disciples sayde vnto him: Thou seist that the people thrusteth the, and sayest: Who hath touched me?
 32 And he loked aboute to se her, that had done it.
 33 As for the woman, she feared and trembled (for she knew, what was done in her) and came and fell downe before him, and tolde him the whole trueth.
 34 And he sayde vnto her: Doughter, thy faith hath made the whole: go thy waye in peace, & be whole of thy plague.
 35 Why he yet spake, there came certayne from the ruler of the synagoges house, and sayde: Thy doughter is deed, why troublest thou the master eny more?
 36 But Iesus herde right soone the worde that was spoken, and sayde vnto the ruler of the synagoge: Be not thou afrayed, beleue onely.
 37 And he suffred no ma to folowe him, but Peter and Iames and Ihon his brother.
 38 And he came in to the ruler of the synagoges house, and sawe the busynes, and them that wepte and wayled greatly:
 39 and he wente in, and sayde vnto them: Why make ye this a doo, and wepe? The mayde is not deed, but slepeth.
 40 And they laughed him to scorne And he droue them all out, and toke the father and mother of the mayde, and them that were with him, and wente in where the mayden laye.
 41 And he toke the mayde by the honde, and sayde vnto her: Thabitha Cumi (which is by interpretaeion) Mayde, I saye vnto the: Aryse.
 42 And immediatly the mayden arose, and walked. She was twolue yeare olde, and they were astonnyed out of measure.
 43 And he charged them stratly, that no man shulde knowe of it, and sayde vnto them, that they shulde geue her to eate.

Chapter 6

1 And he departed thence, and came in to his awne countre, and his disciples folowed him.
 2 And wha ye Sabbath came, he begane to teach in their synagoge. And many that herde it, marueled at his lernynge, and sayde: From whence hath he these thinges? And what wyssdome is this, yt is geue him: & soch actes as are done by his handes?

 3 Is not this the Carpenter the sonne of Mary, and the brother of Iames and Ioses, and of Iude and Symon? Are not his sisters here with vs also? And they were offended at him.
 4 But Iesus saide vnto the: A prophet is nowhere lesse set by, the in his awne countre, & at home amonge his awne.
 5 And he coude not shew one miracle there, but layed his handes vpon a few sicke, and healed them.
 6 And he marueyled at their vnbeleue. And he wente aboute in the townes on euery syde, and taught them.
 7 And called the twolue, and begane to sende them two and two, and gaue them power ouer the vnclane spretes.
 8 And commaunded the, that they shulde take nothinge with them towarde their journey, saue onely a rodde: no scrippe, no bred, no money in the gerdell,
 9 but shulde be shod with sandales, and that they shulde not put on two cotes.
 10 And he sayde vnto them: Where so euer ye shal entre in to an house, there abyde, tyll ye go thence.
 11 And who so euer wyll not receaue you, ner heare you, departe out from thence, and shake of the dust from youre fete, for a wytnesse vnto them. I saye vnto you verely: It shal be easier for Sodome and Gomorra in the daye of iudgment, then for that cite.
 12 And they wete forth, and preached, that men shulde amede them selues, 13 and they cast out many deuyls: and many that were sicke anoynted they with oyle, and healed the.
 14 And it came to kyng Herodes eares (for his name was now knowne) and he sayde: Ihon the baptist is rysen agayne from the deed, and therefore are his dedes so mightie.
 15 But some sayde: It is Elias. Some sayde: It is a prophet, or one of ye prophetes.
 16 But when Herode herde it, he sayde: It is Ihon whom I beheeded, he is rysen agayne from the deed.
 17 This Herode had sent forth, and taken Ihon, and put him in preson, because of Herodias his brother Philippes wife, for he had married her.
 18 Neuertheles Ihon sayde vnto Herode It is not lafull for the to haue yi brothers wife.
 19 But Herodias layed wayte for him, and wolde haue slayne him, and coude not.
 20 Notwithstodinge Herode feared Iho, for he knew that he was a iust and holy man: and he kepte him, and herkened vnto him in many thinges, and herde him gladly.
 21 And there came a conuenient daye, that Herode on his byrth daye made a supper to the lordes, captaynes and chefe estates of Galile.
 22 Then the daughter of Herodias came in, and daunsed, and pleased Herode, and them that sat at the table. Then sayde the kyng vnto ye damsel: Axe of me what thou wilt, I wil geue it the.

 23 And he sware vnto her: What soeuer thou shalt axe of me, I wil geue it the, euen vnto ye one half of my kyngdome.
 24 She wente forth, and sayde vnto hir mother: what shal I axe? She sayde: Ihon baptistes heade.
 25 And immediatly she wete in to the kinge with haist, and sayde: I will that thou geue me straight waye in a platter the heed of Ihon the baptist.
 26 Then the kyng was sory: Yet for the ooths sake and the that sat at the table, he wolde not saye her nay.
 27 And immediatly he sent the hangman, and commaunded his heade to be brought in. So he wete, and heeded him in the preson, 28 and brought his heade in a platter, and gaue it vnto the damsell, and the damsell gaue it vnto hir mother.
 29 And whan his disciples herde that, they came and toke his body, & layed it in a graue.
 30 And the Apostles came together vnto Iesus, and tolde hi all, and what they had done and taught.
 31 And he sayde vnto them: Let vs go out of the waye in to the wyldernes, and rest a litle. For there were many comers and goers, and they had not tyme ynough to eate.
 32 And there he passed by shippe out of ye waye in to a deserte place.
 33 And the people sawe the departynge awaye, and many knewe of it, & ranne thither together of fote out of all cities, & came before the, & came vnto him.
 34 And Iesus wente out, and sawe moch people, and had copassion vpon them: for they were as the shepe, that haue no shepherd, and he begane a loge sermon.
 35 Now whan the daye was farre past, his disciples came vnto him, and sayde: This is a deserte place, 36 let them departe, that they maye go in to the vyllages and townes rounde aboute, and bye them selues bred, for they haue nothinge to eate.
 37 But Iesus answered and sayde vnto them: geue ye them to eate. And they sayde vnto him: Shal we go then, and bye two hundreth peny worth of bred, and geue them to eate?
 38 He sayde vnto them: How many loaues haue ye? Go and se. And when they had searched, they sayde: Fyue, and two fisshes.
 39 And he commaunded them all to syt downe by table fulles vpon the grene grasse.
 40 And they sat downe here a rowe and there a rowe by hundreds and by fifties.
 41 And he toke the fyue loaues and two fisshes, and loked vp vnto heauen, and gaue thanks, and brake the loaues, and gaue to the disciples, to set before them. And the two fisshes parted he amonge them all.
 42 And they all ate, and were satisfied.
 43 And they toke vp twolue baskettes full of ye broken peces and of the fisshes.

44 And they that ate, were aboute fyue thousande men.
 45 And anone he caused his disciples to go in to the shippe, and to passe ouer before him vnto Bethsaida, whyle he sent awaye the people.
 46 (Omitted Text)
 47 And at euen was the shippe in the myddest of the see, and he alone vpon the londe.
 48 And he sawe that they were in parell with rowynge, for the wynde was agaynst them. And aboute the fourth watch of ye night he came vnto them, and walked vpon the see, and wolde haue gone ouer by the.
 49 And when they sawe him walkinge vpon the see, they thought it had bene a sprete, and cried out,
 50 for they sawe him all, and were afrayed. But immediatly he talked with them, and sayde vnto them: Be of good comforte, it is I, be not afrayed.
 51 And he wete vnto them in to the shippe, and the wynde ceased. And they were astonnyed, and marueled exceedingly:
 52 for they had forgotten the loaues, and their hert was blynded.
 53 And when they were passed ouer, they came in to lande of Genezareth, and drue vp in to the hauen.
 54 And when thy were come out of the shippe, immediatly they knewe him, 55 and ranne thorow out all the region aboute, and beganne on euery syde to brynge vnto him in beddes soch as were sicke, where they herde that he was.
 56 And whither so euer he entred in to townes, cities or vyllagies, there layed they the sicke in the market place, and prayed him, that they might but touch the hemme of his garment. And as many as touched him, were made whole.

Chapter 7

1 And there came vnto him the Pharises, and certayne of the scribes, that were come from Ierusalem.
 2 And wha they sawe certayne of his disciples eate bred with comon (that is, with vnwashen) handes, they complayned.
 3 For the Pharises & all the Iewes eate not, excepte they wash their handes oft tymes: obseruyng so the tradicions of the elders.
 4 And when they come from the market, they eate not, excepte they wasshe. And many other thynges there be, which they haue taken vpon them to obserue, as the washinge of cuppes and cruses, and brasen vessels and tables.
 5 Then the Pharises and scribes axed him: Why walke not thy disciples after the tradicions of the elders, but eate bred with vnwashen handes?
 6 But he answered & sayde vnto them: Full well hath Esay prophecied of you Ypocrytes, as it is wrytte: This people honoureth me wt their lippes, but their hert is farre fro me.

7 But in vayne do they serue me, whyle they teach soch doctrynes as are nothinge but the commaundemetes of me.
 8 Ye leaue the comaundement of God and kepe the tradicions of men, as the washyng of cruses and cuppes, & many soch thynges do ye.
 9 And he saide vnto the: How goodly haue ye cast asyde the comaundement of God, to manteyne youre owne tradicions?
 10 For Moses sayde: Honoure father & mother. Whoso curseth father and mother, shal dye the death.
 11 But ye saye: A ma shal saye to father or mother: Corban, that is, The thinge yt I shulde helpe the withall, is geue vnto God.
 12 And thus ye suffre him nomore to do ought for his father or his mother, 13 & make Gods worde of none effecte, thorow youre owne tradicions that ye haue set vp. And many soch thynges do ye.
 14 And he called vnto him all the people, and sayde vnto them: Herken vnto me ye all, and vnderstonde me.
 15 There is nothinge without a man, that can defyle him, whan it entreth in to him. But that goeth out of him, that is it that maketh the man vnclane.
 16 Yf eny man haue eares to heare, let him heare.
 17 And when he came from the people in to ye house, his disciples axed him of this symilitude.
 18 And he sayde vnto them: Are ye so then without vnderstandinge? Perceauye ye not yet, yt euery thinge which is without, and goeth in to the ma, can not defyle him?
 19 For it entreth not in to his hert, but in to ye bely, and goeth out in to the draught, that purgeth all meates.
 20 And he sayde: The thinge that goeth out of the man,
 21 that defyleth the man. For from within out of the hert of man proceade euell thoughtes, adoutrye, whordome, murthur, 22 theft, coueteousnes, wickednes, disceate, vnclennes, a wicked eye, blasphemy, pryde, foolishnes.
 23 All these euell thynges go from within, and defyle the man.
 24 And he arose, and wente from thence in to the borders of Tyre and Sydon, & entred in to an house, and wolde let no man knowe of it, and yet coude he not be hyd:
 25 For a certayne woman (whose daughter had a foule sprete) herde of him, and came and fell downe at his fete
 26 (and it was in Heithe woman of Syrophenices) and she besought him, that he wolde dryue out the deuell from hir daughter.
 27 But Iesus sayde vnto her: Let the children be fed first: It is not mete to take the childres bred, and to cast it vnto dogges.
 28 She answered and sayde vnto him: Yee LORDE, neuertheles the whelpes also eate vnder ye table, of ye childres cromes.

29 And he sayde vnto her: Because of this sayenge go thy waye, the deuell is departed out of thy daughter.
 30 And she wente vnto her house, & founde that the deuell was departed, and hir daughter lyenge on the bed.
 31 And when he wente out agayne from the coastes of Tyre and Sydon, he came vnto the see of Galile, thorw the myddes of ye coastes of the te cities.
 32 And they brought vnto him one that was deaf, and had impediment in his speach. And they prayed him, that he wolde laye his hande vpon him.
 33 And he toke him a syde from the people, and put his fyngers in his eares, and dyd spyt, and touched his tonge, 34 and loked vp vnto heauen, sighed, and sayde vnto him: Ephatha, that is, be opened.
 35 And immediatly his eares were opened, and the bonde of his toge was loused, and he spake right.
 36 And he charged them, that they shulde tell noman. But the more he forbad them, the more they published it, 37 & marueyled out of measure, and sayde: He hath done all thynges well. The deaf hath he made to heare, and the domme to speake.

Chapter 8

1 At the same tyme when there was moch people there, and had nothinge to eate, Iesus called his disciples to him, and sayde vnto them:
 2 I haue compassion vpon the people, for they haue taried wt me now thre dayes, & haue nothinge to eate.
 3 And yf I let them go home fro me fastyng, they shulde faynte by the waye. For some of them were come from farre.
 4 And his disciples answered him: Where shulde we get bred here in the wyldernes, to satisfie them?
 5 And he axed the: How many loaues haue ye? They sayde: Seuen.
 6 And he commaunded the people to syt downe vpon the grounde. And he toke the seuen loaues, and gauē thakes, and brake them, and gauē the vnto his disciples to set them before the people. And they set the before the people.
 7 And they had a few small fyshes, and when he had geuen thakes, he bad set the same before the people.
 8 They ate, and were satisfied, & toke vp seue basskettes full of ye broke meate that was left.
 9 And they yt ate, were vpo a foure thousande. And he sent the awaye.
 10 And forth with he wente in to a shippe with his disciples, and came in to the coastes of Dalmanutha.
 11 And the Pharises wente out, and begane to dispute with him, and tempted him, and desyred a token of him from heaue.
 12 And he sighed in his sprete, and sayde: Why doth this generacion seke a token? Verely I saye vnto you: There shal no toke be geue vnto this generacion.

13 And he left them, and wete againe into the shippe, and passed ouer.
 14 And they forgat to take bred with them, and had nomore with them in the shippe but one loaf.
 15 And he comaunded them, and sayde: Take hede, and beware of the leuen of the Pharises, and of the leuen of Herode.
 16 And their myndes wauered here and there, and sayde amonge them selues: This is it, that we haue no bred.
 17 And Iesus vnderstode that, and sayde vnto them: Why trouble ye youre selues, that ye haue no bred? Are ye yet without vnderstandinge? Haue ye yet a blynded hert in you?
 18 Haue ye eyes, & se not? and haue ye eares, and heare not? and remembre ye not, 19 that I brake fyue loaues amonge fyue thousande, how many basskettes full of broken meate toke ye then vp? They sayde: twolue.
 20 And when I brake the seuen amonge the foure thousande, how many basskettes full of broken meate toke ye then vp? They sayde: Seuen.
 21 And he sayde vnto the: Why are ye then without vnderstandinge?
 22 And he came to Bethsaida, & they brought one blynde vnto him, and prayed him to touch him.
 23 And he toke the blynde by the hande, and led him out of the towne, and spat in his eyes, and layed his handes vpon him, and axed him whether he sawe ought.
 24 And he loked vp, and sayde: I se men goynge as yf I sawe trees.
 25 After this he layed his handes vpon his eyes ageyne, and made him to se. And he was brought to right againe, and sawe all clearly.
 26 And he sent him home, and sayde: Go not in to ye towne, and tell it also vnto noman therin.
 27 And Iesus wente out and his disciples into the townes of the cite Cesarea Philippi, And in ye waye he axed his disciples and sayde vnto them: What do men saye, that I am?
 28 They answered: They saye, thou art Ihon the baptist: Some saye thou art Elias, some that thou art one of the prophetes.
 29 And he sayde vnto them: But whom saye ye that I am? Then answered Peter and sayde vnto him: Thou art very Christ.
 30 And he charged them strately, that they shulde tell no man of him.
 31 And he begane to teach them: The sonne of man must suffre many thynges, and be cast out of the elders & hye prestes and scribes, and be put to death, and after thre dayes ryse agayne.
 32 And that worde spake he fre openly. And Peter toke him vnto him, and beganne to rebuke him.
 33 But he turned him aboute, and loked vpon his disciples, and reproued Peter, and sayde: Go after me thou Sathan, for thou sauourest not the thynges that be of God, but of men.
 34 And he called vnto him the people with his disciples, and sayde vnto them: Who so euer wyl folowe me, let him denye himself, and take vp his crosse, and folowe me.

35 For who so euer wyl saue his life, shal lose it: and who so euer loseth his life for my sake and ye gospels, ye same shal saue it.

36 What helpeth it a ma though he wane the whole worlde, and yet toke harme in his soule?

37 Or, what can a man geue, to redeme his soule withall?

38 Who so euer is ashamed of me and of my wordes amonge this aduouterous and synfull generacion, of him shal the sonne of man also be ashamed, whan he commeth in the glory of his father with the holy angels.

Chapter 9

1 And he sayde vnto them: Verely I saye vnto you: There stode here some, which shal not taist of death, tyll they se the kyngdome of God come with power.

2 And after sixe dayes Iesus toke vnto him Peter, Iames and Ihon, and brought them vp in to an hye mountayne out of the waye alone, and was ttasfigured before them,

3 and his clothes were bright and very whyte as ye snowe, so whyte as no fuller can make vpon earth.

4 And there appeared vnto the Elias with Moses, and they talked with Iesus.

5 And Peter answered, and sayde vnto Iesus: Rabbi, here is good beynge for vs. Let vs make thre tabernacles: one for the, one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he knewe not what he sayde, and they were very fearfull.

7 And there was a cloude, which ouershadowed the. And out of the cloude there came a voyce, and sayde: This is my deare sonne, heare him.

8 And immediatly they lokod aboute them, and sawe noman more then Iesus onely with them.

9 But whan they wente downe from the mountayne, Iesus charged them, that they shulde tell no man what they had sene, tyll the sonne of man were rysen agayne from the deed.

10 And they kepte that sayenge by them, and axed one another: What is that rysinge agayne from the deed?

11 And they axed him, and sayde: Why saye the scribes then, that Elias must first come?

12 He answered and sayde vnto them: Elias shal come first in dede, and brynge all thinges to right agayne. The sonne of man also shal suffre many thinges, and be despyed, as it is wrytten.

13 But I saye vnto you: Elias is come, and they haue done vnto him what they wolde, acordinge as it is wrytten of him?

14 And he came to his disciples, and sawe moch people aboute them, and the scribes disputynge with them.

15 And as soone as the people sawe, they were astonnyed, and ranne vnto him, and saluted him.

16 And he axed the scribes: What dispute ye with them?

17 And one of the people answered, and sayde: Master, I haue brought vnto the my sonne, which hath a domme sprete:

18 and whan so euer he taketh him, he teareth him, and he fometh, and gnasseth with the teth, and pyneth awaye, & I haue spoken to thy disciples that they shulde cast him out, and they coude not.

19 He answered him, and sayde: O thou vnfaithfull generacion, how longe shal I be with you? How longe shal I suffre you? Brynge hi hither to me.

20 And they brought him vnto him. And as soone as the sprete sawe him, he tare him, and fell vpon the earth, and wretred and fomed.

21 And he axed his father: How longe is it, sens this happened vnto him? He sayde: Of a childe, 22 and oft tymes hath he cast him in to the fyre and water, to destroye him: but yf thou canst do enythinge, haue mercy vpon vs, and helpe vs.

23 Iesus sayde vnto him: Yf thou couldest beleue: All thinges are possible vnto him that beleueth.

24 And immediatly the father of the childe cried with teares, and sayde: LORDE I beleue: O helpe thou myne vnbeleue.

25 Now whan Iesus sawe that the people ranne to, he rebuked the foule sprete, and sayde vnto him: Thou domme and deaf sprete, I charge the, departe out of him, and entre nomore in to him from hence forth.

26 And he cried, and rent him sore, and departed. And he was as though he had bene deed, in so moch that many sayde: he is deed.

27 But Iesus toke him by the hande, and set him vp. And he arose.

28 And whan he came home, his disciples axed him secretly: Why coude not we cast him out?

29 And he sayde: This kynde ca go out by no meanes, but by prayer and fastynge.

30 And they departed thece, and toke their iourney thorow Galile, and he wolde not that eny man shulde knowe of it.

31 But he taught his disciples, and sayde vnto them: The sonne of ma shalbe delyuered in to the handes of men, and they shal put him to death: and whan he is put to death, he shal ryse ageyne the thirde daye.

32 But they vnderstode not that worde, and were afrayed to axe him.

33 And he came to Capernaum. And whan he was at home, he axed them? What disputed ye amonge youre selues by ye waye?

34 But they helde their tuges: For they had disputed by the waye amonge them selues, who shulde be ye greatest.

35 And he sat downe, and called the twolue, and sayde vnto them: Yf eny man wyl be the first, the same shal be the last of all, and the seruauant of all.

36 And he toke a childe, and set him in the myddest of them, and toke him in his armes, and sayde vnto them:

37 Who so euer receaueth soch a childe in my name, receaueth me: and who so euer receaueth me, receaueth not me, but him that hath sent me.

38 Ihon answered him, and sayde: Master, we sawe one dryue out deuels in thy name, but he foloweth not vs, and we forbad him because he foloweth vs not.

39 But Iesus sayde: Forbyd him not: for there is no ma that doth a myracle in my name, and can soone speake euell of me.

40 For who so euer is not agaynst vs, the same is for vs.

41 And who so euer geueth you a cuppe of water to drynke in my name, because ye belonge vnto Christ, verely I saye vnto you: he shal not lose his rewarde.

42 And who so offendeth one of these litle ones that beleue in me, it were better for him, that a mylstone were haged aboute his neck, and he cast in to the see.

43 Yf thy hade offende the, cut him of. Better it is for the to entre in to life lame, the hauynge two hondes to go in to hell in to the euerlastinge fyre,

44 where their worme dyeth not, and their fyre goeth not out.

45 Yf thy fote offende the, cut him of. Better it is for the to entre into life crepell, the hauynge two fete to be cast in to hell in the fyre euerlastynge,

46 where their worme dyeth not, and their fyre goeth not out.

47 Yf thine eye offende the, cast him from the. Better it is for the to entre in to ye kyngdome of God with one eye, then hauynge two eyes to be cast in to the fyre of hell:

48 where their worme dyeth not, and their fyre goeth not out.

49 For euery ma must be salted wt fyre, & euery offerynge shalbe seasoned wt salt.

50 The salt is good: but yf ye salt be vnsauery, wherwith all shal it be salted? Haue salt in you & peace amonge yor selues one with another.

Chapter 10

1 And he rose vp, and came from thence in to the places of Iewry beyonde Iordan. And the people wete agayne vnto him by heapes, and as his maner was he taught them agayne.

2 And the Pharises came vnto him, and axed him, yf it were lafull for a man to put awaye his wife, and tempted him withall.

3 But he answered and sayde: What hath Moses comaunded you?

4 They sayde: Moses suffred to wryte a testimoniall of deuorcemet, and to put her awaye.

5 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them: Because of ye hardnesse of yor hert dyd Moses wryte you this commaundement.

6 But from the first creacion God made the man and woman.

7 For this cause shal a man leaue his father & mother, and cleue vnto his wife,

8 and they two shalbe one flesh. Now are they not twayne the, but one flesh.

9 Let not man therfore put asunder that, which God hath coupled together.

10 And at home his disciples axed him agayne of ye same.

11 And he sayde vnto the: Who so euer putteth awaye his wife, & marieth another, breaketh wedlocke to her wader.

12 And yf a woma forsake hir hussbande, & be maried to another, she comitteth aduoutrie.

13 And they brought childre vnto him, that he might touch them. But the disciples reproued those that brought the.

14 Neuertheles whan Iesus sawe it, he was displeased, and sayde vnto them: Suffre the children to come vnto me, and forbyd them not, for of soch is the kyngdome of God.

15 Verely I saye vnto you: Who so euer receaueth not the kyngdome of God as a childe, he shal not entre therein.

16 And he toke them vp in his armes, and layed his handes vpon them, and blessed them.

17 And whan he was gone forth vpon the waye, there came one runninge, and kneled vnto him, & axed him: Good Master, what shal I do, that I maye inheret euerlastinge life?

18 But Iesus saide vnto him: Why callest thou me good? There is no man good, but God onely, 19 Thou knowest the commaundementes: Thou shalt not breake wedlocke: thou shalt not kyl: thou shalt not steale: thou shalt beare no false wytnesse: thou shalt begyle no man: Honour thy father and mother.

20 But he answered, and sayde vnto him: Master, all these haue I kepte fro my youth vp.

21 And Iesus behelde him, and loued him, & sayde vnto him: Thou wantest one thinge: Go thy waye, and sell all that thou hast, and geue it vnto ye poore: so shalt thou haue a treasure in heauen, and come & folowe me, and take the crosse vpon ye.

22 And he was discomforted at the sayenge, & wente awaye sory, for he had greate possessions.

23 And Iesus lokod aboute him, and sayde vnto his disciples: O how hardly shal the ryche come into ye kyngdome of God?

24 And the disciples were astonnyed at his wordes. But Iesus answered agayne, and sayde vnto them: Deare children, how harde is it for them that trust in riches, to come into the kyngdome of God?

25 It is easier for a Camell to go thorow the eye of a nedle, then for a rich man to entre in to ye kyngdome of God.

26 Yet were they astonnyed ye more, and sayde amonge the selues: Who can the be saued?

27 But Iesus behelde them, and sayde: With men it is vnpossyble, but not with God: for with God all thinges are possyble.

28 Then sayde Peter vnto him: Beholde, we haue forsaken all, and folowed the.

29 Iesus answered & sayde: Verely I saye vnto you: There is no man that forsaketh house, or brethren, or sisters, or father or mother, or wife, or children, or londes for my sake and the gospels, 30 that shal not receaue an hundreth folde now in this tyme, houses, and brethre, and sisters, and mothers and children, and londes with persecucions, and in the worlde to come euerlastinge life.

 31 But many that are the first, shal be the last: and the last the first.
 32 They were in the waye goinge vp to Ierusalem, and Iesus wente before them. And they were astonnyed, and folowed him, and were afrayed. And Iesus toke the twolue agayne, and tolde them what shulde happe vnto him.
 33 Beholde, we go vp to Ierusalem, and the sonne of man shalbe delyuered vnto the hye prestes and scribes, and they shal condemne him to death, and delyuer him vnto the Heythe.
 34 And they shal mocke hi, and scourge him, and spyt vpon him, and put him to death, and on the thirde daye shal he ryse agayne.
 35 Then wete vnto him Iames and Ihon ye sonnes of Zebede, and sayde: Master, We desyre, that what soeuer we axe of the, thou wilt do it for vs.
 36 He sayde vnto the: What desyre ye that I shal do to you?
 37 They sayde vnto him: Graunte vs, that we maye syt one at thy right hande, and one at thy left hande in thy glory.
 38 But Iesus sayde vnto the: Ye wote not what ye axe. Maye ye drynke the cuppe, yt I shal drynke? and be baptysed with the baptye that I shal be baptysed withall?
 39 They sayde vnto him: Yee yt we maye. Iesus sayde vnto them: The cuppe that I drynke, shal ye drynke in dede: and be baptysed with the baptye that I shall be baptysed withall.
 40 Neuertheles to syt at my right hande and at my left, is not myne to geue you, but vnto them for whom it is prepared.
 41 And wha the ten herde that, they disdayned at Iames and Ihon.
 42 But Iesus called them, and sayde vnto them: Ye knowe that the prynces of ye worlde haue domynacion of the people, and ye mightie exercise auctorite amonge them.
 43 So shal it not be amonge you: but who so euer wil be greate amoge you, shal be youre mynister:
 44 and who so wyl be chefest amonge you, shalbe seruauant of all.
 45 For the sonne of man also came not to be serued, but to do seruyce, and to geue his life to a redempcion for many.
 46 And they came vnto Iericho. And whan he wente out of Iericho, and his disciples, and moch people, there sat one blynde Barthimeus the sonne of Thimeus by ye waye, and begged.
 47 And wha he herde that it was Iesus of Nazareth, he beganne to crie and saye: Iesu thou sonne of Dauid haue mercy vpon me.
 48 And many reproued him, that he shulde holde his tunge. But he cried moch more: Thou sonne of Dauid haue mercy vpon me.

 49 And Iesus stode still, and bad call him. And they called the blynde, and sayde vnto him: Be of good conforte, aryse, he calleth the.
 50 And he cast away his garment from him, stode vp, and came to Iesus.
 51 And Iesus answered, & sayde vnto him: What wilt thou that I do vnto the? The blynde sayde vnto him: Master, that I might se.
 52 Iesus sayde vnto him: Go yi waye, thy faith hath helped ye. And immediatly he had his sight and folowed him in the waye.

Chapter 11

1 And whan they came nye Ierusalem to Bethphage and Bethanye vnto mount Oliuete, he sent two of his disciples,
 2 and sayde vnto them: Go in to the towne that lyeth before you, and as soone as ye come in, ye shal fynde a foale bounde, wher vpon no man hath sytte: lowse it, and brynge it hither.
 3 And yf eny man saye vnto you: wherfore do ye that? Then saye ye: The LORDE hath nede therof, and forth with he shal sende it hither.
 4 They wete their waie and founde the foale tyed by ye dore without at the partynge of the waye, and lowsed it.
 5 And certayne of those yt stode there, axed them: What do ye, that ye lowse the foale?
 6 But they sayde vnto the, like as Iesus had commaunded them. And so they let them alone.
 7 And they brought the foale vnto Iesus, and layed their clothes theron, and he sat theron.
 8 But many spred their garmetes in the waye: some cut downe braunches fro the trees, and strowed the in the waye.
 9 And they that wente before, and that folowed after, cried, and sayde: Hosyanna, blessed be he, that commeth in the name of the LORDE:
 10 blessed be the kyngdome of oure father Dauid, which commeth in the name of the LORDE. Hosyanna in the height.
 11 And the LORDE entred in to Ierusalem, and wente in to the temple, and loked vpon all. And at euen he wente out vnto Bethanye with the twolue:
 12 and on the morow wha they departed from Bethanye, he hugred,
 13 and sawe a fygge tre afarre of, which had leaues. Then came he nye, (to se) yf he coude fynde eny thinge theron. And whan he came to it, he founde nothinge but leaues (for the tyme of fygges was not yet)
 14 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto it: Neuer ma eate frute of the for euermore. And his disciples herde it.
 15 And they came to Ierusalem. And Iesus wente in to the temple, and beganne to dryue out the sellers and byers in the temple, & ouerthrew the tables of the money chaungers, and the stoles of the doue sellers, 16 and suffred not eny man to cary a vessell thorow the temple.

 17 And he taught and sayde vnto them: Is it not wrytten: My house shalbe called a house of prayer for all people? But ye haue made it a denne of murthurers.
 18 And the scribes and hye prestes herde of it. And they sought how they might destroye him, but they were afrayed of him, for all the people marueled at his doctryne.
 19 And at euen he wente out of the cite.
 20 And on the morow they passed by, and sawe the fygge tre, that it was wythred vnto the rote.
 21 And Peter thought theron, and sayde vnto him: Master, beholde, the fygge tre yt thou cursedest, is wythred awaye.
 22 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them: Hauue faith in God.
 23 Verely I saye vnto you: Who so euer saieth vnto this mountayne: Avoyde, and cast thy self in to the see, and douteth not in his hert, but beleueth that the thinges shal come to passe which he saieth, then loke what he sayeth, it shal come to passe.
 24 Therfore I saye vnto you: What so euer ye desyre in youre prayer, beleue that ye shal receaue it, and ye shal haue it.
 25 And whan ye stonde and praye, forgeue yf ye haue ought ageynst eny man, that youre father also in heauen, maye forgeue you youre trespasses.
 26 (Omitted Text)
 27 And they came agayne vnto Ierusalem and whan he wente in the temple, there came vnto him the hye prestes and scribes and the elders,
 28 and sayde vnto him: By what auctorite dost thou these thinges? and who gaue the this auctorite to do soch?
 29 But Iesus answered and sayde vnto the: I wil axe you a worde also, answer me, and I wyl tell you, by what auctorite I do these.
 30 The baptye of Ihon, was it from heauen, or of men? Answer me.
 31 And they thought in them selues: yf we saye, it was from heauen, then shal he saye: Why dyd ye not then beleue him?
 32 But yf we saye: It was of men, then feare we the people, for they all helde that Ihon was a true prophet.
 33 And they answered, and saide vnto him: We can not tell. And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them: Nether tell I you, by what auctorite I do these thinges.

Chapter 12

1 And he beganne to speake vnto them by parables: A certayne ma planted a vynyarde, and made a hedge aboute it, and dygged a wyne presse, and buylded a tower, and let it out vnto hussbande men, and wente in to a straunge cowntre.
 2 And whan the tyme was come, he sent a seruaut to the hussbande men, that he might receaue of the hussbandmen, of the frute of the vynyarde.

 3 But they toke him, and bet him, and sent him awaye emptye.
 4 Agayne, he sent vnto them another seruauant, whom they stoned, and brake his heade, and sent him awaye shamefully dealt withall.
 5 Agayne he sent another, whom they slew, and many other: some they bett, and some they put to death.
 6 Then had he yet one sonne onely, whom he loued, him he sent also vnto them at the last, and sayde: they wyl stonde in awe of my sonne.
 7 But the same hussbandmen sayde amonge them selues: This is the heyre, Come, let vs kyll him, so shal the inheritaunce be ours.
 8 And they toke him, and slewe him, and cast him out of the vynyarde.
 9 What shal now the lorde of the vynyarde do? He shal come and destroye the hussbande men, and geue the vynyarde vnto other.
 10 Hauue ye not red this scripture: The same stone which the buylders refused, is become the headstone in the corner?
 11 This was the LORDES doynge, and it is maruelous in oure eyes.
 12 And they wente aboute to take him (but they feared the people) for they perceaued, that he had spoke this parable agaynst the. And they left him, and wente their waye.
 13 And they sent vnto him certayne of the Pharises and Herodes officers to take him in his wordes.
 14 And they came, and sayde vnto hi: Master, we knowe that thou art true and carest for no man. For thou regardest not the outwarde appearaunce of men, but teachest ye waye of God truly. Is it lauffull to geue tribute vnto the Emperoure, or not?
 15 Ought we to geue it, or ought we not to geue it? But he perceaued their ypocrisyse, and sayde vnto them: Why tempte ye me? Brynge me a peny, that I maye se it.
 16 And they brought it him. Then sayde he: Whose ymage and superscripcion is this? They sayde vnto him: The Emperours.
 17 Then answered Iesus and sayde vnto the: Geue therfore vnto the Emperoure that which is the Emperours, and vnto God that which is Gods. And they marueled at him.
 18 Then came vnto him the Saduces (which holde that there is no resurreccion) these axed him, and sayde:
 19 Master, Moses wrote vnto vs. Yf eny mans brother dye, and leaue a wife, and leaue no children, his brother shal take his wife, and rayse vp sede vnto his brother.
 20 Now were there seuen brethren: the first toke a wife, and dyed, and left no sede:
 21 and the seconde toke her, and dyed, and left no sede also: the thirde in like maner.
 22 And they all seuen toke her, and left no sede. At the last after them all, the wyfe dyed also.

23 Now in the resurreccion whan they shal ryse agayne, whose wife shal she be of them? For seuen had her to wife.

24 Then answered Iesus, and sayde vnto them: Do not ye erre? because ye knowe not the scriptures ner ye power of God? 25 Whan they shal ryse agayne from the deed, they shal nether mary ner be maried, but they are as the angels in heauen.

26 As touchinge the deed, that they shal ryse agayne, haue ye not red in the boke of Moses, how God spake vnto him in the bush, and sayde: I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, & the God of Iacob?

27 Yet is not God a God of the deed, but of the luyunge. Therefore ye erre greatly.

28 And there came vnto him one of the scribes, that had herkened vnto the how they disputed together, and sawe that he had answered them well, and axed him: Which is the chefest commaundement of all?

29 Iesus answered him: The chefest commaundemet of all commaundementes is this: Heare O Israel, the LORDE oure God is one God,

30 and thou shalt loue the LORDE thy God with all thy hert, with all thy soule, with all thy mynde, and with all thy strength. This is the chefest commaundement, 31 and the seconde is like vnto it: Thou shalt loue thy neighoure as thy self. There is none other greater commaundement then these.

32 And the scribe sayde vnto him: Master, Verely thou hast sayde right: for there is but one God, & there is none other without him, 33 and to loue him with all the hert, with all the mynde, with all the soule, and with all the strength, and to loue a mans neighoure as himself, is more then brent sacrifices and all offerynges.

34 But wha Iesus sawe that he answered discretly, he sayde vnto him: Thou art not farre from the kyngdome of God. And after this durst no man axe him eny mo questions.

35 And Iesus answered, and sayde, whan he taught in the temple: How saye the scribes, yt Christ is the sonne of Daud?

36 But Daud himself saieth thorow the holy goost: The LORDE sayde vnto my LORDE: Syt thou on my right honde, tyll I make thine enemies yi fotestole.

37 There Daud calleth him his LORDE. How is he the his sonne? And many people herde him gladly.

38 And he taught the, and sayde vnto the: Bewarre of the scribes, that loue to go in longe garmentes, and loue to be saluted in the market,

39 and syt gladly aboue in the synagoges and at the table:

40 they deuoure wyddowes houses, and vnder a coloure they make longe prayers. These shal receaue the more damnacion.

41 And Iesus sat ouer agaynst the Gods chest, and behelde how the people put money in to the Godschest. And many that were riche: put in moch.

42 And there came a poore wyddowe, and put in two mytes, which make a farthinge.

43 And he called vnto him his disciples, and sayde vnto them: Verely I saye vnto you: this poore wyddowe hath put more in ye Godschest, then all they that haue put in:

44 For they all haue put i of their superfluyte, but she of hir pouerte hath put in all that she had, euen hir whole luyunge.

Chapter 13

1 And whan he wete out of the temple, one of his disciples sayde vnto him: Master, se, what stones and what a buyldinge is this?

2 And Iesus answered and sayde vnto him: Seist thou all this greate buyldinge? There shal not one stone be left vpo another, yt shal not be broken downe.

3 And whan he sat vpon mount Oliuete ouer ageynst the temple, Peter and Iames, and Ihon, and Andrew axed him pryuatly:

4 Tell vs, Whan shal all these come to passe? And what shalbe the toke, wha all these shalbe fulfilled?

5 Iesus answered them, and beganne to saye: Take hede, that no man disceaue you,

6 for there shal many come vnder my name, and saye: I am Christ, & shal disceaue many.

7 But whan ye shal heare of the noyse of warres, be not ye afrayed: for so must it be, but ye ende is yet.

8 One people shal ryse ageynst another, and one realme ageynst another, and there shal be earth quakes here and there, and derth shal there be and troubles. These are the begynnynges of sorowes.

9 But take ye hede to youre selues. For they shal delyuer you vp to the counceils, and synagoges, and ye shal be beaten, and shalbe brought before prynces and kynges for my names sake, for a wytnesse vnto the.

10 And ye gospel must first be preached amoge all people.

11 Now whan they shal lede you and delyuer you vp, take ye no thought afore what ye shal saye: and ymagyn ye nothinge afore hande, but what so euer shal be geue you at the same houre, that speake: for it is not ye that speake, but the holy goost.

12 One brother shal delyuer another vnto death, and the father the sonne, & the children shal ryse ageynst their fathers and mothers, and shal helpe them to death,

13 and ye shal be hated of all men for my names sake. But who so endureth to the ende, shalbe saued.

14 Whan ye shal se the abhominacio of desolacion (wherof it is spoke by Daniel the prophet) stonde where it ought not (who so readeth it, let him marck it well) then let the which be in Iewry, flye vnto the mountaynes:

15 and let him that is on the house toppe not descende in to the house, ner come therin, to fetch eny thinge out of the house.

16 And let him that is in the felde, not turne backe to fetch his clothes.

17 But wo vnto them that are with childe, and to them that geue suck in those dayes.

18 Neuertheles praye ye, that youre flight be not in the wynter.

19 For in those dayes there shal be soch trouble as was not from the begynnynges of ye creatures which God created, vnto this tyme, nether shal be.

20 And yf ye LORDE had not shortened those dayes, there shulde no man be saued. But for the electes sake whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened those dayes.

21 Now yf eny man shal saye vnto you at yt tyme: Lo, here is Christ: lo, he is there, beleue it not.

22 For there shal aryse false Christes, and false prophetes, which shal do tokens & wonders, to disceaue euen the very chosen, yf it were possyble.

23 But take ye hede, Beholde, I haue tolde you all before.

24 But at the same tyme after this trouble, the Sonne and Mone shal lose their light,

25 and the starres shall fall from heauen, and the powers of the heauens shal moue:

26 and then shal they se the sonne of man commynge in the cloudes with greete power and glory.

27 And the shal he sende his angels, and shal gather together his chosen fro the foure wyndes, from one ende of the earth to the other.

28 Lerne a symilitude of the fyge tre: Wha his braunch is yet teder, and hath brought forth leaues, ye knowe that the Sommer is nye.

29 So lykewyse wha ye se all these thinges come to passe, be ye sure, that it is nye euen at the dores.

30 Verely I saye vnto you: this generacio shal not passe, tyll all these be fulfilled.

31 Heauen and earth shal perishe, but my wordes shal not perishe.

32 But of that daye and houre knoweth no man, nether the angels in heauen, no not the sonne him self, but the father onely.

33 Take hede, watch, & praye, for ye knowe not whan the tyme is.

34 Like as a man that wente in to a straunge cowntre, and left his house, and gaue his seruauntes auctorite, vnto euery one his worke, and commaunded ye porter, that he shulde watch.

35 Watch ye therefore, for ye knowe not wha the master of ye house cometh, whether he cometh in the euenyng, or at mydnight, or aboute the cock crowyng, or in the mornynge

36 that he come not sodenly, and fynde you slepyng.

37 Loke what I saye vnto you, that saye I vnto all. Watch.

Chapter 14

1 And after two dayes was Easter, and the daies of swete bred. And ye hye prestes & scribes sought how they might take him with disceate, & put him to death.

2 But they sayde: Not in the feast daye, lest there be an vproure in the people.

3 And when he was at Bethanye in the house of Symon the leper, and sat at the table, there came a woman, which had a boxe of pure and costly Nardus oyntment. And she brake ye boxe, & poured it vpo his heade.

4 Then were there some, yt disdayned and sayde: Where to serueth this waist?

5 This oyntment might haue bene solde for more then thre hundreth pens, & bene geue to ye poore. And they grudged agaynst her.

6 But Iesus sayde: let her be in rest. Why trouble ye her? She hath done a good worke vpo me.

7 Ye haue allwaye the poore with you, and wha so euer ye wil, ye maye do the good: but me haue ye not allwaie.

8 She hath done what she coulde, she is come before, to anynte my body for my buriall.

9 Verely I saye vnto you: Where so euer this gospell shalbe preached in all the worlde, there shal this also that she hath now done, be tolde for a remembraunce of her.

10 And Iudas Iscarioth one of the twolue wente vnto the hye prestes, to betraye him vnto them.

11 Whan they herde yt, they were glad, & promysed that they wolde geue him money. And he sought, how he might coueniently betraye him.

12 And vpon ye first daye of swete bred, wha the Easter lambe was offered, his disciples sayde vnto him: Where wilt thou yt we go and prepare, yt thou mayest eate ye Easter labe?

13 And he sent two of his disciples, and sayde vnto them: Go youre waye into the cite, and there shal mete you a ma bearinge a pitcher with water, folowe him, 14 & where so euer he goeth in, there saye ye to the good man of the house: The Master sendeth the worde: Where is the gest house, wherin I maye eate the Easter labe, wt my disciples?

15 And he shal shewe you a greate parlour, which is paued & prepared, there make readye for vs.

16 And ye disciples wete forth, & came in to ye cite, & foude it as he had sayde vnto the. And they prepared ye Easter lambe.

17 At euen he came wt the twolue.

18 And as they sat at the table & ate, Iesus sayde: Verely I saye vnto you: One of you yt eateth wt me, shal betraye me.

19 And they were sory, & sayde vnto hi one after another: Is it I? & another (sayde:) is it I?

20 He answered & saide vnto the: One of the twolue, euen ye same yt dyppeth with me in ye platter.

21 The sonne of man truly goeth forth, as it is wrytte of hi. But wo vnto that ma, by whom the sonne of man is betrayed. It were better for the same man, that he had neuer bene borne.

22 And as they ate, Iesus toke the bred, gaue thankes, & brake it, and gaue it the, & sayde: Take, eate, this is my body.

23 And he toke the cuppe, thaked, and gaue it the, and they all dranke therof.

24 And he sayde vnto them: This is my bloude of the new Testament, which shalbe shed for many.

25 Verely I saye vnto you, that from hence forth I wil not drynke of the frute of the vyne, tyll ye daye yt I drynke it new in ye kyngdome of God.

26 And wha they had sayde grace, they wete forth vnto mount Oliuete.

27 And Iesus sayde vnto them: This night shal ye all be offended in me, for it is wrytten: I wil smyte the sheperde, & the shepe shal be scatred abroad.

28 Neuertheles after yt I am rysen agayne, I wil go before you in to Galile.

29 But Peter sayde vnto him: And though all men shulde be offended, yet wolde not I be offended.

30 And Iesus sayde vnto him: Verely I saye vnto ye: Todaye in this same night, before ye cock crowe two tymes, shalt thou denye me thryse.

31 But he saide yet more: Yee though I shulde dye wt ye, yet wil I not denie ye. So saide they all i like maner.

32 And they came in to ye felde called Gethsemane, and he sayde vnto his disciples: Syt ye here, tyll I go yonder, and praye.

33 And he toke with him Peter & Iames, & Ihon, and begane to waxe fearefull, & to be in an agonye, 34 & sayde vnto the: My soule is heuy eue vnto ye death: tary ye here and watch.

35 And he wente forth a litle, fell vpon the grounde and prayed, that, (yf it were possyble) ye houre might passe fro him, 36 and sayde: Abba, my father, all things are possyble vnto the, take this cuppe awaye fro me: Neuertheles not what I wyl, but what thou wilt.

37 And he came vnto them, and founde the slepyng, and sayde vnto Peter: Symon, slepest thou? Coudest thou not watch with me one houre?

38 Watch and praye, that ye fal not in to temptacion. The sprete is wyllinge, but ye flesh is weake.

39 And he wete forth agayne, and prayde, and spake the same wordes, 40 and returned, and founde them slepyng agayne: for their eyes were heuy, & they knewe not what they shulde answere him.

41 And he came the thirde tyme, and sayde vnto them: Slepe on now, and take youre rest, It is ynough, the houre is come: beholde, ye sonne of man shalbe delyuered in to the handes of synners:

42 aryse, let vs be goynge. Beholde, he is at hande, that betrayeth me.

43 And immediatly whyle he yet spake, came Iudas as the twolue, and with him a greate multitude, with swerdes and staues from the hye prestes and scribes and elders.

44 And the traytoure had geuen them a toke, and sayde: Whom so euer I kysse, that same is he, laye handes vpon him, and lede him awaye warely.

45 And wha he was come, he wente straight waye vnto him, and sayde vnto him: O master, master, and kyssed him.

46 Then layed they their handes vpon him, & toke him.

47 But one of the that stode by, drew out his swerde, and smote the hye prestes seruaunt, and cut of his eare.

48 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto the: Ye are come forth as it were to a murthurer with swerdes and with staues to take me.

49 I was daylie with you in the temple, and taught, and ye toke me not. But this is done, that the scrypture maye be fulfilled.

50 And all the disciples forsoke him, and fled.

51 And there folowed him a yonge ma, which was clothed in linnen vpon the bare skynne, and the yonge me toke holde of him.

52 But he let the linnen go, and fled naked from them.

53 And they led Iesus vnto the hye prest, where all ye hye prestes, and elders and scribes were come together.

54 As for Peter, he folowed him a farre of in to the hye prestes palace. And he was there, and sat with the seruauntes, and warmed him.

55 But the hye prestes and the whole councell sought wytnesse agaynst Iesus, yt they might brynge him to death, and they founde none.

56 Many gaue false wytnesse agaynst him, but their wytnesses agreed not together.

57 And some stode vp, and gaue false wytnes agaynst him, and sayde:

58 We herde him saye: I wil breake downe this temple that is made with hodes, and in thre dayes buylde another not made wt handes.

59 But their wytnesse agreed not together.

60 And the hye prest stode vp amonge them, and axed Iesus, and sayde: Answerest thou nothinge vnto it, that these testifie agaynst the?

61 But he helde his tunge, and answered nothinge. The the hye prest axed him agayne, and sayde vnto him: Art thou Christ the sonne of the blessed?

62 Iesus sayde: I am. And ye shal se the sonne of man syt at the right hande of power, and come in the cloudes of heaue.

63 Then the hye prest rent his clothes, & sayde: What nede we eny mo wytnesses?

64 Ye haue herde the blasphemy. What thinke ye? They all codemned him, that he was giltye of death.

65 Then beganne there some to spyt vpo him, and to couer his face, and to smyte him with fistes, and to saye vnto him Prophecie vnto vs. And the seruauntes smote him on the face.

66 And Peter was beneth in ye palace.

The came one of the wenches of the hye prest:

67 And wha she sawe Peter warmynge him, she loked vpo hi, and sayde: And thou wast with Iesus of Nazareth also.

68 But he denied, & sayde: I knowe him not, nether can I tell what thou sayest. And he wente out in to the fore courte, and the cock crew.

69 And a damsell sawe him, and beganne agayne to saye vnto them that stode by: This is one of them.

70 And he denied it agayne. And after a litle whyle they yt stode by, sayde agayne vnto him: Of a trueth thou art one of them for thou art a Galilean, and thy speach soundeth euen alike.

71 But he begane to curse and swear: I knowe not the man, that ye speabe of.

72 And the cock crew agayne. Then thought Peter vpon the worde, that Iesus sayde vnto him: Before ye cock crow two tymes, thou shalt denye me thryse. And he begane to wepe.

Chapter 15

1 And soone in the mornynge the hye prestes helde a councell wt the elders and scribes and the whole councell, & bounde Iesus, and led him awaye, and delyuered him vnto Pylate.

2 And Pylate axed him: Art thou the kyng of the Iewes? He answered, and sayde vnto him: Thou sayest it.

3 And the hye prestes accused him sore.

4 But Pylate axed him agayne, and sayde: Answerest thou nothinge? Beholde, how sore they laye to yi charge.

5 Neuertheles Iesus answered nomore, in so moch yt Pylate marueyled.

6 At that feast of Easter he was wonte to delyuer vnto them a presoner, whom so euer they wolde desyre.

7 There was i preson with the sedicious, one called Barrabas, which in the vproure had committed murthur.

8 And the people wente vp, and prayed him, that he wolde do, as he was wonte.

9 Pylate answered them: wyl ye that I geue lowse vnto you the kyng of the Iewes?

10 For he knew, that ye hye prestes had delyuered him of envye.

11 But the hye prestes moued ye people, that he shulde rather geue Barrabas lowse vnto them.

12 Pylate answered agayne, and sayde vnto them: What wil ye the that I do vnto him, whom ye accuse to be kyng of the Iewes?

13 They cried agayne: Crucifie hi.

14 Pylate sayde vnto the: What euell hath he done? But they cried yet moch more: Crucifie him.

15 So Pylate thought to satisfie the people, and gaue Barrabas lowse vnto them, and delyuered the Iesus, to be scourged & crucified.

16 And the soudyers led him in to the como hall, and called the whole multitude together,

17 and clothed him with purple, and plated a crowne of thorne, and crowned him withall,

18 and beganne to salute him: Hayle kyng of the Iewes.

19 And smote him vpon the heade with a rede, and spytted vpo him, and fell vpo the kne, & worshipped him.

20 And wha they had mocked him, they toke ye purple of him, and put his clothes vpon him, & led him out, that they might crucifye him.

21 And they compelled one that passed by, called Symon of Cyren (which came from the felde, and was the father of Alexander and Ruffus) to beare his crosse.

22 And they brought him to the place Golgatha, which is by interpretacion: a place of deed mens skulles.

23 And they gaue him wyne myxted wt myrre, to drynke, & he toke it not.

24 And whan they had crucified him, they parted his garmetes, & cast lottes therfore, what euery one shulde take.

25 And it was aboute ye thirde houre, & they crucified him.

26 And the tytle of his cause was wrytte ouer aboute him (namely:) The kyng of the Iewes.

27 And they crucified him wt two murtherers, one at ye right hande, and one at the left.

28 Then was the scrypture fulfilled, which sayeth: He was couted amonge the euell doers.

29 And they that wete by, reuyled him, and wagged their heades, and sayde: Fye vpon the, how goodly breakest thou downe ye teple, & buyldest it agayne in thre dayes?

30 Helpe yi self now, & come downe fro the crosse.

31 The hye prestes also in like maner laughed him to scorne amonge the selues, with the scribes, & sayde: He hath helped other, himself can he not helpe.

32 Yf he be Christ and ye kyng of Israel, let him come downe now fro the crosse, yt we maye se it, & beleue. And they yt were crucified wt hi, checked hi also.

33 And wha it was aboute the sixte houre, there was a darcknesse ouer the whole lode, tyll aboute ye nyenth houre.

34 And aboute ye nyenth houre Iesus cried loude, and sayde: Eli, Eli, lamma asabthani? which is interpreted: My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some that stode by, whan they herde yt, they sayde: Beholde, he calleth Elias.

36 Then rane there one, & fylled a spoge wt vyneger, & stickte it vpo a rede, & gaue hi to drynke, & sayde: Holde styll, let se, whether Elias wil come, and take him downe.

37 But Iesus cried loude, and gaue vp the goost.

38 And the vale of the teple rent in two peces, from aboute tyll beneth.

39 The captayne that stode thereby ouer agaynst him, wha he sawe yt he gaue vp the goost with soch a crye, he sayde: Verely this man was Gods sonne.

40 And there were wemen there also, which behelde this afarre of, amoge who was Mary Magdalene, & Mary of Iames ye litle, & the mother of Ioses, & Salome, 41 which had folowed him wha he was in Galile, and mynistred vnto hi: & many other yt wete vp wt hi to Ierusalem. 42 And at euen (for so moch as it was the daye of preparinge, which is the fore Sabbath) 43 there came one Ioseph of Arimathia, a worshipfull Senatoure (which loked also for the kyngdome of God) & wete in boldely vnto Pilate, & axed ye body of Iesus. 44 But Pylate marueyled yt he was deed all ready, & called ye captayne, & axed hi, whether he had loge bene deed. 45 And wha he had gotten knowlege of the captayne, he gaue Ioseph ye body. 46 And he bought a lynne cloth, & toke him downe, & wrapped hi in ye lynne clothe, & layed him in a sepulcre, which was hewe out of a rocke, & rolled a stone before ye dore of ye sepulcre. 47 But Mary Magdalene and Mary Ioses behelde, where he was layed.

Chapter 16

1 And whan the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, & Mary Iames, and Salome, bought spycs, yt they might come, & anoynte hi. 2 And they came to the sepulcre vpo a daye of ye Sabbathes very early, wha ye Sonne arose, 3 & sayde one to another: Who shal rolle vs ye stone fro ye dore of the sepulcre? 4 And whan they loked, they sawe, that the stone was rolled awaye: for it was a very greate one. 5 And they wente in to the sepulcre, and on the right hande they sawe a yonge man syttinge, which had a longe whyte garnet vpon him, and they were abashed. 6 But he sayde vnto the: Be not ye afrayed, ye seke Iesus of Nazareth which was crucified: he is rysen, he is not here. Beholde, ye place, where they layed him. 7 But go ye youre waye, and tell his disciples and Peter, that he wil go before you in to Galile, there shal ye se him as he sayde vnto you. 8 And they wente forth in all the haist, and fled from the sepulcre: for there was a tremblynge & feare come vpon them, nether sayde they eny thinge to eny man, for they were afrayed. 9 But Iesus, whan he was rysen vp early vpo the first daye of the Sabbathes, he appeared first vnto Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast out seuen deuels. 10 And she wete and tolde the that were with him, as they mourned and wepte. 11 And whan they herde that he lyued, and had appeared vnto her, they beleued it not. 12 After warde as two of the were walkyng, he shewed himself vnder another figure, whan they were goyng vpon the felde. 13 And they wente, and tolde the other:

these they beleued not also.

14 At the last, as the eleuen sat at the table, he shewed himself vnto them, and rebuked their vnbeleue, and ye hardnesse of their hert, because they beleued not the which had sene him rysen. 15 And he sayde vnto them: Go ye youre waye in to all the worlde, and preach the gospell vnto all creatures. 16 Who so beleueth and is baptyseed, shalbe saued: but who so beleueth not, shalbe damned. 17 As for the tokens, which shal folowe the that beleue, these are they: In my name shal they cast out deuyls: Speake with new tunges: 18 Dryue awaye serpetes: And yf they drynke eny deedly thinge, it shal not hurte them: They shal laye their handes vpo the sicke, and they shal recouer. 19 And the LORDE, after that he had spoken vnto them, was taken vp in to heauen, and syteth at the right hade of God. 20 And they wente out, and preached euery where. And the LORDE wrought with them, and confirmed the worde with tokens folowynge.

LUKE

1 For so moch as many haue taken in hande, to set forth ye wordes of the actes that are come to passe amonge vs, 2 like as they delyuered the vnto vs, which from the begynnynge sawe them their selues, and were mynisters of the worde, 3 I thought it good (after that I had diligently searched out all from the begynnynge) to wryte the same orderly vnto the (good Theophilus) 4 that thou mightest knowe the certete of ye wordes, wherof thou art infourmed. 5 In the tyme of Herode kyng of Iewry, there was a prest named Zachary of the course of Abia: and his wife of the daughters of Aaron, & hir name Elizabeth. 6 They were both righteous before God, and walked in all the commaundementes and statutes of the LORDE vnreproueably. 7 And they had no childe, for Elizabeth was baren, and they were both well stricken in age. 8 And it came to passe as he executed the prestes office before God whan his course came 9 (acordinge to the custome of the presthode) it fell to his lott to burne incense. 10 And he wente in to the temple of the LORDE, and the whole multitude of the people was without in prayer, whyle the incense was aburnynge. 11 And the angell of the LORDE appeared vnto him, and stode on the right syde of the altare of incese.

12 And whan Zachary sawe him, he was abashed, & there came a feare vpon him. 13 But the angell sayde vnto him: Feare not Zachary, for thy prayer is herde. And yi wife Elizabeth shal beare the a sonne, whose name thou shalt call Ihon, 14 & thou shalt haue ioye and gladnesse: and many shal reioyce at his byrth, 15 for he shal be greate before the LORDE. Wyne and stronge drynke shal he not drynke. And he shalbe fylled wt the holy goost, euen in his mothers wombe. 16 And many of the children of Israel shal he turne vnto the LORDE their God. 17 And he shal go before him in the sprete and power of Elias, to turne the hertes of ye fathers vnto the children, and the vnfaithfull vnto the wyssdome of the righteous, to make the people ready for the LORDE. 18 And Zachary sayde vnto the Angel: Wherby shal I knowe this? For I am olde, and my wife well stricken in age. 19 The angell answered, and sayde vnto him: I am Gabriell that stonde before God, and am sent to speake vnto the, and to shewe the these glad tydings. 20 And beholde, thou shalt be domme, and not able to speake, vntyll the daye that this come to passe, because thou hast not beleued my wordes, which shalbe fulfilled in their season. 21 And the people wayted for Zachary, and marueyled, that he taried so longe in the temple. 22 And wha he wete out, he coude not speake vnto them. And they perceaued, that he had sene a vision in the temple. And he beckened vnto them, and remayned speachlesse. 23 And it fortunued wha the tyme of his office was out, he wente home in to his house. 24 And after those dayes Elizabeth his wife conceaued, and hyd hir self fyue monethes, & sayde: 25 Thus hath ye LORDE done vnto me in ye dayes, wherin he hath loked vpo me, to take awaye fro me my rebuke amoge men. 26 And in the sixte moneth was the angell Gabriel sent from God in to a cite of Galile, called Nazareth, 27 vnto a virgin that was spoused vnto a man, whose name was Ioseph, of the house of Daud, and the virgins name was Mary. 28 And the angell came in vnto her, and sayde: Hayle thou full of grace, the LORDE is with the: blessed art thou amonge wemen. 29 Wha she sawe him, she was abashed at his sayenge, and thought: What maner of salutation is this? 30 And the angell sayde vnto her: Feare not Mary, for thou hast foude grace with God. 31 Beholde, thou shalt coceau in thy wobe, & beare a sonne & shalt call his name Iesus: 32 he shalbe greate, & shalbe called ye sonne of the Hyest. And the LORDE God shal geue him ye seate of Daudid his father, 33 & he shal be kinge ouer ye house of Iacob for euer & there shalbe no ende of his kyngdome. 34 Then sayde Mary vnto the angell: How shal this be, seinge I knowe not a ma? 35 The angell answered, & sayde vnto her: The holy goost shal come vpon the, & the power of the Hyest shal ouersadowe the. Therfore that Holy also which shalbe borne (of the) shalbe called the sonne of God. 36 And beholde, thy cosen Elizabeth she also hath coceaued a sonne in hir olde age, & this is the sixte moneth of her, which is reported to be baren: 37 for wt God is nothinge vnpossyble. 38 And Mary sayde: Beholde, here am I the handmayde of the LORDE: be it vnto me, as thou hast sayde. And the angell departed fro her. 39 And Mary arose in those dayes, and wente in to the moutaynes with haist, into ye cite of Iewry, 40 and came in to ye house of Zachary, and saluted Elizabeth. 41 And it fortunued as Elizabeth herde the salutacion of Mary, the babe sprange in hir wombe. And Elizabeth was fylled with the holy goost, 42 & cried loude, and sayde: Blessed art thou amoge wemen, and blessed is the frute of yi wombe. 43 And how happeneth this to me, that ye mother of my LORDE commeth vnto me? 44 Beholde, whan I herde the voyce of thy salutacion, the babe sprange in my wombe wt ioye, 45 And blessed art thou that hast beleued, for ye thinges shalbe performed, which were tolde ye fro ye LORDE. 46 And Mary sayde: My soule magnifieth the LORDE. 47 And my sprete reioyseth i God my Sauoure. 48 For he hath loked vpo the lowe degre of his hande mayde. Beholde, fro hence forth shal all generacions call me blessed. 49 For he that is Mightie, hath done greate thinges vnto me, and holy is his name. 50 And his mercy endureth thorow out all generacions, vpon them that feare him. 51 He sheweth strength with his arme, and scatreth them that are proude in the ymaginacion of their hert. 52 He putteth downe the mightie from the seate, and exalteth them of lowe degre. 53 He fylleth the hongrie with good thinges, and letteth the riche go emptye. 54 He remembreth mercy, and helpeth vp his seruauant Israel. 55 Euen as he promysed vnto oure fathers, Abraham and to his sede foreuer. 56 And Mary abode with her aboute thre monethes, and then returned home agayne. 57 And Elizabethes tyme was come, that she shulde be delyuered, & she brought forth a sonne. 58 And hir neighbours and kynsfolkes herde, yt the LORDE had shewed greate mercy vpo her, & they reioysed with her.

 59 And it fortun'd vpon the eight daye, they came to circumcise ye childe, and called him Zachary after his father:
 60 And his mother answered, and sayde: No, but he shalbe called Ihon.
 61 And they sayde vnto her: There is none in yi kynne, yt is so called.
 62 And they made signes vnto his father, how he wolde haue him called.
 63 And he axed for wrytynge tables, wrote & sayde: His name is Ihon. And they marueyled all.
 64 And immediatly was his mouth and his toge opened, and he spake, & prayesd God.
 65 And there came a feare vpon all their neighbours. And all this acte was noysed abrode thorow out all the hill countre of Iewry:
 66 And all they yt herde therof, toke it to hert, and sayde: What maner of man wil this childe be? For the hande of the LORDE was with him.
 67 And Zachary his father was fylled with the holy goost, and prophecied, and sayde:
 68 Blessed be ye LORDE God of Israel, for he hath vysited and redemed his people.
 69 And hath set vp an horne of saluacion in the house of his seruauit Dauid.
 70 Euen as he promysed afore tyme, by the mouth of his holy prophetes.
 71 hat he wolde delyuer vs fro oure enemies, & from ye hande of all such as hate vs.
 72 And yt he wolde shewe mercy vnto oure fathers, & thinke vpo his holy couenant.
 73 Euen the oath yt he sware vnto oure father Abraham,
 74 for to geue vs. That we delyuered out of ye hade of or enemies, might serue him without feare
 75 all the dayes of oure life, in soch holynes and righteousnes as is accepte before him.
 76 And thou childe shalt be called a prophet of the Hyst: for thou shalt go before ye LORDE, to prepare his wayes.
 77 And to geue knowlege of saluacion vnto his people, for the remysion of their synnes.
 78 Thorow the tender mercy of oure God, wherby the daye sprynge from an hye hath vysited vs.
 79 That he might geue light vnto them yt syt in darcknesse and shadowe of death, and to gyde oure fete in to the waye of peace.
 80 And the childe grew, and waxed stronge in sprete, and was in the wyldernes, tyll the tyme that he shulde shewe him self vnto the people of Israel.

Chapter 2

1 It fortun'd at the same tyme, that there wete out a comaundement fro Augustus the Emperoure, that the whole worlde shulde be taxed.

2 And this taxynge was the first that was executed, whan Syrenius was leftenaunt in Siria.
 3 And they wente all, euery one to his owne cite to be taxed.
 4 Then Ioseph gat him vp also fro Galile, out of the cite of Nazareth, in to Iewry, to ye cite of Dauid, which is called Bethleem, (because he was of ye house and lynage of Dauid)
 5 that he might be taxed wt Mary his spoused wife, which was wt childe.
 6 And it fortun'd whyle they were there, ye tyme was come, that she shulde be delyuered.
 7 And she brought forth hir first begotte sonne, & wrapped him in swadlinge clothes, and layed him in a maunger: for they had els no rowme in the ynne.
 8 And there were in ye same region shepherdes in the felde by the foldes, and watchinge their flocke by night.
 9 And beholde, ye angell of the LORDE stode by the, and ye brightnes of the LORDE shone rounde aboute them, and they were sore afrayed.
 10 And the angell sayde vnto them: Be not afrayed. Beholde, I brynge you tydiges of greate ioye, which shall happen vnto all people:
 11 for vnto you this daye is borne ye Sauioure, eue Christ ye LORDE, in the cite of Dauid.
 12 And take this for a token: Ye shal fynde the babe swaddled, and layed in a maunger.
 13 And straight waye there was by the angell a multitude of heauenly hoostes, which prayesd God, and sayde:
 14 Glory be vnto God an hye, & peace vpon earth, and vnto men a good wyll.
 15 And it fortun'd wha the angels were gone from the in to heaue, the shepherdes sayde one to another: let vs go now euen vnto Bethleem, and se this thinge that is happened, which ye LORDE hath shewed vnto vs.
 16 And they came wt haist, & founde both Mary and Ioseph, & the babe layed in ye maunger.
 17 And whan they had sene it, they published abrode the sayenge, yt was tolde the of this childe.
 18 And all they that herde it, wondred at the wordes, which the shepherdes had tolde them.
 19 But Mary kepte all these sayenges, and pondred them in hir hert.
 20 And the shepherdes returned, praynsing and lauding God, for all that they had herde and sene, euen as it was tolde them.
 21 And whan eight dayes were ended, that the childe shulde be circumcysed, his name was called Iesus, which was named of ye angell, before he was conceaued in his mothers wombe.
 22 And wha the dayes of their purificacion after the lawe of Moses, were come, they brought him to Ierusalem, that they might present him vnto the LORDE 23 (As it is wrytten in the lawe of the LORDE: Euery machilde that first openeth the Matrix, shalbe called holy vnto ye LORDE)

 24 and that they might geue the offerynge, as it is wrytte in the lawe of the LORDE (namely) a payre of turtle doues, or two yonge pigeons.
 25 And beholde, there was a man (at Ierusalem) whose name was Symeon, and the same ma was iust, and feared God, and loged for the consolacion of Israel, and the holy goost was in him.
 26 And an answer was geue him of the holy goost, that he shulde not se death, before he had sene ye LORDES Christ.
 27 And he came by inspiracion in to the teple. And whan the elders brought the childe Iesus in to the temple, to do for him after ye custome of the lawe,
 28 then toke he him vp in his armes, and prayesd God, and sayde:
 29 LORDE, now lettest thou thy seruauit departe in peace, acordinge to thy promesse.
 30 For myne eyes haue sene thy Sauioure,
 31 who thou hast prepared before all people.
 32 A light for the lightenyng of the Heythe, & for the prayse of yi people of Israel.
 33 And his father and mother marueyled at the thinges that were spoke of him.
 34 And Symeon blessed them, and sayde vnto Mary his mother: Beholde, this (childe) shalbe set to a fall, and to an vprysynge agayne of many in Israel, and for a token, which shalbe spoke agaynst.
 35 And the swerde shal pearse thy soule, that the thoughtes of many hertes maye be opened.
 36 And there was a prophetisse, one Anna, the daughter of Phanuel of the trybe of Aser, which was of a greate age, and had lyued seuen yeares with hir hussbade from hir virginite,
 37 & had now bene a wedowe aboute foure score & foure yeares, which came neuer fro the teple, seruynge God wt fastynge and prayenge, daye and night:
 38 the same came forth also the same houre, and prayesd the LORDE, and spake of him vnto all that loked for the redempcion at Ierusalem.
 39 And whan they had performed all acordinge to the lawe of the LORDE, thy returned i to Galile, to their owne cite Nazareth.
 40 And the childe grewe, and waxed stronge in sprete, full of wysdome, & the grace of God was with him.
 41 And his elders wente to Ierusalem euery yeare at the feast of Easter.
 42 And whan he was twolue yeare olde, they wente vp to Ierusalem, after the custome of the feast.
 43 And whan they had fulfilled the dayes, and were gone home agayne, the childe Iesus abode styll at Ierusalem. And his elders knewe it not,
 44 but thought he had bene in the company, and they came a dayes iourney, and sought hi amoge their kynns folkes & acquataunce.
 45 And wha they founde him not, they wete agayne to Ierusalem, and sought him.

 46 And it fortun'd after thre dayes, yt they founde him in the temple, syttinge amonge the teachers, hearynge the, and opposynge them.
 47 And all they that herde him, wondred at his vnderstandynge and answers.
 48 And whan they sawe him, they were astonnyed. And his mother sayde vnto him: My sonne, why hast thou done this vnto vs? Beholde, thy father and I haue sought the sorowynge.
 49 And he sayde vnto them: What is it, that ye haue sought me? Wyst ye not, yt I must go aboute my fathers busynes?
 50 And they vnderstode not the sayenge yt he spake vnto them.
 51 And he wente downe with the, and came to Nazareth, and was obediet vnto them. And his mother kepte all these wordes in hir hert.
 52 And Iesus increased in wysdome, age and faouure with God and men.

Chapter 3

1 In the fifteenth yeare of the rainge of Tiberius the Emperoure, wha Pontius Pilate was leftenaunt in Iewry and Herode one of the foure princes in Galile, and his brother Philippe one of the foure prynces in Iturea, & in the coastes of Traconites, and Lysanias one of the foure princes of Abilene,
 2 when Hannas and Caiphias were hye prestes, the came ye worde of God vnto Ihon the sonne of Zachary in the wyldernes.
 3 And he came in to all ye coastes aboute Iordan, and preached the baptyeme of repetaunce for the remysion of synnes.
 4 As it is wrytte in ye boke of ye sayenges of Esaye the prophet, which sayeth: The voyce of a cryer in the wyldernes: prepare the waye of the LORDE, and make his pathes straight.
 5 Euery valley shalbe fylled, and euery mountayne & hyll shalbe brought lowe. And what so is croked, shalbe made straight: and what rough is, shalbe made smooth,
 6 and all flesh shal se the Sauioure of God.
 7 Then sayde he vnto the people, yt wente out to be baptyesd of him: Ye generacion of vipers, who hath certified you, that ye shal escape ye wrath to come?
 8 Take hede, brynge forth due frutes of repetauce, & begynne not to saye: We haue Abraha to or father. For I saye vnto you: God is able of these stonnes to rayse vp children vnto Abraham.
 9 The axe is put vnto the tre allready: so that euery tre which bryngeth not forth good frute, shalbe hewen downe, and cast in to the fyre.
 10 And the people axed him, and sayde: What shal we do then?
 11 He answered, & sayde vnto the: He that hath two coates, let him parte wt him yt hath none: and he that hath meate, let him do likewise.
 12 The publicans came also, to be baptysed and sayde vnto him: Master, what shal we do?

13 He sayde vnto them: Requyre nomore, then is appoynted you.

14 Then ye soudyours axed him likewyse, and sayde: What shal we do then? And he sayde vnto the: Do no man violence ner wronge, and be content with youre wages.

15 But whan the people were in a doute, & thought all in their hertes, whether he were Christ,

16 Ihon answered, and sayde vnto the all: I baptysse you with water, but after me there cometh one stronger the I, whose shue lachet I am not worthy to lowse: he shal baptysse you with the holy goost and with fyre.

17 Whose fanne is in his hande, and he shal poure his floore, and shal gather ye wheate in to his barne, and shal burne the chaffe with vnquencheable fyre.

18 And many other thynges more exorted he, & preached vnto the people.

19 But Herode the Tetrarcha (wha he was rebuked of him because of Herodias his brothers wife, and for all the euels that Herode dyd)

20 besydes all this he layed Iho in preson.

21 And it fortunied whan all the people receaued baptyme, and whan Iesus also was baptysed and prayed, that heauen opened,

22 and the holy goost came downe in a bodely shappe like a doue vpon him. And out of heauen there came a voyce, which sayde: Thou art my deare sonne, in who I delyte.

23 And Iesus was aboute thirtie yeares whan he beganne. And he was taken for the sonne of Ioseph, which was the sonne of Eli, 24 which was the sonne of Mathat. Which was the sonne of Leui. Which was the sonne of Melchi. Which was the sonne of Ianna. Which was the sonne of Ioseph.

38 Which was the sonne of Enos. Which was the sonne of Seth. Which was the sonne of Adam. Which was the sonne of God.

Chapter 4

1 Iesus full of the holy goost, came agayne from Iordane, and was led of ye sprete into wyldernes,

2 & fourty dayes loge was he tepted of ye deuell. And in those dayes ate he nothinge. And whan they were ended, he hongred afterwarde.

3 And the deuell sayde vnto him: Yf thou be ye sonne of God, comaunde this stone, yt it be bred.

4 And Iesus answered & sayde vnto hi: It is wrytten: Man shal not lyue by bred onely, but by euery worde of God.

5 And ye deuell toke him vp into an hye moutayne, and shewed him all the kyngdomes of ye whole worlde in ye twynckelinge of an eye,

6 & sayde vnto him: All this power wil I geue vnto the, and the glory therof, for it is geue ouer vnto me, and I geue it, to whom I wil.

7 Yf thou now wilt worshippe me, they shal all be thine.

8 Iesus answered him, and sayde: Auoyde fro me thou Satan. It is wrytten: Thou shalt worshippe the LORDE thy God, and him onely shalt thou serue.

9 And he caried him to Ierusalem, and set him vpon a pynacle of the temple, and sayde vnto him: Yf thou be ye sonne of God, cast thy self downe from hence.

10 For it is wrytte: He shal geue his angels charge ouer the, to kepe the,

11 and with their handes they shal holde the vp, that thou dashe not thy fote agaynst a stone.

12 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto him: It is sayde: Thou shalt not tempte the LORDE thy God.

13 And whan ye deuell had ended all the temptacions, he departed from him for a season.

14 And Iesus came agayne in the power of the sprete in to Galile. And the fame of him was noysed thorow out all ye region rounde aboute.

15 And he taught in their synagoges, and was commended of euery man.

16 And he came vnto Nazareth where he was noursed, and as his custome was, he wete in to the synagoge vpon ye Sabbath, and stode vp for to rede.

17 Then was there delyuered him the boke of ye prophet Esay. And whan he had turned ouer the boke, he founde the place where it is wrytten:

18 The sprete of the LORDE is with me, because he hath anoynted me: to preach the Gospell vnto ye poore hath he sent me: to heale the broken harted: to preach delyuerauce to the captiue, and sight to the blynde: and frely to set at liberty them that are brused:

19 and to preach the acceptable yeare of the LORDE.

20 And whan he had closed the boke, he gaue it agayne to ye mynister, & sat him downe. And the eyes of all that were in the synagoge, were fastened on him.

21 And he begane to saye vnto them: This daye is this scripture fulfilled in youre eares.

22 And they all gaue him wytnesse, and wodred at the gracious wordes, which proceaded out of his mouth, and they saide: Is not this Iosephs sonne?

23 And he sayde vnto them: Doutles ye wyl saye vnto me this prouerbe: Phisician, heale thyself. For how greate thynges haue we herde done at Capernau? Do the same here also in thine owne countre.

24 But he saide: Verely I saye vnto you: There is no prophet accepted in his owne countre.

25 Neuertheles of a trueth I saye vnto you: There were many wedowes in Israel in ye tyme of Elias, wha the heaue was shut thre yeares and sixe monethes, and whan there was a greate derth in all the lande:

26 & to none of the was Elias sent, but onely vnto Sarepta of the Sydonians to a wedowe.

27 And many lepers were there in Israel in the tyme of Eliseus ye prophet, and none of the was clensed, saue onely Naaman of Syria.

28 And as many as were in the synagoge, wha they herde yt, were fylled with wrath.

29 And they rose vp, and thrust him out of the cite, and led him vp to the edge of the hyll wherupo their cite was buylded, that they might cast him downe headlynge.

30 But he wente his waye euen thorow the myddest of them,

31 and came to Capernaum a cite of Galile, and taught the vpo the Sabbathes.

32 And they wondred at his doctryne, for his preachinge was with power.

33 And there came a feare ouer the man possessed with a foule deuell, & he cryed loude, 34 and sayde: Let me alone, what haue we to do wt the thou Iesus of Nazareth? Art thou come to destroye vs? I knowe ye who thou art, euen the Holy of God.

35 And Iesus rebuked him and sayde: holde thy tuge, and departe out of him. And the deuell threw hi in the myddest amonge them, and departed from him, and dyd him no harme.

36 And there came a feare ouer the all, and they spake amonge themselues, and sayde: What maner of thinge is this? He commaundeth the foule spretes with auctorite and power, and they departe out.

37 And ye fame of him was noysed thorow out all the places of ye countre rounde aboute.

38 And he rose vp out of the synagoge, and came in to Symons house. And Symos mother in lawe was take with a greate feuer, & they prayde him for her.

39 And he wete vnto her, & comaunded the feuer. And it left her, & imediatly she rose vp, & mynistrered vnto the.

40 And whan the Sonne was gone downe all they that had sicke of dyuerse diseases, brought the vnto him. And he layed his hades vpon euery one of the, & made the whole.

41 The deuels also departed out of many, criege and sayenge: Thou art Christ the sonne of God. And he rebuked the, & suffred them not to speake: for they knewe that he was Christ.

42 But wha it was daye, he wete out in to a deserte place. And the people sought hi, and came vnto him, & kepte him, yt he shulde not departe fro the.

43 But he sayde vnto the: I must preach the Gospell of ye kyngdome of God to other cities also: for there to am I sent.

44 And he preached in the synagoges of Galile.

Chapter 5

1 It came to passe, yt the people preassed vpon him to heare the worde of God, and he stode by the lake of Genazereth,

2 and sawe two shippes stode by ye lake syde, but ye fishers were gone out of the, and had wasshed their nettes.

3 Then wente he in to one of the shippes, which was Symons, and prayed him, yt he wolde thrust out a litle fro the londe. And he sat him downe, and taught the people out of ye shippe.

4 And whan he had left of talkynge, he sayde vnto Symon: Launch out in to the depe & let slyppe yor nettes, to make a draught.

5 And Symon answered and sayde vnto him: Master, we haue laboured all ye night, and taken nothinge. But vpo thy worde, I wil lowse forth the nett.

6 And wha they had so done, they toke a greate multitude of fisshes, & their net brake.

7 And they made synnes to their felowes which were in ye other shippe, yt they shulde come, & helpe the. And they came, & fylled both the shippes full, so yt they soncke.

8 Whan Symon Peter sawe yt, he fell downe at Iesus knees, & sayde: LORDE, go

9 fro me, for I am a synfull man: For he was astonnyed and all that were wt him, at this draught of fishes which they toke,

10 and so were Iames and Ihon also the sonnes of Zebede, which were Symons companions. And Iesus sayde vnto Symo: Feare not, for fro hence forth thou shalt take men.

11 And they brought the shippes to londe, and left all, and folowed him.

12 And it fortunad as he was in a cite, beholde, there was a man full of leprosy. Wha he sawe Iesus, he fell vpo his face, & besought him, and sayde: LORDE, yf thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

13 And he stretched out his hade, and touched him, and sayde: I wil, be thou cleane. And immediatly the leprosy departed from him.

14 And he charged him, yt he shulde tell no ma, but go thy waye (sayde he) and shewe thyself vnto ye prest, and offre for yi clensynge, as Moses comaunded, for a witnesse vnto the.

15 But ye fame of hi wete out farther abrode, & there came moch people together, to heare him, & to be healed by hi fro their sicknesses.

16 And he departed in to the wyldernesses, & gaue him self to prayer.

17 And it fortunad vpo a daye, yt he taught, and there sat ye Pharises and scribes, which were come out of all the townes of Galile, and Iewry, and fro Ierusalem, and the power of the LORDE wete fro him, & healed euery man.

18 And beholde, certayne men brought vpon a bed, a man yt had ye palsy, and they sought how they might brynge him in, and laye him before him.

19 And whan they coude not fynde by what waye they might bringe him in (for ye people) they clymmed vp to ye toppe of the house, & let him downe thorow the tylinge wt the bed, amoge the before Iesus.

20 And whan he sawe their faith, he sayde vnto hi: Man, yi synnes are forgeue ye.

21 And the scribes and pharises begane to thinke, & saide: What is he this, yt speaketh blasphemy. Who ca forgeue synnes, but onely God?

22 Neuertheles wha Iesus perceaued their thoughtes, he answered, and saide vnto the: What thinke ye in yor hertes?

23 Whether is easier to saye: Thy synnes are forgeue ye, Or to saye: Aryse, and walke?

24 But that ye maye knowe, that the sonne of ma hath power to forgeue synnes vpon earth, he sayde vnto ye sicke of the palsie: I saye vnto ye: Aryse, take vp yi bed, and go home.

25 And immediatly he rose vp before the, & toke vp the bed yt he had lyen vpo, and wete home, and prayed God.

26 And they were all astonnyed, and gaue God ye prayse, and were fylled wt feare, and sayde: We haue sene maruelous thynges to daye.

27 And afterwarde he wete out, and sawe a publican named Leui, syttinge at ye receate of custome, & he sayde vnto him: Folowe me.

28 And he left all, rose vp, & folowed him.

29 And Leui made hi a greate feast i his house. And many publicans & other sat wt hi at ye table

30 And the scribes and Pharyses murmured agaynst his disciples, & saide: Wherfore do ye eate & drynke wt publicas & synners?

31 And Iesus answered, & sayde vnto the: The whole nede not ye phisician, but they yt are sicke.

32 I am not come to call ye righteous, but sinners to repentaunce.

33 But they sayde vnto him: Wherfore fast ye disciples of Iho so of, & praye so moch, & the disciples of the Pharises likewyse, but yi disciples eate and drynke?

34 And he sayde vnto them: Can ye make the weddyng childe fast, so loge as the brydegrome is with the?

35 But the tyme wil come that the brydegrome shalbe take fro the, then shal they fast.

36 And he sayde vnto them a symilitude: No man putteth a pece of new cloth in to an olde garment: for els he renteth the new, and the pece of the new agreeth not with the olde.

37 And no man putteth new wyne in to olde vessels, for els ye new wyne barsteth the vessels, and runneth out it self, and the vessels perishe.

38 But new wyne must be put in to new vessels, and so are they both preserued.

39 And there is no man that drynketh the olde, and wolde straight waye haue the new, for he sayeth: the olde is pleasaunter.

Chapter 6

1 And it fortunad vpon an after pryncipall Sabbath, that he wente thorow the corne felde, & his disciples plucked the eares of corne, and ate, and rubbed the with their hades.

2 But certayne of the Pharises sayde vnto them: Wherfore do ye that, which is not lauffull to do vpon the Sabbath?

3 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto the: Haue ye not red what Dauid dyd, wha he was hongrie, and they that were with him,

4 how he wente in to the house of God, and toke the shewbred, and ate, and gaue also vnto them that were with him, which was lauffull for no man to eate, but for the prestes onely?

5 And he sayde vnto them: The sonne of man is LORDE euen ouer the Sabbath.

6 It came to passe vpo another Sabbath, that he wete in to the synagoge, and taught and there was a man, whose right hande was wythred.

7 But ye scribes and Pharises marked him, whether he wolde heale vpon the Sabbath, that they might fynde an occasion agaynst him.

8 Neuertheles he perceaued their thoughtes, and sayde vnto the ma with the wythred hande: Aryse, and steppe forth here. And he arose, and stepped forth.

9 Then sayde Iesus vnto the: I wil axe you a question: What is it lauffull to do vpo the Sabbath? good, or euell? to saue life, or to destroye it?

10 And he behelde the all rounde aboute, and sayde vnto the ma: Stretch out thine hande. And he dyd so. Then was his hande restored him to right, euen as whole as the other.

11 But they were fylled full of madnes, and comoned together, what they wolde do to him.

12 And it fortunad at the same tyme, that he wente out in to a mountayne to praye, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 And wha it was daye, he called his disciples, and chose twolue of them, whom he called also apostles.

14 Symon, whom he named Peter, and Andrew his brother, Iames and Ihon, Philippe and Bartylmew, 15 Mathew and Thomas, Iames the sonne of Alpheus, Symon called Zelotes, 16 Judas the sonne of Iames, and Judas Iscarioth, which was the traytoure.

17 And he wente downe with them, and stode vpon a playne in the felde, and the company of his disciples, and a greate multitude of people, from all Iewry, and Ierusalem, and from Tyre and Sydon by the see coast, which were come to heare him, and to be healed of their diseases,

18 and they that were vexed with foule spretes, were healed.

19 And all the people sought to touch him, for there wente vertue fro him, and healed the all.

20 And he lift vp his eyes vpo his disciples, and sayde: Blessed are ye poore, for yours is the kyngdome of God.

21 Blessed are ye that hunger here, for ye shalbe satisfied. Blessed are ye yt wepe here, for ye shal laugh.

22 Blessed are ye, whan men hate you, and put you out of their copanies, and reuyle you, and cast out youre name as an euell thinge, for the sonne of mans sake.

23 Reioyse ye then, and be glad: for beholde, youre rewarde is greate in heauen. Euen thus dyd their fathers vnto the prophetes also.

24 But wo vnto you riche, for ye haue youre cosolacion allready.

25 Wo vnto you that are full, for ye shal hunger. Wo vnto you that laugh here, for ye shal wepe and wayle.

26 Wo vnto you whan euery man prayseth you, Euen so dyd their fathers vnto the false prophetes also.

27 But I saye vnto you that heare: Loue youre enemies: do good vnto them that hate you:

28 blesse them that curse you: praye for them that wrongfully trouble you.

29 And who so smyteth the on the one cheke, offre him ye other also. And who so taketh awaye thy cloake, forbyd him not yi cote also.

30 Who so euer axeth of the, geue him: and who so taketh awaye thyne, axe it not agayne.

31 And as ye wolde that men shulde do vnto you, euen so do ye vnto them likewyse.

32 And yf ye loue them that loue you, what thake haue ye therfore? For synners also loue their louers.

33 And yf ye do good for youre good doers, what thanke haue ye therfore? For synners also do euen the same.

34 And yf ye lende vnto them, of who ye hope to receaue what thake haue ye therfore? For synners also lende vnto synners, that they maye receaue as moch agayne.

35 But rather loue ye yor enemies, do good, and lende, lokyng for nothinge therof agayne: so shal yor rewarde be greate, and ye shalbe the children of the Hiest, for he is kynde, euen to the vnthankfull and to the euell.

36 Be ye therfore mercifull, as youre father also is mercifull.

37 Iudge not, and ye shal not be iudged. Condepne not, and ye shal not be condempned. Forgeue, and ye shal be forgeuen.

38 Geue, and to you shalbe geue. A good measure, pressed downe, shaken together, & runynge ouer, shal me geue into youre bosome. For with what measure ye meete, with the same shal it be measured to you agayne.

39 And he sayde a symilitude vnto the: Can the blynde shewe the waye to ye blynde? Do they not both the fall in to the dyche?

40 The disciple is not aboute his master. But whosoeuer is perfecte, ye same shalbe as his master.

41 But why seist thou a moote i thy brothers eye, and considrest not the beame, that is in thine awne eye?

42 Or how canst thou saye vnto thy brother: holde styll brother, I wil plucke ye moate out of thyne eye, and thou thy self seist not ye beame in thine awne eye? Thou ypcocrite, Fyrst cast the beame out of thine awne eye, and the shalt thou se clearly to pull the moote out of thy brothers eye.

43 For it is no good tre, yt bryngeth forth euell frute: and no euell tre yt bringeth forth good frute.

44 Euery tre is knowne by his frute. For me gather not fygges of thornes, ner grapes of bushes.

45 A good ma out of ye good treasure of his hert, bryngeth forth yt which is good: and an euell ma out of the euell treasure of his hert, bryngeth forth that which is euell. For of the abundance of the hert, the mouth speaketh.

46 But why call ye me LORDE LORDE,

& do not that I saye vnto you?

47 Who so euer commeth vnto me, and heareth my wordes and doth the, I will shewe you to whom he is lyke.

48 He is like vnto a man which buylded an house, and digged depe, and layed ye foundation vpon a rocke. When the waters came, the floudes bett vpon that house, and coulede not moue it: for it was grouded vpo ye rocke.

49 But he that heareth and doth not, is like vnto a man that buylded his house vpo the earth without foundation, and the streames bett vpo it, and it fell immediatly, and greate was the fall of that house.

Chapter 7

1 When he had ended his talkynge vnto the people, he wente in to Capernaum: 2 and a captaynes seruauit laye deed sicke, whom he loued.

3 Wha he herde of Iesus, he sent the elders of the Iewes vnto him, and prayed him, that he wolde come, and make his seruauit whole.

4 But wha they came to Iesus, they besought him instantly, & sayde: He is worthy yt thou shuldest shewe this for him,

5 for he loueth oure people, & hath buylded vs ye synagoge.

6 And Iesus wente wt them. Now when they were not farre from ye house, ye captaine sent fredes vnto hi, saiege vnto him: Oh LORDE, trouble not thy self, I am not worthy, yt thou shuldest enter vnder my rofe,

7 and therefore I thought not my self worthy to come to ye: but speake ye worde, & my seruauit shalbe whole.

8 For I my self also am a ma, subiecte to the hygher auctorite, & haue soudyers vnder me. And I saye vnto one: Go, & he goeth. And to another: Come, & he cometh. And to my seruauit: Do this, & he doeth it.

9 Whan Iesus herde yt, he marueyled at hi, & turned him aboute, & sayde vnto ye people yt folowed hi: I saye vnto you: So greate faith haue I not founde, no not in Israel.

10 And wha they that were sent, came home agayne, they founde the seruauit that was sicke, whole.

11 And it fortunated afterwarde, that he wete in to a cite called Naim, and many of his disciples wente with him, and moch people.

12 Whan he came nye to the gate of the cite, beholde, there was caried out one deed, which was the onely sonne of his mother, and she was a wyddowe, and moch people of the cite wente with her.

13 And whan the LORDE sawe her, he had copassion on her, and sayde vnto her: Wepe not.

14 And he came nye, and touched the Coffyn. And they that bare him, stode styll. And he sayde: Yonge man, I saye vnto the: Aryse.

15 And the deed sat vp, and beganne to speake. And he delyuered him vnto his mother.

16 And there came a feare on them all, and they prayed God, and sayde: A greate prophet is rysen amonge vs, and God hath vysited his people.

17 And this fame of him was noysed in all Iewry, and in all ye regions that laye rounde aboute.

18 And the disciples of Iho shewed him of all these thinges.

19 And Ihon called vnto him two of his disciples, and sent the vnto Iesus sayenge: Art thou he that shal come, or shal we loke for another?

20 Whan the men came to him, they sayde: Ihon ye baptist hath sent vs vnto the, sayenge: Art thou he that shal come, or shal we loke for another?

21 At the same houre healed he many from sicknesses & plages, and fro euell spretes, and vnto many that were blynde, he gaue sight.

22 And Iesus answered, & sayde vnto the: Go yor waye, shewe Ihon, what ye haue sene & herde. The blynde se, the halt go, the lepers are censed, the deaf heare, the deed aryse, the Gospell is preached vnto ye poore,

23 and blessed is he, that is not offended at me.

24 Whan the messaungers of Iho were departed, Iesus begane to speake vnto ye people cocernynge Iho: What are ye gone out for to se in ye wyldernes? Wolde ye se a rede, that is shake wt the wynde?

25 Or what are ye gone out for to se? Wolde ye se a ma clothed in soft rayment? Beholde, they that are gorgiously arayed, & lyue delicately, are in kynges courtes.

26 Or what are ye gone out for to se? Wolde ye se a prophet? Yee I saye vnto you: one that is more the a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is wrytten: Beholde, I sende my messaunger before yi face, which shal prepare thy waye before the.

28 For I saye vnto you: Amonge the yt are borne of weme, there is no greater prophet the Ihon the baptist. Notwith stondynge he that is lesse in the kyngdome of God, is greater then he.

29 And all the people that herde him, and ye publicans, iustified God, and were baptysed with the baptye of Ihon.

30 But the Pharises and scribes despysed ye counsell of God against theselues, & were not baptised of hi.

31 But the LORDE saide: Where vnto shal I lick the men of this generacion? And whom are they like?

32 They are like vnto childe which syt in the market, and crye one to another, and saye: We haue pyped vnto you, and ye haue not daunsed: we haue mourned vnto you, & ye haue not wepte.

33 For Ihon ye baptist came, and ate no bred, and drake no wyne, and ye saye: he hath ye deuell.

34 The sonne of man is come, eateth and drynketh, & ye saye: This man is a glutton and a wyne bebbber, a frende of publicans and synners.

35 And wysdome is iustified of all hir children.

36 And one of the Pharises desyred him, yt he wolde eate with him. And he wente in to the Pharises house, and sat him downe at ye table.

37 And beholde, there was in the cite a woma, which was a synner. Whe she knewe that Iesus sat at the table in the Pharises house, she brought a boxe with oyntment, 38 & stode behynde at his fete, and wepte, and beganne to water his fete with teares, and to drye the wt the hayres of hir heade, and kyssed his fete, & anoynted the with oyntmet.

39 But whan the Pharise which had called him sawe that, he spake within himself, and sayde: Yf this ma were a prophet, he wolde knowe who, & what maner of woman this is that toucheth him, for she is a synner.

40 And Iesus answered, and saide vnto him: Simo, I haue somewhat to saye vnto the. He sayde: Master saye on.

41 A certayne lender had two detters, the one ought fyue hundreth pens, the other fiftie:

42 but whan they had nothinge to paye, he forgau the both. Tell me which of them wyl loue him most?

43 Symon answered, and sayde: He, (I suppose) to who he forgau most. Then sayde he vnto him: Thou hast iudged right.

44 And he turned him to the woma, and sayde vnto Symo: Seist thou this woma? I am come in to thine house, thou hast geue me no water vnto my fete, but she hath watred my fete with teares, and dried the wt the hayres of hir heade:

45 Thou hast geue me no kysse, but she (sens the tyme she came in) hath not ceassed to kysse my fete:

46 Thou hast not anoynted my heade wt oyle, but she hath anoynted my heade with oyntment.

47 Therefore I saye vnto the: Many synnes are forgeuen her, for she hath loued moch. But vnto whom lesse is forgeuen, the same loueth the lesse.

48 And he sayde vnto her: Thy synnes are forgeuen the.

49 Then they that sat at the table with him, beganne to saye within them selues: What is he this, that forgeueth synnes also?

50 But he sayde vnto the woma: Thy faith hath sauued the, Go thy waye in peace.

Chapter 8

1 And it fortunated afterwarde, that he wente thorow the cities and townes, and preached, and shewed ye Gospell of the kyngdome of God, and the twolue wt him.

2 And certayne wemen also, who he had healed fro euell spretes and infirmities: Namely, Mary which is called Magdalene, out of whom wente seuen deuels,

3 and Ioanna ye wife of Chusa Herodes stewarde, and Susanna, and many other, that mynistred vnto them of their substaunce.

4 Now wha moch people were gathered together, and haisted vnto him out of the cities, He spake by a symilitude:

5 There wente out a sower to sowe his sede, & whyle he was sowynge, some fell by the waye syde, and was trodde vnder fote, and the foules of the ayre ate it vp.

6 And some fell on stone, and whan it was spronge vp, it wythred awaye, because it had no moystnesse.

7 And some fell amonge thornes, and the thornes sprange vp with it, and choked it.

8 And some fell vpo a good grounde, and sprange vp, and bare frute an hundreth folde. Wha he sayde this he cryed: Who so hath eares to heare, let him heare.

9 And his disciples axed him, and sayde: What symilitude is this?

10 And he sayde: Vnto you it is geue, to knowe the mysteres of the kyngdome of God, but vnto the other in parables, yt though they se it, they shulde not se it, and though they heare it, they shulde not vnderstonde.

11 This is the parable: The sede is the worde of God:

12 As for those that are by ye waye syde, they are they that heare it, afterwarde commeth the deuell, and taketh awaye the worde out of their hertes, that they shulde not beleue, and be saued.

13 But they on ye stone, are soch as whan they heare it, receaue the worde with ioye, and these haue no rote: they beleue for a whyle, and in the tyme of temptacion they fall awaye.

14 As for it that fel amonge the thornes, are soch as heare it, and go forth amonge the cares, riches and voluptuousnesses of this life, and are choked and brynge forth no frute.

15 But that on the good grounde, are they that heare the worde, and kepe it in a pure good hert, and brynge forth frute in pacience.

16 No man lighteth a cadell, and couereth it with a vessell, or putteth it vnder a table, but setteth it vpon a candelsticke, that soch as go in maye se light.

17 For there is nothinge hyd, that shal not be openly shewed: and there is nothinge secrete, that shal not be knowne, and come to light.

18 Take hede therefore how ye heare. For who so hath, vnto him shalbe geue: but who so hath not, from him shalbe taken awaye, eue the same that he thynketh to haue.

19 There wente vnto him his mother and his brethren, and coude not come at him for the people.

20 And it was tolde him. Thy mother and thy brethren stonde without, and wolde se the.

21 But he answered, & sayde vnto the: My mother and my brethren are these, which heare the worde of God, and do it.

22 And it fortunated vpon a certayne daye, yt he wente in to a shippe, and his disciples wt him, & he sayde vnto the:

Let vs passe ouer to the other syde of ye lake. And they thirst of fro the lode.

23 And as they sayled, he slepte. And there came a storme of wynde vpon ye lake, and the waves fell vpon the, and they stode in greate ioperdy.

24 Then wete they vnto him, and waked him vp, & sayde: Master master, we perishe. Then he arose, and rebuked the wynde, and the tepest of water, and they ceased, and it waxed calme.

25 But he sayde vnto the: Where is youre faith? Neuertheles they were afrayed, and wodred, and sayde one to another: What is he this? For he comaundeth the wyndes and the water, and they are obedient vnto him.

26 And they sayled forth in to the coundre of the Gadarenites, which is ouer agaynst Galile.

27 And whan he wente out to londe, there met him out of ye cite a ma, which had a deuell longe tyme, & ware no clothes, & taried in no house, but in the graues.

28 Neuertheles wha he sawe Iesus, he cried, and fell downe before him, and cried loude, & sayde: What haue I to do with the Iesus, thou sonne of the Hyst God? I beseke the, that thou wilt not tormete me.

29 For he comaunded the foule sprete, that he shulde departe out of the ma, for he had plaged hi a loge season. And he was bounde with cheynes, and kepte wt fetters, and he brake the bondes in sonder, and was caried of the deuell in to the wyldernesse.

30 And Iesus axed him, and sayde: What is thy name? He sayde: Legion. For there were many deuells entred in to him.

31 And they besought him, that he wolde not comaunde the to go in to the depe.

32 But there was there a greate heerd of swyne fedyng vpon the mountayne, and they besought him, that he wolde geue them leue, to entre in to ye same. And he gaued the leue.

33 Then departed ye deuells out of the ma, and entred into the swyne. And the heerd russhed headlynges with a storme in to the lake, and were drowned.

34 But wha ye herdmen sawe what had chaused, they fled, and tolde it in the cite and in the vyllagies.

35 Then wente they out, for to se what was done, and came to Iesus, and founde the ma (out of whom the deuyls were departed) syttinge at Iesus fete, clothed, and in his right mynde, and they were afrayed.

36 And they yt had sene it, tolde the how the possessed was healed.

37 And the whole multitude of ye coundre of the Gadarenites besought him, that he wolde departe from them, for there was a greate feare come vpon the. And he gat him in to ye schippe, and turned agayne.

38 And the man out of who the deuells were departed, besought him, yt he might be with him. But Iesus sent him awaye, and sayde:

39 Go home agayne, and shewe how greate thinges God hath done for the. And he wente his waye, & preached thorow out all ye cite, how greate thinges Iesus had done for hi.

40 And it fortuneth wha Iesus came agayne, the people receaued him, for they wayted for him.

41 And beholde, there came a man named Iairus (and he was a ruler of the synagoge) and fell at Iesus fete, & besought him, that he wolde come in to his house.

42 For he had but one daughter (vpon a twolue yere of age) and she laye at ye poynt of death. And as he wente, the people thronged him.

43 And a woma hauynge the bloudysse twolue yeaes, (which had spent all hir substaunte vpon phisicians, and coude be healed of none)

44 came behynde, & touched the hemme of his garmet, and immediatly hir yssue of bloude was stanchd.

45 And Iesus sayde: Who hath touched me? But whan they all denyed, Peter sayde, and they that were with him: Master, the people thronge the and thrust the, and thou sayest: Who hath touched me?

46 Iesus saide: Some body hath touched me, for I fele, that there is vertue gone out fro me.

47 But whan the woman sawe that she was not hyd, she came treblyng, and fell downe before him, and tolde him before all the people, for what cause she had touched him, & how she was healed immediatly.

48 And he sayde vnto her: Doughter, be of good comforte, thy faith hath made the whole, go thy waye in peace.

49 Whyle he yet spake, there came one fro ye ruler of ye synagoges house, and sayde vnto him: Thy doughter is deed, disease not the master.

50 Whan Iesus herde that, he answered him, and sayde: Feare not, beleue onely, and she shal be made whole.

51 But whan he came in to the house, he suffred no man to go in, saue Peter, and Iames and Iho, and the father and mother of the mayden.

52 They wepte all, and sorowed for her. But he sayde: Wepe not, for she is not deed, but slepeth.

53 And they laughed hi to scorne, knowynge well that she was deed.

54 But he thrust them all out, and toke her by the hande, and cryed, and sayde: Mayde aryse.

55 And hir sprete came agayne, & she arose straight waye. And he comaunded to geue her meate.

56 And hir elders were astonnyed. But he charged them, that they shulde tell no man, what was done.

Chapter 9

1 And he called the twolue together, and gaued them power and auctorite ouer all deuells, and that they might heale diseases.

2 And he sent the out to preach the kyngdome of God, and to heale ye sick,

3 and sayde vnto them: Ye shal take nothinge with you by the waye, nether staff, ner scryppe, ner bred, ner money: ner haue two coates.

4 And into what house so euer ye entre, there abyde, tyll ye go thence.

5 And who so euer receaue you not, departe out of the same cite, and shake of the dust from youre fete, for a wytnesse ouer them.

6 And they departed, and wente thorow the townes, preachinge ye Gospell, & healyng euey where.

7 Herode the Tetrarcha herde of all that was done by him. And he toke care, for so moch as it was sayde of some: Iho is rysen agayne from the deed:

8 of some, Elias hath appeared: of some, One of the olde prophetes is rysen agayne.

9 And Herode sayde: Iho haue I beheaded, who is this then, of who I heare soch thinges? And he desyred to se him.

10 And the Apostles came agayne, and tolde him how greate thinges they had done. And he toke them to him, and wente asyde into a solytary place by the cite called Bethsaida.

11 Whan the people knew of it, they folowed him. And he receaued them, and spake vnto them of the kyngdome of God, and healed soch as hade nede therof.

12 But the daye beganne to go downe. Then came the twolue to him, and sayde vnto him: let the people departe fro the, that they maye go in to the townes rounde aboute, and in to ye vyllagies, where they maye fynde lodgyng & meate, for we are here in ye wyldernesse.

13 But he sayde vnto them: Geue ye them to eate. They sayde: We haue nomore but fyue loaves and two fysshes. Excepte we shulde go & bye meate for so moch people

14 (for there were vpon a fyue thousande men) But he sayde vnto his disciples: Cause them to syt downe by fifties in a copany.

15 And they dyd so, and made them all to syt downe.

16 Then toke he the fyue loaves and two fysshes, and loked vp towarde heaue, and sayde grace ouer them, brake them, and gaued them to the disciples, to set the before the people.

17 And they ate, and were all satisfied. And there were taken vp of that remainyd to them, twolue baskettes full of broken meate.

18 And it fortuneth whan he was alone, and at his prayer, and his disciples with him, he axed them, and sayde: Whom saye the people that I am?

19 They answered, and sayde: They saye, thou art Ihon the baptist: Some, that thou art Elias: Some, that one of the olde prophetes is rysen agayne.

20 But he sayde vnto them: Whom saye ye that I am? Then answered Peter and sayde: Thou art the Christ of God.

21 And he charged them stratly, and commaunded them, that they shulde tell this vnto no ma,

22 and sayde: For the sonne of man must suffre many thinges, and be cast out of the Elders and of ye hye prestes, and scribes, and be put to death, and ryse agayne the thirde daye.

23 Then sayde he vnto them all: Yf eny ma wil folowe me, let hi denie himself, & take vp his crosse daylie, & folowe me.

24 For who so euer wil saue his life, shal lose it. But who so loseth his life for my sake, shal saue it.

25 For what auantage hath a man, though he wanne the whole worlde, and loseth himself, or runneth in dammage of himself?

26 Who so is ashamed of me and of my sayenges, of him shall the sonne of ma also be ashamed, whan he commeth in his glory, and in the glory of his father, and of the holy angels.

27 I saye vnto you of a treuth: there be some of them that stonde here, which shall not taist of death, tyll they se the kyngdome of God.

28 And it fortuneth, that aboute an eight dayes after these wordes, he toke vnto him Peter, Ihon and Iames, and wente vp in to a mount for to praye.

29 And as he prayed, the shappe of his countenance was chaunged of another fashion, and his garment was whyte, and shyned:

30 and beholde, two men talked with him, Which were Moses and Elias,

31 that appeared gloriously, and spake of his departyng, which he shulde fulfill at Ierusalem.

32 As for Peter and them that were with him, they were full of slepe. But whan they awoke, they saw his glory, and the two men stonyng with him.

33 And it chaused, whan they departed fro him, Peter sayde vnto Iesus: Master, here is good beyng for vs. Let vs make thre tabernacles: one for the, one for Moses, and one for Elias, and wyst not what he sayde.

34 But whyle he thus spake, there came a cloude, and ouersadowed them. And they were afrayed, whan the cloude couered them.

35 And out of the cloude there came a voyce, which sayde: This is my deare sonne, heare him.

36 And whyle this voyce came to passe, they founde Iesus alone. And they kepte it close, and tolde no ma in those dayes eny of the thinges which they had sene.

37 And it chaused on the nexte daye after, whan they came downe from the mount. moch people met him,

38 and beholde, a man amonge the people cryed out, and sayde: Master, I beseke the, loke vpon my sonne, for he is my onely sonne:

39 beholde, the sprete taketh him, and sodenly he crieth, and he teareth him, that he fometh, and with payne departeth he from him, whan he hath rente him.

40 I besought thy disciples to cast him out, and they coule not.

41 Then answered Iesus, and sayde: Oh thou vnfaithfull and croked generacion, how longe shal I be with you, & suffre you? Brynge hither thy sonne.

42 And whan he came to him, the deuell rente him and tare him. But Iesus rebuked the foule sprete, and healed the chyld, and deluyered him vnto his father agayne.

43 And they were all amased at the mighty power of God. And whyle they wondred euery one at all thinges which he dyd, he sayde vnto his disciples:

44 Comprehende these sayenges in youre eares. For the sonne of man must be deluyered in to the hades of men.

45 But they wyst not what that worde meant, and it was hyd from them, that they vnderstode it not. And they were afrayed to axe him of that worde.

46 There came a thought also amonge them, which of them shulde be the greatest.

47 But wha Iesus sawe the thoughtes of their hert, he toke a childe, & set him harde by him, 48 and sayde vnto them? Whosoeuer receaueth this childe in my name, receaueth me: and who so euer receaueth me, receaueth him that sent me. But who so is leest amoge you all, ye same shal be greate.

49 Then answered Iho, and sayde: Master, we sawe one dryue out deuells in thy name, and we forbad him, for he folowed the not with vs.

50 And Iesus saide vnto him: For byd him not, for he that is not agaynst vs, is for vs.

51 And it fortunied whan the tyme was fulfilled that he shulde be receaued vp from hence, he turned his face to go straight to Ierusalem, 52 and before him he sent messaungers, which wente their waye, and came into a towne of the Samaritans, to prepare lodginge for him.

53 And they wolde not receaue him, because he had turned his face to go to Ierusalem.

54 But whan his disciples Iames and Ihon sawe that, they sayde: LORDE, wilt thou, that we commaunde, that fyre fall downe from heauen, and consume them, as Elias dyd?

55 Neuertheles Iesus turned him aboute, and rebuked them, and sayde: Knowe ye not, what maner of sprete ye are of?

56 The sonne of man is not come to destroye mens soules, but to saue them. And they wente in to another towne.

57 And it fortunied as they went by the waye, one sayde vnto him: I wil folowe the, whyther so euer thou go.

58 And Iesus sayde vnto him: The foxes haue holes, and the byrdes vnder the heaue haue nestes: but the sonne of man hath not wheron to laye his heade.

59 And he sayde vnto another: Folowe me. He sayde: Syr, geue me leue first to go, and burye my father.

60 But Iesus sayde vnto him: Let the deed burye their deed. But go thou thy waye, and preach the kyngdome of God.

61 And another sayde: Syr, I will folowe the, but geue me leue first, to go byd them farwele, which are at home in my house.

62 Iesus sayde vnto him: Who so putteth his hade to the plowe, and loketh backe, is not mete for the kingdome of God.

Chapter 10

1 Afterwarde the LORDE appoynted out other seuentie, and sent them two and two before him in to euery cite and place, whither he himself wolde come,

2 and sayde vnto them: The haruest is greate, but the labourers are fewe. Praye therefore the LORDE of the haruest, to sende forth labourers in to his haruest.

3 Go youre waye: beholde, I sende you forth as the labes amonge ye wolues.

4 Beare nether wallet, ner scryppe, ner shues, and salute no ma by the waye.

5 In to what so euer house ye entre, first saye: Peace be in this house.

6 And yf the childe of peace be there, youre peace shal rest vpon him. Yf no, then shal youre peace turne to you agayne.

7 But tary ye still in the same house, eatinge aud drynkinge soch as they haue. For the labourer is worthy of his rewarde. Go not from house to house.

8 And in to what so euer cite ye entre, and they receaue you, eate soch thinges as are set before you.

9 And heale the sicke that are there, and saye vnto them: The kyngdome of God is come nye vnto you.

10 But in to what so euer cite ye come, and they receaue you not, go youre waye out in to the stretes of the same, and saye:

11 Euen the very dust which cleaueth vpon vs of youre cite, wpe we of vpon you. But of this ye shal be sure, that the kyngdome of God was come nye vnto you.

12 I saye vnto you: It shalbe easier for Sodome in that daye, then for that cite.

13 Wo vnto the Chorazin, wo vnto the Bethsaida: for yf the miracles which haue bene done amonge you had bene done at Tyre and Sidon, they had done pennaunce longe agoo, syttinge in sack cloth and in ashes.

14 Neuertheles it shalbe easier for Tyre and Sidon at the iudgment, then for you.

15 And thou Capernaum which art exalted vnto the heauen, shalt be thrust downe vnto hell.

16 He that heareth you, heareth me: and he that despyseth you, despyseth me: but who so despyseth me, despyseth him yt sent me.

17 The seuetye came agayne with ioye, and sayde: LORDE, the deuells also are subdued vnto vs in thy name.

18 But he sayde vnto them: I sawe Sathan fall downe from heauen as a lightenyng.

19 Beholde, I haue geuen you power to treade vpon serpetes and scorpions, and ouer all power of the enemye, and nothinge shall hurte you.

20 Neuertheles, reioyce not ye in this, that the spretes are subdued vnto you: but reioyse, that youre names are wrytten in heauen.

21 At the same houre reioysed Iesus in sprete, and sayde: I prayse the (O father and LORDE of heauen and earth) that thou hast hyd these thinges from the wyse and prudent, and hast opened them vnto babes. Euen so father, for so it pleased the.

22 All thinges are geuen ouer vnto me of my father: and no man knoweth who the sonne is, but onely the father: nether who the father is, saue onely the sonne, and he to who the sonne wil open it.

23 And he turned him vnto his disciples, and sayde in especiall: Blessed are the eyes, which se that ye se.

24 For I saye vnto you: Many prophetes and kynges, wolde haue sene the thynges that ye se, and haue not sene them: and to haue herde the thynges that ye heare, and haue not herde them.

25 And beholde, there stode vp a scribe and tempted him, and sayde: Master, what must I do, to inheret euerlastinge life?

26 He sayde vnto him: What is wrytten in the lawe? How readeest thou?

27 He answered and sayde: Thou shalt loue thy LORDE God with all thy hert, with all thy soule, with all thy strength, and with all thy mynde, and thy neigboure as thy self.

28 He sayde vnto him: Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt lye.

29 But he wolde haue iustified himself, & sayde vnto Iesus: Who is then my neigboure?

30 Then answered Iesus, and sayde: A certayne man wente downe from Ierusalem vnto Iericho, and fell amonge murthurers, which stryped him out of his clothes, and wounded him, and wente their waye, and left him half deed.

31 And by chauce there came downe a prest the same waye: and whan he sawe him, he passed by.

32 And likewise a Leuite, wha he came nye vnto the same place and sawe him, he passed by.

33 But a Samaritane was goyng his iourney, and came that waye, and whan he sawe him, he had compassion vpon him, 34 wente vnto him, bounde vp his woundes, and poured oyle and wyne therin, and lifte him vp vpon his beast, and brought him in to the ynne, and made prouysion for him.

35 Vpon the next daye whan he departed, he toke out two pens, and gaue them to the oost, aud sayde vnto him: Take cure of him, and what so euer thou spendest more, I wil paye it the, whan I come agayne.

36 Which of these thre now thinkest thou, was neigboure vnto him, that fell amonge the murthurers?

37 He sayde: He that shewed mercy vpon him. Then sayde Iesus vnto him: Go thy waye then, and do thou likewise.

38 It fortunied as they wete, that he entred in to a towne, where there was a woman named Martha, which receaued him in to hir house.

39 And she had a sister, called Mary, which sat hir downe at Iesus fete, and herkened vnto his worde.

40 But Martha made hirself moch to do, for to serue him. And she stepte vnto him, and sayde: LORDE, carest thou not, that my sister letteth me serue alone? Byd her therfore, that she helpe me.

41 But Iesus answered, and sayde vnto her: Martha Martha, thou takest thought, and combrest thy self aboute many thinges:

42 there is but one thinge nedefull. Mary hath chosen a good parte, which shal not be taken awaye from her.

Chapter 11

1 And it fortunied that he was in a place, and prayed. And whan he had ceased, one of his disciples sayde vnto him: LORDE, teach vs to praye, as Ihon also taught his disciples.

2 He sayde vnto the: Whan ye praye, saye: O oure father which art in heauen, halowed be thy name. Thy kyngdome come. Thy wil be fulfilled vpon earth, as it is in heauen.

3 Geue vs this daye oure daylie bred.

4 And forgeue vs oure synnes, for we also forgeue all them that are detters vnto vs. And lede vs not in to temptacion, but deluyer vs from euell.

5 And he sayde vnto them: Which of you is it that hath a frende, and shulde go to him at mydinght, and saye vnto him: frende, lende me thre loaues,

6 for a frende of myne is come to me out of the waye, and I haue nothinge to set before him:

7 and he within shulde answere and saye: Disquyte me not, the dore is shutt allready, and my children are with me in the chamber, I can not ryse, and geue the. 8 I saye vnto you: and though he wolde not aryse and geue him, because he is his frende, Yet because of his vnshamefast begginge he wolde aryse, and geue him as many as he neded.

9 And I saye vnto you also: Axe, and it shal be geuen you: Seke, and ye shal fynde: knocke, and it shalbe opened vnto you.

10 For who so euer axeth, receaueth: and he that seketh, fyndeth: and to him that knocketh, shal it be opened.

11 Yf the sonne axe bred of eny of you that is a father, wyl he geue him a stone therfore? Or yf he axe a fysshe, wyl he for the fish offre him a serpent?

12 Or yf he axe an egg, wyl he profer him a scorpion?

13 Yf ye then which are euell, can geue youre children good giftes, how moch more shal the father of heauen geue the holy sprete vnto them that axe him?

14 And he droue out a deuell that was domme: and it came to passe whan the deuell was departed out, the domme spake, and the people wondred.

15 But some of them sayde: He dryueth out the deuels, thorow Beelzebub the chefe of the deuels.

16 The other tempted him, and desyred a token of him from heauen.

17 But he knewe their thoughtes, and sayde vnto them: Euery kyngdome deuyded within it self, shal be desolate, and one house shal fall vpo another.

18 Yf Sathan then be at variaunce within himself, how shal his kyngdome endure? Because ye saye, that I dryue out deuels thorow Beelzebub.

19 And yf I dryue out deuels thorow Beelzebub, by whom the do youre children dryue them out? Therefore shall they be youre iudges.

20 But yf I cast out the deuels by the fynger of God, then is the kyngdome of God come vnto you.

21 Whan a stronge harnesssed man kepeth his house, that he possesseth is in peace: 22 but whan a stronger then he commeth vpo him, and ouer commeth him, he taketh fro him all his wapens, wherin he trusted, and deuydeth the spoyle.

23 He that is not with me, is agaynst me: and he that gathereth not with me, scatereth abroad.

24 Whan the vncleane sprete is gone out of a man, he walketh thorow drye places, sekyng rest, and fyndeth none. Then sayeth he: I wil turne agayne in to my house, from whence I wente out.

25 And whan he commeth, he fyndeth it swepte, and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh vnto him seven other spretes, worse the himself. And whan they are entred in, they dwell there. And the ende of that man is worse then the begynnyng.

27 And it fortuneth whan he spake soch, a certayne woman amonge the people lift vp hir voyce, and sayde vnto him: Blessed is ye wombe that bare the, and the pappes that thou hast sucked.

28 But he sayde: Yee blessed are they that heare the worde of God, and kepe it.

29 Whan the people were gathered thicke together, he beganne to saye: This is an euell generacion, they desyre a toke, and there shal no token be geuen them, but the toke of the prophet Ionas.

30 For like as Ionas was a toke vnto the Niniuytes, so shal the sonne of man be vnto this generacion.

31 The queene of the south shal aryse at the iudgmet with the men of this generacion, and shall condempne them: for she came from the ende of the worlde, to heare the wyssdome of Salomon. And beholde, here is one more then Salomon.

32 The men of Niniue shal aryse at the iudgment with this generacion, and shall condempne them: for they dyd pennaunce after the preachinge of Ionas: and beholde, here is one more the Ionas.

33 No man lighteth a candell, and putteth it in a preuy place, nether vnder a busshell, but vpon a candilstick, that they which come in, maye se ye light.

34 The eye is the light of the body. Yf thine eye then be syngle, all thy body shal be full of light: but yf thine eye be wicked, then shal all thy body be full of darcknesse.

35 Take hede therefore, that the light which is in the, be not darcknesse.

36 Yf thy body now be light, so that it haue no parte of darcknesse, then shal it be all full of light, and shall light the euen as a cleare lightenyng.

37 But whyle he yet spake, a certayne Pharise prayed him, that he wolde dyne with him. And he wente in, and sat him downe at the table.

38 Whan the Pharise sawe that, he marueyled, that he wasshed not first before dyner.

39 But the LORDE sayde vnto him: Now do ye Pharises make cleane the out syde of the cuppe and platter, but youre inwarde partes are full of robbery and wickednesse.

40 Ye fooles, is a thinge made cleane within, because the outsyde is clensted?

41 Neuertheles geue almesse of that ye haue, and beholde, all is cleane vnto you.

42 But wo vnto you Pharises, ye that tythe mynt and rewe, and all maner herbes, and passe ouer iudgmet and ye loue of God. These ought to haue bene done, and not to leaue the other vndone.

43 Wo vnto you Pharises, for ye loue to syt vppermost in the synagoges, and to be saluted in the market.

44 Wo vnto you scribes and Pharyses, ye ypcrites, for ye are like couered sepulcres, where ouer men walke, and are not aware of them.

45 Then answered one of the scribes, and sayde vnto him: Master, with these wordes thou putttest vs to rebuke also.

46 But he saide: And wo vnto you also ye scribes, for ye lade men with vntollerable burthens, and ye youre selues touch them not with one of yor fyngers.

47 Wo vnto you, for ye buylde the sepulcres of the prophetes, but youre fathers put them to death.

48 Doutles ye beare wytnesse, and consente vnto the dedes of yor fathers: for they slewe them, and ye buylde their sepulcres.

49 Therefore sayde the wyssdome of God: I wil sende prophetes and Apostles vnto the: and some of them shal they put to death and persecute,

50 hat the bloude of all the prophetes which hath bene shed sens the foundation of the worlde was layed, maye be requyred of this generacion:

51 from the bloude of Abell, vnto ye bloude of Zachary, which perished betwene the altare and ye temple. Yee I saye vnto you: it shalbe requyred of this generacion.

52 Wo vnto you scribes, for ye haue receaued ye keye of knowlege. Ye are not come in youre selues, and haue forbydden them that wolde haue bene in.

53 Whan he spake thus vnto them, the scribes and Pharyses beganne to preasse sore vpon him, and to stoppe his mouth with many questions, 54 and layed wayte for him, and sought to hunte out some thinge out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

Chapter 12

1 There were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, in so moch that they trode one another: Then beganne he, and sayde first vnto his disciples: Bewarre of the leuen of the Pharises, which is ypocrisy.

2 But there is nothinge hyd, that shal not be discouered: nether secrete, that shal not be knowne.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye haue spoke in darcknesse, that same shal be herde in light: and that ye haue spoken in to the eare in the chabers, shalbe preached vpon the house toppes.

4 But I saye vnto you my frendes: Be not afrayed of them that kyll the body, and after that haue nomore that they can do.

5 But I wil shewe you, whom ye shal feare. Feare him, which after he hath kylled, hath power also to cast in to hell: Yee I saye vnto you: Feare him.

6 Are not fyue sparowes bought for two farthinges? Yet is not one of them forgotten before God.

7 The very hayres of youre heade also are nombred euery one. Feare not therefore, for ye are better then many sparowes.

8 I saye vnto you: Who so euer knowlegeth me before men, him shal the sonne of ma also knowlege before the angels of God:

9 But he that denyeth me before men, shalbe denyed before the angels of God.

10 And who so euer speaketh a worde agaynst the sonne of man, it shalbe forgeuen him: But who so blasphemeth the holy goost, it shal not be forgeuen him.

11 Whan they bryng you in to their synagoges, and to the rulers & officers, take ye no thought, how or what ye shal answeare, or what ye shal speake:

12 for the holy goost shal teach you in the same houre, what ye ought to saye.

13 But one of the people sayde vnto him: Master, byd my brother deuyde the enheritaunce with me.

14 Neuertheles he sayde vnto him: Man, who hath set me to be a iudge or heretage parter ouer you?

15 And he sayde vnto them: Take hede, and bewarre of couetousnesse, for no man lyueth therof, that he hath abudaunce of goodes.

16 And he tolde them a symilitude, and sayde: There was a riche man, whose felde had brought forth frutes plenteously, 17 and he thought in himself, and sayde: What shal I do? I haue nothinge wher in to gather my frutes.

18 And he sayde: This wil I do, I wil breake downe my barnes, & buylde greater, and therein wil I gather all myne increace, & my goodes, 19 & wil saye vnto my soule: Soule, thou hast moch goodes layed vp in stoare for many yeares, take now thine ease, eate, drinke, and be mery.

20 But God sayde vnto him: Thou foole, this night shal they requyre thy soule from the, and whose shal it be that thou hast prepared?

21 Thus goeth it with him yt gathereth treasure for himself, and is not riche in God.

22 But he sayde vnto his disciples: Therefore I saye vnto you: Take ye no thought for youre life, what ye shal eate: nether for youre body, what ye shal put on.

23 The life is more then meate, and the body more then raymet.

24 Consydre the rauens, they nether sower ne reape, they haue also nether stoare house ner barne, and yet God fedeth them. But how moch better are ye then the foules?

25 Which of you (though he toke thought therfore) coulde put one cubyte vnto his stature?

26 Seinge then ye be not able to do that which is least, why take ye thought for the other?

27 Considre the lilies vpo the felde, how they growe: they laboure not, they spyne not. But I saye vnto you: that euen Salomen in all his royalte was not clothed like one of these.

28 Wherefore yf God so cloth the grasse, yt is to daye in ye felde, and tomorow shalbe cast in to the fornace, how moch more shal he clothe you, o ye of litle faith?

29 Axe not ye therfore what ye shal eate, or what ye shal drynke, and clymme not vp an hye:

30 The Heithen in the worlde seke after all soch thinges.

31 But seke ye the kyngdome of God, and all these shal be mynistred vnto you.

32 Feare not thou litle flocke, for it is youre fathers pleasure to geue you the kyngdome.

33 Sell that ye haue, and geue almesse. Make you bagges, which waxe not olde: euen a treasure that neuer fayleth in heauen, where no thefe commeth, and no moth corrupeth:

34 For where youre treasure is, there wil youre hert be also.

35 Let youre loynes be gerded aboute, and youre lightes burnyng,

36 and be ye like vnto men that wayte for their lorde, agaynst he returne from the mariage, that whan he cometh & knocketh, they maye straight waye open vnto him.

37 Blessed are those seruantes, whom the LORDE (whan he cometh) shal fynde wakyng. Verely I saye vnto you: He shal gyrd vp him self, and make them syt downe at the table, and shal go by them, and mynister vnto them.

38 And yf he come in the seconde watch, and in the thirde watch, and fynde them so, blessed are those seruantes.

39 But be sure of this, that yf the good man of the house knewe, what houre the thefe wolde come, he wolde surely watch, and not suffre his house to be broken vp.

40 Therefore be ye ready also, for at an houre whan ye thynke not, shal the sonne of man come.

41 But Peter sayde vnto him: LORDE, tellest thou this symilitude vnto vs, or to all men also?

42 The LORDE sayde: How greate a thinge is a faithfull and wyse steward, whom his lorde setteth ouer his houssholde, to geue the their dewtye in due season?

43 Blessed is that seruauant, whom his lorde (whan he cometh) shal fynde so doynge.

44 Verely I saye vnto you: he shal set him ouer all his goodes.

45 But yf the same seruaut shal saye in his hert: Tush, it wil be longe or my lorde come, and shal begynne to smyte ye seruautes and maydens, yee & to eate and drynke, & to be dronke:

46 the same seruautes lorde shal come in a daye whan he loketh not for him, and in an houre that he is not aware of, & shal hew him in peces, and geue him his rewarde with the vnbeleuers.

47 The seruauant that knewe his lordes wil and prepared not himself, nether dyd accordinge to his will, shal be beaten with many strypes:

48 But he that knewe it not, and yet dyd thinges worthy of strypes, shal be beaten with few strypes. For loke vnto whom moch is geuen, of him shal moch be sought: and loke to whom moch is commytted, of him shal moch be requyred.

49 I am come to kyndle fyre vpo earth, and what wolde I rather, the that it were kyndled already.

50 Notwithstodunge I must first be baptised with a baptye, and how am I payned tyll it be ended?

51 Thynke ye, that I am come to brynge peace vpon earth? I tell you nay, but rather debate.

52 For from hence forth there shal be at varyauce in one house: thre agaynst two, and two agaynst thre.

53 The father shal be deuyded agaynst ye sonne, and the sonne agaynst the father: the mother agaynst the daughter, & the daughter agaynst the mother: the mother in lawe agaynst hir daughter in lawe, and ye daughter in lawe agaynst hir mother in lawe.

54 And he sayde vnto the people: Whan ye se a cloude ryse out of ye west, straight waye ye saye: there cometh a shower, and so it is:

55 and whan ye se the southwynde blowe, ye saye: It wil be hote, and it commeth so to passe.

56 O ye ypocrytes, ye can discerne the fashion of the skye and of the earth: Why can ye not discerne this tyme also?

57 Yee and why iugde ye not of youre selues, what is right?

58 Whye thou goest with thine aduersary vnto the Prynce, geue diligece by the waye, that thou mayest be quyte of him, lest he brynge the before the iudge, and the iudge delyuer the to the iaylar, and the iaylar cast the in to preson.

59 I tell the, thou shalt uot come out thence, tyll thou paye the vtmost myte.

Chapter 13

1 There were present at the same season certayne, that shewed him of ye Galileans, whose bloude Pilate had megled with their awne sacrifice.

2 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them: Suppose ye, that these Galileas were greater synners then all the other Galileans, because they suffred soch punyishment?

3 I tell you naye, but excepte ye amede youre selues, ye shal all perishe likewyse.

4 Or thinke ye that ye eightene (vpon whom the tower in Siloe fell and slewe them) were giltie aboute all men that dwell at Ierusalem?

5 I tell you naye: but excepte ye amede youre selues, ye shal all perishe likewyse.

6 And he tolde them this symilitude: A certayne ma had a fygge tre, which was planted in his vynyarde, & he came and sought frute thereon, and founde none.

7 Then sayde he vnto the wynegardener: Beholde, This thre yeare longe haue I come euery yeare, and sought frute vpon this fygge tre, and fynde none: cut it downe, why hyndreth it the grounde?

8 But he answered, and sayde: Syr, let it alone yet this yeare, tyll I dygge roude aboute it and donge it,

9 yf it wyl brynge forth frute: Yf no, then cut it downe afterwarde.

10 And he taught in a synagoge vpon the Sabbath:

11 and beholde, there was a woma, which had a sprete of infirmyte eightene yeares, and was coked, and coulde not well loke vp.

12 Whan Iesus sawe her, he called her to him, and sayde vnto her: Woman, be delyuered from thy disease.

13 And he layed his handes vpo her, and immediatly she was made straight, and prayed God.

14 Then answered the ruler of the synagoge, and toke indignacion (because Iesus healed vpo ye Sabbath) and sayde vnto the people: There are sixe dayes, wherin men ought to worke, in them come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath.

15 Then the LORDE answered him, and sayde: Thou ypocryte, doth not euery one of you lowse his ox or asse fro the crybbe vpo Sabbath, and leade him to the water?

16 But shulde not this (which is Abrahams daughter) whom Sathan hath bounde now eightene yeares, be lowsed from this bonde vpo the Sabbath?

17 And whan he thus sayde, all his aduersaries were ashamed. And all the people reioysed ouer all the excellent dedes, that were done by him.

18 And he sayde: What is the kyngdome of God like? Or wher vnto shal I copare it?

19 It is like a grayne of mustarde sede, which a man toke, and cast in his garden: and it grewe, and waxed a greate tre, and the foules of the ayre dwelt amonge the braunches of it.

20 And agayne he sayde: Where vnto shal I lick the kyngdome of God?

21 It is like vnto leuen, which a woman toke, and myxte it amoge thre peckes of meele, tyll it was all leuended.

22 And he wete thorow cities and townes, and taught, and toke his journey towarde Ierusalem.

23 And one sayde vnto him: LORDE, are there few (thinkest thou) that shalbe saued? But he sayde vnto them:

24 Stryue ye entre in at the straye gate, for many (I saye vnto you) shal seke to come in, and shal not be able.

25 From that tyme forth, whan the good man of the house is rysen vp, and hath shut the dore, then shal ye begynne to stonde without, and to knocke at ye dore, and saye: LORDE, open vnto vs. And he shal answer, and saye vnto you: I knowe you not whence ye are.

26 Then shal ye begynne to saye: We haue eaten and dronken before the, and thou hast taught vs vpon ye stretes.

27 And he shal saye: I tell you, I knowe you not whence ye are. Departe fro me all ye workers of iniquyte.

28 There shalbe wepyng and gnasshinge of teth, when ye shal se Abraham, and Isaac, and Iacob and all the prophetes in ye kyngdome of God, and youre selues thrust out, 29 And wha they shal come from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south, which shal syt at ye table in the kyngdome of God.

30 And beholde, there are last, which shal be fyrst: and there are first, which shalbe last.

31 Vpon the same daye there came certayne of ye Pharises, and sayde vnto him: Get the out of the waye, and departe hence, for Herode wyl kyllyl thee.

32 And he sayde vnto the: Go ye and tell that foxe: beholde, I cast out deuels, and heale the people todaye and tomorrow, and vpo the thirde daye shal I make an ende:

33 for it can not be, that a prophet perishe without Ierusalem.

34 O Ierusalem Ierusalem, thou that kyllest the prophetes, and stonest the that are sent vnto the, how oft wolde I haue gathered thy children together, euen as the henne gathereth hir nest vnder hir wynges, and ye wolde not?

35 Beholde, yor habitacion shal be left vnto you desolate. For I saye vnto you: ye shal not se me, tyll ye tyme come that ye shal saye: blessed be he, yt cometh in ye name of the LORDE.

Chapter 14

1 And it fortuneth that he came in to the house of one of ye chefe Pharises vpo a Sabbath, to eate bred, & they watched him.

2 And beholde, there was a ma before him, which had ye dropsye.

3 And Iesus answered, & spake vnto the scribes and Pharises, & sayde: Is it lauffull to heale on the Sabbath?

4 But they helde their tonge. And he toke him, and healed him, & let him go,

5 and answered, and sayde vnto the: Which of you shal haue an ox or an asse fallen in to a pytte, and wil not straight waye pull him out on the Sabbath daye?

6 And they coude not answer him agayne to that.

7 And he tolde a symilitude vnto ye gastes, wha he marked how they chose the hiest seates, & sayde vnto the:

8 Whan thou art bydde of eny man to a weddyng, syt not downe in the hiest rowme, lest a more honorable man the thou be bydde of him,

9 and he that bade both the and him, come & saye vnto ye: geue this ma rowme, and thou the begynne with shame to take ye lowest rowme.

10 But rather wha thou art bydde, go and syt in ye lowest rowme, that wha he that bade the, cometh, he maye saye vnto the: Frende, syt vp hyer: then shalt thou haue worship in the presence of them that syt at the table.

11 For who so euer exalteth himself, shalbe brought lowe: and he yt humbleth himself, shalbe exalted.

12 He sayde also vnto him that had bydden him: Wha thou makest a dyner or a supper, call not thy frendes, ner thy brethren, ner thy kynsfolkes, ner yi riche neighbours, lest they call the agayne, and recompece be made ye.

13 But wha thou makest a feast, call the poore, the crepell, the lame, the blynde, 14 then art thou blessed, for they can not recompece ye. But it shalbe recompensed the in the resurreccion of the righteous.

15 Whan one of them that sat by at the table herde this, he sayde vnto him: Blessed is he, that eateth bred in ye kyngdome of God.

16 But he sayde vnto him: A certayne ma made a greate supper, and called many ther to.

17 And in ye houre of the supper he sent his seruaute, to saye vnto the yt were bydde: Come, for now are all thinges ready.

18 And they begane all together to excuse the selues one after another: The first saide vnto hi: I haue bought a ferme, and I must nedes go forth and se it, I praye ye haue me excused.

19 And ye seconde sayde: I haue bought fyue yoke of oxen, and now I go to proue them, I praye the haue me excused.

20 And the thirde sayde: I haue married a wife, therefore can I not come.

21 And the seruauant came, and brought his lorde worde agayne therof. Then was the good man of the house displeased, and sayde vnto his seruaut: Go out quickly in to the stretes and quarters of ye cite, and brynge in hither the poore and crepell, and lame and blynde.

22 And the seruaut sayde: lorde, it is done as thou hast comaunded, and there is yet more rowme.

23 And the lorde sayde vnto the seruauant: Go out into the hie wayes, and to the hedges, and compell them to come in, that my house maye be fylled.

24 But I saye vnto you: that none of these men which were bydden, shal taist of my supper.

25 There wente moch people with him, and he turned him aboute and sayde vnto them:

26 Yf eny man come vnto me, and hate not his father, mother, wife, childre, brethre, sisters, yee and his owne life also, he can not be my disciple.

27 And whosoouer beareth not his crosse, and foloweth me, can not be my disciple.

28 Which of you is it yt wil buylde a tower, and sytteth not downe first and counteth ye cost, whether he haue sufficiet to perfourme, it?

29 lest after he hath layed the foundacio, and is not able to perfourme it, all they that se it, begynne to laugh him to scorne,

30 & to saye: This man beganne to buylde, and is not able to perfurme it.

31 Or what kynge wil go to make battayl agaynst another kynge, and sytteth not downe first, and casteth in his mynde, whether he be able with ten thousande, to mete him that commeth agaynst him with twentye thousande?

32 Or els, whyle the other is yet a greate waye of he sendeth embassage, and desyreth peace.

33 So likewyse euery one of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, can not be my disciple.

34 Salt is a good thinge: but yf the salt be vnsauery, what shal they season withall.

35 It is nether good vpon the lande, ner in the donge hyll, but shal be cast awaye. He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

Chapter 15

1 There resorted vnto him all the publicans and synners, that they might heare him.

2 And ye Pharises and scribes murmured, and sayde: This man receaueth synners, and eateth with them.

3 But he tolde the this symilitude, and sayde:

4 What man is he amonge you, that hath an hundreth shepe, and yf he loose one of the, that leaueth not the nyne and nyentye in the wyldernesse, and goeth after that which is lost tyll he fynde it?

5 And whan he hath founde it, he layeth it vpon his shulders with ioye:

6 and whan he commeth home, he calleth his fredes and neighbours, and sayeth vnto the: Reioyce with me, for I haue founde my shepe, yt was lost.

7 I saye vnto you: Eue so shal there be ioye in heauen ouer one synner that doth pennaunce, more then ouer nyne and nyentye righteous, which nede not repentaunce.

8 Or what woman is it that hath ten grottes, yf she loose one of them, that lighteth not a candell, and swepeth the house, and seketh diligently, tyll she fynde it?

9 And whan she hath founde it, she calleth hir frendes & neighbouresses, and sayeth: Reioyce with me, for I haue foude my grote, which I had lost.

10 Euen so (I tell you) shal there be ioye before the angels of God, ouer one synner yt doth pennaunce.

11 And he sayde: A certayne man had two sonnes,

12 and the yonger of them sayde vnto the father: Father, geue me the porcion of ye goodes, that belongeth vnto me. And he deuyded the good vnto them.

13 And not longe thereafter, gathered the yonger sonne all together, & toke his journey in to a farre countre, and there waisted he his goodes with rytous luyunge.

14 Now whan he had spent all that he had, there was a greate derth thorow out all the same lode. And he beganne to lacke, 15 and wente his waye, and claued to a cytesin of that same countre, which sent him in to his felde, to kepe swyne.

16 And he wolde fayne haue fylled his bely with the coddies, that the swyne ate. And no man gaue him them.

17 Then came he to him self, and sayde: How many hyred seruauntes hath my father, which haue bred ynough, and I perish of honger?

18 I wil get vp, and go to my father, and saye vnto him: Father, I haue synned agaynst heauen and before the,

19 and am nomore worthy to be called thy sonne, make me as one of thy hyred seruauntes.

20 And he gat him vp, & came vnto his father. But whan he was yet a greate waye of, his father sawe him, and had copassion, and ranne, and fell aboute his neck, and kyssed him.

21 Then sayde the sonne vnto him: Father, I haue synned agaynst heaue, and before the, I am nomore worthy to be called thy sonne.

22 But the father sayde vnto his seruauntes: Brynge forth the best garment, and put it vpon him, and geue him a ryng vpon his hande, and shues on his fete,

23 and brynge hither a fed calfe, and kylle it, lat vs eate and be mery:

24 for this my sonne was deed, and is alyue agayne: he was lost, and is founde. And they beganne to be mery.

25 But the elder sonne was in the felde. And whan he came, and drewe nye to the house, he herde ye mynstrelsy and daunsyng, 26 and called one of the seruauntes vnto him, and axed what it was.

27 He sayde vnto him: Thy brother is come, and thy father hath slayne a fed calfe, because he hath receaued him safe and sounde.

28 Then was he angrie, and wolde not go in. Then wente his father out, and prayed him.

29 But he answered, and sayde vnto his father: Lo, thus many yeares haue I done the seruyce, nether haue I yet broken thy commaundement, and thou gauest me neuer one kydd, yt I might make mery with my frendes.

30 But now that this thy sonne is come, which deuoured his goodes with harlottes, thou hast slayne a fed calfe.

31 But he sayde vnto him: My sonne, thou art allwaye with me, and all that is myne, is thine:

32 thou shuldest be mery and glad, for this yi brother was deed, and is alyue agayne: he was lost, and is founde agayne.

Chapter 16

1 He sayde also vnto his disciples: There was a certayne riche man, which had a stewarde, that was accused vnto him, that he had waisted his goodes.

2 And he called him, and sayde vnto him: How is it, that I heare this of the? geue acomptes of yi stewardshipe, for thou mayest be no longer stewarde.

3 The stewarde sayde within himself: What shal I do? My lorde wil take awaye the stewardshipe fro me. I ca not dygge, and to begg I am ashamed.

4 I wote what I wil do, that wha I am put out of the stewardshipe, they maye receaue me in to their houses.

5 And he called vnto hi all his lordes detters, and sayde vnto the first: How moch owest thou vnto my lorde?

6 He sayde: an hundreth tonnes of oyle. And he sayde: Take yi byll, syt downe quickly, & wryte fiftie.

7 Then sayde he vnto another: How moch owest thou? He sayde: an hundreth quarters of wheate. And he sayde vnto him: Take thy byll, and wryte foure score.

8 And the lorde comended the vnrighteous stewarde, because he had done wysely. For the children of this worlde are in their kynde wyser, the children of light.

9 And I saye vnto you: Make you frendes with the vnrighteous Mammon, yt whan ye shal haue nede, they maye receaue you in to euerlastinge Tabernacles.

10 He that is faithfull in the least, is faithfull also in moch: and he that is vnrighteous in the least, is vnrighteous also in moch.

11 Yf ye then haue not bene faithfull in the vnrighteous Mammon, who wyll beleue you in that which is true?

12 And yf ye haue not bene faithfull in anothers mans busynesse, who wil geue you that which is youre awne?

13 No seruaunt can serue two masters: for either he shal hate the one, and loue ye other: or els he shal leane to the one, and despise the other. Ye can not serue God and Mammon.

14 All these thinges herde the Pharises, which were couetous, and they mocked hi.

15 And he sayde vnto them: Ye are they that iustifie yor selues before men, but God knoweth youre hertes. For yt which is hye amonge men, is an abhominacion before God.

16 The lawe and ye prophetes prophecied vnto Ihon, and from that tyme forth is ye kyngdome of God preached thorow ye Gospell, and euery man preasseth in to it by violence.

17 But easier is it, for heauen and earth to perishe, then one tittle of ye lawe to fall.

18 Who so euer putteth awaye his wife, & marieth another, breaketh matrimonye: and he that marieth her which is deuorced fro hir hussbande, breaketh wedlocke also.

19 There was a certayne riche man, which clothed him self with purple and costly lynnyn, and fared deliciously euery daye.

20 And there was a poore man named Lazarus which laye at his gate full of sores, 21 and desyred to be fylled with the crommes, that fell from the riche mans table. Yet came the dogges, and licked his sores.

22 But it fortunied, that the poore man dyed, and was caried of the angels in to Abrahams bosome. The riche man dyed also, and was buried.

23 Now whan he was in the hell, he lift vp his eyes in the payne, and sawe Abraham afarre of, and Lazarus in his bosome:

24 and he cried, and sayde: Father Abraham, haue mercy vpon me, and sende Lazarus, that he maye dyppe the tpype of his fynger in water, & coole my tonge, for I am tormeted in this flame.

25 But Abrahama saide: Rembre sonne, yt thou hast receaued good in yi life, & contrary wyse Lazarus receaued euell. But now is he comforted, and thou art tormeted.

26 And beside all this, there is a greate space set betwene vs and you: so yt they which wolde go downe from hence vnto you, cannot: nether maye they passe ouer from thence vnto vs.

27 Then sayde he: I pray the then father, that thou wilt sende him vnto my fathers house, 28 for I haue yet fyue brethren, that he maye warne them, lest they also come in to this place of torment.

29 Abraham sayde vnto him: They haue Moses and the prophetes, let them heare them.

30 But he sayde: Nay father Abraham, but yf one wente vnto them fro the deed, they wolde do pennaunce.

31 Neuertheles he sayde vnto him: Yf they heare not Moses & the prophetes, then shal they not beleue also, though one rose agayne fro the deed.

Chapter 17

1 He sayde vnto his disciples: It is vnpossible that offences shulde not come: but wo vnto him by whom they come:

2 It were better for him, that a mylstone were hanged aboute his neck, and he cast in to the see, then that he shulde offende one of these litle ones.

3 Take hede to youre selues. Yf thy brother trespace agaynst the, rebuke him:

4 and yf he amende, forgeue him. And though he synne agaynst the seuen tymes in a daye, and come seuen tymes in a daye to ye agayne, and saye: It repenteth me, forgeue him.

5 And the Apostles sayde vnto ye LORDE: Increace oure faith.

6 The LORDE sayde: Yf ye haue faith as a grayne of mustarde sede, and saye vnto this Molbery tre: Plucke thy self vp by the rotes, and plate thy self in the see, it shalbe obediet vnto you.

7 Which of you is it, that hath a seruaut (which ploweth, or fedeth the catell) wha he cometh home from ye felde, that he wil saye vnto him: Go quyckly, and syt the downe to meate?

8 Is it not thus? that he sayeth vnto him: Make ready, that I maye suppe, gyrde vp thyself, and serue me, tyll I haue eaten and drunken, afterwarde shalt thou eate and drynke also.

9 Thanketh he the same seruaut also, because he dyd that was commaunded him? I trowe not.

10 So likewise ye, wha ye haue done all that is comaunded you, saye: We are vnprofitable seruautes, we haue done that we were bounde to do.

11 And it fortuneth, whan he toke his journey towarde Ierusalem, he wente thorow the myddest of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he came in to a towne, there met him ten leporous men, which stode afarre of,

13 and lift vp their voyce, and sayde: Iesu master, haue mercy vpon vs.

14 And whan he sawe them, he sayde vnto the: Go, and shewe youre selues vnto ye prestes. And it came to passe, as they wente, they were censed.

15 And one of them wha he sawe that he was censed, he turned backe agayne, and prayed God with loude voyce, 16 and fell downe on his face at his fete, and gaue him thanks. And the same was a Samaritane.

17 Iesus answered and saide: Are there not ten censed? But where are those nyne?

18 There were els none founde, that turned agayne, and gaue God the prayse, saue onely this strauger.

19 And he sayde vnto him: Aryse, go thy waye, thy faith hath made ye whole.

20 But whan he was demanded of ye Pharises: Whan cometh the kyngdome of God? He answered them, and sayde: The kyngdome of God commeth not with outwarde appearaunce, 21 nether shal it be sayde: lo, here or there is it. For beholde, ye kyngdome of God is inwarde in you.

22 And he sayde to the disciples: The tyme shal come, wha ye shal desyre to se one daye of the sonne of man, and shal not se it.

23 And they shal saye vnto you: Se here, Se there. Go not ye, nether folowe, 24 for as the lightenyng shyneth aboue from the heauen, and lighteth ouer all that is vnder the heaue, so shal the sonne of ma be in his daye.

25 But first must he suffre many thinges, and be refused of this generacion.

26 And as it came to passe in the tyme of Noe, so shal it come to passe also in ye dayes of the sonne of man.

27 They ate, they dranke, they married, and were married, euen vnto ye daye that Noe wente in to the Arke, and ye floude came, and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise also as it came to passe in the tyme of Lot, they ate, they dranke, they bought, they solde, they planted, they buylded.

29 But euen the same daye that Lot wente out of Sodom, it rayned fyre and brymstone from heaue, and destroyed them all.

30 After this maner also shal it go, in the daye whan the sonne of man shal appeare.

31 In that daye, who so is vpo the rofe, and his stuffe in ye house, let him not come downe to fetch it: Likewise he that is in the felde, let him not turne backe, for it that is behynde him.

32 Remembre Lottes wife.

33 Who so euer goeth aboute to saue his life, shal lose it: and who so euer shal lose it, shal saue it.

34 I saye vnto you: In yt night shal two lye vpon one bed, the one shalbe receaued, the other shalbe for saken.

35 Two shalbe gryndinge together, the one shalbe receaued, the other shalbe forsaken.

36 (Omitted Text)

37 And they answered, and sayde vnto him: Where LORDE? He sayde vnto the: Where so euer ye deed carcasse is there wil ye Aegles be gathered together.

Chapter 18

1 He tolde them a symilitude, signifienge, yt men ought allwayes to praye, & not to leaue of,

2 & sayde: There was a iudge in a cite, which feared not God, and stode in awe of no man.

3 And in the same cite there was a wedowe, which came vnto him, and sayde: delyuer me fro myne aduersary.

4 And he wolde not a greute whyle. But afterwarde he thought within hi self: Though I feare not God, & stonde in awe of no man,

5 yet seyng this weddowe is so importune vpon me, I wil delyuer her, lest she come at the last, and rayle vpon me.

6 Then sayde the LORDE: Heare what ye vnrighteous iudge sayeth.

7 But shall not God also delyuer his chosen, that crye vnto hi daye and night, though he differre the?

8 I saye vnto you: He shal delyuer them, and that shortly. Neuertheles, whan the sonne of man cometh, suppose ye, that he shal fynde faith vpon earth?

9 And vnto certayne which trusted in the selues, that they were perfecte, and despyed other, he spake this symilitude:

10 There wente vp two men in to the teple, to praye: the one a Pharise, the other a publican.

11 The Pharise stode, and prayed by himself after this maner: I thanke the God, that I am not as other men, robbers, vnrighteous, aduouters, or as this publican.

12 I fast twyse in the weke, I geue the tithes of all that I haue.

13 And the publican stode afarre of, and wolde not lift vp his eyes to heauen, but smote vpon his brest, and sayde: God be thou mercyfull vnto me synner.

14 I tell you: This man wente downe in to his house iustified more the the other. For who so euer exalteth himself, shalbe brought lowe: and he that humbleth himself, shalbe exalted.

15 They brought yonge children also vnto him, that he shulde touch them. But whan the disciples sawe that, they rebuked them.

16 Neuertheles Iesus called them vnto him, and sayde: Suffre childe to come vnto me, and forbyd the not, for of soch is ye kyngdome of God.

17 Verely I saye vnto you: Whosoeuer receaueth not ye kyngdome of God as a childe, shal not enter therin.

18 And a certayne ruler axed him, and sayde: Good master, what must I do, that I maye enheret euerlastinge life?

19 But Iesus sayde vnto him: Why callest thou me good? There is no man good, but God onely.

20 Thou knowest the comaundementes: Thou shalt not breake wedlocke: Thou shalt not kyll: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false wytnesse: Honour thy father and yi mother.

21 But he sayde: All these haue I kepte fro my youth vp.

22 Wha Iesus herde that, he sayde vnto him: Yet lackest thou one thinge, sell all that thou hast, and geue it vnto ye poore, and thou shalt haue a treasure in heauen, and come & folowe me.

23 Whan he herde that, he was sory, for he was very riche.

24 Whan Iesus sawe that he was sory, he sayde: How hardly shal the riche come in to the kyngdome of God?

25 It is easier for a Camell to go thorow the eye of a nedle, the for a rich man to entre in to the kyngdome of God.

26 Then sayde they yt herde that: Who can then be saued?

27 But he sayde: loke what is vnpossible with me, is possible with God.

28 Then sayde Peter: Beholde, we haue forsake all, and folowed the.

29 He sayde vnto the: Verely I saye vnto you: There is no ma yt forsaketh house, or elders, or brethren, or wife, or children for the kyngdome of Gods sake, 30 which shal not receaue moch more in this tyme, and euerlastinge life in the worlde to come.

31 He toke vnto him the twolue, and sayde vnto them: Beholde, we go vp to Ierusalem, and it shal all be fulfilled, that is wrytten by the prophetes of the sonne of man.

32 For he shal be delyuered vnto ye Heythen, and shalbe mocked, and despytefully intreated, and spitted vpon:

33 and whan they haue scourged him, they shal put him to death, and vpon the thirde daye shal he aryse agayne.

34 And they vnderstode nothinge of these thinges. And this sayenge was hyd from them, and they perceaued not the thinges that were spoken.

35 And it came to passe, whan he came nye vnto Iericho, there sat one blynde by the waye, and begged.

36 And whan he herde the people passe by, he axed what it was.

37 Then sayde they vnto him, that Iesus of Nazareth passed by.

38 And he cryed, and sayde: Iesu thou sonne of Daudid, haue mercy vpon me.

39 But the people that wente before, rebuked him, that he shulde holde his tunge. Neuertheles he cried moch more: Thou sonne of Daudid haue mercy vpo me.

40 Iesus stode styl, & comaunded hi to be brought vnto hi. And whan he was come neare, he axed him

41 and sayde: What wilt thou, that I do vnto the? He sayde: LORDE, that I maye receaue my sight.

42 And Iesus sayde vnto him: Receaue thy sight, thy faith hath saued the.

43 And immediatly he sawe, and folowed him, & praised God. And all the people that sawe it, gaue God the prayse.

Chapter 19

1 And he entred in, and wente thorow Iericho:

2 & beholde, there was a man named Zacheus, which was a ruler of the publicans, and was riche,

3 and desyred to se Iesus what he shulde be, and he coulde not for the people, for he was lowe of stature.

4 And he ranne before, and clymmed vp in to a wyld fygge tre, that he might se him: for he shulde come yt waye.

5 And whan Iesus came to the same place, he loked vp, and sawe him, and sayde vnto him: Zache, come downe haistely, for todaye must I turne in to thy house.

6 And he came downe hastely, and receaued him with ioye.

7 Whan they sawe that, they murmured all, and sayde, yt he was gone in, to a synner.

8 But Zacheus stode forth, and sayde vnto the LORDE: Beholde LORDE, the half of my goodes geue I to the poore: and yf I haue defrauded eny man, I restore him foure folde.

9 Iesus sayde vnto him: This daye is health happened vnto this house, for so moch as he also is Abrahams sonne.

10 For the sonne of ma is come, to seke and to saue that which was lost.

11 Now whyle they herkened, he tolde a symilitude also, because he was nye vnto Ierusalem, and because they thought, that the kyngdome of God shulde appeare immediatly.

12 And he sayde: A certayne noble ma wete in to a farre cowntre, to receaue hi a kyngdome, and then to come agayne.

 13 This man called ten of his seruautes, and delyuered them ten pounde, and sayde vnto them: Occupye, tyll I come agayne.
 14 But his citesyns hated him, and sent a message after him, and sayde: We wil not haue this man to raigne ouer vs.
 15 And it fortunied whan he came agayne, after that he had receaued the kyngdome, he bade call for the seruautes, vnto whom he had geue his money, yt he might knowe, what euery one had done.
 16 Then came the first and sayde: Syr, thy pounde hath wonne ten pounde.
 17 And he sayde vnto him: Well thou good seruaut, for so moch as thou hast bene faithfull in the least, thou shalt haue auctorite ouer ten cities.
 18 The seconde came also, and sayde: Syr, thy pounde hath wonne fyue pounde.
 19 And to him he sayde: And thou shalt be ouer fyue cities.
 20 And ye thirde came, and sayde: Lo syr, here is thy pounde, which I haue kepte in a napkyn.
 21 I was afrayed of the, for thou art an harde man, thou takest vp yt thou hast not layed downe, and reapest that thou hast not sowne.
 22 He sayde vnto him: Of thine awne mouth iudge I the thou euell seruaut. Knewest thou thou that I am an harde man, takyng vp that I layde not downe, and reapyng that I dyd not sowe?
 23 Wherfore then hast thou not delyuered my money to the exchange banke? And at my commynge might I haue requyred myne awne with vantage?
 24 And he sayde vnto them that stode by: Take ye pounde from him, and geue it vnto him that hath ten pounde.
 25 And they sayde vnto him: Syr, he hath ten pounde already.
 26 But I saye vnto you: Whosoeuer hath, vnto him shal be geue: but from him that hath not, shal be taken awaye euen that he hath.
 27 As for those myne enemies, which wolde not that I shulde raigne ouer them, bringe them hither, and slaye them before me.
 28 And whan he had thus sayde, he wete on forwarde, and toke his iourney vp to Ierusalem.
 29 And it fortunied whan he came nye to Bethphage and Bethany vnto mount Oliuete, he sent two of his disciples,
 30 and sayde: Go in to the towne that lyeth ouer agaynst you, and assone as ye are come in, ye shal fynde a foale tyed, wheron yet neuer man satt, lowse it, and bryng it hither.
 31 And yf eny ma axe you wherfore ye lowse it, saye thus vnto him. The LORDE hath nede therof.
 32 And they that were sent, wete their waye and founde euen as he had sayde.
 33 But wha they lowsed ye foale; the owners therof sayde vnto the: Why lowse ye the foale?
 34 They sayde: The LORDE hath nede therof.
 35 And they brought it vnto Iesus, and cast their clothes vpo the foale, and set Iesus theron.

 36 Now as he wente, they spred their garmentes in the waye.
 37 And whan he wete downe fro mount Oliuete, ye whole multitude of his disciples begane ioyfully to prayse God with loude voyce, ouer all the miracles that they had sene,
 38 and sayde: Blessed be he, that cometh a kyng in the name of the LORDE. Peace be in heauen, and prayse in the height.
 39 And some of the Pharises amonge the people sayde vnto him: Master, rebuke thy disciples.
 40 And he answered and sayde vnto them: I tell you, yf these holde their peace, yet shal the stonnes crye.
 41 And whan he was come neare, he behelde the cite, and wepte vpo it,
 42 and sayde: Yf thou knewest what were for yi peace, thou shuldest remebre it euen in this present daye of thine. But now is it hyd from thine eyes.
 43 For the tyme shal come vpon the, that thine enimies shal cast vp a bake aboute the, and aboute thy children with the, and besege ye, and kepe the in on euery syde, 44 and make the eauen with the grounde, and shal not leaue in the one stone vpon another, because thou hast not knowne ye tyme, wherin thou hast bene visited.
 45 And he wente into the temple, and begane to dryue out them that bought and solde therin,
 46 and sayde vnto them: It is wrytten: My house is an house of prayer, but ye haue made it a denne of murthurers.
 47 And he taught daylie in the teple. But the hye prestes and the scribes and the chefest of ye people wente aboute to destroye him, 48 and founde not, what to do vnto him. For all the people stacke by him, and gaue him audience.

Chapter 20

1 And it fortunied one of those dayes, whan he taught the people in the teple, and preached the Gospell, the hye prestes and scribes came to him with the Elders,
 2 and spake vnto him, and sayde: Tell vs, by what auctorite doest thou these thinges? Or who gaued the this auctorite?
 3 But he answered, & sayde vnto the: I wil axe you a worde also, tell it me:
 4 The baptyeme of Iho was it from heauen, or of men?
 5 But they thought in them selues, and sayde: Yf we saye, from heauen, then shal he saye: Why dyd ye not the beleue him?
 6 But yf we saye, of men, then shal all the people stone vs, for they be persuaded, that Ihon is a prophet.
 7 And they answered, that they coude not tell, whence it was.
 8 And Iesus sayde vnto them: Nether tell I you, by what auctorite I do these thinges.
 9 And he beganne to tell the people this symilitude: A certayne man planted a vynyarde, and let it out vnto hussbadmen, and wente himself in to a straunge countre for a greate season.

 10 And whan his tyme was come, he sent a seruaut to the hussbadmen, that they might geue him of the frute of the vynyarde. But the hussbandmen bet him, and sent him awaye emptye.
 11 And agayne he sent yet another seruaut: but they bet him also, and intreated him shamefully, & sent him awaye emptye.
 12 And besydes this, he sent the thirde: but they wounded him also, and thrust him out.
 13 Then sayde the lorde of the vynyarde: What shal I do? I wil sende my deare sonne, peradventure they wil stonde in awe of him, whan they se him.
 14 But whan the hussbande men sawe the sonne, they thought in the selues, and sayde: This is the heyre, come, let vs kyll him, yt the inheritance maye be oures.
 15 And they thrust him out of ye vynyarde, and slew him. What shal now the lorde of the vynyarde do vnto them?
 16 He shal come, and destroye those hussbandmen, and let out his vynyarde vnto other. Whan they herde that, they sayde: God forbyd.
 17 But he behelde the, and sayde: What is this then that is wrytten: The same stone which the buylders refused, is become the head corner stone?
 18 Who so euer falleth vpon this stone, shalbe broken in sunder: but vpo who so euer he falleth, he shall grynde him to poulder.
 19 And the hye prestes and scribes wente aboute to laye handes vpon him the same houre, and they feared the people: for they perceaued, that he had spoke this symilitude agaynst them.
 20 And they watched hi, & sent forth spyes, which shulde fayne the selues perfecte, that they might take him in his wordes, to delyuer him vnto the power and auctorite of ye debite.
 21 And they axed him, & sayde: Master, we knowe that thou sayest & teachest right, and regardest the outwarde appearaunce of no man, but teachest the waye of God truly.
 22 Is it lauffull, that we geue tribute vnto the Emperoure, or not?
 23 But he perceaued their craftynes, and sayde vnto them: Why tepte ye me?
 24 Shewe me the peny. Whose ymage and superscripcion hath it? They answered, and sayde: The Emperours.
 25 Then sayde he vnto them: Geue the vnto the Emperoure, that which is the Emperours: & vnto God, that which is Gods.
 26 And they coude not reprove his worde before the people, and marueyled at his answere, and helde their peace.
 27 Then came vnto him certayne of the Saduces (which holde that there is no resurreccion) and axed him,
 28 and sayde: Master, Moses wrote vnto vs, yf eny mans brother dye hauynge a wife, and dyeth without childe, then shal his brother take his wife, and rayse vp sede vnto his brother.

 29 Now were there seue brethren: the first toke a wife, and dyed childlesse:
 30 and the seconde toke the wife, and deyed without children also:
 31 and the thirde toke her, likewise all the seue, and left no children behynde the, and dyed.
 32 At the last after them all, the woman dyed also.
 33 Now in the resurreccion, whose wife shal she be of them For seuen had her to wife.
 34 And Iesus answered and saide vnto them: The childe of this worlde mary, & are maried,
 35 but they yt shalbe worthy to enioye that worlde and the resurreccion in the deed, shal nether mary ner be maried,
 36 for they can dye nomore. For they are like vnto the angels, and are the children of God, in so moch as they are children of the resurreccion.
 37 But that the deed ryse agayne, hath Moses also signified besydes the bush, when he called the LORDE, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob.
 38 But God is not a God of the deed but of the luyunge, for they luyue all vnto him.
 39 Then answered certayne of the scribes, and sayde: Master, thou haist sayde well.
 40 And from that tyme forth they durst axe him no mo questions.
 41 But he sayde vnto them: How saye they that Christ is Dauids sonne?
 42 And Dauid himself sayeth in the boke of the Psalmes: The LORDE sayde vnto my LORDE: Syt thou on my right honde,
 43 tyll I make thine enemies thy fote stoll.
 44 Dauid calleth him LORDE, how is he then his sonne?
 45 Now whyle all the people gaue audience, he sayde vnto his disciples:
 46 Bewarre of the scribes, which wyl go in longe garmentes, and loue to be saluted vpon the market, and desyre to syt hyest in the synagoges, and at the table.
 47 They deuoure wedowes houses and that vnder a couloure of longe prayenge: These shal receaue the greater danacion.

Chapter 21

1 And he loked vp, and behelde ye riche, how they put in their offerynges in to the Gods chest.
 2 He sawe also a poore wedowe, which put in two mytes,
 3 and he sayde: Verely I saye vnto you: This poore wedowe hath put in more the they all:
 4 For these all haue of their excesse put in vnto the offerynge of God, but she of hir pouerte hath put in all hir luyunge that she had.
 5 And wha some spake of the temple, that it was garnished with goodly stonnes and Iewels, he saide:
 6 The time shal come, wherin of all this that ye se, there shal not be left one stone vpon another, which shal not be broken downe.

7 They axed him, and sayde: Master, wha shal these be? and what shalbe the token, whan these shal come to passe?

8 He sayde: Take hede, that ye be not disceaused: For many shal come in my name, and saye, I am he, & the tyme is come hard by. Folowe them not.

9 But whan ye heare of warres and insurreccions, be not ye afrayed, for soch must come to passe, but the ende is not yet there so soone.

10 Then sayde he vnto them: One people shal ryse agaynst another, and one realme ageynst another, 11 & shal be greate earthquakes here and there, pestilence, and derth, and fearfull thinges. And greate tokes shal there be fro heaue.

12 But before all these, they shal laye handes vpon you, and persecute you, and delyuer you vp in to their synagoges and presons, and brynge you before kyniges & prynces for my names sake.

13 But this shal happen vnto you for a wytnesse.

14 Be at a poynt therfore in youre hertes, that ye take no thought, how ye shal answer:

15 for I wil geue you mouth & wyssdome, agaynst the which all youre aduersaries shal not be able to speake ner to resist.

16 But ye shal be delyuered vp euen of youre elders, brethren, kynnsfolkes and frendes, and some of you shal they put vnto death,

17 and ye shal be hated of euery man for my names sake,

18 and yet shal not one hayre of youre heade perishe.

19 Holde fast youre soules with pacience.

20 But whan ye shal se Ierusalem beseged with an hoost, then vnderstonde, that the desolacion of it is nye.

21 Then let them which be in Iewry, flye vnto the mountaynes: and let soch as be in the myddest therof, departe out: and let soch as be in the countrees, not come therin.

22 For these are the dayes of vengeance, that euery thinge which is wrytten, maye be fulfilled.

23 But wo vnto them that are with childe, and to them that geue sucke in those dayes: for there shalbe greate trouble vpon earth, and wrath ouer this people, and they shal fall thorow the edge of the swerde, and be led captiue amoge all nacions. And Ierusalem shalbe troden downe of the Heithen, vntyll the tyme of the Heithen be fulfilled.

25 And there shalbe tokens in the Sonne and Mone, and starres, and vpon earth the people shalbe in soch perplexite, that they shal not tell which waye to turne them selues. And the see and the waters shal roare, 26 and men shal pyne awaye for feare, and for lokyng after the thinges which shal come vpo earth. For euen the very powers of heauen shal moue.

27 And then shal they se the sonne of man comynge in the cloude with power and greate glory.

28 But whan these thinges begynne to come to passe, the loke vp, and lift vpp youre heades, for youre redempcion draweth nye.

29 And he tolde them a symilitude: Beholde the fygge tre, and all tre trees, 30 wha they now shute forth their buddes, ye se by them, and perceaue, that Sommer is now at hande.

31 So likewise ye, whan ye se all these thinges come to passe, be sure that the kyngdome of God is nye.

32 Verely I saye vnto you: This generacio shal not passe, tyll all be fulfilled.

33 Heauen and earth shal passe, but my wordes shal not passe.

34 But take hede vnto youre selues, that yor hertes be not ouerlade with excesse of eatinge and with dronkennes, and with takinge of thought for luyng, and so this daye come vpo you vnawares.

35 For as a snare shal it come on all them that dwell vpon earth.

36 Watch therfore cotynually, and praye, that ye maye be worthy to escape all this that shal come, & to stode before ye sonne of man.

37 And on the daye tyme he taught in the temple, but in the night season he wente out and abode all night vpon mount Oliuete.

38 And all the people gat them vp early vnto him in the temple, for to heare him.

Chapter 22

1 The feast of swete bred (which is called Easter) drue nye.

2 And ye hye prestes and Scrybes sought how they might put him to death, and were afrayed of the people.

3 But Satan was entred in to Iudas, named Iscarioth (which was of ye nombre of ye twolue)

4 and he wete his waye, and talked with the hye prestes and with ye officers, how he wolde betraye him vnto them.

5 And they were glad, and promysed to geue him money.

6 And he cosented, & sought oportunitie, yt he might betraye hi without eny rumoure.

7 Then came ye daye of swete bred, wherin the Easter lambe must be offered.

8 And he sent Peter and Ihon, and sayde: Go youre waye, prepare vs the Easter lambe, that we maye eate.

9 But they sayde vnto him: Where wilt thou, that we prepare it?

10 He saide vnto them: Beholde, wha ye come in to ye cite, there shal mete you a man, bearinge a pitcher of water, folowe him in to the house yt he entreth in,

11 and saye vnto the good man of the house: The master sendeth ye worde: Where is ye gesthouse, wherin I maye eate the Easter labe with my disciples?

12 And he shal shewe you a greate parlour paued.

13 They wente their waye, and founde as he had sayde vnto them, and made ready the Easter lambe.

14 And whan the houre came, he sat him downe, and the twolue Apostles with him, and he sayde vnto them: I haue hertely desyred to eate this Easter labe with you before I suffre.

16 For I saye vnto you: that hence forth I wil eate nomore therof, tyll it be fulfilled in the kyngdome of God.

17 And he toke the cuppe, gaue thanks, and sayde: Take this and deuyde it amonge you.

18 For I saye vnto you: I wil not drynke of the frute of ye vyne, vntyll the kyngdome of God come.

19 And he toke the bred, gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue it them, and sayde: This is my body, which shalbe geuen for you. This do in the remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cuppe, after they had supped, and sayde: This cuppe is the new Testamet in my bloude, which shalbe shed for you.

21 But lo, the hande of him that betrayeth me, is with me on the table.

22 And the sonne of man trulye goeth forth, as it is appoynted. But wo vnto that man, by whom he is betrayed.

23 And they beganne to axe amonge them selues, which of them it shulde be, that shulde do that.

24 There rose a strife also amoge the, which of them shulde be take for the greatest.

25 But he sayde vnto them: The kynges of ye worlde haue domynion ouer ye people, and they that beare rule ouer the, are called gracious lordes.

26 But ye shal not be so: But the greatest amonge you, shalbe as the yongest: and the chefast, as a seruauant.

27 For which is the greatest? he that sytteth at the table, or he that serueth? Is not he that sytteth at the table? But I am amoge you as a mynister.

28 As for you, ye are they, that haue bydde wt me in my temptacions.

29 And I wil appoynte the kyngdome vnto you, euen as my father hath appoynted me,

30 that ye maye eate and drynke at my table in my kyngdome, and syt vpon seates, and iudge the twolue trybes of Israel.

31 But the LORDE sayde: Simon Simon, beholde, Satan hath desyred after you, that he might siffte you euen as wheate:

32 but I haue prayed for ye, that thy faith fayle not. And whan thou art courted, strength thy brethren:

33 But he sayde vnto him: LORDE, I am ready to go with the into preson, and in to death.

34 Neuertheles he sayde: Peter, I saye vnto the: The cock shal not crowe this daye, tyll thou haue thryse denyed, yt thou knewest me.

35 And he sayde vnto them: Whan I sent you without wallet, without scryppe, and without shues, lacked ye eny thinge? They sayde: No.

36 Then sayde he vnto them: But now, he that hath a wallet, let him take it vp, likewise also the scryppe. But he that hath not, let him sell his coate, & bye a swerde.

37 For I saye vnto you: It must yet be fulfilled on me, that is wrytte: He was counted amonge the euell doers. For loke what is wrytten of me, it hath an ende.

38 But they sayde: LORDE, Beholde, here are two swerdes. He sayde vnto the: It is ynough.

39 And he wente out (as he was wonte) vnto mout Oliuete. But his disciples folowed him vnto the same place.

40 And whan he came thither, he sayde vnto the: Praye, that ye fall not in to teptacion.

41 And he gat him from them aboute a stones cast, and kneled downe, prayed, and sayde: Father, yf thou wilt, take awaye this cuppe fro me: Neuerthelesse, not my wyll, but thyne be fulfylled.

43 And there appeared vnto him an angell fro heauen, and confortd him.

44 And it came so, that he wrestled with death, and prayed the longer. And his sweate was like droppes of bloude, runnyng downe to the grounde.

45 And he rose vp fro prayer, and came to his disciples, and founde them slepinge for heuynesse, 46 and sayde vnto them: What, slepe ye? ryse vp and praye, that ye fall not into tentacion.

47 But whyle he yet spake, beholde, the multitude, and one of the twolue called Iudas wente before them, and he came nye vnto Iesus, and to kysse him.

48 But Iesus sayde vnto him: Iudas, betrayest thou the sonne of ma with a kysse?

49 Whan they that were aboute him, sawe what wolde folowe, they sayde vnto him: LORDE, shal we smyte with the swerde?

50 And one of the stroke a seruaut of ye hye prestes, & smote of his eare.

51 But Iesus answered, and sayde: Suffre the thus farre forth. And he touched his eare, & healed him.

52 And Iulius sayde vnto the prestes and rulers of the temple, and to the Elders that were come vnto him: Ye are come forth as it were to a murthurer with swerdes, & with staues.

53 I was daylie with you in the temple, and ye layed no handes vpon me. But this is youre houre, and the power of darknesse.

54 Neuerthelesse they toke him, and led him, and brought him in to the hye prestes house. As for Peter, he folowed hi a farre of.

55 Then kyndled they a fyre in the myddest of the palace, and sat them downe together. And Peter sat him downe amonge them.

56 Then a damself sawe him syttinge by the light, and behelde him well, and sayde vnto him: This same was also with him.

57 But he denyed him, and sayde: Woma, I knowe him not.

58 And after a litle whyle, another sawe him, and sayde: Thou art one of them also. But Peter sayde: Man, I am not.

59 And aboute the space of an houre after, another affirmed, & sayde: Verely this was with him also, for he is a Galilean.

60 But Peter saide: Ma, I wote not what thou sayest. And immediatly whyle he yet spake, ye cock crewe.

61 And the LORDE turned him aboute and loked vpo Peter. And Peter remembred the wordes of ye LORDE, how he sayde vnto him: Before the cock crowe, thou shalt denye me thrise.

62 And Peter wente out, and wepte bitterly.

63 The men that helde Iesus, mocked him, and stroke him,

64 blyndfolded him, and smote him on the face, and axed him, and sayde: Prophecie, who is it that smote the?

65 And many other blasphemies sayde they vnto hi.

66 And when it was daye, there gathered together the Elders of the people, the hie prestes and scribes, and led him vp before, their counsell, and sayde:

67 Art thou Christ? Tell vs. But he sayde vnto them: Yf I tell you, ye wyl not beleue:

68 But yf I axe you, ye wyl not answere me, nether wyl ye let me go.

69 From this tyme forth shal the sonne of man sytt at the right hade of the power of God.

70 Then sayde they all: Art thou then ye sonne of God? He sayde vnto them: Ye saye it, for I am.

71 They sayde: What nede we anye farther wytnesse? We oure selues haue herde it of his awne mouth.

Chapter 23

1 And the whole multitude of the arose, and led him vnto Pilate,

2 and begane to accuse him, and sayde: We haue founde this felowe peruertinge the people, and forbyddinge to geue trybute vnto the Emperoure, and sayeth, that he is Christ a kynge.

3 But Pilate axed him, and sayde: Art thou the kynge of the Iewes? He answered him, and sayde: Thou sayest it.

4 Pilate sayde vnto ye hie prestes and to the people: I fynde no cause in this man. 5 But they were the more fearce, and sayde: He hath moued the people, in that he hath taught here & there in all the londe of Iewry, and hath begonne at Galile vnto this place.

6 Whan Pilate herde mencion of Galile, he axed whether he were of Galile.

7 And whan he perceaued that he was vnder Herodes iurisdiccio he sent him to Herode, which was also at Ierusalem in those dayes.

8 When Herode sawe Iesus, he was exceedinge glad, for he had longe bene desyrous to se him: because he had herde moch of him, & hoped to se a miracle of hi.

9 And he axed him many thinges. Neuertheles he answered him nothinge.

10 The hie prestes and scribes stode, and accused him sore.

11 But Herode wt his men of warre despysed him, and mocked him, put a whyte garmet vpo him, and sent him agayne vnto Pilate.

12 Vpo ye same daye were Pilate and Herode made frendes together, for afore they had bene at variaunce.

13 Pilate called the hie prestes, and the rulers, and the people together,

14 and sayde vnto the: Ye haue brought this man vnto me, as one that peruerteth the people, and beholde, I haue examyned him before you, & fynde in the ma none of the causes, wherof ye accuse him:

15 Nor yet Herode: for I sent you to him, and beholde, there is brought vpon hi nothinge, that is worthy of death.

16 Therefore wil I chasten him, and let him lowse:

17 For he must haue let one lowse vnto them after the custome of the feast.

18 Then cried the whole multitude, and sayde: Away with him, and delyuer vnto vs Barrabas, 19 which for insurreccion made in the cite, and because of a murthur, was cast in to preson.

20 Then called Pilate vnto them agayne, & wolde haue let Iesus lowse.

21 But they cried, and sayde: Crucifye him, Crucifye him.

22 Yet sayde he vnto them, the thirde tyme: What euell the hath he done? I fynde no cause of death in hi, therefore wil I chasten him, and let him go.

23 But they laye styll vpon him with greate crye, and requyred yt he might be crucified. And the voyce of the and of the hie preastes preuayled.

24 And Pilate gaue sentence, that it shulde be as they requyred,

25 and let lowse vnto the, him, that for insurreccio and murthur was cast in to preson, whom they desyred, but gaue Iesus ouer vnto their wyll.

26 And as they led him awaye, they toke one Simon of Cyren (which came from the felde) and layed ye crosse vpon him, to beare it after Iesus.

27 And there folowed him a greate multitude of people and of women, which bewayled and lamented him.

28 But Iesus turned him aboute vnto the, and sayde: Ye daughters of Ierusalem, wepe not ouer me: but wepe ouer youre selues, and ouer youre childe.

29 For beholde, the tyme wil come, wherin it shal be sayde: Blessed are the baren, and the wombes that haue not borne, and the pappes that haue not geuen sucke.

30 Then shal they begynne to saye vnto the mountaynes: Fall vpon vs. And to the hylles: Couer vs.

31 For yf this be done to a grene tre, what shalbe done then to the drye?

32 And two other (which were myssdoers) were led out also, to be put to death with him.

33 And wha they came to ye place, which is called Caluery, they crucified him euen there, and the two myssdoers with him, the one on the righte hande, the other on ye left.

34 But Iesus sayde: Father, forgeue them, for they wote not what they do. And they parted his garmentes, and cast lottes therfore.

35 And the people stode and behelde. And the rulers mocked him with them, and sayde: He hath helped other, let him helpe him self now, yf he be Christ ye chosen of God.

36 The soudyers also mocked him, wete vnto him, & brought him vyneger, 37 and sayde: Yf thou be the kynge of the Iewes, then helpe thyself.

38 And aboute ouer him was this superscription wrytten with letters of Greke, Latyn, and Hebrue: This is the kynge of the Iewes.

39 And one of the myssdoers that hanged there, blasphemed him, and sayde: Yf thou be Christ, then helpe thy self and vs.

40 Then answered the other, rebuked him, and sayde: And thou fearest not God also, which art yet in like danacion.

41 And truly we are therin be right, for we receaue accordinge to oure dedes. As for this man, he hath done nothinge amysse.

42 And he sayde vnto Iesus: LORDE, remembre me, whan thou comest in to thy kyngdome.

43 And Iesus sayde vnto him: Verely I saye vnto the: To daye shalt thou be with me in Paradyse.

44 And it was aboute the sixte houre, and there was darknesse ouer ye whole londe vntyll the nyenth houre.

45 And the Sonne was darkened, and the vayle of the temple rente in two euen thorow the myddes.

46 And Iesus cryed loude, & sayde: Father, in to thy handes I commende my sprete. And whan he had so sayde, he gaue vp the goost.

47 But whan the Captayne sawe what had happened, he praysed God, and sayde: Verely this was a iust ma.

48 And all the people that stode by & behelde, whan they sawe what was done, smote vpon their brestes, & turned backe agayne.

49 But all his acquantaunce, and the women that had folowed him out of Galile, stode a farre of, and behelde all these thinges.

50 And beholde, a ma named Ioseph, a Senatour, which was a good iust man,

51 the same had not consented vnto their counsell, and dede, which was of Arimathia a cite of the Iewes, which same also wayted for the kyngdome of God:

52 he wete vnto Pilate, and axed the body of Iesus.

53 And the toke him downe, wrapped him in a linnen cloth, and layed him in a hewen sepulcre, wherin neuer man was layed.

54 And it was the daye of preparinge, and the Sabbath drue on.

55 The women that were come with him out of Galile, folowed him, and behelde the Sepulcre, & how his body was layed. 56 But they returned, and made ready the spyces & anontmetes. And vpon the Sabbath they rested, accordinge to the lawe.

Chapter 24

1 Bvt vpon one of the Sabbathes very early in the mornyng, they came vnto the Sepulcre, and brought ye spyces which they had prepared, and certayne wemen with the.

2 Neuertheles they founde the stone rolled awaye from the sepulcre, 3 and wente in, and founde not the body of ye LORDE Iesu.

4 And it happened as they were amased therat, beholde, there stode by them two men in shyninge garmentes.

5 And they were afrayed, and cast downe their faces to the earth. Then sayde they vnto the: What seke ye? the luyunge amoge the deed?

6 He is not here. He is rysen vp. Remembre, how yt he tolde you wha he was yet in Galile,

7 and sayde: The sonne of man must be delyuered in to the hades of synners, and be crucified, and the thirde daye ryse agayne.

8 And they remebred his wordes, 9 and wente from the sepulcre, and tolde all this vnto the eleuen, and to all the other.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and Iohanna, and Mary Iames, and the other with them, that tolde this vnto the Apostles.

11 And theyr wordes semed vnto them, as though they had bene but fables, and they beleued them not.

12 But Peter arose, and ranne to the sepulcre, and stouped in, and sawe the linnen clothes layed by them selues, and departed. And he wondred within himself at that which had happened.

13 And beholde, two of them wente that same daye, to a towne (which was thre score furloges from Ierusalem) whose name was called Emaus.

14 And they talked together of all these thinges yt had happened.

15 And it chaunced as they were thus talkinge and reasonyng together, Iesus himself drue nye, and wente with them.

16 But their eyes were holden, that they shulde not knowe hi.

17 And he sayde vnto them: What maner of comunicacions are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 Then answered the one, whose name was Cleophas, and sayde vnto him: Art thou onely a straunger at Ierusalem, not knowinge what is come to passe there in these dayes?

19 And he sayde vnto the: What? They sayde vnto him: That of Iesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet, mightie in dede and worde, before God and all ye people, 20 how oure hie prestes and rulers delyuered him to the condemnacion of death, and crucified him.

21 But we hoped that he shulde haue delyuered Israel. And besydes all this, todaye is the thirde daye that this was done.

22 Yee & certayne wemen also of oure company which were early at the Sepulchre, 23 and founde not his body, came and tolde, that they had sene a visio of angels, which sayde he was alyue.

24 And certayne of them that were with vs, wente vnto the sepulchre, and founde it euen so as ye weme sayde, but hi founde they not.

25 And he sayde vnto the: O ye fooles and slowe of hert to beleue all that the prophetes haue spoke?

26 Ought not Christ to haue suffred these thinges, and to entre in to his glory?

27 And he beganne at Moses and at all the prophetes, and expounded vnto them all the scriptures, that were spoken of him.

28 And they drue nye vnto the towne, which they wete vnto, and he made as though he wolde haue gone farther.

29 And they compelled him, and sayde: Abyde with vs, for it draweth towardes night, and the daye is farre passed. And he wente in to tary with the.

30 And it came to passe whan he sat at the table with the, he toke the bred, gaue thanks, brake it, and gaue it them.

31 Then were their eyes opened, and they knewe him. And he vanysed out of their sight.

32 And they sayde, betwene the selues: Dyd not oure hert burne with in vs, whan he talked with vs by the waye, whyle he opened the scriptures vnto vs?

33 And they rose vp the same houre, turned agayne to Ierusalem, and founde ye eleue gathered together, and them that were with them, which 34 sayde: The LORDE is rysen of a truth, and hath appeared vnto Symon.

35 And they tolde the what had happened by ye waye, and how they knewe him in breakynge of the bred.

36 But whyle they were talkynge therof, Iesus himself stode in the myddes amonge the, and sayde: Peace be with you.

37 But they were abashed and afrayed, supposinge that they had sene a sprete.

38 And he saide vnto the: Why are ye abashed? & wherfore ryse there soch thoughtes in yor hertes?

39 Beholde my hades & my fete, it is euen I my self. Handle me, and se, for a sprete hath not flesh and bones, as ye se me haue.

40 And whan he had thus spoke, he shewed the his hodes and his fete.

41 But whyle they yet beleued not for ioye and wondred, he sayde vnto them: Haue ye eny thinge here to eate?

42 And they set before him a pece of a broyled fish, and an hony combe.

43 And he toke it, and ate it before the.

44 And he sayde vnto them: These are the wordes, which I spake vnto you, whyle I was yet with you. For it must all be fulfilled that was wrytten of me in the lawe of Moses, in the prophetes, & in the Psalmes.

45 The opened he their vnderstandinge, that they might vnderstonde the scriptures,

46 and sayde vnto them: Thus is it wrytte, and thus it behoued Christ to suffre, & the thirde daye to ryse agayne fro the deed,

47 and to let repentaunce and remyssion, of synnes be preached in his name amoge all nacions, and to begynne at Ierusalem.

48 As for all these thinges, ye are wytnesses of the.

49 And beholde, I wil sende vpon you the promes of my father: but ye shal tary in the cite of Ierusalem, tyll ye be endewed with power from aboue.

50 But he led them out vnto Bethany, and lift vp his handes, and blessed them.

51 And it came to passe wha he blessed them, he departed from them, and was caried vp in to heauen.

52 And they worshipped him, and turned agayne to Ierusalem with greate ioye:

53 and were contynnally in ye teple, geuyng prayse and thankes vnto God. Amen.

JOHN

Chapter 1

1 In the begynnynge was the worde, and the worde was with God, and God was ye worde.

2 The same was in the begynnynge wt God.

3 All thinges were made by the same, and without the same was made nothynge that was made.

4 In him was the life, and the life was the light of men:

5 and the light shyneth in the darknesse, and the darknesse comprehended it not.

6 There was sent from God a man, whose name was Ihon.

7 The same came for a witnesse, to beare wytnesse of ye light, that thorow him they all might beleue.

8 He was not that light, but that he might beare witnesse of ye light.

9 That was the true light, which lighteth all men, that come in to this worlde.

10 He was in the worlde, & the worlde was made by him, and ye worlde knewe him not.

11 He came in to his awne, and his awne receaued him not.

12 But as many as receaued him, to them gaue he power to be the children of God: euen soch as beleue in his name.

13 Which are not borne of bloude, ner of the wyl of the flesh, ner of the wyl of man, but of God.

14 And the worde became flesh, and dwelt amonge vs: and we sawe his glory, a glory as of the onely begotte sonne of the father, full of grace and trueth.

15 Ihon bare wytnesse of him, cryed, and sayde: It was this, of whom I spake: After me shal he come, that was before me, For he was or euer I:

16 and of his fulnesse haue all we receaued grace for grace.

17 For the lawe was geuen by Moses, grace and trueth came by Iesus Christ.

18 No man hath sene God at eny tyme. The onely begotte sonne which is in the bosome of the father, he hath declared the same vnto vs.

19 And this is the recorde of Ihon, whan the Iewes sent prestes and Leuites fro Ierusalem, to axe him: Who art thou?

20 And he confessed and denyed not. And he confessed, and sayde: I am not Christ.

21 And they axed him: What the? Art thou Elias? He sayde: I am not. Art thou the Prophet? And he answered: No.

22 Then sayde they vnto him: What art thou the, yt we maye geue answere vnto the that sent vs? What sayest thou of yi self?

23 He sayde: I am ye voyce of a cryer in the wyldernesse. Make straight ye waye of the LORDE. As ye prophet Esay sayde:

24 And they that were sent, were of ye Pharises.

25 And they axed him, & sayde vnto him: Why baptysest thou then, yf thou be not Christ, ner Elias, ner a prophet?

26 Ihon answered them, and sayde: I baptyse with water, but there is one come in amonge you, whom ye knowe not.

27 It is he that cometh after me, which was before me: whose shue lachtet I am not worthy to vnlowse.

28 This was done at Bethabara beyonde Iordane, where Ihon dyd baptyse.

29 The nexte daye after, Ihon sawe Iesus commynge vnto him, and sayde: Beholde the labe of God, which taketh awaye the synne of the worlde.

30 This is he, of whom I sayde vnto you: After me commeth a man, which was before me. For he was or euer I, 31 and I knewe him not: but that he shulde be declared in Israel, therfore am I come to baptyse with water.

32 And Ihon bare recorde, & sayde: I sawe the sprete descende from heauen like vnto a doue, and abode vpon him, 33 & I knewe him not. But he that sent me to baptyse with water, ye same sayde vnto me: Vpon whom thou shalt se the sprete descende and tary styll on him, the same is he, that baptyseth with the holy goost.

34 And I sawe it, and bare recorde, that this is the sonne of God.

35 The nexte daye after, Ihon stode agayne, and two of his disciples.

36 And wha he sawe Iesus walkynge, he sayde: Beholde the labe of God.

37 And two of his disciples herde him speake, and folowed Iesus.

38 And Iesus turned him aboute, and sawe them folowynge, and sayde vnto the: What seke ye? They sayde vnto him: Rabbi, (which is to saye by interpretacion, Master.) Where art thou at lodgynge?

39 He sayde vnto them: Come and se it. They came and sawe it, & abode with him the same daye. It was aboute the tenth houre.

40 One of the two, which herde Ihon speake, and folowed Iesus, was Andrew the brother of Symon Peter:

41 the same founde first his brother Symon, and sayde vnto him: We haue founde Messias (which is by interpretacion, ye Anoynted)

42 and brought him to Iesus. Whan Iesus behelde him, he sayde: Thou art Symon the sonne of Ionas, thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretacion, a stone.

43 The nexte daye after, wolde Iesus go agayne in to Galile, and founde Philippe, and sayde vnto him: Folowe me.

44 Philippe was of Bethsaida the cite of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philippe founde Nathanael, and sayde vnto him: We haue founde him, of who Moses in the lawe, and ye prophetes haue wrytten, euen Iesus the sonne of Ioseph of Nazareth.

46 And Nathanaell sayde vnto him: What good can come out of Nazareth? Philippe sayde vnto him: Come, and se.

47 Iesus sawe Nathanael comynge to him, and sayde of him: Beholde, a righte Israelite, in whom is no gyle.

48 Nathanael sayde vnto him: From whence knowest thou me? Iesus answered, and sayde vnto him: Before yt Philippe called the, whan thou wast vnder the fygge tre, I sawe the.

49 Nathanaell answered, and sayde vnto hi: Rabbi, thou art ye sonne of God, thou art ye kyng of Israel.

50 Iesus answered, & sayde vnto him: Because I sayde vnto the, that I sawe the vnder the fygge tre, thou beleuest: thou shalt se yet greater thinges the these.

51 And he sayde vnto him: Verely verely I saye vnto you: Fro this tyme forth shal ye se the heauen open, and the angels of God goynge vp & downe ouer the sonne of man.

Chapter 2

1 And vpon the thirde daye there was a mariage at Cana in Galile, and the mother of Iesus was there.

2 Iesus also and his disciples was called vnto ye mariage.

3 And whan the wyne fayled, the mother of Iesus saide vnto him: They haue no wyne.

4 Iesus sayde vnto her: Woma, what haue I to do wt the? Myne houre is not yet come.

5 His mother sayde vnto ye mynisters: Whatsoeuer he sayeth vnto you, do it.

6 There were set there sixe water pottes of stone, after ye maner of the purifieng of ye Iewes, euery one coteyninge two or thre measures.

7 Iesus sayde vnto the: Fyll the water pottes with water. And they fylled the vp to ye brymme.

8 And he sayde vnto the: Drawe out now, & brynge vnto the Master of the feast. And they bare it.

9 Wha the master of ye feast had taisted ye wyne which had bene water, and knewe not whence it came (but the mynisters that drue ye water, knewe it) the Master of the feast called the brydegrome,

10 and sayde vnto him: Euery man at the first geueth the good wyne: & whan they are dronken, the that which is worse. But thou hast kepte backe the good wyne vntyll now.

11 This is the first token that Iesus dyd at Cana in Galile, and shewed his glory, and his disciples beleued on him.

12 Afterwarde wente he downe to Capernaum, he, his mother, his brethre, and his disciples, and taried not longe there.

13 And the Iewes Easter was at hande. And Iesus wete vp to Ierusalem, 14 and founde syttinge in the teple, those that solde oxen, shepe, and doues, and chaungers of money.

15 And he made a scourge of small cordes, and droue them all out of the teple with the shepe and oxen, and poured out the chaungers money, and ouerthrewe the tables,

16 and sayde vnto them that solde the doues: Hauē these thinges hece, and make not my fathers house an house of marchaundyse.

17 His disciples remembred it, that is wrytten: The zele of thine house hath euen eaten me.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and sayde vnto him: What token shewest thou vnto vs, that thou mayest do these thinges?

19 Iesus answered & sayde vnto the: Breake downe this temple, and in thre dayes wil I set it vp agayne.

20 Then sayde the Iewes: Sixe and fourtyeare was this temple abyldinge, and wilt thou set it vp in thre dayes?

21 But he spake of ye teple of his body. 22 Now wha he was rysen agayne from the deed, his disciples remembred that he thus sayde, and they beleued the scripture, and the wordes which Iesus spake.

23 Wha he was at Ierusalem at Easter in ye feast, many beleued on his name, whan they sawe ye tokes yt he dyd.

24 But Iesus comytte not himself vnto the, for he knewe the all,

25 & neded not yt eny ma shulde testifye of man, for he knewe well what was in man.

Chapter 3

1 There was a man of the Pharises, named Nicodemus a ruler amoge the Iewes.

2 The same came vnto Iesus by night, & sayde vnto hi: Master, we knowe yt thou art come a teacher fro God: for no ma can do these tokes yt thou doest, excepte God be with him.

3 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto him: Verely verely I saye vnto the: Excepte a man be borne a new, he can not se the kyngdome of God.

4 Nicodemus sayde vnto him: How can a man be borne, whan he is olde? Can he entre into his mothers wombe, and be borne agayne?

5 Iesus answered: Verely verely I saye vnto the: Excepte a ma be borne of water and of the sprete, he can not come in to ye kyngdome of God.

6 That which is borne of flesh, is flesh: & that which is borne of the sprete, is sprete.

7 Maruell not, that I sayde vnto ye: Ye must be borne of new.

8 The wynde bloweth where he wyl, and thou hearest his sounde: but thou canst not tell whece he commeth, and whither he goeth. So is euery one, that is borne of the sprete.

9 Nicodemus answered, and sayde vnto him: How maye these be?

10 Iesus answered, & sayde vnto hi: Art thou a Master in Israel, & knowest not these?

11 Verely I saye vnto ye: We speake that we knowe, and testifie that we haue sene, and ye receaue not oure wytnesse.

12 Yf ye beleue not whan I tell you of earthly thinges, how shulde ye beleue, wha I speake vnto you of heauenly thinges?

13 And no man ascendeth vp in to heauen, but he that is come downe from heaue, (namely) the sonne of man which is in heauen.

14 And like as Moses lift vp the serpent in the wyldernes, euen so must the sonne of man be lift vp.

15 that who so euer beleueth in him, shulde not perish, but haue euerlastinge life.

16 For God so loued the worlde, that he gaue his onely sonne, that who so euer beleueth in hi, shulde not perishe, but haue euerlastinge life.

17 For God sent not his sonne in to ye worlde to condempne the worlde, but that the worlde might be saued by him.

18 He that beleueth on him, shal not be codemned. But he that beleueth not, is codemned already: because he beleueth not on the name of the onely sonne of God.

19 But this is ye codempnacion, that the light is come in to the worlde, and men loued the darknesse more the ye light: for their workes were euell.

20 Whosoeuer doth euell, hateth the light, and cometh not to the light, that his dedes shulde not be reprobud.

21 But he that doth the trueth, commeth to the light, that his workes maye be knowne: for they are done in God.

22 Afterwarde came Iesus & his disciples in to the lode of Iewry, and had his beyng there with them, and baptysed

23 Ihon baptysed also in Enon besyde Salem: for there was moch water there. And they came thither, and were baptysed:

24 for Iohn was not yet put in preson.

25 Then arose there a question amonge the disciples of Ihon with the Iewes aboute the purifienge,

26 and they came vnto Ihon, and sayde vnto him: Master, he yt was with the beynde Iordan, of whom thou barest wytnesse, beholde, he baptyseth, and euery man cometh vnto him.

27 Ihon answered and sayde: A man can receaue nothings, excepte it be geuen him from heaue.

28 Ye youre selues are my witnesses, how that I sayde, I am not Christ, but am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bryde, is the brydegrome: but the frende of the brydegrome stondest, and herkeneth vnto him, and reioyseth greatly ouer the voyce of the brydegrome, this same ioye of myne is now fulfilled.

30 He must increace, but I must decreace.

31 He that commeth from an hye, is aboute all. He that is of the earth, is earthly, and speaketh of the earth. He that commeth fro heauen, is aboute all, 32 and testifieth what he hath sene & herde, and no man receaueh his wytnesse.

33 But he that receaueh it, hath set to his seale, that God is true.

34 For he who God hath sent, speaketh ye wordes of God: for God geueth not the sprete (vnto him) by measure.

35 The father loueth the sonne, and hath geuen him all thinges in to his hande.

36 He that beleueth on the sonne, hath euerlastinge life: he that beleueth not the sonne, shal not se the life, but ye wrath of God abydeh vpon him.

Chapter 4

1 Now whan Iesus had knowlege, yt it was come to the eares of the Pharises, that Iesus made and baptised mo disciples the Ihon

2 (howbeit Iesus himself baptysed not, but his disciples)

3 he left the lode of Iewry, and departed agayne in to Galile.

4 But he must nedes go thorow Samaria.

5 Then came he in to a cite of Samaria, called Sichar, nye vnto ye pece of lode, yt Iacob gaue vnto Ioseph his sonne.

6 And there was Iacobs well. Now whan Iesus was weerye of his iourney, he satt hi downe so vpo the well. And it was aboute the sixte houre.

7 Then came there a woman of Samaria to drawe water. Iesus sayde vnto her: Geue me drynke.

8 (For his disciples were gone their waye in to ye cite, to bye meate.)

9 So the woman of Samaria sayde vnto him: How is it that thou axest drynke of me, seyng thou art a Iewe, and I a woman of Samaria? For the Iewes medle not with the Samaritans.

10 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto her: Yf thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that sayeth vnto the, geue me drynke, thou woldest axe of him, and he wolde geue the, the water of life.

11 The woman sayde vnto him: Syr, thou hast nothings to drawe withall, and the well is depe, from whence hast thou then that water of life?

12 Art thou greater then oure father Iacob, which gaue vs this well? And he himself dranke therof, and his children, and his catell.

13 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto her: Who so euer drynkeh of this water, shal thurst agayne:

14 But whosoeuer shal drynke of the water that I shal geue him, shal neuer be more a thurst: but the water that I shal geue him, shalbe in him a well of water, which spryngeh vp in to euerlastinge life.

15 The woman sayde vnto him: Syr, geue me that same water, that I thurst not, nether nede to come hither to drawe.

16 Iesus sayde vnto her: Go, call they hussbande, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, and sayde vnto him: I haue no hussbande.

18 Iesus sayde vnto her: Thou hast sayde well, I haue no hussbande: for thou hast had fyue hussbandes, and he whom thou hast now, is not thine hussbande: there saydest thou right.

19 The woma sayde vnto him: Syr, I se, that thou art a prophet.

20 Oure fathers worshipped vpon this mountayne, and ye saye, that at Ierusalem is the place, where men ought to worshippe.

21 Iesus sayde vnto her: Woman, beleue me, the tyme commeth, that ye shal nether vpon this mountayne ner at Ierusalem worshippe the father.

22 Ye wote not what ye worshippe, but we knowe what ye worshippe, for Saluacion commeth of the Iewes.

23 But the tyme commeth, and is now already, that the true worshippers shal worshippe the father in sprete and in the trueth: For the father wil haue soch so to worshippe him.

24 God is a sprete, and they that worshippe him, must worshippe in sprete and in the trueth.

25 The woma sayde vnto him: I wote that Messias shal come, which is called Christ. Whan he commeth, he shal tell vs all thinges.

26 Iesus sayde vnto her: I that speake vnto the, am he.

27 And in the meane season came his disciples, and they marueyled that he talked with the woman. Yet sayde no man: What axest thou, or what talkest thou with her?

28 Then the woman let hir pot stonde, and wente in to the cite, and sayde vnto the people:

29 Come, se a man, which hath tolde me all that euer I dyd, Is not he Christ?

30 Then wente they out of the cite, and came vnto him:

31 In the meane whyle his disciples prayed him, and sayde: Master, eate.

32 But he sayde vnto them: I haue meate to eate, that ye knowe not of 33 Then sayde the disciples amoge them selues: Hath eny man brought him meate?

34 Iesus sayde vnto the: My meate is this, that I do the wyll of him that sent me, and to fynish his worke.

35 Saye not ye youre selues: There are yet foure monethes, and then commeth the haruest? Beholde, I saye vnto you: lift vp youre eyes, and loke vpon the felde, for it is whyte allready vnto the haruest.

36 And he that reapeth, receaueth rewarde, and gathereth frute to euerlastinge life, that both he that soweth and he that reapeth, maye reioyse together.

37 For herin is the prouerbe true: One soweth, another reapeth.

38 I haue sent you to reape that, wheron ye bestowed no laboure. Other haue laboured, and ye are come in to their laboures.

39 Many Samaritans of the same cite beleued on him, for the sayenge of the woman, which testified: He hath tolde me all that euer I dyd.

40 Now when the Samaritans came to him, they besought him, that he wolde tary with them. And he abode there two dayes,

41 and many mo beleued because of his worde,

42 and sayde vnto the woman: We beleue now hence forth, not because of thy sayenge, we haue herde him oureselues, and knowe, that this of a trueth is Christ the Sauioure of the worlde.

43 After two dayes he departed thence, and wente in to Galile.

44 For Iesus himself testified, that a prophet is nothinge set by at home.

45 Now wha he came in to Galile, the Galileas receaued him, which had sene all that he dyd at Ierusalem in the feast: for they also were come thither in the feast.

46 And Iesus came agayne vnto Cana in Galile, where he turned the water vnto wyne. And there was a certayne ruler, whose sonne laye sicke at Capernaum.

47 This herde that Iesus came out of Iewry in to Galile, and wente vnto him, and besought him, that he wolde come downe, and helpe his sonne, for he laye deed sicke.

48 And Iesus sayde vnto him: Excepte ye se tokens and wonders, ye beleue not.

49 The ruler sayde vnto him: Come downe Syr, or euer my childe dye.

50 Iesus sayde vnto him: Go thy waye, thy sonne lyueth. The man beleued the worde, that Iesus sayde vnto him, and wente his waye.

51 And as he was goinge downe, his seruantes mett him, and tolde him, and sayde: Thy childe lyueth.

52 Then enquiryed he of them the houre, wherin he beganne to amende. And they sayde vnto him: Yesterdaye aboute the seuenth houre the feuer left him.

53 Then the father perceaued, that it was aboute the same houre, wherin Iesus sayde vnto him: Thy sonne lyueth. And he beleued with his whole house.

54 This is now the seconde token that Iesus dyd, whan he came from Iewry in to Galile.

Chapter 5

1 Afterwarde, there was a feast of the Iewes, and Iesus wente vpto Ierusalem.

2 There is at Ierusalem by the slaughter house a pole, which in Hebrue is called Bethseda, & hath fyue porches,

3 wherin laye many sicke, blynde, lame, wythred, which wayted, whan the water shulde moue.

4 For the angell wente downe at his tyme in to the pole, and stered the water. Who so euer now wente downe first, after that the water was stered, ye same was made whole, what soeuer disease he had.

5 And there was a man, which had Iyen sicke eight and thirtie yeares.

6 Whan Iesus sawe him lye, & knewe that he had Iyen so longe, he saide vnto him: Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The sicke answered him: Syr, I haue no man, whan the water is moued, to put me in to the pole. And whan I come, another steppeth downe in before me.

8 Iesus sayde vnto him: Aryse, take vp thy bed, and go thy waye.

9 And immediatly the man was made whole, and toke vp his bed and wente his waye. But vpon the same daye it was the Sabbath.

10 Then sayde the Iewes vnto him that was made whole: To daye is ye Sabbath, it is not lauffull for the to cary the bed.

11 He answered them: He that made me whole, sayde vnto me: Take vp thy bed, and go yi waye.

12 Then axed they him: What man is that, which sayde vnto the: Take vp thy bed, and go yi waye?

13 But he that was healed, wyst not who he was: for Iesus had gotte him self awaye, because there was moch people.

14 Afterwarde founde Iesus him in the teple, and sayde vnto him: Beholde, thou art made whole, synne no more, lest a worse thinge happen vnto the.

15 The ma departed, and tolde the Iewes, that it was Iesus, which had made hi whole.

16 Therfore dyd ye Iewes persecute Iesus, and sought to slaye him, because he had done this vpo ye Sabbath.

17 But Iesus answered them: My father worketh hither to, and I worke also.

18 Therfore sought the Iewes the more to slaye hi: because he brake not onely ye Sabbath, but saide also, that God was his father, and made him self equall with God.

19 The answered Iesus, and sayde vnto them: Verely verely I saye vnto you: The sonne can do nothinge of himself, but that he seyth the father do. For what soeuer he doeth, that doeth ye sonne also.

20 The father loueth the sonne, & sheweth him all that he doth, and wyll shewe him yet greater workes, so that ye shal marueyle.

21 For as the father rayseth vp the deed, and maketh them lyue, eue so the sonne also maketh lyuynge whom he wyll.

22 For the father iudgeth no man, but hath geuen all iudgmet vnto the sonne, 23 that they all might honoure the sonne, euen as they honoure ye father. Who so honoureth not the sonne, the same honoureth not the father, which hath sent him.

24 Verely verely I saye vnto you: Who so heareth my worde, and beleueth him that sent me, hath euerlastinge life, and cometh not in to damnacion, but is passed thorow from death vnto life.

25 Verely verely I saye vnto you: The houre cometh, & is now allready, yt the deed shal heare ye voyce of ye sonne of God: and they that heare it, shal lyue.

26 For as the father hath life in him self, so likewise hath he geuen vnto the sonne, to haue life in himself:

27 & hath geue hi power also to execute iudgmet because he is the sonne of ma.

28 Maruayle not ye at this: for ye houre cometh, in ye which all that are in ye graues, shal heare his voyce, 29 and shal go forth, they that haue done good, vnto the resurreccion of life: but they that haue done euell, vnto the resurreccion of damnacion.

30 I can do nothinge of my self. As I heare, so I iudge: & my iudgmet is iust. For I seke not myne owne wyll, but the wyll of the father which hath sent me.

31 Yf I beare wytnesse of my self, my wytnesse is not true.

32 There is another that beareth wytnesse of me, and I am sure, that the wytnesse which he beareth of me, is true.

33 Ye sent vnto Ihon, and he bare wytnes of the truth.

34 As for me, I take no recorde of ma, but these thinges I saye, that ye might be saued.

35 He was a burnynge and shyninge light, but ye wolde haue reioysed a litle whyle in his light.

36 Neuertheles I haue a greater wytnesse then the wytnesse of Ihon. For the workes which the father hath geue me to fynish, the same workes which I do, beare wytnesse of me, that the father hath sent me.

37 And ye father him self which hath sent me, beareth wytnesse of me. Ye haue nether herde his voyce at eny tyme, ner sene his shappe:

38 and his worde haue ye not abydinge in you, for ye beleue not him, whom he hath sent.

39 Searche the scripture, for ye thinke ye haue euerlastinge life therin: and the same is it that testifyeth of me, 40 and ye wil not come vnto me, that ye might haue life.

41 I receaue not prayse of men.

42 But I knowe you, that ye haue not the loue of God in you.

43 I am come in my fathers name, and ye receaue me not. Yf another shal come in his awne name, him wil ye receaue.

44 How can ye beleue which receaue prayse one of another, and seke not the prayse, that is of God onely?

45 Ye shal not thinke that I wyll accuse you before ye father: there is one yt accuseth you, euen Moses, in who ye trust.

46 Yf ye beleued Moses, ye shulde beleue me also: For he hath wrytte of me.

47 But yf ye beleue not his wrytynge, how shal ye beleue my wordes?

Chapter 6

1 After this wente Iesus ouer the see vnto the cite Tiberias in Galilee.

2 And moch people folowed him, because they sawe the tokens that he dyd vpon the which were diseased.

3 But Iesus wete vp in to a mountayne, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 And Easter ye feast of the Iewes was nye.

5 Then Iesus lift vp his eyes, and sawe yt there came moch people vnto him, and he sayde vnto Philippe: Whence shal we bye bred, yt these maye eate?

6 But this he sayde to proue him, for he himself knewe, what he wolde do.

7 Philippe answered him: Two hundreth peny worth of bred is not ynough amonge the, yt euery one maye take a litle.

8 The sayde vnto hi one of his disciples, Andrew ye brother of Symo Peter:

9 There is a lad here, yt hath fyue barlye loaues, and two fishes, but what is that amoge so many?

10 Iesus sayde: Make the people syt downe. There was moch grasse in the place. Then they sat the downe, aboute a fyue thousande men.

11 Iesus toke the loaues, thanked, and gae them to the disciples: the disciples (gae) to them that were set downe. Likewise also of the fishes as moch as they wolde.

12 Whan they were fylled, he sayde vnto his disciples: Gather vp the broken meate that remaineth, that nothinge be lost.

13 The they gathered, and fylled twolue baskettes with the broke meate, that remainyed of the fyue barlye loaues, vnto them which had eaten.

14 Now whan the men sawe the token yt Iesus dyd, they saide: This is of a trueth the Prophet, yt shulde come into the worlde.

15 Whan Iesus now perceaued that they wolde come, and take him vp, to make him kynge, he gat him awaye agayne in to a mountayne himself alone.

16 At euen wente his disciples downe to ye see,

17 and entred in to the shippe, and came to the other syde of ye see vnto Capernaum. And it was darcke allready. And Iesus was not come to the.

18 And ye see arose thorow a greate wynde.

19 Now whan they had rowed vpo a fyue and twetie or thirtie furlonges, they sawe Iesus goinge vpon the see, and came nye to the shippe. And they were afrayed.

20 But he sayde vnto them: It is I, be not afrayed.

21 Then wolde they haue receaued him in to ye shippe. And immediatly ye shippe was at the londe whither they wente.

22 The nexte daye after, the people which stode on the other syde of the see, sawe that there was none other shippe there saue that one, wherin to his disciples were entred: and that Iesus wete not in with his disciples in to the shippe, but yt his disciples were gone awiae alone.

23 Howbeit there came other shippes from Tiberias, nye vnto ye place where they had eate the bred, after yt the LORDE had geuen thanks.

24 Now whan the people sawe that Iesus was not there, nether his disciples, they toke shippe also, and came to Capernaum, and sought Iesus.

25 And whan they founde him on the other syde of the see, they sayde vnto him: Master, whan camest thou hither?

26 Iesus answered the, & sayde: Verely verely I saye vnto you: Ye seke me not because ye sawe ye tokens, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were fylled.

27 Laboure not for the meate which perisheth but yt endureth vnto euerlastinge life, which the sonne of ma shal geue you: For him hath God the father sealed.

28 The sayde they vnto him: What shal we do, that we maye worke ye workes of God?

29 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto the: This is the worke of God, that ye beleue on him, whom he hath sent.

30 Then sayde they vnto him: What token doest thou the, that we maye se and beleue ye? What workest thou?

31 Oure fathers ate Mana in the wyldernesse, as it is wrytte: He gaue the bred fro heauen to eate.

32 Then sayde Iesus vnto the: Verely verely I saye vnto you: Moses gaue you not bred from heaue, but my father geueth you the true bred from heauen:

33 For this is that bred of God, which commeth from heauen, and geueth life vnto the worlde.

34 The sayde they vnto him: Syr, geue vs allwaye soch bred.

35 But Iesus sayde vnto the: I am yt bred of life. He that cometh vnto me, shal not huger: & he that beleueth on me, shal neuer thirst.

36 But I haue sayde vnto you, yt ye haue sene me, and yet ye beleue not.

37 All that my father geueth me, cometh vnto me: and who so cometh vnto me, him wyl not I cast out:

38 For I am come downe from heaue, not to do myne awne wyll, but the wyll of him that hath sent me.

39 This is ye will of the father, which hath sent me, that of all that he hath geue me, I shulde lose nothinge, but shulde rayse it vp agayne at the last daye.

40 This is the wyl of him which hath sent me, that, who soeuer seyth the sonne and beleueth on him, haue euerlastinge life, and I shal rayse him vp at the last daye.

41 The murmured the Iewes ther ouer, that he sayde: I am yt bred which is come downe from heaue, 42 and they sayde: Is not this Iesus, Iosephs sonne, whose father and mother we knowe? How sayeth he then, I am come downe from heauen?

43 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them: Murmur not amonge youre selues.

44 No man can come vnto me, excepte the father which hath sent me, drawe him. And I shal rayse him vp at the last daye.

45 It is wrytten in the prophetes: They shal all be taught of God. Who so euer now heareth it of the father, and lerneth it, commeth vnto me.

46 Not that eny man hath sene the father, saue he which is of the father, the same hath sene the father.

47 Verely verely I saye vnto you: He that beleueth on me, hath euerlastinge life.

48 I am that bred of life.

49 Yourre fathers ate Manna in the wyldernes, and are deed.

50 This is that bred which commeth from heauen, that who so eateth therof, shulde not dye.

51 I am that luyunge bred, which came downe fro heauen: Who so eateth of this bred, shal lyue for euer. And the bred that I wil geue, is my flesh which I wil geue for ye life of the worlde.

52 Then stroue the Iewes amonge them selues, and sayde: How ca this folowe geue vs his flesh to eate?

53 Iesus sayde vnto the: Verely verely I saye vnto you: Excepte ye eate ye flesh of ye sonne of man and drynke his bloude, ye haue no life in you.

54 Who so eateth my flesh, and drynketh my bloude, hath euerlastinge life: and I shal rayse him vp at the last daye.

55 For my flesh is ye very meate, and my bloude is ye very drynke.

56 Who so eateth my flesh, and drynketh my bloude, abydeth in me, and I in him.

57 As the luyunge father hath sent me, and I lyue for the fathers sake: Euen so he that eateth me, shall lyue for my sake.

58 This is ye bred which is come fro heauen: Not as youre fathers ate Manna, and are deed. He that eateth of this bred, shal lyue for euer.

59 These thinges sayde he in the synagoge, wha he taught at Capernaum.

60 Many now of his disciples that herde this, sayde: This is an harde sayenge, who maye abyde the hearynge of it?

61 But whan Iesus perceaued in hi self, that his disciples murmured ther at he sayde vnto them: Doth this offende you?

62 What and yf ye shal se the sonne of man ascende vp thither, where he was afore?

63 It is ye sprete that quyckeneth, ye flesh profiteth nothinge. The wordes that I speake, are sprete, and are life.

64 But there are some amoge you, that beleue not. For Iesus knewe well from the begynnyng, which they were that beleued not, and who shulde betraye him.

65 And he sayde: Therefore haue I sayde vnto you: No man can come vnto me, excepte it be geuen him of my father.

66 From that tyme forth, many of his disciples wente backe, and walked nomore with him.

67 Then sayde Iesus vnto the twolue: Wyll ye also go awaye?

68 Then answered Simon Peter: LORDE, Whither shal we go? Thou hast the wordes of euerlastinge life:

69 and we haue beleued & knowne, that thou art Christ the sonne of the luyunge God.

70 Iesus answered them. Haue I not chosen you twolue, and one of you is a deuell?

71 But he spake of Iudas Symon Iscarioth: the same betrayed him afterwarde, and was one of the twolue.

Chapter 7

1 After that wente Iesus aboute in Galile, for he wolde not go aboute in Iewry, because the Iewes sought to kyll him.

2 But the Iewes feast of Tabernacles was at hande.

3 Then sayde his brethren vnto him: Get the hece, and go into Iewry, that thy disciples also maye se thy workes, that thou doest.

4 He that seketh to be openly knowne, doth nothinge in secrete. Yf thou do soch thinges, the shewe yi self before the worlde:

5 For his awne brethren also beleued not in him.

6 Then sayde Iesus vnto them: My tyme is not yet come, but youre tyme is allwaye ready.

7 The worlde can not hate you, but me it hateth: because I testifye of it, that the workes of it are euell.

8 Go ye vp vnto this feast, I wyll not go vp yet vnto this feast, for my tyme is not yet fulfilled.

9 Whan he sayde this vnto them, he abode styll in Galile.

10 But as soone as his brethren were gone vp, then wente he vp also vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were secretly.

11 Then sought him ye Iewes at ye feast, and sayde: Where is he?

12 And there was a greate murmur of him amonge the people. Some sayde: He is good. But other sayde: No, he doth but disceaue the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake frely of him, for feare of the Iewes.

14 But in the myddes of the feast wete Iesus vp in to the temple, and taught.

15 And the Iewes marueyled and sayde: How can he ye scripture, seyng he hath not lerned it?

16 Iesus answered them, and sayde: My doctryne is not myne, but his that hath sent me.

17 Yf eny man wyl do his will, he shal knowe, whether this doctryne be of God, or whether I speake of my self.

18 He that speaketh of himself, seketh his awne prayse: but he that seketh the prayse of him that sent him, the same is true, & there is no vnrighteousnes in him.

19 Hath not Moses geuen you the lawe? and none of you kepeth the lawe? Why go ye aboute to kyll me?

20 The people answered, and sayde: Thou hast the deuell, who goeth aboute to kyll the?

21 Iesus answered and sayde: One worke haue I done, and ye all maruayle.

22 Moses gaue you the circumcision, (not because it commeth of Moses, but of ye fathers:) Yet do ye circumcise a man vpon the Sabbath.

23 Yf a man receaue circucision vpon the Sabbath, that the lawe of Moses shulde not be broken, dissdayne ye then at me, because I haue made a ma euery whyt whole on the Sabbath?

24 Iudge not after the vtter appearaue, but iudge righteous iudgment.

25 Then sayde some of them of Ierusalem: Is not this he, who they go aboute to kyll?

26 And beholde, he speaketh boldely, and they saye nothinge to him. Do oure rulers knowe in dede, that he is very Christ?

27 Howbeyt we knowe, whence this is. But wha Christ commeth, no man shal knowe whence he is.

28 Then cryed Iesus in the temple as he taught, and sayde: Yee ye knowe me, and whence I am ye knowe, and of my self am I not come, but he yt sent me, is true, whom ye knowe not.

29 But I knowe him, for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then sought they to take him, but no mam layed handes vpon him, for his houre was not yet come.

31 But many of the people beleued on him, and sayde: Whan Christ commeth, shall he do mo tokens, then this doth?

32 And it came to the Pharises eares, that ye people murmured soch thinges of him. And the Pharises and hie prestes sent out seruauntes, to take him.

33 Then sayde Iesus vnto them: I am yet a litle whyle with you and then go I vnto him that hath sent me.

34 Ye shal seke me, & not fynde me: and where I am, thither can ye not come.

35 Then sayde the Iewes amonge them selues: Whyther wil he go, that we shal not fynde him? Wyl he go amoge the Grekes that are scatred abroad, and teach the Grekes?

36 What maner of sayenge is this, that he sayeth: ye shal seke me, and not fynde me: and where I am, thither can not ye come?

37 But in the last daye which was ye most solempne daye of the feast, Iesus stode vp, cried, and sayde: Who so thyrsteth, let him come vnto me, and drynke.

38 He that beleueth on me, as the scripture sayeth, out of his body shal flowe ryuers of the water of life.

39 (But this spake he of the sprete, which they that beleue on him, shulde receaue. For the holy goost was not yet there, because Iesus was not yet glorified.)

40 Many of the people now whan they herde this sayenge, sayde: This is a very prophet.

41 Other sayde: He is Christ. But some sayde: Shal Christ come out of Galile?

42 Sayeth not the scripture, that Christ shal come of the sede of Dauid, and out of the towne of Bethleem, where Dauid was?

43 Thus was there discencion amonge the people for his sake.

44 Some of them wolde haue taken him, but no man layed handes on him.

45 The seruauntes came to the hie prestes and pharises, and they sayde vnto them: Why haue ye not brought him?

46 The seruauntes answered: Neuer ma spake as this man doth.
 47 Then answered them the pharises: Are ye also disceued?
 48 Doth eny of the rulers or pharises beleue on him?
 49 But the comon people which knowe not the lawe, are cursed.
 50 Nicodemus sayde vnto them, he that came to him by night, which was one of them:
 51 Doth oure lawe iudge eny man, before it heare him, and knowe what he hath done?
 52 They answered and sayde vnto him? Art thou a Galilean also? Searche and loke, out of Galile aryseth no prophet.
 53 And so euery man wente home.

Chapter 8

1 Iesus wente vnto mount Oliuete,
 2 and early in the mornynge came he agayne in to the temple, and all the people came vnto him. And he sat downe, and taught them.
 3 And ye scribes and Pharises brought vnto him a woman taken in aduoutrye, and set her there openly,
 4 and sayde vnto him: Master, this woman was taken in aduoutrye, eue as the dede was adoyng.
 5 Moses in the lawe commaunded vs to stone soch. What sayest thou?
 6 This they sayde, to tempte him, that they might haue wherof to accuse him. But Iesus stouped downe, and wrote with his fynger vpo the grounde.
 7 Now whyle they contynued axynge him, he lift him self vp, and sayde vnto them: He that is amonge you without synne, let him cast the first stone at her.
 8 And he stouped downe agayne, and wrote vpon the grounde.
 9 But when they herde that, they wente out, one after another: the eldest first, and left Iesus alone, and the woman stonding before him.
 10 Iesus lift himself vp, and whan he sawe no man but the woman, he sayde vnto her: Woman, where are thine accusers? Hath noman condemned the?
 11 She sayde: LORDE, no man. Iesus sayde: Nether do I codempne the, Go thy waye, and synne nomore.
 12 Then spake Iesus agayne vnto them, and sayde: I am the light of the worlde. He that foloweth me, shal not walke in darknesse, but shal haue the light of life.
 13 Then sayde the Pharises vnto him: Thou bearest recorde of thy self, thy recorde is not true.
 14 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them: Though I beare recorde of my self, yet my recorde is true: for I knowe whence I came, and whither I go: but ye can not tell whence I come, and whither I go.
 15 Ye iudge after the flesh, I iudge no man:
 16 but yf I iudge, my iudgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the father that hath sent me.
 17 It is wyrtten also in youre lawe, that the testimony of two men is true.

 18 I am one that beare wytnesse of my self: And the father that sent me, beareth wytnes of me also.
 19 Then sayde they vnto him: Where is thy father? Iesus answered: Ye nether knowe me ner yet my father. Yf ye knewe me, ye shulde knowe my father also.
 20 These wordes spake Iesus vpon the Godschest, as he taught in the teple. And noman toke him, for his houre was not yet come.
 21 Then sayde Iesus agayne vnto them: I go my waye, and ye shal seke me, and shal dye in youre synnes: whither I go, thither can not ye come.
 22 Then sayde ye Iewes: Wyl he kyll him self then, that he sayeth: whither I go, thither can not ye come?
 23 And he sayde vnto them: Ye are from beneth, I am from aboue: Ye are of this worlde, I am not of this worlde.
 24 Therefore haue I sayde vnto you, that ye shal dye in youre synnes. For yf ye beleue not that I am he, ye shal dye in youre synnes.
 25 Then sayde they vnto him: Who art thou then? And Iesus sayde vnto the: Eue the very same thinge that I saye vnto you.
 26 I haue many thinges to saye and to iudge of you. But he that sent me, is true: and loke what I haue herde of him, that speake I before the worlde, 27 Howbeit they vnderstode not, that he spake of the father.
 28 Then sayde Iesus vnto them: Whan ye haue lift vp an hye the sonne of man, then shal ye knowe that I am he, and that I do nothinge of my self: but as my father hath taught me, euen so I speake.
 29 And he that sent me, is with me. The father leueth me not alone, for I do alwaie that pleaseth him.
 30 Whan he thus spake, many beleued on him. Then sayde Iesus vnto the Iewes, that beleued on him:
 31 Yf ye contynue in my worde, then are ye my very disciples,
 32 and ye shall knowe the trueth, and the trueth shal make you fre.
 33 Then answered they him: We are Abrahams sede, we were neuer bonde to eny man, how sayest thou then: Ye shal be fre?
 34 Iesus answered them, and sayde: Verely verely I saye vnto you: Who so euer doth synne, 35 is the seruaunt of synne: As for the seruaunt, he abydeyth not in the house for euer,
 36 but the sonne abydeyth euer. Yf the sonne therefore make you fre, then are ye fre in dede.
 37 I knowe that ye are Abrahams sede, but ye seke to kyll me. For my worde taketh not amonge you.
 38 I speake that I haue sene of my father, & ye do that ye haue sene of youre father.
 39 They answered, and sayde vnto him: Abraham is oure father. Iesus sayde vnto them: Yf ye were Abrahams children, ye wolde do the dedes of Abraham.
 40 But now ye go aboute to kyll me, a man, that haue tolde you the trueth, which I haue herde of God, this dyd not Abraham.

 41 Ye do the dedes of youre father. Then sayde they vnto him: We are not borne of fornicacion, we haue one father, euen God.
 42 Iesus sayde vnto them: Yf God were youre father, then wolde ye loue me. For I am proceaded forth, and come from God. For I am not come of my self, but he hath sent me.
 43 Why knowe ye not the my speach? Eue because ye can not abyde the hearinge of my worde.
 44 Ye are of the father the deuell, and after the lustes of youre father wyl ye do. The same was a murthurer from the begynnynge, and abode not in the trueth: for the trueth is not in him. Whan he speaketh a lye, then speaketh he of his awne: for he is a lyar, and a father of the same.
 45 But because I saye the trueth, ye beleue me not.
 46 Which of you can rebuke me of one synne? Yf I saye the trueth, why do ye not beleue me?
 47 He that is of God, heareth Gods worde. Therefore heare ye not, because ye are not of God.
 48 Then answered the Iewes, and sayde vnto him: Saye we not right, that thou art a Samaritane, and hast the deuell?
 49 Iesus answered: I haue no deuell, but I honour my father, and ye haue dishonoured me.
 50 I seke not myne awne prayse, but there is one that seketh it, and iudgeth.
 51 Verely verely I saye vnto you: Yf eny man kepe my worde, he shal neuer se death.
 52 Then sayde the Iewes vnto him: Now knowe me, that thou hast the deuell. Abraham is deed and the prophetes, and thou sayest: Yf eny ma kepe my worde, he shal neuer taist of death.
 53 Art thou greater then oure father Abraham? which is deed, and the prophetes are deed? Who makest thou thy self?
 54 Iesus answered: Yf I prayse myself, then is my prayse nothinge. But it is my father that prayseth me, which ye saye is youre God,
 55 and ye knowe hi not: but I knowe him. And yf I shulde saye, I knowe him not, I shulde be a lyar, like vnto you. But I knowe him, and kepe his worde.
 56 Abraham youre father was glad, that he shulde se my daye, And he sawe it, and reioysed.
 57 Then sayde the Iewes vnto him: Thou art not yet fiftie yeare olde, and hast thou sene Abraham?
 58 Iesus sayde vnto the: Verely verely I saye vnto you: Or euer Abraham was, I am.
 59 Then toke they vp stones, to cast at him. But Iesus hyd himself, and wente out of the temple.

Chapter 9

1 And Iesus passed by, and sawe a man that was borne blynde.
 2 And his disciples axed him, & sayde: Master, Who hath synned? this, or his elders, that he was borne blynde?
 3 Iesus answered: Nether hath this synned, ner his elders, but that ye workes of God shulde be shewed on him.
 4 I must worke the workes of him that hath sent me, whyle it is daye. The night commeth, whan no man can worke.
 5 As longe as I am in the worlde, I am the light of the worlde.
 6 Whan he had thus sayde, he spat on the grounde, and made claye of the spetle, and rubbed the claye on the eyes of the blynde,
 7 and sayde vnto him: Go thy waye to the pole of Syloha (which is interpreted, sent) and wash the. Then wete he his waye and washed him, and came seyng.
 8 The neighbours and they that had sene him before, that he was a begger, sayde: Is not this he that sat, and begged?
 9 Some sayde: It is he. Other sayde: he is like him. But he himself sayde: I am euen he.
 10 Then sayde they vnto him: How are thine eyes opened?
 11 He answered, and sayde: The ma that is called Iesus, made claye, and anoynted myne eyes, and sayde: Go thy waye to the pole of Siloha, and wash the. I wente my waye, & washed me, and receaued my sight.
 12 Then sayde they vnto him: Where is he? He sayde: I can not tell.
 13 Then brought they vnto the pharises, him that a litle before was blynde
 14 It was the Sabbath, whan Iesus made the claye, and opened his eyes.
 15 Then agayne the Pharises also axed him, how he had receaued his sight. He sayde vnto the: He put claye vpon myne eyes, and I washed me, & now I se.
 16 Then sayde some of the pharises: This man is not of God, seyng he kepeth not ye Sabbath. But the other sayde: How can a synfull man do soch tokens? And there was a stryfe amonge the.
 17 They sayde agayne vnto ye blynde: What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He sayde: he is a prophet.
 18 The Iewes beleued not hi, that he was blynde, and had receaued his sight, tyll they called the elders of him, that had receaued his sight, 19 and they axed them, and sayde: Is this youre sonne, whom ye saye, was borne blynde? How doth he now se then?
 20 His elders answered them, and sayde: We knowe, that this is oure sonne, and that he was borne blynde.
 21 But how he now seyeth, we can not tell: or who hath opened his eyes, can we not tell. He is olde ynough himself, axe him, let him speake for him self.
 22 This sayde his elders, because they feared the Iewes. For the Iewes had conspyred already, that yf eny man dyd confesse that he was Christ, the same shulde be excommunicate.

23 Therefore sayde his elders: He is olde ynough, axe him.

24 Then called they the ma agayne yt was blynde, and sayde vnto him: Geue God ye prayse, we knowe that this man is a synner.

25 He answered, & sayde: Whether he be a synner or no, I can not tell: one thinge am I sure off, that I was blynde, and now I se.

26 The sayde they vnto him agayne: What dyd he vnto the? How opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them: I tolde you right now. Herde ye it not? What, wil ye heare it agayne? Will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then rayted they him, and sayde: Thou art his disciple.

29 We are sure that God spake wt Moses: As for this felowe, we know not whece he is.

30 The man answered, and sayde vnto the: This is a maruelous thinge, that ye wote not whence he is, and he hath opened mine eyes.

31 For we knowe that God heareth not ye sinners: but yf eny ma be a fearer of God, and doth his will, him heareth he.

32 Sens ye worlde beganne was it not herde, that eny man opened the eyes of one that was borne blynde.

33 Yf this man were not of God, he coulde haue done nothinge.

34 They answered, and sayde vnto him: Thou art altogether borne in synne, and teachest thou vs? And they thrust him out.

35 Iesus herde, yt they had thrust him out, and wha he had founde him, he sayde vnto him: Beleuest thou on the sonne of God?

36 He answered, and sayde: LORDE, who is it, yt I might beleue on him?

37 Iesus sayde vnto him: Thou hast sene him, and he is it, that talketh with the.

38 He sayde: LORDE, I beleue. And he worshipped him.

39 And Iesus sayde: I am come to iudgmet in to this worlde, that they which se not, might se: and that they which se, might be made blynde.

40 And some of the Pharises yt were with him, herde this, and sayde vnto him: Are we then blynde also?

41 Iesus sayde vnto the: Yf ye were blynde, ye shulde haue no synne. But now that ye saye, we se, therefore youre sonne remaineth.

Chapter 10

1 Verely verely I saye vnto you: He yt entreth not in at the dore in to the shepefolde, but clymmeth vp some other waye, the same is a thefe & a murthurer.

2 But he that goeth in at the dore, is the shepherde of the shepe:

3 to him ye porter openeth, and the shepe heare his voyce, and he calleth his awne shepe by name, and ledeth them out.

4 And whan he hath sent forth his awne shepe, he goeth before them, and the shepe folowe him: for they knowe his voyce.

5 As for a straunger, they folowe him not, but flye from him: for they knowe not the voyce of straungers.

6 This prouerbe spake Iesus vnto them, but they vnderstode not what it was, that he sayde vnto them.

7 Then sayde Iesus vnto them agayne: Verely verely I saye vnto you: I am the dore of the shepe.

8 All they that are come before me, are theues and murthures. But ye shepe harkened not vnto them.

9 I am the dore. Yf eny man entre in by me, he shalbe saued, and shal go in and out, and fynde pasture,

10 A thefe cometh not, but for to steale, kyll, and destroye. I am come, yt they might haue life, and haue it more abundantly.

11 I am a good shepherde. A good shepherde geueth his life for the shepe.

12 But an hyred seruaunt, which is not the shepherde, nether the shepe are his awne, seyth ye wolfe comynge, and leaueth ye shepe, and flyeth. And the wolfe catcheth & scattereth ye shepe.

13 But the hyred seruaunt flyeth, because he is an hyred seruaunte, and careth not for the shepe.

14 I am a good sheperde, and knowe myne, and am knowne of myne.

15 Eue as my father knoweth me, and I knowe ye father. And I geue my life for my shepe.

16 And I haue yet other shepe, which are not of this folde, and those same must I brynge also, and they shal heare my voyce, and there shalbe one flocke and one shepherde.

17 Therefore doth my father loue me, because I leaue my life, that I maye take it agayne.

18 Noma taketh it fro me, but I leaue it of myself. I haue power to leaue it, and haue power to take it agayne. This commaundement haue I receaued of my father.

19 Then was there discension amoge the Iewes for these sayenges.

20 Many of the sayde: He hath the deuell, and is madd, why heare ye him?

21 Other sayde: These are not wordes of one that is possessed. Can the deuell also open ye eyes of the blynde?

22 It was the dedicacion of the teple at Ierusalem, & was wynter, 23 and Iesus walked in Salomos porche.

24 The came ye Iewes rounde aboute hi, & saide vnto hi: How loge dost thou make vs doute? Yf thou be Christ, tell vs planely.

25 Iesus answered the: I tolde you, & ye beleue not. The workes yt I do in my fathers name, they beare witness of me.

26 But ye beleue not, because ye are not of my shepe as I sayde vnto you.

27 My shepe heare my voyce, & I knowe the, & they folowe me.

28 And I geue the euerlastinge life, & they shal neuer perishe, and noma shal plucke the out of my hande.

29 My father which gaue the me, is greater the all: & noman is able to plucke them out of my fathers hande.

30 I and the father are one.

31 Then the Iewes toke vp stones agayne, to stone him.

32 Iesus answered the: Many good workes haue I shewed you fro my father, for which of the stone ye me?

33 The Iewes answered hi, and sayde: For the good worke sake we stone the not, but for the blasphemy: and because yt thou beyng a man, makest thyself God.

34 Iesus answered the: Is it not wrytten in youre lawe: I haue sayde, Ye are Goddes?

35 Yf he call them Goddes, vnto whom the worde of God came (& the scripture can not be broke)

36 saye ye the vnto hi, who ye father hath sanctified & sent in to ye worlde: thou blasphemest God, because I sayde: I am ye sonne of God?

37 Yf I do not ye workes of my father, beleue me not:

38 but yf I do the, the (yf ye beleue not me) yet beleue ye workes, yt ye maye knowe & beleue, yt the father is in me, & I in ye father.

39 They wente aboute agayne to take him, but he escaped out of their hades, 40 and wete awaye agayne beyode Iordane, into ye place where Iho had baptyssed before, & there he abode.

41 And many came to hi, and sayde: Iho dyd no tokes, but all yt Ihon spake of this man, is true.

42 And many beleued on him there.

Chapter 11

1 There laye one sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, in ye towne of Mary & hir sister Martha.

2 It was yt Mary which anyoynted ye LORDE wt oyntment, & dried his fete wt hir heer, whose brother Lazarus laye sicke.)

3 The sent his sisters vnto hi, & sayde: LORDE, beholde, he who thou louest lyeth sicke.

4 Wha Iesus herde that, he sayde: This sicknesse is not vnto death, but for the prayse of God, yt the sonne of God maye be prayssed there thorow.

5 Iesus loued Martha & hir sister, & Lazarus.

6 Now wha he herde that he was sicke, he abode two dayes in ye place where he was.

7 Afterwarde sayde he vnto his disciples: Let vs go agayne i to Iewry.

8 His disciples sayde vnto him: Master, lately wolde the Iewes haue stoned the, & wilt thou go thither agayne?

9 Iesus answered: Are there not twolue houres in ye daye? He yt walketh in the daye, stobleth not, for he seyeth ye light of this worlde.

10 But he that walketh in the night, stobleth: for there is no light in him.

11 This he spake, & after warde sayde he vnto the: Lazarus or frende slepeth, but I go to wake him out of slepe.

12 The sayde his disciples: LORDE, yf he slepe, he shal do well ynough

13 (Howbeyt Iesus spake of his death but they thought yt he had spoke of ye bodely slepe.)

14 The sayde Iesus vnto the planely: Lazarus is deed,

15 & I am glad for yor sakes, yt I was not there, that ye maye beleue. Neuertheles let vs go vnto hi.

16 The sayde Thomas (which is called Didimus) vnto ye disciples: Let vs go also, yt we maye dye wt hi.

17 The came Iesus, & founde yt he had lye in ye graue foure dayes allready.

18 Bethanye was nye vnto Ierusalem, aboute fiftene furloges.

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha & Mary, to coforte the ouer their brother.

20 Now wha Martha herde yt Iesus came, she wete to mete him. But Mary satt styl at home.

21 The sayde Martha vnto Iesus: LORDE, yf thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene deed.

22 But neuertheles I knowe also, what soeuer thou axest of God, that God wyl geue it the.

23 Iesus sayde vnto her: Thy brother shal ryse agayne.

24 Martha sayde vnto hi: I knowe, yt he shal ryse agayne in the resurreccion at ye last daye.

25 Iesus saide vnto her: I am the resurreccion & the life He yt beleueth on me, shal lyue, though he were deed allready:

26 & whosoeuer lyueth and beleueth on me, shal neuer dye. Beleuest thou this?

27 She saide vnto him: Yee LORDE, I beleue, that thou art Christ the sonne of God, which shulde come into the worlde.

28 And wha she had sayde this, she wete hir waye, & called Mary hir sister secretly, & saide: The maister is come, & calleth for the.

29 She whan she herde that, rose vp quykly, and came vnto him:

30 For Iesus was not yet come in to ye towne, but was yet in the place, where Martha met him.

31 The Iewes that were wt her in the house and comforted her, whan they sawe Mary, that she rose vp haistely, & wente out, they folowed her, & saide: She goeth to the graue, to wepe there.

32 Now wha Mary came where Iesus was & sawe him, she fell downe at his fete, & sayde vnto hi: LORDE, yf thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene deed.

33 Wha Iesus sawe her wepe, & the Iewes wepinge also yt came wt her, he groned in the sprete, & was sory wt in himself, 34 & sayde: Where haue ye layed him? They sayde: LORDE come, & se it.

35 And Iesus wepte.

36 Then sayde ye Iewes: Beholde how he loued him.

37 But some of the saide: Coulede no the which opened the eyes of ye blynde, haue made also, that this ma shulde not haue dyed?

38 But Iesus groned agayne in himself, and came to the graue. It was a caue, and a stone layed on it.

39 Iesus saide: Take awaye ye stone. Martha the sister of him yt was deed, saide vnto hi: LORDE, he stynketh allready, for he hath bene deed foure dayes.

40 Iesus sayde vnto her: Sayde I not vnto the, that yf thou dydest beleue, thou shuldest se the glory of God?

41 Then toke they awaye the stone, where the deed laye. Iesus lift vp his eyes, and sayde: Father, I thake ye, that thou hast herde me.

42 Howbeit I knowe, that thou hearest me allwaye: but because of ye people that stonde by, I sayde it, that they maye beleue, that thou hast sent me.

43 Whan he had sayde this, he cryed loude: Lazarus come forth.

44 And ye deed came forth bounde hande & fote wt graue clothes, & his face bounde wt a napkyn. Iesus sayde vnto the: Lowse him, & let him go.

45 Many now of ye Iewes which mere come vnto Mary, and sawe what Iesus dyd, beleued on him.

46 But some of the wente their waye vnto the pharises, and tolde the what Iesus had done.

47 Then the hye prestes, and the pharises gathered a councell, and sayde: What do we? This man doth many tokens.

48 Yf we let him go thus, all me wyl beleue in him: the shal the Romaynes come, and take awaye oure londe and people.

49 But one of them, named Caiphaz, which was hye prest that same yeaere, sayde vnto them: Ye knowe nothinge nether considre ye eny thinge at all.

50 It is better for us that one ma dye for the people, then that all the people shulde perishe.

51 This spake he not of himself, but for so moch as he was hye prest of the same yeaere, he prophecied. For Iesus was for to dye for the people,

52 and not for the people onely, but that he shulde gather together the children of God, which were scatered abrode:

53 From that daye forth they toke coucell, how they might put him to death. 54 Iesus walked nomore openly amonge the Iewes, but wente from thence in to a cowntre by the wyldernesse, to a cite called Ephraim, & there had he his beyng with his disciples.

55 The Iewes Easter was nye at hande. And there wente vp many to Ierusalem out of that cowntre before ye Easter, to purifye them selues.

56 Then stode they vp, and axed after Iesus, and spake amonge them selues in the temple: What thynke ye, that he cometh not to ye feast?

57 The hye prestes & pharises had geuen a commaundement, that yf eny man knewe where he were, he shulde shewe it, that they might take him.

Chapter 12

1 Sixe dayes before Easter came Iesus vnto Bethanye, where Lazarus was, which was deed, whom Iesus rayseed vp from the deed.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha serued. But Lazarus was one of them, that sat at the table with him.

3 Then toke Mary a pounce of oymntment of pure and costly Nardus, and anoynted Iesus fete, & dryed his fete with hir heer. The house was full of the sauoure of the oymntment.

4 Then sayde one of his disciples, Iudas Iscarioth Symons sonne, which afterwarde betrayed him:

5 Why was not this oymntment solde for thre hundreth pens, and geuen to the poore?

6 (This sayde he not that he cared for the poore, but because he was a thefe, and had the bagge, and bare that which was geue.)

7 Then sayde Iesus: Let her alone, this hath she kepte agaynst the daye of my buryenge.

8 For the poore haue ye allwaye with you, but me haue ye not allwaye.

9 Then moch people of the Iewes had knowlege, that he was there, and they came not for Iesus sake onely, but also yt they might se Lazarus, whom he had rayseed from the deed.

10 But ye hye prestes were aduysed to put Lazarus to death also:

11 because yt for his sake many of the Iewes wete awaye and beleued on Iesus.

12 Vpon the nexte daye moch people which were come vnto the feast, whan they herde that Iesus came towarde Ierusalem, 13 they toke braunches of palme trees, and wete out to mete him, and cryed: Hosianna, Blessed be he, that in the name of the LORDE commeth kynge of Israel.

14 Iesus gat a yonge Asse, and rode theron, As it is wrytte:

15 Feare not thou doughter of Sion, beholde, thy kynge cometh rydinge vpo an Asses foale.

16 Neuertheles his disciples vnderstode not these thinges at the first, but whan Iesus was glorified, then remebred they that soch thinges were wrytte of him, and that they had done soch thinges vnto him.

17 The people that was with him whan he called Lazarus out of ye graue and rayseed him from the deed, commended the acte.

18 Therefore the people met him, because they herde, that he had done soch a miracle.

19 But the pharises sayde amonge them selues: Ye se, that we preuayle nothinge, beholde, all ye worlde runneth after him.

20 There were certayne Grekes (amonge the that were come vp to Ierusalem to worships at the feast)

21 the same came vnto Philippe, which was of Bethsaida out of Galile, & prayed him, and sayde: Syr, we wolde fayne se Iesus.

22 Philippe came, & tolde Andrew. And agayne, Philippe and Andrew tolde Iesus. 23 Iesus answered the, and sayde: The houre is come, that the sonne of man must be glorified.

24 Verely verely I saye vnto you: Excepte the wheatcorne fall in to the grounde, and dye, it bydeth alone: But yf it dye, it bryngeth forth moch frute.

25 He that loueth his life, shal lose it: and he that hateth his life in this worlde, shal kepe it vnto life euerlastinge.

26 He that wyl serue me, let him folowe me. And where I am, there shal my seruaunt be also: and he that serueth me, him shal my father honoure.

27 Now is my soule heuy, and what shal I saye? Father, helpe me out of this houre. But therfore am I come in to this houre.

28 Father, glorifye thy name. Then came there a voyce from heauen: I haue glorified it, and wyl glorifye it agayne.

29 Then sayde the people that stode by and herde: It thondereth. Other sayde: An angell spake vnto him.

30 Iesus answered, and sayde: This voyce came not because of me, but for youre sakes.

31 Now goeth the iudgment ouer the worlde. Now shal the prynce of this worlde be thrust out.

32 And I whan I am lift vp from the earth, wyl drawe all vnto me.

33 (But this he sayde, to signifye, what death he shulde dye.)

34 Then answered him the people: We haue herde in the lawe, that Christ endureth for euer: and how sayest thou then, that the sonne of man must be lift vp? Who is this sonne of man?

35 Then sayde Iesus vnto them: The light is yet a litle whyle with you, walke whyle ye haue the light, that the darknesse fall not vpo you. He that walketh in the darknesse, woteth not whither he goeth.

36 Beleue ye on the light, whyle ye haue it, that ye maye be the children of light. These thinges spake Iesus, and departed awaye, and hyd himself from them.

37 And though he had done soch tokens before the, yet beleued they not on him, 38 that the sayenge of Esay the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake: LORDE, who beleueth oure preachinge? Or to whom is the arme of the LORDE opened?

39 Therefore coulde they not beleue, for Esay saide agayne:

40 He hath blynded their eyes, and hardened their hert, that they shulde not se with the eyes, ner vnderstode with the hert, & shulde be conuerted, and he shulde heale them.

41 This sayde Esay, whan he sawe his glory, and spake of him.

42 Neuertheles many of the chefe rulers beleued on him, but because of the Pharises they wolde not be knowne of it, lest they shulde be excommunicate, 43 For they loued more the prayse with men, then with God.

44 Iesus cryed and sayde: He that beleueth on me, beleueth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And he that seyth me, seyth him yt sent me.

46 I am come a light in to the worlde, that whosoeuer beleueth on me, shulde not byde in darknesse.

47 And he that heareth my wordes and beleueth not, I iudge him not, for I am not come to iudge the worlde, but to saue the worlde.

48 He that refuseth me, and receaueth not my wordes, hath one already that iudgeth him. The worde that I haue spoken, that shall iudge him at the last daye, 49 For I haue not spoken of my self: but the father that sent me, hath geuen me a commaundement, what I shulde do and saye.

50 And I knowe that his commaundement is life euerlastinge. Therfore loke what I speake, that speake I eue so, as the father hath sayde vnto me.

Chapter 13

1 Before the feast of Easter whan Iesus knewe that his tyme was come, that he shulde departe out of this worlde vnto ye father, as he loued his which were in the worlde, euen so loued he them vnto the ende.

2 And after supper, whan the deuell had allready put into ye hert of Iudas Iscarioth Symons sonne, to betraye him,

3 Iesus knowinge that the father had geuen all thinges in to his handes, & that he was come from God, and wente vnto God,

4 he rose from supper, and layed asyde his vpper garmentes, and toke a towell, and gyrde it aboute him.

5 Afterwarde poured he water into a basen, and beganne to wash the disciples fete, and dryed them with the towell, yt he was gyrded withall.

6 Then came he vnto Symon Peter, and ye same sayde vnto him: LORDE, shalt thou washe my fete?

7 Iesus answered and sayde vnto him: What I do, thou knowest not now, but thou shalt knowe it herafter.

8 The sayde Peter vnto him: Thou shalt neuer wash my fete. Iesus answered him: Yf I wash ye not, thou shalt haue no parte with me.

9 Symon Peter sayde vnto him: LORDE, not the fete onely, but the handes also and the heade.

10 Iesus sayde vnto him: He that is washe, nedeth not, saue to washe ye fete, but is cleane euery whytt. And ye are cleane but not all.

11 For he knewe his betrayer, therfore sayde he: ye are not all cleane.

12 Now whan he had wasshen their fete, and taken his clothes, he sat him downe agayne, and sayde vnto the: Wote ye what I haue done vnto you?

13 Ye call me master and LORDE, and ye saye right therin, for so I am.

14 Yf I then youre LORDE and master haue wasshen youre fete, ye ought also to wash one anothers fete.

15 I haue geue you an ensample, that ye shulde do as I haue done vnto you.

16 Verely verely I saye vnto you: the seruaunt is not greater then his lorde, nether is the Apostell greater then he that sent him.

17 Yf ye knowe these thinges, blessed are ye yf ye do them.

18 I speake not of you all, I knowe whom I haue chosen, but that the scripture might be fulfilled: He yt eateth my bred, hath lift vp his hele against me.

19 I tell it you now, before it come, that whan it is come to passe, ye maye beleue, that I am he.

20 Verely verely I saye vnto you: He that receaueth whom so euer I sende, receaueth me: and he that receaueth me, receaueth him that sent me.

21 Whan Iesus had thus sayde, he was heuy in sprete, and testified, and sayde: Verely verely I saye vnto you: One amonge you shal betraye me.

22 Then the disciples loked one vpon another, & were in doute, of whom he spake.

23 But there was one amoge his disciples, that leaned at the table on Iesus bosome, who Iesus loued:

24 to him beckened Symon Peter, that he shulde axe, who it was, of whom he spake.

25 For the same leaued vpo Iesus brest, and sayde vnto him: LORDE, who is it?

26 Iesus answered: It is he, vnto whom I dypte the soppe & geue it. And he dypte in the soppe, and gaue it vnto Iudas Iscarioth Symons sonne.

27 And after ye soppe the deuell entred in to him. Then sayde Iesus vnto him: That thou doest, do quykly.

28 But ye same wyst no man at the table, for what intent he sayde it vnto him.

29 Some thought (for so moch as Iudas had the bagge) that Iesus had sayde vnto him: Bye that is necessary for vs agaynst the feast: Or that he shulde geue some thinge vnto the poore.

30 Whan he had receaued the soppe, he wente out immediatly, and it was night.

31 Whan he was gone forth, Iesus sayde: Now is the sonne of ma glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 Yf God be glorified in him, the shal god glorifie him also in hiself, & straight waye shal he glorifye him.

33 Deare childe, I am yet a litle whyle with you. Ye shal seke me, and (as I sayde vnto ye Iewes) whither I go, thither can ye not come. And now I saye vnto you, 34 A new comaundemet geue I you, that ye loue together as I haue loued you, yt euen so ye loue one another.

35 By this shal euery man knowe that ye are my disciples, yf ye haue loue one to another.

36 Symon Peter sayde vnto him: LORDE, whither goest thou? Iesus answered him: Whither I go, thou canst not folowe me now, but thou shalt folowe me herafter.

37 Peter sayde vnto him: LORDE, why ca not I folowe the now? I wil geue my life for yi sake.

38 Iesus answered him: Wilt thou geue thy life for my sake? Verely verely I saye vnto ye. The cock shal not crowe, tyll thou haue denyed me thryse.

Chapter 14

1 And he sayde vnto his disciples: Let not youre hert be afrayed. Yf ye beleue on God, the beleue also on me.

2 In my fathers house are many dwellinges. Yf it were not so, I wolde haue tolde you: I go to prepare the place for you.

3 And though I go to prepare the place for you, yet wil I come agayne, and receaue you vnto myself, yt ye maye be where I am.

4 And whither I go, ye knowe, and the waye knowe ye also.

5 Thomas sayde vnto him: LORDE, we knowe not whither thou goest, & how can we knowe the waye?

6 Iesus sayde vnto him: I am the waye, and the trueth, and the life. Noman cometh to the father but by me.

7 Yf ye knewe me, ye knewe my father also. And fro hece forth ye knowe hi, & haue sene him.

8 Philippe sayde vnto him: LORDE, shewe vs the father, and it sufficeth vs.

9 Iesus sayde vnto him: Thus longe am I with you, and hast thou not knowne me? Philippe, he that seyth me, seyth the father. And how sayest thou then: Shewe vs the father?

10 Beleuest thou not that I am in the father, and that ye father is in me? The wordes that I speake vnto you, those speake not I of my self: but the father that dwelleth in me, he doth the workes.

11 Beleue me, that I am in the father, and that ye father is in me: Or els, beleue me at the leest for the workes sake.

12 Verely verely I saye vnto you: He that beleueth on me, shal do the workes that I do, and shal do greater then these: for I go to the father.

13 And what soeuer ye axe ye father in my name, that wyl I do, that the father maye be praysed in the sonne.

14 Yf ye axe eny thinge in my name, I wyl do it.

15 Yf ye loue me, kepe my commaundementes.

16 And I wyl praye the father, and he shal geue you another comforter, that he maye byde wt you for euer:

17 euen ye sprete of trueth, whom ye worlde can not receaue, for it seyth him not, nether doth it knowe him: but ye knowe him, for he abydeh wt you, & shalbe in you

18 I wil not leaue you cofortles, I come vnto you.

19 It is yet a litle whyle, the shal the worlde se me nomore, but ye shal se me: for I lye, and ye shal lye also.

20 In yt daye shal ye knowe, that I am in the father and ye in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my comaundementes, and kepeth them, the same is he that loueth me: and he that loueth me, shalbe loued of my father: & I wyl loue him, and wyl shewe myne awne self vnto him.

22 Iudas sayde vnto hi: (not that Iscarioth) LORDE, What is the cause the, that thou wilt shewe thy self vnto vs, and not vnto the worlde?

23 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto him: He that loueth me, wyl kepe my worde, and my father wyl loue him: and we wyl come vnto him, and wyll make oure dwellinge with him.

24 But he that loueth me not, kepeth not my sayenges. And the worde that ye heare, is not myne, but the fathers which hath sent me.

25 This haue I spoken vnto you, whyle I was with you.

26 But that comforter euen ye holy goost, who my father shal sende in my name, he shal teache you all thinges, & bringe all to youre remembrance, what soeuer I haue tolde you.

27 Peace I leaue vnto you, my peace I geue you: I geue not vnto you, as the worlde geueth. Let not yor hert be troubled, nether let it be afrayed.

28 Ye haue herde, that I sayde vnto you: I go, & come agayne vnto you. Yf ye loued me, ye wolde reioyse, because I saide, I go to the father: for ye father is greater the I.

29 And now haue I tolde you, before it come, that whan it is come to passe, ye maye beleue:

30 Here after wyl not I talke moch with you. For the prynce of this worlde cometh, and hath nothinge in me.

31 But that the worlde maye knowe that I loue ye father. And as the father hath comaunded me, so do I. Aryse, let vs go hence.

Chapter 15

1 I am a true vyne, and my father is an hussbande man.

2 Euery braunch that bringeth not forth frute in me, shal he cut of: and euery one that bryngeth forth frute, shal he poure, yt it maye bringe forth more frute.

3 Now are ye cleane, because of the worde, that I haue spoke vnto you.

4 Byde ye in me, and I in you. Like as ye braunch can not brynge forth frute of it self excepte it byde in the vyne, Euen so nether ye also, excepte ye abyde in me.

5 I am the vyne, ye are the braunches. He that abydeh in me, and I in him, the same bryngeth forth moch frute: for without me can ye do nothinge.

6 He that abydeh not in me, is cast out as a vyne braunche, and it wythereth, and men gather it vp, and cast it in to the fyre, and it burneth.

7 Yf ye abyde in me, and my wordes abyde in you, ye shal axe what ye wyl, & it shal be done vnto you.

8 Herin is my father praysed, that ye brynge forth moch frute, and become my disciples.

9 Like as my father hath loued me, eue so haue I loued you. Cotynue ye i my loue.

10 Yf ye kepe my comaundementes, ye shal cotynue in my loue: like as I haue kepte my fathers comaundementes, and cotynue in his loue.

11 These thinges haue I spoken vnto you, that my ioye might remayne in you, and yt youre ioye might be perfecte.

12 This is my comaundement, that ye loue together, as I haue loued you.

13 No man hath greater loue, then to set his life for his frende.

14 Ye are my frendes, yf ye do that I commaunde you.

15 Hence forth call I you not seruauntes, for a seruaunt knoweth not what his lorde doeth. But I haue sayde that ye are frendes: For all that I haue herde of my father, haue I shewed vnto you.

16 Ye haue not chosen me, but I haue chosen you, and ordeyned you, that ye go, and bringe forth frute, and that youre frute contynne, that what soeuer ye axe the father in my name, he shulde geue it you.

17 This I commaunde you, that ye loue one another.

18 Yf the worlde hate you, then knowe, that it hath hated me before you.

19 Yf ye were of the worlde, the worlde wolde loue his awne. Howbeit because ye are not of the worlde, but I haue chosen you from the worlde, therefore the worlde hateth you.

20 Remembre my worde, that I sayde vnto you: The seruaunt is not greater then his lorde. Yf they haue persecuted me, they shal persecute you also: Yf they haue kepte my worde, they shal kepe yours also.

21 But all this shal they do vnto you for my names sake, because they knowe not him yt sent me.

22 Yf I had not come & spoke vnto the, the shulde they haue no synne But now haue they nothinge to cloake their synne withall.

23 He yt hateth me, hateth my father also.

24 Yf I had not done amoge the the workes which no other ma dyd, they shulde haue no synne. But now haue they sene it, and yet haue they hated both me & my father.

25 Neuertheles that the sayenge might be fulfilled, which is wyrtten in their lawe: They haue hated me without a cause.

26 But wha the comforter commeth, who I shal sende you from the father eue the sprete of trueth which procedeth of the father, he shal testifie of me

27 and ye shal beare wytnesse also: for ye haue bene with me from the begynnyng.

Chapter 16

1 These thinges haue I sayde vnto you, that ye shulde not be offended.

2 They shal excommunicate you. The tyme commeth, that who soeuer putteth you to death, shal thynke that he doth seruyce vnto God.

3 And soch thinges shal they do vnto you, because they haue nether knowne ye father ner yet me.

4 But these thinges haue I sayde vnto you, that when the tyme cometh ye maye thyne theron, that I tolde you. But these thinges haue I not sayde vnto you from the begynnyng: For I was with you.

5 But now I go vnto him that sent me, & none of you axeth me: Whither goest thou?

6 but because I haue sayde these thinges vnto you, youre hert is full of sorowe.

7 Neuertheles I tell you the trueth, It is better for you yt I go awaye: For yf I go not awaye that comforter commeth not vnto you: but yf I departe, I wil sende hi vnto you.

8 And when he commeth, he shal rebuke the worlde of synne, and of righteousnes, & of iudgment.

9 Of synne, because they beleue not on me.

10 Of righteousnes, because I go to the father, and ye shal se me nomore.

11 Of iudgment, because the prynce of this worlde is iudged already.

12 I haue yet moch to saye vnto you, but ye can not now beare it awaye:

13 howbeit when he (the sprete of trueth commeth) he shal lede you in to all trueth. For he shal not speake of himself, but what soeuer he shal heare, that shal he speake: and he shal shewe you, what is for to come.

14 He shal glorifye me: for he shal receaue of myne, and shal shewe vnto you.

15 All that the father hath, is myne. Therefore haue I sayde: he shal receaue of myne, and shewe vnto you.

16 After a litle whyle, and ye shal not se me: and agayne after a litle whyle, and ye shal se me: for I go to the father.

17 The saide some of his disciples amonge themselues: What is this that he sayeth vnto vs, After a litle whyle, and ye shal not se me: & agayne after a litle whyle, & ye shal se me: for I go to the father?

18 Then sayde they: What is this, that he sayeth: After a litle whyle? We can not tell what he sayeth.

19 Then perceaued Iesus that they wolde axe him, and he sayde vnto them: Ye enquire of this amonge youre selues, that I sayde: After a litle whyle, and ye shal not se me: & agayne after a litle whyle, and ye shal se me.

20 Verely verely I saye vnto you: Ye shal wepe and lamente, but the worlde shal reioyse: Ye shal be sory, but youre sorowe shal be turned in to ioye.

21 A woman when she trauallyeth, hath sorowe, for hir houre is come. But when she is deliuered of the childe, she thinketh nomore of the anguyshe, for ioye that a man is borne in to the worlde.

22 And now haue ye sorowe also: but I wil se you agayne, and youre hert shal reioyse, and youre ioye shal noman take from you.

23 And in that daye shal ye axe me no question. Verely verely I saye vnto you: Yf ye axe ye father ought in my name, he shal geue it you.

24 Hither to haue ye axed nothinge in my name. Axe, and ye shal receaue, yt your ioye maye be perfecte.

25 These thinges haue I spoken vnto you by prouerbes. Neuertheles the tyme commeth, that I shal speake nomore by prouerbes, but I shal shewe you planely of my father.

26 In that daye shal ye axe in my name. And I saye not vnto you, that I wyl praye vnto the father for you:

27 for the father himself loueth you, because ye haue loued me, & beleued that I am come out from God.

28 I wente out from the father, and came in to the worlde: Agayne, I leaue ye worlde, and go to the father.

29 His disciples sayde vnto him: Beholde, now talkest thou planely, and speakest no prouerbe.

30 Now are we sure yt thou knowest all thinges, and nedest not that eny ma shulde axe the. Therefore beleue we, that thou camest out from God:

31 Iesus answered them: Now ye do beleue:

32 Beholde, the houre draweth nye, and is come already, that ye shal be scatted, euery man in to his awne, and shal leaue me alone: and yet am I not alone, for the father is with me.

33 These thinges haue I spoken vnto you, that in me ye might haue peace. In ye worlde haue ye trouble, but be of good comforte, I haue ouercome the worlde.

Chapter 17

1 These thinges spake Iesus, and lift vp his eyes towarde heauen, and sayde: Father, the houre is come, that thou glorifye thy sonne, that thy sonne also maye glorifye the.

2 Like as thou hast geuen him power ouer all fleshe, that he shulde geue euerlastinge life to as many as thou hast geuen him.

3 But this is the life euerlastinge, that they knowe the (that thou onely art the true God) and whom thou hast sent, Iesus Christ.

4 I haue glorified ye vpo earth, & fynished ye worke, yt thou gauest me to do.

5 And now glorifye me thou father by thine awne self, with ye glory which I had or euer the worlde was.

6 I haue declared thy name vnto ye men, whom thou gauest me from the worlde. They were thine, and thou gauest them vnto me, and they haue kepte thy worde.

7 Now knowe they, that all thinges what soeuer thou hast geuen me, are of the.

8 For ye wordes which thou gauest me, haue I geue vnto them, and they haue receaued them, & knowne of a trueth, that I am come forth from the, and haue beleued, that thou hast sent me.

9 I praye for them, and praye not for the worlde, but for them whom thou hast geuen me, for they are thine.

10 And all that is myne, is thine: and what thine is, that is myne. And I am glorified in them.

11 And now am I nomore in the worlde, and they are in ye worlde, and I come to the. Holy father, kepe in thy name, those whom thou hast geue me, that they maye be one, like as we are.

12 Whyle I was with the in the worlde, I kepte them in thy name. Those yt thou gauest me, haue I kepte, and none of them is lost, but that lost childe, that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 But now come I vnto the, and this I speake in the worlde, that they maye haue my ioye perfecte in them.

14 I haue geuen them thy worde, and the worlde hateth the: for they are not of the worlde, euen as I also am not of the worlde.

15 I praye not that thou shuldest take them out of the worlde, but that thou kepe the fro euell.

16 They are not of the worlde, as I also am not of the worlde.

17 Sanctifye them in thy trueth. Thy worde is the trueth.

18 Like as thou hast sent me in to the worlde, so haue I sent them in to the worlde:

19 and for their sakes I sanctifye my self, that they also maye be sanctified in the trueth.

20 Neuertheles I praye not for them onely, but also for those, which thorow their worde shal beleue on me, 21 that they all maye be one, like as thou father art in me, and I in ye that they also maye be one in vs: that the worlde maye beleue, that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory which thou gauest me, haue I geuen them: that they maye be one, like as we are one.

23 I in the, and thou in me, that they maye be perfecte in one, and that the worlde maye knowe, that thou hast sent me and hast loued them, as thou hast loued me.

24 Father, I wil, that they whom thou hast geuen me, be with me where I am, yt they maye se my glory, which thou hast geue me: for thou hast loued me, or euer ye worlde was made.

25 Righteous father, the worlde hath not knowne ye, but I haue knowne ye: and these haue knowne, that thou hast sent me.

26 And I haue declared thy name vnto them, & wyl declare it, yt the loue wherwith thou hast loued me, maye be in the, & I in them.

Chapter 18

1 When Iesus had thus spoke, he wete forth with his disciples ouer the broke Cedron, where there was a garde, in to the which Iesus entred and his disciples.

2 But Iudas yt betrayed hi, knewe the place also. For Iesus resorted thither oft tymes wt his disciples.

3 Now when Iudas had take vnto him the copany, & mynisters of the hye prestes and Pharises, he came thither with creshettes, wt lanternes, and with weapens.

4 Iesus now knowinge all yt shulde come vpon him, wete forth, and sayde vnto the: Whom seke ye?

5 They answered him: Iesus of Nazareth. Iesus sayde vnto them: I am he. Iudas also which betrayed him, stode with the.

6 Now when Iesus sayde vnto the: I am he, they wete bacwardes, and fell to the grounde.

7 Then axed he the agayne: Whom seke ye? They sayde: Iesus of Nazareth.

8 Iesus answered: I haue tolde you, that I am he. Yf ye seke me, then let these go their waye.

9 That the worde might be fulfilled, which he sayde: Of them who thou gauest me, haue I not lost one.

10 Then had Symon Peter a swerde, and drew it out, and smote the hye prestes seruaut, and cut of his right eare. And ye seruantes name was Malchus.

11 Then sayde Iesus vnto Peter: Put vp thy swerde in to the sheeth. Shal I not drynke of ye cuppe, which my father hath geue me?

12 Then the company and the captayne & the officers of the Iewes toke Iesus, and bounde him, 13 & led him awaye first vnto Annas, that was fatherlawe vnto Caiphias, which was hye prest yt same yeare.

14 It was Caiphias, which gaue coucell vnto ye Iewes that it were good, that one man shulde dye for the people.

15 As for Symon Peter, he and another disciple folowed Iesus. The same disciple was knowne vnto the hye prest, and wete in with Iesus in to the hye prestes palace.

16 But Peter stode without at the dore. Then yt other disciple which was knowne vnto the hye prest, wente out, and spake to the damsell yt kepte the dore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then the damsell that kepte the dore, sayde vnto Peter: Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He sayde: I am not.

18 The seruantes & officers stode, and had made a fyre of coles (for it was colde) & warmed the selues. Peter also stode with them, and warmed him self.

19 The hye prest axed Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctryne.

20 Iesus answered him: I haue spoken openly before the worlde, I haue euer taught in the synagoge and in the temple, whither all the Iewes resorted, & in secrete haue I spoke nothinge.

21 Why axest thou me? Axe the yt haue herde, what I haue spoken vnto the: beholde, they can tell what I haue sayde.

22 But when he had thus spoke, one of the officers that stode by, smote Iesus on the face, and sayde: Answerest thou the hye prest so?

23 Iesus answered him: Yf I haue euell spoke, the beare wytnesse of euell: but yf I haue well spoken, why smytest thou me?

24 And Annas sent him bounde vnto Caiphias ye hye prest.

25 Symon Peter stode and warmed him self. The sayde they vnto him: Art not thou one of his disciples? He denied, and sayde: I am not.

26 A seruaut of the hye prestes, a kynssma of his, whose care Peter had smytten of, sayde vnto him: Dyd not I see the in the garde with him?

27 Then Peter denyed agayne. And immediatly the cock crew.

28 Then led they Iesus from Caiphas in to the comon hall. And it was early in the mornynge. And they them selues wete not in to the como hall, lest they shulde be defyled, but yt they might eate ye Pascall lambe.

29 Then wente Pilate out vnto the, and sayde: What accusacion brynge ye agaynst this man?

30 They answered, and sayde vnto him: Yf he were not an euell doer, we had not deluyered him vnto the.

31 Then sayde Pilate vnto the: Take ye him, and iudge him after yor lawe. Then sayde ye Iewes vnto him: It is not laulful for vs to put eny ma to death.

32 That ye worde of Iesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, whan he signified, what death he shulde dye.

33 Then entred Pilate in to the comon hall agayne, and called Iesus, & sayde vnto him: Art thou the kynge of the Iewes?

34 Iesus answered: Sayest thou that of thy self, or haue other tolde it of me?

35 Pilate answered: Am I a Iewe? Thy people and the hye prestes haue deluyered the vnto me. What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered: My kyngdome is not of this worlde. Yf my kyngdome were of this worlde, my mynisters wolde fight therfore, yt I shulde not be deluyered vnto the Iewes. But now is my kyngdome not from hence.

37 The sayde Pilate vnto hi: Art thou a kynge the? Iesus answered: Thou sayest it, for I am a kynge. For this cause was I borne, and came in to the worlde, that I shulde testifie the trueth. Who so euer is of the trueth, heareth my voyce.

38 Pilate sayde vnto hi: What is the trueth? And whan he had sayde that he wete out agayne to the Iewes, and sayde vnto them: I fynde no gyltinesse in him:

39 But ye haue a custome, that I shulde geue one vnto you lowse at Easter. Wyl ye now yt I lowse vnto you the kynge of ye Iewes?

40 The cryed they agayne altogether, and sayde: Not him, but Barrabas. Yet was Barrabas a murthurer.

Chapter 19

1 Then Pilate toke Iesus, and scourged him.

2 And the soudyers platted a crowne of thornes, and set it vpon his heade, and put a purple garment vpon him,

3 and sayde: Hayle kynge of the Iewes. And they smote him on the face.

4 Then wente Pilate forth agayne, and sayde vnto the: Beholde, I brynge him forth vnto you, yt ye maye knowe, yt I fynde no faute in hi.

5 So Iesus wente out, & ware a crowne of thorne and a purple robe. And he sayde vnto them: Beholde, the man.

6 Whan the hye prestes & the mynisters sawe him, they cryed, & sayde: Crucifye, crucifye. Pilate saide vnto the: Take ye him, and crucifye him, for I fynde no gyltinesse in him.

7 The Iewes answered him: We haue a lawe, & after oure lawe he ought to dye, because he made him self the sonne of God.

8 Whan Pilate herde that worde, he was the more afrayed,

9 and wente agayne in to the comon hall, and sayde vnto Iesus: Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him no answere.

10 The sayde Pilate vnto him: Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not, yt I haue power to crucifye ye, & haue power to lowse ye?

11 Iesus answered: Thou shuldest haue no power vpo me, yf it were not geue the from aboue. Therfore he that deluyered me vnto ye, hath the more synne.

12 From that tyme forth Pilate sought meanes to lowse him. But the Iewes cryed, & sayde: Yf thou let him go, thou art not the Emperours frede. For whosoouer maketh himself kynge, is agaynst the Emperoure.

13 Whan Pilate herde yt worde, he brought Iesus forth, & sat hi downe vpo ye iugdmets seate, in the place which is called the Pauement, but in the Hebrue, Gabbatha.

14 It was the daye of preparinge of the Easter aboute the sixte houre. And he sayde vnto the Iewes: Beholde yor kynge.

15 But they cryed: Awaye wt him, awaye wt him, crucifie him. Pilate saide vnto the: Shal I crucifye yor kynge? The hye prestes answered: We haue no kynge but ye Emperour.

16 The deluyered he him vnto them, to be crucified. They toke Iesus, and led him awaye.

17 And he bare his crosse, and wente out to the place called ye place of deed men skulles, which in Hebrue is named Golgatha,

18 where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either syde one, but Iesus in the myddes

19 Pilate wrote a superscripcion, and set vpon the crosse. And there was written: Iesus of Nazareth, kynge of the Iewes.

20 This superscripcion red many of the Iewes. For ye place where Iesus was crucified, was nye vnto the cite. And it was written in Hebrue, Greke & Latyn.

21 Then sayde the hye prestes of the Iewes vnto Pilate: Wryte not kynge of the Iewes, but yt he sayde, I am kynge of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered: What I haue written, that haue I written.

23 The soudyers, whan they had crucified Iesus, toke his garmentes, and made foure partes, to euery soudyer one patte, and the cote also. As for the cote, it was vnsowed fro aboue, wrought thorow and thorow.

24 Then sayde they one to another: Let vs not deuyde it, but cast lottes for it, who shal haue it, that the scripture might be fulfilled, which sayeth: They haue parted my garmentes amonge them, and on my cote haue they cast lottes. This dyd the soudyers in dede.

25 There stode by the crosse of Iesus, his mother, and his mothers sister Mary, the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 Now whan Iesus sawe his mother, and the disciple stondynge by, who he loued, he sayde vnto his mother: Woman, beholde, that is thy sonne.

27 Then sayde he to the disciple: beholde, that is thy mother. And from that houre the disciple toke her vnto him.

28 After that whan Iesus knewe that all was performed, that the scripture might be fulfilled, he sayde: I am a thyrst.

29 There stode a vessell full of vyneger. They fylled a sponge with vyneger and wonde it aboute with ysopo, and helde it to his mouth.

30 Now whan Iesus had receaued the vyneger, he sayde: It is fynished, and bowed his heade, and gaue vp the goost.

31 The Iewes then, for ye moch as it was the daye of preparinge, that ye bodies shulde not remayne vpon the crosse on the Sabbath, (for ye same Sabbath daye was greate) besought Pilate, that their legges might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

32 Then came the soudyers, and brake the legges of the first, and of the other that was crucified with him.

33 But whan they came to Iesus, and sawe that he was deed already, they brake not his legges, 34 but one of the soudyers opened his syde with a speare. And immediatly there wente out bloude and water.

35 And he that sawe it, bare recorde, and his recorde is true. And he knoweth that he sayeth true, that ye might beleue also.

36 For this is done, yt the scripture might be fulfilled: Ye shal not breake a bone of him.

37 And agayne, another scripture sayeth: They shal see him, whom they haue pearsed.

38 After that, Ioseph of Arimathia, which was a disciple of Iesus (but secretly for feare of the Iewes) besought Pilate, yt he might take downe the body of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him lycence.

39 There came also Nicodemus, (which afore came vnto Iesus by night) & brought of Myrre & Aloes mingled together, aboute an hudreth poude weight.

40 The toke they the body of Iesus, & wonde it with linnen clothes, and with the spyces, as the maner of the Iewes is to burye.

41 And by ye place where Iesus was crucified, there was a garde, and in the garden a new sepulchre, where in was neuer man layed:

42 there layed they Iesus, because of the preparinge daye of ye Iewes, for the sepulchre was nye at hande.

Chapter 20

1 Vpon one daye of the Sabbath, came Mary Magdalene early (whe it was yet darcke) vnto the sepulchre, & sawe that the stone was take from the sepulchre.

2 Then ranne she, & came to Symon Peter, and to ye other disciple, whom Iesus loued, and sayde vnto them: They haue take awaye the LORDE out of the sepulchre, & we can not tell where they haue layed him.

3 The wete Peter forth and the other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 They rane both together, and that other disciple out rane Peter, and came first to the sepulchre,

5 and loked in, and sawe the linnen clothes layed. But he wete not in.

6 The came Symon Peter after him, and wente in to the sepulchre, & sawe the linne clothes lye,

7 and the napkyn that was bounde aboute Iesus heade, not layed with the linnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it self.

8 The wete i also yt other disciple, which came first to ye sepulchre, & he sawe & beleued:

9 for as yet they knewe not ye scriptures, yt it behoued hi to ryse agayne fro ye deed.

10 The wete ye disciples againe together.

11 As for Mary, she stode before ye sepulchre & wepte without. Now as she wepte she loked in to the sepulchre, 12 and sawe two angels in whyte garmentes syttinge, ye one at the heade, & the other at ye fete, where they had layed the body of Iesus.

13 And they sayde vnto her: Woma, why wepest thou? She saide vnto the: They haue taken awaye my LORDE, & I wote not where they haue layed hi.

14 And whan she had sayde yt, she turned her self backe, & sawe Iesus stondinge, & knewe not yt it was Iesus.

15 Iesus sayde vnto her: Woma, why wepest thou? Whom sekest thou? She thought yt it had bene ye gardener, & sayde vnto him: Syr, yf thou hast borne him hence: then tell me where thou hast layed him? and I wil fetch hi.

16 Iesus sayde vnto her: Mary. Then turned she her aboute, & sayde vnto him: Rabboni, yt is to saye: Master.

17 Iesus sayde vnto her: Touche me not, for I am not yet ascended vnto my father. But go thou yi waye vnto my brethre & saye vnto the: I ascede vp vnto my father and yor father: to my God, & yor God.

18 Mary Magdalene came, & tolde ye disciples: I haue sene the LORDE, & soch thinges hath he spoken vnto me.

19 The same Sabbath at eue wha ye disciples were gathered together, and the dores were shut for feare of ye Iewes, came Iesus, and stode i ye myddes, & sayde vnto the: Peace be wt you.

20 And wha he had so sayde, he shewed the his hades & his syde. The were ye disciples glad, yt they sawe ye LORDE.

21 The sayde Iesus vnto the agayne:

Peace be with you. Like as my father sent me, eue so sede I you.

22 And whan he had sayde yt, he brethed vpo the, and sayde vnto the: Receaue the holy goost.

23 Whose synnes soeuer ye remytte, they are remytted vnto the: and whose synnes so euer ye retayne, they are retainned.

24 But Thomas one of the twolue which is called Didimus, was not wt the wha Iesus came.

25 The sayde the other disciples vnto him: We haue sene the LORDE. But he sayde vnto the: Excepte I se in his handes the prynte of the nales, and put my hade in to his syde, I wil not beleue.

26 And after eight dayes agayne were his disciples with in, & Thomas wt the. The came Iesus (wha ye doers were shutt) & stode in the myddes, & sayde: Peace be wt you.

27 After yt sayde he vnto Thomas: Reach hither yi fynger, and se my handes, and reach hither yi hade, & put it i to my syde, & be not faithlesse, but beleue.

28 Thomas answered, & sayde vnto him: My LORDE, and my God.

29 Iesus sayde vnto him: Thomas, because thou hast sene me, thou hast beleued. Blessed are they, that se not, and yet beleue.

30 Many other tokes dyd Iesus before his disciples, which are not wrytte in this boke.

31 But these are wrytte, yt ye shulde beleue, yt Iesus is Christ the sonne of God, & that ye thorow beleue might haue life in his name.

Chapter 21

1 After that shewed Iesus himself agayne at the see of Tiberias But on this wyse shewed he himself.

2 There were together Symo Peter, & Thomas which is called Didimus, & Nathanael of Cana a cite of Galile, & the sonnes of Zebede, & two other of his disciples.

3 Symon Peter sayde vnto the: I go a fyshinge. They sayde vnto hi: We also wil go wt the. They wete out, & entred into a shippe straight waye. And yt same night toke they nothinge.

4 But wha it was now morow, Iesus stode on the shore, but his disciples knewe not yt it was Iesus.

5 Iesus sayde vnto the: Childre, haue ye eny thinge to eate? They answered hi: No.

6 He sayde vnto the: Cast out the nett on ye right syde of the shippe, & ye shal fynde. The they cast out, & coulede nomore drawe it for ye multitude of fishes.

7 The sayde ye disciple who Iesus loued, vnto Peter: It is the LORDE. Whan Simon Peter herde that is was the LORDE, he gyrde his mantell aboute him (for he was naked) and sprange in to ye see.

8 But other disciples came by shippe (for they were not farre fro londe, but as it were two hundreth cubytes) and they drewe the net with the fysshes.

9 Now whan they were come to londe, they sawe coles layed, and fysh theron, and bred.

10 Iesus sayde vnto the: Bringe hither of the fyshes, that ye haue taken now.

11 Symon Peter stepped forth, and drew the nett to the londe, full of greates fysshes, an hundreth and thre and fyftie. And for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus sayde vnto them: Come, and dyne. But none of the disciples durst axe him: Who art thou? For they knewe, that it was the LORDE.

13 Then came Iesus, and toke ye bred, and gaue it the: and the fysshe likewise.

14 This is now the thirde tyme that Iesus appeared vnto his disciples, after that he was rysen agayne from the deed.

15 Now wha they had dyned, Iesus sayde vnto Symon Peter: Symo Iohana, louest thou me more then these do? He sayde vnto him: Yee LORDE, thou knowest yt I loue the. He sayde vnto him: Fede my labes.

16 He sayde vnto him agayne the seconde tyme: Symo Iohana, louest thou me? He sayde vnto him: Yee LORDE, thou knowest, yt I loue ye. He sayde vnto him: Fede my shepe.

17 He saide vnto him ye thirde tyme: Symon Iohana, louest thou me? Peter was sory, because he sayde vnto him, louest thou me? And he sayde vnto him: LORDE, thou knowest all thinges, thou knowest, that I loue ye. Iesus sayde vnto him: Fede my shepe.

18 Verely verely I saye vnto the: Whan thou wast yoge, thou gerdest thyselfe, and walkedst whither thou woldest. But wha thou art olde, thou shalt stretch forth thy handes, and another shal gyrd the, and lede the whither thou woldest not.

19 But this he sayde, to signyfy with what death he shulde glorifye God. Whan he had spoken this, he sayde vnto him: Folowe me.

20 Peter turned him aboute, and sawe the disciple folowinge, whom Iesus loued, (which also leane vpo his brest at the supper, and sayde: LORDE, who is it that betrayeth the)?

21 Wha Peter sawe him, he sayde vnto Iesus: LORDE, but what shal he do?

22 Iesus sayde vnto him: Yf I wil that he tary tyll I come, what is that to the? Folowe thou me.

23 Then wente there out a sayenge amonge the brethren: This disciple dyeth not. And Iesus sayde not vnto him: He dyeth not, but: Yf I wil that he tary tyll I come, what is that to the?

24 This is the same disciple, which testifyeth of these thinges, and wrote these thinges, and we knowe that his testimony is true.

25 There are many other thinges also that Iesus dyd, which, yf they shulde be wrytte euery one, I suppose the worlde shulde not contayne the bokes, that were to be wrytten.

ACTS

Chapter 1

1 The first treatise (deare Theophilus) haue I made of all that Iesus beganne to do and to teache,

2 vntyll ye daye that he was taken vp, after that he (thorow the holy goost) had geuen commaundementes to to the Apostles, whom he had choson:

3 to who also he shewed himself alyue after his passion, by many tokes, and appeared vnto them fourtye dayes longe, and spake vnto them of the kyngdome of God.

4 And whan he had gathered them together, he commaunded them that they shulde not departe from Ierusalem, but to wayte for the promyse of the father, wherof (sayde he) ye haue herde of me: 5 For Ihon baptysed with water, but ye shalbe baptysed wt ye holy goost, & that within this few dayes.

6 Now whan they were come together, they axed him, and sayde: LORDE, shalt thou at this tyme set vp the kyngdome of Israel agayne?

7 But he sayde vnto them: It belongeth not vnto you to knowe the tymes or seasons, which the father hath kepte in his awne power,

8 but ye shal receaue the power of ye holy goost, which shal come vpon you, and ye shalbe my witnesses at Ierusalem, and in all Iewrye and Samaria, and vnto the ende of the earth.

9 And whan he had spoken these thinges, whyle they behelde, he was taken vp, and a cloude receaued him from their sight.

10 And whyle they loked after him, as he wente in to heauen, beholde, there stode by them two men in whyte garmentes,

11 which also sayde: Ye men of Galile, Why stonde ye gasynge vp in to heauen? This Iesus which is take vp from you in to heauen shal come euen so as ye haue sene him go in to heauen.

12 Then turned they agayne from ye mount that is called Oliuete, which is nye to Ierusalem, and hath a Sabbath dayes iourney.

13 And whan they came in, they wente vp in to a parler, where abode Peter and Iames, Ihon and Andrew, Philippe and Thomas, Bartilmew and Mathew, Iames the sonne of Alpheus, and Simon Zelotes, and Iudas the sonne of Iames.

14 These all contynued with one acorde in prayer and supplicacion, with the wemen and Mary the mother of Iesu and with his brethren.

15 And in those dayes Peter stode vp in the myddes amonge the disciples, and sayde: (The company of the names together, was aboute an hundreth and twentye.)

16 Ye men and brethren, this scripture must nedes be fulfilled, which ye holy goost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Iudas, which was a gyde of the that toke Iesus:

17 for he was nombred with vs, and had opteyned the felashippe of this mynistracion.

18 This same trulye possessed the felde for the rewarde of vnrighteousnes, and hanged himself, and brast asunder in the myddes, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it is knowne vnto all the that dwell at Ierusalem, in so moch that the same felde is called in their mother tonge Acheldema, that is to saye, the bloude felde.

20 For it is wrytten in the boke of psalmes: His habitacion be voyde, and noman be dwellinge therin. And: His bisshoprike another take.

21 Wherfore amonge these men which haue bene gathered together with vs (all the tyme that the LORDE Iesus wete out and in amonge vs, 22 begynnynge from the baptye of Ihon, vntyll ye daye that he was take vp from vs) must one be a wytnesse with vs of his resurreccion.

23 And they appoynted two (Ioseph called Barsabas, whose syname was Iustus, and Mathias.)

24 makinge their prayer and sayenge: Thou LORDE, which knowest the hertes of all men, shewe whether of these two thou hast choson,

25 that the one maye take the rowme of this mynistracion and Apostelshippe, from the which Iudas by transgression fell, that he might go awaye in to his awne place.

26 And they gaue forth the lottes ouer them, and the lot fell vpon Mathias. And he was counted with the eleuen Apostles.

Chapter 2

1 And whan the Whit sondaye was fulfilled, they were all with one acorde together in one place.

2 And sodenly there came a sounde from heauen, as it had bene the comynge of a mightie wynde, and it fylled the whole house where they sat.

3 And there appeared vnto them clouen tinges, like as they had bene of fyre. And he sat vpon ech one of them,

4 and they were all fylled with the holy goost. And they beganne to preach with other tinges, euen as the sprete gaue them vtterance.

5 There were dwellinge at Ierusalem Iewes, men that feared God, out of euery nacion that is vnder heauen.

6 Now whan this voyce came to passe, the multitude came together, and were astonyed: For euery one herde, that they spake with his awne tunge.

7 They wondred all and marueyled, and sayde amonge them selues: Beholde, are not all these which speake, of Galile?

8 How heare we the euery one his awne tunge, wherin we were borne?

9 Parthians and Medes, and Elamites, and we that dwell in Mesopotamia, and in Iewry and Capadocia, Pontus, and Asia, 10 Phrigia and Pamphilia, Egipte, and in the partes of Lybia by Cyren, and strangers of Rome, Iewes and Proselytes,

11 Cretes and Arabians: we heare them speake with oure awne tunges the greate workes of God.

12 They were all amased, and wondred, and sayde one to another: What wil this be?

13 But other mocked them, and sayde: They are full of swete wyne.

14 Then stode Peter vp with the eleuen, and lift vp his voyce, and sayde vnto them: Ye men of Iewry, and all ye that dwell at Ierusalem, be this knowne vnto you, and let my wordes entre in at youre eares.

15 For these are not dronken, as ye suppose, for it is yet but the thirde houre of ye daye:

16 but this is it, that was spoke before by the prophet Iael:

17 And it shal come to passe in the last dayes, sayeth God, I will poure out of my sprete vpon all flesh, and youre sonnes and youre doughters shal prophceye, and youre yonge men shal se visions and youre olde men shall dreame dreames,

18 and on my seruantes and on my handmaydens wyll I poure out of my sprete in those dayes, & they shal prophceye.

19 And I wil shewe wonders in heauen aboue, and tokens on the earth beneth, bloude and fyre, and the vapoure of smoke.

20 The Sonne shalbe turned in to darknesse, and the Moone in to bloude, before that greate and notable daye of the LORDE come.

21 And it shall come to passe, Who so euer shal call vpo the name of the LORDE, shalbe saued.

22 Ye men of Israel, heare these wordes: Iesus of Nazareth, ye man approued of God amonge you with miracles, and wonders and tokens, which God dyd by him in the myddes amonge you, as ye your selues knowe also,

23 him (after that he was deluyered by the determinate councell and foreknowlege of God) haue ye taken by the handes of vnrighteous personnes, and crucified him, & slayne him,

24 who God hath rayssed vp, and lowshed the sorowes of death, for so moch as it was vnpossyble that he shulde be holden of it.

25 For Daudid speaketh of him: Afore honde haue I set the LORDE allwayes before me, for he is on my right hode, that I shulde not be moued.

26 Therefore dyd my hert reioyse, and my tunge was glad: For my flesh also shal rest in hope.

27 For thou shalt not leaue my soule in hell, nether shalt thou suffer yi Holy to se corrupcion.

28 Thou hast shewed me the wayes of life, thou shalt make me full of ioye with thy countenance.

29 Ye men and brethren, let me frely speake vnto you of the Patryarke Daudid: For he is deed and buried, and his sepulcre is with vs vnto this daye.

30 Wherefore now seinge yt he was a prophet, and knewe that God had promised him with an ooth, that the frute of his loynes shulde syt on his seate, 31 he sawe it before, and spake of the resurreccion of Christ: for his soule was not left in hell, nether hath his flesh sene corrupcion.

32 This Iesus hath God rayssed vp, wherof we all are witnesses.

33 Seynge now that he by the right hande of God is exalted, and hath receaued of ye father ye promyse of the holy goost, he hath shed forth this, that ye se and heare.

34 For Daudid is not ascended in to heauen, but he sayde: The LORDE sayde vnto my LORDE: Syt thou on my righte hande, 35 vntyll I make thine enemies yi fote stole.

36 So therfore let all the house of Israel knowe for a suertye, yt God hath made this same Iesus (whom ye haue crucified) LORDE and Christ.

37 Whan they herde this, their hert pricked them, and they sayde vnto Peter and to the other Apostles: Ye men and brethre, What shal we do?

38 Peter sayde onto them: Amede youre selues, and let euery one of you be baptysed in the name of Iesus Christ, for the remyssion of synnes, and ye shal receaue the gifte of the holy goost.

39 For this promyse was made vnto you and youre children, and to all that are farre of, who so euer the LORDE oure God shal call.

40 And wt many other wordes bare he witness, and exorted them, and sayde: Saue youre selues from this vntowarde generacion.

41 They that gladly receaued his preachinge, were baptysed, & the same daye there were added vnto them aboute thre thousande soules.

42 They contynued in the Apostles doctryne, and in the felashippe, and in breakynge of bred, and in prayer.

43 And feare came vpo euery soule, and many wonders and tokens were done by ye Apostles.

44 But all they that beleued, were together, and had all thinges commen.

45 They solde their goodes and possessions, and parted them out amonge all, acordinge as euery ma had nede.

46 And they contynued daylie with one acorde in the teple, and brake bred in euery house: they toke their meate with ioye & synglenesse of hert, 47 praysinge God, and had faouure with all ye people. And the LORDE added to the congregacion daylie such as shulde be saued.

Chapter 3

1 Peter and Ihon wente vp together in to the temple aboute the nyenth houre to praye.

2 And there was a certayne man halt from his mothers wombe, whom they brought and layed daylie at the gate of the teple, which is called, the Bewtyfull, that he might axe almesse of them that wete in to the temple.

3 Now whan he sawe Peter and Ihon, that they wolde in to the temple, he desyred to receaue an almesse.

4 Peter behelde him with Ihon, and sayde: Loke on vs.

5 And he gaue hede vnto them, hopynge to receaue some thinge of them.

6 Howbeit Peter saide: Syluer and golde haue I none: but soch as I haue geue I the. In the name of Iesus Christ of Nazareth ryse vp & walke.

7 And he toke him by the righte hande and lifte him vp. Immediatly his legges & ancle bones were made stroge,

8 and he sprange, stode and walked, and entred with them in to the teple, walkynge, and leapinge and praysinge God.

9 And all the people sawe him walke and prayse God.

10 And they knewe him, yt it was he, which sat for almesse at the bewtyfull gate of the temple. And they were fylled with wondrynge, and were astonnyed at that, which had happened vnto hi.

11 But as this halt which was healed helde him to Peter and Ihon, all the people ranne vnto them in to the porche, which is called Salomos, and wondred.

12 Whan Peter sawe that, he answered vnto the people: Ye men of Israel, why maruayle ye at this, or why loke ye so at vs, as though we by oure awne power or deseruyng, had made this man to walke?

13 The God of Abraham and of Isaac, and of Iacob, ye God of oure fathers hath glorified his childe Iesus, whom ye deluyered and denied in the presence of Pilate, whan he had iudged him to be lowshed.

14 But ye denied the holy and iust, and desyred the murthurer to be geuen you, 15 but ye slewe the prynce of life, whom God hath rayssed from the deed, of the which we are witnesses.

16 And thorow ye faith in his name, hath he confirmed his name vpon this man, whom ye se and knowe: and faith thorow him, hath geue this man this health before youre eyes.

17 Now deare brethre, I knowe that ye haue done it thorow ignoraunce, as dyd also youre rulers.

18 But God, which by the mouth of all his prophetes had shewed before, yt his Christ shulde suffre, hath so fulfilled it.

19 Do penance now therfore and turne you, that youre synnes maye be done awaye, whan the tyme of refreshinge shal come before the presence of the LORDE, 20 and whan he shal sende him, which now before is preached vnto you, euen Iesus Christ:

21 which must receaue heauen vntyll the tyme that all thinges, which God hath spoken by the mouth of his holy prophetes sence ye worlde beganne, be restored agayne.

22 For Moses sayde vnto ye fathers: A prophet shal the LORDE youre God rayse vp vnto you, euen from amoge youre brethren, like vnto me: him shal ye heare, in all that he shal saye vnto you.

23 And it shal come to passe, what soule soeuer shal not heare the same prophet, shal be destroyed from amonge the people.

24 And all the prophetes from Samuel and thence forth as many as haue spoken, haue likewise tolde of these dayes.

25 Ye are the children of the prophetes and of the couenaunt, which God made vnto or fathers, whan he sayde vnto Abraha: Thorow yi sede shal all ye nacios of ye earth be blessed.

26 First vnto you hath God rayssed vp his childe Iesus, & sent hi vnto you, to blesse you yt euery one shulde turne fro his wickednesse.

Chapter 4

1 But as they spake to ye people, there came vnto the the prestes and the rulers of the teple, and the Saduces,

2 who it greued yt they taught the people, & preached in Iesu ye resurreccion fro the deed

3 and they layed handes vpon them, and put the in holde tyll the morow: for it was now euentide.

4 Howbeit many of the which herde the worde, beleued, and the nombre of ye men was aboute fyue thousande.

5 And it chaunced on ye morow, that their rulers and Elders and scribes

6 (as Annas ye hye prest and Caiphaz, and Ihon & Alexander, and as many as were of the hye prestes kynred) gathered them selues together at Ierusalem,

7 and set them before them, and axed them: By what auctorite, Or in what name haue ye done this?

8 Peter full of the holy goost, sayde vnto them: Ye rulers of the people, and ye Elders of Israel,

9 Yf we this daye be examyned concernynge this good dede vpon the sicke ma, by what meanes he is made whole,

10 he it knowne then vnto you and to all the people of Israel, that in ye name of Iesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, who God hath rayssed vp from the deed, stodeth this man here before you whole.

11 This is the stone refused of you buylders, which is become the heade corner stone, 12 nether is there saluacion in eny other: Ner yet also is there geue vnto me eny other name, wherin we must be saued.

13 They sawe the boldnesse of Peter & Ihon and marueyled, for they were sure yt they were vnlerned men and laye people. And they knewe the also, that they were wt Iesu.

14 As for the man yt was made whole, they sawe hi stodinge by the, & coulde not saye agaynst it.

15 Then comaunded they the to stode asyde out of ye councell, & comened amonge the selues,

 16 & saide: What shal we do to these me? for a manyfest token is done by them, and is openly knowne vnto the that dwell at Ierusalem, and we can not denye it.
 17 But that it breake out no farther amonge the people, let vs threaten them earnestly, that hence forth they speake of this name vnto noman.
 18 And they called them, and comaunded the, that in eny wyse they shulde not speake ner teache in the name of Iesu.
 19 But Peter & Ihon answered, and sayde vnto the: Iudge ye youre selues, whether it be right before God, that we shulde be more obedient vnto you, then vnto God.
 20 We can not chose, but speake that we haue sene & herde.
 21 But they threatened them, and let them go, and founde nothinge how to punyshe them because of ye people: for they all prayed God because of that, which was done.
 22 For the man, vpon whom this token of health was done, was aboute fourtye yeare olde.
 23 And whan they were let go, they came to their folowes, and tolde them what ye hye prestes and Elders sayde vnto them.
 24 Wha they herde that, they lifte vp their voyce wt one acorde vnto God, and sayde: LORDE, thou that art the God which made heauen and earth, and the see, and all that therein is thou 25 that by the mouth of Daudid thy seruaut hast sayde: Why do the Heythe rage? and ye people ymagin vayne thinges?
 26 The kynges of the earth stonde vp, and the prynces haue gathered them selues together agaynst ye LORDE, and agaynst his. Christ.
 27 Of a trueth agaynst thy holy childe Iesus, whom thou hast anoynted, both Herode & Pontius Pilate with the Heythen and people of Israel, haue gathered the selues together, 28 to do what soeuer thy hande and thy counsell determynd before to be done.
 29 And now LORDE, beholde their threatenynge, and graunte vnto thy seruauntes with all stedfast boldnesse to speake thy worde:
 30 and stretch out thine hande, that healinge and tokes and wonders maye be done by the name of thy holy childe Iesus.
 31 And wha they had prayed, the place moued where they were gathered together, & they were all fylled with ye holy goost, & spake the worde of God boldly.
 32 The multitude of them that beleued, were of one hert and of one soule. Also none of them sayde of his goodes, that they were his awne, but had all thinges comen.
 33 And with greate power gaue the Apostles witness of the resurreccion of the LORDE Iesu, and greate grace was with them all.
 34 Nether was there eny amonge them that lacked. For as many as were possessers of londes or houses, solde the and brought ye money of the goodes that were solde,

 35 and layed it at the Apostles fete. And distribucion was made vnto euery ma, acordinge as he had nede.
 36 Ioses which was also called of ye Apostles, Barnabas (that is to saye, the sonne of consolacion) a Leuite, of the countre of Cypers, 37 had londe, and solde it, & brought the money, and layed it at the Apostles fete.

Chapter 5

1 But a certayne man named Ananias with Saphira his wife, solde his possession,
 2 and kepte away parte of the money (his wife knowinge of it) and broughte one parte, & layed it at the Apostles fete.
 3 But Peter sayde: Ananias, Wherefore hath Sathan fylled thine hert, that thou shuldest lye vnto the holy goost, and withdrawe away parte of the money of the lyuelod?
 4 Mightest thou not haue kepte it, whan thou haddest it? And whan it was solde, the money was also in thy power: Why hast thou then concealed this thinge in thine hert? Thou hast not lyed vnto me, but vnto God.
 5 Whan Ananias herde these wordes, he fell downe, & gaue vp the goost. And there came a greate feare vpon all the that herde of this.
 6 The yonge men rose vp, and put him asyde, and caried him out, and buried him.
 7 And it fortunated as it were aboute ye space of thre houres after, his wife came in, and knewe not what was done.
 8 But Peter answered vnto her. Tell me, solde ye the londe for somoch? She sayde: Yee, for so moch.
 9 Peter sayde vnto her: Why haue ye agreed together, to tempte the sprete of the LORDE? Beholde, the fete of the which haue buried thy hussbande, are at the dore, & shal carye the out.
 10 And immediatly she fell downe at his fete, and gaue vp the goost. Then came in the yonge men, and founde her deed, and caried her out, and buried her by hir hussbade.
 11 And there came a greate feare ouer the whole congregacion, and ouer all the that herde it.
 12 Many tokens and wonders were done amonge the people by the hades of the Apostles (and they were all together with one acorde in Salomons porche:
 13 but of other there durst no man ioyne him self vnto the, neuertheles the people helde moch of them.
 14 The multitude of the men and women that beleued in the LORDE, grewe more and more)
 15 In so moch that they brought out the sycke in to the stretes, and layed them vpon beddes and barowes, that at the leest waye the shadowe of Peter (whan he came by) might ouershadowe some of the.
 16 There came many also out of ye cities rounde aboute vnto Ierusalem, and brought the sicke and the that were vexed with vnclene spretes, and they were healed euery one.

 17 But the hye prest rose vp, and all they yt were with him, which is the secte of the Saduces, and were full of indignacion, 18 & layed handes on the Apostles, and put them in the comon preson.
 19 But the angell of ye LORDE by night opened the preson dores, and brought the out, and sayde:
 20 Go youre waye and steppe vp, and speake in the temple to the people all the wordes of this life.
 21 Whan they herde that, they entred in to the temple early in the mornyng: and taught. But the hye prest came, and they yt were with him, and called the counsell together, & all ye Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the preson to fet them.
 22 The mynisters came and founde them not in the preson, came agayne, and tolde.
 23 and sayde: The preson founde we shut with all diligence, and the keepers stondinge without before the dores: but wha we had opened, we founde noman therein.
 24 Whan the hye prest, and the rulers of the temple and the other hye prestes herde these wordes, they douted of them, whervnto this wolde growe.
 25 Then came there one, which tolde them: Beholde, the men that ye put in preson, are in the temple, stondinge and teachinge the people.
 26 Then wete ye rulers with their mynisters, and fetched them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they shulde haue bene stoned.
 27 And whan they had brought them, they set the before the counsell. And the hye prest axed them, 28 and sayde: Dyd not we comaunde you strately, that ye shulde not teache in this name. And beholde, ye haue fylled Ierusalem with youre doctryne, and ye intede to brynge this mans bloude vpon vs.
 29 But Peter and the Apostles answered, and sayde: We ought more to obeye God then men.
 30 The God of oure fathers hath rayسد vp Iesus, who ye slewe, and hanged on tre.
 31 Him hath the righte hande of God exalted, to be a prynce and Saioure, to geue repentance and forgeuenesse of synnes vnto Israel.
 32 And we are his recorderes of these wordes, and the holy goost, who God hath geuen vnto the that obeye him.
 33 Wha they herde that, it wente thorow the hertes of them, and they thoughte to slaye them.
 34 Then stode there vp in ye counsell a pharyse, named Gamaliel, a scribe, had in greate reputacion before all ye people, and bad put the Apostles asyde a litle,
 35 and sayde vnto them: Ye men of Israel, take hede to youre selues, what ye do as touchinge these men.
 36 Before these dayes rose vp one

Theudas, boostinge himself. (And there cleued vnto him a noble of me, aboute a foure hundreth) which was slayne, and all they yt enclyned vnto him, were scatered abroad, and brought to naught.
 37 After this stode vp Iudas of Galile in ye dayes of trybute, and drewe awaye moch people after him, & he also perished, & all they that enclyned vnto him, are scatered abroad.
 38 And now I saye vnto you: refrayne yor selues from these men, and let the go. Yf this counsell or worke be of me, it wil come to naught:
 39 but yf it be of God, ye are not able to destroye it, lest ye be founde to be the men, that wil stryue agaynst God.
 40 Then they agreed vnto him, and called the Apostles, and bet them, and comaunded them, that they shulde speake nothinge in the name of Iesu, and let them go.
 41 But they departed from the presence of the counsell, reioysinge, that they were worthy to suffre rebuke for his names sake.
 42 And daylie in the temple and in euery house they ceased not, to teache and to preache the Gospell of Iesus Christ.

Chapter 6

1 In those dayes whan the nombre of the disciples increased, there arose a grudge amonge the Grekes agaynst the Hebrues, because their wyddowes were not loked vpon in the daylie handreachinge.
 2 Then the twolue called the multitude of the disciples together, and sayde: It is not mete that we shulde leaue the worde of God, and to serue at the tables.
 3 Wherefore brethren, loke out amonge you seue men, that are of honeste reporte, and full of the holy goost and wyssdome, whom we maye appoynte to this nedefull busynes.
 4 But we wil geue oure selues vnto prayer, and to the mynistracion of the worde of God.
 5 And the sayenge pleased the whole multitude. And they chose Steuen, a man full of fayth and of the holy goost, and Philippe, and Procorus, and Nicanor, and Thimon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas the Proselite of Antioche.
 6 These they set before ye Apostles, and they prayed, and layed their handes vpon them.
 7 And the worde of God increased, and the nombre of the disciples multiplied greatly at Ierusalem. And there were many prestes also obedient vnto the fayth.
 8 Steuen full of faith and power, dyd wonders and greate tokens amonge the people.
 9 Then arose there certayne of the synagoge, which is called (the synagoge) of ye Libertynes, & of the Cyrenites, and of the Alexandrines, and of the yt were of Celicia and Asia, & disputed with Steue, 10 and they could not resiste the wyssdome and the sprete, out of the

which he spake.

11 Then sent they in certayne men, that sayde: We haue herde him speake blasphemous wordes agaynst Moses, and agaynst God.

12 And they moued the people, and the Elders and the scribes, and came vpon him, & caught him, 13 and brought him before the councell, and set false witnesses there, which sayde: This man ceaseth not to speake blasphemous wordes agaynst this holy place and the lawe.

14 For we herde him saye: Iesus of Nazareth shall destroye this place, and change the ordinaunces which Moses gaue vs.

15 And all they that sat in the councell, loked vpo him and sawe his face as the face of an angell.

Chapter 7

1 Then sayde the hye prest: Is it eue so?

2 He sayde: Deare brethren and fathers, herken to, The God of glorye appeared vnto our father Abraha, whyle he was yet in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran,

3 and sayde vnto him: Get ye out of thy coure, and fro thy kynred, and come into a londe which I wil shewe ye.

4 The wente he out of the lande of the Caldees, and dwelt in Haran. And from thence, whan his father was deed, he brought him ouer in to this londe (where ye dwell now)

5 and gaue him no enheritaunce therin, no not ye bredth of a fote: and promysed him, that he wolde geue it him to possesse, and to his sede after him, whan as yet he had no childe.

6 But thus sayde God vnto him: Thy sede shalbe a straunger in a straunge londe, and they shal make bonde men of them, and intreate the euell foure hundreth yeares:

7 and ye people whom they shal serue, wil I iudge, sayde God. And after that shal they go forth, and serue me in this place.

8 And he gaue him the couenaut of circumcision. And he begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eight daye. And Isaac begat Iacob and Iacob begat the twolue Patriarkes.

9 And the Patriarkes had indignacion at Ioseph, and solde hi in to Egipte. And God was with him,

10 and delyuered him out of all his troubles, and gaue him faouere ad wyssdome i the sight of Pharao kynge of Egipte which made him prynce ouer Egipte and ouer all his house.

11 But there came a dertth ouer all the londe of Egipte and Canaan, and a greate trouble, and oure fathers founde no sustenaunce.

12 But Iacob herde that there was come in Egipte, and sent oure fathers out the first tyme.

13 And at the seconde tyme was Ioseph knowne of his brethren, and Iosephs kynred was made knowne vnto Pharao.

14 But Ioseph sent out, and caused his father and all his kynred to be broughte, eue thre score and fyftene soules.

15 And Iacob wente downe in to Egipte, and dyed, both he and oure fathers

16 and were brought ouer vnto Siche, and layed in the sepulcre, that Abraham boughte for money of the children of Hemor at Sichem.

17 Now wha the tyme of the promes drue nye (which God had sworne vnto Abraha) the people grewe and multiplied in Egipte, 18 tyll there rose another kynge, which knewe not of Ioseph.

19 The same dealte suttely wt oure kynred, and intreated oure fathers euell and made them to cast out the yonge children, that they shulde not remayne alyue.

20 At the same tyme was Moses borne, and was a proper childe before God, and was nourished thre monethes in his fathers house.

21 But whan he was cast out, Pharaos doughter toke him vp, and nourished him vp for hir awne sonne.

22 And Moses was learned in all maner wyssdome of the Egipcians, and was mightie in dedes & wordes.

23 But whan he was fourtye yeare olde, it came in to his mynde to vyset his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And whan he sawe one of them suffre wroge, he helped him, and delyuered him, that had the harme done vnto him, and slewe the Egipcian.

25 But he thoughte that his brethren shulde haue vnderstonde, how that God by his hande shulde saue the, howbeit they vnderstode it not.

26 And on the nexte daye he shewed himself vnto them as they stroue together, and wolde haue set them at one agayne, and sayde: Syrs, ye are brethren, why hurte ye one another?

27 But he that dyd his neyghboure wronge, thrust him awaye, and sayde: Who made the a ruler and iudge ouer vs?

28 Wilt thou slaye me also, as thou slewest the Egipcian yesterdaye?

29 But Moses fled at that sayenge, and was a straunger in the lande of Madian, where he begat two sonnes.

30 And after fourtye yeares, the angell of ye LORDE appeared vnto him vpon mount Sina, in a flamme of fyre in a busshe.

31 Wha Moses sawe it, he wondred at the sighte. But as he drue nye to beholde, ye voyce of ye LORDE came vnto him:

32 I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob. Howbeit Moses trebled, and durst not beholde.

33 But ye LORDE sayde vnto hi: Put of thy shues from thy fete, for ye place where thou stondest, is an holy grounde.

34 I haue well sene the trouble of my people in Egipte, and haue herde their gronyng, and am come downe to delyuer them. And now come, I wil sende the in to Egipte.

35 This Moses, whom they refused, and sayde: Who made ye a ruler and iudge ouer vs? him had God sent to be a ruler & delyuerer by the hande of the angell, that appeared vnto him in the busshe.

36 The same broughte them out, and dyd wonders and tokens in Egipte, and in the reed see, and in ye wyldernesse fourtye yeares.

37 This is that Moses, which sayde vnto the children of Israel: A prophet shal the LORDE youre God rayse vp vnto you euen from amonge youre brethren, like vnto me. Him shal ye heare.

38 This is he, that was in the congregacion in the wyldernesse with the angell, which talked with him, vpo mount Sina, and with oure fathers. This man receaued the worde of life to geue vnto vs,

39 vnto whom oure fathers wolde not be obediet, but thrust him fro the, and in their hertes turned backe agayne in to Egipte,

40 and sayde vnto Aaron: Make vs goddes to go before vs, for we can not tell what is become of this Moses, yt broughte vs out of the lande of Egipte.

41 And they made a calfe at the same tyme, and offred sacrifice vnto the ymage, and reioysed in the workes of their awne handes.

42 But God turned himselfe, & gaue them vp, so that they worshipped the hooste of heaue, as it is wrytten in the boke of the prophetes: O ye house of Israel, gaue ye me sacrifices and catel those fortye yeares in the wyldernesse?

43 And ye toke vnto you ye tabernacle of Moloch, and the starre of youre god Remphan, ymages which ye youre selues made to worshippe the. And I wil cast you out beyonde Babilon.

44 Oure fathers had the tabernacle of witnesse in ye wyldernesse, like as he appoynted them, whan he spake vnto Moses, that he shulde make it (acordinge to the patrone, yt he had sene.)

45 which oure fathers also receaued, and brought it with Iosue into the londe that the Heythe had in possession, whom God droue out before the face of oure fathers, vntyll the tyme of Dauid, 46 which founde faouere with God, and desyred that he might fynde a tabernacle for the God of Iacob.

47 But Salomon buylte hi an house.

48 Howbeit ye Hyst of all dwelleth not in temples that are made with handes: As he sayeth by the prophete:

49 Heaue is my seate, and the earth is my fote stole. What house then wil ye buylde vnto me? sayeth the LORDE: Or which is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hande made all these thynges?

51 Ye styffnecked & of vncircumcysed hertes and eares, ye allwaye resiste the holy goost: Eue as yor fathers dyd, so do ye also.

52 Which of the prophetes haue not yor fathers persecuted? And they slewe the, which tolde before of the comynge of ye righteous, whose traytours and murthurers ye are now become.

53 Ye receaued the lawe by the mynistracion of angels, and haue not kepte it.

54 Whan they herde this, it wente thorow ye hertes of the, and they gnashed vpo him with their tethe.

55 But he beyng full of the holy goost, loked vp towarde heauen, and sawe the glorie of God, and Iesus stodginge on the righte hande of God, 56 and sayde: Beholde, I se the heauens open, and the sonne of ma standinge on ye righte honde of God.

57 But they cried out with a loude voyce, & stopped their eares, and rane violently vpon him all at once, 58 and thrust him out of the cite, and stoned him. And ye witnesses layed downe their clothes at the fete of a yonge man, which was called Saul.

59 And they stoned Steuen, which cryed, & sayde: LORDE Iesu, receaue my sprete.

60 And he kneled downe, & cried with a loude voyce: LORDE, laye not this synne to their charge. And wha he had thus spoken, he fell a slepe.

Chapter 8

1 Saul had pleasure in his death. At ye same tyme there was a greate persecucion ouer the congregacion at Ierusalem. And they were all scatered abroad in the regions of Iewrye & Samaria, excepte the Apostles.

2 As for Steuen, men yt feared God dressed him, and made greate lamentacion ouer him.

3 But Saul made hauocke of the congregacion, entred in to euery house, and drue out men & wemen, & delyuered the to preson.

4 They now yt were scatered abroad wete aboute & preached the worde.

5 The came Philippe in to a cite of Samaria, and preached Christ vnto them.

6 And the people gaue hede with one acorde vnto ye thynges that Philip spake, hearinge him, and seynge the tokes that he dyd.

7 For the vncleane spretes cryed loude, and departed out of many yt were possessed. And many that were sicke of the palsie and lame, were healed.

8 And there was greate ioye in the same cite.

9 But afore there was in ye same cite a certayne ma, called Simon, which vsed witche craft, and bewitched ye people of Samaria, sayenge, that he was a man which coulde do greate thynges.

10 And they all regarded him from the leest vnto ye greatest, & sayde: This is the power of God which is greate.

11 But they regarded him, because that of longe tyme he had bewitched them with his sorcery.

12 Howbeit whan they beleued Philips preachinge of ye kyngdome of God, and of the name of Iesu Christ, they were baptyssed both me & weme.

13 Then Symon himself beleued also, and was baptysed, and cleued vnto Philippe. And wha he sawe the dedes and tokens that were done, he wondred.

14 Whan the Apostles which were at Ierusalem, herde, that Samaria had receaued ye worde of God, they sent vnto the Peter and Ihon.

15 Which, wha they were come, prayed for the, yt they might receaue the holy goost.

16 For as yet he was come vpon none of them but they were baptysed onely in the name of Christ Iesu.

17 Then layed they their hades on them, and they receaued the holy goost.

18 But whan Simon sawe, that by the layenge on of the Apostles hades ye holy goost was geuen, he offred the money, 19 and sayde: Geue me also this power, that, on whomsoeuer I put the hodes, he maye receaue the holy goost.

20 Howbeit Peter sayde vnto him: Perishe thou with thy money, because thou thinkest that ye gifte of God maye be optayned with money.

21 Thou shalt haue nether parte ner felashipe in this worde, for yi hert is not righte before God.

22 Repente therfore of this yi wickednesse, and praye vnto God, yf happily the thought of thy hert maye be forgeue ye.

23 For I se, yt thou art full of bytter gall, and wrapped in wt vnrighteousnesse.

24 Then answered Simon, & sayde: Praye ye vnto the LORDE for me, yt none of these thinges wherof ye haue spoken, come vpon me.

25 And they, wha they had testified and spoke the worde of the LORDE, turned agayne to Ierusalem, and preached the Gospell in many townes of the Samaritanes.

26 But the angell of the LORDE spake vnto Philippe, and sayde: Aryse, & go towarde the South, vnto the waye that goeth downe from Ierusalem vnto Gaza, which is deserte.

27 And he rose, and wente on. And beholde, a ma of the Morians lode (a chamberlayne and of auctorite with Candace ye quene of the londe of the Morians) which had the rule of all hir treasures, ye same came to Ierusalem to worshipe.

28 And returned home agayne, and satt vpon his charet, and red the prophet Esay.

29 The sprete sayde vnto Philippe: Go neare, and ioyne thy selfe to yonder charet.

30 The ranne Philippe vnto him, and herde him rede the prophet Esay, and sayde: Vnderstodest thou what thou readest?

31 He sayde: How can I, excepte some ma enfourme me? And he desyred Philippe, that he wolde come vp, and syt with him.

32 The tenoure of the scripture which he red, was this: He was led as a shepe to be slayne, and as a lambe voycelesse before his sherer, so opened he not his mouth.

33 In his humblenesse is his iudgment exalted. Who shal declare his generacion? for his life is taken awaye from the earth.

34 Then answered the chamberlayne vnto Philippe, and sayde: I praye the, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himselfe, or of some other man?

35 Philippe opened his mouth, and beganne at this scripture, and preached him the Gospell of Iesus.

36 And as they wete on their waye, they came to a water. And the chamberlayne sayde: Beholde, here is water, what hyndereth me to be baptysed?

37 Philippe sayde: Yf thou beleue from thy whole herte, thou mayest. He answered, and sayde: I beleue, that Iesus Christ is the sonne of God.

38 And he commaunded to holde styll the charet, and they wente downe in to the water, both Philippe and the chamberlayne. And he baptysed him.

39 But whan they were come vp out of the water, the sprete of the LORDE toke Philippe awaye. And the Chamberlayne sawe him nomore. But he wente on his waye reioysinge.

40 As for Philippe, he was founde at Assdod, and walked aboute, and preached the Gospell vnto all the cities, tyll he came to Cesarea.

Chapter 9

1 Saul was yet breathing out threatnynges and slaughter agaynst the disciples of the LORDE. And wente vnto ye hye preste,

2 and desyred of him letters to Damascon vnto the synagoges, that yf he foude eny of this waye (whether they were men or wemen) he mighte brynge the bounde vnto Ierusalem.

3 And as he was goinge on his iourney, it fortunated, that he came nye vnto Damasco, and sodenly there shyned rounde aboute hi a light fro heaue,

4 and he fell to the earth, and herde a voyce, which sayde vnto him: Saul Saul why persecutest thou me?

5 He sayde: LORDE, who art thou? The LORDE sayde: I am Iesus, who thou persecutest. It shalbe harde for ye to kycke agaynst the prycke.

6 And he both tremblinge and astonnyed, sayde: LORDE what wilt thou that I shal do? The LORDE sayde vnto him: Aryse, and go into the cite, there shal it be tolde the what thou shalt do.

7 As for ye me that iourneyed wt him, they stode and were amased: for they herde a voyce, but sawe noman.

8 Saul rose from the earth, and whan he had opened his eyes, he sawe noman. Neuertheles they toke him by the honde, & broughte him to Damasco:

9 and he was thre dayes without sighte, and nether ate ner dranke.

10 At Damasco there was a discipule named Ananias, and vnto him sayde the LORDE in a vision: Ananias And he sayde: beholde, here am I LORDE.

11 The LORDE sayde vnto him: Aryse, and go in to the strete which is called straight, and axe in the house of Iuda after one called Saul of Tharsis: for beholde, he prayeth, 12 & hath sene in a vision a ma named Ananias comynge vnto him, & layenge the hade vpon him, that he mighte receaue his sighte.

13 Ananias answered: LORDE, I haue herde by many of this mau, how moch euell he hath done to thy sayntes at Ierusalem.

14 And here hath he auctorite of the hye prestes, to bynde all those yt call vpon thy name.

15 The LORDE sayde vnto him: Go thy waye, for this man is a chosen vessell vnto me, that he maye beare my name before the Heythen, and before kynoges, and before the children of Israel.

16 I wil shewe him, how greate thinges he must suffre for my names sake.

17 And Ananias wente his waye, and came in to the house, and layed the handes vpon him, and sayde: Brother Saul, the LORDE which appeared vnto ye in the waye as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receaue thy sight, and be fylled with the holy goost.

18 And immediatly there fell from his eyes as it had bene scales, and he receaued his sighte, and rose, and was baptysed,

19 and toke meate, and was confortated. Then was Saul a certayne dayes with the disciples that were at Damascon. 20 And straight waye he preached Christ in the synagoges, how that he was ye sonne of God.

21 But all they that herde him, were amased, and sayde: Is not this he, which at Ierusalem spoyled all those that called on his name? & came hither to the intent that he shulde brynge them bounde vnto the hye prestes?

22 But Saul increased in strength, & cofounded ye Iewes which dwelt at Damasco, and affirmed yt this was very Christ.

23 And after many dayes the Iewes helde a councell together to kyl him.

24 But it was tolde Saul, that they layed wayte for him. And they wayted at ye gates daye & night, that they might kyl him.

25 Then the disciples toke him by nighte, & put him thorow the wall, and let him downe in a baskett.

26 But whan Saul came to Ierusalem, he assayed to ioyne himself to ye disciples. And they were all afrayed of him, and beleued not, yt he was a discipule.

27 Neuertheles Barnabas toke him, and broughte him to the Apostles, and tolde them how he had sene the LORDE in the waye, and how he spake to him, & how he had done boldly at Damasco in the name of Iesu.

28 And he was with them, and wente out and in at Ierusalem, 29 and quyte him selfe boldly in ye name of ye LORDE Iesu. He spake also, and disputed with ye Grekes. But they wete aboute to slaye him.

30 Whan the brethren knewe yt, they brought him to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tharsis.

31 So the congregacions had rest thorow out all Iewry, and Galile, and Samaria, & were edified, and walked in the feare of the LORDE, and were fylled with the comforte of the holy goost.

32 It chaunced that as Peter walked thorow all quarters, he came also vnto ye sayntes which dwelt at Lydda.

33 There founde he a man named Eneas, which had lye vpon his bedd eight yeares sicke of ye palsy.

34 And Peter sayde vnto him: Eneas, Iesus Christ make the whole, aryse, and make thy bedd for yi self. And he arose immediatly.

35 And all they that dwelt at Lydda and at Saron, sawe him, and turned vnto the LORDE.

36 At Ioppa there was a certayne woman that was a discipule, named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: ye same was full of good workes and almesse dedes, which she dyd.

37 But it chaunced at the same tyme, that she was sicke, and dyed. Then washed they her, and layed her in a chamber.

38 But for so moch as Lydda was nye vnto Ioppa, and the disciples herde that Peter was there, they sent two men vnto him, and desyred him, yt he wolde take it for no grefe to come vnto them.

39 Peter rose, and came with the. And wha he was come, they broughte him in to the chamber, and all the wyddowes stode rounde aboute him, wepyng, and shewed him the cotes and garmetes, which Dorcas made whyle she was with them.

40 And wha Peter had put them all forth, he kneled downe, made his prayer, and turned him vnto the body, and sayde: Tabitha, ryse vp. And she opened hir eyes: and whan she sawe Peter she sat hir downe agayne.

41 But he gaue her the hande, and lifte her vp, and called the sayntes and the wedowes, and shewed her there alyue.

42 And it was knowne thorow out all Ioppa, & many beleued on ye LORDE.

43 And it fortunated, yt he taried a loge season at Ioppa by one Simo, which was a tanner.

Chapter 10

1 There was a man at Cesarea, named Cornelius (a captayne of ye copany, which is called ye Italianysh)

2 a deuoute man, & one that feared God wt all his house, & gaue moch almesse to ye people, and prayed God allwaye.

3 The same sawe in a vision openly (aboute the nyenth houre of the daye) an angell of God entringe in to him, and sayenge vnto him: Cornelius.

4 He loked vpon him, and was afrayed, and sayde: LORDE, what is it? He sayde vnto him: Thy prayers & thine allmesses are come vp in to remebraunce before God.

5 And now sende men vnto Ioppa, & call for Simo, whose surname is Peter,
 6 which is at lodginge with one Symon a tanner, whose house lyeth by ye see syde: he shal tell ye, what thou oughtest to do.
 7 And wha the angell which spake to Cornelius, was departed, he called two of his housholde seruauntes, & a deuoute soudyer, of the that wayted vpon him:
 8 and tolde them all, and sent the to Ioppa.
 9 On the nexte daye after when these were goinge on their iourney, and came nye vnto the cite, Peter wente vp in to a chamber to praye aboute the sixte houre.
 10 And whan he was hogrie, he wolde haue eate. But whyle they made ready for him, he fell into a traunce,
 11 and sawe heaue open, and a vessell comyng downe vnto him, as it had bene a greate lynne clothe, knytt at the foure corners, and was let downe to ye earth,
 12 wherin were all maner of foure foted beestes of the earth, & wylde beestes, and wormes, and foules of the ayre.
 13 And there came a voyce vnto him: Ryse Peter, slaye, & eate.
 14 But Peter sayde: Oh no, LORDE, for I neuer ate eny comen or vnclene thinge.
 15 And the voyce spake vnto him agayne ye secode tyme: What God hath clensed, yt make not thou vnclene.
 16 This was done thryse. And ye vessell was receaued vp agayne in to heauen.
 17 But whyle Peter was combed in him selfe, what maner of vision this shulde be which he had sene, beholde, the men yt were sent from Cornelius, enquired after Simos house, and stode before the dore, 18 and called, and axed whether Simon (whose surname was Peter) were lodged there.
 19 Whyle Peter was musinge of the vision, the sprete sayde vnto him: beholde, the men seke the.
 20 Aryse therfore, and get the downe, & go with the, and doute not, for I haue sent them.
 21 Then wente Peter downe to the men, yt were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and sayde: lo, I am he whom ye seke: what is ye cause, wherfore ye are come?
 22 They sayde: Cornelius the captayne, a iust man and one that feareth God, and of good reporte amoge all the people of the Iewes, was warned by an holy angell, to sende for the in to his house, and to heare wordes of the.
 23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. The nexte daye after wente Peter forth with them, and certayne brethren of Ioppa bare him company.
 24 And ye daye folowinge came they to Cesarea. Cornelius wayted for the, and had called together his kynssfolkes and speciall frendes.
 25 And as it chaunced yt Peter came in, Cornelius mett him, and fell downe at his fete, & worshipped him.
 26 But Peter toke him vp, and sayde: Stonde vp, I am a man also.
 27 And as he talked wt him, he wente in, and founde many that were come together,

 28 and he sayde vnto them: Ye knowe, that it is not lafull for a man beyng a Iewe to ioyne him selfe or to come to a straunger. But God hath shewed me, yt I shulde call no ma comen or vnclene.
 29 Therfore haue I not doutod to come, as soone as I was sent for. I axe you therfore, for what intent haue ye sent for me?
 30 Cornelius sayde: It is now foure dayes agoo, then fasted I, and at the nyenth houre I prayed in my house, and beholde, there stode a ma before me in a bryghte clothinge, 31 and sayde: Cornelius, yi prayer is herde, and thine allmesse dedes are had in remembrance iu the sighte of God.
 32 Sende therfore to Ioppa, and call for one Simon (whose surname is Peter) which is at lodginge in ye house of Simon ye taner, by the see syde: ye same wha he commeth, shal speake vnto ye.
 33 Then sent I vnto the immediatly, and thou hast done well, that thou art come. Now are we all here presente before God, to heare all thinges that are commaunded the of God.
 34 Peter opened his mouth, & sayde: Now perceau I of a trueth, that God hath no respect of personnes, 35 but in all people he yt feareth him, and worketh righteousnes, is accepted vnto him.
 36 Ye knowe of ye preachinge that God sent vnto the children of Israel, preachinge thorow Iesus Christ (which is LORDE ouer all)
 37 which preachinge was published thorow out all Iewry, and begane in Galile after ye baptye that Ihon preached,
 38 how God anoynted the same Iesus of Nazareth with the holy goost and wt power, which wente aboute, & dyd good, and healed all those that were oppressed of the deuell, for God was with him.
 39 And we are witnesses of all that he dyd in the londe of the Iewes, & at Ierusalem. Whom they slewe, and hanged on tre.
 40 Him God rayسد vp on the thirde daye, and caused him be openly shewed, 41 not to all the people, but to ye chosen witnesses of God euen vnto vs, which ate & dronke with him, after he was rysen vp from the deed.
 42 And he commaunded vs to preach vnto the people, and to testifye, that it is he which is ordeyned of God a iudge of the lyuynge and of the deed.
 43 Of him beare all the prophetes wytnesse, that thorow his name all they yt beleue in him, shal receaue remyssion of synnes.
 44 Whyle Peter was yet speakeynge these wordes, the holy goost fell vpo all the that herkened vnto the worde.
 45 And the faithfull of the circucision which came with Peter, were astonnyed, because that the gifte of ye holy goost was shed out also vpon the Heythen.
 46 For they herde that they spake with tungen, and magnified God. The answered Peter:

47 Maye eny man forbydde water, that these shulde not be baptyسد, which haue receaued the holy goost as well as we?
 48 And he commaunded them to be baptyسد in the name of the LORDE. The prayed they him, that he wolde tary there certayne dayes.

Chapter 11

1 The Apostles and the brethren that were in Iewrye, herde saye, that the Heythen also had receaued the worde of God.
 2 And whan Peter was come vp to Ierusalem, they that were of the circucision, chode with him,
 3 and sayde: Thou wentest in to men that are vncircumcysed, and hast eaten with them.
 4 But Peter beganne, and expounded the thinge in order vnto the and sayde:
 5 I was in ye cite of Ioppa prayege, and in a traunce I sawe a vision, a vessell comyng downe, as it had bene a greate lynnen clothe with foure corners, and let downe from heauen, and came vnto me.
 6 Into the which I loked, and considered, and sawe foure foted beestes of the earth, and wylde beestes, and wormes, and foules of the ayre.
 7 And I herde a voyce, which sayde vnto me: Ryse Peter, slaye, & eate.
 8 But I sayde: Oh no, LORDE, for there neuer entred eny comen or vnclene thinge in to my mouth.
 9 Neuertheles the voyce answered me agayne from heauen: What God hath clensed, that call not thou vnclene.
 10 This was done thre tymes, and all was taken vp agayne in to heauen.
 11 And beholde, immediatly stode there thre men before the dore of the house that I was in, sent from Cesarea vnto me.
 12 But the sprete sayde vnto me, that I shulde go with the and doute nothinge. These sixe brethre also came with me, and we entred in to the mas house.
 13 And he shewed vs, how he had sene an angell stondinge in his house, which sayde vnto him: Sende men to Ioppa, and call for Simon (whose surname is Peter) 14 he shal tell ye wordes, wherby thou and all thy house shal be saued.
 15 But whan I beganne to speake, the holy goost fell vpo them, like as vpon vs at ye begynnynge.
 16 Then thoughte I vpon the worde of the LORDE, how he sayde: Ihon baptyسد with water, but ye shalbe baptyسد with ye holy goost.
 17 For as moch then as God hath geuen them like giftes, as vnto vs, which beleue in the LORDE Iesus Christ, who was I, that I shulde be able to withstode God?
 18 Whan they herde this, they helde their peace, and prayسد God, and sayde: Then hath God also to the Heithen graunted repentaunce vnto life.
 19 They that were scatred abroad thorow ye trouble yt rose aboute Steuen, walked on euerysyde vntyll Phenices, and Cipers, and Antioche, and spake the worde vnto no man but onely vnto ye Iewes.

20 Neuertheles some of the were men of Cipers and Cyren, which came to Antioche, and spake also vnto the Grekes, & preached the Gospell of the LORDE Iesu.
 21 And ye hande of the LORDE was with the. And a greate nombre beleued, and turned vnto the LORDE.
 22 This tydinges of them came to ye eares of the cogregacion at Ierusalem. And they sent Barnabas, that he shulde go vnto Antioche.
 23 Which whan he was come thither, & sawe the grace of God, he was glad, and exorted them all, that with purpose of hert they wolde contynue in the LORDE.
 24 For he was a good man, full of the holy goost and faith. And there was a greate multitude of people added vnto the LORDE.
 25 But Barnabas departed vnto Tharsus, to seke Saul
 26 And wha he had foude hi, he brought hi to Anthioche. It chauced, that a whole yeare they were there coursauante together in the cogregacio, & taughte moch people, so that the disciples at Antioche were first called Christen.
 27 In those dayes came there prophetes fro Ierusalem vnto Antioche.
 28 And one of them (whose name was Agabus) stode vp, and declared by the sprete a greate derth, that shulde come ouer the whole compasse of the earth: which came to passe vnder the Emperoure Claudius.
 29 But the disciples cocluded (euery one acordinge to his abylyte) to sende an handreachinge vnto ye brethren that were in Iewry:
 30 which thinge they also dyd, and sent it by the handes of Barnabas and Saul.

Chapter 12

1 At the same tyme layed kynge Herode handes vpon certayne of the cogregacion, to vexen them.
 2 As for Iames the brother of Ihon, him he slewe with the swerde.
 3 And whan he sawe that it pleased the Iewes, he proceeded farther to take Peter also. But it was Easter.
 4 Now whan he had taken him, he put him in preson, and delyuered him vnto foure quaternions of soudyers, to kepe him: and thought after Easter to bringe him forth to the people.
 5 And Peter was kepte in the preson But prayer was made without ceassing of the cogregacion, vnto God for him.
 6 And whan Herode wolde haue broughte him out vnto the people, in the same nighte slepte Peter betwene two soudiers, bounde with two cheynes. And the kepers before the dore kepte the preson.
 7 And beholde, the angell of the LORDE was there presente, and a lighte shyned in the habitacion, and he smote Peter on the syde, and waked him vp, and sayde: Aryse vp quykly. And the cheynes fell of from his hondes.
 8 And the angell sayde vnto him: Gyrd the, and put on thy shues. And he dyd so. And he sayde vnto him: Cast thy mantle aboute the, and folowe me.

9 And he wente out, and folowed him, and wyst not, that it was trueth that was done by ye angell, but thoughte he had sene a vision.

10 Neuertheles they wente thorow the first and seconde watch, and came to the yron gate, that ledeth vnto the cite, which opened to the by his awne acorde. And they wente out, and passed thorow one strete, and immediatly the angell departed from him.

11 And whan Peter was come to himself, he sayde: Now I knowe of a trueth, that ye LORDE hath sent his angell, and deluyered me out of the honde of Herode, and from all the waytinge for of the people of the Iewes.

12 And as he considered the thinge, he came to the house of Mary the mother of one Ihon, (which after his syrname was called Marke) where many were gathered together, and prayed.

13 As Peter knocked at the entry dore, there came forth a damsell to herken, named Rhoda.

14 And whan she knewe Peters voyce, she opened not the entrye for gladnes, but rane in, and tolde, that Peter stode before ye entrye.

15 But they sayde vnto her: Thou art mad. Neuertheles she abode by it, that is was so. They sayde: it is his angell.

16 But Peter contynued knocking. Whan they opened the dore, they sawe him, and were astonnyed.

17 But he beckened vnto them with the hande, to holde their peace, & tolde them, how the LORDE had broughte him out of the preson. And he sayde: Shewe this vnto Iames, and to the brethren. And he departed, and wete in to another place.

18 Whan it was daye, there was not a litle a doo amoge the soudyers, what was become of Peter.

19 Whan Herode had called for him, and founde him not, he caused the keepers to be examyned, and commaunded the to be caried awaye, and he wente downe fro Iewry vnto Cesarea, and there abode.

20 But he was displeasid with the of Tyre and Sido. Neuertheles they came vnto him with one acorde, and made intercession to Blastus the kynges chamberlayne, and desyred peace, because their countre was norished by the kynges londe.

21 But vpon a daye appoynted, Herode put on ye kyngly apparell, sat him downe vpon the iudgment seate, and made an oracion vnto them.

22 As for the people, they cried therto: This is a voyce of God, and not of a man.

23 Immediatly the angell of the LORDE smote him, because he gaue not God the honoure: And he was eaten vp of wormes, and gaue vp the goost.

24 But the worde of God grewe, and multiplied.

25 As for Barnabas and Saul, they came agayne to Ierusalem, and deluyered the handreachinge, and toke with them Ihon, whose syrname was Marke.

Chapter 13

1 There were at Antioche in the congregacion, prophetes and teachers, as Barnabas, and Simon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyren, and Manahen Herodes the Tetrachas norsfelowe, and Saul.

2 As they serued ye LORDE, and fasted, the holy goost sayde: Separate me out Barnabas and Saul for the worke, where vnto I haue called them.

3 Then fasted they and prayed, and layed the handes on them, and let them go.

4 And they beyng sent of the holy goost, came vnto Seleucia, from thence they sayled vnto Cypers.

5 And whan they were come in to the cite Salamin, they shewed the worde of God in the synagoges of ye Iewes. And they had Ihon to their mynister.

6 And whan they had gone thorow out the yle vnto the cyte of Paphos, they founde a certayne Sorcerer and false prophete, a Iewe (whose name was Bariesu)

7 which was with Sergius Paulus the ruler of the countre, a ma of vnderstandinge. The same called Barnabas and Saul vnto him, and desyred to heare ye worde of God.

8 Then the Sorcerer Elimas (for so was his name by interpretacion) withstode the, and soughte to turne awaye the ruler fro the faith.

9 But Saul which is also called Paul, beyng full of the holy goost, loked vpon him,

10 and sayde: O thou childe of the deuell, full of all fultytie and all disceatfulnesse, and enemye of all righteousnes, thou ceasest not to peruerte the straight wayes of ye LORDE.

11 And now beholde, the hade of the LORDE commeth vpon the, and thou shalt be blynde, and not se the Sonne for a season, And immediatly there fell on him a myst and darknesse, and he wente aboute, and soughte them that shulde lede him by the hande.

12 Whan the ruler sawe what was done, he beleued, and wodred at the doctryne of the LORDE.

13 Whan Paul and they that were with him, were departed by shippe fro Paphos, they came to Perga in the londe of Pamphilia. But Ihon departed from them, and wente agayne to Ierusalem.

14 Neuertheles they wandred thorow from Perga, and came to Antioche in the londe of Pisidia, and wete in to the synagoge vpon the Sabbath daye, and sat downe.

15 But after the lecture of the lawe and of the prophetes, the rulers of the synagoge sent vnto them, sayenge: Good brethren, yf ye haue eny sermon to exorte the people, saye on.

16 Then stode Paul vp, and beckened with the hande (that they shulde holde their peace) and sayde: Ye men of Israel, and ye that feare God, herke to:

17 The God of this people chose oure fathers, and exalted the people, whan they were straungers in the lode of Egipte, and with a mightie arme broughte he them out of it.

18 And by the space of fortye yeares suffred he their maners in the wyldernesse, 19 and destroyed seuen nacions in the lande of Canaan, and parted their londe amonge them by lott.

20 After that gaue he them iudges by the space of foure hundreth and fiftye yeares, vnto the prophet Samuel.

21 And after that they desyred a kynge, and God gaue vnto them Saul the sonne of Cis, a man of the trybe of Benlamin, fortye yeares longe.

22 And whan he had put him downe, he set vp Daud to be their kynge, of whom he reported, sayenge: I haue founde Daud the sonne of Iesse, a man after my hert, he shal fulfill all my wyll.

23 Of this mans sede hath God (acordinge to the promesse) broughte forth vnto the people of Israel, ye Sauioure Iesus:

24 whan Ihon had first preached before his comynge the baptyeme of repentaunce vnto Israel.

25 But whan Ihon had fulfilled his course, he sayde: I am not he, that ye take me for. But beholde, there commeth one after me, whose shues of his fete I am not worthy to lowse.

26 Ye men and brethren, ye children of the generacion of Abraham, and they that feare God amonge you, vnto you is ye worde of this saluacion sent.

27 For the inhabiters of Ierusalem, and their rulers, for somoch as they knewe him not, ner yet the voyces of the prophetes (which are red euery Sabbath) haue fulfilled them in condemnyng him.

28 And though they founde no cause of death in him, yet desyred they Pilate to kyll him.

29 And whan they had fulfilled all that was wrytten of him, they toke him downe from the tre, and layed him in a sepulcre.

30 But on ye thirde daye God raysed him vp from the deed,

31 and he appeared many dayes vnto the, that wente vp with him from Galile vnto Ierusalem, which are his witnesses vnto the people.

32 And we also declare vnto you ye promes, which was made vnto oure fathers, 33 how that God hath fulfilled the same vnto vs their children, in yt he raysed vp Iesus agayne. As it is wrytten in the seconde Psalme: Thou art my sonne, this daye haue I begotten the.

34 But that he hath raysed him vp fro the deed, now nomore to returne to corrupcion, he sayde on this wyse: The grace promysed to Daud, wyl I faithfully kepe vnto you.

35 Therefore sayeth he also in another place: Thou shalt not suffre thy Holy to se corrupcion.

36 For Daud, whan he in his tyme had serued the wyll of God, he fell a slepe, and was layed by his fathers, & sawe corrupcion.

37 But he who God raysed vp agayne, sawe no corrupcion.

38 Be it knowne vnto you therfore ye men and brethre, yt thorow this man is preached vnto you ye forgeuenesse of synnes,

39 and fro all ye thinges, wherby ye mighte not be iustified in the lawe of Moses.

40 But whosoeuer beleueth on this man, is iustified. Bewarre therfore, that it come not vpon you, which is spoken in the prophetes:

41 Beholde ye despysers, and wonder at it, and perishe, for I do a worke in youre tyme, which ye shal not beleue, yf eny man tell it you.

42 Whan the Iewes were gone out of the synagoge, the Heythen besoughte them, yt they wolde speake ye worde vnto them betwene the Sabbath dayes.

43 And wha the cogregacion of the synagoge was broken vp, many Iewes and Proselites yt serued God, folowed Paul and Barnabas, which spake to them, and exorted them, that they shulde contynue in the grace of God.

44 On ye Sabbath folowinge, came almost the whole cite together, to heare the worde of God.

45 But whan the Iewes sawe the people, they were full of indignacion, and spake agaynst that which was spoken of Paul, speakinge agaynst it, & blasphemynge.

46 But Paul and Barnabas waxed bolde, and sayde: It behoued first the worde of God to be spoken vnto you: but now that ye thrust it fro you, and counte youre selues vnworthy of euerlastinge life, lo, we turne to the Gentyles.

47 For so hath the LORDE comaunded vs: I haue set the to be a lighte vnto ye Gentyles, yt thou be ye Saluacion vnto the ende of the earth.

48 Whan the Gentyles herde that, they were glad, and prayed the worde of the LORDE, and beleued, eue as many as were ordeyned to euerlastinge life.

49 And the worde of ye LORDE was spred abroad thorow out all the region.

50 Howbeit the Iewes moued the deuoute and honorable wemen, and the chefe men of the cite, and raysed vp a persecution agaynst Paul and Barnabas and expelled them out of their coastes.

51 But they shoke of the dust of their fete agaynst them, and came to Iconium.

52 And the disciples were fylled with ioye and with the holy goost.

Chapter 14

1 It fortunad at Iconium, that they wete both together in to the synagoge of the Iewes, and spake so, that a greate multitude of the Iewes & of the Grekes beleued.

2 But the vnbeleuynge Iewes moued and disqueted the soules of the Heythe agaynst the brethre.

3 So they had their beyng there a loge season, and quyte them selues boldly in the LORDE, which gaue testimony vnto the worde of his grace, and caused tokens and wonders to be done by their handes.

4 Howbeyt the multitude of the cite was deuyded, some helde wt the Iewes, and some with the Apostles.

5 But whan there rose vp an insurreccion of the Heythe and of ye Iewes, and of their rulers, to put them to shame, and to stone the,

6 they perceaued it, and fled vnto lyster and Derba cities of ye countre of Licaonia, and vnto ye region that lyeth rounde aboute,

7 and there they preached the Gospell.

8 And amonge them of Lystra, there was a man, which sat beyng impotent of his fete, and was crepell fro his mothers wombe, and had neuer walked,

9 the same herde Paul speake. And whan he behelde him, and perceaued that he had faith to be made whole,

10 he sayde wt a loude voyce: Stonde vp righte on thy fete. And he sprange vp and walked.

11 But whan the people sawe what Paul had done, they lifte vp their voyce, and sayde in ye speache of Lycaonia: The goddes are become like vnto men, and are come downe vnto vs.

12 And they called Barnabas Iupiter, and Paul Mercurius, because he was the preacher.

13 But Iupiters prest which dwelt before their cite, broughte oxen and garlandes before the gate, and wolde haue done sacrifice with the people.

14 Whan ye Apostles Barnabas and Paul herde that, they rent their clothes, and ranne in amonge the people, cryenge

15 and sayenge: Ye me. Why do ye this? We are mortall me also like vnto you, & preach vnto you ye Gospell, that ye shulde turne from these vayne thinges vnto ye luyng God, which made heaue and earth, and the see, and all that therein is,

16 which in tymes past suffred all ye Heythen to walke after their awne wayes.

17 Neuertheles he hath not left hi selfe without wytnesse, in yt he hath shewed his benefites, and geuen vs rayne from heauen, and frutefull seasons, fyllyng oure hertes with fode and gladnesse.

18 And whan they sayde this, they scarce refrayned the people, that they dyd not sacrifice vnto them.

19 But there came thither certayne Iewes from Antioche and Iconiu, and persuaded the people, and stoned Paul, and drue him out of the cite, supposinge he had bene deed.

20 Howbeyt as ye disciples stode rounde aboute him, he rose vp, & came in to the cite. And on the nexte daye he departed with Barnabas vnto Derba,

21 and preached the Gospell vnto the same cite, and taughte many of them. And they wete agayne vnto Lystra, and Iconium and Antioche, 22 strengthinge the soules of ye disciples, and exortinge the to cotynue in the faith: and that we thorow moch tribulacion must entre in to the kyngdome of God.

23 And wha they had ordeyned them Elders by eleccion thorow all the congregacions, they prayed and fasted, and comended them vnto the LORDE, on whom they beleued.

24 And they wente thorow Pisidia, and came to Pamphilia,

25 and spake the worde at Perga, and wete downe to Attalia,

26 and fro thence departed they by shippe vnto Antioche: from whence they were delyuered to the grace of God vnto ye worke, which they had fulfilled.

27 Whan they came there, they gathered the congregacion together, & shewed them, how greate thinges God had done with the, and how he had opened the dore of faithe vnto the Heithen.

28 And there they abode a longe tyme with the disciples.

Chapter 15

1 And there came certayne fro Iewry, and taughte the brethren: Excepte ye be circumcysed after the maner of Moses, ye can not be saued.

2 Now wha there rose a discesion, and Paul and Barnabas had set them selues harde agaynst them, they ordeyned, that Paul and Barnabas and certayne other of them shulde go vp to Ierusalem vnto the Apostles and Elders, aboute this questio.

3 And they were broughte on their waye by ye cogregacion, & wente thorow Phenices and Samaria, and declared the conuersacion of the Heythen, and brought greate ioye vnto all the brethren.

4 Whan they came to Ierusalem, they were receaued of ye cogregacion, & of the Apostles, and of the Elders, & they tolde how greate thinges God had done with the.

5 Then rose there vp certayne of the secte of ye Pharises (which beleued) and sayde: They must be circumcysed and comaunded, to kepe the lawe of Moses.

6 But the Apostles and Elders came together, to reason vpon this matter.

7 Now whan there was moch disputinge Peter rose vp, and sayde vnto the: Ye men and brethren, ye knowe that a good whyle agoo, God chose amonge vs, yt the Heythe by my mouth shulde heare the worde of the Gospell, and beleue.

8 And God the knower of hertes bare wytnesse ouer the, and gaue the the holy goost, like as vnto vs, 9 & put no dyfference betwixte vs & them, and purified their hertes thorow fayth.

10 Now therfore why tempte ye God, with layenge vpon ye disciples neckes the yocke, which nether or fathers ner we were able to beare?

11 But we beleue to be saued thorow the grace of the LORDE Iesu Christ, like as they also.

12 Then all ye multitude helde their peace, and gaue audience vnto Paul and Barnabas, which tolde how greate tokens and wonders God had done by the amoge the Heythen.

13 Afterwarde whan they helde their peace, James answered, and sayde: Ye men and brethren, herke vnto me, 14 Simo hath tolde, how God at the first vysited to receaue a people vnto his name from amonge the Heythen.

15 And vnto this agree ye wordes of the prophetes, as it is wrytte:

16 After this wyl I returne and wyl buylde agayne ye tabernacle of Daud, that is fallen downe, and that which is fallen in decaye therof, wyl I buylde agayne, and wyl set it vp,

17 that the residue of men maye seke after the LORDE: & also the Heythen vpo whom my name is named, sayeth the LORDE, which doth all these thinges.

18 Knowne vnto God are all his workes from the begynnyng of ye worlde.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that they which from amonge the Heythen are turned vnto God, be not disquyeted, 20 but to wryte vnto them, that they absteyne them selues from fylthynesse of Idols, from whordome, and from strangled, and bloude.

21 For Moses hath of olde tyme in euery cite them that preach him: and he is red in the synagoges euery Sabbath daye.

22 And the Apostles and Elders with the whole congregacion thoughte it good, to chose out men of them, and to sende them vnto Antioche with Paul and Barnabas, namely Iudas, whose synname was Barsabas, and Syllas (which were chefe men amoge the brethren)

23 and gaue the letters in their handes after this maner: We the Apostles and Elders & brethren, wysh health vnto the brethren of the Heythe which are at Antioche, and Syria and Celicia.

24 For so moch as we haue herde that certayne of oures are departed, and haue troubled you, and combred youre myndes, sayenge: ye must be circumcysed, and kepe ye lawe (to whom we gaue no soch commaundemet)

25 it semed good vnto vs, beyng gathered together with one accorde, to chose out men, and to sende them vnto you, with oure beloued Barnabas and Paul,

26 men that haue ioperded their lyues for ye name of oure LORDE Iesus Christ.

27 Therefore haue we sent Iudas and Syllas, which shal also tell you the same with wordes.

28 For it pleased the holy goost and vs, to laye no charge vpon you, more then these necessary poyntes:

29 That ye absteyne from the offeringes of Idols, and from bloude, and from strangled, and from whordome. From the which yf ye absteyne youre selues, ye shal do well. Fare ye well.

30 Whan these were sent forth, they came vnto Antioche, and gathered the multitude together, and delyuered the epistle.

31 Whan they had red it, they were glad of that cosolacion.

32 As for Iudas & Syllas (which were prophetes also) they exorted ye brethren with moch preachinge, and stregthed them.

33 And whan they had taried there for a season, they were let go of the brethren in peace vnto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstandinge Syllas thoughte it good to byde there styll.

35 But Paul and Barnabas cotynued at Antioche, teachinge and preachinge the worde of the LORDE, with other many.

36 Neuertheles after certayne dayes Paul sayde vnto Barnabas: let vs go agayne, and vyset oure brethren thorow all the cities (wherin we haue shewed the worde of the LORDE) how they do.

37 But Barnabas gaue counsell, that they shulde take with the Ihon, whose synname was Marke.

38 Howbeit Paul thoughte it mete, not to take him with them, which departed from them in Pamphilia, and wente not with them vnto the worke.

39 And so sharpe was the strife betwene them, that they departed asunder ye one fro the other, and Barnabas toke Marke vnto him, and sayled vnto Cypers.

40 But Paul chose Syllas, and departed, beyng comytted of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

41 He wente thorow Syria and Celicia, stablishyng the congregacions.

Chapter 16

1 He came vnto Derba and to Lystra, and beholde, a certayne disciple was there named Timotheus, the sonne of a Iewish woman, which beleued, but his father was a Greke:

2 ye same had a good reporte amonge the brethren of Lystra and at Iconium.

3 Paul wolde that the same shulde go forth with him, and toke and circumcysed him because of the Iewes that were in those quarters. For they knewe all, that his father was a Greke.

4 But as they wente thorow the cities, they delyuered them the sentence to kepe, which was concluded of the Apostles and Elders at Ierusalem.

5 The were the congregacions stablyshed in the faith, and increased in nombre daylie.

6 But as they wente thorow Phrygia and the londe of Galacia, they were forbydden of the holy goost, to preache the worde in Asia.

7 Howbeit as they came in to Mysia, they proued to take their iourney in to Bithinia, and the sprete suffred them not.

8 Neuertheles whan they had passed thorow Mysia, they came downe to Troada,

9 and there appeared a vision vnto Paul by night, that there was a man of Macedonia which stode and prayed him, and sayde: Come downe to Macedonia, and helpe vs.

10 Whan he had sene ye vision, we soughte immediatly to go, vnto Macedonia, beyng certified, that ye LORDE had called vs thither, to preach the Gospell vnto them.

11 The departed we from Troada, and came the straight course vnto Samothracia, on the nexte daye to Neapolis, 12 and from thence to Philippis, which is the chefe cite of the londe of Macedonia, and a fre cite. In this cite abode we certayne dayes.

13 On the daye of the Sabbathes wete we out of the cite besyde the water, where men were wonte to praye, and we sat downe, and spake vnto the wemen that resorted thither.

14 And a deuoute woman (named Lydia) a seller of purple, out of the cite of Thiatira, herkened to, whose hert the LORDE opened that she gaue hede vnto the thinges that Paul spake.

15 When she was baptysed and hir housholde, she besoughte vs, and sayde: Yf ye thynke that I beleue on the LORDE, then come in to my house, and a byde there. And she constrayned vs.

16 It fortunet whan we wente to prayer, yt there met vs a damsel, which had a sprete of soythsayenge, and broughte hir master and mastresse greate vauntage with soyth sayenge:

17 ye same folowed Paul and vs, and cryed, and sayde: These men are the seruautes of the most hye God, which shewe vs ye waye of saluacion.

18 This dyd she many dayes. But Paul was not content with it, and turned him aboute, and sayde vnto the sprete: I comaunde the in the name of Iesu Christ, that thou departe out of her. And he departed out at the same houre.

19 But wha hir master and mastresse sawe that the hope of their vauntage was gone, they toke Paul and Syllas, drue them in to the market place before ye rulers, 20 & broughte the vnto the officers, and sayde: These men trouble oure cyte, & are Iewes, 21 and preach an ordynance, which is not lauffull for vs to receaue, ner to obserue, seyng we are Romaynes.

22 And the people rane on them, and the officers rente their clothes, and comaunded them to be beaten with roddes.

23 And whan they had beaten them sore, they cast the in preson, and comaunded the iayler, to kepe them diligently.

24 Which whan he had receaued such commaundement, he cast the in to the ynner preson, and put their fete in the stockes.

25 But at mydnight prayed Paul and Syllas, and prayed God. And the presoners herde them.

26 Sodenly was there a greate earth quake, so that the foundacions of the preson were shaken. And immediatly were all the dores open, & all their bondes lousd

27 Wha the keper of the preson waked out of slepe, and sawe the preson dores open, he drue out his swerde, and wolde haue kylled him selfe: for he thoughte ye presoners had bene fled.

28 But Paul cryed loude, and sayde: Do thy self no harme, for we are all here.

29 He called for a lighte, and sprange in, and trembled, and fell at the fete of Paul and Syllas,

30 and broughte them out, and sayde: Syrs, what must I do, to be saued?

31 They sayde: Beleue on the LORDE Iesus, and so shalt thou and thy housholde be saued.

32 And they preached the worde of the LORDE vnto him, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he toke them to him in the same houre of the night, and washed their strypes. And immediatly was he baptysed, and all his.

34 And he broughte them in to his house, and set them a table, and reioysed with all his housholde, that he was become a beleuer on God.

35 And whan it was daye, the officers of the cite sent mynisters, and sayde: Let those men go.

36 And the keper of the preson tolde this sayenge vnto Paul: The officers haue sent hither, that ye shulde be lowse. Now therefore get you hece, and go in peace.

37 But Paul sayde vnto them: They haue beaten vs openly vncondempned (where as we are yet Romaynes) and haue cast vs in preson, and shulde they now thrust vs out preuely? Not so, but let them come them selues, and bryng vs out.

38 The mynisters tolde these wordes vnto the officers. And they feared, whan they herde that they were Romaynes, 39 and came and besoughte them, and prayed the to departe out of the cite.

40 Then wente they out of the preson, and entred in to the house of Lydia. And whan they had sene the brethren and comforted them, they departed.

Chapter 17

1 As they made their journey thorow Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagoge of the Iewes.

2 And Paul (as his maner was) wete in vnto them, and vpon thre Sabbathes he spake vnto them of the scripture, opened it vnto the,

3 and alleged, that Christ must nedes haue suffred, & ryse agayne from the deed: and this Iesus, whom I preach vnto you (sayde he) is ye same Christ.

4 And some of the beleued, and were ioyned vnto Paul and Syllas, a greate multitude also of the deuoute Grekes, and of the chefe wemen not a fewe.

5 But the styffnecked Iewes had indignacion, and toke vnto them certayne euell men which were vagabundes, and gathered a company, and set the cite in a rore, and preassed vnto the house of Iason, and soughte to bryng them out vnto the comon people.

6 But whan they founde them not, they drue Iason, and certayne brethren vnto the rulers of the cite, and cryed: These that trouble all the worlde, are come hither also,

7 whom Iason hath receaued preuely. And these all do contrary to the decrees of the Emperoure, sayenge, that there is another kynge, one Iesus.

8 They troubled the people, and the rulers of the cite, that herde this.

9 And whan they had receaued a sufficient answer of Iason and of the other, they let them go.

10 But the brethren immediatly sent awaye Paul and Syllas by night vnto Berea. Whan they came there, they wete in to the synagoge of the Iewes

11 (for they were the Eldest amonge the at Thessalonica) which receaued the worde maruelous wyllingly, and searched the scriptures daylie, whether it were euen so.

12 Then beleued many of them, and worshipfull wemen off the Grekes, and men not a fewe.

13 But whan the Iewes off Thessalonica had knowlege, that the worde off God was preached off Paul at Berea, they came, and moued the people there also.

14 Howbeit the brethren sent Paul awaye then immediatly, to go vnto the see. As for Syllas and Timotheus, they abode there styll.

15 They that conueyed Paul, brought him vnto Athens. And whan they had receaued a commaundement vnto Syllas and Timotheus, that they shulde come vnto him in all the haist, they wente their waye.

16 But whyle Paul wayted for them at Athens, his sprete was moued in him, whan he sawe the cite geue so to the worshippinge of ymagines.

17 And he spake vnto the Iewes and deuoute personnes in the synagoge, & in ye market daylie vnto the that came to him.

18 But certayne Philosophers of ye Epicurees and Stoikes disputed with him. And some sayde: What will this babler saye? But some sayde: He semeth to be a tidings brynger of new goddes (That was, because he had preached vnto the the Gospell of Iesus, & of the resurreccion.)

19 And they toke him, and broughte him before the councill house, and sayde: Maye we not knowe, what new doctryne this is that thou teachest?

20 For thou bryngest straunge tidings to oure eares? We wolde knowe therefore, what this meaneth.

21 As for all they of Athens, and straungers & gestes, they gaue theselues to nothings els, but either to tell, or to heare some newes.

22 Paul stode on the myddes of the comon place, and sayde: Ye me of Athens, I se that in all thinges ye are to superstitious.

23 I haue gone thorow, & sene youre gods seruyce, and founde an altare, where vpo was wrytten: To the vnknowne God. Now shewe I vnto you ye same, whom ye worshippe ignorauntly.

24 God which made ye worlde, and all that therin is, for so moch as he is LORDE of heauen and earth, dwelleth not in temples made of handes,

25 nether is he worshipped with mens handes, as though he had nede of any man, seyng he himself geueth life and breth vnto all men euery where:

26 and hath made of one bloude all the generacion of men to dwell vpo all the face of ye earth: and hath assygned borders appoynted before, how longe and farre they shulde dwell,

27 that they shulde seke the LORDE, yf they mighte fele and fynde him. And truly he is not farre from euery one of vs.

28 For in him we lyue, moue, and haue oure beyng, as certayne of youre awne Poetes also haue sayde: We are his generacion.

29 For as moch then as we are the generacion of God, we oughte not to thinke that the Godheade is like vnto golde or syluer, or ymagery worke of the crafte or ymaginacion of man.

30 And truly God hath ouersene the tyme of ignoraunce: But now he commaundeth all men euery where to repente, 31 because he hath appoynted a daye, in the which he wyl iudge the copasse of the worlde, with righteousnesse, by that one man in who he hath appoynted it: and offred faith vnto all men, after that he had raysed him vp from the deed.

32 Whan they herde of the resurreccion of the deed, some mocked. But some sayde: We wyl heare the agayne of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from amonge them.

34 Howbeit certayne men claue vnto him, and beleued: amonge whom was Dionisius, one of the councill: and a woman named Damaris, and other with them.

Chapter 18

1 After that departed Paul fro Athens, and came to Corinthum,

2 and founde a Iewe named Aquila, borne in Potus, which was lately come out of Italy: and his wife Priscilla (because the Emperor Claudius had commaunded all Iewes to departe from Rome) and he drue vnto the.

3 And because he was of the same crafte, he abode with the, and wroughte. Their crafte was to make tentes.

4 And he preached in the synagoge euery Sabbath daye, and exhorted the Iewes and the Grekes.

5 Whan Syllas and Timotheus were come fro Macedonia, Paul was constrayned by the sprete to testifye vnto ye Iewes, that Iesus was very Christ.

6 But wha they sayde cotrary and blasphemed, he shoke his rayment, and sayde vnto them: Youre bloude be vpon youre awne heade. From hence forth I go blamelesse vnto the Gentyles.

7 And he departed thence, and came in to the house of a man named Iustus, which feared God, and his house was nexte vnto the synagoge.

8 Howbeit Crispus the chefe ruler of the synagoge, beleued on ye LORDE with all his housholde. And many of the Corinthians that gaue audience, beleued, and were baptysed.

9 The LORDE spake vnto Paul by a vision in ye nighte: Be not afrayed, but speake, and holde not thy peace,

10 for I am with the: and no man shal inuade the that shal hurte the, for I haue moch people in this cite.

11 He contynued there a yeaere and sixe monethes, and taught them the worde of God.

12 But whan Gallio was ruler of the countre of Achaia, the Iewes made insurreccion wt one acorde agaynst Paul, & broughte him before the iudgment seate, 13 and sayde: This felowe counceleth men to worships God cotrary to the lawe.

14 Whan Paul was aboute to open his mouth, Gallio sayde vnto ye Iewes: Yf it were a matter of wronge or an euell dede (O ye Iewes) reason wolde that I shulde heare you:

15 but yf it be a question of wordes, and of names, and of ye lawe amoge you, loke ye to it youre selues, I thinke not to be iudge there ouer.

16 And he droue them from the iudgmet seate.

17 Then all the Grekes toke Sosthenes the ruler of the Synagoge, and smote him before the iudgment seate. And Gallio cared for none of tho thinges.

18 Paul after yt he had taried a good whyle, toke his leue of the brethren, and sayled in to Syria, Priscilla & Aquila bearinge him company. And he shore his heade at Cenchrea (for he had a vowe)

19 & came downe to Ephesus, & lefte them there. But he himselfe wete in to the synagoge, and reasoned with the Iewes.

20 And they desyred him, that he wolde tary with them a longer season. And he cosented not,

21 but bad them farwele, and sayde: I must nedes in eny wyse kepe this feast that commeth, at Ierusalem: but yf God wyl, I wil returne agayne vnto you. And he departed from Ephesus,

22 and came to Cesarea, and wente vp, and saluted ye congregacion, and toke his journey downe to Antioche,

23 and taried there a certayne tyme, and departed, and walked thorow all ye countre of Galatia and Phrigia by ordre, and strengthed all the disciples.

24 There came vnto Ephesus a certayne Iewe, named Apollo (borne at Alexandria) an eloquent man, and mightie in the scriptures:

25 the same was infourmed in the waye of the LORDE, and spake feruently in the sprete, and taughte diligently the thinges of the LORDE, and knewe but the baptye off Ihon onely.

26 The same beganne to speake boldly in the synagoge. Whan Aquila and Priscilla herde him, they toke him vnto the, and expounded the waye of God vnto him more perfectly.

27 But whan he wolde go in to Achaia, the brethren wrote, and exorted the disciples to receaue him. And whan he was come thither, he helped them moch which beleued thorow grace.

28 For he ouercame the Iewes mightely, and shewed openly by ye scripture, that Iesus was Christ.

Chapter 19

1 Bvt it fortuneth whan Apollo was at Corinthum, that Paul walked thorow the vpper coastes, and came to Ephesus, and founde certayne disciples,

2 vnto whom he sayde: Haue ye receaued ye holy goost, sence ye beleued? They sayde vnto hi: We haue not herde, whether there be an holy goost.

3 He sayde vnto them: Where with then were ye baptysed? They sayde: With the baptye of Ihon.

4 Paul sayde: Ihon baptysed with the baptye of repentaunce, and spake vnto ye people, that they shulde beleue on him, which shulde come after him, that is, on Iesus, that the same is Christ.

5 Whan they herde that, they were baptysed in the name of the LORDE Iesu.

6 And whan Paul layed the hades on the, the holy goost came vpon them, and they spake with tunges, and prophecied.

7 And all the men were aboute twolue.

8 He wete in to ye synagoge, and preached boldly thre monethes longe, teachinge, and geuyng them exortacions of the kyngdome of God.

9 But whan dyuerse waxed herde herted, and beleued not, and spake euell of the waye of the LORDE before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disputed daylye in the scole of one called Tyrannus.

10 And this was done two yeaeres loge, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, herde the worde of the LORDE Iesu, both Iewes & Grekes.

11 And God wroughte no small miracles by the handes of Paul,

12 so that from his body there were broughte napkyns or partlettes vnto the sicke, and the diseases departed from them, and the euell spretes wente out of them.

13 But certayne of the vagabounde Iewes which were coniuers, vndertoke to name ye name of the LORDE Iesus, ouer those that had euell spretes, and sayde: We charge you by Iesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 They were seuen sonnes of one Sceua a Iewe the hye prest, which dyd so.

15 The euell sprete answered, and sayde: Iesus I knowe, and Paul I knowe, but who are ye?

16 And the ma in who the euell sprete was, ranne vpon them, and ouercame them, and cast them vnder him, so that they fled out of the same house naked and wounded.

17 This was knowne vnto all the Iewes and Grekes which dwelt at Ephesus, and there fell a feare vpon them all. And ye name of the LORDE Iesus was magnified.

18 Many of the also that beleued, came and cofessed, and shewed their workes.

19 But many of them that had vsed curious craftes, broughte the bokes together, and burnte them openly: and they counted the pryce of them, and founde it of money fiftye thousande pens.

20 So mightely grewe ye worde of the LORDE, and preuayled.

21 Whan this was done, Paul purposed in sprete to take his iourney thorow Macedonia and Achaia, and to go to Ierusalem, and sayde: After that I haue bene there, I must se Rome also.

22 And he sent into Macedonia two that mynistred vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus. But he himselfe remayned in Asia for a season.

23 At the same tyme there rose no litle a doo aboute that waye.

24 For a certayne man named Demetrius a goldsmyth, which made syluer shrynes for Diana, and broughte them of the crafte no small vantage.

25 Them he gathered together, and the feloweworkme of the same occupacion, and sayde: Syrs, ye knowe that by this crafte we haue vantage,

26 and ye se and heare, that not onely at Ephesus, but almost also thorow out all Asia, this Paul turneth awaye moch people with his persuadyng, and sayeth: They be not goddes that are made with hondes.

27 Howbeit it shal not onely bryng our occupacion to this poynte to be set at naught, but also the temple of greate Diana shal from hence forth be despysed, and hir maiesty also shalbe destroyed, who neuertheles all Asia and the worlde worshippeth.

28 Whan they herde this, they were full of wrath, cried out, and sayde: Greate is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And all ye cite was on a roore, and they russed in with one assent in to the open place, and toke Gaius and Aristarchus of Macedonia, Pauls companyons.

30 Whan Paul wolde haue gone in amonge the people, the disciples suffred him not.

31 Certayne also of ye chefe of Asia which were Pauls good frendes, sent vnto him, and desyred him, that he shulde not preasse in to the open place.

32 Some cried one thinge, some another. And the congregacion was out of quyete, and the more parte knewe not wherfore they were come together.

33 Some of the people drue forth Alexander, whan ye Iewes thrust him forwarde. Alexader beckened with the hande, and wolde haue geuen the people an answer.

34 But whan they knewe that he was a Iewe, there arose a shoute of all, and cried the space of two houres: Greate is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 Whan the towne clarke had styllled the people, he sayde: Ye men of Ephesus, what man is it which knoweth not, that the cite of ye Ephesias is a worshipper of the greate goddesse Diana, and of the heauenly ymage?

36 Seinge now that this can not be sayde agaynst, ye ought to be contente, and to do nothinge without aduysment.

37 Ye haue broughte hither these men, which are nether churchrobbers ner blasphemers off youre goddesse.

38 But yff Demetrius and they that are craftsmen with him, haue ought to saye vnto eny man, the lawe is open, and there are rulers, let them accuse one another.

39 But yf ye wil go aboute eny other thinge, it maye be determyned in a lauffull congregacion.

40 For we stonde in ioperdy to be accused of this dayes vproure: and yet is there no man gilte, of whom we mighte geue a rekenyng of this vproure.

41 And whan he had sayde this, he let the congregacion departe.

Chapter 20

1 Now whan the vproure was ceased, Paul called the disciples vnto him, and toke his leue of them, and departed to go in to Macedonia.

2 And whan he had gone thorow those partes, and exhorted them with many wordes, he came into Grekelonde,

3 and there abode thre monethes. But whan the Iewes layed wayte for him, as he was aboute to sayle in to Syria, he purposed to turne agayne thorow Macedonia.

4 There accompanied him in to Asia, Sopater of Berrea: and of Thessalonica, Aristarchus and Secundus: and Gaius of Terba, and Timotheus: but of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus.

5 These wente before, and taried for vs at Troada:

6 but we sayled after the Easter dayes from Philippos, vnto ye fyfth daye, and came to them vnto Troada, and taried there seuen dayes.

7 Vpon one of the Sabbathes, whan the disciples came together to breake bred, Paul preached vnto them, wyllinge to departe on the morow, and contynued the preachinge vnto mydnight.

8 And there were many lightes in the chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 There sat a yonge man named Eutychos, in a wyndow, and fell in to a depe slepe (whyle Paul was speakinge) and was ouercome with slepe, and fell downe from the thirde lofte, and was taken vp deed.

10 But Paul wente downe, and fell on him, and embraced him, and sayde: Make nothinge a doo, for his soule is in hi.

11 Then wente he vp, and brake the bred, and ate, and talked moch with the, tyll the daye brake, and so departed.

12 As for the yoge man, they broughte him alyue, and were not a litle conforted.

13 But we wente afore in to the shippe, and sayled towarde Asson, wyllinge there to receaue Paul. For so had he appoynted, and wolde himselfe go on fote.

14 Whan he was come to vs vnto Asson, we toke him in, and came to Mitylenes, 15 and sayled from thence, and came on the nexte daye ouer agaynst Chios, and on the daye folowinge we aryued at Samos, and taried at Tragilion, and on the nexte daye came we to Mileton:

16 for Paul had determed to sayle ouer by Ephesus, that he nede not to spende the tyme in Asia: for he haisted to be at Ierusalem vpo the Whitsundaye, yf it were possible for him.

17 But from Mileton he sent vnto Ephesus, and called for the Elders of the congregacion.

18 Whan they were come to him, he sayde vnto them: Ye knowe sence the first daye that I came in to Asia, after what maner I haue bene with you at all tyme,

19 and serued ye LORDE with all humblenesse of mynde, and with many teares and tentacions, which happened vnto me by ye layenges of wayte of the Lewes,

20 how yt I haue kepte backe nothinge yt was profitable, but that I haue shewed you, and taughte you openly, and priuately from house to house.

21 And haue testified both vnto the Lewes & to the Grekes the repentaunce towarde God, and faith towarde oure LORDE Iesus.

22 And now beholde, I go bounde in ye sprete vnto Ierusalem, not knowinge what shal happen there vnto me, 23 but yt the holy goost witnesseth in euery cite, and sayeth, that bondes and troubles abyde me there.

24 But I regarde none of them, nether counte I my life dearer then my selfe, that I maye fulfill my course with ioye, and the office yt I haue receaued of the LORDE Iesu, to testifye the Gospell of the grace of God.

25 And now beholde, I knowe that ye shal se my face nomore, all ye, thorow whom I haue gone, and preached the kyngdome of God.

26 Wherefore I take you to recorde this daye, that I am pure from the bloude of all men:

27 For I haue kepte nothinge backe, but haue shewed you all the counsell off God.

28 Take hede therfore vnto youre selues, and to all the flocke, amonge the which the holy goost hath set you to be Bishoppes, to fede the congregacion of God, which he hath purchaced thorow his owne bloude.

29 For this I knowe, that after my departinge there shal enter in amonge you greuous wolues, which shal not spare the flocke.

30 Yee eue from amonge youre awne selues shal men aryse, speakyng peruerse doctryne, to drawe disciples after them.

31 Therfore awake, and remembre, that by the space of thre yeaes I ceased not to warne euery one off you both nighte and daye with teares.

32 And now brethren I commende you vnto God, and to ye worde of his grace, which is mightie to edifye you, and to geue you the enheritaunce amoge all them that are sanctified.

33 I haue not desyred syluer, golde or rayment off eny off you.

34 For ye youre selues knowe, that these handes haue mynistred vnto my necessities, and them that were with me.

35 I haue shewed you all thinges, how that so labouringe ye oughte to receaue the weake, and to remembre the worde of the LORDE, how that he sayde: It is more blessed to geue, then to receaue.

36 And whan he had sayde this, he kneled downe, and prayed with them all.

37 But there was moch wepyng amonge them all, and they fell aboute Pauls necke, and kyssed him, 38 and were sorry, most of all because of the worde which he had sayde, that they shulde se his face nomore. And they accompanied him vnto the shippe.

Chapter 21

1 Now whan it fortunated that we had launched forth and were departed from them, we came with a straight course vnto Coon, and on the daye folowinge vnto the Rhodes, and from thence vnto Patara.

2 And whan we founde a shippe ready to sayle vnto Phenices, we wente aborde and set forth.

3 But wha we came within the sighte of Cypers, we lefte it on the lefte hande, and sayled vnto Syria, and came vnto Tyre: for there the shippe shulde laye forth the ware.

4 And whan we had founde disciples, we taried there seuen dayes. And they tolde Paul thorow the sprete, that he shulde not go vp to Ierusalem.

5 And it fortunated wha we had fulfilled those dayes, we departed, and wente oure wayes, and they all broughte vs on oure waye with wyues and childre, tyll we were come out of ye cite, and we kneled downe vpo the shore, and prayed.

6 And whan we had taken oure leue one off another, we toke shippe, but they turned agayne vnto theirs.

7 As for vs we ended the course from Tyre, and came to Ptolomaida, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one daye.

8 On the nexte daye we yt were with Paul, departed, and came vnto Cesarea, & entred in to the house of Philippe the Euangelist (which was one of the seue) and abode with him.

9 The same had foure doughters, which were virgins, and prophecied.

10 And as we taried there mo dayes, there came downe from Iewry a prophet, named Agabus.

11 Wha he was come vnto vs, he toke Pauls gerdell, and bounde his hades and fete, and sayde: Thus sayeth ye holy goost: The man whose gerdell this is, shal the Lewes bynde thus at Ierusalem, and shal delyuer him in to the handes of the Heythe.

12 Whan we herhe this, both we and they that were of the same place, besoughte him, that he wolde not go vp to Ierusalem.

13 Then answered Paul and sayde: What do ye, wepyng, and breakyng my hert? For I am redye not onely to be bounde, but also to dye at Ierusalem for ye name of the LORDE Iesu.

14 But wha he wolde not be persuaded, we ceased, and sayde: The will of the LORDE be fulfilled.

15 And after those dayes we were ready, & wente vp to Ierusalem:

16 There came with vs also certayne of the disciples off Cesarea, and broughte with them one of Cypers, named Mnason, an olde disciple, with whom we shulde lodge.

17 Now wha we came to Ierusalem, the brethren receaued vs gladly.

18 But on the nexte daye Paul wente in with vs vnto Iames, and all the Elders came together.

19 And whan he had saluted them, he tolde by order, what God had done amoge the Heythen by his mynistracion.

20 Whan they herde that, they prayled the LORDE, and sayde vnto him: Brother, thou seyst how many thousande Lewes there are which beleue, and are all Zelous ouer ye lawe.

21 But they are enfourmed agaynst the, that thou teachest all the Lewes which are amoge the Heythe, to forsake Moses, and sayest that they oughte not to circumcyse their children, ner to walke after the same custome.

22 What is it therfore? The multitude must nedes come together, for they shal heare that thou art come.

23 Do this therfore that we saye vnto the: We haue foure men, which haue a vowe on them, 24 take them vnto ye, and purifye thyselve with them, and do the cost on them, that they maye shaue their heades: and they shal knowe, that it is nothinge, wherof they are enfourmed agaynst the, but that thou also walkest and kepest the lawe.

25 For as touchinge them that beleue amonge the Heythen, we haue wrytten, and concluded, that they shulde obserue no soch, but onely to kepe them selues from the offeringes of Idols, from bloude, from stragled, and from whordome.

26 Then Paul toke the men vnto him, and was purified with them on the nexte daye, and entred in to the temple, declaringe that he fulfilled the dayes of purificacion, tyll there was an offeringe offred for euery one of them.

27 But whan the seuen dayes were almost fulfilled, the Lewes of Asia sawe him in the temple, and moued all the people, layed handes vpon him,

28 and cryed: Ye men of Israel, helpe, this is the man, that teacheth all men euery where agaynst oure people, the lawe, and this place. He hath broughte Grekes also in to the temple, and hath defyled this holy place.

29 For they had sene Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the cite, him they thoughte yt Paul had broughte in to the temple.

30 And all the cite was moued, and the people ranne together. And they toke Paul, and drue him out off the temple, and forth with the dores were shut to.

31 But whan they wete aboute to kyll him, tydings came to the chefe captayne of the company, that all Ierusalem was moued.

32 Which immediatly toke soudyers and captaynes vnto him, and ranne in amoge them. Whan they sawe the captayne and the soudyers, they lefte smytinge of Paul.

33 Whan the captayne came nye, he toke him, and commaunded him to be bounde with two cheynes, and axed what he was, and what he had done.

34 One cried this, another that amonge the people. But whan he coulde not knowe the certente because of the rumoure, he commaunded him to be caried in to the castell.

35 And wha he came to the steppes, it fortunated that he was borne of ye soudyers because of the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude off the people folowed after, and cryed: Awaye with him.

37 Whan Paul was now to be caried in to the castell, he sayde vnto ye captayne: Maye I speake vnto the? He sayde: Canst thou Greke?

38 Art not thou the Egipcian, which before these dayes maydest an vproure, & leddest out in to the wyldernesse foure thousande preuy murthurers?

39 Paull sayde: I am a man which am a Iewe off Tharsis, a citesyn of a famous cite in Celia: I beseke the, suffre me to speake vnto the people.

40 Whan he had geuen him lycence, Paul stode on the steppes, and beckened with the hande vnto the people. Now whan there was made a greate sylece, he spake vnto them in Hebrue, and sayde:

Chapter 22

1 Ye men, brethren, and fathers, heare myne answere which I make vnto you.

2 Whan they herde that he spake vnto them in the Hebrue, they kepte the more sylence. And he sayde:

3 I am a man which am a Iewe, borne at Tharsis in Celia: and broughte vp in this cite at the fete off Gamaliel, enfourmed diligently in the lawe of the fathers, and was feruent mynded to God warde, as ye all are also this daye,

4 and I persecuted this waye vnto the death. I bounde them and delyuered them vnto preson, both men and wemen,

5 as ye hye prest also doth beare me wytnesse, and all ye Elders: of whom I receaued letters vnto the brethren, and wente towarde Damascon, that I mighte bryng them which were there, bounde to Ierusalem, to be punyshed.

6 But it fortunated as I made my iourney, and came nye vnto Damascon, aboute noone, sodenly there shone a greate lighte aboute me from heauen,

7 And I fell to the earth, and herde a voyce which sayde vnto me: Saul Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 I answered: Who art thou LORDE? And he sayde vnto me: I am Iesus of Nazareth whom thou persecutest.

9 As for them that were with me, they sawe ye lighte and were afrayed, but they herde not the voyce of him that spake with me.

10 I sayde: LORDE, what shal I do? The LORDE sayde vnto me: Aryse, and go in to Damascon, there shal it be tolde ye of all that is appoynted the to do.

11 But whan I sawe nothinge for the bryghtnesse of the lighte, I was led by the hande of them that were with me, and came to Damascon.

12 There was one Ananias, a deuoute man after the lawe, which had a good reporte of all the Iewes that dwelt there, 13 the same came, and stepte vnto me, and sayde: Brother Saul, loke vp. And I lokod vp vpon him the same houre.

14 He sayde: The God of oure fathers hath ordeyned the before, that thou shuldest knowe his wyll, and se the thinge yt is rightfull, and heare the voyce out of his mouth:

15 for thou shalt be his wytnesse vnto all men, of tho thinges which thou hast sene and herde.

16 And now why tariest thou? Aryse, and be baptysed, and wasse awaye thy synnes, and call vpon the name of the LORDE.

17 But it fortunod, that whan I was come agayne to Ierusalem, and prayed in the temple, I was in a traunce, 18 and sawe him. Then sayde he vnto me: Make haist, and get the soone out of Ierusalem, for they wyl not receaue the wytnesse that thou bearest of me.

19 And I sayde: LORDE, they the selues knowe that I put in preson and bett in euery synagoge them that beleued on the. 20 And wha the bloude of Steue thy wytnesse was shed, I stode by also, & consented vnto his death, and kepte the clothes of them that slewe him.

21 And he sayde vnto me: Go thy waye, for I wil sende the farre amonge the Hey then.

22 They gaue him audience vnto this worde, and lifte vp their voyce, & sayde: Awaye with soch a felowe from the earth, for it is not reason that he shulde lyue.

23 But as they cried, and cast of their clothes, & thrue dust in to the ayre, 24 the captayne bad brynge him into the castell, and commaunded him to be beaten with roddes and to be examyned, that he mighte knowe, for what cause they cried so vpon him.

25 And whan he bounde him with thonges, Paul sayde vnto the vndercaptayne that stode by: Is it lauffull for you to scourge a man that is a Romayne, and vncondemned?

26 Whan the vndercaptayne herde that, he wete to the vpper captayne, and tolde him, and sayde? What wilt thou do? This man is a Romayne.

27 Then came ye vpper captayne, and sayde vnto him: Tell me, art thou a Romayne? He sayde: Yee.

28 And the vpper captayne answered: With a greate summe optayned I this fredome. But Paul sayde: As for me, I am a Romayne borne.

29 The straight waye departed from him, they that shulde haue examyned him. And ye chefe captayne was afrayed, whan he knewe that he was a Romayne, and because he had bounde him.

30 On the nexte daye wolde he knowe the certentye wherfore he was accused of the Iewes, and he lowsed him from the bondes, and commaunded the hie prestes and all their counsell to come together, and broughte Paul forth, and set him amonge them.

Chapter 23

1 Paul behelde the counsell, and sayde: Ye men and brethren, I haue lyued with all good conscience before God vnto this daye:

2 But the hie prest Ananias commaunded them that stode aboute him, to smyte hi on the mouth.

3 Then sayde Paul vnto him: God shal smyte the thou paynted wall. Syttest thou and iudget me after the lawe, and commaundest me to be smytten contrary to ye lawe?

4 And they that stode aboute hi, sayde: Reuylest thou Gods hie prest?

5 And Paul sayde: Brethre, I wyst not that he was the hie prest. For it is wrytte: The ruler of thy people shalt thou not curse.

6 But whan Paul knewe that the one parte was Saduces, and the other parte Pharises, he cried out in ye counsell: Ye men and brethren, I am a Pharise, and the sonne of a Pharise, Of hope and resurreccion of the deed am I iudged.

7 And whan he had so sayde, there arose a dissencion betwene ye Pharises and the Saduces, and the multitude was deuyded:

8 for the Saduces saye that there is no resurreccion, nether angell, ner sprete: but the Pharises graute both.

9 And there was made a greate crye. And ye Scribes of the Pharyses secte, stode vp, and stroue, and sayde: We fynde no euell in this ma. But yf a sprete or an angell haue spoke vnto him, let vs not stryue agaynst God.

10 But whan the discension was greate, ye vpper captayne feared, that Paul shulde haue bene pluckte a sonder of them, and commaunded the soudyers to go downe, and to take him from them, and to brynge him in to the castell.

11 But in the nighte folowinge, the LORDE stode by him, and sayde: Be of good cheare Paul, for as thou hast testified of me at Ierusalem so must thou testifye at Rome also.

12 Now whan it was daye, certayne of the Iewes gathered them selues together, and made a vowe nether to eate ner drynke, tyll they had kylled Paul.

13 They were mo then fortye, which had made this conspyracion.

14 These came to the hie prestes and Elders, and sayde: We haue bounde oure selues wt a vowe, that we wil eate nothinge, tyll we haue slayne Paul.

15 Now therefore geue ye knowlege to the vpper captayne and to the counsell, that he maye brynge him forth vnto you tomorow, as though ye wolde heare him yet better: As for vs, we are ready to kyl him, or euer he come nye you.

16 But whan Pauls sisters sonne herde of their layenge awaye, he came, and entred into the castell, and tolde Paul.

17 So Paul called vnto him one of ye vnder captaynes, and sayde: Brynge this yonge man to the vpper captayne, for he hath somewhat to saye to him.

18 He toke him, and broughte him to the vpper captayne, and sayde: Paul the presoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to brynge to the this yonge man, which hath somewhat to saye vnto the.

19 Then the hie captayne toke him by the hande, and wente asyde with him out of the waye, and axed him: What is it, that thou hast to saye vnto me?

20 He sayde: The Iewes are agreed together, to desyre the, to let Paul be broughte forth tomorow before the counsell, as though they wolde yet heare him better.

21 But folowe not thou their myndes, for there laye wayte for him mo then fortye men off them, which haue bounde them selues with a vowe, nether to eate ner drynke, tyll they haue slayne Paul: and euen now are they redye, and loke for thy promes.

22 Then the vpper captayne let the yonge man departe, and charged him to tell noman, that he had shewed him this.

23 And he called vnto him two vndercaptaynes, and sayde: Make redye two hundreth soudyers, that they maye go to Cesarea, and thre score and ten horsmen, and two hundreth speare men at the thirde houre of the nighte,

24 and delyuer the bestes, that they maye set Paul theron, and brynge him safe vnto Felix the debyte,

25 and he wrote a letter on this maner: 26 Claudius Lysias, vnto the most mightie Debyte Felix, gretynge.

27 The Iewes had taken this man, and wolde haue slayne him, then came I with soudyers, and rescued him, and perceaued that he is a Romayne.

28 And whan I wolde haue knowne the cause, wherfore they accused hi, I broughte him in to their counsell:

29 then perceaued I, that he was accused aboute questions of their lawe. But there was no accusacion worthy of death or of bondes.

30 And whan it was shewed me, that certayne Iewes layed wayte for him, I sent him straight waye vnto the, and commaunded the accusers also, that loke what they had agaynst him, they shulde tell the same before the. Fare well.

31 The soudyers (as it was commaunded them) toke Paul, and broughte him to Antipatras.

32 But on the nexte daye, they lefte ye horse men to go with him, and turned agayne to the castell.

33 When these came to Cesarea, they delyuered the letter vnto the Debyte, & presented Paul before him also.

34 Whan the Debyte had red the letter, he axed off what countre he was. And wha he vnderstode that he was of Celicia, 35 he sayde: I wil heare the, whan thine accusers are come also. And he commaunded him to be kepte in Herodes iudgment house.

Chapter 24

1 After fyue dayes the hie prest Ananias came downe with the Elders, and wt the Oratour Tertullus, which appeared before the Debyte agaynst Paul.

2 Whan Paul was called forth, Tertullus begane to accuse him, and sayde: Seynge that we lyue in greate peace by the meanes of ye, and that many good thinges are done for this people thorow thy prouydence

3 (most mightie Felix) that alowe we euer and in all places with all thanks.

4 Notwithstandinge yt I be nomore tedious vnto the, I praye the, that of thy curtesy thou woldest heare vs a fewe wordes.

5 We haue founde this man a pestilent felowe, and a sterer vp of sedicion amonge all the Iewes thorow out all the worlde, and a manteyner of the secte of the Nazaretes,

6 and hath taken in hande also to suspende the temple, whom we toke, and wolde haue iudged him acordinge to oure lawe.

7 But Lysias the hie captayne came vpo vs, and with greate violence delyuered him out of oure handes,

8 and commaunded his accusers to come vnto the: of whom (yf thou wilt enquirye) thou mayest haue knowlege of all these thinges, wherof we accuse him.

9 The Iewes likewyse affirmed and sayde, that it was euen so.

10 But Paul (whan the debyte had beckened vnto him, that he shulde speake) answered: Seynge I knowe that thou hast bene iudge now many yeares amonge this people, I wil not be afrayed to answere for my selfe,

11 because that thou mayest knowe, that there are yet no more but twolue dayes sence I came vp to Ierusalem for to worshippe,

12 and that they nether founde me in the temple disputinge with eny man, or makynge eny vproue amonge the people, ner in ye synagoges, ner in the cite:

13 nether can they proue the thinges, wherof they accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto the, that after this waye which they call heresy, so worshippe I the God of my fathers, that I beleue all that is wrytten in the lawe and in the prophetes,

15 and haue hope towards God, that the same resurreccion of the deed (which they them selues loke for also) shalbe, both of the iust and vniust.

16 Therefore studye I to haue allwaye a cleare conscience towarde God and towarde men.

17 But after many yeares I came and broughte allmesse vnto my people, and offerings:

18 whervpon they founde me purifyed in the temple without eny maner of rumoure or vnquyetnesse. Howbeit there were certayne Iewes out of Asia,

19 which shulde be here presente before the, and accuse me, yf they had oughte agaynst me:

20 or els lett these same here saye, yf they haue founde eny vnrighteousnes in me, whyle I stonde here before ye counsell:

21 excepte it be for this one worde, that I cried stondinge amonge them: Of the resurreccion off the deed am I iudged of you this daye.

22 Whan Felix herde this, he dyfferred the (for he knewe very well of that waye) and sayde: Whan Lysias the vpper captayne commeth downe, I wyl knowe ye vtmost of youre matter

23 But he commaunded the vndercaptayne to kepe Paul, and to let him haue rest, and that he shulde forbydde none of his aquauntauce to mynister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

24 But after certayne dayes came Felix wt his wife Drusilla, which was a Iewesse, and called for Paul, and herde him of the faith in Christ.

25 Howbeit whan Paul spake off righteousnesse, and off chastite and off the iudgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered: Go thy waye for this tyme. Whan I haue a conuenient tyme, I wil sende for the.

26 He hoped also, that money shulde haue bene geuen him of Paul, therefore called he oft for him, and commened with him.

27 But after two yeares came Portius Festus in to felix rowme. Yet Felix wyllinge to shewe the Iewes a pleasure, left Paul bounde.

Chapter 25

1 Now whan Festus was come in to the cowntre, ouer thre dayes he wente vp from Cesarea to Ierusalem.

2 Then appeared the hye prestes and the chefe of the Iewes before him agaynst Paul, and intreated him,

3 and desyred faouere agaynst him, that he wolde sende for him to Ierusalem, and layed waye for him, that they might slaye him by the waye.

4 Then answered Festus, that Paul shulde be kepte at Cesarea, but that he himselfe wolde shortly go thither agayne.

5 Let them therefore (sayde he) which are able amonge you, come downe with vs to accuse the man, yf there be ought in him.

6 Whan he had taried amonge them more then ten dayes, he wente downe to Cesarea. And on the nexte daye he sat downe on the iudgment seate, and commaunded Paul to be broughte.

7 Whan he was come, ye Iewes which were come downe from Ierusalem, stode rounde aboute him, and broughte vp many and greuous quarels agaynst Paul, which they coulde not proue,

8 whyle he answered for himselfe: I haue nether offended ought agaynst the lawe of the Iewes, ner agaynst the teple, ner agaynst the Emperoure.

9 But Festus wyllinge to shewe the Iewes a pleasure, answered Paul, and sayde: Wilt thou go vp to Ierusalem, and there be iudged off these thinges before me?

10 But Paul sayde: I stonde at the Emperours iudgment seate, where I ought to be iudged: to the Iewes haue I done no harme, as thou also knowest very well.

11 Yf I haue hurte eny man, or committed eny thinge worthy off death, I refuse not to dye. But yf there are no soch thinges as they accuse me off, then maye no man deluyer me vnto them. I appeale vnto the Emperoure.

12 Then spake Festus with the Councell, and answered: Thou hast appealed vnto the Emperoure, to the Emperoure shalt thou go.

13 After certayne dayes came kynge Agrippa and Bernice to Cesarea to welcome Festus.

14 And whan they had taried there many dayes, Festus rehearsed Pauls cause vnto the kynge, and sayde: There is a man left bounde of Felix, 15 for whose cause the hye prestes and Elders of the Iewes appeared before me whan I was at Ierusalem, and desyred a sentence agaynst him.

16 Vnto whom I answered: It is not the maner off the Romyanes to deluyer eny man that he shulde perishe, before that he which is accused, haue his accusers presente, and receaue libertye to answer for him selfe to the accusacion.

17 Wha they were come hither together, I made no delaye, but sat the nexte daye in iudgment, and commaunded the man to be broughte forth.

18 Of whom, whan the accusers stode vp, they broughte no accusacion of soch thinges as I supposed:

19 But had certayne questions agaynst him of their awne supersticions, and of one Iesus deed, whom Paul affirmed to be aluye.

20 Howbeit because I vnderstode not the question, I axed hi, whether he wolde go to Ierusalem, and there be iudged of these matters.

21 But wha Paul had appealed, that he might be kepte vnto the knowlege of the Emperoure, I comaunded him to be kepte, tyll I mighte sende him to the Emperoure.

22 Agrippa sayde vnto Festus: I wolde fayne heare the man also. He sayde: Tomorow shalt thou heare him.

23 And on the nexte daye came Agrippa & Bernice with greate pompe, and wete in to the comon hall with the captaynes & chefe me of the cite. And at Festus comaundement, Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus sayde: Kynge Agrippa, and all ye men which are here with vs, ye se this man, aboute whom all the multitude of the Iewes haue entreated me, both at Ierusalem and here also, and cried, that he ought not to lyue eny lenger.

25 But whan I perceaued that he had done nothinge worthy off death, and that he himselfe also had appealed vnto the Emperoure, I determyned to sende him, 26 of who I haue no certayne thinge to wryte vnto my lorde. Therefore haue I caused hi to be broughte forth before you, specially before the (O kynge Agrippa) that after examinacion had, I might haue somewhat to wryte.

27 For me thynke it an vnreasonable thinge to sende a presoner, and not to shewe the causes which are layed agaynst him.

Chapter 26

1 Agrippa sayde vnto Paul: Thou hast leue to speake for thy selfe. The Paul stretched forth the hande, and answered for himselfe:

2 I thinke my selfe happye (O kynge Agrippa) because I shal answer this daye before the, of all the thinges wherof I am accused of the Iewes:

3 specially for so moch as thou art experte in all customes and questions, which are amonge the Iewes. Wherfore I beseeche the, to heare me paciently.

4 My lyuynge truly from youth vp (how it was led from the begynnynge amonge this people at Ierusalem) knowe all the Iewes

5 which knewe me afore at the first, yf they wolde testifye, for after the most straye secte of oure Iewysh lawe, I lyued a Pharise.

6 And now stonde I, and am iudged because of the hope of the promes, that was made of God vnto oure fathers,

7 vnto the which (promes) oure twolue trybes hope to come, seruyng God instatly daye and nyghte. For the which hopes sake (O kynge Agrippa) I am accused of the Iewes.

8 Wherfore is this iudged amonge you not to be beleued, that God rayseth vp the deed?

9 I also verely thoughte by my selfe, that I oughte to do many cotrary thinges cleane agaynst the name off Iesus off Nazareth,

10 which I dyd at Ierusalem, whan I shut vp many sayntes in preson, whervpon I receaued auctorite of ye hye prestes. And wha they shulde be put to death, I broughte the sentence.

11 And thorow all the synagoges I punyshed them oft, and compelled the to blaspheme, and was exceedinge mad vpon them, and persecuted them euen vnto straunge cities.

12 Aboute which thinges as I wente towarde Damascon with auctorite and lycence of the hye prestes,

13 euen at myddaye (O kynge) I sawe in the waye, that a lighte from heau (clearer then the brightnesse of the Sonne) shyned rounde aboute me, and them that journeyed with me.

14 But whan we were all fallen downe to the earth, I herde a voyce speakeynge vnto me, and sayege in Hebrue: Saul Saul, why persecutest thou me? It shalbe harde for the to kycke agaynst the prycke.

15 But I sayde: LORDE, who art thou? He sayde: I am Iesus, whom thou persecutest.

16 But ryse vp, and stonde vpon thy fete, for therfore haue I appeared vnto the, that I mighte ordeyne the to be a mynister and witness of it that thou hast sene, and that I wyll yet cause to appeare vnto the.

17 And I wil deluyer the from the people, and from the Heythen, amonge who I wil now sende the,

18 to ope their eyes, that they maye turne from the darknesse vnto the lighte, and from the power of ye deuell vnto God, that they maye receaue forgeuenesse of synnes, and the inheritaunce with them that are sanctified by faith in me.

19 Wherfore (O kynge Agrippa) I was not faithlesse vnto ye heauely vision, 20 but shewed it first vnto them at Damascon, and at Ierusalem, and in all the coastes of Iewry, and to the Heythen, that they shulde do pennaunce, and turne vnto God, and to do the righte workes of pennaunce.

21 For this cause the Iewes toke me in the temple, and wente aboute to kyll me. 22 But thorow the helpe of God lent vnto me, I stonde vnto this daye, and testifye both vnto small and greate, and saye no other thinge, the that ye prophetes haue sayde (that it shulde come to passe) and Moses,

23 that Christ shulde suffre, and be the first of the resurreccion from the deed, and shew light vnto the people, and to the Heythen.

24 Whan he thus answered for himselfe, Festus sayde with a loude voyce: Paul, thou art besydes thy selfe, moch lernynge maketh ye madd.

25 But Paul sayde: I am not madd (most deare Festus) but speake the wordes of trueth and sobernesse:

26 for ye kynge knoweth this well, vnto whom I speake frely. For I thinke that none off these thinges is hyd from him: for this was not done in a corner.

27 Beleuest thou the prophetes, O kynge Agrippa? I knowe that thou beleuest.

28 Agrippa sayde vnto Paul: Thou persuadest me in a parte to become a Christen.

29 Paul sayde: I wolde to God, that (not onely in a parte but alltogether.) I mighte persuade not the onely, but all them that heare me this daye, to be soch I am, these bondes excepte.

30 And whan he had spoken this, the kynge rose vp, and the Debyte, and Bernice, and they that sat with them, 31 and wente asyde, and talked together, and sayde: This man hath done nothinge that is worthy of death or of bondes.

32 But Agrippa sayde vnto Festus: This man mighte haue bene loused, yf he had not appealed vnto the Emperoure.

Chapter 27

1 Whan it was concluded that we shulde sayle in to Italy, they deluered Paul and certayne other presoners to the vndercaptayne named Iulius, of the Emperours soudyers.

2 And whan we were entred in to a shippe of Adramitium, to sayle by Asia, we loused from londe. And there was with vs one Aristarchus out of Macedonia off Thessalonica,

3 and on the nexte daye we came vnto Sidon. And Iulius intreated Paul curteously, and gaue him liberty to go to his frendes, and to refresh himselfe.

4 And from thence launched we, and sayled harde by Cypers (because the wyndes were agaynst vs)

5 and sayled ouer the see of Celicia and Pamphilia, and came to Myra in Lycia.

6 And there the vndercaptayne founde a shippe of Alexadria, ready to sayle in to Italy, and put vs therein.

7 And whan we had sayled slowly, and in many dayes were scarcely come ouer agaynst Gnydon (for the wynde with stode vs) we sayled by Candy nye vnto the cite off Salmo,

8 and came scarcely beyonde it. Then came we to a place, which is called Goodhauen, nye where vnto was the cite Lasea.

9 Now whan moch tyme was spent, and saylinge was now ioperdous, because that they also had fasted ouerlonge, Paul exhorted them,

10 and sayde vnto them: Syrs, I se that this saylinge wyl be with hurte and moch dammage, not onely of the ladyng and of the shippe, but also of oure lyues.

11 Neuertheles ye vndercaptayne beleued the gouernoure of the shippe and ye master, more then it that was spoken of Paul.

12 And for somoch as the haue was not comodious to wynter in, the more parte off them toke counsell to departe thence, yf by eny meanes they might come to Phenices to wynter there, which is an hauen of Candy, towarde the Southwest and Northwest wynde.

13 Whan the South wynde blew, they supposinge to haue had their purpose, loused vnto Asson, and sayled past all Candy.

14 But not longe after, there rose agaynst their purpose a flawe of wynde, which is called the Northeast.

15 And whan the shippe was caught, and coulde not resist ye wynde, we let her go, and draue with the wedder.

16 But we came to an Ile named Claudia, where we coulde scarce get a bote.

17 Which they toke vp, and vsed helpe, and bounde it vnder harde to the shippe, fearinge lest they shulde haue fallen in to the Syrtes, and let downe the vessell, and so were caried.

18 And whan we had bydden a greate tepest, on the nexte daye they made an outcastinge.

19 And on the thirde daye with oure awne handes we cast out the tacklyng of the shippe.

20 But wha nether Sonne ner starres appeared in many dayes, and no small tempest laye vpon vs, all the hope of oure life was taken awaye.

21 And after longe abstinence, Paul stode forth in the myddes of the, and sayde: Syrs, ye shulde haue herkened vnto me, and not to haue loused from Candy, and not to haue broughte vs this harme and losse.

22 And now I exhorte you to be of good cheare, for there shal none of oure lyues perishe, but the shippe onely.

23 For this night stode by me the angell off God (whose I am, & who I serue)

24 & saide: Feare not Paul, thou must be broughte before the Emperoure. And lo, God hath geuen vnto the all the that sayle with the.

25 Wherefore syrs be of good cheare: for I beleue God, yt it shal come so to passe, as it was tolde me.

26 Howbeit we must be cast in to a certayne ylonde.

27 But whan the fourteenth night came, as we were caried in Adria aboute mydnight, ye shipmen demed that there appeared some countre vnto them,

28 and they cast out the leade, and founde it twetye feddoms: and wha they were gone a litle farther, they cast out the leade agayne, and founde fyftene feddoms.

29 Then fearinge lest they shulde fall on some rocke, they cast foure anckers out of the sterne, and wysshed for the daye.

30 Whan the shipmen were aboute to flye out of the shippe, and let downe the bote in to the see, (vnder a coloure as though they wolde cast anckers out of the fore shippe)

31 Paul sayde to ye vndercaptayne and to the soudyers: Excepte these byde in the shippe, ye can not be saued.

32 Then the soudyers cut of the rope from the bote, and let it fall.

33 And whan it beganne to be daye, Paul exhorted them all to take meate, and sayde: To daye is the fourtene daye that ye haue taried and contynued fastinge, and haue receaued nothinge:

34 Wherefore I praye you to take meate, for youre health: for there shal not one heer fall from the heade of eny of you.

35 And whan he had thus spoken, he toke bred, and gaue thanks to God before them all, and brake it, and begane to eate.

36 Then were they all of good cheare, and toke meate also.

37 We were all together in the shippe two hundreth thre score and sixtene soules.

38 And whan they had eaten ynough, they lightened the shippe, and cast out the wheate in to the see.

39 Whan it was daye, they knewe not the londe. But they spyed an hauen with a banke, in to which they were mynded (yf it were possible) to thrust in the shippe.

40 And whan they had take vp the anckers, they commytted them selues to the see, and loused the rudder bandes, and hoysed vp the mayne sayle to the wynde, and drue towarde londe.

41 And whan we chaunced on a place which had the see on both the sydes, the shippe dashed vpon it. And the fore parte abode fast vnmoued, but the hynder parte brake thorow the violence of the wawes.

42 The soudyers counsell was to kyll ye presoners, lest eny of them whan he had swymmed out, shulde flye awaye.

43 But the vndercaptayne wyllinge to saue Paul, kepced them from their purpose, and commaunded that they which coulde swymme, shulde cast them selues first in to the see, and escape vnto londe:

44 and the other, some on bordes, some on broken peces of the shippe. And so it came to passe, that all the soules came safe vnto londe.

Chapter 28

1 And wha we were escaped, we knewe that the Ile was called Melite.

2 As for the people, they shewed vs no litle kyndnesse: for they kyndled a fyre, and receaued vs all because of the rayne that was come vpo vs, and because of the colde.

3 Whan Paul had gathered a bondell of stickes, and layed them on the fyre, there came a vyper out of the heate, and leape on Pauls hande.

4 Whan the people sawe the beest hange on his hande, they sayde amonge them selues: This man must nedes be a murthurer, who vengeaunce suffreth not to lyue, though he haue escaped the see.

5 But he shoke of ye beest in to the fyre, and and felt no harme.

6 Howbeit they wayted, wha he shulde haue swollen, or fallen downe deed sodenly. But whan they had loked a greate whyle, and sawe yt there happened no harme vnto him, they changed their myndes, and sayde that he was a God.

7 In the same quarters the chefe man of the Ile whose name was Publius had a lordshipe: the same receaued vs, and lodged vs thre dayes curteously.

8 It fortunied wha Publius father laye sicke of the feuers and of a bloody fluxe, Paul wente in vnto him, and prayed, and layed the handes on him, and healed him.

9 Whan this was done, other also which had diseases in the Ile, came, and were healed.

10 And they dyd vs greate honoure. And whan we departed, they laded vs with thinges necessary.

11 After thre monethes we sayled in a shippe of Alexandria, which had wyntred in the Ile, and had a badge of Castor and Pollux.

12 And whan we came to Syracuse, we taried there thre dayes.

13 And whan we had sayled aboute, we came to Rhegium: and after one daye whan the south wynde blew, we came to

Putiolus,

14 where we founde brethre and were desyred of them to tarye there seue dayes, and so came we to Rome.

15 And from thence whan the brethren herde of vs, they came forth to mete vs to Apiforum and to the Thre tauerns. Whan Paul sawe them, he thaked God, and waxed bolde.

16 But wha we came to Rome, the vndercaptayne deluered the presoners to ye chefe captayne. As for Paul, he had leue to byde alone with one soudyer that kepte him.

17 After thre dayes it fortunied, yt Paul called ye chefe of ye Lewes together. And wha they were come, he sayde vnto the: Ye me & brethre I haue comytted nothinge agaynst or people, ner agaynst ye lawes of ye fathers, yet was I boude, deluered out of Ierusele in to ye Romaynes hades:

18 which wha they had examyned me, wolde haue let me go, for so moch as there was no cause of death i me.

19 But wha ye Lewes spake ye cotrary, I was costrayned to appeale vnto ye Emperor: not as though I had ought to accuse my people of.

20 For this cause haue I called you, eue to se you, & to speake wt you: because yt for ye hope of Israel, I am bounde wt this cheyne.

21 They sayde vnto hi: We haue nether receaued letter out of Iewry cocernyng the, nether came there eny of the brethren, yt shewed or spake eny harme of ye.

22 But we wyl heare of ye what thou thinkest: for we haue herde of this secte, that euery where it is spoken agaynst.

23 And wha they had appoynted hi a daye, there came many vnto hi in to his lodginge: vnto who he expoued ye kyngdome of God & preached vnto the of Iesu, out of ye lawe and out of the prophetes, eue fro mornynge vntyll the eue.

24 And some beleued ye thinge yt he sayde, but some beleued not.

25 But wha they agreed not amoge the selues, they departed, wha Paul had spoke one worde: Full well hath the holy goost spoke by ye prophet Esay vnto or fathers, 26 & sayde: Go vnto this people, and saye: With eares ye shal heare, & not vnderstode: & with eyes shal ye se, & not perceaued.

27 For ye hert of this people is waxed grosse, & they heare hardly wt their eares: & their eyes haue they closed, yt they shulde not once se wt their eyes, & heare wt their eares, & vnderstode i their hertes, and be couerted, yt I mighte heale the.

28 Be it knowne therfore vnto you, yt this saluacio of God is sent vnto ye Heythe, and they shal heare it.

29 And wha he sayde yt, ye Lewes departed, & had a greate disputacion amonge the selues.

30 But Paul abode two whole yeares in his owne hyred dwellinge, & receaued all the yt came in vnto hi,

31 preachinge ye kyngdome of God, and teachinge those thinges which concerne the LORDE Iesus with all boldnesse, vnforbydden.

ROMANS

Chapter 1

1 Pavl the seruante of Iesus Christ, called to be an Apostle, put aparte to preach the Gospell of God
 2 (which he promysed a fore by his prophetes in ye holy scriptures)
 3 off his sonne, which was begotte of ye sede of Daud after the flesh:
 4 and mightly declared to be the sonne of God after the sprete which sanctifieth, sence the tyme that he rose agayne from the deed, namely, Iesus Christ oure LORDE,
 5 by whom we haue receaued grace and Apostelshippe amonge all Heythen, to set vp the obedience of faith vnder his name,
 6 of whom ye are a parte also, which are called of Iesus Christ.
 7 To all you that be at Rome, beloued of God, and sayntes by callinge Grace be wt you and peace fro God oure father, and the LORDE Iesus Christ.
 8 First, I thanke my God thorow Iesus Christ for you all, that youre faith is spoken of thorow out all the worlde.
 9 For God is my wnesse (whom I serue in my sprete in the Gospell of his sonne) that without ceassyng I make mencion of you beseking allwayes in my prayers,
 10 that I mighte once haue a prosperous journey (by the will off God) to come vnto you.
 11 For I longe to se you, that I mighte bestowe vpon you some spirituall gifte to strength you
 12 (that is)that I mighte be confortd with you, thorow yor faith & myne, which we haue together.
 13 But I wolde ye shulde knowe (brethren) how that I haue often tymes purposed to come vnto you (but haue bene let hither to) that I mighte do some good amonge you, like as amonge other Gentyles.
 14 I am detter both to the Grekes, and to the vngrekes, to the wyse and to the vnwyse.
 15 Wherfore (as moch as i me is) I am ready to preach the Gospell vnto you at Rome also.
 16 For I am not ashamed of the Gospell of Christ: for it is the power of God, which saueh all that beleue theron, the Iewe first & also the Greke:
 17 for in it ye righteousnes that is of value before God, is opened, which cometh out of faith i to faith.
 18 As it is wrytte: The iust shal lyue by his faith. For ye wrath of God is declared from heauen vpon all vngodlynes and vnrighteousnes of me, which witholde the trueth of God in vnrighteousnes:
 19 because that it, which maye be knowne of God, is manifest with the. For God hath shewed it vnto the,

 20 that the inuisible thinges of God (that is, his euerlasting power and Godheade) mighte be sene whyle they are considered by the workes from the creacion of the worlde: so that they are without excuse,
 21 in as moch as they knewe, that there is a God, and haue not prayed him as God ner thanked him, but became vayne in their ymaginacions, and their foolish hert was blynded.
 22 Whan they counted them selues wyse, they became fooles:
 23 and turned ye glory of the incorruptible God in to ye symilitude of ye ymage of a corruptible ma, & of byrdes, & of foure foted, & of crepinge beestes
 24 Wherfore God likewise gaue them vp vnto their hertes lustes in to vnclennes, to defyle their awne bodies in them selues,
 25 which turned the trueth of God vnto a lye, & worshipped and serued the creature more then the maker, which is blessed for euer. Amen.
 26 Therefore God gaue the vp vnto shamefull lustes. For their wemen chaunged the naturall vse in to the vnnatural:
 27 likewise ye me also lefte the naturall vse of the woman, and brent in their lustes one on another, and man with man wrought fylthines, and receaued in them selues the rewarde of their erreure, as it was acordinge.
 28 And as they regarded not to knowe God, euen so God gaue the vp in to a lewde mynde, to do those thinges which were not comly,
 29 beyng full of all vnrighteousnes, whordome, wickednes, couetousnes, maliciousnes, full of enuye, murthur, strife, disceate, euell codicioned whisperers,
 30 backbyters, despysers of God, doers of wronge, proude, boosters, bryngers vp of euell thinges, disobedient to their Elders,
 31 without vnderstondinge, couenaunt breakers, vnlouynge, stubborne, vnmercifull:
 32 which men, though they knowe the righteousnes of God (that they which do soch, are worthy of death) yet not onely do the same, but also haue pleasure in those that do the.

Chapter 2

1 Therefore canst thou not excuse thyselfe (O ma) who soeuer thou be that iudget: for loke wherin thou iudget another, thou condemnest thy selfe, in so moch as thou that iudget, doest euen the same.
 2 For we are sure that the iudgment of God is (acordinge to the trueth) ouer them that do soch.
 3 But thinkest thou this O thou man, that iudget them which do soch thinges, and doest euen the very same thy selfe, that thou shalt escape ye iudgmet of God?
 4 Or despysst thou the riches of his goodnesse, pacience, and loge sufferinge?

Knowest thou not, that ye louynge kyndnesse of God leadeth the to repentaunce?
 5 But thou after thine harde and impenitent hert, heapest vnto thy selfe a treasure of wrath, agaynst the daye of wrath and of the openynge of the righteous iudgment of God,
 6 which shal rewarde euery man acordinge to his dedes:
 7 namely, prayse & honoure, and vncorruption, vnto them that with pacience in doinge good, seke euerlasting life:
 8 But vnto them that are contentious & not obedient vnto the trueth, but obeye vnrighteousnes, shal come indignacion and wrath,
 9 trouble and anguysh vpo all the soules of me that do euell, of the Iewe first and also of the Greke:
 10 But vnto all the that do good (shal come) prayse and honoure, and peace, vnto the Iewe first, and also to the Greke.
 11 For there is no respecte of personnes before God: Who so euer haue synned without lawe, 12 shal perish also without lawe: and whoso euer haue synned in the lawe, shalbe iudged by the lawe.
 13 For before God, they are not righteous, which heare ye lawe: but they that do the lawe, shalbe iustified.
 14 For yf the Gentyles which haue not the lawe, do of nature the thinges conteyned in the lawe, then they hauynge not the lawe, are a lawe vnto them selues,
 15 in that they shewe, that the worke of ye lawe is wrytte in their hertes: whyle their conscience beareth wnesse vnto the, and also the thoughtes which accuse or excuse them amonge them selues,
 16 in the daye whan God shal iudge the secretes of men by Iesus Christ, acordinge to my Gospell.
 17 But take hede, thou art called a Iewe, and trustest in the lawe, & makest thy boost of God,
 18 and knowest his will: & for so moch as thou art enfourmed out of ye lawe,
 19 thou prouest what is best to do, and presumest to be a leader of the blynde: a lighte of them yt are in darcknes:
 20 an enformer of ye vnwyse: a teacher of ye symple: which hast the ensample of knowlege & of the trueth in the lawe.
 21 Now teachest thou other, and teachest not thy selfe. Thou preachest that a man shulde not steale, and thou stealest.
 22 Thou sayest, that a man shulde not breake wedlocke, and thou breakest wedlocke. Thou abhorrest ymages, and robbest God of his honoure.
 23 Thou makest thy boost of the lawe, and thorow breakynge of the lawe thou dishonorest God.
 24 For thorow you is the name of God euell spoken of amonge the Gentyles, as it is wrytten.
 25 The circucision verely avayleth, yf thou kepe the lawe: but yf thou breake the lawe, then is thy circucision become vncircucision.
 26 Therefore yf the vncircucision kepe the righte thinges conteyned in the lawe, shal not his vncircucision be counted for circucision?

 27 And so it that of nature is vncircucision, and fulfilleth the lawe shal iudge the, which vnder the letter and circucision trasgresst the lawe.
 28 For he is not a Iew which is a Iewe outwarde: nether is that circucision which is done outwardly in ye flesh:
 29 But he is a Iewe, which is hydd within. And the circucision of ye hert is the circucision, which is done in the sprete and not in the letter: Whose prayse is not of men, but of God.

Chapter 3

1 What furtheraunce then haue the Iewes? Or what avantageth circucision?
 2 Surely very moch. First Vnto them was commytted what God spake.
 3 But where as some of them dyd not beleue theron, what then? Shulde their vnbeleue make the promes of God of none effecte?
 4 God forbyd. Let it rather be thus, that God is true, and all me lyers. As it is wrytten: That thou mayest be iustified in thy sayenges, and shuldest ouercome, wha thou art iudged.
 5 But yf it be so, that oure vnrighteousnes prayseth ye righteousnes of God, what shal we saye? Is God then vnrighteous, that he is angrie therfore? (I speake thus after the maner off men)
 6 God forbyd. How mighte God the iudge ye worlde?
 7 For yf the trueth of God be thorow my lye the more excellent vnto his prayse, why shulde I the be iudged yet as a synner?
 8 & not rather to do thus (as we are euell spoken of, and as some reporte, that we shulde saye) Let vs do euell, yt good maye come therof. Whose danacio is inste.
 9 What saye we then? Are we better then they? No, in no wyse: for we haue proued afore, yt both the Iewes and Grekes are all vnder synne.
 10 As it is wrytte: There is none righteous, no not one.
 11 There is none yt vnderstondeth, there is none that seketh after God.
 12 They are all gone out of the waye, they are altogether become vnprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.
 13 Their throte is an open sepulcre, with their tungen they haue disceaued, the poysion off Aspes is vnder their lippes.
 14 Their mouth is full of cursynge and bytternesse.
 15 Their fete are swifte to shed bloude.
 16 Destruccon & wrechidnes are in their wayes,
 17 and ye waye of peace haue they not knowne.
 18 There is no feare of God before their eyes.
 19 But we knowe, yt, what soeuer the lawe sayeth, it sayeth it vnto them which are vnder the lawe, yt euery mouthe maye be stopped, & yt all the worlde maye be detter vnto God, 20 because yt by ye dedes of the lawe no flesh maye be iustified in his sighte. For by the lawe commeth but the knowlege of synne.

 21 But now without addinge to of ye lawe is the righteousnes which avayleth before God, declared, hauynge wnesse of ye lawe and the prophetes:
 22 but I speake of ye righteousnes before God, which cometh by the faith on Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpo all them that beleue. For here is no difference.
 23 For they are all synners, and wate the prayse that God shulde haue of the,
 24 but without deseruyng are they made righteous eue by his grace, thorow the redempcion that is done by Christ Iesu,
 25 whom God hath set forth for a Mercyseate thorow faith in his bloude, to shewe the righteousnes which avayleth before him, in that he forgeueth the synnes, which were done before vnder the sufferance of God, which he suffred,
 26 that at this tyme he mighte shewe ye righteousnes which avayleth before him: yt he onely mighte be righteous, & the righteous maker of him which is of the faith on Iesus.
 27 Where is now then thy reioysinge? It is excluded. By what lawe? By the lawe of workes? Nay, but by the lawe of faith.
 28 We holde therefore that a man is iustified by faith, without the workes of the lawe.
 29 Or is God the God of the Iewes onely? Is he not also the God of the Heythen? Yes verely the God of the Heythen also, 30 for so moch as he is the God onely that iustifieth the circumcicion which is of faith, and the vncircumcicion thorow faith.
 31 Destroie we then the lawe thorow faith? God forbyd. But we mantayne the lawe.

Chapter 4

1 What shal we saye the, that Abraha or father as pertayninge to ye flesh dyd fynde?
 2 This we saye: Yf Abraham were made righteous thorow workes, then hath he wherin to reioyse, but not before God.
 3 But what sayeth ye scripture? Abraha belened God, & yt was counted vnto him for righteousnes.
 4 Vnto hi yt goeth aboute wt workes, is the rewarde not rekened of faouore, but of dutye:
 5 owbeit vnto him, yt goeth not aboute with workes, but beleueth on him yt iustifieth the vngodly, is his faith counted for righteousnes.
 6 Euen as Daud sayeth also, that blessednes is onely that mans, vnto who God counteth righteousnes without addinge to of workes, where he sayeth:
 7 Blessed are they, whose vnrighteousnes are forgeuen, and whose synnes are couered.

8 Blessed is the man, vnto whom the LORDE imputeth no synne.
 9 Now this blessednes, goeth it ouer the circucision, or ouer the vncircumcicion? We must nedes graunte, yt Abrahams faith was couted vnto hi for righteousnes.
 10 How was it the rekened vnto him? In the circucision, or in the vncircumcicion? Doutles not in the circucision, but in the vncircumcicion.
 11 As for the toke of circucision he receaued it for a seale off the righteousnes off faith, which he had yet in ye vncircumcicion, yt he shulde be a father of all the yt beleue, beinge in ye vncircumcicion, yt it might be couted vnto the also for righteousnes:
 12 & that he might be a father of circucision, not onely of the that are of ye circucision, but of them also that walke in the fote-steppes of the faith, which was in the vncircumcicion of oure father Abraham.
 13 For the promes (that he shulde be ye heyre of the worlde) was not made vnto Abraham or to his sede thorow the lawe, but thorow the righteousnes of faith.
 14 For yf they which are of the lawe be heyres, the is faith vayne, and the promes of none effecte,
 15 for so moch as the lawe causeth but wrath. For where the lawe is not, there is also no transgression.
 16 Therefore was the promes made thorow fayth, that it myght come off faouore, wherby the promesse myghte be made sure vnto all the sede: not onely vnto him which is off the lawe, but also vnto him that is of the faith of Abraha which is the father of vs all.
 17 As it is wrytten: I haue made the a father of many Heythe before God, whom thou hast beleued: which quyckeneth the deed, and calleth it which is not, that it maye be.
 18 And he beleued vpo hope, where nothinge was to hope, that he shulde be a father of many Heythen. Acordinge as it was sayde vnto him:
 19 Euen so shal thy sede be. And he was not faynte in faith, nether cosidred his awne body, which was deed already, whyle he was almost an hundreth yeare olde, nether the deed wombe of Sara.
 20 For he douted not in the promes of God thorow vnbeleue, but was stroge in faith, and gaue God the prayse:
 21 & was sure, that loke what God promyseth, he is able to make it good.
 22 And therefore was it rekened vnto him for righteousnes.
 23 But this is not wrytte onely for his sake, yt it was counted vnto him,
 24 but also for oure sakes: vnto who it shalbe counted, yf we beleue on him, that raysed vp oure LORDE Iesus from the deed.
 25 Which was geuen for oure synnes, and raysed vp for oure righteousnes sake.

Chapter 5

1 Because therfore that we are iustified

by faith, we haue peace with God thorow oure LORDE Iesus Christ
 2 by who also we haue an inтраunce in faith vnto this grace, wherin we stonde, & reioyse in the hope of ye glorye for to come, which God shal geue.
 3 Not onely yt, but we reioyse also i troubles, for so moch as we knowe, yt trouble bryngeth paciee,
 4 paciee bryngeth experiee, experiee bryngeth hope:
 5 As for hope, is letteth vs not come to cofusion, because the loue of God is shed abrode in oure hertes, by the holy goost which is geuen vnto vs.
 6 For whan we were yet weake acordinge to the tyme, Christ dyed for vs vngodly.
 7 Now dyeth there sace eny man for the righteous sake: Peradventure for a good man durst one dye.
 8 Therefore doth God set forth his loue toward vs, in yt Christ dyed for vs, whan we were yet synners:
 9 Moch more then shal we be saued from wrath by him seynge we are now made righteous thorow his bloude.
 10 For yf we were recocyled vnto God by ye death of his sone, wha we were yet enemies: moch more shal we be saued by him, now yt we are reconcyled.
 11 Not onely that, but we reioyse also in God thorow oure LORDE Iesus Christ, by whom we haue now receaued the attonement.
 12 Wherefore as by one man synned entred in to the worlde, and death by ye meanes off synne:
 13 euen so wente death also ouer all men, in so moch as they all haue synned. For synne was in ye worlde vnto the lawe: but where no lawe is, there is not synne regarded.
 14 Neuertheles death reigned from Adam vnto Moses, euen ouer them also that synned not with like transgression as dyd Adam, which is ye ymage of him yt was to come.
 15 But it is not with the gifte as with the synne: for yf thorow the synne of one many be deed, yet moch more plenteously came the grace and gifte of God vpon many by the faouore that belonged vnto one man Iesus Christ.
 16 And the gifte is not onely ouer one synne, as death came thorow one synne of one that synned. For the iudgment came of one synne vnto condempnacion, but the gifte to iustifye fro many synnes.
 17 For yf by ye synne of one, death rayned by the meanes of one, moch more shal they which receaue the abudaunce of grace and of the gifte vnto righteousnes, raigne in life by ye meanes of one Iesus Christ.
 18 Likewise the as by the synne of one, condempnacion came on all men, euen so also by the righteousness of one, came the iustifiengi off life vpon all men.
 19 For as by the disobedience of one, many became synners, euen so by the obedience of one shal many be made righteous.
 20 But the lawe in the meane tyme entred, that synne shulde increace.

Neuertheles where abudaunce of synne was, there was yet more plenteousnes of grace:
 21 that, like as synne had reigned vnto death, eue so mighte grace reinge also thorow righteousnes to euerlastinge life by the meanes of Iesus Christ.

Chapter 6

1 What shal we saye then? Shal we contynue in synne, that there maye be abudaunce of grace?
 2 God forbyd. How shal we lyue in synne, yt are deed from it?
 3 Knowe ye not, that all we which are baptysed into Iesu Christ, are baptysed in to his death?
 4 Therefore are we buried wt him by baptye in to death, that, like as Christ was raysed vp from the deed by the glory of the father, euen so we also shulde walke in a new life.
 5 For yf we be grafted wt him vnto like death, then shal we be like the resurreccion also:
 6 For so moch as we knowe, that oure olde man is crucified with him, that the synfull body mighte ceasse, that hence forth we shulde serue synne no more.
 7 For he that is deed, is made righteous fro synne
 8 But yf we be deed with Christ, we beleue, that we shal lyue also with him,
 9 and are sure, that Christ raysed from the deed, dyeth nomore: Death shal haue nomore power ouer him.
 10 For as touchinge that he dyed, he dyed cocernynge synne once: but as touchinge that he lyueth, he lyueth vnto God.
 11 Likewise ye also, counte youre selues to be euen deed concernynge synne, and to lyue vnto God thorow Iesus Christ oure LORDE.
 12 Let not synne reigne therfore in youre mortall bodye, that ye shulde obeye vnto the lustes of it.
 13 ether geue ye ouer youre membres vnto synne to be wapens of vnrighteousnes, but geue ouer youre selues vnto God, as they that off deed are become lyuynge, and youre membres vnto God to be wapes off righteousnes.
 14 For synne shal not haue power ouer you, in so moch as ye are not vnder the lawe, but vnder grace.
 15 How then? Shal we synne, because we are not vnder ye lawe, but vnder grace? God forbyd.
 16 Knowe ye not, that loke vnto who ye geue ouer youre selues as seruauntes to obeye, his seruauntes ye are to whom ye obey, whether it be of synne vnto death, or of obediee vnto righteousnes?
 17 But God be thanked, that though ye haue bene the seruauntes of synne, ye are now yet obedient of herte to the ensample off the doctryne, whervnto ye are commytted.
 18 For now that ye are made fre from synne, ye are become the seruauntes of righteousnes.
 19 I wil speake grosly, because of the weaknes of youre flesh. Like as ye haue geuen ouer youre membres to the seruyce of vnclennesse, from one wickednesse to another: Eue so now also geue ouer youre membres to the seruyce of righteoussnesse, that they maye be holy.

20 For whan ye were the seruantes of synne, ye were lowse from righteousnes.

21 What frute had ye at that tyme in those thinges, wherof ye are now ashamed? For the ende of soch thinges is death.

22 But now that ye be fre from synne, and are become the seruantes of God, ye haue youre frute that ye shulde be holy: but the ende is euerlastinge life.

23 For death is the rewarde of synne, but the gifte of God is euerlastinge life.

Chapter 7

1 Knowe ye not brethren (for I speake vnto them that knowe the lawe) how that ye lawe hath power vpon a man as long as he lyueth?

2 For the woman yt is in subieccion to the man, is bounde vnto the lawe whyle the man lyueth: but yf the man dye, then is she lowsed from the lawe that concerneth the man.

3 Yf she be now with another man, whyle the man lyueth, she shal be called a wedlocke breaker. But yf the man be deed, then is she fre from the lawe, so that she is no wedlocke breaker, yf she be with another man.

4 Euen so my brethren, ye also are deed vnto the lawe by the body of Christ, that ye shulde be with another (namely wt him which is rayseed vp from the deed) that ye shulde brynge forth frute vnto God.

5 For whan we were in the flesh, the synfull lustes (which were stered vp by the lawe) were mightie in oure membres to brynge forth frute vnto death.

6 But now are we lowsed from the lawe, and deed vnto it, that helde vs captiue, so that we shulde serue in a new conuersacion of the sprete, and not in the olde conuersacion of the letter.

7 What shal we saye then? Is the lawe synne? God forbyd: Neuertheles I knewe not synne, but by ye lawe. For I had knowne nothinge of lust, yf the lawe had not sayde: Thou shalt not lust.

8 But then toke synne occasion at the commaundement, and stered vp in me all maner of lust. For without the lawe synne was deed.

9 As for me, I lyued some tyme without lawe. Howbeit whan the commaundement came, synne reuyed, but I was deed.

10 And the very same commaundement that was geuen me vnto life, was founde to be vnto me on occasion of death.

11 For synne toke occasion at the comaundement, and disceaued me, and slewe me by the same commaundement.

12 The lawe in dede is holy, and the commaundement holy, iust and good.

13 Is that then which is good, become death vnto me? God forbyd. But synne, that it mighte appeare how yt it is synne, hath wroughte me death thorow good: that synne mighte be out of measure synfull by the commaundement.

14 For we knowe, that the lawe is spirituall, but I am carnall, solde vnder synne:

15 because I knowe not what I do. For I do not yt I will, but what I hate, yt do I.

16 Yf I do now that which I wil not, the graunte I, that the lawe is good.

17 So then it is not I that do it, but synne that dwelleth in me:

18 for I knowe that in me (yt is, in my flesh) there dwelleth no good thinge. To wyll is present wt me, but to perfourme yt which is good,

19 I fynde not. For ye good that I wyll, do I not: but the euell which I wil not, that do I.

20 Yf I do now that I wil not, then is it not I that do it, but synne that dwelleth in me.

21 Thus fynde I now by the lawe, yt whan I wyll do good, euell is present with me.

22 For I delite in the lawe of God after the inwarde man:

23 but I se another lawe in my membres, which stryeth agaynst ye lawe of my mynde, and taketh me presoner in ye lawe of synne, which is in my membres.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shal delyuer me from the body of this death?

25 I thanke God thorow Iesus Christ oure LORDE. So then wt the mynde I serue ye lawe of God, but with the flesh the lawe of synne.

Chapter 8

1 Then is there now no damnacion vnto the that are in Christ Iesu, which walke not after the flesh, but after ye sprete.

2 For ye lawe of ye sprete (yt bryngeth life i Christ Iesu) hath made me fre fro the lawe of synne & death.

3 For what vnpossible was vnto ye lawe (in as moch as it was weake because of the flesh) yt perfourmed God, & sent his sonne in ye similitude of synfull flesh,

4 & by synne daned synne in ye flesh: that the righteousnes requyred of the lawe, mighte be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the sprete.

5 For they that are fleshly, are fleshly mynded: but they that are goostly, are goostly mynded.

6 To be fleshly mynded, is death: but to be goostly mynded, is life and peace.

7 For to be fleshly mynded is enemyte agaynst. God, syth it is not subdued vnto ye lawe of God, for it can not also.

8 As for the that are fleshlye, they can not please God.

9 Howbeit ye are not fleshly, but goostly, yf so be that the sprete of God dwell in you. But who so hath not the sprete of Christ, the same is not his.

10 Neuertheles yf Christ be in you, then is the body deed because of synne. But the sprete is life for righteousnes sake.

11 Wherefore yf the sprete of him, that rayseed vp Iesus from the deed, dwell in you, then shal euen he also that rayseed vp Christ from the deed, quycke youre mortal bodies, because yt his sprete dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethre we are now detters, not to the flesh,

13 to lyue after the flesh: for yf ye lyue after ye fleshe, ye must dye: but yf ye mortyfy the dedes of the body thorow the sprete, ye shal lyue.

14 For who so euer are led by the sprete of God,

15 are Gods childe: for ye haue not receaued the sprete of bondage to feare eny more, but ye haue receaued ye sprete of adopcion, wherby we crye: Abba, deare father.

16 The same sprete certifieth oure sprete, that we are the childe of God.

17 Yf we be childe, then are we heyres also, namely the heyres of God, and heyres annexed with Christ, yf so be that we suffer together, that we maye be also glorified together.

18 For I suppose, that the afflictions off this tyme, are not worthy of ye glorye, which shalbe shewed vpon vs.

19 For the feruent loginge of ye creature loketh for the appearinge of the children of God, 20 because the creature is subdued vnto vanyte agaynst hir will, but for his wyll that hath subdued her vpon hope.

21 For the creature also shal be fre from the bondage of corrupcion, vnto the glorious libertye of the childe of God.

22 For we knowe, that eury creature groneth, and trauallyeth with vs in payne vnto the same tyme.

23 Not they only, but we oure selues also, which haue the first frutes of the sprete, grone within in oure selues for the childshippe, and loke for ye delyueraunce of oure bodye.

24 For we are saued i dede, howbeit i hope: but ye hope that is sene, is no hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seyth?

25 But yf we hope for that which we se not, the do we thorow pacience abyde for it.

26 Likewyse the sprete also helpeth oure weaknesse: for we knowe not what we shulde desyre as we oughte: neuertheles ye sprete it selfe maketh intercession mightely for vs with vnoutspeakable gronynges.

27 Howbeit he yt searcheth the hert, knoweth what the mynde of the sprete is: for he maketh intercession for the sayntes accordinge to the pleasure of God.

28 But sure we are, that all thinges serue for the best vnto them that loue of God, which are called of purpose.

29 For those whom he knewe before, hath he ordeyned also before, yt they shulde be like fashioned vnto ye shappe of his sonne, yt he mighte be the first begotte amoge many brethre.

30 As for those whom he hath ordeyned before, them hath he called also: and whom he hath called, the hath he also made righteous: and whom he hath made righteous, them hath he glorified also.

31 What shal we saye then vnto these thinges? Yff God be on oure syde, who can be agaynst vs.

32 Which spared not his owne sonne, but hath geuen him for vs all: how shal he not with him geue vs all thinges also?

33 Who wyl laye enythinge to ye charge of Gods chosen? Here is God that maketh righteous, 34 who wil then condemne? Here is Christ that is deed, yee rather which is rayseed vp agayne, which is also on ye righte hande of God, and maketh intercession for vs.

35 Who will separate vs from the loue of God? Trouble? or anguyshe? or persecucio? or hunger? or nakednesse? or parell? or swerde?

36 As it is wrtten: For thy sake are we kylled all the daye longe, we are counted as shepe appoynted to be slayne.

37 Neuerthelesse in all these thinges we overcome farre, for his sake that loued vs.

38 For sure I am, that nether death ner life, nether angell, ner rule, nether power, nether thinges present, nether thinges to come,

39 nether heyth, ner loweth, nether eny other creature shalbe able to separate vs from the loue of God, which is in Christ Iesu oure LORDE.

Chapter 9

1 I saye the trueth in Christ, and lye not (wherof my conscience beareth me witnesse in the holy goost)

2 that I haue greute heyunesse & contynuall sorowe in my hert.

3 I haue wysshed my selfe to be cursed from Christ for my brethren, that are my kynsmen after the flesh,

4 which are off Israel: vnto whom pertayneth the childshippe, and the glory, and the couenautes and lawe, and the seruyce of God, and the promyses:

5 whose are also the fathers, off whom (after the flesh) commeth Christ, which is God ouer all, blessed for euer, Ame.

6 But I speake not these thinges, as though the worde of God were of none effecte: for they are not all Israelites, which are of Israel:

7 nether are they all children, because they are the sede of Abraham: but in Isaac shal the sede be called

8 vnto the, that is, They which are children after the flesh, are not the children of God, but the children of the promes are counted for the sede.

9 For this is a worde of the promes, where he sayeth: Aboute this tyme wyl I come, and Sara shal haue a sonne.

10 Howbeit it is not so with this onely, but also whan Rebecca was with childe by one (namely by oure father Isaac)

11 or euer the childe were borne, & had done nether good ner bad (that the purpose of God might stode accordinge to the eleccion, not by the deseruyng of workes, but by the grace of the caller)

12 it was sayde thus vnto her: The greater shal serue the lesse.

13 As it is wrytten: Iacob haue I loued, but Esau haue I hated.

14 What shal we saye then? Is God then vnrighteous? God forbyd.

15 For he sayeth vnto Moses: I shewe mercy, to whom I shewe mercy: and haue copassion, 16 on who I haue compassion. So lyeth it not then in eny mans wyll or runnyng, but in the mercy of God.

17 For the scripture sayeth vnto Pharao: For this cause haue I stered the vp, euen to shewe my power on the, that my name mighte be declared in all lodes.

18 Thus hath he mercy on whom he wyl: and whom he wyl, he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt saye then vnto me: Why blameth he vs yet? For who can resiste his will?

20 O thou man, who art thou, that disputest with God? Sayeth the worke to his workman: Why hast thou made me on this fashion?

21 Hath not the potter power, out of one lompe of claye to make one vessell vnto honoure, and another vnto dishonoure?

22 Therefore whan God wolde shewe wrath, and to make his power knowne, he broughte forth with greate pacience the vessels off wrath, which are ordeyned to damnacion:

23 that he mighte declare the riches off his glorye on ye vessels of mercy, which he hath prepared vnto glorye,

24 whom he hath called (namely vs) not onely of the Iewes, but also of the Gentyles.

25 As he sayeth also by Osee: I wil call that my people, which is not my people: and my beloued, which is not ye beloued.

26 And it shal come to passe in ye place, where it was sayde vnto them: Ye are not my people, there shal they be called the children of the luyng God.

27 But Esay crieth ouer Israel: Though the nombre of the children of Israel be as the sonde of the see, yet shal there but a remnaunt be saued.

28 For there is the worde, that fynisheth and shorteneth in righteousnes: for a shorte worde shal God make vpon earth. 29 And as Esay sayde before: Excepte the LORDE of Sabbaoth had left vs sede, we shulde haue bene as Sodoma, and like vnto Gomorra.

30 What shal we saye then? This wil we saye: The Heythen which folowed not righteousnes, haue ouertaken righteousnes: but I speake of the righteousnes that commeth of faith.

31 Agayne, Israel folowed the lawe of righteousnes, and attained not vnto the lawe of righteousnes.

32 Why so? Euen because they soughte it not out of faith, but as it were out of the deseruyng of workes. For they haue stombled at the stomblinge stone.

33 As it is wrytten: Beholde, I laye in Sion a stone to stoble at, and a rocke to be offended at: and who so euer beleueth on him, shal not be confounded.

Chapter 10

1 Brethren, my hertes desyre, & prayer vnto God for Israel is, that they might be saued.

2 For I beare them recorde, that they are zelous for Gods cause, but not wt vnderstandinge.

3 For they knowe not the righteousnes which auayleth before God, and go aboute to manteyne their awne righteousnes: and thus they are not subdued vnto the righteousnes, that is off value before God.

4 For Christ is the ende of the lawe, vnto righteousnes for euery one yt beleueth.

5 Moses wryteth of ye righteousnes which commeth of the lawe, that the man which doth ye same, shal lyue therein.

6 But ye righteousnes which cometh of faith, speaketh on this wyse: Saye not in thine hert: Who wil go vp in to heaue? (that is nothinge els then to fetch Christ downe)

7 Or who wyl go downe in to ye depe? (that is nothinge els the to fetch vp Christ from the deed.)

8 But what sayeth the scripture? The worde is nye the, euen in thy mouth and in thine hert. This is ye worde of faith yt we preach.

9 For yf thou knowest Iesus with thy mouth, that he is the LORDE, and beleuest in thine hert, that God hath rayseed him vp from the deed, thou shalt be saued.

10 For yf a man beleue from the hert, he shalbe made righteous: and yf a man knowlege with the mouth, he shal be saued.

11 For the scripture sayeth: Who so euer beleueth on him, shal not be confounded.

12 Here is no difference, nether of the Iewe ner of the Gentyle. For one is LORDE of all, which is riche vnto all yt call vpo him.

13 For who so euer shal call vpon the name of the LORDE, shalbe saued.

14 But how shal they call vpo him, on who they beleue not? How shal they beleue on him, of who they haue not herde? How shal they heare without a preacher?

15 But how shal they preach, excepte they be sent? As it is wrytte: How beautyfull are the fete of the yt preach beate, yt bryng good tidings?

16 But they are not all obedient vnto the Gospell. For Esaye sayeth: LORDE, who beleueth oure preachinge?

17 So the faith cometh by hearyng, but hearinge cometh by the worde of God.

18 But I saye: Haue they not herde? No doute their sounde wete out into all londes, and their wordes in to the endes of the worlde.

19 But I saye: Hath not Israel knowne? First, Moses sayeth: I wil prouoke you to enuye, by them that are not my people: & by a foolish nacion wyl I anger you.

20 Esaye after him is bolde, aud sayeth: I am founde of them, that sought me not: & haue appeared vnto them, that axed not after me.

21 But vnto Israel he sayeth: All the daye loge haue I stretched forth my handes vnto a people yt beleueth not, but speaketh agaynst me.

Chapter 11

1 I saye then: Hath God thrust out his people? God forbyd: for I also am an Israelite, of the sede of Abraham out of the trybe of Ben Iamin.

2 God hath not thrust out his people, whom he knewe before. Or wote ye not what the scripture sayeth of Elias, how he maketh intercession vnto God agaynst Israel, and sayeth:

3 LORDE, they haue slayne thy prophetes, & dydged downe thine altares, and I am lefte ouer onely, and they seke my life?

4 But what sayeth the answere of God vnto him? I haue reserued vnto me seuen thousande men, which haue not bowed their knee before Baal.

5 Eue so goeth it now at this tyme also wt this remnaunt after ye eleccion of grace.

6 Yf it be done of grace, the is it not of deseruyng: els were grace no grace. But yf it be of deseruyng, then is grace nothinge: els were deseruyng no deseruyng.

7 What the? Israel hath not optayned yt which he soughte, but the eleccion hath optayned it. As for ye other, they are blynded.

8 As it is wrytten: God hath geuen them the sprete of vnquyetnesse, eyes that they shulde not see, and eares that they shulde not heare, eue vnto this daye.

9 And Daud sayeth: Let their table be made a snare to take the withall, & an occasion to fall, & a rewarde vnto the.

10 Let their eyes be blynded that they se not, and euer bowe downe their backs.

11 I saye then: Haue they therefore stombled, yt they shulde cleane fall to naughte? God forbyd: but thorow their fall is saluacion happened vnto ye Heythen, that he mighte prouoke them to be zelous after them.

12 For yf their fall be the riches of the worlde, and the mynishinge of the the riches of the Heythen: how moch more shulde it be so, yf their fulnesse were there?

13 I speake vnto you Heythen: for in as moch as I am ye Apostle of the Heythen, I wil prayse myne office, 14 yf I mighte prouoke them vnto zele, which are my fleshe, and saue some of them.

15 For yf the losse of them by the recocylinge of the worlde, what were that els, then as yf life were taken of the deed?

16 Yf the begynnyng be holy, then is all ye dowe holy: and yf the rote be holy, then are the braunches holy also.

17 But though some of ye braunches now be broke, and thou, wha thou wast a wyld olvue tre, art grafte in amonge them, and made partaker of the rote and sappe of the olyue tre,

18 boost not thy selfe agaynst the braunches. Yf thou boost thy selfe agaynst them, then bearest not thou the rote, but the rote beareth the.

19 Thou wilt saye then: the braunches are broke of, that I mighte be grafte in.

20 Thou sayest well. They are broken of because off their vnbeleue, but thou stondest thorow beleue

21 Be not thou hye mynded, but feare, seyng God hath not spared the naturall braunches, lest he also spare not the.

22 Beholde therefore the kyndnesse and rigorousnes off God: on them which fell, rigorousnes: but towarde the, kyndnes, yf thou contynue in the kyndnesse. Els shalt thou be hewe of:

23 and they, yf they byde not styll in vnbeleue, shal be grafte in agayne. For God is of power to grafte the in agayne.

24 For yf thou be cut out of the naturall wilde olyue tre, and grafte (contrary to nature) in the good olyue tre, how moch more shal they that are naturall, be grafte in their awne olyue tre agayne?

25 I wolde not that this secrete shulde be hyd from you brethre (lest ye shulde be wyse in youre awne cosaytes) that partly blyndnesse is happened vnto Israel, so longe tyll the fulnesse of the Heythen be come in,

26 and so all Israel shalbe saued. As it is wrytten: There shal come out of Sion he that doth delyuer, and shal turne awaye vngodlynes from Iacob.

27 And this is my couenaunt with them, wha I shal take awaye their synnes.

28 As concernyng the Gospell, I holde them as enemies for youre sakes: but as touchyng the eleccion, I loue them for the fathers sakes.

29 For verely the giftes & callyng of God are soch, that it can not repente him of them.

30 For likewyse as ye also in tyme passed haue not beleued, but now haue optayned mercy thorow their vnbeleue:

31 Euen so now haue they not beleued on the mercy which his happened vnto you, that they also maye optayne mercy.

32 For God hath closed vp all vnder vnbeleue, that he mighte haue mercy on all.

33 O the depenesse of the riches, both of the wyssdome and knowlege of God? How incomprehensible are his iudgmentes, and his wayes vnsearcheable?

34 For who hath knowne the mynde of the LORDE? Or who hath bene his counsell geuer?

35 Or who hath geue him ought afore hande, that he mighte be recompenced agayne?

36 For of him, and thorow him, and in him are all thinges. To him be prayse for euer, Amen.

Chapter 12

1 I beseke you brethre by the mercyfulnesse of God, that ye geue ouer your bodies for a sacrifice, yt is quycke holy, and acceptable vnto God, which is yor reasonable seruynge off God.

2 And fashion not youre selues like vnto this worlde, but be chaunged thorow the renewynge off yor mynde, yt ye may proue, what thinge that good, yt acceptable, & perfecte wil of God is.

3 For I saye thorow the grace yt is geue me, vnto euery man amonge you: that no man esteeme off him selfe more, then it becometh him to esteeme: but that he discretly iudge of himselfe, acordinge as God hath dealte vnto euery man the measure of faith.

4 For like as we haue many membres in one body, but all the membres haue not one maner of operacion:

5 Euen so we beyng many are one body in Christ. But amonge oure selues euery one is the membre of another,

6 and haue dyuers giftes, acordinge to the grace that is geuen vnto vs Yf eny man haue the gifte of prophecieng, let it be acordinge to the faith.

7 Let him that hath an office, wayte vpo the office: let him that teacheth, take hede to the doctryne:

8 Let him that exhorteth, geue attedaunce to the exhortacion. Yf eny ma geueth, let hi geue with synglennesse. Let him that ruleth, be diligent. Yf eny man shewe mercy, let him do it with chearfulnesse.

9 Let loue be without dissimulacion. Hate that which is euell: Cleue vnto that which is good.

10 Be kynde one to another with brotherly loue. In geuyng honoure go one before another.

11 Be not slouthfull in the busynesse that ye haue in hande. Be feruent in the sprete. Applye youre selues vnto the tyme.

12 Reioyse in hope, be pacient in trouble. Continue in prayer.

13 Distribute vnto the necessities of the sayntes. Be glad to harbarow.

14 Blesse the that persecute you. Blesse, & curse not.

15 Be mery with them that are mery and wepe with them that wepe.

16 Be of one mynde amonge youre selues. Be not proude in youre awne consaytes, but make youre selues equall to them of ye lowe sorte. Be not wyse in youre awne opinions 17 Recompose vnto no man euell for euell. Prouyde honestie afore hade towarde euery ma.

18 Yf it be possible (as moch as in you is) haue peace with all men.

19 Dearly beloued, auenge not youre selues, but geue rowme vnto the wrath off God. For it is wrytte: Vengeance is myne, and I wil rewarde, sayeth ye LORDE.

20 Therefore yf thine enemye hunger, fede him: Yf he thyrst, geue him drinke. For in so doinge thou shalt heape coales of fyre vpo his heade.

21 Be not ouercome with euell, but ouercome thou euell with good.

Chapter 13

1 Let euery soule submytte himselfe to the auctorite off the hyer powers. For there is no power but of God.

2 The powers that be, are ordeyned of God: so that who so euer resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinaunce of God. And they that resiste, shal receaue to them selues danacion.

3 For rulers are not to be feared for good workes, but for euell. Yf thou wilt be without feare off the power, do well then, and thou shalt haue prayse of the same:

4 for he is the minister off God for thy wealth. But yff thou do euell, then feare, for he beareth not the swerde for naughte. For he is the mynister of God, a taker of vengeance, to punyshe him that doth euell.

5 Wherefore ye must nedes obeye, not onely for punyshmet, but also because of conscience.

6 For this cause must ye geue trybute also. For they are Gods mynisters, which mateyne ye same defence.

7 Geue to euery man therfore his dutye: tribute, to whom tribute belongeth: custome, to whom custome is due: feare, to whom feare belongeth: honoure, to whom honoure pertayneth.

8 Owe nothinge to eny man, but to loue one another. For he that loueth another, hath fulfilled the lawe.

9 For where it is sayde: (Thou shalt not breake wedlocke: thou shalt not kyl: thou shalt not steale: thou shalt not beare false witness: thou shalt not lust) and yf there be eny other commaundement, it is compreheded in this worde. Thou shalt loue thy neyghboure as thy selfe.

10 Loue doth his neyghboure no euell. Therefore is loue ye fulfillynge of the lawe.

11 And for so moch as we know this, namely the tyme that the houre is now for vs to ryse from slepe (For now is oure saluacion nearer, then whan we beleued:

12 the nighte is past, but the daye is come nye.) Let vs therfore cast awaye ye workes of darknesse, and put on the armour of lighte.

13 Let vs walke honestly as in the daye, not in excesse off eatinge aud in dronkenesse, not in chamburyng and wantonnesse, not in stryfe and enuyenge:

14 but put ye on the LORDE Iesus Christ, and make not prouysson for ye flesh, to fulfill the lustes of it.

Chapter 14

1 Him that is weake in the faith, receaue vnto you, and trouble not the consciences.

2 One beleueth that he maye eate all thinge: but he that is weake, eateth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not, iudge him that eateth: for God hath receaued him.

4 Who art thou, that iudgest another mans seruaut? He stondesth or falleth vnto his LORDE: Yee he maye well stode, for God is able to make hi stode.

5 Some man putteth differece betwene daye & daye, but another man counteth all dayes alyke. Let euery man be sure of his meanye.

6 He that putteth difference in the daye, doth it vnto the LORDE: & he that putteth no differece in the daye, doth it vnto ye LORDE also. He yt eateth, eateth vnto the LORDE, for he geueth God thakes:

7 and he that eateth not, eateth not vnto ye LORDE, and geueth God thanks.

8 For none of vs lyueth to himselfe, and none dyeth to him selfe. Yf we lyue, we lyue vnto the LORDE: Yf we dye, we dye vnto the LORDE. Therefore, whether we lyue or dye, we are the LORDES.

9 For therto dyed Christ, and rose agayne, and reuyued, that he mighte be LORDE both of deed and quycke.

10 But why iudgest thou yi brother? Or thou other, why despyshest thou yi brother? We shal all be broughte before ye iudgmet seate of Christ.

11 For it is wrytte: As truly as I lyue, (sayeth the LORDE) all knees shal bowe vnto me, & all tuges shal knowlege vnto God.

12 Thus shal euery one of vs geue acomptes for himselfe vnto God.

13 Let vs not therfore iudge one another enymore. But iudge this rather, yt noma put a stomblinge blocke or an occasion to fall in his brothers waye.

14 I knowe, & am full certified in ye LORDE Iesu, yt there is nothinge comen of itselfe: but vnto him yt iudgeth it to be comen, to him is it comen.

15 But yf yi brother be greued ouer yi meate, the walkest thou not now after charite. Destroye not wt thy meate, him, for whom Christ dyed, 16 Se therfore that youre treasure be not euell spoke of.

17 For the kyngdome of God is not meate and drynke, but righteousnes, & peace, and ioye in the holy goost.

18 He that in these thinges serueth Christ, pleaseth God, & is comended of me.

19 Let vs therfore folowe those thinges which make for peace, & thinges wherwith one maye edifye another.

20 Destroye not ye worke of God for eny meates sake. All thinges truly are cleane, but it is euell for yt ma, which eateth wt hurte of his coscience

21 It is moch better yt thou eate no flesh, and drynke no wyne, nor eny thinge, wherby thy brother stobleth, or falleth, or is made weake.

22 Hast thou faith, haue it with yi selfe before God Happye is he, that codemmeth not him selfe in yt thinge which he aloweth.

23 But he that maketh conscience of it and yet eateth, is dampned: because he doth it not of faith. For what so euer is not of faith, that same is synne.

Chapter 15

1 We that are stronge ought to beare ye fraylnesse of them which are weake, and not to stonde in oure awne consaytes.

2 Let euery one of vs ordre himselfe so, that he please his neyghboure vnto his welth, and edifienge:

3 For Christ pleased not himselfe, but as it is wrytten: The rebukes of them which rebuked the, are fallen vpon me.

4 What so euer thinges are wrytte afore tyme, are wrytten for oure learnynge, that we thorow pacience and comforte off the scriptures, might haue hope.

5 The God of pacience and consolacion graunte you to be like mynded one towarde another, acordinge vnto Iesu Christ,

6 that ye beyng of one mynde, maye wt one mouth prayse God the father of oure LORDE Iesu Christ.

7 Wherefore receaue ye one another, as Christ hath receaued you to the prayse off God.

8 But I saye that Christ Iesus was a mynister of the circumcicion for the trueth of God, to cofirme the promyses made vnto the fathers,

9 and that the Heythen mighte prayse God because of mercy, as it is wrytten: For this cause wyl I prayse the amoge the Gentyles, and syng vnto thy name.

10 And agayne he sayeth: Reioyse ye Heythen with his people.

11 And agayne: Prayse the LORDE all ye Gentiles, and laude him all ye nacios.

12 And agayne Esay sayeth: There shalbe the rote of Iesse, and he that shal ryse to rule the Gentyles, in him shal the Gentyles trust.

13 The God off hope fyll you wt all ioye and peace in beleuyng, yt ye maye be plenteous in hope thorow ye power of the holy goost.

14 I my selfe am full certified of you (my brethren) that ye youre selues are full of goodnes, fylled with all knowlege, so that ye are able to exhorte one another.

15 Neuertheles (brethre) I haue somewhat more boldly wrytten vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, for the grace that is geue me of God,

16 that I shulde be a mynister of Iesu Christ amonge the Heythen, to declare the gospell of God, that the Heythen mighte be an acceptable offerynge vnto God, sanctified by the holy goost.

17 Therefore maye I boost myselfe thorow Iesu Christ, that I medle with thinges perteyninge vnto God.

18 For I durst not speake ought, excepte Christ had wroughte the same by me, to make the Heythen obediet thorow worde and dede, 19 thorow the power of tokens and wonders, and thorow the power of the sprete of God, so that from Ierusalem, and roud aboute vnto Illyricon, I haue fylled all with the Gospell of Christ.

20 So haue I enforced myselfe to preach ye Gospell, not where Christes name was knowne, lest I shulde buylde on another mans foundation,

21 but as it is wrytten: To whom he was not spoken of, they shal se: and they that haue not herde, shal vnderstonde.

22 This is also the cause, wherfore I haue bene oft tymes let to come vnto you.

23 But now syth I haue nomore place in these countrees, hauynge yet a desyre many yeares sence to come vnto you,

24 whan I shal take my iourney in to Spayne, I wil come to you: for I trust that I shal passe yt waye and se you, and to be broughte on my waye thitherwarde by you: but so, that I first refresh my selfe a litle with you.

25 But now go I to Ierusalem, to mynister vnto the sayntes.

26 For they of Macedonia and Achaia haue wryllingly prepared a comen colleccion together, for the poore sayntes at Ierusalem.

27 They haue done it wryllingly, and their detters are they. For yf ye Heythen be made partakers off their spiritual thinges, their dutye is to mynister vnto the in bodely thinges.

28 Now whan I haue perfourmed this, and haue broughte the this frute sealed, I wil take my iourney by you in to Spayne.

29 But I am sure whan I come vnto you, that I shal come with ye full blessinge of the Gospell of Christ.

30 I beseke you brethren thorow oure LORDE Iesu Christ, and thorow the loue of the sprete, yt ye helpe me in my busynes with youre prayers vnto God for me,

31 that I maye be deluyered from the vnbeleuers in Iewrye and that this my seruyce which I do to Ierusalem, maye be accepted of the sayntes, 32 yt I maye come vnto you with ioye by ye wyll of God, and refreshe my selfe with you.

33 The God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Chapter 16

1 I commende vnto you Phebe oure sister, which is a mynister of the congregacion of Cenchea,

2 that ye receaue her in the LORDE, as it be cometh the sayntes, and that ye helpe her in whatsoever busynesse she hath neade off you. For she hath succoured many, and myne awne selfe also.

3 Grete Prisca and Aquila my helpers in Christ Iesu,

4 which for my life haue layed downe their awne neckes: vnto whom not I onely geue thanks, but all the congregacions of the Heythen.

5 Grete the congregacion also in their house. Salute Epenetos my beloued, which is ye first frute amoge the of Achaia i Christ.

6 Grete Mary, which hath bestowed moch labour on vs.

7 Salute Andronicus & Iunia my cosens, & felowe presoners, which are awncient Apostles, & were before me in Christ.

8 Grete Amplias my beloued in ye

LORDE.

9 Salute Vrban or helper in Christ, & Stachis my beloued.

10 Salute Apelles approued in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobolus housholde.

11 Salute Herodion my kynnsman. Grete the which are of Narcissus housholde in the LORDE

12 Salute Tryphena & Tryphosa, which haue laboured in ye LORDE. Salute my beloued Persida, which hath laboured moch & ye LORDE.

13 Salute Ruffus ye chosen in ye LORDE: & his mother & myne.

14 Grete Asyncritus, Phlego, Herman, Patrobas, Hermen, & ye brethre wt the.

15 Salute Philologus & Iulia, Nerius & his sister, & Olympa, & all the sayntes. wt the 16 Salute one another wt an holy kysse. The cogregacions of Christ salute you.

17 I beseke you brethren, marke them which cause deuyson & geue occasions of euell, contrary to ye doctryne which ye haue learned, & avoyde them.

18 For they yt are soch, serue not the LORDE Iesu Christ, but their awne belly: & thorow swete preachinges & flateringe wordes, they disceaue ye hertes of ye innocentes.

19 For youre obedience is published amonge all men, therefore am I glad of you. But yet I wolde haue you wyse in that which is good, & symple in euell.

20 The God of peace treade Sathan vnder yor fete shortly. The grace of or LORDE Iesu Christ be with you 21 Timotheus my helper, & Lucius, & Iason, & Sopater my kynsme salute you.

22 I Tertius which haue writte this epistle in ye LORDE,

23 salute you Gaius myne ooste & ye oost of ye whole cogregacion saluteth you. Erastus ye chaberlaine of ye cite saluteth you & Quartus a brother saluteth you.

24 The grace of or LORDE Iesu Christ be wt you all Ame,

25 To him yt is of power to stablyshe you, acordinge to my Gospell & preachinge of Iesu Christ, wherby is vttered ye mystery which hath bene kepte secreete, sence ye worlde begane,

26 but now is opened, & shewed by the scriptures of ye prophetes, at the comaundemet of the euerlastinge God, to set vp ye obediee of the faith amonge all Heythen:

27 to the same God, which alone is wyse, be prayse thorow Iesus Christ for euer, Amen.

1 CORINTHIANS

Chapter 1

1 Paul, called to be an Apostle of Iesus Christ thorow ye will of God, and brother Sosthenes,

2 vnto the congregacion off God which is at Corinthum, to them that are sanctified in Christ Iesus, sayntes by callinge, with all them that call vpon the name of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, in euery place both off theirs and oures.

3 Grace be with you and peace from God oure father, and from the LORDE Iesus Christ.

4 I thake my God allwayes on youre behalfe, for the fauoure of God which is geue you in Iesus Christ,

5 that in all poyntes ye are made ryche by him, in euery worde, and in all maner of knowlege

6 (eue as ye preachinge of Christ is confirmed in you)

7 so that ye wante nothinge in eny gifte, and wayte but for the appearinge of oure LORDE Iesus Christ:

8 which shal strength you also vnto ye ende, that ye maye be blamelesse in the daye of oure LORDE Iesus Christ.

9 For God is faithfull, by who ye are called vnto the fellishippe of his sonne Iesus Christ oure LORDE.

10 But I beseke you brethren thorow the name of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, that ye all speake one thinge, and let there be no discension amonge you, but that ye be perfecte in one meanyng.

11 For it is shewed me (my brethren) of you, by them which are of ye housholde of Cloes, that there is stryfe amonge you. I speake of that,

12 which euery one of you sayeth: I holde of Paul. Another, I holde of Apollo. The thirde, I holde of Cephas. The fourth, I holde off Christ.

13 Is Christ then deuyded in partes? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were ye baptysed in ye name of Paul?

14 I thanke God that I haue baptysed none of you, but Crispus and Gaius:

15 lest eny shulde saye, yt I in myne awne name had baptysed.

16 I baptysed also ye housholde of Stephana. Farthermore knowe I not, whether I baptysed eny other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptyse, but to preach the Gospell, not with wyssdome of wordes, lest ye crosse of Christ shulde haue bene made of none effecte.

18 For the worde of ye crosse is foolishnesse to the that perishe but vnto vs which are saued, it is the power of God.

19 For it is wrytte: I wyl destroye the wyssdome of the wyse, & wil cast away the vnderstandinge of ye prudet.

20 Where are the wyse? Where are ye scribes? where are ye disputers of this worlde?

21 Hath not God made the wyssdome of this worlde foolishnesse? For in so moch as the worlde by the wyssdome therof knewe not God in his wyssdome, it pleased God thorow foolish preachinge to saue them yt beleue.

22 For the Iewes requyre tokens, and the Grekes axe after wyssdome.

23 But we preach Christ the crucified: to the Iewes an occasion off fallinge, and vnto the Grekes foolishnes.

24 But vnto them that are called (both Iewes and Grekes) we preach Christ the power of God and the wyssdome off God.

25 For the foolishnes of God is wyser then men: and the weaknes of God is stroger the men.

26 Brethren loke on youre callinge, how that not many wyseme after the flesh, not many mightie, not many of hye degre are called:

27 but that foolish is before the worlde, hath God chosen, that he mighte cofounde the wyse: And that weake is before ye worlde, hath God chosen, yt he mighte confounde the mightye.

28 And the vyle and despysed before the worlde hath God chosen, yee and that which is nothinge, that he mighte destroye that which is oughte, 29 that no flesh shulde reioyse in his presence.

30 Of the same are ye also in Christ Iesu, which of God is made vnto vs wyssdome and righteousnes, and sanctifieng and redepcion, 31 that, acordinge as it is wrytten: He that reioyseth, shulde reioyse in the LORDE.

Chapter 2

1 And I brethren, wha I came vnto you came not wt hye wordes or hye wyssdome, to shewe vnto you the preachinge of Christ.

2 For I shewed not forth my selfe amonge you that I knewe eny thinge, saue onely Iesus Christ, euen the sam thate was crucified.

3 And I was amonge you in weaknes, and in feare, and in moch tremblinge:

4 and my worde and my preachinge was not with entysinge wordes of mans wyssdome, but in shewinge of the sprete and of power:

5 that youre faith shulde not stonde in the wyssdome of men, but in the power of God.

6 That we speake of, is wyssdome amonge the yt are perfecte: not ye wyssdome of this worlde, nether of the rulers of this worlde which go to naughte:

7 but we speake of the wyssdome of God, which is in secreete and lyeth hyd: which God ordeyned before the worlde vnto oure glorie:

8 which none of ye rulers of this worlde knewe. For yf they had knowne it, they had not crucified the LORDE of glorie, 9 but as it is wrytten: The eye hath not sene, and the eare hath not herde, nether hath it entred in to the hert of man that God hath prepared for them that loue him.

10 But God hath opened it vnto vs by his sprete. For the sprete searcheth out all thinges, yee euen the depenesses of the God heade.

11 For what ma knoweth what is in man, saue the sprete of ma which is in him? Euen so no man knoweth what is in God, saue ye sprete of God.

12 As for vs, we haue not receaued the sprete of this worlde, but the sprete which cometh of God, so that we ca knowe what is geue vs of God:

13 which we also speake, not with connynges wordes of mas wyssdome, but with the connynges wordes of the holy goost, and iudge spirituall matters spirituall.

14 Howbeit the naturall man perceaueth nothinge of ye sprete of God. It is foolishnes vnto him, and he can not perceauie it: for it must be spirituallly discerned.

15 But he that is spirituall, discusseth all thinges, and he is iudged of no man.

16 For who hath knowne ye mynde of the LORDE? Or who shal enfourme him? But we haue the mynde of Christ.

Chapter 3

1 And I brethren, coude not speake vnto you as vnto spirituall, but as vnto carnall, euen as vnto babes in Christ.

2 I gaue you mylke to drynke, and not meate, for ye mighte not then awaye withall, nether maye ye yet euen now, in so moch as ye are yet fleshlye.

3 For seyng there is enuyenge, stryfe, and discencion amonge you, are ye not fleshly, & walke after ye maner of men? 4 For whan one sayeth: I holde of Paul: another, I holde of Apollo, are ye not the fleshlye?

5 What is Paul? What is Apollo? Eue mynisters are they, by whom ye are come to the beleue, and the same, acordinge as the LORDE hath geuen vnto euery man. 6 I haue plantid, Apollo hath watred, but God hath geuen the increase.

7 So then nether is he that planteth, any thinge, nether he that watreth, but God which geueth the increase.

8 As for him that planteth, and he that watreth, ye one is as the other: but yet shal euery one receaue his rewarde acordinge to his labour.

9 For we are Gods labourers, ye are Gods hussbandry, ye are Gods buyldinge.

10 Acordinge to the grace of God which is geuen vnto me, as a wyse buylder haue I layed the foundation, but another buyldeth thereon. Yet let euery man take hede how he buyldeth thereon.

11 For other foudacion can noman laye, then that which is layed, the which is Iesus Christ.

12 But yf eny man buylde vpon this foundation, golde, syluer, precious stones, tymber, haye, stobble, 13 euerymas worke shal be shewed. For the daye of the LORDE shal declare it, which shal be shewed with fyre: and the fyre shal trye euery mas worke what it is.

14 Yf eny mans worke that he hath buyldeth thereon, abyde, he shal receaue a rewarde:

15 Yf eny mans worke burne, he shal suffre losse: but he shal be saued himselfe, neuertheles as thorow fyre.

16 Knowe ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the sprete of God dwelleth in you?

17 Yf eny man defyle the temple of God, him shal God destroye. For the temple of God is holy, which ye are.

18 Let no ma disceauie himselfe. Yf eny man thinke himselfe wyse amonge you, let him become a foole in this worlde, that he maye be wyse.

19 For the wyssdome off this worlde is foolishnes with God. For it is written: He compaseth the wyse in their craftynesse.

20 And agayne: The LORDE knoweth the thoughtes of the wyse, that they are vayne.

21 Therefore let no man reioyce in men. For all is youre,

22 whether it be Paul or Apollo, whether it be Cephas or the worlde, whether it be life or death, whether it be presente or for to come. All is youre, 23 but ye are Christes, and Christ is Gods.

Chapter 4

1 Let euery man this wyse esteme vs, euen for the mynisters of Christ, and stewardes of the secretes of God.

2 Now is there no more requyred of the stewardes, then, that they be founde faithfull.

3 It is but a small thinge vnto me, that I shulde be iudged of you, or of mans daye, nether iudge I myne awne selfe.

4 I knowe noughte by my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustified. It is the LORDE that iudgeth me.

5 Therefore iudge ye nothinge before ye tyme, vntyll the LORDE come, which shal bryng it to lighte that is hyd in darknesse, and ope the counsels of ye hertes, and the shal euery one haue prayse of God.

6 These thinges brethren haue I described in myne awne preson & in Apollos for youre sakes, that ye mighte lerne by vs, that noman counte hygher of him self, then aboute is written, that one be not puft vp agaynst another for eny mans cause.

7 For who preferreth the? What hast thou that thou hast not receaued? Yf thou hast receaued it, why makest thou the thy boost, as though thou haddest not receaued it?

8 Now ye are full, now ye are made riche, ye raigne without vs, and wolde God ye dyd raigne, that we might raigne with you.

9 Me thynketh that God hath set forth vs Apostles for the lowest off all, euen as those that are appoynted vnto death. For we are a gasynge stocke vnto ye worlde and to the angels, and vnto men.

10 We are fooles for Christes sake, but ye are wyse in Christ: We weake, but ye stroge: Ye honorable, but we despyed.

11 Euen vnto this daye we hoger and thyrst, and are naked, and are boffetted with fystes, and haue no certayne dwellinge place,

12 and labour and worke with oure awne handes. We are reuyled, and yet we blesse: we are persecuted, and suffre it:

13 We are euell spoken of, and we praye: We are become as it were the very outsweepinges of ye worlde, yee the of scowringe of all men vnto this tyme.

14 I wryte not this to shame you, but as my deare childe I warne you.

15 For though ye haue ten thousande instructours in Christ yet haue ye not many fathers. For I haue begotten you in Christ Iesu thorow ye Gospell?

16 Wherefore I exhorte you, be ye my followers.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus (which is my deare sonne, and faithfull in the LORDE) that he maye put you in remembraunce of my wayes, which are in Christ, eue as I teach euery where in all congregacions.

18 Some are puft vp, as though I wolde come nomore to you.

19 But I wil come to you shortly (yf the LORDE wyl) and wyl knowe, not the wordes of the that are puft vp, but ye power.

20 For the kyngdome of God is not i wordes, but in power.

21 What wil ye? Shal I come vnto you wt the rodd, or with loue and the sprete of mekenesse?

Chapter 5

1 There goeth a commen reporte, that there is whordome amonge you, and soch whordome, as is not once named amonge the Heythen, that one shulde haue his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puft vp, and haue not rather sorowed, that he which hath done this dede, mighte be put fro amonge you.

3 For I verely as absent in body, but present in sprete, haue determynd allready as though I were present (cocernyng him that hath done this dede)

4 in ye name of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, wha ye are gathered together with my sprete, and with the power of oure LORDE Iesus Christ,

5 to delyuer him vnto Sathan for the destruccion of the flesh, that the sprete maye be saued in the daye of the LORDE Iesus.

6 Youre reioysinge is not good. Knowe ye not that a litle leuen sowereth the whole lompe of dowe.

7 Poure out therefore the olde leuen, that ye maye be new dowe, like as ye are swete bred. For we also haue an Easter lambe, which is Christ, that is offred for vs.

8 Wherefore let vs kepe Easter, not in ye olde leuen, ner in the leuen of maliciousnes, and wickednes, but in the swete bred of purenesse and of the trueth.

9 I wrote vnto you in the Epistle, that ye shulde haue nothinge to do with whoremogers,

10 & that meant I not at all of the whoremogers of this worlde, ether of the couetous, or of extorcioners, or of the that worshippes ymages, for then must ye nedes haue gone out of the worlde.

11 But now haue I wrytte vnto you, yt ye shulde haue nothinge to do with them:

(Namely,) yf there be eny man that is called a brother, and is an whoremonger, or couetous, or a worshipper of ymages, ether a raylar, or a dronkarde, or an extorcioner, with soch shal ye not eate.

12 For what haue I to do to iudge them that are without? Do ye not iudge the that are within?

13 As for them that are without, God shal iudge them. Put awaye fro you him that is euell.

Chapter 6

1 How dare one off you hauynge busynes with another, go to lawe before the vnrighteous, and not before the sayntes?

2 Do ye not knowe that the sayntes shal iudge the worlde? Yf the worlde then shalbe iudged off you, are ye not good ynough to iudge small matters?

3 Knowe ye not that we shal iudge the angels? how moch more thinges that pertayne to the teporall life?

4 Therefore yf ye haue iudgmentes of temporall matters, take them that are despyed in the congregacion, and set them to be iudges.

5 This I saye to youre shame. Is there vtterly no wyse man amonge you? What not one at all, that can iudge betwene brother & brother?

6 but one brother goeth to lawe with another, and that before the vnbeleuers?

7 Now therefore is there vtterly a faute amonge you, that ye go to lawe one with another. Why rather suffre ye not wronge? Why suffre ye not youre selues rather to be defrauded?

8 but ye youre selues do wroge and defraude, and that euen the brethre.

9 Knowe ye not that ye vnrighteous shal not inheret the kyngdome of God? Be not disceaued. Nether whoremogers, ner worshippers off ymages, ner breakers off wedlocke, ner weaklynges, nether abusers of them selues with mankynde, 10 ner theues, nether the couetous, ner drokardes, ner cursed speakers, ner extorcioners shal inheret the kyngdome of God.

11 And soch haue some of you bene, but ye are wasshed, ye are sanctified, ye are made righteous by the name of the LORDE Iesus, and by the sprete of oure God.

12 I maye do all thinges, but all thinges are not profitable. I maye do all thinges, but I wil be broughte vnder no mas power.

13 Meates are ordeyned for ye bely, & the bely for meates. But God shal destroye both it and them. The body belongeth not vnto whordome, but vnto the LORDE, and the LORDE vnto the body

14 God hath raysed vp the LORDE, and shal rayse vs vp also by his power.

15 Knowe ye not that youre bodies are the mebres of Christ? Shal I now take the mebres of Christ, and make them the mebres of an harlot? God forbyd.

16 Or do ye not knowe, that he which cleueth vnto an harlot, is one body? For they shalbe two (sayeth he) in one flesshe.

17 But he that cleueth vnto the LORDE, is one sprete.

18 Fle whordome. All synnes yt a man doth, are without the body. But he that commyteth whordome, synneth agaynst his awne body.

19 Or knowe ye not that youre body is the temple of the holy goost? Whom ye haue of God, and are not youre awne?

20 For ye are dearly boughte. Prayse ye God therfore in yor body & in yor sprete, which are Gods.

Chapter 7

1 As concernyng the things wherof ye wrote vnto me, I answere: It is good for a man not to touche a woman.

2 Neuertheles to avoyde whordome, let euery man haue his awne wife, and let euery woman haue hir awne hussbande.

3 Let the ma geue vnto the wife due beneuolence: likewyse also the wife vnto ye man.

4 The wife hath not power ouer hir awne body, but the hussbande: & likewyse the man hath not power ouer his awne body, but the wife.

5 Withdrawe not yor selues one fro another, excepte it be with the consent of both for a tyme, that ye maye geue youre selues vnto fastinge and prayer, and the come together agayne, lest Sathan tempte you for yor incontynecye.

6 But this I saye of faouore, and not of commaundemet.

7 Howbeit I wolde rather yt all me were as I am. Neuertheles euery one hath his proper gifte of God: one thus, another so.

8 To them verely yt are vnmarried and to wedowes I saye: It is good for the that they abyde also as I do.

9 But yf they cannot absteyne, let them mary. For it is better to mary, then to burne.

10 But vnto them that are married, commaunde not I, but the LORDE, that the wife separate not her selfe from the hussbande:

11 but yf she separate her selfe, yt she remayne vnmarried, or be reconcyled to hir hussbande: and let not the hussbande put away his wife from him.

12 As for the other, vnto the saye I, not ye LORDE: Yf eny brother haue an vnbeleuyng wife, and she is content to dwell with him, let him not put hir awaye.

13 And yf a woman haue an vnbeleuyng hussbande, and he is content to dwell with her, let her not put him awaye.

14 For the vnbeleuyng hussbande is sanctified by the wife, and the vnbeleuyng wife is sanctified by the hussbande: or els were youre children vnclane, but now are they holy.

15 But yf the vnbeleuyng departe, let him departe. A brother or a sister is not boude in soch cases, but God hath called vs in peace.

16 For what knowest thou O woma, whether thou shalt saue ye ma? Or what knowest thou O man, whether thou shalt saue the woman?

17 But euen as God hath distributed vnto euery one and as the LORDE hath called euery man, so let him walke: and so orden I in all congregacions.

18 Yf eny man be called beyng circuncysed let him take no Heythenshippe vpon him. Yf eny man be called in the Heythenshippe, let him not be circuncysed.

19 Circumcision is nothinge, and vncircumcision is nothinge, but the keypyng of the commaundementes of God.

20 Let euery one abyde in the callinge wherin he is called.

21 Art thou called a seruaut, care not for it: neuertheles yf thou mayest be fre, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the LORDE beyng a seruante, is a fre man of the LORDE. Likewyse he that is called beyng fre, is a seruaut of Christ.

23 Ye are dearly boughte, be not ye the seruantes of men.

24 Brethren let euery one wherin he is called, therin abyde with God.

25 As concernyng virgins, I haue no commaundement of the LORDE, neuertheles I saye my goodmeanynge, as I haue optayned mercy of the LORDE to be faithfull.

26 I suppose it is good for ye present necessite: for it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou boude vnto a wife, seke not to be lowsed: Art thou lowsed fro a wife, seke not a wife.

28 But yf thou take a wife, thou synnest not. And yf a virgin mary, she synneth not Neuertheles soch shal haue trouble in the flesshe. But I faouore you.

29 Howbeit this I saye brethren: the tyme is shorte. Farthermore this is the meanynge, yt they which haue wyues, be as though they had none:

30 and they that wepe, be as though they wepte not: and they that reioyse, be as though they reioysed not: & they that bye, be as though they possessed not:

31 & they that vse this worlde, be as though they vsed it not. For the fasshion off this worlde passeth awaye.

32 But I wolde that ye shulde be without care. He that is syngle, careth for the thinges of the LORDE, how he maye please the LORDE.

33 But he that is married, careth for the thinges of the worlde, how he maye please his wife,

34 and is deuyded. A woman and a virgin that is syngle, careth for the thinges of the LORDE, that she maye be holy both in body & also in sprete. But she that is married, careth for ye thinges of the worlde, how she maye please hir hussbande.

35 This I saye for youre profit, not that I wil tangle you in a snare, but for that which is honest and comly vnto you, that ye maye cotynually cleue vnto the LORDE without hynderaunce.

36 But yf eny man thinke that it is vncomly for his virgin yf she passe the tyme of mariage, and if nede so requyre, let him do what he lyst, he synneth not, let the be coupled in mariage.

37 Neuertheles he that purposeth surely in his hert, hauynge no nede, but hath power of his awne wyll, and determeth so in his hert to kepe his virgin, doth well. Fynally, he that ioyneth his virgin in mariage, doth well:

38 but he that ioyneth not his virgin in mariage, doth beter.

39 The wife is boude to the lawe, as longe as hir hussbande lyueth. But yf hir hussbande slepe, she is at liberty to mary vnto whom she wil, onely that it be done in the LORDE.

40 But she is happier yf she so abyde after my judgment. I thinke verely that I also haue the sprete of God.

Chapter 8

1 As touchinge things offred vnto Idols we are sure yt we all haue knowlege. Knowlege puffeth a ma vp, but loue edifyeth.

2 Neuertheles yf eny ma thinke yt he knoweth eny thinge, he knoweth not yet how he oughte to knowe.

3 But yf eny man loue God, the same is knowne of him.

4 So are we sure now cocernyng the meates offred vnto Idols, that an Idoll is nothinge in the worlde, and that there is none other God but one.

5 And though there be that are called goddesses, whether in heauen or in earth (as there be goddesses many and lordes many)

6 yet haue we but one God, euen the father, of who are all thinges, and we in him & one LORDE Iesus Christ, by who are all thinges, and we by him.

7 But euery man hath not knowlege: for some make yet consciene ouer the Idoll, and eate it as a thinge offred vnto Idols: and so their consciene beyng weake, is defyled.

8 Neuertheles meate furthureth not vs vnto God. Yf we eate, we shal not therefore be the better: yf we eate not, we shal not therefore be the lesse.

9 But take hede that this youre liberty be not an occasion of fallynge vnto ye weake.

10 For yf eny man se the (which hath knowlege) syt at the table in the Idols house, shal not his consciene whyle it is weake, be occasioned to eate of the Idoll offeringes?

11 And so thorow thy knowlege shal the weake brother perishe, for who Christ dyed.

12 But whan ye synne so agaynst the brethren, and wounde their weake consciene, ye synne agaynst Christ.

13 Wherefore yf meate offende my brother, I wyl neuer eate flesh, lest I offende my brother.

Chapter 9

1 Am I not an Apostle? Am I not fre? Haue I not sene Iesus Christ oure LORDE?

2 Are not ye my worke in the LORDE? Yf I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet am I youre Apostle: for the seale of myne Apostleshippe are ye in the LORDE.

3 Myne answere vnto them that axe me, is this:

4 Haue we not power to eate and drynke? 5 Haue we not power also to leade aboute a sister to wife, as well as other Apostles, and as the brethren of the LORDE, and Cephas?

6 Or haue onely I and Barnabas not power this to do?

7 Who goeth a warfare at eny tyme vpon his awne wages? Who planteth a vynyarde, and eateth not of the frute therof? Who fedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the mylke of the flocke?

8 Saye I these thinges after the maner of men? Sayeth not the lawe the same also?

9 For it is wrytten in the lawe off Moses: Thou shalt not mosell the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corne. Doth God take thought for the oxen?

10 Or sayeth he it not alltogether for oure sakes? For no doute it is wrytte for oure sakes. For he that eareth, shulde eare vpon hope: and he yt throsseth, shulde trosse vpon hope, yt he mighte be partaker of his hope.

11 Yf we haue sowne vnto you spiritual thinges, is it a greate thige yf we reape yor bodely thiges?

12 But yf other be partakers of this power on you, therfore are not we rather? Neuertheles we haue not vsed this power, but suffre all thinges, lest we shulde hynder the Gospell off Christ.

13 Knowe ye not that they which laboure in the temple, haue their lyuynge of ye temple: and they that wayte at the altare, enioye the altare?

14 Euen thus also hath ye LORDE ordeyned, that they which preach the Gospell, shulde lyue of ye Gospell.

15 But I haue vsed none of these thinges. Nether wryte I therof, that it shulde be done so vnto me: for I had rather dye, the that eny man shulde bryng my reioysinge to naughte.

16 For in that I preach the Gospell, I neade not boost my selfe, for I must nedes do it. And wo vnto me, yff I preach not the Gospell.

17 Yf I do it with a good wyll, I shall haue my reward: but yff I do it agaynst my wyll, yet is the office commytted vnto me.

18 Wherefore the shal I be rewarded? (Namely therfore) that I preach the Gospell, and do the same frely for naughte, that I abuse not my libertye in ye Gospell.

19 For though I am fre from all men, yet haue I made my selfe euery mans seruaut, yt I mighte wynne ye moo.

20 Vnto the Iewes I am become as a Iewe, to wynne ye Iewes. To them that are vnder the lawe, I am become as though I were vnder the lawe, to wynne them which are vnder the lawe.

21 Vnto them that are without lawe, I am become as though I were without lawe (where as yet I am not without the lawe of God, but am in ye lawe of Christ) to wynne the that are without lawe.

22 To the weake, am I become as weake, to wynne the weake. I am become of all fashions vnto euery man, to saue some at ye leest.

23 But this I do for the Gospels sake, that I mighte be partaker therof.

24 Knowe ye not, that they which runne in a course, runne all, yet but one receaueth the rewarde? Runne ye so, that ye maye optayne.

25 Euery one that proueth mastrye, absteyneth from all thinges, and they do it, that they maye optayne a corruptible crowne, but we to optayne an vncorruptible crowne.

26 I therfore so runne, not as at an vncertaine thinge: So fighte I, not as one yt beateth ye ayre:

27 but I tame my body, and brynge it in to subieccion, lest whan I preach vnto other: I my selfe be a cast awaye.

Chapter 10

1 Brethren, I wolde not that ye shulde be ignoraunt of this, that oure fathers were all vnder the cloude, and all passed thorow the see,

2 & were all baptised vnder Moses in the cloude and in the see,

3 and dyd all eate of one spirituall meate, 4 and dyd all drynke of one spirituall drynke: but they dronke of the spirituall rocke that folowed the, which rocke was Christ.

5 Neuertheles in many of them had God no delyte, for they were smytten downe in the wyldernesse.

6 These are ensamples vnto vs, yt we shulde not lust after euell thinges, as they lusted.

7 Nether be ye worshippers off ymages, as were some of them. Acordinge as it is wrytte: The people sat downe to eate and drynke, and rose vp to playe.

8 Nether let vs comytte whordome, as some of them comytted whordome, and fell in one daye thre & twenty thousande. 9 Nether let vs tempte Christ, as some of them tempted him, and were destroyed of serpetes.

10 Nether murmur ye, as some of them murmured, and were destroyed thorow the destroyer.

11 All these thinges happened vnto the for ensamples, but they are wrytte to warne vs, vpon whom the ende of ye worlde is come.

12 Therefore let him that thinketh he stondeth, take hede, lest he fall.

13 There hath yet no temptacion ouertaken you, but soch as foloweth the nature of man. Neuertheles God is faithfull, which shal not suffre you to be tempted aboute youre strength, but shal in the myddes of ye temptacion make a waye to come out, that ye maye beare it.

14 Wherfore my dearly beloued, fle from worshippinge of Idols.

15 I speake vnto them which haue discrecio, iudge ye what I saye.

16 The cuppe of thakesgeuynge wherwith we geue thanks, is it not the partakinge of the bloude of Christ?

17 The bred that we breake, is it not ye partakinge of ye body of Christ? For we many, are one bred & one body, in as moch as we all are partakers of one bred. 18 Beholde Israel after the flesshe. They yt eate the sacrifices, are they not partakers of the altare?

19 What shal I now saye then? Shal I saye that the Idoll is enythinge? Or that it which is offred vnto the Idoll is eny thinge?

20 Nay. But this I saye, that loke what the Heythen offre, that offre they vnto deuels, and not vnto God. Now wolde I not that ye shulde be in the fellshippe of deuels.

21 Ye can not drynke of the cuppe of the LORDE and of the cuppe of the deuels. Ye can not be partakers of the LORDES table, and of the table of deuels.

22 Or wyl we prouoke the LORDE? I maye do all thinges, but all thinges are not profitable.

23 I maye do all thinges, but all thinges edifye not.

24 Let noman seke his awne profit, but let euery man seke anothers welth.

25 What soeuer is solde in the fleshmarket, that eate, and axe no question for conscience sake.

26 For the earth is the LORDES, and all yt therin is.

27 Yf eny of the yt beleue not, byd you to a feast, and yf ye be disposed to go, what soeuer is set before you, that eate, axinge no question for conscience sake.

28 But yf eny man saye vnto you: This is offred vnto Idols, the eate not of it, for his sake that shewed it, and for hurtinge of conscience. (The earth is the LORDES and all that therin is.)

29 Neuertheles I speake of consciece, not thine, but of ye other. For why shulde my liberty be iudged of another mas consciece?

30 For yf I take my parte wt thankesgeuynge, why am I euell spoken of, for yt thinge wherfore I geue thanks?

31 Therfore whether ye eate or drynke, or what so euer ye do, do all to ye prayse of God.

32 Be not ye an occasion of fallinge, nether to the Iewes, ner to the Gentyles, ner to the congregacion of God, 33 eue as I also please all men in all thinges, not sekinge myne awne profit, but the profit of many, that they mighte be saued. Folowe ye me, as I do Christ.

Chapter 11

1 I commend you

2 brethren, that ye remembre me in all poyntes, and kepe the ordinaunces, eue as

I delyuered them vnto you.

3 But I certifye you, that Christ is the heade of euery man. As for ye man, he is the heade of ye woman, but God is Christes heade.

4 Euery man that prayeth or prophecieth, and hath eny thinge on his heade, shameth his heade.

5 But euery woman that prayeth or prophecieth with vncouered heade, dishonesteth hir heade. For it is euen a lyke moch as yf she were shauen.

6 Yf the woma be not couered, let hir heer also be cut of. But yf it be vncomely for a woman to haue hir heer cut of or to be shauen, then let hir couer hir heade.

7 Neuertheles the man oughte not to couer his heade, for so moch as he is the ymage and glory of God: but the woma is the glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9 Nether was the man created for the womans sake, but the woma for the mans sake.

10 Therfore ought the woman to haue a power vpon hir heade, for the angels sakes.

11 Neuertheles nether is the man without ye woman, nether the woman without the ma in the LORDE.

12 For as the woman is of the man, euen so commeth the man also by the woman, but all of God.

13 Iudge ye by yor selues, whether it be comly, yt a woma praye before God bare headed?

14 Or doth not nature teach you, yt it is a shame for a man

15 yf he weere loge heer, & a prayse to ye woma, yf she weere loge heer? For hir heer is geue heer to couer her withall.

16 But yf there be eny man amoge you that hath lust to stryue, let him knowe, that we haue no soch custome, nether the congregacions of God.

17 But this must I warne you of: I commend it not, that ye come together not after a better maner but after a worse.

18 First, whan ye come together in the congregacion, I heare, that there are discensions amonge you, and I partly beleue it.

19 For there must be sectes amonge you, that they which are perfecte amoge you, mighte be knowne.

20 Now whan ye come together, the LORDES supper can not be kepte. For whan it shulde be kepte, euery ma taketh his awne supper afore.

21 And one is hogrie, another is dronke. Haue ye not houses to eate and drynke in?

22 Or despysse ye ye cogregacion of God, and shame them that haue not? What shal I saye vnto you? Shal I prayse you? in this prayse I you not.

23 That which I delyuered vnto you, receaued I of the LORDE. For the LORDE Iesus the same nighte in the which he was betrayed, toke the bred, 24 & gaue thanks, and brake it, and sayde: Take ye, & eate ye, this is my body, which is broken for you. This do in the remembraunce of me.

25 After the same maner also he toke ye cuppe whan supper was done, and sayde: This cuppe is the new Testament in my bloude, this do (as oft as ye drynke it) in the remebraunce of me.

26 For as oft as ye shal eate of this bred, & drynke of this cuppe, ye shal shewe the LORDES death, vntyll he come.

27 Wherfore who soeuer shal eate off this bred, and drynke off this cuppe of the LORDE vnworthely, shalbe guiltye of the body and bloude of the LORDE.

28 But let a man examen himselfe, and so let him eate of this bred, and drynke of this cuppe.

29 For he that eateth and drynketh vnworthely, eateth & drynketh his awne damnacion, because he maketh no differece of the LORDES body.

30 Therfore are there so many weake and sicke amoge you, and many slepe.

31 For yf we iudged oure selues, we shulde not be iudged.

32 But whan we are iudged, we are chastened of ye LORDE, that we shulde not be daned with the worlde.

33 Wherfore my brethren, whan ye come together to eate, tary one for another.

34 But yf eny man hunger, let him eate at home, that ye come not together vnto codempnacion. As for other thinges, I wil set them in order whan I come.

Chapter 12

1 As concernynge spirituall giftes (brethren) I wolde not that ye were ignoraunt.

2 Ye knowe that ye were Heythe and wente youre wayes vnto dome Idols, eue as ye were led.

3 Wherfore I declare vnto you, that no man speakynge thorow the sprete of God, defyeth Iesus. And no man can saye that Iesus is the LORDE, but by the holy goost.

4 There are dyuerse giftes, yet but one sprete:

5 and there are dyuerse offices, yet but one LORDE:

6 and there are dyuerse operacions yet is there but one God, which worketh all in all.

7 The giftes of the sprete are geuen vnto euery man to profit the cogregacion.

8 To one is geuen thorow the sprete the vtterance of wissdome: to another is geuen the vtterance of knowlege acordinge to the same sprete:

9 to another, faith in the same sprete: to another, the giftes of healinge in the same sprete:

10 to another, power to do miracles: to another, prophecieng: to another, iudgment to discerne spretes: to another, dyuerse tungen: to another, the interpretation of tungen.

11 These all doth ye same onely sprete worke, and distributeth vnto euery man, acordinge as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath yet many membres, neuertheles all the members of the body though they be many, are yet but one body: euen so Christ also.

13 For we are all baptyseed in one sprete to be one body, whether we be Iewes or Gentyles, whether we be bonde or fre, and haue all dronke of one sprete.

14 For the body also is not one membre, but many.

15 Yf the fote saye: I am not ye hande, therfore am I not a membre of the body, is he therfore not a membre of ye body?

16 And yf the eare saye: I am not the eye, therfore am I not a membre of the body, is he therfore not a membre of the body?

17 Yf all the body were an eye, where were then the hearinge? Yf all were hearinge, where then the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the membres, euery one seuerally in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 Neuertheles yf all the mebres were one membre, where were then the body?

20 But now are the membres many, yet is the body but one.

21 The eye can not saye vnto the hande: I haue no nede of the: or agayne the heade vnto the fete, I haue no nede of you:

22 but rather a greate deale the mebres of the body which seme to be most feble, are most necessary:

23 and vpon those membres of the body which we thinke least honest, put we most honestie on: and oure vncomly partes haue most beutey on.

24 For oure honest membres neade it not. But God hath so measured ye body, and geuen most honoure vnto that mebre which had nede,

25 that there shulde be no stryfe in the body, but that the membres shulde indifferently care one for another. And yf one membre suffre, all the membres suffre with him:

26 and yf one membre be had in honoure, all the membres are glad with him also.

27 But ye are the body of Christ, and membres, euery one of another.

28 And God hath ordeyned in the congregacion, first the Apostles, secodly prophetes, thirdly teachers, then doers of miracles, after that the giftes of healinge, helpers, gouerners, dyuerse tungen.

29 Are they all Apostles? Are they all prophetes? Are they all teachers? Are they all doers of miracles?

30 Haue they all the giftes of healinge? Speake they all with tungen? Can they all interprete?

31 But couet ye the best giftes. And yet shewe I you a more excellent waye.

Chapter 13

1 Though I spake with the tungen of men and angels, and yet had not loue, I were euen as soundinge brasse, or as a tynklinge Cymball.

2 And though I coulde prophecy, & vnderstode all secretes, and all knowlege, and had all faith, so that I coulde moue moutaynes out of their places, and yet had not loue, I were nothinge.

3 And though I bestowed all my goodes to fede ye poore, and though I gaue my body euen that I burned, and yet haue not loue, it profiteth me nothinge.

4 Loue is pacient & curteous, loue envyeth not, loue doth not frowardly, is not puft vp, dealeth not dishonestly,

5 seketh not hir awne, is not prouoked vnto anger, thynketh not euell,

6 reioyseth not ouer iniquyte, but reioyseth in the trueth,

7 beareth all things, beleueth all things, hopeth all things, suffreth all things.

8 Though prophecienge fayle, or tungen cease, or knowlege perishe, yet loue falleth neuer awaye.

9 For oure knowlege is vnperfecte, and oure prophecienge is vnperfecte.

10 But wha that which is perfecte, commeth, then shal the vnperfecte be done awaye.

11 Whan I was a childe, I spake as a childe, I vnderstode as a childe, I ymagined as a childe. But as soone as I was a man, I put awaye childishnes.

12 Now we se thorow a glasse in a darke speakynge, but the shal we se face to face. Now I knowe vnperfectly: but the shal I knowe eue as I am knowne.

13 Now abydeith faith, hope, loue, these thre: but the greatest of these is loue.

Chapter 14

1 Laboure for loue. Couet spirituall giftes, but specially that ye maye prophecye.

2 For he yt speaketh with tungen, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man heareth him. Howbeit in ye sprete he speaketh misteries.

3 But he that prophecietieth, speaketh vnto men to edifienge, & to exhortacion, and to coforte.

4 He that speaketh with tungen, edifieth himselfe: but he that prophecietieth, edifieth the congregacion.

5 I wolde that ye all spake with tungen, but rather that ye prophecied. For greater is he that prophecietieth, then he that speaketh wt tuges: excepte he also expounde it, that the congregacion maye haue edifienge.

6 But now brethren yf I come vnto you, and speake with tungen, what shal I profet you, excepte I speake vnto you ether by reuelacion or by knowlege, or by prophecienge, or by doctryne?

7 Likewise is it also in ye things that geue sounde, and yet lyue not: whether it be a pype or an harpe, excepte they geue distincte soundes from them, how shal it be knowne what is pyped or harped?

8 And yf the trope geue an vncertayne sounde, who wil prepare himselfe to the battayll?

9 Euen so ye likewise, whan ye speake with tungen, excepte ye speake playne wordes, how shal it be knowne what is spoke? for ye shal but speake in ye ayre.

10 So many kyndes of voyces are in the worlde, and none of them is without significacion.

11 Yf I knowe not now what ye voyce meaneth, I shalbe an aleaunt vnto him that speaketh: & he that speaketh, shalbe an aleaut vnto me.

12 Eue so ye (for so moch as ye couet spirituall giftes (seke yt ye maye haue plente to the edifienge of the congregacion.

13 Wherfore let him that speaketh wt tungen, praye, that he maye interprete also.

14 Yf I praye with tungen, my sprete prayeth, but my vnderstodinge bryngeth no man frute.

15 How shal it be then? Namely thus: I wil praye with ye sprete, and wil praye with the vnderstodinge also: I wil synge psalmes in the sprete, and wil synge spalmes with ye vnderstodinge also.

16 But whan thou geuest thanks with ye sprete, how shal he that occupieth the rowme of the vnlearned, saye Ame at thy geuyng of thanks, seyng he knoweth not what thou sayest?

17 Thou geuest well thanks, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, that I speake with tungen more then ye all.

19 Yet had I leuer in the cogregacion to speake fyue wordes with my vnderstodinge yt I maye enfourme other also, rather then ten thousande wordes with tungen.

20 Brethren be not children in vnderstodinge, howbeit as concerninge maliciousnes be childe, but in vnderstodinge be perfecte.

21 In the lawe it is wrytten: With other tungen and with other lippes wyl I speake vnto this people, and yet shal they not so heare me, sayeth the LORDE

22 Therefore are tungen for a token, not to the that beleue, but to them that beleue not. Contrary wyse, prophecienge, not to them that beleue not, but to them which beleue.

23 Yf the whole cogregacion now came together in to one place, & spake all with tungen, and there came in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleue not, shulde they not saye, that ye were out of youre wyttes?

24 But yff all prophecied, and there came in one yt beleueth not, or one vnlearned, he shulde be rebuked of them all, and iudged of all,

25 and so shulde the secrete of his hert be opened, and so shulde he fall downe vpon his face, worshippinge God, and knowlege, that of a trueth God is in you.

26 How is it then brethren? Whan ye come together, euery one hath a psalme, hath doctryne, hath a tunge, hath a reuelacion, hath an interpretacion. Let all be done to edifyenge.

27 Yf eny ma speake with tungen, let him do it him selfe beyng the seconde, or at the most him selfe beyng ye thirde, and one after another, and let one interprete it.

28 But yf there be not an interpreter, then let him kepe sylence in the congregacion, howbeit let him speake to himselfe and to God.

29 As for the prophetes, let two or thre speake and let the other iudge.

30 But yf eny reuelacion be made vnto another that sytteth, then let the first holde his peace.

31 Ye maye all prophecye one after another that they all maye lerne, and that all maye haue comforte.

32 And the spretes of the prophetes are subiecte vnto the prophetes.

33 For God is not a God off discension, but off peace, like as in all congregacions off the sayntes.

34 Let youre wyues kepe sylence in the cogregacion, for it shal not be permytted vnto the to speake, but to be vnder obedience, as ye lawe sayeth also.

35 But yf they wyll lerne eny thinge, let them axe their hussbades at home. For it becommeth not weme to speake in the congregacion.

36 Or spronge the worde of God from amonge you? Or is it come vnto you onely?

37 Yf eny man thynke himselfe to be a prophet, or spirituall, let him knowe what I wryte vnto you, for they are the commaundementes of the LORDE.

38 But yf eny man be ignoraunt, let him be ignoraunt.

39 Wherfore brethren, couet to prophecye, and forbyd not to speake with tungen.

40 Let all thinges be done honestly and in order.

Chapter 15

1 I declare vnto you brethren, the Gospell that I haue preached vnto you (which ye haue also accepted, and in the which ye stode,

2 by the which also ye are saued) after what maner I preached it vnto you, yf ye haue kepte it, excepte ye haue beleued in vayne.

3 For first of all I delyuered vnto you that which I also receaued, how that Christ dyed for oure synnes accordinge to the scriptures,

4 and that he was buried, and that he rose agayne ye thirde daye accordinge to the scriptures,

5 and that he was sene of Cephas, then of the twolue:

6 after that was he sene of mo then fyue hundreth brethren at once, wherof there are yet many alyue, but some are fallen aslepe.

7 Afterwarde was he sene of Iames, then of all the Apostles.

8 Last of all was he sene of me also, as of one borne out of due tyme.

9 For I am ye leest of the Apostles, which am not worthy to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the congregacion of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am that I am. And his grace in me hath not bene vayne, but I haue laboured more then they all: howbeit not I but the grace of God which is wt me.

11 Now whether it be I or they, thus haue we preached, and thus haue ye beleued.

12 But yf Christ be preached, that he is rysen from the deed, how saye then some amoge you, that there is no resurreccion of the deed?

13 Yf there be no resurreccio of the deed, then is Christ not rysen.

14 Yf Christ be not rysen, then is oure preachinge in vayne, and youre faith is also in vayne:

15 yee and we are founde false witnesses of God, because we haue testified agaynst God, that he hath rayسد vp Christ, whom he hath not rayسد vp, yf the deed ryse not agayne.

16 For yf the deed ryse not agayne, the is Christ also not rysen agayne.

17 But yf Christ be not rysen agayne, then is youre faith in vayne, and ye are yet in youre synnes:

18 they also that are falle a slepe in Christ, are perished.

19 Yf in this life onely we hope on Christ, then are we of all men the most miserable.

20 But now is Christ rysen from the deed, and is become ye first frutes of them that slepe.

21 For by one man commeth death, and by one man the resurreccion of the deed.

22 For as they all dye in Adam, so shal they all be made alyue in Christ, 23 but euery one in his order. The first is Christ, then they that beloge vnto Christ, when he commeth.

24 Then the ende, wha he shal delyuer vp the kyngdome vnto God the father, whan he shal put downe all rule, and all superiorite, & power.

25 For he must raygne, tyll he haue put all his enemies vnder his fete.

26 The last enemye that shal be destroyed, is death,

27 for he hath put all thinges vnder his fete. But wha he sayeth, that all thinges are put vnder him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which put all thinges vnder him.

28 Whan all thinges shalbe subdued vnto him, then shal the sonne himselfe also be subiecte vnto him, which put all thinges vnder him, that God maye be all in all.

29 Or els what do they which are baptised ouer ye deed, yf the deed ryse not at all? Why are they then baptysed ouer the deed?

30 And why stonde we in ioperdy euery houre?

31 By oure reioysinge which I haue in Christ Iesu or LORDE, I dye daylie.

32 That I haue foughte with beestes at Ephesus after ye maner of men, what helpeth it me, yf the deed ryse not agayne? Let vs eate and drynke, for tomorrow we shal dye.

33 Be not ye discaued. Euell speakinges corruppe good maners.

34 Awake righte vp, and synne not: for some haue not ye knowlege of God. This I saye to youre shame.

35 But some man mighte saye: How shal the deed aryse? And with what maner off body shal they come?

36 Thou foole, yt which thou sowest is not quyckened, excepte it dye.

37 And what sowest thou? thou sowest not ye body that shalbe, but a bare corne, namely of wheate, or of some other.

38 But God geueth it a body as he wil, and vnto euery one of ye sedes his owne body.

39 All flesshe is not one maner of flesshe, but there is one maner flesshe of men, another of beastes, another of fisshes, another of byrdes.

40 And there are heauenly bodies, and there are earthy bodies: but the heauenly haue one glory, and ye earthy another.

41 The Sonne hath one clearnes, the Moone hath another clearnesse, and the starres haue another clearnesse, for one starre excelleth another in clearnesse:

42 Euen so the resurreccion of the deed. It is sowne in corrupcion, and shal ryse in vncorruption:

43 It is sowne in dishonoure, & shal ryse in glory: It is sowne in weaknesse, and shal ryse in power: It is sowne a naturall body, & shal ryse a spirituall body.

44 Yf there be a naturall body, there is a spirituall body also.

45 As it is wrytten: The first man Adam was made in to a naturall life, and the last Ada in to a spiritual life.

46 Howbeit the spirituall body is not the first, but ye naturall, and then the spirituall.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: ye seconde ma is fro heaue, heauey.

48 As the earthy is, soch are they also that are earthy: and as ye heauenly is, soch are they also yt are heauenly.

49 And as we haue borne the ymage of the earthy, so shal we beare the ymage of the heauenly also.

50 This I saye brethren, that flesh & bloude can not inheret ye kyngdome of God: nether shal corrupcion inheret vncorruption.

51 Beholde, I saye vnto you a mystery: We shal not all slepe, but we shall all be chaunged, 52 and that sodenly and in the twinklynge of an eye, at the tyme of the last trompe. For the trompe shal blowe, and the deed shal ryse vncorruptible, and we shalbe chaunged.

53 For this corruptible must put on vncorruption, and this mortall must put on immortalite.

54 But whan this corruptible shal put on vncorruption, and this mortall shal put on immortalite, the shal the worde be fulfilled that is wrytte:

55 Death is swallowed vp in victory. Death, where is thy styng? Hell, where is yi victory?

56 The styng of death is synne: The strength of synne is the lawe.

57 But thanks be vnto God, which hath geue vs the victory thorow oure LORDE Iesus Christ.

58 Therefore my deare brethre, be ye stedfast, vnmoueable, & all waye riche in the worke of the LORDE, for as moch as ye knowe, that youre laboure is not in vayne in the LORDE.

Chapter 16

1 Concernynge the gadderynge that is made for the sayntes, as I haue ordeyned in the congregacions of Galacia, euen so do ye also.

2 Vpon some Sabbath daye let euery one of you put aside by him selfe, and laye vp what so euer he thinketh mete, that the colleccion be not to gather whan I come.

3 Whan I am come, whom so euer ye shal alowe by youre letters, the wyl I sende to brynge youre liberalite vnto Ierusalem.

4 Neuertheles yf it be mete that I go thither also, they shal go with me.

5 But I wil come vnto you, whan I go thorow Macedonia: for thorow Macedonia wyl I take my iourney.

6 With you peradueture wil I abyde, or els wynter, that ye maye brynge me on my waye, whither so euer I go.

7 I wyl not se you now in my passage, for I hope to abyde a whyle with you, yf the LORDE shal suffre me.

8 But I wil tary at Ephesus vntyll whitsontyde.

9 For a greate and frutefull dore is opened vnto me, and there are many aduersaries.

10 Yf Timotheus come, se that he be without feare with you, for he worketh ye worke of the, LORDE as I do.

11 Let no man therfore despise him, but conuaye him forth in peace, that he maye come vnto me, for I loke for him with the brethren.

12 As for brother Apollo, be ye sure, that I greatly desyred him to come vnto you with the brethre. And his mynde was not at all to come at this tyme, but he wyl come wha he hath oportunyte.

13 Watch ye, stonde fast in the faith, quyte you like men, and be stronge:

14 let all youre thinges be done in loue.

15 But brethren (ye knowe the house off Stephana, that they are the first frutes in Achaia, and that they haue appoynted the selues to mynister vnto the sayntes)

16 I exhorte you to be obedient vnto soche, and to all that helpe and laboure.

17 I am glad of the comynge of Stephana and Fortunatus, and Achaicus. For loke what was lackynge vnto me on youre parte, yt haue they suppleed:

18 they haue refreshed my sprete and youres. Knowe them therfore that are soch.

19 The congregacions of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you moch in the LORDE, and so doth the cogregacion that is in their house.

20 All the brethren salute you. Salute ye one another with an holy kysse.

21 The salutacion of me Paul wt myne awne hande.

22 Yf eny ma loue not the LORDE Iesus Christ, the same be Anathema Maharan Matha.

23 The grace of the LORDE Iesus Christ be with you.

24 My loue be with you all in Christ Iesu.

Amen.

2 CORINTHIANS

Chapter 1

1 Paul an Apostle of Iesu Christ, by the will of God, and brother Timotheus. Vnto the congregacion of God which is at Corinthu, with all the sayntes which are i all Achaia.

2 Grace be with you, and peace fro God oure father, and from the LORDE Iesus Christ.

3 Blessed be God the father of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, the father of mercy and ye God of all comforte,

4 which comforteth vs in all oure trouble: in so moch yt we are able to comforte them that are in eny maner of trouble, with the same comforte wher with we oure selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the affliccios of Christ are plenteous in vs, euen so is or cosolacion plenteous by Christ.

6 But whether we haue trouble or comforte, it is done for youre welth. Yf it be trouble, it is done for youre coforte and health, which health sheweth hir power, in that ye suffre the same affliccions which we suffre. Yf it be comforte, it is done also for youre comforte and health.

7 Therefore is oure hope fast for you, in as moch as we knowe, that, like as ye are partakers of the affliccios, so shal ye be partakers also of the consolacion.

8 Brethren we wolde not haue you ignoraunt of oure trouble, which happened vnto vs in Asia, for we were greued out off measure passynge strength, so that we euen dispard of life, 9 and had concluded in oure selues yt we must nedes dye. But this was done, because we shulde not put oure trust in oure selues, but in God, which rayseth vp the deed to life agayne:

10 which delyuered vs from so greate a death, and yet delyuereth daylie, On whom we trust, that he wil delyuer vs here after also,

11 by the helpe of youre prayer for vs that on oure behalfe many thanks maye be geuen by many personnes, for the gifte that is geuen vs.

12 For oure reioysinge is this, euen the testimony of oure conscience, that in synglenes & godly purenesse, not in fleshlye wyssdome, but in the grace of God, we haue had oure conuersacion in the worlde, but most of all with you.

13 For we wryte nothinge els vnto you, then that ye rede and also knowe. Yee & I trust that ye shal fynde vs vnto the ende, euen as ye haue founde vs partly.

14 For we are youre reioysinge, eue as ye also are oure reioysinge in ye daye of the LORDE Iesus.

15 And in this confidenc was I mynded the other tyme to come vnto you (that ye mighte haue yet another pleasure more)

16 & to passe by you in to Macedonia, & to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you & to be led forth to Iewrye warde of you.

17 Whan I thus wyse was mynded, dyd I vse lighthesse? Or are my thoughtes fleshly.? Not so but with me yee is yee, and nay is naye.

18 O faithfull God, that oure worde vnto you hath not bene yee and naye.

19 For Gods some Iesus Christ, which was preached amonge you by vs (namely, by me and Siluanus and Timotheus) was not yee and naye, but in him it was yee.

20 For all the promyses of God are yee in him, & are Ame in him, to the prayse of God by vs.

21 But it is God which stablysheth vs wt you in Christ, and hath anoynted us, 22 and sealed us, and geuen the earnest of the sprete in oure hertes.

23 Bvt I call God to recorde vnto my soule, that to fauoure you withall I came not agayne vnto Corinthum.

24 Not that we are lordes ouer youre faith, but we are helpers of youre ioye, for ye stonde in faith.

Chapter 2

1 But I determyned this wt my selfe, that I wolde not come agayne to you in heuynes.

2 For yf I make you sory, who is it that shal make me glad, but the same which is made sory by me?

3 And the same haue I wrytten vnto you, lest wha I come, I shulde take heuynes of them, of whom I oughte to reioyse: for somoch as I haue this confidence in you all, that my ioye is the ioye of you all.

4 For in greate trouble and anguysch of hert wrote I vnto you with many teares: not yt ye shulde be sory, but that ye mighte perceauē the loue, which I haue most specially vnto you.

5 But yf eny man haue caused sorowe, the same hath not made me sory, but partely, lest I shulde greue you all.

6 It is sufficient, that the same man is so rebuked of many,

7 so that from hence forth ye oughte the more to forgeue him and to comforte him, lest he be swallowed vp in ouer moch heuynesse.

8 Wherefore I exhorte you, that ye shewe loue vpo him.

9 For therfore dyd I wryte vnto you also, that I mighte knowe the profe of you, whether ye were obediet in all thinges.

10 But loke vnto who ye forgeue eny thinge, I forgeue hi also. For I also, yf I forgeue ought vnto eny ma, that forgeue I for youre sakes in the rowme of Christ, 11 lest we shulde be preuented of Sathan. For his thoughtes are not vnknowne vnto vs.

12 But wha I came to Troada to preach ye Gospell of Christ (and a dore was opened vnto me in ye LODRE)

13 I had no rest in my sprete, because I founde not Titus my brother: but I toke my leue of them, and wente awaye in to Macedonia.

14 Yet thankes be vnto God, which all waye geueth vs the victory in Christ, and openeth ye fauoure of his knowlege by vs in euery place.

15 For we are vnto God the good fauoure of Christ, both amonge the yt are sauēd, & amonge them yt perishe.

16 To these, ye sauoure of death vnto death: but vnto ye other, the sauoure of life vnto life. And who is mete therto?

17 For we are not as many are, which choppe & chaunge wt the worde of God, but eue out of purenesse, and out of God, in ye sighte of God, so speake we in Christ.

Chapter 3

1 Begynne we then agayne to prayse or selues? Or nede we (as some other) of pistles of commedacion vnto you or letters of commedacion from you?

2 Ye are oure epistle wrytten in oure hertes: which is vnderstonde and red of all me,

3 in that ye are knowne, how that ye are ye epistle of Christ, mynistrēd by vs, and wrytte, not with ynke, but with the sprete of the luyunge God: not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the hert.

4 Soch trust haue we thorow Christ to God warde,

5 not that we are sufficient of oure selues to thynke eny thinge, as of oure selues, but oure ablenesse commeth of God,

6 which hath made vs able, to be mynisters of the new Testament: not of the letter, but of the sprete. For the letter kylleth, but the sprete geueth life.

7 But yf the mynistracion yt kylleth thorow the letter, and was figured in stonēs, was glorious, so that the childe of Israel mighte not beholde the face of Moses, for ye clearnesse of his countenance, (which glory neuertheles is done awaye)

8 how shal not ye mynistracion of ye sprete be moch more glorious?

9 For yf the office that preacheth damnacion be glorious, moch more doth the office that preacheth righteousnes exceede in glory.

10 For ye other parte that was glorified is nothinge glorified in respecte of this exceedinge glory.

11 For yf that which is done awaye, be glorious, moch more shal yt which remayneth, be glorious.

12 Seynge then that we haue soch trust, we vse greate boldnesse,

13 and do not as Moses, which put a vayle before his face, so that ye children of Israel mighte not se the ende of it, that is done awaye.

14 But their myndes are blynded. For vnto this daye remayneth the same coueringe vntake awaye in the olde Testament, whan they rede it, which in Christ is put awaye.

15 But euen vnto this daye whan moyses is red, the vayle hangeth before their hertes:

16 Neuertheles wha they turne to the LORDE, the vayle shalbe taken awaye.

17 For the LORDE is a sprete: & where the sprete of the LORDE is, there is libertye.

18 But now the glory of ye LORDE apareth in vs all with open face, and we are chaunged into the same ymage, from one clearnes to another, eue as of the sprete of the LORDE.

Chapter 4

1 Therfore seyenge we haue soch an office (euen as mercy is come vpon vs) we faynte not,

2 but cast from vs the clokēs of vn honestye, and walke not in craftines: nether corruppe we the worde of God but open the trueth, and reporte oure selues to euery mans conscyence in the sighte of God.

3 Yf oure Gospell be yet hyd, it is hyd in them that are lost:

4 amonge whom the God of this worlde hath blynded ye myndes of them which beleue not, that ye lighte of the Gospell of the glory of Christ (which is the ymage of God) shulde not shyne vnto them.

5 For we preach not or selues, but Iesus Christ to be the LORDE, and oure selues youre seruauentes for Iesus sake.

6 For God that commaunded the light to shyne out of darcknesse, hath geuen a cleare shyne in oure hertes, yt by vs ye light of ye knowlege of the glory of God mighte come forth, in the face of Iesus Christ.

7 But this treasure haue we in earthen vessels, that ye power which excelleth might be of God, and not of vs.

8 We are troubled on euery syde, yet are we not without shift. We are in pouertie, but not vtterly without somewhat.

9 We are persecuted, but we are not forsaken. We are oppressed, neuertheles we perish not.

10 We allwayes beare aboute in oure body the dyenge of the LORDE Iesus yt the life also of the LORDE Iesus might appere in oure body.

11 For we which lyue, are alwayes deluyered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might appere in oure mortall flesh.

12 Therfore is death now mightie in vs, but life in you.

13 But seyenge that we haue the same sprete of faith (acordinge as it is wrytten: I beleued, and therfore haue I spoke.) we also beleue, & therfore we speake,

14 for we knowe that he, which raysed vp ye LORDE Iesus, shal rayse vs vp also by ye meanes of Iesus, and shal set vs with you.

15 For all thinges do I for youre sakes, that the pleteous grace by the thakesgeuyngē of many, maye redounde to the prayse of God.

16 Therfore are we not weery, but though or outwarde man be corrupte, yet the inwarde is renewed daye by daye.

17 For oure trouble, which is but temporall and lighte, worketh an exceedinge and an eternall weighte of glorye

18 vnto vs, which loke not on the thinges that are sene, but on them which are not sene. For ye thinges which are sene, are temporall: but the thinges that are not sene, are eternall.

Chapter 5

1 We knowe surely, yt yf oure earthy house of this dwellynge were destroyed, we haue a buyldyng ordeyned of God, an house not made with handes, but euerlastyngē in heauen.

2 And in the same sighe we also after oure masion, which is from heauen:

3 and longe to be clothed therwith, so yet, yf that we be founde clothed, and not naked.

4 For as longe as we are in this tabernacle, we sighe and are greued, for we had rather not be vnclodhed, but to be clothed vpon, that mortalite might be swallowed vp of life.

5 But he that hath ordeyned vs for this, is God, which hath geuen vs the earnest of the sprete.

6 Therfore are we allwaye of good cheare, and knowe, that as longe as we dwell here in the body, we are not at home with the LORDE:

7 for we walke in faith, and se him not.

8 Neuertheles we are of good comforte, and had leuer to be absent from the body, & to be at home with the LORDE.

9 Wherefore, whether we be at home or fro home, we endeouere oure selues to please him.

10 For we must all appeare before the iudgment seate of Christ, yt euery one maye receaue in his body, acordinge to yt he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Seynge then that we knowe, how that the LORDE is to be feared, we fare fayre with men, but we are knowne well ynough vnto God: I trust also, that we are knowne in youre consciences.

12 We prayse not oure selues agayne vnto you, but geue you an occasion to reioyse of vs, yt ye maye haue to reioyse agaynst them, which reioyse after the outwarde appearance, and not after the hert.

13 For yf we do to moch, we do it vnto God: yf we kepe measure, we do it for youre sakes.

14 For the loue of Christ constrayneth vs, in as moch as we thus iudge, that yf one be deed for all, then are all deed.

15 And therfore dyed he for all, that they which lyue, shulde not hence forth lyue vnto them selues, but vnto him, which dyed for them and rose agayne.

16 Therfore hence forth knowe we noman after ye flesh: and though we haue knowne Christ also after the flesh, yet knowe we him now so nomore.

17 Therfore yf eny man be in Christ, he is a new creature. Olde thinges are past awaye, beholde, all are become new.

18 Neuertheles all thinges are off God, which hath reconcyled vs vnto himselfe by Iesus Christ, and hath geuen vs the office to preach the attonement.

19 For God was in Christ, and reconcyled the worlde vnto himselfe, and counted not ther synnes vnto them, and amonge vs hath he set vp the worde of ye attonemet.
20 Now the are we messaungers in the rowme of Christ, euen as though God exhorted by vs. We beseke you now therfore in Christes steade, that ye be at one with God:

21 For he hath made him which knewe no synne, to be synne for vs, yt we by his meanes shulde be that righteousnes, which before God is allowed.

Chapter 6

1 We as helpers therfore exhorte you, that ye receaue not ye grace of God in vayne.

2 For he sayeth: I haue herde the in the tyme accepted, and in the daye of saluacion haue I succoured the. Beholde, now is the accepted tyme, now is the daye of saluacion.

3 Let vs geue no man occasion of euell, that our office be not euell spoken of:

4 but in all thinges let vs behaue oure selues as the mynisters of God: in moch pacience, in troubles, in necessities, in anguysshes,

5 in strypes, in presonmentes, in vproures, in laboures, in watchinges, in fastynges,

6 in purenesse, in knowlege, in longe sufferynge, in kyndnesse, in the holy goost, in loue vnfayned,

7 in the worde of the trueth, in the power of God, by the armour of righteousnes on the rightehande and on the lefte,

8 by honoure and dishonoure, by euell reporte and good reporte: as disceauers, & yet true:

9 as vnkowne, and yet knowne: as dyenge, and beholde, we lyue: as chastened, and not kylled:

10 as sorowyng, and yet allwaye mery: as poore, & yet make many riche: as hauyng nothinge, & yet possessyng all thinges.

11 O ye Corinthians, oure mouth is open vnto you, oure hert is made large.

12 Ye are in no straytnesse on oure behalfe: but where as ye are in straytnesse, that do ye of youre owne hertely meanyng.

13 I speake to you, as to childre, that haue like rewarde with vs.

14 Set youre selues therfore at large. Beare not a straunge yock with the vnbeleuers. For what fellowshipe hath righteousnes with vnrighteousnes? What company hath lighte wt darknesse?

15 How agreeth Christ with Belial? Or what parte hath the beleuer with the infydele?

16 How acordeth ye teple of God with ymages? Ye are the temple of the lyuyng God, as sayeth God: I wyl dwell in them, and walke in them, and wyl be their God, & they shalbe my people.

17 Wherefore come out from amoge them, and separate youre selues (sayeth the LORDE) and touche no vnclene thinge, so wyl I receaue you, 18 & be youre father, & ye shalbe my sonnes and doughters, sayeth ye Allmightie LORDE.

Chapter 7

1 Seynge now that we haue soch promyses (dearly beloued) let vs clense oureselues from all fylthynes of the flesh and sprete, and growe vp to full holynes in ye feare of God.

2 Vnderstode vs right. We haue hurte no ma, we haue corrupte no man, we haue defrauded no man.

3 I speake not this to codemme you, for I haue shewed you before, that ye are in oure hertes, to dye and to lyue wt you.

4 I am very bolde towarde you, I make moch boost of you, I am fylled with comforte, I am exceedyng ioyous in all oure tribulacion.

5 For whan we were come into Macedonia, oure flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on euery syde: outwarde was fightinge, inwarde was feare.

6 Neuertheles God that comforteth the abiecte, comforted vs by the comyng of Titus.

7 Not onely by his comyng, but also by the cosolacion wherwith he was coforted of you, whan he tolde vs yor desyre, youre wepyng, yor feruet mynde for me, so yt I now reioyse ye more.

8 For where as I made you sory by the letter, it repenteth me not, though I dyd repete. For I se, that the same epistle made you sory (though it were but for a ceason).

9 But now I reioyce, not that ye were sory, but that ye were sory to repentaunce. For ye sorowed godly, so that in nothinge ye were hurte by vs.

10 For godly sorowe causeth repentaunce vnto saluacion, not to be repented of: but worldly sorowe causeth death.

11 Beholde, where as ye haue had godly sorowe, what diligence hath it wrought in you? Yee a sufficiet answer, displeasure, feare, desyre, a feruet mynde, punyshment. For in all poyntes ye haue shewed youre selues, that ye are cleare in that matter.

12 Wherefore though I wrote vnto you, yet is it not done for his cause that dyd hurte, nether for his cause that was hurte, but that youre diligence (which ye haue for vs in the sighte of God) mighte be manifest wt you.

13 Therefore are we comforted, because ye are comforted: but exceedingly the more ioyed we, for the ioye of Titus, because his sprete was refreshed of you all.

14 I am therfore not now ashamed, though I boasted my selfe vnto him of you: but like as all is true that I haue spoke vnto you, euen so is oure boasting vnto Titus founde true also.

15 And his inwarde affeccion is more abundaunt towarde you, whan he remembreth the obedience of you all, how ye receaued him with feare and treblyng.

16 I reioyse, that I maye be bolde ouer you in all thinges.

Chapter 8

1 I do you to wit (brethren) the grace of God, which is geue in the congregacions of Macedonia.

2 For their reioysing was most abundaunt, whan they were tryed by moch trouble: & though they were exceedinge poore, yet haue they geue exceedinge richely, and that in syngleness.

3 For to their power (I beare recorde) yee and beyonde their power, they were wyllinge of their awne acorde,

4 and prayed vs with greate instaunce, that we wolde receaue their benefite and fellowshipe of the hadreachinge that is done for the sayntes:

5 And not as we loked for, but gaue ouer them selues first to the LODRE, and afterwarde vnto vs by ye wyl of God,

6 so that we coulde not but desyre Titus, that like as he had begonne afore he wolde euen so accomplish the same beniuolence amonge you.

7 Now as ye are riche in all poyntes, in faith and in worde, and in knowlege, and in all diligence, and in youre loue towarde vs, euen so se that ye be plenteous also in this beniuolence.

8 This I saye not as commaudyng, but seyng, other are so diligent, I proue youre loue also, whether it be perfecte or no.

9 For ye knowe the liberalite of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, which though he be riche, yet for youre sakes he became poore, yt ye thorow his pouerte mighte be made riche.

10 And my counsell herin I geue, for this is profitable for you, which haue begonne a yeaere ago, not onely to do, but also to wyl.

11 But now perfourme the dede also, that like as there is a ready mynde to wil, there maye be a ready mynde also to perfourme the dede of that which ye haue.

12 For yf there be a wyllinge mynde, it is accepted accordinge to that a man hath, not accordinge to that he hath not.

13 This is not done to the intent, that other shulde haue ease, and ye cobraunce, 14 but that it be a lyke. Let youre abundaunce sucker their lacke in this tyme off derth, that their abundaunce also hereafter maye supplee youre lacke, 15 that there maye be equalite. As it is wrytten: He yt gathered moch, had not the more: and he that gathered litle, wanted nothinge.

16 Thakes be vnto God, which put in the hert of Titus, the same diligence towarde you.

17 For he accepted the request in dede, yee he was rather so well wyllinge, that of his awne acorde, he came vnto you.

18 We haue sent with him that brother, whose praye is in the Gospell thorow out all the congregacions.

19 Not onely that, but he is chosen also of the congregacions, to be a felowe with vs in oure iourney, for this beniuolence that is mynistrd by vs vnto the prayse of the LORDE, and to stere vp youre prompte mynde,

20 and to bewarre, lest eny ma reporte euell of vs because of this plenteousnes, which is mynistrd by vs:

21 and therfore make ye prouision for honest thinges, not onely before the LORDE, but also before men.

22 We haue sent with them also a brother of oures, whom we haue oft proued diliget in many thinges, but now moch more diligent.

23 And this haue we done in greate hope towarde you, whether it be for Titus sake (which is my felowe and helper amonge you) or for oure brethre (which are Apostles of the cogregacions, & the prayse of Christ.)

24 Shewe now the profe off youre loue and off oure boastinge of you, vnto these, and opely in the sighte of the cogregacions.

Chapter 9

1 Of the handreachinge vnto ye sayntes, it is no nede for me to wryte vnto you:

2 for I knowe youre redynesse of mynde, wherof I boast my selfe amonge them of Macedonia, and saye: Achaia was ready a yeaere ago. And youre feruentnesse hath prouoked many.

3 Neuertheles yet haue we sent these brethren, lest oure reioysing ouer you shulde be in vayne in this behalfe, that ye mighte be ready, as I haue reported of you:

4 lest whan they of Macedonia come with me, and fynde you vnprepared, we (I wyl not saye ye) shulde be ashamed in this presumpcion of boastinge.

5 Wherefore I thoughte it necessary to exhorte the brethren, to come before hande vnto you, for to prepare this blessinge promysed afore, that it mighte be ready, so that it be a blessinge, and not a defraudyng.

6 This I thinke: that he which soweth litle, shal reape litle also: and he yt soweth plenteously, shal likewise reape plenteously,

7 euery one acordyng as he hath purposed in his hert, not grudgingly, or of compulsion. For God loueth a chearfull geuer.

8 God is able to make you riche in all grace, yt ye in all thinges hauyng sufficiet to the vttemost, maye be riche to all maner of good workes.

9 As it is wrytte: He hath sparsed abroad & geue to ye poore, his righteousnes remayneth for euer.

10 He that geueth sede vnto the sower, shal mynistr bred also for fode, and shal multiplye youre sede, and increase the frutes of yor righteousness,

11 that in all thinges ye maye be made riche vnto all singleness, which causeth thorow vs, thankesgeuynge vnto God.

12 For the hadreachinge of this colleccion not onely suppleeth the nede off the sayntes, but also is abudaunt herin, that for this laudable mynistracion many mighte geue thakes vnto God,

13 and prayse God for yor obedient professynge of the Gospell of Christ, & for yor syngleness in distributyng vnto the, and to all men,

14 and in their prayer for you, which longe after you, for the abudaunt grace of God in you.

15 Thankes be vnto God for his vnoutspeakeable gifte.

Chapter 10

1 I Paul my selfe beseke you by the mekenesse and softnesse off Christ, which when I am present amonge you, am of small reputacion, but am bolde towarde you beyng absent.

2 I beseke you that I nede not be bolde whan I am present, & to vse yt boldnesse wherwith I am supposed to be bolde, agaynst some, which repute vs as though we walked after ye flesh:

3 for though we walke in the flesh, yet fighte we not after a fleshly maner.

4 For the wapens of oure warre are not fleshly, but mightie before God to cast downe stroge holdes,

5 wherwith we ouerthrowe ymaginacions, & euery hie thinge yt exalteth it selfe agaynst the knowlege of God, and brynge in to captiuyte all vnderstandinge to the obedience of Christ,

6 & are ready to take vengeance on all disobedience, whan youre obediece is fulfilled.

7 Loke ye on thinges after ye vtter apperaunce? Yf eny man trust of himselfe yt he is Christes, let him thinke this also by himselfe, yt like as he is Christes, eue so are we Christes also.

8 And though I shulde boast my selfe somewhat more of oure auctorite which ye LORDE hath geue vs to edifye and not to destroye, it shulde not be to my shame.

9 This I saye, lest I shulde seme, as though I wente aboute to make you afrayed with letters.

10 For the pistles (saye they) are sore and stronge, but his bodely presence is weake, and his speache rude.

11 Let him yt is soche, thinke on this wyse, that as we are in worde by letters wha we are absente, soch are we also in dede whan we are present.

12 For we darre not reken or compare oure selues, vnto some that prayse them selues: Neuertheles whyle they measure them selues by them selues, and holde onely of them selues, they vnderstonde nothinge.

13 Howbeit we wil not boast or selues aboue measure, but onely accordinge to the measure of the rule, wherwith God hath distributed vnto vs the measure to reach euen vnto you.

14 For we stretche not or selues to farre as though we had not reached vnto you. For euen vnto you haue we come with the Gospell of Christ,

15 and boast not oure selues out of measure in other mens laboures: Yee and we hope whan youre faith is increased in you, that we wil come farther (acordinge to oure measure)

16 and preach the Gospell vnto them that dwell beyonde you, and not to reioyse in that, which is prepared with another mans measure.

17 Let him that reioyseth, reioyse in the LORDE:

18 for he yt prayseth him selfe, is not allowed, but he who ye LORDE prayseth.

Chapter 11

1 Wolde God ye coulde suffre me a litle in my foloshnes, yet do ye forbear me.

2 For I am gelous ouer you wt godly gelously. For I haue maried you vnto one ma, to brynge a chaste virgin vnto Christ.

3 But I feare, lest as ye serpet begyled Eue wt his sotteltie, eue so yor wyttes shulde be corrupte from the syngleness that is in Christ.

4 For yf he that commeth vnto you, preach another Iesus, whom we haue not preached, or yf ye receaue another sprete, yt ye haue not receaued, or another Gospell which ye haue not accepted, ye might right well haue bene cotent.

5 For I suppose that I am no lesse the the hie Apostles are.

6 And though I be rude in speakynge, yet am I not rude in knowlege. Howbeit amoge you I am knowne to the vttemost.

7 Or dyd I synne therin because I submytted my selfe, that ye mighte be exalted? For I preached vnto you the Gospell of God frely,

8 and robbed other cogregacions, and toke wages of the, to preach vnto you.

9 And whan I was present with you, and had nede, I was greuous to no man: for yt which was lackynge vnto me, the brethren which came fro Macedonia, supplied. And in all thinges I kepte myselfe so, yt I shulde not be greuous to you, & so wyl I kepe my selfe.

10 As surely as the trueth of Christ is in me, this reioysinge shal not be taken fro me in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherfore? because I shulde not loue you? God knoweth.

12 Neuertheles what I do and wyl do, that do I to cut away occasion, from the which seke occasion, that they mighte boast the selues to be like vnto vs.

13 For soch false Apostles & disceatfull workers fashion them selues like vnto the Apostles of Christ.

14 And that is no maruell: for Sathan himfelfe is chaunged in to ye fashion of an angell of light.

15 Therefore is it no greate thinge, though his mymisters fashion them selues as though they were the preachers of righteousnes, whose ende shalbe accordinge to their dedes.

16 I saye agayne, lest eny man thynke that I am folish: or els take me euen now as a fole, yt I maye boast my selfe a litle also.

17 That I speake now, that speake I not after the LORDE, but as it were in folishnes, whyle we are now come to boastinge:

18 Seynge that many boaste them selues after ye flesh, I wil boast my selfe also.

19 For ye suffre foles gladly, in so moch as ye youre selues are wyse.

20 For ye suffre euen yf a man brynge you in to bondage, yf a man put you to dishonesty, yf a man take ought fro you, yf a man exalte himselfe ouer you, yf a man smyte you on the face.

21 I speake concernynge rebuke, as though we were weake. Wherin so euer now eny man darre be bolde (I speake folishly) therin darre I be bolde also.

22 They are Hebrues, so am I. They are Israelites, euen so am I. They are the sede of Abraham, so am I.

23 They are the mynisters of Christ (I speake as a fole) I am more: in laboures more abudaunt, in strypes aboue measure, in presonmentes more plenteously, in death oft.

24 Of the Iewes receaued I fyue tymes fortye strypes, one lesse.

25 Thyryse was I beaten with rodde. I was once stoned, I suffred thyryse shypwracke: nighte and daye haue I bene in the depe of the see:

26 I haue oft iourneyed: I haue bene oft in parel of waters, in parel amonge murthurers, in parel amonge the Iewes, in parel amonge the Heythen, in parel in cities, in parel in the wylderners, in parel vpon the See, in parel amonge false brethre,

27 in labour & trauayle, in moch watchinges, in honger and thyrst, in moch fastinges in colde and nakednesse:

28 Besyde those thynges which are outwarde, namely my daylie combraunce, my daylie care for all cogregacions.

29 Who is weake, and I be not weake? Who is offended, & I burne not?

30 Yf I must nedes make my boast, I wil boast my selfe of myne infirmyte.

31 God ye father of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, which is blessed for euer, knoweth that I lye not.

32 At Damascon the gouernoure of ye people vnder kyng Aretas, kepte ye cite of the Damascenes, & wolde haue taken me.

33 and at a wyndowe was I let downe in a basket thorow the wall, & so escaped his handes.

Chapter 12

1 It profiteth me nothinge (no doute) to boaste. Neuertheles I wil come to ye visions and reuelacions off the LORDE.

2 I knowe a man in Christ aboue fourtene yeares a goo (whether he was in ye body, I can not tell: or whether he was out of the body, I can not tell, God knoweth.) the same was taken vp in to the thirde heauen:

3 and I knowe the same man (whether he was in ye body or out of the body, I can not tell, God knoweth)

4 how that he was take vp in to Paradise, and herde wordes not to be spoken, which no man can vtter.

5 Here of will I boast, but of my selfe wil I make no boast, excepte it be of myne infirmities.

6 And though I wolde boast my selfe, I dyd not foolishly, for I wolde saye the trueth. But I refrayne my selfe, lest eny ma shulde thinke of me aboute yt he seyth in me, or heareth of me.

7 And lest I shulde exalte my selfe out of measure because of the hie reuelacions, there is a warnynge geuen vnto my flesh, euen ye messaunger of Satan, to buffet me, that I shulde not exalte my selfe out off measure:

8 for ye which I besoughte the LORDE thyryse, that it mighte departe fro me.

9 And he sayde vnto me: My grace is sufficet for the. For my strength is made perfecte thorow weaknes. Very glad therfore wil I reioyse in my weaknesses, that the strength of Christ maye dwell in me.

10 Therefore am I contente in infirmities, in rebukes, in necessities, in persecucions, in anguysshes for Christes sake: for wha I am weake, the am I stroge.

11 I am become a fole i boastinge my selfe: Ye haue copelled me. For I oughte to be comended of you, in so moch as I am in nothinge inferior to ye hie Apostles. Though I be nothinge, 12 yet are ye tokens of an Apostle wrought amoge you, with all paciece, with signes, & with woders & with mightie dedes.

13 For what is it, wherin ye are inferiours to the other cogregacions? excepte it be yt I haue not bene greuous vnto you. Forgeue me this wroge.

14 Beholde, I am ready the thirde tyme to come vnto you, and wyl not be chargeable vnto you. For I seke not youre, but you. For ye childre ought not to gather treasure for the elders, but the elders for the children.

15 I wil very gladly bestowe, and wyl be bestowd for youre soules: though ye more I loue you, the lesse am I loued agayne.

16 But let it be so that I greued you not, neuertheles for so moch as I was craftye, I toke you wt gyle.

17 Haue I defrauded you by eny of the, who I sent vnto you?

18 I desyred Titus, & with him I sent a brother: dyd Titus defraude you? Haue we not walked in one sprete? Wete we not in like fotesteppes?

19 Agayne, thynke ye yt we excuse oure selues? We speake in Christ in the sighte off God. But all this (dearly beloued) is done for yor edifyenge.

20 For I feare, lest whan I come, I shal not fynde you soch as I wolde: and lest ye shal fynde me soch as ye wolde not: lest there be amonge you, debates, envyenges, wrathes, stryunges, bacbytinges, whysperinges, swellinges, vproures:

21 lest whan I come agayne, God bringe me lowe amoge you & lest I be constrayned to bewaile many of the yt haue synned before, & haue not repented ouer ye vnclennesse and whordome, and wantonnes, which they haue comytted.

Chapter 13

1 Now come I the thirde tyme vnto you. In the mouth of two or thre witnesses shal euery matter be stablissed.

2 I haue tolde you before, & tell you before as present ye seconde tyme, & wryte it now beyng absent, vnto the which in tyme passed haue synned, & to all other: & yf I come agayne, I wil not spare,

3 seynge that ye seke experiece of him, which speaketh in me, euen Christ, which amonge you is not weake, but is mightie amoge you.

4 And though he was crucified in weaknes, yet lyueth he in the power of God. And though we are weake in him, yet lyue we with him in the power of God amonge you.

5 Proue youre selues, whether ye are in the faith, exame youre selues. Or knowe ye not yor selues, yt Iesus Christ is in you? Excepte ye be cast awayes.

6 But I trust ye knowe, yt we are not cast awayes.

7 I desyre before God yt ye do no euell: not yt we shulde seme comendable, but yt ye shulde do yt which is good, & let vs be as cast awayes.

8 For we maye do nothinge agaynst ye trueth, but for ye trueth.

9 We are glad whan we are weake, & ye stronge: & the same also we wysshe for, namely yor perfectnesse.

10 Therefore wryte I these thinges beyng absent, lest wha I am present, I shulde vse sharpnesse, acordinge to the power which the LORDE hath geue me to edifye, and not to destroye.

11 Fynally brethren, reioyse, be perfecte, coforte yor selues, be of one mynde, be peaceable, and the God of loue and peace shalbe wt you.

12 Salute one another with an holy kysse.

13 All the sayntes salute you.

14 The grace of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, & the loue of God, and the fellishippe of ye holy goost be with you all. Amen.

GALATIANS

Chapter 1

1 Paul an Apostle (not of men, nor by ma, but by Iesus Christ & by God the father, which rayssed him vp fro ye deed)

2 & all the brethren which are wt me. Vnto the cogregacios in Galacia.

3 Grace be with you, and peace fro God the father, and oure LORDE Iesus Christ,

4 which gaue him selfe for oure synnes, that he mighte delyuer vs from this present euell worlde, acordinge to the wyll of God oure father,

5 to whom be prayse for euer and euer. Amen.

6 I maruell yt ye are so soone turned (from him that called you in the grace of Christ) vnto another Gospell:

7 which is nothinge els, but that there be some, which trouble you, and intende to peruerte the Gospell of Christ.

8 Neuertheles though we oure selues, or an angell from heaue preach vnto you eny other Gospel, the yt which we haue preached vnto you, the same be acursed.

9 As we haue sayde afore, so saye we now agayne: Yf eny ma preach vnto you eny other thinge, the yt ye haue receaued, ye same be acursed.

10 Preach I men now or God? Or go I aboute to please men? Yf I shulde yet please men, I were not the seruaunt of Christ.

11 But I certifye you brethren, yt the Gospell which is preached of me, is not of men.

12 For I nether receaued it ner lerned it of ma, but by the reuelacion of Iesus Christ.

13 For ye haue herde of my conuersacion afore tyme in the Ieweshippe, how that beyode measure I persecuted the cogregacion of God, and spoyled it,

14 and preuayled in the Ieweshippe aboue many of my companions in my nacion, & was a moch more feruent manteyner of the tradicions of the fathers.

15 But whan it pleased God which separated me fro my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace,

16 for to declare his sonne in me, that I shulde preach him thorow the Gospell amonge the Heythen, immediatly I commened not of the matter with flesh and bloude:

17 nether came I to Ierusalem vnto them which were Apostles before me: but wente my wayes in to Arabia, and came agayne to Damascon.

18 Then after thre yere I came to Ierusalem to se Peter, and abode with him fyftene dayes.

19 As for the other Apostles, I sawe none of them, saue Iames the LORDES brother.

20 The thinges that I wryte vnto you, beholde, God knoweth, I lye not.

21 After that wente I in to the coastes of Syria and Celicia:

22 but of face I was vnknowne to ye Christen congregacions in Iewrye.

23 Neuertheles they had herde onely, that: He that persecuted vs in tyme passed, preacheth now ye faith which some tyme he destroyed:

24 and they prayssed God in me.

Chapter 2

1 Then after fourtene yeaes, I wente vp agayne to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and toke Titus with me also.

2 But I wente vp by reuelacion, and commened with the of ye Gospell, which I preach amonge the Heythe: but specially with the which were in reputacion, lest I shulde runne or had runne in vayne.

3 But Titus which was also with me, was not compelled to be circucysed, though he was a Greke:

4 and that because of certayne incommers beyng false brethren, which came in amoge other, to spye out oure libertye, which we haue in Christ Iesus, that they mighte bryng vs in to bondage:

5 To whom we gaue no rowme, no not for the space of an houre, as concernyng to be broughte in to subieccion: yt the trueth of the Gospell mighte comytinue with you.

6 As for the that semed to be greate, what they were in tyme passed, it maketh no matter to me. For God loketh not on the outwarde apperaunce of men. Neuertheles they which semed greate, taught me nothinge:

7 but contrary wyse, whan they sawe that the Gospell ouer the vncircumcision was comytted vnto me, as ye Gospell ouer ye circumcision was comytted vnto Peter.

8 (For he yt was mightie with Peter to the Apostleshippe ouer the circumcision, the same was mightie with me also amonge the Heythen)

9 they perceaued the grace that was geuen vnto me. Iames and Cephas and Ihon, which semed to be pilers, gaue me and Barnabas ye righte handes, and agreed with vs, that we shulde preach amonge the Heythe, and they amonge the Iewes:

10 onely that we shulde remembre the poore, which thinge also I was diligent to do.

11 But wha Peter was come to Antioche, I withstode him in ye face: for he was worthy to be blamed.

12 For afore there came certayne from Iames, he ate with the Heythe. But wha they were come, he withdrue and separated himselfe, fearinge the which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Iewes dyssembled with him likewyse, in so moch yt Barnabas was brought in to their symulacion also.

14 But whan I sawe that they walked not right after ye trueth of the Gospell, I sayde vnto Peter openly before all: Yf thou beyng a Iewe, lyuest after the maner of the Gentyles, and not as do the Iewes, why causest thou the Gentyles then to lyue as do the Iewes?

15 Though we be Iewes by nature, and not synners of the Gentyles,

16 yet (in so moch as we knowe, that a man is not made righteous by the dedes off the lawe, but by the faith on Iesus Christ) we haue beleued also on Iesus Christ, yt we might be made righteous by the faith of Christ, and not by the dedes of the lawe, because that by the dedes of the lawe no flesh shal be iustified.

17 Yf we then which seke to be made righteous by christ, shulde be yet founde synners or selues, is not Christ then the mynister of synne? God forbyd.

18 For yf I buylde agayne yt which I haue destroyed, then make I my selfe a trespasser.

19 But I thorow the lawe am deed vnto the lawe, that I might lyue vnto God.

20 I am crucified with Christ, yet do I lyue: neuerthelesse now not I, but Christ lyueth in me. For ye life which I now lyue in ye fleshe, I lyue in the faith of ye sonne of God which loued me, and gaue himselfe for me.

21 I cast not awaye the grace of God. For yf righteousnes come by the lawe, then dyed Christ in vayne.

Chapter 3

1 O ye folishe Galathias, who hath bewitched you, that ye shulde not beleue the trueth? To who Iesus Christ was descrybed before the eyes and amonge you crucified.

2 This onely wolde I lerne of you: Receaued ye the sprete by the dedes of the lawe, or by the preachinge of the faith?

3 Are ye so vnwyse? Ye beganne in the sprete, wolde ye ende now the in the flesh?

4 Haue ye suffred so moch in vayne? Yf it be els in vayne.

5 He that geueth you the sprete, and doth soch greate actes amoge you, doth he it thorow the dedes of the lawe, or by ye preachinge of the faith?

6 Euen as Abraha beleued God, and it was counted vnto him for righteousnes.

7 Thus ye knowe, that they which are of faith, are Abrahams children.

8 The scripture sawe afore hade, that God iustifieth the Heythen thorow faith. Therefore shewed it glad tydinges afore vnto Abraham, and sayde: In the shal all the Heythen be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithfull Abraham.

10 For as many as go aboute with the workes of the lawe, are vnder ye curse: For it is wrytte: Cursed be euery man, which cotynueth not in all thinges that are wrytte in the boke of the lawe, to do them.

11 That no man is iustified by the lawe in the sighte of God, it is euydet: For ye iust shal lyue by his faith.

12 The lawe is not of faith, but the ma that doth ye same, shal lyue therin.

13 But Christ hath delyuered vs from ye curse of the lawe, whan he became a curse for vs. (For it is wrytte: Cursed is euery man that hangeth on tre)

14 yt the blessinge of Abraham mighte come on the Gentyles in Christ Iesu, and yt we might so receaue ye promysed sprete, thorow faith.

15 Brethren, I wil speake after the maner of men. Though it be but a mas Testamet, yet no man despyseth it, or addeth eny thinge therto, whan it is confirmed.

16 To Abraham and his sede were the promyses made. He sayeth not: In the sedes, as in many, but in thy sede, as in one, which is Christ.

17 This Testament (I saye) which afore was confirmed to Christ warde, is not disannulled (that the promes shulde be made of none affecte) by the lawe which was geuen beyonde foure hundreth & thirtie yeares thereafter.

18 For yf the enheritaunce be gotten by the lawe, then is it not geuen by promes. But God gauē it frely vnto Abraham by promes.

19 Wherefore the serueth the lawe? It was added because of trangression, tyll the sede came, to the which the promes was made. And it was geuen of angels, by the hande of the mediatoure.

20 A mediatour is not a mediatour of one onely, but God is one.

21 Is the lawe then agaynst the promyses of God? God forbyd. Howbeit yf there had bene geuen a lawe which coulede haue geue life, the no doute righteousnes shulde come of the lawe.

22 But ye scripture hath shut vp all vnder synne, that ye promes shulde come by the faith on Iesus Christ, geue vnto the that beleue.

23 Before faith came, we were kepte and shut vp vnder the lawe, vnto the faith which shulde afterwarde be declared.

24 Thus ye lawe was of scolemaster vnto Christ, that we might be made righteous by faith.

25 But now that faith is come, we are nomore vnder the scolemaster.

26 For ye all are the children of God by the faith in Christ Iesu.

27 For as many of you as are baptyseed, haue put on Christ.

28 Here is nether Iewe ner Greke: here is nether bode ner fre: here is nether man ner woman, for ye are all one in Christ Iesu.

29 Yf ye be Christes, the are ye Abrahams sede and heyres acordinge to the promes.

Chapter 4

1 But I saye: As longe as the heyre is a childe, there is no difference betwene him and a seruaunt, though he be lorde of all ye goodes:

2 but he is vnder tuters and gouerners, vntyll the tyme appoynted of the father.

3 Euen so we also, wha we were children, were in bondage vnder the outwarde tradicions.

4 But whan the tyme was fulfilled, God sent his sonne, borne of a woma, and put vnder the lawe,

5 to redeme them which were vnder the lawe, that we mighte receaue ye childshipp.

6 For so moch the as ye are children, God hath sent the sprete of his sonne in to oure hertes, which cryeth: Abba, deare father.

7 Wherefore now, thou art not a seruaunt, but a sonne. Yf thou be a sonne, then art thou the heyre of God thorow Christ.

8 Notwithstandinge whan ye knewe not God, ye dyd seruyce vnto them, which by nature are no Goddes.

9 But now seyng ye knowe God (yee rather are knowne off God) how is it that ye turne you backe agayne vnto the weake and beggerly tradicions, wher vnto ye desyre agayne afresh to be in bondage?

10 Ye obserue dayes and monethes, and tymes and yeares.

11 I am in feare of you, lest I haue bestowed labour on you in vayne.

12 Brethre I beseke you, be ye as I am, for I am as ye are. Ye haue not hurte me at all.

13 For ye knowe how that in weaknes after ye flesh I preached ye Gospell vnto you at the first:

14 and my tentacion which I suffred after the flesh, ye despysed not, nether abhorred, but receaued me as an angell of God, yee euen as Christ Iesus.

15 How happy were ye then? For I beare you recorde, that yf it had bene possible, ye had plucked out youre awne eyes, and geue them vnto me.

16 Am I therfore become yor enemy, because I tell you ye trueth?

17 They are gelous ouer you amysse. Yee they wolde make you to fall backe, that ye might be feruet to the warde.

18 It is good to be feruent, so yt it be allwaye in a good thinge, and not onely whan I am present wt you.

19 My litle children (of whom I trauallye in byrth agayne, vntyll Christ be fashioned in you)

20 I wolde I were wt you now, and coulede change my voyce, for I stode i doute of you.

21 Tell me ye that wylbe vnder the lawe, haue ye not herde the lawe?

22 For it is wrytten, that Abraham had two sonnes the one by a bonde mayde, the other by a fre woman.

23 As for him that was of the bode mayde, he was borne after ye flesh: but he which was of the fre woman, was borne by promes.

24 These wordes betoken somewhat. For these wemen are the two Testaments: The one from the mount Sina, that gendreth vnto bondage, which is Agar.

25 For Agar is called in Arabia ye mount Sina, and reacheth vnto Ierusalem which now is, and is in bondage with hir children.

26 But Ierusalem that is aboue, is the fre woman, which is the mother of vs all.

27 For it is wrytte: Reioyse thou baren, that bearest no childe: breake forth and crye thou yt trauallyest not, for the desolate hath many mo childe, then she which hath an hussbande.

28 As for vs (brethren) we are the children of Isaac acordinge to the promes.

29 But like as at that tyme, he that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him yt was borne after the sprete, euen so is it now also.

30 But what sayeth the scripture? Put awaye the bonde mayden and hir sonne: for the sonne of ye bondmayde shal not be heyre with ye sonne of the fre woman.

31 So now brethren, we are not children of the bonde mayde, but of the fre woman.

Chapter 5

1 Stonde fast therfore in the libertye wherwith Christ hath made vs fre, and be not wrapped agayne in the yocke off bondage.

2 Beholde, I Paul saye vnto you: Yf ye be circumcysed, Christ profiteth you nothinge at all.

3 I testifye agayne vnto euery man which is circumcysed, that he is bounde to kepe the whole lawe.

4 Ye are gone quyte from Christ, as many off you as wylbe made righteous by the lawe, and are fallen from grace.

5 But we wayte in the sprete off hope, to be made righteous by faith.

6 For in Christ Iesu nether is circumcision eny thinge worth ner vncircumcision, but faith which by loue is mightie in operacion.

7 Ye ranne well, who was a let vnto you, that ye shulde not obeye the trueth?

8 Soch counsell is not of him that hath called you.

9 A litle leuen sowreth the whole lompe of dowe.

10 I haue trust towarde you in ye LORDE, that ye wylbe none otherwyse mynded. But he that troubleth you, shal beare his iudgment, what so euer he be.

11 Brethren yf I yet preach circumcision, why do I suffre persecucion? then had the slaunders off the crosse ceased.

12 Wolde God they were roted out from amoge you, which trouble you.

13 But brethre, ye are called vnto liberty, onely let not youre libertie be an occasion vnto the flesh, but by loue serue one another.

14 For all the lawe is fulfilled in one worde, namely in this: loue thy neyghboure as thy selfe.

15 But yf ye byte and deuoure one another, take hede, that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 I saye: Walke in the sprete, and so shal ye not fulfill the lustes off the flesshe.

17 For the flesh lusteth agaynst the sprete, and the sprete agaynst the flesh. These are contrary one to the other, so that ye can not do that which ye wolde: 18 But and yf ye be led of the sprete, then are ye not vnder the lawe.

19 The dedes of ye flesh are manifest, which are these: Aduoutrye, whordome, vnclenes, wantanes,

20 Idolatrye, witchcraft, hatred, variaunce, zele, wrath, stryfe, sedicion, sectes,

21 envyenge, murthur, dronkennes, glotony, and soch like: of the which I tell you before, as I haue tolde you in tyme past, that they which commytte soch, shal not inheret the kyngdome of God.

22 But the frute of the sprete, is loue, ioye, peace, longe sufferinge, getlenes, goodnesse, faithfulness,

23 mekenesse, teperauce, Agaynst soch is not ye lawe:

24 But they that are Christes, haue crucified their flesh, with the lustes and desyres.

25 Yf we lyue in the sprete, let vs walke also in the sprete.

26 Let vs not be wayne glorious, prouokinge one another, and envyenge another.

Chapter 6

1 Brethren, Yf eny ma be ouertaken of a faute, ye which are spirituall, enfourme him with a meke sprete: and considre thine owne selfe, that thou also be not tempted.

2 Beare ye one anothers burthe, and so shal ye fulfill the lawe of Christ.

3 But yf eny man thinke himselfe to be somewhat (whan in dede he is nothinge) the same disceaueth himselfe.

4 Let euery man proue his owne worke, and the shal he haue reioysing in his awne selfe, and not in another.

5 For euery one shal beare his owne burthen.

6 But let him that is taughte with the worde, mynister in all good thinges, vnto him that teacheth him.

7 Be not disceaued, God wil not be mocked. For what soeuer a man soweth, that shal he reape.

8 He that soweth vpon the flesh, shal of the flesh reape destruction: But he that soweth vpon ye sprete, shal of the sprete reape life euerlastinge.

9 Let vs not be weery of well doynge: for wha the tyme is come, we shal reape without ceasinge.

10 Whye we haue tyme therfore, let vs do good vnto all men but specially vnto the which are of ye housholde of faith.

11 Beholde, with how many wordes I haue wrytten vnto you with myne awne hande.

12 They that wil please in the flesh, constrayne you to be circumcysed, onely lest they shulde be persecuted with the crosse of Christ.

13 For eue they them selues which are circumcysed, kepe not the lawe, but wolde haue you circucysed, that they mighte reioyse in youre flesh.

14 But God forbyd that I shulde reioyse, saue onely in the crosse of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, wherby the worlde is crucified vnto me, and I vnto the worlde. 15 For in Christ Iesu nether circucision awayleth eny thinge, ner vncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walke acordinge to this rule, peace and mercy be vpon the, and vpon Israel of God.

17 From hence forth let no man put me to busynesse, for I beare in my body the markes of the LORDE Iesu.

18 Brethren, the grace of oure LORDE Iesu Christ be with youre sprete Amen.

EPHESIANS

Chapter 1

1 Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ by the will of God. To ye sayntes which are Ephesus, & to the that beleue on Iesus Christ.

2 Grace be with you and peace from God oure father, & fro the LORDE Iesus Christ.

3 Blessed be God the father of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, which hath blessed vs wt all maner of spirituall blessynge in heauenly thynges by Christ

4 acordinge as he had chosen vs by him, or euer the foundation of the worlde was layed, that we shulde be holy and without blame before him in loue,

5 & ordeyned vs before, to receaue vs as children thorow Iesus Christ, acordinge to the pleasure of his will,

6 vnto the prayse of the glory of his grace, wherby he hath made vs accepted in the Beloued,

7 in whom we haue redempcion thorow his bloude (namely) the forgeuenes of synnes, acordynge to ye riches of his grace,

8 which he hath shed vpon vs abundantly in all wysdome and prudece:

9 and hath opened vnto vs the mystery of his wil acordinge to his pleasure, which he had purposed in himselfe,

10 yt it shulde be preached wha the tyme was full come, that all thynges shulde be gathered together by Christ, both the thynges which are in heauen, and also the thynges that are vpon earth,

11 euen by him, by whom also we are come to the inheritaunce we that were therto predestinate before, acordinge to ye purpose of him, which worketh all thynges after ye counsell of his owne will,

12 that we mighte be to the prayse of his glory, euen we that before beleued on Christ,

13 on who also ye beleued, after that ye herde the worde of trueth, namely ye Gospell of youre saluacion: wherin whan ye beleued, ye were sealed with the holy sprete of promes,

14 which is the earnest of oure inheritaunce to oure redempcion, that we mighte be his owne to the prayse off his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, (in so moch as I haue herde of the faith which ye haue in ye LORDE Iesu, and of youre loue vnto all ye sayntes)

16 ceasse not to geue thanks for you, and make mencion of you in my prayers,

17 that ye God of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, the father of glory maye geue vnto you the sprete of wysdome, and open vnto you the knowlege of himselfe,

18 and lighten the eyes of youre vnderstandinge, that ye maye knowe what is the hope of youre callinge, and what the riches of his glorious enheritaunce is vpon the sayntes,

19 & what is the exceadinge greatnesse of his power towarde vs, which beleue acordinge to ye workynge of his mightie power,

20 which he wroughte in Christ, whan he raysed him vp fro the deed, and set him on his righte hade i heauey things,

21 aboue all rule, power, and mighte, and dominacio, and aboue all that maye be named, not onely in this worlde, but also in ye worlde to come.

22 And hath put all thynges vnder his fete, and hath made him aboue all thynges the heade of the cogregacion, 23 which is his body, and the fulnesse of him that fylleth all in all.

Chapter 2

1 And quyckened you also, whan ye were deed thorow trespases and synnes,

2 in the which in tyme past ye walked, acordinge to the course off this worlde, and after the prynce that ruleth in the ayre namely, after ye sprete, which now worketh in the children of vnbeleue,

3 amonge whom we also had oure conuersacion in tyme past in the lustes of oure flesh, and dyd the wyll of the flesh and of the mynde, and were naturally the children of wrath, euen as well as other.

4 But God which is riche in mercy thorow his greate loue wherwith he loued vs

5 eue wha we were deed in synnes, hath quyckened vs in Christ (for by grace are ye saued)

6 and hath raysed vs vp with him, and set vs with him in heauey thynges thorow Christ Iesus,

7 yt in tymes to come he mighte shewe the exceadinge riches of his grace, in kyndnesse to vs warde in Christ Iesu.

8 For by grace are ye saued thorow faith, and that not of youre selues, For it is ye gifte of God, 9 not of workes, lest eny ma shulde boast him selfe.

10 For we are his workmanshippe, created in Christ Iesu vnto good workes, to ye which God ordeyned vs before, that we shulde walke in them.

11 Wherefore remebre, that ye (which afore tyme were Gentyles after the flesh, and were called vn circumcicion, of the that are called circumcicion after the flesh, which circumcicion is made with the hande)

12 that ye at the same tyme were without Christ, and reputed aleauntes from the comen welth of Israel, and were straungers from the Testamentes of promes, therefore had ye no hope, and were without God in this worlde.

13 But now ye that be in Christ Iesu, and afore tyme were farre of, are now made nye by the bloude of Christ.

14 For he is or peace, which of both hath made one, and hath broken downe the wall, that was a stoppe betwene vs,

15 and hath also thorow his flesh put awaye the cause off hatred (namely the lawe of the commaundemetes contayned in the lawe wrytten) that of twayne he mighte create one new man in him selfe, and make peace,

16 and to reconcyle both vnto God in one body thorow the crosse, and so he slewe ye hatred thorow his owne selfe,

17 and came and preached peace in the Gospell, vnto you which were afarre of, and to the that were nye.

18 For thorow him we both haue intrauce in one sprete vnto the father.

19 Now therefore ye are nomore gestic and straungers, but citesins with the sayntes, & of the housholde of God,

20 buylded vpon ye foundation of ye Apostles and prophetes where Iesus Christ is ye heade corner stone

21 in whom euery buyldinge coupled together, groweth to an holy temple in the LODRE, 22 in whom ye also are buylded together, to be an habitacion of God in the sprete.

Chapter 3

1 For this cause I Paul am a prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Heythen,

2 acordinge as ye haue herde of ye office of the grace of God which is geuen me to you warde.

3 For by reuelacion was this mystery shewed vnto me, as I wrote aboue in fewe wordes:

4 wherby whan ye rede it, ye maye perceaue myne vnderstondynge in ye mystery of Christ,

5 which (mystery) in tymes past was not opened vnto the childre of me as it is now declared to his holy Apostles and prophetes by the sprete: namely,

6 that the Heythen shulde be inheritours also, and of the same body, and partakers of his promes in Christ by the Gospell,

7 wherof I am made a mynister acordynge to the gifte of the grace of God, which is geue me acordinge to the workynge of his power.

8 Vnto me the leest of all sayntes is this grace geuen, that I shulde preach amonge the Heythe ye vnsearcheable riches of Christ,

9 and to make all men se, what is the fellishippe of the mystery, which fro the begynnynge of the worlde hath bene hyd in God, which made all thiges thorow Iesus Christ:

10 to the intent that now vnto the rulers and powers in heaue mighte be knowne by the congregacion the manifolde wysdome off God,

11 acordinge to ye eternall purpose, which he hath shewed in Christ Iesu oure LORDE

12 by whom we haue boldnesse and intrauce in all confidece thorow faith on him.

13 Wherefore I desyre that ye faynte not because of my tribulacions, yt I suffre for you, which is youre prayse.

14 For this cause I bowe my knees vnto the father of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, 15 which is the true father, ouer all that is called father in heauen and in earth,

16 that he graunte you (acordinge to ye riches of his glory) to be strenghted with power by his sprete in ye inwarde ma,

17 that Christ maye dwell in youre hertes by faith, that ye beyng roted and grounded in loue,

18 maye be able to coprehende with all sayntes, what is the bredth, and the length, and the depth, and the heyth:

19 and to knowe the loue of Christ, which loue yet passeth all knowlege: that ye maye be fylled with all maner of fulnesse of God.

20 Vnto him that is able to do exceadinge abundantly, aboue all that we axe or vnderstonde (acordinge to ye power that worketh in vs)

21 be prayse in the congregacion, which is in Christ Iesu, at all tymes for euer and euer, Amen.

Chapter 4

1 I therefore which am presoner in the LORDE, exhorte you, that ye walke as it becometh yor callinge wherin ye are called,

2 with all humblenes off mynde and mekenes, and longe sufferinge, forbearinge one another in loue,

3 and be diligent to kepe the vnite of the sprete thorow the bonde of peace.

4 One body and one sprete, eue as ye are called in one hope of youre callinge.

5 One LORDE, one faith, one baptyme, 6 one God and father of vs all, which is aboue all, and thorow all, and in you all.

7 Vnto euery one of vs is geuen grace, acordinge to the measure off the gifte off Christ.

8 Therefore sayeth he: He is gone vp an hie, and hath led awaye captiuyte captiue, and hath geue giftes vnto men.

9 That he wente, vp what is it, but that he first came downe in to ye lowest partes of ye earth?

10 He that came downe, is euen the same which is gone vp aboue all heauens, to fulfill all.

11 And ye same hath set some to be Apostles, some to be prophetes, some to be Euangelistes, some to be shepherdes & teachers,

12 wherby the sayntes mighte be coupled together thorow comen seruyce to the edifieng of ye body of Christ,

13 tyll we all come vnto one maner of faith and knowlege of the sonne of God, and become a perfecte man in to the measure of the perfecte age of Christ

14 that we be nomore children, waueringe & caried aboute with euery wynde of doctryne thorow the wickednes of men and craftynes, wherby they laye awaye for vs to disceauue vs.

15 But let vs folowe the trueth in loue, and in all thynges growe in him, which is the heade, euen Christ,

16 in whom all the body is coupled together, and one membre hangeth by another thorow out all ye ioyntes. Whereby one mynistreth vnto another (acordinge to the operacion as euery membre hath his measure) and maketh, that ye body groweth to the edifieng of it selfe in loue.

17 This I saye therefore, and testifye in the LORDE, that ye walke nomore as ye other Heythen walke in the vanite of their mynde,

18 blynded in their vnderstandinge, beyng straungers fro the life which is in God thorow the ignoraunce that is in them, because of the blyndnes of their hert:

19 which beyng past repentaunce, haue geue them selues ouer vnto wantonnes, to worke all maner of vnclennes euen with gredynesse.

20 But ye haue not so learned Christ,

21 yf so be that ye haue herde of him, & are taught in him, euen as the trueth is in Iesu.

22 So then as concernynge the conuersacion in tyme past laye from you that olde man which marreth himselfe thorow disceauable lustes:

23 but be ye renued in the sprete of youre mynde,

24 and put on that new man, which is shapen after God, in true righteousnes and holynes.

25 Wherefore put away lyenge, and speake euery man the trueth vnto his neighoure, for as moch as we are membres one of another.

26 Be angrie, but synne not. Let not ye Sonne go downe vpo youre wrath:

27 nether geue place to the bacbyter.

28 He that hath stollen, let him steale nomore: but let him laboure rather, and do some good with his hondes, that he maye haue to geue vnto him that nedeth.

29 Let no filthy comunicacion proceade out of youre mouth, but that which is good to edifye withall, wha nede is, that it be gracious to heare.

30 And greue not the holy sprete of God, wherwith ye are sealed vnto ye daye of redempcion.

31 Let all bytternes, and fearsnes, and wrath, and roaringe, & cursed speakynge be farre fro you with all maliciousnes.

32 But be ye curteous one to another, mercifull, and forgeue one another, eue as God hath forgeuen you in Christ.

Chapter 5

1 Be ye the folowers therefore of God as deare children,

2 and walke in loue, euen as Christ loued vs, and gaue him selfe for vs an offerynge and sacrifice of a swete sauoure vnto God.

3 As for whordome and all vnclennes, or couetousnes, let it not be named amoge you, as it becommeth sayntes:

4 nether fylthines, ner folish talkynge, ner ieastynge (which are not comly) but rather geuyng of thakes.

5 For be sure, that no whore monger, or vnclane person, or couetous person (which is a worshipper off ymages) hath inheritaunce in the kyngdome of Christ and of God.

6 (Let no man disceau you with vayne wordes) for because of these commeth the wrath of God vpon the children of vnbeleue.

7 Be not ye therfore companions with them.

8 For sometyme ye were darknesse, but now are ye lighte in the LORDE. Walke as the children of lighte.

9 (For the frute of the sprete is all maner of goodnes, and righteousnes and trueth:)

10 and prone what is pleaseing vnto the LORDE,

11 and haue no fellishippe with ye vnfrutefull workes of darknes, but rather rebuke the.

12 For it is shame euen to name those thinges, which are done of them in secrete.

13 But all thinges are manifest, whan they are rebuked of the lighte. For what so euer is manifest, that same is lighte.

14 Therefore sayeth he: Awake thou that slepest, and stonde vp fro the deed, and Christ shal geue the lighte.

15 Take hede therefore how ye walke circumspectly, not as the vnwyse, but as ye wyse, 16 and redeme the tyme, for it is a miserable tyme.

17 Wherefore be not ye vnwyse, but vnderstonde what the wil of the LORDE is,

18 and be not dronken with wyne, wherin is excesse: but be full of the sprete

19 and talke amoge youre selues of Psalmes, and ymnes, and spirituall songes, synginge and makynge melody vnto the LORDE in youre hertes

20 geuyng thanks alwayes for all thinges vnto God the father, in the name of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, 21 submyttinge youre selues one to another in the feare of God.

22 Let the wemen submytte them selues vnto their hussbandes, as vnto the LORDE.

23 For the hussbande is the wyues heade, eue as Christ also is the heade of the congregacion, and he is the Sauoure of his body.

24 Therefore as the congregacion is in subieccion to Christ, likewise let the wyues be in subieccion to their hussbandes in all thinges.

25 Ye hussbandes loue youre wyues, euen as Christ loued the congregacion, and gaue himselfe for it,

26 to sanctifye it, and clensed it in the fountayne of water by the worde,

27 to make it vnto himselfe a glorious congregacion, hauynge no spot ner wrynkle, ner eny soch thinge, but that it shulde be holy and without blame.

28 So oughte men also to loue their wyues, euen as their awne bodies. He that loueth his wife, loueth himselfe.

29 For no ma euer yet hated his awne flesshe, but noriseth and cherissheth it, euen as the LORDE doth also the congregacion.

30 For we are membres of his body, of his flesh and of his bones.

31 For this cause shal a man leaue father and mother, and cleue vnto his wife, and they two shal be one flesh:

32 This is a greate secrete: but I speake of Christ and the congregacion.

33 Neuertheles do ye so, that euery one of you loue his wife euen as himselfe: but let the wife feare hir hussbande.

Chapter 6

1 Ye children, obey youre elders in the LORDE, for that is righte.

2 Honour thy father and thy mother (That is the first commaundement, that hath eny promes)

3 that thou mayest prospere, and lye longe vpon earth.

4 And ye fathers, prouoke not youre children vnto wrath, but brynge the vp in the nourtoure and informacion of the LORDE.

5 Ye seruautes, obey youre bodely masters, with feare and tremblyng, in synglenes of youre hert, euen as vnto Christ,

6 not with seruyce onely in the eye sighte, as men pleasers: but as the seruautes off Christ, doynge the wyll off God from the hert

7 with good wyll. Thynke that ye serue the LORDE and not me:

8 and be sure, that what good soeuer a man doth, he shal reaceue it agayne of the LORDE, whether he be bonde or fre.

9 And ye masters, do euen the same vnto the, putynge away threatenynge, and knowe that euen youre master also is in heauen, nether is there eny respecte of personnes with him.

10 Fynally my brethren, be stronge in the LORDE, and in the power of his mighte:

11 put on the armor of God, that ye maye stonde stedfast agaynst the craftie assautes off the deuell.

12 For we wrestle not agaynst flesh and bloude, but agaynst rule, agaynst power namely, agaynst the rulers of the worlde, of the darknesse of this worlde, agaynst ye spretes of wickednes vnder the heauen.

13 For this cause take ye the armoure of God, yt ye maye be able to resiste in the euell daye, and stonde perfecte in all thinges.

14 Stonde therefore, and youre loynes gyrd aboute with the trueth, hauynge on the brest plate of righteousnes,

15 and shod vpo yor fete with the gospell of peace, that ye maye be prepared:

16 Aboue all thinges take holde of the shyld of faith, wherwith ye maye quenche all the fyrie dartes of the wicked.

17 And take the helmet of saluacion, & the swerde of the sprete, which is the worde of God.

18 And praye allwayes with all maner of prayer and supplicacion in the sprete, and watch there vnto with all instaunce and supplicacion for all sayntes

19 and for me, that the worde maye be geuen me, that I maye open my mouth boldly, to vtter the secretes of the Gospell,

20 wherof I am a messaunger in bondes, that I maye speake therin frely, as it becommeth me to speake.

21 But that ye maye also knowe, what case I am in, and what I do, Tichicus my deare brother and faithfull mynister in the LORDE, shal shewe you all:

22 whom I haue sent vnto you for the same cause, that ye mighte knowe what case I stonde in, and that he mighte comforte youre hertes.

23 Peace be vnto the brethre, and loue with faith, from God the father, & from the LORDE Iesu Christ.

24 Grace be with all them that loue oure LORDE Iesus Christ vnfaynedly. Amen.

PHILIPPIANS

Chapter 1

1 Paul and Timotheus the seruautes of Iesu Christ. Vnto all the sayntes in Iesu Christ, which are at Philippos, with the Bisshoppes and mynisters.

2 Grace be with you and peace from God oure father, and from the LORDE Iesus Christ.

3 I thanke my God, as oft as I remembre you

4 (which I allwayes do in all my prayers for you all, and praye with gladnesse)

5 because of youre fellishippe which ye haue in the Gospell from the first daye vnto now,

6 and am surely certified of this, yt he which hath begonned that good worke in you, shal go forth with it vntyll ye daye of Iesus Christ:

7 as it becommeth me to iudge of you all, because I haue you in my hert, as those that are partakers with me of grace in my bondes, in defendinge and stablyshinge of the Gospell.

8 For God is my recorde, how I loge after you all euen fro the very hert rote in Iesus Christ.

9 And for the same I praye, yt yor loue maye increace more & more in all maner of knowlege and in all experience,

10 yt ye maye proue what is best, that ye maye be pure, & soch as hurte no mans conscience, vnto the daye of Christ:

11 fylled with the frutes of righteousnes, which come by Iesus Christ vnto the glorie and prayse of God.

12 I wolde ye vnderstode brethren, that my busynes is happened vnto the greater furtheraunce of the Gospell,

13 so that my bondes in Christ are manifest thorow out all ye iudgmet hall, and in all other places:

14 In so moch that many brethren in the LORDE, are boldened thorow my bodes, and darre more largely speake the worde without feare.

15 Some (no doute) preach Christ of enuye and stryfe, but some of good wil.

16 The one parte preacheth Christ off stryfe and not purely, supposynge to adde more aduersite vnto my bondes.

17 The other parte of loue, for they knowe that I lye here for the defence of the Gospell.

18 What then? So that Christ be preached all maner of wayes (whether it be done by occasion or of true meaninge) I reioyce therin, and wil reioyce.

19 For I knowe that the same shal chaunce to my saluacion, thorow youre prayer and mynistrynge of the sprete of Iesu Christ,

20 as I loke for and hope, that in nothinge I shalbe ashamed: but yt with all cofidence (as allwayes in tymes past, eue so now) Christ shalbe magnified in my body whether it be thorow life or thorow death.

21 For Christ is to me life, & death is to me auantage.

22 But in as moch as to lyue in ye flesh is frutefull to me for the worke, I wote not what

23 I shal chose, for both these thinges lye harde vpon me. I desyre to be loused, & to be with Christ, which thinge were moch better (for me)

24 but to abyde in the flesh is more nedefull for you.

25 And this am I sure of, that I shal abyde, and contynue with you all, for the furthraunce and ioye of youre faith, 26 that ye maye abundantly reioyse in Christ Iesu thorow me, by my comynge to you agayne.

27 Onely let youre conuersacion be as it becommeth the Gospell of Christ, that whether I come & se you, or els be absent, I maye yet heare of you that ye cotynue in one sprete and one soule, labourynge (as we do) to mayntayne the faith of the Gospell, 28 and in nothinge fearinge youre aduersaries, which is to them a token off perdition, but vnto you of saluacion, and that of God.

29 For vnto you it is geuen, not onely that ye shulde beleue on Christ, but also suffre for his sake,

30 and to haue euen the same fighte, which ye haue sene in me, and now heare of me.

Chapter 2

1 Yf there be amonge you eny consolacion in Christ, yf there be eny comforte of loue, yf there be eny fellowshipe off the sprete, yf there be eny compassion and mercy,

2 fulfyll my ioye, that ye drawe one waye, hauynge one loue, beyng of one accorde, and of one mynde:

3 that there be nothinge done thorow stryfe and vayne glory, but that thorow mekenesse of mynde euery man esteame another better then himselfe:

4 and let euery ma loke not for his awne profet, but for the profet of other.

5 Let the same mynde be in you, that was in Christ Iesu:

6 which beyng in the shappe of God, thought it not robbery to be equall with God,

7 but made him selfe of no reputacion, and toke vpon him the shappe of a seruauent, became like another man,

8 and was founde in his apparell as a man: he humbled himselfe, and became obedient vnto the death, euen vnto the death of the crosse.

9 Therefore hath God also exalted him, and geuen him a name, which is aboue all names,

10 that in the name of Iesus euery kne shulde bowe, both of thinges in heauen of thinges vpo earth, and of thinges vnder the earth,

11 and that all tungen shulde confesse, that Iesus Christ is the LORDE vnto the prayse of God the father.

12 Wherefore my dearly beloued, as ye haue allwayes obeyed (not onely in my presence, but now also moch more in my absence) euen so worke out youre awne saluacion with feare and trembyllynge.

13 For it is God which worketh in you both the wyll and the deed, euen of his owne good wyll.

14 Do all thinges without murmurynges and disputynges,

15 that ye maye be faultles and pure, and the childe of God without rebuke, in the myddes of ye croked and peruerse nacion, amonge whom se that ye shyne as lightes in the worlde, 16 holdinge fast the worde of life, vnto my reioysynge in the daye of Christ, that I haue not runne in vayne, nether laboured in vayne.

17 Yee and though I be offred vp vpo the offerynge & sacrifice of youre faith, I am glad, and reioyce with you all:

18 be ye glad also, and reioyce ye with me.

19 I trust in the LORDE Iesus, to sende Timotheus shortly vnto you, that I also maye be of good comforte, whan I knowe what case ye stonde in.

20 For I haue no man that is so like mynded to me, which with so pure affeccio careth for you:

21 for all other seke their awne, not that which is Iesus Christes.

22 But ye knowe the profe of him: for as a childe vnto the father, so hath he mynistrd vnto me in the Gospell.

23 Him I hope to sende, as soone as I knowe how it wyll go with me.

24 But I trust in the LORDE, that I also my selfe shal come shortly.

25 Neuertheles I thoughte it necessary to sende vnto you the brother Ephraditus, which is my companyon in laboure and felowe soudyer, and youre Apostell, and my mynister at my nede, 26 for so moch as he longed after you all, and was full of heuynes, because ye had herde that he was sicke.

27 And no doute he was sicke, and that nye vnto death: but God had mercy on him, and not on him onely, but on me also, lest I shulde haue had sorowe vpon sorowe.

28 I haue sent him therefore the more haistely, that ye mighte se him, and reioyce agayne, and that I also mighte haue the lesse sorowe.

29 Receaue him therfore in the LORDE with all gladnes, and make moch of soche:

30 for because of the worke of Christ, he wente so farre, that he came nye vnto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfyll that seruyce which was lackynge on youre parte towarde me.

Chapter 3

1 Morover my brethren, reioyce in the LORDE. Where as I wryte euer one thinge vnto you, it greueth me not, and maketh you the surer.

2 Bewarre off dogges, bewarre of euell workers, bewarre off discension:

3 for we are the circumcision, euen we that serue God in the sprete, and reioyce in Christ Iesu, and haue no confidence in the flesh,

4 though I haue wherof I mighte reioyce in ye flesh. Yf eny other ma thynke that he hath wherof he mighte reioyce in the flesh, moch more I,

5 which was circucysed on the eight daye, one of the people of Israel, of the trybe off Ben Iamin, an hebrue of the Hebrues: as concernynge the lawe a Pharise:

6 as concernynge feruentnes I persecuted the crogregation: and as touchinge the righteousnes which is in the lawe, I was vnrebukable.

7 But the thinges that were vauntage vnto me, haue I counted losse for Christes sake.

8 Yee I thynke all thinges but losse, for that excellent knowleges sake of Christ Iesu my LORDE: for whom I haue counted all thinge losse, and do iudge them but donge, that I mighte wynne Christ,

9 & be founde in him, not hauynge myne awne righteousnes which commeth of the lawe, but by the faith of Christ (namely) the righteousnes which commeth of God in faith,

10 to knowe him and the vertue of his resurrection, and the fellowshipe of his passion, that I maye be conformable vnto his death,

11 yff by eny meanes I mighte attayne to the resurreccion from the deed.

12 Not that I haue attained vnto it all ready, or that I am already perfecte: but I folowe, yf I maye comprehend that, wherin I am comprehended off Christ Iesu.

13 Brethren, I counte not my selfe yet that I haue gotten it: but one thinge I saye: I forget that which is behynde, and stretch my selfe vnto that which is before, 14 & preace vnto ye marck apoynted, to optayne the rewarde of the hyc callynge of God in Christ Iesu.

15 Let vs therfore (as many as be perfecte) be thus wyse mynded: and yf ye be otherwise mynded, I praye God open euen this vnto you.

16 Neuertheles in that wher vnto we are come, let vs procede by one rule, that we maye be of one accorde.

17 Brethren, be ye ye folowers of me, and loke on the which walke eue so as ye haue vs for an ensample.

18 For many walke (off whom I haue tolde you often, but now I tell you wepyng) eue enemies of the crosse of Christ, 19 whose ende is damnacion, whose God is the bely, & whose glory shalbe to their shame, which are earthly mynded.

20 But oure conuersacion is in heauen, from whence we loke for the Sauioure Iesu Christ ye LORDE, 21 which shal change or vyle body, yt it maye be like fashioned vnto his glorious body, acordinge to ye workynge wherby he is able to subdue all thinges vnto himselfe.

Chapter 4

1 Wherefore my brethren dearly beloued & longed for, my ioye & my crowne contynue so in the LORDE ye beloued.

2 I praye Euodias, & beseke Syntiches, that they be of one mynde in the LORDE.

3 Yee and I beseke the my faithfull yock felowe, helpe the wemen, which haue laboured with me in the Gospell, with Clement & with my other helpers, whose names are in the boke of life.

4 Reioyce in the LORDE allwaye, & agayne I saye, Reioyse.

5 Let youre softnes be knowne vnto all men. The LORDE is euen at honde.

6 Be not carefull, but in all thinges let yor petitions in prayer and supplicacion, with geuyng of thanks be knowne before God.

7 And ye peace of God, which passeth all vnderstodinge, kepe youre hertes and myndes in Christ Iesu.

8 Furthermore brethren, whatsoever thinges are true, whatsoever thinges are honest, what soeuer thinges are iust, what so euer thinges are pure, what soeuer thinges pertayne to loue, whatsoever thinges are of honest reporte: yf there be eny vertuous thinge, yf there be eny laudable thinge,

9 haue those same in yor mynde, which ye haue both lerned and receaued, and herde and sene in me: those thinges do, and the God of peace shalbe with you.

10 I reioyse greatly in ye LORDE, that now at the last ye are reuyued agayne to care for me, as ye cared for me afore, but ye lacked oportynyte.

11 I speake not this because of necessite: for I haue lerned in what soeuer estate I am, therwith to be contete

12 I can be lowe, and I ca be hye. Euery where and in all thinges I am mete, both to be full, and to be hongrie: to haue plentye, and to suffre nede.

13 I can do all thinges thorow Christ, which stregtheth me.

14 Notwith stondinge ye haue done well, that ye bare parte with me in my tribulacion.

15 But ye of Philippos knowe, that in the begynngne of the Gospell whan I departed fro Macedonia, no congregacion bare parte with me concernynge geuynge and receauynge, but ye onely.

16 For vnto Tesselonica ye sent once and afterwarde agayne vnto my necessite.

17 Not that I seke giftes, but I seke the frute, that it be abudaunt in yor rekenynge.

18 For I haue all, and haue plentye. I was euen fylled wha I receaued of Epaphroditus, that which came from you, an odoure of swetenes, a sacrifice accepted & pleasaunt vnto God.

19 My God fulfill all yor nede, acordinge to his riches in glory i Christ Iesu.

20 Vnto God and oure father be prayse for euer and euer Amen.

21 Salute all ye sayntes in Christ Iesu. The brethre that are with me, salute you.

22 All the sayntes salute you, but specially they that are of the Emperours house.

23 The grace of oure LORDE Iesu Christ be with you all, Amen.

COLOSSIANS

Chapter 1

1 Paul an Apostle of Iesu Christ by the will of God, and brother Timotheus.

2 To ye sayntes which are at Colossa and brethren that beleue in Christ. Grace be with you and peace from God oure father & fro the LORDE Iesus Christ.

3 We geue thanks vnto God and the father of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, prayenge allwayes for you

4 (sence we herde of youre faith in Christ Iesu, and of youre loue to all sayntes)

5 for ye hopes sake which is layed vp in stoare for you in heauen: of the which ye haue herde before by the worde of truth in the Gospell,

6 which is come vnto you, eue as it is into all the worlde: and is frutefull, as it is in you, sence ye daye yt ye herde and knewe the grace of God in ye truth,

7 as ye learned of Epaphras oure deare felowe seruauant, which is a faithfull mynister of Christ for you,

8 which also declared vnto vs youre loue in the sprete.

9 For this cause we also, sence the daye yt we herde of it, ceasse not to praye for you, & desyre that ye mighte be fulfilled with the knowlege of his will, in all wyssdome and spirituall vnderstondinge, 10 that ye mighte walke worthy off the LORDE, to please him in all thinges, and to be frutefull in all good workes, and growe in the knowlege of God:

11 & to be strengthed wt all power acordinge to the mighte of his glory, to all pacience and longsufferynge with ioyfulness,

12 and geue thanks vnto the father, which hath made vs mete for the enheritaunce of sayntes in lighte.

13 Which hath delyuered vs fro the power of darknesse, & translated vs in to the kyngdome of his deare sonne

14 (in whom we haue redempcion thorow his bloude, namely, the forgeuenes of synnes.)

15 Which is the ymage of the inuisible God, first begotte before all creatures.

16 For by him were all thinges created, that are in heauen and earth, thinges vysible and thinges inuisible, whether they be maiesties or lordshippes, ether rules or powers: All thinges are created by him and in him, 17 and he is before all thinges, and in him all thinges haue their beyng.

18 And he is the heade of the body, namely, of the cogregacion: he is the begynnyng and first begotten from the deed, that in all thinges he mighte haue the preemynce.

19 For it pleased the father, that in him shulde dwell all fulnesse,

20 and that by him all thinges shulde be reconciled vnto himselfe, whether they be thinges vpon earth or in heauen, that thorow the bloude on his crosse he mighte make peace euen thorow his owne selfe.

21 And you (which were in tymes past straungers and enemies, because youre myndes were set in euell workes) hath he now reconcyled

22 in the body of his flesh thorow death, to make you holy, and vnblameable & with out faute in his awne sighte,

23 yf ye contynue grounded and stablished in the faith, and be not moued awaye from ye hope of the Gospell, wherof ye haue herde: which is preached amonge all creatures yt are vnder heauen, wherof I Paul am made a mynister.

24 Now ioye I in my sufferynge, which I suffre for you, and fulfill that which is behynde of the passions of Christ in my flesh, for his bodyes sake, which is the congregacion,

25 wherof I am made a mynister, acordinge to ye Godly office of preachinge, which is geuen vnto me amonge you, that I shulde richely preach the worde of God,

26 namely, that mystery which hath bene hyd sence the worlde beganne, and sence the begynnyng of tymes: but now is opened vnto his sayntes,

27 to whom God wolde make knowne the glorious riches of this mistery amoge ye Heythen: which (riches) is Christ in you, eue he that is the hope of glory,

28 who we preach, and warne all men, and teach all men in all wyssdome, to make euery man perfecte in Christ Iesu:

29 Wherin I also laboure, and stryue acordinge to the workynge of him which worketh mightely in me.

Chapter 2

1 I wolde ye knewe what fightinge I haue for youre sakes, and for them of Laodicea, and for as many as haue not sene my personne in the flesh,

2 that their hertes mighte be comforted and knytt together in loue, to all riches of full vnderstondinge, which is in the knowlege of the mystery of God the father and of Christ,

3 in whom are hyd all the treasures of wyssdome and knowlege.

4 This I saye, lest eny man shulde beglye you with entysinge wordes.

5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I present with you in the sprete: ioyenge, and beholdinge youre order and the stedfastnes of youre faith in Christ.

6 As ye haue therfore receaued Christ Iesu the LORDE, euen so walke in him,

7 and be roted & buylded in him, and be stedfast in faith, as ye haue learned: & be plenteous in the same in geuynge thanks.

8 Bewarre lest eny ma spoyle you thorow philosophy and disceatfull vanite after the tradicions of men, and after the ordinauces of the worlde, and not after Christ.

9 For in him dwelleth all the fulnes of the Godheade bodely,

10 and ye are complete in him, which is the heade of all rule and power:

11 in whom also ye are circumcysed with circumcision without handes, by puttyng of the synfull body of the flesh: (namely) with the circumcysion of Christ,

12 in that ye are buried with him thorow baptyeme: in whom ye are also rysen agayne thorow faith, that is wrought by the operacion of God, which raysed him vp from the deed.

13 And with him he quyckened you, whan ye were deed in synnes, and in the vncircumcision of youre flesh, and hath forgeuen vs all synnes,

14 and put out the handwrytinge that was agaynst vs (cotayned in the lawe wrytten) and that hath he taken out of the waye, and fastened it to the crosse:

15 And hath spoyled rule and power, and hath made a shewe of them openly, and triumphed ouer them in his awne persone.

16 Let no man therfore trouble youre consciences aboute meate or drynke, or for a pece of an holy daye, as the holy daye of ye newe Mone, or of the Sabbath dayes, 17 which are the shadowe of the thinges that were for to come: but the body selfe is in Christ.

18 Let no man make you shote at a wronge mark, which after his owne chosynge walketh in humblenes and spiritualltye of angels, thinges which he neuer sawe, and is vayne, and puft vp in his owne fleshy mynde:

19 and holdeth not himselfe to the heade, wherof the whole body by ioyntes and couples receaueth norishment, and is knyt together, and so groweth to the greatnes that commeth of God.

20 Wherefore yf ye be deed with Christ from the ordinauces of the worlde, why are ye holden the with soch tradicions, as though ye lyued after the worlde? As whan they saye:

21 Touch not this, taist not that, handle not that.

22 All these thinges do hurte vnto men, because of the abuse of them, which abuse commeth onely of the commaundementes and doctrynes of men:

23 which thinges haue a shyne of wysdome thorow chosen spiritualtie and humblenes, and in that they spare not the body, and do the flesh no worshippe vnto his nede.

Chapter 3

1 Yf ye be rysen now with Christ, seke those thinges then which are aboue where Christ is, syttinge on the righte hande of God.

2 Set youre mynde on the thinges which are aboue, not on ye thinges that are vpon earth.

3 For ye are deed, and youre life is hyd with Christ in God.

4 But whan Christ or life shal shewe himselfe, the shal ye also appeare with him in glory.

5 Mortifye therfore youre mebres which are vpon earth, whordome, vnclennes, vnnaturall lust, euell concupiscece, and couetousnes, which is a worshippyng of Idols:

6 for which thinges sakes the wrath of God commeth vpon the children of vnbeleue:

7 in the which thinges ye walked some tyme, whan ye lyued in them.

8 But now put all awaye fro you: wrath, fearcenesse, maliciousnes, cursed speakynge, fylthie wordes out of youre mouth.

9 Lye not one to another. Put of ye olde ma with his workes,

10 and put on ye newe, which is renued in knowlege after ye ymage of him that made him:

11 where there is no Greke, Iewe, circumcision, vncircumcision, Barbarous, Sithian, bode, fre: but Christ is all and in all.

12 Now therfore as the electe of God, holy and beloued, put on tender mercye, kyndnes, humblenes of mynde, mekenesse, longe sufferynge, 13 forbearinge one another, and forgeuynge one another, yf eny man haue a quarell agaynst another. Like as Christ hath forgeuen you, euen so do ye also.

14 But aboute all thinges put on loue, which is the bonde of perfectnesse.

15 And the peace of God rule in youre hertes, to the which (peace) ye are called also in one body: and se yt ye be thanfull.

16 Let ye worde of Christ dwell in you plenteously in all wyssdome. Teach and exhorte youre awne selues with psalmes and ymnes, and spirituall songes which haue fauoure with them, synginge in youre hertes to the LORDE.

17 And what soeuer ye do in worde or worke, do all in the name of the LORDE Iesu, and geue thanks vnto God the father by him.

18 Ye wyues, submytte youre selues vnto youre hussbandes, as it is comly in the

LORDE.

19 Ye hussbandes, loue youre wyues, and be not bytter vnto them.

20 Ye children, obeye youre elders in all thinges, for that is well pleasyng vnto the LORDE.

21 Ye fathers, rate not yor children, lest they be of a desperate mynde.

22 Ye seruautes, be obedient vnto youre bodely masters in all thinges, not with eye seruyce as men pleasers, but in synghenes of hert, fearinge God.

23 What so euer ye do, do it hertely, euen as vnto the LORDE and not vnto men.

24 And be sure, that of the LORDE ye shal receaue the rewarde of ye enheritaunce: For ye serue the LORDE Christ.

25 But he that doth wronge, shal receaue for the wronge that he hath done, for there is no respecte of persons (with God.)

Chapter 4

1 Ye masters, do vnto youre seruautes that which is iust and equall, and knowe, yt ye also haue a master in heauen.

2 Contynue in prayer, and watch in the same with thankesgeuyng,

3 and praye also together for vs, that God open vnto vs the dore of the worde, to speake the mystery of Christ (wherfore I am also in bodes)

4 that I maye vtter ye same, as it becommeth me to speake.

5 Walke wysely towarde them that are without, and redeme ye tyme.

6 Let youre speach be allwaye fauorable, seasoned with salt, that ye maye knowe how to answeere euery man.

7 Tichicus the deare brother and faithfull mynister & felowe seruaut in ye LORDE, shal tell you what case I am in.

8 Whom I haue sent vnto you for the same purpose, that he mighte knowe how ye do, & that he mighte comforte youre hertes,

9 with one Onesimus a faithfull and beloued brother, which is one of you: they shal shewe you of all thinges, which are adoyng here

10 Aristarchus my preson felowe saluteth you, and Marcus Barnabasses sisters sonne, touchinge whom ye receaued commaundementes: Yf he come vnto you, receaue him,

11 and Iesus, which is called Iustus, which are of the circumcision. These onely are my helpers in the kyngdome of God, which were to my consolacion.

12 Epaphras a seruaunt of Christ, which is one of you, saluteth you, & allwaye laboureth feruently for you in prayers, yt ye maye stonde perfecte and full, in all that is the wil of God.

13 I beare him recorde, that he hath a feruent mynde for you, and for the at Laodicea, and at Hierapolis.

14 Deare Lucas the Physician saluteth you, and so doth Demas.

15 Salute the brethre, which are at Laodicea, and salute Nymphas, and the cogregacion which is in his house.

16 And whan the epistle is red of you, cause it to be red also in the cogregacio at Laodicea, & that ye likewyse reade the epistle of Laodicea.

17 And saye to Archippus: Take hede to the office which thou hast receaued in the LORDE, that thou fulfyll it.

18 My salutacion with the hnade of me Paul. Remembre my bodes. Grace be with you, Amen.

1 THESSALONIANS

Chapter 1

1 Pavl and Siluanus and Timotheus. Vnto the cogregacion of the Tessalonyans, in God the father and in the LORDE Iesus Christ. Grace be with you, and peace from God oure father and from the LORDE Iesus Christ.

2 We geue thanks vnto God allwaye for you all, makynge mesion of you in our prayers

3 without ceassyng, and call to remembraunce youre worke in the faith, and youre laboure in loue, & youre pacience in hope, which is oure LORDE Iesus Christ before God oure father:

4 Because we knowe (brethren, beloued of God) how that ye are electe:

5 for oure Gospell hath not bene with you in worde onely, but both in power and in the holy goost, and in moch certayntie, as ye knowe after what maner we were amonge you for youre sakes.

6 And ye became the folowers of vs and of the LORDE: and receaued the worde in moch affliction with ioye of the holy goost:

7 so that ye were an example to all that beleued in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For fro you was the worde of the LORDE noysed out, not onely in Macedonia & Achaia, but i all quarters also is yor faith i God spred abrode so that it nedeth not vs to speake eny thinge at all.

9 For they them selues shewe of you, what maner of entryng in we had vnto you, and how ye are turned vnto God from ymages, for to serue the luyng and true God,

10 and to loke for his sonne from heaue: whom he raysed vp from the deed, euen Iesus, which hath deluyered vs fro the wrath to come.

Chapter 2

1 For ye youre selues (brethren) knowe of oure intrauce vnto you, how that it was not in vayne,

2 but as we had suffred afore, & were shamefully intreated at Philippos (as ye knowe) we were bolde in oure God, to speake vnto you ye Gospel of God with moch struyng.

3 For oure exhortacion was not to bryng you to erreure ner yet to vnclennes, nether was it with gyle:

4 but as we are allowed of God, that the Gospell shulde be commytted vnto vs to preache, euen so we speake, not as though we wolde please me, but God, which tryeth oure hertes.

5 For we haue not gone aboute with flateringe wordes (as ye knowe) ner wayted for oure owne profit (God is recorde)

6 nether soughte we prayse of men, nether of you ner of eny other, whan we mighte haue bene chargeable vnto you as the Apostles off Christ,

7 but we were tender amonge you. Like as a norsse cherisheth hir children,

8 euen so had we hartely affeccion towarde you, and wolde with good wyl haue dealte vnto you, not onely the Gospell of God, but oure lyues also, because ye were deare vnto vs.

9 Ye remembre brethren oure laboure and trauallye. For daye and nighte wroughte we (because we wolde not be chargeable vnto eny of you) and preached the Gospell of God amonge you.

10 Ye are witnesses, and so is God, how holyly and iustly and vnblameable we behaued oure selues amoge you that beleue:

11 as ye knowe, how that as a father his children, euen so exhorted we and comforted and besoughte euery one of you,

12 that ye wolde walke worthely before God, which hath called you vnto his kyngdome & glory.

13 For this cause thanke we God without ceassyng, because that wha ye receaued of vs the worde of the preachinge of God, ye receaued it not as ye worde of men, but (eue as it is of a trueth) the worde of God, which worketh in you that beleue.

14 For ye brethren are become the folowers off the congregacions off God which in Lewry are in Christ Iesu, so that ye haue suffred euen like thinges of youre kynsmen, as they haue suffred of the Iewes.

15 Which as they put the LORDE Iesus to death, and their awne prophetes, euen so haue they persecuted vs also, and please not God, and are cotrary to all men, 16 forbyddinge vs to speake vnto the Heythen that they mighte be saued, to fulfill their synnes allwaye: for the wrath is come vpon them allready vnto ye vttest.

17 But we (brethren) for as moch as we haue bene kepte from you for a season, as concernynge the bodely presence, but not in the hert, we haue haisted the more with greate desyre to se you personally.

18 Therefore wolde we haue come vnto you, (I Paul) two tymes, but Sathan withstode vs.

19 For who is oure hope, or ioye, or crowne of reioysinge? are not ye it in ye sighte of oure LORDE Iesus Christ at his commyng?

20 Yes ye are oure prayse and ioye.

Chapter 3

1 Wherfore sence we coulde no longer forbear, we thoughte it good to remayne at Athens alone,

2 & sent Timotheus oure brother and mynister of God, and oure helper in ye gospell of Christ, to stablysh you and to comforte you in youre faith,

3 that noman shulde be moued in these troubles: (for ye youre selues knowe, that we are euen appoynted there vnto.

4 And whan we were with you, we tolde you before, that we shulde suffre tribulacion, euen as it is come to passe, & as ye knowe.)

5 For this cause seyng I coulde no longer forbear, I sent, that I mighte haue knowlege of youre faith, lest haply the tempter had tempted you, and lest oure laboure had bene in vayne.

6 But now that Timotheus is come fro you vnto vs, and hath shewed vs of youre faith and loue, & how that ye haue allwaye good remembraunce of vs, desyringe to se vs as we also longe to se you:

7 therefore brethren we haue consolacion in you in all oure trouble and necessite thorow youre faith.

8 For now are we alyue, yf ye stonde stedfast in ye LORDE.

9 For what thanks can we recompece to God agayne for you, because of this ioye that we haue concernynge you before oure God?

10 We praye exceedingly daye and nighte, that we mighte se you presently, and fulfill that which is lackynge in yor faith.

11 God himselfe or father & or LORDE Iesus Christ gyde oure iourney vnto you.

12 But the LORDE increace you, & make you flouere ouer in loue one towarde another, and towarde all men (euen as we do towarde you)

13 that yor hertes maye be stable and vnblameable in holynes before God oure father, at the commyng of oure LORDE Iesus Christ with all his sayntes.

Chapter 4

1 Fvrthermore we beseke you brethren and exhorte you in the LORDE Iesus, that ye increace more and more, euen as ye haue receaued of vs how ye oughte to walke and to please God.

2 For ye knowe what commaundementes we gaue you by oure LORDE Iesus Christ.

3 For this is the will of God, euen youre sanctifieng, that ye shulde absteyne from whordome,

4 yt euery one of you shulde knowe how to kepe his vessell in holynes and honoure,

5 & not in the lust of concupiscence, as the Heythen which knowe not God.

6 And that no man go to farre, ner defraude his brother in bargayninge. For the LORDE is the auenger of all soch thinges, as we haue sayde & testified vnto you afore tyme.

7 For God hath not called vs to vnclennesse, but vnto holynes.

8 He therfore that despyseth, despyseth not man, but God, which hath geuen his holy sprete in to you.

9 But as touching brotherly loue, ye nede not that I wryte vnto you, for ye youre selues are taught of God to loue one another:

10 yee and that thinge ye do vnto all the brethre, which are thorow out all Macedonia. But we beseke you brethren that ye increace yet more and more,

11 and that ye study to be quyete, and to medle with youre awne busynesse, and to worke with youre awne hades, as we commaunded you,

12 that ye maye walke honestly towarde the that are without, and that nothinge be lackynge vnto you.

13 We wolde not brethren that ye shulde be ignoraunt concernynge them which are fallen a slepe, that ye sorowe not as other do which haue no hope.

14 For yf we beleue that Iesus dyed and rose agayne, euen so the also which slepe by Iesus, shal God brynge with him.

15 For this we saye vnto you in the worde of the LORDE, that we which lyue and are remaynynge in the comynge of the LORDE, shal not come yer they which slepe.

16 For the LORDE himselte shal come downe fro heauen with a shoute and voyce of ye Archangell and with the trompe of God, and the deed in Christ shal aryse first:

17 then shal we which lyue and remayne, be caught vp wt them also in the cloudes, to mete the LORDE in the ayre, and so shal we euer be with the LORDE.

18 Wherefore comforte youre selues one another with these wordes.

Chapter 5

1 Bvt of ye tymes and seasons (brethre) it is no nede to wryte vnto you.

2 For ye youre selues knowe perfectly, that the daye of the LORDE shal come euen as a thefe in the nighte.

3 For whan they shal saye: Tush, It is peace, there is no daunger, then shall soden destruccion come vpo the, euen as the payne of a woman traуaylinge with childe, and they shal not escape.

4 But ye brethren are not in darknes, that that daye shulde come on you as a thefe.

5 Ye are alltogether children of lighte, and children of the daye. We are not of the night, nether of darknesse.

6 Therefore let vs not slepe as do other, but let vs watch, and be sober.

7 For they that slepe, slepe in the nighte: and they that be dronken, are dronken in the nighte.

8 But let vs which are of the daye, be sober, armed wt the brestplate of faith and loue, and with ye helmet of hope to saluacion.

9 For God hath not appoynted vs vnto wrath, but to optayne saluacion by ye meanes of oure LORDE Iesu Christ,

10 which dyed for vs: that whether we wake or slepe, we shulde lyue together with him.

11 Wherefore comforte youre selues together, and edifye one another, euen as ye do.

12 We beseke you brethren, that ye knowe them which laboure amonge you, and haue the ouersight of you in the LORDE, 13 and geue you exhortacion, that ye haue the the more in loue for their workes sake, and be at peace with them.

14 We desyre you brethre, warne them that are vnruely, coforte the feble mynnded, forbear the weake, be pacient towarde all men.

15 Se that none recompence euell for euell vnto eny man: but euer folowe that which is good, both amoge youre selues and to all men.

16 Reioyse alwaye,

17 praye continually,

18 in all thinges be thankfull: for this is the wyll of God in Christ Iesu towarde you.

19 Quech not ye sprete:

20 despise not prophecies:

21 proue all thiges, & kepe yt which is good.

22 Abstayne fro all suspicious thinges.

23 The very God of peace sanctifye you thorow out. And I praye God, that youre whole sprete, soule & body be kepte blameles vnto ye comynge of oure LORDE Iesus Christ.

24 Faithfull is he which hath called you, which wil also do it.

25 Brethren, praye for vs.

26 Grete all the brethre with an holy kysse.

27 I charge you by ye LORDE, that this epistle be red vnto all ye holy brethren.

28 The grace of oure LORDE Iesus Christ be with you, Amen.

2 THESSALONIANS

Chapter 1

1 Pavl and Siluanus and Timotheus. To the congregacion of ye Tessalonias in God oure father and in the LORDE Iesus Christ.

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God oure father, and from the LORDE Iesus Christ.

3 We are bounde to thanke God allwayes for you brethren, as it is mete: because that youre faith groweth exceedingly, and the loue of euery one of you increaseth towarde another amoge youre selues,

4 so that we oure selues make oure boast of you (in the congregacions of God) of youre paciee and faith in all youre persecucions and troubles that ye suffre, 5 which is a token of the righteous iudgment of God, that ye are counted worthy of the kyngdome of God, for the which ye also suffre.

6 For it is a righteous thinge with God, to recompence tribulacion vnto the yt trouble you:

7 but vnto you which are troubled, rest with vs, wha the LORDE Iesus shal shewe himselte from heauen, with the angels of his power,

8 and with flammyng fyre, to geue vengeauce vnto them that knowe not God, and to them that obeye not the Gospell of oure LORDE Iesus Christ.

9 Which shalbe punyshed with euerlastinge damnacion, from ye presence of the LORDE, and from the glory of his power,

10 whan he shal come to be glorified in his sayntes, and to become maruelous in all them that beleue: because ye haue beleued oure testimony vnto you of the same daye.

11 Wherefore we praye allwayes for you, that oure God make you worthy of ye callynge, and fulfill all delectacion of goodnes, and the worke of faith in power, 12 that ye name of oure LORDE Iesus Christ maye be praysed in you, and ye in him, acordinge to the grace of oure God, and of the LORDE Iesus Christ.

Chapter 2

1 We beseke you brethren by the comynge of or LORDE Iesus Christ, and in that we shal assemble vnto him,

2 that ye be not sodenly moued fro youre mynde, and be not troubled, nether by sprete, nether by wordes, ner yet by letter, which shulde seme to be sent from vs, as though ye daye of Christ were at hande.

3 Let noman disceau you by eny meanes. For the LORDE commeth not, excepte the departynge come first, and that that Man of synne be opened, euen the sonne of perdicion,

4 which is an aduersary, and is exalted aboute all yt is called God or Gods seruyce, so that he sytteth as God in the temple of God, and boasteth himselte to be God.

5 Remembre ye not, that whan I was yet with you, I tolde you these thinges?

6 And now ye knowe what withholdeth it, eue that it mighte be vttered at his tyme.

7 (For the mystery of the iniquyte worketh allready, tyll he which now onely letteth, be take out of the waye.)

8 And then shal that wicked be vttered, whom the LORDE shal cosume with ye sprete of his mouth, & shal destroye with the appearaunce of his comynge:

9 euen him, whose comynge is after the workynge of Sathan with all lyenge power, and signes and wonders,

10 and with all deceauablenes of vnrighteousnes amonge them that perishe, because they receaued not the loue of ye trueth, that they might haue bene saued.

11 Therefore shal God sende them stroge delusion, that they shulde beleue lyes, 12 yt all they might be daned, which beleued not the trueth, but had pleasure in vnrighteousnes.

13 But we are bounde to geue thankes allwaye vnto God for you, brethren be loued of the LORDE, because that God hath from the begynnynge chosen you to saluacion in the sanctifieng of the sprete and in beleuynge of the trueth, 14 whervnto he hath called you by oure Gospell, to optayne the glory of oure LORDE Iesus Christ.

15 Therefore brethren stonde fast, and kepe the ordinaunces which ye haue lerned, whether it were by oure preachinge or by epistle.

16 But oure LORDE Iesus Christ himselte, and God oure father, which hath loued vs and geuen vs euerlastinge consolacion, and a good hope thorow grace, 17 comforte youre hertes, and stablysh you in all doctryne & good doynge.

Chapter 3

1 Fvrthermore brethren praye for vs, that the worde of God maye haue fre passage and be glorified as it is with you,

2 and that we maye be deluyered from vnreasonable and euell me. For faith is not euery mas.

3 But the LORDE is faithfull, which shal stablyshe you and kepe you from euell.

4 We haue confidence in the LORDE to you warde, that ye both do and wyll do that which we comaunde you.

5 The LORDE gyde youre hertes vnto the loue of God and pacience of Christ.

6 But we requyre you brethren, in the name of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, that ye withdrawe youre selues from euery brother that walketh inordinatly, and not after the institucion which he receaued of vs.

7 For ye yor selues knowe, how ye oughte to folowe vs: for we behaued not oure selues inordinatly amonge you,

8 nether toke we bred of eny man for naughte but wrought wt laboure and traуayle night and daye, lest we shulde be chargeable to eny of you.

9 Not but that we had auctorite, but to geue oure selues for an ensample vnto you to folowe vs.

10 And whan we were wt you, this we warned you of, that yf there were eny which wolde not worke, ye same shulde not eate.

11 For we heare saye, that there are some which walke amonge you inordinatly, and worke not at all, but are busy bodies.

12 But them that are soche, we commaunde and exhorte by oure LORDE Iesus Christ, that they worke with quyetnes, and eate their awne bred.

13 Neuertheles brethren, be not ye weery of well doynge.

14 But yf eny man obeye not oure sayenges, sende vs worde of him by a letter, and haue nothinge to do with him, yt he maye be ashamed.

15 Yet counte him not as an enemye, but warne him as a brother.

16 The very LORDE of peace geue you peace allwayes by all meanes. The LORDE be with you all.

17 The salutacion of me Paul with myne awne hande: This is the token in all epistles, So I wryte, 18 The grace of oure LORDE Iesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

1 TIMOTHY

Chapter 1

1 Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ accordinge to the commaundement of God oure Sauoure, and of the LORDE Iesus Christ, which is oure hope.

2 Vnto Timothy my naturall sonne in the faith. Grace, mercy, and peace from God oure father, and oure LORDE Iesus Christ.

3 As I besoughte ye to abyde still at Ephesus (whan I departed in to Macedonia) eue so do, that thou commaunde some, that they teach none other wyse,

4 nether geue hede to fables and genealogies, which are endlesse, and brede doutes more then godly edifyenge, which is by faith.

5 For ye chefe summe of the commaundement is loue of a pure hert, and of a good coscience, and of faith vnfayned.

6 From the which some haue erred, & haue turned vnto wayne iangelynge,

7 wyllinge to be doctours of the scripture, and vnderstonde not what they speake, nether wherof they affirme.

8 But we knowe that the lawe is good, yf a man vse it lauffully,

9 vnderstodinge this, that the lawe is not geuen vnto the righteous, but to the vnrighteous & dishobedient, to the vngodly & to synners, to the vnholy & vncleane, to murthurers of fathers and murthurers of mothers, to manslayers, 10 to whoremongers, to the that defyle them selues with mankynde, to menstealers, to lyars, to periured, & so forth yf there be eny other thinge yt is cotrary to ye wholesome doctryne,

11 accordinge to ye Gospell of ye glory of the blessed God, which (Gospell) is comytted vnto me.

12 And I thanke Christ Iesus or LORDE, which hath made me stroge, for he counted me faithfull, & put me in office, 13 wha before I was a blasphemmer, & a persecuter, & a tyraunt: but I optayned mercy, because I dyd it ignorauntly in vnbeleue.

14 Neuertheles the grace of or LORDE was more abudaunt thorow ye faith & loue which is in Christ Iesu.

15 For this is a true sayenge, and by all meanes worthy to be receaued, that Christ Iesus came in to ye worlde to saue synners, of whom I am chefe.

16 Notwithstondyng for this cause optayned I mercy, that Iesus Christ mighte pryncipally shewe in me all longe pacience, to the ensample of them which shulde beleue in him vnto eternall life.

17 So then vnto God kynge euerlastinge, immortall and invisible, and wyse onely, be honoure and prayse for euer and euer Amen.

18 This commaundement commytte I vnto the (my sonne Timotheus) accordinge to ye prophecies which in tyme past were prophecied of the, that thou in them shuldest fighte a good fighte,

19 hauynge faith & good conscience, which some haue put awaye fro them, and as concernynge faith haue made shypwrake:

20 of whose nombre is Hymeneos and Alexander, whom I haue deluyered vnto Sathan, that they might be taught, nomore to blaspheme.

Chapter 2

1 I exhorte therfore, yt aboute all thinges, prayers, supplicacions, intercessions and geuyng of thakes be had for all men

2 for kynges, and for all that are in auctorite, that we maye lyue a quyete & peaceable life in all godlynes and honestie.

3 For that is good and accepted in ye sighte of God oure Sauoure,

4 which wil haue all men sauued, and to come vnto the knowlege of ye trueth.

5 For there is one God, and one mediatour betwene God and men, (namely) the man Christ Iesus,

6 which gaue him selfe a raunsome for all men, that at his tyme it shulde be preached,

7 wherunto I am ordeyned a preacher & an Apostle (I tell ye trueth in Christ and lye not) a teacher of the Heythe in faith and in the trueth.

8 I wil therfore that men praye in all places, liftinge vp pure hades without wrath or dowtyng.

9 Likewise also the wemen, that they araye them selues in comly apparell with shamfastnes and discrete behaueor, not with broyded heer, or golde, or perles, or costly araye:

10 but with such as it becommeth weme that professe godlynes thorow good workes.

11 Let the woman lerne in sylece with all subieccion.

12 I suffre not a woma to teach ner to haue auctorite ouer the man, but for to be in sylece.

13 For Adam was first formed, and the Eue:

14 Adam also was not disceaued, but the woman was disceaued, and hath brought in the trasgression.

15 Notwitstondyng thorow bearyng of children she shalbe sauued, yf she contynue in faith and in loue & in the sanctifyenge with discrecion.

Chapter 3

1 This is a true sayege: Yf a ma covet ye office of a Bisschoppe, he desyreth a good worke.

2 But a Bisschoppe must be blamelesse, the hussbade of one wife, sober, discrete, manerly, harberous, apte to teach:

3 Not geuen to moch wyne, no fighter, not geuen to filthy lucre: but gentle, abhorrynge stryfe, abhorrynge couetousnes:

4 & one that ruleth his awne house honestly, hauynge obedient children with all honestye.

5 (But yf a man can not rule his owne house, how shal he care for the congregacion of God?)

6 He maye not be a yoge scolar, lest he be puffed vp, and fall in to the iudgment of ye euell speaker.

7 He must also haue a good reporte of them which are without, lest he fall in to the rebuke and snare of the euell speaker.

8 Likewise must the mynisters be honest, not double tonged, not geuen to moch wyne, nether vnto fylthie lucre, 9 but hauynge the mystery of faith in pure conscience.

10 And let them first be proued, and then let them mynister, yf they be blamelesse.

11 Euen so must their wyues be honest, not euell speakers, but sober and faithfull in all thinges.

12 Let the mynisters be, euery one the hussbade of one wyfe, and soch as rule their children well, and their owne householdes.

13 For they that mynister well, get them selues a good degree and grate libertye in the faith which is in Christ Iesu.

14 These thinges wryte I vnto the, trustinge shortly to come vnto the:

15 but yf I tary loge, that then thou mayest yet haue knowlege, how thou oughtest to behaue thy selfe in Gods house, which is the congregacion of the luyng God, the piler and grounde of trueth:

16 and without naye, greate is that mystery of godlynes. God was shewed in the flesh: was iustified in the sprete: was sene of angels: was preached vnto the Heythen: was beleued on in the worlde: was receaued vp in glory.

Chapter 4

1 The sprete speaketh euydently, that in ye latter tymes some shal departe from the faith, and shal geue hede vnto spretes of erreure, and deuelish doctrynes, of them

2 which speake false thorow ypcrysie, and haue their coscience marked with an whote yron,

3 forbyddinge to mary, and comaundyng to abstayne fro the meates, which God hath created to be receaued wt geuyng thanks of them which beleue and knowe the trueth.

4 For euery creature off God is good, and nothinge to be refused, yt is receaued with thankesgeuyng:

5 for it is sanctified by the worde of God and prayer.

6 Yf thou shalt put the brethren in remembraunce of these thinges, thou shalt be a good mynister of Iesu Christ, which hast bene norished vp in the wordes of faith and of good doctryne, which thou hast folowed hither to.

7 As for vngostly and olde wyuesh fables, cast them awaye, but exercyse thy selfe vnto godlynes.

8 For bodely exercyse profyteth litle, but godlynes is profytable vnto all thinges, as a thinge which hath promyses of the life that is now, and of the life for to come.

9 This is a sure sayenge, & of all partes worthy to be receaued.

10 For therfore we laboure and suffre rebuke, because we hope in the luyng God, which is the Sauoure of all men, but specially of those that beleue.

11 Soch thinges commaunde thou and teach.

12 Let no man despise yi youth, but be thou vnto them that beleue, an ensample, in worde, in couersacion, in loue, in ye sprete, in faith, in purenesse.

13 Geue attendaunce to readyng, to exhortacion, to doctryne, vntyll I come.

14 Be not negligient in the gifte that is geuen the thorow prophecye, with layege on of the handes of the Elders.

15 These thinges exercyse, and geue thy selfe vnto them, that thine increase maye be manifest vnto euery man.

16 Take hede vnto thy selfe, and to learnynge, cotynue in these thinges. For yf thou so do, thou shalt saue thy selfe, and them that heare the.

Chapter 5

1 Rebuke not an Elder, but exhorte him as a father: and the yoger men as brethren:

2 the elder wemen as mothers: the yonger as sisters with all purenes.

3 Honor wedowes, which are true wedowes.

4 Yf eny wedowe haue children or neves, let them lerne first to rule their awne houses godly, and to recompence their elders. For yt is good & acceptable before God.

5 But she that is a right wedowe, & desolate, putteth hir trust in God, & cotynueth in prayer and supplicacion nighte and daye.

6 But she that lyueth in pleasures, is deed, euen yet a lyue.

7 And these thinges commaunde, that they maye be without blame.

8 But yf there be eny man that prouydeth not for his awne, and specially for them of his houssholde, the same hath denyed the faith, and is worse then an infydele.

9 Let no wedowe be chosen vnder threscore yeare olde, and soch one as was ye wife of one man,

10 and well reported of in good workes, yf she haue brought vp children well, yf she haue bene harberous, yf she haue washed the sayntes fete, yf she haue mynistred vnto the which were in aduersite, yf she were continually geuen to all maner of good workes.

11 But ye yonger wedowes refuse. For when they haue begonne to waxe wanton agaynst Christ, then wil they mary, 12 hauynge their damnacion, because they haue broke ye first faith.
 13 Besydes this they are ydell, and lerne to runne aboute fro house to house. Not onely are they ydell, but also tryfflinge & busybodies, speakynge thinges which are not comly.
 14 I wil therfore that the yonger wemen mary, beare children, gyde the house, to geue ye aduersary no occasion to speake euell.
 15 For some are turned back allready after Satha.
 16 Yf eny man or woman that beleueth haue wedowes, let them make prouision for the, and let not the congregacion be charged: that they which are righte wedowes, maye haue ynough.
 17 The Elders that rule well, are worthy of double honoure, most specially they which labour in the worde & in teachinge.
 18 For ye scripture sayeth: Thou shalt not mosell the mouth of ye oxe yt treadeth out ye corne. And: The labourer is worthy of his rewarde.
 19 Agaynst an Elder receaue none accusation, but vnder two or thre witnesses.
 20 The that synne, rebuke in the presence of all, that other also maye feare.
 21 I testifye before God and the LORDE Iesus Christ, and ye electe angels, that thou obserue these thinges without haistie iudgment, and do nothinge parcially.
 22 Laye hondes sodenly on no ma, nether be partaker of other mes synnes. Kepe yi selfe pure.
 23 Drynke no lenger water, but vse a litle wyne for yi stomackes sake, and because thou art oft tymes sicke.
 24 Some mes synnes are ope, so that they maye be iudged afore hande: but some mens (synnes) shal be manifest herafter.
 25 Likewise also good workes are manifest afore hade: and they that are otherwyse can not be hyd.

Chapter 6

1 Let as many seruauantes as are vnder the yocke, counte their masters worthy of all honoure, that the name of God and his doctrine be not euell spoken of.
 2 Se that they which haue beleuyng masters, despise them not because they are brethre, but rather do seruyce, for so moch as they are beleuyng, and beloued, and partakers of the benefite.
 3 These thinges teach and exhorte. Yf eny ma teach otherwyse, and agreeth not vnto the wholsome wordes of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, and to the doctryne of godlynes,
 4 he is puft vp, and knoweth nothinge, but waysteth his brayne aboute questions and stryuynges of wordes: wherof sprynge envye, stryfe, raylinges, euell surmysinges,
 5 vayne disputacios of soch men as haue corrupte myndes, and are robbed of the trueth, which thynke that godlynes is lucre: From soch separate thy selfe.

 6 Howbeit it is greate auantage, who so is godly, and holdeth him content with that he hath.
 7 For we broughte nothinge in to the worlde, therfore is it a playne case yt we can cary nothinge out.
 8 When we haue fode and rayment, let vs therwith be content.
 9 For they that wylbe riche, fall in to the teptacion and snare, and in to many folisshe & noysome lustes, which drowne men in destruccion and damnacion.
 10 For Couetousnes is the rote of all euell, which whyle some lusted after, they erred from the faith, and tangled them selues with many sorowes.
 11 But thou man of God, flye soche thinges: folowe righteousnes, godlynes, faith, loue, pacience, mekenes:
 12 fighte a good fighte of faith: laye honde on eternall life, where vnto thou art called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.
 13 I geue the charge before God, which quyckeneth all thinges, & before Iesu Christ, which vnder Pontius Pilate witnessed a good witnessynge,
 14 that thou kepe the commaundement, without spot, vnreprouable, vntyll the appearynge of oure LORDE Iesus Christ,
 15 which appearynge (at his tyme) he shal shewe that is blessed, and mightie onely, the kyng of all kynges, and LORDE of all lordes:
 16 which onely hath immortalite, and dwelleth in a lighte, that no man can attayne: whom no man hath sene, nether can se. Vnto whom be honoure and empyre euerlastinge, Amen.
 17 Charge the which are riche in this worlde, that they be not proude, ner trust in the vncertayne riches, but in the lyuyng God (which geueth vs abundantly all thinges to enioye them):
 18 That they do good: that they be rich in good workes: that they geue and distribute with a good wyl:
 19 gatherynge vp treasure for them selues, a good foundacion, agaynst ye tyme to come, that they maye laye honde on eternall life.
 20 O Timothy, kepe that which is committed vnto the, and avoyde vngostly vayne wordes, and opposicions of science falsly so called,
 21 which whyle some professed, they haue erred as concernynge the faith. Grace be with the, Amen.

2 TIMOTHY

Chapter 1

1 Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the wyl of God, to preach the promes of ye life which is in Christ Iesu.
 2 To my deare sonne Timotheus. Grace, mercy, and peace from God the father and from Christ Iesu oure LORDE.

 3 I thanke God, whome I serue fro my fore elders in a pure conscience, that without ceassynge I make mencion of the in my prayers night and daye:
 4 and longe to se the (when I remembre thy teares) so that I am fylled with ioye,
 5 when I call to remembraunce the vnfauned faith that is in the, which dwelt first in thy graundemother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice: And am assured, that it dwelleth in ye also.
 6 Wherfore I warne the, that thou sterve vp ye gifte of God which is in the by puttyng on of my handes.
 7 For God hath not geuen vs the sprete of feare, but of power, and of loue, and of right vnderstandynge.
 8 Be not thou asshamed therfore of ye testimony of or LORDE, nether of me, which am his presoner: but suffre thou aduersite also wt the Gospell, acordinge to the power of God
 9 which hath sauued vs, and called vs with an holy callynge: not acordinge to oure dedes, but acordinge to his owne purpose and grace, which was geuen vs in Christ Iesu before the tyme of the worlde,
 10 but is now declared openly by the appearynge of oure Sauioure Iesu Christ. Which hath taken awaye ye power of death, and hath brought life and immortalite vnto lighte, thorow the Gospell:
 11 whervnto I am appoynted a preacher and an Apostell, and a teacher of the Heythen:
 12 for the which cause I also suffre these thinges, neuertheless I am not ashamed. For I knowe whom I haue beleued, and am sure that he is able to kepe that which I haue comytted vnto his keypyng agaynst that daye.
 13 Holde the after ye ensample of the wholsome wordes, which thou heardest of me, concernynge faith and loue in Christ Iesu.
 14 This hye charge kepe thou thorow the holy goost, which dwelleth in vs.
 15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, be turned fro me, of which sorte are Phigelus and Hermogenes.
 16 The LORDE geue mercy vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not asshamed of my cheyne:
 17 but when he was at Rome he soughte me out very diligently, and founde me.
 18 The LORDE graunte vnto him, that he maye fynde mercy with the LORDE in that daye. And how moch he mynistrd vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

Chapter 2

1 Thou therfore my sonne, be stronge thorow the grace which is in Christ Iesu.
 2 And what thinges thou hast herde of me by many witnesses, the same commytte thou vnto faithfull men, which are apte to teach other.
 3 Thou therfore suffre affliction as a good soudyer off Iesu Christ.

 4 No ma that warreth, tangleth him selfe with wordly busynesses, & that because he wolde please him, which hath chosen him to be a soudyer.
 5 And though a man stryue for a mastyre, yet is he not crowned, excepte he stryue laufully.
 6 The husbandman that laboureth, must first enioye the frutes.
 7 Consydr what I saye. The LORDE shal geue the vnderstandynge in all thinges.
 8 Remembre that Iesus Christ, beyng of the sede of Daud, rose agayne fro the deed, acordinge to my Gospell, 9 where in I suffre as an euell doer euen vnto bandes: but the worde of God is not bounde.
 10 Therfore suffre I all for the electes sakes, that they also mighte optayne the saluacion in Christ Iesu with eternall glory.
 11 This is a true sayenge: Yf we be deed wt him, we shal lyue with him also:
 12 Yf we be pacient, we shal also raigne with him: Yf we denye him, he also shal denye vs:
 13 Yf we beleue not, yet abyedeth he faithfull, he can not denye himselfe.
 14 Of these thinges put thou them in remembraunce, and testifye before the LORDE, that they stryue not aboute wordes, which is to no profit, but to peruerte the hearers.
 15 Study to shewe thy selfe vnto God a laudable workman, that nedeth not to be ashamed, deuydyng the worde of trueth iustly.
 16 As for vngostly and vayne talkynges, eschue them: for they helpe moch to vngodlynes,
 17 and their worde fretteth as doth a canker: Of whose nombre is Hymeneos & Philetus,
 18 which as concernynge the trueth haue erred, sayenge, that the resurreccion is past allready, and haue destroyed the faith of dyuerse personnes.
 19 But ye sure grounde of God stondesth fast, and hath this seale: The LORDE knoweth them that are his, and let euery ma that calleth vpon the name of Christ, departe from iniquyte.
 20 Not withstandynge in a greate house are not onely vessels of golde and of syluer, but also of wod and of earth: some for honoure, and some to dishonoure.
 21 But yf a man poure himselfe from soch felowes, he shalbe a vessell sanctified vnto honoure, mete for the LORDE, and prepared vnto all good workes.
 22 Fle thou the lustes of youth, but folowe righteousnes, faith, loue, peace, with all them that call vpon the LORDE with pure hert.
 23 As for folish questions and soch as teach not, put them fro the: for thou knowest that they do but geder stryfe.
 24 The seruaunt of the LORDE ought not to stryue, but to be gentle vnto euery man: apte to teach, one that can forbear 25 the euell, one yt can with mekenesse enfourme them yt resist: yf God at eny tyme wyl geue them repentance for to knowe the trueth, 26 and to turne agayne from the snare of the deuell, which are holden in preson of him at his will.

Chapter 3

1 Bvt this shalt thou knowe, that in the last dayes shal come parelous tymes.

2 For there shalbe me which shal holde of the selues, couetous, boasters, proude, cursed speakers, dishobedient to their elders, vnthankfull, vngoostly,

3 vnkynde, truce breakers, false accusers, ryatours, fearce, despysers of them which are good,

4 traytours, heady, hye mynded, gredy vpon voluptuousnes more then the louers of God,

5 hauynge a shyne off godly luyunge, but denyenge the power therof. And soch avoyde.

6 Of this sorte are they which rune fro house to house, & brynge in to bondage weme lade wt synne: which (wemen) are led with dyuerse lustes,

7 euer lernynge, and are neuer able to come vnto the knowlege of the trueth.

8 But like as Iannes and Iabres withstode Moses, euen so do these also resist the trueth: me they are of corrupte myndes, and lewde as cocernynge ye faith:

9 but they shal preuayle no longer. For their folishnes shalbe manifest vnto all men, as theirs was.

10 But thou hast sene the experience of my doctryne, my fasshion of luyunge, my purpose, my faith, my longsufferynge, my loue, my pacience, 11 my persecucions, my affliccions, which happened vnto me at Antioche, at Iconium, at Lystra, which persecucions I suffred patiently, and from the all the LORDE deluyered me.

12 Yee and all they that wil lyue godly in Christ Iesu, must suffre persecucion.

13 But the euell men and disceauers shal waxe worse and worse, disceauynge and beyng disceaued.

14 But contynue thou in the thinges that thou hast lerned, which also were comytted vnto the, seyng thou knowest of who thou hast learned them,

15 And for so moch as thou hast knowe holy scripture of a childe, the same is able to make ye wyse vnto saluacion thorow the faith in Christ Iesu.

16 For all scripture geue by inspiracion of God, is profitable to teach, to improue, to amende, and to instructe in righteousnes, 17 that a man off God maye be perfecte, and prepared vnto all good workes.

Chapter 4

1 I testifie therefore before God & before the LORDE Iesu Christ, which shal come to iudge the luyunge and the deed, at his appearynge in his kyngdome:

2 Preach thou the worde, be feruent, be it in season or out of season: Improue, rebuke, exhorte with all longe sufferynge and doctryne.

3 For the tyme wil come, whan they shal not suffre wholsome doctryne, but after their awne lustes shal they (whose eares ytche) get them an heape of teachers, 4 and shal turne their eares from the trueth, and shalbe geuen vnto fables.

5 But watch thou in all thinges, suffre aduersite, do the worke of a preacher of the Gospell, fulfyll thine office vnto the vttemost.

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the tyme of my departinge is at honde.

7 I haue foughte a good fighte: I haue fulfilled the course: I haue kepte the faith.

8 From hence forth there is layed vp for me a crowne of righteousnes, which the LORDE the righteous iudge shal geue me in yt daye: Howbeit not vnto me onely, but vnto all them that loue his comynge.

9 Make spede to come vnto me atonce.

10 For Demas hath lefte me, and loueth this present worlde, and is departed vnto Tesselonica, Crescens in to Galacia, Titus vnto Dalmacia, 11 Onely Lucas is with me. Take Marke, & brynge him with the: for he is profitable vnto me to the mynistracion.

12 Tichicus haue I sent to Ephesus.

13 The cloke that I lefte at Troada with Carpus brynge with the whan thou comest: and the bokes, but specially the parchemet.

14 Alexader the coppersmyth dyd me moch euell, the LORDE rewarde him acordynge to his dedes, 15 of whom be thou ware also. For he withstode oure wordes sore.

16 In my first answerynge no man assisted me, but all forsoke me. I praye God that it be not layed to their charges.

17 Notwitstondynge the LORDE stode by me, & stregthed me, that by me the preachinge shulde be fulfilled to the vttemost, and that all the Heythe shulde heare. And I was deluyered out of the mouth of the lyon.

18 And the LORDE shal delyuer me from all euell doynge, and shal kepe me vnto his heauenly kyngdome. To whom be prayse for euer and euer, Amen.

19 Salute Prisca and Aquila, and ye housholde of Onesiphorus.

20 Erastus abode at Corinthum. But Trophimus left I sick at Miletu.

21 Make spede to come before wynter. Eubolus, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren salute the.

22 The LORDE Iesus Christ be with thy sprete. Grace be with you, Amen.

TITUS

Chapter 1

1 Pavl the seruaunt of God, and an Apostle off Iesus Christ, to preach the faith off Gods electe, and the knowlege of ye trueth, which ledeth vnto godlynes, 2 vpon the hope of eternall life: which God that can not lye hath promysed before the tymes of the worlde:

3 but at his tyme hath opened his worde thorow preachinge, which is comytted vnto me acordynge to the commaundemet of God oure Sauioure.

4 Vnto Titus my naturall sonne after ye comen faith. Grace, mercy, and peace from God the father, and fro the LORDE Iesu Christ oure Sauioure.

5 For this cause left I the in Creta, that thou shuldest perfourme that which was lackynge, and shuldest ordeyne Elders in euery cite, as I appoynted ye.

6 Yf eny be blamelesse, the hussbande of one wife, hauynge faithfull children, which are not slaundred or ryote, nether are dishobedient.

7 For a Bisshoppe must be blamelesse, as the stewarde of God: not wyfull, not angrye, not geuen vnto moch wyne, no fyghter, not gredye of filthye lucre:

8 but harbarous, one that loueth goodnes, sober mynded, righteous, holy, temperate,

9 and soch one as cleueth vnto the true worde of doctryne: that he maye be able to exhorte with wholsome lernynge, & to improue them that saye agaynst it.

10 For there are many dishobedient, and talkers of vanite, and disceauers of myndes: namely they of the circucision, 11 whose mouthes must be stopped: which peruerte whole houses, teachinge thinges which they oughte not, because of filthye lucre.

12 One of them selues euen their awne prophet, sayde: The Cretayns are alwayes lyars, euell beestes, and slowe belies.

13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, yt they maye be sounde in the faith, 14 and not to take hede vnto Iewes fables and commaundementes of men, which turne them awaye from the trueth.

15 Vnto ye cleane are all thinges cleane: but to the vnclene & vnbeleuers, there is nothynge cleane, but both their mynde & conscience is defyled.

16 They saye that they knowe God, but with the dedes they denye him: for so moch as they are abhominable and dishobedient, and vnmete to all good workes.

Chapter 2

1 Bvt speake thou that which becommeth wholsome lernynge.

2 That ye elder men be sober, honest, discrete, sounde in the faith, in loue, in pacience.

3 And the elder women likewise that they shewe them selues as it becommeth holynes, that they be no false accusers, not geuen to moch wyne, that they teach honest thinges,

4 that they enfourme the yonge women to be sober mynded, to loue their hussbandes, to loue their childe,

5 to be discrete, chaste, husswyfly, good, obedient vnto their awne hussbandes, that the worde of God be not euell spoken of. 6 Exhorte the yonge men likewise, that they be sober mynded.

7 Aboute all thinge shewe thy selfe an ensample off good workes, with vn corrupte doctryne, with honestye, with the wholsome

8 worde which can not be rebuked: that he which withstodeth maye be ashamed, hauynge nothynge in you that he maye dispraise.

9 Exhorte the seruauntes, to be obedient vnto their masters, to please in all thinges, not answeringe agayne,

10 nether to be pykers, but to shewe all good faithfulness, that in all thinges they maye do worshippe vnto the doctryne off God oure Sauioure.

11 For the grace of God that bryngeth Saluacion vnto all men, hath appeared,

12 and teacheth vs, that we shulde denye vngodlynes, and wordly lustes: and that we shulde lyue discretly, righteously, and godly in this worlde,

13 lokynge for that blessed hope and appearynge of the glory of ye greate God and of oure Sauioure Iesu Christ:

14 which gaued him selfe for vs, to redeme vs fro all vnrighteousnes, and to poure vs to be a peculiar people vnto himselfe, to be feruently geuen vnto good workes.

15 These thinges speake and exhorte, and rebuke with all earnest. Se that no man despyse the.

Chapter 3

1 Warne them that they submytte them selues vnto Prynces and to the hyer auctorite, to obey the officers, to be ready vnto all good workes,

2 that they speake euell of no man, that they be no stryuers, but soft, shewynge all mekenes vnto all men.

3 For we oure selues also were in tymes past, vnwyse, dishobedient, in erreure, serynge lustes and dyuerse maners of voluptuousnes, luyunge in maliciousnes and envye, full of hate, hatynge one another.

4 But after that ye kyndnesse and loue of God oure Sauioure to man warde appeared,

5 not for ye dedes of righteousnes which we wroughte, but after his mercy he saued vs by the fountayne of the new byrth, and reuynge of the holy goost,

6 which he shed on vs abundantly, thorow Iesus Christ oure Sauioure:

7 yt we beyng made righteous by his grace, shulde be heyres of eternall life acordynge to hope.

8 This is a true sayege. Of these thinges wolde I that thou shuldest speake earnestly, that they which are become beleuers in God, might be diligent to excell in good workes: for these thinges are good and profitable vnto me.

9 As for folish questions, and genealogies, and braulynge and stryunges aboute ye lawe, auoyde the,

for they are vnprofitable and wayne.
 10 A ma that is geuen vnto heresy, after ye first and seconde monicion, auoyde, 11 and knowe, that he that is soch, is peruerted, & synneth euen damned by his awne iudgment.
 12 When I shal sende Artemas or Tichicus vnto ye, make spede to come to me vnto Nicopolis, for I haue determyned there to wynter.
 13 Brynge Zenas ye Scrybe and Apollos on their iourney diligently, that nothinge be lackynge vnto them.
 14 And let oures also learne to excell in good workes, as farre forth as nede requyreth, that they be not vnfrutefull.
 15 All they that are with me, salute the.
 Grete them that loue vs in the faith.
 Grace be with you all, Amen.

PHILEMON

Chapter 1

1 Paul the prsoner of Iesu Christ, and brother Timotheus. Vnto Philemon the beloued, and oure helper,
 2 and to the beloued Appia, and to Archippus or felowe soudyer, and to the congregacion in thy house.
 3 Grace be with you, and peace from God oure father and from the LORDE
 Iesus Christ.
 4 I thanke my God, makynge mencion allwayes of the in my prayers
 5 (for so moch as I heare of thy loue and faith which thou hast on the LORDE
 Iesu, and towarde all sayntes)
 6 that oure comen faith maye be frutefull in the, thorow knowlege of all ye good that ye haue in Christ Iesu.
 7 Greate ioye and consolacion haue I in thy loue. For by the (brother) the sayntes are hertely refreshed.
 8 Wherefore though I haue great boldnes in Christ to commaunde the that which becommeth the,
 9 yet for loues sake I rather beseke ye, though I be as I am, eue Paul aged, and now a prsoner also of Iesu Christ.
 10 I beseke the for my sonne Onesimus
 (whom I haue begotten in my bondes) 11 which in tyme past was to the vnprofitable, but now profitable both to the and me.
 12 Whom I haue sent agayne: but receaue thou him (that is) euen myne awne hert.
 13 For I wolde haue kepte him styll with me, that in thy steade he might haue mynistrd vnto me in ye bondes of ye Gospell:
 14 Neuertheles without thy mynde wolde
 I do nothinge, that ye good which thou doest, shulde not be of compulsion, but wyllingly.
 15 Happly he therfore departed for a season, that thou shuldest receaue him for euer:
 16 not now as a seruaunt, but aboute a seruaunt, euen a brother beloued, specially to me, but how moch more vnto ye, both in ye flesh and in the LORDE?

 17 Yf thou holde me for thy companyon, receaue him then euen as my selfe.
 18 But yf he haue hurte the, or oweth the oughte, that laye to my charge.
 19 I Paul haue wrytten it with myne awne hande. I will recompence it: so that I do not saye vnto ye, how that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne selfe.
 20 Euen so brother, let me enjoye the in the LORDE: refresh thou my hert in the LORDE.
 21 Trustinge in thine obediece, I haue wrytten vnto the, for I knowe that thou wilt do more then I saye.
 22 Morouer prepare me lodginge, for I hope that thorow youre prayers I shalbe geuen vnto you.
 23 There saluteth the, Epaphras my felowe prsoner in Christ Iesu, 24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my helpers.
 25 The grace of oure LORDE Iesu Christ be with youre sprete, Amen.

HEBREWS

Chapter 1

1 God in tyme past dyuersly & many wayes, spake vnto ye fathers by prophetes,
 2 but in these last dayes he hath spoken vnto vs by his sonne, whom he hath made heyre of all thinges, by whom also he made the worlde.
 3 Which (sonne) beyng the brightnes of his glory, & the very ymage of his substaunce, bearinge vp all thinges with the worde of his power, hath in his owne personne purged oure synnes, and is set on the righte hande of the maiestie on hie:
 4 beyng eue as moch more excellen the ye angels, as he hath optayned a more excellen name then they.
 5 For vnto which of the angels sayde he at eny tyme: Thou art my sonne, this daye haue I begotten the? And agayne: I will be his father, & he shalbe my sonne:
 6 And agayne, wha he bryngeth in the fyrst begotte sonne in to the worlde, he sayeth: And all the angels of God shal worshippe him.
 7 And of the angels he sayeth: He maketh his angels spretes, & his mynisters flames of fyre.
 8 But vnto ye sonne he sayeth: God, yi seate endureth for euer & euer: the cepter of yi kyngdome is a right cepter.
 9 Thou hast loued righteousnes, & hated iniquyte: wherefore God (which is thy God) hath anoynted the with the oyle of gladnesse aboute yi felowes.
 10 And thou LORDE in ye begynnynge hast layed the foundation of the earth, and ye heaues are the workes of thy handes,
 11 they shal perishe, but thou shalt endure: they all shal waxe olde as doth a garnet,

12 and as a vesture shalt thou chaunge them, and they shalbe chaunged. But thou art ye same, and thy yeares shal not fayle.
 13 Vnto which of the angels sayde he at eny tyme: Syt thou on my righte hade, tyll
 I make thine enemies thy fote stole?
 14 Are they not all mynistrynge spretes, sent to mynister for their sakes, which shalbe heyres of saluacion?

Chapter 2

1 Wherefore we ought to geue the more hede vnto the thinges which we haue herde, lest we perishe.
 2 For yf the worde which was spoke by angels, was stedfast, and euery trasgression and dishobedience receaued a iust recompence of rewarde,
 3 how shal we escape, yf we despyse so greate a saluacion: which after that it beganne to be preached by the LORDE himselfe, was confirmed vpon vs, by them that herde it,
 4 God bearyng witness thereto, with tokens, wonders and dyuerse powers, and giftes of the holy goost accordinge to his awne wyll.
 5 For vnto the angels hath he not subdued
 the worlde to come, wherof we speake.
 6 But one in a certayne place witnesseth
 & sayeth: What is man, that thou art myndefull of him? or the sonne of man, that thou vysitest him?
 7 After thou haddest for a litle season made him lower the ye angels, thou crownedst him with honoure and glory, and hast set him aboute the workes of thy handes.
 8 Thou hast put all thinges in subieccion vnder his fete. In that he subdued all thinges vnto him, he lefte nothinge that is not put vnder him.
 9 Neuertheles now se we not all thinges yet subdued vnto him. But him, which for a litle season was made lesse then the angels, we se that it is Iesus: which is crowned with honoure and glory for the sufferynge of death, that he by the grace of God, shulde taist of death for all men.
 10 For it became him, for whom are all thinges, and by who are all thinges (after yt he had broughte many children vnto glory) that he shulde make the LORDE of their saluacion perfecte thorow sufferynge,
 11 for so moch as they all come of one, both he that sanctifieth: & they which are sanctified. For the which causes sake, he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 sayenge: I will declare thy name vnto my brethren, and in the myddes of the cogregacion wil I prayse the.
 13 And agayne: I wyl put my trust in him.
 And agayne: beholde, here am I and my children, which God hath geuen me.
 14 For as moch then as the children haue flesh and blode. he also himselfe likewise toke parte with them, yt he thorow death, mighte take awaye ye power of him, which had lordshippe ouer death, that is to saye, ye deuell:
 15 & that he mighte delyuer the which thorow feare of death were all their life tyme in dauger of bondage.

 16 For he in no place taketh on him the angels, but ye sede of Abraham tabeth he on him.
 17 Wherefore in all thinges it became him to be made like vnto his brethren, that he mighte be mercifull and a faithfull hie prest in thinges concernynge God, to make agrement for the synnes of ye people.
 18 For in that he himselfe suffred and was tempted, he is able to sucke them that are tempted.

Chapter 3

1 Wherefore holy brethren, ye that are partakers of the heauey callinge, consyder the Embasseeour and hie prest of or profession, Christ Iesus,
 2 which is faithfull to him that ordeyned him, euen as was Moses in all his house.
 3 But this man is worthy of greater honoure then moyses, in as moch as he which prepareth the house, hath greater honoure in it, then the house it selfe.
 4 For euery house is prepared of some ma: but he that ordeyned all thinges, is God.
 5 And Moses verely was faithfull in all his house as a mynister, to beare witness of those thinges which were to be spoken afterwarde:
 6 But Christ as a sonne hath rule ouer his house, whose house are we, yf we holde fast the confidence and reioysynge of that hope vnto the ende.
 7 Wherefore, as ye holy goost sayeth:
 Todaye yf ye shal heare his voyce,
 8 harden not youre hertes, as in the prouokynge in the daye of temptacion in the wyldernes,
 9 where youre fathers tempted me, proued me, and sawe my workes fortye yeares longe.
 10 Wherefore I was greued wt that generacion, and sayde: They erre euer in their hertes. But they knewe not my wayes,
 11 so that I sware in my wrath, that they shulde not enter in to my rest.
 12 Take hede brethren, that there be not in eny of you an euell hert of vnbeleue, to departe from the luyngge God:
 13 but exhorte youre selues daylie, whyle it is called to daye, lest eny of you waxe harde harted thorow ye disceatfulnes of synne.
 14 For we are become partakers of Christ, yf we kepe sure vnto ye ende the begynnynge of the substace,
 15 solange as it is sayde: Todaye, yf ye shal heare his voyce, harde not youre hertes, as in the prouocacio.
 16 For some whan they herde, prouoked.
 Howbeit not all they yt came out of Egypite by Moyses.
 17 But with whom was he displeased fortye yeares longe? Was he not displeased with them yt synned, whose carcasses were ouerthrowne in ye wyldernes?

18 To whom sware he, yt they shulde not enter in to his rest, but vnto the yt beleued not?

19 And we se yt they coulede not enter in because of vnbeleue.

Chapter 4

1 Let vs feare therefore, lest eny of vs forsakyng the promes of entryng in to his rest, shulde seme to come behinde:

2 for it is declared vnto vs as well as vnto the. But the worde of preachinge helped not the, wha they that herde it, beleued it not.

3 (For we which haue beleued, enter in to his rest) acordynge as he sayde: Euen as I haue sworne in my wrath, They shal not enter in to my rest. And that (spake he) verely loge after that the workes fro the begynnynge of the worlde were made:

4 For he spake in a certayne place of the seuenth daye, on this wyse: And God rested on the seuenth daye from all his workes.

5 And in this place agayne: They shal not come in to my rest.

6 Seynge it foloweth the, that some must enter there in to: and they, to whom it was first preached, entred not therein for vnbeleues sake,

7 therefore appoynteth he a daye agayne after so longe tyme, and sayeth: Todaye (as it is rehearsed by Dauid) Todaye yf ye shal heare his voyce, then harden not youre hertes.

8 For yf Iosua had geuen them rest, the wolde he not afterwarde haue spoken, of another daye.

9 Therefore remaineth there yet a rest vnto the people of God.

10 For he that is entred in to his rest, ceaseth from his workes, as God doth from his 11 Let vs make haist therefore to enter in to that rest, lest eny man fall after the same ensample of vnbeleue.

12 For ye worde of God is quycke, and mightie in operacion, and sharper the eny two edged swerde, and entreth thorow, euen to the deuydinge of the soule & the sprete, and of ye ioyntes & the mary, and is a iudger of the thoughtes & intetes of the hert, 13 nether is there eny creature invisible in ye sighte of him. But all thinges are naked & bare vnto ye eyes of hi of who we speake.

14 Seynge then that we haue a greate hye prest, eue Iesus ye sonne of God, which is entred in to heauen, let vs holde oure profession.

15 For we haue not an hye prest which ca not haue copassion on or infirmities, but was in all poyntes tepted, like as we are, but without synne.

16 Let vs therefore go boldly vnto the seate of grace that we maye receaue mercy, and fynde grace to helpe in the tyme of nede.

Chapter 5

1 For euery hye prest that is taken fro amoge men, is ordeyned for men in thinges pertayninge to God, to offer giftes and sacrifices for synne:

2 which can haue copassion on the ignoraunt, and on them that are out of the waye, for so moch as he himselfe also is compased aboute with infirmyte.

3 Therefore is he bounde to offer for synnes, as well for him selfe as for ye people.

4 And noma taketh ye honoure vnto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 Euen so Christ glorified not himselfe to be made hye prest, but he yt sayde vnto him: Thou art my sonne, this daye haue I begotten the.

6 As he sayeth also in another place: Thou art a prest for euer after ye order of Melchisedech.

7 And in ye dayes of his fleshe, he offred vp prayers & supplicacions, wt stroge cryenge & teares vnto him yt was able to saue him fro death: & was herde also, because he had God in honoure.

8 And though he was Gods sonne, yet lerned he obedience, by those thinges which he suffred.

9 And he beyng made perfecte, became the cause of euerlastinge saluacio, vnto all the yt obeye him,

10 and is called of God an hye prest after the order of Melchisedech.

11 Wherof we haue many thinges to saye, which are harde to be vttered, because ye are dull of hearyng.

12 For where as concernynge the tyme ye ought to be teachers, yet haue ye nede agayne, yt we teach you the first preceptes of the worde of God: and are become soch as haue nede of mylke, and not stronge meate.

13 For euery one that is fed yet with mylte, is vnexpte in the worde of righteousnes, for he is but a babe.

14 But stronge meate belongeth vnto them yt are perfecte, which thorow custome haue their wyttes exercysed to iudge both good and euell.

Chapter 6

1 Wherfore let vs leaue the doctryne pertaynyng to the begynnynge of a Christen life, and let vs go vnto perfeccion: and now nomore laye ye foundation of repetaunce from deed workes, and of faith towarde God, 2 of baptyeme, of doctryne, of layenge on of hades, of resurreccion of the deed, & of eternall iudgment.

3 And so wil we do yf God permytte.

4 For it is not possible, that they which were once lighted, and haue taisted of the heauely gyfte, and are become partakers of the holy goost,

5 & haue taisted of ye good worde of God, and of the power of the worlde to come,

6 yf they fall awaye (and concernynge them selues crucifye the sonne of God afresshe, and make a mocke off him) that they shulde be renued agayne vnto repentaunce.

7 For the earth, that drynketh in the rayne, which commeth oft vpon it, and bringeth forth herbes mete for them that dresse it, receaueth blessinge of God:

8 But yt grounde which beareth thornes and thistles, is nothinge worth, and nye vnto cursynge: whose ende is to be brent.

9 Neuertheles (ye dearly beloued) we trust to se better of you, and yt saluacio is nyer, though we thus speake.

10 For God is not vnrighteous, that he shulde forget youre worke and laboure of loue, which ye shewed in his name, whan ye mynistrd vnto the sayntes, and yet mynister.

11 Yee and we desyre, that euery one of you shewe the same diligence, to the stablyshinge of hope euen vnto the ende, 12 that ye faynte not, but folowe them which thorow faith and paciece inheret the promyses.

13 For whan God made promes to Abraham, because he had none greater to sware by, he sware by himselfe, 14 and sayde: Surely I wil blesse the and multiplye ye in dede.

15 And so he abode pacietly, and optayned the promes.

16 As for men, they sware by him that is greater then them selues: and the ooth is the ende of all stryfe to confirme the thinge amoge them.

17 But God, wyllinge very abundauntly to shewe vnto the heyres of promes the stables of his councill, added an ooth 18 yt by two immutable thinges (in the which it is vnpossible yt God shulde lye) we mighte haue a stronge consolacion: euen we, which are fled to holde fast the hope that is set before vs,

19 which (hope) we haue as a sure and stedfast anker of oure soule. Which (hope) also entreth in, in to those thinges that are within ye vayle, 20 whither the foreruner is for vs entred in, eue Iesus, which is made an hye prest for euer after ye order of Melchisedech.

Chapter 7

1 This Melchisedech kyng of Salem (which beyng prest of the most hye God, met Abraham as he returned agayne from the slaughter of the kynges, & blessed him,

2 vnto whom Abraham also gaue tithes of all the goodes) first is by interpretacion kyng of righteousness: after that is he kyng of Salem also (that is to saye, kyng of peace)

3 without father, without mother, without kynne, and hath nether begynnynge of dayes, ner ende of life: but is likened vnto the sonne of God, and contynueth a prest for euer.

4 But cosider how greate a man this was, to whom the Patriarke Abraham gaue tithes of the spoyles.

5 And verely the children of Leui, whan they receaue the presthode, haue a commaundement acordynge to the lawe, to take the tithes of the people, that is to saye, of their brethre, though they also came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But he whose kynred is not counted amoge them, receaued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promes.

7 Now is it so without all naysayenge, that the lesse receaueth blessinge of ye better.

8 And here men that dye, receaue tithes. But there he receaueth tithes, of whom it is witnessed that he lyueth.

9 And to saye the trueth, Leui himselfe also which receaueth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham:

10 for he was yet in the loynes of his father Abraham, whan Melchisedech met him.

11 Yf now therefore perfeccion came by the presthode of the Leuites (for vnder the same (presthode) the people receaued the lawe) what neded it then furthmore, that another prest shulde ryse after the order of Melchisedech, and not after the order of Aaron?

12 For yf the presthode be traslated, the of necessite must the lawe be translated also.

13 For he of whom these thinges are spoken, is of another trybe, of the which neuer man serued at the altare.

14 For it is euident, that oure LORDE spronge of the trybe of Iuda, to the which trybe Moses spake nothinge cocernynge presthode,

15 And it is yet a more euident thinge, yf after the symilitude of Mechisedech there aryse another prest,

16 which is not made after ye lawe of the carnall commaundement, but after the power of the endlesse life

17 (For he testifieth: Thou art a prest for euer after the order of Melchisedech)

18 then the commaundement that wente before, is disanulled, because of his weaknesse, and vnprofitableness.

19 For the lawe made nothinge perfecte, but was an introduccion of a better hope, by ye which hope we drawe nye vnto God.

20 And for this cause is it a better hope, yt it was not promysed without an ooth.

21 Those prestes were made without an ooth, but this prest with an ooth, by him that sayde vnto him: The LORDE sware, and wyl not repent: Thou art a prest for euer after the order of Melchisedech.

22 Thus is Iesus become a stablischer of so moch a better Testamete.

23 And amonge them many were made prestes, because they were not suffred to endure by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because that he endureth euer, hath an euerlastinge presthode.

25 Wherfore he is able also euer to saue them, that come vnto God by him: & lyueth euer, to make intercession for vs.

26 For it became vs to haue soch an hye prest as is holy, innocent, vndefyled, separate from synners, and made hyer then heauen:

27 which nedeth not daylie (as yonder hye prestes) to offre vp sacrifice first for his awne synnes, and then for the peoples synnes. For that dyd he once for all, whan he offered vp him selfe.

28 For the lawe maketh men prestes which haue infirmitie: but the worde of the ooth, that came sence the lawe, maketh the sonne prest, which is perfecte for euermore.

Chapter 8

1 Of the thinges which we haue spoken, this is the pyth: We haue soch an hye prest, that is set on ye righte hande of the seate of maiestie in heaue:

2 and is a mynister of holy thinges, and of the true Tabernacle, which God pitched, & not man.

3 For euery hye prest is ordened to offre giftes and sacrifices: Wherefore it is of necessite, yt this man haue somewhat also to offer.

4 For he were not a prest, yf he were vpon earth, where are prestes yt acordinge to the lawe

5 offer giftes (which prestes serue vnto the ensample and shadowe of heauely thinges, euen as the answeere of God was geuen vnto Moses, whan he was aboute to fynish the Tabernacle: Take hede (sayde he) that thou make all thinges acordinge to the patrone shewed in the mount.)

6 But now hath he optayned a more excellent office, in as moch as he is the mediatur of a better Testament, which was made for better promyses.

7 For yf that first (Testament) had bene faultles, then shulde no place haue bene soughte for the secode.

8 For in rebukyng the he sayeth: Beholde, the dayes wyll come (sayeth the LORDE) that I wyl fynish vpo the house of Israel, and vpon the house off Iuda,

9 a new Testament: not as the Testament which I made with their fathers, in that daye whan I toke them by the handes, to lede them out of the londe of Egipte: for they contynued not in my Testament, and I regarded them not, sayeth the LORDE.

10 For this is the Testament, that I wil make wt the house of Israel after those dayes, sayeth the LORDE. I wyl geue my lawes in their mynde, and in their hertes wyl I wryte them: And I wil be their God, and they shal be my people:

11 and they shal not teach euery ma his neighbour, and euery man his brother, sayenge: knowe ye LORDE, for they shal knowe me from the leest to the most of them:

12 for I wil be mercifull ouer their vnrighteousnesses: And on their synnes & on their iniquities wyl I not thynke enymore.

13 In that he sayeth: A new, he weereth out ye olde. Now yt which is worne out and waxed olde, is ready to vanish awaye

Chapter 9

1 That first Tabernacle verely had ordinaunces, and seruynges off God and outwarde holynes.

2 For there was made a foretabernacle, wherin was ye candilstick, and the table, and the shewe bred: and this is called ye Holy.

3 But behynde the seconde vayle was the Tabernacle which is called Holiest of all,

4 which had the golden censor, and the Arke of the Testament ouerlaid rounde aboute with golde, wherin was the golden pot with Manna, and Aarons rodd that florished, and the tables of the Testament:

5 Aboue therin were the Cherubins off glory ouershadowyng the Mercyseate: Of which thinges it is not now to speake peticularly.

6 When these thinges were thus ordeyned, the prestes wente allwayes in to the first Tabernacle, and excuted ye seruyce of God.

7 But in to the seconde wente the hye prest alone once in the yeare, not without bloude, which he offred for himselfe and for the ignoraunce of the people.

8 Wherwith the holy goost this signifyeth, that the waye of holynes was not yet opened, whyle as yet the first Tabernacle was stonyng.

9 Which was a symilitude for the tyme then present, in the which were offred giftes and sacrifices, and coulde not make perfecte (as partaynyng to the conscience) him, that dyd the Gods seruyce

10 onely with meates and drynkes, and dyuerse washinges, and iustifienges of the flesh, which were ordeyned vnto the tyme of reformacion.

11 But Christ beyng an hye prest of good thinges to come, came by a greater and a more perfecte Tabernacle, not made with handes, that is to saye, not of this maner buyldyng:

12 nether by the bloude of goates or calues: but by his owne bloude entred he once for all in to the holy place, and hath founde eternall redempcion.

13 For yff the bloude off oxen and off goates, and the ashes off the cowe whan it is sprenkled, haloweth the vnclene as touchyng the purificacion of the flesh,

14 How moch more shal the bloude of Christ (which thorow the eternall sprete offred him selfe without spot vnto God) poure oure conscience from deed workes, for to serue the luyng God?

15 And for this cause is he ye mediatur of the new Testament, that thorow death which chaunced for the redempcion of those trasgressions (that were vnder the first Testament) they which were called mighte receaue the promes of eternall inheritaunce.

16 For where soeuer is a Testament, there must also be the death of him that maketh the testament.

17 For a Testamet taketh auctorite whan men are deed: for it is no value, as longe as he that made it is alue.

18 For the which cause that first Testamet also was not ordeyned without bloude.

19 For whan all the commaundementes

(acordinge to the lawe) were red of Moses vnto all the people, he toke ye bloude of calues and of goates, with water and purple woll and ysopo, and sprenkled the boke and all the people,

20 sayenge: This is the bloude of the Testament, which God hath appoynted vnto you.

21 And the Tabernacle and all the vessels of the Gods seruyce sprenkled he with bloude likewyse.

22 And almost all thinges are poured with bloude after the lawe: and without sheddyng of bloude is no remysion.

23 It is necessary then, that the symilitude of heauenly thinges be purified with soche: but ye heauenly thinges themselues are purified with better sacrifices, then are those.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holy places yt are made with handes (which are but symilitudes of true thinges) but in to the very heauen, for to appeare now before the face of God for vs:

25 Not to offer himselfe offt as the hye prest entred in to the holy place euery yeare with straunge bloude:

26 for the must he often haue suffred sence the worlde beganne. But now in the ende of the worlde hath he appeared once, to put synne to flight, by the offeryng vp of himselfe.

27 And as it is appoynted vnto me yt they shal once dye, and then cometh the iudgmet: Eue

28 so Christ was once offred, to take awaye the synnes of many. And vnto them that loke for him, shal he appeare agayne without synne vnto saluacion.

Chapter 10

1 For the lawe which hath but the shadowe off good thinges to come, and not the thinges in their awne fashion, can neuer by the sacrifices which they offer yeare by yeare continually, make the commers there vnto perfecte:

2 Els shulde they haue ceased to haue bene offred, because that the offerers once poured, shulde haue had nomore conscience of synnes.

3 Neuertheles in those sacrifices there is made but a remembraunce of synnes euery yeare.

4 For it is vnpossible yt the bloude of oxen and of goates shulde take awaye synnes.

5 Wherefore whan he commeth in to the worlde, he sayeth: Sacrifice & offeryng thou woldest not haue, but a body hast thou ordeyned me.

6 Burntofferynges and synneofferynges hast thou not alowed.

7 Then sayde I: Lo, I come. I the begynnyng of the boke it is wrytten of me, that I shulde do yi wyll O God.

8 Aboue wha he had sayde: Sacrifice and offeryng, and burnt sacrifices & synofferynges thou woldest not haue, nether hast alowed (which yet are offered after ye lawe).

9 The sayde he: Lo, I come to do wil thy

O God: there taketh he awaye the first, to stablysshe the latter:

10 In the which wyll we are sanctified by the offeryng vp of the body of Iesus Christ once for all.

11 And euery prest is ready daylie mynstringe, and oftymes offereth one maner of offerynges, which can neuer take awaye synnes.

12 But this man whan he had offred for synnes, one sacrifice which is of value for euer, sat him downe on the righte hande of God, 13 and from hence forth tarieth, tyll his foes be made his fote stole.

14 For with one offeryng hath he made perfecte for euer, the that are sanctified.

15 And the holy goost also beareth vs recorde of this, euen whan he sayde before:

16 This is the Testament, that I wyl make vnto them after those dayes, sayeth ye LORDE: I wyl geue my lawes in their hertes, and in their myndes wyl I wryte them, 17 and their synnes and iniquities wil I remebre nomore.

18 And where remysion of these thinges is, there is nomore offeryng for synne.

19 Seyng now brethre, that we haue a fre sure intrance in to that Holy place, 20 by the bloude of Iesu (which he hath prepared vnto vs for a new and luyng waye, thorow the vayle, that is to saye, by his flesh)

21 and seyng also that we haue an hye prest ouer the house of God,

22 let vs drawe nye with a true hert in a full faith, sprenkled in oure hertes from an euell conscience, and washed in oure bodies with pure water:

23 and let vs kepe the profession of oure hope without waueryng (for he is faithfull that hath promysed)

24 and let vs conside one another to ye prouokinge of loue and of good workes:

25 and let vs not forsake the fellshippe that we haue amoge oure selues, as the maner of some is: but let vs exhorte one another, and that so moch the more, because ye se that the daye draweth nye.

26 For yf we synne wyllfully after that we haue receaued the knowlege of the trueth, there remaineth vnto vs nomore sacrifice for synnes, 27 but a fearfull lokinge for iudgment, and violente fyre, which shal deuoure ye aduersaries.

28 He yt despyseth Moses lawe, dyeth without mercy vnder two or thre witnesses:

29 Of how moch sorer punyshment (suppose ye) shal he be counted worthy, which treadeth vnder fote the sonne of God, and couteth the bloude of ye Testamet (wherby he is sanctified) an unwholy thinge, & doth dishonoure to the sprete of grace?

30 For we knowe him that hath sayde: Vengeance is myne, I wil recompence, sayeth the LORDE. And agayne: The LORDE shal iudge his people.

31 It is a fearfull thinge to fall in to the handes of the luyng God.

32 But call ye to remembrance ye dayes yt are past, i ye which after ye had receaved lighte, ye endured a greate fighte off aduersities:

33 partly whyle all me wodred & gased at you for the shame and tribulacion that was done vnto you: and partly whyle ye became copanyons of them which so passed their tyme.

34 For ye haue suffred with my bodes, and toke a worth ye spoylinge of youre goodes, and that with gladnes, knowynge in youre selues, how that ye haue in heauen a better & an enduringe substance.

35 Cast not awaye therefore your confidence, which hath so greate a rewarde.

36 For ye haue nede of pacience, that after ye haue done the wil of God, ye mighte receaue the promes.

37 For yet ouer a litle whyle, and then he that shal come, wyl come, and wyl not tary.

38 But the iust shal lyue by his faith: And yf he withdrawe himselfe awaye, my soule shal haue no pleasure in him.

39 As for vs, we are not of those which withdrawe them selues to damnacion: but of them that beleue to the wynnyng of the soule.

Chapter 11

1 Faith is a sure confidence of thinges which are hoped for, and a certaynte of thinges which are not sene.

2 By it ye Elders were well reported of. 3 Thorow faith we vnderstonde, that the worlde and all the thinges which are sene, were made of naughte by the worde of God.

4 By faith offered Abell vnto God a more plenteous sacrifice: by the which he optayned wytnesse, that he was righteous: God testifyenge of his giftes, by the which also he beyng deed, yet speaketh. 5 By faith was Enoch take awaye, that he shulde not se death: and was not founde, because God had taken him awaye. For afore he was taken awaye, he had recorde that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is vnpossible to please God. For he that commeth vnto God, must beleue that God is, & yt he is a rewarder of them that seke him.

7 By faith Noe honoured God, after yt he was warned of thinges which were not sene, & prepared the Arke, to ye sauynge of his housholde: thorow the which Arke he condemned the worlde, and became heyre of the righteousness, which commeth by faith.

8 By faith Abraham (wha he was called) obeyed, to go out in to the place, which he shulde afterwarde receaue to inheritaunce: and he wente out, not knowynge whither he shulde go.

9 By faith was he a straunger in the lode of promes as in a straunge countre, & dwelt in tabernacles: and so dyd Isaac & Iacob, heyres with him of the same promes:

10 for he loked for a cite which hath a foundation, whose buylder and maker is God.

11 By faith Sara also receaved strength to be with childe, and was deliuered of a childe whan she was past age, because she iudged him to be faithfull which had promysed.

12 And therefore spronge there of one (yee euen off one which was as good as deed concernynge the body) so many in multitude as the starres off the skye, and as the sonde off the See shore, which is innumerable.

13 All these dyed acordinge to faith, and receaved not the promyses, but sawe the afarre off, and beleued them, and saluted them: and cofessed, that they were straungers & pilgrims vpo earth.

14 For they that saye soch thinges, declare, that they seke a naturall countre.

15 And doutles yf they had bene myndefull off that countre from whence they came out, they had leysure to haue returned agayne.

16 But now they desyre a better, that is to saye, a heauely. Wherfore God is not ashamed of the, eue to be called their God: for he hath prepared a cite for them.

17 By faith Abraha offered vp Isaac, wha he was tempted, and gaue ouer his onely begotten sonne, in whom he had receaved the promyses,

18 of whom it was sayde: In Isaac shal thy sede be called:

19 For he considered, yt God was able to rayse vp agayne from the deed. Therefore receaved he him for an ensample.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Iacob and Esau, concernynge thinges to come.

21 By faith Iacob, whan he was a dyenge, blessed both the sonnes off Ioseph, & bowed himselfe towarde the toppe of his cepter.

22 By faith Ioseph whan he dyed, remembred ye departynge of the childre of Israel, & gaue comaundemet concernynge his bones.

23 By faith Moses wha he was borne, was hyd thre monethes of his Elders, because they sawe that he was a proper childe, nether feared they the kynges comaundemet.

24 By faith Moses whan he was greate, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaos daughter:

25 and chose rather to suffre aduersite with the people of God, then to enioye ye pleasures of synne for a season:

26 and estemed the rebuke of Christ greater riches, then the treasure of Egipte: for he had respecte vnto the rewarde.

27 By faith he forsoke Egipte, and feared not the fearcenes of the kyng: for he endured, eue as though he had sene him which is inuisible.

28 By faith he helde Easter, and the effusion of bloude, lest he which slew the firstborne, shulde touche them.

29 By faith they passed thorow the reed See as by drye londe: which wha the Egipcians assayed to do, they were drowned.

30 By faith the walles of Iericho fell, wha they were compased aboute seuen dayes.

31 By faith the harlot Raab perished not with the vnbeleuers, wha she had receaved the spyes to lodginge peaceably.

32 And what shal I more saye? ye tyme wolde be to shorte for me to tell of Gedeon, of Barac, and of Samson, & of Iepthae, and of Dauid, and Samuel, and of the prophetes,

33 which thorow faith subdued kyngdomes, wroughte righteousness, optayned ye promyses, stopped ye mouthes of lyos

34 quenched the violece of fyre, escaped ye edge of the swerde, of weake were made stronge, became valeaunt in batayll, turned to flighte the armyes of the aleauntes, 35 the wemen receaved their deed agayne from resurreccion. But other were racked, and accepted no deliuerance, that they mighte optayne the resurreccion that better is.

36 Other taisted of mockinges and scourginges, of bondes also and presonment:

37 were stoned, were hewen a sunder, were tempted, were slayne with the swerde, wente aboute in shepe skynnes and goates skynnes, in nede, in tribulacion, in vexacion,

38 which (men) the worlde was not worthy of: they wandred aboute in wyldernesses, vpon mountaynes, in dennes and caues of the earth.

39 And these all thorow faith optayned good reporte, and receaved not ye promes:

40 because God had prouyded a better thinge for vs, that they without vs shulde not be made perfecte.

Chapter 12

1 Wherfore seyng we haue so greate a multitude of witnesses aboute vs let vs also laye awaye all yt presseth downe, and the synne that hangeth on, and let vs runne with pacience vnto the batayll that is set before vs.

2 lokinge vnto Iesus ye auctor and fynissher of faith: which whan the ioye was layed before him, abode the crosse, and despysed the shame, and is set downe on ye righte hade of ye trone of God.

3 Cosidre him therefore that endured soch speakinge agaynst hi of synners, lest ye be weery and faynte in youre myndes:

4 for ye haue not yet resisted vnto bloude, stryuyng agaynst synne,

5 and haue forgotten the consolacion, which speaketh vnto you as vnto children: My sonne, despyse not the chastenyng off the LORDE, nether faynte whan thou art rebuked of him:

6 for who the LORDE loueth, him he chasteneth, yee and he scourgeth euery sonne that he receaueth.

7 Yf ye endure chastenyng, God offereth himselfe vnto you as vnto sonnes. What sonne is that, whom the father chasteneth not?

8 Yf ye be not vnder correccion (wherof all are partakers) then are ye bastardes and not sonnes.

9 Morouer seyng we haue had fathers off oure flesh which corrected vs, & we gaue them reuerence, shulde we not then moch rather be in subieccion vnto ye father of spirituall giftes, yt we mighte lyue?

10 And they verely for a few dayes nurtred vs after their awne pleasure: but he lerneth vs vnto yt which is profitable, that we mighte receaue of his holynes.

11 No maner chastisyng for the present tyme semeth to be ioyous, but greuous: neuertheles afterwarde it bringeth the quyetete frute of righteousness, vnto them which are exercysed therby.

12 Life vp therfore the handes which were let downe, and the weake knees, 13 and se that ye haue straight steppes vnto youre fete, lest eny haltinge turne you out of the waye, yee let it rather be healed.

14 Folowe after peace with all men, and holynes, without the which no man shal se the LORDE,

15 ad loke well, that no ma be destitute of the grace of God, lest there sprynge vp eny bytter rote, and cause disquyetnes, and therby many be defyled:

16 that there be no whoremonger, or vnclane person, as Esau, which for one meate sake solde his byrth righte.

17 For ye knowe, how that afterwarde whan he wolde haue inhereted the blessinge, he was put by: for he foude no place of repetaunce, though he desyred (ye blessinge) with tears.

18 For ye are not come to ye mout that can be touched and burneth with fyre, nether yet to myst and darcknes, and tempest of wedder,

19 nether to the sounde of the trompe, and ye voyce of wordes: which they that herde, wysshed awaye, that the worde shulde not be spoken to them,

20 for they were not able to abyde that which was spoken. And yf a beest had touched the mountayne, it must haue bene stoed, or thrust thorow with a darte.

21 And so terrible was the sighte which appeared, that Moses sayde: I feare and quake.

22 But ye are come to the mount Sion, and to the cite of the Iuyng God, to the celestiaall Ierusalem, and to the multitude of many thousande angels,

23 and vnto the congregacion of the first borne, which are wryten in heauen, and to God the iudge of all, and to the spretes of iust and perfecte men,

24 and to Iesus the mediatoure of the new Testament, and to the sprenklynge off bloude, that speaketh better then the bloude of Abel.

25 Se that ye despyse not him that speaketh vnto you: for yf they escaped not which refused him that spake on earth, moch more shal we not escape, yf we turne awaye from him that speaketh from heau:

26 whose voyce shoke the earth at that tyme. But now promyseth he, & sayeth: Yet once more wyl I shake, not the earth onely, but also heauen.

27 No doute that same that he sayeth yet once more, signifieth the remouynge awaye of those thinges which are shaken, as off thinges which are made: that ye thinges which are not shake, maye remayne.

28 Wherefore, seyng we receaue the vnmoueable kyngdome, we haue grace, wherby we maye serue God, & please him, with reuerence and godly feare.

29 For oure God is a consumynge fyre.

Chapter 13

1 Let brotherly loue cotynue.

2 Be not forgetfull to lodge straungers: for therby haue dyuerse receaued angels in to their houses vnawares.

3 Remembre them that are in bondes, eue as though ye were bounde with them: and be myndefull off them which are in aduersite, as ye which are also in the bodye.

4 Let wedlocke be had in pryce in all poyntes, & let ye chamber be vndefyled. For whorekeepers and aduouterers God wil iudge.

5 Let youre conuersacion be without couetousnes, and be content with that ye haue allready, for he hath sayde: I wyl not fayle the nether forsake the,

6 so that we maye boldly saye: The LORDE is my helper, and I wyl not feare what man maye do vnto me.

7 Remembre the which haue the ouersight of you, which haue declared vnto you the worde of God. The ende of whose couersacion se that ye loke vpon, and folowe their faith.

8 Iesus Christ yesterdaye and Todaye, & the same cotinueth for euer.

9 Be not caried aboute wt dyuerse and strange lernynges: for it is a good thinge that the herte be stablysshed with grace, and not with meates, which haue not profited them, that haue had their pastyme in them.

10 We haue an altare, wherof they haue no power to eate, which serue in the Tabernacle.

11 For the bodies of those beestes whose bloude is broughte in to the holy place by ye hye prest to pouрге synne, are brent without the tetes.

12 Therefore Iesus also, to sanctifye ye people by his awne bloude, suffred without ye gate.

13 Let vs go forth therefore out of the tentes, and suffre rebuke with him:

14 for here haue we no contynuyng cite, but we seke one to come.

15 Let vs therefore by him offre allwayes vnto God the sacrifice of prayse: that is to saye, the frute of those lippes which confesse his name.

16 To do good and to destribute forget not, for wt soch sacrifices God is pleased.

17 Obey them that haue the ouersight off you, and submytte youre selues vnto them: for they watch for youre soules, euen as they that must geue accoptes therfore, that they maye do it with ioye, and not with grefe: for that is an vnprofitable thinge for you.

18 Praye for vs. We haue confidence, because we haue a good conscience in all thinges, and desyre to lyue honestly.

19 But I desyre you ye more abundantly, that ye so do, yt I maye be restored vnto you the more quykly.

20 The God of peace (that broughte agayue fro the deed oure LORDE Iesus the greate shepherde of the shepe thorow the bloude of the euerlastinge Testament)

21 make you perfecte in all good workes, to do his wyll, workynge in you that which is pleasaunt in his sighte thorow Iesus Christ, to whom be prayse for euer and euer Amen.

22 I beseke you brethren, suffre the worde of exhortacion, for I haue wrytten vnto you in few wordes.

23 Knowe or brother Timotheus, whom we haue sent from vs, with whom (yf he come shortly) I wil se you.

24 Salute the that haue the ouersight of you and all ye sayntes. The brethren of Italy salute you.

25 Grace be with you all, Amen.

JAMES

Chapter 1

1 Iames the seruaunt of God and of the LORDE Iesus Christ, sendeth gretinge to the xij. trybes which are scatered here & there.

2 My brethren, counte it exceedynge ioye whe ye fall in to diuers temptacions,

3 for as moche as ye knowe, how yt the tryng of youre faith bringeth pacience: 4 and let pacience haue her perfect worke, yt ye maye be perfecte aud sounde, lakinge nothinge.

5 Yf eny of you lacke wyssdome, let him axe of God, which geueth to all men indifferently, and casteth no man in the teth: and it shal be geue him.

6 But let him axe in faith and wauer not. For he that douteth, is lyke the wawes of ye See, tost of the wynde, and caried wt violence.

7 Nether let yt man thinke that he shal receaue eny thig of ye LORDE.

8 A waueryng mynded ma ys vnstable in all his waies.

9 Let the brother of lowe degre reioyce, in yt he is exalted:

10 and the rich, in yt he is made lowe. For eue as the flor of ye grasse shal he vanyshe awaye.

11 The Sonne ryseth wt heat and the grasse wydereth, & his floure falleth awaye, and the beautie of the fassion of it perissheth: euen so shal the ryche man perissh with his abundaunce.

12 Happy is the man that endureth in teptacion, for when he is tryed, he shal receaue the crowne of life, which the LORDE hath promised to them that loue him.

13 Let no man saye when he is tempted, yt he is tempted of God. For God tepteth not vnto euell, nether tepteth he eny man.

14 But euery ma is tepted, drawne awaye, & entysed of his awne cocupiscece.

15 The whe lust hath conceaued, she bringeth forth synne, & synne when it is fynished, bringeth forth death.

16 Erre not my deare brethre.

17 Euery good gifte, & euery parfait gift, is from aboue, and cometh downe from ye father of light, with whom is no variableness, nether is he changed vnto darcknes.

18 Of his awne will begat he vs with the worde of life, that we shulde be the fyrst frutes of his creatures.

19 Wherefore deare brethren, let euery man be swifte to heare, slowe to speake, and slowe to wrath.

20 For the wrath of ma worketh not that which is righteous before God.

21 Wherefore laye aparte all fylthines, all superfluite of maliciousnes, & receaue with meknys ye worde yt is grafted in you, which is able to saue youre soules.

22 And se that ye be doers of ye worde & not heares only, deceaunge youre awne selues.

23 For yf eny heare the worde, and do it not, he is like vnto a ma that beholdeth his bodily face in a glasse.

24 For assone as he hath loked on himselfe, he goeth his waye, and forgetteth immediatly what his fasshion was.

25 But who so loketh in ye perfect lawe of libertie, and continueth therin (yf he be not a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the worke) the same shalbe happie in his dede.

26 Yf eny man amonge you seme deuoute, & refrayne not his toge: but deceaue his awne herte, this mannes deuocion is in vayne.

27 Pure deuocion and vndefiled before God the father, is this: to visit the fendlesse and widdowes in their aduersite, and to kepe him selfe vnspotted of the worlde.

Chapter 2

1 Brethren, haue not the faith of oure LORDE Iesus Christ ye LORDE of glory in respecte of persons.

2 Yf ther come in to yor copany a ma wt a golde rynge and in goodly aparell, & ther come in also a poore man in vyle raymet,

3 & ye haue a respecte to him yt weareth the gaye clothinge & saye vnto hi: Sit thou here i a good place, & saye vnto ye poore, stonde thou there or sit here vnder my fote stole:

4 are ye not parciall in youre selues, and haue iudged after euyll thoughtes?

5 Harken my deare beloued brethre. Hath not God chosen the poore of this worlde, which are ryche in faith, and heyres of the kyngdom which he promysed to the that loue him?

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Are not the ryche they which oppresse you: & they which drawe you before iudges?

7 Do not they speake euell of that good name after which ye be named.

8 Yf ye fulfill the royall lawe acordinge to the scripture which saith: Thou shalt loue thyne neighbour as thyselfe, ye do well.

9 But yf ye regarde one person more then another, ye comit synne, and are rebuked of the lawe as trsagressours.

10 Whosoever shal kepe the whole lawe, and yet fayle in one poynt, he is gyltie in all.

11 For he that sayde: Thou shalt not commit adulterie, sayed also: thou shalt not kyll. Though thou do none adulterie, yet yf thou kill, thou art a transgressor of the lawe.

12 So speake ye, and so do as they that shalbe iudged by the lawe of libertie.

13 For ther shalbe iudgement merciles to him that sheweth no mercy, & mercy reioiseth against iudgment.

14 What a vayleth it my brethre, though a man saye he hath faith, when he hath no dedes? Can faith saue him?

15 If a brother or a sister be naked or destitute of dayly fode,

16 & one of you saye vnto them: Departe in peace, God sende you warmnes and fode: notwithstandinge ye geue them not tho thinges which are nedfull to the body: what helpeth it them?

17 Euen so faith, yf it haue no dedes, is deed in it selfe.

18 Ye & a man might saye: Thou hast faith, and I haue dedes: Shewe me thy faith by thy dedes: and I wil shewe the my faith by my dedes.

19 Beleuest thou yt ther is one God? Thou doest well. The deuils also beleue and tremble.

20 Wilt thou vnderstode o thou wayne man that faith with out dedes is deed:

21 Was not Abraham oure father iustified thorow workes when he offered Isaac his sonne vpon the aulter?

22 Thou seist how yt faith wrought with his dedes, and through ye dedes was the faith made perfect:

23 & the scripture was fulfilled which faith: Abraha beleued God and it was reputed vnto him for rightewesnes: and he was called ye frende of God.

24 Ye se then how that of dedes a man is iustified, and not of faith only 25 Likewise also was not Raab the harlot iustified thorow workes, when she receaued the messengers, and sent them out another waye?

26 For as the body, with oute the sprete is deed, euen so faith wt out dedes is deed.

Chapter 3

1 My brethre, be not euery man a master, remebrynge how that we shall receaue the more damnacion:

2 for in many thinges we synne all. Yf a man synne not in worde, the same is a perfecte man, & able to tame all the body.

3 Beholde, we put bittes into the horses mouthes yt they shulde obeye vs, and we turne aboute all the body.

4 Beholde also ye shypes, which though they be so gret, and are dryuen of feare windes, yet are they turned about with a very smale helme, whither soeuer the violence of the gouerner wyll.

5 Euen so the toge is a lyttell member, and bosteth great thinges. Beholde how gret a thinge a lyttell fyre kyndleth,

6 and the tonge is fyre, and a worlde of wyckednes. So is the tonge set amonge oure membres, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth a fyre all that we haue of nature, and is it selfe set a fyre euen of hell.

7 All the natures of beastes, and of byrdes, and of serpentes, and thinges of the see, are meked and tamed of the nature of ma.

8 But the toge can no man tame. Yt is an vnruely euell full of deedly poyson.

9 Therwith blesse we God the father, and therwith curse we men which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth procedeth blessinge and cursynge. My brethre these thinges ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountayne sende forth in one place swete water and bytter also?

12 Can the fygge tree, my Brethren, beare oliue beries: ether a vyne beare fygges?

13 So can no fountayne geue bothe salt water and fresshe also. If eny man be wyse and endued with learnynge amonge you, let him shewe the workes of his good couersacion in meknes that is coupled with wissdome.

14 But yf ye haue bitter enuyenge and stryfe in yor hertes, reioyce not: nether be lyars agaynst the trueth.

15 This wissdome descendeth not from aboue: but is erthy, and naturall, and dyuelishe.

16 For where enuyenge and stryfe is, there is vnstableness and all maner of euell workes.

17 But the wissdom that is fro aboue, is fyrst pure, the peasable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good frutes, without iudynge, and without simulacion:

18 yee, and the frute of rightewesnes is sownen in peace, of the that mayntene peace.

Chapter 4

1 From whence commeth warre and fightynge amonge you: come they not here hence? euen of yor voluptuousnes that rayne in youre mebres?

2 Ye lust, and haue not. Ye envie and haue indignacion, and can not obtayne. Ye fight & warre, and haue not, because ye axe not.

3 Ye axe & receaue not because ye axe amysse: eue to cosume it vpo yor voluptuousnes.

4 Ye aduouterars, & weme that breke matrimonie: knowe ye not how that the frenshippe of ye worlde is ennemite to godwarde? Whosoeuer wilbe a frende of the worlde, is made ye enemye of god.

5 Ether do ye thinke yt the scripture sayth in vayne. The sprete yt dwelleth in you, lusteth euen contrary to enuelle:

6 but geueth more grace.

7 Submit youre selues to God, and resist the deuell, & he wil flye fro you.

8 Drawe nye to God & he wil drawe nye to you. Clense yor hondes ye synners, and poure youre hertes ye wauerynge mynded.

9 Suffre afflictions: sorowe ye and wepe. Let youre laughter be turned to mornynge, and youre ioye to heuynes.

10 Cast downe youre selues before the LORDE, and he shal lift you vp.

11 Backbyte not one another, brethren. He that backbyteth his brother, and he yt iudgeth his brother, backbyteth the lawe, and iudgeth the lawe. But and yf thou iudge the lawe, thou art not an obseruer of the lawe: but a iudge.

12 There is one lawe geuer, which is able to saue and to distroye. What art thou that iudgeth another man?

13 Go to now ye that saye: to daye & to morow let vs go into soche a citie and continue there a yeaere, and bye and sell, and wynne:

14 & yet ca not tell what shal happe to morowe. For what thinge is youre life? It is euen a vapoure that apereth for a lytell tyme, and the vanyssheth awaye:

15 For that ye ought to say: yf the LORDE wil, and yf we liue, let vs do this or that.

16 But nowe ye reioyce in youre bostinges. All soche reioysynge is euell.

17 Therfore to him that knoweth how to do good, and doth it not, to him it is synne.

Chapter 5

1 Goo to now ye riche men. Wepe, and howle on yor wretchednes that shal come vpon you.

2 Your riches is corrupte, youre garmetes are motheaten.

3 Your golde & yor siluer are cancred, & the rust of them shalbe a witnes vnto you, & shal eate youre flesshe, as it were fyre. Ye haue heaped treasure togedder in yor last dayes:

4 Beholde, the hyre of the labourers which haue reped downe youre felde (which hyer is of you kept backe by fraude) cryeth: and the cryes of the which haue reped, are entred in to the eares of the LORDE Sabaoth.

5 Ye haue liued in pleasure on the earth and in wantannes. Ye haue norysshed youre hertes, as in a daye of slaughter.

6 Ye haue codempned and haue killed the iust, and he hath not resisted you.

7 Be pacient therfore brethren, vnto the comynge of the LORDE. Beholde, the hussbade man wayteth for the precious frute of ye earth, and hath longe pacience there vpon, vntill he receaue the erly and the latter rayne.

8 Be ye also pacient therfore, and settle youre hertes, for the commynge of the LORDE draweth nye.

9 Grodge not one agaynst another brethren, lest ye be damned. Beholde, the iudge stondeth before the dore.

10 Take (my brethren) the prophetes for an ensample of sufferynge aduersitie, and of longe pacience, which spake in the name of the LORDE.

11 Beholde we counte them happy which endure. Ye haue hearde of ye paciece of Iob, and haue knowen what ende the LORDE made. For the LORDE is very pitifull and mercifull.

12 But aboute all thinges my brethren, swaere not, nether by heaue, nether by earth, nether by eny other othe. Let youre ye be ye, and yor naye naye: lest ye faule in to ypocricy.

13 Yf eny of you be euell vexed, let hi praye. Yf eny of you be mery, let him singe Psalmes.

14 Yf eny be diseased amonge you, let him call for the elders of the congregacion, & let the praye ouer him, and anoynte him with oyle in the name of the LORDE:

15 and ye prayer of faith shal saue the sicke, and the LORDE shal rayse him vp: and yf he haue comitted synnes, they shalbe forgeuen him.

16 Knowlege youre fautes one to another: and praye one for another, that ye maye be healed. The prayer of a righteous man auayleth moche, yf it be feruet.

17 Helias was a ma mortall euen as we are, and he prayed in his prayer, that it might not rayne: & it rayned not on the earth by the space of thre yeaeres and sixe monethes.

18 And he prayed agayne, and ye heaue gaue rayne, & ye earth brought forth her frute.

19 Brethren, yf eny of you erre fro the trueth and another conuert him, 20 let ye same knowe that he which conuerted the synner from goynge astraye out off his waye, shal saue a soule fro death, and shal hyde the multitude of synnes.

1 PETER

Chapter 1

1 Peter an Apostle of Iesu Christ, to the that dwell here and there as straungers throw out Pontus, Galacia, Capadocia, Asia and Bithinia, electe

2 accordinge to the foreknowlege of God the father thorow sanctifieng of the sprete, vnto obedience and sprenklynge of the bloude of Iesus Christ. Grace and peace be multiplied with you.

3 Blessed be God and the father of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, which accordinge to his greate mercy hath begotten vs agayne vnto a lyuely hope by the resurreccion of Iesus Christ from the deed,

4 to an vncorruptible and vndefyled inheritaunce, which neuer shal fade awaye, but is reserued in heauen for you 5 that are kepte by the power of God thorow faith to saluacion, which is prepared all ready to be shewed in the last tyme:

6 in the which ye shal reioyse, though now for a litle season (yff nede requyre) ye are in heuynes thorow manyfolde temptacions:

7 that youre faith once tryed (beynge moch more precious then the corruptible golde that is tryed thorow the fyre) might be founde vnto laude, glory and honoure at the appearynge of Iesus Christ:

8 whom ye haue not sene, and yet loue him: in whom now ye beleue, though ye se him not. Euen so shal ye reioyce also with vnoutspeakable and glorious ioye, 9 receauynge the ende of youre faith, euen the saluacion of youre soules.

10 Of which saluacion the prophetes haue enquired and searched, which prophced off the grace that shulde come vpon you:

11 searchinge whan or at what tyme the sprete off Christ that was in them, shulde signifye, which (sprete) testified before the passions that shulde come vnto Christ, and the glory that shulde folowe after.

12 Vnto the which (prophetes) it was declared, that not vnto them selues, but vnto vs they shulde mynister the thinges which are now shewed vnto you, by them which thorow ye holy goost sent downe from heauen, haue preached vnto you the thinges which the angels delyte to beholde.

13 Wherefore gyrdy op the loynes off youre mynde, be sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the declarynge of Iesus Christ,

14 as obedient childre, not fasshionynge youre selues to yor olde lustes of ignoraunce:

15 but as he which hath called you is holy, eue so be ye holy also in all youre conuersacion:

16 for it it wrytte: Be ye holy, for I am holy.

17 And yf so be that ye call on the father, which without respecte of persones iudgeth acordinge to euery mans worke, se yt ye passe ye tyme of youre pilgremage in feare:

18 and knowe, that ye were not redemed wt corruptible syluer and golde, from youre vayne conuersacion (which ye receaued by the tradicions of the fathers)

19 but with the precious bloude of Christ, as of an innocet and vndefyled lambe,

20 which was ordeyned before the worlde was made, but is declared in these last tymes for youre sakes,

21 which throw him beleue on God, that raysed him vp from the deed, and hath geue him the glory, that ye might haue faith & hope in God:

22 Euen ye which haue purified youre soules in obeyenge the trueth thorow the sprete, for to loue brotherly without faynyng, & feruently one to loue another wt a pure hert,

 23 as they that are borne a new, not of corruptible sede, but of vncorruptible, eue by the luyunge worde of God, which endureth for euer.
 24 For all flesh is as grasse, and all the glory of man is as the floure of grasse. The grasse withereth, & the floure falleth awaye
 25 but the worde of the LORDE endureth for euer. This is the worde, that is preached amonge you.

Chapter 2

1 Wherefore laye asyde all maliciousnes and all gyle, and ypocrisye, and envye, and all bacbytinge,
 2 & as new borne babes desyre that reasonable mylke, which is without corrupcion, that ye maye growe therin,
 3 yf so be that ye haue taisted how frendly the LORDE is.
 4 Vnto whom ye are come, as to the luyunge stone, which is disallowed of men, but chosen of God and precious.
 5 And ye also as luyunge stones are made a spirituall house, and an holy presthode, to offre vp spirituall sacrifices, acceptable vnto God by Iesus Christ.
 6 Wherefore it is conteyned in the scripture: Beholde, I put in Sion an heade corner stone, electe & precious, and he that beleueth on him, shal not be cofounded.
 7 Vnto you therefore which beleue, he is precious: but vnto them that beleue not, is ye same stone which the buylders refused, made the heade stone in the corner,
 8 and a stone to stomble at, and a rock to be offended at, namely in the which stomble at ye worde, and beleue not that wheron they were set.
 9 But ye are that chosen generacion, that kyngly presthode, that holy nacion, that peculier people, yt ye shulde shewe the vertues of him, which hath called you out of darknesse in to his maruelous lighte:
 10 Euen you which in tyme past were not a people, but now are the people of God: which were not vnder mercy, but now haue optayned mercy.
 11 Dearly beloued, I beseke you as strangers and pilgrims, absteine fro the fleshly lustes, which fighte agaynst the soule,
 12 and lede an honest conuersacion amonge the Heythen, that they which bacbyte you as euell doers, maye se youre good workes, and prayse God in the daye of visitacion.
 13 Submytte youre selues vnto all maner ordinance of men for the LORDES sake: whether it be vnto the kynge as vnto ye chefe heade, 14 or vnto rulers, as vnto them that are sent of him, for the punyshment of euell doers, but for the prayse of the that do well.
 15 For so is the will of God, that ye with well doynge shulde put to sylence the ignorance of folishmen:

16 as fre, and not as hauynge the libertye for a cloke of wickednes, but eue as the seruauntes of God.
 17 Honoure all men. Loue brotherly fellishippe. Feare God. Honoure the kynge.
 18 Ye seruautes, obey youre masters with all feare: not onely yf they be good and curteous, but also though they be frowarde.
 19 For that is grace, yf a man for conscience towarde God endure grefe, and suffre wronge.
 20 For what prayse is it, yf wha ye be buffeted for yor fautes, ye take it paciently? But yf whan ye do well, ye suffre wronge, and take it paciently, that is grace with God.
 21 For here vnto are ye called, for so moch as Christ also suffred for vs, leauynge vs an ensample, that ye shulde folowe his fotesteppes,
 22 which dyd no synne, nether was there gyle founde in his mouth:
 23 which whan he was reuyled, reuyled not agayne: wha he suffred, he threatened not: but commytted the cause vnto him, that iudgeth righteously:
 24 which his owne selfe bare oure synnes in his body vpon the tre, that we shulde be deluyered from synne, & shulde lye vnto righteousnes: by whose strypes ye were healed.
 25 For ye were as shepe goynge astraye, but now are ye turned vnto the shepherde and Bisshoppe of youre soules.

Chapter 3

1 Likewise let the wyues be in subieccion to their hussbandes, that euen they which beleue not the worde, maye without the worde be wonne by ye couersacion of the wyues,
 2 whan they beholde yor pure conuersacion in feare.
 3 Whose apparell shal not be outwarde wt broyded heer, & hanginge on of golde, or in puttynge on of gorgious araye,
 4 but let ye inwarde ma of ye hert be vncorrupte wt a meke & a quyetie sprete, which before God is moch set by.
 5 For after this maner in the olde tyme, dyd ye holy weme which trusted in God, tyer the selues, & were obedient vnto their hussbades:
 6 Euen as Sara obeyed Abraham, and called him lorde: whose doughters ye are, as loge as ye do well, not beyng afraied for eny trouble.
 7 Likewise ye men, dwell with them acordinge vnto knowlege, geuyng honor vnto the wife, as to the weaker vessel: & as vnto the yt are heyres with you of the grace of life, that youre prayers be not let.
 8 But in conclusion be ye all of one mynde, one suffre with another, loue as brethren, be pitefull, be curteous.
 9 Repotence not euell for euell, nether rebuke for rebuke: but cotrary wyse, blesse: and knowe that ye are called therto, euen yt ye shulde be heyres of ye blesсынge.

 10 For who so listeth to lye, and wolde fayne se good dayes, Let him refrayne his tonge from euell, and his lippes yt they speake no gyle.
 11 Let him eschue euell, & do good: Let him seke peace and ensue it.
 12 For ye eyes of the LORDE are ouer the righteous, & his eares are open vnto their prayers. But ye face of the LORDE beholdeth the yt do euell.
 13 And who is it that can harme you, yf ye folowe that which is good?
 14 Not withstodinge blessed are ye, yf ye suffre for righteousnes sake Feare not ye their threatynge, nether be troubled,
 15 but sanctifye the LORDE God in youre hertes. Be ready allwayes to geue an answer to euery ma, that axeth you a reason of the hope that is in you, and that with mekenes & feare, 16 hauynge a good conscience, that they which bacbyte you as euell doers, maye be ashamed, that they haue falsely accused youre good couersacion in Christ.
 17 For it is better (yf the wyll of God be so) that ye suffre for well doynge, the for euell doynge.
 18 For as moch as Christ hath once suffred for oure synnes, ye iust for the vniust, for to bryng vs to God: & was slayne after the flesh, but quyckened after the sprete.
 19 In the which sprete he also wente, and preached vnto ye spretes that were in preson,
 20 which in tyme past beleued not, whan God once a bode and suffred pacietly in the tyme of Noe, whyle the Arke was a preparynge: Wherin fewe (that is to saye eight soules) were saued by water.
 21 Which signifieth baptyeme yt now saueth vs: not ye puttyng awaye of the fylth of the flesh, but in yt a good cosciece cosenteth vnto God by ye resurreccion of Iesus Christ,
 22 which is on the righte hande of God, and is gone in to heaue, angels, power and mighte subdued vnto him.

Chapter 4

1 For as moch then as Christ hath suffred for vs in ye flesh, arme youre selues likewise with the same mynde. For he which suffreth in the flesh, ceaseth fro synne,
 2 yt hece forth (as moch tyme as yet remayneth in ye flesh) he shulde not lye after the lustes of me, but after the wil of God.
 3 For it is ynough, yt we haue spent ye tyme past of the life, after the will of ye Heythen, wha we walked in wantannesse, lustes, dronkenes, glotony, ryotous drynkyng, & i abhominable Idolatrye.
 4 And it semeth to the a straunge thinge, yt ye runne not also wt them vnto the same excesse of ryote, & speake euell of you.
 5 (Which shal geue acoptes vnto hi yt is ready to iudge ye quycke & ye deed.)

6 For vnto this purpose also was ye Gospell preached vnto the deed, yt they shulde be iudged like other me i ye flesh, but shulde lye vnto God in ye sprete.
 7 The ende of all thiges is at hade. Be ye therefore sober & watch vnto prayers:
 8 but aboue all thinges haue feruent loue amonge you one to another. For loue couereth the multitude of synnes.
 9 Be ye herberous one to another without grudginge,
 10 & mynister one to another, eueryone with the gifte yt he hath receaued, as good stewardes of the manifolde grace of God.
 11 Yf eny ma speake, let hi speake it as ye wordes of God. Yf eny man haue an office, let him execute it as out of the power yt God mynistrerth vnto hi, yt God maye be prayed in all thinges thorow Iesus Christ, To who be honor and domynion for euer and euer Amen.
 12 Derely beloued, maruell not at this heate (which is come amoge you to trye you) as though some straunge thinge happened vnto you:
 13 but reioyce, in as moch as ye are partakers of Christes passios, yt wha his glory appeareth, ye maye be mery & glad.
 14 Yf ye be reuyled for ye name of Christ, blessed are ye, for ye sprete (which is ye sprete of glory & of God) resteth vpon you. On their parte he is euell spoken of, but on yor parte he is prayed.
 15 But se that none of you suffre as a murthurer, or as a thefe, or as an euell doer, or as a busy body in other mens matters.
 16 Yf eny man suffre as a Christen man, let him not be ashamed, but let him prayse God on this behalfe.
 17 For ye tyme is come, that iudgmet must begynne at the house of God. Yf it first begynne at vs, what shal the ende be of the which beleue not the Gospell of God?
 18 And yf ye righteous scacely be saued, where shal ye yngodly & synner appeare?
 19 Wherefore let them that suffer acordinge to the will off God, commytte their soules vnto him with well doynge, as to the faithfull creator.

Chapter 5

1 The Elders which are amonge you I exhorte, which am also an Elder, and a witnes off the afflictions in Christ, and partaker of the glory that shalbe opened.
 2 Fede Christes flocke which is amonge you, and take the ouersight of the, not as though ye were copelled therto, but wyllyngly: not for the desyre of filthye lucre, but of a good mynde:
 3 not as though ye were lordes ouer the parishes, but that ye be an ensample to the flocke:
 4 & whan the chefe shepherde shal appeare, ye shal receaue the vncorruptible crowne of glory.
 5 Likewise ye yoger submytte youre selues vnto the elder. Submytte youre selues euery man one to another, and knyng yor selues together in lowlynes of mynde. For God resisteth the proude, but geueth grace to the humble.

6 Submytte yor selues therefore vnder the mightie hande of God, that he maye exalte you whan the tyme is come.

7 Cast all youre care on him, for he careth for you.

8 Be sober and watch, for yor aduersary ye deuell, walketh aboute as a roaring lyon, sekyng whom he maye deuoure, 9 whome resiste stedfast in the faith, and knowe, that youre brethren in the worlde haue euen the same afflictions.

10 But ye God of all grace, which hath called you to his euerlastinge glory in Christ Iesu, shal his owne selfe make you perfecte, which suffre a litle season: eue he shal settle, strength, and stablish you.

11 To him be prayse and domynion for euer and euer, Amen.

12 By Siluanus youre faithfull brother (as I suppose) haue I wrytte vnto you breuely, exhortinge and testifyenge, how that this is the true grace of God wherin ye stode.

13 The companyons of youre eleccion that are at Babilon, salute you, and Marcus my sonne.

14 Grete ye one another with the kysse of loue. Peace be with you all which are in Christ Iesus, Amen.

2 PETER

Chapter 1

1 Symon Peter a seruaut and an Apostle of Iesus Christ. Vnto the which haue optayned like faith with vs in the righteousnes that commeth of oure God, and Sauioure Iesus Christ.

2 Grace and peace be multiplied with you thorow the knowlege of God and of Iesus Christ oure LORDE.

3 For so moch as his godly power hath geuen vs all thinges (that pertayne vnto life and godlynes) thorow the knowlege of him that hath called vs by his owne glorie and power,

4 wherby the excellent and most greate promyses are geue vnto vs: namely, that ye by the same shulde be partakers of the godly nature, yf ye flye the corrupte lust of the worlde:

5 Geue ye all youre diligence therfore here vnto, and in youre faith mynister vertue: in vertue, knowlege:

6 in knowlege, temperancy: in temperancy, pacience: in pacience, godlynes:

7 in godlynes, brotherly loue: in brotherly loue, generall loue.

8 For yf these thinges be plenteous in you, they will not let you be ydle nor vnfrutefull in ye knowlege of oure LORDE Iesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these thinges, is blynde, & gropeth for the waye with the hade, and hath forgotten, that he was clensed from his olde synnes.

10 Wherefore (brethre) geue the more diligence, to make youre callynge and eleccion sure: for yf ye do soch thinges, ye shal not fall,

11 and by this meanes shal there be plenteously mynistered vnto you an entrynge in vnto ye euerlastinge kyngdome of oure LORDE and Sauioure Iesus Christ.

12 Therefore wil I not be negliget to put you allwayes in remembraunce of soch thinges: though ye knowe them youre selues, and be established in the present trueth.

13 Notwithstandinge I thinke it mete, as loge as I am in this tabernacle, to stere you vp by puttinge you in remembraunce.

14 For I am sure, that I must shortly put of my tabernacle, euen as oure LORDE Iesus Christ hath shewed vnto me.

15 Yet wyl I do my diligece, that allwaye after my departyng ye maye haue wherwith to kepe these thinges in remembraunce.

16 For we folowed not deceaeable fables, whan we declared vnto you the power and commyng of oure LORDE Iesus Christ: but with oure eyes we sawe his maiestie, 17 whan he receaued of God the father honoure & prayse, by a voyce that came vnto him from the excellent glory, after this maner: This is my deare sonne, in whom I haue delyte.

18 And this voyce herde we broughte downe fro heauen, whan we were with him on the holy mount.

19 We haue also a sure worde of prophecie, and ye do well that ye take hede therunto, as vnto a lighte that shyneth in a darke place vntyll the daye dawne, and the daye starre aryse in youre hertes.

20 And this shal ye knowe first, that no prophecie in the scripture is done of eny priuate interpretacion.

21 For the prophecie was neuer broughte by the wyll of man, but the holy men of God spake, as they were moued of ye holy goost.

Chapter 2

1 Bvt there were false prophetes also amonge the people, euen as there shalbe false teachers amonge you likewise, which preuely shal brynge in damnable sectes, euen denyenge the LORDE that hath boughte them, and shal brynge vpon them selues swift damnacion:

2 and many shal folowe their damnable wayes, by who the waye of the trueth shal be euell spoke of:

3 and thorow cuvetousnes shal they with fayned wordes make marchaundise of you, vpo who the iudgment is not negliget in tarienge of olde, and their damnacion slepeth not.

4 For yf God spared not the angels that synned, but cast them downe with the cheynes of darknes in to hell, and delyuered the ouer to be kepte vnto iudgment:

5 Nether spared the olde worlde, but saued Noe the preacher of righteousnes himselfe beyng ye eight, and brought the floude vpo the worlde of the vngodly:

6 And turned the cities of Sodom and Gomor into ashes, ouerthrueth them, damned them, and made on them an ensample, vnto those that after shulde lyue vngodly:

7 And delyuered iust Loth which was vexed with the vngodly conuersacion of ye wicked.

8 For in so moch as he was righteous and dwelt amonge them, so that he must nedes se it and heare it, his righteous soule was greued from to daye to daye with their vnlauffull dedes.

9 The LORDE knoweth how to delyuere the godly out of tentacion, and how to reserue the vniust vnto the daye of iudgment for to be punyshed:

10 but specially them that walke after the flesh in ye lust of vnclennes, and despyse the rulers: beyng presumptuous, stubborne, and feare not to speake euell of the yt are in auctorite

11 wha the angels yet which are greater both in power and might, beare not that blasphemous iudgment agaynst them of the LORDE.

12 But these are as ye brute beestes, which naturally are broughte forth to be take and destroyed: speakyng euell of yt they knowe not, and shal perishe in their owne destruccion,

13 and so receaue ye rewarde of vnrighteousnes. They counte it pleasure to lyue deliciously for a season: Spottes are they and fylthynes: lyuyng at pleasure and in disceaeable wayes: feastyng wt that which is youre,

14 hauyng eyes full of aduoutrye, and ca not cease from synne, entysyng vnstable soules: hauyng an hert exercysed wt couetousnes: they are cursed children,

15 and haue forsaken the righte waye, and are gone astraye: folowinge the waye of Balaam the sonne of Bosor, which loued the rewarde of vnrighteousnes:

16 but was rebuked of his iniquyte. The tame and domme beast spake with mas voyce, & forbad the foolishnes of ye prophet.

17 These are welles without water, & cloude caried aboute of a tepest: to who ye myst of darknesse is reserued foreuer.

18 For they speake ye proude wordes of vanite, vnto ye vttemost, and entyse thorow wantannes vnto ye luste of the flesh, euen them that were cleane escaped, and now walke in erreure:

19 and promyse them libertye, where as they them selues are seruantes off corrupcion. For off whom so euer a man is ouercome, vnto the same is he in bondage.

20 For yf they (after they haue escaped from the fylthynes of the worlde, thorow the knowlege of ye LORDE and Sauioure Iesus Christ) are yet tangled agayne therin and ouercome, then is the latter ende worse vnto them then the begynnynge.

21 For it had bene better for them, not to haue knowne the waye of righteousnes, then after they haue knowne it, to turne from the holy commaundemet, that was geuen vnto them.

22 It is happened vnto them acordyng vnto the true prouerbe: ye dogg is turned to his vomyte agayne: and ye sowe that was washed, vnto hir walowyng in the myre.

Chapter 3

1 This is the seconde Epistle that I now wryte vnto you (ye dearly beloued) wherin I stere vp and warne youre pure mynde, that ye maye remembre

2 the wordes, which were tolde before of the holy prophetes: and also the commaundement of vs, that be the Apostles of the LORDE and Sauioure.

3 This first vnderstonde, that in the last dayes there shal come mockers, which wyll walke after their awne lustes,

4 & saye: Where is the promes of his commyng? For sence the fathers fell on slepe, euery thinge contynueth as it was from the begynnynge of ye creature.

5 This they knowe not (and that wyllfully) how that the heauens were afore tyme also, and the earth out of the water, & was in the water by the worde of God,

6 yet was the worlde at that tyme destroyed by the same with the floude.

7 But the heauens which are yet, and ye earth, are kepte in stoare by his worde, to be reserued vnto fyre agaynst the daye of iudgment and damnacion of vngodly men.

8 Dearly beloued, be not ignoraunt of this one thinge, how that one daye is with the LORDE as a thousande yeare: and a thousande yeare as one daye.

9 The LORDE is not slacke to fulfill his promes (as some me counte slacknesse) but is paciet to vs warde, and wyl not that eny ma shulde be lost, but that euery man shulde amende himselfe.

10 Neuertheles the daye of the LORDE shal come euen as a thefe in the night: in the which (daye) the heauens shal perishe with a greate noyse, and the Elementes shal melte with heate, and the earth and ye workes that are therin, shal burne.

11 Yf all these thinges shal perishe, what maner persons then ought ye to be in holy couersacion and godlynes, 12 lokyng for and hastyng vnto the commyng of the LORDE? In the which the heauens shal perishe with fyre, and the elementes shal melt with heate.

13 Neuertheles we loke for a new heauen and a new earth (acordyng to his promes) wherin dwelleth righteousnes.

14 Wherefore dearly beloued, seyng that ye loke for soch thinges, be diligent, yt ye maye be founde before him in peace without spot and vndefyled:

15 and counte the longsufferyng of oure LORDE youre saluacion, Euen as oure dearly beloued brother Paul (acordinge to the wyssdome geue vnto him) wrote vnto you:

16 yee speakyng therof allmost in all

Epistles, wherin are many thinges harde to be vnderstonde, which they that are vnlearned and vnstable, peruerte, as they do the other scriptures also, to their awne danacion.

17 Ye therfore beloued, seyng ye knowe it before hande, beware, lest ye also be plucte awaye thorow the erreure of ye wicked, and fall from yor owne stedfastnes.

18 But growe in grace, and in the knowledge of oure LORDE and Sauioure Iesus Christ. To him be prayse now and for euer, Amen.

1 JOHN

Chapter 1

1 That which was from ye begynnyng, which we haue herde, which we haue sene with our eyes, which we haue lokyd vpon, and our handes haue handled of the worde of life:

2 and the life hath appeared, and we haue sene, and beare wytnes, and shewe vnto you ye life that is euerlastinge, which was with the father, and hath appeared vnto vs.

3 That which we haue sene & herde, declare we vnto you, that ye also maye haue fellowshipe with vs, and that oure fellowshipe maye be with the father and with his sonne Iesus Christ.

4 And this wryte we vnto you, that youre ioye maye be full.

5 And this is the tydinges which we haue herde of him, & declare vnto you, that God is lighte, and in him is no darknes at all.

6 Yf we saye that we haue fellowshipe with him, and yet walke in darknes, we lye, and do not the trueth.

7 But yf we walke in lighte, euen as he is in lighte, then haue we fellowshipe together, and the bloude of Iesus Christ his sonne clenseth vs from all synne.

8 Yf we saye that we haue no synne, we disceauour oure selues, and the trueth is not in vs.

9 But yf we knowe oure synnes, he is faithfull and iust to forgeue vs oure synnes, & to clense vs from all vnrighteousnes.

10 Yf we saye, we haue not synned, we make him a liar, and his worde is not in vs.

Chapter 2

1 My litle children, these thinges wryte I vnto you, that ye shulde not synne: and yf eny man synne, we haue an aduocate with the father, euen Iesus Christ which is righteous:

2 and he it is that optayneth grace for oure synnes: not for oure synnes onely, but also for the synnes of all the worlde.

3 And hereby are we sure that we knowe him, yf we kepe his commaundemetes.

4 He that sayeth: I knowe him, and kepeth not his commaundemetes, is a liar, and the trueth is not in him,

5 But who so kepeth his worde, in him is the loue of God perfecte in dede. Hereby knowe we, that we are in him.

6 He yt sayeth he abydeth in him, oughte to walke euen as he walked.

7 Brethren, I wryte no new commaundement vnto you, but that olde commaundement, which ye haue herde from the begynnyng.

8 The olde commaundement is the worde, which ye haue herde from the begynnyng. Agayne, a new commaundemet wryte I vnto you, a thinge that is true in him & also in you: for the darknesse is past, and the true lighte now shyneth.

9 He that sayeth he is in lighte, and hateth his brother, is yet in darknesse.

10 He yt loueth his brother, abydeth in the lighte, and there is none occasion of euell in him.

11 But he yt hateth his brother, is in darknes, and walketh in darknes, and can not tell whither he goeth, for ye darknes hath blynded his eyes.

12 Babes, I wryte vnto you, that yor synnes are forgeuen you for his names sake.

13 I wryte vnto you fathers, how that ye haue knowne him which is from ye begynnyng. I wryte vnto you yonge me, how that ye haue euercome the wicked. I wryte vnto you litle children, how that ye haue knowne the father.

14 I haue wrytten vnto you fathers, how that ye haue knowne him, which is fro the begynnyng. I haue wrytten vnto you yonge men, how that ye are stronge, and the worde of God abydeth in you, and ye haue ouercome that wicked.

15 Se that ye loue not the worlde, nether ye thinges that are in the worlde. Yf eny man loue the worlde, the loue of the father is not in him:

16 for all that is in the worlde (namely the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pryde of life) is not of the father, but of the worlde.

17 And the worlde passeth awaye and the lust therof. But he that fulfilleth the wyll of God, abydeth for euer.

18 Litle children, it is the last houre, and (as ye haue herde that Antechrist shal come) euen now are there many become Antechristes already: wherby we knowe, that it is ye last houre.

19 They wente out fro vs, but they were not of vs: for yf they had bene of vs, they wolde no doute haue contynued with vs. But that they maye be knowne, how that they are not all of vs.

20 But ye haue the anoyntinge of him yt is holy, & ye knowe all thiges.

21 I haue not wryte vnto you, as though ye knewe not ye trueth but ye knowe it, & are sure, yt no lye cometh of ye trueth.

22 Who is a liar, but he yt denyeth yt Iesus is Christ? The same is ye Antichrist, yt denyeth the father & ye sonne.

23 Whosoeuer denyeth the sonne, the same hath not the father.

24 Loke what ye haue herde now from ye begynnyng, let the same abyde in you.

Yf yt which he herde from the begynnyng shal remayne in you, then shal ye also abyde in ye sonne and in the father.

25 And this is the promes yt he hath promysed vs, eue eternall life.

26 This haue I wrytte vnto you cocerninge the that disceauour you.

27 And the anoyntinge which ye haue receaued of him, dwelleth in you: & ye nede not yt eny man teach you, but as the anoyntinge teacheth you all thiges, euen so is it true, & is no lye. And as it hath taughte you, eue so abide ye therin.

28 And now babes, abyde in hi, yt wha he shal appeare, we maye be bolde, & not be made ashamed of him at his comyng.

29 Yf ye knowe yt he is righteous, knowe also that he which doth righteousnes, is borne of him.

Chapter 3

1 Beholde what loue the father hath shewed on vs, yt we shulde be called the childre of God. Therefore ye worlde knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2 Dearly beloued, we are now ye childre of God, and yet hath it not appeared what we shalbe. But we knowe yt when he shal appeare, we shal be like him: for we shal se him as he is.

3 And euery man yt hath this hope in him, pourgeth him selfe, euen as he is pure.

4 Who so euer comytteth synne, comytteth vnrighteousnes also, and synne is vnrighteousnes.

5 And ye knowe that he appeared to take awaye oure synnes: and in him is no synne.

6 Who so euer abydeth in him, synneth not: who soeuer synneth, hath not sene him nether knowne him.

7 Babes, let no man disceauour you. He that doeth righteousnes, is righteous, euen as he is righteous.

8 He that comytteth synne, is of the deuell: for the deuell synneth sence ye begynnyng. For this purpose appeared the sonne of God, to lowse the workes of the deuell.

9 Who so euer is borne of God, synneth not: for his sede remaineth in him, & he ca not synne, because he is borne of God.

10 By this are the children of God knowne & the children of the deuell. Who so euer doeth not righteousnes, is not of God, nether he that loueth not his brother.

11 For this is the tydinges which ye haue herde from the begynnyng, that ye shulde loue one another, 12 not as Cain, which was of the wicked, and slewe his brother. And wherfore slewe he him? euen because his awne workes were euell, and his brothers righteous.

13 Maruayle not (my brethren) though the worlde hate you.

14 We knowe yt we are traslated from death vnto life, because we loue the brethren. He that loueth not his brother, abydeth in death.

15 Who soeuer hateth his brother, is a manslayer. And ye knowe that a manslayer hath not eternall life abydinge in him.

16 Hereby haue we perceaued loue, that he gaue his life for vs, and therfore ought we also to geue oure lyues for the brethren.

17 But he yt hath this worldes good, & seyeth his brother haue nede, and shutteth vp his hert fro him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My litle children, let vs not loue with worde nether with tonge, but with ye dede, and with the trueth.

19 Hereby knowe we, that we are of the verite, and can quete oure hertes before him.

20 But yf oure hert condemne vs, God is greater the oure hert, and knoweth all thinges.

21 Dearly beloued, yf oure hert condemne vs not, then haue we a fre boldnes to God warde.

22 And what so euer we axe, we shal receaue it: because we kepe his commaundemetes, and do those thinges, which are pleasaunt in his sighte.

23 And this is his commaundement, that we beleue on ye name of his sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as he gaue commaundement.

24 And he that kepeth his commaundementes, dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby knowe we that he abydeth in vs, euen by the sprete which he hath geuen vs.

Chapter 4

1 Dearly beleued, beleue not ye euery sprete, but proue the spretes, whether they be of God. For many false prophetes are gone out in to the worlde.

2 Hereby shal ye knowe the sprete of God: Euery sprete which confesseth, that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God:

3 And euery sprete which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not off God. And this is that sprete of Antechrist, off whom ye haue herde, how that he shal come, and euen now already is he in the worlde.

4 Litle children, ye are off God, and haue ouercome them: for greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the worlde.

5 They are off the worlde, therfore speake they off the worlde, and the worlde herkeneth vnto them.

6 We are of God, and he that knoweth God, herkeneth vnto vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Here by knowe we the sprete of trueth, and ye sprete of erreure.

7 Dearly beloued, let vs loue one another, for loue commeth of God. And euery one yt loueth, is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

9 By this appeared the loue of God to vs warde, because that God sent his onely begotten sonne in to this worlde, that we mighte lyue thorow him.

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his sonne to make agrement for oure synnes.

11 Dearly beloved, yf God so loued vs, we oughte also to loue one another.

12 No man hath sene God at eny tyme. Yf we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfecte in vs.

13 Hereby knowe we that we dwell in him, and he in vs, because he hath geuen vs of his sprete.

14 And we haue sene, & testifie that the father sent the sonne to be the Sauioure of the worlde.

15 Whosoeuer now confesseth yt Iesus is the sonne of God in him dwelleth God, and he in God:

16 and we haue knowne and beleued the loue that God hath to vs. God is loue, and he that dwelleth in loue dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Here in is the loue perfecte with vs, that we shulde haue a fre boldnesse in the daye of iudgment: for as he is, eue so are we in this worlde.

18 Feare is not in loue, but perfecte loue casteth out feare: for feare hath paynefulnes. He that feareth, is not perfecte in loue.

19 Let vs loue him, for he loued vs first.

20 Yf eny man saye: I loue God, & yet hateth his brother, he is a liar. For he that loueth not his brother whom he seyth, how can he loue God, whom he seyth not?

21 And this commaundement haue we of him, that he which loueth God, shulde loue his brother also.

Chapter 5

1 Who so euer beleueth that Iesus is Christ, is borne of God. And who soeuer loueth him that begat, loueth him also which was begotten of him.

2 By this we knowe that we loue Gods children, whan we loue God, and kepe his commaundementes.

3 For this is the loue of God, that we kepe his commaundementes, and his commaundemetes are not greuous.

4 For all that is borne of God, ouercommeth the worlde: and this is the victory that ouercommeth the worlde, eue oure faith.

5 Who is it yt ouercommeth the worlde, but he which beleueth that Iesus is the sonne of God?

6 This is he that cometh with water and bloude, euen Iesus Christ: not with water onely, but with water and bloude. And it is the sprete that beareth wytnes: for the sprete is the trueth.

7 (For there are thre which beare recorde in heauen: the father, the worde, and the holy goost, & these thre are one.)

8 And there are thre which beare recorde in earth: the sprete, water and bloude, and these thre are one.

9 Yf we receaue the witness of men, the witnesse of God is greater: for this is the wytnesse of God, which he testified of his sonne.

10 He that beleueth on ye sonne of God, hath the wytnes in him selfe. He that beleueth not God, hath made him a liar.

11 And this is that recorde, euen yt God hath geue vs euerlastinge life. And this life is in his sonne.

12 He that hath the sonne of God, hath life: He that hath not the sonne of God, hath not life.

13 These thinges haue I wrytte vnto you, which beleue on the name of the sonne of God, that ye maye knowe, how that ye haue eternal life, and that ye maye beleue on ye name of the sonne of God.

14 And this is the fre boldnesse which we haue towarde him, that yf we axe eny thinge acordinge to his wyll, he heareth vs.

15 And yf we knowe that he heareth vs what so euer we axe, then are we sure that we haue ye peticions, which we haue desyred of him.

16 Yf eny man se his brother synne a synne not vnto death, let him axe, and he shal geue him life, for the yt synne not vnto death. There is a synne vnto death, for the which saye I not that a man shulde praye.

17 All vnrighteousnes is synne, and there is synne not vnto death.

18 We knowe, that whosoeuer is borne off God, synneth not: but he that is begotte of God, kepeth himselfe, & yt wicked toucheth him not.

19 We knowe that we are of God, & the worlde is set alltogether on wickednes.

20 But we knowe, that the sonne of God is come, and hath geuen vs a mynde, to knowe him which is true: and we are in him yt is true, in his sonne Iesu Christ. This is the true God, and euerlastinge life.

21 Babes kepe youre selues from ymages. Amen.

2 JOHN

Chapter 1

1 The Elder. To ye electe lady and hir childre whom I loue in the trueth: & not I onely, but all they also that haue knowne the trueth,

2 for the trutthes sake which dwelleth in vs, and shalbe with vs for euer.

3 Grace, mercy, and peace be with you fro the LORDE Iesus Christ ye sonne of the father in the trueth and in loue.

4 I am greatly reioysed, that I haue founde amonge thy children, them that walke in ye trueth, as we haue receaued a commaundement of the father.

5 And now lady I beseke the (not as though I wrote a new commaundement vnto the, but the same which we haue had from the begynnyng) that we loue one another.

6 And this is the loue, that we walke after his commaundementes. This is the commaundement (as ye haue herde fro the begynnyng) that we shulde walke therin.

7 For many disceauers are come in to the worlde, which confesse not yt Iesus Christ is come in the flesh: this is a disceauer and an Antechrist.

8 Take hede to youre selues, that we lose not that which we haue wrought, but that we maye receaue a full rewarde.

9 Whoso euer transgresseth, and abydeh not in the doctryne of Christ, hath not God: he that abydeh in ye doctryne of Christ, hath both the father and the sonne.

10 Yf eny man come vnto you, and brynge not this doctryne, receaue him not in to the house, nether salute him:

11 for he that saluteth him, is partaker of his euell dedes.

12 I had many thinges to wryte vnto you: neuertheles I wolde not wryte wt papyre and ynke, but I trust to come vnto you, and to speake with you mouth mouth, that oure ioye maye be full.

13 The children of thy electe sister salute the. Amen.

3 JOHN

Chapter 1

1 The Elder. To the beloved Gaius, whom I loue in the trueth.

2 My beloved, I wysse in all thinges, that thou prospere and fare well euen as thy soule prospereth.

3 I reioysed greatly, whan the brethren came, and testified of the trueth that is in ye, how thou walkest in the trueth.

4 I haue no greater ioye, the to heare that my childre walke in the trueth.

5 My beloved, thou doest faithfully what so euer thou doest to the brethren and to straugers,

6 which haue borne witness of thy loue before the congregacion: and thou hast done well that thou dydest brynge them forwarde on their iourney, worthely before God.

7 For because of his names sake they wente forth, and toke nothinge of the Heythen.

8 We therfore oughte to receaue soch, that we mighte be helpers vnto the trueth.

9 I wrote to the congregacion, but Diotriphes, which loueth to haue the preemynence amonge them, receaued vs not.

10 Wherefore, yf I come, I wil declare his dedes which he doeth, ieastringe vpo vs with malicious wordes: nether is he therwith cotent. Not onely he himselfe receaueh not the brethren, but also he forbyddeth them that wolde, and trusteth them out of the congregacion.

11 My beloved, folowe not yt which is euell, but that which is good. He that doeth well, is of God: but he that doeth euell, seyeth not God.

12 Demetrius hath good reporte of all men, and of the trueth: yee and we oure selues also beare recorde, and ye knowe that oure recorde is true.

13 I had many thinges to wryte, but I wolde not with ynke, and pen wryte vnto the.

14 But I trust shortly to se the and so wyll we speake together mouth to mouth.

JUDE

Chapter 1

1 Ivdas the seruaut of Iesus Christ, the brother off Iames. To the which are called, and sanctified in God the father, and preserued in Iesu Christ.

2 Mercy vnto you, and peace and loue be multiplied.

3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to wryte vnto you of the commen saluacion: it was nedefull for me to wryte vnto you, to exhorte you, that ye shulde continually labour in the faith which was once geue vnto the sayntes.

4 For there are certayne craftely crept in, of which it was wrytten afore tyme vnto soche iudgement. They are vngodly, and turne the grace of oure God vnto wantanes, and denye God the onely LORDE, and oure LORDE Iesus Christ.

5 My minde is therfore to put you in remembrance, for as moche as ye once knowe this, how that ye LORDE (after that he had deliuered the people out of Egipt) destroyed them which afterwarde beleued not.

6 The angels also which kept not their first estate: but lefte their awne habitacion, he hath reserued in euerlastinge chaynes vnder darcknes vnto the iudgement of the greete daye:

7 euen as Sodom and Gomor, and the cities aboute them (which in lyke maner defiled them selues with fornicacion and folowed straunge flesshe) are set forth for an ensample, and suffre the vengeance of eternall fyre.

8 Lykewyse these dremers defyle the flesshe despysse rulers, and speake euell of them that are in auctoritie.

9 Yet Michael the archangell when he stroue agaynst the deuell, & disputed aboute the body of Moses, durst not geue raylinge sentence, but sayde: the LORDE rebuke the.

10 But these speake euell off those thinges which they knowe not: and what thinges they knowe naturally, as beastes which are without reason, in tho thinges they corrupte them selues.

11 Wo be vnto the, for they haue folowed the waye of Cain, and are vterly geue to the erreure of Balaam for lukers sake, and perysshe in the treason of Core.

12 These are spotted which of youre kindnes feast godder, without feare, fedyng the selues. Cloudes they are withouten water, caried about of wyndes, and trees without frute at gadringe tyme, twyse deed and plucked vp by the rotes.

13 They are the ragynge waues of the see, fominge out their awne shame. They are wandrynge starres, to who is reserued the myst of darcknes for euer.

14 Enoch the seuenth from Adam prophecied before of suche, saienge: Beholde, the LORDE shal come with thousandes of sayntes, 15 to geue iudgemet agaynst all men, and to rebuke all that are vngodly amonge the, of all their vngodly dedes, which they haue vngodly committed, and of all their cruell speakynges, which vngodly synners haue spoken agaynst him.

16 These are murmurers, complaners, walkyng after their awne lustes, whose mouthes speake proude thynges. They haue me in greate reuerence because of auantage.

17 But ye beloued, remeber the wordes which were spoken before of the Apostles of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, 18 how that they tolde you yt their shulde be begylers in the last tyme, which shulde walke after their awne vngodly lustes.

19 These are makers off sectes fleshlie, hauynge no sprete.

20 But ye derlye beloued, edifye youre selues in youre most holy faith, prayenge in the holy goost, 21 and kepe youre selues in the loue of God, lokinge for the mercy of oure LORDE Iesus Christ, vnto eternall life.

22 And haue copassion on some, separatinge the:

23 and other saue with feare, pullinge them out of the fyre, and hate the fylthy vesture of the fleshe.

24 Vnto him that is able to kepe you, that ye faule not, and to present you faultlesse before ye presence of his glory with ioye, 25 yt is to saye, to God oure saeouere which only is wyse, be glory, maiestie, dominion, & power, now and for euer. Amen.

REVELATION

Chapter 1

1 The reuelacion of Iesus Christ, which God gaue vnto him, for to shewe vnto his seruantes thiges which muste shortly come to passe. And he sent and shewed by his angel vnto his seruaunt Ihon

2 which bare recorde of the worde of God, and of the testimony of Iesus Christe, and of all thinges that he sawe.

3 Happy is he yt readeth, and they that heare the wordes of the prophesy and kepe thoo thinges which are wrytten therin. For the tyme is at honde.

4 Ihon to the seuen cogregacions in Asia. Grace be with you & peace, fro him which is and which was, and which is to come, & fro the seuen spretes which are present before his trone,

5 and from Iesus Christ which is a faithfull witnes, and first begotten of the deed: & LORDE ouer ye kinges of the earth. Vnto him that loued vs and wessed vs fro synnes in his awne bloud, 6 and made vs kinges & Prestes vnto God his father, be glory, and dominion for euer more. Amen.

7 Beholde, he commeth with cloudes, and all eyes shall se him: & they also which peersed him. And all kinredes of the earth shal wayle. Euen so. Amen.

8 I am Alpha and Omega, the begynninge and the endinge, sayteh ye LORDE almighty, which is and which was and which is to come.

9 I Ihon youre brother and copanyon in tribulacion, and in the kyngdome and paciee which is in Iesu Christe, was in the yle of Pathmos for the worde of God, and for ye witnessynge of Iesu Christe.

10 I was in the sprete on a sondaye, and herde behynde me, a gret voyce, as it had bene of a trompe, 11 sayenge: I am Alpha and Omega, the fyrst and ye laste. That thou seist, write in a boke, and sende it vnto the cogregacions which are in Asia, vnto Ephesus and vnto Smyrna, and vnto Pargamos, and vnto Thiatira, and vnto Sardis, and vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicia.

12 And I turned backe to se the voyce that spake to me. And whe I was turned: I sawe seue golde candestyckes, 13 and in the myddes of the candelstyckes, one like vnto the sonne of man clothed with a lynnin garmet downe to the ground, and gyrd aboute the brest with a golden gyrdle.

14 His heed, and his heares were whyte, as whyte woll, & as snowe: and his eyes were as a flamme of fyre:

15 and his fete like vnto brasse, as though they Bret in a fornace: and his voyce as the sounde of many waters.

16 And he had in his right honde seue starres. And out of his mouth went a sharpe two edged swerde. And his face shone euen as the sonne in his strength.

17 And when I sawe him, I fell at his fete, euen as deed. And he layde his right honde vpon me, sayenge vnto me: feare not. I am the fyrst, and the laste, 18 and am alyue, and was deed. And beholde, I am alyue for euer more and haue the kayes of hell & of deth.

19 Wryte therfore the thinges which thou hast sene, and the thinges which are, and ye thinges which shalbe fulfilled here after:

20 & the mistery of the seuen starres which thou sawest in my right honde, and the seuen golden candelstickes. The seuen starres are the angels of the seue cogregacions: And the seuen candelstyckes which thou sawest, are the seuen cogregacions.

Chapter 2

1 Vnto the angell of the cogregacion of Ephesus wryte: These thinges sayth he that holdeth the seuen starres in his righthonde, and walketh in the myddes of the seuen golde candelstickes:

2 I knowe thy workes, and thy labour, and thy pacience, & howe thou cannest not forbear them which are euell: and examinest them which saye they are Apostles, and are not: & hast founde the lyars

3 and hast suffred. And hast paciee: and for my names sake hast laboured and hast not faynted.

4 Neuerthelesse I haue somewhat agaynst the, for thou hast lefte thy fyrst loue.

5 Remember therfore fro whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the fyrst workes. Or elles I wyl come vnto the shortly, and wil remoue thy cadelstycke out of his place, excepte thou repent.

6 But this thou hast because thou hatest ye dedes of the Nicolaitans, which dedes I also hate.

7 Let him yt hath eares, heare, what ye sprete saith vnto the cogregacions. To him that ouercommeth, will I geue to eate of the tree of life, which is in the myddes of ye paradise of God.

8 And vnto the angell of the cogregacion of Smyrna wryte: These thinges saith he that is fyrst, and the last, which was deed, and is aliuie:

9 I knowe thy workes and tribulacion and pouerte, but thou art ryche: And I knowe the blaspheny of them which call them selues Iewes and are not: but are the cogregacion of Sathan.

10 Feare none of tho thinges which thou shalt soffre. Beholde, ye deuell shal cast of you in to preson, to tempte you, and ye shal haue tribulacion x. dayes. Be faithfull vnto the deeth, and I wil geue ye a crowne of life.

11 Let him that hath eares, heare, what the sprete saith to the cogregacions: He that ouercometh, shal not be hurte of the seconde deeth.

12 And to the angell of the cogregacion in Pergamos wryte: This sayth he which hath the sharpe swerde with two edges:

13 I knowe thy workes, and where thou dwellest, euen where Sathans seat is, and thou kepest my name, & hast not denied my faith. And in my dayes Antipas was a faithfull witnes of myne, which was slayne amonge you, where Sathan dwelleth.

14 But I haue a fewe thinges agaynst the: that thou hast there, the that manyntayne the doctryne of Balaam, which taught in Balak, to put occasion of syn before the children of Israell, that they shulde eate of meate dedicat vnto ydoles, and to commyt fornicacion.

15 Euen so hast thou them that mayntayne ye doctryne of the Nicolaytans, which thinge I hate.

16 But be couerted, or elles I wil come vnto the shortly, and wil fight agaynst the with the swerde of my mouth.

17 Let him yt hath eares, heare, what the sprete saith vnto the cogregacions: To him that ouercommeth, wil I geue to eate mana that is hyd, and wil geue him a whyte stone, & in the stone a newe name wrytte, which no man knoweth, sauinge he that receaueueth it.

18 And vnto the angell of the cogregacion of Theatira write: This saith the sonne of God, which hath his eyes lyke vnto a flame of fyre, whose fete are like brasse: 19 I knowe thy workes and thy loue, seruice, and faith and thy pacience, and thy dedes, which are mo at the last then at the firste

20 Not withstandinge I haue a fewe thinges agaynst the, that thou sufferest that woman Iesabell (which called her selfe a prophetisse) to teache and to deceaue my seruantes, to make them committ fornicacion, and to eate meates offered vp vnto ydoles.

21 And I gaue her space to repet of her fornicacion, and she repented not.

22 Beholde, I wil cast her into a bed, and them that commit fornicacion with her, in to gret aduersite, excepte they turne from their dedes.

23 And I wil kyll her childre with deeth. And all the cogregacions shal knowe, yt I am he which searcheth the reynes and hertes. And I wil geue vnto euery one of you acordynge vnto youre workes.

24 Vnto you I saye, and vnto other of the of Thiatyra, as many as haue not this lernynge and which haue not knowen the depnes of Sathan (as they saye) I wil put vpo you none other burthen,

25 but yt which ye haue already. Holde fast tyll I come,

26 and whosoeuer ouercometh and kepeth my workes vnto ye ende, to him wil I geue power ouer nacions,

27 and he shal rule them with a rodde of yron: and as the vessels of a potter, shal he breake them to sheuers. Eue as I receaued of my father, 28 so wil I geue him ye mornynge starre.

29 Let him yt hath eares, heare, what the sprete sayth to the cogregacions.

Chapter 3

1 And wryte vnto the angell of the cogregacion off Sardis: this sayth he that hath the seuen spretes of God, & the seuen starres. I knowe thy workes, thou hast a name that thou lyuest, and thou art deed.

2 Be awake, and strength the thinges which remayne, that are redy to dye. For I haue not founde thy workes perfecte before God.

3 Remember therfore how thou hast receaued and hearde, and holde fast, and repent. Yf thou shalt not watche, I wil come on the as a thefe, and thou shalt not knowe what houre I wil come vpon ye

4 Thou hast a fewe names in Sardis, which haue not defyled their garments: and they shal walke with me in whyte, for they are worthy.

5 He that ouercommeth, shalbe clothed in whyte araye, and I wil not put out his name out of the boke of life, and I wil cofesse his name before my father, and before his angels.

6 Let him yt hath eares, heare, what the sprete sayth vnto the cogregacions.

7 And wryte vnto ye angell of the cogregacio of Philadelphia: this sayth he yt is holy and true, which hath the keye of Dauid: which openyth and noman shutteth, and shutteth and no man openeth.

8 I knowe thy workes. Beholde, I haue set before the an open doore, and no man can shut it, for thou hast a lyttell strength and hast not denyed my name.

9 Beholde, I shal geue some of the congregacion of Sathan, which call them selues Iewes and are not, but do lye: Beholde: I wil make them, that they shal come & worshippe before thy fete: and shal knowe that I haue loued the.

10 Because thou hast kept the wordes of my pacience, therfore wil I kepe the from the houre of temptacion, which will come vpon all the worlde, to tempte them that dwell vpo the earth.

11 Beholde, I come shortly. Holde that which thou hast, that no ma take away thy crowne.

12 Him that ouer commeth, will I make a pyllar in the temple of my God, and he shal goo no more out. And I will wryte vpon him, the name of my God, and the name of ye cite of my God, newe Ierusalem, which cometh downe out of heauen from my God, and I will wryte vpo him my newe name.

13 Let him that hath eares, heare, what the sprete saith vnto the congregacions.

14 And vnto the angell of the cogregacion, which is in Laodicia wryte: This sayth Amen the faithfull and true witnes, the begynnynge of ye creatures of God.

15 I knowe thy workes, yt thou art nether colde nor hot: I wolde thou were colde or hote.

16 So then because thou art bitwene bothe, and nether colde ner hote I will spew the out off my mouth:

17 because thou saist thou art riche and incresyd with goodes and hast nede of nothings, and knowest not how thou art wretched & miserable, poore, blynde, and nakyd.

18 I counsell the to the bye of me golde tryed in the fyre, that thou mayste be riche: and whyte rayment, that thou mayste be clothed, that thy fylth nakednes do not apere: anoynt thine eyes with eye salue, yt thou mayste se.

19 As many as I loue, I rebuke & chasten. Be feruent therfore and repent.

20 Beholde, I stonde at the doore & knocke. Yf eny man heare my voyce and vpen the dore, I wil come in vnto him and will suppe with him, & he with me.

21 To him that ouercomth, will I graute to sytt with me on my seate, eue as I ouercam and haue sytte with my father on his seate.

22 Let him that hath eares, heare, what the sprete saith vnto the cogregacios.

Chapter 4

1 After this I loked, and beholde, a dore was open in heaue, and the fyrste voyce which I harde, was as it were of a trompet talkinge with me, which sayde: come vp hydder, and I wil shewe the thinges which must be fulfilled her after.

2 And immediatly I was in the sprete: & beholde, a seate was set in heauen, and one sat on the seate.

3 And he that sat, was to loke vpon like vnto a iaspur stone, and a sardyne stone: And there was a rayne bowe aboute the seate, in syght like to a Smaragde.

4 And aboute the seate were xxiiij. seates. And vpon the seates xxiiij. elders syttinge clothed in whyte rayment, and had on their heades crownes of golde.

5 And out of ye seate proceded lightnynges, and thundrynges, & voyces, and there wer seuen lapes of fyre, burninge before the seate, which are the seuen spretes of God.

6 And before the seate there was a see of glasse like vnto crystall, and in the mydes off the seate, and rounde aboute the seate, were foure beastes full of eyes before and behynde.

7 And the first beest was like a lion, the seconde beest like a calfe, and the thyrd beest had a face as a man and the fourth beest was like a flyenge egle.

8 And the foure beestes had eche one off them vj. wynges aboute him, and they were full of eyes with in. And they had no rest daye nether night, sayenge: holy, holy, holy, is the LORDE God almyghty, which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beestes gaue glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the seate, which lyueth for euer and euer:

10 ye xxiiij. elders fell downe before him that sat on the trone, and worshipped him yt lyueth for euer, and cast their crounes before ye trone, sayenge:

11 thou art worthy LORDE to receaue glory, and honor, and power, for thou hast created all thinges, and for thy willes sake they are, and were created.

Chapter 5

1 And I sawe in the right hode of him, that sat in the trone, a boke wrytten with in & on the backside, sealed with seue seales.

2 And I sawe a stroge angell preachinge with a loude voyce: Who is worthy to open the boke, and to loose the seales therof?

3 And no ma in heaue ner in earth, nether vnder ye earth, was able to ope ye boke, nether to loke thereon.

4 And I wepte moch, because no man was founde worthy to open and to rede the boke, nether to loke thereon.

5 And one of the elders sayde vnto me: wepe not: Beholde, the lyon which is off the trybe of Iuda, ye rote of Dauid, hath obtayned to ope the boke, and to lowse the seue seales therof.

6 And I behelde, & lo, in the myddes of the seate, and of ye foure beastes, and in the myddes of ye elders, stode a lambe as though he had bene kylled, which had seuen hornes and seue eyes, which are the seue spretes of God, sent in to all the worlde.

7 And he came and toke the boke out of the right hode of him that sat vpon the seate.

8 And when he had taken the boke, the foure beestes and the xxiiij. elders fell downe before the lambe, hauinge harpes and golden vialles full of odoures (which are ye prayers of the sayntes)

9 and they songe a newe songe saynge: thou art worthy to take the boke & to ope the seales therof: for thou wast kylled, and hast redemed vs by thy bloud, out of all kynredes, and toges, and people, and nacions,

10 & hast made vs vnto or God, kynges and prestes, and we shal raygne on ye earth.

11 And I behelde, and I herd the voyce of many angilles aboute the trone, and aboute the beestes and ye elders, and I herde thousand thousandes, 12 sayenge with a loude voyce: Worthy is the lambe that was killed, to receaue power, and riches & wissdome, and strength, and honoure and glory, and blesynge.

13 And all creatures, which are in heaue, & on the earth, & vnder the earth, & in the see, & all yt are in the, herd I sayenge: blessinge, honoure, glory, & power, be vnto him, yt sytteth vpo the seate, and vnto the labe for euermore.

14 And the foure beestes saide: Ame. And ye xxiiij. elders fell vpon their faces, and worshipped him that lyueth for euermore.

Chapter 6

1 And I sawe when the labe opened one of the seales, & I herde one of the foure beestes saye, as it wer the noyse off thonder: come and se.

2 And I sawe, and beholde there was a whyte horsse, and he yt sat on him had a bowe, and a crowne was geuen vnto him, and he went forth conquerynge and for to ouercome.

3 And whe he opened the seconde seale, I herde the seconde beeste saye: come and se.

4 And there went out another horsse that was reed, & power was geuen to him that sat there on, to take peace from the earth, and that they shulde kyll one another. And there was geue vnto him a gret swearde.

5 And when he opened the thyrd seale, I herde the thyrd beeste saye: come & se. And I behelde, and lo, a blacke horsse: and he that sate on him, had a payre of balances in his honde.

6 And I herde a voyce in the myddes of the foure beastes saye: a measure of whete for a peny, and thre measures of barley for a peny: and oyle and wyne se thou hurte not.

7 And when he opened the fourth seale, I herde the voyce of the fourth beeste saye: come and se.

8 And I loked, and beholde a pale horsse, and his name that sat on him was deeth, and hell folowed after him, & power was geue vnto them ouer the fourth parte of the earth, to kyll with swearde, and wt hunger, and with deeth, of the vermen of the earth.

9 And when he opened the fyfte seale, I sawe vnder the aultre, the soules of them yt were kylled for the worde of God, and for ye testimony which they had,

10 and they cryed with a lowde voyce sayenge: How loge tariest thou LORDE holy and true, to iudge & to auenge oure bloude on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And longe whyte garmentes were geuen vnto euery one of them. And it was sayde vnto them, that they shulde reste for a lyttle season, vntyll the number of their felowes, and brethre, and of them that shulde be killed as they were, were fulfilled.

12 And I behelde when he opened the sixte seale, and loo, there was a grett earthquake, and ye sonne was as blacke as sacke cloth made of heare. And the mone waxed eue as bloude:

13 and the starres of heauen fell vnto the earth, euen as a fygge tree castith from her her fygges, when she is shaken off a mighty wynde.

14 And heauen vanysshed awaye, as a scroll when it is rolled togedder. And all mountayns and yles, were moued out of their places.

15 And the kynges of ye earth, and the grete men, and the riche men, and the chefe captaynes, and the myghte men, and euery free man, hyd them selues in demes, and in rockes of ye hylles,

16 and sayde to the hylles, and rockes: fall on vs, and hyde vs from the presence of him that sytteth on the seate, and from the wrath of the lambe,

17 for the grete daye of his wrath is come. And who can endure it?

Chapter 7

1 And after that sawe I foure angels stode on ye foure corners of the earth, holdinge ye foure wyndes of ye earth, yt ye wyndes shulde not blowe on ye earth, nether on ye see, nether on eny tree.

2 And I sawe another angel ascende fro the rysinge of the sonne: which had the seale of ye Iyuinge God and he cryed with a loude voyce to the foure angelles (to whom power was geuen to hurt the earth and the see)

3 sayenge: Hurt not the earth nether the see, nether the trees, till we haue sealed the seruantes of oure God in their forheddes.

4 And I herde the nombre of them which were sealed, and there were sealed an c. and xliij. M. of all the trybes of the children of Israell.

5 Of ye trybe of Iuda were sealed xij. M. Of the trybe of Ruben were sealed xij. M. Of the trybe of Gad were sealed xij. M.

6 Of the trybe of Asser were sealed xij. M. Of the trybe of Neptalym were sealed xij. M. Of ye trybe of Manasses were sealed xij. M.

7 Of the trybe of Symeon were sealed xij. M. Of the trybe of Leui were sealed xij. M. Of the trybe of Isacar were sealed xij. M.

8 Of the trybe of Zabulon were sealed xij. M. Of the trybe of Ioseph were sealed xij. M. Of the trybe of Beniamin were sealed xij. thousande.

9 After this I behelde, and lo, a gret multitude (which no man coulede nombre) of all nacions and people, and tonges, stode before the seate, and before the lambe, clothed wt longe whyte garmetes, and palmes in their hondes,

10 and cryed with a loude voyce, sayenge: saluacion be ascribed to him yt sytth vpon the seate of oure God, and vnto the lambe.

11 And all the angels stode in the compase of the seate, and of the elders and of the foure beastes, and fell before ye seat on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 sayenge, amen: Blessyng and glory, wissdome and thakes, and honour, and power and might, be vnto oure God for euermore Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, sayenge vnto me: what are these which are arayed in longe whyte garmetes, and whence cam they?

14 And I sayde vnto him: LORDE thou wotest. And he sayde vnto me: these are they which cam out of gret tribulacion, and made their garmentes large, and made the whyte in the bloude of the lambe:

15 therefore are they in the presence of the seate of God and serue him daye and night in his temple, and he that sytth in the seate, wyll dwell amonge them.

16 They shal hunger nomore nether thyrst, nether shal the sonne lyght on them, nether eny heate:

17 For the labe which is in the myddes of the seate, shal fede them, and shal leade them vnto fountaynes of lyuynge water, and God shal wpe awaye all teares from their eyes.

Chapter 8

1 And when he had opened the seuenth seale, there was silece in heauen aboute the space of halfe an houre.

2 And I sawe seue angels stondinge before God, and to them were geuen seuen trompettes.

3 And another angell cam and stode before the aultre, hauynge a golden senser, and moch of odoures was geuen vnto him, that he shulde offre of the prayers of all sayntes vpon the golden aultre, which was before the seate.

4 And the smoke of the odoures which came of the prayers of all sayntes, ascended vppe before God out of the angelles honde.

5 And the angell toke the senser, and fylled it with fyre of the aultre, and caste it into the earth, and voyces were made, and thodrynges and lighthnynges, and earthquake.

6 And the seuen angels which had the seuen trompettes, prepared them selues to blowe.

7 The first angel blew, and there was made hayle and fyre, which were myngled with bloud, & they were cast in to the earth: and the thyrd parte of trees was burnt, and all grene grasse was brent.

8 And the seconde angell blew: and as it were a greate mountayne burnynge with fyre was cast in to the see, and the thyrd parte of the see turned to bloud,

9 and the thyrd parte of the creatures which had life, dyed, and the thyrd part of shippes were destroyed.

10 And the thyrd angell blew, and there fell a greate starre from heauen, burnynge as it were a lampe, and it fell in to the thyrd parte of the ryuers, and in to fountaynes of waters,

11 and the name of the starre is called Wormwod. And the thyrd parte of the waters was turned to Wormwod. And many men dyed of the waters, because they were made bytter.

12 And the fourth angel blew, and the thyrd parte of ye Sonne was smytten, and ye thyrd parte of the mone, & the thyrd parte of starres: so that the thyrd parte of them was darckned. And the daye was smytte, that the thyrd parte of it shulde not shyne, and lyke wyse the nyght.

13 And I behelde, and herde an angel flyenge thorowe the myddes of heaue, and sayege with a lowde voyce: Wo, wo, wo to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the voyces to come of the trompe of the thre angels which were yet to blowe.

Chapter 9

1 And the fyfte angell blew, & I sawe a starre fall from heaue vnto ye earth. And to him was geue the kaye of the bottomlesse pytt.

2 And he opened the bottomlesse pytt, and there arose the smoke of a greate fornace. And the Sonne, and ye ayer were darkned by the reason of the smoke of the pytt.

3 And there came out of the smoke locustes vpon the earth: and vnto the was geuen power as the scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was sayde vnto them, that they shulde not hurt the grasse of the earth: nether eny grene thinge: nether eny tre: but onely those men which haue not the seale in their forhedes,

5 and to them was comaunded, that they shulde not kyll the, but that they shulde be vexed fyue monethes, and their payne was as the payne that cometh of a scorpion, when he hath stonge a man.

6 And in those dayes shal me seke death, and shal not fynde it: and shal desyre to dye, and death shal flye from them.

7 And the similitude of the locustes was lyke vnto horses prepared vnto battayll, and on their heades were as it were crownes, lyke vnto golde: and their faces were as it had bene the faces of men.

8 And they had heere as the heere of wemen. And their tethe were as the tethe of lyons.

9 And they had habbergions, as it were habbergions of yron. And the sounde of their wynges, was as ye sounde of charettes whe many horses runne together to battayle.

10 And they had tayles lyke vnto scorpions, and there were stynges in their tayles. And their power was to hurt me fyue monethes.

11 And they had a kinge ouer them, which is the angel of the bottomlesse pyt, whose name in the hebrew tonge, is Abadon: but in the greke tonge, Apollion.

12 One wo is past, and beholde two woes come yet after this.

13 And the sixte angel blew, and I herde a voyce from the foure corners of the golden aultre which is before God, 14 sayenge to the sixte angel, which had the trompe: Lowse the foure angels, which are bounde in the greate ryuer Eufrates.

15 And ye foure angels were lowsed, which were prepared for an houre, for a daye, for a moneth, and for a yere, for to slee the thyrd parte of men.

16 And the nombre of horsmen of warre, were twenty tymes x M. And I herde ye nombre of them.

17 And thus I sawe the horses in a vision, and them that sat on the hauynge fyry habbergions of a yalowe and brymstony color, and the heades of ye horses werre as the heades of lyons. And out of their mouthes went forth fyre, and smoke, and brymstone.

18 And of these thre was the thirde parte of men kylld: that is to saye, of fyre, smoke, and brymstone, which proceeded out of the mouthes of the:

19 For their power was in their mouthes and in their tayles: for their tayles were like vnto serpetes, and had heades, and with the they dyd hurt:

20 And the remnaunt of the me which were not kylld by these plages, repeted not of the dedes of their hondes, yt they shulde not worshippe deuels, and ymages of golde, and syluer, and brasse, & stone, and of wod, which nether can se, nether heare, nether go.

21 Also they repented not of their murthur, and of their witchcraft, nether of their whordome, nether of their theft.

Chapter 10

1 And I sawe another mightye angell come doune fro heauen, clothed with a cloude, and the rayne bowe vpon his heed. And his face as it were ye Sonne, and his fete as it were pyllars of fyre:

2 and he had in his honde a lytell boke opyn: and he put his right fote vpon ye see, and his lifte fote on ye earth.

3 And cryed with a lowde voyce, as when a lyon roreth. And when he had cryed, seue thondres spake their voyces.

4 And when the seue thodres had spoke their voyces, I was aboute to wryte. And I herde a voyce from heauen sayenge vnto me: seale vp those thinges which the seuen thondres spake, and wryte them not.

5 And the angel which I sawe stonde vpo the see, and vpon the earth, lifte vppe his honde to heauen,

6 and swore by him that liueth for euermore, which created heauen, and the thinges that there in are, and ye see, and the thinges which are therin: that there shalbe nomore tyme:

7 but in the dayes of the voyce of the seuenth angel, when he shal begynne to blowe, the mistery of God shalbe fynished, as he preached by his seruauantes the prophetes.

8 And the voyce which I herde from heaue, spake vnto me agayne, and sayde: go and take the lytle boke which is open in the honde of the angel, which stondest vpo the see, and vpon the earth.

9 And I went vnto the angel, and sayde vnto him: geue me the lytle boke. And he sayde vnto me: Take it, and eate it vp, and it shal make thy belly bytter, but it shalbe in thy mouth as swete as hony.

10 And I toke the lytle boke out of his honde, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as swete as hony, and as sone as I had eaten it, my belly was bytter.

11 And he sayde vnto me: thou muste prophesy agayne vnto the people, and to the Heythen, and tonges, and to many kynges.

Chapter 11

1 And there was geuen me a rede lyke vnto a rodd, and it was sayde vnto me: Ryse and mete the teple of God, and the aultre, and them that worshippe therin:

2 and the quyre which is within the temple, cast out, and mete it not: for it is geuen vnto the Gentyles, and ye holy cite shal they treade vnderfote xliij. monethes.

3 And I wil geue power vnto my two wytnesses, and they shal prophesy. M. i. j. c. and lx. dayes clothed in sacke cloth.

4 These are two olyue trees, and two candelstyckes, stondinge before the God of the earth.

5 And if eny man wil hurt them, fyre shal procede out of their mouthes, and consume their enemyes. And yf eny man wil hurt the, this wyse muste he be kylld.

6 These haue power to shut heauen, that it rayne not in the dayes of their prophesyng: and haue power ouer waters, to turne them to bloud, and to smyte the earth with all maner plages, as often as they will.

7 And when they haue fynished their testimony, the beest that cam out of the bottomlesse pytt, shal make warre agaynst the, and shal ouer come them, and kyll the.

8 And their bodies shal lye in the stretes of the greate cite, which spiritually is called zodom and Egypte, where oure LORDE is crucified.

9 And some of the people and kynredes, and tonges, & of the nacios, shal se their bodies, thre dayes, and an halfe, and shal not suffre their bodies to be put in graues. 10 And they that dwell vpo the earth, shal reioyce ouer them and be glad, and shal send giftes one to another: for these two prophetes vexed them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after thre dayes and an halfe the sprete of life from God, entred in to them. And they stode vp vpon their fete: & greate feare came vpon them which sawe them.

12 And they herde a greate voyce from heaue, sayenge vnto them: Come vp hidder. And they ascended vp in to heaue in a cloude, and their enemyes sawe the.

13 And the same houre was there a greate earthquake, & the tenth parte of the cite fell, and in the earthquake were slayne names of men seuen M. and the remnaunt were feared, and gaue glory to God of heauen.

14 The seconde wo is past, and beholde, the thyrd wo wyl come anone.

15 And the seuenth angel blewe, and there were made greate voyces in heauen, sayege: the kyngdoms of this worlde are oure LORDES and his Christes, and he shal reigne for eurmore.

16 And the foure and twentye Elders, which sat before God on their seatts, fell vpon their faces, and worshipped God 17 sayenge: we geue the thanks LORDE God allmyghte: which art and wast, and art to come, for thou hast receaued thy greate might, and hast rayned.

18 And the Heythen were angry, & thy wrath is come, and the tyme of the deed that they shulde be iudged, and that thou shuldest geue rewarde vnto thy seruantes the prophettes and saynctes, and to the that feare thy name, small & greate: and shuldest destroye them which destroye the earth.

19 And the temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was sene in his temple the arcke of his testament: and there folowed lightnynges, and voyces, and thondrynges and earth quake, and a greate hayle.

Chapter 12

1 And there appeared a greate token in heauen. A woman clothed with the Sonne, and the mone vnder her fete, and vpon her heed a crowne of twolue starres.

2 And she was with childe, and cryed trauaillinge in byrth, and payned redy to be delyuered.

3 And there appeared another token in heauen, and beholde a greate reed dragon, hauinge seuen heades, and ten hornes and seue crownes vpo his heades: 4 and his tayle drue the thyrde parte of the starres, and cast them to the earth. And the dragon stode before the woma, which was ready to be delyuered: for to deuoure her childe as sone as it were borne.

5 And she brought forth a man childe, which shulde rule all nacions with a rod of yron. And her sonne was taken vp vnto

God, and to his seate.

6 And the woman fled in to wyldernes, where she had a place prepared off God, that they shulde fede her there a M.ij.C. and lx. dayes.

7 And there was a greate batayll in heaue Michael and his angels foughte with the dragon, and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 and preuayled not, nether was their place founde eny more in heauen.

9 And the greate dragon that olde serpent (called the deuell and Sathanas) was cast out. Which discaued all the worlde. And he was cast in to the earth, and his angelles were cast out with him also.

10 And I harde a lowde voyce, which sayde in heauen: Now is saluacion, and strength and the kyngdome become oure Gods, and ye power his Christes: For he is cast downe, which accused them before God daye and night.

11 And they ouercame him by the bloude of the lambe, and by the worde of their testimony, and they loued not their luyes vnto the deeth.

12 Therfore reioyce ye heauens, and ye that dwell in them. Wo to the inhabiers of the earth, and of the see: for the deuell is come downe vnto you, which hath greate wrath, because he knoweth, that he hath but a short tyme.

13 And when the dragon sawe, that he was cast vnto the earth, he persecuted the woman, which brought forth the man childe.

14 And to the woman were geue two wynges of a greate egle that she might flye in to the wyldernes, in to her place, where she is norysshed for a tyme, two tymes, and halffe a tyme, from the presence of the serpet.

15 And the dragon cast out of his mouth water after the woma, as it had bene a ryuer, that he might cause her to be caught of ye floud.

16 And the earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed vp the ryuer which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woma: and went and made warre with the remnaunt of hyr sede, which kepe the commaundementes of God, and haue the testimony of Iesus Christ. And I stode on the see sonde.

Chapter 13

1 And I sawe a beest rise out of the see, hauinge seuen heades, and x. hornes, and vpon his hornes x. crownes, and vpo his heed, the names of blasphemye.

2 And the beest which I sawe was lyke a catt of the mountayne, and his fete were as the fete of a bear, and his mouth as the mouthe of a lyon. And ye drago gaue him his power and his seate, and greate auctorite:

3 and I sawe one of his heades as it were wounded to death, and his dedly wounde was healed. And all the worlde wodred at the beest,

4 and they worshipped the dragon which gaue power vnto the beest, and they worshipped the beest, sayenge: who is like vnto the beest? who is able to warre with him?

5 And there was geuen vnto him a mouth to speake greate thinges & blasphemies, and power was geuen vnto him, to do xliij. monethes.

6 And he opened his mouth vnto blasphemy agaynst God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle and them that dwell in heauen.

7 And it was geuen vnto him to make warre with the sayntes, and to ouercome them. And power was geuen him ouer all kynred, tonge, and nacion:

8 and all that dwell vpon the earth worshipt him: whose names are not wrytten in the boke of life of the lambe, which was kylled from the begynnyng of the worlde.

9 Yf eny man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 He that leadeth in to captiuite, shal go in to captiuite: he that killeth with a swearde, must be killed with ye swearde. Heare is the pacience, and the faith of the saynctes.

11 And I behelde another beest comynge vp out of the earth, and he had two hornes like a lambe, and he spake as dyd the drago.

12 And he dyd all that the first beest coude do in his presence, and he caused the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worshippe the fyrst beest, whose deedly woude was healed.

13 And he dyd greate wonders, so that he made fyre come downe from heaue in the sight of men.

14 And deceaued them that dwelt on the earth by ye meanes of those signes which he had power to do in the sight of the beest, sayenge to them that dwelt on the earth: that they shulde make an ymage vnto the beest, which had the wounde of a swearde and dyd liue.

15 And he had power to geue a sprete vnto the ymage of the beest, and that the ymage of the beest shulde speake, and shulde cause, that as many as wolde not worshippe the ymage of the beest, shulde be kylled.

16 And he made all bothe smale and greate, ryche and poore, fre and bond, to receaue a marke in their right hondes, or in their forheades.

17 And that no man might by or sell, saue he yt had ye marke, or the name of the beest, ether the nombre of his name.

18 Here is wissdome. Let him that hath wyt, count the nombre of the beest. For it is the nombre of a man, and his nombre is sixe hundred, thre score and sixe.

Chapter 14

1 And I loked, and lo, a lambe stode on the mout Syon, and with him.C. and xliiij. thousande hauynge his fathers name wrytten in their forheades.

2 And I herde a voyce from heauen, as the sounde of many waters, and as the voyce of a greate thondre. And the voyce that I herde, was as the harpers that playe vpon their harpers.

3 And they songe as it were a newe songe, before the seate, & before ye foure beestes, and the elders, and no man coude learne yt songe, but the hondred and xliiij.M. which were redemed from the earth.

4 These are they, which were not defyled with wemen, for they are virgyns. These folowe the lambe whither soeuer he goeth. These were redemed from men, beyng the fyrst frutes vnto God and to the lambe,

5 and in their mouthes was founde no gyle. For they are withoute spot before the trone of God.

6 And I sawe an angell flye in the myddes of heauen hauinge an euerlastinge Gospell, to preache vnto them that syt and dwell on the earth, and to all nacions, kinreddes, and toges and people,

7 sayege with a lowde voyce: Feare God, and geue honour to him, for the houre of his iudgement is come: and worshippe him that made heauen and earth, and the see, and the fountaynes off water.

8 And there folowed another angell, sayenge: She is fallen, she is fallen: eue Babilon that greate cite, for she made all nacions drynke off the wyne off hyr whordome.

9 And the thyrde angel folowed the, sayenge with a loude voyce: Yf eny man worshippe the beest and his ymage, and receaue his marke in his forhed, or on his honde,

10 the same shall drynke of the wyne of the wrath of God, which is powred in the cuppe of his wrath. And he shalbe punysshed in fyre and brymstone, before the holy Angels, and before the lambe.

11 And the smoke of their torment ascendeth vp euermore. And they haue no rest daye ner nyght, which worshippe the beest and his ymage, and whosoeuer receaueth the prynt of his name.

12 Here is the pacience of sayntes. Heare are they that kepe the commaundementes and the faith off Iesu.

13 And I herde a voyce from heauen, sayenge vnto me: wryte: Blessed are ye deed, which here after dye in the LORDE. Yee the sprete sayeth, that they rest from their laboures, for their workes folowe them.

14 And I loked and beholde, a whyte cloude, and vpo ye cloude one syttinge like vnto the sonne of man, hauinge on his heed a golden crowne, and in his hode a sharpe sykle.

15 And another angell came out of the temple, cryenge with a loude voyce to him that sat on the cloude: Thruste in thy sycle and reepe: for the tyme is come to reepe, for the corne of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sat on ye cloude thrust in his sykle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angell came out of the temple, which is in heauen, hauinge also a sharpe sykle.

18 And another angel came out from the aultre, which had power ouer fyre, and cryed with a loude crye vnto hym that had the sharpe syckle, and sayde: Thruste in thy sharpe syckle, and gather the clusters of ye earth, for hir grapes are ripe.

19 And the angell thrust in his syckle on the erthe, and cut downe the grapes of the vynyarde of the earth, and cast them in to the greate wynefat of ye wrath of God: 20 & the wynefat was trodden without the cite, and bloude came out of the fat, euen vnto the horse brydles by the space of a thousande and sixe hundreth furlonges.

Chapter 15

1 And I sawe another signe in heuen grett & mervellous.vii. angells havinge the seven laste plagis, for in the is fulfilled the wrath of god.

2 And I sawe as it were a glassye see, mingled with fyre, and them that had gotten victory of the beest, and of his ymage, and of his marke, and of the nombre of his name, stonde on the glassye see, hauinge ye harpes of God: 3 and they songe the songe of Moses the seruaunt of God, and the songe of the lambe, saynge: Greate and maruellous are thy workes LORDE God almyghty, iust and true are thy wayes, thou kyng of sayntes.

4 Who shal not feare the O LORDE and gloryfie thy name? For thou only art holy, for all getiles shall come and worshippinge before the, for thy iudgmentes are made manifest.

5 And after that, I loked, and beholde, the temple of the Tabernacle of testimony was open in heauen,

6 and the seuen angelles came out of the temple, which had the seuen plagis, clothed in pure and bryght lynne, and hauynge their brestes gyrded with golden gerdelles.

7 And one of the foure beestes gaue vnto the seuen angelles seuen golden vialles, full of the wrath of God which liueth for euermore.

8 And the temple was full of smoke for the glory off God, and for his power, and no man was able to entre in to the temple, tyll the seuen plagis of the seue angels were fulfilled.

Chapter 16

1 And I herde a greate voyce out of the temple, sayenge to the seuen angels: go youre wayes, poure out youre vialles of wrath vpon the earth.

2 And the fyrst went, and poured out his viall vpon the earth, and there fell a noysom & a sore botch vpon the men which had the marke of the beest, and vpon them that worshipped his ymage.

3 And the seconde angel shed out his viall vpo the see, and it turned as it were in to the bloud of a deed man: and euery lyuinge thinge dyed in the see,

4 And the thyrde angel shed out his viall vpon the ryuers and fountaynes of waters, and they turned to bloude.

5 And I herde an angel saye: LORDE which art and wast, thou art righteous and holy, because thou hast geue soche iudgmentes,

6 For they shed the bloude of sayntes, and prophetes, and therfore hast thou geuen them bloude to drynke: for they are worthy.

7 And I herde another angell out of the aluter, saye: euen so LORDE God almighty, true and righteous are thy iudgmentes.

8 And the fourth angell poured out his viall on the Sonne, and power was geuen vnto him to vexen men with heate of fyre.

9 And the men raged in gret heate, and spake euell of the name of God, which had power ouer those plagis, and they repented not, to geue him glory.

10 And the fift angell poured out his viall vpon the seate of the beest, and his kyngdome waxed derke, and they gnawe their tonges for sorowe,

11 and blasphemed the God of heaue for sorowe, and payne of their sores, and repented not of their dedes.

12 And the sixte angell poured out his viall vpon the gret ryuer Euphrates, and the water dried vp, that the waye of the kynges of the Easte shulde be prepared.

13 And I sawe thre vnclene spretes kike frogges come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out off the mouth off the beest, and out off the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spretes of deuels workynge myracles, to go out vnto the kynges of the earth and of the whole worlde, to gaddre them to the battayle of that gret daye of God allmighty.

15 Beholde, I come as a thefe. Happy is he that watcheth and kepeth his garmentes, lest he be founde naked, and men se his filthynes.

16 And he gaddered them togedder in to a place, called in the hebrue tonge, Armagedon.

17 And the seuenth angell poured out his viall in to the ayre. And there came a greate voyce out of heauen from the seate, sayenge: It is done.

18 And there folowed voyces, thondringes, and lightnynges, and there was a gret earthquake, soch as was not sence me were vpon the earth, so myghty an earthquake and so greate.

19 And the greate cite was deuyded in to thre parties. And the cities of nacions fell. And greate Babilon came in remembrance before God, to geue vnto hyr the cuppe of wyne of the fearcenes of his wrath.

20 And euery yle fled awaye, and the mountaynes were not founde.

21 And there fell a greate hayle, as it had bene talentes, out of heaue vpon the men, and the men blasphemed God, because of the plage of the hayle, for it was greate, and the plage of it sore.

Chapter 17

1 And there cam one of the seue angels, which had the seuen vialles, and talked with me, sayenge vnto me: Come, I will shewe the the iudgment of the greate whore, that sytteth vpon many waters,

2 with whom the kynges of the earth haue commytted whordome, and the inhabitants of the earth are dronken with the wyne of her fornicacion.

3 And he caryed me awaye into the wildernes in ye sprete. And I sawe a woman syt vpon a rose colored beest, full of names of blasphemie, which had seue heades & ten hornes.

4 And ye woman was arayed in purple and rose color, and decked with golde, precious stone, and pearles, and had a cupp of golde in her honde, full of abhominacions, and fylthines of her wordome.

5 And in her forhed was a name wrytte, a mistery: greate Babilon the mother of whordome, and abominacions of the earth.

6 And I sawe the wyfe dronke with the bloude of sayntes, and with the bloud of the witnesses of Iesu. And when I sawe her, I wondred with greate mervayle.

7 And the angell sayde vnto me: wherfore meruayllest thou? I wyl shewe the the mistery of the woman, and of the beest that beerith her, which hath seuen heades, and ten hornes.

8 The beest that thou seest, was, and is not, and shall ascende out of the bottomlesse pytt, and shal go in to perdicion, and they that dwell on the earth shal wondre (whose names are not wrytten in the boke of life from the begynnyng of the worlde) when they beholde the beest that was, and is not.

9 And here is a mynde, that hath wissdome. The seuen heades are seuen mountanes, on which the woman sytteth: 10 they are also seuen kynges. Fyue are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come. When he commeth, he muste continue a space.

11 And the beest that was, and is not, is eue the eyght, and is of the seuen, and shal go in to destruccion.

12 And ye ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten kynges, which haue not yet receaued the kyngdome, but shal receaue power as kynges at one houre with ye beest.

13 These haue one mynde, and shal geue their power and strength vnto ye beeste.

14 These shal fyght with the lambe, and the labe shal ouercome them: For he is LORDE of all lordes, and kinge of all kynges: and they that are on his syde, are called, and chosen and faithfull.

15 And he saide vnto me: The waters which thou sawest, where ye whore sytteth, are people, and folke, and nacions, and tonges.

16 And the ten hornes, which thou sawest vpon the beest, are they that shal hate the whore, and shal make her desolate, and naked, and shall eate hir flesshe, and burne her with fyre.

17 For God hath put in their hertes, to fulfill his wyll, and to do with one consent, for to geue hir kyngdome vnto the beest, vntill the wordes of God be fulfilled.

18 And the woma which thou sawest, is that greate cite, which raineth ouer the kynges of the earth.

Chapter 18

1 And after that I sawe another angel come downe fro heaue, hauinge greate power, and ye earth was lyghtned with his bryghtnes.

2 And he cryed mightely with a stronge voyce, sayenge: She is fallen, she is fallen, euen greate Babilon, and is become the habitacion of deuels, and ye holde of all fowle spretes, and a cage of all vnclane and hateful byrdes:

3 for all nacios haue dronken of the wyne of the wrath of her whordome. And the kynges of the earth haue committed fornicacion with her, and her marchauntes are waxed ryche of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 And I herde another voyce from heauen saye: come awaye from her my people, that ye be not partakers of her synnes, lest ye receaue of her plagis.

5 For her synnes are gone vp to heauen, and the LORDE hath remembered her wyckednes.

6 Rewarde her euen as she rewarded you, and geue her dubble acordinge to her workes. And poure in dubble to her in the same cuppe, which she fylled vnto you.

7 And as moche as she gloryfied her selfe and lyued wantonly, so moch poure ye in for her of punysshment, and sorowe, for she sayeth in her herte: I syt beinge a quene, and am no wyddowe, and shall se no sorowe.

8 Therefore shal her plagis come at one daye, death, and sorowe, and hunger, and she shal be bret with fyre: for stronge is the LORDE God which shal iudge her.

9 And the kynges of the earth shal bewepe her and wayle ouer her, which haue committed fornicacion and lyued wantonly with her, when they shal se the smoke of her burnynge,

10 and shal stonde a farre off for feare of her punysshment, sayenge: Alas, Alas, that greate cite Babylon, that mighty cite: For at one houre is thy iudgment come.

11 And the marchauntes off the earth shal wepe and wayle in them selues, because no man will bye their ware eny more,

12 the ware of golde, and syluer, and of precious stones, off pearle, & sylke, and purple, and skarlet, & all Thynen wod, and all manner vessels of yuery, and all manner vessels of most precious wod, and of brasse, and of yron,

13 & synomom and odours, and oyntments, and frankynsence, and wyne, and oyle, and fyne floure, and wheate, and catell, and shepe, and horses, and charrettes, and bodies and soules of men.

14 And the apples that thy soule lusted after, are departed from the. And all things which were deyntie, and had in pryce, are departed from the, and thou shalt fynde them no more.

15 The marchauntes of these things which were waxed ryche by her, shall stonde afarre of for feare of the punysshment of her, wepyng and waylinge,

16 and sayenge: alas alas, that greate cite, that was clothed in sylke, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with golde, and precious stone, and pearles:

17 for at one houre so greate ryches is come to naught. And euery shippe gouerner, and all they that occupie shippes, and shippmen which worke in the see, stode a farre of,

18 and cryed, when they sawe the smoke of her burnyng, and sayde: what cite is like vnto this greate cite?

19 And they cast dust on their heades, and cryed wepyng, and waylinge, and sayde: Alas, Alas the greate cite, wherin were made ryche all that had shippes in the see, by the reason of her wares: for at one houre is she made desolate.

20 Reioyce ouer her thou heaue, and ye holy Apostles, and prophetes: for God hath geuen youre iudgment on her.

21 And a mighty angell toke vp a greate stone lyke a mylstone, and cast it in to the see, sayenge: with suche violece shal that greate cite Babylon be cast, and shalbe founde no more.

22 And the voyce of harpers, and musicians, and of pypers, and trompetters, shalbe herde no more in the: and no craftes man (of what soeuer craft he be) shalbe founde eny more in the: and the sounde of a myll shalbe herde no more in the:

23 and the voyce of the brydegrome and of the bryde, shalbe herde no more in the for thy marchauntes were prynces of the earth. And with thyn inchauntment were deceaued all nacions:

24 and in her was founde the bloude of the prophetes, and of the sayntes, and of all that were slayne vpo the earth.

Chapter 19

1 And after that, I herde the voyce of moch people in heauen, sayenge: Alleluia. Saluacion and glory and honour, and power be ascribed to the LORDE or God,

2 for true and righteous are his iudgmentes, because he hath iudged the greate whore (which did corrupt ye earth with her fornicacion) and hath auenged the bloud of his seruantes of her hond.

3 And agayne they sayde: Alleluia. And smoke rose vp for euermore.

4 And ye xxiiij: elders, & the foure beestes fell downe, and worshipped God that sat on the seate, sayenge: Amen: Alleluia.

5 And a voice came out of the seate, sayenge: prayse or LORDE God all ye that are his seruantes, & ye that feare him both small and greate.

6 And I herde the voyce of moch people, eue as ye voyce of many waters, & as ye voyce of stronge thondrynges, sayenge: Alleluia, for God omnipotent raigned.

7 Let vs be glad and reioyce, and geue honour to him: for the mariage of the labe is come, and his wife made her selfe ready.

8 And to her was graunted, that she shulde be arayed with pure and goodly sylke. (As for the sylke, it is the rightewesnes of sayntes.)

9 And he sayde vnto me: Blessed are they which are called vnto the Lambes supper. And he sayde vnto me: these are the true sayenges of God.

10 And I fell at his fete, to worshippe him. And he sayde vnto me: Se thou do it not. For I am thy felowe seruaunt, and one of thy brethren, and of them that haue the testimony of Iesus. Worshippe God. For the testimony of Iesus is ye sprete of prophesy.

11 And I sawe heaue open, & beholde, a whyte horsse and he yt sat vpon him, was called faithfull and true, & in rightewesnes dyd iudge and make battayle.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fyre, and on his heade were many crounes: & he had a name wrytten, that noman knewe but him selfe.

13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipt in bloude, and his name is called, ye worde of God.

14 And ye warriors which were in heauen, folowed him vpon whyte horsse, clothed with whyte and pure sylke

15 and out of his mouthe wente a sharpe swerde, that with it he shulde smyte the Heithen: And he shall rule them with a rodde of yron, and he trode the wynefatte of the fearcenesse and wrath of allmightye God.

16 And hath on his vesture and on his thyghe a name wrytten: Kynge of all kinges, and LORDE of all lordes.

17 And I sawe an angell stonde in the Sonne, and he cryed with a lowde voyce, sayenge to all the fowles that flye by the myddes vnder the heauen: Come and gaddre youre selues togedder vnto the supper of the gret God,

18 that ye maye eate the flesshe of kynges, and of hie captaynes, and the flesshe of mighty men, and the flesshe of horsse, and of the that syt on them, and the flesshe of all free men and bond men, both of small and greate.

19 And I sawe the beeste and the kynges of ye earth, and their warriors gadred togedder, to make battayle agaynste him that sat vpon the horsse, and agaynste his souldiers.

20 And the beeste was taken, and with him that false prophet that wrought myracles before him, with which he deceaued them that receaued the beestes marke, and them that worsshipped his ymage. These both were cast in to a ponde of fyre burnyng wt brymstone:

21 and the remnaunte were slayne with the swerde of him that sat vpon the horsse, which swerde proceded out of his mouth, and all the foules were filled with their flesshe.

Chapter 20

1 And I sawe an angell come downe from heauen, hauinge the keye of the bottomlesse pyt, and a gret chayne in his honde.

2 And he toke the dragon that olde serpent (which is the deuell and Satanas) and he bounde him a thousand yeares:

3 and cast him in to the bottomlesse pyt, and he bounde him, and set a seale on him, that he shuld disceue the people nomoare, tyll the thousand yeares were fulfilled. And after that muste he be lowsed for a littell season.

4 And I sawe seates, and they sat vpon them, and the iudgement was geuen vnto them: and I sawe the soules of them that were beheaded for the wytnes of Iesu, and for the worde of God: which had not worshipped the beest, nether his ymage, nether had taken his marke vpon their forheades, or on their hondes: and they lyued, and raygned with Christ a thousand yeare:

5 but the other of the deed men lyued not agayne, vntill the thousand yeare were fynished. This is that fyrst resurreccion.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath parte in the fyrst resurreccion. On soch hath the seconde deeth no power, but they shalbe the prestes of God and of Christ, and shall raygne with him a thousand yeare.

7 And when the thousand yeares are expyred, Sathan shalbe lowsed out of his preson,

8 and shal go out to deceaue the people which are in the foure quarters of the earth. Gog and Magog, to gadder them togedder to batayle, whose nombre is as the sonde off the see:

9 and they went vp on the playne of the earth, and compassed the tentes of the sayntes aboute, and the beloued cite. And fyre cam doune from God out of heauen, and deuoured them:

10 and the deuell that deceaued them, was cast in to a lake of fyre and brymstone, where the beest and the false prophet were, and shalbe tormented daye and night for euermore.

11 And I sawe a gret whyte seate, and him that sat on it, from whose face fled awaye both the earth and heauen, and their place was nomore founde.

12 And I sawe the deed, both gret and small stonde before God: And the bokes were opened, and another boke was opened, which is (the boke) of life, and the deed were iudged of tho things which were wrytten in the bokes accordinge to their dedes:

13 and the see gaue vp her deed, which were in her, and deeth and hell delyuered vp the deed, which were in them: and they were iudged euery man accordyng to his dedes.

14 And deth and hell were cast in to the lake of fyre. This is that second deeth.

15 And whosoeuer was not founde wrytten in the boke off life, was cast in to the lake of fyre.

Chapter 21

1 And I sawe a newe heauen and a newe earth. For the fyrst heauen, and the fyrst earth were vanisshed awaye, and there was nomore See.

2 And I Ihon sawe that holy cite newe Ierusalem come downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bryde garnished for hyr husband.

3 And I herde a greate voyce from the seate, sayenge: beholde, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he wil dwell with them. And they shalbe his people, and God himselfe shalbe with the, and shalbe their God.

4 And God shal wipe awaye all teares from their eyes. And there shalbe nomore deeth, nether sorowe, nether shal there be eny more payne, for ye olde things are gone.

5 And he that sat vpon the seate, sayde: Beholde, I make all things newe. And he sayde vnto me: wryte for these wordes are faithfull and true,

6 And he sayde vnto me: it is done I am Alpha and Omega, the begynnyng, and the ende. I wil geue to him that is a thyrst of the well of the water of life fre.

7 He that ouercommeth, shal inheret all things I wil be his God, and he shalbe my sonne.

8 But the fearefull and vnbeleuyng, and the abhominable, and murthurers, and whormongers, and sorcerers, and ydolaters, & all lyars, shal haue their parte in the lake, that burneth with fyre and brymstone, which is the seconde deeth.

9 And there came vnto me one of the seuen angels, which had the seuen vials full of the seuen last plages: and talked with me, sayenge: come hydder, I wil shewe the the bryde, ye labes wyfe.

10 And he caryed me awaye in ye sprete to a greate and an hie moutayne, and he shewed me the greate cite, holy Ierusalem descendinge out of heauen from God,

11 hauyng the brightnes of God. And her shynyng was lyke vnto a stone most precious, euen a laspar cleare as cristall: 12 & had greate and hie walles, and had twolue gates, and at ye gates twolue angels: and names wrytten, which are the twolue trybes of Israel:

13 on the est parte thre gates, and on the north syde thre gates, and towarde the south thre gates, and from the west thre gates:

14 and the wall of the cite had twolue foundacios, and in them the names of the lambes twolue Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me, had a golden rede to measure the cite with all, and the gates therof, and the wall therof.

16 And the cite was bylt foure square, and the length was as large as the bredth of it, and he measured the cite with the rede twolue M. furlonges: and the length and the bredth, and ye heyth of it, were equall.

17 And he measured the wall therof, an cxliij. cubittes, after ye measure of a man, which the angel had.

18 And the buyldinge of the wall of it was of Iaspar. And the cite was of pure golde, like vnto cleare glasse:

19 and ye foundacios of the walles and of ye cite were garnysshed with all maner of precious stones. The fyrst foundacion was a Iasper, the seconde a Saphyre, ye thyrde a Calcedony, the fourth a Smaragde:

20 the fyft a Sardonix: the sixt a Sardeos: the seuenth a Crysolite, the eyght berall: the nynth a Topas: the tenth a Crysprasos: the eleueth a Iacyncte: the twelfte an Amatist.

21 And the twolue gates were twolue pearles, and euery gate was of one pearle, and ye strete of the cite was pure golde, as a thoroweshynge glasse.

22 And I sawe no temple therin. For the LORDE God allmighty and the lambe is the temple of it,

23 and the cite hath no nede of the Sonne, nether of the mone to lyghten it. For the bryghtnes of God doth light it: and the lambe is the lyght of it.

24 And ye people which are saued, shal walke in the light of it: and the kynges of the earth shal brynge their glory vnto it.

25 And the gates of it shal not be shut by daye. For there shalbe no nyght there.

26 (Omitted Text)

27 And there shal entre in to it none vnclene thinge: nether what soeuer worketh abhominacion: or maketh lyes: but they which are wrytten in the lambes boke of life.

Chapter 22

1 And he shewed me a pure ryuer of water of life clere as cristall: proceedinge out of the seate of God and of ye lambe
2 in the myddes of the strete of it, and of ether syde of the ryuer was there wod of life: which bare twolue maner of frutes: and gaue frute euery moneth: and the leaues of the wodd serued to heale the people withall.

3 And there shalbe no more curse, but the seate of God and ye labe shalbe in it: and his seruantes shal serue him:

4 And shal se his face, and his name shalbe in their for heades.

5 And there shalbe no night there, and they nede no candle, nether light of the Sonne: for the LORDE God geueth the light, and they shal reygne for euermore.

6 And he sayde vnto me: these sayenges are faithfull, and true. And the LORDE God of the holy prophetes sent his angell to shewe vnto his seruantes, the thinges which muste shortly be fulfilled.

7 Beholde, I come shortly. Happy is he yt kepeth ye sayege of ye prophesy of this boke.

8 I am Ihon, which sawe these thinges and herde them. And whe I had herde and sene the, I fell downe to worshippe before the fete of the angell which shewed me these thinges.

9 And he saide vnto me: se thou do it not, for I am thy felowe seruaunt and the felowe seruaut of thy brethren the prophetes, and of them, which kepe the sayenges of this boke. Worshippe God.

10 And he sayde vnto me: seale not the sayenges of the prophesy of this boke. For the tyme is at hode.

11 He that doeth euell, let him do euell styll: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy styll: and he that is righteous, let him be more righteous: and he that is holy, let him be more holy.

12 And beholde, I come shortly, and my rewarde with me, to geue euery ma acordinge as his dedes shalbe.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, ye beginnyng and the ende: the first & the last.

14 Blessed are they that do his commaundementes, that their power maye be in the tree of life, and maye entre in thorow the gates in to the cite.

15 For without are dogges and inchaunters and whormongers, and mortherers, and ydolaters, and whosoouer loueth or maketh lesinges.

16 I Iesus haue sent myne angell, to testifie vnto you these thinges in the cogregacions. I am the rote and the generacion of Daudid, and the bright mornynge starre.

17 And the sprete and the bryde saye: Come. And let him that heareth, saye also: Come. And let him that is a thyrst, come. And let whosoouer wyll, take of the water of life fre.

18 I testifye vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of prophesy of this boke yf eny man shal adde vnto these thinges, God shal adde vnto him the plages that are wrytten in this boke.

19 And yf eny man shal mynische of the wordes of the boke of this prophesy, God shal take awaye his parte out of the boke of life, and out of the holy cite, and fro tho thinges which are wrytten in this boke.

20 He which testifyeth these thinges, sayth: Yee I come quyckly, Amen. Euen so: come LORDE Iesu.

21 The grace of oure LORDE Iesu Christ be with you all. Amen.
