Moses

Chapter 1: A Baby in a Basket

A long time ago, in Egypt, a baby named Moses was born. His family loved him, but the king, called Pharaoh, made a rule that all baby boys of their people should be taken away. To keep Moses safe, his mother put him in a basket and hid him in the river. Pharaoh's daughter found Moses and decided to raise him as her own.

Chapter 2: The Burning Bush

When Moses grew up, he lived far away as a shepherd. One day, he saw something amazing: a bush that was on fire but didn't burn up! God spoke to Moses from the bush and said, "Go to Pharaoh and tell him to let my people go!"

Moses

chapter 3: Let My People Go

Moses went to Pharaoh and said, "God says, let my people go!" But Pharaoh said no. God sent ten plagues to Egypt, like frogs, darkness, and rivers turning to blood, to show Pharaoh He meant it. Finally, Pharaoh said, "Go!"

Chapter 4: The Red Sea

Moses led the people out of Egypt, but Pharaoh changed his mind and chased after them with his army. They reached the Red Sea, and the people were scared. Moses raised his staff, and God parted the waters so they could walk through on dry ground!

Chapter 5: Food from Heaven

In the desert, the people were hungry and complained to Moses. God sent special food called manna from heaven every morning to feed them. Moses told the people to trust God to provide for them.

Chapter 6: The Ten Commandments

On Mount Sinai, Moses went up the mountain to talk to God. God gave him the Ten Commandments, special rules to help the people live good lives. When Moses came down, his face was shining from being so close to God.

Chapter 7: The Promised Land

After many years, Moses and the people came close to the Promised Land. Moses reminded them to obey God and trust Him always. Though Moses didn't enter the land, he saw it from a mountaintop, knowing God kept His promise.
